KONAMI
THE BEST OF THE SHOW...WAS THERE A WINNER?

If you were to ask a dozen people who were at the Winter Consumer Electronics Show what the game of the show was, almost everybody will, think for a while, and then say Nintendo's FX chip game StarFox. I know this for a fact, as many of our own editors have said just that.

Well, they all are wrong.

Granted StarFox is new and revolutionary, and plays and looks great, but it wasn't so good that it could be called the Game of the Show. One reason why it stands out in everybody's minds is that Nintendo knows how to hype up a game. They don't just put a few carts out for people to play, they think big. So big in fact, that they built a whole geodesic dome around their StarFox display. It was hard not to think that of game while at the show.

Then what was the best of the show? It was an obscure Sega CD title called Sliphed. You see Sega doesn't like to brag about their games. In fact they did everything possible not to call attention to that game.

First, they knew ahead of time that Nintendo would be hyping up their polygon graphics game. So they decided to take theirs and hide it, by putting it in the middle of a bunch of their other CD games. There was no need to run a Sliphed/StarFox side-by-side comparison as they once did with Sonic and Mario.

Next, in case if anybody would accidentally see their revolutionary game, they decided to have a 20% unplayable version in the machine. There was no reason to show the nearly complete version that was on display at Sega Fair in Tokyo in December.

Finally, to keep the game completely secret, Sega decided not to mention it in their press kit. There was no need to tell the world that Sliphed had over 500,000 polygons on the planet level alone; that Sliphed moved along at 20 frames per second; that Sliphed uses advanced fractal geometry to calculate the texture mapped highlights and shadows of the detailed geographical features; that Sliphed had pounding music and sound effects, all encoded in stereo, surround, PCM, CD quality sound.

Sorry, Sega. But I just couldn't keep it a secret anymore. Sliphed was the real Game of the Show. If you doubt it, check out the pictures on page 52.

Forget FX chip technology. CD is where the action is, and Nintendo's unit is at least another year away. Sega has it now.

But don't tell anybody, as Sega wants to keep it a secret.

In other news, we have a great issue for you this month as we have a lot of great bonuses packed inside, like the special foil cover, a Street Fighter comic book, a 32 page guide to portable games and accessories, an exclusive X-Men poster and strategy guide, and, if you are a subscriber, a special Quartermann newsletter.

As always, we welcome your comments, criticisms and suggestions.

ASK, AND YOU SHALL RECEIVE...

After I saw the pictures of Time Gal and Road Blaster FX in your November and December International Sections, I called Renovation to ask them to bring out these games in the U.S. I told them that type of game would appeal to a lot of players because they use the old 'Dragon's Lair-type of control.' They were very patient and listened to what I had to say. They then asked me a bunch of questions. Sure enough, they are now going to bring it out here in America. I urge all game players to 'speak up' and if you see an international game in EGM that looks good to you, call the U.S. company and tell them that you are interested in that type of game. It worked for me!

Andy Woodson
New York, NY

My favorite Sega CD game is Cobra Command. I have just seen the Renovation ads for Road Avenger, and that game is now on the top of my 'to buy' list. Back in your November issue you showed pictures of a Japanese game called Time Gal and it looked very similar to the other two. Last issue you said that it is coming out here in the U.S. and this made me very happy, but I just read in another mag that it isn’t coming out. I want this game bad! Tell me that somebody will be doing it here.

Dave Halston
Encino, CA

Because the U.S. game players asked for it, Time Gal will be coming out this spring!

(Ed. There is a very important lesson that all game players should learn from Andy’s letter. If you really want a game to come out here in the U.S., let the company know about it! If enough players call and write, the company will give it serious consideration. Does it work? You bet!!)

In the case of Time Gal, Renovation’s president Hide Irie summed it all up in the Time Gal press release: “Due to overwhelming requests and interest from American game players, I’m happy to say that we’re bringing Time Gal to the United States.”

This is but one reason why we have an International Section. Not only does it give the American players a preview of future games that companies have announced will be coming out over here, but also, as in our coverage of Time Gal back in our November issue, it gives the U.S. players time to call the companies who haven’t decided whether they should spend the time and money to convert the Japanese games. We’ll keep up the coverage so you can make the calls.)

SUPER SCOPE IS COLOR BLIND!

Have you been having problems beating your favorite Super Scope Game? Do you swear that you keep hitting that enemy, but it just won’t die?

Don’t be quick to blame yourself!

Does the Super Scope have you seeing red? That’s because it can’t.

EGM has obtained from sources in Japan a new technical document that describes the construction and specifications of the Super Scope for the Super NES.

In this publication, Nintendo states that “The Super Scope is not sensitive to [the color] red at all.” They go on to say that this is because the color red in our TVs stays on the screen (called the period of florescence) a relatively long period of time (four times as long as green and about 5 times as long as blue) before it fades away. Since the gun needs to detect and time events very precisely, by the time the red color fades away, the enemy would have moved and the gun would have registered a 'missed shot.'
You've never seen 2-player shoot-'em-up action like this! An alien war force is threatening the human race. Our scientists have developed the ultimate weapon: Strike Gunner! Equipped with an awesome arsenal of offensive and defensive devices, only two could be built—but those two can combine into one superfighter of astonishing power!

Q*Bert 3 for the 16-bit Super NES system takes the classic Q*Bert arcade game theme to new heights, with an amazing variety of eye-popping, multi-screen worlds. Along with the old familiar cast of characters, Q*Bert 3 introduces a whole universe of new enemies, obstacles and items.

He's quick, he's curious, he's Qube-Acious!
LETTER OF THE MONTH!

VIDEO GAME MADDEN-NESS
Toymakers use sports to sell kids on violence
by: Phil Mushnick

Funny how things work out. This past Friday in a column that rapped the NHL Players’ Association for licensing a Sega home video game - NHLPA Hockey 93 - that introduced hockey to children as a game steeped in mindless, graphic violence, a photo of an NHLPA-licensed Super Nintendo hockey game was mistakenly used with the column. But a funny thing happened on our way to making things right with the fine folks at a Nintendo. Before we printed an apology, we felt compelled to check out the Nintendo version of the NHLPA’s marketing endeavor. So we headed to Toys ‘R Us. There will be no apology.

What we found at the toy store was more than disturbing. It was sickening and depressing. Everyone’s working off a copy of the same twisted plan. In a society now dripping with sensless violence, adults are getting rich pitching sports games to children by placing a premium on that same sensless violence.

First off, the NHLPA’s Nintendo version of the video game is virtually the same as the NHLPA’s Sega game - the object of sell is lighting, mindless, and graphically violent. The beauty and skill of hockey does not enter the marketing equation.

The Nintendo people, like the wonderful folks at Sega and the NHLPA, can go straight to hell. Their sales strategy is geared even toward children as gamemanship or sportmanship. Near the rack that holds the NHLPA’s games, we found a Sega basketball game - Arch Rivals. The subtitle of the game was Basketbrawl. The game’s object was clearly stated on the packaging: “No Faults - Knock Your Opponent’s Block Off!” We wondered if the Sega people were ignorant to the Rudy Tomjanovich story, or whether it provided the inspiration.

Toys ‘R Us, we began to see, now serves as headquarters for kids looking to get a leg up on the brutal world that awaits them. Still, we hardly prepared for what we saw next - a Sega home video game with John Madden’s smiling face beaming from the cover of a cartridge that retails for $60 - John Madden Football 92. The packaging’s came-on messages left us speechless:

“Crush the quarterback - knock him out of the game!”

“Biggest play of the year - quarterback sneak to the hospital!”

Later, we learned that John Madden Football 92 includes a program that sends a computerized ambulance onto the field to retrieve the QB. When the ambulance drives off, the computerized players who get in its way are run over. Fabulous!

Next to John Madden Football 92, we found John Madden Football 93. Same as last year’s edition, except for a few added attractions including “clothesline tackles.”

We thought about Dennis Byrd. We thought about Darryl Stingley and Jack (The Assassin) Tatum, and Mike Utley, and Jeff Fuller, and Chucky Mullins, and Marc Buoniconti.

We thought about an interview MSG’s Bob Page conducted last month with Nick Buoniconti, who latched out at a new NFL Films home video game, “NFL Rocks,” which features mostly illegal hits - hits above the shoulder delivered with the helmet. And all set to rock.

And the very next afternoon, we thought about them all again, as we watched a real ambulance drive onto a real football field and carry Steeler Irvin John Jackson during the Buffalo-Pittsburgh playoff game.

We wondered if the same kids who delight in the appearance of the ambulance in John Madden Football 92 and 93 were watching the Bills-Steeleers, and whether they were delighted that Jackson was being lifted into an ambulance, and whether they were disappointed that the ambulance didn’t mow down any players as it left the field.

And we thought about John Madden, whom we know as a decent man and a caring parent. What in the world was Madden thinking when he turned over his name and his image to the makers of a football game that promises to entertain children by crushing the QB so that he might be shipped to the hospital via ambulance?

We reached Madden, Monday, at his home in California. He said his association with the game’s designer goes back 10 or more years, when Madden agreed to program football plays for the game.

“My idea was to help make an 11-on-11 game - draw up the plays, the defenses. It was a fun thing, not a money thing. My part is not as a computer guy. My contribution is the football. I’ve added the run-and-shoot offense, nickel defenses, things like that.”

But what about the game itself? Has he ever thought it might be a tad too much for children on the cover?

“I didn’t add those things,” said Madden. “They [Sega] just copy things they see in the game. I never seen the ambulance come out, and I’m told that the ambulance comes out very seldom.”

Yet, Madden did not dispute the fact that an ambulance is dispatched to fetch a crushed QB as part of the game’s computerized program. And he did not dispute the fact that such elements are featured come-ons in the game’s sell.

And now about “clothesline tackles” serving as a featured added attraction in the marketing of John Madden Football 93: “Clothesline tackles are part of the way the game is sold,” said Madden. “As long as you don’t hit ‘em in the head, it’s legal.”

Not quite. NFL rules prohibit clothesline tackles of any sort. But, “I said Madden, “I never want to see anyone get hurt.” So then was Madden short on vigilance, given that his good name and image are used to market this product to children? Is he upset that his celebrity status is being exploited to sell a game whose printed cover promises children the opportunity to knock quarterbacks out of the game and into the hospital?

“I don’t know if I’d have used those words,” said Madden. “I don’t want to see anyone get hurt, and I hope I would never be a part of something like that. But the things you’re talking about are not a big part of the [Sega] game.”

But they are part of the Sega game, and they’re a big part of how Sega pitches the game to kids. Had Madden been present when elements such as the ambulance were added, and when the printed packaging that promised kids the opportunity to land a QB in the hospital was suggested, would he have allowed such salesmanship and gameplay?

“Probably not,” he said. “But what do you want me to do, have them recall the game?”

“No, but we wondered what Sega’s John Madden Football 94 might look like.

“Well, the stuff we’ve been talking about won’t be in there next year,” said Madden, leaving us with something we didn’t find at Toys ‘R Us — some hope.

The above article has been reprinted with permission from the New York Post, January 13, 1993. All Rights Reserved.

Wow! Can you believe this guy? Never have we seen, in print, a story that was so far off base as this one. Mr. Mushnick, you made at least two fatal mistakes.

First, you have trashed the two best sports games on the market. Not only have all game magazines called these carts the best ever made, but even non-game related mags have given these carts similar praises and awards.

Second, and most importantly, you really show your ignorance by calling Nintendo a company that condones and exploits violence. Ask any kid and he will tell you that Nintendo is the last company that would ever allow excessive violence in a game.

And what is really sickening is how you relate the real life sports injuries to the kids playing video games. The accidents were tragic indeed, but football is a violent sport. As such there will be clothesline tackles, late hits and other bad plays. Perhaps the problem isn’t with this generation of kids, but rather with the way the sport is being run.

To jump on Madden is also plain stupidity. He helped create the most realistic-playing football game ever made. Coaches play it, players play it, perhaps you should have played it. If you would have, you would have seen how the game does play like the real sport.

You might also want to give kids some credit for seeing through the typical PR hype. Kids want a good playing game. The Madden name means quality not violence. It didn’t get to be the best-selling sports game by accident.

Everybody, of course, is entitled to their own opinion about video games. What is said, though, is when a quality newspaper like the NY Post prints such a biased, one sided, unresearched article such as the one above.

What do you think? Did Mr. Mushnick escape from the funny farm? Or are our sports games really that bad? Write in and let us know.
PLAY IT IF YOU DARE

Few have faced Dracula and survived. Now it’s your turn! Based on Columbia Pictures’ blockbuster thriller, Bram Stoker’s Dracula for the Sega CD goes straight for the jugular. Digitized scenes from the movie, 3-D graphics and incredible CD sound plunge you deep into dungeons infested with spiders and packs of bloodthirsty rats. You’ll battle your way through seven terrifying levels, from the treacherous mountains and forests of Transylvania all the way to Castle Dracula. And just like in the movie, Dracula will attack as a bat, a vicious wolf, even an old man. But whatever form Dracula takes...make no mistake, he must be stopped! Bram Stoker’s Dracula. IT’S A WHOLE NEW GAME.

SF2 BOSS CODE!?...

I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw the SF2 Game Genie codes in your last issue. Of course I immediately gave the codes a try. To my surprise, sure enough the bosses were there and after a bit of practice, I saw that by doing Ryu's moves I could get Bison to do all of his moves. Although the game glitched out after the first round, it was fun. If anything, doing this got me to finally realize that there aren't any hidden 'natural' boss codes in the game, as if there was some buried trick to get them to show up, your Game Genie codes would have revealed Bison's secret moves.

Chad Rice
Portland, OR

I saw some SF2 boss codes in another magazine. Unfortunately they were for the Pro Action Replay instead of the Game Genie (which I have). Like a fool I ordered the PAR, only to find out that their codes won't let me play as the bosses, and the supposed match-ups between the two bosses would not work. There was no way to play Bison vs. Bison as they showed. Looking back at their pictures I realized that I was duped; none of the shots with the so-called matches showed any action, just the introduction screens.

Richard Guerrero
Cambridge, MA

Thanks for the Game Genie SF2 boss codes. I wish they would have worked for more than one round, but at least they worked! Did you know another magazine ripped off your codes in their February issue?

Josh Pixton
Austin, TX

(Ed. As we have been saying for quite a few months now, there is no way to play a complete Boss vs. Boss game with the Super NES SF2 cart. Of course this is a very emotional subject as everybody "knows" that Capcom had to have hidden something in the game and when a mag says they found a code, these emotions really run wild, as they did in Richards case.

Again, as the GG codes verify, there is nothing hidden in the game. The GG and PAR can change things that are programmed in the game, but they can't add something to the program.

Since there were no programmed controller moves for Bison, something 'existing' has to be used. Our codes take Ryu's moves and assign them to the movements of Bison. For example, if you do Ryu's hurricane kick you will get the on-screen Bison to do his Flaming Torpedo. As you would expect, the game glitches, as it is doing something that it never was intended to do.

We have been working with the PAR for some time and it isn't easy to get working codes for the Bosses. That is why we didn't print worthless codes just to show two Bisons on the screen for an instant. We don't consider that to be a trick that our readers would like, especially when most readers don't have the PAR.

As to our Game Genie Boss code, once our mag hits the streets, the info is fair game. You should know that Game Genie codes are as unique as passwords, though. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to see where the other guys are getting their info.)

TOP SECRET SPECS ON SEGA'S 6-BUTTON CONTROLLER!

Sega has finalized the specs on its upcoming 6-button controller. While most of the details remain the same as those reported in the January EGM Express column, sources in Japan have told EGM that there have been some rolling changes made.

Sega's 6-button controller will be upwardly compatible with the 3-button controller!

First there will be a new button on the back of the controller! Tentatively called the MODE switch, this button will be used to tell the Genesis what type of controller is plugged into the system. It will work like this:

By holding down the MODE button when turning on the system, the pad's 6-button mode will change to that of the 3-button pad. This will be useful when playing older, 3-button controller games.

The MODE button can also be used as a 'select' button, or during game play, its use can be combined with either the control pad or three main buttons.

There will also be a configure screen in the games that will allow the player to select whether the controller has 3 or 6 buttons.

In fighting games the X, Y and Z buttons will be used for weak, medium and strong punches. The A, B and C buttons will be used for weak, medium and strong kicks.

Note: Software written for the 6-button controller is planned to also work on the old 3-button controller through the use of pressing a combination of buttons!

MORE SUPER NES NEO-GEO

I really like to play the Neo-Geo games but I can't afford the home system. Paying over $140 for one game is out of my budget. I do have a Super NES. Since Takara is bringing out Fatal Fury, will they also do World Heroes and Art of Fighting?

Play one round of a two-player Boss vs. Boss game in Street Fighter 2.
To launch our new 16 meg game, we wanted to hire the biggest star in Hollywood. But since we couldn't afford him, we settled on a flea-bitten, mangy Bobcat named Bubsy.

SUPER MEGA MAN?
I wrote this letter in capital lettering because I want it read. I have been an avid reader and buyer of EGM ever since its third issue. I truly believe that what you print is fact, but now I must question your sincerity as to your claims to have seen or heard of a 16-Bit Super NES Mega Man title. I was so excited to hear this that I called Capcom to see when it was going to hit the stores and they said that a 16-Bit Mega Man game was not even in the planning stage. I said that EGM mentioned it in their mag and even on its cover. The guy at Capcom then asked me if I ever read the Enquirer. EGM is not the Enquirer, I said. Every time someone questions your credibility you prove them wrong. Please do it again.

Watch for the 16-Bit Super Mega Man to come out late in 1993.
(Ed. We talked to Capcom at the CES and they did say that the game was going to come out late this year. We weren't able to get any pictures as we understand the game is so new that no pictures of it exist yet. And since we got our CES coverage to you so quick, it is quite possible that not everybody knew about the great Mega Man news. Everything is cool now. As you can see from the press release, Capcom has formally announced the cart and we recommend that you stay tuned to EGM for the latest information on this super soft. Does this set your mind at ease Lee? We wouldn't steer you wrong!)
NUDITY IN EGM...!

I have a complaint about the cover of your February issue. On the cover, there is a picture of Bubsy the Bobcat. He has a shirt on, but where are his pants? Many people would take offense at seeing this. Although the art is very good, I am very surprised that you would do something like that. Please tell Bubsy to buy a pair of Levis.

Mitchel Katz
West Bloomfield, MI

Has EGM gone too far??? Does Bubsy need pants? Should Sonic get a jogging suit? Are the TMNT too risque?

(Ed. Nice try Mitchel. If we wouldn’t have had a shoe-in for the psycho letter, yours would have gotten it. Why don’t you go bother the people at the zoo to get them to put boxer shorts on the elephants. Anyway, why pick on Bubsy? Other animals like Sonic, Tails and the TMNT have appeared nude on previous EGM covers and nobody has complained until now.)

DIRTY DISCS...

I would like to know if you can use regular CD audio cleaner on your Sega CDs. I asked the Sega Consumer Department and one person told me that I could, and the other one told me that there wasn’t a need to do it. I got a smudge on my Night Trap game and I can’t get through the hall between 7:00 and 8:00. What should I do?

De’shon Boynes
Chicago, IL

(Ed. Actually both of the people at Sega were correct. Usually a ‘smudge’ will not stop the laser pick-up from reading the data on the disc. Where you run into problems is when your disc is badly scratched or warped. If you want, you can clean the disc with an audio CD disc cleaner but it probably won’t solve your problem. It seems to me that your problem is more game play related rather than electronic. Try following the times that we listed in the February’s Tricks of the Trade section to get you through the game.)

TOO MUCH MEMORY...

My company, RSP, designed and developed the Super NES versions of Tom and Jerry and Hunt for Red October. Please note that both titles were done in 4 megabit format.

Game in a Cartridge!

Planet Titan: It's a jungle out there. Filled with mutants, antimatter fields and other weird stuff.

New Washington: Find your memory (remember that?) then go under cover to avoid the heat.

Death Tower: In a futuristic gladiator battle, it's a fight to the finish against replicas.

Paradise Club: You snuff out the aliens' bizarre plans but now they're on to you dude.

Earth: Oops! Your identity is uncovered. Now robot cops want to pulverize you.

Planet Morphs: Surprise! You show up at the aliens' HQ. They don't look happy!

Flashback - the first game ever to pump awesome high-octane CD ROM performance from a cartridge. The action screams along at 24 frames-per-second. Just like movie animation. And after each level, the game moves along with animated sequences that are straight out of Hollywood. Excellent!

The Plot? You play the part of Conrad Hart, a GBI agent in training. You stumble on a bizarre alien plot to conquer the earth. Now you've got to outwit and combat droves of replicants, deadly aliens, traps and other stuff too weird for words. No problem for a pro like you... NOT!

Still not convinced? Then check it out at your local game habitat. Flashback - it's like putting your Genesis into warp drive.

Exclusive 14-page Marvel* Comic Book included inside the package.

Available for Sega* Genesis*

T.T.I. has dropped the bomb on the Duo Bomberman '93 explodes with challenge and excitement for all you puzzle fans!

As the bomb-totin' man, conquer such bosses as Shadow, Plant, Bird and Idol Head. Be careful not to seal your own fate, because if you get too close to a blast, Game Over! You must rid the levels of all monsters before you can advance to the next maze. Drop your bombs within the time limit for bonus points.

Several icons can help you really blow up the place! Roller Skates increase your walking speed and Bricks let you walk you through walls! Try the 5-player game for fun!

The name of the game is fun and Bomberman '93 delivers it in quantity. While it is a good game to play solo, the only way to get the full enjoyment out of the soft is to hook up the Turbo Tap and invite four of your friends over for the time of your life. To be good, it will take a lot of strategy and technique.

There's no doubt about it. This is the party game of the year! While it may look like a game for kids, once you give it a try you will be hooked. It is a tough game to put down especially when you and your friends start playing it. I like the different levels as it not only adds variety but each requires different techniques to win.

Excellent! After several 5-player head-to-head matches I must give Bomberman '93 the first nomination for the most addictive game of the year! This game has so much strategy, it's my pick for the best multi-player game ever! While single player games are very good, the VS mode is the best, even against the computer.

GAME OF THE MONTH
NOW YOU’VE REALLY GOT A FIGHT ON YOUR HANDS.

If you think the only way to totally experience Street Fighter II is at the arcade, get a grip on the one and only Capcom Fighter Power Stick. It’s the only way to power up to full arcade play at home—for perfect execution of your Yoga Flame, Dragon Punch, Spinning Pile Driver and other favorite attacks. Its 8-way joystick lets you nail every move with minimal effort. Its six attack buttons have the same layout as the arcade game. And its three speed turbo-fire and slow motion features give you total fighting power without major finger wear. It even brings arcade style play to all of your other NES and Super NES games. With the Capcom Fighter Power Stick, you’ve just begun to fight.

It's the year 2050. The world as we know it has become a desolate and desperate place. The Mega-corps control everything, and a resurgence of magic is making survival near impossible.

In Data East's Shadowrun, you are a shadowrunner, delivering between the law. Begin your journey in the morgue and travel the streets, stopping at the Grim Reaper tavern for clues. There's a bomb somewhere...

Although the story moves quite slow, I was able to appreciate the detail built into this RPG. While the graphics were only average, this is typical of this genre. I had hoped that the sounds would have been better but the quest is the most important part to the game and Data East did a good job in delivering the goods.

There haven't been many good quest/RPG games since Zoda and I am glad to say that Shadowrun is one of the better ones in this category. The story doesn't move along very quickly and I really had hoped that it would have had more action. Still, it is a game that will appeal to fans of this genre.

This cart has a really cool storyline and gets more interesting as you play. There are a few humorous moments and lots of things to interact with. The graphics are not too impressive and the sound support is very weak. The game will definitely appeal to RPG fans but most players might not be too impressed with this cart.

Shadowrun is a really good RPG sporting plenty of items and people to interact with. The quest is long and rough, but it moves slow enough to keep your head on straight. Shadowrun may not be very exciting, but any fan of the board game will be very pleased to pick this one up. The music gets annoying after a while.

Try to survive in this latest dog-eat-dog world created by THQ.

Family Dog features you as the household pet, fending off the abuse of Billy and the rest of the family. Use the canine icons to help dodge Billy's slingshot and popgun. He'll also send the vacuum cleaner after you! You won't find solace in the kennel, however: vicious German Shepherds are eager to make your acquaintance! Give the dog a bone!

This is another one of the carts that just isn't quite there. If the controls would have been tightened up then Family Dog would have been a good game for the younger players. The concept is very good and the graphics are appropriately done but it falls short in execution. The cartoon tie-in is a good idea.

I think Family Dog is a good game for the kids. It took a bit longer than normal to get used to the controller movements but, after a while the game becomes very enjoyable and a lot of fun to play. The levels could have been harder but considering the target audience they are probably OK. Too easy for my liking.

The graphics are very cute and kids may relate to the cartoon-like quality of the game. The control is very poor and it keeps the cart from really being fun. There are a lot of cute animations and the dog's antics are really funny. The game is too simple and offers little or no challenge. Kids may be disappointed by it.

Family Dog is a good attempt at bringing a cute cartoon to the video screen, but somehow the fun was left behind. Throughout the game, you can conquer each level with a minimum of effort! You can run through each level almost non-stop! Yea. Kids won't enjoy the control, and veteran gamers will dislike the action.

Our android friend B.O.B. is on the Super NES and he's ready for his date. But it seems that the big-eyed android from Electronic Arts is having some trouble. B.O.B. has totaled his car after running into an asteroid. Now he's stranded on a strange planet and his date is waiting!

B.O.B. will have plenty of obstacles to overcome, like fire-breathing bosses and twisting corridors. Will B.O.B. stand up to his date?

This game has very good graphics and some excellent animations. I liked the challenge the later levels present but getting there was not as enjoyable as I expected it to be. The game has good play mechanics and not to be addictive a while. Overall though, the game was only average at best.

This is another one of those games which not only plays well but is also fun to play. B.O.B. is a cute character that grows on you the more you play the game. Although the action is limited, I did find that there were more than enough ways to build up my weapons. A good game for those who like slow-moving action.

I liked this cart because of its original theme and the variety of power-ups. You must conserve your weapons and gadgets until you need them most. The game has a ton of levels and offers a challenge to those adventurous enough. The bosses are not very impressive and are few and far between. Great animation!

B.O.B. has excellent animation, but the game play is a little disappointing. Enemies are far and few between, and other than climbing a few things, you really can't do very much except jump and shoot. The music needs a major overhaul, and the levels are far too short for a game of this size. Sorry, no dice here.
FATAL FURY

The battle of fate has begun...

Fatal Fury is here, and only Takara brings home all the power of the smash coin-op arcade megahit. Experience heart-pounding Streetfighting action for the Super Nintendo Entertainment System. Battle against cruel and vicious enemies to be crowned King of Fighters!

Blazing fast animation and realistic moves make this game the one to beat! Use all your fighting skills, for each villain is huge and dangerous. Choose from among three fighting heroes — each with his own unique style of fighting. Use fists and feet to defeat all foes but beware — your enemies possess hidden powers that defy the force of Nature itself. Witness their terrible might as they transform themselves, hurling energy blasts, tornadoes, even turning their entire bodies into human torches! And even as you pound them one by one, waiting and watching is the Big Boss himself — the strongest and meanest foe of all!

The battle is joined on a journey through the mean streets of Southtown. Fight hard as day turns to night on the beach, or as driving rain clouds your sight at the Chinese Temple. Superb animation and horizontal scrolling reveal new areas of the challenge, as attack after attack is met and mastered.

Realistic characters, multiple action moves, special skills, all this combined with lightning speed to create the perfect fighting action game. Take on the computer or another player head-to-head. Can you handle the challenge of Fatal Fury and become the King of Fighters?

Don your special assault outfit and become Super Turrican. You and the U.S.S. Freedom Forces are trying to free a captured planet. This new action cart by Seika pits you against an army of opponents, including flaming steam pipes, face-huggers and giant beasts. You will have to utilize your Turrican skills to liberate the planet. Collect power-ups and icons to protect you and to give your guns concentrated power.

There have been other versions of this game done for various systems but this is the best of the bunch. The graphics are very well done, the control is right on the money, and the audio is impressive. I liked the longer than average quest and the power-ups were better than average. A very well done game.

Although few players will be able to experience the Dolby Surround soundtrack, take it from me it is outstanding. Throw in exception graphics and lots of super intense action and this is the action game of the month for me. I like the idea of hidden power-ups as it adds more of a challenge to the game. Outstanding!

A great playing and great looking action cart for the Super NES! The action is intense, with lots of weapons and tons of enemies. The music is great and features Dolby surround sound. The game play is very good with precise control and plenty of techniques. With monstrous levels, the action gets a tad repetitive.

Super Turrican is an excellent multi-scrolling action title for the Super NES! It doesn't have much of the flair of other full-blown mega-hits, but it has plenty of power-ups, technique, and cool sounds to keep you blasting. One thing that surprised me was the smoothness of the control and response.

Step into a futuristic race car that has a top speed of 200mph! Sega has changed the face of road racing with the hi-tech Outrun 2019. Grueling routes to choose from include cross-country, ancient ruins, futuristic cities and icy roads. Obstacles such as other cars and trees will put your driving skills to the test. Your turbo boost will kick in for those tricky passes and ramps. Get ready for the ride of your life!

For some reason Sega has never been able to do a good racing game on the Genesis. This futuristic version of Outrun is no exception. The scaling is not as good as I expected it to be and there just isn't much difference between this and the previous versions. While the challenge is there it just doesn't look good.

I had hoped that with all of the programming experience at Sega they would finally get Outrun to be one of those 'wow' type racing games. Although the games are getting better, there still is a lot of room for improvement. Perhaps there just isn't enough memory so I guess I will just have to wait until Batman CD.

What happened! If this is what the future holds for cars, I'll stick to the classics. The graphics are very choppy and fail to give the effect of real driving. The game play is OK and the only real improvement is the power boost after you top out your speed. The game needs more variety and the music and sounds are lame.

Outrun 2019 is a good idea, but there isn't any challenge! You run into too few cars, obstacles, or hazards to make the game a real challenge. The music isn't quite up to Outrun standards either, but it's passable. I love the power booster and the multi-level tracks, however, which add a new twist to the old theme.

And you thought the Ninja Turtles were tough! Tradewest's Battletoads have jumped onto the Genesis for a battle to save their friends.

Help Rash and Zitz rescue Pimple and his girlfriend Angelica from the evil clutches of the Dark Queen. Combat this sinister lady with punches, kicks and jumps. Re-energize your strength meter with flies you catch along the way. Listen to your vulture friend... or it may be too late!

If a company is going to bring out the same game for different systems, it is important to make each version the best that the system can handle. While the control is very good, the graphics just aren't up to the Genesis' standards. It still is Toads and a lot of fun, but with more effort it could have been spectacular.

Tradewest did a good job in translating the Battletoads game over to the Genesis. The cute animations are built in as are all the troublesome enemies. I would have liked more variety but the game is very challenging and downright difficult. Almost frustratingly hard. If you haven't played the 8-Bit version get this one.

This is basically the 8-Bit game with a little bit of graphic and audio enhancement. Nothing wrong with it, but the improvement is that drastic. The game is still great with lots of moves and hilarious animation. The game is very hard and will challenge the best. While not as pretty as the Super NES version, it plays very well.

I'm really beginning to wonder if the Genesis is really 16-Bit. After disasters like Fatal Fury, it's hard not to wonder. Battletrods is no exception. Where did the 16-Bit go? I felt like I was playing the 8-Bit, and in fact, I like the 8-Bit better. It's a good game, but it doesn't feel like a solid 16-Bit title. I'm just disappointed with it.

The Bogard boys are furious! They are in search of Geese Howard, the "King of the Fighters," to avenge their father's death. Joined by Joe Higashi, the three will track the merciless Geese to the King of the Fighters tournament for a final showdown of revenge.

You will pick your first opponent and destination. Each of the three men has four special moves. Use these to unload your Fatal Fury!

I liked the Super NES version of the game and really expected the Genesis copy to be equally as good. Unfortunately, the moves were very difficult to do and in this type of game split second timing is very important. It just wasn't there. The graphics are excellent but without control there just isn't a game.

Learning to execute the moves in this game was a very difficult experience. It isn't that the control was bad, just that the timing has to be perfect and in the heat of battle, it was very difficult to have to concentrate on how to do the moves just so. Great backgrounds and good animations but needed more control.

Sad to say but the Genesis version is not as good as I would have hoped it to be. The game play suffers from slow response and the special moves are quite difficult to activate. Even in the two-player mode the game is difficult. You end up in a throw-fest because the other moves are too hard to do.

Fatal Fury on the Genesis just doesn't come across, to me, as a good fighting game. One of the keys to make this game work is to have a good joystick. Forget about using a pad as the control just isn't there. The new boss moves are cool though and the best part of the game. The two player mode is decent.

Take a step back in time with Renovation's CD spectacular, Time Gal! Chase the infamous Time Bandit from the Prehistoric Era to the future. Persevere against the grunting cavemen and avoid becoming lunch for the tigers at the Great Coliseum. Continue on and even see action in Desert Storm! Don't lose your trusty Time Medallion or you won't catch the Bandit! Prepare for a time warp!

Like Road Avenger, Time Gal is a great action game with the arcade Dragon's Lair type control. The animations are truly top notch as was the challenge which got progressively harder as you moved ahead in time. The soundtrack is CD quality and the game play is very precise. Overall, one of the best CD games out there.

Time Gal is a good follow-up to Road Avenger and Cobra Command. Although the earlier levels are quite easy as you have a fair amount of time to react to the on-screen prompt! This reaction time gets shorter and shorter as you move up in the game making it much more challenging. Great backgrounds!

Maybe it's just me, but I don't care for this type of game. The graphics are very good and have cartoon quality. The animation is very impressive and fans of Japanese animation will love it. The game play is nothing more than memorizing direction to press on the overly short levels. The replay passwords are cool.

Ahaa! Time Gal is a Sega CD title! Thanks, Renovation! I like the Mega CD version, and am happy to see the same crisp graphics, solid control, and intriguing adventure is still intact from the translation. I expect to see several games of this format soon, and I hope they all take a lesson in good programming from this.

Look out all you environmental activists! T.T.I. has brought us a complex simulation for the Duo.

While the play mechanics of the computer game have been transferred to the Duo version exactly, I just didn't get too excited with the whole global concept. There are a tremendous amount of variables and to someone who dug this type of experimenting, this game is well suited for you.

I like the idea of controlling ones destiny and Sim Earth does just that. Granted it isn't a game for shoot-'em fans as you have to use your brain but having the power to change the environment is easily worth the price of admission. If you think about what you are doing this can be quite an educational experience.

Boring! This game goes beyond SimCity, and the amount of detail is almost overkill. The different cinemas and graphic models are kind of cool, but the majority of the game is a simple overhead map with simple icons for various inhabitants and land structures. The nearly globe instructor gets very annoying rather quickly.

SimEarth on CD? Ouch! Just when you thought you'd seen it all, let's throw several Meg at you! SimEarth is a great title for the patient would-be demigods out there, but is definitely put for the gamers who crave intense excitement. Don't fret, this is a good game for SimCity fans, and they shouldn't hesitate to take a look.

The sequel to Fatal Fury brings the Bogards back to the Neo-Geo. A new evil force has begun stalking the former World Champions. This time you have Terry, Andy, and Joe plus five new players to choose from. Big Bear, Mai Shiranui and Kim Kap Hwan, to name a few, have many special deadly moves. Select the player you wish to be and use your unique skills to conquer the opponent. Fight to the finish!

It is good to see that more companies are creating games that allow the player to do combo moves. Such is the case of this Fatal Fury sequel. The matches are challenging and having a lot of different moves at my disposal was a definite plus. The animations are smooth and the control is precise.

SNK has taken a good game and made its sequel even better! The graphics are exceptional, as are the moves and audio soundtrack. The enemies are strong, powerful and difficult to beat. Easily one of the best fighting games on the market. If you have the system, you must have this cart.

This cart looks and plays a lot better than the first. The graphics are detailed and feature awesome scrolling backgrounds in some of the levels. The music is very good, but doesn't lack as much personality as the original tracks. The game play has many more moves and a new bunch of characters to learn and master.

Wow! The graphic improvements from the original Fatal Fury are astounding! The control has been tightened to allow for some cool combos, too. A feature not found in the original, I like the new characters, but I wish all of their attacks could be performed anywhere, i.e., Mai's swan dive. The challenge level is high as well!

The Tiny Toons gang has just been invited to the grand opening of a new amusement park. But behind this opening is their enemy Montana Max, up to his old tricks.

Konami brings us the latest Tiny Toons adventure: Trouble in Wackyland. Guide the Toons through all the rides, where they must fight off Montana's ruthless gang. If you survive, then you may enter the castle, where your secret admirer awaits.

This is definitely a good game with lots of simple action for the kids. Give them this cart and they will be occupied for hours. The game play is easy and not for the experienced player, but considering that this is a NES game, the better players have probably already migrated to the Super NES.

Another good game for the younger audience. The challenge is set on the easier side and the graphics are very well done and have the look that the kids will like. Getting this game is a safe bet especially if you have players, and enjoyed, the first version. Definitely a must have for the beginning gamer.

They're back for a second adventure on the NES. The game play is split into a variety of sub-games, each one with a different favorite toon. The majority of levels are loaded with technique. My favorites are the log ride and the roller coaster. This cart proves to be a well rounded 8-Bit cart with lots of solid play.

Tiny Toons 2 is a great cute game for the kids to toy around with. The challenge is decent, and the graphics are as good as 8-Bit can get, but don't expect too much wonderment in Wackyland. My only complaint is the lack of decent techniques for the seasoned gamers to control. The game is over-simplified!

Tecmo is on fire with their cool new Fire 'N Ice cart! The Coolmint Island has been invaded by the evil Fire Wizard and his band of flames. You have been selected by your elders to squelch these bandits. Use your magical wand to create and destroy blocks of ice as you combat these fire hazards! In a unique edit mode, you may create your own maze. But first "ice" those flames!

While some players might like this type of game, I found the puzzles to be repetitive and uneventful. While each puzzle was different, the idea didn't change. The puzzles did continue to get harder as you progressed through the game and this challenge could be enough to keep some people coming back for more.

An 8 for a NES game? You bet! I love the thinking/puzzle type of a game and Fire and Ice is right up that line. While the puzzles start off easy, the ones in the later stages are downright ingenious. I'm hooked, as once I started playing I found out that I just couldn't stop. Easily the best puzzle game in years!

At first it seems like a simple puzzle game for kids, but don't be deceived. The game play is very thought-provoking and planning a set of 15 to 30 moves is common in the later levels. While not graphically impressive by today's standards, this cart has a great replay value and is fun all the way through. The password helps, too.

Fire 'N Ice is a logical puzzle game through and through, so don't expect to pick this one up unless you're into that sort of thing. The puzzles aren't that hard, but some beginning or novice players may enjoy the challenge. To be honest, this is the type of game I expect to see on the NES. It seems that's all it can handle.
The action and color of big league baseball. Nobody can call it like Al Michaels. No game captures it like HardBall III.

HardBall III for the Sega Genesis maintains its place in the line-up as the #1 selling baseball title of all-time. With new features that'll send every other game back to the minors.

You get the best power in the league: 16 meg ROM with 1/4 meg RAM. 26 authentic big league ballparks. The real 162 game season, including the all-star game and the series. The ability to create and edit your own teams and team logos—even to save games and seasons. Your own "home run derby." Pro caliber "team effort" defense. Accurate stats that are updated and stored for the entire year. VCR-like instant replay that can be saved to your personal highlight reel.

Eat dirt, sweat, scratch and have Al Michaels describe every detail.

Plus the digitized play-by-play of Emmy award winning broadcaster, Al Michaels.

New HardBall III for the Sega Genesis. One look, and you'll be itching to play.

Konami's Kid Dracula

This is Dracula like you've never seen him before! Konami's Kid Dracula is full of surprises!

The young Drac is a bit absent-minded these days; it seems he has forgotten his spells, just when his archenemy decides to pop into town! He must fight through levels filled with creepy ghosts and birds in order to remember the spells. Hop on the rotating bridges or the roller coaster for a fun-filled adventure!

Konami has a great GameBoy game that offers game players a lot of variety, fun and enjoyment. While the game is not revolutionary it does take a tried and true concept and applies it well to this game. The graphics and control are above average and overall, the cart is very well done. Another hit from Konami.

Now this is a great GameBoy cart! I really like the character, even though he looks quite unusual. The game plays very well and is well designed for the GameBoy. Any faster, and the action would start blurring. Another good point is the fact that it is a game that people of all ages will enjoy playing.

This is one of the better GameBoy carts that I've played. The character is kind of strange, but he has a lot of technique. The different directions of fire are cool and the R-type motor style power-ups keep things interesting. The bosses are cute and also offer a challenge. A solid cart with lots of variety.

Spider-Man

Spidey's back! Flying Edge is in the swing of things with this GG cart. The webbed man is fighting an all new group of trouble makers including Dr. Octopus, the Vulture and Electro. Collect icons like keys and dynamite to help you in your struggle. Although there isn't a time limit, Spider-Man only has a few continues to get through 12 levels of the game. Help the webbed wonder stop the evil doctor and his fishy plans!

The Game Gear games are getting better as time goes on. This version of the popular series offers some of the best graphics, game play and sound on the system. Even though better than average, it is still a long way away from equalling one of the home versions. Still a good game to play when you're not near a TV.

Spidy is back and he is looking good. It is portable fun that keeps on coming back for more as with a dozen levels you certainly won't finish this cart in one sitting. The graphics impressed me as did the control. While not a difficult game it makes up for it in length. A good game to take to your aunts house for Easter.

This is a slightly above average cart for the GG. The graphics are pretty good and the sounds are nothing to shout about. The game seems to scroll too fast for the GG's small screen. A few techniques and solid play keep things fun. The bosses are cool and are the most familiar villains from the series.

It's hard to get excited over this Spider-Man, since it feels like the first one in every way. This one doesn't add enough new techniques or spruced up graphics to rate high. As a game, it feels solid enough to stand on its own. If you own the first, I really couldn't say whether or not you should get the sequel, but it couldn't hurt.

Milon's Secret Castle

For all you portable fans that have been craving some challenge, Milon's Secret Castle by Hudson has answered the call.

As Milon, your goal is to rescue the fair maiden. Along the way you'll encounter hidden doors, passageways, shops, and of course, tons of bosses! It's not as easy as it sounds, though - this quest requires thinking and technique to make it. Grab your GameBoy and get started!

This was a popular NES game a few years back. In its current GameBoy form, a whole new generation of players will be able to run through the different mazes hunting for the hidden items, just as we did in the 80's. The first few levels are easy but as you approach the end the game starts to get teeth.

Another puzzle/maze game! This is my lucky month. Other cerebro players will also appreciate the hidden treasures and challenges that await them in this game. One good thing about this cart is the fact that you can take it anywhere and it is very well suited for portable playing on a long drive in the car.

This game is practically a direct translation of the NES cart for the black and white underdog. The graphics are OK, but it's hard to see the enemies against the backgrounds. The game is filled with secrets and lots of items and power-ups. The challenge is still there, but the game is a little tough on the eyes.

As yet another victim of the GameBoy, Milon's Secret Castle should be better, but as it is, it's boring. Objects and enemies are hard to distinguish from the background, making game play irritating. It's another game for beginners, since they don't really know what they're missing! No Cupie doll for this one.
TWO POWERFUL BROTHERS, TWO DEADLY ARMIES, ONE SURVIVOR.

IF IT'S ON THE TOUR, IT'S IN THE GAME.

It's tee time. And your chance to join the world's most exclusive tour. The greatest golfers, the toughest tournaments, the biggest prize money. Everything you'd expect from the PGA TOUR.

It's all here in PGA TOUR Golf II. The brand new version of the greatest golf game anywhere. You go head to head with 60 of the best pros ever to stalk eagles. Like Couples, Lietzke, Stadler, Sindelar, Azinger, O'Meara. All the big money players.

PGA TOUR II delivers a much bigger course in golf. Six unique TPC courses and a fantasy course. Including these new ones: the TPC at Eagle Trace, TPC of Scottsdale, and TPC at Southwind. And five actual PGA TOUR tournaments. Plus the ultimate big money shootout: A new skins challenge on any course.

Every hole's designed from the original course blueprints. Right down to each hazard, bunker, green, fairway, and rough.
So now you go a lot farther on the PGA TOUR. With awesome new graphics. A fade and draw meter for improved shot control. More stats than ever. Like average hole scores vs. par, number of holes in one, your winnings in the skins challenge. And new digitized sounds. Including sports-caster Ron Barr as the tournament announcer.

You better be on the ball if you want to win any prize money. The roughs are a jungle, the sand traps, a desert. Wind conditions and 10 ball lies can drop you from the leaderboard faster than you can say bogey.

Luckily, 10 TOUR pros give you a course on how to play each hole. They'll even play right alongside you. And rotating 3-D putting grids give you a map on how to attack the greens.

EA SPORTS™ coverage follows every bounce of the ball. With multiple camera angles. Instant replay. A new Hole Browser™ that lets you be the camera-man. Plus battery back-up saves it all: tournaments, players, prize money, and stats.

Score this game of golf. Call (800) 245-4525 anytime. Or see your local Electronic Arts dealer. And go the distance on the PGA TOUR.

...Hello all you little game boys and girls out there in video game land, 'tis the master of gaming goodies and all-around swell stuff, Quartermann, back to the pages of EGM once again to give you the slickest skinny of what the in-crowd is doing! We've got a very special theme this month my Quarter-friends, with more insider info from the halls of the CES as well as the Q-Mann's usual bag o' trix! So let's start the show...The top rumor rippin' its way across the Q-Minator's desk this month concerns talk of a Sega CD price drop of thermonuclear proportions! Fueled by some hot and heavy fan interest over the holidays, Sega plans to prep future sales of their super CD system going into X-Mas of '93 with a mega slash-and-burn in the current 300 buck entry fee! Word on the street says the Sega CD could fall below the $200 mark going into the holidays - at the same time dozens of new licensesee hits with some power-packed softs. Sega's hitting all the right buttons, and even if the big 'N's gaming gurus get their CD machine together in time to meet announced delivery dates at the under-200 level, Sega will already be there! Leave it to Master-Q to keep you updated...Speaking of CD, Pioneer's Laser-Active laserdisc/video game mega machine won't be seeing the stroll until July. So start saving up your pennies, kiddies, because you're going to need 120,000 of them...

...More nifty news from the Q-Mann's corner concerns a fighting master's dream come true. A secret group of hard-heads are in the final stages of perfecting a special modem that will allow Street Fighter 2 fans to play each other over the phone lines! Dig it! This peripheral, which could be ready by summertime, will let you interact across town or across the country with other SF2 fans who are equally equipped with modem and game. The best part of the plan? The Street Fighter 2 modem will clock in at under the price of the SF2 game...Total Carnage, contrary to other erroneous reports, will be coming to stores via Black Pearl Software, not Acclaim. The cart will come configured in 6-Meg mode, with an enhanced Sega CD version materializing at year's end...Turbo fans, don't despair! The first CD game system will expand later this year with a special CD version of John Madden now in development. Also, the 16-Meg Fighting Street 2 game that the Q-Mann reported on several months back may change to an even more enhanced cart/CD combo that will not only increase interaction and game play, but also pump in a variety of speech and video effects that follow the plotline of everyone's favorite beat-em-up...

...While we're on the subject of fighting games, you'll have to wait until August for Mortal Combat to make its way onto the consumer formats. Both the Sega Genesis (blood and guts) and Nintendo (rated G) versions should show up around the same time new versions of Street Fighter 2 pop up for some new systems. Don't believe the ink you see in other mags, my little Quarter-freaks, because in addition to the CD SF2 (which those close to the project indicate will be packed with video, voice and more) the rumor mill is adamant that there will be a cart translation for Sega fans as well. Nothing is confirmed, but the EGM offices are drooling with delight...

...The Battle of the Toons is about to begin. Super-star Sonic the Hedgehog and his universe of crazy critters are on their way to ABC for both a prime-time special and a possible Saturday morning series replete with Tails, Dr. Robotnik and others. Out to ruin their day is a new weekly flick being developed around the day to day escapades of one Bubsy the Bobcat! Who will survive? Who will grab the magical rating point to power-up? Does anyone care?...BTW, did you know that for a very short time the Robotnik character was considered for the lead in Sonic the Hedgehog? I don't know how well Sega would be doing with a fat clown as their mascot, but fortunately they found the name Sonic as hard to attach to the evil dude as the rest of humanity...My pigskin prayers have been answered! Tecmo Super Bowl will not only plow its way onto the Genesis when the next season starts, but also the Super NES...Other Tecmo news includes the return of Ryu in a 16-Bit version of Ninja Gaiden on the Super NES...

...Time Gal will return to the U.S. courtesy of Renovation - our head ed. Ed was suffering from "foot in the mouth" disease when he indicated Sega may lap up the latest in push game technology. By the way, the Q-Mann loves Road Avengers - check out my complete review in this month's Q-Letter that's free to EGM subscribers!...There's a tidal wave of Sega six-button sticks on the way, including controllers from Tengen and Beesh! The best of the bunch may be C&L Control's Sega update to their award-winning Champion stick - the Q-Mann can't wait to have one - or a game that you can play with it...

...That wraps up the Quarter-Witt's column for this month, but don't forget to tune in next month for more hot gossip from inside and out the world of video games! Also, all you EGM subscribers out there should look for the hidden Q-Mann message in this issue's special Quartermann Q-Letter. Also, next month the Q-Letter will have a very special contest with some, shall we say, "interesting" prizes. So don't miss it out on the fun and don't miss the Quartermann's newest gaming column soon to come in the pages of HERO ILLUSTRATED magazine! If you thought other mags had insight in their game reviews/preview, wait until you see what yours truly has to say...

NEW DUO-R COMING IN DECEMBER

NEC Home Electronics of Japan has just announced that they will be bringing out a new version of the PC Engine Duo later this Spring.

Called the Duo-R, this new machine will look and perform very much like the existing system. The major difference will be in the cost of the machine as NEC is reducing the retail price in Japan from $475 to $320 (59,800 ¥ to 39,800 ¥).

To achieve the new price, several minor modifications have been made to the older PC Engine Duo. The most obvious change is the color. The new Duo-R will be greyish-white rather than charcoal black as in the old Duo. Gone also is the earphone jack and the volume control. The same with the CD cover lock. The system specifications have remained the same, though in order to keep all of the different versions of the system compatible.

The styling will also undergo a facelift. NEC wanted the new system to be made smoother and sleeker. Many of the straight lines in the Duo's shape have been replaced with curves. To do this, the Duo-R had to be made about one half inch thicker and slightly longer and wider.

One item that is important to note is the fact that the U.S. Duo is currently being sold cheaper ($299) than its Japanese counterpart. Officials at T.T.I. have stated that this was done in order to build up enthusiasm in America for the new Duo. Since the PC Engine is already very popular in Japan, the Duo over there didn't have to be sold at such a low cost.

When questioned as to whether the new system will appear in America, T.T.I. officials stated that they are presently looking at the new Duo-R, and they will see how it will fit into their overall marketing plan. They will make a decision later this year as to whether it will be brought out over here. They state that their major concern for the first half of this year is to substantially increase the number of games, and after that, they will look at the hardware.

It is believed that when Sega reduces the price of its Sega CD machine from $299 to $200 this September, T.T.I. will have to match the price to stay competitive. The easiest way to do this at that time will be to then bring out the lower cost Duo-R.

The new Duo-R may be coming to the U.S. later this year. With some features removed, it could sell for $200.

FIGHTING STREET 2 TO BE DISK AND CART

EGM has learned from sources close to the Fighting Street 2 development team that NEC of Japan is seriously exploring the possibility of bringing out Fighting Street 2 as the first game which will combine a CD and cartridge. The problem in doing that though, is twofold.

First, because of the small amount of built-in memory in the PC Engine Duo, it is not possible to download all of the necessary parts of the game program from the CD to the system that is needed for a fighting scene.

Second, if the game was to be done as a high memory cartridge (16 to 32 megabit), the game graphically, would be a duplicate of the arcade Champion Edition, but the sounds, audio and background music would have to be severely cut back.

To solve the problem, Japan is currently looking into the possibility of putting the game program on a cartridge, and all of the related sounds and music on a CD. The main hurdle to overcome is how to synchronize everything so that the two formats play as one.

Of course, price is a concern. With so much memory needed for the game, the cost of the cartridge alone would be well over $100. If a CD were included, the game would retail for more than $120.

And that says nothing about controllers. While a 3-button pad is available in Japan, there hasn't been any announcement to date of a 6-button stick.

We ripped-off a perfectly good idea.

TRUE ARCADE ACTION. You'll find that the only thing missing from our new Super Advantage is the coin slot. Okay, so we added an extra long cord. And our joystick is easier to carry than an arcade machine, not to mention a few thousand bucks cheaper (that means under $50, suggested retail price). Bottom line is, this is about as close as you can get without grabbing a crowbar and—well, you get the picture.

The layout's familiar, and the construction's tough enough to handle the most intense street fight or the ultimate battle for the universe. We've also added a few features you won't find in the arcades—state of the art effects designed specifically for today's most radical games. No wonder we call it the...

SUPER ADVANTAGE

All rights reserved. Nintendo. Super Nintendo Entertainment System. Super Advantage, and the official seals are registered trademarks of Nintendo of America Inc.
Nintendo has been very busy lately coming up with new ways to spruce up their not-so-old Super NES. Players have been bombarded with promises of a 32-Bit CD-ROM drive, a new DSP chip which allows for faster processing of data, and, most recently, a new FX chip which lets the Super NES play 3-D polygon graphics games.

Last issue we talked about the CD-ROM and this time we'll look at the new chips that Nintendo is putting in its games.

DSP CHIP

One of the major problems with the Super NES is that it is slow. While it has a 16-Bit processor, it only runs at 2.68 and 3.56 MHz. For most games this is quick enough especially with the introduction of faster game chips and more efficient programming. But, technology moves ahead. What was OK last month is boring this month. So what was Nintendo to do? There was no easy ‘fix’ for the Super NES, so Nintendo did the next best thing - add more processing power to the game cartridges.

This is both good and bad. It is good for Nintendo, as they can add new chips in the cartridges which will speed up the system. Games can then be more complex as the added processing speed permits faster calculations. It is also good for Nintendo as they can make more money selling the new chips to the software companies. And finally, it is bad for the players as they will have to pay up to $10 more per game because of the extra chips.

What is in it for the player? So far the improvements look quite impressive. Games like PilotWings and Super Mario Kart are fun to play. And also quite affordable. But that is where Nintendo is smart. They bring out these wonderful games at ‘normal’ prices and the players get used to the new technology and want more. As big as Nintendo is, they can swallow the extra cost for the new chips. But when a small third party company makes a DSP (Digital Signal Processor) chip game, they have to charge the players the extra $10. Such is the case for Dungeon Master and F-1 Racer 2.

If there is good news, at least Nintendo picked a good chip to use. They are using an NEC μPD77C25 chip. It is a very fast chip as it has an instruction cycle of only 100 ns (nannoseconds). This translates to a clock speed of about 10 MHz. It is a completely separate processor and can work independently from the Super NES CPU. When it comes to pseudo 3-D scaling and rotation calculations (as in PilotWings) the chip allows for up to 40 times the number of calculations as the Super NES alone. In fact Nintendo themselves state “It is impossible for the Super NES CPU [by itself] to process such data.” Look for more games to feature this chip, but also expect to dig deeper into your wallet to buy the games.

FX CHIP

Time marches on and the DSP chip is already ‘old’. While it can really add new life to the Super NES, Nintendo is moving from pseudo 3-D games to true 3-D polygon graphics games. As, you guessed, to be able to bring such life-like simulations to the Super NES, there has to be a new chip. Enter the FX chip. Not only is it a high speed microprocessor like the DSP (10.74 MHz clock speed), but the FX chip also has built-in graphic functions which can quickly draw images necessary in polygon processing. Their first game to use this chip is StarFox and it looks good. But, like the DSP chip, Nintendo is telling its third party licensees that the chip will add about $10 to the retail cost.

Is this the ultimate technology? No, but Nintendo expects that these two chips will hold them until their CD-ROM is ready next year.

Super Air Diver by Asmi of Japan is the latest in DSP chip games.

Mario Kart, with a mini DSP chip, offered players good pseudo 3-D racing action.

LIKE I DO WITH THE ASCIIPAD SG, THAT'D BE KILLER!

Whoever said, “life is unfair” must have gotten their butt kicked by the new asciiPad SG.

Here’s why: it’s got TURBO FIRE (up to 24 shots per second), hands-free AUTO-TURBO and SLOW-MOTION CONTROL. Plus, it looks cool, too. With this kind of control, you’ll always land on your feet. Which is more than we can say about life. The asciiPad SG. There’s nothing fair about it.

IT’S HOW TO WIN.
SEGA & NINTENDO START 3-D WAR

Sega and Nintendo are about to lock horns in a new battle. It's not the 16-Bit war, as that one is still going on, but this time it is taking place out of this world... in the third dimension. Both companies are getting ready to launch a new genre of games, those which will attempt to duplicate game play in a realistic 3-D environment.

NINTENDO

In one corner is Nintendo. Their game is called StarFox and it simulates combat missions over land, sea and through the darkness of outer space. Centered around a new co-processor built into the cartridge, StarFox features polygon graphics that have texture mapping and light source shading that they claim create realistic simulation experiences.

From the hands-on experience our editors got at the Winter Consumer Electronics Show, StarFox proved to be an excellent shooter. The action moved along quite rapidly, the polygons did have some shading, and the game played very well. On the negative side, the polygons were very large and coarse, giving an overall impression of a very artificial terrain.

SEGА

In the other corner is Sega. Their game is called Silpheed and it is a Sega CD disc. Right away, Sega has the advantage of virtually unlimited memory. And when it comes to polygon graphics, memory is everything. Processing speed is also important but the Sega CD has a very fast and efficient co-processor built in, and the action in this game moved along very quickly. The major difference, as you can see from the pictures above, is that Silpheed, when compared to StarFox, is extremely detailed and realistic looking. This is because there are over 500,000 polygons in the planet scene alone. Advanced fractal geometry was used to calculate and draw the lights and shadows of the geographical features. Throw in a "high" frame speed of 20 frames per second, continuous stereo PCM (Pulse Code Modulation) audio, and special sound effects synthesized in surround sound, and you have a game that makes Star Fox look like a NES cart.

Of course it is unfair to compare a CD game with a cartridge, but the FX chip is all that Nintendo has to go up against the competition as their CD machine won't be ready until next year.

If Sega didn't already have a huge 3-D advantage, they will certainly have an even larger one when their Virtual Reality peripheral for the Genesis comes out later this year. Although their VR games are very early in design, from what we were able to see, the concept converts to the home screen quite well.

KONIX TO BRING OUT 32-BIT SYSTEM

Remember the ill-fated Konix multi system from a few years ago? It's back!

There is now a joint venture between an English firm called MSU and a Taiwanese manufacturer called TXC. Between them, this time they say they have enough money to make the system a reality and hope to get the machine into production later this year.

Featuring a 32-Bit processor that supposedly runs at an unbelievable 30 MHz, the Konix Multi System just might also include some elements of motion video as well. The system will be a CD-only machine. Officials at Konix are stating that 8 to 10 games will be available at launch time and they predict that 150,000 units will be sold in the first year. Sales will be directed at England first and then expanded to the rest of Europe. No price has been established yet, but they expect that their system will compete directly with the Sega CD. Perhaps the question should be...does anybody care if another system comes out?

The Konix Multi System is being redone, this time as a CD-only game system.

SUPER SIDE KICKS

SNK has added another sports title to their list of arcade coin-snatchers. Their latest creation, Super Side kicks, delivers some very high-powered soccer action.

You can play either alone or against a friend, picking teams from all over the world. The game play is stellar and includes some great little tidbits such as tackles and slides. Ties are decided by trying a series of penalty kicks which alternate you between the roles of shooter and goalie.

Of course, you get the graphics, sounds and playability that you would come to expect from a coin-op.

If you're ready for something different, give SNK's Super Side kicks a shot!

HOW IT RATES

SNK has made some great sports games in its time. Super Side kicks is one of these. On the plus side, the action is fast and lively. The ability to tackle and slide into the other players is a welcome addition as are the tie-breaking penalty shot segments. Player control is also exceptional.

On the negative side, I was hoping for better graphics. The angle at which you watch the game should be more "ground level" rather than from a hundred feet up. All things considered, Super Side kicks is a no-nonsense-fun-to-play soccer game which will appeal to fans of the genre.

Overall: 7

---

You will be able to pick a team from a long list of internationally ranked clubs.

"Ace" is your most agile and fast player. Make sure you always use him wisely!

---

One of the game's highlights is the penalty shot shoot-out. Here, you will get to test your abilities at both shooter and goalie!

DRAGON GUN

Fans of shooting games such as Steel Gunner 1 and 2 and Space Gun will be very excited by Data East's Dragongun. Hold onto your hats as you go face to face with huge dragons, weird organic spaceships and whacked-out alien invaders. Walk through tight corridors and be alert because danger is literally around every corner! Use your special bombs when things get out of control and be careful not to waste too much ammo.

Cartoon-like graphics give you a first person perspective of all the action. Graphics? Wait until you see some of the enemy characters! This game is a delight to play as well as watch. Shoot the beasts in their weak spot while trying not to get hit by their fiery breath. Some of the dragons are just too cool. If you don't believe us, check out these pictures and draw your own conclusions! Definitely a "must-play", Data East's Dragongun will soon have you in its fiery clutches!

WING FORCE

Wing Force follows the typical shooter genre: tons of power-ups, stellar graphics, great end bosses, blah, blah, blah... Where Wing Force really shines is in the game play department. This game is difficult! Sometimes, there is so much on-screen action that you will easily lose track of where you are at!

In addition to this, Wing Force is great fun to play. Its controls are well-placed and easily accessible. The sound effects and music are also good! To help you get a handle on what sets one shooter apart from all of the others, try your hand at Atlus' Wing Force! It'll rock your world!!

Wing Force's weapons systems are as imaginative as they are destructive. Shooters come, and shooters go. We've all seen it. What is it that sets one apart from another? Well, play Atlus' Wing Force and find out firsthand!

Wing Force pits you against some of the toughest bosses you are likely to meet.

A: It's true that the Super NES has three operating speeds, but in almost all cases, the speed is not determined by the programmer. Depending on the task and area of memory being accessed, the Super NES itself selects the most efficient speed for processing data. In other words, nobody ever chooses to run a program at the slowest speed, but if that's the most efficient pace, the Super NES will automatically select it.

By the way, Dino, I loved your envelope art.

And speaking of envelope art and our Draw the Game Doctor contest, this issue we're featuring some of our finest entries. Greg Wilcox of New York City had both the winner in our envelope art competition and an honorable mention in the Draw the Doc contest. Greg hopes to someday become a comics pro and has submitted samples to Dark Horse. The Doc wishes you the best of luck!

Q: I'm writing all the way from Britain because I'm sure you're the only geezer who can answer my questions: 1) If I brought my Super NES with me to America, would it work on American TV? 2) Why do Nintendo and Sega make British games so expensive? Over here, SF II costs $97.50 in U.S. dollars.

Christopher Jones
London, England

A: Always glad to help a Trans-Atlantic gamer, Chris.
You're going to have a problem with your Super NES over here, however, since the British broadcast system [PAL] and ours (NTSC) are non-compatible. Even if it did work, you'd need a power converter because of AC/DC incompatibility.

As for the price of video game software being higher in England than America, you should be used to that by now. Surely you've noticed that everything from cars and computers to meat and musical instruments cost more in Britain than the U.S.

The winner of the Draw the Game Doctor contest is Demetri Demas.

Remember to send those Qs to:

LETTER OF THE MONTH

Q: What are the name conversions in Japan for: NES, Super NES, SMS, Genesis, Sega CD, TurboGrafx-16 and Turbo Duo? Thanks!

Jordan Tucker
Rockwall, TX

A: Here they are, Jordan, in order: Famicom, Super Famicom, SG-1000, Mega Drive, Mega CD, and PC Engine. The former Turbo Duo system is now known only as the Duo. The Game Boy and Game Gear have the same name in both countries.

Hello and welcome once again to another high-powered edition of the latest and greatest gossip from Japan. As expected, Final Fantasy V is completely sold out at every shop! I still don't have a copy for myself. Talking with people reveals that those who did get a copy have put in over eighty hours of play and still haven't finished the game. Word on the street is that some retailers are actually holding out for bigger profits on the hottest cart to come along in a while! Sounds kinda shady to me.

I was lucky enough to attend some of the latest game and toy shows in Japan. Most recently was the Amusement Expo '93 on February 16th and 17th, and the Winter CES in Las Vegas on January 7th through the 10th. These were some of the biggest shows at this time of the year with many companies showing off what is to be released throughout the year. It was an exciting time and I brought back plenty of souvenirs to clutter up my desk.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Bruce Boeckmann

Japan's game market is heating up with the release of new titles. One of the most anticipated is Breath of Fire, which will be available for the Super Famicom. The game is a sprite-based RPG that promises to be a hit with fans of the genre.

The game's storyline involves a young hero who must battle against the forces of evil in a sprawling world filled with colorful creatures and intriguing puzzles. Players can explore different areas, engage in battle, and interact with various NPCs to advance the story.

Breath of Fire is developed by Capcom and is scheduled to release in Japan in December. It is currently in development for the Super Famicom in Japan and will be available internationally in the future.

Breath of Fire is a totally original RPG from the masterminds at Capcom of Japan! Spanning many worlds of play, this one will definitely keep you excited and waiting to see what's next.

The most notable feature of Breath of Fire is the fantastic fighting sequences. Whenever you come across an enemy, the view rotates around so you witness a 3/4 view of the battlefield.

Here you can conjure up all sorts of wicked spells or clash head-on with swords and staffs blazing.

The game is divided up into several chapters with mini-plots in between. Successful completion of these mini-plots will allow you to explore new worlds which yield unending power.

Frequently, your party will come across towns which harbor new crew members as well as weapon and medical shops. There are eight characters which can either willingly join the party or you can pay them to help you fight! Expect an April release for Breath of Fire!

---

The magician casts powerful spells like a lightning strike from heaven.

The characters can interact with others in the town for information.

The fire magic is best used against undead creatures like mummies.

VIRTUAL COMBAT!

Now here is an item to liven up those boring Monday mornings at the office. This unit is called the Virtual Yarou and offers more features than Laser Tag or Photon from ages past.

The Virtual Shooter is comfortable to hold for those hour long combats.

The Virtual Unit straps on your head and acts as a sensor for attacks.

Basically, it consists of two units called the Virtual Unit and the Virtual Shooter.

The Virtual Unit attaches to your head where a beam of light on the front acts as a sensor. There is a small eyepiece that covers the right eye which displays the number of hits scored on your hapless opponents.

This demonstration shows how this system can really liven up any office!

Yes, it was destined to happen! Ranma 1/2 is coming to the Mega CD-ROM.

While not a fighting game like some of the others, this one plays more like an actual episode of the animation series.

All the characters are present, complete with full voice. The basic plot is to try to survive a couple of days as Ranma as you go to school, avoid Kunoh, and engage in many other situations!

This pineapple shows just how much Genma really likes to eat. Try to help him.

Take on all of Bond’s old arch enemies. Enter a volcano. Blow up an enemy space shuttle. And of course, save the world. That’s not too much to ask of you, the world’s greatest secret agent... is it?
INTERNATIONAL NEWS

There is a switch located on the unit with two settings which allow for players to shoot their own team members or restrict it to opposite teams only.

The Virtual Shooter is the hand-held gun which has a futuristic design and is very comfortable to hold. The gun holds a rechargeable battery pack in the handle which offers about four hours of constant play. The gun also has a cap to protect it from damage and can also be used like a super charger to increase the power of your shots! This can only be used ten times in a match, however.

Although it is a bit difficult to play in the daytime, it's an absolute blast to play indoors!

ANIMATION CELEBRATION!

Ever since CD-ROM made its debut on the video game scene, it seems that more and more companies are producing games based on the more popular animation series. Notice the big influx of Ranma ½ for nearly every system, including Mega CD, and Urusei Yatsura for the PC Engine CD-ROM.

Probably the best reason anyone can give to these games huge success is the big following that fans of the animation give to Urusei Yatsura (Lum) was a hit when released on the PC Engine CD.

We've got major problems! One day, Trickman Terry woke up late (he regularly sleeps through his alarm) and he tried to make up time by driving a bit too fast on his way to work. Well, the boys in Blue nailed him for going 63 in a 50. Ouch! Normally that would amount to a humongous fine, but once the police saw his Trickman license plates, they struck up a conversation. It seems that the officer's boy is a big fan of Trickman, and Terry was able to promise the policeman that the next issue would be the best ever. The smoke was a bit apprehensive of Trickman's boasting, but, when Terry whipped out a new issue and autographed it for the officer's son, he let Terry go with only a warning. The trouble is, the next issue has to be good. So, for Terry's sake, send your best gaming goodies to: Tricks of the Trade, Sendai, 20th Century Avenue, Suite 222, Lombard, Illinois 60148.

I'm your excellent host, Wayne Campbell, and with me, as always, is Garth...

NOT!

Garth has been kidnapped! No way, you say? Hway!! And now you, Wayne Campbell, must rescue your excellent sidekick from a fate most unbecoming!

Armed with your mighty guitar and the power to schwing, you must brave the perils of the music store, donut shop, nightclub and suburbia. There you will spar with such dweeboids as monster barbies, accordions and kazoos (shure, right!), donut demons and dearly diced bally (as if!), hair-whipping headbangers and the strange psycho hose beast (way)! Are you worthy to face this mega-challenge without blowing chunks? Then party on, my friend, to the most excellent finish!

Whoa! Barry Manilow flashback!

This is no dream sequence, my friend.

He shoots, he scores!

One wrong move and you're pale!

Before you play this know which

La-a-a-nd Ho-o-o! It's Tiny Toon Adventures™ - Buster's Hidden Treasure™ for Sega™ Genesis™! As Buster Bunny, you've landed in a 33 stage treasure hunt adventure. Check out the animated terrain and "toon" your big blue ears into the groovular sound effects. Bounce through cartoon turf such as the Underground Sea and a Waterfall so wacky, you won't know which way is up.

You've got to rescue your pals and find the treasure before spoiled Montana Max spoils your plans. But you'll practically have to move mountains if you're going to make it through the mountainous Radar Range.

You're drooling for that 14 carrot gold, but so is every other toonster in town! Dr. Gene Splicer has even brainwashed (we use the term loosely) Elmyra and Dizzy Devil to do his dirty work. Here in the Excavation Factory you'll really have to crank out the carrot juice to survive.

KONAMI

The Shipwreck will have you sunk because it's swarming with zany challenges. In a pinch, you can always spring a triple jump or slide down a rope with your ears.
cartoon, you better way to Gogo.

Welcome to the Fungusamungus Forest, where creepy trolls and owls are just dying to meet you. But hang on to your carrots, Gogo Dodo will show you where to go throughout this adventure.

The Plains! The Plains! This fantasy island is fraught with freaky flatlands. Before they flatten you, watch out for unidentified falling objects, electric zappers, moving walls, levers and misplaced rakes.

Happy Spelunking! No, it's not a Swedish holiday, save your greeting cards. You're going to be exploring the Deepdark Caverns. Some caves flow with molten lava. Talk about a hot foot!
NEW SOFT NEWS

Okay all you crazed vidiacs! The CES show was filled with wonderful surprises from all the game companies. Here is just a quick listing of what to expect later this year!

On the Super NES, Acclaim has Incredible Crash Dummies. • Bulletproof was showing Obitus. • Capcom has MVP Football. • Hudson Soft had Super Bomberman and Dig and Spike Volleyball. • Interplay debuted Rock & Roll Racing and Lord of the Rings. • Super Empire Strikes Back was coming from JVC. • Ocean had Jurassic Park. • T'Hoq showed more of Ren & Stimpy. • UBI Soft is reportedly working on a baseball title and a car racing game. • Virgin had Global Gladiators.

Sega owners can look forward to Sega CD versions of Mortal Kombat. • and WWF Wrestlemania by Flying Edge; and, • Ecco, Dark Wizard, U2 and Peter Gabriel and Indiana Jones all on CD from Sega.

SNK appears to be putting in some serious overtime lately. Many new games are already appearing in the arcades with more in development. Some of those include Samurai Showdown, Reaction, and Magician Lord 2! But the best news is that SNK is developing a CD-ROM system for their incredible machine! This attachment will cost about $450.00, the games will run around $50.00 each, and should be out in 1994.

The war has just begun! The rebel forces from Desert Strike have taken refuge deep within the African jungles. Once again, you must pilot the highly advanced helicopter across enemy lines and flush out the vermin before they can strike again. Jungle Strike offers the same strategic fun as Desert Strike but with 16 Meg behind it, this game offers more enemies to destroy, more obstacles to avoid and more missions to keep your trigger finger firing away. Start out by getting briefed on the upcoming situation. Learn all about the rebel forces strengths and weaknesses plus their favorite hiding places. Then load up your chopper with missiles, guns and fuel and head into the steamy jungle to fight for peace. Lock and load! The helicopter handles just like the real version and is just as deadly. Use the radar to locate your targets and possible refuel and reload stations. Saving captured hostages can earn you more armor plating, too! The inhospitable jungles beckon your return for peace.

SPEEDY GONZALES

GAMEBOY | 2 MEG | CARTRIDGE

The fastest mouse in all of Mexico lives in SunSoft's latest GameBoy title! Race Speedy through many levels like a waterfall stage where furry creatures roam about.

Speedy Gonzales must also collect cheese wheels as he races about. Since he can run so fast, there are many hazards set up, including loops that he must pass through before fans at the end blow him back around.

The enemy above is best if left alone. Sneak under the ledge to avoid him.

Little pals like this can give Speedy a boost over ledges too high for him to jump over.

FINALLY, BASEBALL THAT'S MORE THAN HIT AND RUN.

This is the way baseball's supposed to be played. The strategy. The thinking. The statistical percentages behind every pitch and swing of the bat.

That's what Tony La Russa Baseball™ is all about. For baseball purists, La Russa's the only game in town. All twenty-six major league teams. Every single player from the '92 season, from Abbott to Zeile. Each rated in 9 different skill categories like bat power and arm strength based on stats from STATS™ Inc. Giving you the most accurate baseball simulator ever.

That's not all. You also get the 1992 Manager of the Year: Tony La Russa. His thinking, his strategies, his insights on how to win—it's all there in the game. So Tony can tell you what to pitch to Will Clark. When to go to the Eck. How to score when Cone's on the mound. If you should shift for dead pull hitters like Dave Justice.

As manager, you're the field general. Flash the steal sign. Warm up the bullpen. In this league, strategy counts.
With La Russa, you can step up to the plate for every pitch, you can call the shots as the manager, or you can watch an entire 162-game season.

Plus you get the ultimate fielder's choice. The choice of auto fielding, or manual mode that uses a unique outfielder spotlight on any ball in play. Allowing you to chase down balls all the way to the warning track. Just like Rickey Henderson.

Battery backup tracks team standings for all 162 games. You can even create your own dream team with players from all 26 rosters. Imagine a batting order with Barry Bonds, Kirby Puckett, Cecil Fielder. You name it, they're yours.

Of course, EA SPORTS™ delivers big league coverage. With stats. Tips from Tony. And camerawork so good, you feel the heat when you step up to the plate against Rob Dibble.

This is the pitch you've been waiting for. Call (800) 245-4525 anytime. Or see your local Electronic Arts dealer. And get the only baseball game that plays like a major leaguer and thinks like a manager.

The EA SPORTS radar gun is sharp enough to gauge the speed of a Roger Clemens bullet.
Dracula: The Transfusion from Movie to Game

For fans of Bram Stoker’s Dracula who wished they could have somehow taken part in the Gothic thriller, Sony Imagesoft’s CD version allows them to do just that.

Throughout development of the game, game designers and programmers worked hand in hand with movie technicians to ensure a faithful adaptation of the haunted tale.

According to Producer Rich Robinson, interaction between movie and game development began when a group of game designers and programmers sat down with director Francis Ford Coppola.

In the meeting, which took place at the embryonic stage of both the movie and game, Coppola filled the team in on the plot, roles of key characters, and other important details that were yet to take shape on film.

In return, the team presented Coppola with the idea to have seven levels for the game, each representing one of the seven forms of Dracula. Coppola, himself a video game fan, liked the idea and from that meeting rose the basic premise of the game.

Since the basic plot of the game was decided on so early, Robinson had the luxury of visiting many of Dracula’s exotic movie sets - some of which were located in Europe! From these visits, Robinson was able to ensure the highest degree of authenticity between the game and movie.

“In fact, there was so much interactivity between film and game production, that the rooms created in the CD version of the game used the same blueprint set designers used when building Dracula’s castle,” Robinson said.

Using a high-powered Silicon Graphics machine, programmers were able to generate realistic rooms and rotate them, choose camera angles and lighting sources at will. All of these advanced techniques are embellished in the CD version of the game.

Once backgrounds were complet-ed, Robinson and his team turned their attention to the main character in the game - Jonathon Harker.

Employing a process known as "blue-screen", designers digitized Harker’s character and all his basic movements including walking, kicking, punching, jumping, etc., (a la Mortal Kombat).

After playing only a few minutes, Sega CD owners will immediately notice that the CD version makes better use of digital technology than any game that has come before it.

Before Dracula, many first generation CD games suffered from an over abundance of style and an inadequate amount of substance. The games looked great in their 30 second commer-

Sadie Frost stars as Lucy Westenra, one of Dracula’s victims, in Bram Stoker’s Dracula. People who were fascinated by Bram Stoker’s vision of Dracula will no doubt be absorbed by the Sega CD version of the game, which draws extensively from famous scenes and accurately recreates the Gothic mood.
Dracula (Gary Oldman) and Chesare (Anthony Hopkins) plead with God to spare Elisabeta (Winona Ryder). Although cinema screens from the CD version of the game aren't quite as crisp as these photos, they bring a new degree of realism and new meaning to the term "movie license.

Robinson says there is a very good reason for that. "We (game designers and programmers) are going through a learning curve with the CD format. It is a new technology, but actual game play was reduced to simple joystick commands.

Robinson and his team seem to have answered those questions with Dracula. Combining realistic game play with beautiful cinema scenes cut straight from the movie, Dracula on CD strikes the balance between form and function - and has elevated the CD format to a whole new level. "Sega deserves to be commended for bringing the technology to market," Robinson stated. "They transformed the technology from a futuristic concept to here and now."

Robinson said future games will employ CD technology better than even Dracula. "The CD platform has enormous potential and the possibilities are exciting."

As CD technology blurs the line between passively watching a movie and actively playing a part in it, look for action/adventure titles such as Sylvester Stallone's upcoming Cliffhanger and Arnold Schwarzenegger's Last Action Hero to offer gamers an unprecedented amount of interactivity between themselves and their favorite movie heroes in the CD translations.

Sports games will also be enhanced by CD technology. Sony Imagesoft is preparing football and baseball games - both licensed by ESPN - that will include sports clips and cuts to the ESPN Sportscenter as well as interactive broadcast commentary based on the score.

"I think the CD gaming market will explode in the coming year," Robinson predicted. With the release of Bram Stoker's Dracula, that explosion may have already begun.
THE GRAND ENTRANCE IS ON THE SEGA CD!

Said to be the Masterpiece of all the video game versions of Dracula, the Sega CD rendition is truly a spectacle to see! Not only is it filled with great music and sounds, but with CD memory, the levels were computer generated and mathematically placed with awesome detail!

ALL THE LEVELS ARE COMPUTER RENDERED!

Now this is taking CD gaming to the next level! All the action scenes in this game were done mathematically on a computer and provide scaling and rotating effects with utter ease!

The land is filled with many ghoulish surprises for you!

Detail is the strongest point in this game, even down to the enemies. See how they adore you?

Where would an action game be without bosses?

DETAILED FULL SCREEN, FULL MOTION VIDEO CINEMAS!

Like most Sega CD games, this title will have full motion video cinemas. However, while further reducing the resolution size, Sony will be able to have full screen cinemas to create more of the movie realism!

HE STALKS WITHIN THE GAME GEAR.

BRAAM STOKER’S DRACULA

Enter the portable scene with the Count as the Game Gear obtains a version of this movie as well! Even though it does not boast a computer generated background, this game will still provide a good stab in the action arena. Traverse the lands and enter the castle to defeat the Count once and for all!

SEEING THE SIGHTS IN THE FOREST.

Enter the forest and do battle with stray bats and avoid pitfalls. There are scattered power-ups along the path that contain hidden weapons!

As you progress, you will eventually enter the castle of Dracula. There you are met with unspeakable horrors and ghoulish creatures that will boggle your imagination. Be prepared for this adventure of adventures!
THE NEXT INNOCENT VICTIM: SUPER NES.

There will also be a Super NES version of the movie! Here, you enter a fast side-scrolling quest to defeat Dracula. You will need to gather different weapons and use your blade with great skill in order to defeat the horror from Transylvania for good!

The woods are a dangerous place to visit, especially if you are venturing near the Count’s home castle! There are bats and stray humanoid lurking about the land. These are not too difficult to kill. Watch out for the boss!

HIS GUISE IS UPON THE GENESIS.

SUPER HUGE LEVELS!

Most of the action takes place inside the castle, where the rooms are gigantic mazes filled with unspeakable horrors!

Well, when you’re going to bring a game out for the Super NES, Sega CD, and Game Gear, why not a Genesis version? This cart is more complete at present than the actual Super NES version, and it shows that gaming skills are going to be tested as this game should hit soon! Huge action filled levels will await you.
Top Ten reasons NOT to buy Tyrants™

9. Because I don't like lots of action and violence.

7. Because why should I waste my time arming my men with everything from bows and arrows to nuclear missiles and flying saucers when a spitwad is my weapon of choice.

5. Because I am a follower not a leader and I don't want to be the most powerful person in the world.

7. Because I don't like games that offer months and months of game play.

5. Because I do not have a loin cloth fetish. Really.

3. Because I prefer wimpy cartridges that don't have 4 megas of digitized speech.

3. Because I don't like crossing swords with devious, conniving opponents all ready to step on my baby toes.

1. Because I prefer blowing $39.99 on a cartridge that's all talk, hype and no action.

1. Because I am not worthy of an adventurous resource management game that makes other carts look like giftie toys.

BATMAN
Secret ID: Bruce Wayne

History: A sophisticated, enigmatic millionaire. At the age of nine, young Bruce witnessed the murder of his well-to-do parents by Jack Napier known as The Joker. Devastated, he pledges his entire life to combating evil - a feat he accomplishes under the guise of Batman.

CATWOMAN
Secret ID: Selina Kyle

History: She was once a quiet secretary of Max Shreck, a powerful businessman. Frustrated by the villainous Shreck, she has transformed into Catwoman. She prowls the streets in search of Batman. But will she help him or join The Penguin and try to destroy him?

PENGUIN
Secret ID: Oswald Cobblepot

History: Horrified by his disfigurement, his parents abandoned him and threw him and his carriage into the Gotham River. The carriage floated down the storm drain and ended up in Arctic World, part of the old Gotham Zoo. He was rescued by four Emperor penguins.

RETURN OF THE DARK KNIGHT
The Dark Knight makes his 16-Bit debut in a new battle against the twisted Penguin and the mysterious Catwoman. Based on last summer’s hit movie, this Super NES game has Batman battling the Penguin and his Red Triangle Circus Gang as well as the crafty Catwoman. The game even has an awesome driving scene with the streets scrolling smoothly in incredible Mode 7. As the story progresses, digitized cinemas from the movie appear between levels. The music is straight from the movie soundtrack and the killer graphics will blow you away!

TURRICAN'S MANY WEAPONS OF DESTRUCTION!

FOCUS BEAM | RICOCHET | SPREAD

LINE ZAPPER | FORCE SHIELD | LIGHTNING

ROLL / MINES

You have the ability to roll into an indestructible ball and place land mines on the ground. If you are rolling over an edge the mines will act like bombs and explode.

This 360 degree weapon will freeze an enemy temporarily and let you blast him. You can also use it to uncover hidden power-ups!

There are literally hundreds of secret rooms strewn about the various levels.

Some very impressive scaling effects have been added for greater realism.

Hidden 1-Ups (circled) are plentiful, if you can find them. Good luck!
LEVEL 1
The first level is a good place to test the capabilities of Turrican. Learn to use the Lightning Whip to uncover hidden weapon pods. Once they are exposed, leap onto them and try to climb up them to find extra credits. Explore if you want to, but keep your eye on the timer!

LEVELS 2 + 3
After defeating the first boss, Turrican now enters the extensive network of tunnels and caves. Try to stay alive through the constant barrage of enemies. After Turrican exits the caves, he must endure a huge avalanche of boulders! If necessary, use the Line to destroy the rocks.

LEVELS 4 + 5
In levels 4-6, Turrican is inside the alien "factory" where there are lots of traps. Be especially wary of the bombs which constantly fall from the ceilings, and the huge flames which shoot from all directions. Attempt to stay in control while running across the many conveyors.

LEVELS 6 + 7
Turrican is close to exiting the "factory" but he is not out of danger yet! Make sure to destroy the large spider-like creatures which attempt to put a quick end to Turrican's mission. When Turrican makes it out, he finds himself in a realm of bitter cold and blowing snow.

LEVELS 8 + 9
Upon reaching level 8, Turrican must avoid the wholly snow monsters and leap from iceberg to iceberg to make it across the frozen waters. In level 9, he must make his way up two large trees. This is done by timing your jumps with the flow of the icy winds. Good luck!!
2 PLAYER SIMULTANEOUS ACTION!

If you're lucky enough to get past the first four stages, you'll have to summon all your skills for the fifth and final stage where the most dangerous of challenges await you. This level's boss has a relentless attack!
The smash arcade hit has been given a few new dents. Lead-footed criminals will grind your gears, not only on the highway, but the jungles and snow choked mountains as well.

You'll need to unleash your fatal fists on some bad dudes and crazy creatures. Punch-in and get to work because this job will take a real super hero!

This head bangin' hard checkin' free-for-all will rattle your bones and send you flyin' into the next county. So, lace 'em up and CHECK it out!

There's bone crunching action for Sega Genesis too. Unless you want some free dental work you had better stick in the mouthpiece, strap on the pads and CHECK it out!

Trollers requires players to be quick in creating blocks and making them disappear. Be sure to watch the inventory of blocks so that you don’t run out of them.

Build
Hold the B Button and pointer in the direction you wish to build a block.

Remove
Hold the B Button and aim the cursor over the block you wish to remove.

Inventory
Watch the inventory at the right. This indicates how many blocks are left over.

This rather easy level is just a small taste of the challenging levels to come.

The Trollers have warped to Egypt where the challenges keep growing.

In this level, you not only have to save the Trollers, but get crystals, too!

Two game choices!
Pick from four intense games or continue where you left off with a password.

HOCUS POCUS!
Hocus and Pocus were the guardians of the magical Trollers, at least before the Trollers managed to escape through the teleporter door and started running rampant through all kinds of wacky zones and mind-bending mazes.

Trollers has the option of choosing from various types of games: a war game where Hocus and Pocus guide their little Trollers and try to kill each other, a team game where Hocus and Pocus team up to save the Trollers, and a training mode to teach you how to play!

Trollers have the uncanny ability to walk on walls and even stroll along upside down! To get each of the Trollers to their exit, Hocus and/or Pocus must conjure up blocks and strategically place them so the Trollers maneuver their way to the exit. Be careful because your block supply is limited and there is a time limit, too.

It’s a challenging puzzle game that will keep players entertained for hours on end as they try to complete all 175 stages. An important note: Trollers is mouse compatible!

GAME BOY® TOP GUN GUTS & GLORY®
BECAUSE HE CAN!

Rocky Rodent is here! Who is Rocky Rodent, you ask? Why, he is the latest speed demon to whiz across the scene on the Super NES! This little rodent clad in only sneakers and a yellow tank top, can run, jump and grow, well, interesting styles of hair! Rocky's hairstyles are his best weapon of attack and they will get him through the game! There are a variety of items that will change Rocky's furry top! Also, when Rocky has obtained one of these styles, he is also given the benefit of being allowed one hit by an enemy against him. The first hit will take his hairstyle away; the second will cost him a life!

However, Rocky is still formidable even without a hairstyle; his speedy little feet and super jumping ability allow him to pounce on his enemies or outmaneuver them! There are also many sweets and tasty treats along the way Rocky loves to gobble down. Don't be too slow; there is a time limit that will deprive Rocky of one life if it runs out, but, on the other hand, it will reward him if he finishes with time to spare!

GET A LOAD OF THESE:

There are several items in each level that either give Rocky points, or valuable powers! Some are hidden in presents or cans that must be jumped on!

SPIKED HAIR

Grow some hair with the spray bottle! The advantages of growing this furry spiked top: you can jump from floor to floor on buildings or structures, smash walls, and spear enemies!

PONY TAIL

Get whippin' with this pony tail! Once acquired, Rocky can swing from hooks and can whip his enemies!

MOHAWK

Use this punk hairdo as a boomerang that slashes out at enemies and then returns to Rocky's head!

LETHAL LEVELS:

LEVEL 1: DOWNTOWN

This level is a quick run-through, for there are no bosses to confront at the end! Get used to Rocky's spiked hair power - the only power provided here! It is convenient for moving upward from ledge to ledge! Water pipes are also helpful - they move you up!

1. Use the spiked hair to smash the tan bricks!
2. Armadillos will bar your way - jump or slash them.
3. Water functions as a helpful elevator!

LEVEL 2: SUNSET FREEWAY

1. Avoid bomb-hurling creeps!
2. Spear the tires from behind!
3. This boss shoots a machine gun and throws grenades!
On the first day
the Lord created
light and darkness.
Syvalion Attack Fighter

Wild Weapons!
1. Circular Laser: Spins around the Syvalion at great speeds.
2. Tailgun: Emits bursts of highly charged energy. Very handy!
3. Missiles: Spread out over a wide area to inflict maximum damage.
4. Spread Laser: Powerful laser which provides excellent coverage.

Churn n' Burn
If you've grown tired of the same old shooters, get set for a radical departure! Earth's last hope rests in the hands of the Syvalion Attack Fighter! It's your job to pilot this dragon-like serpent through a series of huge mazes in order to save mankind from the Evilion Empire. To juice things up, Syvalion has the ability to use his fiery breath to destroy the army of enemies which lies in wait.

There are helpful items to aid you along the way. After you destroy an enemy, for example, you can pick up an energy ball which will either give you added points or an extra life segment. Also at your disposal is a large variety of ferocious weapons such as tailguns, missiles, spread lasers and invincibility. (If you're lucky!)

The mazes are quite large so make sure to use the indicator arrows to navigate your way through. The graphics are good, and the bosses at the end of each maze are pretty formidable. If you're looking for a shooter with a twist (literally), give Syvalion Attack Fighter by JVC a try; it'll burn you up!

Over the next five days, The Lord created the heavens, the earth, the stars, the creatures, and man.
LEVEL ONE: THE FACTORY

ENEMY TOYS
To get to the cameras, you must destroy all the enemies in the sector. These foes range from miniature tanks to robotic spiders. Learn their patterns to survive.

SECURITY CAMERA
The main objective of most of the levels is to destroy the security cameras strewn about. They are very dangerous, however, as they will shoot lasers out of their eyes. To stop them, you must squirt your water pistol at their eyes to freeze them, then shoot the lens.

TOYS MAKE GREAT WEAPONS!
You are a toymaker who must save your father's toy factory from the clutches of your demented uncle who thinks weapons of war make great entertainment. You must retake the factory which is guarded by all sorts of nasty things, like toy tanks, helicopters, paratroopers and cyber-spiders. On the bright side, you can use toys to defeat all the enemies! Pick up strange items, and try to take out the security cameras! Can you stop your uncle before it's too late?

With scenes just like the movie, the game tries to recreate the madness of a toy factory gone awry. A lot of different items to use and colorful cinema displays add to the excitement. If you are looking for fast-paced action and nonstop thrills, try a dose of Toys.

TOY WEAPONS AT YOUR DISPOSAL.

RACE CAR
Zips around hitting anything in its path.

BOWLING BALL
Rolls straight forward to hit enemies.

CUSTARD PIE
Can be thrown a short distance at aerial objects.

TOY ELEPHANT
Charges at the enemies in a random pattern.

FOOTBALL PLAYER
Charges just like the elephant but more powerful.

WIND-UP DUCK
Waddles around creating havoc on the screen.

PEANUT GUN
Shoots peanuts out in a straight stream.

PIE TIN
Throw this forward to peg enemy planes.

TOMATO
Another projectile that can easily kill enemies.

TOY CHEF
Like the football player but not as tough.

On the seventh day
The Lord rested.
MAGNETO HAS RETURNED!

The master of magnetism: Magneto has taken control of the Danger Room. The Danger Room is the training ground of the X-Men, a group of people with mutant powers, not to mention the primary adversary, Magneto. Four members of the X-Men were training in the Danger Room when they lost control: Gambit, Wolverine, Cyclops and Nightcrawler. Finding themselves thrust in a dangerous world of illusions, they must find Magneto and the band of evil mutants to stop them! It won't be easy, as the illusions are so realistic, they can kill! The X-Men will be in strange places such as the Savage Land and the war-torn future!

X-Men features an optional two-player mode, and has seven levels filled with intense action. Each of the four characters has special moves, and are better at some levels than others. The levels are based on famous comic locales, and are sure to please X-Men fans. Even the enemies are here, like the fercocious Juggernaut! If you like adventure that's packed with action, help out the X-Men in their latest adventure!

WOLVERINE

NAME: LOGAN
ORIGIN: Very little is known about Logan's past. He is possibly the result of a government experiment to create the ultimate weapon.

- Using his special adamantium claws, Wolverine can spin and slice anything in his way.

GAMBIT

NAME: REMY LEBEAU
ORIGIN: An exiled member of a thieves guild, Gambit saved Storm from the evil Shadow King. Since then he has joined the X-Men.

- Gambit can build up the kinetic energy in small objects, and throw them with great velocity.

CYCLOPS

NAME: SCOTT SUMMERS
ORIGIN: An orphaned teenager, Scott had to face persecution from the other humans. To help him out, Professor Xavior took him in.

- Cyclops can shoot beams of energy from his eyes by lifting up his ruby quartz visor.

NIGHTCRAWLER

NAME: KURT WAGNER
ORIGIN: Kurt was in Germany being pursued by villagers for a series of murders he did not commit, when he was saved by the Professor.

- Nightcrawler has the ability to teleport himself and a few items to other locations.

---

ASTEROID M

The secret fortress of the dreaded Magneto!

---

X-MEN BACKUP TEAM

STORM: Creates a massive storm to kill all the enemies.

ICEMAN: Creates a massive ice floor to walk on.

ROGUE: Uses super strength to annihilate anything in her path.

ARCHANGEL: Throws a spread of poisonous flechette feathers.
THE SAVAGE LAND
The Savage Land has been recreated by the Danger Room's holographic projectors. It is filled to the brim with many dangers, especially the dreaded Juggernaut and the witch Zaladane! The savages are also against you, along with the occasional pterodactyl.

For an easier time in getting across the dangerous roaring waters, try riding a pterodactyl instead. This way you won't get hurt.

JUGGERNAUT:
This mutant can bulldoze almost anything in his path!

ZALADANE:
This gal tosses balls of energy, and is difficult to hit.

THE SHI'AR EMPIRE
Deathbird has overtaken the Shi'Ar Empire from her sister Lilandra. Throughout this level you will be attacked by armored soldiers. About midway you must hijack a shuttle to get to Deathbird. After she is stopped, Lilandra will help you back to the Danger Room.

DEATHBIRD:
Sister of Lilandra, she will hop around, pelting you with lasers!

LILANDRA:
She will help you get back into the Danger Room safely.

BLAST THE EVIL HORDE!

Mutant horde forces have overtaken the planet and it's up to you to rid the world from their clutches. Strap yourself into a high-powered tank equipped with the most sophisticated weaponry available.

It won't be easy because you'll have to traverse the most dangerous terrain filled with intense graphics and the toughest creatures. Each level is like a maze and you must find the correct path to the end bosses. Eventually, you'll make it to the supreme boss who reigns over the evil mutants.
STAGE ONE

The first level sets you in the middle of the mountains where hordes of evil mutants have made parts of the mountain forest their home. They are ready to attack any intruder who dares to break their peace. Look out for many giant bees and beetles. There are also troops of walking mechs patrolling the forest. As you move on, you'll fall down into the caverns deep within the mountains where a giant bee boss guards the domain. After defeating the boss, you'd think you had finished the level, but you must make it through an overhead maze filled to the brim with tanks, traps, and a load of pillboxes!

STAGE TWO

Onto the second stage. Game play in this area is similar to the first, except that you must disembark your vehicle more often to get through certain areas, obtain certain weapons/health, or to face a boss.

MORE DANGERS TO FACE!

The first two stages are really tough and the next six will most certainly test your skills. There are lava areas with monsters just waiting to get their hot hands on you. Areas loaded with mechs and twisted, maniacal robots are poised to blast you on sight. But wait, there's more! The last boss will attack with reckless abandon so get ready!

Down from the heavens comes Lords of Thunder, a frenzied, eight level shooter that will assault your senses and absolutely blow your mind with superior CD graphics and an incredible hard rock CD soundtrack.

As Landis, the only living descendant of the legendary warrior Dyna, you must don your winged armor and square off against Zaggart the Dark One. But first you'll have to blast your way through six stages of beasts, bullets, and other bad seeds. And at the end of every level, you'll meet gigantic end bosses that will make the Devil look like Mother Teresa.

This first level takes place on the beach, with many hazards!
1) Jump high and grab a balloon! The balloons up here contain many dots you can collect to get to the bonus level!
2) Here is your buddy, locked in a cage. Shoot the lock!
3) This beach chair has hidden dots in the seat!
4) Watch for snapping crabs that emerge from holes in the ground! Wait for them to emerge, and blow them away!

LEVEL 2: PIER PRESSURE
At the dock, Spot must do his first climbing here!
1) Spitting fish abound here. Get even with them, but don’t jump near them - or get hit by their spit!
2) The rotting sections you can walk through!
3) These spiked balls are usually placed at the bottom of ropes, so be careful when you climb to the end of them!
4) Another of your buddies - this one is in the far right corner!

LEVEL 3: OFF THE WALL
1) Watch for hidden dots lurking behind the pipes!
2) Mousetraps are helpful only if you jump on their right side!
3) Pajama-clad mice will throw cheese at you. However, if you shoot them in midair, they will dissolve!
4) And now Spot will free his friend... Oops! Spot didn’t get enough dots to finish the level; now he must go back and get the required amount!

LEVEL 4: WADING AROUND
Go from inflated swimming pool to toy blimps!
1) Leap to floating objects, but look for frogs - avoid jumping on them!
2) Remember to duck down to see what’s below. If you miss a platform or blimp, it’s back to the bottom!

BONUS LEVEL:
Collect 75 dots in any level and you can advance to the Bonus Level! Here you must collect one of six letters to spell out UNCOLA. Inside a can of 7UP, hop around on the bubbles until you find the letter! Also look for extra time icons, as your time is very limited here! But 1-ups and 7-ups also abound!
AND THE BATTLE RAGES ON...

You are a young fighter who has sworn to take on the evil Rune armies. Travel through strange and exotic lands, while trying to find allies to help you in your quest. The world of Rune abounds with mystery, as creatures of myth are now commonplace. Your battle won't be easy as many of these beings have taken to the darker side. But don't worry, you have the mystical powers of magic to aid you.

This role-playing game combines with military strategy to create an adventure of epic proportions. But only those of stout heart can rise up and conquer the forces of darkness. Are you up to it?

OUR HERO
The main character is a master swordsman. After his mentor Varios was murdered by Cain, he has started the Shining Force in hopes of revenge. He is the only warrior who can handle the Sword of Light, hence the only one who can free the world from evil.

THE MORE INTERESTING PARTY MEMBERS.

ANKI
She is a great magician, and can wipe out enemies.

GANTZ
This guy can take a lot of damage, as well as dish it out.

GOLPHER
This little guy is very strange; don't underestimate him.

GONG
For a monk, he's pretty tough, and a great healer.

GAIN EXPERIENCE TO ENHANCE YOUR PARTY'S FIGHTING ABILITIES!

Every ten levels your characters can get promoted to a new class!

PREPARE FOR BATTLE!
Battles are a large part of this game, and you need to think out your strategy to survive. The basic rule of thumb is to have your strongest fighters close in on the enemy, with your healers close behind. Station your archers a short distance away, and bombard your opposition. If you have flying troops, use them to surround your foes. Keep this in mind, and you'll survive the toughest foes.

TOWNS
As you wander through the land of Rune in search of allies, you will encounter a variety of different towns. Each town has shops and other helpful places that are essential to your survival. You can find valuable information or even an addition to your party in some towns! You can also save your game in the towns.

A ROVING BAND OF GYPSIES!
G-LOC AIRBATTLE

3 GRAVITY-DEFYING MODES!

PILOT'S VIEW
The majority of the battles are from the pilot's perspective. Keep an eye on your gauges.

REAR VIEW
You will see your plane from the back, as if you were in a chase plane. Watch for enemy fire.

AIR-TO-SURFACE
Maneuver your way through the canyon and launch missiles at the targets on the ground.

Into The Wild Blue Yonder!

Launch into excitement with G-LOC Airbattle by Sega. Try your hand at the three different battle modes while trying to "splash" squadrons of enemy fighter jets.

After completing each level, you are permitted to buy new weapons and system enhancements like three different types of armor, improved bullets and two types of missiles. Use your afterburners to catapult yourself out of dangerous situations, or maintain your heading and try to achieve missile lock and blast your enemies into next Tuesday!

Get out your airsickness bags and strap yourself in for G-LOC Airbattle coming soon for the Sega Genesis!
At the beginning of the game there is a stage select for the first four levels that lets you proceed in any order. After completing them, you must brave the last four levels which proceed consecutively.

After defeating the boss of the first level, a fairy will help you in your quest to seek out the enemies.

Laden can cast magic straight ahead or right behind.

HELPING ITEMS:

- Heart: Increases Rick's precious Life Meter.
- Book: Collect this item and get an extra life.
- Blue Orb: Increases your POW (Power) Meter.

SOME WEAPONS AVAILABLE TO HELP YOU GO SPLAT!

- Blade: Sharp cutter, slice and dice!
- Cleaver: Heavy blade for big chops!
- Block: Heavy throwing block!
- Bat: Heavy hitter, hit a homer!
- 2 x 4: Heavy board, use to crown!

MASK OF THE RED DEATH!

Rick is at it again. This time he must save his entire family - wife Jennifer and son David - from the horrors of the Splatterhouse. Unlike the previous Splatterhouse entry, Splatterhouse 2, number 3 comes at you with better control, more weapons, more weapons, and more megas of power! This 16-Meg masterpiece of blood and guts also features non-linear gameplay allowing you to go anywhere you want! However, there is a time limit and a loved one's life depends on whether you complete it in a given amount of time! Rick also has improved options: if he collects enough power, he becomes "charged" Rick - a muscle-bound brawler with super strength and a knockout special move! Awesome cinemas also provide chilling atmosphere for the grim story. Get in the game with Splatterhouse 3!

RICK'S MOVES: NORMAL AND CHARGED!

Throughout the game there are several Blue Orbs that you can collect. If you have any energy in the POW meter, you can change into Charged Rick: Your blows inflict more damage on enemies, and Rick can perform deadlier moves as well. However, while playing as Charged Rick, his power meter goes down, and if it runs out, it's back to Normal Rick!

- Kick: Press Jump and Punch!
- Normal: Here are some of the moves Normal Rick can perform!
- Charged: Here are some of the moves Charged Rick can perform!
- Change: Press change button!

PUNCH:

- Press (what else) Punch!
- Head Butt: Hold and Punch!
- Choke: Hold and press Punch!
- Special: Press Jump and Punch!

HURTING ITEMS:

If you drop a weapon, the spirit will pick it up and take it to the "spirit room."

A QUICK GLANCE AT THE STAGES

Complete a room, press start, and you can see the layout of the present floor! The large red "X" marks the spot where the floor boss is lurking! The mask is you!

1ST FLOOR:

- Enemies are easy to beat on this floor, except for the Boss, who has two forms - one headless!

BOSS 1:

The Boss of this stage giggles and throws biting worms! Tear its head off and its body still rushes at you!

2ND FLOOR:

Take to the Skies!

Take to the skies for intense aerial combat with the Sega-CD flight simulator After Burner III! Flying an F-14 Tomcat, take on ground and air targets like enemy jets, armored vehicles and towers! Armed only with your Vulcan machine gun and missiles that lock onto their targets, it’s kill or be killed! You can also increase your speed with your After Burner, or slow your speed with the decelerate function! There are two viewpoints: behind the cockpit and from the rear of your plane, for when you are being attacked or if a missile locks onto you!

And Your Weapons:

- Vulcan
  - Twin machine guns that fire to the center!
- Missile
  - Locks onto enemy targets and destroys!

Stages 1-4:

Air targets are the primary concern in these stages. Lock onto your enemies before they do the same to you! With each passing level, the sun begins to set - keep an eye on your radar to see what is coming! To lock onto an enemy, get him in the white circle until it turns red, then fire away! However, enemy jets can do the same to you and the only way to avoid incoming missiles is to steer past them or outrun them. Use your trusty After Burner!

Stage 5:

Welcome to the wonderful world of ground targets! Take out the towers, but keep an eye on the armored ground vehicles - they don’t shoot missiles, but fire anti-aircraft that causes much damage! These targets are clustered together - watch the radar!

Most of the game involves using the various menus and stats of the planet's environment and life-forms. You can also view the planet in three different ways. The most detailed is the best.

As the game progresses, the life on the planet gets more complex and you have more and more things to keep track of. Use the models of the geosphere, atmosphere, civilization, and biosphere to monitor the planet's activity. There are also a number of charts and graphs that keep you informed of even more data.

ARE YOU UP TO CREATING A WORLD?

If you’ve ever wondered what it’s like to create and maintain a complete ecosphere, here’s your chance to give it a try. Seven different types of situations will test your mind.

From terraforming Mars to building up a civilization, you can control all the elements crucial to maintaining the careful balance of life. This game is as educational as it is fun, and with the CD voice and sound, you’ll be glued to your TV for hours!
COTTON

CAN SHE DO IT?
Cotton, the witch, loves the little fairy-like Willows. That is why she couldn’t resist their call for help when the Willow Kingdom was suddenly overcome by the powers of darkness! Cotton, armed only with her flying broom and magic ability, must fly through several side-scrolling levels, blasting enemies before they blast her! However, a Willow is also along for the flight, and she helps out by also shooting, launching herself at the enemy and even grabbing some shots and detonating them in her hands! Cotton also has super potions that can be acquired, which include a fiery dragon and a powerful blast of lightning! These are ideal for dealing with the tough Mid-Boss and Boss characters lurking in each level! Look for her bombs, too, that can be used by pressing Button 1! Join this plucky little witch for Cotton’s crusade and save the Willows from darkness!

STAGE 1:
Stage 1 takes you through a swamp. The Boss is a giant head that shoots rocks and green fire!

POWER-UPS: Magic & other items
- GOLD GEM: Gives Dragon Flame
- BLUE GEM: Gives electricity.
- FIREPOWER: Enables you to have more powerful shots.
- LARGE GEMS: Give 2x power.

STAGE 2:
Stage 2 takes you through the woods! There are two bosses to confront: one is a giant tree, the second is a grim reaper you must destroy limb by limb! Be sure to have magic here!

MID-BOSS: BOSS 2:

COTTON
Flying her trusty broom. Cotton shoots fireballs and can also fire special powers at the enemy! Remember, she can only take one hit!

POWERS:
- LIGHTNING: Blast of Power!
- DRAGON: Fiery Beast!

These items are located throughout the game, but are limited!

WILLOW
Willow travels with Cotton and protects her from harm. You can also launch her at the enemy by holding down Button 1, then releasing it!

Willow can grab harmful projectiles and items!

PLAY WITH PROS!
BROOM TOTIN’ WITCH!
In this unique shooter for the Duo, you assume the character of a witch, who must fly through several levels of attackers! However, there are several shops along the way you can enter and buy magical items! You can collect dollars do buy such items as you pick up the different colored gems that appear when you shoot enemies! These gems vary in value and availability! There are also Boss and Mid-Boss characters in the levels (some do not have Mid-Bosses, only Bosses) that will do everything to stop you! Be sure and stock up on several weapons and items before taking them on! The screen before each level will give you a glimpse of either a Boss or Mid-Boss!

Some of the Levels on Your Journey:

Sphere 1:
1. This Sphere takes place on a bridge to a castle.
2. Red Box is the Mid-Boss! It attacks shooting little boxes and swiping you with big ones!
3. The boss first attacks with a wind-up robot; shoot it in the head to make it self-destruct.
4. After defeating the robot, the little imp will attack! Shoot him quickly then get out of the way - he responds by firing giant orbs!

Sphere 2:
1. Through the woods we go! Several menaces attack here: giant porcupines, teddy bears, and many more pesky enemies!
2. The Mid-Boss shoots peanuts and swarms of acorns! Stay low to defeat it!
3. This Boss has two stages: the first is a tree stump that shoots wood; the second is a Tree-Sorcerer that makes bricks crush you!

Sphere 3:
1 & 2. It is a tight squeeze here: the roof and floor come together throughout this level - don’t get squeezed or pinched with the force scrolling!
3. There is only one Boss here! He moves up and down through the pipes, launching red orbs!
4. The Boss will stop jumping momentarily to inflate himself and launch rotating giant orbs that circule him, then disperse!
Take Out The Garbage.

Moldy tuna fish is nothing compared to the scum you’ll face battling Lord Contaminous and his gang of environmental thugs on your NES™ and Game Boy®. But you’re Zen, a cosmic Ninja who’s trying to prevent Earth from becoming a toxic wasteland.

On your NES, fight through 12 of the most hazardous levels you’ve ever seen, with horizontal, vertical and 3/4 view scrolling, plus fluid character movements that are hotter than a nuclear meltdown.

Then grab your Game Boy and Photon-Stick, and sweep through 4 treacherous spew zones until you reach Lord Contaminous, who is waiting to trash you at the final waste dump. No doubt, if you’ve got the guts, these will be your toughest chores ever!

THE HEROES RETURN!

It has been quite some time since Joe Higashi and the Bogard boys defeated Geese Howard in his high rise loft. Since then, they have gone their separate ways to hone their already impressive skills. Now, the next King of Fighters tournament has begun, and several new contestants have entered the fray.

Unbeknownst to these eight fearless warriors, a new lethal force has risen in the wake of Geese Howard’s defeat. Even now he has been stalking the former World Champions who competed in the last tournament, dispatching each methodically and mercilessly.

In Fatal Fury 2, you take control of any of the eight main warriors as you battle to become the world’s strongest fighter. Each combatant is armed with a slew of deadly special attacks which you must learn and master in order to defeat your new and powerful adversaries. After defeating the main eight warriors, you must face off against four tough bosses!

ALL NEW FIGHTERS!

Choose any of these buff fighters to reach the top! A second player can even choose the same character and join in!

TERRY BOGARD

Terry is a fierce martial arts master who enjoys street fighting.

ANDY BOGARD

Andy, Terry’s younger brother, studies the ancient art of Koppo.

JOE HIGASHI

Joe Higashi is a young Muerte expert with a wicked temper.

BIG BEAR

Big Bear is the wrestling champion with lethal attacks.

JUBEI YAMADA

Jubei is a Judo expert that can grab opponents out of the air!

CHENG SINZAN

Cheng, while rotund, can pack a wallop with his Belly Blast!

KIM KAP HWAN

Kim studies Taikwando and is as egotistical as he is skilled.

MAI SHIRANUI

Mai has trained in the mystical arts of the Ninja since childhood.

A POWERFUL EVIL...

Someone is attacking the former champions without mercy! Only a true King of Fighters can deal with this new evil!

HIDDEN ATTACKS!

This special attack for Mai is only usable in her level! Hold down, then press up and punch to swan dive on your enemy!
HERO ILLUSTRATED

PREPARE YOURSELF FOR A NEW BREED OF MAGAZINE

COMING THIS JUNE FROM THE PUBLISHERS OF EGM!
WHEN YOU'RE HOT, YOU'RE HOT!

In a faraway land there is a place called Coolmint Island. It was once peaceful, but that was before the evil Fire Wizard came. With his armies of flame he has taken over the island. You have been chosen by the elders to defeat the fire beasts. To aid in your quest you are given a magic wand. With this wand you can create and destroy blocks of ice.

Eight worlds filled with puzzling fun await you! The game also has an edit mode where you can create your own puzzles. Can you vanquish the fires that threaten?

COOLMINT ISLAND

1. Start out by destroying the block in the upper right-hand corner. Fall and then push the block left one space. 2. Climb over the two blocks and push the next block to the left. 3. Climb to the upper left corner and push the block at the top over and destroy the block underneath it.

4. Fall down the hole and blast the block that is in the wall on the far left. 5. This causes the large block of ice to fall and will get rid of all the flames on the bottom for an easy victory.

WHAT YOU'LL FACE IN YOUR QUEST!

POT
Turns to flame when flames are dropped on it.

HOT POT
Melts ice dropped on it, and burns you to a crisp!

ICE LEDGE
Ice frozen to a brick will provide a ledge.

BRICK
An unmovable, unbreakable obstacle.

ICE BLOCK
Can put out flames, and make bridges.

STONE
Can extinguish flames, and withstand heat.

FLAMES
These little buggers are what you have to kill.

TUBES
Use these to slide to a different location.

Doomsday Warrior brings outrageous fighting action to the Super Nintendo Entertainment System. Take on the Doom Squad in a fight to the finish or challenge a friend for a head-to-head all out brawl. Either way, pump up your skills and prepare for battle. Can you discover the 15 secret attack moves? If not, it could spell your doom.

Become one of seven fearless fighters and save Earth!

Bring a friend and have a brawl!
Lincoln High School Ice Rink

Special Team Uniforms!
You will be able to wear a team's uniform if you beat them!

Cold Steel, Hot Blood!
Crash is back with his buds to take on the rival gangs again. This time around, the boys have decided to settle their differences by playing hockey. Like all the gang activities, this one is steeped with violence. Eight gangs will go at it head-to-head to prove who is the best. Five different rinks, along with special moves set this cart above most NES hockey games. Each team has its own personality, and with the radical two-player mode, you can challenge your friends. If you go in alone, the computer gets really tough. One of the best NES hockey games ever!

Choose from Eight Teams!

Take a Drive Off the Deep End with Road Avenger!

Take it to the extreme. Road Avenger for the Sega CD gives you the license to do whatever it takes to wipe S.C.U.M. (Secret Criminal Underground Movement) off the highway. Ever smash a car through a hotel lobby? Spin off a bridge at high speed? How about tearing up the beach on the tail of perpetrators? Now's your chance! Gear up for the ultimate hot pursuit. Road Avenger, so much fun it should be illegal!

- Full CD soundtrack!
- Digitally recorded stereo sound puts you right in the game!
- In your face close-ups!
- Over 30 minutes of full motion animation!
- Heads-up display keeps your eyes on the action!
- Nine rubber burning stages!
- Head spinning 360 degree scrolling!

Road Avenger fills your tank with high octane action! Forget the insurance, full speed ahead to your nearest Sega CD retailer!
DIAMONDS ARE A DUCK'S BEST FRIEND!
Scrooge McDuck is off on another quest to find lost treasures around the world. Armed with his nasty cane, he can pogo through almost everything. He won't be alone, though: Huey, Dewey, and Louie are out there to offer advice. Even Launchpad is offering his help.

The play techniques are almost exactly the same, with only the special ability to pull items added. This cart is graphically superior to its predecessor. There are many mysteries in each level as well as the hidden world of Atlantis that you must discover on your own!

ANCIENT RUINS
Who knows what secrets lie deep beneath the ocean's depths? A world of mystery is here for you to explore. Is the greatest treasure on Earth here? Or could it be the deadliest foe imaginable? The boss is a giant rock warrior who must be hit with rocks, then bounced upon.

EGYPT
The pyramid holds many secrets. You can find the Treasure of the Nile and King Khufu's Knife. Both are well hidden. A word to the wise: try walking through some of the walls. You'll get a surprise! The boss is a pharaoh who likes to zig you with lightning bolts.

BERMUDA TRIANGLE
Pirates have taken over a ship deep within the Bermuda Triangle. A lot of obstacles stand in your way, from cannons to vicious pirates. The boss has a hook with which he will cut you to ribbons. Eventually you will have to come back here to fight the sinister Glumgold duck.

MAP OF THE WORLD
You can select any level you want to begin on. We recommend starting on Niagara Falls. There are five treasures you must find in the levels before completing the game.

MASTER THESE GREAT TECHNIQUES TO WIN!

CLIMB
Climb up ropes, chains, and vines.

HANG
Use your cane to hold onto loops.

HIT
You can break or hit blocks off the screen.

POSO
Use this to kill enemies and break blocks.

JUMP
This move is self explanatory.

TUG
Using your cane can pull blocks.

After completing a level you will go to the item shop where power-ups are sold.

Put the pedal to the metal!

Get ready for some serious racing, GameBoy-style. Race Drivin' has all of the goodies that you'd expect from a great racing cart. You can pick from three different types of cars, each with its own distinctive characteristics. Some have manual transmissions, and others are fully automatic. Also, you can choose from three kinds of courses each one with its own unique challenges! Some of the courses will have you going over ramps and into huge loop-de-loops.

Try Race Drivin' for the GameBoy and experience the big thrills of the arcade in a little package!

On the Stunt courses, you will have to compete against some ruthless drivers! Being in too much of a hurry can get you into trouble. Get to know each course!

Choose different cars and transmissions!

Sportster
(Auto and Manual)
A very quick yet maneuverable car designed for quick acceleration and precise handling. Good for novices because of auto trans.

Speedster
(Manual)
Built for pure, unadulterated acceleration and speed. Some handling has been sacrificed to give this speedy car unmatched power.

Roadster
(Manual)
A real "driver's car." Ultimate control and handling, with mediocre speed. Top speed is not as impressive as the other cars.

THREE TYPES OF CHALLENGING COURSES!

AUTOCROSS
A challenging race against the clock. Cross checkpoints to get added time!

STUNT
Race against other drivers over ramps and loops! This one is a real challenge!

SUPER STUNT
A twisting nightmare of loops, ramps, and tunnels. Only the best drivers will survive!
JOIN THE MARVEL DREAM TEAM!

Swing into action with three hot new Spider-Man™ video games! Team up with The X-Men™ for a non-stop challenge in ARCADE'S REVENGE™ for Super NES™... dis-arm Dr. Octopus'™ evil plan in RETURN OF THE SINISTER SIX™ on NES™... and end Carnage's™ reign of terror in the incredible SPIDER-MAN™2 for Game Boy®. It all adds up to action so exciting—you'll be climbing the walls.

ALSO ON GAME GEAR™!
Introducing... The Humans

You've never seen anything like them...

Rock With One Strange Species!

Thus, the humans were born. Debuting on almost every system, Gametek will soon convert this cart over to the portable scene! You are in control of the destiny of the human race, so you must guide it through the past or we won't exist!

MICK & MACK
As The GLOBAL GLADIATORS

BIG MICK AND MACK ATTACK!
Help! The world is being polluted with green slime. Large gook and gunk machines are spreading them everywhere from the cliffs to the cities to the polar regions.

But never fear, (drum roll) Mick and Mack are here! Take on the role of one of McDonaldland's kid heroes and rid the world of the green slop. Armed with a powerful ecology-saving Super Soaker, you venture through large areas filled with mutated creatures and harmful pollutants.

The graphics of this GG version are not as good as its 16-Bit cousin, but the entire game is solid. Fans of the Genesis cart will be impressed! Time to clean up the dirty mess!

SLIME WORLD LEVEL ONE
Each stage in the game is huge with lots of places to explore. Make sure to check every possible location for 'M' icons to get to the bonus level. There are also hidden platforms. The map to the left is about 1/5 of the entire screen.

OH, THE THINGS I CAN DO!
Ready, Aim, Fire!
Global gladiators are armed with the best equipment to help save the ecology of the world. Their Super Soaker can be aimed in any of three directions: up, straight or down. This lets them shoot from a safe area.

TIME TO RECYCLE!
There are several of these McDonald icons scattered throughout the levels. If you find a certain number of them in any level, you will be transported to the bonus level where you must catch falling litter and recycle it in the correct bin. Only one piece of litter may be carried at a time. The level's over when a piece of litter comes to rest.

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP
Hold up or down if you need to see what's right above or below.

EGM EXCLUSIVE!
PART 1 OF A 2 PART SERIES!
POW! POW! POW! POW!

STOP IT!

STOP IT. NOW!

WHY MUST YOU HUMILIATE ME?

DON'T BE TAKING THAT TONE WITH THE BOSS, SAGAT...

OR I'LL HAVE TO BE TRIMMING YOU DOWN TO SIZE.

FOR TEN YEARS, I REIGNED SUPREME IN THE WORLD ARENA!

KAPOW!
Yeah, you can still hit—but so can I, one-eye!

That did it! Your American boxing is nothing against Muy Thai.

My turn! Now my fists gonna have your blood on it, Sagat!

Get ready to rumble!
HALT!!

NOTHING CAN STOP ME! I WILL BE NUMBER ONE AGAIN!

NO FANCY THAI-KICKING'S GONNA BEAT ME!!

YOU BOTH WORK FOR ME NOW.
YOU FIGHT WHEN I SAY YOU FIGHT!!
YOU ARE AN EMBARRASSMENT TO MY ORGANIZATION WITH YOUR CONSTANT SQUABBLING! YOU ARE SUPPOSED TO BE STREET FIGHTERS, NOT CHILDREN!!!

MASTER, WHY MUST I BE SUBJECTED TO THIS HUMILIATION? IF RYU WAS HERE NOW, I'D--

SILENCE!

IF YOU WANT MY RESPECT, YOU MUST EARN IT!

YOU MUST DEFEAT RYU AND REGAIN THE STREET FIGHTER CHAMPIONSHIP!

YOU MUST DESTROY HIM!

I HAVE TAKEN YOU INTO MY CRIMINAL NETWORK, BUT YOU HAVE NOT REDEEMED YOURSELF IN MY EYES.

YEAH, FROM A DISTANCE!

BUT HE WILL NOT FIGHT ME! I'VE CHALLENGED HIM TROUBLE...

AFTER RYU, YOU WILL BE NEXT!

IN YOUR DREAMS.

RYU IS HUMAN. HE HAS FRIENDS. THE BEAUTIFUL CHUN LI, AND KEN, HIS AMERICAN COMRADE!
World's First Ever Tie-Dye Container

Ben & Jerry, famous for their eccentrically named but wonderfully delicious ice cream, may have outdone even themselves. Their new flavor, Wavy Gravy, is set to debut this Spring in the world's first ever tie-dyed ice cream container. Named after Hugh Romney (aka: Wavy Gravy) the clown prince of the Woodstock generation, the flavor is a blend of caramel-brazil nut ice cream, carmel fudge, chocolate chunks, and toffee crunch tidbits. Wavy Gravy joins other famous Ben & Jerry's flavors such as Cherry Garcia and Chunky Monkey.

Hare Jordan Humor

Unless you've been living in a cave, you've seen the Nike "Aerospace Jordan" commercial, which debuted during the Superbowl telecast on January 31. In the commercial, Nike introduced the new Air Jordan basketball shoes. Unfortunately, the sneakers aren't as cool as the 90 seconds spot. More interesting is the commercial itself, which features Michael and Bugs going to Mars where they take on Marvin the Martian and his team of goons in a game of basketball. Besides, who cares about the shoes, the commercials are hilarious.

The question of the day... "Which one of these two is more famous - Bugs or Mike?"

Street Fighter Comic Arrives

For those who still can't get enough of Ken, Chun Li and the boys, you can now follow them in their very own title from Malibu Comics. The hottest video game of the '90s is now poised to become the hottest comic of the '90s.

Although EGM readers get an exclusive preview of the title in this issue, the regular series kicks off in May. The series will be written by Len Strazewski, one of the star writers of Malibu's Ulthrough, and illustrated by hot newcomers Don Hillsman and Jeff Whiting.

Malibu and Capcom USA, the game's U.S. distributor, are working on a number of promotions, including a contest to give away two free Street Fighter 2 arcade games. Worldwide, the Street Fighter 2 game has sold more than 50,000 arcade units in an industry where 3,000 units qualifies as a hit.

Even more staggering, Capcom has sold more than 3.5 million home video cartridges for the Super Nintendo.

Street Fighter's popularity and huge financial windfall rivals that of Pac Man and is being touted as the entertainment phenomenon of the '90s.

"The Street Fighter comic will be absolutely action-packed, just like the game," Strazewski said. "I'm writing the story to appeal both comic fans and video game players."

See Ken's devastating "Dragon Punch!" Watch the temperature rise as Dhalsim incinerates his opponents with his mystical "Yoga Flame." And witness cracking spines when Zangief smash-es his victims into the pavement with a "Spinning Pile Driver."

In issue #1, Bison issues a challenge to Sagat - destroy Ken to lure Ryu into the world arena for a fight to the death. Strazewski said, "We'll see a brief flashback to an earlier Street Fighter tournament in which Ryu defeats Sagat. The first storyline will involve Sagat's revenge against Ryu, and will be bloody."

Strazewski even hinted that one of the World Warriors may not survive the series. According to Creative Director Tom Mason, "This is not your average game and with the comic, we've jacked the action and violence to incredible levels."

Both Mason and Strazewski have been working with Capcom to reveal heretofore unknown secrets about the various fighters.
For the lucky few who were able to attend this year's star-studded NBA All Star festivities in Salt Lake City from February 18 through 21, Fleer Corp. helped make it even better.

As presenting sponsor of the NBA Jam Session, Fleer distributed 12 highly collectible 1992-93 Fleer Ultra Basketball card "tickets."

The top two-thirds of each ticket consists of a premium Fleer Ultra trading card with a photo of one of six Utah Jazz players: Karl "The Mailman" Malone, who officially hosted the Jam Session, Mark Eaton, David Benoit, Jeff Malone, Tyrone Corbin, and John Stockton.

The bottom third of the card/ticket served as the ticket stub, and lists the date and time of admission to the Jam Session.

During the Jam Session, dubbed, "The first ever interactive basketball festival designed specifically for fans," attendees had the opportunity to participate in a number of basketball-themed challenges.

Activities included:
• A dunking exhibition from the most outstanding amateur dunkers in the U.S.
• Current and former NBA coaches gave hands-on advice to kids on how to improve their hoop skills.
• A slam dunk contest for kids from three different age groups.
• A celebrity slam dunk exhibition that included stars such as Charlotte's Larry Johnson and Utah's Malone.

Now that The Simpsons has established acceptance of animated programming during prime time and Disney's Aladdin recorded the biggest profits ever for an animated feature film (currently more than $165 million), the entire animation industry appears on the verge of a boom.

An unprecedented number of animation distributors are readying syndicated programs in hopes that the public appetite for animated fare remains strong.

Group W Productions and Fred Wolf Films, for example, hope their new series, "The New Adventures of Speed Racer," follows in the webbed footsteps of their smash hit "Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles."

Universal Cartoon Studios, known for their hit series such as X-Men, The Transformers, Ghostbusters, and Muppet Babies has been developing Beethoven, which is based on the popular Universal motion picture. The studio is also launching Exosquad, a half-hour futuristic action adventure series that seems to combine elements from each of their previous hits.

Meanwhile, Hanna-Barbera, responsible for timeless "toons such as The Flintstones, The Jetsons, and Yogi Bear, is offering two new series for syndication - 2 Stupid Dogs, and SWAT Kats.

At Warner Bros. Studios, where officials are still basking in the considerable glow of Batman: The Animated Series' success, Steven Spielberg Presents Animaniacs is being prepared for a Fall '93 release.

With such exciting titles ready for release and many more on the way, the future of 'Toons looks as bright and shiny as Homer Simpson's bald yellow head.

Marvel Celebrates Spider-Man Milestones

Even though he is celebrating two significant milestones in his long and colorful history, Spider-Man is in the fight for his life against the New Enforcers in a special 48 page 100th issue of Web of Spider-Man. The special 48 page issue, packaged in a special holographic web patterned cover, introduces the brand new Spider-Armor.

Following their introduction in Web of Spider-Man #99, Spidey faces the power of the New Enforcers, a mysterious new criminal group whose ranks include the likes of Dragon Man and Super Adaploid.

In addition, Web #100 also features the conclusion to the long running storyline involving Bloodrose and Richard Fisk.

Some shocking events wrap up the storyline including the revelation as to just who "Alfredo" really is. And no, it's not the guy for whom the Fettucini dish was named.

All this adds up to a major battle for our favorite webslinger and results in him returning to his scientific roots to develop some very special protection.

Using his web formula as a basis, Peter Parker develops his new "Spider Armor" to give him an edge against not only mob bullets, but the power of the New Enforcers.

To commemorate another milestone in Spider-Man's illustrious career, Spectacular Spider-Man features the ultimate showdown between Spidey and the Green Goblin.

The 48 page special edition pits Peter Parker against his best friend Harry Osborn in an action-packed final confrontation.

The issue also marks a major turning point in the life of Peter Parker, and the tragic death of an integral Spider-Man character.

Spectacular Spider-Man #200 opens with Spidey returning from his battle with the X-Men only to find that Harry has escaped from captivity and is roaming free as the Green Goblin. Spidey realizes that he must find and stop the Goblin and put an end to this ongoing conflict once and for all.

But Parker is torn by the inner conflict he faces in tracking down this villain. After all, Harry is Peter's best friend and Peter feels that his exhibiting the Green Goblin persona is a sickness that can be cured. Although hanging out in blue and red long underwear and swinging from building to building isn't exactly normal, either.

Spidey's concern for Harry's welfare is muddled by the fact that the Goblin is a dangerous threat not only to the public, but specifically to Parker and his friends and family since Harry knows that Parker and Spider-Man are one and the same.

Harry, on the other hand, is filled with nothing but a desire for revenge on his best friend for what he feels was Parker's deliberate destruction of his life. The result is a violent and final battle between two people who are both ultimate enemies and best friends.

To top all this off, the resulting death of a major character will prevent this issue from providing any happy endings.

With both comics shipping in March, comic book fans have the opportunity to acquire two issues that are certain to become hot collectibles in years to come.
Turtles Lead Pack of Spring Movies

Led by the return of the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, this Spring’s crop of movies is far from ordinary. With films set in such exotic places as feudal Japan and the Kalahari desert, the usual Spring doldrums give way to some real adventure.

After a winter where the two biggest blockbusters were youth-oriented movies - Aladdin and Home Alone 2, Hollywood continues to roll out high profile feature films aimed at kids.

The long-awaited third movie starring the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: The Turtles are Back...In Time leads the pack, with a nationwide debut March 19 in 2,000 movie theaters.

With a massive marketing campaign including tie-ins with New Line Cinema, Burger King and Playmates Toys, Michaelangelo, Leonardo, Donatello, and Raphael should keep box offices ringing during the usually dormant Spring season.

Mark Freedman, President of Surge Licensing, Inc., the exclusive worldwide licensor of the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, said “It will be Turtles 3 in 1993,” noting that “approximately $50 million in advertising is lined up to support the movie.”

Turtles 3 was kicked off at Toy Fair in early February in New York City.

Freedman disclosed some secrets about the PG-rated storyline, “Time travel will play a key role in the adventure of Mega-Stars Michaelangelo, Leonardo, Donatello, and Raphael. The movie has a compelling plot, set mainly in Feudal Japan, spellbinding special effects and breathtaking action sure to appeal to children and adults alike.

Although Freedman wouldn’t go into further detail, EGM has learned more facts about the imaginative storyline.

Reporter April O’Neil unknowingly activates a magical scepter that enables time travel. Before she can say cowabunga, she’s whisked back 400 years to 17th Century Japan.

Never ones to leave a damsel in distress, the fearsome foursome find the scepter and are off to rescue April and do battle with the evil warlord Norinaga.

A $21 million production budget ensured elaborate sets and authentic costumes. Warlord Norinaga’s sprawling courtyard and cas-

The TMNT 3 Movie, set in Feudal Japan, opens in theaters nationwide March 19 amid a $50 million advertising blitz.

screen isn’t enough, they’ll be almost everywhere else anyway courtesy of tie-in promotions including action figures, comic books, bookmarks, stickers, posters, trading cards, clothes, coloring and painting kits, sports bottles and almost anything else that can be printed on.

Although the Turtles will likely dominate the box office this spring, there are other films geared toward kids. Disney’s A Far Off Place, opening March 12, is about two 14-year-olds who must flee to the African wilderness to escape a band of savage poachers. Armed with only their wits and the expertise of a Bushman named Xhlabbo, the trio sets out on an adventurous 1,000 mile trek across the Kalahari desert.

Disney is also preparing a remake of the Mark Twain classic Huckleberry Finn, set to hit theaters April 2.

Rules

- All scores on Adventure Island 3 must be received by May 15, 1993. If maximum scores are reached, a drawing of all maximum scores will be conducted to determine prize winners. All scores must be submitted with a legible photo. Void where prohibited. Send SASE to High Scores, 1920 Highland Ave., Suite 222, Lombard, IL 60148 for an official entry form. One winner per household per year. Score rollovers will be treated the same as maximum scores. Decisions of the judges will be final.
Chakan has finally destroyed all supernatural evil to free him from his curse of eternal life! But there is yet another hideous twist: Death has added to the stew! When he said all supernatural evil must be destroyed, he meant in the entire galaxy - and beyond! When you finish the game, a brief epilogue will appear (left) followed by the game credits. However, don’t think the game is over! If you follow the game credits through to the end, there is still more evil to be destroyed, as Chakan’s curse is finally and fully revealed (right)! After that there is one final being of supernatural evil to be destroyed! If you have any spells, use them! If you defeat this monster, you will see your hourglass shifting for all eternity! If you are defeated by the evil being, or warp out of this area, the game will start over! In either case, Chakan must live with his curse... forever!

The evil continues...

To Chakan’s horror, his journey is just starting! Will he ever be free of his curse?

The final evil...?

Supernatural Evils:
Here are the elements of evil Chakan must destroy to obtain everlasting peace! There are four such masters of evil in the first four worlds, and four more in the second four! They all have methods of attack, so be sure to have plenty of spells at hand! There is also an essential weapon to be obtained in the first four worlds!

Navigation:
Use the Navigation wheel to see your progress! Each has a master of evil that must be destroyed!

COOL WORLD

It's an imaginary world where cartoon characters called Doodles are alive. In this bizarre adventure, the Doodles are disturbing the balance between Cool World and Real World. If the balance isn't restored quickly, both worlds will be destroyed! Pit your wits against Doodles like Holli Would, Vegas Vinnie and Slash. They're out to get you—it's up to you to stop them and save the world!
