The look of perplexity on Vaughn Monroe's face as he watches the mambo antics of Jack De Leon and Lyn Jackson is also a sign of pleasure that his RCA Victor recording of "They Were Doing The Mambo" has hit the best seller class. Vaughn currently is playing night clubs and theaters in New England, and according to him, the mambo is sweeping the country so fast that "even the cows and sheep" are doing the dance.

Had Enough?

Once again the record industry has gone through the fiasco of an NAMM Convention.

Once again records were relegated to the most unimportant place in the entire set-up lost among the exhibits of large instruments.

The emphasis at the convention—just as it has been for the last several years—was on everything but records. As a matter of fact, whereas almost every record firm used to have a booth on the floor, this year only one firm bothered to display. However the disk officials attended, despite their reluctance to do so, because they wanted to see their distributors. And so in spite of the fact that after last year's convention almost everyone there from the record business promised not to come back, they all returned. Unless something is done about it right now, the same thing is going to happen next year.

The NAMM Convention is the wrong place for the record industry to gather. Sure record execs and distributors should get together once a year. But why under the worst possible circumstances?

The NAMM Convention is dominated by the larger instruments. Dealers who come in, come to see those, not hear new records. The meeting always takes place in the middle of July, in the heat of summer, under the most uncomfortable circumstances. It usually is held in Chicago or New York, two of the more unlikely place to be in the middle of summer. All the conferences have very little to do with records. There are no longer any substantial displays by record firms. All the action as far as they are concerned takes place in the upstairs rooms. All in all, it just doesn't make sense.

Since the inception of the RIAA, The Cash Box has been urging it to organize an exclusive record convention. This could either be held in conjunction with the annual MOA Convention or separately, if so desired. It would have tremendous appeal and support from record company officials fed up with their treatment by the NAMM; it would be attended by distributors, juke box ops, disk jockeys, one stop operators and the largest retailers.

Such a convention would have some meaning. Business could be contracted, orders booked. Distributors from all over the nation could get together with the diskeries. Juke box operators and disk jockeys could find out what's in store. The whole thing would add up.

So once again, we respectfully urge the RIAA to look into the matter. If it isn't done immediately, by the time next year rolls around, this same situation will develop where we'll have to attend the NAMM meet despite the fact that we don't want to.

From our observation, the record firms and distributors have had their fill of the NAMM Convention.

RECORD REVIEWS

ⓐ DISK & SLEEPER	ⓐ GOOD
ⓑ EXCELLENT	ⓑ FAIR
ⓒ VERY GOOD	ⓒ MEDIOCRE

BOSTON POPS ORCHESTRA
(RCA Victor 10-4219; 49-4219)

B+ "LOOK SHARP—BE SHARP" (3:03) [Marlen ASCAP—Merrick] The sensational Boston Pops Orchestra under the baton of Arthur Fielder rides through a delightful rendition of "Gillette Cavalcade's" theme song. Great novelty that could catch in a big way.

C+ "CANDLELIGHT WALTZ" (3:22) [Chappell ASCAP—Mason] On this end, the versatile ork glides through a lovely waltz melody. Tender, lush material.

MINDY CARSON
(Columbia 40276; 4-40276)

B "YOU COULD'A KNOCKED ME OVER" (2:30) [Trinity BMI—Price] With a piccolo player adding to the effect, Mindy Carson lilt through a cute ditty on the light Summery side. Catchy Norman Leyden arrangement.

C+ "ONLY A BRIDESMAID" (2:50) [Trinity BMI—Glazer, Leyden] A sentimental slow waltz item with a famous title, is tearfully fashioned by Mindy as an organ adds to the broken-hearted effect.

VICTOR YOUNG ORCHESTRA
(Decca 29207; 9-29207)

B "THE SONG FROM 'THE CAINE MUTINY'" (3:03) [Mills ASCAP—Gaskill, McHugh] Anatole Kaminsky takes the violin solo on this Victor Young Singing Strings interpretation of a song from one of the year's big flickers. Tune better known as "I Can't believe That You're In Love With Me."

C+ "MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION" (2:50) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Skinner, Herbert] From the flick "Magnificent Obsession" comes this theme music. Lush dreamy material. Beautiful effect.

BOBBY TROUP
(Capitol 2856; F-2856)

C+ "WHEN YOU'RE WITH SOMEBODY ELSE" (2:29) [Feist ASCAP—Gilbert, Baer, Etting] Colorful song stylist Bobby Troup lends his easy going talent to a light cute novelty. Good job.

C "FIVE DAYS, SIX HOURS, THIRTEEN MINUTES" (2:27) [Joy ASCAP—Springer, Ebb] A rhythm novelty gets the songster's unique styling on this end. Catchy.

BING CROSBY
(Decca 29212; 9-29212)

B "IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME" [E. B. Marks BMI—Evans, Shields] John Scott Trotter and his men assist Der Bingle on his styling of the perennial Summer favorite. Terrific.

C+ "OH, TELL ME WHY" (3:07) [Longridge ASCAP—] On this end "The Groaner" glides through a tender, soft tune in his inviting manner. Pretty job.

THE CASH BOX DISK OF THE WEEK

"IF I DIDN'T CARE" (2:40) [Chappell ASCAP—Jack Lawrence]

"BETTINA" (2:01)

THE HILLTOPPERS
(Dot 15220)

THE HILLTOPPERS

● The Hilltoppers, featuring the velvety vocalesthenics of Jimmy

Sacca, come up with a sensational reading of the standard "If I Didn't Care" that could be their biggest yet. Considering their record of hits that's quite a statement, but we'll stand on it. The boys pitch blends on an item that's right for revival and the treatment is a bouncy reading that gets right in under the skin. The flip, "Bettina," is a fast beat novelty with a Spanish flavor. A cutie that will get quite a bit of play, but for the big action it is "If I Didn't Care."

"THAT'S WHAT I LIKE" (2:37)

[Chappell ASCAP—Styne, Hilliard]

"THE PEDDLER MAN" (2:50)

DEAN MARTIN

● Dean Martin, on the heels of two hits, "That's Amore" and "Sway," has what looks like another biggie in "That's What I Like," from his newest picture "Living It Up." Dean's readily recognizable vocal mannerisms are pleasingly evident as he sings the slow romantic item. The tune has a melodic charm and simplicity flavored with Martin stylings. Should provide the sales of records with a strong lift in the coming months. The flip, "The Peddler Man," is also a flic ditty. It is from Lana Turner's "The Flame and the Flesh." The singing part of the zany Martin-Lewis team chants an engaging lilt with a happy sound. Deck is a very pleasant bit of listening and makes a strong coupling for the reverse plate, "That's What I Like."

"SMILE" (2:40) [Chaplin, Turner, Parsons]

"PIPER IN THE HEATHER" (2:42) [Hargreaves]

FRANK CHACKSFIELD
(London 1487)

FRANK CHACKSFIELD

● Frank Chacksfield, whose "Limelight" and "Ebb Tide," made him a big factor in the American record sales, follows with another Chaplin item in the same lush vein, "Smile." Music is theme of "Modern Times." The tune is warm, sensitive, and the treatment is light and restful with emphasis on strings. A pretty that grows more lovely with each playing. Should prove a strong platter for the young English musician. The flip, "Piper In The Heather" is a touch of Scotland, bag pipes, et al. Light summer fare. Deck for action is "Smile."

BUDDY COSTA
(Pyramid 912; 45-912)

C+ "FLAME" (2:50) [Perfect BMI—Mathews, Vinson] The expressive voice of young Buddy Costa presents a Latin tempo love song with the Alan Alard Quintet and Choral assist. Good tune.

C+ "GIANNINA" (2:15) [Gibrant BMI—Russ] An exciting samba beat surrounds the songster on the fast moving love song. The Alan Choral rounds out the side.

PEGGY KING
(Columbia 40273; 4-40273)

C+ "THE HOTTENTOT" (2:30) [Dartmouth ASCAP—Baile, Bailey] The popular thrush who do the "Hunt's Tomato Sauce" commercials, debuts on wax with a cutie tongue twisting novelty. Live bouncer.

B+ "BURN 'EM UP" (2:30) [Acu Rose BMI—Bryant, Bryant] On this end the thrush with the appealing voice fashions a lively country flavor ditty that bounces along happily. The side could send her off in a big way.

MANTOVANI ORCHESTRA
(London 1483; 45-1483)

B "JUNE NIGHT" (2:42) [Feist ASCAP—Baer, Friend] The soaring Mantovani strings do wonder with a 1924 favorite. Mid-point takes the tune into a subdued Latin tempo. Beautiful sound. Relaxing.

C+ "LITTLE SWISS WALTZ" (2:35) [Sherwin ASCAP—Lew Gray] A Strauss-like lighthearted waltz is colorfully fashioned by the Mantovani crew. Maestro really adds that something different to his instrumentals.

EYDIE GORME
(Coral 61213; 9-61213)

B+ "CHAIN REACTION" (2:00) [Geo. Pincus ASCAP—David Saxon] Personality packed Eydie Gorme belts out a lively novelty that really moves. Disk is cute enough to click fast. Catchy, punchy item.

B "SURE" (2:05) [Mellin BMI—Russo, Mellin] The thrush turns to the soft side of her voice and tenderly fashions a lovely ballad. Very pretty that could make the grade.

THE STARGAZERS
(London 1481; 45-1481)

B "365 KISSES" (2:05) [Robbin ASCAP—Evans, Kennedy] The Stargazers who had the number one song in England with their corny version of "I See The Moon", deliver another corny waltz ditty. Full laughs.

C+ "GOOD WHOLESOME BEEF" (1:45) [Jerome Ltd. ASCAP—Jerome] Another corny item set a tavern atmosphere is colorfully fashioned by the vocal group. Should do well in our taverns too.

SUNNY GALE

BETTY MADIGAN

NORMAN BROOKS

A great party was held at most of the A.F.N. stations on the Continent. The American Forces Network is eleven years young and I'm glad to say it has always given listeners, both in the Forces and civilians very pleasant listening hours. Thanks and carry on the good work. News of several new ventures to be undertaken by Billy "Black Magic" Daniels reached me today. Billy plans to spend four months of every year in this country. He has already instructed a real estate man to look for a suitable home in the country where he could bring his family. Billy also plans to start a record company and take an interest in commercial TV when it comes. To complete his English outlook on the whole situation, Billy is trying hard to purchase a vintage Rolls Royce. . . . very county what?" . . .

Arriving from Paris to open at the Colony supper club on Monday is U. S. Nancy Andrews who says she's understudied Ethel Merman during the long Broadway run of "Call Me Madam" without once taking over from the star. Now's her chance to shine on her own in Mayfair. . . .

David Whitfield is making a lot of noise in wax circles. His disc of "Cara Mia" is the hottest selling platter since Vera Lynn's "Aufwiedersehen." David is at Blackpool for the Summer show and the theatre management hopes the roof will last the season as he has the audience shouting for more at the top of their voices. . . . Sol Bourne back from the Continent where he raided every place for songs. Alan Holmes back from the USA having had a wonderful time. . . . Thanks for your letter Eddie Kasner. I'm looking forward to seeing you in August. By the way, I really think you've got a big hit in that duet. Could be real big. . . . The most important news of all for us is that this is the first day of real sunshine we've had. . . . Bob Merrill is opening his own pubery in England very soon. Name has not been yet decided. Understand it may be Merrill Music. . . . I wonder if Frank Sinatra knows that Winifred Atwell is one of his greatest fans? . . . I hear Garry Moore is coming to Britain on a holiday so maybe he'll appear on TV and see the difference between sponsored and state controlled shows as did Betty Furness last Saturday when she appeared on our "In Town Tonight" show. Off to get some more sunshine now be with you next week.

LEON KELNER ORCHESTRA
(Sapphire 300; 45-300)

- ⓐ "PLEASANT TOUCH" [-Adams, Kelner, Welsch] Pert Jackie Blaine bounces over the cute lyrics of this Italian flavored ditty. Amusing novelty that, if exposed enough, could catch some coin. Spicy.
- ⓑ "WHERE ARE YOU TONIGHT" [-Adams, Kelner, Welsch] On this end, the thrush gets an ok support from Leon Kelner and the crew as she gives out with a sultry voiced reading of a sentimental ballad.

BROTHER LEE ROY & BAND
(Epic 9061; 4-9061)

- ⓐ "MEXICAN HAT DANCE" (2:23) [P. D. — Partichela] Brother Lee Roy lets loose on the Baritone sax as the boys assist him with a bouncy instrumentation of the popular south-of-the-border favorite. Teen-agers will like this.
- ⓑ "BEER BARREL POLKA" [Schapiro-Bernstein ASCAP — Brown, Timm, Vejvoda] An ever popular polka is treated with life and fullness by the band. Good platter for dance parties.

THE CASTAWAYS
(Excello 2038; 45-2038)

- ⓑ "TEASIN'" (2:11) [Ragon Music] The versatile Castaways bounce through a very cute ditty that could establish the boys in a big way. Great novelty with a delightful lyric.
- ⓐ "I WISH" (2:07) [Ragon Music] On this end the boys supply a fascinating opening for their version of a sentimental lilter. Boys can do a great deal with their voices.

DICK CONTINO
(Mercury 70420; 70420 x 45)

- ⓐ "LADY OF SPAIN" [Sam Fox ASCAP—] An exciting and very popular standard gets a fast moving fashioning from the sensational Dick Contino accordion. Thrilling deck full of life. Accordion fans will consider this a must.
- ⓑ "SQUEEZE BOX BOOGIE" [River BMI] On this end, the skilled accordionist rhythms through a boogie woogie number on his squeeze box. Instrumental backing rounds out the side.

BETTY COX
(Casino 133; 45-133)

- ⓐ "THEY CUT DOWN THE OLD PINE TREE" [Miller ASCAP—Raskin, Brown, Eliscu] A country flavored ditty is invitingly read by the warm, rich voice of Betty Cox. Pleasing material.
- ⓑ "LOST AND LONELY" [BMI—Salarnick] Joseph Leahy sets up another fitting orking for Betty's slow waltz treatment of a sentimental love tune. Pretty melody.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"DON'T DROP IT" (2:40)
[American Music—Terry Fell]

"OO-WA" (2:43) [Favorite Music —Pereth, Creatore]

Laurie Sisters
(Mercury 70422)

Laurie Sisters

● The Laurie Sisters come up with an infectious sound gimmick that has a mountain of appeal on their initial Mercury release, "Don't Drop It." The lassies chant the quick tempo novelty romantic bounce with a gay charm and the crazy sound should have all the kids imitating it in short order. The Laurie's have come up with a happy choice in material and the rough ride to the top should be smoothed aplenty with this issue. The flip, "Oo-Wa" is a middle tempo bounce that has a rhythmic drive. The girls have the fresh verve to do well with this type of song, but believe it will be overshadowed by the "Don't Drop It" side.

"SAID" (2:40) [Windy City ASCAP —Hoffman, Curtis, Hart]

"DANCE OF THE HOURS" (2:45)
[Pickwick ASCAP—Torré Spielman]

Bob Stewart
(MGM Record 11795)

Bob Stewart

● It was only a matter of time before "Darling Clementine" was discovered. The ditty we remember singing at summer camps, schools, etc., in the dim years of our youth, comes out a new tune titled, "Said," and the renovation is a natural. Bob Stewart, who has been coming along with greater strength with each release seems to have made it with this cute bouncer. The lyrics are in the romantic novelty vein and the tune is one that won't take much remembering as each and every one of us have grown up with it. The flip is another familiar item, the "Dance Of The Hours," from Ponchielli's "La Gioconda." Stewart sings the lovely flighty air supplied with lovers lyrics. Quaint and piquant but it's "Said" for the action.

ELEONORA ROSSI DRAGO

ⓐ "MALASIERRA" (3:27) [Hollis BMI—Redl] The stirring music from the flick "Hell Raiders Of The Deep" is sung by Nilla Pizzi as introduced in the flick by Eleonora Rossi Drago. Exciting and eerie.

ⓑ "LAMENTO BORINCANO" (3:15) [Peer Inter'l BMI—Hernandez] Another Spanish tune from the same movie is rendered by Miss Pizzi. Melodious.

WILLIE GIBSON
(Benida 5016; 45-5016)

ⓐ "I CRIED FOR YOU" (2:30) [Miller ASCAP—Arnheim, Lyman] A favorite oldie is revived by Willie Gibson and the Boys as the leader dishes up a lively 'cornball' piano version. Good juke instrumental.

ⓑ "MELANCHOLY BABY" (2:15) [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP —Burnett, Norton, Watson] Another standard gets the "old time tavern piano" styling from Willie and the boys. Real cute rinky-dink stuff.

ROBERTA LEE
(Decca 29165; 9-29165)

ⓑ "YOU CAN'T STOP ME FROM DREAMIN'" (2:53) [Remick ASCAP—Friend, Franklin] With a male quartet and a Harold Moon orking in the supporting role, Roberta Lee belts out a bouncing novelty with her powerful voice. Cute.

ⓐ "I WAS JUST WALKIN' OUT THE DOOR" (3:02) [Gold West BMI—Walker] Sonny Burk ork assists on this end as the vibraphone thrush cruises through a bluesy, sentimental love song.

ANNE COLE
(Timely 1007; 45-1007)

ⓑ "I'LL FIND A WAY" (2:58) [Simek BMI—Thomas, Biggs] The amazing voice of Anne Cole belts out a dramatic version of a good love song. Thrilling vocal quality. Strong and expressive. Good for pop and blues.

ⓐ "OH LOVE OF MINE" (2:58) [Simek BMI — Thomas, Biggs] On this end the thrush rides through a dramatic power packed romantic item better suited for the blues market. Driving job.

CLAUDE GORDON

ⓐ "REAL GORDON" (2:45) [Fies BMI—Furman] Against an orchestral backing, Claude Gordon dishes up some good trumpet work on a solid jumper. Blows a mean horn. Interesting deck.

ⓑ "TRUMPET PARADE" (3:18) [Herman ASCAP—Gordon] He the trumpet ace employs the multiple recording technique to offer an appealing trumpet jumper. Good sound.

WOODY HERMAN & THE NEW THIRD HERD
(Mars 1006; 45-1006)

ⓐ "MAMBO THE MOST" (2:48) [ASCAP — McFall, Herman] Woody Herman and his New Third Herd ride through a rocking mambo instrumental that really moves. Ja version of the mambo. Herman fans will like this.

ⓑ "MAMBO THE (UT)MOS" (2:20) [ASCAP—McFall, Herman] The instrumental quartet bel across a wild continuation of the tempo half. 'Crazy' deck.

BILL "MR. INK SPOTS" KENNY

ⓑ "SENTIMENTAL BABY" (2:18) [Mills ASCAP—Palmer] With quartet and Sy Oliver orking in the backdrop, Bill Kenny cruises through a pretty ballad with a shuffle rhythmic. Fabulous voice. Very commercial Kenny job.

ⓐ "WHAT MORE CAN I DO" (3:08) [Famous ASCAP—Wayn David] Another terrific Sy Oliver arrangement showcases the Kenny voice to best advantage on this pretty love song. Could make noise.

TORONTO TOPICS:

Dick Contino's successful Toronto date at the Casino Theatre made a lot of new friends for the Mercury Recording Star. This will be wide open territory for repeat engagements and his platters on the air waves and in the boxes should be having extra plays from his new found music friends. The Contino's date winds up the Casino's season headlining platter names and they will be booking some glamor gals for the summer. . . . Madeleine Bonin of the Bill Long and his Border Jumpers, a hot bet for the new TV 7/up show which is scheduled to originate hereabouts. The Bill Long group (King-Quality Records) are being held over at the Mocambo and will probably stay at the Spadana Folk Show Case through August. . . . Sunday visitor was Eddie Mehler (Alvina Records) on a fast trip from Montreal where he reports good business as the order of the day at the Monterey where his group is holding forth. . . . Rumors are rife that the great Calvin Jackson's quartet will soon be waxed by a major label with the first packet on the market before too long. Cal and the boys clicking bigger than ever at the Park Plaza Hotel proving anew the society following this group has built. . . . Heard a terrific calypso tune that sure sounds destined to click big when the major A & R men get with it. BMI Canada's Bailey Bird played it for us and it sure sounds like a winner. . . . Ex-Canuck Dick Todd breaking out strongly with his newest release which couples local TV producer Norman Campbell's "It Happens" and "Where Do the Bubbles Go" and has "It Happens" publisher, Clarendon House mighty happy. This side and the Mary Mayo Quality platter (from the U.S. Benida master) building this lush ballad very strongly and we hear that some of the other majors are planning to cut it. Congratulations to Dick Todd and Decca's Paul Cohen for giving impetus to this strong Canadian ballad. Our congratulations to its writer and publisher Norman Campbell, and Clarendon House for giving out with a great song that is bringing overdue attention to the good music originating in this country.

MONTREAL MEMOS:

Jack Newman, Canadian Manager of the Peer-Southern set-up away on a business trip to the West Coast from where he will then take his vacation accompanied by his wife and juvenile actor son, Roger. . . . Phil Rose of the Compo Co. (Decca-Coral) vacationing with his wife in Ontario where a lot of his trade friends are looking forward to entertain them. . . . Stopping over for a day in Montreal on a well deserved vacation to Grand Manon, N.B. is the Dean of Canadian composers, Dr. Healy Willan and his charming wife, of Toronto. No doubt the hardest working composer in Canada, Mr. Willan surprised his associates and friends by finally taking the much deserved vacation which he has been promising himself for these past several years. . . . Les Brown and his Band of Renown will play a one nite stand at the Show Mart on Wednesday, July 21st. This is Brown's first trip to Montreal. . . . Appearing this week at the Chez Paree is Diosa Costello famed star of South Pacific.

Goodman In Fine Form At Basin Street Opening

NEW YORK—When Benny Goodman was fourteen, the story goes and Benny affirms, he was kicked off the band stand by Bix Beiderbecke who noticed a kid in short pants fooling around with the instruments. Benny was the newly hired clarinetist. Last night (7/13) at the Basin Street nite-ry, nobody kicked Benny, who was making his first appearance in New York in eight years, off the stand. Rather, the crowd did its best to keep Benny on the stand with excited exhortations and pleas.

The much publicized opening was all that its billing promised. A packed house (the seating capacity was extended to squeeze tables into every available inch) that included many notables, stage, screen, television and recording stars, roared its approval. Benny swung as did the Benny of old. Every intro brought ecstatic cries from the audience as it recognized the Goodman classics. The clarinet immortal surrounded himself with a top-flight cast of musical luminaries to comprise his trio and sextet. They were the famous Charlie Shavers, whose inimitable trumpeting brought him round after round of applause; Mel Powell, one of jazzdom's piano shining lights; Morty Feld, drums; Isreal Crosby, bass; and Steve Jordan, guitar.

A fine supporting cast rounded out the bill. Song stylist, Sylvia Sims, treated the crowd to her delicious jazz treatments and Buck Clayton's Quartet provided some fine musical moments. Buck, the old Basie trumpet man, got in some crazy licks, as well as providing the musical backdrop for Miss Sims.

You had better call in for reservations if you plan to see this show.

Ella Fitzgerald Heads Australia Package

NEW YORK—Long a favorite in Australia via her Decca disks, Ella Fitzgerald visits the Aussies in the flesh with a troupe including Artie Shaw, Buddy Rich and Jerry Colonna which kicks off a 7 day tour "Down Under" on July 23. Ella headlines the package and her weighty remuneration of $25,000 covers transportation for herself, her accompanist John Lewis and secretary Georgie Henry.

Norman Granz booked Ella, while Rich and Shaw were placed by the Billy Shaw office and Colonna by GAC.

Following the trek, Ella will vacation before going on tour again with Granz' "Jazz at the Philharmonic," which kicks off Sept. 17 and will play 56 major cities in the U. S. and Canada. Also featured with JATP on its 14th annual tour will be Buddy Rich.

The 45 Situation!

NEW YORK—While many stations are still balking at switching to 45 rpm, record company execs almost unanimously expressed the opinion this week that the situation will be cleared up within a couple of months. It is felt by them that if one station in a town goes 45 and is therefore able to play the latest records as soon as they are received, every other station will have to do so or else lose its audience. A great help in this transition period however has been the Capitol cueing disk which is the size of a 78 record and into which the 45s can be fitted. This takes care of the jumping which many djs complained of on the 45s.

A survey taken by one manufacturer shows that at this time 60% of the stations are willing to play the 45s.

POPULAR

"STORIES IN MUSIC"—Harry Geller Conducts—Mercury EP 1-3204 (7"-45 EP) List: $1.50

GOLDEN SAILS; MONKEY COACHMAN; EIGHTEEN TWELVE; MAGIC IS THE EARTH.

An entrancing collection of melodic items presented with an airy treatment. For summer fare, this E.P. is just the thing as the tunes, arrangements, vocal administrations and orchestral readings seem to be planned for relaxing pleasure.

"THE BROADWAY STORY"—Bernie Wayne—Coral Records CRL 5611' (1-10" LP) List: $3.00

Side one—The Broadway Story. Side Two—Zsa Zsa; Passionata; Waltz For Marilyn; Boca Chica.

The ever intriguing story of the famous New York City street is dramatically portrayed by a cast of five, a seven voice chorus and a 50 piece orchestra. Bernie Wayne, composer, tells the story of the Broadway cop, a couple of dancing kids on the corner, a star of yesterday and a small town girl. A capsule show with Danny Scholl, playing the part of the cop, in the lead role. The second side consists of four Bernie Wayne compositions etched in big old style with chorus assistance. Pleasurable disk with something for everyone.

"MAURICE CHEVALIER"—Columbia Records CL 568—(1-12" LP) List: $3.95

PARIS JE T'AIME; PARIS A SES 2000 ANS; LA CHASSE; J'AI FIXE MON COEUR; TRINQUE TRINQUE; A LA FRANCAISE; MAIS QUI EST-CE?; MOI... J'AI GARDE; AH SI VOUS SAVIEZ; PEUT-ETRE; PEINTRE EN BATIMENT; UNE CANNE ET UNE CASQUETTE.

Although it has been many years since Chevalier has been to these shores he is still fondly remembered by the portion of buyers who recall his many pictures. The younger disk collector is more familiar with the Parisian through any number of imitations he has seen on television than he is with the actual singing of Chevalier. Although his vocalistics are entirely in French, the listener is aware of his good humor, present in all his readings. For those who do not understand the French lyrics, a quick translation is provided by Aram Avakian in the notes on the back of the sleeve. Limited market.

"MARCHES" John Philip Sousa—Mercury Records MG 40007 (1-12" LP) List: $5.95

Frederick Fennell conducting the Eastman Symphonic Wind Ensemble playing Fairest of the Fair; Manhattan Beach; The Black Horse Troop; Daughters of Texas; Rifle Regiment; Corcoran Cadets; Hands Across The Sea; Semper Fidelis; Pieces of Eight; March Carillon; Cheerio; His Honor; Our Director; Glory of the Gridiron; Pride of the Illini; National Emblem.

Marches have a place in the heart of everyone. It recalls park concerts, high school and college football games, parades of all descriptions, etc. This album has been put together to honor the man most associated with marches, namely John Philip Sousa. Of the sixteen pieces presented eight are Sousa compositions. 1954 is the 100th anniversary of Sousa's birth making this a most appropriate time to issue this tribute. The other eight represent most of the composers connected with this type of music. Of course, one of the pieces, "Cheerio" is by the other name who comes to mind when Marches are thought of, Edwin Franko Goldman. A stirring release designed to delight and bring back fond memories.

THE GAYLORDS — "ON THE TOWN" — Mercury EP-1-3190 (7"-45 EP) List: $1.50

RAMONA; AYE, AYE, AYE; SPINNING A WEB; TELL ME YOU'RE MINE.

One of the wax world's hottest vocal groups at the present is the Gaylords. Their rise to stardom has been rocket-like. And they are currently doing a bang-up job on a national tour with Don Cornell. Here the boys offer four sides that got them started on the way up. We favor their first release "Tell Me You're Mine". The many fans that they add to their following on this trip will surely want this packet. Cover is great.

THE HI-LO'S—Trend TE 514 (7"-45 EP) List: $1.50

GEORGIA ON MY MIND; MY BABY JUST CARES FOR ME; PEG O' MY HEART; THEY DIDN'T BELIEVE ME.

Just a few months ago, a new vocal group called the Hi-Lo's was formed. And this highly polished quartet shows a great deal of promise. With vocal groups currently so hot, the boys have a great chance of breaking through in the near future. On this, their first EP, the artists show their style and finesse with four popular standards. Terrific sound.

CLASSICAL

CHABRIER—BERLIOZ—The Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, Alfred Wallenstein, Decca Records DL 4087—(1-10" LP) List: $2.50

Chabrier—Marche Joyeuse; Habanera; Espana Rapsodie. Berlioz—Hungarian March; Minuet of the Will-o-the-Wisps; Dance of the Sylphs.

The six pieces representing the works of Chabrier and Berlioz are so melodic and familiar that they might almost be considered in the vein of a pop album. The music is delightful, the Wallenstein treatment exciting. For those who like their classical music spiced with sparkle, provocative animation, light and airy, this is what they have been looking for.

BEETHOVEN—Symphony No. 1 in C Major, Op. 20. Symphony No. 8 in F Major, Op. 93. Decca Records DL 9626 (1-12" LP) List: $5.85

The Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, Ferenc Fricsay, conductor.

Two of the lesser known of the Beethoven symphonies are presented herewith on one release. The first and the eighth. Although, nothing that Beethoven has done can be categorized as "lesser known". Neither have they suffered from neglect at the hands of the recording companies. In fact several of the issues couple the 1st and 8th symphonies. However for the buyer who has not yet added these symphonies to his collection, this release is fresh, exciting and of excellent sound.

FOUR SAINTS IN THREE ACTS—Virgil Thompson and Gertrude Stein—RCA Victor Records LCT 1139 (1-12"—LP) List: $5.67

Album Reviews

Victor issues in its Treasury of Immortal Performances the delightful "Four Saints in Three Acts". Tho this etching was recorded in 1947 the technical performance is most acceptable. The voices come through beautifully clear and a treat to the ear. For the buyer who prefers this type of material it is a radiant release.

BRAHMS—Symphony No. 1 in C Minor, Opus 68—Decca Records DL 9603 (1-12" LP) List: $5.85

The Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Alfred Wallenstein. One of the most beautiful and stirring of all symphonies is presented by the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, Alfred Wallenstein conducting, with deep emotion, clarity of tone, and the seriousness evident in Brahms composing. Best known to the public, and perhaps the salesman for the album, is the memorable fourth movement. Disk will find much competition as most labels have already released the symphony under the baton of their top name conductors.

CHAUSSON—Poem of Love and The Sea—RCA Victor LM 1793 (1-12" LP) List: $5.72

Gladys Swarthout with Pierre Monteux conducting RCA Victor Symphony Orchestra.

The Poem of Love and The Sea is stirringly lovely. Its tender air, its touching mood, its gentle floating brings, indeed, the mental picture of the poetic sky and sea. Gladys Swarthout sings the poem of love with deep feeling. Pierre Monteux never permits the orchestra to depart from the intense emotion written into the score by Chausson. The reverse side of the LP consists of 9 French Art Songs. Miss Swarthout sings Berlioz "Premiers transports que nul n'oublie!" from his symphony "Romeo and Juliet"; Reynaldo Hahn's "Si mes vers avaient des ailes"; Debussy's "Mandoline"; Henri Dupare's "Chanson Triste"; Clergue's "Carmen"; Poulenc's "Hotel", "Voyage A Paris", and "Les Chemins de L'amour."

MAMBO

INSTRUMENTAL MAMBOS—Joe Loco—Tico Records TR-EP-45 27 (1-7" EP) List: $1.58

WHY DON'T YOU DO RIGHT; THERE'LL BE SOME CHANGES MADE; I ONLY HAVE EYES FOR YOU; KISMET.

This one is a natural for the mambo fan. Joe Loco, with the rise and growing acceptance of mambo music in the United States has become one of the names associated with the Latin music. Loco's piano styling has brought him stature in his field and now with the vigorous music at its peak and still moving ahead the disk should find a ready market.

JAZZ

THE EXCITING LOUIS BELLSON—Norgran Records MGN 14 (1-10" LP) List: $3.85

SKIN DEEP; LORIS; CAXTON HALL SWING; FOR EUROPEANS ONLY; PHALANGES.

When Norman Granz named this release "The Exciting Louis Bellson" he chose an exceedingly appropriate title. Supported by a large aggregation, Bellson performs a series of colorful and well developed skin pyrotechnics that amaze. The album is planned to spotlight the Bellson solos. Although no credits are given to the other members of the band, solo and ensemble work lend much to the general enjoyment of the platter.

HORACE SILVER TRIO—Blue Note 5034—(1-10" LP) List: $4.00

OPUS DE FUNK; DAY IN DAY OUT; I'LL REMEMBER YOU; HOW ABOUT YOU; SILVERWARE; BUHAINA; MESSAGE FROM KENYA; NOTHING BUT THE SOUL.

Here's a deck that should please the discriminating modernist. Young Horace Silver's piano work is stickout as he wanders up and down the keyboard. Support received by Silver from Percy Heath, bass and Art Blakey, drums, works in perfectly with the Silver improvisations. For excitement, and perhaps the salespiece for the retail store, it's "Message From Kenya", featuring Art Blakey and Sabu, on the conga drum. A stirring drum exhibition that takes you right into the African interior.

JAZZ MOODS BY ILLINOIS JACQUET—Clef Records MG C 622 (1-12" LP) List: $4.85

SITTIN' AND ROCKIN'; MEAN TO ME; BOOT 'EM UP; MOE; HIPPIY HOP; LAZY BLUES; WHAT'S THE RIFF?; BLUES IN THE NIGHT; WHERE ARE YOU?; FAT MAN BOOGIE.

Illinois Jacquet fans are many and this album should find favor with them. Jacquet, one of the top tenor sax men in the country, has always had a strong commercial appeal, and therefore his name value as well as his musical skill should help move this release off the counters and shelves. This collection of tunes shows Jacquet working with big bands, small groups and regular rhythm sections. He swings, hits the highs and blows a generally exciting horn.

HARRY BABASIN QUINTET—Nocturne NLP 3—(1-10" LP) List: $3.85

LA ROSITA; SKYKLARK; TANGERINE; WHEN YOU WISH UPON A STAR; EASY TO REMEMBER; GIRL FRIEND; BABO-LING.

Another in the Jazz In Hollywood Series highlights the delicious bass playing of Harry Babasin. Harry, long associated with the top names in the modern jazz, and whose experience goes back to the early throes of progressive jazz, and who is currently the musical director of Nocturne, is given the opportunity to front his own combination on records. Assisting Babasin are Larry Bunker, highlighted on the vibraphone; Bob Enevoldsen, valve trombonist & bass; Jimmy Rowles, piano; Roy Harte, drums. A strong issue both musically and from a sound standpoint.

PETE DAILY and his Chicagoans—Jazz Man Recording Co. EJ 451 (1-7" EP) List: $1.58

NEW TIN ROOF BLUES; QUAKER TOWN; SWANEE RIVER; CLOSER WALK WITH THEE.

Pete Daily, his cornet, and fellow dixielanders dish up four enjoyable tunes for the dixie buyer in true Chicago style. The boys swing the standard "Swanee River", go easy on the gospel, "Closer Walk With Thee", ride herd on a wild and rhythmic "New Tin Roof Blues", and bounce out the moderate tempo "Quaker Town", all with an infectious appeal.

Record Manufacturers And Distributors Attend NAMM Convention—Gripes Galore

CHICAGO—There was a surprising turnout of record manufacturers and distributors for the NAMM Convention held in Chicago last week despite last year's reaction that "there had better be air conditioning or we won't attend."

There was no air conditioning and the same thing happened this year—the almost unbearable heat on the exhibit floor, where after contact was made, it was necessary to go somewhere cool to conduct business.

Once again there was the general feeling among record manufacturers and distributors that the NAMM had an utter disregard for the record industry, that there was no planning of discussions that had anything to do with records, that there was no attempt to take care of their welfare etc. The answer was obvious. Outside of London Records, which had its usual booth at the entrance of the exhibit hall, not a single record manufacturer had a booth on the exhibit floor. This floor in all previous years had been devoted to record companies, but each year booths have dwindled to the present count of one.

Further, many of the record fraternity had trouble fulfilling room reservations. Those who wanted air conditioned rooms were refused and if they persisted, were told to leave.

At the end of the convention, the general feeling again was that "we will stay away unless the hotel or NAMM does something about better facilities." Many said that the MOA Convention should substitute for the NAMM. But even more record people felt that they should have a show of their own with Atlantic City, Miami,

New York and Lake Placid mentioned as meeting places.

It was realized however that nothing would ever be done about this matter unless committees of record company and distributor representatives are formed to work it out.

And unless something is done, attendance will eventually dwindle to nothing at the NAMM show and gone will be the yearly get-together between record manufacturers and distributors.

"X" Officials Meet With Their Distributions

CHICAGO—Label "X" held a luncheon in Chicago during the NAMM Convention which was attended by representatives of the diskery's 23 distributors. Heading the Victor contingent were Manie Sacks, Howard Letts, Emmett Dunn, Larry Kanega, Jimmy Hilliard, Joe Delaney, Lou Boorstein and David Strausse of Grey Advertising.

The results were deemed highly successful from the point of view of healthy discussions and future plans, according to the distributors who attended. Ten-minute talks by distributors revealed likes and gripes which were settled satisfactorily in closing remarks by "X" officials.

Among the plans announced was a major project being readied for the 1st of next year, a huge outlay for advertising, and a new talent and package push.

Listener's Digest Introduced by RCA to Widen Audience For Classical Music

NEW YORK, N. Y. — A new approach to widening the audience for good music through recorded "digests" of outstanding classics was pre-auditioned here last week at a press conference in the Hotel Plaza.

Called the "Listener's Digest," the plan was created by the Radio Corporation of America for people who love music but are not sure they will like the more advanced repertoire. It also was conceived as a basic library for the layman who wants to start a collection of classical recordings but doesn't know where to begin, according to George R. Market, Director of Artists and Repertoire for RCA Victor Records.

In its first "edition," the Digest, a musical counterpart of the increasingly popular book condensations and magazine digests is made up of 10 Extended Play 45-rpm records and a 45-rpm automatic record player.

The records contain five hours and fifty minutes of famous music condensed to less than half that time. Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony" for example, which ran to 32 minutes, 12 seconds in its original performance was condensed to 14 minutes, 41 seconds.

Among the 12 works on the 10 Extended Play records are Cesar Franck's "Symphony in D-Minor," Tchaikovsky's "Nutteracker Suite," and Dvorak's "New World Symphony." Artists who perform the works include Pierre Monteux, Arturo Toscanini, Artur Rubinstein and Leopold Stokowski.

"We are confident that these digested versions of great classical works will help people become enthusiastic for good music," Marek said. "We are also convinced that they soon will want longer versions and that they will want to attend concerts, recitals and operatic performances.

"In applying the concept of condensation so successful in the book and magazine field to the field of recorded music, RCA Victor was convinced that condensation would make available classical music that would be inexpensive, friendly, short and easy-to-enjoy. It also fits in with today's tempo of living. If the anticipated results are achieved, a vast new audience for good music will be created, and it is possible that the record industry could double its present annual volume of $225,000,000."

"We worked with painstaking care for 13 months on the delicate timing required for the cuts of these 12 selections," Marek said.

In order to make the cuts without sacrificing the artistic quality, Marek said it was necessary to:

1. Undertake a complete bar-by-bar analysis of every selection in the Digest.

2. Create an ideal abridgment gauged by such factors as key relationships, phrasing, the orchestration and the theme itself.

3. Fit the abridgment to the technical necessity of the eight minutes of playing time of the 45 Extended Play side.

"The 'Listener's Digest' should be especially helpful to people who have felt that a complete musical work is too long to absorb in its entirety on the first hearing," Marek said. "It also will serve as a guide and a short cut for others who have avoided classical music because they haven't taken the time to develop their listening ear without some assistance.

"The fundamental purpose of the Digest is to make good music more accessible. It accomplishes this by excerpting the most familiar themes from well-known symphonic and instrumental music and relating them to other, less familiar themes from the same compositions. We feel it fills a need and will meet with an enthusiastic response from the American people.

"Already we have had many expressions of approval from leaders in music and educational fields who think that the Digest is a good introduction to the great works of music and should whet the appetite for further listening," Marek concluded.

Featured in the series is the Franck Symphony in D Minor conducted by Pierre Monteux with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra; the Grieg Piano Concerto in A Minor, Op. 16, played by Artur Rubinstein; the Beethoven Piano Concerto No. 5 in E-Flat, Op. 73 (Emperor), played by Schnabel; the Beethoven Symphony No. 5 in C Minor, Op. 67, with Conductor John Barbirolli; Leopold Stokowski conducting the Brahms Symphony No. 1 in C Minor, Op. 68; Dvorak Symphony No. 5 in E Minor, Op. 95 (From the New World), and Rimsky-Korsakoff "Scherazade"; Toscanini conducting the Tchaikovsky Nutteracker Suite; Ania Dorfman playing the Beethoven Sonata No. 14 in C-Sharp Minor, Op. 27, No. 2 (Moonlight), played by Ania Dorfman; Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra playing Tchaikovsky 1812 Overture and Capriccio Italian.

Mercury Records Distributor Convention Outlines Fall Plans

CHICAGO—Mercury Records held its annual distributor convention last weekend, July 9, 10 and 11, at Miami Beach, Fla. Distributors were acquainted with the forthcoming heavy push planned by Mercury on albums.

The record company plans to release two albums each month. The art-cover policy, originated by Mercury and carried through with such success, will be continued in the forthcoming issues. "These art covers have brought us many requests for reprints, and our plans for the future are to make them even greater in quality and scope than those already issued," said Art Talmadge, vice-president of Mercury.

The fall season calls for a large number of pop albums and the first two will be a 12-inch Billy Daniels in which no tracks will be cut. Daniels will follow from one number right into another. Richard Hayman will be the second release, also a 12-inch album. Then in sets of two, other releases will include Georgia Gibbs, Ralph Marterie, Dick Contino, the Gaylords, Crewcuts and David Carroll and orchestra. In addition there will be six new classical albums readied for fall release.

Further Mercury plans call for the issuance of 48 LP and EP recordings of EmArcy jazz releases by August. Featured on these recordings will be such artists as Maynard Ferguson, Patti Page, Sarah Vaughan, Errol Garner, Paul Bley, Art Blakey, Leon Sash and Paul Quinichette.

Kapp Signs Jane Morgan

NEW YORK—Jane Morgan, song star of the Latin Quarter show, has been signed to a long term contract by Kapp Records, the new firm recently formed by Dave Kapp. Miss Morgan, the first female star to record for the new company, just cut two sides, a new novelty tune called "Baseball, Baseball," and "Fairweather Friends," which will be released August 1st. Kapp plans an exploitation campaign on her records, which he expects will catapult her up among the top female recording stars within the next six months. Jane, an American girl who became a star in Paris, has never cut any records in this country before, although her recordings for Parlophone in London are among the top sellers abroad.

Capitol Sets Dealer Meetings To Unveil New Fall Merchandise

NEW YORK—Following their conclusion of the Second Annual Sales Convention at Estes Park Colorado, Capitol Records District Managers are setting dealer meetings throughout the country to unveil the new fall merchandise, along with the new plan to sell this merchandise. There will be fifty-six dealer meetings, the first one beginning July 15th.

Door prizes will be awarded at each dealer meeting and then everyone attending these meetings will be eligible for the Grand Prize which will be determined by a drawing in New York City.

All names will be placed in a huge bowl and the winner will get his choice of a trip either to New York or to Los Angeles, with all expenses paid by Capitol Records. This trip will be for one week and will cover two people. It may consist of a dealer, clerk or partners in a record store.

Capitol Record executives are enthusiastic over the fall line of merchandise and expect a record turn-out at these dealer meetings.

Whiteman To Coral

NEW YORK — Paul Whiteman is shown with Bob Thiele, A&R head of Coral Records, as they finished Whiteman's first session for the label. Paul led a 10-piece band playing the same arrangements he used in the 1920's to catapult himself to the top of American jazzdom. These are the first new records Whiteman has made, incidentally, in some 20-odd years.

Reverend Orders Hamblen Disk For Nation's Jockeys

NEW YORK—About one week ago the morning mail at RCA Victor contained a check in the sum of $850. and a heartwarming letter from a Reverend Jack Shuler of Independence, Kansas.

The letter from Shuler explained that he had heard a disk jockey spin Stuart Hamblen's RCA Victor recording of "This Ole House" and was so touched by the message in the song that he communicated with Hamblen and asked him to visit his congregation. Hamblen immediately complied and featured his stirring performance of "This Ole House" at a special religious gathering arranged by Reverend Shuler. The effect of this performance was so great that the congregation on the spot wholeheartedly took up a collection to buy enough records to send out to every radio station and disk jockey in the country.

"Ordinarily," says Bernie Miller, promotion manager of the popular records division at RCA Victor, "we would not have sent the Stuart Hamblen record to our pop disk jockeys. However, this touching gesture of faith caused us to listen again to the record and to the message it contained. We still don't think it's a pop record, but it's so much more than that that we are taking the liberty of sending it out to pop disk jockeys and radio stations. As a matter of fact, we are going to send the record out to every disk jockey list that we have. Of course we are returning the check to the Reverend Jack Shuler and that little congregation in Independence, Kansas."

Stephen H. Sholes, A & R head of the Country division, wrote the Reverend advising him of RCA Victor's decision to assume the cost of distribution to the nation's jockeys.

"Say Hey, Willie Mays"

NEW YORK—Paul Cohen, Decca Records, announced the company, at a recent session cut its newest vocal group, the Wanderers. The initial release, "Don't Drop It" and "Say Hey, Willie Mays," will be in the hands of its distributors about August 1.

"Say Hey, Willie Mays," is a tie-in with an expression that has become a by-word on the sports pages. The youthful Willie Mays, New York Giant baseball whiz, and perhaps the most publicized athlete in the history of the sport, prefaces all of his remarks with "Say Hey" and has become known as "Say Hey, Willie Mays."

The Wanderers are managed by Lee Magid, who with Paul Cohen, handled the session.

Siegel Signs Sylvan Levin

NEW YORK—Paul Siegel, Symphony House Music Publishers, announced the signing of Sylvan Levin as a composer for the firm. Levin is now conducting the Summer opera season at Wallingsford, Conn.

Sylvan Levin was the music director and conductor of the Mutual Broadcasting System for many years and just last Spring conducted the Broadway musical "Pink Tights."

Siegel also announced the appointment of Steven Marca to do promotion for Rex Music.

THE CASH BOX RHYTHM N' BLUES Ramblings

NEW YORK:

Caught the Bennie Goodman opening at Basin Street where the big man made his first appearance in the Gotham in eight years. And what a turnout. On what was the hottest night of the summer, 92 sizzling degrees of heat and humidity, an all celebrity and music crowd filled the jazz spot so completely that visitors envied the much quoted sardine in the can. Bennie put on a show that had the blase and celebrity satiated first nighters standing and shouting for more. Also sharing the spotlight with the clarinet man were Charley Shavers, top man with the trumpet and a crowd pleaser if you ever saw one; Mel Powel, fine pianist whose solos drew enthusiastic applause; Morty Feld on the drums; Israel Crosby, bass, whose solo on "Flying Home" won him a big hand; and Steve Jordan on the guitar. Also on the bill were Buck Clayton and his Quartet and Sylvia Sims, A-1 song stylist. . . . With the NAMM show over, the boys are all getting back to their desks and settling down to selling records. Among those who attended from local areas were Bess and Ike Berman, Apollo Records; Jerry Wexler and Ahmet Ertegun, Atlantic and Cat Records; Murray Singer, Bethlehem Records; Leo Rogers, Morty Craft, and Monty Bruce, Bruce Records; Ernie Young, Excello and Nashboro Records; Jose Mirand, Fiesta Records; George Goldner, Tico, Rama, and Gee Records; Ivan Ballen, Gotham Records; Jack Angel and Al Silver, Herald Records; Jerry Blaine, Jozie Records; Bobby Robinson, Red Robin Records; Joe Delaney, Groove Records. Among those who attended, other than the local boys, were Irv Marcus, Peacock and Duke national sales manager; Jack Kelly, King Records; and Leonard Chess, Chess and Checker Records. There was a big turnout of distribbers. Some of those seen about were: Bob Pare, Portem Distributors, New York; Joe Cohen, Essex Distributors, Newark, N. J.; Johnny Ha'onka and Harry Apostelleris, Alpha Distributors, New York; Mr. Verbit, Marnel Distributors, Baltimore; Mac Lesnick, M. B. Lesnick Record Co., Baltimore; Henry Nathanson, General Distributing, Baltimore; Leonard Smith, Leonard Smith, Inc., Albany, N. Y.; Jake Friedman, Dixie Distributing Co., Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. Binkley, Binkley Distributors, Jacksonville, Fla.; Jimmy Martin, James Martin, Inc., Chicago; a large contingent from United Records, Chicago; Bill Amann, William Amann Distributing Co., New Orleans, La.; Cecil Stein, Records, Inc., Boston; Charles Gray, Polonia Distributing, Detroit; Bob Hosfetter, Roberts Record Distributing, St. Louis; Art Freeman, Benart Distributing, Cleveland; Dave Freed, Cosnat, Cleveland; Harry Rosen, David Rosen Company, Philadelphia; Milt Sinsheimer, Allen Distributing, Richmond, Va. . . . Hear Johnny Ace, Duke star, was mauled recently when 500 of his Houston fan club stampeded and ripped his suit to pieces. Trouble started when Johnny started handing out autographed pictures to the necessary demons. . . . Abner Greenberg disclosed he had been retained by Moondog, the blind street musician, to sue Allen "Moondog" Freed on the use of the name.

CHICAGO:

Aside from all the business conducted, the main topic of conversation at this year's NAMM Convention at the Palmer House was the heat. The small fans that several of the rooms had did little or no good against our 100 degree temperatures. But everybody hoping that 'maybe next year will bring air-conditioning'. . . . Genial Stan Lewis of Stan's Record Shop in Shreveport, Louisiana, phoned to say 'hi' while in town for the Convention. "Had to come in to keep up with 'what's happening,'" Stan claims. Bob Stern who, it is reported, broke "Sh-Boom" by the Chords in Los Angeles, happy for the chance to return to Chicago, his home town, in order to visit his family and many old friends once again. Born and raised right here, Bob moved to LA some eight years ago. . . . Ahmet Ertegun had nothing but praise for the convention. Also told us he visited several operators talking about Atlantic's new EP's, featuring such Atlantic stars as Ruth Brown, The Clovers, The Drifters, and Joe Turner. Which idea the ops tell him, is beginning to catch on. . . . Monte Bruce, Bruce Records lent the Harp-Tones to Dave Mil'er's Essex label in order for them to cut "Honey Love" with Bunny Paul, which is getting lots of action. Can't recall such lend lease in the past. . . . Checker Records has released the first waxing by Jimmy Witherspoon which, Len Chess claims, is really catching on. Titled "When The Lights Go Out", b/w "Big Daddy". Len and Phil also hoping for big things to happen to their latest Howling Wolf release, "Evil Goin' On", b/w "Baby How Long". Boys feel that either or both of these disks could be their summer hits. . . . Hear tell that was quite a shindig Jerry Blaine hosted for his distributors at Linn Burton's Steak House here.

RUTH BROWN

LOS ANGELES:

One of the biggest attractions of the year took place at the Shrine Auditorium 7/17 when Gene Norman presented his 5th Annual Rhythm and Blues Jubilee. Heading the list of attractions were The Chords, The Robins, The Four Tunes, and The Hollywood Four Flames. Top musical groups included were Chuck Higgins' band and Jake Porter's five man combo. Many other artists were added to the show but their names were not available at the time of this writing. . . . Dinah Washington opened at the Club Oasis 7/16 for

They will appear together on the same bill at the Elks Hall here in LA on August 1st. . . . The Ink Spots closed at the Trocadero in Hollywood and left for a two week stint at The Wagon Wheel, Lake Tahoe, Nevada. They will return soon for a new recording session. It is rumored that two of the tunes they will cut were written by songwriter Art Behning. It's always nice to know that there's still a few artists left who will give new writers a break. . . . Record crowds jammed Billy Berg's Five-Four Ballroom to see Fats Domino 7/9 thru 7/12. On July 16th Fats and crew opened for a three day stand at the Shermans Ballroom in San Diego. . . . Al Sherman, West Coast Representative for King Records, announced that they have signed The Five Royals, formerly on the Arolo label. First release on King is "Behave Yourself" b/w "I'm Gonna Run It Down".

Gene Norman Stages Rhythm & Blues Jubilee

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—Gene Norman's 5th Annual Rhythm and Blues Jubilee was presented at the Shrine Auditorium on Saturday, July 17th. Each year this event has increased both in audience appeal and importance. This edition promised to be a milestone in the parade of successes that the popular disc jockey has presented in Southern California.

Heading the list of attractions were several of the top vocal combinations of the nation, with orchestral backing from the most select bands and combinations that the impressario could impart. The Chords, currently riding high on the charts with their waxing of "Sh-Boom," shared the spotlight with The Robins, who recently cut the hit, "Riot in Cell Block #9." The Four Tunes, with "Sugar Lump" and "Marie" as their recent recordings and The Hollywood Four Flames, artists on "Oooh-La La" and Peggy," were among the other favorites that kept the show moving from start to climax. Christine Kittrell shared vocal honors as one of the single acts.

Among the many musical groups present were Chuck Higgin's band, Joe Liggins and his band and the five man group of Jake Porter. There were many other big names together with some outstanding single acts that were to appear on the show but whose names were unavailable at the time of this writing.

Norman Granz Signs Wallington For Norgran Label

NEW YORK — Pianist-composer George Wallington signed an exclusive record pact with jazz impresario Norman Granz and cut an LP album with his Trio recently, which will be released on Granz' new Norgran label. Wallington recorded six of his own compositions plus an original ballad, "Your Laughter," which was written by Patti McGovern, lead singer with the Honeydreamers, and wife of WOV Disk Jockey, Leigh Kamman. Wallington, who has been on the Prestige label for the past two years, also cut a seven piece band date for Blue Note before signing with Granz.

Saul Richfield Moves

NEW YORK—Saul Richfield has moved his publicity offices to 220 W. 42nd St., Room 1203.

Contemporary Records Signs Lennie Niehaus

LOS ANGELES — Contemporary Records of Los Angeles has just signed Lennie Niehaus, new alto star, composer and arranger, to an exclusive contract. Niehaus, who just finished two years in the army, was with Stan Kenton until drafted. There was spirited bidding for him by both major and independent recording companies.

Unknown for the most part, except among musicians, he is regarded by Contemporary V.P. Bob Kirstein as the finest young alto man to appear this year. Niehaus' first hi-fi album containing four standards and four originals, all arranged by himself, will be released in September. In addition to his alto, his composing and arranging will be featured by Contemporary. He has written for many band leaders including Jerry Wald, Kenton, and Woody Herman.

Niehaus holds California teachers' credentials in music and has composed several violin sonatas, woodwind trios, and clarinet quartets. "But my main interest lies in jazz," he says. "Especially along the lines of the West Coast modern school."

Cozy Cole Joins Jerome Ork at WPIX

NEW YORK—Cozy Cole, one of the great names in show business, along with Jack Teagarden, Barney Bigard, Louis Armstrong, Gene Krupa, and many others, has joined the Jerry Jerome orchestra at WPIX.

Cole, top notch percussionist, reached musical fame as a member of the Cab Calloway, Benny Goodman and Louis Armtsrong orchestras in addition to his own orchestra.

He gained his initial knowledge of music, and notably percussion, as a four-year student at the Julliard Conservatory of Music, after which he studied under the tutelage of Saul Goodman.

Cole's addition to the Jerome orchestra came shortly after Mary Osborne, guitarist and vocalist, joined the group, which furnishes the musical high-jinks for the "Bob Kennedy Show," two-hour variety feature spotlighting Kennedy, the former star of Broadway's successful "Oklahoma."

The "Bob Kennedy Show" is seen and heard in the New York Metropolitan area from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Jerome, also a former member of the Benny Goodman orchestra, has long headed his own aggregation at WPIX.

ARTHUR "BIG BOY" CRUDUP
(Groove 4G-0026)

ⓑ "SHE'S GOT NO HAIR" (2:41) [Monument Music BMI—Arthur Crudup] Crudup dishes up an infectious rhythm ditty. Beat is powerful and Crudup handles it in a manner that is sure to appeal. Should grab off some of the action.

ⓐ "IF YOU HAVE EVER BEEN TO GEORGIA" (2:30) [Monument Music BMI—Crudup] The under lid is a routine southern type blues adequately handled by the shouter.

JOHN LEE HOOKER

ⓑ "I TRIED HARD" (2:36) [Modern Music BMI—Hooker] John Lee Hooker sings a slow southern blues with a band backing and echo effect. Effective wax.

ⓑ "LET'S TALK IT OVER" (2:40) [Modern Music BMI—Hooker] More of same in style, treatment and effect.

LIGHTNING HOPKINS
(Decca 9-48321)

ⓑ "I'M WILD ABOUT YOU BABY" (2:49) [Northern Music ASCAP—Bob Shad] Lightning Hopkins is feeling on the gay side as he bounces out this happy sounding bouncer.

ⓑ "BAD THINGS ON MY MIND" (2:47) [Rockland Music BMI—Joe Luke] Lightning sings a slow blues with his typical Lightning treatment. Will please his flock of buyers.

BLINKY ALLEN

ⓑ "CHOPHOUSE" (2:45) [Flair BMI—Allen] A gay bounce instrumental is dished up by Blinky Allen and his orchestra. A happy sax rides the lead with a bit of drive and lightheartedness. A foot-tapper.

ⓑ "HIGH GEAR" (2:40) [Flair BMI—Allen] A similar piece of material and a similar treatment. Two good bouncy dance items for the jump crowd.

JAMES COTTON

ⓐ "COTTON CROP BLUES" (2:41) [Hi-Lo Music BMI—Cotton] A southern type blues in the guitar-wailing groove. Cotton does an effective job on a slow rhythmic effort.

ⓐ "HOLD ME IN YOUR ARMS" (2:40) [Hi-Lo Music BMI—Cotton] The flip is a fast moving southern blues. Cotton shouts it out with a big guitar support. Lyrics are a plea to his baby to hold him and squeeze him all night long. A country blues.

"IN THE CHAPEL IN THE MOONLIGHT" (3:05)
[Shapiro Bernstein ASCAP—Billy Hill]

"THANK THE LORD! THANK THE LORD" (2:11)
[Jubilee ASCAP—Jordan, Bass]

THE ORIOLES
(Jubilee 5154)

THE ORIOLES

• The Orioles, following in the vein of their big hit "Crying In The Chapel," come up with another

"Chapel" tender item in the slow tempo lovely "In The Chapel In The Moonlight." The Orioles treat the feathery pretty to a lush vocal and the sentimentalists, and who isn't, will eat it up. Should be the strongest offering by the Orioles since "Crying." The flip "Thank The Lord! Thank The Lord," is a middle tempo rocker that has the group chanting a change of pace with foottapping effectiveness. Juke box beat and juke box time (2:11), however, bulk of sales should be forthcoming from the "Chapel" side.

"WHAT'S THAT" (2:10)
[Bess Music BMI—Lowman Pauling]
"LET ME COME BACK HOME" (2:19)
[Bess Music BMI—Lowman Pauling]

"5" ROYALES
(Apollo 458)

"5" ROYALES

• The "5" Royales, whose every release is a sales puller of hit proportions, come up with another in "What's That." The ditty is a quick beat racer that drives with a momentum that approaches a frenzy. The wild treatment is heightened by a riding sax insertion that could be Charlie "Little Jazz" Ferguson. The boys keep the tempo going without a lost beat from beginning to end. An exhausting effort that is sure to get into the charts in short order. The flip, "Let Me Come Back Home," is a middle tempo bounce with a romantic set of lyrics, emotionally performed by the "5" Royales. A complete change of pace. The group has always been a two side hit team, but on this release we'll stick out our necks and go for the "What's That" side.

"SUGAR MAMA—PEACHY PAPA" (2:23)
[Venice BMI—Mayfield]

"YOU DON'T EXIST NO MORE" (2:40)
[Venice BMI—Mayfield]

PERCY MAYFIELD
(Specialty 499)

PERCY MAYFIELD

• Percy Mayfield sings out a rhythmic bounce item with an effervescence. The ditty is gay and light hearted, the beat bounces, the material is bubbly, the lyrics romantic. Unnamed fem supplies the foil for Mayfield. A good Summer hunk o' wax that could also appeal to the pop market. The flip, "You Don't Exist No More," is a slow blues ballad poured out by Mayfield with soul. Warm and feelingful evergreen. For immediate take-off it's "Sugar Mama."

THE ZION TRAVELERS

ⓐ "I MAY NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN" (2:35) [Aladdin Music — Zion Travelers] The Zion Travelers chant a middle tempo bounce spiritual with much feeling and good voice. Good gospel fare.

ⓐ "IF I COULD HEAR MY MOTHER PRAY AGAIN" (2:37) [Aladdin Music—Zion Travelers] Similar material with a like treatment. Lead singer generates an excitement against the steady rocklike chant background.

BOBBY PRINCE

ⓑ+ "TOO MANY KEYS" (2:43) [Excello Music BMI—Chas. Gonzales] Bobby Prince tells his fem there are too many keys that fit her front door. Humorous earthy lyrics set to a middle mambo tempo. Infectious lyrics, tempo and delivery.

ⓑ "PLEASE GIVE ME YOUR LOVE" (2:38) [Excello Music BMI—Chas. Gonzales] Prince sings a slow blues accompanied by a wailing sax and rhythm section. Prince wails a tune in good style and with lots of feeling. However, it's the top deck "Keys" for the big play.

THE VIBRANAIREs

ⓑ+ "DOLL FACE" (2:40) [Terrific Tunes BMI—Joel Turnero] Pretty romantic blues ballad is sweetly blended by the Vibranaire's for an extremely effective piece of wax. Group comes up with a solid sound and material is strong. Proper distribution could make this etching a potent sales puller.

ⓑ "OOH, I FEEL SO GOOD" (2:41) [Terrific Tunes BMI—Joel Turnero] Flip is a rocker socked out by the group. A happy treatment that makes this a good coupler for the ballad.

LULA REED

ⓑ+ "WONDERFUL LOVE" (2:16) [Royal BMI — Barrow, Page] Lula Reed sings a slow sentimental wail of the merits of love. Ditty has a good beat and Lula gives it a potent reading. Interesting guitar solo in one of the breaks lends flavor to the deck.

ⓑ+ "I'LL UPSET YOU BABY" (2:25) [Jay & Cee BMI—Thompson, Reed] Reverse deck is a mad jump that is rocked out by the effervescent fem shouter. Lula gives the tune everything she has and the deck comes out a strong waxing.

SONNY THOMPSON
(King 4729)

ⓑ "COTTON BALL" (Part 1 and 2) (2:38 and 2:34) [Jay & Cee BMI — Sonny Thompson] A middle tempo instrumental dished up with a mighty pleasing treatment and sound. Good listening and dancing wax. A showy piece.

CARL MATTHEWS
(Apollo 459)

ⓑ+ "CO-OPERATION" (two sides 2:15 and 2:15) [B. Patridge, A. Ellery] Another version of the funny story of the man whose fem provides the necessities and luxuries of life. A good treatment that should pick up action.

"A PRETTY GIRL" (2:47) [Geanette Music BMI]
"ANY DAY NOW" (2:45) [Geanette Music BMI]

BUDDY JOHNSON
(Mercury 70421)

BUDDY JOHNSON

• Buddy Johnson follows his "Ain't Cha Got Me Where You Want Me," with a light and unpretentious middle tempo bounce titled

"A Pretty Girl." Ditty is a cutie with the chorus and lead chanting all they need to make a rainy day sunny is to have a pretty girl, a Cadillac and some money. The ork dishes the melody in a zestful manner and the total result is one that fosters a prediction of sales. The flip, "Any Day Now," is a slow beat blues that comes out a strong side. Ella Johnson performs vocally on this deck and the etching could possibly move out on its own. It's a two sider with perhaps a shade in favor of the "Pretty Girl" side.

JAZZ

(Rating is based on appeal to the jazz market.)

LOUIS BELLSON
(Norgan 108)

B "FOR EUROPEANS ONLY" (3:05) [Bregman, Vocco & Conn ASCAP—Dameron, Redman] Louis Bellson and his band dish up a wild driving item with plenty of brass. Horns spotlighted against the steady ensemble work of the band as a unit with Bellson providing the glue to hold the beat.

B "LORIS" (3:57) [JATAP—Puma] It's the Louis Bellson Quintet on this deck. Platter features the cool solo playing of Bellson on the intro, Ralph Martin, Piano; Don Elliott, Melophone, Jue Puma, Guitar and Bob Peterson, Bass. Don Elliott carries the melody. A warm and pleasing waxing.

ROGER KING MOZIAN
(Clef 89118)

B+ "FORLORN" (2:39) [Home Town Music ASCAP—Mozian] The Roger King Mozian etches a melodic item with an oriental flavoring that swings with a modern and yet commercial sound. The sound Mozian gets out of his group is distinctive and infectious. Exposure should get this deck a good reaction.

B "JUST MOZIAN ALONG" (2:48) [HomeTown Music ASCAP—Mozian] The kids should jump to this type of music. Mozian employs a vocal group on a chorus of the gay bounce. Mozian has arranged to give out with a modern sound, commercial appeal and strong dance beat. A sure comer in the dance band biz.

BENNY CARTER with The OSCAR PETERSON TRIO & BUDDY RICH
(Norgan 111)

B+ "GONE WITH THE WIND" (2:55) [Bourne ASCAP—Magidson, Wrubel] Benny Carter is showcased with his great saxing by an all star cast of Oscar Peterson, piano; Barney Kessel, guitar; Ray Brown, bass and Buddy Rich, drums. Benny's ever delightful sax blowing is backed with the bouncy rhythm work of the trio and Rich for an ok platter.

B "I'VE GOT THE WORLD ON A STRING" (3:17) [Mills ASCAP—Arlen, Koehler] Benny Carter dishes up the lovely standard with a sweet sax tone that's melty and carries the melody line throughout. Rich and the Oscar Peterson Trio provide an unobtrusive rhythm support. Deck drifts from the strict cool esoteric toward the commercial vein.

MILES DAVIS SEXTET
(Blue Note 1618)

B "ENIGMA" (2:50) [Jay Jay Johnson] Miles Davis comes up with a soulful trumpet as he and the sextet etch a slow modern number. The sextet is composed of Davis, Jay Jay Johnson, trombone; Jimmy Heath, tenor sax; "Gil" Coggins, piano; Percy Heath, bass and Art Blakey, drums. Davis trumpet delivery on this deck is a moody sound in the night. It is a troubled piece performed with much feeling.

B "TEMPUS FUGIT" (2:53) [Bud Powell] For the flip deck the boys drive through a fast moving item with zest. Davis trumpet mood is completely changed as the group injects excitement and a bit of humor into the treatment.

Newcomer

WILSON, North Carolina — One of the newcomers to the ever expanding field of Country Music deejays is Lon "Lucky" Backman who emcees the daily "Dixie Ranch" show broadcast from WVOT, Wilson, N. C.

Lucky has been actively associated with show business since he was seven years old when his sister gave him a ventriloquial dummy she had on a punchboard. As a result, learning to manipulate the dummy to "throw" his voice, "Lucky" soon came into demand in grade school assemblies and later in high school.

Accompanying his ventriloquial accomplishments with a fast moving magic demonstration and emceeing, "Lucky's" talent became of service to the nation during World War II when he and his show business partner at that time, John Zandt, worked and directed several NCCS sponsored USO units in the Pacific Northwest.

While attending college at the University of Washington in Seattle and the College of William and Mary in Norfolk, Va., "Lucky" was active in dramatics and wrote and produced several radio dramas which were broadcast from WTAR in Norfolk.

Immediately following his graduation from William and Mary in Norfolk, "Lucky" married the former Dot Perry of Portsmouth. Dot is a tap dancer and was at one time connected with the Kemp Vaudeville Circuit.

While "Lucky" wrote for a daily newspaper, The Portsmouth Star, for years doing reviews of local talent acts, he and Dot formed the Dotlon Dramatical Agency and booked shows throughout the Tidewater, Virginia, and at Nags Head Beach in North Carolina.

"Lucky's" first radio job consisted of announcing election returns from the newsroom of The Star over Norfolk's WLOW. He later went to work time for WLOW as an all-night "popular" music deejay.

While associated with WLOW "Lucky" fell in love with Country and Western music, and as we all know this is a love that can't be concealed. "Lucky" states that one of his greatest honors was to be able to work with Sheriff Tex Davis at WLOW as his press agent. Sheriff Davis is known in the Country Music area as the Tidewater King of Hillbilly, and has promoted a series of Grand Ole Opry presentations in Norfolk which have featured some of the nationally outstanding Country Music artists, including Homer and Jethro, Grandpa Jones, Bonnie Lou, Hank Thompson, Little Rita Faye, Kenny Marvin, and The Carlises.

Since beginning his work at WVOT, "Lucky" has developed the early morning "Wake Up In Dixie" show into one of the most popular Country Music Shows in the Eastern Carolina area. His programming consists, as he says, "of playing the records Country Music fans want to hear—that means playing the best of the best there is."

"Lucky" says that what he likes best about C&W work is "the folks you find in it are genuine. None of them are too big to take time out to help a struggling newcomer, or too small to be significant in this great field of entertainment. The main thing is they are all real honest-to-goodness people with one love—and that love is other people which they express in their music."

Two Way DJ

CINCINNATI — Rex Dale of station WCKY in Cincinnati, proves he's a jockey any way you want to look at it, either with a turntable or on the track. Actually, Dale says, "It's my ace in the hole when and if platters grow cold." Suffice it to say Cincinnati's "two way disk jockey" is probably more at home at the turntables.

"THIS IS THE THANKS I GET" (2:45) [Hill & Range BMI—Dilbeck]
 "HEP CAT BABY" (2:00) [Alamo ASCAP—C. Coben]

EDDY ARNOLD
 (RCA Victor 20-5805)

Eddy Arnold is in the hit groove and it looks he's going to stay in it. His recording of "I Really Don't Want To Know" has been in the top sellers for many months and seems to defy the laws of gravity. Top deck of his newest two-sider features a heartfelt reading by the smooth-voiced Arnold on an exceptionally beautiful, slow tempo, sentimental ballad dubbed "This Is The Thanks I Get" (For Loving You). Flip portion "Hep Cat Baby" is a light hearted novelty bouncer with delightful lyrics and melody. Both ends can't miss landing in the hit category.

"SHOW ME THAT YOU LOVE ME" (2:03)
 [Acuff-Rose BMI—J. D. Miller]

"HOUSE OF GLASS" (2:07) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Terry, Theriot]

AL TERRY
 (Hickory 1012)

Al Terry, who broke into the charmed circle of winners with his first effort for the diskery, stands an excellent chance of making it two in a row. It was "Good Deal, Lucille" that made a solid impact upon record fans and it looks as though his waxing of "Show Me

That You Love Me" is gonna be a natural follow-up. The tune is an appealing, quick tempo love tune with a colorful instrumental backdrop. Under lid "House of Glass" is a sincere, middle beat item that gets its message across. Two strong sales pullers with the top half in the lead.

"ONCE AND ONLY ONCE" [Trinity BMI—F. Ebb, P. Klein]
 "IN THE CHAPEL IN THE MOONLIGHT" (2:26)
 [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP—B. Hill]

DARRELL GLENN
 (RCA Victor 20-5798)

The warm and inviting voice of Darrell Glenn takes the vocal spotlight once again as he weighs in with two potent contenders on his first Victor release. The artist gained national attention with his lovely version of "Crying In The Chapel" and could very well duplicate that feat as he takes hold of a very pretty, slow tempo romantic piece titled "Once And Only Once" and delivers it in grade "A" fashion. "In The Chapel In The Moonlight" on the flip is etched in similar money making style. Could be another "Chapel" for Glenn.

Dub Dickerson, "The Boy With A Grin In His Voice", presently touring Texas and Oklahoma, and Charlie Wright, Dickerson's manager, reports that the Capitol Artist is preparing for a series of half-hour transcribed radio shows. An arrangement has just been completed with Johnny Meredith, Philadelphia, Pa., who will produce the half hour programs, which will be known as "The Dub Dickerson Show", with coverage to fifty radio stations throughout the Country. Shows will run for five days a week, for thirteen weeks, and total sixty-five programs in their entirety. Bill Randle, Cleveland, has Darrell Glenn, now recording for RCA Victor, booked in the record hop in the Vogue Ballroom, July 16, 17 and 18. Jack Turner (RCA Victor) of WBAM, Montgomery, Ala. now on tour of Southern Alabama. Jack recently did a session for Victor and while visiting Nashville, appeared on Ernest Tubb's Record Shop Show. Boots Woodall scheduled for a vacation from his program at WAGA, Atlanta, this month. Jeanie Bennett doing a fine job as Personality Plugger for several of the artists. Jack Tucker and his Oklahoma Playboys busy these days with a Saturday TVer over KTTV, and a regular radio show on KXLA, plus playing the Hitching Post four nights a week. Jack recently opened at the Pala-

Tommy also paid a visit to the deejays in Shreveport. Big news from KWKH, and Shreveport way. Mitchell Torok, of the "Louisiana Hayride" schedule for his first tour into Canada in August. Torok, noted for his "Torok Tunes" which have occupied top spots on the nation's popularity charts in the past several months, has come into his own as an artist with his popularity growing in this respect much the same as his tunes. Torok will also make a personal appearance tour on the West Coast soon. Darrell Glenn, while on the rampage in California recently, visited with Jolly Joe Nixon, KXLA, and Cliffl Stone. Glenn also appeared on Hometown Jamboree with Molly Bell and Pinkie Lee, and met up with Tex Ritter, Tex Williams, Wesley Tuttle and a lot more folks. Reports from New England have it that Carl Stuart's striking resemblance to the late Hank Williams makes him a contender for the lead in M.G.M.'s movie about the chanter. Carl is the singing deejay of WCOP's Original New England Hayloft Jamboree. Eddy Arnold opened his first Summer TV stint of the year July 11th with an hour-long show. Arnold will use top personalities in future programs. Bill Monroe and his Bluegrass Boys set for park dates this summer according to Bessie Mauldin. Frankie More manager of Johnnie and Jack and Kitty Wells in Pennsylvania setting up promotion for acts work in that territory for next few weeks. Carl Smith and

Rusty Gabbard, writer of "I'll Be There" and "Much Too Young To Die" has signed a long-term, exclusive writer's contract with Acuff-Rose. Casey Strong who formerly held down deejay duties at KALT, Texarkana, Ark. has moved to KSIS, Sedalia, Mo. where he now has thirty hours of deejay work per week. In another deejay switch, Art Barrett of WABY, Portsmouth, Va., has left this station and has moved to WCMS, Norfolk, Va. Sherrif Tex Davis formerly of WLOW, Norfolk, Va. has also moved to WCMS in Norfolk. A few weeks ago there was mention in this column that Eddy Arnold and Webb Pierce's recording of Sacred Material could bring on other such recordings. This apparently has taken place, for now we find Jim Reeves with a Sacred release—"Padre Of Old San Antone" and "Mother Went A-Walkin'"—and, Hank Snow offers his first sacred release this year in "The Alphabet" and "My Religion's Not Old Fashioned" (But It's Real Genuine.) Lew Chudd, Imperial Record prexy continues to build his roster of Country and Western

Ernest Tubb and Red Foley team up on Decca for a solid session with a gay recording, "It's The Mileage That's Slowin' Us Down" and "Double-Datin'". The Carlises seem to have another good offering in their latest release "If You Don't Want It" and "Moody's Goose." Slim Whitman (Imperial) moving right along with his latest "Beautiful Dreamer" and "Ride Away." Hank Garland and Roy Wiggins of Harpeth Music, Inc. Brentwood, Tenn. report that Jimmie Osborne (King) has just recorded one of their songs, "I Did and I Does, and I Do." Sounds as if it should do something!!! Boots Woodall (Capitol) does a fine job on his latest "I'm Gonna Start At The Top," and "You're Gonna Learn To Love Me." News from Lou Epstein, Jimmie Skinner's manager, lets us know that "Skeeter Bonn" of WLW put out a record of his own that is going great guns in that area. Title of the song is "Honey Baby". So good, Lou reports that he has signed with RCA Victor and Victor is going to issue his master. Jimmie Williams, deejay over WNOP, Newport, Kentucky, has just added another hour, making his total four-and-half hours daily. Jimmie Skinner has just completed his third year of broadcasting over WNOP direct from his record shop. Jimmie's latest Decca release is "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" and one of his own compositions "John Henry And The Water Boy." Here and There

(Editorial Comment): On various occasions we have been accused of being overly optimistic about the economic condition of our great country. If the four following reports aren't sufficient to give cause for this type of cheerfulness, we don't know what will.)

NEW YORK—Ownership of life insurance rose to a new peak at the half way mark of 1954, with record purchases estimated at $18,600,000,000 for new policies in the first six months, the Institute of Life Insurance reported. This is more than $600,000,000 than in the corresponding period of 1953, and more than $3,500,000,000 than in the first half of 1952.

BOLTON LANDING, N. Y.—President Eisenhower, this week, proposed to the meeting of Governors at this resort town, that the states and federal government join in a multi-billion dollar road building program. It was pointed out that the roads of today are capable of handling only 20,000,000 cars, and that there are some 56 million on the road. Any country with about 160,000,000 population that owns 56 million cars can't be in too bad an economic position, can it?

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Office of Business Economics of the Commerce Department released figures this week that are highly encouraging and may be an indication of continued slow improvement in general business conditions. Personal income climbed in May to a rate of $285.2 billion a year, an advance of $800 million from April. The rise from April was due to an increase in farm income, and a slight rising of $2 millions in wages and salary payments. It was pointed out that the May advance marked the end of a series of consecutive monthly declines that began last July. It attributed the May advance to a lengthening of the workweek and increases in wage rates.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Savings bond sales for the first half of this year set a postwar record, the Treasury Department reported this week. Sales of Series E and H bonds totaled $2,516,000,000, the largest volume for the first half of any year since 1945.

How Much Does It Cost

..TO ORIGINATE, EXPERIMENT, ENGINEER, TEST, PRODUCE AND SELL A NEW MACHINE?

One of the most remarkable discords in the coin machines business is the constant cry from some engaged in the industry that the price of new equipment is much too high.

What is most irritating, especially to those who are constantly at work in an effort to produce finer money earning equipment for the field, is the fact that those who seem to howl the loudest regarding high prices of new machines, are the same people who do the least investigating to learn why prices are higher.

The average operator will agree that his 'cost of living' as well as his 'cost of doing business' is, today, greater than it has ever been.

Yet, these very same men will go along and recognize the increases which they are today paying for supplies and the myriad of necessities they require to continue to do business, in fact, even sympathize with the men selling them these requirements, but, will turn about and howl the loudest when they are quoted a price for a new machine.

These are the men who are most definitely invited to visit the manufactories and note what takes place prior to the presentation of a new machine for their inspection and purchase.

Few operators, especially among those doing the crying in regard to high prices, realize the cost of factory origination of a new machine. Such effort is guided by high salaried men. Men who have had many, many years of experience. These researchers go on day after day, week after week, month after month, constantly searching for something new, different and better for the operator's benefit.

Once the new idea comes out from their hidden cubicles in the factory it is then sent to engineering. Here engineers begin a long, patient and expensive experimentation process to learn whether, in the first place: this machine will prove equal to the task of attracting the public and, second: whether it will stand up under long and hard playing hours.

The machine is torn down and rebuilt. Perhaps a dozen times before the experimentation process is completed. Then the machine goes on to the production experts. Once again, it is torn down. Rebuilt. Torn down. Rebuilt. Until all that can be seen of what was the original machine are just parts lying about here and there on various work benches. Parts that are being calibrated, studied, and then studied again, and over again.

Now that all the various engineers and production men are satisfied that the machine will be as mechanically perfect as any piece of machinery can be made to be, they can now go ahead with the jigs, tools, dies and all else required to actually put the machine into production.

Once again hand models are built up. This time for test purposes. Now the factory's various test outlets are called upon and asked to place the new machine on locations in their territories. Usually a day to day check is made on test machines. After some weeks, even months in many cases, the machines are returned to the factory with a complete report regarding what happened on the various locations in different parts of the nation.

In the meantime, as the first location reports arrive, and provided they are favorable, purchasing agents are ordering the necessary materials and components while the factory is also building working parts. The production department is preparing for the first run. Thousands on thousands of dollars are spent far in advance of the first machine coming off the production line.

These components are priced tremendously higher than ever before in history, as is the cost of the great amount of labor necessary to construct these units higher than ever before, not to mention the labor cost of assembling the final product itself.

Aside from sales and advertising costs which are now involved, aside from a decent profit so that the manufacturer can continue to originate and experiment and prepare new equipment, aside from the myriad extra expenses which come about, the new machine must, because of tremendously increased costs in every strata of development and construction, sell for more than ever before.

Manufacturers who have discussed costs with the writer time and again simply urge that anyone who wants to realize what it costs today to produce a new machine should visit the factories and learn the facts.

This, surely, will cure many from any further howling about increased prices of new machines.

The cure can be even more simple than this. All the average man has to do is check on his own costs during just one day, from the first cup of coffee he has in the morning, until his dinner that evening.

The costs during that one day should convince any fair-minded individual that machines cannot be built and sold at the same prices of even two or three years ago, not to speak of the prewar era.

NEED FOR 10¢ PHONO PLAY NOW GREATER THAN EVER

Up-State N. Y. Op Urges "The Cash Box" To Continue Strong Editorial Program To Convince Phono Ops Of Extreme Necessity For Changeover To Dime Play

NEW YORK—Operators of music machines getting 10c, 3 for 25c, swear that they will never return to 5c play—claiming they would prefer to go out of business rather than change back to a nickel. Operators running their juke boxes at 5c, 5 for 25c or 6 for 25c, claim they would like to go to dime play. Some have tried it, most of the others just talk about how they would like to get a dime.

Many operators have changed over to 10c play, 4 or 5 plays for 25c; others have closed up their nickel chutes, making it necessary for the patron to play 2 for 10c, 5 for 25c. The latter method has made it possible to somewhat increase the play.

The excuses offered by both the earnest operator and the negligent operator are varied and in some instances have much merit. Most of the operators vehemently state they would like to go to dime play, but their competition doesn't permit the change. However, regardless of the excuses, in most instances, these men have never actually gone into the field and experimented with dime play.

There's an operator in New York City, amidst the large number of music operators offering the toughest kind of competition, who has been gradually changing over to dime play for the past number of months. This man has one of the largest music routes here, and is one of the most progressive and boldest in the city. He claims he's satisfied that the public would go for dime play, and that he's going to continue to change over most of his spots (some certain locations, he contends, do not warrant dime play at this time, but eventually he'll have his entire route changed over).

It is the opinion of many in the trade that the juke box operator could get dimes more easily if the phonograph manufacturers would produce their new models without a nickel coin chute. Then as these new machines are set out, dime play would eventually become universal.

One of the industry's most progressive operators, and one who has spent a lifetime in the business, in a letter to us urges that we use all of our influence to get the music ops to go to 10c, 3 for 25c play. "10c play," he writes, "is now more necessary than ever.

"Operating at 5c," he continues, "is simply not in the cards. An average is something that I do not usually tolerate, but at the same time I think a juke box that produces 20,000 plays or over in a year is good. At 5c, the most you can get is $1,000, to be split between the manufacturer, record wholesaler, automobiles, wages, overhead, commissions and last of all the operator. At 10c, 3 for 25c, the take could run to $1,600. At 10c, 5 for 25c, this would probably drop to $1,200."

We know that those juke box operators who are now running their machines at 10c would never return to a 5c play. However, as we've stated, many operators are either too timid or fearful to change from 5c to 10c.

Those operators running at a dime could be most helpful to the operators thruout the nation still getting only 5c. We would not ask the dime play operators to release figures of increases, or total collections, but we do think that if they would send us letters expressing their opinions, and we published them, it would be of tremendous value in stimulating action of 5c play operators to change over to dime play.

Drop us a note—The Cash Box, 26 W. 47th Street, New York 36, N. Y. Your letter could be the one to bring the entire juke box industry to a point where operators, in changing over to a dime, would enjoy a profit.

Conn. State Assn. Delegates Meet

HARTFORD, CONN. — The delegates of the Connecticut State Operators Guild met at the Depasquales restaurant, this city, on July 1. The main topic discussed was the need for greater teamwork and cooperation among the members. It was stressed that it has become more necessary now than ever before that all members take a greater active interest in the activities of the association. "Only thru greater participation by each and every member" stated Abe Fish, president, "can the association bring forth to the public the aims and aspirations of the coin operated machine business. Only thru more interest and effort of even the smallest operator can the association, in the field of public relations, show the public that it is as civic-minded as any other business in this great and glorious country of ours."

Glenn Kloffenstein of Meridan, joined the association, with the unani-

John A. Fitzgibbons, Former Distrib, Dies After Long Illness

JOHN A. FITZGIBBONS

NEW YORK—John A. Fitzgibbons, affectionately known as "Jack" thruout the nation, one of the industry's pioneers and at one time its leading distributor of amusement machines, died on Saturday, July 10, after a prolonged illness of seven years.

Before the advent of the pinball game (which started the coin machine industry off on its present day scale) Fitzgibbons was already well established in the field, roasting peanuts in a Brooklyn establishment. Prior to that, Jack was connected with International Mutoscope Reel Corporation as a field man.

From the peanut roasting business Fitzgibbons branched out into a jobber and distributor, moving to Manhattan. For a number of years, he acted as distributor for Bally Manufacturing Company, having a number of branch offices thruout the East.

When World War II started, Fitzgibbons retired. He returned shortly before the end of the war, manufacturing coin wrappers, and building "Universal" amplifiers for juke box operators. Upon the termination of the war, Fitzgibbons once more became active as a distributor of amusement machines, acting as national distributor for Al Scheslinger's roll down games.

Shortly thereafter, 1947, Jack was afflicted with a stroke and was unable to continue his activities.

Funeral took place Tuesday, July 12, from the Newfeld Funeral Home, Elmhurst, L. I., and burial was at Calvary Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife and a son, John, Jr.

National Assn. of Bulk Vendors Concludes Successful Convention

CHICAGO—The fifth annual convention of the National Association of Bulk Vendors, held at the Congress Hotel, this city, July 9-11, was called a terrific success by Rolfe Lobell, convention chairman.

"The large attendance, the tremendous amount of business experienced by the exhibitors, the interesting and beneficial information obtained from the talks, discussions and meetings, and the pleasant parties, all aided in making the convention a success," said Lobell.

It marked the first time that the convention was held independent of any other association. Previously, the NABV affair was held at the same time in the same city as other conventions.

Labled "The Vending Pageant of 1954," the three-day convention featured 17 exhibitors, who represented equipment manufacturers, product suppliers and charm companies.

New NABV officers elected for the 1954-55 term were Warner C. Smith, Dallas, president; Harry Bell, Chicago, vice-president; Moe Mandell, New York, treasurer, and H. B. Hutchinson Jr., Atlanta, secretary.

The board of directors for the coming term will include Sid Bloom, Los Angeles; Herman Eisenberg, Cleveland; Leo Ellingsworth, Minneapolis; Sam Eppy, New York; Ed Flanagan, Boston; Bert Fraga, Oakland; Dominick Gagliano, New Orleans; Bob Guggenheim, New York; Charles Kanak, Houston; Paul Crisman, Chicago; Rolfe Lobell, Chicago; Kenneth McPhail, Toronto; Leonard Quinn Columbus; Harris Shafton, Jacksonville; and Phil Sparacino, Chicago.

Honorary presidents are Alvin R. Kantor of Chicago, and Bernard K. Bitterman of Kansas City, Mo.

Mutoscope's New '54 "Drivemobile" Hits Big—Production Upped

WILLIAM RABKIN

Whereas International Mutoscope once was represented by leading distributing companies thruout the nation, since it only manufactured its Photomat, card vendors and 3-Dimensional picture machines, it was not necessary that sales be made thru distributing organizations. Now that it is back in full production with a "hit" amusement machine, Mutoscope is once again appointing leading distributing organizations thruout the nation to handle sales. A number of firms have already been appointed, and others are being selected as rapidly as possible.

"We will sell our new 'Drivemobile' thru distributors" stated Rabkin, "as we formerly did with our previous amusement machines. A complete roster of the foremost distributing organizations will soon be released. We were encouraged to enlarge our production of 'Drivemobile' by the insistent demand of operators thruout the nation for quantity shipments, and their reports of exceptionally high collections from the games on location. Another reason for appointing distributors is that we have several more amusement machines under consideration for manufacture to follow up on this present machine, and the distributor can look to Mutoscope for a complete line of amusement machines from now on."

Rabkin advised that "Drivemobile" is being manufactured under patents which fully protect the firm, and that many basic parts of the machine are also patented.

LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y.—William (Bill) Rabkin, president of International Mutoscope Corporation, is city, reports that the firm has made provisions to increase its production lines so that it can fill orders for its new amusement machine, the '54 "Drivemobile."

The new "Drivemobile" is the first amusement machine Mutoscope has manufactured in quite some time. After considerable tests on locations, the machine was shipped to several operating firms and arcade owners. Reports from these firms was so enthusiastic, and re-orders so prompt, Rabkin immediately made plans for large scale production.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

LOS ANGELES

All Southern California operators agree that business is holding up throughout Southern California and shows no signs of a slump. . . . In past issues we have tried to show how diversified many of the operators here in LA have become by introducing package deals to their locations. This package includes a juke box, game and cigarette machine. This trend has been very impressive as the number of ops running multiple operation steadily increases. Along with this trend comes the switching around of routes and combining of territories in order to eliminate far away spots and expensive overhead. They are realizing that it's more profitable to run more machines in smaller compact areas than to have large spread out routes.

V. Van Natten, sales manager for Auto Photo Company, reports that business is definitely picking up throughout the country and he expects the Summer and Fall months to be very good. Auto Photo execs. are on the look out for new patentable coin operated items which they can manufacture. . . . Al and Bruce Cane of Cane Distributing Company report that they are receiving many letters from operators everywhere commending the trouble free operation of the Rock-Ola "Comets". . . . The two newest members of the California Music Merchants Association, Los Angeles Division, are Richard Puck and Bob Reynard. . . . Hank Tronick of Minthorne Music Company says that they had had to gear their operations to conform with the annual vacation period. Bob Weber is now vacationing in Mexico City. We hear that the Minthorne's Phoenix manager Col. John Reese is doing a terrific job lining up operations at the new Ft. Huachuca Army Base. . . . Any operator who thinks they work too hard ought to follow Betty Blakeney around for just one hour as she goes about her duties at California Music Company and they'd be dead tired just from watching her. Martha Relgado recently spent a week vacationing at Laguna Beach. Tony Travers, and Jeri Southern were in at Calif. Music recently plugging their latest releases. Sam Ricklin stated that he is getting some very good reaction locally and out of town on the "Nelson Modernization Kit". They are the Southern California distributors for these kits. . . . We wish to welcome Stan Bogel into the coin machine business. He recently purchased a new route here in LA. . . . May we offer our condolences to San Diego operator E. E. Peterson whose son Vernal passed away. Funeral services were held July 8th. . . . Ray Provencher and Walter Bohme of the Electro Company recently moved their first cigarette machines out on location. . . . Heinz Heddergott, West Coast representative for National Rejectors, recently flew to Germany on a combined business and pleasure trip. He plans to tour all of Europe before returning.

We wish to offer our apologies. A few weeks ago we stated that Badger Sales Company would be closed on Saturday during the Summer. This was an error. They were closed over the July 4th week-end only and will be open each Saturday until noon throughout the Summer. Tom Sams, regional sales representative for AMI, Inc., was in town recently to confer with Bill Happel. After a real wing ding at Frank Sennes' Moulin Rouge in Hollywood, Fred Gaunt was going around the Badger emporium telling everyone about the lavish production and beautiful girls he saw. . . . Caught Nick Carter of Nickabob Sales Company and Ferdie Fjordingstad of Viking Amusement Company uncrating a brand new Genco "Rifle Gallery". . . . Charley Robinson and Al Bettelman of C. A. Robinson & Co. are all enthused over their first shipment of United's new "Banner" Shuffle Alley with many new features. Charley is proud as a peacock over his new Merc. convertible. . . . Recent guests of Mary and Kay So'le at Luenhagen's Record Bar was the new singing quartet, The Salmas Bros. . . . Coffee Time Manufacturing Co., this City, recently introduced a new coffee vendor which has no mixing bowl and does away with powder buildup and waste. This new machine has many outstanding features and eliminates the chief complaints of local health authorities. Machine vends coffee with or without cream and sugar to satisfy individual tastes. Patron also has the choice of one other drink; hot chocolate, soup or tea, 600 cup capacity. Light flashes on when cups are gone and machine shuts off automatically until refilled.

We've been having some plenty hot weather here in LA but it's nothing compared to the sultry heat of the San Joaquin Valley. Pete Ley was commenting about the weather in the valley recently. He stated that it's so hot up there that even the jack rabbits carry water bags. Up Fresno way operator Fay Replegle has been busy remodeling his West side bar and installing a new cooling system in order to beat the heat. . . . Jim Murphy, Inyokern, is the proud papa of a brand new baby girl by the name of Sandra Ruth. . . . Vern Ephrom, Bakersfield, recently left on a two week trip. . . . Frank Totzke, Mojave, has been busy working the route while his partner Eileen Bloomer takes life easy at June Lake. . . . Ray Salmon and O. J. Simms came in from Las Vegas, Nevada, recently to take care of business. . . . Coinrow has been crowded with many out of town visitors. . . . Bill Gordon drove in from Brawley to visit here and there. . . . Al Miller come in from Blythe to take care of business. . . . Manuel Trevino from Oxnard was seen along the Pico Strip along with Reed Olson from Tarzana and Noble Craver who drove up from San Diego. . . . Other visitors included "Pop" Burris, Montebello; Dick Gray, San Bernardino; Frank Thompson, South Gate; Bill Bolton, Oceanside; Ivan Gilbert, Alpine; Ernie Bryant, Glendale; M. G. Janes, San Bernardino and M. V. Conners, Downey. . . . Ben Counselman and Carl Lykke both drove in from Santa Ana. "Mel Heiman, arcade operator at Crestline, was also in town. . . . James Crook from the Western Amusement Company in San Diego was another visitor who was seen buying equipment.

At the Paul A. Laymon Company Ed Wilkes and Charley Daniels were discussing the favorable comments they had been getting on the new bump action feature of the Bally "Hi-Fi". They added that it looks like a real winner. The boys have been taking plenty of orders on Bally's new "Moon Ride" Kiddie Ride. Ed Wilkes recently celebrated his birthday but he isn't saying which one.

Northern New England ops are complaining of the cool summer. Not sufficiently hot to lure the city dwellers to the wooded spots. Southern New England ops, however, report abundant business with jam-packed crowds all over the Cape. Despite the absence of real scorching hot weather, which has cooled men's ardor for summer suits and raised havoc with the men's furnishings business, the coin business in the six-state region is enjoying one of its best seasons according to reports from ops. Bob Jones, sales manager Redd Distributing Co., came back from a deep sea fishing trip sporting a poster red sunburn. . . . Moon's Showing In Savannah, Ga., Brings Out Ops

ATLANTA, GA.—C. O. Moon, Variety Distributing Company, this city, returned home after holding a two-day showing of amusement machines at the Savannah Hotel, Savannah, attended by operators from the entire state.

Moon was enthused over the reception of the equipment displayed, and reported operators placed quite a number of orders. On exhibit were the bowling games of J. H. Keeney & Company, "Bikini" and "Century," as well as the Keeney cigarette vendor; Exhibit's "Shooting Gallery"; and Mutoscope's '54 "Drivemobile."

Chester Biezad from the Keeney factory demonstrated the Keeney machines, and explained the mechanical workings of the machines. V. N. Allbritten, regional representative from the Keeney firm, was also on hand assisting Biezad and Moon.

Some of the Savannah operators seen at the showing were Sam Goldberg; Frank Knight of Knight Music Company with his serviceman Ben Rivers, and a new serviceman training under Knight and Rivers, Bill Oliver; and Jimmie Dukes.

Moon was so elated by the success of the showing, he indicated that he will hold another showing in Savannah, and probably other cities in Georgia as well, in the fall.

WOW! Was it hot this week. If it keeps up over the week-end, beach and country resort areas will be loaded. Those complaining about the cool weather we've been having on week-ends, will probably complain that the weather was too hot. Whatever the effect, ops with equipment in these spots will average the season off as usual—with good biz. There's no question of that at all. With each succeeding year, due to the fine money-making equipment in operation, business in these areas continues to improve. The city ops if the weather continues "blazing," will surely drop off. But, most of these operators themselves will be at some beach or resort, relaxing from the heat and stress of business.

Bill Rabkin, president, and Herb Klein, sales manager, International Mutoscope Corp., tremendously enthused over the extraordinary acceptance of their new '54 "Drivemobile." This is the firm's first amusement machine in a long while, and in order to serve the country's operators, a distributor organization is once again being set up. At this time several leading distributing firms have been lined up, and others are being signed every day. The entire nation will soon be covered, with distributors in every area, according to Rabkin. . . . In addition to donating many juke boxes throughout the year, Atlantic-New York Corp., contributes cash to many charitable causes. Among letters of acknowledgement Meyer Parkoff and Harry Rosen are most proud of, are those from the National Catholic Community Service, Federation of Protestant Welfare Agencies, UJA, and National Jewish Hospital of Denver. The personnel of Atlantic join in with the firm in these donations. . . . Willie Levy, the ever-smiling Miami operator, in town visiting his old stamping grounds. Willie's wife spending some of the three weeks in the Catskill Mountains, but their daughter remains in the big city all of the time—some special attraction, no doubt. . . . Felix Fleischman, Runyon's Newark, N. J. manager, away on a vacation. Barney (Shugy) Sugerman and Abe Green, heads of the firm, advise they cannot tear themselves away for a summer rest.

Charlie Rubenstein, owner of several arcades, and the one on 42nd Street and 8th Ave., gets quite a write-up in the July 3 issue of the New Yorker. Comment is made especially about the juke box there, which provides only top opera and classical music (10c per play). Charlie's son, Bernard, playing stock in Bushkill, Pa., (leading roles) making quite a reputation. . . . With the arcade business getting the above wonderful comments, this week Westbrook Pegler, in his Hearst syndicated column, takes a particularly vicious slap at 42nd Street, between 7th and 8th Ave., and includes the arcades in his diatribe. While the arcade men are disturbed, they're not taking it too seriously, as it is well known here that Pegler never has a good word to say about anybody or anything. . . . Dave Stern, Seacoast Distributors, in town all day Tuesday, but that's all for the week. He just installed an air-conditioning unit in the Elizabeth, N. J., plant, and with the weather as it is, who can blame him for wanting to stay there. Bob Slifer advises that he's so busy, he hasn't time to notice the heat. . . . Tommy and Joe Greco, Greco Bros., Glasco, N. Y., on coinrow, buying and trading. They're both big fellows, and as they go from wholesaler to wholesaler, the sweat just pours off them. Tommy comments: "There must be an easier way to make a living." . . . Joe Young and Abe Lipsky, Young Distributing, spend the entire day, Tuesday, seeing Westchester ops, while Allie Goldberg holds down the office chore. . . . Hymie Koepfel's daughter, Gilda, a children's counselor at Pearl Lake Hotel, Parkville, N. Y. Hymie takes a long week-end off and drives up to pay the girl a visit. . . . Bob Luttmann, young, handsome op, spends three days a week on the golf links. We understand Bob shoots in the 70's. Bob advises he's been trying to get his pal and mentor, "Senator" Al Bodkin to take up the game, so that they can spend some time together on the golf course. "Can't get the 'Senator' to take his nose away from the grindstone," Luttmann sighs. . . . Helen Goetz, Capitol Automatic Music Co., back from a week's trip to Washington, D. C. Al Claire, Capitol's manager, advises he can't get away for a summer vacation, but hopes to find time this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Grundeen, Northwest Piano Company of Minot, N. D. took a few days off and came down to the Twin Cities for over the 4th of July. While in town Eric looked over the latest in pin games and bowlers. . . . Frank Ponterio of Worthington, Minn., is bragging about his golf game these days. What is the handicap Frank? . . . Amos Heilicher, Mercury Record distributor for this area left for Miami, where Mercury is holding a meeting of all its distributors. . . . Joe Reali of Cornell, Wis., made a quick trip into the Twin Cities to pick some machines for some new spots. . . . Chet Le Deux, Northern Novelty Company of Hibbing, Minn., spent several days in the Twin Cities shopping for equipment for his route. . . . Bob Aherin of La Moure, N. D., made one of his usual quick trips into town. Bob said the only thing that slowed him down was lower speed limits on the highways and also the new radar speed traps.

Frank Coubal of Bloomer, Wis., is sporting a new station wagon. Frank says that it is easier for him to get around and take care of his locations with the new buggy. . . . Stan Woznak of Little Falls, Minn., reports that he has been so busy that he has not had a chance to do any fishing the past couple weeks. . . . Seen in the Twin Cities last week picking up supplies and equipment for their routes were: Frank Davidson of Spooner, Wis.; Pete Kramer of St. Cloud, Minn.; Gerald Johnson of Menomonie, Wis.; Jack Harrison of Crosby, Minn.; Kelly Diedrick of Chaska, Minn.; Lawrence Heinen of St. Cloud, Minn.; Harry Galep of Menomonie, Wis.; Pete Wornson of Mankato, Minn., and Charlie Sersen of St. Cloud, Minn. . . . Word has been received of the death of Harold Whisman in Inglewood, Calif. Harold was associated with his father Milo Whisman who operated a route in the area in and around Hibbing, Minn., until he sold out to Chet Le Deux in 1950. The Whismans operated a bowling alley in Minneapolis until 1953 when they moved to California.

Vince Shay away for a week. . . . Art Janacek, service manager at Rock-Ola, ran around like a mad man and did the work of eight people during the firm's vacation the past two weeks. Distributions all over kept calling for phonographs and wallboxes. . . . Andy Bruno, local op, tangled in a little golf the other Saturday with Mike Spagnola. "Andy beat me and taught me a lesson," says Mike. He didn't mention it, but we know that it was only Mike's second outing on the links this year.

All who were in attendance at the NABV Convention held here at the Congress Hotel deemed it a real success. It marked the first time that the convention was not held at the same time and in the same city as affairs of other associations. . . . Sam Lewis, Avron Gensburg and Ralph Sheffield are mighty happy to have the Genco plant back at work after a week's vacation. They were tearing out their hair as orders kept pouring in for "Rifle Gallery." . . . Ben Coven enthusiastically reports that Lew Jones and George Wagner are doing a tremendous job in the Indianapolis office of Coven Distributing Company. . . . Place to Be: Dominican Republic or Haiti at the present time. Take it from J. Raymond Bacon, Rock-Ola veep, it was wonderful there. He spent 10 days in the former place and 10 days in the latter. "It was hot in both places," Ray recalls, "but it did not feel as sultry as Chicago. The humidity was low while a soft, constant breeze off the sea kept it very comfortable. The wind would change and come from the mountains on the other side at 6:30 every evening—so exact you could set your watch by it."

The weather and business, as usual, are chief topics of discussion for coin machine men these days. Soaring temperatures bring much comment from members of the trade. Such comment is usually unfavorable in nature. Business, the majority of the trade feels, is also undergoing somewhat of a rise, dog days or no dog days, and comment about it is indeed favorable. One distributor remarked that as far as his firm is concerned there will be no dip in business this summer as things are picking up throughout his area. An operator reported that his collections haven't fallen off at all. He is happily experiencing a steady rise in location earnings. Overtime schedules speak for the business picture as far as the manufacturers are concerned. Whereas everybody talks about the weather and does nothing about it, the trade, although commenting much about the coinbiz, does very much about it. Such fine doings are accomplished by reflective study, better equipment and plain "punching" way.

"Business wise and climate wise, things are perk' along," says Herb Perkins of Purveyor. Monty West, back from a trip around Central Illinois, paints a pretty picture of business conditions as does Joe Perkins via the telephone from Iowa and Nebraska. . . . Art Weinand and Ed Hall, busy as ever on the phones, report that sales are going along nicely for Exhibit Supply products. Ed, who is one of the most prolific boosters of "Shooting Gallery," says "They're buying the gun game in quantity now." Art says that initial tests on Exhibit's new kiddie ride, soon to be officially announced, are showing that the ride possesses phenomenal money-making possibilities. Lindquist & Robbins Sales in Evanston is setting up a new ride a day as kids are mobbing those at hand. . . . Sincerest condolences are extended to Maurie and Eddie Ginsburg whose mother, Anna, passed away last week.

According to Fred Weale, secretary pro tem of the newly formed association of Southern Illinois coin operators, "The purpose of organizing the Illinois Coin Operated Amusement Machine Association, in conjunction with MOA, is to obtain fair legislation in federal, state, county and city governments. The association is needed by all concerned." The next meeting of the association will be held at 3 p. m. on Sunday, July 25, in the VFW Auditorium, Mt. Carmel, Ill. Operators may sign up as charter members for $5. Monthly dues are 10 cents per music machine. . . . George Kozy, A. B. T. general sales mgr., issues an invitation which is particularly to our liking: "Drop around often and you can sit in our air-conditioned office." George wants one and all to know that he will be in Booth No. 409 at the NAMA convention and exhibit in Washington, D. C., this coming October. "I'll be featuring the new A. B. T. 'Sentry Multiple Plug Rejector,'" says George. . . . Looking hither and yon for a barbecue chef who can turn out tasty hamburgers a la Sam Stern. Guess we'll be looking until the cows come home.

Paul Huebsch and the gang over at J. H. Keeney blasted out with a bang this past Friday for the firm's annual two-week vacation. They'll blast in again come August 2. . . . The ever-present twinkle in the eyes of Vince Shay has been enhanced further by the sparkling play of his nephew, Tom, second baseman for the Oak Park American Legion Junior baseball team. American Legion Junior ball is one of the major stepping-stones to a career in professional baseball. Two-thirds of the present big-leaguers are graduates of the Junior baseball. Herb Oettinger's son and heir, Julian, will be eligible for Legion play next year. . . . When asked what's cooking, Ed Peters said, "The heat of course." Ed dropped into Chi from Peoria for a few days and reported, "Things are pretty fair out my way." A rabid St. Louis Cardinal and Chicago White Sox fan, friendly Ed would like to see both of these teams hooked up in the World Series. . . . Speaking of fans, Bill O'Donnell is a plugger of the Go-Go Sox and Bally's "Hi-Fi." Over the phone or by direct confab, Bill has something nice to say about both.

Charles (Jimmy) Johnson, the original fireball, says the heat wave hasn't resulted in any noteworthy fires and hasn't hindered business in the least bit. . . . The welcome mat was spread out this Monday for all the Gottlieb employees returning from vacation. Alvin Gottlieb advises that all were rarin' to get the production lines a movin'. . . . Ed Levin on a well-earned vacation. . . . Sales and production are up at ChiCoin, much to Ed's satisfaction. . . . National's Tom Schwartz on a two-week leave and Sheldon Spira buzzing around Illinois and Wisconsin, leaving Joe Schwartz and Mort Levinson back home at the port. . . . One of Michigan's adopted sons on occasions is Bill DeSelm, United's man-in-motion general sales manager. . . . Don Moloney will have to get his cold soup bone warmed up all over again as rain postponed the recent shutdown battle between Donan and the TV department of Lion Mfg. Company. Pitcher Tom has Tom Cath backing him up at first and Mac (Hot Corner) Brier at third. Incidentally, Tom, who visited Spring Valley Monday, won the office all-star baseball game pool by selecting the eighth inning for the American League's winning run. Last week, Don was out on sales in Rockford and Mac in Rock Island.

Besides Buddy Morrow and his orchestra of RCA Victor, the fifth annual golf tournament and banquet of the Recorded Music Service Association will feature Bill Snyder of Decca, Lola Dee, Jerry Mann and Nick Noble of Mercury and Tommy Leonetti and Dorothy Shay of Capitol plus others, Ray Cunliffe reports. . . . Ben Coven advises that the third annual picnic for Coven employees and their families held recently at Third Lake, Ill., was a complete success. About 60 people attended the affair, and Ben noticed a decided increase in the size of the families. . . . Sight to See: Empire's human octopus in the form of Stan Levin grasping three phones at once. Howie Freer on vacation and
