"Lucille" sweeps JB Awards

For the first time in the 28-year history of the JB (jukebox) Awards, one recording artist has walked off with three honors.

Kenny Rogers, for his hit single "Lucille," which is on the United Artists' label, won the JB Awards for record of the year, top country record of the year, and artist of the year. The announcement was made recently by Fred Granger, executive vice president of the A.M.O.A.

The A.M.O.A., which will make the awards presentation at its annual convention in Chicago later this month, each year asks its members to nominate the five records which made the most money for them in their jukeboxes. This year there were sixteen candidates selected by the awards committee, but the final balloting was done by the membership of the A.M.O.A. In addition, each member was asked to nominate his choice of artist of the year. The five categories for this year's awards were top pop record, top soul record, top country record, top recording artist of the year, and record of the year. The record of the year goes to the record which A.M.O.A. members vote for as having made the most money in their jukeboxes.

Recent record of the year awards have gone to Freddy Fender for "Wasted Days and Wasted Nights" (1976), Freddy Fender for "Before the Next Teardrop Falls" (1975), and Charlie Rich for "The Most Beautiful Girl in the World" (1974).

The winner of this year's top soul record of the year went to "Car Wash" by Rose Royce of Warner Brothers. The top pop record of the year was Glen Campbell's "Southern Nights" which is on the Capitol Records' label.

Aiso, a special posthumous award was given to Elvis Presley for his contribution to the jukebox industry. Said Fred Granger of this award: "It was a special award that will probably never be given again to any other performer."

The other leading candidates for this year's JB awards are as follows: Jimmy Buffett, "Margaritaville"; Leo Sayer, "You Make Me Feel Like Dancing"; Fleetwood Mac, "Dreams"; Engelbert Humperdinck, "After the Lovin"; Waylon Jennings, "Luckenbach, Texas"; Rod Stewart, "Tonight's the Night"; Eagles, "Hotel California"; Barbra Streisand, "Evergreen"; K.C. and the Sunshine Band, "I'm Your Boogie Man"; Waylon Jennings and Willie Nelson, "Goodhearted Woman"; Stevie Wonder, "Sir Duke"; Marvin Gaye, "Got to Give it Up"; Stevie Wonder, "I Wish."

Bally appoints field engineer

Darrell J. Blendowski, tormer products engineering manager for Electra Games, Inc., has joined Bally's marketing department as marketing field service engineer.

He will be on the road, teaching service schools on Bally's new electronic pinball games—Evel Knievel and Eight Ball.

Blendowski's background in electronic production testing, electronic video game design, and teaching many electronic service schools, said a Bally spokesman, will be a valuable asset to Bally's marketing field service organization.

Underwriters Laboratories Inc. (UL), the independent laboratory tester of equipment for public safety. has released the first edition of its Standard for Safety for Amusement Machines.

The edition, called UL 22, covers self-contained, commercial amusement machines that are intended to be used in accordance with the National Electrical Code. Only indoor amusement machines are covered by this standard, except where a manufacturer has specified that a machine can be used out of doors or in a protected location.

These requirements do not cover coin-operated sound-recording and reproducing machines or carnival

Copies of UL 22 are now available from Underwriters Laboratories for $3.50 each.

Coin-op pioneer passes on

Andrew P. Monte, a pioneer operator of coin-operated music boxes and amusement games in this area, died in New Orleans August 30. He was 76 years old.

A native of nearby Plaquemine, Louisiana, Mr. Monte founded A.M. Amusement Company in 1934. He operated the firm until 1970 when he sold the business to Robert E. Nims. president of Lucky Coin Machine Co., Inc. Mr. Monte remained semi-retired until his death.

Always an enthusiastic supporter of the coin machine industry, Mr. Monte was a former member of the Amusement & Music Operators of America.

He had the distinction of being the first operator in New Orleans to install wallboxes and shuffle alleus in locations. He also was the distributor in Louisiana for the ill-fated Capehart phonograph developed by the late former Senator Homer Capehart of Indiana.

He is survived by his widow, Lucille Adams Monte, and two daughters. Patsy and Jeannine.

Motorola's new monitor

Motorola is manufacturing a new monitor that's showing up in the latest video games. The M5000 series (19-inch) and M7000 series (23-inch) monitors have been in production since May of this year. There are some important differences between the old design and this latest product. For a clearer understanding of the new system, let's take a look at Motorola's new baby and the changes they've made.

CONTROLS AND ADJUSTMENTS

With the exception of the power transformer, the new monitor has all of the circuitry mounted on a single printed circuit board. Since there is no longer a plug-in P.C.B., with 36 interconnection points, all of the adjustments have been moved from the chasis to the printed circuit board itself.

Figure 1 shows the new placement for the controls. Because the vertical sync and oscillator sections have been redesigned in the new system, the vertical hold control has been eliminated from the monitor. The horizontal hold potentiometer has also been eliminated, and horizontal frequency adjustment is performed by tuning the slug of L1 (horizontal oscillator) with a hex alignment tool.

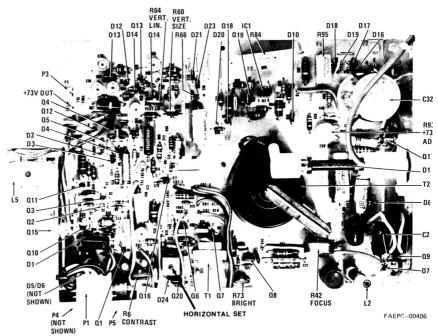

The +73 volt test point is well marked and located on the left side of the monitor P.C.B. Unfortunately the 73 volt adjust has been moved to the area near the flyback transformer. Unless you want your eyes to light up like a Christmas tree, I strongly urge that you use a long plastic screwdriver to make this adjustment. The +73 volt adjust can also be reached from the bottom of the P.C.B. using a hex alignment tool.

One important difference between the new monitor and the XM series is in the way the C.R.T. (picture tube) heater is energized. In previous monitor designs the heater is powered by a 6.3 volt filament winding on the power transformer. This makes it easy to tell if you're getting power to the monitor by glancing at the neck of the C.R.T. If the heater is glowing, you know you've got A.C. power to the unit.

The new monitor takes its heater drive from a winding on the flyback transformer. If the power supply or horizontal sections of the monitor are bad, the heater in the picture tube will not light. This is an important fact to remember when you get to a game that has a "no picture" complaint.

For a copy of the service manual for the new monitors, write or telephone Motorola Data Products, 455 E. North Avenue, Carol Stream, Illinois, 60187. Telephone 312/690-1400. Ask for part number 68p25253a47.

MUSIC PROGRAMMING

by Michael B. Klein

Love and Hate

Since school is back in full swing, I think it's appropriate to take a look at some fast rising singles that have a strong chance of making the Top Ten. With most singles I review, I either have a love/hate relationship with them; so that's how I'm going to rate them.

And, also, because we're going to be hearing them for a long time once they make it I'm going to judge them not only on their sound, but for their staying power...how long can we listen to them without becoming sick.

One other thing, I've chosen more or less, very popular tunes, ones that I don't actually have the singles of, so there will be no record numbers, but you'll be able to find them if you decide they are right for your customers

Signed, Sealed and Delivered—Peter Frampton/A&M Records

I, among other reviewers, have been very hard on Frampton in the past. And I will continue to do so. Mainly because anyone who attempts to match himself against Stevie Wonder, and remake a classic like this one...had darn well better have more together than a nifty guitar and good looks. HATE.

Keep It Comin' Love—KC and the Sunshine Band/T.K. Records

This happens to be one of KC's best singles since "Shake Your Booty." I really don't understand why I like KC, but one doesn't have to be a disco nut to get hooked on the light sensual charm of his music. It's remarkably inviting. LOVE

Don't Make My Brown Eyes Blue-Crystal Gayle/United Artists

Just by the title, you should be able to tell that this one has a country flavor about it. Loretta Lynn's little sister has got it together with this lovely ballad. Although Crystal is still recording in Nashville, and doing mostly country music, this one has a strong chance of making it on both the country and pop charts. (EXTRA) LOVE.

Way Down-Elvis Presley/RCA

Those of you who have a country audience, already know that this tune is number one. But so far, I haven't heard it on pop or rock radio. In a certain way, this single reminds me of Elvis's "Moody Blue." It has that conviction that always appealed to me when Elvis sang. This superb disc also has some of the gutsyness of "Burning Love." LOVE

Blue Bayou—Linda Ronstadt/ Asylum

As those of you who follow my column regularly know, I usually dislike cover versions, records that are made by one artist who has had a hit with a tune, and then another artist re-records it. Case in point, Peter Frampton, and even Rita Coolidge, she has re-recorded "We're All Alone," previously done by Boz Skaggs.

This Roy Orbison classic has always been one of my favorites, just as Roy himself has been. He's a legend. Possibly one of the finest voices ever. And if Linda Ronstadt can follow up a brilliant version of this tune, she will be known as legendary as well. This disc is such a pleasant change from most of the records these days, which either seem upbeat or disco, that I'm certain it will go gold. Linda sings it with the same nostalgia and tenderness that I found in the original. (ALL MY) LOVE.

Heaven on the 7th Floor—Paul Nichols/RSO Records

I don't particularly care for this one, but since I know it is destined for Top Ten ranking, I've included it. For me, it's simply too commercial. I enjoy slickness as much as the next guy/girl...but this is just too cute.

There's no denying it though, after listening to this record, you will be left with the impression that if ever a single has "hit" written on it, aside from the hype from the record companies, this one has it. (But that doesn't necessarily make it a good record, does it?) HATE.

Business should be booming. May this be a very profitable part of your year.
