American Music Awards

(see related story and photos on page 7)

M.C. Hammer, proudly displaying five trophies, was the big winner at the 18th annual American Music Awards, a dick clark productions, inc. presentation which was televised over the ABC network on January 28. Hammer was named Favorite Male Soul/R&B Artist, Favorite Rap Artist, his "U Can't Touch This" was named Favorite Soul/R&B Single, and his Please Hammer Don't Hurt 'Em was named both Favorite Soul/R&B Album and Favorite Rap Album.

Bell Biv DeVoe show off the two trophies they received when they were named Favorite New Artist in both the Soul/R&B and Dance Music categories.

Jeff Cook, of Alabama, is all smiles as he displays the trophy he accepted on behalf of the group when they were named Favorite Country Group.

CASH BOX (ISSN 0008-7289) is published weekly (except Christmas week) by Cash Box, 157 W. 57th Street, Suite 1402 New York, NY 10019 for $150 first class. Copyright 1990 by George Albert. All rights reserved. Copyright under Universal Copyright Convention. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CASH BOX, 157 W. 57th Street, Suite 1402, New York, NY 10019.

CASH BOX WOULD LIKE to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Richard Palmese on the birth of their daughter, Christina Marie Teresa, born on Friday, Jan. 25. The Palmeses also have a son, Richard.

MCA/NAACP PACT: MCA Records has reaffirmed its commitment to expand economic opportunities for African-Americans and other minorities by entering into a Statement of Fair Share Principles with the NAACP, one of 50 companies (including CBS Records) to join the program. MCA chairman Al Teller said, "MCA Records believes strongly in the goals of the NAACP and is committed to expanding opportunities for African Americans and other minorities. We responded with enthusiasm when the NAACP approached us with the proposal of formalizing our commitment."

DRAFT CALL: Miller Genuine Draft will raise its glass to 10 years of music sponsorship and toast the eclectic bands in this year's Miller Genuine Draft Band Network. The bands are Almost Nuts, Anson Funderburgh and the Rockets featuring Sam Myers, Beat the Clock, Bobby Friss, the Bonedaddys, BOP (harvey), Dash Rip Rock, Dick Holliday and the Bamboo Gang, the Dynatones, Egypt, Grayghost, Inner Circle, the Jinns, Joe "King" Carrasco, Little Charlie and the Nightcats, Lord Tracy, Lucky 7, Marcia Ball, Molly and the Heymakers, Monkey Meet, Morning Star, the Neighborhoods, the Paladins, Terrance Simien and the Mallet Playboys, the Toasters and the Wild Cards. All of them will descend upon Milwaukee, Feb. 3-5.

RECORD PLANT DEFLOWERED: Chrysalis Group PLC, shareholders of L.A.'s Record Plant Recording Studio, has announced plans to discontinue operations of the recording studio and sell its business assets and real estate. Chrysalis/U.S. chairman Joe Kiener recognized that "Record Plant has been one of Los Angeles' finest recording studios for more than 20 years... However, studio operations no longer represent an integral part of our group strategy in the U.S. market." Chrysalis, jointly with AIR Studios, London and Pioneer, is developing a London studio, Lyndhurst Hall.

HEY, IT COULD BE "DOWNTOWN"

YOU: MTV is looking for two new VJ's. Sound like you (you know who you are)? Well, if you're younger than 18 or older than 35, forget it. If you have a strong knowledge of music and are energetic and outgoing (what is this, a game show audition?), send a tape, pictures and a resume to Lisa Berger, MTV, 10 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608 and cross your fingers. On Feb. 7th, the network's beginning a six city tour to root you out.

STUFF YOUR MAMA DIDN'T TELL

YOU: The third annual International New Age Music Conference addresses the issue "New Age Goes Mainstream," April 24-27 in Santa Monica. Sound mellow to you? Call (213) 935-4774 for the lowdown... Leonard Bernstein will receive a posthumous NARM Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award at the year's NARM Convention Awards Banquet, March 25th as part of its San Francisco convention... ASCAP will present an all-star tribute to the late songwriter Jimmy Van Heusen, Feb. 14th at 7:30 p.m. at the Motion Picture Academy's Samuel Goldwyn Theatre in Beverly Hills. Bob Hope, Donald O'Connor, Sammy Cahn and many others will participate; a limited number of free seats are available to the general public... Eddie Van Halen is now a guitar. The "Edward Van Halen Guitar," designed by the rocker, is now available from Ernie Ball/Music Man for $1,599. You can't beat it... Marcus Roberts will tickle the jazz piano ivories at the Governor's Mansion in Charlotte, W. Va. on Feb. 10, to kick off the non-profit Charleston Jazz Series. Gaston Caperton, the state's governor, will be grooving to the sounds in the flesh... Whitney Houston's stirring reading of the "Star Spangled Banner" at the Super Bowl (WHAT A SUPER BOWL!!!! says our New York office) has been a big request item over at Arista, which is going to press some up for radio play. A single? Could be.

EXECUTIVES ON THE MOVE

■ Impact Records ceo Allen Kovac who, together with MCA Records chairman Al Teller, announced last week the formation of Impact has appointed Jeff Sydney as president of the new label. Sydney was formerly senior vp and general manager-West Coast at PolyGram Records. Prior to that he was vp of Music Business Affairs at Universal Studios and vp of Business Affairs at PolyGram. ■ Peter Takiff has been named executive vice president & general manager, Mercury Records. Mr. Takiff was previously executive vice president, Administration, PolyGram Records. ■ Tony Anderson has been named executive vice president & general manager, The Rhythm & Black Music Group, Mercury Records. Mr. Anderson joins Mercury from Arista Records where he served for six years as vice president, R&B Promotion. ■ Mark Leviton has been promoted to senior vice president A&R, Warner Special Products. He was previously vice president, A&R. ■ Tony Mandich has been promoted to vice president of Artist Relations & Media Development/West Coast for Atlantic Records. Immediately prior to his current appointment, Mr. Mandich was West Coast senior director/Artist Relations & Television. ■ Jeff Rowland has been named vice president of PolyGram Diversified Entertainment, putting him in charge of overseeing the day to day activities in all of the company's endeavors, including merchandising, management and pay-per-view; he'll report directly to PDE president John Scher. ■ Paul Williams has been promoted to vice president, international product development for RCA Records; he'll be responsible for the introduction and integration of BMG's international product into the U.S. marketplace and will be the liaison between the sales, marketing, promotion and A&R departments. A nine year RCA veteran, Williams was most recently head of international A&R marketing, RCA/UK. And BMG International has named Polsia Buetl manager, international marketing and Valerie Jack manager, international A&R/marketing. ■ SBK Records has upped Jeff Panzer to vice president, video development from his previous post as director, creative services, a job he's held since May, 1989. ■ Amy DiDonato has been promoted to manager, Press & Media Relations, Elektra Entertainment. Ms. DiDonato came to Elektra as an assistant in Press and Media Relations in 1988. ■ Jodi Smith has been appointed coordinator, Press and Media Relations for Elektra Entertainment. She joined the Elektra family in 1989 as assistant to the vice president, Press and Media Relations. ■ Barbara Shelley has joined Rhino Records as vice president of Publicity. She comes to Rhino from Chameleon Records, where she served as vice president of Media and Artist Relations and from a distinguished 15-year career in the music industry. ■ Sony Music has made three new appointments: Laraine Perri, director of product marketing for Sony Classical since 1988, has been promoted to vice president, product marketing for the label. Jim Cavigan, director, U.S. marketing for the Sony Classical (previously CBS Mastworks) since 1989, becomes vice president, U.S. sales. And Howard Z. Brooks joins Sony Music as director, special projects; he'll be conducting various analytical projects for the purpose of increasing operating efficiency and controls. ■ BMI has made a flurry of new appointments: Cindy Dupree has been promoted to director, corporate relations from her prior position of associate director, corporate relations. Her new duties include supporting BMI's General Licensing area through press relations, promotional activities and events. She'll remain based in New York. In the Los Angeles office, Julie Gordon has been upped to director, writer-publisher relations, Gloria Hawkins has been upped to director, writer administration/relations, and Rick Schwanke has been promoted to director, publisher administration.

■ SINGLES

□ RALPH TRESVANT: "Stone Cold Gentleman" (MCA 1310)

The follow-up to the smash hit "Sensitivity" should help Tresvant make further inroads to superstardom. Establishing himself as the sensitive ladies man of the group (but with an edge, of course) distinguishes Tresvant both within the New Edition clan and within contemporary r&b in general. This was a radio hit before release as a single, so it should fly through the roof now.

□ LIGHTNING SEEDS: "Joy" (MCA 1148)

More sparkling pop from the mind of Ian Broudie. With intelligent lyrics (an endangered species in pop music), crisp music, and heartfelt vocals, the Lightning Seeds are the darlings of the college/alternative circuit who really deserve to be much bigger. "Joy" may not bring them a larger audience, but it will certainly make solid the one that exists.

□ STEVIE B: "I'll Be By Your Side" (LMR/RCA 2758-2-RDJ)

The former king of the dancefloor branches out to ballads and shows that he still has the golden touch. His last single, "Because I Love You," showed he could not only master ballads, but appeal to the public while doing it. It stayed at the top of the charts for weeks. This one should prove that hit was no fluke and widen Stevie B's base audience as well.

□ VINNIE JAMES: "War Song" (RCA 1757-2-RDJ)

Vinnie James is a rather Bob Dylan-ish rock singer with a fondness for acoustic guitar and social commentary. AOR programmers should be receptive to the haunting

"War Song" and the two other songs on this CD single, "Here Comes Tomorrow" and "Dogs." All three songs, which James wrote himself, will appear on James' forthcoming album, All American Boy.

□ R.I.F.: "Rappin Is Fundamental" (A&M 75021 1544 4)

R.I.F., whose name stands for Rappin Is Fundamental, takes a hardcore approach to rap on its debut single, "Rappin Is Fundamental." The song, which will be included on R.I.F.'s forthcoming debut album, The Doo-Hop Legacy, was produced and written by R.I.F. rapper Easy Moe Bee (not to be confused with Eazy-E or Kool Moe Dee).

The latest release from one of the freshest (and most original) young voices in music today. Comes in a total of four mixes that blend the latest sounds from the street into an appealing concoction—so there's a little something for everyone.

■ ALBUMS

The masters of theatrical '70s "glam rock"—the opera-ish rockers who gave us "We Will Rock You"/"We Are The Champions," "Killer Queen," "Another One Bites The Dust," "Bohemian Rhapsody," "Fat Bottom Girls" and other gems—remain artistically triumphant in the '90s with Innuendo. The AOR-friendly, 12-track CD's strongest cuts include "The Hitman," a scorching rocker; "Headlong"; "Don't Try So Hard"; "I'm Going Slightly Mad"; the eerie "Delilah"; and "The Show Must Go On." Queen produced Innuendo with David Richards.

□ LIFER'S GROUP: Lifer's Group (Hollywood Basic HB-61050-2)

While N.W.A, Ice Cube, Ice-T, Eazy-E, The Geto Boys, Schoolly D,

Above The Law, Compton's Most Wanted and other gangster-style rappers have portrayed vicious criminals in first-person raps, none of them are career criminals in real life. Many of the popular gangster-style rappers—whose portrayals are meant to illustrate just how bad life in inner-city life can be, not glamorize it—are ex-gangsters who've left the road to prison behind them. Lifer's Group, however, is a hardcore rap posse consisting of real-life Rahway Prison inmates, who give listeners the cold, hard facts about prison life on their self-titled album. Murder, rape, suicide and beatings are among the evils of prison life Lifer's Group delineate in no-nonsense terms on this sobering album. In a nutshell, Lifer's Group is the musical equivalent of Scared Straight.

□ VARIOUS ARTISTS: Rap En Espanol (Globo/BMG 3025-4-RL)

Although Spanish-language rapping dates back to 1981, when The Mean Machine recorded "Disco Dreams" for Sugarhill Records, it didn't hit big until Mellow Man Ace and Kid Frost enjoyed hit albums in 1990. Rap En Espanol underscores this growing trend. The compilation album contains tracks by Latin rappers Lisa ("Trampa"), Jelly D ("El Pensar De Una Nina" and "La Pesadilla"), Vico C ("Le Recta Final" and "Viernes 13") and Pablo Diaz ("Mi Ritmo House"). A gozar!

EAST COASTING

ROCKS AND GRAVEL: Boy, this is turning into a bizarre year. Look, I think Merle Haggard's a musical giant, and I'm thrilled that the American Music Awards thinks so too. But if you had asked me in my youth whether, in a million years, a rock and roll gathering would give somebody a Lifetime Achievement Award to the strains of "Okie From Muskogee"—"Okie From Mukogee"!!!!—I'd have probably ignored you. I saw Merle perform last year, and I loved him. He didn't do "Okie From Muskogee." I hope he's not proud of that song. It's not what he'll be remembered for. How odd. Makes you just want to sit here and drink... David Bromberg—who participated in the aforementioned Rounder party (and who looked, at the party, like he'd been eating well over the past decade or so)—is embarking on his 11th annual Farewell/Reunion Tour. Bromberg, it seems to me, quit performing to become a fiddlemaker some years ago, but he seems to keep performing anyway. He, and his big band will be in Santa Cruz (Feb. 6), San Francisco (Feb. 7-10), our own Bottom Line (Feb. 13-17, for their annual anniversary bash) and other such locales... I was talking to a publicist the other day, who was asking me about some tapes she'd sent (she'll remain nameless, which is probably the way she'd want it). I was (rudely) opening a package as I was talking to her. "I got the Damned CDs," I said, looking at Emergo's new The Best of the Damned and Machine Gun Etiquette. "You got the damned CDs already?" she said, referring back to her tapes. "No, the Damned CDs," I said, visions of Bud Abbott dancing in my head. I'd continue, but you get the idea. Oh, yeah, what with Rhino rooting around the schlock (and, now, the soul music) of the '70s, why not a punk revival? Rat Scabies redux, not a moment too soon... "Speaking of Music" is a course at the New School of Social Research that, basically, sits rock stars down and lets 'em talk. "Speaking of Music and Other Things," hosted by Danny Kapilian, will bring Lou Reed (Feb. 12), Suzanne Vega (Feb. 26) and Fred Schneider (Mar. 5) to college. For 30 bucks for the threesome, you can be there too. Call (212) 741-5690 for registration info... Charisma Records is about to unveil a blues line: Point Blank. In March, when spring arrives and a young man's thoughts turn to such refrains as "My baby done left me, she done gone away," Point Blank'll aim releases from Albert Collins, the Kinsey Report and Larry McCray your way... The Rolling Stones will release a live album in April. Surprised?... Public Enemy, which sends faxes through here at a brisk rate, has sent along a tract about racism that, for the most part, it's hard to disagree with. It contains such lines as "Justice is better than Racism" and "Regardless of all that has been said or done, the quality of the relationship(s) between white people and Black people is, and has been, a total disaster." Ignoring the capitalizing of "Black" and not "white" (I don't want to be too persnickety), I'd like to take issue with one particular statement: "The only form of functional racism that exists among the people of the known universe is 'White Supremacy.'" Would somebody ask the Jews leaving the Soviet Union to comment on this. Are these kinds of tee-shirt slogans really that useful?

NASHVILLE NEWS

WHO SAYS EVERYTHING SLOWS DOWN IN MUSIC CITY during the winter months? No way! As we counted down the hours to the holidays, the Nashville action, did in fact, begin to simmer and many creative minds within the field of music began to look forward to experiencing a mental vacation. OK, we close up shop, do the family thing, eat, sing some carols, eat, trim a tree, eat, exchange gifts and then eat again just before returning to what seems like we only escaped from yesterday—WORK. It's the first week of a brand new year and BAM! We're already dodging tourists who wear those huge cowboy hats with the funny-lookin' feathers; the phones are screaming off the hook; there are 50 or more new records stacked on the desk; and the list of performances and showcases to attend seems endless, yet we attend without hesitation.

The first stop is at one of Nashville's newer night spots called 328 Performance Hall. A young-looking guy who hails from Texas is scheduled to perform for his first time in Music City as a major-label act. His name is Tony Toliver, a singer, songwriter and one heck of a keyboardist who first dove into music as a teenager singing gospel music. Without a doubt, Toliver has developed his own niche, when it comes to pumping out a lively performance with a unique sound and style. And don't even attempt to tag this guy with any one country format, because just when you do, he'll bounce into something totally different. There's a lot of snappy western-swing bubbling from this show, a touch of contemporary and some straightforward country traditionals, such as Toliver's debut release entitled "Barstool Fool"—one of those tunes that just could garner a new artist his first big radio hit. Toliver also included in his performance a medley of tunes which influenced him the most as a young artist, including songs recorded by Ray Charles, Charlie Rich and long-time friend Dottie West. He didn't ignore his original musical roots either, which meant including something from the sacred collection. Along with the rest of his band, Toliver delivered a harmonious a cappella rendition of "Have A Little Talk With Jesus." Other highlights included a heart-touching ballad about weakness and strength, "Let Freedom Ring" and a song he composed about his grandmother, which concluded a most entertaining performance.

As the evening continues, so does the Nashville entertainment, and the next stop is at the famous stockyard's Bullpen Lounge, where we're treated with a highly unusual performance. This five-man band call themselves The Whipper Snappers, a new group taking the stage only for its third time. What's so unusual? Their tender ages range between 12 and 15, yet their talent far exceeds their age. Originally, The Whipper Snappers were called something similar to The New Kids On The Block, but later changed the name to enhance their own identity. It certainly didn't take long to realize that these youngsters have stored up a lot of talent in only a few years. This whippin' snappin' group consists of a lead guitarist who picks with fingers-of-fire; a power-wristed drummer who happens to be the son of recording artist Ronnie McDowell; a keyboardist who also contributes some very effective vocals; a lead singer who aims to please an audience with his action-packed stage presence and vocal diversity; a head-bangin' bass man; and a rhythm guitar player who should be cutting his own records. This fellow's rigid-toned voice and delivery is phenomenal, and one can only bet that if he hangs onto singing, he'll be a major artist someday. The Whipper Snappers served a platter of music ranging from traditional country to electrifying rock-n-roll, pop and even rap! Cuts such as "Steppin' Stone," "Love In The Heart" and "It's In Her Kiss" kept a standing-room-only crowd lured to what these future headliners unrolled next.

No, no, no, the buck doesn't stop here. In fact, it becomes even more lively as super entertainer Ronnie McDowell hits the stage like a storm—wailing out his earlier hit sensation "Older Women." The crowd utterly loves this guy and everything he does, whether it's bringing a member of the audience on stage with him or delivering some commanding imitations of such stars as Marty Robbins, Johnny Cash and Ernest Tubb. McDowell practically crooned out his entire recording history, including "Personally," "All Tied Up," "You're Gonna Ruin My Bad Reputation," "Watching Girls Go By" and "A Little Past Forty." Of course, what's a McDowell show without at least a little Elvis? Although McDowell launched his career with a strong Elvis influence, he's since then proven to be an ultimate entertainer on his own. Such proof took the spotlight when he began to sing his current single release "Unchained Melody"—a cut that's not only racing up the chart, but opening even more ears to what's referred to as top-notch talent.

THE BULLS AND THE BEARS: Significant movements on the rock and roll stock exchange:

SELL: Music that moves the body. BUY: Music that moves the mind. SELL: Flowered Up, Adamski, ravaging rave inspired vocals. BUY: Audio One, pure ambience, music inducing oceanic oneness, a backbeat of undulating, lapping surf, angelic choirs, nightingales, children, or church bells. Pioneers of ambience include 808 State, Acker Bilk and Julee Cruise. Madonna, so-called innovator, has gone ambient with "Justify My Love." It's a structured atmosphere beat which owes much to the New Age house movement. "Prayers" by Hallelujah is also an ethereal arrangement cashing in on the trend. SELL: Ecstasy in favor of BUY: Ginseng and gurarama.

SELL: Jason Donovan. BUY: Chris Isaak. BUY: Trevor Horn, who was making raptures when SELL: Stock Aitken and Waterman were making tea. BUY: Max. SELL: Sonia. BUY: Baillie Walsh, extraordinary video maker for Boy George, who will be enjoying a massive revival. SELL: George Michael. BUY: Curry house blues, twinging sitars and West India Company. SELL: World Music, especially with a bongo beat.

BUY: The Forest of Dean area in the West Country, in the person of EMF. SELL: Manchester and flared trousers, except BUY: The High, softer than the Stone Roses. SELL: Meaningless rap anthems and howlings by footballers or boxers. BUY: Music battled out of love and hate, like Jonathan Perkins'.

SELL: Lisa Stansfield into screeching oblivion. BUY: Betty Boo boo-bopping into world domination. SELL: Jaz "No One Can Be That Rude" Summers, Stansfield's manager, Yazz's ex-husband, and former WHAM! manager with BUY: Simon Napier—"No One Can Be That Charming" Bell.

SELL: Lambada. BUY: Foxtrot, tango and traditional Latin American salsa. Any recession spawns extravagance; we'll all be wearing that "Come Dancing" look. And speaking of dance, buy Normski, he will be as big as his relationship with Janet Street-Porter. SELL: Yoof programmes, yoof record buying, yoof pop stars. And SELL: Rock and roll wrinkles and crepe necks, Rod and Mick and all. BUY: Intelligent, velveteen-voice 30-year-olds like Chris Isaak or BUY: Into the Harry Chapin revival, the Al Johnson revival and my favorite record of last year, Bacharach and David: They Write the Songs.

SELL: Prince, and any cover version of any Prince song. BUY: Noel Harrison and a cover version of "Windmills of My Mind." SELL: Patsy Cline. BUY: Mary Chapin Carpenter. SELL: Acid house. BUY: Acid jazz and the neo-mod revival.

SELL: Jon Bon Jovi and any denim-brained guitar hero. BUY: Andrew Eldritch and the Sisters of Mercy for their plan of world domination by franchising the Sisters like McDonald's.

The 18th Annual AMA Awards

Garth Brooks

LOS ANGELES—There were few surprises at the recent 18th Annual American Music Awards, for which Cash Box supplied the nominations based on its year-end sales charts. MC Hammer scored five wins out of seven nominations, placing him just behind Michael Jackson as the artist most lauded in one night. Janet Jackson increased her own collection of AMAs by three, while Phil Collins, Bell Biv DeVoe, and Vanilla Ice took home a pair of trophies each. Surprisingly, Mariah Carey and Sinead O'Connor (both of whom figure to be around longer than some of the actual winners) walked home empty-handed.

In the country category, George Strait defeated stiff competition from Clint Black and Garth Brooks in the race for favorite male artist—while Reba McEntire defeated Patty Loveless, Kathy Mattea, Lorrie Morgan and K.T. Oslin in the race for favorite female artist. McEntire enjoyed another victory when her Reba Live album bested Black's Killin' Time and Strait's Livin' It Up in the contest for favorite country album. The award for favorite country band, duo or group went to Alabama, who were up against The Judds and Shenandoah, and The Kentucky HeadHunters were named favorite new country artist over Alan Jackson and Travis Tritt. The award for favorite country single went to Brooks' "If Tomorrow Never Comes."

Hard rock and heavy metal artists fared well both inside and outside of the heavy metal/hard rock category. Aerosmith won the award for favorite band, duo or group in the pop/rock category—defeating Bell Biv DeVoe and New Kids On The Block—and defeated Motley Crue and Poison in the contest for favorite heavy metal/hard rock artist. However, Aerosmith's Pump and Poison's Flesh and Blood were defeated by Motley Crue's Dr. Feelgood in the race for favorite heavy metal/hard rock album. The award for favorite new heavy metal/hard rock artist went to Slaughter, who was competing with Bruce Dickenson and Don Dokken.

Tiffany, Reba McEntire, Donny Osmond

Slaughter

Backstage, Slaughter leader Mark Slaughter noted the irony of defeating Dickenson—saying that Iron Maiden, for which Dickenson remains lead vocalist in addition to pursuing a solo career, was among his favorites. And in the contest for favorite pop/rock single, Jon Bon Jovi's "Blaze Of Glory" emerged victorious over such strong competition as Madonna's "Vogue" and Wilson Phillips' "Hold On."

In the rap category, Digital Underground, Too Short and Candyman walked home empty-handed, losing out to Hammer and Vanilla Ice. Tony! Toni! Tone! were named Favorite Soul/Rhythm & Blues Group. The audience was certainly one of the most vocal in the history of the show. Even those people who weren't fans of New Kids on the Block had to feel for them as they were booed when introduced by the show's host, Keenan Ivory Wayans. Cheers turned to boos for Madonna when Chubby Checker announced she couldn't attend the show because she was in New York shooting a new Woody Allen picture. Scattered boos could also be heard every time Vanilla Ice took the stage.

Country great Merle Haggard was this year's recipient of the Special Award Of Merit. Paying tribute to the veteran singer, George Strait, Garth Brooks and others performed a medley of Haggard hits that included "Mama Tried." Asked backstage in what ways he felt country music had evolved over the years, Haggard replied, "There isn't much difference in the music. (but I think) there's more appreciation of it."

Recovered from the severe accident that resulted in a broken back and required surgery and extensive therapy, Gloria Estefan performed a song from her new solo album. After the accident last year, there was doubt as to whether or not Estefan would be able to resume her career.

Backstage, things were lively indeed. Vanilla Ice got into a verbal sparring match with a reporter who'd apparently interviewed him a few months ago, run the story, and later found out that some of the things the Ice man had told her were not entirely true. "Everything Vanilla Ice says is true," he reported. When she mentioned that she had the interview on tape, he dismissed it as history.

Atlantic recording artists, En Vogue, wowed the press with their a capella, doo wop version of the National Anthem, dedicated to our troops in the Persian Gulf.

MC Hammer reflected the sobering mood that tempered the evening's festivities when he said that as glad as he was to win, his thoughts and prayers were with the troops. Jon Bon Jovi said of the Persian Gulf crisis, "I've never prayed so much in my life. I hope things are over soon because it's scaring the hell out of me."

The red hot trio, Bell Biv DeVoe, confirmed that there are still plans for New Edition to get back together, but with Ralph Tresvant's album just being released, Bobby Brown about to release the follow-up to his enormously successful, Don't Be Cruel, that New Edition project won't be for another two years.

Motley Crue's Tommy Lee, Vince Neil

Reba McEntire charmed everyone with her southern accent (and turned in one of the evening's best performances when she took the stage.) She revealed plans to do more films (if you haven't seen her in the film, Tremors, you should. It's one of the most unjustly ignored and under-rated films of recent years. Watch for it to become a cult classic.)

George Strait laughed that he brought his son with him and that his son came mainly to see Vanilla Ice and MC Hammer.

The Kentucky HeadHunters were the epitome of southern gentlemen (in scruffy dress) and kept everyone laughing with their self-deprecating humor. ("We knew we had a chance at waddin' if men were voting. But if women were voting we didn't have a chance. Not against Alan Jackson and Travis Tritt. They're good-looking and talented. We're just talented.")

NEW FACES

WWIII

BY ALEX HENDERSON

WWIII SOUNDS LIKE THE NAME OF A THRASH POSSE

on the death-metal tip. But the guitar-crunching metal and hard rock on the Los Angeles-based band's self-titled debut album on Hollywood Records is closer to Guns 'N Roses than Exodus, Sepultura or Deicide. "The name doesn't hold any heavy concept," lead vocalist/band leader Mandy Lion explains. "I realize that a lot of people will think the band is about violence, bombs and political lyrics when basically, it's about dominant, mean sex. I mean, basically, that's what we are—a sex band, nothing political."

Besides Lion, members of WWIII include guitarist Tracy G, bassist Jimmy Bain and drummer Vinny Appice. "I wanted to do things differently," Lion notes. "I wanted a new sound, and I wanted a band that did things different too. But pretty much everybody in L.A. just wants to sound like someone else who's successful because they think if it worked once, it'll work again for them. But I've never agreed with that."

The Brand New Heavies

STEEPED IN AN UNCOMPROMISING funky jazz groove, fired by the urge to bring back the intensity of live music vs. technosounds, the London-born group called the Brand New Heavies stakes a convincing claim to the return of musical greatness with their self-titled debut on Delicious Vinyl Records.

The band write, produce and play all of their music on real instruments to avoid their self-proclaimed techno-phobia—stagnation of today's music by technology. Four of the tracks feature sultry soulstress, N'Dea Davenport. Taken as a whole, The Brand New Heavies is a free-wheeling jaunt into slinky, funky jams that sounds at once cohesive and absolutely original. They're the real deal.

ROCK

BY ALEX HENDERSON

STUDIO SAVAGERY: Aerosmith has begun writing songs for the follow-up to its Pump album of 1989. The Boston bombers plan to begin recording the album in May or June. Once again, Bruce Fairbairn is producing. Geffen is looking at a possible Fall 1991 release... Hard rock and/or metal artists who are presently in the studio recording new albums for MCA Records include Steelheart, Spread Eagle and glamsters Pretty Boy Floyd. MCA may be releasing the albums in June or July... Liquid Jesus, whose last album was released by the independent Triple X Records, is now with MCA and is recording its first album for the label, Pour In The Sky—which has a release date of May 14... In April, Metal Blade is scheduled to release metalheads Armored Saint's first studio effort since 1986...

HIGHWAY TO HELL: INXS, whose seventh album, X, is platinum, is scheduled to begin its Let The X Factor Begin Tour in Daytona, Florida on February 3. The tour, which will last until early April, includes 39 cities in the U.S. and Canada... New Jersey hard rockers Trixter are scheduled to begin an American arena tour opening for The Scorpions in Albuquerque, New Mexico on February 20 and remain on the road with the German headbangers until April 30... Don Dokken is touring the arenas as an opening act for Poison... Steelheart, whose "I'll Never Let You Go" video is enjoying heavy rotation on MTV, is touring the U.S. with The Lynch Mob (not to be confused with gangster-style rapper Ice Cube's posse, The Lench Mob) in February...

ON JAZZ

BY LEE JESKE

WYNTON MARSALIS IS MORE THAN TWICE HIS AGE: The kid's name is Amani Murray, he's 14, he plays the saxophone, and he's just been signed to GRP Records (that's the label's Larry Rosen, left, and Carl Griffin flanking him). He's 14. 14. One-four. Imaginel

A LITTLE NIGHT MUSIC: Record producer Joel Dorn, whose name is attached to a lot of Atlantic releases from the '60s and '70s, has just launched an odd label called Night Records, dedicated to previously-unreleased live recordings of, for the most part, jazz musicians. A Virgin subsidiary, Night is, as far as I can tell, a way to legally release jazz bootlegs: in other words, to release private recordings made in homes and clubs, recordings perhaps made illicitly at the time.

Night's first four releases are Cannonball Adderley's Radio Nights, Rahsaan Roland Kirk's The Man Who Cried Fire, Eddie Harris' A Tale of Two Cities and Les McCann's Les is More. Except for the Adderley recordings (primarily done in late '67 and early '68 at New York's Half Note), these albums are hodgepodge recordings hither and thither. Dorn claims to have access to 200,000 hours of live tapes, many of them made privately by his associate, Bernard Drayton.

Not surprisingly, some of the tapes come from the collection of Todd Barkan, who ran San Francisco's Keystone Korner. Barkan, it is said, recorded many of the sets at the club off the soundboard. If that is true, one's mind boggles at the previously-unreleased live tapes he has of the likes of, say, Miles Davis, a frequent Keystoneer. Blue Note, which a couple of years ago released a double-LP of Barkan's live recordings of Dexter Gordon as Nights of the Keystone, has gone back to the Keystone well for the CD issue of the thing: beefing it up to three full CDs of the great Dexter at the height of his powers, back home from Europe in 1977. Another of Barkan's efforts, recording the Bill Evans Trio a week before Evans' 1980 death, has also recently surfaced, as an eight-CD Japanese boxed set or as individual CDs from Holland's Timeless Records.

This all raises a lot of issues:

Did the artists know and approve of the recordings?

Doesn't this encourage people to sneak their Walkmans into clubs and concerts, to provide fodder for the Night Records releases of the 21st century?

Doesn't this play havoc with copyright laws in various countries (in parts of Europe, for example, any live recording over 20 years old, even from a TV or radio broadcast, is in the public domain; the reason so many live-in-Europe Miles Davis, John Coltrane, Sonny Rollins and Thelonious Monk albums suddenly showed up in Europe ten years ago)? Musicians often react to tape recorders with pure horror (I've seen more than one set held up while the source of a red light beaming in the dark was tracked down)—they know that, especially in Europe, these things are going to come back to haunt them, without any royalties ever coming back to enrich them.

Of course, Night Records is aboveboard, as is anything Blue Note releases. But that doesn't mean that, at the time, the recordings were made above that same board. And there's an irony here: Do we really need a batch of poorly-recorded, sloppily assembled Rahsaan Roland Kirk, Cannonball Adderley, Les McCann and Eddie Harris albums? Sure, Kirk and Adderley are important players, but they were very, very well recorded during their careers (with tons of CDs currently available); although the playing on these albums is generally up to their fine standards, they add little to their legacies. McCann and Harris are minor players who haven't had record deals in years: do we need this live stuff, much of it material they've recorded better elsewhere? No doubt among Dorn's quarter of a million hours of tape (and amongst Barkan's rumored stash) are nuggets: Miles, Trane, Rollins, Dolphy, who knows what else. But chances are those are going to remain unissued as long as the various parties and estates demand that they remain so (or until they show up on European labels). Night, we're told, is working on some Mose Allison and Dr. John for the next batch? Look, I love Mose Allison, but chances are these live recordings are going to be redundant: his live shows don't change much from year to year, as he sings the favorites that he's recorded so very well. Do we need some previously-unreleased Mose Allison? Dr. John, if it was recorded in the right place at the right time, could be another story, but it is unlikely to be anything revelatory; chances are it'll be yet more versions of "Iko Iko" and the like.

Actually, this raises yet another thought. Think about such musicians as Miles, Trane, Dolphy, Rollins, Charlie Parker, Clifford Brown, Django Reinhardt, Ornette Coleman, Lester Young and Billie Holiday, to name a few. Unquestionably, everything they ever recorded—released or unreleased—is important. Every note is coveted by collectors, every note adds something to our knowledge of them and their art. Now think about jazz in 1991. How many musicians currently working, either veterans or youngbloods, can this be said about? How much currency is going to be placed, 20 years from now, on live jazz recordings made in 1991? Taking nothing away from Wynton Marsalis—whose development into an extraordinary trumpet player has been discussed here—are people going to be searching out his alternate takes and private live performances in the future? Or anybody's? (Sonny Rollins is one current player who is frequently the subject of live recordings, but that's due mainly to the fact that, for some reason, his recordings never really approach the titanic levels of his best live performances.)

Well, time will tell (who knows how important some of the music being made today is going to seem later?), but, somehow, one doubts it. Which boils down to that other old saw: Where are today's jazz geniuses? (Not extraordinary talents, geniuses.) Jazz musicians of yesteryear used to wait impatiently for new releases by the greats of the day. Do today's young players hunger after new releases, or surreptitious Dean Benedetti-like recordings, of any particular players?

I don't know what Joel Dorn's got in his enormous stockpile of live recordings, but if there are any real gems, I hope he's able to get them out.

RHYTHM & BLUES

BY ERNEST HARDY

NEWS: On Thursday, February 21, 1991, The Rhythm and Blues Foundation will present their 1990/1991 Pioneer Awards during a reception sponsored by Sony Music Entertainment, Inc., at Tatou (151 East 50th) from 6:00 to 8:00 PM. The Honorable David Dinkins, Mayor of New York, has declared February 21st to be "Rhythm and Blues Day" in honor of the music and the legendary pioneers who created the artform.

The Rhythm and Blues Foundation is an independent nonprofit organization formed to foster wider recognition, financial support, and historic and cultural preservation of r&b and its artists.

OTHER NEWS: Check out the new single, "Tell Me," by A&M recording act, The Wooten Brothers. Their album was released a little while ago, and should have immediately appealed to the Guy and Today crowd. These guys have incredible voices, and the single has been remixed so it should appeal to both the r&b and dance crowds.

Atlantic Records should rush En Vogue into the studio to record their version of the National Anthem. When they sang it a cappella for the press backstage at the American Music Awards, they brought the house down.

IN THE BAG: MCA Records has announced the signing of Whodini to a recording contract. The trio's MCA debut, Bag-A-Trix, is their first new release in nearly three years and is scheduled to hit streets March 19. Pictured at the signing ceremony (standing, l-r) are: Richard Palmese, president, MCA Records; Grandmaster Dee (Drew Carter), Whodini; Bruce Dickinson, vice president of A&R, East Coast, MCA; Al Teller, chairman, MCA Music Entertainment Group; Frank Edwards, manager, Whodini; Ernie Singleton, president, Black Music Division, MCA Records; (kneeling, l-r): Jaiil Hutchins, Whodini; Ecstasy (John Fletcher), Whodini.

RAP/DANCE

BY ERNEST HARDY

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW: First, the old. Warner Bros. has just released a CD that B-52's fans (recent or longtime) will definitely want in their music collection. The disc contains the albums, Party Mix, and Mesopotamia. The former is one of the best things the group ever did, a sort of greatest hits from the Wild Planet and The B-52's albums. (It includes classics like "Party Out of Bounds," "Private Idaho," "Give Me Back My Man," and "Dance This Mess Around.") Mesopotamia was skewered by critics when first released and wasn't such a hot seller, either, but it does contain two noteworthy efforts—the title song and "Cake." Look for it.

While we're speaking of the old, a disc that was released a while ago, but isn't getting the sort of attention it really deserves is Wopboplorledo by the group of the same name. Lifting old Motown melodies with the ease of master cat burglars, this group has churned out a collection of infectious and instantly memorable songs. Good stuff.

Lifer's Group

Now for the new. MCA Records has two rap releases of note, the first being Eric B. and Rakim's "Mahogany" and the other, Father M.C.'s "Lisa Baby," the follow-up to his hit, "I'll Do 4 U."

Hollywood Records has just released the self-titled EP by the Lifer's Group, the first rap band consisting entirely of maximum security prison inmates. Formed in East Jersey State Prison in Rahway, New Jersey, the record is the brainchild of Lifer's Group veepee Maxwell Melvins, a convicted murderer now serving a life sentence. Artist proceeds from the sale of the EP will go towards continuing the Lifer's Juvenile Awareness Program, formerly known as "Scared Straight."

Young Black Teenagers

The controversial rap group, Young Black Teenagers, has reclaimed Public Enemy's "Security of the First World" from Madonna and Lenny Kravitz. That track is an instrumental found on PE's It Takes a Nation of Millions To Hold Us Back. "The First Lady of Shock and the Neo-hippie lifted it, dressed it up just a tad, and then had the music for 'Justify My Love.'" YBT take it back on "To My Donna." Putting aside my own pro-Madonna biases, the track is disappointing. I've heard any number of clever take-offs on the song from friends and co-workers, and YBT is nowhere near as inspired. Still, if they're gonna ape a master/mistress of controversy, they've gone to the top. (And considering that they are, at least tenuously, a part of the Public Enemy camp, they're thoroughbreds in the game of controversy.) I still look forward to their debut LP, due very soon.

COCINANDO

BY TONY SABOURNIN

IN A WAR-CREATED LESS-GIDDY TONE THAN USUAL, life in the music business goes on, in spite of media-coverage overkill that has made us deal with previously unknown names and military jargon. Words like Sadaam, SCUDS, Patriots, sorties, nerve gas and CNN; where the loss of human life is described, in simile with insurance terminology, as "collateral damage." As for me, I'd rather merengue.

□ JUAN LUIS GUERRA Y 4.40 El Original 4.40 (WEA Latina WM 71501-1)

With Juan Luis Guerra y Grupo 4.40's success during 1990—mostly via "Burbujas de Amor," possibly the year's top single in any genre—there must be scores of buyers wondering about the group's previous musical history. The answer, by sheer genesis, is this production. Recently released by WEA Latina, El Original is 4.40 at its unquestionable best; a smorgasbord of musical delicacies where the since-departed female voices of Maridalia Hernández and Mariela Mercado enhance and carry the vocal harmonies, thus making the grooves mellow and wider-ranging than 4.40's current version.

Rather than focusing on Guerra's piercingly commercial lyrics and pop merengue structures, El Original emphasizes folksy D.R. songs, both in Dominican origins and Derechos Reservados publishing status. Yet, the distinctive jazz flavor in the vocal harmonies, doo-wop charts and solos on "Feliciano," "Jardinera" and "Juana Mecho" will surprise fans of Guerra's current formulaic patterns.

The only Guerra composition in the production, "Soplando," (the album's title when initially released almost 10 years ago) showcases the wonderful possibilities in mixing Machito and his Afro-Cubans' big-band style with Manhattan Transfer-influenced vocalese. Ms. Hernández, proprietor of a crystalline four-octave range, flaunts her Sarah Vaughan-ish tinges in Manuel Troncoso's "Carnaval," framed by a piano-bass-drum jazz trio.

Rather than complain about the absence of credits—painfully accentuated by the exquisite contributions of Manuel Tejada (keyboards), Rigoberto Olea (trombone), Armando Beltré (trumpet), and the greatest tambora player ever, el difunto Angel "Catarey" Miró—I'd like to leave you with one malicious thought:

Wouldn't it be great if WEA Latina, spurred by the 100,000-plus sales of Guerra's recent release Bachata Rosa, decided to undertake its own 4.40 marketing sortie? Something like 100 or 200 stand-ups with the original group's picture, with a specially built pocket for, let's say, 15 LPs, CDs or cassettes, and make them available to prominent distributors or retailers.

For Karen Records' Bienvenido Rodriguez, it'd represent no additional collateral damage. In fact, it'd be the first time his efforts would contribute to a really worthy cause.

□ TROPICAL PEOPLE In Tropical Emotions (Leader Records/Sony Discos LIL-80456)

□ PEDRO GUZMAN Y JIBARO JAZZ Volume 2 (Sonotone SO-1181)

As proud as I am for these discographic manifestations of jazz's evolution in Puerto Rico, it behooves us to explain differences in this incipient genre. I mean, there's enough confusion with folks who can't distinguish between Paquito D'Rivera's special brand of Latin jazz and Astor Piazzolla's. Which means only one thing: It's about time to put to pasture the term "Latin jazz." But that's a war for another recession. Since someone said that education is the most efficient path to raising the consciousness of any social class, let's open the classroom's doors for a simultaneous review of two unique productions.

Tropical People can be described as subtly aggressive, an attitude personified by its leader Raúl Rodríguez, a vibist with apparent influences as divergent as Joe Cuba and Lionel Hampton who stretches his percussive presence to marimba, timbales, bongo and minor percussion. Therefore, it isn't surprising that Tropical People bounds with daring and adventurousness, flowing fluidly from New Age to funk, from the classics to lo clásico.

Milton Pérez's "A Note to a Friend" is quite impactful, thanks to fiery performances by trumpet player Jochy Rodríguez and the magnificent keyboardist-sampling José Lugo—the respective arrangers for the beboppish "Tropical Emotions" and the hybrid of Bach's A Minor Concerto and Pedro Flores' immortal "Obsesión."

Jibaro Jazz has its first name's no-nonsense directness and total absence of pretenses. And even though it gyrates around leader Pedro Guzmán's sizzling cuatro work, the remaining members play a much bigger role than a supporting cast would, as each is prominently featured on at least one of the 16 tracks in the production.

Instead of being boring, this ample variety allows plenty of opportunities for Guzmán to exhibit his influences. Among those of the indirect persuasion are "Gufeando" (a Latin New York anglicism that means "goofing around"), which owes more than an average debt to Elvis Presley's version of "Jailhouse Rock," and his version of "Mary Had a Little Lamb."

Guzmán's direct roots have the subtlety of five SCUDs soaring over Patriotless airs. His "Fantasía del Cuatro" sheds the farmer garbs to reveal a solid contender for any urban "Quiet Storm" format. Bobby Capó's "Soñando con Puerto Rico" loses none of Don Bobby's original nostalgic seeds, the mind wondering if, like a Caribbean version of Simon and Garfunkel's Boxer, the big city can really be left behind to wander forever beneath the island's shady palm trees.

For ears like mine, always seeking the next musical level—like world peace, often dissappointedly—it's a thrill to know there's hope in Puerto Rico, just beyond the salsa and merengue horizons.

INDIE PROFILE

CHASE MUSIC GROUP

BILL STILFIELD, OWNER/PRESIDENT OF CHASE MUSIC GROUP, wants to set the record straight and clear up a misconception some may have: the jazz-oriented Chase is not the same as the defunkt Pausa Records, for which Stilfield and Chase vice president Ellen Cohn worked. Stilfield's duties at Pausa included A&R, while Cohn handled promotion. "Pausa Records and Chase Music Group are two totally separate companies," emphasizes Stilfield, who founded Chase in September 1987. "The only connection is that I worked for Pausa Records for ten years or so, and Ellen was also there the last couple of years. When I decided to strike out on my own, I invited Ellen to come with me. I'd been responsible for bringing a lot of artists to the Pausa label, and when I started my own label, Chase Music Group, I brought many of the artists I'd developed relationships with to my label, including Julie Kelly. And we worked out a deal whereby Chase Music Group reissued the Tom Grant catalogue."

Stilfield estimates that Chase's roster consists of roughly half mainstream jazz artists and half fusionists. The mainstream jazz artists recording for Chase include vocalist Kelly; drummer Ed Shaughnessy; Pete Peterson, a DC-10 pilot for American Airlines who leads a Dallas-based big band on the side; and vibist Charlie Shoemake, while the label's fusionists include guitarists Peter White and Richard Smith, pianist Emil Palame and keyboardists Mike Garson and Joe LoCascio. Meanwhile, The SOS All Stars, a big band; vocalist Mark Winkler and guitarist Dan Balmer have recorded both mainstream and contemporary jazz for Chase.

Chase entered the blues market last year when it launched Mighty Tiger as a sister label and reissued titles by John Lee Hooker and Willie Dixon. Stilfield notes, "The initial idea is to reissue things in the blues genre we feel are of significance. Once we develop the Mighty Tiger catalogue and the label's identity, we'll be getting involved with signing blues artists."

Like other jazz labels, Chase reports that CDs are outselling cassettes—roughly 70% CDs to 30% cassettes. Stilfield recalls, "We stopped pressing vinyl in September of '89. Our vinyl sales were down to pretty much nothing. Distributors weren't ordering them. I was disappointed at how fast vinyl was eliminated from the marketplace, but it got to the point where it just didn't make any sense from a financial standpoint to continue pressing vinyl. And now, we're paying a lot closer attention to what we release on cassette. This year, we'll be releasing some mainstream jazz titles only on CD. We're finding out that while certain types of fusion will do well on cassette, the mainstream jazz buyer is really not interested in cassettes—they're pretty much in to CDs. We don't do much in the way of cassette sales on mainstream jazz."

SINGLES

□ SPECIAL ED: "Come On, Let's Move It" (Profile PCD-7322)

"Come On, Let's Move It," the latest single from Special Ed's second album, Legal, is a hardcore rap song that was produced and mixed by Hitman Howie Tee—who wrote the song with Special Ed. The single contains the original album version and a four-minute remix.

ALBUMS

□ PHIL WOODS' LITTLE BIG BAND: Real Life (Chesky JD47)

While Phil Woods' Little Big Band—an acoustic jazz octet consisting of Woods on alto sax and clarinet, Tom Harrell on trumpet and flugelhorn, Hal Crook on trombone, Nick Brignola on baritone and alto sax, Nelson Hill on tenor and alto sax, Jim McNeeley on piano, Steve Gilmore on bass and Bill Goodwin on drums—isn't a big band in the strict sense, the jazzmen exhibit such "big" sounds on Real Life that the unit often sounds like it has more than eight members. From intense swingers like pianist Hal Galper's "Loose Change" and Woods' "How's Your Mama?" to Crook's sensuous ballad "Idols," the digitally recorded Real Life is one hell of a blowing session.

□ MAGIC SAM: Magic Sam Live (Delmark DE-645)

The sound quality resembles that of a bootleg, but this 74-minute CD (recorded live at the defunkt Alex Club in Chicago in 1963 and '64 and at the 1969 Ann Arbor Blues Festival in Michigan) captures the soul and fire that made Magic Sam (who died in 1969 at the age of 32) a captivating Chicago bluesman. Sam's vocals are passionate, and his electric guitar truly burns. Killer.

□ SONIA DIABATE: Girls Of Guinea (Shanachie 65007)

Compare Guinea native Sonia Diabate's Girls Of Guinea to faster and more danceable styles of African music such as soukous, and you'll have one example of the diversity of African styles. Diabate's music is slow to mid-tempo, relaxed and dominated by acoustic guitar instead of percussion or horns. Except for the traditional "Horro," all of the CD's six tracks were written by Diabate—whose music illustrates just how effective simplicity can be.

□ CHARLIE PARKER & CHET BAKER: Inglewood Jam (Time Is TI9801)

An irony of the disdain some jazz critics had for Chet Baker's music is the fact that none other than bebop revolutionary Charlie Parker saw in the Miles Davis-influenced trumpeter what myopic critics didn't—warmth, sensitivity and a strikingly personal approach. Inglewood Jam, recorded at the Trade Winds Restaurant in Inglewood, California in 1952, has long been available in Japan but hasn't been released on an American label until now. At this jam session, altoist Bird and Baker have plenty of room to stretch out on such swinging, spirited fare as an 11-minute "Indiana," a 10-minute "Liza," a 14-minute reading of Tadd Dameron's "The Squirrel." The masters are joined by Sonny Criss (second alto), pianist Russ Freeman, bassist Harry Babison and drummer Lawrence Marable (drums) on a CD-only release that is essential listening for fans of both Bird and Baker.

□ LUTHER "GUITAR JUNIOR" JOHNSON & THE MAGIC ROCKERS: I Want To Groove With You (Bullseye Blues 9506)

Luther "Guitar Junior" Johnson (not to be confused with fellow blues singer/guitarist Luther "House Rocker" Johnson, who records for Ichiban) has a strong urban blues effort in I Want To Groove With You. The album has its share of burning guitar, although Sax Gordon's tenor sax is equally prominent and adds a great deal to the material.

□ THE LAST POETS: Freedom Express (Celluloid CEL6172)

It's been said that The Last Poets were rappers 10 years before L.L. Cool J or Run-D.M.C. busted a rhyme on the mic. Some of their sides were on the spoken word tip, while others were rhymed. Freedom Express, their latest effort, contains more singing than rapping and is closer to '60s and early '70s soul than "urban contemporary." While "Geronimo" and "Unholy Alliance" combine a classic funk sound with spoken rhymes, "Tough Enough" and the Indian-ish "Woodshed Walk" are more singing-oriented.

BMG/CAREERS MUSIC (NASHVILLE)—These companies have had their hottest years ever. Careers/BMG was the hottest Country Singles Publisher of 1990, and in addition, BMG Music, celebrating its third year anniversary this month, was ranked in the top three in the Top Country Publishing Corporations category. Among the many hits that propelled them were such #1 singles as "Hard Rock Bottom Of Your Heart," "Five Minutes," "Next To You, Next To Me," "Friends In Low Places" and "You Really Had Me Going." Also represented on numerous country chart albums by major artists Garth Brooks, Mark Chesnutt, The Judds, Shenandoah, Randy Travis, Lorrie Morgan, Willie Nelson, Holly Dunn and Kathy Mattea, to name just a few, put Careers/BMG Nashville at the top...

BUG MUSIC—Steve Summers' "This Time," is on the first Sussana Hoffs (former lead singer of The Bangles) solo LP release, out now... Green Daniels & Gretchen Peters' "Chill Of An Early Fall," is the first single on George Strait's new LP... Del Shannon's final album, produced by Jeff Lynne and Mike Campbell is now complete and will be out in the spring... new Giant Sand (Amazing Black Sand Records) album Sverve, will be released on Demon Records throughout Europe... Denny Freeman co-wrote "Baboom/Mama Said" with Jimmie & Stevie Ray Vaughn for their (in the stores now) Family Style LP... Willie Dixon's Hidden Charms (Bug Records) will be released on Silvertone in the U.K. & Europe, and Festival in Australia... Blood Oranges' Corn River (Rykodisk) LP is out now... Marshall

Crenshaw's 1st album for Paradox/MCA, Life's Too Short, is finished and is slated for a March release... Walking Wounded has a live LP, Live From The West out now in Europe, and a studio LP, Hardtimes, due on Dr.Dream Records in March... and there's a new Sam Phillips LP produced by T-Bone Burnett, coming soon on Charisma... Bug welcomes Connie Ambrosch, who has been appointed to the post of director of administration & creative services... and after 10 years, Bug bids a fond farewell to Barbara Meador with a party held in her honor on Jan. 11th. They'll miss her. All in all, BUG MUSIC IS BUZZIN!...

VIRGIN MUSIC—Joey Alkes, my in the know/street-wise friend, told me about They Eat Their Own in mid-1990. He informed me that this hot L.A. band had their EP and a video released in the U.K. & France on a small independent label, and that they were a group to keep an eye on. As usual, Joey was right again! Congratulations to director of A&R at Virgin Music, Susan Collins, who brought They Eat Their Own to Virgin Music Publishing, and the group is now off and running in a big way. Their first single, "Like A Drug," is popping the alternative and new rock charts, is being featured on MTV's 120 Minutes, and got rave reviews from their recent debut L.A. show at the Roxy. They Eat Their Own will take off soon for a two month tour of the N.E. and Midwest, including some Special Guest dates with the Replacements...

KEEP AN EAR OPEN FOR-DEPT.—One of the more vital and exciting music trends of the early and mid-80's was the refinement of urban and soul music by smart, stylish British artists like Martin Fry of ABC, Roland Gift of Fine Young Cannibals and Peter Weller of the Jam and Style Council. Now, at the beginning of a new decade, London's own Slam Slam (MCA) does to hip-hop and house music what these groups did to soul, with its debut album Free Your Feelings. Slam Slam's lead singer, Dee C. Lee, is well-groomed for pop stardom, having sung with Wham! and Style Council, her husband Paul Weller's group. Mr. Weller contributed back-up vocals, wrote or co-wrote seven of the ten songs, and, along with Robert Howard (Blow Monkeys), brought his production aesthetic to the project, helping make the album a prime candidate for crossover. The first 12" single, "Move," reached the Top 15 on last year's Dance Charts, and the current track, "Something Ain't Right," has just been released. In addition to abundant dance beats, Free Your Feelings features several soulful ballads. Dee is based in London, but should be stateside soon!...

RETURN OF "THE GEEZER"—After a five year absence from the band he helped form, bassist Terry "Geezer" Butler has reteamed with Tony Iommi and Black Sabbath, one of the most influential bands in the history of hard rock. Both are writing for their new I.R.S. Records release, and expect to be recording in the Spring. The last time Butler and Iommi recorded together was in 1983, for the studio album Born Again. Their last appearance together was in '85 at Live-Aid. Butler then joined Ozzy Osbourne's band with whom he wrote, toured, and recorded until the summer of 1990. Black Sabbath carried on, but never quite duplicated the success it had known with Butler in the line-up. However, Butler stayed in touch with Iommi, even joining him on-stage at a concert at London's Hammersmith Odeon last September. Black Sabbath long reigned as the world's #1 metal band with such albums as Paranoid, Masters of Reality, Heaven and Hell and Sabbath Bloody Sabbath. Butler says, "I'm thrilled to be back with my first band, and it's great to be writing good heavy music. It feels like I've come home again."...

"SERIOUSLY" BOYS!—The Pet Shop Boys are back with a new single, "How Can You Expect To Be Taken Seriously," off their Behavior LP. Musically a funky track, lyrically a classic, it makes vicious fun of pop stars desperate to be recognized as legitimate social forces. The PSBs, Tennant & Lowe, will kick-off a world tour sometime in March with a series of shows in Japan, and will move to the U.S., work their way east, and after a few shows in Canada, will return for a triumphant homecoming concert at Wembley in London...

MOVIN' UP—Officially, Holly Greene appointed to vp/Creative Operations East Coast for EMI Music Publishing. Previously, Holly ran Jobete's E.C. operations, and has had an outstanding amount of covers and award winning songs to her credit... (London) Nick Phillips to the position of managing director of MCAMusic Ltd., reporting directly to John Brands, director of the UK Company and vp/MCA Music International. Phillips, with MCA since '88, has achieved considerable success with acts emanating from both the UK and US... Congratulations!...

Music City News Country Songwriters Awards

The Top 20 nominees were recently announced for the coveted "Song Of The Year" honor, to be presented during the Music City News Country Songwriters Awards. For the first time ever, the awards presentation will be telecast on The Nashville Network, live from the Grand Ole Opry House Monday, April 29, at 9:00 PM. The "Song Of The Year" award is the result of Music City News readers selecting their favorite songs from a December ballot.

"It's gratifying to see the diversity of talent and styles represented in our readers' selection of their favorite 20 songs," says John Sturdivant, editor/general manager, Music City News. "All 20 were chart-toppers, and it's hard to imagine how this great list will be narrowed down. Of course, the real excitement will come when we see which one emerges as "Song Of The Year."

From the 20 nominees, readers will pick their ten favorite songs of the year. Those ten songs will be performed, and the song receiving the most votes from balloting will be named Song Of The Year. Nominees include: "The Dance," writer: Tony Arata; "Friends In Low Places," writers: Bud Lee/Dewayne Blackwell; "He Walked On Water," writers: Alan Jackson/Mark Irwin; "I Meant Every Word He Said," writers: Joe Chambers/Curly Putman/Bucky Jones; "I'd Be Better Off (In A Pine Box)," writers: Johnny McRae/Steve Clark; "If Tomorrow Never Comes," writers: Kent Blazy/Garth Brooks; "Jukebox In My Mind," writers: Dave Gibson/Ronnie Rogers; "Killin' Time," writers: Clint Black/Hayden Nicholas; "Love Without End, Amen," writer: Aaron Baker; "Out Of Your Shoes," writers: Patti Ryan/Sharon Spivey/Jill Wood; "Seein' My Father In Me," writers: Taylor Dunn/Paul Overstreet; "Statue Of A Fool," writer: Jan Crutchfield; "That Just About Does It," writers: Vern Gosdin/Max D. Barnes; "Til A Tear Becomes A Rose," writers: Bill Rice/Mary Sharon Rice; "Too Cold At Home," writer: Bobby L. Hardin; "Wanted," writers: Alan Jackson/Charlie Craig; "When I Call Your Name," writers: Vince Gill/Tim DuBoise; "Where've You Been," writers: Don Henry/Jon Vezner; and "You Lie," writers: Bobby Fischer/Austin Roberts/Charlie Black.

CRS Update...

STARRY LINE-UP SLATED TO APPEAR AT COUNTRY RADIO SEMINAR 22

—Appearing at the opening ceremonies of the seminar will be superstars Vern Gosdin, Merle Haggard, Randy Travis and Tammy Wynette. Their historic joint performance will take place at 8:30 a.m. on Thursday, March 7. Appearing at the annual ASCAP luncheon show on Friday, March 8, from 12 noon to 2 p.m. will be Reprise Records artist Carlene Carter, MCA Records artist Mark Collie and Columbia Records artist Mike Reid.

For the second consecutive year, the Canadian Country Music Assn. (CCMA) will sponsor a luncheon and showcase country acts based in Canada. The CCMA luncheon is set for Saturday, March 9, from 12 noon to 2 p.m. Performing will be Patricia Conroy, Anita Perras and the Good Brothers. Conroy, a WEA Records artist, is the winner of the CCMA's Vista Award (similar to the CMA Horizon Award), while Perras is the winner of the 1986 and 1987 CCMA Female Vocalist of the Year awards. Both the Good Brothers and Perras record for Savannah Records.

Also appearing at CRS 22 will be stand-up comedian and newly signed Epic Records artist James Gregory. One of the most popular performers on the national comedy club circuit, Gregory will perform on Friday, March 8, at 8:30 a.m. Other entertainers scheduled to speak during this year's Music Industry Professional Seminars (MIPS), include Rosanne Cash and Garth Brooks.

GerriCo Expands Promotion Business

GERRIE McDOWELL LOWDERMILK announces the expansion of GerriCo to include music video promotion as well as independent record promotion. Lowdermilk has been in record promotion for over 20 years. Prior to establishing the independent record promotion company, GerriCo, in September 1990, she served as director of sales and marketing for Capitol Records in Nashville. GerriCo begins its distribution and promotion of country music videos early this month.

Country Music Steps Out Internationally

The Legarde Twins

DURING A RECENT MUSIC CITY RECEPTION, Australian country music artists The Legarde Twins were honored following the announcement of their latest contribution to country music. The telecast of Down Home-Down Under, a new TV program consisting of both American and Australian brands of country music, debuts on the Nashville affiliate of the Fox Network this month and will be hosted by Tom and Ted Legarde. The program is now showing once a week on Australia's ABC nationwide television. Down Home is a Nashville country aspect and down under represents an Australian counter part. The Legarde Twins have long been credited for increasing the strength and exposure of country music in Australia, and the anticipated success of the new program should only enhance such credibility. According to Brian Cadd, Down Home-Down Under writer and supervisor, one of the aims of the new show is to allow Australian audiences to become better acquainted with American country music artists and to also introduce Australian artists to American artists. Adding yet another notch in their belts of many honors, Tom & Ted Legarde also received the Distant Accord's Award for International Festivals. About 15 countries were represented recently at the presentation of the prestigious award.

Johnny Cash

Bill Anderson

While recording his current LP project, If There Was A Way, Reprise recording artist Dwight Yoakam invited the popular Indigo Girls, Amy Ray and Emily Sillers, to sing on a cut entitled "Dangerous Man." "I thought they'd add a certain color to it that it wouldn't have had with just male voices," Yoakam comments. The Indigo Girls and Yoakam first met during the Grammys last year. Pictured from (l-r) are: Ray, Yoakam and Sillers.

IF IT TAKES TWO TO TANGLE, the tanglers in this case are Ricky Van Shelton and Patty Loveless. The two recording artists will headline forty country music concerts to be staged under the Red Man "Flavor Of America" Country Music Concert Series banner. The tour, which begins February 7th in Tulsa, Oklahoma, will feature a third act on the majority of its dates, including Ricky Skaggs, Michelle Wright, Mark Collie, the Bellamy Brothers, the Forester Sisters, Skip Ewing, Aaron Tippin, Highway 101, Billy Dean, Vince Gill, T. Graham Brown, Marty Stuart and James House. The concert series will extend through March 5th.

STILL JUST-A SWINGIN' is long-time-no-hear-from John Anderson. After recently returning home from an extensive tour of West Germany, the 1983 CMA Horizon Award winner is gearing up for a run throughout the West Coast in early February. Anderson has also been in the studio working on a new project with a release date yet to be announced.

BY VIRTUE OF THE CURRENT MID-EAST SITUATION, a song which was first released in late September of last year, is now receiving overwhelming response at Nashville's WSM radio. The single entitled "Going' By The Book," recorded by Johnny Cash, is causing the phones to ring off the hook, according to WSM PD Kevin O'Neal. "Goin' By The Book," a timely tune in which WSM has interspersed with excerpts from selected speeches made by President Bush regarding the Iraq conflict, was actually written several years ago by songwriter Chester Lester. "It's a prophetic song about the Battle of Armageddon, our ecology, and prophecy being fulfilled," says Cash. With the additional excerpts included, WSM staffers feel as if they've taken a great song and made it fit even better for the times. Renowned country artist Bill Anderson is also receiving some phenomenal recognition for the recent release of his "Deck Of Cards" single. Originally released (and written) by T. Texas Tyler in the late 40's, during World War II, "Deck Of Cards" tells an inspirational story of a young soldier in Saudi Arabia, who compares a deck of cards to the Holy Bible. The heartfelt story, which is beautifully recited by Anderson, with the tune of "Jesus Loves Me" in the background, was also recorded in the 60's by Wink Martindale, on the Dot Records label.

KZLA/KLAC ANNOUNCES SALES DEPARTMENT CHANGES—In addition to the 1989 promotion of Bonnie Stone to sales manager, Andrea Cohen Siegel has been appointed to the position of retail sales manager. Joseph D. Schwartz, who was previously the manager of KATZ Radio in Los Angeles, also joins the KZLA/KLAC staff as the newest member of the local sales staff. Denise Roberts, who's been with the station since 1988, has been appointed to the position of theme month producer. KZLA/KLAC Radio is based in Burbank, California.

MOLLY & THE HEYMAKERS, one of the newest acts on the Reprise Records roster, continues to move up the Cash Box chart with their debut single "Chasin' A Thing Called Love." So it's certainly no wonder that the new group is receiving astounding response from the radio market. Lenny Fox, of KKIX Radio in Fayetteville, Arizona, describes the Molly & The Heymakers single as being a very fresh sound! "Chasin' A Thing Called Love" moves from #67 to the #62 slot on this week's Cash Box Top 100 Country Singles chart.

THUMBS UP TO THESE CASH BOX STATIONS AND DJs FOR THEIR CONSISTENCY IN REPORTING: KULP, Clint Robinson, El Campo, Texas; WHPY, Larry Denning, Clayton, North Carolina; WPLX, Roy Mack, Cordova, Tennessee; WLSA, Skip Ramsey, Louisa, Virginia; and WCCN, J. Kevin Grap, Neillsville, Wisconsin

■ SINGLE RELEASES

OUT OF THE BOX

□ MARY-CHAPIN CARPENTER: "Right Now" (Columbia 38 73699)

Producers: John Jennings/Mary-Chapin Carpenter

Writers: A. Lewis/S. Bradford

Call it demanding or simply commanding—Mary-Chapin Carpenter's "Right Now" single proves to be both—with the speed turned up to super-high! As Carpenter has already proven to be an artist who presents an extremely wide range of musical arenas, this cut from her Shooting Straight In The Dark LP reveals the sultrier end of the range. With a spiced-up rock-n-roll flavor, Carpenter's husky-tone vocals wail out snappy lyrics which demand a rush order of love. WARNING: The piano work is extremely hot and may be hazardous to delicate ears!

FEATURE PICKS

□ ROSANNE CASH: "On The Surface" (Columbia 02299)

Producer: Rosanne Cash

Writers: R. Cash/J. Tittle

This lady is rapidly becoming an all-format superstar, and it's cuts like this that are responsible for garnering her such recognition. "On The Surface," which sparks from the new Exteriors project, unfolds Cash's tranquilizing vocals, a featherly shower of acoustics and brilliant lyrics about the often misleading exterior of love.

□ TRAVIS TRITT: "Drift Off To Dream" (Warner Bros. 4656)

Producer: Gregg Brown

Writers: T. Tritt/S. Harris

Here's one for the idealistic romantic, and a potential power-house single for Travis Tritt. "Drift Off To Dream," a heart-probing ballad from Tritt's debut Country Club LP, flows with the warmest of whimsical lyrics, while Tritt's rugged vocals and sensual delivery somehow manage to pull a dream much closer to reality.

□ MERLE HAGGARD: "A Bar In Bakersfield" (Curb NR-76854)

Producers: Mark Yearly/Merle Haggard

Writers: M. Haggard/F. Powers

Haggard's down-home, wavering voice brings this hole-in-the-wall bar in Bakersfield to life, as lyrics lead us to believe the bar is a launching pad to success for some and a mere trap for others. A snappy tempo with all the traditional country trimmings falls into this number, in addition to Haggard's extraordinary ability to tell a story through his music.

□ DESERT ROSE BAND: "Will This Be The Day" (MCA/Curb 54002)

Producers: Paul Worley/Ed Seay

Writers: C. Hillman/S. Hill

When a song makes you feel this good and it causes your entire body to somehow blend with the music, it's gotta be hot! As the Desert Rose Band kicks off their brand new LP, entitled A Dozen Roses, they kick off with this explosion-of-a-tune. "Will This Be The Day" is charged up with racing energy, stellar instrumentation, a little vocal gut-n-grind and of course tremendous harmony—definitely a playlist picker-upper.

□ GARTH BROOKS: "Two Of A Kind, Workin' On A Full House" (Capitol 79537)

Producer: Allen Reynolds

Writers: B. Boyd/W. Dale Haynes/D. Robbins

Two-steppin', honky-tonkin' and pure-grain country music tags the latest release from Brooks' No Fences LP. This get-up-n-go cowboy number immediately became a hot LP cut when the album was first released—no wonder! If you thought Brooks turned loose with "Friends In Low Places," wait until this wild-one bites ya.

INDIE INSIGHT

CBS's highly rated program, 48 Hours, recently visited Nashville, Tennessee, to film a feature segment on what various avenues artists often travel to succeed in the country music industry. During the visit, recording artist Jimmy Snyder and singer Katherine Kay were captured on tape, while performing at Skull's Rainbow Room, located on Music City's famed Printer's Alley. The program aired in late January. Pictured at the Rainbow Room from (l-r) are: Snyder; Colleen Walters, artist; Thomas Flynn, 48 Hours producer; Katherine Kay, artist; and Ron Kay, Katherine's husband.

□ ROBERT WADE: "Country Love" (Burby BR45-1001-A)

Producers: Tommy Rocco/Johnny Morris

Writers: Ronny Scaife/Tommy Rocco

The definition of love's perfection is clearly characterized in this traditional tune recorded by newcomer Robert Wade. With a smooth vocal tone, slightly flavored with a contemporary edge, Wade spills out a lot of heart and emotion while delivering lyrics that could enhance any romantic's dream of discovering true love.

□ BOBBY RICH: "I Washed My Hands In Muddy Water" (A.M.I. 1330)

AROUND THE ROUTE

BY CAMILLE COMPASIO

I WAS DETERMINED TO START THIS WEEK'S COLUMN OFF, on a high note so one of my first calls was to SNK Corp. of America prexy Paul Jacobs, whom I felt certain would have something positive to say—and I was right. NEO-GEO is forging ahead just beautifully and, thanks to its success, SNK is selling an awful lot of coin-op product. That's good to hear. You will recall that the System was introduced at last year's ACME convention (subsequently shipped in May of '90) and as we approach ACME '91 the current library of 12 active titles will have increased to 17. The five new titles will be ready for shipment by showtime, according to Paul, and they are: Burning Fight, Sengoku, Ghost Pilots, King of the Monsters and Alpha Mission II. "Operators have obviously realized that NEO-GEO is a very sensible buy," Paul told us. "We've got three different cabinet configurations and an assortment of play themes ranging from sports, to maze, to hit-kick-punch, and everything that is needed to satisfy the location and any age group of players." Well spoken, buddy!

LET US NOW TUNE IN ON MAD DOG MCCREE, the game that made such a hit at AMOA Expo '90; the game everyone's talking about; the game that's been keeping spirits up at Betsen! An elated John Margold advised that the smaller (33" monitor) model went into shipment January 1, with the 50" following around January 15—and in this short period of time the impact has been tremendous. As he said, "this is an incredible game!" It's doing upwards of $180 to $220 per day in some locations; and in those high earning spots the pricing that works best is $1 to start and $1 to continue with the buy-in feature. This piece is at home in a variety of locations—bowling alleys and sports bars rank high and John feels it's made to order for truck stops, but there really aren't limitations to where it can be installed. And Mad Dog's greatest appeal seems to be among the 21 to 35 age group of players. From what John tells us, filming will be underway in February for the next episode, which will be based on a "gangbusters" type theme, so this piece will go on and on.

MAKE NOTE THAT THE SITE for the upcoming (3/22) American Amusement Machine Charitable Foundation's annual appreciation dinner in Las Vegas will be Caesar's Palace. As you read in last week's edition of Cash Box, this year's honorees will be Ray Galante and the late Lou Dunis. With the unfortunate death of Mr. Dunis (on January 22), AAMA's Bob Fay tells us a member of the Dunis family will be contacted to accept the posthumous honor.

A BELATED WELCOME ABOARD to Doug Young who was named permanent executive director of the International Flipper Pinball Assn. in early January. This means that Joe Conway, who served as interim e.d., was able to get back to his full time duties as executive director of the AMOA National Dart Assn. And don't forget, the first AMOA-IFPA annual tournament will be coming up March 1, 2 and 3 at the O'Hare Hilton in Chicago. Event will mark the culmination of weeks of organized league play and will include international pinball competitors who will be vying for championship trophies and prize money. For further information contact Doug Young at 414-263-0233

ALSO ON THE SUBJECT OF PIN TOURNAMENTS, the first annual Professional Amateur Pinball Assn. (P.A.P.A.) tournament and awards luncheon is scheduled for February 2 at the Lone Star Roadhouse (240 W. 52nd St., New York City). Play will start at 10 a.m. at the Broadway Arcade (1659 Broadway, New York City) and continue at 1 p.m. at the Lone Star. For further info contact P.A.P.A. prexy Steve Epstein at 212-247-3725.

Data East Reveals Next Generation' Of Video Games

CHICAGO—Data East USA, Inc. announced it will develop a new generation of arcade video games based on Intel's digital video interactive (DVI) technology. Using Intel's DVIi750 video processor, Data East will produce graphically sophisticated coin-operated video games with animated imagery that approaches film quality. Expected to reach arcades in Spring of 1991, the first DVI-based games will be priced competitively with existing video games.

"Data East's DVI games will revolutionize and revitalize the arcade video game marketplace," stated Joseph Keenan, president of Data East USA, Inc. "For the first time, arcade games will have graphics with the intensity, depth and realism of film animation. Players will have the sensation of being inside the game as never before."

DVI technology is considered pivotal in the creation of multimedia computer applications. DVI components make possible the high-performance storage and retrieval of large blocks of animated graphics on CD-ROM (compact disc) media. Using Intel's i750 Video Processor, and its own proprietary hardware and software, Data East has designed a system that quickly and cleanly sends massive amounts of graphical information to the video monitor, thus creating animated images with smooth, movie-like motion and definition.

Data East demonstrated a prototype helicopter action game, Thunderstorm (tm), at Multimedia International in Japan in October, and in Intel's booth at Fall COMDEX in November. The first commercial game from the company will be announced by Spring of 1991. "Over the past few years, arcade video games have lost some of the technological edge over home entertainment systems," Keenan said. "DVI technology returns that advantage tenfold, and makes immediately available a highly advanced multi-media computer technology that will be found in arcade systems long before its entry into the home marketplace."

Data East plans to supply the DVI hardware and software development tools to third-party game designers interested in producing DVI video games. They will also provide security devices to protect game software from being copied or stolen. In addition, Data East is investigating other applications for its CD-ROM/DVI technology, which may include home and information systems such as a video jukebox utilizing CD-based music with video.

AAMA Names Programs Coordinator

CHICAGO—Robert C. Fay, executive vice president of the American Amusement Machine Assn. (AAMA), announced the appointment of Liz Powell to the position of programs coordinator.

Liz Powell

Ms. Powell comes to AAMA from the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association in Alexandria, VA where she served as administrative assistant and was responsible for coordinating and planning association activities and special events, as well as drafting news releases for association newsletters, editing and proofreading drafts, galleys and bluelines for various publications and was also responsible for creating and maintaining computer data banks, among other duties.

As programs coordinator for AAMA, Ms. Powell will coordinate the Location Trade Show Program, serve as editor of Coin-Gram and Loose Change publications and handle a variety of association public relations programs.

"Liz is exactly who we were looking for to fill this position," stated Fay. "She has all the necessary qualifications as well as a personality that will mesh well with the staff and membership. We are very lucky to have found her!"

Ms. Powell is a graduate of Radford University in Radford, VA and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism. She and her husband, Geary (pronounced Gary), currently reside in Woodbridge, VA with their two children William and Mikaela.

Konami's RollerGames

ROLLERGAMES, THE NEW TWO-PLAYER interactive, horizontal monitor kit from Konami, is based on the familiar TV show, and offers all of the fun-filled, fast-paced roller derby action you could possibly want, without actually donning your skates. Naturally, it beats watching TV!

Players can choose their favorite teams from among the colorful competitors in the league, such as T-Birds, Violators, Rockers, Hot Flash, Maniacs and Bad Attitude. The wacky characters from the chosen teams are shown at the beginning of each cycle. As to locale, the game starts in Los Angeles, then moves from city to city (Las Vegas, Dallas, Chicago) and climaxes with the championship competition in New York.

Each game consists of four cycles. The men's squad plays the first and fourth, while the women take on the second and third; and each squad consists of one jetter and three powerguards. Aggressiveness is the key to victory, as players control their jetter around the concourse, targeting opponents for devastation. The more enemy team skaters you attack and take down, the more you score, and points are also earned for outstanding skating performance on the menacing Wall of Death and the Jet Jump.

To make it even more realistic you've got the team managers appearing between games to shout insults and threats.

Further information may be obtained through factory distributors or by contacting Konami, Inc., 900 Deerfield Parkway, Buffalo Grove, IL 60089-4510.

Sega's GP Rider

BRACE YOURSELF FOR FAST ACTION, tight corners and heated competition! GP Rider, Sega's newest one or two-player motorcycle racing simulator with stereo sound, brings all the excitement and challenge of Grand Prix motorcycle racing to the players as it takes them through an actual Grand Prix race course.

Players can choose between two styles of racing bikes, six-speed racing manual shift or six-speed automatic. Long straight-aways, banked corners, winding S-curves and the dreaded "Hair-Pin Turns" are there for the challenge. The game can be played individually against each other in a head-to-head race to the finish.

There are four laps to each race. Completing each lap within the designated time period extends the players' drive time. In the competition mode, when one player extends his drive time, the second player's time is automatically extended. This feature allows the competition to continue throughout the race.

GP Rider will be offered in two versions—a dual Ride-on and a dual Upright. The Ride-on version incorporates the realism of Grand Prix racing in that players must lean left or right into each turn to maneuver their motorcycle through the course. The Ride-on version is currently available for immediate delivery. Production of the Upright version will begin shortly.

Further information may be obtained through factory distributors or by contacting Sega Enterprises, Inc. (U.S.A.), 2149 Paragon Drive, P.O. Box 610550, San Jose, CA 95161-0550.

AAMCF Donates To '91 Int'l. Special Olympics

CHICAGO—The American Amusement Machine Charitable Foundation presented a check in the amount of $2,500 to the 1991 International Special Olympic Games on Dec. 10, 1990. The check was presented in the name of AAMCF by Steve Lieberman, president of Lieberman Music in Minneapolis and vice president of the American Amusement Machine Association.

The check represented the unawarded first place prize money from the "Games within the Games" charity tournament sponsored by AAMA and Lieberman

Music during the 1990 U.S. Olympic Festival. The tournament was held July 11 at the Radisson University Hotel in Minneapolis. The presentation was delayed in order to find a suitable organization to receive the donation. The board of directors of both the American Amusement Machine Charitable Foundation and the American Amusement Machine Association considered the Special Olympics to be a fitting and worthy organization. Additionally, the 1991 Special Olympic Games will be held in Minneapolis.

AIR HOCKEY MAKES IT BIG IN CALIFORNIA. Since last summer air hockey has been making giant strides in California, due largely to the efforts of Dynamo and Bob Szabo, owner of Keystone Family Entertainment Center in Mountain View, California. The most recent event, the 1990 U.S. Air Hockey Championships (12/8-9) held at Keystone saw a tremendous response. Over $8,500 in cash and prizes was provided by Dynamo, Keystone, Aladdin's Castles, Golfand and other local sponsors. Houston's Tim Weissman once again won the tournament, making it his fourth consecutive national victory. In the finals with Weissman was Houston's Phil Arnold, long-time player and founder of the U.S. Air Hockey Assn., who defeated Boulder's Mark Robbins in a grueling semi-finals match to score his first finals victory in five years. Pictured in the accompanying photos are (1) tournament champions Tim "Kid" Weissman and (2) Kara Klyn of Fremont, CA, the new Women's Champion. The next Air Hockey Nationals are scheduled for Houston in April. Further information regarding the 1991 Dynamo-sponsored events may be obtained by contacting Mark Robbins at Dynamo Corporation, 2525 Handley Ederville Rd., Richland Hills, TX 76118-7910.

NAMA Western Conclave Skedded To 'POP' In Anaheim

CHICAGO—"POP!—Phocus On Profits" will be the theme of the 30th annual Western Convention and exhibit of vending and food-service management, to be held April 19-21, in Anaheim, California, under sponsorship of the National Automatic Merchandising Assn. (NAMA). As stated by NAMA president James A. Rost, this event "continues NAMA's focus on educational topics to help small business owners and managers deal with specific operating problems and opportunities." He stressed that "the topics will be especially timely, with emphasis on current economic and political circumstances."

The agenda includes a trade show plus numerous concurrent educational sessions. Some 170 companies are expected to occupy the NAMA Western exhibit hall, to display the latest in vending equipment, vendible products, support services, accessories, etc.

Industry experts will present a wealth of practical information at the various education sessions. The topics include "How To Structure a Vending Route," presented by Les Lenzner (Interstate United and Canteen Corp.); "Operational Controls for Vending," presented by Jim Wood (formerly with Service America and now serving as an industry consultant); "Controls and Growth for Manual Food," presented by Hal Ritchie (a food-service operator with extensive experience at Canteen Corp., Szabo and Marriott Corp.); "Vending and the Environment," presented by Larry Eils, NAMA's director of public health and safety department; "Office Coffee Service Growth..." presented by Brad Bachtelle (an OCS authority and industry consultant); as well as roundtable discussions on vending industry topics and presentations on pricing for customer value and company profits; avoiding pitfalls when firing employees; and an update on the new $1 coin.

"With our lineup of popular presenters addressing the topics our members want and need to know about, we are confident that this year's Western Convention will be another winner," stated Richard M. Geerdes, NAMA's director of membership, conventions and education. "We expect attendance in Anaheim will be strong."

Further information regarding this event may be obtained by contacting: Convention Department, NAMA, 20 N. Wacker Drive, Suite 3500, Chicago, IL 60606-3102.

AMOA-NY Holds Elections

CHICAGO—Over 60 operators attended the AMOA-NY, Music, Cigarette and Amusement Assn., Inc., annual meeting at the Lauraine Murphy Restaurant in Manhasset, New York, during which an election of officers and new board members was held.

Robert Herman of Ace Amusements was re-elected president. Other officers include Ralph Ceraldi (C&C Vending), vice president; Frank Calland (E&S Music Corp.), treasurer; Scott Tartaglia (Shamrock Vending), secretary; and Al Mizrahi (Scientific Entertainment), sergeant-at-arms. Joe Bossolina, Jr. (McGee Amusements) and Richard Hohman (Royal Leisure, Inc.) were elected to three-year terms as directors.

The meeting (11/27) began with a social hour, followed by dinner and an address by Suffolk County Legislator Allan Binder, who played a key role in the association's effort to achieve continued availability of cigarette vending machines in the county. The county had proposed a complete ban, which was subsequently overturned; however, the New York City bill is thought of as both a victory and a setback, in that it extended machine life by 19 months, but carried far greater restrictions than the association had hoped.

Atari's new Medieval Age action/strategy video game, Rampart was recently introduced to the Southern California area at a special showcase hosted by C.A. Robinson & Co. Besides the great food and drink provided by C.A. Robinson & Co. for everyone who attended, Atari Games' product manager Linda Benzler, and electrical engineering director Chris Downend, were both on hand to field questions and demonstrate this colorful new piece. Pictured above in photo #1 (l-r) are: Leah Bettelman, Ira Bettelman and Sandy Bettelman of C.A. Robinson & Co., and Chris Downend and Linda Benzler of Atari Games Corporation. In photo #2, HANK'S HIP AND HE'S BACK! After a lengthy recovery from surgery, C.A. Robinson & Co.'s very own Hank Tronick marked his return at this event and shared his crutches with Mark Albert of Cash Box. Welcome back Hank! Pictured in photo #3 is Atari's Linda Benzler explaining some of the exciting features of the company's new Rampart video game.
