

The Cash Box

VOLUME XXI—NUMBER 44

JULY 16, 1960

One of today's most dynamic talents on records as well as one of the entertainment industry's most exciting visual performers is Jackie Wilson, Brunswick recording star. During the past year the vocalist has stepped into the "big name" class via a strong assist from his smash two-sided single "Night" and "Doggin' Around." Known only a few months ago as strictly a rock 'n' roll and blues performer, "Night" showed a new dimension of Wilson's talents—his big dramatic ballad voice. Seated front and center, Jackie listens to a playback of his latest twin-deck smash "A Woman, A Lover, A Friend" coupled with "(You Were Made For) All My Love," which gives him four titles riding simultaneously on the charts, and discusses the arrangement with his manager Nat Tarnopol (left). Dick Jacobs, Brunswick A & R topper (right) and Gene and Harry Goodman, publishers of the singer's new coupling, seem to be enjoying the sound of the tapes. Jackie is currently on a tour of one-nighters through the South. "Jackie Sings The Blues" is the title of Wilson's current best selling LP.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"IT'S NOW OR NEVER" (3:12) "A MESS OF BLUES" (2:38)
[Gladys ASCAP-Schroeder, Gold] [Elvis Presley BMI—Pomus, Schuman]

ELVIS PRESLEY (RCA Victor 7777)

Elvis' second release since his return to our shores should easily duplicate his "Stuck On You"—"Fame Or Fortune" success. Slightly different for Presley is the top side, "It's Now Or Never." A new lyric (Tony Martin had "There's No Tomorrow"), cha cha adaptation of "O Sole Mio." The other end, "A Mess Of Blues," is a rhythmic finger-snapper from the famous Presley hip-swinging school. Great musical and vocal (the Jordanaires) support on both smasheroos.

"I'D DO IT AGAIN" (2:16) [Se- "VOLARE" (2:23) [Robbins
quence ASCAP—Ballard, Tobias] ASCAP—Modugno, Parish]
BOBBY RYDELL (Cameo 179)

One of today's most consistent teen favorites, Rydell has what looks like another two-sided smash (he's currently hitting with "Swingin' School" b/w "Ding-A-Ling"). "I'd Do It Again" is an infectious Rydell belter with cute lyrics about a guy's one-girl romance. "Volare" is robust, swing return of the Domenico Modugno hit. Gals engagingly assist the songster on both ends.

"COOL WATER" (2:28) "IT ONLY HAPPENED YESTER-[American BMI—Nolan] DAY" (2:43) [Starfire BMI—
Scott]

JACK SCOTT (Top Rank 2055)

Chances are Jack Scott has back-to-back winners in his follow-up to "Burning Bridges." It's an oldie-newie coupling and both ends have that 'top-ten' look. "Cool Water" is the oldie that Jack and chorus revive with shufflin', up beat sales authority while the Scott original, "It Only Happened Yesterday," is a heartfelt lilter that has the "Burning Bridges" hit qualities. Take your pick of these two Bill Sanford-backed money-makers.

"SONS AND LOVERS" (2:50) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Nascimbene]
"HAWAIIAN LULLABY" (2:55) [Marpet ASCAP—Faith]
PERCY FAITH (Columbia 41731)

The newest link in Percy Faith's current hit chain (which includes "Theme From A Summer Place" and "Theme For Young Lovers") should be the title tune from the up-coming flick (based on the best-seller), "Sons And Lovers." Triplets, strings and an ear-arresting melody make this a solid chart threat. The Faith original on the lower half makes for a very pretty companion piece.

"NEVER ON SUNDAY" (3:01) [Esteem, Sidmore BMI—Hadjidakis]
"THE SOUND OF LOVE" (2:48) [UA BMI—Costa]
DON COSTA (United Artists 234)

The title of the follow-up to Don Costa's "Theme From The Unforgiven" success is also the title of the up-coming pic, "Never On Sunday." Tune is a contagious, chorus hum-a-long entry with a sunny, Neapolitan flavoring. "The Sound Of Love" has the haunting "Unforgiven" sound. Top half's the side to watch.

"THE SHEIK OF CHICAGO (MUSTAFA) (2:20) [Ivan Mogull
ASCAP—Merrill]
"TWO OTHER PEOPLE" (2:44) [Dufferin BMI—Vance, Wood]

THE FOUR LADS (Columbia 41733)

One of the most delightful records the Lads have cut to date is this Bob Merrill-English lyric adaptation of the European hit, "Mustapha." Ditty, now tabbed "The Sheik Of Chicago (Mustafa)", has that bright, happy Near East sound of their while-back success, "Istanbul." Watch it take off. Flipside the boys are in top ballad form as they beautifully carve out "Two Other People." Excellent two-sided assist by the Glenn Osser crew.

LOU MONTE (Roulette 4266)

(B) "BIM BAM BU (The Fruit Store Man)" (2:16) [Queensbury & Romance BMI—Assenza, Denny, DiBlase] Monte, in his familiar Italian novelty idiom, offers a cheerful ditty with engaging support from the combo-femme chorus. Will charm Monte's fans. Side's from his "Italiano, U.S.A." LP.

(B) "OH, OH ROSIE" (2:40)
[Ivan Mogull ASCAP—Merrill, Granata] Monte and male chorus have an interesting middle-beat sound, with an Italian opus again the vehicle.

JIMMY SAUNDERS
(Companion 101)

(B) "OPEN YOUR HEART"
(2:28) [George Paxton
ASCAP—Skylar, LaSpada] New Coed
affiliate bows with a good croon job by Saunders of an OK Italian-flavored romancer. Lush ork-chorus backing reflects tune's Italian heritage.

(B) "ONE TOO MANY TIMES"
(2:37) [Winneton BMI—Symington, Sherman] More intimate, plaintive portrayal in this corner.

SCHMITZ SISTERS (Dorset 5005)

(B+) "PARADISE" (2:13) [Leo
Feist ASCAP—Brown, Clifford] The oldie—recently given a successful revival by Sammy Turner—is smoothly surveyed by the talented larks against a pro rock-a-string setting. Can get lots of airtime.

(B+) "SUPPOSE" (2:32) [Mode
ASCAP—Weiss] A fine ballad gets a strong ballad blend from the gals. Also worth spins. Label is a Strand affiliate.

TED HARRIS (Columbia 41713)

(B+) "BLUES OF THE HEART"
(2:53) [Silver Star BMI—
Harris] Sound-wise teen entry, with Harris' fine "crying" vocal receiving top-drawer effects from guitar and chorus. Date could deliver.

(B) "GOD MUST HAVE MY FORTUNE LAID AWAY"
(2:50) [Silver Star BMI—Harris] A country feel to this feelingful affair.

JES STEWART (Phillips 3557)

(B) "SUNNY SIDE OF THE STREET" (1:53) [Shapiro
Bernstein ASCAP—McHugh, Fields]
Sturdy gets a bright-beat session from the singer and combo-chorus.
Good rock color.

(B) "TAKE A CHANCE" (2:53)
[UP BMI—Underwood, Stewart] This portion has Stewart and support delivering the slow-beat blues goods.

RICHARD HIMBER (MGM 12925)

(B) "CIRCLE CHA-CHA" (2:30)
[Cromwell ASCAP] Vet ork maestro directs a cheerful cha-cha session. There's a bright, full ork sound, and the chorus offers some engaging chant bits. Fine sunny instrumental.

(B) "EVERYBODY HAS A STORY" (3:09) [Cromwell
ASCAP—Himber] Bernie Nee is the lead songster in this wistful ballad.

JAY FANNING (Acme 2030)

(C+) "THESE FOOLISH THINGS" [Fanning] Singer recites a plaintive, not to be confused with the standard. Combo-chorus supports softly.

(C+) "DREAMER" [Fanning]
Same sort of approach here.

LAWRENCE SHAUL (Reed 1049)

(B) "TUTTI-FRUTTI" [Venice
BMI—LaBostrie, Penniman]
Old rock 'n roll hit is revived with good blues vitality by the songster and musicians.

(B) "HEY LITTLE MAMA" [Starland BMI—Cain] More
blues-beat zest from the cast.

ROCCO GRECO (Variety 1022)

(C+) "WHY DID YOU LEAVE
ME" (2:40) [Stuart Vavrin
BMI—Bialek, Vavrin, Nash] Greco nicely sentimentalizes against a light upbeat sound from the full ork.

(C+) "LOVE YOU" (2:32) [Stuart
Vavrin BMI—Vavrin, Harris] Romantic done-up in a soft Latin arrangement.

RAINDROPS (Corsair 104)

(B) "LOVE IS LIKE A MOUN-TAIN" (2:12) [Canon Garabedian BMI—Furth, Perry] Attractive blues-ballad date. Convincing lead receives chants and soft-beat combo work in the backdrop. Kids will like the sentiments here.

(B) "MAYBE" (2:04) [Futura
ASCAP—Furth, Lafferty]
Boys offer a good medium-beat performance.

DICK CONTINO (Mercury 71647)

(B) "WHISPERING" (2:43)
[Miller & Fisher ASCAP—
Rose, Schonberger, Coburn] Cut at a nitery engagement, side has the accordionist and combo performing easily against audience remarks well above a whisper. Affable entry.

(C+) "GRANADA" (3:30)—[Peer
BMI—Lara] Dramatic rendition of the opus also made at a club date, and including enthusiastic audience response.

BILLY FURY (London 1925)

(B) "COLETTE" (1:50) [Peter
Maurice ASCAP—Fury] English rock artist is effectively over-dubbed in this pre medium-beat romantic outing. Multi-tracking sometimes has an Everly Bros. touch. U.S. teeners will enjoy the sound.

(B) "BABY HOW I CRIED"
(2:45) [Southern ASCAP—
Fury] Fury and combo deliver with a Southern blues quality here. Haunting sound.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"ANYMORE" (2:19) [Moss Rose BMI—Drusky, Wilson, McAlpin]

"THAT PIANO MAN" (2:09) [Willow ASCAP—Clancy, Brewer]

TERESA BREWER (Coral 62219)

"Anymore," Roy Drusky's current country click, gets a pop presentation that should show-up. Songstress effectively gets the tune's plaintive plot, and there's a colorful backdrop from the Dick Jacobs' ork-chorus (good sound from an electric guitar). Deck seems to have it. "That Piano Man" recalls the talent's ticket to disk fame, "Music, Music, Music."

"LISA" (3:07) [Central BMI—Walker]

"JOURNEY OF LOVE" (2:04) [Lyle ASCAP—Evans, Williams]

JEANNE BLACK (Capitol 4396)

Jeanne Black, the gal who became an overnite wax sensation with her recording of "He'll Have To Stay," comes thru with another powerful contender for hitdom. Tune is a poignant ballad dedicated to "Lisa," the 'other woman' in her heartbreaking love affair. There's a touching mid-deck recitation by Jeanne. Her younger sister Janie joins in on the catchy up beat flip stand.

"WE KNOW" (2:02) [Empress ASCAP—Udell, Acquaviva]

"THEY REALLY DON'T KNOW YOU" (2:38)

[Budd Jimmy McHugh ASCAP—Hawes, Kaye, McHugh]

JONI JAMES (MGM 12895)

Lark can grab strong chart honors with her tender portrayal of a lovely wistful, "We Know." The Acquaviva backed ork-chorus is big, but nicely subdued. One of the performer's most pleasing dates. Coupler is an attractive mood item.

"RIVER OF TEARS" (2:01) [Rolyn BMI—Dorman]

"I'LL COME RUNNING" (2:12) [Vaughn BMI—Dorman]

HAROLD DORMAN (Rita 112)

Dorman follows-up his impressive hit, "Mountain Of Love," with a dynamic, gospel-type rhythm display, "River Of Tears," and the trade can figure another Dorman disk success. A potent beat outing to eye. There's a less busy, tho good-sounding teen quality about the flip session. We go with "River." NRC handles the label.

"HONEST I DO" (1:58) [Maverick-Blue Indigo BMI—Stankey, West, Candelaria]

"MY BABY HULLY GULLYS" (2:05) [Maverick-Blue Indigo BMI—Stankey, West, Candelaria]

THE INNOCENTS (Indigo 105)

New label could start things off on the right chart foot. Side to watch is "Honest I Do," a strikingly arranged essay featuring the Innocents songsters. In fact, very simple support keeps the team's blend upfront at all times, and they're interesting all the way. Has smash possibilities. Underlid is a bright-beat novelty-romantic.

Webb Pierce (Decca) and Carl Smith (Columbia) have two solid contenders for two-market, pop-country chartdom. (See Country Reviews).

BARRY RUSSETT (Vassar 303)

(B) "CAN'T GET ENOUGH" (2:22) [Villa BMI—Russett, Davilio] Belt-time, and performer and combo give-out with good teen zest.

(B) "GIMME A LITTLE KISS (Will You Huh)" (2:30) [A.B.C.—Cromwell ASCAP—Turk, Pinkard, Smith] Singer takes the oldie on a nice-sounding easy-beat road.

KING KONG WHITE SOX (Trans-World 6906)

(B) "CHOLLEY-OOP" (2:55) [Kavelin—Maverick BMI—Frazier, Mize] A similarly-arranged take-off on the current smash, with the theme about a Chinese fella. Good novelty touch.

(B) "HE'D BETTER GO" (3:25) [Central Songs BMI—Allison, Mize] The recent Jim Reeves-Jeanne Black hit gets a whacky, satirical going-over.

PEGGY TAYLOR (Gem 101)

(B) "(Don't You Come Home) BILL BAILEY" (2:01) An "answer" to the Bobby Darin hit, with the lark belting against a combo set-up that resembles the Darin setting. May get some attention.

(C+) "SO SIMILAR" (1:50) [Farel ASCAP—Haskell, Farrar] Bright swinger in this corner.

JOHNNY GILBERT (Dot 16100)

(B) "THE NEARNESS OF YOU" (2:38) [Famous ASCAP—Carmichael, Washington] Striking, very slow-paced reading of the standard against a simple combo backing that includes a clicking sound.

(B) "INGENUUE" (2:35) [B.L.H. ASCAP—Sexter, Jacobsen] Deliberate essay of a tune whose plot is on the order of "Ballerina."

BOBBY REED (Dot 16113)

(B+) "THE MONKEY'S WEDDING" (2:20) [Trinity Big "D" BMI—Winkler, Kelly] Solid jungle-type novelty, with chanting and combo sounds effectively in the novelty-rock groove. Could be active.

(B) "JOHNNY ON THE SPOT" (2:21) [Trinity BMI—Davie, Schuster] Bright rhythm piece whose theme resembles the Jimmy Jones' hit, "Handy Man."

TEENAGERS (End 678)

(B+) "CAN YOU TELL ME" [RealGone BMI—Ripp, Stevens, Teenagers] Team's lead nicely leads the way in this catchy rhythmic, whose vehicle resembles the rock "classic," "Why Do Fools Fall In Love?" Beat finesse here.

(B) "A LITTLE WISER NOW" [RealGone BMI—Houston, Ripp, Teenagers] A deep-down, wailing blues performance by the head vocalist.

TONY WILDE (Gardena 107)

(C+) "THERE'S A STAR SPANGLED BANNER WAVING SOMEWHERE" (2:20) [ASCAP—Roberts, Darnell] A country-type version of the U-2 incident re-write of the old hit.

(C+) "JOHN HENRY" (2:55) [Leeds ASCAP] Famed folk opus receives a fast-paced beat reading which includes some good guitar work.

BOBBIE WARREN (Pamco 1501)

(C+) "SOME-ONE" (3:10) [Candell ASCAP—Reems, Wilkins] Stylist nicely relates the moody affair, a prize winner in a California University contest. Good jazzy combo supports.

(C) "STRONTIUM 90" (2:28) [Candell ASCAP—A.&M. Cleary] Another college contest winner (Stanford University), an upbeat ditty that takes a dim view of the biological effects of radiation resulting from atomic explosions.

EARL BOSTIC (King 5362)

(B) "TUXEDO JUNCTION" (2:38) [Lewis ASCAP—Dash, Johnson, Hawkins, Feyne] Swing-Era favorite gets a fine hard-rock treatment from the saxist and combo. Side is natural for hop plays.

(B) "POLONAISE" (2:49) [P.D.—Chopin] A teen view of the familiar theme which features a sharp backbeat.

JOYCE HEATH (Laurie 3062)

(B) "JOHNNY FAIR" (2:30) [Nationwide ASCAP—Uhl, Nilad] Thrush's vocal admirably captures the haunting nature of the folk-flavored opus. Harmonica heads the nice setting.

(C+) "RAIN ON THE RIVER" (2:14) [Surrey ASCAP—Stanton, Cohen, Cooper] More soft-spoken folk-type warbling.

KELLY TROY (Corvette 100)

(B+) "HEIRLOOMS" (2:30) [Lotta ASCAP—Arlotta, Vincent] Interesting teen theme gets a pro medium-beat pose from the songster and combo-femme chorus. A sound the kids can go for.

(B) "REMEMBER WHEN" (2:35) [Lotta ASCAP—Arlotta, Paige] Nice relaxed way about this teen softie.

KAY LANDE (Caprice 0063)

(C+) "ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE" (2:30) [Buckingham ASCAP—Connor, Stanton] Sentimental slow-waltzer is warmly handled by the songstress, who is sometimes multi-tracked. There's a chirping-birds gimmick.

(C+) "MY LOVE WILL BE THE SAME" (2:30) [Favorite ASCAP—Stanton] Thrush offers a nostalgic ballad warble.

(B) "MY MELANCHOLY BABY" (3:17) [Shapiro-Bernstein, Jerry Vogel, ASCAP—Burrnett, Norton, Watson] Appropriately touching rendition of the great oldie, including the charming verse. Stylist is supported by an easy combo-chanting male chorus. Should come-up with good exposure.
(B) "SALOON" (3:10) [M. Witmark ASCAP—Llab, Whiting] Much the same approach to another item from Tin Pan Alley's past.

ELTON BRITT (ABC-Paramount 10.121)
(B) "SIOUX CITY SUE" (2:33) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Thomas, Friedman, Friedman] The country talent gives a pleasant pop account of the tuneful oldie. Affordable entry. Deck was culled from an LP.
(B) "TALLER THAN TREES" (2:11) [Robbins ASCAP—Ferebee] Appealing inspirational is honestly portrayed by the performer and ork-chorus.

Vice President

Sales

June 24, 1960

Mr. Dealer:

Thank you!

The first six months of 1960 are just about over ... during this period Columbia Records has experienced the greatest sales in their history. You, Mr. Dealer, shared in this success, in fact you are, to a great measure, responsible for this success. However, we at Columbia, with somewhat pardonable pride, feel that the major share of this success is due to the fine product we created and produced, to the sales and merchandising programs we initiated to enhance that product, and to the excellent service our fine Distributing Organization rendered to you. Needless to say, we are not content to rest on our laurels. In the ensuing months we will continue to present even more enticing merchandise and success-oriented sales programs.

On July 21st through July 23rd, the entire Columbia organization will meet for its annual National Sales Convention. Upon his return from this Convention, your Columbia representative will present our Fall Merchandising Program to you. Without taking anything away from his presentation, let me say that he will offer you that most exciting and diversified list of new releases that Columbia has ever offered.

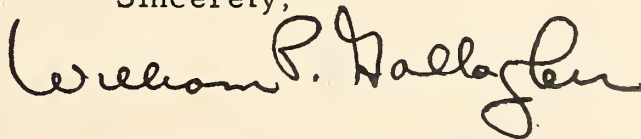

That's a big statement ... but there's more.

In addition, he will unfold a comprehensive merchandising program aimed at creating customer demand and this can only result in one important thing for you ... PROFIT.

In the weeks ahead you will see and hear some fine competitive product that certainly deserves your consideration ... however, don't finalize your Fall plans till our representative presents the Columbia story ... the story of the fastest-selling, chart-riding albums in the industry ... the story of the greatest artist roster in the industry ... the story of well planned merchandising programs ... the story of success ... COLUMBIA!

In other words ... put your MONEY where your PROFIT is ... COLUMBIA!

Sincerely,

William P. Gallagher

UA's New Costa Single Reading Of Pic Tone

NEW YORK—United Artists Records' last week issued Don Costa's follow-up to his "Unforgiven" hit, "Never On Sunday." The tune is the main-titile of a comedy muck made in Greece, and for which UA has the soundtrack rights under its Esteem publishing firm. Tune is a hit in France.

According to Dave Picker, UA executive-vice president, the label will issue the soundtrack LP in September to coincide with the flick's U.S. debut. Entered in the Cannes Film Festival this year (May), it won for its femme star, Meina Mercury, the award as the best actress.

The Cannes reception to the pic was so strong, Picker said, that it was decided to open the pic in Paris seven days after the festival. This prompted UA to relinquish its soundtrack rights in France to Eddie Barclay of France's Records, so promotion on the score could be better coordinated. Picker said there are at least fifteen European disks out on the tune, and at least five are expected here, including RCA Victor's just released Marty Gold-Ray Martin readings on the same single.

Rank Ups LP Prices

NEW YORK—Len Levy, director of sales for Top Rank Records, announced last week that a price change on Top Rank albums will become effective as of July 11. Specially selected LP's will go up one dollar in both monaural and stereo ($3.98 to $4.98 monaural and $4.98 to $5.98 stereo) and the deluxe package, "The History of Cante Flamenco," will be increased to $9.98.

The four albums which are affected by the price rise are "F# Where There Is Music," "Come To the Ceili," "Scotland's Pride" and "With My Love."

Bernard Lowe Enterprises Sues Sidney Mittleman; Accused Of Selling Bootlegged Cameo Disks

NEW YORK—Bernard Lowe Enterprises has brought suit against Sidney Mittleman, individually and trading as Record-Pak, who has been accused of selling bootlegged disks by New Jersey authorities, among them Lowe's Cameo disks by Bobby Rydell. Suit was started in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Law Division, Essex County. Money involved in the law suit is $70,000 plus "damages sustained by Lowe and the profits obtained by Mittleman, which should run the amount of the law suit up to $100,000," according to Lowe's lawyers, Blanc, Steinberg, Balder & Steinbrook.

The suit contains five counts and a brief synopsis of each count is as follows:

The first count contains allegations that Mittleman, with full knowledge of the fact that Bernard Lowe Enterprises, Inc. was the owner of the registered trade mark "Cameo," has been engaged for a substantial period of time in selling spurious phonograph records not made or produced by Lowe but copied and reproduced from Lowe's records, and that such records as sold by Mittleman were marked with counterfeit labels containing forged representations of Lowe's trade mark and trade name. This count of the complaint further states that this action on Mittleman's part was, of course, without the knowledge or consent of Lowe. It is further alleged that Mittleman has made not less than 100 sales of these spurious records bearing the counterfeited trade mark "Cameo," and that the defendant has, therefore, wrongfully performed or committed not less than 100 violations of the New Jersey Statute, each violation carrying penalty of $200.00. Hence, the claim for relief under the first count is for $20,000.

The second count of the complaint incorporates the allegations contained in the first count but goes on to state that Lowe has no knowledge of the precise number of sales and/or deliveries made by Mittleman of such spurious records containing the counterfeited trade mark, and hence, the court is requested to order Mittleman to make a full accounting of all such sales of the records which were counterfeited from the legitimate records manufactured and produced by Lowe.

The third count of the complaint states that all of the acts committed by the defendant as stated above were in direct violation of Lowe's exclusive rights to the use of the trade mark and trade name "Cameo" and have caused Lowe substantial damage, loss, and injury. The result of such action has been to deprive Lowe of the gains and profits which otherwise would have been obtained by it, and in addition, of course, Mittleman's acts tended to destroy Lowe's trade mark, trade name, business, and reputation. In this count of the complaint, the plaintiff is demanding $50,000.

The fourth count of the complaint states that as a result of Mittleman's selling of spurious records bearing the counterfeited trade mark and trade name, that he, Mittleman, has realized large profits. The complaint states further that the plaintiff has no knowledge of the precise profits

Ingeme Named Promo Mgr. At Col. Distribs, Boston

NEW YORK—The appointment of Salvatore Ingeme to the position of promotion manager at Columbia Record Distributors' Boston branch has been announced by Kenneth Glancy, vice-president and general manager of the firm.

As promotion manager, Ingeme is responsible for all local sales promotional activity and artists relations in the Boston area. Since joining Columbia in 1958, he has been both an order clerk and salesman with the Boston branch. Previously, he had two years of retail record sales and was a student at the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts.

made by Mittleman as well as all of his selling and delivering the bootlegged records and, hence, the court is requested to issue a judgment against Mittleman which will force him to make a full and complete disclosure of the operation of his business and which will also cause him to pay to the plaintiff all of the profits made by him from the sale of spurious "Cameo" records.

The fifth and last count of the complaint states that the plaintiff's trade mark and trade name, business, and reputation are in danger of irreparable harm from Mittleman's improper use of Lowe's name, label and trade mark in a way calculated to deceive third parties into believing that the spurious records and recordings of the defendant are the legitimate "Cameo" records as produced, sold, and distributed by Bernard Lowe Enterprises, Inc.

In view of the above, the plaintiff is seeking an injunction against Mittleman which will permanently enjoin and restrain him from using, selling, offering for sale, possessing or distributing any records, recordings, labels of other goods containing plaintiff's trade mark or trade name "Cameo" or any counterfeit or imitation thereof.

To kick off the fund-raising campaign a luncheon was held at Leone's Restaurant, July 5, which was attended by noted dignitaries of the press and sports worlds, Colonel Eddie Eagen and Tony Martin presiding.

UA Sets-Up Regional Sales Offices

NEW YORK—In line with United Artists Records continued expansion program, Art Talmadge, vice-president of the company, has announced the establishment of regional sales offices in the East, Mid-west and West. Jerry Raker has been named eastern regional sales manager. Norman Nelson, previously with Decca Records, joins UA on July 15 as Mid-west regional sales manager. Harry Goldstein, who has been in charge of sales on the West Coast, has been appointed Western regional sales manager. All three report to Andy Miele, UA's national sales manager.

Talmadge, who is dividing his time between New York and Chicago, has set-up a Chicago office at 185 N. Wabash. Nelson will headquarter at this office. Miss Roz Gewarter who was associated with Talmadge at Mercury Records has been named UA Mid-west office manager.

Talmadge reports that "the distributor and dealer reaction to United Artists' Swinging Sixty Album Sales Plan announced last week is far beyond our most optimistic expectations. We have booked substantial orders with the program which is offering distributors and dealers impressive discounts and extra long dating for sixty catalog albums including five new releases.

"United Artists is maintaining its policy of releasing material available to the company by virtue of its motion picture affiliation. The company has just released a new single by Don Costa 'Never On Sunday' which is the theme music from the film. The record follows on the heels of Costa's smash recording of 'Theme From The Unforgiven.' The recent releases of the 'Elmer Gantry' and 'The Apartment' sound track albums are proving to be stand-out sellers for the label. Ferrante & Teicher's single version of 'Theme From The Apartment' has broken out as a hit in a number of record markets."

Della Sings For All-Stars

NEW YORK—Della Reese, Victor's star songstress, will sing the "Star Spangled Banner" at the second All-Star baseball game this week (13) at Yankee Stadium. The NBC-TV network is carrying the game.

Chet Atkins Now Administrates Victor's Nashville Studios

NEW YORK—Chet Atkins, RCA Victor Records pop A&R manager in Nashville, has assumed responsibility for administration of the Nashville studio facilities in addition to his present responsibilities, Robert L. Yorke, division vice-president of the commercial records creation department, announced last week.

"As one of the great music centers in the country," Yorke said, "Nashville provides one of RCA Victor's three major studio locations, and its enormous growth and the consequent fast expansion of RCA Victor studio facilities in the city have necessitated Atkins' assuming administrative as well as his present creative tasks."

Under Atkins' direction, Nashville has been a prime source of many of Victor's biggest single hits during the past year. Among the many artists who record in the Nashville studios are Elvis Presley, Jim Reeves, Don Gibson, the Browns, Hank Locklin, as well as Atkins himself.

Bernie Lawrence Forms Anax Publishing

NEW YORK—Bernie Lawrence last week announced the formation here of Anax Music. The publishing firm will concentrate on the pop market and has affiliated with BMI.

The newly formed pub firm has already begun its operations and has taken space at 101 West 55th Street. Lawrence has been active in the pop field with major pub firms for the past five years. The current plans call for an open door policy to all song writers who wish to present material to the firm.

Four initial sides are already recorded and scheduled for September release. The foreign rights to the Lawrence catalog will be handled by Burton Music Limited.

"Queen For A Day" Wins Capitol's 7 Teens

HOLLYWOOD—Jack Bailey, host of the long-popular "Queen for a Day" radio-TV series, is shown in a jam session with Capitol Records' Bill Baldwin's Seven Teens. The jam session, in which Jack proved he can still handle the "bone" took place after a recent "Queen for a Day" edition at the Moulin Rouge. The Seven Teens were part of the prizes awarded to the special teenage queen, to supply entertainment at a party. She also received a supply of Capitol Records, among which was the group's forthcoming album.

Platter Spinner Patter

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

WRCA-Philadelphia's Big Band Music policy which was initiated a few months ago in what appeared as an "experimental" move has met with such wholehearted listener acceptance that the NBC-owned station has extended its broadcast day from 18 to a full 24 hours. The new all-night show which

RON RODDY
(KQV-Pittsburgh)

DON SHERWOOD
(KSFO-San Francisco)

LARRY FORD
(WTBO-Cumberland, Md.)

completes the day (12:30 to 5:30 AM) is being hosted by vet radio-TV personality Tom Reddy. Tom boasts of a long and successful career in the "communications" field having piloted such shows as "County Fair," and "Fitch Bandwagon" as well as disk shows on NBC, ABC, and WINS. His TV credits include "Dollar A Second," "Treasure Hunt" and the Charlie Weaver Show. WRCV's initial success is another feather in the cap for proponents of "good music." . . . While Martin Block vacations away from his ABC mike these weeks, Joel Spivak of KILT-Houston can be heard between disks on the "Make Believe Ballroom." . . . The St. Louis Junior Chamber of Commerce bestowed its annual radio-TV award for the "Outstanding Radio Personality of the Year" on Jack Carney of WIL. Also Carney and fellow WIL staffers Dick Clayton, Dan Ingram, Ed Bonner, Bob Osborne and Reed Farrell were appointed Honorary Recruiting Sergeants by the U.S. Air Force in appreciation of their efforts during the Air Force's special Buddy Flight recruiting campaign—which enables two "buddys" to sign up together for a tour as a team. . . . Gil Santos writes from WSAR-Fall River, Mass., that the station is programming exclusively from The Cash Box Top 100. Warms our hearts. . . . That fellow Bob "Coffeehead" Larsen sure leads a busy life over at WRIT-Milwaukee. In addition to his air trek (6 to 9 AM across the boards) and his duties as assistant to the general manager Bob manages to squeeze in a large number of community relations activities. A recent week provides a perfect example of Bob's devotion to duty: He emceed a preview of the Ford Motor Company's "Show For Suburban Living," hosted a Milwaukee Ad Club outing, was the welcoming host for the Variety Clubs at the nationwide premiere of "Story of Ruth," emceed a show for children at St. Camillus Hospital and put in another appearance for the Variety Clubs at a shopping center sale—And Bob says he enjoys every minute of it.

The Forest Hills Country Club (NY) will be the scene July 13 of a huge pop held under the auspices of WEVD's teen-age disk jockeys Arty Bell and Larry Miller. Up to the office last week, Arty and Larry told us that so far they've signed Buddy Hackett, Lonnie Satin, the Delicates, Frankie Lymon and the Teenagers, the Willows and many others. Looks like these kids are really going strong to prove themselves in their first deejay efforts. . . . Wally Thorton, better known as J. Walter Beethoven to the listeners of his KRAK-Sacramento, Cal. show (he's also the PD), has signed a wax pact with Dore, a subsid of the Hollywood-based Era label. Someone at the diskery caught Beethoven's daily airtime kickoff—a recitation of the lyrics to "Mule-skinner Blues," a service to his listeners who couldn't understand the Fendermen on the hit record—and thought his bit would make a good comedy "cover" disk. Beethoven was whisked to Hollywood for the session and tells us that the disk should be in the stores in short order. . . . Congrats this week to Tom Powers of WADK-Newport, R.I., whose wife Celeste gave birth to 7 pound Bridget Lee. . . . KQV-Pittsburgh personality Ron Roddy is now taking chopstick lessons from Chinese waiter Dan Yee, the newest member of the "Roddy-Go-Round" cast. The 26-year-old Yee is doing station breaks and promo announcements in Chinese for Roddy's show. . . . Don Sherwood of KSFO-San Francisco, besides being included in Bob Newhart's nightly prayers, was awarded a gold record of Warner Bros.' Bob Newhart comedy album for his part in launching the now-successful LP to national prominence. It was Sherwood's enthusiasm for two bits on the album—driving lessons and the USS Codfish routine—which made the album a household word in the Bay City. . . . Bruce Morrow (WINS-New York) and Lionel Hampton have copenned "The Shimmy" which both have recorded for Glad Records. Designated a "platter with a purpose," all proceeds from the sale of the record are being donated to the Association For Brain Injured Children, which in turn will use the funds to publish a book for both public and professional use. . . . As to his WINS activities, "The Bruce Morrow Show" replaces Paul Sherman's "Saturday Night Music Party," which moves to a Saturday afternoon spot. . . . Sparky Mullen (WSID-Baltimore) was in town and paid his respects to The Cash Box by stopping in and saying hello.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Lonny Starr, after a 13 year stint on WNEW-NY, moved his famous "Music Hall" to WBIC-Bay Shore, Long Island. Lonny's time sked has him on the air from 1 to 4 PM across the boards. The announcement was made by WBIC prexy Maurice "Red" Weiss, who commented that the acquisition of Starr is "another step in our design to bring urban radio to the suburban market. Starr is preceded in the 10 to 1 period by Lee Murphy, former WMGM-NY jockey, and followed by Mitch Lebe, who began his career as a teen-age disk jockey at WINS-NY. . . . Larry Ford notes he's moved from WCRO-Johnstown, Pa., to WTBO-Cumberland, Md., where he's working the 6 to midnight shift. . . . Bob Dean has joined KEX-Portland, Ore., as assistant program manager. The 23 year old Bob has had 8 years broadcasting experience, most recently as PD of KLMS-Lincoln, Nebr. . . . Jody Cameron has left her WMGM-NY record librarian post to enter A&R work. She is being replaced by Bob White. . . . George Sima left WHEN-TV-Syracuse, NY, for a 3 hour show on WBAB-Babylon, L.I., the "Melody Matinee" which features big band music.

Garner-Columbia Case

NEW YORK—The judge for the Erroll Garner suit against Columbia Records issued a decision last week in favor of Garner advising that he sees reason why the Garner LP, "The One, The Only Erroll Garner," should be enjoined. However, before the actual injunction takes effect, Garner's attorney Walt Hofer must submit a proposed order for the injunction and will have to post a bond until such time as the case is settled. Harvey Schine, Columbia attorney, stated that the amount of the bond, which must be fixed by the judge, will have to be argued. Until the order is signed; Schine advised, Columbia is shipping and selling the album.

Columbia has had a judge sign a "show cause" order requesting that Garner show cause why the matter which led up to the decision should not be reheard.

Panorama To Handle Polyphonic

NEW YORK—Herb Nelson of Panorama Records and Specs Powell of Polyphonic Records have jointly announced the turning-over of Polyphonic products to Panorama for national and international distribution. First release under the deal is "Bermuda Holiday" by the Bermudian folk-singers, The Talbot Brothers. Just released on Panorama is Art Harris' "From Dawn To Dreaming."

New Disneyland Distrib

NEW YORK—Disneyland Records has appointed Olympia Distributing, New York, to handle all Disneyland and Buena Vista Records.

Negotiations for the distributorship were made at the Walt Disney Studios in California and New York by Jimmy Johnson, executive vice president; Vincent H. Jefferds, vice president in charge of sales; Phil Sammeth, national sales manager for Disneyland Records and Oscar Keleman and Ervin Litkei of Olympia.

Previous New York distributor for Disneyland and Vista labels was Portem Distributors.

Starday Expansion Includes New International Dept.

NASHVILLE—Don Pierce of Starday Records has announced further expansion at Starday Records and Starday Sound Studios.

Starday has acquired the services of Martin C. Haerle of Stuttgart, Germany to head up a newly formed international sales and exploitation department for Starday Records and its affiliated publishing concerns.

Haerle is a young German country music enthusiast who has moved to Nashville to become an American citizen. He was active in Germany in producing Armed Force Network Radio Shows that used American Country Music talent and his hobby for many years has been the collection of American country music records.

He was in charge of shipping and exports for a large German manufacturer of electrical appliances. Starday is attaching increasing importance to the international market for American country music, particularly of the traditional or bluegrass type which seems to be most popular in overseas countries. The forming of an international sales and exploitation department under the guidance of Martin Haerle is aimed to help Starday achieve release of more country records and songs than ever before. In addition to his international duties, Haerle will be handling a part of the domestic sales and promotion work so that Don Pierce will be able to be more active with the new Starday Sound Studios.

Starday has also added Jackie Fatheree of Nashville to its staff as professional representative for Starday's various music publishing enterprises. Fatheree will act as song scout and as contact man with A&R men, artists, and writers in locating song material, making professional demos and obtaining maximum activity on the Starday, Bayou State, Kamar, Westwall, and Golden State catalogs that are all administered from the Starday offices at Madison, Tenn.

Westminster's Talmus In Europe For Distrib Deals

NEW YORK—Ed Talmus, vice-president of Westminster Records, is in London to conclude contract negotiations for European distribution of Westminster records. Talmus' itinerary includes England, France and Germany.

Newly acquired domestic distributors for the Westminster label are Garmisa Distributors in Chicago, and Modern Record Distributors in Los Angeles.

Who Shot "Mr. Lee"

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records has commenced action in New York Supreme Court against Alan Kallman, Lou Galli, executives of Triple-X Records, and the Triple-X Record Company for interference with their contract with the vocal group, the Bobbettes, and for "unfair competition in connection with a record issued by Triple-X" entitled "I Shot Mr. Lee." Progressive Music, publishing affiliate of Atlantic, simultaneously commenced action in Federal Court in New York, against Alan K. Music and Triple-X Records for infringement of its copyright of the famous hit of three years ago, "Mr. Lee."

Atlantic recorded "I Shot Mr. Lee" while the Bobbettes were under exclusive contract to the firm. Under the terms of the contract, according to Paul Marshall, attorney for Atlantic Records, the group was not free to record this tune for any other record company for ten years. "Atlantic was preparing to release 'I Shot Mr. Lee,'" stated Ahmet Ertegun, president of Atlantic, when a record by that title was issued by Triple-X. Atlantic is suing to prevent sale of the Triple-X disk and is seeking damages.

At press time, Warren Troob, attorney for Triple-X Records, had just received the Atlantic summons and stated that "the suit is unwarranted and we will seriously resist it. We will very likely countersue."

The Triple-X Record, of "I Shot Mr. Lee," issued a few weeks ago is currently on the best seller list. The Atlantic Record of the same song was released last week.

Pickwick To Debut New Label at NAMM Show

NEW YORK—Pickwick Sales will intro a new album line of religious recordings at Chicago's NAMM show this week, topper Cy Leslie announced last week. The LP's will retail for $2.98.

Leslie, whose firm merchandises Cricket, Design "Compatible" Fidelity and "Instant" Learning in addition to the new "Family Hour Records," stated that there will be eight albums available immediately with twice that number now in preparation. Titles are "Nearer My God" sung by Alan Dean; "Sunday Evensong" sung by Don Janse; "Cast Thy Burden Upon The Lord" sung by the Don Janse Chorale; "Carole Wilder Sings;" "The Protestant Choir of the U.S. Coast Guard Academy;" two volumes of "Organ Meditations" played by Van Talbert at the Oelhaf Pipe Organ.

In addition to Leslie, Pickwick sales executives Abbot Lutz and Ralph Berson and their four regional sales chiefs will attend the NAMM sessions.

New Evergreen?

NEW YORK—Although it looks that way, Dante and the Evergreens have not added a new member to their roster. The group, while on an East Coast tour for their Madison waxing of "Alley Oop," dropped up to The Cash Box offices and moved in for a pic with editor Ira Howard.

Decca-Coral "Rainbow" Meets Begin In LA

NEW YORK—Decca and Coral Records' "Rainbow of New Product for 1960" program kicks-off this week (11) in Los Angeles, where the Western division will meet for the first of a series of divisional sales meetings on behalf of their respective fall programs.

From Los Angeles, the execs go to New Orleans for the Southern division meeting (13); Chicago for the Midwestern division (14); Cleveland for the North Central division (15); New York for the Eastern Divisional meeting (18).

Roulette Italian Distrib

NEW YORK—Donald Singer, Roulette Records foreign operations manager, advised The Cash Box last week that the label's Italian distributor is Compagnia Generale Del Disco, and not Ricordi as noted in the France column of July 2.

Album Reviews

($1.49 thru $2.98)

"HUCKLEBERRY HOUND FOR PRESIDENT" A.A. Records AA-60, $1.98
Content: Humorous dialog, written for an adult audience, has "Huckleberry Hound" running for president and taking part in the electioneering. Voices of "Huck" and "Yogi Bear" are the real thing, accompanied by sound effects and music. Cover: Cartoon art reflects a kiddie flavor although disk is primarily adult material. Performance: Very funny sketch with some hilarious lines send "Huck" and "Yogi" through the electioneering channels winding up with a campaign-talk surprise-ending. Top-notch creative writing job. Commercial Value: "Huck" is well entrenched via the TV exposure and word-of-mouth might send the package onto the charts between now and Election Day.

"SONGS OF MY PEOPLE," Cantor Josef Rosenblatt, RCA Camden CAL-597, $1.98

Content: "Eili, Eili," "Aheim, Aheim," "My Yiddishe Momme," 7 others. Cover: Exceptionally good wash drawing with blue and grey tones of mother and son. Excellent display. Performance: Cantor Rosenblatt was the voice for the soundtrack of the pioneer talkie "The Jazz Singer" and in addition has successfully traveled the vaudeville circuit in the past with a strong following. Rosenblatt's performance here reflects the quality and style that made the Cantor famous. Commercial Value: Strong acceptance for selective markets with extra-added value of collector's attraction.

"TAKE ME ALONG" Orchestra and Chorus Directed by Russ Case, Rondollette LP-866, $1.49

Content: Selections from the Broadway show include: "The Parade," "Oh, Please," "Sid Ol' Kid," title tune and 12 others. Cover: Color line drawing of old model auto with strong titles and selections at top. Performance: Vehicle gives cast a chance to actively participate in the broad score. Male and female leads carry part well with strong accompaniment by chorus. Commercial Value: The play's the thing and this one is still running strong on Broadway. LP should reflect success with sales.

"LEFTY FRIZZELL SINGS THE SONGS OF JIMMIE RODGERS" Harmony HL-7241, $1.98

Content: "Blue Yodel No. 2," "Blue Yodel No. 6," "My Old Pal," 7 others. Cover: Color face shot of the songman makes for good display material. Performance: Frizzell's country style is as smooth and pleasant as the selections. The brace of easy going music is relaxation personified from start to finish. Commercial Value: Lefty has a wide range of shoppers looking for good country singing. They ought to be plenty satisfied with this deck.

Decca Inks Chuck Connors, TV's "Rifleman"

NEW YORK—Chuck Connors, star of TV's "Rifleman," has been signed to a Decca pact, executive vice-president Leonard W. Schneider announced last week. Rushed released last week was Connors first single for the label, "Seventy Times Seven" b/w "Somebody Bigger Than You And I." He will record on the West Coast under the direction of Sonny Burke.

"Seventy Times Seven" is from a film of the same name which revolves around the Salvationist missionary, Major Pean, and the closing of Devil's Island as a penal institution. Written by Perry Botkin and Ken Darby, the song was dedicated to Major Pean. The Connors disk features the Salvation Army Chorus in the setting.

Connors, one time first baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers, is currently on a successful summer tour of the country which includes rodeos, arenas, outdoor shows, etc.

Plans have been formulated by Decca for "extensive" promotion of the star's first single in conjunction with his visits to major cities throughout the country.

The above two photos show Connors in session with the Salvation Army Chorus.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"MORE SONGS BY RICKY"—Ricky Nelson—Imperial LP 9122

"THE INTIMATE JIM REEVES"—RCA Victor LPM-2216

Reeves' vocal manner, as so aptly proven pop single-wise with "He'll Have To Go," is a warm, personal and intimate one. A fully masculine voice yet with a subtle gentleness. In this album he wraps his voice moodily around the lyrics of "Dark Moon," "You're The Only Good Thing," "Almost," "Room Full Of Roses" and "No One To Cry To." A lovely package with strong sales potential.

"PRETTY EYES"—Peggy Lee—Capitol ST 1401

The thrush is in a reflective ballad mood here and is helped along the soft, quiet route by Billy May's exquisite string-woodwind arrangements. Included are "It Could Happen To You," "I Wanna Be Loved," "You Fascinate Me So" and "I Remember You." The one upbeat respite in the set is "Too Close For Comfort," which is taken at a lightly swinging clip. Another fine session from a true artist. Should reap a big sales harvest.

"PERCUSSION ESPANOL"—Time S/2006

Time continues to issue forth with some of the best "percussion" albums, here Spanish music taking hold of its latest release. Al Caiola's arrangements (and exciting solo guitar work) are bold, dramatic and even thunderous—enabling sweeping vistas of "La Virgin de Macarena," "Española Cani," "Andalucia," "Granada" and "Cielito Lindo." Sound quality (depth and separation) is outstanding. Could carve out a chart niche for itself.

"CLAP HANDS! HERE COMES ROSIE!"—Rosemary Clooney—RCA Victor LPM-2212

A bright, bubbly Rosie here, as she gleefully and quite professionally romps through such sparklers as "Everything's Coming Up Roses," "Bye Bye Blackbird," "Something's Gotta Give," "Hooray For Love" and eight others in the same genre. Bob Thompson's orchestrations are right in the swinging groove with the thrush. Delightful entertainment!

"MARGARET WHITING SINGS THE JEROME KERN SONG BOOK"—Volumes 1 & 2 Verve MG VS-6157

A lot of imagination, artistry and good taste went into the production of these two LP's; from the inclusion of several beautiful but neglected songs by Kern (along with his more popular ones) to the handling of them in unusual but valid ways to the successful combination of Miss Whiting's voice and Russ Garcia's arranging.

"THE APARTMENT"—Original Motion Picture Soundtrack—United Artists UAL 3105

UA's comedy film, "The Apartment," has been given a lively scoring by Adolph Deutsch, who received plaudits for his score for "Some Like It Hot." In fact, he has patterned this score in some ways after the "Hot" music—especially in drawing upon familiar pops for several scenes. Here he has used "Tavern In The Town" and "Little Brown Jug" plus a brace of original items which fit right in the mood of things. Even jazz rears its swinging head momentarily. Excellent addition to the label's fine catalog of track LP's.

"PING PONG PONG, THE SWINGING BALL"—The Creed Taylor Orchestra—ABC Paramount ABCS-325

ABC now joins the "percussion" club with their own version of musical sounds. Flo Handy's voice is used instrumentally, along with various flutes and percussion, on "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," "Makin' Whoopee," "Cheek To Cheek," "Love Is Here To Stay" and "Daddy." Kenyon Hopkins is responsible for the stereo-scored arrangements which come across successfully for their intended goal. Can be a seller.

"SWEET AND LOVELY"—Lawrence Welk—Dot DLP 3296

Welk's ork sound is different here than his usual "champagne" dates. It's a brassier, more pungent sound, but still inherent in it is the sweet, sentimental flavoring that has made its mark on the public. The tunes are all sturdy ballads and include "Beyond The Sea," "Once In Awhile," "Sentimental Reasons," "Autumn Leaves" and "Fools Rush In"—all taken at a smooth dance pace.

"NEW VOICE IN TOWN"—Marge Dodson—Columbia CL 1458

In her second album—as it was with her first—Miss Dodson's vocal talent cries out for attention and recognition. Here she appears in a much more swinging and "hipper" mood than the first, but retaining her wide-eyed warmth and youthful freshness. Selections range from the murky "Round Midnight" to the bright "This Can't Be Love" with in-between moods of "Angel Eyes," "No Moon At All" and "Dearly Beloved." Deserving newcomer.

"TRY A LITTLE TENDERNESS"—Gloria Lynne—Everest SDBR-1090

Having exhibited a jazz vocal outlook on previous LP's, Miss Lynne here turns in the same pop singing job on a line-up of pops. With LeRoy Holmes' lush ork-chorus backing to guide her, she waxes smoothly through "Long Ago And Far Away," "Be My Love," "My Reverie" and the superbly effective title song. Quality package.

"ERNEST IN LOVE"—Original Cast—Columbia OL 5530

Yet another off B'way triumph, "Ernest In Love" is a musical version of the classic Oscar Wilde comedy, "The Importance Of Being Ernest." With a now-and-then bow to "My Fair Lady," the score contains witty Victorian-flavored lyrics by Anne Crosswell, set to Lee Pockriss music which puts them in a charmingly proper setting. Cast of "unknowns" performs delightfully. Noteworthy original-cast issue.

"ONE IS A LONELY NUMBER"—Fifi Barton—Ace LP 1009

Disk debut by a thrush who exhibits a swinging way with a song. She offers adequate takes of "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," "But Not For Me," "Don't Take Your Love From Me," "That Old Feeling" and "Who's Sorry Now." On the ballad cuts she efficiently communicates the bittersweet mood. Worth a listen.

"DANCE TONIGHT"—Newport Youth Band—Coral 57350

Far from the stage of Newport where Marshall Brown unveiled this band a few seasons ago are the proms and dances where the group has been playing for pure dancing and entertainment pleasure. To this end, the band has added a rock beat and some novelty vocal and instrumental gimmicks to its repertoire. This should definitely delight the kids (but also bring shudders to the jazz purists who've heard them in more esthetic surroundings). Selections include "Valentine," "My Blue Heaven," "Isle Of Capri" and "Jazz Me Blues."

Album Reviews

"JOSE MELIS PLAYS JACK PAAR'S FAVORITES"—Seeco CELP-462

The pianist serves up a program of evergreens which are said to be favorites of his boss. The frills and runs of his style are heard on "Ebb Tide," "Liza," "My Funny Valentine," "Shangrila" and "My Concerto." Melis' nightly exposure has gained him a large following.

"THE MAGIC ISLANDS"—Alfred Newman and His Orchestra with the Ken Darby Singers—Decca DL 9048

An elaborate presentation of the music of Hawaii in a colorful picture—highlighted book type liner, bound in a beautiful die-cut display cover. Newman's arrangements are freshly painted portraits of familiar, traditional melodies. The chorus is also used in imaginative and unique accompaniment. Selections include "Lovely Hula Hands," "Trade Winds," "Sweet Leilani" and the inevitable "Hawaiian War Chant."

"FOLK SCENE U.S.A."—The Cumberland Three—Roulette R 25121

A new folk singing trio in the same vein as the Kingston Trio (even the Kingston's Dave Guard contributed to the liner notes). Their repertoire is basically Early Americana and they assault each song with a serious-minded, youthful enthusiasm. Tunes include "Darlin' Corey," "Come Along Julie," "Along The Colorado Trail" and "Johnny Reb." A group of entertaining newcomers.

"HAVA NAGILA"—Eliezer Adoram and Players of The Aviv Theatre—Classic Editions CE 1047

A native Israeli, Adoram is well versed in the traditional music of his country. With proper instrumental and occasional vocal support from the Players, he serves up a delectable disk which demonstrates the many different cultures in Israel today. He sings Yiddish songs from eastern Europe, Yemenite songs, Chassidic chants, and popular music of modern Israel. They are all handled enthusiastically.

"I THANK GOD"—Sam Cooke, The Gospel Harmonettes, Original Blind Boys—Keen 86103

Commercially, the most important sides in this album are the four by Sam Cooke. Cut a while back when this was his principal endeavor, they reveal a deep, personal involvement of the singer with his material. His stirring reading of the spiritual "Deep River" and three gospel numbers, specifically "Steal Away," is an artistic treat. The sides by the other two groups also merit gospel attention.

"JESUS GAVE ME WATER"—The Famous Davis Sisters—Savoy MG-14036

Undoubtedly one of the most exciting gospel releases in recent months. The Davis Sisters are favored with long experience in the field and, above all, with a certain electric quality which permeates their performance. Witness the majestic heights they attain on "We Need Power," a strikingly moving gospel shout. Other outstanding tracks among the ten are "Trees," "I Got A New Home" and the title song.

JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK

"THE SUBTERRANEANS"—Original Motion Picture Soundtrack—MGM E3812 ST

The film version of Jack Kerouac's highly controversial novel naturally employs a big dose of "cool" jazz as background theme. Previn is up to this and has penned a powerful score, which, played here by such top men as Gerry Mulligan, Art Farmer, Art Pepper, Shelly Manne and Red Mitchell, can also stand on its own feet as good listening music. Carmen McRae is heard in one vocal, "Coffee Time," which fits perfectly into the theme of the film. Can be a top jazz seller.

"SILVER VIBES"—Lionel Hampton—Columbia CL 1486

The great vibraphonist settles comfortably into a romantic mood, creating properly subdued settings for "Skylark," "Day By Day," "My Foolish Heart," "What's New?" and "Speak Low." Still a swinging musician, despite the pop accent on this date, Hampton improvises beautifully through the middle, surrounded by the bronzed sound of four trombones. Solid outing for the Hamp.

"TERRY GIBBS PLAYS THE DUKE"—Mercury SR 60122

The fiercely swinging vibist has toned himself down considerably for this outing. Working within confined arrangements of Ellington tunes and with the non-jazz sound of an accordion behind him, Gibbs has proven much more capable and original in the past. But there is an attractiveness here—the famous Ellington tunes, the bright, always glowing sound of Gibbs—that marks it for a good sales item. Selections include "Caravan," "Solitude," "Take The 'A' Train," "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" and "Sophisticated Lady."

"THE LEGENDARY BUSTER SMITH"—Atlantic 1323

After 18 years away from the jazz scene, Smith, a member of the Original Blue Devils, fellow musician of Count Basie, Lester Young, et. al. in the '30's, and probably the strongest influence on Charlie Parker, has been recorded by Gunther Schuller. His music is still a "primitive" for-dancing-only type of swing, with powerful, searing alto solos. He is also a sensitive improviser, as displayed on "September Song" here. Other selections are "Kansas City Riffs," "Organ Grinder's Swing" and "Buster's Tune." Great historical value.

"JAZZ OASIS"—The Charlie Barnet Quartet—Capitol ST 1403

Swing Era holdover Barnet bowed a new quartet at a Palm Springs nitery recently and Capitol was on the scene to tape some of the sets. The saxophonist (with rhythm trio backing) swings nicely in a mainstream groove such oldies as "It's Only A Paper Moon," "Take The 'A' Train," "Honeysuckle Rose," "Jive At Five" and "In A Mellow Tone." The sound offers a touch of nostalgia to the oldsters and pleasant, lively listening to the youngsters.

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

"HEIFETZ"—Jascha Heifetz—RCA Victor LM 2382

The great violinist offers an exciting program of musical "miniatures," applying his magnificent technique to such difficult pieces as "Sabre Dance," "Hora Staccato," Stravinsky's "Berceuse," three of Brahms' "Hungarian Dances" and similar numbers. There are 18 selections here, each one coaxing a superb performance from the artist. Of immense value.

TCHAIKOVSKY: "The Nutcracker Suite"; "Romeo and Juliet"—The Philharmonia Orchestra, Igor Markevitch conducting—Angel S 35680

Containing some of the most popular ballet melodies, "The Nutcracker" is always in demand for a new reading—especially one so fresh and invigorating as this Markevitch interpretation. The most memorable of the lilting melodies are here—"March," "Waltz Of The Flowers," "Dance Of The Flutes," etc. The programmatic "Romeo and Juliet" is another "friendly" Tchaikovsky piece which completes the package.

DVORAK: Symphony in D Minor, Op. 13—Prague Symphony Orchestra, Vaclav Neumann, conductor—Artia ALP(S) 137

The first available recording of the Dvorak symphony in the U.S. (not to be confused with his Symphony No. 2 in the same key). It is a stirring, dramatic reading of the stately work. Though not as "Wagnerian" as his earlier works, it still retains some of the thickness in scoring and grand-eloquent passages which marked the others. A fine stereo recording, this disk is of special interest here.

ENGLAND

A new music publishing company, Lorna Music, has opened in 'Tin Pan Alley.' Formed under the auspices of a Danish company, Hansen Wilhelm of Copenhagen—which has been in existence for 103 years (dealing mainly in classical music)—with branches in Norway, Sweden and Germany, Lorna plans a popular music catalogue in this country. The directors of Lorna Music are Miss Hanna Hansen, Miss Lona Hansen and Alan Paramor, who will also act as general manager for the London office. Paramor, who comes to the job after six years in the exploitation department of Leeds Music, told The Cash Box that the first number to be handled by the new company will be "Quatermaster's Stores" featuring the Shadows Group with Cliff Richard on guitar—This is a purely instrumental record and is issued on the Columbia label.

Decca this week makes a further concession in the field of cut-priced disks. The company is releasing on the R.C.A. label an album of two LP's for the price of one—39/6d. The package contains one disk of recordings by the late Mario Lanza and the second comprises a selection of operatic arias by Caruso. Mr. W. Townsley, general manager of Decca, said that this first release is experimental but if sales are good, further packages will be considered. This is a follow up of an idea which has already proved successful in the States.

David Platz of Essex Music is excited about having the new Anthony Newley record for July release on Decca—an English version of "La Montana," the No. 1 song from the first Festival of Spanish songs at Benidorm in 1959, and currently in The Cash Box Top 100. Released here under the title "If She Should Come To You" the new lyrics are by American lyricist Alec Wilder. Also published by Essex is a new Keith Kelly waxing of "Uh Uh" on Parlophone. This is Kelly's second disk for the label—his first "Tease Me" made the charts. Platz and all at the London office are looking forward to welcoming Al Brackman, American director of the Essex Music Group, when he visits this country in September en route for Paris, Milan, Cologne and Naples. His visit coincides with the London office's 5th Anniversary.

Title for the new EP by composer-singer Paddy Roberts for release on Decca in July has now been settled—"Paddy Roberts Tries Again." Tracks include some unique numbers, all of which are published by Essex Music, including "The Belle of Barking Creek," "The Tattooed Lady," "What's All This Fuss About Love" and "Why Did It All Begin." Paddy's previous hit "Strictly For Grown Ups" is a consistent Cash Box EP chart topper.

Bernard Cook has now joined Polydor (Deutsche Grammophon (G.B.) Ltd.) as repertoire and exploitation manager. Cook who was doing a similar job with Capitol and more recently with Pye, will concentrate exclusively on pops and plans to build a large international repertoire both from the company's German and American sources. The first Polydor recording to be made in this country has just been completed. . . . "Mission Bell" backed with "Everybody Else But Me" by the German star Peter Kraus accompanied by Bob Sharples—publishers Dominion Music and Kassner Music respectively. For July release comes a disk by the popular German pianist Crazy Otto, "Near You" backed with his version of "Mack The Knife" and an EP and a single by Helmut Zacharias, leading German orchestral conductor, of two songs from the 1959 Cannes Film Festival prize winner "Orfeu Negro." His LP "Candlelight Serenade" has been chosen as 'Record of the Month' by United States Army PX Stores in Europe.

With "Love Is Like A Violin" at No. 2 in the Best Selling Song Sheet Music List this week publisher Bill Phillips of Peter Maurice reports that the only vocal waxing of the number by comedian Ken Dodd on Decca is selling fast—20,000 in two weeks—interesting considering companies in general felt that the number was unsuitable for vocal recordings. Two orchestral waxings by Stanley Black and Frank Chacksfield are on Decca—plus a lush version by Max Jaffa and Norrie Paramor's Orchestra on Columbia, backed with "Romantica" also published by Peter Maurice. The Jane Morgan version on London is now entering the charts. Another current hit published by Peter Maurice is "The I Love You Bit" by Alma Cogan on H.M.V.

American publisher Red Evans has a ballad "Ask Anyone In Love" published here by the Peter Maurice Group. E.M.I. A & R manager, Norman Newell, heard the song and chose it as a debut disk for Peter Wynne on Columbia.

Quick reaction this side of the Atlantic to "Itsy Bitsy Teenie Weenie Yellow Polkadot Bikini." Tapes of the original Brian Hyland recording reached Decca last Tuesday—pressings made Thursday—released following Tuesday on London. Repeat orders already coming in. Meantime, George Martin A&R manager for Parlophone, tells me that having read The Cash Box (June 25th) he went into immediate action. After setting the routine with arranger Ken Jones the number was recorded last Sunday afternoon by 18-year old Paul Hanford. Masters were cut the same evening, pressed on Monday and on sale Thursday. This is a debut disk for Paul who has just returned from an eight-month tour of Germany.

Bob Weiss of Warner Bros. Records in London for a few days called to report that his company's LP's are doing great and that dealers are very enthusiastic about the quality and sound of the disks.

The last three months have proved disastrous for the London theatre—in this time no less than fourteen shows have folded after runs of less than a month. The latest flop "Call It Love" by Robert Tanich, with music especially written by Sandy Wilson (who wrote the successful transatlantic hit "The Boy Friend") closed last Saturday after only four days. However, with the opening this week at London's New Theatre of the 100% British musical "Oliver" based on the Charles Dickens novel "Oliver Twist" things are looking up. The show, with book, lyrics and music by Lionel Bart (recent winner of the Ivor Novello award for Outstanding Personal Services to British Popular Music) received universal rave notices and seems set for a long and successful run.

Bart already has one smash hit musical running in the West End "Fings Ain't Wot They Used T' Be" at The Garrick Theatre and among his many hit disks have been Anthony Newley's chart topper "Do You Mind" on Decca, Cliff Richards' "Livin' Doll" on Columbia and many Tommy Steele successes including "Little White Bull." An original cast LP recording of "Oliver" will be made this week for release later in the month by Decca. Singles from the show already on release include "Consider Yourself At Home" by Max Bry-graves on Decca, "As Long As He Needs Me" by Shirley Bassey on Columbia, "Oliver" and "Reviewing The Situation" by Ted Heath and his Orchestra and "Where Is Love" and "I'd Do Anything" by Mike Preston, both on Decca. All numbers from the show are published by Lakeview Music.

Ted Heath and his Orchestra and Mike Preston join forces for another Decca release "Song Without End"—theme from the Dirk Bogarde film of the life of Franz Liszt. Flip side is an orchestral version by Mantovani and his Orchestra.

Shortly after returning from the States on a short visit to London, singer Dorothy Squires recorded a new disk for Decca entitled "There Is A Place Called Home."

Envoy Records have a new EP—mono and stereo—for July release, "Pops Goes The Opera" by The Delyse London Orchestra under the composer-conductor D'Artega. For many years musical director of the Carnegie Concerts, he also conducted the former Toscanini Orchestra, the "Symphony of the Air," the Stadium Symphony and the Buffalo Philharmonic "Pop" concerts. He conducts in Miami every summer. Specially recorded at London's I.B.C. Studios, the EP is housed in an attractive sleeve with witty and amusing notes. Tracks comprise Adaptations from Verdi's "La Traviata" and "Rigoletto," Ponchielli's "La Gioconda" and Bizet's "Carmen."

Robert Horton of "Wagon Train" fame returned to London this week after holidaying in Rome. Before flying back to the States he made his first studio recording for Pye Records. Four tracks were waxed for release on two singles. The first, "Wagon Trains Roll" backed with "The Girl That I Marry," will be issued in July. Backings by Roland Shaw and his Orchestra. The second disk will be released later in the year. On his last visit here Pye recorded an EP, "Robert Horton At The London Palladium," which made The Cash Box British Top Twenty charts.

Joan Regan has recorded a new single for Pye, the French hit "Mama Loves Papa" on which the voice of her two-year old daughter can also be heard. The backing is "When You Know Someone Loves You" from the British musical film "Hello London" starring Sonja Henie and Michael Wilding.

Harold Shampman of Filmusic is enthusiastic about the Mayfair Films Production of "London Nights" scheduled for release in July featuring disk stars Lance Fortune, Gary Mills, The Fleerackers, The Day Brothers and Carol Simpson. Many of the numbers are published by Filmusic, as is the new Adam Faith Parlophone disk "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" now in The Cash Box British charts.

Starting in the Fall, Palette Records of America will operate in this country under their own name. Previous waxings, including "Manhattan Spiritual" by Reg Owen and The Adams Singers' "Sing Something Simple," have been issued here on the Pye International label. Pye will continue to handle the company's pressings and distribution. In charge of operations will be Jack Heath of Good Music and Cliff Adams of Thames Music, two companies controlled by Palette chief Jacques Kluger.

Famous French chansonniers Patachou visited Holland on June 30 for an exclusive appearance at the Kurhaus-hall in Holland's famous seaside resort, Scheveningen. In connection with this L.C. Phonogram recently released Patachou's newest hit record, "Oui, mon capitaine—La corde—Billy (How can you not believe)—Le petit bal des souvenirs" on the Philips label.

On June 22, Bovema's "Gramophone House" celebrated the long expected visit of MGM's president, Arnold Maxim. As Bovema's director, Gerry M. Oord told us, he had an extensive and rather fruitful discussion with Maxim concerning the activities of the MGM label in Holland. "MGM can be considered now as being the biggest name for single-releases in the country and besides this, an even closer contact and understanding has been laid between us through this visit. All this will undoubtedly be to the advantage of the MGM label," Oord commented on the event.

Europe's number one jazzband, The Dutch Swing College Band, did a brilliant piece of recording when on tour in Basel, Switzerland, recently. The numbers recorded were: "There's A Bridle Hanging On The Wall" and "Oh Baby;" the single has just been released in Holland and is selling like hot cakes.

"Milord," world famous through its interpretation by the great French singer Edith Piaf, has now reached 50,000 in sales in Holland, as told us by Robert Oeges, Bovema's Columbia label manager.

Cor. Smit Jr., general manager of Francis-Day Music of Amsterdam, has the American hits "Bill Bailey Won't You Please Come Home," recently recorded by Bobby Darin on the London label, "Down Yonder," recorded by Johnny And The Hurricanes, also on the London mark, and "Josephine," shortly on the London label by Bill Black's Combo. Another revival to make publisher Smit happy is "Little Things Mean A Lot," recorded by English teenage star Cliff Richards, who has thousands of fans in Benelux.

Francis-Day Music publishers of Amsterdam have obtained the rights for Holland of the pretty French song "Papa Aime Maman," originally published by Editions Champ Elysees of Paris. The song "The Old Spinningwheel," handled in Holland by Francis-Day Music publishers, has been recently recorded by the famous Skandinavian Benelux hit paraders Papa Bue's Viking Jazz Band on the Storyville label, handled by C. N. Rood L.C. Via their London head office, Francis-Day has obtained the Dutch rights of the new Jerry Lordan composition "Sing Like An Angel." The song has been recorded by Jerry himself on Parlophone. A nice follow-up of his successes "I'll Stay Single" and "Who Could Be Bluer."

There is a rather surprising comeback for "Too Young" by Columbia's Bill Forbes. The record is very high on the charts in Belgium and also in the Dutch market Forbes' version is rapidly climbing the hill of big hits.

The Saturday night amusement program on Dutch TV had half an hour of a teenage-amateur contest. Winning team was the Mozem Skiffle Group (a discovery of actif dealer "Uncle" Henk Severs from Maastricht) who already recorded for the Philips label. Their single record is selling very well in Holland and internationally there might be a good future for the Skifflers.

The show of Philips recording artist Kees Manders, which is called "Tschit Tschit" and in which he is featuring his wife, the well known Dutch singer Riek Jansen, is a tremendous success in Amsterdam.

Pete Felleman, who left Bovema L.C. as Capitol label manager recently, will join the Artone Gramophone organization from September 1 on.

High in the heart of many youngsters is British star Cliff Richard, whose "Fall In Love With You" is a big success both in England and on the continent.

Among the new releases by L.C. Phonogram are "Chattanooga Choo Choo" and "Workin' Out" by Ernie Fields and his orchestra; "Paper Roses" and "Mixed Emotions" by Anita Bryant; "Three Steps To Heaven" and "Cut Across Shortly" by Eddy Cochran; "Love You So" and "My Babe" by Ron Holden; "Happy-Go-Lucky-me" and "Fish In The Ocean" by Paul Evans; and "Panoptikum" and "Footsteps" by The Fouryo's.

Rocco Granata, world famous for his hit recording of "Marina," just recorded two more titles in Belgium: "Rocco Chaccha" and "Julia."

At the International Song Festival in Knokke, Belgium will be represented by Rina Pia, Terry Lamot, Maryse Litsch, Jean-Michel Blanc and Louis Notari.

Number one hit on the Belgian juke boxes is "Mustapha" by Bob Azzam, followed by "Stuck On You" by Elvis Presley, "My Home Town" by Paul Anka, "Laila" by The Regenta Stars and "Puppy Love" again by Paul Anka.

AUSTRALIA

Shock news of the moment is that top star Johnny O'Keefe has been seriously injured in a car accident several miles outside of Kempsey—300 miles from Sydney. As a result of this accident—a head-on smash between O'Keefe's new car and a lorry carrying eight tons of gravel—Johnny was admitted to hospital with severe cuts to the face, concussion and shock. Also in the car with O'Keefe—and seriously injured—were musician John Gremman and his wife Jan. They were returning from an engagement at The Beachcomber in Surfer's Paradise Queensland when the smash occurred. I am sure I speak for the entire music and record trades of Australia in wishing O'Keefe and his friends a complete and speedy recovery.

Johnny O'Keefe reported (prior to his accident) that he was having a busy but fruitful time as general manager of Lee Gordon Records. Johnny has supervised a whole batch of records with Lonnie Lee, Barry Stanton, Booka Hyland, The Crescents and some new stars. Johnny himself has a new EP release on the Lee Gordon label, "Six O'Clock Rock Vol 2" which features with "Rock Time" the new theme for his "Six O'Clock Rock" TV show; "My Baby Knows"; "Mountain Of Love" and "Ooh Poo Pah Doo," Parts 1 and 2.

Well known music man Joe Loufer has announced his resignation as manager of Castle Music to join Leeds Music Pty. Ltd. as professional manager, effective July 18. Joe has had a lot of experience in the music business both in England and Australia and is pianist with a regular television show in Sydney. Jack Argent—previously manager of Leeds—now becomes managing director.

E.M.I., through Ron Wills, have finalized plans for one of the biggest promotion deals ever attempted in this country. It is a tie-in with the MacRobertson chocolate people on the soon to be released LP entitled "Old Gold" which is also the name of a leading chocolate line. The album, which is devoted to Australian jazz, features a different group on every track. A special leaflet on the record is being enclosed in every box of "Old Gold" chocolates to be marketed throughout Australia during the next three months. Full page color ads for the disk and for the sweets will appear in our leading national publications, including Pix and Australasian Post. MacRobertson's are preparing a whole stack of window displays that promote the disc and solid radio, press and TV campaigns have also been arranged.

The American release—on the Wynne label—of Frankie Davidson's "I Care For You" has sparked off a new wave of interest in this disc throughout Australia. Ron Gillespie, chief of the W & G outfit here, says "this Frankie Davidson single has been one of the most successful in the history of our company and the American release has helped to give a renewed lift to local interest and action in 'I Care For You'."

Latest Government figures on the number of television licenses issued to date in Australia stand at 910,728 as at the end of May. Better than 700,000 of these are in use in New South Wales and Victoria.

An interesting new album release on RCA is the original cast LP of the Broadway musical "Jamaica" featuring Lena Horne and Ricardo Montalban. With this album made available for general release, it seems most unlikely that "Jamaica" will ever be performed in this country.

The American composing team Scotty Turnbull and John Marascalco are making a tremendous impact on the Australian hit parade scene. Johnny O'Keefe made a number one hit out of their "She's My Baby" and Lonnie Lee almost repeated this result with "Starlight Starbright." Lonnie's current hit contender is "Yes Indeed I Do." They also have the Delltones new hit "Little Miss Heartbreak" and Johnny Rebb's contender "There You Go." Booka's current parader "Sweet Thing," Johnny Devlin's next two songs and Rob E. G.'s next two for Pye. It is predicted that O'Keefe's "Don't You Know (Pretty Baby)" is destined for a repetition of his previous chart successes.

The Top Rank label continues to issue a fair swag of singles. Latest single released on Top Rank include "Nobody Loves Me Like You" by The Flamingos; Little Anthony and The Imperials with "My Empty Room"; "Sixteen Reasons" by Sheila Burton; The Fleetwoods' latest "Runaround"; Gay Mills with "Look For A Star."

In keeping with their policy of keeping their cast albums "alive," Festival Records here have re-packed and re-issued the Ethel Merman-Ray Middleton album of "Annie Get Your Gun."

The "Sweet Nuthin's" gal Brenda Lee looks set for the top spot here with her latest chart-riders "I'm Sorry" c/w "That's All You Gotta Do," both of which are hot on The Cash Box lists right now.

Dinah Shore in Denmark and Sweden for TV-film productions. Former champ Ingemar Johansson has a part in her TV-show, which Swedish TV owners may get a chance to see. Swedish Broadcasting-TV Co. is reportedly negotiating with the American TV company about the rights to show the serial this autumn. Siw Malmkvist, recording artist at Metronome, was expected to appear in the serial but had to refuse since she couldn't cancel already contracted engagements.

Norwegian jazz critics every year vote for the "Silver Record" (the best jazz record of the year). For 1960 they chose "The High and the Mighty Hawk" with Coleman Hawkins on Felsted label.

A new Norwegian singing group has started making appearances here. They are The Funny Five and have been making some recordings for Norwegian Philips. At the moment, the group is planning a tour in Europe, starting on July 20 when they appear in Copenhagen, followed by Germany, Austria, Switzerland, France, England and Benelux countries.

French songs have suddenly become very popular in Sweden. The recent Hit Parade has Edith Piaf's "Milord" on Columbia in first place, Jacqueline Boyer's "Tom Pillibi," also on Columbia, in seventh place, and a Swedish version of "Milord" in 19th place. It is some years since a French song made any noteworthy sales in Sweden.

The film music from the Finnish film "Kaks' Tavallista Lahtista" (Two Ordinary Guys), composed by Toivo Kärki, a veteran among the Finnish composers, has been obtained for world wide distribution throughout the publishing houses affiliated to Edition ITN Radio in Zürich. Sven G. Winquist, head of Globe Musikförlag AB in Stockholm, Scandinavian representative of the publishing group, recently visited Helsinki and made the deal. Edition ITN Radio is represented in the U.S. by Butterfly Music Corp. in New York and Hollywood. The film is this year's Finnish contribution to the Berlin Film Festival.

Carli Tornehave will represent Scandinavia at this year's Italian song festival at Pesaro, Italy, on July 30 and 31. He will sing "Flickan Med Svavelstickorna," (The Girl With The Matches). Last year's Pesaro song festival was won by Swedish singer Gerd Persson with the Swedish song "Marionetterna." Carli Tornehave is recording for H.M.V. Around ten countries will participate in the festival. Each country is sending a representative as a judge for the jury. Also the audience at the Festival Palace will vote for the number they like best.

"Porgy and Bess" opened with a gala première at the Astoria, Stockholm July 1. The gala opening was arranged for the benefit of the World Refugee Year, and Leslie Scott (Jake in the film) came to Stockholm from Milano where he is appearing at the moment. Nicole Maurey, the French actress, arrived from Hollywood, and the British actress Eunice Gayson flew in from London. Also seen among the public was actress May Britt, whose romance with Sammy Davis now is causing many headlines in Swedish papers.

Josh White, now in Israel for concerts, is expected in Stockholm on July 9. An LP-recording for Karusell Records is scheduled.

Swedish singer Sonja Sjöbeck engaged to appear at the "Ostseewoche" (Baltic Sea Week) in Rostock, East-Germany, on July 8-9. The next day she will sing with a 17 piece band over East-German radio station Leipzig. Her program will include Swedish songs only. To meet the critics against Swedish artists appearing at events which have a certain communistic propaganda character Miss Sjöbeck declares that she got her contracts thru the ordinary channels used by artists who are getting engagements within or outside Sweden. She identifies herself as "an idiot in all questions dealing with politics."

Jöns is the name of a new Swedish record label. Its first release presented the Danish quintet Finn Ziegler's Band, wellknown from several variety appearances in Sweden. Roland Marno's Orchestra and the Italian band lead by Bruno Stella, now playing at the Tyrol Restaurant at Gröna Lund-Tivoli, has also been contracted to the label.

E.M.I. of Paris (Columbia label) has declared that the sales figures for "Milord" sung by Edith Piaf on Columbia, shows the very best result from Sweden, reports Ingvar Lieberg, a & r man of EMI in Stockholm. Mr. Lieberg was the one who first heard the song at the Stockholm office and who suggested that this was something to pay attention to. Today the record is topping the Swedish Hit Parade.

Gösta Theselius signed an exclusive contract with BFB for which label he will make all arrangements for the recordings. Theselius was formerly contracted with Oktav Records in Malmö.

ITALY

Some 100 personalities of the music world spent a full day at Ing. Baron's villa in Milan to celebrate his birthday on June 26. Mr. Baron is the manager of Melodicon (Italian Philips). Guests of the party were all Melodicon's artists, including Wilma de Angelis, Marino Barreto, Arturo Testa, Silvia Guidi, Luciano Rondinella, who all performed some of their successful songs. Miss de Angelis sang her latest hit, "Mi-Hai Steso Con Un Beso," Barreto presented "Altagracia," the tune he wrote for his five year old daughter, Testa performed "Perderti" (To Lose You), and Rondinella sang some tunes from the last Naples Festival. Also at the party were Maestro Alfredo Rossi, manager of the Ariston publishing firm, Daniele Emilio, manager of the Sidet publishing firm, Ernesto Landi, the Italian impresario who presents singers and songs of the San Remo Festival each year in New York, Mario De Luigi, manager of the Italian Record Review Musica E Dischi, and many other newspaper men. I met Mr. Palthe (Phillips commercial department manager) again, and for the first time E. Garretsen (Philips A & R Manager), and P. Beishuizen, head of Philips International Public Relations, who made some interesting statements for The Cash Box.

Beishuizen said that he is very much surprised to find so many talents in Italy who are not known at all abroad and little known in their own country. "The influence of USA pop music repertoire on the European market is decreasing," he said, "and Italy, together with Spain is becoming the richest and most important source of new music hits in Europe." He also said that Italian people are born musicians, (Italy is not an underdeveloped country indeed, as to singers, songs and especially music festivals).

RIO

American singers are flocking to Rio night-life these days. After Ella Fitzgerald and Lena Horne, Sammy Davis Jr. sang for seven memorable days at the Golden Room of the Copacabana Palace. Sammy was the greatest success in the history of Rio night life, even greater than Marlene Dietrich, Sarah Vaughan and Nat King Cole. After his smash hit in Rio, he did five days at Record TV, in Sao Paulo, where he was also a sensation.

On the Fourth of July, Billy Daniels opened at the Golden Room. Also expected in Rio and Sao Paulo this month are Frankie Laine, Paul Anka and Johnny Restivo.

Records sales are still low because of the high prices of LPs, 630 cruzeiros the 12 inch, which is 10% of the average monthly salary. Record companies are pushing 45 rpm singles and EPs—which cost 100 and 200 cruzeiros respectively (50 cents and one dollar). Some labels are issuing 78s in vinylite and the sales of these have been very encouraging.

GERMANY

Connie Francis, who seems to be making her second home in Germany, is making the news here in many ways. In addition to her recent TV appearances and an upcoming film, Connie is also recording her current hit, "Everybody's Somebody's Fool" in German. The German title is "Love Is A Strange Game." The few records on the market here recorded by American artists in the German language have been very successful. Earl Grant recorded his hit "The End" in German, and the song has become a "standard" here. Some of the less commercial items such as Danny Kaye's recordings in German from the Red Nichols bio, "The Five Pennies" have sold well, but were not big hits.

Connie Francis's film partner is German teenage idol, Peter Kraus. Peter, who came to popularity during the rock and roll era, started by recording local versions of hits originally done by Paul Anka and Elvis Presley. He's currently got the Number 6 song on the hit parade here. It's a cover of the English hit, "Be Mine." (German title, "All The Girls Want To Kiss"). He also has an English TV series in addition to his German musical films, and is planning a production of Anka's "Adam And Eve" for his next record.

Although Paul Anka hit the American charts in a big way with "Puppy Love," the German producers feel that the flip side, "Adam And Eve," which is making a good mark in the original version in several continental countries, has a better chance for a translated local success.

The German Singles market is in the same condition as its American brother. The problem is lack of trends. It seems that even America is poorly represented at present. There are only 4 tunes from The Cash Box Top 100 represented with German versions. They are: "Everybody's Somebody's Fool"—Jolly Sisters—Metronome; "Cathy's Clown"—Tennessee Boys/Nilsen Bros.—Teldec/Electrola; "Paper Roses"—Lolita—Polydor; "Stuck On You"—Teddy Palmer—Electrola. Numbers planned for current release but not yet on the market are: "Swinging School"—Ted Herold—Polydor; "Young Emotions"—Rex Gildo—Electrola; "Comin' Down With Love"—Christa Williams—Teldec.

There are many ways to promote a record, but Germany's number 1 hit had one piece of unusual, unexpected promotion. This one piece of luck took a forgotten flop and made a smash. Here's the story: Pop music festivals are quite popular in Germany, but seldom produce big hits. Even the big San Remo festival in Italy failed to come up with a big one this year. Radio Luxemburg had their festival, their winners, and no hits. Then came the German radio and TV festival. 3 winners once again, and no hits. The number 2 song was "Wir Wollen Niemals Auseinander Geh'n." Although sung by popular songstress and movie Starlet, Heidi Bruhl, the record never got off the ground. The winner of the festival also failed to win great popularity with the German public.

Heidi forgot the record and was ready to record her next one, and then it happened.

Every week on state-owned non-commercial German TV, there is a 10 P.M. Saturday night religious program called "The Last Word On Sunday." One week, the German equivalent to Bishop Sheen chose to speak on pop music. He spent his 45 minutes telling all in sight and hearing range that most pop music was certainly trash and not fit for the youth of the country, but there were certain songs, which not only meet the approval of the church, but also are perfectly OK for teenage consumption. He took for his example, Heidi Bruhl's song, read the lyrics, played the record a couple of times, and then said, "This is the type of music our young people should listen to and buy." The result? Within 3 weeks, 250,000 copies were sold, probably the biggest sale on a single record in such a short time, in German history. The record is now pushing the 1/2 million mark and is Number 1 on the German hit parade. Got any new promotion ideas for Germany? That's it for this week in Germany.

Mal Sondock Cash Box Rep In Germany

MAL SONDOCK

MUNICH, GERMANY—Mal Sondock has been appointed The Cash Box representative in Germany replacing Eva Morell. He will work out of offices located at Amalienstrasse 28, Munich, writing a weekly column on the German record market and handling advertising and correspondence from his area.

Born July 4, 1934, in Houston, Texas, Sondock worked his way through the University of Oklahoma as a disk jockey. He later headed an independent distributing firm. Taking a position as Southern promotion director for Rama-Gee Records (forerunner of Roulette Records), he was promoted to West Coast promotion director, a post he held in Los Angeles until entering the Army in 1957. Most of his tour of duty was spent as a disk jockey with the Armed Forces Network in Europe. In 1959 he was voted the most popular disk jockey in Holland.

After his discharge, Sondock remained in Europe touring Germany and Austria lecturing for the U.S. government on American popular music and jazz. In the summer of 1959 he conducted an anti-Communist jazz show during the World Youth Festival in Vienna.

Settling permanently in Germany, Sondock's most recent experience in the music industry includes disk jockeying for Radio Cologne (WDR), Radio Frankfurt (Hessischer Rundfunk) and Radio Stuttgart (South German Radio); a recording artist for Polydor Records; and an advisor for several German music publications, writing a series of articles about the music industry in the U.S. and Germany.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"DRIFTING TEXAS SAND" (2:04) [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP] —Coward]
"ALL I NEED IS YOU" (2:10) [Cedarwood BMI—Walker, Wilkin, Pierce]
WEBB PIERCE (Decca 31118)

Pierce's newest outing couples two powerful stanzas and both should take a firm stand to join his "Is It Wrong" current chart item. "Texas Sand" is a brightly essayed folk-ish slice that's belted energetically by the artist. "All I Need Is You" is a pretty, tuneful romantic ballad with Pierce's proper sweetening. Chorus figures strongly on both halves. An either/or choice.

"IF THE WORLD DON'T END TOMORROW" (3:02) [Tree BMI—Sherrill]

"LONELY OLD ROOM" (2:41) [Golden West BMI—Bare]
CARL SMITH (Columbia 41729)

Smith's "Cut Across Shorty" will have a chart-mate very soon in "If The World Don't End Tomorrow." It's a lovesick lament that's contagiously wailed by the artist. Lots of lively disk support from the vigorous combo-chorus. Complete change of pace is offered in the haunting blue moaning of "Lonely Old Room." Also rates attention.

"I THOUGHT I'D NEVER SEE THE DAY" (2:38) [Cedarwood BMI—Humbird, Phillips]

"IF I COULD COME BACK" (2:14) [Cedarwood BMI—Tillis, Peddy]
JOHNNY HUMBIRD (Columbia 41718)

Humbird makes his strongest chart bid with "I Never Thought I'd See The Day." This could be the one to break the chart barrier for him. It's a brisk paced lament, chanted sincerely and infectiously over a bubbly, finger-snapping backdrop of chorus and combo. Flipside, "If I Could Come Back" is a traditional styled ballad weeper and is also worth the airtime.

WARNER MACK (Top Rank 2053)

(B+) "PRISON OF LOVE" (2:11) [Copar BMI—McPherson, Bandy] Another pop label joins the march to country music and shows it has the knowhow to step out smartly in the field. Mack's mournful display on the solid beat weeper marks it for possible future consideration. Has a definite pop attitude too.

(B+) "I'LL RUN BACK TO YOU" (2:54) [Copar BMI—McPherson, Bandy] Pace is picked up for another solid bid for two market honors. Chorus occupies a featured spot in the proceedings.

THE STANLEY BROTHERS (King 5367)

(B) "MOTHER LEFT ME HER BIBLE" (2:21) [Lois BMI—Hankins] The boys whip up a passel of emotions on this gripping religious stanza. Their harmonizing over the flavorful guitar sounds is a real gospel treat.

(B) "OVER IN THE GLORY LAND" (2:28) [PD] The ageless traditional is given a bright new outlook by the Brothers. Wings along at an infectious clip.

DAVE DUDLEY (Starday 499)

(C+) "WHERE DO I GO FROM HERE" (2:35) [Starday BMI—Dudley] Artist asks the timeless question on a familiar country opus set to a rhythmic middle beat.

(C+) "IT'S GOTTA BE THAT WAY" (2:07) [Starday BMI] Rollicking upheav affair finds Dudley again expressing his feelings on romance.

THE BLACKWOOD BROTHERS (RCA Victor 7764)

(B) "CROSSING CHILLY JORDAN" (1:50) [Gospel Quartet SESAC—Sumner] Rolling spiritual essay in the group's tradition. Has the stirring, lively feeling that's sold so many of their records. Top disk for the country sacred market.

(B) "WHEN I STAND WITH GOD" (1:52) [Gospel Quartet SESAC—Matthews] This religious stanza starts out ordinary enough but then builds excitingly to a rousing, revival-like climax. Another fine pairing by the popular group.

EDDIE DEAN (Sage 325)

(B) "I TOOK THE BLUES OUT OF TOMORROW" (2:40) [Sage & Sand SESAC—Hecht, Day] Dean packs a load of blue strength into the slow paced, dramatic ballad offering here.

(C+) "SEEDS OF DOUBT" (2:10) [Sage & Sand SESAC—Hart, Pearl] The songster's rich, warm voice finds another easy-going, sad romantic stanza to sell on this end.

PAUL DAVIS (Doke 107)

(C+) "WHEN YOU FALL" (2:10) [Pamper BMI—Jones] Former MGM artist bows on the label and exhibits a sincere approach. Tune's a traditional styled weeper and Davis' attitude is warm and honest.

(C+) "ONE OF HER FOOLS" (2:02) [Newkeys BMI—Stone] Once more the chanter dredges up the blue feelings for the gal, here to a middle beat backdrop.

Acuff-Rose Artists Corporation has again chalked up one of the plums in the entertainment field we learned when Illinois State Fair manager J. Skinner and Midwest Promotions, the August 13 extravaganza will be headlined by Roy Acuff, plus Ray Price, Don Gibson, Lester Flatt & Earl Scruggs, Carl Butler, Patsy Cline and the Stoney Mountain Cloggers, the Opry's crack square dance team. Last year, in a driving rainstorm, there were 9,856 paid attendees. Asked about this year, W. D. Kilpatrick, ARAC general manager, said "We have a substantially stronger cast this year and with good weather our star-studded lineup for 1960 should attract a capacity crowd. . . . Red Sovine, one of the hardest working entertainers in the Jim Denny Artist Bureau, according to Bill Denny, has reached an agreement with Don Pierce and from now on all his records will be on the Starday label. . . . Bill also boasting that Cedarwood is sending hitsville another resident with Johnny Ferguson's "Flutter, Flutter." Ferguson's "Angela Jones," which did very well in the States, is now showing up big in the British and Australian markets. Could be the little man has things going for him on three continents. . . . And Jim Denny whispers that he's very excited about a brand new secret source for song material. Predicting many hits coming from this source. . . . "Sky" Corbin letters from KLLL-Lubbock, Texas, that Brenda Lee, Red Sovine, Stonewall Jackson, Justin Tubb and the Casuals filled their municipal auditorium to capacity recently. Over 3,000 attended, the largest turnout for a country music show there this year. The "Opry" package was booked through (who else?) the Denny Bureau. Incidentally, notes Sky, they're using artist station breaks now at KLLL and would appreciate tapes from country stars. . . . Smokey Warren is back at the Copa Club, Secaucus, New Jersey, after five years of semi-retirement. He will be featured every Friday and Saturday nite heading up a big western swing band with his brother Shorty. According to several reliable sources, Smokey, a long time favorite of radio and TV, is the man most responsible for the intense interest in country music activities in this part of the country.

Bernie Harville, Jr., of Bandera Records, infos that the disk jockey reports on James Mask's "Stolen Honey" are very encouraging. James is a Mississippi boy and the record seems to be getting the spins from Memphis south into James' home country. Also, notes Bernie, coming off the presses and sounding great is Bill Tyler's first for Bandera, "Bottomland Blues," a country novelty which seems just right for jockeys who want a little country humor to spice up the programming. Mailing's due about the 15th this month. . . . Note from Zero Records informs us that Don Grashey is no longer associated with the label. . . . Jimmie Driftwood writes that fishing is really good in his part of the Ozarks and the boys have been catching their limit of granddaddy rainbow trout in the White River. . . . Floyd Robinson, in between personals for "Girls and Boys" (Victor) is building a new duplex and remodeling a large apartment. . . . Terry Abrams is back from his vacation and back on the "Red River Roundup" spinning and chinning with the people who drop in after the "Hayride." Terry and his wife Millie are now displaying a new baby boy, Keith, who sez Frank Page, is the spittin' image of his father. . . . Thomas Wayne (Fernwood) guested on the "Hayride" for the first time. He's the brother of Luther Perkins, who worked with Johnny Cash while he was on the "Hayride" not so long ago. Thomas, you'll remember, had a big hit with "Tragedy" a while back. . . . "Pappy" Earl Davis is back at his post on the "Razorback Roundup" over KTHS-Little Rock. . . . New country artist Lou Smith is currently touring Southern cities promoting his new KRCO waxing of "Cruel Love." He winds up the jaunt with a "Hayride" guest shot on July 30. . . . Al Weaver begins his vacation from WKBC-North Wilkesboro, N.C. soon and is again looking for record companies who want him to represent them promo-wise in the areas he's travelling (N.C., Tenn., Va., Ky. and Ohio). Al says he did this last year and it worked out fine for himself and the companies, artists and agencies he represented.

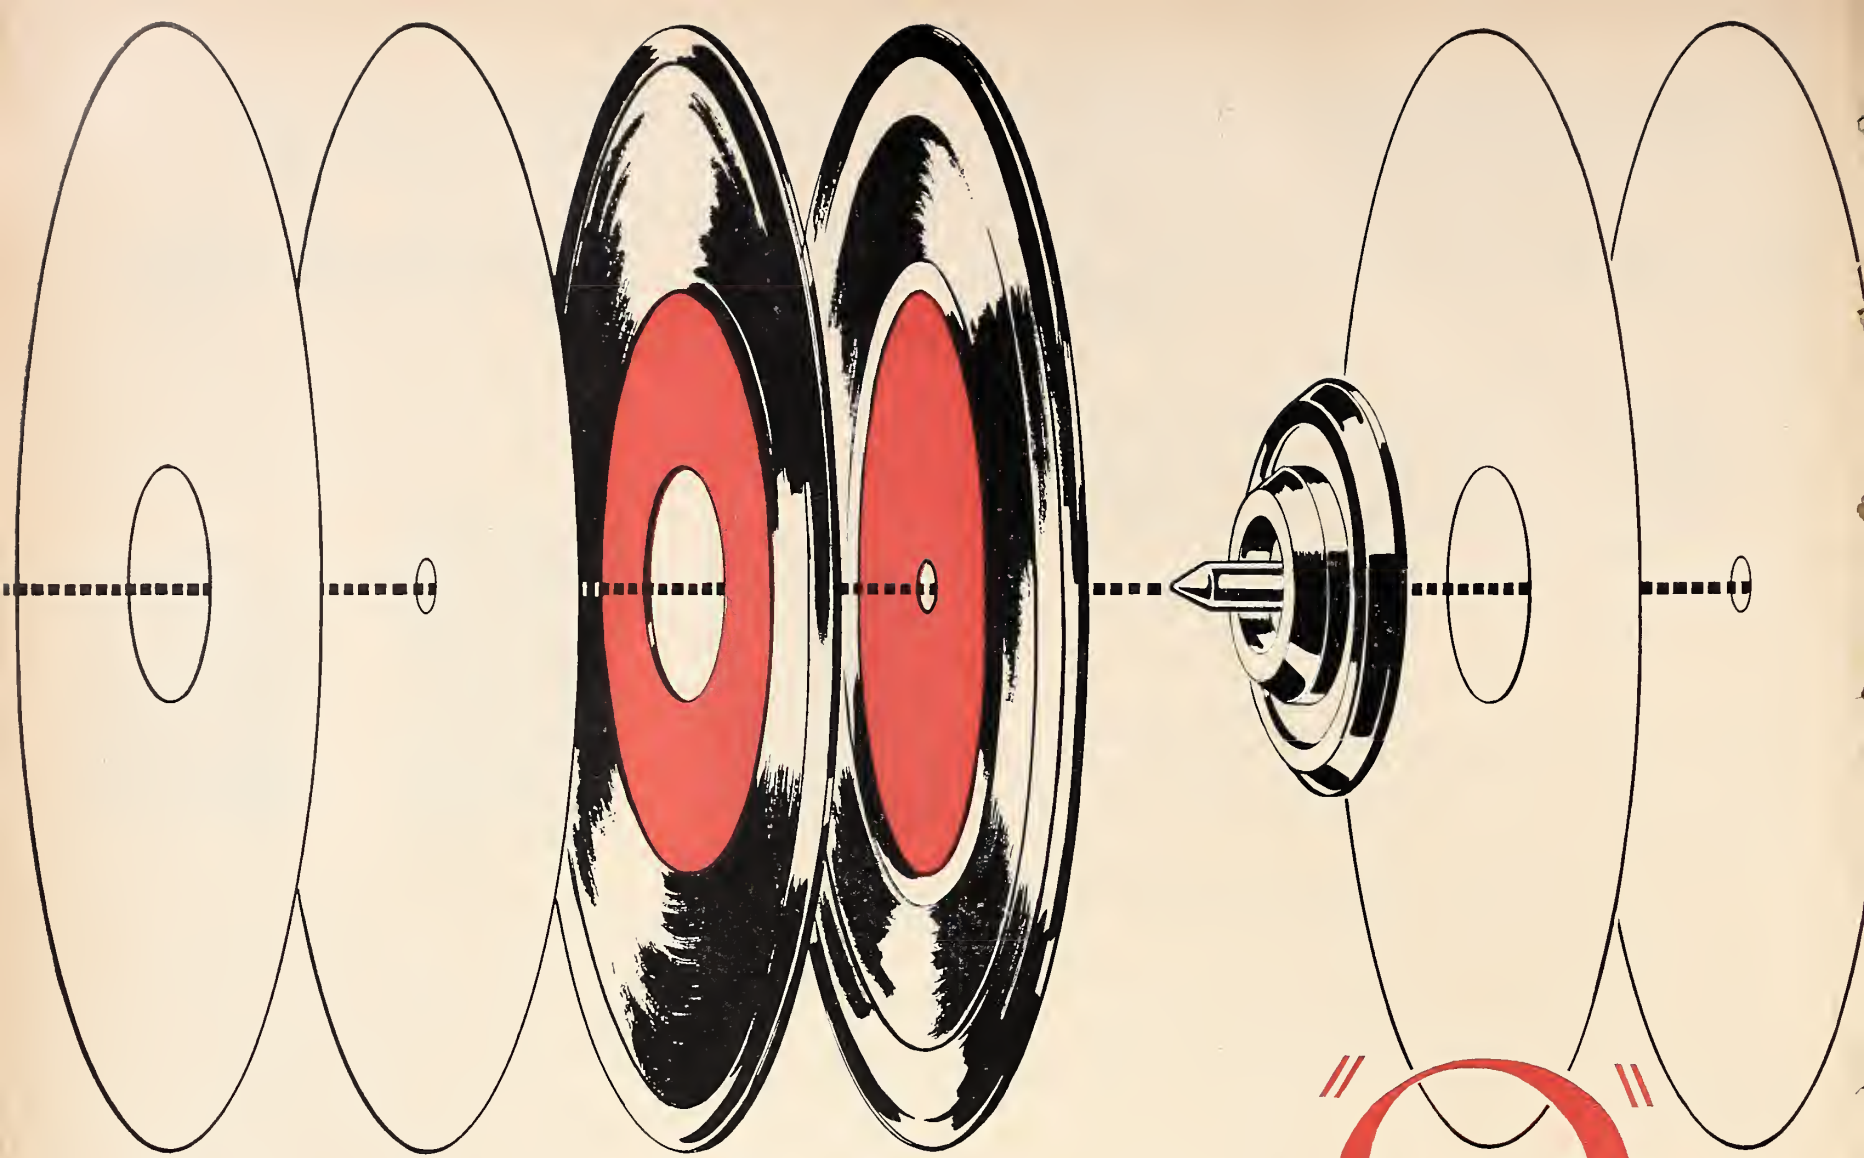

Slick Norris, newly-appointed director of Liberty's new country music department, spent some time in Shreveport recently and visited with all the "Hayride" gang. He spoke to Claude Gray, who was the guest that Saturday nite, and also visited with Dean Evans, Norm Bale and Merle Kilgore. Slick notes that if any of the pop artists are looking for that number one song, "Love Has Made You Beautiful" on Starday by Merle has got it. Also reports that the reaction of Liberty's first country disk, "Heart to Heart Talk" has been nothing less than great and is increasing steadily. The label's second and third country releases are also out now—

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

Normal operation is 45 RPM. However, when a 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ RPM record is selected, the Dual-Spindle Disc automatically senses it . . . sends the message to the Auto-Speed power unit which converts the 60-cycle speed of the motor to 44 cycles. Thus the turntable speed is reduced to 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ RPM.

Serving the Coin Machine Industry:

The Cash Box

18th

Anniversary Annual Directory

Since the primary purpose of a trade paper is to serve its industry with periodical news and information regarding that industry, it is the annual task of The Cash Box coin machine division to prepare an Annual Encyclopedia and Directory for distribution to the coin machine industry throughout the world. This year's effort will be the 18th Annual Coin Machine Directory and will include the largest compilation of informative material ever published. This valuable book will be dated July 30, 1960 and will be available to the coin machine trade on July 25.

Each subscriber to The Cash Box will receive one copy with an abundant supply retained on hand for the innumerable requests for this information during the course of the next twelve months.

The purpose of our Directory is the same as the aim of The Cash Box itself—to serve the coin machine industry with helpful information. Complete listings of phonograph, amusement machine and cigarette vendor manufacturers, factory authorized listings of respective distributors in every section of the world, names and addresses of jobbers and general wholesalers of coin operated equipment, an accurate history of events as they occurred during the previous twelve months of business, illustrations of each post-war phonograph, photos of every game manufactured during the past year, listings of merchandise and service machine manufacturers, and the widely read Quarterly International Edition featuring export figures from the U.S. to all parts of the world for the previous quarter, are several of the highlights.

A Directory is as valuable as the use to which it is put at all levels of the industry. After seventeen previous efforts we believe that The Cash Box 18th Annual Coin Machine Directory will be met with the usual overwhelming reception. We are proud of this response and will, as we have in the past, do everything possible to make this year's Directory the most complete and accurate compilation of information ever prepared within the coin machine industry. Only in this way have our readers accepted our Directory as the official reference book through which information helpful to the progress of individual firms may be attained.

Preparation for the publishing of The Cash Box Directory is not an overnight affair and has, as a matter of fact, been a daily task for the past eight weeks. With only two weeks remaining before the 18th Directory goes onto the printing presses there is every indication that our 1960 chore will result in another huge success. All of the information necessary to make this Directory the official coin machine reference guide has been received. Already there is a feeling of satisfaction here in knowing that the entire trade will benefit by our annual effort. Since that is the purpose of The Cash Box 18th Annual Directory it has already fulfilled its primary aim.

Casola Urges Ops Act Now In Support Of Coin-Machine Council Chi Meet Scheduled For July 12

LOU CASOLA

CHICAGO—Lou Casola, president of Mid-West Distributing Company of Rockford, Illinois, and chairman of the Coin-Machine Council, national public relations organization, issued a statement last Tuesday (July 5) wherein he strongly urged operators and distributors in the coin machine industry to "act now—without any further delay" in sending their membership applications and checks to Coin-Machine Council headquarters at 75 East Wacker Drive in this city.

"Although memberships are coming in at a favorable pace," Casola said, "we have already passed the July 1 deadline we set for initiating our strong public relations campaign. Time is definitely catching up on us. "Naturally, we feel that everyone in the industry should participate in this vitally important drive for the good will of the entire coin machine industry.

"Action now by all coinmen," he added, "will bring our cause to fulfillment that much sooner."

Casola reminded all officers and members of the executive committee to attend the important meeting scheduled for Tuesday, July 12 (11:45 a.m.), at the Boston Oyster House of the Morrison Hotel. The session will commence with a luncheon and then re-convene in the Morrison's Walnut Room for C-MC business.

Casola welcomes any other coinmen who happen to be in Chicago on that date to attend the meeting.

"We would be very pleased to have any coinmen who are not members of the executive committee present at the luncheon and meeting," he said.

"Naturally," he added, "we are striving for 100% participation, and expect everyone to show great interest."

In conclusion he said: "Now is the time for every well conscientized member of the coin machine industry to climb on the Coin-Machine Council public relations bandwagon. For, as all have evidenced now—as in the past—there is very great need for favorable public relations in all communications media for the industry."

United Products Company Formed By Zorinskys To Handle United Lines Nebraska, Dakotas and Western Iowa Territories To Be Managed By Ellis

OMAHA—Hymie and Edward Zorinsky, H. Z. Vending & Sales Company of this city, announced the formation last week of their new subsidiary distributorship, United Products Company in this city.

The new firm will handle distribution for United Manufacturing Company's amusement games and United Music Corporation's automatic phonographs throughout the States of Nebraska, Western Iowa, and the Dakotas.

United Products Company is under the management of Howard N. Ellis, who has been associated with the coin machine industry for many years. Ellis, president of the Music Guild of Nebraska for several years, is also a vice-president of the Music Operators of America. He has been instrumental in helping to bring about much of the favorable organizational spirit so prevalent in both associations.

Hymie Zorinsky, himself a veteran in the coin machine industry for many years, stated that Ellis has always enjoyed great popularity throughout the midwestern section of the country, and is well thought of by operators in the area.

Bill DeSelm, general sales manager of United Manufacturing Company, in Chicago, commented on the establishment of United Products Company to the extent that he and his colleagues at United Mfg. are very pleased with this new distributorship. He singled out Hymie and Edward

HOWARD N. ELLIS

Zorinsky as exceptional distributors of coin-operated equipment throughout the wide area.

He also expressed his complete satisfaction over the selection by Zorinsky of Howard Ellis to head the overall operation of the firm.

The photos here show the corner front location of United Products at 201 South 13th Street in Omaha, and a photo of the interior. Posing behind models of United Music's new UPC-100 selection phonographs are (left to right) Howard Ball, Al Tramp, and Mac Ellis of United Products.

Wilson's Children Drive At Midget Race Meet

MILL PLAIN, CONN.—Jack Wilson, veteran coin machine operator from Upper New York State and president of the New York State Operators Guild, has another interest that keeps him busy almost all of the time he's away from the coin machine business.

Jack's children, Jack Jr., 11, and Lucy 10, race micro-midgets in this section of the country as a hobby.

Several weeks ago the kids and their Pop traveled to Mill Plain for one of the scheduled summer races. Jack, Sr. serves as chief mechanic while the kids do the driving. The picture above showing Wilson and daughter Lucy has been reproduced from New York's Sunday News, July 3rd edition and was part of a photo spread describing the Connecticut meet. The racers, exact models of full-scale racing cars, have one cylinder, three horse-power engines and do 30 mph.

Wilson tells us his son Jack has won 17 of 19 starts this year with Lucy not far behind. They'll be off to Pennsylvania on July 24th for a Championship Meet and the entire family is very optimistic!

Operator "Frozen In" Location!

NEW YORK—It's a well known fact that in certain instances an operator can be "frozen out" of a location—but who would have thought an operator could be "frozen in" a location. The United Press International news service reported:

"A would-be customer walked up to an ice vending machine and dropped in his money.

"The ice door opened—and out came an arm.

"It was attached to Alvin Corley of Brookville, Ind. He had been filling the machine with ice, the door slammed shut and no one heard him call.

"The customer released Mr. Corley, shivering from 40 minutes confinement, and then got his ice."

Treasury Views Present Depreciation Tax Laws Detrimental To U. S. Business

Coin Industry Not Alone In Demands For More Liberal Allowances

8,000 Firms Will Have Opportunity To Criticize Present System And Forward Suggestions

Look For Greater Business Expansion

NEW YORK—The United States Treasury Department in conjunction with the Joint Congressional Committee on Taxation has recently started an active program of study regarding depreciation of commercial equipment by firms in the U.S. with an eye to formulating proposed amendments to a law which may be suggested next year.

The study is a result of the thinking of many officials in Washington that the depreciation laws written in 1942 and amended in 1954 are ancient to the point of strapping business firms with plans for investment and expansion.

A mailing was sent to 2,700 corporations in the country taking in large manufacturing, non-manufacturing and utility fields. Mailing scheduled for a later date will include an additional 6,000 questionnaires to companies of smaller size. The Treasury asked all firms to fill out and return the forms as quickly as possible in order that the data be studied with regard to present depreciation laws and the effect on American business investment.

Businessmen receiving the questionnaire will be asked what methods they currently employ, with emphasis on the more liberal systems provided in the 1954 Tax Law. Firms will be asked the difference between actual depreciation (in dollars) and amortization last year and the amount estimated necessary to maintain investment in depreciable property and also to provide for obsolescence. Questions will pertain to the comparison between capital expenditures on depreciable property since December 31, 1953 and depreciation deductions for the same period.

The Treasury is also after the reasons private industry thinks deductions for depreciation are inadequate. Firms are asked to check lists with answers such as: useful lives required for tax purposes are too long; inadequate allowance during early years; change in price levels; and of course, space allotted to individual thinking on the depreciation problems for businessmen to answer in their own manner.

The Cash Box has suggested for many years a more liberal depreciation allowance for coin-operated equipment and it appears that many other industries have suffered from this same problem. Many topics of consideration have been discussed by government officials as they pertain to depreciation allowances but to date (since 1954) no revision has come about. However, the Treasury has also taken into consideration possibilities of future liberal allowances by listing in this same questionnaire, a "feeler" asking businessmen to check which changes they would like to see. The move is obviously a means whereby the government may understand the problem and the businessman's thinking as to how the depreciation problem may be solved. The Treasury set down eight specific changes that have been under consideration over the years and asks the business firms which changes they prefer. The suggested changes include: grouping all depreciable assets into broad-class categories with generally shorter useful lives than those now in effect; further acceleration of depreciation during the early lives, such as a triple declining balance system; freedom to allow their own judgment, consistently applied, as to reasonable lives; a selective program of accelerated depreciation for particular lines of business (such as railroad rolling stock or machinery used in producing for export) which should be encouraged in the national interest; companies which advocate some form of depreciation adjustment to reflect increased price levels, the Treasury wants to know whether they would prefer changes which would allow to claim annual depreciation based on original costs, adjusted for changes in price, or an immediately deductible reinvestment depreciation allowance.

Business firms receiving the forms were assured by the government that the returns would be confidential and would not be compared with the respective firm's income tax reports.

Senator Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) chairman of the tax-law-writing Senate Finance Committee issued a statement endorsing the survey and urging businessmen to cooperate.

While the past six years have seen nothing more than discussion in the nation's Capitol regarding the American business problem of depreciation, this move by the Treasury Department was seen as the eventual beginning of new legislation which will relieve the business firms in the U.S. from the strangulating costs of carrying equipment for too long a time with the cost of replacement equipment rapidly increasing.

The coin machine industry would, in addition, be very happy with a standard depreciation tax deduction, more liberal of course, but also one which the government will recognize in all sections of the nation. Different allowances in various sections of the country, all of which are too slim, have resulted in confusion each year when tax returns are due. In addition, the expected sale of new equipment could virtually skyrocket overnight should a liberal depreciation tax law allow for this replacement.

Canteen Enters Finance Field

NEW YORK — Automatic Canteen Company of America has entered the commercial financing field with the purchase of Commercial Discount Corp., a Chicago-based finance firm, according to an announcement by Nathaniel Leverone, Canteen chairman. In 1959 Commercial Discount Corp. had total resources of approximately $20 million with a volume of financing exceeding $107 million. The move was viewed as part of Canteen's current diversification program which also encompasses vending, electronics and manufacturing.

"Acquisition of Commercial Discount Corp. gives Canteen the means for financing sales of its manufacturing division, including Rowe vending machines, AMI automatic music machines, and ABT 'bill changer' currency changing equipment," Leverone said.

Commercial Discount Corp. also has a one-half ownership in Commonwealth Savings and Loan Association, California, with total assets of $40,266,077. Substantially all of the loans made by Commonwealth are secured by first mortgages or trust deeds on single or multiple residential property.

Seeburg Merchandises Music With Headsets

MILWAUKEE, WISC.—Koss, Inc., manufacturers of "Stereophones," a new method of merchandising record demonstrations, show exhibits, coin-operated phonographs and other musical presentations, reports that the idea is paying off for the firm manufacturing the high fidelity stereo headsets.

The firm recently combined with The Seeburg Corporation for the use of the "Stereophones" in merchandising and selling the current Seeburg Model "Q" phonograph to location owners. The agreement between the two companies was announced by Jack Gordon, vice-president in charge of the Seeburg firm's phono division.

Gordon advised that coinmen will carry the "Stereophones" with them on the route for sale to bar and tavern owners and other phono-location owners. The idea of the headset is to renew interest in the Seeburg phonograph increasing consumer exposure to the growing concept of music listening through headsets.

In addition, Koss officials advised that merchandising plans call for firms such as Magnavox to distribute the headsets to dealers for use in personally demonstrating the Magnavox equipment in retail establishments.

Wurlitzer Receives $300,000 Army Contract

ROY F. WALTEMADE

NORTH TONAWANDA, N.Y.—The Wurlitzer Company announced today that it has received a contract from U.S. Army Ordnance in the amount of $310,274.46 for the manufacture of two classified electronic devices. The contract contains a 30 day option which will permit work to begin at once on the first one-third of the contract at a value of $104,477.98. The option is included in the contract form because the second two-thirds of the money will be made available from new fiscal funds.

In announcing the contract, Roy F. Waltemade, Vice-President of the North Tonawanda Division of Wurlitzer, indicated that the unidentified electronic devices will be used in the U. S. Army Missile Program and will become part of the Little John, Honest John and Lacrosse Missile Systems.

John W. Lally, Manager of the Electronics and Defense Products Division, participated in the signing of the contract with Col. Hans Jepson, Commanding Officer of the New York

Ordnance District in New York City. This is the fourth Prime Contract which Wurlitzer has announced in as many months and is in addition to the $7 million backlog of orders now in production at the North Tonawanda factory.

In addition to the Ordnance Contract, receipt of a major sub-contract from Zenith Radio Corporation in Chicago was reported by Lally today. This contract, valued in excess of $200,000.00, is for a classified electronic device to be utilized in Army Weapon Systems.

Seeburg L. A. Branch Holds Regional Meets On "Artist Of Week"

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—Dan Donohue, general manager, The Seeburg Distributing Co., this city, reports that in recent weeks meetings have been held with operators in Long Beach, San Diego, San Bernardino, and Los Angeles, highlighting presentations by Dean McMurdie dealing with the "Artist of the Week" program, which Seeburg has launched nationally. McMurdie spoke to the operators telling them why this program was created, and what it means to all operators. "After hearing the story," Donohue continued, "many operators indicated their approval by placing sample orders to get some personal experience with this fabulous product."

According to Donohue, many "Artist of the Week" phonographs are already on location, and "early returns indicate an increase in take ranging from 10-20%."

Operators who purchased the Model "Q" phonograph earlier in the year may obtain a new "Artist of the Week" top panel assembly by merely returning the old glasstop, which they will be given credit for, and picking up the new display panel.

Lipsky Opens Wurlitzer Outlet In Waterbury For Connecticut Ops

Jimmy Sisti To Manage Libra Dist. Branch

ABE LIPSKY

greater New York Metropolitan area. Jimmy Sisti has had long experience in the coin-operated music field and is well known to almost every operator in the territory which he will cover.

"We can promise the Connecticut operators that they will enjoy the very best deals in the purchase of new equipment and the very finest service and parts replacement that we are able to offer. I would consider it a personal favor if those people who have done business with Jimmy previously would stop in and see him and learn about the fine offer that we can make on purchase of the Model '2400' line of Wurlitzer Phonographs."

Only recently Lipsky took over representation of the full Wurlitzer line in the New York City area. He has been active in the sales of Wurlitzer Phonographs for more than ten years, most recently as Manager of distributorship in Philadelphia.

NYS PR Meet In Sept.

NEW YORK—Al "Senator" Bodkin, chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the New York State Coin Machine Association, Inc., this city, announced last week that the next meeting of the PR Committee would be scheduled for after Labor Day.

Requests for donations to every coin machine member in the State were mailed out two weeks ago in order to offset expenses incurred on the last two projects and to serve as a basis for future projects now under consideration.

Keeney Appoints Stanley In Alaska

PAUL HUEBSCH

CHICAGO—Paul Huebsch, vice president in charge of sales for J. H. Keeney & Company, this city, announced this past week that M. J. Stanley & Company in Anchorage, Alaska has been appointed to handle distribution for Keeney's amusement games and vending equipment throughout all of the Alaskan territory.

The far northern firm is owned and headed by M. J. (Mike) Stanley, a veteran coin machine distributor. Keeney's current electronic uprights, "Red Arrow" and "Deluxe Red Arrow" are expected to be distributed throughout the territory. The move was another step on the part of coin machine manufacturers in the development of the State of Alaska insofar as coin operated phonographs and games are concerned.

EASTERN FLASHES

Baseball officials judge the 4th of July as the turning point of the 1960 Season, using it as a means of checking the standings in the league, basing total attendance figures on those of July 4th, and generally using the business figures up to this date as a weather vane for business expected during the remainder of the Season. If coin machine wholesalers in this area used the same system, no doubt pro-rated figures estimating 1960 business would be most optimistic. Last week's tour along Tenth Avenue evidenced bright sales reports from music and game wholesalers many of whom have moved large quantities of new equipment since the beginning of the year. Phonos at each wholesaler outlet painted a solid sales picture with respective distributors reporting a steady flow of equipment to operators. Games, usually dependent on "hot" new innovations, nevertheless showed up very well, too, with shuffles and bowlers making strides saleswise, and accounting for a large portion of the sales activity. Baseball games this year churned up lots of attention and sales from ops with each manufacturer showing a game that was "different" from last year's effort and the result was very good. Of course, arcades clamored for delivery on new and used equipment right up until opening day of the past 3-day weekend. It was a little early for preliminary reports but one or two arcades had reported record-breaking attendance with weather co-operating for big turnouts at the beaches and playlands. If business continues, it should be a very good year for most distributors, not to mention the ops who are realizing more and more that there is nothing like a new machine to grab the extra coins.

Abe Lipsky, Libra Distributors, in N.Y.C. handling local Wurlitzer "2400" phono sales while Harry Koepfel tells us the used equipment is still in demand and Libra is handling all orders on time. "If business continues along the lines it has for the past week or two," comments Koepfel, "we'll have no complaints." Meanwhile, Abe advises that son, Bert, will handle the daily routine in Libra's Philly office, with Lipsky checking in on weekends to supervise the Philly outlet's activities. Jimmy Sisti, veteran coin machine salesman from the New England area drops into town with Mrs. Sisti and their son, before heading up to "Freedomland," the new amusement attraction in the East Bronx. Henry Clavis, parts mgr. at Libra, has that knowing smile on his face again as carpenters complete the new Wurlitzer parts dept. and Henry sidles in alongside the newly appointed shelves and racks complete with Wurlitzer parts. Next stop, the front offices, where Abe has ordered new room dividers and general office arrangements. . . . Ted "Champ" Seidel traveling along the Avenue wishing everyone well. . . . Al "Senator" Bodkin, chairman of the PR Committee advises that the response to the current mailing for donations is very discouraging and that unless operators in New York City and Upper N.Y. State cooperate "even expenses for past projects will not be met." Nash Gordon, treasurer of the PR Committee adds that several solid public relations projects are awaiting the additional funds necessary to keep the program rolling. Al Denver is at home after a bout with surgery and all reports indicate that he is recovering nicely and will be back at work before too long.

Last week's column reported that Morris Rood and Irv Kempner teamed together with a softball group to play the Newark V.A. Softball Team. The outcome of last week's game was 17-5 with the Runyon Sales Co. reps helping their B'Nai Brith team take top prize. "Kempy" pitched and Morris played short field. Barney "Shugy" Sugerman into N.Y.C. early in the week to check sales and reported good progress. Perry Lowengrub back on the job after the unfortunate passing of his brother last week. Perry had good reports on games and music with AMI's new "Continental" and "Lyric" phonos still attracting lots of attention and sales. Myron Sugerman keeping the export dept. perking. . . . Mrs. Gertrude Browne down from Upstate to make her regular rounds. . . . Jack Wilson, N.Y.S. Guild prez, more than likely beaming over the photo and story coverage given his youngsters in last week's edition of the N.Y. Sunday News. Wilson's kids drive Micro-Midgets in races around the State. Heading for Pennsylvania for championship competition the end of this month. . . . Jack Rowan, Koenig Music Co., Binghamton, into the City for parts and supplies. . . . Al D'Inzillo, Albert Simon, Inc., handling ChiCoin and Rock-Ola business at the 10th Ave. outlet while Al Simon is away from office for a couple of days. "6-Game Bowler," ChiCoin's latest is selling very well, according to Al D. . . . Irv Holzman, Black Sales Co., working feverishly over the paper work on his desk in between sales on United's "Sunny" and "Savoy" while a steady flow of orders emanates from United's new "UPC-100" phono. Murray Sandow holding down the export division with regular sales work that eventually develops this phase of the business. "Whitey" Druckman kept busy moving equipment, new and used, after a hectic work period up to the 4th of July weekend.

No PR Committee meeting expected until after Labor Day with vacation schedules interfering with most dates. . . . Mac Pollay on the Avenue with good sales collections and in search of equipment and parts to renovate sections of his route. . . . Mike Munves, Mike Munves Corp., takes a breather and walks his dog, "Rusty" after a strenuous schedule during the past several weeks meeting arcade demands for untold quantities of equipment, and after a 7-day work schedule ending just before the Big 4th, the least Mike is entitled to is a walk with "Rusty"! . . . Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic N.Y. Corp., back from a Chi trip and reports that ops in the Chicago area are going wild over the "Album of the Week" Seeburg promotion. Atlas Distributors feted Chi ops to a dinner and presentation with Seeburg officials joining the Atlas toppers in explaining the 33 1/3 rpm program. Sales at Atlas following the presentation were reportedly "very good" and were directly attributed to the 33 1/3 dinner. Murray Kaye selling new equipment nicely as many ops request the new top glass panels on the Model "Q" for displaying the LP jackets featuring 33 1/3 disk records. Oscar Parkoff in from Newark and reports a steady stream of Seeburg Model "Q" orders with the "Album of the Week" taking hold equally well over in Jersey.

Iz Edelman, Cince-Sonic Sound Corp., advises that when this item is read he will be vacationing in Schroon Lake, N.Y., the coin vet's favorite resort at this time of year. . . . Construction firms are continuing the razing of Tenth Avenue's eastside at 42nd Street having just torn through the former site of Capitol Projector Corp. and should be up to Dave Lowy's shop by the week's end. Dave and Sylvia plan on a July 31st move to a spot further up the street with address to be announced later.

CHICAGO CHATTER

Chicago is now the nation's number one industrial market—a niche long enjoyed by New York, according to a survey in the current Dun's review business management digest. This study was based on an analysis of massive U. S. Commerce Dept. statistics for 1958. Dallas, Seattle, Louisville, Rochester, N. Y., and Greensboro, N. C. have joined those cities producing more than one billion-a-year in manufactured goods, the survey said. Most of the rapid growth is showing up in the Far West, South Atlantic and Central States. On the West Coast, nine out of ten of the industrial markets are outpacing the national growth rate. Of course, the development of a world seaport at the mouth of the Chicago River was a contributing factor to the great industrial rise in this area.

While we're on the "back-slapping" routine we should note that Chicago's second International Trade Fair closed with an overall attendance of 395,026 visitors Tuesday, July 5. Although the attendance figure was considerably below last year's figure, Thomas H. Coulter, chief executive of the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, the sponsoring organization of the fair, termed the huge show a success. This feeling is echoed by Richard Revnes, the managing director of the International Trade Fair. . . . While the Fischer Sales & Manufacturing Co. is enjoying a well earned vacation, Bill Weikel, sales director, reflected on sales accomplishments during the last fall and winter seasons. Peak sales were recorded by Bill's staff on the "Imperial" series of billiard tables, which includes the "Imperial VI" and "Imperial VII," "DeLuxe," the "B" series ("B-7" and "B-6"), and the "Fiesta-Pool" bumper billiard table.

Lou Casola, chairman of the Coin-Machine Council pulled out all stoppers last week in urging operators to climb on the public relations bandwagon. "It is high time we started to go all out on our PR campaign, and we'd be a lot happier if we knew that the entire rank and file of the coin machine industry was behind us," he asserted. A reminder to all officers and executive committee members of C-M: Don't forget the important meeting scheduled for 11:45 a.m. Tuesday, July 12, at the Boston Oyster House of the Morrison Hotel. . . . United Manufacturing's Bill DeSelm tells us everyone at the plant is pushing hard to begin shipments all over the country of United's sensational big ball bowler, "Bowl-A-Rama." Herb Oettinger and LeRoy Kraehmer are pleased to announce that acceptance of United Music's "UPC-100" couldn't be better. "Everyone who sees it and plays it raves," he says. . . . Bally vice prexy Herb Jones echoes Lou Casola's urging for immediate action and 100% participation from all segments of the coin machine industry for the Coin-Machine Council's public relations drive. Rush your applications and checks to C-MC headquarters pronto!

AMI vice prez Ed Ratajack tells us that despite a big backlog of orders for AMI's "K", "Continental" and "Lyric" phono lines the plant shuts down for vacation July 8 until July 25. When the plant reopens production will go all out to clear up back orders, according to Ed. . . . Most coinmen in this area hailed the report in The Cash Box (July 9 issue) of the removal of restrictions on amusement machine imports by the French government recently. The feeling is rife that phono imports will shortly be permitted entry. . . . Art Weinand, Chicago Dynamics sales director, is looking forward to the Coin-Machine Council meeting at the Morrison. He's anxious to hear the report of accomplishments thus far. The Chicago Coin plant is closed for vacation.

10¢ play can't possibly be stressed too strongly, and Sam Lewis, vice president of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp., feels more convinced with the passing of every day that the big push should be on 10¢, and 3 for 25¢ play in most territories. He singles out Williams Electronic's terrific "Darts" new type pinball game as an excellent machine to start the 10¢ play ball rolling in most locations which aren't already on 10¢ play. . . . Bally's Bill O'Donnell and Art Garvey are very enthused over action in all markets with the new "Roller Derby" amusement game, with pick-a-play selection buttons. It's goin' like "hotcakes," according to Art. . . . Operators are still waxing enthusiasm all over the country and in foreign locations over Gottlieb's "Dancing Dolls" pin-game, according to Alvin Gottlieb and Nate Gottlieb. They're still raving over the animation on the backglass, featuring silhouettes of animated tap dancers with synchronized sound of tap dancing. Judd Weinberg informs us that export activity remains steady and very good.

J. H. Keeney vice prexy Paul Huesch just returned to his busy desk after a 1600 mile motor trip in just two days covering much of the upper midwest and eastern part of the country. Paul's "co-pilot" was Pete Sagan, Keeney's chief games engineer. The motor trip succeeded in vast accomplishment. . . . All-State Coin's Stan Levin left town right after the Fourth of July holiday on business. . . . Gil Kitt, owner of Empire Coin, and sales manager Joe Robbins invited us to scoot over to the far west side of the city and take a gander at two new arcade centers they equipped with United bowling equipment and other amusement games. Both arcades are reported to be show centers in that area.

Wico Corp.'s Ed Ruber reminded us that Wico is readying its gala 20th anniversary shortly. We're certainly amazed when we realize that Max Wizer, president of the firm, and who is still a very young man, founded Wico Corp. twenty years ago. The company has been expanding at a rapid pace for several years. . . . Exhibit Supply prexy Chet Gore happily reports that there has been a tremendous influx of orders right at the height of the amusement park season for the Vacuumatic card vendor. Chet hints that he'll have some big news poppin' soon. . . . Earl Kies, president of the Recorded Music Service Association, advises that plans for the upcoming RMSA banquet are rolling along, although at the moment he's having a bit of difficulty lining up the floor show. However, he feels certain that all will come out well in due time. . . . The Rock-Ola plant is enjoying a well earned vacation, and the likes of Ed Doris, Frank Mitchell, George Hincker, Les Rieck, Jack Barabash, and Kurt Kluever are thinking of other things beside the terrific "Tempo II" line of phonos. Dave Rock-Ola and Donald Rock-Ola are likewise resting on their 1960 laurels. George informed us before he departed for his holiday that this has been a banner Rock-Ola year. . . . While we're on the subject of Rock-Ola's "Tempo II" series of stereo and monaural phonos Joel Stern, World Wide Distribs, echoes George's report of great business with the line. Also, Joel, Lennie Micon and Fred Skor are experiencing excellent sales with Chicago Coin games.

Louis Urban, pres. of Jennings and Company, expressed great enthusiasm in explaining the many features in Jennings' new "Vend-A-View" color slide vending machine (The Cash Box, July 9 issue). Most important, according to Lou, is that the machine is now in full production, and will service all types of locations as well as amusement parks. . . . John Watling, Watling Mfg. Co., as chipper as ever, assures us he'll be around in coinbiz a mighty long time selling the great advantages of Watling scales. He is already looking forward to seeing all his old buddies at the MOA convention next year in Miami Beach. . . . During a pow-wow at Atlas Music with Eddie Ginsburg, Nate Feinstein and Harold Schwartz we came away from them convinced that their big Seeburg "Artist of the Week" program is being received here with great enthusiasm and widespread interest. Meanwhile Seeburg's Jack Gordon, Tom Herrick and Arnold Silverman tell us this enthusiasm and interest is evident all over the country. Emphasis is also being placed on the programming of 33-1/3 r.p.m. singles in Seeburg phonos, and also the use of Koss Stereophones.

There is a strong feeling of mutual satisfaction between Bill Deselm and LeRoy Kraehmer of United Manufacturing, and Hymie and Eddie Zorinsky of the recently formed United Products Co. to handle distribution of United games and music equipment throughout Nebraska, Western Iowa, and the Dakotas. Popular coinman Howard Ellis has been named manager of the embryo firm. . . . The traffic is increasing these hot, humid days at First Coin, with operators coming and going all day. Joe Kline is enjoying the constant stream of visitors. Sam Kolber and Fred Kline spend most of their time "off the phones" showing amusement, music and vending equipment to ops. . . . AMI Plant Vacations

ED RATAJACK

CHICAGO — Edward R. Ratajack, vice-president of AMI, announced this past week that the AMI plant in Grand Rapids, Michigan will close down from Friday, July 8 until Monday, July 25, for the firm's annual vacation break.

He stressed the point that despite the two week holiday respite AMI is entering this period with a backlog of orders on the AMI "K" Continental and "K" Lyric phonograph lines.

Upon resumption, July 25, production and shipping will be geared to peak to satisfy all backordered sales orders, according to Ratajack.

Everybody is keeping busy taking inventory at Commercial Music. . . . Bob DePriest, DePriest Music Co., sponsored a bowling team and came out on top by winning a trophy. . . . Nichols, a Seeburg distributor in San Antonio, and says business there is very good. Business seemed to be very good at the lake, also, for they bagged 400 lbs. of fish between them. . . . Bill Sheffield, Oressa, reports he's doing all the good on AMI. . . . Just back from a vacation in Tennessee is Jim Storey. . . . Bob DePriest also returned from Tennessee last week. . . .
