GIVE YOUR GAME BOY A TASTE OF COMBAT, CONTRA STYLE.

Mmmmm, Operation C™ for Game Boy™ has all the brutal battle flavor of the NES hit Contra™. But here's the bite: this time it's Scorpion alone versus Black Viper—Red Falcon's partner in slime—who's turned a secret naval lab into an experimental alien freak factory.

To blow away Black Viper's pit of hideous genetic mishaps, you must blitz five merciless war zones including Mutant Mountain, Phlegm Forest and the dreaded Cave 'O the Crud Creatures. All infested with zombie snipers, bloodthirsty squid lice, savage spider moths, devastating techno-terrors and more.

Of course, in true Contra style, you'll have to upgrade your arms as you go with Spread Guns, Fire Guns and the all new vermin-seeking Homing Gun. Three lives plus a Continue Mode may keep you going. But Black Viper's awfully hungry and you're going to make a tasty Blue Plate Special.

EGM PIONEERS EDITORS' CHOICE AWARDS!

How many times has this happened to you? You want to buy a game and you're at the store. You look at the boxes and from the information printed on the package - game description and screen shots, you buy the cart. Only to find out that it's too easy, or it just wasn't what you expected. That's $50+ down the drain. If it's any consolation, you're not alone. I'm reading dozens of similar letters each week. What makes it even worse is the fact that many of you are not buying these softs blindly. Quite a few players are getting the carts after reading a review from the 'experts'. But the problem is that many of the reviews are either always great or noncommittal. How many times have you read the overused phrase "...if you like these types of games...then you'll like this one." It's great for the magazine as the game manufacturer won't get upset, but the reader is left out in the cold.

We've taken our lumps for our honesty. In the past we lost advertisers because we gave one of their carts a less than average rating. But what we lost in ads we gained in loyal reader support. And your support helped us grow to be the best (and the largest) magazine in the industry. The advertisers have come back because you have told them that you read EGM. How? From our reader response cards that you fill out, for one. Each month these advertisers get a list of thousands and thousands of players that want more info on their products. Also by company 'focus groups'. This is the best test. Bring in a couple dozen players and put the game magazines on a table. Later they ask the players to rate the mags. And the answer....EGM. We've been honest, and you've been honest in your opinions. For this we thank you.

One of the many reasons why you buy our magazine is for our honest, tipperon review crew ratings of the new games. We have four players review every game, and each has his own particular likes and dislikes. Over time you will probably find yourself agreeing with one or another, and can take his numbers to be similar to what you would rate the game. But when all four agree that a certain title is great, then that cart is really outstanding.

These exceptional carts are now getting special attention. If the sum of all four of the reviewer's numbers is between 32 and 35 (all 8's or better) the company will be awarded a gold Editors' Choice Award. If the game gets a 36 rating (all 9's) they will get a platinum award. The company can then use these awards in their advertising, on their packaging or anywhere they see fit.

The one thing though, when you see the award you know it means something. No candy coating, and not the opinion of a single person, just the straight story from four players who are hard to impress.

EGM & DESERT STORM..

I am a 29 year old Sergeant in the United States Marine Corps, and I have just recently returned from the Persian Gulf region. While I was there I had my M16 and a gas mask to do battle. I also had an Atari Lynx and a supply of EGM to combat boredom. All four items were life savers. I would like to thank you for your support and kind offer that appeared in the July (Ed. Thank you for the kind words Chris. We here at Sendai are very proud of our troops who risked their lives to maintain peace in the world. The news was on constantly here at the offices and more often than not we would be watching the TV for the latest Gulf info. Congratulations for a job well done!

As we stated in the editorial, if anyone who served in the Persian Gulf wants a subscription to ANY of our issue of your magazine. You can have the best weapons money can buy, and you can have the strongest generals to lead the battle, but if the troops aren't motivated to fight, the war is lost. Well, I would like to say to you and all of America that gave us their support: "THANKS FOR THE MOTIVATION."

GAME GENIE IS LEGAL...!!

First of all, I would like to congratulate you on your totally awesome mag! It blows the others away! But I have some questions on the Game Genie. I've heard that the Genie shortens the life span of a game. What does that mean? And does the Genie damage the system? How much does it cost? And would you recommend getting it? Thanks!!

Sven A. Blomsterberg
Austin, TX

The LEGAL U.S. Game Genie!

I've heard a lot about Camerica's Game Genie. I am planning to buy it when I go to Canada next year. Is there any way it will be released in the U.S. before then? Give me some info.

Ian Miller
Edison, NJ

(Ed. Well guys, there's great news! Galoob won the lawsuit against the big N. That means within a month everybody here in the U.S. will be able to go to their local game store and buy this exceptional product!

Regarding the statement that the Genie shortens the life span of the game, it could. Not physically though. It won't burn out the game chips nor hurt the game system. But, if you type in an invincibility code and run through the game in 15 minutes when it would take you 3 days playing it normally, the 'life span' (meaning how long you would play the game till you beat it) is shortened.

The suggested list price will be $50. And would we recommend buying it? You bet! We are 100% behind this phenomenal device!

MORE SUPERGRAFX..!

I think your coverage of systems and game reviews puts the others to shame. As the proud owner of a SuperGrafx I would like to know why you don't cover this awesome machine? Is it because of the lack of software? Are there more games coming?

Anthony Zubin Oxnard, CA.

1941 has just been released for the SuperGrafx!

(Ed. We agree with you that this is an exceptional system. It is really too bad that more companies in Japan aren't supporting it. One new game every 4 months is not very good.

Even though EGM is the largest magazine in the industry, and consistently runs more pages each month than anybody else, space is always a problem. We will continue to offer the biggest and the best international coverage anywhere, and that is where you'll find out about the new SuperGrafx games. For even more SG info though, check our sister publication - Super Gaming, as that mag is devoted to the international softs.)

NUDITY IN STORMLORD?

I hate to bother you with this again, but back in issue 22 you said that Razor Soft will put clothes on the fairy in Stormlord. Another magazine said that Razor Soft won't compromise. I would like to believe you but for the record, who is right?

Rod Saxon
Ashland, AL

(Ed. You doubt us? This is an easy one to answer! We are. The fairy will be wearing a flesh colored bodysuit when the cart gets to the stores.)

ToeJam and EarlTM are trying to get away from the weirdest creatures in the universe.

SEGA BASHING...?

I don't mean to complain, but in recent issues I have noticed quite a bit of "Sega-Bashing." For instance I notice that you always compare Super NES games to Genesis games but you never compare Genesis games to Super NES games. How would you compare Sonic to SMB 4 and Streets of Rage to Final Fight. And lastly, your review of Sonic was outrageous. The way you raved about it, it sounded like it would get a 10. What brought it down to a 9?

Jason Melby
Canoga Park, CA

(Ed. Sega Bashing? Not us! While we may compare S-NES games to Genesis games, it is not because the Sega games are being picked on. Rather, we are comparing a new game with the best on the market at the present time. In some cases the S-NES game, because it is being run on hardware which does cool tricks, will be better than the Genesis game, but in other instances because Sega has more experience programming for their system the Genesis game will be better. Such was the case with Final Fight vs. Streets of Rage. Our Review Crew numbers of each game were run side by side just to show which is better.

As to giving games, like Sonic, a 10, we are very hesitant to give any game a perfect rating. While the 10 was used in the past, we have since then, refrained from calling a cart perfect. It may happen someday but for the meanwhile 4 9's will be the best any game can hope to get.)

GREAT TURBO COVERAGE!

In issue 19 your Turbo insert was the best one yet! While that was 6 months ago there were photos of new games in there that the other mags have yet to cover! Even the all Turbo fanzine can't come close to keeping us up to date on new products. Since you get the news first, what can we expect to see in the future?

Rafael Hinjos
Chihuahua, Mexico

(Ed. You're really going to like this issue Rafael! No wimpy 2 page buyer's guide here. How about 16 pages of new, never before seen, Turbo games? Our Contract Publishing Division, in cooperation with NEC and all of it's licensees, has created a new Turbo Champ supplement and, like the previous one, we get a glimpse into the near and distant future of the TurboGrafx 16, the TurboExpress, and their CD-ROM peripheral. All of the new software is described and shown and, as usual, it's only in EGM - the authoritative resource of video games!

Shape Shifter, with multilayered backgrounds, is coming for the TurboGrafx!

Earthlings.

SEGA CD-ROM UPDATE....!

I'm sold! Sega has really shown everybody that they are solidly into games with their well designed and thought out MEGA-CD-ROM. Does it really have 6 meg of RAM? Awesome! I can't wait till it comes out over here. It is going to make the Super NES look like chopped meat! Tell us more! What games are coming out?

Erik Applegate
San Diego, CA

You couldn't believe how excited I got when I saw the REAL picture of the Sega CD-ROM on your latest cover! I couldn't wait to read all about it and you didn't disappoint me! As usual you had the info first and that's why I buy your mag. Can you keep us up to date each month as you did with the Super Famicom? How about a Mega-CD column?

Jesse Purcell
Wichita, KS

I knew you guys would be the first with the actual info on the Sega CD-

ROM! It sounds like it will update the Genesis hardware to a point where it will surpass the features of the Super NES. Tell me it will! How about some game screens now? The others will take forever before they get the details. No! One will acknowledge its existence in Sept., the second in October and the last not till June because they only talk about U.S. products in the stores. Keep up the great work!

Telly Perez
New Haven, CT

Earnest Evans, an Indiana Jones-type quest game by Wolf Team will be one of the first Japanese Mega-CD games!

(Ed. New information on the phenomenal Mega-CD-ROM is coming in weekly from our World Net™ sources.

First there are a few new specs you'll want to know. The access time has been clocked at a minuscule 1 second! Also, since the Mega CD-ROM has memory to burn, Sega has allocated 1 megabit just for the instructions on how to operate the unit! And, the sound specs are among the best ever! Sampling is at 32 KHz and there is an 8 times over sampling digital filter! That's better than some home players! Graphically, the new MC68000 will be able to do a lot of cool tricks like biaxial rotation, enlarging, shrinking, zoom, fade in and out. All in hardware rather than in software as it is now being done!

Check out our International Outlook section in this issue for game screens and more info. As you will see, the first games to come out will be heavy-duty military simulations and RPG's. All in Japanese. For this reason, Sega of America is holding back on releasing it over here until developers can finish up on the U.S. CD's.

Check it out. ToeJam and Earl are two hip hoppin' aliens in a most serious jam. They're stuck on Earth.

So keep your eyes and ears peeled for a couple of rappin' aliens gettin' busy in a new game. Only on Genesis. They'll be the ones getting chased by the mad dentist, the crazed shopper, a nerd herd and every other Earth-freak around. You can't miss 'em.

WHO'S ON FIRST..?

First of all, I must congratulate you on a great magazine. I think, excuse me, I know that your magazine is the best out of all the magazines that are out. I look at all of them in the stores and if one looks like it has something new, then I'll buy it. Yours has gotten to the point where I'll buy it every month.

One thing which disturbs me is when another magazine lists a game as an exclusive or uses words that tells the reader that they can see it there first. I admit, it catches my eye, but after checking it out I find it is something that you have covered months ago. Aren't there laws against that. Also how can others run the same inserts that are obviously ones you created and ran in your mag? Do they think the players don't know who covers a game first?

Brian Duffy
New Orleans, LA

I just had to drop you a note telling you that I like the changes that you are making to your magazine. The best change are the inserts you run. While I may not be interested in every one that you run, at least they have variety and are different each issue. The ones that I did like (NEC, Lynx and EA) were thorough and complete and show a lot of new games and info. Keep them coming! You haven't done a Sega one yet.

Drexel Hoffman
Collinsville, OK

(Ed. We agree with you that it is confusing to see a game in one magazine one month and then as a 'first' in another mag the next month. We got a good chuckle about the Ninja Gaiden 3 claim but hey, as the industry tightens it's belt, and the other mags can't keep up with us in size (even those with unrelated computer coverage) some will do anything to try to get more attention. The irony of it is that they aren't fooling the readers.

The reader response to our inserts and supplements has been overwhelmingly positive! After reading hundreds and hundreds of your letters, we are very excited about the inserts and supplements planned through 1991 and into 1992. Response from the industry is equally as positive, and as our Contract Publishing Divisions staffs up to meet the demand, you will see multiple inserts and supplements each and every month through the end of the year! And they are all free to the readers! Can't complain about that! No Sega insert yet? Wait till next month. You'll need two hands to carry our October issue!

MEGA DRIVE GAMES..

I need your unmatched wisdom of foreign games to help me out. I have all the good U.S. games and I want to get some cool looking Japanese games. Can you preview more good MD games that won't come out over here? And since MD games are $20+ more than the same Genesis game, make sure that you tell us if the game will come out in the U.S.

Matt Hults
Bloomington, MN

One company that advertises in your magazine is listing an 'uncensored' Mega Drive version of DJ Boy. What's the difference?

A. Patrick O'Gorman
Hustisford, WI

(Ed. Our international section previews each month, the best games from across the ocean. Unfortunately we can not say with certainty whether they will ever come out in the U.S. That's the chance you have to take with buying foreign games. The Japanese version of DJ Boy has racial scenes that would be frowned on here in the U.S.)

Nintendo - Jaleco Shatterhand

Type: Action Release: Now
Levels: 7 Difficulty: Avg.

Shatterhand really gives a definition of the term "fists of steel". The world is under the control of a hostile group of power-crazed conspirators, and you have to stop them. Collect coins to purchase health and 1 ups and collect symbols to get specialized robot drones that each contain a unique weapon that does devastating damage. The fate of the world depends on your skills and strength.

Shatterhand represents one of the rare games that uses a tried and true theme but then supports it with a compliment of good graphics, sound, action and play technique. The game may have some familiar features, but the package is totally unique. Bravo Jaleco!

It's going to be a no name sleeper and you can't afford to miss this great cart. Nothing new here but everything is just done perfectly. And when that happens, you end up with a game that is actually fun to play. One of the best games to come along in quite a while.

Finally another decent game came out for the Nintendo. Shatterhand! Its been a long time since I've played a game that offers the graphic, sound, and game play that this game offers. Also, it has 9 completely intense power-ups. However is a bit too easy.

Shatterhand is mind-shattering! The developers at Natsume are obviously behind this one! The feel and control are reminiscent of Shadow of the Ninja, another awesome game. The graphics are well done, the control is excellent, and the music rocks! I hope to see more titles like this.

Nintendo - Jaleco Bases Loaded 3

Type: Sports Release: Now
Levels: NA Difficulty: Avg.

Jaleco will soon produce the third installment of their hit series, Bases Loaded. The game is played in a behind-overhead perspective. The game contains many improvements over the previous version in all aspects of the game. Other things that this cart contains is a mode that you can switch off the music and sound effects. The stats and names of the players can be changed as well. Fans of the originals rejoice.

While I'm a big fan of baseball games, this update to the original Bases Loaded seems slightly unnecessary to me. The game progression is not that pronounced and the graphics, set-up and execution each require a longer-than-average curve to learn. I pass.

I like baseball games and they have improved dramatically over the last year. But the only reason to bring out a new version is if there are MAJOR improvements. The game is slightly better than BL2 but this version is hard to get used to. It's not a bad game, but not revolutionary.

Bases Loaded 3 looks just like Super Bases Loaded for the SNES. However, the graphics and game play aren't as good as BL2. The reverse perspective doesn't work when you are hitting and fielding the ball. The idea was good to revamp BL2 but it just didn't work.

Bases Loaded 3 is an example of a game that seems to have been rushed through production. The game play is not spectacular and not as good as BL2. The graphics are better and approach that of their S-NES version. The other improvements are minor and not spectacular.

Super NES - Enix Actraiser

Type: RPG Release: Now
Levels: 19 Difficulty: Avg.

Take the role of an angel who must force back the clutches of evil so that your people can prosper. First you'll need to settle your land so that you can start your village. Fight out battles in furious side-scrolling panoramas and bring forth civilizations in an overhead perspective. The more land you can claim for your people, the more power you will attain and the more creatures you can cut down.

This game is the perfect melding of Populous and Castlevania, with strategy segments that lead into incredibly detailed action sequences. The building sections are straight-forward enough and while the battle scenes lack power-ups, the detail in animation and sound is amazing.

I like quest games and this is the best ever made. The game play is perfect, not too hard to make it frustrating but challenging to make it difficult. Graphics and audio are what the S-NES is all about - superb. Finding a game better than this is going to be hard to do.

This game is one of the best games that is out for the Super NES. the graphics and game play are incomparable to all others, and the music is absolutely awesome! Not only is the game a intense action game but it has a little RPG in it to which makes the game fun.

Truly awesome! This is the quest/RPG game which all others will be compared to, no matter what system the game is on. Unbelievable music which is a soundtrack rather than just random noise. The graphics are spectacular and the quest challenging.

Super NES - Irem Super R-Type

Type: Shoot Release: Nov.
Levels: 7 Difficulty: Avg.

The Bydo empire is back, and this time in 16-bit S-NES style. Your task is to pilot the R-9 attack cruiser into the very center of the empire and take out the ultimate ruler once and for all. The Cruiser can be equipped with a special pod that can produce many devastating attacks such as reflector lasers, flaming balls, and ring lasers. Hold down the attack button for a major blast or hold it longer for even more power!

Super R-Type is a hodge-podge of the very best from both the arcade games with a large cup of new material thrown in for good measure. It's vintage R-Type, with incredible graphics, sharp weapons and awesome enemies. It's too easy and too short, but the trip is spectacular.

Easily the best S-NES shooter on the market. But, it appears that it is too good. Whether the massive slowdown is due to the slow CPU in the S-NES or inexperienced programmers, it is major. Stunning graphics, fantastic weapons and huge bosses make it a sight to see though!

Super R-Type is great. the sound to this game is incredible and the music tracks go on and on. The game play is what hurts the game a lot because it suffers from slow down and there is some flicker. If this game played like a Thunder Force 3 or a Gaiars it would be a definite 9.

Super R-Type is an amazing shooter with one minor flaw: slow down. After that, it's great!! All of the power-ups, HUGE bosses, and jamming music are all here with more to spare! Any shooter fan should pick this up, but be warned, it's a little easy, too. At least there's a difficulty mode!

Super NES - Nintendo Pilotwings

Type: Sim. Release: Now
Levels: 8 Difficulty: Avg.

The first breed of Simulator on the S-NES. Take control of many different vehicles and items that will challenge every piloting skill that you can muster. Take control of an ancient biplane. Learn to control your weight while suspended from a parachute. Perfect your hang gliding skills. Even steer the power of a jetpack through a very taxing obstacle course! A treat for all simulator fans everywhere!

This game is less of a game than it is a show-off cartridge for what your Super NES can do with its scaling and rotation. For the great majority of the game, it's you against yourself in various flying craft testing skills of aviation in a real pseudo-three-dimensional universe. Pretty good!

Yes, it looks good, and it does things no other home game has ever been able to do but, when it gets down to it, the actual game is rather thin. I tired of the geo-whiz scaling and rotation after the first hour and then started looking for the challenge, which never appeared.

Pilot wings doesn't have the graphics and sound that other Super NES games have but the game gives a whole new light to flight simulation. I like the different things you can pilot and the jet pack is my favorite. The best thing about this game are the really cool wipe outs you have.

Pilot Wings is a cool show-off game for the Super Nintendo's new Mode 7 scaling and rotational capabilities. The challenge is high, and it even has a touch of humor! Try landing without opening your parachute! Hilarious! I hope Nintendo makes a sequel to this one.

Genesis - Sega Super Volleyball

Type: Sports Release: Now
Levels: NA Difficulty: Avg.

The latest and improved version of the hit cart Super Volleyball will soon be back on the Genesis. Use your spikes, sets, bumps, and other agile movements to work your way through the championships and end up with the trophy. Choose your team out of a number of different foreign teams that have many different strengths and weaknesses. Have a friend over and compete with them for more added fun.

This game gets a couple of strikes right out of the game. First, the theme is not exactly at the top of anyone's list. Secondly, the game play is entirely two-dimensional, an incredibly bad trait for any "sports" simulation. It's topped off with control that leave much to be desired.

Certainly not one of the best games I have ever seen on this system. The graphics are flat and game play isn't fun. It's far too easy, and lacks...everything. It looks more like a Game Gear cart than one for the Genesis. Nuff said.

I wasn't impressed at all with this volleyball game. I know that this is the first volleyball game for the Genesis but they could have done a better job. The game is fun when you first start playing it but it gets old really fast because the game play is repetitive and easy to master.

Super Volleyball is a waste of the Genesis! Although the idea is good and the execution is okay, there is no reason that this title couldn't have been in 3D. The 2D perspective take away much of the imagination and causes Super Volleyball to be repetitive and boring.

Genesis - Electronic Arts NHL Hockey

Type: Sports Release: Now
Levels: NA Difficulty: Avg.

Electronic Arts' latest addition to the Genesis' sports arena is a hockey simulation. You have your choice of NHL Teams, each with their own stats for each individual player. Hit the ice in a furious, action packed cart that contains all the grunts, groans, and crunches of the real game. Be careful, if you get into a fight you'll be sent into the box. Two player is even more exciting. Instant replay included!

EA strikes again with another intense sports game that not only captures the essence of the sport it's recreating, but also throws in many video game elements to really make the game explode! Awesome graphics and incredible play combine to make another great EA sports game.

EA strikes again! It is beginning to look like sports games are their specialty. This IS hockey. Better than anything on any system and even the computers. EA won the Madden vs. Montana football battle and from what I saw, Sega shouldn't even try their hockey. This one can't be beat.

Now this is the kind of sports game I would expect to see on the Genesis. This game is awesome. The graphics are a great and the game play gives you the effect of actually skating on ice. They even added a cool extra replay mode that is cool. I like the rewind mood.

NHL Hockey is awesome! The instant replay is the best feature to be placed in a sports game ever! I hope EA decides to place it in all of their upcoming titles... Anyway, it's a near perfect blend of graphics and sports action. The only complaint is the slightly difficult play control.

Genesis - Renovation Arcus Odyssey

Type: RPG Release: Now
Levels: 8 Difficulty: Avg.

Off in a distant time period, two forces clashed. Good and evil. They were in the form of Lealy and the evil sorceress Castomira. Evil had lost this confrontation and was striped of its power over the land. However, Castomira is starting to rise again in the land of Arcus. and now you and a group of warriors are sent to destroy her once and for all. Parallax scrolling and a great sound track are in this Gauntlet style cart.

Take the animation routines from Final Zone and throw in some RPG overtones and you get this new entry from Reno. While they've mastered the control problems that plagued the earlier effort, the seek and find theme and lack of real confrontation left me cold. Will appeal to some, however.

Arcus is a good change from the run-of-the-mill Sega games that have been coming out recently. I like the two player version and that alone is makes the game worth while. Throw in plenty of action and a funky 3-D perspective and the game comes out good. Control takes some practice.

The game is cool!!!! It has 8 levels of 8 Meg power and the graphics are great. You have a choice of four different characters to play from and I love the Two player simultaneous mode. The one let down in this game is that it is a bit to easy and the end came much to soon for me.

Arcus Odyssey is a little frustrating a first, but the game play becomes better as you go along. It's not a spectacular game, but it reminds me of that cool shooter, Elemental Master for the Mega drive. The 3D perspective here doesn't help the game, but it adds a touch of style.

TurboGrafx 16 - Working Design Parasol Stars

Type: Action Release: Oct.
Levels: 6 Difficulty: Mod.

The third installment in the Bubble Bobble trilogy will soon be coming to the Turbo from a new company - Working Design. You are sent to rid a planet from a horde of nasty creepizoids that have overridden the planet. Use your Parasol to pick up enemies to whip them at the other creatures. Bubbles that appear can be collected for a truly mega blast of intense water! Good scrolling and cute graphics accompany this cart.

With Parasol Stars you get a game that displays some ties to Bubble Bobble and other Taito games, gives you plenty of levels to conquer and then throws it all together in a package that does very little to create any real excitement. Stars is too repetitive and just isn't much fun.

Once in a while I like a game that is mindless fun. I don't have to think about strategy, and can just plow ahead having fun in the process. The younger players will have a blast with this one as that seems to be the target audience. Not for the die-hard action players.

Parasol Stars, Or should I say Bubble Bobble 3, isn't not that bad of a game. I mean, the graphics are decent and the game play is good, but the thing that makes it so good, is that it's fun. It isn't really hard, but the length of the game makes up for that entirely. Very Decent!

Parasol Stars is a perfect sequel to Bubble Bobble! As Bubble Bobble 3, Parasol Stars makes you the owner of magical umbrellas, and you throw enemies and bubbles instead of blowing them. Cool idea, but it's a little too easy. After you master the simple techniques, it's all over.

GameBoy - Konami Castlevania 2

Type: Adv. Release: Nov
Levels: 5 Difficulty: Avg.

The first Castlevania on the GameBoy proved to be the most memorable. Soon, the sequel to the ever popular game will be coming out! The quest is in similar design to the previous cart. Though this time, the quest is larger, and there are more hidden items and bigger, badder bosses. Some characters are the same as well as new ones. And all the power ups are retained to make this the best cart yet!

This is about as good as an action game can get on the GameBoy. Those who are familiar with the original GB version will find A LOT in common with the sequel, that doesn't diminish the payoff of a game with rich backgrounds, detailed characters and fast-paced play techniques.

Don't expect anything new here. This isn't a sequel, it is a continuation of the first game. Virtually everything is the same. That's not bad as the first was such a great game. Players will like this version as, like the first, the game play is great, as are the graphics and challenge.

The second Castlevania adventure for the GameBoy is even better than the first. The graphics are top notch, the music is really cool and the game play is awesome with more power-ups, hidden rooms and special techniques than the first. One of the best carts available for the GB.

Castlevania 2 is marvelous, but short. Like a typical GameBoy game the graphics are nothing to write home about, but they do for now. The music deserves the same comment, but keep in mind that this is a challenging game! All Castlevania fans will love it! I did.

Lynx - Atari Turbo Sub

Type: Shoot Release: Oct.
Levels: 6 Difficulty: Avg.

The next card up for the growing line up of lynx game is Turbo Sub. Guide your special attack cruiser through enemy infested territory. But not only will you be able to do battle in the sky, but you can also dive under the sea any time you want to really shell it out. Many attack fighters and enemy sea monsters will attack you mercilessly. The action is viewed in first perspective and the action never stops.

While Turbo Sub boasts some dandy themes, the execution of each of the different elements in Turbo Sub is a bit haphazard. Flying above and below the waterline popping off enemies is cool, but the play mechanics that are employed remain a bit haphazard. Not bad though.

If this is a sample of the new Lynx games then Atari is going to set a lot of systems. The animation is great and the scaling is spectacular. It's about time that the games get better. It's a fun game that controls well. The in-and-out-of-water sequence is exceptionally well done.

Well I have been waiting for another good game to come out on the Lynx and I think that this one is it. The best thing about the game is that there are some really neat animation, and the game play is good, making the game very fun. I hope the guys at Atari will make more games like this.

Turbo Sub is a cool Lynx game. Now those are three words you rarely see in one sentence, but it's true. If the incredible scaling doesn't rope you in, perhaps the ability to dive underwater or take off for the sky at anytime is variety enough for you. I like the windshield wipers...

GAMING GOSSIP

...Hold on to your joysticks boys and girls, the big bopper is back, with more of the meatiest gossip from inside and out the video game world! The Q-Meister gets some help on the international beat this month from Terry-Aki, EGM's main man on the streets of Japan who's got the dirt on the new Super NES CD-ROM drive! Mr. Aki's been researching this one for some time and it looks hot...It appears that the big 'N' won't be hitting with their advanced CD-I drive now being developed by Philips until August of '92. That's when video gaming's megacorp. unloads with a new peripheral upgrade to the Super Famicom that many in the know (like me) are saying will spin games into a whole new dimension. How successful Nintendo will be and initial game titles, however, remains to be seen...Meanwhile, the Q-Mann has learned from Terry-A. that the Sony 'Play Station' system, which is little more than a CD-ROM/Super NES hybrid, won't be showing up in the Land of the Rising Sun. That's right you Quarter-maniacs, our buddies across the big blue won't ever get to play with this nifty new machine! Ha! Ha! Ha! The Sony machine sound mean, but who's up for the softs?...In other CD-ROM news, Sega's super CD system, which was recently shown to U.S. game fans for the first time in last month's issue of EGM, will be getting a shot in the arm from the folks at JVC, who are set to market a dual console that plays both carts and Mega-CD discs!...If you know so much about video games, how can you give SC a 9.5??? What a joke...

...Now that the Game Genie has made bond and is out on its own merits, the Quartermann has to ask, once and for all, what Nintendo was trying to protect all of us good little game playing boys and girls from? Seriously, you may be the Super 'N' against Judge Wapner, but the only thing the Game Genie will do in the Q-Mann's opinion is breathe some new life into games like Chubby Cherub and Iron Tank...Speaking of the Genie, could a 16-Bit Sega or Nintendo model be far behind???...Dan, Dan, Dan - Don't take life so seriously...Don't be surprised to see 3-D video games very soon on the upscale systems. While yours truly must keep his lips locked for now, rumor has it that a company will be springing such games into the 16-Bit market soon! Don't know whether or not you have to wear silly red and blue glasses, but the effects are said to be quite intense...

...Atari has finally yielded to the masses and unveiled the Lynx 2! Although the company doesn't like to call it that, the Quartermann finds the new device to be totally buff, with new features and a cool look that make the old model obsolete. Now that they've gotten one piece of promised hardware into our hands, where are the games to go with it?...Guess we'll get to see the Star Wars trilogy on our Nintendo's as well as on video! The first installment is nearing completion while the second title, The Empire Strikes Back, is jammin' along. A third game based on Return of the Jedi is only a matter of destiny...Get ready for another video game show on television this Fall! From the same producers of Video Power, the hyper-cartoon show starring that kid who acts like he eats too many Cherrios in the morning, comes the first game show based around the games themselves!...

...Sure, everyone's looking to CDs for full-screen, full-motion video in their games, but the Q-Mann sees the sun rising on digitized graphics like the ones you'll soon be seeing in Williams' new Terminator 2 video for the arcade! The machine is buff to the max, with full-motion, full-screen clips from the movie that are so good, it looks like you're watching the movie itself! Believe the Quartermann, when you see how much fun it is to blow chunks out of Arnold's head and see intermissions that include footage cut from the movie, you'll be blown away as well! It's new technology pushed to the max that only Williams seems to be able to deliver...Quartermann loved Terminator 2, but I still can't figure out how they got the T-1000 back though time when only living tissue can be transported! Also, in the movie there was another five years until armedgeddon but by the film's own timeline it was already 1995 (10-year-old John Conner was born in '85). Don't look at me...That's it this time around kiddies! Be sure to tune in to this same magazine next month for the complete scoop of what's hot and what's not anywhere and everywhere around the world of electronic gaming!...

GAME GENIE LEGAL IN U.S.!
GAME ACTION REPLAY ADDS NEW FEATURES TO ANY NES CART!

Early in July Lewis Galoob Toys, Inc. announced that they had been advised by U.S. District Court Judge Fern Smith that the court has ruled in favor of Galoob in their lawsuit with Nintendo of America regarding the manufacture and sale of Galoob's new Game Genie™ video game enhancer.

With the Game Genie now legal in the U.S. (the Canadian courts have previously ruled that the Game Genie is legal in Canada), Galoob announced that the Genie would be available to consumers within the next 60 to 90 days.

EGM has also found out that the Game Genie will first undergo test marketing in Chicago and Dallas before the national rollout. The Genie is expected to retail for about $50.

Basically the Genie is a device which connects between the game cartridge and the game system. With the Genie installed, you can type in, on a special passcode screen, up to 3 codes (6 codes if you 'gang' two Genies together). Depending on the game these codes can give you extra (or infinite) lives, energy, weapons etc. They could let you start on any level, or give your character exceptional abilities. It does this by temporarily altering the program code for the specific function. Since the original unaltered game cartridge program code is 'permanent', when the system is shut off, the changes you made are erased from the system's memory.

Enter the passcodes in the special screen for new tricks!

Try out new 'minus worlds' by jumping OVER the flagpole in SMB!

At about the same time the Game Genie hits the stores, another great product, called the Game Action Replay should be appearing also. This device has the ability of storing game information. Most NES games don't have a battery back-up nor do they use a password for a 'save' feature. With the GAR, you can save your current location in any NES game! Should you, up to a year later, want to continue the game you saved, the GAR will download that game location back into the machine and you can continue your game!

Consider the possibilities! Say you get to a spot in a game where you normally lose your life. Save the game before that spot and then continue the game. Should you die, you download that spot again and try it over and over until you do it right! It sure beats having to lose a life and starting back at the beginning of the level!

Besides this unique save feature the GAR can give you adjustable slow-motion action on any game.

The GAR will retail for about $60 for the NES and it comes with 256 kbits of memory. While not sounding like a lot, it doesn't download the whole game and it can save about 5 different games. A 4096 kbit model will be available but not in the U.S. Genesis, Famicom and Super Famicom versions are being considered.

First Batch of Sega Mega Drive CD-ROM Games Announced!

Sur Dé Wave/Mega Drive CD-ROM NOSTALGIA 1907

One of the first CD's will be a detective-type mystery game quite similar in concept to Murder Club for the Turbo-CD. This version offers hundreds of very detailed half screen graphics. You must investigate and search through a luxury liner set in the early part of the 20th century. Ask questions, get clues, and find evidence.

Game Arts/Mega Drive CD-ROM LUNAR

It's the first RPG for the Mega-CD-ROM and it's unlike any other to date! Take your party of 5 on a quest that is longer, harder and more involved than any you've ever tried! The intermissions feature huge characters, which animate as smooth as movie film. And all without the bothersome black screen during data access. The battle scenes are very detailed, like those in Dragon Quest 5 and the sound...equal to if not better than the Turbo CD's!

LEAP INTO ACTION!

Incredible dangers await you, Prince Talmi, as you set out to rescue the wildest amusement park ever built – MARVEL LAND!

Dodge massive enemy assaults while hanging on to rollicking roller coasters. Take tremendous leaps between gigantic Ferris wheels! Escape King Mole's wrath by diving through hidden warp doors that teleport you instantly throughout the park.

As Prince of the Dragonmen, your mission is to defeat monstrous Bosses by outwitting them in challenging games such as Musical Holes. Use your greatest weapon, the power "Spirit Whip" to destroy all invaders in this 8 MEGABIT wonder from Namco! Get set for fantastic Bonus Round action in the Namco Light Parade and earn Big Points! Death defying adventure awaits as you struggle to liberate Marvel Land from the clutches of the evil Mole King.

He is looking towards a green pipe that has just opened. A Goomba enemy is visible on the ground near the pipe. The background consists of brown brick walls and a blue sky with white clouds. The top of the screen displays the game's HUD, including the level number '1-1', the score '000000', the word 'LIFE', and the word 'ITEM' followed by a small icon of a power-up.

Sega/Mega Drive CD DEMO DISC

OK, so it's not a game but we thought you would be as impressed with what the system can do as we were. Scaling, biaxial rotation, and zoom are now done by the hardware. Full motion video and other cool tricks are possible with this super dual processor system. Hmmm, does the Sega Genesis + CD ROM = the Giga Drive that we talked about in earlier issues???

Treco/Mega Drive FIGHTING MON- STERS

Alien wrestlers must be the latest thing in Japan as here comes yet another. Choose your monster from 12 different beings and then get set to wrestle the other 11. Beat all of them and then take on the alien boss - Valgas. Or, play the game is the Vs. mode with a friend. In this version, again pick your alien, and it's the best two out of three matches. Some great effects like flying and spitting fire set this soft apart from the other grapplers.

Konami/ GameBoy KONAMIC GOLF

The masters of game design are moving into the GameBoy system with a new golf game. It's a huge (at least for GameBoy standards) 2 meg cart and with this extra memory they packed in 18 holes of very realistic golf action. Play in either the tournament mode, the Vs. mode against the computer, a Vs. mode against a friend, or a practice mode where you can select any hole and try it over and over again.

GALAXY GAZETTE

Aerostar Blasts To Earth!

It has been many years since the Intergalactic Council allowed the earth to be populated after a series of devastating wars. In the years following our return we as a people have struggled for survival. The most difficult battle is still ahead. At this writing, mutant forces are wreaking havoc on our defenseless planet.

Our cry for help has not gone unanswered. The Intergalactic Council has made an effort to stop these violent attacks by deploying AEROSTAR. This state-of-the-art nuclear-generated vehicle of destruction is ready to face the most intense combat. Unfortunately, AEROSTAR is missing the most important factor—a pilot.

As the search for our defender persists, conditions on earth grow worse. The human people can only hope salvation is near.

Intergalactic Council Meeting Today.

Members from nine galaxies are here to discuss the future of our forces. They hope to reach an agreement on how to destroy the enemy. Earth leaders fear the attacks. Intergalactic forces will reach Earth soon.

Light Boy is Bound to Attract Attention!

I can't take my Light Boy any place without making a commotion. All I wanted was a few private moments on the Game Boy before the offense got off the field; but now I've got these rookies from the other team in here. They like the way Light Boy makes the Game Boy screen light up in the dark. The 1½ times magnification is great, too. Light Boy is bound to attract attention.

Now, how do I get rid of these guys?

- Bilateral lighting
- Batteries included
- 1.5 magnification
- Replaceable light bulbs

CD POWER!

HI-TECH GAMING!

Compact discs have certainly become the wave of the future! As the first home entertainment system with CD technology, TurboGrafx™-16

Entertainment SuperSystem has games guaranteed to blow the consumer market wide open. NEC is taking leaps and bounds to produce high quality games for the TurboGrafx-CD peripheral.

The CD-ROM has real capabilities far above cartridges. The memory storage alone is 5200 Meg versus the nearest cart at 12 Meg! Also, the incorporation of motion video sequences makes new games like interactive TV.

The TurboGrafx-CD player also has the ability to play any audio compact disc as well as CD+G discs! Enjoy your favorite music artist or conquer a kingdom, it's that simple! The incredible game memory that CD technology made possible has enabled programmers to let their imagination go free. The compact disc can store voices, motion video, animations, and real music! Grasshoppers chirp, vocalists sing, and bands play.

With this audio/visual support, games can now tell stories with emotion - never before have video games made you laugh, cry, or feel scared the way CD games do. Gaming will never be the same.

NID SQUEEZES THE COMPETITION!

Actually, the new NID (New Interactive Display) technology by NEC squeezes graphics images using a compression ratio of 100 to 1, increasing the storage capacity of a compact disc a hundred-fold! This technology will allow for 74 minutes of full motion footage or about 20,000 still photos on one 5-inch compact disc. The full ramifications of such specifications have yet to be seen, but the end result can only be stupendous. Imagine a game where you actually play or edit a motion picture. The fun, challenge, and excitement are endless! You can control your own interactive television show! Best of all, the new peripheral will be compatible with the existing TurboGrafx-CD player, proving that the TurboGrafx-16 is the word in expandability!

A megabucks prototype has already been produced and NEC is now in the process of miniaturizing the hardware for consumer use. Although there is no announced date for NID, many new compact disc games for the TurboGrafx-CD player are surfacing.

CD+G HITS THE MARKETPLACE

The latest off-shoot of the audio disc category is CD+G: compact disc with graphics. Standard music discs use about 95 percent of the storage space on a compact disc. Record companies are now using the remaining five percent to record a graphics track that allows consumers to watch visual images, such as photos of their favorite stars, on their TV screen synchronized to the music. Lyrics, in multiple languages, and chords can also be displayed, allowing listeners to sing or play along with the music.

Because the graphics information is encoded on previously unused space, the sound quality and amount of music on the disc is not affected, unlike CDVs, which replace part of the audio track with video. CD+Gs also retail for about the same price as standard audio discs.

Warner New Media is a leading developer of CD+Gs.

A CD+G sample disc from Warner New Media, a top compact disc producer, will be packed with specially marked TurboGrafx-CD players this Fall as a brand new promotion.

Another sequel in a legendary series, Valis III propels the story of the sword of Valis to new heights. Once again, Valis III is formatted for play on other home systems, but the TurboGrafx-CD version is the only complete adventure! The opening sequence alone is huge. It has voice interlude and more animation than its predecessors.

World with their own special powers and abilities. Meet Cham, a former inhabitant of the Dark World, and Valna, Yuko's twin sister whom we met in the second Valis story.

SPORTS-MANIA!

SPORTS GAMING BREAKTHROUGH

NEC is proud to announce their new sports line, TV Sports! The first game, TV Sports Football, offers more realistic graphics and numerous offensive and defensive plays to choose from. The second title, TV Sports Basketball, has both horizontal and vertical perspectives and player stats. The third title, TV Sports Hockey, features close-up graphics, line stats, and numerous play options. The fourth title, TV Sports Baseball, is due for release in the Spring of 1992.

On top of all of these smash hit games, NEC is also introducing some hit titles converted from European computer formats. Andre Panza Kick Boxing from France is one such title. Here, you train to defeat 8 kick boxers and challenge the world champion Andre Panza himself. Davis Cup Tennis is another French title slated for release in the States for the TurboGrafx-16 system. Davis Cup Tennis is the ultimate in tennis excitement with an almost endless combination of options available to vary gameplay. Champions Forever Boxing is a new NEC title expected to be released for Christmas '91 that features great digitized sounds and a rap music background.

The main advantage of TurboGrafx-16 sports titles is the ability to have from two to five players play at a time with the purchase of an inexpensive TurboTap adaptor. The TV Sports titles are all five-player games as well as other titles like Battle Royale, a wrestling free-for-all in the center ring. Even Davis Cup Tennis has a four-player mode!

As the only company with the capability for five-player games, all of NEC's sports titles have an added touch of realism not found in other systems. After all, a computer player will never change its programmed strategy, but who knows the predictability of the human mind? Don't let good minds go to waste!

TV SPORTS HOCKEY® ICES THE REST!

Slap shot! Hat trick! Icing! Power play! You'll find all of these and more in TV Sports Hockey! Right from the opening face off, you'll feel the tension mount as the close-up referee skates in to drop the puck into play! Finally, the game begins and all bets are off! After a fierce battle up the middle (and a couple of fights along the way) you manage to break away into a one-on-one close up! Fire your slap shot and walk away with a narrow victory!

Of course, if the computer seems a little too simple, have 5 friends play as partners or opponents with the optional TurboTap adaptor. It doesn't matter because either way, you are heading for an intense game!

ANDRE PANZA KICK BOXING™

Fresh from the European computers comes Andre Panza Kick Boxing! In this arena you must train to actually perfect your kick boxing skills and learn new attacks. Battle eight vicious opponents and then take on the mighty world champ, Andre Panza!

DAVIS CUP™ TENNIS

Davis Cup Tennis features some of the most impressive option screens anywhere! Try out four different court types, single, doubles, four different tournaments, practice a little, even adjust your personal skills! After that, get 4 friends and play doubles!

CHAMPIONS FOREVER™ BOXING

Champions Forever Boxing features the legends of professional boxing like George Foreman, Larry Holmes, Muhammed Ali, Ken Norton, and Joe Frazier. The announcer has a digitized voice! Cool rap background music adds to the punch of this game.

TV SPORTS LEADS THE WAY!

NEC's new TV Sports series of sports titles are heading the revolution of multi-player games. Each title allows up to five players to join into the action as partners or the opposition with the TurboTap adaptor! The choice is yours! Also, each game has an extensive options mode which lets you tailor your team to your liking. Remember, you are the coach, and you say who hits the field, which plays to execute, and when to go for long yardage! If you need a special challenge, have some friends play, and form your own strategies to beat the computer. Or better yet, play against each other and face the hardest challenge of all! Don't pass them up, or you'll miss the excitement!

TV SPORTS FOOTBALL®

Heading up their TV Sports series, TV Sports Football also has a five-player option and eight teams with individual stats. Play exhibitions, leagues, or just practice. You are the coach, so use your best judgement! By the way, don't tackle the ref.

TV SPORTS BASKETBALL®

Very few basketball titles can even come close to TV Sports Basketball. The five-player option is the only one of its kind and offers realism never seen before. High resolution graphics and real statistics are featured throughout the game.

MULTI-PLAYER

READY FOR THE PARTY GAMES?

Nothing is more frustrating than having friends over for a party, when everyone can't play together. NEC has the answer: Five player games using the TurboTap adaptor!! Five player simultaneous action is enough to call NEC's multiplayer titles "party games."

Party games offer more excitement and intensity than a normal one or two player title. Imagine 5 friends squaring off in Battle

TURBOTAP

Royale, a rough, tough, wrestling free-for-all. TV Sports Hockey, Football, Basketball, and, coming in 1992, Baseball are the first in the newest line of TurboGrafx-16 sports titles.

These games all have the five-player option! Davis Cup Tennis has a four player option to bring out the best tennis simulation ever!

These are the type of games that make you flush with excitement and wipe your wet palms! The emotional levels soar while playing a five-player game, thanks to the devious realism of human players rather than computer controlled players.

BOMBERMAN®

Grab up to five players and sit down to a blasting game of Bomberman, where you can bomb your way to victory as you search for powerups and eliminate the opposition. Look for the hidden exit in the walls, but don't uncover it too early, unless you want a few visitors.

BATTLE ROYALE™

Get on your skin tight's and war paint! Coming up next, it's the Battle Royale! Take on some friends or a computer opponent in a wild free-for-all guaranteed to rock your socks! Choose from five different arenas wrestling warriors in your quest to become the ultimate super-slam star!

bubbles and enemies roaming around the screen and toss them like cannonballs! You can also use your umbrella to slow your fall. If you're patient you may even discover some secrets which will send you to the hidden bonus rounds! Can you reach the end? Available in October!

TURBO KIDS

YOUTH SPOTLIGHT

Totally impressive! Even though the TurboGrafx-16 game selection has been highly diverse in theme, age groups, and difficulty, NEC continues to program more games to round out their current selection of titles. New to the youth front are some up and coming hot titles like TaleSpin, based on the Disney animated feature of the same name, Yo Bro, a comical look at alien invasions and surf dudes, and Darkwing Duck, another Disney title.

TaleSpin is clearly an adventure for kids of all ages, allowing players to control Captain Baloo and Kit Cloudkicker in their quest against the evil Watusi Witch Doctor. In Yo Bro, take the mantle of a radical surf dude trying to rid the cities of California of bogus aliens sent by the Ratz gang! Darkwing Duck takes a different tone, as kids become the awesome crimefighting duck throughout his travels.

Each title has a unique theme, gameplay, and strategy. This is more than enough to keep the overall game life extremely high without sacrificing the fun. Although made with kids in mind, hardcore gamers will find these titles fun too. Yo Bro, Darkwing Duck, and TaleSpin are perfect for kids ages 8 years old and up.

Don't let the difficulty fool you, however; the graphics and control are still the same high quality of any TurboGrafx-16 game. No corners are cut to bring out visually entertaining games for the whole family to enjoy. Even the soundtracks are upbeat.

The number of youth-oriented games is growing at an astonishing rate, much to the delight of parents whose children are frustrated with high difficulty games like Military Madness or J.B. Harold: Murder Club. Titles like TaleSpin, Yo Bro, and Darkwing Duck are definitely akin to a "G" rating, with little or no violence.

YO' BRO!™

Take off, dude! The evil Ratz gang has launched a huge assortment of killer creatures and mischievous machinery to invade the 'peaceful' towns of California! Grab your skateboard and get the people to safety while battling the armada on the streets! This is mega-cool!

TALE SPIN®

Based on the adventures of Disney's TaleSpin characters, TaleSpin whisks you through 7 thrilling levels and over 150 challenging screens! Captain Baloo and Kit Cloudkicker are here, as well as the evil Watusi Witch Doctor, looking for the lost treasures of Ionia. Don't miss it!

DARKWING DUCK®

Also a Disney do-gooder, Darkwing Duck is coming to the library of TurboGrafx-16 games. He's a premiere crimebusting duck, looking for trouble! Gather ammo and power to take on bad dudes like Steel Beak, Tuskerninni, and Megavolt, members of the F.O.W.L. gang! A high-powered hit! Available by Christmas.

NEXT GENERATION NOW

JUMP INTO THE 16-BIT ARENA!

To help more people enter the highly competitive 16-bit market, NEC is proud to introduce their new low prices! The base system suggested retail price tag of $99.99 makes the TurboGrafx-16 the lowest priced 16-bit system anywhere!

Now, people who were intimidated by the high costs can enjoy 16-bit technology at an 8-bit price. The TurboGrafx-CD player also enjoys a low suggested retail price of merely $299.99, expanding the CD market.

Another great price advantage of the TurboGrafx-16 system is its peripherals. You can add on as you deem necessary! If you want a TurboGrafx-16 system on the go, the TurboExpress handheld system can utilize all existing TurboChip cards! If you want full-blown multi-player action, a TurboTap adapter will allow up to five-players to join in the fun at one time for certain titles. Of course the

HELP OUT HUMPHREY!

Yikes! Humphrey, the peaceful hero of the story has been abducted by the evil aliens, the Zaks! The Zaks are traveling the universe collecting specimens of all intelligent lifeforms they come across. Thus, Humphrey found himself in the lowest level of an eight story spaceship. Unfortunately, the Zaks, being an alien race and all, don't breathe normal air like Humphrey does. They some weird green mist which is lethal to him! Luckily, he has his air tanks and can fill them periodically with the spare tanks lying throughout the ship. No air means no Humphrey!

After examining his surroundings, Humphrey decides to make a break for the escape pod stored in the highest level of the ship. In order to get there, he must traverse wide expanses of spikes and drops, as well as avoid his captors, the Zaks, and their servant droids! Each level forms a veritable labyrinth of challenges that only Humphrey can solve.

Humphrey's main danger is touching any sharp objects, because they will puncture his space suit, creating a lethal air leak! All of the droids except service droids have sharp edges that can damage his suit, and the Zaks themselves are merciless if they catch him. Can you guide Humphrey through each taxing stage? Or will Humphrey never see his beloved planet again?

THE CHARACTERS

HUMPHREY

You guide his struggle to escape from the evil aliens who have captured him.

ZAKS

These ugly evil being from other galaxy abducted our hero Humphrey

GARFFS

These happy-go-lucky aliens like to sleep on your head and bounce around.

DROIDS

Numerous robots will try to stop Humphrey's escape by stealing precious air from his fragile tanks. Some are helpful, though...

MAINTENANCE

This droid is slow-moving, but it will try to "fix" you if Humphrey draws near.

SECURITY

This mean-looking droid will take away some air and throw you out of the room.

GOALS AND ITEMS

AIR TANKS

Humphrey's only hope of survival.

STUN GUN

Stalls the Zaks for a short time.

PARTICLE DISRUPTOR

Disintegrates mines and step blocks.

COMPUTER INTERFACE

Lets Humphrey access the level map.

CIRCUIT BREAKER

Stops all droid movements in one room.

CODE KEY

Opens the locked door on its level only.

TELEPORT CHAMBER

Sends Humphrey to a new ship section.

ELEVATOR SHAFT

Takes Humphrey UP one level only.

DANGERS

ZAKS

The aliens are covered with ugly green, slimy scales which are as sharp as razor blades! They do the most damage to Humphrey's space-suit and causes a huge loss of air. They follow Humphrey's movements exactly.

DROIDS

The droids made of an unknown metal alloy with many jagged edges to rend Humphrey to shreds! They follow predetermined patterns based on the model of the robot. Only one robot is helpful - the service droid with a flat head.

SPIKES

Spikes are everywhere! They pose a smaller danger to Humphrey since they only cause tiny air leaks. Some have spikes covering the entire floor, some rooms have spikes sitting in Humphrey's path here and there.

MINES

Mines are a sizable hazard, as they either float around the room or lie in Humphrey's way. The mines are large and quite difficult to jump over, and usually another route around them is the safest path. Mines are disruptable.

LEVEL 1 - THE HOLD

RIDE THE DROID TO SAFETY!

The service droid is the only robot Humphrey may touch without losing air, but only if he stands on its head! The service droid will carry you to safety if you can time your jumps just right.

LOOK FOR THE HIDDEN BLOCKS!

This area has two hidden blocks to help Humphrey cross the spiked chasm. Move to the right or left until you hit an invisible block. Next, jump onto the hidden step block and it will appear.

LOOK FOR THE SECRET DOOR!

Keep moving when you enter this room or the two security droids will crush you! Jump over the spike in the middle of the room or you'll have to try again! The secret door takes you to the teleport room.

LEVEL 2 - ENGINEERING

USE THE STEP BLOCK FOR COVER!

You must first cross the wide gaps to the step block. Then get behind it by picking it up, moving forward, then dropping it. Now, push it up to the corner, trapping the droid. Finally, jump free!

ONE-WAY TICKET!

The only way to reach the air tank in the area is to enter from the right. This will give you access to the powerful jumping board and spring you to the air tank.

MASTER THE CORNER JUMP!

Certain areas require that you jump around corners (usually over treacherous spikes) to reach your destination or avoid a droid. Timing is critical in this room because one mistake means doom!

LEAVE IT ALONE!

The Circuit Breaker on this level is hard to attain, so it would be best to leave it alone and continue your mission. Otherwise use the middle block to jump across.

THE GARFF CAN SPRING YOU OUT!

You may either use the Particle Disruptor to free the Garff or wait for it to push the step block so you may grab it. Next, jump on the Garff's head to bounce over the high wall to the exit!

LOOK OUT BELOW!

Some rooms have no floors! If you fall, you'll land in the level directly below you. Here, jump to the lone floor tile to avoid being knocked unconscious by the Zak.

LEVEL 3 - CRYODECK

DON'T FORGET A DISRUPTOR!

If you want to get the Computer Interface from the next room, you'll need the particle disruptor to destroy the pile of step blocks in your path. Be careful of the droid. You only have one shot.

JUST WATCH THAT FIRST STEP!

Here's a touchy situation! To get across, jump to the middle tile. Then take a mighty leap to the other side. You'll just make it! If you miss, however, you'll fall to the level below you!

WHAT'S THAT UP THERE?

Yikes! An evil Zak fell on your head! Don't worry, as long as he's up there, he can't hurt you. The best way to finish this room is to quickly run to the other door without hesitating. The Zak won't fall.

JUST WHEN YOU GASPED FOR AIR...

Here it is! An air tank! Whew! To get it, you may need to jump several times on the trampoline. The left-hand step block is hard to reach.

THIS ZAK HAS SOMETHING ON HIS MIND!

A Circuit Breaker to be exact! Run around him, get on the platform, and prepare to land on the Zak's head. Then grab the Circuit Breaker and run!

HOW FAST CAN YOU RUN?

Ouch! To get this Stun Gun, you'll need to run and jump to it before it falls onto the spikes and into oblivion! You may need to try several times. Most of the areas require speed and jumping ability. There are very few rest areas. The best way to slow down is to jump to a perch, unless a Zak or hopping droid is in the room. Also watch out for the Garffs, because not only is your jumping hindered, but you cannot run straight or fast. Every second counts!

LEVEL 4 - TRANSPORTERS

MAP SYMBOL KEY

HOW FAST CAN YOU JUMP?

As soon as you enter this room, you need to move forward and jump to safety! The box will not hinder you if it lands on your head, just keep moving! One quick leap and you're home free.

ARE YOU A SKILLED JUMPER?

This room will test your jumping skills to their maximum. The first test is the moving platform. Next, jump from the platform to the conveyor belt. Lastly, jump around the corner to safety.

TRANSPORT TO THE NEXT ROOM!

Ugh! Transporters are a pain sometimes, especially when they're perched in a floorless room! These blocks disappear when you touch them, so hold the jump button down and hop to it!

VALUABLE AIR IS HARD TO FIND!

To get this troublesome air tank, jump on the vanishing block to the trampoline. The jump to the air tank is difficult, but possible.

NOW WAY! HOW IS IT POSSIBLE?

You can reach the gun! The hidden blocks are right in front of you! Just have faith and jump forward. The blocks will pave a path to the gun.

DROIDS CAN BE HELPFUL SOMETIMES!

When you enter this room, stand in the upper corner. This will let the droid walk on your head and slowly push the key off the ledge!

BEHIND THE SCREENS AT SEGA OF JAPAN

"THE MAKING OF SONIC THE HEDGEHOG"

He's cute, loveable, ornery, and impatient. Just looking at him on the screen causes you to smile because he has the attitude and looks of a character that is so different, you can't help but like him. Who? It can only be Sonic the Hedgehog.

We fell in love with him back in June of 1990 when he made his public debut at the Tokyo Toy Show. It was only a short running demo but what was there was so different that we had a feeling this game was going to be something special. And we've been chasing after him for a year and finally caught up with him this June. After interviewing the key people behind this super game we find his history is as exciting as is the game.

THE BEST FROM SEGA

It was 1 1/2 years ago. Sega had their new Mega Drive/Genesis system and they wanted to make a game that was to be truly exceptional. It was to show off the capabilities of the system. It was to be Sega's flagship. But it also had to be fun to play for people of all ages.

SONIC THE WOLF...???

The first project was to select a character that would be appealing to everybody. This was done inside of Sega of Japan. A contest was held, and all the employees of the company were asked to send in a sketch of this new character. There were over 100 different entries and the four finalists included a bulldog, a wolf, a man with a large moustache and a porcupine-type animal.

The finalists in the pick the hero contest!

The first appearance of a porcupine in a Genesis game was in Alex Kidd.

Mr. Minoru Kanari and Mr. Naoto Ohshima of the Sonic Team.

We all know who won but could you now picture Sonic as being a wolf? The man with the moustache was impressive and he did make it into the game, but not as the hero, rather as the evil Doctor Ivo Robotnik!

DO THE IMPOSSIBLE!

With the character set, it was time to do the game. But it was not to be just an ordinary game, it was to be the best that Sega has ever done. To do this Sega pulled out all the stops and gave the project to the best people they had.

The main people who were responsible for this super game are Mr. Minoru Kanari, Manager, 16-bit Consumer Software Development and Mr. Naoto Ohshima, Chief Character Designer. Six other people worked on the Sonic project including graphic designers, programmers and artists. The music was done by a popular group - Dreams Come True.

GOOD GAMES TAKE TIME!

The directive was that Sonic had to be all new. Not just another action game with a cute character, but this game was to do things that no game has ever done. This would take time. In fact the first 6 months were devoted to the game concept alone. That's an unusually long time considering that a 'normal' game takes only about 8 months to do the entire project!

After the shape of Sonic was determined, a clay model was made to assist in the animation.

With the game laid out, the next year was devoted to make the impossible happen. Sonic was to have incredible speed (as the name implies), the animation had to be perfect - not choppy but smooth. The screen rotation had to be done in software and condensed to fit into a 4 megabit configuration. Secret rooms were built in as was a 'skill' factor. Depending on how fast Sonic would be going off some of the jumps, he would reach various heights where there are different bonuses. Multiple endings were also built into the game to inspire the player to continue playing.

SONIC'S A HIT!

While Sonic made a brief appearance as a self running one screen demo at the 1990 Tokyo Toy Show, it wasn't until the U.S. 1991 Winter Consumer Electronics Show when Either stuffed or real, U.S. or Japan, Sonic was at every trade show!

Sonic would make his grand debut. And what a grand entrance it was! Virtually every publication, both U.S. and foreign, was thoroughly impressed with the unbelievable action and tricks that were built into the game. We here at EGM were so impressed, that all of the editors unanimously selected Sonic the Hedgehog as the "Game of the Show". And, as we found out later, Sonic was less than 40 percent done at the time of the show!

After the CES Sonic went back to Japan where work continued on the detailing of the game. Additional moves were incorporated into the game, the animation was fine tuned until it was perfect, and special software algorithms were created just for this game so that the screen rotation sections would be smooth and natural appearing. As all of this was progressing Sonic would take some time off to make an appearance at the various Consumer Software Group shows throughout Japan. And always getting the same results - long lines of interested players waiting just to get a few minutes at playing this sensational soft. Finally, after over 18 months of long hours Sonic was finished. Just in time for the U.S. Summer Consumer Electronics Show. Again, as in January, Sonic drew crowds. But this time he had competition. Mario was back for his fourth adventure. Sega, prepared for the comparison, was undaunted and took the initiative. At their booth, Sega had a side-by-side comparison of Sonic vs. Mario! From similar comparisons held nationwide, Sega officials stated that over 90 percent of the players who participated in the comparison preferred Sonic to Mario 4.

SONIC GOES PUBLIC

It wasn't much of a surprise but when Sonic appeared in the stores in early June, Sonic literally flew off the store shelves. Sega states that not only is Sonic their best selling U.S. cartridge ever, but worldwide preorders also surpassed even the most optimistic forecasts. Sonic hit Europe around the end of June and appeared in Japan in late July. According to our World Net sources, Sonic is in great demand virtually everywhere in the world! Shortages exist everywhere and Sonic is getting rave reviews by game magazines in every country.

Sonic appeared in Europe shortly after the U.S. introduction!

SONIC DIVERSIFIES

Like any popular character, the Sonic likeness will start appearing elsewhere. In Japan Sonic dolls, fans, comic books and note pads are already out. Also, if you look close, Sonic makes a cameo appearance in the hit 32 bit arcade game - Rad Mobile - he is hanging on a chain that sways back and forth on the screen. TV isn't out of the realm of possibility and, of course, a sequel video game is already underway as is a Master System and Game Gear 8 bit version of the original cart. One thing that is for sure, Sonic will not fade away into obscurity as Alex Kidd did. Starting in September, Sonic will replace Altered Beast as the pack-in cart with the Genesis System!

Sonic dolls, pads of paper, fans and comic books! Soon he will be everywhere!

It's been a year and a half in the making but it was well worth all of the extra effort. Sega now has a game that not only shows off the capabilities of the system, but is fun to play too!

Watch out dinos, Trog wants food!

Trog is based off of the popular arcade version that starred a cast of digitized clay figures. Even though the playmation technique has been removed, this cart still retains some of the arcade's highlights. The object of the game is to guide a cute dinosaur through an island collecting colored eggs. The main problem is that you are being pursued by a tribe of one-eyed cavemen who have a major appetite, and you're on the main course! In order to beat the level you need to collect all the eggs on the screen. After which, you can proceed to the next level. Other items you can pick up include a shield for temporary invincibility, an item for flame breath, and a pineapple that will transform you into a ferocious Tyrannosaurus Rex, so that you can do a little hunting of your own! If all else fails, use your fists! Stand-by, prehistoric action is almost here!

SUPER R•TYPE

BLAST THE BYDO EMPIRE TO KINGDOM COME.

You thought that the terror had ended. You assumed that the galaxy was a safe place to explore. You were wrong. Shortly after you ravaged the Bydo armada that tried to destroy the Earth, the Bydo Emperor launched a massive counterattack as an act of revenge. As the first glimpses of the Bydo empire appeared on the edge of the solar system, the Earth Defense League once again elected a lone soldier to pilot the R-9 and destroy the oncoming menace. This time desperate measure had to be taken because the Bydos are no longer interested in Earth's resources they're out for blood and won't stop until Earth is completely obliterated. You must invade the core of the Bydo Empire and go face to face with Emperor himself. I hope you've made out your will.

STAGE ONE

Enter the Bydo in this basic outer space defense zone. A well placed plasma blast should get rid of the pesky boss.

STAGE SIX

Now you're inside the Bydo base. Destroy the newest Bydo creations right off the production line. Reflective lasers works best on the boss.

STAGE TWO

Invade the Bydo warehouse and waste the boss with a Super Plasma Blast. Say, doesn't he look familiar?

STAGE THREE

Beware of kamikaze Bydos and rushing waterfalls. Shoot the boss in the eye with two blast for best results.

STAGE FOUR

Flight this huge battleship from the outside, then go in for the kill and destroy the core of the ship.

STAGE SEVEN

This is the Bydo's last line of defense. Get through this onslaught of defensive firepower and you go face to face with the Motherbrain!

STAGE FIVE

The walls have a habit of moving in this level. Don't get trapped while fighting the end boss. Stay at the top.

F-ZERO

GENTLEMEN, START YOUR TURBINES...

Now that the S-NES is finally out, the system needs games that show off its capabilities, and F-Zero does exactly that. The theme is that you have to pilot your futuristic hovercraft through seven different tracks. But, you have to end up at least third in each race in order to proceed. The main challenge is getting to the finish line alive. Many obstacles will get in your way such as magnetic bars, land mines, and other racers with attitudes that would give their blood to be number one. Should you touch these, your power will decrease lower and lower until you blow up, but there is a section on the track that will restore some of your power via a large airborne supply vehicle. Also dotted around the track is some rough terrain that will slow you down. But just avoid it. Easily one of the best racing games ever!

Watch out for those jumps!

Check out these rotation sequences via the mode 7 processor.

CHOOSE YOUR HOVERCRAFT!

Think out which craft you want. Each one has its own advantages.

WATCH OUT FOR RACEWAY DANGERS!

LOOK OUT! Dangers like mines, Magnetic bars, and other cars will reduce your power.

THERE ARE THREE DIFFICULTY LEVELS!

HELPFUL ITEMS

Many objects like arrows and nitro cans will help you speed by the other racers as well as finish the track with a better time record!

BATTER UP!!!

Jaleco extends their Bases Loaded series to the Super NES. They have made many changes in this spectacular version, but the biggest is in the graphics which now are in a 'league' of their own! Also, they have given the game a whole new perspective when it comes to fielding. This creates a nice effect.

There are two challenges in this baseball game, the first is to beat the other team, and the second is to beat a level 5 team and get a perfect score of one hundred. Your score is based on five categories and every time you make a mistake, you lose valuable points. So start warming up as this is one of the best versions of baseball yet.

The outfielders give you more control than in previous baseball carts. Play just like a real baseball player would by diving and jumping for the ball and make great game winning plays.

PLAY BALL!!!

The new reverse perspective you have when you bat and hit the ball makes it a little different than most baseball games, and takes a bit getting used to.

CUSTOM DESIGN YOUR TEAM IN THE EDIT MODE!

This game offers you a unique editing option which allows you to modify your players to give them new stats. You then can make them as good or bad as you would like. Make your team the perfect players!

When editing your players the ability that a player has is all up to you. You can change their batting averages, the number of home runs they have, or if they bat righty or lefty.

HOLY COW! IT'S A HOME RUN!

If you get a home run then you will be treated to a cool cinema display. There are three different ones to watch for!

CAN YOU SAVE EARTH FROM THE ALIEN INVASION?

It's the year 2090 A.D. and alien forces have been launched in order to take over our world and its people. The Earth forces have only one choice and that is to attack the enemies with their new untested supersonic fighter bomber called "Raiden." You are the only one who knows how to fly this sophisticated ship, so don't let the human race down.

Bignet brings a new 8 meg vertical scrolling shooter to the Sega Genesis. There are 8 levels of intense shoot'em up action and one special stage. Plenty of power-ups and a high level of challenge make this one of the best arcade translations yet!

Unlike other shooters, when you die you aren't completely powerless because a fairy comes out and will supply you with a few power-ups.

INCREDIBLE POWER-UPS!!!

WIDE SHOT

There are two types of power ups for your shots. One is a wide shot and the other is a laser. The laser is strong, but it is a little small. The wide shots are weak, but cover the whole screen. Each one has eight levels of power.

LASERS

THERE ARE TWO TYPES OF MISSILES! POWER THEM UP FOUR TIMES...

MULTI-WARHEAD MISSILE

This is a nuclear missile that shoot straight ahead, and is very powerful. A number of them can be fired at one time.

HOMING MISSILE

This one is a homing missile and is very useful. While it isn't as powerful as the multi-warhead missile, it does more damage.

LEVEL - 1

You just took off from Earth, so you haven't run into any really major enemies. This is a good time to power-up your ship and collect a few bombs.

BOSS

LEVEL - 2

Things begin to get a little more intense because you are getting deeper into your mission. Use your bombs wisely because you'll need them later.

BOSS

LEVEL - 3

The enemy takes to the seas, as you make your way towards your final encounter. You will face different types of enemies as you cruise over the water.

BOSS

LEVEL - 4

The opposition has set up their defense on the islands and there are some very dangerous enemies waiting for you. Don't the enemy gang up on you, or else!

BOSS

LEVEL - 5

The enemy has backtracked and is now attacking the earth at full force. You must do a little house cleaning and waste these annoying invaders.

BOSS

LEVEL - 6

The aliens have retreated to outer space. You no longer have the home field advantage, so be prepared for some furious fire-fighting among the stars.

BOSS

Do you have what it takes to battle through two more intense stages to get to the special stage?

BRAVE THE MAZES!

A Long time ago the powerful Dark Sorceress, Castomira, lived in a place called Arcus. She had planned to use her dark magic to take over the world and reshape it to her liking. Many warriors died trying to defeat her. However, there was one brave soldier named Leaty. He had the unique ability to use the power of light magic and he challenged Castomira. Their battle was great and destroyed most of the land, but Leaty was victorious.

After the battle Castomira was confined to the dark world and Leaty created a magical sword for his descendants but it was lost. The followers of Castomira are becoming stronger, so you must retrieve the sword and return peace to the land.

SLIDE YOUR WAY OVER THE BLOCKS!

Slider is a puzzle game where you have to walk over blocks and change their color. As you do this there are enemies that will try to stop you, but you can shoot them. Other hazards get in your way like ice, arrows (that shoot you ahead), blocks (that fall when you walk on them), and icons (that make some of the blocks disappear), but, with persistence, you can succeed!

Change the blocks from blue to red in order to advance to the next round.

Get the fire icon to increase the number and direction of your shots.

Jacks or better to open!

This cart takes two popular card games and combines them to give you a game called solitaire poker. You have to make five card hands and you get a certain number of points for the kind of hand you have. You get the most points for five of a kind. The goal is to get a certain amount of points to get to the next round. The required points increase with each round.

POINT
5K	3000
4F	2000
3F	1500
2F	1000
1F	500
0F	0

These are the point values you get for certain hands. You want to play your cards right so you can get the best hand, to get the most points!

You get points for how good of a hand you have. Your hands are up, down and diagonal. Try getting three of a kind and two of a kind for a full house.

You pick what card you want and then you put it in the spot you would like it to go. Use strategy and planning to get the best out of your hand.

PAC-MAN

Here's PAC-MAN, zipping around the maze munching yummy ghosts. If they catch him, he's ghostflakes! Chomp down power dots and fruit treats for big bonus points. Connect two Game Gears for extra ghost-mania. Choose different rounds to even up the competition. When you gulp a ghost, it pops up in your friend's maze. THRASH THE KILLER VIRUS

The Earth's defense system has been infected by a virus. Nobody can do anything to get rid of this virus. And the virus plans to destroy the Earth! You are a colonel and you have volunteered to test a new Image Transfer System. This system transfers you into a quantum fighter, and the fate of Earth is in your hands. The U.S. video game team brings you the last 4 levels of this incredible game, and, with this, you'll play like a pro.

As a quantum fighter you possess many skills. One being, that when you hang on a flat platform you can flip up and land on top of it.

The best way to defeat this boss is to use your mane. Use your coins for health because by the time you get up to the boss you'll probably need health!

There are some very difficult parts in this level where you have to avoid spikes. At this part when you land on top of the platform, you have to land on the left side of it to make sure you don't get hit by the spike.

Attack this boss with your mane until he goes to the ceiling. Get as many hits in as you can because when he goes to the ceiling the only way you'll be able to hit him is if you use your three way shots.

To defeat this boss, you have to flip up on the platform that is hanging off the side of him. Jump on top of his head, then duck and punch the orb to finish him off.

Jump over the enemy fire to get a 1-up

YOUR FINAL ENCOUNTER!!!

There are two parts to the last boss. The first part you have to attack with your mane. The second part you should use your bolo.

Get the 1-UP

Once you have defeated the enemy, jump up to the 1-UP.

Use your three way shots to get past these pits.
