OF

August, 1965

Dear Friends:

One of the most inspired and oft repeated slogans is the present Rheingold Beer's "We don't know what it is—but we must be doing something right."

As Cash Box presents its Annual Directory and 23rd Anniversary Issue, we would like to borrow this pertinent statement—with an important change. "We must be doing something right"—BUT we KNOW what it is.

Cash Box, for 23 years, has been serving the industry, and serving it well. We KNOW the needs and problems of the Music and Record firms—and direct our complete energies and intelligence to help make it grow and prosper. One of the reasons, perhaps, for the continuing and expanding success of Cash Box is its faculty to remain young, to keep up with the musical times—yet to be fully cognizant of the fact that what is old is not necessarily out-of-date in terms of the demands of the industry thruout the world. An unusual combination of youth, experience and know-how.

As the World of Music continues to flourish and grow, Cash Box is grateful that its stature, as the leading trade publication, is given the opportunity to grow with it. We thank all our friends thruout the world for making it possible.

IS THE HIT NUMBER FOR 1965

It's the patent number just awarded us for The Audiomatic Process, the system that makes the best all-nickel masters, mothers and stampers—and makes them fastest. When you're ready to process your next hit number, remember Audio Matrix patent number 3,186,932.

Heavy duty horizontal extruder

Console model extruder

Audiomatic compounders are built to work hard for years. They handle pure or filled material in any form—dry blend, pellets or granular. They extrude a neat round biscuit with a hole in the middle. There are no messy spaghetti strands.

Our console model* is an engineering beauty, less than three feet high. Our high capacity horizontal model is a real work horse that can serve two or more LP presses.

No wonder they are the choice of leading pressing plants on four continents. Call or write today for more information.

CASH BOX 1965 DJ POLL RESULTS

The following poll results are based on a survey of 4000 disk jockeys in America, and cover, where applicable, a 12 month period ending July 1. Winners in each category are stated as compiled; therefore some artists may appear in "most programmed" and "most promising" categories. Each disk jockey determined those categories in which disk jockeys were to be represented.

RECORD PEOPLE SAY WE'RE THE WORLD'S CAPITOL.

If the record you're looking for was made in Hong Kong instead of Hollywood, or Beirut instead of New York, come to us.

We import records from all over.

Time was, you had to go directly to the source to get the record you wanted. That involved a lot of paper work, translations, customs, foreign exchange, and all that. Then, we went to work and simplified things.

Now you just come to Capitol Records International, and you get the labels you want, extra-fast, direct from New York.

(Choose from the vast catalogs of Electrola, English-Columbia, H.M.V., La Voce del Padrone, La Voix de Son Maître, Odéon and Pathé.)

So, cash in on fast-moving import sales the easy way. Contact your man at the Capitol — the Capitol Records International Corp., 1290 Avenue of the Americas, New York City 10019.

RELIABILITY. Everyone at Columbia Record Productions makes it a byword—in both order service and sales. Reliability that means your custom record order will be expedited promptly and delivered on time. Shipments leave the factory and arrive by low-cost truck at 85% of the country's record markets, overnight. Columbia Record Productions has three plants, strategically located in New Jersey, Indiana and California. There are no unnecessary delays. Each has the capacity to produce large quantity and high quality work. You also receive the gratifying reflected saving to the distributor because of the great volume of records sent from the plants in consolidated shipments. Let us prove the reliability that this complete operation promises. Call or write today.

Why take slow for an answer?

Capitol Custom takes the shortest possible time—while giving the highest possible quality—between lacquer mastering and finished product.

You never take slow for an answer.

Capitol has studios in Hollywood and New York City.

Pressing plants East and West, too. One of the world's largest in Scranton, Pa. The world's most modern in Los Angeles. If your distribution needs twin-coast production, lacquers can be produced in New York and Hollywood simultaneously to save time.

And you can be sure that the same strict quality control of a Capitol product is applied to your pressing as well.

That's why people who think twice before going on record use Capitol Custom Services. They've found they get the best of everything—high-speed service and quality sound. And they've found they pay no more—in fact, they often pay less—for the best!

GOLDEN ALBUMS

THE LIST OF ALBUMS BELOW REPRESENTS THOSE RELEASES THAT THE RECORD INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA (RIAA) HAS CERTIFIED AND AUDITED AS HAVING EACH SOLD AN AMOUNT WORTH AT LEAST $1 MILLION AT FACTORY PRICES. THEY CONSTITUTE, NEEDLESS TO SAY, THE EVERGREEN CATALOG OF LP MERCHANDISE—IN ALL PHASES OF MUSIC—CURRENTLY AVAILABLE. THERE IS ALWAYS CONSUMER INTEREST IN THEM, AND WISE IS THE DEALER WHO CAN IMMEDIATELY FULFILL THE REQUEST FOR MOST, IF NOT ALL OF THE GOLD-DISK ALBUMS. DISPLAY OF THIS SHEET ALONG SIDE A BROWSER CALLED "GOLDEN ALBUMS" COULD INCREASE SALES.

What are these names doing on $2. records? The same thing they do on $3.98 records.

Belting out great pop hits. Blowing, strumming and stomping jazz classics and country and western favorites. Giving new life to symphonic classics.

Here's what Pickwick/33's are all about.

We've taken big names, the ones that normally sell for $3.98 and put them on $2. records.

Names like Sammy Davis, Jr., Jack Jones, Johnny Rivers, Pete Fountain, Nelson Riddle, Billy May, Della Reese; country and western stars like Johnny Cash, Patsy Cline, Johnny Horton, Faron Young, classical artists like Leinsdorf, Steinberg, Milstein and Firkusny; and the exciting Parris Mitchell Strings and Voices.

Incidentally, our recording stars are not just making guest appearances on our albums. When it says Sammy Davis, every band is a Sammy Davis selection.

Since we've got $3.98 recording stars, we've given them $3.98 sound reproduction. Tap quality pure vinyl pressings.

And Pickwick packaging would stand up to any around. Striking full-color designs, on high-embossed stock, and wrap-around jackets. We've even added an exclusive "Pinch Back Spine" for convenient stacking.

All of which makes Pickwick/33 a unique recording label.

It's a line of $2. records of such high performance and quality level that $2. is a pre-discounted selling price. (Our classical Pickwick/33 line is priced at $2.50, monaural or stereo.)

Which means Pickwick/33 gives you a high turnover line plus something you've never gotten in a $2. record—or in many $3.98 records.

Profit.

Call or write your own local distributor or Pickwick International, Pickwick Bldg., L.I.C., N.Y. 11101. Code 212-EM 1-8811.

ASCAP

The Music of America

of Composers, Authors and Publishers has a membership of more than 10,000 men and women who create and publish the music of our nation.

Our members are active in every field of musical literature:
Broadway shows, motion pictures, television, radio, religious, symphonic and concert, country and folk music — all these are included in the ASCAP repertory.

The music which ASCAP offers, through its system of licensing, provides the one essential vital to the entertainment and pleasure of the public. In brief — ASCAP music is the music of America.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

BRIGHT LIGHTS AND COUNTRY MUSIC (2:35)
[Moss Rose, Champion BMI—Anderson, Gately]

BILL ANDERSON (Decca 31825)

Following up his recent charter, "Certain," Bill Anderson should be right back in hitsville with this self-penned deck. The side to watch, "Bright Lights And Country Music," is a rhythmic, stompin' woe-er of a feller trying to wipe out his heartaches with high living. "Born" is a lowdown, forlorn ballad of a man who has heartaches written in his stars.

HELLO VIETNAM (3:06) [New Keys BMI—Hall]

MEXICO CITY (2:00) [Kitty Wells BMI—Anglin]

JOHNNY WRIGHT (Decca 31821)

Not far behind his "Blame It On The Moonlight" success, Johnny Wright aims for a chart position once again with this timely tune, called "Hello Vietnam." The item is a heartfelt, patriotic, chorus-backed ballad of a man ready to leave his home to defend freedom. "Mexico City" is a lilting, happy-sounding ditty about a man heading south to see his woman.

LIVIN' IN A HOUSE FULL OF LOVE (2:12)
[Al Gallico BMI—Sherrill, Sutton]

DAVID HOUSTON (Epic 9831)

No newcomer to hitsville, David Houston makes another strong bid for chartdom with this bouncer, titled "Livin' In A House Full Of Love." The tune is a barrellin', high-falutin' rip-snorter about a feller whose dismal life has been brightened up since his gal came along. The flip, "Cowpoke," is a haunting, bittersweet lament of cowboy who's lonely but happy.

JUST A STATE OF MIND (2:33) [Buckhorn BMI—Gantry, Hass]

IT'S ALL OVER NOW, BABY BLUE (2:45)
[Witmark & Sons ASCAP—Dylan]

LEROY VAN DYKE (Warner Bros. 5650)

Vet country chanter Leroy Van Dyke, with lots of hits behind him, should have another money-maker with this lonely sound, called "Just A State Of Mind." Tune is a sad, haunting story of a man who has to leave his woman to follow the call of his wandering feet. The flip, "It's All Over Now, Baby Blue," is a harsh, anti-war, Bob Dylan comp that could make noise in both country and pop areas.

STOP THE WORLD (And Let Me Off) (2:00)

WAYLON JENNINGS (RCA Victor 8652)

Waylon Jennings could make a big noise with this catchy number, called "Stop The World (And Let Me Off)." Side is a well-done, contagious heartbreaker of a fella who played the game of love and lost. "The Dark Side Of Fame" is a slowed down, grief-stricken tale of a man who gains recognition but loses the things that really matter.

LET'S WALK AWAY STRANGERS (2:38)
[Cedarwood BMI—Joy, Tillis]

CARL SMITH (Columbia 43361)

Carl Smith should generate plenty of sales excitement with this top-notch outing, dubbed "Let's Walk Away Strangers." This one is a tender, shuffle-beat lament that deals with a feller who's calling a halt to a cheatin' romance. Undercut, "Ain't Love A Hurting Thing," is also a shufflin' weeper with plenty of potential.

WITCHES BREW (2:20) [Dolfi, AMG, ASCAP—Edwards, Joseph]

JOHN BROWN'S TEN LITTLE INDIANS (2:15)

RUSS EDWARDS (Musicor 1104)

Russ Edwards stands a real good chance to bust out with this fast-moving stanza, titled "Witches Brew." This one is a pounding, light-hearted spiel of a man trying to find a way to win his gal's love. The undercut, "John Brown's Ten Little Indians" is a rollickin', rousin' saga of a man who weds a young Indian maiden and wants a tribe of his own.

JEANNIE SEELY (Challenge 1250)

(B+) WHAT AM I DOING IN YOUR WORLD (2:07) [4 Star Sales BMI—Belew, Bush Moore] Newcomer Jeannie Seely has an excellent femme answer to the current Eddie Arnold giant, and could easily make a national name for herself with this one.

(B+) TODAY IS NOT THE DAY (2:19) [4 Star Sales BMI—Seely, Talley] The lark comes across with more of the same good stuff with this feelingful, dual-track blueser about a gal who can't rid herself of her heartaches.

GRADY MARTIN (Decca 25676)

(B+) FOREVER (2:27) [Tree BMI—Killen] Vet guitarist Grady Martin has come up with an excellent revival of the oldie. Should get plenty of airing on stations and juke boxes.

(B+) RING OF FIRE (2:32) [Painted Desert BMI—Carter, Kilgore] Another topnotch updating on this side. Either lid could make a big breakout.

GINNY WRIGHT (Chart 1250)

(B+) (The Answer To) THE BRIDGE WASHED OUT (2:06) [Peach SESAC—Louis, David, Melshee] Ginny Wright may very well step right into the national spotlight with this impressive answer to the current Warner Mack biggie.

(B+) UNDECIDED (2:21) [Yonah BMI—Josey] Here the lark does a nice job with a real slow, touching tune about a gal who's cheating ways have left her up in the air.

KITTY HAWKINS (Capa 127)

(B+) LOVE ME BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE (2:32) [Law BMI—Allen] Kitty Hawkins shines nicely with this pretty, bittersweet ballad of a gal pleading with her man not to break up their romance.

(B+) MY EVERYTHING (2:21) [Law BMI—Hawkins] This lid is a swaying, self-penned tale of a couple that's forced to break up their illicit affair.

LON COLLINS (Monument 895)

(B+) TWO WORDS ENDED IT ALL (2:23) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant, Bryant] Lon Collins could make a lot of coin with this thumpin', bluegrass-flavored wooser about a fella whose gal has said goodbye.

(B) COMING BACK FOR MORE (2:35) [Pamper BMI—Carter] Flip is a rhythmic, twangy pounder of a man who refuses to be put down by gals' cold shoulder.

SONNY JOE IVY (Jewel 1352)

(B+) TAKE ME BACK (2:06) [Su-Ma BMI—Dupin] Sonny Joe Ivy might get a lot of reaction to this plaintive, heartfelt plea of a man begging for forgiveness from his girl.

(B+) BEGGING FORGIVENESS (2:25) [Su-Ma BMI—Dupin] On this side the chanter comes across with more of the same.

BOBBY LEE TRAMMELL (Sims 8821)

(B+) I TRIED (2:15) [English BMI—Trammell] Bobby Lee Trammell makes a nice effort for attention with this self-penned deck. Top side is a real lowdown, hurtin' tale of a man predicting heartbreak for his fickle gal.

(B) AM I SATISFYING YOU (2:00) [English BMI—Trammell] This one is a hard-paced, twin-market stomper which could attract sales.

JACK CAMPBELL (Jubilee 9008)

(B+) I'LL TRADE MY GAL FOR A TIGER (2:09) [Carwin BMI—French, Campbell] Jack Campbell could get a big reaction to this rompin', stompn' answer to all the smash "tiger" tunes. Lots of potential.

(B+) I GUESS I LEARNED A LOT FROM YOU (2:34) [Carwin BMI—French, Campbell] This side is a slowed down, sentimental, shuffler about a man who's happy with his new love.

JOHNNY SCOGGINS (K-Ark 645)

(B) BABY'S BOSS (2:17) [Moss-Rose BMI—Scoggins] Johnny Scoggins might make some noise with this raunchy, pop-flavored danceable about a man who lets his gal rule the roost.

(B) SICK OF MYSELF (2:03) [Tronic BMI—Scoggins] The flip is a troublin', medium-paced item of a feller who lacks what it takes to be successful.

CECIL BAYSINGER (Nashville 5226)

(B) WHEN THE BUP HITS THE FAN (1:58) [Starday BMI—Ellis, Hill] Cecil Baysinger could grab some spins with this light-hearted, humorous ditty about an inebriated man who wants to get out of sight before his wife finds him.

(C+) THAT'S WHAT MAKES THE JUKE BOX PLAY (2:58) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Work] This side is a downhearted story about what makes the world go round.

Chart Bound!

The little gal with the big, big talent keeps right on winning more fans and honors! Here are two of the best reasons: Connie's recent single, "I Can't Remember" e/w "Senses" [# 8551] and her exciting album "Connie Smith" [LHM/ LSP-3341] A Winner—on

COUNTRY ROUND UP

There aren't enough days in the year to have a special one for each of our favorite country artists, but once in a while some of our top names are deservedly honored by having their "days." One of the latest to come to our attention was "Bill Anderson Day," held down in the Peach State on July 17 by two all-country stations, WZYX-Atlanta and WAIA-Hapeville. The two outlets devoted the entire day to the chanter's records, topping off the event with a big show in the Atlanta Auditorium, where Anderson and the Po' Boys played to a crowd of 4,000. Another day for the same artist is being planned for Sept. 16 in Commerce, Ga., where he started his career as a deejay. . . . Meanwhile, deejays across the country and even up into Canada, will dedicate Aug. 9th to one of the all-time great country stars, Webb Pierce, who began his big-time career 14 years ago with a little tune called "Wondering," and has been turning out biggies ever since.

Taking a look at our country stations, we notice a bit of shifting here and there. Out at that big West Coast outlet KSON-San Diego, Noel Kelly has been promoted to program director, while vet artist-deejay Texas Bill Strength has been named music director of KTCR-Minneapolis. Smilin' Eddie Briggs has moved out of his deejay chores with KSON and shifted over to spin the music at KUZZ-Bakersfield, and Dusty Miller, who used to handle the country turn table at WCSS-Amsterdam, N.Y., is now taking care of the same duties at WAFS in the same city. And finally, vet newsman Abe Albright has moved from WHEN-Syracuse to WWVA-Wheeling, while Curt Dunn has left his spot with KSNN-Pocatello, Idaho.

It's hard to think of Johnny Cash as being a beginner, but after his recent powerhouse show at Carnegie Hall the artist has been besieged with offers for deals in many areas that are a little new to him. Tops on the list of bids are an offer for the lead in an upcoming Broadway musical and also a shot at a forthcoming TV series. Other deals that call for his attention include plans for a major movie and a possible tour throughout Europe, where his record sales have taken a pronounced upsurge.

Down in Baltimore, WBMD prexy Carl Brenner will be presenting the Fall season series of Country Jubilees, kicking off on Sept. 4 with George Jones and the Jones Boys, Johnny Paycheck, Loretta Lynn, Ray Price and his Cherokee Cowboys, Buddy Emmons, Leroy Van Dyke, Archie Campbell, Ernest Tubb and his Texas Troubadors, with Buddy Charlton and Jack Green. It looks like a real good show, with four of the top country bands on the stage of the Baltimore Civic Center.

Carlton Haney also has a Labor Day weekend spectacular being set up. This one will be a Bluegrass spectacular and run from Sept. 4-6 at Cantrell's Country Music Park in Finscastle, Va., just outside of Roanoke. Headlining the hoedown will be Bill Monroe &

Russell Sims, head man of the Sims label, seems to have more time on his hands now that he's signed a long-term contract with Atlantic Records for distribution of his catalog. With his extra time he'll now be taking on the promotion for Boone Records, the newly-formed diskery in Union, Ky. The Boone label has had several releases thus far, but it's biggest success to date is Tex Willioiams' biggie, "Too Many Tigers." Owned and operated by Bobby Bobo, the label is open for new talent.

GEORGE JONES

JOHNNY PAYCHECK

WEBB PIERCE

His Bluegrass Boys, Doc Watson, the Osborne Bros., Don Reno and Red Smiley reunited with the Tennessee Cut-Ups, Jimmy Martin & His Sunny Mountain Boys, Mac Wiseman, Howdy Forrester and many surprise guest stars.

All you country deejays out there can do a great service to the industry by sending along your playlists to an ol' buddy of ours by the name of Dick Heard. He's right in the middle of laying the groundwork for a brand new, wide-ranging music service which is due out pretty soon. Among other things, he'll be sampling C & W preferences around the country, so send those station lists to him c/o "For The Record" at 250 W. 57 St., in New York City.

Dan Johnson, general manager of the Atlanta Sound Recording Studios, has dropped a line telling us that he has just signed a five-year production contract with the Ron Blackwood Quartet of Memphis. The studio is now only nine months old, but has already produced 43 albums and is looking to be an all-time great in gospel recording. They picked the right place to start, since Atlanta is considered to be the gospel music center of the world. Lots of luck to the gang down there.

You can't beat the loyal fans of country music for devotion to their artists. For instance, Sandy Orwig and Barbara Huss, both officers of the Bill Phillips Fan Club, had to fly to the aid of their hero a short time ago when the songster was slated to tour the midwest with the Kitty Wells Show. The two Harrisburg, Pa. residents made the trip down to Nashville to "babysit" with Bill's wife Anita, who is recuperating at home from minor throat surgery. A tip of the hat to country music fans . . . long may they reign.

Johnny Talley, sales manager of Ric Records, has informed us that the label will now be handled by Campus Records Distributors in Miami. The label is riding pretty high with Mel Tillis' "Wine," and is also reporting strong reaction to Red Sovine's "Salt On My Eggs."

We'd like to offer our best wishes to a real fine country performer, Porter Wagoner, who'll be celebrating a birthday this week. The hooter will be (???) years old on Aug. 12. (Well, old enough to vote, anyway). Once again, congratulations. Hope there are lots more coming.

We hear from Hank Snow that he has just signed two new artists, Juanita Rose and Patti Kent, to his Silver Star label. Both artists have already been recorded, and the former has just had a release called "A Pillow Filled With Tears." The RCA Victor chanter and his veep-executive manager Troy L. Martin expect big things from both artists.

Ever heard of Paramaribo, Suriname, S.A.?? . . . Neither had the Cedarwood pubbery until it received a letter from Paul Munski, president of the Country Music Organization, requesting the firm's aid in the promotion of country music in Suriname. Munski stated that the CMO has a membership of 250 persons and is growing strong. The publishing house is doing all they can to help the organization and hopes that others will join them. . . . If you give up we'll tell you. The country is Dutch Guiana.

It looks as if Columbia chanter Stonewall Jackson has joined the steady stream of country artists heading for the personal appearance circuit in Europe. Jackson, currently riding on the charts with his new single, "Trouble And Me," will be touring for the first two weeks in Oct. in a deal arranged by his manager, Bob Neal, in cooperation with Hubert Long. Details for his new publishing operation will be announced shortly by the Neal office.

CHECKING IN ADVANCE—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gilbert of the Gilbert Advertising Agency present Tex Ritter, president of CMA, with a check for $25,000 as an advance on royalties for the "Country Music Premium" LP while Columbia Records exec Jack Loetz smiles approval.

5-Year Pact With British Decca

U.S.-Canadian Deal Expected This Week

NEW YORK—The Rolling Stones and their producer, Andrew Oldham, have re-signed with British Decca in a deal said to guarantee the group $1 million over a period of five years, the length of the new contract. The agreement is billed as the largest guarantee ever offered an English act.

The new pact covers the entire world, with the exception of the U.S. and Canada. Allen Klein, business rep for the Stones and Oldham, made the deal with British Decca's Sir Edward Lewis.

The big guessing game—expected to be answered this week—is the name of the label that will release the group's disks in the U.S. It's understood that negotiations are in progress that may well keep the team on the London label, which, of course, is the U.S. affiliate of British Decca. Oldham and two members of the Stones, Mick Jagger and Keith Richard, will join Klein in further discussions here this week.

It's understood that the U.S. deal is closely related to the boys' appearances in films, which would mean that the label which takes on the group would have to agree to help finance film projects featuring the Stones.

'Kapp Is For Profit' Push: 17 New LP's

NEW YORK—Kapp Records has embarked on its "Kapp Is Product For Profit" fall sales campaign, termed "the most extensive and ambitious drive in the company's history." Diskery head Dave Kapp emphasized that the 17 albums unveiled in the program make up "the most well-rounded product we've ever released." Thirteen of the LP's are being issued this month, with the remaining four due to hit the market Sept. 1.

The campaign is being introduced this week in 23 separate presentations throughout the country at distributors warehouses. The unique method of presentation of product, promotion and merchandising plans incorporates both a new method: having four executives get directly to the front line of sales—the distributors and salesmen themselves—via visits to separate regions with synchronized slide and sound equipment to make an individualized presentation; and by use of segments of tape made at the product announcement meeting of the Kapp A&R department in the company's New York offices.

The ad program will focus in a special magazine featuring headlines, copy and cuts of the album covers and prices. All the material is printed on perforated pages enabling the user to make up his own ads. Allowances for advertising are expected to exceed $300,000 during the life of the program.

Distributors will also receive colorful litho books and sales tip inserts and distributor salesmen will all receive complete album samples at their homes. Special product selections will be sent to dealers and rack jobbers. A complete series of merchandising aids for in-store use is available to retailers. Disk jockeys at most key stations will receive mailed material and samples, supplemented by station mailings from distributor promotion men and Kapp's own field promotion staff.

Special discounts on new and catalog product has been put into effect, and will remain in operation until the end of the year. Also, dated billing arrangements are available with special advertising allowances for both dealers and rack merchandisers.

Phase one of the album release consists of fourteen new packages. Highlighting the new release are Jack Jones' "There's Love and THERE'S LOVE," arranged by Nelson Riddle; "Summer Wind and Your Special Requests" from Roger Williams; and the Do-Re-Mi Children's Chorus in their tenth LP "Playing Games and Having Fun." Also in the new release are: a collection of the year's hits performed by Hugo Winterhalter, a new set from Robertino, a new comedy LP from the producers of "The First Family," entitled "You Don't Have To Be Jewish," an instrumental platter from organist John Gart, the debut of trumpet star Jimmy Sedlar, and a collection of prize-winning Carnival songs from Rio. There are also four c&w packages: Billy Edd Wheeler's newie; "Country Buddies;" a Warner Mack outing; and "Saturday Night at the Old Barn Dance."

The second part of the release, due in Sept., includes efforts from the Searchers, the Waikikis, the Boss Guitars and the Greenwood County Singers.

Handleman Makes 1st Qtr Gains, Shift Mgmt Posts

NEW YORK—A continued trend of growth in sales and earnings was forecast at the Handleman Co. (AMEX) annual stockholder meeting last week in Detroit.

Joseph Handleman, president of the huge rack-jobber, told stockholders: "We expect sales for the first quarter ended July 31, 1965 to increase approximately 15 per cent over the $6,074,931 reached last year and earnings should be nicely ahead of the $225,803 or 22¢ per share earned for the same period a year ago." He added, "We anticipate a continued trend of growth in both sales and earnings."

Following the annual meeting a series of top management changes for the company were announced by the board of directors.

Joseph Handleman was elected chairman of the board. Handleman, who was formerly president, will devote his time to "long range planning and to seeking important acquisitions for the company."

Paul Handleman, formerly executive vice-president, was elected president of the company. He will move from Cleveland to the firm's headquarters in Detroit.

David Handleman was elected executive vice-president. He was formerly secretary-treasurer. He is in charge of the record division of the company.

Moe Handleman, formerly vice-president, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Floyd Golden was elected assistant-secretary as was Sophie Kutlov.

Joseph Handleman told stockholders attending the meeting that he expects improved sales and earnings to come from both internal growth from expansion into new geographical markets. He announced Handleman Co. has opened, for the first time, a new branch facility in Los Angeles, Calif. The new branch will initially distribute records in Southern California and then will expand into distribution throughout the West Coast. The new Calif. branch is located at 1550 Knowes St. in Los Angeles. Moe Handleman, newly-elected secretary-treasurer will move from the company's Chicago offices to Los Angeles to direct the western operation.

The exec also announced that the company is going to expand its oper-

Capitol Fills Mgmt.-Financial Posts

NEW YORK—George R. Jones, vice president of Capitol Records' manufacturing and engineering division, has announced the appointment of Allen W. Murphy, as the firm's national plant controller, effective Aug. 1, 1965.

Murphy, who joined the firm in Jan. 1963, will be responsible for the coordination of the general and cost accounting functions of the three manufacturing plants. He will also act as liaison between the manufacturing and engineering division and other divisions of CRI regarding accounting and related activities. He will report directly to Jones and will continue to maintain his office at the Tower.

In addition, Eugene L. Mueller, general controller of Capitol Records, just announced the following organization appointments:

James E. Fallon joins the firm as director of data processing and James E. Dougherty begins his association with Capitol as director of corporate taxes.

Fallon will be responsible for the direction and coordination of central data processing center operations to provide all data and reports covering accounting and other designated company operations on a national basis. He will also direct the development of new computer programs, EDP systems and applications.

Fallon joins CRI after a six-year association with the County of Orange where he served as director of data processing. He is past president and national director of Data Processing Management Association; a member of the Systems and Procedures Association and the Association for Computer Machinery.

As director of corporate taxes, Dougherty will be responsible for the direction and coordination of all tax activities for CRI, including long-range tax planning.

He comes to Capitol from private practice as an attorney at law in Orange, Cal. where he specialized in the fields of corporate, tax, international business, and real estate law.

Both Dougherty and Fallon will report directly to Mueller.

Mueller also announced the following organizational staff changes within CRI:

P. Vaughn Burdick, executive staff assistant; Lloyd F. Hawe, director of cost & price analysis; John Macedo, director of corporate accounting; Neil W. Kelly, general auditor; Thomas J. Davis, manager of central data processing.

Mueller advised that the establishment of the organization is designed to provide the company with the most effective financial support, and to assure timeliness and accuracy of documentation as well as full protection of the firm's interests and assets.

Messrs. Burdick, Hawe, Macedo, and Kelly will report directly to Mueller. Davis will report to Fallon.

Vaughn Burdick, as executive staff assistant, will be responsible for the coordination of operations and planning of the general controller's division, and will act as liaison between the general controller and other divisions of CRI. He will conduct special research and make recommendations with respect to finance and other related matters.

Lloyd Hawe, as director of cost and price analysis, will be responsible for the design, formulation and control of cost and inventory accounting systems and accounting procedures. In addition, Hawe will provide financial advice to sales management in the design of sales policies, incentive programs, contests, and all other related financial matters.

John Macedo, as director of corporate accounting, will be responsible for directing and coordinating activities of the corporate accounting group, including general ledger, royalty and license accounting, Hollywood data processing center, and related staff services.

Neil Kelly, in his position as general auditor, will be responsible for conducting audits of all financial and operational activities of the Capitol family of companies. In addition, he will be responsible for the review and analysis of reports of show investment companies, non-consolidated music publishing companies, and other companies where CRI has a financial interest.

Thomas J. Davis, as manager of central data processing, will have responsibility for the operation of the data processing center at Scranton, and will provide technical and administrative support to Fallon in Hollywood.

Enoch Light To Leave Command After Sept.

NEW YORK—Enoch Light, founder and creative head of the Command label, is leaving the diskery at the end of Sept., according to a joint announcement by Light and Larry Newton, president of ABC-Paramount Records.

Light, who sold Grand Award Records, producer of the Command line, to ABC-Par in 1959, said that he will continue in the music and disk producing field. His new activities will be announced around Oct. 1. When he moved over to ABC-Par, Light was named vp of Grand Award and managing director of Command. At the later label, he had a direct hand in the company's various recording projects, including a series of stereo recordings that were the basis of a wave of "sound" LP's in the late 50's and early 60's. He also led an orchestra on a number of best-selling Command albums.

Atlantic Sets Distrib Meet

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records has set dates for its annual Atlantic and Ato distributor sales meetings. The confabs of both of the labels will be held in Chicago at the Continental Plaza Hotel, immediately after the NARM convention. The Atlantic meeting is on Friday (Sept. 10), and the Ato meet is set for Saturday (Sept. 11). New product for the two firms will be introduced, as well as the fall sales plans for the two labels. Attending the meetings will be Atlantic-Ato executives Ahmet Ertegun, Nesuhi Ertegun, Jerry Wexler, Bob Kornheiser, Len Sachs and George Funness. Fieldmen George Bodansky and Clarion Records exec Milt Ross will also attend.

Senate Subcommittee Drops Copy'rt Hearings For Indefinite Period

WASHINGTON—The Senate Judiciary Subcommittee considering the Copyright Bill has postponed hearings on the matter for an indefinite period. Word of the Subcommittee's move came after it had called off hearings scheduled for last Tues. (3) and Wed. (4). Prime reason for the cancellation seems to be the discussion on the floor of the Senate of the proposed amendment to the Constitution involving proportional representation. A House Judiciary Subcommittee has previously conducted hearings on the Copyright Bill.

MPHC Acquires Rights To 'Skyscraper' Score

NEW YORK—Victor Blau, president of Music Publishers Holding Corporation, has announced that the firm has acquired the music from the forthcoming Sammy Cahn and James Van Heusen musical "Skyscraper." Julie Harris and Victor Spinetti will star in the show produced by Feuer and Martin with a book by Peter Stone. "Skyscraper" will play a six week engagement at the Fischer in Detroit prior to its New York opening at the Lunt Fontanne Theatre on October 23. The Harms wing of MPHC will handle the music. Capitol is releasing the soundtrack LP.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Eddie Hodges

Eddie Hodges, who is presently scoring with "New Orleans" on the Amy/Mala-distributed Aurora label, is a show business veteran even though he's only eighteen years old.

Eddie was first catapulted into the national spotlight via his appearances on the now-defunct "Name That Tune" TV'er a decade ago. His engaging manner and youthful exuberance landed him several important television spots (e.g. "Arthur Godfrey," "Andy Williams," "Pat Boone," etc.) as a singer and entertainer as opposed to a contestant.

In 1957 he widened his horizons and accepted a featured role in the main stem production of "The Music Man." An enthusiastic response from the critics firmly established Eddie as a multi-talented threat.

Since then he has appeared in one other Broadway show, "Critic's Choice," plus several highly-touted flicks including "A Hole In The Head" and "Summer Magic."

David Jones

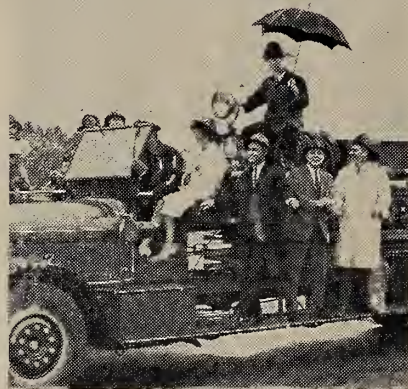

David Jones, who is currently clicking with his Colpix recording of "What Are We Going To Do," was born seventeen years ago in Manchester, England near the factory where his father worked as an engineer. Davy was just another boy growing up in a big city until he and one of his sisters started entertaining friends and relatives with their concerts. Davy sang while his sister played the piano and it wasn't long before they were starring at local talent shows, church socials and weddings. However, he regarded his performing as a hobby, and he soon left school to train to become a jockey.

The lure of a show biz career was too much, and a short time later Davy started performing on British radio and TV shows. In the spring of 1962 he landed the role of the Artful Dodger in the West End production of "Oliver." He quickly became the toast of London. It was no surprise then when David repeated his British stage success on Broadway that he received the coveted Tony Award for the best supporting actor in a main stem show.

Screen Gems executives saw Davy's performance in "Oliver" and realized how popular he would be with American audiences. As a result he was inked to a TV-flick-recording pact with the company.

Clyde Beatty-Cole Brothers Circus recently lost a hippopotamus while moving from Niagara Falls to Hamburg, N.Y. WEBR-Buffalo morning man Bill Kimble began broadcasting "Lost and Found" announcements until one of his listeners spotted the missing animal, with its tractor-trailer transport and driver in a field. The driver had lost his way the night before and decided to park the rig and wait for daylight. The WEBR listener gave him directions and the hippo arrived in Hamburg in time for the show.

Speaking of personalities, KVI-Seattle has initiated a new one, Namu. Namu is a very unusual personality in that he is an 8,000 pound killer whale. The modern Moby Dick, caught several weeks ago by a pair of Canadian fishermen, was purchased at a dollar a pound by the Seattle Marine Aquarium and was towed 400 miles from British Columbia to Seattle, followed at a safe distance by Mrs. Namu and the two kids. From then on in, the radio station has been keeping a close watch on the progress of the big fish, which, by the way, is the first healthy, unharmed animal of its type ever to be captured. . . . Meanwhile, the FIREMAN, FIREMAN, SAVE MY CHILD—During Seattle's First Annual Grand Concourse of Antique Fire Apparatus and Firemen's Muster Parade, KING TV and radio personalities decided to hop on the bandwagon and help make the blowout a big success. TV-ites Margy Grennan and Mike Rhodes, along with airmen Tracy Smith and Frosty Fowler (with umbrella), acted as "Honorary Parade Fire Chiefs" while Al Cummings was dubbed "Honorary Fire Captain-Grand Marshal." However, the real highlight of the whole affair was the lineup of over 40 vintage fire-fighting rigs dating back to 1880 including horse-drawn steamers, hook-and-ladder rigs and antique pumpers, which drew a huge crowd to line the shore of Lake Washington for the parade.

Our hearty thanks go out to one of the most important stations in the Los Angeles area, KHJ, for its hour-long salute to Cash Box and the deejays of America, broadcast on Aug. 7. The show, heralded by a week of special announcements, was handled by deejay Robert Morgan and was highlighted by the results of the Cash Box anniversary poll of top record artists. Of course, we must also express our thanks to all the deejays who sent in their returns and made the poll a success. Without your great response, there would be no poll at all.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Alan Henry resigns as veep-general manager of KLAC-Los Angeles. . . . Fred Mac exits WLTH-Gary, Ind. to join the deejay staff at WAAF-Chicago. . . . Johnny Mitchell, former program director and music director with KCBQ-San Diego, moves over to deejay staff with KHJ-Hollywood. . . . Jon Day, ex-staffer with WPOP-Hartford, steps in as program assistant-staff announcer at KRAK-Sacramento.

Pick of the Week

RIDE AWAY (3:26) [Acuff-Rose, BMI—Orbison, Dees]

ROY ORBISON (MGM 13386)

Roy Orbison gets his new MGM career off to an excellent start with this initial blockbuster candidate from the label tagged "Ride Away." The side is a rhythmic teen-angled ode about a somewhat ego-oriented lad who cuts-out on romance. "Wondering" is a plaintive, slow-shufflin' country-ish tearjerker.

ROUNABOUT (2:51) [Leeds, ASCAP—Roundabout]

[Francon, ASCAP—Menezes, Arthur]

CONNIE FRANCIS (MGM 13389)

Deejays will certainly not let this new Connie Francis outing tabbed "Roundabout" pass them by 'cause it has that money-in-the-bank sound plastered all over it. The Tony Hatch-produced date is an easy-going romancer which delineates all of the ambiguities of love. Flip is "Bossa Nova Hand Dance."

MOVE IT ON OVER (2:48) [Vicki, BMI—Shannon, Dennis, Coffey]

SHE STILL REMEMBERS TONY (2:26)

DEL SHANNON (Amy 937)

The Amy chanter should really strike paydirt with this top-flight follow-up to his "Break-Up" best-seller called "Move It On Over." The side is rollicking, fast-moving, rhythmic hand-clapper with an extremely contagious multi-dance beat. "She Still Remembers Tony" is a bluesy, medium-paced jumper about a love-sick gal who can't get over her ex-boyfriend.

NERVOUS (2:42) [Burdette, BMI—Whitcomb]

IAN WHITCOMB (Tower 155)

Hot-on-the-heels of his "You Turn Me On" smash, Ian Whitcomb comes up with another sure-fire success candidate. This one's called "Nervous" and it's a self-penned low-down, funky romantic blueser delivered in a contagious stammering style by the chanter. The undercut, "The End," is an easy-going heart-throbber about a romance which goes kaput.

CAN'T LET YOU OUT OF MY SIGHT (2:17)

[Screen-Gems, BMI—Miller, Atkins]

[Fleamar & Chuck & Betty, BMI—Simpson, Ashford, Armstead]

CHUCK JACKSON & MAXINE BROWN (Wand 191)

Last-time-out the wax marriage of Chuck Jackson and Maxine Brown resulted in the "Something You've Got" smasher and there's no reason why this potent newie, "Can't Let You Out Of My Sight," can't also become a blockbuster. Side is a rollicking, rhythmic pop-r&b contagious romancer about a very-much-in-love duo who seem aptly suited to each other. "Don't Go" is a plaintive slow-shufflin' tradition-styled blues tearjerker.

HOME OF THE BRAVE (2:50)

THIS IS THE LIFE (2:05)

[Morley, ASCAP—Strouse, Adams]

JODY MILLER (Capitol 5483)

HOME OF THE BRAVE (2:50)

[Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI—Mann, Weil]

OUR SONG (2:00)

[Mother Bertha, BMI—Riopell]

(Phi-Dan 5005)

Here are two fine versions of a new Barry Mann-Cynthia Weil message-song tabbed "Home Of The Brave" which both have that money-in-the-bank sound. Jody "Queen Of The House" Miller reads the emotion-packed opus which puts down the philosophy of mass conformity in a blues-drenched slow-moving style while Bonnie and the Treasures, a crew of newcomers, dish-up the tune in rhythmic, rollicking manner enhanced by a rhythmic repeating danceable riff. Take your pick. Jody's coupler is a high-spirited reading of "This Is The Life" from "Golden Boy." The Phi-Dan group back up their "Home" entry with "Our Song," a lyrical easy-going instrumental.

Pick of the Week

SOMEONE IS WATCHING (2:50)

SOLOMON BURKE (Atlantic 2299)

The vet blues songster can have one of his most successful money-makers in quite a while with this new Atlantic powerhouse tabbed "Someone Is Watching." Tune is a plaintive, slow-moving chorus-backed shuffler about a lad who prays that a very special gal he digs will take notice of him. "Dance, Dance, Dance," is a warm-hearted rhythmic r&b romancer about a fella who has girlfriend who lives for terpsichorean pleasures.

LOVE IS STRANGE (2:50) [Ben Ghazi, ASCAP—Smith]

MAN WITH MONEY (2:17) [Acuff-Rose, BMI—D. & P. Everly]

EVERLY BROS. (Warner Bros. 5649)

TOO HOT TO HOLD (2:08)

[Flomar, BMI—Simpson, Ashford, Armstead]

I DIDN'T HURT ANYMORE (2:47)

[Hill & Range, BMI—Robertson, Rollins]

BETTY EVERETT (Vee Jay 8670)

Betty Everett should reach the charts in no time flat with this ultra-commercial Vee Jay release "Too Hot To Hold." The tune is a rhythmic, fast-moving, chorus-backed pop-blues affair about a lass who has a somewhat tempestuous relationship with her fella. "I Didn't Hurt Anymore" is a soulful affair about a lucky girl who finally stops carrying the torch for her ex-guy.

I'M LIVING GOOD [Fame, BMI—Penn, Oldham]

RECIPE FOR LOVE [Rise, BMI—Yates]

OVATIONS (Goldwax 117)

The Ovations made a big sales-splash with their first effort, "It's Wonderful To Be In Love," in both the pop and r&b markets and this blue-ribbon follow-up should have no difficulty in reaching the winner's circle. The "A" side, "I'm Living Good," is an easy-going, laconic ode about a lucky guy who doesn't need any money 'cause he's met the girl of his dreams. "Recipe For Love" is a catchy, medium-paced warm-hearted blues romancer.

I WON'T BE BACK THIS YEAR (2:38) [Regent, BMI—Kusik, Lorber]

JIMMY VELVET (Philips 40314)

Jimmy Velvet, who clicked recently with "It's Almost Tomorrow," can well go the whole chart-distance with this power-packed Philips release tabbed "I Won't Be Back This Year." The tune is a tender, slow-moving countryish weeper about an unfortunate lad who has to leave his gal because he found a job out of town. "Young Hearts" is a pretty, medium-paced teen-angled romancer with a nostalgic years-back sound.

HEY HO WHAT YOU DO TO ME (2:10)

[Flomar, BMI—Simpson, Ashford, Armstead]

GOODNIGHT GOODNIGHT (2:25)

[Expressions & Flomar, BMI—R. & R. Bachman]

GUESS WHO (Scepter 12108)

The Guess Who are a natural to repeat the success of their recent hit, "Shakin' All Over," with this excellent item labeled "Hey Ho What You Do To Me." The tune is a rollicking, fast-moving, rhythmic high-spirited romancer about a guy who is on cloud nine ever since he met his girl. "Goodnight Goodnight" is a raunchy, feelingfully essayed lament about a love gone wrong.

YOU DON'T KNOW (3:00) [Trio, BMI—Barry, Greenwich, Morton]

ELLIE GREENWICH (Red Bird 10-034)

The wife half of the hot cleffing team of Barry and Greenwich makes an auspicious bow as a vocalist on this most impressive Red Bird entry called "You Don't Know." The tune is a blues-tinged effectively-building lament about a gal who is still hung-up on her ex-boyfriend even though he rejected her. "Baby" is a catchy, chorus-backed multi-beat happy-go-lucky teen romancer.

THE GIRL IN THE BLACK BIKINI (2:51)
[Mimosa & JDA BMI—Duncan]

DO THE SURFER JERK (2:08) [Mimosa & JDA BMI—Duncan]
IN CROWD (Musicor 1111)

The In Crowd should move swiftly up the charts with this seasonal-themed Musicor bow named "The Girl In The Black Bikini." Tune is a lyrical, slow-moving heart-throbbing ode done in a harmony-and-counterpoint Beach Boys style about a lass who mourns her surfin' fella who will never return. "Do The Surfer Jerk" is a rollicking, fast-moving rhythmic affair which intros a new teen dance.

THE COLOR OF HIS LOVE IS BLUE (2:30)
[Central Songs, BMI—Stone, Turner]

DRIVING WHEELS (1:53) [Lion, BMI—Wainwright, Wyler]
ODESSA HARRIS (Uptown 711)

Odessa Harris can establish both herself and the Uptown label with this excellent blues-treatment of Roy Clark's while-back "The Color Of His Love Is Blue." The side is a slow-shufflin' funky after-hours romantic lament which builds to a dramatic emotion-packed pitch. Coupler, "Driving Wheels," is a low-down, rhythmic traditional blues weeper.

HURT ME TO MY SOUL (2:28) [Harmony Hill, ASCAP—Peabody]
THAT'S WHERE LOVE HAS GONE (2:47)
[Harmony & Emjay, ASCAP—Peabody]
FIRST FOUR (Strata 103)

The First Four have an excellent chance of establishing national reputations as 'record salesmen' on this basis of top-rung Strata release tabbed "Hurt Me To My Soul." The tune is a blues-drenched lament about a romance which ends up on the rocks with a contagious repeating rhythmic riff. Blockbuster potential here. Flip, "That's Where Love Has Gone," is a slow-moving folkish affair with a hauntingly pretty melodic undercurrent.

Best Bets

JONATHAN KING (Parrot 9774)

● EVERYONE'S GONE TO THE MOON (2:30) [Mainstay BMI—King] Newcomer Jonathan King should attract the fancy of many a deejay with this lovely, slow-moving lyrical ballad which describes in rather plaintive terms how life has changed because of the Atomic Age.

(B+) SUMMER'S COMING (2:30) [Mainstay BMI—King] Pretty, seasonal-themed romancer sold with loads of poise by the chanter

HERB ALPERT (A&M 775)

● 3rd MAN THEME (2:29) [Chappell ASCAP—Krans] Herb Alpert can get some new sales-mileage out of the haunting flick theme. The orkster, along with the Tijuana Brass, swings up a storm and gives the familiar item a fresh high-spirited flavor. Loads of programming appeal.

(B+) TASTE OF HONEY (2:43) [Songfest ASCAP—Scott, Marlow] Lilted reading of the bluesy film theme.

BUBBLES & CO. (Blue Cat 120)

● UNDERNEATH MY PILLOW (2:58) [Essex BMI—Van Dyke] Here's a catchy, easy-going lyrical British affair about a lad who spends most of his nights dreaming about a gal who doesn't even know that he exists. Could become a giant.

(B+) JUST ONE GIRL (3:02) [Roar BMI—Fennings] Tender, slow-moving emotion-packed teen romancer.

TOMMY ROE (abc 10706)

● WISH YOU DIDN'T HAVE TO GO (2:15) [Fame BMI—Penn, Oldham] Tommy Roe has a good chance of hitting the charts with this easy-going, chorus-backed romantic ode about a love-sick fella who tries to convince his gal to stay out a little longer with him. A real nice effort.

(B+) I KEEP REMEMBERING (THINGS I FORGOT) (2:40) [Unart BMI—Buie, Adkins] Low-down blues-drenched heart-throber.

LEE GARRETT (World Artists 1061)

● I NEED SOMEBODY (3:20) [Screen Gems—Columbia BMI—Fisher] Lee Garrett can quickly zoom up the hitsville path with this top-rung tender, slow-shufflin' chorus-backed pop-r&b plea for romance which effectively builds to an exciting dramatic pitch. Wide-spread appeal here.

(B+) SO FAR AWAY (2:55) [Screen Gems BMI—Fisher, Boggess] Plaintive, tradition-styled blues tale of woe.

SAM & BILL (Joda 100)

● FOR YOUR LOVE (2:47) [Beechwood BMI—Townsend] Sam and Bill get their Joda career off to a flying start with this soulful, slow-shufflin' item about a love-sick fella who claims that he'll do anything for the girl of his dreams. Both pop and r&b potential here.

(B+) BEAUTIFUL BABY (2:45) [And BMI—Nash, Gary Johnson] Catchy, low-down funky pledge of devotion.

ZENA FOSTER (Veep 1222)

● MAKE IT ME (2:39) [RK, BMI—Adams, Kusik] Zena Foster turns on a powerhouse of blues charm in this potent reading of a solid r&b sound. The tune features a catchy shuffle appeal with mid-tempo dance beat, and her vocal could turn this into a sizeable sales item.

(B+) BABY, LET ME TEACH YOU (2:21) [RK BMI—Adams, Kusik] Up-tempo throber.

GARY FARR AND THE T-BONES (Epic 9832)

● GIVE ALL SHE'S GOT (2:43) [B. Feldman ASCAP—Mason, Beades] Low down English-blues orking and a solid sounding vocal team up to form a sound that could capture the market on both pop and r&b fronts. Nice build at the close of each stanza on a fine sounding effort.

(B+) DON'T STOP AND STARE (2:29) [B. Feldman ASCAP—T-Bones] Steady paced rocker.

BOBBY LILE (Almo 227)

● MAN OF THE WORLD (2:35) [Kavelin-Rollo BMI—Lile] Pounding semi-English orking with a light trace of Latin flavoring makes for fine listening on this dance angled side in a rockable way. Nifty teen tilted lyrics should add to the sales impact.

(B+) (I'M GONNA) BREAKAWAY (2:15) [Irving/Kavelin-Rollo BMI—Lile] Off-beat stomper.

IVY LEAGUE (Cameo 377)

● TOSSING & TURNING (2:25) [Southern ASCAP—Carter, Lewis, Ford] Flashy orking and a lively stylish group sound could make a big showing on this carefree bouncing ditty. The Ivy League is likely to push its way up the pop charts via this deck.

(B+) GRADUATION DAY (2:16) [Southern ASCAP—Carter, Lewis, Ford] Four Seasons-y romp here.

BROUGES (Twilight 408)

● BUY NOW I FIND (2:15) [Duane BMI—Campbell, Elmore] The Brouges are already getting some spins with this first-rate Mersey Beat affair and the side could well go the whole chart distance. Tune is hard-driving raunchy blueser about an unfortunate lad who has problems with an unfaithful gal.

(B+) SOMEDAY (2:13) [Duane BMI—Rodrigues] Quick-paced item about a guy who thinks that he's not good enough for his girl.

PETE FOUNTAIN (Coral 62460)

● THE WHIFFENPOOF SONG (2:32) [Miller ASCAP—Minigerode, Pommeroy, Galloway] The vet instrumentalist is sure to get some middle-of-the-road and Top 40 spins with this impressive re-working of the Rudy Vallee-associated sturdie. Fountain's mellow clarinet is effectively spotlighted in a lush orchestral setting nicely enhanced by a wordless chorus.

(B+) RAVE ON (1:46) [Garpax BMI—Paxton] Clever, catchy, teen-oriented instrumental.

AL McCARTHER (Two Guitars 900)

● HIS TRUE LOVE FOR YOU (2:40) [Roosevelt, BMI—Daryll, Taylor] This lightly shuffling ditty spiced with a bit of Latin-jazz flutework comes on strong with a sweet vocal from Al McCarther. The side is a good shot for spinning and could grab a chunk of the teen market.

(B+) IN THIS ROOM (2:01) [Two Guitars, BMI—Taylor, Daryll] Soft ballad.

TULIPS (MGM K 13375)

● YOU BETTER STAY AWAY FROM MY BABY (2:14) [Wanessa, BMI, Allen, Merrell] The Tulips could plant roots on the top 100 charts and find this pleasant moving finger snapping shuffler growing on the teens. Watch for a solid deejay and teen response.

(B+) HOLD ME CLOSE (2:27) [T.M., BMI—Clark] Ballad in the blues vein.

DENNA JOHNSON & RICKY DAVIS (Simpson 101)

● THERE'S GONNA BE A SHOWDOWN (2:08) [Simco, BMI—Herring] Both artists turn in fine showings on this mid-tempo with gobs of r&b appeal. The side has dance and lyrical draw that could send it well on its way up to the blues charts with pop following possible.

(B+) WHO ME? YEAH YOU! (2:10) [Galrek, BMI—Herring, Steward, Simpson] Pounding multi-dance stomper.

CORKY WILKIE (HBR 448)

● LITTLE BY LITTLE (2:03) [Leeds BMI—Mills] Platter spinners should speedily add this fine affair to their playlists. Side is a rollicking, fast-moving, pop-blues thumper about a fella who thinks that every romantic situation should be taken one step at a time.

(B+) SOMETHING SWINGING (2:05) [Anihanbar & Triffid BMI—Ayres] Extremely funky slow-moving instrumental stanza.

JOE SOUTH (Apt 25084)

● I WANT SOMEBODY (2:53) [Lowery BMI—South] Joe South can well do Top 100 biz with this potent blueser about a determined guy who wants to become famous so the very special girl that he digs will respect him. A standout performance.

(B+) DEEP INSIDE ME (2:25) [Lowery BMI—South] Easy-going, laconic tale of heartbreak sold with poise and feeling by South.

LIVERPOOL SET (Columbia 43351)

● MUST I TELL YOU (I LOVE YOU) (2:26) [Red River, BMI—Lancing, Donnell] Slow shuffle sounds and a rock-a-cha beat make for easy listening on this softly sung English sounder. Has enough of what it takes to catch fire. Keep an eye on this one.

(B+) MISS YOU SO (2:35) [Blackwood, BMI—Lancing, Hunt] Scintillating ballad.

CLAY HUNT (Kapp 695)

● IN THE CITY SQUARE (2:26) [Ken Kirk BMI—Fann] Newcomer Clay Hunt could well score in the loot dept. with this fast-moving, chorus-backed hand-clappin' pop-r&b affair with a real infectious rhythmic multi-dance teen-oriented beat. Eye it.

(B+) SINCE I'VE LOST YOU (2:38) [Jobete BMI—Whitfield] Laconic, shuffle-beat blues-drenched tale of remorse.

NANCY ADAMS (RCA Victor 8650)

● I'M GONNA BUILD A FENCE (2:26) [Miniature Musicals ASCAP—Huddleston] Nancy Adams can finally establish herself sales-wise with this easy-going, chorus-backed updating of the romantic evergreen about a gal who has no intention of letting anyone else get a chance to steal her fella away from her.

(B+) GO ON! (2:40) [Devon BMI—Barkan] Plaintive, medium-paced country-ish ode.

JAMES GRESHAM (Decca 31832)

● WHAT DID I DO (2:11) [Vendo BMI—Gresham] Here's an attractive pop-r&b item which stands a good chance of garnering plenty of airplay activity. Side is a rhythmic lament about a confused guy who can't understand why his romance is turning sour.

(B+) MR. WIND (2:37) [Vendo BMI—Avery] Effective inspirational soulfully read by Gresham.

KAREN KELLY (Sound 7 Stage 2544)

● PARTY TALK (2:31) [Tamrose BMI—Carson, Hampton] Karen Kelly unleashes her potent, wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this rollicking, dual-track teen-oriented ode which claims that some boys don't reveal their true feelings in a party setting. Immediate response indicated here.

(B+) HE PASSES BY (2:26) [Screen Gems—Columbia BMI—Lee, Reynolds] Interesting item about a gal who wishes that a special fella she digs will notice her.

OLYMPICS (Loma 2017)

● BABY I'M YOURS (2:25) [Regent BMI—Elgin] The Olympics have had pop-r&b hits in the past and they can score again with this tender, slow-shufflin' about a love-sick guy who has a real hard time getting through his days without his gal. Watch it.

(B+) NO MORE WILL I CRY (2:55) [Towles & Aries BMI—Shaw] Raunchy, hard-driving traditional blues weeper.

OVERLANDERS (Hickory 1327)

● RAINBOW (2:29) [Leeds ASCAP—Mason, Bartholomew, Friswell] The Overlanders can speedily move up the hitsville path with this hauntingly lovely English item which takes a somewhat euphoric viewpoint on modern life.

(B+) TAKE THE BUCKET TO THE WELL (1:53) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Stough, Rainwater] Clever, medium-paced country-ish romancer.

BERNARD CRIBBENS (United Artists 907)

● RIGHT, SAID FRED (2:20) [Unart BMI—Dicks, Rudge] Newcomer Bernard Cribbens can create a sales stir on the basis of this easy-going happy-go-lucky novelty rendered in an infectious Midlands accent. Deejays should really dig it.

(B+) QUIETLY BONKERS (2:02) [Noel Gray BMI—Dicks, Rudge] Catchy, British music hall-type romancer.

FIVE EMPREES (Freeport 1001)

● LITTLE MISS SAD (2:15) [Radford BMI—D. & D. Ad-drisi] The Five Empees are an odds-on bet to have hit on their hands with this rollicking, fast-moving bluesey opus with a contagious multi-beat danceable beat. Loads of potential here.

(B+) HEY LOVER (2:46) [Roosvelt BMI—Berry, Covay] Moody, slow-moving pledge of romantic devotion.

BARONETS (Vee Jay 701)

● THAT'S THE WAY LOVE HAPPENS (2:25) [Saturday BMI—Cane] The Baronets are destined to make national names for themselves with this rhythmic, medium-paced twister which claims that everything turns out all right when a couple is in love.

(B+) MINE ALL MINE (2:10) [7th Ave. Music BMI—Kasha, Thomas] Mersey Beatish teen-angled romancer.

D MEN (Kapp 691)

● SO LITTLE TIME (2:16) [Waterview, Ashland, BMI—Askew, Wadhams, Gavin] The wild ork opening and catchy group work on this mid-tempo, low-keyed driving side could snag plenty of spins and sales in the rock field. Kevin Gavin gets production credit on the fine side.

(B+) EVERY MINUTE OF EVERY DAY (2:37) [Waterview, Ashland, BMI—Askew, Wadhams, Gavin] Nifty light-hearted romp.

STEVIE WONDER (Tamla 54119)

● HIGH HEEL SNEAKERS (2:58) [Medal, Higgenbotham] Culled from the "Motortown Review In Paris" LP, this up-tempo mover could put Stevie Wonder back on the pop charts. The side features a 'live' driving reading of the blues tune which hit about a year back for Tommy Tucker.

(B+) MUSIC TALK (2:57) [Jobete, BMI—Hull, Paul, Wonder] Low down throbber.

VEJTABLES (Autumn 15)

● I STILL LOVE YOU (2:22) [Taracrest, BMI—Errico, Ashton] Sad lyrics set to a happy bouncing beat make for interesting material on this side, one that should find a welcome from many deejays. Could break wide open, heading up the hitsville path.

(B+) ANYTHING (2:22) [Taracrest, BMI—Bailey] Hefty beat on this semi-English styled side.

ROGER MILLER (RCA Victor 8651)

● IF YOU WANT ME TO (1:53) [Tree BMI—Miller] Roger Miller can create a lot of noise with this infectious pop-country ditty which was cut during the chanter's stint with Victor. Side is a warm-hearted, dual-track romantic opus about a fella who is head-over-heels in love with his girlfriend.

(B+) HEY LITTLE STAR (2:22) [Tree BMI—Miller] Pleasant low-key reading of Miller's old c&w hit.

LINDA GAYLE (Columbia 43359)

● STOP, LOOK, LISTEN (1:50) [Hill & Range, BMI—Byers] Potent driving pseudo-jug band blues bounce on this deck provides it with an unusual flavoring that could catch the extra attention needed to send it way into the winner's listings. May crack wide open.

(B+) GOODNIGHT, IRENE (2:18) [Ludlow, BMI—Ledbetter, Lomax] Up-tempo shuffle version of the folk standard.

LYN ROMAN (Mercury 72473)

● G. B. DAY (2:34) [Wellmade, Leatherneck, BMI—Ott] This catchy shuffle blueser packs a finely building sound with some great singing in an effort that could well attract loads of attention in the r&b and pop marketplace. The Ed Townsend produced deck may click.

(B) MY LIFE STORY (2:56) [Leatherneck, BMI—Townsend] Unusual ballad.

GEORGE SMITH (Turntable 713)

● I'VE HAD IT (2:30) [Benny Benjamin, ASCAP—Benjamin, Marcus] Smooth bluesy vocal and interesting orking on this fine tune could send the side skyrocketing on both the pop and r&b fronts. Good production work by Earle Robinson, with fine arrangements from Dave Ward.

(B+) WHEN LOVE TURNS TO PITY (2:07) [Joy, ASCAP—Lee, Goehring] Soft shuffle ballad.

LEMME B. GOOD (Mercury 72470)

● I CAN'T STOP MYSELF (2:48) [Southern, ASCAP—Carter, Lewis] Slow, steady throbbing beat and a somewhat plaintive vocal team up to form a sound that could take the r&b areas by storm and carry plenty of pop sales as well. Merits close attention for possible break.

(B+) MOTHER MAY I (2:55) [MRC, BMI—Good, Lantz] Cute lyrics on this jerk tune.

GARY BONDS (Legrand 1039)

● DO THE BUMPSIE (2:24) [Rockmasters, BMI—Guilda, Butts] Solid beat rhythm and driving ork sounds have created clicks for Gary Bonds before, and he may well pop back in the spotlight via this outing in his familiar style. Merits attention.

(B+) BEACHES, U.S.A. (3:04) [Rockmasters, BMI—Guilda, Anderson] More move music.

LITTLE ROSE LITTLE (Blue Rock 4022)

THE STONE HENRY SINGERS (Kapp 693)

(B+) THAT WONDERFUL FEELING OF LOVE (2:20) [Camelback Mountain ASCAP—Kelly, Cox, Ballard] Wailing ballad, nicely handled by the chorus.

(B) YOU KILLED THE THRILL IN MY HEART (2:10) [Camelback Mountain ASCAP—Kelly, Ballard] Funky blues material on this lid.

SEDATIOUS BROWN (Roulette 4636)

(B) WHERE THERE'S A WILL THERE'S A WAY (3:17) [Ferneliff BMI—Bowie] Pretty, philosophical stanza here.

MIKI DALLON (RCA Victor 8649)

(B+) I CARE ABOUT YOU (2:41) [Millwick BMI—Dallon] Real soft orking on a screaming blueser.

(B) I'LL GIVE YOU LOVE (2:16) [Millwick BMI—Segal] Barrelling, pounder for the dance set.

DONDI (Challenge 1243)

(B+) BUZZ, BUZZ, BUZZ (2:05) [Cash BMI—Byrd, Gray] Lots of dance potential on this driver.

(B) S & L (2:59) [Zulu, 4 Star Sales BMI—Henderson, Benay] Switch to a percolatin' instrumental on the flip.

GERALD WILSON ORCHESTRA (World-Pacific 434)

(B+) IN THE LIMELIGHT (2:16) [Amestoy BMI—Wilson] Groovy jazz piece culled from the artist's LP, "On Stage."

(B) COULD BE (2:22) [Jana BMI—McCann] Satin-soft jazz blueser, good for late night programming.

ROUND ROBIN (Domain 1009)

(B+) I'M THE WOLF MAN (2:35) [4 Star Sales BMI—Baker, Knight] Crashing teen item with heaps of danceability.

(B) SIT AND DANCE (2:10) [Popcorn BMI—Romans, Fink] Lots more dance material with this fruggin' instrumental.

RUTH McFADDEN (Sure-Shot 5011)

(B+) DO IT UP RIGHT (2:13) [Don BMI—Fann, Roberts, Mosley] Lark does a nice job with a snapping jerker.

(B) I'LL CRY (2:28) [E. B. Marks BMI—McCoy, Steward] Change of pace to soulful blues styling.

SYL JOHNSON (TMP-Ting 115)

(B+) I'VE GOT TO GET OVER (2:22) [Toddmark BMI—Scott] Melancholy wooser with catchy backing.

(B) FALLING IN LOVE AGAIN (2:25) [Toddmark BMI—Goldberg] Slightly more up-tempo on this finger-snapper.

BOB & BOBBY (Tower 154)

(B+) TWELVE-O-FOUR (2:55) [New Executive, BMI—Norberg] Mid-tempo multi-dance duet.

(B) BABY WHAT YOU WANT ME TO DO (2:12) [Conrad, BMI—Reed] Big beat revival of the Jimmy Reed oldie.

STAN KENTON (Capitol 5480)

(B+) THEME FROM PEYTON PLACE (2:09) [Robbins ASCAP-Waxman] Vet orkster dishes up his usual fine stuff. Just right for smooth programming.

(B+) 007 (2:30) [Anton ASCAP-Kenton] Thrills and chills in the secret agent vein.

THE DENIMS (Columbia 43367)

(B+) EVERYBODY LET'S DANCE (2:02) [Fame BMI—Hall] Hard, bashing teen sound for the 'monkey' lovers.

(B) SAD GIRL (2:14) [Screen Gems-Columbia BMI—Curry, John, Duff, Zaccor, Arnell, Super] Forlorn, sentimental ballad.

SUSAN KING (Turntable 711)

(B+) DRUM RHYTHM (2:18) [Sentimental BMI—King, Gibbs, Lucie] Spirited, teen-slanted mover.

(B) YOU GOT ME IN A FIX (2:14) [Playnote BMI—Wright, Lucie] Smooth job on a jerkin' lament.

THE VAGRANTS (Southern Sound 204)

(B+) OH THOSE EYES (2:34) [Claridge ASCAP-Storch] A real pretty ballad gets the 'Mersey' treatment.

(B) YOU'RE TOO YOUNG (2:00) [Claridge ASCAP-Tyson, Abrahams] This side is the same, but slightly more uptempoed.

SOUL INC (Joli 075)

(B+) IT REALLY DOESN'T MATTER NOW (2:10) [Bingo BMI-Sullivan] Harsh vocal backed by a pounding combo.

(B) YOU BETTER GET A MOVE ON (2:10) [Bingo BMI-Sullivan] Wailing multi-danceable.

HOMER & JETHRO

These wild and wacky musicians (!) are at it again in "Homer & Jethro Sing Tenderly" (LPM/LSC 3357). It's an album that's loaded with laughs—H. & J. do their most with ballads like "Fly Me to the Moon" and "Arrivederci, Roma." Give this one feature promotion and watch it take off!

POP PICKS

ELVIS FOR EVERYONE—Elvis Presley—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3450

Sitting pretty in the top twenty with "Girl Happy," and already boasting fifteen LP's that have passed the $1,000,000 sales mark, Elvis Presley has come up with another sure-fire item that should pull in enough attention to rocket up the LP charts. The world famous swinger puts together a gathering of up-tempo and soft sounds, highlighted by "I Met Her Today" and "Summer Kisses, Winter Tears." Hauling in singles exposure with 2 top 100 items, the songwriter's hitsville path is paved.

GENTLE IS MY LOVE—Nancy Wilson—Capitol T/ST 2351

Currently holding down a top twenty spot with her last LP, Nancy Wilson is sure to grab loads of attention with her new sampling, "Gentle Is My Love." The romantic setting brilliantly sets a silken mood that is aptly suited to her velvet vocal talent, and her exquisite reading of songs like "If Ever I Would Leave You," "There Will Never Be Another You" and the title track make it a package likely to be added to many programming schedules on pop outlets. Overwhelmingly beautiful.

I'M THE ONE WHO LOVES YOU—Dean Martin—Reprise R/RS 6170

Clicking with sales on both the pop and teen fronts, Dean Martin has cultivated a following that makes each of his efforts one that is a sure bet to reach the best seller charts. This new LP is no exception, packing all the smoothness and sophistication that has endeared the chanter to millions. Among the enchanting selections to be found here are his latest hit ("Remember Me) I'm the One Who Loves You" with other recent "King of the Road" and "Birds And The Bees."

LOOKING BACK—Nat "King" Cole—Capitol T/ST 2361

A phenomenal seller for over a decade, the late Nat Cole is shown in all his brilliance on this collection of softies in his own inimitable style. The chanter's satin voice is showcased with eleven ballads against a lush orchestral and soft choral backdrop. Among the outstanding selections included on this set are "Time and the River," "Sweet Bird of Youth" and "Just as Much as Ever." Sure to be a strong catalog item, the LP should follow the hit footsteps of his last "L-O-V-E" outing.

UP THROUGH THE YEARS—Jim Reeves—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3427 (e)

An artist whose sales have not dwindled even now, a year after his death, Jim Reeves' popularity on the pop scene as well as in the c&w field should turn this offering into a hit LP. Spot-lighting a dozen of the chanter's best known tunes, it showcases his talents in a most appealing set. Highlight tracks include "Bimbo," his "Nooitjé Van Die Ou Transvaal" and "Two Shadows on Your Window." Chart spot is almost certain for this LP.

HOW TO STUFF A WILD BIKINI—Orig. Soundtrack—Wand 671

The fifth in producers' Nicholson and Arhoff's series of "Beach Party" films has more to recommend it than a teen-star-studded cast; it features a score that could turn up a best selling album for Wand Records. Spot-lighting the talents of the Kingsmen and Annette among others, the set should see a sizeable sales showing. Among the tunes that show up nicely on this recording are: "Give Her Lovin'," "Better Be Ready" and the title track, "How to Stuff a Wild Bikini."

JOHNNY CASH SINGS THE BALLADS OF THE TRUE WEST—Columbia C2L 38/C2S 838

An artist whose fan clubs range from the country to the pop to the folk idiom, Johnny Cash could very well score with all these areas via this package of musical stories of the old west. An impressive double record set, this album features the chanter narrating and singing some of the best known ballads to spring from the wild and wooly days in our country's history, including such epics as "The Shifting, Whispering Sands" and both sides of his current c&w chart single, "Mr. Garfield" and "The Streets Of Laredo."

14 ORIGINAL CHART TOPPERS—Various Artists UAL 3440/UAS 6440

Seven artists familiar to rock fans are represented by two hits apiece on this United Artists set which includes oldies, newies, English and blues. The all-star lineup features Jay and the Americans with their recent "Come A Little Bit Closer," Bobby Goldsboro's "Little Things" and Frankie Avalon singing "Dede Dinah." Manfred Mann, Danny Williams, Johnny Rivers and Garnet Mimms are also represented in a package that should see a considerable teen turnout.

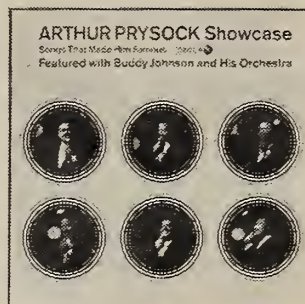

MORE AMOR—Eydie Gorme and the Trio Los Panchos—Columbia CL 2376/CS 9176

The overwhelming success of the first teaming of Eydie Gorme and the Trio Los Panchos, "Amor," has precipitated another magnificent set of lovelies spiced with Latin fire. The blend of voices and guitars on this Columbia LP should find a large welcome with pop, good music and Spanish-speaking deejays, prompting perky sales responses both north and south of the border. Among the outstanding tunes beautifully handled are: "Flores Negras," "Mas Amor" and "Guitarra Romana."

ONLY THE BEST—Ferrante & Teicher—United Artists UAL 3434/UAS 6434

Excitingly lovely fare from the piano pairing of Ferrante and Teicher is nothing new, and as they prove again, the tunes may be selected from almost any musical area. Using three movie themes, an idiom that established their reputation, a handful of pop items, and several Broadway songs, the duo come up with some elegant spinning on this outing. Included on the platter are: "Red Roses For a Blue Lady," "Chim Cheree" and "Fiddler on the Roof." Should become an active LP.

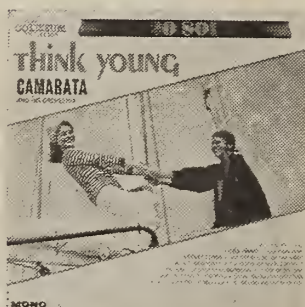

ARTHUR PRYSOCK SHOWCASE—Decca DL 4623/4623

A bright name among today's romantic vocalists, Arthur Prysock is featured on this album with many of the original recordings of the tunes that brought him to the successful position he now holds. Backed by Buddy Johnson and his orchestra, the chanter displays some of his range and versatility as he gently handles the tender, romantic love songs highlighted in the disk, including "We'd Only Start It All Over Again" and "Ever Since the One I Love's Been Gone."

MR. PHYLLIS—Joan Rivers—Warner Brothers W/WS 1610

A bright new comedienne who has been the center of much attention since her debut on the "Tonight" show in Feb., Joan Rivers is represented on nine tracks in a display of her sharp wit. The artist's first set is likely to find a large reception, with many of the stories brief enough for airplay to afford good exposure. Among the tales included here are: "Present for Mr. Phyllis," "The Drunk Dog" and "The Fat Girl." Chartbound.

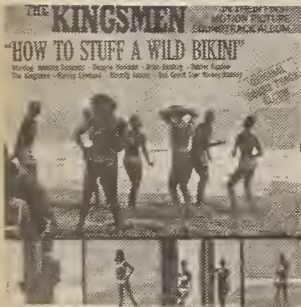

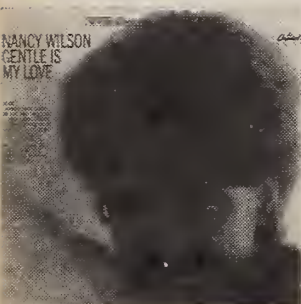

THINK YOUNG—Camerata—Coliseum D 41001/DS 51001

Vibrant musical interpretations of thirteen current and recent teen hits, by Camerata and Tutti's Trombones, comes across with a lively sophistication that should make for plenty of appeal to the "jet" and "Discotheque" sets. The London distributed LP features tunes like "(I Can't Get No) Satisfaction," "What's New Pussycat" and "Sunshine, Lollipops and Rainbows" for highly intriguing fare. Could find enough attention to break wide open.

BEAT & SOUL—Everly Brothers—Warner Brothers W/WS 1605

A pair that has already shown proficiency in many of the varied forms that rock has taken on the popular scene, the Everly Brothers turn on their full harmonic charm in this collection of the leading r&b hits of the past few months, with a number of blues standards thrown in for good measure. Among the outstanding spinners are: "People Get Ready," "Hi Heel Sneakers" and "The Girl Can't Help It." Plenty of programming and sales reactions are in store for this set.

ONE MORE TIME WITH FEELING—Damita Jo—Epic LN 24164/BN 26164

MY KIND OF BROADWAY—Woody Herman—Columbia CL 2357/CS 9157

Hefty big band stylings and the best of the recent Broadway scores combine forces to turn up a set that has unlimited appeal. Woody Herman and his Swinging Herd's newest Columbia effort features tunes from hot mainstemmers like "Roar" ("Who Can I Turn To"), "The Sound of Music" ("My Favorite Things") and "The Boys From Syracuse" ("This Can't Be Love"). Moving in high style, the album captures all the liveliness and poignance of the songs in a sparkling showcase.

POP BEST BETS

SHENANDOAH—Original Soundtrack—Decca DL 9125/79125

The conflict and the poignancy of the new Universal Pictures release, "Shenandoah," has been powerfully complemented by a wonderful score composed by Frank Skinner. The film, starring James Stewart, Doug McClure and Rosemary Forsyth, deals with the problems faced by one family that tries to remain neutral during the Civil War, and the soundtrack is a strong musical interpretation of the film's drama. Top tracks include "Horse Play" and the Jimmy Stewart narration, "The Legend of Shenandoah."

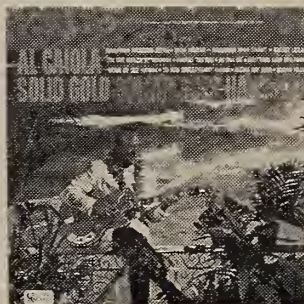

THE BEST OF LIBERACE—Coral 7CXSB 9

The well-known piano stylings of Liberace have come to the fore once again in this delightfully pleasant two-record Coral LP. Backed by the orchestra under the baton of Gordon Robinson, the pianist dusts the keyboard in his interpretations of two dozen of the biggest tunes of the last few decades, including twinkling versions of "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing" and "Me And My Shadow," as well as a lively run with "Mack The Knife."

SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY—Doris Day—Columbia CL 2360/CS 9160

The perennially young and sparkling voice of Doris Day is stunningly highlighted on this lush, romantic "Sentimental Journey" LP which showcases the songstress before arrangements by Mort Garson. A dozen sturdies, particularly soft ballads, provide the fare, with tunes like: "The More I See You," "I'm Beginning to See the Light" and "It's Been a Long, Long Time." Long a programmer's favorite, the lark's latest outing should be one that will see active sales action.

SOLID GOLD GUITAR GOES HAWAIIAN—Al Caiola—United Artists UAL

The money-making guitar of Al Caiola, which has chalked up many a hit with melodies from the Mainland, has turned its attention to the tropical shores of the Hawaiian Isles and delivered another easy-to-listen-to performance. Conducted by Nick Pietro, the session is arranged by Caiola, who picks and strums some of the loveliest tunes to stem from the 50th state. Highlighting the album are such items as "Sweet Leilani" and "On The Beach At Waikiki."

ERNEST TUBB & LORETTA LYNN—Decca DL 4639/DL 74639

The combo of Ernest Tubb and Loretta Lynn, currently climbing up the country charts with a single called "Our Hearts Are Holding Hands," use the same tune to highlight this package, which is destined for a quick trip to country hitsville. The huge fan clubs of both of these top bluegrass specialists should get on the scent of this one and bring it on home in short order. Other top notch tracks include the flip of the hit single, "We're Not Kids Anymore" and the well-known "A Dear John Letter."

THE REAL GEORGE KIRBY—Argo 4045

Renowned as a comic and mimic, George Kirby steps out in a legitimate setting on this straight singing performance. The jokester injects humor in a few of the lighter tunes, but shows a capability with ballad and easy swing songs as well. Likely to sell a good many on his reputation, the chanter could pick up the sales pace with a bit of exposure. Among the stand-outs are: "Get Me To The Church On Time," "The Joker" and "This Is The Life."

FEELING GOOD—Xavier Cugat—Decca DL 4672/DL 74672

An artist long associated with Latin-flavored liveliness, Xavier Cugat turns the attention of his volatile orchestra to an assortment of some of the biggest tunes to burst from the current Broadway and rock avenues, all handled with a tropical treatment. Some of the biggies from the Broadway belt include "Hello Dolly" and "Fiddler On The Roof," while the rock area is represented with the recent biggies "Game Of Love" and "Downtown."

NANA—Nana Mouskouri—Fontana MGF 27545/SRF 67545

An artist who has already won critical acclaim throughout Europe for her powerful and sensitive renditions of folkloric material, Nana Mouskouri should establish herself even more strongly here in the U.S. with this thoroughly impressive selection of melodies, handled in her fresh, warm-hearted style. Each tune in this album gets the ful, rich Mouskouri treatment, making the LP a highly enjoyable musical display. Featured tunes include "Johnny" and "I Gave My Love A Cherry."

THAT'S ALL—Mel Torme—Columbia CL 2318/CS 9118

One of the finest romantic chanters, Mel Torme outdoes himself on his latest Columbia offering of selections geared for late night and "good" pop programming. The "velvet fog" drifts in over the exotic Robert Mersey arrangements, and lingers in a gorgeous haze that should find a great appeal both to fans of the vet, and the younger crowd not familiar with his brilliance. Selections include: "The Nearness of You," "The Second Time Around" and "Do I Love You Because."

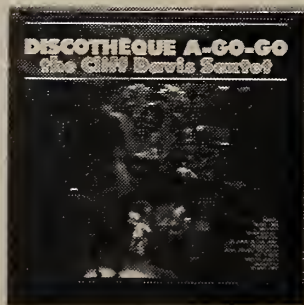

SKITCH . . . TONIGHT!—Skitch Henderson—Columbia CL 2367/CS 9167

Long a noted orkster, Skitch Henderson's reputation has climbed well beyond its earlier high point via his work on the NBC-TV "Tonight" show, and this could exert a considerable effect on the popularity of this superb Columbia LP. The soft big band selections capture a freshness and vitality on this set that includes softies and swingers. Highlight samplings feature: Hoagy Carmichael's "Heart And Soul," "So What Else Is New?" by Clark Terry, and Henderson's own "Curacao."

TRUMPETS' GREATEST HITS—Bobby Hackett—Epic LN 24155/BN 26155

One of the brightest hornmen around in his own right, Bobby Hackett has recorded a musical tribute to some of the greatest trumpeteers of alltime, including Bix Beiderbecke, Bunny Berigan, Billy Butterfield, Clyde McCoy, Harry James and Ray Anthony, among others. Backed by a lush string orchestra, Hackett does a superb job as he takes on the "theme" songs of the greats and sets them in his own style. Top efforts include "And The Angels Sing" and "Memories Of You."

DISCOTHEQUE A-GO-GO—The Cliff Davis Sextet—Epic LN 21173/BN 26173

The percolating percussion of the discotheque dance craze has received another walloping treatment on this Epic outing by the Cliff Davis Sextet. A lively and refreshing group, the sextet lets loose with a raunchy sound and uninhibited beat that's just right for the turbulent steps that have conquered the dance floors around the country. A wild party package, this LP is highlighted by "Twine Time" and "Shot Gun."

BROADWAY BEAT—Stan Worth—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3362

Stan Worth is a young and relatively unknown performer who, judging from this RCA Victor LP, will soon have a flock of fans to call his own. On this package he displays some of his wide-ranging versatility as he vocalizes some of the biggest tunes to come forth from the Broadway stage, accompanying himself on a very swinging, jazz-flavored piano. Among the grooves that really wail are "Seventy Six Trombones," from "Music Man," and "Sit Down You're Rockin' The Boat," from "Guys And Dolls."

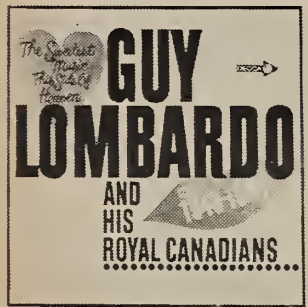

LUCKY 'LEVEN—Jimmy Gilmer—Dot DLP 3642/25643

Jimmy Gilmer and the Fireballs are making a bid for a lot of attention with this package of rhythmic bluesers and rompers, one short of a dozen. The boys kick off the album with a pounding tune called "Boom Boom and continue throughout the session with a whole bunch of raunchy, raucous sounds and "peanut butter" beat. More sides to keep an eye on in this one include the way-backer "The Fool" and the off-cut "High Heeled Sneakers."

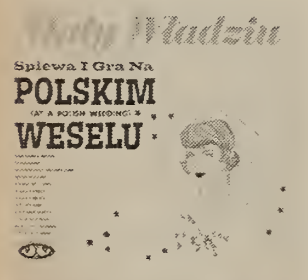

THE ELECTRIFYING GUITAR OF WALTER RAIM—Mercury MG 21021/SR 61021

The electric guitar is used to its utmost in this lovely tour de force by Walter Raim, whose magic handling of the instrument makes this an LP that could catch a good deal of pop and good music attention. Basically soft in its tempo and tone, the LP never lacks a liveliness which makes for fine entertainment. Among the finest of the twelve tracks included are: "The Teacher," "I Will Wait For You" from "The Umbrellas of Cherbourg" and "Amen."

THE SWEETEST MUSIC THIS SIDE OF HEAVEN—Guy Lombardo & His Royal Canadians—Decca DL 4329/74329

The fourth album in a series of Guy Lombardo's pleasurable musical biography, this one covers the years 1949-1954, and features the maestro leading his Royal Canadians through some of the biggest hits of those years. Just right for the collectors of Lombardo music, this album is filled with an abundance of the orkster's easy music, highlighted by such memorables as "Enjoy Yourself" and "A Thousand And One Nights," in addition to "Young At Heart" with a vocal by Bing Crosby.

POLISH WEDDING ALBUM—Li'l Wally—Jay Jay 1089

Long standing leader in the polka album field, Li'l Wally bows another set loaded with appeal to the Polish fans and other admirers of the lively dance. Featuring favorites with Ethnic appeal on this "Polish Wedding Album," the orkster serves up some splendid somewhat soft and highly lively selections. Among those included are: "Dzisiaj Jesta Wesele" (Today Is The Wedding), "W Sali Karuzeli" (Wedding At The Carousel) and "Zapoznanie" (Get Acquainted).

NIGHT AND DAY—Parris Mitchell Strings—Pickwick 33 PC/PCS 5005

Quickly becoming a popular orchestral unit, the Parris Mitchell is well represented on this outing in the budget priced Pickwick 33 line by lovely readings of ten standards. Tailor made for late night spinning, the set features the lush sound of the string combo in performances of romantic tracks like: "You Stepped Out Of A Dream," "Heart And Soul" and "I Dont Want To Walk With You." Beautifully packaged, the line itself is a draw to consumers, and this package is easily worth twice its price.

JAZZ PICKS

UP TO DATE WITH EARL HINES—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3380

Since his New York concert series of last year, Earl Hines has rocketed on the recognition scene, with LP's coming hot and heavy from several diskeries. The latest of these releases heads up the RCA Victor jazz drive, and features "Fatha" swinging with Bud Johnson, Ray Nance and Jimmy Crawford. Showcasing the genius of Hines, the LP spotlights tracks like: "A Cottage For Sale," "The Hour Of Parting" and "Wrap Your Troubles In Dreams."

ERIC DOLPHY IN EUROPE, VOL. 2—Prestige 7350

The wealth of material that has been released as a result of the death of Eric Dolphy has been responsible for bringing out both the best and the worst of this sax-flautist. Showing the musician nearing the peak of his genius, this selection of tracks, recorded in Denmark, presents Dolphy in the company of three Scandinavian sidemen who are well worthy of note. Keeping with the leader during these wide open sessions, all four performers stand out, with amazing showings on "The Way You Look Tonight" and "Miss Ann."

JAZZ BEST BETS

TESTIFYIN' TIME—Bunky Green—Argo 753

Sax wailing steeped in the r&b tradition marks the sound of Bunky Green and the sextet that turns in a fine series of performances on this wide open and wild moving session. Featuring a collection of swing and rock tunes, the combo works up a storm of up-tempo tempters fitted for lively spinning. Among the eight tracks are: "Silver Dollar," "Tweedlee Dee" and a quartet reading of "On Green Dolphin Street." Sweet stuff here.

GREAT MOMENTS IN JAZZ RECREATED AT THE NEWPORT JAZZ FESTIVAL—Various Artists—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3369

The collector's item sound recorded on this LP was a recreation of some of the high spots in the late dixie-early swing era. Cut at the '64 edition of the Newport Jazz Festival, the set features tracks offered as an homage to the figures of the bygone age, with the greats performing their famous selections. Among the tunes included are "Sweet Georgia Brown," "Big Noise From Winnetka" and "Stars Fell On Alabama." Should attract jazz faithfuls.

CLASSICAL PICKS

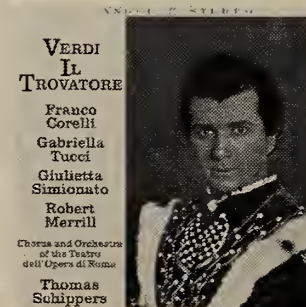

BRAHMS: SONATA NO. 3 FOR VIOLIN AND PIANO/SINDING: SUITE/RAVEL: TZIGANE; Heifetz; RCA Victor LM 2836

The unique collaboration of Heifetz and Kapell on the three sonatas for violin and piano by Brahms has long been a collector's item, and the final work is highlighted on this reissue of the 1950 recording. Also including the "Suite, Op. 10" by Christian Sinding and the remarkably performed "Tzigane" of Maurice Ravel, this RCA Victor set should become a much sought after catalog item. Orchestral support is rendered by the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Alfred Wallenstein conducting.

CARNEGIE HALL RECITAL; Shirley Verrett; RCA Victor LM/LSC 2835

A mezzo-soprano who has earned every bit of the overwhelming critical acclaim she has received, Shirley Verrett is exquisitely spotlighted in this recording made at her Carnegie Hall recital of Jan. 30, 1965. The artist performs a wide range of material, including art songs and folk ballads as well as aria excerpts. Tracks include: Mozart's "Alleluia" from the "Exsultante, Jubilate;" "He's Goin Away" and several songs by Schubert. Excellent performance.

VERDI: IL TROVATORE; Corelli, Tucci, Merrill; Angel SCL 3653

Featuring an excellent cast, superior recording techniques and magnificent orchestral support by the Orchestra of the Teatro dell'Opera di Roma conducted by Thomas Schippers, this should become an extremely popular performance of the well-known Verdi opus. Artists include Franco Corelli (the subject of an intensive promotion), Gabriella Tucci and Robert Merrill. An excellent reading of the complete work on three-disks, including photographic text.

MADRIGALS AND INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC—Telemann Soc. Chorus—Counterpoint/Esoteric 618/5618

The only American organization that has been regularly recording music of the English Renaissance and following era, the Telemann Society has approached the authentic presentation of this music through the development of "pararhythmic integration." In its latest series of packages, the ensemble performs in precise and brilliant style, here presenting works of Morley, Pilkington and others. Fanciers of Madrigals will be enthusiastic over this offering.

THE SHINDIG PICK OF THE WEEK!
Watch Sonny perform it August 11

LAUGH AT ME
WHY CAN'T I, BE LIKE ANY GUY
WHY DO THEY TRY TO MAKE ME RUN, SON OF A GUN
WHAT DO THEY CARE, ABOUT THE CLOTHES I WEAR
WHY GET THEIR KICKS FROM MAKIN' FUN
THIS WORLD GOT A LOT OF SPACE AND IF THEY DON'T LIKE MY FACE
IT AIN'T ME THAT'S GOIN' ANYWHERE
SO I DON'T CARE
THEN LAUGH AT ME,
IF THAT'S THE FARE I HAVE TO PAY TO BE FREE
THEN BABY, LAUGH AT ME AND I'LL CRY FOR YOU AND I'LL PRAY FOR YOU AND I'LL DO ALL THE THINGS THAT THE MAN UPSTAIRS SAYS TO DO
I'LL DO 'EM FOR YOU, I'LL DO 'EM FOR YOU
IT'S GOTTA START SOMEPLACE
IT'S GOTTA START SOMETIME
I'LL MAKE THAT OTHER CHEEK MINE,
AND MAYBE THE NEXT GUY, THAT DON'T WEAR A SILK TIE
HE CAN WALK BY AND SAY HI, SAY HI, INSTEAD OF WHY

Arnold Maxim To Meet European Affiliates

NEW YORK—Arnold Maxim, executive head of the Big Three pubbery took off for England last week to discuss the firm's current overseas musical action with Fred David, Bert Corri and Eddie and David Day of Francis, Day & Hunter; Ben Nisbet of B. Feldman & Co. and Alan Holmes of Robbins Music.

KING FOR A DAY—Bill Tallant, vice president and national sales manager of Capitol Records' Distributing Corp., was congratulated by diskery head Alan Livingston during the recent festivities that celebrated his 20th anniversary with the firm. The celebration, held in the Capitol tower, was highlighted by the presentation of a 20 year pin to the day's kingpin.

He will also confer with Maurice Jarre who is completing the "Dr. Zhivago" score, and will then hop to the Continent for confabs at the firm's Paris branch. Big 3 continental affiliates are currently riding high in France, Belgium and Holland with music from "Zorba The Greek."

thanks a million, deejays.

RECORD RAMBLINGS

NEW YORK:

The shifting scene at the Forest Hills Music Festival covered two major areas previously not represented at the program's sessions, rock and jazz. The bill featured Trini Lopez, with Stan Getz and Woody Allen, certainly headliners in their own right, as warm-up attractions. Due to an airline "hang up," Getz was unable to make the show, but providing ample satisfaction to the jazz buffs on hand, Herbie Mann turned up with a team of "the fastest dressing musicians in the business." Allen covered for a bit of spare time in an extra stint prior to the sextet's session; and from then on it was Latin-pop-folk-romancer fare from the vivid Reprise artist. Lopez proved once more that his flare for entertaining is not limited to recording studios or nighteries, as he brought the concert crowd to life eliciting support in the form of finger-snapping, hand-clapping and a series of sing-alongs. Aside from his artistic talents, the chanter's most useful asset is his ability to invigorate his audience, leaving each viewer with the pleasure of both hearing, and participating. Most of the folk will be happy to hear that Lopez' new outing "The Rhythm and Blues Album" is now in release. Meanwhile, he was off to Monaco for a Red Cross charity show last week. . . . The 15,000 seat stadium was also sold-out for the Sun. (8) edition of Barbra Streisand's concert. . . . Jody Miller was in town to do her second stand on the Al Hirt "Fanfare" Show bowing her new outing, "Home of the Brave." While in Gotham she made the rounds under the wing of Capitol promo rep Tom Rogan. . . . Another alumnus of the hornman's TV'er, Lesley Gore showcased her "Sunshine, Lollipops and Rainbows" in tapings of an Aug. "Shindig" and a Sept. "Hullabaloo" stanza. . . . Murray the K has added Jordan Christopher and the Wild Ones and the Supremes to the cast of his half-hour WOR-TV spec. . . . Mary Wells heads at the Hejaz Grotto in New Haven (14) to be followed by a showing at the Minnesota State Fair for five nights starting Aug. 28. . . . The Paulette Sisters are set for a stand this week (11-13) at the Gouverneur in the N. Y. Fair. . . .

A pleasure meeting the Righteous Bros. last week while they were in town for a couple of TV shots, including the "Tonight" show (3). . . . Norman Dello Joio, whose music for the NBC-TV special "The Louvre" has been awarded an Emmy nomination, is busy prepping portions of the score for band. The opus will be published by Marks Music when ready. He's currently at work on a new project for the upcoming ABC drama series, "Moment of Decision" to bow this fall. . . . The Dukes of Dixieland, newly affiliated with Decca, are skedded for a Dean Martin spot Oct. 14. . . . Sue jazz organist Jimmy McGriff is following his Antibes Jazz Fest showing with one-nighters around the French and Italian Riviera. . . . Henny Youngman has cut "The Wreck," his first waxing out of the comedy vein. The tune, recorded for the Brighton label, was inspired by the Wreck Bar at the Castaways in Miami Beach. . . . Otis Polard gets the production credit on the Jive Five's UA hit, "I'm a Happy Man." . . . Mercury's national promo director Morris Diamond honeymooning in New York with his new missus. . . . Al Altman beaming over placement of two Metric tunes in the new Trini Lopez LP, also proud about the action of Chuck Jackson's "If I Didn't Love You" (Wand). . . . Comic George Kirby makes a return appearance on the "Tonight" show (9), where he'll be doing a couple of songs from his first LP as a vocalist. The Argo offering is tabbed "The Real George Kirby." . . . George Maharis has been signed for a Dec. stand at the Persian Room. The actor-vocalist, who has been cutting with Epic for three years, recently completed a highly successful tour of South America. . . . Al Gaitwood, prexy at Gait Records, announced the pacting of the Profiles, who are currently making promo appearances on behalf of their "Never" and "Right By Her Side" deck. . . . Serendipity Singers back in town at the Bitter End (13) for ten-days. . . .

Talent manager Roy Silver has teamed with Sheldon Schultz to form Triple S Productions, the first project to be a one hour special starring Bill Cosby and featuring Joan Rivers. The Julie Godsey was appointed promo rep for Summit Dist.'s line in the Cincy and Southern Ohio area and is currently working on "Let's Have A Beach Party" by the Pleasures (RSVP). . . . With Bobby Garmisa the big ones to watch are "Wish You Didn't Have To Go" by Tommy Roe (ABC) and "Eve Of Destruction" by Barry McGuire (Dunhill).

HOLLYWOOD:

L.A. continues to bang away with bullets—ten of the top 30 singles and fifteen of the top 30 albums on this week's CB chart were cut here. . . . We wonder if the Righteous Bros. are aware of the fact that their current hit "Unchained Melody" was in the CB top ten just ten years ago this week. The artist was Al Hibbler. . . . Fashion note —Sonny Bono, wearing his new three-quarter length skunk skinned jacket, and with Cher, waved farewell to 2000 fans at International Airport here last week. We now hear that they were refused admittance to the Hilton Hotel when they arrived in London. This, just two weeks to the day that Sonny was booted from Martoni's Restaurant and was thereupon inspired to write "Laugh At Me." Now there's a rumor that Mario and Tony, who own the eatery, are about to cut an "answer" record! . . . If you'd like to fall in love again may we suggest you sample a song—or even a breath—from Nancy Wilson's latest Capitol LP "Gentle Is My Love." She's currently taping the Dean Martin Show and she's our "West Coast Girl Of The Week." . . . Incidentally, Capitol's Bill Tallant is celebrating his 20th anniversary with the firm this week. . . . Snuff Garrett, completing an indie session with Ed Brown of Joe and Eddie for GNP Crescendo, reports the new Gary Lewis album for Liberty will ship this week. . . . Herman's Hermits film the Danny Kaye Show on Aug. 12 and head for Honolulu and the Arena. . . . Freddy Cannon, set for The American Bandstand on Aug. 21, makes San Fernando Valley his home—new address is in Tarzana. . . . Dave McCallum, Emmy nominee for "The Man From U.N.C.L.E.," will co-star with Carol Channing and George Burns in a CBS special to be filmed here on Aug. 29. . . . Ernie Freeman arranged sessions for Dot and Eddie Fisher last week, Edie Adams on Sunday, Chipmunks this Monday, Connie Francis on Wednesday and Connie Stevens on Thursday—what happened to Tuesday? . . . Sam Riddle's "Hollywood A Go Go" TV series, seen in 25 U.S. markets and 10 overseas, has been inked for another 26 weeks. . . . Don Bohanan, V.P. and General Manager for Hanna Barbera Records, returns this week from a two-week 15-city business tour. . . . Larry Goldblatt and Ken Raphael meeting with N.Y. TV toppers on their Jan and Dean-Roger Christian video special "Beat Beat" which was premiered here last week on KTTV. . . . High on the charts in Modesto, Bakersfield and Stockton with local play on the way are the Brogues whose Twilight Record is titled "But Now I Find." Several local labels bidding for the master. . . . Bob Holliday, promo man and publisher, requests press releases on current artists—address is WKDA in Nashville. . . . There's a new teenage nightclub on the strip with Bobby "Let Her Dance" Fuller the current attraction.

HERE AND THERE:

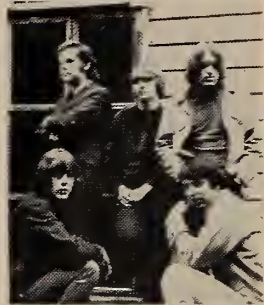

PHILADELPHIA—Matty's "Humdinger" Singer tabs Barry McGuire's "Eve of Destruction" the "biggest deck of the year." More goodies from the ABC studios include Tom and Jerrio's "Great Goo-Ga-Moo-Ga" and "I Need You" by the Impressions. This week's advice: "Be yourself! If that doesn't satisfy, improve yourself." . . . Buzz Curtis touts smash sales showings by the Exceptions with "Down by the Ocean" (Cameo); "Do You Believe in Magic" by the Lovin' Spoonful (Kama-Sutra); Dean Martin's "Houston" (Reprise); and "What Are We Going to Do" from David Jones (Colpix). . . . Hefty movers in this area according to Ron Singer are: "Who'll Be Next in Line"

NANCY WILSON

BROGUES

Club was formerly—alas—the redolent Giro's. . . . Currently at The Dunes in Vegas is Bill Carey whose initial outing for Dot is "That Girl" b/w "I Am," the Tony Bennett hit of yesteryear. . . . Johnny Mandel has been signed by producer Jimmy Komack to compose the original theme for WB's "Mr. Roberts" series starring Roger Smith. . . . The Supremes will be arriving here later this month to cut their Xmas album. . . . And the Smother Bros.' latest Mercury album, we hear, is being tested by The National Education Association in S.F. as a kindergarten teaching device—it's titled "Aesop's Fables"—and we'd guess that the press release from McFadden, Strauss, Eddy and Irwin belongs in the LP.

by the Kinks, James Darren's "Because You're Mine" and "Action" with Freddy Cannon. . . .

Joe Bertotta of P&R Distribs sends along word about HBR singles stirring up a lot of excitement here: "Roses and Rainbows" from Danny Hutton, and "I Don't Believe You" by the Guilloteens. . . .

BALTIMORE—This city has given the high sign to both sides of the Righteous Bros. "Hung On You" and "Unchained Melody" deck according to Dave Carrico, whose other sales leaders at Marshall-Mangold include: "Ride Your Pony" from Lee Dorsey, Eddie Rambeau's "My Name is Mud" and he ecstatically touts smash for "What Are We Going to Do" from David Jones.

4 Corners Fall Drive Features 5 New LP's

NEW YORK—At sales conferences in New York and Los Angeles, Bud Katzell, head of Four Corners Records, announced the label's plans for its fall drive. The program will include discounts available to distributors and dealers and a new promotion incentive plan both focusing around the new product, which will include five LP's.

In addition to the sales aids being offered for the new product, the label initiated a "4 Corners . . . 4 Market Bonus" program which will operate in the following manner: Specific singles will be designated for the plan. After an initial order of 1,000 or more has been made for these decks, a re-order of a thousand or more will earn the promotion man covering that distributor's market a bonus of $100. When the side begins to reach the Cash Box Top 100 charts, the first four men to have earned bonuses on that record will be awarded additional checks of $100 when the record reaches the top 50, again as it hits the top 20, yet again if it climbs into the top ten, and another $100 if it reaches the top 5. The promotion men can thus earn as much as $500 on a single disk. Should a specific "cut" in an LP attract enough attention to be released as a single it would automatically be designated a "bonus" record. In this event, the promo man responsible for reporting the reaction, thus starting consideration of the release, will be entitled to earn in the cash bonus program. The plan does not apply to records sold on a guarantee basis.

The Four Corners catalog is available at a 15% discount during the sales program's duration, which will be effective through Sept. 25. In addition, dated billing is being offered to qualified customers, with payments of 1/2 due on the tenth of Sept., Oct., and Nov.

Five new LP's were also announced for the fall drive. The quintet consists of a new offering from the Gunter Kallman German Chorus and Orch. with Bells, tabbed "Serenade For A Lady In Love," a follow-up to the label's best seller to date, "Serenade For Elisabeth;" and "Maid In Paris" with Francoise Hardy; "Great Themes From Foreign Films" performed by Philip Dante and his Ork; Sergio Franchi's "La Bella Italia;" and "Theme From 'Zorba The Greek' and More Greek Dance Music" by Kyriakos and his Orchestra.

AF Spotlights 12 Albums In Fall Release Plan

NEW YORK—Herman D. Gimbel, the new president of Audio Fidelity Records, has announced the label's fall program, the first of his projected plans for the expansion and promotion of the label. Harold Drayson, vice president, and Barry Oslander, A&R director, have also come up with a twelve album release package for the drive. Gimbel, in addition to giving his staff the "green light" in exploiting the release and procuring new artists, has stressed that the high standards of quality associated with the firm will be maintained at all times, regardless of the artist or material being recorded.

In conjunction with the Aug. program, the firm is offering a 2-on-10 deal for the entire catalog, with the exception of the "First Component Series," which will be offered on a special deal.

The twelve new albums being included in the company's sales and promotion campaign are spearheaded by five classical LP's, the first activity that the diskery has exhibited in this area. The packages include: Beethoven's Symphony No. 6. "The Pastoral;" Brahms' Concerto No. 2 in B Flat; Schumann's Symphony No. 1 and Concerto in A Minor; Brahms' Symphony No. 1; and a collection of Von Suppe Overtures and Strauss Waltzes.

Other platters being offered simultaneously include: "Among the Stars" the debut of South African lark Renee Raff; "The Singing Priest" by Father Columba McManus; "A Sound Of Their Own" by the Folk Four; "Jazz Tempo-Latin Accents;" a "Library Of Sound Effects" and "More From The Gay 90's."

WB Re-links Connie Stevens; Signs Jobim And Doravil

BURBANK—Mike Maitland, president of Warner Bros. Records, announced last week that Connie Stevens has re-signed an exclusive recording contract with the label.

The lark-thespian, who recently completed filming "Never To Late" on the Warner Bros. lot, will record her first singles, under the new arrangement, in Hollywood on Aug. 11. Connie Stevens has had several best-selling singles for the label including her recent "Now That You've Gone" and "16 Reasons." Producer for the forthcoming sessions will be Jimmy Bowen.

At the same time, Maitland noted that WB had signed agreements with Ray Gilbert and Louis Oliveira, of Rio Cali Productions, calling for the recording services of two of Brazil's foremost composers and conductors, Antonio Carlos Jobim and Doravil Caymmi.

Gilbert and Oliviera, who manage and represent Jobim and Caymmi as well as a number of other Brazilian performers, were largely responsible for the success already enjoyed by Jobim in the U. S.

Jobim's first LP, "The Wonderful World Of Antonio Carlos Jobim," has just been released by the label. Ray Gilbert provided the English lyrics to the Jobim songs in collaboration with the Brazilian author.

Plans are currently being made for the recording and subsequent release of an album by Caymmi, the latter being supervised by Louis Oliviera in Brazil.

MGM Brass To Tour European Offices

NEW YORK—MGM Prexy Mort Nasatir and DGG general manager Jerry Schoenbaum left last week for a round of business meetings with EMI officials and MGM Record reps in England, France and Germany. This will be the label chief's first meeting with his overseas reps and affiliates since taking over the company reins on June 1.

The duo will be accompanied in part by Arnold Maxim, head of the Robbins, Feist and Miller pubbery, who will formally introduce Nasatir to England's top EMI brass, Sir Ted Lewis and Sir Leonard Wood. In addition to which, Maxim, the former MGM topper, will also be conducting his own series of business meets (see separate story).

From England, the MGM execs will then look over the Polydor operation in Paris, holding meetings with Andre Poulain. A greater part of their visit will be spent with DGG officials Kurt Kinkele, Heinz Voigt and Henning Rintelen in Hamburg.

Nasatir plans to make frequent overseas visits so that he can keep in personal contact with the ever expanding overseas operations of the record division.

GOLD IN THEM THAR TRILLS—Mort Nasatir, president of MGM Records, added another gold disk to the growing collection being formed by Herman's Hermits, this one for over one million dollars in sales of their recent smash "Mrs. Brown, You've Got A Lovely Daughter." The team received the award at the Plaza Hotel in New York during the diskery's distributor convention. Shown with Nasatir are: Barry Whitwam, Derek Leckenby, Herman (Peter Noone), Karl Green and Keith Hopwood. Their current hit, "I'm Henry VIII, I Am," which last week topped the Top 100, is currently up for RIAA certification and another plaque.

Phono Sales Show General Decline

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The latest reports from the Electronic Industries Association show that the sales of portable and console phonographs for the month of May have taken a general dip.

Distributor sales of portable/table models totaled 138,662 for May, 1965 as opposed to 136,669 for the same month in 1964 and 194,959 for Apr., 1965. Distributor sales for the January-May period this year totaled 1,036,681, compared with a figure of 771,839 for the comparable period of last year.

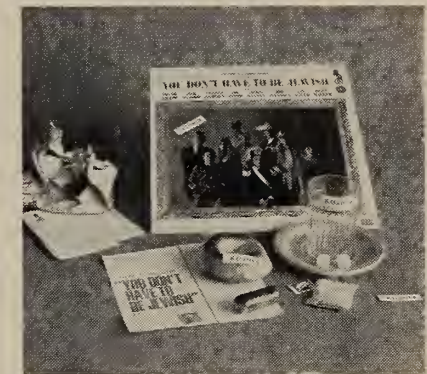

Distributor sales of console phonographs in May totaled 51,152, a decline from the 70,682 units sold in the same month last year and the 81,916 units sold in April, 1965. Sales for the first five months of this year totaled 499,617, as compared with the 532,309 figure for the same period last year.

Fowler To Gotham

NEW YORK—Ray Fowler, former producer and chief engineer for Riverside Records, has joined the Gotham Recording Corporation in New York City.

At Gotham, Fowler will report to veep-creative services director Fred Hertz, and will be heavily involved in the firm's regular schedule of public service radio programs and spots, produced for various U.S. government agencies. He will also be involved in several new projects, now being developed.

Prior to his nearly 10-year stint at Riverside, Fowler spent over four years at Reeves Sound.

EVERYTHING'S KOSHER — A strictly kosher campaign kit has been issued by Kapp Records to make deejays, dealers and rack jobbers aware of the diskery's new comedy set, "You Don't Have to Be Jewish." The elements shown above set the stage for an 'in' feeling while hearing the LP from the producers of the smash "First Family" platter. The set includes: A genuine kosher salami (for eating while hearing the record); A glass, saucer, tea bag and two lumps of sugar (to wash down the salami); A newspaper wrapped around the contents (for reading, and afterwards to cover freshly waxed floors); A bagel (also handy as a spare skate board wheel); A one-cent stamp (with matzoh ball flavored mucilage); "Kosher" stickers, and the album itself. Word has it that so many of the salamis were eaten by the Kapp (or is it Knapp) staff during packing that an extra supply had to be rushed over for shipping.

AT LIBERTY—The 10th Anniversary celebration party for Liberty Records was marked by a fine turnout of distributors, salesmen, promo hands and diskery V.I.P.'s as can be seen in this photographic record of the welcoming reception, business meeting and dinner dance at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles staged July 30-31. Photos depict: (top row, left to right) Eli Bird (partially obscured), Cleveland promo; Gerry Lacoursiere, midwest promo; Phil Skaff, executive vice president; Mary Dorfman, LDRC of Ohio Sales, and Joe Simone, branch manager with LRDC of Ohio. (Sixth row) Seated during a speech are Hal Linick, Al Bennett, Bob Skaff, Lee Mendel, Dave Pell and Al LaVinger; new Liberty pactees the Two People; Mel Carter performing "Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Me;" Bobby Vee, who offered a medley of his hits; Al Bennett lighting the cigarette of Julie London while engaged in conversation with Gerald Wilson, whose orchestra was one of the evening's highlights; and Phil Skaff delivering one of the key speeches at the meeting.

Dot Signs Stafford

HOLLYWOOD—Dot Records has signed Jo Stafford to a long-term exclusive recording pact, it was announced by Randy Wood, the label's president.

Several albums are already in the planning stage with arranging and conducting to be performed by the lark's husband, Paul Weston. In recent years she has appeared on the Reprise and Capitol labels.

Name Change

NEW YORK—The Five Empressions, who have been garnering some spins with their Freeport bow of "Little Miss Sad," will heretofore be known as the Five Empees. Change of name was announced last by the label's parent firm, the Buddy Brown Co.

Brook Benton's Brother Dies

NEW YORK—Alfred Peay, brother of singer Brook Benton, died here last week (4) of a cerebral hemorrhage at the age of 36. He is survived by his widow and three children.

Walden Signs Sam & Dave

MACON, GA.—Exclusive Stax recording artists Sam & Dave, of Miami, Fla., were signed Aug. 2 to a long term management contract by Phil Walden of Macon, Ga. The duo, with a new single due in the next few weeks, have joined a roster that includes Otis Redding, Jimmy Hughes, Billy Young, the Dellacardos and Arthur Conley.

SIMS STEPS IN—Steve Lawrence (left) and manager Ken Greengrass (right) congratulate Lester Sims as he joins their GLG production firm. Sims, with 15 years as general professional manager with Big 3 behind him, will be general manager of GLG's music publishing interests. The pubbery deals with every market product from rock 'n' roll tunes to standard quality ballads and is also involved with Broadway scores, television works and recordings.

Mercury Retains PR Services Of Kimberly-Dormann

NEW YORK—Irving B. Green, president of Mercury Records, last week announced that the company has retained The Kimberly-Dormann Corporation to handle corporate public relations and supplement the activities of the diskery's internal publicity staff.

Green emphasized that the representation of the new PR counsel will extend to artists and activities of all nine labels within the Mercury structure. These include: Mercury, Philips, Smash, Fontana, Wing, Cumberland, Limelight, Emarcy and Blue Rock.

Assisting label PR director John Sippel, and coordinating press activity with K-D from the New York offices will be Charlotte Gilbert, classical; Martin Hoffman, pop; and Myrna Greenfield, jazz.

Florida market. He said a new record distribution center has been opened at 3979 North West 24th St., Miami. In addition, he said the company's Dallas facilities are being expanded and a new building has been leased in Dallas, in addition to present space, for record distribution. The new plant is at 8005 Sovereign Row in Dallas.

The corporation recently reported a record high in sales and earnings for the year ended April 30, 1965. Sales reached $34,932,453 up 24 per cent over $28,259,240 last year and earnings climbed 39 per cent to $1,516,528 or $1.51 per share from $1,088,487 or $1.09 the year before. During the past year, Handleman increased the quarterly, common stock, cash dividend to 20¢ from 17¢ per share.

With offices in both New York and Chicago, Kimberly-Dormann long has been active in the public relations field with extensive emphasis in the entertainment industry as well as with corporate and industrial clients. In addition to corporate and general publicity they will, from time to time, undertake special project assignments for the firm.

Epic Secures Hot Davey Daye Deck

NEW YORK—Epic Records has acquired the national distribution rights of Davey Day's single, "South Side Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania" b/w "Little Polish Boy." The record was released in the Pittsburgh area a few weeks ago, and, according to the label, became an immediate local hit.

Jensen Survey Shows Disk Collecting Top Hobby

NEW YORK—A recently-concluded survey by Jensen Industries indicates that collecting records is the number one hobby of today's teenagers. The kids also play records more than any other single age group. Collecting and playing records ranked far ahead of such other teenage hobbies as card playing, photography, stamp and coin collecting and movie-TV magazines.

Estimates are that teenagers spend 40 cents out of every dollar spent for records in the U. S. They also account for 80 per cent of the sales of 3,500,000 portable phonographs annually.

The teenage influence on records is reflected in statistics showing that less than 20 per cent of all records sold are in the classical field, according to the survey.

Mills Names McKinven Veep Of Marketing

NEW YORK—John A. McKinven has been named vice-president of marketing and promotion of Mills Music, it was announced last week by Richard L. Rosenthal's the firm's president.

The addition in staff is another step in a continuing program to tap the wealth of material in the Mills catalog of classical and popular music, according to Rosenthal, who is also president of Utilities & Industries, which bought the pubbery last year.

He will report to Warren Ling, vice-president and general manager of the firm.

England - The Past Twelve Months

REVIEW OF THE YEAR

At this time last year when the Cash Box 22nd Annual World Wide Directory went to press the British record industry was enjoying the biggest boom in its long and eventful history. Britain's transatlantic chart supremacy was at its height with 22 entries in the Cash Box American Top 100, and 9 out of the top 15 in the British singles charts and 7 out of 10 in both the E.P. and L.P. ratings. Disks were spinning and sales were soaring as never before. In fact this time last year the spiral of the 60s was at its zenith as can be seen by the following quarter by quarter analysis issued by the Board of Trade.

PRODUCTION AND SALES

	Number of records pressed Thousands			Value of Sales £ Thousand
	78 r.p.m.	45 r.p.m.	33 1/3rd r.p.m.	Total	Total	For Export
1st. qtr.	447	15,506	6,128	22,080	4,552	£669
2nd. qtr.	329	11,846	4,055	16,230	3,834	£566
3rd. qtr.	485	13,786	4,463	18,734	4,682	£585
4th. qtr.	585	20,204	7,621	28,410	8,697	£777
1964
1st. qtr.	181	20,276	6,664	27,121	5,993	£766
2nd. qtr.	116	16,755	6,346	23,217	5,063	£624
3rd. qtr.	116	16,442	6,619	23,177	6,309	£713
4th. qtr.	174	19,368	8,200	27,742	8,236	£860

Although the 4th quarter of 1964 was down on 1963 the total sales for the year reached the all time high of £25,602,000, an increase of £4,000,000 on the previous year and £10,000,000 more than the total for the first year of the decade. However, what goes up must come down and that, alas, brings us to 1965.

Again Board of Trade figures serve to illustrate month by month the comparison between the first quarter of boom year 1964 and doom year 1965.

January	101	7,864	2,758	10,723	2,223	£248
February	49	6,471	1,801	8,321	1,825	£271

February	51	4,707	2,030	6,788	1,834	£366
March	34	5,461	2,474	7,969	1,872	£259

The year started off with a four per cent drop in January for both home and export sales. February rallied with a three per cent increase accounted for by export sales which rose by one third. Home sales were again down by three per cent. March sales were four per cent lower than in the same month last year and again all the decrease was in home sales which fell by five per cent. Export sales were five per cent higher. Taking the first three months of 1965 as a whole home sales were four per cent lower than a year earlier although export sales increased by thirteen per cent. April figures turned out to be even worse. Sales valued at £1,543,000, were a quarter lower than in April last year. Home sales fell by over a quarter and export sales were also down by nearly one fifth. 1965 has also seen a tremendous drop in production with the axe falling heaviest on 45 r.p.m. singles. Production of 33 1/3rd L.P.s was up and in the months January to March output at this speed rose by one tenth compared with a year earlier. Again production, like sales, reached its lowest level in April and it is expected that official figures for May will be no better. A gloomy prelude to the summer holiday season when sales, even in a normal year, are expected to fall off. However, in comparing the 1965 figures with those of 1964 we are up against the most phenomenal year in record history. The comparison is necessary for the books but a much more realistic picture is obtained by comparing the first quarter of this year with the first quarter of 1963. Here again Board of Trade figures are enlightening and show a considerable increase all round both in sales and production. Therefore, although down we are far from out and have clearly benefited by the boom of yesterday. In any case after the recent tendency towards overproduction a cut in this direction will be welcomed by dealer and consumer alike provided the motives are artistic and not economic.

A multitude of reasons and explanations for the current slump have been put forward—some more valid than others—and although it is impossible to lay the blame at any one particular door, the villains getting the most hisses seem to be pirate radio stations, taping of pop programmes, a decline in beat and the absence of a new or exciting sound, the credit squeeze, a teenage switch in spending habits, etc., etc. Although not necessarily listed in order of appearance the villain in chief does seem to be pirate radio. However, it is interesting to note that EMI carried out a nation wide sales survey amongst record dealers, 50 per cent of them in areas where pirate reception was good and 50 per cent in areas where pirate reception was bad. Sales were down in both areas but were down 20 per cent more in the first area. Some manufacturers in continental countries like Holland and Belgium where pirate reception is also good consider them a contributory factor to falling sales. The year has also seen an extension of the BBC's needle time which includes a number of pop record programmes. As to the absence of a new and exciting sound The Beatles brought musical integrity and enthusiasm into the business and a sound not violently different but refreshing—an off-shoot of rock nevertheless. In their wake came only a number of excellent groups but also a considerable amount of mediocrity. A year ago at the height of the sales bonanza everything and everyone was selling—today, as the charts testify, only the quality groups remain and quality material is becoming more and more important. The same thing happened in 1961/62 with trade jazz. The seeds sown by Acker Bilk and Kenny Ball spawned so many imitators that the sound was strangled. There are no signs that 'beat' music will suffer the same fate. The milk has been skimmed but the cream remains floating happily on the top of the transatlantic charts. As far as America is concerned the tremendous success of British artistes is evidenced by the results of the Disk Jockey survey of Most Programmed and Promising Artistes of the Year published elsewhere in this issue. British artistes occupy the No. 1 position in no less than 6 out of the 11 categories and claim second place in four of them and figure prominently throughout. Let's have a look at the top talent of the year and the artistes scene in general.

In America British groups continue to make their presence felt in the Top 100 with The Beatles still in command. However, many of their contemporaries, household names in the States a year ago, have fallen by the wayside or have been replaced by a new wave. The most successful groups in terms of Gold and Silver Cash Box International Awards have been, besides The Beatles, The Animals, Manfred Mann, The Zombies, Herman's Hermits, Freddie and the Dreamers, Wayne Fontana, The Rolling Stones and The Searchers. In the solo field on both sides of the Atlantic the British female singer has been more successful than the male. In America the ratio was nine to six. On the distaff side success came to Cilla Black, Shirley Bassey, Millie LuLu, Julie Rogers, Sandie Shaw, Marion Faithfull, Dusty Springfield and biggest success of all Petula Clark. The opposite sex was represented by Cliff Richard, Adam Faith, Ian Whitcomb, Matt Monro, Donovan and Tom Jones.

In Britain The Beatles, The Rolling Stones and The Searchers have maintained their popularity in the beat group stakes. However, not without considerable opposition from their contemporaries both old and new. The Beatles biggest hits for EMI were with "A Hard Day's Night"; "I Feel Fine" and "Ticket To Ride" whilst The Stones took Decca to the top with "The Last Time"; "Little Red Rooster" and "It's All Over Now." The year also gave The Stones their first American No. 1 with "Satisfaction." The Searchers on Pye also had their biggest American hit to date with "Love Potion No. 9." In the home charts they scored with "When You Walk In The Room"; "Someday We're Gonna Love Again" and "Goodbye My Love." Other groups who have figured prominently in the Top Three places in the British charts are The Animals with "House of the Rising Sun" and "Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood"; Herman's Hermits "I'm Into Something Good" and "Silhouettes"; Wayne Fontana "Um, Um, Um, Um, Um" and "The Game of Love"; Manfred Mann "Do Wah Diddy Diddy" and The Hollies finally made the really big time with "I'm Alive" as did the Yardbirds with "For Your Love" and more recently "Heart Full of Soul." From Ireland Them burst on the scene with "Here Comes the Night" while another new group Unit Four Plus Two hit the jackpot with their first disk "Concrete and Clay." The Honeycombs had their moment of glory with "Have I The Right" as did Georgie Fame with "Yeh Yeh" and The Moody Blues with "Go Now." The Seekers brought a refreshing folk sound to the hit parade with two Tom Springfield compositions "I'll Never Find Another You" and "A World of our Own." The Baron Knights, a group with a satirical difference got to No. 3 with their send up of the pop scene "Call Up The Groups" and The Bachelors added "No Arms Can Ever Hold You" to their long and impeccable list of quality recordings. Last but not least in the group category Herman's Hermits made a terrific impact on both sides of the Atlantic with "You Really Got Me"; "All Day And All of the Night" and "Tired of Waiting For You." The past twelve months has seen a resurgence of the solo artiste, particularly the female of the species. Way out in front has been Petula Clark's recording of the Tony Hatch composition "Downtown" voted by American d.j.'s "The Most Programmed Single of the Year" and also won her the title of "The Most Promising Female Vocalist of the Year" (an award not without its humorous side when one remembers that Pet has been around as a true professional since she was a child star). The title of the most promising female artiste of the year as far as Britain is concerned must surely go to yet another Pye artiste Sandie Shaw whose debut disk in the autumn of 1964—a cover of the American song "There's Always Something There To Remind Me" took her to No. 1 since when all her records have made the Top Five and her latest release "Long Live Love" gave her another chart topper. The husky voice of Marion Faithfull took her into the charts with three successive hits "As Tears Go By"; "Come And Stay With Me" (both did very well in America) and "This Little Bird." Her albums, too, have been in great demand. Yet another Pye artiste Jackie Trent topped the charts with "Where Are You Now" and on Mercury Julie Rogers landed a No. 3 with "The Wedding" as did "Twinkle with Terry." On the male side we are happy to report that Cliff Richards has not only maintained his popularity but proved himself still capable of reaching the No. 1 slot with "The Minute You're Gone" and has further enhanced his screen reputation via the box office hit "Wonderful World." The only other British male to make a No. 1 was newcomer Tom Jones with his unique recording "It's Not Unusual" which also established him in America and paved the way for his major hit "What's New Pussycat." American artistes made their biggest impact in the British charts for some considerable time. Roy Orbison had a No. 1 with "Oh Pretty Woman"; The Supremes with "Baby Love"; The Righteous Brothers with "You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling" and Elvis Presley returned to the top with "Crying In The Chapel." Other Americans to make the Top Three were Gene Pitney, P. J. Proby, Roger Miller, The Everly Brothers, The Four Seasons and the late Jim Reeves. Folk music had its biggest boost to date sparked off by the Bob Dylan releases backed by p.a.'s and TV. At the same time Britain's folkster of the year Donovan came on the scene with his own compositions bringing about a Dylan-Donovan controversy which resulted in big sales for both contenders. Many of the artistes mentioned have found their way into the charts on both sides of the Atlantic by the efforts and foresight of independent producers whose voices during the past 12 months have successfully penetrated more attentive ears than ever before.

One of the most successful of the younger indies has been Micky Most who during the year entered into an agreement whereby EMI get first refusal of his material excluding the U.S.A. where he has separate deals with CBS and MGM. Most has produced a string of hits by top artistes such as The Animals, Herman's Hermits and The Nashville Teens. The latter group are now handled by another young independent Andrew Loog Oldham who is, of course, responsible for all The Rolling Stones successes. Oldham, whose personal image is almost as well known as that of his artistes, was also responsible for the early Marion Faithfull waxings now handled by Bron Associated. Shel Talmy, American born indie producer has made his reputation via The Kinks recordings—Joe Roncoroni and Ken Jones of Marquis Enterprises have produced all The Zombies hits—Bunny Lewis of Ritz Records produced a couple of hits for The Pretty Things and FXB Productions under the guidance of Tom Springfield has been responsible for The Seekers chart entries.

On the question of R.P.M. the British record industry, as expected, confirmed its intention to resist the abolition of R.P.M. and lodged its claim for exemption with the Registrar (Continued on page 10)

WORLD WIDE MUSIC TRADE DIRECTORY

THE MOST COMPLETE DIRECTORY OF RECORD AND MUSIC
MARKETS INCLUDING NAMES OF COMPANIES AND INDIVIDUALS IN ALL COUNTRIES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

EXPLANATIONS

All countries are listed in alphabetic order.

All labels listed appears in alphabetic order.

As main addresses appears P. O. Box (English), Apartado (Spanish), Boite Postale (French), Postfach (German), etc., while street addresses—if known—appears within ().

Labels (domestic) refer to names of labels on which are made and released local domestic recordings. If any of the major labels appears under "domestic," it is understood that the company also is releasing whatever foreign recordings there might be available at the same label. The name of the label is not repeated under "Labels (others)."

Labels (others) refer to names of imported/foreign labels imported by the companies under which they are listed.

Remark: In some countries, mainly Central and South America and Asian countries, certain leading retailers have their own import from major European and American manufacturers, which explain why in certain cases certain labels might be listed under more than one company in each country.

All informations appearing in this Directory originates from the companies themselves, who have listed the informations published on the questionnaires they have received.

If and when a certain company is not listed in this Directory, it might depend upon the fact that the company itself has failed in returning the questionnaire which has been sent to them. If and when so is the case, Cash Box hopes to see these companies listed in next year's Directory.

ROYAL VISIT TO HAYES Sir Joseph Lockwood, Chairman of E.M.I. Ltd., greets Princess Margaret and her husband, the Earl of Snowdon, when they visited E.M.I.'s headquarters at Hayes, in Middlesex, earlier this year. The Princess and Lord Snowdon toured E.M.I.'s Electronics and Research Laboratories, the Record Factory and the Company's Museum.

CALLAS A PARIS INTERNATIONAL operatic star Maria Callas, who has recorded for E.M.I. such best-selling albums as Bizet's "Carmen" and Puccini's "Tosca", is pictured here in the Paris recording studios of Pathe-Marconi, E.M.I.'s associate company in France.

The Koran on Records

Mrs. Devan, E.M.I. Records' A and R Manager for Malaysia, presenting a set of recent E.M.I. recordings from the Koran to Tunku Abdul Rahman, Prime Minister of Malaysia. The recordings were made by Ustad: Ishmail Haji Hashini, winner of the Malaysian National Koran Reading Competition for the past two years. With Mrs. Devan and the Prime Minister is Mr. J. B. Stevenson, Deputy Managing Director (Technical), of E.M.I. Records.

SIR JOSEPH LOCKWOOD, Chairman of E.M.I. Ltd., presents SIR MALCOLM SARGENT with an album of LPs from his repertoire recorded on the His Master's Voice and Columbia labels. The occasion was a luncheon given by E.M.I. at the Savoy Hotel, in London, to celebrate Sir Malcolm's 70th birthday. Among the guests was Prince Philip.

SONG FESTIVAL WINNER

His Master's Voice recording artiste Kenny Lynch with the trophy he won at the first-ever British Song Festival held at Brighton, English South coast holiday resort. Kenny wrote the winning song, "I'll stay by you", with Hal Shaper—and sang it himself in the Festival.

BEACH BOYS IN BRITAIN The Beach Boys—Carl, Brian and Dennis Wilson, Mike Love and Al Jardine photographed when visiting Great Britain for personal appearances. Top disc stars on both sides of the Atlantic, they record for Capitol, E.M.I.'s associate company in the United States.

The Beatles with Miss Rimiko Hoshika, Chief Editress of Japan's "Music Life" magazine after she had presented them with two plaques (awarded by "Music Life") for Top Artists of the Year and Top Title ("I want to hold your hand"). The presentation took place at E.M.I.'s St. Johns Wood, London, recording studios.

The celebrated German-born baritone DIETRICH FISCHER-DIESKAU, who has been featured on several outstanding E.M.I. albums, is seen here recording for E.M.I. at the Kingsway Hall, in London.

VOCE DEL CLIFF

trar of Restrictive Trading Agreements. The result which rests with the special tribunal is not expected for several months. Meantime the industry continues to maintain price structure. Several of Britain's smaller but active independent record companies have acquired wider distribution via EMI depots during the year including Ember, Delyse, Island, R & B and Waverley.

Stereo sales have increased and the L.P. field account for approximately 20 per cent of total sales. Not as high as in some continental countries but it is estimated that in this country the number of machines fitted with mono only stylus represents around 70 per cent of the record producing equipment in use. Therefore, at the moment, it seems unlikely that the U.K. could or would follow the German practice (planned also by Denmark) of producing only stereo L.Ps. The E.P. has assumed greater importance in recent months and disks at this speed by artistes such as The Beatles, The Rolling Stones and Manfred Mann have been selling in quantities reserved usually for singles. Regarding the future of the E.P. manufacturers and dealers beg to differ. Some consider it harmful to L.P. sales particularly when tracks are taken from album sellers others favour the E.P. provided it is not used as an excuse for off-loading spare album tracks and repeats of singles already issued.

Amongst one of the less successful events of the year must be numbered the 1965 meeting of the Gramophone Record Retailers Association. Once again the affair was supported by a mere 40 or 50 dealers out of a membership numbering almost 2000. Dissension within the ranks of the Association at Committee level did little to help the cause and resulted in the resignation of six outgoing executive members. The G.R.R.A. and record retailers need each other and it is hoped that the newly formed executive under the leadership of Reg Reed (President) with Harry Tipple as Secretary will, with the support of their members, adopt a united-we-stand-divided-we-fall policy at a time when the wind of change is blowing through the industry.

RECORD COMPANIES

For EMI, as the company's annual report confirmed, 1964 was the best year in the group's history with sales up by 12 per cent and the profits before tax of £9,104,000—an increase of 80 per cent on the previous year. The record division's contribution to the group was considerable and the promotion of British artistes which has built up over the years paid off handsomely. Besides The Beatles MBE (one of whose American releases sold 3.5 million copies in under three months whilst another sold 1 million in one week—both staying at No. 1 in the Top 100 for 12 weeks) many other EMI artistes helped the company's sales including Cliff Richard, The Shadows, Cilla Black, Freddie and the Dreamers, Herman's Hermits, The Dave Clark Five, Gerry and the Pacemakers, Billy J. Kramer etc. etc. During the year EMI have renewed contracts with American labels Laurie, Epic and Verve and extended their contract with United Artists. A major event of the EMI year was the launching of Tamla Motown in the U.K. on its own label previously issued by EMI on Stateside. The launching in March this year was attended by top executives of the Tamla Motown label and artistes including The Supremes, Martha and the Vandellas, The Miracles, The Temptations and Earl Van Dyke. The Tamla Motown package also made an extensive 24-day tour of Britain. Organisational changes included the marshalling of the company into four separate divisions—A & R, Production, Commercial & Financial and the formation of West One Entertainment Ltd. to handle their agency, personal management and exploitation activities. Chairman Sir Joseph Lockwood told Cash Box that EMI's world record sales for the year ended June 1965 would be up on the world figure for 63 and 64. As far as the United Kingdom is concerned the percentage for the first quarter of 1965, although down on last year, is only slightly so and only in the singles field. L.P. sales have been greater than ever. Sir Joseph added that EMI classical sales in the U.S.A. were greater than those of any other company and that during the past twelve months EMI has outsold all other companies in total retail sales. EMI occupies a unique position in the world market with its own subsidiaries established in every major country of the world during the last 60 years except in Mexico where Capitol Records and EMI are now jointly opening up.

For Decca as for England and indeed the world the year 1964/65 will be forever linked with the death of Sir Winston Churchill. In November 1964 to coincide with the Statesman's 90th birthday Decca bequeathed to posterity a magnificent set of twelve L.P.s "Churchill Speaks" comprising speeches and readings from Sir Winston's works and memoirs. Two thirds of the recordings which provide 11 hours listening had never been heard before and the complete set represents more than 12 months research and construction. After the death of Sir Winston, Decca issued a two-disk set of the funeral service with tributes by General Eisenhower, Sir Robert Menzies and Harold Wilson. During the year Decca completed a deal with Atlantic Records of America to distribute their product in this country on its own label. In January they acquired the American Ava catalogue for release on the London label. The Fred Astaire catalogue was previously released here by EMI on the MGM label. In April Decca launched their third Ace series—a new low-priced label Ace of Diamonds companion to Ace of Clubs and Ace of Hearts, comprising recordings previously issued on higher priced Decca labels. Earlier this year rumours that Decca was once again the subject of a take over bid sent the shares soaring but came to nothing. Artiste wise Decca had a remarkably successful year with The Rolling Stones at the top of the roster as controversial and successful as ever. Their singles, L.Ps and E.Ps continue to sell in vast quantities. Other chart stalwarts on Decca have included The Bachelors, The Nashville Teens and Unit Four Plus Two. Two new solo artistes emerged on the label Marianne Faithfull with three-in-a-row and Tom Jones.

1964 was Philips Records best year to date with an overall increase of 17 per cent. They renewed contracts with Vanguard for a further five years and also with Caedmon. Philips, like many other companies, has taken a fall in single sales but General Manager, Leslie Gould, reports a considerable increase in the company's tape recorder sales which he attributes to wide spread taping of the non-stop air play on pirate stations, London and Caroline. In December Philips concluded a world wide agreement with Vee Jay Records of America to release their powerful catalogue of authentic r & b, and gospel material on the Fontana label. They have also had their biggest American success to date with Wayne Fontana's No. 1 hit "The Game of Love." Dusty Springfield has gone from strength to strength as a solo artiste and has realised the brilliant future we predicted for her this time last year. After her smash hits "I Just Don't Know What To Do With Myself" and the follow up "Losing You" Dusty had a sticky patch and was out of the hit parade for a while but has now made a come back with "In The Middle of Nowhere." Her biggest American success came with "Wishin' and Hopin'" which took her to No. 4 and earned her a Cash Box Silver Award. Other artistes who have contributed to the Philips/Fontana run of hits include Millie, Julie Rogers, The Pretty Things and The Four Pennies. The biggest L.P. sellers have been by Les Swingle Singers, Frankie Vaughan and Harry Secombe. The original cast album "Pickwick" stary Secombe sold 10,000 more than any other British musical whilst the single "If I Ruled The World" notched up 250,000 and is now expected to repeat its success in America when the show opens on Broadway. Fontana have enjoyed considerable success with its Blue series and has stepped up releases to become the biggest jazz label in the country. In March Philips introduced a new low-priced "Wing" series of L.Ps ranging from pops to classics. The same month they announced that in future their products would be distributed exclusively through their own depots.

Pye Records climaxed five years of marked progress by announcing that for the year ending June 1965 record sales both single and L.Ps were going up at a time when industry sales generally were in decline. Consolidation of the company's five year build up policy or organisation and catalogue plus the nurturing of talents such as Tony Hatch and John Schroeder has resulted in items like "Downtown" and The Sounds Orchestral. During the past year Pye artistes have enjoyed greater chart success both here and in America than ever before. They had no less than six No. 1s in Britain, the most spectacular being "Downtown" which took the writer, Pye A & R Manager Tony Hatch and recording star Petula Clark to the top of the world charts. In January Pye occupied the No. 1 and 2 slots in the Cash Box American Top 100 with "Downtown" and "Love Potion No. 9" by The Searchers. Their growing prestige in the international record market has brought a renewal of the Reprise contract and the acquisition of Dot Records, Command, Redbird, Durium and Vogue and more recently Warner Brothers, previously handled by Decca plus many other important American catalogues. A major step in Pye's administration takes place this August when Jim Bailey, late of Dot Records, joins the company's International Department. Their confidence in the talents and growing importance of the independent record producer has given Pye such artistes as The Kinks, The Honeycombs, Sandie Shaw and Donovan. During the year their factory has been enlarged and distribution expanded in line with the company's increasing output. The studios are in great demand producing records not only for Pye and its associates but its competitors as well. At one time no less than 9 out of the Top 30 were produced in the Pye studio. In August this year Pye undertakes their biggest ever catalogue promotion with the introduction of Warner Brothers and the re-introduction of Reprise. Executives and artistes from both companies will visit the U.K. for this prelude to the winter season to be followed in September and October by similar campaigns for all catalogues controlled by Pye Records.

After 20 years as Britain's leading independent label Oriole this year became CBS with Morris Levy, founder and boss of Oriole as its Managing Director. The changeover began in the fall of 1964 when the CBS catalogue had to be transferred from the previous licencees Philips Records. The official CBS launching party held at the Dorchester was a major highlight of the current record year. At the time of writing Levy reports that in spite of the enormous problems involved in the transference of such a vast catalogue the inevitable teething troubles have almost been eliminated. CBS immediately established itself in the singles E.P. and L.P. charts notably via Bob Dylan and more recently with The Byrds. Big dividends have been paid by the success of artistes such as Tony Bennett, The New Christy Minstrels, The Clancy Brothers, Robert Goulet and many others whose personal appearances have greatly enhanced their record sales. They plan to maintain a constant flow of visiting artistes and expected in the near future are Johnny Cash and Andy Williams whose own TV shows are currently being screened by the BBC. British talent already registering for CBS includes writer/artiste John Barry and Chad and Jeremy. New names are being signed to strengthen the home roster and indie producers are also getting encouragement. Distribution has been strengthened and despite the changes being contemplated by the industry CBS are confident that their nationwide coverage will not only be maintained but improved. Their export activities are being further developed for the benefit of their overseas affiliates. Looking to the future Morris Levy indicated that great emphasis will be placed on the CBS bread and butter catalogue of L.Ps and is confident that with a fair share of jam in the singles field the company looks to the future with optimistic confidence.

In the realm of spoken word recordings it is gratifying to report that for Argo Records it has been another year of satisfaction both artistically and financially. Hopes that sales for 1963/64 would be maintained in 1964/65 have been fulfilled and exceeded. Released of the burden of compiling the Shakespeare Cannon (137 L.Ps) in time for the Quarter-centenary Argo have been able to diversify their activities and devote greater production facilities to music recordings. These include four albums ranging from music by Bach and Mozart to a pop organ album "Crown Imperial" by Simon Preston, sub organist of Westminster Abbey and the most outstanding organist to arrive on the music scene of 1964/65. He will tour America in the fall. The year has also seen the emergence of St. John's College Choir of Cambridge as serious challengers to the established Kings College Choir whose L.Ps have been Argo best sellers for over a decade. Of the 70 albums scheduled in Argo's "English Poets" series 20 have been completed and released with production continuing at the rate of 6 albums a year. Top names of the British theatre who have contributed to the series include Peggy Ashcroft, Richard Johnson, Max Adrian, Alan Bates, Michael Hordern and Patrick Wymark. Another poetry series of 6 L.Ps has just been completed entitled "The Poet Speaks" containing the voices of some 30 contemporary English poets and is scheduled for transatlantic release in the Autumn in association with The British Arts Council and The Lamont Poetry Library of Harvard University.

Smaller in scope but admirable in content is the output of Jupiter Records, consistent and acknowledged specialists in the release of spoken word and childrens recordings. Their latest venture is the release of a new E.P. series "Poets Set To Jazz" featuring a host of leading singers and jazzmen.

During the year Leomark have completed their new English Bible recordings of the New Testament. The fruits of four years continuous recording, under the direction of Frederick Bradshaw, the Leomark spoken bible series comprises 31 12" L.Ps. The albums feature many top British actors including Margaret Rawlings, Dame Flora Robson, Barbara Jefford, Dame Sybil Thorndyke, Paul Rogers etc. etc. Leomark are released in the States by Word Records of Texas, in Canada by J. Lyons & Co. as well as by companies in several major European territories, the latest addition being Finland.

For Delyse Records who celebrated their tenth anniversary in October it has been another year of progress. A major event was the achievement of complete nationwide distribution for their product by adding EMI's facilities to their existing arrangements with Selecta. This blanket coverage has already doubled the company's turnover. Delyse, with a predominantly Welsh catalogue have extended their sights across the Irish sea and are now building up a comparable repertoire of showband, folk and choral material. Their most recent release is a 12" L.P. "In Dublin's Fair City" by The Guinness Choir. A single by The Little Dublin Singers waxed at the same time is now on release. Back to Wales—in April this year Delyse released a sequel to their 50,000 best selling album "A Nation Sings" Vol. 1. Like its predecessor, Volume 2 was recorded live in the Royal Albert Hall by a 6,000 strong choir. Within two weeks of release sales exceeded 20,000 copies. During the past twelve months the company has, for the first time, acquired material recorded abroad by other companies for release here on the Delyse and Envoy labels. They plan to extend this activity considerably in the coming year.

Transatlantic Records Ltd. report a year of remarkable progress during which they have moved to spacious new offices in the West End of London. Last August they took over production and distribution of the Danish based Storyville label and since then riding the booming interest in blues they have released 41 L.Ps and 17 E.Ps on the folk/blues/jazz label. In October Transatlantic launched their Xtra line, the first budget line (retailing at 21/—) specialising in folk and jazz. Xtra has featured over the past nine months artistes such as Pete Seeger, Woody Guthrie, Carlos Montoya, Charlie Parker, Budd Powell, Big Bill Broome, Brownie McGhee and Sonny Terry and Art Tatum. Local British folk artistes are also being introduced to the label although for local folk talent the showcase is primarily the Transatlantic label itself. Here two of Britain's top folk groups, The Ian Campbell Folk Group and The Dubliners have enjoyed further successful L.Ps and two exciting new talents Bert Jansch and Owen Hand have been launched. The Campbell group also reached the charts for several weeks with their version of Dylan's "The Times They Are Achanging." This was the first time a British independent company, without any distribution aid at all from the majors, had pierced the British Top 50. In November Transatlantic obtained the distribution rights of the Soviet MK label and added artistes such as Richter, Rostropovitch, David Oistrakh, Ashkenazy and The Bolchoi Opera Company to their roster. Agreements were concluded during the year with CNR Holland, Discobell Belgium and Deutsche Vogue for distribution of Transatlantic lines in Germany, Austria and Switzerland and Transatlantic artistes such as The Campbells, The Dubliners and Bert Jansch were licensed to companies in the U.S.A., Canada, Holland, Australia, New Zealand, Denmark and Sweden. Transatlantic also formed Heathside Music Ltd., a publishing subsidiary which has had a promising first year. Managing Director Nathan Joseph reports an increase in their turnover in 1964/1965 of 350 per cent.

For Jeff Kruger's British independent Ember Records the year has seen continued expansion and increasing interest both in Europe and the U.S.A. At home just four years after its inception the company moved into new premises in Wembley, Middlesex. Artiste wise Chad Stuart and Jeremy Clyde, besides earning dollars for the label in the United States, began to break through in their native Britain. The duo had five consecutive singles and 2 L.Ps in the American Top 100.

John (Goldfinger) Barry with his original soundtrack from the film "Zulu" and his single "From Russia With Love" also garnered sales for Ember on both sides of the Atlantic. Early this year Kruger signed a five-year agreement with Mike Stewart and Murray Deutsch of United Artists Corporation under which the Ember product gets major exposure in the U.S., Canada, Mexico and South America on the U.A. label. In Finland Kruger signed an agreement with Sandia Music for the release of Ember in that territory. In February Ember, previously distributed by Selecta and other independents increased their national distribution facilities with the addition of EMI depots. They expect 1965/66 to be a vintage year.

Polydor (DGG) subsidiary of the parent company in Hamburg, Germany, having entered the production field are steadily building a roster of British artistes and material. Several organisational changes have taken place and the company is stepping up its output particularly in the pop field. Future plans include a release programme of some 70 pop singles within the next 12 months. Internationally produced disks suitable for this market will also be issued. Recently Polydor International released a 12" L.P. "The Best of Bert Kaempfert" which included the German artiste's million seller "Wonderland by Night."

For Melodisc Records after the bluebeat boom of 1963/64 it has been a year primarily devoted to the establishment of their folk line, particularly L.Ps. In this category the label's best seller has been the Woody Guthrie Sings L.P. They also had a great success with two African albums featuring West African music by The West African Rhythm Brothers. In the r & b field they had a major success with the Neutrons "The Very Best Things In Life Are Free." Melodisc future plans include their first venture into the low-priced field with the autumn release of a series of L.Ps comprising classical, folk, jazz and r & b material retailing at 20/—.

Carlo Kramer whose Esquire and Starlite labels remain dormant formed a new company Talent Records Ltd. He also concluded an agreement with Bob Koester of America to release material from his catalogue of authentic traditional and modern jazz in this country on his own Delmark Records label.

R & B Discs, already successful with the Ska-Beat, King, R & B and Prima labels, acquired two more American catalogues, Downey of California and Buhl International for release here whether on the pop King label or on the R & B label. The year has also marked a strengthening of the company's distribution system previously distributed by Selecta they are now available through EMI depots as well.

Collector Records, specialists in folk, blues and flamenco with an annual release programme of 20/30 E.Ps and L.Ps this year introduced a new label "Range." Essentially concerned with country and western, blue grass and rhythm and blues, Range is a low priced label at present confined to E.Ps. But plans are being made to extend the Range output into the L.P. field.

Island Records further enhanced their reputation as a leading company in the field of Jamaican music with a mass of authentic ska rhythm releases imported from Jamaica. Although Island Records lost the Sue label in November they strengthened their position by licensing several other American companies including Ace Records with a roster of artistes including Otis Redding, Joe Tex, James Brown, Hughey (Piano) Smith, Elmore James and Larry Williams. The latter also cut a single and L.P. in this country. Island have also brought over a number of r & b artistes including Charles and Inez Foxx, The Soul Sisters and Donnie Elbert, for p.a.'s and TV. In January the company formed a new label Aladdin exclusively for pop releases which is building steadily with productions by Charles Blackwell and Guy Stevens. The Surprise label also proved highly successful particularly with "Rugby Songs" which sold over 100,000 copies and entered the L.P. charts.

From Island to Ireland where Emerald Records Ltd. report by far their most successful year to date. A major achievement was the discovery of the Belfast group Them now signed to Philip Solomon Organisation and released by Decca. Emerald also had a number of their albums and singles released by various companies around the world including London Records of America, Compo of Canada, W & G of Australia and Gallo of Africa. In June they released the 2nd L.P. by The Glenfolk Four and expect in the coming months to achieve considerable success with the recordings by the Irish showbands which they will sub lease overseas. Pickwick International marked their second year's activities in the low-priced field by moving to larger premises. Boss Monty Lewis reports a considerable advance in business particularly in the first quarter of 1965. During the year Pickwick concluded a major deal with W. H. Smith & Sons (Britain's largest chain of bookshops) as a result of which the Pickwick product released here on Allegro is handled by some 450 Smiths branches including many sited on railway stations.

PUBLISHING

Over to publishing where, once again, the accent has been predominantly British richly coloured by overtones of Liverpool and Bow Bells. The world wide demand for British artistes and material manifested in 1963 and 1964 has continued unabated. In America the pro-British cult initially sparked off by the pop group invasion has spread to other fields and many of Britain's trendsetters from coiffeurs to coutouriers have crossed the Atlantic with considerable success. Just how successful British artistes and songs have been in America during the last year may be judged by the fact that exactly twice as many artists entered the Cash Box Top 100 as in previous years. Out of a total of 126 titles 76 were British compositions, again just double the number for the preceding year. Local compositions also accounted for 50 per cent of the Best Selling Sheet Music sales in Britain during the year. All this had added more power to the British publishers elbow enabling him to call a more profitable tune. However, every sliver lining has a cloud and the other side of Tin Pan Alley is not so sunny. Sheet music sales which have been in decline for several years have now dropped so low to be (except on rare occasions) almost non-existent. A major hit might sell 10,000 plus but for an average chart entry 4-5,000 would be good. A far cry from the days when a major hit would sell over 100,000 copies of sheet music. However, in recent years what the publisher with a hit has lost in low sheet sales he has gained in royalties from increased record sales. But as reported at the beginning of this review these, too, are now falling. Whereas a year ago a No. 1 might easily earn a Gold Disk (1,000,000) today the same No. 1 would have to be content with a Silver (250,000). Nevertheless there has been plenty of progressive thinking and quite a lot of action in and around the alley particularly in the field of independent recordings. More and more companies are making their own masters and, as in America, the charts are peppered with indie produced hits issued by major manufacturers who, like Canute, find themselves unable to stem the advancing tide. Thanks to the efforts of the Music Publishers' Association the first British Song Festival was born at Brighton in May this year—a welcome but unruly infant that needs a lot of wetnursing if it is to grow into an annual event to rival San Remo. However, if the M.P.A. can profit by this year's mistakes and Brighton hoteliers improve their menus and amenities maybe the many overseas publishers and music men who supported the event can be persuaded to come again next year. Meantime let's take a look at the publishing scene in Britain over the past twelve months.

For Southern Music one of the first and most consistent publishing houses to plug British talent and material it has been another year of patriotic endeavour. The company's remarkably high percentage of chart entries have included disks by some of the biggest names in the business—The Nashville Teens with "Tobacco Road"; Dave Berry "The Crying Game"; The Pretty Things "Don't Bring Me Down" and Peter and Gordon "True Love Ways." Bob Kingston, Southern's active London Manager is also delighted with the emergence of Iver Recording Co., the pubbery's independent production set-up with on-the-spot studios right in the heart of Tin Pan Alley. During the year Iver has produced some resounding hits notably "Colours" by British folkster Donovan and three home grown products from contract writers John Carter, Ken Lewis and Perry Ford who, as The Ivy League, went into the charts with "Funny How Love Can Be"; "That's Why I'm Crying" and more recently with their British Song Festival entry "Tossin' and Turnin'". Many of Southern's hits have also been recreated in America and throughout to world, to whit Brenda Lee's "Is It True" a British composition recorded in this country and destined to become an international hit.

Around the corner in Charing Cross Road Francis Day & Hunter have also had an active year with the formation of two new subsidiary companies, Donna Music set up in association with hit writer and arranger Les Reed (who supplied Tom Jones with his transatlantic smash "It's Not Usual." Donna Music will handle all future compositions and they are currently lining up recordings by big name artistes. The second new company, Ventura Music, is headed by composer Ivor Slaney who last year won the Ivor Novello Award for "Carlo's Theme" and more recently penned the score for "A King's Story." Record wise F. D. & H. enjoyed their biggest hits with "Silhouettes" by Herman's Hermits high in the charts on both sides of the Atlantic which was followed by "Henry The VIII" the British oldie originally made famous at the turn of the century by comedian Harry Champion. The disk has not yet been issued here. F. D. & H. also had a couple of bullseyes with "Tokyo Melody" by Helmut Zacharias and "Marie" by The Bachelors. Bert Corri, a Director of the company is at present pre-occupied with the production of the debut disk by Roger (The Saint) Moore. Over to Robbins Music where Alan Holmes has enjoyed success with some major film score by British composer Ron Goodwin including "Operation Crossbow"; "Of Human Bondage" and the highly successful MGM movie "Those Magnificent Men In Their Flying Machines." Another screen score handled by Robbins was the box office hit "Zorba The Greek." Pop wise they took second place at the Eurovision Song Contest in Naples with Kathy Kirby's "I Belong" and have recently clicked in America via Jay and the American's revival of the oldie "Cara Mia." At Feldman Ben Nisbet ecstatic with the success in America of Freddie and the Dreamers who topped the Cash Box Top 100 with "I'm Telling You Now" an original Feldman copyright penned by Freddie in collaboration with Mitch Murray. Freddie also climbed high in America with "You Were Made For Me." Georgie Fame topped the British charts for the company with "Yeh Yeh" and made the American Top 100 with the same number. the pubbery has had another transatlantic smash via The Yardbirds "For Your Love."

The Chappells publishing group of companies has had another highly successful year particularly with their extensive film and show music catalogue. Screen wise their hits have been "Mary Poppins"; "My Fair Lady" and "The Sound of Music." Theatrical scores have included "Little Me"; "Camelot" and "Robert and Elizabeth"—which collected an Ivor Novello Award for "The Year's Outstanding Score of Stage Musical." Chappells and its subsidiaries have also been continuously represented in the pop charts with titles such as "I'll Never Find Another You" and "A World Of Our Own" both by The Seekers; "Crying In The Chapel" by Elvis Presley; and "You're Breaking My Heart" by Keeley Smith. Via the Acuff Rose catalogue Chappells had a further run of luck with numbers like "You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'"; "The Price Of Love"; "This Little Bird" and Roy Orbison titles "It's Over" "Pretty Woman" and "Pretty Paper." During the year Jimmy Henney, Professional Manager of Chappells for 20 years left the firm to join the Public Relations company of John Heyman. Louis Dreyfus paid his usual annual visit to London.

Dick James has added another chapter to one of the most fantastic publishing success stories of all time. The year has seen consolidation at home and expansion overseas with the establishment of his own companies in the United States of America, Australia and France and the conclusion of short term exclusive catalogue deals throughout the world. It was the year that Northern Songs went public causing as much controversy as speculation but subsequently bringing credit to the Dick James Board of Directors. Northern also concluded through its American subsidiary Maclen Music Inc. an agreement with King Features TV Cartoon

Co. for the use of a minimum of 60 songs from the series of 26 programmes being produced. Metric Music had two outstanding hits "When You Walk In The Room" by The Searchers and "Come And Stay With Me" by Marianne Faithfull; both Jackie de Shannon compositions. The outstanding Lennon-McCartney compositions of the year were "A Hard Day's Night"; "I Feel Fine" and "A Ticket To Ride." As we go to press their latest film "Help" is about to open accompanied by single and L.P. releases. Pacer Music had a major hit with the score of "Ferry Cross The Mersey" the title song by Gerry and the Pacemakers hitting charts all over the world. "It's Gonna Be All Right" also gave Pacer a transatlantic smash. Jaep had a powerful year with many numbers waxed by Billy J. Kramer. The Fourmost, Cilla Black and Cliff Bennett. During the year Dick James set up a joint company with Vic Lewis and Don Black, Lords Music, with Vic and Don writing exclusively for the company. The first number "My Child" was recorded by Connie Francis. Another new company, Gralto was also formed in association with Graham, Alan and Tony of The Hollies.

Cyril Simons of Leeds Music reports a triumphant year and a renewal of his contract with Welbeck Music for a further four years. Both companies have enjoyed consistent chart ratings over the past twelve months. Universal Pictures took over Leeds giving the pubbery all use of U.P.s catalogue of film and TV copyrights. Leeds number amongst their hits all the Bob Dylan numbers including "The Times They Are A-changing" and "Subterranean Home-sick Blues" as well as Cliff Richard's "I'm The Lonely One"; Tom Jones' "It's Not Unusual" (Leeds have also taken over Tom Jones' Valley Music Co.) Kags Music, a subsidiary of Leeds struck hard with The Rolling Stones "It's All Over Now." The biggest hit of the year for Welbeck Music was certainly "Downtown" which took Petula Clark to the top of the world charts with total record sales around the three million mark. Welbeck had the follow-ups "I Know A Place" and "You'd Better Come Home." They also had the No. 1 smash by Jackie Trent "Where Are You Now." Elstree Music published the score of the new Frank Ifield film "Once A Jolly Swagman."

For Ardmore & Beechwood, EMI's publishing house, the sudden death in April of their General Manager and European Supervisor, Sid Coleman, was a tragic loss to the company and overshadowed their year's activities. The veteran music man's death was deeply felt throughout the industry. He has been exceeded by Harry Lewis who, until recently, presided over his own Marlyn Music Co. At home Ardmore & Beechwood have enjoyed moderate success with number such as "Rag Doll" by The Four Seasons and "Walk Away" by Matt Monro. Their latest hit has been with the Marianne Faithfull single "Summer Nights." During the year they opened a new company in Greece, Arion.

Roy Berry of Campbell Connelly Group reports a tremendous year all round. Major chart entries have been by The Honeycombs with "Have I The Right"; The Bachelors "I Believe"; The Animals "I'm Crying" and all the Dave Clark numbers including his latest single, the title number from his film "Catch Us If You Can." More recently they handled "Moonglow" film from the film "Picnic" by The Sounds Orchestral. The firm's independent production set up CeeCee have achieved remarkable success with The Downliners Sect whose single "Little Egypt" took them high in the Scandinavian charts. The group also cut an E.P. "The Sect Sings Sick Songs" and two L.P.s "The Sect" and "The Country Sect." Campbell Connelly also acquired the Pictoretone catalogue of America with all the Wes Farrell compositions.

For Shapiro Bernstein the year has brought the company its first No. 1 hit since opening up in London. The number "I'm Alive" by The Hollies follows a string of chart entries during the past twelve months including a No. 2 with Wayne Fontana's "The Game of Love" (which made No. 1 in America); "Walk Tall" and "The Special Years" by Val Doonican and "Like A Child" by Julie Rogers. To cap their success "Leave a Little Love" waxed by Lulu which came second in the British Song Festival has now taken the artiste and the publisher high in the charts.

Bron Associated also report their most successful year so far with numbers such as Gene Pitney's "I Must Be Seeing Things" and Cliff Richard's "On My Word" as well as numbers by The Ian Campbell Folk Group and Cilla Black. Bron recently signed an agreement with Musicor of America to represent their interests in this country. They have expanded their interest into artistes management and have Marianne Faithfull under exclusive contract as well as American artiste Gene Pitney. They have also signed a new group The Quiet Five.

Sparta Music, under the energetic direction of Hal Shaper, has swung ahead. Highlights of the year have been three successive hits by The Moody Blues including "From The Bottom of My Heart" which also clicked on the continent where Sparta have stepped up their activities during the past twelve months. They recently enjoyed success with Sheila's "Il Fait Chou" and "No Tears for Johnny" by Marie Lafouret. The crowning achievement of Sparta's first year was winning the British Song Festival with "I'll Stay By You" by Kenny Lynch and Hal Shaper with covers set in France and Italy. Shaper also expanded into management with names including Cash McColl and Ray Singer and founded a new indie recording company with disks by The Brothers Grimm, Dick Haynes and The Pussycats.

England — The Past Twelve Months

Noel Rogers of United Artists was the fortunate publisher of John Barry's "Goldfinger" score which topped the American L.P. charts for weeks on end and took Shirley Bassey high in the Top 100 singles stakes. United Artists also had another John Barry score "The Knack" the award winning film at Cannes Film Festival. Other film scores of the year came from "Mister Moses"; "I'll Take Sweden" and "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

For Lawrence Wright the year's highlight came with the Ivor Novello Award for "The Kipling Theme" from the BBC's TV series. Voted "The Most Outstanding Orchestral Composition of the Year" certificates of honour were presented to the composer Max Harris and to Lawrence Wright Music.

For Freddie Poser of Poser Music it has been the year of Sandie Shaw and contract writer Chris Andrews whose compositions "Girl Don't Come"; "I'll Stop At Nothing" and the chart topper "Long Live Love" has kept the songstress in the charts for months on end.

Bourne Music has just competed their first year of independent publishing in the U.K. under the management of Len Taylor. One of the highlights was the inclusion of a Bourne copyright "All The Angels Sang" by Maureen Evans in Britain's first Song Festival. As we go to press the company is riding high with "To Know You Is To Love You" by Peter and Gordon. They also had a big year with Jim Reeves "I Love You Because."

Eddie Rogers of Mediant Music had his biggest success with the British musical "Instant Marriage" which enjoyed a nine-month run in London and is now playing in Australia where the score is handled by Gil Music.

For Mills Music a year which came in like a lamb is going out like a lion. At presstime besides a couple of versions of "Shakin' All Over" and the French hit "Donna Donna" by Dana Gillespie and Chad and Jeremy, the pubbery has a formidable line up of hit potentials.

For Lionel Bart's Apollo Music an important copyright was "As Tears Go By" immortalised by Marianne Faithfull. But even more important was the success of Unit Four Plus Two with "Concrete and Clay" by top contract writers Brian Parker and Tommy Moeller. The number became an enormous success on both sides of the Atlantic as did the follow up "You've Never Been In Love Like This Before." Plans are afoot for Unit Four Plus Two to visit America in September for p.a.'s and TV.

Meantime the group's manager John L. Barker (of John L. Barker Associates) has signed a new group The Pentad whose first recording for Parlophone "Silver Dagger" is also published by Apollo. These pop successes mark a new phase in the pubbery's success story and indicate a breakaway from the exclusivity of musicals. In this direction "Maggie May" continues its long run and is scheduled for Broadway presentation in 1966 after which it will be filmed. "Oliver" is still playing to capacity both in London and New York and Bart's latest stage epic "Twang" based on the Robin Hood story with book by Harvey Orkin is due for its London premiere in October.

Essex Music expanded their staff, installed a mechanised accounting system and are currently planning to move into larger premises. They acquired the Lakeview catalogue which includes the score of Lionel Bart's "Oliver." They also took over Matt Monroe's publishing company, Contango.

The Burlington-Palace group of companies have had a long list of hits by many top artistes from both sides of the Atlantic. From America the late Jim Reeves provided them with "I Won't Forget You" (with sheet music sales nearing 30,000) "There's A Heartache Following Me"; "Not Until The Next Time" and the latest Reeves single "This World Is Not My Home." The pubbery also chalked up some healthy sheet music sales with Roger Miller's "King of the Road" which also achieved very high record sales reaching the No. 2 position and they also have the follow up "Engine Engine No. 9." Also from America came two Beachboys hits "I Get Around" and "Dance Dance Dance." British hits included "Someone Someone" by Brian Poole and the Tremeloes and "No Arms Can Ever Hold You" by The Bachelors. During the year Burlington acquired several new catalogues including Sagatarium Acclaim and Tuchae.

The Belinda (London) Aberbach group of companies has been well represented in chartsville. Belinda with "What Do You Want With Me" by Chad and Jeremy; "Sha La La" by Manfred Mann; "Sweet William" Millie and The Searchers smash "Love Potion No. 9." Aberbach had The Beatles "Matchbox" and 17 Savile Row cashed in "Trains and Boats and Planes."

Philip Solomon who has recently taken over complete control of the Philip Solomon group of companies has had a bumper year both in the recording and publishing fields. His indie record company has notched up hits with three successive disks by Twinkle "Terry"; "Golden Lights" and "Tommy" and Belfast group Them established themselves with "Baby Please Don't Go"; "Here Comes The Night" and "One More Time," all issued here on Decca and in America on London. A succession of hits for The Bachelors included "I Wouldn't Change You For The World"; "No Arms Can Ever Hold You"; "True Love For Evermore" and their latest transatlantic smash "Marie." As record producers the company also had a good year in the Irish Hit Parade via Showbands such as The Capitol Showband, The Cadets and The Pacific. However, the biggest hit in Ireland was with the Emerald Isle's first entry in the TV song contest "Walking The Streets in the Rain" (now waxed in the United States by Jane Morgan) which Solomon also publishes. Other publishing hits for the 142 group of companies included "Terry"; "I Wouldn't Change You For The World" and the Jim Reeves charter "It Hurts So Much."

Harold Geller of Lynn Music reports that the company's second year has been most rewarding. Highlights being half a million records sold of Richard Anthony's "Come To Me" and the Gold Disk in Japan for The Honeycombs "That's The Way." Lucky on the home front Geller is equally pleased with his American tie up with Andy Badelle and Frank Stanton.

K.P.M. had a boomerang success with "The Wedding" by Julie Rogers. The original melody "La Novia" published by Fermato Music in Buenos Aires was acquired by KPM from the Bendig Music Corp of America in 1961—stayed at the top of the Best Selling Sheet Music Lists for several weeks. They also handled "She Loves To Be Loved" by The Falling Leaves and had the first big hit for Shirley Ellis in Britain "The Clapping Song"—a just reward after failing to make it here with her American successes.

Mellin Music had the first Top 20 hit by Cliff Bennett "One Way Love." They also had Del Shannon's "Do You Want To Dance" and "It's All Over" (Continued on page 18)

Lionel Bart

England—

The Past 12 Months

Now" by Ben E. King. Mellin also acquired the Tender Tunes catalogue for all territories outside the USA and Canada which soon brought them a sustained hit with "Remember (Walking In The Sand)" by The Shangri Las and their follow up "Leader of the Pack."

Another pubbery with recording interests for whom 1964/65 has been a notable year of progression is marquis Enterprises under the direction of Joe Roncoroni and Ken Jones. The Zombies have triumphed on both sides of the Atlantic with numbers such as "She's Not There" which after six weeks in the British Top 20 shot to No. 1 in America and won the group a Cash Box International Gold Award. "Tell Her No" and "She's Not There" were both penned by group member Rod Argent. The latest artiste and copyright to be handled by Marquis is Jonathan King's own composition "Everyone's Gone to the Moon."

Lee Pincus of Ambassador Music has made several tours of the continent during the year acquiring such copyrights as the Italian hits as "Amore Scusami"—a John Foster composition retitled in English "My Love Forgive Me." Another John Foster composition "Cominciamo Ad Amarci" retitled "Begin to Love" was also handled by Ambassador with recordings by Robert Goulet, The Bachelors and John Foster. One of the pubbery's biggest hits came this year with The Shadows "Stingray." Pincus signed a new group The Shades of Blue to a management deal with a debut disk "Voodoo Blues."

The Rank Organisation relinquished their interest in their publishing subsidiary Filmusic but the company has remained fully operative under the guidance of Harold Shampan who has been General Manager since the formation of Filmusic six years ago. Shampan is continuing to build the pubbery's strong catalogue of film music and is also active on the agency/recording side. His artistes include The Zephyrs. He also formed Pall Mall Music for the exploitation of pop music.

Active in all branches of the business Tito Burns has had a successful year in publishing (Toby Music), Lindon Records (Indie Production) and in artistes management and promotion. On the publishing side Toby Music has had its biggest seller with The Searchers latest single "He's Got No Love." Lindon Records latest production was Alma Cogan's "Snakes & Snails." On the Agent/Management side Tito Burns Productions has taken a creative stand rewarded by successful T.V. Specials by top world artistes such as Burt Bacharach, Dusty Springfield, Dione Warwick, Bob Dylan etc. Burns also introduced new names into Britain including Woody Allen, Roger Miller, Peter Nero and Vikki Carr.

For John Fields Music the year has seen a move into new offices and the company is now in the heart of Soho. Early this year Harold Fields made one of his periodical visits to America which combined discussions with publishers and a quest for new composer/arranger talent and exchange deals. One of the pubberies numbers of the year was "I Will Never Let You Go" by the U.K.s.

Since the demise of Baton Music here Roy Pitt has been appointed General Manager of Good Music which is now operated within the aegis of the Essex Music publishing house.

As always the year has seen the formation of several new companies amongst them Millwick Ltd. managed by Jack Heath who is delighted with the first year's operation. The firm's owner/director Lionel Segal, writer, composer and record producer has been responsible for Millwick copyrights "As I Watch You Walk Away" by Martha Smith; "I've Often Wondered" by Maureen Evans and Monty Babson; "A Woman Needs" by Peter Elliott and waxed for America by Keeley Smith. Segal has just completed a new British musical "My Girl" based on the book "Little Women" and is scheduled for production this coming season. Millwick has signed five young writers including Miki Dallon, and one of his songs "Take A Heart" has already been released.

Another important new company Shadam was set up by The Shadows and three new British writers Chris Arnold, David Martin and Geoff Morrow in association with Aberbach Music. The firm which operates from 17 Savile Row already has recordings lined up by Cliff Richard and Frank Ifield.

The year has seen the formation in Britain of a new Screen Gems set-up previously handled here by Dominion Music. The newly formed company is under the direction of Jack Magraw and will handle all Screen Gems—Columbia Music copyrights in the U.K. The company is already negotiating for a number of European catalogues. They also aim to establish a team of British writers. The firm kicked off 1965 with "You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'" and the new set-up which took effect from July 1st immediately went into the charts with The Animals "We've Gotta Get Out Of This Place."

Germany—The Past Twelve Months

The last year in Germany has seen several important changes which could revolutionize the business here. LP sales, especially stereo, have zoomed up to take an even more important slice of the dollar sales market here and the singles business evened out somewhat with a small drop of 3.7% as compared to over 20% loss last year. The last year has seen a virtual domination of the market by independent producers in the singles field with several indie producers starting their own label for the first time here. Low priced LP's have done terrific business and will continue to be an important factor in the market. The English beat groups continued to rack up terrific sales here led by The Beatles, The Kinks and The Rolling Stones. German music had a terrific year export-wise as Bert Kaempfert continued his winning ways with several smash hits; Helmut Zacharias landed a top hit in the English hit parade; Udo Jurgens became a sales sensation all over Europe and his tune "Walk Away" also did chart business through Matt Monro in the U.S.; and Horst Jankowski turned out a smash LP and single "A Walk Through The Black Forest" which made the top 10 in the Cash Box Top 100.

Only 22 LP's made the top 10 charts as old favorites such as "My Fair Lady" and "West Side Story" continued to dominate sales wise. 12 of the 22 chart LP's were German productions. Only one LP named and produced after a singles hit made the top 10 and that was an English beat production done in Germany by Casey Jones & The Governors. All of the other LP's were standard productions with the exception of 3 LP's of current hits with various artists and 1 LP of carnival songs. A strange wedding took place through popular magazines as Teldec and Electrola banded together for some LP productions through Hoer Zu and Philips and Polydor then did the same with Stern. CBS also leased some masters to Polydor for an LP production. Singles-wise, 22 publishers divided the 90 hits which made the top ten listings. Of this number, exactly 2/3, or 60 numbers were of German origin. 9 English records, 3 of which had equally important German covers, 1 Spanish speaking record, 1 French speaking record and 2 instrumentals got into the top 10 and all the rest of the records were German language vocal singles. Here's a month to month review of the happenings in Germany as reported by Cash Box.

Executive changes at Philips saw public relations head Wolfgang Kretschmar move to the head of the production/program department for the firm in a great promotion for the fine young executive. The well known journalist in the trade Hannes Flesner took over the public relations department handling press, artist promotion, and radio-TV promotion. Trade paper "Automaten Markt" took a poke at the record industry for lack of consumer advertising and the drop in record popularity as a Xmas gift and in sales.

Trade Paper "Musikmarkt" listed the top artists of the year and first place honors went to Bernd Spier-CBS as top male artist, Siw Malmkvist-Metronome as top female artist, The Beatles for vocal groups and Jacques Loussier of Teldec as instrumental favorite. The top LP of "64" was "My Fair Lady" in the original German cast on Philips, and the top single according to the magazine was "Liebeskummer Lohnt Sich Nicht" ("It Doesn't Pay To Be Lovesick"), the winner of the German song festival for "64" and recorded by Siw Malmkvist on Metronome. The artists for the German Song Festival "65" from the record firms were announced.

JANUARY

The new year started with the firms all reporting on their success in "64". Ariola reported their best year in the history of the firm sales-wise. CBS wrapped up their second year of business with a 280% sales increase over the previous year. Deutsche Grammophon reported that classical sales were up 15% putting the firm in first place on the classical sector here. Deutsche Vogue also had their best year since they have been in business. Electrola had their best year since the war with singles just about holding their own and LP sales up 69% over the previous year. Austroton had their first hit group in the charts constantly as Jimmy and The Rackets lead up sales for their Elite Special label. Metronome celebrated their best year in their 10 year history with strong singles sales and increasing LP action. Philips had a great LP year with "My Fair Lady" selling over 1/2 million LP's to lead sales. Teldec also increased sales LP wise and had a great singles year.

"Musik Parade" a teen oriented magazine picked their readers' favorites. Musician of the year was Max Gregor of Polydor with Al Hirt of RCA picking up international honors. Male singer of the year was Draf Deutscher of Decca on a local basis and foreign honors went to Cliff Richard of Columbia. Distaff honors went to Manuela of Telefunken locally and Connie Francis of MGM on the foreign side. The favorite local group was the Rattles of Philips-Star Club and Odeon's The Beatles picked up foreign honors. Instrumental groups were led by Hazy Osterwald of Electrola locally and The Shadows for foreign appeal. Dance band winners were Max Greger of Polydor locally and Ray Conniff on the international scene. Favorite local D.J. was Camillo Felgin of Radio Luxemburg and first place on the international D.J. scene was Mal Sondock of West and South German Radio. Top hits of the year were "Shake Hands" by Draf Deutscher for Decca and "A Hard Day's Night" for The Beatles as top foreign hit.

The trade paper "Muenzautomat" had the German version of "You Can Never Stop Me Loving You" by CBS's Bernd Spier as the top juke box hit of "64". Polydor's Freddy Quinn did a 30 city tour of Germany with SRO crowds in every City. An LP was done during the tour of a live performance and the LP also entered the top 10 charts sales wise. The Letkiss began to move as a dance favorite here. Hans Gerig published the top selling Letkiss recorded by Roberto Delgado of Polydor. Englishman John Newton took over the radio promotion slot at Polydor from Heinrich Prinz who joined the A&R team in Frankfurt. Indie production teams began to sprout up like grass and as the year opened, 3 of the top 10 were indie productions. All firms with the exception of Electrola were hot on the heels of new masters from indie producers. Electrola opened their doors as the year ended. Beat band material became more and more hot item business as the year progressed.

Trade paper "Automaten Markt" listed their poll winners to round out the trade opinions for the year. Male artist honors went to Bernd Spier of CBS with Siw Malmkvist of Metronome taking distaff honors. Top vocal team honors went to Rex Gildo and Gitte of Electrola and instrumental honors went to Al Hirt. Top juke box hit was "You Can Never Stop Me Loving You" by Bernd Spier of CBS in German. Heinz Voigt took over the directorship of pop music for D.G.G. Polydor. Former director of pop production Kurt Richter took over directorship of Teldec.

FEBRUARY

The trade journeyed back from San Remo where Bobby Solo hit the top and the song went on to become a top hit in Germany. A&R man Werner Scharfenberger journeyed to Detroit to record The Supremes in German which also became a top ten hit. Bert Kaempfert had a chart item in the U.S. with "Red Roses for a Blue Lady." Carnival time came to Germany and amid the celebrations a great number of special carnival

Distribution and Sales Activities

On October 1st, 1964, Deutsche Grammophon published the subscription notice for the Johannes Brahms box-edition conducted by Herbert von Karajan. This subscription campaign was started in many European countries: Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Finland, France, Greece, Great Britain, Holland, Italy, Luxemburg, Austria, Sweden, Switzerland

The box-edition sales of Gustav Gründgens' production of Goethe's "Faust" reached the 50,000 mark. Nippon Grammophon, Tokyo, doubled their capital and started representing MGM and VERVE

During the Royal State Visit to Germany in May 1965, the Lord Mayor of Bonn presented Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II with Deutsche Grammophon's box-edition of Beethoven's Nine Symphonies, performed by the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra under the conductorship of Herbert von Karajan.

60 hours after the Royal Yacht "Britannia" left Hamburg, Deutsche Grammophon released the LP "Queen Elizabeth II in Germany". This record spotlights all important stations of Her Majesty's German visit. 250 selected dealers from several European countries were awarded a special plaque for their particular efforts and interest in the Archive series. These dealers now stock the complete range of Archive records. "V 65" is the title of the big new Europe-wide spring release campaign. More than 2,000 dealers were furnished with special self-service sales aids containing important standard discs and featuring the 54 new releases.

Latest News from Polydor

Bert Kaempfert's rendition of "Red Roses For A Blue Lady", recorded in Hamburg, became a hit in the USA and reached the European charts. Freddy recorded his newest hit single, "Adios Mexico", "5,000 Meilen von zu Haus", in USA · Claus Ogermann conducted the orchestra.

"Schenk mir ein Bild von Dir" is the title of Peter Alexander's current hit.

Polydor has successfully launched a new series of folklore LP's with the following artists:

The Kieseletter Family · Karl Wolfram · Hai and Topsy · Peter Rohland and Schobert Schulz.
Günther Kallmann and his Choir are busy preparing for their forthcoming tour of South Africa.

"Show of the Year" is the distinctive title given to Freddy's 1965 sensational European tour.

Wencke Myhre won the second prize at the German Festival of Popular Song in Baden-Baden with her song "Sprich nicht drüber".

Alfred Hause, "King of the Contental Tango", returned from a highly successful four-week tour of Japan. At his last concert he was presented to the Emperor and Empress and other members of the Japanese Imperial Family who were in the audience. Nippon Grammophon has sold more than a quarter of a million Alfred Hause records during the past two years.

records were sold. Deutsche Vogue and Hans Gerig Music began an all out push on the English and German versions of "Downtown" by Petula Clark which became a chart topper here. Wanda Jackson did her first German waxing for Electrola which also made the top 10. Freddy Quinn started his Germany tour of 30 cities which not only did tremendous business but also produced a top 10 live LP. German record firms became very beat oriented and began to record plenty of English artists living here in English for this market and several groups including Casey Jones and The Governors for Golden 12/Metronome, Jimmy and the Rackets for Elite Special and the Liverbirds for Star Club/Philips came up with smash singles and LP's for this market.

The Swinging Blue Jeans made their first tour of Germany. Jacques Loussier who has top 10 LP's with his "Play Bach" series made his first tour as well. Stereo sales picked up to an extent that the major record firms began to issue their LP's in compatible form to be played in stereo or on mono players. German Vogue changed their management set up as Jean Jacques Finsterwald continued as Managing Director, the new assistant director is Roger Lilla, distribution boss remains Klaus Paulus, sales manager Heinz Jurgens and International Manager and press chief Larry Yaskiel.

MARCH

Dorthe joined the Philips fold from Metronome and her first waxing for the firm was a hit. Teldec signed the "Top 10" beat club to a contract for recordings directly from the club. Heinz Lucas left Philips and York Von Prittwitz took his music promotion and radio promotion department over. York left CBS to take on the new Philips position. Germany's exports sales and music wise began to rise with Horst Jankowski and Bert Kaempfert along with Udo Jurgens leading the way to top international hits. Bravo, Germany's biggest teen fan magazine voted Cliff Richard for the second time in a row as the most popular male artist in Germany, with The Beatles finishing second. Germany's Freddy Quinn took 3rd place honors. On the distaff side of the picture, first place went to Gitte from Denmark with Germany's Manuela taking second place and Connie Francis moving to 3rd. A&R man Lothar Olias of Polydor took over the production of Lolita. A new booking agency, Interart, from Dusseldorf opened with a successful concert tour of Casey Jones and The Governors The Lords from Germany and the Beat-Chics. The tour was a great success.

France Gall who won the song for Europe contest with her Luxemburg entry became a household name in Germany and the winning tune became a top hit here. Teldec started the push on their new "royal sound" stereo. Wilhelm Klofat returned to Ariola-Eurodisc as head of promotion and press replacing Michael Andries who joined Interart promotions.

"Annie Get Your Gun" was televised here in the original German version to give a boost to Philips records sales. Ralph Maria Siegel had a top smash with "Pretty Woman" by Roy Orbison and "The Wedding" by Julie Rogers.

Sports stars were in the news record wise as 3 top sports figures had top discings here. Skater Hans Jurgen Baumler had a top 10 hit for CBS, Munich soccer goalie Peter Radenkovic had a smash for Teldec and sprinter Martin Lauer had another hit for Polydor.

APRIL

"Downtown" by Petula Clark topped the hit parade here. Teldec awarded a third golden record to Ernst Mosch and the original Egerlander Musikanten for sales topping 4 million in Germany. Film star Pierre Brice joined the Teldec fold as an artist. D.G.G.-Polydor started a special series of LP's culled from their extensive catalogue for a full promotion all over Europe. Bert Kaempfert celebrated his 50th birthday with a big shindig in Hamburg. More and more time has been devoted to pop records in TV which have had a good reflection in sales here. The German Radio-TV fair was set for Stuttgart for the first time. The fair will be held in August. Barbara Kist of Schaeffers Music left the firm to take over the AME publishing firm of Ed Kassner. Gaby Richt left Montana Music to take over for Barclay Records here. English A&R man Paul Murphy left Polydor for Alpha Production post under Caterina Valente's husband Eric Von Aro. The Aaron Schroeder publishing interests shifted from Peter Meisel to Edition Accord. Electrola's The Peanuts from Japan were booked for the German Song Festival.

MAY

Cabaret star Helen Vita passed the 100,000 mark with LP's sold for Vogue. UFA Music announced that they will start their own label in September distributed by Ariola-Eurodisc. Both the publishing firm and record company belong to Bertelsmann. Oscar Peterson and his trio toured Germany. Peter Meisel's Hansa label landed two hot masters and both racked up terrific sales. One was "Il Silenzio" by Nini Rosso which went on to the number 1 slot in Germany and sales of over 1/4 million and the other was "Cadillac" by The Renegades, an English group living in Finland. Ann Busse left the Busse Music complex to take over the new Telstar publishing group owned by Echolette. Record firms began heavy production of regional records for vacation business. CBS issued a group of standard stereo singles. Trouble began popping up regarding the German Song Festival and the choosing of material for the festival by the jury. Electrola won an important court case from indie distributors since the firm set up their own distribution net and took the label away from the indies.

JUNE

The German Song Festival ended in a win for "Mit 17 Hat Man Noch Traeume" sung for RCA by Peggy March. Second place went to Polydor's Wencke Myhre and third place to Siw Malmkvist of Metronome. All three records and several other festival tunes immediately picked up saleswise. Other top items included the new German Cliff Richard single of "I Could Easily Fall In Love With You" and "Il Silenzio" by Nini Rosso. Freddy Quinn, Germany's top record artist did his first English single for Kapp. Peter Walter of the Big Apple Night club brought in The Animals for their first concert here. The Pretty Things also made their first appearance at the club. Teldec picked up the Reprise label from Ariola for Germany. Teldec issued a new "Beat for Beaters" series of hard rock sounds.

JULY

GEMA won a court battle and now receives 5% of the sales price of tape recorders for the authors. Copyright laws were amended in Germany to give composers a 70 instead of a 50 year protection. Vogue started a new low priced series of beat LP's.

Heinz Gietz gave up his position as head of production at Electrola to take on a non-exclusive agreement with the firm as chief producer. Heinz's partner, Gunter Ilgner leaves Electrola as administrative director to work exclusively for the partnership productions with all labels. Electrola is for the first time open to independent production through this move.

That is the year that was. Trends toward long play records continued to grow. The singles drop slowed down to a trickle which shows a steady balancing of sales. The indie producer is "in" with almost all of the major A&R men now working on a non-exclusive basis for several labels.

GERMANY—Vital Statistics

POPULATION: (West Germany) Around 60 million with 19.2 million households
 PER CAPITA INCOME: 180 Dollars (720 marks) Monthly
 HOMES WITH RECORD PLAYERS: 8.0 Million

RECORD SALES—1964	1963	% Of Change
Singles	23.3 Million	24.2 Million	- 3.7%
EP's	8.3 Million	8.4 Million	- 1.2%
10" LP's	1.5 Million	1.8 Million	-16.7%
12" LP's	9.9 Million	7.9 Million	+25.3%

The German phonograph Record Industry has released figures for the entire year of 1964 and the results show that once again singles went down and LP's zoomed up in sales. Dollar volume rose once again due to LP sales.

That means a huge increase in large LP sales. The large majority of sales were directly through record shops and divides itself in the following way.

Sales Through Record Shops	Category	1963	1964	% Change
	Singles	22.1 mil.	23.1 mil.	- 4.3%
	EP's	6.0 mil.	6.5 mil.	- 7.7%
	10" LP's	0.8 mil.	1.2 mil.	-33.3%
	12" LP's	8.0 mil.	5.9 mil.	+35.6%

The rest of the sales were through channels other than record shops and showed an increase of 9% in singles sales through this method, an increase of 21.1% in EP's, an increase of 16.7% in 10" LP's and a decrease of 5% in 12" LP's over 1963. The sales figures are not as happy as they look as these figures include low priced product as well and the tremendous surge of the low priced LP has accounted for much of the sales, meaning less dollar volume. The division of sales figures in pop and classical is also interesting. Here's how things looked.

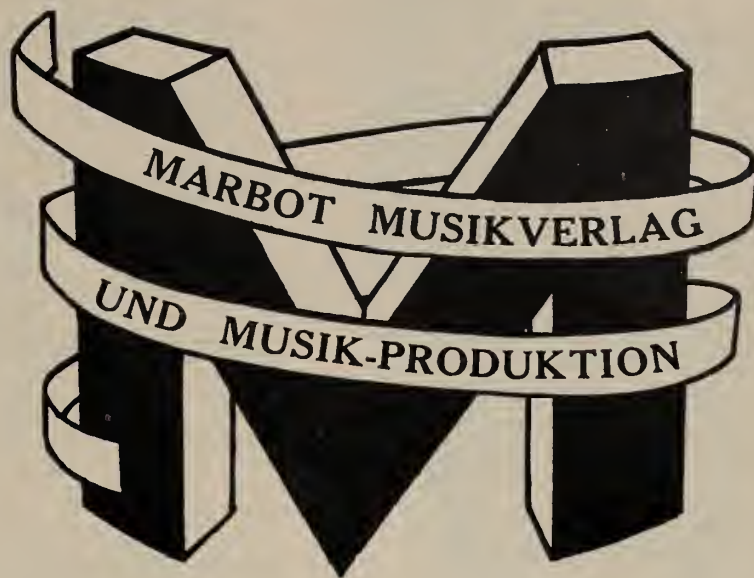

Classical	1964	1963	% Change	Pop	1964	1963	% Change
Singles	0.8 mil.	0.7 mil.	+ 14.3	Singles	22.5 mil.	23.5	- 4.3
EP	2.8 mil.	2.5 mil.	+ 12.0	EP	5.5 mil.	5.9	- 6.8
10" LP	0.9 mil.	1.0 mil.	- 10.0	10" LP	0.6 mil.	0.8	-25.0
12" LP	4.3 mil.	3.7 mil.	+ 16.2	12" LP	5.6 mil.	4.2	+33.3

This shows that the classical LP dropped from 46.8% of LP sales to 43.4% which is still a substantial part of the LP business. Export wise, business continued to pick up. Here are the statistics there.

Export Business	Category	1964	1963	% Change
	Singles	4.9 mil.	4.5 mil.	+ 8.9
	EP	1.5 mil.	2.0 mil.	-25.0
	10" LP	0.3 mil.	0.3 mil.	-
	12" LP	5.6 mil.	4.1 mil.	+36.6

Production figures in total increased from 55.6 million in 1963 to 57.4 million pieces in 1964. Singles production remained unchanged at 28.8 million, EP production dropped from 11.8 million to 10.2 for a percentual loss of 13.6%, 10" LP's dropped from 2.5 million to 2.2 million for a loss of 12% and the big 12" LP increased from 12.5 million in 1963 to 16.2 million in 1964 for a 29.6% increase.

These figures show that this year 21.4% of all records produced here were exported against 19.6% for 1963. Export went down from 1.74 million pieces to 1.65 million for a loss of 5.2%. The happiest news of the season was the increased stereo sales for LP's as 16.2% of all record sales outside of singles which are not released here in stereo were in stereo against 9.4% in 1963. 12" stereo LP sales doubled from 1.4 million to 2.8 million in one year. Pop stereo sales increased 150% over last year. As good as these figures look, Germany is not in as good a position increase in dollar sales wise as the U.S. or England. One reason for the loss in singles sales is the increase in popularity of the tape recorder which sold about 342,000 recorders in 1960, 329,000 in 1961, 382,000 in 1962, 380,000 in 1963 and about 385,000 in 1964.

FRANCE - The Past Twelve Months

The past year has not been a very good period for record manufacturing in France. It is the first time since 1961 that record turnover did not progress. But the situation is not really grave. The crisis is normal after the crazy Yéyé years, and is supported by the French "Plan de stabilisation."

Actually French talent scouts try to find new authors and composers. The way is shown by new stars Salvatore Adamo, Enrico Macias and France Gall. Salvatore and Enrico write their songs and the France's father is Robert Gall a well known author. A new young singer has to write his own songs or to have his own composers. All Americans and English top hits are swept up by artists like Johnny Hallyday, Claude François, Richard Anthony, Sheila, Françoise Hardy or Eddy Mitchell. It is impossible for a young singer to have a good foreign song.

This summer will surely give a new start to the record industry in France.

OCTOBER

For the occasion of Dave Brubeck's quartet's first appearance in Paris, CBS released on the French market two 12 inch LP's of this group entitled "Time Changes" and "Impressions of Japan." On the Odeon label, we have The Beatles with an excellent disk, including the principal songs from their recent film. Vogue has released several novelties, Dean Martin's "A Little Voice," The Dixie Cups "A Girl Can't Tell." An importance on the French market is for the moment the American and English singers. We have Dionne Warwick, which after a successful performance at the Olympia Music Hall in Paris, recorded some songs in France for Vogue Records. Also the Austrian singer Udo Jurgens supplies us in French with "Si Tu Par-tous" and "Crois Moi." On the subject of the music hall, Los Indios Tabajaros obtained an immense success during their appearance at the Olympia Music Hall. There has been released a good grooving by John Foster with main title "Amore Scuisami." Bobby Solo's best song seems to be "Ore Che Scigia Una Donna." Concerning Marie Laforet, she obtained a great success by "Viens Sur La Montagne." The young lark France Gall, has released a new disk, "Laisse Tomber Les Filles." A new fact on the French disk market is a big collection with 2, 3, 6 or 10 records. After following a success made by Philips, RCA Victor released a 10-LP package called "Panorama de la Chanson Francaise" including 16F popular French songs. Also, Columbia followed with a 10-LP set of well known Edith Piaf songs. At the Chatelet Theater, Radio-Luxembourg presented a show with Sacha Distel and the two Italian stars Bobby Solo and Gigliola Cinquetti. By his first performance at the Olympia Music Hall, Jacques Brel had quite a triumph and a live recording was made during the concert. Richard Anthony has been in London recording a new EP for Columbia. Good news for Barclay is that Charles Aznavour has come back from New York City just to renew his agreement with the label till 1970. In New York Aznavour organized the American office of French Music. His records will, from now on, be distributed by Reprise Records. Leon Cabat, Vogue's Prexy, is also back from the States. He informs us that the publishing firm Vogue International is not only working for Vogue Records; it will represent in France: Dot, Billy Vaughan, Anatol, Medal and also distribute in France all the songs by The Beach Boys. In the States, Warner Bros. will distribute Petula Clark records, and Kapp will release an LP by Françoise Hardy singing in French.

NOVEMBER

Among the new records of the month we have Richard Anthony, Sylvie Vartan, Claude François, Leny Escudero. Claude François, has recorded a French treatment of an American top hit by The Newveats; "Bread and Butter," the French title is "Du Pain Et Du Beurre." Brenda Lee has been a huge success, and especially after a show at the Olympia Music Hall. On the same program we saw Frank Alaimo. For Nana Mouskouri, she obtained a great success during her performance in the U.S.A. "Tobacco Road" has been recorded by Dick Rivers while "Pon Gentille," an adaptation of "Bad Boy" has been recorded by Françoise Hardy. The popular Belgium singer Salvatore Adamo just received a gold record with 19 diamonds on his great success in Belgium and France for his song "Vous Permettez Monsieur." On Polydor Records we have a new "Compagnons de la Chansons" record with three songs by Charles Aznavour; "Y'a Rien A Faire," "Au Printemps Tu Reviendras" and "Que C'est Triste Venise." Gigliola Cinquetti, Italian winner of the Grand Prix De l'Eurovision-1964, recorded her first French record with "Tout Un Diamanche Loin De Toi." The new dance called Letkiss is coming from Lapony, but has been created in France by Myeriam Michelson. We have heard a Barclay record played by an orchestra directed by Anton Letkiss. Jacques Brel obtained an enormous success by his performance at the Olympia Music Hall. His new song "Amsterdam" is currently a best seller. Gilbert Becaud is just back from Canada where he sang 14 times in Montreal and Quebec. Les Surfs, the six Madagascan singers, are very pleased with their first trip to the U.S.A. They recorded 12 English songs in New York, and performed twice in Hollywood. "Un Ete" and "Adrien La Bell" by Alain Barriere will be treated in Italian. Petula Clark, a Vogue star, released a single in English with "Downtown," and another one in German with a treatment of the French song "Ce Soir Tu T'en Vas." Vogue's manager is also very glad about the good reception of the last Michel Paje EP with "Partout Ou Tu T'en Vas." A very interesting song pull was organized last month. The best one in the Charm category was Bobby Solo with "Une Lacrima Sul Viso." Soviet Army Choir with "Kalinka" was the first on the Folks-list. The domain rhythm was taken by Johnny Hallyday with "Le Peintencier." Further on we have Charles Aznavour with "Que C'est Triste Venise," who was the best author-composer. And last the best one in the group of instrumentalists was The Shadows with "Shadoogie." For this month France's Best Seller has been "Que C'est Triste Venise" by Charles Aznavour.

DECEMBER

"L'Academie du Disque Francais" has arranged a prize-list for 1964. In Prix Francis Carco the best male singer was Jacques Brel. The best female singer was Juliette Greco and the best song of the year was "T'es Vemi De Loin" written by Louis Amade and Gilbert Becaud. The best dance record seemed to be "Surprise Partie Twenty," an LP including Petula Clark and Françoise Hardy. The Prix Arthur Honnegor was given to Louis Armstrong while the Prix Colette was given to Simone Signoret. This month there has been a one-man show by Gilbert Becaud at the Olympia Music Hall, and also a one-night

stand of the Beach Boys. For the first time as leading man, the French singer and composer Alain Barriere performed at the Olympia Music Hall. Last summer he reached Top of the Charts with his song "Ma Vie." The four new songs which he presented at the Olympia are: "Les Sabots," "L'Aoeugle Du Pont Au Change," "Mais Je Vous Dis" and "Attends." Hugnes Aufray was co-starring in that program. In the same show we also saw Jean Yanou. New recordings have been made by the French female group Les Gam's with "Rien N'est Trop Beau" and another one "Oui C'est Tci" by Frank Fernandel. A 13-LP set has been released with all songs recorded by Charles Trenet. Young French author Pierre Barouh has written French lyrics to J. Van Wetter's melody, "La Playa." It has been recorded by a new French female singer star Marie Laforet. Leon Cabat, President of Vogue Records, is delighted with the success of his young star's latest records: Michel Paje's "Partout Ou Tu T'en Vas," Danyel Gerard's "Il Pleut Dans Ma Maison" and "Ou S'en Balance," Guy Mardel's "Si Tu N'y Crois Pas," Jean Jacques Debout's "Previens Les Auris, Previens Les Copains." The popular Madagascan sextet, Les Surfs, has just recorded "Tu Pars Et Tu Pleures." Concerning Guy Mardel, he has got a really good start as singer and composer, and his songs are already requested by several countries. Mort Shuman, American composer, has newly written some songs intended for some French artists. Thus, Eddy Mitchell recorded "Le Generique" and "Johnny Merci," Monty "Oh Oui!" Olivier Despax "Qu'En Pensez Vous" and France Arnell "On Les Voit." A lot of English singers are on stage in Paris for live broadcasts, including the Honeycombs, the Kinks, Sandie Shaw and the Animals. During this month "Que C'est Truste Venise" by Charles Aznavour has been the best-seller in France.

JANUARY

The discovery of the film "My Fair Lady" has been a great success. At the same time the different records released by CBS with the songs of the film are really hitting. A kind of a civil action opposing Charles Trenet and Claude Francois has taken place. The problem was caused by a certain song, but they are now good friends. As the star of a show Muscorama, the Belgium singer Salvatore Adamo had an enormous success. Some of his songs are already very popular in France; "Tombe La Neigi," "Quand Les Roses" and "Vous Permettez Monsieur." An international work made by Vogue Records during 1964 was that a lot of foreign artists, whose records are distributed in France by Vogue, came to France including Trini Lopez, Dionne Warwick, The Honeycombs, The Kinks, Sandie Shaw and Udo Jurgens. Petula Clark, whose "Downtown" recording reaches the top of CB's American chart, has been on a tour in Canada. Before representing France at the Italian San Remo Festival, she spent a few days in the U.S.A. Michel Paje has been to Germany where he was featured with Françoise Hardy on a TV show. Johnny Hollyday just came to France to record a new EP with a French adaptation of "She is a Woman" ("Ou a ses jours"). Sheila will also record a new EP with a French treatment of The Beatles No. 1. "I Feel Fine." Orchestra conductor Eddie Vartan is now recording on Philips. Frank Alamo has released "Le Chef de la Bande" which is a French treatment of "Leader Of The Pack." Since the beginning of 1965 we have two new dances in France; one is called the "Tac-O-Tac" presented by Albert Raisner, and the second one is "La Bostella."

FEBRUARY

A new record company has been established in France called Mondio-phonie. It is founded by associated artists which are all from the Opera de Paris. The President is Henri Giovannetti. The performance by Charles Aznavour at the Olympia Music Hall has really been a great success. His new songs are excellent and might well become hits. They are: "Le Toreador," "C'est Fini" and "Je Te Rechaufferai." Everybody in Paris knows what "La Bostella" is. This dance has been invented by a French journalist Honore Bostel and seems to be off to a flying start. The first Bostella record presents the two original titles "Dansons La Bostella" and "Viens Danser La Bostella." The music of the first one has been written by Sacha Distel. In France, we have had the pleasure of seeing Duke Ellington with his band. He spent five days in France during his very extensive continental tour. Talking of jazz, Billy Taylor was delighted by the success in Paris of his "My Fair Lady" version. In another kind of jazz, there has been released a second LP of the Village Stompers with "Dominique" and "Don't Think Twice It's All Right." France has also launched a new Dixieland group; Les Haricots Rouges. The well known deejay, Michel Cogoni is getting on very well. On his last EP, he sings a French adaptation of "Amore Scusami:" "Armour Exeuse Moi." France Gall is actually No. 2 on the French charts with her recording of "Sacre Charlemagne." Johnny Hallyday has recorded a new EP called "Johnny Lui Dit Adieu" and "Ou Te Montrera Du Doight." Vogue has released Dionne Warwick's first EP with a song in French called "Un Toit Ne Suffit Pas." For Henri Salvador, he has recorded "La Grosse Bete," a French treatment of "La La." Petula Clark is more and more an international star. In France we have three recent records of her. One in English is "Downtown," number one on the U. S. charts. After the success of this record she has been engaged for two weeks as the lead at the Olympia Music Hall in Paris. Another record is in French, "Dans Le Temp," a French treatment of "Downtown," one in Italian is "Invece No" which reached the San Remo finals. The winner of the San Remo Festival was Bobby Solo's "Se Piangi, Se Ridi." Disks by Sandy Shaw and Françoise Hardy have now been recorded in English. There has also been released a new single by Sacha Distel with "Petit Oiseau Bleu" and "Je Danse Avec Toi." An interesting movie soundtrack is an EP containing music from Ives Robot's film "Les Copains" with one song by Georges Brassens tagged "Les Copains d'Abord." During the San Remo Song Festival MGM was represented by Connie Francis and Johnny Tillotson. The songs performed by these artists have been released as EP's in France and as singles in other European countries. A thing which is really remarkable is that Adamo's "Vous Permettez Monsieur" has been No. 1 on French EP Top Ten during the whole month of February.

MARCH

Sylvie Vartan has left France for a very extensive tour around the world. For the moment she is in Turkey. The new James Bond story "Goldfinger" has now been presented in Paris. There are already eight recordings of the main theme, including one by Shirley Bassey, Philippe Adler and Michel Nettor has made a conclusion from letter received to their "Hit Parade du Jazz"; that the most popular jazzmen in France are: Charlie Parkor, Martial Solal, Omar Peterson, Louis Armstrong and Bersie Smith. Speaking of jazz, we had the pleasure to see the Art Blakey Jazz

Messengers and Jimmy Guiffree in Paris for two concerts at the Olympia Music Hall. There has newly been released a very interesting 10-LP set named "Plaisir du Jazz" in an effort to popularize jazz in France. Each LP is dedicated to a well known musician. We have for example Cannonball Adderly, Erroll Garner, Coleman Hawkins. The French composer Maurice Fanon's second LP, "La Petite Juive," has just come out and is already well launched. Joe Dassin, film producer Jules Dassin's 26-year old son, has just made his first EP for CBS. The artist sings American folk songs in French and is making a good start as a movie actor. A big event has been the proclamation of the prize-list of "Grand Prix International du Disque 1965 de L'Academie Charles Cros" which is one of the most important yearly prizes. Some of the results are as follows: The Best French Singer: Hughes Auffray. 1965 Revelation: Jean Claude Aunoux. Foreign Singers: Pete Seegar and Ismael. Light Music: A Sydney Bechet composition played by Gerard Calvi's orchestra. Theater: "Le Tartuffe Ou L'Imposteur" written by Moliere. Humour: Raymond Devos. Jazz: Wes Montgomery. Jazz Re-issue: Charlie Christian with Benny Goodman's Sextet and Orchestra; "Back to Back" by Duke Ellington and Johnny Hodges. Among other events of the month is the release of a Chuck Berry LP recorded in Paris during his performance at the Olympia Music Hall. Alvin Barriere is back from Hambourg where he featured in an important TV show. His song, "Ma Vie" is a success all around the world. During the month of February we remarked that Adamo's "Vous Permettez Monsieur" was No. 1. This song has kept its place during the first part of March, but at the end of the month "Le Toreador" by Charles Aznavour became No. 1 at the French EP Top Ten.

APRIL

The Eurovision song contest is over and France Gall, who represented Tele Luxembourg has won. She has recorded the winner tune "Poupee de Cire Poupee de Son" in English, Italian and German. It brought her an enormous success. Guy Mardel, 21 years old, author and composer, took third place at Naples for France, behind England's Kathy Kirby who was second. Mardel composed his own tune "N'Avone Jamais" for the contest. This song is making a very important international start. In France we can already find several recordings of Eurovision songs. The French one of course by Guy Mardel, Luxembourg's entry by France Gall, the song of Monaco by Marjorie Noel, the United Kingdom's tune by Kathy Kirby, Spain's entry by Conchita Bautista, the song from Austria by Udo Jurgens and the Italian contender by Bobby Solo. A very good work has lately been done by publishers and record firms in France. "J'Avais Deux Amis" has been recorded by Eddy Mitchell and "Terry," a real success in Great Britain by Claude Francois. There are now two very good versions in French of the Italian song from the Sanremo Festival "Le Colline Sono Tu Fiore," called in French "Le Printemps Sur La Colline." One is done by Dalida and the other one by Les Surfs. Charles Aznavour has left the Olympia stage and the new lead is Petula Clark. One day on that same stage we also had the pleasure to see Roy Orbison. Still for Charles Aznavour is that his record "Le Monde Est Sous Nos Pas" from the film "Week End A Zuydcoote" will be sub-published in several countries including Japan. Through Pathe label, Dick Rivers released a new 45 RPM with a French adaptation of "Go Now," the Moody Blues' hit. The French title is "Va T'En, Va T'En," and on the same record we have "Et Quand L'Amour S'En Va." There is also a new record from Gilbert Becaud, "La Voix de Son Mouret," "La Vie D'Garcon" and "Il Faut Marcher." Les Lionceaux just recorded their fifth EP. These four boys are now the most popular French Rock'n Roll group. Some of their new titles are: "Le Vrai Google Eye" and "Dis Moi Pourquoi." The result this year of finding the most popular artists in France is as follows: The most popular male singer is Jacques Brel and the most popular female singer is Petula Clark. The first week of this month "Alors Salut Yeh Yeh" by Claude Francois was No. 1 on the French EP Top Ten, but during the second week it was replaced by Richard Anthony's "Je Me Suis Souvent Dernande." For the rest of the month "Poupee de Cire Poupee de Son" by France Gall has kept its place as No. 1.

MAY

After an English tour, the Tamla-Motown show stopped for a night at the Olympia Music Hall in Paris. On the stage we had the pleasure to see The Supremes, Martha and the Vandellas, Earl Van Dyke Sextet and Stevie Wonder. New information is that Dean Martin's last hit "Send Me The Pillow You Dream On" has just been recorded by Les Surfs. "Non Son Degno Di Te," which has been No. 1 in Italy, has been recorded in France by Dalida entitled "Tu N'as Pas Merite." The Rolling Stones came to Paris for three days to sing at the Olympia Hall. But in France the biggest event in show business this month was Johnny Hollyday's and Sylvie Vartan's marriage. Concerning Johnny Hollyday, he has recorded a song with French title "Mes Yeux Sont Fous," and he has released a new EP with "Quand Reviens La Nuit," a French treatment of "Mr. Lonely." For Sylvie Vartan she has recorded three songs on her new EP "C'est A Deux Pas," "Pour Ne Pas Pleurer" and "Cette Lettre La." Petula Clark has just finished a two-week performance at the Olympia Hall in Paris. It was a really great success. New Olympia lead is Enrico Macias, and in the same program we see the Italian lark Gigliola Cinquetti and Les Surfs. The popular artist Bob Dylan has released his first LP in France. Adaptations of his songs have been recorded by Hugues Auffray and Richard Anthony. A great success was obtained by The Kinks at their one night stand at Palais de la Mutualite. The Everly Brothers have also been in Paris to feature in several TV programs. There is an excellent LP from Lucky Blondo where we notice French adaptations of "Una Lacrima Sul Viso," "Red Roses For A Blue Lady" and "Lonely Boy." Nancy Holloway has released an EP in English with the song from the film "The Gentleman from Cocody." A new record from Sacha Distel, which contains "Petit Oiseau Bleu" is already making a good start. Alain Barriere is writing a movie score for "Pas de Panique" in which he is starring. And Frank Alamo has been released "Ma Vie a T'attendre" and "Des Filles et Des Garcons." An important one-day visit at the Olympia has been Johnny Mathis. The Italian artist, Bobby Solo has been in Paris to star in a TV program. There is now a very good start of the new dance "Sirtaky" with music from the film "Zorba le Grec." Movie star Eddie Constantine just recorded a new EP with a French treatment of Cole Porter's "I've Got You Under My Skin." Taking a look at the French EP Top Ten, "Poupee de Cire Poupee de Son" by France Gall was No. 1 during the first week this month. But it was replaced by Guy Mardel's "N'Avone Jamais" which kept the first place during two weeks. For the rest of the month "La Nuit" by Adamo kept the place as No. 1

JAPAN — The Past Twelve Months

Looking back to the musical situation in Japan the past six months, I can't but feel a little surprised at recognition of a great many performances by foreign artists, most of which have turned out to be a great success.

Everytime they come to Japan, record companies never fail to release the anniversary discs which have also shown good sales. Nothing would be more delightful to real music lovers than to be able to enjoy all kinds of music performances by artists of all nations, while this fact seems to be featuring Japanese nationality "likely to be impassioned and to be cool".

Anyway, Japan is the best place for music entertainment.

Relating to foreign artists having come here from January on, during new year season, Art Blakey and his jazz messengers, The Ventures And The Astronauts, Pat Boone, and big four drummers, Philly Joe Jones, Buddy Rich, Louis Bellson and Charles Persip, enlivened pop and jazz fan. Among them, performances by Art Blakey and by big four drummers were reportedly said to have been successful.

The Ventures are expected to pay their re-visit here in July. "Astronauts In Japan" was released by Nippon Victor to honor their visit.

The tendency of Japanese young music lovers in recent pop music is strong-beated by use of electric guitars, which is seemingly due to The Ventures and The Astronauts's performances.

In the end of January, Alfred Hause and his world famous tango Orch. opened its Japan concert series at Yokohama to add a new page to the annals of tango music in Japan, especially because Japan's tango lovers had their taste of authentic European tango last year with the visit here of Arthur Malando and his tango Orch. from Holland. The new release "All About Continental Tango" was made by Japan Victor on Philips label which had been put on upper ranking in the chart for months.

In the beginning of March, Chan-son lark Juliette Greco paid her second visit to Japan after the interval of five years, for a series of four performances where she received a storm of applause. She was in the invitation of Toho Geino Production.

In the end of March, in the invitation of Kyodo Kikaku, New Glenn Miller Orch. revisited here to have had sixteen performances. Their records are released by Nippon Victor. In the same month, The Four Freshmen arrived here for 18 day performance tour.

In May, two of Liverpool Sounds Group, Peter and Gordon, and The Animals had a performance tour in and around Tokyo which was reportedly said to have been successful.

Sylvie Vartan also had her successful performances in May. With the help of performances, her popularity has gone up much more as shown in the good sales of her records and in the good result of her film performances.

Odetta's first performance in Japan was made in Tokyo on May 8 gathering. From her wide repertories; Negro Spiritual, folk song, and labours song, she introduced "If I Had A Hammer", "Fox", "Water Boy", and so on. Nippon Victor newly released "Odetta Sings Of Many Things" in honor of her visit here.

In Mid-May, best prize winner in past San Remo Music Festival, Canzone singer, Luciano Tajoli (1961) and lark Gigliola Cinquetti (1964) were invited by Kambara Music Office. With the help of getting a place in the festival, by Japanese participants, Yukari Ito, many of Canzone fans gathered at the concert

In June, much awaited pop lark, Brenda Lee arrived here in Japan for the ten days performance at the invitation of Shinnichi Kogyo Co.

The most trusted name in sound

AUSTRALIA - The Past Twelve Months

Ten years with the local product.

During the past twelve months, and the last six in particular, we have witnessed a revival in Australia of the Australian record, or what is loosely termed as the "Australian sound."

Most Australians in the record and publishing industries figure that any sound that sells is the ideal sound of the moment, and they are all now looking towards the sudden renewed consumer interest in the local product as the key to future success.

Some ten years ago, the record companies who were then interested in local talent, got away to quite a shaky start with what were then considered as the best records ever produced in Australia.

From these humble beginnings, the local scene slowly but surely developed in the face of mounting odds, to the stage where a sprinkling of Australian produced singles began to catch a slice of air play. They then started to snare some sales, and—hey presto! the local disc had arrived.

These were the early days of the industry in Australia, the early days of artists such as Col. Joye, Johnny O'Keefe, Johnny Chester, The Thunderbirds, etc.

The record business owes a great deal to artists like these and their early records, which pioneered the way for the present high standard of quality and acceptance of the Australian record today.

Just how important these early records were, may never be known. They started a trend that has opened a new world of great dimensions for Australian talent, composers, and records—a world that is conquering new fields almost every other day, as Australians generally continue to make their presence felt on the international pop music scene.

There was always great joy when, in these formative years, a locally produced record hit the big time in popularity—joy that was usually shared by the entire industry, regardless of which label carried the lucky record, which in those days was usually one of the Festival group to break through on a national scale.

Main competition to the local product in the late 1950's came from American masters, which had something of a stranglehold on the singles market of Australia.

After a few years of fluctuating fortunes during which the number of "dogs" far outstripped the number of successful records, (just as they do today) the local industry took stock to find that it was on the credit side of the deal—but not by much! It seemed that all the time, money, and effort, and general anxiety over the local "baby" was hardly warranted by the results.

This period of some uncertainty took us into the early 1960's when there was no definite trend one way or the other.

THEN, almost as if a pre-determined signal had been set off, the entire local industry rose again with new life, excitement, action and vigor. To the old heads in the business, it was as though an enormous meeting had been called of the entire trade to consider the future of the local output, and a vote of confidence resulted.

We believe that this period in the early 60's will go down as one of the most crucial of all in relation to the Australian product. We know for sure that a couple of the biggest supporters of the Australian field were on the brink of throwing-in-the-towel and concentrating solely on overseas catalogues. Fortunately these companies gave the problem second thoughts, and decided to stick with the "recorded-in-Australia" policy.

They embarked on a programme of expansion and betterment with such enthusiasm that their outlook began to rub off on others in the trade. We found recording companies building, remodeling, re-equipping, re-planning and re-shaping their whole operations to give far more accent to Australian music and artists. Music publishers were suddenly more readily interested in Australian compositions because they found there were more and better opportunities to have local repertoire recorded by some important name artists.

With better records came better songs (should it be vice-versa?) which culminated in an improved product on disc, which, of course, led to greater and wider acceptance by disc jockeys and radio stations across the nation.

Television began to take a renewed interest in this Australian talent which was competing more than favourably on record with overseas material. From here the whole thing snowballed in acceptance and popularity to the great stage where the Australian artists actually "had-it-made" in their own country.

THEN, just when things were looking nice and rosy for Australia; WHAM! It suddenly happened and hit us like a thunderbolt! We refer of course to the English invasion which dominated our industry to the same extent (perhaps a little more so) as it did in most English-speaking countries. This really put a dent in the progress of Australian material, a decent sized dent it was too—one that almost brought local activity to a standstill. During those early months of the English "take-over" it was almost impossible to GIVE an Australian record away; let alone try and sell it. BUT, like they say, you fight your hardest when you're down, and again the Australian proved his ability to fight back, and this time he had the advantage of having survived a couple of similar bad periods a few years beforehand. The fightback against the English domination wasn't (isn't) easy. We were the first country outside England to give mass acceptance to English hit singles. Many of their Mersey-Beat Discs had enjoyed tremendous popularity here some twelve months before the identical records gained world-wide recognition. In fact, the universal recognition only served to re-activate interest in those same records again throughout Australia, which gave them a second bite at our market.

The question in the record industry around the world was "what to do to compete with English records?" (Let it be understood here and now that we are not complaining about the success of the English product—many companies have profited handsomely from them. But there was still an important local industry to be kept alive). It seemed to Australian trade executives that America failed to a large extent in its efforts to play the English at their own game. America's greatest success has been achieved in the field in which they have always been supreme—that of the big arrangement sing-along standard type of thing such as artists like Vic Damone, Frank Sinatra, Bobby Vinton and Dean Martin have been scoring heavily with of late.

Contrary to the American experience, Australia found the answer to English sounds in re-creating those sounds to a strong degree. Could this have been partly due to our long-time English heritage and years of English tradition and influence in our background? No matter what the reason, Australian records found the answer and began "sharing" our market with English records. Since that time of a couple of years back the local record industry has advanced in great style to the stage now where any record company which isn't producing Australian records must be having its share of headaches. We don't for one minute suggest that companies with local product are hauling in great piles of cash, but at least they are in a better position than they would be without their Australian discs.

EMI, who have been a little reluctant to enter the local singles field on a scale the trade would expect, are now showing much more interest and action but still not to the volume anticipated from an organization of their size and depth. Festival Records (and their subsidiaries) and W & G Records are two of the local companies who have really pioneered the Australian single, and between them they would account for at least 60% of the entire output of local issues. Astor Records, who have been in and out of the local scene over the years, are now making a determined bid for a big slice of the market with their GO!! label.

RCA, who were among the last into the field, are continually building their Australian catalogue, especially in relation to singles.

As yet, Philips haven't done much locally but the feeling is that they are getting their operation geared for a solid entry into the market.

Australian Record Company (CBS) are rapidly building their contribution to the Australian scene, their activities cover both albums and singles and the company has had fairly good results.

With this great revival of action on the local product has come a big batch of new artists; and the new talent is scoring success in the sales department. A few weeks ago our list of the ten best-selling singles across Australia included five locally produced records. Each one featured an artist who had risen to prominence within the last twelve months. There is no doubt that the older and more established name artists are finding the going tough with singles; in fact many of them have given up trying to crack the singles market.

The average Australian-produced single has much stiffer competition than those in England or the United States. The reason being that our local output has to do battle with the best from BOTH America and England; and you may rest assured that amounts to very formidable competition indeed. Where the American single in America only has to compete with the best from the U.K.; and vice-versa in relation to the English produced single. They don't have the best from TWO other countries in opposition.

The only important thing missing from the Australian scene for years has been the lack of support and interest from overseas labels, who it appears are most reluctant to give an Australian record a chance even if it has been a smash right across our country. One would think that the international success of Australian talent such as Frank Ifield, Rolf Harris and currently The Seekers, would have stimulated an eagerness on the part of overseas record labels to find out what else was available from Australia. There are several singles currently out that are more than worthy of the deepest consideration by overseas companies.

We've had a look at the Australian record industry over the past ten years or so. We hope it has made you a little more familiar with the Australian operation; and we hope also that the overseas trade may benefit from what has been said.

The Past Twelve Months

JUNE

This month began with two really interesting events for jazz fans. We saw at the Salle Pleyel organist Jimmy Smith with his trio, and a week after that Louis Armstrong gave two concerts at the Palais des Sports before 12,000 Parisians. Great success for both. "The Birds and the Bees" had two french treatments: Donald Lautrec (Fontana) records a version titled "Tu Dis Des Bêtises." The Monty's one is titled "Bientot Les Vacances." French author Georges Aber wrote the two lyrics. Eddie Barclay was in the U. S. He signed a contract for a Jacques Brel's appearance at Carnegie Hall on December 4. Vogue prexy, Leon Cabat, returned after a U. S. trip. Sandy Shaw came to Paris for several TV programs and at the same time Françoise Hardy was in Greece for a film in which she co-starred with Samy Frey. Publishing group Francis Day had great success with music from film "Zorba le Grec." Marie Laforet recorded a new EP with "Katy Cruelle." "La Bague Au Doigt," "Ma Chanson Faite Pour Toi." Jean Jacques Debout flew to London and recorded an EP directed by Tony Hatch. Alain Boublil, Vogue International manager, went to the English Festival in Brighton. He brought back two unpublished songs. In Paris, Lyon and Nice we saw the Beatles. They are a fantastic success for all their appearances. We also saw The Yardbirds and Lord Sutch.

JULY

Two important festivals this month in the same city: Antibes-Juan les Pins. At the beginning of the month there was "La Rose D'Or De La Chanson." It is the second year for this young festival. Every important publishing group presented one or two songs. Winner was Eric Montry. The songs he presented had been written by Frank Gérald, Pierre Delanoé and Hubert Giraud. Titles were: "D'Ombre Et De Soleil," "Le Bar Du Dernier Verre" by Francis Lemarque and "Les Cloches D'Ecosse" by Jean Jacques Debout and "Il Y A Cent Mille Raisons" by Michel Mallory. Second Festival was Jazz. We heard John Coltrane and Nina Simone. Everybody in show-business went to the Eddy Barclay marriage. The new Mrs. Barclay is 18 years old and an actress. Henri Salvador, through his own label Rigolo, just released a funny version of "La Danse De Zorba" ("Zorba's dance"). Le Trio Athénée fly to the U. S. to appear on the Ed Sullivan Show.

HOLLAND – The Past Twelve Months

Phonogram reports a further increase in business during the season 1964/65. Of course, singles and EP's have a big market in Holland, but the LP record especially is quickly reaching top turnovers, and not solely as a result of the introduction of cheaper series (Hfl.9.90 is a very popular price for a classical 12 inch LP nowadays). The more expensive series are also doing great business. Of course, the low-priced LP did a great job as a stimulator to reluctant classical buyers. It must be noted that the 10" LP has practically disappeared from the market. Of the 1964 Edisons, Phonogram got no fewer than ten awards, five in the classical and five in the pop field.

The repeated visits of the famous French vocal group The Swingle Singers, led by American Ward Swingle, made a tremendous impact on the Dutch audiences. Popular teen-age-singer Anneke Grönloh (five Golden Records) just started a season in René Sleswijk's "Nederlandse Revue" (a very popular show, already in its 28th year), in which she is a featured singer, accompanied by big orchestra, choir and dancers. It should be a very big chance for the young girl. Big stars like Corry Brokken and Mieke Telkamp were on the Sleswijk stage in earlier years. Saxophonist-clarinetist Herman Schoonderwalt received, for the first time, the 1965 Big Prize for Dutch Jazz. Philips recorded him, with several combinations ranging from quartet to big band, on an LP, "The Winner." Erroll Garner visited Holland and recorded an LP in the famous Concertgebouw Hall in Amsterdam. Jazz-Singer Rita Reys, ten years on Philips-records was honoured in recording a special LP with the Pim Jacobs Trio and several guest artists, "Congratulations in Jazz." Tango composer and orchestra leader Malando, in the business for more than 25 years, flew with his entire orchestra to Japan, because of the enormous successes of their records in that country. Trip was organized by Philips and KLM and proved a very big hit. Golden Records were handed to young Willeke Alberti, biggest teenage talent of the moment, for her recording of "Mijn dagboek" "My diary": They recorded the song also in English and to Roy Orbison for the tremendous sales of his "Pretty Woman." Famous "Star Club" records were added to Phonogram's library, on which the Liverbirds, Lee Curtis, the Searchers, the Nashville Teens, the Rattles and others are recording. Furthermore, Vee-Jay is represented on the Dutch market by Fontana, and already imported records by Eric Dolphy, Wayne Shorter, Walter Perkins, Frank Strozier and others. Riverside scored a big hit with its Classic Jazz-Masters series. Fontana released a similar series, "Folk Blues USA." In the classical field, Decca released a marvelous recording of Bach's "Matt-häus Passion," directed by Karl Münchinger, and with soloists like Peter Pears, Hermann Prey and Dutch soprano Elly Ameling. Another important Phonogram release were the Claudio Arrau recordings of Beethoven's Piano Concertos on Philips.

There are many highlights during season 1964/65 that symbolize the constant growth of Gerry Oord's Bovema in Holland. According to the label's president, the most recent and important ones are the now completed removal of record stores and other depts to newly-erected buildings neighbouring the pressing plant, through which operation a higher commercial efficiency could be obtained, and the recent take-over of such important labels as Parlophone and Odeon. This enables Bovema to enlarge its firm grip on the Dutch record market, in accordance with which, sales and net proceeds will be considerably increased. Even a bird's-eye view over the past season spotlights such successes as Bovema's Annual Convention at the Amsterdam-Hilton, featuring many prominent artists and guests, and the Edison-Award for popsinger Adamo, who also got a unique Diamond record for his "Vous Permettez Monsieur" hit. Gold was given to Imperial's songstress Imca Marina for her "Lass Mein Herz Nicht Weinen." The Columbia and HMV labels took their happy share in steady-selling British beat groups such as Manfred Mann, Herman's Hermits, Gerry and the Pacemakers etc. Bovema's Liberty label booked peak-sales for P. J. Proby and Vic Dana, the latter reaching a unique 15,000 sales mark for his "Red Roses." Capitol did tremendous business with Buck Owens, the late Nat King Cole and the Beach Boys, and Atlantic is in an upward move with its r & b catalogue and the Drifters. Bovema's HMV label hit the charts with Dutch and German versions of Toon Hermans' One Man (TV-) Show and also noted the definite 'arrival' of the Shepherds as Holland's most outstanding folk group. Gramophonehouse's large classical standard repertoires continued raking in healthy sales and especially Columbia's highly attractive Claudio Arrau Beethoven series was an especially huge success. The company's promotional activities reached a peak with Bovema's participation in the British Week, the organisation of Bovema Coop-Talent contests throughout this country, resulting in 15 year old Ad van Yperen's remarkable record-debut with a Dutch version of 'Il Silenzio', as well as a series of great Adamo-shows. A constant plugging of all pop records and artists on Dutch radio, TV and music press may well round-off this short survey of Bovema-highlights during a business-year to remember!

Polydor Nederland N.V. opened its offices in The Hague at the beginning of past season with a well-attended party. Polydor is very happy to have at the end of this season Holland's number one hit, "Woolly Bully," by Sam The Sham And The Pharoahs.

CNR and Telefunken had an extremely successful season with big sellers like Dutch singer Gert Timmerman and British beat-group the Scorpions which is recording exclusively for CNR. Timmerman was awarded with platinum and gold disks (presented to him by Louis Armstrong!), signifying the respective sales of "Ik Heb Eerbied Voor Jouw Grijze Haren" (200,000 sales) and "Nimm Deine Weisse Gitarre" (100,000). The Scorpions made a big topper with "Hello Josephine." Latest signing of CNR is Dutch-Danish star Suzie, one of the Dutch team that won this year's Knokke Song Festival.

Dureco had big hits with "Liebeskummer Lohnt Sich Nicht" by Siw Malmkvist (60,000 records sold), "Let-kiss" by Gudrun Jankis (more than 100,000 sold in Benelux) and records by the Zangeres Zonder Naam (Singer Without A Name) (100,000). Metro-nome's "Brilliant" series, priced $2.75, proved to be good selling, especially the LP of Nina and Frederik. Dureco also had a big moneymaker (and still has!) with Duo Akropolis' version of "Zorba The Greek." Turnover of Dureco in 1964 was 150% in comparison with 1963.

Basart and Stibbe made good business of course with the exploitation, until last June, of all Beatles Parlophone hits. Also, Durium's "Il Silenzio" (by Nini Rosso) proved to be a big hit.

The past year has been the most successful one so far in the rather short history of the N. V. Negram label in Haarlem. In the past months, N. V. Negram was characterized by a progressive way of working, both in the release policy and in the field of publicity. A very favourable circumstance was the fact that the labels which are represented by this company, were very lucky as regards their hit repertoire. Another favourable circumstance was the addition of the Reprise and Warner Bros. labels.

As regards the latter label, Negram experienced the great come-back by The Everly Brothers, due to a visit they paid to Holland in May. Negram's total turnover of last year was doubled in comparison with the year before. On one side, this is due to the addition of the above mentioned labels and on the other side to the variety of repertoire which was released on the labels, of which Negram had already the representation. Meanwhile the great number of labels which was represented by Negram, made it necessary to enlarge the number of salesmen. Besides which they introduced a new system of representation, which implied that the total repertoire was split in two label groups, so that each of the salesmen bears the responsibility now for half of the total repertoire.

In May Negram was associated with Delta Records N.V. and Delta's director, Hans I. Kellerman, was appointed in Negram's management as commercial manager with the responsibility for the programme choice and for the sales. This implies that Negram's Robert Oeges will get more elbow-room in the future to further strengthen the already pleasant relations which they keep with their licensors abroad. Under his management Negram succeeded in climbing from a modest position to a position in the group of important record companies. Apart from the great number of hits which was released, it is certainly worthwhile to mention among the standard and classical repertoire the success of the Vogue-line Mode. A well aimed advertising campaign was carried on in the beginning of this year with the result that this label, with its wide diversity of repertoire, has become one of the most popular record labels of Holland. In the past year, many artists paid a promotional visit to Holland, o.a. Francoise Hardy, the Honeycombs, Sandie Shaw, Donovan, The Everly Brothers, Udo Jügens, Rudolf Schock, the Kinks and the Searchers. All those visits resulted in an increased turnover of their respective records, which were released at that time. Because of the great attention paid to the foreign repertoire, the Dutch production, with which Negram had started on a modest scale, did not show to full advantage. An exception to this may certainly be called the fact that the Dutch beat group, the Motions, was already chosen as the most popular group of Holland within a half year after their start. N.V. Delta Records released with great success a N.V. Delta released Dutch cover version of the former Tex Tylor record, "Deck of Cards." The Dutch version was spoken by Radio Veronica deejay Gerard de Vries. This record became such an enormous success in Holland and Belgium, that it reached the second position on the Dutch charts and belonged to the first 10 in Belgium. Translations in German and French were released too, and taken over by Germany, Switzerland, Austria and France.

During the course of the past year, CBS Grammofoonplaten has established itself very well in the Benelux territory. First rate artists, first rate quality and presentation of records and a consistent international promotion service have done a great deal to make the CBS label very popular in Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg. The CBS Benelux production also has done a great deal to make this label well known throughout the low countries, as well as abroad. So far, CBS' local artists include the Kilima Hawaiians, Louis van Dyke, the Pico's, Laguestra, the Down Town Jazz Band, Jacky Delmone, Eddy Christiani and many others.

The first CBS album by the Louis van Dyke Trio rapidly became one of the best-selling jazz LP's in this country and recently was awarded the Dutch Edison for its outstanding pianistic performance. The Kilima Hawaiians' album, entitled "Farewell Hawaii," also being released in the U.S., and the tremendous release of the first CBS album, entitled "Dixieland Festival!" by the Down Town Jazz Band, which already established itself as a blockbuster in this territory. The visits of the CBS artists to the Netherlands have been unforgettable. Among them, in the popular field, were Kenny Rankin, the New Christy Minstrels, the Jacob Sisters, Thelonious Monk, Yves Montand, Maurice Fanon and Jimmy Gilmer, the Pebbles and Fats & His Cats, whereas, in the classical field, Rudolf Serkin, Robert Casadesus, Jean Casadesus, George Szell, the Cleveland Orchestra and Richard Burton impressed the Dutch very much. George Szell & the Cleveland Orchestra has been one of the special highlights at the recent held Holland Festival, and claimed as one of the best orchestras in the world. There have been many highlights, with which CBS Grammofoonplaten played an important role and operated on a large scale. The "My Fair Lady" premiere date of the movie resulted in enormous sales of the CBS Sound Track Recording which continues to sell throughout the low countries, as does "Major Dundee," "Advance To The Rear," "Send Me No Flowers," "Porgy and Bess," "West Side Story," "55 Days at Peking," "The Fall of the Roman Empire," and "Die Grosse Kur" (Marika Kilius & Hans-Jürgen Baümler). Due to the enormous expansion of CBS Grammofoonplaten, during the last period, the company had to increase its Staff, which includes CBS' sales manager Hemmy J. S. Wapperom and assistant sales manager Gerard Hulsebosh, with promotion manager Paul Muller and TV/Artists relation man Frans van Schaik.

The Dutch Barclay company started its activities a year ago. And this has been a successful first year! Two big hits! First the "Jenka" and two months ago the "Sirtaki," based on the original sound track from the film, "Zorba the Greek." Zorba is already high on the hit lists; however, the biggest results are expected in Sept. when the film is going to be released in the larger cities. Also good results with Aznavour, Brel, Ferrat, Leo Ferré and Hugues Aufray were chalked up. At the Grand Gala du Disque in Oct., Ferré will receive an award, the Edison, for his album "Leo Ferré Chante Verlaine et Rimbaud." The big surprise was Erato, the exclusive classical label on the field of baroque music. The interest shown, and the sales, indicate great possibilities for the Barclay company in the year to come.

Artone, with its Haarlem and Brussels-based offices in full swing, is gaining in prominence each year. During the 1964/65 season, the company and its subsidiary, Funcker Records, acquired several new U.S. labels for Benelux distribution, notably Epic, United Artists/DCP, Speciality, Command (for Holland) and Westminster (also for Germany, Austria and Switzerland), as well as Festival (from France), Ricordi (from Italy) and Hansa (from Germany). In the classical field, Artone launched a locally produced line of classical recordings by prominent Dutch artists, of which two albums have been nominated for Edison Awards in the meantime, thereby capping the diskery's 8-year development into a major independent recording industry in Benelux. Jazz-wise, Impulse gained special credit and extra status with two Edison Awards for Coleman Hawkins (1964) and Oliver Nelson (1965), marking the label as an important jazz line distributed in Holland. Always active in getting top pop talent from abroad, available for local TV-exposure, Ar-tone managed to organize promotional tours for such artists as the Newbeats (Hickory), the Supremes, Marvin gaye (Tamla-Motown), Chuck Berry, Jacky Ross & Johnny Nash (Aristo-crats) and the Marvelettes (Tamla-Motown), all of whom saw an increase in their local record-sales. The company also expanded considerably into the local pop recording field. Local ace trumpeter Willy Schobben's comeback was brought about, resulting in international sales, whereas top teen-beat combo, Z. Z. & The Masks, besides making a successful 4-week tour of England, was honored with this year's Edison in the Local Teenage Repertory category. Local thrush Margie Ball, elected the vocal find of the year, hit hard with her initial recording sung in English, whilst local productions by Los Tenientes and Willy & The Giants received international acclaim, with the latter group's recordings making chart appearances in Japan, Argentina and Malaysia.

In Oct., pianist Peter Nero and Indian guitar-duo Los Indios Tabajaras were the welcome guests of RCA-In-elco-Holland N.V. They appeared at the Grand Gala du Disque, where they had a tremendous success. The Zagreb Soloists, conducted by Antonio Janigro, have given various concerts in Holland, in Dec. and June, during the Holland Festival. Arthur Fiedler, Arthur Rubinstein and Erich Leins-dorf also paid a visit to Holland. The famous French RCA songster, Alain Barrière, appeared on Dutch TV and acquired a lot of Dutch admirers. The well-known Dutch beat-group, Johnny Kendall and the Heralds, made a very successful tour in Italy. While there, they made some singles and an LP. Chet Atkins, Floyd Cramer and the Anita Kerr Singers paid a visit to Holland for a TV appearance on Vara. The complete Nashville show, recorded in Oslo on April 1964, with Jim Reeves, who died in a plane-crash several months later, brought on the screen again in June 1965 for NCRV television. A special award has been given to Arthur Rubinstein and Joan Baez, The Edison (comparable with the Grammy award, but the Edison confines itself only to the musical aspects and the recording). Joan Baez, with her famous folk songs and her originality in "Joan Baez Vol. 5," and Arthur Rubinstein with his wonderful recording of French music, fully deserve this award.

MGM and Verve Records are divisions of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Inc.

BELGIUM—The Past 12 Months

has a big trump of course with the regular sales of Impulse LP's, a label very much in favour among Belgian jazz-fans. Two young children, Karine and Rebecca helped them to a quite successful hit "Moi je dors avec nounours dans mes bras" (I sleep with my bear-bear in my arms). Recordings made by Ronny, Fats Domino and Ray Charles also enjoyed very good sales. This company has plenty of initiative, as was proved by the production of an LP of marching music, which has become an international success.

Artone

too is doing well. Its biggest sales are undoubtedly racked up by "The Supremes". The public relations man, Willy Delabastita, saw to it that as many stars as possible appearing on the label, got on radio and TV during the past year. And quite successful he was too. Generally this initiative originates with Peter Felleman Jr. of the main headquarters in the Netherlands. On the whole a business year with more than satisfactory sales figures.

Barclay

can look back on a really fruitful year. In the past few months sales of the EP from the soundtrack of the movie "Zorba the Greek" has been exceptionally good. Aznavour, Eddy Mitchell, Jacques Brel and also Charles Trenet are in Belgium, as well as in France, a pretty safe bet on the record-market. The progress noted in the sales of albums is remarkable.

Cardinal

is a newcomer among the recording companies. Owned by the internationally famous singer Rocco Granata and managed by the former Moonglow sales-manager Willy Vander Steen, this firm, established at Antwerp, took off almost like a rocket. From small beginnings it could very well in the future become one of the major companies in the country.

CBS

has a prosperous year behind it. Its best seller is beyond a doubt Bobby Solo. His disks sold like hot cakes. This company did not content itself with putting on the market mainly original American productions, but under the impetus of its artistic director Jean Kluger it has started its own local production. Here too closer contacts are sought with journalists of radio, TV and press.

Discobel

launched a rather startling innovation: EP's with recordings of the warbling of many different birds. And judging from the reception by the public, very much appreciated. Good sales are registered too of their Ariola-reportory, as well as singles of Red Sheldon and Ricky Morvan, two local discoveries of music publisher Werner Huys.

Discotrade

did pretty good with singles of Guy Béart, Marie Laforet, Les Surfs, M. Delpech, Zina. This company during the past year organized several press-receptions at which it presented its artists. Important too now is the marketing of some Greek recordings.

Fonior

did also very well. Its discovery is Claudia Silva, the girl who scored a bull's eye with her first Decca record "J'ai pleuré" (I cried). Another important discovery is the Duo Acropolis, whose rendition of the theme song of the movie "Zorba the Greek" became a hit. Business was excellent with recordings by Lucille Star, The Rolling Stones, Roy Orbison, and others. The company did praiseworthy efforts to bring artists over here for appearances on radio and TV, and public performances.

Gramophone

can look back on a magnificent year. While sales of Adamo records stayed at a very high level in Belgium, just as the previous year, the breakthrough of Adamo in France is of considerable significance for the company. The Beatles-disks raked up better sales than the preceding year. Cliff Richard, The Shadows, Richard Anothony, The Animals and others, remain of course, as always, hit-makers.

Inelco

can boast fine sales of the Alain Barrière songs, which already last year, starting with the hit "Ma vie" (My Life), were in great demand. Elvi-records seem to be enjoying a renewal of interest. Sales manager Willy Roelandts was instrumental in bringing a great number of RCA stars over to Brussels for a TV-show. Demand for LP's was good too.

Philips

enjoyed a considerable success, especially with the French production, with of course French artists. Locally too the firm put in some hard work and notable is the discovery of the Flemish singer Liliane. Manager Lebbinck is quite satisfied about business during the past year. It carried out a thorough job of contacting the Belgian press. The promotion department did a splendid job, really. In due time more attention will be paid to a local Flemish repertory.

Polydor

has certainly no cause of complaint. It stood its ground very well not only with French speaking and American numbers, but through the efforts of the A & R Manager M. Mertens it succeeded in being again at the top with successful Flemish production. Manager Walter Holzappel is particularly happy about the continued business success of his top-classical label "Deutsche Gramophon Gesellschaft" and also his hits on MGM. Sales of LP's were especially rewarding.

once more distinguished itself by offering many youngsters a chance. Many singers and groups, who often in the past were given an opportunity by this company to show their talents, later turned out to be top-flight artists. From time to time a surprise is therefore to be expected on the Olympia—or New Tone label. Always remarkable is the perfect-quality of the recordings made by this firm, something which is of the highest importance for a singer at the start of his career.

Show

as during the previous year, again distributed many records of foreign labels. A considerable effort nevertheless went into local production. Tony Geys, Clark Richard, Anne Fond'roy, Maurice Dean, The Pick-Nicks are some of the names of the Belgian stars for whom Show records did a fine promotion job. It also invited foreign stars and, worth mentioning in this respect, was the promotion campaign for the visit of the Italian star Iva Zanicchi.

Ronnex

was not particularly active this year. Important changes occurred among the personnel. Manager Albert Van Hoogten gave prominence to three stars: Willy Williams, Flemish singer of Flemish and English hit-tunes, les Têtes Blanches, Canadian beatgroup and The Shake-Spears. In the future the firm will emphasize more independent production.

Vogue

has enjoyed in every respect, a successful year. No week went by without at least one or other Vogue-disk getting into the news. Manager Roger Meylemans explained it as follows: "We have had nothing but hit tunes this year and hope to do just as well in the future." . . . As distributors of Pye and Reprise—among others—it did a fine job and succeeded thanks to a thorough promotion campaign to introduce many British hits on the Belgian market.

GREAT BRITAIN

The Beatles are back at the top of the British Hit Parade with "Help" the title song from their second film which had its world premiere in London this week attended by H.R.H. Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon. The disk—their sixth to go to No. 1 on the day of release—notched up an advance of a quarter million. 5,000 fans cheered the group as they arrived for the premier of the film which includes six Lennon-McCartney numbers and one "I Need You" by George Harrison. The Beatles, just back from Italy, France and Spain, leave for New York on Aug. 13 (two days after the film has its American premier). They tape an "Ed Sullivan" TV'er on Aug. 14 and on the next day open their American tour at the Shea Stadium followed by dates in Toronto, Atlanta, Houston, Chicago, Minneapolis, Portland, San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco. They return to England on Sept. 1.

A strong contingent of RCA executives called at the Cash Box office during a recent visit to London. From RCA's American division came Steve H. Sholes, divisional vice president of popular A&R and Dick L. Broderick, manager merchandising of the International Liaison Department. They were accompanied by Peter Baumberger, vice president and managing director of RCA overseas SA Geneva and Anthony Wallace-Turner, newly appointed liaison office between RCA America and their British licencees, Decca Records. For the past six years Mr. Wallace-Turner has been with RCA-New York working with the Sales, Broadcasting and TV equipment units. Primary purpose of the visit was to explore the record scene on this side of the Atlantic and to discuss RCA artists and repertoire in relation to the European market which Broderick feels is now following the American pattern with the trend swinging away from singles towards LP's. The party later left for Stockholm and meetings with RCA executives and licencees from Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Austria, Germany, Belgium and Holland.

The following statement was issued by CBS London: Now that CBS Records Ltd. of England has been successfully established and the American Columbia catalogue fully integrated into the U.K. market (CBS has had a No. 1 hit in both singles and LP charts in addition to others in the charts) D. M. Levy and Goddard Lieberson have decided to prepare for the long term future by appointing Ken Glancy, vice president, A&R Columbia Records U.S.A., to the position of Managing Director of CBS Records England. D. M. Levy will now become Vice Chairman of the British company. This is to take effect on Oct. 1, 1965.

Peter De Rougemont of CBS-Paris in London recently was delighted to find the new CBS pressing plant working at full pressure in order to meet the demands for the company's product both from home and overseas markets. This activity is welcome at a time of the year when record sales are expected to fall and particularly this time of year when the market generally is down more than usual.

Maurice Oberstein who has been here since April helping to reorganize the CBS operation has been appointed director of operations for the factory, order service and dispatch, etc. An American formerly with CBS New York, Oberstein will remain in England indefinitely.

Mr. Fanti of RCA Italiana in London for discussions with Mr. Green of Selecta regarding the importation of disks by top RCA Italiana artistes. Fanti also met publisher Robert Mellin to discuss English lyrics for the No. 1 Italian song "Il Mondo" by Jimmy Fontana with a view to release in this country.

Leonard Bernstein flew into Britain for the first performance of Chichester Psalms—a work he had been commissioned to write for the Southern Cathedrals Festival. The work which is in three movements was performed by three cathedral choirs plus the Philomusica Orchestra of London with brass ensemble, two harps and a battery of percussion. Bernstein is expected to remain in England until Aug. 6.

Sheila Southern currently playing the summer season at Scarborough is to be featured in a new TV series in the Autumn. An offer for TV from East Germany is also under consideration. Sheila's manager Derek Boulton goes to the States on Aug. 5 for three weeks visiting Los Angeles and New York. He plans to set up a film company and look for buyers of his LP's. Boulton makes around 30 albums a year in London.

Andy Wood has now left Filmusic to set up his own independent recording/management/publishing company to be known as Giant Music. First dinking is by the Shindigs who make their debut with their own composition "One Little Letter."

Quickies: "Mr. Tambourine Man" still topping best selling sheet music lists for Leeds. . . "Make It Easy On Yourself" sing the Walker Bros. on Philips and it may well bring them an easy entry into the charts. . . Buddy Greco commences a four-week season at Talk of the Town August 9th. . . Tom Jones' American smash (currently No. 2) "What's New Pussycat" gets British release on Decca. . . Congratulations to Jonathan King climbing into the charts with his debut disk "Everyone's Gone To The Moon" (Decca). . . The Strangeloves American hit "I Want Candy" covered here by Brian Poole and the Tremeloes on Decca. . . A song for Pye international manager Peter Knight Jr.

JAPAN

Yasushi Miyagawa, Composer of such recent hit tunes as "Una Sera Di Tokyo" and "Vacance D'Amore," returned to Tokyo from a forty days journey through Europe and expressed his impression on the recent four of music festivals held in Italy, France, West Germany and Spain. He said that they all were very interesting but Italy's was the best. He also reported that he had been asked for compositions by Southern Music Company in Spain, Gene Pitney, and the New Christy Minstrels who he met at the Venecchia International Music Festival. After returning to Japan, he has been leading a busy life composing for the Takarazuka Music Opera Groups which are scheduled to have a premiere performance in Paris in a few months.

The lark and pianist, Hoki Tokuda, reportedly signed a one year contract with one American music agency to join up with a combo as a pianist and songstress. The lark began piano lessons at the age of three, studied at Kunitachi Music College and Alma College in Canada for awhile before becoming a member of a girls chorus group here in Japan. Recently, she has been appearing in clubs all around the U.S.

Yoichi Hiraoka, one of the most popular xylophone soloists around, is expected to return to Japan at the end of Sept. from an American tour to appear in a Tokyo concert with the Nippon Philharmony Orchestra conducted by Andre Kostelanetz. He is reported to have had a successful performance on July 4 with Chicago Symphony Orchestra playing Japanese-oriented selections.

According to the announcement made by King Records, the firm has decided to send records and pics and to beam some tunes at British Exhibition at the International Trade Fair under the auspices of British Decca which will send articles besides records there. Fair will open during Sept. 17-Oct. 3 where the queen of Alexander will reportedly make her appearance.

King Records will release in the beginning of Sept. three LP's to honor the visit of Stanley Black here on the 12th of the month. One of them is titled "New Cuban Moonlight" which includes "Peanuts Vender" "Brazil" "Amore," etc. Other albums not titled yet even though recordings have been decided.

Toshiba Records came out on Aug. 5th with an extraordinary release by the Ventures which includes "Cruel Sea" and "A Fugitive."

Teichiku Records will release two Brenda Lee LP's on the market within the next few days. One is 30 cent LP titled "Brenda Lee In Tokyo" and the other is 17 cm LP sung in Japanese. The former one includes fifteen tunes gathered from the best of her repertory, most of which were recorded at a performance held in Shinjyuku Kosei Nenkin Hall on July 3.

Nippon Victor released on Aug. 8th the following LP's. They are "The Best Of Trini Lopez" including "What'd I Say" "Bye, Bye, Blondie" and others, "Electric Guitar Hits" gathering "Tragic Winds" "Caravan," "Billy Vaughn/Mexican Pearles" with "Peanuts Vender" and others, and "Drum! Drum! Drum!/Sandy Nelson" includes "Lonesome Drum" and others.

ARGENTINA—The Past 12 Months

It would be a wonderful thing to be able to start this yearly report with optimistic comment about the development of the industry in Argentina, but unfortunately, during the past years and also 1964/65, there have been more sad than favorable points to speak about. First it was a hard reduction of the market, in 1962/63, and now, when the trend seems to go upwards once again, the critical financial situation of the country has moved the Government to impose restrictions in currency matters that have very much affected the entire relations of the local diskeries and publishing houses with other countries.

We have already commented several times on the details, but it is worth mentioning once again. To protect its gold and hard currency reserves, the Central Bank closed in April, 1964 the free market that had been allowing unlimited remittances and imposed restrictions which meant that all operations should be approved by it. In fact, many deals related to record and publishing businesses weren't allowed because of "lack of proof"—like for instance advanced payments. Practically, there are delays from three to twelve months in the approval, meaning that many diskeries were unable to fulfill their royalty payments during this period and menacing the renewal of representation contracts with many companies from the U.S. and Europe. In spite of the regulations, the dollar exchange rate during this month jumped from 138 to 172, and there are rumors of a further deviation; thus, the real cost of a foreign label representation for the near future is almost uncertain.

Prices of records have also been increased: LP's costing 630 pesos last year are priced now around the 800 pesos mark, with their dollar equivalent remaining stable at $4.50 because of the devaluation. The "promotional" record, once considered a sort of gun in the price battle, has become a respectable addition to the list prices, at about 600 pesos ($3.50), which is rather high if compared with the prices marked a few years ago. The main marketing fight during this period has been held by Sicamericana, who launched first 7" records priced at 100 pesos ($.59) with four tunes and now is re-releasing its old albums under a new series, named "Difusion Musical" (Musical Promotion), priced at 395 pesos ($2.30). Ricardo Mejia's RM records (see last year's comment) failed because of difficulties he had with the record pressing plant.

The size of the market in itself has increased, if compared with the previous period, and one release (Philip's folk album "The Folk Mass", cut by Los Fronterizos, Ariel Ramirez and choir) sold more than 70,000 LP's in less than three months, and is still now selling well. Sales vary very much according to the artist, but a strong release gets easily to the 20,000 mark (singles). The so-called "new wave" (local teen artists) has lost some of its force during the last three months, but was very strong during all 1964 and the beginning of 1965. There are several new artists with good possibilities: Music Hall's Horacio Ascheri, RCA's Simonette, Microfon's Anita Martinez are among them. Of course Argentina couldn't escape the Beatles' wave, and besides the success of the Brian Epstein group, many others appeared on the local side: Los Iracundos (RCA); Los Buhos (CBS); Los Jets (Odeon Pops) and lately Uruguayan group Los Shakers, on the same label. Sales of The Beatles have been very good, and they rated for several months as Odeon's strongest artists. The Rolling Stones, The Dave Clark Five and Billy J. Kramer were also added to the catalog during this time.

Folk music, on its side, has remained more or less at the same level as 1964, after the '63 boom. CBS has enjoyed the growth of popularity of Jorge Cafrune, who won the 1964 Odol Song Festival with his song "Que Seas Vos", which afterwards got into the charts for many weeks. Of course, the "Folk Mass" hit should be also credited to this field. Los Chalchaleros, Los Fronterizos and Los Quilla Huasi remain at a strong position.

Tango music made headlines during this period, although in some cases because of unfortunate news: the death of Julio Sosa in an auto crash sky-rocketed sales of his waxings (he had already been selling very well in the previous months) and a crowd estimated in 200,000 attended his mourning, something never seen before in Buenos Aires. Other big losses were Juan de Dios Filiberto and Francisco Canaro, famous because of his nearly fifty years with tango music. Sosa's record will probably hold a place beside the old recording by Carlos Gardel, who died in a plane crash in 1935 but is still Oldeon's top five artists.

There were several international visits, mainly during the past three months: Sylvie Vartan, Catherine Spaak, Nico Fidenco, Giancarlo Guardabassi, Neil Sedaka, Trini Lopez and "Route 66" ex-star George Maharis. Many Argentine artists traveled to Europe and Central and North America: Palito Ortega, Leo Dan, Juan Ramon and Roberto Yanés among them. Most important way of exposure for international star is still TV, through any of the four channels working in Buenos Aires and the other ten existing in country cities like Cordoba, Mendoza, San Juan, Rosario and others. TV is now nearly covering the whole country, and in a few years the 22 million inhabitants will be reached by this media.

In general, publishing firms have stopped releasing records for promotion purposes (see last year comment). There are few news regarding representation arrangements, and one new record company in Buenos Aires: Ala-Nicky, managed by Alaide Gorostiza. Uruguayan diskery Antar is releasing its product independently, distributed by Disc Jockey, and this has made the Ducretet-Thompson label available to the customers. Disc Jockey is now releasing Clave, another Uruguayan label, and has enjoyed big success with French Barclay, making a wonderful promotion for French music at the same time. US label Kapp passed from Tonodisc to Music Hall, while Esperon's label arranged with Tamla-Motown and was preparing a giant launching at press time. Spanish label Belter was planning its first independent releases for July-August, under the direction of Ricardo Romero.

Recording and pressing facilities have remained at the same level, with Music Hall investing heavily in the equipment for its new studios, which will be available in 1966. RCA has also plans for complete studio facilities at its factory; up to now it had been recording at Constelacion and lately at Ion, an independent studio.

An important addition to the Argentine catalog is the one made by Producciones Fermata during this period. After being affiliated to RCA, it changed to Odeon and is releasing record by artists like John Foster, Luigi Tenco, Mina and The Persuaders, which have obtained good places in the best-selling lists.

Song advances continue to be the biggest problem for music publishers. This point has been explained many times here before, and is parallel to the advances record companies have to pay (or are requested to pay) for foreign labels. In general it seems that labels and publishers from other countries consider advances as "sure money" and ask for quantities that will allow them to forget everything about it afterwards. However, this is not completely acceptable because local label have to face the launching risks alone, and in many cases they don't even receive the necessary cooperation from the original recorder. The difficulty to get the money from the Central Bank only increases the problems. Excepting special cases, $50 to $100 is the maximum considered "reasonable" enough as to talk business.

The future is regarded with interest (if not optimism) by the industry. The political stability attained and a certain fluency in the internal market (TV set and radio sales have soared to a many years high; there is more money available) could mean better sales. Of course, all the optimistic thoughts are somehow darkened by the currency problems, but the companies have demonstrated their ability to survive these big difficulties and may hope to meet a really very good market if ever the situation straightens out. Several diskeries are seriously considering one or another way of record clubs, and at least two of them are gathering addresses for direct mail information and sales purposes. Although Argentina doesn't seem to be a very good country for this type of organization, the high sales obtained by the Reader's Digest releases reveal the existence of a big market which is normally out of reach for the record companies.

S. AFRICA—The Past 12 Months

It has been a year of excitement and sadness—exciting for the number of unprecedented occurrences on the South African Record scene—and sad to the loss of South Africa's best loved recording star—the late Jim Reeves.

ARTISTS BY OVERSEAS RECORDING ARTISTS

A flood of top flight recording stars came to South Africa this past year—some fleetingly (as in the case of British pop singers, Adam Faith and Dusty Springfield—who left contracts uncompleted, and returned to Britain after they had gained much publicity through flaunting our Government's No multi-racial audiences clamp down") and some visiting recording artists came to stay and triumph on stage and in the record market.

Among the artists who came and conquered were: John Gary, Marlene Dietrich, Slim Whitman, Vera Lynn, Russ Conway, David Whitfield, Ruzhitz and Landauer, Max Bygraves, The Dutch Swing College Band, Jimmie Rodgers, Jackie Trent, Peter Gordon, Carole Deene. Never before have we had such a line-up of top recording talent visiting our country.

An interesting report comes from the Gallo Group Ad Manager who states "Show wise some artists were always playing to jam-packed houses, but there is a difference in appeal and more important the sales result attached to each artist, the type of public to whom they appeal—e.g.: The Dutch Swing College Band played to all houses wherever they went, but meant comparatively less than Jimmie Rodgers in record sales."

LOCAL RECORD STARS

Beatlemania hit South Africa with dynamic force, and the noticeable upsurge in the popularity of local recording artists was to a large extent a direct result of the Beatle's fantastic world wide success. The style they created washed up on local teen talent and gave them new incentive. This in turn livened up the whole local artists recording scene, and is emphasized in the best selling record charts supplied by the South African Record Companies (accompanying this article).

Local artists appearing on these charts include: The Hi-Lites, Charles Jacobie, Dana Valery, Billy Forest, Nick Potgieter and MacMillan & His Men. Top local talent was forced out of some companies' best seller lists by the popularity of big selling American and British artists.

Amongst the top South African artists to fare in this way were: Virginia Lee, Santa Vorster, Maureen Moore, Wanda Arletti, Johnny Kongos, Dickie Loader & The Blue Jeans, Nico Carstens, Gene Rockwell, Nick Taylor.

NOTES & COMMENTS

E.M.I.'s-P.R.O. in South Africa reports that although for them the last 12 months were heavily dominated by the Mersey-beat, the gradual establishment of the Tamla Motown sound was evident with such artists as: The Supremes, Marvin Gaye and The Miracles—receiving enthusiastic acclaim. This, despite the big beat of The Beatles from Britain, Cliff Richard & The Shadows, The Animals, Manfred Mann, Hermans Hermits, The Dave Clark 5 and others.

From America, E.M.I. South Africa, did well with The Everly Bros., The Chipmunks, The Ventures, Julie London, Connie Francis, The Kingston Trio and many more. The late Nat King Cole continues to be a best seller.

The Gallo Group reports that during 1965 the Phillips label by mutual arrangement moved from Gramophone Record Company to Trutone.

Two fine sound track recordings of South African made films were released. Both films having an African story. The first LP—Dingaka (Gallo) has secured an international release, and the second LP—Tokolshe (Teal) has enjoyed excellent sales in the local market, and negotiations are in progress for its international release.

Teal Record Company reports heavy trading with their catalogues of big name stars which included Elvis Presley, John Gary, Trini Lopez, Mario Lanza, Dean Martin, Jim Reeves, Eddy Arnold, Perry Como, Frank Sinatra, The Kinks, The Ivy League, The Searchers, Donovan, Petula Clark, Sandie Shaw, Johnny Rivers, Jackie Trent and many more.

The tragic death of Jim Reeves stunned and shocked the public of South Africa—newspaper "bill posters"—newspapers and magazines throughout the country ran the news of his death in banner headlines. Obituary programs and special radio tributes were carried on all broadcasting services. Overnight almost, people in their thousands began piling into record stores around the nation, requesting and buying Jim Reeves records. As a result of this wave of buying on an unprecedented scale, The South African Record Industry's sales figures shot up dramatically. The Record Industry figures for July, August, September 1963 and 1964 show an increase for the latter year of 25.7% unit sales. Of this percentage increase—just on ¾ was achieved by Teal Record Company, and a large proportion of the business was Jim Reeves.

THE L.M. DISCOTHEQUE

South Africa's first and still its only Discotheque, was opened this year under the sponsorship of Lourenco Marques Radio Station. The Discotheque is situated in one of Durban's swankiest Beach front hotels. Durban is South Africa's foremost shipping port, and with its miles of golden beaches—South Africa's premier holiday resort. The L.M. Discotheque enjoys tremendous crowds and has been a great success from its inception.

THE FOLK SONG IN SOUTH AFRICA

With folk going great guns in the U.S.A. and Britain, we knew it could not be long before something similar happened here, but, we were on the point of giving up waiting altogether, when the first symptoms were registered in the latter part of the first half of 1965. The Johannesburg University held a Folk Festival—folk singers were being booked by Clubs and Hotels, Rock and Beat groups were dissolving to form as Folk Groups. Recording Companies reacted to these long awaited signals promptly and folk recordings, many of a very high standard, were released in increasing quantities.

BROADCASTING ROYALTIES

Another unprecedented happening of the past year is that the South African Parliament has passed a Bill which will free Radio Stations and other users of records for public performance in South Africa, from paying a remuneration to the record producers or the artists whose performances are reproduced. The Broadcasting and Performing Rights in records have been recognized for almost 50 years in South Africa under its 1916 Copyright Act. The recognition of such rights is maintained in modern legislation in many Commonwealth and Continental countries, and is a principal embodied International Convention for the protection of performers, producers of phonograms and broadcasting organizations, adopt-

EXPANDING MARKET

The natural growth in the population, the Government immigration program coupled with the Coloured and African record buyers becoming each year more interested in the English language pop product, results in an expanding market for South Africa.

To illustrate this, South African Record Industry figures show the following percentage increase from 1962 onwards:

1963.	6.36% increase over 1962.

1963.	17.65% increase over 1962.
1964.	2.65% decrease over 1963.

Unlike most record markets, the South African consumer has not shown an ever increasing tendency to favor the Single. The LP has remained the favorite type of record, and as the figures show—Singles sales dropped off considerably in 1964.

BRAZIL—The Past Twelve Months

Although the political situation in Brazil has definitely made a turn for the best, as we had predicted last year at this time, an era of sacrifice for the population started, as far as the economical situation is concerned, a reflex of the 30 odd years of misgovernment left behind. This fact has naturally influenced the record industry in this country, not allowing the long expected great impulse in record sales, considering the interest of the public in general, the plans of the recording companies, the new tendencies of the local popular music, the continuing infiltration of foreign musical product. However, we can safely say that, during the past few months, this expected sales increase has been slightly felt, and so has been reported by the main recording firms of Brazil. The figures have increased to the highest levels ever and it is very possible that, with the new planned stabilization of prices, they will go on up during the next months, specially with the approaching Christmas/New Year seasons. Naturally, we always have to consider one fact that has no similar in other countries, which is the relation between record sales and the Carnival (Mardi-Gras) period: at this very special time, the sales of regular product, gives way to the special material, produced expressly for that short period of festivities. This year, another fact influenced substantially the normal record sales in this country: the celebrations of the 400th Anniversary of the City of Rio de Janeiro—not only special musics and records (singles, doubles and albums) were produced and released specially for it, but also with a direct view to sell to a special and unusual prospective customer, the enormous amount of foreign tourists who attended these celebrations. Probably, this fact will influence the future export of Brazilian Pop Music material, if the local firms will finally concentrate in that potentially very strong market.

As the months went by, a definite switch was being felt, towards the public's appreciation of the local music, in detriment of the imported—Italian artists, so very popular last year and at the beginning of this one, were losing field to the Brazilian ones. A good trial of the return of American artists to the public's preference, had moments of appreciation, but did not succeed to dethrone the local artists—the same with the French. There is no doubt that the responsibility for this all, has been the Brazilian Modern Popular Music, or Bossa Nova, as one prefers to call it. It definitely conquered more and larger audiences with each new concert of the many that were being produced both in Rio, and very specially in Sao Paulo, which became the home of MPM, against predicted by experts of former times. At the "Teatro Paramount" we could witness as crowds gathered to applaud consecrated names and excellent newcomers as well. All Universities were sponsoring this type of show, both in theaters and in their own establishments. Clubs and Societies were engaging artists from all over the country, to take part in shows and concerts, featuring the best of BNN. Finally, TV and Radio stations joined in, presenting more and better programs and shows, in which the star was MPM. We can safely say that one of the responsible for this new movement was Walter Silva "Picapau," but other names are equally important, like producer Abelardo Figueiredo, Joao Evangelista, as well as publicity man Lyvio Rangan, Jose Scatena, and several others. At this time, the "First National Festival of Brazilian Modern Popular Music" was taking form—in spite of the mistakes, forgivable in a first such venture, it was more than proven that the material is there, the artists exist in quantity and quality to present it, last but not least, the public is ready to accept and to give prestige to this new manifestation of good taste, of high artistic average, of advanced and personal popular music, probably the very best in the world today. Teatro Record also joined in the movement, contracting representative artists, producing shows and presenting video-tapes of the same in Channel 7—Bob Corte Real had something to say there too. Besides the own activity stirred by the Bossa Nova movement, there is no doubt that it somehow awakened the other currents of Brazilian Pop Music—Traditional Samba and Folklore Music, started to reclaim their place, stating that BN is not the only music of Brazil. New programs and shows of both appeared now—interesting to note how each one of these different types of local music started feeling the influence of each of the others, how old-timers adhered to BN, even Folklore Northeast songsters were presenting MPM artists in their shows.

During these past twelve months, the artists that were absolute winners were: "Zimbo Trio" (Rubens Barsotti 'Rubinho', Luiz Chaves and Amilton Godoy), Elis Regina, Wilson Simonal, Maria Bethania, in the Bossa Nova field; Altamar Dutra, as a romantic ballad chanter; and Roberto Carlos, in the so-called teen music. The labels who had these artists under contract—RGE, Phillips, Odeon, RCA and CBS—were also and always present in the first spots of the local charts. But, other names appeared in the highlights during the past twelve months, like Marcos Valle, Nara Leao, "Os Cariocas," "Quarteto Em Cy," "Renato & Seus Blue Caps," "Tamba Trio," "Demonios Da Garoa," "Sambalanco Trio," "Os Bossa 3," Walter Wanderley, Eumir Deodato, Geraldo Vandré, etc. Not to forget the all-time favorites, that are still going strong, like Elisete Cardoso and Helena De Lima, Miltoninho, Ciro Monteiro, Angela Maria, Luiz Bonfá, Paulinho Nogueira, etc. and composers like Antonio Carlos Jobim, who in spite of being absent in the US for long, has maybe the most part of his compositions among the most played, together with Edu Lobo, Ze Kets Memescal, Vinicius De Moraes, etc. on the country, during the past twelve months, with more or less success, but always stirring the curiosity of the many fans that always attended their personal appearances. Other facts occurred, which marked each month of the 12 that went by. In August, the American Beatles (Roulette) disappointed the public, spoiled by the publicity of the original The Beatles; Miltoninho on the hit parades of Venezuela; Paul Winter and John N. Vincent, visited Brazil; Sergio Mendes and His Bossario on tour in Japan; Robert Nissen was also in this country. In September, the French singing star Francoise Hardy (Mocambo) was on a successful tour in Rio and Sao Paulo; Eva Garza (Odeon), of Mexico, also here then. October was the month when the death of two composers dear to Brazil, appeared in the news—Cole Porter and Antonio Maria! Another group, "Os Incríveis" (formerly "The Clevers") are in Europe on a successful tour, connected with Italian little queen Rita Pavone; the Barclay label appeared on the market through the local new representative RGE. November was Trini Lopez month: one day in Rio, one in Sao Paulo, were enough to put him on the top here, recordwise (Reprise, through Odeon); Eric Skinner appointed new Gen. Mng. of RCA Records Division; Alain Trossat takes over the Philips management; show "Bossa No Paramount" produced by Walter Silva, scores tremendous hit for the MPM; at Teatro Record, we had the pleasure to see beautiful Carmen Sevilla and composer husband Augusto Alguero; then Italian songster Gino Paoli followed the international shows; Louis Coultolenc Jr. of RCA visited the Brazilian firm, coming from the Mexico City offices. Last month of the year, December, brings the first noticeable activity for the coming Carnival; news from the USA (Continued on page 89) ring the successes of Brazilian artists on tour there—starting with Antonio Carlos "Tom" Jobim, followed by Carlos Lyra, Luiz Bonfá, Jorge Ben, Sergio Mendes, Rosinha De Valença, Wanda De Sah, Caetano Zama, and also Bola Sete—others are planning on coming soon. In January, with the beginning of the year, news keeps on pouring in, about changes in the organization and top staff of several of the important companies here—complete renewal announced by Musidisc, Mocambo and Continental, become actual; the figures of the Christmas sales bring their rewarding results to the recording companies. International US star of the many songs Connie Francis is in Brazil in February—with her as her manager George Scheck, conductor Joe Mazzu, drummer Bob Grauso and Connie's parents—a hit at the "Teatro Republica" for its opening; Palito Ortega was also in town, coming from Argentina. March is here: two news connected with RGE label appear—the visit of Eddy Barclay and friends and the final decision of the merging of the two labels RGE and Fermata—Enrique Lebendiger is now top man of both, while Marco Nobili and Julio Nagib are busy reorganizing the first of the labels, acquired by the second. Comes April with the revisit of another Italian singing star and composer of hits, Edoardo Vianello, at Teatro Record, Philips held its International Convention in Rio de Janeiro, with representatives from Venezuela, Chile, Argentina, Mexico, Columbia and Peru, giving prestige to the host's business; the start is given to the "First National Brazilian Festival of Popular Music." . . . It is to be held in three phases and the first proves already that, as told before, in spite of misorganization of beginning, it will be a public success, thanks to the promoters, not the producers. . . . In May, a tiny little big favorite returns to her field of victory—Rita Pavone is back in Brazil, and repeats her success; ends the "First Festival of Pop Music," consecrating Edu Lobo and Vinicius De Moraes as composers and Elis Regina as interpreter and, most of all, the present trend of the local music; Walter Silva has a new successful show at the Teatro Paramount; the US lyricist and rep of Tom Jobim comes to Rio de Janeiro, and takes back Dorival Caymmi for the "Andy Williams Show"; the best ambassadors of Brazilian MPM go to Lima, Peru and score a terrific success—"Zimbo Trio" and Elis Regina! June is a quieter month and the arrangements for the Celebrations of the 50th Anniversary of old-timer, all-time favorite chanter Silvio Caldas, become headlines in Brazil. The last of the twelve months, July, was a busier one, with news of the personal appearances in Brazil of many international (mostly from the USA) entertaining stars — Tommy Dorsey and His Orchestra, the Pied Pipers, Frank Sinatra Junior, and then Johnny Mathis—who all could go back home, saying that Brazil is still one of the most appreciative countries for the US musicians and singers.

We are always somehow sorry that we cannot go into more detail about all the very much that is going on in Brazil about the music, the record and publishing industries, the artists of a country like Brazil, where one has the feeling that, if it wasn't for all the political and economical complications that seem endless, this would become easily number one pre-occupation of a great part of its inhabitants.

Last but not least, we have to consider the importance of the Brazilian Popular Music in the international field, during the past twelve years. Several artists conquered new markets in Europe, specially through the carefully planned music embassy, sponsored by a textile firm, which featured Wilson Simonal, the showman, Marly Tavares, the dancer, Luiz Carlos Vinhas and Combo (Octavio Bailly Jr. and Edson Machado), with Raulzinho on trombone, and rhythmists, Jorginho Arenas and Rubens Bassini; they were in Portugal, Spain, Italy, France and Italy, one hit after the other. Even Páree had a very good ambassador of MPM for quite a while, competing with so many artists from all the world and doing well—Carlos Lyra. Sergio Mendes went to Japan on tour, Maysa still in Madrid, Spain, gaining adepts for Brazilian music. In Lisbon, Portugal, Francisco Egydio, and several other Brazilian artists even unknown in their country, take advantage of having the same language, to score new musical victories—so much so that it is reflecting in the programming of the local only TV and all radio stations. Latin America was also haunted by the fascinating rhythm of Brazilian music but, probably the biggest victory was obtained by Zimbo Trio and Elis Regina in Lima, Peru, where they had the opportunity to prove how international their art is. While such artists await the chance to go to the U.S.A., the most important field for future victories, because of the enormous market it represents and the obvious leadership in international promotion, others are establishing slowly but surely a solid position for Brazilian Popular Music in that country: while Joao Gilberto took definite care of New York, ex-wife Astrud tours the whole country and goes even into Mexico, scoring success after success (her album was on and off the charts lately), and Luiz Bonta appears in important TV programs like Nightlife of New York, when he is not recording or appearing in person here and there, Antonio Carlos "Tom" Jobim, is a must in all that deals with Brazilian music in the West Coast—appearing twice on Andy Williams Show, producing and cutting albums, composing special music for films and others—always sided by Ray Gilbert, who also managed to take all-timer Dorival Caymmi to the US, where he appeared in the same show. However, these were not the only exports of Brazilian music to the US—Eliane Pitman was in the Jack Paar Show, Jorge Ben, Rosinha De Valença, Sergio Mendes and Combo, Wanda De Sah, etc. were appearing in person and cutting waxes. And still another group of artists who are now residing in the US are promoting the music of their country, like Bola Sete, Ze Carioca and Laurindo De Almeida in California, Vera Lucia "Valucha" Murgel De Castro in Chicago and Caetano Zama in New York, and still many ignored ones who cannot deny the strength of Brazilian music in their blood. But, also North American artists have given credit to the new Brazilian music; about Andy Williams all is said; Tony Bennett, in his last released album, not only sang two Brazilian numbers, but he also named the LP for one of them "Songs For The Jet Set" (Samba do Aviao); Tony Martin, also appears in several shows singing "The Girl From Ipanema" as a sort of team song; Connie Francis sings the Brazilian songs she learned in her last tour in Brazil (Deixa Isso Pra La); not to talk about the 50 or more recordings in the US of "The Girl From Ipanema" and some more of other numbers which are current hits in that country. The door is open. . . . Now, let's just step in!

SWITZERLAND—The Past 12 Months

Switzerland, as always, remains an importing market and business over the past twelve months has been generally stable. Essentially an E.P. and L.P. market the year has seen a steady increase in album sales which off-sets the slight drop in single sales. It is estimated that total cash sales are made up of 40 per cent L.P.s; 40 per cent E.P.s; and 20 per cent singles. Since October 1964 all stereo records have been selling at the same price as mono whilst the price of E.P.s has been raised to 7.90 francs. Switzerland has three official languages, German in the northern, eastern and central areas (Zurich, Basle and Berne); French in the West (Geneva and Lausanne) and Italian in the South.

Of Switzerland's 5½ million population the German section, with approximately 4 million, has the largest sales potential although the biggest buyers are reported to be in the French speaking section which accounts for about one million people. Singles sell better in the German section whilst in the West, as in France itself, it is an E.P. market. Everywhere, jazz and the classics corner the L.P. market with pop albums by top artistes healthily increasing. In the pop singles field 30,000 constitutes a solid hit for a French, German or Italian record but a really major international hit, popular in all three territories, can notch up 100,000. Local Swiss recordings of popular music sell well, particularly folk music from Swiss-German regions. These recordings find a ready market both with the Swiss and with the tourists. Home sales generally have been boosted in recent years by the vast influx of over 800,000 'guest workers' from Italy, Germany, Greece and Spain etc. who have maintained their link with home by buying records by popular artistes of their respective countries. However, certain restrictive measures introduced by the Swiss Government in recent months may well bring about a drop in the volume of sales during the coming months. The Government has ordered a reduction in foreign labour of 10 per cent during 1965 which will mean about 70,000 people, mostly Italians, leaving the country. At the same time restrictions were also introduced regarding credits and construction in order to bring the present economic boom under control. The departure of so many record buyers is bound to affect sales—particularly the Italian repertoire.

Switzerland, like Italy, is very festival conscious and there are several annual music festivals which attract artistes and visitors from all over the world. Perhaps the most important of these is the Swiss Jazz Festival which takes place at Zurich every September with the finest jazz musicians from all over Europe taking part. Zurich is also the scene of two other annual events—Folk Music Festival and the Festival Bela Canzone Italiano. For the latter Italian artistes come to Zurich to present new and hitherto unrecorded and unpublished songs. Major classical festivals also take place in Zurich, Lausanne and Montreaux. Although no official sales figures are ever issued for Switzerland and sales are reported to be steady, several manufacturers have expressed concern at the number of black market imported records which find their way into the country and are subsequently sold at discount prices. Nevertheless it has been a pretty good year for the record companies and music publishers. Musikvertrieb A.G. of Zurich headed by Maurice Rosengarten maintain their leading position in the industry and report a year of resounding success in sales in all categories and speeds. During the year they have added Triola to the strong list of labels they carry and have enjoyed considerable success with artistes of all nationalities. One of the best selling American artistes was Roy Orbison who further enhanced his reputation in Switzerland, his biggest hit being "Oh Pretty Woman" which topped the Swiss charts for many weeks. Presley maintained his popularity with his early records still as much in demand as his latest hits. Paul Anka won many new friends by his European tour and TV shows. His recordings in German were particularly successful in Switzerland.

The Beach Boys also enjoyed chart status with titles such as "Little Honda" and "Dance, Dance, Dance." From Britain The Rolling Stones gathered tremendous sales for Musikvertrieb both in the single and L.P. fields. They were well up in the hit parade with "Not Fade Away"; "Time Is On My Side" and "Heart of Stone." German star Ronny was the big surprise in the hit parade stakes with three successive entries "Oh My Darling Caroline"; "Kenn Ein Land" and "Kleine Annabelle". Hildegard Kneff gave a new impetus to German ballads as witness the sales of her L.P.s whilst Rita Pavone, whether singing in Italian, French or German, was a constant best seller. Bobby Solo topped the charts with his San Remo dinner "Si Piangi Se Ride." Manuela achieved fame with her recording of "Schuld War Mur Der Bossa Nova" and the established favourite Vico Torriani made it with "Monsieur Chanson" and "Ski Twist" and is currently successfully touring with a musical. In the classical field Musikvertrieb had a sensational success with the RCA recording of Bizet's opera "Carmen" with Price-Freni-Corelli-Merrill conducted by Von Karajan. After a performance of Benjamin Britten's "War Requiem" in Switzerland demand for the outstanding recording of the work greatly increased. The new recording of "Matthaus Passion" was enthusiastically reviewed and received and recordings by bass Nicoli Ghiurov surpassed all sales expectations.

Mr. Hans Oestreicher of Turicaphon A.G. with the only pressing plant in Switzerland reports that the company maintained its annual production figure of approximately 3,000,000 records. They exhibited at the Basle Fair and during the year expanded their export market. Master tapes of their repertoire on the Elite Special label have been taken for pressing in many overseas territories including Canada, United States, South Africa, South America, Japan and Australia. Record wise their biggest success during the past twelve months was with Liverpool group Jimmy and The Rackets whose four singles "My Soul"; "Skinny Minny"; "Ten Little Indians" and "Only You" and one L.P. on Elite Special sold over 1,000,000 copies in Switzerland, Germany and Austria. The group's success is partly due to the fact that they have been performing continuously in these territories for over a year. They also make frequent TV appearances. From the Ricordi repertoire Turicaphon sold 50,000 copies of "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" and in two months sold 20,000 copies of "Se Piangi Se Ridi" both by Bobby Solo. The publishing rights for both titles are handled in Switzerland by Editions Flora. Other San Remo hits to sell well in Switzerland were "Abbracciami Forte" by Ornella Vanoni "Le Colline Sono In Fiore" by Wilma Goich and "Mia Cara" by Robertino whose first recordings in German "Luna Luna Luna" and "Arrivederci" were recently cut in Hamburg. Turicaphon's single sales were considerably up on the previous year and a still bigger increase is reported for their L.P. repertoire which now totals over 150 albums.

Philips Records report a satisfactory year with the biggest sales registered with their French repertoire particularly Sheila, Claude Francois, Johnny Hallyday, Nana Mouskouri and more recently France Gall who created a big demand in Switzerland for her Eurovision winner "Poupee De Cire". She also had a big success with "Sacre Charlemagne" which topped the Swiss charts. The Fontana special low-priced series of pop and classical 12" L.P.s have also sold well at 10.95 francs. As usual Philips have scored heavily with local folk recordings two big sellers in this category being "Harmonie Appenzell" and original Appenzellian music. Philips artiste Kapelle Della Torre also took first prize at this year's folk music contest in Zurich. The company was also happy to have the original Finnish Letkiss by Jaakko Losanen.

A major event of the EMMI A.G. year was their removal from Zurich to Zug. EMI is particularly strong on local production of Swiss repertoire i.e. folklore and children's records. In the latter category the company lays claim to something like 80 per cent of the total market. Releases are mainly E.P.s including about 60 titles by Trudi Gerster and D'Schlieremer childrens choir. Cabaret disks in Swiss-German by local artistes are also popular. EMI's biggest selling artistes in the pop field have been The Beatles, Cliff Richard, Richard Anthony, Gilbert Beaud and Adamo. EMI labels are distributed and promoted by Jecklin and Hug for Switzerland and in Austria by their own company, Austrian Columbia.

Jecklin & Co. of Zurich continues to enjoy considerable success with British artistes with The Beatles still leading the field although even their sales are down compared with the phenomenal figures of early 1964. Cliff Richard is still tremendously popular and the biggest and most consistent French seller is Enrico Macius. Mr. Hens Jecklin, reports that sales generally were slower than 12 months ago with nothing selling in the same quantities. He also noted that in the German section of Switzerland a good record would enjoy top sales for at least six months but the life of a hit record in the French section was appreciably shorter. During the year Jecklin added the Tamla Motown label to their distributive list. Their magnificently equipped record store (numerous private cubicles—sets of individual listening phones—clearly marked and arranged browser boxes etc.) is still unparalleled and another shop was opened in the autumn of 1964.

Phonag A.G. at Winterthur have, during the past year, further extended their representation with the acquisition of Epic, Okeh, Musicor (Gene Pitney is a big seller in Switzerland), Saba (German label), Style/Phonocolor, Qualibit (Austrian label) and Hickory. P.P. sales continue to expand and Phonog reports that stereo sales are getting better and better with sales for the first quarter of this passing all expectations.

As far as the SBC catalogue is concerned about 70 per cent of new release sales are stereo. A considerable number of CBS classical artistes have visited Switzerland during the year for concerts and festivals including Isaac Stern, Rudolf Serkin, Brailowsky, Casadeus, Eugene Ormandy and Francesatti. A number of jazzman too have appeared with success including Brubeck, Davis and Monk.

The Finsterwald and Cantacuzene, Vogue S.A. and Editions Belmont group of companies have enjoyed another year of success and progress.

Artistes from the Vogue roster have been particularly active in the Swiss Hit Parade—leading the field Petula Clark notably with "Downtown" whilst Francois Hardy also maintained her popularity. British group The Searchers also established themselves in the Swiss charts and once again Reprise artistes contributed handsomely to the company's success during the year.

Once again Siemens (Deutsche Grammophon) report considerable success with foreign artistes both American and continental. In Basle, Hug and Co. have had similar success with British and American artistes via releases on the HMV, Electrola and Liberty labels etc.

During the first six months of its existence the newly formed Pick label has issued 35 E.P.s and L.P.s ranging from pops to light classical. One of the most successful being "Happy Letkiss Party" by The Happy Letkiss Boys. Pick also release material in Switzerland of two German labels Storz (who release Pick in Germany) and Regina. Pick is also released in Japan by Peichiku Record Company of Tokio.

Editions Coda during the past year have had several major hits including "Vergangen," "Vergessen, Voruber" by top German star Freddy on Polydor. Other successful titles have included "Cowboy Vagabunden" by Peter and Su on Ariola; "Du, Du, Du Gehst Voruber" by Sussie on Vogue; "Kusse Nie Nach Mitternacht" by Siv Malmquist on Metronome; "Kiddy Kiddy Kiss Me" by Paul Anka and by Rita Pavone on RCA. "Rag Doll" by The Five Tops on Philips and Ma Vie by Alain Barriere on RCA.

Editions Helbling have also had a number of big sellers during the year both for themselves, Southern Music, Nova and World Music.

ITALY—The Past Twelve Months

Looking back at the past twelve months, it seems that the "crisis" is the major issue on our musical scene.

In our editorial of last year's Anniversary Edition we said that the year could be split into two parts; the first saw the extraordinary success of Bobby Solo's hit, "Una Lacrima Sul Viso," which reached the highest point of our sales; while in the second part sales decreased to levels as low as any in the past.

This year, starting our report from July 1964, the general level of business in our field may become lower at any moment.

As a general opinion, we would say that the sales level has suffered from a crisis since the summer of 1964, though it has constantly maintained its level of sales, without any further decrease.

This opinion, of course, concerns the record field, because as far as the publishing field is involved we can say that pubberies have not suffered from any particular decrease in their business volume; but they did not have any increase in their earnings during the past twelve months, as in the past years.

During 1960 and 1961 the average of yearly record sales was about 24,000,000 of disks.

At the end of 1961 and beginning of 1962, record sales started increasing step by step, and we think that the Italian record industry reached in 1963 the top point of its expansion with a total of about 30,000,000 records sold during that year, an average of 2,500,000 per month.

Perhaps this average was surpassed during the first three months of 1964 thanks to the San Remo festival. But immediately after the million copies were sold of "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" and "Ogni Volta," there was a slow decrease in record sales particularly accentuated during the "low season" (months of Sept., Jan., Apr. and May).

We have reasonably calculated the percentage of decrease in total sales with respect to 1963, and can state, with a good margin of certainty that, in spite of the alarmistic cries the percentage of decrease is about 20%.

This means that the crisis has put the market back to the usual sales levels of 1960 and 1961. We suppose, therefore, that in Italy, during past twelve months, 24 million records have been sold.

We wish to examine the real reasons for this crisis: it is supposed that the crisis stems directly from the general economical slump which has afflicted Italy since 1963. We almost agree with such an opinion, and consider the general situation as the primary cause of the crisis in record business. Of course along with this principal cause there are other concomitant circumstances which do not help the industry to face this difficult moment, in spite of the few symptoms of recovery.

First of all, as we had the occasion to stress out in our Christmas Edition, there is a deep change in the structure of our industry; since, little by little, business is concentrating with few well organized enterprises, leaving the small firms a complementary role in the market.

This is confirmed by the fact that all top hits in the past twelve months have been issued by well known labels: from July 1964 to June 1965, these are the companies that dominated the hit-parade: Ri.Fi (Mina's "E' L'Uomo Per Me"; "Un Anno D'Amore"), EMI Italiana (Richard Anthony's "Cin, Cin"; "La Mia Festa"; "Piangi";/Pino Donaggio—"Io Che Non Vivo"); RCA Italiana (Gianni Morandi—"In Ginocchio Da Te"; "Non Son Degno Di Te"); Dischi Ricordi (Bobby Solo—"Cristina"; "Se Piangi Se Ridi"; "Quello Sbagliato"/the Minstrels—"Le Colline Sono In Fiore"); Durium (Nini Rosso—"Il Silenzio"); SAAR (Petula Clark—"Ciao Ciao"); Cellograph-Simp (John Foster—"Amore Scusami"); Clan Celentano (Adriano—"Il Problema Piu' Importante"). All these firms shall be considered as "big" companies, having a staff of more than 80 employees, with the only exception of Cellograph Simp and Clan Celentano which can be considered as "medium-sized" firms.

It's also interesting to note that in 1963 there was a small group of disks which sold extraordinarily well, remaining at the top of the charts for a long time; in the past twelve months there were many releases that, without selling a great number of copies, have entered the charts for only one, two or three weeks. Therefore, we can say that during this last period the market has been characterized by an extreme mobility. This may mean that the public is not disinterested in records, but it is looking for something new which is not found in the present situation. It seems that in the last few months all record production presented on the market was characterized by quite a similar "taste." This may be another reason for the present crisis.

Of course the lack of new product is also afflicting the publishing firms, and many A&R men have confirmed that it's particularly difficult at this moment to find repertoire able to satisfy their exigencies.

The third cause of the present crisis is the chronic problem of lack of co-operation by part of the Radio & TV Monopoly. This problem is, of course, emphasized during this last period.

The great number of music festivals organized in Italy was a direct reply to this problem, since thanks to the TV media, these were the only promotional ways easily accessible to the Italian music industry.

Now, after years of similar manifestations, the public has lost interest in these shows, which are overloaded with an endless list of singers and songs, many of them completely unknown. The number of these contests, together with the great numbers of singers and tunes presented each time, has completely bewildered the customers who are unable to make their choice on the record market, as has been demonstrated by the sparse promotional benefit of the recent top festivals. This is a further negative point in the list of the circumstances which have caused this predicament of our musical market.

And now a short report on the top events of past twelve months:

JULY

Decca Italiana started its own domestic production. The first Italian artist introduced by this label was Lalla Castellano, a 16 years old songstress.

Ri-Fi Records, along with its Lebanese associates Mario & Michel Haddad formed a company in Beirut called Societe' Libanaise Du Disque. They built the first pressing plant in Lebanon, one of the few existing in the Middle East.

The contest "A Disk for the Summer" was organized by RAI & TV in cooperation with the Italian Phonographic Association (AFI), at the final night of Saint Vincent, declared winners I Marcellos Ferial, with the song "Sei Diventata Nera" which was one of the top sellers of the summer totalling about 600,000 copies. Record was released on the Durium label. "A Disk for the Summer" was the first example of cooperation between our Radio-TV Monopoly and the record industry.

This month, for the first time, the crisis which has affected the Italian record market was suddenly noticed. To get worse, the situation featured a great number of new releases, which Italian record firms presented on the market for the summer season, introducing them through festivals and contests. "A Disk for the Summer" has presented 42 new decks. International TV Contest of Pesaro presented another 28 releases, International TV Show of Venice was responsible for the introduction of 35 new recordings, while Cantagiuro served as a launching point of 31 disks, followed by the televised RCA Show at Hotel Hilton in Rome, where 15 new disks were presented. This totals 151 new sides. We estimated that all disks released on our market for the summer season reached about 300 singles. This over-production was one of the principal reasons for the summer crisis.

Among the top events of July were the International TV Show of Venice organized by Gianni Ravera (the organizer of the San Remo Festival) at which 35 artists took part, (24 Italians and 11 top foreign talents). Among them Richard Anthony (EMI Italiana) who introduced his extraordinary hit "Cin Cin", Petula Clark, and Françoise Hardy, both of Saar.

Gianni Morandi was declared the winner of "Cantagiuro," the greatest summer happening, organized by Ezio Radaelli. After a long tour all around Italy, presenting his song "In Ginocchio Da Te," which was the top hit of the year, young RCA artist Morandi was declared the winner at the final televised night of Fiuggi (Rome). Second place went to another RCA artist, Michele, who presented "Ti Ringrazio Perche," followed in third position by the Durium talent of Little Tony, who performed "Non Aspetto Nessuno." Both these songs were included among the top 30 hits of the year, confirming the promotional power of Radaelli's "Cantagiuro." These artists were winners of the "A" team. "B" team's Paolo Mosca, a new discovery of a little label called "Lord Record," won in this division.

Giuseppe Gramitto Ricci, head of Curci publishing firm, announced the finalization of the deal for the exclusive representation in Italy of the Dick James' catalog (London). Curci will also be the publisher in Italy of all The Beatles' hits.

AUGUST

Saar announced the finalization of the deal for the exclusive representation and distribution in Italy of Dot Records' catalog. Saar also announced that it will introduce on September first Italian recordings of Pat Boone.

During this month buyers made their definite choice among the records put on the market for the summer season: first on the chart is the extraordinary talent of Gianni Morandi (RCA) who will reveal himself as one of the best selling artists of the year. The title at the top of the hit parade is the one he presented at "Cantagiuro": "In Ginocchio Da Te." At the end of the year, the disk had sold more than 800,000 copies. The new summer disk of Adriano Celentano, under his own label Clan, was at the top of record sales. Title of the top selling disk is "Il Problema Piu' Importante" (Italian version of "If You Gonna Make A Fool of Somebody").

Another success of summer 1964 was "Amore Scusami," a song which served to reveal the talent of John Foster, issued under the Phonocolor label. This title was presented at the contest "A Disk For The Summer," and also reached first position in record sales. Then there was the top selling record of I Marcellos Ferial, issued under the Durium label and also presented at "A Record For The Summer": "Sei Diventata Nera." Other hit of the month was "Con Te Sulla Spiaggia," introduced also through the TV contest by RCA top talent Nico Fidenco.

The list of the summer hits continued with Michele's "Ti Ringrazio Perche" under the RCA label. Michele introduced this title via "Cantagiuro." Then, for the first time the name of the new RCA discovery, Dino entered the list of the best selling artists. His song was "Eravamo Amici," also presented at "Cantagiuro."

Richard Anthony's "Cin-Cin" was still listed among the top ten best sellers for the 17th consecutive week.

Same thing for Mina. The top Ri-Fi talent continues with her success with "E' L'Uomo Per Me" (He Walks Like A Man), which is still selling for the 14th consecutive week.

During the month, Ray Charles visited Italy, performing at La Busso-la, the top Italian Summer Music Hall in Viareggio. Richard Anthony, another EMI talent, tours Italy.

SEPTEMBER

In Rome at RCA Italiana a meeting is held of all RCA associates of Spanish speaking countries. This is perhaps a direct consequence of the success that Italian songs and Italian RCA artists enjoy in Spain and Latin American countries.

In Barcelona, the recent young discovery of Dischi Ricordi, Wilma Goich, is proclaimed winner of the Mediterranean Festival, held in that town with the participation of Spain, Italy, and France. The song she performed was "Ho Capito Che Ti Amo," penned by Luigi Tenco. The Wilma Goich's recording will reach a top selling position on the Spanish charts.

Ri-Fi released the first LP of Mina issued under its label. The album, which includes 12 evergreens of different countries of the world, obtains an immediate, good reaction. It was to receive a special critics' award.

The first Italian million record seller, Bobby Solo, tours around the world, introducing his San Remo hit, "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" (Ricordi). After a series of personal appearances in Germany, he leaves for France, then for Japan, and South America, where his San Remo top seller was listed at the top of the charts.

MRC—Milano Record Company, the new record company formed by Alberto Carisch, prexy of Italian Southern, announced the finalization of the deal for the distribution of its catalog in Germany by part of Teldec (Hamburg).

Cellograph-Simp (Phonocolor) signed a contract with Deutsche Vogue for the distribution and promotion in Germany of all of John Foster's recordings.

The Ri-Fi catalog will be distributed in France by Disques Festival under the International label, connected with Italia Schallplatten of Dr. Karl Heinz Busse.

CGD Internazionale introduced in Italy the extraordinary vocal group Les Surfs (originally pacted by Disques Festival of Paris) with the first Italian recording of "Maintenant Tu Peux T'En Aller" under the title "E Adesso Te Ne Puoi Andare." Disk was to reach the first position in the charts.

OCTOBER

The Festival of Neapolitan Songs, organized in Naples by Ravera, was won by Domenico Modugno thanks to his song "Tu Si Na Cosa Grande" (published by Curci). Modugno's song won also, thanks to the marvelous performance of Ornella Vanoni (Ricordi).

It seems that in spite of the crisis which afflicts the singles record market, sales of LP albums are still maintaining usual levels as in the past. This perhaps owes thanks to the particular initiative introduced by all top record firms particularly in the classical field. We wish to mention the special low priced series of RCA Italiana, who was first to present the Italian market with classical LP's at a price of Lit. 1,800 (about $3.00) when the usual price was Lit. 3,300 (about $5.30). The example of RCA was followed by EMI Italiana with the "Invitation to Music." This month also saw Dischi Ricordi introduce a low priced series of high quality classical recordings under the title "Classics of Classical Music." Price of each album is of Lit. 1,800. (about $3.00).

The first Japanese recording by Mina, "Un Buco Nella Sabbia," released by King Records of Tokyo, entered the charts, reaching the top of the Japanese hit parade with a total sale of more than 250,000 in that country.

EMI Italiana declares that they are satisfied with the level of the sales for the summer season. This, in spite of the crisis which strongly touched the Italian market. EMI's satisfaction derives from the great success obtained by the French talent Richard Anthony, who was at the top of the chart first with "Cin-Cin" and now with "La Mia Festa," which entered the top ten best sellers list immediately.

diately after the release. "Festa," the Italian version of the American hit "It's My Party," remained at the top of our charts over 11 weeks. EMI also enjoyed good sales thanks to the Belgium's Italian talent, Adamo, whose recordings showed good sales between 50,000 and 100,000.

The Festival Delle Rose, organized in Rome (Hotel Hilton) by Mario Minasi, had as a winner Gianni Morandi, who, via this televised show, introduced his new big hit "Non Son Degno Di Te" (RCA). The disk continued Morandi's hit string and remained at the top of the charts for many weeks.

Ri.Fi introduced the special Command series of LP's derived from 35mm film tapes groovings.

Adriano Celentano cut a new disk, "Bambini Miei". Sales earnings from this disk will be devoted to the United Nations Organization for Poor Children. It soon entered the charts, and was listed among the 30 top selling disks of the year.

NOVEMBER

All responsables of the Italian music industry were very busy preparing for their participation in the next San Remo Festival. All odds are strongly on this exposition's furnishing a definitive solution to the record crisis. Ravera's Festival listed foreign participators, among them: Petula Clark, the Minstrels and Gene Pitney, who enjoyed a particular success at the San Remo scene. Also announced were the French group Les Surfs.

AFI (Italian Phonographic Association) informed us about definitive results of the contest "A Disk for the Summer" according to record sales, during a special televised Gala held at Saint Vincent. Winners were "Sei Diventata Nera," sung by Los Marcellos Ferial, followed by Nico Fidenco's "Con Te Sulla Spiaggia"; while third position went to John Foster's recording "Amore Scusami."

Fonit-Cetra announced the finalization of the deal for the exclusive representation and distribution in Italy of the American catalog of Kapp Records.

Gianni Morandi, the young talent of RCA Italiana, is best selling artist of the Summer season, resulting from a definitive balance of the summer sales on the record market, thanks to his big hit "In Ginocchio Da Te," which was on the Italian charts for 22 weeks.

According to this balance we estimate that the decrease in summer sales of 1964 is of about a 25% from the season's sales of 1963.

DECEMBER

Ricordi announced that more than two million disks of the Bobby Solo's recording "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" have been sold on the foreign market. In Italy, sales of this disc have passed 1,300,000 mark.

Top event of the month stemmed from the sudden decision by RCA Italiana to withdraw its participation in the San Remo Festival. The news exploded on the music scene like a bomb. The decision was based on the fact that, according to RCA Italiana, the San Remo organizers didn't take into sufficient consideration the weight and the role which it is playing on the musical scene in our market.

Another surprise was caused by the fact that the final song selection also excluded works of well known composers such as Giulio Libano, Dominic Modugno, Ennio Morricone, Giovanni Danzi, Mario Panzeri by the exclusion of interpreters such as Nico Fidenco, Modugno himself, Adamo and Tony Renis.

Durium announced the release of the Nini Rosso recording, "Il Silenzio," which, in a few months, reached the top of the charts in Italy and in many other countries abroad.

Italiana Decca announced that for the first time the company will take part in the San Remo contest. The firm was represented by its English artist Anita Harris.

EMI Italiana signed an exclusive pact with film actress Marisa Solinas, who debuted as songstress under the EMI label.

JANUARY

RCA Italiana brought TV to its Rome Studios for a big talent & new production showcase. The show was organized by the firm to promote its winter production and TV responsables agreed to record the event on a video tape which was presented on the TV screens immediately after San Remo Festival.

Since this show included all the songs and singers that should have been presented by RCA on the San Remo stage, the publicity put out by RCA on this fact created a controversy which obliged the TV responsables to postpone the transmission of the program.

We wish to say anyway that from such a TV production, which was presented on the screens in the month of May, came successes like "La Verita'" by Paul Anka, "Te Lo Leggo Negli Occhi" by Dino and "Vivro" by Alain Barriere.

The Festival of San Remo is once again confirmed as the top manifestation on the musical scene in Italy.

This is demonstrated by the great interest shown by the public and the press not only in Italy, but all over the world, and it's stressed by the great number of foreign visitors coming to San Remo from far and wide for the three nights of the event.

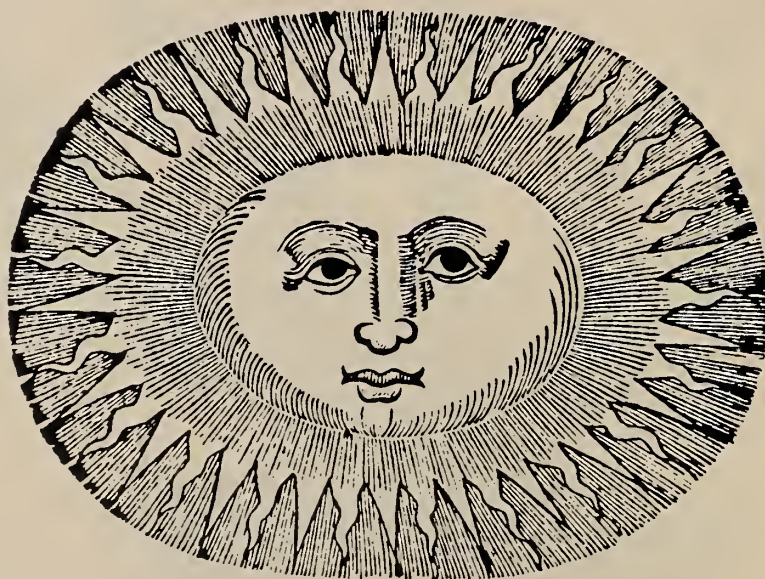

After the three night contest, "Se Piangi Se Ridi," sung by Bobby Solo (Ricordi) and by the New Christy Minstrels, (CBS) was declared the winning composition of the contest. But, in spite of the extraordinary publicity given to the contest, in which such talents as Connie Francis (CGD Internazionale), Gene Pitney (CGD Internazionale), Johnny Tillotson (CGD Internazionale), Timi Yuro (Phonogram), Petula Clark (Saar), Dusty Springfield (Phonogram) Les Surfs (CGD Internazionale) and others have appeared as foreign representatives, along with top Italian artists such as Bobby Solo (Ricordi), Ornella Vanoni (Ricordi), John Foster (Phonocolor), Fred Bongusto (Fonit-Cetra) Betty Curtis (CGD), Pino Donaggio (EMI Italiana), Remo Germani (SAAR) Peppino Gagliardi (SAAR) and Ricky Gianco (Jaguar), record sales results have to be considered completely negative. We estimate that, all together, San Remo discs have not surpassed a total sale of 2,000,000 copies, which in the present crisis situation is also the average of monthly sales on the Italian market.

Of course, as in the past San Remo festivals, new discs have quickly entered the charts, since all record sales have been immediately concentrated on these new releases, but only a few of the San Remo songs can be considered as medium hits. The same number one, "Se Piangi Se Ridi," was on the top of the charts for 6 weeks only, while last year a Bobby Solo disc, "Una Lacrima Sul Viso," was at the top of our hit parade for about 16 weeks, and remained in the top ten in the charts for more than 25 weeks. Among the other hits derived from the San Remo contest we have to mention "Io Che Non Vivo" by Pino Donaggio (EMI Italiana), which, without reaching the top of the best sellers list, was also listed among the top ten for more than 16 weeks, and enjoyed good sales. After this there are "Le Colline Sono In Fiore" by The Minstrels, (CBS), "Invece No" by Petula Clark (SAAR), "Amici Miei" by Gene Pitney (CGD Internazionale) and "Cominciamo Ad Amarci" by John Foster, one of the best songs presented this year on the San Remo stage, have obtained a sufficient level of sales without entering the finals.

FEBRUARY

The Mina disc, "La Citta Vuota" (Italian version of "Lonely Town"), reached the top of the chart in Spain. The recording, issued under the Ri-Fi Original label, is distributed in Spain by Belter. For this success the lark was awarded with a golden disc.

Bobby Solo cut the foreign version of his San Remo hit, (the winning composition) "Se Piangi Se Ridi." Immediate releases of the disc is planned by Dischi Ricordi representatives in all countries of the world.

Campi Brothers (Giuseppe and Luigi) visited Spain where they formed a publishing firm which will issue in Spain their original film music production. Campi Publishing firm is well represented at the top of the charts in that country thanks to their hit "More" taken from the film "Mondo Cane."

Another Italian hit on the foreign market was "Il Mio Mondo" originally published by Ariston Publishing Group, and recorded in France by Richard Anthony (French EMI) under the title "Ce Monde." The title reached the top ten charts.

Durium announced the finalization of the deal with Tamla-Motown, for the exclusive representation of this line in Italy. First artists to be promoted were The Supremes.

MARCH

The crisis on the record market was the deepest during this month, since sales registered a further decrease in spite of few symptoms of a general recovery from the economic slump. Sales results of the San Remo recordings completely disappointed the industry.

In the meantime Emi Italiana enjoyed another great success thanks once again to Richard Anthony whose new disc "Piangi" (Boys Cry) immediately entered the charts jumping up after a few weeks to the top position on the best sellers list.

The fortunate Emi Italiana series of hits continued thanks to Adamo who did very well with "Cade La Neve."

CGD Internazionale signed a pact with the well known twin sisters Hellen and Alice Kessler.

Tony Dallara, finished his pact with SAAR, the label who first introduced him, and has signed a new agreement with Ri-Fi.

Ariston Publishing Group, after having extended its activity to the record field, with the opening in 1964 of a label (Ariston), is continuing its program of international expansion. Alfredo Rossi, prexy of the firm, announced the finalization of the deal in Spain for the opening of the pubery Ariston-Spain, which became part of the Armonico Publishing Group of Barcelona. Alfredo also announced the formation of a new subsidiary company in France called Ariston France, which will be run by Gilbert & Marcel Maruani.

In the record field new exclusive pacts were signed by Ariston with two pop combos, Bruno Martino and Marino Barreto Jr.

Fonit-Cetra renewed its cast of artists to enter with new power into the singles market. This is the reason why they signed an exclusive agreement with two of the top Italian singers: Sergio Endrigo (formerly under contract with RCA Italiana) and Fred Bongusto (formerly with Ri-Fi).

APRIL

Top April event in Italy was the Eurovision contest which was held in Naples. Winner was the little French girl France Gall (Phonogram) with the song "Pupée de Cire Pupée de Son" which was released in Italian and promoted on the Italian market by Phonogram.

Italian representative was of course Bobby Solo (Ricordi) who presented the San Remo winner "Se Piangi Se Ridi".

Mina was awarded a plaque in Japan thanks to her big hit "Un Buco Nella Sabbia" which she sang in Japanese. Being in Japan she got a "Pearl Disc".

CGD held in Milan a big convention. Convention was concluded with a night show which was televised. Among foreign artists which took part in the show were Katyna Ranieri, Teddy Randazzo, The Everly Brothers and Samatha Jones. Among the Italian stars were: Betty Curtis and Johnny Dorelli, and Tony Dallara.

The wellknown journalist Maso Biggero was appointed A&R Manager of Phonogram.

Peppino di Capri was at the top of the Germany charts thanks to his hit "Melancolie" distributed in that country by Italia Schallplatten. Peppino Di Capri's home label is Carisch.

MRC announced that its catalog will be distributed in France by Philips, and in Belgium by Artone.

Dischi Ricordi announces the conclusion of the agreement for the exclusive distribution in Italy of the two lines of Hickory and Epic. First Epic artist to be promoted in Italy was Bobby Vinton, who will make his first appearance in our country in the International Light Music Show in Venice in June.

The classical low priced series of EMI Italiana, "Invitation to Music" reached an unexpected sales success: for this reason, EMI Italiana has announced the release of the series in stereo, which were sold at a price of Liras 2.400 (about $4.00). Dealers particularly welcomed the initiative.

Similar program was followed by Decca Italiana, which also released a classical stereo series under the label, Asso Di Quadri.

MAY

In the classical field, Decca Italiana announced the release of an album performed by the world famous pianist Arturo Benedetti Michelangeli. Album was titled "The Pianistic Art of Arturo Benedetti Michelangeli."

The TV show produced by RCA Italiana and recorded in January was put on the air: good reaction was immediately obtained for the songs "La Verita" by Paul Anka, "I Giorni Dell'Amore" by Michele and "Lui" by Rita Pavone. These titles entered on the charts.

Ariston Records announced the finalization of the deal with Disques Barclay of Paris for the exclusive distribution of their line in France, Benelux and Switzerland (excluding Canton Ticino).

Jaguar Records presented on the music scene the extraordinary talent of the Italian tenor Gino Bechi. Jaguar has released an LP containing 12 of the most famous Italian songs produced from 1920 until 1924, interpreted by Bechi.

JUNE

The 1965 edition of "Cantagiuro," the big contest organized by Radaelli, starts its fantastic tour of 17.000 kms on June 23. This was considered the top event of the summer. The group of 42 singers toured all of Italy for 16 days, performing each night in a different place, and then flew to Moscow, Frankfurt, and Vienna, and introduced for the first time a big Italian light music show in foreign countries. The winner of team "A" of this Cantagiuro was Rita Pavone, the girl "star" of RCA Italiana, who for the first time accepted to take part in a contest. She was declared winner the final night of Fiuggi, thanks to her song "Lui," which is still listed on our top ten charts. At second place was Gianni Morandi, who presented "Se Non Avessi Piu' Te," which also is selling extremely well. I Marcellos Ferial, presenting the Italian version of "The House of The Rising Sun" under the title "La Casa Del Sole" were classified in the third position. Their disk is issued under the Durium label.

ITALY— The Past 12 Months

Another top event of the month was the Italian tour of The Beatles, which had great success especially in Milan and Genoa. Last leg of their Italian visit was Rome, where they performed the night of June 27. The Beatles' disks are distributed in Italy by Carisch. Unfortunately, Italian TV refused to present The Beatles and this is the reason why the promotional power of their tour was so limited.

Third interesting event of the month was the International Light Music Show of Venice organized by Gianni Ravera. Among the foreign talents who took part in the contest was Petula Clark, (SAAR) Bobby Vinton (Dischi Ricordi/CBS) The Minstrels (Dischi CBS), Yukari Ito (CGD Internationale). Among Italian stars: (Clan), who introduced, by the way, his new disk for the summer season, Mina (RiFi), Adriano Celentano and Peppino Di Capri (Carisch).

The MRC line in South America went to Philips. Announcement was given by Piero Galloti, manager of the Italian firm.

Bruno Pozza, general manager of Clan Glenetano, informed CB about the finalization of the deal with the Russian State Record Company for the representation, reproduction and distribution in Italy of this Russian catalog of classical music.

Durium has announced that Pye Records of London will distribute their catalogue in England.

Edoardo Vianello, one of the top artists of RCA Italiana, was awarded with a second gold disk for two million records sold.

Bill Fisher, ex-Allied head man, rejoins the wax world, teaming up with Art Young to run a firm billed as "Fi-Sound." First product produced by the firm offers instrumental stylings of Jimmy Torres. George Taylor at Rodeo doing big business with hot American master by The Hi Lites, "Hey Baby." Brian Browne, well known Canadian jazz pianist, records album for RCA Victor after relocating in Toronto's Park Plaza Hotel. Phonodisc acquires Paula-Jewel line for Canadian distribution. Pierre Lalonde starts some considerable chart action with his good ballad outing, "Forever." "Me And You" by The Regents starts to move on the Quality scene, chart listings are numerous for the good made-in-Canada sound. David Clayton Thomas appears with The Rolling Stores P.A. in Toronto. R.P.M. Directory proves to be outstanding publication for Canadian music trade.

APRIL 1965—Another Gord Lightfoot composition, "Ribbon Of Darkness" stirs up considerable chart action by a way of a Marty Robbins, Columbia outing. George I. Harrison appointed V.P. at RCA Victor Co., Ltd., remaining as General Manager of the Company's record division. First Wolff label product to be distributed by RCA Victor is "Say Baby" By Dee And The Yeomen. "The Swing Set" news letter and chart covering the Ottawa scene debuts. Reg Ayres, Quality's man in Winnipeg ignites national action on track in new album by Chad And The Expressions—gets single released on "Tossin' and Turnin'." Vet C&W lark, Myrna Lorrie is featured on strong Sparton single, "Can't Live With Him." Don Franks LP is released on Kapp. Single lifted from the set—gets good air action on better music formats. Freddie And The Dreamers finally make it big on the Canadian chart scene, fulfilling a two year old prediction of Capitol's Paul White. Strong Canadian teen single, "Mynah Bird Hop" by The Mynah Birds on Columbia makes some chart noise in several areas. Carl Schmidt of Fonorama has some good material in his most recent batch of singles under the Danco banner. The Allan Sisters win good solid deejay support with their first class Red Leaf outing, "Remember The Face." Duke Ellington takes part in a birthday surprise party for him conducted on the air at Montreal's CKGM. Compo's Barry Paine originates for many of the Duke's friends and associates to phone their greetings to him on the air from all over North America. Paul Anka films CBC TV spectacular in his hometown, Ottawa. Gord Lightfoot picks up several key chart listings with his good outing on Warners. "I'm Not Sayin'." Gord is feted at Toronto reception.

MAY 1965—Dave Leonard is named Production Manager at Allied Records. He maintains his interest in his own production firm. Monticana Records. Wholesale Appliances Ltd., Vancouver take over the lines formerly handled on the west coast City by Aragon Enterprises Ltd. Monticana production, released in Canada on Quality, "She's Mine" by Bartholomew Plus Three gets much air and chart action in Montreal via the Dave Boxer CFCF show. The Staccatos of Ottawa follow up their initial wax outing, "It Isn't Easy", with their first under the Capitol banner, "Small Town Girl." Sanda Selsie does well with her Columbia C&W sound, "I Wish That I Could Fall In Love Today." Arc continues its red hot singles sales pace with "As Many As These," by Catherine McKinnon and "Little Liar" by Terry Black coming on like runaway best sellers. Malka And Joso win many new fans as Capitol lifts a much played item from their recent album, "Ay Cosita Linda," class Canadian talent this. Harold Pounds is doing big business with his great new Canadian outing on Sparton, "Hum Drum" by Deryk And Ed. Tim (Lord Timothy) Hudson exits Montreal's CKGM for a new spot in California, San Diego to be specific. Former 'GM men, Doug Burrows and Dick Varney, relocate in Halifax and Plattsburgh, N.Y. respectively. Some action noted on an instrumental single formerly out on Capitol's Pathe line, "La Playa" by Claude Ciari. Frank Henry reports that it is to be reserviced to the Capitol mailing list under that banner after considerable American action. "UH UH UH," the solid commercial rocker by The Canadian Squires on Apex shows chart signs in several areas. Gerry Wolf the founder of Wolff Records resigns as President of the firm to enter the publishing field, debuting assorted fan and trade publications, under the corporate title, "Three Star Publications." Patti Page finally makes it very big on practically every chart in the Country with "Hush Hush Sweet Charlotte," after many weeks of slow but steady progress. Dave Carter's young daughter, billed as Debby Lori Kaye has her first Columbia release, "Pickin' Up My Hat" on the market, action with the Canadian deejays is considerable. Bob Martin ties up a sensational new record act for Columbia, The Liverpool Set. They will appear at the label's Miami sales meet. Harold Winslow announces that Quality's Canadian Talent development award is to go to an American station for the first time. KYNO Radio in Fresno is given the award for their pioneering south of the border on behalf of "Shakin' All Over," by Chad Allen and The Expressions. Hal Ross at Phonodisc predicts solid action on a release of "Donna" by Ritchie Valens. He gets it and then some. "My Girl Sloopy" on Red Leaf by Little Caesar and the Consuls puts in strong bid to be the hottest record of the year in so far as made-in-Canada hits are concerned. It breaks chart barrier after chart barrier right across the nation.

JUNE 1965—Bill Gilliland reports that the delightful Catherine McKinnon has been set for the Ed Sullivan TV'er in the early Fall. "Tossin' And Turnin'" by Chad Allen and The Expressions develops into the national smash—with U.S. release to follow shortly—that Reg Ayers predicted some months before. Doug Crosley debuts on RCA Victor with a great cover on "Forget Domani," an album is set for release shortly. Cosmo Filane previews a new album set he has just had recorded in Britain. Betting is that a very commercial item therein, "No Money" will be released as a single. Bob Gillies marks his return to the ranks of the recording stars with a strong commercial outing on RCA, "Summer On The Sand." Action is very encouraging. Mike Doyle exits his National Promotion Post with RCA Victor, reportedly to re-enter the radio sales game with CKGM, Montreal. Phil Najovits takes leave of Allied Record Corp., to be replaced as General Sales Manager by music biz. vet, Jack Boswell. Jerry Gordon becomes Montreal branch Manager of the Company.

SPAIN

The Past Twelve Months

During the past year the Spanish record market has grown up enough for us to say that now we are approaching the European level. For the first time in the Spanish record industry some records have reached the 100.00 mark. That is the case of "La Yenka," the Finnish dance imported by Johnny and Charley (Charley died this year in a car accident) and "Flamenco" by The Brincos. But, what is more important is the tremendous amount of new records released every month (here in Spain the list of new records covers almost everything from the rest of the world and also Spanish production, and almost every record has a good sale. Much better than last year and incredible if you compare it with the figure of only two years ago. But the possibilities of the market are even bigger and there are more record fans every day. Many record players (at low prices) is the basis of the miracle, together with the big promotion given by radio, the musical shows of TV and the press. All of these factors will now be discussed.

There are now as many radio receivers as people in Spain. Transistors are the same story. There are about 400 stations which cover every place in Spain. And many of these stations have musical programs with the latest records released in the country. Obviously, radio helps everyday to create record buyers.

Spanish TV now has two channels (VHF and UHF), has a new group of musical programmes. The two big shows are "Sabado 65" produced in Madrid and "Noche de estrellas," produced in Barcelona. The first every Saturday and the second one every Monday. Besides these big shows (an hour and a half) there are four others of half an hour presented by famous deejays Raúl Matas, Pepe Palau and another show produced by Bill Caram. The audience of TV covers every area of Spain and has been evaluated at ten million spectators.

The press has begun to be interested in records. Almost every magazine (weekly) has its own record section. Newspapers have record sections once a week. And there are five magazines which specialize in records. These are "Discobolo," "Fonorama," "Fans," "Correo de la Radio" and "Prensa Musical Internacional."

That conditions of the information mediums are simultaneous to the noted increase of the economic level in the nation. Now we can say that the record era has begun in Spain. That is the opinion of the eight established labels.

We can note this year for the first time an increase of the interest in modern Spanish music. We have now a lot of young groups which are not only recording good international tunes in Spanish but continuously creating new tunes, more or less originals. The attempts for the Spanish sound are quite successful in different ways. Some groups are very representative of the trend. Instrumental groups such as Los Relampagos Los Sonor and Los Flaps has been successful not only in Spain but abroad as well. Los Sirex and Los Brincos are the most well-known vocal instrumental groups. The last one had the biggest hit on the modern music scene, "Flamenco," and they've also recorded it in Italy. The sound is a mixture of Spanish flavor with an international beat. On the other hand, you have such groups as Los Pekenikes, that record, beside international hits, their own compositions or old traditional Spanish themes in the beat of today. Micky y Los Tonys, Los Mustang, Lone Star, Los Catinos, Los Continentals, Los 4 Jets, Los Shakers are also very well known groups.

On the side of vocalists, several new young people are coming up with fresh sounds. Those singers, who usually sing international hits in Spanish are now looking for modern Spanish music because the international hits are now sung in Spanish by their own creators. This is the case with the Surfs, Steve Lawrence, Connie Francis, Cliff Richard, Mina, Tony Dallara, Rita Pavone, Alain Barriere, etc.

The Spanish music is now on the move. Some artists have gone to record in other countries or they've had their tapes sent. Labels have begun to promote their productions abroad. Esteba Garcia Morencos, from Zafiro, has recently been in Italy for this purpose and José Ramón Batalla from Belter recently went to South America with the same purpose. Alfonso, from Belter, toured a great deal this year in order to promote Spanish music.

Publishers are now considering that they can do a good business with Spanish music and are capturing young talents. A year ago, the publishing business was limited to representation of foreign catalogues and the presentation of some Spanish items in the festivals.

The growth of the Spanish music biz has been made possible by the tremendous increase of the advertising and promotion done by the record productions and, if there is something good in them, they become hits.

The most successful artists are those ones who get recordings in other languages: Raphael, Luis Gardéy (he recorded recently in Italian), the Brincos. Among others we find the Duo Dinámico. These two boys were the first case of a success with modern Spanish music six years ago with sales of 25,000 copies of records of their own compositions. It seemed that they have fallen, but now they have a new hit with a Spanish flavor, "Esos Ojitos Negros." They have also recorded some of their best songs in English and Italian and are bound to do the same in French.

It is impossible to list here the names of all the artists who are now not here. So they will be named in the Spanish columns which will run in the future, telling the most important news concerning these artists.

The increase of sales figures is wide-spread. Companies report rises from 20% to 40% over last year. The most spectacular advance is RCA. The label's sales of the first quarter of 1965 were 60% ahead of the same period last year. EMI reports a total increase of 35%. The firm's managing director, George Alexander, told us that the turnover of the company has doubled in the last four years. EMI's satisfactory year in Spain has been due to a large extent to strong repertoire, both national and international. Alexander also told us that there has been a general decline in demand for American recordings, due to the infrequency appearances of American artists in Spain compared with European artists.

That point is very interesting because this year we have received visits from the most important European artists: Aznavour, Barriere, Rita Pavone, Françoise Hardy, Petula Clark, Sylvie Vartan, the Animals, Gianni Morandi, Mina, Dallara, Nico Fidenco, Richard Anthony, the Moody Blues, etc. But no American artists of importance came to Spain for personal appearances or TV.

At the beginning of July, The Beatles came to Spain for two first-time personal appearances. They were quite successful. The press said they really liked "El Cordobés," the famous bullfighter with long hair, because they sang in the bullrings where "El Cordobés" received the frenetic applause of the masses.

Resuming our run-down, the panorama is now clear. There are big hopes for the future because of the increase of the economic level and the growth of the promotion. Consequently, the interest of people in records is bigger than ever. At the moment there is no limit to the record industry boom. We predicted this in our column two years ago.

SCANDINAVIA—The Last 6 Months

JANUARY:

The year started with plenty of problems coming up. The record manufacturers were not satisfied with their agreement with the mechanical collecting society NCB in Copenhagen and had refused to renew the contract as of January 1st. This on the other hand made it impossible for the manufacturers to make any new recordings after that date, or to import foreign records made after that date. Denmark, Sweden and Finland was involved in the conflict with Norway to follow July 1st, unless the problem was solved before that date. . . . The musicians' strike in Norway continued, stopping union members from participating in record sessions, as well as working at certain restaurants, cafés, hotels, etc. . . . Finland had their own strike, too, the motion picture artists refused to make new films unless they got some compensation if and when the film was shown in TV. That strike two years old, finally ended in the middle of 1965. . . . Sweden saw the first Gold Disk in two or three years, it went to Sven Ingvars, Philips-recording group who managed to sell a lot more than 100,000 of the "Fröken Fräken," a local tune by Thore Skogman. . . . Swedish Parliament opened its session Jan. 12th, among many other things to discuss if to drop the special luxury tax on records (20¢ on singles and 60¢ on LPs), and later decided to do so from July 1st. The tax debuted July 1, 1948. . . . Record sale in Norway was going up, reports said, particularly LPs increased their sale very much. . . . Denmark liked "I Feel Fine" with The Beatles, so did Norway and Sweden, too, when 1965 started. In Finland, Lasse Mårtensson had a local language version of "The House of the Rising Sun" at the top of the charts. . . . STIM, Swedish Performing Rights Society suggested to the government that a special law should require licenses for tape recorders as a compensation for the loss the record industry had when thousands of people taped their favorite tunes from radio programs instead of buying a record, but nothing has been decided so far. . . . And from Finland came something called Jenka, later being known as Letkis.

February:

Norway gave a Gold Disk to late Jim Reeves, this time for 50,000 sold "I Won't Forget You," and a Silver for 25,000 sold "I Guess I'm Crazy." . . . The conflict between NCB and the record manufacturers continued and no solution was in sight until one of the last days of Feb. a bulletin said that the problem has been solved and the manufacturers can start making records again after March 1. . . . The Eurovision Song Festival in Naples in March started with local song Festivals in Scandinavia. Denmark, who a year ago said it would never join those spectacle again, changed its mind and picked a song for Naples, "For din skyld" (Because of you), Finnish audiences voted for a Jenka, but TV authorities considered this not good enough and sent a slow fox trot and got plenty of complaints from everybody, particularly after that Luxembourg had been winning with a Jenka inspired tune. Norway choiced "Karussell" and Sweden sent opera singer Ingvar Wicksell to Naples with "Annorstädes vals" which furthermore was sung in English at Naples. . . . The year long strike among musicians in Norway finally came to an end. . . . "I Feel Fine" with The Beatles was still at the top in Denmark and Norway, while Finland preferred the local "Tango Pelargonía" with Kari Kuuva and Sweden had turned to "Little Honda" with The Beach Boys.

MARCH:

Finish radio listeners voted for the most popular group, and nobody was surprised to find Beatles, Rolling Stones and Shadows in the top in the order as mentioned. . . . Spader Records debuted in Sweden, but seems to have disappeared from the market almost immediately. . . . People in the trade as well as the artists left for Naples, Italy, and the Eurovision Song Contest. . . . Another newcomer in Swedish record biz, Midnight Sun Records, manufactured by Moonlight Music, debuts and get hits already from the start. . . . Swedish publisher Stig Anderson to New York and California to teach the Americans how to do the Jenka/Letkis. . . . March was a busy month in all Scandinavian recording studios, at least in the Danish and Swedish, the two countries most hurt by the copyright conflict that ended March 1st. . . . The first recordings from the Eurovision Song Contest at Naples began to appear at the charts in Scandinavia. . . . Denmark listened to a local Danish recording of the Swedish song "Fröken Fräken" with Johnny Reimar, Finland preferred "Tango Pelargonía," a local song and of course a tango, with Kari Kuuva, Norway preferred the original Swedish version of "Fröken Fräken" with Sven Ingvars, and Sweden, finally, got a topseller The Honeycombs on Pye with "That's The Way." The latter was picked from an LP and released as a single in Sweden and became a hit immediately.

APRIL:

Late Jim Reeves became the first in Norway to get a Diamond Disk. His "I Love You Because" had sold 76,000 in Norway with 3.6 million inhabitants. . . . Tamla/Motown label debuted at the Scandinavian market, handled by the EMI companies here. . . . Swedish music people began to "discover" United States as never before, judging from the many who went to New York for biz talks, Stig Anderson, Felix Stahl and Sture Borge Dahl among the publishers, Börje Ekberg and Anders Holmstedt among record people and in May-June, publisher Thore Ehrling. . . . Why do like everybody else, was the slogan of publisher Lennart Reuter-skiöld who packed his trunks and went to Moscow, Warsaw, Prague and other eastern European music centers. . . . Johnny Reimar topped the Danish charts for a second month with his "Lille fregnede Louise," which later gave him a Silver Disk and Finland continued a second month with "Tango Pelargonía" with Kari Kuuva. Sven Ingvars was at the top in Norway with "Fröken Fräken," also for the second month, while Beatles got a chance in Sweden with "Rock And Roll Music."

MAY:

I.F.P.I. had their council meeting in Stockholm May 17th to 20th with record people from among others Perú, Israel and South Africa attending. . . . Norwegian lark Wenche Myhre got a Silver Disk for "La meg vaere ung." . . . Dag Häggquist of Sonet spent most of the month traveling around Europe for business talks. . . . Lani and Pandorec, two new labels, debuted at the Swedish market. . . . The song "Cadillac," a top seller all over Scandinavia, seemed to be published by everybody, at least three publishers claims that it is their song. . . . Japan is the future country for record export, it was said by almost everybody here in Scandinavia who by now have had very good contacts with Japanese record industry. . . . LP sales is growing in Sweden, was the general opinion, but from Finland it was reported a very bad year, saleswise (see separate story in Finnish section). . . . Felix Stahl back from New York, starting American Songs AB, a new publishing house. . . . Bobby Bare getting Silver Disk in Norway for the sale of 25,000 of "500 Miles Away From Home." . . . Jørg-Fr. Ellertsen A/S in Norway celebrates its first and very successful anniversary at the Norwegian record market. . . . The Sonet companies in Scandinavia introduces Epic here. . . . "Poupée de Cire, Poupée de Son" with France Gall, Eurovision Song Contest winner in March, is topping the charts in Denmark, Beatles with "Rock And Roll Music" is what people want most in Finland and Norway, while The Hep Stars, a new Swedish group is the sensation in Sweden with "Cadillac" at the top of the charts and two more records among the top 10.

JUNE:

The Renegades, a British group recording in Finland, looks like a big export possibility for the Finns. Their records are on the charts in Finland and Germany and has been released in Benelux and Japan, too. . . . Multitone AB published the song "Invisible Tears" here under a Swedish title that means "What Kind of Weather Is This?" In July, when most Swedes had their annual vacation and raining every day, the song wouldn't need much promotion to become a real hit. . . . The invasion of artists for summer tours in Sweden had started and names as Honeycombs, Kinks, France Gall, Georgie Fame, Louis Armstrong, Alma Cogan, P. J. Proby, Downliners Sect, just to mention a few entertained the Swedish audiences, and in some cases also audiences in the other Scandinavia countries. . . . Beatles and "Rock And Roll Music" was what Danish record buyers preferred, "Pikku Nina" with Kari Kuuva made the big money in Finland, Beatles again in Norway, but here with "Ticket To Ride" and finally The Hep Stars in Sweden, now with "Farmer John."

JULY:

For some strange reason, July 1 is the day when prices, taxes, etc., are going up in Sweden. The 17 years old special luxury tax on records was dropped but another tax on practically everything sold in Sweden went up from six to around ten per cent. The publishers raised the prices on sheet music with 10¢. . . . Factories stopped and offices closed and about half the Swedish population started their annual vacation, and the annual rain period also started as usual. . . . Cupol in Sweden adds Cresendo to the other labels the company handles. . . . In Denmark an LP in the classical field outclassed all pop idols and became the number one top seller in LP market. . . . Rolling Stones gave concerts in Norway, the teenagers liked them but the newspapers said it was the most terrible they had ever seen or heard. . . . Record publishing people, unless they are away on vacation, are busy preparing the new season, supposed to start around Aug. 15th or Sept. 1st. . . . Rolling Stones was at the top of the charts in Denmark with "Heart Of Stone," Katri Helena topped the Finnish charts with the Jenka "Minnie tuuli kuljettaa," the song the Finns wanted to have sent to the Eurovision Song Contest in Naples in March, a Swedish group, The Jailbird Singers topped the Norwegian charts with "Där björkarna susa," a Swedish oldie, and Animals with "Bring It On Home To Me" was top seller in Sweden.

It has been a good year in general, at least if compared with the last two or three previous years, but perhaps one could say it has been a particularly good year for local Swedish songs and artists. Of course, many local so called Beatles-groups have tried hard to reach fame, some has been very successful, among them Tages from Gothenburg in western Sweden and The Hep Stars from Stockholm. Sven Ingvars, originating from Karlstad in western Sweden offers a more conventional type of music and a hair of so called normal length, and they have, no doubt, been the most successful of all local groups, not only in Sweden but also in Norway.

FINLAND—1965

Things are not what they used to be in Finland, according to the general opinion among the trade people. The business is facing the same crisis with dropping sales figures as Sweden among others, had two years ago.

Being a comparatively small country, just a little bigger than New Mexico, with a population of 4, 5 million inhabitants, it is known as "the land of the 1000 lakes". Language-wise the country is divided into two parts, the Finish-speaking part covering about 92% of the country, and Swedish-speaking part which covers around 7, 9%. Remaining 0, 1% are either Laplanders with their own language or Russian-speaking. The capital, Helsinki, is officially a two language city, with street names, etc. in Finish as well as Swedish.

Finnish record buyers are generally favouring Finish language recordings. A few artists, however have managed to break through the language barrier, such as Paul Anka, Beatles, Rolling Stones, and maybe five or ten more, but in most cases, a Finnish language recording of an international hit (it has happened also with some Beatles numbers) have every chance to become a bigger seller than the original version.

This might be described as the "old situation". Today, Finland seems to be more and more swifiting from an adults to a teenager market and teenagers seem to be more likely to accept a foreign language.

Another traditional view of Finland's music life is the Tango. Today perhaps a whole world is dancing Jenka or Letkis, so they do in Finland where those dances were created a couple of years ago, but any orchestra touring Finland will find it very difficult to be accepted unless they have a considerable number of tangos on their repertoire.

Finland has now got its "melody radio", which means that a channel of the Finnish Broadcasting Co. is airing pop music 24 hours a day. There is also a growing sale of tape recorders, and adding these two things together, the result is that records sales is going down. Some companies reports that the sale has dropped with as much as 33 per cent during the first six months of 1965.

However, in general most people is looking ahead at the future with plenty of confidence. From Sweden, where exactly the same happened a couple of years ago, they have learned that the "hard days" will come to an end and the sales figures will start growing bigger again, but as in most parts of business, the present counts much more than the future.

Finnish music people are likely to get at least some compensation for the loss at the home market from a certain income from the international market. With Letkis and Jenka being very popular in great parts of the world today, a number of Finnish recordings of this dance is finding their ways to abroad. Only a few years ago, when Finnish record production was almost 100 per cent in Finnish language, Finnish records or songs had small chances to international fame, today more and more pop records are done in English by Finnish artists, and they are not done for home consumption only.

1965 has been a very good year for Swedish artists at the Norwegian market. Sven Ingvars, a Philips recording group from western Sweden, topped the charts in March and April with their Swedish copyright "Fröken Fräken," and went high in May with another Swedish oldie, "Det var i vår ungdoms fagreste vår." They sold well enough to get one or two Silver Disks for the sale of 25,000 records. In June, another Swedish group, Metronome recording The Jailbird Singers (the group was founded in a Swedish jail of some prisoners who hoped to make a career after their release, but the group was dissolved when the leader died of cancer in beginning of 1965) entered the charts with the Swedish oldie "Där björkarna susa," and topped the charts in July. In the middle of July, another Swedish group, The Hep Stars, recording for the Olga label, topped the charts with their recording of "Cadillac."

The Beatles continued to do excellent business in Norway also in 1965, but they were offered very strong competition from late Jim Reeves, who has sold better in Norway than in any other country of the world, including United States, when considering the number of records sold and the population of Norway.

FINLAND'S BEST SELLERS

Finland has been and still is one of those countries where the local language is the best guarantee for a hit. There are, of course, exceptions, like Beatles, etc., but from time to time also a local Finnish-language version of a Beatles hit record has offered great competition to the British idols.

GERMANY

MEXICO

You could never tell that Germany is "beat" crazy by checking out the top 10 charts. 9 of the 12 songs listed (2 records are double sided hits) are German compositions and the other 2 include a soft ballad instrumental and a shuffle beat ballad. Breaking down the top 10 is an easy thing. "Il Silenzio" by Nini Rosso is a slow moving instrumental ballad making chart headings all over Europe. "Mit 17" from Peggy March is a slow ballad which won the German Song Festival. "I Could Easily Fall In Love With You" in German by Cliff Richard reminds one of "Lucky Lips" of a few seasons ago, while "Darling Goodnight" is a western ballad. "The 5th Wheel On The Wagon" by Siw Malmkvist is a sprightly happy tune but far from beat music. "The Birds And The Bees" b/w "Have You Forgotten Everything" is a combination slow beat and ballad recording by teener Drafi Deutscher which comes closest to the beat sound. Another happy festival number "Don't Talk About It" by Norwegian Wencke Myhre is also far from the beat type as is "Knives, Forks, etc." by Vicky. The next tunes, "Blond Hair" and "A Sparrow" by Dorte, are also happy, festival type tunes, while "Santo Domingo" is a slow ballad written especially for Wanda Jackson. 6 of the top 10 are female artists with only one, Vicky, coming from Germany, and she's the daughter of Greek artist Leo Leandros. Malmkvist is from Sweden, Dorte from Holland, Peggy March from the U.S., as is Wanda Jackson, and Wencke Myhre, as we mentioned, from Norway. 3 male artists, Cliff Richard with 2 German stars, Ronny and Drafi, and an Italian trumpet star, Nini Rosso, finish off the top 10. The strange reason for the popularity of beat music, but the lack of placement in the top 10 is that the top 10 is basically calculated from juke box sales which do not reflect the heavy beat trend prevalent in the big cities of Germany. Lack of knowledge of the English language combined with lack of knowledge of new dances and the basic old fashioned tastes of the country people lead to strong sales of German language material of a non-beat nature. However, the Beatles, Rolling Stones, Kinks, etc. continue to rack up impressive sales figures and a basically good overall sales figure on each and every release, to place this type of music among the most popular in the country. So, don't let the charts fool you. Beat is here to stay.

Polydor reports that Peter Alexander is heading for an American tour and film. Other Polydor stars Lolita, Martin Lauer and Ivo Robic are also headed for the U.S. and Canada between Sept. 18 and Oct. 10.

Elite Special had a visit from Ernest Pollak from Erpol Music in Montreal, who represents the label in Canada, and W. Brandsteder and Mr. Beutler of Inelco Holland, who represents Elite Special there. The label has released a new single, "Farewell My Dear," by Toni Sandler of Austria, now performing in N.Y., and "Serenade For My Love," with the Heinz Kiessling Orchestra.

Rolf Budde reports that the German song "Summerwind," has three top notch hit recordings, by Perry Como, Roger Williams and Wayne Newton, and is moving swiftly in the Cash Box hit charts. On the local picture, Budde is getting action on "Mr. Tambourine Man," with a top notch German waxing also in the offing. The new Beatles hit, "Help," has also been released here, and the new picture by the same name is due soon. His promotion man, Peter Rebhuhn, is now on the road pushing the new summer hits.

Hans Gerig is very proud that the top 3 hits listed in the teen magazine, Bravo, all come from his publishing company, including "Rock and Roll Music" from the Beatles, "The Last Time" from the Rolling Stones and "Mit 17 Hat Man Noch Traeume" from Peggy March. The Peggy March smash hit is in every hit parade in Germany, and now holds down the number 2 slot in the Cash Box Germany top 10.

D.G.G. will open the fall season with the new Masterworks, in De Luxe Editions series. The 3 packages, each containing 8 LP's, will be priced at $29.50 for the Chopin package, the Schubert chamber music package will retail at $32.00 and a new complete album of "The Music Flute" from Mozart will retail at $12.50. The normal price for the packages here would be $46.00, $49.00 and $18.75 respectively. The low price is due to the tremendous advance orders from the 14 European countries where the packages are being released simultaneously. A special sample LP of music from Chopin and Schubert with works not contained in the above mentioned packages, is being offered for $1.25 retail to awake interest in the series.

Teldec announced that 3 of the top jazz prizes from the German Jazz Federation have been awarded to the firm's product, including "Best Release"—Coleman Hawkins, with old and more recent recordings in his "Body And Soul" album, "Best Big Band Swing LP"—Duke Ellington's jazz version of "Mary Poppins" on Reprise, and "Top Gospel Recording" went to the LP, "The Davis Sisters Sing."

CBS is getting great action on its LP "Hits Of The World," including top U.S. and German, as well as Italian recordings of stars like Bobby Solo, Ray Conniff, The Supremes and many others.

Klaus Teubig of Edition Esplanade wrote to tell us that the firm has "hot" summer days with top new recordings by Freddy, Lolita, Jo Roland and Renate & Werner Leismann. The firm has also issued 2 new lyric books from Freddy tunes which are racking up top sales.

Philips Records is giving top promotion to Horst Jankowski with his new waxing which is beginning to move in the U.S. The firm also reports that the Blue Diamonds received a Gold record in Spain for their waxing of "Ramona." Philips has taken over distribution of the Amadeo label for Germany. The repertoire includes top classical works and the Vanguard folk catalog. The Austrian firm formerly distributed themselves, but will now be exclusively handled by the Philips distribution. That's it for this week in Germany.

The musicians union is still not getting along with the record manufacturers here and that is the problem because nobody has recorded for a month. It seems that this week everything will be in order again and that new record production will begin immediately.

From Spain we have received wonderful news about the Mexican duet Los Yorsys, who are having a complete success in their performances at Florida Park and on TV. Los Yorsys will also prepare one or more pictures and it seems that they will remain a long time in that country. Hispa Vox label is interested in cutting new Yorsys records with the permission of Musart, the Mexican label on which this duet is exclusive.

We also have received post cards from Angélica María and Manolo Muñoz, two other Mexican artists who are working in that country and who as a coincidence are also from the Musart artistic catalogue.

A border group commanded by Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs are hitting strong in town with his MGM hit "Woolly Bully," which is occupying one of the high places on the Mexican charts.

Finally after a long time, Enrique Guzmán performed on a radio station and in a TV musical series. Enrique announced his new album on CBS which is supposed to appear on the market in a few days. Enrique is preparing special songs written for him to make his debut singing in English for Columbia Records in the United States.

Gamma Records released two of the newest albums recorded by Frank Sinatra on Reprise. The first one is "Sinatra-Basie" Vol. II. The second is "Softly As I Love You." There are a lot of new releases on Reprise and Warner Bros. which we will announce in the next column.

Capitol de México, S.A. announces new changes in its executive staff: as promotion and advertising manager is Rene Flores and in the A&R department is Rafael de Paz, Sergio Guerrero and Nacho Méndez. By the first of the month will appear the first releases on this label.

Sergio Corona, Marco Antonio Muñoz, Daniel Riobobos and Antonio Prieto will fly shortly to Spain where all of them have good contracts to perform. And from Spain Silvia Pinal recently arrived here.

Alberto de Luque, an artist from Uruguay and who has spent most of his life in Europe, especially in Germany, is now in México performing in a theater and on TV. Dusa released on the Polydor label his latest album on which he includes songs like "Tabu," "Una Noche Así," "Cielo Rojo," "Mexico," "Martha," "Tokyo Blues," "He Sabido Que Te Amaba" and others.

RCA Victor, which some time ago enlarged its studio "A", now has a new one named "B". The company said that in no less than three weeks they will be able to do some new recording. If the musicians strike is finished before, RCA will have to record in other record companies so they won't lose any time.

American star Frankie Avalon is now in México promoting his picture which appears in the American International movie festival and at the same time is appearing in some TV shows participating in interviews.

Under the Eco label appeared an album recorded by South American vocal group Los 4 Brillantes who sing in this album "Te dejé Sin Pensar," "Quiero Tomar Tu Mano," "Vestida De Novia," "Tu Nos Estás," "Dame Pronto Una Oportunidad," "Vuelve A Mi Barquita," "Nada Mas Un Recuerdo," "Una Sola Vez," "Quiero Saber Por Que" and "La Bamba." These recordings were made in Peru.

Lorenza Lori, the beautiful Italian blonde, cut at Peerless Records on e.p. with the songs like "Señor, Señor," "El Futbol," "De Rodillas A Ti," etc. . . . Lorenza will settle in Mexico.

Brenda In Japan

During her recent tour of Japan, Brenda Lee took the occasion to record a pair of sides in Japanese for Polydor. Shown at the session, the lark belts away at "Walk Away" and "Beautiful Dreamer" for the division of Decca Records. Her latest hit in the United States is "Too Many Rivers," currently in the number 27 slot.

CANADA

Last week we had the pleasure of having a chat with Juan Truden and Douglas Taylor, CBS' toppers just returning from the Columbia Miami Convention. Both reported being happy with the results of the gathering and having several new artists who could be promoted in Argentina, along with other already established names who will receive additional push from now on. Columbia's "Grow Power" policy, as it applies to this market, will be explained to dealers, following CBS' idea of building one image throughout the world.

As it was reported last year, the next meeting of the Latin American Federation of Record Producers will take place at the beginning of Oct. in Buenos Aires. Since the last gathering was a complete success, it is expected that this one will also serve to unify policies of record companies in all Latin American countries regarding common problems. It is also expected that outside record producers will also be present, since the presence of the most important diskeries at the same time will also mean big business for them.

Plenty of work at Julio Korn with the inking of "Quello Sbagliatto," the Bobby Solo "Un Disco per L'Estate" chartbuster. The pubbery has already prepared Spanish lyrics to be used by Ricardo Rey (Disc Jockey) for his recording. On the other hand, CBS will market the original Solo recording, which is expected to follow the success of his previous renderings. Other interesting JK items are "La Nuit," the Adamo tune which will be cut by Juan Ramon (RCA) and Ricardo Rey (Disc Jockey), while Odeon prepares the release of the original.

A big cash flow is expected at Odeon with the first album by the Shakers, the first local teen group to hit the market in some time. The album contains their best singles, like "Rompan Todo" and "Searchin'," coupled with their own tunes, like "Dance Shake, Baby," "Don't Ask Me Love" and others. There is also a new double 33 by Claudia, and an interesting album recorded by Dorita and Pepe, British artists who visited this country some time ago.

Music Hall is also seeking the jackpot, with a two-record set in this case. It is a new release under the "Difusion Musical" series, with the well remembered John Hammond Carnegie Hall Concert, "Spirituals To Swing." The box is priced at 890 pesos ($5.20) while regular price should be around 1500 pesos ($8.70). Since there is a lack of such recordings on the market, it may well be imagined that sales figures will be good. Other news concerns Compact 33's by Rodolfo Zapata and folk group Los Chanas, and, of course, the new "Barbaro" promotional album. Luis Calvo, the diskery's VP, has recently held chats with Fermata Publisher's Mauricio Brenner, from which a tight cooperation between both organizations will result, to bring prompter recordings of international and local tunes.

RCA is working hard on the promotion of Uruguayan group Los Iracundos, who have done several recordings during the past weeks, including hit tunes like "Se Piangi, Se Ridi" and standards like "The Man with the Golden Arm." The new single by Palito Ortega, "Cancion del Jacaranda" and "Señor Apache," is selling well, bringing the artist once more to the charts, where he has been for the past 24 months. This single is intended to reach the kiddie market, with tunes penned by the same Ortega and Maria Elena Walsh.

Phonogram's Promotion chief, Landajo, is very happy with the success of France Gall's "Poupee de Cire, Poupee de Son," which, after a strong air play campaign, has been selling very well, and is already in the charts. Phonogram now has a strong promo organization and plans to battle hard in the singles field. From the same diskery comes an EP by Brazilian group Los Cariocas.

Hugo Celano of Sprint Music infos that his company is representing the rights of "E Innamorato Poverissimo," written by Paolo Mosca, and "Yo Soy Joven," whose English version has been recorded by Leslie Gore. The same tune, in Italian, has been cut by Isabella Gianetti and several local versions are expected soon.

Jose Bragato of Ala-Nicky sends word about an EP by Leo Lipesker's orchestra, to be released soon. There is also another one, by the same musician and Pocho Gatti, tagged "Milongas." Luis Ordoñez' first waxings for this label are also due.

More about CBS: the diskery will release a single with "Coplas del Payador Perseguido," written by Yupanqui and cut by Jorge Cafrune, one of the top folk artists of the moment. Cafrune has just finished the recording of his fourth album.

News from Fermata: Claudio (Odeon Pops) has recorded the Spanish version of "Crying in the Chapel;" Atilio Marinelli, for the same label, has "Huyo de Ti," while Los Cinco Latinos (Music Hall) have coupled "Que C'est Triste Venise" to "Momele." Atilio Cabestri, also for MH, will cut "Sangre Ecuatoriana" and "El Sombrero," and Siro San Roman, Solo Nata Per Te." Producciones Fermata is releasing an album tagged "Bossa En el Paramount" and singles by Luigi Tenco ("Tu no has Entendido Nada" and "Balada del Amor") and Elly Nery ("Que C'est Triste Venise" and "En Casa de Irene")

Ricardo Castelblanco of Edami infos hard work on "Cumbia Que Vas de Ronda," cut by Niko Estrada (Odeon). Los Martinicos (Music Hall), Los Tres Trombones (RCA) and Mexican star Carmen Rivero (CBS). The Cuarteto Imperial (CBS) has cut "No Me Olvides Nunca," written by Mexican composer Federico Baena, who won the First Prize at the 1962 Mexican Song Fest with "Ay Cariño."

Argentine Diskery Convention

Jack London has switched to RCA Victor in Canada. His first pairing for the label is "Don't Ever Change" b/w "Misery And Me". The postal strike here has played havoc with record releases. Arc didn't take any chance of the strike fouling up their distribution on Terry Black's revival of the Sam Cooke's whilebacker, "Only Sixteen". The record was air-expressed to key jocks by Arc's Bill Gilliland. He reports that initial reaction across Canada is fabulous. Moreover big things are expected stateside as a result of the artist's "Shindig" P.A.'s. Corrine Burke at Phonodisc in Winnipeg has a whole raft of red hot singles. "The Same Old Song" by the Four Tops, the latest outings by the Supremes and James Brown are big air action singles in Winnipeg, and at the Canadian Lakehead, with sure sales as soon as the firm can get product on the market. Now that the strike is over, for the most part, dealers are readying for concentrated action on all of these red hot Phonodisc items that Corrine has happening. Ray Nickel reports that recent P.A.'s in Saskatoon have spotlighted Tom Northcott and the Vancouver Playboys, and on another occasion, Buddy Knox. In so far as big records are concerned, Ray reports that the latest item by David Clayton Thomas, "Take Me Back" has been a big winner on the CKOM battle. Danny Roman reports that the chanter and the Shays will be heading into New York's Peppermint Lounge in September. Both the Thomas group and the Paupers have been appearing regularly at the C.N.E.'s "Under 21 Club" sponsored by a leading soft drink firm. The Paupers also were set for a P.A. at the Mariposa Folk Festival. Carl C. Schmidt, Fonorama topper, drops a line from New York. He has just completed a session there with Michel and the French Canadiens for his Danco Label. He has high hopes for the outing. Morty Wax indicates that good action can be expected on a Sparton outing in Canada by Con Pierson called, "Somewhere Down The Line". It originates with Ford Records in the U.S. Carl Schmidt also notes that he's in search of a good, girl vocal group. He can guarantee year round work, plus a recording contract for the successful group. Top rated, teen-type, deejay Bob Gibbons exits CHSJ, St. John to assume new duties at CJCA, Edmonton. Andy Arnott is new host of the all night show on Lakehead's CKPR.

Note: Anyone headed for sunny California anytime between Sept. 20th, '65, and January 4, 1966. Walter E. Hurst teacher of a course entitled, "The Music Industry—Its Structure and Economy," at the University of California at Los Angeles, has expressed hope in a letter to this column that some representative of the music industry in Canada who may happen to be in the vicinity during the period mentioned would address his class on the subject of the music industry in Canada. The students taking this extension course at U.C.L.A. learn about the practical aspects of music publishing, record production and distribution, and related fields. Hurst may be contacted by mail at 6365 Selma Avenue, Hollywood 28, California, Hollywood 9 7200. Reg Ayres reports from Winnipeg that Chad Allan and the Expressions were in their hometown for a few fleeting hours to do a P.A., then they went on to Edmonton, as they continued their tour of the U.S. Reg indicates that a follow up single to "Tossin' And Turnin'" will be released shortly. Reg reports that "You Were On My Mind" by We Five is far and away his best selling single. Big air play action in Winnipeg, the Canadian Lakehead and most other centres in his territory is responsible for the good quality outing doing so well. Reg points out that fan clubs for Herman's Hermits can contact area headquarters; Pres. Margie Ross, 860 Garwood Ave., Winnipeg, 9, and for Chad Allan and The Expressions—Pres. Jane Kimak, 513 Newman St., Winnipeg 10. Al Mair has rave notices for the new Leroy Van Dyke single, his debut on Warner Bros. "My Baby Digs Slot Car Races" by the Revells has been lifted from a Reprise album and released in Canada only as a single. It follows concentrated action on the item after battle exposure on CHUM, Toronto. It now appears as if "Liar Liar" by the Castaways on Apex will finally break the chart barrier. It's set to appear on the Aug. 14 edition of the "Fab '58" at Lakehead's CKPR, following big action in the neighbouring Duluth, Minneapolis areas.

COIN MACHINE and VENDING

DIRECTORY

1965-1966

23rd Anniversary Edition

from the desk of...

OF

August 14, 1965

Dear Friends:

With the publication of our 23rd Annual Coin Machine & Vending Directory, it is gratifying to know that the past twelve months have seen the attainment of industry goals by the people who comprise this fascinating industry.

Recording the events of our fiscal year has, for the most part, always been an exhilarating experience. Oftentimes, it has occurred to us that the ingenuity which generates much of the new innovation could only have emanated from the minds of coin machine and vending industry people.

During the past twelve months this industry has witnessed the introduction of radically new merchandising techniques in music and equally radically new proposals for solving a silver-coinage dilemma.

Legislators have ruled favorably on vital amusement machine issues in even the largest State, while other minds telescoped the unique success of a billiard game to greater heights in the home field. Even the audio-visual concept of coin-operated entertainment, launched three years ago, continues to hold interesting potential for the more persistent individuals who see the germ of further innovation on a basic idea.

Foresight and versatility are equally admirable characteristics of people in this coin-operated field. Diversification of music and amusement operators into vending, and the move into music and amusement by vending firms is ample proof of the ability of operators to act as modern businessmen. This trend continues and will become more established as present routes develop.

Versatile legal instruments such as installation agreements have shored up frailties in operator-location relationships. Long sought after solutions to problems as severe as a shortage of technicians came to light as operator groups planned programs in conjunction with city officials.

There are more local Associations serving operators than ever before. The nation's Capitol and dozens of State legislatures now recognize the legitimacy of an industry whose voice was not always heard. Much has been accomplished by many during the last twelve months and the outlook is clear and sure.

Each Cash Box Directory has reflected the Companies and the Products which are the tools of an industry's personnel. We present this 23rd Directory as yet another tool to be used by those who seek continued success, and we thank the members of the coin machine and vending industry around the world for making such a Directory possible.

ANALYSIS OF THE ANNUAL COIN MACHINE & VENDING EXPORT VOLUME REPORT 1964

GENERAL

The four quarterly export report finals for phonos, amusement and vending, if placed on a graph chart, would read like an electronic ping-pong match. Starting with the first three months, smiles broadened as the volume reached almost $13 million. The second quarter straightened the smiles somewhat when just over $12 million was recorded. But the third quarter, the one which reflected the straight-jacket credit conditions of France, the changing scene in Belgium, and other inequitable rulings, all of which limited export shipments, didn't even touch the $9 million mark. By the year's end, the final quarter, which brought the record $44 million annual figure into view, sales had climbed back to $10.4 million. Brightest spot on the globe was Japan, which continues to shine. What the future will bring in France—and Italy, where as of March 25th no equipment was permitted—only time will tell. Here's the way the "types" of equipment broke down.

PHONOGRAPHS

Off $8 million in world total volume, music picked up a half million dollars in North America thanks to Canada's drive and development. So. America managed to even-off in the face of trouble in Argentina. Peru did nicely in units but dollar volume remained constant. Europe dipped $2 million largely because of Belgium and Switzerland where it is reported European made juke boxes which sell for around $750 in domestic currency are making headway. The UK and West Germany, ever-true to the import cause, took more equipment than ever. Japan spoke for Asia with a resounding $1.7 million volume and the boom is not near its peak, wherever the peak may be. Chicago, Grand Rapids and Tonawanda factories are enjoying a break-out in Japan, previously reported in a Cash Box editorial, and on-the-scene exporters such as R. H. Belam, look for boom-markets to continue here not only in music but games as well. Several of the new equipment distribs in Japan are also unusually large operators. The stage is set for continued expansion here. In Africa, music is shipped mostly to Kenya, and from there to outlying territories. But the figure is rather constant.

AMUSEMENTS

Imagine what the Amusements total would be if it were not for the problems in Europe. With a six-month flood of equipment going into France, for instance, the total figure would have been astronomical had it not been for restrictions imposed by the Government. Belgium can't make up its mind over bingos and pinball problems and Italy has completely rejected all amusements, even in clubs (March 25th notice). Italy registered almost $2 million before the close-down. Switzerland fell off here too, with a $300,000 drop for the year. England, bless her heart, bought almost $4 million in amusements and games. The 15% import tax didn't mean a thing when it was passed before the year's end, and the 5% relaxing of this tariff bringing it to 10% won't mean anything either. Europe picked up $2 1/2 million against '63 in spite of the legislative and credit restrictions. Japan bought 5,383 amusement machines in 1964. Some bright prospect! Kuwait continued to increase volume and the Philippines showed encouraging signs. Australia's economy and various rulings held the volume to $200,000 but it was all welcome.

In African territories, Malagas led a group of one dozen countries, most of which represent good potential for the long-term pull.

By New Year's Eve 1964 the export market bought more than $24 million in Amusements, more than half of the action. In spite of reported European-made pinball games and such, America was still taking more than a lion's share of amusements business through exports.

VENDING

This slow-growth area, for American-made equipment, picked up more than 25% with a $1 million gain in '64. As usual, this figure represents only equipment (new and used) shipped from U.S. ports. The factories with European plants turning out machines for domestic use over there, would of course fatten this figure considerably.

Canada takes almost all of the No. American figure. So. America can't handle much of a business at this moment. Most of the gain was made in Europe where Spain led the rest, all of whom were evenly spread about neck and neck as far as total figures are concerned. Sweden and the UK are possible exceptions showing individual gains above the average. Japan dropped in vending, possibly because of increased factory production in the homeland. Africa's Un. of South Africa spurted for a $53 thousand volume, after buying only 25 vendors in the whole of 1963.

THE REPORT FROM GREAT BRITAIN:

Juke Box Installations Off 7%; Collections Drop 12%; Competition From Other Media Keen

LILLIAN SHAW
HONORARY SECRETARY P.O.A.

Not a landslide but a sizeable drop is the story of G.B.'s jukebox trading throughout this period. New installations down 7 per cent; cash takings per box down 12 per cent. Reasons numerous, but perhaps the chief one is increased competition not only among operators but in the music business generally. Up to this year, sound and vision broadcasting has been more or less a state monopoly, which granted a few—very few—licenses to selected operators. Recently, however, pirate broadcasting stations have ventured forth with programmes going out on channels at present unused. These broadcasts work the clock round by means of three ships anchored off the coast line, with the centre vessel equipped with a 50 k.w. transmitter. Booster ships are positioned by way of re-inforcement, and customers, by purchasing at trifling cost a simple tuning coil, get a 24-hour service of non-stop music. And that is 'some competition.'

Another reason for the decline is loss of appeal now being widely experienced by pop music which, of course, claims a star position in most jukebox programmes. Though the music industry as a whole is doing quite nicely, pop groups are folding overnight. The extraordinary thing about this factor is that tickets to pop concerts not only sell out but often go to a premium, while live performance bookings for top turns stretch here and there for months—one star of my acquaintance is actually turning down dates for two years ahead—but the graph is falling fast and the pirates are scooping the business. An additional nail in the coffin, which some experts describe as actually the real problem, is the complete absence of a genuine trade wind. No one in this Island is able to discover what the public wants. Groups are said to be out of favour: yet 24 of the pop fifty are currently groups, while many soloists carry group backing. These contradictions fog the issue; what is clearly wanted is a lead. There has been no outstanding trend since Elvis Presley's rock 'n roll. Tom Sloan, head of B.B.C. entertainment sector says of pop music programmes: "None of these shows give me any personal satisfaction. I am bored to death with most of the so-called talent in the pop music field at this moment. What I object to is the standard displayed, and what the public are apparently willing to accept. I have no idea how long this acceptance will last, but there is no doubt that the thousand and one beat groups in Great Britain are being reduced in numbers, for the simple reason that many of them are too bad to earn a living, and they are going back to what they did before."

Grading reasons for recession is never an easy task. A very old hand confidently asserts that the phenomenal success of the 'stately home' trade, which has pitchforked some thousand ancient and historic houses into show places, has resulted in coin going into individual instead of into phonograph slots. True, jukeboxes are installed in many of these show places, but there is so much to allure normal humanity that music becomes merely one of a galaxy of attractions. Incidentally, operators have a unique advantage in that a Government subsidy of 175,000 dollars a year is granted on the ground of maintaining national relics, and should an operator have a particularly bad year through no fault of his own, he has only to apply for special aid and has an odds-on chance of getting it. Attractions offered by this outstanding branch of the British entertainment industry include water skiing, private zoos, miniature railways, slot-vision, phonographs and motorcycle races. Exhibitions of and competitions in old 'vintage' cars are a prominent feature of the side-lines. The 650,000th visitor has already passed through the turnstiles at Berkeley Castle, and this is by no means one of the leading sites. Customers staying for bed and breakfast, including dinner with a titled proprietor, are charged around 120 dollars.

Personally, if I am asked for an opinion on the trade drop, the answer is that a large part of the public's spending money which would normally be slotted by jukeboxes is at present being channelled through the media of gaming units. These jobs have only recently received official, if limited, sanction in public places. The sudden freedom of restraint encourages excess, a factor which may, in the long term, be the undoing of the proposition.

- ★ Pistols Mounted on Bushings to Prevent Spillage of Water.
- ★ Minimum Dimension:
Height — 1.03 meters — Length — 1.20 meters, and width 0.70 meters.

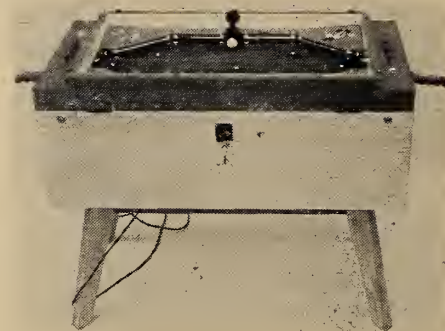

BALL POLO — TWO-PLAYERS

FEATURES:

- ★ When the token is inserted in the slot, the balls are released.
- ★ The game is played between two players and it is started by placing the first ball in center field.
- ★ By manipulating the two opposite handles in the shape of a pistol, situated at both ends of the field, the two players hurl the iron balls to oppose the enemy.
- ★ try of the plastic ball into the proper net. The greater number of nets wins the game.
- ★ The game time is 5 minutes, and when this time span is up the balls are once again blocked inside the table proper.
- ★ The game is played skill against skill and the winner is the party with the higher skill, so that a greater number of nets is scored to win.

*DIMENSIONS: Height 100 cm Width 58 cm
 Length 110 cm Weight 50 kg

GALLOPING HORSE

Fitted to perform at all current supply ratings and provided with a timer, regulating the time of play, which is 6 minutes. The horse is a varnished duraluminum casting with a cellulose base varnish so that no water damage will occur.

LEATHER AND SKIN FINISH.

GRAND PRIX II
Model 426 160-selections
Stereo-monaural 45-33 rpm

YEARS of HAPPINESS and SUCCESS THROUGH MUTUAL COOPERATION!

It has been approximately 30 years since Rock-Ola began producing phonographs at the famous address in Chicago—800 North Kedzie Avenue—an international landmark today. It is more than 30 years ago since the mutually successful and very pleasant relationship started between NOVA APPARATE and ROCK-OLA MANUFACTURING CORPORATION.

We are happy to congratulate Mr. David C. Rockola and the entire Rock-Ola organization on 30 wonderful years in business.

Unprecedented sales results on Rock-Ola products throughout Europe support the wisdom in joint planning between U.S. manufacturer and European distributor. The "Grand Prix II," "Starlet," "Princess Royal" and "Wall Phonograph" models are the stars of this gala anniversary year. This program meets the most stringent requirements and the most discerning tastes.

We shall continue to provide the trade with surprises and innovations in coin-operated equipment through the years with Rock-Ola products now on the drawing boards. Rock-Ola phonographs excel in full dimensional tone reproduction, technical perfection, and beautiful styling.

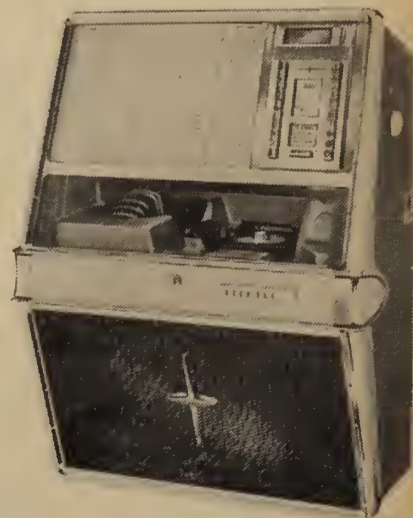

Rock-Ola phonographs means better phonographs—better music! That's what our customers want . . . that is what NOVA APPARATE and ROCK-OLA will continue to give them!

FISCHER . . . THE BEAUTIFUL TABLES with the big, profitable difference in performance

the EMPRESS series
The ultimate in coin-op billiards equipment.
Luxuriously styled . . . precision crafted . . . designed to give years of use.

Cue ball at opposite end of table from coin-op mechanism, new heavy die-cast chrome-plated corner sections, bolt down top frame, all metal non-clog open center runways, inlaid diamond markers on burnproof top rail, heavy die-cast leg levelers and chrome-plated shields, covering of the very finest All Wool felt.

Pat. Pending.

Provides faster ball action, faster easier set-up, quicker easier cushion replacement.

12 unit-lock clamps replace more than 50 wood screws . . . Wedge-lock locks cushions, top rail, playfield and frame together in a single, perfectly fitted rigid unit.

- Precision ground marble playfield, guaranteed not to warp for life of table (also available, slate playfield).

- 101" or 92" in Walnut-grained formica or mahogany-look Duran Clad-on.

SEGA ENTERPRISES FORMED IN TOKYO

TOKYO—A merger was announced last week between two major leisure recreational equipment industry firms, Nippon Goraku Bussan and Rosen Enterprises Ltd. The name of the company was changed on July 15th to "Sega Enterprises Ltd." the date the merger was officially registered. Richard Stewart, former president of Nippon Goraku Bussan was appointed Chairman of the Board.

David Rosen, former President of Rosen Enterprises Ltd., not to be confused with David Rosen of Philadelphia, was appointed Co-Representative Director as was Mr. Scott F. Dotterer, who was Managing Director of Nippon Goraku Bussan K.K. Both of the companies forming Sega Enterprises Ltd. have shown extremely rapid growth rate over the past several years. Their combined annual sales before the merger amounted to $8,000,000 annually with a net profit of over $1,000,000. It is expected that sales and profits will rise appreciably as a result of the better utilization of management personnel and service facilities.

Sega Enterprises will continue to expand in the fields the merged partners pioneered in Japan—the import-export, manufacture, sale and operation of amusement machines, jukeboxes, recreational equipment, model car racing circuits, and other indoor equipment.

Operating jukeboxes and amusement machines in over 2,500 different locations, the company is probably one of the world's largest in the coin operated amusement and jukebox field. In operation and sales the company controls well over 50% of the market. Present plans call for a growth rate of 20% annually. Sega also manufactures for export several different models of coin operated machines thereby contributing to Japan's foreign exchange earnings.

The former Rosen Enterprises pioneered the operation of game centers and indoor recreational centers in Japan. Working very closely with movie companies and utilizing available space they were able to open game centers in the heart of the amusement districts of the various cities in Japan. Pioneering model car racing in Japan, Rosen Enterprises is responsible for over 50% of the existing centers now operating, officials of the firm contend.

Expansion plans are underway to expand the plant and office site which is presently 100,000 sq. ft. located at the entrance of the Tokyo Haneda Airport highway.

OPERATOR'S DREAM COME TRUE

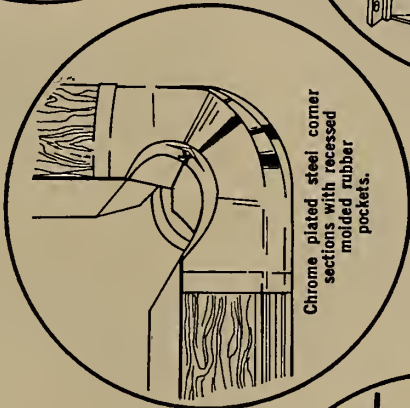

Cushion moldings are held to top frame by machine screws. No more stripped wood or broken screws. (Spin tight provided with each table). Aluminum molding between cabinet and top frame hides all screws.

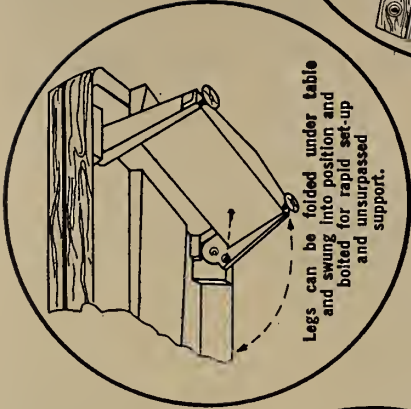

Unique all new runway system (Pat. Pend.) is Rapid, Silent and Positively Jam-proof.

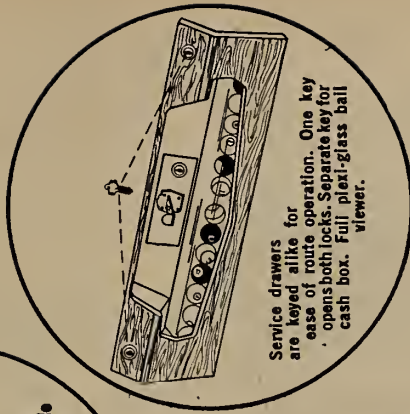

Main runway of table slides out for access to inside of table. Never again will you have to remove the slate to service or clean the inside of the table.

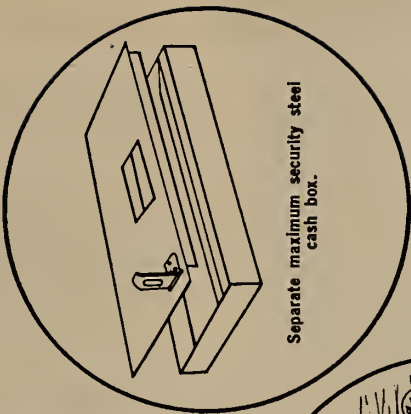

Chrome plated steel corner sections with recessed molded rubber pockets.

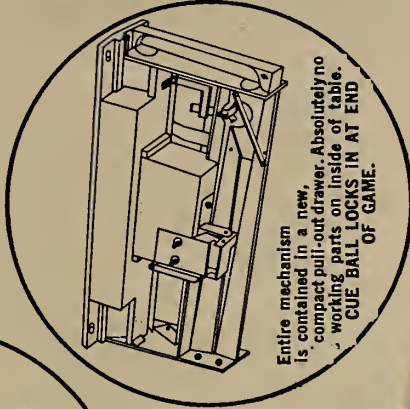

Legs can be folded under table and swung into position and bolted for rapid set-up and unsurpassed support.

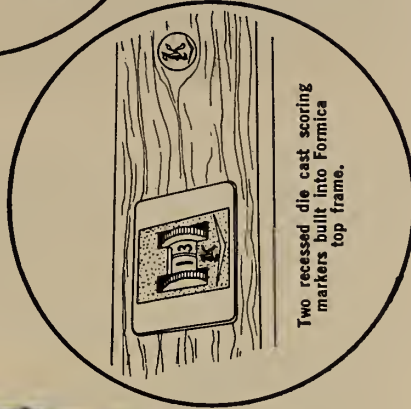

Service drawers are keyed alike for ease of route operation. One key opens both locks. Separate key for cash box. Full plexi-glass ball viewer.

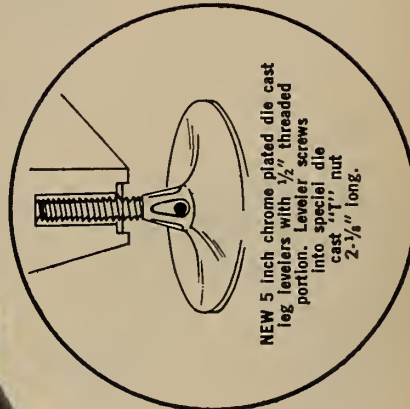

Separate maximum security steel cash box.

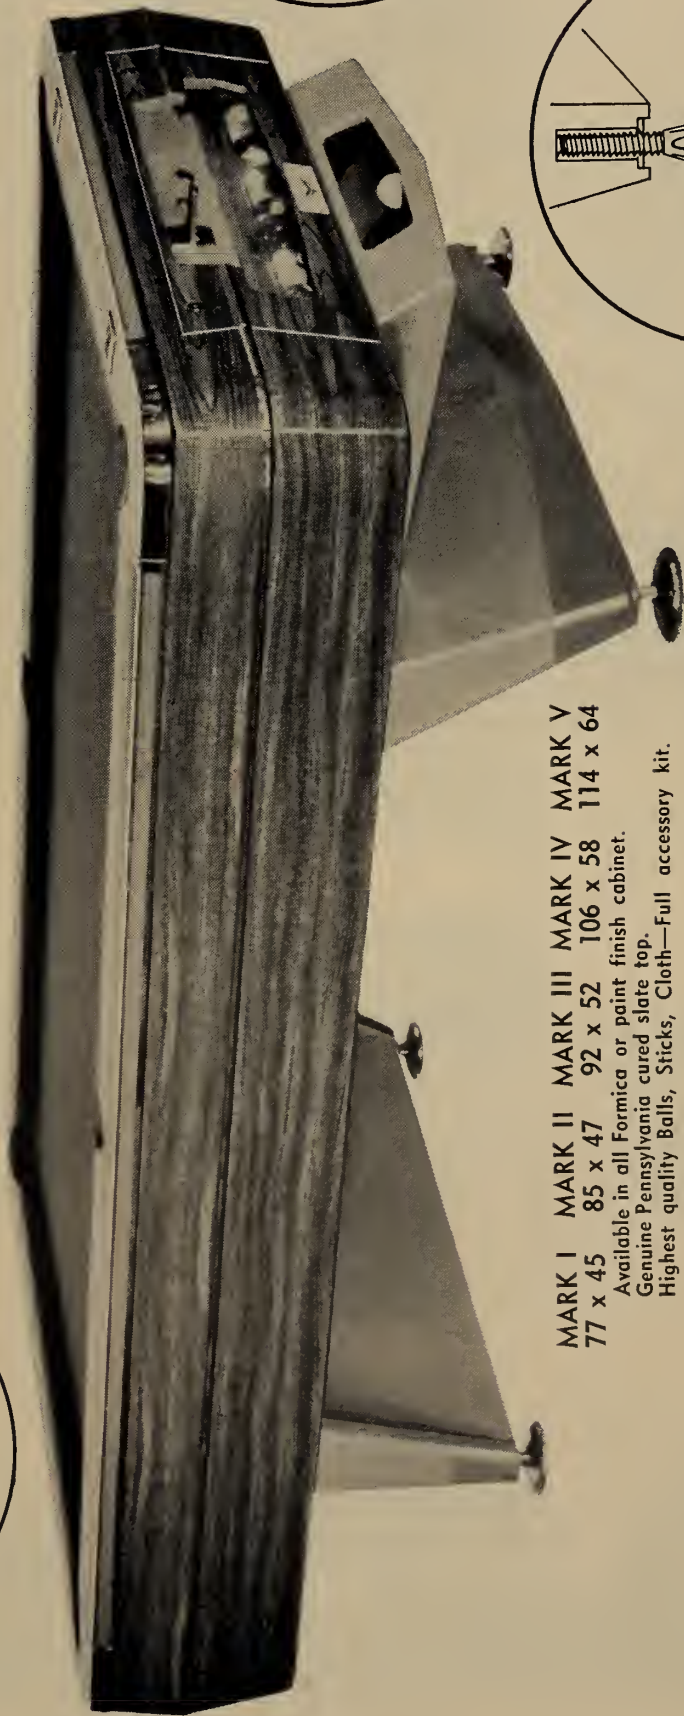

Entire mechanism is contained in a new compact pull-out drawer. Absolutely no working parts on inside of table. CUE BALL LOCKS IN AT END OF GAME.

Two recessed die cast scoring markers built into Formica top frame.

NEW 5 inch chrome plated die cast leg levelers with 1/2" threaded portion. Leveler screws into special die cast "T" nut 2-3/8" long.

MARK I 77 x 45 MARK II 85 x 47 MARK III 92 x 52 MARK IV 106 x 58 MARK V 114 x 64

100% EARNING ENERGY!

Light Targets on right or left side of Playfield by skill-shot across one of the four Side-Selector Top Rollovers, then shoot to build up maximum scores on selected side before hitting Change-Targets Bumper which lights Targets on opposite side. Back-and-forth action between twin sides of playfield is as wildly exciting, suspense-packed and loaded with surprises as a three ring circus, keeps players coming back for long sessions of repeat play.

27 ways to build high scores plus free balls

Bally 50/50, from Top Rollovers to Out-Hole, is designed to insure extra potent play-appeal, extra rich earning-power. Get your share. Get Bally 50/50 now.

Australian Jubilee To Launch New Gaming Machines

LONDON—The Australian firm Jubilee Products are about to launch two new "pub playing" machines, specially designed for this semi-new market and in accordance with the stake and payment requirements of the Betting & Gaming law. One is a 3d play machine the other a two pulls for 6d model. Harold Smith the firms U.K. Manager reports that after five years in this country business continues to grow and that the demand for the companies product has never been greater.

Jubilee will again be exhibiting at the 1965 Club Trade Fair to be held in Brighton at the towns new exhibition hall from 28th September to 2 October.

International Mfg., Inc., makers of fourteen miniature raceway models ranging in sizes up to 52' x 27' has taken the most profitable play and service features of its nationally known raceways line and engineered them into beautiful mahogany cabinets measuring only 4 feet by eight feet. Scaled racers designed for commercial use, thirty feet of track in each lane (2 lanes), timers with a range of settings, 25¢ meters, numbered lanes and super-sensitive hand controls for maximum player skill which never heat up in the hand. Rheostat, race track and car has its own color—one set for "red" racer, another for the "blue"—easily distinguishable for simplicity of two-player performance. Flying Eight Raceways is designed with minimum service in mind . . . constructed to sustain weights up to 250 lbs. Each game is virtually indestructible.

PRODUCTION FACILITIES

I.M.I. will begin its accelerated quality control production this week stepping up from present production volume to 100 FLYING EIGHT RACEWAYS each day. Distributors note . . . there should be no delivery problem regardless of the size of individual orders, now or later.

DISTRIBUTOR TERRITORIES NOW AVAILABLE!

Ruffler & Walker Praise 'Starlet'

GORDON WALKER

R & W have completed deals with two Brewery chains and have sited 6d play machines in nearly 400 locations.

They are also selling several 3d play lines with 20-1 payouts including the new Keeney upright "Crazy Gang," with payouts up to 1/- in cash and Gold Awards value 5/-. Also Games upright "3d Wild Ball" with payout up to a maximum of 20 disks which are replayable.

R & W have also taken on the Australian Fruit machine Aristocrat lines including the Bar; Belle, 3d play, with 1/- payout and 5/- Gold Award.

Blackpool Show To Bow Nov. 30th

BLACKPOOL—The fifth Northern Amusement Equipment and Coin Operated Machine Exhibition is scheduled to take place this year on November 30th, December 1st and 2nd at its usual venue The Olympia, Winter Garden, Blackpool.

Contrary to rumours that the event would not take place this year the organisers Jack D. Rose (Exhibitions) Ltd. informs us that plans are well advanced. A number of exhibitors from previous years have increased their demand for space including Phnographic Equipment Co. Ltd. Mayfield Automatic Ltd. and Thomas Automatic Co. Ltd. Several new firms will also be exhibiting for the first time.

The exhibition will be opened by The Worshipful The Mayor Alderman, Tom Joyce, J.P. Floor space of up to 20,000 square feet is available.

LONDON—Importers and sole U.K. Distributors for Rock-Ola, Ruffler and Walker have this year introduced the new 'Starlet,' 100% American made and produced in Chicago to compete with the low priced continental machines. The 'Starlet' maintains the Rock-Ola standard of mechanism but the 'frills' have been streamlined to cut cost in order that the machine can sell at virtually the same price as its continental counterparts.

The Starlet is meeting with tremendous success and Ruffler & Walker report a waiting list of up to a month.

Following the amendments to the Betting and Gaming bill Ruffler & Walker have introduced a whole range of new lines and machines with a trend toward 6d play with a 10 to 1 payout rather than 3d play with a 20-1 payout. Gordon Walker told the Cash Box that experience shows that the punter of today expects to pay 6d for pintables, Juke Boxes & Fruit machine play.

California Clippings

Our recent editorial in connection with Italy's expected lifting of restrictions on amusement equipment after October 1st has "phonorow" buzzing with the good news. Less significant, but still a subject for discussion here, is the recent robbery at King Distributors where the Capitol Sales Company's cigarette truck was stolen. It was located three days later but money and cigarettes totalling $2000 in losses were missing. Harold Chapman, who reported the loss, also told us that he's just returned from a trip thru Blythe, Riverside, Indio and San Diego and that the "juke box" business, though strong in the outlying areas, is still best in L.A. at the moment. . . . The M. J. Stanley Co. held a sales meeting recently at the Cabana Hotel in Palo Alto, Calif with Mike Stanley of Washington, Lou Mohr of Oregon, along with Marshall Ames and Bob Huffman of the local office attending. A new division of responsibilities will have Bob heading the Stancraft line and Marshall in charge of music and games. Both men will devote most of their time to the road and personnel will be added to the Stancraft sales department. Reason is that "sales have been so fantastic that expansion is necessary." . . . Chuck Klein at R. F. Jones reports in with the news that summer business is holding up well with Bill Gray on another trip to Arizona and Ron Schimmel calling on the local customers. Mr. R. F. Jones visited the office from San Francisco following a weekend stay at his Palm Springs retreat. Katie Walsh of the parts department is vacationing in Idaho and Montana. . . . Buddy Robinson is raving about the new Columbia album release and told us he heard from sales manager Teddy Rosenberg that the fall package will be even more sensational—"with artists like Streisand, Williams, Dylan, Gorme, Lawrence and Conniff—how can they miss?" He also told us that Alex Hassilev, who is now a single performer as well as one-third of The Limelighters, dropped by with Mike Borchetta, R.C.A.'s promo rep., to check sales on Hassilev's latest Victor single. Hazel and Shirley Dennison of the sales and shipping departments at California Music are vacationing in Las Vegas and Idlewild Mountain resort. . . . Britt Adelman at Paul Laymon infos that the first carload of the new Bally "50-50" pin game is gone and the second shipment might also be sold out by the time you read this. Paul Laymon entertained Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Edwards, visiting from Germany along with friends in town from Tuscon, Arizona. And Charles Daniels, we hear, is enjoying a brief vacation and we'd guess he's fishing somewhere since that's Charles' favorite pastime. . . . Sonny Lomborg reports that with phonos and pool tables moving at a good clip he's just hired a new man, John Threewit, who'll be assisting in the processing of phonos. Jack and Dorothy Leonard celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary a few weeks ago which means they've been married just two years longer than the Cash Box family—we're celebrating our 23rd this week. Dorothy and Jack celebrated at the Knollwood Country Club in Granada Hills with Jack's dad coming in from Chicago to give them a grand party with 90 friends attending the silver anniversary banquet. . . . George Muraoka at Simon tells us that the distributing firm is now handling the "Alltech" eight foot home pool table and expects it to become an outstanding sales attraction. Due to the recent sales spurt in the parts department Art Spencer has been transferred from the office to assist Joe Merel and Norm Drake has been added to the office staff. George also informed us that Bob Umeda, shop foreman, is in the northwest on a two week fishing trip. . . . Jerry Wallace dropped by at Luenhagen's this past week to spin his latest for Mercury "Twelve Little Roses" and Katie feels that this one has good "juke box potential." . . . Leo Simone at Badger Sales tells us that they have a new foreign game, both German and Italian made, called "Foosball" and that Bill Happel has just returned from the northwest with the news that business is "unbelievable" on this game. The new Gottlieb "Hi-Dolly" two player pin game is now in the showroom at Badger for all to see but Leo is travelling again—this time to Las Vegas where he's calling on ops. Speaking of ops, there have been quite a few along "phonorow" lately including Walter Hemple—San Fernando, Pete Shupp—Downey, Larry Hansford—Lompoc, Al Martinez—Santa Maria, Walter Cook—Palos Verdes, Dick Kanold—Oxnard and Harold Sharkey—Huntington Beach.

UPPER MID-WEST MUSINGS

The Walter Witt family are taking off next week for a few days up north for some good bass fishing. . . . Gabby Clausiau, Grand Rapids, in town taking in the Twin-Baltimore series and staying over the week end. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Pete Wornson and family are driving to San Francisco for a couple of weeks stopping off at several places of interest. . . . Fred Norberg, Manakato, in Canada with a few friends getting in some good fishing. . . . The Gene Clennon's have just returned from a two week vacation, driving to New York and taking in the World's Fair. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Ernest Woytossek and family in town over the weekend visiting friends and relatives. . . . Sam Sigel of the Lieberman Music Co. taking the week off and with Mrs. Sigel are driving to the upper Peninsula for a week's vacation. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Arndt Peterson, in town for the day and taking in the baseball game. . . . Art Berg, Fairmont, Minn. in town for a few hours picking up parts and records. . . . Ralph Sanders, Pine City, and Joe Weber, Blue Earth, in town for the day picking up parts and records. . . . Roy Stone and service man Fritz, in the cities for the day . . . as was Cab Anderson of Hudson.

Happy Birthday This Week To:

Martin J. Bromley, Honolulu, Hawaii. . . . Marjorie H. Stambaugh, W. Palm Beach, Fla. . . . Roy Westerlund, Red Oak, Ia. . . . Wm. R. Happei, Jr., L.A., Calif. . . . Midway Intro's
'Mystery Score'
Skill Amusement

MIDWAY'S
'MYSTERY SCORE'

CHICAGO—Marcine Wolverton and Hank Ross, heads of Midway Manufacturing Company, in Franklin Park, Illinois, last week announced the re-release to the coin machine trade of the new "Mystery Score" pitch and bat skill amusement novelty game which is already in full production in the Midway factory.

This game reportedly offers the operators, location owners, and players a surprising innovation in three-dimensional "fly away," skill targets, and three-dimensional playfield targets. The foremost scoring feature is the thrilling "Mystery Score" play feature which is practically guaranteed to keep skillful players dropping coins into the chute to keep trying to better the score. In this innovation several targets when hit on the playfield score a new mystery scoring feature.

Furthermore, Hank Ross explained there is an unlimited "last ball" play again feature in the new "Mystery Score" novelty amusement game. It is available in replay, regular, and extra ball models. It is also available with single or twin coin rejectors.

The beautifully appointed amusement game cabinet is 25 inches wide, 66 inches in height, and 55 inches in depth, suitably designed to easily fit in any size location—from the largest to the smallest.

Ross advised, in conclusion, that "Mystery Score" models are currently in full production in the factory, and sample shipments have already been rushed out to Midway Mfg. Co.'s family of distributors throughout the United States.

Automat Formed In London

LONDON—Norman Miller, an expert in the field of visual juke boxes having introduced Scopitone to Great Britain some two years ago, has now announced the formation of his own company, Automat. Conscious of the market potential of visual juke boxes in this country Automat is committed to design, build and subsequently distribute a brand new model of quality but of a size suitable for the widest possible range of locations and at a price comparable to the standard type of juke box. At the moment the only visual boxes available in this country are imported. The manufacture of a new low-priced British model will not only result in a considerable reduction in price for the operator but will also avoid the additional customs duties. Once proved in this country Automat intend to develop and extend their activities by entering the export market.

In order to supply the very best and latest films for use in their machines Automat have, for some time, been carrying out extensive market research with the result that as soon as the boxes are available they will have an adequate supply of film to meet the most exacting demands.

Ditchburn 1st Yr. Report

LONDON—The Ditchburn Organisation celebrated their first full year as a public company by announcing a net profit for the year ended 31st March 1965 of £185,315 before tax (net profit for the year after tax £94,298—an increase of 21 per cent). The company proposed a final dividend on ordinary shares at 15 per cent less tax. The music division was again responsible for a large part of the Group profit with background music for the first time making a relatively small but valuable contribution. In spite of the obvious difficulties caused by the import surcharge the automatic phonograph section of the music division had a very successful year.

Sales and rentals of Wurlitzer equipment again exceeded 1000 units. Although the increased cost of the machines, due to import surcharges, have hindered the expansion prospects Ditchburn continue to sell and rent large quantities of Wurlitzer phonographs. Possibly the most encouraging feature of the year's results was, however, the progress of the United Kingdom vending division in terms of both income (which increased by over 40 per cent) and profit. The new 'break through' with the Ditchburn Teaspa and Wurlitzer cigarette machine have made important additions to the company's lines.

Oct. Gaming Date Nears

LONDON—As mentioned in our A.T.E. issue dated 30 January 1965, the latest amendment to the Betting and Gaming laws comes into effect as at 31st Oct. 1965. This limits payments in kind to the value of 5/-(70 c).

Although not officially in operation until that date, many operators who have bought machines designed to comply with the law are already experiencing the results that will eventually be brought about.

Unfortunately the indications are that the new 5/- limit is having a depressing effect on takings. Penny play machines are not so badly affected as the odds are still much in favour of the player. But where to compensate for the declining value of money the stake has been up to 3d and 6d the incentive is so reduced that it is with these machines that player disinterest is most noticeable.

Although the issue of decimal coinage for Britain is still very much alive, no decision has yet been reached. The Socialist Government has indicated that in principle they are as keen to see it implemented as were their Conservative predecessors and have said that they will be coming to a decision as soon as possible. On the face of it there appears to be a strong possibility that we shall have it thrust upon us. In fact the thing most likely to defer a decision is the very congested parliamentary programme.

OUTSIDE BODY in bonderized steel plates soldered and strengthened; double glazing in synthetic oven baked enamel painting.

COFFEE MAKING PLANT constituted by a monoblock casting of bronze and brass actuated by chromium plated cylinders and pistons.

Hydraulic working (and hydraulic coffee dosage) minimizes management costs.

The coffee making plant performs the entire operative cycle of: coffee introduction, pressure, infusion, extraction, filter washing, coffee grounds removal.

The "espresso" coffee is prepared one cup at the time. The plant includes a boiler for overheated water, whose temperature is regulated by special control devices to guarantee complete safety and thermic stability.

The boiler is fed by means of a rotative pump connected with the reserve tank.

The grounds are removed and automatically set, dry, in an internal container.

DISTRIBUTION SERVICES. The coffee grains are introduced in a stainless-steel container; the coffee grinding is made cup by cup by a special automatic dosing grinder.

Sugar and milk are kept in transparent containers and their dosage is controlled by a special device.

The powder milk melts perfectly in a special mixing bowl, before distribution.

Chocolate is kept in a transparent container; melts and is whipped before distribution.

Cup station: in stainless steel for a perfect and easy cleaning and a comfortable keeping.

Water tank: allows the vendor to work even by low water pressure and during temporary interruptions in water distribution.

For sugared drinks a spoon is also automatically supplied.

DEPURATOR: an adequate depurator is recommended in order to avoid calcareous deposits. It can be supplied on request.

ELECTRIC PANEL: hermetic seal relés, on Octal and Undecal supports, to enable an immediate replacement when out of use.

SELECTION: by means of a push-button, after introduction of the coin. This post-selection system avoids the possibility of mistaking the choice.

On the buttons panel are three warning lights showing: 1. machine ready for selection; 2. machine working; 3. empty vendor.

CUP DISPENSER: type 9703 of ABT Products. Capacity: 635 cups; perfect hygiene. The cup dispenser wheels outwards and enables an easy and speedy filling.

AND REMEMBER: THE COFFEE, MILK, SUGAR, CHOCOLATE AND WATER DISTRIBUTORS CAN BE REGULATED TO GET JUST THE PERFECT DRINK TO MEET YOUR CLIENTS' PARTICULAR TASTES.

The sale (10c)

The profit maker!

Nationally, hundreds of locations are proving it every day: 7 1/3c profit per 10c sale with our popcorn vendor. And profits build with practically no effort on your part. Customer serves himself; maintenance is minimum; all you do is fill it with pre-popped and pre-flavored popcorn. Only needs 17 x 17" floor space. Takes a dime or two nickels; 15c operation optional. Handsome unit, too. Remember, everybody loves popcorn, and popcorn means more beverage sales. This vendor costs less than you think. Write for full information.

FEDERAL'S CUP DROP POPCORN MACHINE

The newest and most exciting popcorn machine to hit the market is Federal Machine Corporation's cup drop unit.

With a cup drop machine you have no sanitary problems, no popcorn mess on floors, no sack loss, no tipping sacks. What's more, this 19" x 19" machine brings more profit, because research has proven customers prefer vended popcorn in cups, three to one, over popcorn in sacks. Machine is weatherized, has adjustable portions, large 130 cup capacity and heating element to keep popcorn always hot . . . always fresh.

Get all the details today. And when you write or call, ask about the Federal pay-as-you-earn finance plan!

Bally Mfg. Ships Beauty Beach Bingo

Bally BEAUTY BEACH

CHICAGO—After a lapse of several months, Bally Manufacturing Company, Chicago, has again assigned production lines to limited output of a bingo-style pinball game, which—with an obvious bow to the previous model, "Border Beauty"—is named "Beauty Beach."

"Soaring demand for Bally flipper games and slot machines," explained Bill O'Donnell, Bally president, "prevented us from us fully serving the bingo market with 'Border Beauty.' The pressure from bingo operators both in the U.S. and abroad, however, has forced to adjust our lines to permit a modest flow of bingo equipment to the trade."

"Instead of merely continuing 'Border Beauty' production, we elected to offer an entirely new improved model, 'Beauty Beach,' which test operators proclaim as the greatest bingo ever to come out of Chicago."

"In addition to new 'bathing beauty' styling and numerous mechanical refinements, the big innovation in 'Beauty Beach' is the new Triple Score Feature. The Double Score Feature is, of course, retained, but now players can buy either Double or Triple Scores, and the fact that they regard the feature as well worth buying is proved by collection reports of test locations where 'Beauty Beach' consistently tops 'Border Beauty.'"

"Retained also is the scoring simplicity of the 20-hole board and 20-number card, which called into action a whole new corps of players when 'Border Beauty' was introduced. Retained also are the 4-color zones, which replace the old fashioned lines and sections, the A, B, C Mystic Lines and the 4-Star feature of 'Border Beauty.'"

"Needless to say, the old favorite Red Letter Games, Pick-A-Play Buttons and other traditional bingo features are also built into 'Beauty Beach,' as is the combination nickel-quarter chute which is an optional alternative to dime only or nickel only coin equipment."

"In view of the restricted production, I sincerely hope operators will bear with us while we try to fill the pent up demand for the previous beau-

Toohy Named Seeburg V.P.; Exits Cash Box

MARTY TOOHEY

CHICAGO—Martin (Marty) T. Toohey has joined the Seeburg Corporation as a regional vice president in the Eastern United States, according to an announcement by William Adair, executive vice president sales. "We are pleased to have him join our team," said Adair. "He knows the people in our industry from his many years contacting them for both Billboard and Cash Box," the Seeburg executive pointed out.

Toohy has been associated with Cash Box the past six years and has been general manager of that trade publication's coin machine and vending division. Previously, he was an account executive for two years with the De Perri Advertising Agency in New York City, an advertising organization specializing in vending and industrial marketing.

Toohy began his association with the Coin Machine Industry back in 1955 when he headed the coin machine advertising sales department for Billboard.

Toohy and his wife, Maureen, recently celebrated the arrival of a baby boy, their fifth child. With their three daughters and two sons, the Tooheys reside in Englewood, New Jersey.

For the next several weeks, Toohey will be at the Seeburg Corporation's main plant in Chicago and will take up the new post in about a month. He is a World War II veteran and served in the United States Navy. He attended New York University and majored in marketing.

Cash Box Appoints Adlum Coin Div. Mgr.

ED ADLUM

NEW YORK—Joe Orleck, president and publisher of Cash Box, has announced the appointment of Ed Adlum to the post of general manager of the magazine's coin machine and vending division to replace Marty Toohey, recently named Eastern vice president by the Seeburg Corp.

Adlum has spent nearly two years in the Cash Box coin machine dept. working directly under Toohey. He previously worked in the circulation promotion Dept. of Look Magazine.

Eastern Flashes

A MOMENT OF SORROW—One by one, members of the coin machine trade became shocked and saddened as they learned that veteran Morris Gisser had passed away Sunday evening, August 1st, from a heart attack. Morris was a giant in this business—as Mickey Anderson stated, "one of the biggest, maybe the biggest"—and his passing was received with deep emotion by literally thousands of his customers and friends throughout the world. Perhaps the most fitting epitaph delivered was spoken by Cleveland Coin's Dave Liebling who said, "our industry has certainly lost a valuable asset when Morrie died—we can never replace him." . . . Another sad note was struck when the trade learned of the recent death of coinvet and record distributor Jake Friedman. Jake, who died at the age of 64, is survived by his wife Esther, son Gerald and two daughters Mrs. Jack Gelbart and Mrs. Washington Falk III and two sisters.

OUR LOSS, THEIR GAIN—Marty Toohey, one of the most articulate men on all phases of the coin machine business, has excited the coin machine department of Cash Box where he held reign for over five years and has picked up the weighty task of Seeburg vice president for the Eastern terrain. Marty's knowledge of the business, his polish and journalistic talents have established an example that'll be mighty tough to duplicate. Be that as it may, the job has fallen into the hands of Ed Adlum, familiar to most coinmen in the metro New York area and to many across the nation via frequent phone conversations. Ed will be getting to know all of you at the MOA conclave next month, meeting you and greeting you and shaking you down for news items. Laughing on the outside, crying on the inside, good luck, Marty Toohey!

HOT SALES IN THE SUMMER—Plenty of action has been reported in the distributor precincts during these normally slow summer months. Tommy Greco at Greco Bros. Dist. in Glasco, N.Y. reports excellent action on Rock-Ola's 'Grand Prix II' phono at both the main office and at the Albany branch where Jule Oldshime holds down the fort. Musical Distributors exec Harold Kaufman says he's riding a tidal wave of sales on Wurlitzer's 2900 juke which is popping up in more and more locations all over the metro New York area. Harry Berger, just back from a restful vacation at Hollowville, New York, is doing a job with reconditioned shuffles and also with the U.S. Billiards Pro lineup of 6-pockets. Parts Dept. Mgr. Morty at Harry's place spent last week vacationing and this week it's gal-Friday Billie Sporko's turn to head back to the Carolina hills and rest her weary bones.

NEW PRODUCTS—The Irving Kaye Co. of Brooklyn recently intro'd their new non-coin 6-pocket table the 'Ambassador' and sales exec Howard Kaye is gearing for heavy action. The table, designed in the Kaye "high-style," is mighty nice to look at and ought to find its way into many parlors and recreation rooms. . . . Hank Swartz, Intersphere exec, forecasts big things for his 'Colorama' audio-visual machine as he continues to build up his film supply with the kind of musical entertainment he feels will punch out those two-for-a-quarter plays on location.

WHEELING AND DEALING—Urban Industries chief Nat Bailen says his firm has been enjoying good business throughout the U.S.A. in trading with owners of Mills Panorams for his lineup of new film machines. Nat wishes to advise the trade that he's interested in trading with any operator with either Mills or Capital units. Nat also reports that Alvin Gottlieb of D. Gottlieb & Co. has been doing his part to help correct the situation in Kentucky where Governor Breathitt has been swaying back and forth in his considerations to ban the operation of pin games in that state. In a story in the Louisville Times, Alvin was quoted as replying to the Governor's plan to ask the next session of the state legislature to ban the pins: "Over the years, the pinball industry has become a political football. It's like the story of Jimmy Durante, relaxing on a Florida beach and letting two flies walk on his big schnoz. All of a sudden one of the flies bit him and Durante said so long as there was one wise guy in the crowd, everyone had to get off."

Philadelphia Fare

Active Amusement prexy Joe Ash says Gottlieb's new 'Dodge City' pin game is perking up business both for him and for his operator customers reporting fine action with the piece on location. The firm's sales ace Fred Pliner, who just recently returned from vacation, is all enthusiastic with Rock-Ola's "sleeper" the compact 'Starlet' phono. The box is definitely running ahead of the original 'Princess Royal' in sales, he claims. Active's bookkeeper, Rhea Katz, is out of the hospital now after an eye operation. . . . ABC Consolidated president Jack Beresin and Dave Rosen were named to help promote the benefit game between the Philadelphia Eagles and the Detroit Lions on August 1st at Franklin Field. They were among a selected group of Philly leaders selected to help promote the football game for the benefit of the Philadelphia Association for Retarded Children. Mayor James Tate is honorary chairman of the benefit game. . . . Dave Rosen recently completed negotiations to provide full banking accommodations for his new 'Filmotheque Diskotheque' audio-visual entertainment unit, and says Dave, it's "full steam ahead" now. Stated the coinvet, "banking accommodations have committed themselves to us to the availability of a $10,000,000.00 line for the handling of 'Filmotheque-Diskotheque'. . . . Banner Specialty exec Jimmy Ginsburg is striking golden notes on the register with Wurlitzer's Golden Bar phono feature, he says. Also cooking for the distrib these days is Automatic Products' popular 'Candyshop' vendor. . . . Marvin Stein and Baltimore branch manager of Eastern Music Systems Zav Houzepian huddled for a spell last week working out sales and promotional plans for the Seeburg phono and vending lineup.

Chicago Chatter

Coinbiz was stunned last week upon hearing of the tragic, sudden death (Sun., Aug. 1) of Cleveland Coin's Morrie Gisser. Sales chief Dave Liebling and Ronnie Gold, Morrie's son-in-law, were grief-stricken over the news. . . . More heartbreak: Another tragic loss to coinbiz and the music industry was the death recently of Jake Friedman of Atlanta, after an illness of several months. . . . Chicago Coin's sales director, Mort Secore, looked up from a very busy desk to inform that ChiCoin has resumed full production on all amusement equipment for the coming Fall season. Mort sez the outlook for Fall is very good at ChiCoin. . . . Among the execs at the Seeburg Corp. who returned from business trips t'other day were Jack C. Gordon, Tom Herick and Bill Adair. A very busy man at Seeburg these days is Frank Luppino.

The big news at Bally Mfg. Co. this week is Bill O'Donnell's announcement to the domestic and foreign trade that the firm is back in production of bingo games, after a lapse of several months. Herb Jones advises that the newest Bally bingo version is "Beauty Beach." . . . We looked in on a new Seeburg discotheque installation at the Palmer House last week. We got the word from Stan Jarocki, of Seeburg. During our visit to the "Charade A Go-Go" Room we chatted with World Wide's Nate Feinstein, Harold Schwartz and Tom Higdon, who observed the installation. Latest report from the Palmer House's Fred Townsend is that it's a swingin' room now. . . . More sad news: Irv Webb (59) who was for many years associated with David C. Rockola (since 1934) died in his home in Altadena, Calif. last Tuesday, Aug. 3. He was in semi retirement of late.

Rock-Ola adchief George Hincher advises that everyone at Rock-Ola Mfg. is eagerly looking forward to the upcoming MOA Convention in the Pick-Congress Hotel (Sept. 11-13), and the NAMA Trade Show in Miami Beach (Oct. 16-19). . . . J. H. Keeney's Art (and Kay) Weinand just returned from a Florida vacation well tanned and relaxed. He's trying to clear the decks at Keeney in preparation for a sales trip to London. . . . Harry and Rose Silverberg expect to be in Chi for the MOA Conclave. Meanwhile, sales are up at W. B. Distribs., in Kansas City. A fast-moving item is the can cold drink vendor.

Williams Electronic Prexy Sam Stern, Herb Oettinger and Jack Mittel are holding down the fort while sales chief Bud Lurie is on the road again calling on distribs, and Bill DeSelm is on vacation. . . . Gil Kitt and Joe Robbins, of Empire Coin, visited the Grand Rapids branch with Edward G. Doris, executive vice pres. of Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. On hand to greet them was Manager Dick Flaherty. Joe info'd that Dave St. Pierre is doing a bang-up job with Empire's vending line, especially the can cold drink vendor. . . . Susan Berger is helping her mother and dad (Mr. & Mrs. Sam (Frances) Berger) at Dynaball Co. Susan returns to her scholastic chores at Bateman in the Fall. . . . Nelson E. Coons, of Cardinal Vending, in Cleveland, is chairman for the forthcoming NAMA Convention, according to Prexy Richard Howard.

Dennis Ruber, co-head with Richard Uttanoff of D&R Industries, reports that his eastern sales trip was a whopping success. While there he added Si Lipp to the firm's sales force for the State of New York. . . . Al Rosen, head of Phoenix Postage Vendors Co., in Phoenix, Arizona, was a visitor in the Cash Box office last week. . . . It's good news from Hymie and Eddie Zorinsky, H. Z. Vending & Sales. The Fair Trade Law just passed thru both houses of the State Legislature and was signed by the governor. The law is in effect in Nebraska. . . . Mary Gillette, head of Phonograph Service Co., is a very proud mother. Her daughter Leslie was married, July 31, in St. Paul. Lucky groom's name is George Faricy. Leslie recently received her Masters Degree in Psychology and Counseling at Michigan State U. . . . We found Joe Kline and Stan Levin, et al, in a beehive of activity at Atlas Music Co. t'other day. Selling well at Atlas are vending, games and music equipment. Sam Kolber is on vacation this week.

Empire's Joe Robbins bemoans the fact that he often golfs with Sam Greenberg, Elliott Music, and Billy Knapp, Allied ABC, a couple of "golf hustlers" (a la Minnesota Fats). Joe explained that Sam and Billy make it a general point to conceal his ball if he drives well. Also, either Sam or Billy keep score (so who can beat them?) . . . MOA's Fred Granger announced last week that Capitol Records is in the fold for the convention. . . . Ray and Dick Brown, Brown Bros. Distribs, in Minneapolis, announced a change of address last week. The busy Twin Cities distrib is now located at 2321 Washington Avenue, North. . . . Heartfelt sympathies to Mrs. Audrey Brown on the death of her mother. Audrey is a sister of Ray and Dick Brown.

A. L. (Lew) Ptacek, prexy of Bird Music, in Manhattan, Kansas, is eagerly looking forward to the MOA Convention. Lew is a vice president of MOA, and very active in association affairs. . . . Construction is proceeding on schedule on the two additional floors at Gottlieb Memorial Hospital, according to Alvin Gottlieb. . . . Production is up to a furious pace at Midway Mfg. Co. Marcine Wolverton and Hank Ross had to acquire additional space elsewhere to keep up the production and shipping schedules.

Milwaukee Mentions

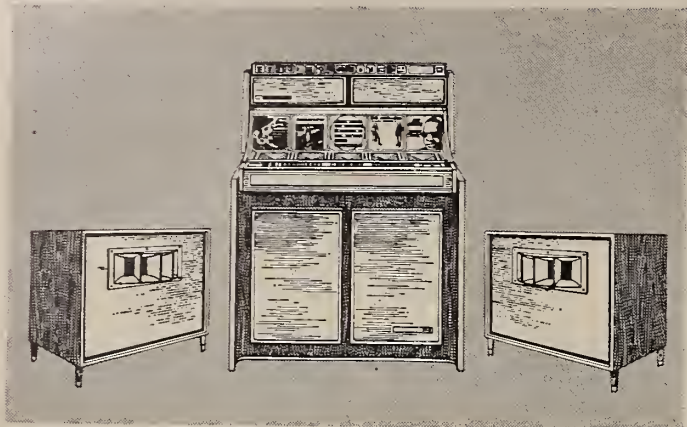

Although Sam Hastings, Hastings Distribs, tried very hard to retain his injured eye a unanimous opinion by several eye specialists was that it would have to be removed. Last Tuesday, Aug. 3 the operation was skillfully performed in a Milwaukee hospital. During Sam's convalescence his capable sons, Jack and Jimmy, are holding down the fort. . . . Joel Kleiman and Sam Cooper, co-heads of Pioneer Sales & Services, happily advise that Rowe coffee vendors are moving out to locations as rapidly as cold drink machines. Sales are also steady on Rowe-AMI "Diplomat" phonos, and amusement games. . . . Nate Victor, S. L. London Music Co., gathered up his wife and kiddies and left the city for a weeklong holiday (bet he catches some whoppers in Wisconsin's well stocked lakes). . . . United, Inc's, Harry Jacobs has been so swamped of late he's seriously considering adding personnel to his staff. Recently Chuck Meyers was appointed a sales rep covering Wisconsin and Northern Michigan. . . . When we chatted with Orville Carnitz, prexy of Badger Novelty Co., he dwelt on the upcoming MOA Convention, Sept. 11-13, in the Pick-Congress Hotel. Orv expects to be on hand with Dick Wegener, Ray Van Tour and Mike Papageorden of his staff. . . . Jerome "Red" Jacomet, Red's Novelty Co., is a very active director of MOA and will probably lead a Milwaukee contingent to the conclave. . . . Among the Wisconsin operators making the rounds in Cream City's coinrow last week were: Lou Alberfonti, Harold Summerfield, Ed Bartel, Bernie Schmith, Roger Bookmeier, Chuck Hartman, and Tony and Bob Zore.

Morris Gisser — "A Giant Of The Industry" — Passes Away Aug. 1st

MORRIS GISSER

CLEVELAND—Morris S. Gisser (63), president of Cleveland Coin Machine Exchange, and Cleveland Coin International, in this city, died suddenly after suffering a heart attack late Sunday night, August 1, in his home just before retiring.

Funeral services were held for Gis-ser last Monday afternoon, August 2, in Cleveland. He was survived by his wife, Esther; two daughters, Mrs. R. A. Gold, and Roslyn Gisser, of Westchester, Pa.; a son, Sheldon Gisser; three brothers, a sister, and five grandchildren.

Gisser, a prominent, widely known coinman since 1937 (when he founded Cleveland Coin) was also active in three unrelated firms: Ansel Realty Co., Drexmore Realty Co., and Goodwill Loan Co. He was very active in temple affairs for many years. He often headed the fund raising drive for the Young Israel of Cleveland Temple. Gisser was also known to be a driving force in Israel Bond sales in the Greater Cleveland area.

Dave Liebling, sales manager of Cleveland Coin, tearfully stated "our industry has certainly lost a valuable asset when Morrie died. We can never replace him."

Liebling was associated with Gisser at Cleveland Coin for more than 20 years. Another associate is Ronnie A. Gold, Gisser's son-in-law.

Gisser had just recently returned from a whirlwind world wide sales trip for Cleveland Coin International, according to Liebling. He had been concentrating very heavily of late on the export phase of the business.

Pollak Lauds Results Of Rowe Discotheque

NEW YORK—As the Rowe big Discotheque sales and merchandising push nears the last lap of '65 . . . reports pour in of a smashing success!

"These are facts—not fiction and we can prove it!" said Fred Pollak, Marketing Vice President of Rowe AC Manufacturing, "I'm an optimist and I knew we had a real package—but the sales figures surprised even me! Present results indicate we'll more than top our highest previous estimates! It's been a great combination—Rowe and Killer Joe as our official advisor on everything Discotheque . . . he's given our program a real swingin' flavor.

"Now, here's satisfying proof" continued Fred Pollak, "you can't get away from these factual success stories we get from operators who've installed our DIPLOMAT. All have found it easy to create the excitement and bring in the crowds by following our merchandising suggestions program. Once they're in—they stay, and come again—you just can't beat THE BEAT of the Rowe AMI DIPLOMAT—it's got what it takes in the way of authentic Discotheque SOUND. It's not just a juke box, it was designed especially for Discotheque—to envelop the whole place with the sound of a LIVE BIG BAND."

When asked for "success story" particulars . . . Fred quoted a few operators at random. "From Seranton, 'A real money-maker, before Discotheque $45 a week, now $125 a week.' . . . from Salisbury Maryland, 'Unbelievable! It never stops—previous take $35 a week, now up to $95 a week.' . . . and another from Delaware, 'fabulous sound, trouble free, increased from $12 a week to $60 a week.'

Rosen Gains Bank Support For His Filmotheque Unit

PHILADELPHIA—With the completion of negotiations that will provide full banking accommodations for the newest coin machine entertainment facility, David Rosen announced this week that it's now "full steam ahead" for his Filmotheque-Discotheque, the movie-music machine that combines both the music machine and the motion picture machine into a single unit.

Indicative of the confidence and trust that the financial institutions have placed in Rosen, and with added confidence that this form of coin operated entertainment is fast becoming an integral part of the coin machine industry, Rosen announced that "banking accommodations have committed themselves to us to the availability of a $10,000,000.00 line for the handling of Filmotheque-Discotheque."

With machine ready to roll off the assembly line at the new Rosen plant at 22nd and Master Streets here, with over 600 all color film subjects ready for immediate delivery, and now with complete banking accommodations, Rosen's leasing program is proceeding at a pace that "far exceeds our original expectations."

"Filmotheque-Discotheque," said Rosen, "is the only one in the new movie-music field that is making a leasing program available to the trade. The program, which is available only to the coin machine trade, is evidence of the faith and confidence we have in the future of the item. We are not concerned, as others, with deposits or side drafts. We are leasing machines now to operators with options to buy. And a similar leasing program will soon be made available to distributors."

With the mounting interest already shown in both the machine and the program, Rosen said that appointments of distributors will be made later. From all parts of the country, interested distributors have been either calling or coming to the Rosen plant to see for themselves the two-in-one combination Filmotheque-Discotheque machine.

"With the great enthusiasm already generated in the trade by Filmotheque-Discotheque," said Rosen, "we want to screen out all the possibilities within the coin machine field before making any distributorship appointments. Our doors are still open to all interested distributors to come here and to see and hear for themselves what Filmotheque-Discotheque has to offer in its present form, and to appreciate and understand its program and potentialities for the future."

the Diplomat

by ROWE® AMI

THE REASON THE DIPLOMAT MAKES FRIENDS SO READILY is easily seen. Its smart, distinctive, go-everywhere styling enhances the most discriminating location. Just look at the distinctive grille panel, the dramatic full-width backlighted location panel, the attention-getting album display panel, the intriguing star-pattern color wheel.

The Diplomat gives you everything you want for increased play and profits. Big selection keys. Easy-to-read, easy-to-select titles. Room-filling, self-contained Stereo Round.* Versatile programming that lets you switch, on the spot, to 200, 160 or 100 selections. It's designed to play and play and play with a minimum of fuss and servicing, but when you want to take a look at it, access was never easier.

Here's just what you need to make better friends in your present locations, make new friends in new locations. See it. Hear it. Put it to work making friends—and profits.

Wurlitzer's global-wide contribution to coin-operated music is recognized wherever people gather to enjoy their native foods and beverages.

Phonographs are offered in 200 and 100 selections as well as a special Discothèque model. Only Wurlitzer offers true high fidelity stereophonic sound, plus such features as the Golden Bar enabling the pre-selection of a number of tunes for a pre-determined coin from both the phonograph and private listening wallboxes.
