This is the house that Florence and Marvin built . . . color it hot! She's Florence Greenberg and he's Marvin Schlachter, pres. and v.p. respectively of the very successful Scepter and Wand labels. Since the Summer of 1960, when Scepter hit big with "Tonight's The Night," the company has turned out a steady chain of top ten records and has developed one of the industry's leading teen artist stables, including: the Shirelles, Chuck Jackson, the Rocky Fellers, James MacArthur, Tommy Hunt, Dionne Warwick and Theola Kilgore on the Serock label. The diskery recently added Maxine Brown to its roster. The Scepter-Wand operation moves into its recently acquired building in New York the end of this year.

ON DISTRIBUTION

Perhaps it's prompted by the extended soft business picture in combination with the great possibility that the Handleman Company may buy two or three distributing firms in the Detroit and Cleveland area shortly, but one thing is certain: never have we heard so much discussion on the subject of the changing distribution picture in the United States as has been noted during the past week.

Everyone is probing. Some even sound as though they're ready to press the panic button. But most are taking a long, hard look at the present day distributor picture and are trying to predict what course the merchandising of records will take in the near and distant future. (See other stories this issue.)

At best, the most anyone can do at the present time is make a good guess as to what the future holds. This applies to the independent distributors as well as the manufacturers whose product is handled by them.

We are definitely at a fork in the road. And there is no clear map that can tell us what the right route may be. Although everyone in the business performs the same basic function of producing albums and singles for the public, no two people we have spoken to during the past few weeks have come up with predictions that are even alike. And should the Handleman deal go through tomorrow, we doubt that it will clear up the picture at all.

However, two late developments last week indicate that people are taking action.

The Cosnat Corporation, the veteran distributing operation with branches in six key cities, has approached a number of the bigger indie manufacturers with an offer to open for five or six strong disk producers with catalog, a dozen strategically located warehouses which will blanket the U.S. From these warehouses the company will ship, sell and promote the manufacturers' product on a percentage basis. In these warehouses, the manufacturer will own his own inventory and will determine at what price the merchandise is to be sold. No one else will sell the manufacturers' product other than the Cosnat outlets. The move is designed to give the manufacturer the ability to stabilize prices at the distributing level. For the idea to succeed the Cosnat Corporation is asking the possible subscribers to the plan to pick up their present inventory from their current distributors. Under the terms of the deal, manufacturers will also carry all accounts receivable.

In a sense, this is the much discussed "depot" concept. At present it may appear that the jelling of the Cosnat idea seems improbable. But it wasn't too long ago that the thought of 50 rack jobbers accounting for one-sixth of the industry's volume appeared equally improbable.

Another move was Roulette Records taking over its own N.Y. distribution. Roulette has purchased Action Records and will operate the company as a branch. It has not yet determined whether it will carry lines other than its own.

For each change that is being announced, there are ten others rumored. And you can be assured that everyone is watching the changing scene very closely.

MOA Brass, Phono Firm Reps Meet in Chicago

CHICAGO—Hopes rose that all four of the major jukebox manufacturers would return as exhibitors to this year's meet of the Music Operators of America (MAO) with the report to Cash Box last week that a luncheon was held in Chicago between top brass of MOA and reps of the four manufacturers. Convention takes place Sept. 4-6 at Chicago's Morrison Hotel.

Cash Box was informed that the atmosphere was "very warm" at the gathering, held at the Sheridan House last Tues. (21), as the four manufacturer reps met with MOA's president Harry Snodgrass and managing director Bob Blundred. The four manufacturers represented were Seeburg, Rock-Ola, Rowe AC Service and Wurliitzer.

Seeburg announced last April, through Bill Adair, its sales vep, that it would return as an exhibitor. Two years ago, all but one of the manufacturers cut ties with all MOA activities after what were termed "disastrous" MOA conventions in Chicago and Miami Beach. Only Rowe AC Service displayed at the Chicago meet last year. The remaining three firms are yet to be heard from.

Averaging Tax Proposal Makes Headway In House

NEW YORK — Entertainers and others whose incomes have sharp ups-and-downs are closer to getting a tax break.

The House Ways & Means Committee had a tentative OK last week for President Kennedy's tax-averaging plan to bring tax relief to those who may have a vintage financial year sandwiched between many lean ones.

Proposal would see the averaging of income over a five-year period where a year's income rose above the average of four prior years by more than one-third. This is a likely prospect for entertainers, writers, sports figures, etc., but it was pointed out that all taxpayers would come under the new ruling, which would take effect with 1964 incomes.

With the new rule, taxpayers could add income from a five year period and compute a tentative tax on one fifth of the income. Tax on one fifth would then be multiplied by five to determine the final tax for the current year.

Deductions and exemptions would not be affected by the averaging process, since averaging would be done only with "taxable income," arrived at after deductions and exemptions are made.

The entire music trade, however, including label manufacturers, have been encouraged by a reorganization of MOA, sparked by the elections of Snodgrass, leading coin machine operator and distributor and top vending industry rep, and Blundred, a trade association exec, to their respective posts. Since last fall, the execs have managed to win over most of the local associations, which made financial contributions following a personal appearance tour by Blundred.

Riddle In Spotlight On 5 New LP's From Reprise

HOLLYWOOD—The varied talents of Nelson Riddle are showcased in the simultaneous release of five LP's from Reprise Records. In addition, the label issued a singles offering from one of them, the title theme and "Connie's Theme" from "Come Blow Your Horn," which Riddle scored and the music of which he batons in an LP of the same name.

The other albums are Nelson-arranged & conducted dates by Jo Stafford ("Getting Sentimental Over Tommy Dorsey"), Keeley Smith ("Little Girl Blue, Little Girl New"), Frank Sinatra ("The Concert Sinatra"), and Rosemary Clooney ("Love").

The diskery is accompanying the release by an "intensive" promo drive spotlighted by an eight city tour by the musician beginning this week (27). First stop is Chicago, and then on to Cleveland, Detroit, New York, Philly, Pittsburgh and St. Louis. Riddle will meet with radio-TV personnel, dealers, jukebox operators, one-stops, distribts, etc. Midway through his trek, on May 31, he flies to Atlanta to conduct the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra in a pop concert.

Riddle is now completing a number of cleffing chores, including music for the flick "Paris When It Sizzles," starring William Holden and Audrey Hepburn, and the closing segments for the '62 runs of TV's "Naked City" and "Route 66."

No Action Yet ON Celler Bill

NEW YORK—The House Subcommittee involved in the Celler Bill, which proposes a payment of a royalty for jukebox plays, was still studying written testimony at presstime, and therefore had not taken a vote on whether or not to pass the bill on to a Full Judiciary Committee.

ABC-Par Gets 3 Cast LP's Via Parent Firm's $1 Mil Backings

NEW YORK — ABC Paramount Records will move into the original-cast LP field in a big way thanks to a $1 million investment by its parent company, ABC-Paramount Theatres, in three upcoming Broadway musicals.

Sam Clark, the label's head, described the move as "probably the most important single event in ABC-Paramount's history."

First LP will be the Carol Burnett starrer, "A Girl to Remember," with music by Jule Styne, book and lyrics by Betty Comden and Adolph Green, to be directed by George Abbott.

"A Girl to Remember" will be the first original cast LP on the ABC-Paramount label. Commenting on the project, Sam Clark stated, "If we were able to tailor make our first Broadway album, we couldn't possibly come up with a greater combination of exciting talents than represented in this production. We are extremely proud to make this announcement, and all of us at ABC-Paramount are eagerly looking forward to the show and to the album."

Details of the entire project were handled through American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, ABC-Paramount Records, and On-Stage Productions, the theatrical producing firm of Lester Osterman and Jule Styne. On-Stage will also produce "The Ghost Goes West," a musical version of the Robert Donat starring film, with music by Jule Styne and lyrics by his son Stanley Styne. The book to "Ghost" is being written by James Kennaway, the British writer responsible for the script for "Tunes of Glory," the hit Alec Guinness film.

The third production will be an adaptation by Sam and Bella Spewack of "Mrs. A," Richard Aldrich's book about his late wife, Gertrude Lawrence, with music by Cole Porter. The original cast albums of these two shows will also go to ABC-Paramount. The parent firm, AB-PT will furnish a major part of the capital investment in all three productions budgeted at approximately $400,000 each. All three are expected to open within the next year to thirteen months.

Although this is the first venture into B'way musicals by the parent company, ABC-Paramount Records invested in the Don Ameche "13 Daughters" musical last year. But the show closed after a short run and the LP was never recorded.

At a press conference announcing the deal, Sam Clark reported that the original cast LP's would be competitive in the $4.98 and $5.98 bracket. He also revealed that rights to the film track albums, should Hollywood pick up the shows, would have to be negotiated for by ABC-Paramount.

In answer to a Cash Box question about the possibilities of the OC LP's being issued by a record club, Clark stated that although ABC at present has no club ties, he was not against negotiating for the distribution of these albums in a club. He commented, however, that at this stage the thought is premature and would await the outcome of the FTC-Columbia Record Club case before looking into such possibilities.

The Burnett show, "A Girl To Remember," is scheduled for September rehearsals, and slated to open on November 23 at the Mark Hellinger Theatre. The opening will be preceded by one week in New Haven, beginning October 21, followed by three weeks at the Colonial Theatre in Boston.

Clark also expressed an interest in Carol Burnett as a recording artist on ABC.

Although this is the first such venture for AB-PT into the legitimate theatre, Leonard H. Goldenson, president of the company, said that "this is just the beginning of our thinking in this area and may be the forerunner of other such ventures on the stage."

Price, Warfield In Victor's New LP Of "Porgy & Bess"

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records has completed recording sessions for a new "Porgy and Bess."

The highlights version of the George Gershwin classic is scheduled for fall release.

Leontyne Price is "Bess" and William Warfield "Porgy." Both became identified with their roles during an extensive tour of Europe and the U.S. in a stage production of the opera.

Miss Price, Metropolitan Opera star, flew to New York from Europe for the recording. Coincidentally, two other of her disk performances were winning acclaim. Midway during her recording work here, she attended the NARAS Grammy Awards where a performance of "Aida" in which she sang the title role, was selected as the best opera recording of the year. A new recording of "Madama Butterfly," again featuring her portrayal of the title role, may prove to be Victor's best-selling opera release.

John W. Bubbles, who essayed the role of Sportin' Life in the 1935 world premiere performances of the opera, returned to record the role for the Victor recording.

Orchestra and chorus for the production, recorded in the Dynagroove process at the St. George Hotel Ballroom in Brooklyn, were conducted by Skitch Henderson. Leonard De Paur served as choral director and Dick Mohr as Victor's A&R director.

Cosnat's Blaine Proposes Depot Concept To Key Indies

NEW YORK—Evidence that the distribution picture in the record industry is in a state of flux, with everyone investigating possibilities for solidifying his position for the future, was clearly indicated via a unique suggestion on the part of the Cosnat Corporation when a letter from Jerry Blaine, head of the Cosnat chain of six distributors sent the following letter to a handful of the leading, larger disk manufacturers currently distributing through indies and branches:

How To Be Your Own Distributor Without Any Problems

In our opinion, because of the current market conditions in the record industry, the following steps must be taken by the important producers of phonograph records.

In order to make this a solid, growing industry, it is necessary to stabilize the prices. To do this, it is imperative that producers control their own products. Our company, The Cosnat Corporation, is prepared to make the following offer:

We will open for five or six strong producers (with catalog), ten or twelve strategically located warehouses to cover the entire United States. These warehouses will merchandise, promote and employ sales staffs to give individual attention to your catalog. In other words, to be precise, we are prepared to put the strong producer in the distributing business. We will sell, ship, merchandise and promote your product throughout the United States, send the invoices to you to bill and to carry the accounts under whatever plan or prices you dictate to us, for a percentage of your sales.

All that will be necessary is for you to own your inventory. We will warehouse any and all of your product with separate order blanks on your complete line. Your investment is production, inventory, billing and merchandise ideas for your own product.

We will insure your inventory for fire and theft.

There is only one prerequisite that we require from you. You cannot deliver or sell to anyone else but Cosnat, which shall have the exclusive franchise for your product. There are no other sales except to Cosnat for any reason whatsoever. You set the prices and we set the policy.

Roulette Takes Over Action In N.Y.

NEW YORK—Morris Levy, President of Roulette Records, today announced that they have taken over the New York operation of Action Records, Inc. effective June 15, 1963.

At the same time Lou Klayman, President of Action Records, confirmed that Action is withdrawing as a distributor from the New York market.

Roulette will operate the distribution as a company owned branch. At this date Roulette was undetermined whether they will carry any lines other than their own. Their own products are Roulette, Tico, Roost, Gee, End, Gone and Forum (a budget line.)

Klayman, when reached for comment, stated that "Distribution was in an extremely chaotic state" and felt that another direction would be in order at this point.

Klayman will assist Roulette in setting up their distribution, and will announce his permanent plans shortly.

DISTRIBUTION FACES SHOWDOWN

NEW YORK—"The concept of record distribution as we've known it is on its way out."

That's the consensus of both the independent record manufacturers and the independent distributors, and it seems to be unanimous.

The past few years have seen a change begin to take shape in the form of an increased number of manufacturer-owned branch operations in key cities; the entry of the distributor into both the dealer and rack jobber fields; the entry of rack jobbers into the distributor area; the servicing of retail outlets from one stops; and the entry of the distributor into the one-stop field.

Each of these moves has been a straw on the camel's back, and the general feeling is that the very next one may break the back. Many feel that the last straw has already been reached and we are now going to see a great many changes in succession that will give the distribution business a new look by the mid-way mark of next year.

The one reason given as most responsible for the accelerated rate of transition everyone expects to see in the next few months is the extended slack or soft business situation which the U.S. record industry has been faced with right from the start of 1963. Although the general economy of the country is on the rise, the record industry for some reason has not been able to pull out of a slump which hit right after Christmas of last year. When business was good and everyone was moving merchandise and collecting money, the situation was not considered critical. But the lengthy soft business picture has awakened the entire industry and has made almost everyone realize that the business can't go on the way it has been functioning without utter chaos resulting.

ROSA Adds Items To Miami Meet Agenda

NEW YORK—ROSA, the one-stop association, has announced several additions to its Miami Beach meet from June 23-25 at the Fontainebleau Hotel. Irv Perlman, ROSA prexy, said that Ralph Berson, director of sales at Pickwick Records, will speak on Monday afternoon (24) on the subject of "Budget LP's & The One-Stop." Liberty Records and Bob Fead, Perlman informed, will host an informal cocktail party on Sunday evening (23) for members of ROSA.

As perviously announced, Robert F. Kennedy, Attorney General, will be awarded the "Man of the Year" award by the organization. Accepting the award will be the U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Florida.

ABC-Par 2nd Qtr. Earnings Down From '62

NEW YORK—Second quarter earnings of American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, Inc. are expected to drop below those of the similar period last year, president Leonard H. Goldenson, reported to stockholders at an annual meet here last week.

Second quarter earnings were $2,487,000, or 57¢ a common share, in '62.

Firm's first quarter earnings, $2,512,000, or 54¢ a common share, were down from $2,909,000 or 68¢ a share, in the first quarter of '62.

Goldenson told the shareholders that he expected second half earnings to top those of last year's second half.

The exec said the drop in second quarter earnings was mainly due to TV shows that didn't make the grade and bad attendance at the firm's theatres during the tough winter. He cited better programs and flicks ahead to lift the firm's earnings.

ABC-Par earned $11,038,614 or $2.46 a share, in '62.

In the past, the business has been able to come out of a slump in a reasonable amount of time. And when looking back, everyone attributed the slump to something specific he could point to: a steel strike, a recession period, a bitter winter, the lenten period and a host of explanations we've all heard dozens of times.

But now that the slump has lasted so long, the record industry is taking a closer look at itself and the majority of the people who have conducted successful businesses in the past seem to feel that "PRICE" is the thing to blame.

"We are no longer selling product or name or ourselves. All we are selling today is price," said one industry leader. Rack jobbers and one-stops and distributors and big users no longer care what's in the grooves or what you're trying to create. They're just interested in "What's the deal." The result has been an extremely confused and competitive price structure which has seen $4.98 lines sell to distributors for $.60 and even worse. And there are too many situations when a distributor sees a retailer advertising a record for less than the distributor paid for it.

Too many people feel that the general price confusion may have made the consumer "record shy." The day after he buys a $3.98 record for $2.98, he may see an ad which publicizes the same record's availability at $1.44.

How does one rectify such a complex problem? No one seems to know for sure. But the extended slump has prompted people to act or at least examine a possible course of action for the very near future. And the business is now at the point where one can expect almost weekly announcements that will see a major face lifting take place within the industry.

Uppermost on the list of events is the pending sale of the Jay Kay and Arc Distributing firms of Detroit and the Big Town distributorship of Cleveland to the Handleman Company, probably the nation's largest rack jobber. Some say that the deal has already been set although this is denied by the parties involved. Among the many labels distributed by these key outlets are some of the most important and productive companies in the record industry. Although most have indicated that they will not pull their lines should the deal go through, many have adopted a wait and see attitude. However, a number have clearly indicated that they cannot go along with such a move.

One manufacturer said he would stick with his Detroit distributor for the present. "If under the new ownership the distributorship conforms with our sales policy, we'll stay longer. If not we'll determine our next step. But in the interim we're exploring a number of alternatives." Many also say that the three firms have done a great job for them in the past, and there's no reason why the same cannot be accomplished under the new set-up.

But the Handleman purchase is not the only move that's taking place. There are moves being made in all directions.

In recent weeks, many key manufacturers have met to examine the possibilities of opening a mutually owned branch. Discussions are going on right now and could materialize shortly. A branch representing a number of key, productive lines could survive where a number of individual branches in a city might fold. One thing is controlled under this branch set up. When a manufacturer owns his own branch in a city, he can prevent transshipping into that area.

Then there is the proposal which the Cosnat Corporation has made to a select few of important manufacturers (see other story this week.)

The "depot" concept that is expected to see many manufacturers erasing distributorships in the smaller markets is another transition that is taking place. In lieu of 33 distributors representing a line now, 14 or 15 distributors will handle a manufacturer's product and will cover the smaller markets with resident men who will place orders through the 15 depots. This is seriously under discussion and is taking place now. And

Further Defense of Columbia Record Club at L. A. Hearings

LOS ANGELES—The Columbia Record Club-Federal Trade Commission hearings moved to Los Angeles last week (20) for continuation of testimony by witnesses in behalf of the club. The first session opened with testimony by Andre Previn, pianist, composer, conductor and arranger for Columbia Records and the film industry. During the lengthy back-and-forth questioning by Robinwitz (Col) and Needleman (FTC) Previn said that he joined Columbia because the label showed responsibility to modern classical composers, a field in which he is especially interested. The pianist stated that he has a non-exclusive contract with the label which allows him to score films for various motion picture companies. Since joining Columbia, Previn stated he has scored seven films, the soundtracks for which were not released by Columbia. Of the LP's he has made for the label, most are included in the catalog of the Columbia Record Club, and in most instances, his albums enjoyed rejuvenated sales activity via club exposure after they had tapered off in the retail markets. He also affirmed that CRC advertising kept his name alive when he was not performing for the public.

Robert Cinter, member of the management firm which handles Julie London was called next by Columbia and he reiterated some of the statements made by Previn, in that Julie London's LP's had dwindled considerably in retail sales and that the club exposure caused renewed interest in the singer's albums in both the club and retail stores.

Warner Brothers' director of merchandising, Joel Friedman, cited specific albums distributed by the club which picked up at the retail level after they had been released by the club. Friedman also testified that one Everly Brothers album was distributed by RCA Victor through its club and this one also was reactivated at dealer level.

A former president of Columbia Records, James B. Conkling, added fuel to the fire by giving more background on the formation of the club and of the many meetings held with dealers at the time (1955). Conkling, presently president of International Educational Broadcasting Corporation, a non-profit organization similar to the Voice of America, said that the company did not get blanket approval for the club from the dealers just

Pick of the Week

"FALLING" (2:22) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Orbison]
ROY ORBISON (Monument 815)

Orbison's fantastic chain of hits is already experiencing another solid sales link in "Falling." Side features the songster at his emotional best on another self-penned opus that builds along the way. The call-to-war, martial beat coupler, "Distant Drums," can also follow suit. Top drawer back up credits belong to Joe Tanner on the former and Bob Moore on the latter.

"NOT ME" (2:31) [Rock Masters BMI—Anderson, Guida]

THE ORLONS (Cameo 257)

The Orlons, who just made "South Street" an important teen location, can have a back-to-back chart stand here. One side's a delightful rock-a-rhythmic tagged "Not Me" while the other, "My Best Friend," is a high-speed winner from the "Don't Hang Up" school. Either end, or both, can turn the chart trick.

"RAT RACE" (2:10) [Trio-Cotillion BMI—Leiber, Stoller, McCoy]
THE DRIFTERS (Atlantic 2191)

The Drifters, who now have a pair of triumphs with their 'social-psychological messages,' "Up On The Roof" and "On Broadway," can make it three-in-a-row with this new Atlantic slice. It's an exciting and very interesting, quick moving jazz-blues-oriented affair tabbed "Rat Race." Should create loads of attention. There's also a taste of jazz on the infectious blues-pleader, "If You Don't Come Back." Can also happen.

"HARRY THE HAIRY APE" (2:47) [Lowery BMI—Stevens]
"LITTLE STONE STATUE" (2:53) [Lowery BMI—Stevens]
RAY STEVENS (Mercury 72125)

Funny man Ray Stevens is back with another rib-tickler that should make the grade in no time flat. Tagged "Harry The Hairy Ape," it's a tale about an ape that escapes from the zoo and goes around scaring everyone (with a boo) and it's related contagious "Ahab The Arab" manner. Ray does a complete about-face on the touching, slow cha cha beat-ballad winner, "Little Stone Statue." Powerful double-header.

"SURF CITY" (2:24) [Screen Gems-Columbia BMI—Berry, Wilson]
JAN & DEAN (Liberty 55580)

Jan & Dean, who accompanied "Linda" on her return to chartdom, should put "Surf City" on the wax map. It's the crew's entry in the surf sweepstakes and its a pounding twist'er that has what it takes for a ride all the way up the charts. Get with it. The catchy rock-a-cha-cha undercut can also take a hit trip.

"TIE ME DOWN KANGAROO SPORT" (2:38) [Beechwood BMI—Harris]
PAT BOONE (Dot 16494)

Boone should soon be in a battle for chart honors on "Tie Me Down Kangaroo Sport," the Australian click introduced here by Epic's Rolf Harris. It's a happy-go-lucky effort that Pat and the vocal crew knock out in spirited style. Fetching gimmicks along the way. Don't overlook the undercut, "I Feel Like Crying," a country-angled weeper ballad that can be the big side in the long run.

"I'M THE BOSS" (2:05) [Pamper BMI—Howard]
"THE MOON IS HIGH" (2:20) [Tree BMI—Miller]
BURL IVES (Decca 31504)

The multi-talented performer's next big chart item will more than likely be "I'm The Boss." It's an enticing calypso-like novelty on which Burl claims to be the important one in his house. Backing is galloping ditty delivered in tongue-in-cheek manner. Both ear-pleasers, culled from the artist's "Burl" LP, are backed in winning fashion by Owen Bradley's ork-chorus.

"COME GO WITH ME" (2:33) [Gil & Febee BMI—Quick]
"KING WITHOUT A QUEEN" (2:32) [Just BMI—Jones, Young]
DION (Laurie 3171)

Dion, who scored heavily with a cut from his days with Laurie, "Sandy," can do the same with this one from the label's disk vault. It's the years-back Del-Vikings' chart-topper, "Come Go With Me," that Dion and the Glen Stuart ork-choral group thump in teen-appealing mashed potatoes style. On the cha cha beat flip the songster moans that he's just a "King Without A Queen."

EARL DEAN SMITH (Coliseum 2700)

(B+) "UNTIE ME" (2:15) [Lowery BMI—Smith] Smith does a fine teen-market warble of the awhile-back click by The Tams (Arlen). His strong stand is assisted by a solid combo-femme affair, including effective guitar twangs and castinet bits. Label is now handled by the London Group.

(B) "CALL OF THE WILD" (3:12) [Central Songs BMI—B&B Mize] Title refers to a gal who forgoes her true-love for the bright lights in this understanding essay by Smith, who's backed by a lazy Nashville-flavored sound.

REGGIE & THE REMARKABLES (Musicor 1030)

(B+) "THE YEAR THAT GAVE ME YOU" (2:04) [Sea-Lark BMI—Simmons] The song team, with its fine falsetto lead, may not be treading on new rock-ballad sound ground here, but that won't mean a thing to the many teenagers who will dig the strong years-back blend by the boys. Could happen.

(B) "COME ON BABY" (1:58) [Sea-Lark BMI—Simmons] Speedy rockin' from the hip song crew.

THE BISCAYNES (Reprise 20,180)

(B+) "CHURCH KEY" (1:51) [Anthony ASCAP—Darnold, Knowles] This is a solid surfin' romp from the musicians, whose lead "voices" are hot organ and guitar sounds. Date was culled from an LP called "Surf's Up!" and could prove a noise-maker.

(B) "MOMENT OF TRUTH" (2:28) [Anthony ASCAP—Weed, Wiseman] Rapid-fire surfin' stuff with a sax getting spotlight licks.

THE MISTICS (Capri 631)

(B+) "MEMORIES" (2:28) [Three "A" BMI—Spreen, Montalbano] Songsters go about their rock business in an earlier-rock-days manner, and lots of teen interest should justify the approach. It's a tricky, medium-rock pose on a strong item. Could move. Jay-Gee Records is handling the label.

(B) "WITHOUT LOVE (There is Nothing)" (2:10) [Godday-Progressive BMI—Small] Lead warbler is highly convincing on the tearful opus.

JOHNNY GIBSON (Bigtop 3149)

(B+) "OOH POO PAH DOO" (1:53) [Minit BMI—Hill] Gibson's instrumentalists, who scored territorially a short-while-back with "Midnight," can do even better with this pounding, rock-a-string up-dating of the few-seasons-back Jesse Hill chart triumph. There's some shout comments along the way.

(B+) "SUMMER HOLIDAY" (2:19) [Vicki BMI—Gibson, King, Mack] This rockin' twist'er also boasts a hit sound. Eye 'em both.

GEORGE E. LEE (Kapp 530)

(B+) "DANCE WHAT YOU WANT" (2:11) [Kegs BMI—Cooke, Alexander, White] Loads of blues-styled excitement to this free-wheeling display for the teen dance-floor—and any novelty step will do just fine, as the title informs. A wild-one that could step-out.

(B) "DON'T LET HIM IN" (2:30) [Highwood BMI—Fann] Kids did no respite from this sock-rock blueser.

THE HIGHWAYMEN (United Artists 602)

(B+) "ALL MY TRAILS" (1:45) [J. Shink BMI—Arr. & Adapt. Fisher, Daniels] The folksters, a chart topper sometime back with "Michael," do a first-rate, soft-spoken blend on the poignant folk classic, which has been getting around via a Joan Baez outing. A performance with much folk-pop appeal.

(B) "MIDNIGHT TRAIN" (2:37) [Davon BMI—Helms, Schorr] A lusty folk setting here.

BRIAN LORD & THE MIDNIGHTERS (Capitol 4987)

(B+) "THE BIG SURFER" (2:28) [Buffie—Zappa] JFK hops on the surfin' bandwagon via an impersonator, who makes humorous comments against a sure-handed surf-beat from the musicians. Could be a rock-laff success.

(B) "NOT ANOTHER ONE" (2:10) [Buffie—Heine, Buff] Weirdo sounds start this intriguing all-instrumental surf date going.

THE STEPPING STONES (Phillips 40108)

(B+) "I GOT MY JOB THROUGH THE NEW YORK TIMES" (2:13) [Helios & Wensley BMI—Jones] Familiar slogan of the want ad section of the New York Times is used as the springboard for an infectious blues-rock novelty stint by the song crew and it's rhythm backing. If the date can get by programming difficulties—it's virtually a commercial—it could happen.

(B) "THE NEARNESS OF YOU" (2:30) [Famous ASCAP—Carmichael, Washington] Good-sounding, light upbeat rock-a-cha reading of the lovely evergreen.

LITTLE STEVIE WONDER (Tamla 54080)

(B+) "FINGERTIPS - PART ONE" (2:49) [Jobete BMI—Paul, Crosby] The multi-talented artist (he sings and plays harmonica and bongos on this deck) unleashes his potent talents full-blast on this hard-driving, fast-moving teen-angled rocker with a contagious, danceable beat. Good item for ops and deejays.

TOM O'NEIL (Petal 1001)

(B+) "ST. LOUIS BLUES" (2:36) [Mayfair, Vogel ASCAP—Handy] The Handy classic gets still another instrumental reading, this time from Tom O'Neil, whose harmonic leads a soft shuffle rhythm combo support. Pleasant performance that has that grow-on-you quality. Can sneak thru.

(B) "A SONG FOR ANITA" (2:22) [Bently BMI—Tanner] This half is pretty new ballad that also features wordless choral chants.

MAXINE DAVIS (Guyden 2089)

(B+) "GONE" [Hill & Range BMI—Rogers] Same goes for her emotion-packed revival of Ferlin Husky's years-back success. Two strong choral-backed, beat-ballad stints.

Pick of the Week

"TANGO" (2:07) [Three Boys BMI—R.O.&R. Isley]
ISLEY BROTHERS (United Artists 650)

"ALLENTOWN JAIL" (2:18) [Bourne ASCAP—Gordon]
THE LETTERMEN (Capitol 4976)

The Lettermen are good bets to return to Top 100 territory with this change of pace Capitol session. The smooth song stylists take one from the folk dept., "Allentown Jail," and knock it out in feelingful, quick beat fashion. The touching Civil War tale, "Two Brothers," makes for a potent soft-spoken companion piece.

"RAGTIME SOUND" (2:14) [AMETROP BMI—Hoffman, Klein]
MARCIE BLANE (Seville 126)

The young lark can enjoy another chart run with either end of her new Seville session. On one end she happily romps over a rock-a-razz-a-ma-tazz ditty titled "Ragtime Sound" while on the other she shuffles thru a tear-compelling, multi-track item labeled "Little Miss Fool." Strong ork showcases supplied by Billy Mure.

"SCARLETT O'HARA" (2:03) [Regent BMI—London]
LAWRENCE WELK (Dot 16488)

The Welk aggregation comes thru with another strong chart-contender in this superb cover of the Jet Harris-Tony Meehan English smash, "Scarlett O'Hara." It's a fascinating, quick moving affair that sports a charming melody and sans lyric choral chants. The fast paced, tricky beat thumper, "Breakwater," can also break thru. There's waves-against-the-shore sound effects along the way.

"NO OTHER BABY" (2:08) [LeBill, Marbill BMI—Hildebrand Channel]
BRUCE CHANNEL (Smash 1826)

Chances are Bruce Channel will have another sales-giant on his hands with this new Smash outing. It's a most attractive, up tempo romancer, tabbed "No Other Baby," that Bruce and the combo-chorus carve out in ear-arresting, country-flavored style. The haunting, rock-a-cha-cha, "Night People," can also take a ride to hitsville.

"NOBODY'S DARLING BUT MINE" (2:30) [Duchess BMI—Davis]
"UNCHAINED MELODY" (2:31) [Frank BMI—Zaret, North]
FRANK IFIELD (Vee Jay 525)

The chanter checks in here with another Vee Jay stanza that can duplicate his Great Britain chart status. The new one, "Nobody's Darlin' But Mine," is a warm and appealing, country-shuffle revival of the oldie. Another years-back success, "Unchained Melody," takes a strong, slow beat-ballad ride on the flip.

"OVER THE WEEKEND" (2:37) [Dandelion BMI—Madara, White]
JOHNNY MAESTRO (Cameo 256)

Songster, who has already clicked as a lead with the Crests and on his own, can have another hot item in this Cameo solo bow. It's a rockin', mashed potatoes shuffler, tabbed "Over The Weekend," that Johnny and the erk-chorus belt out with solid sales authority. Also eye the inviting beat-ballad romancer, "I'll Be True." It also has a healthy chart outlook.

"SAME OLD SONG" (2:35) [Lowery BMI—South]
"STANDING INVITATION" (2:32) [Lowery BMI—South]
JOE SOUTH (MGM 13145)

South, who's tasted territorial success in the past, can have a national giant in his MGM bow. It's a thumping rock-a-cha-cha lament, tabbed "Same Old Song," that South multi-vocals with touching sincerity. On the powerful coupler, "Standing Invitation," he ups the tempo to a sparkling twist pace. Great vocal-instrumental backgrounds on both ends.

EDDIE ROCK (Dauntless 041)

(B+) "SO MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR" (2:06) [Pandora BMI—Fallow] Songster does well as he emotionally delivers a big-sounding ballad about a fella who has plenty of nothin', but is content to have the love of his gal. Label is the Audio Fidelity affiliate.

(B) "ALONG THE NAVAJO TRAIL" (2:05) [Leeds ASCAP—Marks, DeLange] A rock-gearrendition of the standby. A guitar dominates the backdrop of both sessions.

THE OCTOBERS (Chairman 4402)

(B+) "I SHOULD'A LISTENED TO MAMA" (1:59) [Screen Gems-Columbia BMI—Greenfield, Miller] Bright rhythmic with good novelty chanting. Waxery is part of the London Family.

CHILES-PETTIFORD (Dery 10017)

(B) "AFTER YOU'VE GONE" (2:40) [Mayfair ASCAP—Creamer, Layton] The ancient item comes-in for a distinctive, unhurried blues blend from the song duo. Something a little different for the teen jocks to program. Label is based in the Bronx, N. Y.

(B) "TO LOVE & BE LOVED" (2:20) [Maraville ASCAP—Van Huesen, Cahn] A Latinish blues reading of the pretty tune from an old Frank Sinatra flick.

TIP & TINKER (Audio Fidelity 088)

(B) "MOANIN' AN' GROANIN'" (2:14) [Mellow Chime BMI—Hinkson] Duo offers a hammer-song blueser about a man whose gal is no longer around. There's some very effective wailing bits throughout. Interesting item with an off-beat manner.

(B) "RIDERS IN THE SKY" (2:18) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Jones] The old pop western in a production-number setting.

LOU JORDAN
(20th Century Fox 406)

(B) "JUST TO LOOK AT YOU" (1:57) [Trinity BMI—Barry, Schuster] Similar rock workings, theme.

THE CRESTRIDERS
(Crystalette 756)

(B) "SURF STOMP" (1:52) [Carsey BMI—The Spinners] Kids get a reliable surf-stomp pose from the guitar-led rock musicians. A growling sax is also part of the excitement. Will come in handy during hoptime spins.

(B) "SURFIN' FEVER" (2:05) [Carsey BMI—The Spinners] As the title suggests, team puts on funky garb for this session.

THE VENDORS (MGM 13133)

(B+) "PUBLIC LOVER NO. 1" (2:28) [Tree BMI—Riley, Wilkins] Warblers don't waste the fun-beat possibilities of the cute romantic twist on the Public Enemy phrase. Brass statements top the bright chore from the musicians.

(B) "STEPPIN' STONES" (2:32) [Tree BMI—Riley, Killen] Lead does a good drama-blues bit on a number about a chick who has reached the top, and has no need for the people who were her "steppin' stones."

MICKEY ALAN (Epic 9598)

(B+) "I'LL WAIT A LITTLE LONGER" (2:12) [Sea-Lark BMI—Taylor] Nice folkish romantic is appealingly essayed by the warbler, who is multi-tracked. This inviting display could get solid coin if it gets enough exposure.

(B) "THE LITTLE WHITE DUCK" (2:13) [General ASCAP—Barrows, Zaritsky] Cute kid-die-oriented outing.

NELSON RIDDLE (Reprise 20,169)

(B+) "CONNIE'S THEME" (2:52) [Saloon Songs BMI—Riddle, Cochran] Male chorus nicely surveys the pretty romantic, heard in the Frank Sinatra-starred flick, "Come Blow Your Horn." Maestro Riddle batons a lush, sentimental backdrop. Figure solid time from good-music outlets.

(B) "COME BLOW YOUR HORN" (2:50) [Maraville ASCAP—Cahn, Van Heusen] The main-title gets the slick Riddle-with-strings swing touch.

ORETHEA BARNES
(ABC-Paramount 10434)

(B+) "YOUR PICTURE ON THE WALL" (2:22) [Pamco & Vijay BMI—Pierce] Femme has to be content with just a photo of her lost-love in this interesting pose by the songstress, who has a feelingful way with the number. Good light up-beat doings from the musicians.

(B) "SAME AS BEFORE" (1:50) [Pamco & Vijay BMI—Pierce] The gal in this tale is also in love in vain.

RAY CORLINA (Riccio 1106)

(B) "SHOULD I START TELLIN' YOU" (1:55) [Tune House ASCAP—Zak, Brooks] Bouncy romantic rockin', topped by singer Corlina, about a romance on the rocks.

(C+) "THERE'S A RING AROUND THE MOON" (1:58) [Tune House ASCAP—Tobin, Zak] Similar goings-on.

MICKEY FARRELL
(Bethlehem 3069)

(B) "WONG FOO" (2:36) [Pandora-Oasis BMI—Chizmar] An Oriental chap is described for teen laffs in this well-done novelty rocker from the songsters. Pro fun-beat product.

(B) "WE DID THE BOSSA NOVA" (2:00) [Pandora-Oasis BMI—Chizmar] Couple falls in love while doing the Bossa Nova is the storyline of this busy medium-beat romantic.

GOSPEL SINGERS Pop Up, Sweet Chariot

Once a year or so, the popular-music business falls into a lull and the only thing that can bring it around again is a new sound. The new sound quickly becomes every hipster's new groove and everybody imitates it until even little children no longer care to listen. Last year the twist was replaced by the bossa nova, but as things turned out, it was a case of a starving man rescuing one who was merely hungry. Business faded.

For months now (and in the record business, months are decades) desperate music hustlers have been searching for the new groove. Experienced huntsmen confined their attention to Negro music, which, with the single exception of country music, has supplied them with every new idea since the blues. Last week, with appropriate fanfare, they proclaimed they had found the sound: pop gospel. Waving contracts and recording tape, Columbia Records moved into a new Manhattan nightclub called the Sweet Chariot and began packaging such devotional songs as He's All Right for the popular market. "It's the greatest new groove since rock 'n' roll," said Columbia Pop A. & R. Director David K. "In a month or two it'll be all hearts."

Yeah! Since gospel music is a mix of rhythm-and-blues and "soul" music, the discovery turned out to be embarrassingly obvious—like eating the hen after stealing all the eggs.

Still, everyone behaved well—the trade papers ran cheerful forecasts and chit-chat columns. "The Sweet Chariot" is the beginning of a new era in gospel music, happily announcing the introduction of new plans to open two more Sweet Chariots in Chicago and Los Angeles.

Opening in New York of Big Gospel Trend

Chariot name said to the recent appearing in the Sweet Chariot club. The obvious hope is that the club has the potential to spawn a trend as potent as the Revereport Lounge's twist.

The new sound at the Sweet Chariot is best described as folk gospel. The performers are four enthusiastic, hard-working and talented little groups and all throw themselves into their efforts with zeal and fervor. And the audience gets the message. There is spontaneous rhythmic clapping and an electric atmosphere that is reminiscent of the feeling at the Polo Grounds when the Mets are playing.

Swingin' High At The Sweet Chariot

NEW YORK—Leading execs from record companies throughout the country have been making a point of visiting the new Sweet Chariot Nite Club in New York to see what all the excitement is about. And everyone seems to be impressed with the atmosphere by the audience of the commercial gospel music the club features. Even though the groups appearing are "complete unknowns" as far as the general public is concerned, the club has been attracting a wide audience.

Some of the groups appearing in the Sweet Chariot club are those such as the Golden Chords, The Sweet Chariot Singers, and The Nathaniel Lewis Singers. The club's appeal is based on the most common of all entertainments—the live performance of music presented in an exciting and intimate setting.

Pick of the Week

Newcomers

In an effort to call D.J. attention to Pick records by "Newcomers" (artists never before on the Top 100) the editorial staff of Cash Box will list such records under this special heading.

"CLIMB EVERY MOUNTAIN" (2:06)

"WHAT MAKES LITTLE GIRLS CRY" (2:35)

[Little Darlin', Hillary BMI—Josie]

THE VICTORIANS (55574)

The "Sound Of Music" standout, "Climb Every Mountain," is treated to a superb new reading that should earn it a chart berth once again. It's by a group of newcomers, the Victorians, and their full and rich, slow, steady beat-ballad performance should be all over the airwaves in the weeks to come. Coupler's a tempting mashed potatoes thumper.

"FROM ME TO YOU" (1:49) [Gil BMI—McCartney, Lennon]

"THANK YOU GIRL" (1:55) [Conrad BMI—McCartney, Lennon]

THE BEATLES (Vee Jay 522)

Artists, who are currently riding atop the English charts with "From Me To You," can do a bang-up sales job this side of the Atlantic with the deck. It's a real catchy cha cha twist romantic novelty that the fellas deliver in attention-getting manner. More of the same top teen sounds on the "Thank You Girl" portion.

Best Bets

MARGIE SINGLETON
(Mercury 72124)

● "WALKIN' BACK TO HAPPINESS" (2:25) [Bourne, Rank Of America ASCAP—Schroeder, Hawker] The country-pop lark can break thru in a big way with this sensational new version of the short-while-back hit in England (and a noise-maker here) for Helen Shapiro. It's a bouncy, multi-track affair that sports a terrific vocal-instrumental assist.

● "I DON'T HAVE TO LOOK PRETTY (TO STAY HOME AND CRY)" (2:30) [Jewel ASCAP—Tobias, Carr] More fine multiple-vocal work on this tear-comping teen beat cha cha romancer.

BARRY MANN (Colpix 691)

● "JOHNNY SURFBOARD" (2:18) [Screen Gems-Columbia BMI—Mann, Kolber] Mann, who writes 'em and sings 'em in hit style, comes thru with a diskery bow that should prove no exception to the rule. It's a tragic-ending multi-track tale of a fella who divided his love between a gal and a surfboard. Potent Garry Sherman arrangement on a deck to watch.

(B+) "GRADUATION TIME" (2:26) [Screen Gems Columbia BMI—Mann, Weil] This end's a very pretty, lilting shuffle beat sentimental opus.

NEW WORLD SINGERS
(Atlantic 2190)

● "DON'T THINK TWICE, IT'S ALRIGHT" (2:23) [Witmark ASCAP—Dylan] If this initial deck is any indication of their talents, the New World Singers are a group to be watched. The folk crew displays a feelingful understanding of the folk idiom on this tender, slow-moving country-flavored sentimental ballad. Additionally, the boys have a top-flight guitar style. Plenty of airplay potential here.

(B+) "STEW BALL" (2:28) [P.D.] This time out the group dishes-up a moving reading of the easy-goin' folk traditional with loads of verve and polish.

FERRANTE & TEICHER
(United Artists 607)

● "ANTONY & CLEOPATRA" (2:41) [Robbins ASCAP—North] Popular dual pianists are a choice selection to interpret the big theme from the forthcoming "Cleopatra" flick, and the reading, with a string section and wordless chorus, is commanding. Could be one of the big ones in the hot chart race on the number.

(B) "CAESAR & CLEOPATRA" (2:57) [Robbins ASCAP—North] Another survey of a "Cleo" theme. Both ends are from an F&T album on the flick's score.

HELEN SHAPIRO (Epic 9599)

● "NO TRESPASSING" (1:54) [B. F. Wood ASCAP—Tobias, Evans] The star English thrush could go places in the U. S. with this infectious romantic novelty, which concerns a gal who's going to take all precautions to see that other gals don't trespass on her guy. Should be eyed.

(B+) "WOE IS ME" (2:03) [Sea-Lark Enterprises BMI—Sheeley, deShannon] Performer heads an exciting lost-love display.

CLEBANOFF STRINGS

● "ANTONY & CLEOPATRA" (2:07) [Robbins ASCAP—North] Theme that accompanies Liz Taylor-Richard Burton sequences in "Cleopatra" is, of course, heard in lush surroundings, with a mild back-beat sound for more commercial appeal. Fine version of an oft-cut item.

(B+) "CAESAR & CLEOPATRA" (2:04) [Robbins ASCAP—North] Similar rich-sounding approach.

(Old Town 1142)

● "THAT MAGIC FEELING" (2:18) [Al Gallico BMI—Redden] A distinctive ballad tune is taken for a striking, all-instrumental run-through. An odd-ball softie that can develop into a left-field success.

(B) "LOVERS ISLAND" (2:03) [Al Gallico BMI—Redden] Like the upper half, a soft rinky-dink keyboard heads this display, a no-hurry affair.

EDDIE VARTAN COMBO
(London Int'l. 10020)

(B) "CANADIAN PACIFIC" (2:13) [Burlington ASCAP—Vartan] The European teen-market combo speaks the same language as its American counterparts, and could get attention here with its fine shuffle-beat display on a solid "Wabash Cannonball"-sounding ditty.

(B) "DREAM BABY" (2:04) [Combine BMI—Aber, Walker] Interesting instrumental sound for the onetime Roy Orbison click.

JOHNNY B. DENTON/THE ASTRO TOTS
(Linda 12254)

(B) "A BOY WITHOUT A HEART" (2:20) [Vernon Shelby BMI—Denton] Johnny B. Denton is the star of this touching lost-love item for the teen crowd. Feelingful take.

(B) "MY DREAMS" (3:29) [Vernon Shelby BMI—Tunnell] A dialog intro for a sentimental warble by a femme team called The Astro Tots.

JOE PANAMA & THE MILRICH SINGERS
(La Vette 1005)

(B) "BINGO WABBLE MAMBO PART 2" (2:32) [Richards & Zordun BMI—Panama, Dunn] Musicians solo on the ditty.

JIMMY GRESHAM
(Barbary Coast 100)

(B) "BE PREPARED TO PAY" (2:00) [Vendo-Welton BMI—Gresham, Arr. Greshaw, Johnson] New west coast label opens shop with a catchy display by the vocalist and his instrumental backdrop on a hard-boiled blues ditty. Worthy upbeat stuff for the pop-blues trade.

(B) "THE PRICE IS TOO MUCH TO PAY" (2:10) [Vendo-Welton BMI—Gresham, Arr. Greshaw, Johnson] A softie not concerned with money, but with self-respect.

BOBBY GORDON (Decca 25598)

(B) "BOBBY'S BLUES" (3:29) [Gordon] Track is from the young clarinetist's debut LP on the label, "Warm & Sentimental," and is a fine example of the artist's appealing style, not to mention his cleffing skill. Big string backdrop.

(B) "I CAN'T GIVE YOU ANYTHING BUT LOVE" (2:50) [McHugh, Fields] Somewhat similar view of the oldie. Side is also from the album.

CARA STEWART (Titan 9969)

(C) "I'LL HAVE TO DREAM SOME MORE" (2:37) [Blue Ribbon ASCAP—Magee] The years roll back in this light upbeat sentimental vocal with rhythm support.

(C) "IN BETWEEN DREAMS" (2:35) [Blue Ribbon ASCAP—Magee, Dougherty] More years-back sentiment.

MARLA MASON (MCR 205)

(B) "SLIPPING AROUND" (2:03) [Southern BMI—Tillman] The oldtime country charmer receives a joyful pop outing from the lark and her ork backing, which includes a Nashville keyboard sound. Worth spins.

(B) "PLEASE STAY AWAY (From My Heart)" (2:01) [Carsey BMI—Klug, Christian] More serious romantic matters here.

EDDIE PIZARRO (Lon-Dee 735)

(B) "LITTLE TOMMY TURKEY" (2:34) [Yola BMI—Pizarro] This novelty from the twist dept. is knocked out with infectious glee by Pizarro and the Zarretts. Solid instrumental assist from the Dudley-Pizarro Quintet.

(B) "I'M IN A SWIRL" (2:25) [Yola BMI—Pizarro] On the lower portion the chanter hands in a soft, sincere, slow ballad-with-a-beat performance.

PHIL STACY
(20th Century Fox 407)

(B+) "LIZ" (1:49) [Kennebek-Mia ASCAP—Wolfson] Lively, exotic orchestration and lyrics leave no doubt that the songster is paying tribute to Elizabeth Taylor, star of the upcoming flick epic, "Cleopatra," or another who fits the actress' looks to a T. Good timely rock stand.

(B) "DO ANYTHING" (2:11) [Lady Grace BMI—Stacey] This end moves at a brisk-beat pace.

JOHN MADDEN (Tomorrow 0621)

(C+) "STOCKYARD SHUFFLE" (3:24) [Chippewa BMI—Benintente, Donaldson] Singer and The Hidden Persuaders combo offer a so-so shuffle-beat blues sound. Diskery is based in Cranford, N. J.

(C+) "HEAT & HOT WATER SUPPLIED" (2:25) [Chippewa BMI—Benintente, Donaldson] Harder blues rockin' here.

ANDY KIM (United Artists 591)

(B+) "I LOVED YOU ONCE" (2:00) [AMETROP BMI—Youakim] After a Dion-like sing-a-narrative intro, singer Kim and his support do up a catchy ditty in good rapid-fire rock style.

(B) "LOVE ME LOVE ME" (1:55) [AMETROP—Youakim] Lively teen dance step affair.

BUTCH VADEN (Fortune 552)

(B+) "HAREM GIRL" (2:00) [Tri-anon BMI—Brown] There's only a slight hint of the exotic in the sound here, but what the kids hear will please them greatly. This contagious upbeat instrumental rocker ought to be eyed.

(B) "THE ROLL" (2:18) [Tri-anon BMI—Vaden, Malamus, Chittenden] Less successful upbeat rockin', not so much in zest but in overall sound.

THE PIXIES (Don-Dee 102)

(B+) "JUST A LITTLE TEAR" (2:29) [Suffolk BMI] The femmes are good bets to cop loads of sales and spins with their striking vocal work on this pulsating beat-ballad offering. Good showing that rates loads of attention.

(B+) "CRY LIKE A BABY" (2:10) [Suffolk BMI] This end has the gals in a solid rock-a-twist stand. Two strong outings.

JOHNNY NASH (Groove 0018)

● "HELPLESS" (2:27) [Chappell ASCAP—Hugo, Luigi, Weiss] The fine song stylist turns in another one of his polished performances as he bows on Groove with a lovely, beat-ballad romantic weeper. Top notch Sammy Lowe ork-choral backdrop.

● "I'VE GOT A LOT TO OFFER DARLING" (2:20) [Tudor BMI—Nash] This enchanting soft beat cha cha cut has a tender folk-line quality. Two 'must programming' items.

NEIL SCOTT (Herald 581)

● "Chantilly, Silly Sort of Daffy as a Dilly Little Fussy Little Frilly Little) "ONE PIECE BATHING SUIT" (2:25) [Wemar BMI—Brandon, Wiener] Deck's title, of course, is indicative of the date's approach: a reminder of Brian Hyland's years-back summertime novelty smash, "Itsy Bitsy. . ." As it's done with pro teen-beat joy, session will be in for solid spins during the hot weather months ahead.

(B) "LITTLE GIRL" (2:14) [Wemar & Lenson BMI—Brandon, Wiener] Busy rockin' sound backs Scott's sentimental survey of a teen birthday theme.

CARLA THOMAS (Atlantic 2189)

● "WHAT A FOOL I'VE BEEN" (2:12) [East BMI—Bell, Cropper] Carla Thomas has had Top 100 hits in the past and she can do it again with this slow-moving, dual-track, chorus-backed soulful lament on a traditional theme of heartbreak. Side's natural for airplay.

(B+) "THE LIFE I LIVE" (2:20) [East BMI—Porter, Thomas] Top-flight pop-r&b shuffle-beat weeper rendered with authority and poise by the lark.

CASUAL-AIRES (CB 5001)

● "CRUISING" (2:05) [Little Bunker BMI—Habild] The new N. Y.-based diskery can get off on the right disk foot as they bow the Casual-Aires on an infectious thump-a-beat cha cha item. Deck has the sound that should make the teeners sit up and take notice. Can make it with exposure.

(B+) "BOSSA NOVA TWIST" (2:00) [Little Bunker BMI—Habild, Comforti, Manzo, Amodea] Flipside the group takes two dance fads and mixes 'em in coin-catching style.

HAYLEY MILLS & EDDIE HODGES (Vista 420)

● "FLITTERIN'" (2:06) [Wonderland BMI—R. M. & R. B. Sherman] Artists pair-off with a charming summertime ditty from the new Walt Disney flick, "Summer Magic," in which they are featured. A sing-along chorus is included in this soundtrack issue.

(B+) "BEAUTIFUL BEAULAH" (1:55) [Wonderland BMI—R. M. & R. B. Sherman] A merry, banjo-led sunny from the pic.

JOHNNY MAHALIC (Select 725)

● "RED WING" (2:20) [Joy ASCAP—Arr:Mahalic] Mahalic, the man who played the infectious trumpet on James Gilreath's chart-bow, "Little Band Of Gold," can make it on his own via this debut on the Joy subsid. Delectable revival of the oldie with a twist-a-rhythm combo backing.

(B) "COTTON FIELDS" (2:03) [Joy ASCAP—Arr:Mahalic] This end's an appealing thmpin' twist up-dating of another oldie—a recent hit for the Highwaymen.

BOBBY GOLDBORO (Laurie 3168)

● "THAT'S WHAT LOVE WILL DO" (1:55) [Brackenbury & Hill & Range BMI—Peacock] Warbler of "Molly" fame, could happen on the charts again with this contagious date, a recounting of events in a teen's happy times with a gal who is no longer around. Combo-chorus chore packs a solid rock-market punch. Eye it.

(B) "LIGHT THE CANDLES (Throw the Rice)" (2:33) [Unart BMI—Goldsboro, Buie] A sad rock tale about a guy who is present, as best man, at the wedding of his love and his best friend.

EARL GRANT (Decca 25691)

● "CARAVAN" [American Academy of Music ASCAP—Elington, Tizol, Mills] Label's versatile talent employs his organ artistry in this aptly exotic combo reading of the perennial. The Bossa Nova feel that supports Grant's work adds to the deck's overall commercial sound value. Date is from the artist's new LP, "Yes Sirree!!"

(B) "I'LL BUILD A STAIRWAY TO PARADISE" (2:22) [New World ASCAP—Gershwin, DeSylva, Francis] Grant is spotlighted in a fine vocal version of the great old timer. LP source is "At Basin Street East."

IVORY JOE HUNTER (Smash 1825)

● "CONGRATULATIONS" (2:02) [Four Star Sales BMI—Fuller] Ivory Joe returns to the wax scene with a Smash debut that can develop into something big. It features the chanter in an inviting twist pose on a tearful opus that finds Bill Justis grabbing arranging credits.

(B+) "MY ARMS ARE WAITING" (2:18) [Al Gallico BMI—Hunter] This Hunter original has him in the more familiar beat-ballad format. Watch it too.

THE TIKIS (Minaret 111)

● "MY BONNIE" (2:29) [Chu-Fin BMI—Duncan, Shucher] Here's a thumpin' new rock-a-rhythm version of the old favorite. It sports a fetching lead vocal by Len Wade, who's backed up delightful vocal-instrumental manner by the Tikis. Can be a solid chart item.

(B+) "I Was Doin' Alright" (2:03) [Chu-Fin BMI—Masters] Here the crew, with Wade again in the lead spotlight, turns in a potent blues-like twist'er.

DARRELL McCALL (Philips 40116)

● "HUD" (2:36) [Famous ASCAP—David, Bernstein] Colorful character played by Paul Newman in a flick of the same name receives a strong Nashville-styled folk rendition from the songster and his setting, led by a hammer pounding-like sound. This exciting folkish sound could get around—and flick's exposure should be a big help.

(B) "NO PLACE TO HIDE" (2:30) [Pamper BMI—Cochran] Sorrowful romantic theme in the Nashville-Sound manner.

TY HUNTER (Chess 1857)

● "DARLING, DARLING, DARLING" (3:05) [Chevis BMI—Davis, McAlister] The songster, backed by a femme chorus, puts his heart into his delivery of a slow cha cha beat romancer. Emotional session that can make the pop-r&b hit grade.

(B) "IN TIME" (3:10) [Chevis BMI—Clarke, Davis] This one from the hip-swinging beat-ballad school also finds Hunter in a feelingful pose.

JIMMY MCCRACKLIN

(Imperial 5955)

(B+) "I'LL SEE IT THROUGH" (2:05) [Travis BMI—McCracklin] The vet blues artist is fine form on this quick-changing, rapidly-building dual-track happy lament. The side features some contagious jazz overtones and a near-barrelhouse piano.

(B+) "THAT'S THE WAY" (2:10) [Travis BMI—McCracklin] Raunchy, low-down blueser in which the tenor sax effectively takes the solo spotlight.

JACK MCDUFF (Prestige 265)

(B+) "SANCTIFIED SAMBA" (2:22) [Jack McDuff] The talented organist has enough good things going for him on this rhythmic, hard-driving jazz affair to grab some fast spins. The self-penned tune has an interesting teen-oriented near-twistable beat. Watch it.

(B+) "WHISTLE WHILE YOU WORK" (2:15) [Churchill, Morey] On this end McDuff gives a first-rate melodic treatment of the flick standard.

THE ASTRONAUTS

(RCA Victor 8194)

(B+) "BAJA" (2:24) [Atlantic BMI—Hazlewood] One of California's top surfin' areas (pronounced Ba-ha) gets an intriguing speedy-beat doff-of-the-hat from the instrumental crew. A sound that stands on its own, surfin' tie-in or not.

(B) "KUK" (2:09) [J. V. P. ASCAP—Demmon, Gallagher, Patterson, Lindsey, Fifield] The end, named after surfin' lingo, features a lead vocal and fellow songsters.

MATT MONRO (Liberty 55573)

(B+) "THE GIRL I LOVE" (2:22) [Skidmore ASCAP—Tobias] The English songster, whose biggest disk impression in the U. S. was his reading of "My Kind Of Girl," offers a swinger that's not far removed from his "Kind" outing. It's sure to get lots of good-music programming.

(B) "LEAVE ME NOW" (3:02) [Shapiro Bernstein ASCAP—King, Junkin] Monro goes the croon route in this affecting affectionate. Poignant performance.

COLLEEN KAYE AND

THE SECRETS (Bigtop 3151)

(B+) "JOEY'S DIAMOND RING" (2:25) [Peer Int'l-BMI—Shorter] The thrush and her partners tell the story of a gal who returns her guy's diamond ring when she finds out he's not long for this world. A heartbreaker with a rhythmic organ backing that's effective.

(B) "THE ONE I LOVE" (2:30) [Beat BMI—Charmers] The gal pleads for the return of the one she loves in talk-sing manner here.

TERI ALLEN

(ABC-Paramount 10448)

(B+) "THIS LITTLE GIRL STAYED HOME" (2:48) [AMPCO ASCAP—Vance, Snyder] Lark Teri Allen gets a lyrical choral-ork assist on this pleasantly melodic beat-ballad weeper. Tune is fine dancing-listening fare that should find a lot of airwave activity.

(B) "IN THE FIRST PLACE" (2:14) [VANNO ASCAP—Vance, Snyder] A bouncy, uptempo response to Steve's "Go Away Little Girl" on this side with catchy lyrics that could make the deck a click.

LITTLE DAVID (Savoy 1617)

(B) "HOME IS WHERE YOU COME" [Savoy & Bais BMI—Porter] Blues-oriented rhythmic from the warbler, who tells a tale about a guy who wants a gal to come back to where his heart is. Catchy cut.

(B) "SO LONG (Are The Last Words You Said)" [Savoy & Bais BMI—Porter] A more intimate blues expression from the performer.

BURL IVES (Vista F-419)

(B+) "UGLY BUG BALL" (2:28) [Wonderland BMI—Sherman] Here's a bright and hitting reading of one of the tunes culled from the new Walt Disney flick, "Summer Magic." Tune is a happy-go-lucky kiddie delighter with a brassy, organ backdrop that merits plenty of spins.

(B+) "ON THE FRONT PORCH" (2:42) [Wonderland BMI—Sherman] A easy-going, folksy ballad with a close harmony chorus on this end. A good moodful melody that could also go a long way.

LEA MARA (Musienote 1109)

(B) "(Coriandoli) TAKE TIME TO SMELL THE FLOWERS" (2:00) [Duchess BMI—Lehmann, Livraghi, Chiosso] Affable Italian ditty is a natural for summertime exposure, and the lark's rendition, in English, nicely captures its sunny quality, ditto the Latinish combo setting.

(B) "VURRIA" (2:35) [Leeds ASCAP—Pugliese, Rendine] This end, more in the specialty Italian-market vein, is done in Italian.

HERB ZANE (20th Century Fox 405)

(B) "DIDN'T WANT TO GET HITCHED" (2:06) [Paul-Ee ASCAP—Gross, Zane] Snappy blues novelty from the songster and combo-chorus. Deck tells the tale of a guy who figured he'd never be altar-bound—until he met a real cutie.

(B) "I LAUGHED TILL I CRIED" (2:45) [Paul-Ee ASCAP—Gross, Zane] An easy-go plaintive.

KATIE KING (Sheridan 230)

(B) "HANDLE WITH CARE" (2:00) [Diablo BMI—M&H Nerlino] Thrush is the main attraction in this brisk rock-rhythmic. Backing is an OK Latinish ork-chorus stint.

(C+) "SHAME, SHAME" (2:32) [Shereo BMI—Hartwell, Gilbert] Ordinary slow-beat wistful.

THE SHONDELLS (King 5755)

(B+) "OOO, SOMETIMES" (2:20) [O-Cal-Briarcliff BMI—Simmons, Brooks, Reeves, Simmons, Scruggs] Gals offer a sure-handed blues-ballad blend on the tender romantic theme. Lead recites the plot, while other members make good-sounding comments.

(B) "WATUSI, ONE MORE TIME" (2:10) [O-Cal-Briarcliff BMI—Simmons, Brooks, Reeves, Simmons, Scruggs] Good showing on the popular rock-market step.

THE CALS (Loadstone 1600)

(B) "AMAZON BOSSA NOVA" (2:45) [Stonebess BMI—Al-lair, Stone] Famed Brazilian river is a likely subject for a Bossa Nova salute via an intriguing bluesy touch in the combo display. Can get some action. Label does business out of San Francisco.

(B) "ANOTHER PLAN FOR A SCHOOL MIXUP" (2:30) [Stonebess BMI—Stone] Very bluesy swinger, including a vocal stand.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

A Chillum, Maryland housewife is the winner of 1250 Capitol albums, one copy for each album in the label's library, in WWDC - Washington's "1001 Nights" contest. Out of the thousands of entries, she was the only person to correctly identify all 25 mystery tunes and the artists. As a round-the-clock station-wide promotion, the contest ran five weeks (April 10th thru May 15th) on both WWDC-AM and WWDC-FM. Eight to ten second excerpts from five records were aired each week. WWDC listeners were asked to identify each musical selection and the artist.

Growing folk trend: a new program, "Travelin' On" with Jack Taylor, recently started on WGN-Chicago, Monday thru Friday, in the 8:05-9PM slot. The show features music from around the world including songs of the cowboys and the longshoreman, the railroad man and the sailor, the mountain and the prairies and the valleys. An interview with the Limelighters was heard on the premiere broadcast. Other personalities set to appear on succeeding programs include Theodore Bikel, Judy Henske and Bonnie Dobson.

Larry and the Conservaties, currently out with "Can You Wobble?" on Like, recently visited on Hal Jackson's WWRL-New York air stanza answering phones and taking requests for the deejay.

Thespian Robert Cummings recently taped a series of public service announcements for Cerebral Palsy which were aired exclusively over KHJ-Hollywood. During the past week, the station was honored by the Veterans Administration, Diabetes Association, Los Angeles County Medical Association and the California Educational Clinic, for public service work performed for those organizations.

Hal J. Davis, general manager of KROD-El Paso, recently stated that radio can promote TV effectively. To prove his point, KROD tape-recorded segments of program soundtracks from sister-station KROD-TV and built a contest around them. Ten-second dialogue from the TV program soundtrack was aired on radio, with the first person who called and correctly identified the TV show winning flowers and candy for Mother's Day. Davis said response was terrific with about 50 calls received for each clue broadcast.

The Minnesota Safety Council has announced that KDWB will be honored publicly this month at the annual Governor's Award Presentation Dinner, at the Hotel Leamington in Minneapolis. At that time, KDWB will be cited as the only radio station in the entire state to be named by the National Safety Council as recipient of the 1962 Public Interest Award for Outstanding Service To Safety. A plaque noting KDWB's efforts on behalf of safety will be presented by Governor Karl F. Rolvaag to Donald French, the station's general manager.

KEX-Portland will sponsor the wedding in June of a lucky Northwest bride and groom to-be. The wedding will be broadcast live by the station's early afternoon personality, Ted Rogers, and will emanate from the Memorial Coliseum during Rose Festival time, Saturday, June 15. It will be a royal affair for the "mystery couple"

... qualifying entrants will receive a host of gifts, including a complete outfit for the bride, formal wear for the groom and best man, wedding rings, catered reception, honeymoon stay at Ocean Lake and other gifts still to be announced. In order to qualify for the KEX wedding in June, entrants must write in 25 words or less why they would like to be the KEX couple-of-the-year. Since the public will be invited to the ceremony, Ted Rogers expects it will be the most well-attended wedding since Margaret and Tony tied the knot.

For the eighth consecutive year, WXYZ-Detroit will bring their listeners exclusive coverage of the world famed Indianapolis 500 mile auto Race on Memorial Day, May 30.

On a recent Sunday in May, 4,000 people raised a staggering total of $51,000 to help Danny Thomas fight leukemia. For WLS-Chicago, the achievement was a particular point of pride. In 1962, the station bent full on-the-air promotion efforts to recruiting fund raisers for a one-day ALSAC (Aiding Leukemia Stricken American Children) drive in May. The campaign was custom-produced in three phases and aired for three months. On May 6th, marchers for leukemia raised $24,000 for the Danny Thomas-St. Jude Research Hospital in Memphis. This total far exceeded any amount previously collected. In March of 1963, Don Stewart, WLS public affairs director, laid plans for this year's fund drive in Chicagoland. He tailored announcements around the recorded messages of Danny Thomas and the voice of parents of a child victim of the dread leukemia. In all, a total of 364 spot announcements were aired between March 19 and May 5. Additionally, 216 newscasts were used on the station. The gratifying result shattered all previous records ... $51,000 with funds and pledges still coming in.

The American Wind Symphony, Pittsburgh's unique orchestra that performs from a floating barge on the rivers of America, opens its 1963 season on June 5 with the active support of KDKA-Pittsburgh. Since the Symphony's beginning in 1957, KDKA has been one of its major sponsors with a yearly grant of $1000. Believing that the orchestra is a worthwhile community project, the station also gives extensive public relations assistance to the organization and underwrites a yearly "kick-off" luncheon for the civic leaders and members of the press.

OKY-Winnipeg's 9-midnight deejay, Mark Parr, is conducting a cute contest to find a family pet that looks like him. Parr is asking his listeners to send in snapshots of their pets. An impartial board of judges will select the one showing the greatest resemblance and award the sender 5 LP's. Later, a collection of the entries will be displayed in the window of one of Parr's sponsor's stores.

VITAL STATISTICS

Danny Stiles is running an evening deejay show on WNJR-Newark. . . Ed Dunn, formerly with KITE-San Antonio, is now spinning 'em on WOAL-San Antonio. . . Harry Munyan has rejoined WIOD-Miami as community relations director. . . Bill Steinbach is a new newsman on KDKA-Pittsburgh.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"FILM SPECTACULAR"—Stanley Black—London SP44025

Arranger-conductor Stanley Black has earned many laurels in the past for his inventive musical stylings, but this new phase 4 package containing some of the most popular flick music of the decade ranks as one of his most satisfying sets to date. On this entry, Black has come up with some dazzling full-bodied arrangements which aptly capture the mood and pulse of the various films. The orkster and the London Festival Orchestra shine as they read "The Longest Day," "Around The World In 80 Days" and "Exodus." Stereo qualities are top-notch here. Plenty of sales potential.

"LOVE THEMES FROM CLEOPATRA"—Ferrante & Teicher—United Artists UAL3290

Ferrante Teicher have racked up an impressive track record with their previous keyboard stylings, but this disk of tunes from the soon-to-be-released highly-touted "Cleopatra" flick ranks as one of their most powerful efforts to date. While backed by a lush, full ork conducted by Nick Perito, the duo go through their musical paces with all of their expected poise and polish. Among the best tracks here are "Caravan," "Devotion" and "Sands Of Time." Album should really skyrocket when the film goes into general release.

"YES SIRREE!"—Earl Grant—Decca DL74405

Earl Grant, who spent considerable time on the charts with his "Beyond The Reef" and "Ebb Tide" LP's could have another contender for the best-seller lists with this new organ-piano session on Decca. The 88'er displays a lot of the musician-ship that has brought him wide acceptance over the past few years. Swingin' tracks here are "I Wanna Be Around," "Steve's Theme" and "Caravan." Eye this one for brisk sales action.

"HOT PASTRAMI"—Dartells—Dot DLP25522

The Dartells, currently riding high on both the pop and r&b charts with "Hot Pastrami," cash in on the sales acceptance of the single to tag this Dot LP romp. The boys launch the session with "Pastrami" and follow it up with some rhythmic servings of "Swiss Cheese," "Dill Pickles" and "St. James Infirmary." The click single could send the album up the hitsville path.

"I GOT SOMETHIN' TO TELL YOU"—Moms Mabley—Chess LP1479

"GLORIA BLUE"—Gloria Lynne—Everest 5203

The lark, who is currently clicking with her "Thunderbird" LP, comes up with a potent follow-up stanza with this everest outing of sentimental blues evergreens. The artist's commanding, soulful voice coupled with her tender phrasing carries her in good stead on top-flight tenditions of "Stormy Monday Blues," "Am I Blue" and "Little Girl Blue." Disk has enough built-in success ingredients to reach the charts in no time flat.

"EVERY DAY I HAVE TO CRY"—Steve Alaimo—Checker LP2986

Steve Alaimo, who recently struck paydirt with his hot single, "Every Day I Have To Cry," tags this new Checker album after the hit and includes with it eleven other weepers with the "cry" theme. The teen dance crowd will surely go for the chanter's stylized readings of the beat ballads with top-flight arrangements by Bill Justis. Best bets here are the tag tune, "Cry Me A River" and "Cry Myself to Sleep."

"ONCE MORE!"—Charlie Byrd—Riverside RS9454

Charlie Byrd, still riding high on the crest of success as a result of his teaming with Stan Getz and his own effort on "Bossa Nova Pelos Passaros," could make it to chartsville very quickly with this top-notch bossa nova addition. The guitarist, an eloquent spokesman for the Brazilian rhythm, pulls out all the stops here as he relies on his classical background to come up with some unusual but effective ideas. Excellent bands are "Limehouse Blues," "Samba da Minha Terra" and "Anna."

"GOLDEN GOODIES" VOL. 1—Roulette R25207

Here is Vol. 1 in Roulett's 12-volume set of "Golden Goodies" LP's that features instrumental and vocal hits from the wealth of material produced since the advent of rock and roll. Included in this first package are "Don't Say Goodnight" by the Valentines, "Out in the Cold Again" by Frankie Lymon and "The Masquerade Is Over" by the Harptones. These teen-angled sets should get plenty of sales action and airtime.

"SURFIN' WITH BO DIDDLEY"—Checker LP2987

Although the surfin' craze is restricted to the west coast, the music that is associated with the sport has national appeal as evidenced by the many recent and current surfin' hits. Vet pop-r&b guitarist Bo Diddley jumps on the surfin' bandwagon with this contagious, high-powered, rhythmic set from Checker. The artist adapts a fine batch of standards to the surfin' beat including "White Silver Sands," "Hucklebuck" and "Old Man River" in addition to a first-rate group of newies. Disk should pull loads of loot.

"SUMMER MAGIC"—Burl Ives, Hayley Mills—Vista BV4025

Walt Disney presents the members of the film cast of "Summer Magic" doing all the songs from the picture on this attractively packaged set from Vista. With orchestra conducted by Camarata, the cast boasts the talents of Burl Ives, Hayley Mills, Eddie Hodges and Deborah Walley. The songs are bright and melodic and should appeal to both children and adults. Delightfully performed are "Pink of Perfection," "Ugly Bug Ball" and "On The Front Porch."

"SLOW GLOW"—Annita Ray—Ava A16

With the industry becoming constantly more aware of "class" singers, newcomer Annita Ray seems sure to create plenty of excitement. The lark has a rich vibrant wide-range legit-styled voice and a pleasing, sensual delivery. On this, her premiere LP, the songstress renders a fine flock of evergreens with the assurance of a long-successful pro. While the Harry Betts crew provides some excellent moody backings, Annita shines on "I Don't Want To Walk Without You," "I'll Be Around" and "For All We Know."

"NIGHT LIFE"—Ray Price—Columbia CL1971

The vet country chanter is out to please his fans with this new package of ballads which make up part of his nightclub act. Price's rich, wide-range baritone voice and professional warm delivery is aptly spotlighted on such popular items as "Lonely Street," "The Twenty-Fourth Hour" and "A Girl In The Night." Kudos here also go the artist's band, the Cherokee Cowboys, who provide some excellent bluegrass-styled backings.

"HOW THE WEST WAS WON"—Hollywood Sound Stage Orchestra—United Artists UAS6283

The currently-in-release flick, "How The West Was Won," easily ranks as one of the outstanding epics of the decade. Unlike many similiar films, the music can readily stand on its own merits. On this delightful set, the Hollywood Sound Stage Ork reads a bevy of tunes from the film with enough polish to please even the most discerning record buyers. Top-flight tracks here include "A Home In The Meadow," "Come Share My Life" and "Wait For The Wagon."

"TOO LATE TO WORRY—TOO BLUE TO CRY"
—Glen Campbell—ST1881
Glen Campbell tags his second Capitol LP offering after his while-back hit, "Too Late To Worry—To Blue To Cry," and complements it with a bag of familiar country-flavored tunes. The singer-guitarist gets some top-drawer help from Jimmie Haskell who arranged and conducted the session. The songster is in fine form as he renders "Walking The Floor Over You," "Be Honest With Me" and "Long Black Limousine." His multitude of country fans should come out in strength for the set.

"I'M ON MY WAY"—Willie Wright—Argo LP4024
Argo makes its bow in the folk field with this top-notch disk showcasing the talents of newcomer, Willie Wright. The chanter-guitarist has a dynamic, commanding pop-folk style and the ability of render diverse material with equal poise. While backed by two guitars and bass, Wright turns in outstanding renditions of "Sinner Man," "Man Taking Names" and "Go Away From My Window." A talent to watch.

"BLUE STRINGS AND RAINBOWS"—Luchi De Jesus—UAL3201
Luchi DeJesus has created a mood package for UA that merits special attention. The orkster has subtly but delightfully blended rich melody, superb arrangements and sensitive direction into a moodful amalgam designed for relaxed and pleasurable listening. Conducting a European symphony orchestra, the maestro feelingfully essays "My Ship," "When Winter Comes" and "In The Wee Small Hours Of The Morning." The set should find early acceptance.

"TRIO CALAVERAS—25 ANIVERSARIO"—RCA Victor MKL1461
The Mexican Calaveras Trio notes its 25th anniversary with this album of South-of-the-Border styled instrumentals and vocals from RCA Victor Mexicana. The men showcase their artistry on a group of rhythmic melodies with an authentic folk flavor that should stimulate the more esoteric collector. Included in the set are "Granito De Sal," "El Hijo Disobediente" and "Fallaste Corazon."

"TOP SECRETS OF TOMORROW"—Ronald Edwin—Galiko 901
Here's a far-out spoken-word disk spotlighting the interesting talents of a modern-day Nostradamus called Ronald Edwin. Unlike his ancient predecessors, Edwin does not boast supernatural powers. The Britisher, who makes predictions on politics, science, personalities, etc. on this disk, bases his numerous predications extra-sensory preception and telepathy. Disk should spark some interest among psychologically-oriented record buyers.

"GOSPEL SONGS BLUEGRASS STYLE" —Barrier Brothers—Philips—PHS 600083
The Barrier Brothers come up with a top-flight session in which they render a fine group of standard gospel items in their own distinctive bluegrass style on this new Philips disk. The boys display an amazing feeling for the religious material as they offer "I'll Fly Away," "Little Community Church" and "Angel Band." All of the team's many country fans should come out in droves for the album.

"BIG TOP CIRCUS CALLIOPE"—Audio Fidelity AFSD 5986

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

The Art Van Damme Quintet gets a capable assist from guitarist Johnny Smith on this new Columbia LP session aimed at the jazz-swing idiom. Most of the tunes here have been around a long time but they get a fresh, inventive airing from the group on this tastefully executed set. Bright bands here include "Bye Bye Blackbird," "Gone With The Wind" and "Spring Is Here." Plenty of spintime material here.

"THAT'S HOW I LOVE THE BLUES"—Mark Murphy—Riverside 441
In an era when jazz-blues singers are almost becoming passe, Mark Murphy maintains a warm, emotional link with the past. The talented chanter has a distinctive, rich, wide-range voice and a fresh, dramatic approach. Murphy does not attempt to carbon-copy other blues singers but communicates such items as "Senor Blues," "Blues In My Heart" and "Rusty Dusty Blues" in an extremely-personal idiom. Superior listening throughout.

"GOOD LITTLE MAN"—Marv Jenkins—Reprise R6077
Marv Jenkins, assisted by Kenny Dennis on drums and Stanley Gilbert on bass, gives out with some stellar piano readings on a quartet of standards and four originals on this new Reprise outing. The pianist goes on some fanciful flights here but the melodies are never completely obscured. Slick sides here are "Time After Time," "What's New" and "I'll Drown In My Own Tears." The jazz buffs will dig this one.

"D'JEVER?"—Jack Quigley Trio—Sand c 38
Jack Quigley is one of the true multi-talented jazzmen around today. On this new Sand set all of the artist's skills as an arranger-composer conductor-pianist come into focus. While backed but the other two members of his trio, Chuck Berghoufer on bass and Frank Capp on drums, Quigley dishes up top-drawer readings of an excellent batch of originals in his distinctive, free-flowing, relaxed style. Among the best tracks here are "Presto," "Kennedria" and "D'Jever?"

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

SHOSTAKOVICH: Symphony No. 4; Eugene Ormandy conducting the Philadelphia Orchestra—Columbia ML 5859
Shostakovitch's mysterious Fourth Symphony, which was first heard by the west only a year ago at the Edinburgh Festival, is read with brilliant taste and dazzling style by Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra on this new Columbia classical entry. The work is a complicated, far-out mixture of many diverse rhapsodic elements with many thematic climaxes and harmonic changes. Ormandy and company breeze through the unfamiliar piece as if they had been playing it for years. A standout achievement.

SCHUMANN: Carnival, Fantasiestucke—Arthur Rubinstein—RCA Victor LM269
The giant of the concert 88 showcases the artistry that has won him acclaim throughout the world. Two romantic works from the genius of Robert Schumann are expertly and sensitively explored by Rubinstein on this new release from Victor. Beginning with a series of musical character sketches and vignettes called "Carnival," the pianist continues with a very lyrical interpretation of "Fantasiestucke." In both of these introspective works, the pianist feelingfully evokes the spirit of the composer. A superb classical offering.

NEW YORK:

Real pro dept.: Tony Bennett, after winning three NARAS Awards, told us on the phone that a special tribute should be paid to Sammy Davis Jr., whose impersonations of him kept his name alive throughout the world during the years when hit records were scarce for Tony. That's Class! . . . We spent several pleasant hours visiting with Burl Ives in his West End Avenue apartment last week. The versatile singer-actor-author recently completed his second book, "The Wayfaring Stranger's Notebook," published by Bobbs-Merrill. Burl told us the book is a compilation of notes, documents, poems, song lyrics, and anecdotes on Americana he has collected in his travels. The book is already a brisk seller and we wish him continued success. The genial folk singer, who has a new Decca LP tagged, "Burl," and a sin-

Clark F. Galehouse, label owner, has assumed presidency of Golden Crest. . . . Teddy Randazzo (Colpix) is in town for three weeks for recording sessions and club dates —on 6/7 he'll go to the Thunderbird in Las Vegas. . . . Pianist Randy Weston, also of Colpix, recently departed for West Africa where he'll spend ten days participating in a series of panel discussions to be held in the West African Center in Lagos, Nigeria. His trip is being sponsored by the American Society on African Culture. . . . Dion, still clicking with his "Ruby Baby" LP and "This Little Girl" single (Columbia) will open at the Boulevard nitery in Queens this week 5/29. . . . Johnny Nash, recently signed by Hugo and Luigi for

Connie Francis will be joined by 300 nationwide deejays when she opens at the Copacabana 5/30. The fete honors the lark for the 25 million disk sales she's chalked up in the past four years with MGM. During her engagement, her act will be filmed for editing into an hour-long musical special headed for European television markets in the Fall. Following her Copa stint, Connie will jet to Scotland 7/3 to do a "Command Performance" for Queen Elizabeth. . . . The Paul Winter Sextet will present a concert at the United Nations for the Delegates and members of the Secretariat 5/29. . . . Rick Nelson (Decca) on the charts with his LP "For Your Sweet Love," is off on a p.a. tour. . . . Cozy Cole out with a new single dubbed, "Indian Love Call" (Parts 1 & 2). . . . Grant Johannesen, who scored such a tremendous success on his recent Russian tour, was honored by the state

gle called "I'm The Boss," recently won the Grammy Award for his "Funny Way of Laughing" and is appearing in three new flicks, "The Brass Bottle," "Summer Magic" and "Mediterranean Holiday" which he narrates. . . . Paul Robinson, London's national promo manager, buzzed from Cleveland that Mike March, WERE deejay, taped a one-hour spec from London LP's, "Film Spectacular" by Stanley Black and "Strictly U.S.A." by Caterina Valente. . . . Dave Greenman is touring New England and the South on behalf of the Joy label. . . . Danny Crystal up with Pat Boone's new single, "Tie Me Kangaroo Down, Sport" (Dot), said that Pat and the Paul Smith Trio and local deejays will make spot appearances in 30 New York area theaters on behalf of Pat's new film, "The Main Attraction."

Carl Deane, who got three for three in last Sunday's game (NY record promo men vs. WMCA's Good Guys), sez the hot one for this week is "The Six Gifts of Love" by the Harry Simeone Chorale. It was a colorful game—Mitch Reed stopped a ball with his eye; Marvelous Mary Dean's Fan Club was there in force; Jerry Ross played a heck of a game; Tom LiPuma & Sal Licata were noisy spectators; Roy Botachio dropped pearls of wisdom to his teammates; Bernie Lawrence was slick in the field—and the final score was 7 to 3 with the promo guys on top.

Sid Ascher buzzed that Freedomland will host a Teenage-Fair from 7/3-7/14, and that teenage participants (pop & folk singers, musicians, rock n' roll groups) should call Irene Gordon at TN 7-8960 for information. . . . Jerry Johnson, national promo head for Fred Astaire's Ava label for the past two years, has left Ava to return to indie promo. No replacement has been named yet. . . . The Amy-Mala setup is making it easy for those on the promo level to recognize its single releases. All promo disks are going out with a baby blue vinyl color. First entry of its kind, called Astro-Look, is "Did You Ever See A Lassie?" by Billy Frazier, heard on A-M's new Vita-Sound process, which, the diskery says, cuts down on surface noise, among other Groove Records, has a new release tagged "Helpless" b/w "I've Got A Lot To Offer Darling." . . . Mickey Eichner writes that "No Lies" by the Kokomos (Josie) and "Green Monkey" by Garnell Cooper & Kinfolk (Jubilee) are getting fine airplay and sales reaction. . . . Teri Thornton (Dauntless), currently making her Gotham nitery debut at the Bon Soir, makes her fourth appearance on the Johnny Carson show this week 5/29.

Jimmy Witherspoon, vet blues-singer has cut his first date on the Prestige Bluesville label. . . . Bobby Rydell, clicking with "Wildwood Days," opens at the Three Rivers Inn, Syracuse, this week 5/31. . . . Xavier Cugat and Abbe Lane will play the Freedomland Moon Bowl over the Memorial Day weekend. . . . Dottie Stevens has been signed to the Dolton label. . . . Earl Wrightdon will begin a tour of summer theaters playing the lead in "Silk Stockings," beginning at Valley Forge, Pa. 6/10. . . . Guy Lombardo will play for one of the First Lady's favorite charities, "Good Ship Hope" Ball 5/27 at the Shoreham in Wash, D.C. . . . Lynn Oliver has joined Allan Winkler to form the Lynn Oliver Recording Studios. . . . Stanley Mills predicts big things for Helen Shapiro's new deck, "No Trespassin'" (Epic). . . . White Marshall notes that Lea Mara has waxed "Take Time To Smell The Flowers" on the Musicnote label. . . . Jack Fine over at Atlantic sez Otis Redding's "These Arms of Mine" (Volt) is going upward. . . . Johnny Mahalic, the trumpeter on Jimmy Gilreath's "Little Band of Gold" (Joy) goes out on his own on Select with "Red Wing" and "Cotton Fields." . . . Capitol's man about town, Roy Botachio, infos that Bobby Darin's Copa stint is a solid success. Other Capitol artists around town are the Gateway Trio (Roosevelt Grill), Nancy Wilson (Apollo), Charlie Shavers (Embers) and Stan Kenton will appear in the Madison Square Jazz Concert 6/14. Roy also mentioned the initial deejay reaction to Marion Montgomery's "Swings For Winners and Losers" has been excellent. . . . Jane Morgan will embark on a four-month tour of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The King and I" under the auspices of Music Fairs Corporation.

of Utah when the Governor proclaimed 5/18 as Grant Johannesen day. The pianist records for Golden Crest. . . . Zsa Zsa Gabor will wax a comedy LP for the Booker-Doud organization. . . . Dicky Lee sends along word from Newport News that his "I Go Lonely" (Smash) is doing well with the spinners. . . . Nancy Wilson's "Broadway-My Way" LP (Capitol) has attracted the attention of Richard Rodgers and the result could be a role in a future Rodgers musical sez Bill Hegner. . . . Folk singer Shawn Phillips has been signed by United Artists. . . . Marla Mason has a new disk on MCR tagged "Please Stay Away." . . . Dick Dia, mandolin and guitar player, is appearing at the Castilian Room in New York. Dia has two LP's "Mandolino Italiano" and "The Magnificent Mandolins" on Audio Fidelity. . . . Morty Wax up to tell us "I Got Feelings" by Jesse Williams (Carlton) and "Blues On Velvet" by Jack LaForge (Regina) are getting good sales and airtime activity. . . . Sindee Anne Richards, soon to appear in the flick, "The Fool Killer," has a new single "Listen To My Story" (Begun). . . . Johnny Tillotson returns from his European tour this week and will be booked into the Mardi Gras in Baltimore 6/11. . . . Joe Kolsky, prexy for Diamond Records, sez he's got one of the hottest disks around in "Summer's Comin'" by Kirby St. Romain. The newly acquired master is on the Inette label but will be distributed by the Diamond diskery. . . . Johnny Mathis has been signed for a series of tent appearances for this summer. Appearing with the songster will be comic Allen Drake, the Brandywine Singers and the Marcello Ballet Espagnol.

CHICAGO:

Main topic at George Leaner's One-derful Records is the continuing success of the 5 Du-Tones' "Shake A Tail Feather" which debuted on the CB chart last week. Group's been scoring in the p.a. picture, too, with a record breaking stint at the Apollo followed by similar victories in Cleve. and Flint, Mich. . . . Actor-singer James McArthur who entered the wax scene with "The In Between

Chad Mitchell Trio at an open house celebration 5/26. . . . Cause for celebration at Smash is the recent pacting of songster Kenny Dino (whose hit credits include "Your Ma Said You Cried In Your Sleep Last Night") and the rush release of his first on Smash tagged "I Wanna Know (What Love Is All About)."

Summit's Bill McCloud anticipates much activity with the Hayley Mills-Eddie Hodges offering "Flitterin'" b/w "Beautiful Beulah" from the Walt Disney movie "Summer Magic." Bill made rounds 5/20 with Challenge's Mel Bly who was here to promote label's "Just Walkin' In The Rain" by Jerry Wallace. . . . RCA-Victor's The Limelites will be "Making A Joyful Noise" at the Opera House 5/31. . . . The Chess diskery is as hot as ever these days with an all-hit singles lineup topped by Ty Hunter's "Darling Darling Darling," Mitty Collier's "Little Miss Loneliness," Bo Diddley's "I'm The Greatest Lover In The World" and Ramsey Lewis' pop-r&b powerhouse "Look-A-Here." And that ain't all—sales topper Max Cooperstein clues us on upcoming LP's spotlighting Moms Mabley, Etta James, Ramsey Lewis, and "The Blues Pts. I & II." . . . Reprise distributors from all over converged upon Chi's Ambassador East Hotel 5/17 to attend diskery's nat'l. sales meeting and glimpse some powerful new LP products for the summer season, highlighted by Frank Sinatra's latest "Concert Sinatra." Not to slight the singles picture, Dave Olson points to potential whoppers "Come Blow Your Horn" by Sinatra and "Caesar & Cleopatra" by George Greeley. . . . Erwin Barg is pluggin' away on Dot items "Scarlet O'Hara" by Lawrence Welk, "Always You And Me" by Pat Boone, "I'm Gonna Be The Winner" by Jimmy Rodgers, and Billy Vaughn's "Happy Cowboy" single and "Sukiyaka" album. . . . Command artists Bobby Haggert, out with "Big Noise From Winnetka" LP, and Ray Charles of the Ray Charles Singers, did some local p.a.'s while in town for the Perry Como Show which was broadcast from the Nat'l. Restaurant Assn. convention 5/22.

Fats Domino

Fats Domino, who is currently hitting with his ABC-Paramount bow of "There Goes (My Heart)," was born Antoine Domino on February 26, 1928 in New Orleans. Although he was the only one of nine children to show an interest in music, the family was not an unmusical one. His father was a violinist and his uncle had played with such famous jazz aggregations as those of Kid Ory and Oscar Celestin.

Fats first displayed his musical precocity when he was barely out of short pants. One of his cousins left an old upright piano with the family. The youngster was fascinated by the instrument and, in no time, he was able to pick out simple melodies on it. By the time he was ten years old, he was playing and singing for pennies in local honky-tonks.

After several years of working various clubs around the country, Fats landed recording contract with Imperial Records and his career went into high gear. As recording artist he sold millions of records including his sensational renditions of "My Blue Heaven," "When My Dreamboat Comes Home" and "Blueberry Hill." Additionally, he has played many of the country's leading night clubs and theatres, attracting SRO business everywhere.

When he is not on the road or recording, Fats spends his free time with his wife and six children in New Orleans.

Marvin Gaye

Marvin Gaye, who is currently riding the charts with "Pride And Joy" on Tamla, began singing at the tender age of three, when he was a soloist in his father's church in Washington, D.C.

Like many of today's popular young singers, Marv continued his religious singing until his early teens when he launched his career in the popular field, singing locally around his home town. It is interesting to note that the artist, who could belt out a rocking good gospel song in his teens, today sings in a soulful style.

The multi-talented Marv (he sings, composes, arranges, plays the drums and piano) received his first big break a short while ago when he snared a Tamla Records recording contract. In brief period, he clicked with "Stubborn Kind Of Fellow" and "Hitch Hike." The rest is history.

NARM Xmas Product Survey Underway; Results Due In June

PHILADELPHIA—A survey is now in full swing of the Christmas product sold during the 1962 holiday season, by the record rack merchandisers in the National Association of Record Merchandisers, Inc. (NARM), in their 25,000 outlets in supermarkets, variety stores, drug stores, department stores, discount houses, and service PX's.

After compiling a complete listing of all Christmas LP product offered for sale by labels last year, Jules Malamud, NARM executive director, mailed to each NARM rack jobber, a survey questionnaire requesting an answer for each album, based on actual sales in the stores, in one of five categories: "Excellent," "Good," "Poor," and "did not use."

In commenting on the progress of the survey, Malamud stated, "Although the questionnaires were mailed only 10 days ago, more than half have already been returned to my office—an amazing return! This would indicate that there is great interest among our members in solving the problem of the tremendous quantity of Christmas product which is released every year."

When the survey has been completed, each label will receive a report on his company's product, the object being that product which is unsaleable, will be eliminated from the 1963 offerings. A consensus of survey results will also be sent to each NARM record merchandiser, alerting him to highly saleable product which he may not have carried last year.

The results of the NARM Christmas survey will be made available to record rack merchandisers and manufacturers in the early part of June, so that both will have ample opportunity of planning for the holiday season—the rack jobber in his selection of merchandise, and the manufacturer in his planning of Christmas product. It is expected in addition, that certain recommendations will be forthcoming from the NARM board, to handle such problems relative to Christmas merchandise, as billing and returns.

Cecil H. Steen, head of Recordwagon, Inc. of Boston, and president of NARM, stated, "The NARM Board of Directors, in initiating the Christmas survey, did so with a dual purpose in mind: to assist the record merchandiser and manufacturer in their future holiday plans, and to increase the benefit of the Person-to-Person Sales Conference sessions, at the NARM Mid-Year Meeting."

The NARM Mid-Year Meeting and Sales Conference will be held at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago, July 30 through August 2, and will be chaired by two past presidents of NARM, Harold Goldman of Rak Sales in St. Louis, and James J. Tiedjens, of Musical Isle Record Corp. in Milwaukee.

Lots Of Diskings Of "Cane" Theme

NEW YORK—A sentimental ballad from an unusual source, the Italian-made documentary, "Mondo Cane," a bizarre look at the world, is getting wide disk coverage.

To date, nine singles entries have been released, featuring vocal and instrumental performers, on the pie's main-theme, "More." Included are Danny Williams (UA), Della Reese (Victor), Steve Lawrence (Columbia), Martin Denny (Liberty), Riz Ortolani (UA), Katyna Ranieri (London), Semprini (Capitol), Clebanoff (Mercury), and Charlie Byrd (Riverside). The soundtrack LP is available on UA. Publisher of the score is E. B. Marks.

Rush Martino LP Named After Hit

NEW YORK—Al Martino is now a member of the LP-named-after-a-hit-single club. Capitol Records is rushing out this week (27) an LP tagged "I Love You Because," the title of the songster's current top 10 singles issue. Arranger and conductor on the date is Belford Hendricks.

Lloyd Leipzig To UA In New Promo Post

NEW YORK—Lloyd Leipzig has been named to the newly-created post of director of creative services at United Artists Records, it was announced last week by Art Talmadge, the label's topper.

In this key position, Leipzig, a vet publicist and personal manager with 15 years experience in various phases of the entertainment business, joins the label to supervise the advertising, publicity and exploitation departments and will also be in charge of artists relations. In addition, Leipzig will act as liaison with the parent film company in the release of soundtrack albums and music from U.A. pictures.

Leipzig has served as a publicist and exploitation man for United Artists and Loew's Theatres, and was in charge of pop publicity for five years with Columbia Records before departing to form his own personal management firm, W & L Management, where he represented such major names as Tony Bennett, Jill Corey, Bobby Darin, Lu Ann Simms and Garry Morton. For the past several years, Leipzig has worked closely with Mitch Miller as director of publicity and exploitation for his "Sing Along With Mitch" TV program.

Mercury To Provide All Acts In Palisades' Show

CHICAGO — It was "Mercury Day" at the Palisades Amusement Park in Fort Lee, N. J. last Sat. (25) when a line-up of seven of the Mercury label's acts were featured during the weekly "live" teen show.

This marked the first time that the park ever devoted an entire day to one recording label. To promote the day, the park ran newspaper ads and billboards throughout New York City and New Jersey, and had Mercury displays at concessions all over the park. The show is hosted by Bruce Morrow of WABC in New York City. Arrangements for Mercury's participation were handled by Morris Diamond, label's national promo manager.

Appearing for Mercury were Lesley Gore, Ray Stevens, Kenny Rossi, Anthony and The Sophomores, Billy and The Essentials, and The Pixies. Following their performances, the performers were on hand to sign autographs for their fans.

Mothers Of Label Heads Die

NEW YORK—The mothers of two record company heads died last week. They were the mothers of Norm Weiser, head of 20th Century Fox Records, and Harry Chipetz, general manager of Cameo-Parkway Records.

Promo Men Vs. Dee Jays

NEW YORK—A two-fisted team of Gotham promo men recently took on the WMCA-New York "good guys" in a no-holds-barred baseball game in Central Park. After the smoke had cleared, Warner Brothers' Marvin Deane had out-hurled WMCA's Danny Daniels in a decisive 7 to 3 victory. Standing (left to right) in the top pic are promo men Roy Bataccio, Bernie Lawrence, Jerry Love, Peter Spargo, Marvin Deane, Mike Becci, Mike Gruber, and Ken Lutman. The two men kneeling in front are Carl Deane and Jerry Ross. Pictured standing (left to right) in the middle shot are "good guys" Jack Spector, Joe Bogart, Joe O'Brien, Irv Kagan, B. Mitch Reed, Marty Plissner and Jim Harriott. The rest of the WMCA squad (kneeling left to right) are Danny Daniels, Burt Knapp, Marty Greenberg, Monroe Falitz, Phil Cecchini and Paul Dunn. Like his big league counterparts, Marvin Deane was well represented with a cheering fan club. In the bottom pic the brothers Deane (Carl and Marvin) are shown with fan clubbers Sal Cappola, prexy, and John Cassetta, veep.

NEW YORK—Celebs turned out in force recently for the simultaneous NARAS Grammy award presentations in New York, Hollywood and Chicago. Some of the luminaries who attended the Gotham banquet were: (1) Arnold Maxim and George Maharis; (2) Joe Harnell kissing Eydie Gorme; (3) John McClure kissing Eileen Farrell; (4) Eileen Farrell with Duke Ellington; (5) Leontyne Price with Peter Nero; (6) Merv Griffin, Count Basie and Leopold Stokowski; (7) Bob Booker, Earl Doud and Jonathan Winters; (8) Marian Anderson, Duke Ellington and Count Basie; (9) Ernie Altschuler, Steve Lawrence, Eydie Gorme and William B. Williams; and (10) Nesuhi Ertegun, George T. Simon and Merv Griffin. Some of the celebs who participated in the Hollywood event were: (11) Mike Maitland; (12) Edie Adams; and (13) Les Brown and June Hutton. The Windy City chapter of NARAS also had a gala Grammy awards soiree and prepared, as a special attraction, a huge cake (14). In pic (15) Dick Schory is shown introducing Marian McPartland.

Groove Gets Rich

Horowitz' Dynagroove Attack Follows Grammy For Col. LP

NEW YORK—Vladimir Horowitz, the noted pianist, has taken a swipe at RCA Victor Records' Dynagroove process as a result of his two Grammy awards from NARAS (see last week's story) for his Columbia Records' debut LP.

When Victor introduced its new sound process earlier this year, Columbia prexy Goddard Lieberman created quite a stir when he denounced the system as not accurately representing artists who cut under the process.

Horowitz, for many years a Victor Red Seal artist, took the same tack in a statement he issued, through Columbia, after receiving two Grammys for his solo LP, "Vladimir Horowitz," which was named by NARAS as the best classical disk of the year and the best classical performance in the solo instrumental category.

While he didn't actually name Victor or its Dynagroove system, it's obvious that he alluded to both when he stated: ". . . Nothing is as important to an artist as the faithful reproduction of his art. As a musician has an obligation to a composer, a record company must mirror on disk the truest sound, dynamics, colorations and expression which defines an artist and which permits him to preserve for all his own musical statement. This must be done without unnecessary synthetic enhancement, which in some cases is over flattering to the performance of the artist and to the sound of the recording in general. Columbia Records has placed the values of the artist above all others. And all conscientious artists, for whom truth is a necessity, share this appreciation and gratitude."

When reached for comment on the Horowitz statement, a Victor spokesman noted that a solo performance by Arthur Rubinstein cut in Dynagroove had been hailed by a critic of the New York Times as "pure gold." The Victor exec added that all Red Seal artists have the right of approval on all recordings they make, and none who have recorded under Dynagroove have nixed the process. As of press-time, Victor had no plans to officially answer Horowitz' remarks.

Name N.Y. Distrib For Crescendo Line

NEW YORK—Olympia Distributors, this city, has just taken over the distribution for the Metropolitan New York area of Crescendo Records, the west coast diskery.

Laurie Offers Deal On New Dion LP

NEW YORK—Laurie Records, continuing to dip into its catalog of Dion dates, is running a 15 week plan on a new LP called "Dion Sings the Million Sellers," on which distribri are being offered sales incentives on quantity purchases. LP consists of Dion readings of hits originally done by Bobby Vee, Chubby Checker, Lloyd Price, Joe Harnell, Bobby Darin, The Del Vikings, among others. Label also released a single by the performer, which couples "Come Go with Me," taken from the LP, and "King without a Queen." Columbia Records is Dion's present label outlet.

Pickwick Increases European Coverage

NEW YORK—Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick International, Inc., and its European subsidiary, Pickwick International Inc. (Great Britain) Ltd., has announced distribution arrangements in Belgium, Holland and West Germany. These countries will be serviced directly from England.

In addition, the firm is engaged in an extensive program of spot commercials on Radio Luxembourg and an advertising and promotion program built around a national contest with the first prize a trip for two to the French Riviera. Pickwick's British subsid handles both pressing and distributing functions for the United Kingdom on the same budget-priced, children's and specialty record lines the parent company now sells in the United States and Canada. Pickwick opened its British subsidiary in November, 1962.

Leslie estimated that it will take another six months before Pickwick's overseas sales "start to make a substantial contribution to our total volume. However, by 1970 we believe that our sales to the 300 million consumers in the Common Market and the almost 125 million in the British Commonwealth will equal our business in the United States."

The Pickwick President noted that the growth of budget-priced albums in Europe is now at the stage that it was in the United States five years ago. "Non-music retailing outlets are first starting to move into the sales of recordings, although some of the more progressive merchants have already entrenched themselves solidly in the field."

Paperback Keyed To "First Family" Sets

NEW YORK—"The First Family" idea is milked for further laffs in a new "First Family Photo Album" just published by Fawcett (75¢). Besides material from the 4 million LP seller and vol. 2, the paperback includes photos, mostly of the Kennedy clan, with comic captions. "First Family" producers Earle Doud, Bob Booker plus George Foster prepared it.

"Losing You" Team

Smash Signs Kenny Dino

CHICAGO—Kenny Dino is now part of the "name" talent build-up of Smash Records. He's been inked to an exclusive pact by the label, according to Charlie Fach, who directs the label's activities. Dino was previously on the Musicor label, where he came through with a Top 100 item, "Your Ma Said You Cried in Your Sleep Last Night," awhile-back. Smash has set the immediate release of the artist's first singles outing, "I Wanna Know."

Doug Moody, the label's combination A&R director, promo man, negotiated and concluded the pacting, his first acquisition since his recent re-assignment as A&R director.

Colpix Stars Cut "Birdie" Album

NEW YORK—Colpix Records will release an album of the songs from "Bye Bye Birdie" featuring its top teen artists. Sharing the spotlight will be James Darren, Shelley Fabares, The Marcels and Paul Petersen. Musical director for the album is Stu Phillips, who has done the backings for all of the past singles and LP releases for these artists.

The album has the singers doing solo selections, and they are grouped on some of the tunes. The Stu Phillips orchestra and chorus also interpret some of the numbers.

Daren, Petersen and Miss Fabares currently have a best-selling disk with their "Teenage Triangle."

The LP is scheduled for release in early June.

Riverside To Bow New Brazilian Jazz Sextet

NEW YORK—A new Brazilian jazz crew—having what is described as a middle-line sound—will make its debut on the Riverside label this fall. Group is a sextet called Joao & His Brasileros, which has been making appearances in one of Brazil's plush jazz niteries, The Bottle, located in Rio de Janeiro. On Sept. 1, the label will issue an LP by the crew "Play It Cool in Rio," produced & arranged by Freddy Marshall, who has just returned from a business trek to Brazil. Deal for the LP was finalized by Alan Bates, Riverside's foreign rep. Plans call for an international push on the set.

UA Adds Isley Bros.

NEW YORK—The Isley Bros., no strangers to the Top 100, have joined the talent stable of United Artists Records. The trio—Ronald, Rudolph & O'Kelly—had a smash disking with "Shout" on the Victor label some years ago, and more recently made-the-grade with "Twist & Shout" on Atlantic. Crew's UA debut is due shortly, and the producer will be Bert Burns, who gave the label a smash effect with "Tell Him" by The Exciters.

Jeff Clark To Dot Distrib In L.A.

NEW YORK—Jeff Clark, vet music promo man, has been appointed to top publicity & promo dept. of Dot Records Distributors of Los Angeles in the Southern Calif. area, according to Dorothy Freeman, owner. Clark was previously associated with Decca Records and operated his own ad agency.

April Was Ava's Top Sales Month

HOLLYWOOD—April was the biggest sales month in the 1½ year history of Ava Records, the label reported last week. Although no sales figures were announced, the diskery said that April brought the firm its biggest singles & LP successes to date, Pete Jolly's "Little Bird," and the soundtrack LP of "To Kill A Mockingbird." Other album product cited as doing a major sales job for the firm are "Little Bird," featuring the Jolly crew and "David & Lisa—Jazz Impressions of David & Lisa."

Atlantic's New Folk Team: The New World Singers

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records has signed an exclusive recording contract with the folk singing group, The New World Singers, it was announced last week by prexy Ahmet Ertegun. The New World Singers, who consist of Gil Turner, Happy Traum, and Bob Cohen, will record both singles and albums for Atlantic. Their first single, "Don't Think Twice, It's Alright" and "Stew Ball" was released last week.

In commenting on the inking of the group, Ertegun stated that he "has never felt more certain that a new group of performers would achieve success. The complete naturalness of their singing style and the enormous heart present in all of their music is tremendously appealing."

Many bookings for The New World Singers are coming in. The group already has dates lined up well into the fall. From June 14th until September 2nd, the group will appear at the Silver Jack near Grand Rapids, Michigan. Prior to this engagement, they will appear at concerts in a number of cities and will perform at the Potpourri in Montreal for one week at the end of May.

"Don't Think Twice, It's Alright" was written for the group by folkster Bob Dylan, pacted to Columbia. Dylan is one of the groups biggest boosters.

KC Buys Master

NEW YORK—KC Records has purchased a hot master out of New York. Side is "Brenda" by The Cupids, originally released on the Aanko label, owned by Jeromos and Joe Colombo of Long Island, N.Y. Sam Weiss, of Superior Record Sales, KC's N.Y. distrib, said last week he has sold 10,000 copies. Other areas doing "heavy" business on the deck, an announcement said, were Miami, Newark, Hartford, Albany, Milwaukee, Philadelphia and Los Angeles.

Epic Rushes Master Purchase

NEW YORK—Epic Records is rushing the release of "Moon Race" by the Citations, a master purchase, according to an announcement from Len Levy, General Manager.

The record was recorded and released in Milwaukee by the young instrumental group 5 weeks ago. It was brought to the attention of Epic Records' execs by Rolf Vogelin of Tell Music, Epic's distrib in the Milwaukee area. Negotiations for purchase of the master were quickly consummated.

Irving Marcus Dies; Managed Smothers Brothers

HOLLYWOOD—Irving Marcus, 55, manager of The Smothers Brothers, died of a heart attack on Sat., May 18, in Hollywood. He had previously been associated with Mercury Records, and the Duke & Peacock labels. He is survived by his widow, Sheryl, and a sister.

"Kangaroo" Promo

NEW YORK—Australian entertainer Rolf Harris clowns with his stuffed friend as he starts a two-week visit to publicize his recently-released Epic click, "Tie Me Kangaroo Down, Sport." Harris sings and plays his own instrument, the wobbleboard.

Col Issues "Woolf" Caster

Columbia Records has released its complete recording of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?," Edward Albee's prize-winning drama. The original Broadway cast recording was produced by Goddard Lieberson, president of Columbia Records, and contains a special 16-page brochure with articles by Albee, Harold Clurman, critic Walter Kerr and Lieberson.

The four-LP set will retail at the suggested list prices as follows: $15.00, mono; $17.00 stereo.

"It is my belief," Lieberson stated in announcing the special reduced price of the four-record package, "that the recording of a drama should cost no more than two of the best seats at an actual performance in the theatre."

"Woolf?" opened October 13, 1962 at the Billy Rose Theatre and became the most controversial play of the season. Starring Uta Hagen, Arthur Hill, George Grizzard and Melinda Dillon, all of whom appear in Columbia's recording.

This recording marks the beginning of a new series of plays that will be recorded in their entirety by Columbia. The Actor's Studio Theatre production of Eugene O'Neill's "Strange Interlude" has already been recorded and will be released at a later date. Under an agreement with José Quintero's Quinto Productions and representatives of the O'Neill estate, Columbia has obtained rights to record the complete works of O'Neill. The productions will be directed by Quintero and produced on records by Lieberson, with all-star casts featuring noted American actors.

Columbia has also recorded Bernard Shaw's "Don Juan in Hell," featuring the First Drama Quartet, "Waiting for Godot," with the Original Broadway Cast, and "The Importance of Being Oscar," with Michael MacLiammoir. In addition, Columbia has released "Dramatic Readings from Eugene O'Neill," with Jason Robards Jr., John Gielgud in "Ages of Man" and Hal Holbrook in "Mark Twain Tonight."

Liberty Names Roker Nat'l R&B Rep

HOLLYWOOD — Don Bohanan, national sales manager of Liberty Records and Bob Skaff, the firm's national promotion director, jointly announced the addition of a national R & B promo-sales representative to their staff. Appointment was made to Renny Roker, who will headquarter at the label's east coast offices.

Roker, a native New Yorker, attended Inter-American University in Puerto Rico where he majored in radio-tv courses and later became a deejay on the island. When he returned to Manhattan, Nat Cole named Roker national promotion director of K-C Records where he remained for a year and a half. Following his tenure at K-C, Roker took on freelance assignments which included promo for The Exciters, Cadillacs, Theola Kilkore and Wilson Pickett (Double L).

Faith On 10-City Tour

HOLLYWOOD — Arranger-conductor Percy Faith will visit ten cities to promote his new Columbia LP "Themes For Young Lovers." The tour begins May 30 and ends June 11.

The new album is Faith's first devoted exclusively to repertoire culled from the popular singles charts. Faith and his A&R producer Ed Kleban selected the most melodic of the current hit tunes to prove that "good music is available in the singles field" which could be adapted for Faith's large string accentuated orchestra.

The itinerary calls for Faith to leave Los Angeles May 30 and arrive in San Francisco that night. On June 3 he visits Chicago; 4, St. Louis; 5, Detroit; 6, Cleveland; 7, Baltimore; 10, Philadelphia; 11, Boston; 12, New York.

While in these major markets, Faith will visit with the local Columbia distributors who are planning a full day of visits to radio and television stations for the artist.

A key point of Faith's visits to disk jockeys will be to explain how he transcribed the hit singles material into a form which could please both the teenage audience and his normal adult following.

The album marks the first time that Faith's orchestra has been heard performing material which was originally aimed at the teen market.

Joanie Sommers & Hubby Form Pubbery

HOLLYWOOD — A pubbery outfit, J&S Music, has been formed in Hollywood by songstress Joanie Sommers and her husband-manager Jerry Steiner. Pair will act as co-presidents of the BMI firm. Tommy Oliver, the lark's music arranger-conductor, has been named veep, and Bob Stillwell has been tagged treasurer and west coast rep.

Mrs. Bourne Goes Abroad

NEW YORK—Mrs. Bonnie Bourne of Bourne Music left last week for a look at her continental and British interests.

Motown Artists Get Special Int'l Push From Revue, Film

DETROIT—Motown Record, this city, is now engaged in a concentrated program to gain exposure and promotion in the U.S. and overseas, via live stage shows and TV film, for artists on the firm's Motown, Tamla and Gordy labels, according to Berry Gordy, Jr., president of the recording company.

Motown, one of the most successful indie operations, joined forces a few months ago with International Talent Management, Inc., the Detroit talent agency, to package the Motor Town Revue, a live stage presentation starring several Motown disc personalities, and complete with MC and orchestra. The Revue has been touring the Midwest and East since April 19, playing one-nighters and longer engagements. It arrives at the Apollo Theatre in New York May 31 for a one-week stand, following one-night performances at Playland Roller Park in York, Pa., and the State Theatre in Elizabeth, N. J., and then heads for a swing through the South.

Gordy and ITMI, which represents many of the Revue's performers, have come up with a double-barreled exposure and promotion gimmick for both the show as a package and the artists as individual acts. They've signed Charles Dorkins, producer of TV documentaries, including NBC-TV's "White Paper," to produce a motion picture of the Revue during its engagement at the Apollo Theatre in New York. The film will serve a two-fold purpose. In the U.S., it will be used as a promotion device for the show itself, with screenings being held for theatre owners prior to booking play dates. At the same time, plans call for showing the film to agents, bookers, promoters, club and theatre owners, etc., as a means of parading the talent as single-act booking potential. Overseas, the movie will be used for distribution to TV stations, thus getting wide exposure and publicity for Motown artists who are popular in foreign record markets. Meanwhile, ITMI is mailing a promotion brochure for the Revue to theatre owners, promoters and bookers, and Motown's public relations agency is handling publicity and promotion for the show. Revue features Marv Wells, Marvin Gave, Martha & The Vandellas, The Marvellettes, The Miracles, The Contours, The Supremes, and others.

Al Porgie Dies

NEW YORK — Al Porgie, head of Porgie Music (BMI), died on Sat., May 18, in Yonkers Professional Hospital at the age of 56. Porgie formed his pubbery outfit in 1940 and published such successes as "When the Lights Go On Again" and "Twilight Time." His widow, daughter, two grandchildren and a brother survive.

Maharis Back In Disk Studio, Epic Issues Single

NEW YORK — For the first time since his second hepatitis attack last Nov., George Maharis has resumed his recording activities. Epic Records has announced the release of "Where Can You Go (For A Broken Heart)," which Maharis recorded in Epic's New York studios two weeks ago.

In conjunction with the release of his single, Maharis made several personal appearances in the New York area. On May 18, he appeared at May's Department Store in Brooklyn and on May 25 at Alexander's in Queens. While at Alexander's, Maharis autographed copies of his new single and his albums, attracting nearly 1,000 admirers in two hours within the confines of the record department.

As announced earlier, Maharis will make his first public singing appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show June 16.

Columbia Rushes 1st Sweet Chariot LP's

NEW YORK—Columbia Records has quickly put to use its exclusive "live" dishing pact with New York's hot "Sweet Chariot" gospel nitery by rush-releasing two LP's, "Introducing The Sweet Chariot" and "Shout-in, Wailin', Hard Driving' Pop Gospel."

The "Chariot" package features The Golden Chords, The Sweet Chariot Singers and The Nathaniel Lewis Singers, while the "Wailin'" set showcases a solo LP for The Sweet Chariot Singers.

Tom Wilson, who just joined the label in its pop A&R dept., directed the dishing sessions at the nitery.

Label said it has received "large advance orders" for the new LP's.

Deal for recording rights at the nitery were concluded for Columbia several weeks ago by Joe Scandore, owner of the club, and Dave Kapralik, director of pop A&R.

Epic Bows Sweet Chariot LP

NEW YORK—Epic Records has gotten in the acts appearing at the Sweet Chariot, the very successful gospel nitery, with the release of an LP cut "live" at the club, "Everybody's Shoutin' Gospel," which features The Herman Stevens Singers. Columbia Records, the parent company, has exclusive recording rights at the nitery. The Herman Stevens Singers have been working together for 10 years.

Sahl To Capitol

HOLLYWOOD—Mort Sahl, the satirist who helped spark the comeback of comedy disks some years ago, has been inked to an exclusive disk pact by Capitol Records. Details of the comic's initial Capitol disk plans are still to be worked out, and his A&R man is yet to be named. Sahl succeeded with a number of Verve LP's beginning in 1958.

EDDY HOWARD DIES

PALM DESERT, CALIF.—Eddy Howard, the singer-bandleader-clefber whose 1946 Mercury dishing of "To Each His Own" sold more than 2 million copies, was found dead, apparently of natural causes, at his home in Palm Desert last week (23). He was 48 years old.

Howard, who recently returned to the recording world in a semi-retirement status, again with Mercury, had another more-than-million-seller for Mercury, "Sin."

Among those personally touched by his death was Mercury sales veep Kenny Myers, who was a trumpeter and vocalist with the Howard band from 1941-48. Myers later did publicity for Howard.

Howard was a native of Woodland, Calif., and first succeeded as a maestro via college dates in the San Francisco Bay area. During the 30's, he was a featured vocalist with the popular Dick Jurgens ork.

Howard was also the writer of a number of songs, including "My Last Dance," "Careless" and "If I Knew Then."

Surviving Howard are his widow, a son and daughter.

Ocean No Barrier To Rush On "She Loves Me" Album From London

NEW YORK—Countless cables and telephone calls between London and New York played a part in the speedy recording and release of English maestro Frank Chacksfield's LP reading of the score of "She Loves Me," the new B'way hit, for London Records.

The across-the-sea effort took place between May 9, when London A&R men Frank Lee and Tony D'Amato in London received the music from Joe Blott in New York, and May 20, when finished records were in the hands of the New York office of the label. Besides the LP, a single from the sessions is due soon. Chacksfield has been one of the label's leading mood-music lights for a number of years.

'62-'63 B'way Season A $5½ Mil Loss To Investors

NEW YORK—Broadway angels fell flat on their feet in the concluding Broadway season, with estimates of at least a $5.5 million loss to those who invested in Broadway shows. Loss is seen as the biggest yet in a single season.

Prime financial losses, of course, came from bomb musicals, the most expensive type of B'way productions to mount. Three no-longer-running musicals lead the list of those productions which suffered total losses, and disk company investments were made in all of them. And none of them will recoup some money in their cast LP's for the casts of each never got to the recording studio.

"Hot Spot," the Judy Holiday musical that closed last Sat., lost $480,000, most of it coming from Warner Bros. Records; "Nowhere To Go But Up" was also a $480,000 casualty, and Columbia Records lost out on that; Capitol Records is the third victim with "Sophie," the Steve Allen musical that dropped its entire investment of $390,000.

"The Beast in Me," which closed after four performances, was a $150,000 loss, and Columbia Records had planned to cut the cast LP.

Blame for this financial disaster was put mostly on bad shows and new, strict tax laws regarding expense accounts, of which Broadway shows take-up lots of deductions.

England supplied the three profit-making musical shows that made the Broadway scene during the season. They are: "Stop the World . . ." (London), which at a modest cost of $30,000 has already made a profit of $340,000; "Oliver!" (Victor), a $150,000 production that has netted $210,000; and "Beyond the Fringe" (Capitol), a revue that cost $62,651 and has realized a profit so far of $198,000.

This season's new musicals still running on the main-stem are still trying to get out of the red. "Mr. President" has $30,000 to go to break-even on its $550,000 investment; "Little Me" has recovered $300,000 of its $450,000 cost; and "Tovarich" has a long way to go to get in the black: cost was $397,000 and it has earned $35,000 so far. "She Loves Me," which just opened to critical acclaim, cost $320,000, and no returns are available as yet.

Among the legit show money-makers is "Who's Afraid Of Virginia Woolf?," the Edward Albee play that was produced for $49,000, and has made a profit of $210,000. Columbia Records just released the original-cast LP.

Ballen Label Sets New "Medium-Price" LP Line

PHILADELPHIA—A new line of "medium-price" LP's featuring well-known artists in the folk, sacred and novelty field is being prepared by Ivin Ballen's Gotham Record Corp. To be pressed by Diskmakers, the series will bow in Aug. with 10 LP's and will appear on Ballen's 20th Century label, which Ballen formed in 1946. Dates will consist of tapes acquired from other companies plus product from Ballen's own vaults. After the initial release, three LP's a month will hit the market.

SORD Sets June Meet In Miami

NEW YORK—SORD, the dealer organization, will join two other major industry associations, ARMADA (distributors) and ROSA (one-stops), which are holding conventions in Miami Beach during the latter part of June. Dates reported for the SORD gathering are June 23-25.

Porgie Music Not Up For Sale

NEW YORK—The late Al Porgie's pubbery, Porgie Music, is not for sale, and will be run by his widow, Rose, Cash Box has been informed. Following the death of Porgie on Sat., May 18 (see separate story), there were rumors that the firm had been put up for sale.

1st Qtr. Phono Sales Above '62 Period

WASHINGTON—The sales pace of mono & stereo phonos during the first quarter of '63 were well ahead of last year's, says a report from the Electronic Industries Association.

At distrib outlets, sales of stereos rose from 256,548 in Feb. to 267,230 in March, bringing the total for the first three months of this year to 759,257 sets. Last year March sales totaled 236,051 and the first quarter ended with 596,213 stereos sold.

March distrib sales of mono phonos totaled 78,922, compared to 73,424 the month before and 63,206 in March 1962. Cumulative sales of monos totaled 233,392, against a first quarter total of 162,192 last year.

Factory sales of stereo models declined in March from the February total of 262,304 to 236,842, and were just below the 237,492 sold in March of last year. Cumulative sales totaled 757,204 compared with last year's total of 631,352.

March mono sales at the factory rose to 92,871 from the 77,971 sold during the previous month and 60,991 during March of last year. This year's first-quarter sales totaled 254,480. During the same period of 1962, 182,102 monos were sold.

On the radio end, a gain in monthly sales was reported—from 616,036 sets in Feb. to 818,510 in Mar.—but in Mar. of last year 917,236 receivers were sold by distributors, and for the three month period the sales totaled 2,177,998. This year's sales through Mar. stood at 1,887,894.

Radio output reached 1,568,381 receivers in Mar., bettering the Feb. level of 1,389,652, but falling short of the 1,810,417 produced in Mar. of 1962. This year's first quarter production total was 4,187,540 sets; last year the figure was 4,625,944.

It was also reported that FM-stereo reception capability was contained in just under 50% of all radio-TV combinations and radio-phonos produced during the first quarter of '63.

During the first quarter 1963, production of radio-TV and radio-phono combinations totaled 411,252, of which 205,217 had FM-stereo capability. A total of 24,465 radio-TV combination out of the 62,816 produced could receive FM-stereo broadcasts. Of 348,436 radio-phonos produced, 180,752 were equipped to receive the signals.

As previously reported by the department, nearly 46 percent (767,539) of the 1,677,385 combinations produced during the entire year of 1962 were capable of receiving FM-stereo transmissions.

UN Fund Gets $800,000 From "Festival" LP Sales In Denmark, Norway & Sweden

NEW YORK—Campaigns on the United Nation's "All Star Festival" LP have ended in Denmark, Norway and Sweden, and the UN's world refugee fund is more than $800,000 better qualified to perform its humanitarian functions.

Checks, representing proceeds from sales of the LP, were presented by reps of the three nations last week (22) to Felix Schnyder, the UN's High Commissioner for Refugees, at UN headquarters in New York.

It was pointed out that in Sweden, sales of the "Festival" LP broke, within 24 hours, all previous records for an LP album: 122,000 were sold in one day, whereas the previous mark had been 30,000. In Norway and Denmark, sales reached 35,000 and 25,000 respectively, within the first week of sale. Figures take-on particular significance in view of the populations of each of the three countries (Denmark: 4,617,000; Norway: 3,655,000; Sweden: 7,562,000), which have a notable history of refugee aid.

In accepting the checks, Schnyder said that the success of the LP venture would not have been possible without the "original contribution of the artists and the (record) companies to which they are linked in contractual obligations, without the sacrifice of the copyright-holders and musicians who waived their rights for the benefit of the refugees, and without the whole-hearted co-operation of the entire (record) industry."

Schnyder also noted that record dealers in all three countries sold the LP without receiving a "single penny" to cover their overheads or their handling costs. The Governments also made their contributions, he added. The Government of Norway was the first in the world to announce that it would refund the tax paid on the records. The Government of Sweden promised to contribute five Swedish crowns, nearly $1. for every record sold, thereby refunding slightly more than the import duties and the taxes paid on each record. The Government of Denmark agreed to waive the purchase tax on the record.

The LP was pressed in Norway, and the director general of the firm concerned not only agreed to provide the record at cost price, but also to review his costs after the operation and to make a gift to the "All Star Festival" fund if the actual costs proved to be lower than the original estimate.

The "Festival" LP, featuring 13 international stars, was released last Feb. 26 for world-wide sale, and became an immediate hit. While the campaign in the Scandinavian countries is over, those in other countries are still going on or have not even begun.

"Puff" Sequel Intros Capitol's House-Wives Trio

HOLLYWOOD—An answer deck to "Puff (The Magic Dragon)" debuts a house-wives trio on Capitol Records. Team is called The Cherryhill Trio, from San Fernando Valley, who sing "Fluff (The Velvet Dragon)," which says that Puff finds romance with a girl dragon named Fluff. Gals have been singing the tune for neighborhood children.

N.A.B. Will Survey And Accredit Rating Services

NEW YORK—The National Association of Broadcasters announced last week that it was preparing a system under which the audience counts used by radio and TV stations and programs would be supplied by companies that had been tested and accredited by the association.

LeRoy Collins, N.A.B. prexy, outlined the concept to a House Commerce subcommittee. Subcommittee members indicated they approved of the idea, which involves organization of a rating-audit service to set standards and to accredit audience-counting companies that meet them.

Collins, who noted that he hoped to have the system moving within 60 days, was asked to give the subcommittee regular progress reports. Under the proposed system, the first step would be the naming of a rating council with both radio and TV representation. The council will consider standards for rating companies and appoint a rating-audit service with a staff to administer the system.

CRDC Names To Merchandising Dept.

HOLLYWOOD—Robert F. O'Neil has been appointed assistant merchandising manager for Capitol Records Distributing Corp., it has been announced by Paul E. Russell, CRDC's merchandising topper. He succeeds Gene Moss, who resigned to join an ad agency. O'Neil joins CRDC after stints with Weinberg Advertising of Los Angeles & D'Arcy Advertising of St. Louis.

Erick Friedman Cutting In London For Victor

NEW YORK—Violinist Erick Friedman has arrived in London for an RCA Victor recording session with the London Symphony Orchestra conducted by Sir Malcolm Sargent.

During the 5-day period, Friedman and the orchestra will record works by Chausson, Saint-Saens, Sarasate and Wieniawski for an LP album scheduled for release later this year.

This will be the third album for Victor by the 23-year-old artist. First was a collaboration with his teacher, Jascha Heifetz, in the Bach Double Concerto, and second included performances of the Paganini Concerto No. 1 and the Saint-Saens Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso.

Further Defense Of Columbia Club In L.A.

prior to its inception, and that some of them adopted a wait-and-see attitude. In continuing, Conkling remarked that early reports on the effect of the club at dealer level reflected an upward trend in sales in the shops. The exec also stated that the dealers were strongly advised to go along with the club idea to stem the threat posed by the Book of the Month Club's proposed record club ventures which had attempted to lure Columbia artists away from the label. When Conkling left Columbia to become president of Warner Brothers Records, he continued in his belief in the club's beneficial aspects to all parties concerned—label, artists, dealers, etc.

Mercury Signs Chad Mitchell Trio

NEW YORK—The Chad Mitchell Trio, the strong folk attraction, has moved over to the folk dept. of Mercury Records, according to label topper Irving Green. Group comes from Kapp Records, where they had such singles successes as "Lizzie Borden" and "The John Birch Society." Green said that Milt Okun, the crew's musical director, will have full charge of group's disk sessions. An LP is due for release sometime in the fall.

The trio has just completed its first season of concerts, including an appearance at New York's Town Hall and Orchestra Hall in Chicago, and has made a 15-week tour of Latin America for the State Department. Future plans for the group include a fall and spring tour in major halls throughout the U.S., including Carnegie Hall in New York, as well as a European tour.

Mercury's ever-growing folk roster also includes Josh White, The Smothers Brothers, Inman & Ira, The Knob Lick Upper 10,000, Anita Carter, The Courriers, Ernie Sheldon, Joyce James and Stu Ramsey.

Liberty Hopes All Win This Contest

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records expects to happily hand-out lots of all-expense paid week-end trips to Hollywood, thanks to its "Follow the Sales Leader" LP program now in effect.

According to Don Bohanan, national sales manager, four of the firm's distribs have already surpassed their sales quotas, and if everyone makes their sales goal, the label will be host to more than 150 reps in July.

Contest was conceived by Bohanan as a sales stimulus, with all Liberty distrib and their sales-oromo people eligible. Everyone who makes their six months sales quota makes the trek, which will include a preview of the label's fall program. Other prizes are being awarded at regular intervals.

Early winners are: Davis Sales, Denver; Polynesian Distributors, Hawaii; C&C, Seattle, and Big State Dist., Dallas.

Columbia Inks Jordanaires

NEW YORK—Columbia Records has inked The Jordanaires, the vet vocal team, to an exclusive pact. Crew's diskings will be produced in Nashville by Don Law, the label's exec A&R producer.

The Jordanaires, Gordon Stoker, Hoyt Hawkins, Neal Matthews and Ray Walker, were organized in 1948. Originally, the quartet sang spirituals and barbershop songs. They went on to win on Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts in 1956, which was the same year in which they introduced a new type of vocalizing, by providing a background of vocal harmonizing for leading singers. They have been heard on more than 20 million records and albums each year and have been associated with Elvis Presley's career since its inception. They have also provided background for such artists as Jim Reeves, Marty Robbins, Patti Page, Ricky Nelson and "Tennessee" Ernie Ford.

FCC To End AM Freeze, Sets Long-Range AM-FM Split, Votes To Back Fed AM Time Limits

NEW YORK—The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) endorsed several major proposals regarding the broadcasting industry last week.

In one move, the Federal agency announced its intention to end its freeze—in effect for over a year—on the issuance of new AM outlets, seeing that they are put in operation in areas "lacking" adequate service. It also declared a "long-range" proposal to split ownership of AM & FM outlets, so as to insure greater programming diversity. The agency plans to prohibit same-programming practices by a single AM-FM outlet to 50%.

The FCC also voted to back Government commercial time limits on a par with the broadcasting industry's own voluntary code as set forth by the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB).

Move, accomplished by a 4 to 3 vote by the seven Commissioners, was led by Chairman Newton Minow, who leaves the post June 1 to join the Encyclopedia Britannica.

The FCC has not looked kindly on the fact that more than three-fifths of the country's 4,943 radio outlets don't subscribe to the code, with the same going for 1/3 of the nation's 580 commercial TV stations.

Under the NAB code, radio stations are limited to 18 minutes of commercials in any one hour and a maximum of 14 minutes an hour averaged over a week. TV-wise, commercials can constitute four minutes within a half-hour during prime evening viewing hours, plus 70 seconds of local commercials fitted into network station breaks. At other time slots, the code ceiling is six minutes each half hour, plus a maximum station break of two minutes and 10 seconds.

FCC commercial time control is angrily opposed by broadcasters who fear a tide of further Federal control over broadcasting.

Comments on the proposed rules can be made to the FCC by July 1.

Everest Inks Ruth Olay

HOLLYWOOD—Murray Cohen, vice president and general manager of Everest Records, has announced the signing of singer Ruth Olay to an exclusive long term contract.

Negotiations were completed between Cohen and Lee Magid, personal manager for the artist. First album by the artist was cut by Cohen in Mexico City with a 40 piece orchestra, and is scheduled for July release. Cohen also announced the signing of Danny Lewis, Jerry Lewis' father, who has recorded an album of pop songs backed by Dick Stabile and his orchestra.

So. African Music Man In U.S.

NEW YORK—Charles Segal, pianist and pubbery exec from South Africa, is spending a few months in America to secure masters for South Africa, and to sell masters for release in the U. S. He said he has already secured masters and has had two of his own compositions, "Smarty" and "Go Go Eskimo" cut by Johnny Restivo, who has been signed for a tour of SA in the near future. Segal can be contacted through Southern Music, this city.

Premier's '62 Sales Best Yet

NEW YORK—Annual sales and earnings of Premier Albums, Inc. were the highest in the company's history, for the fiscal year ended last Jan. 31, it was reported by Philip Landwehr, president.

Sales rose 67% to a record $4,207,268 from $2,513,181 for the previous fiscal year. Net income after taxes advanced 76% to a record $322,239, equivalent to earnings of $1.24 a share based on 260,000 shares outstanding, from $183,312, equivalent to earnings of $.71 a share on the same number of shares outstanding.

According to Landwehr, it marked the fourth consecutive year in which the company, producers of low-priced records, achieved increased sales and earnings. The period also marked the company's entry into music publishing and master record production.

Reprise Pacts Greeley

HOLLYWOOD—George Greeley, a standout pop keyboard attraction on the Warner Bros. label for the past five years, has moved over to Reprise Records, Frank Sinatra, Reprise prey, announced last week.

The label wasted little time getting out initial Greeley product, a singles reading of two themes from the epic flick, "Cleopatra." Deck couples "Anthony & Cleopatra" and "Caesar & Cleopatra."

Greeley's first LP for the diskery, called "Piano Rhapsodies of Love," will be released later this month. Romantic, big-sounding sessions were also the hallmark of the artist's many singles-LP dates for WB.

The deal, made with Greeley's Editone Publishing Co., calls for the artist to perform as well as produce, conduct and arrange for other artists on the label's roster.

Outside of disk activities, Greeley is musical director for the new TV series, "My Favorite Martian," which hits the airwaves on the CBS network next fall in a Sunday time-slot.

Label, Pubbery Moves To East Coast

NEW YORK—Spotlite Records and a pubbery affiliate, Pennant Music, has made a cross-country change of address from Burlingame, Calif. to Fort Lee, N.J. Firm's Sidney F. Moberg now heads an office at 2 Horizon Road, Palisade Section, in Ft. Lee.

Blaine's Depot Concept

That goes for everyone in the record industry (one-stops, rack jobbers, discount houses, chain stores, retail stores, cut out products, etc.).

Your initial investment to be in the record distributing business will be to pick up your inventory from your present distributors.

You, and you alone can insure stabilized prices and product throughout the United States and therefore protect your own business.

After sincerely and carefully surveying our industry for many, many months, and unhappily watching it deteriorate, we contend that this procedure is the only sound means of survival for a vibrant, growing industry.

If you are interested, we are available to meet and discuss our proposal at your convenience, any place, any time, anywhere.

The letter went to such companies at 20th Cent-Fox, Mercury, Liberty, London, MGM, United Artists, Roulette, Atlantic, Kapp, Dot, ABC-Paramount.

not only on the independent level but also by the majors whose distribution is even broader.

The most frequently referred to locale for such a depot is Columbus, Ohio from which a distributor will ship to Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Indianapolis, covering four importing markets.

But this is the depot concept from the manufacturer's standpoint. However, some key distributors who see the handwriting on the wall are not waiting for the manufacturer to introduce the move but rather are going to their manufacturers and requesting that they be given the line for another adjoining city, thereby cutting down somewhat on transshipping. In such cases, the distributor is installing his own resident men in the smaller, nearby location.

There has also been a great deal of talk about manufacturers buying up rack jobbers and major label distributors going into the one-stop business.

The possibilities are infinite. What will emerge from all this cannot be determined at present. As a matter of fact, there may be a number of different types of distribution develop at the same time.

In a city where a rack jobber is the most important purchaser of product, his operation may distribute most of the labels. In another city where there are a few well capitalized distributors, many see a merger making some sort of a super distributor. Where a one-stop is the key servicer of merchandise, he may become the distributor for the most important labels in his area.

What the legal ramifications are of such changes cannot be determined until suit is brought by one factor in our business against another.

But, the industry is at the point now where decisions have to be made. And many are making them. No one knows yet which is correct. Many routes may be proper. But people are putting their best foot forward and following their instincts.

The next year could see the survival of the fittest in the record industry.

Selecta Gets Ember In Eng.

LONDON—Jeff Kruger has announced that his Ember label, one of the most successful indie operations in England, is now being distributed in Great Britain through all four branches of Selecta, which also handles the English Decca line. Move is seen as a major step in the development of the three-year-old label. Negotiations were concluded between Kruger and A. W. Green, general manager of Selecta. Ember has a catalog of over 150 LP's, EP's and singles.

Roger King Mozian Dead

NEW YORK—Roger King Mozian, the bandleader, died at a hospital in Coral Gables, Fla. on Thurs., May 16 of a lung disease at the age of 37. Mozian cut many LP's for the Decca label, and more recently did "sound dates for MGM. He was also a writer and worked on dance arrangements including scoring for the popular dance team of Augie & March. His wife and two daughters survive.

The recent Country Music Festival held at Denver's Four Seasons night club was a sensational success. The event celebrated the first annual get-together of the promotion of country music. Approximately three hundred attended the dinner-dance and more than half of them were directly connected with the industry. The deejay that traveled the furthest distance to attend was Bob Lunningham of KRZE-Farmington, New Mexico. Bob was presented with an engraved plaque honoring his work in country music. Richie Johnson supplied the talent which included Earl Scott, Warren Robbe and Carlton Rose. Randy King and his Country Rhythm Boys were also on the program.

Jon Matthews, program director of KPUB-Pueblo, Colorado, sends along word that he is leaving the outlet to handle the full-time managership of Bill Goodwin. The chanter, who is currently clicking with "Shoes Of A Fool" on Vee Jay, is presently touring the Lone Star State. Anyone wishing to contact Goodwin should write to Jon at 202 Marsellas St., Apt. 103, Dallas, Texas.

With "The Arthur Smith Show" now firmly entrenched in fourteen southeastern television markets, Arthur is continuing a personal appearance tour taking the Crackerjacks into every area covered by this network venture. On Saturday night, May 11, a new attendance record was set in Knoxville, Tennessee, where the auditorium was filled and more than 600 people turned away at Whittle Springs Auditorium.

Mickey Gross, Rex Allen's manager, infos word that his boy has inked contracts for appearances at a city-wide Fourth of July celebration in Neligh, Nebraska and for a country and western show for KRSD-TV-Rapid City, South Dakota, July 19-20.

Any spinners needing copies of Ed Norris' "I Held Heaven In My Hands" and "I Saw You Through The Door" by Johnny Meeks, both on the Kip label, may get them pronto by writing to Tom-Cat Publishing Co., 726-16th Ave. So., Nashville, Tenn.

Clyde Beavers is keeping real busy these days playing a string of key dates. On June 1st the chanter will play the Armory in Washington, D. C. along with Hank Snow and the Rainbow Ranch Boys, Mac Wiseman, Don Gibson, Leroy Van Dyke, Wilma Lee and Stoney Cooper and Judy Thomas.

Johnnie Lee Wills and his band recently played to more than 44,000 people in six days at the Tulsa Stampede in Tulsa Oklahoma. Johnnie has played the Tulsa show for the past twenty-five consecutive years.

Bob Lunningham, program director of KRZE-Farmington, New Mexico, sends along word of an interesting station promotion. Since Farmington didn't have a bus system and needed one badly, the outlet bought a bus and started it on a regular schedule. KRZE gave listeners free rides downtown in the morning and took them home in the afternoon. The tickets were absolutely free and listeners could pick them up from any of the station's sponsors.

Roy Lee Matthews sends along word that he is once again with WOOW-Greenville, North Carolina.

Roy is pushing country sounds eighteen hours each week and would like everyone in the trade to know of his affiliation.

Sonny Sheather, singer-guitarist out of Dallas way, has combined forces with the Sundowners, a combo from Paris, Texas on the Beaver release of "Mississippi Ride" b/w "Your Jealous Ways." Both tunes were penned by Sheather, who is a familiar figure around the Dallas-Ft. Worth area where he has appeared on the Big "D" Jamboree and other shows.

Smiley Wilson, director of talent of the Wil-Helm Agency, sez Hank Locklin just returned from a very successful tour of England. Smiley also notes that the chanter has been set for a tour thru Kansas and Nebraska June 12-16.

Slick Norris writes in word that he has deejays copies available of Johnny and Jonie's "Don't Call Back From A Honky Tonk," "Talk Back Trembling Lip" by Ernest Ashworth and Webb Pierce's "Nobody's Darlin' But Mine." Interested jocks should write to Slick at P.O. Box 653, Highlands, Texas.

Prepping For The Road

CINCINNATI — The bluegrass-folk team of Don Reno and Red Smiley and the Clinch Mountain Boys have just finished cutting a new album in King Records' studios. Don and Red have also just completed a college concert tour, playing concerts and one-nighters in the mid-west and south. Traveling in a specially built sleeper-bus, the group is able to make their jumps easier and have just completed a series of 51 one-nighters without a break. Reading (left to right) in the above pic are Carlton Haney, manager of the group, Don Reno, Red Smiley and Ray Starr, King county A&R director.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"AS CLOSE AS WE'LL EVER BE" (2:32)

[Central Songs BMI—Howard]

"WHO'S NEXT" (2:06) [Moss Rose BMI—Penick]

FERLIN HUSKY (Capitol 4977)

Ferlin Husky, who is currently clicking with "You Hurt Me," comes up with a potent follow-up stanza with this ultra-commercial Capitol item tagged "As Close As We'll Ever Be." The tune is a slow-moving, shuffle-beat, chorus-backed feelingful country tear-jerker rendered by Husky with all of his expected poise and artistry. The flip, "Who's Next," is a rousing uptempo novelty-styled item with an infectious pop-flavored beat. Also merits a close look.

"A HEARTACHE FOR A KEEPSAKE" [Tree BMI—Miller]

"I GAVE MY WEDDING DRESS AWAY"

KITTY WELLS (Decca 31501)

The vet country lark, who hit last time out with "Cold And Lonely," should easily duplicate that success with this top-flight newie labeled "A Heartache For A Keepsake." The side is a sentimental, slow-moving, melodic weeper essayed in a feelingful style by Kitty. The songstress offers, "I Gave My Wedding Dress Away," a tender traditional tear-jerker on the flip.

"SORRY ABOUT THAT WORLD "LITTLE MISS LONESOME"

(2:15) [Tree BMI—Tubb]

JUSTIN TUBB (Groove 0019)

Justin Tubb kicks off his Groove career in fine fashion with this top-drawer double-header entry. One side here, "Sorry About That World Out There," is a slow-moving, chorus-backed, shuffle-beat tale of remorse and heartbreak. The other lid, "Little Miss Lonesome," is a rhythmic easy-goin' self-penned blueser with some expressive soulful lyrics. Both sides here have an equal chance of success.

"GO TO THE MOUNTAINS" (2:45)

[Sawtell & Herring ASCAP—Herring, Sawtell]

"RISIN' HIGH" (2:01)

[Johnny Burnett & Doral BMI— J. & D. Burnette, Osborn]

TEX WILLIAMS (Liberty 55583)

The vet country chanter has a good chance of having a hit on his hands with this new Liberty outing called "Go To The Mountains." The tune is extremely pleasant, chorus-backed, slow-paced ballad with a warm, authentic western flavor. Deck could skyrocket. "Risin' High" is a high-powered, raunchy, guitar-backed novelty-styled opus with an infectious bluegrass melody.

BILL MACK (United Artists 596)

MOON MULLICAN (Hall 1914)

(B) "FOOLS LIKE ME" [Knox BMI—Clement, Maddux] Moon Mullican could grab some fast spins with this interesting, medium-paced, tradition-oriented hillbilly lament with a contagious honky tonk beat.

(B) "MAKE FRIENDS" [Jack BMI—McGraw] This time out the songster dishes-up a catchy, up-tempo folk-flavored affair with an extremely happy feeling.

LONESOME PINE FIDDLERS (Starday 631)

(B+) "TOO HOT TO HANDLE" (1:50) [Starday BMI—Noack] The Lonesome Pine Fiddlers unleash their potent vocal and instrumental talents full-blast on this rousing, high-powered novelty-styled item. The group displays a fine traditional bluegrass style on the side. Deeja's should come out in droves for it.

(B) "I WALKED TO THE RIVER" (2:03) [Starday BMI—Cline, Goins] Slow-moving, country-blueser rendered with loads of authority and polish.

SONNY MILLER (Kingston 415)

(B) "MIRACLE GIRL" (2:15) [Becks BMI—Miller] Sonny Miller teams up with the Happy Valley Boys on this appealing, easy-goin' bluegrass-styled country traditional with a warm, infectious beat. Side boasts some extremely pretty lyrics and a fine, lyrical melody.

(C+) "BURNING BRIDGE S" (2:20) [Becks BMI—Miller] Fast-paced, swingin' dual-track ditty on a standard hillbilly theme of heartbreak.

Artist manager Daniel Gutierrez has informed Cash Box about several artists who will visit Argentina during the next months. The names furnished by Gutierrez include Italian artist Vittorio Gassman, who will arrive in Buenos Aires June 6, and will stay one week here; Italian songstress Stella Dizzy (records for Fonit, represented here by Music Hall), due June 8; Stella will perform on TV, on the Escala Musical program, and at dance parties organized also by Escala; Neil Sedaka will be in Buenos Aires July 12, will also appear at dance parties; French Chansonnier Maurice Chevalier will be here August 16; The Follies Bergere August 30; vocal group Los Yorsis will arrive September 14, and Spanish singer Jose Guardiola is expected October 14, as part of a South American trip that will also include Chile and Uruguay.

Besides all these names, Andy Russell will visit Argentina in a few weeks. Andy has been inked by Channel 13 for its "Casino Philips" programs, and will stay in Buenos Aires for about one month. Besides, Josephine Baker and Chilean singer Danny Chilean are in town on these days. As we reported previously, Josephine is performing at the "676" night club, while Chilean is spending his honeymoon (he married Veronica Vazquez a couple of weeks ago) and working on TV and dance parties.

Industrias Electricas y Musicales Odeon has organized a party to present its new general manager, Philip Brodie, to the press, disk jockeys and all people related to the record industry. Brodie replaces Rene Maget, who will work for EMI in the European zone.

Ariel Records is preparing the release of the LP containing the soundtrack of "Lawrence Of Arabia." The album will be put to sale in coordination with the film's premiere. The music is controlled by Julio Korn Publishers. Because of the success of "I Remember You," the diskery is preparing several new releases by Frank Ifield, and considers that the chanter may become very popular in a short time.

Music Hall is now working on the "Cumbia" trend. Let's say that the "Cumbia" is a Colombian rhythm which seems to have been very well received by the Argentine dancers, and may turn into a new dance craze. Music Hall has released "Pollera Colora" by Los Cumbiamba a few weeks ago, and now is preparing the release of new Colombian records with more tunes by La Sonora Dinamita, Los Teen Agers and Pedro Laza y sus Pelayeras.

Los Cinco Latinos have been performing at the Amok night club and are preparing a trip to the province of Cordoba. Next month they will visit Peru, and appear there on TV. CBS is releasing a new LP by them on these days, under the title of "World Attraction." Another group of CBS artists, Los Trovadores del Norte, are finishing the recording of their first LP, which features several new folk tunes, including a Uruguayan "Chamarrita," a novelty for Argentine folk music lovers.

Odeon has released an LP with music recorded by the Mexican Folkloric Ballet, which has been performing at the Municipal General San Martin Theater, with big success. The record was cut in Mexico, and is a very interesting sample of the folk music from that country. Under the Warner Bros. label, Odeon has put to sale "Al Di La" by Emilio Pericoli, and "Lovers Must Learn" by Max Steiner.

Carlos Tealdo Alizieri informs about new Surco releases: The music from "Taras Bulba" (United Artists), a new single by Gene Pitney ("Mecca" and "Teardrop By Teardrop"), "Katiusha" by Al Caiola and "Lawrence of Arabia" by Ferrante and Teicher. There is also a local recording made by Roberto Cambaré: "Cancion Mañanera," and another one by La Charanga del Caribe: "El Pañuelo."

Guillermo Capdevila and Federico Tortone of Discos Serenata SRL, located at Esmeralda 433, Buenos Aires, report about the latest releases of their label: "Por Que La Quise Tanto" by Hugo del Carril, "Es Temprano" by Leila Muñoz and "Sube Al Tren" by Teddy Martino. The Serenata catalog has all the new records cut by Hugo del Carril in 1962, after many years of no recording.

Ricardo Castelblanco of Edami continues at work with "La Ragazza," the Perez Prado tune. There are already eight recordings made, some of them by local artists. Castelblanco is also promoting "Gina," the Johnny Mathis hit, also cut in Spanish by Donald (Music Hall).

Julio Korn Publishers busy with "Wini Wini," the German Tamouré, and "El Bimbi," the new rhythm created by Eduardo Davidson. "El Bimbi" will receive big promotion in the United States, Venezuela and Colombia, and the first titles are "A Sunday Without You" and "Love Under The Rain." Both have been waxed by Luis Aguile, who started the pachanga trend with his waxing of "La Pachanga," a couple of years ago.

More from CBS: The diskery is putting all its force on the promotion of three new singles: "Blame It On The Bossa Nova" by Eydie Gorme, "Let's Limbo Some More" by Jackie and Los Ciclones, and "Days Of Wine And Roses" by Andy Williams. The flick has been premiered recently in Buenos Aires.

News from Fermata: Los Cinco Latinos (CBS) have cut "Concierto Desesperado" and "La Busqueda" for CBS; Jackie and Los Ciclones have waxed "South Street," sung in Spanish, also for CBS; Juan Ramon has cut "Demasiado Tarde" (Tropo Tarde) and "A Samba Is Being Born," for Disc Jockey. The Record Division of Fermata is releasing "Black Cloud" and "Birdland" by Chubby Checker (Cameo-Parkway series), "Ritmo Tambo Y Flores" and "Una Bomba Sono" by Celia Cruz and "El Vaquero" by Nelson Pinedo. BRAZIL

Gilbert Becaud, the famous French songster, is now in Brazil, for a short tour. In Sao Paulo he's being presented on TV and in theater shows, with great success. Speaking about Becaud, Alda Perdigo made her debut in RGE Records, with a song written by him. The record session was assisted by Becaud himself, especially invited by José Scatena. The title of the song with Brazilian lyrics, is "Matter Dolorosa."

Backed up by great publicity, a new album was released by RGE with La Paloma Orchestra. La Paloma is an orchestra composed of Brazilian musicians, playing international repertoire. Among the songs selected, are "Negra Consentida," "Kalu," "Cubanacan," and many others, played in dancing style. Beautiful packaging, too.

Via Companhia Brasileira De Discos (Philips), the United Nations Organization released here the smash album "All Star Festival," quoted as "the unique record in aid of the World's refugees." For this release, CBD had great publicity coverage all over the country, including publications in 22 of the most important Brazilian newspapers and 7 magazines reputed the most popular of the nation. Total coverage, too at all sale points, through displays and signs, special mention in the principal TV programs of Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro. Slides were presented during a TV show in seven Brazilian capitals and a three minute film was exhibited in four TV stations. The promotion was completed by the presence of Hugo Yroyaga, U.N.O. representative in Latin America, in two special TV broadcasts. The LP, as you know, was recorded by the leading artists of the world, such as Louis Armstrong, Maurice Chevalier, Bing Crosby, Nat "King" Cole, Edith Piaf, Caterina Valente, etc.

Musidisc released here, under the Command label, the LP "Stereo 35/mm," with Enoch Light and His Orchestra. This album, originally recorded at Carnegie Hall, in the 35/mm process, achieved excellent technical quality. Some of the numbers included in the album, are "Heat Wave," "The Man I Love," "All The Way," "Someone To Watch Over Me," and others.

Philips releases in May, are the following: LP's: "Meu Bom Amigo Capiba" (My Good Friend Capiba), with songs composed by Capiba, done by the young songster Paulo Molin (his first LP under the Philips label); "Metais Em Brasa Em Bossa Nova"—with Monteiro de Souza and His Orchestra, playing eleven Bossa Nova hits; "Coral De Ouro Preto," featuring a choral group formed by students of Minas Gerais State; "Don Octavio Henrique De Los Bolero," presenting the Brazilian singer "Black Out," with arrangements by Maestro Gaya; under Mercury label, "Love Me Or Leave Me," with Brook Benton; "Como Antes . . . The Platters" (Like Before . . . The Platters) and As Favoritas De Cugat (Cugat's Favorites); under the Decca label, one album: "Coletanea De Ouro" (Golden Selection) with Brenda Lee and, finally, under Polydor label, "Romance Latino" and "O Pais Dos Sorrisos—Paganini," the first with Alberto de Luque y Los Amigos and the second with various artists.

Lana Bittencourt, a consistent chart rider a few years ago, will return soon, Cash Box has been told by CBS. Lana, after her marriage, abandoned almost completely her career. Her return will be, undoubtedly, one of the most important events of this year.

two belong to the Seeco series.

Roberto Lambertucci of Neumann publishers still at work on the tunes included in the "Buenos Aires De Seda Y De Peral" musical play: "Viejo Buenos Aires" (tango), "Llueve En Mi Alma," a rock and "Buenos Aires Nueva Ola," a twist. The play presents nearly all the dance crazes during this century, and features artists like Antonio Prieto, Mariano Mores and Los Mac Ke Mac's, among others.

Rodriguez Luque has returned to his old disk jockey job, without leaving his work at Disc Jockey Records and at his Musica en el Aire record store. He has started three new daily editions of "Musica En El Aire" on Radio El Mundo (he was previously on Radio Mitre), from 11:30 to noon, 5 to 6 PM and midnight to 1 o'clock.

ITALY

Another of our leading record firms has reduced the price of its classical albums. We refer to EMI Italiana, which has just released a series entitled "Invitation To The Music." The retail price of every album is 2,200 liras, (about $3.50). The series includes a great number of recordings, while among the performers are the most popular artists of the classical field such as Walter Gieseking, Igor Oistrakh and Bruno Walter.

After RCA Italiana, this is the second record house which has lowered the price of classical LPs, and as a result of this policy the market for these records is increasing.

At the same time EMI Italiana has announced the distribution of a new special "opera" series with the label "H.M.V. Angel." This label returns on the Italian record market after an absence of about fifty years. (It is one of the oldest labels in the world, being registered in 1898). These releases include the most of the great productions of the lyric opera repertoire recorded in the most important European centers. Among the performers are famous EMI international artists as Corelli, Gedda and Christoff. A special presentation is provided for these LP: every album contains, besides the libretto, a book reporting all details concerning the recorded opera.

Passing to the pop field, always on the subject of E.M.I. Italiana, the release of the week is an Extended Play containing four performances of George Chakiris the well known singer and actor who gained an Oscar as protagonist of the film "West Side Story." The release includes two tunes from the film, "Tonight" and "Maria," while the other titles are "Lollipops and Roses" and "A Taste Of Honey."

Among the other releases are two singles waxed by two new EMI talents, both singers and composers. The name of the first one is Adamo, whose record contains "Sei Qui Con Me" b/w "Che Funerale," both tunes penned by Adamo himself. The second artist recently inked by EMI is Franco Nebbia, already well known in the music field as a composer, who presents on the first single grooved for EMI two titles also written by him, "Chanson Pour Pastachutte" and "Sirena Cha Cha Cha."

A song festival devoted to children has been held in Riccione, one of our most elegant tourist centers on the Adriatic coast. The contest was called Children European Festival, under the High Patronage of the President of the Republic. Ten countries took part in the show: Germany, England, France, Austria, Switzerland, Sweden, Belgium, Holland, Italy and San Marino.

Head of the organization was Mario Carriagi. Ten children, one from every country, were invited to perform a song in their original language. The jury also was composed of children. Conductor of the orchestra was our pop maestro Gorni Kramer. The Festival has been broadcasted and televised.

The publishers which presented the songs were: Sweden Music (Sweden), Melodi (Italy), Essex Music (England), Poeltown (Holland), World Music (Belgium), Figaro Verlag (Austria), Caravelle (France), Sikorski (Germany), the songs of Switzerland and San Marino being property of the authors.

Continuing news concerning song contests, we have been just informed that Pesaro another town very near to Riccione, will host also this year the 7th edition of the International Festival. Cash Box has not yet received the list of the songs to be performed on the stage, but the Ariston Publishing Group has presented to the contest among the others two songs which we wish to point out: "Che Cotta" (Lojaco-Testa) and "Mariolina" (Massara-Nisa).

Following on the subject of Ariston's activity, we wish to stress the new Modugno record including the tune "Lettera Di Un Soldato" (A Soldier's Letter) written by Modugno himself and Zambrini, and published by Ariston. This single (on the back, a twist/tamoure entitled "Allelu Ja," and published by Curci) represents the return of "Mister Volare" on the record scene. Ariston, Curci and Fonit/Cetra have announced a big promo campaign on this disk.

Fonit Cetra has also released another tune published by Ariston. We refer to "Italy By Night" recorded by the pop star Claudio Villa, while Decca is registering good reaction with another Ariston tune recorded by Caterina Valente, "Ja Tamoure."

In this connection, we note that many Italian record firms are obtaining tunes with "tamoure" beat. It is probable therefore that the tamoure will be the new pop dance of this year on our beaches.

The first 14 albums released by RCA Italiana with the Dynagroove system, announced during the last visit of George Marek, will be put on the market during September. Among such releases are the Puccini's "Tosca" conducted by Herbert Von Karajan and interpreted by Leontyne Price, Di Stefano, Taddei, Carena.

In the meantime, RCA has started with its summer promotional campaign. Among the first titles are "Donne Moi Tes Seize Ans," waxed by Charles Aznavour on Barclay, "So Long," grooved by the new talent Rosy, already obtaining a strong reaction, "Se Mi Perderai, (b/w Goccia Di Mare) penned and sung by the pop artist Nico Fidenco, (who represents the return of this singer on the music stage with a completely new style), but the first RCA disk among the new ones, in sales, is the new single by Rita Pavone of which we spoke some weeks ago. We refer to "Il Ballo Del Mattone" b/w "Il Curore," quickly climbing our charts.

Among the pop albums recently released by RCA is the first LP of Edoardo Vianello, and the album waxed in Italian by Paul Anka. In this regard, a new single of this artist will early appear on the market. The tune grooved is entitled "Un Ricordo Per Te," an original Italian number edited by the RCA publishing firm.

Adriano Celentano has obtained a very great success on the stage of the music hall Olympia in Paris. On this occasion, Adriano was feted during a cocktail party given by Vogue to present the last releases of our star "Il Tangaccio" and "Grazie Prego Scusi." A strong reaction welcomed also the first appearance of Adriano on French TV screens.

The Italian public is expecting the appearance on the TV screens of the top Brazilian star Joao Gilberto who as reported, is the star guest of our TV program "Johnny 7," presented by Johnny Dorelli.

All the transmissions of the series have been already recorded on tape, but once again our TV Radio Company has postponed the date of the debut, now expected for the end of May. In the meantime, the last single of the Brazilian talent released by Carisch on Odeon, is obtaining good sales. The tunes included in the disk are "O Pato" and "Meditacao."

From Phonogram, Tullio Gallo informed about the big sales by "Hey Paula," the American hit tune, recently released in Italy with the original interpreters Paul and Paula.

ITALY (Continued)

At the beginning of May, Decca released the third single by Katyna Ranieri: the famous and internationally known singer has recorded the first edition in Italy of "El Pecador," a Spanish-style song by A. F. Roth which may be as popular as "La Novia," Katyna recorded "El Pecador" in Spanish. On the other side a version of a very, very old and famous Italian song "Tu Solamente Tu." The singer is here accompanied by the orchestra conducted by her husband maestro Riz Ortolani. The two titles were recorded recently by Katyna Ranieri, before she left for New York and South America for a series of concerts and TV appearances. She was back in Rome for a week in May: then she left once more for the States where she will stay till the end of June.

Decca has informed us that, after a rather "slow" start (the record was released in December!) "Telstar" by The Tornados is now a best seller and sales are getting bigger: instead of being the winter best seller, Telstar will surely be a summer orchestral hit. Also "Diamonds" by the two ex-Shadows Jet Harris and Tony Meehan is very much requested.

We conclude our column, with the activity of the Campi publishing and record firms. The successful film, "Fellini 8½," of which Campi produced the background music, concluded the International Film Festival held in Cannes (on the French Riviera) during last week. As announced by Campi, Pathe Marconi (the French EMI) has acquired the reproduction rights of the album derived from the film's background, while Edith Piaf is expected to record one of the songs included in this last Fellini creation.

"Pizza Pie" and "Twist Dell' Astronauta" are the two themes of two different films, of which Campi recently produced the backgrounds. "Pizza Pie" has been recorded by Cocky Mazzetti on Ri Fi, while "Il Twist Dell' Astronauta" has been recorded in an instrumental version under the Campi label, "C.A.M." Titles of the two films are, respectively, "In Italia Si Chiama Amore" (In Italy It Is Called Love) and "Italia Proibita" (Italy Forbidden).

JAPAN

Chiemi Eri, Nippon King's No. 1 songstress, has recorded a new tune, "Tennessee Teardrops." For quite a while, she worked only on folk songs and standard numbers, and this recording of the new popular song is catching keen interest in our music world. To make it a smash like her debut number, "Tennessee Waltz," Nippon King has started all-round promotion for the platter.

Another unusual item is that "I'm Gonna' Be Warm This Winter" is coming up in the summer season. To the people of English-speaking countries, this may be a quite strange story. But the secret is only the skillful promotion of a sub-publisher here, who procured a Japanese version suitable for all four seasons. Sometimes we import foreign hits after their peak, and this measure should be considered as an efficient way of promoting to take advantage of foreign languages. In the meantime, "Vacation" was a big hit here last fall and winter.

Michael H. Goldsen, president of Criterion Music, was in Japan from April 27 to May 19. Though the main purpose his visit is not business, he made some deals with some of our publishers.

Theoloneous Monk has been making a big success in his performances here, which started May 13. Modern jazz is not so popular in Japan as is in western countries, but this world famous pianist proved the belief that more foreign modern jazz players will get good audiences in theatres in Tokyo and some other big cities if they visit to this island country.

Tax Offices in Japan announced the names of individuals who earned more than two million yen during 1962 (last twelve months ending this March). The list shows top five popular singers:

- 1) Yukio Hashi 21,170,000.-
- 2) Chiemi Eri 15,920,000.-
- 3) Haruo Minami 14,240,000.-
- 4) Chiyoko Shimakura 11,980,000.-
- 5) Ai George 11,370,000.-

GERMANY

The U. S. State Dept. has finally agreed to pay the German copyright and performance agency GEMA for plays on the American Forces Network in Germany. AFN started broadcasting many years ago during the war and until now, the German writers and publishers have received absolutely no money for performances on AFN. When AFN started in France several years ago, they immediately began payment to the French performance collection agency, and GEMA has been hot on AFN's heels for several years. The deal calls for a one time payment of $75,000 to cover past years, and a payment of $31,000 a year for future years. Therefore, AFN now has the right to play German phonograph records during its broadcasts. In the past, AFN has played only disks specially made for them by the Armed Forces Radio & TV Service in Hollywood. ASCAP and BMI have both given AFN the rights to play their music generally at no cost, and AFN has been careful to play only disks with no royalties. AFN Director Don Brewer was not available for comment, but theoretically, it is now possible that AFN will begin to broadcast German pop records which could be a tremendous boost to record sales here, as German radio has very little pop music.

Another recent development is that the U. S. has given the rights of all German compositions in the U. S. back to the German publishers and composers. Until now, German music written before the end of World War II was given no copyright protection in the U. S. and U. S. publishers, composers and record firms had free use of the material with no payment of royalties. We'll have a more detailed story ready on this point in a few weeks, but GEMA is now actively looking for copyright infringements in the U. S. and American publishers having used such material should report it to GEMA or their own collection agency in the U. S. immediately.

Electrola reports that the German version of the English "Eurovision Song" entry "Say Wonderful Things To Me" sung in German by teenager Rex Gildo is taking off and is selling tremendously. Radio Luxemburg already has the song in first place on their hit parade, and over 10,000 fans have written to Electrola praising the record. This is something that has never happened to the firm in the past.

Karl Breuer of Sikorski Music writes that the new Pat Boone German recording of "Don't Forbid Me," called "Baby Oh Baby," is beginning to take off. In addition, Karl writes that his instrumental recording of "Golden Evening" on Metronome has also received top radio action and stands in 3rd place on Radio Luxemburg.

Former Ariola star-A&R man Helmut Jantsch is now producing independently and has a contract with CBS records to handle the majority of his productions.

The German Pop music festival scheduled in Baden-Baden for June 15 has booked Mr. Acker Bilk with his world hit "Stranger On The Shore" as an added attraction.

An unusual record situation in Germany has taken place as Polydor Records has loaned its top star Peter Alexander to Electrola for one record. The waxing couples Peter with Electrola star Conny Froboess and is a film recording. Electrola's chief A&R man Heinz Gietz wrote the music for the recording and Polydor A&R man Kurt Feltz did the lyrics.

Polydor star Rene Carol is now in the U. S. for the second time to appear in Chicago, Milwaukee, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Rene will work at the German radio stations shows in those towns. The tour then goes to Toronto, Kitchener and Hamilton Canada.

Ralph Maria Siegel writes that his publishing firm is swinging with the first Pat Boone German waxing of "Love Letters In The Sand," the Eurovision winner "Danseuse," which is available in 4 German recordings and the original Danish version here as well as an instrumental version.

The firm also has 64 Bossa Nova records to work on including 30 recordings of "Desafinado" and 25 different versions of "One Note Samba." Ralph is also working on the German version of "Willie Can" by Dany Mann, "Only You" by Mr Acker Bilk and the German version of "Cherry Berry Lips" by The Juniors.

Hans Gerig and his music publishing firm has lots of work to do on its new hits including top tenners by Gus Backus and Martin Lauer as well as new recordings of "Lovers Lane" in German by Peter Beil, the new Mina hit "Capitano" and a new version of "Pepino's Friend Pasqual" by Peter Steffen.

CBS press man Gilbert Obermaier writes that Eugene Ormandy is coming to Germany to direct a concert on June 6.

Philips is starting a special sale on Cannonball Adderly albums. Label is offering limited time deals on two albums by Cannonball for $2.40 or 9.80 marks. Normally, an LP costs 18 marks or $4.50 here. This is the first time that such a promotion has been done for a jazz artist. They have also put much publicity into the artist here. Cannonball appeared on German TV during a recent visit. Discounting is not a normal thing here. Philips actually started the trend with a Ray Coniff album some months ago and it has proved successful for the company.

That's it for this week in Germany.

Cash Box has learned on good authority that long time Capitol exec, Whitey Haines, will exit the record company at the end of May to assume new executive duties with BMI Canada Ltd., in the firm's Toronto H.Q. One time B.M.I.'er, Ralph Harding is about to launch a new business venture in partnership with Sid Dolgay of The Travellers, vocal group. Harding's new business is reportedly a publishing company and affiliated record label.

Tim Pratt, genial Phonodisc Sales rep out of the firm's Montreal branch, will join the sales force of CKGM Radio, that City (6/1). He will be missed along record row.

Jean Price of the Courriers tied the nuptial knot recently in her adopted home, Ottawa. Harvey Glatt, manager of the fine folk group, told Cash Box that its Mercury album outing, "The Courriers Carry On," is finding a warm reception with the country's jocks. Moreover, repeated air exposure of the good set by the Ottawa-based youngsters is paying off handsomely in sales, and bookings. Harvey indicated that he is seriously considering an eight week western Canadian, club swing for the great singing trio. Deejays having occasion to meet and work with these young Canadians will find them highly cooperative, in addition to their obvious vocal talents.

Best new sound in many a moon from Bobby Curtola on Tartan, is his most recent outing, "Indian Giver." Penned by his co-managers, The Hurdon Brothers, the song represents a considerable departure from previous releases by the young singer. The flip side of the disk is a re-release of the very first wax outing Bobby ever had, entitled, "Walk Hand In Hand." The side was remastered this time around. Basil Hurdon items that Bobby is set for a tour of Great Britain for three weeks commencing (6/2). His visit to the British Isles coincides with the release there of his second to last disk, "Gypsy Heart." While in the U.K., Bobby will do p.a.'s and TV promotion on behalf of his disk, released through Decca of England. Upon his return to Canada, Bobby will be touring western Canada from B.C. to Manitoba, along with his band, The Martells. "Gypsy Heart" just released by Del-Fi in the U.S. is reportedly being picked in several important areas. Bobby will appear in the CHUM-sponsored Dick Clark stage show in Toronto (5/27), marking the debut of the deejay's syndicated show on the Toronto station.

New Decca side by veteran entertainers, The Rhythm Pals, is finding much enthusiasm with disc fans across Canada.

Mike Ferbey, Marc Wald and Jack Jensen who compose The Rhythm Pals, have a highly commercial sound on their Decca debut in both the U.S. and Canada with a song entitled, "On A Gypsy Caravan." Montreal song writer, Jerry Hrynych, who wrote the tune tells Cash Box that Decca expects the side to break in both country and pop fields. The group did its new record on the "Juliette" TV coast to coaster (5/25).

Yet another outstanding Canadian release getting the full drum beating treatment from the Compo folks is a new release on Apex by Edmonton deejay, Vik Armen, The CJCA spinner has a couple very strong commercial sides on his newest disk outing. The ballad side, "Last Summer," has won early support from the country's spinners, but they're not overlooking the teenish drivin' sound on the flip, entitled, "Really Terrific." Leading the way in promoting the disk in eastern Canada is Vik's old stable mate at CJCA, Bill Lee, now morning host on Ottawa's CKOY.

A slow starter with the Quality folks currently is the Lonnie Mack side, "Memphis." Released in Canada on the Barry label, it took its time to make any dent on charts, but now is showing strongly in Toronto and other important markets across the country. Stan Dorling at Quality indicates that orders are increasing daily on the side. Far and away the two best sellers currently out of Quality are the MGM outing by Connie Francis, "If My Pillow Could Talk," and the great Bill Justis side, "Tamoure." Coming on fast is the Bobby Rydell hit, "Wildwood Days," with the flip side, "Will You Be My Baby," coming in for its share of air exposure.

Music director Bruce Patenaude of Ottawa's CFMO-FM tells CB that exposure of "The Barbara Streisand Album" on Columbia over his outlet has met with tremendous listener response. He went on to say that technical arrangements to enable the FM station to broadcast in multiplex stereo will soon be completed.

Recent Toronto visitor, Billy May, in town for a TV taping session of the Tommy Ambrose Show was well received by the city's spinners. Whitey Haines reports that the congenial ork leader made most of the rounds despite a very limited time situation.

Right out of left field and headed for the top of most Canadian charts is a great new Capitol single by the outstanding British vocalist, Vera Lynn. Her reading of "Land Of Hope And Glory" is creating a tremendous sales stir in numerous key markets. This, on top of the many Capitol hits currently appearing in most of the top spots on the country's charts, has Paul White in a very happy frame of mind, with visions of money bags dancing in his head. "Sukiyaki," "18 Yellow Roses," "Surfin' U.S.A.," "Reverend Mr. Black," "I Love You Because" and "Lazy Hazy Crazy Days Of Summer," have the boys in the Capitol shipping room just about ready to holler, "Uncle."

Hottest novelty item in some time, best describes the new Kapp outing, "On Top Of Spaghetti," by Tom Glazer and The Do Re Mi Childrens Chorus. Phonodisc topper, Ron Newman supplied instant spaghetti dinners, along with advance copies of the great new sound to the country's spinners.

Al Alberts postcards from Japan, indicating that reception to his Columbia outing, "Fly Me To The Moon," is most encouraging in the Far East. If the disk is as well received there as the picture on his post card was here, it'll be a smash for sure.

Two members of the deejay fraternity find themselves currently "between engagements." They are Hal Botham, veteran spinner and most recently on the staff of CFOX, Pointe Claire (Montreal), and Dick Cook, ex WSTS, Massena, New York. Dick is most interested in the Canadian broadcasting industry.

Harry Belafonte's Canadian activities at the end of June and the beginning of July, include lengthy stays at Toronto's O'Keefe Center, and Ottawa's Capitol Theatre. Wray Rutledge at RCA Victor is currently grinding out promotion material and Belafonte discs for deejays in the two cities, set to play host to the fabulous entertainer and his troupe. As a matter of fact, the aforementioned Mr. Rutledge got off to a flying start on a Cross-Canada swing (5/12). Lasting twelve days the jaunt will take Wray from coast to coast on behalf of such outstanding RCA releases as the new Peggy March side, "I Wish I Were A Princess," "(I Love You) And Don't You Forget It" by Perry Como, "Detroit City" by Bobby Bare and "Abilene" by George Hamilton IV. Another top country sound is also included in Wray's travelling bag. It's the new Groove outing by Justin Tubb. Another great Victor comer that's getting the full treatment from Wray on his trip is the Della Reese newie, "More."

Top records in the far north at the moment are "Sukiyaki," and "If You Want To Be Happy." This word from fifty miles up the Alaska Highway and

Kim Calloway of CKNL Radio, Fort St. John, B.C. The spinner is host of the station's CLUB 97, boasting a membership of 750 enthusiastic record fans all, says Kim. Among the more popular artists with his listeners in the north country are: Helen Shapiro and Cliff Richard, with The Kingston Trio coming on very strong with their recent Capitol outing, "Reverend Mr. Black."

The Count Victors postcard from Detroit. They have been kept on the go in the Motor Metropolis, promoting their most recent Coral side, "Road Runner." The flip, "Lorie" is showing in the "pick" area of many Canadian charts currently. Seems the fellows have a two-sider on the move.

Nicest folks you could ever want to meet sums up the trade attitude where the recent Marlin Payne C&W Production to play the nation's Capitol, was concerned. Kitty Wells, Bill Phillips, Claude King, Wilf Carter, Johnny Wright and company made a host of new friends and renewed many old acquaintances with their series of one niters throughout eastern Canada. All of the artists are represented with new albums and/or singles that came in for a lot of air exposure during their visit. Claude King was presented with a gold disk for the sales in Canada on his smash single, "Wolverton Mountain," Claude Renallo of Columbia Records, and CKOY deejay, Ted Daigle, made the presentation to Claude on the deejay's air segment, the day of the show. Claude brought in a copy of his latest Columbia outing, "Building A Bridge." It shows signs of being a break-out in both pop and country areas.

Nice to hear from Margaret Ann Peterson. Formerly of "Margaret Ann and the Jada Quartet" on Warner Brothers, the petite vocalist is currently working some of the top Nevada night spots with the Ernie Mariani Trio. She recently appeared in two episodes of the Andy Griffith TV'er. Margaret Ann is booked by Andy's manager, Dick Linke. Her note to this corner came from Harrah's Club.

Shift in exec positions at Capitol's Montreal branch has Peter Lapierre back to his first love, that of making in person calls on dealers and stations throughout the territory, while the office managership has been assumed by R. Riendeau, who, in addition to his sales supervisory activities, will cooperate close with Pierre Dubord in the production of French Language record product.

John Porteous of Arc Records, Toronto reports considerable activity on a newie entitled, "Charlena" by Richie Knight and The Midnighters. The group has appeared on radio and TV in numerous Ontario cities to promote their new release.

Ron Knight, formerly news director of CJLX, Fort William, has left that station to assume the combined activities of radio and TV News Director with CKPR, same City. Several hundred teenagers from the Halifax-Dartmouth area surprised CJCH deejay Ron Roberts by throwing a big surprise birthday party for him on the May 11 edition of his regular weekly "Under 21" TV'er. Unknown to Ron, the various high school reps got together with Charles Doucette, the show's producer and arranged the entire surprise that included hot dogs charcoal grilled on a built-in indoor patio and the presentation of a three tier birthday cake. They also chipped in to give Ron a birthday present of a red rhinestone studded collar & leash for his pet Nanette, a white, miniature French poodle.

GREAT BRITAIN

Conductor of The Philadelphia Orchestra, Eugene Normandy, arrives in London in June for two concerts at The Festival Hall. Coincidental with his visit CBS will issue his recording of Bartok's "Bluebeard's Castle."

The Concertgebouw Orchestra, under its new conductor, Bernhard Haitink, will be making their first appearance at The Edinburgh Festival, which begins, August 18. Philips Records, to whom the Orchestra is under contract, will be releasing several low priced 12" LP's of the Concertgebouw's most recent works.

Jazzman Johnny Dankworth's first single for Fontana is a number penned by American jazzman Oliver Nelson entitled "Hoe Down" and published by Dankworth's own publishing outlet Jazz Music. The number had terrific audience reaction during Dankworth's British tour with Gerry Mulligan recently. For the Bath Festival which takes place this year from June 6 to 16 Dankworth has composed a special musical sketch entitled "Mermaid Music" which depicts the different forms of classical and jazz writings. This work will be performed by a quartet of jazz musicians led by Dankworth and four classical musicians led by Yehudi Menuhin. Continuing the jazz theme, Fontana issued a single by The Tubby Hayes Quintet of "Sally."

In early June Philips will be issuing the first LP made by Bridget Bardot titled simply "Bridget Bardot." The twelve tracks comprise ten numbers in French, one in Mexican and one in English, the latter being "Everybody Loves My Baby." Philips also issue a new Frankie Vaughn single "Hey Mama," which was written for him by Tom Springfield.

French recording star Richard Anthony spent several days in Britain recently cutting several titles for Columbia A & R Manager Norrie Paramor. One of these "Too Late To Worry," which is the English translation of his current French hit "Donne Moi MaChance" will be released in early June.

Releases from EMI include a single from Fats Domino making his debut on the HMV label with "There Goes My Heart Again"; Lesley Gore's American hit "Killer Joe" on Mercury, "Don't Try To Change Me" by The Crickets on Liberty and "One More Fool One More Broken Heart" by David Thorne on Stateside.

Gerry And The Pacemakers follow-up "I Like It" on Columbia is again penned by Mitch Murray who was responsible for their previous No. 1 "How Do You Do It." The number incidentally is published by Dick James Music and not Northern Songs Ltd. as mentioned previously. "I Like It" will be featured in "Thank Your Lucky Stars" TV on June 1.

Peter Bowyer Publicity is currently negotiating a deal with Connie de Nave Press Relations (America) for a transatlantic exchange of press services. Connie de Nave handles such artists as The Everly Brothers, Bobby Rydell, Sam Cooke, Timi Yuro etc. while Bowyer looks after Billy Fury, Joe Brown, The Tornados etc.

Merit Music, currently working on the Frank Ifield composition, "Just Listen To My Heart," recorded by The Spotnicks on Oriole, reports that under the terms of its contract with the Bossa Nova originator, Laurindo Almeida they will be publishing several of his more recent compositions in the near future.

New Kenny Lynch single on HMV "You Can Never Stop Me Loving You" is just released. This is a number which American artist Del Shannon, who has just completed his second British tour, hopes to include on an LP of British Hits on his return to the States.

New Jimmy Justice single on Pye is the John D. Loudermilk composition "The Guitar Player." He will also record the number in French and German for release in those territories. On June 3, Jimmy flies to Stockholm for personal and TV appearances then on to Denmark and Germany to appear at the Star Club, Hamburg and to wax some German numbers in Frankfurt.

Manager Eric Easton and press rep Andrew Loog Oldham have produced their first independent recording which is to be rush released on the Decca label, a new rhythm and blues group The Rolling Stones, who make their debut with a number called "Come On" which is published by Jewel Music.

BELGIUM

One must look across the border for special news about French language crooner Adamo, who was recently in Paris. Adamo, for the first time, appeared before a French audience and it happened at the Olympia Theater. It was his baptism of fire and he was ill at ease when it was all over. He realized that famous names preceded him in this bastion of entertainment: Halliday, Anthony, etc. and that novices have often been beaten at the game. Nevertheless his performance pleased the audience. There was an appreciative roar for his rendering of "Sans-Toi Mamie." He did three numbers.

Mr. Garin, commercial manager of SA Gramophone Brussels, who was present, was very pleased indeed. Bruno Coquatrix, manager of the Olympia, predicted a successful career for Adamo. So did a number of French newspapermen. On the same program appeared, sponsored by "Europe Number One," Cliff Richard and The Shadows, who of course got away with most of the applause. Adamo was on French television the next day. His newest record, featuring "Amour Perdu" and "J'Aime Une Fleur" (Pathé Marconi) are following the successful track of "Sans-Toi Mamie."

Coming from Stockholm, Sid Colman, supervisor of the EMI-groupe, stopped in Brussels to meet Mr. De Boeck, director of the editions Ardmore and Beechwood Belgium. For Belgium and The Netherlands, Ardmore and Beechwood acquired the rights of Editions Eco Music for the numbers of Joël Holmes, from his latest longplaying: "Fromlock," "La Vieille Fille," "A Tout Choisir," "La Carriole," "Les Matins," "De Notre-Dame A Bercy" and "La Romance."

Polydor reports that "Losing You" by Brenda Lee and "Barcarole In Der Nacht" by Connie Francis is starting very well and has great expectations that same will reach the first places of the bestsellers.

"Junge Komm Bald Wieder" by Freddy still remains at the top. He is now on the market with an EP "Heimweh Nach St. Pauli," presenting four of the most successful songs out of this musical.

About 10 recordings of the hit, "Eenzaam Zonder Jou," are now on the Belgian market. Sales will certainly exceed 100,000 copies. Among the best-selling versions are, of course, the original by Will Tura (Palette) and the French disk of Robert Cogoi (Philips).

"Dicks:" This composition of Jo Van Wetter, originally recorded by the Tip Tops on Palette, is now very successful in Scandinavia where two recordings do very well: one on the Sonet-label and another released by Metronome. Scandinavian title is "Sommerpolka" (Summer polka).

F. R. Faecq of World Music is now visiting his US-office. He will stay in New York for about a fortnight and travels to Montreal.

Bob Azzam recorded the French version of the Digno Garcia-hit "Sabeline." This record will be released by Festival. The Celibataires, successful singing-group, now in Brussel's Ancienne Belgique will also record this tune on the Barclay-label. Bob Azzam will also make the French version of "Lawdy Lawdy" (a Cousins original on Palette). New title: "La Haut, La Haut."

Will Tura (Palette) recorded the German version of "Eenzaam Zonder Jou," "Ich Bin So Einsam Ohne Dich," released the first of June through Teldec in Germany. Boris on Metronome recorded the tune as well.

The Cousins have now recorded titles with a big string orchestra. The records will be out very soon.

Sammy Cuts For Pye In England

DENMARK

Frankie Vaughan to the Tivoli in Copenhagen from May 16 to May 31. Rita Reys in Copenhagen for radio and TV and p.a.'s at Jazzhouse Montmartre. German singer Peter Kraus to Kystens Perle, famous restaurant near Copenhagen, in June.

Owe Wiisholm of Nordisk Polyphon A/S told Cash Box that top sellers at NPA are "Hey Paula" with Paul and Paula, "Say Wonderful Things" with Ronnie Carroll, both on Philips, and "Blame It On The Bossa Nova" with Eydie Gorme on CBS. The film "The Longest Day" has been shown in Copenhagen for some time, and the sale of the records with the music from the film has been very good, Wiisholm said. An outstanding sales success in Denmark has been Carl Nielsen's "Fifth Symphony" with the New York Philharmonic under Leonard Bernstein of which they sold more than 1000 LP's in less than five days after the CBS record was released. This LP and the "West Side Story" LP seem to be among the all time records among LP's in Denmark, Wiisholm said.

Billie Davis on Decca with "Tell Him" has done very good in Denmark and in the popular teenage radio program "Ti Vi Ka' Li" (Ten We Like); it has been voted as number one for three weeks out of the five weeks the record has been voted among the ten, H. Rosnlöv-Jensen, label manager for Decca at NPA, told Cash Box. There are reasons to say that Danish teenagers prefer records with female vocalists, to judge from the charts recently where more and more records with female artists have been the top sellers. Jazz is doing very well in Denmark, it was reported. Rosenlöw-Jensen said that the sale of operas on LP is a very important part of the sale for Decca in Denmark. A five LP album of "Siegfried" was released April 5, and so far more than 100 albums have been sold, which is remarkable when considering that the sales price is 222.—Danish Kroner (about $32).

Peer Frost of Danrecord told Cash Box that he expects a lot from Barry Lee, a Norwegian singer, recently contracted to the Dominio label.

Harry Jensen, head of Multitone A/S told Cash Box he was very happy about the many successes the publishing house had this year, such as "Hey Paula," "Casanova Baciami" and "How Do You Do It." A Danish song "Domingo," by Svend Lundvig, seems to have chances of becoming an international success. It is a composition in the typical Latin American style of music.

FINLAND

Kai Lind, formerly with His Master's Voice, contracted to Scandia-Musiikki Oy, it's reported. His first recordings for the new company will be Finnish versions of two Eurovision Song Festival songs, Italy's "Uno Per Tutte" and Germany's "Marcel."

Finland is the number one TV country in Scandinavia, Cash Box is informed. With both commercial and non-commercial stations operating, the total hours of transmissions weekly is higher in Finland than any other Scandinavian country. There are more than 100,000 TV sets in operation in Finland at the moment. The population of the country is approximately 4.5 million inhabitants.

Cannonball Adderley is a popular name on jazz records in Finland, Henrik von Denffer of the record dept, at Siemens Sähkö Oy told Cash Box. His Riverside records are growing in popularity and a lot of promotion is done to make sales grow even more.

Fazer's has contracted a young singer, Tuulevi Mattila, who will make a Finnish recording of "Pretty Boy Lonely" within the near future, Osmo Ruuskanen of Fazer's told Cash Box. The guitarist Heikki Laurila is making his first solo record for Decca with the songs "Carioca" and "100 Guitars."

Pohjoismainen Sähkö-Oy (PSO) announced a competition in order to get some march-songs. More than 100 contributions were received, and PSO has recorded 16 of the best, distributing the recordings to military camps where the soldiers will vote for the best three. In November, PSO will award prizes to the composers of the three best march-songs, Martti Piha of PSO told Cash Box.

NORWAY

Alf Andersen, the genius on flute who died last year at 33, has got a memorial LP released on Philips, recorded by Philips in cooperation with Norwegian Broadcasting Company and International Society of Contemporary Music. The LP is doing very well, Rolv Wesenlund of Norsk Phonogram A/S told Cash Box. The LP includes works by Hilding Rosenberg, Edgar Varèse, André Jolivet and Finn Mortensen.

The sale of LP's is steadily growing in Norway, Cash Box learned when visiting record companies in Oslo. Sales figures for 1962 shows that 22 per cent of the records sold were LP's, 49% were singles and 24% EP's. All record companies reported growing sale of their LP's, of which classical music is getting a great share of the sales figures.

Jörg-Fr. Ellertsen of Egil Monn Iversen A/S reported that a new LP for tourists is being released in near future. It will be an instrumental of popular songs, well known from the charts. The same company is also releasing an LP with children songs sung by Per Asplin. Ellertsen was very happy for the international success of The Quivers, who is now being released in Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Finland and Denmark, and more countries being interested in their records. Egil Monn Iversen A/S is planning a sales campaign for their Norwegian language LP's in the United States, particularly in the spot where there are people of Norwegian origin living. So far they have released two LP's of this type, and both has become great successes.

Robert B. Weiss of Warner Bros. Records just visiting Oslo for business talks. WB is growing bigger and bigger in Norway and Egil Monn Iversen A/S, handling the label in Norway, is planning to release some Norwegian artists on WB.

Rolf Syversen of Iversen & Frogh A/S (EMI in Norway) reported a very good season as far as sales figures are concerned. Every week, the local charts have had at least two or three EMI records among the top ten. Strongest names are Cliff Richard, The Shadows and Frank Ifield.

Swedish EMI artist Birgitta Bäck at the Viking in Oslo during May. Pia Skaar, Norwegian EMI artist, had a successful winter engagement at the Bristol and is now in Italy on vacation. Swedish Philips singer Monica Zetterlund in Oslo for radio and TV. Rolv Wesenlund, label chief at Norsk Phonogram A/S, to Stockholm for biz talks with Swedish Philips people. British group The Springfields to Oslo for p.a.'s June 22.

Jan Höiland, now at EMI, contracted to Philips from this autumn. Philips will also present a newcomer on records, Sverre Johnsen, originating from Svalbard, who is making his record debut with "Vårens Varme Vind" (All Alone Am I).

Per Gunnar Jensen of Manu Music A/S told Cash Box that he has formed an artist agency, Viking-Manu, operated in cooperation with Kjell Karlsten of Viking Music A/S. The new agency is operating from Manu's office at Tollbugate 12 in Oslo, where Per-Arne Knoblauch is the manager.

The most important note of the week is the new contract signed by young Mexican idol César Costa with RCA Victor, after being an exclusive pactee for several years at Orfeon Records.

Another artist who did the same thing was tropical conductor Gamboa Ceballos who changed from Orfeon to RCA. Both will record immediately new songs, and maybe next week we will be able to give you the names of the records.

At the same time, composer and singer Tomás Méndez switched from RCA to Musart Records and Martin Rocca went from Peerless to Musart. Rocca's first single at this label is "Tribilin" and "Casanova."

Rubén Fuentes, now the most popular composer in Mexico, introduced his newest composition sung by popular bolero singer Marco Antonio Muñoz. Its name is "Incontenable," which also is the name of Marco Antonio's new long play, that promises to have big sales if one only considers that Venezuela reportedly ordered 5,000 copies.

CBS introduced a new and beautiful singer whose name is Silvia Olga and who recorded the song "Poema" (Poem). Silvia has a nice voice that sounds a little like Chilean singer Monna Bell, who hasn't made any recording at Gamma Records for a long time, but is expected to do so very soon.

CBS vice-president Juan Manuel Villareal left Mexico with his family to spend a two month vacation in Europe, combining it at the same time with some visits to the label's reps there.

International rep Félix O. Alarcón said that the next act at "Señorial's" night club will feature Brazilian singer Agostinho Dos Santos, who will be accompanied by Walter Wanderlert and his quartet, which was presented in 1962 at Carnegie Hall at the Bossa Nova show.

"I'm Walking Behind You," the American standard, was recorded at RCA Victor by singer Rafaél Vázquez with a beautiful arrangement by Luis Gonzalez. On the other side is a Mexican composition "Embrujado" (Bewitched) with the Chucho Ferrer backing. Also from RCA we received a copy of "Johnny Angel" and "At The End," made in Spanish by a promising singer named Corinna. And with Neil Sedaka, cut in Mexico, we listened to the songs "Let's Go Steady Again" and "Waiting For Never."

La Comparsa Estudiantil, a new combo with teenagers from San Luis Potosí, released at Musart Records its second long play, including, among others, "My Girl Josephine," "Laura," "Java," "Dear Susy," "Why," "Let's Dance."

"El Abandonado" and "Hey Lolita," this last one of his own inspiration, were recorded by Chico O'Farrill and his orchestra at the CBS label. Chico's father died recently.

French singer Kathryn Georges made her debut, a successful one, at Capri's night club. She may have her own TV show.

W&G Inks Tomasetti

MELBOURNE—Australian folk lark Glen Tomasetti is pictured above signing an exclusive long-term recording contract with W&G Records while Ron Gillespie, head of the label, looks on. The artist's first LP, under the terms of the new pact, will be released in July.

BRUSSELS—J. De Boeck, managing director for the Ardmore and Beechwood pubberies, was recently visited by Ivan Nordstrom (right) of Odeon of Stockholm, who was accompanied by the Walloon newcomer, Adamo, who has been hitting with "Sans Toi Mamie" in both the Flemish and Walloon parts of the country.

Russian pianist Vladimir Ashkenazy (25), who was granted permission in April to stay in England with his Icelandic wife Thorunn (also a concert pianist) and their small son, devoted his first recording-session in England to Rachmaninoff's Third Piano Concerto. The young virtuoso, called "an outstanding young master of the keyboard in an era of young masters" in The Daily Mail, is eagerly expected in Holland to do a recital. His Decca-LP of Rachmaninoff's Third Piano Concerto. The young virtuoso, called "an outstanding without cuts."

Hans Tecker of Dutch Decca introduced a new Joan Sutherland album on this market, the magnificent "Command Performance" production. The album contains two LP's with an Opera selection in the vein of the recitals as famous Opera singers at Queen Victoria's used to do. Based on their extended knowledge and their large collection of Opera-material, Joan Sutherland and her husband Richard Bonyng were able to compile this recital exactly according to the Queen's preferences. A total of twenty items, the repertoire varies from Verdi arias to the gentle "Home Sweet Home."

Jan de Winter, producer of Phonogram's Decca repertoire (popular), told Cash Box that he compiled an EP of the Dutch mouth-organ trio The Multicats. Tom Hayes, Joop van Reuwijk and Tom Winterberg are the three virtuosos who play famous swing-classics like "After You've Gone" and "Avalon," in very catchy arrangements. The trio is famous from many broadcastings and personal appearances in musical shows.

Dutch vocal group The Fouryo's have gained tremendous popularity in Germany by means of TV-performances. Especially for the German market, they recorded German versions of "Walk Right In" and "Rhythm of the Rain" (German titles are "Baby Doll" and "Und nebenbei hast du noch mich") on decca.

After a period of being known only to some collectors of rhythm & blues and a few country & western fans, Jerry Lee Lewis, is suddenly getting a lot of attention in Holland. Well-done plugging, dealers' activities and a large group of teenage-fans of Dutch-Indonesian birth made Jerry Lee's record-sales boom. On the London-label, an EP was released with four bluesy rock-titles, and a single with "It'll Be Me" and "Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On."

Bovema's Stateside-label will shortly release an EP-recording by the Billy Maxted Orchestra, featuring Manhattan-styled versions of evergreens, like "Avalon," "Fidgety Feet" and "Satin Doll." Further hits listed are "Foolish Little Girl" (The Shirelles) and Jimmy Soul's "If You Wanna Be Happy."

Pathé, Bovema's French label, will launch the initial recording of José Lucardo (born as Joost Scheele in Holland), currently scoring high ratings in Belgium with his "Capri Melody" and "Allein durch die Strassen."

Liberty in Holland is strongly promoting its hit record by the Rivingtons, "The Bird's the Word," while also Jan & Dean are climbing high on the charts with "Linda."

Bovema's Gramophonehouse welcomed important Capitol people recently: G. Fraser on May 7 and Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace on May 13.

Bovema's Imperial-department told Cash Box, that it believes it has another Fats Domino-hit on its hands. The title in question is "One Night" with "44" on the flipside. Also tracks by Los Trovadores Tropicales ("Bon, bon, bon") and Beverly Buff ("No Part Time Love") have been rushed out in the meantime.

Bovema's His Master's Voice-label reports that it's doing good business with Marlène Dietrich's recording containing the German version of "Where Have All the Flowers Gone." Song star Vera Lynn performed in Holland from May 23-26, following up the press & cocktail and celebration of her "Golden Record," "Land of Hope and Glory."

Nat King Cole's "Those Lazy, Hazy, Crazy Days of Summer," entering the Cash Box-list this week, will be released by Bovema's Capitol label in Holland very soon.

Hot news from the local recording scene concerns some new releases by Artone. The company, very active in this field, reported new wax by several artists who won year end accolades in the popularity polls. Willy Schobben, who took the honors in the 'Best Trumpet' classification with 80% of the votes, blows his golden trumpet terrifically in latin tinged "El Soldado de Levita" (The Private) and "Acapulco," Bep Rowold, winner of the 'Alto Sax' Award, is featured in Vaughan-styled instrumentals "Bésame Mucho" and "El Rancho Grande." New Star Teenage-combo Willy & His Giants, which scored high with "Sarie Marijs" recently, can be heard to advantage on their new coupling "Guitar Battle Blues" and "Auld Lang Syne." All these recordings follow current pop trends, which should make them suitable for foreign markets also.

Cameo-Parkway's Chubby Checker will have a reissue of four of his top-twisters on an EP entitled "Let's Twist Again." Although currently in demand for his more recent Limbo-outings, the chanter's popularity as Twist King has in no way diminished. Other new Artone releases from the C-P catalog include current chart-climbers "You Can't Sit Down" by The Dovells, "Birdland" by Chubby Checker and "Wildwood Days" by Bobby Rydell.

Everyone at Artone is excited about the first Reprise Single of noted guitarist Barney Kessel. Featured in "Diamonds," a recent smash instrumental in England, Barney might have a blockbuster in this item in the Benelux teen-market. Other new Reprise releases by the diskery's subsid Funckler Records include Sammy Davis' "as Long As She Needs Me," Eddie Cano's "Our Day Will Come," Dorsey Burnette's "I'm A-Waitin' For Ya Baby." Meanwhile, Sammy Davis' "All Star Spectacular" is enjoying first-rate play.

The Move Into Vending

Not Whether, But When

Two years ago the cry of diversification was heard 'round the industry and since that time an impressive number of coin machine operators have done just that. Cigarette and candy-snack vendor sales have increased upwards of twelve percent with no small share of this increase due to the emerging music-amusement operating firm who has stepped into the vending picture.

The rate of movement has by no means reached the speed it must eventually attain to support the logic behind such a transition. As yet, many coin-firms are clinging to music-game stops which have long since fallen off in revenue as though these locations were the link to survival. They are not. The operator who has shaken the losers and invested this money into other areas of coin machine service will back up this statement. One of these areas of profitable growth has been proven. This is the vending field which today is being entered into profitably by progressive coin machine operators via the cigarette-candy-snack route.

These new machines are being placed in present music stops, competitive vending stops where the complacent cigarette operator becomes the loser, in locations where the over-the-counter sale succumbs to the operator's service, and in new type locations springing up all over the country. This is where the gains are being made.

After two years the trend has been established and the cry is no longer whether to go into vending, but when to go into vending. It is our opinion, based on observations made almost daily into the economics and the mechanics of such a transition, that the time for the qualified operator to go into vending is now. Our reasoning is based on several factors.

There is no longer a doubt that the coin machine operator can profitably operate cigarette, candy and drink machines. We have spoken with too many individuals who have become important buyers of this equipment during the last twelve months to refute this.

There is no great problem of securing new locations for such equipment. Many music operators have increased numbers of machines on location upwards of twenty percent in a one-year period by adding cigarette machines alone—and the reason for this success is not always because of lucrative bonuses.

Early problems of nickel candy have nearly gone the way of 5¢ music with ten cent candy in more than half of the machines on location. Candy has become a highly profitable product to vend. The nickel cold drink has been swept by the boards with the advent of the unusually successful crushed ice drink machine which brought into being the dime cold drink and better margins.

Cigarette promotion allowances have never been higher. And with more competition look for continued supplier support.

There has never been more fertile areas for experiment than in the take-home market, the school market, the automatic restaurant market, the avenues of opportunity for the future. What better training ground than the single machine operation as a starter?

On a national level, the vending machine business is quite healthy. Production of new equipment is up 8%. Accounts receivable at the dealer level are better than satisfactory. Vending operators pay their bills, a simple but penetrating barometer of any business.

The position of a tradepaper advising operator-readers on such obvious industry trends may seem awkward to a few but then again the music-amusement operator has never been quick to change. Some still sell nickel music, an interesting display of early Americana but one which has sent several to the poorhouse. We have always directed editorials at the operators who make this business move ahead. Many have already entered the vending field. Many others need only a well-meaning nudge. As we have said earlier, the question is no longer whether this move should be made, but when.

Four Phono Mfrs. Meet With MOA Atmosphere Termed 'Very Warm'

Industry Awaits Decision On Convention Exhibits

CHICAGO—Cash Box learned last week from reliable sources that MOA President Harry Snodgrass and Bob Blundred, Managing Director, met with executives from the four phonograph manufacturers in a scheduled luncheon at the Sherman House here on Tuesday, May 21. The atmosphere was described as "very warm" and this is significant in that it was the first time in several years that this prominent group of top drawer coin-operated phonograph manufacturers has convened to meet with MOA brass.

The group discussed the Association in general and industry matters, including the forthcoming Convention planned for September 4, 5 and 6 at the Morrison Hotel.

Last month (CB April 27) Bill Adair, Vice-President Sales, The Seeburg Sales Corporation, announced that the company would display its music and vending equipment at the Convention thereby thawing a freeze which has surrounded MOA and its Convention.

Two years ago all phonograph manufacturers but one (Rowe-AMI) dropped out of all MOA activities following their reported dissatisfaction with attendance at the Convention in Chicago and Miami Beach. Only Rowe AMI displayed in Chicago in 1962. Attendance at these Conventions was termed "disastrous" as was MOA's future at the time.

Since then, a reorganization of MOA was begun and Harry Snodgrass, leading coin machine operator and distributor and top vending industry representative, was elected President. A new Managing Director, Bob Blundred, was also named. The two trade execs have managed to put the national association back on course and since last fall have won over most of the local associations around the nation. Financial support has come from locals following Blundred's personal appearance tour earlier.

While there was no official word from MOA regarding the possibility of all manufacturers exhibiting this year, the luncheon served as material for the spread of rumors—hopeful ones—that perhaps this year, the Morrison Hotel would see all four juke box manufacturers back at the old stand leading an impressive list of other manufacturers and suppliers of machines and equipment to the coin machine and vending trade.

Canteen 6-Month Net Earnings Hit $2.5 Million, 37¢ Share

CHICAGO — Patrick L. O'Malley, President of Automatic Canteen Company of America, reported sales and operating revenues for the six months ended March 16, 1963, of $111,915,775. Net earnings from operations, after taxes, were $1,868,625, or 28¢ per share, plus additional non-recurring income, after taxes, of $647,274, or 9¢ per share, for a total of 37¢ per share.

These figures compare to first-half 1962 sales and income of $98,878,679 and earnings after taxes of $566,685, or 8¢ per share. The 1962 figures have been restated to reflect substantial adjustments made during the fourth quarter of fiscal 1962.

Second-quarter 1963 sales and operating revenues amounted to $54,453,500, 10 per cent higher than corresponding 1962 revenues of 49,491,787. Net earnings for the second quarter were $674,872, or 10¢ per share, compared to restated 1962 loss of $7,050.

Decals Warning Against Slugs Site Federal Criminal Code

CHICAGO—Decals warning against the use of slugs in vending machines and coin changers are now available to members of National Automatic Merchandising Association (NAMA).

The decals were designed by NAMA in cooperation with the U. S. Secret Service and represent part of the Association's national program to reduce slug losses sustained by member companies.

Although use of the decals is expected to deter those who slug vending machines "just for the fun of it," they would have little or no effect on the "professionals" who "deliberately and criminally" set out to obtain quantities of merchandise and cash from vending machines and coin changers.

It was to help apprehend this criminal element that NAMA sponsored the amendment to the federal anti-slug law which was enacted last year and makes the "use" as well as the manufacture of slugs and counterfeit or foreign paper money and coins in vending machines a federal offense. (NAMA was instrumental in obtaining passage of the original anti-slug law in 1944.)

Tom Hungerford, NAMA director, said operators should make a report to NAMA headquarters in Chicago, Ill., when a "substantial" number of slugs or foreign coins appear in one machine, or in a group of machines at approximately the same time, or when the same "type" of slugs or foreign coins appear "regularly" in the same machine.

Only "substantial" slug losses should be reported to NAMA, Hungerford said, because cases involving small losses (or persons who slug machines only on rare occasions "just for the fun of it") would place an excessive burden on the federal courts.

Hungerford advised operators to keep a record of slug losses by location.

The report to NAMA should include the exact address of the locations where slugs were used along with three to five samples of the slugs.

Operators also may send the report to their nearest U. S. Secret Service Office. In these cases, a copy should be sent to NAMA, Hungerford added.

The new NAMA anti-slug decal is printed in bright red on a white background. (Picture) It measures 2 by 2½ inches.

NAMA is providing the decals at cost to members as a special service. They are available on a prepaid basis at 4 cents each for up to 1,000 decals and 3½ cents each for orders of 1,000 or more. The minimum order accepted is 25 decals for $1. Orders should be sent to NAMA, 7 South Dearborn Street, Chicago 3, Illinois.

Tape-Athon Announces 4-Channel Taped Programs, Services Two Different Locations On Premises

Total Of 16 Hrs. On 7" Reel, 32 Hrs. From 10" Reel

CHICAGO—At a pre-show dinner held Saturday, May 18, for their national dealer organization, Tape-Athon Corp. of Inglewood, California, unveiled a new background music system which was featured at the Parts Show exhibit opening tomorrow in the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

Unique feature of the new system is a high density tape using four discrete sound channels, allowing a total of 16 hours playing time, without repeat, on a reel only 7" in diameter—about the size of one 45 rpm record. A larger system using 10" reels holds a total of 32 hours of music. The Tape-Athon player mechanism is so designed that, at the end of the reel, the tape direction is automatically reversed providing continuous play without service or attention.

The use of 4 channels, according to George Anthony, president of the Tape-Athon Corporation, "Allows yet another exclusive and distinctive innovation in background music transmission. By proper sequencing of channels and pick up heads, the new system will produce two completely different programs—different tempos and different moods. This feature permits the user to have custom-tailored background music for two different locations on his premises. An eating establishment, for instance, may require a medium tempo in the coffee shop and slower music in the cocktail lounge. A hospital may transmit one kind of music to the patient's rooms, another to the cafeteria or rehabilitation center. Possibilities are limitless."

In announcing the new Tape-Athon system, Anthony also related that the company has made extensive additions to the tape duplicating facilities at their Inglewood plant to handle the processing of taped programs. Although the 4-channel tapes are designed for operation with a new series of dual-output Tape-Athon players, it was announced that older machines may be converted in the field to accept the 4-channel programs.

Anthony further stated, "the new system, of course, in no way replaces the standard and accepted single program Tape-Athon player now in use in over 7,000 locations, where one mood or tempo of background music adequately covers the situation."

Royal Readies Move To New Cincy Plant

CINCINNATI—On June 3rd, Royal Distributing Company, Inc. will open for business as usual but the address will be different. That's the date new quarters at 1210 Glendale-Milford Road, Cincinnati, will be completed and ready to receive operators from the Ohio territory.

Royal's major line is the Rowe AC Services music and vending line. Other factory equipment distributed by Royal includes Auto-Photo, Bally, Chicago Coin, Fischer, Gold Medal, Gottlieb, Keeney, Midway, United and Williams. The firm is still operating out of the 2070 Seymour Avenue address. The formal move is scheduled to take place June 1st, a Saturday. The doors of the new plant will open formally June 3rd, a Monday morning.

Royal is managed by Harold Hoffman and Clint Shockey, two well-known coinmen here. According to company officials the new plant will feature colorful decor and furnishings.

The new building and parking facilities cover one acre of ground. The new showroom will be finished in a pale yellow—fluorescent recessed lighting in the ceiling—an alcove to one side with an early American bar scene showing the new Rowe AMI phonograph on display. Another section will show the full line of Rowe Celebrity Vending display. Other coin operated games and rides will be displayed at the best vantage points throughout the showroom.

The new parts room will have twice the capacity of the old one. The record room is the same size as the old one but more record lines will be added to take care of our climbing sales in the record business.

52 Firms Display At London's Intl. Exhibition US Vendors Dominate But Europe Makes Mark

■ Industrials Bend Toward Full Line
But The Little Man Is Still Leary

LONDON—Fifty-two exhibitors at the International Vending Exhibition at Earl's Court, London, breathed a sigh of relief when a threatened national rail strike was called off only three days before the Exhibition was due to open, and instead, thousands of coin machine and vending trades people traveled here last week.

The Countess of Dartmouth, a well-known Westminster City Councillor, officially opened the Exhibition on May 13th. In her opening speech, which was widely reported in the national press, she spoke of the bright future of the industry and of the tremendous advances that have been made over the past two years. She also congratulated the Automatic Vending Industry on exporting £23 million pounds worth of equipment in the current year and wished them every success for the future.

The Exhibition has increased considerably in size since it was last held two years ago. Fifty-two firms displayed every facet of the vending trade. This was an increase of twenty-three. Although attendance figures have not yet been fully established, the Organisers have stated that the final figures will be higher than those reached by the last show. Many overseas visitors were in attendance, quite a number were from East European countries including members of a trade delegation from Hungary.

The most striking feature of the displays was the tastefulness of the design of the vending machinery. It was obvious that the industry has become very design-conscious over the last two years and have made every effort to please the public's eye as well as its pocket. Every conceivable type of vending machine was on show, from the Italian-made Manotecnica ice cream vendor, which will not be made available until 1964, to the fascinating dial-for-your-dinner Meridian Merchandiser which was among the bank of eighteen machines shown by the Gloster Equipment Company Ltd.

A late entry to the Exhibition was

Victor Products Corporation, from Maryland, U.S.A. who had their vending equipment flown over to the U.K. just four days before the Exhibition was due to open. Vice President of the Corporation, Justin Funkhauser, reported that his last-minute decision had been well worth while as his refrigerated Vertical Merchandiser and Drink Venders were causing as much interest from his fellow exhibitors as from the outside visitors.

The Autobar Company Ltd. were delighted that so many people were interested in their Hot Drink machine that has a bottle attachment which makes it ideal for installation on sites that have no plumbing.

One of the busiest exhibitors, Automatic Canteen Company (G.B.) Ltd. had a continuous stream of visitors, many of them from abroad, most of whom made a special note of their new Fresh Tea Vender.

Norman Ditchburn, Chairman and Managing Director of Ditchburn Vending Machines Ltd. a pioneer of British automatic vending, attended the Exhibition talking freely and informatively with visitors to his stand. He was extremely pleased with the enthusiastic reception given to his latest innovation—the Minibar—a drink dispenser considerably smaller than the conventional machines of this type.

The most prominent feature of the colourful Fisher & Ludlow stand was their "Tea Break Unit." This consisted of Tea/Coffee, General Merchandising and Orange Squash machines combined together to make a single unit for hire at an inclusive rate.

The well-designed display of the Rank Organisation featured prominently their latest machine for vending leaf tea or popular branded coffee with refrigerated milk. A simple dial makes the selection. This machine has only been made available for distribution in the last six weeks.

Making their British debut on the Seeburg (G.B.) Ltd. stand were five new machines—a cartoned milk vender and a soft drink vender were among them. In addition the company displayed a full range of cigarette machines and other vending equipment. General Manager, John Henderson, was on hand during the period of the Exhibition to give advice and demonstrate the versatility of his latest machines.

Several coin sorting and counting machines were on show. Of particular interest was the Sortaccount made by International Coin Counting Machine Company which sorts seven denominations of coin electronically. The pound note-changing machine displayed by The Automatic Canteen Company prompted many questions from technically minded visitors.

Lily Cups and Containers (England) Ltd. had a new range of disposable vending cups with safety slogans printed on them such as "Mind Your Eyes" for use in factories. During the course of the Exhibition, an order was placed with Mono Containers Ltd. for 15,000,000 of their plastic cups by Stockdale Industrial Venders Ltd. who were also exhibitors.

The actual sales carried out on the stands during the 5-day Exhibition clearly indicates that Britain is certainly becoming conscious of the benefits offered by automatic vending both as a service and profit making venture. Factories and offices have been completely won over but the smaller retail businesses are still reluctant and regard the automatic vending trade with suspicion. Fortunately, these retailers only account for a very small section of the potential market for vending equipment in Great Britain.

Whatever the outcome of the final results from this Exhibition, the benefit of the publicity that the show has evoked from the press, radio and television will do the British automatic vending industry a power of good.

'Ping Pong' Panels At The Palmer House

CHICAGO—The Institutional Food Manufacturers' Association (IFMA) convened in the Palmer House Hotel, last Friday, May 17, for a rapid-paced, tight schedule of panel meetings ("Ping-Pong" panels) in the morning, followed by a series of workshops (which were held concurrently) during the afternoon hours.

Interstate Borrows $12 Million

CHICAGO—Interstate Vending Company announced that it has received a total of $12 million in long-term loans from New York Life Insurance Company and Massachusetts Mutual Life Company.

The funds will be used to further Interstate's nation-wide acquisition program, for refinancing, and to provide additional working capital for the Chicago-based firm. The announcement was made by Ronald Wolff, president, who said that this was the first time Interstate has received financing of this type.

Of the total borrowing, $9 million was provided by the New York Life Insurance Company, of New York City, and $3 million by the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company of Springfield, Massachusetts.

The loan was made for 15 years with repayments to be started in 3 years.

NYS Medical Hits Cigs

NEW YORK—A resolution urging smokers to give up cigarettes was approved last week by the New York State Medical Society. It stated that evidence indicates an implication in the genesis of lung cancer and other diseases.

IFMA's conference planning committee.

The rousing keynote address was delivered by Alex Dreier, ABC Television's news reporter and commentator (television's "Man on the Go"). His thought-provoking subject was "Where Do We Go From Here?"

The five afternoon (concurrent) workshops were based on: (1) Industrial And Vending Feeding, (2) Restaurants (White Tablecloth), (3) Drive-Ins, (4) Public Lodging, and (5) Retail Stores Serving Meals.

The Industrial And Vending Feeding segment covered the distribution of food items (perishables as against semi-perishables or non-perishables), and, the impending changes being wrought in factories in the move from cafeterias to machine vending feeding. Carl Millman, Automatic Merchandising Corp., stated that plant management is showing greater reluctance now to subsidize cafeteria type feeding for their employees.

Members of the panel were: Millman; Maurice Glockner, of Automatic Canteen Company of America; Lawrence "Chuck" Windsor, Institutions Magazine; and Norman Stiner, of John Sexton & Company.

There was a spirited discussion among all members of the panel regarding the "Standardization of packaging sizes for vending machines. Finally, there was ample optimistic predicting from all hands regarding "the future of food vending."

A Britisher Looks At Vending

- Centralized Cooking Must Be Streamlined
- The Workers Want Their Tea (and the girl tending the pushcart)
- But It's Only A Matter Of Time

LONDON—"It is in this field of retail that we will see great progress during these next twelve months." These were the words of G. A. Cooper, Director of British Automatic Co., here in London last week.

"The shop of the future may well be completely automatic but it would, of course, be an expensive venture. Basically, it is simply a question of whether the cost of the amortization of the machine, service and maintenance is cheaper than a manual operation to sell the same value of goods, bearing in mind that the machines can sell 24 hours a day.

"In the past, free standing machines sprang up throughout the country. Now, with the development of supermarkets and the excellent standard of individual shop front designs, banks of machines are being incorporated by managements as a well-planned part of window displays to give a round-the-clock service.

"Even smaller retailers, with perhaps only one shop, are recessing machines into windows and exterior walls giving a clean and uncluttered approach to their premises.

"Apart from food sales, great development has been made in the vending of service commodities. Specific articles such as paperback books, nylon stockings, postcards and travel guides made their appearance in vending machines within the last two years and, again, the choice of vendable articles here is practically unlimited. Availability of space and public demand are the two ruling factors for further development in this field.

G. A. COOPER
Director, British Automatic Co., Ltd.

"But there can be no doubt where the greatest development has been and will be—in industrial vending.

"Within ten years, it is almost certain that at least one commodity vending machine will be installed in every United Kingdom factory.

"Vending machines in industry hit many snags when they were first introduced. Industrial workers initially objected to them, for they felt they were being deprived of their traditional tea break.

"You cannot expect changes to be accepted overnight. The men looked forward to their chat with the girl pushing the tea-trolley. They expect human failures—they do not expect mechanical failures.

"And there were failures. Machines are not foolproof; because you cannot expect the idiom of "putting your money in and taking the goods out" to go on forever without mechanical maintenance and servicing of the machines.

"Most canteen staff, at first, regarded vending machines as a threat to their trade and had no intention of co-operating in their successful operation. But once they had been given training on the day-to-day running and maintenance of the machines, they eventually found they enjoyed the mechanical side of vending and responded favorably to the machines.

"Whereas vending machines can give valuable service on the factory floor, where a kitchen and canteen are adequately equipped, I see little advantage in vending a meal instead of passing it straight across the counter.

"Machines can serve hot and cold drinks, and main meals, when the canteen ceases to operate economically—e.g. for night shifts or where employees are scattered in a large area away from the main canteen.

"But it may well be that catering wages may increase to such a point that it would be cheaper to cook and prepare main meals in streamlined kitchens and then distribute them to the various canteen units for insertion into the machines which will be geared to keep the food in its deep-frozen condition until it is required to be heated and served.

"Much research is going into this development, but this is long-term and will take years to perfect.

"Vending machines are now a part and parcel of our lives in this country. Wherever you go you will find a vender, even on certain railway trains where automatic buffets made their appearance last year.

The Dining-Out Habit Reviewed

- Women Prefer It
- Preferably With Friends
- Poor Service Is Murder

CHICAGO—The popular American habit of dining out is on the upswing, according to national survey findings released here, indicating that improved service holds the key to even greater growth of the nation's restaurant industry. Findings of the report may prove helpful to the coin machine-vending operator, who is in a position to benefit from any upward swing in business at the dining-out location in his area.

Improved service, at both tables and counters, ranked as the most important single factor which would encourage people to dine out more often. The findings released to the 44th annual National Restaurant Association Convention are contained in the survey just completed for the Institutional Food Service Division of General Foods Corporation.

A broad cross section of restaurant patrons and non-restaurant patrons was polled in this follow-up to a 1960 survey, also sponsored by General Foods in cooperation with the National Restaurant Association. It was established that today six per cent more people dine in all types of eating places than three years ago.

Actually, 49 of every one hundred persons polled had eaten at least one meal out in the week before they were questioned. Projected to the nation's adult population of 117 million persons 18 or older, the survey shows that 57.3 million Americans eat out at least once each week. This is a jump of 9.1 million over the 1960 survey figure.

"Our findings," said A. F. Watters, General Foods vice president and IFSD general manager, "show that the restaurant operator is actually in the retail merchandising business, rather than in the food preparation or cooking business. They suggest that the restaurateur will find it profitable to concentrate even more of his attention on pleasing present customers."

Referring to statistics which clearly point out that service holds the key to encouraging more frequent dining out, Mr. Watters urged the NRA members to "spend more time improving service in the 'front of the house'—the profit center—rather than supervising kitchen practices in the 'back of the house'—the cost center."

Eight out of every 10 diners choose a particular restaurant because they have dined there before or because a friend recommended it, according to the poll of dining-out habits and attitudes. In this category, almost equal shares of the men and women polled expressed identical motivations in choosing a restaurant. The actual combined figures show 64 per cent of the dining-out public returns to a restaurant they know rather than try a new one. Eighteen per cent indicated they will eat at a restaurant recom-

"And the manufacturers, knowing that good service and reliability of machines is a common denominator, are working for one end—the customer's satisfaction."

The British executive finished his opinions with these words, thereby agreeing with some theories, disagreeing with others, and repeating many other theories which have held up in other sections of the world. They have been repeated here for the benefit of those in the vending industry.

In broad strokes, the findings further reveal that women (83 per cent) enjoy dining out slightly more than men (72 per cent), even though their reasons differ. A majority of women agreed that freedom from cooking and clean-up was the most appealing factor; actually 59 per cent said so. The men, on the other hand, listed good food as the most important reason for visiting a restaurant.

Of special significance to the Chicago gathering of leading U.S. restaurant operators was the finding that almost half of those polled desire to dine out more often with family or friends. This feeling was expressed by six out of 10 women and four of every 10 men quizzed.

The poor service factors defined in the survey were cited in the following order of frequency: waiting to be seated, noise, unpleasant waiter or waitress, and problems with their own small children. Actually, half those polled indicated they were discouraged from dining out more often by delays in seating. Forty-one per cent object to noise, and one in five said they had an unpleasant waiter or waitress, according to the survey.

Special occasion dining out also was focused upon as presenting opportunities for restaurant operators. For example, 57 per cent said they like to visit a restaurant on a wedding anniversary, 44 per cent on a spouse's birthday, and 39 per cent on Mother's Day.

During the NRA presentation, Mr. Watters pointed out that a special booklet had been developed to enable the restaurateur to improve his operation based upon the findings of the survey by Benson & Benson, opinion and market research firm of Princeton, N. J. Featured in the booklet are guides to analyze promotional and merchandising opportunities and plans for implementing these. The "Dining-out" booklet is available from Cash Box Reader Service, 1780 Broadway, New York 19, N.Y.

Weston Addition

Weston Biscuit's Snak-Pak Vending Division has announced the addition of three new sweet snacks to the Snak-Pak line introduced early this year—vanilla, strawberry and chocolate sugar wafers.

Snak-Paks were developed to provide cigarette operators with an item that would add diversification to their line and still vend through standard equipment, according to company officials. Snak-Paks are packed 10 packets to a carton, 60 cartons to a case to conform to established cigarette vendor trade practice.

New Cue Stick Plant Nears Completion

SHAKOPEE, MINN.—Officials of the Schmelke Manufacturing Company here have advised that new manufacturing facilities have been purchased and the production of pool cues will resume in "about 60 to 90 days."

The Schmelke plant in Chaska burned to the ground last April 4th following a fire which razed the plant and destroyed the finished production and a large amount of lumber on hand.

Schmelke chose the new site, which is four miles from the former plant, and have almost completed interior finishing.

The new plant is a modern one-story factory with the latest wood turning and manufacturing equipment. Plant officials advise that construction crews have been working overtime to meet a breakneck opening date, in order to fill the large demand for cue sticks which has resulted from the mushrooming sales of coin-operated pool tables throughout the country.

group of veteran Chicago and suburban coin machine operators, presented R. H. Blundred, managing director of the Music Operators of America (MOA), with a check in the amount of $250.00 to help defray the legal costs in the fight against the new Celler Bill (HR 5174), during a brief meeting in the MOA offices in this city, last Thursday, May 23.

Officers of A.B.C. are: Gallet, president; Charles Sacco, vice president; Larry Cooper, secretary-treasurer; and Robert Lindelof, assistant treasurer.

The membership includes: Angelo and Vincent Angelieri, A.A. Swingtime Music Co.; William Knapp, Allied ABC Music; A & H Entertainers, Andy Hesch; Arthur Velasquez, Automatic Music Co.; Bert and Vic Bondioli, B & B Novelty Co.; Richard and Al Gienko, Dial Music; Robert Lindelof, General Music Co.; Richard and Jack Nomden, J. Nomden & Sons.

Also Arnie Sher and Charles Sacco, Lee Nordic Co.; Frank Padula, Melody Music Co.; Ray Gallet, Paschke Phonograph Service Co.; Mary Gillette, Phonograph Service Co.; Sig A. Jacobsen, Pioneer Automatic Music Co.; Paul M. Brown (a director of MOA), Western Automatic Music; Mrs. C. Wilmoth, Tri County Music Co.; and John Cloherty, Northtown Music Co.

Seeburg Adds Bossa Nova, C&W, Pop

CHICAGO—The Seeburg Sales Corporation announced three new listings available for juke box programming in conjunction with its Artist of the Week division. They are: Laurindo Almeida, "Viva Bossa Nova," (Capitol); Johnny and Jack, "Smiles and Tears" (Decca); Bobby Gordon, "Warm and Sentimental," (Decca).

Operation Alert Meeting Dates SECOND SERIES

List Includes Revisions

This second series of Operation Alert! meetings will offer all cigarette operators in every locale, the tools of instituting the NAMA program for combatting anti-vending attacks in cities throughout the nation. Constructive approaches to the problems at hand, supported by sound methods, have been designed to help the individual cigarette operator protect his business. All cigarette operators are urged to attend the meeting nearest their home town.

Mar-Matic Expansion In London Complete

CHICAGO—Maurie Skes, managing director of Mar-Matic Sales, Limited, in London, England, distributors for Keeney and Jennings machines, announced last week that the firm recently climaxed an ambitious expansion program, when it was moved into a new, larger headquarters, utilizing the entire first floor of a building located at 31-35 Kirby Street, Hatton Gardens, London E.C., 1, England.

The new premises, "19 windows long," houses Mar-Matic's showrooms, warehousing space, and general offices. It contains 2,500 sq. ft. of space.

Mar-Matic Sales, Ltd's London headquarters are headed by Sam Casper, general office manager; and Geoffrey Grange, sales manager. The firm is exclusive foreign distribution outlet for Keeney and Jennings.

Clayton Nemeroff, of J. H. Keeney & Co., further informed that Sykes and his staff are enjoying excellent acceptance and sales overseas with

Williams Ships 'Swing Time' 1P Pin; Stern In Europe

CHICAGO—J. A. (Art) Weinand, vice president in charge of sales for Williams Electronic Manufacturing Corporation, announced the release last week of Williams' "Swing Time" pinball amusement game. A feature of this newest addition to the Williams line (which also features the "Major League" and "Extra Inning" baseball amusement games) is the strikingly attractive, and very colorful pinball cabinet.

Weinand laid considerable stress in "Swing Time's" exceptional popularity, which resulted in very high collection reports in several random test

Jim Cherry, Mar-Matic overseas sales representative, was expected to return to Europe to continue a distributor sales program which began two months ago and was interrupted by a return home for meetings in Baltimore and Chicago.

He said: "From the very first day we had these machines placed in the locations to pre-test them, extremely high collection receipts were reported in to our office. This proves the power and popularity of Williams pinball amusement games throughout this country and in a multitude of foreign markets.

"As to the popularity and strength of Williams amusement equipment overseas," Weinand added, "Sam Stern's world tour to visit with coin machine principals in many foreign countries spells out the terrific success of our games in these lands."

During his current airborne world wide trip Stern, who is the president of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp., is visiting in Sydney, Australia; Tokyo, Bangkok, and Hong Kong while in the Far East. On the European Continent Stern was scheduled for visits in Greece, Italy, Switzerland, Finland, Sweden, Germany, France, England, Spain and Portugal.

Weinand explained that "Swing Time" is a fast action, skill shooting

'Extra Ball' amusement game. There is a 'drop-in' (eject) hole in the center of the playfield, which earns the player 50 points and an extra ball when it is lit.

If the first ball played goes through the top center lane on the playfield an extra ball is awarded the player. Also, there is another extra ball awarded for placing the balls through the four top rollover lanes. Furthermore, an extra ball is earned by the player for high score.

There is a generous placement on the playfield of advance bumpers, jet bumpers, kickers, and chrome metal flippers. The playboard is coated with the Williams transparent "Plasticote" finish to assure longer life of the playfield.

To Demonstrate 'LP Console'

NATE FEINSTEIN

CHICAGO — Nate Feinstein, World Wide Distributing Company, distributors in this area for the Seeburg Corporation's music and vending equipment, announced this past week that for the first time, at a service school session, music operators will see a special demonstration unit Seeburg "LP Console" coin-operated phonograph with all of the components exposed to the view. This session will be held next Tuesday evening, May 28, (7 p.m.) in the Governor Hotel, in Springfield, Illinois.

The service school will be hosted by Feinstein, Harold Schwartz, and Art Wood, World Wide's director of field services. Charles (Chuck) Gates, Seeburg's field engineer in the Phonograph Division, will conduct the service training phases of the session.

Eastern Flashes

The new Rowe plant addition to the factory in Whippany, N. J. will open on Friday, May 31, and you can look for many of the vending ops to attend the Open House affair. Looks like Jersey Governor Hughes may speak, along with Canteen prexy Pat O'Malley, Rowe AC head Jack Harper, and other execs from Chicago. Runyon handles the line there so expect a big turnout from the Jersey area. Wurlitzer execs and distributors alike delighted with the healthy annual report out of North Tonawanda. . . . Abe Lipsky celebrated his 25th Wedding Anniversary last week. His son Bert threw a surprise party for the coimman at the Cherry Hill Inn, down Jersey way. . . . Vic Vanderleenden and Walt Conde, Montauk Automatic Vending, just sold a portion of the route to Meadowbrook Music. "We were growing too fast," said the progressive ops. The boys work hard and have built an enviable reputation in the business of music and games.

Mike Munves has a number of Southland Engineering's rides on display and the "Space Ride," "Dinosaur" and "Horse" rides, all based on the circular ride principle, attract lots of attention and some sales. Harry Williams, Southland's head, is happy with national reaction, too.

Happy surprise to see Ray Knoss on the street, looking better than he ever looked before. A few added pounds, a little rest, and some new locations were all that Ray needed to have him pegged "healthy" by the medicos. Ray is busy with his newly added cigarette business and those music stops throughout the metro area. Calgon's new water filter has cold drink ops writing in for more info. If you want the details, write to our NYC office at 1780 Broadway. . . . Dave Lowry hyping collections via the bumper pool route. Is awaiting action by industry leaders (and who isn't) on the approval of 6-pocket pool in NYC now that the rest of the State has been okayed through the recent upstate legislation. Need your tv repaired? Call Al Munves and he'll come runnin'. The coimman has been busy evenings since acquiring his RCA diploma and business is growing. Meanwhile, he helps keep his pop's business moving during the day.

Charlie Rubenstein on the avenue frequently these days. When does he mind those arcades uptown and across the street? . . . Joe Munves was in NYC but by the time you read this that fact will become inaccurate, if we know Joe. . . . Larry Feigenbaum's little girl Paula Joy will be ten years old this week. "She's not working yet," says her pop, who acts as though she were the apple of his eye. "She is," claims Larry. . . . Harry Koepfel, inside the Albert Simon showrooms seeing that the transit ops are served with Rock-Ola, Chicago Coin, Auto-Photo and National cig machines. Al Simon and Al D'Inzillo are busy prepping an announcement which will be forthcoming any edition now.

Willie Aaronson was on Tenth Avenue all day Tuesday with a beautiful gal with bright button eyes, long brunette hair and a smile that set onlookers on their ears. The girl's name is Nancy and if Willie makes her a permanent part of the operation it is conceivable that he will be given special discounts on equipment from suppliers and better commissions on collections from location owners. That's the effect his three-year old daughter has on people(!)

Morris Rood spent the weekend at the Waldemere in the mountains with Runyon service manager Wally Zucker celebrating the annual outing of the bowling club and Zucker had this kind of a time: wins indoor putting contest (money); wins "honest score" golf tourney (trophy); wins bowling league tourney (trophy); goes home and didn't even know it rained all day Saturday(!)

Mrs. Gertrude Browne looks like a million and is one of the more pleasant moments for coimmen who meet her each Tuesday during her weekly trips to Tenth Avenue.

Irving Holzman promises at least 500 people at the UJA-Coin affair at the Americana June 4th. 400 tix are in the till, 100 more will be a cinch. (About 40-45 assistant district attorneys are expected, along with judges, and other dignitaries.) Meanwhile when he isn't raising cash for the cause, Holzman's selling the new United "Rumpus" game.

Barney Sugerman and Abe Green, Runyons execs, meet in NYC to discuss sales early in the week. Abe tells us the vending operation in Jersey is expanding its food service to industrial plants.

Tape-Athon execs, George Anthony and company, had a nice turnout for the exhibit at the Parts show in Chicago. Introduced a new 4-channel tape that could set the background music business ahead. . . . Meanwhile, Seeburg distributors including Atlantic New York Corp., get ready for the sales push on the new "Encore!" background system which utilizes records—the sounds are all instrumental for people who want to hear the background music. Murray Kaye advises there are some new bossa nova and country-western sounds available on the Artist of the Week program for the phonos.

Canteen's quarterly statement reads good. More income, greater earnings, much greater net, and higher per share earnings. They're on the way to brighter figures, according to Jack Harper.

Millie McCarthy is up and out of the hospital and expects to be on the scene once again, wearing a cast and perhaps a pair of crutches. She'll be front-row-center at the UJA ball.

NYS medical association leaders have gone on record with a smoking-cancer statement that surprised many after hearing the AMA report. The vending show in England was a smash. We have pics and news story covering from firsthand report so read about it this issue.

Jay Electronics may break with a sales program for music ops any week now. The background music firm is realizing what others are doing and intends to develop this profitable market. Look for competition in the background music field to increase among suppliers.

Regina Records prexy, Jack LaForge, planning to issue all future decks via a special pricing deal to juke box ops. LaForge will work through his distributors giving discounts to ops on initial orders.

Chicago Chatter

Windy City was in the midst of a hectic schedule of conventions, trade shows and meetings last week. McCormick Place was the scene of the Annual Convention of the National Restaurants Association. Prior to that the Institutional Food Manufacturers' Assn. met (Friday, May 17) in the Palmer House Hotel. To keep the pace rolling along the Electronic Parts Trade Show kept the Conrad Hilton Hotel buzzing from Monday thru Thursday, May 20-23. Vending, coin machine and background music reps flocked into town to take part in the various forums and exhibits.

The Bally Mfg. staff was at home for the Parts Show at the Sherman Hotel, where Ray Moloney, Herb Jones, Don Moloney and Bill O'Donnell greeted visitors to their suite. Meanwhile MOA prexy Harry Snodgrass and managing director Bob Blundred met with coin machine manufacturers to set the planning stage for the upcoming MOA Convention, Sept. 4, 5 & 6, at the Morrison Hotel. Later they met with Tom Mackey, of the Morrison Hotel, to get his forces rolling. By the way, Tom advises that reservations at the Morrison are steadily coming in. He issued an urgent appeal for operators not to tarry too long before making their hotel reservations. The early bird, he reminds us, gets the best selection of rooms.

Very active exhibit booths at the National Restaurants Assn. Conclave at McCormick Place were manned by Seeburg brass, as well as Nate Feinstein, Harold Schwartz, Irv Ovitz, Fred Skor and Howie Freer of World Wide Distribs., Seeburg Corporation's distributor here. . . . Gracious greeters in the Rowe AC Services exhibits last week were president Jack Harper, executive vice prexy Dean McMurdie, vice president Fred Pollak, and such popular execs as Jim Newlander, Don Lunday and, from Atlas Music Co., Eddie Ginsburg, Paul Huebsch, Bernie Shapiro, Chuck Harper and Joe Klykun. Bill Phillips returned from a road trip just in time to be put to work in the Rowe AC Services exhibit at McCormick Place.

Heavy coin machine sales action was very much in evidence at First Coin Machine Exchange, where prexy Joe Kline, Sam Kolber and Fred Kline are racking up mucho sales with Wurlitzer phonos. Joe looks forward to this fine business to continue on through the summer months.

The big news at United Mfg. last week, according to Bill DeSelm, was the release to the coin machine trade of United's new "Rumpus" puck shuffle-targette amusement game by Bill DeSelm. We all sang "Happy Birthday" to old buddy Lyn Durant, who is a sprightly youngster at 55! Herb Oettinger and Ray Riehl are keeping their golf irons hot every spare moment they have to get on the greens.

As of last Wednesday, May 22, Sam Stern, prexy of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp., was in Stockholm, Sweden. From there he swung over to Helsinki, Finland. And, then, on to Hamburg, and other European trade centers. Meanwhile, back at the "store," Art Weinand, vice president, announced the release of Williams' new "Swing Time" Extra Ball pinball amusement game.

When Gil Kitt, owner of Empire Coin Machine Exchange, arrived at O'Hare Field for his flight to the West Coast Friday, May 17, a bomb scare caused a long, nerve-wracking delay. However, after a thorough search by detectives and airport personnel the flight took off and ultimately landed safely at Los Angeles International Airport. Joe Robbins, et al breathed a long sigh of relief.

A busy young man at the recent Institutional Food Mfrs.' Assn. meeting, at the Palmer House, was Carl Millman, prexy of Automatic Merchandisers, of Milwaukee, who was very articulate during the panel and workshop sessions on industrial food vending.

We noted considerable action at D. Gottlieb & Co. in production on Gottlieb's "Slick Chick" pinball amusement game. Gottlieb execs in the Gottlieb plan when we called were Dave Gottlieb, Nate Gottlieb, Alvin Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg. . . . Over at National Coin Machine Exchange Mort Levinson infos that sales on the Gottlieb "Slick Chick" are booming these balmy Spring days. Export, he sez, is very strong also.

Herb Perkins, prexy of Purveyor Distribs, is actually too busy to get into a vacation schedule for his employees. He explains, however, that a sked will shortly be prepared.

Heavy production is noted at Midway Mfg. where Hank Ross and Marcine "Igg" Wolverton are raving over the acceptance of Midway's "Slugger" baseball game. Among the loop strollers t'other noon were Rowe AC Services president Jack Harper, exec vice prexy Dean McMurdie and vice president Fred Pollak, just catching a few rays of sunshine.

Among the guests in the Wico Corp. hospitality suite in the Conrad Hilton Hotel, during the Electronic Parts Trade Show, last week, were: Norm Gefke, of Kansas; Art Silverman, of Gordon Music Co., in Willard, Ohio; Bill Stein, of Lincolnwood; and Laurence F. Zaffina, of Detroit. Wico hosts were Ed Ruber, Milt Wiczer, Morrie Wiczer, Douglas Daube and Eddie Jacobson.

We dropped in at the Tape-Athon exhibit suite, in the Conrad Hilton, to visit and chat with prexy George Anthony and H. Halvorsen. The interest and action shown Tape-Athon's background music systems gladdened Anthony's heart.

Edward G. Doris, executive vice prexy of Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp., happily reports that sales on the Rock-Ola "Rhapsody" and "Capri" coin-operated phonographs are so heavy that it has been near to impossible to build up an inventory. Doris returned from a whirlwind road trip last week. Frank Doyle, vice president, and head of Rock-Ola "IVI" Vending Division, is also enjoying fine acceptance of the Rock-Ola line of vending machines. All this is music to Rock-ola in president David Rockola's ears.

The tragic, untimely death from a heart attack of great ex-Bear footballer Bernie Masterson, last week, shocked his many friends here. Bernie has been teaching athletics and good sportsmanship to youngsters in a Catholic order until his demise.

U.S. Tax Chief Mortimer Caplin was the guest of Henry A. Montague, prexy of the National Restaurants Assn., at a luncheon in McCormick Place during the NRA Convention, Tuesday, May 21. In opening his address to the 1500 delegates he flippantly assured his hosts they can deduct the cost of the luncheon, amid a thunder of laughter and applause. . . . Here's the chuckler of the week delivered by ABC-TV's "Man on the Go" Alex Dreier, during the IFMA luncheon, Friday, May 17, in the Palmer House: "As to the news reports that Mrs. Jackie Kennedy is going to have a baby next Fall: The Republicans now know they were spoofing no one when they said the President was "off his rocker."

The California Music Merchants Association, Inc. held a meeting at the Wurlitzer Factory Branch, with most of the operators in the local and surrounding areas in attendance. . . . Mort Drootin, sales mgr. of the background music division at AMCO Music & Vending, Inc., reports business booming at the present time. Jim Vesce is showing the new portable public address system, "Lecturn," at the electronic show in Chicago. Keeney's "Lucky-Joker" is on display this week and met with immediate operator acceptance. Bill Schrader returned from a business trip to San Diego. . . . Sales of both used and new amusement equipment continue firm and steady at C. A. Robinson & Co. Lou Wolcher of Advance Automatic Sales, San Francisco, in town conferring with Charlie Robinson. . . . The export business has been consistently good at Simon Distributing Co. keeping the shop very active, meeting shipping schedules. Export orders are being processed this week for shipment to the Far East. A new employee, Joe Merel, has joined the staff at Simons in the parts department.

Dickey Lee paid a visit to the California Music Co. promoting his latest release on Smash, "I Go Lonely." . . . The "Champion Fast Draw" gun has proven to be an outstanding sales attraction at American Coin Machine, Inc. Due to the gain in popularity more territories have been added, which now includes the East coast. . . . Leonard Hicks of the Wurlitzer Factory Branch held service schools last week in Santa Barbara and Indio on the Wurlitzer phonographs. Cliff Nugent is calling on OP's in the Ventura County and Royce Garris returned from a trip to Denver, Colo. Ken Siler's son was in the hospital with pneumonia and is now home recuperating.

Ralph Anthony of Dot Records stopped by the Leuenhagen 'record bar' with the new release, "Breakwater" by Lawrence Welk. The Solle girls are planning to spend Decoration day at Catalina Island. They received a card from Russ Morgan saying he will open at the Casino in Catalina on June 14. . . . Orders for export are being prepared this week for shipment to Penang, Manila, and Yokahama, at Duarte International Sales Co. Joe Duarte said an adding machine was stolen sometime during the day, on Saturday, while the was alone on the premises.

The new "Smokeshop" cigarette vendor is creating interest among the operators at Paul Laymon, Inc. The Smokeshop line offers new features plus a wide variety of colors to blend into any surroundings. Jim Wilkins and family in Bakersfield on a combination business and pleasure trip. Jim Jr. will be competing in the Optimist oratorical contest while in Bakersfield.

Chuck Klein of the R. F. Jones & Co. spent last weekend visiting the Jones office in San Francisco. Bill Gray ranked first in a national sales contest of Rowe AMI products, winning top prize money. (Congratulations!) The Rowe cigarette and candy combination vendors have been re-designed, making them smaller in size plus a new bass with Riviera legs. They are on display and capturing a great deal of attention with 'the new look'. Woody Mathews is leaving the Jones Co. and planning to purchase a business to operate in Reno, Nevada. First, Woody and wife, Greta, will vacation for three weeks in British Columbia. . . . In town visiting distributors and one-stops this week were: John Ketchersid, Long Beach; Al Berton, Panorama City; Allan McMahan, San Jacinto; W. D. Mathewson, Oxnard; Lester DeChene, Riverside; Wally McFarland, Ventura; Bill Bradley, Covina; Bill Black, Bakersfield and S. L. Griffin, Pomona.

United Mfg. Ships 'Rumpus' Shuffle-Targette

CHICAGO — C. B. (Bill) DeSelm, executive vice president in charge of the sales department of United Manufacturing Company, in this city, announced the release to the world-wide coin machine trade of United's new "Rumpus" six-player puck shuffle-targette amusement game.

This attractively cabined game features a choice of three popular United bowling games — "Regular", "Flash", and "Advance" bowling — with six ways to play.

The big play inducer, according to DeSelm, is a "70 Hole" shoot-again feature, which, he said, is sure to catch on very rapidly in locations everywhere. When the player gets the puck into the center (70 hole) the frame number stands and doesn't click on for the next frame (or puck) as long as the player keeps putting the puck in the "70 hole". All three of the games played are, according to the player's skill, high scoring games.

DeSelm said: "The extra shot for scoring in the '70 pocket' certainly enhances the appeal of United's 'Rumpus' puck shuffle-targette, as well as increases this game's suspense. All three of the scoring games offered assure the players of maximum entertainment.

"Naturally," he added, "the player selects the desired game by simply pressing the button control."

DeSelm further explained that the puck elevating mechanism, with an extra heavy duty motor-driven puck return, assures the location of quiet, trouble free operation at all times. The flashy, streamlined cabinet is generously equipped with high-gloss stainless steel rails.

DeSelm stated in conclusion: " 'Rumpus' shuffle-targette amusement game offers the operators in this country and in many foreign markets a sturdy game that is long-lived for player appeal and stability. This United beauty is, indeed built to last!"

ROWE AMI

IN STEREO ROUND

unsurpassed music-maker! unbeatable money-maker!

Newly styled, the beauty of the Rowe AMI is just part of the story. Here, in a single phonograph are all the features you need to make money in any location. Look—

Self-contained Stereo Round*—it fills the room as if the orchestra were there. “Three-in-One” programming so you can change from 200 to 160 or 100 selections right on the spot.

A Top Talent Tune display that needs no “double” titles. Diamond stylus good for 50,000 plays. Full-width personalization panel. Mechanical automix at no extra charge. Light, color, motion—salesmanship, in other words.

See your Rowe AMI distributor today for the whole profitable story. You'll be glad you did.

NEW DOME DISPLAY

Here is a colorful and compelling invitation to play the 2700. It can be used for location personalization — to feature album cover in conjunction with Music of the Week or Ten Top Tunes. Limitless color combinations.

HIGH SPEED TITLE STRIP CHANGING

With dome raised, entire hinged program unit drops to a vertical position. V-shape of each section makes title strips easily accessible — saves service time. Tone arm adjustment and needle changing are high speed operations, too.

WURLITZER PROMOTION PANEL — A REAL EXTRA PLAY PRODUCER

Softly glowing, fired-on, edge lighted letters indicate the presence of Wurlitzer Stereo Music, promotes play. Panel releases downward for access to switch banks and fluorescent tube or grille color shield.

GOLDEN SELECTOR BAR FOR TEN TOP TUNES FEATURE

To the greatest play stimulating feature ever Wurlitzer has added even more appeal. Deposit a half-dollar, the Golden Bar glowingly displays the message "Press For Top Tunes." Pressing the bar extinguishes the light, starts the Top Tunes playing.

Every Wurlitzer 2700 Feature is Money in the Bank for You

The new Wurlitzer 2700 is alive with new features — each in its own way contributing to greater earning power or lowered service costs. See and hear the 2700 at your Wurlitzer Distributors. Check all the new features yourself. Compare what you hear and what you see and you'll quickly agree . . .
