Severe Critics

If amateur night in some local school gym is a pastime all but past from the American scene, amateur night in millions of American homes is not only very much alive, but kicking up a sound storm. All sorts of musical instruments are performed on on an amateur level by 45 million, a figure remarkably double that of 1950.

Amateur musicianship, of course, does not necessarily mean a professional career, especially among the 15 million youths between the ages of 14 and 21 who may or may not strike a melodic note on the dotted line.

However, there are still intriguing aspects to this boom in spare time activity in relation to the record industry. First, there is a chance that greater numbers of youngsters will attempt and hopefully succeed in the professional arena, thereby supplying the record industry, in a not-so-indirect way, with a potential pool of skilled artistry, whether in a pop, folk, jazz or what-have-you vein. But, perhaps even far more reaching is the affect that a measure of musical scholarship can have on the type of music that is to be recorded.

The point is that the more knowledgeable the record buying public is about music, the more demanding the tide of amateur musicians will be in measuring the artistry of those who do go on to become professionals and factors in one way or another in the world of recordings. This will not be happy news to those, whether artists or recording execs, who are content to provide recordings with less than totally professional and imaginative sounds. For the folks out there who can lay claim to justifiable (in terms of musical knowledge) criticism will be listening and judging severely the sounds they hear. No musical approach will be left untouched by a group as vast as 45 million, for in that multitude you'll find interests that range from the Beatles to Bach, from soloists to symphonies.

America has reached the point, many feel, where to be literate in music is part of the process of just being plain literate. And the more this concept is inculcated in the educational scheme of things, the more the recording industry will have to respond with product that can live up to the musical sophisticate. He may never bask in the glow of a Klieglight, but he's going to be a hard fellow to please when it comes to others who will.

RCA VICTOR
The most trusted name in sound

Arnold Burk Takes Over Dot Reins; Dick Peirce Named VP, Gen. Mgr.

Arnold D. Burk, vice president in charge of the music division of Paramount Pictures Corp., has also been named president of Dot Records. He replaces Randy Wood, who has left the label (see below). The announcement was made by Martin S. Davis, executive vice president and chief operating officer of Paramount Pictures Corp., a subsidiary of Gulf & Western Industries.

BURK & PEIRCE

Rumors concerning a series of resignations following the Wood departure could not be confirmed at presstime.

Dick Peirce has joined Dot as vice president and general manager, and will undertake with Burk the direction of Dot's worldwide interests in the recording field.

Dot is one of the components of Paramount's new music division, which was recently formed to consolidate all of the company's recording, publishing and film-music activities under Burk's supervision.

Peirce was formerly A&R administrative director for Liberty Records. His new appointment marks his return to Paramount, where he headed the West Coast operation of Famous Music in 1965.

A former band leader, Peirce became active in the administrative areas of the music business in 1956 as head of MCA's record department. He then joined RCA Victor in charge of its West Coast offices, and was also founder and chief executive officer of Charter Records.

Recent Expansion

In recent months, Dot has expanded its recording interests to include top indie producers to cut records through Dot-handled labels, including Dynovoice (Bob Crewe), Viva (Snuff Garrett), Steed (Jeff Barry). Also, a Dot-owned label, Acta, is run by Kenny Myers.

RANDY WOOD EXITS DOT

HOLLYWOOD—A 17-year association with a record company he founded has come to an end for Randy Wood, who last week revealed his resignation as president of the label and as vp of parent company Paramount Pictures and Famous Music. Paramount purchased Dot in 1957, and last year Paramount was acquired by Gulf & Western Industries.

An announcement said that Wood terminated his employment contract last Jan. 31, although it was to have remained in effect until Aug., 1969.

Wood, who formed Dot in Gallatin, Tenn. in 1951, had personally produced hit singles and albums which have had retail sales of more than $126,000,000.

Wood said he would become more active in management of his Tennessee enterprises, which include Randy's Record Shop, Gallatin Music Corp., Randy Smith Music, Nashville Pike Farms Inc., Radio Station WHIN in (Gallatin) and Woodview Farms and Morrison Farms in Tenn., where Wood was born and where his parents reside.

Wood told Cash Box that last January 30th "I terminated my three year employment contract, and literally was working day to day. Just last Thursday (17) I officially resigned. As of Monday (21) the people at Paramount told me they'd have a new management team by next week. We have a marvelous, happy group of people here at Dot. My hope is that they'll continue with the label. As for me—I'll be commuting between L.A. and Gallatin. . . . They say that every door opens to another room."

Further Major Deals Coming To Establish Label Ties With Indie Producing Talent

NEW YORK — The association, through newly-formed labels, of major record companies and indie producers is about to be further enhanced by a number of new deals.

It's understood that the Columbia, RCA and Capitol labels are in the process of and/or nearing completion of negotiations that will lead to the establishment of new labels to be administered by them, through which will flow the product created by some of the industry's top indie producing entities.

All three labels have already entered similar agreements over the past year. Columbia is marketing Lou Adler's Ode label, which got off the ground quickly with its first release, Scott McKenzie's "San Francisco Flowers In Your Hair." RCA, of course, has struck gold time-and-time-again with the Monkees who appear on the Colgems label, a product of Columbia Pictures handled through RCA. Most recently, Capitol Records and the Beach Boys opened shop with Brother Records, with the top-selling team switching from Capitol to this new label.

Dominant Pattern

The new arrangements will follow a dominant pattern of record industry activity in recent years. ABC Records, for instance, started the Dunhill Records set-up with Lou Adler, among others. From this label came the Mamas & Papas and a hot publishing company Trousdale, with both the diskery and publishing unit being purchased outright by ABC last year. ABC also has a company with Wes Farrell (Senate) and one with Terry Melcher. The Dot label has been particularly active in this area, having formed in recent months labels with Snuff Garrett (Viva), Jeff Barry (Steed), and bringing in Bob Crewe and his Dynovoice Records.

MGM has met with outstanding success, via the Lovin' Spoonful, with this tie-in with the Kama-Sutra label, which involves a unique trio of factors: MGM handles the K-S label in partnership with Kama-Sutra Productions; while they are signed to Kama-Sutra, the Spoonful's sides are produced by another indie producing outfit, Koppelman-Rubin.

Amy-Mala has relied on indie producing talent and their respective labels for many years. Its recent deals include ones with Dale Hawkins and Papa Don.

Other label-indie producer label arrangements include Jubilee and the Tokens' B. T. Puppy and Decca Records, which has a deal with Lee Hazlewood's LHI tag.

Prior to this direct relationship with indie producers, such companies as Atlantic and London had created a family-concept of labels distributed by them yet still wholly-owned by others.

Edwards To Continue Pop-Slant Of Jazz Artists On Verve Label

NEW YORK—Jazz product from the stable of the Verve label will retain a pop-orientation under Esmond Edwards, recently named to replace

ESMOND EDWARDS

Creed Taylor as jazz A&R director.

"As we're seeing everyday," Edwards says, "jazz is being absorbed commercially, and is not considered so far out today. What is avant-garde today and hard to assimilate will appear tomorrow in movies, commercials, etc."

Edwards concedes that jazz sales have fallen off, but only in the context of an expanded pop market. As to the pop-orientation of a number of jazzists, Edwards feels, jazz purists (e.g. critics) notwithstanding, that it's not too much to ask that they think in terms of earning a greater income by sporting more commercialized sounds and still maintaining basic jazz elements of their artistry. At Verve, Esmond will cut such stars as Johnny Hodges, Cal Tjader, Stan Getz, Astrud Gilberto and Kenny Burrell. He is currently doing a Hodges LP, his first project since joining Verve.

Esmond will also have the authority to seek and acquire new talent and is presently negotiating several deals.

Esmond, a onetime freelance photographer, has produced jazz for the Prestige label (starting in 1957) and for the past five years cut for the Argo (later changed to Cadet) label of the Chess operation. He has worked with Ramsey Lewis, Ahmad Jamal, the Soulful Strings, Jack McDuff, Etta Jones, Mose Allison, Eric Dolphy, Shirley Scott and many others.

He was represented in his negotiations with Verve by Warren Stephens.

London Mono LP End Denied By Toller-Bond

NEW YORK—London Records will not put an end to the production of mono albums, according to D. H. Toller-Bond, president of the company. Responding to recent statements in the daily press, including column material in the Chicago Sun-Times and the Washington Post, Toller-Bond vigorously denied that any such plan to phase out mono product was in the works at London.

Toller-Bond pointed out that all of the company's classical releases, which are already blueprinted for the release period through the end of this year, have been allocated for production in both mono and stereo units. This includes both opera and orchestral recordings.

London's pop division, which, with its family of labels including Hi, Parrot, Press, and Deram among others, is now particularly hot with major hit LP's by The Rolling Stones, Engelbert Humperdinck, Tom Jones, and Procol Harum, also envisions no change in its policy of issuing both mono and stereo versions of all LP releases.

Toller-Bond, posing the rhetorical question of whether a company planning to get out of the mono business entirely would, "as we have just done, bring out 25 new fall LP's, each in mono and stereo," concluded: "I would like to make clear again that we have absolutely no plans to discontinue the manufacture and marketing of monaural recordings."

FRONT COVER:

The talent family of Liberty Records is a highly successful composite of contemporary sounds, having begun the label's 1967-68 fiscal year with hit-after-hit. This financial New Year involves chart sides by the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Canned Heat and the Love Generation, newly acquired groups all. In addition, the Fifth Dimension went "Up, Up & Away" into the Top 10, Vikki Carr has an English success with "It Must Be Him" and there's continued singles and LP profits from Gary Lewis, Johnny Mann, Mel Carter, Cher, Ravi Shankar, Johnny Rivers, Ornette Coleman, The Sunshine Co. the Ventures and Buddy Rich.

Philco-Ford Corporation, Consumer Electronics Division.

Philco-Ford's consumer electronics division will host a cocktail party for every registrant of the mid year meeting, following a press conference which the company will hold, regarding its future plans in the record business. In attendance at the press conference and the cocktail party will be representatives of the wire services national syndicated magazines, business trade press, as well as the music industry press.

The program for the mid year meeting has been planned to allow ample time for the manufacturers, distributors, and rack jobbers to meet among themselves, without the pressure of a tight schedule. Business Meetings, to which everyone is invited, will be held Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday mornings (Sept. 6, 7, 8). A regular members meeting (for record merchandiser, distrib and one-stop members) will be held Wednesday evening, Sept. 6. The NARM board of directors will meet on Tuesday evening, Sept. 5. Afternoons will be free for each individual to plan his own meetings according to his company's needs.

On Thursday afternoon, a golf tournament will be held. A closing dinner is planned for that evening, with entertainment and the presentation of trophies.

Richard Evans Named Cadet's A&R Director

CHICAGO—Richard Evans has been named A&R director of Cadet Records, effective Sept. 4. He replaces Esmond Edwards, who has moved over in a jazz A&R slot at Verve Records.

Evans has arranged many dates for Cadet, including Ramsey Lewis' "Wade In The Water," "Soulful Strings" and dates by George Kirby and Bunky Green. In recent years, he has done a great deal of work in the east.

The Chess label, parent company of Cadet, feels that Evans is one of the "most important A&R men around, with a great feel for today's product." His new deal with the label also involves his joining Cadet as an artist with his own orchestra.

RICHARD EVANS

Instrumental 'Ode' Is Rushed By Atco

NEW YORK—Atco Records is rushing an instrumental version of the current Bobbie Gentry (Capitol) smash, "Ode To Billie Joe."

Side features a group called the Kingpins, the leader of which, notes the label's Jerry Wexler, is a well-known instrumentalist whose name will be revealed at a later date. Kiddingly referring to the matter of who or what is thrown off the bridge in the vocal hit, Wexler says that on the instrumental "it's a broken reed from an alto sax."

The Atco date, running 2:45 against more than 4 min. for the Gentry side, was cut in Memphis by Tommy Dowd, Atco's vp of engineering, and Tommy Cogbill, the label's southern rep. Dowd, by the way, has been stepping out in the producing area of late.

Levin Sells MGM Holdings

NEW YORK—720,000 shares, nearly 13½% of the outstanding common shares in MGM Pictures, have been sold to Time, Inc. and Edgar Bronfman, vp of Distillers Corp.-Seagrams.

Of that total, 560,000 shares were acquired through Philip J. Levin, who has attempted twice to unseat the present management of the company through proxy battles.

Time, Inc. acquired 300,000 shares from Levin, while Bronfman purchased a total of 320,000, of which 100,000 were received from other sources. Bronfman is now a holder of 800,000 of the 5,043,000 MGM shares currently outstanding.

According to statements by Time, Inc. and Bronfman, their acquisitions do not represent an associated effort.

Robert H. O'Brien, president of MGM, termed the acquisitions as "most gratifying to the board of directors and management of MGM."

Time, Inc.'s announcement of its purchase, made through James Linen, president of Time, noted the "important interests" of MGM in the music and record industry. MGM is the principal owner of Big 3 Music (Robbins-Feist-Miller) and operates MGM Records and its subsidiary labels.

Dorado: Spanish Label Formed By Al Massler

NEW YORK—A Latin LP line, Dorado Records, has been formed by Al Massler of Golden Records. The line, carrying a suggested list of $4.79 in mono or stereo, will be handled through distributors that specialize in Latin market material, Massler said. First LP features singer Carmen Delia Dipini. Dorado is the word for "Golden" in Spanish.

Lishinsky To Vanguard As Publicity Director

NEW YORK—Judy Lishinsky has joined Vanguard Records as director of publicity. She comes to the folk-oriented label after seven years in disk company publicity, the last five of which were with Epic Records as publicity head. Prior to this, she was a member of the RCA Victor press dept. for two years.

Steve Paul's 'Scene' Goes TV: 2-Hour Metromedia Telecaster

NEW YORK—Steve Paul, owner of the Scene and the Scene East night-eries, will host a two-hour color TV special dealing with contemporary music over WNEW-New York at eight pm on Labor Day evening. Entitled, "Steve Paul's Scene," the show was created by Paul and co-produced by him in conjunction with New York Times critic Robert Shelton and WNEW-TV staff producer Art Fisher (who also directed the special.) The show was jointly financed by David Wolper TV Sales, which will handle worldwide distribution, and Metropolitan Broadcasting Television, which owns outlets in New York, Los Angeles and Washington, D.C. Mel Bailey is the executive producer. The show is slated for airings in Washington and Los Angeles soon.

Sound consultant for the show was Bill Hanley, who lists the Newport Festivals and the James Brown Show among his credits. Special lighting effects were created Rudi Stern and Jackie Cassen, who used 16 slide projectors, 3 motion picture projectors, strobe lights, film clips, and rear projection screens to get the desired effect. A hand-held piggy-back camera was employed in the taping of the show so that the viewer might have a feeling of total involvement, as though he were a part of the action taking place.

Living Environment

"Steve Paul's Scene" was shot in a living environment concept with no rehearsals and an audience comprised of musicians, young people, and (as Steve Paul puts it) "good people . . . who may or may not be young or musicians." The TV'er features; the Young Rascals, the Blues Project, Aretha Franklin, Janis Ian, Moby Grape, the Chambers Brothers, and the Staple Singers in addition to Paul, who sings his soon-to-be-released single, "The Nitty Gritty Secret Of Staying Alive (Or Holding Hands Can Be Fun)"/"Grownups Play Without Blankets Over Their Head." All acts were taped live with no lip-sink. The video effort was shot in one-day as though it were really happening as an attempt to extend the fusion Steve Paul seeks in his New York nighteries to the mass media environment.

Fusion Of Elements

The Scene, Steve Paul's first club, was opened in a basement at 46th St. and 8th. Ave. three-years ago. Paul states the purpose of the club as, "to use music as a common denominator for the fusion between music, musicians, people who like music, and people who are music in their very being." In discussing the Scene further, Steve Paul notes: "It still isn't paying for itself in the sense that, although it achieves spurts of economic success (on the basis of its validity) through time to time mass media acceptance, it functions more as a club that attempts to be eternally valid in a true sense. The people who go to such clubs in general are not concerned with the clubs for their validity but for their chicness or obvious appeal. For example: the club hasn't been doing well financially recently yet it has never been more valid."

Jam Sessions

"Only a week ago there were nightly jam sessions where Jimi Hendrix and his group joined forces with the Who to back up such front men as Eddie Brigatti, Tiny Tim, and Keith. Surely these happenings (while typical of the Scene's emergence as the pop musicians' club house in N.Y.) would make it a valid club on the current pop scene. Yet, because we present good music first, commercial music second (sometimes simultaneously . . . that's when we make it,) we cannot establish the mass public following." Elaborating on this theme, Paul said: "The mass public wants musical groups that are easy to dance to, and that they play obviously recognizable (safe) music, or if it be 'far out' that 'everybody who matters' had better have said that it's good far out. Being really good far out doesn't seem to matter. Pity!"

"We were the first to play the Free Spirits and Jeremy and the Satyrs in N.Y., but that was jazz-oriented rock then (as it is now.) Therefore, nobody cared . . . except those who really cared. Now that they write of the emergence of jazz-oriented rock (Continued on page 42)

Carnegie Hall LP Spurs RCA's 'Starring John Gary' Program

NEW YORK—Upcoming release of "The John Gary Carnegie Hall Concert" will be the focal point in a massive advertising and promotion campaign on behalf of the entire John Gary catalog at RCA Victor.

Preparations have been made for an intensive two-month merchandising campaign "Starring John Gary," which will run through the months of September and October, and is estimated to reach approximately 15 million consumers. Keyed on the new LP release taped at the balladeer's March 27th Carnegie Hall concert, the campaign will also give maximum exposure to his fourteen additional catalog albums and the ten RCA Stereo 8 cartridge and reel-to-reel tape sets available.

Every aspect of the promotional field is being employed in the drive, spotlighting material that the artist has recorded during his four years with the label. A consistent best-seller in the album area, Gary's sets include "Spanish Moonlight," "A Heart Filled With Song," "The Nearness of You," "A Little Bit of Heaven," "The Best of John Gary" and his first LP "Catch a Rising Star."

Among the aids being used in the all-out merchandising campaign are spreads in music trade journals; full-page advertisements in the New Yorker and Cosmopolitan magazines, the magazine sections of the New York and Los Angeles Times, and in the Chicago Tribune. Radio transcriptions with twenty, thirty and sixty second spots regarding the Carnegie

Hall LP and other catalog items are also being used.

Further consumer promotions are being made available in the forms of a consumer catalog of all Gary albums, counter advertising regarding the Carnegie session, a blanket ad mat of the entire catalog, glossy minnies of the LP covers, teaser mailings for deejays and special dealer order forms.

Emphasizing point-of-sale impact will be a John Gary rack header, special 2-color blow-up of the singer, a window display featuring the latest LP, browser divider cards listing all his material, and rack title strips.

That's Show Biz: Rawl's LP Cut Removed

NEW YORK—An objection by the Irving Berlin office to a cut in the new Lou Rawls' LP, "That's Lou," has led to a removal of the side from all new pressings of the album. Cut is Rawls' singles hit, "Show Business." A section of the lyric is a paraphrase of the rhyme, "There's No Business Like Show Business/Like No Business I Know," although the tune of the original Berlin song is not used.

While all previously manufactured copies of the LP now in dealer's hands need not be returned, Capitol has agreed to press future copies with a new session replacing "Show Business." The LP, a spokesman for the label said, has sold over 100,000 copies.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTTER

KRLA-Pasadena's promotion of its 21 Solid Rocks Album ("Son Of KRLA") has made a big splash—into the Hollywood reservoir. The giant 8-story high balloon promoting the album escaped recently from its five stunned tether rope holders and plunged into the water, thoroughly drenching the KRLApe who was piloting the craft. "Holy Banana!" cried the KRLApe, after swimming safely to shore, "this shouldn't happen to an Ape." The battered balloon suffered an estimated $1,000 damage. The owner, undaunted, has vowed to fly again. A fevered attempt to repair damages in an effort to resume this record album promotion is already under way.

WILLIAM B. BRUITS BONFA'S 'BUBALA': . . . That's WNEW-New York's William B. Williams (center) singing the praises of Luiz Bonfa's new single, "Bubala." Bonfa (l.) dropped by the WNEW studios to meet William B. recently, and Lanny Lee, east coast promo rep for Dot Records was on hand. Williams looks like he is ready for an informal gabfest, having doffed his jacket and loosened his tie.

Gloria Woloson has won CKLW-Detroit's "Music Marathon." She guessed the number of records played on the outlet from noon, July 4, through midnight, July 11. Thousands of listeners participated in the contest, staying awake day and night to count records. A dollar a record for each record played was the prize. Miss Woloson won $2,706, and is assured of the chance to attend the college of her choice.

KING-Seattle will inaugurate a new program format September 1, according to an announcement by Radio KING station manager James W. Phillips and KING-FM operations manager James F. Wilke. "Classic KING's" format will include chamber music and symphonic music from 1 P.M. to 12 midnight Monday through Friday, with an hour of jazz ending each day. Saturday and Sunday's new format broadcast begins at 4 P.M. Sunday's schedule will offer special features such as Meet the Press, Complaine Service, Overseas Correspondent, Yale Report, and folk music in addition to chamber and symphonic music. The new format changes were made following a recent survey of FM listener preferences conducted by the research department of the KING Broadcasting Company.

Michigan Avenue was the scene of music and chatter recently when WLS-Chicago staged an outdoor hop to enlist young listeners in the upcoming Teen March for ALSAC (Aid to Leukemia Stricken American Children), for Danny Thomas' St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Personalities Art Roberts, Larry Lujack, and Bernie Allen greeted the hundreds of listeners who signed up for the march, which takes place in Chicago in September. The outdoor hop, at Pioneer Court on Michigan Avenue, featured music by the Riddles, and three attractive girls from WLS to sign up "recruits"—Rhona Soibel, Kathi Kelley, and Sandy Spotak. Each year WLS helps enlist more than 12,000 young volunteers for the annual march.

WFUN-Miami, Fla., listeners put their best foot forward on August 10 at the Coconut Grove Bayfront Park at a "Love-In Paint-In" to announce the film "Barefoot In The Park." Action centered around a foot painting contest with over $300 worth of prizes given away in ten different categories. There were prizes for all age groups, both male and female. The foot painting contest was judged by three local foot doctors, all members of the Dade County Podiatry Association. Everyone that came to the "Love-In" received free "flower-power" packets and buttons. Also there were free t-shirts, fruit, bananas, "Amazon Ace" helmets, movie passes, and record albums for participants.

Over 300 KEX-Portland, Ore. listeners met at Banks, Oregon, on August 12 to board the special keXpress for an exciting ride to the historic lumber community of Vernonia—90 minutes away. Chosen by a special contest, the 300 guests were treated to a train ride on the picturesque Vernonia South Park and Sunset Steam Railroad to Vernonia and back to Banks. Each of them were also provided with a box lunch and enjoyed a live entertainment program in the Joy Theatre at Vernonia. The KEX on-the-air personalities acted as hosts on board the keXpress and for the program in the Joy Theatre.

Jack E. Rabbitt of WLCY-St. Petersburg arranged for the Decca group, Noah's Ark, to appear at a party for the children who collect the most money for the Pinellas County Muscular Dystrophy Association. Producer John Brummage handled the arrangements for Noah's Ark.

BOBBIE GENTRY AND THE GENTLEMEN: That could be the name of a vaudeville team, and, in fact, Bobbie Gentry is doing a turn with WIP-Philadelphia's "Morning Mayor," Joe McCauley (l.) and assistant program director Allen Hotlen. The artist's single, "Ode To Billie Joe," hit the number 1 spot on the Top 100, as predicted by Hotlen, and Bobbie Gentry and the Gentlemen celebrated with a little song and dance.

SPUTTERS: WCFL-Chicago VIP Jim Stagg exceed a giant "Entertain-In" at the La Porte County Fair, U.S. Highway 2, in La Porte, Indiana, on August 14.

VITAL STATISTICS: Reb Foster has been appointed program director of KRLA-Pasadena, replacing Dick Moreland who will head up a newly created department developing special promotional tie-ins. . . . Dave Conley, formerly program director of KSEE-Santa Maria, Calif., is the new music director at KACY-Port Hueneme, Calif. . . . John H. Wrath, previously manager of KGB-San Diego, has been named general manager of KFRC-San Francisco. . . . Bob Allen, announcer at WEAM-Washington, has joined WFIL-Philadelphia. . . . Dick Liberatore, formerly of WERE-Cleveland, has been added to the promotion department of WIXY-Cleveland, and is hosting the "Big Beat" show.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Chris Bartley

Chris Bartley has wasted little time in achieving success. His first effort, "Sweetest Thing This Side Of Heaven," is number 35 on the charts this week. The young artist, 18, was born in Harlem where he still lives with his parents. He worked at part-time jobs while going to school, and spent the money at the Apollo Theatre where he queued up to see his favorite singers. He was lead singer with a local group when he was discovered by his manager, Bill Downs. Downs took Bartley to song writer and producer Van McCoy, who, after hearing Bartley, signed him to an exclusive recording contract with Vando Records. Although he had never been inside a recording studio before Bartley completed cutting "Sweetest Thing This Side Of Heaven" in two takes. The artist appreciates the support that his friends have given him and he hopes to get recorded the group he sang with before he went solo. Although Bartley has already attained national popularity via his hit single, he has not run out of dreams. He has his sights set squarely on the Apollo Theatre.

Vikki Carr

Vikki Carr was born Florencia Bisenta de Casillas Martinez Cardona in El Paso, Texas. The eldest of seven children, she engaged in a heavy program of sports activities with her three brothers. She loved to entertain for family and friends, and she made her public debut at four, singing "Adeste Fideles" and "Silent Night" in Latin at a Christmas program. At Rosemead High School, the artist took all the music courses available and won the leading roles in the school's musical productions. Her weekend band bookings increased until graduation, when she embarked upon a professional career with the Pepe Callahan Mexican-Irish Band, traveling to Reno, Las Vegas, Lake Tahoe, and Hawaii. Home again, the lark cut her first demonstration record and began a tour of recording executives' offices. Liberty Records quickly signed her to a long-term contract. Her first single for the label was so successful in Australia that she toured that continent. The songstress then had a 26-week run as featured vocalist on the Ray Anthony TV Show. She has also appeared on the Jimmy Dean and Hollywood Palace TV's, making her dramatic debut on the Bing Crosby Show. Her current single, "It Must Be Him," is number 93 on the charts this week.

Israeli Singer-Writer In U.S. For Hit War Number

NEW YORK—War, a favored breeding ground for song, has produced a big hit in Israel called "Sharm El Sheikh," named after the Egyptian town captured by the Israelis during the 6-day war between the small nation and its Arab neighbors.

RON ELIRAN

Co-writer of the song, Ron Eliran, is also the popular Israeli singer whose EP containing the battlefront-penned opus has sold more than 35,000 copies on the Hed Arzi label. Eliran re-recorded "Sharm El Sheikh" in English in London recently, and the version has just been released here on the Coral label.

Eliran, now in the U.S. for nightclub and promotional appearances, flew and drove from battlefront to battlefront during the short war to entertain Israeli troops. During the Sinai campaign of 1956, he served as a battle photographer, but this time around it was felt that he could serve best in special services.

An artist who performs in a folk vein—either in English, Hebrew or Yiddish—Eliran has been to the U.S. before, and as a student at New York University he made a college campus tour, and appeared at an edition of the Newport Folk Festival.

Eliran, a native-born (Sabra) Israeli, is also involved in another big hit in Israel. He wrote the Hebrew translation of the "Dr. Zhivago" theme.

His hit EP also contains four other songs, the best of a collection of tunes written during the war.

When Israel captured the Old City of Jerusalem, Eliran had the distinction of being the first performer to appear in the amphitheater of Mt. Scopus.

Pickwick/33 Classics To Keep $2.50 List

NEW YORK—Pickwick/33 classical product will retain its suggested list price of $2.50, according to Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick International.

The line is a collection of re-issues obtained through deals with the Capitol and Mercury labels. Leslie's statement is in reply to the new $3.50 lines from Elektra (Checkmate) and Vanguard (Cardinal). However, both Elektra and Vanguard maintain their previous $2.50 lines, Nonesuch and Everyman, respectively. Both labels' $3.50 lines are newly recorded works with more elaborate packaging than their $2.50 counterparts.

Pickwick claims 17% of the industry's total economy-priced classical sales.

Pete Dorain Opens New York Distrib

NEW YORK—Paradise Record Distributing Co., covering the New York metropolitan area, has been formed by Peter Doraine, a vet of 30 years in the record business. Other lines set to go are J&S, Celtex, Evpo, Criss Cross, Niki, Sprout, Gold Tone, and Heart & Soul.

Doraine was the founder of Abbey Records, best known for the hit, "Piano Roll Blues", and Banner Records which introduced Myron Cohen to records. Doraine's associates in the newly formed outfit are Bob Turnbull and George Ewing. They are located at 718 Tenth Avenue, New York.

"Don't Come Running To Me" By The PEBBLES — Newcomer Pick

HOLLYWOOD—"Don't Come Running To Me" recorded by The Pebbles on Prince Records, received a Newcomer Pick in the August 26 edition of Cash Box. This favorable review vindicates the faith that Prince Records has had in the artists and the song. The recording was produced by Brian Ross, famous for his hit records with the Music Machine, including "Talk Talk." Ross claims that this new release by The Pebbles is the most exciting record he has ever produced. "B" Side is "Don't Hide It."

The Pebbles consist of contract writers to Michael H. Goldsen's Criterion Music Corporation and the recording was actually made in the studios owned by the publisher on his premises at 6124 Selma Ave., Hollywood.

Independent promotion men are handling the record throughout the country. Don Blocker is handling the record on the West Coast through his TAPP productions. National distribution is now being organized.

The Village Theatre will be the site of what promises to be a particularly groovy concert on Sept. 9th when the Vagrants will represent the New York sound and the Doors deliver the west coast sound.

The Carnival Connection traveled from Montreal to New York Aug. 16, at the request of producer Jeff Barry to audition for his "The Freaking Out Of Stephanie Blake" mainstemmer. The show is a Cheryl Crawford production. Later, Al Brackman of the Richmond Organization, and Crawdaddy's Paul Williams, came to hear the group's new material, penned by Al Nicholls (lead vocal) and Bill Hill, (lead guitar).

Alan Lorber productions has set Sept. recording sessions. Scotty Todd will be recording singles and has been set to go on the Philips label. Leslie Miller, whose records are released by MGM, is being set for singles and LP sessions. Two groups, as yet unnamed, will also be included in Lorber's schedule.

Metric's Bob Stone is just back from the coast, where he picked up a lot of outlets on "The Love Revolution" by Billy Bud on Jubilee.

It looks like "War Baby" by Dee Mullins (a Shelby Singleton production) is going country instead of pop. Shelby's receptionist Paulette Brandstatter is our East Coast Girl of the Week, and a very pretty one at that.

Martin J. Cooper has announced the release of the first deck by his new lark, Jennifer. A year has gone into the making of this single, "Sunny Day Blue," which is on the Parrot label. The ditty was both written and produced by Cooper especially for Jennifer, and he feels "it will give her talent the opportunity to be recognized on the American scene."

What is Denise Gross doing these days?

Capitol's renowned Roy Battachio informs us of all the fantastic TV shots already lined up for Bobbie Gentry, due to the powerhouse impact of "Ode To Billie Joe." She'll be seen on the first Smothers Brothers TV'er of the season, Sept. 10th, a second appearance on the Johnny Carson TV'er, and the Perry Como special in Nov.

Hot arranger Joe Renzetti is slated to score the major part (8 out of 11) of the "Apples Peaches And Pumpkin Pie" LP by Jay and the Techniques.

Merrec's Jerry Ross considers his hottest product to be "Locked In Your Love" by Dee Dee Warwick and the Spanky and Our Gang LP.

Richie Becker, who has the publishing on "Moody River," says that the tune is becoming a standout on the new Pat Boone LP and is getting all kinds of play.

Van Morrison goes into the Scene for 2-weeks beginning Sept. 11th.

One of the first new Judy Garland LP's "Judy Live At The Palace" has been received by Jimmy McHugh. Her opening song on the album is Jimmy's "I Feel A Song Comin' On," which is sked'ed for release as a single.

Jubilee's the Blades of Grass have been working a tight schedule as a result of "Happy." They appeared on Cleveland's "Up Beat" TV'er Aug. 26th and appeared with the Doors in Virginia in addition to working concerts in 3 New York parks last week. They also did a Kirby Scott TV'er in Baltimore and worked a concert show with Gary Stevens in New York.

Wes Farrell's Beacon Street Union LP group closed at the Scene to find that their home town fans in Boston had petitioned for their return to the Boston Tea Party.

Rochester's own Wee-Four group emphasises that good things still can come in small packages.

HOLLYWOOD:

We've finally received a transcript of the CBS news special produced by David Oppenheim and broadcast on April 25, 1967. It was titled "Inside Pop: The Rock Revolution." The most lucid coverage that TV has yet given the contemporary music scene. For those who may have missed it, we're including here a paragraph or two composed and voiced by Leonard Bernstein:

"The message in most of these songs is delivered by implication. This is one of our teenagers' strongest weapons. It amounts almost to a private language. But, this use of implication produces another effect as well, something bordering on poetry. Many of the lyrics in their oblique allusions and way-out metaphors are beginning to sound like real poems. And, protected by this armor of poetry, our young lyricists can say just about anything they care to, and they do care. They care about civil rights, about sexual freedom, about peace. They talk about alienation, mysticism, drugs. . . . But mostly they talk about love as all songwriters have since time began, only this time it's either a cool kind of love or a frankly sexual love, or—and this is most important—universal love, a mystical Oriental concept that is presumably attainable through meditation or withdrawal from the Establishment, or most readily through drugs. . . . I think it's all part of a historic revolution, one that has been going on for 50 years. Only now these young people have gotten control of a mass medium, the phonograph record, and the music on the records, with its noise and its cool messages, may make us uneasy, but we must take it seriously as both a symptom and a generator of this revolution. We must listen to it and its makers, this new breed of young people with long hair and fanciful clothing. . . . Now don't get me wrong.

There's a good deal I don't like and wouldn't dream of defending. I don't like volume for its own sake, or the way the words are often drowned out by drums and amplifiers. I don't like the amateur quality of some of the writing, and the out-of-tune singing. This music can be coarse, faddish, a victim of its own sameness; and yet when it's good, it's irresistible. . . . Perhaps by learning about them (this new breed) we can learn something about our own future."

Bernstein, whose credentials include such symphonic works as "Jeremiah" and "Age of Anxiety" as well as scores to "Waterfront," "On the Town" and "West Side Story," is obviously also an authority on the three B's—Beach Boys, Beatles and Bob Dylan.

A switch in title for Kaye Farrington and a gorgeous new copyright for Chuck Kaye, g.m. of Almo, Irving, Good Sam and LaBrea—A&M's publishing arms. They were wed this past week in Hollywood.

Our excuse for not heretofore naming Claudine Longet as our "West Coast Girl of the Week"—we have never been able to uncover a photo that quite captured the piquant scrumtedelicious ambrosia projected in her "Run for Your Life" or Andy Williams' Show appearances. Thanks to ex-Cleveland barber Tommy Li-Puma (who produces her A&M disks) and excellent arranger-conductor Nick DeCaro, her initial "Claudine" LP was a national top tenner. Her newest (shipping to distributors this week), titled "The Look of Love," already boasts advance sales of better than 125,000. To detractors who suggest that "you have to hug her to hear her," our answer—we couldn't conceive of a more compelling happenstance. . . . Burt Taylor, who has won rave reviews as a singer abandoning a comedy career a few years back, is about to show even more versatility—appearing as Vinnie, the engineer, on the weekly "Good Morning World" CBS-TV series come Sept. Currently he's headlining the Playboy on the strip.

Florence Ballard, who exited the Supremes, in town discussing a movie contract and considering relocation on the coast. . . . Marc Gordon, manager of the 5th Dimension and Al Wilson, has new offices at 9255 Sunset. . . . Way back on May 27th Bobbie Gentry was our "West Coast Girl of the Week." Right now she's an odds-on favorite to cop "Girl of the Year" honors.

Sharon Rossi, newly appointed production supervisor of White Whale Records, was formerly with Record Merchandising and Dot. Part of her duties will be devoted to the activities of the Turtles.

Entering his last week at the Greek (with an advance sale of $250,000) Harry Belafonte (according to the Hollywood Reporter) is "mesmerizing his audiences." Apparently Variety's reviewer got his notes from the same pad. Quote "In all, Belafonte's mesmerizing, melodic magic has never been better." . . . Currently Popping along the Pacific: "Little Old Man" by Bill Cosby (Warners) and "She Knows" by Bobby Darin (Ato) in S.F., "In the Heat of the Night" by Ray Charles (ABC) and "Gina" by

Lou Cbristie (Columbia) in Seattle, "Never My Love" by the Association (Warners) and "Cat in the Window" by Pet Clark (Warners) in San Diego, "Letter" by the Box Tops (Mala) and "16 Tons" by Tom Jones (Parrot) in Portland and "Purple Haze" by Jimi Hendrix Experience (Reprise) along with "Ballad of You & Me and Pooniel" (RCA Victor) by the Jefferson Airplane a local bustout. Kent Records' new Lowell Fulson single "I'm a Drifter," according to Kent prexy Joe Bihari, could top his biggest "The Tramp." This, based on early orders and air-play. . . . Jennie Smith's GNP Crescendo wax of "Our Song," the original version of tune, giving Jack Jones strong spin competition on the coast.

Dave Van Ronk Forms Hudson Dusters Act

NEW YORK—Dave Van Ronk, well known Blues performer and historian (Verve/Forecast), has been quietly building a rock group for the past 3-months. The group will be known as the Hudson Dusters, after a non-defunct but one-time powerful New York City street gang. Van Ronk will lend his talents to the rhythm guitar and lead vocal slot while Rich Henderson handles percussion and Dave Woods (whom Van Ronk describes as "an asthmatic ex-cowboy") sets the pace on lead guitar. The bassist and organist have not, as yet, been named.

In discussing plans for the group, Van Ronk said: "We don't want to be just another white Blues group. Some of the songs even have more than 12-bars. We're 5 tunes into the LP now and we have what we think may be a single."

When asked about his penchant for research in Blues, the artist mentioned that when he had first come to the Village he had asked a woman to play "Stackolee, she haughtily replied "which one?" Van Ronk now knows 11 different versions of the same tune.

Redding Show Grosses Top The $600,000 Mark

NEW YORK—Completing its summer tour in St. Louis, (13), the Otis Redding Show brought its gross earnings over the $600,000 mark, the largest net taken in by a rhythm and blues show.

Redding's summer tour is a regular feature, and in the past three years it has consistently drawn large turnouts, but the '67 show exceeded the previous total by more than $100,000.

Highest single night's figures were achieved at Charlotte, N.C.; and among other large grossing cities were Jacksonville, Miami and Tampa, Fla.; Norfolk, Va.; and Atlanta.

The package was produced by APO Shows and Otis Redding Enterprises.

Redding, who recently placed first in the International Section's poll in the Male Singer category (the first time in 10 years that Elvis Presley was outvoted), is now formulating plans for a winter tour.

Shankar To Score, Conduct 'Charly'

HOLLYWOOD—"Charly" will mark the first American motion picture scored and conducted by noted Indian musician Ravi Shankar. He was signed by Ralph Nelson, producer-director of the film, which stars Cliff Robertson and Anne Heywood with Selig J. Seligman as executive producer.

Shankar is one of the major influences in today's popular music although he is a classical concert artist and the world's foremost exponent on the sitar.

Shankar's musical compositions for the Indian motion pictures "Pather Panchali Trilogy" ("The World of Apu") and "Khwala" won him awards at the Cannes, Venice and Berlin Film Festivals.

According to producer-director Ralph Nelson, Shankar will compose a stylized score to dramatize a unique love affair headed for danger between Cliff Robertson and Anne Heywood in the motion picture "Charly."

Three-Month Figures Show Ampex Record Sales & Nets

NEW YORK—Record sales and earnings for the first quarter were reported by Ampex Corporation in the three month period ended July 29.

Sales for the first quarter of fiscal 1968 totaled $52,749,000, up 14 percent from $46,212,000 in the comparable period a year ago. Net earnings after taxes were $2,072,000, or 22 cents per share on 9,537,368 average shares outstanding, up 10 percent from $1,880,000, or 20 cents per share on 9,463,795 average shares.

William E. Roberts, president and chief executive officer at Ampex, said the quarter represents a very satisfactory start for the new year. "These results are in line with our plan for the year, and the outlook for the balance of the fiscal year continues to be favorable."

Col. Seeks Success With Trans-Atlantic Transplant

NEW YORK—Columbia Records is planning a large promotion campaign for the recently released Anita Harris single of "Just Loving You" based on the success enjoyed in the British market.

The song rose into the top ten in Britain, is currently holding the #8 slot on the English charts, and plans are now underway to boost the ballad on the American scene.

Presently anticipating a run with the starring role in an English revue, "Way Out In Piccadilly," Miss Harris will make appearances in Las Vegas toward the end of this year, and is scheduled to make a movie in Hollywood.

Al Santiago Heading Musicor's Latin Wing

NEW YORK—Al Santiago, exec in the Latin music field, has been named general manager of the Musicor Records' Latin American division, according to Art Talmadge, president of the firm. The appointment keys a major expansion in the already well-established Musicor Latin wing, Talmadge said.

Santiago will have complete charge of recording, packaging, production, and marketing for all Latin product on Musicor. In addition to his work with the current Musicor Latin roster, which includes such star attractions as Los Hispanos, La Playa Sextet, and Tito Rodriguez, Santiago is immediately signing a host of established names to the label. These include Dioris Valladares, Kako, Willie Rosario, Orquesta Novel, and Mark Weinstein.

Santiago, who officially joined Musicor on Monday (14), is already preparing the merchandising and promotion for the company's five-LP October release of Latin product by Los Hispanos, La Playa Sextet, Scotty, Diaz, and Los Montemar.

Although headquartered in Musicor's New York offices, he and Frank Bibiloni, the division's promotion specialist, will also spend considerable time operating out of Musicor's branch office in San Juan, Puerto Rico, where many of the label's artists are home-based.

Santiago was a co-founder in 1956 of the Alegre label, where he remained as an executive until the sale of the label in 1966 to Tico Records. He continued his association with Alegre under the new Tico regime up to his move to Musicor. At Alegre, Santiago was associated with the discovery of such prime Latin names as Eddie

Epic Promotes 'El Dorado' LP

NEW YORK—Epic Records has put a big promotional push behind its album "The Original Music From The Motion Picture El Dorado." The San Francisco campaign, tagged "El Dorado Epic," was staged to coincide with the showing of the Paramount Pictures film "El Dorado," according to Nick Albarano, Epic's national sales manager.

The promotion, which was attended by deejays and program directors from radio outlets in the Bay area, was highlighted by a hayride which began at the Fairmont Hotel. The evening was climaxed with a traditional Western-style barbecue after which there was an outdoor screening of the film "El Dorado."

"El Dorado" was produced and directed by Howard Hawkes and stars John Wayne and Robert Mitchum. The original music, for which Epic acquired the exclusive recording rights, was composed, arranged and conducted by Nelson Riddle. The Epic album was produced by Manny Kellm. The San Francisco "El Dorado Epic" promotion was conceived and arranged by Peter Marino, promotion manager for Melody Sales Co., Epic's San Francisco distributor.

Palmieri, Pacheco, Kako, Willie Rosario, and Frankie Figueroa. The Alegre executive staff, including Santiago, also conceived and popularized a Latin dance known as the pachanga.

Santiago received the Producer of the Year award from Farrandula Magazine in 1962 and 1966, created the first Latin boogaloo LP with Pete Rodriguez, and conceived the well-known Allgre All-Stars albums.

Kapp's LP's Looks Match New Sounds

Not only is Kapp Records producing a variety of different sounds for the contemporary market, but according to Kapp director of merchandising and packaging, Milton Sincoff, the label is setting, as well as keeping, pace—staying “out-in-front” on trends in the appearances of album covers.

“We not only sound different, we look different as well,” said Sincoff, indicating current and upcoming LP's in the Kapp line. Through photographs in full color, artistic line drawings and many current-styled effects, Sincoff indicated that LP's such as Roger Williams, Jack Jones, Gunther Kallman and Raymond Le Fevre's “Whiter Shade of Pale,” as well as a number of folk and c&w LP's are all fine examples of this new Kapp matching for look and sound.

Fans Campaigning For Bee Gees Visas

LONDON—Teen fans of the Bee Gees have initiated a four-pronged campaign to “Save the Bee Gees” from a threatened separation as a result of the British government's refusal to renew visit visa for two Australian members of the group.

Admission permits issued to Colin Petersen and Vince Melouney allowing them to stay in the British Isles for six months as working members of the group are due to expire Sept. 17; and refusal has been made for an extension of these visas.

In order to show protest to the government, fans of the Bee Gees have organized a campaign that was recently highlighted by bold tactics to gain publicity for the team's “salvation.”

Three fans traveled by train and helicopter to present a letter regarding the situation to Prime Minister Harold Wilson, who was vacationing in the Scilly Isles. The trio's trek resulted in a meeting with Wilson's secretary, who promised to deliver the message pleading for the PM's help.

Another fan handcuffed herself to the railings in front of the Queen's London residence at Buckingham Palace, and remained there for more than a half-hour while police labored to remove the cuffs. A great deal of press coverage was given to the incident and the girl's affiliation with the “Save the Bee Gees” move.

In another situation, a parade was formed to march down Whitehall to St. James' Square, headed by a borrowed elephant carrying a placard reading “Home Office must not deport Bee Gees.”

And, at a favorite teen meeting place, the Tiles Club on Oxford Street, a booth has been set up to keep followers posted of the progress involved in the campaign, and to collect signatures on a petition for presentation to the Home Secretary. Among the names included already are “Twiggy” and Spanish matador El Cordobes.

United States, and immigration inspectors informed the two Australian members that their visas were no longer valid, since the “permit to stay” is voided by travel outside the British Isles.

The Chief Immigration Officer at the port of entry granted a temporary extension to Petersen and Melouney, but the tenure is due to expire shortly. Representatives of the group are negotiating for new visas, and provisions covering their out-of-England travel and returns. Engagements in Germany earlier this month were cancelled as a result of the trouble with authorities.

The team has scored heavily in the United States via their single “The New York Mining Disaster, 1941” and their first LP. “To Love Somebody,” their follow-up single is #24 this week.

Plans have been disclosed for relocation of the entire group in either New York or Germany in the event that visa problems cannot be resolved.

‘Pale’ Album Premieres As ‘Pale’ Single Pales

NEW YORK—In the wake of widespread publicity at national sales meetings, and the stunning success of “A Whiter Shade Of Pale,” the Procol Harum's LP named for their hit single last week made its premiere.

All numbers on the set are from the team of Keith Reid and Gary Brooker, who penned the “Pale” smash.

Robin Trower and Barrie Wilson, who joined the Procol Harum group after the release of the single, were both with the group during the recording of the LP.

Produced by Denny Cordell, the album is reportedly getting strong positive deejay response, with particular attention being devoted to the “Conquistador,” “She Wandered Through The Fence” and “Cerdas” tracks.

All selections are published internationally by the Richmond Organization.

Notice To The Record Buyer

You are probably aware that there has been a general price equalization between mono and stereo albums in recent weeks. Indications point to an eventual stereo-only release of albums by your favorite artists. During this transitional period, you may find it increasingly difficult to obtain mono versions of the albums you want. If you are the owner of a mono phonograph manufactured in the past five years or so, the statement below is intended for you. If, after reading it, you remain uncertain as to whether you can play a stereo recording on your unit, inform your dealer of the type of mono phonograph you own and the date purchased, and he will let you know if your phonograph is capable of playing a stereo recording without harming the grooves:

Stereo records can be played to today's mono record players with excellent results. They will last as long as mono records played on the same equipment, yet will reveal full stereo sound when played on stereo record players.

Technical developments in recent years have enormously improved the quality of today's phonograph. When stereo records were first introduced, they could not be played on machines designed to play only monaural records. In recent years all phonographs—both mono and stereo—have been so markedly improved that this limitation is no longer effective.

Groove information of a horizontal, side-to-side nature is common to both mono and stereo records. In addition, stereo records have built into their grooves information that occurs in the vertical plane. Played with modern equipment, today's stereo record will transmit all the horizontal information through monaural playback and, when played back through stereo equipment, will additionally transmit the vertical information.

The importance of this to record purchasers is that they need no longer hesitate to buy, play or build collections of stereo records although they have monaural playback machines. Improvements made in the design of the pickup in current monaural machines make it possible to play stereo records with no greater incidence of skipping and with no greater wear than when played on stereo machines. The life expectancy of the records will remain the same. Further, the three-dimensional, "spatial" effect of stereo—while not revealed through a monaural player—will remain unaffected in the grooves, available for subsequent play on a stereo phonograph.

Today's full-separation stereo disc is now unchallenged in quality and represents the future of the record industry. While most labels will continue to produce monaural records, it is nevertheless clearly to the advantage of consumers who own monaural players to buy, give and build collections of current records in the stereo versions, anticipating their future ownership of a stereo phonograph.

Bialek Acquires Milestone; Plans Expansion Moves

NEW YORK—Robert Bialek, leading Washington, D.C., record and book retailer, has acquired Milestone Records, a New York-based label devoted primarily to jazz. Bialek's plans call for immediate expansion of the label's activities, with experienced record executive and jazz producer Orrin Keepnews named as general manager.

An initial release of seven albums is about to be shipped by the new organization, backed by national consumer magazine advertising. Featured are packages by vocalist Helen Merrill, tenor sax star James Moody, pianist Wynton Kelly, and top French jazzman Martial Solal. Two other key releases, part of a series of classic-jazz reissues, spotlight Jelly Roll Morton and legendary bluesman Blind Lemon Jefferson.

Milestone had begun operations on a limited scale last year, with Keepnews doing some producing and serving as overall advisor on a part-time basis. Albums by such artists as trumpeter Thad Jones and country blues singer Big Joe Williams, plus some reissues, had been brought out, and a stockpile of unreleased masters had been built up.

A greatly augmented sales and distribution network is being set up for the label, which will remain in New York, having moved into new offices at 22 West 48th Street. According to Keepnews, a unique sales pattern will be employed, working through normal wholesale channels "in those areas where there are distributors with the knowledge and interest to properly handle the task of doing a solid sales job with a special product like jazz." Elsewhere, "rather than suffer the frequent frustration of dealing with distributors who don't know jazz and couldn't care less, and will gladly keep your albums a few months and then return them in the original unopened cartons," Milestone will go directly to the retailer. In such cases the line, which has a list price of $4.79 for all LPs, will be sold at normal mark-up to an approved list of "knowledgeable, interested dealers."

Milestone is already in negotiations with several established jazz names and promising newcomers. The label's general manager is best known as a founder and the long-time recording director of Riverside Records, where he began or furthered the disk careers of such major artists as Cannonball and Nat Adderley, West Montgomery, Bill Evans, Thelonious Monk, Charlie Byrd, Mongo Santamaria, and the Staple Singers.

The label will also offer a continuing series of important reissues, an area in which Keepnews has long specialized. Arrangements have been made to draw upon the catalog of Paramount Records—including such classic artists of the 1920s as Louis Armstrong, King Oliver, Jelly Roll Morton, Ma Rainey, and Johnny Dodds—with the active cooperation of jazz authority John Steiner, current owner of the pioneer jazz label.

Milestone also intends to work with independent producers, and has already closed deals with several.

Mercury Pacts Earl Wilson, Jr.

NEW YORK—Having just concluded his first season as a solo performer on the night club circuit, Earl Wilson Jr. has been signed to an exclusive recording contract with Mercury Records.

Announcement of the signing was made last week by Merc's vice president and director of recorded product Charlie Fach, who termed the singer "one of the most promising new stars to emerge from the traditional entertainment proving ground."

Wilson, son of the noted columnist, was secured for the label by A&R rep Dick Corby, who will be producing him. A single is scheduled for his initial release with an album to follow as soon as recording and packaging can be completed.

Current plans for Wilson include an October booking at the Hotel Syracuse, following the singer's tour of duty with his national guard unit.

New York Plans Jazzy October 7

NEW YORK—New York City is holding its first official Jazz Day, on Saturday, October 7, as part of the city's Cultural Fortnight, October 1-14, paying tribute to the creative arts. A leading feature of Jazz Day will be the world premiere of "Jazzhattan Suite 1967," composed by Oliver Nelson under a commission from Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI), the performing rights organization. Jazz Day will be sponsored by Jazz Interactions, a nonprofit organization dedicated to the stimulation and performance of jazz in New York, working in cooperation with the city.

"Jazzhattan Suite 1967" is a major work celebrating the relationship between New York City and jazz. It will be performed twice during the day. The first performance will be on the Central Park Mall at 2 P.M., and the second in the Grace Rainey Rogers Auditorium of the Metropolitan Museum of Art before an invited audience. On both occasions, Joe Newman will conduct the Jazz Interactions Orchestra. Mayor John V. Lindsay will be presented with a special award on behalf of the city's jazz community. In addition, New York's Jazzmobile will present three concerts during the day at locations near public schools in Harlem.

Oliver Nelson is a composer and saxophonist whose music has been performed both in the United States and abroad. He has written many successful jazz albums and vocal arrangements for leading record companies as well as such concert works as "Dirge For Chamber Orchestra" and "Soundpiece For String Quartet and Contralto."

already set throughout the U.S., will launch a major promo campaign in mid-September to reach deejays with the new product, and will send both the Good Time Singers and the ESB on tour to introduce the first singles.

SUSAN BARRETT

NEW YORK—Susan Barrett's scrapbook is a kaleidoscopic study in accolades and printed "huzzas," but we hope there's still some small corner left uncovered so that we might toss in a few bouquets of our own.

Susan is the songwriter's proverbial vision in white as she comes onstage at the posh Persian Room at the Plaza Hotel. And for our money, had she stood motionless all night without making a sound, the evening would still have been a pleasure. But she does make a sound—she makes lots of sounds—and the needle on the pleasure meter soars.

She opens her act telling us that she's "Feelin' Good," and we believe her because she radiates an incandescence that's difficult to counterfeit. Although she continues to radiate, the glow takes on softer hues as she shifts to the more melancholy "The Very Thought Of You." Then she delivers a quick jab to the heartstrings with "I Wanna Be With You." There's another change of pace as Susan uncorks a quick one-two punch with a spritely "You'd Better Love Me While You May" and an infectious "Mas Que Nada."

Shortly before the end of the round, the surprising Miss Barrett accompanies herself on the autoharp—sans orchestra—on a plaintive trio of folk gems which include "I Know Where I'm Going," "The 12th Of Never" and a lovely Anglo-French version of "Plaisir D'Amour (The Joy Of Love)." The bit is very effective, and definitely one of the high points of the act.

Round two begins with another surprise. Our change of mood artist does a quickie costume change (4 seconds, time it) and reappears cut as the well-know button in a pink pants suit, prancing through "Walking Happy." She follows with a low-key rendition of "Sunny," which is probably the one flaw in the evening. "Sunny" can and should be an exciting, building affair, but then again, Della Reese had the best version we've ever heard of the tune, and her record didn't sell three copies.

Rock 'n roll makes its entry via a fun medley (complete with kazoo), but the cute is overshadowed by the powerful as our gal once again stirs the emotions with an excellent rendition of "The Impossible Dream."

Oddly enough, the standout number in the act, in our opinion, is her rendition of "What Now, My Love" (again an Anglo-French offering). We say oddly enough, because according to Susan, "They told me not to do it, because everyone else is doing it. But I'm going to do it anyway." We're glad she did.

Susan Barrett is a lovely girl, but she's also an artist to watch. The fact that she's lovely only makes the watching all the easier. Her greatest asset on stage—aside from her obvious vocal talent—is her charm. A few small gimmick lines added to some of her numbers can, in fact, be deleted—she can handle the crowd all by her lonesome.

We think it will be fun watching her climb to the top.

BEERS FAMILY FESTIVAL

Word of last year's highly informal, highly successful folk festival at Fox Hollow brought a peak audience of 2000 to the 1967 festival August 17-20 to hear a wide variety of folk, traditional and contemporary music, and even some pop numbers. The program, under the benign, autocratic direction of Bob "Fiddler" Beers, of the Beers family of traditional musicians, ranged from the pagan polyphony of the Pennywhistlers to ninth century Russian hymns by a remarkable group from Michigan called The Young Uns, from the Cumberland Mountain ballads of the beloved Jean Ritchie to the modern C & W tunes of Rosalie Sorrells, a Rocky Mountain lass with overtones of Edith Piaf and Kitty Wells.

Rain, wind, mud, and mileage did not prevent dedicated folk music fans from flocking to the outdoor festival, and once there, they could feast not only on familiar styles of folk music, but on out-of-the-way varieties like the hammer-dulcimer, a West Virginia instrument played by Howie Mitchell with a sound between a harpsichord and a sitar. There was even a teenager from Florida who wrung every ounce of emotion from Charles Aznavour's "For Mama."

Well-planned, intelligently programmed, and carried off with a comfortable mixture of friendly informality and smooth professionalism where it counted, the 1967 Fox Hollow Festival may not have been the scene of any musical revolutions, but it does present an answer to critics of the big-time festival scene who nevertheless recognize the need for a gathering place and an exchange of ideas and discoveries. Most significantly, the small-scale, regionally-oriented festival serves as a showcase for new—not necessarily young—talent still in the process of developing toward full-scale careers.

HASSLES

NEW YORK—The Hassles, a new rock group recently signed by United Artists Records, made their Manhattan debut on Wednesday evening, August 23, at Ungano's Discotheque. The group's instrumental work is interesting, featuring many "psychedelic" effects on organ, guitar, drums, tambourine and wood block. The Hassles' vocal work, however, is somewhat uncontrolled and needs work. Energetic singing is desirable in rock music, but it can get out of hand, and when it does, the listener is left with an impression of formlessness.

Despite their flaws, the Hassles show promise, and if they can bring their singing up to the level of their playing, they should stand a chance of making a successful assault upon the disk scene.

Jimmy Campbell Dies At 64

NEW YORK—Jimmy Campbell, author and coauthor of many international pop hits, died in London on August 19 at 64. He was noted for "Show Me The Way To Go Home," which he wrote and published in 1925. Equally renowned were such tunes as "Goodnight, Sweetheart," "If I Had You," and "Try A Little Tenderness," which he wrote with his late partner Reg Connelly and others.

Arlo Guthrie In N.Y.; Plays Gaslight Cafe

Comedian Newhart Renews Ties With Warner Brothers

BURBANK, CALIF.—Bob Newhart, who was the first comedian to sell in excess of one million albums, via "The Button Down Mind of Bob Newhart," has been signed to a new exclusive contract with Warner Bros. Records.

Mike Maitland, president of the company, disclosed that Newhart will record a new album live in Las Vegas. He said that the decision for the new Newhart album was promoted by demands from consumers and fans who viewed Newhart during his recent heavy schedule of appearances on the Johnny Carson Show.

An exclusive advertising, promotion and exploitation campaign has been planned, in conjunction with the release of the album later this fall.

Warner Bros. is expected to tie this campaign in with Newhart's upcoming appearances on NBC-TV including Johnny Carson's Tonight Show.

Despite many offers to record for other companies, Newhart chose to renew his association with Warner Bros. Records, with whom he started his professional career six years ago.

Greentree Tape Producers Expanding With NJ Plant

NEW YORK—Sidney Brandt, president of Greentree Electronics (a subsidiary of Bell & Howell), announced last week that the firm is building a new plant in the Orange County Irvine Industrial Complex.

He noted that this new production facility will place Greentree among the most modern tape producing outfits in America.

The company showed substantial growth in the last year-and-a-half, and has been continuously expanding its present facilities. The new plant will be erected on eight acres of land in order to meet the projected needs of the next five years growth, Brandt added.

Architects contracted to design the plant are Robert Clements and Associates of Los Angeles.

Mary Tam, formerly production manager, has been named department coordinator responsible for schedules, budgets and suppliers.

Norelco Cassette Player Gets Newly Styled Package

NEW YORK—A newly styled package has been created for the Norelco "Carry-Corder" and now is being shipped with all orders for the cordless cassette tape recorder, it was announced last week by North American Philips Company, Inc.

The four-color package has been designed as a self-merchandise to facilitate dealer's sales according to Wybo Semmelink, assistant vice president of North American Philips and manager of its Norelco high fidelity products department.

Front and back panels of the highly-illustrated container feature an almost life-size reproduction of the "Carry-Corder" ready for use. One side panel shows a variety of applications for the unit; the other side panel displays accessories available for the machine.

The new package accommodates a larger carrying case for the miniature recorder. It also provides interior storage space for the microphone which formerly was carried in a snap-on exterior pouch.

Charles Heston Associates designed the package for North American Philips.

Roulette In Big Push For Choir

NEW YORK—Roulette Records' rock group, the Choir, who reached the charts their first time out with "It's Cold Outside," are the subjects of a massive, all-out national saturation publicity and promotion campaign, Roulette president Morris Levy has announced.

Levy called the drive on the Choir "one of the most carefully worked out promotional efforts in our history. We are convinced that the Choir is a group of major importance. We're using every available promotion and publicity outlet, radio, newspapers, national magazines, television, fan publications and the trade press. We're going all-out."

More than 5,000 specially prepared press kits have been mailed out to deejays, magazine and newspaper editors, syndicated columnists, TV producers, retailers, distributors, one-stop operators and Roulette's foreign affiliates. Each press kit, which is printed in red with white lettering, carries the overall slogan for the Choir campaign, "Don't Wait Till Sunday To Hear The Choir." The same line, which is repeated in all advertising on the Choir, appears on special memo pads and pencils that have been inserted in the press kits. The kits also contain a biography, photo and the latest record by the Choir, "No One Here To Play With." Open-end radio interviews with the Choir are now in production and a national tour is being planned.

The Choir was first discovered in Cleveland, where the original master of "It's Cold Outside" had been successful in the city. Roulette bought the disk and released it to an immediate chart success.

The Choir is composed of Wally Bryson, lead guitar; Dave Smalley, rhythm; Jim Bonfanti, drums; and James "Snake" Skeen, bass.

It is specifically designed for front panel mounting simplifying operation on one plane. A single lever operates the pinch roller. Spectacular orchestral showings magnify the powerful vocal performance of this brilliant song. Not "just another reading" of the familiar tune, this is a definitive outing set to explode.

HEY BABY (THEY'RE PLAYING OUR SONG) (2:35)
[Diogenes, Bag O' Tunes, BMI—Holvay, Beisbier]
AND OUR LOVE (2:47)
[Diogenes, BMI—Guercio]
BUCKINGHAMS (Columbia 44254)

With a philosophy of "one good tune deserves another" the Buckinghams swing back in high style to maintain their lease on the top hundred. As "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy" drops from the #7 slot, their new steps in to start a new sales fire via an outburst of happy sounds and lively rhythms. The team's giddy offering is earmarked a fireball.

A BANDA (2:09) [Fermata, ASCAP—Hollanda]
MISS FRENCHY BROWN (2:27) [Irving, BMI—Coleman]
HERB ALPERT & TIJUANA BRASS (A&M 870)

Playing down the impact of the brass section, and stressing more of the Latin lilt in the maraca and drum rhythm, Herb Alpert and his crew swing right back into the spotlight with a bright offering that will have all music spinners gassed. This instrumental reading of the hot Italian tune has smash written all over it. Flip's another cute orchestral side.

LET LOVE COME BETWEEN US (2:33)
[Al Gallico, BMI—Sobotka, Wyker]
I DON'T WANT TO HAVE TO WAIT (3:01)
[Il Gatto, Papa Don, BMI—Colver]
JAMES & BOBBY PURIFY (Bell 685)

Lover's plea laid down in a solid throbbing light-skip rhythm puts the Purify men back in the breakout business. Sounding bright, the two-some is joined by a glistening chorus for the refrain and picks up some fine accompanying ork push. The "Let Love Come Between Us" lid is going to be a biggie. Flip is a slow almost tearful lament.

SOUL MAN (2:36) [East-Pronto, BMI—Hayes, Porter]
SAM & DAVE (Stax 231)

Few enough acts pack the impact and terrific ability to attack a song with vigor that Sam & Dave have. Couple this drive with a solid slamming song like "Soul Man," add some groovy ork support and a ready-made following and the result is an instant smash. One of the pair's brightest efforts, likely to top both pop and r&b scenes.

CINCINNATI WOMAN (2:05)
[Claridge, ASCAP—Freeman, Seol, Lovetro, Weitz, King]
TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX (2:23) [Nipper, ASCAP—Doors]
FREDDY CANNON (Warner Brothers 7075)

Bouncing back onto the pop scene with a high caliber sock-it-to-me blues blast, Freddy Cannon should explode via his "Cincinnati Woman" offering. The tune is a quick moving, heavy on the rhythm side that is bound to hit it off with dancers, top 40 spinners and could gather added support over r&b circuits. The flip is another rock outing.

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH (2:23)
[Ten East, Cotillion, Springalo Toones, BMI—Stills]
ARE YOU SURE (2:45) [Peer Int'l, BMI—Cargill]
STAPLE SINGERS (Epic 10220)

Long favorites in the gospel field, the Staple Singers have made noise in the r&b line from time to time and could easily have a breakout side that might even spill over strongly in the pop circuit. Taut vocal sounds with emotional grip and exquisitely set arrangements make this a blast that should skyrocket.

Pick of the Week

TIME SELLER (2:51) [Maribus, BMI—Davis, Sawyer, Hardin]
DON'T WANT YOU NO MORE (3:01) [Maribus, BMI—Davis, Sawyer]
SPENCER DAVIS GROUP (United Artists 50202)

Stepping out of their regular bag, the Spencer Davis group add big deep strings to their punch, and the cello drive is phenomenal. Unusual Ron Richards production work on this solid rocking session makes for exciting take off sales potential on "Time Seller." Davis dittoes his prior hit pattern with this new view. Back in the blues bag on the back.

GETTIN' HUNGRY (2:50) [Sea of Tunes, BMI—Wilson, Love]
DEVOTED TO YOU (2:14) [Acuff-Rose, BMI—Bryant]
BRIAN WILSON & MIKE LOVE (Brothers 1002)

The singular production work of Brian Wilson, his use of abrupt changes of speed, overwhelming organ atmosphere and the sort of "soul" sound that is Beach Boys branded all roll into this distinctive track, "Gettin' Hungry." The sound is off-beat enough to make a go of it in the pop sales shops. Flip is a vibrant folky old ballad with potential.

DIFFERENT STROKES (2:15)
[Zachron, Edgewater, BMI—Cameron, Zachary]
SORRY BOUT DAT (2:12) [Colfam, BMI—Armstead]
SYL JOHNSON (Twilight 103)

Having made a name for himself with "Come On Sock It To Me," Syl Johnson takes another solid step in the hitsville direction on his new Twilight offering of big, driving, throbbing blues and funk with "Different Strokes." The side pounds along with enough verve to capture excellent r&b sales, and a good discotheque following should show.

CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF YOUR LOVE (1:30)
[Young City, BMI—Zekley, St. John, Anthony]

STAINED GLASS WINDOW (2:05)
[Teenie Bopper, ASCAP—Grady, Zekley]
YELLOW BALLOON (Canterbury 516)

Soft swishy feeling makes this dreamy-rock side a likely contender for the chart scene. Easy moving mellow vocal workouts are combined with quiet ork shuffling with a velvet throb for dance appeal. The side is a quickie that gets right to the point. Flip is another tasty offering that could catch hold—it's a quiet reading (of a tune called "Threshold Of Love" on the Visions' release.)

WHY (DO I LOVE YOU SO) (2:54)
[Chevis, BMI—Stewart, Miner, Marks]

CROSS MY HEART (3:00)
[Chevis, BMI—Pinchback, Henderson, Haygood]
BILLY STEWART (Chess 2002)

Distinctive cut-and-slide techniques of Billy Stewart have kept him going strong with r&b fans for many years, and his newfound pop following will join forces in sending this softly appealing love ditty into the sales picture. Rack up another fine performance with solid ork support to put another hit on the Stewart chain.

MORE THAN A MIRACLE (2:00)
[Robbins, ASCAP—Kusik, Snyder, Piccioni]
TINY BUBBLES (2:42) [Granite, ASCAP—Pober]
ROGER WILLIAMS (Kapp 843)

Joined on his latest pianistic outpouring by a chorale in a performance of "More Than A Miracle," Roger Williams should find no trouble in gaining total exposure via pop and good music outlets. The lovely romantic film theme side includes an almost classical showing from Williams and some beautiful group vocals.

SUNNY (2:46) [Portable, BMI—Hebb]
P.M. OR LATER (2:07) [Pompel, Dandelion, BMI—Price, Morris]
NEW BREED (Jamie 1341)

Slow organ intro in the vein of a "House of the Rising Sun" and "Whiter Shade of Pale" blues builds plenty of suspense before breaking into the mid-tempo reading of Bobby Hebb's while-back smash "Sunny." The side is well handled and should catch hold on the pop as well as r&b circuits. Could break wide open. Funky throb flip.

ALL MY TOMORROWS ARE GONE (2:49)
[Double Diamond, BMI—Huff]
PLEASE DON'T EVER LEAVE ME BABY (2:27)
[Ben-Lee, BMI—Bendineli, Lovett]
PATTI & EMBLEMS (Kapp 850)

If the throbbing delivery of Patti and the Emblems isn't enough to sell "All My Tomorrows Are Gone," then there's extra appeal on the brilliant build at the verse to put their job across for instant breakout appeal. Solid work from the singers, and just the right orking touches to make this a heavy sales item.

Newcomer Picks

LOVE YOU TILL TUESDAY (3:00) [Essex, ASCAP—Bowie]

DID YOU EVER HAVE A DREAM (2:08) [Essex, ASCAP—Bowie]

DAVID BOWIE (Deram 85016)

Orchestrations packed with zest, a delivery with all the punch of an on-stage pub performance, and some wild lyrics should put this powerhouse platter high in the running for a top chart spot. Vivacity and wide-open wit delivered with a wink-of-an-eye snap certainly make this the most delightful deck to bow in a long while. Brilliant coupler too.

JINGLE JANGLE (2:05) [Hot Shot, BMI—Barreto]

YOU'RE MY GIRL (1:40) [Marsupial, BMI—Bumgardner, Drury]

DOO-RIGHTS (Double Shot 119)

Outstanding performance from the lead singer and good group support could put the Doo-Rights high in the pop picture on their stunning "Jingle Jangle" effort. The side carries a wallop aided and amplified by the ork punch and vocal workouts; and the whole sound should get a big reception. Fine blues rock flip.

REFLECTIONS OF CHARLES BROWN (3:21) [Lynton]

HOLD ON (3:28) [Haskell, Conder, Lynton]

RUPERT'S PEOPLE (Bell 684)

Caught in the midst of a smaller second invasion of blues from Britain, the American market will be wide open for this new down-keyed, organ-showcased session from the English hit train. Working man's tale, tautly told to a tense backing on the "Reflections Of Charles Brown" side should soar saleswise on the teen scene.

READY TO LEAVE (2:45) [TM, BMI—Resnick, Resnick, Levine]

SILKY TONIGHT (2:30) [TM, BMI—Resnick, Resnick, Levine]

JET STREAM (Smash 2113)

Swishy moving soft rock sounds come across delightfully on the "Ready To Leave" outing from the Jet Stream. The sunny vocal showing, ear-catching orchestrations and effective organ-guitar opening all add up to a side that should sail high on the hit horizon. Fine production work on the big and flip (a psyche-lyriced ballad) sides.

SUNDAY KIND OF FEELIN' (2:03) [Kama Sutra, BMI—Kaye, Rich]

I'LL REMEMBER YOU ALWAYS (2:10) [Perspective, BMI—Schell]

TRISTEN SCHELL (Coral 62537)

Attractively accompanied, Tristen Schell lays down a charm-packed effort that could carry the femme vocalist high into the picture. Heavy rhythmic drive, good ork showing and a fine song offer the ticket on "Sunday Kind Of Feelin'," and it could be the big step in setting off big things for the artist. Soft ballad flip.

SHE'S GOT THE MAGIC (2:28)

[Irving, Inevitable, BMI—Margolin, MacLeod, Riopelle]

WELCOME, YOU'RE IN LOVE (2:48)

[Good Sam, Inevitable, BMI—Margolin, MacLeod, Riopelle]

PARADE (A&M 867)

Quiet delivery and soft group harmonies are set in a silken ork setting, but despite the understatement of "She's Got The Magic," the side has a powerful impact that should find a big reception on the teen-youth adult marketplace. Exceptional imagery in the beautifully worded song, placed in a slow to middle speed timing and carrying a solid build in each verse. Fine prospects for this pretty side.

POOR UNFORTUNATE ME (2:25)

[Brohun, BMI—Hunter, Brown, Barnes, Jones]

BRAZIL (3:35) [Peer Int'l, BMI—Russell, Barroso]

GIGI & CHARMAINES (Columbia 44246)

Booming Detroit orking pounds its way into a groovy item that should find favor with teens who dig dance decks, particularly with an r&b slant. The artists put on a blazing show with "Poor Unfortunate Me," and could easily find themselves with a hit on their hands. Rock samba serving of the standard "Brazil" on the flip.

NEVER LOVE A ROBIN (2:10)

[Vee Vee, Catalogue, BMI—Dixon, Bell, Foxx]

SALLY'S PARTY (2:35) [Catalogue, Gaskins, BMI—Gaskins, Gaskins]

BARBARA & BRENDA (Dynamo 108)

Big belting delivery and a solid production set Barbara and Brenda off and winging for smash r&b response on their reading of "Never Love A Robin." The off-beat draw of the title and outstanding showing on this deck could well put it high on the pop charts. Expect wide-spread response to this hot lid. Mid-speed nonsense flip.

Newcomer Picks

SUNDAY MORNING (2:45) [Al Gallico, BMI—Catana, Cooper]

PATTERNS, (2:40) [Al Gallico, BMI—Catana, Cooper]

BARBARA COOPER (RCA Victor 9294)

Funky electrified piano backing sets a hollow bluesy atmosphere for this promising deck that could serve as the vehicle to carry Barbara Cooper into the big pop picture. Solidly sung ballad, "Sunday Morning," could easily swing good music deejays as well as the pop spinners who'll turn out for the side. Nicely handled melancholy flip that could catch attention.

WIDE TRACKIN' (2:30) [Ann Arbor, BMI—Wagner]

DOES IT MATTER TO YOU GIRL (1:56)
[Ann Arbor, BMI—Tuttle, Caldwell]

FABULOUS PACK (Lucky Eleven 007)

No gimmicks or effects on this offering, just a bright beat, solid group vocal workout and some fine instrumental efforts which are blended together into a solid side with mid-speed dance appeal that could send it blazing up the charts. New dance, but basic beat well done. Wailing urban blues coupler.

CLOWN TOWN (2:22) [Spiral, ASCAP—Shelley]

THE STRANGER (2:42) [First Born, ASCAP—Jurist, Granick]

DONNA LEE (Columbia 44272)

Flashy production on this bouncing ballad make it a borderline case that will catch play on pop outlets and good music stations as well. Featuring a lively outgoing vocal style from Donna Lee, "Clown Town" swings out a la Broadway in a move that should put the tune over with the adult audience and teens alike. Samba flip.

LEAVE ME ALONE (2:40) [Mention, BMI—Ryals, Willis]

LIKE THE FALLING RAIN (2:25) [Mention, BMI—Ryals, Willis]

HERB RYALS (RCA Victor 9295)

Slow moving southern blues fares well in this side of soft-selling sound that comes on strong as an item that could catch fire in the pop spotlight. The vocal work of Herb Ryals, and all of the understated emotional content build up a strong case for a big response to "Leave Me Alone." More quiet heart-breaking on the flip.

GO WITH ME (2:23) [Acuff-Rose, BMI—Thomas]

GENE & DEBBE (TRX 5002)

Rock guitar sound from the late fifties, early sixties vocals and current-style lyrics mixes into a potpourri of appealing sounds on "Go With Me" from Gene and Debbie. The smooth moving teen-slanted ballad side is a fine sound that could attract considerable attention for the duo and make a strong move for hit status.

A&M Execs To Say 'Thanks', Bow 7 LP's

NEW YORK—To show both appreciation for five-years of support and an enthusiasm regarding the new 7 LP release, A&M's merchandising and promotion heads have left Los Angeles on a two-week, 27-city cross-country tour.

Bob Fead, Ed Rosenblatt, Bill Mulhern and John Rosica, marketing executives at the diskery are personally visiting distributors to express thanks for their "100 percent effort," in the past, and to display the seven new albums being released.

In discussing the object of the trip, Fead noted, "obviously we are serious and sincere in placing the distributor on a pedestal. And we are equally sincere in hoping that distributors for A&M will reciprocate by continuing to put in the same enthusiasm and effort they have in past years."

Product that will be shown from the new issues includes: "The Look of Love" by Claudine Longet, Jimmie Rodgers' "Child of Clay," "Reach Out" from Burt Bacharach, "The Merry-Go-Round," Phil Ochs' "The Pleasures of the Harbor," "Wave" with Antonio Carlos Jobim and Wes Montgomery's "A Day in the Life."

The executives will also be acquainting the distributors with a recently instituted hundred-thousand dollar exploitation campaign for Tommy Boyce and Bobby Hart; and information regarding A&M's scholarship program in the r&b area plus the fund being set up through NARM.

"We realize the importance of the distributor," Fead commented. "He's the most underrated and overlooked person in the record industry; yet without him, where would any of the large companies be?"

Coe To CPM Post

NEW YORK—Robert Coe, head of Robert Coe Management, has been appointed temporary national secretary of the Conference of Personal Managers, it has been announced by Ken Greengrass, president of Greengrass/Talan Management Associates and president of CPM's east coast division.

The Conference, which is presently in the process of merging its previously autonomous east coast and west coast divisions into one national organization, has nominated four candidates for national president: Greengrass and Ray Katz from the east coast, Bill Loeb and Dick Linke from the west coast. Loeb is president of the west coast segment.

The national vice president will be chosen from the opposite coast's two candidates for the presidency.

Greengrass also reported that the eastern segment had granted its second consecutive scholarship of $1,000 to the American Music and Drama Academy, headed by Philip Burton, and that a contribution had been made to the Nat "King" Cole Cancer Foundation.

He further announced that Buddy Howe, president of General Artists

Real Good Buys 2 Masters; To A&R Three Jubilee Acts

NEW YORK—Bill and Steve Jerome of Real Good Productions have purchased two new masters and will A&R three acts for Jubilee Records. The masters are "Everything" and "Mind Over Mind." This purchase marks the firm's entry into the master trade. Previously the company had released only its own product, which in 1967 included several hits, among which were "Ding Dong, The Witch Is Dead," "Happy," "Pretty Ballerina," and "Walk Away, Renee." In addition to looking for new masters, Real Good is also seeking independent producers.

The three acts to be recorded by Real Good are the Blades of Grass, Marie Appleby, and Rene St. Clair. Bill and Steve Jerome produced "Happy," the recent hit by the Blades of Grass. The group's new single, "Just Another Face," has recently been released.

Bill Jerome became a father of a second daughter recently. The child has been named Linda Nanette.

Corp., will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the east coast division.

EIA Cites FM's Growth In '67

WASHINGTON—Some 300 FM broadcasters last week (24) were presented with new Electronic Industries Association statistics revealing sturdy and continuing growth for FM, radio's newest voice.

Speaking at the second New York Sales Seminar of the National Association of FM Broadcasters, EIA consumer products division staff vice president Jack Wayman said that in the first six months of 1967, the proportion of radios in the U.S. market with FM capacity attained 39.3 per cent, the highest penetration ever recorded.

"As recently as 1961, FM radios accounted for only 9.7 per cent of the total U.S. market," Wayman said. Growth measured within model groups was even more impressive.

In 1961 only 119,000 clock radios had FM capability; in 1966 1,290,000 clock radios came into the market FM-equipped, a jump of 984 per cent. Portable radios did even better, Wayman reported, jumping 1097 per cent from 348,000 to 7,297,000.

Wayman underlined the merchandising possibilities inherent in the detailed EIA marketing services statistics. "You'll note that in every model category for the first half of 1967, as well as for the full years 1965 and 1966, the percentage of dollar value of FM sales exceeds those same sales expressed as a percentage of total radios sold.

"What this means is that an FM sale involves more dollars and implies a more rapid turnover of invested capital for the retailer," Wayman said. He stated that this fact is a valuable selling tool for broadcasters interested in boosting FM sales in their markets.

"We're heading for a 50-million-set radio year," Wayman added. "In 1957, 20 million sets was the best we could do. Technology and styling have had a lot to do with this growth, it's true. But a great influence in the return of radio has been the superior sound capabilities of FM and FM stereo transmission."

Wayman drew a parallel between FM radio and color television as revolutionary merchandising situations. "It's by no means far-fetched to consider these two products as similar growth vehicles for their respective industries. And it's my opinion that the greatest growth is yet to come for both."

NEW YORK—Dom Cerulli, ad director of Columbia Records, became a father for the second time when his wife gave birth recently to a son, Barrett Paul, at French Hospital, this city. It's the second boy for the couple.

ABC Changing Radio Format

NEW YORK—In order to offer local stations programs for specialized audiences, the American Broadcasting Company is introducing a radical change in radio network operation.

By January 1, the ABC radio network will be divided into four units. They are the American Personality Network, designed to serve stations presenting a middle-of-the-road mixture of music, news, and features; the American Information Network, tailored to stations offering all-talk programs and news; the American FM Network, aimed at frequency modulation outlets, and the American Contemporary Network, which would serve the pop music and rock outlets.

Walter A. Schwartz, vice president and general manager of WABC-New York, became president of the ABC radio network on August 25. He and Ralph W. Beaudin, group vice president of radio for the American Broadcasting Companies, Inc., will explain the details of the new structure to a small group of affiliated stations at a meeting on August 29. Beaudin represents the parent company of ABC's diverse interests in broadcasting, theater, recording, and motion pictures.

Steve Paul's Scene . . .

as the new trend, people who care for the wrong reasons care. Who cares? We played the Velvet Underground and let them do whatever they wanted. They did quite a lot and people who feared not the borders of experimentation, stayed. Most people came to the border and asked for a passport back home. Every now and then the good music also happens to be famous, for ex: the Doors; the Rascals; the Blues Project; and the Jimi Hendrix Experience. When we play these groups, we do well, but groups that are both good and famous aren't that available. So it's only when the well known and good musicians who hang out in the Scene socially, virtually donate their services to help perpetuate the club that we do well."

Extensive Promotion

The TV'er has already been scheduled for a repeat airing on Oct. 14th., in the same time slot. Plans are in the works for future Metromedia shows to use Paul as a vehicle of presentation. Steve Paul says that he hopes to stay with Metromedia because of the creative freedom they allowed him.

This show represents one of the first times a young person has been allowed to produce, select talent, and

Sammy Davis, Jr. Debuts As Movie Music Cleffer

NEW YORK—Sammy Davis, Jr. has added the movie-composer epithet to his already lengthy list of accomplishments with the writing of "I Like the Way You Dance" for his forthcoming film "Salt and Pepper."

Currently being filmed in London, the movie will feature a performance of the song by Davis with three dancers.

The suspense-comedy co-stars Davis with Peter Lawford and British star Ilona Rodgers.

Same To Barrington

NEW YORK — Chicago's feminine quintet The Same have signed a long-term recording contract with Barrington Records.

The growing diskery, located in Barrington, Ill., has implemented its blossoming roster with this promising team, which performs original pop material as well as its own versions of current hits.

Formed more than a year ago, the group consists of lead vocalist Vicki Hubly, Judi and Vicki Selman, Donna Smolak and Debbie Reiss.

Announcement of the signing was released last week by the label, and news of The Same's first release is expected shortly.

create the ambiance for the entire show. This is in contrast to the pop scene's having been documented or highlighted in more diverse airings. In this light it represents a step forward in the presentation of contemporary music in the contemporary medium of TV. Paul's TV background is brief but includes: both the Les Crane and Merv Griffin shows in addition to a while-back Ch 9 airing entitled, "The Steve Paul Show."

The "Steve Paul's Scene" airing is the subject of an extensive advertising and promotion campaign that includes major space in the "N.Y. Times," "The Post," "Daily News," and the "Village Voice" in addition to a full page in "T.V. Guide," which has screened the show and reportedly given it a 1/2 page highlight listing.

Comments

Steve Paul, in wrapping up his comments on the show, said: "It's both freaky and fortunate that someone such as myself was given the opportunity to attempt to capture the spirit of our times through its music in the medium of TV. While the show represents only the beginning of what I hope will be the continued ability of myself, my friends, and those I wish were my friends, to do our thing on TV, I think it marks the start of the right direction. We made mistakes, we did some fantastic things . . . that's all part of doing it for real and we're really gonna' try to do it."

SIGNIN' UP WITH THE BIG 3—Songwriters Jimmy Radcliffe and Buddy Scott have signed an exclusive song writing contract with Big 3 Music (Robbins—Feist—Miller). The deal includes creative recording action to be handled by the duo's Liseris production outfit. Shown in this view are: (from the left) Jay Lowery, general professional manager of the Big 3; Arnold Maxin, Big 3 topper; Jimmy Radcliffe; and Buddy Scott. The Radcliffe/Scott team has run up quite a far reaching reputation in the R&B field and their being signed to Big 3 is part of a continuing attempt by Maxin to diversify the firm's catalog.

The disk figures to be a runaway best seller.

Frank Sinatra's superb artistry assures this quality LP of heavy chart action. Featured on the disk are the artist's chart single, "The World We Knew (Over And Over)," "Don't Sleep In The Subway," and "Some Enchanted Evening." Daughter Nancy joins her father in "Somethin' Stupid." This one should be a blockbuster.

MANTOVANI/HOLLYWOOD—London LL 3516/PS 516

The lush strings of Mantovani vibrate to the strains of music of the screen. Among the tracks are "Born Free," "A Taste Of Honey," "You Only Live Twice," and "Lawrence Of Arabia." Mantovani's large following should send sales of the LP skyrocketing. This one should be a monster.

EXPLOSIVE BRASS IMPACT—Warren Kime and his Brass Impact Orchestra—Command RS 919 SD

Warren Kime and his Brass Impact Orchestra present a powerful package of pop tunes, with heavy emphasis on the hearty sounds of the brass section. Included on the LP are "No Moon At All," "It's All Right With Me," "Everybody Loves My Baby," and "Get Out Of Town." The arrangements are fresh and invigorating, and the set should stir up lots of consumer reaction.

GOLDEN GREATS—Gene Pitney—Musicor MM 2134/MS 3134

Gene Pitney lends his considerable talents to an interpretation of eleven tunes which have achieved standard status. Among the offerings are "Stop! In The Name Of Love," "A Groovy Kind Of Love," "Green Green Grass Of Home," and "Time Won't Let Me." The artist sings with lyrical fidelity, and the album shapes up as a big winner.

WHISKY A GO-GO REVISITED—Johnny Rivers—Sunset SUM 1157/SUS 5157

Recorded live at the Whisky A Go-Go on the Sunset Strip in Hollywood, this album captures all the excitement of Johnny Rivers' scintillating performance at that nitery. Included on the package are "C.C. Rider—Got My Mojo Working," "A Hard Day's Night," "When A Man Loves A Woman," and "John Lee Hooker." The LP should develop into a biggie.

TRIANGLE—Beau Brummels—Warner Bros. W/WS 1692

The Beau Brummels render eleven pop ditties which have a lilting, evocative quality. Among the tunes are "Are You Happy?" "Painter Of Women," "And I've Seen Her," and the title track, "Triangle." The group creates an interesting tonal color, and the album is likely to reap a plentiful sales harvest.

THE VILLAGE STOMPERS' GREATEST HITS—Epic LN 24318/BN 26318

The Village Stompers pound out a hard-driving, rhythmic set of instrumentals. Running Promo Men Keep Bell Ringing

NEW YORK—Bell Records' dual national promo setup, which began four months ago, is beginning to show its worth. The two-man national promo team of Gordon Bossin and Dave Carrico, which is designed to have one man on the road and the other on the phones, is proving effective. In the past 16 weeks, no less than 17 cities have been visited by Carrico or Bossin. At the same time, almost constant phone contact has been maintained with deejays, music directors and trade publications.

Proof that the dual setup is effective is born out by the number of chart records Bell has had this period. Oscar Toney, Jr. has had two records well up on the charts, as have James & Bobby Purify; Mitch Ryder with "Joy," Betty Harris with "Nearer To You" and currently "The Letter" by the Box Tops. Also represented on the R&B charts have been records by James Carr, Clifford Curry and Lee Dorsey.

Carrico and Bossin stated that on an average, they speak to approximately 75 DJ's, MD's and distributor promotion men each week. They stated further, that in a market place so cluttered with releases, it is imperative that they back up the local distributor and promotion men with their own personal contact in order to obtain maximum exposure on their product.

Fred Karlin To Chart 'His, Hers, And Theirs'

NEW YORK—Fred Karlin, composer and musicologist, has been signed by producer Robert F. Blumofe to compose, arrange and conduct the musical score of Desilu-Walden's production "His, Hers and Theirs," starring Lucille Ball and Henry Fonda. Van Johnson is co-starred in the film for release by United Artists.

"His, Hers and Theirs" will be Karlin's second work for feature films. His first picture, "Up the Down Staircase," opened at Radio City Music Hall recently. He also has done extensive musical arrangements for Radio City Music Hall stage presentations and for Benny Goodman's orchestra.

Karlin is scheduled to arrive in Hollywood early in September for preliminary scoring from a rough cut of "His, Hers and Theirs." Melville Shavelson directs from a screenplay co-written by himself and Mort Lachman.

Attarack Bustling With Activities

LOS ANGELES—With its key personnel scattering in all directions for business purposes, the current activities of the Attarack Corp. might well be termed "Attarack on the Go!"

Seymour Heller, president of company, is currently in New York, realigning the office there following recent demise of Dick Gabbe, and is arranging TV appearances for various artists represented by the firm, and conducting meetings with Bell Record executives on new releasing deal for Attarack's Sunburst label.

He then swings down to Texas to join the Standells, appearing at the World's Pop Festival in Ft. Worth.

Ed Cobb, v.p. and R&R director, heads to San Diego this week to catch the Treniers and to start rehearsals with them for an upcoming recording commitment.

Jimmy O'Neill, who recently joined Attarack's management arm, hits several midwestern cities, including Detroit, where singer Tony Daryll is headlining at Act IV, then segues to Chicago and Memphis to check out several singers and groups for possible management contracts.

Adam Ross, company's publishing division manager, is only Attarack exec not currently on the road, having just returned last week from London confabs with Burlington Music, sub-publishers for Attarack in Europe.

NEW YORK—MGM recording artists will be jointly promoted by MGM Records and Hullabaloo Magazine. The magazine will highlight the artists in cover blurbs, feature stores and contests.

The first contest and promotion appears in the October issue of Hullabaloo, on sale August 31, and features Sam the Sham. Hullabaloo Magazine will award various prizes built around a contest with Sam, including albums, singles, Sam the Sham posters and photographs, MGM playtape machines and cartridges. MGM will promote this issue to its record dealers, rack jobbers, wholesalers and road men, and also to deejays across the country.

Hullabaloo Magazine has sent special notices and Sam the Sham albums to its more than 800 wholesalers. Among future MGM artists to be promoted in Hullabaloo Magazine are Eric Burden and the New Animals, the Paupers and Every Mothers' Son.

Laurie Picks Up 5th Order Master

NEW YORK—Laurie Records credits its close liaison policy with one-stops and retailers for the acquisition of a regional breakout master from the Counterpart label.

Doug Morris, Laurie vee, noted that the newly purchased "A Thousand Devils" by the Fifth Order was made available and sought after through contacts in the Columbus, Ohio area. Members of the promotion and sales departments, who are in close touch with dealers in the area, notified the master breakout purchasing department of the deck's action, and the purchasers took over.

COUNTRY ROUNDUP

(The following editorial essay is a reprint from the December 24, 1966 edition of the Country Roundup. We are running this essay again for two reasons: 1) the thoughts contained therein are still timely and deserve to be aired once more; 2) our hard-working country editor, Tom McEntee, finally took a vacation and is thus unable to supply us with a fresh example of his inimitable prose.)

It's very strange how a little thing like an "x" can mean the difference, in many cases, between a hit record and a bomb. The "x" being the mark put on a record to distinguish the A side from the B. Quite a few labels mark the top side of a record with an easily identifiable mark, or, perhaps, stamp "plug side" on the lid which they intend to promote, but there are still many other firms which give no indication of the side which will get the push. The people that be at these companies evidently feel that the choice should be left up to the stations, or even to individual deejays, with a top side to be decided upon at a later date. Although this "pick-whichever-side-you-want" attitude seems very liberal, it can often spell the death of a record.

"Why?" asks the label. "If a record is a hit it will eventually be found out." As odd as it may seem, the company naively believes that a hit is a hit is a hit . . . and that, if a record "has it in the grooves," it will make it—no matter what.

Not necessarily true! Many a big disk comes to mind which was successful only because of bulldog determination on the part of some regional promo man or the faith of an isolated deejay in Rock Mt., N.C. Many more records come to mind which "had it in the grooves," but were lost because of wishy-washy promotion or no promotion at all.

There is also a widely held opinion that a big name artist automatically means a big record, on one side or another. This theory seems to have an exceptionally strong following in the country field, where the loyalty of the audience generally keeps a favorite artist on top for longer than in the pop market. Records are thrown out to the public with the idea that the name of the artist is enough to create a best-seller. Quite often this is true, when all the push is on the same side of the record. But, even when a disk gets all-out promotion on one side, it doesn't necessarily hit. How then can a single hit if each side is getting only half the attention it deserves?

Say, for example, it takes a radio saturation of 60% of all stations playing a record to make it a big national hit. If these stations are split into two groups on a particular disk, then that record will receive only an approximate 30% saturation. With that kind of airplay the artist might come up with a noisemaker at best.

The simple matter of making a decision, any decision, before the record is sent out to trade magazines could save quite a number of records. (The old Army phrase of "Don't just stand there! Do something, even if it's wrong" seems very apropos here.)

True, there is many a deejay who visualizes himself a discoverer, and true also, there is the infrequent flip side that runs away with the race and leaves the original A side long forgotten (e.g. David Houston's "Almost Persuaded" and his "Loser's Cathedral"). The noble art of "flipping" will continue to cause a certain amount of split action for many years to come, but this can be insignificant when compared to the split a single will get when the A side is up for grabs.

In a business as competitive as the record business, each individual piece of product needs as much help as it can get. Every release suffers the immediate handicap of being one among hundreds of other such releases that week. Why give the record an additional handicap? Pick a side!

$2,500 WORTH OF HAT—The Stetson hat being gingerly placed on the head of Australian C&W chanter Reg. Lindsay is probably the most costly in existence, being valued at $2,500 (with carrying case). The Stetson is made of beaver fur, and its gold mesh band has fourteen rubies set in it as well as two horse figures. U.S. hat manufacturer G. Mitchell (shown above with Lindsay) brought the Stetson to Australia, and when Lindsay saw it, he decided he'd like to wear it on some of his national TV shows.

Leon Ashley and Margie Singleton recently inked a management contract with the Wright Talent Agency in Nashville. Joe Wright has booked Leon and Margie, as well as Claude Gray and the Graymen, Bill Wilbourn and Kathy Morrison into the Nashville Club at the New Yorker Hotel in Manhattan for engagements this autumn. . . . On Saturday evening, Sept. 2, a "Holiday Party" of dancing, sponsored by KGBS-Radio (Los Angeles) and featuring Glen Campbell and the KGBS All-Star Band, Bonnie Guitar and Billy Mize, will take place at the Hollywood Palladium. . . . Billy Deaton Enterprises has arranged 27 dates for Charlie Pride in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana. . . . Johnny Tillotson appeared at the Stephenson County Fair in Freeport, Illinois on August 26. During a three day period, August 28, 29 and 30, Johnny will do six Jerry Naylor TV's in Nashville as well as record there. . . . J.B. Artist & Record Promotions has signed Emil Schattel and the Panhandle Playboys to a promotion and personal management contract.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

YOU MEAN THE WORLD TO ME [Al Gallico, BMI—Sherrill, Sutton]

DON'T MENTION TOMORROW (Al Gallico, BMI—Sherrill, Sutton)

DAVID HOUSTON (Epic 10224)

David Houston could easily go all the way with this tuneful, happy romance effort, "You Mean The World To Me." The side has "smash" written all over it and should start rocketing up the charts in short order. The undercut is a sorrowful ballad called "Don't Mention Tomorrow."

I DON'T SEE HOW I CAN MAKE IT (2:25) [Champion, BMI—Richey]

ENOUGH HEART TO HURT (2:27) [Beechwood, BMI—Reed, Mangino]

JEAN SHEPARD (Capitol 5983)

A stirring, medium-paced sobber, "I Don't See How I Can Make It" is bound to add yet another link to Jean Shepard's chain of hits. The ditty showcases Jean at her best and is a sure bet for top chart honors. "Enough Heart To Hurt" is a shuffling weeper.

I TAUGHT HER EVERYTHING SHE KNOWS (2:00)

[Piedmont, ASCAP—Dee, Kent]

I TREAT HER LIKE A BABY (2:37) [Combine, BMI—Arnold, Hayes]

BILLY WALKER (Monument 1024)

"I Taught Her Everything She Knows" is a heart-throbbing lament that seems certain to make a winning amount of chart and sales noise for Billy Walker. Don't let it out of your sight. On the flip, Billy offers an attractive woe item dubbed "I Treat Her Like A Baby."

LEARNIN' A NEW WAY OF LIFE (2:04) [East Star, BMI—Fagan]

WILD FLOWER (2:28) [4 Star, BMI—Burgess]

HANK SNOW (RCA Victor 9300)

Should be loads of attention in store for Hank Snow via his latest venture, "Learnin' A New Way Of Life." Side is a catchy, spicy swinger that should find favor with a large country audience. "Wild Flower" is a warm love ode.

LONGTIME TRAVELING (2:35) [Churchill, BMI—Brand, Nassau]

CAMPTOWN GIRL (2:17) [Cedarwood, BMI—Self]

BUDDY CAGLE (Imperial 66245)

Look out for Buddy Cagle to make a speedy climb up the Top 50 with this session. Plug side is "Longtime Traveling," a potent, blues-tinged ballad filled with unlimited potential for spins and sales aplenty. "Camp-town Girl," on the back, is a spirited bouncer.

BEHIND MY BABY'S BEDROOM DOOR (2:58) [Tree, BMI—Putnam]

IF (2:25) [Kiowa, BMI—Seay, Perkins]

JOHNNY SEAY (Columbia 44268)

Here's a gripping, imaginative ballad called "Behind My Baby's Bedroom Door" that could develop into a big winner for Johnny Seay. Look for it on the charts. On the flip side, Seay offers a strong, tuneful blueser tabbed "If" that might also become a winner. Watch both sides on this one.

ROCK PILE (2:25) [Moss Rose, BMI—Anderson]

LOVE (2:05) [Moss Rose, BMI—Mills]

HAL CROFT (Jab 9007)

Hal Croft stands a good chance of making it big on the charts with his latest outing. Dubbed "Rock Pile," the side to watch is a solid, mid-tempo woe that's bound to appeal to thousands of C&W listeners. Flip is an infectious romancer called "Love."

BIG DUMMY (2:10) [Seashell, BMI—Collins]

WHAT-CHA GONNA DO NOW? (2:23) [Central Songs, BMI—Collins]

TOMMY COLLINS (Columbia 44260)

"Big Dummy" is a brisk-paced, regret-filled toe-tapper that might well prove to be a Top 50 item for Tommy Collins. Side has a real winning sound and should be watched closely. On the other side, "What-Cha Gonna Do Now?" is a contagious finger-snapper that could also see action.

CMA To Present 1st Annual Awards In Oct.; TV Sponsorship Planned With Goodson-Todman

NEW YORK—At its annual show and banquet, which will be held October 20 at the Municipal Auditorium in Nashville, the Country Music Association will present its first annual C&W awards. Roy Horton, the Association's board chairman, has announced that CMA and Goodson-Todman Productions, producers of such network TV shows as "What's My Line" and "To Tell The Truth," have just made arrangements for production of the event for television. A meeting was held here in New York last week between CMA officials and Goodson-Todman executives to make plans for the show. Goodson-Todman staffer Mike Gargiulo was named creative director of the production. Negotiations concerning the scheduling of the show are currently underway with TV network officials.

CMA has of course given out hundreds of awards in the past, but the annual awards will be different in that they will be all-industry awards not limited to any one area of the country or based on the voting of a small number of judges. The entire membership of the Country Music Association will be able to nominate candidates for the awards and participate in the voting.

An independent auditing firm will keep the outcome of the election secret until the night of the awards.

Basic information regarding the mechanical aspects of the election is being sent to all CMA members. Operational procedures such as the tabulation of the voting are being handled by Price Waterhouse.

The awards will cover the year running from August 1, 1966 through July 31, 1967. They will be presented in the following ten categories:

1. Entertainer of the Year
2. Single of the Year
3. Album of the Year
4. Song of the Year
5. Male Vocalist of the Year
6. Female Vocalist of the Year
7. Vocal Group of the Year
8. Instrumental Group or Band of the Year
9. Instrumentalist of the Year
10. Comedian of the Year

The Tiger Has A Birthday

NEW YORK—Radio stations and deejays all over the world saluted Capitol Records' ace C&W songster Buck Owens on his birthday, Aug. 12. The New England Network in Australia honored him with a day long special as did stations throughout the United States and Canada. Radio New York World-Wide deejays Andre Mostert (Country Andy) and Les Marshak joined in the throng on their International Short Wave program beamed to England, Ireland, Germany, Holland, Honduras, and the Caribbean. Charlie Bellert of Radio 4RO, Rockhampton and Radio 4LG, Longreach, Queensland in Australia, John Minson of Radio 2TM, Tamworth, Australia, Ing Miroslav Cerny, Radio CZECHO 1, Praha, Czechoslovakia, and Slim Jim Lengyel of The International Country Music Show taped a birthday show for listeners to his program in Denmark. Owens was honored by various state and city officials by having

"Buck Owens Day" observed. In his hometown, Mayor R.V. Karlen led the pack with having "Buck Owens Day" and cutting The Tiger's birthday cake at his all country KUZZ Music Center in Bakersfield. Governor Lester Maddox of Georgia was the first to honor Owens statewide. Various stations honored him by playing an extra number of his records throughout the day, by having birthday cakes for their listeners to stop by and sample, and having listeners mail in birthday cards which were packaged up and sent to Buck's home base in California.

Owens celebrated his birthday while at the Illinois State Fair in Springfield, Illinois. There members of his fan club presented the tiger with plaques and Capitol Records presented him with a giant birthday cake. The more than 22,000 people who had come to see Buck at the fair joined in in singing "Happy Birthday".

'I Hereby Proclaim'—Mayor R.V. Karlen (center) of Bakersfield, California happily signs a proclamation naming August 12 "Buck Owens

Tree Music Opens West Coast Office

NASHVILLE—Tree Publishing Co.'s global expansion has taken on another dimension with the opening of a West Coast office on Sunset Blvd. in Los Angeles, according to a joint announcement made by Jack Stapp, president and W.D. "Buddy" Killen, executive V.P.

Named to head the LA headquarters is Rick Landy, 28-yr.-old native of the area whose background includes previous publishing experience as well as record production and personal management.

Landy's main function will be to represent the Tree catalogue on the coast, as well as music belonging to such subsidiaries as Wilderness, Press, Twig and Allied Music. In addition to scouting new West Coast writing talent, Landy will also sign up artists for Tree's Dial label.

At present, Roger Miller is the only Tree writer on the West Coast.

Tree's global growth was spurred approximately one year ago when Pres. Stapp traveled throughout Europe opening offices to represent Tree's catalogue. Today, the 14-yr.-old company has its music represented in 25 foreign countries, including the United Kingdom, Mexico, and South America.

A Far Eastern junket will be made in mid-Sept. by Stapp and New York copy-rite attorney Lee Eastman to expand the company's representation in that part of the world.

COUNTRY LP REVIEWS

FOLKSY—George Hamilton IV—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3854

Here's a powerful album by George Hamilton IV that could stir up enough action to establish itself as a fast-moving item saleswise. A winning collection of folk and country ditties, the set includes "Go Go Round," "Darcy Farrow," "Ballad Of The Yarmouth Castle," "Ruby, Don't Take Your Love To Town," and eight others. Excellent production.

'MOST RICHLY BLESSED' AND OTHER GREAT INSPIRATIONAL SONGS—Jimmy Dean—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3824

Jimmy Dean has come out with a sincere, feelingful album of inspirational songs that should win the enthusiasm of a wide audience. In addition to the title tune, the set includes "It Is No Secret," "Standing In The Need Of Prayer," "Old Time Religion" and numerous others. Dean is really at the top of his form on this one. Keep it in sight.

Gene Ferguson To Manage Columbia's Country Field

NEW YORK—Gene Ferguson has been promoted to the newly created post of national field manager of country music, at Columbia Records, according to an announcement by Tommy Noonan, the label's director of national promotion. In his new capacity, Ferguson will be responsible to Noonan for planning, developing and directing all Columbia country single product promotion, including the coordination of country artists' appearances and tours.

Based in Nashville, Ferguson should significantly strengthen the liaison between Columbia Records' promotion and A&R staffs and the numerous artists, managers and publishers in the country-music field. The appointment of Ferguson to this position is a strategic and carefully planned step in the strengthening of Columbia Records' promotion organization in general, with particular emphasis on the promotion of the label's country music and artists.

In announcing Ferguson's appointment, Noonan commented: "There is no better or more qualified man than Gene Ferguson for this important position. His appointment will significantly solidify our promotional efforts more than ever before, thereby assuring tighter direction and total concentration in promoting Columbia country singles. The role of country music is ever increasing in the recording industry, and Columbia Records intends to go all-out in supporting its entire roster of country artists and their recordings."

Prior to this assignment, Ferguson served as a promotion manager in Columbia Records' southern region. He joined Columbia in 1956 as a salesman in the Baltimore branch.

Cash Gets Cash; Uses LP Jacket

NEW YORK—Columbia recording artist Johnny Cash has a most distinctive identification card . . . one of his Columbia album covers! During a recent visit to New York, Cash was robbed of his wallet, which contained cash, checks and his identification. After a careful appraisal of his situation, Johnny Cash came to Columbia Records for assistance. Obliging, the label made out a check in his name. Seemingly, Cash's problem was solved, but there did remain the question of where to cash the check . . . without identification.

The only thing Cash had at the moment that would prove he was himself was his Columbia LP "Johnny Cash's Greatest Hits." Cash took the check and the album to the nearest bank and, (reportedly) with hardly a moment's hesitation, got his check cashed. A little unorthodox, perhaps, but it worked!

Nugget Sees Gold In Fred Carter, Jr.

NEW YORK—Nugget Records has informed us that Fred Carter Jr. has acquired part ownership in the label and studio and will maintain his offices at the studio in Goodlettsville, Tenn. Carter formerly filled the A&R slot at ABC. He continues as a contract writer for Pamper Music and as a recording artist for Monument Records.

Part of Nugget's current expansion program, the acquisition of Carter is expected to boost the label by bringing in more good talent.

Jerry Rivers will continue as general manager of the studio and publishing.

Goldie Hill To Record For Epic

NASHVILLE—Goldie Hill will resume her recording career in early September on the Epic label under the name of Goldie Hill Smith, her married name. The resumption of her career will be restricted to studio work and will involve no personal appearances.

For several years, up until a short time after wedding Columbia recording artist Carl Smith, Goldie was a major artist on the Decca label. The last few years, however, have been devoted to managing the domestic end of "the Smith Ranch" in Franklin and the family's three young children: Lori-Lynn, Carl, Jr. and Larry Dean.

Goldie's return to the recording world will be monitored by veteran independent producer Don Law, a longtime associate of the Smiths.

Happy Shahan's Show Set For Tyler's Fair

BRACKETTVILLE, TEXAS—Happy Shahan's Show has just been signed as the feature event of Tyler's East Texas Fair which will be held September 30th. The announcement came from show manager Billy Deaton.

Happy headlines the show and will be joined by Ray Frushay, Grand Ole Opry artist; Eddie McDuff and the Big D Jamboree Band; and singing Southwestern University co-eds, Sadi Perron and Carolyn Baer.

Happy just returned from a guest appearance for W-SHO Radio's Night at Pontchartrain Beach, New Orleans. His newest London Record release is "Secret Lovin' Undercover Man" b/w "Poocho, The Bow-Wowless Fido."

MEXICO

A spectacular album has been released by Capitol Records of México. The title is "Música y Voz de la Patria-Himno Nacional" (Music And Voice Of The Native Country-National Hymn). Almost a year of work has been necessary to complete it, and we may assure you that this is the most authentic expression of the civic moments of our country. Andre Midani, general manager of Discos Capitol de México, S.A., told us that thanks to the help and cooperation of friends of his company, he got the necessary decree of the Mexican President Gustavo Díaz Ordaz to realize these recordings.

The album was recorded completely at the Palace of Fine Arts with the participation of the National Symphonic Orchestra, the War Band Of The Presidential Guards, the cadets of the Military College, and bands of the Army and the Navy, and the voice of Gonzalo Soto.

The music included "The Honor March," "The Mexican National Hymn" in vocal and instrumental versions, "List Of Honor," "Creed"—inspired by Ricardo López Mendez, "Marcha Dragón," "Tierra Blanca," "The Flag Bugle Call," "Diana," "Cadets Of The Navy," "Mexican Marines," "Homage To The Mexican Army Forces," and the "Marcha Zacatecas" which could be considered as our second hymn.

The production was by Ernesto Julio Teissier and Jose Antonio Zavala; the engineer, Pedro Zavala.

This album, as a real music jewel, will have a national and international projection and a very important number of copies has already been released.

Spanish composer Manuel Alejandro, is in México writing the music for a new picture by Angélica María. It is very probable that he will record for a Mexican label.

HOLLAND

Bovema starts this week with a budget line series of light entertainment LP's with such names among others as Vera Lynn, Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Nat King Cole, the Kingston Trio and T. E. Ford. In the next few weeks the other 18 LP's of this series of 24 will be released.

Roel Kruijze, Bovema's chief pop singles, reports the release of Bobbie Gentry's sensational hit "Ode To Billy Joe," Cliff Richard's "The Day I Met Marie," "Itchycoo Park" of the Small Faces and Paul Jones' "Thinkin' Ain't For Me."

After the tremendous success of Ray Conniff & the Singers' album, "Somewhere My Love," CBS issued his latest Album entitled "This Is My Song." No doubt, this LP recording too will become a blockbuster in the Benelux countries.

Important single releases are Bettye Swann with "Make Me Yours," the American Breed with their single "Step Out Of Your Mind" and Anita Harris' single "Just Loving You" and "Butterfly With Coloured Wings." In her native country, England, Anita is rising rapidly, and CBS has high hopes that the same will happen in Holland. Already issued is her album "Somboddy In My Orchard."

New important CBS additions to the classical LP field include a 2-record set of Vladimir Horowitz' "Carnegie Hall Concert, 1966," a 2 record set of "The Music Of Arnold Schoenberg, Vol. 5," as well as an album with "Mozart's Symphony No. 40" and "Haydn's Symphony No. 88" by the Columbia Symphony Orchestra conducted by Bruno Walter.

August 22 and 23, Mr. André Vidal of Vogue was visiting Mr. Robert Oeges and Mr. Hans I. Kellerman of Negram-Delta. They discussed further plans for the future and the coordination between Negram and Vogue. The same week Negram released two new French hits: "Voilà" by Françoise Hardy and "Ça Fait Mal" by Danyel Gerard; both singles were very well received. Due to an intensive promotion campaign, Negram-Delta has its first ever Elektra hit on hands. "Light My Fire" by the Doors is fast rising and heading for the top twenty. Negram-Delta is trying to arrange a Dutch visit by the Doors. (They might do live appearances and T.V. shows at the end of September.) In the meanwhile, Negram is eagerly looking forward to their new album.

Zarah Leander will be visiting the Netherlands on October 3 to give a concert in the famous Concert Hall in Amsterdam. To tie in with this event an introductory LP featuring Zarah Leanders greatest hits will be released on Ariola.

Negram-Delta has printed a folder with "Hits For The Flower Children." At the same time all radio and TV stations have received samples of flower power records. The dealers will also pay much attention to the flourishing flower hits. The currently best selling flower albums are: "The Electric Prunes," "Del Capo-Love," "The Doors," "Harpers Bizarre." . . . Planned for release in September: "Mugwumps," "Underground—Electric Prunes," "Grateful Dead" and "Big Brother & Holding Company."

AUSTRALIA

The Federal Government recently announced budget details for the 1967/8 financial year. There was very little change of vital importance to industry in general, with no real tax relief in sight of any form. Sales tax on tape recorders, tape players, tape decks, and similar appliances (which of course includes Cassette playback and record units) has been increased from 12½ per cent to 25 per cent. There was no change in the rate of sales tax on discs which still stands at a very hefty 25% . . . a burden that the record industry has been forced to carry for a number of years now. Sales tax adds about 75 cents to the retail price of regular-priced albums. Telephone and postal fees have also been hiked in the new budget.

For the third year in a row, E.M.I. (Australia) Limited has lifted dividend following another boost in profits for the year ended June 30. Net profit for the group rose to (Aust) $1,178,855 as against $1,067,296 for the previous year; dividend is up from 16% to 18%.

Jim Valley steps out with his first solo release in this country via the RCA label and "Try, Try, Try" and "Invitation." The Dunhill product from the United States is issued in this territory by RCA of Australia.

We hear tell that two of our national pop music programs are expected to disappear from television quite soon. Our information indicates that both shows will cut out within the next month. Both have proved to be valuable outlets for promoting local discs.

Kevin Ritchie, promo chief of the E.M.I. group of labels, says that local singer Cheryl Gray stopped off in Sydney recently on her way to Brisbane to promote her latest single "It's Not Easy Loving You." Cheryl did some television work on the record and also visited disc jockeys. The 15 year-old artist is looked upon as having outstanding potential for a big career in the business.

Several local writers have been contracted to the publishing house of J. Albert & Son recently. They include: Jeff St. John, Freddy Hampton, Gregory Lawrie and Keith Matcham. Tony Geary of the publishing company says he is pleased to have these writers on the team because all are with recording groups in this country which affords greater opportunity to have their compositions recorded.

Local artist Bobby Bright (formerly one half of the successful double act of Bobby & Laurie) is now recording for the CBS label and his current single is catching strong air play. "Would You Believe, Love" is the side getting the action, whilst the underhalf is "Midnight Preaching."

Dick Heming, in charge of national promotion for Astor, says the label is still having a great run with the Davy Jones "left-fielder," "Theme For A New Love." Other new issues from the label are "Death Of A Clown" by Dave Davies, "My Mammy" by the Happenings, "If You Can Put That In A Bottle" by Peter Doyle, and on the Scope label is the Explosive Mind with "The Kids Are Alright."

ITALY

GREAT BRITAIN

Ornella Vanoni's new single via Ariston Records will feature "Cordialmente," the leit motiv for same-named TV series. As a result, chart status in the near future can be expected.

New French discovery Philip Olivier will be introduced in Italy through the contest "Il Festival Degli Sconosciuti" (The Unknown's Festival) a yearly event organized in Ariccia (a resort near Rome) by Teddy Reno. It is the first time that a foreign singer is taking part in this event. News has been announced by Carisch S.p.A. who will distribute Olivier's discs here.

Phonogram has announced that their top star Orietta Berti has recorded the song "A Piedi Nudi." The number is included in the soundtrack of the Italian motion picture "L'uomo Dei Sei Palloni" which is expected on the Italian screens the end of September.

Also just released by Phonogram the new disc by Annarita Spinaci, whose "A" side is entitled "Ciao Caro" (Goodbye Dear). This is the first disc recorded by Annarita for Phonogram.

A new disc of the top Durium talent Rocky Roberts has just been announced by Giampiero Scussell, A&R Manager of Durium.

New single is entitled "E Lasciatemi Stare" and will be the leit motiv of the pop program "Gran Varieta." After the success of the American talent with his previous recording "Stasera Mi Butto," there is already a demand for this new disc. By the way, total sales of his previous single—still at top position on our charts—have exceeded the 300,000 figure.

Announced by EMI Italiana a big promotional campaign on the English label Immediate. Artists who will be introduced first on our market under the new label are: Chris Farlow, Paul Arnold, and, of course, the Small Faces. The Small Faces have already announced their first visit here to help via personal appearances on TV.

MGM hosted a reception in their new London offices last week to launch their first single release since setting up on their own—"Good Times" by Eric Burden and the Animals. The next three MGM singles scheduled for release are "Theodore" by new American group the Silver Eagle; "Teach Me To Love" by Leslie Miller who, although new to disk, is already well-known in America for her many jingles and commercials; and "My Heart Cries For You" by Connie Francis. Connie is due in England September 3rd to promote the release via radio and television. She will be accompanied by manager George Scheck. MGM Chief Rex Oldfield plans to release the first two independent British masters he has acquired for MGM early in September. First album release set for October 1st comprises 20 LPs by artists including Connie Francis, Mothers Of Invention, Hank Williams, Jr., Erroll Garner, Ella Fitzgerald, Duke Ellington, Count Basie and Tim Hardin.

As reported a few weeks ago, Bill Phillips, for many years a stalwart of the KPM publishing company, left to form his own set-up. Operations have now commenced and his new companies, Charms Music Ltd. and Bill Phillips Enterprises Ltd. have opened offices at 42, Glasshouse Street, London, W. 1. In the same suite of offices is producer and arranger Charles Blackwell who opened his own production company recently and George William Midas Management Ltd. All these companies will work closely together covering publishing, production and management. The first combined operation has resulted in a single produced by Charles Blackwell—"I Guess I'll Learn How To Fly" c/w "Nothing You Can Do But Cry" by the Household—a Detroit sounding double-sided platter that should get everyone away to a flying start. United Artists are releasing the disk both in Britain and America. The Family Tree are also talented writers and penned both sides of their first disk. Second release is "A Million Miles Away" waxed by John Bryant issued on Fontana and published by Charms Music.

Tony Hall delighted with the chart-climbing success of "007" by Desmond Dekker on Pyramid. This is the first promotion to be handled by Hall's new T.H.E. set-up. The success is the more rewarding as both the label and the young Jamaican artist are unknown and the disk itself is out of the commercial groove. Graham Goodall recently flew to Jamaica to cut a follow-up to "007" and plan a Desmond Dekker album for rush-release.

Saga Records are planning a big expansion program over the next two months as a result of which Managing Director Marcel Rodd expects to double the company's share of the market during the pre-Christmas period. Following a recent national recruitment tour by Marketing Manager John Britton, the sales force has been doubled. Repertoire Manager Roy Carter is planning a schedule of 50 new releases between September and November. These will range over language courses, children's records and new pop releases. Among the classical albums will be a new "Winterreise" by Thomas Hemsley and Gerald Moore. New incentive schemes and special dealer promotions will also be launched.

The Paul Hamlyn-EMI "Music For Pleasure" budget priced label has launched a seven-week promotion campaign for a series of Collectors Items comprising original recordings of the 20's and 30's. Nine "vintage" releases will feature the greats of the period including Sophie Tucker, Jack Buchanan, Evelyn Laye, Hal Bowley and Joe Venuti. One LP, "The Greatest Music Hall Bill Ever Assembled," includes the recorded voices of such music hall favorites as Billy Merson, Vesta Victoria, Charles Coburn, Ella Redford, Florrie Forde and Harry Champion. The series also includes "My Baby Loves To Charleston"; "Ivor Novello Highlights" and "The Desert Song."

This month sees four notable classical releases in Pye Records "Golden Guinea" Collector series. Topping the list is "Monteverdi" representing Pye's first contribution to the composer's 400th anniversary celebrations. The album features first class soloists with the Goldsbrough Ensemble. Handel is represented by the re-issue of a recording originally made for the composer's bicentenary in 1959. Works range from the "Concerto in B Flat" for organ and orchestra to the famous recording by Evelyn Rothwell of Handel's "Concerto No. 1 in B Flat" for oboe and strings. The release is completed by an album of medieval music and an LP devoted to works by contemporary composers Edward Rubbra and Bernard Herrmann.

In the re-issue field EMI continues the good work already established in their "Everyman Opera Series" offering complete operas now deleted from the catalog at a price within the reach of all. Suvi Raj Grubb, one of EMI's senior classical producers, has been largely responsible for the remarkable transformation in sound of many of these recordings. Major successes include "The Messiah" conducted by Sir Malcolm Sargent; Wagner's "Tristan" and "Die Walkure" both conducted by Furtwangler and Konnitschny's recording of "Tannhauser." The latest addition is Wagner's "Die Meistersinger" under Rudolf Kempe acclaimed by the critics as a masterpiece of re-dubbing.

Independent producer Jimmy Miller back home in the United States at the request of United Artists to record several groups including Jay and the Americans and Little Anthony and the Imperials. He will visit New York and the West Coast seeking new material and masters to bring back to England where, during the past year, he has produced many top British groups including Traffic, Nirvana and Spencer Davis.

Following their recent tour of America, the Tremeloes return for a three-week tour of the West Coast in September. Meantime, the group is hitting high in the charts with their latest CBS single "Even The Bad Times Are Good" published by Skidmore Music.

Sheila Southern chosen by BBC Radio to represent Great Britain in four Nord Ring concerts. Appearances will be made in London (October 17th); Oslo (21st October); Stockholm (24th) and Copenhagen (28th).

The Greek artist taking part in the Popular Song Festival in Rio de Janeiro in October this year is Zoitsa Kouroukli and not Zio Kuruskli as printed in Cash Box August 5th. Another Greek artist venturing abroad is Terris Chryssos who will appear at the annual festival of light Greek songs to be held in Thessaloniki in September. After that, he will go to Spain to take part in the Mediterranean Song Festival in Barcelona.

Songwriter Jimmy Campbell, responsible for such hits as "Try A Little Tenderness," "Show Me The Way To Go Home," etc., died in hospital last week, aged 64.

TV Producers In Spanish Speaking Countries Seek Programming Ties

NEW YORK—Television producers from six Spanish-speaking countries recently held a historic first annual conference to try to establish a common Spanish-American denominator as far as programming production is concerned.

Countries represented at the meeting, held in Santiago de Compostela, Spain, were Argentina, Spain, Mexico, Panama, Peru, and Venezuela.

Among the leading participating members at the conference were Goar Mestre, president of Goar Mestre & Associates, and of production organizations in Argentina, Venezuela, and Peru; and Emilio Azcarraga, vice president, Telesistema Mexicano, S.A.

Mestre stressed the value of educational television in the countries represented. His remarks to the convention were based upon universality and the growing role of television enterprises throughout Spanish America.

Some of the problems discussed were how to best utilize their common language link and the various aspects of dubbing into Spanish the idiom of their respective countries. They also studied and analyzed the differences and similarities between the European and American television industries.

The next meeting will be held in Buenos Aires in 1968.

EMI's Deal With New Breed Assures Label Of Denny Cordell Productions

LONDON—EMI Records and New Breed Productions Ltd. have entered into a long-term contract for the United Kingdom which guarantees the exclusive product of Denny Cordell—and that includes The Move, Procul Harum and Beverley.

EMI has agreed with New Breed that the Regal Zonophone label will be used exclusively for the Denny Cordell-New Breed product and the only other releases issued on that label will be the regular Salvation Army releases (including The Joy Strings). First record under the new contract is by The Move and is "Flowers In The Rain."

Regal Zonophone is one of this country's oldest record labels. It was introduced in the early 1930's as the result of an amalgamation between the Regal and Zonophone labels. "The Regal-Zonophone label," said an EMI spokesman "was one of the top pop labels of the thirties. Undoubtedly history will repeat itself!" Denny Cordell in the meantime will continue to record Georgie Fame for CBS, Denny Laine for Deram and Manfred Mann for Fontana.

Bano's 'Nel Sole' Sells 300,000 Copies

MILAN—Al Bano's number 1 chart hit, "Nel Sole," has passed the 300,000 mark in copies sold. The tune was presented by the new EMI Italiana performer during his winning stint at the International Light Music Show of Venice, where he won the Silver Gondola. He also sang the song previously at the contest, "A Disk for the Summer."

Criterion's Paris Mgr. Sets H'wood Deals

HOLLYWOOD—Jack Robinson, the Paris manager of Criterion Music Corporation, is currently visiting the home office in Hollywood with his wife, the American-born French recording artist, Eileen.

He brought French copyrights both from Criterion of Paris and other films to the United States to obtain American lyrics and for exploitation in the English-speaking countries.

While he was here, Criterion hosted American-born composer Jeff Davis, of Paris, composer of many Aznavour hits, and Philippe Rault of the French Radio who interviewed top artists in live broadcasts to Paris.

Robinson also brought back several French recordings of Criterion songs including a French original written and recorded by Joe Dassin, "C'est Un Coeur Du Papier," which is on a top ten EP currently climbing the charts in France.

Criterion has had a big success with Lee Hazlewood songs in France in the last year. Joe Dassin had a big hit with "Four Kinds Of Lonely," and singing star Marcel Amont currently has his hottest record in two years with Hazlewood's "The Girls In Paris." Michelle Torr of the Philips label recorded three Criterion songs on her latest EP including Hazlewood's "Love Eyes," Joey Cooper's "Goode Tyme Music" and a French original, "Ca C'Est Pour Moi" by Georges Liferman. Also, Junior, a new singer on the AZ label has revived a Criterion standard, "Look In My Eyes."

Robinson is bringing new American material back to Paris for the autumn recording season, including, "Don't Come Running To Me," recorded by The Pebbles. Disk is on

EMI's Maget To Retire

Maget has recently been managing EMI's Spanish company, Compania Del Gramofono Odeon. As of Sept. 1, management of Odeon will be taken over by Philip Brodie, until recently managing director of EMI's Argentinian company, Industrias Electricas Y Musicales Odeon in Buenos Aires.

Michael H. Goldsen's Prince Records, an associated company of his Criterion Music Corp., produced by Brian Ross of "Talk Talk" fame.

Proby Back To Britain

LONDON—After a six month stay in his native America, P. J. Proby has returned to the British scene and will be playing cabaret dates in the North of England. Television and radio dates are being lined up for promotion of his new Liberty single, "I'm 28," penned by Graham Goldman and published by Manchester Music Ltd. On September 1, Liberty will issue a new Proby album, "Phenomenon."

Star Label Intensifies Contacts On Int'l Scene

NEW YORK—Leonard L. Farber, president of Star Records Enterprises, Inc., has announced that his firm will intensify its international contacts. The Earthquakers' debut, "Whistlin' In The Sunshine," will be released in United Kingdom by EMI and in Canada by Compo, with several other foreign companies negotiating for representation of Star line in their countries.

Jon Arthur, general promotion coordinator for Star, has just returned from England, Italy, France, Denmark, Greece and Israel. He reported great interest in the Earthquakers and in the new Star folk-rock group Sue and The Tompkins Squares.

ARGENTINA

August has brought a sales reaction to the local market, after four months of levels of about 40% lower than the previous estimations. Several strong-selling singles and LP's and a general strengthening of catalogs are, however, helping to improve the position of the industry.

CBS has released several interesting singles, some of them with strong sales potential. The Cuarteto Imperial has "Rio Arriba" coupled by "Mi Ofrenda" (latter penned by Heli Toro Alvarez, member of the group). Roberto Carlos has (with the song that has been appearing in the Brazilian charts lately) "So Vou Gostar De Quem Gosta De Mim," while Leo Dan's version of Italian hit "Stasera Me Buto" is also receiving strong air play and is expected to sell strongly.

Odeon's Roberto Bayot, who obtained the best artist award at the recent Odol Festival, recorded "Volviendo Del Adios" "Sueño Querido." Jose Libertella and his orchestra cut the winning songs at the fest; "Esta Ciudad" and "La Oficina." There is still another tango single—as part of the campaign started by the company promoting local music—Miguel Montero, with the Armando Cupo Orchestra, with "Jamás Lo Vas A Saber."

Mario Kaminsky of Microfon reports strong sales for Billy Stewart's rendering of "Summertime," currently appearing in the charts. The record received strong promotion from Landru's program "La Discoteca De Maria Belen" on Radio Excelsior and several other disk jockeys. Microfon's LP "La Discoteca" is also selling strongly and carries a drawing by Landru and a selection by several artists from the catalogs represented here by the label.

Surco reports this week the release of a new Vogue album, recorded originally in France, carrying two top jazz names: Sidney Bechet and Django Reinhardt, including a famous all time best seller in this country, "Petite Fleur," in its original version. The diskery is also continuing the promotion of the recent Antoine album, also recorded for Vogue in France, with the chanter's latest songs.

RCA and artist manager Daniel Gutierrez are preparing a top launching for young artist Nacho Paz whose first single, "Adoro," is already in the market. Nacho has signed a contract with "Sabados Circulares," the Nicolas Mancera giant 2 to 8 PM Saturday TV'er on Channel 13, till the end of 1968, and will be strongly promoted by this program.

Mauricio Brenner of Fermata seems to have a strong hit in hand with "La Balsa," a locally produced song that has already been recorded by Los Gatos, Nacho Paz and Paul Jourdan for RCA. The tune has strong teen appeal, and the version by Los Gatos, the first to be released, has received immediate customer response.

Phonogram is promoting strongly its second "promotional" album, "Musica Para La GCU, Vol II," presenting a collection of recent chart riders in the States, England and Europe, and hoping to repeat the success of the first LP of this series, one of the Top Sellers of 1967. On the local side, folk group Los Fronterizos are finishing their new LP, and the four record package by Eduardo Falu will also be marketed soon.

Music Hall expects very much from its new group, the Vocal Buenos Aires, formed in the Swingle Singers style but devoted to local serious music. The group has been appearing on Channel 11 in the "Telemusica" program and have started recording their first LP. The diskery is selling strongly the latest single by Trini Lopez, as well as the recordings by Olga Guillot and the Sinatra/Jobim album, and is preparing the new single by Sinatra, which is also expected to storm the charts.

Disk Jockey's Rodriguez Luque is extremely happy with the renewed success of the recent album by Pepito Perez, "Amor De Pobre," which is reaching very good sales figures. The new LP by guitar player Bingo Reyna is also running well, as does the fifth volume of the "Top Hits" series recorded by orkster Lucio Milena. The label is promoting the recent single by Dalida, "Pouvre Coeur," leit motif of the "Death Of Rasputin" film, and a new single by French chanter Monty in Spanish.

Discos Quinto infos that it is promoting the Felipe Pirela version of "Sombras Nada Mas," a long time standard in many Latin American countries, and a recording by beat group the End, as well as the recording of the Locos Combo of "Vamos A La Cama." The current chart rider also cut by Los Niños Latinos. The Locos are appearing on TV through the Dringue Farias program on Channel 13.

SCANDINAVIA

SWEDEN

Gösta Rybrant, 63, died Aug. 16th. Starting as a music critic and professional musician, he turned to journalism in the middle of the 30's. He also wrote Swedish lyrics to foreign songs and also translated several of the American musicals presented here in past years.

The CBS label is most fortunate with its local recordings here. Lars Lönn Dahl recorded "Strangers In The Night" in Swedish and went right up to the top of the charts. Jan Malmjö came next with his Swedish version of "Green, Green Grass Of Home," another top seller here. Then Lönn Dahl did the German tune "Goodnight My Love" in Swedish, and was credited with another number one top seller.

Beatles have from time to time been declared "dead" as musicians for various circumstances, but EMI here is considering them very much alive. Their recent LP, "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band," has already sold 50,000 in Sweden, and the sales are still very good, this Cash Box office was told the other day.

AB Philips-Sonora is now promising a new local group, Sven-Eric & Bohemia, a septet who is doing very good with their "Din Skugga Stannar Kvar" ("A Shadow Of Your Smile" in Swedish). The group was founded back in 1964 and have since been very successful locally.

Recent comings and goings include British producer Ron Richards, who spent a couple of days in Stockholm recently. . . . Publisher Stig Anderson just about to leave for Copenhagen on a biz visit. . . . British group Hollies just here for the TV show "Popside."

Bernt Baune, after 20 years working the publishing house Gehrmans, is leaving his office Aug. 31. For the time being he has not announced any of his plans for the future.

JAPAN

Brenda Lee will arrive here Sept. 24 for a fortnight tour at the invitation of Shinnichi Promotion. This is the third tour for the lark. Teichiku Records will have an anniversary LP release in honor of the lark, "My Greatest Song" gathering world famous hit tunes.

Very popular Carmen Cavallaro arrived Aug. 20 for a 10-day performance through the main cities in Japan marking his fifth visit. The artist comes via the invitation of Kyodo Kikaku Agency. Most of his released LP's on Decca sold some 30-50 thousand copies. In this sense "By Your Love/Hollywood Hit Medley" released on Aug. attracts attention.

Teichiku Records has contracted Monument Records. First release will be "Sole Of Tenor Sax," and 2nd release will be made on Dec. 1 with two LP's: "Jerry Byrd/Latin Steel" and "Sound Of The Flamenco Guitar/Dave Parker."

As related in our last report, flower music is budding here. King Records released "Let's Go To San Francisco/Flower Potmen" on Sept. 20 on Deram along with "Flower/The Rolling Stones" on London.

New LP "Joan" will be released here on Nov. 10 on Vanguard which is expected to become a hit, as the popularity of Joan Baez is deeply rooted here.

A Piece of the Action

While talking with one of our more prominent Southern phonograph distributors last week, we heard one of the most adventurous and creative financial experiments ever conducted in this industry. The experiment, we learned, returned great personal satisfaction as well as profit. What he did, simply, was put one of his most competent and trusted employees into business with his own route—basically a sideline to his normal duties and a reward for a job well done.

Setting up an employee, a son, son-in-law or whoever, in business by financing the cost of equipment, location sale, etc. gives the recipient an enormous sense of pride, purpose and a real education in this coin machine business. In addition, it provides him with a bit of equity for the years ahead. And nobody works harder than when they have a piece of the action themselves.

But what does the distributor get out of it? Well, he just might have a little extra capital he'd want to invest or reinvest within a particular fiscal year. Routing some extra revenue into a new corporate enterprise could very well be just what the doctor ordered at tax time. Besides which, a good part of his original investment would promptly return in the form of equipment sales for the new route.

Naturally, whoever it is you're setting up in the business must continue exercising his normal work-a-day duties with your firm and only build and service the new route in his free time. Let him make the sales calls on the location, transport and service his machines. Naturally, he'd stand a better chance of success if his area of concentration centered around some of the newer types of equipment—say, can soda vending, table soccer, etc.—but there's still ample room for more music, pool tables, cigarettes, shuffles, etc. if he wants to go that direction.

Since you as a silent partner can't be hurt by the competition and can only reap your own reward in your operator's success, spend some time running the names and faces of your people through your mind. Know somebody you'd like to put into the coin machine business? Well, talk it over with your accountant immediately. It could be very satisfying.

CHICAGO—Fred Granger, Convention Manager for the 1967 MOA Convention and Trade Show to be held October 27-28-29 at the Pick Congress Hotel, has announced the signing of London Records to exhibit at the show along with, already inked, Capitol, Columbia, Decca, Epic, MGM and RCA-Victor.

Granger recently issued a special invitation to record one stops, in which he said, "We have a distinguished roster of record company exhibitors and they would like to talk to you . . . to the One Stops. In order to give One Stops recognition at this convention, we are printing special One Stop badges so that the record companies will know you when they see you. MOA is making a real effort this year to bring One Stops and record companies together."

Foreign Attendance

Granger is also prepared to send out Convention invitations to over 1000 foreign firms in such areas as England, Europe, South America and Japan. With MOA's special attempt to increase foreign attendance at the convention, they have formed a committee, known as the Public and Foreign Relations Committee. The committee has been appointed to assist Granger in this foreign participation project. Committee members are: Henry Letser, chairman; with members Samuel Weisman, Charles Tashima, Mrs. Millie McCarthy and Fred Ayers, all members of the Board of Directors.

Convention Outline

The convention schedule is as follows: Three days of exhibits with a special program event each day . . . an industry educational seminar on Friday afternoon, an MOA Membership Luncheon Meeting (to which all are invited) on Saturday, and a Gala Banquet and Stage Show Sunday night (in which every record company will have top talent).

LONDON—The Peter Simper Organization was responsible for the recent world premier showing of Rowe AMI De Luxe Cadette 100-selection phonograph at a function held in Bath.

British
News
Analysis

Operators from the West Country and other places several hundred miles apart converged on Bath to have a look at the new equipment which has been specially manufactured by the Rowe AMI Corporation to meet the demand in Europe for a 100-selection phonograph. The Premier director, Harry Harbottle said, "the initial order of 40 units were sold within a few days after they arrived."

Fruit Machines

A Fruit machine was played in

Nottingham Guildhall Magistrates' Court recently when three city cafe proprietors and the firm which had supplied them with similar machines appeared on charges brought under the Betting and Gaming and Lotteries Act. The three cafe proprietors pleaded not guilty to distributing cash prizes of more than one shilling and the suppliers pleaded not guilty to three charges of assisting them. All the cases were dismissed.

Vending

Automatic vending machines will be among the exhibits at this year's ANUGA, the International Exhibition of Fine Foods and Provisions to be held in Cologne from September 30th to October 8. The exhibit is said to be the largest food fair in the world, the 1965 event, in which exhibitors from some 60 countries, attracted well over a quarter million trade visitors.

ChiCoin Releases 2P 'Twinky'

Introducing 'Peacock Scoring'

New Game Concept

TWINKY 2P

CHICAGO—Chicago Coin Division of Chicago Dynamic Industries, recently announced the introduction of "Twinky", a two-player pin game with the all-new Peacock feature. The Peacock feature has never before been on a pin game and with the new concept the shooter can control high scoring by pressing the "Peacock Button" located on the front of the game. The player can obtain "Peacock Scoring" by maneuvering the ball into the top hole or one of the two bottom lanes.

"Twinky", the multi-action amusement game, comes equipped with an automatic ball lift, a lift-out self locking play field with a quality finish . . . adjustable 3-5 ball play and stainless steel moulding and trim and three individual coin chutes, 5¢-10¢-25¢, featured with individual separators. These are just a few of the many cabinet innovations on "Twinky."

Game connected features include, illuminated ball count and game over indicator located next to the shooter . . . ball return gate, that returns the ball to the player when the gate is open . . . high scoring on swing gates and side targets and three thumper bumpers along with number match.

This exciting and fun-to-play game from Chicago Coin has all the qualities of a real coin-grabber and should provide the American public with many hours of amusement game fun.

Gottlieb Croons The Trade

With Release Of 'Sing-Along'

New 1P Musical Game

SING-ALONG 1P

CHICAGO—D. Gottlieb & Company of Chicago, continues to supply the coin machine trade with top quality amusement games, as indicated by their recent release of "Sing-Along", another of Gottlieb's big play, flipper, skill games.

"Sing-Along", offers four color sequences with advance hole and extra value for super high score and special scores. The new action game also includes twelve rollovers and four targets that advance the color sequences when activated by the ball. The cross action roll-under rewards the player with a great big fifty points while the big bulls-eye target provides you with 100 big points.

Some of the other "Sing-Along" features are: four reel scoring that allows for greater player appeal and four "relay" kick-out holes that makes the player glad he dropped his coin in the chute.

In an attempt to speed the game's play up, Gottlieb installed an electric ball lift to get the balls ready for action quicker than before. The triple chute coin combination is another fine feature of the "Sing-Along."

This might be the one the trade has been waiting for so don't be surprised if it takes off like wildfire.

National Co. Has New Ball Return For Latest Table, 'Coronet'

FAIRFIELD, N. J.—Paul Kotler, President of National Shuffleboard and Billiard Company, 1275 Bloomfield Avenue, Fairfield, New Jersey, announces the most revolutionary advance in a decade in the manufacture of billiard tables. National Shuffleboard and Billiard has perfected and made a reality of what the operator has always dreamed of.

The new invention is a Rotation Ball Return Mechanism. Kotler has properly named it the "Magic Feather Touch Control." With this mechanism, all service problems are gone forever . . . no jamming . . . no cheating . . . no nothing.

National now presents this Professional Table as a sure money-maker that should sweep the industry in a short time.

The new table . . . The Coronet . . . is being offered at no increase in price at this time on a limited introductory offer basis. It is available in White and now also Pecan in these sizes: Cor. I—46"x78", Cor. IA—49"x84", Cor. II—52"x92", Cor. III—4'x8', PRO. and Cor. IV—4½'x9' PRO.

Margold, The 'Ewbank' Of Coin Machine Circles

BOSTON—Irwin Margold, vice president of Trimount Automatic Sales Company, has the right theme in mind for Trimount's big outing slated to take place at the Blue Hill Country Club, Canton, Mass., on Monday, September 18th. That theme being: an exchange of ideas, fellowship and the pure enjoyment of getting together for a good time.

This is just part of the theme, Margold has a list of 50 prizes to be given away to qualifying operators . . . Big Prizes! First, you must qualify. To do so requires the purchase of a Rowe Music Merchant. J & J's 'Music Merchant Special'

INDIANAPOLIS — Freeport, Grand Bahama Island, was the destination of 47 music and vending operators, August 3rd through August 7th. They were the guests of J & J Distributors, Inc., in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Billed as J & J's "Music Merchant Special", the trip included jet service from Indianapolis to the island, luxury accommodations at Freeport's Lucayan Beach Hotel and Villas, full course breakfast and dinner daily, all gratuities and special parties.

J & J's 'Music Merchant Special' guests and customers pose for a farewell picture before jetting down to the Grand Bahama Island to enjoy four days of fun, sun and the surf.

A rum swizzle party welcomed the operators, their wives and guests to the Lucayan Beach Hotel. A Rowe-AMI Music Merchant, installed in the cocktail lounge, afforded hours of entertainment for the J & J "islanders" each evening.

A Bahamian barbecue and limbo party ended a day of sun, surf and shopping for J & J's customers. Company president, Joe Flynn and his partner, John Stocksdale, led the group through its various activities.

Sleeping late, vacationing operators swam, sailed, snorkled, fished, lounged and sunned at poolside daily. The island provided opportunities for golfing, car and cycle rental, boat rides and tennis. In addition, J & J amateur photographers thrilled to the tropical oceanside locale and Freeport's West End, featuring the popular Bahamian straw market.

Gourmet dinners, dancing and entertainment filled the wee hours for the guests. A private cocktail party and banquet climaxed the four full days of relaxation.

As the suntanned J & J operators reluctantly prepared for the jet trip back to Indianapolis, the only complaint was that they didn't have enough hands to carry home all their souvenirs—liquor, perfumes and straw goods.

"We are looking forward to seeing every 'Juke Box' operator in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and Massachusetts at our gala affair," Margold said.

Those operators wishing to play golf should make arrangements for a foursome, as it would be difficult to set up a tournament, according to Irwin.

If you have any questions concerning the arrangements for the field day, contact Trimount by writing to: 40 Waltham St. or call Irwin at 542-9480 in Boston.

American Cig Co.s Seeking A Foreign Market

NEW YORK—In a story by New York Times writer, Alexander R. Hammer, appearing in the August 6, 1967 edition, it was noted that apparently, cigarette smokers pay little attention to the warnings now adorning every cigarette package alerting smokers of the possible health hazards smoking may incur.

Tobacco's Foreign Market

In an attempt to curb any decline of business in the U.S., tobacco companies, in one of their less publicized efforts, are attempting to step-up their overseas activities.

The companies are doing this by changing their sales approach in foreign lands.

Over half the cigarettes sold in this country are bought by supermarket shoppers, with most purchases by the carton. While, in Germany, for example, vending machines account for half of cigarette sales. Among the reasons listed was the fact that the growth potential in the foreign market is said to be much greater than those in the United States.

The nation's largest cigarette manufacturer, the R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company said, "we have been the largest exporter of cigarettes from the United States for the last ten years."

In Germany, the company's affiliate, Haus Neuerburg, soon will begin manufacture of the company's Winston and Salem brands for export in France and further manufacture of Reynolds cigarette brands for other European markets is contemplated. Reynolds said that Winston is its best seller among its brands overseas as it is in this country.

DUSTY HOHBEIN — EACH MAN MUST GIVE HIS BEST

With the upcoming parts and supplies special scheduled for the September 16, 1967 issue of Cash Box, we thought it appropriate to aim the Profile arrow in the direction of Skokie, Illinois and Dusty Hohbein, Coin Machine Sales Manager, Coin Division of The Dynaball Company.

Dynaball is one of the largest parts and supplies dealers in the industry, concentrating primarily on the billiard trades. Dusty joined the Dynaball staff two years ago after spending a fruitful twelve years with Empire Distributing, where he started as a shipping room helper and advanced himself to the position of parts department manager.

A very dedicated and extremely civic minded man, Dusty is an active member of the Ministry Committee and the Official Board of the church he attends. The most active part Dusty plays is volunteering his services at the state hospital to help retarded children. Being a veteran of the Korean Conflict, Dusty is also a member of the Herald H. Taylor American Legion Post #47.

Dusty informs us that Dynaball will be exhibiting at the MOA Convention in Booth #47, be sure to stop by and say hello and Dusty will probably hit you with a few of his rib-tickling jokes.

It's known throughout the trade that Dynaball is one of the largest parts and supplies dealers in the industry, do you concentrate on one specific line or do you handle a cross-section of all coin machine and vending parts?

Although, our specialty line is billiard replacement supplies, we handle equipment for all aspects of the coin machines and vending industry.

Dusty, you're in a position to know what parts operators purchase most often and this would indicate, to some degree, the most troublesome and bothersome mechanical problems operators have to contend with, could you give me a breakdown in respect to the various machines?

Yes, like I said before, billiard supplies; our specialty; the most often replacements bought are balls, cue sticks and table covering. With the phonographs, it's tubes and needles. Along the amusement games line, it would be the parts subject to normal wear and tear . . . we replace the T-Rubbers, rubber rings and coils with original factory parts. Vending machines, parts most often purchased are coin chutes and fuses.

Although these are just a few of the many parts purchased during the course of a day . . . I think it will give you an idea of the medium.

What is your function at Dynaball?

I'm the Coin Machine Sales Manager of the Coin Division.

How long have you been with Dynaball?

I started with the firm two years ago after spending twelve years with Empire Distributing, where I first got my start in the coin business. I started as a shipping room helper, then became a clerk, then salesman and when I left Empire I was managing the parts department. I helped bring daily sales from $20.00 per day to nearly $500.00.

When was Dynaball formed?

Dynaball has been in business for eight years.

Do you feel the parts and supplies business will become more complex in the near future?

DUSTY HOHBEIN

Definitely, I think there will be a tremendous upsurge in the vending supplies area, to such an extent, that the vending industry will become even a larger segment of our medium than it is today.

What about the billiard industry, do you see an improvement in this area?

Well, I feel that over the past four or five years the billiard trade has evolved into one of the better amusement entertainments on the American scene. What with the new atmosphere of the billiard clubs, the increased interest on the part of the public along with the professionally sponsored tournaments for youngsters . . . I feel billiards has played a tremendous role in the prevention of juvenile delinquency.

Do you feel the parts and supplies business has technically progressed more in the past five years than in previous years?

Certainly, our main concern at Dynaball is to give operators and distributors the best possible original replacement merchandise to keep their equipment in top operational working order for their better interest.

We personally feel that in past years, the operators and distributors have been taking advantage of their suppliers. We feel that it is our duty to give operators and distributors the best possible merchandise at the fairest prices.

Minutes before this copy paper was placed in the typewriter we received a telephone call from New York Mayor Lindsay's office. John Stein, assistant to Barry Gottehrer, who is the Mayor's assistant, is heading up 'Operation Juke Box' a program designed to place audio visual phonographs on New York City streets to give evening entertainment to some of the thousands of idle youngsters. The Mayor's office has put out a request to New York operators asking them to loan a piece of their equipment to carry out this project. Operators loaning equipment need not worry about damage to the machine as the city will provide police supervision to insure against any harm to machines. If you wish to loan a piece of your equipment to this worthwhile program, call Stein at 566-6122 for all the details. Think about it . . . it's a good way to enhance the juke box image . . .

She must be a real doll the way Ben Chicofski's secretary, Sophia, described her. Congratulations, Lou!

HARD CASH IS HEAVY CASH . . . Seems a couple of hard bandits had illusions of Superman when they held up two employees of the Coin Machine Industries in N. New Hyde Park, Chicago, and got away with 702 lbs. of coins totaling $11,000. Talked with Art Daddis over a United Billiards and he says the new building complex has shaped up rather nice and expects great things of the new amusement game he and brothers Gene and Manny are engineering. United Billiards also has a new pool table, the Progress Model, named after the new United plant's address which is 51 Progress St., Union, N.J. Chatted with Frank Oddi up at the National Company in Melrose, Mass., who says they'll be exhibiting the "Combi 150" at the MOA Show . . . but mum is the word on details of the new audio-visual machine . . . Frank says film production is still cooking. IQ computer, the new brain game distributed by Bilotta Enterprises, is doing so well, says Johnny Bilotta, that he is showing it at the New York State Fair and suggests operators to attend to get a first hand look . . .

ALL ROADS LEAD TO VIRGINIA BEACH . . . Yep, that's where members of the Automatic Vendors Assoc. of Virginia will stage their semi-annual Convention . . . for reservations, contact Bob Worsham at the Mariner Resort Motor Inn. John Wallace informs that the West Virginia Music & Vending Ass'n. annual meeting slated for Sept. 21-22 and 23rd expects the largest crowd turn-out in many a year. The boys at Tarantelli's, up Syracuse way, are still batting a thousand with their one stop chart, this week they picked "Getting Together" by Tommy James & The Shondells as their juke headliner . . . here's an interesting bit of info—since 1950, the spending power of youth, between ages 13-19 has increased from $13 billion per year to the present amount of $18 billion . . . one last note for Dusty Hohbein (see Profile). Did you hear about the co-ed who thought a drydock was a thirsty physician? See ya at the MOA Show!

WALT HEMPLE GETTING INTERESTING COLLECTIONS FROM "HELICOPTER TRAINER".

Leo Simone of Badger Sales told us a rather amusing (at least it was to us) tale about what happened to Walt Hemple of First National Music in San Fernando. Walt had placed the Copter in a park, and last week when he went to make his collections he was greeted by the presence of a rattle snake (it was real!) in the play field of the helicopter. Guess what Walt did—He ran like hell! We hasten to add that the snake was in a position where it could not get at Walt, just get a rise out of him, which it most certainly did! Leo reports that they have a new man in the stock room. Leo tells us that he is the biggest guy on phonorow, weighing at a neat 300 pounds and standing 6 ft. 6", and that he is ready and willing to take on all comers, according to Leo. In case anyone is over that way and they have trouble finding him, he answers to the name of Stuart Watcher.

BRITT ADELMAN BACK AT WORK AT LAYMON'S. . . Glad to hear that Britt and her daughter returned home after a three week visit in Britt's homeland, Sweden. Britt tells us that she had a wonderful time but is kind of nice to be home again. Hear Jimmy Wilkins and Eddie Stanton invaded Del Mar for a day or racing and managed to at least break even. Jimmy says that he and Eddie go to the race track twice a year whether they need it or not! We hear that they are still doing very well with Bally's "Rocket 3".

FROM THE RECORD RACKS. . .

According to Jerry Barish of California Music, experience can be a good thing when it comes to the Jimi Hendrix Experience and his new single for Reprise entitled "Purple Haze". Hendrix's new album "Are You Experienced" also looks like a smash. It appears as if the Jefferson Airplane have taken off again, this time with "The Ballad of You and Me and Pooniel" on RCA. Spanky and Our Gang told us that "Sunday Will Never be the same." Now they are following that up with "Making Every Minute Count" on the Mercury label. The Strawberry Alarm Clock are coming on very heavy with "Incense and Peppermints" on UNI. The Association are looking for big sales with their newest for Warner Brothers, "Never My Love".

HERE AND THERE. . . Sorry that we had to miss the birthday bash at Struve Distributing for Charlie Dacy who celebrated his 82nd birthday on August 22nd. Charlie has been on Pico Blvd. for over 35 years as a member of the phonorow family. . . . Sorry to hear that Idring Bied of Simon Distributing was felled with a rather bad cold. On to the good news. George Muroaka reports that he has an export order going out to Australia and another going to the Far East. We are told that Bob Maeda went on vacation for a couple of weeks up in the north country.

phonographs, which attracted operators from all over the territory! This week, we're just concentrating on selling phonographs and keeping mighty busy doing it, sez Sam. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Louie Konop of Konop Vending in Green Bay always toast the sale of one million cartons of cigarettes with a big party for operators, distributors, suppliers, et al. Well, it's that time again! This celebration will be held in the Beverly Gardens, and among guests attending will be Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rondeau (Empire in Menominee) and Mel Melcore (Mel's Coin). Cheers, everybody! . . . Bon voyage to Herb Tonnell and his wife, Ray, who'll be heading for Europe the first week of September. All sight seeing aside, they plan to spend much time with their son who is a Captain in the Air Force and does a great deal of traveling and teaching throughout Europe.

MILWAUKEE—It's back to business as usual at Hastings Dist. Co., although Sam Hastings and crew are still recuperating from "one of the most successful" showings they've ever had—namely, the weeklong display of Rock-Ola's "Ultra" and "Centura"

Chicago Chatter

The announcement by MOA's Fred Granger that London records just signed to exhibit during the upcoming Music Operators of America Convention brings the total number of record companies to seven . . . Capitol, Columbia, Decca Epic, London, MGM and RCA Victor. . . .

EXCITEMENT AT D. GOTTLIEB centers around the spanking new "Sing-Along" one player which was released to the trade this week. Alvin Gottlieb tells us the firm is in full production on the new piece and the initial reaction coming from distributors has been just great!

It's always nice to hear from Sol Lipkin of American Shuffleboard. Sol was in Chi to participate in the American Hospital Association Convention and Display his non-coin recreation line, particularly the nine-foot American Bank Shot. Assisting Sol this trip was his son Eugene who managed the booth and proved a mighty capable right hand during the four days conclave. . . . The obviously overwhelming response to the new Rock-Ola "Centura" and "Ultra" phonographs is further evident by the stepped-up production and full-speed ahead attitude prevailing throughout the factory these days. Man, are they busy out there! Incidentally, George Hincker advised that a plane load of 437's left O'hare airport last Friday bound for Nova in Hamburg, Germany. Now the foreign market can glimpse the magnificent pieces.

Everything is moving along at an extremely fast pace at Fischer Manufacturing in Tipton, Miss. according to Frank Schroeder, who especially singles out the entire Empress series and Regent companion pieces as well as the Fiesta rebound pool . . . Chicago Coin's new action game, "Twinky" has created a stir among operators from coast to coast. The 2-player has an entirely new concept in the "Peacock Scoring" feature. The comments of Chicago operators has been GREAT!..

Pete Entringer of Advance in St. Louis tells us that the center of excitement out there these past few weeks has been the Rowe AMI "PhonoVue" with Music Merchant. Incidentally, Advance is nearly ready to move into its spacious "44,000 sq. ft." new building.

ATTENTION RACING FANS: Pete Entringer's thoroughbred, Miss Castro, paid a whopping $73.20 when she came in first at Fairmont last week.

Proud Pop Department: Williams', Art Weinand tells us, daughter Alice, after completing her studies in the upper 20% of her class, begins her first teaching assignment at the May School in Chicago. She'll be conducting the third grade.

His son, George, meanwhile returns to DePauw this semester as a soph.

We took a head count at Atlas Music Co., Eddie Ginsburg, Joel Kline, et al, are enjoying one heck of a busy week! Stan Levin and Mort Jacobs are on vacation (lucky them). Sam Gersh returns from his vac. on Monday and gets right back in the swing. As for Bill Phillips and Chuck Harper—they're traveling the road calling on customers in Illinois and Iowa territory, respectively.

'Round the Route

All's well and busy we might add—at World Wide Dist., Nate Feinstein and the entire crew are working like beavers!

WHAT'S HAPPENING at Empire International? Well, for one thing, the Rock-Ola Ultra and Centura phonographs are certainly causing a big fuss much to the pleasure of all concerned, especially, Gil Kitt and Joe Robbins.

Flip-Top Rings Menacing Parking Meters

NEW YORK—The New York City Traffic Department recently reported that they are collecting about 20,000 rings, the ones that come with the flip-top and pop-top beer and soft-drink cans, each month from the city's parking meters.

Reports of the "flip-top" menace have been coming in from nearly all of the Nation's larger cities. Chicago reports that of the 108,628 slugs pumped into its 30,000 parking meters last month, 74,524 were the flip-top rings. Some 4,000 San Francisco meters were jammed by rings in the same period.

The Detroit Meter Collections Department has stored some two bushel baskets of the rings in the city treasurer's office . . . out of the sight of the eye perhaps, but the epidemic is there and is causing police chiefs to turn purple and the can manufacturers to look for secrecy at the mention of the subject.

The can companies blame it on meters so unselective that they accept anything from religious medals to $5 gold pieces and washers to bent paper clips. However, the companies are planning to change the size of the ring so it will be unmatched in size with any of the U.S. coins. The cost is expected to run into millions of dollars. The loss in revenue to the city government has run into tens of thousands of dollars.

There have been no reports of the rings showing up on the vending and coin machine markets due to the very sensitive slug rejectors installed on the machines.

Hyde Park Coin Co. Robbed

HYDE PARK, CHICAGO—Two men armed with a sawed-off shotgun grabbed 26 bags of coins weighing 702 pounds, ($11,000), from two employees of the Coin Machine Industries of 2200 Marcus Ave., N. New Hyde Park, Chicago, on Monday, August 21st.

Police reported the two employees were on their way to the bank to deposit the coins when the bandits stopped them 200 yards from the company's offices and demand the coins which were stowed under the folded down seat of a station wagon.

The shotgun bandits locked the two employees in the trunk of the robber's car only to have one wriggle past the rear seat and free the other.

One of the suspects was described as about six-feet tall and sporting a goatee.

Active Amusement Stages Two Successful Service Classes

Joe Ash's Active Amusement Machines Company of Philadelphia, recently held a service school on the Rock-Ola can vendor for the Philly operators (shown here), twenty-nine service technicians paid close attention as Ed Larkowski and his assistant Bob Kercher explained the mechanics of the Rock-Ola machine.

Active believes in doing things up big when it comes to service schools. Not only did they sponsor a class on the can vendor, but one on the Rock-Ola phonographs as well. Shown above are some of the seventy-two operators attending the class conducted by Bill Finlay and Active's Music Service Manager, Bud Dahl. Both of the classes were termed a huge success by the instructors.

Chmn. For Vending Research Comm. Named

CHICAGO — William C. McConnell, Jr., has been named chairman of a research subcommittee which will assist in developing predictions for the future of the vending industry, according to Thomas B. Donahue, chairman of the long-range planning committee of the National Automatic Merchandising Association.

"As part of the NAMA long-range planning effort to adapt the services of the association to future requirements of our members, an outside research organization will undertake a four-month study," Donahue said. "This study will concentrate on the technological, social, economic and governmental conditions which are likely to affect our industry in the next decade."

As a subcommittee of the long-range planning committee, McConnell's group of industry representatives will advise the outside research consultants and assist in evaluating the results of their study.

"Safer Cigs"?

Maker Of Marvel
Urges FTC To Test
Cigs And Report Quarterly

A
REPORT

WASHINGTON, D.C.—A cigarette manufacturer recommended to a Senate subcommittee Thursday, August 24th, that the Federal Trade Commission test the tar and nicotine content of cigarettes and report their findings to the public at least every three months.

Constantine Stephano, president of Stephano Brothers, manufacturer of Marvel cigarettes, urged the Commerce Committee unit to help make the smoking public more aware of the low tar and nicotine cigarettes that are being made available. The Philadelphia executive predicted that the low tar-nicotine cigarettes would "fade into oblivion" if the Government did not take action.

As the producer of Marvels which were found to contain the least tar and nicotine in the recently released Roswell Park Memorial Institute study, Stephano told the committee how his company embarked on a new program in April of 1966 "to develop filter tip cigarettes which are substantially reduced in tar and nicotine." He pointed to the Roswell study as proof of how quickly his company was able to respond and produce Marvels which scored first, and Cascade menthol cigarettes which scored second.

He also told the Senate group how his company relies on an independent laboratory to test and determine the average tar and nicotine content of his Marvels and Cascades. This data is printed on each package and is used in all of the company's advertising, prepared by Gray & Rogers, Philadelphia.

Stephano said, "My rationale in reaching the decision to manufacture low tar and nicotine cigarettes, such as Marvels, is as follows: If cigarettes are not casually related to health problems, my low tar and nicotine Marvels have served their purpose as an enjoyable smoke to many customers. If cigarette tar and nicotine content are related to the various health problems, then my Marvels, by delivering an extremely low amount of tar and nicotine compared to other cigarettes, are less hazardous. By the above rationale, the responsible decision for our company was the one which we took that is to strive to reduce tar and nicotine content but, at the same time, to maintain taste."

NRI Plans Production Plant In Canada

ST. LOUIS—National Rejectors, Inc., announced recently that it plans to open a production plant at Toronto, Canada, for manufacturing versatile, new NRI coin selectors designed to accept Canada's new pure nickel coins as well as existing Canadian and United States coinage.

The new facility, which is scheduled to start production in early September, will be known as "NRI of Canada," and will be located at 80 Vanley Crescent, Downsview, a northern Toronto suburb.

Haas Elected V-P

NEW YORK—The election of Frederick P. Haas as a vice president of Liggett & Meyers Tobacco Company was recently announced by Milton E. Harrington, president of the firm.

Haas has served as general counsel and a director of the company since May, 1965. He joined Liggett Meyers in 1965 coming from the New York law firm of Webster, Sheffield, Fleishman, Hitchcock and Chrystie, in which he was a partner.

Plug-in problem solvers

Wurlitzer introduced the plug-in relay to the juke box business and at the same time saved a lot of operator service time. No more soldering irons for changing contact assemblies. No more dust-covered contact points. Should a problem arise, just plug in an exchange relay and it will pinpoint the contact trouble. Wurlitzer even goes a step further to simplify service. The red AC and white DC plug-in relays have matching sockets. Minimizes guesswork. Gets the phonograph working and the service man out and on with his work faster than ever before.
