Those three "Texans," Mitch Miller, Don George and Bill Randle, puff on their cigars and smile happily as they contemplate the part each of them played in making "Yellow Rose Of Texas" a hit. It all started while Randle, of station WERE in Cleveland and the CBS network, was playing Columbia's "The Confederacy" album. He heard the "Yellow Rose" tune and pointed out to Phil Kahl, the publisher, that it would make a good pop song. Kahl consequently commissioned Don George to write a lyric, dispatched it to Mitch who ent it immediately and the rest is record history.

The Cash Box

The Significance of "The Cash Box"

R & B CHARTS

For years now, there has been no question about the leadership of The Cash Box in the Rhythm 'N Blues field. Anywhere you inquire, The Cash Box Hot Charts have been the criterion by which artists, publishers, record company execs, juke box operators, disk jockeys and retailers have guided themselves.

We have been told about—and witnessed—retailers buying records by going right down our Hot Charts. We have seen juke box operators do the same. And everyone knows that disk jockey after disk jockey programs directly from these charts.

Why has The Cash Box taken on such importance in this field?

Because nowhere else is the information we offer available with the same degree of accuracy, honesty and integrity.

The Cash Box Hot Charts cover the R&B field in its entirety. The charts are compiled with the greatest objectivity possible. And they encompass the widest possible area. In short, The Cash Box charts reflect what is actually happening, not what someone thinks may be happening or what someone would like to have happen.

As a result, we have become the authority in R&B.

And this authority has taken on unsuspected proportions now that R&B has such an overwhelming influence on the Pop field.

There is no Pop A&R man today who does not follow our Hot Charts to the minutest detail. We know for a fact that several top A&R men send for each record as soon as it hits the chart to see whether it is adaptable to the Pop market and to determine which artist could do it.

The significance therefore of our Hot Charts extends far beyond the R&B field. It reaches throughout the entire record business, determining which songs are to go Pop, which records are to be pushed, which artists are to get the hot material.

And just as our leadership in R&B continues to take on new proportions, so does the influence of The Cash Box continue to grow in all other fields. Week by week, month by month, the magazine reaches a larger audience, attains greater recognition, becomes more authoritative.

The purpose of The Cash Box is to serve our subscribers in the best possible way. As we reach for and attain new levels of achievement, we have every confidence that our readers too will progress and prosper and achieve successes beyond those they have ever achieved before.

THE LAURIE SISTERS
(Mercury 70705; 70705x45)

B+ "LOVE AND MARRIAGE" (2:15) [Barton ASCAP-Cahn, Van Heusen] The Laurie Sisters do a big job with a cute novelty from the forthcoming TV musical "Our Town." Light bouncy ditty that has hit qualities. Thrushes are gonna make the grade.

C+ "ANGELS' TEARS" (2:30) [Famous ASCAP-David] An inviting waltz with a tearful story. Delicate song with appeal.

GEORGE SHEARING QUINTET
(MGM 12079; K12079)

B "LOVE IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER" (2:40) [Famous ASCAP-Robin, Gensler] The Shearing Quintet comes up with an easy swinging rhythm arrangement of a standard. The artist's following will get a kick out of this side.

C+ "GET OFF MY BACH" (2:39) [Bayer BMI-Shearing] The boys jump through an up beat cutie with a clever title. Rhythm styling of a Bach theme.

GEORGIE SHAW
(Decca 29679; 9-29679)

B+ "NO ARMS CAN EVER HOLD YOU" (2:46) [Gil BMI-Crafer, Nebb] This is Shaw's best platter since "Till We Two Are One". A beautiful full-voiced rendition of a tremendous new ballad. A chorus enhances the delivery with a soft dreamy backing. Big song.

C+ "LOOK TO YOUR HEART" (2:55) [Barton ASCAP-Van Heusen, Cahn] This half is a tender romantic offering from the forthcoming TV musical "Our Town". Smooth side.

BUDDY MORROW ORCH.
(Wing 90027; 90027x45)

B "KWELA KWELA" (2:07) [Peer International BMI-Carstens, Segal, Styger, DeWail, North] Buddy Morrow comes up with a cute side. It's a bouncy ditty of South African origin. Attractive arrangement. Could catch on and build. Chorus handles the vocal. A song to watch.

C+ "WHO BUT YOU" (3:05) [Criterion ASCAP-Huddleston, Rinker] A good band-chorus arrangement of a warm and wistful ballad. Solid item for the dance floor.

VICO TORRIANI
(London P18242; 45-P18242)

B "MANDOLINO" [—Paul, Michael, Schultz] Vico Torriani, an artist with a brilliant voice, does a Caterina Valente bit as he fashions a delightful ballad in German. A most enjoyable piece of listening. Side has a continental flavor that could make it click.

B "SIMONETTA" [—Fanstock, Caesar, Seigel] The high-voiced songster handles another flirty favorite in the same manner. Wonderful backing on both ends.

DISK OF THE WEEK

"AT MY FRONT DOOR"
[Tollie BMI—Moore, Abner]

"NO ARMS CAN EVER HOLD YOU"
[Gil BMI—Crafer, Nebb]

PAT BOONE
(Dot 15422; 45-15422)

PAT BOONE

● Pat Boone was introduced to the record buying public with a rock and roll tune "Two Hearts". He proved that he could repeat when he hit the top with his tremendous hit version of "Ain't That A Shame". Now the artist heads for three out of three. But it'll be no surprise to us if it's four out of three. Because his latest waxing sounds like a two sided smash. One half "At My Front Door" is the Boone we're familiar with. It features the youngster on another driving rock 'n' roll item tagged "At My Front Door". It's a real house rocker full of rhythm, and it'll be up there in no time flat. But it pleases us to see that Pat is a versatile artist. For on the coupling "No Arms Can Ever Hold You", the songster warbles a beautiful new ballad and he ranks with the best of the crooners. A great song that'll be a sure fire hit. Two great sides to get with quickly.

"NO ARMS CAN EVER HOLD YOU" (2:38) [Gil BMI—Crafer, Nebb]
"BRING ME A BLUEBIRD" (2:07) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Ballard]

THE GAYLORDS
(Mercury 70706; 70706x45)

THE GAYLORDS

● The Gaylords are headed for hitsville once again with a tremendous waxing of a beautiful new piece of material dubbed "No Arms Can Ever Hold You". It's a wonderful tune that has all the characteristics of a top hit song. It's a dramatic, romantic affair, and to give the side an exciting fullness, the boys work with a big chorus in the backdrop. Stirring arrangement of a tune that should be all over the charts in short order. It's definitely the boys' best platter this year. The lower lid is a cornball novelty with a cute bounce beat. It goes under the title "Bring Me A Bluebird". "No Arms" could be a great big hit.

"AMUKIRIKI" (2:52) [Famous ASCAP—Livingston, Russell]
"MAGIC MELODY" (2:10) [Ivis-Trojan BMI—Paul]

LES PAUL & MARY FORD
(Capitol 3248; F-3248)

LES PAUL & MARY FORD

● As their version of "Hummingbird" completes a successful run on the sales lists, Les Paul and Mary Ford team their wonderful talents on a lovely new item that's sure to make the grade in short order. It's a warm and melodic ballad tagged "Amukiriki"—a tune with a great similarity to their smash "Vaya Con Dios". The plaintive melody is very pleasing to the ear. It is the title song of a forthcoming motion picture travel documentary for which the husband and wife team have written the score. This number is heard throughout the flick. Flip side "Magic Melody" is a bouncy guitar instrumental reminiscent of "Meet Mr. Callahan". Mary's voice is heard in the backdrop. Top half is the one to watch.

EDDY HOWARD
(Mercury 70700; 70700x45)

B+ "THE TEEN AGER'S WALTZ" (2:39) [Tee Pee ASCAP—Starr, James] The "Tennessee Waltz" continues to inspire songwriters. On this waxing, Eddy Howard glides thru a lovely waltzer. Soft, appealing ballad. Pretty lyric. Song has a charm about it that could make it a hit. Watch this one.

B "CHOO CHOO CHA CHA" (2:15) [Brandon ASCAP—Hoffman, Manning] Eddy changes the pace and comes up with a cute cha cha ditty. Infectious pleaser. Light and danceable.

XAVIER CUGAT ORCH.
(Epic 9123; 5-9123)

B "AT LAST WE'RE ALONE" (2:29) [Saunders ASCAP—Blane, Martin] A new Cugat debuts on Epic wax with a commercial Latin tempo ballad from the forthcoming pic "The Girl Rush". Chorus handles the vocal effectively. A refreshing Cugat.

B "WHO ME" (2:11) [Lark BMI—Cameron, Wilson, Wegbreit] Abbe Lane is the lead voice on this choral-work arrangement of a cute cha cha novelty. Colorful item very suitable for dancing. Good coupling.

THE DE CASTRO SISTERS
(Abbott 3011; 45-3011)

B+ "TOO LATE NOW" (2:38) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Lerner, Lane] The De Castro Sisters are in great form as they dish across a wonderful version of a terrific standard. Lovely job that could break.

B "GIVE ME TIME" (2:34) [Danielson BMI—De Sylva] The thrushes blend warmly on this tender, sentimental waltz tempo ballad. Pretty melody wed to a fine set of lyrics. Good coupling.

KITTY WHITE
(Mercury 70704; 70704x45)

B+ "THE IMPATIENT YEARS" (2:30) [Barton ASCAP—Cahn, Van Heusen] Mercury's talented find, does a beautiful job on a wonderful new tune from the upcoming TV production "Our Town". Captivating voice. Song could catch on after video showing.

B+ "RICE" (2:33) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—David] A clever bouncy novelty with an imaginative lyric and a cute melody is pertly styled by the versatile artist. Catchy song with hit qualities. Could smash thru. Strong showing.

BILLY WARD & HIS DOMINOES
(King 1502; 45-1502)

C+ "OVER THE RAINBOW" (2:45) [Feist ASCAP—Arlen, Harburg] The rich voiced lead of the Dominoes does a big job with a great old favorite. Stirring delivery full of punch. Group portion is somewhat overarranged.

C+ "GIVE ME YOU" (2:22) [Ward BMI—Ward] This side is better suited for the group's r & b following. A driving beaty deck full of rhythm.

We learn from Ed Robbins (WKNB-Hartford, Conn.) that the recent 16-hour telethon put on for the benefit of the flood victims of Connecticut has almost reached $200,000. The telethon presented more than 75 acts, including Eddie Fisher, Bobby Dukoff, Bobby Sherwood, Frank Verna, Bob Carroll, Ralph Young, Richard Maltby, Archie Bleyer, Matt Dennis, and many more. John Reed King and Bert Parks shared M. C. chores. Ed Robbins just returned from a week's vacation at Tamarack Lodge in the Catskills, which he terms "the cradle of America's dance crazes." Says, "'Course, right now the're flipping over the cha cha. Even managed to learn a few of the basic steps myself."

HARVEY LEMBECK
(WVNJ—Newark, N. J.)

Pic of the week—Harvey Lembeck, who gained national prominence for his comedy role in "Stalag 17," made his disk jockey debut on Monday evening, September 12, from Johnny Johnston's East Side Charcoal Room in New York City, via WVNJ-Newark, N. J. He'll be heard nightly except Sunday from midnight to 2 a.m. . . . Georgie Cook, Decca recording artist in the polka department, has picked up one of Rick Reighard's (WCUE-Akron, O.) pet phrases and incorporated it into the title of his latest release. It's called "The Happy Music Polka." In a letter to Rick, Cook said: "I need not tell you where I got the title as you've been using it ever since you started the polka show (Polka Time) and so it is dedicated to you and your program." . . . WCUE's president, Tim Elliot, has announced that close to five thousand dollars will be spent on new equipment to "increase our flexibility, put more steam into our operation, and improve our service to our listeners." . . . Dick Doty (WHAM-Rochester, N. Y.) tells us of Eileen Mack (radio and publicity) who is now in the Passavant Hospital, 303 East Superior Street, Chicago, Ill. Eileen was to start another radio show in Chicago this month. She was hit on the arm by a golf ball and landed in the hospital with a bloodclot. Attempts are being made now to dissolve the clot. Dick asks all record stars and jockeys to write Eileen to cheer her up. . . . Stephen Paul is lining up a show, "Hello From Broadway," which will be designed for records, guest stars and other phases of the music business. It will take the listener backstage to clubs, concerts, plays, etc. Paul plans to have such stars as Patti Page, Julius La Rosa, Patti Page, Tony Bennett, and others. For the first show Paul will have La Rosa, Patti Page, Dave Dreyer, Bernie Wayne, Irving Deutsch, Lucky Carle from backstage at the Birdland, Mamboland. Paul would like to hear from artists who are interested in appearing on his shows.

(WERE—Cleveland, O.)

Prettiest librarian—Donna Lamb (WERE-Cleveland, O.). Jerry Kay leaving WTIW-New Orleans, La. Jerry will be broadcasting from close to New York, station to be designated shortly. . . . Bill Ballance (KNX-Los Angeles, Calif.) started his new show "Ballance 'N Records" on Sept. 12. Bill will do nothing but play records with no more than 30 seconds between each. . . . WORL-Boston has two new record librarians to take over the duties of Dottie Checchi who has left to enter the convent. They are Claire Checchi (Dottie's sister) and Thomas Carroll.

LILLIAN BRIGGS

● Lillian Briggs, a vibrant young thrush who skyrocketed to stardom on a driving novelty tagged "I Want You To Be My Baby", has on her follow-up platter, two tremendous offerings both of which could be all-out hits. One half is an exciting, fast-moving cornball ditty from the coming film "My Sister Eileen". It's a clever novelty tagged "Give Me A Band And My Baby" and it has a great Charleston flavor. Lillian belts it for all she's worth. On the coupling, the lark changes the pace and lets loose on a sensational piece of blues material titled "It Could've Been Me". The song has one of the best set of lyrics we've heard in a long time and it's the type of tunestuff dee jays love. If it gets a fair share of spins, it'll break big. Miss Briggs is here to stay. Two powerful follow-ups.

RITA RAINES

ⓑ "THE WEDDING SONG" (2:44) [Harper House BMI—Jablon] Rita Raines does an emotional job on a stirring romantic ballad with a load of feeling. Sincere reading. Could catch on and click.

ⓐ "DON'T TOUCH ME" (2:15) [Hill & Range BMI—Cochran, Sterling Carone] This half is a Latin tempo romantic offering with a male chorus assisting in the backdrop.

NORMAN PETTY TRIO

ⓑ "SOLITUDE" (2:30) [American Academy ASCAP—Ellington, Delange, Mills] The Petty Trio, which clicked on an Ellington tune "Mood Indigo", takes another hit from the maestro's pen and fashions it invitingly. Pretty deck.

ⓐ "DARKNESS ON THE DELTA" (1:45) [Joy ASCAP—Symes, Neiburg, Levinson] This side features the artists as instrumentalists on a beaty, rhythm number.

BOB MANNING

ⓑ "BETTER BE CAREFUL" (2:04) [Maggie BMI—Singleton, McCoy] Bob Manning, who, to date, has been doing dreamy ballads, dishes up a rock and roll tune and he handles it strongly. Potent arrangement that could do well.

ⓐ "HONESTLY" (2:08) [Maggie BMI—Singleton, McCoy] On this half the crooner belts out another ballad with a beat. Ok item.

WERNER MULLER ORCH.
(Decca 29670; 9-29670)

ⓑ "VIENI VIENI" (2:06) [M. Witmark ASCAP—Scotto] A flirty instrumental is enchantingly treated by Werner Muller and his Orchestra. Side has that great sound that only European recordings seem to present. Delightful listening. Great side for jukes in the more swanky spots.

ⓐ "SONG OF THE PEARLFISHERS" (3:10) [Picadilly BMI—Bizet, Gaze] This side is a lush and flowery tango wonderfully executed.

ELLA FITZGERALD

ⓑ "THE IMPATIENT YEARS" (2:45) [Barton ASCAP—Van Heusen, Cahn] A lovely tender ballad from the forthcoming TV spec "Our Town," is feelingfully treated by Ella. Warm romantic offering with a beautiful lyric and a touching melody. Could be a big tune.

ⓐ "BUT NOT LIKE MINE" (2:55) [Roosevelt BMI—Welch] Another dream dusted love song read with meaning by the queen.

KAY ARMEN

ⓑ "HE" (2:53) [Avas BMI—Mullen, Richards] The rich voice of Kay Armen is most fitting for this stirring inspirational ballad. Polished job that should take a cut of the final sales.

ⓐ "SUDDENLY THERE'S A VALLEY" (2:47) [Hill & Range BMI—Meyer, Jones] Another fast rising semi-religious tune is capably rendered by the thrush. Echo effect enhances the pretty melody. Both sides face stiff competition.

CHAMP BUTLER & GEORGE CATES
(Coral 61496; 9-61496)

ⓑ "SOMEONE ON YOUR MIND" (2:19) [T. C. Pub. BMI—Houck] A very pretty and unusual ballad is an excellent piece of material for Champ Butler's debut on Coral. Commercial first showing with George Cates' ork supporting.

ⓐ "I WANT TO LOVE YOU" (2:45) [Arc BMI—Nelson, Carry, Freed] A noise making rhythm and blues tune, is fashioned for the pop market by the Champ and Cates. Driving deck.

GERI GALIAN

ⓐ "AUTUMN LEAVES" (2:41) [Capitol Songs ASCAP—Mercer Prevert, Kosma] The pretty oldie that's making a big comeback currently, is fashioned in a mambo tempo by pianist Geri Galian. Inviting, subdued Latin version. Good piece of cover material.

ⓐ "YELLOW ROSE OF TEXAS" —Mambo [Planetary ASCAP—George] The keyboard artist offers a fast moving mambo version of the country's topper "Yellow Rose."

LOU MONTE
(RCA Victor 20-6246; 47-6246)

ⓑ "YALLER YALLER GOLD" (2:18) [Wonderland BMI—Blackburn, Bruns] A cute bouncy novelty that reminds one of the Western era is pleasantly fashioned by Lou. Tune will be used in a forthcoming Disneyland TV production. Disk should stir up noise after video showing.

ⓐ "KING OF THE RIVER" (1:48) [Wonderland BMI—Blackburn Bruns] Another similar colorful ditty from the early west is capably handled by Lou and a chorus. Also from TV production.

THE CASH BOX ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

NEW YORK:

Mitch Miller, riding the crest of the wave with the number one record in the country, "The Yellow Rose Of Texas," fell and broke his nose last week. Mitch tripped over a poodle in his home. . . . The record label on Pat Boone's latest Dot record was printed incorrectly. It lists the song as "No Other Arms." It should be "No Arms Can Ever Hold You." . . . Alan Dean's wife gave birth to a baby boy on September 11 in Miami Beach. . . . Harry Belafonte has contracted to record 72 new songs in six albums for RCA Victor within the next six months. . . . Nice to say hello to Mantovani again. He's back in the U.S. for a concert tour that will take him to several cities and Carnegie Hall in New York. . . . Hal McKusick, has been signed for Victor's new jazz series. He was recorded last week by Jack Lewis. . . . The Chordettes, who record for Cadence, are leaving the Robert Q. Lewis CBS-TV show this week to concentrate on personal appearances in nightclubs, theaters and state fairs. Up till now they had been limited due to their commitments. However, they will remain on Lewis's Saturday morning show. . . . Russ Carlyle, who couldn't get himself arrested a short year and a half ago, has suddenly become one of the hottest band properties in the business, pointing out once again what recordings can do for an artist. Carlyle, whose band opened a four week engagement at the Oh Henry in Chicago last week, broke all existing records. Previous high for the ballroom were two crowds in excess of 3600 people back in 1936 for Ozzie Nelson and Clyde McCoy. This record fell as 4100 people turned out last Saturday night.

CHICAGO:

As the last week of the Ron Terry Show approached many traveled out to the Club Hollywood to get a last look at this grand package. Once again, all raves for that tiny bit of gorgeousness, Evie Eraci. And Ron Terry's suave handling of the Terrytones (formerly The Meadowlarks) and the whole swift-paced, yet smooth and pleasing show. Evie is the showstopper. Wins tremendous applause every performance. Like everyone else we, too, look for this gorgeous armful to go—but right up to stardom. By the way, Evie Eraci and the Terrytones all on Ron's new Kahill Record. . . . Jim Lounsbury all thrilled over the awards to be made to dance winners on his Bandstand Matinee one of the teenager's clickeroo TVers. . . . Decca's Al Chapman all hepped up over the forthcoming appearance of Sammy Davis, Jr. "It'll be bigger than you and me," is the way Al put it. And Al continues to rave about another Al, Hibbler, that is, whose "He" is climbing and climbing. . . . Barney Fields left Label "X" and will freelance in record promotion biz. Will work around Chi, Milwaukee and the midwest. Barney hopes to announce some very interesting accounts, but soon. . . . Hear that Jim Ameche, former Chicagoan, clicking like anything over KLAC in Hollywood. Reports are that he's enjoying top rating. . . . Tom Duggan reported to be ready to back his own waxing of a grand oldie that has but a single mechanical and was made over 35 years ago. In this regard, Irwin Berke says, "I'm worried." And adds, "Tom's liable to come up with the next big record hit." . . . "Seventeen" Boyd Bennett grabbing himself lots of good spotlite with good public relations. . . . Patti Page chosen to sing the national anthem for Armed Forces Day. One more grand honor for a very grand gal. . . . Lou Brownie covering the deejays, juke box ops and everyone else 'round town with his waxing of two great oldies on Wing. Like juke box ops advised Lou, "This record'll stay in the boxes for a long, long time." Both sides of the disk perfectly timed at 1:50. . . . Len Garmisa will be handling Am-Par Records distribution here. Opening his headquarters on South Michigan Avenue. Len formerly in the disk distrib biz and knows how.

HOLLYWOOD:

The majors are still hopping on the Rhythm and Blues tunes and their coverage is getting faster all the time. Imperial records here released Fats Domino's "All By Myself" which immediately took off in the R&B field. Victor was the first to cover it with Vaughn Monroe, and other records are set with top names. . . . George Jay is off to New York on a promotion trip with stops scheduled in Chicago and Milwaukee. . . . DeCastro Sisters new release of "Give Me Time" out on the Abbott label last week and getting good play. Fabor Robison also has a pop hit in LaFawn Paul's "Learning to Love." . . . Sunset Records which recently recorded a "Wild Bill Hickock" album have set an album of Ed Gardner's famous routines called "Duffy's Tavern Revisited." . . . Gloria Wood has signed with Arnie Mills of Gabbe, Lutz and Heller for personal management. . . . Sonny Burke to cut two of his original tunes with a forty piece orchestra for Decca. . . . Ray Wood making the rounds of the stations in his Bermuda shorts plugging Alan Dale's "Rockin' the Cha Cha." . . . Alfred Apaka returns to Honolulu after visiting L.A. disk-jockeys. His new Decca release out last week, "Rainbow In Hawaii" was written by Harry Mabry, prominent Los Angeles attorney. . . . The Paris Sisters, new teenage trio have been held over at the Sands in Vegas to appear with Frank Sinatra. . . . Bob Stearns exiting Record Sales promotion this week. While handling the account, Stearns had two national hits break here in "Suddenly There's a Valley" and "Panche Lopez." . . . The Los Angeles market is becoming increasingly important in breaking hits in the pop as well as the R&B field. Latest example is Capitol's "Black Denim Trousers and Motorcycle Boots." . . . Barney Fields, Label X's Midwest promotion man, in town visiting his dad Joe Rosenfeld of Record Merchandising Co. . . . Mike Kurlan back from San Diego, said Jerry Nesler, KCBQ jockey turned them away at his Record Hop held recently at the Manor Hotel.

VAUGHN MONROE

POPULAR

"SAMMY DAVIS, JR. sings JUST FOR LOVERS"—Decca DL 8170 (12" LP)
 YOU DO SOMETHING TO ME; YOU'RE MY GIRL; COME RAIN OR COME SHINE; BODY AND SOUL; IT'S ALL RIGHT WITH ME; GET OUT OF TOWN; THESE FOOLISH THINGS; WHEN YOUR LOVER HAS GONE; TENDERLY; HAPPY ENDING.

Sammy Davis, who has become one of the world's greatest entertainers, this year proved that he's just as great on wax as he is on the stage. His single records have been selling like hot cakes and his first Decca LP "Starring Sammy Davis, Jr." is still one of the country's best selling albums after having spent some time in the number 1 slot. Even tho the "Starring" LP hit the top spot, it lost a load of sales because many of Davis' fans had already bought in single form the tunes which were later incorporated in the LP. On this release, however, none of the recordings was previously issued. It's all new. The songs are wonderful favorites, most of them standards and they're designed for a romantic atmosphere. If you think Sammy had a big seller in his first LP, watch this one go. There are many great performances on the album. But we think the highlight is the star's 6 min. 2 sec. delivery of what will probably be another Porter standard "It's All Right With Me."

"THE BOY NEXT DOOR"—Roger Williams, piano—Kapp KL-1003 (12" LP)
 YOU'LL NEVER WALK ALONE; THE BOY NEXT DOOR; MY FUNNY VALENTINE; MOONLIGHT IN VERMONT; THERE YOU ARE; STELLA BY STARLIGHT; EVERYONE WANTS SOMETHING; TIL ROSES CRY; EBB TIDE; THE NEARNESS OF YOU; TAKE CARE; IT NEVER ENTERED MY MIND.

Roger Williams, a classically trained pianist, is currently proving that he can play pop music—the type the public wants. And he's doing this with his beautiful hit recording "Autumn Leaves." The recording is heading toward the top and could be one of the year's biggest sellers. As is always the case when a newcomer makes the grade, people want to have more music by the artist. Kapp answers the requests with a lovely 12" LP featuring dreamy piano solos by Williams. The artist is not enhanced by a lush ork as he is on his single hit, but he comes off exceptionally strong as a soloist. He has chosen a dozen great tunes wonderfully suited for the keyboard. Lovely mood music. Disk has big possibilities.

"TONIGHT AT MIDNIGHT"—Steve Allen his piano and Orchestra—Coral CRL 57015 (12" LP)

WHILE WE'RE YOUNG; PLEASE BE KIND; JUNIOR PROM; BOY NEXT DOOR; LET'S FALL IN LOVE; YOU ARE TOO BEAUTIFUL; YOUNG LOVE; YOU BETTER GO NOW; LOVE IS YOUNG; TOMBOY; LAST NIGHT WHILE WE WERE YOUNG; TOO YOUNG.

Steve Allen, a very popular television entertainer and a versatile pianist with a vast following had a strong seller in his first mood music LP for Coral dubbed "Music For Tonight." This album is the follow-up. It's a pretty affair with Allen accompanied by a lush string backing showcasing his keyboard artistry to best advantage. Romantic mood music at its best. Steve has added a great many fans to his following since his last LP was issued. This factor and his excellent choice of material for the new album ought to have a marked effect on the LP's sale. Allen's quartet of originals on this disk are quality merchandise. Good sales material.

"CRAZY OTTO RIDES AGAIN"—Decca DL-8163 (12" LP)

PALESTEENA; MAMMY O' MINE; THE DARKTOWN STRUTTERS' BALL; RAG MOP; IF YOU KNEW SUSIE; TWELFTH STREET RAG; OH JOHNNY, OH JOHNNY OH!; I'LL ALWAYS BE IN LOVE WITH YOU; INDIANA; ALABAMA BOUND; SOMEBODY ELSE IS TAKING MY PLACE; THE CRAZY OTTO RAG.

Fritz Schulz-Reichel, better known as Crazy Otto, knocked the country for a loop this year and started the music biz on the cornball piano kick. Since his debut, he's been selling well both on singles and LP's. His first LP was at one time the country's top seller. Although the cornball rage has died out, Otto has earned for himself a tremendous number of fans who should be just as crazy about his second album as they were about the first. Of the 12 bands in this one, only a few were previously issued as singles. Decca has another strong contender in this item.

"DEE-LIRIOUS"—Lenny Dee—Hi-Fi Organ Solos With A Beat—Decca DL 8165 (12" LP)

THAT'S MY WEAKNESS NOW; TWELFTH STREET RAG; COQUETTE; I'M BEGINNING TO SEE THE LIGHT; OUT OF NOWHERE; THIS OLE HOUSE; GOOD NIGHT SWEETHEART; FIVE O'CLOCK WHISTLE; CHARMACHINE; FIVE FOOT TWO, EYES OF BLUE; CHINATOWN, MY CHINATOWN; CARAVAN.

A few months ago, Lenny Dee came out with a single called "Plantation Boogie." It was an organ solo with a beat, and it caught on big. Immediately following, Decca issues an LP of Lenny's stuff under the title "Dee-Lightful." The album, as did the single, also met with great approval and hit the best seller list. Now the diskery issues another in the Dee series, this one tagged "Dee-Lirious." Any organist is sure to be wild about the album. If it's a swinging organ that you like, this is the album to get. Disk features a dozen standards.

"GENTLEMEN MARRY BRUNETTES"—Jane Russell and Jeanne Crain with Alan Young, Scott Brady and Rudy Vallee—Coral CRL 57013 (12" LP)

In a matter of weeks the whole country will be watching Jane Russell and Jeanne Crain terpsing across the CinemaScope screen in a movie called "Gentlemen Marry Brunettes." Coral has the album. It's a happy go lucky affair loaded with oldies. The disk is lively and inviting. Jane sings for herself in the pic and Anita Ellis does the vocaling for Miss Crain. Johnny Desmond, who's not in the pic, introduces the LP with the title song. The flapper era was a great musical era and the songs employed in this film have lasted thru the years and are still top favorites. As the movie hits the local theatres, retailers oughta enjoy a healthy sale with this LP. Colorful disk full of fun. A single of 2 tunes from the album by Misses Russell and Ellis has been issued by Coral and this record should further promote the sale of the album.

"CREW CUTS GO LONG HAIR"—Mercury MG 20067 (12" LP)

HERE; FULL SET OF EVERYTHING; ON THE ISLE OF MAY; CARMEN'S BOOGIE; WHEN WHEN WHEN; TILL THE END OF TIME; THE URGE; MOSTLY MARTHA; I'M ALWAYS CHASING RAIN-BOWS; RED HOT SERENADE; TONIGHT LOVE; MAMBO YOU.

The Crewcuts, one of the country's top vocal groups, come up with a clever idea and an enjoyable album that their young fans will get a big kick out of. Titled "Crew Cuts Go Long Hair," the album features the polished aggregation on a dozen pop tunes derived from classical melodies and opera. Some items swing and others are dreamy romantic affairs. But they're all attractively executed. Even tho some of the songs the boys have done in the past were any little ditties, the Crewcuts are nevertheless excellent musicians and display their wonderful vocal talents to best advantage here.

"DANCING WITH THE STARS"—Frankie Carle, Gene Krupa, Hal McIntyre, Jack Teagarden, Benny Carter, Count Basie, Will Bradley, Glenn Miller, Neal Hefti, Leroy Anthony, Tony Pastor, Artie Shaw—Epic LN-3136 (12" LP)
Epic has raided Columbia's vaults for this LP and has come up with a terrific selection of old instrumentals by some of the all time great band men listed above. Some of the items swing, but most are of the slow ballad variety. Their tempo is tailor made for dancing and many of the songs heard are all time classics. Should enjoy a fair sale.

CLASSICAL

"MANON LESCAUT"—Giacomo Puccini—Licia Albanese; Robert Merrill; Jussi Bjoerling; Franco Calabrese; Mario Carlin; Plinio Clabassi; Anna Maria Rota—RCA Victor LM-6116—(3-12" LP's)

RCA Victor has put together a complete version of Puccini's "Manon Lescaut," cut only last year at the Opera House in Rome, and starring Licia Albanese and Jussi Bjoerling, with Robert Merrill. The performances of these three, ably supported by a cast of Italian artists, are superb. Add to that the Puccini score, replete with melody, and we have an outstanding offering. The story of the ill-fated Manon is thrillingly sung. Licia Albanese and Jussi Bjoerling combine to make this set a treasure for opera lovers. It is packaged in a box-type album with a complete libretto and an essay on Puccini by Gorge R. Marek. Recommended without qualifications.

TCHAIKOVSKY Symphony No. 6, in B Minor, Op. 74 ("Pathetique") Boston Symphony Orchestra—Pierre Monteux—RCA Victor LM-1901—(1-12" LP)
Pierre Monteux leads the Boston Symphony Orchestra through the familiar Tchaikovsky "Pathetique." One of the most recorded Tchaikovsky works, it is hard to endow the Symphony with a newness—yet that is exactly what Monteux accomplishes. He has created a freshness and excitement that will thrill the listener. Excellent catalog item and a must for anyone not yet possessing a late issue.

BRAHMS "Symphony No. 2, in D, Op. 73"—Claridge Symphony Orchestra—Camden CAL-236—(1-12" LP)

One of Brahms' most familiar works and one which has been oft recorded and proven at the sales counter is offered in the budget priced Camden series. It is an excellent catalog item for the retailer. Performed in excellent manner by the Claridge Symphony Orchestra, it will be a strong addition to any library.

"PSYCHE" Franck—Willem Van Otterloo conducts the Hague Philharmonic Orchestra and the Netherlands Chamber Choir—Epic LC 3146—(1-12" LP)

Willem Van Otterloo guides the Hague Philharmonic Orchestra and the Netherlands Chamber Choir through the gentle, moving Franck symphonic poem for a vivid recording. The delicate shadings of the lacelike work are wafted softly but stirringly. The work emerges with a moving intensity. Album is to be recommended.

JAZZ

LIONEL HAMPTON "ALL AMERICAN AWARD CONCERT"—Decca Records DL 8088 (1-12" LP)

HAMP'S BLUES; I KNOW THAT YOU KNOW; LOOSE WIG; HAMP'S BOOGIE WOOGIE; OH, LADY BE GOOD; EVIL GAL BLUES; RED CROSS; FLYING HOME.

The ubiquitous Lionel Hampton is heard via a recording of his concert at Carnegie Hall on April 15, 1945, a celebration of having been selected number one "New Star" in the annual poll of Esquire Magazine. It is Hampton at his most exciting and driving best. Of course, included in the album is the high flying "Flying Home." With it Hamp concludes the album in a frenzy of excitement. Dinah Washington is heard singing "Evil Gal Blues." Dinah, band singer with Hampton at that time, is caught in a stage of development that is not yet the Dinah we know today. Highlight of the album is the guest trumpet solo by Dizzy Gillespie, who sat in on "Red Cross."

STEVE ALLEN'S "ALL STAR JAZZ CONCERT" featuring the Lawson-Haggart Jazz Band with Sylvia Syms, guest vocalist Billy Butterfield Jazz Band with Ray McKinley Vol. 1—Decca DL-8151—(1-12" LP)

I WANT TO BE HAPPY; SWEET GEORGIA BROWN; BIG NOISE FROM WINNETKA; LOVE ME OR LEAVE ME; SWING THAT MUSIC; BIG TOWN BOOGIE; THAT'S A PLENTY; LONG GONE; I CAN'T GET STARTED.

The magic name of Steve Allen is figured to get this album off to a flying start. Allen, with his vast TV audience representing a great potential market, provides light commentary. A fine group of musicians has been gathered for both the Lawson-Haggart and Billy Butterfield aggregations. With the Lawson-Haggart group are John (Yank) Lawson, Bill Stegemeyer, Lou McGarrity, Lou Stein, George Barnes, and Cliff Leeman. Billy Butterfield's combo consists of "Cutty" Cutshall, "Peanuts" Hucko, Lou Stein, Jack Lesberg, and Ray McKinley. Sylvia Syms, familiar New York night club figure, sings "Love Me Or Leave Me" with the Lawson-Haggart Jazz Band. It is a swinging, entertaining LP that will find many admirers and many customers. With the talent used, the pulling power of Steve Allen's name, and the surge in jazz buying, stores should not hesitate to stock this one.

"DON ELLIOTT SINGS"—Bethlehem BCP 15 (1-12" LP)

YOU'RE DRIVING ME CRAZY; LET'S FALL IN LOVE; SPEAK LOW; LOOKING FOR A BOY; I HADN'T ANYONE 'TIL YOU; EV'RY TIME I FALL IN LOVE; POLKA DOTS AND MOONBEAMS; OOH! BABY IT SCARES ME; EV'RY TIME; WHATEVER HAPPENED TO YOU.

Don Elliott, the one-man band who can play almost any instrument but who specializes as a performer on the mellophone, vibraphone and trumpet, is presented here as a singer. The talented fellow surprises with a warm, intimate styling and pleasant voice. He is a sensitive performer and will undoubtedly win himself more fans with this release. An engaging band is "I Hadn't Anyone 'Til You", in which, through the use of multi-track recording, has Elliott singing a five-voice chorus backing his vocal solo. Don also plays the trumpet here. However, do not get the impression it is a "gimmick". It is a smoothly chanted effort designed to please, not surprise. Pleasant and pleasing listening.

Nice going away present to Mantovani from the English Decca-London label in the form of a gold record for his millionth pressing of "Charmaine." Monty now joins Vera Lynn, David Whitfield and Eddie Calvert as the only four British artists having so far received a gold record. All good wishes to Mantovani who left London for his Canadian and American tour this Monday, the 12th. . . Maria Benson, the Australian girl who has been the only female voice in the famous Stargazers vocal group, is leaving the boys and going solo. Although I am sorry to hear this news, I am in a way happy for Marie who is a real performer and is sure to knock them cold, wherever she tops the bill. . . Ted Heath in his search for a girl singer to replace Kathy Lloyd, has finally decided on a young chirp called Rosemary Squires. But something tells me Ted may decide to change the name. But after all, what's in a name? It's the voice that counts.

Jacques Kluger and Felix Faecq flew back from the U.S.A. to Brussels via London: dropping off to inform me of their new publishing company in the States. Just another string to their bow which should prove well worthwhile since they have a very important Continental catalogue to exploit. . . Are we going to have real disk jockeys on the B.B.C.? It seems that Rooney Pelletier, controller of the B.B.C.'s light programs, has had his ears and eyes open and has finally realized the importance of the popular record industry. It looks as though records will be the most powerful weapon on sound radio likely to counteract some of the T.V. shows in store. . . MGM is re-issuing some of its finest musical films; among those scheduled for re-release are "Meet Me in St. Louis" and "Thousands Cheer." Due to the fact that many of the sponsored TV musical shows have been filmed weeks ahead, it seems that unless live shows are presented, pop songs will not be heard for weeks to come—that is current pop songs of course!

Help Launch Plan

DETROIT, MICHIGAN—On Friday, Sept. 9, the United Operators of Michigan celebrated, with a two-hour show at the Fort Wayne Hotel, the launching of plans for a permanent home, club rooms and an organization owned one-stop record service. Bob Maxwell, WWJ-TV, emceed the show which starred Lillian Briggs and Sonny Graham. Miss Briggs flew out to Detroit the day after her successful stint with Alan Freed at the Brooklyn Paramount in New York. Pictured above are Roy Small (left), Lillian Briggs, and Bob Maxwell.

Columbia-Epic "Studio One" Plugs 3 Weeks In Row

NEW YORK—The Columbia Records organization found itself in the enviable position of having three straight record "plugs" on the Monday evening Westinghouse Summer Theater, summer replacement for "Studio One."

On August 29 the Bernadine Reid-Paul Weston "A Chance At Love" was introduced on a show bearing the same title. The recording was heard twice in its entirety and throughout the story as its theme.

On September 5 Columbia Records provided the background material, phonographs, records, album covers, flyers, etc., for the setting, a record shop. In addition Epic's "I Want You To Be My Baby" by Lillian Briggs was played to create the musical atmosphere of a record store.

On September 12 Epic's "No Place To Hide," by Neil Hefti Orchestra and chorus, was played as the theme of the play, "The Pit".

It was on the Studio One Show, last season, that Joan Weber's "Let Me Go Lover" was exposed to the TV public, with the result that it became the number one record in the country.

TV WAX WISE

The "Our Town" TV musical NBC 9/19 seems to have had a greater effect on A & R men than any previous TV spec. Sinatra, the star of the show, has waxed an EP of four of the original songs penned by Jimmy Van Heusen and Sammy Cahn. "The Impatient Years" was cut by Ella Fitzgerald (Decca) and Kitty White (Mercury). "Love And Marriage" was waxed by Dinah Shore (RCA) and the Laurie Sisters (Mercury). And Georgie Shaw has recorded "Look To Your Heart" for Decca. . . . One of the stints we're looking forward to is the 90 min. musical revue 10/22 co-starring Mary Martin and Noel Coward. An LP of the show's highlights oughta be a sensational seller. The show will be called "Together With Music". . . . On Oct. 9 Groucho Marx will act as "grand marshal" for 1½ hour show based on the Abel Green-Joe Laurie book "Show Biz". The program's music will be supplied by Rosemary Clooney, Eartha Kitt, Dennis Day, and Beatrice Kay. . . . Harry James, Eddy Howard, Machito and Hal McIntyre share billing on "America's Greatest Bands" 9/24. . . . Jaye P. Morgan is the "Upbeat!" hostess 9/20 and 22. . . . Don Shirley will play excerpts from his new Cadence LP "Piano Perspectives", on the 9/26 "Steve Allen" show. He'll also offer some selections on the bosendorfer, a unique Viennese piano. Other music on the Allen show includes Mae Barnes 9/19, Burl Ives 9/20, Ethel Waters 9/21, Florian Zabach 9/22 and Turk Murphy 9/23. . . . Patti Page will do the Como show 9/24. Como will reciprocate by appearing as guest on Patti's Nov. 2 Oldsmobile show. . . . Merv Griffin becomes a regular on the "Robert Q. Lewis" show on 9/19. . . . Interviewing The Artist

NEW YORK—Lou Stein is photographed while he is on-the-air with Jean Shepard, WOR disk jockey, whose 12:10 to 12:30 noontime show is heard thruout the Mutual network. Shepard played excerpts from Stein's two recent Epic albums, "House Hop" and "Three, Four, Five."

Epic Reaches New Sales Heights

NEW YORK—Bill Neilsen, national sales manager of Epic Records, announced this week that the company had totaled higher sales figures last August than in any previous month since its inception. "In fact," said Neilsen, "we increased our business 250 percent over August of 1954."

In the package field Epic's August sales figures for pop and classical albums equalled 80 per cent of the combined figures for the months of January through July. Among its best selling pop albums were "Somethin' Smith and The Red Heads"; "Best of Fred Astaire"; "Wild Bill Davis At Birdland"; "The Lou Stein 3-4-5". Epic's classical top numbers were "Debussy Images" and "Christmas Story". Singles which helped pile up the record sales total were "I Want You To Be My Baby", Lillian Briggs; "It's A Sin To Tell A Lie", Somethin' Smith; and "Little Voice" paired with "All This Is Mine", Roy Hamilton.

Neilsen attributed the sharp rise in August sales to two factors. The growing acceptance of the label after a year of proving itself through quality and performance—and a concentrated campaign that saw Bill Neilsen, Charles Schicke, Walt Hayum, Jim Shevlin and Bob DeMain personally visit every one of the thirty-three Epic distributors. The campaign included advertising allowances to all distribs and concerted radio and newspaper Epic advertising. The chief objective of the drive was to impress distribs with the future growth of the label based on its ever expanding catalog and artist roster. Its immediate response was both surprising and gratifying.

Already under exclusive contract to Epic in the classical field are Ed. Van Beinum and the Concertebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam; George Szell and the Cleveland Philharmonic Orchestra; Alexander Uninsky, world famous pianist; and Arthur Grumiaux, violinist. Grumiaux has just recorded the newly discovered Paganini "Fourth Violin Concerto". It is the first recording of the Paganini work.

Marv Holzman, A & R head, is seeking new talent to build up a jazz roster. In Stein, Holzman has an artist who has proven his sales power with two successful albums. Epic has also released successfully Vocalion, Brunswick and Okeh re-issues as the "Jazz Master Series."

Future expansion will receive a decided push from Epic's recently announced agreement with European Philips. Holzman advised there would be a regular schedule of Philips records issued on Epic. A heavy advertising campaign will give a local buildup to several European artists in an effort to duplicate the success already attained by such artists as David Whitfield, Mantovani, and others. Holzman also concluded a reciprocal deal in which Philips will distribute all Epic releases in Europe. These agreements were reached through discussions with Johnny Franz, a & r head of Philips, London; Georges Meyerstein, a & r head of Philips, France; and Cun Solleveld, International sales-manager from Holland, when the three recently visited the United States.

Holzman also announced plans to revitalize the Okeh label. The rhythm and blues subsid, with two solid performers in holdovers Chuck Willis and Big Maybelle, has expanded its roster with the addition of Carmen Taylor, Honey Gordon, and Eddie "Tex" Curtis.

On The Air At The Fair

DEARBORN, MICH.—Robin Seymour, WKMH, Dearborn is shown above with Roy Hamilton and the Fontane Sisters who assisted him on one of the shows the jockey was doing from his trailer at the Michigan State Fair from Sept. 2 to Sept. 11. This was the fourth consecutive year Seymour had covered the show. Appearing along with the Fontanes and Hamilton were Frankie Laine, the Mills Bros., Joni James, Ella Fitzgerald and others. More than 300,000 people witnessed the "Bobbin' With Robin" show during the course of the week.

Livingston Drops Pre-Recorded Tape Prices 25% Thru Dealer Club Plan

NEW YORK—In a move to expand the dealer coverage in the sale of pre-recorded tapes, the Livingston Electronic Corporation of Livingston, New Jersey, has announced the Livingston Tape Club Plan. This manufacturer-dealer-consumer co-op will make possible a 25 percent reduction in the cost of all tapes in the Livingston catalog to members of the plan. Thus, it will now be possible to purchase high-fidelity music on professionally pre-recorded tape for as little as $4.50 for a full one-half hour recording, such as is available on the dual track, 5-inch reels, recorded at 7.5 inches per second. A binaural tape which previously cost $10.00 per half hour will now be available at $7.50. Similarly, a full hour of music on a 7-inch reel, dual track, at 7.5 ips., will be available at an all time low of $9.00.

Club members will pay an enrollment fee of $6.00 for which they will receive a book of twenty-five coupons. Each of these coupons, when presented to the dealer, entitles the purchaser to a club discount of 25 percent. The dealer, in turn, redeems these coupons for his own special discount. In addition to the coupon book each member will receive a full year's subscription to Tape Recording Magazine. Where a member is already a subscriber to this magazine, arrangements have been made to extend the existing subscription for an additional year.

In areas not yet covered by dealers the new club plan will make it possible for members to purchase directly from club headquarters. It is planned to keep all members informed in advance of new releases and any new developments affecting their interest in tape. The present

Livingston Tape News Letter will be extended to include all new members in the club plan.

Simultaneous with the announcement of the club plan comes the release of the new expanded Livingston Tape Treasury, which includes over eighty new titles on the following labels: Livingston, Audiosphere, Connoisseur, Atlantic, Esoteric, Hack Swain, Empirical, Oceanic, Riverside, Boston, Lyricord and Tico. A significant feature of these new listings is the increasingly high percentage of binaural (two-channel stereophonic) recordings available for machines using either stacked (in-line) or staggered (displaced) heads. The growth of the binaural audience is displaying an unexpected acceleration, and Livingston plans to continue to make available an increasing number of such recordings.

With its new catalog Livingston hopes by this move to satisfy the growing demand for pre-recorded tapes with a new merchandising and price structure.

Whatta Prize!!

NEWBERRY, SO. CAR.—One of the prizes offered at Columbia's regional retail dealer meetings was a Ford Thunderbird. Each Dealer put his name into a hat, and one name was drawn from each territory. These regional names were put into the national hat and the winner was Mrs. Clara Wertz. Above she is pictured with her prize in front of her Wertz Music Shop in this city.

Decca And Dress Co. Set Promotion Campaign On Dance Albums

NEW YORK—Decca Records, in conjunction with Patricia Fair Dresses, Dukay Fabrics and the Independent Retailers Syndicate, has announced an extensive four-way promotion of national scope. The promotion—known as "Platter Prancers"—involves a new line of holiday dance dresses by Patricia Fair, all made by Dukay Fabrics, that will be exhibited along with new Decca dance albums in many of the member stores of the Independent Retailers Syndicate across the country.

The promotion plans include national advertising in the November issue of "Mademoiselle" in which the "Platter Prancers" dresses as well as the Decca LPs will be illustrated. The titles of the albums are "Waltz Dreams," "Dance Party," "Decca's Record Hop," "Big Dance Tonight,"

"Time To Tango," and "Woodchopper's Ball."

Every dress by the company will carry a tag made like a Decca record, and on the reverse side of the tag, the albums mentioned above will be listed.

The companies will also sponsor a design contest, to stimulate interest on a local and consumer level. Local tie-ins between stores and dee jays are being arranged whereby the jockey will tell about the contest on the air. Each entrant will be asked to design a dress inspired by the mood of one of the Decca LPs. Application blanks will illustrate the album covers and prizes will be awarded the winners on the basis of originality of design and on the appropriateness of the design to the album that inspired it. The contest will also be described in local advertising.

Mantovani Here For First Tour Of United States

NEW YORK—Mantovani, British recording star and conductor, has arrived in New York for his first concert tour of the United States. The conductor, whose music and fame have preceded him here, will give performances at Carnegie Hall on October 5th and 8th and November 6th with his orchestra of 45 musicians.

After several days here Mantovani will go to Canada where he will open a tour on September 19th in Toronto. He returns here afterward for his New York appearances and his national tour which will include such cities as Boston, Hartford, Newark, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, St. Louis, Kansas City, Des Moines, Omaha, Minneapolis, Chicago, Philadelphia and Washington.

On his tour of this country, the conductor will be billed as "Mantovani and His New Music." His "New Music" dates from 1951 when the British Decca firm for whom he has recorded since 1940, asked him to record some favorite waltzes. The distinctive arrangements which put the emphasis on the strings and the original scoring, which Mantovani does himself, caught the public fancy immediately, and his recording-sales have hit astronomical heights.

It was Mantovani's recording of "Green Sleeves" broadcast nightly on a nationwide radio network that first identified the lone-named conductor to the American public. His recording album, "Waltzing with Mantovani" became a best seller here and Mantovani soon became a popular favorite. Among his own compositions is the ballad, "Cara Mia."

Mantovani, though raised in England, was born in Venice, the son of a violinist who had once been concertmaster for Pietro Mascagni, composer of "Cavalleria Rusticana." He had his own orchestra at 18 and later became musical director for Noel Coward's London productions. He has composed the background music for many British films.

Mantovani records for London Records.

The American tour will be under the direction of Columbia Artists Management.

Garmisa Re-Enters Disk Distrib Biz

CHICAGO—Len Garmisa, who got his first taste of the record distributing field sometime ago in partnership here, liked it so well that, as of this past week, he officially reentered the field. He will handle distribution for Am-Par Records in this area.

Garmisa reported, "This is the business I like. I want everyone to call at our new headquarters at 2011 South Michigan Avenue and visit with us.

"I believe we have a big story for them in the new Am-Par Records. We will offer the kind of service and cooperation to juke box operators, dealers and disk jockeys that they have always wanted."

At the present time Garmisa is handling the Am-Par Record line only under the firm name of Garmisa Distributing Company.

"We may," he added, "have some interesting announcements in the very near future regarding other lines."

THAT'S NO BARGAIN; BONEYARD SHUFFLE; IDA! SWEET AS APPLE CIDER; FEELIN' NO PAIN; BUGLE CALL RAG; ECCENTRIC; NOBODY'S SWEETHEART; AVALON; ROSE OF WASHINGTON SQUARE, INDIANA, DINAH, CHINA BOY.

Brunswick digs into the files for a collectors' item that features Red Nichols and his five pennies from 1926 thru 1930. Heard as the "pennies" are Benny Goodman, Pee Wee Russell, Jimmy Dorsey, Joe Venuti, Eddie Condon, Eddie Lang, Jack Teagarden, Gene Krupa, Miff Mole and Glenn Miller. Tho obviously dated, the jazz swings and one still finds enjoyable listening and nostalgia. The release, for the most part, will find its market among the collectors.

"ROCKIN' WITH MILT"—Milt Buckner—Capitol Records T 642 (1-12" LP)
LEAN BABY; BERNIE'S TUNE; ROCKIN' WITH MILT; EASY TO LOVE; BLUES FOR ME; ROBBINS NEST; SLAUGHTER ON 125th STREET; LITTLE MISS MAUDLIN; MOVIN' WITH MITCH; TAKE THE "A" TRAIN.

Milt Buckner lends the organ a swing and drive that lifts it from its usually staid position and places it right next to the trumpet and sax as a jazz instrument. Buckner fills the air with a hard hitting, rocking sound and tempo. Jazz fans will be delighted, tho Bach lovers might be a trifle uneasy. If you like a beat and swinging jazz this is your dish.

JAZZ IN HOLLYWOOD—Libert LJH 6001 (1-12" LP)

SANGUINE; THERE WILL NEVER BE ANOTHER YOU; SERENADE IN BLUE; YESTERDAYS; THE GIRL FRIEND; BLOO DENIM; PERPETUAL MOTION; BOB WHITE; DANZA DO BRAZIL; BOB-O-LING; JIVE AT FIVE; LOVE ME OR LEAVE ME.

Liberty scoops up a wide variety of West Coast jazz musicians and presents them under the title, "Jazz In Hollywood". We hear samplings of the talents of Herbie Harper, Bud Shank, Jimmy Rowles, Virgil Gonsalves, Harry Babasin, Lou Levy, Dom Frontiere, Abe Most, Bob Enevoldsen, Bob Gordon, Buddy Wise, and the Hollywood Saxophone Quartet. Space does not allow comments on each artist involved. As an over-all description, it is an interesting collection of assorted talents playing easy to listen to west coast jazz. Improvisations in most cases stick close to the melody line. Jazz fans should find it of strong interest.

TORONTO TOPICS:

"Repeat the Feat" is the slogan of this year's Red Feather Campaign and the CBC-TV network talent-pact show which originated in Shea's Theatre last Sunday night from 10-11 p. m. was probably the most pretentious all-star show yet presented on Canadian TV. Peter MacFarlane did a terrific job in making Canada conscious of the great Canadian talent we have today as well as the Community Chest Campaign which this show inaugurated. MC'd by Canada's top Radio and TV comedy stars Wayne & Shuster the show presented Toronto-born Raymond Massey, Lake Swimmer Marilyn Bell, CBC's Max "Rawhide" Ferguson, French star Marcel Marceau, French Canada's big favorite, star Gratien "Fridolin" Gelinas along with singers Jan Rubes, Irene Salemko, Norman Brooks (Label X) Priscilla Wright (Sparton & Unique), The Rhythm Pals (Aragon) and Jack Kane's network orchestra. Rounding out the bill was St. Michael's Cathedral 30-voice choir directed by the Rt. Rev. G. E. Ronan. Incidentally this is the choir from which sprung The Four Lads (Columbia) and The Crew Cuts (Mercury) who made their professional starts on earlier Red Feather shows. . . . Priscilla

FOUR LADS

Wright put in a heavy schedule in our town over the past week-end with an autograph session introducing her new record "Could It Be? Could It Be?" at Simpson's and the Sparton-Unique star seems set with her second hit record. . . . Highlighted at the Brampton Fair last week was Slim Gordon & The Western Allstars whose current disc of "Your Autograph Ma'm" b/w "Nobody Knows It Better Than You" is taking off in fine style. . . . Reg Gilchrist will be playing host to practically everyone in music, coin gramophone and record businesses when he holds his house warming on Monday September 19th for his palatial new Seeburg headquarters. Tied in with the gala proceedings will be record displays of all of the labels and everybody, but everybody is looking forward to the historic occasion. It's certainly a gorgeous set-up and our congratulations to all of the Gilchrist staff who have definitely got a lot to be proud of. . . . Jazz fans are having a real ball these days what with the George Shearing Quintet holding forth at our No. 1 Jazz house, the Colonial Tavern and Buddy Greco down at our best steak and lobster hang-out, the Town Tavern. . . . Local jazz boys are practicing like mad in preparation for the after-show Jam Session when Norman Granz' Jazz At The Philharmonic reaches town this coming Wednesday. Must say I wouldn't want to miss it either if I were a jazz kid as I'm sure they can still learn a great deal. . . . We know a lot of people (including yours truly) who would like to see the Casino bringing back the top names in show business again—it's a long way to Buffalo when you want to see a good stage show and that is what one has to do at present insofar as local theatre dates and recording names are concerned. . . . Barry Townley and his orchestra is the new and permanent attraction at the King Edward's Oak Room which means a real treat is in store for the many patrons thereabouts. Barry by the way is one of the boys in this town to have given Gisele MacKenzie (Label X) her first break in show business. When no one else cared Barry encouraged and coached Gisele. Looks as if he was right after all.

Opening the new season at the Ritz Carlton Cafe is Fernanda Montel. . . . Matt Heft, manager of Leeds Music's new Canadian office, escorting MGM's Connie ("Freddie") Francis around to her DJ and TV interviews. Teeing off a Canadian tour with his first appearance at the Montreal Forum on September 22nd is Mantovani. He will be presented to the trade and press at a cocktail party given by London Records at the Ritz Carlton on the same day. For this tour he will use an orchestra of 60 musicians. . . . In town making personal DJ interviews is Coral's recording star Alan Dale. He is currently appearing at the Gatineau Golf & Country Club. . . . Eddy Howard Into N. Y.'s Roosevelt Grill

NEW YORK—Eddy Howard and his orchestra take over the headline spot at the Hotel Roosevelt Grill on Monday, September 26th. This will be the first New York booking in four years for Howard, who comes into the Roosevelt following a successful engagement at Chicago's Aragon Ballroom.

The Howard orchestra will perform in the Grill until the return, on November 4th, of Guy Lombardo and his orchestra for their annual engagement.

The Eddy Howard singing style became nationally famous a few years back when his hit recording of "To Each His Own" topped the 3,000,000 mark in sales and placed Howard among the top three of musicians and vocalists in 1947. He has also gained attention with such best-sellers as "My Adobe Hacienda," "Ricketty Rickshaw Man," "Ragtime Cowboy Joe," and "Sin."

Before forming his own orchestra, Eddy performed with the Ben Bernie, George Olsen, and Dick Jurgens orchestras and was at one time a sideman with Tom Gerun's band in San Francisco when three other "unknowns," Ginny Simms, Woody Herman, and Tony Martin, shared the bandstand with him.

A composer as well as a singer and bandleader, Eddy first clicked with a 1939 recording of "My Last Good-bye," a song of his own composing which he recorded while singing with a West Coast orchestra. Sales of the song were spurred by a story, some anonymous press agent's dream, that Howard wrote the song for his wife who had died the year before. The rumor was embarrassing for the very much alive Mrs. Howard, but did very well indeed for the family coffers.

Subsequent Howard hits, which he wrote and recorded, were "Careless" (his present theme song), "Now I Lay Me Down To Dream," "Lynn," and "A Million Dreams Ago."

During its Roosevelt Grill engagement, the Eddy Howard orchestra will broadcast twice weekly on the CBS network. They will be heard Thursday and Saturday from 11:30 P.M. to midnight.

Woodell In Club Post

NEW YORK—Norman A. Adler, vice president in charge of the Columbia Records' Record Club, announced the appointment of P. M. Woodell to the post of Fulfillment Manager.

Woodell comes to the organization from Management Systems, Inc., where he was senior consulting engineer in charge of the development of the fulfillment program of the club. Prior to his association with Management Systems, Inc., he had served with Montgomery Ward as an assistant general mail operations manager.

Woodell will be in direct charge of the club's fulfillment operations at its offices at 165 W. 46th St.

Victor Signs Gary Graffman

NEW YORK—The young American pianist, Gary Graffman, has been signed to an exclusive RCA Victor recording contract, according to George R. Marek, director of artists and repertoire for RCA Victor.

The twenty-six-year-old pianist is the bearer of some of the most significant honors in the pianistic field: he was the only winner of the first Rachmaninoff Fund Contest in 1947, recipient of its Special Award in 1948, and winner of the 1949 Leventritt Contest.

Columbia Promotion

NEW YORK—Columbia Records sponsored a display at the National Premium Show, held at the Sheraton-Astor Hotel, this city, September 12 thru 15.

The transcription department will utilize the full Columbia talent roster to create records in the vein of premiums, promotions, and self-liquidators. The latter calls for the public to return a small fee which goes toward defraying the expenses of the promotion. Al Schulman heads the department.

Columbia has already participated in several of these premium promotions. The most recent campaigns included Rosemary Clooney, Dave Brubeck, Turk Murphy, Jo Stafford, Mitch Miller, Liberace, and Arthur Godfrey.

Rosemary Clooney is currently tied in with the Gibson Art Company "Musicards". The tune belongs to Gibson and the records are sold only in the Gibson Art retail outlets. Columbia supplied the artist and made all the recording arrangements including the use of its recording studio.

Another current campaign is that of a Helena Rubinstein lipstick promotion. The lipstick is called "Jazz" and recordings by Dave Brubeck and Turk Murphy are tied in with advertising plans.

Previously Snowy Bleach used Jo Stafford; Pepsodent and Lever Brothers, Arthur Godfrey; Scandinavian Airlines System, Mitch Miller, Jill Corey and Jerry Vale.

$1,000,000 Campaign Will Promote Jazz

NEW YORK—This week saw the launching of a $1,000,000 campaign to make the country "Jazz" conscious. The promotion is designed to build the word "jazz" in its fullest musical meaning and to create for it a new identity which would signify a color—described by Helena Rubinstein as "a rich, pulsating color. A shimmering tone that has lights of both orange and blue, it wavers between the warm orange reds and the cool blue reds."

The national campaign was kicked off at a cocktail party at Basin Street, Broadway jazz nitery, in collaboration with Columbia Records, on Thursday, September 15. Columbia's latest Dave Brubeck album has been titled "Jazz—Red Hot and Cool" (as has the Rubinstein product). Its album notes refer to the tie-in with the "Jazz—Red Hot and Cool" lipstick. Newspaper and magazine Helena Rubinstein ads will refer to as well as display the Brubeck LP.

Additional Columbia tie-ins are already planned for the future. During the weekend of October 7, 8, and 9 New Orleans will be host to the New Orleans Jazz Festival. Turk Murphy, Columbia artist, has been invited by the New Orleans Jazz Association to be a featured performer. During these three days a Turk Murphy album will be cut for the "Jazz—Helena Rubinstein campaign. It will probably be titled Turk Murphy "Jazz—Red Hot and Cool".

The new lipstick will be introduced in the stores in a packaging that will include a Columbia jazz recording that features Turk Murphy, Eddie Condon, Dave Brubeck and Pete Rugolo. It features both the "hot" and "cool" jazz schools.

The new color has already influenced manufacturers and designers of women's clothing and accessories—and even buttons, towels and wallpaper.

GTJ Inks Claire Austin

HOLLYWOOD—Claire Austin, Sacramento singer, has signed a new long term contract with Good Time Jazz Records, it has been announced by GTJ Vice-President Robert D. Kirstein.

"The contract is unusual in that Claire will do traditional jazz and blues for our GTJ label," Kirstein said, "and modern and pop tunes for our subsidiary label, Contemporary Records." The first of her Contemporary LPs will be released in November, with an all-star group behind her including Shelly Manne and Barney Kessel, and GTJ's trumpet star Bob Scobey.

Miss Austin will make her first personal appearance away from Northern California this October in New Orleans as guest star at the annual jazz festival sponsored by the New Orleans Jazz Society.

New Philly Distrib Gets AM - PAR Line

PHILADELPHIA—The formation of a new record distributing firm in Philadelphia was announced this week. It is called Universal Record Distributing and is headed by Harry Finfer who was formerly with Gotham in this city.

It is rumored that Dave Miller, head of Essex and Media Records has an interest in the firm.

Universal has captured the distributorship for AM-PAR Records, the new ABC-Paramount subsid, for whose line there has been much bidding by distributors all over the country. In addition the new firm will start with the Media and Essex lines and several R&B lines.

Cole On Sullivan Show

NEW YORK—Nat "King" Cole who recently signed an exclusive one-year contract with CBS-TV during which time he will make ten starring appearances on their top variety shows, will make his first guest-shot of the series on the Ed Sullivan Show, October 2nd. The Capitol star will feature his newest release, "Someone You Love."

CHICAGO:

MOONGLOWS

This is what George Leaner said, "R&B is not 'Rock & Roll'." And added, "R&B" may be someone with a voice like that of a croaking frog, but," George explained, "in 'R&B' this man's telling a story. His story. The story of just exactly how he feels about something or someone. And," he added, "from time immemorial man has told his story in song." George believes, "R&B" is commercialized. It's story music with a beat. With a voice that can express technical perfection. But," he concludes, "whether the voice is that of a croaking frog, the fact remains that in 'R&B' the people who want to hear this story will pay to hear it over any commercial items." . . . Sam Evans (WGES) asked for his listeners to write and tell him what they would like to hear. Sam reports that he got over 100 letters the very next day. His strongest requests, he reports, were: "Write Me A Letter," The Jacks (13); "Painted Pictures," The Spaniels (12);

"Starlite," The Moonglows (11); "Soldier Boy," Four Fellows (11); "A Fool For You," Ray Charles (5) and "Lonely Nights," The Hearts (6). . . . Big Maybelle at the Crown Propeller and going but big. . . . The Art Blakley Trio followed the Modern Jazz Quartet into the Bee Hive. . . . Paul Glass reports that he has just taken on distribution of the Specialty label. First one he's pushing is Clifton Chenier's "Boppin' The Rock." . . . Abner over at Vee Jay riding but high with The Spaniels' "Painted Picture." Says, "It's breaking wide open all over everywhere." Points to orders from Newark, Philly, New York, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Boston. And now Abner of the belief The Eldorados' "At My Front Door," "will be even bigger." Tells that Dewey Phillips of KCUL, Memphis; John Gilliland of KRUC, Fort Worth, and Larry Dean of WCIN, Cincinnati, all phoned to tell him what a great disk this is. . . . Len Chess reports that "Starlite" by The Moonglows "is the big one." Reports that it bust wide open in New York, Philly and Chicago at the same time and other towns phoning in. "In addition," Len says, "'The Flamings' 'I Want To Love You' has taken off like a jet plane." Read some terrific orders he's received from Cleveland, Detroit, New York, Philadelphia and from right here in the Windy City. . . . Grabbin' plenty of listener's ears is the new Lloyd (Spider) Webb show 'Nine to Noon' over WAIT. It's a rock and roll show and from the action taking place 'round town,' looks like the Spider has himself one great show here. . . . Mahalia Jackson developed herself some stomach aches and went into the hospital for a quick checkup. But the great 'Voice' is just as great. And doing her TV stint without halt. Real trouper.

Norgran Records releasing a single from the new Buddy Rich album, "Sing and Swing With Buddy Rich." The side couples "Everything Happens To Me" with "Sure Thing" and the reaction to an airplay on the Peter Potter show prompted the single release. . . . Tal Farlow, guitarist with the Red Norvo group at the Captains' Table, is making quite a name for himself in West Coast Jazz circles. His new album entitled "A Recital By Tal Farlow" will be out this week. . . . Another "West Coast Jazz" LP featuring Stan Goetz, Conte Condoli, and Shelly Manne will be released by Norgran.

New York

Last Monday night and Tuesday afternoon, September 12 and 13, Herald Records cut its first jazz session. Bob Rosen handled the date. The group, The Aaron Bell Trio, did 12 sides—3 originals and 9 standards which will be released in a 12" LP about September 26. The trio consists of Aaron Bell, who was recently designated in the Annual Downbeat Poll "Best Up and Coming Bass Player"; Charley Smith, drummer, who has played with Goodman, Morrow, Shearing and Kenton, (Smith was with Shearing for 18 months) and Charley Bateman, piano. Future plans call for the pacting of additional artists. Also signed was Tony Ortega reedman, who will be cut in the near future.

New Duo

Herald To Debut New Jazz Series

NEW YORK—Al Silver, Jack Angel, Jack Braverman, announce the formation of their newest project, Herald's Jazz Series. Silver, Angel and Braverman combine a total of 30 years experience in the music business covering all of its many phases. Herald will constantly seek new talent and is planning to set aside special days to audition. Demo records may be mailed direct to their office at 1697 Broadway, New York 19, N. Y.

The initial album, with Bob Rosen in a & r capacity, was cut last week and will be released about September 26. The artists were The Aaron Bell Trio, who cut 3 originals and 9 standards.

RHYTHM 'N BLUES THE CASH BOX REVIEWS

ⓐ AWARD & SLEEPER	ⓐ GOOD
ⓑ EXCELLENT	ⓐ FAIR
ⓑ VERY GOOD	ⓐ MEDIOCRE

SAM (THE MAN) TAYLOR

(MGM K12065)

B "DON'T TAKE YOUR LOVE FROM ME" (2:50) [M. Witmark ASCAP—Nemo] Sam Taylor blows sweetly as he performs the lovely standard. An excellent sax solo treatment that will provide listening pleasure to any market.

B "AS TIME GOES BY" (2:36) [Harms ASCAP—Hupfeld] A similar velvety reading of another pretty oldie. Both sides are music to dream to.

"SONNY BOY" WILLIAMSON

(Checker 824)

B+ "DON'T START ME TALKIN'" (2:42) [Arc BMI—Williamson] Sonny Boy Williamson chants a down south blues with a "gossipy" story. Good beat and strong reading. Deck should grab a good piece of action.

B "ALL MY LOVE IN VAIN" (2:42) [Arc BMI—Williamson] Similar southern market flavor, with Williamson relating a sad love story. Williamson's simple but effective style lends punch to the deck.

EDDIE BOYD

(Chess 1606)

B+ "I'M A PRISONER" (2:44) [Arc BMI—Boyd] Eddie Boyd chants a slow southern blues telling of his loneliness and his woe-filled life. Strong storyline and good, simple, sometimes emotional, delivery.

B+ "I'VE BEEN DECEIVED" (2:51) [Arc BMI—Boyd] Boyd is also singing the sad blues on the flip. His baby has been cheating on him. Slow, pulsating rhythm underscores his effective story telling. Two good sides.

LINDA HAYES

(Decca 29644)

B "OUR LOVE' FOREVER BLESSED" (2:31) [Golden State BMI—Chambers, York] Linda Hayes sings a slow pretty ballad with tender projection. Tune rocks gently as Miss Hayes handles the romantic lyric in good voice and in easy fashion. Given exposure, it could stir things up.

B "YOU'RE THE ONLY ONE FOR ME" (2:25) [Golden State BMI—Chambers] Linda begs her lover to return. A slow tormented blues offered with gentle shading. Good performance.

"DEVIL THAT I SEE" (2:57)

[Pera Music BMI—Curtis Williams]

"PROMISES, PROMISES, PROMISES" (2:20)

[Pera Music BMI—Llyn Paul]

THE PENGUINS
(Mercury 70703)

THE PENGUINS

● The polished singing of The Penguins is again evident in the slow, pulsating "Devil That I See." The lads glide effortlessly through the melodic pretty in a manner very reminiscent of their "Earth Angel," which delighted so many record buyers of r & b and pop categories. Floating romantic offering. Deck is an entry that can again bewitch both markets. The flip, "Promises, Promises, Promises" is a gay bouncer that provides the perfect coupler. The lads skip energetically through the driving tune with a treatment that fits the desires of the kids. Two good sides, with perhaps a shade in favor of "Devil That I See."

THE HAWKS

B+ "THESE BLUES" (2:05) [Commodore BMI—A. Smith] The Hawks, in a slow blues, "drink their lives away" because of a lost love. Lead does a strong emotional reading of the melodic item. Moving and pleasurable wax.

B "WHY OH WHY" (2:23) [Commodore BMI—J. Gaines] The Hawks back the blues with a hard hitting, driving jump side. Ok coupler.

THE DREAMERS

(Grand 131)

B "TEARS IN MY EYES" (2:42) [Slotkin BMI—Dreamers] The Dreamers b'end on a slow blues ballad and come up with an effective wax. Pretty tune is movingly performed.

C+ "535" (2:39) [Slotkin BMI—Dreamers] The flip is a middle beat jump delivered with an infectious rhythm. Ok listening and dance wax.

THE FOUR KINGS

(Fortune 517)

B "DOO-LI-OP" (2:45) [Trianon BMI—Hatfield, Little Simmons, Rawlins] The Four Kings turn in an ok performance of a quick beat rocker. Enthusiastic wax that drives.

C+ "ROSE OF TANGIER" (2:50) [Dorothy Summers Brown] Very pretty arrangement and delivery of the Tango ditty, tho it is obviously not aimed at the r & b market.

THE MILLIONAIRES

(Davis 441)

B+ "SOMEBODY'S LYIN'" (3:00) [Joe Davis ASCAP—Joe Davis] The Millionaires blend softly on a slow swaying tune with a touch of the nostalgic. The boys drift lazily through the romantic fluff. Tender, pleasurable wax.

C+ "KANSAS KAPERS" (3:00) [Beacon BMI—Stevens] A gay middle beat bounce with a cute lyric. Tune is a rhythmic ditty delivered with a distinct pop styling.

EARL CURRY

(Post 2001)

B "SOMEBODY STOLE MY GIRL FROM ME" (2:15) [Commodore BMI—Curry] Earl Curry wails a slow ballad blues dejectedly telling the story of his lost love. Curry is believable as the saddened lover and the haunting melody is effectively waxed.

C+ "SPECIAL GIRL" (2:25) [Commodore BMI—Curry] Curry softly etches a melodic love tune in which he dramatically sings of his search for that special girl.

KAY ADAMS

(King 1504)

B "IT JUST AIN'T LOVE" (2:33) [Jay & Cee BMI—Innis, Glover] Kay Adams defines love to a middle beat bouncing tempo. Deck is an easy rocker handled with restraint by the gal singer. Easy listening.

C+ "ALL AROUND THE WORLD" (2:41) [Clifton BMI—Titus Turner] Miss Adams sing the current hit and turns in a good reading. Nice treatment tho it lacks the excitement of the other versions.

IRENE RIED-KELLY OWENS ORCH.

(Savoy 1170)

B "SWEETIE" (2:41) [Crossroads BMI—McCoy, Singleton, Mendelsohn] Irene Ried chants a cute romantic ditty to the orchestral backing of Kelly Owens. Tune is a modified jump and Miss Ried handles the vocal with appeal.

B "I'M SO GLAD" (2:42) [Owens, Otis] Irene Ried backs with a slow blues in which she advises her ex-romance she's glad he set her free. Moaning sax in the break lends atmosphere to the deck.

THE CARNATIONS

(Savoy 1172)

B+ "THE ANGELS SENT YOU TO ME" (2:31) [Crossroads BMI—Van Dyke] The Carnations blend sweetly on a lovely slow blues ballad. Melodic pretty is treated with a tender touch and lilting vocal mannerisms. Enough radio exposure could get it going.

C+ "NIGHT TIME IS THE RIGHT TIME" (2:29) [Crossroads BMI—Van Dyke] The Carnations back the ballad with a fast beat jump etching. Good for the dance crowd, tho it comes out the lesser side.

THE SPARKS OF RHYTHM

(Apollo 479)

B "WOMAN, WOMAN, WOMAN" (2:37) [Bess BMI—Barksdale, Edmonds] A quick beat jump in which woman is told to shut her mouth, she don't know what she's talking about. It's a driving vocal with instrumental to match. Deep voiced lead does a strong job. Good side.

B "DON'T LOVE YOU ANYMORE" (2:26) [Bess BMI—Jones, Edmonds, Smith] Another quick beat jump ditty rocked with enthusiasm and gusto by the Sparks. Both sides in the idiom of the teener.

Fisher In Flatbush

NEW YORK—Pee Wee Reese (right) captain of the Brooklyn Dodgers, presents Eddie Fisher with a plaque honoring him for his "outstanding contribution to the youth of America." The ceremony took place in front of the Brooklyn dugout at Ebbets Field. The Dodger fans (they're probably Fisher fans too) were on hand to welcome the crooner.

Monument Moves

NEW YORK—Monument Music announces the moving of its offices to new and larger quarters at 1650 Broadway, Suite 1204, New York City. Bill Buchanan, who has headed the firm since February 1954, also announces that Larry Uttal has joined Monument as a full partner, and, in conjunction with the firm's expansion, Buchanan & Uttal will work hand in hand to further develop their activities.

Monument, one of the leading R&B publishers, has had such number one hits as "Hurts Me To My Heart," "Mambo Baby," and "Honey Bunch," among others, many of which have been written by Charles Singleton & Rose Marie McCoy.

The firm is currently working on "Same Ole Me," recorded by Faye Adams on Herald; "One Monkey Don't Stop No Show," recorded by Big Maybelle on Okeh Records; and "Night Crawl'n'" by John Greer on Groove Records.

They anticipate healthy pop coverage on their R&B material, as well as release of several important pop records during September and October.

Balian Sells Pressing Plant

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Ivan Balian, Gotham and 20th Century Records, this week announced the sale of his pressing plant to Al Pitner, Quaker Plastic Research.

The plant occupies part of the Gotham and 20th Century Record building and alterations to completely separate the pressing plant from the record firms have already begun. The pressing plant will begin operations on or about October 1. Quaker will pay a rental to Balian presently, although it is Pitner's intention to obtain new quarters as quickly as possible.

Pitner was formerly manager of Paramount Record and Pressing for two and one-half years.

One of the clauses of the sale provided for Quaker to press Gotham and 20th Century disks.

Balian stated that the sale of the pressing plant will free him for heavier concentration on his two labels and his distributing set-up. He has added to his staff Harry Fink, formerly of Mercury Records, and Sterling Devers, former branch manager of Mercury in Atlanta. Fink will handle promotion and Devers will be in the sales department.

Clever Gimmick

NEW YORK—Iris-Trojan Music and Capitol Records have set up a novel promotion gimmick that the jockeys will enjoy. On the latest Les Paul and Mary Ford record "Magic Melody," published by Iris-Trojan, Les ends the side right in the midst of a familiar ditty, the melody to "Shave and a haircut—shampoo". So the pubbery and the record company are sending out 3,500 different dee jay records on which Les completes the ditty. The second record has but two notes on it and it takes one second to play. It has the melody to the "Shampoo" part.

Birth Of A Band

NEW YORK—The newly formed Joe Rene Band debuted last week with a special performance for the trade at Nola Studios, this city. The 16-piece crew dished up some excellent dance music of varied tempos. Group is made up of piano, bass, guitar, vibes, 5 saxes, 2 trombones, 3 trumpets, drums and trumpet leader Rene. Rene's arrangements were attractive and made for mighty pleasing listening.

Hickory Celebrates 2nd Anniversary

NASHVILLE, TENN. — Hickory Records celebrated its second anniversary the first of this month as an exclusive Country music label under the supervision of Wesley Rose, who also heads up the Acuff-Rose Publishing firm.

Distributorship-wise, the label has undergone an over-all change during the past year, and various new distributors have been added to handle the Hickory line. Joe Lucus is in charge of the label's distribution and sales promotion and Rose handles all A&R work for the label. Bud Brown is office manager, assisted by Eleanor Huddleston and Dean May. Wendell Hanberry is head of the shipping and receiving department.

Mel Foree is field representative and field promotion man for both the Hickory label and the Acuff-Rose Publishing firm. Rose pointed out that Hickory is an exclusive Country music label, and the intent is not to branch off into any other fields.

Following is a list of the original artists who signed with the label at its inception two years ago: Al Terry, Jimmie Collie, Tommy Hill, and The McCormick Brothers. Thus far this year, Hickory has added three new acts: Wilma Lee and Stoney Cooper, the Rusty and Doug team who are currently riding high with their recording of "So Lovely, Baby" and their latest discovery Wiley Barkdull.

Mousson Assumes Management Of Del Wood

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE — It was officially announced here last week that Dewey Mousson has taken over the exclusive representation of Del Wood, auburn-haired RCA Victor keyboard artist, who came into national prominence with her recording of "Down Yonder." In addition to Del Wood, Mousson also holds an exclusive management tie with Little Jimmie Dickens, featured Grand Ole Opry entertainer and Columbia recording artist. It is understood that Del will be booked on personal appearances by Mousson as a 'single' plus fulfilling her engagements with the Little Jimmie Dickens Show.

"Gunsmoke"

NEW YORK—Disk Jockey Jack Valentine actively illustrates his latest MGM Record release "Gunsmoke" by blasting off with two six guns. The song is based on the new CBS-TV western show.

Whitman To Play London Palladium

NEW YORK—Ray Bartlett, manager of Slim Whitman, Imperial Record star, came to New York from Shreveport, La., last week, to meet with representatives of Lew and Leslie Grade, British personal appearance bookers.

An agreement was reached whereby the Grades will represent Whitman for several weeks as he appears at the London Palladium and the theatres in the provinces next April.

The demand for Whitman's appearance on the Isles was stirred up by two of his records released in England—"Indian Love Call" and "Rose Marie"—two disks which were hits in the United States some years back. "Rose Marie" is currently England's best selling record and it's been in the #1 spot for a number of weeks. "Indian Love Call" is currently on the rise in England. It now sits in the #9 spot on the best sellers.

Excello Signs Lightnin' Slim

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE—Ernest Young, head of Excello and Nashboro Record Companies here, announced last week that he has added Lightnin' Slim to his roster of Excello artists. Lightnin' Slim is best remembered for his hit recording of "I Can't Live Happy." Slim formerly recorded for the Feature label. Young plans to introduce the newly signed artist with a special release in the near future.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE OF THE WEEK

"DON'T POINT YOUR FINGER" (1:36)
 [Redd Stewart BMI—Stewart, Dull]
"I WONDER WHEN WE'LL EVER KNOW" (1:35)
 [Milene ASCAP—F. Rose]
JIM & JUNE WILSON
 (Mercury 70702; 70702X45)

● Jim Wilson, WAVE-Louisville, Ky. deejay who gained national prominence with his wonderful recording of "Daddy, You Know What?", comes up with a similar waxing that could very well follow suit. The tune, "Don't Point Your Finger", is a powerful, heartwarming moralizer that the talented DJ sings and recites with telling effect. Jim's young daughter June joins in again on this side with a few potent lines, one of which includes "Daddy, You Know What?". On the lower half, Wilson turns in another first rate narration as he delivers a beautifully moving item, from the pen of the late Fred Rose, titled "I Wonder When We'll Ever Know". Stellar choral support on both sides.

"THAT'S WHAT I LIKE" (2:35)
 [Murray Nash BMI—Axton, Reeves]
"I NEARLY GO CRAZY" (2:07)
 [American BMI—T. Fell]
TERRY FELL
 (RCA Victor 20-6256; 47-6256)

● Terry Fell, who created a heap of excitement, a while back, when he clicked with his waxing of "Don't Drop It", shifts over to the Victor label on this release as he offers two dandy sides, each of which could head way up there. On the top end, the chanter comes through in sparkling fashion as he delivers a fast paced, love novelty tagged "That's What I Like". Inviting lyrics tell of the songster's delight in romancin' with his sweetie. On the flip, Fell shows off his vocal versatility as he smoothly waxes an up tempo, lover's lament dubbed "I Nearly Go Crazy". Flavorful instrumental backdrop rounds out this two-sided money-maker for the ops and dealers.

JIMMIE WILLIAMS
 (MGM 12074; K12074)

B+ "I WOULDN'T HURT YOU FOR THE WORLD" (1:59)
 [White Oak BMI—Grieshop] Jimmy Williams' velvety tones are a listening treat on this heartfelt, slow tempo love item. First quality material treated to a top drawer vocal. Lovely side.

B "DON'T COME KNOCKING AT MY DOOR" (2:33)
 [White Oak BMI—Williams] Under lid is a fetching, up-beat sentimental piece that Williams warbles effectively.

MAC WISEMAN
 (Dot 1266; 45-1266)

B+ "WHEN THE ROSES BLOOM AGAIN" [American BMI—A. Delmore, R. Delmore] In his "pure country style" Mac Wiseman comes up with a rich performance on a quick tempo, heart rending ballad. Could be a big one. Keep your eye on it.

B+ "FIRE BALL MAIL" [Robbins ASCAP—W. Axt] Wiseman sells this high-flying train tune with authority. Great instrumentation. A double decker powerhouse.

CHARLIE ADAMS
 (Columbia 21443; 4-21443)

B "PISTOL PACKIN' MAMA HAS LAID HER PISTOL DOWN" (2:14)
 [Ridgeway BMI—C. Adams] Charlie Adams has a gay, happy-go-lucky cutie to work with and he handles it in attractive fashion. A fast moving ditty with catchy lyrics.

C+ "THEY CAN'T MAKE A DEVIL OUT OF MY ANGEL" (2:07)
 [Valley BMI—Le May] Flipside Adams turns in a soft, sincere reading on a feelingful, middle beat piece.

BOBBY BYRD
 (Sage and Sand 203; 45-203)

B "PLEASE DON'T HURT ME" (2:26)
 [Sage & Sand BMI—J. O'Neal] The distinctive tones of Bobby Byrd shine as he etches this up tempo romantic weeper. Melody and lyrics blend in poignant style.

C+ "DELICIOUS ARE YOUR KISSES" (1:45)
 [Sage & Sand BMI—B. Byrd, J. Fields] Lower side Byrd sends up a delectable performance on an enticing, quick beat bouncer. His Ranch Hands assist in tasteful fashion.

JIMMY COLLIE
 (Hickory 1033; 45-1033)

B+ "SHE WILL GET LONESOME" (2:36)
 [Acuff-Rose BMI—I. & C. Louvin] Jimmy Collie infectiously renders a terrific up tempo, love item that has hit possibilities. Splendid job loaded with feeling and personality.

B "SINNER'S ANGEL" (2:37)
 [Acuff-Rose BMI—A. Blasingame] The artist comes over well on this end too as he tenderly waxes a slow paced, tearful platter.

RED FOLEY (Sacred)
 (Decca 29667; 9-29667)

B+ "THE NIGHT WATCH" (2:20)
 [Copar BMI—Cindy Walker] Red Foley and the Anita Kerr Singers harmonize in brilliant fashion on an excellent piece of inspirational material. Great sales prospects here.

B "WHEN YOU COME TO THE END OF THE DAY" (2:32)
 [Bourne ASCAP—G. Kahn, F. Westphal] Red solos on this side as he handles another lovely, religious-flavored item with the utmost of sincerity.

HYLO BROWN
 (Capitol 3240; F3240)

B "LOVESICK AND SORROW" (2:30)
 [Central BMI—F. Brown, Jr.] The fine vocal styling of Hyllo Brown lends itself to a fast paced weeper with expressive lyrics. Good instrumental backdrop on a deck to watch.

B "A ONE SIDED LOVE AFFAIR" (2:26)
 [Central BMI—A. Dinning] This end Brown spins a lilting, middle tempo, crying towel item in persuasive fashion.

BUCK GRIFFIN (Sacred)
 (Lin 1014; 1014-45)

B "NEXT TO MINE" (2:37)
 [Lin BMI—W. D. Patty] Buck Griffin enters the religious fold as he joins force with the Happy Singers on a stirring, middle tempo gospel piece. Should do well in both the country and pop markets.

C+ "LORD, GIVE ME STRENGTH" (2:23)
 [Lin BMI—W. Mitchell] This end Griffin and the singers send up a prayer for forgiveness and Divine guidance. Moving two-sider.

THE CASH BOX Country Roundup

WSM GRAND OLE OPRY . . . Backstage at the Ryman Auditorium last Saturday night I was talking to Ferlin Huskey (Capitol) and naturally, Simon Crum's (Capitol) name was mentioned. Huskey informed me that Simon had earned a lot of royalties on "Cuzz Yore So Sweet" and had taken them all and bought himself a new convertible (1946) jeep. Later in the evening I took a ride with Simon in the 'jeep convertible' and . . . well, I'm lucky to be here to write about it! . . . Country Music's "well-dressed man" Eddie Hill is all set to do the Purina commercials for the forthcoming 'Opry' television debut on October 15 via ABC-TV. Further steps have been taken to promote the show . . . Mary Claire Rhodes who takes care of the front box offices at the 'Opry' on Saturday nights is currently modeling a Purina checkered Apron and Bonnet, the recognized design of all Purina products. Bill Monroe (Decca) and his Bluegrass Boys in town after several months on the road. Bessie Mauldin reports that the group were on tour for four months through the New England states and Canada. The group were taking a much needed rest last week just before opening in Canada again! Acuff-Rose Publication's office force out on Franklin Road turned out en-masse last Wednesday evening for the opening of their regular bowling season. The evening proved nothing . . . except there were several members of the pubbery present for the opening game. Those on the scene when we stopped in at the bowling alleys were Wes Rose, Joe Lucas, and Bud Brown. Wes commented about the team's poor averages for the evening: "Well, we gotta hold our averages down early in the season this way, so the folks won't be expecting so much later." Dot Wright has recently joined the WSM payroll department. Stopped in a local eatery the other afternoon and was chatting with Mary Jane Adams, secretary to Dee Kilpatrick of Mercury Records. While visiting with Mary Jane I met Rae Bundy the new promotion girl for Mercury. Rae is caring for Mercury record promotion in the Nashville area, plus Franklin, Gallatin and other nearby territory! Bob Ferguson the recipient of several congratulatory telegrams regarding his recently signed artist . . . Lee Emerson. Report from Ferguson says the lad is going like a house afire in the Northwest! Ferguson also holds the managerial reins for Ferlin Huskey. . . . Harry Silverstein, Decca Records Promotion man from Cincinnati, into Nashville for several days last week. Enroute to Nashville, Silverstein stopped off in Louisville, Ky. where he visited with various dealers and disk jockeys. Silverstein left Nashville for Memphis, New Orleans, Mobile, Ala., Birmingham, Alabama and will return to Cincinnati via Atlanta, Ga. Col. Tom Parker and wife Marie backstage at the 'Opry' last week. BILL MONROE

Little Jimmie Dickens (Columbia) has taken on the exclusive representation duties for Del Wood (RCA Victor). The combined shows are currently completing a tour of several dates in Texas. According to word from the offices of Hubert Long, personal manager of Faren Young (Capitol) Young has just completed film work in Mexico City, where he has been on location for the filming of "Daniel Boone." Even though Young does not appear as "Dan'l Boone" in the movie, he is co-starred with Bruce Bennett, who is portraying 'Boone'. Young is playing the part of the Colonel's son who has some mixed love scenes with "Dan'l Boone's" daughter. Just talked to Gabe Tucker, personal manager of Ernest Tubbs (Decca) and Justin Tubbs (Decca) prior to his flight to Texas. Tucker will be working record promotion in Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi before his return to Nashville! On Labor Day, the Browns worked El Dorado, Ark. and enjoyed capacity business. Ten thousand persons were on hand for the show. Bonnie Brown, featured on the above tune, has returned to College for the season. Word from Slick Norris informs us that the flip of Jimmy Newman's (Dot) "Blue Darlin'." . . . "Let Me Stay In Your Arms" is breaking big in several of the Southern states. Slick says comments have been very heavy recently on this tune.

JACK TURNER

BIG "D" JAMBOREE . . . Business on the upturn here last week, while the Big "D" celebrated its 10th Anniversary. Webb Pierce (Decca) was featured guest for the Anniversary Program. Hank Locklin (RCA Victor) with "These Ruins Belong To Me" and "Who Am I To Cast The First Stone," Sonny James (Capitol) with "Too Much" and "Bunny Huggin'," and Charline Arthur (RCA Victor) with "Kiss The Baby Goodnight" and "Honey Bun" seem to be taking their places right along with the best of them with these top recordings. COUNTRY SMATTERINGS . . . Talked to Norm Riley, Country Music promoter and he says he has Bob Wills (Decca) and his Texas Playboys set for their first Eastern tour. Included on the show with Wills will be Marvin Rainwater, who recently signed with MGM, Autry Inman (Decca), and Jerry Byrd (Decca). Tour opened in Birmingham, Ala. on Sept. 10th and will continue through October 1st, where final date will be played at Turner's Arena, in Washington, D. C. where Connie B. Gay, another C&W promoter joins in the show's promotion! Word from Jack Turner (RCA Victor) says that the Blackwood Brothers (RCA Victor) were recent guests on the Jack Turner Show over WSFA-TV in Montgomery, Ala. On Sept. 24th (this week-end) Jack and his Singing River Boys and Girls, along with Jimmy Porter will be in McComb, Miss. for a Jack Turner Day Celebration. The celebration calls for a parade, visit to radio stations, and concludes with a big evening show. Turner's "Alabama Jubilee" show over WSFA-TV on Tuesday nights is reported to be getting terrific response and all recording artists are invited to stop by and guest on the show whenever they are in the territory. Jack also continues with his Jack Turner Show on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights at five! Mac Wiseman (Dot) closed at the Casino Theatre on Sept. 7th after a very successful week with Slim Whitman (Imperial)! BUCK GRIFFIN

WAX-WISE . . . Take note of this name . . . I think it's going to be around awhile. . . . Wiley Barkdull . . . guess you'll have to take note of it if you're like myself . . . it's unusual but nevertheless I think this boy has something! He has his first release out on Hickory Records and the title of his new release is "Pencil and Paper Love" backed with "I'll Give My Heart To You." When you hear the record and wonder where you heard the the voice before . . . well, he's the deep bass singer on the Rusty and Doug release of "So Lovely, Baby." Wiley Barkdull . . . that's the name! Del Wood (RCA Victor) just completed another session for the label. Also, Martha Carson (RCA Victor) just returned from New York where she did a special session! "Cornpone" Bob McKinnon pens in to thank all the record companies for their courtesy while he was at WRFS-Alexander City, Ala. and to call their attention to the fact that he is moving over to KTKT-Tucson, Ariz. Steve Stebbins of the

RUSTY & DOUG

The tour will run from Oct. 10 through Oct. 27, and in addition to Lefty, will feature Billy Grey and the Western Oakies. . . . Leonard is especially interested in hearing from the states of Oregon, Washington, Wisconsin, Michigan, New York, Massachusetts, and Canada. Just write him at Lin Records, Box 421, Gainesville, Texas. . . . Steve Donoghue, WSPR-Springfield, Mass., reports that Ray Bradley's waxing of "Mule Skinner's Blues" has been doing very well in his area. . . . Tommy Collins is playing a series of one-niters for A. V. Bamford, starting September 15 in Colorado and working his way through New Mexico and Texas. Tommy's current, self-penned Capitol waxing is "You Oughta See Pickles Now" which is published by Central Songs. On the back side is "I Guess I'm Crazy." . . . Dallas Frazier playing one week at The Riverside in Phoenix, Arizona and then returns to Cliffie Stone's "Hometown Jamboree" telecast every Saturday night over KTLA, Los Angeles. . . . Speedy West and Jimmy Bryant have been set to record eight original tunes for Capitol Records. Etchings will be released as singles. Martha Lynn (RCA Victor) has just received her first release on the label . . . titles of the new one are "Learning To Love" and "Suddenly There's A Valley." This is a good coupling and should put this lassie right in there! Martha hails from Texas! The Wilburn Brothers (Decca) have received lotsa comment on their current platter and from all reports this one should go far in establishing these two friendly artists . . . Teddy and Doyle. Their new one is "Mixed-Up Medley" and "Temptation Go Away." Lee Emerson (Columbia) is reported among the top up and coming artists right now and his first two sides for the label . . . "A Pair Of Broken Hearts" and "You Call That Waitin'?" have received early response that looks very good. Ekko Records mails in their new release by the Cochran Brothers . . . "Your Tomorrows Never Come" and "Guilty Conscience." Boys are real country and do a good job! Lou Millet who holds forth with the "The Lou Millet Show" over WLCS in Baton Rouge, COCHRAN BROS.

La. is doing a fine job with his top ten mailings. Bobby Roberts (King) and The Ozark Drifters, has just recorded and had released his first record for the label. Unc'e Buck Lipe of KSGM, Ste. Genevieve, Mo. is personal manager for Bobby and Buck says the first release is "I'm Pullin' Stakes and Leavin' You" and "My Undecided Heart." The boys were in Nashville Sept. 17th and did the numbers on Ernest Tubbs' Midnight Jamboree Show. Terry Fell debuts on RCA Victor with two songs in the tradition of his great "Don't Drop It." First is called "That's What I Like" and the flip is "I Nearly Go Crazy." Lots of luck, Terry! Del Wood, Victor's auburn-haired keyboard artist really looking 'neat' these days . . . could be that Del is ready to make those television appearances??? Here's an interesting note . . . as of last week, Slim Whitman (Imperial) was holding down the number one spot, plus the number eight spot in the London, England popularity polls. Whitman begins as a 'regular' on the 'Opry' on October 29th and is managed by Ray Bartlett who visited the New York office this past week.

Here and There

NEW YORK—We've just read of some predictions by a group of some of the nation's leading scientists, inventors, chemists, industrialists, et al, about what to expect in both the near and distant future. We've seen the coin machine develop from its early days, and when we make comparisons from that time to today's equipment, it's an amazing advance. After reading what these men hold for the future, we wonder what the coin machines of that day will bring forth. Whatever it is, we know the machines will be as fantastic as those we'll see in other fields. For instance, plans by hard-headed, profit-minded businessmen call for: 1) A half-hour rocket passenger flight to Europe; 2) An economic system that will take care of all material needs within the framework of free enterprise and free industry, such as, in 20 years from now, Americans working six hours less a week, and earning 25 per cent more; 80 million cars on the roads as compared with 50 millions today; population rise to 213 millions; employment to 85 millions (now 65 millions); more old people, and more women holding down paying jobs; 3) A whole raft of electronic gadgets that will make Buck Rogers look like he's away behind the times.

DETROIT, MICH.—This is good news! Not only for coinmen, but for everyone in the country. It was disclosed that the automobile industry is preparing its 1956 models, featuring "safety". While it will in no way cut down on horsepower and styling, cars will contain safety devices aimed at substantially reducing injuries to passengers in the event of accidents. Ford was the first to make an announcement. So far, this company discloses it will include five safety features in its 1956 model. 1) A deep center safety steering wheel, which slowly gives way under crash impact. 2) Safety door latches, designed to prevent the door from springing open. 3) Seat belts for front and rear seats. 4) Crash cushioning for the instrument panel and sun visors. 5) Safety rear view mirrors to reduce the danger from shattering.

LONG ISLAND, N. Y.—An operator tells us he has equipment in a tavern opposite a cemetery, which displays a sign in its window that reads: "Come in and spend some time here. You'll be a long time across the street."

* And Still Another Reason For:

DIME PLAY

* Union Oil Company of California gives an illustration of how costs have risen by featuring a representative group of 22 items purchased for its day-to-day operations. It reports that the cost of the group has jumped from $42,164 in 1945 to $73,078 in 1951 to $91,879 in 1955.

Regardless of all its efficiency experts, its economists, its experienced purchasing agents, its many other saving-methods, even so large an organization as the Union Oil Company of California is now forced to report that the cost of its major 22 items, which it purchases to do day-to-day business has risen in price, in the past ten years (from 1945 to 1955) over 117%.

This company, like many, many others thruout the nation, to be able to remain in business and to continue to enjoy some return on its investment, has been forced to raise the prices of the products it sells.

This is no different than the tavern owners whose beer, wine, whiskey, food, and all other items have been raised to him. And he, in turn, has been forced to raise his selling price to his customers.

For music operators the costs of: Records, Tires, Gasoline, Trucks, Cars, Insurance, Tubes, Needles, Plastics, Fluorescents, Lumilines, Rent, Phonographs, Wall and Bar Boxes, Speakers, Volume Controls, Cable, Wire, Loans, Taxes, as well as salaries for: Office Help, Mechanics, Collectors, Bookkeepers, Accountants, Attorneys, and hundreds of other day-to-day requirements have risen far over 100% in the last ten years.

There is no longer any way out of this continuing inflationary morass than to match the increases with the necessary raises so that, somehow the music operator equalizes and reconciles his increases against his selling price.

Nor does this publication urge the music operators to "raise" the selling price of their music! The Cash Box, instead, has pointed out in the past, time and time and time again, that the American Dollar of 1939 was actually worth 100 complete, full American cents. Today, 1955, this very same American Dollar has been devaluated by inflation to a valuation of but 50c in buying power.

Therefore, with the 1955 American Dollar worth but 50c, the present Dime is only worth 5c.

And, to bring into further and stronger scope the reason why The Cash Box urges the nation's music operators to change to dime play (with the 1955 dime only worth as much as the 1939 nickel) is that, since 1939, costs of all requirements to do business have gone up over 300% to every music operator in the nation.

In fact, costs have risen better than 100% in the past ten years alone, not only to oil companies and other businesses, but also to the music operators.

Therefore when The Cash Box urges, thru the slogan it coined, "LET'S GET A NICKEL A PLAY AGAIN!" by using the 1955 Dime as the present Nickel—it also reminds the music operators that, only getting as much as they did 17 years ago in 1939, THEY ARE STILL PAYING 300% MORE FOR EVERYTHING THEY REQUIRE TO CONTINUE TO DO BUSINESS!

Dime play, of itself, may not be the complete answer. 'Front Money Guarantees' may also be necessary in many, many instances. But surely, when everything is considered by the intelligent music operators, they will admit that it's a lot better to get at least as much per play as they did 17 years ago, in 1939, the 1939 nickel being the 1955 dime, than to continue to charge a nickel which, based on the valuation of today's Dollar, is worth but 2½c.

"THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS" 17 YEARS OLD THIS WEEK

Have Kept Faith With Industry by Never Missing a Single Week's Publication. 833rd Consecutive Week's Issue Appears in "The Cash Box" Today. "The Cash Box Price Lists" are Officially Accepted Internationally. Are Used by Banks, Finance Firms, Governmental Agencies as well as Operators, Jobbers, Distributors, Manufacturers, Exporters, Importers and All Others Allied to the Industry. Are Recognized as Official "Blue Book" of C. M. Field.

"End-Of-Month Inventory Issue" of "The Cash Box Price Lists" Proven Invaluable to All in the Industry.

CHICAGO—The Cash Box exists today because, 17 years ago, "The Confidential Price Lists" came into being.

At first they were legal-sized typewritten sheets that were sent to various well known coinfirmers throught the country.

Demand for them grew so rapidly that they were mimeographed and featured machines in all categories on various colored papers.

They were in existence for about three years before The Cash Box itself came into being.

Once The Cash Box was created "The Confidential Price Lists" became part and parcel of this weekly publication.

At various times, in addition to being termed "The Confidential Price Lists", they were also called "The CMI (Coin Machines Industry) Blue Book".

To bring all names under one banner, about a year or so ago, the name decided on was "The Cash Box Price Lists". This is the name most commonly used by all the industry.

"The Cash Box Price Lists" have kept faith with the industry. They have never missed being published for even a single week in all the past 16 years.

Now entering their 17th year, "The Cash Box Price Lists" are accepted internationally.

Bankers, finance firms, loan companies, government agencies, cities, states and counties, as well as operators, jobbers, distributors, manufacturers, exporters and importers use them constantly.

Foreign countries use them officially for customs declarations on valuation of equipment of all kinds.

Operators, distributors and manufacturers in foreign countries refer to them constantly to evaluate American equipment.

Everywhere in the country the same statement is heard when anyone buys, sells or trades in this industry: "High 'Cash Box.' Low 'Cash Box'".

Estates of many deceased operators have been adjudicated by the courts of the land only by using "The Cash Box Price Lists".

Certified Public Accountants have presented them in countless tax cases as "fair market value" for any equipment which was in dispute. They have been officially recognized in this regard.

Countries all over the world communicate with The Cash Box regarding "The Cash Box Price Lists" when customs or duties or acceptance of any equipment is in question.

Many disputes have been settled by drawing a price "down the middle, between the low and high", in partnerships and in other matters relative to sales and purchases of routes.

In addition to this unbroken, consecutive weekly service "The Cash Box Price Lists" have given to the industry, an addition was made some years ago known as the: "End-Of-Month Inventory Issue".

This has proved itself invaluable to those who own equipment all over the world.

Tho imitated time and again, imitators have completely failed, because of the fact that "The Cash Box Price Lists" are guided by men with over 25 years of experience in this field and, furthermore, because they are the most complete, most authentic and most carefully compiled for the benefit of all the industry, worldwide.

United Starts Six Day Work Week

Arranges Biggest Production Schedule in Firm's History

BILL DeSELM

CHICAGO—"We are arranging for the biggest production schedule in the history of our firm," is the way Bill DeSelm, general sales manager, reported United Manufacturing Company's new six full days work week which went into effect with this past week.

Said DeSelm, "We are simply deluded with orders and this full six days' work week was instituted in an effort to catch up on our backlog of orders.

"Whether we will or will not be able to catch up is something we can't tell as yet, because of the fact the orders are coming in faster than we can ship, regardless of this six full days work each week."

Biggest production schedules, according to DeSelm, are set for "Pixies," the firm's new inline game: the three models of "Bonus Shuffle Alley," and production continuing for "Super Slugger," "Derby Roll" and "DeLuxe Derby Roll" and "Capitol Shuffle Alley."

De Selm also stated, "The Cash Box' told the truth when it reported that this Fall-Winter season was under way with greater production and more optimism than ever before.

"Not only that," he added, "but 'The Cash Box' should also have reported that, at least as far as we're concerned, business is better than ever."

ALL-STATE COIN MACH. EXCH.

2317 N. Western Ave., Chicago, Ill.
(All Phones: BElmont 5-6770)

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.—What was probably the most interesting and the most pleasant sales convention the AMI distributors have ever attended, took place this past week, Wednesday and Thursday, September 14 and 15, at the Rowe Hotel, as well as the AMI factory in this city.

Executives of the firm reported as the sessions came to a close, and which was agreed to by all the distributors present:

"This was the most enthusiastic gathering in all of our history."

Many arrived here on Tuesday evening, September 13, and eagerly awaited the showing of the new AMI model "G" the next day.

The applause that greeted this new, modern and very colorful phonograph caused every one of the engineers and executives of the firm to smile with pride.

AMI distributors believe that this year's model "G" has even finer tone than last year's model "F". And as many of those distributors stated:

"We never would have believed that any phonograph ever made would supersede in high fidelity tonal qualities the marvelous model 'F'."

Distributors are tremendously enthused over the new color effects. They are also very much pleased with the design of the phonograph and with the appearance which it makes.

The entire sales convention dealt with the modernistic theme surrounding the complete design and plan of the new "G". From sales talks to slides to advertising literature to playlets, it was the most interesting sales convention, the AMI distributors said, they had ever attended.

Though information as to the many features of the new model "G" is as yet being withheld by the firm as a courtesy to their many distributors, the distributors, themselves, were so enthused that many phoned to their offices to advise their staffs that they, as one distrib said,

"Have the greatest of them all in the new AMI model 'G'."

Many of the distributors present brought entire crews of their men along with them and held their own private meetings. These men claim that they had something "really great" to present to the operators in their areas this year.

The Rowe Hotel in this city was the center of all the meetings, displays, dinners and merriment.

Distributors and executives of the firm mingled freely and openly discussed plans for the forthcoming showings in various areas as well as what they felt the future held for AMI, Inc. and its distributor organization.

In addition to the distributors and executives of AMI, Inc., there were also many finance firms' representatives and bankers present who had been invited to come to the showing with the distributors. These men spoke brilliantly regarding the future of the automatic phonograph industry and why they were happy to financially serve this field. They were very much impressed with what they saw and heard and stated that they had been given a new insight into the field and would be able to bring back to their firms a much closer and better understanding of the automatic music industry.

In the meantime, as the meetings finished, many distributors were heard to say,

"Just can't wait until I get back to my offices and can tell my operator-customers all about the new model 'G'. This is the phonograph that's going to set new sales records for us and for AMI as well."

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Even after a week of over 100-degree temperatures, there was still plenty of activity along Pico Boulevard. The good business conditions which have prevailed through the whole summer held up during the heat wave. . . . A good indication of the healthy state of business are the plans now in preparation at California Music. In the design stage now are plans for a new building to be erected on Pico by Sammy Ricklin to house his expanding one-stop operation. Sammy has had this project in mind for quite some time, and it should certainly benefit operators by adding to the fine service California Music gives them. In line with expansion plans Gabe Orland is busy revising the California Music mailer to operators, changing the layout to give them faster and better service. Things were so busy last week that Sammy recruited his wife, Beck, to come in and help Martha and the girls on the counter. In visiting the store last week were Bob Manning with Buck Stapelton, Capitol's Promotion man. Selling well to the ops last week were both the Frankie Laine and the Bobby Lord versions of "Hawkeye". . . . Chuck Allen of Modern Music in Long Beach got the boat he and his brothers built into the water last week, and from all reports it's one of the finest in the harbor. . . . The operation at M. A. C. Vendors, in which ten of the local Los Angeles operators are interested, continues to grow with more phonographs, games and cigarette machines being added every week. . . . Hank Tronick set Monday, Sept. 19 as the date of the showing of the new Seeburg 100 and 200 Selectomatic Phonographs. Open House will continue throughout this week from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. for all operators and music business people, at the Minthorne Music offices and showroom on Pico Boulevard.

Gene Wasson, AMI service man for the Western states is visiting at Badger. . . . D. D. McClurg, one of the biggest operators of phonographs and games in the Santa Barbara area in town calling on all the distributors last week. . . . Dick Halper, the new Decca salesman for the Pico area in calling on Mary and Kay Solle at Leuenhagen's Record Bar. The girls reported that Gale Storm's Dot recording of "I Hear You Knocking" was selling well with the ops. Don Robertson, writer of the current hit "Hummingbird" stopped by to see Mary and Kay last week. Also in visiting was Lester Sills of Spark Records who has the song "Black Denim Trousers and Motorcycle Boots". Kay had this one listed as her third best seller after only two weeks on the counter. . . . Ken Arnold of Barstow vacationing on a boat trip to Seattle. . . . Al Bettelman at C. A. Robinson & Co. out calling on the Los Angeles operators on the United "Pixie" game. Charley Robinson waiting for delivery of the new "Super Bonus" bowling game from United. . . . Gene De Vilbis from Big Bear Lake in town, and said the past Labor Day week-end was the biggest in the history of Big Bear. Thousands of Angelenos headed for the mountains to escape the heat and were rewarded by cool forty degree temperatures during the nights. . . . Frank Lamb of Montabello off to Mexico on vacation. . . . Ed Wilkes at Paul A. Leymon Co. very enthused about the new "Miami Beach" in-line game from Bally.

Jack Dolan of Sierra Distributors back from a very successful sales trip through the southern part of the territory. Paramount Theatre made a promotional tie-in with Sierra in conjunction with Lionel Hampton's opening at the downtown Paramount Theatre on Sept. 13. Clef Records supplied Sierra with copies of all Hampton records which were then distributed to operators. . . . George Miller to Attend Music Ops of N. Y. Banquet

Will Confer With Al Denver And Sidney Levine On Several MOA Matters

NEW YORK—Al Denver, president of Music Operators of New York, reports that George A. Miller, president of Music Operators of America (MOA) is flying in to attend the 18th Annual Banquet of the association being held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on Saturday night, October 8.

Miller will stay on for about a week after the banquet, and Denver advises he will discuss MOA matters with Sidney Levine and himself. Denver and Levine are on the advisory committee of MOA.

Among the subjects to be talked over are Public Relations Program; a National Radio Hook-up program;

3rd Performance Rights Society; AS-CAP type legislation; and several other matters pertinent to the welfare of the music machine industry.

Miller has been holding similar talks with other members of the advisory committee in preparation for the meeting of the executive committee later on in Chicago, at which time all these subjects will come before their attention.

At the same time, Denver stated that the forthcoming banquet looms as one of the best ever held in this city. Two bands, one a Mambo, will be available for dancing, and, as usual, top recording artists will entertain.

Bowler Tournaments Double Collections

MASSILLON, OHIO—Ed Elum, Elum Music Company, this city, reports that bowler-earnings are easily doubled by organized tournaments.

Elum, who operates many bowlers in his area, promotes tournaments by a copyrighted plan for which he is distributor. Key of the tournament is a blackboard, 3 ft. by 3 ft., stating rules of the tournament and providing space for 15 players to enter their names as contestants by bowling a pre-announced qualifying-score, usually 200. Board is displayed in each location, together with prizes awarded at intervals of 2 weeks.

"Tournaments increase play in several ways," says Elum. "First, players play to qualify. Even after 15 players are listed, other players can 'bump' qualified players by topping the lowest listed scores. Naturally this competition to get on and stay on the tournament list results in a busy coin-chute.

"Then, too, during the 2 week pre-tournament period, qualified players are constantly playing, not only to defend their place on the list, but to keep in practice, and improve their shooting in preparation for the run-off.

"The run-off with preliminaries, quarter-finals, semi-finals and finals produces a nice evening's play, and, of course, after the run-off, the momentum keeps players for the rest of the evening. Next day another 2-week period starts, and the cycle of play starts over again.

"Because locations get, not only increased cash-box receipts, but increased bar and snack business, as well as widespread publicity, location-owners are enthusiastic about the tournament idea and will usually cooperate on prizes.

"Although very worthwhile prizes are awarded, the tournament plan is not open to criticism, because the players are competing against each other for prizes, not merely receiving prizes for a certain score.

"The tournament idea may be used with any type of group-play bowler, including speed-control bowlers, such as Bally "Jumbo Bowler" and "King-Pin Bowler." Bally bowlers scoring by Official Bowling Rules—"Abe-Bowler" and "Congress-Bowler"—are, however, specially adapted to tournament play. Official Bowling Rules add prestige to the tournament and equalize players' skill on a strictly bowling-aim basis.

"I shall be happy to outline details of the tournament idea to operators, not only because I sell the board that has proved successful in doubling my bowler collections, but also because I know that every bowler-operator in the country can profit by promoting tournaments."

Bally Mfg. Production At All Time Peak

CHICAGO—A trip through the plant of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city, reveals that the firm is at its busiest peak of all time. The production lines of Bally are turning out a total of 8 products.

"Miami Beach," newest in-line game, heads the list.

Bally bowlers in production are "ABC" bowler and "Congress" bowler, scoring by Official Bowling Rules, the latter game with match-score features; together with "Jumbo" bowler and "King-Pin" bowler (match model), scoring spares, strikes and close-aim super-strikes by speed-control of puck shots.

For the kiddie market, Bally is rolling on "The Champion," Bally-horse (in production since spring of 1952 and reported as popular as ever); "Model T," flashed up version of "Hot Rod," auto-ride which Bally officials state will soon catch up with "The Champion" in total sales; and "Bull's-Eye," junior shooting gallery with bears, as well as bison, moose and mountain-lions to test the marksmanship of junior Davey and Daisy Crocketts.

All 8 Bally products are reported to be doing well above average in the cash-box department.

Watch Out!

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—D. J. "Joe" Barton, manager of the Jacksonville office of Bush Distributing Company, writes The Cash Box that his office has been informed from several sources that an individual is travelling thru the Southern territory, representing himself to be a representative of a distributing firm, soliciting sales from locations.

"On several occasions," writes Barton, "we have been informed that this particular person received deposits from locations on various types of coin-operated equipment, particularly cigarette machines. He has never delivered any of the equipment, nor has he returned any of the deposits or down payments.

"I felt that the trade should be informed of this condition because of the success this man has had in hoodwinking prospective buyers in this area. In all probability he will show up elsewhere.

"In this particular territory I was told the man used the name of W. E.

HOUSTON HAPPENINGS

Henry L. Bailey, owner of American Shuffleboard Sales Co., Statewide top dealer in that line, said shuffleboards had finally hit the comeback trail in Texas. Nothing sensational but a solid overall business increase over last year. He gave out the impression that conventional operation of shuffleboards plus a bit of strictly legal promotion (prizes, awards, etc.) was conducive to lucrative cash returns. Henry went through the shuffle boom, survived the slump and ended atop the heap Statewide. . . . Bob Davenport, who recently sold his Coin Machine Exchange, went partners with Billy Rider and together they opened the Ace Record Shop at 832 Telephone Road. The boys managed to tie in with a locally popular radio-TV program and have contracted advertising in East End high school papers. The shop is near campus of Austin High, one of the larger schools. . . . Dorothy Maines, popular secretary at Houston S. H. Lynch Co. (Seeburg) real proud of her new Ford, a birthday present from her husband. . . . Garland Methvin, general manager of Automatic Cigarette Service, Beaumont, in town on an equipment buying spree. In addition to extensive cigarette operations in Beaumont, Methvin has Ray's Amusement Co., music operations, at Orange. . . . Tommy Foster, routeman, Big State Amusement, out of harness for several days because of an illness finally diagnosed as laryngitis. . . . Attractive Evelyn Osborn, secretary for Big State Amusement cigarette operations, so busy lately she has fallen behind on her Cash Box reading. . . . Doug Shiver, owner of Shiver Amusement Co., Richmond, in the City stocking up on records and other music operating accessories. . . . Vernon Meek, San Antonio, United Records salesman, visited at Houston office of United Record Distributors Sept. 9-10. . . . Roy F. Buckner, vice-president and general manager, Gossage Music Co., said business had been exceptionally good the past summer. Gossage Music has two major record stores in Houston. Buckner is manager of The Groove on Main St. and Mrs. Gossage, president of the company manages Avalon Record Shop on Westheimer. . . . Had our first real visit in many moons with that well known coinman C. O. (Red) Harrington. (Harrington Amusement Co.) Actually Red is hardly middle aged (served in World War II) but his wide range of activity causes some to think of him as older. C. O. always took sides promptly in every issue and his stand was always vigorously (to put it mildly) defended. . . . While visiting Cecil Robertson at his Automatic Amusement Co. met Louis J. Cantele, owner of Hot Wells resort, a well known health and amusement spot at Cypress, some twenty-five miles from Houston. Cantele said past summer business was excellent. Coin operated machines are very much a part of Hot Wells and similar resorts.

Gottlieb Clicks With New "Wishing Well"

DAVID GOTTLIEB

CHICAGO—"This looks like the greatest five-ball game we have produced in a long, long time", was the statement made by Alvin Gottlieb of D. Gottlieb & Company, this city this past week, when the firm officially announced its new single player five-ball game "Wishing Well".

Four rows of four advancing colored lights offering special targets to players, along with the possibility of skillfully scoring free games, is something that is bound to challenge the skill of any five-ball player anywhere in the nation. The colorful board arrangement, the new Gottlieb special features, the beautiful cabinet, the many skill-play ideas all combined into one game, makes "Wishing Well", as Gottlieb executives reported: "One of the most outstanding five-ball games our firm have ever produced." But Dave Gottlieb had this to say of the firm's newest creation: "This is one game where everyone of our distributors has come thru with some of the finest orders they have ever placed. "It is one of the games where our distributing organization has not only gone all-out as far as business potential is concerned, but have frankly told us, 'This is a truly great game'. "And that's something", Dave Gottlieb added, "that we look forward to hearing. We know that our distributors are very close to their operator-customers and, before giving us their personal opinion of any game we ship, they check with their operators who have already placed the games on locations. "Therefore", he concluded, "we feel very safe in stating that, as far as our factory is concerned, there is now no doubt that 'Wishing Well' has helped us start the new fall-winter season with better business than ever."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE EASTERN FLASHES

Fall activity is quite evident along coinrow. Games wholesalers report keen interest in all new machines. Music operators anxiously awaiting the unveiling of the phonographs of AMI and Seeburg. At the same time distributors for the phonos of Wurlitzer and Rock-Ola report a spurt in sales since the Labor Day holidays. Every indication points to a big Fall and Winter.

Reports coming in from operators in the recently flooded areas are heartening. Seems that damage isn't as bad as originally thought. Some operators, caught in the devastated areas, naturally were hurt very badly. But the majority of coinmen figure their losses ran from 3 to 5 machines on the average. Heartening, also, is the report that not many locations were totally destroyed. Most of them, after a clean-up and repair job, are now functioning. . . . Harry and Hymie Koepfel, Koepfel Distributing Co., advise that, in addition to wholesaling reconditioned music, they will now handle every type of coin operated equipment—amusement machines and vendors. . . . Tried our hand, once again, on Exhibit's "Skill Pool" at Mike Munves' and did much better than last week. A little more practice, and no doubt we'll develop into a pool shark. Mike tells us the game going big. . . . Joe Fishman, Atlantic, Penna. Corp., Phila., visits with Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic, New York, and they discuss the details of their showings for the new Seeburg phonos. They present us with a disc called the "Toroid" unit which goes into the "Tormat" unit, and which reads "Seeburg Memory". We're supposed to carry this disc with us so that we can recall from memory all names of our friends, how to spell them, and other matters that slip the mind. Parkoff claims that in addition to performing miracles for the Seeburg phonos, in our instance, will, thru osmosis, perform the same miracles with our mind. (Note: We doubt it!). . . . Iz Edelman in town. Is finished with his vacation stay at Scroon Lake. Will remain in town until after the Moore-Marciano fight, for which he has tickets. Edelman's firm, Edolite Products, Detroit, manufacturing "Ten-Hi", a pool table, which is displayed here at Dave Lowy & Co., his distrib.

Watch Al D'Inzillo, Albert Simon, Inc., as he displays his skill on Genco's new football game "Quarterback". Al pretty good at it. Al Simon, who attended the Yankee-Cleveland double header on Sunday, with his son, had quite a time of it, particularly as the Yankees dropped the second game. . . . Barney (Shugy) Sugerman and Abe Green, Runyon Sales away to Chicago and Grand Rapids. Irv (Kempy) Kempner, Morris Rood and Lou Wolberg, holding down the N.Y. office, report that music ops eagerly awaiting the arrival of AMI's model "G" phonos. . . . West Side Air Terminal opens this week. Located on the corner of 42nd St. and 10th Ave. Will make it most convenient for visitors to coinrow who fly in. In addition, that restaurant is expected to open very soon. . . . Several phonos, beat up in recent flood, in Joe Young's Young Distributing Co. shop. Abe Lipsky reports sales of Wurlitzer phonos up the past few weeks. . . . Ed Czajka, Eddie's Amusement, Danbury, Conn., visiting on the street. . . . "Senator" Al Bodkin, Lou Herman and Howard Herman cutting it up in one of the wholesalers, and seemed to be having quite a laugh-time. . . . Over at Seacoast Distributors, even floor sample of Rock-Ola's model "1448" missing. Dave Stern and Bob Slifer explain they sold it as they were expecting another shipment in that day. . . . Max Levine, Scientific Machine Corp., on coinrow, visiting. . . . Sam Solway drops us a line from Ste. Agathe Des Monts, Que., Canada, that he's building a new and modern shop, which will give him three times the floor space. . . . Stanley Lacheta, Boston operator, spends the week-end (Sept. 17 and 18) in N.Y., and takes in the Dorothy Collins-Raymond Scott "Your Hit Parade" TV show. . . . While referring to the newly opened West Side Air Terminal Bldg., we forgot to mention that this building provides underground parking facilities. Will be helpful to the wholesalers themselves, as well as for visitors who expect to spend several hours on the street.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE UPPER MID-WEST MUSINGS

Joe Totzke, Totzke Music Company of Fairmont, Minn. is back on the job again after an extended vacation way out West. Joe spent a few hours in the Twin Cities checking up on the latest in coin operated games and to see what new games had come out since the last trip into town. . . . Leo De Mars and son Jim of Ashland, Wis. spent a day in the Twin Cities shopping and picking up supplies and records for their route. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Gil Bisek of Park Rapids, Minn. were seen shopping. . . . Selma Nelson of Minneapolis reports that business was better than ever at the Hoop a la Arcade which she has at the State Fair. One could understand this with the over one million attendance. In spite of her tender years Selma certainly manages to get the arcade set up for the season and to keep it and the machines all running thruout the whole fair season. . . . Forrest Dahl of Fergus Falls, Minn. spent a few hours in the Twin Cities shopping around for equipment for his route. . . . The boys all line up to play the pool table which is on the floor at the Lieberman Music Company. Even Irv Sandler of the Sandler Distributing Company stopped in to take his crack at the then top man, Lew Rubin of the Lieberman Music Company. . . . Recent visitors to the Twin Cities were: Johnny Johnson of Staples, Minn.; Walter Fisher of Pipestone, Minn.; Gabby Cluseau of Grand Rapids, Minn.; Frank Phillips of Winona, Minn.; Jack Harrison of Crosby, Minn.; and John McMahon of Eau Claire, Wis.

How times do change. Back in the '30's some music ops changed coin chutes and featured records in their phonos at 2½c each, 2 for 5c. Music ops, this year of '55, will get the opportunity to sell tunes on their new 200 phono, Seeburg Distributors advise, at 7½c each, 2 for 15c. Very few of these 2 for 15c EP disks run over 4 minutes for both tunes, they report. (The Cash Box fought to get 'diskeries to make 2 minute records. The Cash Box originated the idea of 'timing' all record releases. So that record mfrs would heed the 2 minute crusade.) . . . Jack Nelson talks about "timing." Tells how important "perfect timing" is to introduction of new products in this industry. "For example," he says, "just take our new 'Miami Beach.' This game was perfectly timed." Jack reports that Bally enjoying greater acceptance for "Miami Beach" than for any game so far produced in '55.

Demand for a "National Credit Bureau" begins to grow greater each week. The Cash Box will, once again, revive the facts as to why such a "Bureau" should come into being. . . . Appreciate San Francisco's Walt Huber sending us those oversize match books. . . . What a grand gathering at the Bally-rooms. Lou Dunis, Bill Happel, Jr., Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Michaels, Wally Finke, Joe Kline, Barnet (Shugy) Sugarman, Abe Green, Abe Susman, and many others. All hosted by Bill O'Donnell, Jack Nelson and Phil Weinberg. . . . Bally now in its 5th production release of its kiddie gun, "Bally Bull's Eye." And the new Bally "Model T" also coming off production lines just as speedily as possible. . . . With not a room to spare in Our Town, AMI distributors came in one right after the other. Whattajobtogetroomsfortheseboys. . . . And just as tight as those letters are, is how they were crushed up together, before leaving for Grand Rapids, and the big AMI distributors' convention. . . . Dave, Sol, Nate and Al Gottlieb all excited over the marvelous reception their brand new single player five-ball, "Wishing Well," received from all of their distributors. The game had been tested, retested and tested all over again—all over—everywhere.

Ed Levin of ChiCoin returned from a fast trip throughout the Texas countryside and, as he landed in Chi on Friday, was told to fly right out to Baltimore. What a job that was. Ed dashed to the airport as a "stand-in." But, luckily, got the first plane out. . . . Seeburg distributors will be showing their new dual music system phonos this week. . . . Bill DeSelm more excited than ever as United goes into a full six day work week with production stepped up to the very, very top peak. What created all the backlog? "Pixies." And the three models of "Bonus Shuffle Alley" according to Bill. . . . Lou and Ann Koren, two swell people, at the Ambassador. . . . Joe Robbins reports that Empire's new "Export Catalog" now being mailed out everywhere overseas. "It's a great job," Joe says. . . . Even as he was announcing Williams' two new games, "Smoke Signal" and "Bank Shot," Art Weinand was grabbing for his coat and dashing for the airport, to visit with many of the firm's distributors. . . . John Kerns of Western States Amuse. Co., Colorado Springs, Colo., writes, "Everyone, or almost everyone, likes to brag. I am the person responsible for the industry having in-line games. Of this I'm sure."

Frank Mencuri made a fast trip to the East. Then comes back—ready to dash out again. Sam Lewis chases out into the street to grab him. And advise Frank that he will have to hold off his trip to the West Coast because all of their distributors in that area sold out of "Skill Pool." Now Frank sitting and waiting for the shipments to get out there so that he can fly West again. . . . Always interesting. The "Jonesland Journal." Congrats to R. F. Jones, C. N. (Mac) McMurdie, Johnny Ruggiero and all the other swell Jones Boys on this Aug.-Sept. issue. . . . Paul Huebsch reports, "Now I'm really busy." Explains that Keeney's "Fascination" pool game, "Challenge Bowler," Deluxe Hot Coffee (and Cigarette) Vendors, "just going like lightning." And then adds, "In addition I'm busy trying to cure my cold. What a pip." . . . Very interesting issue of "The Seeburg Voice," house organ of the firm. All about the Seeburg plant and personnel. Most impressive—the number of employees who have been with Seeburg for 25 years and more.

Avron Gensburg dashes back to town to help Ralph Sheffield get those new Genco football games out to market. The two boys busier than they've ever been before. . . . Charley Lichtman who has been in the coinbiz over 30 years writes to say "Hello." Now in Newark, N. J. . . . Maurie and Eddie Ginsburg, Nate Feinstein and Harold Schwartz and Bill Phillips and all the gang over at Atlas Music but plenty excited as showing dates of the new Seeburg phonos draw near. . . . Walter Tratsch gets us on the phone to tell us all about his brand new '56 model "Challenger." Also all about the new models of "Rifle Sport." And all the chutes, paymeters and other accessories the firm produces. (Aside: "We'll be out soon, Walter, to have a beer and reminisce.")

Vince Shay advises, "Just had an operator in here who wanted to trade three yellow dogs for one black cat. But," asks Vince, "what're we gonna do with all those black cats?" Vince also of the opinion that every op should try at least one of every new game. "Know what," he says, "any new game produced brings a newer idea. They keep adding and adding and, before you know it," he advises, "a really different game hits the field, which is the result of all the improvements and additions to the original principle." . . . Roy Small of United Music Ops of Mich. advises that the organization planning a permanent home, club rooms and all, with a One-Stop Record Service to carry the load. . . . Ed Brown of Dallas writes to advise that he remembers 'way back when The Cash Box was a mimeo'd job. And when Bill Gersh used to sign his name in big, red crayon letters. (You're so right, Edward.) . . . George

A. Miller of MOA all hepped up over the idea of 5,000 new members for this big organization. . . . Leo Weinberger of Louisville advises that his firm going all out on the new products and foresees, "The finest Fall season of all time."

With all the boys coming to Chi for the Seeburg and now the AMI meets, some of the old timers ganged up on us and asked a few questions. . . . Asked one, "Do you recall the Thomas A. Edison recording unit that used to say 'Thank You'?" (We sure do. This was installed on the Camco vending machine. A vender that used to make change. Franklin D. Roosevelt was a "Director" of this firm. In fact, Willie "Little Napoleon" Blatt bought out a warehouse full of them, when he was Supreme Vending Co., 557 Rogers Ave., Brooklyn. Sold them for $2.50 each). . . . Still another question we were asked, "Do you recall the Rowe cigarette machines with the two cherubs holding up the circular mirror?" (Do we? Not only do we know the machine, originally built in the late Bill Rowe's cellar in Inglewood, Calif., we had a hand in re-designing it. Produced a vender called, "The Imperial". As Robert Z. (Bobby) Greene will testify): . . . To the old timers who like to ask us these questions we suggest that they remember The Cash Box is edited by men who've been in the coinbiz for over 25 years each.

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

[Also known as the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Price Lists" acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin Games—and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.

REGARDING SELLING PRICES

IMPORTANT!

Reports received indicate that, in some cases, purchasers become upset due to the fact that they cannot, many times, buy equipment listed in the lower price brackets. Sometimes sellers of machines listed at from $10.00 to $25.00 ask from $50.00 up to $75.00 and even more for these very same machines. Purchasers of such equipment must realize that machines in the very low priced categories much worn to be priced at these low figures. To completely recondition such machines, the reconditioner must add onto his price the cost of transportation to obtain these machines, the labor, parts and supplies needed to recondition the machines, plus the cost of cartons, crates and labor for packing and shipping of the machines, in addition to a decent profit which will, in most cases, raise the price of a $10.00 to $20.00 machine to anywhere from $50.00 to $75.00 and up. In the case of arcade and kiddie ride machines these may even be higher due to the fact that many of the parts have to be made by hand or contracted for at some machinist shop, since manufacturers of many of the old arcade machines and kiddie rides are no longer in business, and it is impossible to obtain parts for reconditioning. Purchasers of such equipment should take these facts into consideration and, at the same time, should also realize that many buyers today have their own repair and reconditioning departments as well as experienced mechanics. These buyers will purchase machines "as is" at prices quoted by the trade at large and recondition the machines themselves to meet their own operating standards.
