SPRING BOOMS PLAY

Ops Say Upswing Bigger Than Expected. Claim Higher National Averages Certain. Even Bigger Play Seen as Weather Clears

NEW YORK—Just as was predicted some weeks ago, the entrance of Spring has boomed play on all types of coin operated equipment, with the result that ops are happier than they have been in many months, and now generally believe that the national averages for all types of machines will reach higher proportions than originally expected.

From one noted op came the following statement, "I guess, like almost everyone else here in the east, we suffered a very tough winter. People just wouldn't come out of their homes to visit around and this hurt play very much, in this territory anyway.

"Now, with the entrance of the warmer weather and the disappearance of the snow, which seemed like it would linger around until late summer", he continues, "we have had a marvelous increase in play all down the line. Even on our poorest locations," he says, "we have felt the effect of the increase. We can safely state now that our average has jumped better than 35%, and when we can see a jump of that kind, there is no doubt that others, all over this area, are also enjoying increases."

It is now expected that the national average will show a very definite rise, far and beyond what was originally hoped for, and that ops all over the nation will soon be reporting that play is going ahead even better than what was forecast.

As far as juke boxes are concerned, one well known music op stated, "We had an increase almost the very first day that the weather began to warm up. This increase has continued. We now realize it isn't just a momentary spurt. We know that it will continue. Our collection records prove that the people are again getting around and visiting at various locations we have. Even the storekeepers tell us that business has picked up."

A well known pin game op stated, "It seems like you fellows at The Cash Box were right—that we would see an increase with warmer weather. In our case, the increase was almost immediate. We have jumped our collections and we believe that this is only the beginning. Many of the outlying spots we have, haven't as yet felt the flow of trade which they always had around this time of the year. There is no doubt", he said, "that we shall soon be seeing better collections in these spots. It looks like spring", he concluded, "did a nice springing job on collections for us."

What is most important, in these reports coming from leading operators thruout the nation, is that each one mentions that, "even bigger play can be expected as the weather continues to get warmer", and that means that the trade can expect one of the best Spring and Summer seasons it has ever yet enjoyed.

Many are taking advantage of the increase in play, which they are already enjoying, to purchase new equipment. "This", one op stated, "is definitely the answer. The people come back to a location and find a new piece of equipment there, instead of the old machine they saw when last there, and immediately play zooms. There's nothing like a new game", he reports, "to instil the play appeal into the average man and woman, and to bring in the coin to boom averages upward."

For sometime, during the harsh winter months, leaders predicted that operators would find play improving the moment the weather turned more favorable, and the public could once again move about. The result of the survey made by The Cash Box proves these men right. And also points the way to more increased play, as more and more people begin to get about.

There is also expected to be a great "traveling summer" ahead. This, it is believed, will help tremendously to boom averages for all in the nation.

"The public hasn't lost its desire to play coin machines", one noted coin machine leader writes, "for they proved this by the way they have taken to the new games, new phonos and new service and merchandise machines, once they could get out of their homes and visit about on locations once again."

Progressive operators, it is reported, will be among the very first to cash in on this new and more optimistic trend by the use of the new equipment. Already many factories report increases in orders from their distributors.

One well known pin game factory salesman reported, "Where we formerly considered one of our distributors a 100 game man for a new machine, he is today ordering 185 of each new game as his initial order. He tells us that the operators find play has jumped with the new machines, and the fact that the public are once again getting about, he foresees a much better play era ahead."

There is also no doubt that play increase will be continued right into the summer months and this year, it is believed, even the very warm weather won't hold it back. The average operator is arranging to switch machines from location to location much more rapidly than he has done in the past, and plans to continue a constant flow of new games for all of his spots to keep interest at fever pitch.

The juke box men are also reporting better take all down the line. The merchandise machine and service machine men are much enthused. Optimism reigns higher now than at any time in the past months.

JOHNNY Q. PUBLIC DOESN'T BUY MACHINES

When Johnny Q. Public Walks Up to a Machine With a Coin in His Hand...He's Not Going to Buy the Machine...He's Only Buying the Entertainment, Service or Merchandise It Vends

NEW YORK—A great many coinmen seem to have overlooked the very, very important fact that Johnny Q. Public doesn't buy their machines.

Johnny and his Mrs. aren't interested in buying the machine when they walk up to it with a coin in their hand. They are, instead, interested in purchasing the amusement, service, entertainment or merchandise, which the machine vends.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Q. Public are more interested in a new record by some outstanding recording star they like, than in the number of lights, plastics, tubes, lumilines, etc. which are contained in the automatic phonograph.

If they want to hear one of the stars singing a song they like—the coin they deposit—is not being deposited to buy that machine. It's put in there to listen to that star—whether he's Bing Crosby, Dinah Shore, Perry Como, Frankie Laine, Guy Lombardo or any of the many others who come to mind.

This has been proved by the fact that wall and bar boxes and cabinets have been successful.

The operator simply must remember that he is not selling his machine to the public. He is, instead, selling whatever that machine vends. Therefore, to make his sale more successful, he must meet with whatever conditions Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Q. Public impose on him, and, on his equipment.

Once the operator has definitely engrained on his mind that it is not his machine Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Q. Public are buying, he will move ahead faster than he ever did before.

The answer, as leaders have seen it, is for the operator to serve Mr. Public in the way to which Mr. Public has become accustomed, and with the merchandise which Mr. Public desires.

That is the idea in merchandising—whether it is merchandising entertainment, music or any other product or service.

Remember, then, that Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Q. Public don't walk up to the machine with a coin in their hands to buy the machine. They are, instead, buying what that machine vends.

The product that is being vended must be made just as attractive to them as the leading merchandise experts in the nation make it attractive in all other fields. Among these can be counted the noted department stores, who continue to attract attention to themselves and who continue to garner the major portion of sales, for they realize that Mr. and Mrs. Public haven't come in to buy their stores but, instead, have come to buy the merchandise which the stores feature.

How, then, can the operators best obtain the lion's share of what the public want to spend for entertainment, for music, for merchandise?

Simply by offering the public neat, clean, sparkling, attractive, interesting and completely better machines, and making those machines actually "talk out loud" to encourage the public to use them.

The bad needles, bad records, dirty and smudged coin operated phonos aren't going to get the business. The neglected, too-long-on-location, unclean pin games, aren't going to get the business. The old fashioned and dirty merchandisers aren't going to get the business. The uncleaned, unserviced machines of any kind aren't going to prove attractive to the public, and aren't going to make the public "want" to patronize them.

As leaders have time and again stated, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Public aren't buying the machine when they walk up to it with a coin in their hands—they're buying the service the machine renders to them—the recording of the star they like—the entertaining relaxation of a coin operated amusement machine—the merchandise which is right on their doorstep. It's up to the operator to continue to attract the public's patronage to his machines by remembering that, "it's what's in the machine that counts."

There is no longer any need for the average operator to get out there and simply punch machine after machine at the public, if he isn't going to make that machine something that the public most definitely wants.

There's no use trying to pull wool over the public's eyes, for the public today can buy competitively and almost at their own price. Inflation is gradually becoming deflation.

The operator must give the public a bargain—a great, big, brand new bargain with a gorgeous lot of flash around it. That means he must simply remember that he isn't selling the public his machine. He's selling service, entertainment, merchandise.

TIE IN WITH GOOD SHOWMANSHIP

Coinmen Urged to Help Sponsor Charity Drives by Donating Percentage of Intake. Use Radio and Newspapers to Advertise to Public, Boost Locations, Equipment

NEW YORK—"Tie in with good showmanship", should become the slogan of the coin machine industry from now on in.

Coinmen thruout the nation have learned that engaging their attention and their time with the "technicalities" of the coin machine business, such as the various features of machines, alone, isn't what brings in the money.

The real fact remains that the coin machine operator must be a showman in his own right to enjoy profits proportionate to what his equipment costs him, so that he can continue on in this industry profitably and successfully.

The time has arrived for the average operator to forget about technicalities and to, instead, remember more about showmanship—the one thing that will continue him in the trade profitably.

For years intelligent coinmen tied in with everything of importance in their communities. If there was a drive afoot to help some worthwhile charity, coinmen were first to offer their assistance.

Not only did they offer a percentage of the intake from their equipment, but, they even went to the extent of advertising and promoting that worthwhile charity at their own expense, thereby gaining the plaudits and commendation of the public.

The trade seems to have forgotten this all important fact. Seems to have neglected the great possibilities which coin machines offer to the average charitable institution. The time has again arrived when coinmen should tie in, to popularize their machines in a much better light, with their communities.

Yet, this is but one item, in the long role of what showmanship can do for them. For instance, there is the radio and the newspapers and the various other advertising media which they can use.

Last week an editorial appeared here advising what an operator in Daytona Beach, Fla. was doing to capture more locations as well as obtain front money from his present locations, by buying a full hour's time on his local radio station and playing the records the public would hear in his juke boxes while, at the same time, boosting his locations.

This is only one method which can be used to make showmanship click. For all who are engaged in the coin machine business are in a showmanship business. Therefore, as showmen, they've got to keep ahead of the average business man and actually become the "Barnums" of their communities.

They must not be brassy or bold—they must be discreet—and, at the same time, they must be wholeheartedly cooperative with all the charitable forces at work in their community—but—in such fashion that the community will realize that they are absolutely not taking advantage of the good which these charities provide for the multitude.

The way that the coinmen of the nation entered wholeheartedly into the Gamon Runyon Memorial Cancer Fund drive is only an example of what this industry can really achieve—and this field could have doubled and trebled the amount it donated to this fund—if all the people of this business would have come forth to help.

Yet, it is the belief of the leaders of the industry, that because the average coinman is most interested in his local community—he should instantly give his all to such effort—for this will prove of great benefit to all the trade.

There is no longer any doubt in the minds of those engaged in the field that the trade should make use of its own great power to help all concerned in every community in the nation, whether large or small, for such effort is what will continue the industry as the most outstanding division of the nation's entertainment fields.

Coinmen have always been first to offer everything they have to help every cause of their community. During the war they not only loaned their trucks and cars but bought trucks and cars and donated these to their communities, as well as giving all they could in cash.

Prior to the war not a charitable effort passed by a coin machine man. He made it his business to be first to offer the services of himself, his employees and his equipment. He must again return to the promotional showmanship which caused him to be so outstanding among the nation's entertainment fields.

Whether it is just a small, local effort, or a great national or international charitable affair, coin machine men should again be first to offer their help.

Only by such action will they win to their side the authorities who have so long opposed them—just as these people opposed the movies and now oppose television.

Showmanship is the heartbeat and the heartblood of the coin machine field. It should be its leading light. It should be the one thing for which this field can be best regarded. This should be one field on which every community in the nation can depend when it drives for a new charitable cause. And, each one of these things should be done from the heart—most completely—by every coinman in the country.

This is, then, the time when the industry returns to the use of good, old fashioned showmanship to once again help lead its way to the top of the fields which have made entertainment their forte—for this field leads all the entertainment industries in the nation—because of economy, portability and because, further, it is a field composed of the grandest people in the nation.

(Columbia 38114)

Pair of attractive sides by chirp Dinah Shore and the melody of "Little White Lies" and "Crying For Joy" spill here. Top deck gets some smooth treatment by Dinah as the light bounce rhythm of this favorite oldie seeps thru. Dinah's pitch is offered in gay styling with the rhythm accompaniment backing the lass in adequate fashion. On the flip with "Crying For Joy", Dinah comes back with more cute lyrical expressions on this mellow piece. Instrumental backing by maestro Sonny Burke offers Dinah a pleasant showcase. Both sides should meet with fair approval—especially so by Dinah's many fans.

"You Turned The Tables On Me" (2:49)
"My Guitar" (2:36)

JIMMY DORSEY ORCH.
(MGM 10162)

Maestro Jimmy Dorsey sets a pair here that might boost his crew into the phono spotlight once again. Tilted "You Turned The Tables On Me" and "My Guitar", Jimmy renders a polished performance on the pair, with the top deck grabbing off the limelight. Thrush Carol Scott spoons the magic wordage here, with the ork filling the background with musical moments that count. Vocal spot is effective and altho it won't draw raves, the gal fills the bill. Flip is romance material, with piper Bill Lawrence offering sugar coated lyrics. Stuff is styled in the sweet Dorsey manner with loads of sax echoing throughout the wax. If you have an extra spot on your machine—this pair should suit your needs.

"Down In Jungle Town" (2:20)

PHILLIE ALL STAR STRING BAND
(Apollo 1112)

Stuff rendered by the Phillie All Star String Band shows as excellent material for the phonos with the top side ditty, "Baby Face", grabbing all the glory. Tune is highly flavored by some wonderful banjo which keeps the metro of the ditty hot and heavy all thru. It's the oldie that scored like mad many moons ago—we see no reason why it shouldn't go today. Flip parrots the top deck and makes for more pleasant listening. Get next to this duo—but pronto!

"I Can't Give You Anything But Love"
(2:47)

"King For A Day" (2:41)
SABBY LEWIS ORCH.
(Crystal Tone 516)

One of the best interpretations of "I Can't Give You Anything But Love" is offered here by the excellent Sabby Lewis crew, with the rhythm running hog wild throughout the wax. Band vocal in novel wordage arrangement cops the lead, with some wonderful solo spots filling the air with loads of bounce. Stuff should meet with high favor from the crowd that goes for this brand. Flip, titled "King For A Day" digs down deep with piper Ted Rogers warbling the mellow wordage. Wax makes for pleasant listening and altho this side won't stop traffic, it should garner its fair share of phono play. Top deck will really kick up a storm.

"Laroo Laroo Lilli Bolero" (2:41)
"Hold It Joe" (2:50)

SHEP FIELDS ORCH.
(Musicraft 546)

SHEP FIELDS

Here's a nickel-nabber if there ever was one! Long missing from the phonos as a name attraction, maestro Shep Fields is a cinch to score heavily with this Neapolitan ode. Titled "Laroo Laroo Lilli Bolero", Shep offers a ton of sparkling rhythm to set the stage for an avalanche of coin play. Balladeer Bob Johnstone to the mike to warble the enchanting wordage which tells the tale of a magic phrase. The pipers soft blending resounds throughout the wax in exquisite tones that satisfy, while Shep and the boys provide some excellent background. Stuff is a natural for the quiet spots and should grab a slew of coin. On the flip with a bit of a novelty piece tagged "Hold It Joe", chirp Toni Arden joins with Bob Johnstone to render some favorable musical moments. Wax has a Latin kick to it and should meet with wide favor. "Laroo Laroo Lilli Bolero" rates like a spade flush—hop on the bandwagon.

"Keep Me In Mind" (3:02)
"Scratch My Back" (2:21)

BUDDY GRECO & THE SHARPS
(Musicraft 548)

Here's one that's a shot in the dark. Following on the heels of their smash success with "Oooh Looka There Ain't She Pretty", Buddy Greco & The Sharps set a platter that appears as if it will repeat. Labeled "Keep Me In Mind", Buddy grabs the vocal lead to spoon some velvet lyrics around this affectionate ballad. The kids tonsils have that infectious twang to it, making this deck all the more attractive. Wonderful backing in soft delicate mood spikes the cookie immensely. Natch the wax spills slow tender mood and makes it a sure bet for the kids that love to love. Flip is a novelty piece titled "Scratch My Back", with Buddy in the vocal spotlight once again. Rhythm backing has some nice bounce to it altho it's Buddy's pipes that grab the lead. "Keep Me In Mind" will keep the ops in coin—grab it.

"It's Easy When You Know How" (2:50)
"It Began In Havana" (2:59)

XAVIER CUGAT ORCH.
(Columbia 38135)

Delightful rhythmic offerings of maestro Xavier Cugat, coupled with the nostalgic vocal styling of balladeer Buddy Clark set the stage for some excellent coin play here. Top side titled "It's Easy When You Know How" has Buddy spooning the gilded wordage, while famed orkster swings out with some highly fashioned Latin-American rhythm. Wordage spills around the title and is suited for both the dance and listener crowd. On the flip with "It Began In Havana", Xavier showers piper Bob Graham to the mike to offer the cute romance lyrics here. Rendition is effective and is pleasant throughout. Soft floating strings and loads of sweet make this another item for the cupid kids. We go for the top side—we're sure you will too.

"Jumpin' At The Woodside" (2:41)
"Music Hall Beat" (2:41)

(Apollo 777)

Pair of sides for the hep jazzophile crowd and the full fashioned rhythm of swingster Illinois Jacquet spill here. Wax, titled "Jumpin' At The Woodside" and "Music Hall Beat" offers all the riff and holler you can stand, with the maestro's flourishing sax highlighting the pair. Top deck is the Basie favorite, and as offered here, should meet with wide approval. Tempo is merry throughout with the crew coming in for spots. Backing has heavy beat and should go big with the race fans. We like "Jumpin' At The Woodside"—whirl it!

"I Want A Little Girl" (2:42)
"T-Bone Jumps Again" (2:38)

T-BONE WALKER
(Black & White 125)

Riding hot and heavy in a zillion race spots, T-Bone Walker sets the stage for added coin play with this piece titled "I Want A Little Girl." Waxing moves in slow timing throughout with the maestro's fond pipes pitching a charmed story. Loads of mellow guitar are offered here, while the rest of the crew keep the tone down low to round out the side. On the flip with "T-Bone Jumps Again", the gang display their excellent wares in high fashion, with T-Bone's guitar leading again. Both sides should come in for some heavy coin play, with "I Want A Little Girl" hogging the limelight.

The fact that diskers continue to lose out on potential record sales is greatly evidenced by reports reaching The Cash Box of operators who are substituting old stand-by recordings for current hit platters. Operators, in ever increasing numbers have made inquiries to The Cash Box to learn who their distributor is for a particular record line. The loss in sales volume arises when the operator, upon learning that he must travel great distances to purchase fifty or even more recordings, says, "The devil with it—I'll use this oldie". The simple fact is that the cost of that trip to purchase necessary recordings largely exceeds the total purchase price of those same recordings. Then again, operators as a group, do not know where their record distributors are located, because of the lack of published information. The state of Texas is the proving ground. In order to adequately supply that large territory, many diskers have found that they need at least four distributors. To wit: The majority of record manufacturers throughout the nation have only two—and many one. As a matter of fact we know of several who don't even have a distrib in Texas—causing ops and dealers to chase up to Oklahoma City or Denver to spend a few bucks. The situation certainly needs some drastic changes—the music ops deserve it.

The tremendous popularity of chirp Sarah Vaughn certainly isn't limited to music fans. Police of Atlantic City, N. J. are seeking a fan (?) of the singing star in connection with a robbery that took place at one of the resort city's largest music shops, Ben Heller's Music Center. Taking inventory following the burglarizing of his store, Heller reported that in addition to the cash taken from his register, the thief took off with 250 of Sarah's Musicraft diskings of "My Gentleman Friend". Police are checking her fan mail we hear, in an effort to track down the meanie.

Record Reviews

"I Wish I Knew The Name" (2:31)

"My Fair Lady" (3:03)

JACK EDWARDS ORCH.
(MGM 10161)

● Pair of pleasing sides by newcomer Jack Edwards and the metro of "I Wish I Knew The Name" and "My Fair Lady" seeping thru here. Top deck has a bit of life and bounce in it with maestro Jack to spoon the fancy wordage himself. Orchestral backing here is pleasant and shows a distinctive musical styling. Flip, an adaptation of the nursery rhyme "London Bridges" shows Jack and the gang in complementary light as they offer in ballad tempo "My Fair Lady". Jack's heavy pipes, a la Vaughn Monroe, have sincere feeling and meaning in his interpretation. Wax is made for the quiet dinner spots, where they love to sit back and relax. The lad's initial hunk of wax deserves a spot in your machine—hop to it.

"Laroo Laroo Lilli Bolero" (3:10)

"Someone Cares" (3:20)

FRANKIE CARLE ORCH.
(Columbia 38130)

● Another potential coin winner by maestro Frankie Carle with this ditty bound to be among the featured disks in the phonos in the near future. Titled, "Laroo Laroo Lilli Bolero", piper Gregg Lawrence steps to the deck to offer the simple flowing wordage. His rendition is easy on the ears and makes for pleasant listening. Light instrumental backing, coupled with maestro Carle's fine ivory fashions back the lad with smooth music all the way. On the flip with more ballad material, chirp Nan Wright grabs the lead to offer "Someone Cares." Stuff parrots the top deck in mood and manner. It's a plush velvet setting that should go over well with the more sedate set. Both sides should boost your phono play.

"We Just Couldn't Say Goodbye" (3:05)

"But None Like You" (3:10)

FRANK SINATRA
(Columbia 38129)

● Pair of bright and favorable sides by the widely popular verce, Frank Sinatra and the wax message of "We Just Couldn't Say Goodbye" and "But None Like You." Top deck is an oldie that gets a sparkling and enthusiastic sendoff by Frankie, while the instrumental trio behind him radiates brilliantly. Stuff makes for mellow listening and should meet with wide favor. On the flip with a switch to the more gentle, sincere ballad that Frankie usually spoons, it's an air of delicacy that greets the listener for "But None Like You". Waxing gets some polished brass by maestro Alex Stordahl, while Frankie spills the gilded lyrics. Dig the title and you've got the story on this one. Both sides for the soda spots where the kids love this stuff.

"Beyond The Sea" (3:07)

"All The Way" (3:08)

HARRY JAMES ORCH.
(Columbia 38134)

● Pair of flashy Harry James sides and the tones of "Beyond The Sea" and "All The Way" grind thru. Top deck should meet with wide favor—it's a piece of deep, meaningful music that gets a splendid sendoff by chirp Marion Morgan. The gal's lusty pipes pitch this fervid piece in deep throbbing tones that will meet your ear and make you wanna get up close. Maestro James' horn and some beautiful singing strings offset the backdrop to spike the disk all the way. On the flip with an all instrumental affair titled "All The Way", the James crew displays their versatile talents in fairish mood. Top side, "Beyond The Sea" will draw the moola.

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

"Long After Tonight" (3:01)

"The Miracle Of The Bells" (3:06)

KATE SMITH

KATE SMITH

● This disk is by all means—a must item in your machines! Establishing herself as a winner in the phonos, Kate Smith sets with a deck that should be a gold strike for music ops. From the forthcoming Enterprise film production "Arch Of Triumph", Kate renders the rapturous music to "Long After Tonight", and does so in such strong powerful tones as to attract attention throughout the music world. Kate's rendition of this bit is by far one of her best ever. The deep meaning found in her lyrical expression draws close attention, and keeps the listener enthralled by a first rate performance. Musical background provided by maestro Jack Miller is superb—an aura of soft gilded strings floats throughout the entire waxing in excellent manner. On the backing with more flicker music, Kate gives with another wonderful waxing in "The Miracle of the Bells", from the pic of the same name. It's another plush setting and more velvet on this side, with the wax resounding with buffalo all thru. Both sides should come in for some exceptional flack once their flicker attachments are released—with "Long After Tonight" hogging the spotlight.

"It Was Written In The Stars" (2:40)

"What's Good About Goodbye" (3:02)

ART LUND

● The nostalgic gilded tones of choir boy Art Lund and a pair of flicker tunes that are sure fire juke box material. You'll go for the soft setting of "It Was Written In The Stars" and "What's Good About Goodbye", both from the forthcoming Universal-International flicker "Casbah." Top deck grabs the glory here with Art's ear pleasing vocal strains spilling around some mighty fond music furnished by maestro Johnny Thompson and his boys. The pair, loaded with vapor for the moon-in-june kids make for dreamy listening throughout. Flip is another tear provoker, with Art's velvet tonsils filling the air in fond manner. Where they go for Lund they'll hold still for this duo.

"You Turned The Tables On Me" (2:58)

"Give Me Those Good Ole Days" (2:50)

BENNY GOODMAN ORCH.
(Capitol 15044)

● Click Benny Goodman crew serves a blue ribboned pair of phono finds with their rendition of "You Turned The Tables On Me" and "Give Me Those Good Ole Days." Top deck, featured chirp Emma Lou Welch to wail the infectious wordage of this gay oldie, should start a steady stream of coin rushing in the machines. Emma's vocal spot is both catchy and delightful, of the sort to make you wanna keep playing the thing time and again. Flip is a piece aimed at the tavern spots, and is offered in gay '90 vintage. Vocal combo to the fore to spill the mellow wordage, undoubtedly familiar to most ops. We go for the top deck and "You Turned The Tables On Me"—it should mean lots of phono action for the ops.

"Toolie Oolie Doolie" (2:39)

"Helicopter Polka" (2:50)

WALT DANA ORCH.
(Dana 2015)

● Click tune kicking up a storm in oh so many spots gets a hypo with this rendition. Walt Dana crew step out in high fashion to spill the catchy "Toolie Oolie Doolie", the Swiss yodel polka. Echo effect in the vocal chorus is both charming and appreciable, while the instrumental backing spikes the cookie. On the flip with more polka rhythms, Walt offers "Helicopter Polka." What with the entire music world going buggy over polkas, we see no reason why this one shouldn't go as well. "Toolie Oolie Doolie" will boost your phono take—get it.

"Wedding Bells Are Breaking Up That Old Gang Of Mine" (2:41)

"Jealousy" (2:49)

AL BLANK TRIO
(Rainbow 10053)

● There's no doubt about this one nabbing nickels for phono ops! The Al Blank Trio step out in top notch fashion with this oldie that should have the tavern set on their ear—but pronto. It's "Wedding Bells Are Breaking Up That Old Gang Of Mine", replete with high button shoes, high collar and derby hat to sparkle this thing into a ton of coin play. Fond harmonica tones in the second chorus spike the disk all the way and add to the cookies' attractiveness. On the backing with the favorite "Jealousy", the trio come back for some bright patterns in hamonica styling. Disk always has appeal and as such, should win favor with many ops. Top deck will score like mad.

"Silly No—Silly Yes" (2:51)

"Ok'l Baby Dok'l"

CONNIE HAINES
(Signature 15179)

● This one really is a silly dilly of a ditty—with appropriate title to match. Chirp Connie Haines steps out in high gear to offer cute lyrics here which are well loaded with possibilities to score heavily in the phonos. "Silly No—Silly Yes", weaving with a Latin background beat should grab it's fair share of phono play. On the backing with the rapidly rising "Ok'l Baby Dok'l", Connie pitches pipes in wee manner to sparkle radiantly throughout this cute novelty piece. Ditty is currently kicking up a storm throughout many sections of the nation—Connie's rendition should have it blossoming. If your machines need some excellent iller material—this pair will do.

DISK PROMOTION POSTERS HYPO JUKE BOX PLAY—OPS FIND QUARTER AND DIME PLAY GREATLY INCREASED

"Hit Parade" Posters Dress Up Locations—Many Music Ops Associations Undergoing Test Campaigns

NEW YORK—The increased use of posters, designed by Hit Parade, Inc., with headquarters in this city, is resulting in an immense increase in automatic music play, The Cash Box learned this past week.

The posters, currently undergoing test campaigns by the New York Automatic Music Operators Association; the Philadelphia Music Operators Association and many other trade groups, were recently distributed to a group of music operators throughout the metropolitan New York area. Checks were made on those locations, determining the amount of play per phonograph prior to the use of the Hit Parade poster and the amount of play after the poster had been on the juke box.

Music operators were learned to be enthusiastically endorsing the poster. Results of spot tests in this area proved that play increases greatly and in addition, the amount of quarter and dime play had increased as much as 40% in some locations.

One well known music operator, when queried as to the promise the posters hold for other music ops, stated, "I'm sold completely on these Hit Parade posters. Not only do they satisfy myself by greatly increasing the total amount of play, but my locations find that it has increased their business as well. The posters dress up a machine and make it easier for the potential customer to select a tune by featuring the 'top ten tunes' of the month right on the poster. The inclusion of pictures of top name artists also has its effect upon the public, since everybody constantly is seeking an association with 'glamour'."

Yermy Stern, president of Hit Parade, Inc., disclosed the working details of the poster plan. "The cost to music operators is insignificant to the amount of return. The poster, issued monthly, costs the music op 30¢ per month. A frame, which fits the poster can be purchased by the music op at his local frame store. The poster fits right on the juke box and is easily attached. I've spoken to music operators and servicemen alike recently, and both agree that it will not only boost the total 'take' of the machine, but also boost their commissions."

"This poster campaign", Mr. Stern continued, "is nothing more than point of sale promotion. By vividly displaying the music operator's merchandise, namely music, we have found that play has increased. At the same time, the bulk overhead operating costs of music operators have decreased. He buys less records by purchasing those tunes that are in great demand, and cuts down on scattered requests."

"The music operator, whose operating costs are certainly above his head today, needs this boost in 'take'. We are certain that our 'Hit Parade Posters' can accomplish this."

Steinman left this past week with Hy Siegel, Apollo Records president, who will direct the opening of the branch before entraining for the West Coast to look into production facilities there.

Apollo's decision to resume direct distribution from its own branch in Atlanta accompanies the announcement that the diskery has entered into negotiations to distribute several other record lines, not more than three it was learned, from its branch offices in Los Angeles, Detroit, Chicago and New York. Heretofore all branches had adhered to the policy of carrying only the Apollo label. In addition to its own company-operated distributing offices, the Apollo plattery has independent record distributors throughout the nation. The firm also announced the release of their first Charley Barnet album containing six of the maestro's most popular sides.

NEW YORK INDIE RECORD DISTRIBS FORM TRADE ASSOCIATION — AIM FOR BETTER DEALER-OPERATOR RELATIONS

Distributors To Set Credit Information Pool; Will Discuss Central Buying and Code of Practices

NEW YORK—Independent record distributors, representing a large majority of the labels in the nation, met here this past week and formed a local trade group, the New York Record Distributors Association.

The meeting, primarily called to discuss existing credit conditions among dealers and operators was hailed by those present as immensely successful. Distributing firms present were Portem, Cosnat, Melody, Apollo, Malverne. Muscraft, Major, Milemore, Modern and Georgia.

Elected to temporary office were Jerry Blaine, Cosnat Dist. Co., as chairman, Al Hirsch, Malverne Dist. Co., treasurer and Bill Shocket, counsel and secretary.

Widely discussed and of far-reaching importance to the distributors, was the lack of a central credit bureau for the industry.

Pointing out that every other large industry has some source of credit information, Gloria Friedman, representing the Modern Record Sales Company, stated, "The need for a central bureau for the dissemination of information vital to the best interests of all distributors has shown itself more so in recent weeks."

"As a record distributor, I know that we are always seeking ways and means to establish better relations between our customers and ourselves. The frequent practice of giving music operators free title strips is a vivid example."

Other distributors pointed out that the percentage of failures among dealers has greatly increased in recent weeks. Were a central credit bureau established, all distributors could possibly help the potential loss by severally agreeing to extended credit terms or the like. All distributors represented at the meeting, emphatically agreed that dealings with automatic music operators were 100% financially secure.

Briefly discussed at this past meeting were the ideas of central buying and the organization of a code of standard practices. Central buying of corrugated and like items would result in a bulk savings for all distributor members, whereas a code of standard practices, if agreed upon, would set a pattern for all distributors' operation.

The distributors contributed an undisclosed sum to be used in the formation of permanent office help, etc. Bill Shocket, legal eagle for the group, disclosed that they will incorporate.

Fox Pubbery Nabs "Hold It!" Production Score

NEW YORK—Sam Fox Publishing Co., this city, disclosed that they had landed the publishing and music exploitation contract to "Hold It!", a new Broadway musical production with score by Gerald Marks and Sam Lerner.

The Fox organization, who handled the exploitation of the smash Broadway hit "Brigadoon" have firmly made their showing in the musical production field. According to early reports, such songs as "Always You", "Nevermore", "It Was So Nice Having You", "Down The Well" and "Hold It!", are all tunes of hit calibre. To date nine songs are set for release and promotion.

Spokesmen for the Fox firm further disclosed that they are currently angling for two additional scores for 1948-49 season.

Whether or not recordings of the songs from the "Hold It!" production were lined up for release could not be learned. Those concerned with this score feel that the current ban on recordings will have little or no effect when the show bows.

RECORD REVIEWS

"Aha! San Antone"
"If I'd Only Been True To You"
 ROSALIE ALLEN
 (Victor 20-2744)

Click chick Rosalie Allen with a pair of sure coin cullers for ops throughout the nation. Top deck grabs all the glory as Rosalie steps out in extra fine style to offer "Aha! San Antone". Ditty gets a wonderful sendoff by Rosalie, her pipes pitch oh so pretty throughout this piece to which the dance and listener crowd can both latch onto. Add to that, the gal's sensational following and you've got a deck that hits the target. On the flip with "If I'd Only Been True To You", Rosalie keeps the pace merry as she and The Black River Riders offer some wonderful musical moments. Title gives off the bill of fare but you've got to hear it to appreciate it. "Aha! San Antone" is a bet that can't miss—get next to it.

"Whistle Bait"
"Blonde Fiddle Blues"
 SPADE COOLEY
 (Victor 20-2742)

Pair of sides to which ops can get next to are these offered in effective styling by Spade Cooley and his crew. Titled "Whistle Bait" and "Blonde Fiddle Blues", Spade and the boys demonstrate their fine wares here to set the stage for some decent phono play. Both sides are offered in the gay mood with the pace of the wax whirling merrily along. The dance crowd should warm up to the pair—they fit the mood and manner like a glove.

"Soldier's Return"
"It's Your Time To Be Blue"
 TEXAS RUBY
 (King 692)

More wax well loaded with possibilities to click with a host of music ops and the setting that Texas Ruby and Curly Sox offer on "Soldier's Return" and "It's Your Time To Be Blue". Top deck is a plaintive prairie ballad with the ork accompaniment effective throughout. Flip is some real blues with a spot of some wonderful catchy guitar thrown in. Both sides won't stop traffic, but nevertheless make good listening.

"Down With The Feminine Gender"
"Your Broken Vow"
 BOB ATCHER
 (Columbia 38132)

Pair of sides that might meet with favor among ops catering to western music are these offered in plaintive styling by Bob Atcher. Wax is titled "Down With The Feminine Gender" and "Your Broken Vow", with the topside getting the call. Wax spills in drawled vocal with the title giving the story. Flip is a cactus torch song that might start a storm. Effective ork work behind spikes the disk all the way. The pair rate your whirling 'em.

Click Tune Party Clicks With Kids

Popcorn Vendors To Flack For Tower Wax

NEW YORK—New promotion venture in building up potential advance sales for a disk prior to its release was disclosed here this past week by Dick Bradley, president of Tower Records.

Bradley, in New York to prepare promotion pieces and arrange for additional pressing facilities in the event that his forthcoming release, "Popcorn Polka" becomes a smash, announced that he will tie-up with the nations pop corn manufacturers. Stickers hailing the recording will be literally plastered on pop corn vending machines throughout the nation to herald the disks release. Advance flack is also being turned up by the National Association of Popcorn Manufacturers.

Bradley clicked with his initial Tower release "How Soon" by Jack Owens to the tune of well over 300,000 platters.

The trio paid a visit to herald Nat's showing of the new Aireon phono pictured above. Dolph's recording of "Sinbad The Samba" is currently kicking up a storm, as is Dale's "Nina Nana" and "Oh Marie."

Joe Davis Offers "Own Label" To Music Ops

NEW YORK—The novel idea of selling retailers, operators or distributors records bearing their own label was disclosed this past week by Joe Davis.

Davis, who holds a large amount of masters of such names as Harry James, Sammy Kaye, The Red Caps, Bon Bon and Jan Pierce, will press and bear the cost of the printing of labels. Only minimum orders of 1,000 will be accepted it was disclosed. Sales price of the disks will be 49c to retailers and 37½c to distributors.

The disk idea is similar to sales pieces used in other industry's and promotion pieces of chain store units. Retailers have had material or flyer's imprinted with their name in many other forms of business.

Davis, a veteran in the disk biz acquired the masters throughout a number of past years. He also operates a pubbery, whose most recent hit was the famous "Jack, Jack, Jack." Davis also operates his own diskery under the Celebrity label.

MGM Solid As First Disk Year Ends

NEW YORK—MGM Records, who a year ago were considered by many to be "hitting up against a stone wall" in trying to crack the disk market, has finally shown the doubting Thomas' that they are in business to stay.

The close of their first year in the disk biz showed that the plattery is and has been for some time, no longer an "indie"—a term used in the field when referring to a small plattery. The company is firmly entrenched in the disk biz and is one of the platteries to show with a "million disk" in sales this past year. Peak success was reached with Art Lund's "Mam'selle"; Lund's "Peg O' My Heart," current Art Mooney click "I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover" and Macklin Marrow's "Saber Dance."

King Records Add Three Distrib Branches

CINCINNATI, O.—Phil Grogan, promotion manager of King Records, Inc., announced the opening of a new distributing branch in Washington, D. C., this week.

The opening of the Washington, D. C., branch, on March 22 brings to nine the total amount of company owned distributing offices. Two other branches were opened this past month by Al Miller, National Sales Manager for the firm. The other branches opened were in Detroit and Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Gene Allison, Branch Supervisor attended the opening of the Detroit branch and will attend the opening of the Washington, D. C., branch.

Jack Pierce, former manager of the Los Angeles branch, was named to head the Atlanta, Ga., office which will service a larger territory than any link in the King chain. District Manager Al Sherman is supervising the Los Angeles office until a new manager can be appointed.

King has also increased its promotion department recently by naming Jack Roseborough, a former King salesman of San Marcos, Texas, as contact man between disc jockeys and supervising all personal appearances. Stan Barclay, former disc jockey of Washington, D. C., holds a similar position with the company.

Majestic Names New Distributions; Reopens Plant

ELGIN, Ill.—According to an announcement by Parker H. Ericksen, Majestic Records has appointed Ace Distributing Co., Inc., as its exclusive record distributor for Southern California.

The Farr-Wood Dist. Co., was granted the exclusive record distributing franchise for the Providence, R. I., territory.

The firm also announced that their pressing plant located at Newark, N. J., had reopened after a temporary shut down. Production is now at 88% of normal on a two shift basis, according to Mr. E. F. Barile, Vice President in charge of production.

The pressing schedule, determined by distrib orders, required recordings of Eddy Howard on 60% of the plants presses.

END OF RECORDING BAN HINTED AS MUSICIANS GO LIVE ON TELEVISION

NEW YORK—As James C. Petrillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians announced the lifting of the ban on the use of musicians on television networks late this past week, record manufacturers throughout the nation jointly expressed optimistic attitudes regarding the current recording ban.

Withstanding all talk and rumors to the effect that Petrillo had secretly come to agreement with the recording industry, the ban at this date was still very much in effect. Nevertheless there were those who believed that an announcement of the end of the ban would be forthcoming very shortly.

The use of musicians on television, an industry which is rapidly coming into its own, was viewed by many to be the crux of the recording dispute, since the AFM had no means of determining in what manner it would benefit its membership. That television is here to stay is readily agreed upon by many. No fixed rate of pay or scale of wages has been set for the television industry as yet, the AFM announced.

The fact that television, known to have been affecting the phonograph record industry, will in time to come, have many more playing hours and distinctive televised shows was viewed by members of the juke box industry as of little direct concern to them. While television in public places has made its mark to some degree, the novelty of the system is rapidly wearing off and is being accepted as readily as radio. Television sets are likewise coming down in price, and meeting the pocket of the average consumer.

Diskers queried immediately following the Petrillo announcement held high hopes for the end of the recording ban. There also was that faction of the recording industry who expressed a desire to see the ban continue, since they would possibly lose a large investment made in building up a backlog.

Drink Vendors Play Prominent Part at National Coca-Cola Convention at Atlantic City

GORDON MILLS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Automatic drink vending machines played a prominent part in the display at the national Coca-Cola Company Convention at Convention Hall, this city. The first such showing since before the war, the attendance of 6,000 Coca-Cola bottlers, parent company officials, and exhibitors broke all records.

Displaying machines during the show were: Lion Manufacturing Company; Mills Industries, Inc.; Westinghouse Electric Corporation; Vendo Company; F. L. Jacobs Company; and the Vendorlator Manufacturing Company. National Rejectors, Inc., also had a display.

Ray Moloney, Herb Jones and Tim Callahan of Lion Manufacturing Company, spent the week at the show, as did Gordon Mills and Jack Walsh of Mills Industries, Inc.

Representatives of both these firms report that their equipment received a great deal of attention and that consummated some very favorable sales.

Most of the time was spent by the bottlers at meetings and forums, but sufficient time was allowed for the study of the machines displayed.

Auto-Vend In Full Production On New Triple Vendor Popcorn Machine

DALLAS, TEX.—Auto-Vend, Inc., this city, announced it is now in production and shipping its new "Pop" Corn Sez triple-sized automatic popcorn vendor. Designed primarily for use in theatres and large arenas, it is called "Model TC-30."

Features of the triple-vendor include extra heating elements on each unit which are controlled by one external switch for peak loads; a large bright, plexiglass dome display; added popcorn capacity; visual loading to insure adequate supplies at all times; and large waste chutes which prevent clutter around the vendor.

The firm had the Model TC-30 out on test location at the Sports Show in Chicago for several weeks, prior to going into full scale production.

Auto-Vend plans an extensive national advertising program to tie in with the triple vendor.

Cup Vendor Mfrs. Are Organizing Division of NAMA

Will Promote Favorable Public Relations — Assure Highest Sanitation Standards

CHICAGO—A group of leading manufacturers of cup vending drink machines has formed the National Automatic Merchandising Association's cup vending division. Included in this separate division of NAMA are also manufacturers of parts and supplies.

C. S. Darling, executive director of NAMA, pointed out that the reason for the organization of this division is "to assure that adequate standards of sanitation are maintained, and to develop, thru research, additional safeguards for the public."

The groundwork for the establishment of the new division was laid at the NAMA convention last December. According to Darling, formal organization of this cup division will be completed within the next few months. He was unable to furnish names of the committee members at this time, but probably it will be composed of leaders in the manufacturing, parts and supplies industries. These committee leaders will be disclosed by NAMA.

Darling, commenting on the cup division, stated, "The program of research sponsored by this group may be one of the most important public relations projects ever undertaken within the automatic merchandising industry."

Old Time Drink Vending Machine

CHICAGO—A far cry from the machines displayed at the national Coca-Cola Company Convention held at Atlantic City, is the machine shown above. It made its appearance in 1903 and was known as the "Mills Automatic Bar."

Grant Shay, advertising manager of Bell-O-Matic Corporation, and editor of its famous "Spinning Reels," reproduced this photo in the January-February issue, pointing out that "They say nothing is new under the sun."

The vendor sold soft drinks, and spirituous and vinous liquors too. The advertising circular claimed "The very sight of this bar makes one thirsty." Some of the selling copy pointed out the no-drip feature, glass rinser, large ice chest, the coin slot that suited any priced drink and showed the last coin deposited. Exterior of the cabinet was fine polished oak.

Bally Announces Two New 1-Ball Multiple Games

GEORGE JENKINS

CHICAGO—George Jenkins, vice president and general sales manager of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city, announced that deliveries of "Gold Cup" and "Trophy", Bally's two new one-ball multiples are now being made thruout the country.

"Gold Cup" is described as a one-ball free play multiple, and "Trophy" as a one-ball automatic multiple.

"Both games contain all the play-appeal features of previous Bally multiples" states Jenkins "starting odds at 3 instead of old style 2; popular spell-name feature; A-B-C-D feature; build-up feature award and the motor-driven shuffle that automatically shuffles the board."

"Both games also include the popular Horseshoe Flash with the New Fan Flash feature which means player can light all 7 selections by depositing extra coins" continued George. "Every number on the board is then a winner. Location tests have proved that the New Fan Flash offers bigger play attraction than ever . . . holds repeat play longer . . . and takes in three to five extra coins per game in addition to normal multiple play."

Gersh Goes To Work—

CHICAGO—They finally put Bill Gersh to work! United Manufacturing Company officials can take credit for that phenomena. While visiting Chicago a week ago, Lyn Durant, Belly DeSelm and Herb Oettinger of United took Gersh out to see the site of their plant, which will be constructed on practically the entire blocks of California and Roscoe. Pushing a wheelbarrow into his hands, the company officers had Gersh shoveling dirt against the tide.

N. Y. State Passes "Enabling Act" Permitting Cities Power To Pass Laws Taxing Coin Machines Up To $25

Atty Levine Optimistic N. Y. C. Juke Tax Will Not Exceed $10

SIDNEY H. LEVINE

ALBANY, N. Y.—Winding up its legislative session, the State Assembly passed a law called an "enabling act" (Chapter 278) giving the cities the power to enact a privilege tax on coin operated machines not to exceed $25 per annum.

The act reads "... permits cities the power to place a privilege tax on coin operated amusement devices, including but no limited to coin operated juke boxes, skill games, diggers and moving picture devices not to exceed $25 per annum." A 1947 act, which has been in existence during the past year permitted cities of less than 1,000,000 population the privilege of passing legislation taxing machines a maximum of $10 per year. This law was to provide funds for educational purposes.

Because of the pressure by communities thruout the State who are in need of funds, the present "enabling act" was put thru, and it doesn't stipulate the funds to go for educational purposes, but is for a general fund.

The various cities thruout the State will decide for themselves whether or not to take advantage of this act, and if they do pass legislation, it will be up to each community to determine the annual fee.

Sidney Levine, attorney for the Automatic Music Operators Association, New York City, was on hand at Albany when the body voted this legislation. He is not pessimistic over the ruling, claiming that if the city decides to enact legislation taxing coin machines, it will be given a public hearing. "At this hearing" states Levine "I'm pretty confident that I can show the law makers that anything above a $10 per year tax on music machines will be exorbitant and confiscatory."

Levine points out that this is the first time juke boxes were ever mentioned specifically in any state legislation.

U. S. Government Asked To Mint Eight Cent Coin

ALBANY, N. Y.—Representatives of interests, such as bus companies, transit services, coin machine companies, and others affected, are planning a drive to have the Federal Government mint an eight-cent coin that would be larger than a dime and smaller than a nickel.

It is reported that representatives of the bus companies have had one conference with the Director of the Mint on the subject already, and another is planned for the very near future.

The matter was brought to the fore by the legislation at Albany to increase bus and transit fares to eight cents. It was pointed out that the City of New York had planned on using tokens for its turnstiles. These tokens so closely resemble dimes in weight and size that they will register as dimes in all automatic coin machines. However, the Board of Transportation claim they have tested the eight-cent token, and that they will not work in ten cent coin slots.

The coin machine industry has been advocating the minting of a 7½¢ coin in order to overcome an economical problem, and if the Director of the Mint is convinced of the practicability of the eight-cent coin, it would be one of the greatest boons to ever hit our industry.

Standard Music Holds Aireon Showing

HOUSTON, TEX. — Sam Ayo, Standard Music Distributors, this city, played host to a large gathering of music operators recently, at which time he introduced the new Aireon phonograph "Coronet 400". Pictured above is the machine surrounded by a group of coinmen. Bill Roberts (with hand on mechanism) of Aireon Manufacturing Corporation, demonstrates the inner workings. Sam's young son, Tommy, is seated on the platform, decked out as all good Texans should be—with fancy cowboy boots.

"The music operators who visited us" stated Ayo "were enthusiastic over the new phono, particularly about the price and finance arrangements. We booked plenty of orders, and now it's up to the factory to keep pace with us on their deliveries."

Houston Music Ops Meet To Form Assn.

HOUSTON, TEX. — More than twenty of the leading music operators in this city met on March 10 at a prominent downtown restaurant to discuss the formation of an association, with the main purpose of arranging for a better commission basis on their machines.

As a result of the gathering, another meeting was arranged for March 24, at which time all music operators in the city have been invited to attend. Indications lead the

GEORGE A. MILLER

NEW YORK—Report from Sidney H. Levine, counsellor for the Executive Committee of the nation's juke box operators, is to the effect that he has been in constant telephone conversation, as well as issued written and telegraphic reports to George A. Miller, Chairman of the Executive Committee.

After each trip to Washington, D. C., where attorney Levine has been keeping his fingers on the pulse of many bills which are still there, he has received immediate phone calls from George A. Miller as to the progress of these bills which might seriously harm the entire automatic music industry.

Counsellor Levine reported this past week, "From all present indications, the preponderance of bills before the various committees in Washington regarding many emergency matters may keep any juke box bills from being heard during this session.

"This tho", he reports, "should be taken for whatever it is worth. We must maintain constant vigilance so that no bills are introduced suddenly to catch us unprepared.

"Mr. Miller and myself", he said, "are, therefore, in constant touch with each other and are watching every move being made in Washington at this time to make certain that nothing is pushed up for hearing which may, in any fashion whatsoever, effect the nation's juke boxes."

George A. Miller, Levine said, is prepared to at any time fly to Washington to be present at any hearing which may hurt the nation's music ops. As Chairman of the Executive Committee he is keeping very close track of each and every move in the nation's capital.

All committee members are in touch with Miller, and he relays the information as it reaches him. Thus the entire country is aware of all that is happening in Washington regarding any legislation that may affect their industry.

group to announce that they expect that 90% of the city's music operators will be in attendance.

Among those present at the March 10 meeting were: Sam Lampasas, Morris Pinto, Cecil Robertson, Ernest Gates, Bill Peacock, Henry Cruse, Clyde Atkins, Fred McClure, Wayne Switzer, Adrian Ratliff, F. S. (Doc) Clancy, A. H. Shannon, Tony Arwady, J. R. Hazlett, Cecil Harrington, Jack Taylor, and others.

R F. "Ballerina" New Bally Five-Ball

CHICAGO—George Jenkins, vice president and general sales manager of Bally Manufacturing Company, announced this week that shipments are now being made on their new five-ball game "Ballerina." "The new 'Ballerina' game," Jenkins said "has been released only after thorough tests have proved the entire mechanism to operate virtually trouble-free. "Ballerina" includes a new double-bonus feature together with other proven play-appeal features—high scores; sequence scores; special roll-over scores; five kick-out holes; 3 saucer holes; kick-back pocket at bottom of board to insure last ball suspense.

"Additional action and player skill-control is provided by kicker-bumpers" concluded Jenkins "which player can operate by pressing buttons on each side of cabinet. This feature is strongly merchandised by an attractive display sign on the backbox."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CHICAGO CHATTER

Clarence Bayne of U. S. Vend. Corp. just back from a long trip and very much pleased with the grand reception given the firm's new air conditioned candy vendor . . . about 400 to 500 already shipped . . . and the firm's 15 distributers very much enthused over the reaction . . . with orders starting to avalanche . . . Wurlitzer's Ed Wurgler in town and one of the busiest of the busy . . . just like a one armed painter with the itch . . . seems the moment the boys heard that Ed was in they just jammed his suite . . . and conferences went on all day long . . . but all day—and nights too. . . . Nate Gottlieb all excited with the way the trade accepted their newest . . . Cinderella . . . which has some very unique features . . . pumpkin on the backboard develops into an auto as the player's score progresses. . . . Dave Wallach and Ted Rubenstein over at Marvel very much happy over the way the pinball ops are writing in to learn more about their "plus four" coin chute which can take in 20c for the same 5c game in their new "Gold Mine" which, Dave and Ted tell me, is clicking wherever they've had it on location . . . "and", Dave says, "the game takes in more the longer it remains on locations." . . . Sam Stern was all upset some days back when Scott-Crosse Co. of Philly popped with Williams brand new "Tennessee" before release date . . . this meant instant change of all schedules . . . getting everything else out of the way . . . for the orders started to flood the factory and Harry Williams, Sam Stern and Skeet Moore were the busiest of the busiest.

Ben Coven, it seems, has a little bit of an idea . . . and when Ben gets an idea . . . he usually puts it over . . . so just watch this boy move. . . . Milt Salstone of M-S Distrib. Co., well known to all the music machine ops for those records he sells 'em, tells me that he is being offered some very swell record lines right now . . . and will soon pop with a real surprise for the trade here . . . Milt is one progressive boy. . . . Lindy Force of AMI is all hepped up over the first shipments of their new 40 selection wall and bar box and is tremendously enthused over the swell returns . . . "In fact", Lindy tells me, "even before the samples were in the hands of our distributors, the orders started to pour in, but in really grand quantity". . . . Ed Levin over at Chicago Coin all enthused over that new $40,000 building the firm is constructing which will be added on to their present huge plant and extend right thru to Paulina Street . . . it will enable this factory to speed up production of their "Catalina" and all future games . . . "And", Ed tells me, "Catalina is going like a house afire with orders simply pouring in on top of orders." . . . Tom (That Dapper Man) Callaghan of Bally Mfg. Co. away on an extended trip east . . . wonder whether Tommy took along some of "those ties"? so that the boys could see him coming? . . . and since we just passed St. Patrick's Day . . . do hope Tommy was in there awearin' the green . . . at least one tie. . . . Both Georgie (The "G") Jenkins and Herb Jones at Bally talking about their newest one-balls "Trophy" and "Gold Cup" to all and sundry who called around at this big factory . . . and both George and Herb telling me that these games are going great guns.

Jean Bates over at Pace Mfg. Co. tells me that more and more ops have been calling around at the factory to see those new Pace bells and business is definitely on the way up . . . but well up . . . according to Jean. . . . Gerry Haley over at Buckley Mfg. Co. advises that all the boys are keeping their noses right down to the grindstone these days to get out those Criss Cross Belles and also Daily Double Track Odds . . . even Pat himself is sticking very close to the factory these days in an effort to boost up production . . . and Ferdi Parsons of the firm is right there, too, helping put the heat on for more and still more equipment to be shipped each and every day. . . . Billy DeSelm and Ray Riehl over at United Mfg. Co. reported to be going around in circles trying to get the boys back in the factory to speed up the speeded up speed line so that more and still more of their new "Manhattan" will be shipped . . . in fact, even that great music critique, Herb Oettinger, is working to help the boys get top speed production . . . maybe Herb, Billy and Ray will grab up a screwdriver each one of these days and get into the plant to help out(?) . . . And by the way Billy DeSelm tells me that everyone at United Mfg. is joining in with plans for one grand big popping time when the firm's new factory opens in June . . . that's at California and Roscoe . . . all look forward to this air conditioned plant before the July heat sets in on Chi's lake front.

Quite a bunch of Seeburg distributers in town this past week looking over that new unit which the factory has prepared . . . and some of the boys reporting that it opens the way to great new big times again. . . . Jim Mangan of Mangan & Eckland remembered all of his friends this St. Patrick's Day with a very swell Irish poem of his own creation . . . (thanks a lot for the card, Jimmy). . . . By the way, Sam Stern of Williams

Mfg. Co. has become a regular commuter between Philadelphia, Pa. and Chicago . . . flying home for the weekends and back on the job early Monday A.M. . . . Eddie Hanson over at Groetchen Tool & Mfg. Co. doing a really marvelous job with the firm's "Camera Chief" counter game and advising all and sundry that all he needs is production and still more production to satisfy the orders the firm already have and those that are constantly coming into the plant. . . . Say, that reminds me, ask Nate Gottlieb about that joke he has all about a waitress and a 3c tip . . . it's a pip. . . . They tell me that the boys over at Bally are buying out those "Ballerina" records and playing 'em everytime someone mentions "Ballerina" which is their newest pinball clickeroo.

Since we mentioned stories some of the boys are telling these days . . . just ask Ed Wurgler to tell you that one about the "half a 'C'". . . . Larry Cooper expects to become a Daddy one of these days soon and was asked by Al Menace whether that had anything to do with the old "spinner" Larry used to talk about . . . but Larry smiled that enigmatic smile of his . . . and Menace still doesn't know what Larry means by "spinner" . . . nor will anyone tell Al what he does mean . . . I hope. . . . One guy that simply won't let himself get disturbed—regardless of anything and everything . . . George B. Dick of CMAC . . . just rolls along in that calm, confident fashion of his that puts shmaltz into a meeting. . . . Grant Shay of Bell-C-Matic tells me that this past month proved one of the best biz months for the firm and Grant looks to this forthcoming month to be even a better one . . . "what with the weather warming up and people getting out of their winter hibernation and all" . . . he says. . . . Not too many visitors around our town this past week . . . seems like the boys are sticking closer to home base than ever . . . we miss youse guys . . . so c'mon into town . . . where we c'n see you again. . . . Harry Brown of American Amusement busier than ever . . . in New York these days . . . they tell me . . . and you can depend on Harry to bring in the moolah . . . if there's any around where he's at. . . . Rudy Greenbaum of Aireon Mfg. Corp. busting thru the town this past week . . . with that big smile of his . . . exhaling plenty of good will, confidence and lots of faith in the juke box business.

From what some of the boys here tell me there may be another meet of the nation's juke box ops' Executive Committee and that George A. Miller can be expected to fly into town from Oakland to handle the chair. . . . Dick Hood of H. C. Evans still down in Ft. Lauderdale enjoying Florida's sunshine while Rex Shriver goes right ahead . . . faster than ever . . . basking in those nice big, sunny orders the firm are getting for their equipment. . . . Was that Mike Hammergren and Paul Fuller of Wurlitzer I saw walking down Randolph St. the other day? . . . Talk about a busy plant . . . brother, just visit Genco . . . here's one outfit that doesn't seem to be able to rest for a second . . . and the way they turn out those machines is something to really marvel at . . . Genco is sure worth a visit from anyone who calls around to visit the manufacturers in our town . . . those Genco games just roll off that production line and right out on waiting trucks almost as fast as you can count.

Yoo . . . hoo . . . Art Weinand . . . what was it? . . . boy or girl? . . . there's a whole buck involved in this deal, Art, so make the report, make the report. . . . Charley Schlicht . . . one of the nice guys in the coinbiz . . . always looking at the brighter side and always helping somebody make a buck. . . . Looks like the juke box ops are recovering fast in our town from any drop in take . . . and that makes a lot of us guys and gals here really feel swell . . . for the boys were just a leetle bit worried for a while back there while the snow was piling up on the sidewalks and the people remained at home. . . . President Truman's speech has caused some talk among arcade men here . . . that if they do adopt suggestion of selective service the younger guys get into those training camps . . . there'll be lots of nice spots open for some real action once again . . . like during the war years . . . who knows? . . . if the whole program gets under way everyone may cash in on the business boom which this involves. . . . Now that Louis Boasberg of New Orleans Novelty Co. was appointed regional distributer for Bally . . . the boys expect to see him around town much more often than ever before. . . . And that reminds me . . . what happened to Buster Williams this past week? . . . ain't seen him around since last week . . . is Buster leaving us in the lurch? . . . "Rosey" Rosenberg was in town this past week on his way east where, we surmise, he will be doing lots of work for Wurlitzer. . . . Dennis Donohue just won't sit still at his new offices at 33 N. LaSalle St. long enough for guys like myself to ask him what it's all about . . . latest I hear was that some of our boys talked with Dennis at the Chatham in N. Y. C. and were very much interested in what he had to say.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

EASTERN FLASHES

The daily newspapers laid off the pin games this week, but buying of games by ops was decidedly slow. There weren't any reports of any police action this week, other than checking locations which created a jittery feeling. A survey by the police department showed that there were 4,504 pin games out in 4,298 locations. In a meeting on Thursday, March 11, Teddy Blatt, attorney for the games association, informed the membership that they should proceed as they have been, warning them, however, to cooperate with the officials and keep their equipment away from schools. It is hoped that with the publicity fading out of the newspapers, and the approach of more favorable weather, the wholesale business and the collections will show a much greater pickup.

With interest in background and commercial music showing up, Barney (Shugy) Sugarman, Runyon Sales Company, reports that he has been receiving many requests for information on his "Tel-O-Matic" and "Robot" units. . . . The Atlantic New York Corporation executives returned from the Seeburg meet this week all enthused. . . . Marvin Heisman opens a jobbing firm at 650 Tenth Avenue, under the name of King Amusement Company. Marvin is well known in the industry, his most recent connection being with the newest arcade on 42nd Street. He is now entirely out of this enterprise, devoting his entire time to the new company. At present the firm is handling games, but will expand into the music and vending field. . . . Dave Stern's (Seacoast Distributors, Inc.) salesmen covering the New York music trade like a blanket with the "Magic-Glo" Rock-Ola phono.

Rudy Greenbaum, vice president and general sales manager of Aireon, in town visiting Nat Cohn, Modern Music Sales Corporation, distributor here. Ben Palastrant, regional sales representative, at Modern's at the same time. Ben had just returned from the big showing at Al Bergman's Alfred Sales Company, Buffalo, N. Y. Maurice Poppick, former operator, has been added to the Alfred sales staff, and will cover some additional territory allotted the firm in upper New York. Palastrant tells us that the Buffalo show brought out operators from all around, many coming in from Albany. . . . Ben Becker, Ben Becker Sales Company, getting ready to join Art Garvey on the road now that Bally's new one-balls, "Gold Cup" and "Trophy" are being shipped. Meanwhile Ben reports that Bally's five-ball "Melody" has proven to be a great money-maker, and orders keep piling in.

Danny Subarsky, well known coinman and electronic expert, opens a jobbing firm at 460 Tenth Avenue, under the name of Atlas Sales Company. Danny will buy and sell games and music machines. . . . Hymie Rosenberg, H. Rosenberg Company, tied up in his private office with a customer—probably making a big sized sale of Bally's "Melody Roll." . . . Phil Mason, Dave Lowy & Company, back from his "short three week vacation" at Miami Beach. Phil raves about the climate. Lowy is now relaxing in "The Playground of the World." With Dave it's an old story of "sand in his shoes." Ever since he first spent some time there, he's been a hard man to keep North. Dave's supposed to vacation two weeks—anyone who wants to bet me that he isn't home in that time, can do so.

Willie Levey, Jack Semel and George Holzman, Supreme Automatics, Inc., Brooklyn, N. Y., report that while local conditions slowed up the sale of Williams' "Tennessee," the new five ball game, they sold practically every piece received. "We could have really gone to town and sold plenty if things were right" stated Levey "but we'll beat the sale of Williams' previous game anyway because it's a real money maker for the operators." . . . Harry Brown and Lou Sokolove strolling leisurely down Tenth Avenue. Harry will be around until the end of the week, when he returns to Chicago. . . . Joe Young and Dan Kipnis, Young Distributors (Wurlitzer distributors) get their photos taken with the popular orchestra leader Art Mooney along side the new model 1100 phono.

Al Bloom, Speedway Products, Inc., places his combination tele-juke machine on location this week for a test. . . . Joe Munves, Economy Supply Company, so busy he can't spare a moment to tell us "what's new?" That kind of news is always "good news." . . . Sidney Levine, the attorney for the music operators association, and George A. Miller, the president of the California Music Operators Association, in touch with each other by phone at least twice a week. "To keep abreast of the legislation in Washington that affects the music machine operators. Levine returned from a trip to Albany on the New York State tax legislation that could have a bearing on local operators. The State passed what is known as an "enabling act" which permits the city to tax machines $25 per year. Levine is not pessimistic over this ruling, stating that the city must enact legislation, and that a public hearing must be held previously. At that hearing he claims he can show that anything over $10 per year would be excessive. . . . The Parisi Bill No. 471, which would tax machines $50 per year was not reported out of committee at this session.

Humbert Betti, H. Betti & Sons, Union City, N. J., in town buying some equipment. Betti, an old timer in the biz, describes a coinman as a fellow who "works 20 hours a day, 7 days a week." But they love it. . . . Eddie Corriston, Palisade Specialties, Inc., Cliffside, N. J., made every effort to get to the National Invitation Basketball Tournament being held at Madison Square Garden this week, but as usual never did get to see a game. Business over at his Cliffside offices kept him tied up. . . . Was that Mike Munves we saw dashing into a car on Tenth and 43rd Street this Tuesday? He really must be busy—we never saw him moving that quickly. . . . Steve Quinn, Seaboard New York Corporation, shows us a reconversion of Genco's Advance Roll—now called "Auto Roll." Three kicker holes added, plus a new rollover button. The game gives the player plenty of action. Steve tells us the firm's awaiting delivery of Gottlieb's new five ball "Cinderella."

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

One, two and even on Coin Row this week, and for that matter the whole town, between rolldowns, presidential candidates and daylight savings time. . . . Surprising how much interest has been worked up among public on the rolldown question. . . . Seems people who maybe didn't even know what a rolldown was read the front pages. . . . They're waiting along with distribs and ops to hear what the test case in the L. A. Municipal Court on March 24 brings out. . . . Meanwhile the boys are sitting tight for the most part and the defenders of public morals haven't swooped down on any sponts since their raid a few weeks ago. . . . Some ops did get a little nervous though and pulled in their games voluntarily. . . . In the legal department, you can only go on this: When Asst. City Attorney Donald Redwine was asked about the police pickup, he said, "I told them it would be better to wait for a court decision before making further raids. . . . We think these machines come within the meaning of the anti-pinball ordinance, BUT POSSIBILITY OF SUCCESSFUL PROSECUTION IS NOT CLEAR CUT". . . . End quotes and maybe a little nervousness.

As to presidential candidates, whoever coined the phrase that coin men talk about nothing but coin should have made the rounds with us this week. . . . At least half of the distribs and ops seemed to be pounding each other's ears about the political prospects. . . . We heard a few kind and the other kind of words about Truman, Taft, Wallace and MacArthur. . . . Re the General, you might quote this chuckle: When told that every Hearst reporter throughout the country had been instructed to query all prominent personalities being interviewed on how they felt about the Boss' Choice, one kibitzing op cracked, "How's about finding out how Mac feels about rolldowns?" . . . Daylight saving time might be credited with causing more confusion this week than either rolldowns or would be presidents. . . . In its first work day, the time switch really had some folks in a bad way. . . . About half of the people in and out of the Row forgot to move their watches up the hour. . . . Most of the town's electric clocks on buildings hadn't been set up and there were a lot of characters who didn't know what time of day it was all day. . . . Dropped in at Badger Sales, C. A. Robinson, Sicking Distribs and Automatic Games close to their closing times and—this one is hard to take—the boys and girls just couldn't tear themselves away from their desks because it was so light outside. . . . (Truth is, we came pretty close to getting mobbed for barging in that late . . . and then having the nerve to say we forgot to move our watch up).

Jack Ryan didn't seem to mind a little overtime as he showed the new Aireon boxes off to a couple of prospective buyers. . . . Noticed a few Mills Black Gold bells on the Sicking floor. . . . Reminded us to drop in on Mills man Charlie Fulcher just next door. . . . Found him out but had a chat with one of Mills' enterprising freezer men. . . . At Automatic Games George Warner gave us a capsule report on his trip to Las Vegas. . . . In George's own inimitable lingo, it ran thus: "I picked up some of what was there and left some more of the same for the other boys. . . . For business it wasn't bad . . . for me it was an expensive trip. . . . Those guys up there don't know or care from budgets". . . . Judging from the reduced floor stock at the Dannie Jackson-Sammie Donin emporium, George must have made expenses. . . . Bill Wolf still out of town, really making it a good one. . . . His Nels Nelson patted the AMI 40 selector box and, like an overdue mother, said, "Any day now". . . . Handsome new display at C. A. Robinson of pair Jennings Challengers alongside couple of Rock-olas. . . . Fred Gaunt of General Music dropped in for neighborly visit with Charlie Robinson and Al Bettelman. . . . That one block on Coin Row will soon be known as Magic Glo Row. . . . Besides General's full line of Rock-olas, Badger Sales also have a few in the window along with Wurlitzers, Seeburgs, AMIs and what have yous. . . . And they're all sitting peaceably, side by side, one looking in its way just as good as the other. . . . Al Silberman, Adams-Fairfax genl. mgr., back from his long Eastern junket with a nice report on biz prospects for the firm's nut machines and product.

Dropped in at E. T. Mapes and had a laugh with Lucy Garcia, who told us our Lucasa music box item of a few weeks back was a joke on us. . . . Seems we figured it in a quick look to be the box name and it turns out to be location handle inscribed on a Mirro-matic. . . . To make amends we'll throw in a plug for the new, sleek looking custom cabinets the Mapes outfit is building up from old hideaway units. . . . Paul Laymon continues to receive newies that look nice and fat to us. . . . This time it's a little counter or table job called Penny Lag with appeal to every grown-up who ever was a kid and lagged pennies on a sidewalk line or against a building. . . . Something for ops to consider is its reasonable price and that it eliminates all service calls and federal tax. . . . Mfrs. claim the house gets 20% of coins lagged through comeback hazards. . . . We tried a few on it and that's about the way it went. . . . Laymon's sample copy of "Quizzer" now on tryout location in Long Beach and reported to be going strong. . . . Still expecting that mysterious new one-ball from (CENSORED . . . promised we wouldn't tell) . . . The out-of-town boys seemed to be doing just that this week. . . . Only two we ran across were Roy Smith from Lancaster and M. Silverman from Seattle.

Things were quite active music wise, with several local record companies readying a whole batch of new and promising coiners for the end of the month. . . . Four Star's Bill McCall hopes to have another novelty hit, equal to T. Texas Tyler's "Deck of Cards," in Jenk Carmen's "Hill-billy Hula". . . . It's a clever tune that should go strong in hillbilly and novelty spots alike. . . . Carmen, who has a real voice, dishes out a load of lingo that city slicker hillbilly fans will accept as mountain dialect. . . . Actually it's genuine Hawaiian sung in hillbilly style. . . . Incidentally, we heard today that Victor will soon have Phil Harris out on "Deck of Cards," which means Tyler won't have choice field to himself. . . . More than one way of skinning Petrillo, it seems. . . . The new Harris disc will use choral background in lieu of instruments. . . . Already out and getting a nice reception from disc jockeys and listeners is a Master-tone label of Bobby Worth's "Just Naive," backed up by Glenn Spencer's "Cucamonga Medicine Man". . . . Vocalists Tommy Traynor and Gwenn Brian are assisted by Allan Copeland's choral effects and by Tom Kenny, who makes with the mouth like a bass and a French horn. . . . Songwriter Worth splits credit for the background gimmick with Kenny Hertz. . . . We heard the Traynor "Naive" and, while a nice novelty, we still believe musicians are here to stay. . . . Juke men needn't be worried for awhile about the supply of orthodox instrumental numbers, what with Mercury, Modern and Aladdin serving some coinworthy releases this month.

Mercury will have a new Frankie Laine platter, "That Ain't Right" backed by "May I Never Love Again" . . . Spokesman Les Jare expects the pair to be as big as "Two Loves Have I" and "Shine" . . . Vic Damone will give his all for dear old Mercury in "Haunted Heart" and "Tell Me a Story". . . . "Heartbreaker" and "Bye Bye Blackbird" will be Aqua String Band's contribution. . . . Albert Ammons will be heard in "The Clipper" and "Ammons Stop" . . . Mercury will also have new release of Clyde McCoy's "Sugar Blues" and "Way Down Yonder in New Orleans". . . . Modern comes up with Gene Phillips' "Honky Tonk Train" and "Hey Lady Mama" while little Willie Jackson will get off with "I Ain't Got Nobody" and "Shasta" . . . Al Wichard Sextet will serve up "His Majesty's Boogie" and "Your Red Wagon" . . . Rocky Morgan's "Hen Peckin' Mama" and "Turn That Gun Around". . . . Aladdin's Eddie Mesner conservatively predicts six hits for six releases. . . . They're by Illinois Jacquet, Lester Young, Amos Milburn, the Soul Stirrers, Trumpeteers and Bunky Redding . . . a new blues singer with a bright future on the boxes, says Eddie. . . . Add personals: Roz Bihari of the traveling Biharis will soon join brother Joe in New York for a visit. . . . Barclay Allen, who clicked so big on the juke and elsewhere with "Cumana" is a cinch to build up his local following through current engagement at Ciro's. . . . Timed right for music box release of "Tea for Two". . . . Almost forgot to get in Art Rupe's prophecy (or is it plug?) for Specialty's new Camille Howard disc. . . . Art predicts double headed coiner in "You Don't Love Me" and "Ex-temporaneous Boogie". . . . Seems KFWB jock Frank Bu'l was so impressed with number he did unprecedented thing of spinning "You Don't Love Me" twice in a row.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

MINNEAPOLIS

Twenty-six below zero weather in Minneapolis, Thursday, March 11th, and the Minneapolitans are getting so used to it that it doesn't seem to make much difference anymore. Considering the extreme cold weather, operators throughout North Dakota, South Dakota, and Minnesota still take the train or drive in to visit the Twin Cities Distributors.

Herman Warn of Salem, South Dakota, drove into Minneapolis, Thursday, March 11th to call on several of the distributors in the Twin Cities, and to spend a few days in Minneapolis, vacationing. . . . Earl Berkowitz of the B & B Novelty Company, Superior, Wisconsin brought his young daughter to Minneapolis to have her tonsils removed. After three days, the little lady was released, and Earl went back to Superior. . . . Tommy Matthews of the Osakis Novelty, Osakis, Minnesota, stopped off in Minneapolis enroute to Rochester where he visited his brother-in-law whose leg was amputated at the St. Marys Hospital, Rochester, Minnesota, last week.

I. F. La Fleur, of Devils Lake, North Dakota, drove into Minneapolis to spend several days visiting relatives and calling on a few distributors. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kesting of Bellingham, Minnesota spent several days in Minneapolis last week visiting friends. . . . Harry Johnson, for many years in the operating business at Mitchell, South Dakota, has just sold out his entire route and will retire from the Coin-Machine business for an indefinite time. Harry is a very well known figure throughout the country. . . . Roy Foster of Sioux Falls, South Dakota is commuting quite regularly between the Twin Cities and Sioux Falls the past two months. . . . Joe Topic of the Scott Novelty Company, Shokopee, Minnesota spent a few days in Davenport, Iowa visiting his brother-in-law.

Charlie Bohnen of St. Cloud, Minnesota took the day off to come in to Minneapolis to call on a few distributors. . . . Ted Bush of the Bush Distributing Company, in California on important business. . . . Dick Unger, St. Paul operator, back on the job and looking pretty healthy after a long siege of illness. . . . Archie La Beau of the La Beau Novelty Company, St. Paul, Minnesota entered the hospital this morning for a tonsilectomy. . . . Con Kaluza of Browerville, Minnesota, in town with Mrs. Kaluza on a little shopping expedition.

Jonas H. Bessler, back in Minneapolis after spending five weeks in Miami, and looking as brown as a bear! . . . Eddy Birkemeyer of Litchfield, Minnesota spent the day in Minneapolis picking up supplies, and reports that Millie is getting along just fine. . . . Al Eggermont of Marshall, Minnesota took time out to drive into Minneapolis for the day to call on some of the distributors. . . . Bob Collins of Morris, Minnesota spent a few days in Minneapolis with his wife, sort of vacationing.

HOUSTON, TEX.

Plenty of eats and drink, lots of fun and plenty of sales just about summed up the Standard Music Distributors showing of the new Aireon Phonographs in Houston on March 8th. The people, music operators and their families, were from the city proper and from just about every other part of South Texas. In fact one outstanding feature of the showing was the big crowd of out of city operators on hand.

Sam E. Ayo, owner of Standard Music and Bill Roberts Aireon regional sales manager officiated at the showing. A. C. (Buster) and Tommy (Boots) Ayo, Sam's younger brothers, did most of the work. Things were well under way before noon and continued in full swing until past midnight. After it was all over Sam Ayo complacently remarked that "sometimes business and pleasure do mix right well".

Houston Music Operators, long tired of working for someone else, mainly location owners, got around to doing something about it March 10th. On the evening of that date more than 20 leading music merchants met at a prominent downtown eating place and talked things over while enjoying a feed of spaghetti and meat balls. Another meeting was called for March 24th. When it was believed that more than 90% of the city operators would be present. Those present included the following prominent music operators: Sam Lampasas, Morris Pinto, Cecil Robertson, Ernest Gates, Bill Peacock, Henry Cruse, Clyde Atkins, Fred McClure, Wayne Switzer, Adrian Ratliff, F. S. (Doc.) Clancy, A. H. Shannon, Tony Arwardy, J. R. Hazlett, Cecil Harrington, Jack Taylor, and others.

A neat little music operating firm is the recently organized Dean Music Co. E. S. Dean is head man and Aireons his chief stock in trade. . . . Gulf States Amusement Co., Inc., took on another big slice of high powered real estate with the purchase of a stucco business building on Harrisburg Blvd. Ernest Gates, owner of Gulf States also owns the corner two story brick his firm occupies on Harrisburg, one of the best known and most traveled of Houston thoroughfares. . . . Naturally the report that Mills phonograph prices had been reduced was joyfully received by local music operators.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

By BERT MERRILL

Continued bad weather in the 49th State combined with income tax headaches during the past week to slow up collections and coin machine sales; say the top men in the field. "Most people are a bit shocked when they figure the income tax for last year, despite complaints of bad conditions" grinned Harry Armbruster, LeMay operator "So they cancel orders for new equipment until the bank account gets back on its feet." It was noticeable this year that few St. Louis coin machine ops had to go to professional advisers for income tax help—the costs and profits were too cut and dried for 1947.

Del Veatch of VP Distributing Company played host to a lot of out of town visitors this week; who braved unseasonal snows and cold weather to hunt up some new Williams equipment. Included were Jewett Cook of Cook Music Company, Centrailia, Illinois, who doesn't get around St. Louis way often enough and Mike Edel, from Carlisle, Illinois. Since Cash Box circulated the news of VP's ambitious "pre-testing program" whereby every new game gets an acid test on actual locations, Del's been flooded with demands for "whatever shows the best payoff at the end of the week." Sometimes as much as 8 months is required to make up a fair analysis, according to Del, however.

Other Illinois visitors who made the rounds included Wayne Smith of Greer Smith Industries, Herrin, and Bill Keller from Keller Music Company, Anna, Illinois. Bill was laid up for a few days with a post-season cold but is back on his far-flung central-state routes.

News from Springfield, Mo. hath it that Clarence Kynion, erstwhile employe of Missouri Tavern Supply, is back on the job with the same firm. Clarence took a whirl at other occupations after his release from military service, but in the end coindom brought him back! Dale Riemer, Missouri Tavern head, made the announcement. Clarence will supervise routes from the firm.

A. P. Distributing Company, headed by Art Paulle, will transfer from the former location at 2220 Market Street to 2823 Locust Street next week. More intimate contact with operators who are building up slim juke connections is Art's reason for moving. Premiums and punch boards will be the feature.

One exception to the "scared money" rule of the past two weeks was E. R. Sumny, Rolla, Mo., who bought six new Rock-Ola's for his "wild woods country" routes. Curley Zitta of East St. Louis grabbed a few pin games for new locations opening up in St. "Louis' bedroom" across the river. Ben Axelrod and Al Haneklau of Olive Novelty Company are readying plans for some improvements in the showroom. "Keeping up with the Joneses" has resulted in some handsome distributor buildings in the 49th State.
