METAMORPHOSIS OF THE YULETIDE LP

With most of the Christmas albums having already crossed the reviewers' desks, it is interesting to note how dramatically the nature of Yule product has changed in the past few years.

It was only four years ago that stereophonic recordings had an effect on Christmas product. At that time, stereo had just come into its own and in an effort to supply the stereo buyer with disks he could use on his new machine, hundreds upon hundreds of new Yule albums were rushed to market.
Many were re-recordings of mon-aural successes. But there were carloads of general catalog Yule LP's with little name value. The fact that these disks were waxed in
"STEREO" was their major asset.

Three years ago the quantity rush completed its course. Two years ago there was a tremendous cutback in releases with only a few novelty items hitting the market.
Last year saw the last remains of catalog type Yule albums. This year they are completely gone.

Many albums, hundreds no doubt, have been cut out of the existing catalogs and the 1963
philosophy as it applies to Christmas merchandise seems to be,
"Stick only with the big guns."

This year's new releases indicate that such thinking is now unanimous. Because of the saturation of the market and the sameness of the material available, every company seems to be aware of the fact that content is of little importance when compared with name value of the performing artist.

The result is greater simplicity.
The dealer has fewer decisions to make as to what merchandise he will stock for the limited Christmas buying period. There are certainly fewer new albums he will get "stuck" with even if he stocks all the new ones. And every dealer can call on his experience with the tried and true albums of past years and further decrease the gues-swork involved.

Yuletide singles are already beginning to arrive, and should one catch early in the season, the Christmas buying period for records will be extended.

The industry already has a huge attraction as we head into the holiday period between Thanksgiving and Christmas in the Philips album by Soeur Sourire, "The Singing Nun." It will probably be the most thought of record gift this year, and there could not have been a more timely or tasteful spokesman for the record industry than the "Dominique" single and the related LP.

There has been a drastic change in holiday product in a very short span of years, and it all seems to be for the better of the industry.

Shapiro, III, Resigns As Head Of NAARD

NEW YORK—Lou Shapiro has resigned as president of NAARD, the disk dealer association.

In a letter mailed to NAARD execs last week, Shapiro explained that ill-health had forced him to step-down as head of the organization. Shapiro, who operates Music Center Corp. in Jersey City, entered the hospital last week for undisclosed reasons. There was no announcement made as to Shapiro's replacement at NAARD.

CBS Asks 2-For-1 Stock Split, Q'tly. Dividend Up

NEW YORK—The Columbia Broadcasting System, parent company of Columbia Records, made big financial news last week.

CBS announced that it has proposed a 2-for-1 stock split, raised the quarterly dividend 10¢ and voted a 3% stock dividend.

In a sales-and-earnings statement by William S. Paley, chairman, and Frank Stanton, president, the firm had record third quarter earnings, ended Sept. 30, that reached $9,007,672 nearly double that of the same period last year when the total was $4,569,457. For the first nine months of '63, CBS had earnings, also a record, of $28,377,689. A similar period last year saw earnings of $19,157,177.

Sales for this year's 3-month ($121,868,940) and 9-month ($395,145,909) periods showed moderate gains of 6.7% and 7.5% respectively over the same periods last year. The increase in earnings over the sales figures was attributed to reduced operating costs, more TV profits and added interest in network radio.

The quarterly dividend, which shareholders of record on Nov. 22 get on Dec. 6, was 45¢, up from '62's 35¢, and the 3% stock dividend, payable on Dec. 16 to shareholders of record on Nov. 22, is similar to a distribution in Dec., 1962.

The stocksplitted, due Feb. 25 with a first quarter dividend of 25¢ in Mar., is CBS's second since 1955 when a 3-for-1 split was voted by shareholders. The new split will be voted upon on Dec. 20.

So far this year, CBS stock has reached a high of 84, 3/4 over a '63 low of 42 1/2.

Mercury LP Deal Carries 10% Discount

NEW YORK—Last week's story on Mercury Records new album deal carried an incorrect discount. Deal involves a 10% discount, not, as the story stated, a 15% discount.

MOA Gets "Good" Response To Invite For Label Meet

CHICAGO—A "good reaction" to MOA's (jukebox operators) invite to recording companies for a let's-talk-things-over meet in New York this Wed. (20) was reported by Bob Blundred, MOA's managing director, last week.

The meet, in the form of a luncheon, will give both operators and labels the first opportunity to sit down for a discussion.

A formal letter inviting record execs to the Adams Suite of the New York Hilton was mailed on Oct. 30, the move being the first on the part of MOA to stimulate a meeting with labels to discuss "federal legislation and other mutual problems."

The actual number of responses received by MOA was not disclosed, but MOA officials will be in New York on Tues. (19) to organize the meet.

Epic Single Sales Mark Set By Bobby Vinton

NEW YORK—Len Levy, general manager of Epic Records, has announced that Bobby Vinton has established a new single sales record for the label with sales in excess of a quarter of a million copies for a 7-day period on the chanter's new single, "There I've Said It Again" and his Christmas EP.

According to Levy, the songster's new release also set a new one-day sales record for the label on Nov. 12, one day after release, when 94,000 copies were sold. Vinton picked up the diskery's first gold deck with his million seller, "Roses Are Red," also held the previous record for one day's sales with 78,000 copies of that disk sold.

"4 Songs of Christmas," Vinton's first Christmas effort for the label, has reportedly passed the 94,000 mark since Nov. 4, and his "Blue Velvet" single is approaching the million mark.

The diskery has reported that many of its dealers have set up counter displays utilizing a browser box for the Christmas EP and displays spotlighting Vinton's two singles and "Blue Velvet" LP.

The songster recently made his film debut in the 20th Century Fox film, "Surfin' Party," and has been signed to appear in a TV series of 26 shows for Rolling Productions.

Rodgers Writing Twin-Bill Musical

NEW YORK—Leave it to Richard Rodgers to do something novel on Broadway. The composer, whose last Broadway assignment (words & music), "No Strings," had an innovation or two, will write the music for a twin-bill musical.

One of the presentations will be a musical version of "The Seven Year Itch," as previously disclosed, and the other will be a song-and-dance rendition of a novelette, "Forever." Rodgers said he would like to defer from doing the lyrics, as long as he can find a rhyming note. Meanwhile, no librettist has been named, but it is known that Joe Layton, choreographer of Rodgers' "Sound of Music" and "No Strings," will direct and stage the musical numbers.

The production, which Rodgers will offer in association with Leyland Hayward, is set for a Broadway bow in Jan. of 1965.

RIAA Report Attacks Proposal To End Compulsory Licensing

NEW YORK—RIAA, the label association, has, in a 102-page report, officially gone on record to save the compulsory licensing provision from the U.S. Copyright Law from being struck off the books.

Such a move has been recommended by the Registrar of Copyrights in overall overhauling due on the U.S. Copyright Act of 1909.

The Registrar feels that the provision is "rather severe in their effect on the copyright owner," who, the Registrar, adds should be entitled to more control over the recording of his material.

Under compulsory licensing, also called statutory licensing, any label may cut a copyrighted work, after it has been recorded for the first time, upon payment of a specified royalty.

More than a year in preparation, the statement by RIAA, concurred in unanimously by its member companies, which, according to the association, account for 80% of annual disk sales, warns that repeal of statutory licensing would drive the music industry in the direction of monopoly and would diminish the number of record companies as well as the supply of recorded music and literature.

Such consequences, the report points out, would be completely contrary to the concept of the ultimate purpose of copyright legislation under the Constitution, which, in the words of the Registrar of Copyrights, "is to foster the growth of learning and culture for the public welfare."

Statutory licensing is based on the accessibility of musical material to all members of the record industry on non-discriminatory terms, thus avoiding any monopoly problem, the RIAA report declares. It cites Congressional reports which make it clear that this provision was put into the Copyright Act of 1909 for that very reason.

The RIAA statement declares: "It is undisputed that the compulsory license system has led to a tremendous outpouring of music in recorded form, both popular and serious, with the public receiving the benefits of lower prices, improved quality and the opportunity of choosing among the per-

Cancel Frisco HiFi Show

SAN FRANCISCO—The 1964 annual High Fidelity Show, one of the largest musical equipment shows in the West, and normally held in the spring in the giant Cow Palace, is being cancelled because adequate display space is not available, according to James Logan, show director.

The show, which has been sponsored for five years by the Magnetic Recording Industry Association, has in the past drawn upwards of 50,000 people to view products of manufacturers of hifi equipment.

Logan, who is president of Pacific Show Productions, said that the Bay Area Decorators' Show held in conjunction with the High Fidelity Show, was being cancelled too. He explained that the show could not get into the Cow Palace because of conflicting dates with ice hockey and Brooks Hall was ruled out at the last minute because of contract difficulties.

In Chicago, W. G. Paradis, president of MRIA, said that he regretted that the annual show would not be held because it had come to play a major role in the promotion planning of many manufacturers across the country. He said that MRIA had enjoyed a pleasant association with Logan for a number of years.

formances of various artists."

Pointing out that many other countries have adopted statutory license systems that closely resemble the U. S. Law, and that recent copyright revision studies in a number of important countries have resulted in recommendations to retain statutory license provisions, the RIAA statement notes that countries without such a system have developed an alternative in the form of private licensing organizations, "thus demonstrating the economic necessity of the free accessibility principle in the field of recording rights." However, RIAA continues, the monopolistic complexion of such private organizations would make then unacceptable in the United States.

In tracing the development of the record industry under a system of compulsory licensing, the report cites the large increase in the number of companies that constitute the industry and the rise in sales of records over the last four decades to a volume of nearly $600 million. It points out that royalty payments by United States manufacturers to one collecting agent who represents an estimated 70% of all music publishing interests rose from $4,400,000 in 1955 to $13,194,000 in 1961. It also cites the dependence upon records of the radio industry, noting that record programming which had occupied 46.9% of total air time for all AM radio stations broadcasting in 1953, was currently taking up 79.7% of total AM radio air time for a much greater number of stations.

The principle of access to musical material is an economic necessity for the record industry, the report asserts. Unlike other literary and artistic works that can be enjoyed by the eye alone—even drama, which is written to be performed, can be read and understood in printed form—music reaches the public only when it is performed, RIAA declares, and the average person today hears music most frequently on records.

Wallichs' To Host Lord & Lady Mills

HOLLYWOOD—The Rt. Hon. the Viscount Mills, director of England's EMI, chief stockholder in Capitol Records, arrive in Hollywood this week (16) for a 10-day visit as guests of Glenn E. Wallichs, chairman and top exec officer at Capitol, and Mrs. Wallichs.

Lord Mills will spend most of his time here conferring with Wallichs and other top execs of the Hollywood-based label.

Lord and Lady Mills arrived in the U.S. on Nov. 6, and prior to coming to Los Angeles will have visited New York, Toledo and St. Louis.

Lord Mills has served the British government in a number of high positions over the years. A former member of the House of Lords, he was also a member of the cabinet, holding the office of Minister of Power between Jan. 1957 and Oct. 1959. Prior to that he was Adviser on Housing to the Minister of Housing and Local Government (who at that time was former Prime Minister Macmillan).

7 LP's in Capitol's Final '63 Pop Release

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records' final pop LP releases for 1963 consist of dates by Bobby Darin, George Chakiris and Frank Ifield. Another issue is an instrumental sing-along album by The Kingston Trio.

The issues include Bobby Darin's "Golden Folk Hits," George Chakiris'

"You're Mine You," Frank Ifield's "I'm Confessin'," "Chart Busters, Vol. 3," various artists, "Country Music Hootenanny," "live" country artists performances; and "Hot Rod Hootenanny," The Weirdos & Mr. Gasser.

Roulette Names Bass In Move To Strengthen A&R-Promo Efforts

NEW YORK—Morris Levy, president of Roulette Records, has announced several internal organization moves aimed at strengthening the diskery's creative as well as promo efforts.

Levy announced the appointment of Ralph Bass as A & R and promo rep in the midwest. In this connection, Roulette has opened a midwest regional office in Chicago at 2632 South Michigan Avenue. Bass will headquarter out of these offices concentrating on both handling A&R work out of Chicago for Roulette and covering the promotion in the midwest territory. Bass is a 35 year music business vet, having been an A & R man for Chess, Checker and Argo for the past 3 years and with the King label for 5 years prior to that. He has been associated with such successes as comedienne Moms Mabley, Etta Jones, the Vibrations, the Dominoes, James Brown, and Hank Ballard and the Midnighters, among others.

Another new appointment is a local New York promo assignment which will now be handled by Ron Resnick. Resnick will work for both Roulette as well as the Roulette owned New York branch, Adam Distributors.

In a move to tighten its promo setup, Roulette called a special meet of many of its distributors, key promo reps from around the country. At the meeting, a new drive was launched on singles. It includes "She's Got Everything" by The Essex, which has already hit the sales charts, and shaping up as the group's third hit in a row, Debbie Doval's "Hey Lover," also a chart item and a new Ray Barretto Tico single, "The Theme From The Victors." Another Tico single, "Bobo, Do That Thing" by Willie Bobo has had recent chart action in several key markets, the label said. The campaign also embraces a new Dinah Washington release, "Stranger On Earth," and a special holiday single, "Hootenanny Christmas" by Gene and Jerry.

On the company's sales front, general sales manager Bud Katzel is currently out on the road on a cross-country junket covering distributors, racks and one-stops. Katzel has already covered Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston, Hartford, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Cleveland, and Detroit and will continue on through the midwest and on to the west coast. According to Katzel, the Squire album, "The Best Of Joan Baez," which Roulette is distributing, is racking up sales re-orders in every market. Strong album sales for the label also include Dinah Washington's "Dinah '63," and a new folk group album released in Oct., "The Missing Otis Trio." The latter has had very strong re-order sales in Cleveland, Baltimore and Washington.

New Atlantic-Atco LP Deal; 3 New Albums Bow

NEW YORK—The Atlantic & Atco disk setup and the rest of its nationally distributed family have a new LP-catalog program going.

Deal is a 15% discount for 30 days, the start of which was on Nov. 11.

Besides A-A, the program covers the Stax, Vault and Moonglow LP catalogs.

There are three new LP's out: "Walking The Dog" by Rufus Thomas (Stax), named after the artist's singles hit; "Surfbeat Volume Two" by The Surfriders (Vault) and "The New World Singers," folk group (Atlantic).

As part of the promo, A-A is allowing each distrib an ad expenditure which will be used co-operatively with dealers in their areas. A large number of attractive displays are being set up at retailers throughout the country.

Len Sachs, LP sales-merchandising director, said that A-A album catalog business has been "consistently strong" this year as in the past. Confirming this, he noted, is the active buying in "breadth and depth" by distributors of A-A LP's.

Burgess & Goebel Join RCA's 25-Year Club

NEW YORK—Two RCA Victor Records' execs, Jack Burgess, commercial sales veep, and Lester M. Goebel, manager of the label's Rockaway, N.J. plant, have made their entry into the 25-Year Club of the Radio Corporation of America, of which the label is a division.

Burgess and Goebel were honored, along with other RCA employees who have attained a quarter century of continuous service with the company, at the annual 25-Year Club dinner which was held at the New York Hilton on Nov. 7.

Each was presented with a gold watch commemorating their 25 years with Victor by George R. Marek, vice president and general manager of the RCA Victor record division.

Burgess joined Victor as a trainee in 1938, after graduating from the University of Pennsylvania. Within a year, he became assistant to the sales manager. He subsequently worked as a field sales rep, regional sales supervisor, and manager of pop A&R. Another post he held for two years was manager of custom record sales. In 1958, Burgess was appointed to the then newly-created position of manager of commercial sales and merchandising, the top sales post at Victor. He was named a division vice president while at that post in 1960.

Goebel joined Victor in 1938 as a machine operator in the company's Indianapolis plant. He worked as a maintenance machinist in 1941, a supervisor of the press floor in 1942, assistant foreman in 1943 and, in 1945, he became foreman. Two years later, he was named production superintendent and subsequently, in June of 1950, he was appointed manager, manufacturing section, Indianapolis. Goebel transferred to New York later that year, becoming a plant manager. He has been plant manager at Rockaway since Jan., 1955.

Five MGM Musical Film Tracks Tied-In With Pics' Re-Release

NEW YORK—MGM Records has started a new drive on five of its years-back MGM musical soundtracks in view of the parent company's national re-release of the films.

MGM Pictures is re-releasing, for screenings in Nov. and Dec., new prints of "The Bandwagon," "Singin' in the Rain" and flick bios of top cleffers Jerome Kern ("Till the Clouds Roll By"), Rodgers & Hart ("Words & Music") and Bert Kalmar & Harry Ruby ("Three Little Words").

For its soundtrack counterparts of each musical, the label has prepared a number of tie-in promos. One dramatic gimmick will be the placement in top dealerships of a 9-minute trailer, shown via a rear-view projection device, of scenes from the five flicks featuring artists singing material available on the LP's. In addition, dealers will be able to give purchasers of the soundtracks free-tickets to see the films in their communities. MGM distributes will allocate the give-away tickets on basis of dealer purchases of the albums. Ads in newspapers and commercials on radio will inform the public of the opportunity to obtain the free ducats.

MGM distributes also will supply movie houses, as well as radio stations, with copies of the LP's for contest give-aways.

Earlier this year, the flick company announced a re-release program of its vast musical film catalog. Such classic efforts as, "The Great Caruso" and "Show Boat" (an MGM Records' soundtrack) were marketed anew.

Phono Output Up In Sept., But Distrib Sales Down

WASHINGTON—Factory production of portable and table model phonos and of console phonos was up in Sept. over the same month in 1962, the Electronic Industries Association's marketing services department reported last week.

But, EIA said, sales for both the portable and table model category and for consoles were off slightly for Sept. 1963 from Sept. 1962.

Both factory production and distrib sales for all phonos were up, however, for the first nine months of 1963 over the corresponding 1962 period.

Factory production of portables/table models for Sept. was 490,319 units, compared to 486,549 in Sept. 1962. The Jan.-Sept. 1963 total for the same category was 2,212,588 units, compared to 1,935,347 for the 1962 period. Production of consoles was 212,372 for Sept., compared to 201,895 in Sept. 1962. The nine-month figure for consoles in 1963 was 1,147,889, compared to 1,072,240 in the 1962 period.

Distrib sales of the portables/table models category for Sept. reached 413,003, compared to 413,727 for Sept. 1962. The Jan.-Sept. 1963 distrib sales figure for this category was 2,030,434, compared to 1,797,904 for the corresponding nine months in 1962. Sept. console sales were down to 178,691 from 182,286 in September 1962. The Jan.-Sept. console sales figure was 1,027,059, compared to 936,884 for the same nine months in 1962.

Mercury Ups Sales In Oct. For 2nd Month In Row, Green Tells Distrib Council, A&R Staff

CHICAGO—A highlight of Mercury Records' recent Distributor Council and A&R staff meet in Chicago was prexy Irving Green's report that the label had a second record-breaking sales month (figures not announced) in a row in Oct. The figures for Oct., Green said, topped that of any previous Oct.

The Distributor Council is composed of reps from the Mercury, Philips and Smash labels. Also participating in the meet, held Nov. 5, were the labels' sales managers and promo men and Irwin H. Steinberg, exec veep.

The group agreed to schedule a national distrib meeting of men from all three labels for Dec. 29 and 30 in Chicago, for the purpose of discussing new plans and product for 1964. This will be the company's second national sales meeting of the year, which is supplemented with monthly meetings of the A&R staff and quarterly meetings of the Distributor Council.

The group made plans for the Dec. meeting, and discussed projects for 1964, which, according to Green, "will be a tremendous year for the company." "We're going into the new year with a spectacularly successful 1963 under our belts. Each of the three labels has had its own smash hits; each has achieved its own clearly defined identity, balanced artist roster, and sound distribution system."

Attending the meeting were Kenny Myers, VP in charge of sales; Lou Simon, Philips' national sales manager; Charles Fach, Smash national sales manager; Harry Kelly, Mercury-Wing sales manager; Morris Diamond, Mercury national promotion manager; Bill O'Brien, Philips' promotion manager; Dick Bruce, Mercury field sales manager; Lou Reizner, import coordinator and folk sales manager; Frank Fried, folk producer; Aaron Cushman, president of Mercury's public relations agency, and Abe Chayet, manager of branch distribution.

Distributor Council members attending included Jim Shipley and Ed Rosenblatt, Mainline, Cleveland; Paul Knowles; Raymond Rosen, Inc., Philadelphia; Henry Hildebrand, Jr., All South, New Orleans; Amos Heilicher, Heilicher Distrib., Minneapolis; John Halonka, Beta Record Distrib., New York, and Paul Glass, Allstate Record Distrib., Chicago.

Representing the A & R department were Jack Tracy, Johnny Madera, Dave White, Quincy Jones, Shelby Singleton, Hal Mooney, Herb Rosen and Doug Moody.

Hoffman Buys Out Marnel Of Maryland

BALTIMORE, MD—Stan Hoffman announced last week that he had become the sole owner of Marnel of Maryland, the Balt. distributorship. Hoffman, formerly general manager of the distrib, one of the late Nelson Verbit's distrib branches, said that the firm will retain the same labels, personnel and cover the same territory (Maryland, Washington and Virginia). Verbit's son, Marshall, and widow, Selma, will continue to operate Marnel Distributing Co. of Philadelphia, as they have in the past.

Best Bets

JIMMY ROSELLI (Lenox 5576)

● "SATTE VINCINO A ME (Stay With Me)" (3:01) [Editiones, Successo BIEM—Baratta, Grotte, Cievo] Solid good-old-fashioned crooning marks this entry from the legit songster, who made some noise recently with a date called "Mala Femmina." Roselli does his big-sounding stint in Italian against rich, upbeat ork stand. Can be a big jukebox hit.

(B) "PASSIONE" (4:05) [San-son—Tagliaffre, Bovio] Some English lyrics to this similar croon job.

PETE JOLLY TRIO (Ava 208)

● "SWEET SEPTEMBER" (2:35) [B. F. Wood ASCAP—McGuffie, Philips, Stanley] The jazz-inclined crew, which came up with a recent noise-maker in "Little Bird," offers melodic, though hep reading of the lovely tune, of which there are a number of disk readings. Tune deserves a much greater recognition than it has been getting; maybe this end could help.

(B) "KISS ME BABY" (1:50) [B. F. Wood ASCAP—Sosa] Easy after-hours swinger from the ensemble.

THE BAJA MARIMBA BAND (Almo 201)

● "COMIN' IN THE BACK DOOR" (2:14) [Irving—BMI—Turner] The Baja Marimba Band could garner some quick spins with this delightful, easy-going instrumental stanza. Side boasts some interesting, quick-paced melodic changes and a frothy, spinnable melody. Eye it.

(B) "DECEMBER'S CHILD" (2:07) [Almo—ASCAP—Wechter] This time out the crew dishes up a moody flick-theme sounding, lush affair. Nice change-of-pace deejay item.

JOHNNY & THE HURRICANES (Mala 470)

● "IT'S A MAD, MAD, MAD, MAD WORLD" (2:00) [United Artists ASCAP—David, Gold] Johnny & Co. can begin their new label affiliation with a sales-bang as they dish up a terrific instrumental-rock version of the chart-making title tune from the pic blockbuster. Hard-hitting stand can bust wide open.

(B) "SHADOWS" (2:17) [Vicki BMI—Fowler] Here the fellas turn in a dazzling, first rate job on the pretty theme.

THE ROOMATES (Philips 40153)

● "THE NEARNESS OF YOU" (2:20) [Famous ASCAP—Washington, Carmichael] The Roomates can have another chart-maker on their hands as they wrap up an attractive teen beat-ballad refitting of the years-back chart triumph. Tune can make another chart go of it.

(B+) "PLEASE DON'T CHEAT ON ME" (2:22) [Nom, Vince BMI—J. & M. Malloy, Beck, Carroll] There's plenty of teen-appealing gimmicks packed into this novelty jump'er.

RAY BARRETTO (Tico 426)

● "THEME FROM THE VICTORS (My Special Dream)" (2:14) [Screen Gems—Columbia BMI—Douglass, Kaplan, Greenfield] Barretto's ork sound here is far removed from his recent novelty success, "El Watusi," as he batons a very pretty cha-cha-beat reading of a lovely tune from the upcoming major flick, "The Victors." Solid for all-around instrumental programming.

(B) "SWINGING SHEPHERD BLUES" (2:10) [Nom BMI—Koffman, Roberts, Jacobson] The old Moe Koffman hit makes an easy transition to a Latin flavoring.

THE FOURMOST (Atco 6280)

● "HELLO LITTLE GIRL" (1:50) [Northern Songs, Ltd. BMI—McCartney, Lennon] The English rock vocalists are going great guns on the English charts with this tricky, loaded-with-color attack. A distinctive belt pose that could make the grade with U.S. teeners.

(B) "JUST IN CASE" (2:42) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant] Rock-a-billy styled doings by the crew (tune is a Boudleaux Bryant number).

"LITTLE" ESTHER PHILLIPS (Lenox 5577)

● "GOD BLESS THE CHILD WHO'S GOT HIS OWN" (2:55) [E. B. Marks BMI—Holiday] The lark can get back on the hit trail once again with this full ork-backed inspirational affair with some top-flight gospel chords. Eye it for rapid acceptance.

(B+) "A LOVER'S HYMN" (2:25) [Roosevelt BMI—Singleton] More fine pop-r&b sounds. This one's a slow-moving, shufflin' tear-jerker with a listenable, fresh-sounding melody.

GERRY GRANAHAN (20th Century-Fox 425)

● "HANG UP THE PHONE" (2:32) [Wemar BMI—Simmons, Wiener, Brandon] The one-time click rock artist returns to the wax wars a performer with an interesting, deep-in-the-heart-of-Nashville plaintive outing. The songster gets most effective support from a full chorus and special guitar gimmick. Could.

(B) "TOO WEAK TO WIN" (2:32) [January BMI—Gluck, Nader] Artist has an emotional date here, and sounds a lot like Bobby Darin.

THE SUZETTES (Moonglow 225)

● "SKY HIGH" (1:55) [Ray Maxwell BMI—Levine, Maxwell] The melody to "Greensleeves" is sized-up with lots of infectious rock life by the chanting femme vocalists and a hot sax-led combo. Could be a winner for the Hollywood-based diskery.

(B) "SOMEWHERE" (2:55) [Ray Maxwell BMI—Maxwell] The John Van Horn ork is featured in this nice "Theme From A Summer Place"-like arrangement.

THE CRESCENTS (Arlen 743)

(B+) "SMOKE GETS IN YOUR EYES" (2:10) [Harms ASCAP—Kern, Harbach] The old favorite is employed as a vehicle for a complete teen revamping. As far as the youngsters are concerned, they'll appreciate the infectious approach.

(B) "JOHNNY WON'T RUN AROUND" (2:20) [Tiki BMI—Rucker, Newton, Davis] Credit rhythmic Dion dates for the attack here, whose ditty, by the way, is somewhat of an answer to Dion's "Runaround Sue."

GRADY JOHNSON (Sims 142)

(B+) "CLAP YOUR HANDS" (2:16) [English & Tuneglow—Johnson] Listeners are invited to go along with the deck's good-cheer in this rock-a-billy outing. Besides Johnson's happy vocal, there's a good-natured trumpet solo.

(B) "SHE'LL BE THE LAST ONE TO KNOW" (1:58) [English & Tuneglow—Johnson] A Nashville-South-of-the-Border sound for a plaintive item.

DAVID CARROLL (Mercury 72218)

(B+) "DOMINIQUE" (2:00) [General ASCAP—Soeur Sourire] Tune is, of course, the smash offering by The Singing Nun, and it's done in a sprightly manner by the Carroll crew and softly chanting chorus. Catchy item is a natural for an instrumental turn, and this reading does it justice.

(B) "PAMPLOMA" (2:17) [MRC BMI—Ogerman] An harmonica is included in this western-type reading of a pretty opus.

ALAN COPELAND (Warner Bros. 5400)

(B+) "THE SHAMPOO" (2:35) [Jana ASCAP—McCann] Teeners get a lively dance sound—with an infectious blues heritage—from the Copeland ork-chorus (male & femme chanters). While it's obviously aimed at the teen set, there is a big-band feel to the proceedings.

(B) "IT'S YOU I LOVE" (2:09) [Travis BMI—Domino, Batholomew] The male & female voices "talk" to each other in this bright reading of the old Fats Domino hit.

STAN HARPER (Coral 62388)

(B) "CHARADE" (2:39) [Northern & Southdale ASCAP—Mancini, Mercer] The latest pic collaboration of Henry Mancini-Johnny Mercer is relayed with appealing warmth by the harmonica player and his organ-included back-up sound. A worthy instrumental version of an off-cut tune.

(B) "I DON'T WANT TO WALK WITHOUT YOU" (2:13) [Paramount ASCAP—Styne, Loesser] The standard, also stemming from Hollywood, gets easy-go styling.

JOE HARNELL ORCH. (Kapp 562)

(B+) "THE DAWN OF LOVE (L'Edera)" (2:38) [Cromwell ASCAP—D'Acquisto, Seracini] Pianist-maestro Harnell, who cashed-in on the Bossa Nova fad ("Fly Me to the Moon"), performs and helms a breezy swinger with plenty of strings. Tune at times is a reminder of the oldie, "The Object of My Affection." Likely to come-up with lots of spins.

(B) "WHO AM I" (2:36) [Cavalcade ASCAP—Harnell] Harnell treats one of his own creations, a tender tune, with warmth.

LITTLE SANDY "C"

(J. C. Enterprises 001) (B+) "MY PRAYER" (2:14) Shapiro Bernstein-ASCAP—Kennedy, Boulanger] This very youthful chanter comes up with a smooth but familiar sounding version of the years-back oldie. A potent arrangement and a polished vocal group adds lustre to the proceedings here. Good programming fare.

(B) "DEVOTION" (2:13) [J.C.-BMI—Bruno] The lad goes up-tempo on the undercut with a rhythmic romantic ballad that's got plenty of appeal for the early teen set.

TOBY GROGAN (VeeJay 560) (B+) "ANGEL" (2:20) [Madelon BMI—Grogan] Grogan employs some of the falsetto devices used by the 4 Seasons in this rhythm piece for the youngsters. Catchy percussion bits, also 4 Seasons date-sounding, are in the setting. (B) "JUST A FRIEND" (2:35) [Madelon BMI—Grogan] Folkish guitar backs a middle-beat ballad display.

THE MONARCHS (Zone 1067)

(B+) "FRIDAY NIGHT" (2:10) [E&M—BMI—McAllister, Jones] It's easy-paced surfing or hot-rodding sounds here by this West Coast group that is reportedly making some area noise with the deck. The side is suitable for dancing and listening and could spark considerable regional sales with some help from the jocks.

(B+) "EL-BANDITO" (1:50) [Yanden—BMI—McAllister, Jones] A complete switch on this end with the boys serving up some Latin rhythms on this brightly arranged instrumental.

DIAMOND JIM BRADLEY (Commerce 5510)

(B+) "LOVE ME BABY" (2:25) [Bounds—BMI—Bradley] The chanter makes his debut on Commerce with this r&b rocker sparked by some rhythmic handclappin' and a bright-sounding sans-lyric choral group. It's a dance delighter that could go pop or r&b. Top 40 spinners might give it a try.

(B) "I DON'T CARE" (2:08) [Bounds—BMI—Bradley] Strong gospel entry to this bluesier effortlessly surveyed by the chanter.

PERCY MAYFIELD (Tangerine 935) (B+) "YOU DON'T EXIST NO MORE" (2:42) [Venice BMI—Mayfield] The vet artist should create a stir with this top-flight, hard-driving, pulsating r&b weeper with a potent, rapidly-changing repeating riff. Watch it. (B+) "MEMORY PAIN" (2:25) [Venice BMI—Mayfield] Slow-moving traditional lament with an interesting shufflin' beat.

AL "TNT" BRAGGS (Peacock 1928) (B+) "TAKE A LOOK AT ME" (2:45) [Don BMI—Malone] Braggs effectively utilizes the "cut live" technique on this rousing, chorus-backed Ray Charles-styled uptempo item themed to teen tastes. Could happen. (B) "DRIP DRIP GOES THE TEARS" (2:15) [Don BMI—Braggs, Malone] On this end the songster offers a tender, slow-moving melodic tear-jerker.

HUNTSMEN (Tarheel 061) (B+) "THE PEDDLER'S SONG" (2:30) [Rogallen BMI—Memory] The Huntsmen could create a national stir with this extremely pretty, slow-moving soulful pop-folk lament. Interesting change-of-pace programming item.

(B) "GOIN' DOWN TO TOWN" (1:55) [Burlington ASCAP—Burroughs] On this lid the gang offers a rousing, fast-moving folk ditty with a warm, happy traditional flavor.

Best Bets

THE EXPRESSIONS (Parkway 892)

● "ON THE CORNER" (2:10) [Survey BMI—Linde, Antell] Boys could have a chart turn with this potent stand on a ditty that's in the teen "message-song" category. This attention-getting sound should be watched.

(B) "TO CRY" (2:18) [Survey BMI—Linde, Antell] A dramatic-type romantic stand by the team.

COUNT BASIE (Reprise 240)

● "WALK DON'T RUN" (2:36) [Forshay BMI—Smith] There's some fancy swingin' footwork on this fine tune (not to be confused with the Ventures' oldie) that could turn out to be a jukebox sensation. Ops take notice.

(B) "I LEFT MY HEART IN SAN FRANCISCO" (2:31) [General ASCAP—Cory, Gross] Here's a real smoothie band reading of the standard-headed sentimental. Both cuts are from Count's "This Time By Basie" LP.

DON & JUAN (Mala 469)

● "LONELY MAN" (2:36) [Hill & Range & Noncaz BMI—Johnson] Don & Juan, known by the kids through their "What's My Name" hit, join the Mala roster with a strong Latin-rock statement. Choice brass-led ork statement. Boys could move with this date.

(B) "COULD THIS BE LOVE" (2:43) [Hill & Range & Noncaz BMI—Johnson] Smooth rock-ballad stuff. Tune is a haunting item.

DONNA LYNN (Capitol 5087)

● "RONNIE" (1:57) [Wellesley & Panic BMI—Lynn, Martin] The thrush and her back-up sound can take "Ronnie" for a chart ride. Presentation on the tuneless ditty has a charming speedy-beat way, with the femme chorus serving as an effective "echo" to Donna's warble. Eye closely.

(B) "THAT'S ME, I'M THE BROTHER" (2:14) [Integrity & Nancy ASCAP—Wolf, Bower] Further very amiable business, this time in a bright South-of-the-Border novelty-rock vein.

ANNA KING (Smash 1858)

● "IF SOMEBODY TOLD YOU" (2:55) [Jim Jam BMI—Jim Jam] Former gospel songstress puts over this romantic blueser with much deep-down conviction. On hand for a striking setting sound is an un-billed ork. Vet R&B man James Brown produced this solid portion. Could make it.

(B) "COME & GET THESE MEMORIES" (2:23) [Jobete BMI—Holland, Dozier, Holland] A well-defined skipping sound backs the lark on this mostly-for-the-blues-trade outing.

RUNE OVERMAN (Stacy 970)

● "SMORGASBORD" (2:02) [Kim Fowley BMI—Willners, Arr: Overman] This is a good-time-was-had-by-all instrumental outing from Sweden. Keyboard work takes its hat off to the Nashville sound. He's backed by busy rhythm section. Happy, tuneful date.

(B) "BEATNIK WALK" (2:30) [Kim Fowley BMI—Overman] Interesting build-up item (with strings).

JOHNNY TAYLOR (Derby 1006)

● "BABY, WE'VE GOT LOVE" (2:07) [Kags BMI—Cooke] This enticing shuffle-rhythm romantic ditty's a Sam Cooke-penned opus that sports a Cooke vocal flavor. A real appealing entry that should easily find its way onto the deejay's turntables. Watch it closely.

(B) "I'LL ALWAYS BE IN LOVE WITH YOU" (2:13) [Kags BMI—Campbell] More fetching Cooke stylings on this up tempo cutie.

THE VERSATONES (Atlantic 2211)

● "BILA" (2:31) [Crimson BMI—Worell, Tindall] Here's a real weirdo that could develop into a 'left field' chart sensation. It's a funky thumper chock full of the vocal and instrumental sounds that are sure to make the teeners sit up and take notice. Exposure can send it soaring.

(B) "TIGHT SKIRT AND SWEATER" (2:28) [Figure BMI—Goodman] This side has the crew muddling over a catchy rock-rhythmic.

BILLY MASHBURN (Atlantic 2208)

● "DON'T IT SOUND GOOD (Part 1)" (2:57) [Spectorious BMI—Junior, Mashburn] This is an effective oldies-but-goodies format. Mashburn's narrative reminds teeners of their favorites and background chorus sings some of them. Could branch-out into a click session.

(B) "DON'T IT SOUND GOOD (Part 2)" (1:58) [Spectorious BMI—Junior, Mashburn] Same dose of teen sentiment here.

JEFF CONDON (MGM 13188)

● "(WALKIN' IN) FREDDY'S FOOTSTEPS" (2:10) [Luristan—ASCAP—Goodis] Here's a live-wire teen-angled danceable item with all the necessary ingredients for a heavy run of spins and sales. The chanter, backed by a strong choral group and an ear-arresting arrangement, delivers up a top-drawer treatment of this rock ballad.

(B+) "NEVER YOU MIND" (2:00) [T. M.—BMI—Barry, Williams] A bit more funky on this end but the rhythm is overpowering and a natural for the teen dance crowd.

JIMMY REED (Vee Jay 570)

● "OUTSKIRTS OF TOWN" (2:45) [Leeds ASCAP—Razaf, Weldon] The vet r&b songster unleashes his potent, wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this low-down, shuffle-beat tradition-styled blues lament. Side's a natural for quick air-play.

(B+) "ST. LOUIS BLUES" (2:17) [Leeds ASCAP—Handy] Rousing, high-powered rendition of the W. C. Handy-penned blues classic.

JAMES BROWN (King 5829)

● "I'VE GOT TO CHANGE" (2:25) [Wisto BMI—Brown] James Brown has had hits in the past and he can achieve Top 100 status once again with this medium-paced, teen-angled, chorus-backed lament with some effective blues-tinged melodic changes. Eye it.

(B+) "THE BELLS" (3:04) [Billy Ward BMI—Ward] This time out the songster dishes-up a slow-moving, extremely funky reading of the Billy Ward tune.

HEDLEY & LEE (Challenge 59218)

(B+) "LITTLE MISS TREATER" (2:24) [4-Star Sales BMI—Burgess] Boys and their guitar support (their own?) performance a la the Everly Bros. This stand is exciting, and teen ears are sure to be pleased.

(B) "TROUBLE" (2:24) [4-Star Sales BMI—Thomas, Burgess] Vocal team keeps up a similar kind of rock color here.

THE CHIEFS (Valiant 6038)

(B+) "HOW!" (2:07) [Eldorado BMI—Gallesse] The Indian-theme conveyed by the group and the tune's title is carried through in this wild tom-tom rock bit. An interesting electric guitar is the big voice here.

(B) "TOM TOM" (1:55) [Eldorado BMI—Gallesse] Drums get the big say in this attack.

JOHNNY GALAHAD (Decca 31564)

(B+) "MOVIN' FREE" (3:09) [T.M. BMI—Carmel, Rice, Klimes] The warbler tops an off-beat folk-rock sound. Tune is made-up of a few notes, and this idea is the major interest of both the vocal and the combo backdrop. May come-up with some coin.

(B) "29 MODEL-A" (2:00) [T.M. BMI—Glick, Rice] More familiar-sounding stuff: a romp with a hot-rod theme.

THE VETTES (MGM 13186)

(B+) "HAPPY HODADDY (with Ragtop Caddy)" (2:20) [Arkay BMI—Douglas, Shane] The subject matter at hand is the old car fad among teeners, and the group tells about one such auto with a flavor reminiscent of the old hit, "Allez Oop." Good-sounding fun date is from an LP called "Rev-Up."

(B) "LITTLE FORD RAGTOP" (2:20) [Arkay BMI—Douglas] Surfin'-like approach on a souped-up car theme. Also from the LP.

DEE DEE FORD

(ABC-Paramount 10503)
(B+) "SHOO FLY PIE" (2:22) [Criterion ASCAP—Gallop, Wood] The old novelty is a natural for teen market updating. Lark, who's had some chart stands, leads the way against a catchy blues-type backing, which benefits from a good femme chorus sound. Kids will like getting acquainted with a tune their parents went for.

(B) "JUST LIKE A FOOL (I Keep Hurtin')" (2:25) [Al Gallico BMI—Raleigh, Ledo] A sad blueser done-up in today's wistful groovings by femme voices.

CY COLEMAN (Capitol 5086)

(B) "THEME FROM 'THE PRIZE'" (2:27) [Hastings BMI—Goldsmith] The pianist-cleffer invitingly handles the warm pic theme, with the Billy May ork supplying a sentimental, yet slick backdrop. Fine mood-directed programming.

(B) "YOU TURN ME ON, BABY" (2:26) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Coleman] Coleman wrote this bluesy item for a flick called "The Masters."

TONI CARROLL (MGM 13184)

(B) "LONELY" (2:30) [Chart BMI—Bucemi, Antel, Coleman] Lark is joined by a male voice in a tricky pose on a wistful softie. A duet entry with somewhat off the beaten track.

(C) "MOTHER" (2:21) [Chart BMI—Nathanson, Antel] A sentimental item with a backbeat bit that doesn't match the straight warble by the performer.

PETE SHRAYDER (Ascot 2143)

(B+) "LITTLE MISS SORRY EYES" (1:50) [Aldel BMI—Colacrai, Nespoli] The warbler-actor opens shop on the UA-distributed label with a very good-sounding teen date. Vehicle is a tuneful wistful, done in a sprightly rock manner by the artist and his full ork-femme chorus back-up. Could do something.

(B) "TOMMY LOVES YOU" (2:15) [Geril ASCAP—Jacobs, Dana] A more relaxed pose by the performer, who is multi-tracked here.

VINCE HOWARD (Viscojon 1043)

(B+) "PROMISE" (2:35) [Asna, Gigantic—BMI—Johnson] Vince Howard has a big, warm voice and uses it well on this uptempo ballad. The big ork-choral assist gives a lush sound to the proceedings. A forceful pop entry with broad appeal.

(B+) "I DIDN'T WANT TO LOVE YOU" (2:30) [Asna, Gigantic—BMI—Howard] The songster wraps up one of his own originals on the flip. Rock and roll flavor coupled with strings is a flavorful combo. Programmers might like it.

ROYCE MCAFEE COMBO

(Warner Bros. 5397)
(B+) "ONCE THERE WAS LOVE" (2:26) [Inette & Big D—BMI—Davis] Straight-forward instrumental doings here with an Acker Bilk-styled solo lead by Joe Davis. Lush strings add the right touch to make for some moodful listening. Top programming fare.

(B) "HOT LINKS" (2:07) [Inette & Big D—BMI—Davis] A mild rock affair with more solo chores by Davis.

FRANKIE BRUNSON

(Fairmount 613)
(B+) "BOYS HAVE FEELINGS TOO" (2:40) [Cameo-Parkway BMI—Jackson, Straigs] Brunson gets across the idea of the title with a persuasive blues-heritage, semi-wail reading of the drama opus. Backing packs a punch with its gospel-type approach. Interesting sound from the Cameo-Parkway affiliate.

(B) "MOVE BABY MOVE" (2:26) [Roosevelt BMI—Maurer, Farrell] Rhythmic stuff for the teen dance-floor. Fine partytime feel.

CHRISTMAS

STAN KENTON (Capitol 5085)

(B+) "WHAT IS A SANTA CLAUS?" (2:28) [Anton ASCAP—Gouldon, Thurman] Against a backdrop of "Silent Night" performed by The Ralph Carmichael Choir and the Kenton ork, a narrator offers a kiddie-directed essay on the nature of Santa Claus. A warm Yuletide stint for moppets.

(B) "O TANNENBAUM" (1:57) [Anton ASCAP—Trad. Arr. Kenton, Carmichael] The ork solos in an interesting, brass-spotlighted reading of the Xmas favorite.

ARTHUR GODFREY (Contempo 905)
(B) "PINE CONES & HOLLY BERRIES" (with "IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK LIKE CHRISTMAS") (1:55) [Frank & Rinimer & Plymouth ASCAP—Willson] The popular TV-radio personality divides his vocal time between the new Xmas song from "Here's Love" and the Yule favorite. They're both charming items and agreeably handled by the performer. Label is handled by UA.

(B) "EVERY CHRISTMAS MORNING" (1:50) [Famous ASCAP—Godfrey, Gillis, Weeks] Cheerful Holiday sounds from Arthur and his backing.

Observing its 43rd anniversary of continuous broadcasting, KDKA-Pittsburgh, the world's first station, recently conducted a day-long series of events revolving around the number 43. Prizes were awarded to the first driver with 43 on his license plate who checked in at the outlet's birthday car; the first man who could prove he was exactly 43 years old; the first person with 43 in his Social Security number. A youngster, who thought he was qualified for the prize to be given to the person who weighed 43 pounds, stepped on the scales near the KDKA birthday car and discovered he weighed 44 pounds. However, after removing his jacket and his shoes, under urging by several bystanders, he weighed exactly 43 pounds and walked away with a $10 prize and his shoes in hand. The station also gave away watches, jewel boxes, cuff links, perfume and other prizes in the day-long celebration.

Homemade Hootenanny: Charles Dennis, night time personality on WOAI-San Antonio, recently introduced an informal folk-sing during the 11 to 11:30 PM time slot. The station's late evening listeners hear not only the current folk hits by the current talent, but also hear Charley feature an occasional bit of historical background when presenting a favorite folk recording from years past. Initial comment and listener response have been favorable and the stanza seems assured a long run in its present spot.

The TV Tower, which supports the antennas of the three Baltimore television stations will be extended in height an additional 270 feet, it was announced jointly last week by WMAR-TV; WBAL-TV; and WJZ-TV. Present height of the tower is 630 feet above ground, and the extension will place the new platform supporting the three transmitting masts at a height of 900 feet.

Les Davis, who spins 'em on WJRZ-Newark, played a clever telephone "trick" on his listeners on Halloween Eve. Davis gave as "tricks" such things as: two pairs of tickets to the fifth game of the 1963 World Series; a weekend for two at the Hilton Sellers in the Grand Duchy of Fenwick; a 1964 Tucker, complete with white walls and a radio; a season's pass to Ebbet's Field, and many other kookie gag presents. Davis hosts the mid-morning show on the station. Oh yes, the treat prize was a gold-plated WRZ key ring.

WYDD-Pittsburgh will initiate its 1963-1964 ski programs. The programs will be a combination of daily direct reports of area ski conditions, general ski information on local reports including Seven Springs, White Mountain, etc. and interviews with professional skiers.

Earl Robbin, emcee of WWDC-Washington's nightly hootenanny show, is now giving away prizes and providing his listening audience with folk artist interviews as well. Listeners can hear interviews with guest folk artists and composers and supply the answer to a singing jingle by adding the numbers and sending in their estimate on post cards. For instance, the singing group asks, "Add the three Mondays in June to a holiday in July and subtract the date of Valentine's Day and you get . . . (a number)." Prizes include tickets to current concerts, luggage and other items. The deejay, who each week also conducts a live "Hoot" at a Washington area high school, or college, is giving local amateur talent an opportunity to perform, and is presently lining up interviews on a weekly basis for his nightly show.

The KEX-Portland spinners will present Victor Borge in "Comedy of Music," as the final offering in the KEX 1963 series of all-star shows. The one-performance only show is booked into the Public Auditorium for Friday evening, Nov. 22, at 8:30 PM.

WJAS-Pittsburgh will broadcast a new series of educational programs. The weekly half hour series, produced in cooperation with Duquesne University, is tagged "Point Of View." The series will feature various members of the Duquesne University faculty and student body, discussing issues on current affairs in government, education and general subject matter of interest to most steel town listeners.

What started out as a search for a lost trophy has now turned into the second annual "Toys For Tots Bowl" and is taking on all the aspects of another knock-down, drag-out fight-to-the-finish. In the 1963 renewal of this touch football "classical," WJZ-TV—Baltimore's "Big Ones" will be pitted against the "Fumbling Finks" of WFBR on Nov. 23 at Kirk Field, game time is 1 PM. Admission to the "contest" can be gained by donating a toy to the Marine Corps' campaign to provide playthings for underprivileged children. Last year's event drew in excess of 5000 spectators who donated the equivalent of six truck-loads of toys.

KFJZ-Fort Worth's 1270 or Else game continues with tremendous success. Over six thousand post cards are in to the station's contest. Approximately six or seven out of every ten cards drawn respond by calling the station's contest line to play the game . . . prizes range from a paper clip to $50.00 cash. It's amazing how people like to gamble . . . as yet no one has chosen to keep the $1.27, they all choose to spin the wheel of fortune. . . . KFJZ's Hap Arnold has been named new manager of the Sugar Shack, a teen age night club which serves no alcoholic beverages.

Norman E. Cash, president of the Television Bureau of Advertising Club of Philadelphia recently addressed the members of the club at their monthly luncheon at the Warwick Hotel. Cash spoke on the controversial subject of Quaker City advertisers using New York agencies.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Chuck Phillips has been given the green light (as station manager) of WYLO-Milwaukee. . . . Steve Davis is now spinning 'em on KEX-Portland. . . . Two new adds on KFIL-Dallas are Rex Jones (program director) and Ken Dowe (music director). . . . Alan Fletcher, exits his spot on WDRG-Hartford to join WJTV—Baltimore. . . . Jack Gale is n a deejay on WMEX-Boston. . . . Steve Trivers, formerly program director of WCOP-Boston, has been named director of program operations of WPAT-New York.

POP PICKS

"JOAN BAEZ IN CONCERT PART 2"—Vanguard VSD 2123

At the forefront of the contemporary American movement must stand Joan Baez. The lark, who has three fantastically best-selling albums to her credit, has established a somewhat majestic image which reflects remarkable sensitivity and sincerity. On this new Vanguard session, cut live during a series of concerts, the artist offers a varied program of folk evergreens and newer material. While accompanying herself on the guitar she turns in superb performances on "Once I Had A Sweetheart," "We Shall Overcome" and "Hush Little Baby." Immediate powerful sales indicated here.

"DOWN MEMORY LANE"—Dee Dee Sharp—Cameo 1074

Dee Dee Sharp should make an early trip to chartsville with this power-packed album of oldies delivered in her own feelingful manner. On this set the young lark displays a new depth and vocal maturity that is sure to add to her stature as a performer. Her legions of fans should come out in force for her first-rate treatments of "To Be Loved," "My Prayer," and "For Your Precious Love."

"THE CARDINAL"—Original Soundtrack—RCA Victor LOC1084

Otto Preminger's newest film, "The Cardinal," like many of his earlier films is made more dramatic and impressive by a top-notch musical score. This one was composed by Jerome Moross who is also credited with the scoring of the B'way show "The Golden Apple" and the film "Hans Christian Andersen." His dynamic score diffuses elements of classical, pop and sacred music in a most effective manner. The score ranks with the "Lawrence of Arabia" in scope and beauty. Eye this one for rapid acceptance when the film goes into general release.

"THE SHIRELLES SING THEIR SONGS IN THE GREAT MOVIE 'IT'S A MAD, MAD, MAD, MAD WORLD'"—Scepter 514

The Shirelles, one of the most dominant female vocal groups in the country, provided vocal background for the new Stanley Kramer flick, "It's A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World." On this new Scepter LP outing the gals repeat the tunes they do in the flick plus a swingin' version of the tag tune. Potent sales seem assured with their polished treatments of "You Satisfy My Soul," "31 Flavors" and "Jive Is The Thing."

"CHART BUSTERS — VOLUME 3" — Various Artists — Capitol ST 2006

The label has been extremely successful with the two previous albums in this series, and this new package spotlighting the talents of such currently hot artists as the Beach Boys, Nat King Cole, the Kingston Trio, Al Martino, etc. seems sure to reap loads of loot. Among the best listening bets here are "Treat My Baby Good" by Bobby Darin and "Desert Pete" by the Kingston Trio. Sure-fire chart item.

"MARIA ELENA"—Los Indios Tabajaras — RCA Victor LSP2822

Los Indios Tabajaras cash in on the built-in sales acceptance of their current blockbuster single, "Maria Elena," to tag this album session on RCA Victor. The brothers' approach to the guitar is lyrical, straight-forward and very melodic. Their intricate treatments of such oldies as "Star Dust," "Moonlight Serenade" and "Maria Elena" are refreshing and colorful. This new album could follow its single predecessor to hitsville.

"FLY ME TO THE MOON"—Earl Grant—Decca DL 74454

The versatile Earl Grant has earned countless laurels in the past with his imaginative piano and/or organ stylings and this new Decca set featuring the keyboard stylist utilizing both instruments on a flock of sturdies and newies should provoke immediate consumer response. While backed by a subtle rhythm accompaniment, Grant turns in winning renditions of "More," "Stella By Starlight" and "Over The Rainbow." A deejays delight.

"I'M CONFESSIN' (THAT I LOVE YOU)"—Frank Ifield—Capitol ST 10356

Frank Ifield, who is currently clicking with "I'm Confessin' (That I Love You)," tags this initial Capitol LP session after the tune and includes eleven other highly-listenable selections. The chanter's wide-range, high-powered distinctive vocal style carries him in fine stead on "My Blue Heaven," "Stardust" and "I Don't Know About You." Disk should create loads of excitement.

POP BEST BETS

"THE PHOENIX SINGERS IN CONCERT"—Warner Bros. WS 1522

The Phoenix Singers created quite a stir with their first Warner Bros. release earlier this year and this second edition of their hard-driving brand of pop-folk music cut live at the Shadows in the nation's capitol could well develop into a sales threat. The crew dishes-up top-drawer readings of such favorites as "There Was Time," "Ole Gator" and "Goodnight Irene." Eye the album for rapid acceptance.

"THE BEST OF AL CAIOLA"—United Artists UAS 6310

Over the years Al Caiola has earned a stunning reputation for his distinctive, professional musical stylings but this new UA session containing a bevy of the guitarist's all-time favorite recordings plus a helping of newer selections ranks as one of his best efforts to date. Caiola is in superb form on "The Magnificent Seven," "Bonanza" and "Moon River." Loads of potential here.

"THAT GRIFFIN SOUND"—Kirby Griffin—Columbia CL 2083

Kirby Griffin and the Hammond organ are an inseparable item. Griffin's distinctive melodic, easy-going keyboard approach has earned him many laurels in the past and this new package of sturdies ranks as one of his most impressive performances to date. The organist shines on such fine romantic selections as "Beautiful Ohio," "Meet Me Tonight In Dreamland" and "Love Makes The World Go 'Round." Deejays should flock to the set in droves.

"SANDY NELSON PLAYS"—Imperial LP 9249

West coast drummer boy Sandy Nelson has long been a teen favorite and this new Imperial featuring Nelson rendering a top-notch program a years-back best-selling singles has enough built-in success ingredients to take off quickly. Nelson gives new life to such favorites as "What'd I Say," "All Shook Up" and "Splish Splash." A power-packed entry.

"WE SHALL OVERCOME"—Pete Seeger—Columbia CL 2101

Here's an historic album (cut live at Carnegie Hall) featuring vet folksinger Pete Seeger offering a program of sturdies and topical folk material. From the opening track, "If You Miss Me At The Back Of The Bus," the chanter-guitarist establishes a dramatic contact with the audience which continues throughout the disk. Seeger is superb on "Oh, Freedom," "Guantanamo" and "We Shall Overcome." All of the artist's many fans should really dig the set.

"THAT SAN FRANCISCO BEAT"—Ernie Heckscher—Columbia CL 2086

Proof-positive that easy-going swing-styled dancing music is not dead is this delightful LP spotlighting the Ernie Heckscher aggregation reading a melodic program of popular danceable tunes. The Heckscher baton is aimed at terpsichorean pleasures as he offers top-notch versions of "Days Of Wine And Roses," "Danke Schoen" and "Put On A Happy Face." Fine fare for either dancing or listening pleasure.

"30 HITS OF THE FLAMING 40'S"—Frankie Carle—RCA Victor LSP2594
Here's a package of nostalgia from Frankie Carle boasting a sampling of 30 tunes which made it big during the WWII years. The 88'er has dressed them up in bright new arrangements with a lush ork conducted by Hank Levine. Most of the melodies have held up very well and merit new exposure. Plenty of solid listening pleasure with "Laura," "Taking A Chance On Love," "That Lucky Old Sun" and "Elmer's Tune."

"CARMEN MCRAE LIVE AT SUGAR HILL"—Time S 2104
Carmen McRae's legion of fans should really dig this first-rate set cut live at the Sugar Hill in San Francisco. The lark's bell-clear, wide-range, sensual voice is effectively showcased on a bevy of standards and newies. While backed by a small, jazz-based combo the thrush swings on "What Kind of Fool Am I," "Let There Be Love" and "It Never Entered My Mind." Superior listening throughout.

"1963's MAJOR MOTION PICTURE AND TELEVISION THEMES"—Lionel Newman—20th Century-Fox TFS 4105
Flick and TV themes have been a popular source for LP product and Lionel Newman cashes-in on this trend by offering a delightful program of some of this year's most popular television and film themes. The vet orkster conducts a large band and chorus in superb readings of "It's A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," "Theme From The Lieutenant" and "Call Me Irresponsible" from "Papa's Delicate Condition."

"THE BEST OF WOODY WOODBURY"—Stere-Oddities—MW 6
Woody Woodbury dispenses wit and satire during a series of live performances at the Chart Room of the Bahama Hotel in Fort Lauderdale. Some of the material here was culled from earlier LP's and the remainder is new for this session. The gagster displays an easy-going, off-hand type of humor that readily puts the audience in a good mood. It's strictly adult listening but loaded with fun.

"LIBERTY HOOTENANNY"—Various Artists—Liberty S 6606
This top-flight Liberty pop-folk package boasts a fine collection of the label's folk artists singing both evergreen and new material culled from their recent album releases. On hand for the festivities are such popular performers as Leon Bibb, Bud and Travis, Nancy Ames and the Johnny Mann Singers. There's enough good things here to appeal to a host of folk buffs.

"MR. RAGTIME MEETS MR. HONKYTONK"—Joe "Fingers" Carr/"Big" Tiny Little—Coral 757444
Here's a pleasant intermingling of ragtime and honkytonk by 88'ers Joe "Fingers" Carr and "Big" Tiny Little on Coral. These masters of the tinkling piano serve up some sparkling renditions in this bag of tunes perfectly suited to their keyboard antics. Included here are "Dardanella," "Play A Simple Melody" and "Little Rock Get-away."

"HOOTENANNY"—Various Artists—Aravel AB 1003
Aravel, a new folk-oriented indie, cashes-in on the hootenanny bandwagon with this premiere LP outing boasting such name performers as Pete Seeger, Jack Elliot, Oscar Brand, Jean Ritchie, etc. The disk, which makes use of the "cut live" technique, is enhanced by a dynamic artist-audience rapport on most of the tracks. Best bets here include "Lonesome Traveler" by Pete Seeger and "San Francisco Bay Blues" by Jack Elliot. An impressive entry.

JAZZ PICKS

"ADVENTURES IN BLUES"—Stan Kenton—Capitol ST 1985
For over twenty-two years Stan Kenton has been in the vanguard of experimenters in jazz with his imaginative, creative musical stylings. On this new Capitol offering the orkster-pianist leads his big band in nine first-rate Gene Roland-penned arrangements of formidable items in the blues idiom. The orchestra successfully meets the challenge on splendid versions of "Reuben's Blues," "Blue Ghost" and "Night At The Golden Nugget." Jazzophiles should come out in force for the set.

"BRANDENBURG GATE: REVISITED"—Dave Brubeck Quartet—Columbia CL 1963
Here's an imaginative jazz offering featuring the Dave Brubeck Quartet wailing a number of original German-flavored selections in a setting most conducive to the improvisational forces. The group is in their usual superlative form and they render "Brandenburg Gate," "Summer Song" and "G Flat Theme" with their expected classical-oriented precision. Set seems destined to pull plenty of coin.

"NIGHT TRAIN"—Oscar Peterson Trio—Verve V 8538
Oscar Peterson and his boys, Ray Brown (bass) and Ed Thigpen (drums), unleash their potent musical talents full-blast on this funky, bluesy set from Verve. 88'er Peterson sets the pace for this top-flight session as he leads the boys in a moody rendition of "Night Train." Other notable tracks here are "Georgia On My Mind," "Easy Does It" and "Band Call." One of the best efforts that the crew has cut in quite a while.

"BAREFOOT SUNDAY BLUES"—Ramsey Lewis Trio—Argo 723
The Ramsey Lewis Trio explores a bag of blues-oriented jazz items in highly-stylized fashion on this new offering from Argo. Lewis' very personal trademark is indelibly stamped on each track and his keyboard magic is constantly inventive and refreshing. Melody is never overpowered by technique or gimmickry here as the boys lash out with such flavorful items as "Lonely Avenue," "Don't Even Kick It Around" and "Come On Baby." A first-rate jazz LP.

"TREAD YE LIGHTLY"—Clark Terry—Cameo 1071
Clark Terry's second album outing for Cameo "Tread Ye Lightly," is a session of blues-oriented romps by the band and trumpeter. Terry and crew wrap themselves in a funky atmosphere and sustain it throughout as they feelingfully essay some potent jazz treatments of "Georgia On My Mind," "Misty," "Free And Oozy," and "Lilies of the Field (Amen)." A top-drawer jazz set that should stir up the buffs and spinners.

CLASSICAL PICKS

TCHAIKOVSKY: Symphony No. 5 in E minor, Philharmonia Orch/Klemperer—Angel S36141
Tchaikovsky's sweeping and breath-taking 5th Symphony is dynamically performed by the Philharmonia Orchestra conducted by Otto Klemperer. The conductor's personal and sensitive interpretation effectively captures the spirit of the composer and the first andante (Allegro con anima) is inspiring. The 5th Symphony is a moving composition and this performance soars with excitement and emotional power. A superb classical entry that merits special attention.

"SVIATOSLAV RICHTER ON TOUR"—Deutsche Grammophon SLP18849
Sviatoslav Richter, one of Europe's foremost keyboard artists, was recorded "live" during a recent concert tour during which he surveyed the melodies of Chopin, Debussy and Scriabin. The pianist's forceful and "heavy" technique is emotional and exciting here as he brilliantly performs the "Polonaise-Fantaisie in A flat major," "Ballade No. 4 in F minor," "Jardins sous la Pluie," and "Sonata No. 5 in F Sharp major." An impressive recital with broad appeal.

"Kings Of Comedy"

CHICAGO—The Smothers Brothers, Mercury's "New Kings Of Comedy," who are currently riding the charts with "Think Ethnic," get royal treatment in the above-pictured set of new promotional pieces created by the label as part of the current "Who's Hoot In Folk" plan. A colorful, self-standing window and instore display piece is done as a simulated playing card. Caricatures of the duo replace the traditional king of hearts' face—and as an added attention-getter, the caricatures feature moving eyes. The display also includes full color reproductions of the Smothers Brothers' four album covers, centered in playing cards. Accompanying the display is an actual deck of playing cards—with the artists again substituting for the four kings. As a companion piece, Mercury has prepared a consumer folder designed as a "Smothers Family Album." The 7" square folder includes candid photos of the brothers, the complete story of their careers, and shows the cover of each Smothers LP along with complete descriptive copy on each. On the back, space is provided for the dealer's imprint.

Village Stompers

One of the big records of the year is "Washington Square" on Epic (#7 on this week's Top 100). The deck introduced a new group, the Village Stompers, and created a new music trend called "folk-dixie."

Leader of the group and its trumpet soloist is Frank Hubbell. Prior to joining the Stompers, Hubbell has his own jazz band, called the Sun City Six. Clarinet and saxophone player Joe Muranyi also led his own group, which he called the Gut Bucket Six. Trombonist Dick Brady has appeared with Phil Napoleon, Ralph Marterie and Benny Goodman. Pianist Don Coates has appeared with Wild Bill Davison, Jack Teagarden, Yank Lawson and others. Al McManus, the crew's drummer, also appeared with Pee Wee Russell and Wild Bill Davison. Ralph Casale, guitar and banjo player, has played for such vocalists as Keely Smith and Frances Faye. The group's other guitarist-banjoist is Lenny Pogan, who has gained a reputation as an outstanding music teacher specializing in guitar. Mitchell May, the group's bassist, has appeared with Ralph Flanagan, Teddy Wilson and Richard Maltby.

Ian & Sylvia

Ian and Sylvia, who are currently riding the album charts with "Four Strong Winds" on Vanguard, have been folksinging together since the fall of 1960.

Ian Tyson was born Sept. 25, 1933 in British Columbia. After an education at the University School for Boys on Vancouver Island, and a seven month visit to England, Ian returned to Canada to work in the bush country of B. C. Ian spent several years doing a variety of odd jobs, then he drifted toward a singing career. The artist received his first big break when he met famed English folksinger Roy Guest who helped nurture Ian's interest in folk music. During the late 50's the chanter-guitarist played in key Toronto night clubs and appeared on several nationwide TV shows.

Sylvia Fricker was born Sept. 19, 1940 in Chatham. Coming from a musical family, it was only natural that the youngster should demonstrate an interest in music. Sylvia is a senior matriculant with a full education in music. During the fifties she was singing at banquets, meetings and concerts. About three years ago she met Ian who was so impressed with her work that he insisted that she join forces with him. They've been a team ever since.

Gluck & Darrow Form Master Producing Co.

NEW YORK—John Gluck, writer of a number of teen hits, and Jay Darrow have formed Daruck Productions, an indie producing outfit, this city. First production for the pair is "Hey, Lover Boy" by Violet Rivers, which has just been issued by Decca Records. A second effort, with Diane Castle, will be released by the same label about the first of the new year. Gluck said the firm is currently negotiating with several other companies for other dates just recorded.

Gluck is the author of such clicks as "It's My Party," Lesley Gore's first hit, a number 1 seller, "Lovers By Night, Strangers by Day" by The Fleetwoods, "Punish Her" by Bobby Vee and "Trouble is My Middle Name" by Bobby Vinton.

Gluck and Darrow co-authored "Hey, Lover Boy" and "Don't Say You Love Me" by George Maharis.

Bolger Promos "L'il Elfy"

Flick Music Is Topic of NARAS-UCLA Course

LOS ANGELES—"Motion Picture Music and the Recording Industry" was the topic covered at NARAS-UCLA course here on "The Recording Arts."

Elmer Bernstein chaired the meeting, with co-speakers Bronislaw Kaper, Jay Livingston, Ray Evans, and film mixer Murray Spivack.

Bernstein opened the evening session with an exposition of soundtrack recording, quoting Morris Stoloff's statement that "a motion picture score differs from all other musical scores in that it is heard only once." Bernstein held that, if a film composer is true to his art, then it will be difficult to make a soundtrack album from his score, since the film score is designed to be "invisible" behind a motion picture, while a soundtrack album is designed to be "foreground music."

Bronislaw Kaper felt that the film composer had little to do with the success of an LP soundtrack album; a successful movie creates a successful album. Kaper, who likes the prevalence of soundtrack albums because the composer's music can thus be heard uninterrupted, downgraded the practice of creating albums entitled, for example, "Exodus And Eleven Other Hit Films," as well as the practice of using famous artists as film composers, regardless of their suitability.

Following Kaper, Spivack, who is currently supervising sound recording for "My Fair Lady," detailed the elements of good sound recording for films. Ray Evans then took over on the songwriter's view of the subject, and stated that musical films have come full cycle, through their heydays just after the Second World War, to today's almost total absence of the original film musical. The only room for original songs in today's films is in the creation of title themes or "Moon River"-type dramatically integrated song material, Evans stated.

During the question-and-answer period, Evans explained that one main reason why musical films are "dead" now is that song lyrics are very difficult to translate into European languages, where 50% of film sales occur.

Bernstein capped the evening with his prediction, relevant to the music publishing industry, that he foresees a battle to come over the copyright ownership of film scores being waged between the composer and the motion picture companies.

Ed Warren, Lyricist, Dies

NEW YORK—Lyricist Ed Warren died of a heart attack on Thurs., Nov. 7 in Venice, Italy, where he had been a resident since last Aug.

Warren, who was 44, was the co-author of many songs, including such teen hits as "Adonis," "Take Good Care of Her," "Tonight I Won't Be There." Two current issues with Warren words are Dean Martin's "Sugar Hill" and Julie London's "I'm Coming Back to You."

Warren, a member of ASCAP, was associated with Joy Music for several years, working mostly in collaboration with composer Arthur Kent.

A native Virginian, he moved to New York in 1949 from Atlanta, where he had been writing special material for nitery artists.

A sister, Mrs. John W. Meredith, of Silver Springs, Md., survives.

Wayne Newton Cuts
"Live" LP For Capitol

HOLLYWOOD—Wayne Newton, currently making his nitery debut at the Crescendo, recorded his first "live" album at the nitery last week (15 & 16).

Capitol Records and the chanter's T. M. Music disk producer, Bobby Darin, decided on the "live" format LP following the box-office reaction to the singer's L.A. debut.

Newton has been set to co-headline the Copacabana with Myron Cohen for three weeks in Dec.

Gerardi Exits Chancellor For Indie Prod., Mgmt.

PHILADELPHIA—After a long association with Chancellor Records, Pete Gerardi will be exiting that company in favor of a record production and management firm under his own banner.

During the past seven years, Gerardi has been operations head for Chancellor, Debmar and Rambda, the publishing outlets, and MDB Enterprises, Bob Marcucci's management firm. He was one of the original incorporators of Chancellor with Marcucci and Peter DeAngelis, and was with the firm during the building of Frankie Avalon and Fabian. Gerardi was also the court appointed guardian for Avalon until Sept. of 1961, when the singer reached his majority.

Gerardi now has a record production agreement with ABC Paramount Records and will set up world wide publishing affiliations. He is also partnered with Dom Pino at the Venus Lounge, a prominent Philadelphia restaurant and cocktail lounge, and will be operating temporarily out of the lounge while permanent offices are being set up.

Danny Williams To Cut In U.S.

NEW YORK—Art Talmadge, president of United Artists Records, poses with Danny Williams, young EMI wax star, at the label's New York City headquarters. Occasion was Williams initial visit to the United States where he will be recording for UA and doing a promotional tour through the eastern states. Big buildup is planned for Williams by UA to capitalize on his great success in Europe.

Robertino Coming To U.S.

NEW YORK—Robertino, the young (16) Italian vocalist who has made it big abroad and whose Kapp LP's sell well in the U.S., will make his American debut on Dec. 1. That day, he'll give a matinee p.a. at the Academy of Music in Brooklyn, to be followed in the evening by an appearance at Carnegie Hall.

The artist will arrive here from Italy accompanied by his musical director Otto Francker and will concertize in this country and Canada.

Robertino will have four guest stars appearing on his program, all of them Americans of Italian ancestry. They are Frank Bernardi, singer and emcee; Pola Chapelle, interpreter of folk and modern songs (she cuts for Prestige), Julietta de Luca, soprano, and Salvatore, tenor.

Kate At Carnegie

NEW YORK—Kate Smith recently made show biz history when she appeared Nov. 2 for a one woman show at Carnegie Hall. All of the excitement and drama of the lark's belated debut at the famed showplace have been captured on the RCA Victor LP, "Kate Smith At Carnegie Hall." The label released the package last week.

Lenny's Got A Hit And They're Knockin' On His Door

NEW YORK—After three years of trying for the big one, singer Lenny Welch has come-up with a fat hit in "Since I Fell For You," and he's already beginning to reap the rewards of disk success. Welch, it was reported, is getting a host of p.a. offerings which guarantees him bookings for two years. One hitch is that the performer will soon have to serve in the U. S. Army. The deck, by the way, on the Cadence label, his disk affiliation for the past three years, gets a bullet on the Top 100 this week for its move into the number 20 slot.

Streisand To Make Concert Hall Debut

NEW YORK—Barbra Streisand, who zoomed to the top of the LP charts with her 'Second Barbra Album' on Columbia, will give her first solo concert at the Arie Crown Theater in Chicago on Nov. 29.

The young lark, who will star on Broadway in "Funny Girl," the musical based on the life of Fanny Brice, appeared at the Hollywood Bowl with Sammy Davis Jr. last month, where the duo set new attendance records.

Disneyland Promo Mgr.

HOLLYWOOD—Jimmie Johnson, executive vice-president of Walt Disney Music Co., has announced the appointment of Bob Larsen to the position of national promotion manager of Disneyland Records.

Larsen will continue to serve as Western sales manager for both Vista and Disneyland Records.

Make 2 Pilots Of
New Hoot TV'er

NEW YORK—The first two half-hour pilots of a new folk TV'er, "Hoot 'n Sing," have been produced by Westchester Productions.

Format for the video-taped shows eschews informal off-the-cuff presentation in favor of a prepared show utilizing script, stylized sets, studio lighting effects and ensemble performances.

Initial programs include The Clancy Bros., and Tommy Makem, Judy Collins, The Rooftop Singers, Valentine Pringle and Jim Dooley as host.

Producers are William L. Snyder, head of Rembrandt Films, and Vernon P. Becker, producer of Pathe News.

Steve Venet Joins Col.
As Associate Producer

NEW YORK—Steve Venet, recently appointed by Columbia Records as associate producer, is shown during a wax session with the label's new vocal group The Durettes. Venet was the producer of "That Boy Is Messin' Up My Mind" by the Orchids.

Hickory Makes
2 Distrib Moves

NASHVILLE—Hickory Records has made two distrib changes. Label's new Los Angeles outlet is Diamond Dist., while the Nashville area is now being covered by Southern Record Dist. Latter distrib is also handling the Memphis territory, since the label has dropped its distrib there.

Big 3 Starts Drive On "Prize" Score

NEW YORK—A disk exploitation drive has been launched by The Big 3 (Robbins-Feist-Miller) for its recently acquired score for "The Prize," the upcoming flick.

Push centers on the main-theme, which has been cut by Jerry Goldsmith (cleffer of the music) for MGM, Ronnie Aldrich (London), Eddie Heywood (20th Century-Fox), Clebanoff (Mercury), Eddie Dunstedter (Capitol), Ray Heinsdorf (Warner Bros.), with other diskings set for future release.

Pubbery is scheduling special music editions in coordination with the disk promo.

Rory-O And Pals At St. Jude Benefit

Wallichs Opens 4th Music City Store

HOLLYWOOD—Folks in the great South Bay region in the Los Angeles Harbor Area must be well-aware by now that Clyde Wallichs has opened his fourth Music City store.

To spread the news in the area, Wallichs has a giant 10-day "super community promotion" going designed to reach 500,000 people in cities of South Bay. Store, opened last Fri. (15), is located in the South Bay Shopping Center.

Wallichs has developed a saturation campaign in 11 community newspapers and eight radio stations, to include the cities from San Pedro to El Segundo.

Disk personalities to be on hand during the 10-day period include Kaye Starr, The Lennon Sisters, Dottie Stevens, The Beach Boys, Jack Jones, Jan & Dean, Dick Dale, Bob Crane, emcee, Johnny Prophet, Tim Morgon, Vic Dana, Trini Lopez, Wayne Newton, Bud & Travis, The Surfaris, The Ventures, Gene McDaniels, The Righteous Bros. and Tony Jerome.

MGM Inks New Songster

NEW YORK—New teen songster Jeff Condon has been inked by MGM Records. Condon is accompanying Dick Clark on his new, 31-city package tour. He was dubbed by Clark as his "pick-to-hit" performer. First MGM date for Condon, out this week, is "(Walkin' In) Freddy's Footsteps" and "Never You Mind."

He Sang For His Supper

HOLLYWOOD—Tennessee Ernie Ford (left) displays the special plaque which was awarded to him by Alan W. Livingston (right), president of Capitol Records, last week at a private dinner party in which more than 50 persons joined Livingston in congratulating Ford on his album "Hymns," which has become the largest-selling LP ever recorded by a Capitol artist.

C-P's "Teen Corner" Rack Succeeds

NEW YORK—Cameo-Parkway Records has a winner in its new "Teen Corner" album rack, Herman Kaplan, sales head, reported last week.

The rack, expected to greatly facilitate customer-traffic during the heavy Xmas buying period, is making the re-order grade, Kaplan said. It holds 60 albums, yet takes up only one square foot of floor space. Made of wire, it stands five feet high, with slots holding 10 disks each. Dealers can display six new LP's by the diskery's top-sellers Bobby Rydell, Chubby Checker, Dee Dee Sharp, The Orlons, The Dovells and The Tymes.

Crosby Continues On Reprise Talent Roster

BURBANK—Bing Crosby will continue to cut LP's and singles for Reprise Records, the label said last week.

The announcement was evidently a clarification of Crosby's standing with the label, since it was recently made known by Capitol Records that the vet songster would be making disks for it, too (first release was a Christmas single, "Do You Hear What I Hear").

Crosby joined Reprise as part of the diskery's new musical comedy repertory idea, which features a bevy of the label's top names in re-creations of old musical hits. In addition, additional album and singles projects are currently being discussed with Sonny Burke, Reprise A&R director.

The artist was previously associated with Warner Bros. Records, which recently purchased Reprise, and cut four albums for the label, including a good Xmas seller, "I Wish You A Merry Christmas" and a single-along LP.

End Sabina Distrib Tie With Can-Am

NEW YORK—Sabina Records is no longer being distributed by Canadian-American Records, it was announced last week. Diskery is now operating out of 401 Broadway. Firm has had a number of hits by The Belmonts, among them "I Need Someone," "Come On Little Angel" and "Did-dley-Dee-Dum."

Do English Critics Give U.S. Musicals A Fair Shake?

NEW YORK—Returning from England last week, where the English production of Rodgers & Hart's "The Boys From Syracuse" failed to impress seven out of 10 critics, Richard Rodgers may have started the ball rolling on a public controversy over whether London critics have a built-in prejudice against American musicals.

For decades now, some of America's top musical hits have been imported to England only to receive generally cool if not downright frigid receptions from the overseers of the drama departments of London newspapers.

Shortly after his arrival to New York, Rodgers stated that there was "a general anti-American feeling against American musicals" among English reviewers.

"The Boys from Syracuse" is the 1938 Rodgers & Hart musical which was received to unanimous critical acclaim Off-B'way earlier this year, and may prove one of the all-time successes off the main stem.

Rodgers' musicals, including "On Your Toes," "Pal Joey," "Carousel" and "The Sound of Music," never got far with English critics, but, nevertheless, have succeeded at the box-office.

If the problem comes to a head at this time, it would prove something of an irony. English musical productions have never had it so good in the U.S., with such efforts as "Oliver!", "Stop the World. . ." and "Beyond the Fringe" (a revue) packing them in.

Many American musical hits delight non-English critics and audiences alike even under the burden of translations—a difficult task considering the idiomatic nature of American shows. What gives with English critics, American producers could well wonder, when the same show goes to England where nary a change in a single lyric is required?

Newport Folk Festival Films Up For Sale

NEW YORK—International Talent Associates, Inc., has announced it will negotiate, gratis, the sale of the films made of the Newport Folk Festival. Sponsored by the Newport Folk Foundation, Inc., the affair presented some of the nation's outstanding folk artists.

Bert J. Block, president of ITA, said the sale of the films to television would be high in the six figure bracket and that the monies earned would be used for grants to various artistic endeavors for the furtherment of the folk idiom as an art form.

The three-day festival was filmed for the Foundation's archives, but after editing was found to be ideally suited for TV exposure. ITA offered to act as agents for the sale of the film which features the talents of such folk names as Peter, Paul & Mary, Pete Seeger, Bob Dylan, Joan Baez, The Trappers and many others.

Light To H'wood For Van Dyke Date

NEW YORK—Enoch Light, Command Records' topper, flies to the west coast this week (20) to cut an album with TV-Broadway star Dick Van Dyke. Date, to be held at the United Studios in Hollywood, will mark Light's first west coast recording since he started at Command five years ago.

Cleopatra Labels Names Distrib Line-Up

NEW YORK—Newly-formed Cleopatra Records, based in Hazlet, N. J., has just completed its national distrib setup, according to Tommy Falcone, prexy. In addition, Falcone said that Dave Segal had been named to handle the label's promo throughout Ohio.

Diskery's initial issue is "Hong Kong Baby" and "Physical Fitness Blues" with The Tabby's. Plans call for the release of two singles per month plus an undetermined amount of albums. Two puberry arms for the label are Top Ten Music (BMI) and Cleopatra (ASCAP).

Set Benefit For Jack Crystal

NEW YORK—The Musicians Aid Society is sponsoring a jazz tribute-benefit for the late jazzist Jack Crystal at the Central Plaza, this city, on Dec. 8.

Top jazz performers will be on hand to play at the event, whose proceeds ($3 a ticket) will be donated entirely to Crystal's family.

Musicians will include Jonah Jones, Eddie Condon, Gene Krupa, Wild Bill Davison, Dukes of Dixieland, Ray Bryant, Sol Yaged, Coxy Cole, Village Stompers, Teddy Wilson and many others.

Cavaliers 3

Epic Switches To Indie Distribs In Detroit, Cincy

NEW YORK — Epic Records has named two new distribs for the Detroit and Cincinnati areas. The label and its Okeh affiliate, previously handled by Columbia Records Distributors in both cities, are now being handled by Music Merchants, Inc. in Detroit, and Cleve-Disc in Cincinnati.

Horne's "Hiptionary" Is Marked As Source Of An Off-B'way Satirical Revue

NEW YORK—Elliot Horne's "Hiptionary," recently published by Simon & Schuster, is due to make the scene Off-Broadway in the form of a satirical musical revue.

Eddie Jaffe, the New York publicist, has acquired the dramatic rights to the book, a collection of hip definitions as applied to today's social & political scene, from S&S.

While there's no target date set yet for the debut of the revue (its working title is "Hoorah, Hip, Hip"), author Horne is currently devising sketches and lyrics. Interestingly, it looks at this point that Neil Sedaka, the top teen artist-tunesmith, will supply the music. Sedaka is reportedly interested, and Horne would like to have him as his collaborator, but the deal for Sedaka's services is still in the works (Sedaka is currently in Europe).

Horne, on the promo staff of RCA Victor Records, worked with Jaffe in his publicity office eight years ago.

Vee Jay Handling La Sal Label

CHICAGO — George Worling, president, and Bob Davis, Executive vice president of local-based La Sal Records, have announced that Vee Jay Records has been contracted to handle national distribution for La Sal product. Milt Salstone's M. S. Distributors is the distrib in this area.

Arrangements were made recently during a meeting between Worling, Davis, and Jimmy Bracken, Vee Jay's board chairman.

Burlington Gets "Bimshire" Rights

NEW YORK—Burlington Music (ASCAP), this city, has acquired the world-wide publishing rights to the score of "Ballad for Bimshire," the new Broadway musical whose cast LP goes to market this week (18) via London Records. The entire score is a creation of Irving (Lord Burgess), and contains 19 songs.

RIAA Reports

To the extent that those who perform musical works vary in style and ability, RIAA says, competition for public favor tends to be not so much in terms of one composition against another but rather in terms of one performing artist against another. If artists of different styles and abilities were deprived of the opportunity to perform particular compositions, the public would suffer along with the artists and the owners of record companies, the association says.

"What RIAA fears as the most likely results of the repeal of the statutory license clauses," the report states, "are perhaps more subtle but nevertheless economically pernicious practices within various branches of the entertainment field." RIAA believes this would include the granting of exclusive licensing, the pressure toward vertical integration combining record manufacturing with music publishing, plus exclusive contracts with performing artists and song writers; one company could destroy another's recording artist by withholding the right to record copyrighted material which might happen to be an important part of the artist's live repertoire; plans to issue a long-playing record with up to a dozen separate songs may be wrecked by the inability to secure a license for just one composition; record companies controlling copyrights also would be in a position to exclude competitive records produced in foreign countries by refusing to license them for sale in the United States; leading manufacturers and music publishers could offer special inducements and demand special terms.

"The big would get bigger and the small might well disappear," the RIAA report observes.

Country Package Show Gives A Command Performance In Holland

NASHVILLE—The entire cast of the Town and Country music show which is appearing at the RAI Building in Amsterdam, Holland as a part of the U. S. Food and Agriculture Exhibition gave a command performance there last week for Her Majesty Queen Julianne and Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands.

The command performance marks the first time in history that a Town and Country type show ever played a special performance for royalty. The official flowers and greetings to Her Majesty and Prince Bernhard, from the United States Government, were presented by Bobbi Staff of the show's cast.

Reporting by telephone from Amsterdam, Connie B. Gay, producer of the package, said the show had broken several records and had also established many firsts for the Town and Country type music which is being presented there. The show was the first of its type ever to appear simultaneously live on the Voice of America, Dutch TV, Eurovision, Radio Free Europe, the Armed Forces

Network and the Telestar communication satellite.

Gay said the troupe fulfilled 16 requests for appearances in radio, television and for diplomatic functions on the day they arrived in Amsterdam. Included in the schedule of premiere performances was a special luncheon for Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and a special luncheon party given by the American Ambassador to the Netherlands for United Nations diplomats at The Hague.

The hootenanny type show which is being presented in connection with the U. S. Food and Agriculture Exhibition in Amsterdam is proving to be tremendously successful and overwhelmingly accepted by the many thousands of people who are visiting the exhibition, according to W. E. "Lucky" Moeller, veep and general manager of the Jim Denny Artist Bureau, who is director of the show for Gay.

The entire cast of the Gay's Town and Country show is pictured above at Idlewild International Airport just prior to their departure for Europe.

COUNTRY ROUND UP

KBER-San Antonio, full-time country outlet, recently celebrated its second anniversary with a big Grand Ole Opry at the city's Municipal Auditorium. Headliners for the two performances were George Jones, Jim Reeves, Webb Pierce, Hank Snow, Justin Tubb, Frankie Miller, Uncle Cypre Brasfield plus the added attraction of new Starday artist Glenda

JIM REEVES

HANK SNOW

BUCK OWENS

Raye. The outlet, which is under the direction of owner A. V. Bamford, is the number four station in the metropolitan market.

Johnny Cash, the Tennessee Three, June Carter and their manager, Saul Holiff, are recent returnees from a tour of Ireland and England. Johnny's record of "Forty Shades of Green," of which he is the composer, has already reached the status of a standard in Ireland. According to Holiff, the tour was not only an unqualified success, but the hospitality accorded the show by both the promoter, Bill Fuller, and the Irish people made their trip to this beautiful country the most welcomed and enjoyable experience since they started in the business. Upon Cash's return from Ireland, he visited Nashville to receive a Columbia Gold Guitar Award for sales in excess of 250,000 on the song "Ring Of Fire."

Lee Ross, of KFOX-Long Beach, sends along word that a new country music showplace, the Golden West Auditorium, has just opened up in Norwalk, California. The hall will kick off on Dec. 5 with an all-star show headlining Hank Thompson and The Brazos Valley Boys. The auditorium, which seats over 2000 people and parks over 1500 cars, is dedicated entirely to the presentation of country music. The Dec. artists roster includes such powerful c&w names as Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys, Ernest Tubb, Buck Owens and Rose Maddox. Lee sez any artist or act interested in playing the auditorium should write him in care of the outlet.

KSON-San Diego has just ended its first month as an all-country music station. Owner Dan McKinnon and veep Jim Hensley, state that the station was met with great enthusiasm by the many San Diego country music fans. Eddie Briggs, top-rated west coast country spinner, exited KAYO-Seattle, in order to beef up the strong KSON jock roster. Other deejays on the new southern California country music voice are vet orkster-jock Smoky Rogers, Chuck Owen and Mike Larson.

Slim Williamson, Yonah Music Prexy, sez he has deejay copies available of the following tunes: "Bad, Bad Tuesday" by Tom Tall (Petal), "Roll Up The Streets" by Coleman O'Neal (Sims), "Tarnished Angel" by Veron Stewart (Vee Jay) and "Lonesome Side Of Lonely Street" by Gene Woods (Chart). Interested jocks should write to Slim in care of the pubbery at Box 425, Louisville, Ga.

Deejays and country tradesmen were exposed to a wide-screen, full-color view of country music's newest and perhaps most potent, vehicle of exploitation with the CMA-sponsored premiere showing of the Nashville produced Marathon Pictures feature flick, "Country Music On Broadway." Showing was during the recent Country Music Festival at the Music City's plush Tennessee Theatre located in the heart of the downtown area designated by proclamation from Metropolitan Mayor Beverly Briley as Country Music Broadway. Filmed in Vast-O-Vision and Eastman Color, the movie presents 21 headline country acts. Most previewers felt the flick would reach an audience previously untouched by other forms of country music exploitation such as records and personal appearances.

Buck Owens and his Buckaroos are real busy these days working p.a.'s throughout the southwest. The songster and crew recently wound up engagements in Dallas, Temple, Austin, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Odessa and El Paso.

WTAQ-LaGrange, recently celebrated its lucky 13th birthday with several "pioneer" people still on the microphones after 13 years at the 1300 spot on the dial. Station owner-prexy Chuck Sebastian reports that several staff people rounding the 13 year marker with him include Ralph Paucher, Bill Ward and Vince Essig. WTAQ is virtually the only source for country music across the crowded AM dial in greater Chicago.

Don Pierce, Starday Records topper, infos word that the Willis Brothers will appear in Amsterdam, Holland at the World Trade Fair and Exposition from now through the 24th. The show will consist of eighteen people presenting different styles of music to fifteen free countries in western Europe. The Willis Brothers will represent Nashville and the Grand Ole Opry. The package is produced by Connie B. Gay. While in Holland the boys will record four songs in Dutch to be released in Holland and four songs in German to be released in Germany by Starday affiliates. After the Amsterdam engagement, Vic Willis will journey to Hamburg, Germany and London to call on foreign representatives of Starday Music. Vic is general professional manager of the Starday Music catalog.

Vet indie promo man Walt Breeland out of Houston Texas has spinner copies available on the following decks: "You Took My Happy Away" by Willie Nelson, "How Long" by Clay Allen, "I'll Always Love You" by Wiley and Jessie Barkdull, "Rose City Chimes" by Bobby Garrett and "The Fallout" by Eddie Noack.

James Hensley sends along word that everything is going great guns on KSON-San Diego, California, the city's first and only country station. However, Jimmy sez he is in dire need of better record service.

Buck Owens is currently up on cloud number 9. The Capitol songster, who is holding down the #1 position with "Love's Gonna Live Here," is enjoying the hottest period of his career. Buck's previous release also reached the top spot on the country charts.

Congrats are in order to vet country music personality Roy Dee. Roy was recently given the green light as program director of WFMX-Staresville, North Carolina, an all-country outlet.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"MY MOM AND SANTA CLAUS" (2:33) [Cedarwood BMI—Beavers]

"LONELY CHRISTMAS CALL" (2:25) [Glad BMI—Jones, Riddle]

GEORGE JONES (United Artists 530)

Jones, who is presently scoring with two teamings-up with Melba Montgomery, is a sure bet to reach the charts in no time flat with this delightful Yuletide offering called "My Mom And Santa Claus." The tune is an extremely fast-moving chorus-backed novelty with that money-in-the-bank sound. "Lonely Christmas Call" is a slow-moving, easy-going bluegrass-styled lament also with a Xmas theme.

"BIG CITY GIRLS" (2:24) [Four Star BMI—Knight]

"SPEAK TO ME" (2:13) [Samos Island BMI—Zanetis]

CARL BELEW (RCA Victor 8270)

Carl Belew always puts up a first-rate show and this new Victor release is no exception. The top side here, "Big City Girls," is a rousing, chorus-backed novelty type ditty with enough good things in it to score heavily. The attractive coupler, "Speak To Me," is an easy-going chorus-backed lament with an extremely pretty melody.

"LAST DAY IN THE MINES" (2:07) [New Keys BMI—Key]

"LAST YEAR'S HEARTACHES" (2:00)

[Raleigh BMI—Singleton, Kilroy]

DAVE DUDLEY (Mercury 72212)

Dave Dudley, who is currently scoring with "Six Days On The Road" on Golden Ring, should go a like success route with this Mercury bow tagged "Last Days In The Mines." The side is hard-driving folk-styled lament with a catchy, pulsating beat. Tune has a pop chance. "Last Year's Heartaches" is a slow-moving, shuffle-beat weeper with warm honk tonk-flavored melody.

"MR. FOOL" (2:25) [Glad BMI—Edward, Treece, Jones]

"ONE IS A LONELY NUMBER" (2:25) [Starrite BMI—Jones]

GEORGE JONES (Mercury 72200)

The vet country hit-maker seems sure to reap plenty of loot with this top-flight item tagged "Mr. Fool" cut during his days with Mercury. The tune is a slow-moving, melodic weeper about a guy whose unhappy because of a romantic involvement. The flip, "One Is A Lonely Number," is a medium-paced, bluegrass-styled tear-jerker read with poise by Jones.

"TOOTSIE'S ORCHID LOUNGE" (2:34) [Pamper BMI—Howard]

"GO ON HOME" (2:22) [Pamper BMI—Cochran]

HANK COCHRAN (Liberty 55644)

Hank Cochran seems to have a success candidate with this bright Liberty outing tabbed "Tootsie's Orchid Lounge." The Harlan Howard-penned tells a romantic saga about the famed after-hours Nashville hangout. Plenty of potential here. The flip, "Go On Home," is a romantic chorus-backed country lament with a fine spinnable sound.

LES CUNNINGHAM (Decca 31536)

(B+) "A WHOLE LOT OF NOTHING" (2:00) [Champion BMI—Anderson, Crutchfield] Les Cunningham could have a quick hit on his hands with this rousing, chorus-backed happy blueser in the tradition-oriented hillbilly vein.

(B) "WHO IS THE BIGGEST FOOL" (2:20) [Moss-Rose BMI—Anderson] Slow-moving, tender, romantic waltzer dished up with authority by Cunningham.

LARRY EDWARDS
(Shenandoah 105)

(B+) "CAN I HELP IT" (2:24) [Green Pine BMI—Edwards] Larry Edwards could grab some quick spins with this fast-moving, bluegrass-styled opus which effectively makes use of the dual-track technique. Eye it.

(B) "LITTLE ROSA" (3:20) [Cedarwood BMI—Sovine, Pierce] Slow-moving hillbilly traditional essayed with feeling. Deck boasts a moving, mid-deck recitation.

MEXICO

BELGIUM

After many months of performances in several South American countries, especially in Argentina, Mexican singer Dyno is back. Dyno will do new recordings at Gamma Records and will return in February to Argentina, the city which he fell in love with, and he may settle there in the future. Dyno's first long play at Gamma will be released very soon.

While Lucho Gatica flew to Buenos Aires to fulfill some contracts, his wife Mapyta Cortéz gave birth to a daughter, which is the second girl and the third child. Before leaving, Lucho recorded a new long play for Musart Records and he is planning, for next year, to do a long season of performances around the whole country.

Pianist Carmen Cavallaro arrived in town to make 10 performances at the Terrazza Cassino and do two or three TV shows. Carmen came with his combo.

Connie Francis' Spanish record versions are getting more popular in México. Among them, the most listened to are "Gracias" and "Todo El Amor Del Mundo." It is marvelous the wonderful accent Connie has learned in her last recordings.

Folk song "El Lechero" which is one of the most popular sellers now has been recorded at RCA in rock and roll version by Los Matemáticos, a new group.

A new TV jazz show (video-tape) appeared with Stan Getz, Count Basie, Carmen MacRae, Teddy Wilson and others.

"El Llanto Del Siglo" (The Cry Of The Century) and "Filósofo" (Philosopher) are the names of the new recordings made by Enrique Guzmán at CBS, with the orchestra support and arrangements of Chuck Anderson. Enrique is still the most popular young singer in town.

The 11 Zavala Brothers made their debut in theater, having as main part of their show, a song played with 11 pianos, that is, each of them plays one. Magda Zavala, a member of the group will introduce two of her own compositions named "Recuerdo Del Danubio" (Souvenirs Of The Danube) and "Nunca Te Olvidaré" (I Will Never Forget You).

South American singers Sonia and Miriam recorded again at RCA, the songs "Me Haces Pensar" (You Make Me Think) composed by Toronji and "Una Sola Palabra" (One Lonely Word) by Rubén Fuentes.

Musart Records' new release with Antonio Prieto is his latest recording made in Argentina and is named "Nada Mas Que El Amor" (Just Love) and "Llueve En Mi Alma" (It Is Raining In My Soul). There is a rumor that Antonio Prieto, Mariano Mores and some other people will start their own label.

Mexican vocal group Los Ruffino returned from Buenos Aires and after a few days in town, they flew to the United States (Los Angeles and Las Vegas). Los Ruffino are preparing new recordings for Peerless Records.

Italian singer Lorenza Lori recorded at RCA the songs "Todos Los Chicos Y Las Chicas" (All The Boys And Girls) and "Chiao." Lorenza is making theater and TV performances.

María Félix and Agustín Lara, the two very popular artists in México, signed contracts to perform in California. María Félix, the beautiful Mexican actress will do, in her debut as a singer, Lara compositions.

From the German Federal Republic, we received the visit of Hans Bayer, who is information chief and who visited our TV studios. Hans left town to visit Guatemala.

A new disk jockey convention is taking place in the Mexican capital, with the assistance of Humberto Velázquez from Perú, Myrzo Barroso from Brazil, Jorge Hochmann from Bolivia, Carlos Machado from Argentina, Ricardo García from Chile, Clemente Vargas from Venezuela, Juan Manuel Tabares from Panamá, José Luis Barascou from Guatemala, Raúl Matas from Spain, Ivan Silva from Washington, Bernardo Hevia from New York and Teddy Fregoso from California.

Mexican trio Los Tres Caballeros was invited to assist in the next Italian music festival in San Remo. Los Tres Caballeros records for Musart Records.

9. Demain Tu Te Maries (Patricia Carli/Bel Air/Peter Plum)
10. Il A La Truc (Les Gams/Philips)

Peter Plum, managing director of the music-publishing firm of this name, and also artistic director of the now independent Barclay set-up, has brought us in contact with wellknown French performer Charles Aznavour. We met him in Brussels and he told us he will again appear in Carnegie Hall soon. Aznavour is popular in many European countries, including Belgium. Shortly he will perform at Antwerp. When he comes back to Brussels again he will be the star attraction for four weeks running at the same place. He will have a part in a new film called "Yes 8 Cavaliers Maudits" and a new hit "La Mamma" is due. This little fellow is undoubtedly a great artist with a strong personality. He has a reputation of not being too friendly with the press but this time he submitted himself gracefully to protracted questioning. He will without doubt get a triumphant reception while appearing in Brussels and Antwerp.

Adamo has been great while appearing at the Ancienne Belgique in Brussels the last few days. Previously he had drawn big crowds while on a ten day tour of Belgium with Petula Clark. He traveled to Milan with his personal manager Robert Bylois. Personal appearances and recordings were discussed over there. This Sicilian has become one of the favorites with Belgian audiences. Soon his new single will be out; it is called "Car Je Veux" (Pathé).

Paul Anka has started his Belgian tour at the Royal Circus in Brussels. He has practically worn himself out during a whole hour before an enthusiastic audience. His success was somewhat unexpected as his reputation had somehow declined the last two years. People went home highly satisfied. Also appearing in this show were the Los Machucambos Trio and the French sextet that calls itself Les Célibataires. They really have got class and we were really impressed with their performance. They are well on their way to the top. After the show, Paul Anka told us he was very satisfied with his comeback in Belgium.

Polydor has come out with an LP featuring the soundtrack of the Freddy Quinn-Jayne Mansfield movie, "Heimweh Nach St.-Pauli." A fine example of technical performance and musical quality. Flemish records by John Larry, showing "Alleen" on one side is a great success and this also applies to Bob Benny's second popular single.

Will Tura has produced his first LP for Palette. Excellent work and a disk that is sure to sell well.

We predict a fruitful career to Peter Mestdagh's first record with CBS. It features "Dashboard Lieve Vrouwke" and "De Barmhartige Samaritaan(se)." The former number is sure to make it to the top. Father Mestdagh is a very popular figure in Flanders and his followers are also to be found among non-believers. The EP by Jackie Delmone also seems to have started well. This too is a product of CBS-Belgium.

Philips is very happy about the news that Belgian nun Soeur Sourire is now on the American hit parade with her French hit "Dominique." This is a rather exceptional phenomenon and nobody in Belgium seems to be able to explain it. Soeur Sourire is a likeable but very shy nun who keeps dodging photographers.

This is the reason why so far no pictures have been made of her. Soeur Sourire is still at the Louvain university but lives in a Dominican convent at Fichermont near Brussels. She is very happy with the news of her record and its success in America. She is now busy with new compositions and apparently inspiration comes quite naturally. Her spiritual outpourings are genuine musical gems.

Vogue is now on the market with a single by The Limelites, featuring "Malaguna Salerossa" on side A. This is an idea of managing director Roger Meylemans who lifted it out of their "Folksongs" LP. This record is bound to break through.

Show records told us that the recent recording by Carlos Montero, "Adios Amor/Pedro El Mexicano," is on its way to the Top Ten in Belgium. A number of foreign firms have shown interest for this number. They expect a lot of the latest hit record cut by Chubby Checker called "Loddy Lo." Show Records is to produce a new recording of Mina soon. A new take by The Orlons, "Cross Fire/It's No Big Thing," has appeared together with Bobby Rydell's latest hit "Let's Make Love Tonight" and "Childhood Sweethearts." Toppers with Show are: "Giddy Up" (The Crazy Rockers), "Ein Traum Wird Wahr" (Alberto Cortez), "Adios Amor" (Carlos Montero), "I'm Gonna Try Once Again" (Jerry Williams and The Violents), "Twist And Shout" (Chubby Checker), "Heat Wave" (Martha and the Vandellas), "La La La La La" (Stevie Wonder) and "Mickey's Monkey."

E. Garin, SA Gramophone's commercial manager, wrote us from Paris where he attended the latest Gilbert Bécaud show at the Olympia. Bécaud has in fact appeared at this wellknown Paris music hall for eleven years running and he has once more reaped an enormous success. Backstage Garin met Claude Nougaro, who is still walking about on crutches, Alain Barriere, Dick Rivers, Richard Anthony (who will be star performer at Olympia from Nov. 7 onwards). Gilbert's songwriters, Maurice Vidalin, Louis Amade and Pierre Delanoe were there to share in his triumph.

While talking to staff members of Pathé Marconi there has been question of future appearances in Brussels of Richard Anthony, Dick Rivers and Gilbert Bécaud. Garin also contacted agents of Ria Bartok and Alice Dona and it is possible they will appear before the cameras of Belgian TV. The latest super by Richard Anthony, titled "Tchin Tchin" (French language version of "Cheat Cheat") is on its way to becoming a hit in France as well as in this country. And last not least: Franck Pourcel's volume Nr. 5 of his "Pages Célèbres" is to come out this month.

The publishing-house Brauer reported that Les Editions Mellin have the rights of "Cry Baby," "Cry To Me," "Surfer Girl," "Little Deuce Coupe," "There Goes My Heart Again" and "Song For Rosemary," the last ones by Fats Domino. The edition Vedette owns "Blowin' In The Wind," "Ne Perds Pas La Tete," "Ah, Dis Moi," "Elle Est Trop Loin" and "It's All In The Game." Brauer controls: "Bambola" by Peter Alexander and even the hit songs of Peppino de Capri: "Nustalgia," "New York" and "Madison Time."

We have been informed by Mr. Darlier that Nicole Josy has won herself the Oscar of achievement in Italy soon after her record featuring "La Vita Sei Tu" and "Eh Teenagers Eh" came out. The sale of lady crooner Josia Isby's latest record is going very well. It features "Le Jour Ou Je Pourrai Danser" and "Buona Notte." Also going strong is Lou Pascal's hunters' song called "La Chasse."

HOLLAND

Erroll Garner's "One World Concert," recorded live at the Seattle World Fair, was released this month in Holland in an Octave-Philips co-production. The sales are supported by a large commercial campaign for Dutch record-dealers like window-displays and special ads. Garner came to Holland Nov. 9th, for personal appearances on Dutch TV. On the same date, Mercury's Jazz-saxophonist Roland Kirk visited Holland for a one-night-concert at the Amsterdam Concert-Hall, Nov. 10th. The concert was very successful. As Cash Box was informed by Kirk's record-company Phonogram, Kirk recordings like "We Free Kings," "Donine" and "Reeds and Deeds" are selling well.

The death of Edith Piaf has caused a strong demand in Europe for the recordings that made her famous in her early career. Under the title "Les Grandes Chansons d'Edith Piaf," Philips has released here an album with such historic Piaf recordings as "Mon Legionnaire," "L'accordeoniste" and "C'est Toujours La Meme Histoire." The album finds a ready market in Holland, where Piaf was very much beloved.

On Nov. 5th Phonogram welcomed invited German TV-producers to the Singer Concert Hall at Laren, Holland. Phonogram's P.R.O. Jaap Stamer was host and introduced Dutch vocal top-talent to the producers of Freies Berlin, the W.D.R. and the N.W.D.R. The intention was that producers and talent should meet to discuss the possibilities for TV-appearances in Germany. Among the Dutch artists were Ria Valk, Anneke Grönloh, Rob De Nijs, & The Lords, Johnny Lion & The Jumping Jewels and the newly discovered tenor Willy Caron. Mr. Stamer told Cash Box that the contact had resulted in several excellent contracts. He added that Germany shows a growing interest for Dutch musical talent, and he pointed out that the latest TV-appearance of The Blue Diamonds in Germany had resulted in a tremendous sale of "Sukyaki" in the German version.

Bovema's Columbia-label is about to release Edith Piaf's memorial-album "Je Me Souviens Edith Piaf," featuring 10 of her biggest hits. Other highlights in the books are Cliff Richards' Spanish sing-hit "Maria Nomas" and Frank Ifield's new version of "Mule Train."

In Holland Stateside now has 3 vocal groups of significance on the record scene: The Shirelles, doing fine with their "What Does A Girl Do?" The Chiffons (A Love So Fine) and the Four Seasons, hitting upon their "New Mexican Rose."

Bovema's Atlantic-label, this week, rushed out the No. 1 U.S. Hit-Parader "Deep Purple" by the singing duo April Stevens-Nino Tempo. Further jazz items by The Jazz Messengers, Erroll Garner's Trio and Herbie 'Bossa Nova' Mann have been entering the charts.

Gramophonehouse's Imperial-label still receives many demands for Imca Marina's popular "Lass Mein Herz Nicht Weinen." She will be the star of the Viennese "Leute von Heute"-show on Nov. 23rd, which will be broadcast to other countries.

Other Imperial-artists were featured on Dutch TV last week: Comedian-singer Henk Elsink enrolled his 3rd TV-Show and Rita Corita was one of the stars of the great musical-show "A Star Is Falling" last weekend.

The Hootenanny Show, a hit in the United States, presented in Europe for the first time at the American Food and Agricultural Exhibition in the RAI building, Amsterdam, from Nov. 7th to the 24th. Eighteen American artists are presenting the show, which is being directed by Connie B. Gay, a former official of the American Department of Agriculture. Artists include Katherine Comas, Fred Benko, Mary Klick, Bobby Staff, Obrey Wilson, Elton Britt, Duc Howington, the Willis Brothers and the Tennessee Haymakers.

Artone's subsid Funckler Records is working overtime to meet the terrific demand for Trini Lopez' Reprise etchings. Helped by his outstanding performance at the annual Grand Gala Du Disque—for which event the Dallas-born singer and drummer-sidekick Mickey Jones were flown over by local Reprise exec Pete Felleman. Trini is now the 1 record personality in the Benelux with sales of "If I Had A Hammer" well over six figures and his "Trini Lopez At P.J.'s" album the hottest LP on the market. Additional releases already in the bestselling brackets: a two-sided reading of "La Bamba" on a single and a special Lopez EP which includes "Hammer," "Bye Bye Blackbird" and a medley of two standards.

Frank Sinatra's brand new 1963-recorded Reprise version of his inimitable classic "Nancy" (originally waxed some eighteen years ago for CBS) was released on a single last week in Benelux by Artone's subsid Funckler, with strong reaction as an immediate result.

Tune was extracted from Frank's latest album "Sinatra's Sinatra" which shall be issued locally later in Nov. "This one is going to outsell everything 'The Voice' did so far—including the highly successful "Sinatra-Basie" album," said Pete Felleman.

Another Benelux release on Funckler is Louis Prima's new reading of the oldie "Angelina," the first single the New Orleans-born vet vocalist and hornman waxed for his own label. Fact is, that five years ago, his Capitol recording of "Angelina" was a smash locally.

The Best in Britain... Bens

GREAT BRITAIN

The Beatles epidemic continues to sweep the country as more and more people are bitten by the bug. Latest victims, the notoriously staid audience at the Royal Command Performance. Despite a star studded cast it was Britain's beat boys who stopped the show. The same week saw them on the front page of the equally staid Financial Times. The national daily reported that, due to the fantastic demand for The Beatles' records, EMI's entire production resources were being marshalled to meet the mounting orders superimposed on factories already working to capacity to meet peak seasonal demands. Since their first disk "Love Me Do" left the presses in October 1962 well over 2,000,000 Beatles singles have been sold and an advance of over 700,000 awaits their fifth and latest single "I Want To Hold Your Hand" scheduled for November 29. With a week to go the advance for their second L.P. "With The Beatles" already stands at the all-time high of over a quarter million.

The celebrated BBC TV duo "Steptoe & Son" also received a tremendous ovation from the Royal Party with their sketch "Steptoe & Son At Buckingham Palace." Pye recording engineers taped the act and the disk was rush-released on the day following the show's presentation on TV. All proceeds from the record are being donated to the Variety Artistes Benevolent Fund.

From the L.P. "Buddy's Back In Town" EMI issued Buddy Greco's "This Could Be The Start Of Something" on Columbia. Buddy, recently in town for The Royal Command Performance, spent a few hectic days recording several TV and radio spots including "Thank Your Luck Stars" to be screened by ABC TV December 7. Buddy deputised in the Royal Show for jazz pianist Erroll Garner.

M.D. Harold Geller, formerly with Dominion Music, has launched his own Lynn Music at 142, Charing Cross Road. As well as publishing interests the firm has its own independent recording set-up under the direction of Duncan Storri. Lynn Music will specialise in a pop catalogue and its first release is "The Big Bird" by pianist Des Champ, on Parlophone.

"Maria Elena," the Latin-American standard which has been hitting hard in America looks as if it will soon be in the British charts with the Los Indios Tabajaras waxing on RCA. From his album "50 Guitars Go South Of The Border" Liberty's Tommy Garrett has a single track of the number released here.

American singer Gene Pitney, now in this country on his first visit making a tour of ballrooms, made his British TV debut on A-R TV's "Ready Steady Go" November 15. Several radio and TV spots have been set including a "Thank Your Lucky Stars" on November 23. His latest disk which is currently very high in the American Top 100 "Twenty Four Hours From Tulsa" is issued here on United Artists.

Carl Foreman's "The Victors" opens here November 19 and the big theme song penned by Sol Kaplan "My Special Dream" is published by Chappell. Recordings of the number are being lined up. Meantime the soundtrack album, which contains a track by Frank Sinatra, is released on Colpix. Other Chappell news is that Planetary Kahl has the latest Ruby And The Romantics, "Young Wings Can Fly"; Edwin Morris is hoping for big things with "I Wonder What's She's Doing Tonight" by Barry and the Tamberlanes on Warner Bros. and Delfont Music is all set for big Christmas sales with Harry Secombe's Philips recording of "That's What I Like For Christmas" from the musical "Pickwick." Another Christmas number "Christmas Dinner Country Style" by Bing Crosby on Capitol is published by Compass Music.

Owing to a copyright mix-up in the States, the David Shire-Bob Golstein number "Washington Square" has passed from K.P.M. Music to Chappells. The original American recording by The Village Stompers is already issued here on Columbia as is the British cover by Kenny Ball on Pye. Now Chappells are seeking to get British release for two American versions by The Kirby Stone Four (Warner Bros.) and The Ames Brothers (Epic).

Pye Records is currently enjoying considerable success in the singles, EP and LP charts. They are particularly strong in the LP field this week having 55 per cent of the Record Retailer Top Twenty and 50 per cent of the Cash Box Top Ten.

"The Little Drummer Boy" is always sure of good sales around Christmas time and several top names have recorded the number. However, it is actually a Czechoslovakian folk tune which has now been recorded by The Countrymen on Piccadilly under its correct title "Carol Of The Drum." Copyright controlled by B. F. Wood.

"Just Like Eddie," penned by Geoff Goddard as a tribute to the late Eddie Cochrane, recorded by Heinz and published by Southern Music, met with great success both here and on the continent. Now the same team hopes to repeat its success with a follow-up disk "Country Boy." Heinz is booked to make his first overseas trip on December 27 when he visits Sweden and possibly Denmark. His first LP as yet untitled, is set for February release.

Following his world tour, Kenny Ball and his Jazzmen will make their fourth visit to Germany on March 14 followed by first ever dates in Switzerland March 22. Negotiations are in hand for Kenny to tour Japan and Scandinavia later in 1964.

Another publishing company to enter the independent recording field is Bron Music which has set up D. B. Productions Ltd. with A & R manager Gerry Bron and M.D. Syd Dale. First issue on Philips is by Jackie And The Raindrops with a Bron copyright, "Down Our Street." A new group discovered by D. B. Productions is The Space Travellers and deals have been set for their release in E.P. form throughout the continent. Publishing wise Bron have "Gee, What A Party" recorded by Teddy Green on Piccadilly and Michael Cox on H.M.V. "Gee, What A Party" was penned by The Avons whose recent successes include "Dance On" (The Shadows and Kathy Kirby) and "In Summer"—a hit for Billy Fury.

Decca has issued a further nine RCA Dynagroove LPs' this month bringing the total so far released to 19. Current releases include Sam Cooke, "Night Beat"; Perry Como, "The Songs I Love"; The Limelitters, "Fourteen 14K Folk Songs" and "Great Scenes From Porgy And Bess" by Leontyne Price and William Warfield.

Three versions of "It Comes And Goes" are now available. Burl Ives (Brunswick); Big Pete Deuchar (Fontana) and British husband-and-wife team Miki and Griff on Pye. World Wide Music owns the copyright.

Joe Brown's Piccadilly recording of "The Ukelele Song" has run into trouble again. Banned by the BBC from the Billy Cotton TV Show, ITV has now blue-pencilled it for any of their programs. This, despite the fact that the commercial channel was the first to screen the star's summer show featuring "The Ukelele Song," which sparked off interest and forced Pye to issue the disk. The number is a modern version of a George Formby favorite.

Quickies: American song-writer Burt Bacharach in London coincidental with the release of "Don't Envy Me" by George Hamilton IV on MGM . . . Publisher Wesley Rose expected in town November 17 for talks with London publishing house . . . "Like You Used To Do" latest disk by Maureen Evans on Oriole published by Francis Day & Hunter . . . First British release by The Brandywine Singers "Summer's Come And Gone" on Pye International.

FRANCE

Let's first of all start off by talking about the festival program this week. First off, the debuts of Françoise Hardy and Richard Anthony at the Olympia Music Hall. Must mention the success obtained by Gilbert Becaud who should have ended his run on October 22nd, but due to his triumph was extended for a further two weeks.

Another event was the cocktail offered by the prexy Meyerstein on the occasion and reason the tenth anniversary of Brassens songs. Decidedly this year seems to be the year for Brassens and his songs. We can't say enough about this singer who has served the French song market so well and Philips at the same time.

Let's now mention the novelty releases and we must admit that this time we have been pleasantly spoiled. First of all an excellent disk by the Marcelos Ferrial who sings in French this time, and in particular the adaptation of "Agua" which now becomes "A Boire." Still with Vogue, Micky Ameline, sings "La Dance Ou l'on S'enlace" while Petula, a little in advance, sings "Noel." This includes the usual classical songs such as "Minuit Chretien," "Il Est Né Le Divin Enfant," with a delicious English accent. A new electrical guitar group Les Aigles offer "Come On Baby." We find Jacques Ary and the high Société Orchestra with an excellent E.P. called "Plaza del Toro." While on the Vogue chapter let's point out that President Cabat is not taking a trip this week. J. J. Debout, the young singer who has sufficient talent perhaps to break through, has learned a good lesson with his latest troubles. He is returning to Vogue for a new period of three years. We can say that this is his last chance, and he should make the best of it if he wants to be a big star. We have not received any news this week from Barclay, it seems that we must anticipate a big series of novelty releases scheduled for next week. Among these perhaps we will find Charles Aznavour with "Mama," which is played quite frequently on the Europe No. 1 wavelength and we admit this is an excellent song. Bel Air has just sent off to us two E.P.S. One by Albert S. Santoni with "Les Amants desunis" and the other by Orlando called "Crier Plus Fort."

An effort is being made by Bel Air to give to Robert Trabucco his chance as a singer. His first titles are "Le Metallo" and "Je Suis Un Roturier." Salvador has just sent to us the latest recording by the Bretels, Four American tunes adapted, very funny indeed, just to mention one "Watermelon Man." The reaction of Salvador as director of a record company seems to be the opposite of Salvador, the author, who often professed bitterness on the subject of the adaptation of American songs. We prefer the A & R man in place of the author. From Festival an E.P. by Jean Amani, "Vivre Ou Mourir."

Let's now talk about Philips, and a special mention towards the E.P. from Charles Dumont who is a composer and who at one time was the favourite composer of the late Edith Piaf, in spite of this he never gained the place of a star. There was a disk on the E.M.I. label, one side reserved for Piaf and the other side for Dumont, but this hardly saw the dawn of day. Until one day Jean Pierard, the young and dynamic editor of the publishing firm Tutti, decided to make a particular effort for Dumont. Let's have confidence in Pierard for giving a good chance to Dumont, because after Pierard and Piaf there is very little to add on this subject.

On the Mercury label (from series Magic du Son) a very good disk by Byron Janis, "Two Concerti For Piano and Orchestra." Janis is accompanied by the Philharmonic orchestra of Moscow. This is worth mentioning. In another category, and still on the Mercury label an LP by Pierre Michelot "Round About A Bass." Also an LP from the original soundtrack of the musical score from the film "Dragée Au Poivre." And to terminate with Philips or rather Fontana, lets mention a new album by Nana Mouskouri, "Mes Plus Belles Chansons Grecques."

Wolfsohn has just discovered a very young songstress called Stella. He doesn't want to divulge anything about his discovery. On the other hand he wants to talk about Françoise Hardy, and her new album that Vogue has just released on the French Market, the best title in our opinion seems to be "J'aurais Voulu" by Hardy.

Must point out the immense success obtained by the sale of records from the late Edith Piaf repertory. The newspaper Nouveau Candide states this as No. 1 in France, actually, we are speaking about the ensemble of her repertory. This paper also mentions that the Trini Lopez recording of "If I Had A Hammer." is classed among the ten best sellers in France. Claude François who lies in wait for a future hit has just grooved this in French "Si J'avais Un Marteau."

STOCKHOLM—The Caravelles, who are clicking all over the world with "You Don't Have To Be A Baby To Cry" (on Smash in the U.S.), recently stopped in Stockholm for p.a.s and TV appearances. # GERMANY

One of the most unusual artists to hit the German record market is England's Cliff Richard. Although Cliff is certainly England's number one male teenage star, this does not necessarily lead to a success here especially in the German language. What makes Cliff unusual is the fact that he has only made 2 records in German spaced 2 years apart and both have been smash hits. His first German language record made in 1961 sold close to 100,000 records, but no followups came. The second record now on the market has only one side sung in German, but it has moved from nowhere to the top 10 last week and this week it's in the number 4 slot and will probably hit the top in the weeks to come. Another unusual feature is the fact that the public in central and south Germany have not had much chance to really listen to Cliff in English. In west and north Germany in the former British zones, BFN (British Forces Network) have broadcast Cliff's hits in England, but in central and south Germany where AFN (American Forces Network) pushes out the U.S. hits, Cliff was basically unknown. Due to his sparse but excellent work in the German language, he has developed into top star material in this market which is certainly just the first step in a bright international career for this young talented artist. Many artists, even stars, could well follow his example as to how records should be made for the German market.

Metronome Records has released a parody on Madame Nhu in German sung by Korean lass Lilifa. The firm also welcomes the visit here of Scandinavian stars Nina and Frederik for TV shots.

Rolf Budde reports that his firm is working hard on the first Rita Pavone German discing for Teldec. They also have new records in the works in German from Peter Paul and Mary and The Everly Brothers. The publishing house also has two new versions of the Shadows hit "Dance On," one in English by Kathy Kirby and one in German by Wyn Hoop, both for Teldec.

Michael Arends of Arends Music reports that Metronome star Rainer Berttram has recorded two top C&W tunes, "Be A Good Girl" and "Little Bitty Blue Abernathy Nathan Allen Quincy Jones" in German. The songs were originally done by Leroy Van Dyke and Sheb Wooley.

Theodor O. Seeger of Peer Music recently was visited by publisher and editor David Gornston from the U.S. during his European trip. At the meeting, business affairs were discussed.

Ralph Maria Siegel reports 3 swinging new discs in German of C&W tunes in his catalogue. Chris Baldo has done the German version of "Abilene" for Teldec, Mal Sondock has done the German waxing of "I Can Mend Your Broken Heart" and Elias Glas has waxed "She Loves The Love I Give Her" also in German.

Paul Siegel reports that his tune "Autumn Concerto" by Paul Chesterton and his orchestra which was also produced for Teldec by Paul has been released in the USA by London Records.

Heino Gaze's right hand gal Sabine Specht reports that Heino has had plenty of visitors lately. Reg Owen, English band leader, and composer dropped in as did English publisher Fred Jackson and Mr. Acker Bilk. Nat Shapiro from Columbia Records was also a recent guest of Heino's. Of course, each went away with some new "Gaze" compositions. Heino has several new international hits working for him. The "Berliner Polka" has been recorded in France by Maurice Chevalier and in the USA, "Blue Concerto" with Hugo Winterhalter, "Fiesta" with Lawrence Welk and "My Paradise" with Christopher Monte are all released. Publishing wise the firm is working hard on "Little Eefin' Annie" and several other international hits and Gaze numbers in Germany. Sabine just returned from trips to London where she met with Mr. Bron of Decca, Dick James, Norrie Paramor, Peter Maurice Music and Ambassador Music and Paris where she had meetings with Dr. Rolf Marbot, Francis Baxter, the lyric writer Salvat and Chappell Music as well as Edition Pigalle. Several numbers were sub-published from Heino Gaze and new numbers were acquired for their Song Edition publishing house.

That's it for this week in Germany.

DENMARK

Skandinavisk Grammophon A/S has released an LP with Raquel Rastenni, presenting some of her biggest successes with the EMI company throughout many years. A couple of years ago, she left EMI and is now contracted to Sonet. This year, she celebrated her 25th anniversary as an artist. Other SGA releases include "Don't Talk To Him" with Cliff Richard on Columbia and Björn Tidmand with a Danish version ("Den lille trommesla'r") of "The Little Drummer Boy" on Odeon.

"Bondeorglet" with The Scarlets on Philips, now a top seller here, is the oldie "Down Yonder." Publisher of the song is Multitone A/S.

Nordisk Polyphon Akts. has made a Danish version of "Please Don't Talk To The Lifeguard," here titled "Jeg har talt til en garder" with Vivian and Berit on Polyphon. The two newcomers are advertised as "the discovery of the year" by the company.

NORWAY

A/S Nor-Disc has released the first records of the new Swedish label Swe-Disc in Norway, among others the LP album "The Spotnicks in Spain" with Swedish group The Spotnicks.

RCA Camden is doing very well in Norway, according to Eilif Meyer of A/S Nera. In most parts of Norway, the requests for this label has been greater than expected.

Newcomer on records is Roger Engvik, who just debuted at Philips with "Ein glad, god cowboy," a Norwegian song. The new singer was discovered by a & r man Rolv Wesenlund of Norsk Phonogram A/S in Alesund a couple of months ago.

SWEDEN

The Caravelles, British top sellers on records, on a short tour and TV in Sweden . . . Harry Orvomaa, head of Scandia-Musiikki Oy in Helsinki visited Stockholm for biz talks . . . Ann-Margret, American singing sensation to Stockholm to attend the opening of her picture "Bye Bye Birdie" on November 11 . . . Ernfrid Ahlin, head of Ahlirs Musikförlag, back from business visit in Oslo . . . Helge Roundquist, head of Cupol, and Ake Söhr, singer on same label, just returned from Oslo where the latter appeared in radio.

Very happy about his success abroad is Rune Overman, jazz pianist, who since 1962 has won great international reputation with his Gazell recordings of among others "Fryksdalsdansen." The tune is a Swedish oldie with new arrangements by Overman, and so far his version has done very well in Canada, where it was released by Quality Records Ltd. Stacy Records has released in the U.S. After Canada, many requests have come from other countries, and according to Overman, this record might very well be released all over the world. Title in America is "Smorgasbord." Since 1962, Overman is the featured soloist with Arne Bill Orchestra, by now one of Sweden's most booked dance bands.

As reported in this column the other week, new rules will be tried for the local Swedish Song Festival this year (or actually 1964 as the result will not be available until February next year). Other years, composers, professional as well as amateurs, have been invited to send their contributions to SBC-TV and/or STIM (performance collecting society) and later a jury has picked out those who were considered as "the best." The latter were presented in a TV show, and a new jury voted for the best one. Next year, the record manufacturers are invited to pick out one song each for a special competition between the record companies. At the same time a second competition is arranged the same way as usual, and, out of the two competitions, SBC-TV hopes to find something worthy to represent Sweden in the 1964 Eurovision Song Festival. The rules for the record manufacturers stipulates that the records in this competition shall not be released or available to the audiences before the local Song Festival has taken place.

Latest releases from Grammofo AB Electra includes one EP and five LPs on RCA Victor, four singles, three EP's and one LP on Decca-London-Brunswick, and finally seven new LPs on Warner Bros. Records. The company expects a lot from particularly Brenda Lee with "The Grass Is Greener" on Brunswick and Trini Lopez with "Jeanie Marie" on London.

Ulla-Bi is a newcomer on records, who just made her debut record for Karusell. Discovered by TV when they looked for new talents all over Sweden recently. The debut record includes "Colombino" and "Venezia Mia."

AUSTRALIA

Over the past several months, the trade has taken a long, hard look at the singles scene as it applies to Australia, not the brightest section of the industry. Most record companies have been "beefing" for ages about singles and their ever-dwindling sales but no one seems to be doing anything about the problem, and problem it is. The fact is, the trade feels, that the record industry of Australia must soon do something to revive interest in sales of singles. See it this way—(a) there are far too many singles being released; (b) far too many singles are being produced which appeal only to minority audiences.

No one in any type of business produces and markets products knowing full well beforehand that such products will only be accepted by a small section of the community—but this is happening in the record industry in Australia. This type of action only manages to clutter the market with a lot of products that the consumer just won't accept and in time the consumer could be driven away from records by an action started by the industry itself. Why is it that there isn't more production effort devoted to middle-of-the-road singles that have proved so popular in Australia? Records like "Painted Tainted Rose"; "Tamoure"; "From A Jack To A King"; "Ramblin' Rose"; "Telstar"; "Summer Holiday" and the like have far out-sold any other singles released here this year . . . and yet, in spite of this common knowledge, most local record producers have joined the scramble to release surfing, stomp and other minority appeal sounds in the face of strong overseas competition when they know full well that there is a huge market awaiting records of much wider appeal. While on the subject of singles, many of our most powerful radio stations have now become much more selective in their choice of singles. Some of the really big stations operate a Selection Committee made up of station program executives and disk-jockeys and each single submitted to the station must pass the committee before it is added to the play list. More singles are rejected than accepted by some of these stations and if a record is knocked back by several of these stations it stands little chance of getting off the ground. This is just another reason why something must be done to reduce the number of "dead" singles that are currently available at any given time. Many suggest less single releases of a quality not generally acceptable to the Australian consumer. Of course, there are other points to be considered such as promotion, company and retail sales activities etc. but these operations can only function with the records being produced for them. The Cash Box in Australia will welcome any comments from the industry on this most vital matter of singles.

Viking Records has released a single called "Hootenanny Coming Your Way" by the New Zealand group The Yeomen. The song was written by American entertainer Freddy Morgan and is reported to be receiving heavy air-play in New Zealand and also is beginning to pick up action in Australia.

RCA is now out with the new Elvis Presley single, which couples "Bossanova Baby" with "Witchcraft."

Hottest new entry on our best-seller list this week is "Sugar Shack" by Jimmy Gilmer on the London label through EMI—which coasts into number four spot.

Over the Christmas season last year, Station 3KZ gave a great deal of action to a little thing called "Marry Xmas You Suckers" by English artist Paddy Roberts. A lot of interest was shown in the record but it was too late to release it then; EMI has now issued it on their Decca label and consumer interest is already starting to grow.

One of the hottest singles in the United States right now, "Little Red Rooster" by Sam Cooke, has now been released in this country by RCA.

Philips Records lost no time at all in releasing the sensationally hot single "Dominique" by The Singing Nun—it was issued here the same week that it appeared on the Cash Box Top 100. Other newbies from Philips include "First Day Back At School" by Paul & Paula; "Sunday In Madrid" by Bill Justis; "Where Is The Boy" by Diane Ray; "It's A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World" The Shirelles and "Between Two Loves" by Susan Barrett.

A Gold Deck For Nana

AMSTERDAM—Hans Schrade, director of Philips Ton Gmbh, congratulates Greek actress-songstress Nana Mouskouri on her gold disk award for the United Nations LP which has sold more than a million copies throughout the world, and more than 210,000 in Germany.

Backstage At The Olympia

CANADA

There can now be no question of it, the great new Philips side by The Singing Nun is going to be the hottest singles of the year in Canada. "Dominique" got its start, as usual, on U.S. stations bordering on this country, and by the time it reached dealers' shelves in Canada was certain to be a sales blockbuster. Quality sales people have been wearing out pencils taking orders for the religious-oriented single, and for the album from whence it comes. It is particularly hot in the French speaking markets in Canada. Andy Nagy, out of Quality in Montreal, reports he hasn't had a sales splurge like this in memory. Clyde McGregor, branch manager in Montreal for the Quality people, is hard pressed to keep product flowing to his clamoring dealers. The story is much the same everywhere. Deejays have flipped, the public has flipped and the record is a smash.

Phil Rose is keeping his fingers crossed for a new single just out under his Apex banner. Recently the CTV Network in this Country broadcast a coast to coast TV special to mark its first anniversary. A theme song for the occasion was penned by the show's host, Oscar Brand. Entitled, "Something To Sing About," the tune has been recorded by the Montreal-based, folk group, Les Raftsmen. They recorded the tune for the Canadian Talent Library, a transcription service for broadcasters in Canada. Rights to the song were then turned over to Phil's Apex label, and nation wide distribution followed. The artists have enjoyed considerable sales success in the past with numerous of their RCA Victor recordings. On the subject of folk music on T.V., a good word is definitely in order for the showing made by young Canadian, Gord Lightfoot, on a recent CTV "Let's Sing Out" segment. The hootenanny-type show originates weekly at a different Canadian College or University. Lightfoot was featured on a show originating at Ottawa's Carlton U. Along with Gord on the show were the Clancy Brothers, Judy Collins and weekly host, Oscar Brand. His rendition of "Four Strong Winds" was outstanding. The young singer has been represented on the Canadian record market in the past on the Chateau label and seems to improve each time out. Still with things folk, Rose indicates that considerable sales action is expected around the Compo layout on the single by Eddie and Joe. Lifted from the G.N.P. album smash, "There's A Meetin' Here Tonight," the title song from the album has been a heavy air play item and seems headed for good single business. New Promo man for the Compo firm is Paul Tessier, a veteran of retail record sales, and the field of broadcast promotion. Among his first big jobs will be plugging the new Peter Paul and Mary single, also lifted from a best selling LP, "Stewball." Current hot single items with Phil's division at Compo are the Del Shannon outing, "Sue's Gotta Be Mine," and the good seller from Barry and The Tamerlanes, "I Wonder What She's Doing Tonight."

Bill Fisher is making expansion noises over at Allied H.Q. in Montreal of late. He has taken over the role of V.P. in charge of sales for the comparatively new firm. Former head man, Sam Gesser, has taken his leave to assume new duties with the Folkways H.Q. in Manhattan. Bill is currently doing some big singles business with a pair of goodies, "Unchained Melody" by Vito and The Salutations and "Saltwater Taffy" by Morty Jay and the Legends. The latter gets good sales action wherever it is given air exposure, and the former is a national chart item, moving well in most Canadian centres. Bill reports some encouraging action on the Pye outing by Kenny Ball and his Jazzmen with their cover on "Washington Square." It has become a pet with some deejays, and although it's too late to really be a sales contender, it continues to sell well in many Canadian markets. Bill's firm is ready to talk turkey with producers and manufacturers not yet represented in the Canadian record market.

Dennis Lapointe has exited the top spot at Phonodisc's Montreal branch. His present plans are not immediately known. Jerry Gordon continues to call on Montreal-Kingston-Ottawa customers on behalf of Phonodisc, and reports solid action on a pair of Kapp goodies, "Wives And Lovers" by Jack Jones, and "Young Wings Can Fly" by Ruby and The Romantics.

American release of the good Swedish-origin single, "Fryksdaldansen" by Rune Owerman, made by Stacy Records. C.B. received a call recently from an independent producer, Kim Fowley in L.A. who told us he has made arrangements for the side to be released in the U.S. by Stacy. It's retitled "Smorgasbord." The side first saw the light of day in North America through spins of the imported item over Winnipeg's CKY.

The CKY Winnipeg gang is as active as can be with one sensational promotion right after another. They recently played host to a complete Hollywood-type premiere. American-International's "Beach Party." Bulk of the picture's screen play was written by a native Winnipegger, Lou Rusoff. The writer recently succumbed to cancer. Both Annette Funicello and Frankie Avalon made P.A.'s with the CKY men at the premiere. In addition top execs of the film company flew to Winnipeg for the event, lending their support to the tribute to Rusoff. Host for the gala occasion was CKY's Jimmy Darin. Even more recently the CKY crew pulled off another dandy, starring Judy Canova. For a month the station's "big gold box" toured the city. Listeners were asked to guess the identity of the well known celebrity hidden in the vehicle. On the appointed day the box was opened and out stepped Miss Canova. Over 5,000 Winnipeggers had correctly identified the hidden personality, and from the correct entries, Miss Canova drew one name and awarded that person $500.00 in cash. This however, was only the beginning. The promotion continues with Judy revealing that she is searching for her long lost boy friend, Lukey Crunchmiller (remember him from Judy's radio days). In any case, with the aid of the CKY deejays, Judy continues to tour the City giving citizens the opportunity to guess what prominent Winnipegger is, in reality, Crunchmiller. The lucky guesser can win up to a cool $1,000.

Bob Wood from CHKC in Regina reports that Quality artist, Jerry Palmer established a new dance attendance record in that City (11/1) when he appeared at the CKCK-sponsored "Football Hop." Over 2,300 young people jammed Regina's armories to listen and dance to young Palmer.

Randy Ferris, an independent producer based in Toronto, informs us that he has arranged for a young Canadian, Tommy Dawson, to have a new pairing distributed in the U.S. "Hardboiled Sue" and "Charlena" are the two sides on the new Dawson disk, and it is now being distributed through Chancellor in the States. Ferris will be remembered as one half of the Hansler-Ferris Productions partnership that was responsible for some of the early hits of the Count Victors. Randy endorses the Canadian recording sessions, indicating that other Canadian producers and artists would do well to investigate the facilities right in their back yard before they look farther afield for musicians, recording technique, etc. Ferris is now hosting a regular folk music show over Toronto's CKFH, in addition to his other activities, and needs records for the air seg.

ARGENTINA

Currently visiting Buenos Aires is Mexican Orchestra Sonora Santanera, very well known in its country and with good possibilities in Argentina. La Sonora is performing on TV and dance parties. On Dec. 16 is scheduled the arrival of Venezuelan chanter Enrique Guzman, currently living in Mexico, Guzman will also work on TV, through the Escala Musical organization.

As it was reported a couple of weeks ago, "Acuarela del Rio" is strongly turning into a hit in Argentina. It's a folk song composed by Abel Montes and published by Tempo, and has already twelve recordings. Two things to be considered regarding folk tunes is that their success is helped by the great number of artists that record them, and that there are hundreds of amateur guitar players all through the country willing to know the latest hits, and play them, thus serving as promoters that let know about the song to a lot of people who haven't listened to it before. This doesn't happen with other types of music, since there are practically no amateur pop groups, and in the tango field there is a sort of policy among orchestra directors of not recording tunes grooved by other artists.

Fermata Publishers informs that Juan Ramon (Disc Jockey) has recorded "Cancion Triste," a local product penned by Ben Molar and the Duo Dinamico, b/w Italian hit "Si Quieres Dejarme" (Se Mi Vuoi Lasciare). Los Bachilleres (Odeon Pops) have cut "55 Days To Peking" and "So Little Time," while Lucky (Fenix) has waxed "Que Hago Con El Latin," also coming from Italy. Horacio Molina has recorded "Sabor Del Sal" (Sapore Di Sale). The original Gino Paoli waxing is also due (RCA).

CBS has inked folk artist Jorge Cafrune for its cast, and is already planning his first recordings. One of the first tunes will be "El Pescador."

Phonogram (Philips-Polydor) is releasing the "The Platters Sing Latino" album, recorded with the Buck Ram orchestra. The LP includes tunes like US chart rider "Maria Elena," "Brasil," "Besame Mucho" and "Viva Jujuy," among others. Here are the titles of the "Coronacion Del Folklore" album: "Tonada Del Viejo Amor," "Baguala Tradicional," "Cantare Cuando Me Mueva," and others. As we had informed previously, the album has been cut by Ariel Ramirez, Los Fronterizos and Eduardo Falu. In the singles field, Gasparin has cut "Rio Manso" and "Acuarela Del Rio," while Tito Alberti has waxed "Tamboritos Pañameños," tropical hit. Sonia has cut "Esos Locos Dias De Verano," cover version of the Nat Cole song. Joe Borsani's latest single is "Roberta" and "El Ocaso."

Microfon is releasing two new Cadence LP's, adding them to its catalog. The titles are "Rock & Hits" and "Rock & Ballads," and are composed with titles by several artists, like Andy Williams, Johnny Tillotson, The Chordettes and the Everly Brothers. On the singles side, promotion is going on "Acuarela Del Rio" by Chacho Santa Cruz.

News from Music Hall: Lito Escarso has been appearing in a special "exploded tango music" program aired by RLI Radio El Mundo. The program has been prepared as to present big tango music names giving explanations about recordings and arrangements of this type of music. Hector Varela, with his orchestra and singer Mario de la Cruz, has been starring programs transmitted by Radios El Mundo and Splendid. The label is now promoting the LP by Trini Lopez, just released; it is expected to follow the success of the first two singles by Lopez, "Unchain My Heart" and "La Bamba."

Surco has released the third album of the Folk Dances series, recorded by Waldo Belloso and his group, as the previous two LP's. Some of the dances presented here are "El Pala Pala," "El Sombrerito" and "La Condicion." Other LP's are the first one by Los Nacheros de Anta, and another one with regional music of the province of Corrientes.

More about CBS: the label is promoting a new single by Mexican orchestra La Sonora Santanera, "Corazon de Acero" b/w "Nuncas Digas No," coincidentally with the performances in this city by the orchestra.

Producciones Fermata is promoting the first surfin' Chubby Checker single, "Surf Party," b/w "Surfin' Party." In the LP field, there is a new album by Nelsinho and his orchestra, cut for RGE in Brazil: "Clasicos En Samba, Vol. II."

Odeon is releasing an album with surf music by Jan and Dean, under the Liberty label. There is also a new album by Franck Pourcel, "Pourcel Plays For Young Lovers," and a new album by the Argentine National Symphonic Orchestra with Classical music by Argentine composers: "Pampeana No. 3" by Alberto Ginastera, and "Suite" by Roberto Caamaño. There is a new single by Luis Aguile: "Devil In Disguise," and another one by Cliff Richard: "Lucky Lips."

JAPAN

On record performance royalty, The Japanese Copyright System Investigation Council, an organization of Ministry of Education, held a general conference on Nov. 4, and announced its interim report on the results of its deliberation since May, which emphasized: (1) In Japan, it is permitted to broadcast a record without paying royalty if the user announces the name of the owner, but this registration can not be left as it is. (2) At the personal appearance of an artist, a TV or radio station should not put the performance on the air without prior agreement with the artist. (3) In a movie, producer, director, writer and all others concerned with the production of the movie have a kind of copyright.

Our Copyright Law was registered in 1900, and has undergone 12 amendments since then. However, the Ministry of Education's intention to completely change the Laws is due to the following situations: (1) The mass communication media (record, movie, TV, etc.) have rapidly developed, while the present registration is behind the times. (2) The Berne Treaty, to which Japan was a participant, was amended in 1948, but the amended stipulations have not been applied in our country, which prevents Japan from doing proper business with foreign companies.

Allen Arrow, a lawyer of the Orenstein, Arrow & Lourie Law Office in New York, arrived in Tokyo on Nov. 2, to negotiate with our recording companies and publishers on new deals with American companies.

Paraguayan chorus group, Los Indios, is in Japan since Oct. 18, making performances at clubs and halls. The first public performance was held on Nov. 10, at Korakuen Gymnasium. Nippon Victor Records, distributor of the Fontana label, has released 2 LP's for the celebration of the visit of these musical ambassadors, one "Bravo Paraguay" and the other "The Emotion of Paraguay."

THE SERVICE SCHOOL

A Key Factor For Profitable Operation

Estimates show that there are approximately 500,000 music machines on location throughout the United States and with an estimated replacement of about 10% this amounts to 50,000 new juke boxes sold each year. The new machine that does not feature a technical improvement over its predecessor is unique in this day of advanced engineering and the serviceman who can get along without professional instruction regarding these new changes is also unique. He is almost non-existent. Hence the vital need for the service school, the factory's prime tool for keeping their machines working on location bringing in the collections necessary to pay for the cost of the operation.

Over the years the need for technical know-how has become more apparent as manufacturers design equipment with high level performance features. While there is the easy snap-in cartridge installation, there is also the need for a basic knowledge of electronics in order to comprehend today's electronic method of selection on some machines. The serviceman who does not have an understanding of transistor theory—at least the fundamentals—could be in trouble the next time he attempts to service a transistorized amplifier. Removal of an entire unit is not always necessary although today's construction makes this possible. A little knowledge might prevent a costly service stop.

A career in juke box service isn't as valuable as a two-hour service school when it comes to the new military-type plug-in relays which work off AC current. Again, a little knowledge can cut down time and costs. Some current model machines offer ease of unit removal thereby cutting down wear and tear on the serviceman as well as the operator's costs but unless the know-how of amplifier tube removal, or the new approach to a selector mechanism is explained, needless time is spent trouble-shooting these breakdowns.

Top servicemen today can remove a selector assembly using the correct step-by-step procedure, in about twenty minutes. The same job, without benefit of previous instruction, takes one and one-half hours. Common fuse blowouts can be corrected with a switch adjustment and the money saved by this simple correction must be in the higher brackets.

These then are some of the points brought out at service schools. Music machine manufacturers invest heavily in this area to insure that once the machine is sold, it operates at peak efficiency. Every operator in the business owes it to himself to see that his firm is represented at the service schools held in his town. Nothing but good can come of it.

45th Annual Parks Show Draws Arcade Machine Firms

Expect 6000 Amusement Park Owners To Attend

CHICAGO—The International Association of Amusement Parks, Pools and Beaches will hold its 45th Annual Convention at the Sherman Hotel here, December 1-4. Among the more than 100 exhibitors displaying merchandise and equipment will be the J. F. Frantz Company; Gold Medal Products Company; International Mutoscope Corporation; Johnson Fare Box Company; Mike Munves Corporation; Philadelphia Toboggan Company; Southland Engineering Corporation; Standard-Harvard Metal Typer Inc; Victor Products Company; and Urban Industries.

The show usually attracts the major amusement machine manufacturers in addition to those mentioned above but some of the majors will not be participating this year.

A segment of the coin machine industry attends this primarily outdoor amusement show each year and is expected to do so again this year. Cash Box reporters cover the event from the trade point of view and will report on activities effecting the coin machine and vending industries as they occur.

Group business promotion with emphasis on more profitable operations will be an important part of the agenda for more than 6,000 representatives of amusement park, kiddieland, pool and beach, and recreation area owners and operators.

Robert E. Freed of Salt Lake City, president of the amusement park association, said latest available statistics show the breakdown for goods, equipment, services and refreshment sales in the growing market is $2.2 billion.

More than 100 exhibitors will display equipment and services for amusement parks, kiddie parks, carnivals, arcades and fairs ranging from new design in games and rides to a new plastic "pre-fab," gaily colored portable building that can be taken down and stored as a tent.

The keynote address of the convention will be delivered at 11:15 a.m., Monday, December 2nd, by Dr. R.C.S. Young, General Motors Corporation, Birmingham, Michigan.

John S. Bowman of Chicago, executive secretary of the International Association of Amusement Parks, said the formal business session of the convention will be held on late Monday forenoon, December 2nd, and it will be followed by several presentations including an address on vending machines.

Bowman's Swan Song

CHICAGO—The 45th Annual Convention of the International Association of Amusement Parks (IAAP), December 1-4, in the Sherman House, this city, will be the "Swan song" for John S. Bowman as executive secretary. He is resigning, effective at the conclusion of the convention, to accept an executive position with Tamblin & Brown of New York City, a fund-raising and public relations firm. Bowman was with a Pittsburgh fund-raising agency before entering organization work.

Coming here from Erie, Pa., where he was executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, Bowman has been with this association six years. Prior to his stay in Erie, he was a campaign director for Ketchum, Inc., in Pittsburgh. And, before that was a newspaperman for 16 years.

The executive board of IAAP acknowledged that the association has experienced a decided growth in activities and membership during Bowman's tenure at the helm.

Expect Good Turnout For MOA-Record Firm Luncheon

Nov. 20 Meet To Cover Legislation, Celler Bill, Problems Concerning Record-Juke Box Industries

CHICAGO—Reaction from record manufacturers to the MOA invitation mailed two weeks ago (CB Nov. 9) has been "very good" according to Bob Blundred, Managing Director of the Music Operators of America.

The juke box association has scheduled a luncheon meeting with record companies located in New York City and the November 20th date appears to be shaping up as the first time a national juke box association and a record manufacturing group is to sit down together for a discussion.

A formal letter inviting record execs to the Adams Suite of the new Hilton Hotel in NYC was mailed on Wednesday, October 30, and the move was the first on the part of MOA to stimulate a meeting to discuss "federal legislation and other mutual problems" with the labels. No official word was available from MOA as to the actual number of responses received to the invite but MOA officials will be in NYC on Tuesday, November 19, to organize the meeting schedule for the following meeting date.

In other MOA activities, Blundred stated that he will arrive in New York City on Sunday, November 17 to meet with Mrs. Millie McCarthy before prepping a trip to Boston where the association officials will meet with hub coinmen Bob Jones and Dave Baker to discuss MOA membership in that area.

On Tuesday, Blundred and Mrs. McCarthy will meet in New Jersey with South Jersey association head Bill Cannon and Music Guild prexy Dick Steinberg. Wednesday, the MOA manager will join past-president Harry Snodgrass, MOA prexy Lou Casola, VP's John Wallace, George Miller, Jim Tolisano, Albert Denver, Attorney Nick Allen, Bill Cannon, and representatives of the law firm Kirkland, Ellis, Hodson, Chaffetz and Masters, attorneys for the juke box manufacturers.

K.E.H.C.&M. represent the music machine manufacturers in Washington where the current Celler Bill (HR7194) is in the process of going before the House Rules Committee. Earlier, a flare-up came about when the juke box ops asked for increased mechanical royalties in place of removal of the present copyright exemption as it pertains to the Copyright Act of 1909.

Record companies claimed any mechanical royalties increase would effect everyone who purchased a record, not just the juke box ops. The MOA officials however, have since indicated that a meeting of the minds was in order, hence the Wednesday date between juke box ops and record firms. Members of the press will not be permitted to attend the meeting but details of the meet will be made available through MOA and the various labels.

Reach Half-Way Mark In Keeney Modernization

ART WEINAND

CHICAGO—J. A. (Art) Weinand, president of J. H. Keeney & Company escorted the Cash Box reporter on a "cook's tour" of the Keeney plant last week when he reported on the progress being made in Keeney's plant expansion and the liberal modernization of the overall facilities. He explained, however, that the present development has only barely reached the half-way point in the overall modernization of the factory proper.

Weinand revealed the new installation of a conveyor system, which facilitates the various assembly operations of Keeney coin-operated amusement games, and other products. He said that the entire area has been conveyORIZED for greater efficiency in production and shipping.

The various departments affected by the current modernization program, in addition to production and assembly lines, are: The model shop, design rooms, a huge, but compact tool room, and the plating plant. Several heavily stocked, cumbersome rooms have been completely eliminated to add considerably more floor space to production facilities. Both the cabinet, and playfield lines, have been completely conveyORIZED.

Another important innovation, according to Weinand, is the installation throughout the Keeney plant of air tools, for greater speed, efficiency, and ease in the handling of tools.

He expressed the feeling that the entire renovation and refitting of the factory will be completed in about six months or so.

National Sound Acquires Background Div. Of Conley Electronics

Discontinues 'Moodmaster', Producing 'Symphonair'

JACK PRYGOFF

NEW YORK—National Sound Systems, Inc. has purchased the background music division of the Conley Electronic Corporation. Conley manufactures the "Moodmaster" background music machine and pre-recorded taped music in continuous loop "Fidelipac" cartridges.

Jack Prygoff, President of National Sound Systems, advised Cash Box that the manufacture of the "Moodmaster" machine will be discontinued. National manufactures the "Symphonair" machine, a continuous play machine. National boasts 10,000 selections of music in its library. Prygoff said that the acquisition was made in line with the firm's policy of expansion into the coin machine and vending industry.

Sales Manager Larry Meyers is expected to form a distributor organization with sales representatives traveling the country starting this week. Prygoff has 18 years experience in the coin machine business having a background in the service end of the industry.

While manufacture of the "Moodmaster" machine will be discontinued, Prygoff said that parts for the unit will continue to be available from the National plant at 44-28 Hunter Street in Long Island City.

National's "Symphonair" offers planned programming for industrial, professional and commercial installations.

Boston Ops To Meet

BOSTON—Bob Jones, a Director of the Music Operators of America, and Sales Manager of the W. S. Distributing Company, Seeburg outlet here, advised last week that a meeting of Boston area operators will be held Monday evening in the Route 128 Motel here. Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the current Celler Bill (HR7194). Joining with Jones to host the meeting will be operator Dave Baker, and MOA's Bob Blundred, who will fly up from NYC on Sunday.

Todd-Williams Names Bilotta, Cleveland Coin For TV Remote Unit

PHILADELPHIA — Todd-Williams Corporation has appointed Bilotta Enterprises as exclusive distributors for Kwik-Flip Remote Control units in the New York up-state territory, according to sales manager Bill Kane.

Bilotta demonstrated the Kwik-Flip unit at the New York Tavern Owners and Liquor Dealers Association Convention. (CB Nov. 9).

During these demonstrations it was shown that it is no longer necessary to purchase a new television set in order to use a remote control unit. Kwik-Flip, which attaches to any set, new or old, changes channels, controls sound volume, turns the set on and completely off from as far as 25 feet away, according to company officials.

Kwik-Flip is fully guaranteed by the manufacturer, Todd-Williams Corporation, 1324 Locust St., Philadelphia 7, Pa., according to Kane.

Kane told Cash Box last week that while the unit is being marketed through retail dealers for sale to consumers, the firm is also setting up a coin machine distributor network for sale to operators and also to locations. Kane, a former veteran salesman with broad experience in the coin machine and vending field, said that he expected to appoint Cleveland Coin Machine Exchange Inc. of Cleveland for that territory. Al and Roy Bergman, formerly of Sheldon Sales Company, Syracuse, have taken the line for the Florida territory.

Virginia Ops Elect New Officers

BUSINESS MATTERS: Attorney James Minor discusses the Celler Bill and local legislation with MOV members during Convention activities. Seated l. to r. Nick Allen, Bob Blundred, Hy Lesnick and Bob Minor.

RICHMOND—When the Music Operators of Virginia went back to work on Monday, October 21st, they had elected a new slate of officers, taken part in a very active coin machine convention, and at the same time had a good time. That in a nutshell is the MOV story for this year.

Guest speakers included MOA's Bob Blundred; Seeburg's Si Wolfe; American Shuffleboard's Sol Lipkin; MOA Attorney Nick Allen; MOV Attorney James Minor; and local association leaders. Former President Hy Lesnick stepped down in favor of Gil Bailey, newly-elected President. Attendance was high. Exhibitors included Roanoke Vending, Diamond Coin, Eastern Distributors, General Vending, Meridian Electronics and Pat's One-Stop. In all, the Convention was a success as usual. Pictured here are some of the highlights.

New officers of MOV are: President Gilbert Bailey; 1st VP Harry Fake; 2nd VP Dick Lumpkin; Sec. Treas. Ken O'Connor. Directors are: Wm. Colgate, Vernon Martin, M. L. Holland, Harry Lubman, Geo. Rollo, N. M. Ellington, E. W. Harvey, Mrs. Harry Lubman, Duke Tyree, Robt. Minor, Hy Lesnick, B. R. Christensen, W. M. Showalter, F. D. Colbert, Chas. Holbrook, Claude Smith, W. M. Sullivan and C. H. Hudson.

Cinebox To Shoot New Films In Miami Beach Locations

HICKSVILLE, N.Y.—M. S. (Mickey) Greenman, executive vice-president of Cinevision Corporation of America, a Division of the Estey Electronic Corporation, announced last week that it has signed with Motion Pictures Films Inc., a Miami film producing company, to film the second series of selections for the Cinebox movie-music machine.

Stanley Green, Estey president, has joined Motion Picture Films President Harvey Berman on location in Miami. Greenman is executive producer of the project.

The second set of films is said to be a set featuring comedy and dance. Cinebox is expected to draw upon talent in the Miami Beach area as well as shoot films with previously signed artists.

The Miami night club acts are expected to be filmed in addition to other location shots which prove to be interesting enough for the new type machine.

M. S. "Mickey" GREENMAN

The first Cinebox series which features Tina Robbin, Tommy Leonetti and Lonnie Sattin, are expected to be available on location in the Cinebox machine shortly.

Greenman told Cash Box earlier this month that distributor plans have progressed satisfactorily. Sam Taran in Miami, a veteran coin machine distributor and operator, is the newest distributor to develop sales in a virgin territory. Last week Cinebox announced that it had signed a Carnegie Hall in-person act for filming.

Bauters Discusses 2% Indiana Sales Tax Before St. Joseph Valley Convention

Blundred Sees Celler Bill Slowed By Pending Civil Rights Legislation Before Rules Committee

SOUTH BEND, INDIANA — The Music Operators' Society of St. Joseph Valley, which headquarters in Mishawaka, Indiana, gathered Wednesday evening, November 13, for their Annual Banquet and Pre-Christmas celebration and meeting, in Irvin's Dining Rooms, in this city.

Host for the evening's festivities was Al. C. Evans, Entertainment Chairman of MOA. Frank Fabiano, head of Fabiano Music Co., is President of the association.

Fabiano opened the business part of the affair by introducing Bob Blundred, managing director of MOA, who delivered the opening address.

He announced that since the House Rules Committee in the Congress is bogged down with Civil Rights legislative matters, which are very pressing, there will be no decision during this session on the Performance Rights Bill, "a troublesome piece of legislation to all music operators."

In conclusion, Blundred urged all music operators to keep after their congressmen, and to be among those counted when discussions on the Cellers Bill resumes again in 1964.

Joe Bauters, a long time member of MOA, and an accountant, was the next speaker. He gave a detailed report to MOS members on the new Indiana Sales & Use Tax Law, which was placed into operation on October 24, 1963. This state tax is commonly referred to here as the "2% Sales Tax."

Entertainment was provided by Bud Moore, head of Valli Record Company, of South Bend. Valli recording artists were: Carl Simpson, Miss Terry Star, and The Orais, a talented instrumental-vocal group managed by Johnny Knight.

Among the guests representing manufacturing and distributing companies at the banquet were: Jack Burns, of Empire Coin Machine Company, Chicago; John Stocksdales, of J. & J. Distributing Company, Indianapolis; Joe Weinberg, Southern Automatic Music Company, Indianapolis; Al Gange, the Seeburg Corporation; Phil Glover, Rowe AC Services, and Fred Sipiora, head of Singer One Stop Records, in Chicago.

Daddis Named Sales Mgr. Of National Shuffleboard

EAST ORANGE, N.J.—Paul Kotler, President of National Shuffleboard and Billiard Company, announced the appointment of A. W. (Art) Daddis as National Sales Manager of the firm last week. Daddis resigned from his sales post at the Irving Kaye Company to take the new position.

Daddis, a 30-year veteran of the industry, with many years of service in the employ of juke box manufacturers, advised Cash Box that National is in its fortieth year of manufacturing equipment. The firm makes a 6-pocket billiard and carom billiard table, having introduced the 'Royal' series two years ago. The firm expects to expand present facilities to handle increased production, according to Kotler.

The table—a 4½' x 9' model—comes in 5 decorator colors with contrasting colored cloths. The 'Monarch' is the firm's home model. Tables are made with a formica finish and a slate top.

National has made shuffleboards for thirty years. The firm's current 'Astrolite' model is 22 feet long, the 'Starlite', a 13 foot model.

Daddis is expected to leave for a road trip immediately to strengthen the firm's distributor sales outlets.

He said there is much to be accomplished in organizing the state operators, and towards building together for greater harmony in all segments of the coin machine industry.

Prominent guests such as Eddie Ginsburg, of Atlas Music Co.; and Nate Feinstein, of World Wide Dist. Co., whose firms rank among the top distributing outlets in Illinois, closed the discussion period by generously offering their closest, most earnest collaboration towards the goal of further strengthening the association.

Before adjournment of the day-long session it was decided that the next meeting will be held on Sunday, January 26, 1964. The site of the session will be determined at a forthcoming board of directors meeting. However, a likely site is Springfield, the State Capitol, to lure the Downstate operators to the gathering en masse.

Illinois State Ops Hold 2nd Meet Poss Calls For Location Harmony

CHICAGO—The Illinois Coin Machine Operators' Association (ICMOA), held its second scheduled meeting, Sunday, November 10, in the Hilton Inn, North Aurora.

The meeting was chaired by Les Montooth, of Montooth Music Co., Peoria, president of ICMOA. Other officers and directors at the speaker's table were Bill Poss, of Valley Music Co., Aurora, vice president; M. H.

Gillette, Phonograph Service Co., Chicago, secretary-treasurer; and Earl Kies, of Apex Music Co., Chicago, director.

Other board members are: Ronnie Meline, Rockford; Orma Johnson, Rock Island-Moline; Edward Holstein, Chicago; Bud Hashman, Springfield; Bob Lindelof, Skokie; Harry Shaffner, Frank La Maskin and Larry Cooper.

In attendance also were Eddie Ginsburg, Bill Phillips, Stan Levin, and Chuck Harper, all of Atlas Music Co.; Nate Feinstein and Irv Ovitz, of World Wide Dist. Co.; and Fred Sipiora, of Singer One Stop Records, all Chicago firms. Bob Blundred, managing director of MOA, was also on hand.

The business agenda of ICMOA included perusal and approval (by unanimous vote) of the new Constitution and By-Laws. Also, an explanation by Montooth that the association is in the process of being incorporated under a state charter.

Herman Wolske, a Peoria C.P.A., addressed the group, stressing the need for extra careful planning to keep small businesses, such as the coin machine operators' firms, to maintain any degree of success. He said that 33¢ of every dollar grossed by the operator (on an average mean) goes to all forms of income tax.

It was Wolske's suggestion that at a future meeting several different samples of Profit & Loss Statements should be carefully perused as test cases for careful planning practices and procedures.

Lou Casola took the floor and pointed up the eventual need for an office for ICMOA as headquarters, and as a clearing house for membership drives, and the distribution of bulletins to all operators in Illinois.

Long time coinvet Barney Poss, founder of Valley Music Co., in Aurora, and a prominent official on the Illinois State Liquor Commission for years, suggested that this new association should manage to work in very close harmony with the Tavern Keepers' Assn., and the Retail License Beverage Assn. (state group) to help block unfair legislation.

Seeburg Decides To Stay In Chi, Will Rebuild Plant Facilities With Mayor Daley's Blessings

See Positive Effects On Urban Renewal Program

CHICAGO—A major industrial expansion program that will save the jobs of 2,000 Chicago workers and add several hundred more jobs in the near future was announced by Mayor Richard J. Daley. The expansion program worked out in months of co-operative planning by the Seeburg Corporation and the Mayor's Committee for Economic and Cultural Development, will take place over a five-year period at Seeburg's current site in the Northtown Industrial area.

Calling the expansion "another milestone in Chicago's economic growth," Mayor Daley congratulated Delbert W. Coleman, Chairman of the Board of Seeburg, and David M. Kennedy, Chairman of the Mayor's Committee, for establishing a pattern of cooperation between industry and government that can serve as a precedent for maintaining and expanding employment opportunities in the city.

According to Coleman, Seeburg's rapidly growing volume of business calls for a new, modern plant with enough room for additional employees. After seriously considering moving to the suburbs despite the probable loss of many old employees, Seeburg decided to expand where it is now, Coleman said. "The Mayor's Committee convinced us of the profitability of remaining in Chicago and then coordinated the efforts of the city departments in solving our site problems. We couldn't be expanding at our present site without the help of Mayor Daley, the City government, and Alderman Mayer Goldberg, and we wouldn't be expanding in Chicago but for the hard-headed, dollars and cents advice of the Mayor's Committee," he added.

Seeburg, a $55 million a year manufacturer, will completely rebuild its plant and office facilities over a five-year period. The new facility will cost approximately five million dollars and contain 400,000 additional square feet.

Presently, Seeburg's operations are scattered over 700,000 square feet in separate locations in the northwest section of the city and Skokie. The new facility will allow Seeburg to consolidate its operations at one site with considerable savings in cost.

Mayor Daley emphasized that the expansion will mean that Seeburg's 2,000 employees, most of whom live near the Northtown area, will be sure of keeping their jobs. Moreover, Daley said, Seeburg's expansion will provide a strong anchor for the Lincoln Park urban renewal program that is taking shape immediately north of Seeburg.

An additional effect of the Seeburg expansion, Daley said, is the proposed plan of the Schuessler Knitting Mills to expand its plant on the land adjoining Seeburg. Schuessler, a manufacturer of knitted winter headwear, decided to build a $250,000, three-story addition and add another floor to its present plant when Seeburg's co-operative planning with the city demonstrated the value of rebuilding in the Northtown area. The 25,000 square foot Schuessler addition will allow the company to employ between fifty and seventy-five more workers.

Daley thanked Seeburg for its "strong show of confidence in Chicago" and said that other firms who are thinking of moving out of the city should follow Seeburg's lead and explore their problems with the Committee for Economic and Cultural Development before they make a decision. The Committee is a public-private organization that seeks to create new jobs by assisting Chicago industry.

David Kennedy, who is also Chairman of the Continental Illinois National Bank, said that the Committee is ready to work with any company that needs help whether it is seeking a new location, trying to expand at its present site, or has some other kind of problem. "The Seeburg Corporation's expansion is evidence that business, industry, and the city government of Chicago can work together effectively to solve industrial problems. We think that most companies that are willing to look at the facts will find that a Chicago location offers substantial opportunities for increased profits. The Committee for Economic and Cultural Development is moving to solve or considerably alleviate the problems that have sometimes been associated with urban sites.

"In Seeburg's case, the fine co-operation of the Departments of Streets and Sanitation, Urban Renewal, City Planning, and the Community Renewal Program with the Committee enabled us to assure Seeburg that its locational problems would be solved. The staff of the Committee, under Executive Director Paul Zimmerer, is ready at all times to assist Chicago industry," Kennedy said.

Bally's New 5-Ball Called 'Hootenanny'

CHICAGO—The Hootenanny rage came to Bally Manufacturing Company in the form of the Bally "Hootenanny" 5-ball novelty game last week. Bill O'Donnell, Bally's president, declared that this amusement device has the potential of becoming one of the biggest hits in years in the single-player, 5-ball novelty class.

"Maybe some of the radio and TV hootenanny glamour has rubbed off on Bally 'Hootenanny' or maybe we've just packed so much action, suspense and 'come-close' repeat play appeal into the game that money-making success on location is a sure thing. Fast action is encouraged not only by the clever playfield layout, but also by new actionizing features, such as the Spark-Plug Button, which triggers a plain ordinary Rubber Rebound into the explosive action of a Sling-Shot Kicker, driving the ball directly into a nest of 3 Thumper-Bumpers for a real hootenanny of scoring action.

"Another new action-maker is the exclusive new Bally Scoring Post, which scores like a Bumper but occupies half the space of a Bumper, keeping the front field open for plenty of criss-cross ball action," said O'Donnell.

"Much of the attraction of 'Hootenanny' on location can be attributed to the double hold-over features—the progressive scoring Free-Ball Lane and the old favorite spell-name feature. A ball shot through the Lane with both Gates closed scores 10. When top Gate is opened by skill, Lane shot scores 30. Extra skill opens both Lanes, which remain open from game to game until a free ball escapes

Eastern Flashes

The next big show on the list will be the forthcoming Parks Show scheduled again in Chicago's Sherman Hotel for Dec. 1-4. Mike Munves will be the only NYC firm showing equipment. Larry Galente of International Mutoscope (L.I.C.) is expected to display his equipment at the amusement park show as well. ChiCoin is not listed and neither is Auto-Photo, and this for the first time to our memory either one has missed the show. Johnny Frantz will be on hand and Bud Lurie will fly in enough Southland equipment to fill four booths, we are told.

Busy-man-about-town is MOA's Bob Blundred who had Jersey, Boston, NYC, then Jersey again, on his three day agenda, as we spoke with him in Chi last week. Mrs. Millie McCarthy and Bill Cannon will join this week for a Hub meeting with Bob Jones and Dave Baker and then go south in Jersey to meet with Asbury Park ops, Dick Steinberg, and other music machine leaders in that state.

Wednesday of this week is shaping up as a big date for the juke box industry. It will be the first time the industry has sat down with record companys (!) to discuss mutual problems. Lou Casola advised us from Rockford that he didn't expect miracles, just common sense discussions, and that's about what was expected since the luncheon scheduled for the Hilton Hotel was the very first. Next time out the boys can come out swinging(!). The Celler Bill was expected to get a good going over.

Irving Holzman (Mr. Show Biz) never quits. He has had the name of the new United 'Skippy' game changed to 'Jill-Jill' for NYC and then he has to go out to lunch with important people like Nassau DA Bill Cahn who is a close friend. The twosome were lunching together at the Friars on Tuesday where songman Steve Lawrence got a roasting (and how!). Jack Leonard, the quip of late evening tv is even more penetrating in person. Just ask Holzman.

Mickey Greenman delighted with the new film contract signed by Motion Picture Films Inc. to shoot ten movies for the Cinebox machine. The location has been set in Miami so don't expect rain to hold up any of the plans (not at these prices it better not rain!). . . . Art Daddis left Irving Kaye and joined National Shuffleboard in East Orange, N.J. Art will develop the 6-pocket-shuffleboard mfr's distributor network and try to get National a bigger chunk of 6-pocket sales. . . . Abe Lipsky reporting recuperating at home after his attack. Leo Rosenberg was minding the store and he has some common sense advice to offer Abe. Leo has suffered two setbacks of his own. . . . Also on the sick list: Sidney Gerber. Runyon's ace traffic manager, who is at St. Vincent's Hospital in Montclair, New Jersey. It's on Elm Street. Send him a get-well card.

The Mike Munves Corporation's second floor is now called the World's Fair Room. It is completely redecorated and offers visitors a complete array of more than 200 machines fully reconditioned and ready for location. The machines range in age from 1900 vintage to last year's gun game (of which there must be two dozen alone). Joe Munves, supervisor of the renovation is proud of his accomplishment and rightly so. It's quite a layout.

Johnny Bilotta talked with Bill Kane two weeks ago and the result is that Kane's Todd-Williams Corp. have given Bilotta the coin machine distributing rights to a new TV remote control unit that is selling up a storm at the consumer level. Morris Gisser will get the line for Ohio. Al and Roy Bergman have it in Florida and the deal includes consumer and coin trade, for the State.

National Sound's Jack Prygoff is the same Jackie Prygoff who once headed Runyon's service dept. Today he's president of the firm, which acquired the background music division of the Conley Electronics Corporation, mfrs. of the Moodmusic machine. Sales Manager Larry Meyers advised us that he'll set distrib plans this week and line up coin machine outlets in addition to consumer dealers across the nation.

Bill and Murray Weiner were gratified by heavy turnout last Saturday and Sunday when they hosted close to 75 people at the Smokeshop 'Starlite' Open House party. Weiner says the biggest ops in town turned out and everyone had a ball. The machine is gaining in acceptance everywhere, according to Bill. On display in the showrooms is the coinchanger which can be demonstrated to show how the half-dollar changer works. When its on the machine the action takes place behind closed doors. The model permits viewing and its a real attention getter.

When Joe Ash sat down to lunch in an Italian restaurant in Milan last week, during the Rock-Ola distrib vacation trip, he learned it was Gerry Nims' birthday. Gerry is the wife of New Orleans distrib Bob Nims. After asking the Italian-speaking orchestra to play 'Happy Birthday To Gerry', Joe sat down and everyone—including the band—toasted Gerry with sherry wine. Later, the matre'd handed Joe a tab for the sherry wine—for the entire group, plus the band, plus some onlookers. It turned out that the band thought Ash wanted everyone to have a toast of sherry on him while the ork played birthday music. He said it was the highpoint of humor on the trip.

Bill Witsen running the Scrosse showrooms while Abe plans a Miami vacation with his Mrs. before leaving on a European trip. . . . St. Ignatius Loyola, home of a Jesuit order in NYC, sent Irv Holzman a nice letter thanking him for the shuffle alley. . . . Monsignor John P. Kelly will have his letter out by next week asking for funds for the Cardinal Spellman Servicemen's Club. Return the envelope with a check in it and feel a little better for the rest of the day. . . . Former coinman James Mangan continues his quest to occupy space and matter on the moon and if he keeps it up he'll beat both the US and the Russians thus ending the current feud. . . . Hal Eldridge, former sales manager of the Ainsworth Company Ltd., makers of slots, stopped by our office last week on his way to London. He spoke with several coin machine firms here and expected to announce his plans after arriving in England. . . . Mayor Daley convinced Del Coleman he should stay in Chicago and expand. . . . Bally's new 5-ball is called 'Hootenanny' after the current folk song rage. . . . Gil Bailey is the new head of the Music Ops of Virginia. . . . Seeburg has new Christmas LP's ready for juke boxes. . . . Musical Distribs Sid Greenfield busy as can be keeping those Wurlitzer 2700's rolling out of the Bklyn plant. . . . Larry Feigenbaum never ceases to amaze parts shoppers with his answers to questions. . . . Irving Kaye, Abe Green and Barney Sugerman in town for a meeting early last week. . . . Al Simon still spending time at the Amityville plant. . . . MONY has attracted nationwide interest with its new location contract.

From Platters To Bing

CHICAGO — Seeburg's Christmas packages for music operators are six Little LP Album packages and five Artist of the Week packages—eleven stereo records of Christmas music by top-rating artists.

The six Little LP Album releases include the New Christy Minstrels' "Merry Christmas," Bing Crosby's "White Christmas," Peggy Lee's "Christmas Carousel," the Ramsey Lewis Trio's "The Sound of Christmas," Jim Reeves' "12 Songs of Christmas," and Andy Williams' "Christmas Album."

Artist of the Week stereo packages comprise Mahalia Jackson's "Silent Night," Mitch Miller's "Holiday Sing Along," The Platters' "Christmas with the Platters," Kitty Wells' "Christmas Day with Kitty Wells," and Andy Williams' "Christmas Album."

Chicago Chatter

The future of the budding Illinois operators' assn. looks bright, since the fine attendance of ops from every part of the state at last Sunday's meeting in the Hilton Inn, North Aurora. One noteworthy change was the name, which was altered to read: Illinois Coin Machine Operators' Association (ICMOA) with full approval by the membership of the organization's constitution and by-laws. Officers on the dais were: Les Montooth, president; Bill Poss, vice president; M. H. Gillette, secretary-treasurer; and Earl Kies, director.

Lou Casola, prexy of MOA; and Bob Blundred, managing director of MOA, were on hand in an advisory capacity. Distributing notables who made the scene included: Eddie Ginsburg, of Atlas Music; and Nate Feinstein, of World Wide Distribs. Also, Irv Ovitz, World Wide; Bill Phillips, Stan Levin, and Chuck Harper, of Atlas Music Co. We certainly enjoyed chatting with Barney Poss, Bill Poss' dad, who is one of the truly popular veterans in coinbiz in Illinois. Fred Sipiora, of Singer One Stop Records attended the session.

As soon as we put this column "to bed" we'll dash out to South Bend, Indiana to attend the annual banquet of the Music & Vending Machine Operators of St. Joseph Valley (MOS), in Irvin's Dining Room (Wed., Nov. 13) Bob Blundred, of MOA; and Phil Glover, of Rowe AC Services, were expected to attend. We're expecting to see many old friends, including such coinmen as Frank Fabiano, Al Evans, and Joe Bauters.

It's "hootenanny" time at Bally Mfg., according to prexy Bill O'Donnell and Herb Jones, with the release this week of the new Bally "Hootenanny" single-player, 5-ball novelty game. Bill sez it's loaded with popular playing and scoring features.

Joel Stern and his pretty Bernadine "hit the jackpot" last week! How about this "lucky seven duo"? Their baby boy, Anthony J. Stern (named after Joel's illustrious, late dad, Al Stern) was born on Nov. 7, at 7 o'clock—and, he weighed in at 7 pounds, 7 ounces. AND, if that isn't hitting the 7's the hard way, here's the clincher—little Anthony J. was the 7th delivery of the day at Michael Reese Hospital! (Mazel Tov, Joel—7 times!).

We're finding First Coin's Joe Kline, Sam Kolber and Fred Kline busier than usual on the phones. The reason is that export business is so heavy they're trying hard to get good, used music and games equipment for orders . . . Wico Corp's. Ed Ruber toured the east recently. While there he visited with N. Y. Op. Assn. prexy Millie McCarthy; and, in Syracuse called on Rex Bilotta. Incidentally, Ed trudged thru heavy snow in some areas (br-rrr!).

Seeburg's Jack Gordon and Bill Adair returned last week from their European sojourn where they made the scene with George Gilbert. Stan Jarocki info'd that Tom Herrick left town on business . . . his first trip since returning from Europe. ChiCoin's Mort Secore advises that sales on Chicago Coin's "Sun Valley" pinball amusement game and "Official Spare-lite" big ball bowler continue at a terrific pace. It's a mighty good Fall season, he sez . . . Johnny Frantz, prexy of J. F. Frantz Mfg. Co., will string along with his current model counter games, "Little Leaguer" and "Kicker & Catcher," so long as he and sales chief Don Congdon are enjoying such fine acceptance among ops. Don motored to Iowa last week on business (and we missed him at the steam baths).

The reaction on Rowe-AMI's "Tropicana" phono internationally is excellent. This is the consensus of opinions from all execs: Prexy Jack Harper, Exec vice president Dean McMurdie, vice president Fred Pollak, and sales chief Paul Huebsch. Phil Glover plans to head out to Detroit after attending the MOS ops' banquet in South Bend, Indiana.

Edward G. Doris, executive vice prexy at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp., dashed back from his European trip with Rock-Ola distribs when his dad, Peter Doris, became suddenly ill. Unfortunately, the elder Doris died just before Ed could reach the hospital, Friday, Nov. 8. Adchief George Hincker infos that Les Rieck just returned from the European trip. Art Janacek, manager of the Export Division for Rock-Ola Mfg., remained on the Continent calling on the trade.

Empire Coin's Joe Robbins returned from his home in Connecticut t'other day, where he visited with his ailing father . . . Over at D. Gottlieb & Co. the word is out that the new 2-player "Flying Chariots" took off on a terrific sales accomplishment in all domestic and foreign markets. Alvin Gottlieb is heading back home after a fine jaunt on the European Continent . . . Bill DeSelm tells us United Mfg's. new "Skippy" puck shuffle bowler "Jill-Jill" in the New York market) is off and running sales-wise.

When we chatted with Jack Mittel, sales manager of Williams Electronic Mfg., we learned that Williams' new 4-player "Merry Widow" flipper amusement game is so far ahead in sales that Prexy Sam Stern is pushing production as hard as he can. It's a winner! He exclaims . . . J. H. Keeney Prexy Art Weinand and sales manager Clayton Nemeroff gave us a "cook's tour" of the plant to show us the progress in modernization and expansion. Art is tickled over the way the factory is shaping up. Board chairman Roy McGinnis is delighted over the results of Art's efforts . . . Marvel prexy Ted Rubey and Estelle Bye are now certain they have a terrific amusement game in "Slugger," sales are that good . . . Somehow we accidentally slighted old coin buddy Eddie Holstein in naming ICMOA board members last week. Sorry, Ed. That's what you get for sitting behind us.

The power-packed manufacturing trio at Midway Mfg. Co.—Hank Ross, "Iggy" Wolverton and "Big Bob" Jonesi—know they have a sales-getter in Midway's "Race Way" 2-player, sales are that good . . . John Bowman and his staff are hard at work getting ready for the upcoming Parks Show in the Sherman House, Dec. 1-4. IAAP's president is Robert E. Freed, of Salt Lake City.

Smoking and the Surgeon General's Report

NEW YORK—Tobacco was in the headlines of the national press last week and it was expected to continue to be a main topic of controversy—with increasing degree—in Washington, DC, the tobacco markets of the country, and of course the cigarette vending machine industry, between now and December 31st, the approximate date the U.S. Surgeon General will issue his report on smoking and its possible effects on the health of 67 million smokers in the nation today.

To say that the stage is set for melodrama is to understate the importance of Surgeon General Luther Terry's report. Effected will be an $8 billion industry, the nation's fifth largest cash crop, 750,000 tobacco farm families, three million workers, and the vending industry which sells more than $1 billion in cigarettes through machines, a figure which represents about 40% of the total business done today, or $3 billion.

Politically speaking, there is a powerful vote in the Virginia-N.C.-S.C.-Tennessee-Ky.-Georgia farm bloc as evidenced by the voices of Senators and Congressmen from these areas.

Those on the side of the anti-smokers claim that the evidence presented to date indicates that there is scientific information available which demonstrates that cigarette smoking is a cause of lung cancer and coronary disease. The American Cancer Society and more than twenty medical and voluntary groups have condemned smoking. Denmark, the United Kingdom, Russia and Italy have condemned smoking or the promotion and sale of smoking to some degree.

On the other side of the fence there is the Tobacco Industry Research Committee, directed by Clarence Cook Little, which has authorized grants to 141 researchers at a cost of $6,250,000 and in the words of Mr. Little, "it is not known whether these factors are 'causative' in any real sense."

The Surgeon General's Committee has studied 7100 research studies and is preparing a final report, the summary of which will be written for Mr. Terry's review, then passed to Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze, and finally to President Kennedy.

The government can be expected to take steps should the Surgeon General's report declare smoking injurious to public health. The form this action will take, of course is not known until the report is in.

Senator Maurine Neuberger, Oregon, the nemesis of the tobacco industry and author of much anti-smoking legislation, published her book "Smoke Screen" last week (Prentice-Hall $3.95). She stands ready to file legislation the day the SG Report is made public. Sen. Neuberger will call for warning labels on packs, a regulation of tar and nicotine content, and formation of stricter advertising standards.

George V. Allen, Director of The Tobacco Institute, stated that researchers "should avoid a fixation on smoking as a cause of lung cancer." Newsweek Magazine reported that the TI was preparing a report, according to rumors, which would counter the Surgeon General's report, and thereby weaken its structure and impact on the public, if its unfavorable. R. J. Reynolds Company was quoted as saying that if it is proven that one or more elements in tobacco are responsible as a cause of disease, then those elements would be removed.

Regardless of the outcome of the SG report, it is expected that anti-smoking campaigns will be launched from various groups and that many of the programs will be directed at the enforcement of the no-sale-to-minors laws presently on the books of almost every State in the country. This is where the cigarette vending

Surgeon General's Smoking Report to Kindle Fires of 'What Next?' Hassle

By Stanley E. Cohen
Washington Editor

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7—Before the end of the year, a panel of distinguished scientists is expected to give the Surgeon General of the U. S. a report which will mark the beginning of a new stage in the debate over smoking hazards. If the report is at all definitive, it is expected to be, the government's development involves the introduction of regulatory programs designed to encourage smoking of "safer" cigarettes. The British government's authoritative policy report on smoking argued that since smoking can't be stopped, the government should encourage production of "safer" cigarettes. But Sen. Neuberger has charged (A.A. Oct. 21) that current FTC policy, which prohibits the makers of filter cigarettes from discussing tar and nicotine content, has actually worked against safety by disarming the advertisers who have "high filtration" brands.

With almost simultaneous publication dates major national consumer, business and trade media carried articles on the smoking controversy last week. Among them, Newsweek, Advertising Age and Wall St. Jnl. featured news stories.

industry will feel the impact and it is here that NAMA directed its greatest effort more than one year ago when the Operation Alert Program was put into practice. Today, after an expenditure of $26,000—a cost of more than $4000 per man in the Alert 6-man staff—and 130 local meetings attended by more than 3000 operators in 60 cities, the cigarette vendor is in a more advantageous position to defend himself than he was two years ago.

The Gilbert Research Study, paid for by NAMA, offers additional information and ammunition for cigarette operators who are harassed by local boards and parent groups with facts and figures concerning the sale of cigarettes through vending machines which are not authentic. The Gilbert report places the vending machine in a favorable light and supports its findings with authentic statistics showing the comparatively small amount sale of cigarettes to teenagers (not necessarily minors) from machines.

It is in this area that the vending industry is most concerned. The industry can best prepare itself in the remaining weeks ahead by adhering to the rules as set down by NAMA's Operation Alert Program and forfeit or correct location of machines which might be subject to attack by the offensive which most certainly will be launched by year's end.

New Low Cal Cola

EVANSVILLE — Mead Johnson & Company has announced that it has granted a trademark license to the Cott Bottling Co. of New England, Inc., for the manufacturing of a soft drink concentrate and the marketing of a low calorie carbonated beverage under the brand name Metri/Cola.

The licensing agreement is a long-term one, according to Mead Johnson, under which Cott pays royalties to Mead Johnson on a basis of the volume of concentrate used in manufacturing Metri/Cola. Specific terms of the agreement were not made public.

In addition to licensing Cott for the manufacture of Metri/Cola, Mead Johnson will also directly license approved bottlers to use the Metri/Cola brand name.

Products To Quit Smoking By

Market Flooded With Pills

NEW YORK—The consumer market was filled to the brim last week with products designed to help the smoker quit his habit, or at least to alleviate the frustration which usually comes with the cessation of habitual smoking for an extended period. Among the items selling to the public range in size and shape from lozenges, to romaine lettuce leaf cigarettes. Some of the pills available are made from the chemical lobeline sulfate, a wild-growing herb found in the midwest. Here's a partial list of products available for the smoker who wishes to quit: Nikoban, 20 tablets, $2; Smokurb, 100 tablets $2.95; Bantron, 15 tablets, $1.25; STOPlan, a kit consisting of 200 Nicatone tablets, a 36-page booklet, periodic encouraging letters to help one toe the mark, and report cards on progress, all for $29.00. The Anti-Tobacco Center of America Program offers a plan with 120 Pronicotyl tablets for $24.85.

U. S. Tobacco's King Sano cigs, "less than 1% nicotine" is 15% ahead in sales. Brown & Williamson's Life brand is benefiting from the recent Reader's Digest report which listed it as lowest tar and nicotine content. Gemini cigarettes, selling for 50¢ per pack, offer low nicotine content plus a design which enables the smoker to tear the entire package in half, thereby giving him 2 small packs of ten cigs to a pack. Sentry, a cigarette made from the Romaine lettuce leaf, sells for 35¢ per pack. Aquafilter cigarette holders are available for 10 for 49¢. Dunhill sells a $3 kit including 1 holder plus 10 standard size filters.

Pearson Premium

SAINT PAUL—Pearson Candy Company is promoting sales of Nut Goodies and Salted Nut Rolls to retailers with a special offer of an Early American salt and peppermill set.

In effect for six months, the king-size salt-and-pepper set is redeemed for $2.50 and three coupons from 24-packs of maple or vanilla Nut Goodies or 10-cent Salted Nut Rolls.

Made of handsomely grained hardwood with brass trimmings, the salt-cellar and peppermill stand 10 inches high. The peppermill has a precision steel grinding unit.

FOUR FOOT REAR: Volkswagen's panel delivery trucks for 1964 feature four-foot-wide rear doors for straight-in loading of bulky articles. Double side doors are standard, but now available as an option is a sliding side door which assures access to the cargo compartment when parked in narrow quarters. With 170 cubic feet of cargo space, the 65-mile-an-hour VW panel has a payload rating of 1,830 pounds.

Stanley Attempts To Arouse Northwest Ops' Service Interest

Directs Plea Through Local Union To Spur
Service School Action

SEATTLE—The situation here regarding operator interest in factory-distributor service schools has been less than bright during recent years. While no territory in the country boasts 100% attendance by operating firms at service school sessions, many areas have managed to impress operators with the importance of service and the part it plays in efficient operating today. The end result has been a marked attendance increase in most sections of the country with distributors and factories alike sharing in the satisfaction that alas the serviceman is aware of today's machine, its strength, and its weakness. The operators in Seattle however, have not been moved by the vital need for improved service level knowledge. Mike Stanley, a Rock-Ola distributor here, took the bull by the horns last week and issued a notice to all ops in the area, asking them to attend "all" service schools—"even those conducted by the competition"—and the notice, addressed to members of the Wholesale and Retail Delivery Drivers and Salesmen, Local 353, is reprinted, here:

As it has been in the past, and history repeats itself, so it is bound to be in the future, the technical aspects of all products pertaining to our industry are getting more complex and complicated daily. Therefore, I hope that the contents of this letter will serve as a purpose in relating to you, members of this union, the very importance of keeping up with the times. In the past, the writer has invited members of your union to attend service schools for the various models and innovations concerning the products of our industry. I must candidly admit I have yet to see a good turnout. On the other hand, when it comes bargaining time for you, gentlemen, to seek higher wages, benefits, etc., you very often run into a problem seeking what you endeavor.

One of the primary reasons for this trouble is that a large percentage of you are not, and have not, kept up with the times. This, as far as I'm concerned, is your own fault. I cannot speak for my competitors, nor will I attempt to, but in speaking solely for myself, I am making a personal appeal to each and every one of you gentlemen to attend the various service schools pertaining to every phase of our industry in the forthcoming year. And, I might add, not only the M. J. Stanley Company service schools; I will go so far to state you should attend our competitors schools also.

If you do this, the following things you will accomplish: First, you will be able to mend the service problems that arise in your automatic phonograph systems, cigarette vendors, etc. because you will obviously have the key due to the fact that you have made the small sacrifice in attending the service school. Secondly, needless to say, your bargaining power will go up because you will be worth more. It will take you less time to complete a trouble call and you will be assured that when your work is done it is done well. And last, but not least, you will have the very personable recognition of a competent technician. This, in itself, I would assume would be worth the effort.

In conclusion, the M. J. Stanley Company and the Rock-Ola Manufacturing Company are going to the expense to provide you with a series of service schools commencing November 11th, Monday, at 7 p.m. and on Tuesday, November 12th, at 7 p.m. I sincerely extend to you this invitation to attend. We will try and make you as comfortable as possible and I am certain that Mr. Barabash, of the Rock-Ola Manufacturing Company, will fill your cup of knowledge to the brim.

Sensational action built into new Bally HOOTENANNY

Fast and furious action insured by clever HOOTENANNY playfield layout and brand new actionizing features. New Spark-Plug Button triggers plain Rubber Rebound into explosive action of a Sling-Shot Kicker, blasting ball directly into nest of 3 Thumper-Bumpers. New Scoring-Post scores like a Bumper in half the space of a Bumper, keeping front field open for exciting criss-cross ball action. HOOTENANNY crams more action, suspense and "came-close" repeat play appeal into a single colorful playfield than any game in recent years.

Ball shot through new Progressive-Scoring Lane scores 10 with both Gates closed . . . 30 when top Gate is opened by skill. Extra-skill opens both Gates, which remain open until Free Ball escapes through Lane, ringing up 100 on the way.

2 Carry-Over Features

Each Free Ball lights next letter of HOOTENANNY. Lit letters remain lit from game to game until Specials are scored by lighting complete name. Double carry-overs keep players coming back.

California Clippings

The Harbor Music Operators Association of Long Beach held their annual meeting and election of officers, at the Sierra Restaurant in Bellflower last Tuesday. Bob Holland was elected president and Johnny Miller secretary of the Association. . . . The new deluxe model Valley pool table has been in great demand recently at Simon Distributing Co., and continuing to show good sales response. Frank Mencuri said with the increase of their export business they have been scratching for equipment, to fill the back log of orders on phonographs & bowlers. Export orders are being prepared this week for shipment to Japan and the Philippines. Frank was happy to inform that his son, "Butch," is now employed at Simon's, assisting in the shop. Mrs. Bloma Goldstein, (gal Friday) and new employee, doing an excellent job in the office. . . . Hank Tronick of C. A. Robinson & Co. reports the new Skippy shuffle alley arrived, and everyone agrees that it is the most attractive game that United has produced to date. Hank went on to say, it will unquestionably be just as beautiful inside the cash box.

Jack Gutshall of Corona in, visiting with Charlie Robinson. . . . Paul Laymon, Inc. running a special sale on their full line of Raymer products. Jim Wilkins said many operators are taking advantage of specials on amplifiers and tuners for background units. . . . Walt Hemple, San Fernando operator & pres. of L.A. division of Calif. Music Merchants Assoc., returned from the hospital on the 9th. Walt suffered from a broken ankle and will be in a wheel chair for several months. . . . Lee Palmer of Everest Records visiting Leuenhagen's 'record bar' and flipped over Gloria Lynne's, "I Wish You Love," which is getting strong air-play. The Solle Girls mentioned that Ruth Olay's "Scarlet Bird" is also getting very good action, and sounds real 'folkish'. . . . Ray Eberts formerly of Eberts Music, visiting this week at the local Wurlitzer Factory Branch.

Clayton Ballard and his wife, Garna, jetting to Mexico City on a combination business & pleasure trip, to attend the annual Wurlitzer Distributor Meeting. . . . At Duarte International Sales Co., Joe Duarte informed the shop has been working overtime on over-seas shipments, and it will take till the first of next year to fill their back log of orders. Jack Rooklyn of Sydney, Australia, paid a visit en route to Chicago and New York. . . . Bill Lanzy of American Coin Machine, Inc. enjoying his new residence in Glendale; Bill recently moved from Seal Beach. . . . Mike Hall returned from a weekend of skiing in the Sierra's. . . . Tex Leerskov active again following a month's vacation in Chicago. . . . At California Music Jerry Barish said record sales have remained firm and steady, and they are now preparing for the holiday rush. . . . There has been exceptionally good sales action on new equipment at R. F. Jones & Co., keeping the shop busy with installations.

A showing of the new Rowe AMI Tropicana phonograph was held at the Kings Inn in San Diego. The largest attendance of operators than ever before came to view the new phonograph, and were greeted by Chuck Klein, Don Edwards and Jack Leonard. Ed Wilkes informed that Jim Crosby has been employed as credit manager and will also assist in sales. Jim is a well known figure in the coin machine industry and his many friends will be happy to know of his location. Chuck Klein proud of the new silver-blue Chevie Impala sedan purchased for business. Chuck is on another business trip to the home office in San Francisco. . . . Marshall Ames of Amco Music and Vending Inc. will be spending a few weeks in San Diego, setting up a new office for that area.

UPPER MID-WEST MUSINGS

Red Wilbur, Duluth, Minn. in town for the day picking up his parts and record order. . . . Frank Coubal in town last week for the day making the rounds. Frank suffered a stroke about a year ago and is getting along just fine. Although he has to use a cane to get around he is driving his car and is showing great improvement. . . . Plenty of the boys in Minnesota are deer hunting this week-end as the season starts. Way up North, Einar Carlson and Vern Thomas, Virginia, Minn. don't have to travel but just a few miles. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence Sanford, Dodge Center, Minn. in town for a few hours making the rounds. . . . Happy birthday to Forrest Dahl, Fergus Falls, Minn.; Ralph Harvey, Mitchell, So. Dakota; Roy Foster, Sioux Falls, So. Dakota; and Amos Heilicher, Minneapolis. . . . Don Hazelwood, Aitkin, Minn. has been spending his winters in Miami the past few years is building a new home in Aitkin, and will remain there. . . . Mr. & Mrs. John Czerniak, spent a two week vacation at Baton Rouge, La. Purpose of the trip was to attend a wedding of a relative. . . . Bill Smilonvich, in town for a few hours visiting relatives in St. Paul, and picking up records and parts. . . . Frank Krall, and Bob LeCleir and Lawrence Schillinger will be on the firing line next week when deer season opens in Wisconsin.

100 Attend Ruffler-Walker London Showing

LONDON—Messrs. Ruffler & Walker, sole importers for Rock-Ola in this country recently hosted a celebration to launch the 1964 Rock-Ola line. Over 100 juke box operators attended the cocktail party and luncheon at a banquet hall adjacent to the company's Clapham Junction headquarters. A highlight of the event was a cinematic review of all Rock-Ola models which Ruffler & Walker have promoted since they took over the agency nearly seven years ago. This was followed by an address of welcome by Fred Walker and a comprehensive introduction to the new machines by Gordon Walker.

The somewhat early showing of the 1964 phono line has been brought about by the world wide success of the 1963 Rhapsody I and Capri I phonographs which reached the year's estimated sales volume three months ahead of schedule. Praising the new Rock-Ola 1964 Rhapsody II, Walker said that the phonograph justified still further the manufacturer's claim for reliability and simplicity. He particularly praised the predominantly black but attractive color scheme which together with the subtle introduction of brighter colors allied to perfect illumination made the Rhapsody II not only eye catching but easily adaptable to any kind of decor. Another attraction is the new hard wearing 'conolite' processed cabinet in which the machine is housed. This, and all the other new machines including the wallbox Rhapsody II and the Capri II have been specially designed for acceptance in top class locations. Gordon Walker also announced that when the new Rock-Ola Caravelle cigarette vendor is introduced here shortly Ruffler & Walker will be handling it exclusively for the U.K.

After the celebrations the majority of operators went back to the Ruffler

Empire Adds Wisconsin Iowa, To Present United Territory

JOE ROBBINS

CHICAGO—Joe Robbins, vice president of Empire Coin Machine Exchange, in this city, last week announced the addition of the Wisconsin and Iowa territories for distribution of United Manufacturing Company's coin machine products.

Robbins stated that this is the culminating step in the territorial expansion program Empire Coin embarked on several months ago.

Previously, the territory for Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp.'s line of coin-operated phonographs, and Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp.'s amusement games was extended for Empire Coin to include the midwestern states surrounding the Great Lakes.

& Walker showrooms where they viewed the large range of equipment which is handled by Ruffler & Walker for the United Kingdom. This included machines by Gottlieb, Jennings, Keeney, Games and Sega.

UNITED OPERATORS ARE SUCCESSFUL OPERATORS

Exclusive ROCK-OLA feature takes the guesswork out of profit yield per cup

Perfect coffee flavor is a sure bet!

Only Rock-Ola gives you four ways to "turn" perfect flavor into more profits . . . with these four exclusive inter-changeable measuring cups. As you know, accurately measured coffee throw ends waste. With this exclusive Rock-Ola feature you get more cups of coffee per pound, more profit. You know in advance the exact profit yield per cup!

Here's how it works: The Coffee Hopper is a simple revolving unit. When a coffee selection is made, fresh coffee is automatically dropped into brewer; there it is brewed at a pre-set time adjustment for proper extraction and dispensed. Upon completion of vending cycle measuring cup is refilled in coffee hopper, excess coffee is "cleaved" away. An accurately measured cup of fresh coffee is now ready for the next vend cycle.

To vary coffee throw . . . vend more cups per pound, simply change measuring cup at the bottom of the hopper. The 45 cup per lb. measuring cup drops 9.9 grams each vend, the 52 cup per lb. measuring cup drops 8.7 grams each vend, the 58 cup per lb. measuring cup drops 7.8 grams and the 63 cup per lb. measuring cup drops 7.2 grams. Adjustable brewing time feature assures proper extraction regardless of cup quantity selection.

That's all there is to it! No augers, no impellers . . . nothing to break down, no waste! Like all Rock-Ola coffee vendor features, simplicity is the key to top profit!

ROCK-OLA MODEL 1403-S

This exclusive feature is only one of the top profit makers on the Rock-Ola Model 1403-S Coffee and Hot Drink Vendor. Rich, flavorful coffee is always the case . . . four ways: black, black with sugar, with creme, with sugar and creme; extra creme and sugar buttons are a standard feature. Plus, hot whipped chocolate and hot whipped soup. Modular skirt conversion kit available when used in full line vending bank. Model 1403 (no soup) also available.
