They're together again. The Gaylords, who originally consisted of Ronnie Gaylord, Bert Bonaldi and Don Rea, have joined forces once again. The boys have had such hits as "Tell Me You're Mine", "From The Vine Came The Grape" and "The Little Shoemaker" and now their first one for Mercury since their reunion is "Magic Song" and "Oui Marie". Shown above, from left to right, are: Nat Tarnpol, Mercury's new A&R man in Detroit; Ronnie Gaylord; Don Rea; Bert Bonaldi; and John Kaplan, Mercury's Detroit distributor who discovered The Gaylords.

WHAT KIND OF MUSIC FOR '58?

What kind of music is in store for us in 1958?

From where we sit, we would say more of the same.

There have been many around who have been predicting the demise of Rock and Roll for several years now. Well, they're still predicting it. But if the crowds that Alan Freed drew at the New York Paramount last week are any criterion, Rock and Roll is not only still with us, but apparently stronger than ever.

But in addition to Rock and Roll, there has been an obviously widening market for ballads. Some of the beautiful slower numbers which didn't stand a chance only a couple of years ago, are now not only making it, but staying up on the charts a long, long time.

This has been the pattern in 1957 and it is safe to say that unless some strikingly new rhythm comes along in 1958, it will remain the pattern.

Between these two types of music, the industry is covering effectively the two distinct groups of our population who buy popular records—the teenagers and those who have in the last decade passed that stage.

It is well known that Rock and Roll appeals almost completely to the teenage market. Somehow the beat seems to say what teenagers want to say and emotionally, it represents them. The ballads, however, which are coming more and more into vogue, seem to be appealing to a slightly older audience, the people who started buying records when they were in their teens and who have continued buying records at a later date, but who no longer are attracted to the same kind of music. This is essentially the audience that is buying the ballad and it is an audience that must continue to grow as our population grows and as our record business expands so that more and more teenagers get into the record collecting habit. It is this habit that must be cultivated and encouraged for once teenagers get used to buying pop records, it is more likely they will continue to buy them even after they pass the teenage level.

And so the music business in 1958 can look forward to pretty much the same kind of music that was prevalent in 1957 with this one difference—there will be an expanding market for its wares. More and more people will buy records. More and more teenagers will acquire the record collecting habit. And therefore there will be a need for more music of all sorts and particularly the two basic types which cover the majority of the record buying public today, Rock and Roll and ballads.

JIV-A-TONES
(Felsted 8506)

B+ "FLIRTY GERTIE" (2:27)
[Techumseh BMI—Barber] The Jiv-A-Tones, an exciting new rock and roll instrumental group, bows under the young Felsted banner with a torrid jumper. Dean Stevens handles the vocal chores. Watch this sleeper. It could step out. It's got that something extra.

C+ "FIRE ENGINE BABY" (2:02)
[Techumseh BMI—Broome, Holden] The boys come up with some exciting sounds on this end too. Another fast moving rocker.

GORDAN MacRAE
(Capitol 3864)

B+ "NOW" (2:32) [Bourne ASCAP—Ballard] Gordon MacRae lilts invitingly thru a smooth romantic ballad with a pleasant melody and pretty lyrics.

B "IF I FORGET YOU" (2:32)
[Irving Caesar ASCAP—Caesar] A heartfelt reading of a moving love ballad is handled with finesse by the polished songster. Class merchandise.

JACK HUDDLE
(Kapp 207)

B+ "BELIEVE ME" (2:32) [Nor-Va-Jak-Melody Lane BMI—Robinson, Petty] In acquiring this master, Kapp has a potential hit plus a talented new pop singer with a bright future. Strong ballad with a definite teenage appeal. This could develop into a big one.

C+ "STARLIGHT" (2:08) [Nor-Va-Jak-Melody Lane BMI—Huddle, Petty, Robinson] A rhythmic, country-flavored tune that takes off on the "Starlight, Star Bright" rhyme and glides into a R & R jumper.

DAVE RICH
(RCA Victor 7141)

B+ "I'VE THOUGHT IT OVER" (2:16) [Tree BMI—Smith, Riley, Woodfolk] Dave Rich, one of Victor's most promising young talents, could step out and make a big name for himself with this terrific fish-beat ballad. Side has an excellent teenage theme which the vocalist reads with style and feeling. Jockeys interested in developing a sleeper into a hit oughta listen to this deck.

C+ "SCHOOL BLUES" (2:04)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—Rich] A shuffle beat rock-a-billy ditty is handled in pleasant, danceable fashion by the versatile star. Watch this lad. He's headed for the big-time.

DINAH SHORE
(RCA Victor 7138)

B+ "THIRTEEN MEN" (2:51)
[Danby BMI—Thompson] Delightful Dinah plays the role of a sultry maiden on this end as she chants an imaginative ditty about a town with thirteen men and only one gal in it. Exciting side that could make noise for the lark, especially with TV exposure. One of Miss D's most commercial decks in quite some time.

B "I'VE NEVER LEFT YOUR ARMS" (2:33) [Empress ASCAP—Spence, Keith, Bergman] A romantic travelogue with a haunting air is chanted warmly and with feeling by Miss Shore. Pretty tune that, with heavy play, could make its mark.

The Cash Box Disk of the Week

"THIS LITTLE GIRL OF MINE" (2:16) [Progressive BMI—Charles]

"SHOULD WE TELL HIM" (2:03) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Everly, Everly]

THE EVERLY BROS. (Cadence 1342)

● 1957's hottest vocal combo, the Everly Brothers, who skyrocketed out of the country field to become pop sensations with their huge smashes "Bye Bye Love" and "Wake Up Little Susie," head into the new year with a fabulous new jump tune that should repeat the success of their previous hits. The number is dubbed "This Little Girl Of Mine." The side was originally issued in the boys' latest Cadence LP and EP, and tremendous air play on this deck has forced Cadence to issue the disk as a single. A great side destined to hit the top. The companion deck is another powerful side that could also develop into an important coin catcher. It's a rhythm opus with a slower beat than the top piece and it goes under the title "Should We Tell Him." This half was penned by the artists. Top half has the edge, but don't sell the coupling short.

"IN LOVE" (2:08)

[Planetary ASCAP—Tepper, Bennett]

"LITTLE GYPSY" (2:16)

[Winneton BMI—Smith, Dixon, Keyes]

AMES BROTHERS (RCA Victor 7142)

● The Ames Brothers rang out the old with a tremendous best seller "Melodie D'Amour" and now ring in the new with two delightful sides we'll be hearing often during the coming months. One half is dubbed "In Love." A charming romantic lilt with a definite teen appeal and a cute, commercial lyric. Whistling backdrop supplies a refreshing showcase for the boys' smooth blend. Equally attractive is the rockin' companion deck "Little Gypsy." Strong dance side with a catchy beat, handclapping, etc. Hugo Winterhalter's accompaniment is right in line with what the youngsters want. Two excellent Ames sides. Take your pick.

"SHORT SHORTS" (2:12) [Admiration BMI—Austin, Gaudio]

"PLANET ROCK" (2:24) [Brunswick BMI—Crandall, Dalton]

ROYAL TEENS (ABC-Paramount 9882)

● ABC-Paramount, currently one of the hottest labels in the business with a chain of hits riding the charts, has picked up a sensational new rock and roll master that could follow in the footsteps of Am-Par's recent master acquisition "At The Hop." The new platter is tagged "Short Shorts." It's an unbelievably simple R & R novelty featuring a group of boys asking "Who wears short shorts" and a group of girls answering "We wear short shorts." After these few lyrics have run their course, the deck becomes a staccato instrumental rocker. The vocalists are billed as the Royal Teens. The side has an indescribable something about it that should send the kids running to the stores. And the dance tempo here is just great. Flip, "Planet Rock" is a rock and roll instrumental.

"BE MINE TONIGHT" (2:19)

[Peer BMI—Skylar, Lara]

"ARE YOU SINCERE" (2:44)

[Cedarwood BMI—Walker]

ANDY WILLIAMS (Cadence 1340)

● Andy Williams, who last year developed into a top disk salesman, heads into the new annum with a potent platter that should start him rolling in the right direction. One half features the versatile performer in a rock and roll-latin kick as he offers in commercial fashion a wonderful latin favorite "Be Mine Tonight." Strong instrumental and choral backing showcase the polished songster to best advantage. The beautiful coupling "Are You Sincere" is a ballad offering with a subtle R & R tempo. Andy sings this well written tune with great feeling against a lovely Archie Bleyer backing. Finger-snapping gimmick here adds further color to a solid side. Potent coupling.

"I HAD A DREAM" (2:14) [Robbins ASCAP—Hamilton]

"MY MOTHER'S EYES" (2:32) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Baer, Gilbert]

RUSS HAMILTON (Kepp 204)

● Russ Hamilton, who came to the fore with his long-running smash "Rainbow," bounces back into the spotlight with a wonderful new release that should splash his name across the boards once again. In a warm and winning manner he chants a lovely new composition which he penned, tagged "I Had A Dream." His British accent can be recognized and it adds further color to this inviting, sentimental romancer with a lilt. Simple guitar backing gives the side a "Why Don't They Understand" flavoring. Sounds like another smash for Hamilton. The companion deck has the warbler reviving the oldie "My Mother's Eyes." Tender reading of a touching lyric. This one should also grab off a fair share of coin.

FIVE KEYS
(Capitol 3861)

B "WHIPPETY WHIRL" (2:00)
[Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Weiner, Crane, Symms] The Five Keys could bounce onto the pop and R & B charts with this catchy gimmick rocker right up the teeners' alley. Side swings.

B "FROM ME TO YOU" (2:19)
[Studio BMI—Chase] A pretty fish-beat ballad is attractively styled by the smooth blending aggregation. Song has great potential. Kids'll go for both halves.

JIMMY SCOTT
(King 5104)

B+ "HOME" (2:55) [Mills ASCAP—Van Steeden, Clarkson, Clarkson] The fascinating high pitched voice of Jimmy Scott comes over brilliantly as the gifted vocalist chants a great oldie in today's R & R idiom. A group supplies an excellent showcase for Jimmy. Watch this sleeper.

C+ "SOMEWHERE DOWN THE C+ LINE" (2:25) [Jay & Cee BMI—McCoy, Glover] Scott is closer to the R & B groove on this end. Strong blues item that should win approval in the rhythm and blues market as well as the pop.

MIKE PEDICIN QUINTET
(Cameo 125)

B+ "SHAKE A HAND" (2:20)
[Broadcast Music BMI—Morris] The #1 R & B tune of about five years ago, is revamped for today's market via this hard-driving jump arrangement featuring the Pedicin Quint's voices and instruments. Rockin' teen fare. Keep an eye on it.

B "THE DICKIE-DOO" (2:10)
[Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Mallery, Reichner] This waxing could popularize a new dance described on the disk. Fitting follow-up to such zany teen favorites as the "Bunny Hop" and "Hokey Pokey." Good party record for kids. Exciting beat.

MAMIE VAN DOREN
(Capitol 3863)

B "SOMETHING TO DREAM ABOUT" (1:34) [Roosevelt BMI—Singleton, Coleman] Film personality Mamie Van Doren bows on the Capitol label with a rockin' finger snapper aimed at the teenage audience. Socko dance deck that could catch on. Commercial fare.

C+ "I FELL IN LOVE" (2:24)
[Moonlight BMI—Davis] The versatile talent does a fine job on this end with a pretty romancer. Miss Van Doren has a good voice.

FRANKIE BRUNSON
(RCA Victor 7140)

B+ "WHAT A DIFFERENCE A DAY MADE" (2:33) [E. B. Marks BMI—Grever, Adams] A great oldie, could come onto the charts once again via this exciting up-to-date rock and roll reading by Frankie Brunson. The lad has a great, commercial voice and sings with a solid style and rhythm. Watch this long-shot.

B "HOW YA GONNA LIVE" (2:26) [Roosevelt BMI—Calhoun] The songster picks up the pace on this end, running thru another strong R & R dancer tailor made for the kids. Clever lyric.

BOBBY LEE TRAMMELL

(Fabor 4038)

B+ "I SURE DO LOVE YOU BABY" (2:30) [Dandelion BMI—Trammell] Fabor Records bounces back into the spotlight with a strong new rock-a-billy performer in Bobby Lee Trammell. The lad has an exciting style and a potent piece of original material for his debut. Boy could develop into another Jerry Lee Lewis.

B "SHIRLEY LEE" (1:46) [Dandelion BMI—Trammell] Trammell pulls out all the stops on this end as he tears thru a torrid blues rocker also from his own pen.

CAROLE BENNETT

(Verve 1011)

B "TOO LATE TO CRY" (2:23) [Montauk BMI—Manning, Baltimore] Carole Bennett, who made a fine territorial showing with her version of "Careless," leans into a good new rockin' item the kids should enjoy. Side has a pleasant lyric and a good beat.

B "I COULD GO ON AND ON" (2:00) [Larry Spier ASCAP—Frisch, Allen] A lovely ballad is chanted with tenderness by the polished thrush. Warm romancer that becomes more inviting with each new listen.

KIP TYLER

(Challenge 1014)

B+ "SHE GOT EYES" (2:10) [Golden West BMI—Tyler] The Challenge label could have it's first big money-maker in this socko rock and roller belted across in thrilling teenage style by Kip Tyler. Deck has a great beat. Watch this sleeper.

B "SHADOW STREET" (2:29) [Golden West BMI—Tyler] Another self penned item is this exciting bongo-beat rocker with a haunting sound. Tyler has a style the kids will go for. Two fine first showings.

TROY CORY

(Specialty 620)

C+ "YEARNING" (2:16) [Bourne ASCAP—Davis, Burke] An oldie is brought up to date by Cory's shuffle beat rockin' rendition. A chorus assists.

C+ "I'M JUST A LOST BALL IN HIGH WEEDS" (2:06) [Venice-Fore-Site BMI—Johnson, Johnson] Another shuffle number handled in pleasant style.

TENNESSEE ERNIE FORD

(Capitol 3868)

B "BLESS YOUR PEA PICKIN' HEART" (2:10) [Snyder ASCAP—Geller, Henry] An expression which Ernie Ford uses regularly, is set to music with charming results. Inviting novelty with a happy beat and cute lyrics. Ford fans will get a kick out of this one.

B "DOWN DEEP" (2:06) [Edward Arthur BMI—Coleman] A romantic novelty is pleasantly handled in rhythm fashion by Ernie. Side has a good R & R sound. A bass supplies a good gimmick assist.

The Cash Box Sleeper of the Week

"NAIROBI" (2:06) [Favorite-Valyr ASCAP—Merrill]

"JUMP WHEN I SAY FROG" (2:09) [Planetary-Valyr ASCAP—Merrill]

BOB MERRILL (Roulette 4043)

● Bob Merrill, one of Tin Pan Alley's most versatile tunesmiths whose compositions range from "Doggie In The Window" to the score of the hit B'way musical "New Girl In Town," now makes his debut as a vocalist under the Roulette banner. And it looks as tho Bob's first vocal effort will make the grade. Titled "Nairobi," the side is a daffy novelty with a rock and roll beat and some fabulous vocal support from a group of gals who are hamming it up. The deck has a sound and that's what is necessary in today's "era of sound." Flip, "Jump When I Say Frog" is another cute rocker with the same wonderful femme group accompaniment. Merrill, incidentally, is the author of both decks.

"BABY, DON'T GO" (2:10)
[Geronimo BMI—Rainwater]

"WHOLE LOTTA WOMAN" (2:35)
[Geronimo BMI—Rainwater]

MARVIN RAINWATER (MGM 12609)

● Marvin Rainwater, the country song star who achieved pop fame with his money-maker "Gonna Find Me A Bluebird," has two smash new sides that should do a bang up job for him in the pop market. Employing the multiple track technique on both self penned sides, Rainwater belts across two thrilling rhythm items. "Baby, Don't Go" is a fast moving lament with a sensational beat and heaps of guitar work. Catchy deck the kids will recognize immediately. "Whole Lotta Woman" is a hard hitting rocker with a good pause gimmick that sells the side. Rainwater belts from the heels on both sides. Powerful juke box material for all teenage locations. The two sides add up to the songster's hottest disk since "Bluebird."

"WANG DANG DOO" (2:08)
[Raleigh-Norad BMI—Norris, Adams, Beasley]

"WHAT'CHA DOIN' AFTER SCHOOL" (2:22)
[Bee Gee BMI—Hill, Husky]

FERLIN HUSKY (Capitol 3862)

● Ferlin Husky, the lad who hit it big last year with his "Gone" waxing, is back on the winning track again with a big new side that'll have the kids rockin'. It's an exciting new deck tailor made for the teenage market and tagged with the zany moniker "Wang Dang Doo." The side is a potent rhythm opus replete with handclapping and a swinging choral backdrop showcasing the songster's spirited presentation. Potent dance deck to watch closely. Flip, "What'cha Doin' After School" is a slow rock-a-ballad with a big beat and a good teen-appealing storyline. Top half's loaded with potential.

"NOBODY KNOWS HOW I FEEL" (2:23)
[Edward Arthur BMI—Fiehn, Coleman]

"SITTIN' AND A GABBIN'" (2:00)
[Edward Kassner ASCAP—Marchese, Rainey]

EARL HOLLIMAN (Prep 127)

● On New Year's Day, the Kraft TV Theatre presented a show called "The Battle For Wednesday Night"—a story dealing with life behind the scenes in TV. Earl Holliman played the role of a star vocalist and introduced a new song which he sang a number of times during the program. Titled "Nobody Knows How I Feel," the rock and roll ballad, with Holliman singing, is now offered on wax by Prep. It's a dramatic item right in line with today's hot R & R ballad merchandise, and TV exposure could send the side soaring on the charts. Potent offering. Bottom half, "Sittin' And A Gabbin'" is an up-beat rocker.

"YOUR NAME IS BEAUTIFUL" (2:38)
[Denny ASCAP—Lampert, Gluck]

CARL SMITH (Columbia 41092)

● One of the country field's top warblers, Carl Smith, could make it in the pop field with this lovely ballad. Side has a definite pop flair. (See country reviews.)

TED HERBERT ORCH.

(Varveltone 713)

B+ "ROCKIN' MY SOUL" (2:46) [Jaspar BMI—Madden, Herbert, Parks] The Ted Herbert Orch. bows on the Marveltone label with a superb instrumental jumper in the smooth Glenn Miller tradition. Group has a wonderful sound and a great beat. Watch this sleeper. It could take off. Excellent side for hops.

B "BALLIN' THE JACK" (2:12) [E. B. Marks BMI—Smith] The group supplies more great dance material in this easy going, lindy-hop treatment of a top drawer oldie.

ALAN DALE

(ABC-Paramount 9879)

B "CINDY AND I" (2:35) [Dalton BMI—Adams, Dale, Thorn] A tune co-authored by Dale and based on the Joey Adams book "Cindy And I," is chanted in warm ballad fashion by the veteran warbler. Smooth side with a pretty string and choral backdrop. Side could catch on.

B "WE'RE SO IN LOVE, AREN'T I?" (2:24) [Ardmore ASCAP—Charles, Hopp] Working against a thrilling "Lover" type, high-speed, latin backdrop, Dale belts out a stirring emotional love song with a smart lyric. Tempo arrests the listener's attention.

FRANK POURCEL & HIS FRENCH STRINGS

(Capitol 3870)

B+ "KISSES" (3:15) [Beechwood BMI—White] An enchanting mood item spotlighting some pretty alto sax work by Jo Krasko, is presented in a lush and beautiful manner by Frank Pourcel and his orchestra. Wonderful arrangement and delivery of a lush and lovely melody.

B "ARMEN'S THEME" (2:15) [ABC Music ASCAP—Bagdasarjian] An instrumental novelty that attracted heavy air play about a year ago via other versions, is refreshingly brought back by Pourcel's crew. Melody is reminiscent of the "Third Man Theme."

PERCY FAITH ORCH.

(Columbia 41095)

B "THE STARS" (2:32) [Marpet ASCAP—Stillman, Faith] Working with a warm, full chorus, Percy Faith and his orchestra offer a lush romantic ballad which the maestro co-authored. Dreamy arrangement of a pretty opus that could wind up on the standard shelf.

B "MARIA" (2:31) [G. Schirmer ASCAP—Sondheim, Bernstein] Faith, with a massive string section, hands in a dramatic arrangement and orchestration of a theme from the hit B'way musical "West Side Story." Overpowering side with a subdued latin tempo.

MOLLY BEE

(Capitol 3865)

B "I'M GOING STEADY WITH A DREAM" (2:29) [Columbia Pic. ASCAP—Quine, Karger] Molly Bee returns to Capitol with a polished, mature voice which is heard singing a pretty new teenage romancer from the up-coming Columbia flicker "Going Steady."

C+ "MAGIC MIRROR" (2:24) [Central Songs BMI—Carroll] The lark changes the pace and chants another teenage item, this one set to an R & R beat.

THE ANDREWS SISTERS (Capitol 3869)

B "ONE MISTAKE" (2:13) [Planetary ASCAP—Roberts, Jacobson] The Andrews Sisters lean into a potent rock and roll ballad with a sorrowful romantic story-line. The girls have a commercial sound that could send the disk onto the charts.

B "MELANCHOLY MOON" (2:05) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Leigh, Coleman] Another pretty ballad with a beat, gets the polished Andrews treatment. Solid rock-a-ballad.

CASTALEERS (Felsted 8504)

B "COME BACK" (2:40) [Felsted BMI—Muffs, Muffs] A new group, called the Castaleers, bows in on the Felsted label with a good new R & R ballad that should meet with the approval of the kids. Good lead voice.

C+ "(My) HI FI BABY" (1:51) [Felsted BMI—Muffs, Muffs] The boys pick up the beat on this end as they swing thru a good jumper.

GOGI GRANT (RCA Victor 7146)

B "BONJOUR TRISTESSE" (2:34) [Carlot BMI—Laurents, Auric] The title song of the soon-to-released Columbia flick "Bonjour Tristesse" is chanted in the appropriate melancholy mood by the talented Gogi Grant. Tearful opus with an emotional lyric. Film debut should induce air play.

B "CHINESE NIGHTINGALE" (2:05) [Fullarton ASCAP—David, Livingston] From the forthcoming "Shirley Temple Story Book" TV show, comes this oriental ballad thrashed with warmth and tenderness by the lark. Enchanting dream item.

JOHNNY DESMOND (Coral 61934)

B "TEMPERAMENTAL YOU" (2:39) [Sanjud ASCAP—Fine, Cassin] Assisted by a vocal group known as the Bearcats, Desmo interprets a heart-broken ballad with a smooth shuffle beat. Good tune and delivery.

C+ "FAREWELL TO NAPLES" (2:41) [Weiss & Barry BMI—Coates, Logan, Barry] Another sentimental love song, this one with a Neopolitan setting. Mandolins and lush strings showcase Desmond's touching delivery.

EILEEN RODGERS (Columbia 41097)

B "I'M NOT AFRAID ANYMORE" (2:19) [Shapiro, Bernstein ASCAP—Sigman, Kapp] Eileen Rodgers' powerful voice comes over beautifully on this emotional love tale set to a dramatic R & R tempo. Strring reading of a strong tune.

B "JUST IN CASE YOU CHANGE YOUR MIND" (2:35) [Leeds ASCAP—Patterson, Bell, Watson] Another solid rock and roll ballad projected with feeling against a choral accompaniment. Kids should find both halves appealing.

MILLS BROS. (Decca 30546)

B "YOU ONLY TOLD ME HALF THE STORY" (3:14) [Rytvoc, Inc. ASCAP—Hartmann, Gabler] Singing in barber shop quartet fashion, the Mills Brothers offer a sentimental love song that takes the listener back to the early 1900's. Pretty tune.

C+ "THE BARBERSHOP QUARTET" (2:46) [Odette ASCAP—Manning] A tribute to the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, is offered on this end by the veteran crew. Sounds like an alma mater tune.

PHIL GRAY (Robbins 1002)

B "SOMEBODY'S GOT MY BABY" (2:38) [Be-Are BMI—Gray, Wallace] Robbins Records introduces an exciting new rock-a-billy performer in Phil Gray who makes a striking first showing with a torrid rocker. Powerful wailer that could catch on.

B "CRAZY FOOL" (2:15) [Be-Are BMI—Gray, Wallace] The artist's Presleyesque technique is again felt as he belts across a slow beat rock-a-ballad. A chorus assists on both ends.

BETTY MADIGAN (Coral 61933)

B "UNDER YOUR SPELL" (2:36) [Diana ASCAP—Tepper, Bennett] Betty Madigan, usually a ballad songstress, aims at the younger set with both sides. This half is a lilting R & R romancer handled in charming fashion by the versatile chirp. Side has a happy sound plus a number of cute vocal gimmicks.

C+ "TELL ME HOW" (2:41) [Star-dust BMI—Hardin, Petty, Allison] Also in the R & R idiom is this rhythmic item. A chorus supports Betty.

Columbia covers the field!
"Come to Me," featured this week in an instrumental by RAY ELLIS is the same song just pressed by Mr. Magic,
JOHNNY MATHIS! It looks like a razzle-dazzle winner, right up the DeeJay's programming alley! * * *
CARL SMITH, swimming in the gravy boat with "Why, Why" now launches a lovely ballad, "Your Name Is Beautiful," which should be even bigger! Flip was written by a Columbia
triumvirate, CARL SMITH,
WAYNE WALKER and MEL TILLIS—a three-way stretch to shape up C&W sales for good! * * * The DeeJay's #1 gal, EILEEN
RODGERS, sends out a double with tremendous versatility and sales appeal. "Just in Case You Change Your Mind" is a countrified jump tune and "I'm Not Afraid Anymore" is a strong ballad! Both are belted to GO! * * * Think of a hit show, and you think of Broadway and PERCY FAITH!
From the SRO "West Side

the big ballad of the show, and turns out an instrumental you'll be

Flip has all the ingredients

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

Ron Terrell, (KA-NS-Wichita, Ks.) seems quite enthused over "This Can't Be Love" by Alan Copeland, and although Terrell couldn't get it quite up to the top ten, it was well up in his top sixty listings. Terrell urges other deejays to give it a listen and give it a few spins. . . . Last Wednesday, January 8th, WINS had a "Wives Day," and the boys got the day off. The wives of all the deejays took over their programming stints. The situation created somewhat of a problem for Stan Z. Burns. He isn't married. Some of the new gal deejays were Agnes (Mrs. Jack) Lacy, Bess (Mrs. Paul) Sherman, and Jackie (Mrs. Alan) Freed. . . . Dick Doty (WTRL-Bradentown, Fla.) informs us of a couple of changes in the station. "The Johnny Clark Show" now has two sections: 11:00 a.m.-12:00 noon, and 1:00-3:00 p.m. Gordon Wylie, who has been manager of the Sunshine Springs Water Circus at Sarasota, returns to radio as the station's late afternoon and "Nite Beat" disc jockey. . . . KTUL-Tulsa, Oklahoma deejay, Don Wallace is managing Tulsa singer Clyde Stacy of Bullseye records. Stacy's latest release is "Baby Shame" backed with "Nobody's Darlin'." The singer is making a promotional tour plugging the release, and Wallace is hoping his fellow jocks will help him with this one. . . . "Uncle" Shell Horton (WKMC-Roaring Spring, Penna.) is doing something a little different in his area. He's having high school students appear on the Cashbox Hit Parade as feminine deejays. The students do all the record intros and Horton does the format and commercials. . . .

DICK DOTY

SCOTT MUNI
(WAKR—Akron, Ohio)

Buck Leigh (WTRC-Elkhart, Indiana) had a whirlwind holiday trip. From December 25 through the 28th, Leigh made a 1700 mile trip which included a visit with his family in Roanoke, Virginia, and stops to see friends in Washington, D. C., and Chicago. The deejay has two programs on WTRC—an afternoon show "Traffic Jamboree" and a night time program "The Buck Leigh Show."

Scott Muni (WAKR-Akron, Ohio) states that the new Hooper rating proves that WAKR has more listeners than the other three Akron stations and one Cleveland station heard in Akron, combined. . . . Dave Miller, News Director at WRVM, Rochester, New York, informs us that the station is number one in the area. One of the station's top jocks is Ricky Groce, who heads the D.J. department. . . . Dick Biondi (WHOT-Youngstown, Ohio) chatted with Doug Moody of Herald, who was very excited about "Get A Job" which has broken into a swinging disk. Budy Friedlander of Epic who gave the jock a listen via phone to the new Sal Mineo release "Little Pigeon" only an hour after the tape arrived, and Dick Stone of Famous Music called to say their firm is starting the new year off right by getting "Magic Moments" recorded by Perry Como. . . . Don Bell (KIOA-Des Moines, Iowa) feels that a "Croix De Stroll" is the award that should be pinned on his wife who nobly addressed nearly five thousand "How To Stroll" instruction cards, and junior medals to his two sons Don Carlos (13) and Gary (10), who worked ceaselessly processing the cards for Mrs. Bell to address. . . . Irving Marcus, now with Mercury Records out in Los Angeles visited with Len Ross (KDB-Santa Barbara, Calif.) recently.

LUCKY PIERRE

VITAL STATISTICS:

Buffalo's popular disk jockey, Lucky Pierre, was recently, added to the staff of the new WBNY-Buffalo, N. Y. Pierre, whose full name is Pierre Gonneau, will hold down the 6-9 morning slot. The French accented jockey came from another local radio station bringing with him his many loyal fans. . . . WICE's station manager and Vice President, John F. Crohan announced recently that Jim Hines, well known in local and regional broadcast circles, will become a member of the WICE programming staff. Prior to working with the WICE staff, Hines worked for WEEL, WPJB, and WPRO. The new member will take over the 5-9 a.m. show on a Monday to Saturday basis. . . . Jim Larkin, formerly with station WPIK-Alexandria, Virginia, has joined the staff at WEER-Warrenton, Virginia. . . . John Munteer has just been appointed Program Director of WTRY-Troy, New York. Munteer also holds down the 6-9 a.m. slot on the WTRY schedule. . . . Ernie Forrester, formerly with KALV, Alva, Oklahoma, has moved to KGNO, Dodge City, Kansas.

"It's What's in THE CASH BOX That Counts—INTERNATIONALLY"

London Lowdown

BBC Television made a fine first showing in its 1958 program plans by giving us forty-five minutes of the Perry Como Show which will now be a regular feature, once a week, and is sure to catch a very big viewing public. Show is slick, very well produced, and special credit must go to the Sound Engineers since this telecast is exceptionally good from a sound recording angle. Perry had George Sanders, Janis Paige, and Johnny Mathis as his guests on his first Show here.

The Harrisons (Rex and Kay) have rented a sumptuous villa in St. Moritz, Switzerland, where they will be vacationing until Rex comes over to London to star in "My Fair Lady" at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane.

British musical star, Sally Ann Howes, now married to Richard Adler. Over here at the moment is Frank Loesser who did the score for "Where's Charlie", which is touring the provinces with Norman Wisdom as star, before coming to London.

Also here, U.S. T.V. commentator, Barry Gray. Says he came for sleep and food.

Just in from New York are RCA's George Prutting and George Marek for confabs with English Decca V.I.P.'s; the English Decca label releases RCA in this country.

Bobby Mellin's British publishing house has moved to swank New Bond Street in London.

Erroll Gardner spent twenty four hours in London but was greeted with a "No Play" telegram from the Musicians' Union.

Alma Cogan, back after five weeks in the U.S., appeared on "6-5 Special", BBC-TV's top teenage show.

There will be a battle here for top honors between Frankie Vaughan and Jimmie Rodgers on "Kisses Sweeter Than Wine".

Mario Lanza to record in London for the RCA label. Extra concerts have been set up for him due to SRO notices wherever he is scheduled to appear.

Channel 9 (Midland and North regions only) will be showing a telecast of the "Steve Allen Show" which has been acquired by ABC-TV. It seems a great pity that the London region should be deprived of this very fine show especially since it is "slightly sophisticated" which makes it a better bet for London than the Regions.

When Frankie Vaughan opens at the Palace on January 20th he will have with him young British singing star, Petula Clark and the King Brothers.

A lot of signs of relief from the Presley fans who have just learned of his reprieve from the Army for at least sixty days.

France is making a film of the life story of Jango Reinhart and will re-construct the original Hot Club de France.

"SO IF YOU'RE THE CHORDETTES, HOW COME ARCHIE DIDN'T PUT YOU ON A CADENCE LP?"

The pint-sized quartet isn't quite ready yet, but the Chordettes are. Their new Cadence Album is here. It's full of heart. It's got Sandman and Just Between You And Me. Archie says it's as sell-y as an LP can be. Once you hear it, you'll agree.

Capitol Exces In N. Y. Woolford Gets Columbia Classical Post

NEW YORK — Arriving in the United States last week were J. F. Lockwood, Chairman of Electric & Musical Industries Ltd., and Lloyd Dunn, Vice President, Capitol Records. Lockwood, after a brief stay in New York, will continue on to Hollywood for conferences with Glenn E. Wallichs, Capitol's president, following which he will travel to New Zealand, Australia, South Africa, and other parts of the world, visiting E.M.I. holdings. Dunn is returning from two weeks of conferences in Paris and London concerning Capitol's recent acquisition of the Angel label. He was accompanied by Louis Schurrer and Leo Kepler, Capitol executives in Hollywood, both of whom are returning to the U. S. via Milan and Rome, where they visited with Angel recording artists.

While in England, a series of meetings were held with E.M.I. and Capitol executives under the chairmanship of L. J. Brown, E.M.I.'s Managing Director. In addition to Dunn, Kepler and Schurrer, representing Capitol, were J. D. Bicknell, Walter Legge, and Victor Olof of E.M.I.'s International Artists Department, C. H. Thomas, Managing Director E.M.I. Records Limited, and J. F. Lockwood. Meetings were also held in London with G. J. Freshwater, Advertising Manager, E.M.I. Records Limited.

Discussion centered around recording plans for classical repertoire and the co-ordination of covers and editorial notes.

"Our major mission was to learn about the sources of Angel repertoire in England, packaging in Paris, and to tie them both in with the existing Capitol organization, which has recently been augmented with personnel from Angel", Dunn stated.

"Our trip has been most successful, and assures the maintenance of Angel's high quality product, coupled with Capitol's intensive merchandising and distribution, which should offer many advantages to dealers."

Coral Signs Dody Goodman

NEW YORK — Bob Thiele, Coral Records' A&R Director, has announced that Dody Goodman has been signed to an exclusive pact with the company. The comedienne, who has recently become nationally known via her appearances on the Jack Paar "Tonight" Show, cut her first sides for Coral last week.

NEW YORK—The appointment of John Woolford to the newly-created post of Product Manager, Classical Albums, was announced last week by Hal B. Cook, Vice President in charge of Sales for the Columbia label.

Pointing out that creation of the new post stems from increased Columbia emphasis on new album product in 1958, Cook stated that Woolford would have marketing responsibility for all Masterworks releases as well as classical product in the Stereo Tape and Harmony lines. Assisting Woolford will be Peter Munves.

"Mr. Woolford brings to Columbia a rich combination of experience in the recording and classical music field," Cook stated. He has been associated with Angel Records since its introduction to America in 1953, and previously served as Manager of the Baltimore Symphony, the Louisville Orchestra and Assistant Manager of the New York Philharmonic.

Mercury Appoints New Ad Agency; Expands Advertising Budget

CHICAGO—Irving B. Green, president of Mercury Record Corporation, announced the appointment of Henri, Hurst & McDonald as Mercury's exclusive advertising agency last week.

Ken Myers, Director of Advertising and Promotions for Mercury, will take on the added duties of liaison with Henri, Hurst & McDonald for Mercury. Tim Morrow, Vice President of the agency, will head up their group as account supervisor, and Jack Gavin will serve as account executive.

In making known the new agreement, Green also announced the fact that Mercury will spend $400,000 in 1958 in advertising and promotion. This figure represents the largest expenditure ever appropriated by the diskery for this purpose.

For years Mercury has been a leader in advertising in the industry's trade journals, according to Art Talmadge, Vice President of the corporation, who made it clear that there will be no retrenchment in the firm's media policy along these lines. However, he noted, "The great impact that consumer publications have developed in record product advertising during the past year, has prompted Mercury to expand its advertising budget and thus funnel more attention into this newly developed area of exposure."

Talmadge continued on to say, "The proven ability of Henri, Hurst & McDonald in the field of consumer advertising gives us added assurance that the Mercury name will receive the maximum stimulation and exposure."

Another point of view was expressed by Irwin Steinberg, Vice President and Treasurer, "Mercury has always been extremely interested in the expansion of the industry's market potential. Our merchandising plans such as the 'Five For One—Take All', 'World In Hi Fi', 'Free For Five' and 'Operation 10%' were acclaimed by all concerned for the success they had in the development of new record buyers." Steinberg continued, "Since consumer advertising reaches the mass public, the discovery of potentially new customers is one of the most important functions."

One of the initial dividends of the agency pacting will be the development of a new Mercury logo. This proposed logo will be adopted by the firm for use in every facet of Mercury's operation. Thinking behind the new logo is the establishment of product identification in the public's mind.

JUBILEE'S SWINGIN' WITH..... 3 BIG ONES

Am-Par Eastern Distribs In Conclave

NEW YORK—Response to the invitation from Sam Clark, president of ABC-Paramount, by principals of all Eastern distributorships for the label turned out so well that the special meeting scheduled to be held in the Board of Directors Hall, last week, in the Paramount Building in New York was forced to be moved to the private dining hall at Al & Dick's Restaurant in New York.

Preceded by an evening of gaiety, including dinner and refreshment at the Copacabana, where the label's singing stars, the Axidentals, were appearing the group of 29 distributor heads and/or managers met with Clark and his departmental executives for an all-day session. The agenda included talks by Clark; Larry Newton, the label's Director of Sales; Don Costa, A & R topper; Creed Taylor, Associate A & R; Natt Hale, National Director of Promotional and Publicity; and Dewey Bergman, Jr., Director of Album Sales and Merchandising.

Also present from the diskery headquarters were Harry Levine, v.p.; Al Genovese, Fiscal and Auditing Head; Irwin Garr, National Disk Jockey Liaison and the Director of the firm's two pubberies; Romeo Fabrizio, General Director of Production; Rick Ward, Executive Assistant to Natt Hale; and the label's two new appointees, Clayton Burdick, East Coast rep; and Sid Pastner, to fill the created post of Special National Liaison Representative.

Discussion centered about the diskery's plans for 1958, with focal attention on the February-March album promotion, plus a strong pitch for ABC-Paramount's recently-released group of stereo tapes.

Newton summed up the advances made by Am-Par in 1957, pointing up the fact that seven disks released by the label are currently on the charts. His talk revolved exclusively about the singles business, with distributors enjoying Newton's presentation of new singles skedded for release during the year.

Don Costa expressed humble appreciation to the distribs for their cooperation during the past year, and intimated that '58 would find the label generally represented on the best-selling charts at all times. The A & R topper called particular attention to a number of the label's artists who had gained a considerable following by virtue of consistency, and pointed out the names on the roster who, he felt, would make their marks sometime during the year.

Taylor, having concentrated strictly on Am-Par's long-playing album product, presented a specially-prepared disk of excerpts from the forthcoming group of 22 twelve-inchers to be released on February 1st for album exploitation. With the accent on sound—stereo, binaural and the advent beyond high fidelity—Taylor asserted that the balance of this year and the years to follow would offer much in the way of sonic development and, thereby, would open a vast new market for the record business.

The label's veteran flack, Natt Hale described various aspects of proper and improper exploitation, utilizing color slides to enhance his lecture. With his exec assistant, Rick Ward, operating the special slide projector, Hale's presentation was well received by the guests.

Following the luncheon, a final address to the distribs was made by Dewey Bergman, Jr., who described the promotional plan for the 22 albums to be released. In essence, the plan is designed along the same lines which the diskery found successful last Fall, i.e., its "Lucky 7" promotion Bergman won favor with the distributor execs as he made tangible reference to each of the twenty-two covers of the special group mounted on a series of gold-black or gold-white display boards.

Following the official announcement of the album promotion and the expanded plans for the '58 season, Sam Clark then announced formal adjournment of the conference, stating that orders for the album promotion would be accepted by the ABC-Paramount staff members at the diskery's offices in the Paramount Building. On-the-spot order-taking prevailed, and the Am-Par staff was kept busy writing for some two additional hours.

The success of this meeting has cemented plans for Clark, Levine, Newton and other members of the Am-Par staff to repeat the huddle for all Western divisional distributors of ABC-Paramount in Los Angeles sometime within the next ten days.

Reporting on the meeting, Clark said: "This special Eastern Distributors' Conference has convinced me of the enormous progress which we have made and are continuing to make with the ABC-Paramount label. The meeting was a source of sincere gratification to me, personally, and I know that the department heads working with me rejoice in the undeniable approval which we received from our incomparable group of distributors. With this solid vote of confidence, my optimism is unbounded. I think you will find that the ABC-Paramount label will rise to new heights steadily from now on."

First Visit

HOLLYWOOD — Six key Angel executives recently paid their first visit to the Capitol Tower, the international headquarters of Capitol Records, Inc., in Hollywood, to discuss sales and merchandising plans for the Angel line of albums in 1958. The Angel organization merged with CRI Jan. 2, 1958. Shown above in front of the Capitol Tower with CRI President Glenn E. Wallichs (left) and Daniel C. Bonbright, Administration and Finance Vice President of CRI (right) were (from left) Roger Hall, newly appointed National Sales Manager of Angel; Irving Iserson, Monroe Glasberg, Walter Kiernan, Gould Cassal and Peter Sutro.

Mercury Issues New "Celebrity Series"

CHICAGO — Demand at the consumer level has prompted Mercury Records to issue a new category of 45 rpm single records which will be called the "Celebrity Series."

This new grouping will be composed entirely of "All Time Hits and Million Sellers." Morris S. Price, Mercury's vice-president in charge of sales, who has handled the development of the "Celebrities," elaborated on the subject when he noted, "In an effort to consolidate the handling of requests from record buyers as to the availability of some of our older established hits; we have decided to re-issue them and as an added bonus to the public, we are coupling two outstanding songs to each record. In essence, this means that the consumer may now obtain two proven hits for the price of a single record."

Included in the new series will be such recordings as: "Miserlou" and "Malaguena" by Jan August; "Peg O' My Heart" and "Charmaine" by the Harmonicats; "Ruby" and "Dan-sero" by Richard Hayman; "To Each His Own" and "It's No Sin" by Eddy Howard; "Caravan" and "Pre-tend" by Ralph Marterie; "Night Train" and "One Mint Julep" by Buddy Morrow; "Tennessee Waltz" and "With My Eyes Wide Open I'm Dreaming" by Patti Page. There will also be other selections by the above artists plus representative recordings by David Carroll, Dick Contino, Xavier Cugat, Billy Daniels, Rusty Draper, Jack Fina, Erroll Garner, Georgia Gibbs, Eddie Heywood, Frankie Laine, Tony Martin, Clyde McCoy, Jose Melis, Sophie Tucker, Sarah Vaughan, Dinah Washington, and Lawrence Welk.

In the future, as songs and artists gain the acceptance and prestige that would qualify them, additions will be made to the series.

In order to easily identify the "Celebrity Series," Peter Fabri, Mercury's Director of Merchandising has developed a red and black label which prominently features the new "Celebrity" logo. A blue and grey sleeve will also be used to give the grouping more of an individual personality. All records in the series will be numbered starting with C-30000.

To add further emphasis on the merchandising impact of the "Celebrity Series," a functionally designed Wooden Display Rack will be made available to the record stores which stock the series. The rack will serve as a permanent fixture for the dealer and will have a natural wood, hand-finish that will blend with almost every decor. This rack will be designated by a "Celebrity Series" header in vivid red, white and blue. It will be a 16" wide by 18" long by 14" high, which is a size, easily adaptable to available space in most record stores.

In order to obtain the "Celebrity Series" Kit, the dealer must purchase a minimum of 100 records at the normal cost. The display rack is then given to him free of any cost.

Another feature of this program will be the addition of a "Popular Favorites" section in the display box. The combination of both the "Celebrity Series" and the "Popular Favorites", Mercury feels, should prove to be a tremendous boon to the average record dealer who is constantly harassed by an inability to display merchandise. A set of index divider cards for each category will also be included and will list the artist's name, titles of the two hits and record number.

Pre-tested reaction to the plan in specific areas has been so receptive, Mercury brass reports that original production plans have been doubled to meet the demand for the "Celebrity Series" merchandising kit.

Elektra Sales Doubled

NEW YORK — Elektra Records last week announced that its sales for 1957 more than doubled that of 1956.

The firm attributed the increase to wider and more concentrated distribution, the discontinuance of the ten-inch LP and the success of many items in its catalog including selections by such artists as Ed McCurdy, Theodore Bickel, Susan Reed, Josh White and Sabicas.

Bikel has renewed his contract with the label and will continue to record exclusively for Elektra. New artists who have recently joined the label include the Shanty Boys; folk singers Gene and Francesca; and an Israeli musical troupe.

Fred Hellerman of the Weavers has been appointed Musical Director of the diskery. He will supervise all folk music recording sessions and will assist Production Supervisor Jac Holzman in some A & R chores.

In 1958 Elektra plans to issue forty-five albums of which at least thirty-seven will be devoted to folk music.

All recording sessions for the past two years have been taped stereophonically and many of the sessions are available on tape thru the Livingstone Audio Products Company.

Kapp's Album Theme Is "Music On The Move"

NEW YORK — The theme of Kapp Records' January album release is "Music On The Move".

The release includes six new albums — four by the Troubadors who rose to prominence with their recording of "Fascination" and accompanied Jane Morgan in her rendition of the same song. The four LP's include: "The Troubadors in Hawaii," "The Troubadors In The Land Of The Gypsies," "The Troubadors In Spain" and "The Troubadors In Rome". The other two albums are "Rainbows" by Russ Hamilton, the British songster who came to the fore with his "Rainbow" hit last year, and an album called "Way Out West", by Dickson Hall & The Country All-Stars.

In conjunction with the January release, Kapp is: mailing a special "Passport To Profits" flier to over 12,000 dealers announcing the new release; supplying a complete new Litho Book including the new releases plus 45 other top selling Kapp LP's; and is supplying salesmen with a special kit containing all the Troubadors' albums.

A special Troubadors kit is being offered to disk jockeys.

Capitol Album Promotion

Stan Cooper Forms Own Pubberies

NEW YORK — Stan Cooper announced last week that he had resigned as general manager of the Fisher Music Company to go into his own publishing operation. Cooper is currently in the process of having the names of his new BMI and ASCAP firms approved by the two agencies.

A veteran of the music business, Cooper spent the last two years with the Fred Fisher, Marvin and Danby Music Companies during which time he helped acquire numerous songs such as "Catch A Falling Star", recorded by Perry Como; "Warm", recorded by Johnny Mathis and others.

Cooper was responsible for the album title and cover idea of the latest Mathis LP "Warm". He also suggested the title "Night Life" for Lurlean Hunter's Vik LP and found the title song for the album.

Prior to his work with the Fisher firms, Cooper was employed by the Redd Evans publishing firms and the Barton Music Companies.

Among Cooper's new ventures will be the management of rock-a-billy singer Paul Evans. In addition to management and publishing, Cooper will act as consultant to record companies, choosing songs for albums by various artists and creating ideas and titles for these LP's. He currently has two albums in the works.

Cooper will have offices in the Brill Building in New York City and also will open an office in Miami Beach at the Seville Hotel. He will have a man contacting artists and deejays in and around Miami and thruout the South, operating out of the Miami office.

Retailers' Corner

Mercury Offers Dealers 10% Tape Discount For Jan.

CHICAGO—With January expected to be the greatest month in the history of Pre-Recorded Tape sales, Mercury Record Corporation has created an added stimulus with the announcement of a 10% discount on all Stereophonic Tapes in the company's catalog. The discount price will also apply to any new releases which may be shipped thru January but does not include any of Mercury's Demonstration Tapes.

The price discount extends only to January 31st of this year.

The Tape Industry has been gaining in volume with each month and the tremendous amount of tape equipment that was sold during the Christmas season lends further credence to the fact that January should surpass all previous sales records, according to Mercury brass.

Mercury's "Living Presence Seeing-Ear" (Classical) and Mercury's "Verified Stereophonic" (Popular and Jazz) Tape Recordings have been growing steadily. Mercury execs say David Carrol's "Let's Dance" tape package has proven to be the pride of the line with reaves received at all of the Sound Shows and Demonstrations throughout the country. Other members of the catalog that have met with strong reception are "Moods in Music" by The Clebanoff Strings; "America's Most Danceable Music" by Griff Williams; "Bizet-Carmen Suite" by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and "Moussorgsky—A Night On Bald Mountain" by the Halle Orchestra.

The new releases include "Dolls, Dolls, Dolls" by the Harmonicats; "It's Dance Time" by Dick Contino; "Stereo Dance Party" by Ralph Marterie; "Pal Joey" by Vivian Blaine; "Sarah Vaughan Sings George Gershwin"; "Jazz in 3/4 Time" by the Max Roach Quintet, all in the "Verified Stereophonic" series. "Ruffles and Flourishes" by the Eastman-Rochester Wind Ensemble; "Offenbach—Gaité Parisienne" by the Minneapolis Symphony; "Sessions: The Black Maskers Suite" by the Eastman-Rochester Symphony; "Rachmaninoff: Symphony No. 2" by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra; "Prokofiev: Love For Three Oranges" by the London Symphony Orchestra and "Albeniz: Iberia" by the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, which all are in the "Living Presence Seeing-Ear" series.

Pop Hits In Stereo

NEW YORK—Paramount Enterprises, last week released its first Hallmark stereo tape recording titled "The Nation's Big Hits In Stereo."

This is the first of a new series of the nation's hits. A new group of selection will be presented approximately every six weeks. This album will retail at $9.95.

The initial selections recorded by television and Hollywood recording artists include: "April Love" "Raunchy," "Peggy Sue," "Kisses Sweeter Than Wine," "Great Balls Of Fire," "At The Hop," and other current chart leaders.

The Paramount firm is located at 383 Concord Ave., New York.

Capitol's FDS Floor Merchandiser

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records is offering classical record dealers a special FDS floor merchandiser (shown above). Easy to assemble and easy to keep up to date, the FDS floor merchandiser is 6' high, 3½' wide, 2' deep and occupies 7 sq. ft. of floor space.

The bottom bins are designed to hold 250 of the label's PAO series and 500 P series albums. The top bins hold 60 PAO albums. A complete catalog (on the desk top) lists albums both by artist name and by type of music. Two pockets on each side hold classical supplements. The all wood merchandiser uses 2-60 Watt fluorescent lights.

RCA-Victor Announces New Modular Hi-Fi Units

CHICAGO—A new Modular High Fidelity System—especially designed to match two RCA Victor television sets—with space for adding auxiliary speakers and record storage cabinet for a complete home entertainment system—was introduced here last week at the International Home Furnishings Market by RCA Victor's Radio and "Victrola" Division.

A. R. Baggs, Division Merchandising Manager, announced that one basic unit—a four-speed, three-speaker New Orthophonic High Fidelity "Victrola" phonograph (Model HFP)—could be purchased now or later with detachable legs, as could a matching auxiliary speaker cabinet (Model HFA), for placement on an especially designed low-boy bench. Also available are two-unit and three-unit benches and a record storage cabinet. Either of two RCA Victor 21-inch (tube overall diagonal) television models (21T820 or 21T822) will fit on the cabinet.

"The pieces in our Modular System have been so designed that homeowners are offered literally dozens of decorating combinations," Baggs said. "The Auxiliary Speaker Cabinet may be placed elsewhere in the room or even in another room. The basic unit is provided with a stereo-jack for the addition of a stereophonic sound system at anytime.

"RCA Victor will nationally advertise the Modular System at prices which will enable the customer to purchase a full grouping, plus a television set for less than $500," he said. "The 'Victrola' phonograph will be advertised at $169.95, the Auxiliary Speaker at $69.95, and the record storage cabinet at $26.95. These pieces are available in walnut, mahogany, oak and ebony finishes. Benches are supplied in pale gold to complement all finishes. The two-unit bench (Model STD2) will be advertised at $17.95 and the three-unit bench (Model STD3) at $24.95. Shipments to dealers have already begun and complete Modular Systems will be on sale later this week."

CHICAGO—Two RCA Victor clock radios, featuring new easier-to-operate control levers, were introduced here last week at the International Home Furnishings Market by James M. Toney, Vice President and General Manager, RCA Victor Radio and "Victrola" Division.

"Our new clock radios, the Bulletin (Model 9C8) and the Herald (Model 9C7) are equipped with newly-designed levers for instant touch control," Toney said. "The all-purpose 'Instant-Set' lever turns on the set and/or electrical appliance at a pre-set time. Console Hi-Fi Sales Up 2½ Times In '57

CHICAGO—Industry-wide sales of console high-fidelity models in 1957 were two and one half times the total reached in 1956, Louis J. Collins, General Sales Manager, RCA Victor Radio and "Victorola" Division, disclosed here last week at the International Home Furnishings Market.

Speaking before press representatives at the Merchandise Mart, Collins said that 62 per cent of all high-fidelity instruments sold in the past 12 months were console models.

"This increase in console sales," he said, "is due primarily to the new public awareness of sound quality and the pride of possession which comes from the ownership of high-fidelity equipment housed in cabinets of fine design and finishes."

Collins predicted that final returns will reveal that high-fidelity instrument sales in 1957 will exceed $300 million, and that 1958 sales should total more than $400 million.

Polk Bros. Hi-Fi Show

CHICAGO—Polk Bros., record, appliance and furniture retail chain, are currently drawing tremendous crowds to their "Hi-Fi Show" being held in cooperation with ten hi-fidelity manufacturers in five of their stores in Chicago and Joliet from January 2 through February 15.

Sol Polk, president of Polk Bros., estimates that one million free admission tickets were distributed through direct mail, salesmen, manufacturers representatives and Yellow cab drivers (the latter to their patrons.)

Cooperating hi-fidelity manufacturers include Grundig-Majestic, Admiral, Braun, Columbia, Philco, Motorola, RCA Victor, Siemens, Webcor and Zenith.

Polk outlined an ambitious promotional campaign designed to spur sales to a record high during the slowest business period. He said, "While many people are talking about business recessions and sales decreases, the manufacturers and Polk Bros. will continue to work together to prove their faith in American economy."

During the show thirty Hi-Fi sets will be given away as door prizes, as will a large number of Hi-Fi record albums. Civic officials will be given Hi-Fi sets to be presented by them to their favorite charity.

Miss Rita Mackay was crowned "Miss Hi-Fi" by the official Miss America, January 7. The London House and Mister Kelly's are featuring a new cocktail the "Hi-Fi Flip," in honor of the show; and the Goldenrod Ice Cream Company is pushing a "Hi-Fi Sundae" in its more than 2,500 retail outlets.

Audio-Fidelity Hi-Fi albums were distributed to onlookers at the Polk Bros. "Hi-Fi Show."

PORTRAIT OF A PHILOSOPHER

No we're not kidding. GUITAR SLIM is a philosopher. His songs are exclusively concerned with the earthy truisms of life. And because of their quality they never fade away; as you travel across the country and keep tuned in on the radio, it is fantastic how many of his hits of the past are continually aired.

GUITAR SLIM's new record is an event. For the first time, he has been recorded in Atlantic's New York studios. While we succeeded in keeping the "low down" folk flavor of Slim's New Orleans blues style, by recording him in our ultra-modern hi-fi studios, we were able to inject a crazy, new sound that makes his disks more exciting than ever.

"I Won't Mind At All" is in the vein of Guitar Slim's great hit "The Things I Used To Do" which stayed on the best-seller charts for 42 weeks in 1954. "Hello, How Ya' Been, Goodbye" is a lilting blues-march tempo. Both feature the twanging blues guitar and raspy, but unforgettable blues voice of Guitar Slim, backed by Lloyd Lambert's fine rock & roll band from New Orleans.

Victor's "Double Your 45 EP Rate By '58" Contest Nets Big Sales Results

NEW YORK—"Extended Play" became two big words in 1957 in the record industry. RCA Victor, exploring new markets and changing trends, made an all out effort to acquaint the public with EP's economic and artistic advantages. As incentive to distributors, a contest was launched at the beginning of the year which resulted in an appreciable sales increase and the successful indoctrination of the buying public to EP's during 1957.

RCA Victor's distributing executives, record managers, and salesmen participated in the "Double Your 45 EP rate By '58" contest. Over $25,000 in prizes were offered.

The Frank M. Folsom Awards will be presented to the distributor executive of each of the eight Regional Offices with the greatest 45 EP percentage increase for the 1957 calendar year, sometime in late February or early March. It is planned to present these awards at a formal dinner in New York which the eight winning distributor executives and record managers will attend. The salesmen who have been working enthusiastically on a quarterly plan will receive the equivalent in cash of 10 shares of RCA Victor common stock based on the market value at that time.

Prizes for the two top record managers will be, First: An expense paid vacation for two to any port in the world, and, Second: A 1958 Ford Thunderbird.

The results of the third quarter were announced recently by D. J. Finn, Manager, planning and Marketing, for RCA Victor. Heffron, Morris Distributing Co., Syracuse; Joseph Diotato, D. H. "THE BEST OF IRVING BERLIN"—Reg Owen and his Orchestra—RCA Victor LPM-1542 (1-12" LP)

The waxing is another tribute to the great songwriter, to coincide with Berlin's Golden Anniversary of song writing. Reg Owen's orchestra lends it's rich delivery to 30 of Irving Berlin's tunes. Some of the tunes receiving the stylings are "The Girl That I Marry", "Alexander's Ragtime Band", "Heat Wave", and "I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm". Owen and company have a good issue here.

"HI-FI ROAD TO ROMANCE"—Mark Hunter conducting the London Arts Symphony Orchestra GNP 30 (1-12" LP)

Mark Hunter leads the London Symphony crew who takes the listener on a tour of different parts of the world. The deck, recorded in London, offers an array of moody items such as "Sorrento", "April In Portugal", "Paris In The Spring", "Song Of India", and "Brazil". The musicians have a warmly attractive delivery that effectively compliments the selections. Beautiful mood entry.

"DANCING IN THE DARK"—Lenny Herman and his Orchestra—Judson L-3009 (1-12" LP)

The platter features the Herman Ork rendering a dozen romantic tunes. The Herman musicians showcase the tunes with an intimate moody delivery that beautifully compliments them. "What Is This Thing Called Love", "Love, Your Magic Spell Is Everywhere", "I'm In The Mood For Love", and "Dancing In The Dark" are some of the tunes tagged. Herman's followers will surely give the album a hearty welcome. Well done mood deck.

Album Reviews

"HAMMOND ORGAN IN HI-FI"—David Harkness—Grand Award G. A. 33-364 (1-12" LP)

David Harkness showcases his organ artistry as he, along with an accomplished rhythm section, offer fifty items from some of America's greatest songwriters (Cole Porter, George Gershwin, Rodgers and Hammerstein, and others). Harkness is a talented musician who brings forth excitingly contrasting sounds. Refreshing versions of the melodic evergreens. "June Is Bustin' Out All Over", "The Lady Is A Tramp", "People Will Say We're In Love", and "Summertime" are among the tunes offered.

"SELECTIONS FROM 'ANNIE GET YOUR GUN'—'THE HELEN MORGAN STORY'"—Al Goodman—Camden CAL-411 (1-12" LP)

The $1.98 package contains tunes from two great musicals that have been previously released by RCA Victor. Side one features the "Annie Get Your Gun" items being rendered by The Goodman crew and vocal assists by Jimmy Carroll, Audry Marsh, etc. Tunes include "Moonshine Lullaby", and "The Girl That I Marry". Side two, "The Helen Morgan Story", is performed by the Larry Green Orchestra, Achille Scotti's group, and others. Worthy addition.

"MY FAIR LADY AND THE KING AND I"—Orchestra conducted by Al Goodman—Promenade 2061 (1-12" LP)

Al Goodman takes the orchestra through thirteen selections from the two hit musicals. The noted arranger-conductor delivers such popular goodies as "On The Street Where You Live", "I Could Have Danced All Night", "I've Grown Accustomed To Her Face" (My Fair Lady); "Something Wonderful", and "Getting To Know You" (The King And I). The set is a wonderful buy at $1.49.

JAZZ

"STAN GETZ IN STOCKHOLM"—Stan Getz—Verve MGV-8213 (1-12" LP)

The top flight tenor saxist is heard on eight sessions recorded in Stockholm. Getz is heard receiving the most able assistance of foreign musicians Gunnar Johnson on bass, Anders Burman on drums, and pianist Bengt Hallberg. The goodies rendered include "I Can't Believe That You're In Love With Me", "Indiana", "I Don't Stand A Ghost Of A Chance With You", and "Without A Song". Soothing sounds from the jazz mainstay.

"ON A LARK IN DIXIELAND"—Joe Darensbourg and his Dixie Flyers—Lark LLP 331 (1-12" LP)

Joe Darensbourg's Dixie flyers are true interpreters of the authentic Dixieland delivery. Darensbourg, who has played with Kid Ory, Lionel Hampton, and Earl Thompson, among others, now leads his own swingers through top flight portrayals. Heard are "Sweet Georgia Brown", "Dixie Flyer March", "How Long Blues", and "Yellow Dog Blues". The latter tune is currently enjoying a successful comeback via several recordings.

"DIAL 'S' FOR SONNY"—Sonny Clark—Blue Note 1570 (1-12" LP)

It's the young pianist's initial effort as a leader, and he has a lot to contribute to the jazz scene. Clark has an excellent supporting cast in such jazz notables as Hank Mobley (Tenor sax), and Art Farmer (Trumpet), as well as trombonist Curtis Fuller, bassist Wilbur Ware, and Louis Hayes on drums. The tunes, with the exception of "Love Walked In" and "It Could Happen To You", are all Clark originals. A welcome addition to the jazz shelf.

"TAYLOR'S WAILERS"—Art Taylor—Prestige LP-7117 (1-12" LP)

The waxing features the exciting drum work of Art Taylor who works with eight other noted jazz musicians, among them John Coltrane (tenor sax), Ray Bryant (piano), and Jackie McLean (alto sax). The six selections include "Off Minor", "Well You Needn't" and "Cubano Chant", the latter a Ray Bryant number. Everything goes off in top manner for the artists as they offer some real swinging sessions. Ok issue.

"CONCORD"—Modern Jazz Quartet—Milt Jackson Quartet—Prestige-1 (1-12" LP)

"LET'S GET AWAY FROM IT ALL"—Billy Taylor Trio—Prestige-2 (1-12" LP)

"MILES DAVIS AND THE MODERN JAZZ GIANTS"—Various artists—Prestige-3 (1-12" LP)

"TROMBONE BY THREE"—Jay Jay Johnson, Kai Winding, Bennie Green—Prestige-4 (1-12" LP)

Prestige issues four LP's on 16 2/3 rpm speed that have been previously released. The sound of the disks is not noticeably different than that of 33 1/3 disks. Because of the fact that 16 rpm waxings can carry the equivalent of two 33 rpm LP's the price is $7.98. The three initial waxings, clearly marked 16 rpm on the cover, are loaded with top name value. Some of the tunes and artists are "Bags' Groove" (Jay and Kai—Prestige # 4), "Little Girl Blue" (Billy Taylor Trio—Prestige #2), and "Concord" (Modern Jazz Quartet—Prestige #1). The diskery's new idea in recording could enjoy a strong reception on the market.

CLASSICAL

BRAHMS: Symphony No. 3 in F Major, Op. 90—Mendelssohn: Symphony No. 4 in A Major, Op. 90—Concertgebouw Orchestra of Amsterdam, Eduard Van Beinum conducting—Epic LC-3441 (1-12" LP)

The lyrical selections of the two late great composers undergo brilliant portrayals from the Concertgebouw orchestra. Van Beinum contributes a laudable piece of conducting as he takes the musicians through the orchestrally stirring works. Works from the noted composers, expert renditions, plus the superb sound the waxing offers should insure a hearty welcome from lovers of the music. A standout issue.

SAMUEL BARBER: Symphony No. 1 In One Movement, Op. 9, Overture To "The School For Scandal", Adagio For Strings, Essay For Orchestra—Eastman-Rochester Symphony Orchestra directed by Howard Hanson—Mercury MG-50148 (1-12" LP)

Barber, one of America's most inventive composers, has two of his better known pieces receiving the delicate stylings of a most capable aggregation. The Eastman-Rochester Orchestra, from the Eastman School of Music, in Rochester, and Hanson, the head of the school, interpret the compositions with poise and authority. Samuel Barber's orchestrally beautiful pieces and the ork's tonally exciting delivery make the issue a welcome addition to the classical shelf.

"REY DE LA TORRE PLAYS CLASSICAL GUITAR"—Epic LC-3418 (1-12" LP)

Rey De La Torre, Cuban born guitarist, portrays seven stirring selections via his expressive instrument. Here are portrayals receiving the inventive delivery of an expert musician who obviously understands them intimately. De La Torre performs the works of such masters as Fernando Sor (Sonata, 15, No. 2), Gaspar Sanz (Gallardas, Pavanas, Folias,), and many others. Persuasive string work. Important issue.

"DANCE GYPSY DANCE"—Hollywood "Pops" Symphony Orchestra conducted by David Forester Fantasy 9001 (1-12" LP)

Forester, once named "Musical Director Of The Year For Radio And Television", displays his musical skill while rendering pieces from some of the world's most noted composers. The maestro conducts the Hollywood "Pops" Symphony orchestra through seven lyrical works that include "Hungarian Dance No. 5" (Brahms), "Slavonic Dance No. 10" (Dvorak), "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" (Liszt), etc. The light classical entry is an impressive one.

DEBUSSY: La Mer—RAVEL: Rhapsodie Espagnole—SATIE: Gymnopedies Nos. 1 and 2—Koussevitzky and the Boston Symphony Orchestra—Camden CAL-376 (1-12" LP)

The pressing is a re-issue of sessions originally released by Victor. Koussevitzky does a fine job of conducting the orchestra through a beautiful reading of Debussy's "La Mer" on one side and Satie's and Ravel's works on the other. The conductor, who worked with the ork for twenty-five years, displays his intimate knowledge of the crew through its wonderful readings. An excellent buy at $1.98.

Johnny Mathis Day

SAN FRANCISCO—Johnny Mathis, the San Francisco boy who has become the toast of the record industry, made a triumphant homecoming in December. Wednesday, December 18, was proclaimed "Johnny Mathis Day" by Mayor George Christopher. The celebration was climaxed by a concert sponsored by Radio Station KOBV and Columbia Records at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium. The concert drew a crowd of over 7000. On hand to greet Mathis were KOBV disk jockeys left to right, Ted Rogers, Bobby Beers, Jim Wayne, Ken Williams and Ted Cooper.

Irv Jerome Named MGM Sales VP

IRV JEROME

NEW YORK — Arnold Maxim, president of MGM Records, last week announced that Irv Jerome will be his executive vice president in charge of sales.

The appointment, which becomes effective January 13th, has been approved by Joseph Vogel, president of Loew's. Jerome's primary job will be to revitalize the sales and promotion staff. Jerome will be instrumental in setting-up an adequate sales force and he will be in touch with distributors throughout the United States.

A veteran of the record industry, Jerome goes to MGM after nine months as vice-president and national sales manager of the Capitol subsid, Prep Records. Under his helm, Janice Harper became Prep's first name artist with her hit "Bon Voyage."

Prior to joining Prep, Jerome was district sales and promotion manager of Capitol's Eastern branch for three years. Before that he spent a year as manager of Capitol's Newark branch.

He moved up to the Newark post after years of experience as a salesman in the New Jersey territory for the Capitol label.

In his new post, Jerome will work in conjunction with Maxim and the label's A & R topper, Morty Craft.

Don Ameche To Wax For Seeco Records

NEW YORK—Sidney Siegel, president of Seeco Records, has signed film, TV and Broadway star Don Ameche to an exclusive recording contract.

Siegel revealed that the plans for Ameche's first LP for Seeco's "Celebrity Series" are already being made. Dewey Bergman who produced the Jose Melis and Elsa Maxwell LP's will be arranger and conductor on the session and will receive credit on the front cover of the album. Siegel stated that he believes the star will be recorded in February.

Despite Ameche's work in musical motion pictures, in B'way's "Silk Stockings" and the many TV musicals in which he has starred, this is the first time that he has ever been signed to a solo recording contract.

Previously, the only recording that Ameche had ever made was as part of the cast in the album from the Broadway musical "Silk Stockings."

Siegel stated, "A completely unique and special idea has been developed for the album that will make it one of our all-time best sellers."

Correction

NEW YORK—In the January 11th issue of The Cash Box, in the Country Bullseye section the label incorrectly listed the publisher of Johnnie & Jack's RCA Victor waxing of "Stop The World" as Bill McCall BMI. It should have read 4 Star Sales BMI and writer credits belong to Carl Belew and W. S. Stevenson. Below, incidentally, waxed the original version of the tune for 4 Star. Another cover, out this week, was cut by Decca's Patsy Cline.

First Christy Single

LOS GATOS, CALIF. — Christy Records, the recently formed indie headed by Joe Jaros and Peter Uharriet, has issued its first release coupling "Billy Loves Me" and "It's Tragic But It's True" recorded by Cory Lind, a lark who has signed an exclusive contract with the diskery.

Jaros is a well known band leader and president of Rambolt Music Publishing Company. Uharriet is a former executive of Bella Records and is now vice-president of the new label.

Uharriet will leave shortly on a nationwide promotional tour to get the Cory Lind release off to a fast start.

Located at 15520 El Gato Lane in Los Gatos, Calif., Christy Records has already set up foreign distribution in Europe and South America. The company's future plans include the release of LP's in addition to other singles.

The group was bid a fond aloha at Los Angeles International Airport by Capitol Sales and Merchandising Vice President Lloyd W. Dunn (second from left) who, one hour after the Waikiki bound vacationers departed, hopped a PAA DC-7 non-stop Polar flight plane for Paris and London with Lou Schurrer, Advertising and Package Design Director of Capitol Records, Inc., and Leo Kepler, Merchandising Manager, Classical Records for the company.

Patti Page In New Deal With Mercury

CHICAGO—Mercury Records will be producing Patti Page records for many years to come as a result of a new recording pact the two parties entered into last week.

A long-term contract was signed in New York last week with Irving B. Green, president of Mercury Records and Jack Rael, Miss Page's personal manager working out the final negotiations.

Patti has recorded continuously and exclusively for Mercury since she rose to recording fame almost ten years ago.

In the last two years—a period that found the public's taste dominated by male rock 'n roll singers—Patti maintained her popularity with such best selling singles as "Old Cape Cod," "I'll Remember Today," "Allegheny Moon" and "Go On With The Wedding". Her latest release, just issued, couples "Belonging To Someone" and "Bring Us Together".

In the recent Cash Box Juke Box Operators Poll, Miss Page was named the #1 female vocalist of year.

The future looks even brighter for the femme star. The lark's network TV show, "The Big Record," got off to slow start but today its increased ratings have made it one of CBS' most important shows.

In the past ten years, Miss Page has been responsible for the sale of millions and millions of records. Among her biggest were "Tennessee Waltz", which topped the two million mark, and such others as "Doggie In The Window," "I Went To Your Wedding," "Cross Over The Bridge," "Changing Partners," "Confess," and "With My Eyes Wide Open".

Columbia To Hold 1958 Convention At Waldorf-Astoria In N. Y.

NEW YORK — Columbia Records' 1958 National Sales Convention will take place from June 18 through June 21 at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York, scene of the company's "Lp" introduction ten years ago.

Details of this year's incentive contest, whereby salesmen can again in expense-paid trips for wives or other guests were revealed today by William Gallagher, National Sales Manager.

Under the rules of the contest, which runs through the period December 30, 1957 to May 31, 1958, quotas on sales of all Columbia products except phonographs will be assigned branches and distributors which will, in turn, assign portions of their target volume to all full-time managers, salesmen and promotion men. Appropriate District Managers will approve personnel "eligibility lists" submitted by the key branch or distributor executives. When a distributor qualifies by meeting its sales goal, Columbia will pay all expenses of transportation, hotel room and meals for the invited guests of eligible personnel.

Minimum sub-goals can earn partial payment of expenses according to a scale worked out for sales achievements over 85 percent. Since the award is made to the distributor, or branch, on overall performance, individual salesmen will share in it at the discretion of the executive personnel. Thus, a distributor earning but 50 percent of its "guests' expense-payments" may elect to bestow the full treatment on those salesmen who met their individual quotas.

This year's contest is substantially the same as the 1957 "Your Fair Lady" incentive program. Columbia reported all distributors qualified for 100 percent privileges and the company paid full expenses of all guests of the sales staffs at the Americana Hotel in Miami Beach.

Prestige Offers 10% Discount For A Month

NEW YORK—In keeping with its usual semi-annual discount policy, Prestige Records last week announced that it is offering dealers a 10% discount on all of the label's 119-12" LP's and four-16 3/4 rpm releases for a period of one month.

The 10% discount is an inducement for dealers to fill in their depleted stocks and the plan will be in effect from January 15 thru February 15, 1958.

Mercury Raises 45 RPM Price To 98¢; Offers 100% Guarantee

CHICAGO — Mercury Records last week announced a 100% guarantee on all of the firm's 45 rpm singles and at the same time upped the price of 45's to 98¢

The Mercury thinking on the 100% guarantee and price increase was summed up by the label's president Irving B. Green, when he explained, "This period that the record industry is currently experiencing of great over-abundance of product, creates a heavy burden on the shoulders of the record dealer. It is our desire through our 100% guarantee to alleviate some of the pressure and make it easier for the dealer to be more completely stocked and better able to meet the demands of his customers."

The 100% guarantee and price increase affecting the 70000 series, went into effect January 1, 1958. All shipments made from the 1st on will be invoiced at the 98¢ suggested list.

To eliminate any book-keeping problems that might arise, Mercury announced that the normal return privileges for the six months that ended December 31, 1957 will be maintained. Records numbered up to 71240x may be returned and will be credited according to the old retail suggested price of 89¢. Records numbered 71241x and upward will be credited, based on the suggested new price of 98¢.

MGM To Issue 3 Gigi LPs — Sound Track, David Rose And Jazz Sets

NEW YORK—Arnold Maxin, president of MGM Records, has announced that MGM will release the sound track album from the motion picture "Gigi" in addition to two other "Gigi" LP's. One is an instrumental album by David Rose and his Orchestra, already recorded, and the other is a jazz album currently being prepared. The score of this film was composed by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe, famous for their "My Fair Lady" score.

The record company is coordinating its efforts with the picture company and an extensive promotion campaign is being readied which will include sales contests for distributors and salesmen; a dealer-distributor window display contest; the shipment of the sound track album directly to 2000 radio stations; sound track album previews for music critics and record reviewers in key cities; theatre previews for dealers, disk jockeys, record librarians and record buyers; a concentrated trade paper advertising campaign; a consumer advertising campaign; special animated window displays promoting the three albums; a dealer demonstration record featuring spot selections from the sound track album interspersed with commentary by a well-known disk jockey; 12 x 12 inch dummy album covers; and delivery of albums in key cities by local Leslie Caron doubles. Other promotional plans will be developed as the campaign unfolds.

Dot Party

NEW YORK—Randy Wood, President of Dot Records, was the guest of honor at a cocktail party held recently by Dot at New York's Warwick Hotel. A huge turnout included a host of Dot artists and many song publishers and their pluggers and trade paper reps. Some of the luminaries surrounding Wood in the above pic are, left to right, Ira Howard of The Cash Box, Jerry Blaine, Jubilee Records Prexy, Wood and Bob Austin of The Cash Box.

Pastner And Burdick Join ABC-Paramount

NEW YORK—Larry Newton, Director of Sales for ABC-Paramount, last week announced two new appointees to the Am-Par field staff, in a move designed to strengthen the label's coordination amongst its distributor chain.

Replacing Fred Foster as East Coast Representative is Clayton Burdick, formerly employed with the diskery's Philadelphia distrib, David Rosen, Inc. With Rosen organization, Burdick functioned first as a salesman for the ABC-Par label, later moving to the post of special promotional rep for AM-Par, attached to the Philly distrib. As East Coast field representative, Burdick will assume all duties and responsibilities in regard to distributor liaison, sales and merchandising of ABC-Paramount single and album releases, auxiliary promotion and exploitation, etc., all formerly carried on by Foster. Foster resigned his post two weeks ago after two years with AM-Par to accept a position which would enable him to spend more time at home with his family. He will soon join another tangent of the record business which will not require incessant traveling. Parting between Foster and Sam Clark, prexy of the label, was amicable.

Assuming the post of the newly-created National Liaison Representative in Sales and Merchandising is Sid Pastner, also a native of Philadelphia, and a veteran of the record business. Pastner will operate wherever any unusual problems of merchandising and/or exploitation arise.

Both appointees will report directly to Newton, and have already taken up their duties in their new capacities.

Stimler To Frisco

NEW YORK—Sidney N. Goldberg, Vice President in Charge of Sales for Decca Distributing Corp., has announced that Irving Stimler has assumed the post of San Francisco Branch Manager. Stimler was formerly a salesman with the Los Angeles Branch.

R & B Ramblings

NEW YORK:

Reports continue good from almost every manufacturer and distrib we speak to. Business is rolling along at a high speed and getting enough records pressed seems to be the big problem. . . . At Atlantic Records they've quite a few waxings to concern themselves with. The recent quartet of releases is showing good action. Clyde McPhatter's two siders, "That's Enough For Me" and "No Love Like Her Love", is getting double barreled response. Ray Charles looks like money in the bank with "Talkin' 'Bout You"; Ivory Joe Hunter steps out again with "You're On My Mind"; and The Jaye Sisters show a surprising amount of excitement with "Pitter Patter Boom Boom". Surprising, that is, in view of the fact that it is the group's introductory entree. Also stirring up a good sized reaction is thrush Betty Johnson's "The Little Blue Man". On the East West label Burt Taylor's "I Can't Help It" is coming along in tidy fashion and could develop into a sock selling disk. Ato showing up fast in the sales column with Guitar

THE CASUALS

Slim's "I Won't Mind At All" and it seems like a certain hit. Looks like Don Robey started something when he launched the Back Beat label. Don sent us a flock of telegrams he received to prove that he has three hits on the new company. The Casual's "So Tough", Bill Bodaford's "Little Girl", and "Tell Me Why" by the Rob Roys. Guess Robey looks forward to a big 1958, what with such an eventful start. Robey is also slightly elated with the sale on Little Junior Parker's "That's Alright" and Paul Perryman's "Satellite Fever and Asian Flu". . . . George Goldner's left hand gal, Vera Hodes, reports business still swinging along at a torrid pace and Goldner all smiles. "Maybe" by The Chantels, a solid local hit in New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia, is now breaking in real big figures in all the major markets throughout the country. "When the records we shipped this week get into the stores we are bound to have one of the nation's best sellers. Watch your reports." Ok, Vera, we'll be watching. Another that appears to be a big national hit, breaks in Bob Rosen, is "7-11" by The Gone All Stars. Gone will issue its first LP on January 15. It is Cab Calloway's "The Cotton Club Revue". . . . Sol Rabinowitz, Baton Records, reports his "Hard Times" by Noble Watts is selling real strong. "But more exciting than that," says Rabinowitz, "is the new Noble Watts I've got ready for release. Both sides, 'Blast Off' and 'Ricky Tick', are smash numbers and everyone who has heard them assures me we have a potentially best seller ready to go." Sol cut two new talents this week. Mark Jackson, a songwriter, guitarist, vocalist described by Rabinowitz as "a very warm, intriguing singer", and Lohn Ritchie, a singer who has the same emotional impact as Johnnie Ray, are the duo. Ritchie has been in Paris for the last three years and currently teaches Philosophy at Columbia University. . . . Morty Wax now doing independent record promotion covering East and Mid-West. Morty can be reached at DE-9-6298. He is currently working on Anchor's "Day After Day" and "Jealous Heart" by Bill Cecer. . . . Al Silver, Herald and Ember Records, glued to that phone taking orders and re-orders on his "Get A Job" by The Silhouettes; "Walkin' With Mr. Lee" by Lee Allen; and "The Joker" by Billy Myles. "Get A Job" is a runaway hit and in just a couple of weeks has broken into #25 in the Top Sixty. From all appearances, it is the fastest climbing record in the country right now. "And now," says Silver, "The Turbans' 'The Wadda Do' has broken wide open in several key cities." Silver is being pressured by his distribs to release his great "Shake A Hand" by Faye Adams now that the same tune is doing so nicely on Cameo via Mike Pedicin. Some of the d'stribs have put it on the air from the LP "Herald The Beat" and if anything happens as a result it may be re-issued. . . . ABC-Paramount's purchase of "Short Shorts" could have been the highest price ever paid for a master. We've heard several figures, but the last and supposedly authentic figure is said to be $18,500. It includes "Short Shorts" and eight more sides. Peter Tripp (WMGM-New York) says "I'm the fella who broke the tune in the New York area." . . . Ernie Young seems to be headed for an exciting New Year. Nashboro prexy is busy at his desk keeping the orders rolling out to the distribs on his new Crescendos' "Oh Julie" on Nasco. Young says the deck is a definite smash in several areas and catching on in most spots thruout the country. . . . Ed Portnoy and Stan Feldman, Ivy Records, announced the appointment of Artie Ziveter to handle promotion for the label. Ed and Stan are currently riding high with the Ivy release, "Lullaby Of The Bells". They are also keen about the new Ivy issue, "In My Heart" by Jimmie Lewis & Volumes. . . . Bill "Sparky" Mullen (WSID-Baltimore, Md.) would like to say thanks through this column to all his friends for their Christmas cards and gifts. Bill recently did a telethon for Cerebral Palsy and says it was his first TV exposure since the School of Radio and Television Technique.

CHICAGO:

Deejay George Woods of WDAS in Philly created quite a stir when he played "Been So Long" by the Pastels six times in a row, causing a fury of phone calls from all the record shops. . . . Li'l Wally says the busy sked of wax sessions at his Banana diskery means plenty of action soon. . . . Stan

ROY HAMILTON

Pat wants it known that Gee label has a big deck in "Lover Boy" by the Cleftones. . . . Mort Hillman is pleased with action by Johnny Dane's "Why Did You Leave Me" on the Stepheny label. Johnny visited with Don Bell's "Teen Hop" show in Des Moines. . . . Mercury's Danny Driscoll guested on Marty Faye's TV clambake "Marty's Morgue", 1/2, and a good time was had by all. . . . Len Chess, prexy of the Chess diskery and All-State Distrib's Paul Glass vacationing in Jamaica with their families. Phil Chess, who's minding the store, tells us to watch for Jimmy McCracklin's new dance craze "The Walk". It's a natural! . . . King Records' Bill Bolden informs us that Johnny Pate's "Swingin' Shepherd Blues" sells bigger everyday. Also, Johnny's newie on King "Walking With Mr. Lee" looks like another "Swingin'". Bill says that Bill Doggett's "Leaps And Bounds" is selling that way. "The Bells" an oldie by Billy Ward and the Dominoes has been revived on LP. . . . We regret the passing of Louis De Lisa of Club De Lisa recently. His brothers Jimmy & Johnny survive. . . . United Distribs Jerry Ferber reports that the Casuals are in town with their newie "So Tough" on the Back Beat label. They'll make the deejay circuit. Jerry says that Roy Hamilton's "Don't Let Go" is still ridin' high. . . . Jimmy Bracken, Vee Jay-Falcon prexy, delighted with the pacting of Memphis Slim, one of the finest Blues artists in the country. Memphis Slim's debut disk is skedded for immediate release—"Sooner", says Jimmy! Abner and Cal Carter are heading for the west coast to record Dee Clark and the Little Richard Orch. Vee-Jay's first LP, "We Bring You Love" by Sarah McLawler and Richard Otto, currently handled by All-State Distribs, in Chi, is creating quite a stir. Gene Allison's "You Can Make It If You Try" is now a big, big record in the pop field; and, Jimmy Reed's newie "You're Something Else" has started a new phrase making the rounds, "You Somethin' Else". It's contagious! . . . Our sincerest condolences to a grieving Jack Reiling, musical director of WAAF, whose aunt (Miss Bessie Cavaness) passed suddenly 1/7. Jack's loss is great for she was like a mother to him.

LOS ANGELES:

Irv Shorten of Allied Distributing reports that the End label has a big one breaking in the Southern California area in the Chantel's recording of "Maybe". . . . Antler Records has appointed Sid Talmadges' Record Merchandising firm to handle distribution in Southern California. Label prexy, Buck Ram, leaves this week for a trip through the East to line up additional distributors for the label. Current plug tune for Antler getting a big play from the local jockeys is "My Sweetie Pie" by Johnny Olen. . . . Flash Records has signed new artist Paul Clifton with his first release "Are You All Right", getting a good reception locally. . . . E.M.I. Holiday Party

LONDON, ENG.—One of the most spectacular Christmas/New Year parties held in London over the holidays was in the main studios of the E.M.I. group of record companies. Although the occasion was mainly an internal affair for executives artists and staff, so close is the relationship in Britain now between phonograph operators and record companies, that London operators and distributors attended the party. Seen here with the three boys (the King Brothers), who have been topping the British Phonograph Hit Parade with their version of "Wake Up Little Susie," is the Chairman of the vast E.M.I. group, Mr. Lockwood. The group's record labels include H.M.V., Parlophone, Regal Zonophone, British "Columbia" and British "M.G.M."; and E.M.I. also own the American Capitol label. Lockwood has taken a personal interest in establishing close ties with the phonograph leaders in Britain.

Nobel Wins RCA Roadster

NEW YORK—W. D. Oliver, assistant sales promotion manager of Kimberly-Clark, Neemah, last week presented a $5,000 Arnolt Bristol Roadster to Pittsburgh disk jockey, Al Nobel, first-prize winner in the Kleenex-RCA Victor-Perry Como Contest.

Nobel, of radio station KQV, was awarded the top prize for a promotion campaign based on effectiveness, skill and originality. The Pittsburgh jockey has been doing his show the past month from atop a flagpole on behalf of the United Fund Drive. He incorporated the Kleenex-RCA Victor promotion into his outdoor broadcasting stunt.

The presentation was made at the Carlton House in Pittsburgh. Personnel attending the ceremonies were Jack Dunn, promotion manager for RCA Victor Records; A. S. Joseph and J. W. Lanigan, sales managers for Kimberly-Clark.

Contest judges include the music departments of The Cash Box, Variety and Billboard.

Prep Pacts Holliman

BEVERLY HILLS, CAL. — Actor Earl Holliman, currently co-starring in MGM's "Don't Go Near The Water," has signed an exclusive recording pact with Prep Records.

Holliman, who made his singing debut on Kraft Theater's January 1 TV Show, "The Battle for Wednesday Night," recorded the song, "Nobody Knows How I Feel," from the show for Prep the following day. Acetates were rushed to key deejays throughout the country, and records will be in dealers' shops this week. Holliman will spend two weeks in the East and Midwest on a twelve-city promotion tour to plug the disk, as well as his current film.

The twenty-nine-year-old actor first shot into public prominence when he was seen in "Giant," and subsequently won the foreign press award for the best supporting actor of 1956 for his role in "The Rainmaker." Holliman has been studying voice for the past two years and has held back making a disk deal until a movie or TV singing part, such as the Kraft show, could be tied in with a record release.

Holliman, who also dances, is being considered by MGM for the lead in the movie version of "The Boy, Friend," hit Broadway musical.

"Exotic" Sounds

BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF.—Martin Denny, whose Liberty album, "Exotica" has been on the national best selling lists for the past three months, has completed a new album "Exotica, Vol. II". Denny and His Group are now playing to capacity crowds nightly at Don The Beachcomber's, Waikiki Beach, Honolulu, after drawing standing room audiences at Henry J. Kaiser's Hawaiian Village.

First Hi-Fi Waxing Of National Anthem Released By American Heritage

NEW YORK—The American Heritage Foundation this week will present to every public, private and parochial school and college in the country a free copy of the first high-fidelity recording of the National Anthem ever produced, it was announced by John C. Cornelius, foundation president.

The new high-fidelity rendition, a 78rpm disk, was recorded and produced for the American Heritage Foundation at cost as a public service by the Radio Corporation of America, RCA Victor Record Division, Cornelius revealed. It features the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Fritz Reiner conducting and the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Charles Munch conducting. Not available through commercial outlets, the recording will be distributed only by the foundation.

The foundation will also make the new recordings available to radio and television stations, theatres, baseball parks and similar institutions.

"This pioneer high-fidelity recording of 'The Star Spangled Banner' fills an incredible vacuum in American life," said Cornelius. "Although high-fidelity was introduced a decade ago, the only recordings of our National Anthem available up to this time have been inadequate, old-fashioned platters and most of these have been by foreign orchestras."

According to Cornelius, the deficiency was discovered by Louis Schweitzer, owner of radio station WBAI-FM in New York City. Schweitzer brought the matter to the attention of the American Heritage Foundation in August 1957 and made the first financial gift to the foundation to help defray the cost of starting the project.

Herman Lubinsky Writes Open Letter To Trade

"Savoy has for several years now attempted to insure the continued development of jazz by devoting large amounts of recording space to young innovators in jazz. Public acceptance of the progressive school has been a slow, arduous struggle, but today, jazz lists among its still limited public such champions as Stravinsky and Leonard Bernstein.

"But recording, alone, is not enough. It is important to jazz and to the jazz industry that young musicians have a positive and fewer large bands and jazz clubs . . . all of which have provided some apprenticeship for the struggling but talented jazz musician in the past. The public needs to understand new directions in jazz and the makeup of the jazz musician. The record industry, itself, needs emphatically a future reservoir of young blood out of which will come recordings which can stand firmly along side those of Charlie Parker or Dizzy Gillespie.

"In providing a scholarship for the School of Jazz, we feel that we are in some measure contributing to the future of jazz and the music industry since such a school can provide functions which are outside the realm of our own business structure. As far as I know, the School of Jazz is the only school devoted exclusively to the development of young jazz musicians under the direct guidance of top professional musicians. It is a show case for the young blood and insures continuation of the great jazz tradition. Its program seeks to eventually bridge the gap between jazz and music education and it establishes a professional educational status for the leading jazz men of our time.

"The struggle of jazz to make itself heard has not been an easy one. If we of Savoy Records can make that struggle easier by sending young jazz musicians to school, it's the least we can do."

R & B Reviews

A AWARD & SLEEPER B+ EXCELLENT B VERY GOOD
C+ GOOD C FAIR D MEDIOCRE

THE ORBITS (Argo 5286)

B "MR. HARD LUCK" (2:41) [Figure BMI—J. Caronna] The Orbits team in okay fashion as they belt a quick beat bouncer. Deck drives with a zest that will appeal to the teenage audience.

B "WHO ARE YOU" (2:38) [Figure BMI—J. Caronna] The Orbits offer a slow beat ballad blues on the flip. A dreamy drifter hunk of material that comes off a better than average deck.

WILLIE HEADEN (Dooto 427)

B+ "BLAME IT ON THE BLUES" (2:18) [Dootsie Williams BMI W. Headen, Doe] Willie Headen turns in a strong reading of a slow, rhythmic and melodic blues. Headen gives it a performance that could grab it action in all markets. A good, solid offering that bears watching.

B "COOL CAT" (2:45) [Dootsie Williams BMI—Headen, Doe] Headen does another smart vocal job on a similar piece of material. The item swings lightly and Headen has another strong deck here.

PRINCE PATRIDGE (Challenge 1015)

B "THE FELLA THAT LOOKS LIKE ME" (2:25) [Sherman BMI—Ray Stanley] Prince Patridge, who had a territorial hit several years back, comes up with a cute story about the troubles his double creates for him. Deck has some laughs and could grab a good-sized sale.

C+ "LIVE A LITTLE" (2:22) [Sherman BMI—Vivian Pedescleaux] Patridge turns in another recitation with a philosophy that berates the hardships of life. Good listening, but without the commercial appeal cut into the upper deck.

SPIRITUAL

THE FAMOUS DAVIS SISTERS (Savoy 4088)

B+ "MY WONDERFUL COUNSELOR" (2:40) [Savoy BMI—Davis] The Famous Davis Sisters shout out a jubilee item with that wonderful sound and excitement they are so well known for. Stirring wax that should stir up the gospel market.

B "FAREWELL" (2:41) [Savoy BMI—Davis] The Famous Davis Sisters change pace on the flip, offering a melodic slow beat filled with emotion and given a moving treatment. Strong religious wax.

THE HIGHWAY Q. C.'S (Vee-Jay 853)

B "THERE'S SOMETHING ON MY MIND" (2:45) [Conrad BMI S. Taylor] The Highway Q. C.'S offer a slow rhythmic religious chant with a feeling-filled reading. Sincere waxing that will please the religious buyer.

B "THE WAY UP THE HILL" (2:47) [Gladstone ASCAP—Broderick, Ruth] The Highway Q. C.'S up the tempo on the flip and turn in a fine reading of a middle beat gospel tune. The lead handles his chores with strength and his group answers effectively. Potent offering.

The Cash Box Award o' the Week

"YOU'RE ON MY MIND" (2:40) "BABY BABY COUNT ON ME"
[Desiard/Progressive BMI— (2:06)
Hunter] [Progressive BMI—Hunter]
IVORY JOE HUNTER (Atlantic 1173)

● Ivory Joe Hunter again flashes his talents vocally and with two self-written pieces of music. Hunter comes away with two possible hits. The smooth voiced singer treats his material with a delicacy that belies his impressive figure. "You're On My Mind" is a fragile, swaying tune delivered by Hunter against a big choral background. "Baby Baby Count On Me", is another slow paced drifter that carries the Hunter tag. Soft air coupled with a tender love lyric. Two solid entries for all markets.

"EVERY WHICHA KINDA WAY" "I DON'T WANT YOUR LOVE"
(2:19) (2:02)
[Jay & Cee BMI—Turner, Glover] [Selbon BMI—Billy Myles]
EARL (CONNELLY) KING (King 5102)

● Earl (Connelly) King, missing from the lists for too long, now appears to be headed in the right direction with two top-drawer items. "Every Whicha Kinda Way" is a middle beat shuffle with a terrific backing and great vocal treatment. King never sounded better and comes off in wonderful fashion, the beneficiary of an exciting arrangement. The coupling, "I Don't Want Your Love", is a complete about face. King sings a beautifully melodic floater with a corrossing tenderness. Moving wax that could offer a strong battle to "Every Whicha Kinda Way". We step aside and let the patrons decide the issue.

"HELLO, HOW YA' BEEN, "I WON'T MIND AT ALL" GOODBYE" (2:19) (2:17) [Progressive BMI—
[Progressive BMI—Richard] Pomus, Shuman]
GUITAR SLIM (Atco 6108)

● Guitar Slim is back in the picture with a solid two-sider that bears the markings of "hit". "Hello, How Ya' Been, Goodbye" is a slow beat effort with a tuneful story of love that is not returned. Slim handles it softly and with sincerity. Potent deck. The coupling, "I Won't Mind At All", is a slow beat blues, the type of material with which Guitar Slim is an expert salesman. Smooth, easy delivery that falls tenderly on the ears. Two decks that Slim can crack through with.

"NO LOVE LIKE HER LOVE" (2:42)
[Lowell/Progressive BMI—Wood, Williams]
"THAT'S ENOUGH FOR ME" (2:02)
[Eden/Progressive BMI—Benton, Otis]
CLYDE McPHATTER (Atlantic 1170)

● Clyde McPhatter offers a delectable piece of wax. "No Love Like Her Love", in which he sings with deep emotion and tender voice. The mood of the soft love tune is faithfully portrayed by the talented singer. Melodic tune artfully delivered. Look for it to stir up some action. The reverse end, "That's Enough For Me", is a change of pace middle beat bouncer with a springly approach and it comes through effectively. We lean ever so lightly in the direction of "No Love Like Her Love", but this bouncer has lots to offer and we'd advise that you give it a close inspection.

"SHE KNOCKS ME OUT" (2:10) [Armel BMI—Archie, Burrage]
"A HEART" (2:28) [Armel BMI—Archie, Burrage]
HAROLD BURRAGE (Cobra 5022)

● Harold Burrage grabs a strong piece of jump material in "She Knocks Me Out" and reads it in great style. His interpretation is alive and exciting. To help make this an outstanding offering the backing is a straccato rhythm that lifts the deck away out in space. A strong etching that should capture the fancy of lots of buyers. The flip, "A Heart", portrays a different Burrage. The chanter handles the melodic slow beat with a tenderness befitting the tune. Easy on the ears. For the hit deck it's "She Knocks Me Out".

"BILLY'S HEARTACHE" (2:14) [Stewart, Larson, McDaniel]
"BABY, YOU'RE MY ONLY LOVE" (2:41) [Stewart, Ames, McDaniel]
BILLY STEWART (Okeh 7095)

● Billy Stewart has a most infectious offering in "Billy's Heartache", a middle beat cha cha rhythm. Billy's vocal is an attention getter from his opening note—and the arrangement plus sound add up to a powerful wax that could happen. A push on this side could break it into a big seller. The flip, "Baby, You're My Only Love", showcases Stewart again in a very strong vocal projection. The tune is a slow beat, ballad blues well done—but not as strong as the "Heartache" side.

Santa Hancock

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—Hunter Hancock, one of Southern California's most popular disc jockeys didn't give the usual Christmas gifts to his friends and business associates this past Christmas. Instead of buying several hundreds of dollars worth of gifts for distribution among the people with whom he does business, Hunter bought food for needy and deserving families and had it distributed by "Willowbrook White Christmas"—a Community Chest agency.

Hancock personally delivered the food to the Willowbrook White Christmas agency by truck on Dec. 21. Then the food was packaged and delivered to families in the Watts and Willowbrook vicinity.

Hunter Hancock, for many years on KPOP has a great following of radio listeners in Southern California—many of them in the area of Watts and Willowbrook. Therefore, as a gesture of his appreciation, Hunter conceived this Christmas food package plan. His business associates and friends will be happy to learn that instead of their receiving gifts from Hunter this season they have the satisfaction of knowing that Hunter's food package plan made the Christmases of many needy families a whole lot merrier.

11 Hollywood Stars On Zephyr L. P.

BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF.—Zephyr Records is releasing an LP entitled "Premiere" featuring eleven Hollywood stars who present an unusual selection of songs. The album vocals are by Ricardo Montalban, Debra Paget, Ida Lupino, Howard Duff, Eve Arden, Pat O'Brien, Rita Moreno, Marge and Gower Champion, Preston Foster and Corinne Calvet.

The unusual aspect of the album is that the stars doing the vocals are better known for their acting prowess than for singing. In most instances they have only occasionally sung professionally on screen, television or for supperclubs.

Leo Guild, trade columnist and radio commentator, organized the album produced by Geordie Hormel. Bob Thompson's orchestra backs all artists.

The songs range from novelty, rhythm, ballad and torch to folk songs.

Dunn Appoints Head

NEW YORK—Emmett B. Dunn, Manager of the RCA Victor Custom Record Sales Department, has announced the appointment of James L. Head as Sales Representative in the New York office of the firm.

Head has been with RCA Victor for 17 years and is experienced in every phase of record manufacturing. A graduate of Indiana University in his native state, Head worked for the company for some years before joining the Army during the Second World War, in which he was attached to the 89th Infantry Division. After the war, he returned to RCA Victor and was appointed Sales Representative in the Chicago office of the Custom Record Department, where he has remained until now.

Head succeeds James R. Cunnison, who has been transferred to the Commercial Record Department.

RCA Victor "Gold Standard Series" Basis For U. S. Army Radio Show

NEW YORK—A new, 26-show series of popular music recordings will be distributed by the U.S. Army Recruiting Service to nearly 3,000 AM and FM radio stations this week. This series marks the first time that Army shows are issued on 7-inch, 45-rpm disks.

The Recruiting Service received permission from RCA Victor to record its selections from a small portion of the "Gold Standard Series," a series comprised of all-time best sellers. Some of the favorites in the "Gold Standard" include Glenn Miller's "In the Mood," "Sunrise Serenade," Tommy Dorsey's "I'm Getting Sentimental Over You," "Boogie Woogie," "Marie," plus numerous others by Hugo Winterhalter, Benny Goodman, Hal Kemp, Bunny Berigan, Freddy Martin and Pee Wee King.

Martin Block, national chairman of the Army's Disk Jockey Corps, was engaged to do the announcing and commercials.

The "Gold Standard" series used by the Army, as well as RCA Victor's entire "Gold Standard" series, is available in all record shops, super markets and other retail outlets.

Design Signs Carson

BEVERLY HILLS, CAL.—Movie actor Jack Carson has signed an exclusive recording contract with Design Records, according to the label's prexy George Fishman.

Carson, whose singing experience dates back to his Warner Brothers musicals in which he co-starred with Dennis Morgan, will cut a minimum of twenty sides a year, with the initial session scheduled for early next month. Since Design, up to recent months, has been concerned mainly with the children's market, Carson will go with the label's strength in this area by recording a children's album as his first venture.

Roy Freeman, label A and R head, met with Carson last week to discuss material.

PATSY CLINE
(Decca 30542)

B+ "STOP THE WORLD" (2:26) [Four Star BMI—C. Belew, W. S. Stevenson] Patsy Cline puts her heart into her delivery of this tear-compelling, romantic piece set to a fish-beat ballad pace. Altho there are a few versions already on the market the thrush's grade "A" performance oughta share heavily in the final take.

B+ "WALKING DREAM" (2:16) [Tree BMI—H. Willis, G. Willis] Another "Walkin'"-titled-item from "Walkin' After Midnight" gal. This time it's a rockin' entry that Patsy and a chorus belt out in bright style. Strong pop possibilities on both lids.

CLIFF WALDON
(Mark 108)

C+ "GET OFF THE STOOL" (2:50) [Tree BMI—M. Rainwater] A delectable, quick beat novelty item gets knocked out in light-hearted, double-track fashion by Cliff Waldon. Pleasant offering that bounces merrily along.

C+ "INDIAN MAMA" (2:35) [Cedarwood BMI—Tilton, Siegenthaler] The under lid finds Cliff waiting for thhe squaw's folks to approve his marriage request. Interesting ditty set to a moderate paced, tom-tom beat. Spins aplenty on both halves.

MARSHALL PACK
(Joy 101)

C+ "SEARCHING FOR YOU" [Hall House BMI—M. Pack] The mellow chords of Marshall Pack come across with tender emotion on this stirring, slow paced sacred item.

C+ "MOTHER IS OLD" [Murray Nash BMI—Arr: M. Pack] Pack sings and recites on this heart rending, religious-flavored tale. Fred Davis & The Continental Qt. hand in a warm, sincere vocal backdrop on both ends.

JIMMY WOLFORD
(4 Star 1714)

B "MY NAME IS JIMMY" (2:07) [4 Star BMI—G. Crabbe, J. Wolford] Jimmy Wolford claims that he likes to rock 'n roll but doesn't wanna be confused with any of the current crop of r&r singers. Tantalizing side that the songster grooves in money-makin', box-hoppin' style.

C+ "TEENEY WEENEY MAN" (2:22) [Wallace Fowler BMI—D. Wheeler, A. Silver] A creature from outer space asking animals to "take me to your leader" is the subject matter on this cute, quick beat novelty item for deejay programming.

DON RENO & RED SMILEY
(King 5105)

B "ALL I HAVE IS JUST A MEMORY" (2:28) [Lois BMI—D. Reno] Two of the few vocal artists to stay 'straight country' so far. Don Reno & Red Smiley, warmly blend on a heartbreakin' slightly up tempo love affair. The Tennessee Cutups lend a slick musical assist.

B "BANJO SIGNAL" (2:14) [Lois BMI—Reno, Hobbs] Reverse half is a fine, fast moving example of the crew's top calibre, back mountain instrumental talents. Real good one for the jocks.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"THIS LITTLE GIRL OF MINE" (2:16) [Progressive BMI—Charles]

"SHOULD WE TELL HIM" (2:03) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Everly, Everly]

EVERLY BROTHERS (Cadence 1342)

● Looks like Don & Phil Everly are gonna set all the fields afire with two new powerhouses culled from their initial Cadence LP. (See Pop Reviews).

"YOUR NAME IS BEAUTIFUL" (2:38) [Denny ASCAP—Lampert, Gluck]

"YOU'RE SO EASY TO LOVE" (2:10)
[Cedarwood BMI—W. Walker, Tillis, C. Smith]

CARL SMITH (Columbia 41092)

● Here's the deck that could duplicate, pop-wise, Carl Smith's tremendous success in the country dept. It's an ultra-lovely, middle-beat ballad tagged "Your Name Is Beautiful." And Carl, along with a superb, pop-styled choral and instrumental assist, polishes it off with finesse. Extremely pretty set of lyrics. Flip, "You're So Easy To Love," is a sparkling, quick beat romantic offering that Smith and the group bounce out in happy-go-lucky fashion. An outstanding pairing.

"HOUSE OF GLASS" (2:25) [Blue Grass BMI—J. Duncan]

"HEAVEN HELP ME" (2:45) [Ernest Tubb BMI—C. Walker]

ERNEST TUBB (Decca 30549)

● Ernest Tubb, who needs no introduction to the music trade, is at his level best on his latest Decca release as he dishes up two great sides that could become his biggest, back-to-back money-maker to date. One end, labeled "House Of Glass," is a handclappin' romantic moralizer with a spiritual flavoring. "Heaven Help Me," on the lower deck is a penetrating, middle beat love affair that Tubb projects with touching sincerity. Both ends receive top quality, pop-oriented vocal and musical backdrops that make 'em threats in both the country and pop marts.

"WANG DANG DOO" (2:08)

[Raleigh, Norad BMI—Norris, Adams, Beasley]

"WHAT'CHA DOIN' AFTER SCHOOL" (2:22)

[Bee Gee BMI—T. Hill, F. Husky]

FERLIN HUSKY (Capitol 3862)

● The "Gone" man, Ferlin Husky is back on the scene again with two more terrific sides loaded with all-market potential. (See Pop Reviews).

"WHOLE LOTTA WOMAN" (2:35) [Geronimo BMI—Rainwater]

"BABY, DON'T GO" (2:10) [Geronimo BMI—Rainwater]

MARVIN RAINWATER (MGM 12609)

● Marvin Rainwater, who achieved pop-country fame with his beautiful "Bluebird" ballad decks out two strong items for the r&r market. (See Pop Reviews).

BUCK OWENS
(Capitol 3824)

B+ "COME BACK" (2:15) [Central BMI—A. Edgar] Talented guitarist-song writer, Buck Owens, displays his top drawer vocal talents on this debut Capitol waxing. It's a potent, quick beat romantic pleader that the chanter, along with an appealing choral assist, spins in coin-catching style. Could happen.

B+ "I KNOW WHAT IT MEANS" (2:06) [Central BMI—A. Edgar] Here Owens slows down the pace as he effectively renders a poignant, moderate beat lover's lament. A winning two-sider.

ANDREWS BROTHERS
(MGM 12604)

B+ "WHAT'VE I GOTTA DO" (2:33) [Acuff-Rose BMI—F.&B. Bryant] The Andrews Brothers combine their persuasive vocal stylings on this infectious, quick beat romantic piece. The boys are trying their best to win the gal's love. Strong chart contender.

B+ "BABY BABY" (1:53) [Acuff-Rose BMI—F.&B. Bryant] Lower biscuit finds the artists reaffirming their love for their broken-hearted sweetie. Charming bouncer that the twosome decks out in ear-pleasing manner.

SLIM LAY
(Dash 100)

C+ "ASIATIC FLU" (3:45) [Golden River BMI—Lay] Slim Lay delivers an amusing recitation that deals with doctors and illnesses. Engaging bit of corn complete with audience chuckles.

C+ "TROUBLE ALONG THE CABLE" (2:30) [Golden River BMI—H. Kimbrell] TV difficulties are the topics that Lay and Happy Wilson sing about on this-flavorful, quick tempo novelty.

THE MILLERTONES
(Pheasant 101)

C+ "TREADING WATER" [Pheasant BMI—R. Wigham] The Millertones, spotlighting Bob Wetzell and Doris Brotherton on the vocal end, attractively dish up an up tempo finger snappin' romantic weeper.

C+ "IF ONLY" [Pheasant BMI—R. Wigham] Here the outfit pleasantly styles another crying-towel love affair, this time in a lilting, slow paced manner. An easy-on-the-ears coupler.

SANDY COKER
(Decca 30534)

B "UNDER COVER" (2:00) [Trans World BMI—S. Coker] Here's a catchy, quick beat toe-tappin' instrumental blues opus featuring Sandy Coker on the electric guitar. Should win a heap of spins in the boxes and over the airwaves.

C+ "HONKY TONK FREEZE" [Old Charter BMI—S. Coker] Lower waffle displays Coker's electric guitar solo talent on another rhythmic blues piece.

You're So Easy to Love (Cedarwood BMI)
Your Name Is Beautiful (Denny, ASCAP)—Columbia 41092—Smith should have another sure-fire smash in this coupling, which is aimed at a broad market. Topsy is a bouncy, straightforward traditional-type country opus, infectious in spirit. The flip, however, is very pop-styled, with chorus and a piano of the type associated with Johnny Mathis hits.

Country Round Up

MARTY ROBBINS

"If it's true that all publicity is good publicity," says the Country Music Jubilee's Billy Walker, "I guess I shouldn't mind that a drunk picked up in Baltimore decided to tell the police that he was me." The story of the incident, which ran on the national Associated Press and United Press wires and was aired on network radio by newscaster Paul Harvey, told of the officers being warned by the man they were attempting to arrest that "you don't know who I am! I play a git-tar and my name is Billy Walker." At the time the incident was taking place, the real Billy was in Nashville, cutting his upcoming release for Columbia, "Put Your Hand in Mine" and "I Need It."

Marty Robbins, complete with white sportcoat and pink carnation, guested on the "Jubilee" on Sat. Jan. 11th, while Jan. 4th's Dow Show on NBC-Radio featured guestars Porter Wagoner and Leroy VanDyke.

The "Jubilee's" Uncle Cyp and Aunt Sap Brasfield, now 2-year veterans of the ABC-TV show from the Ozark Mountains of Missouri, are well underway with the filming of the new 52-program series in which Cyp is co-starred with brother Rod Brasfield. The setting for the show, which is titled "Them Brasfields," is The "Snip, Snap & Bite Cafe." The program is designed as a once weekly quarter hour, and its comedy sketches were written by Cyp himself, who has always done all of his own material for the "Jubilee."

The 1958 Polio Poster Family, a mother and her 3 children—all of whom have had polio—were presented by Red Foley to the "Jubilee's" nationwide audience on Sat. Jan. 11th's show.

85th CONGRESS

S. 1870

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

April 12, 1957

Mr. O'MAHONEY (for himself, Mr. KEFAUVER, Mr. HUMPHREY, Mr. NEELY, Mr. LANGER, Mr. PAYNE, and Mr. MORSE) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To amend section 1 (e) of title 17 of the United States Code with regard to the rendition of musical compositions on coin-operated machines.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the third paragraph of section 1 (e) of title 17, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"The reproduction or rendition of a copyrighted musical composition by or upon a coin-operated machine shall be deemed to be a public performance for profit, and the operator of any such machine shall be liable for any infringement of any such musical composition occurring through the use of such machine. As used in this paragraph, the term 'operator' means any individual, partnership, association, or corporation exercising ownership or primary control over any such machine and having primary responsibility for the selection of the place at which such machine is operated, but does not include the proprietor of such place unless such proprietor owns or exercises primary control over such machine and has exclusive control over its placement for operation."

SEC. 2. The amendment made by this Act shall take effect on October 1, 1957.

NEW YORK—One of the industries which has shown bigger earnings this past year is the cigarette makers. Despite the controversy about the adverse affect cigarette smoking has on the health (which has simmered down considerably this past year), Americans smoked more than ever. Figures published in Printers' Ink (advertising publication) compiled by Harry M. Wooten, show consumption in the U. S. this year is about 410 billion cigarettes, almost 19 billion more than in 1956. American Tobacco's share of the sales dropped down to 28.4 per cent; Reynolds climbed to 27.8 per cent; and Liggett & Myers is 14.8 per cent. This is about 70 per cent of the market—in contrast to the best years when this "Big Three" held close to 90 per cent of the market. First three big sellers are Camels, Pall Mall, and Lucky Strike. Pall Mall and Lucky Strike changed positions from last year. The report stated that all the regular size cigarettes lost ground, with the kingsize and filtered tips increasing some 3000 per cent over the previous year. Cigarette machine ops must therefore provide these many and varied brands for sale—quite a difference from those years when only some three or four brands were available from machines.

CHICAGO—In this column (Nov. 30 issue) we noted that the nation's truckers were preparing to seek wage increases. This past week, union leaders of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, under the direction of James Hoffa, and trucking operators in 12 Central States disclosed they reached an agreement on new wage increases and other benefits. Results of the negotiations will affect some 90,000 cartage and intercity drivers in the Central States. They also are expected to set the pattern for about 500,000 other members of this union. You know what this means! The carriers will have to pass along these increases to its customers—you.

LONDON, ENGLAND—An end of the year bulletin on industry, issued by the British Treasury, said that wages rose 5 per cent, and production 2 per cent. Britain's standard of living rose to 16 per cent over the 1948 figure. Rising production costs have kept up British manufacturers' prices, the bulletin said.

MILLER URGES NATION'S MUSIC OPS FLOOD SENATE SUB-COMMITTEE WITH WIRES, LETTERS

Washington Hearings Postponed Until Feb. 19, 20, 21, Due to Sudden Death of MOA Attorney Chauncey Carter. This Gives Nation's Music Ops Enough Time to Rush Million Letters, Wires

OAKLAND, CALIF.—Before entraining for Washington, D.C., where he will introduce a new attorney for Music Operators of America, Inc., George A. Miller, National President and Managing Director of MOA, issued a clarion call to every music operator in the U.S.

"We absolutely must," Miller urgently stated, "rush over a million letters and wires to the three members of the Senate's Sub-Committee-On-The-Judiciary, Senators O'Mahoney, Wiley and Johnston, before Wednesday, February 19, 1958, when hearings will start on Senate Bill 1870.

"I urge every music operator in the nation," Miller continued, "to make it his business to obtain letters immediately, not only from his own staff and his own people, but from everyone of his locations and from all the people with whom he does business, and rush these letters and wires to the three Senators who will be listening to the hearings on February 19, 20 and 21.

"What's more," Miller added, "every letter should be triplicated so that each Senator will get a copy. The operators must spare no expense to obtain these letters. This is one of the most crucial periods in all the history of the automatic music industry. If the operators neglect this important and vital duty they can have no complaint if they find themselves as serfs subject to the whims and fancies of ASCAP and similar such organizations.

"There is no time to be lost," he said, "the music operators cannot wait. They should even neglect their service calls and other matters to obtain these letters. They should explain what Senate Bill 1870 can mean to them as well as to everyone of their locations. They simply must, without any hesitation whatsoever, obtain and rush wires and letters directly to these three senators on the Sub-Committee-Of-The-Judiciary.

"There is no need to go into any lengthy explanation to America's music operators as to what the passage of Senate Bill 1870 will mean. It absolutely will put the great, great majority of the nation's music operators right out of business. It will bring about an upheaval that will end this industry as we know it today.

We absolutely must flood the three members of the Senate's Sub-Committee-On-The-Judiciary, composed of Senators Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.), Alexander Wiley (R., Wis.), Olin D. Johnston (D., S. C.) with over a million letters protesting against the ASCAP-sponsored Senate Bill No. 1870 before hearings begin on Wednesday, February 19, 1958."

"I am strongly urging every music operator in the U.S., whether or not he be a member of MOA, to immediately forestall any other effort on his route, or in his personal life, and save his business by rushing wires and letters to these three senators. He must prove to these senators what Senate Bill 1870 will mean to the operator, his family, his employees, his friends, his locations and the people with whom he does business.

"What it will also mean to the economical music of the nation. What it will mean to teenagers and to oldsters alike. What it will mean to shut off and silence the greatest promotional factor in all the history of America's popular music. What it will mean to thousands on thousands of peoples who will be thrown out of work.

"Hundreds of thousands of storekeepers, everywhere in this grand, great nation are dependent on this music to stimulate business and to help them meet their overhead expense. To suddenly smash down on these small businessmen, by taxing them without any reserve whatsoever, will simply push a great portion of America's small businessmen into bankruptcy and even worse.

"As Americans, no music merchants anywhere in this country should hesitate in this great hour of desperate necessity. This is the moment when everyone of the nation's music operators must go out and bring about a complete flood of over a million letters and wires to swamp the three senators who head this Senate Sub-Committee-On-The-Judiciary.

"It's not only a matter of continued well being for the operators and their families, it's also a matter of being able to continue in business for the storekeepers of this nation and, especially, to stem the tide of unemployment in the many, many industries which supply the members of the automatic music field.

"There are so many factors involved which will definitely lead to economic collapse that every music operator, as an American, must halt this Senate Bill 1870 from ever even coming out of the Sub-Committee.

"I especially want to take this opportunity to thank 'The Cash Box' for the great work that it has done in the past and is doing now in behalf of the nation's automatic music operators. I also want to thank all trade publications that also help to awaken the nation's music operators to the desperate seriousness of this present situation.

"There is no middle course. There is no middle point. This is a battle of life or death. The death of the nation's automatic music operators as they are recognized and known today, unless, and only unless, they immediately, every single one of them, in village, town or big city, get out and get telegrams and letters and triplicate these, and have these rushed to the three members of the Senate Sub-Committee-On-The-Judiciary.

"Simply address the letters and wires to Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney, Senator Alexander M. Wiley, Senator Olin D. Johnston, care of the Senate, Washington 25, D.C.

"There is little more that I can say at this time. I have pleaded with the nation's operators before. I plead with them again. I beg each and everyone of them to do this. It will mean the continuance of their livelihood and the future welfare of their families, employees and all others with whom they are connected.

"I am on my way to Washington right now. I'll pause in Chicago to meet with the music manufacturers association. I want to have all help I can get. I want to take the few hours I have between trains to discuss the urgency of these wires and letters being rushed to Washington with whoever will contact me in Chicago.

"I also hope that, when I arrive in Washington, I shall hear that already hundreds of thousands of wires and letters have flooded the Senate Sub-Committee just as the Senate and House of Representatives have been flooded with letters and wires from ASCAP members and similar such organizations.

"To every member of this nation's automatic music industry I can only say, may God bless our efforts and may God, once again, as in past years, help us to victory."

Export Business Continues To Be Big

Report Export of New Equipment Continues at Record Pace. Distribs Advise Demand for Used Machines Show No Slowdown

CHICAGO—1957 exports, as all now realize, will set a new high mark for the entire industry.

All divisions, music, amusements and merchandising equipment, have already surpassed 1956 exports with shipments which were made during 1957.

This has proved surprising to many in the field who, at one time, believed that 1956 would prove to be the all-time record export year.

These people will probably be even more surprised to learn that manufacturers report continued shipments at a record pace to importers all over the world where American dollar exchange is available.

Distributors, too, advise that there has been no slowdown whatsoever in demand for used equipment of all kinds from importers.

In fact, some distributors continue to report that they are backlogged at this time, just as they have been backlogged for some months.

Distributors have a much greater problem than the manufacturers. The exporting distributor is not only scouring his own area, but searching everywhere in the nation, for used machines he needs.

The manufacturers have found that the world markets more than ever took up whatever sales slack they bumped into this past fall and this early winter.

One well-known amusements manufacturer has frankly stated: "Our export business has not only kept our factory going at a record pace, but," he added, "we have surpassed anything we have ever known in all our many years of manufacturing games as far as sales to foreign countries are concerned."

"We've set a new export mark," he reports, "and we believe, from all present indications, that we will exceed this mark in 1958."

Miller To Visit N.Y. Re MOA Meet Biz

OAKLAND, CALIF. — George A. Miller, national president and managing director of Music Operators of America (MOA), with headquarters in this city revealed that he plans to visit New York City following the Copyright hearings in Washington, D. C.

The purpose of his visit is to meet with heads of various record companies to arrange for talent, exhibits, etc. for the 1958 Music Operators' Convention being held at the Morrison Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, on May 6, 7 and 8.

Miller's plans call for a stopoff in Houston, Texas, on the way home to California by the southern route, where he will meet with a group of music operators from that area.

Miller advises that manufacturers, distributors and record companies are applying for exhibit space, even before the application blanks have been sent out. He revealed that some new exhibitors will display their merchandise this year, and many who have displayed in years past, have requested the same space they had last year.

Application blanks will be mailed out, Miller said, and the MOA Convention program will get into full swing by the early part of February. Banquet tickets will go on sale at that time, and members of Music Operators of America and exhibitors will have first choice on a "first come, first served" basis. Miller stated that indications are that this MOA Convention will surpass all others.

THE OPERATOR'S CASE AGAINST THE ASCAP SPONSORED BILL S. 1870

A Statement Of The Phonograph Manufacturers' Association

The Case Against S. 1870

The coin-operated phonograph industry is again faced with a threat. ASCAP and other organizations are again pressing for an amendment of the Copyright Law. This amendment, Senate Bill 1870, would enable ASCAP and all other performing right societies to levy a fee on the right of juke box operators to use records in their machines.

Let us examine the facts.

Equities of the Situation

Congress has never seen fit to extend performing right royalties to renditions on coin operated machines. The reason is that it would be unfair and inequitable to do so. This is easily shown.

Operators of automatic phonographs pay substantial sums every year to authors and composers of musical compositions. ASCAP, now as it has in the past, contends that operators pay nothing for the use of musical compositions. In a recent hearing on a bill substantially identical to S. 1870 it was shown that operators paid annually approximately $2,000,000 in mechanic royalties. Payment of any additional fee would be grossly unfair.

ASCAP and other performing right societies refuse to recognize mechanical royalties. The reason is obvious. Such royalties are paid directly to publishers and composers and do not find their way into ASCAP coffers used to support ASCAP's impressive overhead for policing and administration, which in 1956 amounted to more than 17% of its total collections.

Lest $2,000,000 be considered a paltry amount, remember that in the year prior to the earlier hearings the entire movie industry paid ASCAP but $500,000.

Another reason why mechanical royalties are important is because operators must buy substantial numbers of the same records. The situation thus differs completely from a radio station where but one record is purchased. It is these multiple purchases of the same record which provide substantial mechanical royalties for authors and composers.

Large royalties must also be paid to the author and composer of the composition on the "flip" side of the record. Such royalties must be paid whether or not the operator desires the song on the "flip" side. Such payments are a "free ride" which proponents of S. 1870 conveniently overlook.

Another substantial contribution to the music industry as a whole and to authors and composers specifically is the proven fact that coin-operated phonographs play a substantial part in popularizing records. The effects are many fold. Popularizing a song increases mechanical royalties paid directly to authors and composers. It increases sales of sheet music and consequent royalty payments to authors and composers. It increases the number of times the songs are publicly performed for profit, thus increasing the author's take from ASCAP.

Considering any one or all of the above facts, it must be accepted as an established fact that operators of coin phonographs do not have a "free ride" as ASCAP has been contending since 1926.

The typical coin phonograph operator is a small businessman. He works hard to earn a meager profit. The last available survey showed the average operator had a net profit of $3,100 a year. Considering this figure, it automatically follows that operators are already paying more than their share to authors and composers.

It is impossible for businessmen averaging less than $4,000 a year to defend themselves against ASCAP and similar groups. ASCAP has a complete monopoly of the tunes in its repertoire. It has a powerful organization. Even the wealthy radio industry was forced to form its own performing rights society when fair dealing with ASCAP became impossible. How then can the small businessmen operators with limited means protect themselves against such a Goliath?

Monopoly vs. Enterprise

The most vicious aspect of ASCAP's all out attempt to exact fees from the operators is the unfair bargaining position in which the small operators are placed. The bill contains no qualifications or limitations on the amount of the royalty. ASCAP is given the right to dictate any fee desired. The individual operator throughout the country who refuses to meet such demands has only the alternative of going out of business or going to court. Other performing rights groups are given the same power. It is inconceivable that such domination over the operators should be vested in the hands of selfish private interest groups who historically, neither have had nor shown themselves fit to have such power. The many thousands of small businessmen who eke out their daily living operating juke boxes would find their business in desperate danger.

But, says ASCAP, if our fees are unreasonable our Consent Decree under which we must operate permits a judge to establish reasonable fees. Legally this sounds like a safeguard; practically it is not. BMI and other societies do not operate under a consent decree. Not even this limited safeguard is available in dealing with these groups. No matter how arbitrary the fees may be, there is no recourse.

ASCAP's consent decree furnishes little practical help. The small operators throughout the country can't afford to travel to New York City, hire counsel, and submit evidence that ASCAP fees are unreasonable. The battery of legal talent hired by ASCAP would make such a path a rocky one. In truth then, there is no real limitation on what ASCAP might charge.

And what might ASCAP consider a reasonable fee? We had an inkling of this when Congressional hearings were held in 1951 and 1952 on H. R. 5473. That bill limited the performing right fees which ASCAP could charge to a penny per week for each composition in a juke box. Throughout the hearing, ASCAP proudly pointed to the one-cent limitation. ASCAP enthusiastically proclaimed that with this "safeguard" the operators had nothing to fear since ASCAP could charge only "reasonable fees". The same argument is made by ASCAP now but on a different ground.

Yet, when a careful analysis of the "safeguard" was made, it was found that ASCAP would have the authority to exact approximately $1600 per year from the average operator. It could have exacted $12,000,000 from the industry as a whole, which is more than ASCAP distributed to its members in the first 8 months of 1956. If these figures are considered "reasonable" by ASCAP, the assumption must be that under S. 1870 which has no limitation of fees a "reasonable fee" would be substantially more than $1600 per year.

Obviously, $1600 a year is outrageous when it is remembered that in a recent hearing the income of the average juke box operator was found to be approximately $3,100.

Nor does ASCAP's position take into account that other performing rights societies will also be demanding fees.

Another point must be mentioned. ASCAP for years has represented to Congress that the operators were engaged in a wealthy business—a veritable gold mine. Statements in this vein are legion. By merely presenting the facts, ASCAP's argument was disproved. In fact, Congressman Bryson, Chairman of the Congressional Sub-committee and co-sponsor of the Bryson Bill, was prompted to exclaim: "We have always been told there was a lot of money in juke boxes * * * I am amazed to find that it is not a gold mine from what the record shows."

Now as then, operators can ill-afford to divide their already meager income, if any, with ASCAP and the many other societies who will demand payment should the current bill be enacted by Congress. Yet this is the inevitable result if monopoly power is unleashed on the operators.

Promoting Monopolies

There is another aspect of this legislation important to the public generally which ASCAP would have us overlook. The present statute would practically compel individual authors or composers to become members of ASCAP. This follows because the small businessmen operators in Utah, Wyoming or anywhere throughout the United States would not have the information and would not take the time to write and negotiate a license fee with an author or a composer who for reasons best known to himself, refused to become a member of ASCAP. The effect would be that only authors or composers who were members of a performing right society would have their compositions played on a coin-operated phonograph.

Unlimited Liability for Damages

A practical aspect of S. 1870 deserving of attention is the impossible legal position in which operators are placed. Operators cannot with assurance ascertain who might have the performing right license on any particular record, indeed on any particular side of a record. It is thus not possible for the small operators scattered throughout the country to know whether they are obligated to ASCAP or someone else or whether they are violating the law or not.

Even were ASCAP and all the other performing right societies to publish lists of their songs, it would be impossible for the small operators to spend the necessary hours pouring over such lists of titles. It would take hours to ascertain for each 100 or 200 play machine whether a song was from ASCAP, BMI, SESAC, or an independent composer. Such an oppressive administrative burden would be a ruination of the small businessman.

S. 1870 states that the rendition of a copyrighted song on a coin-operated machine shall be deemed to be a public performance for profit. The result is to subject coin phonograph operators to unbelievable damage suits. For example, if an operator was unable to afford ASCAP's fee and he attempted to use only non-ASCAP records but mistakenly included five songs in the ASCAP repertoire, he would be in serious trouble.

S. 1870 states that each, and I repeat "each", rendition is a performance for profit. If each of those five records was played but once in one evening, the operator would be liable for five infringement suits in which the statutory minimum is $250 each. The maximum is $5,000 each. For that one evening the operator would be required to pay at least $1,250 in damages plus reasonable attorney's fees. In many instances this would drive an operator into bankruptcy. Nothing further need be said to demonstrate the outrageous aspects of such legislation.

The passage of S. 1870 would encourage ASCAP, as it has done in the past, to flood the country with its investigators who would pounce eagerly on any operator who made an innocent mistake. Such Gestapo-like tactics were present in the early 1930's, as Congressional hearings and debates will amply demonstrate. If S. 1870 becomes law, we will again see a revival of those oppressive policing tactics which caused untold difficulties to the small businessman years ago.

In this vein, it should also be noted that S. 1870 actually discriminates against juke boxes. In every other situation under the statute, whether or not a particular rendition is a "public performance for profit" is a question determined by the circumstances under which the rendition occurred. Under the present proposal, all renditions on a coin-operated machine are public performances for profit whether such occur at a teenage dance at a high school, in the basement of a church, an Elks Club or Legion Post or perhaps in the home of an individual who owns a juke box. There is no justification for such a sweeping discrimination.

Conclusion

Despite the complete unfairness of S. 1870, on its face it has appeal. ASCAP and similar groups have worked hard to promote the bill. The tremendous financial resources of ASCAP have been mobilized. Undoubtedly, ASCAP has made contributions to organizations to obtain support for S. 1870. In one instance ASCAP contributed $10,000 to the Federation of Music Clubs in an obvious bid for support of a bill similar to S. 1870.

It is thus an absolute necessity that the distributors and operators present their side of the story. It takes time. It takes hard work. But when the facts are shown, the equity of the operators' position will be evident.

The issue now as it has been in the past is monopoly v. small business. This basic issue must never be hidden. ASCAP and other societies with their multimillion-dollar income could arbitrarily ruin an industry composed of small businessmen. The industry has grown under the 1909 law. It can survive only under that law. The facts require Congress to reject S. 1870.

David C. Rockola Predicts:

"1958 Will Separate The Men From The Boys"

DAVID C. ROCKOLA

CHICAGO—In a statement issued by David C. Rockola, president of Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation, this city, he said, "It is my opinion that the general business recession that we are and have been experiencing during the last 6 months will continue in a general way during the year 1958.

"However, we look forward to considerable improvement in our business for a number of reasons, namely (1) We have in 1957 completed our 5 year plan of consolidation whereby we are in a much better position to cope with today's competitive market. (2) The 3rd and 4th years of the 5 year plan saw completion of our new 25,000 sq. ft. of air conditioned Engineering and Developing Departments where we have produced and will continue to produce many new ideas, innovations and methods of merchandising music which we are confident will create a new trend in the music industry, which in turn will give both the operator and the public more for their money. (3) Our first product from our Engineering Division has been completely location tested and the tooling will be completed within the next 60 days.

"The results of actual tests and operation and the earning power of this innovation are far beyond our expectations.

"I am confident that the operator, distributor and the manufacturer will be put to the supreme test during the year 1958 and if we all, with our respective responsibilities, do our work with the idea in mind of doing our job just a little better, the results of this added effort will improve our profit picture and will 'separate the men from the boys!'"

Top ranking recording artists signed to perform at this year's Houston National Automobile Show Jan. 25-Feb. 2 at Sam Houston Coliseum are: Georgia Gibbs, RCA-Victor label; Everly Brothers, Cadence label; Barry Sisters, Cadence label; The Diamonds (Dave Somerville, Ted Kowalski, Bill Reed, Phil Levitt) Mercury label. . . . H. A. (Hoddy) Franz, president of Gulf Coast Music Systems (Seeburg) reported 1957 a good year and started out to make 1958 a better one by completely renovating his entire plant. . . . John E. Williams (Williams Amusement) 'lowed this year would be a prosperous one and backed his prediction by buying himself a new Lincoln sedan. . . . Joe Luna, service department of Sun Distributing Co., was the subject of a two page story with pictures in Sunday's supplement of Texas' largest newspaper in a "My Job Is Different" feature. He was pictured as the one who personally does the artistic work on kiddie rides located in most of the major super markets of this area. The article failed to mention that Joe is also a specialist in production of amusement devices for certain church, fraternal, civic and patriotic organizations; purpose of such devices to extract a bit of cash for a worthy cause and keep customer happy during process. . . . H. M. Crowe (Acme Record Dist. Co.) visited with relatives in Florida during the Holidays. . . . Dave Woodlock, former owner of Wildwood Record Shop, Pasadena, now a full time correspondent for the Houston Chronicle (largest daily newspaper in Texas). He will report news happenings for Pasadena, a village of 60,000 population that joins Houston on the east. . . . Houston was named the Nation's brightest spot, businesswise, during 1957. Local coin operated machine business as a whole was maybe above average but far short of a high record. Vending undoubtedly fared best. Music operating probably suffered most. All major record, game, phonograph, vending equipment distributors reported satisfactory sales volume. Plenty of volume but little net profit just above describes the whole business.

Wisconsin Music Ops' Assn. Meets To Elect Officers

MILWAUKEE, WIS.—The Wisconsin Music Merchants Association, Inc. will meet at the Eagles' Club here on February 10 at 12 noon to elect officers and a board of directors, according to Clinton S. Pierce, president of the organization.

In the meantime Pierce is urging everyone of the members of this association, as well as every operator in the state of Wisconsin, to write letters to Senator Alexander M. Wiley who is a member of the three man Senate Sub-Committee-On-The-Judiciary who will be hearing Senate Bill 1870.

"You must write a letter to U.S. Senator Alexander M. Wiley, Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C.," Pierce urges all Wisconsin's operators.

"Tell him in your own words", he continues, "how any change in the present Copyright Act will affect every cafe, snack bar, grill, tavern, ice cream store and all places of recreation in your area that feature automatic music."

Pierce is urging Wisconsin's opera-

Nebraska Assn Urges Members To Protest Any Copyright Changes

OMAHA, NEB.—Howard N. Ellis, secretary and treasurer, Music Guild of Nebraska, this city, has advised operators in Nebraska to write a letter immediately to the Sub-committee members of the Judiciary that any change in the present copyright law will not only affect their livelihood, but that of the locations where juke boxes operate.

Chicago Coin Mach. Revises Distribution Plan For "Commando Machine Gun"

CHICAGO Samuel Wolberg and Samuel Gensburg of Chicago Coin Machine, this city, announced this past week that the firm has revised its distribution plan for the "Commando Machine Guns" to enable operators of amusement parks, arcades and other locations to purchase the equipment outright.

Officials of the firm also stated that the previous lease arrangement has been extended to include targets and accessories as well as the guns.

"Originally," they said, "we entered the recent park show with a lease plan for the guns only. Targets, pellets and the pellet cleaning machine were sold outright to the operators."

"While our display created tremendous interest and enthusiasm at the show it became evident that the majority of the operators liked to own their equipment. Therefore, we decided that outright sale of the 'Commando Machine Guns' was the most satisfactory method of distribution for the trade to successfully operate under many different conditions in the field."

It was pointed out that operators of permanent installations of "Commando Machine Gun" set-ups have a different problem in depreciating costs and equipment over a period of years than do operators of temporary or movable set-ups.

Wolberg and Gensburg also pointed out that the many variations in types of locations caused each individual operator to express preference for owning his own installation so that he could operate most profitably in his own way.

To illustrate this point, they reported that carnival operators are having custom built trailers made for 5-gun batteries and targets of "Commando Machine Guns."

Big amusement parks, year-around arcades and excursion boat operators are among those who are arranging for complete and permanent installations just as soon as deliveries can be made it was stated.

"In addition," they added, "we are currently working on farmer's market operations, discount houses that have their own arcades, and many other types of businesses all over the country."

European operators, Wolberg and Gensburg stated, have come in to see the "Commando Machine Guns" in action at the factory and discuss purchase plans for installations in amusement locations abroad.

"All operators are just as enthusiastic over our gun and target set-ups as were the operators at the park show," Wolberg said, "and are anxious to get started as fast as possible with a battery of 'Commando Machine Guns.'"

Chicago Coin has organized an entirely separate division for handling the "Commando Machine Gun" business.

Gensburg revealed that production of guns, targets and accessories are now being speeded up so that shipments can be made immediately upon receipt of order.

GREAT BRITAIN GOSSIP

Members of the American N.A.A.P.P.B. (National Association of Amusement Parks, Pools and Beaches) are to visit key amusement centres in Europe during the Autumn of 1958. Among the places visited will be the International Exhibition in Brussels, the Oktoberfest in Munich, and the Pleasure Beach Blackpool, England. . . . A new British "pub," named "The One and Only" which was opened at Maidstone, Kent recently caters for children as well as for adults. It is built on the only site provided for licensed premises on the Shepway Estate, hence the name. Novel feature is the junior club room. This large room is being equipped for teenagers, where they will be able to have tea, coffee, snacks and minerals. There will be games and phonographic equipment. The whole room has been designed with an eye to the space age—even the lights in the ceiling will give the impression of illuminated space ships. . . . Ralph Horwitz of Chicago Automatics, London reports growing business in British works restaurants for food and beverage vending machines. He is also having a very big success with the Autoperfume spray vendor. . . . George Whittaker, the well-known Leicester Road, Blackpool, Lancashire, phonograph distributor and operator, who also has an extensive business in coin machines generally, has decided on a sales slogan for the new year. It is Bismark's: "If you would foresee the future, survey the past." The reason? He claims that his firm has been first in a majority of new developments in the coin-machine field in Britain, and that it will continue to lead the way in the future. Among its "firsts" since the war, George claims these: First Elektromat; Rotomat; Novomat; Grand Prix; Show-Show; Seeburg; Wurlitzer; Rock-Ola; Fanfare; Non-Stop Hurricane; Football Match; Olympia Ice Hockey; Acora Vendors; Desco Vendors; Brunswick Vendors; Wiegand Vendors; Standard Coin Counters.

Henning Soager, executive director of Copenhagen's Summer Tivoli Amusement Park, has just arrived back in Denmark from a seven-week visit to America in which he looked up manufacturers and resorts at New York, Coney Island, and Miami. He also visited amusement parks at Chicago (River-view), New Orleans (Pontchartrain) and California (Disneyland). At Sarasota, Florida, he saw the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey quarters. His greatest impression, he tells me, was of the improvement in rides and machines for children. And he has taken some American ideas back to his century-old Tivoli. . . . A new coin-machine export-import company has been formed at 139 Park Lane, London. Its name is Pid Ltd., and its purposes are stated to be to carry on the business of importers, exporters, distributors, agents, dealers and hirers in amusements and games of all kinds. The subscribers are Robert J. Goodwin, C. A. and David T. C. Colbran. . . . Rumour says that six new record labels will be launched in Britain during 1958. The first, which will make its appearance in January, is to be called Fontana, and will be a Philips subsidiary. Its first release will be Johnny Mathis' hit, "No Love But Your Love"/"Wild Is The Wind."

Frank Amos Bottom will shortly take charge of the entertainment organization run by the council at the resort of Plymouth, England. He moves to Plymouth from Rhyl, N. Wales.

A manufacturing concern called Broadstairs Manufacturing Company Ltd. has been set up at 3 Lloyd Road, Broadstairs, Kent, to manufacture and deal in coin-operated and other automatic machine entertainments. The directors of this firm are Leonard P. Ayres and Paul R. Browning. Ayres is also a director of the local firm of Automatic Merchandising Ltd.

Mrs. Charlotte Brown, a coin machine amusement caterer in Bridlington, Yorkshire for many years and one of the largest rate-payers in the town, has died in a Harrogate nursing home at the age of 71. She went to Harrogate for the Spa treatment three weeks ago, collapsed and since that time had been in a nursing home. In addition to her business interests, in which her sons Harry and Sid assisted her, Mrs. Brown was a racehorse and greyhound owner. . . . The Weymouth area of England is being opened up fast, phonograph-wise by the enterprising firm of Dorset Melody Boxes, who have already located more than thirty boxes in the district.

Mr. U. S. Juke Box Operator:

British Music Ops Hit By Increased Fees For Records In Machines

Juke Box Ops Should Read This Report Carefully—And Then Follow MOA's Suggestion Appearing On Page 62

LONDON, ENGLAND — In the past week or so a considerable storm has been blowing up in Britain between the Performing Rights Society and the Phonograph Operators Association, and unofficial opinion is that it may end in a test case in court.

As a result of a letter received at the beginning of January by Mrs. L. Shaw, the P.O.A. Secretary, from the Licensing Manager of the P.R.S., an immediate P.O.A. Council meeting in the presence of the Association's solicitor has been called, and it will be followed, within a week, by a full meeting of the Association and of all outside people interested.

The reason for the flurry of activity was that the letter set out a proposed new scale of P.R.S. charges for juke box performance of musical works controlled by the P.R.S. And operators who have seen the letter are shocked at the terms, which they consider exorbitant.

Said a leading distributor: "If we allow this to go on they'll be charging us the moon in a few years."

The letter to Mrs. Shaw was as follows:

Dear Madam,
Further to our letter of 18 November, our Council has now considered this matter, and in view of your representations has decided despite the rise in the cost of living and the change-over meantime from 2d. to 3d. operated models, to retain the basic charge of £10. 10. 0 per annum for 2d. operated machines and to make no extra charge for the 3d. operated models. Now the experimental period is over and the industry has become established, however, we must amend the former rebate system, under which, irrespective of the number of juke boxes operated, those making voluntary application for our license could obtain a discount of 30%.

We feel, too, that notice must be taken of the 4d. (and 6d.) operated models which are likely to be coming into use, and a basic fee of £13. 13. 0. per annum should be made for these.

We are prepared to give rebates as follows to members of your Association and other bona fide operators, but any single juke box owner must pay the full tariff fees:-

Special Operators' Terms
Per Annum per machine

2d. or 3d. operated machines
For the first 20 machines.....	£9. 9. 0.
For the next 30 machines.....	£8. 8. 0.
For the next 50 machines.....	£7. 7. 0.
For machines over 100.....	£7. 0. 0.
4d. or 6d. operated machines
For the first 20 machines.....	£12. 6. 0.
For the next 30 machines.....	£10. 18. 0.
For the next 50 machines.....	£ 9. 11. 0.
For machines over 100.....	£ 9. 2. 0.

the rebates being subject to the operator making voluntary application for our license and disclosing all machines operated by him. If any operators are found to have been operating machines without disclosure to us, the full rate without rebate will be payable by him for all his machines.

You will see that we have adopted your two proposals that (a) no rebate should be allowed to those who operate their own machine on their premises; (b) there should be an increasing rebate according to the number of machines operated. We hope, therefore, that we can expect the co-operation promised by your Association, and you will do your best to ensure that all your members take up our license for all the machines operated by them, and pass on any information you may have about any non-member operators.

Yours faithfully,
(signed) E. C. Ford.
LICENSING MANAGER.

The "representations" referred to were at the end of October last, when a delegation from the P.O.A. visited the P.R.S. and had a long meeting to request better terms for members.

In fact the new terms are very much worse, and the extra charge for sixpenny machines, at a time when the Association is pioneering the new rate and is making headway in its efforts to get a majority of operators to switch now to the higher charge per play, is considered a particularly nasty slap in the face.

The system in respect of music licenses in Britain is different from that in America, and much more severe. Two bodies charge licensing fees. They are the Performing Rights Society (which represents the majority of composers in Britain, and collects for those of overseas countries) and Phonographic Performance Ltd. (which represents all major record manufacturers, and which claims fees for the public performance of gramophone records they control). Phonographic Performance Ltd. is also to increase its fees, and approaches have been made to them also by the P.O.A.

Both groups had their hands considerably strengthened by a new Copyright Act which was introduced in Britain in 1957. Infringements of the Act do not render the infringer liable to imprisonment or fines. It is purely a matter for the civil courts, and suits for damages are necessary. If the P.O.A. decides to put up a test case, or cases, it will be a matter of world-wide interest, as no challenge of that magnitude has ever been attempted.

There seems a very good chance of this happening, as members of the Association have already stated at meetings that they are willing to "pitch in" whatever sums per head may be needed to instruct Queen's Counsel and put up a case. Bill Gersh, The Cash Box publisher, also strongly urged this course on Council members on his recent visit to Britain. "You have nothing to lose," he urged.

The new Act, however, is a tough one. It states quite clearly that no one may make use of a creative musical work without permission. The copyright it allows to the creative artist is that his/her works are a form of goods or property, which can be sold or otherwise disposed of on almost any terms, as the owner chooses. And anyone making unauthorized use of the goods or property is in the position of a trespasser.

And as far as gramophone records are concerned, these are now apparently fully protected as articles by copyright, and where playing the music is concerned, the primary right of copy would seem to be infringed, while playing records covered by Phonographic Performance Ltd. would appear to infringe the second right of copy. But the Act is complicated, and the matter has never been fully put to the test.

The new Act superseded one of 1911, which was much more loose in its terms, and there are many who think that the operators should have taken concerted action on the old act, and should have made representations to the new Act's drafting committee. But what is past is past, and everyone awaits with interest the action to be taken by the operators' association now that the matters appear to be coming to a head.

Incidentally, from 1947 until now, the annual charge for a license in respect of juke boxes or coin-operated gramophones was calculated as follows:

per annum each
1d. operated machines.....	£ 6. 6. 0.
2d. operated machines.....	£10. 10. 0.

A rebate was allowed from the £10. 10. 0. per annum rate provided that voluntary application was made and the license taken up before or immediately on the installation of the machine. 3d. operated machines were treated as 2d. machines.

The Performing society was formed in 1914. It now claims to represent all British composers, authors and music publishers, whose works are publicly performed to an appreciable extent. It also claims a counterpart association, with mutual arrangements, in virtually every country of the world.

In France, for example, an organisation with identical aims and objects was formed by French composers, authors and music publishers over a century ago. As time went on, similar societies were formed by the national composers, authors and music publishers of Australia, Canada, the United States of America, Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Greece, Holland, Hungary, Iceland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Uruguay, and Yugoslavia. The societies of those countries are affiliated to the British Society, and have transferred to it the right to license public performances in British territory of the copyright musical works of their respective members.

Phonographic Performances Ltd. has been publishing warning notices for some months past in the British trade press, and has been forecasting legal action against phonographic operators who fail to take out licenses. It may now be, however, that the P.O.A. will take action first.

Phonographic Performances Ltd. was formed incorporated in 1934, and since formation there have been no actions of any sort against juke box operators. They are now putting out printed cards to operators which state:

LICENCES FOR THE PUBLIC USE OF GRAMOPHONE RECORDS

"Section 19 of the British Copyright Act 1911 provides that copyright shall subsist in gramophone records quite apart from the musical works reproduced thereon. Copyright, which includes, among other things, the sole right of public performance, is vested in the manufacturers by virtue of the above-mentioned Act and their permission is, therefore, required before records may be publicly used. The leading British manufacturers are represented by Phonographic Performances Limited whose license must be obtained whenever gramophone records are used in public."

The rebate charged to operators by this body was, until recently, based on a flat fee per juke box of three guineas (£3-3) per box for multiple operators, whether the site was "cream" or marginal, and whether the location was large or small. Fees per site, were worked out, by mutual agreement, with individual operators. The rateable value of the premises is taken into account in these individual assessments.

Phonographic Performance is a Company limited by guarantee and without share capital founded by the leading British manufacturers of gramophone records with the object of controlling the public use of their records and issuing licenses for that purpose. In this connection, the term "records" includes any commercial tape recordings which may be issued by these manufacturers. All revenue derived from license fees is distributed among the recording companies, recording artists and musicians.

Britain's Phonograph Operators' Association was formed about 18 months ago. It began mainly at the instigation of members of the Bal-Ami group, and for this reason some opposition major operators remained out of it for a time. It is now much more broadly based, with independents on the Council as well as in the association. Members of the large Ditchburn organization are still outside the P.O.A. but talks have recently been taking place in an effort to make the Association even more fully nationwide.

Chairman of the Association, as at present constituted, is Cecil Jones, a director of Bal-Ami of Ilford; vice-chairman is Gordon Marks, Managing Director of Phonographic Equipment Ltd., the large London distributing and operating company; and the secretary, Mrs. L. Shaw is a multi-operator in the London area. Other council members are: Raymond Chappelow, John A. Swinson, Frederick H. Walker, F. Betts, F. Hardy, H. Kay, R. Needs, N. Young, and J. Katz. At least five of these members are either independent or semi-independent (i.e. they handle or produce other machines than Bal-Ami).

There are now several hundred operator members.

The aims and functions of the association are stated in the Memo and Articles as follows:

What is it?

This Association is a company Limited by guarantee. It is a non-profit making concern formed entirely by persons connected with the Juke Box Industry for the benefit of persons engaged in the industry. It is governed by a voluntary Council of management elected by its members. Any phonograph operator, distributor or manufacturer may join the Association, and any person who is a member of the Association may be proposed and elected as a council member.

The objects of the Association may be briefly summarized as follows:

1. To protect the rights and interests of members.
2. To investigate the fees at present being paid to site owners and recommend standard rates.
3. To promote good public relations.
4. To distribute information of value to the Juke Box Industry and to circulate a quarterly journal to its members.

Membership of the Association costs 5 guineas per annum for an operator, 10 guineas for a manufacturer. Every member has one vote, irrespective of the size of his operating, distributing or manufacturing business. In other words, the small operator has as much say as the large operator. The council (which meets once a month) is changed annually. The full association meets quarterly. Red and yellow P.O.A. stickers are displayed on members' boxes.

Bally's New "Target-Roll" Features "Competitive Play"

BILL O'DONNELL

CHICAGO—"Competitive play between players is the basic principle of Bally's new game 'Target-Roll', recently released" stated Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager, Bally Manufacturing Company, this city.

Explaining the features further, O'Donnell said, "Target-Roll" has no replay mechanism, and no score-cards are furnished. The object of the game is to match the target established by the first ball. For example, if the first ball scores 60, the player shoots the balance of the balls in an effort to score another 60 before 'game over' lights. High scores are registered on rotary totalizer, and players may compete for high scores as well as target-match."

"Target-roll" comes in standard pin-ball cabinet size.

Temporary Injunction Issued Against Local 19

NEW YORK—Music Operators of New York was granted a temporary injunction against Cigarette and Coin Vending Machine Employees Union, Local 19, Monday, January 6, in an order signed by Justice McGivern, Supreme Court, Special-Term Part III. The Decision read:

"Music Operators of N. Y., Inc., v. Scala—Motion for reargument is granted. In the circumstances indicated the application is presently considered in the light of matters now revealed. Because of the failure of the defendants to make adequate response to the plaintiffs' charge that the defendant Cigarette & Coin Vending Machine Employees Union, Local 19, is not a legitimate and bona fide labor union, and further, with respect to the alleged enrollment of persons formerly servicing plaintiffs' equipment, it must be concluded that there is required the preservation of status quo, pending a trial of the issues. Plaintiffs have sufficiently established their contention to warrant the temporary injunctive relief requested, and upon reargument, plaintiff's motion for injunctive relief is granted against all defendants (Metzger v. Fay, 4 App. Div., 2d, 436). Suggestions as to the amount of the bond will be received at the time of the settlement of the order."

NEW ENGLAND NIBBLES

Business slowed up a bit following the holidays and as a result of first snowstorm of the season, which hit Boston Tuesday night, Jan. 7, in the shape of an old fashioned blizzard. . . . Distributions and ops are settling down for the long Winter period. . . . Ops have had ample opportunity to set up their routes for the period and change, trade-in and buy new equipment, because long extended open weather with mild temperatures has been prevalent for the last two months (November and December).

At Trimount Automatic Sales Corp. (Seeburg), deliveries are going out on the new "Straight Flush" by Gottlieb, which is setting the N. E. area on fire on takes. Another hot item is the new Williams "Ten Strike," and "Ten Pins," which fit into any location, is 59" long by 22" wide, with the ball hitting the pins exactly like real bowling and with automatic pin reset. The first shipment of the new bowlers is expected this week and orders for them are way up as great interest has been shown in this machine, it was reported by Irwin Margold, gen. mgr. . . . At Associated Amusements (Rock-Ola), Ed Ravreby is back from Chicago trip. Biz on music is holding steady, Dick Mandell, gen. mgr., reported. Action on games is on the upward swing here. . . . At Redd Distributors (Wurlitzer), Bally's "All-Star" Bowler is the biggest game in years, Bob Jones, sales mgr., reported this week: Big skill-bowling profits have been opened up in the New England area through this machine, he stated. Ops report to Redd plant that they are collecting bowling alley cash from busy crowded locations where they've never been able to squeeze in a big bowler. "They are earning big profits in pinball space," Bob points out. Hundreds of new spots have been opened in the territory, he said, including small taverns, bars, hotel lobbies, diners, lunch-rooms, cigar stores, drug-stores, arcades.

Ops in visiting districts this period included: Joe Assad, York Beach, Me.; Al Dolins, Hyannis; Tom Libby, Haverhill; Ray Faini, Framingham; Harry Deshowitz, Chelsea; Peachy Cassanta, Milford; Connie Pocius, South Boston; Saul Taube, Manchester, N. H.; Edward Ross, Boston; Ray Shea, Worcester; Sol Robinson, Newton; Dave Baker, Arlington; Henry Levine, Milton; Lawrence Bettencourt, Danvers; Ken Ghorse, Brockton; also, Dave Shultz, Al York, Brockton; Chris Alexion, Providence, R. I.; Max Wallace, Newport, Vt.; Ed Beals Needham; Russ Mawsley, Holyoke; Frank Fendell, Brookline; Al Robbins, Arlington; Earl Caruthers, Providence, R. Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong opens at Blinstrub's Monday night, Jan. 13. . . . The McGuire Sisters are booked for the week of Jan. 27 at the same spot. . . . Ronnie Deauville, who records on Era, and who was on "This Is Your Life," opened at Blinstrub's Jan. 6, and was introduced to the audience by WBZ disk jock Norm Prescott, who first saw him on tv and was instrumental in bringing the polio victim to Boston.

N.Y. State Coin Machine Association Meets With N.Y.C. Ass'n. Execs

NEW YORK—Another exploratory meeting with the New York City association executives was held by the New York State Coin Machine Association, with headquarters in Woodridge, N. Y., at the Henry Hudson Hotel in New York City on Wednesday night, January 8.

The purpose of this meeting, as was that held on December 5 at the Hotel Sheraton-Astor, was to continue talks with local association heads with the purpose of including Metropolitan and Westchester operators of all types of equipment in the State association.

It was acknowledged by representatives of the Amusement Machine Operators of New York, Music Operators of New York, and the Westchester Operators Guild that a state-wide association was not only a commendable undertaking, but a necessary one as well.

The local representatives will now report back to their organization boards. Another meeting of the top echelon will be arranged for some future date.

State officers attending the meeting were: Tom Greco, Glasco, president; Bob Charles, Binghamton, vice president; Max Cohen, Woodridge, secretary; and Amelia McCarthy, Hurleyville, treasurer. Others in attendance were: Teddy Blatt, representing the N. Y. games association; Joe Connors, representing the music operators; Carl Pavesi, Lou Tartaglia and Malcolm Wein from Westchester; John Van Wyck, Tony Catanese and Joe Bosco from Rockland County; Lou Werner, attorney for the New York State Operators Guild; Gertrude Browne and Mac Douglas of Beacon; Jack Wilson, Newburgh; Carl Marcy, Booneville, Bill McCarthy, Hurleyville, Russ Carpenter, Chester and Francis Hannafee, a public relations man connected with Grossingers.

Dave Baker Predicts Good Year Ahead For Music Operators However, Sees Need To Work Harder

DAVE BAKER

BOSTON, MASS.—David J. Baker, president of the Music Operators' Association of Massachusetts, and operator of Melo-Tone Music, Arlington, Mass., forecast a good year ahead for the music operators, but said he felt music route men will have to work harder to maintain the volume racked up in 1957.

Baker, making his prediction of the outlook for the New Year in the music machine business, said there may be a slight dip in receipts. "The politicians say this will be a year of challenge," he reported, "and nothing could more aptly describe what lies ahead for music operators."

Keeping abreast of the profit levels of the past year may result in "separating the men from the boys," he pointed out, "in the music industry." He contended the same amount of business will be on tap and "maybe more," but ops are "going to have to go out and dig up the business."

Baker indicated that the music situation is now coming to the same phase that faced the cigarette vending industry a few years ago. "Everybody and his brother used to run small cigarette vending routes, but when the pressure came, the business was left to those who operated efficiently and intelligently," he said. The MOAM prexy said "the same situation faces the music business right now." Rising costs in equipment, records and labor, he said, make this a time for operators to convert wholly to ten cent play and to see that they arrange a better commission setup.

Despite the cautionary note sounded, Baker said he is very optimistic on the business outlook for the year ahead. He pointed to the gains in music made last year, and said he felt that if the case pending against the city of Boston and the State of Massachusetts over what the association has cited as "excessive" fees, there will be a big expansion in the music routes of all Hub ops.

Chauncy Carter, Newly Appointed MOA Counselor Dies

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The music machine industry's fight against the ASCAP sponsored Bill S.1870 was struck another serious blow this week with the death of the newly appointed legal counselor for Music Operators of America, Chauncey Carter. Carter died suddenly on Sunday night, January 5.

"This loss, coming so soon after the death of the organization's former attorney, Sidney H. Levine, has shaken every member of the Executive Board," stated George A. Miller, national president and managing director.

Miller advised that he is in the process of appointing new counsel for MOA, and that with the cooperation of the Phonograph Manufacturers Association and its capable legal staff, the industry will oppose S. 1870 as strenuously as is possible.

With the past two-week holiday period at end, operators were able to check collections and appraise biz. Practically every operator we spoke with reported unusually fine collections, with many stating biz hit a high spot. "And all I hope", stated a local operator, "is that it keeps going this way." Wholesalers, knowing in advance what their factories have in store for them for early 1958, advise they're looking for bigger and better sales this coming year than any they've enjoyed in the past.

Father John P. Kelly of the National Catholic Community Service, Coin Machine Division (USO), advised that local coinmen contributed liberally to its Christmas fund and that visiting servicemen were thus able to enjoy a big holiday at their service canteen. The canteen is open all thruout the year, and thru the membership of contributing coinmen, not only is the canteen serviced on Christmas, but it helps keep them entertained thruout the year. . . . Meyer Parkoff and Murray Kaye, Atlantic New York Corp., report the firm's "Service School", re-instituted on a regular weekly basis this past Monday night, Jan. 6, was well attended. The "School" now scheduled for every Monday evening at Atlantic's showrooms. Parkoff one of the coinmen here particularly optimistic for 1958, and has his entire organization sincerely preaching the same gospel to all visitors. . . . Mike Munves takes a few weeks off for a much needed rest, relaxing in Hot Springs. Rose (Mrs. Munves), just back from a two-week vacation at Coral Gabels, Fla., fills in during Mike's absence. "Mike is very tired" Rose says, "and I hope he stays away for three or four weeks. Even at this early date it looks like we're headed for a terrific 1958, and Mike will be pushing himself for months on end during the season." . . . "Senator" Al Bodkin, who is most happy and cheerful at all times, now pepped up more than usual in anticipation of his Miami Beach vacation. The "Sen" and his gorgeous Frances leave on Sat., Jan. 25, and will drive down leisurely, arriving in Miami on Tues., Jan. 28. CHICAGO CHATTER

Business among wholesalers and ops here this past week seemed just a little better than normal for this time of year. New and appealing products coming out of the factories are generating a lot of enthusiasm. And clicking big on locations, according to all reports. Used equipment continues in short supply, commanding top dollar in trades as distribs bid for the games and phonos needed for waiting orders. . . . Sam Gensburg, looking healthy and fit after two weeks in Fla., working diligently with Harry Glick on sales and production of "Commando Machine Guns." Sam Wolberg and Ed Levin talking things over with distribs Al Simon, NYC, and Dave Rosen, Phila., in town to push for bigger shipments of ChiCoin's "TV Bowling League." . . . One man with lots to be thankful for is Keeney's Paul Huebsch. His wife, Rosemary, who recently suffered severe burns while trying to light the gas stove, is back home from the hospital, bandages off the face and able to use one hand already. "Could have been a lot worse," says Paul. "By the way," he adds,

BILL DeSELM

"when the rest of the bandages come off, I won't have to cook supper for the kids, wash the dishes and pack 'em into bed every night after a busy day at the office."

Bally's Bill O'Donnell reports "demand tremendous and growing stronger each day" for the new "All-Star Bowler." Bill preparing large export shipment of the firm's bowlers to Bingen-Rhein, Germany, with backlasses entirely in the German language. The "keglers" ought to get plenty of "speilen" over there. . . . Always pleasant and friendly, no matter how busy, are Ted Rubenstein and E. Bye over at Marvel Mfg. "Lucky Horoscope" machines and tickets, they report, getting nods of approval from more and more ops everywhere who've tried samples on test locations. . . . Back from cold and windy Florida, Alvin Gottlieb advises he spent most of the time fishing for big ones and landing enough. "Found a lot of Gottlieb games getting heavy play up and down the beach," he reports. . . . Jack Mitnick confides they're working overtime to get the new United Music plant all set up and ready to begin rolling out greater production of "UPA-100's." Ought to be completed within the next 30 days, according to Jack.

Bill DeSelm at United smiles and tells that trailer loads of the firm's "Royal Bowling Alley" keep going to distribs at a steady rate, and ops everywhere reporting fine collections continuing with this game. Al Thoele and John Casola were out in their territories this past week working with distribs. . . . Talk about one thing leading right into another—Harold Perkins relates how one music op down south started diversifying his route with Keeney cig venders. His very next order was for several coffee venders. Harold Dorgan, joining in the conversation, tells of the games op who began with a quantity of drink machines when his business slowed down. "It wasn't long," says Dorgan, "before he added some "Riviera" cigarette venders to the operation. . . . Bally adman Herb Jones got quite a kick out of several coinmen popping into his office to demand that he quote a few pages from Shakespeare. Says Herb, "That item of yours in the column will cause me to read Shakespeare again just to refresh my memory." . . . Now that Genco's second production run of "Motorama" has been completed, talk at this busy factory seems to indicate that a new game will be ready for the trade before very long. Avron Gensburg, Ralph Sheffield and Al Warren beginning to use such words and phrases as "timely," "it's just what the trade wants," "brand new features" and "greater moneymaker." Yep, sure sounds like a new game due, all right.

SAM WOLBERG

Sam Stern reports everyone at Williams all set for terrific production of the new small bowler, "Ten Strike." "Our distributors have amazed us with the size of their orders," declares Sam. "In fact, we've had to revise our estimate of the volume we expected to produce, and everything points to a record run on this game." Sam Lewis starting off on a two weeks biztrip to visit distribs in the east and southeast. Art Weinand, while trying to shake off a humdinger of a cold, making plans to take off next week for NYC and Philly. . . . And we're doing everything possible to catch up with the terrific volume the distributors are demanding." . . . John "Penny King" Frantz proving himself one of the most hospitable of coinmen. John hard at work this past week on guesser scales and "Kicker & Catcher" counter game.

Al Stern at World Wide working together with his energetic son, Joel, on some plans for expanding the firm's surging export biz. Joel also very enthused about the new equipment coming out of the factories, and claiming these will stimulate coinbiz for all in the industry. Len Micon, proud of the sales figures for new Rock-Olas, announces, "Our sales of new phonos have increased more than thirty per cent." . . . Out of the many meetings that have been going on over at the big Rock-Ola plant, comes some extensive traveling schedules for Ed Ristau, Les Rieck, Jack Barabash and Frank Schulz. Can't blame the fellows one bit if, when looking at the maps, they gaze most longingly at the southern exposure. Kurt Kluever, however, claims climate means little to him, as he'll be keeping the home fires burning while sales and service staff makes the customer contacts 'round the nation. . . . United Music European Distribs Acclaim UPA-100

JACK MITNICK

CHICAGO—Jack Mitnick, sales director of United Music Corporation, this city, was more than usually enthusiastic this past week as he referred to the surging volume of repeat orders being received from the firm's distributors in Europe.

"Remember," Mitnick said, "that it has been only a short time since we introduced our completely new automatic phonograph to the world. The new 'UPA-100' had to take hold on its own merits. It had to begin from scratch. It had to offer the most outstanding qualities and features to command respect and gain acceptance of music operators everywhere.

"Now here, for example," he continued, opening a folder on his desk, "are letters containing sizeable repeat orders from our European distributors, who also praise the wonderful reception for the 'UPA-100'."

He pointed to a note from Frans Simons of Antwerp, Belgium, who, after expressing elation over comments of operators who attended his showing of the United Phonograph in Antwerp, stated:

"The most beautiful high fidelity sound as well as fast delivery of the record, the simplicity of selecting the record as well as the serviceability of the selector mechanism causes me to report how happy I am about the repeat orders I received after delivering the first machine to an operator."

Mitnick picked up another letter, which bore the name of Heinrich Hecker of Paderborn, West Germany. The communication read in part:

"I have made two visits to the United factory and was thoroughly convinced that I will have a good product to sell. Today I must thank the people in United, for I have had quite a few large shipments in Germany, and have delivered to my operators from the very first ones a lot of repeat equipment.

"Today I must thank the people from United for the best sounding machine I ever sold. My people are very happy because it is trouble free and easy to operate."

One other letter from Padorex of Lausanne, Switzerland, stated:

"Mr. Cuendet, who has visited the States at the time United had its first showing, wishes to report as follows: We are very far behind in orders and receive a number of machines every month, but still we cannot supply the demand out on us and we are so very happy to state that our operators in Switzerland are very fond of the United 'UPA-100.' Our operators are very happy because they love the good high fidelity sound, the easy selectivity and our public at large find it very simple to play United's juke box."

Similar acclaim and repeat orders, Mitnick said, are also being received in the United States.

"Such commendation has given us tremendous satisfaction," Mitnick concluded, "because we know that every operator who places our phonograph on location will be assured of faster and greater income."

Michigan's UMO Re-elects Small Conciliator

Ops Face State Legislature $50 Per Machine License Fee Bill

ROY SMALL

DETROIT, MICH.—Roy Small was unanimously re-elected Conciliator and Public Relations Counsel by United Music Operators Of Michigan at their Monday, January 6, 1958 meeting.

This will be Small's fourth consecutive term in this position with the organization.

Edward L. Carlson is President.

Keeney Cigarette Vender Made Jam Proof

CHICAGO—Paul Huebsch, vice president, J. H. Keeney & Company, this city, told how minor but important improvements in the firm's "Riviera" Model 22 cigarette vender now provides positive vending action under severest treatment on location.

Huebsch stated that early models of the "Riviera" were found to require "stops" under package selector buttons to prevent switches from interlocking.

"Now", he said, "no matter how hard the customers will depress, push or pound the selectors, it is impossible to jam the switches on the selector mechanism."

Harry L. Norton, Vice-President. Sam Willens is Secretary. Anthony Syracuse, Treasurer. The Board of Directors is composed of: Louis Ambrosine, Wm. Campbell, Sam Dinoto, Nino Garofolo, John F. Gunn, James Rotheris, Samuel Sapienza, Everitt Watson and Arthur Westin.

Past presidents are: J. M. Jeffrey and Frank Alluvot.

Most important matter facing UMO this year is the bill that has been again brought up in the Michigan legislature and which was defeated last year by this organization.

This bill calls for $50 per machine license fee levy. Roy Small has already made several trips to Lansing to discuss this bill with legislators.

PAUL HUEBSCH

He also revealed that a new slug rejector assembly has eliminated linkage.

"Our engineers found", Huebsch explained, "that many servicemen would not take time to engage one vertical rod into proper position on the horizontal rod when closing the top lid."

"With the new change in the slug rejector assembly", he added, "the lid closes naturally in the proper position for coins to go thru."

Parts are available to operators, Huebsch said, so that these improvements can be readily installed on all Keeney cigarette venders now in use.

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

[Also known as the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin Games—and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.
