Currently represented on the top 100 with "Where Have All The Flowers Gone" and high on the album charts with their "College Concert" LP, Capitol Records' Kingston Trio has been one of the most consistent best sellers of the past several years. Veteran Capitol A&R man Voyle Gilmore, who has steered the recording career of the Trio since "Tom Dooley" is shown with Bob Shane, John Stewart and Niek Reynolds as the trio cut its latest Capitol single, "Jane, Jane, Jane" and "Scotch and Soda."

THE SPLIT RECORD

One of the greatest difficulties confronting the record manufacturer today is the length of time it takes for a new release to catch on. There are endless cases of records which break into national best sellers after knocking about on the local level for as long as six or seven MONTHS. There are also ten times as many cases of good records which have died because they were unable to get concentrated national exposure in a reasonable span of time.

This problem is more intense today than it's ever been because of the change in radio programming that took place earlier this year. Prior to the mass movement to "sweeter programming" it was much easier for the manufacturer to determine which side of a record he was going to push. When he was convinced which was the "A" side, he devoted all his efforts to that deck and lost very little sleep over the few dissenters. But today manufacturers are designing their singles with the existing radio situation in mind (making one side soft and the other hard rock) and are finding themselves faced with a frequent split situation. There no longer seems to be a small group of dissenters when a new release is issued. Now air play seems to be lining up on one side of the fence or the other.

Of course, prior to the swing to the "sweeter" side, there were many split situations that created a great deal of confusion. But never have we noticed as many as in recent months.

Manufacturers themselves are avoiding making a decision as to which side to work on. In turn, this feeling is passed on to the promotion man who cannot, in many cases, offer radio a convincing suggestion on behalf of one side or the other. The end result is obviously dangerous. The exception of both sides developing into tremendous smashes is very pleasant and easy to live with. But to have two sides on the brink of success and watch both of them go down the drain is heartbreaking.

As is the case with many other problems confronting our business, there is no simple solution to the increased split record situation. Both the daring, who put all their chips on one side, and the fence straddlers, who try to ride both ends, are taking chances. It's just another phenomenon that has reared its head in recent months to make our business more complex every day.

Decca-MCA Merger Near

NEW YORK—The merger of Decca Records and the Music Corporation of America, the giant producing-talent firm, a strong trade rumour since last fall, reached the point of "imminent" and "may be any day" last week.

Indications that the move was just about a fact came about at Decca's annual stockholders' meeting last week (10) in N.Y., where besides a financial statement (see separate story) of Decca's first quarter earnings, Decca president Milton R. Rackmil told the gathering of "developments in my talks with MCA."

Rackmil stated: "On and off since the late fall, conversations were had with MCA and what began with possible production and distribution arrangements led into discussions looking to a closer tie-up of that company with Decca and its subsidiary companies. It became increasingly evident that since the activities of the respective companies are not competitive their integration would be highly beneficial to each of the operating companies. There would be no overlapping. Instead, there could and would be greater development and use of talent and personnel in all phases of phonograph record, motion picture and television production and distribution.

"There are various possibilities, one of which is an exchange of MCA stock for Decca stock. That is where we are now. The next step is for MCA to submit its offer. When that will take place I cannot say. My guess is that it is imminent and may be any day."

Though MCA wasn't talking on the subject, its president, Lew Wasserman, based on the coast, is in N.Y.

The combined gross incomes of Decca and MCA in 1961 was $173 million (Decca's total was $90.8 million, MCA's was $82.3 million).

Decca Reports Top 1st Quarter Earnings

NEW YORK—Decca Records came up with its top earnings quarter for the period ending March 30, 1962.

This was reported to stockholders last week by Decca president Milton R. Rackmil, who said that earnings in the first quarter of 1962 were $2,137,000. Earnings for a similar period last year were $963,815. The new first period total represents $1.65 per share, while the previous first period per share total is 75¢.

Rackmil told the stockholders, gathered in New York on Tues. (9), that there were indications that "this is going to be the biggest year Decca ever had."

Though the rosy financial report includes earnings from Universal Pictures, Decca's subsid, whose earnings for the first fiscal half of 1962 (ending April 28) are expected to exceed all of fiscal 1961, Rackmil noted that sales in the disk division during the first quarter of 1962 were more than double those of the initial quarter of 1961.

Also at the stockholders' meet, the entire membership of the board of directors were re-elected.

The board then re-elected the following officers: Rackmil, president; Leonard W. Schneider, executive vice-president; Louis A. Buchner, vice-president and treasurer; Milton Gabler, vice-president; Martin P. Salkin, vice-president; Samuel Yamin, secretary; Isabelle Marks, assistant secretary; and Irving E. Wiener, assistant treasurer.

The meeting was represented by 1,109,244 shares or over 86% of the company's stock in the hands of the public.

Hearings On Celler Bootlegging Bill Set For May 10th

WASHINGTON, D.C.—A hearing on the Celler Bill (HR 6354), a bill designed to impose criminal penalties on the counterfeiting of records and labels has been called for Thursday morning, May 10th before the House Judiciary Committee in Washington, D.C.

Heads of the various industry associations are now aligning representation for testimony on behalf of the recording industry. RIAA's executive secretary Henry Brief and ARMADA president Art Talmadge will testify and it is expected that by May 10th heads of many of the industry's leading record companies will be present. ARMADA will be repre-

Capitol To Tape Judy's Carnegie Follow-up "Live"

NEW YORK—On Friday evening, April 20, at 11:30 p.m., Capitol Records will record Miss Judy Garland "live" at New York's Manhattan Center before a by-invitation-only audience of some 3000 entertainment-world personalities.

Capitol will thus seek to equal the immense success of Miss Garland's 1961 smash-hit "live" recording "Judy At Carnegie Hall," an album that has been a top chart contender for the past 38 weeks.

Miss Garland's Manhattan Center program will include a dozen songs never before recorded by the artist. Mort Lindsey, who conducted Miss Garland's Carnegie concert, will again lead the orchestra. Capitol Executive A&R Producer Andy Wiswell will produce the session.

"West Side Story" Oscars Boost Disk Sales; "Moon River" Chosen Best Song

NEW YORK—The comeback for Hollywood musicals—original or otherwise—may be greatly accelerated by the showing—10 Academy Awards—of "West Side Story" last week.

The most impressive—and far reaching—"Oscar" for the flick version of the Broadway hit, produced by the Mirisch Co. for United Artists, was one for best picture of the year. In addition, the awards for best supporting actor and actress went to "Story's" Rita Moreno and George Chakiris. Another "Oscar" for the pic was for the scoring of the Leonard Bernstein melodies, by Saul Chaplin, Johnny Green, Sid Ramin and Irwin Kostal.

Columbia Records, which has the soundtrack LP (as well as the Broadway cast release) reported, by week's end, that there had already been "a sharp" increase in sales orders for the album, which tops both the mono and stereo LP charts. The awards picked-up by "Story" has also "sparked" sales of the Broadway rendition, according to Richard Smith, Columbia's director of sales administration. The label is promoting the flick's "Oscar" success with "extensive" advertising and point-of-sales promotion campaigns. Window streamers and special stickers for album covers have been sent to Columbia distributors.

In the best song category, it was, as most expected, "Moon River," from "Breakfast at Tiffany's." Writers are Henry Mancini and Johnny Mercer. Famous Music (ASCAP) is the publisher. Mancini also received an Oscar for the best musical score for a dramatic or comedy picture, also for "Tiffany's."

Columbia again capitalized on the "Moon" award by rush-releasing an LP by Andy Williams—who sang the tune on the awards telecast—called "Moon River & Other Great Movie Themes."

The LP also includes two songs from "West Side Story," "Maria" and "Tonight." Label will have a "major" advertising and promotion campaign for the LP, including colorful new dealer point-of-sales material and a special sticker for the album cover.

Mancini had a big single, on RCA Victor Records, of "Moon River," while the soundtrack LP, also on Victor, reached the top of the mono and stereo charts.

UA Kiddie Line Set For Fall Bow

NEW YORK—United Artists Records will unveil a new kiddie disk line at its distributor sales meeting in Miami Beach late in June. The showing of the complete Fall merchandise at the meeting will mark the entry of UA into this important phase of the industry.

Included in the line will be 30 standard titles, Talmadge said, with 10 packages scheduled for the initial release. Music for the 12-inch albums is performed by the Hollywood Studio Orchestra, and a special group of actors will be used for each album to portray the various characters in the stories.

The line will be divided into two categories. One package will include the 12-inch record and will sell for 99 cents. The second group will incorporate a story book into the package, with the juveniles being able to follow the record in the book, and also being able to color the picture pages. This deluxe package will list for $1.98. All albums will be colorfully illustrated and packaged.

The first 10 titles to be released are: "Robin Hood," "William Tell," "Snow White," "Cinderella," "Knights of the Round Table," "The Sleeping Beauty," "The Three Musketeers," "The Ugly Duckling," "Puss In Boots," and "The Story of Chopin Told To Young People." Each includes the full orchestral background as well as the dramatization of the story line.

The line will be backed with a complete promotion and merchandising program, including advertising, window and in-store displays and special containers for the full series.

United Artists Records had been planning the move into the children's record field for many months. The demand for quality product in this area at the retail level, from dealers and rack jobbers, has been a major factor in UA's decision to finalize its initial releases for the Fall, 1962 program.

Top Turnout At NARM Miami Meet

NEW YORK—Another excellent convention . . . still the best convention offered in the record industry . . . a convention where you get an opportunity to talk face to face with the people who buy so much of our merchandise; that was the general opinion of the 4th Annual NARM Convention held last week in Miami Beach.

More than 300 people, by far the best attendance yet, came down to this year's confab and among them were the upper echelon of every important record company.

Although a great deal of interesting conversation took place in small, informal, off-the-record, gatherings off-stage, many major topics of interest to both the rack jobber and the manufacturer came to the fore during the many panel discussions throughout the convention. One topic for discussion dealt with the "Cherry Picking" problem—that rack jobbers buy only the hits and little catalog. However, it was generally agreed that the trend on the part of the jobber was definitely in the direction of deeper catalog buying.

A complaint from one jobber that manufacturers burden them by insisting that they stock all new product was quickly negated by both manufacturers and other jobbers.

A request by a jobber for a year-round discount plan on all product was quickly nixed as amounting to a price cut. A manufacturer clarified that a discount plan was designed to up business during the slow months and push certain new product.

An advertising allowance for jobbers was another major topic. Another was how jobbers determine what they buy. Past performance of an artist and chart action were the two most important factors mentioned.

A comment that overproduction by manufacturers was choking the jobber was resolved by the statement that the vast amount of new merchandise issued produced the stars of tomorrow. All manufacturers seemed to believe in the principle of not forcing anything on the jobber that he doesn't need.

Manufacturers were also in agreement that the record distributor is the backbone of the business and the manufacturer must work with and through his distributor because of the distributor's credit control over his clients and because the manufacturer cannot keep up with the need of thousands of small operations thrown all across the country.

The subject of low priced phonographs to up singles sales was also brought up and Jack Burgess of Victor stated that his company is currently working on just such a project.

All manufacturers also agreed that more statistical information on the field of rack jobbing would greatly aid in designing more saleable product.

Marek Addresses NARM On Great Need For Creativity

MIAMI, FLA.—As artistic as ever with his well chosen words and his excellent use of slides, George Marek, Vice President of RCA Victor made a number of much needed comments on the subject of "Creativity" in our business—from the manufacturer right through to the rack jobber—when he addressed the NARM Convention in Miami last week.

He opened with a blast aimed at the imitators who offer nothing in the way of improvement of music but devote all their talent to making copies of successful product and release it under the pretense of being the original. He called this kind of creativity a "thin soup." Creativity must be directed toward making of a "thick, nourishing, warm, rich soup" because music as all entertainment lives on new ideas and dies if it works by imitation or formula.

After getting this off his chest, Marek turned to a survey which Victor has begun, a "depth interview research, to help us understand our customers" and revealed these interesting findings:

1. People who like music are more active people generally. They do more of everything else, gardening, reading, etc. They have a wider range of interests than non-music lovers—a fact of importance because music lovers are therefore better customers for a great many pleasant products and luxuries sold in the same store as records.

2. For what do they use music? For three general reasons: When they are or want to feel in a romantic mood; for day dreaming; when they are happy.

"But there is one reason which overrides all others, and seems to be the main propulsive force which pushes people toward music" . . . family activity. People believe that music binds the family together. It is something that kids and grownups can enjoy in the living room.

To produce the records that will fulfill the public's needs, a creativity which is multifaceted is required. First, musical creativity. It is a known fact that the public likes melodies it can recognize both in classical and popular music. Presenting these familiar themes in a fresh way takes musical ingenuity . . . in choice of artists, arrangements, in the use of stereo, etc.

Second, packaging creativity. The album cover is almost as important as its contents. "The record industry has shown remarkable skill and occasionally fine daring in packaging concepts."

Wallichs To Jobbers: Success = Responsibility

MIAMI BEACH—"Success brings with it responsibility." This is the phrase that Glenn Wallichs, president of Capitol Records, used in his keynote speech before the NARM membership at the Eden Roc Hotel to urge rack-jobbers to recognize their responsibility to labels in the area of artist development and discounting.

" . . . we manufacturers must admit that rack sales are substantial and growing . . . but mixed with our appreciation of this fact is a significant amount of apprehension," Wallichs declared.

"Why? The major record companies have built extensive catalogs of worthwhile recordings that exist in some, and often in substantial demand. How do we gain exposure for this catalog—worth literally millions of dollars—if racks continue to take an increasing share of total record sales by concentrating only on top hits?"

" . . . we must develop new stars. Does your sense of responsibility to the record industry, of which you have become so important a part, suggest to you that you should help develop new artists?"

Wallichs said that while the rack-jobber may well put the responsibility of promotion and salesmanship on the shoulders of labels, he wondered what happened when the manufacturer, in order to sell to the rack-jobber in quantity, must discount his product to the point where there is no margin left to cover such promotional costs.

"There is obviously no pat answer to the general problem. But the heart of the problem can be summed up, I think, in this way: the capacity to 'squeeze' and to be 'squeezed' is not limitless. At some stage you will kill the goose that lays the golden egg. And when you have no more golden eggs you have no more business."

"In my view," he said, "you cannot expect the manufacturer to absorb all the financial risks peculiar to this business, and at the same time expect him to sell his product at less than cost."

Wallichs said that "in almost every case, it seems to me, you record-mer-

NARM Elects New Board Of Directors

MIAMI BEACH—A new board of directors and officers were named at the 4th Annual NARM Convention held here last week. Glenn C. Becker, of Music City Records Racks, Los Angeles, was elected president. Alvin Driscoll, Pioneer Distributing Co., of Kansas, was elected as vice-president. The post of secretary went to Ken Sachs, Merchants Wholesale Service Co. of Detroit, while George Berry, Modern Record Service of New Orleans, was re-elected treasurer. By acclamation, Jules Malamud, was named executive director instead of executive secretary.

Edward M. Snyder, Edge, Ltd. of Washington, D.C. and Becker were elected to 2 year terms on the board of directors while Cecil Steen, Record Wagon, Inc. of Boston and Driscoll were elected to serve for 3 year terms.

NARM Study: Rack-Jobber Sales At $140 Million In '61

MIAMI BEACH—Rack-jobbers accounted for $140 million in disk sales in 1961, or 27.4% of the total disk sales during the year, according to the first rack-jobber study sponsored by the National Association of Record Merchandisers (NARM).

NARM members were responsible for a gross dollar volume of $80,080,950, or 16% of disk sales at all retail levels [the NARM study reports a total sales volume of $510 million in 1961; the figure however, has been noted as being closer to $6 billion].

These figures and others concerning the rack-jobbing field were revealed for the first time last by Jules Malamud, NARM's executive director, in a speech last Mon. (9) at the association's fourth annual convention at the Eden Roc Hotel in Miami Beach.

As a separate entity in the industry, the NARM membership was responsible for 16% of the total $510 million retail disk sales for 1961.

Sixty percent of NARM members do over $1 million gross volume. "The NARM gross," Malamud noted, "is almost twice that of the juke-box operators, and exceeds the gross the highly successful record clubs by several million dollars."

Looking at the above statement "a little more realistically," Malamud said that record sales to juke box operators, some $45 million, cannot in any sense be regarded as sales to consumers. Record clubs, which account for some $75 million in disk

Pick of the Week

"HIT RECORD" (2:33) [Luristan, Dave Dreyer ASCAP—Williams]

"THANKS TO THE FOOL" (2:50)

[Bennie Benjamin, Dave Dreyer ASCAP—Benjamin, Marcus]

BROOK BENTON (Mercury 71962)

Here's one that definitely looks like another "Hit Record" for Brook Benton. It's a twistin', steady driving tongue-in-cheek description of the ingredients that go into the making of a chart item. Sensational choral and ork showcase. "Thanks To The Fool" puts the artist's outstanding beat-ballad stylings on display. Excellent companion piece.

"IT KEEPS RIGHT ON A-HURTIN'" (2:45) [Tanridge BMI—Tillotson]

"SHE GAVE SWEET LOVE TO ME" (2:18)

[Tanridge BMI—Tillotson, Tannen]

JOHNNY TILLOTSON (Cadence 1418)

Tillotson can climb way up the hit ladder with his latest Cadence stand. It's a touching, self-penned (country-flavored) lover's lament, labeled "It Keeps Right On A-Hurtin'," that Johnny shuffles thru in tender beat-ballad fashion. Coupler's a haunting, soft beat cha-cha ballad with tear-compelling love lyrics.

"DRUM STOMP" (2:03)

"DRUMMIN' UP A STORM" (2:18)

[Travis BMI—Nelson, Polodor]

[Travis BMI—Polodor]

SANDY NELSON (Imperial 5829)

Drummer-man Sandy Nelson should soon be adding another pair of percussive hits to his collection, which now includes "Drums Are My Beat" and "Birth Of The Beat." They're two attention-getters, dubbed "Drum Stomp" and "Drummin' Up A Storm," that Sandy pounds out with money-making authority. It's a toss-up for honors.

"PLAYBOY" (2:38) [Jobete BMI—Holland, Bateman, Horton, Stevenson]

"ALL THE LOVE I GOT" (2:34)

[Jobete BMI—Holland, Bradford, Gordy]

THE MARVELETTES (Tamlam 54060)

The Marvelettes, whose most recent chart triumph was "Twistin' Postman," can have their third click in-a-row as they knock one out in "Please Mr. Postman" dance style. It's a delighter with a mashed potatoes-rock-a-cha-cha tempo, tabbed "Playboy," that the teeners are sure to pick up on real quick. "All The Love I Got" takes a bright twist route on the other end.

"PALISADES PARK" (1:56)

"JUNE, JULY AND AUGUST" (2:10)

[Claridge ASCAP—Barris]

[Claridge ASCAP—Slay, Binnick, Mammarella, Picariello]

FREDDY CANNON (Swan 4106)

Freddy Cannon dishes up a pair of items that are tailor-made for the coming months. They're two sensational twisters, the multi-tracked "Palisades Park" and the frenzied "June, July And August," that Freddy and the Frank Slay ork drive out in a manner the teeners'll love. Both sides are chock full of commercial sounds.

"STRANGER ON THE SHORE" (2:40) [Mellin BMI—Bilk, Mellin]

"WHAT TO DO" (2:45)

[Sassy-Tredlow-Progressive BMI—Samad, Davis, Treadwell]

THE DRIFTERS (Atlantic 2143)

The Drifters, who are currently riding high with "When My Little Girl Is Smiling," should soon be represented in chartsville with their newest Atlantic outing. It's the first vocal version of Acker Bilk's Atco smash, "Stranger On The Shore," and it's an interesting beat-ballad stand. "What To Do" is an r&b-angled rock-a-shuffler that also looks like a strong money-maker. Slick Klaus Ogermann arrangements.

"THAT HAPPY FEELING" (2:55) [Northern ASCAP—Warren]

"TAKE ME" (3:00) [Kaempfert, Brusewitz]

BERT KAEMPFERT (Decca 31388)

Kaempfert, whose instrumentalists recently attracted loads of loot with "Afrikaan Beat," should do more of the same with this new Decca session. It's a samba-like delighter, with strings, handclaps and sans-lyric choral chants that give "That Happy Feeling." "Take Me," on the other end, takes an easy-goin' finger-snappin' ride.

JIMMY SMITH (Verve 10255)

(B+) "WALK ON THE WILD SIDE—PART ONE" (2:27)

(B+) "WALK ON THE WILD SIDE—PART TWO" (3:33)

[Columbia Pictures ASCAP—Bernstein] More of the same good jazz sounds. This time the action is more on the fast-moving uptempo side.

SCAPPY LEE (Pamic 81597)

(B) "SWEET THING YOU IS" (1:58)

[Anita BMI—Middleton, Watts, Newkirk] Vocalist and combo-chorus belt with good R&B zest. Date has an effective chant section. Diskery operates out of N.Y.

(C+) "UNITED (We Stand)" (1:58)

[Anita BMI—Middleton, Watts] Martial beat to this call for romantic unity.

OLGUITA (Pacific 345)

(B) "PA-PA-PACHANGA" (2:42)

[E. B. Marks BMI—Rodriguez] Lark and George Hernandez ork offer a nice easy pachanga statement. Side is from an LP called "Latinsville."

(B) "LA CONECCION" (2:31)

[Hall of Fame BMI—Hernandez] Colorful mambo cut from the LP.

JERRY MURAD'S HARMONICATS (Columbia 42412)

(B+) "THEME FROM 'CARNIVAL'" (Love Makes The World Go 'Round)" (3:07)

(B) "IT HAPPENED IN ATHENS" (2:46)

[Miller ASCAP—Hadjidakis] Outfit again speaks softly on a pretty item—also previously cut by other artists—by the writer of "Never On Sunday."

ROD LAUREN (RCA Victor 8020)

(B+) "I DREAMED" (2:24)

[Cherio BMI—Greene, Moore] The years-back hit by Betty Johnson is updated with bright Latinish polish by the songster on his return to the Victor label. His warble is assisted by male chorus chant gimmicks that resemble The Marcels' "Blue Moon" smash. Could bring the tune back to chart recognition.

(B) "A WONDROUS PLACE" (2:14)

[Hill & Range BMI—Giant, Lewis] A softer Latinish go for an intriguing romantic number.

BIG BEN BANJO BAND (King 5627)

(B+) "MARCH OF THE ANGELS" (2:29)

[Ardmore & Beechwood Ltd. ASCAP—Stellman, Aznavour, Garvarentz] English import has an attention-getting familiar melodic line and march beat presentation, which involves a chanting male chorus against a bright banjo-led instrumental setting. Could make noise.

(B) "BOURBON STREET SHUFFLE" (2:34)

[Ivy Ltd. ASCAP—Paramor] Sunny stuff in the English "trad" style.

FRED ASTAIRE (Choreo 100)

(B+) "THANK YOU SO MUCH MISSUS LOWSBOROUGH GOODBY" (2:01)

[Columbia Pictures ASCAP—Porter] Fred Astaire's Choreo label, handled by MGM, has released a single from LP of musical moments from the three Astaire TV "evenings." The performer delightfully narrates a rare Cole Porter item, one of his satirical stabs at high society, this one concerning a hostess who entertains with "infinite weekends." A gracious ork sound supports. Fine adult laff fare.

(B) "THAT FACE" (2:08)

[Empress ASCAP—Spence, Bergman] The LP is also the source of a typical Astaire ballad warble.

PETE RUGOLO (Mercury 71957)

(B+) "THEME FROM BEN CASEY" (2:07)

[Marfran ASCAP—Raksin] This is an exciting, jazz-inclined reading of the majestic theme of the extremely popular TV'er. There's a toned-down easy-swing middle section.

(B) "MY THREE SONS THEME" (1:13)

[Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—DeVol] Soprano sax tops the continental-styled main-title of another TV series. Both tracks stem from an LP, "TV's Top Themes."

JESSIE HILL (Minit 646)

(B+) "CAN'T GET ENOUGH (Of That Ooh Poo Pah Doo)" (2:37)

(B) "THE POT'S ON A STRIKE" (1:53)

[Minit BMI—Neville] Catchy blues humor item about a wife who hasn't been "acting right."

THE MONTAGUES (Lee 1005)

(B) "I JUST KISSED ELIZABETH" (1:48)

[Adams—Ethrige BMI—Adams, Ethrige] Good-natured rock-a-billy doings with "one-eye," says the label, on the current publicity on the marital difficulties between Elizabeth Taylor and Eddie Fisher. Latter publicity or not, deck has a good commercial sound.

KATYNA RANIERI (MGM 13071)

[Arc-Kae Williams BMI—The Strangers] Boys display a Coasters-like approach on the lively novelty cut. Their combo accompaniment speaks a solid-sounding sock-rock language.

(B) "DARLIN'" (2:28)

[Arc-Kae Williams BMI—The Strangers] Lead voice has a honest way as he recites the pleasing lovey-dovey.

Pick of the Week

"INTERMEZZO" (2:52) [SESAC—Provost]

"THE SKATERS WALTZ" (2:34) [Trad.]

ROGER WILLIAMS (Kapp 454)

Here's another beautiful entry from keyboard master Roger Williams. It's the lovely oldie, "Intermezzo," that Roger and the Ralph Carmichael ork serve up in ear-arresting fashion. Should be all over the airways in the coming weeks. Artists tastefully glide over another old favorite on the flip portion.

"COMFY 'N COZY" (2:02) [Roosevelt BMI—Blackwell, Scott]

"A LITTLE PIECE OF HEART" (2:31)

[St. Louis BMI—Blackwell, Scott]

CONWAY TWITTY (MGM 13072)

It's a good bet that Twitty will soon be adding "Comfy 'N Cozy" to his long list of chart credits. It's a chorus-backed rhythm shuffler that could make a big splash in the country and pop marts. Flipside, the chanter wrings every ounce of emotion out of "A Little Piece Of Heart." Effective mid-deck recitation.

"NA-NE-NO" (2:30) [Trio BMI—Dinol]

"JUST BECAUSE" (2:46) [Pamco BMI—Price]

TROY SHONDELL (Liberty 55445)

"Na-Ne-No" has what it takes to put Troy Shondell back on the winning track. It's an attention-getting rock-a-cha-cha novelty with click ingredients notched into every groove of the lid. Fascinating vocal and musical sounds along the way on this Phil Spector-arranged date. Backing's a flavorful, beat-ballad up-dating of the while-back Lloyd Price hit stand.

"BROKEN HEARTS

"LET'S LEAVE IT THAT WAY"

ANONYMOUS" (2:57)

(2:15)

[Big Bopper BMI—Clement]

[Aldon BMI—Shayne, Brooks]

JOHNNY PRESTON (Mercury 71951)

Preston comes up with a powerful new duo that could enter hitsville via both ends. One half is a captivating, beat ballad lament tabbed "Broken Hearts Anonymous" while the other is tearful rock-a-cha-cha affair labeled "Let's Leave It That Way." Top notch, two-sided choral-ork support for Preston's standout vocal efforts.

"TEENAGE SENORITA" (2:34)

[Almimo BMI—Barberis, Weinstein, Randazzo]

"U.S. MAIL" (2:17)

[South Mountain BMI—Weinstein, Barberis, Randazzo]

TEDDY RANDAZZO (ABC-Paramount 10312)

Randazzo can head back to hitdom with his newest ABC-Paramount effort. It's a dramatic, bolero-like opus, titled "Teenage Senorita," that Teddy puts across (partly dual-tracked) with telling effect. Excellent string-filled ork and choral support from Sid Feller's outfit. The Dazzlers colorfully join Randazzo as he delivers the "U.S. Mail" in catchy rock-a-cha-cha style. Watch it too!

"I NEED YOU" (2:11)

"SHOW BOAT" (1:53)

[Floyd Robinson BMI—Robinson] [Floyd Robinson BMI—Robinson]

FLOYD ROBINSON (Dot 16352)

Robinson, who clicked a short-while back (on Victor) with "Makin' Love," can have his first Dot chart-maker with this one. It's a rock-a-cha-cha-twist'er, tagged "I Need You," that Floyd and the ork deliver in coin-catching style. "Show Boat," a sparkling dual-tracked jumper, also has a solid chart outlook. Could be a big double-header.

"COME ON AND TRUCK" (1:56)

"TROUBLES ON MY MIND"

[Progressive - Trio - Placid BMI —

(2:00)

Turner]

[Progressive-Placid BMI—Turner]

THE IKETTES (Atco 6223)

The gals, who make a big impression on both the pop and r&b hit lists, can repeat that success with this new Atco ditty. On it, a tantalizing rock-a-cha-cha-like ditty, the Ikettes hope to create a new teen dance fad as they sing "Come On And Truck." Coupler, a pounding, middle beat blueser tabbed "Troubles On My Mind," is also loaded with hit potential. Watch 'em both.

THE VARJU BROS.

(Mercury 71963)

(B+) "LOLITA" (2:13) [Chappell ASCAP—Harris, Riddle] The oft-cut pic main-title receives a pretty outing by the harmonica duo, who are supported by a soft string-included ork arrangement. Good mood-music version of the waltzer.

(B) "DANCE OF LOVE" (2:06) [S. & H. BMI—Dorf, Michaelides] Bouncy novelty whose vehicle is a reminder of "Never On Sunday."

RAY ELLIS ORCH.

(RCA Victor 8023)

(B+) "DUMPY" (2:00) [Spanka BMI—Anka] A good-humored stint, with a whacky chant voice, that has a made-in-Mexico style. Could be a winner for the Ellis Ork.

(B) "ROUTE 66 THEME" (2:09) [Gower BMI—Riddle] The maestro's own theme for the favorite TV'er is a swingin' ork affair, including his knack for coming-up with a hip sound from the string section. Commercial jazz-oriented instrumental.

(B) "LOLITA YA YA" (2:33) [Chappell ASCAP—Riddle] Nelson wrote this sprightly ditty for the upcoming flick version of "Lolita." Chorus offers a "ya-ya" bit.

FRANK CHACKSFIELD ORCH.

(London 9519)

(B+) "EBB TIDE" (2:47) [Robbins ASCAP—Maxwell] Popular mood maestro from England directs a lush revival of his beautiful years-back smash, getting new exposure in the pic, "Sweet Bird Of Youth." Here's a commanding "Ebb Tide" cut.

(B) "FACE TO FACE" (2:23) [Burlington ASCAP—Berlioz, Arr. Rogers] A tune by Hector Berlioz retains much of its classical form in this big-sounding arrangement.

BERNARD GRIBBINS

(Verve 10253)

(B+) "THE HOLE IN THE GROUND" (1:50) [Duchess BMI—Dicks, Rudge] Zany cockney novelty is a current hit in England. The Gribbins stint is supported by a swingin' combo sound. Might interest U.S. humor jocks.

(B) "AND ALL THE WHILE" (2:58) [Duchess BMI—Rudge, Dicks] An engaging folk novelty is charmingly performed by both the performer and his cheerful ork backdrop.

CAROL LAWRENCE"

(Choreo 102)

Attractive moody sound from the lush ork. Track is from an LP, "This Heart Of Mine." MGM distributes the label.

(B) "TELL ME LIES" (2:39) [Wolf-Mills ASCAP—Wolf, Landesman] Another inviting romantic caress from the package.

PRINCE CHARLES (Class 301)

(B) "TWISTIN' AT THE POOL" (2:35) [Recordo BMI—Vikki] Poolside humor with a jungle-type twist beat. Arrangement includes a vocal, "crowd" and splashing of water sounds. An original use of the dance fad.

(B) "GOOD LUCK CHARM" (2:10) [Gladys ASCAP—Schroeder, Gold] Elvis Presley's latest triumph get a sort of Bill Black Combo easy shuffle-beat sound from the instrumentalists. Good change-of-pace programming on the now familiar ditty.

GORDON JENKINS ORCH.

(Time 1049)

(B+) "(Love Theme From) LOLITA" (2:13) [Chappell ASCAP—Harris] After striking string and harp comments in the opening, the ork goes into a lovely string-loaded reading of the oft-cut pic theme. A poignant portrayal of what may be a big number.

(B) "HAVA NAGILA" (2:28) [Leeds ASCAP—Jenkins] Lots of hi-fi color to this rendition of the familiar opus. Session stems from an LP, "Soul Of A People."

GINA BOYER (Liberty 55447)

(B+) "TWILIGHT TIME" (2:27) [Porgie BMI—Ram, Nevins, Nevins, Dunn] Oldie is done with good blues-oriented rock sense by the songstress and her band backing. There's a dynamic quality here that could get the deck heavy exposure.

(B) "I DON'T HURT ANYMORE" (2:30) [Hill & Range BMI—Rollins, Robertson] Good hard-beat blues listening.

REG OWEN ORCH. (Palette 5096)

(B+) "TANGO ITALIANO" (2:25) [Southern ASCAP—Malgoni, Pallesi, Beretta] Tune, a current hit in Italy, gets a rich-sounding going-over from the English ork and chorus, which offers both Italian lyrics and chants. Strong ork sparkle here.

(B) "EL TORO TANGO" (2:27) [Zodiac BMI—van Wetter] A gayer tango affair.

THE RUSSELLS

(ABC-Paramount 10319)

(B+) "WASTIN' AWAY FOR YOU" (2:28) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—David, Bacharach] Though the theme is wistful, tune has a charm that is admirably conveyed, in a light rock-a-cha style, by the talented larks. Engaging teen-slanted lovey-dovey.

(B+) "FOR ALL TIME" (2:38) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—David, Bacharach] Gals appealingly cuddle a touching true-love opus. Also a worthy outing.

BILLY ECKSTINE (Mercury 71967)

(B+) "GUILTY" (3:04) [Leo Feist & Whiting ASCAP—Kahn, Akst, Whiting] It's good to hear a disk version of the fine oldie again, especially in such a pleasing performance as this. Smooth Eckstine warble is supported by an inviting softie sound from the ork. Likely to get lots of station spins.

(B) "I WANT TO TALK ABOUT YOU" (3:05) [St. Louis VMI—Eckstine] The artist has written an agreeable sentimental, which he handles with inviting warmth.

(B+) "GREENFIELDS (Verte Campagne)" (2:00) [Montclare BMI—Varnay, Mamoudy] Jocks ought to take to this swingin', French-lyric version of the awhile-back hit by The Brothers Four. Song crew's slick blend is backed by a breezy swing sound from the ork (with strings). Big exposure could mean big coin.

(B) "ALEGRI" (2:01) [Moonchild & United Artists ASCAP—DeJesus] Attractive tune gets a lush cha-cha arrangement from the Luchi ork, also the backdrop on the flip side.

HARRY M 6 MARVELS

(ABC-Paramount 10321)

(B+) "I WON'T LOVE BACK" (2:45) [Nite-Time BMI—Middlebrooks] Highly distinctive blues-oriented ballad vocal from the songster and his harmonica-included combo accompaniment. This touching take has originality and could move after enough exposure, which it certainly deserves.

(B) "YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE" (2:35) [Peer International BMI—Davis, Mitchell] The oldie gets a hard-beat, funky reading that should interest the youngsters.

CHARLIE RICH (Phillips 3576)

(B+) "EASY MONEY" (2:34) [Hi Lo BMI—Rich] Infectious relaxed rock reading of a novelty ditty about a guy who has learned that acquiring "easy-money" can lead to hard times. Could catch-on.

(B) "MIDNITE BLUES" (2:50) [Knox BMI—Rich] There's also a contagious touch to this blueser.

THE DELTAS (20th Fox 300)

(B+) "WAITED ALL NIGHT" (2:10) [Delaware ASCAP—Voorhees, Voorhees] Songsters have an interesting bounce blend here on a haunting number with a spiritual-like feel. There's also effective narrative sections. Offbeat end that could mean something.

(B) "BYE BYE TOWN" (2:16) [Delaware ASCAP—Arnold] Quick-beat rock-a-billy stint.

ERNIE FIELDS (Rendezvous 170)

(B+) "ERNIE'S TUNE" (2:18) [Lizann BMI—Hemric, Kay] The Fields' ork, which has had recent chart dates, could move again with this pounding rocker, which also includes wordless chorus work. Should be eyed.

(B) "HUCKLEBUCK (Twist)" (2:29) [Chappell ASCAP—Farnon] Yet another rock (or twist) reading of the oldie—and it's a solid one.

CHRIS CONNOR (Atlantic 5017)

(B+) "THE SWEETEST SOUNDS" (2:32) [Williamson ASCAP—Rodgers] The lovely "No Strings" ballad gets a strong, swingin' jazz-eye view from the stylist Al Cohn's ork. This one's fine for all-around programming.

(B) "OPPORTUNITY" (3:04) [E. B. Marks BMI—Brown] Bluesy stint is somewhat more far-out.

RONNIE ISLE & THE YO YO'S

(Okeh 7148)

(B+) "HASSLE" (2:14) [Lowery BMI—Isle] Both the blues and pop (teen) markets have a original bit of sock whackiness here. Lead voice has a narrative manner, while the musicians provide a strong jungle-type, (including a "shout" gimmick) setting. Could move.

(B) "THE FLAME'S GONE OUT" (1:52) [Earl Barton BMI—Isle] Interesting tune is done in good-sounding quick-beat style.

JAY JAY & THE SELECTONES

(Guest 6201)

(B) "HUMPTY DUMPTY" (2:35) [Miljay ASCAP—Selectones, Petty] Contagious R&B-flavored use of the famed nursery-rhyme character. Outing from the New York label makes bright rock sense.

(C+) "WHEN I LOOK AROUND" (2:30) [Miljay ASCAP—Selectones, Petty] Another sunny session.

CURLY WIGGINS (Plaza 503)

(B) "NOBODY TO LOVE" (1:55) [Argo BMI—Miles] Warbler Wiggins and his combo backing do a simple, but generally effective stint on a catchy wistful whose melodic line has a spiritual-like quality. Something a little different in teen-market tracks from the Hollywood-based diskery.

(B) "GOOD, GOSH, GOLLY" (2:25) [Argo BMI—Paul] Brighter date with a blues-folk touch.

BILL MASSEY (Guyden 2063)

(B) "WHAT'CHA GONNA DO" (2:34) [Jamie BMI—Lendon] This amiable band blueser maintains a steady, good-sounding twist beat. Male chorus now-and-then interjects with the title.

(B) "STILL WALKIN'" (2:24) [Jamie BMI—Lendon] A shuffle-beat outing for teen-inclined dance steps.

JACKIE JAMES (Alfa 104)

(B) "ROVER GIRL" (2:34) [Fayhill—Hille] Some interesting rhythmic vocal and instrumental comments to this sprightly ditty about a chick who's searching for the love that got away. Some spins due the date.

(B) "BEWARE" (2:00) [Fayhill—Hille] Relaxed statement about the dangers of loving a careless heart.

FREDNA PARKER (Norman 518)

(B) "ALL YOU HAVE TO DO" (2:35) [Gil BMI—Moore, Wayne] Thrush, against cool swinging from a jazz combo, nicely warbles the say-you're-sorry-and-I'll-come-back romantic. Might interest some hip jocks.

(C+) "IT'S SPRING AGAIN" (2:15) [Gaslight BMI—Henry, Michaels] More jazzy doings on a wistful plane.

RITA RICHARDS (Torch 952)

(B) "GONE IS MY BABY" (2:30) [Cortile BMI—Abbott, Ledo] Lark warbles the plaintive against a triplet-falsetto femme backdrop affair.

(C+) "SOMETHING IN THE WIND" (2:05) [Cortile BMI—Abbott, Ledo] This is a rapid-fire pseudo-hillbilly novelty that has its off-beat moments. One of these is a weird guitar gimmick.

THE IDEALS (Fargo 1024)

(B) "THE DUCHESS" (2:35) [Instant BMI—Schwartz] This is an interesting instrumental rocker on a number that closely resembles Dion's "Runaround Sue." Lots of teen-beat value here.

(B) "TRANS ZIZSTOR" (2:35) [Instant BMI—Schwartz] Bouncy beat start, but a swingin' rock finish.

KATHY BRANDON

(Crystalette 748)

(C+) "DON'T GO" (2:16) [Carsey & Hilde BMI—Brandon] Young (11) thrush chirps against a sprightly combo-chorus rockin'.

(C+) "BOY OF MY DREAMS" (2:10) [Carsey & Hilde BMI—Brandon, Koll] Lass has a chant gimmick throughout this item.

SUE LEBAN (Bandbox 295)

(C+) "FORGIVE ME" (1:59) [Myers ASCAP—Cherney, McCall] A big-sounding rock-a-string arrangement backs the lark's emotional warble.

(C+) "IT'S ALL OVER" (2:08) [Myers ASCAP—Cherney, McCall] A more relaxed lost-love idea.

TRAVIS EDMONSON

(Reprise 20,071)

(B) "CURANTA LA MERA (Guantanamo)" (2:40) [Carte BMI—Arr. & Adapt. Edmonson] Folk artist heads a colorful south-of-the-border sound, something like the late Ritchie Valens' famed "La Bomba." Can get around.

(B) "THE WEB" (2:30) [Carte BMI—Edmonson] Pretty romantic with a folk heritage.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTERN

Joey Dee and the Starlighters, of Peppermint Lounge fame, recently came twistin' in Tidewater, Virginia for a benefit show. WGH-Norfolk co-operated with a local sorority in promoting the dance tagged "A Night With Joey Dee." As a result it was sold out in advance. The station's swingin' six air personalities were on hand for the dance and evening spinner Keith James served as host for the affair. The songster arrived in Tidewater early enough in the day to appear on several of the deejay's shows. WGH reports that the twist craze is stronger than ever as a result of the Joey Dee appearance.

Ted Atkins, program director of KDAB-Denver, sends in word that his station utilized an off-beat promo to highlight the new KDAB operation. The station bought an old model A Ford and painted it up with call letters, frequency, etc. They hired several students from the Denver University to dress up as the untouchables (trench coats and toy machine guns) and drive around the town for an entire week visiting shopping centers and record stores promoting the station.

Jack Lazare, WINS-New York spinner, has a new funny bone segment, during which he plays only comedy albums. The bit is so successful that top comics have taken to dropping in to the studio. Recent visitors included Charlie Manna and Dick Gregory. Jack recently saluted Maceo ("Sweet Georgia Brown") Pinkard on his 40th anniversary with ASCAP.

Columbia wax star Jerry Vale was a recent guest on Paul Compton's special "one hour, in person" guest on his KHJ-Hollywood show. Jazz clarinetist Pete Fountain gets the next live treatment on Compton's program. The 60-minute weekly segment is part of the deejay's four-hour show.

Dick Moore, news director, KBOX-Dallas has again won the quarterly award for the best coverage of radio news, presented by the Press Club of Dallas. Moore has been recognized in the past for his consistent and complete coverage of local news.

Tuesday, April 10, WJAS-Pittsburgh went strictly "for the birds." Program manager Gil Faggen put the day aside to recognize morning man Jim Fitzgerald's new wake-up partner, a six month old canary. Music exclusively "for the birds" was featured throughout the day including such numbers as "Red Red Robbin," "Cry Of The Wild Goose" and "Flamingo."

Harold "Pie" Traynor, KQV-Pittsburgh sports director, threw out the first ball when the Pittsburgh Pirates opened the 1962 season against the Philadelphia Phillies at Forbes Field on Tuesday, April 10th. Traynor, former third baseman and manager of the Pirates, a member of baseball's Hall of Fame, has been KQV's sports director for the past 19 years.

WINS-New York listeners are being offered the opportunity of winning prizes by submitting the most exciting, tense moment, they have ever experienced, in 50 words or less. This contest is being run in conjunction with the opening of Columbia Picture's "Experiment In Terror." The five most exciting and stimulating letters will win transistor clock radios. The next twenty runners-up will receive passes to "Experiment In Terror."

WWDC-Washington, and Interstate Building Association have been named as winners of the National Safety Council's Public Interest Award for 1961. These annual awards are in recognition of exceptional service to safety by mass communication, and to honor leadership, initiative and originality in the promotion of accident prevention through communication. This is the seventh consecutive year that WWDC has received the award. WWDC was honored for its continued year round broadcasting activities in traffic safety, including safety editorials, the recording of safety spots by district officials, stupid driver awards and a constant flow of traffic and safety reminders. The Interstate Building Association was singled out for its sponsorship throughout the year of the "Interstate on the Road" segment of the station's Carroll James show.

WBBF-Rochester has set Friday, May 25 as the date for the 4th annual family prom at the Rochester Community War Memorial. Last year 10,000 people were entertained by Jack Scott, Janie Grant, Gene Pitney, Tony Orlando, Bryan Hyland and Neil Scott. This is WBBF's yearly thank you to its listeners for their loyalty. No admission is charged. Artists interested in appearing should contact Jack Palvino at the station.

Whoever said 13 is an unlucky number? It may be unlucky for some people, but where WERE-Cleveland and the Cleveland Indians are concerned, apparently it isn't. The number 13 crops up quite frequently when reviewing the facts about WERE and the Indians. WERE's call letters are 1300. Opening Day in Cleveland, Friday the 13th, marked the beginning of the station's 13th year of Indian broadcasting. It was on a Friday the 13th that the Indians switched their broadcasts to WERE, 13 years ago. This July marks WERE's completion of 13 years of AM broadcasting. Veteran sportscaster Jimmy Dudley is beginning his 13th year of baseball broadcasting for the Indians on the Ohio outlet. And then there's Harry Jones, new WERE baseball sportscaster. He's covered the Indians as either a writer or broadcaster for the past 13 years. Sort of makes you wonder, doesn't it? What's all this about 13 being an unlucky number?

VITAL STATISTICS

Dale Kelly exits his program director chair at WATS-Sayre, Penna., to take over the 7-midnight shift over WPOP-Hartford. . . . Bill Jones, formerly of WIBG-Philadelphia, moves back to his home town to spin 'em on WMEX-Boston. . . . Morrie Carlson now holding down deejay duties over WLOL-Minneapolis. . . . Roger Ferrier, longtime Portland air personality has joined the staff of KISN-Portland. The spinner will occupy the 9-12 PM slot and will use the new moniker of Roger Hart.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Falcons

The present Falcons were formed in 1959 and have appeared in clubs in every major city in the United States. They achieved tremendous success with a hit recording in that year, "You're So Fine," which was followed by appearances on top-rated TV DJ shows.

The members of the Falcons are Mack Rice, Joe Stubbs, Lance Finnie, Eddie Floyd and Ben Night, all of whom hail from Detroit. Rice and Floyd do much of the writing of material for the group.

The group's current single, "I Found A Love," occupies the number 67 slot on this week's Top 100. The wax is on the Lu Pine Label which is distributed by Atlantic Records.

Billy Storm

Billy Storm, who is currently clicking with "Love Theme From El Cid" on Infinity, began his participation in music when his family moved out to California from Dayton, Ohio, eight years ago. Billy attended Los Angeles High School and joined the A Cappella choir, eventually becoming soloist. He was also actively interested in basketball and, for a time, it was a toss-up as to which activity he would pursue.

After high school he joined the Valiants as the group lead. In the process of looking for career management the group was brought to the attention of Manny Shribman. Manny was so impressed with Billy that he advised him to go out as a single and signed him as a client.

Billy ultimately signed with Columbia Records. His first wax, "I've Come Of Age," a popular adaptation of Tchaikovsky's "Fifth Symphony," was an instantaneous hit. As the record climbed the charts the chanter appeared on numerous television programs and his career began to take on star proportions. The rest is history.

At present, the songster is busy studying music, acting and in general preparing himself for what promises to be a very bright future.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"THE MIDNIGHT SPECIAL"—Harry Belafonte—RCA Victor LPM 2449

Here's another sock album package showcasing the versatile musical talents of Harry Belafonte. This superb Jimmy Jones arranged and conducted disk contains bands in the jazz, gospel, soul and pop veins with the chanter turning in one of his most potent and feelingful performances to date. Some outstanding items here are the title tune of "Midnight Special," "On Top Of Old Smokey" and "Muleskinner." LP has all the necessary success ingredients to score heavily in the coin department.

"TWISTIN' 'N' TWANGIN'"—Duane Eddy—RCA Victor LPM 2525

For his premiere album for Victor Duane Eddy offers up a danceable group of twist items which have clicked for other artists. Eddy's supercharged, haunting, distinctive guitar sound is quickly evidenced on this swingin' session which boasts the support of the Rebels. All of the Eddy albums have scored in the past and this new package should go a similar success route. Some potent bands on the disk are "The Peppermint Twist," "Sugartime Twist," and "Dear Lady Twist."

"TWISTIN' THE NIGHT AWAY"—Sam Cooke—RCA Victor LPM 2555

Sam Cooke cashes in on the success of his recent chart-riding single entry of "Twistin' The Night Away" to tag this disk of self-penned items and traditional items rendered with a hard-driving, powerful twistin' beat. There have been a seemingly endless barrage of twist LP's released in recent months but this professional, listenable offering should find favor with a legion of swingin' twisters. The songster demonstrates his winning talents with the title tune, "Twistin' In The Kitchen With Dinah," "A Whole Lotta Woman" and "Camptown Twist." Sure-fire chart package.

"TWIST PARTY VOLUME 2"—Ventures—Dolton BLP 2014

The Ventures come on strong for their second package of uptempo twist items and their sharp guitar sounds coupled with some first-rate eight-to-the-bar arrangements should bring a slew of their fans. The boys unleash their potent, rockin' talents full-blast on such swinging tunes as "Besame Mucho," "Swanee River Twist" and "Red Wing Twist." Plenty of terpsichorean delight to be had here. Disk should step out in the sales department.

"SONGS EVERYBODY KNOWS"—"Big" Tiny Little—Coral CRL 757412

In this aptly tagged, joyful offering from Coral, "Big" Tiny Little's undisputed talent on the honky tonk piano is put to use in a host of old songs made refreshing by this versatile interpretation. In medleys of two, the 88'er plays twenty-four cleverly arranged melodies of a by-gone era. Launching the session with "Who's Sorry Now" the keyboard artist follows it with such nifties as "Moon Glow," "Sweet Lorraine," and "For Me And My Gal." This exceptional disk seems to be headed for chartdom.

"ALL AMERICAN"—Original Cast—Columbia KOL 5760

"All-American," the musical that brings Ray Bolger back to Broadway after an 11 year absence, makes for an enjoyable original-cast LP. Charles Strouse and Lee Adams follow their "Bye Bye Birdie" score with a sprightly, if less successful, collection of amiable songs. Top entry is the haunting "Once Upon A Time," one of the most impressive ballads of the nearly concluded 1961-62 Broadway season. It's wonderfully rendered by Bolger, heard on 10 tracks, and Eileen Herlie.

"GEORGE GREELEY PLAYS GEORGE GERSHWIN"—Warner Brothers 1451

George Greeley interprets the music of George Gershwin with sensitivity and nuances that reflect a deep-seated knowledge of the composer's works. Gershwin's music speaks eloquently for itself, and the pianist gives talented and artistic renditions of the melodies. Some noteworthy listening bands are "Bess You Is My Woman," "A Foggy Day," and "Rhapsody In Blue." Greeley, a best-seller in the past, should be a contender for the charts with this LP.

PHILIPS

JOHNNY HALLYDAY SINGS AMERICA'S ROCKIN' HITS

"JOHNNY HALLYDAY SINGS AMERICA'S ROCKIN' HITS"—Philips PHS 600 019

Johnny Hallyday is France's newest chanting sensation and this Philips session cut in Nashville as his first American LP shows him to be an exciting, magnetic vocal talent. The songster kicks things off with current noisemaker of "Shake The Hand Of A Fool" and sets the pace for the eleven other rockin' hits that previously scored in the States. Hallyday's potent voice renders top-rung arrangements of "Blueberry Hill," "Hello Mary Lou" and "Diana." Plenty of chart potential here.

STEREO

"BRAZEN BRASS GOES LATIN"—Henry Jerome—Decca DL 74226

Henry Jerome's previous packages have proven successful in the past and this new album, the seventh in the current series, spotlighting Latin and Afro-Cuban rhythms should go a similar success path. The orkster effectively utilizes a potent Latin rhythm section for Dick Jacobs-arranged renditions of "Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White," "Brazil" and "Anna." Deejays and non-twisters should come out for this quality album in droves.

"FRENCH STYLE"—Dean Martin—Reprise R 6021

For his first LP outing for Reprise Dean Martin directs attention to a lovely group of a dozen French-flavored items skillfully arranged and conducted by Neal Hefti. The songster kicks things off with a slow swingin' arrangement of "C'est Si Bon" and quickly moves into top-flight renditions of such Gallic favorites as "April In Paris" and "The Last Time I Saw Paris." Superior listening enjoyment throughout. Disk should become a strong seller.

"THE ELECTRIFYING ARETHA FRANKLIN"—Columbia CL 1761

Aretha Franklin unleashes her powerful vocal and keyboard talents in a dozen evergreens which showcase her gospel-trained style. Although the thrush is a newcomer to the trade, she has made some important chart inroads with her recent best-selling singles "Rock-A-Bye Your Baby," "Rough Lover," and "I Surrender Dear," all of which are included on this LP. Some other fine tracks are "Exactly Like You" and "That Lucky Old Sun." The disk looms as a strong seller.

"AN EXCITING EVENING AT HOME WITH THE INTERNATIONAL POP ORCHESTRA"—Cameo SC 4001

Here's a listenable session of favorites beautifully-essayed by the 110-man pops ork and re-recorded with magnificent stereo qualities in 4-track 35mm film. This top-drawer sound package, cut in London, has the ork turning in superb renditions of "Peanut Vendor," "Moonlight In Vermont" and "High And The Mighty." There's enough listening enjoyment here to attract a wide variety of record buyers.

"DON'T MESS WITH TESS"—Teresa Brewer—Coral CRL 757414

Coming on stronger than ever, Tess lashes out with a batch of oldies and newies full of the same ingredients for success which have made her efforts hot items in the past. In addition to some powerful vocalizing, the talented songstress helped pen the title tune. With some swingin' backing by orkster Luther Henderson, the thrush reads such favorites as "Some Of These Days," "I Cried For You," and "You Came A Long Way From St. Louis." The disk should bring out a host of Brewer fans.

"MR. OLIVER TWIST"—Rod McKuen—Jubilee JGM 5013

Rod McKuen takes advantage of his recent chart-riding single of "Oliver Twist" to name this first-rate package of distinctively-read popular items, many of them self-penned by the songster. McKuen has the ability to belt out a rock-a-billy tune with the same assurance and poise that he brings to ballad. The session showcases the chanter's wide-range, high-spirited voice on such songs as "Let's Twist Again," "What'd I Say" and "Hey Baby."

SONODOR RECORDS (A Product of Miller International)

"FRENCHY"—Les Compagnons de la Chanson—Capitol ST 10311

This cheerful offering by Capitol features the happy and talented voices of Les Compagnons de la Chanson. Singing a dozen melodies from around the world in their very lucid French, the group, for the first time, is supported by an orchestra which provides authentic rhythms for their international tunes. Included in the LP are "Le Bleu De L'Été," "La Marmite," a Brazilian specialty, and "Notre Concerto." Disk should pull coin with the group's admirers.

"LATIN SI!"—Warren Covington—Decca DL 74208

This package by Decca, designed for dancing, offers an assortment of Latin rhythms with varying tempos which include the merengue, the cha cha, and the currently popular pachanga. Under the baton of Warren Covington, the band plays some smooth and very danceable arrangements of "Wild Pachanga," "Dream Tango," "Yellow Bird," and "The Moon And I." To these fine numbers are added eight other tunes with a solid Latin beat.

"15 GOLDEN HITS"—Various Artists—United Artists UAS 6192

United Artists has come up with fifteen hit tunes enticingly wrapped in one package. Most of the items were chart items in the past and this collective release should spark new sales. The disk boasts an impressive roster of artists playing and singing their best-sellers. Included on the LP are "Portrait Of My Love" by Steve Lawrence, Ferrante & Teicher's "Tonight" and "Theme From The Apartment," and "Magnificent Seven" by Al Caiola.

"PASSOVER SEDER FESTIVAL"—Richard Tucker—Columbia ML 5736

Richard Tucker, who usually graces the stage of the Metropolitan opera, offers some of best known prayers and chants from the Passover Seder on this excellent Columbia LP. Sholom Secunda, who handles the conducting chores, has composed the service and Ben Irving provides the narration. The package has a timely value as the holiday comes at the end of this month. Tucker turns in a masterful, melodic performance on the session as does organist Alexander Richardson.

"BEI MIR TWIST DU SCHON"—Temples—Ad Lib A-225

In this package of twisters from Ad Lib, the instrumental group gives out with a set of old Jewish melodies with an interesting combination of beat, melody, arranging, and musicianship. Somewhat less violent than many of the current twist offerings, the disk has some good danceable tracks such as the title tune "Bei Mir Twist Du Schon," "Hava Nagila"—Twist, and "Salty Bublitchki"—Twist.

"FAST LIFE WOMAN"—Lightnin' Hopkins—Verve 8543

Lightnin' Hopkins, a leading exponent of the "angry blues," indulges in some serious soul-searching in his moving delivery of this collection of blues numbers. The singer uses the blues, in a very personal and down-to-earth style, to give vent to his feelings and as a social commentary of the life of the American Negro. His attitudes are potently expressed as he reads "Tim Moore's Farm," "Short Haired Woman," and "Travelin' Blues" and other slow-tempo blues items.

"LATINSVILLE"—Olguita—World-Pacific WP 1801

World Pacific have come up with a top-drawer LP outing containing vocal and instrumental versions of the most requested Latin dances. This listenable, danceable package boasts the talents of Olguita whose full-bodied, rich tones are perfectly suited for the big band sound of George Hernandez. The lark belts out a tasty sampling of cha chas, boleros and pachangas including smooth renditions of "Baila Tu," "La Mejor" and "La Conecion."

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"ANDRE PREVIN AND J. J. JOHNSON"—Columbia CL 1741

The combination of Andre Previn and J. J. Johnson playing a group of Kurt Weill tunes could help this Columbia disk pick up some dual-market coin. Previn demonstrates his polished keyboard artistry while Johnson gets a chance to show-off his warm, feelingful trombone. The twosome are supported by Red Mitchell on bass and Frank Capp on drums. The tunes include some top-drawer arrangements of "Bilbao-Song," "Mack The Knife" and "Surabaya—Johnny." Strong sales candidate.

"THE BRIDGE"—Sonny Rollins—RCA Victor LPM 2527

Sonny Rollins, who has been on a two year sabbatical, comes up with his first album since his "retirement" and offers proof positive of his superior relaxed, free-flowing musical talents. The tenor saxist has cut a first-rate set which should appeal to both conservative and new-wave jazz buffs. Session has some listenable solos by Rollins and guitarist Jim Hall. Sonny shines on "Without A Song," "Where Are You" and an original item tagged "John S." The disk should win the saxist a host of new admirers.

"OH YEAH"—Charlie Mingus—Atlantic 1377

Charlie Mingus has won many laurels for himself in the past for his distinctive brand of jazz artistry and this new Atlantic disk, which premieres Mingus playing just the piano for an entire set and marks the first time that he sings, offers sure-fire proof of the jazzman's creativity and constantly progressing talents. The session has seven Mingus penned items with "Devil Woman," "Eat That Chicken" and "Passions Of A Woman" taking top honors over the selections. An added plus are the soul-searching saxophone solos of Roland Krik.

"THE SOUND OF SPRING"—Ramsey Lewis Trio—Argo LP 693

Looks like Ramsey Lewis could pull plenty of loot with this superbly-planned disk of free-flowing jazz geared to theme of Spring. The first side features the trio offering some newie evergreens against a lush backing of strings. Best listening bets are the title tune of "Sound Of Spring" and "Spring Is Here." The second side has the trio playing strictly solo. Here the group comes off in fine fashion with "Soft Winds." Spinners should flock to this package in droves.

"LOVE IS A NECESSARY EVIL"—Don Elliot, Irma Curry—Columbia CL 1754

Here's a tasty package boasting the cool, swingin' ork of Don Elliot, the relaxed, soft jazz-based voice of Irma Curry, some top-flight Al Cohn arrangements and the lyrics of Jack Segal. The lark is perfectly suited for full-bodied Segal-penned ballads as is orkster Elliot who demonstrates his fresh vibraharp playing on the set. Jazzophiles should really dig sweet renditions of "A Stranger In The City," "Too Much Too Soon" and "When Sunny Gets Blue."

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

SCHUBERT: Symphony No. 9 in C Major—Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Otto Klemperer—Angel S 35948

Otto Klemperer and the Philharmonic Orchestra have turned in a magnificent performance of the intricate and very melodious symphony. The conductor maintains a disciplined control over the thematic development and yet his majestic and expansive conclusion of the work is almost free-flowing in its execution. Highly effective orchestration and the maestro's sensitive interpretation of the composer makes this an exceptional classical offering.

Premier Sales Double In '61; Earnings Triple After Taxes

NEW YORK—Sales in 1961 of Premier Albums more than doubled, and earnings after taxes more than tripled, it was announced last week by company topper Philip Landwehr.

For the fiscal year ending January 31, 1962, sales were $2,513,181 compared with $1,121,623 for fiscal 1960. Net earnings after taxes were $183,312, amounting to nearly 71 cents per share on 260,000 shares outstanding. This compared with earnings in 1960 of $52,092, or 20¢ per share adjusted to reflect the 260,000 shares presently outstanding.

Landwehr estimated that Premier sales for fiscal 1962 would exceed $5 million, based on the current rate of operations, and that the rise in profits would be at least proportionate to the rise in sales, amounting to an estimated $1.40 per share.

Premier Albums, which became publicly owned on October 17, 1961, and which has recently opened a new factory at Clifton, New Jersey, markets seven different labels of music albums, most of them budget-priced lines.

Leslie Tells NARM Of Special Product

MIAMI BEACH—In his address on "The Changing Role Of The Special Product In Record Merchandising" at the 4th Annual NARM convention, Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick International, effectively spotlighted the role of the promotional and special product manufacturer and merchandiser by exploring the background and the present and future development of these factors in the disk industry.

Leslie pointed out that in the evolution of rack merchandising it was the promotional product manufacturer who found it necessary to seek out outlets which were foreign to the record field and it was he who was the early pioneer or the 'maverick' in rack merchandising. In turn, the rack merchandiser recognized the value of these promotional records, which seemed to be custom tailored for his impulse buying public. This promotional, low priced record combined the vital elements of insignificant price competition from record shops, instant impulse appeal in a product created for the rack jobber, sold directly to him and reflecting the full and reasonable profit margin. This led to the jobber's recognition as a first-degree distributor. He also found that with proper display, the yield was considerably greater per square foot than for the normal display. Thus, noted Leslie, in the middle 50's took place the inevitable marriage between the rack merchandiser and the budget record manufacturer.

Leslie went on to state that the growth from that period until now has been almost a geometric progression, made possible by better product, increases in population, earning power, leisure time and the availability in outlets unimagined only a few years before. The manufacturers contribution was the ability to provide a low-priced product with desirable music content, beautifully packaged and offering a generally popular theme at an extremely low price. Since this was accepted by the public, the natural incentive was for better product and more products in this field. And this was further stimulated by the natural increase in competitive suppliers. Realizing that budget price could in no way mean budget quality, the manufacturer developed new production techniques and utilized new materials. Also, these same manufacturers concerned themselves with unique and imaginative methods of promotion. They developed unusual displays, advertising programs, interesting material and an increasingly better product. This latter point was strongly stressed by Leslie because it is the result of this evolutionary process that as the point of diminishing returns are reached: the manufacturer must supply an increasingly better product at comparable prices rather than a continued pattern of low prices.

Leslie also pointed out that it was this same manufacturer who was the first to offer poly and skin-tight bagging at no extra cost in addition to pre-packing and pre-pricing. It is this group, said Leslie, which now sells stereo records at almost 50% of its volume. He added that among the manufacturers who have made these contributions and have enjoyed a "phenomenal" growth over the years are Tops, Somerset, Synthetic Plastics, Crown, Premier and Leslie's own outfit, Pickwick.

Noting that these manufacturers have met with every obligation to the rack merchandiser, Leslie asked about the obligation of the merchandiser to the manufacturer. He stated that there was a basic need for full recognition of the contributions, complete respect and understanding of the unique problems in creating and merchandising a product custom tailored for the rack's needs. He went on to say that the rack merchant must also provide the outlet with new ideas and products and, as he is made to understand the credit problems of the larger manufacturers, so is he obligated to show the same business maturity by limiting his credit dependence on the promotional manufacturers. He added that what he had said for low priced records is just as applicable to the much overlooked field of children's records and educational merchandising.

Leslie believes that the future will show a growth in stability and maturity, a greater capital strength by virtue of mergers and adoption of public posture by many companies, more efficient management and that its scope of distribution will widen. Speaking for the competitive friends in his field, Leslie stated that they're ready and eager to join hands and assure that this future growth becomes the reality rather than the dream.

NARM Study

sales, do not "in a grass roots sense sell directly to the consumer in an over-the-counter retail transaction," the NARM exec also noted.

"Therefore, when one considers only those phonograph record sales which are completed in a physical retail outlet, the membership of NARM alone is responsible for 20½% of all retail record business done in the United States." Rack-jobbing as a whole, Malamud added, was responsible for over 35% of the total retail disk sales in 1961.

The study reveals that while the supermarket still accounts for the far greatest number of retail outlets serviced by NARM members, 42.6%, many other types have appeared in the picture. Variety stores in 1961 represented almost 26% of NARM's retail outlets, with drug stores in a close third position with more than 21%. Department stores, both regular and discount, account for more than 7%, service post exchanges 1½%, and stores specializing in phono equipment, a little less than 1%.

A "miscellaneous" category includes such outlets as book stores, airports, colleges, restaurants, jewelry stores and service shops.

To achieve its 1961 volume, NARM members made use of 18,500 retail outlets, including 7,800 supermarkets, 4,800 variety stores, 4,000 drug stores, 1,300 department stores, 250 PX's and in 200 stores selling hifi and stereo equipment.

The NARM study reveals that almost 74% of the total disk sales of NARM members was done via the LP, or over $59 million of the $80 million total for NARM members in 1961.

Single records account for 16.6% of the total volume, or over $13 million. EP's, at 4.6%, and kiddie disks other than LP's at about 5%, make up the other $7½ million.

In a breakdown of mono versus stereo LP sales, NARM members did 68.8%, or over $40 million in mono, and 31.2%, or about $18½ million in stereo. Category of LP's carried include: pop, country, "sound and percussion," original-cast and soundtrack. Rock 'n roll LP's are carried by 95% of the rack-jobbers, jazz and classical LP's by 86%, and kiddie LP's by 80%. Pop albums account for 41% of the total LP units sold, and in second is country product at 13%.

Though classical LP's account for only 2.6% of the total LP units sold, they are carried on 80% of NARM member racks. Comedy LP's, accounting for 8% of the total LP units sold, are found on 97% of NARM racks.

The NARM study reveals that all NARM members are involved in discounting, in many varying degrees. Over 50% of NARM's membership is now discounting in almost all their locations. About 31% are still on the fence, discounting only in some.

Atlantic's "No Strings" LP Includes 4 Performers

NEW YORK—Four artists on the Atlantic label take part in a "after-theatre" LP of 12 songs from the score of Richard Rodgers' new musical, "No Strings."

Performing the songs are Lavern Baker, Chris Conner, Herbie Mann and Bobby Short. Mann, Al Cohn and Bobby Scott wrote the arrangements.

The idea of doing such an unusual LP came about when Atlantic prexy Neshui Ertogun saw a preview of the show and felt that the material, which impressed him, would be "ideal" for several of the label's artists.

Two of three new jazz singles from Atlantic feature sides from package: Herbie Mann's "La La La" (with "Carnival"), Chris Connor's "The Sweetest Sounds" (with "Opportunity"). Third deck is The Mitchell-Ruff Trio's "Gypsy In My Soul" and "Street Of Dreams."

Also currently under study by GLG is the production of a network television series for the 1962-63 season.

Mann and his wife publish their numbers through the hot Nevins-Kirshner organization.

Tarr Tells NARM Members Of Their "Changing Roles"

MIAMI BEACH—Though rack-jobbers have been active agents of change, they have also been forced to react to it, Irwin Tarr, RCA Victor Records' rack expert told NARM members during his speech last week at the association's convention. His topic, "The Changing Role of the Record Merchandiser," was the meet's theme.

Noting changes that have affected the rack-jobber, Tarr said that "for coincidental with the growth of your business has been the growth of the record clubs and above all the Discount House."

He said that the requirements for a successful rack-jobber operation, are therefore far different from those of only a few years ago.

"The result is that the record merchandiser is forced to constantly change and adapt his way of doing business—or perish.

"And many have perished! According to the records of my company, four of our rack customers went out of business (or at least the record business) in 1956; in 1957 seven firms disappeared; in 1958 another seven; in '59 28 passed on; in '60 they were joined by 27 more—and in 1961 still 14 more record merchandisers bit the dust."

Tarr noted that the total picture was not as grim as his casualty list would suggest. "For despite the disappearance of 87 firms, rack merchandiser sales in 1961 were the highest in history."

The following have been among the more significant changes in the past two years, according to Tarr:

"First, has been the growth of the specialty record merchandiser as contrasted with those who handle a variety of different products. By and large, those who breathe, eat and sleep only records apparently have been better able to cope with the complications of the business. Certainly their collective growth rate has been substantially greater than those firms handling many different types of products.

"Secondly, we've seen the emergence of the super-specialist: the firm concentrating on one specific type of retailer—be it discount store, variety store, supermarket, or Post Exchange. Still other firms appear to have achieved a measure of success by specializing exclusively in low-priced records in a variety of outlets and leaving the regular business to others.

"Still another—and certainly one of the significant changes—has been the emergence of the large-scale service department—a growth from the original 4-foot racks with $300 retail inventories to 1,500 square feet departments with 15, 20 or $25,000 in inventory. Such departments are by no means unusual today."

To Tarr these changes add up to the fact that while some record merchandisers fade away, service distribution itself has come a long way in a few years from a purely impulse business to a much larger and more complex role in the industry.

"... we have lived through enough interments of rack merchandisers in specific market areas," Tarr noted, "to know that if every NARM member was to close his doors tomorrow, millions of consumers would simply buy fewer records—or none at all."

Tarr feels that those firms which will be in the business 10 years from today will be those which note that "responsibility is the partner of privilege."

"They will be run by people who appreciated that records are not buttons—mere pieces of plastic with holes; who know that although price is important, there are appeals more potent than price; who are astute enough to make shopping their departments a pleasant adventure. Above all, they will be firms run by people who realize that rigid formulas won't always work in changing circumstances... and who have the acumen and courage to change.

The failure of the 33 1/3 rpm single was attributed to the lack of consumer education as well as the lack of such product. It was also indicated that the large sale of 45 adapters and spindles was evidence that the 45 single was firmly entrenched as the consumer's singles buying habit.

It was also stated that the jobber waits too long to buy singles and only jumps for new ones by proven artists. To this one jobber commented that what hits in one area is not necessarily good in another area.

However, both manufacturers and jobbers agreed that if you stick with the big names and wait too long before you buy the new names, a great many sales will be lost.

"Do singles make money for you and will you continue to handle them?" was another important panel topic. All agreed that singles were of great importance to all racks because they frequently are responsible for attracting people to a rack. And if trade publications are watched closely good profits can be made from singles. All indicated that they would continue to handle them.

Are EP's really dead and what about the compact double? One jobber suggested that EP's are not dead yet. They still do fairly well in the South, but there is a lack of such product. A manufacturer indicated that he does not produce EP's any more because there is no demand for them. Compact doubles were considered a lost cause because their price was too close to that of low end merchandise.

"Is the price of the single [as compared with the price of low end LP's] the cause for the slump in singles sales?" It was agreed that price was no factor. The Victor 49¢ single was mentioned as evidence, although not necessarily conclusive proof. But the cause of the slump was attributed to the shorter life of a single hit (4 to 5 weeks) as compared with the life of a hit some years back (15 or 16 weeks).

Jobbers all agreed on the great value of decorative, color sleeves on singles. It was suggested that stock photos not be used and a change of photo with each new release is very beneficial.

Marek On Creativity

Third, titling creativity. "Would 'My Fair Lady' have been as popular if it had been titled... 'Pygmalion'?"

Marek went on to say that the rack jobber also plays an important role in creativity. "You have demonstrated it in the displays which you have developed... in promotions you have sponsored... in the guidance and counsel you have given retailers. However, if you permit me to say so, there are two rack jobbers fellows who are not creative... Stanley Statistician who buys his record by the slide rule." Past performance seems to be his only guide and Stanley is misled by cold statistics in a warm entertainment business. "The other fellow I am scared of I'll call William the Wheeling, Dealing Derbish." His only concern is "what's the deal today?" He of course is the man whose rack is loaded down with records purchased at a good price but which refuse to move off the shelf.

However, Marek indicated that these people were the exception rather than the rule and went on to praise the rack jobber for making more music available to more people in more places.

Wallich's Address

chandisers have two alternatives involving the exercise of both your economic power and your responsibility to the industry."

Wallichs cited these examples:

"1. You can load up your customers with 'smart buys,' 'sharp deals' merchandise. Or, following a more responsible course, you can plan your product selections with repeat business in mind, hoping to change the 'impulse' buyer into a regular customer.

"2. You can make 'cherry picking' your sole philosophy and place before your customers a strictly limited selection of merchandise—nothing but current 'top hits.' Or, recognizing your share of the responsibility for the future of the industry, you can work with the manufacturers to build long-range artists and give recognition to good catalog sellers.

"3. And finally, to take just one more example, you can unfairly 'whipsaw' one manufacturer against another, with your demands on all manufacturers predicated on the offerings of the one most liberal. Or—you can realize that the capacity to 'squeeze' and 'be squeezed' is never limitless."

Wallichs said that in each of the materially influence their fortunes and that of manufacturers. "... I cannot view your future with anything but optimism—assuming, as I know, that you will continue to interweave sound business practice with increased product knowledge and high ethical standards."

Detroit's Aurora Closes; Lines Assigned To Distribs

DETROIT—Aurora Distributors, big Detroit distributor, ceased operations last week.

Harvey Kahn, who headed the operation, in association with Henry Droz and Johnny Kaplan, has joined Music Merchants Record Distributing, also Detroit, in an executive sales capacity, effective May 1.

Droz and Kaplan, who also own Detroit's Arc Record Distributing and Jay Kay Records Distributing, respectively, are making arrangements for the transfer of lines to their distributorships.

The VeeJay line has moved to Jay-Kay through a decision by the label's Red Schwartz, and it is understood that Berry Gordy, head of the Tamla-Motown setup, will divide his lines between the two operations.

The Epic and Scepter labels, including Scepter's Wand affiliate, are now being handled in Detroit by Music Merchants.

The five-month old strike between the independent television companies and Equity—the actors union—is over. A compromise has been reached concerning fees paid to artists which, in future, will relate to the size of the audience. One of the first shows to benefit is Val Parnell's "Sunday Night At The London Palladium" (which celebrates its 250th performance this month). Singers and dancers suspended during the strike will be seen again and many more top line stars will be available including Lonnie Donegan and Vera Lynn (April 22), Pat Boone (April 29) and Eartha Kitt and Frankie Vaughan (May 6).

Cliff Richard wins his second gold disk as world sales for "The Young Ones" reaches the million mark. British sales alone are only 70,000 short of the goal. Cliff's first gold disk award was in 1959 for "Livin' Doll."

By switching its hour long "Spectacular" from Mondays at 8:00 p.m. to Fridays at 10:00 p.m. EMI Records gains more peak time listening on Radio Luxembourg. It hopes to add about 750,000 listeners to the 25,000,000 who already tune in to their 16 shows per week (8½ record plugging hours).

The anti-smoking campaign sparked off by the Royal College of Physicians report linking cigarette smoking with lung cancer has been extended to disks. Transatlantic Records issued an EP "No Smoking" in which a psychologist under the pseudonym Dr. Keith Cameron explains why people smoke, what the results can be and how to give it up. If all the people who want to stop smoking buy the record sales should be brisk. Plans are going ahead for "No Smoking" to be released in South Africa, Australia and New Zealand. Transatlantic, who specializes in instructional disks report that "The Biology of Sex" first in its "Live With Love" series is now selling throughout the world and will shortly be released in America. Two follow-up disks dealing with marriage problems are scheduled for September release.

Coincidental with her recent season at London's Savoy Theatre Philips issued an LP "Juliette Greco Showcase." Eleven of the tracks are from her stage show. Agent and manager Tito Burns currently visiting Hollywood, Las Vegas, Chicago, and Philadelphia. Burns hopes to arrange a return visit for Bobby Vee and Tony Orlando, whom he recently brought over with great success. He will also set up contracts with other American artists to visit England in the fall.

In London for talks with Sir Edward Lewis and Decca executives Dario Soria, vice president of RCA Victor and head of the international liaison department with Peter Baumberger, vice president of RCA International Ltd. The visit is part of a personal tour by Soria and Baumberger of all RCA's European licensees. They will determine RCA's position in the Common Market as it is today and as it will be if Britain joins.

At its 6th annual golden disk luncheon in London the Variety Club of Great Britain paid tribute to the record industry for its support in the Club's work for sick children. Those attending included Sir Joseph Lockwood, Chairman of EMI and L. G. Wood, managing director EMI Records, Decca chairman Sir Edward Lewis, Louis Benjamin of Pye, Geoffrey Everitt of Radio Luxembourg and EMI a&r manager Norrie Paramor. Artists were represented by Ronnie Carroll, Alma Cogan, Adam Faith, Acker Bilk and John Leyton.

Ace composer Johnny Worth—writer of hits for many of Britain's top recording stars, now makes a bid for the charts himself, with his own composition "You Know What I Mean" on Columbia. Johnny has written "What Do You Want" and "Poor Me" for Adam Faith as well as numbers for Eden Kane and Anthony Newley. "You Know What I Mean" is published by David Platz of Essex Music who is currently in New York for discussions with Howie Richmond and Al Brackman of Hollis Music.

Monty Lewis, managing director of Rainbow Records, and Cy Leslie of Pickwick International, New York, announced the formation of a new company to be known as Pickwick International Great Britain Ltd. The first release scheduled for the fall will be low-priced LPs retailing at under £1 ($2.80), made up of lines marketed in the States by Pickwick, including Bravo, Design and International Award. Catalog will range from pops to classical with strong emphasis on show music. They will also release a large number of kiddie disks from the Cricket catalog. In addition to normal factor and retail channels distribution will also be via supermarkets. Monty Lewis was responsible for introducing rack jobbing into this country some 18 months ago with the Gala line. For the time being Lewis will continue to operate Rainbow Records as a separate entity but it will eventually be absorbed into the overall organization.

Columbia issued a special LP release "It's Trad Dad" featuring top stars and numbers from the film of the same title. Tracks are by Helen Shapiro, John Leyton, Gene McDaniels, Craig Douglas, Gene Vincent, Chubby Checker and the bands of Terry Lightfoot, Acker Bilk, Chris Barber and The Temperance Seven.

Decca hosted a reception for celebrated conductor Herbert Van Karajan and Willi Boskovsky, leader of The Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra at London's Festival Hall where they gave three concerts. To coincide with the visit Decca released a 12" LP of Holsts "The Planets" by Van Karajan and The Philharmonic Orchestra.

The Temperance Seven's latest disk "Sahara" (Parlophone) was penned in 1924 by Horatio Nicholls, alias publisher Lawrence Wright. Wright recalls that the first of many recordings was by The Savoy Havana Band on another EMI label—Columbia—nearly 40 years ago. Then, as now, a live camel was used to promote the number.

Publisher Cyril Gee of Mills Music and composer Leroy Anderson have a mutual interest in three disks issued by Pye. The trad version of "Forgotten Dreams" by Jim McHarty's Scotsville Jazz Band (Atlantic in US); a vocal version by Don Nielson making his debut on Piccadilly and on the same label another Anderson composition "Shall I Take My Heart And Go" by Penny (wife of TV m.c. Bruce Forsyth).

Another swinging publisher is Bill Philips of KPM with Brenda Lee's "Speak To Me Pretty" on Brunswick and Kenny Dodd's "Pianissimo," which is currently No. 3 in Best Selling Sheet Music Lists and "Hey Baby" by Bruce Channel on Mercury.

"Johnny Angel," which has taken Shelly Fabares to the No. 2 position in the States on Colpix (number one in America) is released here on Pye International. 16-year old Patti Lynn has waxed a cover version on Fontana.

With a string of radio and TV shows lined up publisher Bob Kingston of Southern Music expects big things from "Lonely City" by John Leyton. For Southern's Iver Record Company The Dale Sisters have recorded "The Road To Love" for release on Ember International.

Disk versions of themes from TV shows are very popular here. We already have themes from "Z Cars," "Maigret," "Dr. Kildare," "The Avengers" etc. and now Tony Hatch and his Orchestra add two more with their latest Pye waxing "Perry Mason" and "Ben Casey," which has also been recorded by Ted Heath on Decca.

Two musicals already seen on Broadway open in London shortly. One American show "Mary Sunshine" and one British "Sail Away" by Noel Coward. Music from both shows published by Chappell. Filmwise they have a formidable line up including "Road To Hong Kong," "State Fair," due here in April starring Pat Boone and Bobby Darin, and in the future "Lolita," and "The Music Man."

BENELUX

S. A. Gramophone, Brussels reports that a few days after the Eurovision Song Contest, Conny's record "Zwei Kleiner Italiener" sold over 10,000 copies! Undoubtedly and as far as the Benelux countries and Germany are concerned, this is the hit from the Eurovision Song Contest 1962.

Among new singles: "Goodnight, Irene, Twist" by Hoagy Lands (MGM), "Movin' In" by Danny Rivers (HMV), "Norman" by Carol Deene (HMV) and "Heart Of Stone" by John Leyton (HMV).

Belgian composers Al Verlaine and Winny are happy with the American recording of their tune "Salve Regina," recorded on Dot by The String A Longs under the new title "Sunday." The original Al Verlaine-recording will be released by Laurie Records. In Italy three local recordings of this tune are planned.

Landry Musical Productions recorded for Philips with The Jokers, top Belgian teenage-group. Titles are "Manneke Twist" and "Patokaan." Samples of this sparkling twist record will be mailed out immediately to all Philips-representatives all over the world. Landry Musical Productions also recorded the Norwegian hit "Soria Moria" with a 26-piece orchestra, coupled with "Mina," a song especially written for top Italian female singer Mina.

Joey Dee's Roulette-record of "Shout" expected to be an overnight hit. Upcoming hits are Sam Cooke's "Twistin' The Night Away," Presley's "Good Luck Charm" and "Norman" by Sue Thompson. Moonglow Records scores big success with "Moulin Rouge Twist," a record of local origin.

Italian singer Tony Renis, singer and composer of Italian top-disk "Quando, Quando, Quando," expected to appear soon on Flemish television.

Same song will be recorded in Spanish by Uruguayan vocalist Esteban.

"Radio Uilenspiegel," Belgium first pirate radio station, expected to be on the air in May. The ship, under Panamese banner, will broadcast from seven miles west of Knocke, in the North Sea. Belgian Government now trying to vote a new law to punish everyone (technicians, seamen, disk jockeys, etc.) helping "Radio Uilenspiegel," but it is unlikely they will succeed.

A group of French teenagers Les Pirates (Bel Air) is going to make a trip through the most principal towns in Belgium. This group is very popular in France. One of the hits they'll sing will be "Caroline." In the same program and on the same trip will also play John William and The Orchestra Of Emile Sullon.

DiscoTrade told Cash Box that "Esperanza" by Nino de Murcia (Festival) and "Hey, Baby" by Bruce Channel (Mercury) are among its bestsellers.

Cash Box was informed by Mr. De Keukelere (Editions Moderny) that "La Lecon De Twist" is achieving a great success. "La Lecon De Twist" is the French version of "Twistin' The Twist." Among the best-sellers are records of Chubby Sax (T.N. Records) Dalida (Barclay), Vince Taylor (Barclay), Les Chaussettes Noires (Barclay), Tony Cortez (Radar), Richard Anthony (Columbia). Last but not least the version of Caterina Valente and Silvio Francesco (Decca) is very popular in the Benelux countries.

In Brussels and Antwerp (Belgium) "The Twist And Freeze" by Orlie (Top Rank) is hitting.

The director of Luna Records, communicated that the record by Willy Verbrugge "Bij Dag En Bij Nacht" (Ronnex) is making a good chance to come on the hit-parade.

A young Belgian artist, Burt Blanca, has made several records for record-company Pathé Marconi, Paris. Another young Belgian singer, Little Benny, will very soon make two new records on Victory.

Jack Hammer, a Ronnex artist, recorded many of his own compositions, which are still having success, for instance "Kissin' Twist," Boogie Woogie Twist," "Crazy Twist." As soon as possible Hammer's records will appear in the U.S.

HOLLAND

Artone's purchase of the important Tivoli and Pythia catalogs, is certainly the hottest news from the Dutch Record Industry. The L.C. Intrass, former owners, were forced to cancel exploitation of these lines since the deeply regretted Hohner director J. v. d. Berg, who financed the first project, passed away. As all parties concerned showed tremendous interest in the purchase of these catalogs, Artone's top-rate management can be proud having succeeded to head the general competition. Tivoli is the Pop label that scored heavily in the past with "Laila" by The Regento Stars, "Sucu Sucu" by Ping Ping and "Sie Heist Susie" by Les Chromonas. Other artists include: The Spotlights TV vocal-group, The Pico's, accordion duo, Tommy Reilly, mouthorgan virtuoso, Duo The Munk, The Silhouettes and Milly Scott with The Darktown Jazz Band. The Pythia label, which presents a high-quality spoken-word series as well as an important religious line, features nearly all personalities from the Dutch actors and cabaret-stage, such as Lia Dorana, Ko van Dijk, Hans Bentz v.d. Berg, Ank v. d. Moer, Ellen Vogel, Johan Schmitz, Fie Carelsen, Johan Kaart, Johan Boskamp, Magda Jansens, Guus Hermus and Paul Steenbergen. According to Artone's President Bill C. Slinger, "the acquisition of Tivoli and Pythia is another milestone in the Artone success story."

Artone's Funckler Department, managed by Pete Felleman, launched a new Extended Play Extraordinary Series from the important Argo jazz catalog. Artists featured include: Al Grey & The Basie Wing ("Last Of The Big Plungers"), Ahmad Jamal Trio with Strings ("Happy Moods"), Yusef Lateef Quintet ("Lateef Live") and The Ramsey Lewis Trio ("Stretching Out"). Contents of each disk have been selected with maximum care and series being packed in full-color sleeves with extensive liner info. The set of four is expected to become a success all over the Continent.

As was predicted in this column several issues ago, Sue Thompson's "Norman" (released by Artone's Funckler Dept. on the Funckler label in Benelux, Germany, Austria and Switzerland) zoomed into the Dutch charts and reached a proud place. In Belgium too, the Thompson smash is hitting hard with an 11th slot as a solid start. Artone-Funckler's faith in talented Sue's catchy chanting (her first deck, "Angel, Angel" & "Throwin' Kisses" was released in August of last year) paid off and on strength of "Norman," an EP of the same title was issued last week.

Under the monicker "De Zingende Zwerver," veteran baritone Frans van Schaik brought back his wartime ditty "Ketelbinkie" on the Palette label, released by Artone's Funckler Dept. On March 31, Frans got a big chance to promote his deck in Holland's most popular TV spectacular "Saint Germain Des Prés," with the result that "Ketelbinkie" commenced selling immediately.

Cliff Richard and The Shadows started their first tour on April 6, The Cliff Richard Show, in the organization of which The Dutch Theatre Office, Paul Acket's "Muziek Expres" and Bovema's Columbia Dept. are participating,

FRANCE

Top-seller at Pathe-Marconi is Richard Anthony's "Lecon de Twist (Twistin' the Twist)," the tune that holds the Number 3 spot on this week's Best Seller list.

Johnny Hallyday waxing of "Bebop a Lulah" in its original form promises to be a big hit. It will be interesting also to see the eventual reaction in other countries to the operation which consists of "internationalizing" Hallyday, who, it must be said, has crashed through all the barriers in France. And to be fair, we note that Hallyday owes much to Leon Cabat, who was the first to back his career.

Two events ought to warm the hearts of those who believe in the true French "chanson": one is the success that Gilbert Beaud is having at the Olympia Music Hall. On opening night, the crowd was so dense that the police and firemen had to be called out to keep things straight and even many VIP's, with their invitations in hand, were unable to enter the hall. None of Beaud's new songs seems slated to make the big hit class, but time alone will tell. . . . The second event was the one-nighter concert by Charles Aznavour at the Olympia (in the 'Musicorama' series). Aznavour will recreate on stage his latest tunes, already recorded for Barclay, among which will be "Alleluia" and "Esperanza." After the recital the "Tout Paris" will celebrate at a reception given by Barclay at the Club de l'Etoile.

Rumor still has it, and is growing, that a big American firm is buying the Vega outfit and certain names are already being mentioned for administrative posts in the new set-up. More on this later.

Les Compagnons de la Chanson still out on a limb where their new contract is concerned, seem not yet to have come to a definite decision. Festival is waiting; Pathe's decision in one way or another is unknown.

Regis Tahar, Tutti publishers' contact man, is back in touch with the announcement that Annie Cordy and Les Hommes have waxed "Le marche des geueules noires." Robert Clause (RCA) is making a big impression on ABC Music Hall audiences with "Le Tango Twist." Jerry Mengo, this time using his real name, has recorded "Twist SNCF," another Salvador composition.

And back to the subject of "Clair de lune a Maubeuge," the hit tune composed by P. Perrin. Perrin, who is a taxi driver and who sings between times for the Ricordi label, can be said to have now begun a career as composer that is breaking all records. His little tune that seemed almost a joke when it hit the market has now skyrocketed to the top of the lists and especially after the Bourvil recording.

Vogue's Leon Cabat is back in town after a long inspection tour which took him to Brussels, Frankfurt, and Montreux. Upon his return, he signed exclusive contracts with J. Ridef, Francoise Hardy and Micky Ameline. Something good should certainly come from one of these newcomers—or perhaps all of them.

Rita Cadillac, who has been missing from the news for some time, has attracted our attention with a recording of the hit tunes of 1900. As for Gerard Calvi, his latest waxing features the music he composed for "La Polka Des Lampions." While he was at it, he also waxed a new series of dance albums. Les Cyclones, also for the Vogue label, have come up with "Le Vagabond" and original and French version of "The Wanderer."

The music world has been awaiting with interest the release of "Fallait-il," recorded some months back by Edith Piaf. Now we have learned that the side will not be put on the market and another session will be slated. Meanwhile, there's the Jean-Claude Pascal disk of the same tune available.

A few words on composer-singer Jacques Brel. The release of his recordings on the Barclay label was previously announced, but it now appears that Philips has taken legal measure to prevent sale of the Barclay disks. Brel having recorded the same tunes formerly for Philips. On the other hand, Brel has signed a five-year exclusive contract with Barclay. Even so some months will be necessary before Brel turns out a new batch of songs for the Barclay label.

"Cliff's the talk of the town in Holland," said Oeges.

An extensive and strong sales campaign is in the making for the introduction of the Liberty-label to an even greater extent than ever before: window-displays, leaflets and the "Stars Of Liberty" LP featuring 12 of the most important Liberty-stars with their greatest hits is being promoted with letters to all dealers and at a special price.

Coming up strongly here is a local recording of "Walk On By" with Grethe Sonck on Sonet. It is believed that her version of the popular song will be a great competitor to Leroy Van Dyke's version of the same song. The latter appears as number 10 on the charts this week.

Nordisk Polyphon A/S, handling Philips and Fontana labels, presented singer Anita Lindblom with a gold disk last week for the Sale in Denmark of her Swedish recording of "You Can Have Her," in Swedish: "Sânt är Livet." Miss Lindblom received the disk at the NPA office while visiting Copenhagen with the Fontana producer Curt Peterson from Stockholm. Miss Lindblom got a gold disk for the sale of the same record in Sweden in Feb. this year.

SGA (EMI in Denmark) expects a lot from its HMV release of two Danish songs from the new motion picture "Han, Hun, Dirch og Dario" (He, She, Dirch and Dario), which recently opened at the Saga in Copenhagen. Two songs were recorded by Gitte and Dirch Passer, the latter a Philips artist who was "loaned" to EMI from his company for this record. The songs are "Lille Broken Himmelblå (Little Miss Heaven-Blue)" and "Ham Jeg Kan Li" (He's The One I Can Like). Another EMI release with great possibilities is Otto Brandenburg's "Moskvanaetter (Moscow Nights)."

The Cave Stompers, Swedish Sonet artists, were on a week's tour in Denmark and did very well. They also had a TV show while in Denmark.

Metronome in Copenhagen reports great success for Perry Knudsen's "Ching Ching," now on the carts for several weeks. Also Siv Malmquist's Danish version of "Don't Read The Letter" is doing very well.

SWEDEN

On April 9, international sales manager Börje Ekberg of Metronome left Stockholm on a trip that takes him to Istanbul, Beirut, New Delhi, Bangkok, Hong Kong, Tokyo, Honolulu, Los Angeles, Las Vegas and New York before he gets back at his desk on May 26. On his round-the-globe trip, he will see what can be done to extend the international activity of Metronome to the Near and Far East.

Philips artist Owe Thörnqvist to England where he is staying one week working with the Philips London office. The trip is a combined vacation and business trip. Bo Löfberg, head of Philips-Sonora told Cash Box that Owe is the next name in the Philips' artist's stable who will be introduced at the international market.

New record company Scan-Disc will handle five different labels, it is leared. The start was made on April 15 with a label named Pep, with Lil Malmkvist being the first artist on the new label. Lil Malmkvist, sister of the Metronome artist Siv Malmquist, will now be heard in the German market. She is visiting Germany later this month for some recordings.

Anders Burman, A&R man of Metronome, to Oslo next week for new recordings with Norwegian group Key Brothers. He informed Cash Box that Siv Malmquist has just recorded "Music Music Music Twist," which the firm expects a lot from. Pehr Myrberg, the artist from Royal Dramatical Theatre has also done a new record, "Stockholm-Blues" (which is "Ham Drum Blues" by Oscar Brown Jr. with Swedish lyrics by Beppe Wolgers). Another recent release which looks like a hit here is "When My Little Girl Is Smiling" with The Drifters on Atlantic.

Björn Fremer, publicity man of Sonet Records was expected to leave for New York on April 15. He will be staying in the United States for one year, acting as a Sonet representative during his American visit. He told Cash Box that Sonet artists Cave Stompers are contracted for a tour in England sometime this autumn.

Osten Warnerbring has made a new EP for Karusell, reports Simon Brehm to Cash Box. Two of the songs are original compositions by Warnerbring and the other two are "African Waltz" and Earl Bostic's "Flamingo" with lyrics by Warnerbring.

Rosana Toledo, Brazilian romantic singer, formerly with RCA Victor, signed a contract with RGE. She's already cut her first single.

Aginaldo Rayol, one of the best and most popular Brazilian teenage singers, recorded for Copacabana Records, with Portuguese lyrics, the old American hit "Danny Boy," and the Mexican best-seller "Adelante." Copacabana expects a great deal of sales.

Copacabana recorded a very unusual album called "Do Outro Lado Da Vida (From The Other Side Of Life)" with music composed by convicts who are still doing terms in Brazilian prisons. Two singers are responsible for the interpretations: Odete Amaral and Cyro Monteiro Junior, accompanied by the Penitentiary Choir, under the direction of Professor Lemos Brito. Among the songs is the waltz "Luar De Vila Sonia," one of Sao Paulo's best sellers.

Moacyr Franco, a young and talented comedy star, recorded his first LP for Copacabana. Among the selections for his first album is "Make Haste My Love," from Ulpio Minucci and Ray Jordan, with Brazilian words by Paulo Rogério; "Our Language Of Love," song from "Irma La Douce," "Norman," and several Brazilian compositions, including a waltz by Tito Madi, entitled "Amor Bem Verdadeiro (Very True Love)."

RCA Victor released its new collection of albums, including the first one by Paul Anka. This singer is very popular around here and all his records from "Diana" have appeared on the best-seller lists. Another album that probably will be a hit, is "More Music For Relaxation," with Melachrino's Orchestra, re-appearing, after a long absence. Melachrino used to be one of the most popular foreign Orchestras in Brazil. "Palhetas Espetacular" is another RCA album, with Zaccarias and his Orchestra, playing sambas, not only Brazilian sambas, but some North-American hits in samba rhythm, such as "Dizzy Fingers," "Bye Bye Blues" and "Holiday For Strings."

The situation in Sao Paulo hasn't changed. Musicians still refuse to make records because they want a raise of almost 100% in their salaries. All the records are now being made in Rio de Janeiro, but both musicians and labels are trying to solve the problem.

GERMANY

The small label is coming into its own in Germany. Following much in the footsteps of the American market, Germany is swiftly becoming a land where an indie producer can make money in the record business. Just a few years ago the market was completely controlled by four major firms with their own distribution. The first step in breaking this virtual monopoly was made by Ariola Records. The firm, with the biggest book club in Germany behind it, entered the market in a big way and spent millions in publicity and promotion to make its place on the market. In succeeding in its goal, however, Ariola did much more than just developing into Germany's 5th major record firm. It proved to the dealers and the music operators that they could not live with the products from just four firms, but that if a record becomes popular through radio play and juke box requests, the shops and boxes must stock the record. This opened the door to the small operator. One year ago at this time, only one record distributed by a small distributor was in Germany's top 50, and this month, seven songs are listed with the best selling version being handled by a small firm. The main problem in Germany continues to be distribution. There are several small indie distributors which handle lines in different territories, but a top notch distribution chain is not available with the exception of the major labels. Several record producers tried to cope with the problem by sending out salesmen, but most of the firms ended up in the hands of larger labels. Metronome, for instance, has taken over distribution of Sonet-Storyville and its labels, and Bella Musica Records, both of which had its own distribution set-ups, as well as Simon Records produced by popular Hans Arno Simon, and the Polydor produced "Adano" label which wanted an outlet for new artists without burdening its own distributors with too much product. Publisher-song writer Ralph Maria Siegel also tried distributing his Jupiter Records, but later gave distribution over to Austrotone Records. It looked like the small man with limited capital had no chance to make a dent on the market. Then Bernhard Mikulski tried a different approach. Bernhard has an import service with distribution of mostly jazz labels and LP material, but he also wanted to try his hand in the singles game. He felt that the main road to success lay in the hands of the music operators, so he produced special material designed for music boxes, and went out to the major operators to sell his product. He was so successful with this approach, that his partner left him and started his own label, Golden 12. The company releases 12 singles a year, sells direct to the major operators, and then lets Metronome handle distribution for the shops. Mikulski has also sold several of his masters to Deutsche Grammophon Records after his maximum sales from music operators was realized. Other are now trying the same approach. The secret to success is simple. The firm produces material suitable for music operators and then sells the product to the major operators at 56 cents compared to a price of 70 cents that the major labels ask for their product. There are also about 10 major operators and one-stops who can buy from 10 to 20 thousand of a single record, which is enough for a small firm to realize a substantial profit. The 3rd point is concentration of product. The major labels have 20 or more singles a month to sell, and the small labels push one or two singles a month. Of course, the best solution is a distribution chain like the Cosnat chain in the U.S. to take over the sales and promotion of the indie producer, but until someone makes the move, and it's an expensive proposition, the indie producer will keep fighting to make room for his product on the overcrowded German market.

France's Sacha Distel is producing his first German speaking records for Polydor with A&R man Kurt Feltz.

Ariola has released an LP of Glenn Miller songs from 1939 and 1940. The records were in the soundtrack of the film "Sun Valley Serenade."

Rolf Budde reports that his pubbery is swinging with German versions of the French hit "El Maintenant" sung by author Gilbert Becaud for Electrola and Caterina Valente for Decca. Other hits for the firm include "The Young Ones" selling well in English by Cliff Richard, and in German by Peter Kraus. The best-seller for the pubbery remains "Johnny Will" done in English by Pat Boone and in German by Gerd Boettcher. Other American songs recorded in German and doing well include "Land Of Teenage Love" sung by Peter Mario, and "You Can Have Her" sung by Sweden's Anita Lindblom. Original records selling well include "Pictures In The Fire" by Pat Boone, "High School Confidential" by France's Johnny Hallyday and the San Remo winners, "Quando, Quando" and "Gondoli, Gondola" sung in Italian by Tony Renis and Sergio Bruni. German waxings are now on the market from "Quando Quando" by Paul Kuhn for Electrola and Caterina Valente with brother Sylvio Francesco for Decca.

Brenda Lee is due in Germany at the end of April for a tour of Army bases in Germany.

MEXICO

Frank Sinatra came to México for two benefit performances, at the International Theater and a ball at The Hilton Hotel. At the International Theater, Sinatra performed in company of his combo composed of Emil Richards on vibraphone, Al Viola on guitar, Mexican Ralp Peña on bass, Erv Cotter on drums, Bill Miller on piano and Harry Klee on flute. It was our impression that Sinatra feels better accompanied by an instrumental group than an orchestra when he is before an audience.

At the same time, Frankie Avalon did well with his engagements at the Terrazza Cassino and a spectacular show at the Arena México. It is possible that Avalon will return to México very soon with a big contract.

Andy Russell has left México to start a big tour throughout the world. Tour includes one week in Lima, Peru performing only on TV. After that, three months in Argentina for TV slots with the Vlady orchestra and performances at the Teatro! Avenida, in company of Hugo del Carrill, Marianito Mores and Tita Merelo. At August and September, Andy will perform in Spain and do the same in Germany in October. After that, he will return to México to continue his very popular El Yate TV show, which has been renewed.

César Costa, one of the most popular singers of "the new wave," is completing a new LP for Orfeon accompanied by the arrangements and orchestra of Chico O'Farrill. In this album, César will sing old American standards in Spanish, like "Too Young," "Laura," "Ruby" and others. At Columbia, Enrique Guzmán, another young idol, is doing the same with Chuck Anderson's orchestra, including numbers like "Cheek To Cheek," "Night And Day," etc.

Paul Anka's new single has been released by RCA sung in Spanish. These songs are "Love Me Warm And Tender" and "I'd Like To Know."

A new TV show has bowed called "Frente A Frente," starring Paco Malgesto and Daniel Perez Arcaraz, as disk jockeys and introducing the most popular artists of the "new wave," who sing the top ten. At the moment, this program is not sponsored and people commented it very well.

For the Red Cross, Mexican pianist José Luis Oviedo will do a marathon in Querétarow, (a Mexican city), trying to break his record of 80 hours of consecutive playing at the piano. Oviedo, who just arrived from the United States where he did some dates in several cities, has done 48 different marathons.

Musart Records announced the new signing of three TV singers: Marquesita Radel, Angelita Castany and Angélica Maria. Marquesita and Angélica will sing modern rhythms and Angelita probably will sing boleros.

Mexican arranger and conductor Chucho Zarzosa is getting popular in the United States, with his first three LP's for RCA Camden in México, cut for the North American market.

CANADA

Young Bobby Curtola from Port Arthur, Ontario is finally coming into his own. His latest Tartan release, "Fortune Teller," out in Canada for the past month has just been released in the U.S. by Del-Fi. Bobby, himself, postcards from Windsor to let us know he's currently on a tour of deejays in the Windsor-Detroit area, going on into Toledo. Bill Fisher of Phonodisc, Montreal, distributors of Bobby's disks in this area, reported that Bobby has just been signed by Coca Cola Ltd., for a European tour this Summer. Young Curtola will headline a series of one nighters set for Cornwall and Ottawa in Ontario, and Montreal, at the end of April.

Paul Richardson of Polar Productions in Toronto recently booked Jimmy Dean and Carl Smith into the Ottawa Coliseum on a highly successful one nighter.

Rusty Draper just finished a very successful ten-day run at The Paddock in Edmonton, Alta., so writes J. H. Watson of the Quality office in the Western City. Another star to visit the Alberta City recently was Rolf Harris, the Australian-born record star who scored not so long ago with "Tie Me Kangaroo Down Sport." Both Draper and Harris were busy on deejay tours during their visits. Rusty's new "Country & Western Golden Greats" and Rolf's new LP, soon to be released created quite a stir with Edmontonians.

Canadian deejay-turned-singer, but still a deejay, Barry Boyd drops a line from CJCA, Edmonton said that his new Barry release, "Price Of Love" seems to be catching on. Barry just completed an extended tour with Bobby Curtola.

Harold Moon, BMI Canada, all excited about a new Columbia session by Stu Phillips. Stu was supposed to record the two tunes, "One Day Early" and "This Heart Of Mine" in Toronto. But session supervisor Frank Jones was unable to get away from Nashville. The end result was that Stu went to Nashville, did the tunes, and so impressed the Columbia brass, there, that they decided to release the sides in the U.S. as well. Ted Daigle, country deejay at CKOY, waxes enthusiastic over both sides, giving the nod to "One day." Ted, himself has two new albums due out on the Buckingham label this week.

Les Vote writes from Burnaby, B.C., sending along a copy of his new Jaguar sides. "Teenagers Dream" appears to be the top side at this stage of the game.

AUSTRALIA

The "trad" jazz bug seems to be catching on fairly strongly with record companies, radio and TV stations and some entertainment spots. The Kenny Ball single—on Pye—of "Midnight In Moscow" has had a tremendous run of popularity and his version of "March Of The Siamese Children" is now starting its chart run. Frank Johnson, trumpet-playing leader of one of Australia's best dixieland groups, is now on his way to England with a small group, Ray Price's jazz group is being featured on national television programs and on disk, Graeme Bell's Original Jazz Band is now on the comeback trail with TV, dance and club work and the band has a new single "Paper Doll" c/w "Melancholy Baby" on the W&G label.

Among the latest singles from E.M.I. are "The Big Draft" by The Four Preps; "Johnny Jingo" by Hayley Mills; "Your Time Will Come" by Australia's Frank Ifield—who is now in England—"Mashed Potato Time" by Dee Dee Sharp; "Cry" by Johnny Ray and "Shout! Shout!" by Ernie Maresca. In the album field the E.M.I. group recently issued the soundtrack package of "Tender Is The Night" and "The Simple Life" by Mavis Rivers.

It looks as though Lucky Starr is set for a big breakthrough with his new Festival label novelty single of the locally composed "I've Been Everywhere." Song was written for Lucky by Geoff Mack and is published by Johnny Devlin Music through the Belinda Publishing group. The gimmick of this one is that Lucky sings the names of countless (we've given up trying to count them) Australian towns and cities.

Australian Record Company just issued the Hickory album of "Meet Sue Thompson," which carries her hit singles "Sad Movies" and "Norman" both of which have been best sellers in this country. Another interesting LP from ARC on the UA label is Al Caiola's "Hit Instrumentals From TV Western Themes."

Most record companies and distributors report a slight increase in sales and production over the past few weeks. This lift—coming at a normally slack trading period—looks well for the future. It is heartening to report that this increase—only slight at the moment—is one of the first signs of a boost to the record industry since the introduction of the Government credit squeeze back in late 1960. If the present rate of action can be maintained, the trade should make a healthy start in our new financial year which begins on 1st July.

Jackie Wilson has recorded "Sing," which is Johnny O'Keefe's big hit of the moment throughout Australia on a Leedon label single and is handled by Festival Records.

RCA star Jimmy Elledge, who fared pretty well with his first single release "Funny How Time Slips Away," has his follow up record out now. It carries "Can't You See It In My Eyes" and "What A Laugh."

Talent City Records have produced an original-cast album of the musical adaptation of "The Sentimental Bloke" by C. J. Dennis. The record was cut during an actual on-stage performance during its long Melbourne season. The score is published by Chappell & Co.

Tu-Con Music, one of the growing publishing names in the Leeds group of companies, is riding high throughout Australia with a big batch of hits such as "The Wanderer," "Her Royal Majesty," "I've Got Bonnie," "Crying In The Rain," "Percolator Twist," "Please Don't Ask About Barbara," "Ballad Of Thunder Road," "If A Woman Answers," "You Better Move On," "Johnny Jingo" and "Play The Thing."

Enjoying a tremendous run of popularity for the second time in a couple of months is "Moon River," the great song from "Breakfast At Tiffany's." Awhile back the Jerry Butler version did good chart business and now the Henry Mancini record is our best selling single at the moment. The renewed action on "Moon River" is probably due to the fact that "Breakfast At Tiffany's" is now screening in this country.

CANADA (Cont'd)

Deejays at Montreal's CKGM played host to an honest-to-goodness real life Irish deejay, direct from Dublin on St. Patrick's Day. He hardly had time to spin any discs at all, what with all the Montrealers of Auld Sod origin dropping into the 'GM studios to shake hands and wish him, "Top O' The Mornin'." These same record men all hepped up over a new LP, "Twist To Radio CKGM."

Quality's Bill Smithers became the victim of one of his own gimmicks recently. In conjunction with Bob Dell of "Like Young" on Montreal's CFCE-TV, Bill ran a contest based on Mark Dinning's new MGM item, "All Of This For Sally." The listeners were invited to list any five of the things left to Sally the spaniel, according to the lyrics of the song. Winner was to be awarded a two-and-half-month-old Cocker Spaniel pup. Bill became so attached to the prize, he kept it. He had to come up with another pup, pronto.

Gene Cornish, Ottawa-born youngster, now living in Rochester, New York, in town over the weekend of April 7, to make the rounds of radio and TV deejays with his newly released Vassar side, "Since I Lost You." Gene also did a number of appearances at the Alec Sherman Record Bars in the Capital.

Twist craze really paying off for Ron Metcalf. The St. Catherines, Ontario musician scored recently in this country with his Barry single, "Twistin' At The Woodchoppers Ball." The single is now released in the U.S. on Dunes. It has been followed up by a new LP with the Metcalf band twistin' some of the old swing standards, including Woodchoppers, and one or two original things. One of the musicians featured on Ronn's "Woodchoppers" single was Toronto's Moe Koffman, who recently has released an updated, twist arrangement of his tremendous hit, "Swingin' Shepherd Blues," what else, "Twistin' Shepherd Blues."

JAPAN

Disks of foreign origin can take part in Japan's annual Art Festival this fall under the sponsorship of the Ministry of Education. The decision came after debates within JPRA, the label association.

Each member diskery of the association will be able to enter up to three disks of its foreign pacticees, with the stipulation that one of the disks must be an album. So-called "light music" from foreign sources is excluded from the festival.

On the local level, the yearly festival will now allow five disks to be represented by each label instead of the previous four—including one pop entry.

Victor just released four singles to bow its "Hit Song Series," including "Twist USA" by Takeshi Kiyohara and "I Wanna Love" by Masa-aki Hirao. The series will feature international pops by local Victor artists.

Songstress Chiemi Eri, heard on King Records, will celebrate her 10th anniversary as a professional singer next month. She will have a week-long commemorative stage show at the Nichigeki Theatre starting May 25. King will release in May a special LP, "From Tennessee To 'Sanosa'," consisting of 12 newly recorded hit tunes by the performer. Title indicates her first hit and her latest.

Labels and JASRAC, the Japanese clearing house for royalties, have agreed to postpone their new pact for another month. This was caused by the failure in reaching an agreement on the problem of royalty payments for "lyric slips," the inclusion of the words of a song with each disk. They have been used, labels say, as "an aid to customers" for 30 years or so. JASRAC, however, claims that royalties are due writers and publishers when the "lyric slips" are inserted, adding that such payments are made in other countries.

The basis of much of the controversy is the fact that music publishing activity in Japan is not yet fully established. In fact, the first music firm came into existence only two years ago in the country. Each local diskery, therefore, has its own exclusively pacted writers besides its roster of performers. This made it pretty easy for labels to produce free-of-charge "lyric slips" since the songs were owned by the label itself.

ARGENTINA

The "visitor" of the week was Heddo Heide, of Deutsche Grammophon Gesellschaft, of Hamburg, Germany . . . and he's here to stay. Heide will work in Buenos Aires as coordinator of operations of DGG for Latin America, and will visit all the countries where his company is represented. He will cooperate with Philips in the first releases of Polydor and DGG records that will take place soon. As previously reported, DGG was formerly represented in Argentina by Inter Bas, and changed recently to Philips.

Mario Kaminsky of Microfon is working day and night on "Nata Per Me" his latest release by Andriano Celentano. Since "Non Esiste L'Amor" has been a nice success, Kaminsky expects that this new waxing will do very well, too.

The news from Edami are "Mi Amor Ante Todo," written in Mexico by Mario de Jesus (the composer of "O," "Y," and "Ayudame Dios Mio," big hits in all Latin America) and "Luz Y Sombras," a new Funes and Cardenas production, also originated in Mexico. The first one has been cut by Rosamel Araya (Disc Jockey) and Lucho Gatica (Odeon). The second by Marco Antonio Muñiz (RCA) and Los Panchos (Columbia).

Fermata Publishers plans to open new branches in three Latin America countries in a few months: Mexico, Peru and Venezuela. The company is currently operating in Argentina and Brazil, and has branches in Chile, Uruguay and Paraguay. The publisher has recently inked "Senza Mamma E Senza Amore," which has been cut by Connie Francis as "With No One."

"Juntitos Juntitos," the newest recording of Los Cinco Latinos, is reporting strongly. "Juntitos Juntitos" is the leit motiv of "La Familia Falcon," a big TV'er. Writer is Lucio Milena, the arranger and well known director. The tune is recorded on Columbia.

"La Elegide," penned by local composer Dino Ramos, has been waxed by Antonio Prieto. According to some reports, the tune impressed Mariano Rivera Conde, the Mexican RCA exec. who was in Buenos Aires recently.

Raul Carrell, Argentine singer who has been working as artistic counselor in Copacabana Records of Brazil (owned by the Vitale Publishers organization) will come to Buenos Aires to administrate the Vitale interests in this country. Julio Korn Publishers, which handles Vitale Argentina, will help him in his labor.

More from Julio Korn: the firm has inked "Teodoro Estas Ahi," composed by Jorge Lopez Ruiz for the film "La Jaula No Tiene Secretos," "Piccola," an Italian Charleston already cut by Los TNT for RCA, and "Los Colores De La Felicidad," one of the tunes presented to the San Remo Festival.

Tonodisc Records will release the Hickory recordings in this country. The first one will be "Norman" by Sue Thompson, which is being widely promoted.

RCA releases: "Moon River" by Henry Mancini; "La Bordonata" by Anibal Troilo; "Granada," the first recording in Argentina of Brazilian star Cauby Peixoto; "Tu" and "Eres Como Te Soñe" by Chilean star Nadia Milton; "Escalofrio" by RCA's newest rock 'n roller, Palito Ortega, and four tango LP's: "Juan O'Ariengo Y Alberto Echague," "Corrientes En El Tango," "El Tango En Paris" (Tango In Paris) and "La Mujer Y El Tango."

News from Disc Jockey: The label has released a new EP by Rosamel Araya, its top star. The record is a selection of Rosamel's latest hits: "Gris" and "El Veler" (local tunes), "Escandalo" (Mexican) and "Flor Sin Retoño" (Mexican). Victor Hugo and Horacio Malvicino have also a new EP, titled "Que Murmuren"; Ricardo Yarke cut "Sucede En Primavera" and "Quisiera." Don Nobody cut a number of tunes from TV'ers: "Perry Mason," "Johnny Staccato" and "Peter Gunn." All these records are presented in attractive color sleeves.

Michael Davis of Ariel reports that the single 33 containing "Kissin' On The Phone" by Paul Anka is doing as well as the 78 record previously released. "Loveland," put to sale on 33 and 78 at the same time, has also achieved very good sales.

Producciones Fermata is studying the possibility of releasing classical music. The first records would be put to sale in a couple of months.

Los Cinco Latinos and Roberto Yanes have started a new "music hall" program at the Astrla Theatre. Yanes' last record, "Te Desafio," is doing well.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"WALTZ OF THE ANGELS" (2:38)

[Central Songs BMI—Reynolds, Rhodes]

"TALK ABOUT LOVIN'" (2:10) [Glad BMI—Mathis]

GEORGE JONES & MARGIE SINGLETON (Mercury 71955)

George Jones who is currently hitting with "Aching, Breaking Heart" and his UA bow of "She Thinks I Still Care" should go a similar success route with "Waltz Of The Angels," an attractive duet with Margie Singleton cut during his day with Mercury. The tune is a first-rate shuffle-beat, waltz-tempoed bluegrass-styled opus with the twosome turning in a sincere, moving job in the chanting department. In "Talk About Lovin'" the couple read a catchy, uptempo tune with enough potential to get plenty of spins. Wax looms a sure-fire chart item.

"HEAR THE WHISTLE BLOW A HUNDRED MILES" (2:34)

[Peer BMI—Flatt, Scruggs]

"THE LEGEND OF THE JOHNSON BOYS" (2:13)

[Peer BMI—Flatt, Scruggs]

LESTER FLATT & EARL SCRUGGS (Columbia 42413)

Looks like Flatt & Scruggs have a potent follow-up stanza to their current chart-rider of "Just Ain't" with this two-sided hitsville contender. With "Hear The Whistle Blow A Hundred Miles" the boys come up with a listenable, bluegrass, folk-flavored tune with all the necessary built-in success ingredients to reach the charts. In "The Legend Of The Johnson Boys" the twosome unleash their professional vocal and instrumental full-blast on a tradition-oriented, uptempo country item. Eye both sides here for heavy sales action.

"TOUCH ME" (2:10) [Pamper BMI—Nelson]

"WHERE MY HOUSE LIVES" (2:17) [Pamper BMI—Nelson]

WILLIE NELSON (Liberty 55439)

Willie Nelson who is currently cashing in on "Willingly," a vocal duet with Shirley Collie, seems to have another hot item which could score in the coin department with "Touch Me." The tune is a shuffle-beat, slow-tempo blues side essayed with loads of country authority by the songster. In "Where My House Lives" Nelson dishes up a real nice pop-styled lament with an infectious spinnable lyric.

"PLEASE PASS THE KISSES" (1:54) [Pamper BMI—Howard]

"TOMORROW YOU WON'T EVEN KNOW MY NAME" (2:42)

[Central Songs BMI—Howard]

JAN HOWARD (Capitol 4744)

"Please Pass The Kisses" is a powerful chart-contender from the pen of ace country tunesmith Harlan Howard essayed with high spirits and country poise by Jan. The side's catchy lyrics coupled with a pop-styled uptempo melody could help it garner quick acceptance. In "Tomorrow You Won't Even Know My Name" the lark reads a top-run hillbilly tear-jerker on a familiar theme. Spinners should flock to the side in droves.

"A HUNDRED PROOF HEARTACHE" (2:25)

[Sure-Fire BMI—Lynn]

"SUCCESS" (2:36)

[Sure-Fire BMI—Mullins]

LORETTA LYNN (Decca 31384)

Loretta Lynn could make a fast splash with this strong double-barreled entry. "Hundred Proof Heartache" is a bluegrass-styled weeper with a sincere, heart-tugging delivery by the lark. Side could step out sales-wise. "Success" is another first-rate slow-paced lament with an equal chance for success.

AL DEXTER (Capitol 4724)

(B+) "I WON'T BE NUMBER TWO" (2:10) [Al Dexter Songs BMI—Dexter, Wood Bloodworth]

Al Dexter comes up with a clever, fast-paced, happy lament on traditional country theme. With the proper exposure the side could make some noise.

(B) "MY LITTLE HEARTACHE" (1:50) [Al Dexter Songs BMI—Dexter]

This time out the songster reads another lively, uptempo side with enough good stuff in it to grab some spins.

SAMMY MARSHALL

(Ranchwood 2230)

(B) "GAME OF LOVE" (2:25)

[Stephonic BMI—Feith] Sammy Marshall comes on strong for this high-spirited opus about his favorite game. The side has enough potential to attract some jockeys.

(C+) "AM I TOO LATE" (2:12)

[Stephonic BMI—Feith] Here the songster reads a weeper with a familiar-sounding hillbilly sound. Fair wax.

grounds from the moment the fair opened each day until the time it closed. Thousands of people swarmed to the fair and saw a real radio station in operation and the WHEW jockeys they'd heard but never seen, walking around in western outfits. In this way people not only from Palm Beach County, but all of south Florida were introduced to the only town and country music station on the Gulf coast of Florida. A high point of the event was a special tri-color rosette award presented to the station by the prexy of the fair for its "outstanding coverage and diligent work in the interest of the fair."

Howard Vokes and his Country Boys are now making plans for a long tour this summer season. Bookers interested in his strictly country act are invited to write to him in care of Vokes Music Promotions, New Kensington, Pennsylvania.

Curley Gold and his Texas Tune Twisters are currently performing before record breaking crowds throughout California. This marks the fifth year that the country crew has played the government hospital.

Spinners who were missed in the mailing of Ott Stephens Fairlane newie, "Big Boys Don't Cry" may obtain copies by writing on their station's letterhead to Teresa Simpkins, the chanter's fan club prexy, at Route No. 4, Box 670, La Fayette, Georgia.

The Wilburn Brothers, who are currently putting their hopes in their chart-riding Decca entry of "Trouble's Back In Town," have a series of key dates set in Iowa, South Dakota, Montana and Idaho before teaming up with Margie Bowes and Merle Kilgore in Spokane for a tour in Canada with a Marlin Payne package. Marty Robbins and his band will also be featured with the boys on their Canadian jaunt.

Tommy Edwards reports that bluegrass music has been hitting hard in Cleveland, Ohio. Tommy says that they've been packing them in at the Dennison theatre with an all-star of top bluegrass artists including such names as Reno & Smiley, Bill Monroe, the Stanley Brothers and Bill Clifton.

Bob Staten, jockey on CKLW-Detroit, is off to a good start on his new country music show over the Michigan 50,000 watter. Bob is on from 7:30 PM until midnight and says he's been getting heavy mail and a heap of interest. The deejay could use loads of country platters both old and new.

Val Records of Victoria, Texas has retained Gotham promo man Morty Wax to handle the drumbeating chores on their new Honey and the Teardrops single "You Are The One."

Ramblin' Lou, WJLL-Niagara Falls personality and country promoter, writes in that he's set a first-class Grand Ole Opry show starring Hank Snow and the Rainbow Ranch Boys for three shows in the Empire state later this month.

Buck Owens has returned to his California home after a southwest tour. The chanter made two appearances at the Fresno, Calif. Recent visitors to Eddie Briggs' KEAP-Fresno country deejay show were Buck Owens, Teddy and Doyle Wilburn, and Billy Walker. Eddie recently began his fourth year with the coast outlet.

The Blackwood Brothers are on the road again. This time the boys have a slew of dates scheduled in Michigan, Ohio, Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas.

Al Dexter infos that the folks at Capitol think his "I Won't Be Number Two" and "My Little Heartache" could be the one to bring him into the national spotlight. Al has been in the motel and real estate business for the past few years and hopes this new single can successfully mark his return to chanting.

Lee Nichols has moved from KOOO-Omaha, Neb., to KRMG, a 50,000 watter in Tulsa, Okla. Lee is now doing two country shots per day.

April 23-30 has been tagged Peter DeRose Week. Roy Horton mentions that the late ace tunesmith penned such biggies as "Wagon Wheels," "Have You Ever Been Lonely" and "I Heard A Forest Praying."

Judy Steinberg, who has been filling in for Hank Davis on the "Tennessee Border" show over WKCR-New York, reports that she is in dire need of country platters. The station is the FM outlet of Columbia University.

The Increasing Role Of Government In Today's Business

Gone are the days when Government did not concern itself with private business. The role of Government in business has grown to the point where even the coin machine industry, admittedly a pebble among boulders of the business world, can expect continued legislation to affect its very existence. Broad legislative action extending in all directions, while necessary in many respects, has resulted in revised manufacturing, distributing, and sales policies which must conform with Governmental rulings.

A case in point is the perennial legislative dictums which have slowly chipped away at what once was a major segment of the amusement machine business. While operators pay unusually high taxes for the privilege of operating this equipment, manufacturers wait with bated breath for the next ruling which may slice away still another portion of this market. Right or wrong, Government has assumed the position of a major entity insofar as this area of the coin machine business is concerned—and it affects the livelihood of every operator, wholesaler, manufacturer and location owner.

Last month President Kennedy's tax proposal was submitted to Congress. The prime purpose of the tax program is of course to increase Government income via revised corporate and individual income taxes. However, restaurant industry leaders saw fit to fly to Washington in order to confer with officials before passage of the legislation knocks the expense account right out of the box. Any ruling which affects the entertainment or the restaurant business naturally affects the coin machine industry. But this isn't the point of discussion here. Government edicts can oftentimes change the basic business picture. It so happens that the vending machine business may very well benefit from this same tax law. Restaurateurs claim that the substantial job loss which will come about if the expense account is slashed, must be made up through greater use of automatic feeding, the one system which eases personnel payroll costs.

While it's old hat to the American public, the cancer-cigarette link has been published in Europe and following on its heels were several programs designed to prevent juveniles from smoking. Last week Italy outlawed cigarette advertising and England's major tobacco companies agreed to see that 6000 cigarette vendors were removed from public locations. No one is condoning cancer or sub-teen smoking, but the fact remains—Government action brought these changes about.

All of which points to an ever growing need for a strong industry voice in Government. Unless the coin machine industry can count on solid representation in Government—federal, state and municipal—we could win the competition for the consumer's dollar but lose the ball game.

Dallas Ops Claim 42 Operating Firms Among Members

Politicians Address CMOA At Assoc. Meeting

DALLAS—A regular meeting of Coin Machine Operators Association, Houston, held April 3rd, was marked by the largest attendance to date according to presiding officer, Jack Stazo. Minutes of the previous meeting recorded by Doris Christian, CMOA office secretary noted that the organization had paid up membership of 42 bona fide operating concerns, eleven associate member firms and three servicing companies.

Insurance representatives Harry B. Hackethorne and Bill Lucy outlined a group insurance plan for the membership. New introductions included Robert Small, Atlas Music and Robert Fuller, Dixie Distributing.

The coinmen agreed that an operator must set up his equipment in a "bumped" location not later than 48 hours after "bumping notice" had been served or forfeit rights to said location. Attention was called to Cash Box coverage of last meeting in an earlier issue. Vice President D. T. Stoghill commented on a trade paper article concerning results of teen agers playing pool. The mention was made to a situation in Philadelphia.

Bill Hollis, candidate for County Judge, was introduced and allowed time to outline his platform. Political views were exchanged on qualifications of different candidates for governor.

Officials of CMOA are willing, even anxious, to assist groups anywhere who wish to form similar business or-and advertising material was approved at the meeting, attended by close to twenty-five coinmen, which was held in UJA offices here. Refreshments were served.

Boorstein Addresses Group

Lou Boorstein, past chairman and Guest Of Honor, addressed the assemblage and outlined the purpose of the drive. The overall UJA drive is expected to result in $35,000,000 for a Special Fund to meet the pressing problems of the heavy immigration to Israel and other lands, along with a regular campaign goal of $60 million. The $95 million will be used to serve a total of 600,000 persons in 27 countries. The N.Y. Assoc. for New Americans and the United Hias Service will benefit from the UJA campaign. The Coin Machine Industry's responsibility in this area has been set at $35,000. This is the approximate amount of money raised each year by the coinmen.

Territories Outlined

Territorial chairmen were named and are as follows: Lou Boorstein, Manhattan; Carl Pavesi and Seymour Polak, Westchester County; Jack Wilson, Hudson Valley; Abe Fish and Mac Pearlman, Connecticut. Al "Senator"

Bodkin was named Special Gift Chairman. His wife, Frances, was officially named First Lady of the UJA and heads a Ladies Telephone Group comprised of the following wives of coinmen: Etta Bloom, Jean Blatt, Evelyn Siskind, Ruth Holzman, Frances Denver and Edith Kaufman.

Publicity will be handled by Billboard's Aaron Sternfield and Marty Toohey of Cash Box, who along with Al Bodkin comprise the Delegate Committee to State County Commission.

Al Denver was appointed Chairman Emeritus. Honorary chairmen are: Tom Greco, Mike Munves, Meyer Parkoff, Al Simon, Barney Sugarman and Jack Wilson. George Holtzman is co-chairman. Supervising the drive in Nassau County is Joe Albino, Jr. and Ronnie Billings. Cash Box' Bob Austin and Frank Lupino of Billboard will head the Entertainment Committee. Oscar Parkoff and Irv Morris head the New Jersey section.

Meeting A Success

The meeting was a success from the start with close to twenty-five interested coinmen attending and there was every indication that the drive will be a success. Orleck and Littleford, Guests of Honor, have supported UJA drives for many years, have a vast following among coinmen throughout the nation, and are expected to lead the campaign to a record-breaking fund drive.

The next committee meeting will be held on Monday, April 23rd at 6 PM in the UJA offices at 220 West 58 Street. Everyone in the trade is cordially invited to attend.

Sandy Moore Charges Official With Coercion

NEW YORK — Sandy Moore, local coin machine operator currently serving a prison term for violation of the Bankruptcy Act and awaiting trial for allegedly attempting to bribe a Federal Judge, made headlines in New York newspapers last week with a charge against a former assistant US Attorney and a Doctor that they combined to threaten the coinman with a fifteen year sentence unless he paid off to them a $35,000 bribe. In an affidavit made public and printed in its entirety in the New York Times, the coinman accused Elliott Kahaner, former US Attorney and Dr. Robert Erdman, a surgeon, of being key participants in a conspiracy to obstruct justice. The announcement came as a complete turnabout considering charges made against Moore several months ago charging him with the bribe attempt of a judge.

The affidavit signed by Moore read in part: "I accuse Elliott Kahaner, then an asst. U.S. Attorney, together with certain of his confederates of coercing me to plead guilty to the indictment on March 9, 1961, and extorting $35,000 from me." Moore's affidavit outlined the alleged coercion in a step-by-step "trap" which Moore claims forced him to pay money to the accused "in his hand" after Moore had earlier remarked that he was willing to pay the sum of $60,000 for legal talent in the case.

Erdman, Kahaner, State Supreme Court Justice J. Vincent Keogh and Anthony Corallo are under indictment on charges of conspiracy and are scheduled to go on trial May 7. All have pleaded not guilty.

UJA-COIN MACHINE COMMITTEE: Seated (l. to r.) Max Klein, Lou Boorstein, Chairman Irv Holzman, Cary Pavesi and Frances Bodkin. Standing, Meyer Parkoff, Teddy Blatt, Aaron Sternfield, George Holtzman, Marty Toohey, Seymour Polak, Nash Gordon, Morris Rood, Al Simon, Harold Kaufman, Al "Senator" Bodkin, Al Denver and Lou Wolberg. Coinmen met to set plans for 1962 Victory Dinner honoring Joe Orleck and R. L. Littleford, Jr. (Story this page).

Britain Bans 6000 Cig Vendors After Cancer Report Indicates Possible Link

Italy Curbs Advertising, Tobacco Stocks Dip

NEW YORK—The much publicized British Royal College of Physicians report on the link between cancer and smoking touched off a campaign in Britain which began last week with the removal of 6000 cigarette vending machines. The decision to discourage smoking began after medical reports indicated that a possible connection between the disease and habitual smoking may exist. Similar reports issued in the United States during the past several years have not interfered with the sale of cigarettes, and have as a matter of fact, brought about the filter-tip cigarette which has helped cigarette sales, in general, increase with each passing sales quarter.

Sale, of U.S. made cigarettes in European markets are not expected to suffer to any great extent since most manufacturers enjoy only a small percentage of overall sales in this market.

Tobacco stocks here did dip though last week with the cancer talk spreading to U.S. media. Tobacco stocks dipped at mid-week but were back to the normal level by Friday morning. The market was quite upset however with many brokers complaining about the hesitancy of stock buyers to purchase tobacco issues. The possibility of more negative news was probably the main reason for this reluctance. U.S. cigarette manufacturers, unlike the European makers, have repeated earlier contentions that the link between cancer and smoking is speculative.

Joseph Cullman, President of Philip Morris Inc. stated at the firm's annual meeting last week that "there is no clinical proof" of the existence between cancer and smoking. He didn't concern himself with the drop in stock prices earlier because in recent months the stocks have dropped with the release of similar news and then rebounded to normal or higher prices.

While Europe is setting an educational campaign advising the consumer of possible harmful effects from tobacco, Italy has already banned cigarette advertising. Most advertising of cigarettes in Italy is for imported brands. British tobacco manufacturers have agreed to limit television commercial hours to later in the evening in order to circumvent the sub-teen listening audience.

Previous cancer reports in this country have led to proposed legislation.

Cafeteria Men To Hear Of 800 Million Dimes

CHICAGO—One of vending's largest potential customer groups, National Industrial Cafeteria Managers' Association, will hear a presentation on in-plant vending services at its national convention in Chicago on Thursday, May 24.

Walter W. Reed, director of public relations, National Automatic Merchandising Association, will address the group on "Vending—What 800,000,000 Dimes Mean To You" at the group's conference at Chicago's O'Hare Inn (9:40—10:45 a.m.).

The presentation will outline the growth of vending services in recent years, its application in industrial food services and recommendations for choosing qualified vending companies, Reed said. The new NAMA film slide presentation, "How Vending Serves the Public," will be part of the address.

NICMA members manage some of the largest industrial and office cafeterias and are becoming increasingly interested in the possibilities of vending, Reed said.

The presentation is part of the NAMA Speakers' Bureau activities.

Restaurants Warn Wash. On Job Loss If Tax Credit Spurs Vending Growth

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy's investment tax benefits are being buffeted about in the nation's Capitol these days and one industry swinging from the floor is the restaurant business. Thomas Power, Washington counsel for the 100,000-member National Restaurant Association, voiced the opinions of the industry last week when he stated that a tax credit proposal would provoke substantial job loss in the restaurant industry by causing restaurant owners "to switch to vending meals sold through coin-operated machines."

"Any service industry, any industry with a relatively high labor cost, as contrasted with industries having a high capital investment, will be put at a disadvantage in its competition for the consumer's dollar if the tax credit approach is adopted," said the attorney.

Power conceded that because his industry has the ability to switch to machine-sold machines, it might get its share of "this tax windfall" but the benefit would fall "mostly to large operators with greater funds for capital investment."

The lawyer also attacked the expense account language of the bill saying that a slash in the expense account would eliminate more than 200,000 jobs in this country along with the money spent for "good will" now on beverage and food consumption in public eating places.

UNIV. MATCH PROMISES PROFITS

NEW YORK—John L. Wilson, President of Universal Match Corporation, declined last week to estimate quarterly earnings but vowed improved profits for '62 if the current trend continues.

In '61 Universal Match earnings dropped sharply to $2,359,000 or 45 cents per share after enjoying $6,385,000, or $1.27 per share earnings during 1960.

Directors are considering paying a quarterly dividend, said Wilson, commenting that the firm did not pay a dividend during its first quarter but paid a 2% dividend in December.

Universal Match called all 8,813 shares of its outstanding preferred stock last week costing the firm $899,000. Wilson stated that the firm is still considering future acquisitions.

Thomas Donahue, newly elected proxy of Universal was introduced by Wilson to the stockholders. Within a few days, it was announced, Wilson will give up the presidency, remain as chairman, and permit Donahue to assume the presidency.

Arcade Ops Ready For April 14th Openings But Equipment Shortage Continues To Plague Funlands

NEW YORK—Arcade operators in this area were rushing to meet the big opening date for the '62 season last week as Saturday, April 14th approached. The 14th has been set as official opening day for arcades and amusement parks here. Palisades Amusement Park, one of the largest operators in the East, planned on a gala opening with recording star Bobby Rydell heading a long list of live attractions to draw an opening weekend crowd of thousands.

Coney Island jumped the gun last month with premature weekend openings and will be in action seven days a week starting next week. Asbury Park and Atlantic City are ready for an April 14th opening and the smaller operators along the seaboard have, of course, joined in for a simultaneous opening.

The biggest obstacle in the path of arcade owners continued to be a shortage of equipment and at press time last week there was no cure in sight for this desperate situation. Mike Munves, veteran arcade wholesaler, advised last week that orders were on hand for enough equipment to keep his refinishing and shipping crew busy all season—"if we had the machines."

Wholesalers throughout the nation were phoning, and making personal calls on outlets for possible quantities of machines, in order to fill an unusually high demand for the novelty equipment.

An operator in New England suffered a fire last Winter which razed the entire plant and equipment along with it. Insurance covered the costs, but the source of equipment through which he may refurbish the funspot just isn't there. "I should have insured the machines as collector's items. That's what they're getting to be these days!"

Nationwide calls from leading arcade houses have resulted in nothing more than a handful of notices offering ancient machines which have little value in today's market.

However, the arcade operator is a student of psychology. If it just can't be done, move on to something that can be understood, solved, and overcome is his motto. So arcade owners everywhere are looking to the weatherman for a sunny, warm opening day.

Std. Financial Has Hope Of Record Net

NEW YORK—Theodore Silbert, President of Standard Financial Corporation, factoring house with nationwide branches serving the coin machine and vending industries, "hopes 1962 will be a record year for earnings." Silbert made the statement at the firm's annual meeting held here last week.

The firm's first quarter earnings this year were set at 33% higher than last year's comparable period. Silbert said that business for the firm's clients was not as good as he had hoped it would but he expected an increase during the next three months.

The firm could top its last year's figures for the twelfth year in a row.

Silbert said that no particular merger talks were going on now but added that preliminary conversations are "going on at all times."

Heinz Prummer Arrives In New York

Accompanied By Marcel Grosch, Belgian Buyer

NEW YORK—Heinz Prummer, President of Automaten Grosshandel, German coin machine firm, arrived here last week on the heels of a wake of advertising announcements which resulted in the coinman receiving inquiries from dozens of leading coin machine distributing firms in this country. Prummer's first stop upon arrival in the USA was the Cash Box Broadway offices where he picked up inquiries received via the special advertisements.

Prummer was accompanied by Marcel Grosch, of Liege, Belgium, who is here to purchase equipment for several coin machine firms in Belgium as well as for his own firm which re-sells machines throughout Europe. Prummer operates and jobs machines in Germany only.

The coinmen planned a buying trip which included stops in Boston, New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Chicago, and from there, "wherever there are machines," according to Prummer. The pair stopped at New York's Abbey Hotel while here and received several callers. They didn't know exactly how long their stay would be since no specific itinerary was outlined. But they will be in the country "at least two weeks," indicating that three to four weeks was more likely.

tion and at present here are two anti-tobacco proposals before the Senate Labor Committee. One bill would provide Federal grants for subsidizing educational films and lectures outlining the harmful effects of tobacco, alcohol and narcotics. Lung cancer is reportedly a major target of the bill. Senators have been reported as saying that no action is expected on the bills, however. Another bill however proposes a Presidential approved health education program on a broad basis, nationally. In the House, a bill has been submitted asking for cigarette labels to state tar and nicotine contents.

The tobacco industry received support, indirectly, when the Metropolitan Insurance Company, absolutely denied any issuance of lower insurance rates for non-smokers.

Several countries in Europe are studying the current reports and, with the exception of Britain and Italy, no other countries have made any type of move against cigarettes.

An important aspect of the overall feeling toward cigarettes was the steps which were and might be taken to prevent children from purchasing cigarettes. This of course would affect vending machines in public places as in the case of Britain where 6000 were banned.

New Orleans Port Will Aid Coin Exports

JFK To Dedicate May 4

NEW ORLEANS—Coin machine exporters in this area will receive a spanking new port of export in May. The export market in Latin America is served through the New Orleans port where close to eight coin firms ship coin-operated music and games to foreign importers. President Kennedy will deliver a major address on U. S. foreign trade at the formal dedication May 4 of the $10 million new Nashville avenue wharf of Lykes Bros. Steamship Co. in the port of New Orleans.

A White House spokesman said that the President had been "fully briefed on the Nashville avenue wharf and the fact that it is the most modern of its kind in the world."

"The President," the spokesman continued, "believes that we must forge ahead, modernizing our ports and adding to our ability to handle the trade of the world so that we can better compete with other nations for the benefit of our people."

Eastern Flashes

More ops in town this week than in quite some time what with new equipment excursions, MONY meeting, UJA meeting among other good reasons for visiting Tenth Avenue. Among the operators were Al "Senator" Bodkin and his lovely wife Frances, who was officially named "First Lady" of the United Jewish Appeal—Coin Machine Div. during a meet Tuesday eve at UJA headquarters. Everything's fine with Al and it appears as tho he'll do another big fund drive job for the cause this year. . . . Teddy Blatt in town sporting a Florida tan and looking like a lawyer who just passed his bar exam! . . . Lou Boorstein, Leslie One-Stop's prez, attending the major UJA luncheon last week, was briefed on the goals for this year's drive and presented them to coinmen at a meeting earlier in the week. . . . Dick DiCiccio, Westchester op, advising that his son, Richard, celebrated his 22nd birthday last week. Dick, Jr. expects to arrive in NYC next week for Easter vacation from Denver whereupon he'll enter the Actors Studio for training which he hopes will eventually place him before the footlights of the Broadway stage. Dick has played the lead in many shows during Summer Stock vehicles and his Dad is looking for big things from the lad.

Howard Herman, down from Westchester, looking trim and full of vigor. . . . Gil Sonin made the mistake of many men. He went out and bought himself a house with an area out front and back which consists of dirt (mud when it rains) and he has already started on a program of turning this mess into a lawn. No tips, Gil, just use your own technique. It's easier to give tips on horses than on ways of producing a fine lawn!

Postal cards from Barney Sugerman indicate that the Runyon exec and his wife Molly have already visited Cannes, Monte Carlo and the French Riviera. Failed to mention that the new Rowe cig machine happens to bear that same name. He must be enjoying himself! "The scenery is beautiful," said Shugy. Time flies—only two more weeks and the AMI distrib will be back.

Si Redd phones us from Boston to advise that business is fine and that his new European sales representative, Marinus Van Der Weijde, is residing in West Germany handling Redd's segment of the export biz to be derived from Europe. The rep will travel Europe calling on coin machine buyers. . . . Charlie Katz will have an announcement to make shortly. Katz is currently in NYC planning a road trip for a coin-operated line. . . . E. A. Brown, Bermuda coinman, calls on Lipsky Distributing, talks with Abe, and Harry Koeppel, then flies South after viewing the equipment he ordered from the coin outlet. Invites us down to Bermuda and was surprised to learn that we couldn't leave that fast! . . . Henry Slavis, Lipsky's parts manager, checking in with the Doc regularly, expecting an okay to work full time. Spends a few hours on the job, easing back into the swing of things, after surgery last month.

Steve Tarzana and Sam Morrison keeping busy making stops and setting installations regularly. Sounds like lots of new locations around, to hear the boys talk. . . . Assistant District Attorney Bill Kahn will be guest speaker at the UJA Banquet in NYC's Plaza Hotel June 5th honoring Joe Orleck and Rog Littleford. Irv Holzman managed to have the DA okay the date even with a hectic schedule. He's a close friend of Holzman.

Murray Kaye re-cooping while Mike Calland does his best to fill in. "I'll be glad when Murray's back for more than one reason," said Mike as he looked for the files, the orders and the red tape. Meyer Parkoff had some business to conduct later Tuesday PM which held him up making for a late arrival at the UJA meet same night. Meyer's brother Oscar will head the committee work in Jersey.

Mike Munves picked up enuf business last week to keep the crew busy until next Fall. "Now if only we had all of the machines they want, and could re-condition them in time for the openings this month!" says Mike. Dick Greenberg tried to round up some of the hard-to-get arcade machines via telephone but to no avail.

Irv Holzman, United States East Coast Sales (When he isn't working as UJA chairman) advised that United will have news for the trade in another two weeks. Business has been great this year with three solid months for the manufacturer and distributors of United equipment.

Al Simon attended the UJA luncheon last week with Lou Boorstein, both past Guests of Honor, and then proceeded to the committee meet with other coinmen on Tuesday. Earlier in the day we discussed the Rock-Ola sales situation with Simon to learn that he has sold more phonos this quarter than even his most optimistic estimates indicated he would. . . . Morris Rood, in boasting about his bowling, either gave us the wrong information or we didn't catch it right the first time (which isn't that unusual!) but in any event he never did bowl a 180 in Newark following his failure to win a Detroit tourney two weeks ago. "I returned to Newark and took the family out," said Rood, denying any association with a score of 180 in Newark. (Now if he bowled 300 that would have been a different story!) Morris and Lou Wolberg are working together on UJA fund drives locally. . . . Irv Kempner, fought off an illness last week, recovered and reportedly was back on the job. Evidently working on the road and helping the new East Hartford office get itself settled. . . . Harry Berger is still moving quantities of the Vendocraft compact vending machine line to customers around the country. Expects some new machines in this month—hot food, sandwich and a specialty machine.

Looks as tho Irving Kaye will have that new idea ready soon. He's signed for space at the MOA in May. . . . Mickey Anderson working out regularly in the Erie bowling emporium keeping in shape for the upcoming Natl. Polish Falcon Tourney scheduled to be held in Cleveland in two weeks. . . . Seymour Pollak never received a reply from New York's Journal-American after telling 'em off re an article two reporters wrote about the public's taste in music. . . . Carl Pavesi looking fine, ready to head the Westchester County committee efforts for UJA this year. . . . Champ Seidel now with Natl' Business Exchange. . . . No word on Ray Knoss' condition as we go to press. Ray's laid up at Madison Hospital in NYC. . . . Perry Wachtel, agency for many coin machine accounts, back from a trip to Florida where he played golf and did little of anything also (what else is there?). . . . Visitors to Cash Box this week were the expected Heinz Prummer, German coin machine buyers who attracted notice from the entire trade with a preliminary ad schedule in Cash Box announcing his arrival. Received a box full of inquiries. He was joined by Morris Grosch, a Belgian buyer. The coinmen will tour the USA in search of equipment.

Chicago Chatter

The sports-minded had their "field day" last week, with the traditional annual opening of the baseball season, and Stanley Cup Playoff hysteria as the hot Chicago Blackhawks met the equally hot Toronto Maple Leafs head-on in Maple Leaf Gardens (Toronto) and the Chicago Stadium. (This isn't "Criss Cross" Hockey, Mort (Secore)—but it's just as exciting!) (Anyway—the White Sox won the first baseball game.)

Speakin' of Chicago Coin (and we were), there's oodles of activity all over the country, according to Mort Secore, with particular emphasis on the new ChiCoin "Gold Crown" big ball bowler, "Variety Roll Down" shuffle alley bowler, "Long Range Rifle Gallery" and "Criss Cross" Hockey game. . . . It's turning into a "beautiful Spring" at United Mfg. these days, where Herb Oettinger and Bill DeSelm are expressing considerable elation over the fantastic increase in sales with "Bonus Baseball," "Holiday" bowling alley and "Crystal" shuffle alley bowler. Meanwhile, LeRoy Kraehmer and Glenn Johnson are equally enthused over the immediate acceptance of United Music's new UPD-100 coin-operated phonograph.

Seeburg Corp. is at full strength at the huge plant this week with the recent return of Delbert Coleman, board chairman; prexy Frank B. O'Brien, vice presidents Tom Herrick, Jack C. Gordon, Leonard C. Gross and Stuart Auer. Also Dave Howle and Bob Breither. Another returnee was Bob Dunlap. A Seeburgite, who is a man-in-motion these days is Lou Haley, district manager of the vending division. . . . World Wide Distrib prexy Joel Stern returned from his winter vacation looking very fit. He and his Bernadine had a ball in the southern climes. Fred Skor infos that Art Wood is back on the road again for World Wide. Howie Freer busy on the phones.

Heavy increase in Spring business is noted at Bally Mfg. Herb Jones and Bill O'Donnell happily anticipate steady climb in sales for several months. Proud papa Don Moloney is busier with each succeeding day. . . . While Empire Coin owner Gil Kitt and sales manager Joe Robbins are enjoying their busiest export and domestic biz binge at Empire Coin Machine Exchange with amusement and music equipment, Jack (Bottles) Burns and Bill Herbord are blazing the trails calling on ops. Jack is in Northern Michigan and Indiana, and Bill is covering Illinois.

Leonard Singer, coinvet who operates his own coin machine servicing operation in Chi, just returned from "seven wonderful days" in Grand Rapids, where he took the AMI service course in the "Little Red School House." Len had high praise for AMI's very competent instructors, Cliff Biting and "Vady" Vadeboncour. Also, AMI sales chief Phil (Handsome) Glover and Jerry Routzahn. While in Grand Rapids Singer basked in the luxury of the Morton House Hotel.

Atlas Music's Irv Ovitz recently returned from a fine Miami Beach vacation with his wife. Irv departed the fabulous sun spa just before start of the NATD conclave at the Fountainbleau. Nate Feinstein preceded Irv there as a vacationer. Bob Fabian conducted a service session in Atlas Music's showrooms Wednesday, April 4, featuring the Rowe "Riviera" cigarette machine. He was aided and abetted by Frank Bach, Manuel Herman and Ray Grier—all Atlas coinvets. Ops and service men on hand included: Dick Nickels, Bob Massey, Charley Rothgeb, Roger Koopman, Leonard Piccinonno, Ted Frantzen, Bill Saunders, Jimmy Galanos, Gus Sfickas, Ed Wiegale, and Earl and Kenneth Hawking.

It's definitely export time at First Coin Machine Exchange these days, according to Joe Kline and Sam Kolber. Sam and Fred Kline are busy as blazes of late filling the multitude of requests for First Coin's very complete Export Catalog to the world wide trade.

Dave Rosen visited with Tom Sams, AC Automatic Services vice prexy last week during a brief stopover in Chi. "Smilin'" Dave is riding the crest of a big season with the AMI phono. Vice prexy Jack Harper, Tom tells us, is really burning up the mileage all over the country calling on AMI distribs. Genial Dean McMurdie, another enterprising AC Automatic vice prexy, finds business in the AMI music and Rowe vending divisions reaching an all time peak. Easily the "indispensable man" at AC is the treasurer, Norm West. Last week Norm was unhappily bedded down with a nasty cold. As a result, there was no one available to sign petty cash checks, and (chuckle) all the execs were borrowing from each other. Now that Norm is well again the "crisis" has passed and everyone is smilin' again (all the way to the bank. . . . Bill Fitzgerald of Automatic Canteen is back in his Mart office after a recent trip.

(By the way:) The United Jewish Appeal in N'Yawk can't help going over the top in this year's fund raising drive, since our Joe Orleck is pegged to receive a tribute, June 5, at the Plaza Hotel. Joe is noted for his untiring efforts over the years in behalf of UJA and other worthy causes. His popularity will certainly sway the coinbiz rank & filers in Bigtown.

The heavy production pace continues at Rock-Ola Mfg. with emphasis on sales on the ever popular "Princess" phono. Ralph Wyckoff tells us Edward G. Doris is back on the jet swing calling on distribs. Les Rieck is calling on the trade in the midwest. . . . There are smiles—and plenty of them at Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp.—on the faces of prexy Sam Stern, vice president Art (he always smiles anyway) Weinand, Marv Rosenstein and Jack Mittel, and with good cause, according to Art. The reason: Ever increasing sales of Williams "Extra Inning" and "1962 World Series" baseball games, and "3 Coins" five-ball game.

Paul Huebsch, vice prexy of J. H. Keeney & Co., is spending much more time (when he can spend the time away from his busy sales desk) in engineering. We're anticipating exciting news any day about this. Clayton Nemeroff is somewhat non-committal, but we'll all wait with bated breath. Meanwhile Keeney's "El Rancho" and "Hacienda" games are keeping Keeney distribs happy. . . . There's no variation in the reports from Alvin Gottlieb, Nate Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg, at D. Gottlieb & Company, regarding sales of Gottlieb's "Flipper Clown" amusement pingame, with the new "Add-A-Ball" (with the number-to-beat feature). All agree that "Flipper Clown" will have attained the greatest acceptance everywhere.

Sales are continuing very heavy at Midway Mfg. on the new "Deluxe Baseball" game (and, Ralph Sheffield doesn't hesitate to mention that it is indeed a timely game). . . . Bill Weikel, sales director for Fischer Sales & Mfg., is again very much on the road calling on the firm's distribs. . . . Joe Schwartz and Mort Levinson, National Coin Machine Exchange, are very much enthused over the excellent export business the company is enjoying. Only problem is that much good used equipment is needed to fill export orders. Meanwhile, sales of Gottlieb's "Flipper Clown" are great, according to Mort.

A busy and happy coinman is Johnny Frantz, J. F. Frantz Mfg., who always finds the Spring season a fruitful one for him. Johnny's firm produces a lot of amusement park equipment. . . . NAMA's Gerald F. Whaley announces that Walter W. Reed, director of public relations for NAMA, will present an address to the National Industrial Cafeteria Managers' Assn. Thursday, May 24, on in-plant vending services. Title of his address—"Vending—What 800,000,000 Dimes Means To You." NICMA's conference will be held at O'Hare Inn. The presentation is part of NAMA's Speakers' Bureau activities.

Chicago's UJA campaign opens with $2,677,000 as Mayor Daley proclaims April as Combined Jewish Appeal Month. . . . Genial Joe Delaney, a recent (and bearded) returnee from the Emerald Isle (Ireland to youse 'squares') tells about two new Dukes of Dixieland singles (Columbia) which should be great on jukeboxes. They are: "What's The Time" and "Too Bad." Decks also feature guitarist Herb Ellis, who penned the original tunes with Papa Jac, Frank and Freddie Assunto of the fabulous Dukes of Dixieland.

Congrats and best wishes to George Kroloff, who was named information manager of the Chicago Assn. of Commerce & Industry last week by Thomas H. Coulter, the association's chief executive officer. George is an old pal. . . . Retired coinvet Denny Dennison phoned last week to say "hi." . . . Houston Happenings

Truly a major operating concern is the recently re-activated Bluebonnet Music & Cigarette Service, Inc., 3821 McKinney by widely known local coinman K. T. Park. He formed the original Bluebonnet Music Co. in 1945. The firm now operates music, novelty and cigarette vending machines, together with candy, coffee and iced drink vendors. Employees have a total of over 90 years experience in the business. Park said the firm had a fleet of new Falcon automobiles and trucks for 24 hour a day, seven days a week service. Fleet will be dispatched by two-way radio soon as license has been approved and equipment installed.

Local operator G. M. Harris is a proud grandfather for the first time and he behaves about like the rest of them. Cynthia Ann Gibson is the young lady's name and she tipped scales first time at six and a half pounds. . . . One of the most cheerful guys in the business here abouts is operator Tony Mosley with H & H Distributing. Oscar Curlee, serviceman for same outfit is also a congenial enough fellow but there is not nearly as much of him to radiate good fellowship as is there of Tony. . . .

Pat Robison, Houston Music Box (one stop record service) said their current best seller was "Now You Know All" by Al and Nettie. . . . Front end of Bob Davenport's (Active Amusement) Cadillac looks as if he had used it for a battering ram or maybe crashing some of the ritzy night spots of our fair city. . . . Chat with operator Bob Holder and report that business was fair and improving. . . . Billy Rider (Rider Distributing) a frequent visitor at recent world wide coin show at Rice Hotel. Billy, himself a medium like collector of rare coins, has a nickel with three legged buffalo, valued at $45.00.

That dreamy expression on face of Johnnie Johnson, serviceman at Amusement Distributors (Rock-Ola and Bally) positive sign that the big fish are reported biting in lakes and streams round about his old home town.

Midwest Musings

Mr. & Mrs. Cart Gedney, International Falls, Minn. in the cities over the week end to see the Boat Show in Minneapolis. Also Cart bowling last Sunday in the Minnesota State Bowling Tournament in St. Paul. . . . Also in town last week were Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence Jenkins, Bath, So. Dakota, spending the week end in town and picking up parts and records for the route.

Mr. & Mrs. Jim Stearns, Minot, No. Dakota in the cities for a few days visiting the distributors and doing some shopping. . . . Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brahs on the birth of a baby boy Thursday, April 5th. Mother and baby doing nicely. . . . Bob Lucking, Benson, Minn. making his appearance in Minneapolis, having been discharged last week from Fort Benning, Georgia.

Mr. & Mrs. Walter Witt, of Minneapolis, just returned this week from a 3 week vacation in Tampa, Florida. They took their time driving to and from Tampa and had a very nice time. . . . Lloyd Ellingson has opened a beautiful supper club in Spring Grove, Minn. . . . Tom Roberts, Hurley, Wis., in town for a few days making the rounds and picking up his records and parts. . . . Mort Sahl opens this week at Freddie's Cafe in Minneapolis.

California Clippings

The beginning of the Spring season and the opening of the arcades, has created a boost in the business trend, at the present time. . . . Sales have been unusually good at Paul A. Laymon, Inc., with used equipment, pool tables, and guns. The Show Management Co. rented 3 Bally Bowlers for demonstration during the Sportsman Show, held at the Pan Pacific auditorium. Bill Fritz, mgr. of the parts dept., was in the hospital for minor surgery, but has returned to work after a week's absence. . . . Howe Louis of Vancouver, Canada and Henry Leysor of Associated Coin in Oakland, both paid a visit to Simon Distributing. Sonny Lomborg returned after calling on the arcades, in the mountain areas. . . . Vinny Lanzy reports a good sales response with the recent shipment of cigarette machines, at American Coin Machine Co. . . . Mr. Sedlack, the new mgr. of the record division for Sears on the West Coast, visited the Calif. Music Co., this week. Mr. & Mrs. Sam Ricklin flew to Hawaii with their son, Ronnie, on a two week's combination business and pleasure trip. . . . Clayton Ballard of the Wurlitzer Factory Branch, is covering the territory in Santa Maria and San Luis Obispo. Leonard Hicks spent the week-end in Las Vegas, holding a service school there for the operators. . . . At C. A. Robinson, Hank Tronick informs, the advent of the Spring season is bringing an influx of op's & arcade owners from the resort areas, with the resulting stimulation in sales, of both used & new equipment. The cast is being removed from Al Bettelman's leg, and Al says he is now ready to run that 100 yard dash again. . . .

Tom Virzi of Mercury Records, paid a visit to the "Leuenhagen Record Bar" to spin the new Dinah Washington release, "Dream." The Solle girls think it will be another "hit" for Dinah. Mary was happy to receive the Dukes of Dixieland operator special, on the Columbia single, "Linda Rose." . . . Ed. Wilkes reports cold drink vendor sales are on the increase, at R. F. Jones & Co. John Hale of Chicago, is now the new pres. of A. C. Automatic Services, and was in town meeting the local operators. Dave Elliott, Vice Pres. of A. C., announced a new out-right purchase plan, of the dollar bill changer. A new employee, Lydia Lloreda, has been added to the staff of the parts department. Lynn Galley flew by jet to join Ralph Cragan, at the new office in Seattle, Washington. Chuck Klein is in San Diego and Bill Grey returned from San Francisco, calling on op's. . . . Hank Shankweiler of Chicago, unveiled the new Seeburg candy machine in the sample room, of Badger Sales Co. It is now on display, and Bill Happel commented, they expect to make deliveries shortly. A school was held for both salesmen and service men, on the new machine, which has proven to have great operator appeal. . . . In town visiting distributors and one-stops this week were: Bill Black, Bakersfield; Sam Hathaway, San Luis Obispo; Earl Center, Bakersfield; Johnny Miller, Long Beach, and Mike Gomez, also from Bakersfield.

New Foot Vibrator

CONWAY, PENNA.—The Continental Manufacturing Company, Inc. has announced a coin-operated foot vibrator called "Relax-A-Lator" which was originally announced as being manufactured by the McDowell Mfg. Co. This division has been bought out by Continental.

The machine features the standard foot vibrator platform, operates for a pre-determined amount of time, and at the drop of a coin.

The firm is promoting the machine on highway locations and in terminals and advises that it has many uses. The machine is the latest in a long history of foot-vibrators which have been in use for many years. Continental is located on Dewey Street in Conway, Pa.
