U.S. Creative Thrust: Europe Needs One, Too

Sometimes you don't realize what you have until it is viewed within the context of what others have. This point was dramatically underscored at the recent MIDEM meeting in Cannes, at which the U.S. contingent felt a special pride at the creative thrust of America's musical talent. The occasion for all of this, of course, was the MIDEM Galas, designed to bring to the guests a cross-section of international talent.

Far and away, it is America that is producing the most exciting and innovative music. It's apparent that the sounds from Europe reflect pop music's more traditional role, rarely, as a matter of fact, breaking with the past. This in itself is not bad, for there are many who still hold dear those musical approaches that present the art of popular music in its barest essentials: the singer and/or the orchestra performing a song, albeit often most effectively.

All this can be—as it was borne out at MIDEM—a most pleasing experience. But, pop music today is bursting at the seams with variety of expression, challenging all the creative forces it takes to take a recording to newer heights of musical articulation. Today, that creative thrust belongs to America. Everyone is well aware that in the mid-60's the cup of musical inventiveness was passed on to England, which gave the world the likes of the Beatles and the Rolling Stones. England is bursting with creative excitement at the moment, of course, but the cup has been returned to the U.S.

Interestingly, in America artists and producers have often turned to the past (e.g. country music, blues) as an inspiration for a new kind of musical expression. Surely, the Europeans, with a vast musical heritage of their own, have a similar base to work on. No so-called new music is completely alien to the ears of the listener if its components can be dissected.

We believe it is important for the Europeans to provide a more refreshing pop music point of view, even on the basis that it can offer insurance against "dry periods" in other parts of the world. We don't mean "out-with-the-old-and-in-with-the-new" where an eager audience is available for such product. We just hold that Europe possesses the seeds for an exciting brand of pop music that might excite the imagination of the world of music. It should be quite evident what this can mean to Europe and the rest of the world's music markets.

MCA, Al Kooper Team On Label: Sounds Of The South

UNIVERSAL CITY — MCA Records and Al Kooper, vet composer-artist-producer-performer, have joined forces culminating in Kooper's helming Sounds of the South Records under MCA's aegis. Kooper is basing the label out of Atlanta, Georgia.

"We will be signing primarily local talent or talent from the South," commented Kooper. "I feel this is a geographically neglected area in terms of the talent that is prevalent here. The average level of musicianship is higher than most popular groups today. Atlanta will soon become the rock capital of the United States."

Kooper will produce all Sounds of the South product for MCA. "We will be very artist oriented, including our advertising and graphics. There will never be more than five artists on the label at any time, and each will receive the concentration he deserves."

Sounds of the South has initially signed two acts. Mose Jones is a local

FRONT COVER:

Rick Nelson is currently enjoying long-overdue respect as a musician. The "Ricky" who became a teenage idol in '57 (and went on to record a hit about just that) managed to run a string of hits that lasted into 1965. He surfaced again in late '69 with a new group, "The Stone Canyon Band" and charted with a version of Dylan's "She Belongs To Me."

Not one who wished to spend the rest of his career doing rehash r&r revival work, he appeared at Madison Square Garden and "pleased himself." His personal reflections became huge hit in the form of "Garden Party" and he has since followed it up with "Palace Guard" (#84 this week). His "Garden Party" LP is currently ranked #62. Rick Nelson wears his new country-rock clothes like the pro he is. He's recorded for MCA for the past 10 years.

blues-rock band consisting of guitar, bass, keyboards, drums and vocals. Lynnyrd Skynnyrd (pronounced Leonard Skinnard) is a six member hard rock n' roll group from Jacksonville, Florida, managed by Alan Walden.

Mike Maitland, MCA Records president, expressed his belief that Sounds of the South would make a significant contribution to MCA's artist roster. He stated that the combination of Kooper's talents with the all branch MCA distribution system would provide maximum exposure for the outstanding talent to be featured on Sounds of the South.

Sounds of the South is based at 975 Heard's Ferry Road, Atlanta. Assisting Kooper in the operation are David McSheehy and Patty Dunn.

NARM Sales Awards Nominees

BALA-CYNWYD, PA. — The nominees for the annual NARM Awards for 1972 have been announced to the trade. Jules Malamud, exec director of NARM, said the voting on the 20 categories has been completed, and the results will be announced at the annual NARM Awards Banquet, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 28, in the Los Angeles Ballroom of the Century Plaza Hotel. The NARM Awards Banquet is the closing event of the

London Opening W. Coast Office Under Turoff

NEW YORK — London Records will open an office in Los Angeles, according to D. H. Toller-Bond, president. The opening is set for later this month.

The new California outlet will be independent of the branch known as London Records of California in suburban Gardena, which handles all marketing and distribution for the Western states and maintains separate outlets in San Francisco and Denver.

The new Sunset Boulevard entity located at 64-64 Sunset Blvd. will house all facets of record company operations, including artist relations, promo, local merchandising, print and publicity media and related marketing functions, in addition to music publishing conducted by the company's affiliated Burlington-Felsted pubes.

Named to serve as office chief and western division operations manager is company vet Mel Turoff, who has served as coast promo chief for the firm for a number of years. Other staff appointees to be named later. All policy guidelines and operational directions will be established by the New York home office.

Fargo Disks Pass 3 Mil Units Sold

NEW YORK — In a little over a year since her signing with Dot, Donna Fargo has racked up a total of more than three million units sold, according to Tony Martell, president of Famous Music.

During this period, she's had two singles hits, "Happiest Girl in the Whole U.S.A." and "Funny Face." In addition to the singles, there's her first LP, "Happiest Girl in the Whole U.S.A." Her new single, "Superman," hits the Top 100 for the first time this week in the number 83 spot with a bullet.

CTI: Indie Label That Utilizes Branch Concept; Dallas 9th Mkt

NEW YORK — Creed Taylor, an innovator through the years as a producer and A&R man (with great success), has become an innovator from a new aspect, taking his young CTI Records into company owned branch distribution in nine major markets, a phenomenon unheard of for decades on the distribution scene.

The company now sells 60% of its product through these branches, the newest of which is the Dallas CTI Dist. Co., which just opened for business at 3535 Irving Blvd., in Dallas.

The reason Taylor has taken this course is the nature of the label's product, primarily jazz recordings. Of course, while gearing-up this distribution set-up for his specialty line, the company has come up with a monster LP and single by Deodato, the LP titled "Prelude" and the single titled "Also Sprach Zarathustra."

Taylor's Reasoning

But as Taylor puts it, "There's very sound reason behind the distribution approach we have taken. Ours is the kind of product that has to get out into the retail shops in quantities of threes and fives, and where there was no distribution available that could provide such a customized service, we opened our own warehouses with resident salesmen in neighboring cities." CTI now has a branch in New Jersey that covers New York and Philly, one in Detroit opened four months ago covering that city as well as Cleveland and Cincinnati, the new one in Dallas and one in Los Angeles.

"And I'm happy to say," continues Taylor, "that where we have CTI outlets, our volume has increased more than 100%. And the reason is simple. Our salesmen visit the retailers, check the inventory, advise the buyer of the movement of product, and work on only one label, CTI Records."

Taylor was emphatic in commenting that he is "very pleased" in areas where he has independent distributors who are willing to have annual NARM Convention which convenes on Feb. 25.

Voting is based on actual sales in retail outlets serviced by NARM regular members as rack jobbers, by NARM regular members who own their own retail outlets, or own leased departments. The NARM Awards are the only industry awards for record product and artists which are based on actual dollars spent by consumer.

This year's NARM awards banquet show will feature Liza Minnelli, Columbia Records recording artist. Jean Shepherd, author, humorist, and radio and television personality will serve as Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

McCartney Music Acquires Catalog Of Nor Va Jak

NEW YORK — McCartney Music, Inc. has acquired one of the top rock 'n roll catalogs from Norman Petty's company, Nor Va Jak Music, Inc., of Clovis, New Mexico. The catalog contains many of the hits by Buddy Holly. Some of the songs are "Peggy Sue," "That'll Be The Day," "True Love Ways," "Not Fade Away," and "I'm Going To Love You Too."

McCartney credits Holly with being one of his strong influences.

Paul and Linda McCartney are expanding their music operation now that the contract between Paul McCartney and Northern Songs expired, effective Feb. 10. As part of the extension, they have retained Norman Petty, President of Nor Va Jak Music, Inc. to exploit the material acquired by McCartney Music, Inc. and to coordinate and assist in planning new worldwide projects.

Eastman & Eastman acted on behalf of the buyer and Peter Thall of the Robert Casper Law Offices represented Nor Va Jak Music, Inc. and Norman Petty. No purchase price was revealed.

More Stars For Grammy Telecast

NEW YORK — Charlie Pride, Mac Davis and Don McLean have been added to the list of performers for the 15th annual Grammy Awards presentation on Mar. 3. They will appear on the 90-minute live CBS telecast from Nashville, with Andy Williams as emcee.

'Last Tango' Steps Lively On Disk Covers

NEW YORK — The race is one for the theme music for VA's "Last Tango in Paris," the controversial film starring Marlon Brando.

As of presstime, more than a dozen instrumental singles were on or set for release by various labels. In addition, Dore Previn is writing a lyric for the main-theme, which is bound to get extensive vocal versions.

In the view of Murray Deutch, president of United Artists Music, whose Unart (BMI) affiliate is the publisher of the score, the music from "Last Tango" will be the "biggest thing since 'Man and a Woman' and 'Love Story.'" Deutch predicts an eventual total of 150 singles recordings on a world-wide basis. The film opened in New York several weeks, and by the start of next month will have major global market penetration.

Interestingly, the score is Argentina's Gato Barbieri's first film project. He's already been signed to do four more UA-distributed films. United Artists Records has just released the soundtrack LP, from which a single, featuring Barbieri, has been culled. UA will also be represented with a version by Ferrante & Teicher. On the LP front, the "Tango" score promises to be represented in countless albums.

So far, the following artists have cut the "Tango" theme: Henry Mancini (RCA), Doc Severinsen (RCA), Roger Williams (MCA), Willie Mitchell (Hi), Peter Nero (Columbia), Sergio Mendes (Bell), Chuck Magione (Mercury), James Last (Polydor), El Chicano (MCA), Herb Alpert (A&M), Ramsey Lewis (Columbia), Andre Kostelanetz (Columbia), Mongo Santamaria (Vaia), Willis Jackson (Groove Merchant) and Enoch Light (Project 3).

Atlantic's 25th Year Fete Starts With April In Paris

NEW YORK — Atlantic Records year-long 25th Anniversary celebration will be initiated with a five-day festival in Paris for more than 500 Atlantic execs, staffers and Warner-Elektra-Atlantic Distributing Co. personnel.

The gala convocation, the largest in company history, will begin April 11 at the Hotel Meridien in Paris after flying in company personnel and their wives on specially chartered jets originating from around the world.

The Paris meet will mark the beginning of a series of festivities throughout the coming year which will encompass world-wide promotions, special events, and merchandising activities celebrating the company's 25 years of record production and distribution.

Ahmet Ertegun, Atlantic president, in his invitation to Atlantic and WEA men and women asking them to come to the convention, said: "In 1948 a small record company was formed in New York City. It was a label dedicated to the recording of blues and jazz and which within a few years was instrumental in developing such talents as Ruth Brown, Joe Turner, Ray Charles and LaVern Baker. Now in 1973, through years of an ever-growing chain of fine artists and exciting music, that company is ready to celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary. Jerry (Wexler), Nesuhi (Ertegun) and I take a certain amount of pride in affirming that without your efforts, Atlantic Records would not be what it clearly is today: the world's leading recording company."

Fun & Games

The Paris meeting will be a combination of celebration and work sessions. There will be a day of business meetings on Friday, April 12, at which time new product and campaigns will be introduced to the firm's WEA representatives. Also scheduled are rap sessions and seminars on the firm's promo, advertising, merchandising and marketing policies.

Opening the five-day meeting will be a banquet at the famed Lido nightclub. On subsequent nights, several of Paris's top restaurants will host the convention, including a night on the Seine via the Bateau Mouche, which has been chartered especially for Atlantic's visitors. Further events include group tours of the city, sightseeing both by foot and bus, visits to major tourist attractions from the Eiffel Tower to Notre Dame, and an introduction to the music nightspots of the City of Light.

In addition to Atlantic execs and staffers, WEA brass and sales and promo men, most of the WEA International execs will also be present. Atlantic's custom labels are also expected to send their top people.

Film Score Work Only Is Basis Of A&M's Almo Prod.

HOLLYWOOD—A&M Records' Almo Productions has evolved into an industry first: providing full-service music production company working in the area of film scores. Headed by Michael Arciaga, under the supervision of vice president in charge of A&R and publishing Chuck Kaye, Almo Productions has been involved with no less than eight major film and television soundtracks in its first nine months of operation in 1972-73.

According to Arciaga, whose prior experience includes time spent as a film agent at William Morris and in personal management, Almo Productions began as an effort to place A&M-related music in films. "Initially," he says, "I began working to locate Irving/Almo copyrights, original compositions, staff writers and A&M artists into scores. The operation has subsequently grown to include our making arrangements to package entire filmscores and actually produce the music. We deliver the complete finished product. Additionally, we administer all copyrights and scores for the respective producer."

Jules Chaikin, an independent music contractor, has been retained by Almo Productions as music supervisor, as announced last week.

Process Explained

"We meet with the producer and assess his musical needs," explains Arciaga. "If he needs a title, an entire score, has specific artists in mind, has a certain budget to cope with, we seek to provide services that meet those needs. Though Almo Productions is primarily a wing of A&M's publishing department, it provides an outlet for every facet of A&M; from the artist roster to the recording studio to the publishing catalogue to the recorded catalogue. And we will service a score specifically to the taste of the producer. We can go in any direction, both inside and outside of A&M. It increases the range of outlets for the music industry and increases the range of resources for the film industry. The effect of an independent, well-organized music company on film projects could prove to be very important at the box office."

Among Almo Productions first placements are several ABC Television Movies of the Week. Producer Paul Witt's "No Place To Run" and "Home for the Holidays" utilized a theme song by Paul Williams and a score by composer George Tipton, respectively. "Trouble Comes to Town," produced by Everett Chambers, fea-

Pirate Raid In Phoenix; 8-Trks Seized

PHOENIX — Officers of the State Department of Public Safety raided two buildings here which they said had housed an illegal tape duplicating operation capable of producing 5,000 pirated 8-track cartridges a week.

They seized 2,500 pirated tapes and material for producing an additional 30,000 tapes. They also seized ten duplicating machines and $70,000 worth of labels.

In their related action, 600 pirated tape cartridges being shipped to Montana and believed to have been made at the plant here, were seized at the Sky Harbor International Airport.

Law enforcement authorities identified the operator of the plant as Daryl D. (Skip) McFarlin, Jr., 27. They quoted him as saying that he had gotten involved in tape piracy as a hobby. He was also quoted as saying that only a small percentage of his output had been sold in Arizona; the rest had been shipped to various parts of the country.

Search warrants for the raids were obtained following a lengthy investigation by the Department of Public Safety working in cooperation with representatives of the Recording Industry Association of America.

Among the pirated tapes seized were a number of copyrighted recordings, including Carly Simon's "No Secrets," released by Elektra Records.

McFarlin was ordered to appear in a State court in Phoenix on Feb. 23.

3rd Recent Raid

This raid is the third major anti-piracy action in recent weeks. Last month Los Angeles Police and the FBI raided a pirate factory in Los Angeles, and confiscated 75,000 tapes.

Mega Classic LP Recorded In Nashville

NASHVILLE — What is called the first classical LP to be recorded in Nashville, and released by a major label, was released last week on Mega, according to Brad McCuen, president of Mega Records & Tapes. McCuen first recorded the team in 1950 while at RCA.

The LP, "The Personal Touch of Whittemore and Lowe," by Arthur Whittemore and Jack Lowe, recorded at Columbia Studios, contains nine recordings covering three centuries of composers ranging from the classicism of Bach and Bluck, to the by now contemporary classics of Ravel and Prokofiev. McCuen first recorded the team in 1950 while at RCA.

Whittemore and Lowe have just celebrated their 25th anniversary as a concertizing two piano team. The pair is busier than ever averaging about 75 concerts a year.

The Nashville music industry was entertained by the duo last fall at the annual SESAC Awards Presentation.

WB: Major Alice Cooper Drive

BURBANK — In anticipation of the marketing of Alice Cooper's newest album, "Billion Dollar Babies," to be released Feb. 20, the current hit single "Hello Hurray" from the album, and the beginning of a 56-city tour of "The Alice Cooper Show," which will play to an audience of over 820,000 people, Warner Bros. Records is launching an extensive campaign involving all areas of the company.

"This will be the biggest tour in the history of rock and roll," predicted president Joe Smith, "and we are prepared to support it with promotion, advertising, merchandising and publicity coordinating "The Alice Cooper Show" with the album and the single. To this end we have been in a week of meetings with Shep Gordon and the staff of Alive Enterprises, Alice's management company, and we are now ready to begin the campaign."

Vice president and director of national sales and promo Ed Rosenblatt added, "We are shipping an unprecedented amount of albums for the initial release making 'Billion Dollar Babies' more than gold by Feb. 20."

Drive Plans

The creative services department under the direction of v.p., Stan Cornyn is coordinating all merchandising, advertising and publicity plans for the Alice Cooper campaign. Advertising director Diana Balocca has planned to purchase the largest amount of national and local radio and print ads in the history of the company, and plans are underway for a television spot produced by Warner Bros. to appear in major markets prior to Alice's appearance.

ATI's 'Full Circle' Growth Takes On An Int'l Outlook

NEW YORK — American Talent International Ltd. plans to go "full circle" with worldwide activities involving clients in the music field.

The company, founded less than three years ago, will gross $12-15 million during 1973, according to its 28-year-old president Jeff Franklin.

American Talent International (ATI) is adding a circle to its logo to symbolize its worldwide expansion program that will continue to center upon artist representation and packaging music tours, but that will expand into other areas as well.

ATI, which represents more than 40 artists primarily in the field of rock music, has entered the area of TV packaging with two specials, one starring Three Dog Night, which aired recently through Dick Clark Productions.

Global Tours

The company, which has served as a major representative of English music artists, has mapped plans for global tours, concerts, television activities and music production operations incorporating talent presently represented and new artists to be announced, Franklin added.

Franklin has just returned from a global mission of firming up agreements with the foreign agents who will participate in the ATI expansion program.

Knight Wins Key Round In Actions Vs. GFR

NEW YORK — Andrew Cavaliere, on behalf of Grand Funk Railroad, has totally withdrawn his motion for a full scale hearing in the U.S. Federal Court (8) following the Court's denial of a temporary restraining order Cavaliere sought attempting to enjoin Terry Knight and GFR Enterprises, Ltd., from bringing further law suits against the auditoriums, arenas and promoters on the current Grand Funk Railroad tour.

Knight, meanwhile, announced he has instituted more law suits in the United States Federal Court seeking $4,500,000 in damages resulting from the "illegal and unauthorized" use of the name "Grand Funk" in the following cities: Mobile, Ala., Evansville, Inc., Nashville, Tenn., Des Moines, Iowa, Wichita State University, Oklahoma City, Okla., Richmond, Va., Winston-Salem, N.C., Charleston, W. Va., Memphis, Tenn., Knoxville, Tenn., Little Rock, Ark., Omaha, Neb., Savannah, Ga., Columbia, S.C.

Cavaliere had earlier stated to the Court in his unsuccessful plea for a temporary restraining order that, "as a result of the institution of these repetitive actions and the attendant publicity, auditoriums and promoters are threatening to cancel scheduled concerts by the performers. Other auditoriums have refused to pay over box office receipts from the concerts."

Knight said that approximately $367,000 had been either withheld by the auditoriums or deposited with the U.S. Federal Court pending the outcome of his law suits. Cavaliere also stated in his motion to the Court that, "Unless Knight is enjoined from instituting actions . . . the performers will be required to go off the road. They cannot continue their professional activities under these intolerable circumstances."

Knight disclosed that he and GFR Enterprises, Ltd., are prepared to commence identical law suits in Great Britain, France, Italy, Sweden, Norway, Belgium, Luxembourg, Denmark, Germany, Switzerland, and Japan where the names "Grand Funk" and "Grand Funk Railroad" are also registered trademarks owned by GFR Enterprises, Ltd.

of artist representation that goes the full circle just as some institutions offer full banking services. For example, we will use computer programming to incorporate all details of complex tour arrangements for groups of artists working together as a package," Franklin stated.

Franklin said the next major organizational step will be into the field of motion picture packaging.

TV Projects

ATI, which produced the successful tour of the "Rock 'N Roll Circus" last year, is now in negotiations with a major company to produce the show as a projected weekly television series.

Under the expanded ATI program, stars such as Rod Stewart, Rare Earth, Deep Purple, Marvin Gaye, John Sebastian, Uriah Heap, among others, will have the benefits of a computerized booking system that is designed to eliminate lost time in the artists' schedules.

The same basic approach will guide the activities of the record producers represented by ATI to insure a minimum of delays and wasted motion, Franklin said.

Sol Saffian, vice-president of ATI, recently opened and is coordinator of the college department of the talent organization. Joining Saffian in New York is veteran Stan Rubin and in Los Angeles, Bob Bonus.

Ira Blacker, also head-quartered in New York, is vice-president in charge of the concert area.

Franklin said the 30 young members of ATI's staff have worked together to "generate the family-oriented concept that makes the streamlined program possible."

Open Seating Cited As Boon To Concerts

HOLLYWOOD — Open festival seating is becoming "the thing" in major arenas, says promoter Steve Wolf of Concert Associates. "It's a whole new ball game. There are fewer security problems, the kids can move around or dance, and there's no rushing the stage, or seating problems," he adds.

The San Diego Sports Arena, Winterland in San Francisco, the Hollywood Palladium and the Long Beach Arena have gone into open seating. Win F. Hanssen, manager of the latter facility, admits, "It cuts down on a lot of staff personnel, mainly ushers." Long Beach's first experience with open seating, a Grateful Dead concert, was termed a huge success.

Jim Rissmiller of Concert Associates—a Beverly Hills pop-rock concert promotion firm—notes that the 19,000-seat Forum in Inglewood would like open seating, as would the Phoenix Civic Plaza. Tucson Community Center enjoys it now.

Promoters and facility directors alike admit it may take a while for customers to get used to the fact they don't need a ticket stub for a certain seat, since over the years, most concerts have been a hard ticket sale.

Winterland, the bay area ballroom, for years has allowed youngsters to roam about its cavernous area, sit on the floor, or feel free to dance—as they pleased. The Hollywood Palladium, also places no seats on the main floor during rock and pop concerts.

SLAYED?

HOLLYWOOD—BOBBY GOLDSBORO: NOW YOU HEAR IT, NOW YOU DON'T

Croak, gribbit, croak, croak. That's the sound the stewardess could swear she heard when she admiringly touched passenger Bobby Goldsboro's iconic frog ring. The one with the emerald eyes that his wife gave him. The stewardess in fact really heard those sounds, not the familiar type customary to an airplane, unless of course some devoted kid had smuggled his pet frog aboard the craft going from Bobby's home town, Nashville, to L.A.

The noise was actually ventriloquized by Bobby, who throughout his career has been known to have a partiality (some may call it an anomaly) towards impersonating a frog. At first it was not any specific frog, but now that he has a successful new syndicated TV show sponsored by General Mills, and it features a frog puppet named Calvin, Bobby's impersonation is no longer just any anonymous amphibian.

If Calvin the frog were to tell Bobby's past to that stewardess, and how Bobby leapt to success, he's have to start with the days when he was in a group called the Webb. After all what frog would forget a group who dressed in black ties monogrammed with white spiders and whose drum's countenance also assimilated that spider-and-web logo. The Webb was extra curricular activity for some Auburn University boys. Calvin would have to remember how the group wanted to audition for a record company, and how once during a school holiday they went to a disc jockey friend and scrutinized his records in search of a local label. The closest one was in Birmingham, where the Webb made the necessary arrangements to audition for Heart Records. Since the record company was located over a blood bank, necessary arrangements seemed to include donating a pint of blood. Heart Records was only interested in Bobby's voice. A master was cut and then heartfully sold (the same one) to three different people; the business was all negotiated by mail. The chief partner in Heart impulsively left town with all the money. On a subsequent day, the blood bank discovered its upstairs tenant was out of circulation.

Meanwhile the bloodshot eyes belonging to members of the Webb were not

NEW YORK—THE SPINNERS: THEIR FIFTIES ROOTS SPINNING GOLD

The Spinners, with their formative roots dating from the mid Fifties, will soon be tucking away their 18th year as a male vocal/performing group. And, aside from a couple of changes, four of the five are still original members. They are Henry Fambrough, baritone lead singer; Billy Henderson, tenor lead singer; Pervis Jackson, bass lead singer and Bobby Smith, tenor lead singer. Phillippe Wynne, tenor lead singer, the fifth member of the group joined The Spinners in May, 1971.

It was in 1955, while they were still in High School, that Billy, Bobby, Henry, Pervis and Crathman Spencer, who has since been replaced, lived and grew up in the same area, Royal Oak Township, Ferndale, Michigan and attended Ferndale High.

In the Fifties R & B groups and R & B record labels were cropping up all over the country, and when one takes a moment to reflect upon that era, one can be pretty safe in stating that the Fifties created a new life-style in the music world. In retrospect, it's easy to see why guys and gals (regardless of age) throughout the country were imitating their idols. Among the pacesetters, in the Fifties, serving as idols, one would have to include names like, The Dominoes, Clyde McPhatter & The Drifters, Five Satins, Del Vikings, Coasters and Frankie Lymon & Teenagers, to name only a few. These acts would appear at local record hops, school dances and on local TV and, of course, be heard on radio. Also, with names such as, Smokey Robinson & The Miracles, Temptations and The Dells beginning to explode into the sixties scene; anybody with the drive, who wanted to sing, dance, or play an instrument soon realized there were boundless opportunities in the music world. But, in Detroit, it was Berry Gordy who threw some pebbles into the pond and it ushered in the Sixties with a Motown splash to be heard around the world. And, of course, Smokey and "Little Stevie Wonder" were there.

The Spinners, calling themselves "The Dominco's" when they first began singing at Ferndale High in '55, says Billy, "we held regular practice sessions and from sobs of disappointment but hard work and late hours playing back-up to Roy Orbison. They traveled all over the country in a '55 Chevy harnessing a u-haul trailer. The Webb eventually became the Candymen, and while all of this was going on, it turns out that one of the purchasers of that ill-fated Heart master was Jack Gold, then an independent producer. Gold was no doubt incensed by the Heart affair but still eager to produce Bobby. He cut a song called "Molly" on him for Laurie Records. It was only a mild hit and not enough to convince Goldsboro to leave the Candymen.

It wasn't until Bobby joined United Artist Records in 1964, and Jack had cut "See the Funny Little Clown" on him, that he decided he would try a solo career. He immediately went on a 15-city promo tour to plug the record. He was scheduled to do four record hops in Chicago, all on the same night but had a car accident enroute from the first hop to the second. It was one that would have even jostled Calvin from a resolute lily pod. The regional promotion man who had been doing the driving wasn't going to let anything detain the UA artist or hurt the chances of the record. He phoned a cab and sent Bobby off to the hop by himself. That kind of perseverance helped to make the record a hit. He was now a known recording artist but was still living with his wife in the back bedroom of his parent's home.

In 1968 something happened that radically changed Bobby's life: his recording of a tune called "Honey" sold five million copies, world wide. It was the biggest record of 1968 outselling the Beatles' "Hey Jude."

This kind of gargantuan success enabled him to buy six acres in Nashville, where he built an oriental styled house. Why Nashville? Mainly because to buy six acres of land in New York would mean three and a half hours outside of New York and to buy the same parcel of land in Los Angeles would cost a man practically everything he owns. So Nashville became Bobby's land of milk and honey.

"Honey" was the kind of record that appeals to all ages and consequently turned Bobby into a very sought after concert and club headliner. It even meant headlining in Vegas. Calvin (the frog) would at this point hardly leave out the conversation that Bobby had with another established performer prior to his Las Vegas debut. The old pro asked Bobby whom he had gotten to choreograph his act? Bobby with a great deal of nonchalance told him that he didn't need one Man, we turned around and headed for the Theatre to collect our reward. When we got back to the theatre we found out that somebody had copped our money, needless to say we never found out who did it." Pervis says that later Crathman Spencer, Walter Gaines and Henry Dixon had a group called, "The Originals". But, says Pervis, "we gradually put our routine together. We had a routine called "The Bug", we would throw it around and I would fall out on the floor and scratch all over, and it used to crack up the audiences. And, Pervis says, "one of our first shows was on a Saturday at Carver school and it was really a battle of the groups. It was strictly a no-holds-barred contest. Also, in '55 we took a shot at the Paradise Club in Idlewild, a major Black Resort, and, of course the audience would often be with the underdog and we had a routine, "The Chicken". The name groups appeared at Idlewild. But, in '62-'63 we were back professionally at Idlewild with headliners, Aretha Franklin, George Kirby and we were there one month. The Spinners then signed with Motown in 1963.

"In 1968 Crathman left us and we had Edgar Edwards with us who helped us refine our close harmony." Then, Henry says, "in '59-60 Harvey Fuque took us in hand, referring to us as 'gangers' and he was responsible for putting that 1/2 step harmony together. Harvey, Marvin Gaye and Chester Simmons were the "Moonglows," and we even worked for several months as 'The New Moonglows', but, Henry continued, Harvey helped us to get our first record on the Tri-Phi label.

The USO shows from '57-'59 really gave us the chance to put it together. Bobby recalls the time that they were heading for an Air Force Military club to do a USO gig and Pervis was driving down the runway. "You can imagine our surprise as an Air Force plane was heading right for us, we almost lost our a capella voices, you can be sure of that," says Bobby. The group was awarded a gold certificate for putting in 500 hours, which Billy says, amounted to some 50 or 60 shows. But, Billy related that this opened the door for many other gigs. Billy, remembers, particularly, working for a club in Grandale and getting $10.00 to split among us. And, Billy says, the White club owner told them that if they

PAUL DAVIS—Bang BLP 226

Paul Davis is a pop-oriented singer/composer and a breath of air so fresh, it almost hits us as unreal. But the reserved knock-out that is Davis in both song and performance is really very natural. The label launched Neil Diamond's career and the future looks as bright for Paul. Album features his current charter, "Boogie Woogie Man" as well as tremendously catchy and listenable things like "Come On Honey" and "What Would We Do Without Music." If you overlook him, it's your loss.

JAMES TAYLOR (Warner Bros. 7682)

One Man Parade (3:10) (Country Road/Blackwood, BMI—Taylor)

Taylor's "One Man Dog" album makes way for the new single that is destined to once again place the artist in the top 10 circle of hits. Soft outing creates quite a mood that programmers will love. Flip: "Nobody But You" (2:57) (same credits)

CLARENCE CARTER (Fame XW 179-W)

Put On Your Shoes And Walk (2:50) (Giant Enterprises, BMI—Williams, Baily)

Already breaking in many r&b markets, Clarence is well on his way to having another giant record. There's absolutely no doubt about this one happening big in pop as well. Could easily soar to top 10 chart heights. Flip: No info. available.

WILSON PICKETT (RCA 74—0898)

Mr. Magic Man (3:20) (Erva/Friday's Child, BMI—Eli-Fisher)

FLASH (Sovereign/Capitol 3496)

Children Of The Universe (3:20) (Colgems/Blackclaw, ASCAP—Bennett)

Long a classic track on their first album, edited version is released and will meet with much favorable acceptance. Highlighted by some fine vocal harmony, single will easily reach its top 40 mark and then some. This is a record to watch closely. Flip: No info. available.

KING FLOYD (Chimneyville 446)

Think About It (3:14) (Cotillion/East/Memphis, BMI—Covay, Redding)

Any new King Floyd release is always a welcome addition to one's record library. Funky as ever, the king dips into a tune co-written by Don Covay and Otis Redding, and what he comes up with spells hit record. Flip: No info. available.

DOUG SAHM & BAND (Atlantic 45-2946)

Is Anybody Going To San Antone (3:10) (Tree, BMI—Kirby, Martin)

Vocal credits on this outing are shared by both Doug Sahn and a fellow by the name of Bob Dylan. As if that isn't enough, record smacks with super commercial appeal and could become another "Mendicino" for Sahn and band. This should garner immediate listener response. Flip: No info. available.

THE IMPRESSIONS (Curtom 1982)

Preacher Man (3:10) (Curtom, BMI—Tufo)

The recording history of the Impressions need not be explained in this or any other review. Suffice it to say that this release is one of their strongest ever. I Can Understand It (4:20) (Unart, BMI—Womack)

PAUL & JOJO (Bell 45-312)

Follow Me (2:27) (Rock Pile, ASCAP—Munson, McCasen)

Season '73' At Amphitheatre

UNIVERSAL CITY — The Carpenters, John Denver, Engelbert Humperdinck, Tom Jones, Kris Kristofferson and Rita Coolidge will be among those who will headline "Season '73," the inaugural Summer Concert Series in Universal Studios' Amphitheatre. The program will be presented by MCA, Inc., as the Amphitheatre's second outdoor season, an encore to last year's successful presentation of "Jesus Christ Superstar."

Most of the named artists will appear for a full week. The ten week series will be augmented with appearances of other top performers from the field of rock, folk and pop, to be announced when negotiations and firm dates are finalized.

Venue Enlarged

The Amphitheatre has been enlarged from its original 3828 to 5150 seats. Even with the added capacity, the unique intimacy of the Amphitheatre has been preserved. (By comparison, the last row at Universal would reach less than 1/2 of the depth of the Hollywood Bowl and slightly more than 1/2 of the Greek Theatre, though the seating capacity is 15% greater than that of the Greek.) All seats in The Amphitheatre boast a completely unobstructed view of the newly designed stage.

The stage itself is ingeniously engineered with complete built-in versatility. A complex of platforms mounted on railroad car beds, riding on rails and switches, give performers a scenic background opportunity available nowhere else.

The Amphitheatre management commissioned professional acousticians and lighting experts to conduct exhaustive comprehensive surveys.

Last year The Amphitheatre hosted 220,000 people. This year's capacity (10 weeks) will be 350,000 maximum with the new seating arrangements.

Tickets will be sold in series of eight (8) shows. Preferred locations will be given to advance season ticket buyers. Single tickets will also be sold at the box office, by mail and at the other usual places. Top prices will range from $6.50 to $8.50.

The Amphitheatre talent bookings are being supervised by MCA exec Raphael Etkes, who headquarters in the MCA Tower, at Universal City. Etkes indicates a major advertising, promo and group sales effort will back both the overall series as well as each artist who will appear.

Ivy Hill

A good name, one we've worn for generations. We've been pioneering record industry packaging since the days when a record album was a book holding a bunch of 78 rpm discs. It adds up to 63 years worth of printing experience. If you're a record, we've got you covered.

Packaging

A new name for us. Until just the other day we were Ivy Hill Lithograph. Now we're Ivy Hill Packaging. If you think it's because we do a lot more than lithography, you're right. If you think it means a change in service, you're wrong. We'll keep doing what we've done to win the business of more than 20 major record labels—board and paper album jackets, labels, sleeves, books, inserts, displays, posters and anything else that mates to a disc or tape. We do them the best and the fastest. Got an impossible four-dimensional motor-driven flying package in mind for your next album? If it's really impossible we can't do it. If it's next to impossible we probably can.

Twenty Years And Then What?

Murray The K Back In New York In Earnest; Stage, TV Projects For Veteran Disk Jockey

NEW YORK — This week marks Murray the K's twentieth year as a deejay. According to the veteran entertainer, "The next sixty days will decide what I'm going to concentrate on next. I'm going to weed out whatever I don't get off on."

Returns Live

Murray is about to return to the New York stage in his unique role of emcee for a very special revival show. Featured acts include Jay & The Americans, The Impressions, Ronettes, Shangrilas, Miracles and other r&r/r&b performers whose careers he helped launch at his historic shows at the old Brooklyn Fox. His live return takes place in four shows this weekend (16-17) at the Academy of Music.

After his comeback in this field of endeavor, he intends to reflect upon it on a personal level. Murray remembers the "seven shows a day" Fox days when he "very rarely smiled." He also wants to judge the impact of the show on the general public, to assess the viability and validity of future shows of this type. This is also the first show he has hosted which he is not financially producing himself. "I'm too nervous to be a promoter," he claims at this juncture.

Murray The K

The man who became known as the Fifth Beatle in the sixties has recently been bringing a multi-media "sock hop" to colleges in the area, "with one live act — me." The presentation utilizes records, tapes, cartridges and film, making ultimate use of the fact that the "audience is their own favorite performer."

TV Project

Murray is also working on a television series, slated at sixty or ninety minutes weekly. He describes it as a musically-oriented updated version of "Person To Person." The first show is an interview with George Harrison, where Murray visits the ex-Beatle at home but lets his guest and his music handle most of the commentary. "The show is 90% shot over the shoulder. The camera is me, the performers are themselves." Not designed as a superficial guided tour of an artist's home, it is more accurately planned as a picture of one subject's lifestyle. Other artists who particularly interest the main guest will also become an important part of the conception of each program in the series. The project is currently being discussed with a number of potential backers.

DJ Duties

Last July 4th weekend, acting on an invitation for WNBC-AM pd Pat Whitley, Murray the K returned to the New York airwaves after a three-year absence. Thirty thousand listener letters later, he returned to the station on a regular weekend basis. His current contract with the station ends in August, at which time Murray would like to make a bid for a daily slot. Currently he does 4-8 and 10-midnight Saturdays, and 3-7 Sundays. Often he feels that pre-emptions due to sports programming and the weight of long network newscasts and "Monitor" features prevent him from doing the best job he is capable of.

Artist Involvement

Murray's philosophy has always been to encourage new talent. Currently he is "directing the projects" of Emmitt Findley recently signed to Columbia, and of Patti Marks, as yet unsigned. Findley performs material written by Hans Peter Schulle who is also a member of his group. Not content to live nostalgically, Murray is genuinely excited about these new artists. He does not define his connection with them as "manager" although he personally feels he needs some guidance for himself.

"For the first time in my life, I need a manager . . . I will quit the business if it doesn't work out right. Should that occur, it will be my own fault . . . My wife, Jackie, says I only need two things to make whatever I decide to do work—patience and a one-track mind."

UA Holds College Radio Seminar

HOLLYWOOD — United Artists Records held its first College Radio Seminar Saturday, Feb. 3 at Ike & Tina Turner's Bolie Sound Studio in Inglewood. Over 120 college radio broadcasters attended the event, some coming from as far away as San Luis Obispo and Lancaster.

The seminar was chaired by United Artists' Rich Fazekas, and selections from UA's upcoming releases were showcased. Following a brief intermission for lunch, Sam Riddle, KROQ air personality related many of his experiences in radio.

Ike & Tina closed the day's activities with a live set.

Century Station GMs Promoted To VP Posts

CHICAGO — Century Broadcasting Corporation has announced that the general managers of three of its stations have been elected vice presidents: Gordon Potter, KWST (LA); John Detz, WABX (Detroit); and Sheldon Grafman, KSHE (St. Louis).

STATION BREAKS:

The Tintinnabulation Of Peace Department: At 7 pm, Jan. 27th, eighteen Philadelphia stations chimed bells over the air. The project originated by WMMR pd Jerry Stevens and gm Joel Samuelsohn immediately received support from Metromedia's AM outlet, MMR's sister station WIP. Sixteen other outlets (WCAU-FM, WIBG, WPEN AM & FM, WDVR, KYW, WFLN AM & FM, WWDB, WIOQ, WRTI, WYSP, WXPB, WRCP and WUHY-FM) cooperated as WMMR "turned the city into one gigantic radio station," in response to the beginning of the Vietnam ceasefire. Stevens' opinion of the potential tune-out factor was this: "If people could endure the war for twelve years, they could certainly take twelve minutes of bells." The project had no official name, but some 30 other stations across the country got in touch with MMR as soon as news of the plan hit the wire services. Stevens would like to hear from those stations who participated outside of the Philly area; seems they haven't followed up their initial interest with any feedback.

Glendale's KIEV has switched from country to "golden oldies," after a seven month study . . . WABC's Bruce Morrow has been an occasional guest host on the chain's NY TV outlet's "A.M. New York" show. It's worked out so well, he's now making a pilot for an NBC-TV quiz show, "The Wheeler Dealers" for Ron Greenburg Productions . . . Indian spiritual master Sri Chinmoy is syndicating his two-minute daily meditations gratis. The early morning contemplative sessions originate from Dave Herman's slot on WNEW-FM at 7:10 am and are also being picked up by KDNA in St. Louis and Chicago's WXFM.

Chinmoy is accompanied by Columbia's John McLaughlin and his wife Eve, known to believers as Mahavishnu and Mahalakshmi. The self-described purpose of the meditations: "to serve the Supreme in mankind and to offer the light of spirituality to aspiring seekers."

WWDC's color man for the Baltimore Bullets play by play, and also the station's morning man—Johnny Holliday—was the first radio/TV personality to be honored by the Jaycee's Maryland chapter . . . New Haven's WAVZ has revealed that the generous Cash Sunshine, who had been giving out money at local restaurants, is none other than their new morning man, Paul Resnik . . . WCFL's Erik Stevens has wrapped up the filming of his part in "The Last Stop," a comedy western co-starring Troy Donahue. Flick should hit the theatres in about three months.

Chuck Dunaway has been refining his "three-in-a-row" format at WIXY. Meanwhile, a skunk belonging to Mike Reineri won first prize in the beauty contest at the recent animal festivities in Little Rock, tied in with Loudon Wainwright's "Dead Skunk" Columbia single . . . Columbia's SQ system took part in the broadcasting of the first four-channel Inaugural festivities from Kennedy Center. Station WETA carried the Philadelphia Orchestra concert in its entirety . . . New ad and promo manager for Avco Broadcasting is William M. Moss.

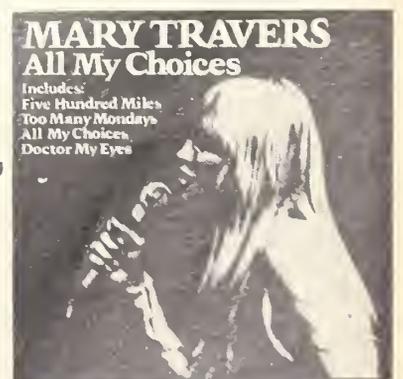

Check out Cash Box's "Insights & Sounds" column next week for a musical analysis of the most popular oldies in New York, according to the listeners of WCBS-FM. We don't want to give too much away, but doo-wop is alive and well.

Put Rod Stewart on stage together with the rest of Faces, give him our Shure Unisphere microphone, and get out of the way! You've got a five-man super-band that delivers some of the heaviest rock sounds heard in years! And the Unisphere? It delivers those sounds. It allows audiences to hear the true sound of Rod and Faces. The Unisphere is designed to pick up sound from the front, reject sounds from the sides and rear, filter out unwanted "pop" and breath noises . . . and through it all, get the Faces sound across purely and naturally! It's the same wherever you go on the contemporary music scene: Any group and performer worth his gold record turns on a Shure Microphone to turn on an audience! And that's the whole story.

CASH BOX #70 With a Bullet

Record World #71 With a Bullet

Billboard #84 With a Bullet

17 W. 60th St., N.Y.C.

THE BEST OF MOUNTAIN—Columbia KC 32079

The label's ties with Windfall Records which brought the new trio of West, Bruce & Laing into their fold now begets a truly fine "best of" offering. Leslie West, Felix Pappalardi, Corky Laing and Steve Knight rock 'n roll, amplify and generally blast off and over the top with "Mississippi Queen," "Nantucket Sleighride" and nine more. Should be an instant chart item and a catalog winner.

THE GREAT LOST KINKS ALBUM—The Kinks Reprise MS 2127

There's a persistence in Kinkophiles that made this album a foregone conclusion. Fourteen tracks, many of them B-sides (but none ever before available in the U. S. on an album) with Ray Davies very much up front. There's little heavy here—mostly light-hearted romp and circumstance in their early bag. "When I Turn Off The Living Room Light" could tickle Randy Newman; "Mr. Songbird" should please any Gilbert O'Sullivan fan. "Where Did The Spring Go?" sounds like the prototype for "I Ain't Got No" from "Hair." Definite chart stuff.

CHUCK BERRY'S GOLDEN DECADE, VOL. 2—Chess 2CH 60023

While the tracks on this second "greatest hits" two-record set are not as well known as singles for Berry himself, the tunes are amazingly familiar thanks to subsequent reinterpretations. "Little Queenie," "The Promised Land," "Jo Jo Gunne," "Let It Rock," "Sweet Little Rock And Roller," and "Carol" have been r&r staples since the Stones began the back-to-Berry movement. Also on this collection, his last Top 20 hit prior to "My Dingaling"—"You Never Can Tell."

CHUCK BERRY'S GOLDEN DECADE VOL. 2

ME AND MRS. JONES—Johnny Mathis—Columbia KG 32114

Johnny's latest is an unpretentious good music album that will easily keep him and his career going and could quite easily win him new fans. The program exudes hit material—"Summer Breeze," "Sweet Surrender" and "You're A Lady" just being three huge copyrights complementing the title tune. He does a particularly fine job on "Corner Of The Sky" from the Broadway hit, "Pippin."

FUNKY SERENITY—Ramsey Lewis—Columbia KC 32030

Ramsey's second LP for the label runs the gamut of jazz fusions: from the supper club treatment of "Betcha By Golly Wow" to super avant garde renderings of "Nights In White Satin" and an original, "Dreams." Album leads off with Lewis' best effort in the hit single category since "The In Crowd"—"Kufanya Mapenzi." It means "Making Love" and comes on like Stevie Wonder's "Superstition" without lyrics. Should do even better than his Columbia debut and in black markets, it will be an extremely strong item. Liner notes by Clive J. Davis.

TWENTY GOLDEN HITS—Mamas And Papas—Dunhill DSX-50145

The word that comes to mind after "Mamas And Papas" is "magic." No one ever came near their sound—not that folk didn't try their damndest to manufacture hits in the mold of "California Dreamin'" and "Monday, Monday." There was just one combination, however, that could come across as musical pixies with integrity, and that was the M&Ps. This is their most attractively packaged greatest hits set, including their last single, "People Like Us." The team from "Creeque Alley" still make magic.

Newcomer Picks

STEALERS WHEEL—A&M SP 4377

How many groups have been called the next Beatles? Let us count all the misdirected notions of what it takes to live up to (and subsequently live down) that kind of comparison. But then along rolls Stealers Wheel and it's hard to bite one's tongue in the face of such a sound success from Britain. Point of fact, they need not be compared to anyone. They are the perfect amalgam of all that is great about non-hyphenated rock. This quintet has it all—harmonies, rhythm, material and scope. It's early in the game, but right now they sound like the new group of the year.

BATTEAUX—Columbia KC 32063

Batteaux is a duo. Remember what the label did for Loggins & Messina in '72? '73 shall belong to Batteaux. The brother team (David and Robin) utilize a most pleasurable approach to Latin musical elements. But they are very unlike Santana, Malo and the other Spanish surnamed rockers, being more like Cat Stevens in gentleness of approach. You're much better off listening to them than bagging them anyway. Their single, "Tell Her She's Lovely," is but one way to get into their version of new music. "Katy" and "Mirror" (a song about a sperm cell) are but two more from this pair extraordinaire.

MARTINE HABIB—Columbia KC 31785

Martine Habib of the exotic name and the beguiling voice makes her debut under the producing aegis of Norbert Putnam and Glen Spreen. You have heard her harmony abilities on John Denver's "Goodbye Again." Now she's upfront and totally beautiful on ten originals including her first single, "Take It All." Although first impressions may describe her as a Joan Baez type, she really has quite a different range of feeling to her perfect sound. Side 2 is very folksy-oriented, while most of the stuff on Side 1 gets a fullblown, and yet still delicate, treatment. Highlights include "The Hardest Game Of All" and "A Little Time Together."

JOE QUARTERMAN & FREE SOUL—GSF 1009

One of the most promising black bands on the scene today, Joe Quarterman & Free Soul have a whole lot more than funk goin' for them. One only has to listen to the cut "I Feel Like This" (which is basically instrumental) to learn how much room they can find to work within the wawa pedal/steady beat framework. Their first single is here in extended form, "(I Got) So Much Trouble In My Mind." Good talk about it has exceeded the good sales; this speaks well for the future of the LP. "Find Yourself" sounds like the follow-up choice.

Sound Track Picks

STEELYARD BLUES—Original Soundtrack Recording—Warner Bros. BS 2662

During the past year, most of the soundtrack excitement has come from two camps: film versions of stage hits and black action flicks with scores penned by top soul talent. Here Nick Gravenites and Mike Bloomfield enlist the aid of Paul Butterfield and Maria Muldar. It should be enough to turn the film industry around to a new outlook on original rock music not directly tied to the plot or box office appeal. Apart from its importance in this regard, "Steelyard Blues" is also one of the finest musical events of the year, as an album in its own right. Both material and performances are strong, distinctive and intelligently progressive in orientation.

LAST TANGO IN PARIS—Original Motion Picture Score—United Artists UA-LAO45-F

Quite unintentionally, Rome and the Vatican have done some fine PR work for the Marlon Brando film. There's nothing like forbidden fruit to get the box office going. The film score, composed and performed by Gato Barbieri and His Orchestra, is not a moral problem of any shade. It is strong jazz with continental touches such as tangos and waltzes. Should the film do as well as forecasted, the record sales could easily follow close behind.

Almo Film Score Unit

tured an entire musical package provided by Almo, including a score by A&M artist Tom Scott and the title song "Good Morning World" by A&M's Cheryl Dilcher. "Good Morning World" was performed by Paul Williams in the soundtrack and has subsequently been released by Miss Dilcher as her first single on A&M.

Almo was responsible for Billy Preston's performance of his own composition "Slaughter" in the American International film of the same name, and it fast became a hit single for A&M. Walter Scharf's theme song for the Bing Crosby Productions film "Walking Tall," which has been recorded by Johnny Mathis, is also an Almo-administered copyright. Almo staff composer Ernie Shelby has two compositions on that soundtrack as well.

A&M artist and songwriter Paul Williams has been involved with a couple of other scores through Almo Productions. He is writing and performing the main theme for Lorimar Productions' "Girls of Huntington House" and A&M artist Tom Scott will complete the score. For the CBS television pilot, "The Ted Bessell Show," Williams and record producer Jeff Barry are collaborating on theme music which Williams will perform and Barry will produce.

ABC-TV Project

Almo Productions has extended its services, talents and facilities to Metromedia Producers Corp. on the entire score of the ABC Movie entitled "Go Ask Alice," a story based on an adolescent girl's diary of her experiences with drugs. Some of Irving/Almo's most important copyrights, including Grace Slick's "White Rabbit," the Beach Boys' "Good Vibrations" and Paul Williams' "Just an Old Fashioned Love Song," are featured. Joel Sill produced the soundtrack for the film, which will soon be viewed by the President's Council on Drug Abuse.

One of Almo Productions' current endeavors is the exploitation of Quincy Jones' music for the National General Pictures film by Sam Peckinpah, "The Getaway." Jones wrote the theme song, "Faraway Forever," which he has released as a single on A&M.

"We're very enthusiastic about the opportunity to work with National General," says Arciaga, "and A&M is making a strong effort to promote 'Faraway Forever.'" salesmen give his product the "custom treatment," and intends to continue to work through indies in such spots.

A side-effect of Almo Productions filmscore work has been the signing of George Tipton, Tom Scott, Ian Frebairn-Smith and the Orphanage (Jerry Riopelle, Murray MacLeod and Stuart Margolin) to Irving/Almo as composers.

In answer to the obvious question of the tremendous overhead CTI would have to carry if the company turned cold, Creed comments, "If our product was of a pop nature that had highs and lows, this would be a problem. But our product appeals to a special buyer and if it is made available in outlets, it sells steadily. It continues to move in a more or less even flow and gives us the steady foundation on which we can make the cost judgement necessary to determine whether a branch in a given area is worthwhile."

Al Green Spinners Sylvers Bloodstone

FORUM, L.A. — The Fabulous Forum offered four acts, all to varying degrees "fabulous." The show opened with a new London Records act called Bloodstone while 13,000 Al Green fans were still scurrying to take their seats. Bloodstone, which is a precious stone, showed promise of developing into a precious act: their single from their debut album, both called "Naturally High," sounds like a hit.

Then came the Sylvers, a Los Angeles act on MGM's Pride Records, who received favorable persiflage the moment their name was introduced. Screams of approval greeted the singing family's chromatic costumes and continued as the audience witnessed their choreography. The act's only problem was in fully being able to project their voices. They all have nice voices, but somehow the Sylvers only use a sliver of their potential. Fine was their first hit, "Fools Paradise," and their current one, "Wish That I Could Talk to You."

The audience next seemed to say, "Could It Be I'm Falling in Love" with an act that is more than ten years old but only recently truly discovered. That act is the Spinners, who until their move to Atlantic have been hidden treasure. They scored with their giant "I'll Be Around" and "How Could I Let You Get Away." Also fun was their Detroit nostalgia spoof on the old Motorcity Reviews.

Finally the fabulous Al Green, the Tom Jones of the soul set, came on the stage to exude his indefinable charisma. His vocal range is nothing less than incredible, and so is the impact he has on an audience. He never misses. His string of hits including "Tired of Being Alone," "Let's Stay Together," and "Look What You've Done To Me," brought many patrons to their feet. Judging by the audience response to his new Hi single, "Call Me," it should be another smash for him. Don't be surprised if he ends up hosting a television show of his own. It's inevitable for the Green Giant of the music industry.

Melanie

CARNEGIE HALL, NYC — Melanie, the beautiful people's beautiful person, played two concerts here to SRO crowds (Feb. 2-3) The audience, as usual, was completely devoted to her music but also to her charming personality.

I attended the Saturday night show for a very special reason—it was Melanie's birthday. The response she received that night made it a very special one for her. Anyone who has not heard of Melanie, in all probabilities is still living in the stone age. She is a performer who can sing a soft ballad—or when necessary, belt one out very effectively.

Melanie sang her standards and her new single, "Bitter Bad" and she also sang some equally tantalizing new material. A very interesting comment she made when introducing "Peace Will Come," drew a hearty round of applause, she said, "It's great to sing a peace song without having to have a reason anymore!" The show was being taped for an album, which should prove interesting when it is released.

Melanie may have reached another year in her life but she surely has not reached all the adulation that will keep amassing at her side, as the crowd did that night on the stage.

Temptations Quiet Elegance

COPACABANA, NY—The venerable Copa is an exciting place to be these days, what with the Temptations and Quiet Elegance, a new London label femme trio, holding forth. It's a pop/soul night to remember. As for the Temptations, the staple Motown act who has just inked a new long-term pact with Motown, one can't help looking into the future of the industry with regard to the video cassette. Just as they've made it vocally since the early 60's, the Temps are likely to score in this new medium, too. Although their choreography has a familiar ring of the rock 'n roll era, it is accomplished with such precision that it takes on a refreshing, deceptively-simple look. Of course, vocally, sporting a new tenor voice, they are one of soul music's most skillful acts, with a consistent flow of hits—most recently "Papa Was A Rolling Stone"—over the last decade.

Opening the program is Quiet Elegance, which proved to be somewhat of a misnomer as a group name. They do romantize in soul, but it seemed in this corner that they are going to make it with an upbeat rhythm bunch. Willie Mitchell, who's producing the gals, will do his creative best, one is sure, of finding their hit route.

Motown's new president, Ewart Abner, and Phil Jones were, by the way, on hand opening night to present the group with a special plaque of recognition of their rather secure place in pop/soul music.

i.i.

Lou Reed Garland Jeffries

ALICE TULLY HALL, NYC — Is Lou Reed actually surfacing from the underground, or is he just bringing a lot of people down there with him? Regardless of which directions were influencing Lou and his audience, be they up, down, backwards or forwards, it was obvious that a lot of people rode the underground subways and surfaced at Alice Tully Hall to see Mr. Reed's two shows. Many of these people were there because their "how hip am I?" meter had been provoked by a very clever RCA ad campaign in the subways, for both Lou Reed and Waylon Jennings. The success of the campaign demonstrated that promo can now go underground to surface an act!

So RCA dished up one of their David Bowie-Elvis Presley-this-is-the-kind-of-audience-before-which-stars-are-born-type concerts. Just put him in front of the neatly primed audience and the rest was up to Lou. Did he put himself over the hill? Well, he sure got a few nice licks in here and there, but he didn't exactly go galloping off into the sunset with 'superstar' branded across his chest. He put on a solid and competent show for the most part, but he didn't knock 'em dead. His sporadic hot flashes attested to an inherent brilliance that is definitely a part of Lou Reed, especially in "Sister Rae," "Sweet Jane" and "Rock & Roll." But between the flashes, Lou looked as though he had changed his craving from "Heroin" to embalming fluid.

Some singer-songwriters have the ability to convey emotion, while others are descriptive. Garland Jeffries links both abilities into a very personal form of music that hits you with upfront emotional impact and then lingers via its lasting descriptiveness. While tunes such as "James Dean" and "Calcutta Monsoons" received acoustic sketches, "Lon Chaney" and "Jealous In Me" featured a backup band.

Mark/Almond Jonathan Edwards

TROUBADOUR, L.A. — Mark/Almond are back, with a new group ten days old and a new approach to their music based on three months of careful reflection. As Mark explained from the stage before launching into the set, he had an accident in Hawaii that resulted in the loss of his left ring finger, a major catastrophe for a guitarist and one that caused him to devote serious thought to assessing his future. The resulting performance thus took on a ponderous note, not in the sense of introspective lyrics, which Mark has chosen to eschew, but in the purposeful professionalism of the music itself.

With Mark on rhythm guitar, vocals, and occasional electric piano, and Almond on organ (a new addition to his wide-ranging repertoire of instruments), the group relied heavily on jams sparked by the percussion section of drum battery and congas in concert with the quick-fingered bassist, whose solos suggested a familiarity with and preference for lead guitar. Trading solos between trumpet, sax, organ, and the rhythm section, Mark/Almond turned even their lyrical songs into instrumental digressions, from their popular "The City" to the most pleasing number of the evening, "Freedom," a combination of the best aspects of their instrumental and vocal skills. Though low-key in stage demeanor, perhaps due to the weighty impact of the accident, Mark expressed his conviction that, for the short time they have been together, this is the best Mark/Almond band yet.

Jonathan Edwards, accompanied by the superb Bill Keith and Stuart Shulman's famous statue imitation, found his usual bouncy, cheerful manner a bit stifled by opening night pressures but was nevertheless most effective.

"Wattstax"

AHMANSON THEATRE, L.A. — Last summer's Wattstax concert at the Los Angeles Coliseum is now the subject of a David Wolper-produced motion picture in which the less-than-memorable music becomes a springboard for powerful reminiscences and reflections about the black experience, specifically the Watts riots of 1965.

Combining slick production with casual, often ad libbed dialogue, the film diverges from the concert itself to examine the thoughts of Watts residents. The Wattstax concert, which featured Stax artists Issac Hayes, the Staple Singers, Luther Ingram, Albert King, Carla Thomas, and others, was a benefit for the Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation, the Martin Luther King Hospital in Watts, and future Watts Summer Festivals. The film, with the aid of comedian Richard Pryor, the only professional entertainer in the dialogue sessions, amplifies the spirit expressed by the music and by the audience itself. Pryor typifies the overall approach: his comments are articulate, humorous in his own style, and simultaneously off-the-cuff but studied. His associates, with surprising candor, describe the anger, humor, and despair of life in Watts and, despite the obstacles so well-delineated, their determination to use all opportunities to better that condition. This film may constitute a step in that direction.

"Wattstax" is not a black "Woodstock." Rather it is (the viability of his politics aside for the moment) what Abbie Hoffman might have made of "Woodstock" if he had had a say in its production: a cultural, political statement based on the belief that music expresses it best.

Bruce Springsteen

MAX'S KANSAS CITY, NYC — Suppose the music of Dylan, Van Morrison, Leon Russell and the Band were erased from all memory, and that, lo and behold, a newcomer makes the scene and with the deftness of all the forenamed fills that void. Thus it happens that, free of any Woodstock, L.A. or British environmental influences, in drops Bruce Springsteen from Ashbury Park, N.J., upon John Hammond at Columbia.

Whispering huskily into the microphone, Bruce begins his set with only an accordion behind his vocal and acoustic guitar. His lyrics are fairly reminiscent of a Dylan tune, but wholly original.

After two acoustic numbers his band appeared onstage at Max's as unobtrusively as did Bruce. Their first song together included a flute and a tuba—generating a sort of mini folk/rock orchestral feeling. Other instrumentation included were piano, organ, bass, sax and drums.

The two exceptional songs of the evening were "Her Brains They Rattle and Her Bones They Shake," which began a cappella and led into a short 4-part harmony reminiscent of a Beach Boy arrangement, and "Spirit In The Night," a tremendously rollicking tune included on Springsteen's first Columbia product. His multifaceted talents incorporate the genius of Dylan lyrics with melodies similar to those of the Band and Van Morrison and the ambience of a Dave Van Ronk. His vocals are superb in the fashion of a Leon Russell, Dr. John, Levon Helm and Jackson Browne.

This newcomer undoubtedly deserves the stature of a performer who will be rising to fame quickly and will remain there for a long time. Bruce Springsteen is THE performer of the 70s.

George Wein Plans Extensive '73 Newport Jazz Festival—New York

NEW YORK — George Wein in his opening remarks announced expanded plans for the 1973 Newport Jazz Festival—New York. "This year's schedule, June 29-July 8, comprises the most extensive program in the Festival's 20-year history, with almost twice as many programs as last year's overwhelming success," stated Wein.

Mayor John V. Lindsay welcomed the NJF-NY back for its second year. "This remarkable 10-day event gives a tremendous boost to the spirit of the City and to the business community. It brings thousands of visitors, and helps make New York's summer festival an even greater success."

At the press conference at the Rainbow Grill, Former Mayor Robert Wagner, Chairman of the Newport Jazz Festival—New York Committee, congratulated the Festival on its 20th Anniversary, and said that the tremendous critical acclaim the Festival received last year has greatly enhanced the cultural image of New York. "People are already talking about this year's Festival and are planning to spend their 4th of July vacation in the city so they can attend as many of the jazz events as possible."

Wein, in detailing the events said, "As we did last year we will have numerous concerts in Carnegie Hall and Philharmonic Hall. We will also return to Radio City Music Hall for two midnight jam sessions. Our giant concerts will be at Shea Stadium, and for the first time we will be in Long Island with a major concert at the Nassau Coliseum."

"One of last year's most popular events, the Hudson River Boat Ride will be expanded to two days, with special discounted children's tickets that make it an event the entire family can attend. This year's dance will be at the world renowned Roseland Ballroom, and promises to bring back the "thirties" in all its nostalgic glory—with a fashion show, great jazz bands, and professional Lindy Hop dancers."

"With the cooperation of the Jos. Schlitz Brewing Company, we will produce a unique event in theatrical concert presentation—"The Life and Times of Ray Charles," written and narrated by the internationally acclaimed author James Baldwin and performed by Ray Charles, his orchestra and special guests."

American Airlines will continue as a sponsor, and will salute either Benny Goodman, Count Basie, Duke Ellington or Ella Fitzgerald.

"We have asked Fran Allison, of Kukla, Fran and Ollie fame, to prepare a special children's jazz concert. The historic outdoor afternoon concerts of the early Newport Jazz Festival will be revived at the Wollman Amphitheater in Central Park, which has been made available to us through the cooperation of Ron Delsener, the Schaefer Brewing Co., and the City's Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs Department."

Wein further stated that a series of five concerts will be presented at the Apollo Theatre, bringing the jazz festival directly to Harlem. A six-day concert series featuring predominantly new music will be held at Alice Tully Hall in conjunction with the New York Musicians' Organization. Contributions from foundations like the New York Foundation, and from sponsors like Schlitz, American Airlines and Atlantic Records are making these series possible. Buddah Records and Atlantic Records are presenting special evenings at this year's festival.

Wein went on to say, "The Tea Council of the United States will present a talent discovery concert in which their Tea Talent Search winners will appear performing alongside major talent, John Mayall."

It was announced that this year 50% of the festival profits will be contributed back to the music community. "One of our primary aims," Wein said, "is the founding of the New York Jazz Repertory Company. The New York State Council On The Arts is now considering a proposal for funding the repertory company in conjunction with other foundations and the Festival."

Wein added that the travel industry is cooperating with the summer jazz festival by setting up package tours to New York for fans from all over America and the world during the ten-day festival.

Patrons desiring further information are invited to address inquiries to the Newport Jazz Festival—New York, P.O. Box 1169, New York, New York 10023.

William Griffin the (New) Miracles Lead

NEW YORK — Damon Harris, the newest addition to the Temptations, was very instrumental in helping to find the replacement for Smokey Robinson. When Damon found out the Miracles would be needing a replacement, he contacted his hometown friend, William Griffin. The hometown is Baltimore. In Jan. '72 Griffin went off to Detroit for a four-day Miracle audition. Griffin met the Miracles, Ronnie White, Bobby Rogers and Peter Moore. Griffin returned to Baltimore and waited. Two months or more went by, then a phone call came from Ronnie White who informed Griffin that he had made it. Griffin said, that he studied for five months all of Smokey's tapes and practicing to tapes recorded from the "Smokey" farewell appearances. He also studied with Maurice King, a Motown voice coach, as well as rehearsing with The Miracles. The time for the supreme test was at hand, and the first major appearance with William Griffin and The Miracles was at the Apollo, December 6-12 in '72.

William Griffin (6'2" & 22) proved himself as the Miracles lead singer. Reviewers and fans raved over how similar in sound to Smokey himself. A new Miracles album (Motown) is currently being prepared.

Dobie Gray Drift Away

Decca 33057

Is An Absolute Smash

Dobie's initial single, just released, is getting fantastic re-action all through the nation. Join the excitement. "Drift Away" is from his newly released album with the same title.

DL 7-5397

Produced by Mentor Williams
for Third Son Productions

Day after day I'm more confused
Yet I look for the light through the pourin' rain
You know that's a game I hate to lose
And I'm feeling the strain, ain't it a shame . . .
. . . Give me the beat boys and free my soul
I want to get lost in your rock and roll, and DRIFT AWAY

since he just sits on a stool. His compatriot chided that that's simply not done in a Vegas room and then queried further to see if Bobby had acquired a lighting consultant. Bobby's reply was, "Who needs a lighting expert, you just put a blue one on for a slow song and a red one for a fast number." It was organic "honey" all the way—just a stool and two colored spots and, in the end, rave reviews.

The latest milestone in Bobby's career is "The Bobby Goldsboro Show," a television show now syndicated in 92 markets. The ratings have been so high that it could evolve into a major network show. The General Mills package calls for 19 originals. Bobby commutes from Nashville to Hollywood to tape the show (so it appears many stewardesses will have a chance to marvel at Bobby's talking frog ring).

He also has a new album and a certain top-ten single contender, both called "A Brand New Kind of Love." The new product was recorded at his own Nashville studio called the Soundshop. Grand Funk cut their "Phoenix" LP there, as did Joe Tex his million seller "I Gotcha." Bobby's new album was co-produced by Bob Montgomery.

It was just about time for Bobby to tape his TV show so we followed him, his publicists, two guitars, and a suitcase down the hotel corridor toward the elevator. Bobby paused for a moment to open his suitcase to see if his micro-portable TV set, the actual size of a frog, had been packed. It had. The elevator door opened, and the people and cases entered. When Bobby and his PR got out, he graciously reached back to extend his hand, the one with the frog on it. The elevator door commanded a short hand clasp, and just as Bobby's hand pulled back out of sight, he said something. The elevator went on down, echoing a blissful croak, gribbit, croak, croak. ron baron did a good job he'd hire the group. A guy down the street offered us $125.00 and when we showed up we soon found ourselves running down the street, not sure why, we were about 18 or 19 and we didn't have a union card and, naturally the Police were there."

During The Spinners tenure at Motown, they were guided and coached under the adroit and proficient technology of Charlie Atkins. "Sweet Thing" and "I'll Always Love You" were early Motown successes for them. The Spinners traveled off and on with the Supremes for a couple of years, making appearances at the Philharmonic in New York and Lincoln Center. They also worked with other Motown greats such as Gladys Knight and the Pips. In 1970 Stevie Wonder, wrote directed and produced their big hit "It's A Shame," as well as their follow up record "We'll Have It Made". Then in 1972, The Spinners joined Atlantic. Billy says, "Phillipe Wynne, tenor lead, joining us in '71 is the most natural and a fast study. He fits into the fold like a glove."

Phil says, "I ran away from an orphanage when I was sixteen, and lied about my age and got into the Army and I was in for 7 Years, my ambition, tho, was to be a pro boxer and I was in the Amateur Golden Gloves in Cincinnati in '59. Phil also says that he saw a guy by the name of Larry Hodges outpoint Muhammad Ali in 3-2 minute rounds in Ft. Knox in '57. I was with the Afro Knights in Europe and I also sang with my brothers and sisters in the States. After trying school, I hitchhiked from Texas back to Detroit with a couple of bucks in my pocket." G. C. Cameron's brother heard about the Spinners opening when G. C. left the group. "His brother told me to try out and I got the job," said Phil.

The Spinners are truly a dynamic quintet. They have a wide repertoire, lively dance routine; and they beautifully incorporate impersonations of other personalities. They also have a great touch for comedy. Billy says, "we're fun-like guys and we feel we can hold our own with an entertaining act. The Temps have their lead, The 4 Tops, their harmony, so we've incorporated some of each."

The Spinners started off '73 with a great stand at the Apollo in New York City with the O'jays and in the 2-17 issue of Cash Box, The Spinners have a Thom Bell produced single, "Could It Be I'm Falling In Love," bulleted at #3 in the top 100 singles chart and #1 bulleted listing on the CB R & B chart.

Also, The Spinners wanted to express their appreciation to David Keahey who travels with them. David started, and is president of The Spinners fan club. He gave the group his own rendition of the gold record and even has Spinner's jackets make with the nickname "Kush". David calls them his five fathers. They are gentlemen with soul! don drossell

PASSING REMARKS—Fantasy Records has been awarded another soundtrack with Steve Krantz's AIP animated feature "Heavy Traffic." Their latest soundtrack was "Black Girl" Sonny and Cher have been making a lot of formal and casual public appearances lately. A few Sunday's ago they went to the Wattstax premiere at the Music Center. Earlier that day they were observed riding their ten speed bikes along Wilshire Boulevard. It was their comedy hour sweat shirts that gave them away. . . . Will Tyler, Texas, emerge as the next important record industry dateline? Gladstone, ABC/Dunhill act, recorded their entire LP in the heart of Texas. Kingston, Jamaica, watch out. . . . Al Green, during his recent Forum performance, drawing some 18,000 people, announced there was a superstar in the audience. Who was he? Billy Preston, according to Green. . . . Chicago's Robert Lamm will use six keyboard instruments on stage during the group's February tour. . . . MGM has signed a new act, Kimber and Pelli. Tommy Oliver will arrange the first sides for act. . . . Great Western Gramophone, a Columbia custom label will re-release "Sweet Thursday." It's an album that was released four years ago on Tetragrammaton. The collector's item features Jon Mark, Alun Davies, Brian Odgers, Nicky Hopkins, and Harvey Burns. . . . Speaking of collector's albums, Lou Adler bought back all of Carole King and the City's first albums on Columbia. If you wanted a copy, Carole's own song tells you "It's Too Late". . . . Writer LeRoy Robinson has written a pilot script for Carla and Rufus Thomas. . . . The Bar-Kays got off to a slow start during their opening night at the Whisky. Apparently four armed men forced their way into Bar-Kay Harvey Henderson's hotel room and made off with his clothes, saxophone, money, and jewelry. Fortunately their costumes were being cleaned so Whisky didn't have to bill them "Bar-Kays—topless, bottomless."

Seems that the new Deodato single is causing the biggest pronunciation problem in radio since The Chakachas. All over the country, on-the-spot German lessons are being given to help jocks sound like they know of what they speak (and how). At NYC's WXLO-FM, Wait "Baby" Love was having a problem until a professor of German called him up and told him how to say "Also Sprach Zarathustra" like a Berlin newscaster. Wait was grateful for the aid. Hey Mr. Berlitz, there could be something in all of this for you too!

Pop Best Bets

JOHNNY RIVERS SUPERPAK—United Artists UXS-93

The label has done well in the recent past with Cher two-record sets at a special price. Because of Johnny's current standing as the man with the "Rockin' Pneumonia Boogie Woogie Flu," there should be a new interest in his past hits. And that interest will mean sales here. Of the better known tracks: "Memphis," "Baby, I Need Your Lovin'," "Secret Agent Man" and "Summer Rain." Also included, his version of Jackson Browne's hit, "Rock Me On The Water."

JUGGERNAUTS OF THE EARLY 70'S—Various Artists—Dunhill DSX—50146

Album takes the cake on many fronts. First for the most unusually academic title ever to grace a collective LP. Secondly, for the implication that nostalgia can be but a heartbeat past. And thirdly, for the superb range of material: The MOR sound of Mama Cass, the soul of Eddie Holman, the pop/rock of 3 Dog Night and the Grass Roots, the folk-rock of Jim Croce and the super dynamics of Steppenwolf. A powerpackage indeed.

ENNISMORE — Colin Blunstone — Epic KE 31994

When the Zombies broke up, they eventually came to form two new acts—Argent and the solo vocal career of Colin Blunstone. For Colin's second LP, members of the spin-off group, including leader Rod Argent, assist the ever-amazing Blunstone. His voice does a variety of strange and wonderful things to people who are into listening. "I Don't Believe in Miracles" was a hit single for him in the U. K., and with its release here, it should finally establish Colin as his own man. Another peak is the Argent/White song, "Andorra," about a small European country. Blunstone doesn't believe in musical boundaries, and that coupled with his vocal abilities makes him shine.

DING DONG DADDY!—Peter "Snake Hips" Dean—Project 3 PR 5075SD

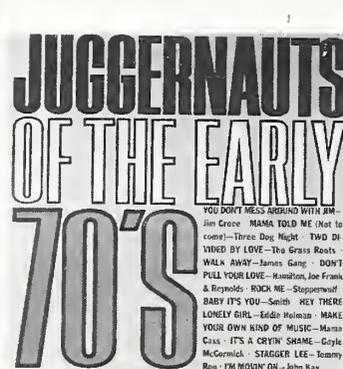

An uncle of Carly Simon and therefore a member of James Taylor's extended musical family, Peter Dean has a charm that extends far beyond the MOR or nostalgia market. Take the title song, famous in '37. When ole Snake Hips gives it a whirl, it really lives in the here and now. There are other equally well-delivered novelties on this LP: "Nagasaki," "I'm Nuts About Screw Music" and "Ja-Da." Some great straighter standards too: "It Had To Be You" and "Lazy River" among them. An album that's truly a pleasure to hear.

LOUISIANA ROCK & ROLL—Potliquor—Janus JLS 3036

There is not much of a Cajun influence in this LP as one might expect from the title of the group's latest. But they are quite distinctive in their own heavy but joyous rock way. "You Can't Get There From Here" which appeared on Casey Kelly's LP is done to a hefty turn here. So too, the song long associated with Albert King, "Born Under A Bad Sign." Best hopes for a hit single will probably hinge on "Rip It Up," one of the archetypal r&r oldies of the 50's. Potliquor brings it up to date with a bang.

BACK UP AGAINST THE WALL—Atlanta Rhythm Section—Decca DL 8-5390

The second album from these studio musicians gone up-front-group is a bit more folk-oriented than their first which received some nice press and sales reaction. The title might imply some kind of revolutionary diatribe going down in the lyrical department; but for the most part, their words are a convincing combination of folk-country concerns and currently popular personal poetry. Most of the tunes are originals; also included, Joe South's "Redneck" and a sixties Otis Blackwell tune, "A Livin' Lovin' Wreck."

Country Broadcasters Set Agenda For Mar. Seminar

Country music broadcasters from four states met in Nashville recently to formulate the agenda topics for this year's seminar to be held March 16-17 at Roger Miller's King of the Road Motor Inn in Music City, USA.

Also in attendance at the weekend meeting were committee members Barbara Starling, Royal American; Charlie Monk, ASCAP; Mac Allen, Acuff-Rose; Tom McEntee, ABC-Dunhill; and Decca recording artist Bill Anderson, who will serve as keynote speaker for the forthcoming 4th annual Country Radio Seminar.

As a result of the initial agenda conference, the scheduled two-day workshop for 1973 has been specifically designed towards stimulating thought within each individual, rather than answering all questions or solving a multitude of problems.

Keynote speaker Bill Anderson is slated to begin the session at 9:30 am on March 16 with his address, which will deal with various aspects pertaining to the image of today's country music.

The seminar will then continue with a discussion/information session in regard to rating services and the questions "Do You Understand Them?" and "Do You Know How To Use Them?"

There will be a period of several hours devoted to the product of country music and the question "Where Is It Going?". This particular segment is to be treated from the standpoint of sales people, promotion men and record producers. A simultaneous session will be held during this time for general managers on the subject of computer broadcasting.

Additionally, the seminar offers a topic open for discussion on the alternatives of traditional, modern or cross-country, and the question "Which Is Best For You?"

A cocktail party will be hosted on Fri. from 5:30 to 7:30 pm, enabling that day's schedule to conclude with the popular "rap session" between broadcasters and record label representatives.

Saturday's seminar convenes at 9:00 am regarding the radio triumvirate and its 3 areas of broadcasters who are forced to work together, namely the general manager, sales manager and program director.

Further thought stimulation continues throughout the seminar during the allotted agenda area of Double Image, and the topic question of "How's Your Reflection?". This segment will be broken into the two categories of listener image and industry image.

A Saturday afternoon session will center around today's programming puzzle with its topic question "How Do The Pieces Fit?", which has been created in an effort to isolate the various elements of programming by utilizing air-checks to demonstrate quality and conditions that can occur on-the-air.

Stations are urged to send their air-checks to Tom Allen at WIL for the purpose of possible presentation in this portion of the program.

A banquet and "New Faces" show at 7:00 pm will be staged as the grand finale event of what automatically lends itself to be a profitable affair for all serious-minded country radio broadcasters and general managers.

An attendance of over 200 is expected, and reservations should be made immediately by writing to Charlie Monk, ASCAP, 700 Seventeenth Avenue, South, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

Country Artist of the Week:

GEORGE JONES & TAMMY WYNETTE

"We Go Together" — George Jones & Tammy Wynette, Mr. "Country Soul" and the "First Lady of Country," also double as strong artists as singles in their own right. With the release of their first Epic album "We Go Together," everyone's storybook couple finally got together.

Since their marriage in 1969 each successive release is seemingly dedicated to their "togetherness" with their current album, titled "Let's Build A World Together."

Mississippi born Tammy has succeeded in capturing the hearts and ears of the record buying public to the extent that she became the first female singer with a country repertoire to have an album sell in excess of one million. As writer and artist, she has been at the top of the charts constantly with singles and albums. Her outstanding singles include, "Your Good Girl's Gonna Go Bad," "I Don't Wanna Play House," "I'll See Him Through," "He Loves Me All The Way," "Run Woman Run," "The Wonders You Perform," "We Sure Can Love Each Other," "Good Lovin'," "Bedtime Story," "Stand By Your Man," and her current top single is titled "Till I Get It Right".

Tammy currently has eighteen albums in release and it is not unusual for her to have four or five albums on the charts simultaneously.

For four consecutive years Tammy was the winner of the Country Music Association of America's top female vocalist award, won two Grammys as best female vocalist and just about every other award she could possibly win. She is one of the most honored performers in country music today.

Texas born George Jones is an artist whose success has established him as one of the most consistent top ten artists in country music, an artist who commands respect from the entire music industry and whose ability and talent has molded many others in their climb to success. He has recorded more than 400 songs during his career and 82 albums are to his credit. After "Why Baby Why," every song release was a hit! Some of his best known tunes he recorded are: "Good Year For The Roses," "Things Have Gone To Pieces," "A Girl I Used To Know," "The Race Is On," "We Must Have Been Out Of Our Minds," "Milwaukee Here I Come," "If My Heart Had Windows," "I'll Share My World With You," and "Walk Through This World With Me" (his best seller to date). His current top single is "What My Woman Can't Do".

Today the George Jones & Tammy Wynette Show is in constant demand for television, stage, and movie appearances. They have also constructed The Old Plantation Music Park near Lakeland, Florida where shows are held twice monthly, all year around.

Columbia/Epic Billy Sherill is producer of all recording done by George and Tammy with the Shorty Lavender Talent Agency, Inc. handling exclusive booking.

A free bonus presently offered by Epic Records is an exclusive interview with Tammy and George. The disc is available upon request to the Nashville Epic office.

Hits of the Week

MARTY ROBBINS (MCA 40012)

Franklin, Tennessee (3:03) (Mariposa, BMI—M. Robbins)

Marty's new tune should cultivate immediate reaction from his followers. The song is about a guy who went out to make it big but didn't and now because of his pride and the lies he told to the folks back home, he can't. A soft ballad that will be right up there in the coming weeks. Flip: "Walking Piece of Heaven" (3:02) (Same credits)

DAVE DUDLEY (Mercury 73367)

Keep On Truckin' (2:01) (Newkeys, BMI—R. Rogers)

Dave's new song will definitely make a big splash because it contains the "magic" that is very important. A contagious beat which along with lyrics we can all identify with are a superb marriage. The lyrical line involves the cycle of life and how no matter what goes wrong, we must go on to attain what we want. Flip: It Won't Hurt As Much Tomorrow (2:21) (Six Days, BMI—D. Dudley)

DIANA TRASK (Dot DOA—17448)

Say When (2:03) (Gallico/Algee, BMI—Bruce, Wilson, Taylor)

Diana's latest should put her back up there where she belongs. The theme is about a gal who loves someone and isn't loved yet by him but will take him whenever he does "say when". A bouncy toe-tapper that should do well on country stations and charts but could also hit on the pop/MOR scene as well. Flip: Old Southern Cotton Town (2:27) (Algee/Altam, BMI—Taylor, Wilson, Trask)

CHARLIE MCCOY (Monument ZS7-8566)

Orange Blossom Special (2:48) (MCA, ASCAP—E. T. Rouse)

A new version of the old Johnny Cash song that will go places very fast. A steady harmonica rift throughout the entire song make this a definite hit. This is one instrumental that is surely worth programming and one that will become a classic. Flip: no info. available.

ELIZABETH (Paramount PAA-0197)

Stop Killing Me With Kindness (2:57) (Empty Pockets, ASCAP—E. Corrigan)

Elizabeth, a dynamite newcomer to the disk field, has a tune here that could possibly go all the way. The song was composed by her and it concerns an unfaithful husband who doesn't want her to leave because he doesn't want to hurt her yet in reality he is with his kindness. This song with a flair of country has the magic to make it on the pop/MOR scene as well. Flip: Oh Bird (3:49) (Empty Pockets, ASCAP—Corrigan, Bagby)

Nat Stuckey says "Take Time To Love Her". Archie Campbell added a new gamut to his already expanded career when he was named president of the Crockett Springs Country Club in Music City. The club, which opened October, 1972 with Campbell one of the founders, has become the home of the annual Music City Pro-Celebrity Golf Tournament which draws the name pros and entertainment celebrities from all over the country.

Cactus Records has been acquired by Quasar Corporation. The sale was completed in early January 1 with Tom Collins named to head operations for the record label. Cedarwood Publishing currently holds the publishing rights on the #1 charted song in Australia, a John D. Loudermilk tune titled "Midnight Buss". The single is recorded on Fabel Records and sung by Johnny Chester.

Dave Barton, who has been associated with Hubert Long Talent for the past several years, has now joined the staff of the Neal Agency in an expansion move made to better serve their present clients, and anticipated future clients in the growth pattern of the national booking office. When Charley Pride recently performed his road show at the Atlanta Federal Prison for 16,000 persons, he added a little humor by announcing that he has 19 albums now on the market and he hoped they would "pick up" one or two when it became convenient. But, he added, don't forget to pay for them!

The baby waving high on the Ace Of Hearts advertising of "Mergie, Who's Watching The Baby" is none other than promo man Gene Kennedy's grandson. Little Richie Johnson is working on several new discs. The new singles include Web Pierce, Faron Young, Moms & Dads, Davey Kershaw, and several others. DJ's may obtain copies by writing Little Richie Johnson, Box 3, Belen, New Mexico, 87002. Atlantic Records has announced the signing of Marty Brown to a long-term exclusive recording contract. Marty's first release for the label's newly formed country division will be produced by David Briggs, according to Rich Sanjek, division manager.

Capitol's Freddie Hart has just completed two segments of "The Ian Tyson Show," currently in syndication in both Canada and the U.S. The shows were filmed in Toronto, and will be aired this spring. It took two years and over $200.00 for Jeannie Seely to formally copyright her "Miss Country Soul" nickname, but the Decca songstress received notarized certification from Washington recently that the handle was her own personal property effective immediately. Bonnie Rasmussen is new "gal friday" at Top Billing, Inc. in Nashville coordinating admin duties with Barbara Farnsworth.

Cotton Harp, long time and well known musician and associate of Little Richie Johnson has signed a recording contract with KAJAC Records of Des Moines, Iowa. Waylon Jennings produced the latest Doyle Holly session for Barnaby Records; "Slow Poke" was just one of the tunes resulting from this meshing of talents. Loretta Lynn's next lp offering for Decca will, appropriately enough, be titled "Entertainer Of The Year, Loretta". Loretta will be featured in the CMA special on February 25th on NBC TV and also return to the Dinah Shore Show this month.

The Judy Lynn Show is currently headlining the San Antonio Rodeo, February 13th-15th. Judy's one half hour color syndicated TV show started February 4th over a three station network in North Dakota, KXMC-TV, Minot; KXMB-TV, Bismark and KXMD-TV, Williston, to be aired every Sunday night, with Fargo carrying the show every Saturday night for an entire state coverage. George Hamilton, IV, back home in North Carolina after a ten day tour of Western Canada during which he did two network TV shows, The Tommy Banks and Ian Tyson Shows and promoted his new RCA Canadian released LP "Out West Country."

Larry Butler and Columbia and Epic Records have signed a pact that calls for Butler to produce a number of the label's acts. Butler, who has built himself an impressive track record as an independent producer, is presently responsible for such acts as Johnny Cash, The Carter Family, Dick Feller, Johnny Williams, Jean Shephard, and Tom Rapp. His production company, Larry Butler Productions, Inc. is already affiliated with United Artists, Columbia, Epic, and Paramount Records. In a recent announcement from Dot Records, it was disclosed Donna Fargo has been voted as "Best Country Female Singer Of The Year" by KLAC, in Los Angeles. The California country outlet also awarded Miss Fargo's single "Funny Face" as the "Best Country Record Of The Year". A former school teacher-turned-singer the Dot recording artist additionally enjoyed the recent honor of becoming country music's first female to ever have two gold records in a row. Her hits of "Happiest Girl in the Whole USA" and "Funny Face" both sold over a million copies each.

The Abe Lincoln Awards made February 7 and 8 in Fort Worth, Texas are presented yearly by the Southern Baptist Radio and Television Commission to broadcasters who have made significant contributions to public service programming. The Commission syndicates the Country Crossroads radio show for which Leroy Van Dyke is co-host. RCA's Skeeter

Davis heads for Holland on March 7 for one week on a promotional tour.

Lefty Frizzell, who will have a new album released by ABC-Dunhill, has been hospitalized and is undergoing tests. Jim Ed Brown is working on a "drinking album" for RCA release in the near future. Jim's current single which is climbing the charts is titled "Unbelievable Love". Arranger, conductor, Hank Levine, has been set to do the arranging and musical direction for Dan Stevens formerly of the "Four Guys". Stevens and his new group, will begin touring in a couple of weeks in Canada and wind their way down to Las Vegas.

Naomi Martin has signed an exclusive agreement with Cedarwood Publishing Company. Country folk music veteran Mac Wiseman just taped the Ian Tyson Show in Canada then returned to Nashville where he's working on plans for his third annual bluegrass festival at Renfro Valley, Kentucky. He's also working on promoting his new RCA album, "Concert Favorites by Mac Wiseman". Boudleaux and Felice Bryant penned Billy Walker's new MGM release titled "My Mind Hangs On To You".

Pert Pam Dickinson will appear with the Faron Young show in Montgomery, Alabama on February 16-17. Porter Wagoner, Dolly Parton, Johnny Bush, Skeeter Davis, Bill Anderson, and Roy Acuff, Bill Monrow, and Loretta Lynn are just a few of the many artists who will be on hand for the 1973 International Country Music Fan Fair. The fair which will take place in Nashville from June 6 through June 10, at the city's municipal auditorium is the only event of this type held exclusively for country music fans. According to fan fair chairman Bud Wendell, this year's participants will be viewing nearly every top country music act in the business.

Country LP Reviews

KEEP ME IN MIND—Lynn Anderson—Columbia KC 32078

The magic of Lynn Anderson really comes through on her latest offering from Columbia. It contains her chart climbing single, "Keep Me In Mind" and she does an absolutely beautiful rendition of the Mac Davis tune "I Believe In Music" and from the entire emotion put fourth on this disk it is very evident that she really does believe in music. This album should stir up considerable chart activity. Also included are: A Perfect Match; The City Of New Orleans and seven others.

THE LEGEND OF HANK WILLIAMS—Hank Williams/Hank Williams, Jr.—MGM SES-4865

This album is a memorial to Hank in song and in story. It is an in-depth disk into his impact on the industry and it is narrated by his son. An interesting offering is the duet between father and son made possible by today's electronic overdubbing. There are thirteen songs and some very good narration. It will draw immense audience reaction and it is a definite collectors item.

THE FIRST SONGS OF THE FIRST LADY—Tammy Wynette—Epic KEG 30358

This new two record set is actually two old albums combined but yet that has no bearing on the charm of this package. It contains Tammy's early tunes from her beginnings and it features her first single "Apartment #9." All in all there are twenty songs and it is a definite must for her many fans and it will gain her many, many more.

Country Roundup

Indicative of the impact of Tom T. Hall's Mercury hit "Old Dogs, Children, and Watermelon Wine," was a scene witnessed in Atlanta last by David Allan Coe. Coe reported he was in Mac's Place on Peachtree Street when he noticed an elderly gentleman walk in who looked as if he "was the loneliest man in the world". The patron silently walked to the bar, asked if he could have $4.00 worth of change and proceeded to feed the whole amount into the jukebox—coin at a time—and spent the next few hours listening to Hall's record.

Larry Butler and Larry Lee have just finished LP's on U.A. recording artist Dick Feller and Paramount's Tom Rapp. The first KD JW artist appreciation award was presented to MGM recording artist Mel Tillis on his last visit to Amarillo, Texas. The award was designed to let the artist know how much KD JW and the country music fans of the Texas panhandle appreciate their great talent, their contribution to country music, and effort put forth on stage. Presenting the award to Mel was KD JW's Dugg Collins. Jeris Ross is one of the few gals around admitting to their age as she confesses, "I can still fly another year on "Youth Fare". And as part of the jet set she'll be making appearances this month (Feb.) in Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, and Colorado. Her current single for Candy Records is "Two Below In Tupelo".

Stax' super singer O. B. McClinton is recording a "live" album at Randy's Rodeo in San Antonio. The Oak Ridge Boys have followed their Dove-winning "Light" album with another Heart Warming LP which has been titled "Street Gospel". The Oaks, who won a Grammy in 1971, are also among the five finalists in this year's NARAS awards ceremonies to be staged in Nashville March 3.

SUPERSELLER! — Just around this time a year ago a silver disk was awarded for the sale of 20,000 albums of a rock musical. It was the Danish recording of "Hair", produced by Johnny Reimar, which accounted for this impressive sale. This success was an incentive for Johnny Reimar to also record the first local version of "Jesus Christ Superstar," the performance of which in this country was a success.

Recently "Mary Magdalena," alias singer Ann Liza, who these days is having another great, personal success in the female lead part of the new musical "Two Gentlemen of Verona," on behalf of the Danish Superstar team received a silver disk as a token of Superstar record number 20,000 passing over the dealer counter. Form Western Canada Assoc.

VANCOUVER — From an informal get-together last July, of a number of people involved in the music industry in Vancouver, a new association has emerged in Western Canada, the WESTERN CANADIAN RECORDED MUSIC ASSOCIATION (WCRMA).

Federally constituted last Nov., WCRMA held its first annual meeting in Edmonton, Alberta on Dec. 14, a meeting at which some 20 members were represented.

Also attending the meeting were Arnold Gosewich representing the Canadian Record Industry Association (CRIA) and Jan Matecjek on behalf of CAPAC.

Officer and Board Members elected were: president—John Rodney (Rada Record Pressings Limited); vice president—Ralph Harding (Studio 3 Productions); secretary—Don Marsh (Stoney Productions Ltd.); director—Doug Hutton (Doug Hutton Music); director—Alex Groshak (V Records Ltd.).

WCRMA has received expressions of support from each of the governments of the Western Provinces (Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia) as well as from the private sector.

Initially, WCRMA will be in touch with CIRPA and CRIA to explore all avenues of cooperation including the possibility of establishing one strong and truly national body which can adequately attend the needs and problems of all members of the Canadian music industry.

Some of the areas of needed attention on a national scale are those of Federal sales taxes, duties and excise taxes, and special incentives as applied to the music industry. A consistent interpretation and application of the various Acts by all regional offices of government will be sought.

Other areas of involvement were considered, including the establishment of information outlets through and from which writers and artists might learn more about the "ways and means" of the music industry in Canada; establishment of a permanent secretariat (head office) for the WCRMA as an information gathering and disseminating centre; approaches to the Canadian Association of Broadcasters (CAB) to improve cooperation between music industry and radio; cooperation with such bodies as AMC (Alberta Music Conference), etc.

Further bulletins on the activities of the WCRMA will be issued as new developments take place.

Peak Attendance, More Amusements Characterize 29th Annual A.T.E.

A long view of the exhibits, with the London Coin Machines display prominent.

EDITORIAL:

The present condition of the European coin machine market is both healthy and dynamic . . . perhaps with the accent on the word "dynamic." While many of the States in the US are currently pondering a move to legalize casino gambling (and the fruit machines therein), both Sweden and Belgium have taken an opposite turn of late. Today, Antwerp is just about the only Belgian city where payouts are operating; Sweden has restricted the operation of such equipment to licensed liquor locations only.

With Europeans obviously looking deeper into the pure-amusement machine possibilities for locations previously adorned with payouts, the American operator wonders what implication the expectant liberalization may hold for him. In any event, the domination of the world market by American-manufactured amusement devices remains intact.

It appears once again that the global industry, whether getting cold one place while getting hot in another, will always continue to make money.

LONDON — The 29th annual Amusement Trades Exhibition (A.T.E.) held Jan. 31, Feb. 1-2 here at Alexandra Palace, closed with most exhibitors' sales books bulging with orders. Twenty per cent more exhibition space was utilized (with the Palm Court being given over exclusively to kiddie rides).

American show-going distributors and factory representatives found the attendance figure to be "extremely substantial." Great enthusiasm was evidenced at machine and supply exhibit displays, and as stated, quite a bit of business was written up for both purely amusement items as well as payout machines.

Indeed, showgoers reported a bulk of the equipment on display was of the pure-amusement variety. English-styled payouts are not legal in many continental countries and therefore, the amusement items were the drawing card for more of the foreign visitors.

German arcade veteran Lars Skriver (Gebruder Skriver) told Cash Box that his impression of this year's event was that there was much more to attract the continental buyer with so many more amusement devices were on sale this time.

Foreign exhibitors', whose equipment excited American distributors, were headed by ALCA and SEGA. ALCA's 'Attack' target game (a smaller version than its predecessor) and SEGA's 'Grand National' and 'Match Lock,' created much excitement among both Americans and foreign dealers. (The SEGA Grand National' is already on sale at several US distributor showrooms).

The atmosphere, enthusiastic as it was, was remarkable, considering the rainy weather which dominated all three days of the exhibition. Americans also found that hotel and entertainment costs have galloped quite a bit higher this time, saying that inflation is one more item the English have imported from the States.

On imports of American-made merchandise, the American domination of the overseas flipper market and phonograph field was clear at the A.T.E. The Europeans interested in selling their wares to State-side tradesters, on the other hand, are really not looking to hit a mass market, but more sensibly a "selective market" which can absorb a more "sensible number of units."

Sterling Forms Solid State Amusement, Markets 'Dollars and Sense' Frame Game

DOLLARS AND SENSE

SOUTHFIELD, MICH — Sy Sterling Associates, Inc., 25 year veterans in the electronics field, have formed a new division called Solid State Amusements to market their S2A line of electronic "frame games." The firm has also released its brand new "Dollars and Sense" item (see cut) to several distributors, and is now in the process of forming a complete coast to coast network of dealers to handle their line.

Sam Russo has been appointed general manager of the new games division. In an interview last week, Russo stated:

"S2A is an electronics manufacturer. We need the steady flow of high volume items to maintain the work force necessary to meet the cyclical requirements of the industrial control business. We picked electronic games as this item because they require the same components, the same capital equipment, the same design capability, and the same work force. However, we realize that if we are to expect our distributors to move our games on a volume basis we are going to have to help them find new markets.

"Just as it did in the Automotive Service field, the company has made an in depth study of the game market. S2A realized that to be successful it needs to offer more than just a variety of games it required a unique marketing plan. Its market research showed that the traditional M.O.A. approach to coin operated amusements tended to be limited in scope. Because these games have always been bulky, noisy, and frankly, a bit honky-tonky, they have been pretty much bar games with a few Truck Stops thrown in for good measure. The new electronic games, on the other hand require no floor space, can be made to blend in with various decors and appeal to people of all ages. Potential customers are wherever people get together for refreshments and relaxation—or to wait for some service to be performed—again, restaurants, taverns, truck stops, resorts, barber shops, automotive service centers and places we haven't even thought of. S2A has researched some of these markets and is continuing to research others. They have prepared promotion to reach these groups through trade magazines and direct mail. The intent is not to sell games direct but to create an expanded market for S2A distributors, the same M.O.A. members who now limit their activity to the taverns and truck stops. "All inquiries resulting from these campaigns will be referred to our distributors. In addition to our promotional efforts, S2A is prepared to conduct seminars for its distributor employees to help them market and service the games.

"Realizing that all amusement devices eventually lose their appeal S2A has been working on a trade-in plan which effectively removes the used games from the market. It intends, through catalogue houses, to develop a home market for used

Bob Walker, MOA Treasurer, Dies at 55

CHICAGO — Robert O. (Bob) Walker, treasurer of MOA, died on Thursday, February 1, at the age of 55. He was elected to the treasurer's post at the association's September meeting in Chicago. Mr. Walker was in his seventh year as an officer of MOA, having served three years as a vice president, prior to which he was a member of the Board of Directors for three years.

Walker entered the coin machine business in 1952 with the formation of Capital Music and Vending in Helena, Montana. His business partner for the past ten years has been Ernest Jacques.

Walker will be well remembered as a soft spoken, but energetic force behind the Montana Operators Association. He served as treasurer and as president, and was responsible for bringing many Montana people into the MOA as members. He has also won praise for his abilities on the legislative front.

Survivors include the widow, Rose; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Edquist of Tucson, Arizona; and a brother, Francis G. Walker of Wisconsin Rapids, Wisconsin.

MOA's executive vice president Fred Granger expressed the deep sympathy of the officers, board of directors and membership of MOA. According to the association's by-laws, the Board will elect someone to fill Walker's unexpired term of office.

games without coin boxes.

"Even in its direct approach to selling Solid State Amusements has some innovations. Since practically all work on S2A games is done in house it is possible to bring a new game to market in 30 to 60 days. Taking advantage of this, S2A offers several plans which give a distributor everything from a 60 day exclusive on a distinctive screen to a complete exclusive on a given game. This in turn has untold possibilities for creating new markets," Russo concluded.

ARA and FTC Settle Problem

PHILADELPHIA — The following statement was issued by Davre J. Davidson, chairman of the board of ARA Services, Inc.

"ARA Services is pleased to announce that it has arrived at a settlement regarding the proposed complaint by the FTC challenging certain acquisitions of publication distribution companies. Under the settlement, ARA will divest, within one year, periodical volume of $6.9 million annual volume. The agreement also restricts future acquisitions by ARA in the periodical distribution business.

"Specified for divestiture are $3 million in volume in the Los Angeles Metropolitan area and also two publication distribution units; one in Rome, Georgia, and another in Davenport, Iowa, with aggregate 1972 sales of approximately $3.9 million. Total ARA Services publication distribution revenues in fiscal 1972 were approximately $115 million.

The settlement was reached in the spirit of cooperation in an endeavor to bring the proceedings to an early resolution, thus avoiding the costs of extended litigation and the unproductive use of management's time.

"Over the past several years during which ARA has been involved in periodical distribution, the Company has brought together an outstanding management team that has helped to improve efficiency and lower costs in periodical distribution. These contributions have been of benefit to publishers, retailers and consumers."

Mondial Int'l Marketing New "Screwball" Game

SCREWBALL

NEW YORK — Mondial International has announced the official release of a brand new coin-op table game called 'Screwball'. The machine is fully mechanical, smaller in size to the standard table soccer game and comes shipped with a 10¢ chute.

'Screwball' is a new thing in table games. Two (or four) can play. Two flipper bats are located at each end of the playfield (turned by knobs atop each corner). Players attempt to bat the ball into the opponent's goal vent, while trying to keep him from hitting into their own. There is approximately just enough space between the two bats (when pointed at each other) to permit the ball to pass through. Five balls per game.

Play of the game is both exciting and quick. So quick and exciting, according to Mondial sales exec Dick Sarkisian, that grosses on test locations (covering over one month on locations) "are phenomenal". Sarkisian advised that even on dimes, grosses have achieved in excess of $40 per week and on a sustained basis.

The unit can be assembled after delivery in approximately five minutes. Sarkisian says it's a great tavern piece, in addition to its obvious merits in arcades and as a companion machine to table soccers.

Mondial is now in the process of completing its network of distributors in addition to those now handling the line.

Philip Morris Ups Cig Price

NEW YORK — Philip Morris U.S.A. announced on Feb. 2nd in a mailing to its direct buying accounts, that, effective immediately, the list price of all its cigarette brands is increased by $.20 (twenty cents) per thousand.

The notice said that "all orders on hand, including standing orders and orders for future shipment which are shipped February 5, 1973 or thereafter, will be invoiced at the new price."

Wyoming Factory Intro's Air Game

LARAMIE, WYOMING—Atec, Inc., a games factory located here in Laramie, has introduced a shuffle game called "Flying Chukar" complete with an air-assist cushion across the playfield. Firm exec Duane Snelling claims the coin-operated item is "really catching on in this area" and is inviting inquiries from coin machine distributors to handle the line.

The machine operates on a 25¢ chute, measures 8 feet in length and 31½" in width.

Wurlitzer Engineers Hold Seminars In Tampa and Ocala

NORTH TONAWANDA — Wurlitzer servicemen attended two-day service seminars in Ocala and Tampa, Florida, January 11, 12, 16 and 17. The two seminars were conducted by Wurlitzer field service engineer Harry Gregg. Each two-day service seminar is an in-depth work/study seminar designed to familiarize jukebox servicemen with the electrical and mechanical elements of the Wurlitzer Americana phonograph.

John A. Flink of American Amusements in Ocala and John H. Anderson of Rainbow Music Company in Tampa were the finalists drawn in the Wurlitzer Serviceman's Sweepstakes at the Florida Seminars. Contest finalists are being drawn at each of the Wurlitzer two-day seminars held between January 5 and May 25, 1973.

A Grand Prize winner will be selected from among the finalists on June 1, 1973, at the North Tonawanda Plant. The Grand Prize is an all-expense paid weekend for two at a famous fishing, golfing or sightseeing resort in the winner's geographic area.

Other finalists already chosen for the sweepstakes grand prize drawing are John Erie of Dunagan Music Company in Lordsburg, New Mexico, J. W. Gregory of Gila Music Company in Safford, Arizona, John Stillman of Sullivan's Vending in Montour Falls, New York and Leslie F. Stanek of A & G Vending in Endicott, New York. Wurlitzer expects the sweepstakes to be an important factor in bringing servicemen to the schools.

Those attending the two-day Seminar in Ocala, Florida, January 11 and 12 included: John A. Flink, Gaylord Lounsberry and Alan Lounsberry, American Amusements in Ocala; Joseph W. Harrell and Gene Dewey, Harrell Amusement Company in

Williams' DeSelm Sees Total 25¢ Shuffle/Pin Play

CHICAGO — "Twenty-five cent play is the next step in pricing for a profitable operation of coin-operated amusement games," said Bill DeSelm of Williams Electronics, Inc. last week. "The conversion to one play for a quarter will be simplified by the fact that 2-25c play has been so widely accepted across the country," he pointed out. "Patrons are accustomed to depositing a quarter in the coin slot these days."

"Many rifles and arcade pieces are already on one play for 25c," Bill added, "flipper games and shuffle alleys must follow. The money is available and the time is limited, since prime time in most locations is less than three hours per day."

In conclusion he said, "25c play will make the difference between a small profit and a sound profitable operation. Every day lost to low pricing is gone forever, so the time to act is right now. Operators making the change will enjoy equitable profits on their investments."

Ariz. Automation Markets Home Model

CHICAGO — Fred Gabriel, vice president of Phoenix-based Arizona Automation Inc., announced the release of the new 1973 "Club" model, non-coin operated, Champion Soccer game.

Pointing to the similarity in design and play of the Champion Soccer and the non-coin operated version Gabriel said, "The appearance of the Club model is virtually identical to the coin operated version. It has the same sturdy construction for which Champion Soccer is famous. We feel Champion Soccer-Club opens up a whole new field in the area of non-coin operated recreational equipment, where there is a large demand for professional quality table soccer games."

"Heretofore," Gabriel added, "it was necessary to go to strictly coin-operated units to provide professional quality in table soccer games. However, with Champion Soccer-Club there is the finest quality and playing action available, but with a considerably lower price."

The new units are currently in the process of being shipped to Arizona Automation distributors throughout the country.

CHICAGO CHATTER

Arizona Automation Inc. of Phoenix has just released a new, non-coin operated version, of its hit selling Champion Soccer game. The new unit is called Champion Soccer-Club and it is currently being sample shipped to Arizona Automation distributors across the country. Operators are invited to stop in and have a look at it.

THE SHERMAN HOUSE HOTEL closed its doors last week and will very shortly be torn down to make way for a new structure, possibly a hotel with exhibit facilities comparable to those of McCormick Place. The Sherman's final days were sad ones for many Chicagoans who remember it as one of the oldest and, at one time, one of the most popular, hotels in the city.

CHICAGO DYNAMIC INDUSTRIES execs Avron Gensburg and Bob Sherwood said the ATE show in London was very successful this year. The ChiCoin booth, manned by Avron, Bob and the firm's European representative Carl Goetting, attracted a steady flow of convention visitors and was a stopping off point for many American coin people who attended the show. During the ATE banquet Bob Sherwood won a beautiful color TV set which he donated, in the name of Chicago Dynamic Industries, to the Children's Home of London, ATE's pet charity! A fine gesture! Among the familiar faces spotted on the exhibit floor were Joe Barton, Irv Margold, Marshall Caras, Ed Shaeffer, Joe Robbins and Bob Portale, to name a few.

SORRY TO HEAR OF the death of MOA treasurer Bob Walker, who passed away on February 1. Our condolences to the Walker family.

RECEIVED THE GOOD WORD from Bally's director of marketing Ross Scheer that the firm's new 2-player air-cushion puck game "Hover" will be ready for domestic delivery within the next week or so! It was displayed at the recent ATE show in London and, we understand, it was a big hit!

TOP PRIORITY ITEMS on the Williams Electronics Inc. delivery schedule are "Travel Time," "Ambush" and "Cape Cod." All three games are doing very well, according to Bill DeSelm! As a matter of fact, Bill said their production lines are maintaining overtime schedules in an effort to meet the demand!

D. GOTTLIEB & CO. GAMES ARE A SENSATION IN TAHITI! During Alvin Gottlieb's recent vacation trip to the South Pacific he spent some time on the island of Tahiti and was quite pleasantly surprised at the number of Gottlieb games (multiple players as well) on location out there. "I expected to see some equipment on the island," he said, "but certainly not in such quantity!" He was telling us they motored around the island, frequently stopping for refreshments or just to look around—and lo and behold, even in the most remote spot, there would be a Gottlieb game on display and very much in use! . . . At present, the Gottlieb factory is concentrating on producing and shipping its current biggie "Pro Football"!

DATES OF THE UPCOMING NAMA Western Show are April 6-8, at the Community Concourse in San Diego, California. Headquarters hotel is the Royal Inn at the Wharf.

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

Bob Rondeau of Empire Dist. in Green Bay has tentatively set up the dates of February 14 and 15, for a two-day Rock-Ola service school, to be held at the distrib's Main Street premises. Rock-Ola field engineer Bill Findlay will conduct, with an assist from Empire's Joe Eggner. Invitations are going out shortly to operators and service reps from the areas of Wisconsin and the upper peninsula of Michigan . . . Incidentally, Bob received his first shipment of Midway's "Duck Hunt" last week and was quite excited about it, since he had several orders waiting from ops who stopped in to see the sample model and really flipped over it!

SERVICE IS STILL THE KEY WORD AT RADIO DOCTORS! Stu Glassman is forever instituting additional services, "the little extra's" as he calls them, to help operator customers at the popular one-stop. Most recently the "new release acetate color service" was put into use. It's a very simple method whereby various color plastic indicators are placed over the regular title strips on the juke box so that records can be easily distinguished and new releases spotlighted as to the category of music, by the color of the acetate strip. (i.e. green for instrumental, brown for c&w, blue for r&b and so on). Even the location patron who forgot his glasses (!) or had too much to drink can make his selections with no trouble at all! The idea has been very successful with ops. Stu said, "We started out with a couple of hundred strips and are now ordering them by the thousand!" Another "extra" ops appreciate, he added, is the "customer inventory book" which is a copy of each operator's weekly order, registered in a steno pad and kept handy, so that the busy op who might have forgotten the quantity or titles he ordered can very easily check it out with a phone call!

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

HENRY LEYSER, of A.C.A. Sales & Service, and BOB PORTALE of Portale Automatic Sales, were among small but influential delegation of West Coast coin people who attended the recent Amusement Trades Exhibition in London. Both parties eyed up a number of amusement machine ideas debuted at that convention. Hank interested in new Kansai and SEGA equipment there. . . . The gang over at Circle International singing the praises of the now-fabled Brunswick 'Air Hockey' game, reporting brisk sales to operators and just as brisk collections for operators. . . . AMI's Monte Carlo and Deauville phonographs continue to sell very well at Circle, as evidenced by many on location hereabouts. . . . Marshall McKee of the still new McKee Distributing Co. in Portland reports first year's sales just fine. Marshall tips his experienced hat to the Wurlitzer music box line, with special praise for the continued popularity of their Cabaret furniture-styled phono. Also info's that Wurlitzer will be unveiling a "sensational new music product" this April (the latter unit was previously previewed at Wurlitzer's Acapulco dealer meeting last fall). . . . Hank Tronic at C. A. Robinson eyeing big biz ahead with Bally's brand new 'Hover' hockey game. Unit was shown at the recent A.T.E. thing overseas and bulk deliveries from Bally's Belgium plant (where the unit is being made) are expected to arrive stateside shortly.

A great way to get bagged.

Barrabas – the great new group from Spain. "Wild Safari" – their international smash, all over five continents, now released for the first time in the U.S.

Already, discotheques and record dealers here are calling for it and Bill Gavin picked up on it in his January 27th report.

Barrabas. "Wild Safari." A new single and an up-coming album.

RCA Records and Tapes
