THE BIG "D"

As you read this issue, we will be revving-up the presses for the first forms of our 1962-1963 World-Wide Directory being issued in conjunction with the 20th Anniversary of Cash Box.

Although there are still a few days left before the final closing of the very last forms, it has already become evident that the new directory will be the most impressive book we have ever published.

The International Section, almost complete at this writing, is already considerably stronger than last year's. Names and addresses of manufacturers, publishers, distributors, etc., from all across the world have been expanded and brought up to date in an effort to offer the reader the most complete reference source book available anywhere in the record industry. Our many world-wide clients, keenly cognizant of the shrinking globe and the many records that have crossed national borderlines and gone on to become international favorites, have helped make the forthcoming international section of our directory far more informative than it's been in the past with their institutional messages.

The same appears to be true from the domestic scene. Although we have until Thursday, August 2, before we prep the final form for the presses, it appears as though the domestic section also will be the biggest we've ever issued. The all important list of record distributors and the lines they handle (the most requested single feature each year from the domestic standpoint) has been completely revised and brought up to date. The record manufacturer list, million seller list, etc., all have been altered and expanded offering a wealth of information for everyone in the trade.

And we have just completed our annual poll of the nation's disk jockeys which will be announced in the Directory. The poll will report on which artists and records were most programmed during the past twelve month period and will offer the results of a survey which asked the jockeys "which new artists do you consider most promising?"

What we have tried to do is make the Directory as comprehensive as is physically possible.

We would like to call to our subscribers' attention the fact that last year, after the Directory was published, an overwhelming number of orders poured in for additional copies. Many companies ordered the issue in quantities of 25 and 50 as reference books for their entire staff. Requests were so heavy, far greater than even we had anticipated, that our over-run of the '61-'62 Directory was completely consumed during the month following the Directory's release. Therefore, we urgently request that if additional copies are desired, please wire us immediately so you won't be caught short.

Liberty Announces Fall Program

LOS ANGELES—Armed with an abundance of product and the theme "You Get A Lot To Like With Liberty," Don Bohanan, label's national sales manager, has announced dealer terms for the Fall program which begins August 1, 1962 and ends September 3, 1962. The new line as well as the firm's back catalog of regular Liberty-Dolton LP's (except Chipmunk) as well as Premier Series product will be available at a 15% cash discount taken off the face of the invoice, on the dealer's entire order which must have a minimum of 15 total LP units. A 100% exchange privilege is also featured with merchandise exchangeable anytime after February 1, 1963. Payment is scheduled for 1/3 November 10, 1/3 December 10, 1962, 1/3 January 10, 1963. 2%, 10 EOM.

Product runs the gamut from a Yiddish sing-a-long by Sholom Secunda, "Sing A Little Something" to a Jan & Dean album of "Golden Hits." Teenage product includes a Dolton item by the Fleetwoods, "Greatest Hits" and a Johnny Burnette entry, "Roses Are Red." Gene McDaniels is represented with "Hit After Hit."

Of interest is The Johnny Mann Singers' collection of "Golden Folk Song Hits" (LRP-3253/LST-7253), Martin Denny in a real departure with his "Taste Of Honey" single, the title of his new LP (LRP-3237/LST-7237), and Eddie Heywood's "Golden Encores" (LRP-3250/LST-7250). Matt Monro's first album (LRP-3240/LST-7240) includes the new single "Softly." To cash in on Walter Brennan's "Old Rivers" smash, Liberty acquired two previously issued Brennan LP's, "The President" and "A World Of Miracles" and will offer them re-packaged.

Part II of the program highlights Liberty's Premier Series with heavy emphasis placed on elegant packaging and flawless sound. The prestige line will have three additions; Felix Slatkin's "Fantastic Strings Play Fantastic Themes," a Si Zentner, Martin Denny coupling in "Exotica Suite" and Tommy Garrett on "50 Guitars Visit Hawaii."

Liberty's merchandising department has created dimensional easel displays to highlight key releases, in addition to mats and a four page brochure on Liberty's teen product which will be inserted into LP's of this category. Because of Premier Series acceptance, Liberty has designed a merchandiser capable of displaying the complete line. Self-standing, it offers permanent furniture construction, an eye catching header and a take-one holder for Premier catalog. In order to qualify for the unit, retailers must stock it with an initial order of 90 Premier units. Same 100% guarantee, return for merchandise, holds true. Liberty is a subsidiary of the Avnet Electronics Corporation.

Dot's National Sales Meet in Nashville Sets $5,000,000 Goal For August

HOLLYWOOD—Dot Records Distributing Corporation, a division of Dot Records, recently held the first major record company sales meeting ever attended in Nashville, at which time Randy Wood, president of Dot, announced a fall sales program with a quota of $5 million dollars to be sold during the month of August.

The fall program includes: (1) Optional discount—two free albums on the purchase of 10 making a total of old Ronk of Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus.

12 albums for the price of 10 or a straight 15% cash discount if dealers do not wish to take the free goods. (2) Dated billing—buy in August, pay 1/4 Sept. 15, 1/4 Oct. 15, 1/4 Nov. 15, and final payment on Dec. 15. (3) 100% exchange at the end of dated billing (after Dec. 15). Although it is still a Tennessee corporation, Dot now makes it headquarters in Hollywood where talent and studio space are more readily available. Dot's growth is also reflected in its seventeen company-owned distributor branches which cover most of the country.

Columbia Intros Musical Coloring Kits For Kids

NEW YORK—As one of the highlights of the 1962 Sales Convention in Miami Beach last week, Columbia Records introduced Hi-Fi Fun Musical Coloring Kits and announced the release of the first six packages in the new series.

Aimed at the toy market, the new product is one of the newest achievements of Columbia Records' extensive diversification program. The unique "listen and color" toys are designed for hours of exciting, educational entertainment for children, ages 5 to 10.

Each Hi-Fi Fun Kit contains a 12" Columbia Harmony LP record featuring stories and songs by best-loved children's artists. As the child listens, he colors the color-by-the-number pictures which illustrate scenes and characters described on the record. Each picture folds into its own 3-dimensional shadowbox frame. Included in each kit is a 12" LP, a set of colored pencils, a pencil sharpener and the frames and pictures on which the children may color.

The suggested retail price of the kit is 2.98. Presented in the premiere release of the kits are the following packages: "Learning America The Fun Way," with Rosemary Rice and Children's Chorus.

"The Silly Record," written by Stoo Hample, with music by George Kleinsinger and sung and spoken by Frank Buxton.

"Stories Of Famous Children In The Old Testament," narrated by Bud Collyer with music by the Merrill Staton Singers.

"Mama Goose And Papa Gander," featuring Mr. Greenjeans with the New Friends of Mother Goose, arranged and conducted by Milt Okun. "For Sleepyheads Only," subtitled Kay Lande Sings Songs to Tuck You In, features Noel Regney and his Orchestra.

NARA Meets In St. Louis

ST. LOUIS—The National Association of Radio Announcers has announced that it will hold its annual convention in St. Louis on August 17, 18 and 19, with an expected attendance of more than 300.

Chairman for the meet will be Miss W. M. Gracy who will be assisted by Dave Dixon, area coordinator, and Buddy Lonesome, co-chairman. Guest speaker at the event will be Andrew Hatcher, Deputy Press Secretary for President Kennedy.

The convention will be held at the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel in St. Louis, and will feature the usual seminars, counseling sessions, and informal meetings. In addition to the regularly scheduled meetings, there will be entertainment in Kiel Auditorium which will feature recording stars from throughout the country. This is the only part of the convention open to the general public.

Other highlights of the convention will be the election of officers, a convention work shop, broadcasts, and addresses by representatives of government and communications.

NARA officers request that anyone interested in associate membership can register at the convention. Membership fee is $100 for one year plus $25 for each representative at the convention.

King Sets New Bonus Plan

NEW YORK—King Records and its sister label, Bethlehem, have announced a new free bonus record and album plan for August. The plan runs from July 23 to August 31.

An innovation by King, the plan offers free "Bonus Records," or newly released singles and LP's in the following manner: plan calls for the dealer to get 5 first edition singles with every purchase of 25 from the King, Bethlehem, Federal, Deluxe, and Queen lines. Purchases must be in multiples of 25.

Bonus records may be selected from three first-edition singles, "Mashed Potatoes U.S.A." b/w "You Don't Have To Go" by James Brown; "When I Need You" b/w "Dream World" by Hank Ballard; and "Doll Face" b/w "Big Blue Diamonds" by Little Wille John.

For every 10 LP's purchased, the buyer receives three "Bonus Albums," also first editions. The three LP's are: "Show Stoppers" by Bob Kames; "By Popular Demand" by Earl Bostic; and "Folk Song Festival" by The Stanley Brothers.

The Bethlehem plan is the same as the King plan and the dealers may choose from the following LP's: "The Masked Marvel Band From England," "Golden Jazz Instrumentals," and "Jazz Vocal Award Album."

Free bonus merchandise is shipped to the dealer prepaid and can neither be exchanged nor returned.

In announcing the plan, Syd Nathan, King prexy, stated that this new approach was needed; he also announced that the August release would include 20 new singles and 6 new LP's.

Four New Command LP's

NEW YORK—Command Records will release four new LP's this week, three instrumental and one vocal, according to sales manager Lorne Becker.

The release consists of "The Big Band's Back In Town" by Doc Severinsen; the Ray Charles Singers' "Rome Revisited"; Tony Mottola with "Spanish Guitar"; and "Off Beat Percussion" by Don Lamond.

All the albums will be available in both stereo and mono versions.

"Rinky Dink" On Chess

NEW YORK—Chess Records has announced that it has ceased to use the Julia label because Tom Decillis, in New Jersey, had prior rights to use of the name. "Rinky Dink," formerly on the Julia label, is now Chess 1829. The tune is currently on the Top 100 at No. 45.

Shown above is the new Liberty merchandiser which is capable of displaying the entire Premier line. The attractive device comes complete with a take-one holder for the Premier catalog.

Wallichs Denies Charges of Sinatra Firms

LOS ANGELES—Glenn E. Wallichs, prexy of Capitol Records and Capitol Records Distributing Corp., last week categorically denied charges by three corporations controlled by Frank Sinatra that the Capitol firms were violating the Sherman and Robinson-Patman acts and were attempting to create a monopoly.

The charges, contained in a suit filed this city in U. S. District Court July 12, came ten days after CRDC announced a special sales program on its catalog 21 Sinatra albums. The program, in effect during July, offered dealers one free Sinatra album for each one purchased.

In commenting on the complaint, Wallichs stated:

Christine Hamilton To Direct Dot Dist. Corp.

HOLLYWOOD—Randy Wood, topper of Dot Records, announced last week that Christine Hamilton, the label's veep in charge of sales, has been assigned to direct all activities concerned with the management of Dot Records Distributing Corp.

Working with Mrs. Hamilton will be John Vescovo, recently-named branch administrator in charge of all personnel and internal operations. Vescovo, formerly manager of Dot's New Orleans branch, will travel among the 17 company-owned distributorships headquartered in New Orleans.

Wood also named George W. Cooper to post of regional sales manager for the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Atlanta and Nashville Areas.

The change in the management of Dot Records Distributing Corp. was effected following the resignation of George Urey, a veep of the distributing corp.

ates including: Mexico, Discos Columbia de Mexico; Argentina, Columbia Argentina; and Brazil, Columbia do Brasil.

Dr. Naganuma arrived in the United States on July 17 to attend the 1962 National Sales Convention held by Columbia Records in Miami Beach, Florida last week. He was accompanied by Hizuru Kaneko, Sales Manager of International Repertoire of Nippon Columbia Co., Ltd. Dr. Naganuma and Mr. Kaneko will conclude their visit with a transcontinental tour of Columbia Records recording studios and manufacturing facilities in the United States.

Celler's Anti-Juke Box Bill Hearing Postponed

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The hearing originally called for July 25 between representatives of the copyright societies, proponents of the new Celler Bill (HR 12450), and representatives of the juke box industry, was postponed last week. The reason given was the sudden illness of Congressman Edwin E. Willis, chairman of the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Patents, Trademarks and Copyrights. Willis was hospitalized last week.

The new bill includes the features of an earlier bill (HR 70) but also features the proposal for the establishment, by the Attorney General, of an Office of Performing Rights Trustees to determine the amount of royalties arising from the licensing of performances and the manner in which these royalties will be distributed. It also provides for a royalty to be paid by juke box operators of $5 per machine per annum for the initial collection year, and ranges up to $25 per machine per year for a period of four years thereafter.

NARM Mid-Year Meet Set For Chicago

PHILADELPHIA—The 1962 Mid-Year Meeting and Sales Conference of the National Association of Record Merchandisers will be held Aug 26 thru Aug 29, at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago.

The highlight of the conference will be the person-to-person meetings which will be held on Aug 27 and 28, at which time the record manufacturers will hold twenty-minute sessions with each rack merchandiser in NARM. This will be accomplished by pre-arranged schedule and will take place at conference tables in the Edgewater Room of the hotel.

The purpose of the person-to-person meetings is to permit sales executives to meet with the NARM rack merchandisers, thus eliminating expensive and time consuming travel. The record manufacturer will be able to present his program and sell his product in an organized fashion, and familiarize the record merchandiser with his new product and promotions available for the fall season, the Christmas holidays, and the peak business month of January.

Special use can be made of the person-to-person method by the manufacturers who sell exclusively through distributors. First, the manufacturer's key personnel can pre-sell the fall and Christmas programs for their distributors, thus assuring the manufacturer the best sales job possible. Second, the person-to-person sales conference can be used for the presentation of fall and Christmas programs, with the distributors following up at a later date.

Jules Malamud, NARM executive director, said of the person-to-person sessions, "The great value of these meetings is inestimable in the opportunity they afford both industry segments to discuss policy problems which may exist between them. Problems which seem insurmountable can be solved through direct, intelligent discussion."

S.C. Radio Station Suspended For Obscenity

WASHINGTON—The Federal Communications Commission has refused the license renewal of radio station WDKD in Kingtree, South Carolina, for the broadcasting of obscene remarks and for not living up to the requirements of good programming. It is believed that this is the first denial on an obscenity charge.

Thomas H. Donohue, examiner for the FCC, recommended last December that the station should lose its license, and the commission upheld his recommendation. Station owner, E. G. Robinson Jr., was given until Sept. 25, to wind up affairs.

The obscenity charge was made against deejay Charlie Walker, who, according to Donohue, gave his listeners heavy doses of double entendre and rural jokes with hidden meanings. Until his discharge last year, Walker was on the air a total of four hours a day.

In presenting his case last December, Donohue also stated that the action against WDKD would signalize abandonment by the commission of a laissez-faire policy of regulation in the field of programming.

Many of the station's advertisers came to the defense of Walker and testified that his programs were good for business and that he helped to promote many worthy causes. However, Robinson's former partner, had tried in vain to get Walker discharged because of numerous letters of complaint.

The investigation also indicated that WDKD was lacking in good programming procedures. Only 17 percent of the total broadcast time was devoted to matters not commercial or musical.

The action by the commission, Mr. Donohue wrote, "may have large-scale implications since it will reflect the policy of the commission not only in respect to obscenity but in regard to programming that misses by far measuring up to what the commission has suggested is required to meet the public interest."

"There is no truth whatever in the charges made by Mr. Sinatra's Corporations. And certainly, Capitol is not attempting to run him out of the record business.

"During the twenty years we have been in business, it has been common knowledge within the record industry that Capitol has always welcomed and encouraged competition. We have never, and will never make a business move designed to eliminate a competitor.

"As the complaint points out, Capitol owns many master recordings made by Mr. Sinatra. Capitol paid for these recordings and CRDC is privileged to sell them lawfully at whatever price it wishes.

"In offering Mr. Sinatra's albums for a limited period at what is essentially 50% off, CRDC is merely utilizing a common and successful marketing tool—make profit by volume instead of higher mark-up.

"The complaint also accuses CRDC of discriminating and claims that Mr. Sinatra's recordings were offered to 'selected' dealers at one price and others at a higher price. This is absolutely false.

"There are many nuisance-type allegations made in the complaint, but I do not feel any worthwhile purpose would be served by my commenting upon them.

"In sum, I can only say that our attorneys have carefully examined every allegation made in the complaint and that it is their belief that not one is legally sound."

UA Ships First LP's In New Kiddie Line

NEW YORK—United Artists Records began shipping the first ten albums in its new kiddie series, Tale-Spinners For Children, with initial distrib orders passing the 500,000 unit mark it was announced last week by the label's topper, Art Talmadge.

In addition to the albums, a special floor display rack, designed especially for the new kiddie line also is being shipped to UA distributors. The dealer rack features each of the ten albums in the release in separate dividers and is designed for point-of-sale impulse purchasers, Talmadge said. The racks must be ordered by distributors, and these orders to date have passed the 2,000 mark.

The Tale-Spinners For Children series features the Hollywood Studio Orchestra, the Famous Theater Company and actors and actresses in dramatizations of such kiddie favorites as "Robin Hood," "The Ugly Duckling," "Snow White," "Cinderella," "William Tell," "The Knights Of The Round Table," "Sleeping Beauty," "The 3 Musketeers," "Puss In Boots," and a special album, "The Story of Chopin."

The albums will list for 99 cents each.

Pick of the Week

"EVERY NIGHT" (2:20) [Spanka BMI—Anka]
 "THERE YOU GO" (2:25) [Spanka BMI—Anka]
 PAUL ANKA (RCA Victor 8068)

This one looks like another 'automatic' smash for the multi-talented artist, who already owns a fantastic chain of smashes. Side, labeled "Every Night (Without You)," is a stompin', steady-drivin' romancer that Paul belts out in spine-tingling style. Fabulous Ral Ellis ork-choral backdrop. The broken-hearted "There You Go" makes for a sensational, beat-ballad companion deck.

"TEEN AGE IDOL" (2:25) "I'VE GOT MY EYES ON YOU"
 [Nelson ASCAP—Lewis] (2:04)
 [4 Star Sales BMI—Burgess]
 RICK NELSON (Imperial 5864)

It's a cinch Nelson's next big chart-makers will come from both ends of his new Imperial release, "Teen Age Idol" and "I've Got My Eyes On You (And I Like What I See)." Former's a touching soft beat cha cha tale of the lonesome life of a youngster in the spotlight while the latter's a delectable blues-oriented twist'er. Two hot money-makers here.

"SEND ME THE PILLOW YOU DREAM ON" (2:50)
 [Four Star Sales BMI—Locklin]
 "WHAT'LL I DO" (2:37) [Irving Berlin ASCAP—Berlin]
 JOHNNY TILLOTSON (Cadence 1424)

Chances are Johnny Tillotson will have two back-to-back country-angled chart triumphs in-a-row. The smooth-toned songster, currently cashing in with "It Keeps Right On A-Hurtin'," is back with the old Hank Locklin beaut, "Send Me The Pillow You Dream On." Stellar choral-ork support on this shuffle ballad winner. Warm, lilting revival of the Irving Berlin great, "What'll I Do," on the flip. Both ends are in Johnny's current hit LP.

"HULLY GULLY BABY" (2:31) [Kalmann ASCAP—Mann, Appell]
 "YOUR LAST CHANCE" (2:25) [BRS BMI—Robinson, Cooper]
 THE DOVELLS (Parkway 845)

The Dovells, who now own two solid chart-makers in "Bristol Stomp" and "Bristol Twistin' Annie," can have their third dance-inducin' hit in-a-row with this one. It's an attention-getting winner, labeled "Hully Gully Baby," that the vocalists and instrumentalists put across in ultra-commercial fashion. Same goes for the sizzling stomp-a-twister, "Your Last Chance," on the potent pairing.

"IF I HAD A HAMMER" (1:58) [Ludlow BMI—Seeger, Hays]
 "GONE THE RAINBOW" (2:43)
 [Peppamar ASCAP—Yarrow, Travers, Stookey]
 PETER, PAUL & MARY (Warner Bros. 5296)

From the same LP, "Peter, Paul & Mary," that produced the trio's Warner Bros. hit, "Lemon Tree," comes another strong contender for hitdom. Tune, "If I Had A Hammer (The Hammer Song)," is a brisk paced folk affair that perfectly showcases the new team's pro stylings. Coupler, "Gone The Rainbow," is a haunting, easy-goin' entry.

"I'M GONNA CHANGE EVERYTHING" (1:58)
 [Tuckahoe BMI—Zanetis]
 "PRIDE GOES BEFORE A FALL" (2:38) [Tuckahoe BMI—Payne]
 JIM REEVES (RCA Victor 8080)

Reeves, who's been well represented on both the pop and country charts for a number of years now, can have one of his biggest two-market hits to date in "I'm Gonna Change Everything." It's a soft beat cha cha heartbreaker that Reeves dual-tracks in grade "A" fashion. Jim's at his mellow-toned best on the superb, crying towel lilter, "Pride Goes Before A Fall." Great pairing.

"TILL THERE WAS YOU" (2:12) [Frank ASCAP—Meredith, Wilson]
 "THE EIGHTEENTH VARIATION" (2:25)
 [David Jones BMI—Rachmaninoff: Arr: David Jones, Inc.]
 VALJEAN (Carlton 576)

Now that the flick version of "Music Man" will soon be making the rounds it's a good bet that the lovely ballad, "Till There Was You," will do likewise. This time it's a beautiful, big-sounding instrumental arrangement with Valjean (who made his chart bow with "Ben Casey's Theme") at the piano and Ernest Freeman guiding the ork. Superb performance with a fantastic finish. Pairing's a stellar adaptation of the famed Rachmaninoff work.

"YIELD NOT TO TEMPTATION" "HOW DOES A CHEATING
 (2:32) [Don BMI—Malone] WOMAN FEEL" (2:27)
 [Lion BMI—Smith]
 BOBBY BLAND (Duke 352)

Bland's long string of dual-mart, pop-r&b coin-catchers should soon be adding both ends of his new Duke release. One half, "Yield Not To Temptation," finds Bobby in a driving, chorus-backed handclapping twist format while the other, "How Does A Cheating Woman Feel," is a striking, slow moving change-of-pace weeper.

"I KNEEL AT YOUR THRONE" (2:31) [Bourne ASCAP—Baron, Scott]
"IF I KNEW THEN (WHAT I KNOW NOW)" (2:30)
[Figure BMI—Woods, Kirkland, Johnson]
MAXINE BROWN (ABC-Paramount 10343)

Lark should get back on the winning track with her newest ABC stand. It's the lovely romancer, "I Kneel At Your Throne," that Maxine puts across with heartfelt, beat-ballad sincerity. Excellent ork-choral support from the Maxwell Davis outfit. The striking blues-pounder, "If I Knew Then," is socked out with a rock-a-twist zest on the Roy Glover, Jr.-arranged coupler.

"I CRY AND CRY" (2:07) [Kemo BMI—D. & B. Hurdon]
"BIG TIME SPENDER" (1:45) [Kemo BMI—D. & B. Hurdon]

BOBBY CURTOLA (Del-Fi 4182)

Curtola, who stepped into the national spotlight with "Fortune Teller," can easily repeat that success with his new Del-Fi slice. It's a touching, teen beat cha cha romancer, tabbed "I Cry And Cry," that the chorus-backed songster reads with tender emotion. Effective drum bits in support. Coupler's a happy rock-a-twist ditty dubbed "Big Time Spender."

"VENUS IN BLUE JEANS" [Aldon BMI—Greenfield, Sedaka]
"HIGHWAY BOUND" [Ace BMI—Clanton]

JIMMY CLANTON (Ace 8001)

Watch for Jimmy Clanton's name to be plastered all over the charts once again. Side to do it is "Venus In Blue Jeans," a charming, easy-goin' cha cha beat love affair that the kids are sure to latch onto real quick. Ear-arresting ork-choral support on a deck that can climb way up the sales ladder. Coupler's a sentimental cha cha beat attention-getter. Vee Jay now distributes the label nationally.

[Ludlow BMI—Newley, Bricusse]

"GONNA BUILD A MOUNTAIN" (2:40)

[Ludlow BMI—Newley, Bricusse]

ANTHONY NEWLEY (London 9546)

The versatile English performer could break the hit barrier this side of the Atlantic with his emotion-packed reading of "What Kind Of Fool Am I." It's the stirring ballad that Newley does in the English musical smash, "Stop The World—I Want To Get Off"—which is due on B'way this Fall. The symbolic fingernail snappin' coupler (which he also does in the show) should also see loads of turntable action.

"GONNA BUILD A MOUNTAIN" (2:30)

[Ludlow BMI—Bricusse, Newley]

"WHAT KIND OF FOOL" (2:45) [Ludlow BMI—Bricusse, Newley]

BILLY DANIELS (Jubilee 5437)

Both ends are from the Fall-due B'way musical (by way of England), "Stop The World—I Want To Get Off." Top half, "Gonna Build a Mountain," is a sensational swinger that continually builds along the way. "What Kind Of Fool" makes for a big, beautiful dramatic ballad coupler.

"EACH NIGHT" (2:42) [Contrast BMI—Morris]

"TURN HER DOWN" (2:10) [Anthony ASCAP—Reeth, Hafner]

ROCHELLE & THE CANDLES (Challenge 9158)

It's an ear-appealing romancer from the 'old' ballad-with-a-beat school, tagged "Each Night" that looms as a sales heavy-weight. Johnny Wyatt's featured here. There's loads of twist-a-bility on the sizzlin' coupler.

"A NEW LEAF" (2:29) [Conrad BMI—Hooker]

JOHN LEE HOOKER (Vee Jay 453)

This one, tagged "She's Mine," is a catchy rhythm & blues'er set in a "Tequila"-like instrumental showcase. Backing's a slow, down home blues opus dubbed "A New Leaf." Fans'll dig both portions.

Loren could have a first-time-out on Philips with the shuffle-twist delighter that deals with a gal who's obviously been influenced by much-publicized flick. Sock support from the Milestone Singers and Jerry Kennedy's ork. Could bust wide open.

(B+) "DREAM OF HOME" (1:52) [Merrimac BMI—Ralston, Lloyd]
Also eye this touching ballad-with-a-beat based on bugler's taps. It, too, can step way out.

Calmer seas in a good shuffle-beat outing on the oldie.

JOHNNY ROCKEFELLER (Everest 20009)

(B) "SUZAN'S THEME" (2:21) [Gil BMI—Shelton]
Interesting, unhurried combo cut on a theme that sometimes has the flavor of "Blue Moon." A pretty portion that could get around.

(B) "POP GOES THE WEASEL" (1:24) [Arrowhead BMI—]
Familiar ditty figures in a solid twist date, headed by strong-sounding organ rockin'. Worthy twist take.

LOUIS PRIMA & GIA MAIONE (Capitol 4805)

(B+) "BIG DADDY" (2:44) [Louis Prima Ent. ASCAP—Prima]
Prima and his new band vocalist team in good-humored Prima style in this new look at the old "Bill Bailey" number. Deck has solid juke-box & station programming appeal.

(B) "OOH, LOOK WHAT YOU'VE DONE TO ME" (2:28) [Roosevelt BMI—Chase]
An original item serves as a similar vehicle for the pair.

JERRI WINTERS (Charlie Parker 207)

(B+) "I'M AFRAID TO LOVE YOU" (1:56) [Plymouth ASCAP—Stride, Douglas, McCarthy]
There's an engaging light-hearted air to the fine lark's delivery of an irresistible, old-fashioned-flavored romantic item. Mundell Lowe directs the slick jazz-slanted full ork setting. Can come-up with big airplay.

(B) "THIS IS OUR SONG OF LOVE" (2:41) [Janon ASCAP—Stride, Wilson]
Performer is more serious in this lush Latinish ballad session.

we're in business.....!

Pick of the Week

"A LITTLE THING" (2:03) [Travis BMI—Lee]
 "DON'T STOP NOW" (1:55) [Travis BMI—Lee]
 SHIRLEY & LEE (Imperial 5868)

Chances are Shirley & Lee will be putting in a chart appearance in the near future. And the vet duo can do it with either end here. One half, "A Little Thing," is a tantalizing, steady beat rhythm thumper while the other, "Don't Stop Now," moves along with hot twist spirit. Dandy instrumental support on this dual-mart double-header.

"EVERY NOW AND THEN" (2:21) [Minit BMI—Neville]
 "I'M IN LOVE" (3:00) [Minit BMI—Neville]
 BENNY SPELLMAN (Minit 652)

Spellman, who kicked up a chart fuss with "Lipstick Traces," can do even better things with his new Minit session. It's a captivating, cha cha beat thumper, dubbed "Just Love Me," that sports an infectious musical backdrop. Keep close tabs on it. "I'm In Love" is from the beat-ballad dept. Side's almost entirely a recitation.

Pick of the Week

Newcomers

In an effort to call D.J. attention to Pick records by "Newcomers" (artists never before on the Top 100) the editorial staff of Cash Box will list such records under this special heading.

"SHERRY" (2:07) [Bobob ASCAP—Gaudio]
 "I'VE CRIED BEFORE" (2:21) [Bobob ASCAP—Gaudio]
 THE 4 SEASONS (Vee Jay 456)

The sounds here are right up the teeners' alley. Side, tabbed "Sherry," marks the 4 Seasons' bow on Vee Jay and it's a catchy 'slop-a-cha-cha' that's chock-full of those teen-appealing vocal and instrumental gimmicks. Terrific Sid Bass arrangements. Group switches to a feelingful, slow beat-ballad pace on the tender undercut.

"MR. GROUNDHOG" (2:29) [Turntable BMI—Jordan, Belle]
 "WALK THE CHALK LINE" (2:48) [Painted Desert BMI—Dixon]
 JIMMY RANDOLPH (Harmon 1005)

The young Harmon label, currently moving out with Dick Roman's "Summer Place," can have another chart item in this 'sequel' to Brook Benton's short-while-back biggie, "Boll Weevil." Songster Jimmy Randolph delightfully tells the story of the plight of "Mr. Groundhog," against a bright ork-choral showcase supplied by Alan Lorber. Backing's a fetching rock-a-shuffle entry.

"STUBBORN KIND OF FELLOW" (2:43)
 [Jobete BMI—Gaye, Stevenson]
 "IT HURT ME TOO" (2:44) [Jobete BMI—Gaye, Stevenson]
 MARVIN GAYE (Tamla 54068)

Look for Marvin Gaye to crash thru in a big way. Artist's probable 'stepping stone' is a captivating rock-a-cha-cha opus, dubbed "Stubborn Kind Of Fellow," that's loaded with coin-pulling potential. Great instrumental and vocal assist (from the Vandellas—especially on the 'say yeh yeh yeh' gimmick). More cha-rock hits sounds on the pounding coupler.

"ALLEY OOP WAS A TWO DAB MAN" (2:56) [Garpax BMI—MacRae, Paxton]
 "STOP TWISTIN' BABY" (2:06) [Garpax BMI—MacRae]
 GARY PAXTON (Liberty 55485)

Paxton can step into the solo spotlight (he was formerly with the Hollywood Argyles) with either end here. One half, "Alley Oop Was A Two Dab Man," is a delightful spoof of the hair preparation—done cha cha talk-sing style. The other's a frantic U.S. Bonds-styled handclapper dubbed "Stop Twistin' Baby." Either end can step way out.

"THE WATUSI WOBBLE" (2:13) [Armada BMI—Spencer]
 "TAKE A GIANT STEP" (2:06) [Armada BMI—Spencer]
 THE PROFILES (Goldie 706)

Both the Profiles and the N.Y.-based Goldie label can soon be making a chart impression with this twin bow. Artists combine two popular teen dance steps, on "The Watusi Wobble," and come thru with a deck that the hoofers oughta go wild over. More teen-appealing sounds on the thumpin' lower lid.

RUDY & TRADEWINDS
 (Angletone 543)

(B) "CARELESS LOVE" (2:44)
 [Mac-Avery BMI—Jackson]
 Team's lead fella does a fine reading of the plaintive item, not the oldie. Other guys and organ-led combo nicely support. Sound deserves airtime.

(B) "UNEMPLOYED" (2:35)
 [Mac-Avery BMI—Pellechia, Jackson]
 Quick-paced laff blend by the boys.

GARY ANGEL & THE HALOS
 (Kama 501)

(B) "JUDY" [Peer Int'l BMI—Raynold]
 Name-song is presented with a busy-beat sound by the songster and his mixed chorus aid. Sax is featured in the colorful setting.

(B) "MEMORIES OF A SUMMER DAY" [Peer Int'l BMI—Barry, Englehardt]
 This slow-beat has a haunting way about it.

THE DELTAS (Philips 40023)

(B+) "WORK SONG" (2:25) [Upam BMI—Adderley, Brown]
 The "16 Tons"-type folkish is done with a sure-handed blues touch by the song team, which gets a jazzy, hammer-pounding highlighted combo setting. There are other readings of the ditty on disks.

(B) "MY OWN TRUE LOVE" (2:44) [Remick ASCAP—Steiner, David]
 Lead does a very capable warble of the famed theme from "Gone With the Wind."

JIM MITCHUM (Reprise 1160)

(B) "TEARS OF LOVE" (2:18)
 [Diplomacy BMI—Mitchum]
 Lively rock-a-billy flavored romp from the songster and his full ork-chorus assistance. Catchy proceedings for the rock crowds.

(B) "TOAST OF THE TEARDROP" (2:34) [Painted Desert BMI—Batchelor, Roberts]
 Because a guy cried over a girl, he met another who comforted him and won his heart, says Mitchum in this medium-beat romantic.

THE DE-LIGHTS (Ad Lib 346)

(B) "ONE, TWO BUTTON MY SHOE" (1:52) [Madchen & Elsher BMI]
 The De-Lights could score with this rollicking, fast-moving opus with a danceable, contagious beat. Merits attention.

(B) "I'M COMIN' HOME" (2:48)
 [Madchen & Elsher BMI]
 Familiar-sounding blues-flavored lament here.

LEE RANDY (Square 304)

(B) "WORLD OF DREAMS" (3:00) [Mansion ASCAP—Edwards, David]
 Thrush appealingly recites the plaintive lovey-dovey. Muted trumpet and soft triplets top the backing sound.

(C) "ONE OF THESE DAYS" [Duchess BMI—Williams]
 Upbeat romantic. Label is located in N.Y.

ALLEN STORY (Check-Mate 1014)

(B) "WHY OH WHY" [Kappa BMI—Story, Davis]
 Warbler sings a blues number about a down-hearted man against catchy accompaniment by the combo & chanting femme chorus.

(B) "CHUBBY CHUBBY" (Lubby Dove Dove)
 [Chevis BMI—Davis, Story]
 Guy digs his "chubby" gal in this genial affair.

JOHNNIE TINO (Crosby 19)

(B) "MY DREAM" (2:10) [Neve-gas ASCAP—Marascalco]
 Tino plaintively recites the interesting ballad against a good Latinish rock-a-string sound. Diskery is based in Las Vegas.

(C+) "SOME OF THESE DAYS" (2:07) [Vogel ASCAP—Brooks]
 Easy-beat reading of the sturdy.

THE TANGIERS (A-J 905)

(B) "DOIN' THE WADDLE" (2:00) [Buna BMI—Smith]
 The vocal quintet heads a blues-styled attack on a ditty tailor-made for the teen dance-floor. Musicians back-up with an infectious sound. Diskery does business out of N.Y.

(B) "THE PLEA" (2:28) [Tangier BMI—Glascoe, Meyers]
 Lead is an honest vehicle for the number, whose title speaks for itself.

TEX DRAKE BAND (B-Atlas 630)

(C+) "ONE KEY POLKA NO. 1 (No Sharps, No Flats)" (1:40)
 [Vado ASCAP—Drake]
 Ditty's tag sizes-up this off-beat polka sound from the Drake crew. Main one-key instrument is an organ.

(C+) "ONE KEY POLKA NO. 2 (No Sharps, No Flats)" (1:43)
 [Vado ASCAP—Drake]
 More of the same zany stuff.

JOHN CASSETTA ORCH.
 (Tru-Lite 112)

(B) "SCOTCH PLAID TWISTER" (2:12) [Trulite ASCAP Cassetta]
 This is a twister with novel Scottish-flavored statements from the brass and reed sections. A different instrumental twist outing. Label headquarters in N.Y.

(B) "BLUES FOR THREE" (1:55) [Trulite ASCAP—Cassetta]
 Nice relaxed blues sound from the band.

THE SCHOOL GIRLS (Express 712)

(B+) "THE REASONS WHY I LOVE HIM" (2:22) [Pace-maker BMI—Constantine, Colombo]
 Gals and their rock-a-cha combo setup come around with a generally original-sounding romantic date for the teeners. Merits spins. Diskery is distributed by Fargo Records of Lynbrook, Long Island, N. Y.

(B) "GUESS WE'RE NOT IN LOVE" (1:57) [Instant BMI—Friedman, Colombo]
 A hop-and-a-skip approach here.

FREDDY & THE RAVENS
 (WED 124)

(B+) "THE BIG ITCH" (2:05)
 [Valtone BMI—Peyton]
 Songsters and their setting musicians offer an all-out sock-rock novelty date. Makes good twist-time sense. Diskery is located in Los Angeles.

(B) "ANOTHER LOVE" (2:00)
 [Valtone BMI—Peyton]
 Boys have a chant role here against a medium-beat ballad sound from the combo.

JOHNNY ARAGON
 (Sound-O-Rama 105)

(C) "THAT'S ALL I WANT FROM YOU" (2:55) [Wells & Barry—Rotha]
 OK Latinish ork sound backs a so-so reading of the pretty evergreen.

(C) "WHY DOESN'T SOMEBODY WANT ME" (2:35)
 [Empire ASCAP—Hoffman]
 Plaintive for the youngsters.

Peter, Paul & Mary

Life-long interests in folk music led Peter, Paul and Mary to Greenwich Village, where they became a trio. The group toured the country from the Blue Angel to the hungry i developing their style and acquiring a loyal group of admirers. Their fortunes began to rise rapidly when they cut an album for Warner Brothers tagged after themselves. A single, "Lemon Tree," taken from the disk quickly created Top 100 attention and brought the trio into the national limelight. The album is currently riding high on the charts.

Peter Yarrow, who was born in New York in 1937, took a psychology degree at Cornell University where he was an instructor in a folk ballad course. He was discovered at the Newport Festival in 1960 and toured the nation as a solo performer.

Paul Stookey, who was born twenty-five years ago in Birmingham, Mich., thumped an electric guitar for a high school rock 'n roll group on local TV and emceed his way through Michigan State University.

Mary Allin Travers was born in Louisville, Ky., in 1937. She has appeared with several teen-age folk groups and has made it to Carnegie Hall twice. She is the only member of the group with Broadway credits having appeared in "Mr. President" with Mort Sahl.

The group currently has a new single out in "If I Had A Hammer."

Stevens & Tempo

The performing brother and sister duo, April Stevens and Nino Tempo, currently scoring with "Sweet And Lovely" on Atco, are one of the most successful night club acts in the country. Both have enjoyed active careers as solo singers before joining forces. The lark's past credits include such past hits as "I'm In Love Again." Nino Tempo has, in addition to his chanting abilities, written songs and arrangements for such top name vocalists as Rosemary Clooney and Steve Lawrence.

Tempo began his musical career performing in recitals at the age of three and a half, and at seven he was singing with the Benny Goodman orchestra. Later he sang with Glenn Miller's band. Nino also plays the clarinet, saxophone, piano and guitar.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTTER

An innocent little Friday the 13th contest turned into a panic session for WHIH-Tidewater, Virginia. Station advertised that any listener born on any Friday the 13th would receive—upon proof of birthdate—a black cat and a year's supply of cat food. Program director Jack Backer hit the panic button at 3 PM Friday, July 13, when nine black cats had been claimed and calls from additional winners began to pick up at an alarming rate. Local SPCA's supply of stray black cats was quickly exhausted and station newsmen appealed to listeners to contribute unwanted cats to the cause. The outlet's "big red" thunderbird news unit, redubbed the "catmobile" for the weekend, was pressed into service collecting cats from donors. Monday morning, the WHIH staff was neck deep in cats and hoping the number of contestants able to prove their Friday birth date would balance out the number of cats collected over the weekend.

MGM Records' promo exec Sol Handwerger infos that he kicked off Dell Richardson's "Boys Night Out" slice last week at the St. Michael Record Hop in Brooklyn. WINS-New York spinner Bob Lewis was also present at the hop.

WHAT-FM-Philadelphia is now presenting a two-hour program of folk music each Sunday evening. Tagged "Folklore" the show occupies the 9 to 11 PM stanza and is hosted by Gene Shay. "Folklore" is currently the only regularly scheduled program of its type in Philly. It features recorded folk music, interviews and news items of interest to the folk-oriented audience.

A new promotional twist was taken by the nationally-famous "Musicarnival" with the scheduling of two Jim Stagg Night performances recently in honor of KYW-Cleveland's new afternoon air personality. Listeners to the Jim Stagg show (2 to 6 PM, Monday through Saturday) were able to purchase special half-price tickets to performances of "Bye Bye Birdie;" meet Stagg and the cast during intermission; and then participate in a twist contest on the Musicarnival stage after the show—either with their own partner or a member of the cast.

"The Genius," Ray Charles, packed the house for two swinging shows recently at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center, Virginia Beach. WGH-Norfolk sponsored the appearance of the artist. Keith James, one of the station's air personalities, was the host and introduced other members of the WGH air staff.

KALL-Salt Lake City cashed in recently on the jazz luminaries in town for the annual jazz workshop at the University of Utah. The one-week workshop featured George Shearing, Conte Candoli, Paul Horn, Milt Bernhart and Ralph Pena as guest lecturers. KALL spotlighted the music of jazzmen in the city and interviewed them in various segments during each broadcast day.

Eleven radio stations throughout the state of Michigan have requested tapes of WXYZ-Detroit's "New Constitution Pro and Con," an hour-long public affairs program on Michigan's proposed new constitution produced by the WXYZ news department. The new state constitution is expected to be a major issue in Michigan's Gubernatorial Campaign in November; and in the interest of reaching most of Michigan's voters with the program, WXYZ offered tapes of the documentary to radio stations throughout the state.

JIM STAGG

WWDC-Washington is continuing its "Wonderful Things Happen" campaign by providing free express from the Carter Barron and South Capitol Street fringe parking lots. Station will pay the tab for all passengers who board D. C. transit express buses.

Dick Stephens and Don Hansen, deejays on WNHC-New Haven, now can be found doing the emcee chores on WNHC-TV "Connecticut Bandstand" while Mike Warren enjoys a two-week vacation away from the cameras.

A nostalgic semi-documentary program tagged "1941—Year of Decision," was broadcast recently over KHJ—Hollywood and proved so popular that it was repeated one week later. The station's news head Allen Moll, along with eight other newscasters, did the narration. "Live" voices of FDR, Churchill and Hitler were heard on the show. The program also brought back portions of actual broadcasts of Glenn Miller and the Dorsey bands, plus music from great Broadway shows and movies of that fateful year.

WAVA-Arlington last week donated a billboard for year round free use of public service organizations. Located on the Lee Highway the purpose of the sign is to provide support of educational, charitable and similar non-profit community projects. It is the first such undertaking by a Washington area broadcasting station.

VITAL STATISTICS:

SUMMER SLEEPER WAKES UP!

CHICAGO — This is the story of a summer sleeper that suddenly awakened.

It's the story of a Smash Record — "Patches" by Dickey Lee.

Released by Smash on May 9 of this year, it received little or no response and apparently was fast heading for obscurity.

Suddenly, it received a shot in the arm late in June when Radio Station KTRM, Beaumont, Tex., gave it a spin. Within two weeks "Patches" spurted to the No. 2 position on the station's charts.

It started to snowball. Next to get "on" the disk was KNUZ, Houston, and within ten days it was No. 16 on that station's charts.

Immediate action followed in Dallas, Memphis and Nashville not only on air play but on sales.

Most important is sales. Bob West's Texas Distributors, Inc., alone has already moved over 10,000 "Patches".

This in itself is a big figure for a "regional hit."

ALBUM REVIEWS

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"THE NEW ORLEANS SCENE"—Pete Fountain and Al Hirt—Coral CRL 757419
Here is a wax marriage of two of the top names in instrumental music today—Pete Fountain and Al Hirt, who have combined their best-selling talents on this new release from Coral. The trumpeter and the clarinetist play the blues, swing out on the Dixie numbers, and coast easily into tunes with modern jazz overtones. Both artists have had considerable success in the sales department and this LP looms as a sure-fire contender for the charts.

"EARL GRANT AT BASIN STREET EAST"—Decca DL 74299
Earl Grant, who has been making it big with "Swingin' Gently," comes up with a fine album with the same ingredients for success that could send it up the chartsville path. Recorded "live" at Basin Street East, the organist also doubles on the 88 and sings with verve and feeling in such goodies as "Moon River," "Gotta Be This Or That," "Too Close For Comfort," and "Fever." LP is one of Grant's best to date.

"RECORDED LIVE!"—Kenny Ball—Kapp KL 1294
Kenny Hall, whose last LP venture "Midnight In Moscow" developed into a runaway best-seller, should duplicate that success with new Kapp outing cut "live" at Liverpool's Empire Theatre. The trumpeter and crew deliver some first-rate, swingin' instrumental and vocal tracks on this power-packed disk. The band really shines on "Old Miss Rag," "Saturday Night Function" and "Dinah." Set seems destined to pull loads of coin.

"JACKIE WILSON AT THE COPA"—Brunswick BL 754108
Here's first-rate album effort from Jackie Wilson cut "live" at Gotham's Copacabana and boasts the musical backing and arrangements of Sy Oliver. The chanter, currently riding the charts with "I Just Can't Help It," lends his inimitable stylings to a fine collection of standards which include "Love For Sale," "And This Is My Beloved" and "St. James Infirmary." The album has enough built-in success ingredients to become a real hot item.

"THE WAH-WATUSI"—The Orlons—Cameo C-1020
The Orlons tag their premiere album after their current hit single which has climbed rapidly to the top of the charts, and has made them one of the country's hottest vocal groups. The group delivers each number with a good solid beat that is bound to keep the teen set jumping. Swingin' tracks are the title tune, "Mashed Potato Time," "Let Me In," and "I Met Him On A Sunday." A powerful package.

"THAT HAPPY FEELING"—Bert Kaempfert—Decca DL 74305
Tagged after his recent biggie, the orkster comes on strong with a session of swinging tunes in this new outing on Decca. Kaempfert, with several chart items to his credit in recent months, has gathered together a collection of unusual melodies geared for his special brand of orchestration and arrangement. Interesting sides are "That Happy Feeling," "Wimoweh," and "Sunday In Madrid." LP should score heavily in the coin department.

"1,837 SECONDS OF HUMOR"—Ray Stevens—Mercury SR 60732
Ray Stevens, who is currently riding high on the charts with "Ahab The Arab," unleashes his potent vocal and instrumental talents full-blast on this laugh-filled novelty-styled package from Mercury. The chanter penned all the items on the disk and renders them with enough good spirits to attract a wide variety of record buyers. In addition to his biggie, Stevens comes up top-notch renditions of his own "The Rock And Roll Show" and "PFC Rhythm And Blues Jones." Eye the album for rapid sales acceptance.

ROY ORBISON'S GREATEST HITS

ONLY THE LONELY EVERGREEN CRYING
LPTOWN BURNING SCARED LOVE STAR
DREAM BABY THE CROWD BLUE ANGEL
CANDY MAN I'M HURTIN' MAMA

"ROY ORBISON'S GREATEST HITS"—Monument M 4009
Roy Orbison, who has earned many laurels in the past for his best-selling chart entries, comes up with a power-packed disk of previous triumphs on this new Monument LP outing. The chanter's rich full-bodied voice is perfectly suited to such coin-pulling merchandise as "Only The Lonely," "Crying" and "The Crowd." The disk has enough built-in success ingredients to score heavily in the coin department.

"SHOUT! SHOUT! (KNOCK YOURSELF OUT)"—Ernie Maresca—Seville SV 7701
Ernie Maresca, who jumped from obscurity to stardom a short while back with hit slice of "Shout! Shout! (Knock Yourself Out)," tags this first album session after the biggie. The songster's wide-range vocal talents and professional range and pitch carry him in good stead on such potent self-penned r&r items as "They Don't Know," "Mary Jane" and "Subway Blues." Sure-fire chart item.

"TWELVE GREAT SONGS OF ALL TIME"—Clebanoff—Mercury MG 20720
"Clebanoff Month" is the theme of Mercury's new promo plan to feature the many albums of the orkster, and offer two new ones as part of the campaign. Clebanoff and the orchestra play a collection of evergreens cleffed by some of the best in the business. Fine musicianship, lush strings and mellow horns combine to make easy listening in such numbers as "Stardust," "I'm In The Mood For Love," "Deep Purple," and "In The Still Of The Night." The disk is an excellent late hours mood companion and should step out saleswise.

"CARIBBEAN GUITAR"—Chet Atkins—RCA Victor LSP-2549
Chet Atkins, who has successfully invaded both the pop and country fields, plays a set of Latin-flavored tunes in his own best-selling manner. The guitarist uses his wide-range versatility to good advantage in such numbers as "Yellow Bird," theme from "Come September," "Come To The Mardi Gras," and the classically oriented "Mayan Dance." The disk seems to be destined to go the success route.

"THE FABULOUS DIAHANN CARROLL"—United Artists UAL 3229
Diahann Carroll, who is currently starring in Richard Rodgers' hit Broadway show, "No Strings," offers a first-rate set of evergreens on this new entry from United Artists. The lark is teamed up with Andre Previn's ork and piano on the disk. The songstress turns in some fine fresh, modern-styled renditions of "I Should Care," "Summertime" and "It's Alright With Me." Package should spark strong sales.

"NO STRINGS-STATE FAIR"—Arthur Fiedler & Boston Pops—RCA Victor LSC-2637
The beautifully lyrical melodies of Richard Rodgers' "No Strings" and "State Fair" are given a symphonic airing by Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra in this new release from Victor. The maestro's treatment of "No Strings" is reversed in that the melodies are played by a host of vibrant strings that adds a lush quality to their beauty. From "State Fair," the two new tunes "Willing And Eager," and "More Than Just A Friend" are included. Excellent bands are "The Sweetest Sounds" and "Love Makes The World Go." The Boston Pops loyal following should make the disk a sure noisemaker.

"SOMETIMES I FEEL LIKE CRYIN'"—Odetta—RCA Victor LSP-2573
On her premiere outing for Victor, Odetta makes a logical departure from folk music to the blues, and she sings these blues tunes like she has never sung anything else. The songstress displays a sincere emotional feeling for the lyrics and carries the melody in classic style. First-rate tracks are "I've Been Living With The Blues," "I Just Can't Keep From Cryin'," "If I Had Wings," and "House Of The Rising Sun." The lark's recent success on TV, her other fine recordings, and this excellent disk could mean some heavy sales.

RAY STEVENS' LAUGH SENSATION

"ODETTA AND THE BLUES"—Riverside RLP 9417

Odetta, long thought of as a folk artist, demonstrates a moving communicative feel for the blues on this top-notch offering from Riverside. The thrush covers a wide range and dramatic and emotional effects as she dishes up some passion-filled renditions of "Believe I'll Go," "Yonder Come The Blues" and "Go Down, Sunshine." An impressive disk.

"I'LL WALK WITH GOD"—Mario Lanza—RCA Victor LM-2607

Despite his untimely death in 1959, the voice of Mario Lanza is still much in demand, and Victor has responded with this LP of songs of love and devotion. Some of the tunes have been taken from other albums, but Victor has added some new ones taken from Lanza's radio series. The dynamic voice is at its very best in "I'll Walk With God," "Guardian Angels," "Somebody Bigger Than You And I," and "Addio Alla Madre." The tenor's legion of admirers will surely want this one.

"MY FAVORITES OF HANK WILLIAMS"—George Jones—United Artists UAS 6220

George Jones, who is currently riding high on the country charts with "She Thinks I Still Care," offers a dozen musical tributes to the late Hank Williams on this new United Artists session. The selections include songs which were written by Williams and others which have become standards as a result of his performances. The songster's feelingful vocal style is aptly suited to such old favorites as "Wedding Bells," "You Win Again" and "Your Cheating Heart." Plenty of sales potential here.

"GEORGE JONES SINGS FROM THE HEART"—Mercury SR 60694

Here's a top-drawer package of country love songs from George Jones cut during his days with Mercury. The chanter has the ability to inject the necessary conviction and authority on all the tunes he dishes up here. Jones' professional, wide-range voice is firmly evidenced on "Aching, Breaking Heart," "Candy Hearts" and "Cold, Cold Heart." The set should prove popular with the country spinners. A fine showing.

"MOODY AND MAGNIFICENT"—Harry Robinson—Riverside 97528

The music of Harry Robinson is characterized by rich instrumentation, a soaring string section, inventive arrangements, and adherence to the melodic line. This entry from Riverside features the orchestra from England playing a set of ballads intended to set a mood, and does it effectively in "Me And My Shadow," "I'm In Love Again," and "All In The Game." Potent wax for spinners.

"SONGS BY JIMMY NEWMAN"—MGM E4045

Jimmy Newman gives some soulful readings to a bevy of country-flavored ballads on this new outing from MGM. The chanter has a sincere, feelingful delivery that comes off well on such numbers as "I'd Just Be Fool Enough," "What'cha Gonna Do," "You're Makin' A Fool Out Of Me," "Crying Over You," and "Please Accept My Love." The country singer's loyal coterie of fans will want this enjoyable session.

"DANCIN' THE GOLDEN 20's GERMAN STYLE"—Philips PHS 600-030

The syncopated rhythms of the roaring twenties are rejuvenated in this new offering from Philips which features a host of tunes of that era—melodies that were popular on both sides of the Atlantic. The band has a bouncy, catchy beat and employs the banjo, tinkling piano, and an organ to recreate the musical spirit of the 20's. Playing 24 melodies in medley form, the band includes "Whispering," "Mack The Knife," "San Francisco," and "Valencia." Disk is a pleasant late hours companion.

"RUSSIAN SONGS AND CHORUSES"—Don Cossack Choir, Serge Jaroff, Conductor—Deutsche Grammophon SLPEM 136 235

The Don Cossack Choir, under the very capable direction of Serge Jaroff, has been a favorite of the American concert stage for many years, and the choir's legion of admirers will want this new offering for their shelves. The Cossacks sing a group of Russian folk songs which are not well known, but they are delivered with the same verve and power that has become a trademark with the choir. Included are "Song Of The Brave Major," "Marching Song," "On The Hill," "The Broken Heart," and "Along The Road."

"THAT'S ALL"—Herman Chittison—L'elegant LES 1000

Herman Chittison unleashes his talents on the piano and comes up with some sparkling arrangements in this potent bag of oldies. As a box man, he is not only nimble-fingered, but fleet-footed too as he pedals and pounds his way through uptempo versions of "Little Girl Blue," "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes," "My Funny Valentine," and "Dancing On The Ceiling." Playing sans accompaniment, the 88'er proves himself a keyboard artist of the first order.

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"SONNY'S TIME"—Sonny Rollins—Jazzland JLP 972

Sonny Rollins, whose return from a self-imposed retirement last year was greeted with apprehension by the jazz world, offers proof positive that he still has an imaginative, harmonic tenor style. On this Jazzland set the artist is teamed up with an accomplished group of sidemen including Oscar Pettiford on bass, Max Roach on drums and Sonny Clark on piano. The sounds here are free-flowing, impressive and professional. Some first-rate tracks include "The Last Time I Saw Paris," "Cutie" and "My Old Flame." Jazzophiles should come in droves for the package.

"CHAZZ!"—Charles Mingus Quintet—Fantasy 6002

Here's a top-drawer experimentative set cut seven years ago at Gotham's Club Bohemia spotlighting the controversial talents of Charlie Mingus. The bassist's amazing control and technical skills are aptly showcased on such adventuresome works as "September," "Jump Monk" and "Serenade In Blue." All the artist's many admirers should come out in strength for the set.

"COLTRANE PLAYS THE BLUES"—John Coltrane—Atlantic 1382

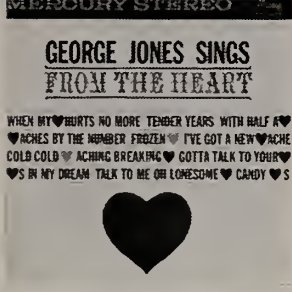

John Coltrane, who has established a solid reputation as one of the leaders in the avant-garde jazz tradition, reverts to his early musical roots for this first-rate set of six blues selections. The soprano saxist does not rely on gimmicks but utilizes a fresh, straight-forward approach on the self-penned items on the set. Each track is a dramatic, personal statement in the best Coltrane style. Best listening bets are "Blues To Elvin," "Blues To You" and "Mr. Day." Powerful jazz package.

CLASSICAL

PUCCINI: Madame Butterfly; Andre Kostelanetz—Columbia CL 1787

The orchestra of Andre Kostelanetz plays the music of Puccini's most melodic opera, "Madame Butterfly," in a pleasing, straight-forward manner that should satisfy the most discerning opera fan. For those whose likes are limited to pop music, the Kostelanetz treatment of the Puccini score should be a sheer delight. The orchestra plays the entire first act, and the first part of the second act, and the second part of the third act. A very enjoyable session.

Other labels under the Russell banner include Gift, to specialize in albums, first of which will be a Christmas package of ballads by Champs Butler, who has been inked to a long-term contract by the diskery. Phillipine 88'er Pumping Villa and organist Frank Perry have also been signed to record for Gift. Russell will also release country sides under the RRE banner, with the Victoria label to be added for r&b sides.

Russell's Mamaleen publishing firm, which holds the rights to the tunes recorded by Edwards is augmented by two more firms brought in by Moon, Moontunes (ASCAP) and Hollywood (BMI).

Ford To Exhibit "Concert" Auto

NEW YORK—The Ford Motor Company will exhibit a "concert hall on wheels" automobile at the New York High Fidelity Music Show, Oct. 2-6, it was announced last week by Raymond V. Pepe, president of the Institute of High Fidelity Manufacturers, Inc., the sponsor.

The new car utilizes a rear-seat speaker called a reverberator to produce a stereophonic-type sound in car-radio music. The new unit simulates live music by compensating for the absence of reflected sound in a car. It does this by reproducing a second set of sound waves from a second speaker source and delaying them 3/1000ths of a second to recreate reflected sound. The Ford speaker reverberator mixes both sets of sound waves to deliver a stereo effect.

The speaker reverberator unit consists of a separate amplifier, a control which mounts under the car instrument panel, and a six-by-nine inch speaker and grille.

The signing of name vocal artists by the label signals a departure for the 3-year-old company which established its reputation in the stereo field via its instrumental recordings.

Roberta Peters has been a ranking coloratura soprano with the Metropolitan Opera since her debut in "Don Givovanni" in 1950. She previously recorded with RCA Victor.

Alfred Drake, long-time Broadway star, has appeared on many original cast albums through the years.

E. B. Marks Forms French Firm With Philips Pubbery Affiliate

NEW YORK — Negotiations were completed last week under which the Edward B. Marks Music Corp. has formed the French firm, Marks-France, in association with Editions Tutti, the publishing affiliate of Philips Records. The contract was signed in Paris by Gerard Tournier, general manager of Tutti and Robert B. Marks, veep of the American pubbery.

This is the first time that Marks has initiated a company of its own abroad, having formerly preferred to free-lance, as it still does in England, or have exclusive representatives as in Italy, Germany, Scandinavia, Holland, Spain, Australia and various other countries throughout the world.

Marks-France will represent the entire pop and standard departments of the American Marks firm, which will still deal with other concerns in regard to classical music.

The new organization will share offices with Philips and Tutti in Paris. Tournier will be supervising director. A special professional manager is now being sought to supervise the promotion of the firm, which will handle both French and American songs.

While in Europe, Marks signed a contract giving the exclusive rights to the Marks catalog for Switzerland to AG of Zurich. This is the first time the pubbery has ever been solely represented in the country.

Starday Offers Discount In Country Music Spec

MADISON, TENN.—Don Pierce, top- per of Starday Records, announced last week details of the label's third annual country music spectacular sale embracing over 100 country, sacred and bluegrass albums. The diskery is offering dealers three free albums for every ten purchased.

The sales plan will extend to Aug. 30 and will offer many new selling aids to make the new plan even bigger than the previous merchandising program that was employed last year. Brand new four color sleeves will be utilized to enhance the appearance of Starday product and enable purchasers of LP's to become acquainted with sixty other albums in the label's catalog. As a further selling aid, the firm has made four color posters for salesman and dealer use.

For the first time, the diskery is offering dated billings to the distributors which are to be passed on to qualifying dealers. Starday product has always been 100% exchangeable.

A similar plan is being offered in Canada through Sparton who manufactures and distributes the entire Starday album line.

Spotlight new album for the sales is a double-pocket issue tagged "Hit Parade Of American Country Music" consisting of 38 hit songs recorded by top name artists. The package will retail at $4.98. Other spotlight albums are by Ray Charles, Hylo Brown, Little Roy Wiggins, Bashful Brother Oswald, Arthur Smith, the Oprey Ole Timers and Pete Drake.

Disneyland and Buena Vista Records sales executives have recently completed six weeks of an intensive selling campaign during which sales meetings were held with distributors and their salesmen in thirty key cities. Sales figures showed a substantial 54 percent increase over 1961 as a result of the strength of the Disneyland children's catalog and the promotional items tied in with Walt Disney's motion picture and television releases in the Fall of this year.

Among the cities the lark will cover during her promo tour are Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Atlanta, Memphis, Dallas, St. Paul and Denver.

Zanuck Is New Prexy At 20th Century Fox

NEW YORK—Darryl F. Zanuck has been elected president of 20th Century Fox Film Corporation, it was announced last week after a stormy three and a half hour board of directors meeting. Zanuck succeeds Spyros P. Skouras who recently resigned. Skouras will take over as chairman of the board replacing Samuel I. Rosenman.

The eleven man board was also increased to fifteen with the naming of four new members who are: Zanuck, William Wyler, Arnold Grant, and Francis Leviau.

Zanuck, who was appointed for an eighteen month term, was formerly head of the 20th Century Fox studios, and recently has headed his own production company in Paris for 20th Century. It is expected that Zanuck will formulate a plan to extricate the corporation from financial difficulties and streamline the operations of the company.

The election of Zanuck was considered a victory for Skouras who earlier indicated that Zanuck was his personal choice as his successor. It was also a defeat for the board faction headed by directors Milton S. Gould and John L. Loeb who were seeking the election of a president from outside the ranks of the company.

Two major film productions have been the cause of much recent contention. "The Longest Day," reputed to be costing more than $10 million, and "Cleopatra," which Mr. Skouras has reported will cost more than $30 million before it is completed, were cited as examples of production extravagance.

Zanuck, the largest shareholder of the corporation, helped found the company in 1933, has been active in films for more than forty years, and has three times been the recipient of the Academy Award and the Irving Thalberg Award.

It's "Fair Dinkum" for Australian singer Frank Ifield as his latest disk "I Remember You" on Columbia goes shooting to the top of the charts. After only two weeks on release and with a Silver Disk in the bag, sales continue to soar. In one day alone over 100,000 were sold and total sales have now reached the half million. Publisher of this well deserved hit is Famous-Chappell. "I Remember You" is released in the U.S. by Vee-Jay.

Longhorn Records (England) is a new label specialising in country & western music. English Longhorn operates independently from Longhorn Records of Dallas, Texas, although it is expected that some of their releases will be issued on the English Longhorn label. Set for August release is a single by Ray O'Daniel "What Goes Up Always Comes Down" and an E.P. by Buddy Starcher.

Topic Records, now handling the Folkways catalogue in Britain, will release several new items in August including "American Favourite Ballads Vol VI", "Leadbelly" and "James Joyce Reading His Own Work". September line up includes "With Voices We Sing" by Pete Seeger; "Raasche Jewish Folk Songs" and "Two Way Trip" by Ewan MacColl and Peggy Seeger.

Pianist Russ Conway returns to disk with a medley of hits from Lionel Bart's "Blitz"—"Far Away", "The Day After Tomorrow" and "Down The Lane"—on Columbia. Russ also has a new series of sound programmes for the BBC with guest stars including Dickie Valentine, The Brook Brothers, Matt Monro, Alma Cogan, Frank Ifield, Mark Wynter and Danny Williams.

Topping the latest EMI releases a new Chubby Checker "Dancin' Party"; Bobby Vinton's "Roses Are Red"—both from the American Hit Parade and both issued here on Columbia. On the same label comes the latest platter from The Shadows "Guitar Tango" and on HMV, EMI have another chart potential with John Leyton's "Down The River Nile" which the artiste featured in this week's demonstration of Visimotion—a new revolutionary magnetic process for producing low budget cartoons. Visimotion which can be filmed in colour or black and white, recorded on video tape or used live, is claimed by the promoters Robert Stigwood Products Ltd. to be sufficiently economical and speedy to put instant animation within the grasp of every agency, producer.

Ex-member of The Shadows Tony Meehan who left the group last year to join Decca's A&R Division has made yet another move. This time to join the new independent production company Shad-Rich recently formed by Cliff Richard. Back in the fold, so to speak, Meehan will continue to be associated with Decca on a free lance basis, recording such artistes as Jay and Tommy Scott, The Galliards and Louise Cordet whose first disk "I'm Just A Baby" on Decca and published by Francis Day & Hunter is selling very well.

Many ideas, assimilated by Decca A&R manager and technician Peter Attwood during their recent visit to America which included visits to more than 20 recording studios in New York, Nashville and Hollywood, are being incorporated into Decca's new London studios now nearing completion. First sessions are scheduled to take place in September.

Three disks specially recorded by Decca for the American market will be issued there shortly. "I'm Running Around" by Billy Fury; "Dance Her By Me" by Jimmy Powell—a Jack Good discovery; and "Dunkirk" by Delmut McClinton which was recorded during his recent tour with Bruce Channell for whom he played harmonica. "Dunkirk" however is a vocal.

Oriole's top boy Clinton Ford follows his recent best seller "Fanlight Fanny" with a new comedy song "Under The Bambo Tree" published by Campbell Connelly. Another follow-up on the same label comes from composer-singer Alan Klein who tosses "Three Coins In The Sewer". Recorded by indie producer Joe Meek the disk has some 'genuine' "inside the sewer" extras. "Johnny Summertime" latest release by Susan Singer was penned by Oriole A&R manager John Schroeder.

In a recent column we credited "I Remember You" by Frank Ifield on Columbia and the score of "Music Man" to Chappells. In fact they are published by Famous-Chappell and Frank Music respectively—both companies belong to the Chappell group.

R.C.A. artiste Della Reese in London for three days was Guest of Honour at a reception given by Decca Records. The singer is here to record a TV show for Granada TV to be screened in October when her latest L.P. "Della On Stage" will be issued by R.C.A. Her next engagement is a season of cabaret at the Flamingo, Las Vegas.

Della Reese was accompanied by her personal manager Lee Magid who remains in London discussing with agent Harold Davison the possibility of bringing the star back to this country next Spring for a nation wide tour. Magid is also on the look-out for European talent for American exploitation. Before leaving for France, Germany, Scandinavia and Italy, Lee completed plans for setting up his own management-publishing office in London.

During a few days away from his Paris base, Stanley West, Co-ordinator of the CNS European operation, called at the Cash Box office to tip us off about a promotional visit by Ray Conniff. Another CBS artiste in London is Robert Goulet star of Broadway's "Camelot" here to film "Chelsea At Nine" for transmission later in the year by Granada TV. West also visited EMI co-incident with the Columbia (Epic) release of Bobby Vinton's "Roses Are Red" which, as reported last week will be battling for chart honours with Ronnie Carroll on the Phillips label and the latest contestant David MacBeth on Pye.

Associated Recordings reports that W. Sparksman has joined them as Sales Manager. Sparksman was formerly with Pye Records where he helped introduce the first major direct distribution set-up in Britain.

As winner of the recent A-R TV Talent Contest "Find The Singer" Jamaican born Harry Jones inherited a recording contract with Pye Records. His first disk, issued on the Piccadilly label, is "Summer Night" written by Benny Carter and Jimmy Kennedy with backing by Johnny Keating.

Knokke, Knokke, who's there?—at the moment a team of five singers, Christine Campbell, Colin Day, Anita Harris, Noel Harrison and David MacBeth, defending Britain's title at the Knokke International Jazz Competition. Other countries competing in the event are Germany, France, Holland and Italy.

Jet Harris, late of The Shadows, with the newly formed group The Jet Blacks make their TV debut on August 10th.

Currently handling Johnny Dankworth's "Cannonball" and Beryl Bryden's "Moanin", Ogi Hughes of Key Music plans to expand the company's pop activities in the Autumn.

As a result of Bobby Darin's label switch from Atco to Capitol the star's waxings, previously issued here by Decca on the London label will, in future, be released by EMI on Capitol.

Pye this week released the latest Sinatra single "Goody Goody" on Reprise and Dean Martin's second single "Dame Su Amor". Also on Pye comes an E.P. "Some People" by Valerie Mountain and The Eagles. Previously issued as singles the five numbers are from the film of the same name premiered in London last week starring Kenneth More.

Geoff Love and his Orchestra have recorded "Steptoe and Son" on Columbia from the recently successful BBC series of the same name.

S. A. Fonior's bestsellers during the month of June 1962: 1. "Quando Quando" (Pat Boone); 2. "Le Twist Du Canotier" (Maurice Chevalier & Les Chaussettes Noires); 3. "Tango Italiano" (Caterina Valente); 4. "Catarina" (Bobbejaan Schoepen); 5. "Madison Go" (James Curtis & The Madisons). Best sold EP was "Le Twist Du Canotier" (Maurice Chevalier & Les Chaussettes Noires), best sold LP "Chez Julot" Volume 16 (Bébert Ledure).

Dutch Delahay label has been reactivated. CNR, which is owner of that label, concluded a deal with Belgian firm Discobel N.V. for Belgium. In return, Discobel reactivated its Discovog label, which CNR will distribute in Holland. First new Delahay platters are "The Stripper"/"Mulberry Jam" by The Dixie Strippers and "Gina"/"Dolce Vita" by Benny Martell, considered as Belgium's strongest vocal discovery since Jean Walter. First new Discovog record is fabulous Swedish disk "Orange Blossom Special"/"Spotnick Theme." This record, by electronic guitar group The Spotnicks, now in the English charts and expected to become a hit in Benelux.

Indie record producer and publisher L. J. van Rymenant flew to Paris for a special meeting with Norman "Wheels" Petty (U.S.A.) and Allan Crawford (England). They discussed various matters in the publishing and the recording field and the Swedish Spotnicks records, which they handle in their respective territories. Petty will meet Swedish publisher Stig Andersen in Stockholm, which is responsible for the actual success of the Spotnicks platters.

Frankie Music most happy with the Al Verlane-Winny composition "Salve Regina," recorded by The String-A-Longs under the title "Sunday" and now selling very well in Germany. Italian thrush Betty Curtis will record this song in Italian. Moonglow Records has a happy summer season with "La Spagnola" (Angelo Biondi) and "Pupetta"/"Tango D'Amore," the new Rocco Granata disk. Biondi's new record "Tintarella" has just been released. It is a twist-version of Italian chart maker "Tintarella Di Luna."

André D'Heere, discovery of the latest television contest "Ontdek De Ster" made his first record for the Box label. Titles are "Soria Moria" (Swedish hit) b/w "Jij Gaat Voorbij" (Flemish version of Leroy Van Dyke's "Walk On By").

Next Saturday and Sunday, famous annual Jazz Festival at Comblain-Latour will again be organized by Joe Napoli. Among the announced artists are: Frankie Avalon, Nat Adderley, Yusef Lateef, Herb Geller, Kenny Drew, Larry Ritchie, Lou Bennett and Eldon Brooks from the U.S., the Dutch Swing College Band and the Pia Beck Trio from Holland, Klaus Doldinger and the Old Merry Tale Jazz Band from Germany, Donna Hightower, Benoit Quersin, Rene Thomas, Bobby Jaspas, Jacques Pelzer, Sadi, and Jack Sels from Belgium, Daniel Jeannin, Nadine Kiefer and Michel Gaudry from France, and many other jazz musicians and bands from Denmark, Italy, Switzerland, England and other countries.

HOLLAND

The Blue Diamonds, are having a top-hit in their recent repertoire with "Marching Along With The Blue Diamonds," are most popular in Germany. For that reason, Mr. John Ros of Dutch Decca told us, a new single was released in German hardly a month after their popular soldiers' medleys. It is the German hit "Lady Sunshine And Mr. Moon," backed with the charming "Angelina, Lass Das Weinen," a song based on old German folk tunes.

The TV performance of Zizi Jeanmaire in Holland, on July 13th, caused a little trouble. Her manager agreed in Paris that she would do her tour-dechant show for one hour on Dutch TV. When Zizi arrived in Holland, to appear as the top attraction in a "Miss Eye-Glasses" contest, it turned out that Zizi had not been informed about a personal TV appearance in Holland, and that a movie company in France, moreover, did not allow her to appear on TV at all. However, when Zizi learned that the misunderstandings were not the fault of Dutch TV officials, she agreed upon a twenty minutes show. She went on for almost forty minutes, in fact, giving a fine performance, including her famous "Truc de plumes"—the feathered fan dance, together with the Roland Petit Dancers. The songs she sang were those on the recently recorded Philips LP in the "Music Hall" series, a live recording of Zizi in Paris.

Gene Pitney's ("The Man Who Shot) Liberty Valance" on the United Artists label, with the plaintive fiddle introduction, could become an excellent sales item in the C & W field, Mr. Otto Vriezenberg of L. C. Phonogram observed. Flip-side "Take It Like A Man" is also being plugged in Dutch C & W programs.

Sales of jazz recordings are getting much better in Holland, Mr. Leo Boudewijns, general label manager of L. C. Phonogram, told us. The excellent quality of modern jazz on Riverside, London, Fontana, Philips and many other leading labels are certainly a vital influence upon the increasing jazz market, but it turns out that old jazz-recordings in new presentations are also well received. There is a tendency in demands for historic recordings—one of the reasons why London's "Jazz Festival Series" in Holland released a Charlie Parker recording lately, featuring Miles Davis and Jay Jay Johnson, from the early fifties.

CNR reports that Ben Steneker's "Lonely River Rhine"/"I Used To Love You" is a hot seller—in Holland as well as in Denmark, Germany and Belgium.

Colpix releases of the month: "Conscience" by Jimmy Darren and "Johnny Loves Me" by Shelley Fabares. Still a big seller on Colpix is Jimmy Darren's "Her Royal Majesty."

Joe Brown's "Picture Of You" on the Pye label is a big surprise. Probably this disk will enter Holland's Top Twenty. Mr. Hans van Zeeland told Cash Box that Jimmy Justice, whose "Little Smiling Girl" is very popular in Holland, will pay a visit to our country.

Holland's top trumpeter Gerard Engelsma, a.o. first trumpetman in The Skymasters' brass-section, scored a sensational success with his one and only trumpet version of the current hit parader "Heisser Sand." Engelsma, who has often been nicknamed as the "Dutch Harry James" recorded the number on Bovema's Columbia label, which had the disk on the market within two days after the session!

The same rush release took place for the Number 1 Hitparader in the U.S., Bobby Vinton's "Roses Are Red," which also appeared on Bovema's Columbia label—commercially supported by posters and broadcast plugging.

Bovema, already running exclusive agencies for U.S. labels Capitol, MGM, Warner Bros., Liberty, Imperial, Epic and Okeh, has added the distribution of the Stateside label (artists a.o. Freddy Cannon, Dee Dee Ford and Sharon Elliott) in Holland.

Mr. Bob Weiss, European manager for Warner Brothers, visited Bovema's Gramophonehouse recently.

The Holland Festival 1962 closed its portals with concerts by Rafael Kubelik. Bovema artists and labels were represented by Kubelik, Andre Vandernoot, Carlo Maria Giulini, Elisabeth Schwarzkopf, Wilma Driessen and The String Orchestra Benedetto Marcello.

BENELUX (Continued)

Bovema's Columbia label already sold more than 50,000 copies of Chubby Checker's "Let's Twist Again," with Acker Bilk's hit parader "Stranger On Shore" is selling steadily.

Current top sellers on Bovema labels are The Everly Brothers' "That's Old Fashioned," "Al Di La" (by Emilio Pericoli, San Remo Festival winner 1961) both on Warner Brothers, Jackie Davis' Capitol LP "Big Beat Hammond" and Conny Froboess' HMV hit "Lady Sunshine Und Mr. Moon."

The Everly Brothers are expected to make their first public appearances in Holland next October or November.

Holland's Jazz Season 1962/63 will start with an exclusive concert at the Amsterdam Concertgebouw on 22nd September by the George Shearing Quintet. It is the very first time Shearing will play in this area. Other artists, expected next concert season include the Gerry Mulligan Quartet plus the Horace Silver Quintet in October, the Dave Brubeck Quartet in November, Ella Fitzgerald & Osvar Peterson in February and Art Blakey And The Jazz Messengers in March.

FRANCE

CANADA

Excellent news from René Desmartz, director of Editions Paul Beuscher, who besides again enjoying good health (to the delight of his worried friends) is most happy to say he has just signed with MPHC for the French language territories. This is indeed big news for it assures us that the enormous MPHC repertoire will at last be successfully released. It must be admitted that MPHC's policy up to now in the French language territories has been most difficult to understand. In other words, it has always seemed most strange that the MPHC repertoire was reduced to be nothing more than a machine for recuperating the musical rights to film music. Thanks to Desmartz' contract, it can now be assumed that the repertoire will at last receive the rational and financially beneficial distribution it deserves. Finally, the same form of contract has also just been signed between Leeds and Beuscher. Which only goes to prove that hard work is justly rewarded in the long run.

Meanwhile, to solidify the Leeds-Beuscher collaboration, we have thus far had "Twistin' the Night Away", which in French became "Laissez-nous Twister", thanks to the pen of André Pascal, and which has already been recorded by Johnny (National) Hallyday on Philips, by Les Chats Sauvages on EMI, and by Bob Azzam on Barclay. In addition, another Leeds-Beuscher success, "Meet Me At The Twistin' Place," becomes "Madison Twist" thanks to a translation by Georges Aber, has thus far also been recorded by Hallyday, plus a dozen or more others.

Fernand Bonifay, who seems to be returning to the field of song writing, has just adapted "The Young Ones," French title: "De Tout Mon Coeur." The Pirates (Bel-Air) have recorded this. Also by Bonifay is the adaptation of "Got A Funny Feeling Now" titled in French, "Avoue C'est Formidable." We prefer to see what success the tune will have before deciding whether or not the song lives up to its title. Finally, "J'ai Tant D'amour A Donner" by Maurice Tézé, will be recorded by Sacha Distel.

On to other items: Les Compagnons de la Chanson have just received a firm offer from Polydor for 120 millions (!) Sounds like a dream! And Pathé, who must give its own answer to Les Compagnons is having no little worry over this—nightmare of 120 million. How well we understand them.

Another rumour making the rounds of the industry has to do with the new international agreements Polydor is busy signing. While there are relatively few details available as yet, it would seem the conflicts already existing between Polydor and Pathe in so far as records go is far from ending . . . Mexico will be represented at the Juan-les-Pins Jazz Festival in the person of Tino Contreras . . . Mario Candido has just changed labels. From now on Mario will record for Festival which is good news for both parties . . . The youngest twist group around (a total of 28 years for all three members), called the Touistitis, has just recorded four twists for EMI for children written by Geogie Dann and Gracy . . . Gloria Lasso just back from Cologne where she was an enormous success, is thinking of returning there before leaving for Moscow . . . André Claveau is recording the works of Léo Ferré and Pathé has just released a 12" LP called, "Claveau Chante Ferré". True, but nonetheless surprising . . . In quite another category, Pathé-Marconi has also just released a recording by Kyu Sakamoto, the well-known Japanese singer . . . Richard Anthony has returned from Argentina where he enjoyed tremendous popularity, while in Valbonne they're celebrating the sale of Anthony's 3,000,000th record . . . This latter fact probably means a cocktail party in the offing.

Bobby Curtola's latest, "I Cry And Cry" out only two weeks and already headed for hitsville. A great session with a winning sound, it is bound to do as well, if not better, than "Fortune Teller." Bobby is about to embark on an Eastern Canadian P.A. tour which will bring him to Ottawa on August 4th. Bookings for the young singing star in the East are handled through Maria Martell in Toronto. "I Cry And Cry" is being picked by deejays and stations across Canada.

C&W sounds are spreading rapidly to some of the outposts of North America. John Barbarash of CBC's Northern Services is in charge of a weekly taped segment entitled "Western Wagon." The show is produced and taped in Montreal for distribution throughout the Northern areas of Canada including the North West Territories and The Yukon. The show is also shipped to Canadians serving with NATO forces in Germany. John sends out an S.O.S. for records and newsy items, all with a country flavor to be included in the show each week. Also, a request has arrived from the R.C.A.F. for a dub of the daily Ted Daigle Show broadcast over Ottawa's CKOY, again for distribution by way of the network of R.C.A.F. stations from northern Manitoba to Labrador. Incidentally the address for the aforementioned Western Wagon show is: P.O. Box 6000, Montreal, Quebec.

Pleasant surprise for Phonodisc's Bill Fisher, occurred a short while ago while the record man was vacationing in Maine. He and his family were watching the "Here's Hollywood" interview with Paul Anka on TV, when the young singer was asked how he got his start in the record business. Paul replied that he had a fellow by the name of Bill Fisher of Phonodisc in Montreal to thank for his early start. It was Bill who got Paul on wax for the first time via the RPM label in the U.S. and Regency in Canada with an effort called "Blau Wilde Beast Fontaine." This was well before Paul began his climb to international prominence with his waxing of "Diana." By the way, ask Bill Fisher to tell you the story of how "Roses Are Red" came to be. It's one of those "truth is stranger than fiction" episodes.

CKBB in Barrie, Ontario produced a live show (6/30) at the arena in that city that packed in over two thousand spectators. Starring in the show were Pat Hervey, R. Dean Taylor, The Two Tones along with a parade of home grown talent. The show entitled, "Hit Wave" was produced by CKBB Station Manager, Bob Hunter and emceed by station personality, Kennie Wells. The money realized from the show was turned over to the Barrie Collegiate Band to help finance their trip to the Seattle World's Fair.

Gord Lightfoot's good ballad, "Remember Me I'm The One Who Hurt You" will be distributed in the U.S. by ABC Paramount. The rights were leased to the American firm by Chateau's Art Snider. Chateau retains the rights to the disc in Canada. The song has also been leased for British distribution by Chateau to the Emerald label. Viking will retain the rights to the disc in Australia and New Zealand. Meanwhile, the song is rapidly developing into a hit in Canada.

The Mersey Brothers, who had a reasonably successful release on Chateau a while back, have been signed by RCA Victor. Their first release, a song written by Les Pouliot entitled "Bad Penny," is due to be released shortly.

Deejay George Morris exits CJLX, Fort William after a short stay and heads for a radio-TV position at Sudbury's CKSO.

CKGM, Montreal deejays are solidly behind a new item on the Admiral Label. The song is called "Ella, A Fella, And A Striped Umbrella." The disc was picked by deejays at the Montreal Outlet as their "GM Best Bet." As yet the disc hasn't put in an appearance at stations in other Canadian cities.

Northern Broadcasting Company has named Jack Weatherwax as National Sales Director for Radio and TV.

Cash Box enjoyed a visit with Montreal musician, Nat Raider recently. Nat has a new Dixieland LP out on the Venus label. The seven piece band conducted on the recording session by the veteran Montreal musician makes some excellent sounds on the new LP. The band is currently featured at the Montreal area nightspot, The Corral in Pointe Claire, Quebec. Every Monday night the group features the Dixie sounds exclusively.

Visiting recently was Ray Lawrence. The one time CKOY, Ottawa deejay is now Program Director at WHAY in New Britain, Conn. He had nothing but praise for some of the new Canadian discs. He took several of them, including Chateau items by Gord Lightfoot and Pat Hervey back to New Britain with him.

Frank Kantar, CKFH-Toronto, recently celebrated his show's first year on the station with a contest that went over with a bang. He asked his listeners to guess the number of records played on his program since its debut. Response from his listeners was terrific.

Gary Lambert, late of CKEY, Toronto, now on staff at CHOW in Welland joined the ranks of the happily wedded (7/28). John Rourke of Montreal's CKGM was best man at the ceremony held in Quebec City.

Apologies in order to Fred Roy of Frontier Music Publishers for misspelling the name of the firm's record label in a recent column. It's ACADIA, Acadia not Arcadia as it appeared here. Fred informs that a new pair of goodies his firm picked up from the U.S. are forthcoming. "Ghost Of A Honky Tonk Slave" and "The Love I Once Knew" feature Howard Vokes and originated on Del Ray in the U.S. The second disc is already getting heavy air play on Bob Staton's C&W segment over the Windsor-Detroit powerhouse, CKLW. It features an instrumental side entitled, "Swingin' Swanee Rock" and a vocal deck, "There's No Excuse." Featured performer on this session is a boy by the name of Kenny Biggs. Fred says any and all deejays will be supplied with samples, simply by writing him at 2 Pimlico Road, Suite 3, Toronto 15.

New P.D. at Oshawa's CKLB is Terry Mann. Terry was associated at one time with WNDR in Syracuse, N.Y.

New Phonodisc rep. in Alberta is Neil Armitstead. He can be reached at 122114-92 St., Edmonton.

Ron McKee formerly at London's CKSL has relocated, moving to CHML, Hamilton, Ontario.

Johnny Maddox back at Toronto's Club 76 for an eight week stay. He has added a drummer to his act. Johnny is a favorite with Toronto night clubbers, and Quality's Stan Dorling has the sales figures on the artist's Dot records to prove it. Stan also calls attention to a new LP release by Andy Stewart. It's the handsome Scotchman's second LP release. Andy Nagy, Quality Sales Rep, working out of Montreal, brought a copy of the new LP to this correspondent and it appears that this set will be very popular with the singer's fans everywhere.

BRAZIL

AUSTRALIA

In Sao Paulo Neil Sedaka is one of the most popular foreign artists. He arrived at Sao Paulo's Airport and was received by thousands of his teenager fans with enormous enthusiasm. Neil Sedaka is performing on theatre and TV with great success, as usual.

Cash Box visited in Rio de Janeiro, last week, the new offices of Gravações Musidisc. Formerly at Rua Buenos Aires, 68, Musidisc is now at Rua da Lapa, 120, 12th floor, in larger and much more comfortable installations. Nilo Sergio is trying to emphasize the activities of the company, which already appears frequently on our charts. The laboratory is at the same address with his up-to-date equipment, including a Scully cut-machine, in which Musidisc is cutting its own monaural and stereo matrices, as well as the matrices of several other companies. Good luck to Nilo Sergio and Musidisc at their new address.

Philips will release very soon, the first Mercury records pressed in Brazil. Mercury Records always had very good sales here and now, represented by Philips, we believe they will continue to do well, since the repertoire is excellent.

The retail stores in Sao Paulo are complaining because of the new increase in record prices. Some labels raised the price of their single records from Cr. $250,00 to Cr. $300,00, which means another 20 percent increase. Less than two months ago, the companies, using the same policy of higher prices, effected a 25% raise. The way we see it, if this will continue in the future, sales will begin to decrease rapidly. The LP's are suffering the same proportional raises. Now they're costing Cr. $1,450,00, and we heard that the companies are thinking of elevating them to Cr. $2,000,00! This is bad news for our record market.

RGE just pressed a new collection of records. A very good collection in fact. Five 78 RPM: "Moon River" from "Breakfast At Tiffany's" and "Tonight" from "West Side Story" with Lawrence Welk and his orchestra.

"Star Dust" with George Cates and "My Whispering Heart" with The Edsels; "Meu Querido" (My Darling) and "Junto De Ti" (Nearness Of You) with Celeste Sisters; "Maldosa Mulata" and "A Nega Se Vingou" with Clovis De Lima and Maria Mari and "Recuerdos De Ypacarai" with Esperanto (guitar player). Five albums—"Vai Se Um Grande Amor E Vem Outro" (Brazilian music only) with Raul Sampaio (singer and composer). He's already been on our Hit Parade many times; "E A Vida Continua" (also Brazilian music) with the femme singer Rosana Toledo who has a beautiful and warm voice; "The Playing Back Again." This is a Brazilian Group singing only American music. On this LP we find many popular hits like: "Georgia On My Mind" and "My Heart Belongs To Daddy"; "Twist With Keely Smith" (Dot). We've already heard Miss Smith singing jazz, blues, etc. A Twist album puts the famous singer in another field.

"I'll See You In My Dreams" is a very fine (Dot) LP with the wonderful voice of Pat Boone, one of the most popular American singers here in Brazil. Very good selection including: "I'll See You In My Dreams," "Peg O' My Heart," "My Blue Heaven," "Alone," "Brazil," "Prisoner Of Love," "The Gypsy," "Paper Doll" and others.

Digby Wolfe, one of the biggest names in the history of Australian television, is moving into radio when his present TV series Revue '62" folds at the end of July. Digby will be on radio in a national series to be entitled "Wolfe At The Door." The programs are originated through Radio Station 2GB in Sydney and will be heard on eighty one stations throughout Australia—this will make it close to the biggest radio program ever on a national hook-up. It is to be a five-day-a-week program and the 2GB people say that the keynote of the sessions will be complete informality.

The action on local records (singles in particular) is continuing at an increased tempo with new releases being prepared by most established local stars and some newcomers to the scene. New singles are soon to come along from Col Joye, Judy Stone, Franklin Davidson, Johnny O'Keefe, Noleen Batley, Lucky Starr and several other top disc names and the majority of these releases will be accompanied by solid personal appearance promotions by the artists concerned.

Chris Vaughan-Smith has advised Cash Box of the forthcoming visit of Robert P. Iverson, executive vice-president and general manager of the entire Southern Music organization. Mr. Iverson is due in this territory next month and his itinerary also provides for him to visit New Zealand.

The Warner Bros. single of "Al Di La" by Emilio Pericoli is starting to make some noise here now and could become a chart item just as it has done in the United States. The song is from the film "Rome Adventure."

England's Mike Sarne is really getting the works from our disc-jockeys. Mike's release of "Come Outside" is one of the most programmed records across the nation right now and is beginning to show out well on dealer lists. English stars are again enjoying one of those bursts of popularity here—Cliff Richard, for the third week in a row, is our best seller with his "Do You Want To Dance." The Shadows (Cliff's instrumental group) are doing well with two strong singles "The Savage" and "Wonderful Land." Helen Shapiro is getting a bit of action with "Let's Talk About Love" but this one didn't become the big hit that was originally expected.

A new entry into our list of best-sellers this week is "Roses Are Red" by Bobby Vinton which is released here by Australian Record Company on their Coronet label. The way this one is shaping it could soon become a real challenger for the coveted No. 1 spot across the nation.

David Joseph has been appointed personal manager of Brian Henderson, one of our top disc-jockeys and television personalities. Brian has a series of programs (national and local) from Station 2GB in Sydney and is also host of the national TV show "Bandstand." David Joseph is also television manager of Bob Rogers, star disc-jockey with 2UE in Sydney. Prior to these appointments David was on the executive staff of J. Walter Thompson Ltd., the worldwide advertising agency.

Chris Vaughan-Smith of Southern Music is happy about the success of some of his company's English hits at the moment. Southern have the Australian rights to "Come Outside"; "Lonely City"; "Let's Talk About Love" and "The River's Run Dry."

E.M.I.'s recent batch of new singles includes "A Little Love A Little Kiss" by Karl Denver; "Things" by Bobby Darin; "Dancin' Party" by Chubby Checker; "A Taste Of Honey" by Martin Denny and "Seven Day Weekend" by Gary Bonds—this title is from the English movie "It's Trad Dad."

Nice to see local group The Sapphires out with a brand new single on the HMV label. The "A" side is "Aberdeen" (Abilene) and the coupling is "Cella Somba." The Sapphires have been doing some good work on television shows lately and this popularity should give their new single a big sales lift.

World Music of Sydney have the rights to the European hit "Hawaii Tattoo" which is to be released (by The Waikikis) through Festival Records. The original version overseas is on the Palette label. "Hawaii Tattoo" is a current chart-rider in some overseas countries and general feeling is that it could be the same in this area.

It has just been announced that Sven Libaek—newly appointed A&R Manager of Australian Record Company—will accompany the firm's Managing Director Bill Smith on part of his overseas tour. Sven will attend the Columbia Convention at the Americana Hotel in Miami and will spend some time with Columbia's A&R Division on the West Coast.

ITALY

Vogue, the known French record line, will be soon represented in Italy by Walter Gurtler. Up to now—for some seven years—Vogue has been represented here by Durium, which is distributed in France by Vogue.

This week's visitor of honour was Ray Conniff, who came to Italy with his family by car on an Europe-wide trip of pleasure. Journalists, Cash Box rep included, and radio-TV reporters were invited by Manlio Baron, Philips Italiana's representative, to attend a lunch party in honour of Mr. Conniff at Baroncina, 100 kilometers from Milan. Conniff and his family will spend a few days as guests of Manlio Baron, and then will visit Florence and Portofino and will leave Italy for France, driving along the Mediterranean. The Baron's villa has become a most pleasant stopover for all the Philips artists visiting Italy. Ray Conniff enjoys in Italy a widespread popularity and he is one of the best sellers on albums in this country. His best here are "The Way You Look Tonight" and "Besame Mucho," used also as leit-motifs for radio and TV programs. On an interview with a radio reporter, when asked about his opinion of the twist, he replied that it is liked mostly by ladies because it is a good exercise to lose weight.

"Quando Quando Quando" by Tony Renis still selling well. It has become one of the biggest hits of the first six months of 1962 in Italy. But this success is not merely local, in fact the tune has been cut in the States, in Germany and in England and we feel it will meet with further success internationally.

RCA Italiana released three tunes this year which are becoming big hits this summer: they started with "Quando Calienta El Sol" by the Hermanos Rigual which—as soon as it was made available—started selling well and is expected to boom immediately after the summer; "Pinne Fucili E Occhiali Blu" (Flippers, Rifle And Blue Glass) by Edoardo Vianello was their second big release and this—too—is selling; the third is "Lasciami Il Tuo Sorriso" (Leave Me Your Smile) by the golden-boy of RCA, Nico Fidenco, who tries with this record to repeat the success of "Granello Di Sabbia" (Grain Of Sand) which was the best selling disk of last year. Each of these three waxings received exceptional promotional and publicity help, (especially radio and juke box exposures).

Latest release in Italy by Edith Piaf: "Toi Tu L'Entends Pas" backed by "Fallait-Il."

Among the greatest successes released by Decca on London label at the beginning of July was Ernie Maresca's hit "Shout Shout" (Seville), Johnny & The Hurricanes' "Misirlou" and "Salvation" (Bigtop), Billy Vaughn's "Continental Melody" and "Chapel By The Sea" (Dot) and Roger Williams' "Amor Amor Amor" (Kapp). Excellent also is the series of London albums released in July: among them particularly worthy of mention are Billy Vaughn's "Greatest Band Hits" (Dot), Duane Eddy's "A Million Dollars Worth Of Twang Vol. 2." (Jamie) and Roger Williams' "Maria" (Kapp) on which the great American pianist plays two beautiful songs from "West Side Story," "Moon River," "Amor, Amor," and other hits.

Decca has just released a new Pat Boone single 45 with two great titles "Brazil" and "That Old Black Magic." Pat is enjoying an enormous success in Italy after his two TV appearances on the show "Il Signore Delle 21." Among his best selling records there are "Johnny Will," "I'll See You In My Dreams" and above all "Quando Quando Quando." Very very soon Decca will also publish the latest U.S. smash of this talented Dot artist, "Speedy Gonzales," the first twist recorded by Pat Boone. Presently Paramount Films is presenting the movie "State Fair" all over Italy (in Italian "Alla Fiera Per Un Marito") co-starring Pat Boone and Bobby Darin; and at the same time Decca released the sound track.

The current number one "Stai Lontana Da Me" (Tower Of Strength) by Celentano is being requested, also one of the two songs on the flip, "Tu Che Sei Rimasta Sola," a pleasant tune copyrighted by Franz Leonardi.

Enrique Lebendiger, who recently visited Milan, writes to us from the hotel Ritz in Paris: "... everything is fine, but I miss you and Bruno. Hope to see you again in Milan..." Thanks a lot, Mr. Lebendiger. We miss you—as well—Incidentally Bruno is Mr. Pozza, the boy working with Mariano Rapetti at Gruppo Ricordi Musica Leggera.

Frankie Avalon is due in Italy at the end of July and is scheduled for singing appearances in San Remo, Viareggio, Venice... he will be guest star in some leading music TV shows and will wax some for Bluebell, the record house that distributes his disks.

We have received a letter from Giuseppe Ornato, RCA Italiana's director, informing us that their press office manager—Giorgio Mottola—has not left RCA and continues to work for them, contrary to the announcement we made two weeks ago in which we reported that Mottola was leaving RCA.

JAPAN

King Records acquired the right to distribute Canadian-American and Chancellor labels as the outcome of business tie-in with the publisher Yamaha Music. Initial wax release by King will be on Aug. 10 including 2 LP's; "Sing, Frankie! Rock, Fabian!" (Chancellor) and "Pretty Star—Linda Scott (Canadian-American)." Both labels are pactees with Yamaha and the latter has released them and will continue doing so. Yamaha's assignment to King is, however, restricted only to "issue them as a form of regular phonograph records" while Yamaha distributes it as "the film records."

By the way, here's the complete story on the "film records" which is enjoying popularity among youngsters. It was 4 years ago (Nov. 1959) that Kodama Press Co. first issued its monthly publication "Kodama" on this mart. This magazine contained several sheets of film-imposed phonograph records (film records) between pages. And today this kind of entertaining product is remarkably popular among youngsters. It is still going up sharply because of its quality and price. Roughly calculated, the result was $3,330 thousand in 1960 and it was doubled to $6,660 thousand in 1961. And this year, it is expected to reach $9,440 thousand or more. What a swift expansion! Diskeries first thought that they might be harmed by this new innovation. But these two are co-existing and some diskeries are operating the latter's business as well as their original works.

Most people feel that the film records' expansion was the major factor in the increase in popular priced phono-playing devices' sales, which enlarged the possible platter bug circle at the same time. These products are on sale on racks in book stores, department stores as well as in some record stores. Every one can pick 'em up freely and prices are low, ranging from $0.50 (per sheet) to $1.50 (an album). A host of releases are coming in the thin paged magazine (stories and comments featured) style in which 3 to 4 film disks are included. And products are generally mono-sided; in other words, flip-side is blank). Even stereo grooved sheets are available today and all products are 33 rpm's; sounds are good. And the most important thing is that Japan is the only active territory in this kind of music business. Yamaha is the only publisher who is handling this business while Columbia, Victor and Toshiba are active in the field.

Diskeries' organization JPRA (Japan Phonograph Records Association) ok'd on all Sept. releases by its members after the organization's Standard Committee examined 4,026 tunes (1,042-local origins and 2,984-int'l origins) last week.

King's songstress Peggy Hayama returned here last week from her 3 week visit to Brazil. She plans to have a recital this fall in Tokyo, and will cut 2 current Portuguese smashes on King in the original language.

All the directors of Yamaha Music, one of the busiest publishers in Japan, resigned last week en masse. The move was officially registered at the firm's unusual board of directors in Tokyo on July 19. Those who resigned are: prexy Gen' Ichi Kawakami, veep Eddie White, director Fumio Suzuki, director Shinobu Kubota, Kiyoshi Mori, Yoshinori Kimbara, and inspector Akio Naotaoka. Eddie White, who's in charge of the New York office attended the meeting with the other members. The step-down decision was based on financial problems within the firm which will be discussed at a policy meeting in the near future to be held by the general shareholders.

ARGENTINA

This Cash Box representative had the pleasure of visiting Peter de Rougemont, Columbia Records' vice-president for Latin America, who has returned from a visit to New York, Paris and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. One of the main points in De Rougemont's tour was the study of the possibilities of exporting Latin American music to Europe, through CBS. Regarding Columbia activities in South America, he reported that:

"(1) The new recording studio in Buenos Aires is completed and the equipment is being installed. We have already made some trials which show that the Studio has an excellent sound and we expect to make our first recordings at the beginning of August. The Studio is fully equipped for stereo with 2 and 3-track recording machines and two echo chambers.

"(2) The new Mastering equipment has finally arrived and is being installed. It consists of a Scully lathe and Westrex system for Monaural and Stereo, complete with automatic variable pitch, etc. This equipment should be set up and working in four months' time. Already we are doing custom pressing in our plant and we shall be glad to offer our Studio and mastering equipment to other customers.

"(3) I (de Rougemont) have asked Manuel Villareal, manager of Discos Columbia de Mexico, to come to Buenos Aires. He arrived the July 22. We are:

- Coordinating plans for the expansion of Columbia's activities in Mexico and Central America, particularly regarding artists and repertoire.
- Talking about the use of the CBS trademark as a new identification on Columbia merchandise.
- Correlating plans for exporting our records under new CBS label to Europe.

d) Since Mexico City is the nearest point to Japan in Latin America, I have appointed Manuel Villareal to activate the exploitation of our whole Latin American catalogue in Japan. He has recently been to Tokyo and now we are talking over what more can be done."

Ricardo Mejia of RCA reports that the recordings made by Neil Sedaka (two LP's, one sung in Spanish and another one playing the piano) have spurred a lot of interest in other RCA branches. According to Mejia, several wires have been received inquiring about these disks. Both LP's will be released soon in Argentina. Sedaka's latest release, "King Of Clowns" is receiving excellent promotion, and may become a chart rider.

Romiglio Giacomopol, Ediciones smart boss, has Bobby Vinton's "Roses Are Red" in hand, and plans to turn it into a hit in Argentina. The tune, which holds the number one spot in Cash Box's Top 100 this week, will also be recorded in Spanish version.

News from Philips: the diskery is releasing several 45 EP's, starring Los Abries (local group), Carlos Argentino, Johnny Hallyday and Sandy Nelson. There are also new LP's by Los Cantores de Quilla Huasi (who are hitting the charts with "Paloma"), Transito Cocomarola (regional music from the province of Corrientes), Maynard Ferguson, Bert Kaempfert and Los Fronterizos. A special remark must be made regarding Tito Alberti's new "Candombes Al Rojo" EP, as it is a revival of the old "candombe" rhythm, an interesting mixture of Negro and Latin beat, which may find a very good market in other countries. Alberti's record contains four "candombes," including well known "Baile De Los Morenos."

Maria Elena Cattanon of Surco informs us that her company has released the first single record by Los Principes, recently inked by the label. The titles are "En El Cine" (In The Theatre) and "La Chica De Los Ojos Azules" (Blue Eyed Girl). It is hoped that this waxing will do well on the market, as Los Principes are performing on TV Channel 13, which means good promotion.

Fermata Publishers have inked the latest Villota-Imperatore production, "Ruegos A Dios," which will get top promotion. Villota-Imperatore (Chilean composers) have given the pubbery several big hits ("Marcianita," "Luminarias") and the publishers believe that this tune, too, will sell well. Several recordings are being planned; another Fermata item, already published, is the Italian tune "Prendi Una Matita," published originally by Santa Cecilia, which has appeared here as "Prende Una Velita."

RCA is putting all its efforts in the promotion of "La Pomada Explosiva," number eight in the Explosivos series. All the tunes contained in the album are of the "strong" type (Sedaka, Floyd Cramer, Anka, TNT Pablo Beltran Ruiz) and are also available on single records. The LP is priced at 295 pesos, while regular albums cost 455.

More about RCA: the diskery has released several other albums, like "Moon River" (Henry Mancini), "Rigualeando" (by the Rigual Brothers, cut in Buenos Aires during their last visit), "The 12 Colombian Hits" by Colombian lark Amparito Jimenez and "Corridos De La Revolucion Mexicana," by several Mexican artists.

Anidal Alverdi of Music Hall reports that Tony Williams will be in Buenos Aires August 10. He will perform on TV Channel 13 and at the Tabaris Night Club. Elizete Cardoso, the Brazilian songstress, will arrive August 1st, also to perform on TV 13 and at LR1 Radio El Mundo. Williams records for Reprise, represented in Argentina by MH. Elizete is a Copacabana artist, also represented by Alverdi's diskery. Siro San Roman, MH artist, is starting a tour of Ecuador, Colombia and Mexico, that will last a couple of months.

MEXICO

Because of a government ruling last week, the price of records has changed from $8.75 to $10.00. In American money, the new price of a single is $0.80 cents. This increase is not a government income tax, it is an execution right for the composers; that is, ten cents in American money for each 45 rpm. Now, the record manufacturer will see the public reaction.

In September Pat Boone will appear at "Señorial's" night club, also Josephine Baker and the Glenn Miller Orchestra.

Miguel Aceves Mejia, one of our most popular folk singers, gave a cocktail party for the press, announcing a long tour to Central and South America and the release of his new RCA album.

From Oslo, Norway, we received letter from the Zavala's Bros. who are performing at the "Casino-Teatro." This Mexican group of eleven brothers informed Cash Box that Mexican music is a sensation in that country. After this stint, The Zavala's are going to Stockholm where they started their long tour through Europe more than a year ago.

From the editorials, we received information on the visit from R. P. Iversen, executive vice-president and general manager of Southern Music Publishing Company; Alberto L. Martínez, manager of Editorial Argentina de Música Internacional and Miss Provi García, manager of the Latin American department of Peer International Corporation of New York.

Paco Michel, Armando Manzanero, Luis Demetrio and Mario Alvarez Jimenez, signed new contracts with EMMI editorial for their next new compositions.

Columbia Records has released its latest Ray Conniff long play in México. Entitled "S'Continental." It includes songs like "Aquellos Ojos Verdes," "The Continental," "The Sea," "Glow Worm," "Lisboa Antigua," etc. . . . This long play promises to be a choice item.

"Free Me" and "Hey There" were recorded in Spanish by Enrique Guzmán with Chuck Anderson arrangements and accompaniment. Both sides are getting air play by the radio stations and it is a fact that it will be a hit.

Dimsa Records will promote a new young singer named Victor Blanco, who recorded "Microbio" (Bo Weevil) and "El Baile Está De Ambiente" (Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On). The lyrics in Spanish were by Víctor.

Beautiful brunette Lety Cisneros, recorded for RCA Víctor Spanish version of "Speak To Me Pretty" and "Do I Worry (Yes I Do)" with Chucho Ferrer. Lety signed new contracts to perform on TV and in the theater.

Chico O'Farrill, one of the best arrangers in México, is preparing his first long play on the Columbia label, with a big orchestra background. It is possible that Chico will include some of his own compositions.

Angélica María and Mayte Gaos, two popular singers, are finishing their first long play at Musart and RCA respectively. Their best sellers at the moment are "Johnny Get Angry" and "Norman," in Spanish.

August 23 to 25 will begin the IV National Jazz Festival" with the performances by the most popular and best Mexican jazz players and some foreign guests.

Beautiful actress and singer Irma Dorantes recorded at Orfeon Records with the Chucho Rodríguez orchestra, the American song "Loca" (Crazy) and the Japanese song "La Noche De Tu Partida (The Night You Left."

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"DOES HE MEAN THAT MUCH" (2:59)

[Hill & Range BMI—Robertson, Rollins]

"WHAT DO YOU WANT FROM ME" (2:54) [Tree BMI—Cain]
JAMES O'GWYNN (Mercury 72008)

James O'Gwynn, who scored last time out with "My Name Is Mud," offers a potent follow-up stanza with this new release. In "Does He Mean That Much" the songster renders a real pretty, shuffle-beat weeper with enough built-in success ingredients to zoom up the charts in no time flat. The flip, "What Do You Want From Me," is clever, uptempo country tear-jerker. Deserves a close look.

"DADDY STOPPED IN" (2:10) [Sure-Fire BMI—Dowell]

"THREE TIMES" (2:18) [Arch ASCAP—Ross, Kingsburg]

CLAUDE GRAY (Mercury 72001)

Claude Gray, whose last effort "You Take The Table" developed into a first-rate coin-puller should go a similar success route with this promising newie tagged "Daddy Stopped In." The side is a slow-paced country weeper essayed with loads of authority by the chanter. Watch it. In "Three Times" Gray dispenses a fine Merry Melody Singers-backed, potent ballad entry.

"LITTLE HEARTBREAKER YOU" (1:55)

[Glad, BMI—Edwards, Treeca, Jones]

"LET ME GO" (2:26) [Glad BMI—Edwards, Jones]

GEORGIE RIDDLE (United Artists 394)

Georgie Riddle, who has been on the outskirts of stardom so far, could get his deserved national acceptance as a solo performer with this United Artists release. In "Little Heartbreaker" the chanter reads a real catchy uptempo ditty with some effective lyrics. Spinners should come out for the side in droves. "Let Me Go" is a top-drawer bluegrass-flavored, dual-track lament. Could also be big.

Jim Reeves appears to have a two-sided pop-country smasher in his latest Victor release, "I'm Gonna Change Everything" and "Pride Goes Before A Fall." (See Pop Reviews.)

JIM & JESSE (Epic 9528)

(B+) "PICKIN' AND A-GRIN-NIN'" (2:21) [Central BMI—Howard] Jim and Jesse are teamed up with the Virginia Boys for this rousing, folk-flavored Harlan Howard-penned item. The side is essayed with enough authority and style to cause a stir.

(B) "SWEET LITTLE MISS BLUE EYES" (2:37) [Cedarwood BMI—Helms, Taylor] Here the boys dish up a fast-moving bluegrass-styled ditty on a traditional country theme.

ED "TEX" BELIN (Del-Ray 208)

(B) "NEXT SUNDAY IS MY BIRTHDAY" (2:30) [Lois BMI—Smith] The songster offers an interesting, guitar-backed plea for his lost love. With the proper exposure the side could make some noise.

(B) "MAKE ROOM IN YOUR HEART FOR A FRIEND" (2:17) [Peer BMI—Walker, Sullivan] More good country sounds. This one's soft 'n sweet hillbilly ballad.

DUB DICKERSON (Sims 127)

(B) "NAME YOUR PRICE" (2:23) [English & TNT BMI—Dickerson] Dub Dickerson joins forces with the Beavers for this gentle, easy-goin' country tear-jerker. Potent item for jockeys.

(B) "IT'S ABOUT TO GET ME DOWN" (2:20) [English & TNT BMI—Dickerson, Owen] This time the songster delivers a down-home traditional familiar-sounding weeper with some smart guitar work.

BOBBY BARNETT (Reprise 20099)

(B+) "CRAZY LITTLE LOVER" (1:58) [Tree BMI—Miller] Bobby Barnett could have a fast click with this lively, rockin' twangy, happy country opus. The side boasts some pretty chorus backing and some effective guitar work. Eye it.

(B) "LAST OF THE ANGELS" (2:10) [Tree BMI—Miller, Morris] On this end the chanter delivers a tender, slow-paced hillbilly lament with enough good stuff in it to grab some spins.

HELEN DIXON (Peach 753)

(B) "IT CAN'T STOP MY HEART" (2:18) [Yonah BMI—Dixon] The lark renders a real pretty, dual-track weeper which aptly showcases her wide-range vocal charms. A nice showing.

(C+) "HOW CAN I TELL THE CHILDREN" (2:12) [Yonah BMI—Dixon] On this side the songstress sings a tradition-oriented hillbilly lament with a catchy uptempo beat.

JOHNNY FOSTER (Carma 511)

(C+) "IF DREAMS CAME TRUE" (2:30) [Labar BMI—Foster, Wainwright] Medium-tempo blueser with some standard lyrics. Ok chanting on the wax.

(C+) "YOU'VE BEEN CRYING AGAIN" (2:38) [Labar BMI—Foster, Wainwright] Bluegrass-styled, slow-paced lament. Could get some country spins.

A tip of the hat to Joe Martin of Apex-Martin Distributing Co., Newark, N. J. for getting Gotham its first air time devoted to country music. Beginning July 30 between the hours of 7 PM to 8PM, six nights a week, WJRZ-Newark will beam country sounds to New York like WSM goes into Madison. The following things should be noted: all wax companies his band, the Southern Rockets, (all from Memphis) are now playing dates in the Chicago area.

Billy Walker's newly-released single, "Willie The Weeper," has achieved extraordinary sales in four key markets within one week of its release, according to Mort Hoffman, national sales manager for Columbia Records. The chanter's newie has should add Norman Roslin, record librarian at the outlet, to their mailing list to receive country singles and albums; country artists are requested to make station breaks and other promotional material for the call letters; anyone recommending a top jockey for the show should contact the station manager at WJRZ; and all friends of country music who have influence with sponsors should try and induce advertisers to buy some time on the program so that it can be extended.

George Jones and the Jones Boys featuring Georgie Riddle opened recently at the El Dorado Club in Las Vegas. The crew then took off for a string of personals in Houston and Gladewater and some dates in Iowa and Indiana. The chanter is boasting of his being named an honorary deputy sheriff in his own Orange County Texas. The event took place a while back when he played a benefit for the sheriff's department of Vidor, Texas.

Wil-Helm's Bob Neal telegrams word that the agency has inked Hank Locklin to an exclusive pact for all bookings and personal appearances. The talents stable has also recently set an extensive series of bookings for the Johnny Cash show. Neal went on to mention in his wire that August bookings for artists represented by Wil-Helm have reach a new high for the young agency.

Cliffie Stone, vet west coast impresario, and mentor of many of show business' leading personalities is back in harness after an extended hiatus from the microphone and television cameras. Cliffie is now doing a one-hour spinner show daily on KFOX-Long Beach. The show emanates from the executive offices of Central Songs Inc., a successful BMI pubbery of which Stone is the owner. Southern Californians have responded by the thousands, indicating their enthusiastic approval of his return to the air.

Bernie Harville, Jr. of the Windy City-based Bandera label, infos that a country version of "Save The Last Dance For Me" by Merle Ray is now being distributed nationally by Jay-Gee Records of New York. Merle and broken out in the Pittsburgh, Miami, Detroit and Cincinnati areas.

Billy Deaton is mightily pleased of the response that his Smash recording of "Gossip Of A Friend" has received. That songster says any spinner missing copies of the wax can obtain same pronto by writing to him at KMAC-San Antonio.

Add another full-time country station to your list. KCAD-Abilene takes to the air on August 6th. The outlet can use loads of country platters both old and new. Ben Landis will be among the air personalities on the station.

What are the in-between names of "Mr. In-Between?" That's what deejays are asking listeners in an off-beat name-asking contest created by Burl Ives's west coast promo man, Irwin Zucker. Since the chanter's latest dual-market Decca smash is "Mr. In-Between," it is only befitting that the entire world know that the "in-between" names of the entertainer are Icle Ivanhoe. Deejays are furnishing interesting clues to these hitherto non-publicized middle names. Winning contestants are receiving Ives' albums. Interested deejays should contact Zucker at 6515 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood 28, Calif.

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records has signed Gordon Terry to a long-term wax contract. Pictured above at the inking ceremonies are Joe Allison (left), label A&R exec, and the chanter. Terry will cut his first sides for the diskery later this month for early fall release.

When you put your money in, you want some assurance you can get it out. A home, a car, a phonograph—it goes for all of them. You want the best value while you've got it, and the highest "blue book" value when you trade it. Seeburg has long built in these values. A quick check on re-sale prices is proof. In the new SEEBURG DIRECTIONAL STEREO phonographs for 1962, Seeburg is delivering such values today. Everything that's good for your future business is built into them—everything except fast depreciation.

Summer Business Is What You Make Of It

After speaking directly with no less than one hundred distributors this week in conjunction with the research that goes into our Annual Coin Machine Directory, we can't help but think that "summer doldrums" are purely a matter of the mind. If you go into June looking for a slowdown and do nothing whatever about it then sure enough things will slow down, and eventually stop altogether if you really wait for them to do just that. This doesn't seem to be the case, however, with a large majority of distributors in every part of the country.

As a matter of fact, business is good, to put it bluntly, and we're saying that sitting here at the tail end of July, and we're echoing the response most distributors gave to the question, "how's business?" Business is good because most of us don't have the wherewithal to sit back and rest on laurels awaiting the oncoming boom. There are lots of things to be found in the crystal ball but even 20-20 eyesight can't spot a boom. And perhaps that's the reason business is good. It's psychological.

When a boom has passed and things settle, everyone looks at each other and things never look so bad for the future. Then sure enough we realize that business isn't so bad really, it's just normal. And then we proceed to do something to make it better. And the fact that it happens to be July is really of no consequence. Lots of wholesalers we know couldn't wait to start pushing around September or so. And with complete disregard for the weather and the temperatures many coin machine outlets went to work with the extensive array of new equipment that has come from a seemingly endless assembly line in Chicago and they went right out and sold it. The operators must have lost that slack-season feeling too, because they went right out and bought it. The results of course, are plain to see. The people who patronize coin machine locations are spending all right and they don't care about summer doldrums either. Many of them are on vacation and many just act as though they were. As we said a few weeks ago, the man on the street continues to spend and you'd better be ready to do business with him.

This summer season slump idea must have cost this country a fortune when you look back on it. Think of all the business that's done today in retail stores that could have been done years ago if the stores remained open evenings instead of shutting down for the summer nights. How many lightweight suits, how many appliances, how many phonographs could have been sold if they were promoted in July? And speaking of phonographs, have you noticed how records sell these summer days? There was a time when the manufacturers wouldn't release a disk 'til September! But we live and learn. And one thing we've learned is that you can do a lot of business in July. And August isn't a bad month either. It's all in the mind and the amount of energy expended.

MOA Names Managing Director

Robert Blundred Brings Broad Experience

With Business, Trade Groups To Natl. Assoc.

CHICAGO—The executive committee of the Music Operators of America (MOA) headed by their board chairman, Clinton S. Pierce, convened in Chicago's Morrison Hotel, in this city, last Monday and Tuesday, July 23 & 24, and appointed Robert H. Blundred national managing director, to replace Ed. R. Ratajack, who resigned earlier this year.

Pierce advised that there were certain other subjects for discussion, but that these were practically set aside to place the greatest stress on the appointment of the new managing director to steer the course for MOA.

After several months of scrutiny by a reputable employment agency some 20 applicants were singled out for their background and ability. The object of last week's meeting was to make a selection from among this group of applicants. This, according to Pierce, was done to the unanimous satisfaction of the entire executive committee group in attendance, in appointing Blundred.

The new managing director was interviewed by the Cash Box reporter in the MOA's Chicago (and now national) headquarters last Wednesday, July 25.

Prior to this challenging new appointment Blundred was for nine years the executive secretary of the (Silk) Screen Process Printers' Assn., which headquartered in Chicago. Previously he was associated in an executive capacity with the American Baker's Assn. (wholesale bakers of the U.S.) in Washington, D.C.

Before that Blundred was with the American Municipal Assn., also in the nation's capitol.

Other prior organizations he was associated with in executive capacity were the Trenton Chamber of Commerce (Trenton, N.J.), and the Hammond (Indiana) Chamber of Commerce.

Blundred has spent more than 15 years in an executive capacity in the organizational field of enterprise, and is loaded with experience in public relations, coordinating association activities, membership drives, and numerous other phases of organizational work, according to Clinton S. Pierce. He is, Pierce stated, considered a fine speaker and knows how to more adequately deliver his message to his listeners.

Blundred, who is married and the father of an 8 year old boy was born and raised in Syracuse, New York. He was educated in the public school system there, and is a graduate of Syracuse University. He was a teacher at the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana where he met his wife, Pauline.

A point of interest in his appointment is the fact that Blundred has successfully conducted trade shows for the Screen Process Industry annually with exhibits ranging in number from 100 exhibits or more at each trade show.

ROBERT H. BLUNDRED

Members of the MOA executive committee who were in attendance for the two day session at the Morrison Hotel besides Pierce were George A. Miller, president; Harry Snodgrass, Lou Casola, Les Montooth, James Tolisano, Howard Ellis and "Red" Wallace.

Pierce stated in conclusion that the executive committee held a "splendid two day meeting," and although other pressing matters were temporarily sidetracked at this time to make way for this vitally important appointment, everyone concerned was more than pleased with the final results. Miller, Casola and Pierce remained in this city through Wednesday, July 25, to familiarize Blundred with his new official headquarters at 228 North La Salle Street, in downtown Chicago.

United Intros 'Action' Shuffle and 'Sahara' Ball Bowler

Both Games Feature Dual Flash Scoring

BILL DESELM

CHICAGO—"Action in numerous arcade installations and other amusement locations, which are at their peak in attendance during the lovely summer months, will be further enhanced by present production activity at United Manufacturing Company, in this city," asserted C. B. (Bill) DeSelm, executive vice president in charge of sales for United.

His specific reason for this statement was prompted by the gala introduction at United Mfg's. showrooms, and aimed at the length and breadth of this country of United's new bowling pair—the new "Action" coin-operated shuffle alley bowler, and the "Sahara" coin-operated big ball bowling alley.

DeSelm offered so many reasons for him to be "carried away" in this manner, that it was almost impossible to place any particular stress on any one new phase of either amusement game, which incidentally have the very same scoring and playing features.

"One thing that certainly needs to be stressed," DeSelm said, "is that 'Sahara' has to be seen to be believed—it's such a fantastic showpiece of craftsmanship. It is now available to operators in 13 foot and 16 foot standard lengths. Also, four foot and eight foot additional sections are available to increase the overall length of the bowling alley to the operators or location's specifications.

"Remember," he added, "United Manufacturing Company is the originator of coin-operated bowling alleys and shuffle alley bowlers. We have always bent every effort to give our operator friends the very best in amusement equipment for their locations. We further stress ease in servicing, and the very best service possible.

"Couple this with the widely known fact that all United amusement games bring highest earning power, and then finally the highest resale value attainable. This is not to be taken to lightly," he stated.

There are seven ways to play "Action" shuffle alley and "Sahara" big ball bowling alley, which like all other United bowling games are six player competitive units.

The surprising new feature, according to DeSelm, is called "Dual Flash." In playing this game on either "Action" shuffle alley or "Sahara" ball bowler, the bowling enthusiast has strike values of 30, 40, 50 and 60. However, if a strike is not made and a second shot is required, the player has a chance to pick up the "Big 60 Spare Value."

After each game the player's choice reverts back to "Regulation" bowling, with the button control to be depressed for a choice of the other six ways to play. The interesting factor in the "Special" bowling game, according to DeSelm, is in the graduating increase in 'strike' and 'spare' values. Highest score to be attained is 9900 points.

In "Advance" bowling the scoring values of 'strikes' and 'spares' are likewise graduated along with certain other modifications in play.

The big feature in "All Spares" bowling centers around the importance of making 'spares.' Bowling the spare pin set-up changes for each frame. Each spare value is 3600 points.

DeSelm advised that, by far, one of the most exciting and desirable bowling games in most locations over the past year or so is United's "Flash" bowling. This scoring game has the added suspense of traveling lights flashing across the playfield—just in front of the bowling pins, and on the pin-hood above this section. Ever-changing values of strikes and spares are registered here.

Over the several months United Mfg. has had this feature in the big ball bowlers and shuffle alleys. DeSelm said, he and others in the sales offices have received countless expressions of delight from United's distributors and from operators as well.

"We cannot overlook mentioning our very popular "Bonus" scoring game," DeSelm added. "In the rear of the backless there are three scoring reels and three 'Bonus' reels. From the first through the seventh frames the player scores 30 points for strikes and 20 points for spares. This graduates to 60 points for strikes and 40 points for spares from the eighth through the tenth frames.

"In the event that the player should fortunately happen to strike out all the way he receives an additional bonus of 40 points. Then—and this is created to add considerably to the excitement in playing this game—if the player strikes in the 11th frame (the 'bonus' frame) the entire bonus score is added to the overall game score."

DeSelm concluded the discourse on the various scoring features by explaining "Regulation" bowling, which is played according to the standards and rules laid down by the American Bowling Congress (ABC). The perfect score is 300 pins.

Celler Bill Hearings Postponed Committee Chairman Willis Hospitalized

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The hearing originally called for July 25 between representatives of the copyright societies, proponents of the new Celler Bill (HR 12450), and representatives of the juke box industry, was postponed last week. The reason given was the sudden illness of Congressman Edwin E. Willis, chairman of the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Patents, Trademarks and Copyrights. Willis was hospitalized last week. The hearing was called two weeks ago when Celler introduced his new bill (CB July 28 P61) calling for the payment of royalties by juke box operators to copyright owners of songs recorded and played on the nation's juke boxes. The bill also outlines a system whereby the monies are to be collected through an Office of Performing Rights Trustees appointed by the Attorney General and consisting of three trustees who would handle the executive duties. A staff, to be paid for out of the royalty money, would conduct surveys, as would the United States Government, which would lead to a plan to set a collection program and also decide on the amount of royalties to be paid by the juke box operator. The initial amount, should the bill pass, would call for $5 per machine per year, and increase over four years to $25 per machine per year. Thereafter, the sum would evidently be unlimited. The bill was introduced on July 11.

The anti-juke box exemption bill calls for distribution of royalties to copyright societies after a deduction of the Office expense, "on a pro rata basis." The music manufacturers, Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corp., Rowe-AC Automatic Services, The Seeburg Corp., and The Wurlitzer Co., were all reported to be "opposed" to the bill and had, along with Music Operator of America legal counsel, officially requested a postponement of the hearing before the sub-committee, before Willis was hospitalized.

Rep. Emanuel Celler has introduced various other anti-juke box exemption bills in the past, as have other legislators, but each of the bills have been defeated. The new bill however, is the first one to outline a plan whereby the collection of said royalties would be supervised by the Attorney General of the United States and would entail surveys and census by the Bureau of Census, a government agency.

Seeburg's Silverman Cites Success Of 33 Singles On Juke Boxes

LOS ANGELES—Arnold Silverman, Western Regional manager for The Seeburg Sales Corporation, spends his working day with Seeburg distributors and operators of Seeburg equipment. As is known, Seeburg's merchandising approach to the sale of equipment and the income to be earned from that equipment centers on the programming of the juke box. In that thinking is the firm belief that the 33 single, a selection culled from a top-selling LP which otherwise wouldn't be available for programming for obvious reasons, can be responsible for greater play on location. If the LP sells well, the individual selections should sell, since one and the same person buys the LP and frequents the juke box locations. He is an adult, according to Seeburg surveys, and adults are the reasons taverns are in business. Along these lines, Seeburg feels that the 45 single, the fast-rising teenbeat seller, is also important since it reflects the tastes of the teenager and draws a great amount of play from the younger set in teen-type locations. But it should not dominate the programming panel, says Seeburg. More space should be allotted to the selections from top selling albums. These selections are available through Seeburg distributors in the form of record packs, or packages of five singles, 33 rpm stereo, featuring ten selections from a particular LP. The name is the same, the album cover is reproduced in smaller size for display on the machine, and patrons have the opportunity of listening to music that up until now has been unavailable on juke boxes since it is not pressed (in most instances) in 45 rpm speeds. The 33 rpm is Seeburg's answer and Silverman, who spends much of his time working out arrangements with record manufacturers for the release of top-selling LP's at the rate of one new package per week, also has his finger on the pulse of the sale of these 33 record packs, and claims that the program has been a highly profitable one for the record labels through sheer volume of orders for Seeburg outlets, and also has increased juke box collections wherever the 33 singles are merchandised.

To confirm this report, Silverman has cited the sale of a Ray Charles LP, pressed in 33 singles, for juke box programming. 70,000 records have been sold via the order of 14,000 packs of the "Ray Charles Sing C&W Hits" LP. The Judy Gariand smash, "Judy At Carnegie Hall" has sold 3,000 packages on initial release or has accounted for the sale of 15,000 individual disks. The story is the same for artists like Pete Fountain (4000 packs), Dinah Washington (3800 packs) and Billy Vaughn (3000 packs). The latest top-seller with Seeburg outlets, according to Silverman, is the "Old South-New Sound" LP by Bobby Gordon on Dot. "Forty-two hundred packs have been sold, another 1000 are being pressed, and reorders are expected to continue," states Silverman.

Seeburg's merchandising program continues with additional releases each week. To date about 150 LP's are available. Each week new material is delivered to distributors. The selections are based on LP sales. As the LP shows signs of success it is ordered. "We keep a close eye on jazz material which is not a mass-sell product but is lucrative programming material for juke boxes," said Silverman. "Most of this type material is not available anywhere else and can be used almost totally in certain locations where this sound is preferred. One thing is certain, if jazz product is programmed in the proper location, it can mean unlimited play. And in addition, the selections are ageless. The disks are never taken off the machine."

This week Seeburg has released the current Andy Williams "Moon River" LP, a Winona Carr album, Duke Ellington and Count Basie on one disk, and a Hank Thompson "At The Golden Nugget" LP. All four juke box manufacturers feature 33-45 dual speeds on current models and on last year's model. Rowe-AMI also releases through special arrangement with record manufacturers, 33 rpm singles.

Royal Plans Columbus Party Aug. 12

CINCINNATI — Harold Hoffman, Sales Manager of Royal Distributing Inc., phonograph, amusement machine and vending distributor here, advised Cash Box last week that the firm will hold a grand opening celebration of the newly acquired Columbus showrooms on August 12. Royal bought Century Music Company in June from C. L. Hopkins. Royal's Dick Gilger and Paul Hott will manage the sales branch. Clint Shockey, in a statement last month, advised that the acquisition should increase Royal's overall sales by 40%. The firm will go into the territory with its Rowe-AMI phonograph line, the Rowe vending line, Bally, Chicago Coin, Gottlieb, Williams, Fischer, Campbell and Keeney lines. Gilger will manage sales while Hott supervises the office duties. Century personnel have remained with Royal.

Royal's sparkling new showrooms in Cincinnati make up one of the finest coin machine plants in the country. "We intend to carry out the sexy pink colors in our Columbus showrooms," said Hoffman last week enroute to the new site to supervise decorating. The Cincy showrooms are bright and cheerful but in good taste. Colors run the gamut from pink to lavender chairs, to rust furniture, and turquoise walls. "Must do something to the operators," said Hoffman, "we sell an awful lot of equipment in these surroundings." Royal also has a special room on the premises which is decorated in early New York complete with old-fashioned lamps and decor. Drinks are served guests who drop by. "We sell lots of equipment in there, too," said Hoffman.

Seglin Conducts Final Runyon School Till Fall

NEWARK, N.J.—Art Seglin, Rowe-AMI field service engineer conducted his third and final service school session of the month in the Runyon Sales Company showrooms here last Tuesday, July 24 and close to 30 coinmen attended to hear the capable technician discuss the merits of the Rowe-AMI phonograph.

Many of the operators in the class have returned week after week and it is reportedly due to the manner in which Seglin conducts the class and delivers the lecture. His concise and clear definition, his simple but sound explanation and his complete understanding of the equipment no doubt makes for the relaxed atmosphere and results in operator participation. Question and answer sessions were interesting.

Some of the operators not in attendance were invited to visit Pearl's Vending Service in Trenton, where Seglin conducted another session for the benefit of the Trenton operators. The next school held here will be conducted in September after Labor Day, according to Sugerman.

Those present Tuesday evening were: Leo Guabello, John Berose, Sam Matty, Robert Haefner, Anthony Noto, Michael Politika, Irving Dinnerman, Edward Frey, Heinz Majelalinski, Jack Frenichel, Guy Dell, William Melillo, Joe Rossi, Marshall Graham, Allen Zucker, Charlie Antonozzo, George Rose, Buzz Garris, Richard Casper, Archie Hurley, William Bittel, Sam Klein, John Girko-vitch, Jack Lamm, Anthony Cucchi-nello, Myron Sugerman and Nate Sugerman.

"Cover Girl" Is A One-Man Gal!

CHICAGO—Last week's news story announcing the release of "Cover Girl," D. Gottlieb & Company's latest pingame, stated that the amusement machine was a 2-player game, as is "Fashion Show," the model which preceded the July release.

"No!" stated Nate Gottlieb, executive at the Chicago factory, "No, no, one thousand times no. And," he added, "don't let the word out that she's for more than one man or we'll never hear the end of it from her." (Ed. note: At the Gottlieb factory the machines are referred to almost as though they were human). (Second Ed. Note: Now that we've thought about it, some of them damned near are human!) But Nate Gottlieb continued at length. "'Cover Girl' is a 1-player, and there's no doubt about it. She is as beautiful as a full cash box, which she always has with her when on location, she will take a slight nudge from a friend but don't push her too far or she'll stop playing, and if you're the kind of guy who doesn't want to get involved, you had better not look into her white rollovers, or you'll be a dead duck. She's irresistible." Gottlieb swooned.

"Cover Girl" really is a one-player pin and not a two-player as we incorrectly noted in our story last week. But we must take shelter in excuse. We were spending more time looking into her rollovers than we were looking into her specifications. If you doubt us take a look yourself. She decorates page 59 in this week's issue.

Wurlitzer Sales For Qtr. Up 2.3%

CHICAGO—R. C. Rolfing, President, The Wurlitzer Company, announced last week that sales for the first quarter (April, May and June) were $6,826,422, up 2.3% from the same period a year ago. The net loss for the quarter was $129,956, equal to 15¢ per share on 891,264 shares of common stock, compared with a net loss of $157,210 or 18¢ per share on 889,817 shares for the same period a year ago.

Consolidated sales for the first quarter, while better than the same period a year ago, were less than projected earlier in the year. This, we feel, reflected the general feeling of uncertainty on the part of a great many people concerning the future.

However, despite a somewhat slow first quarter, dealers and distributors are optimistic about the year as a whole and this is reflected in a substantial pickup in business in July. If this trend continues, and we think it will, the year as a whole should be satisfactory.

Wurlitzer "Musical Notes" Win Bowl Trophy

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y. — Mark Blum, President of United Distributors, Inc., in Wichita, Kansas proudly displays the 1961-62 Bowling League Championship Trophy in a recent presentation. Mark sponsors the ladies' bowling team that won the trophy at the Bowl-O-Rama. The champions shown in the picture are Frances Blum, Winnie Lovett, Bonnie Mann, and Virginia Beaver. In uniform these lovely ladies call themselves the "Musical Notes." They prove it by having a large Wurlitzer emblem displayed on the back of their shirts. Even out of uniform the team could appropriately be called the Musical Notes—United is a Wurlitzer Phonograph Distributor and each champion is the wife of a United Distributor employee, with the exception of Virginia Beaver. She is secretary to Mark Blum and Mel Hammer, partners of the company.

Brass Rail Automatic Restaurant Will Seat 250, Serve 60 Special Meals Through 20 Interstate Venders

To Open In Chi October

CHICAGO—The nation's largest fully automatic public restaurant will open in Chicago by October on the Wrigley Building's lower level.

Ronald Wolff, president of the Interstate Vending Company, whose national headquarters is also in Chicago, has announced plans to open the new type of public dining facility to be called The Brass Rail Automatic Restaurant. The Brass Rail, widely known East Coast operator of restaurants and food catering services, is the food service division of Interstate.

The new restaurant is over 6,700 square feet and will seat 250 people. It will serve a complete menu through a bank of 20 vending machines. Everything from hot entrees, salads, sandwiches and desserts, to freshly brewed coffee and tea will be served automatically. The largest automatic restaurant, until The Brass Rail opens, is located in New York City and seats 150 people.

Among the sixty special dinners which will be served automatically at The Brass Rail Automatic Restaurant will be Irish lamb stew with dumplings; tuna Newburg; chicken cacciatore. Each of these meals is prepared by The Brass Rail under the supervision of Executive Chef Philip.

In addition to the automatically served dinners, there will be a buffet carving table where a chef will serve freshly sliced corned beef, long a Brass Rail specialty. Later, roast beef, turkey and ham also may be served.

This is the first public automatic restaurant in the country to be opened by Interstate. The vending company also signed an agreement recently with the Mobil Oil Company to open automatic restaurants featuring Brass Rail hot entrees at a number of Mobil service stations in the east, the midwest, and on the west coast. The first of these is scheduled for a fall opening.

Interstate Vending is a publicly held company with 66 branches in 29 states. It is now doing business at an annual rate of over $65 million. Interstate now employs over 3,000 people.

The company's Chicago branch, Interstate Vending Company of Chicago, 1600 South Ashland Avenue, will have responsibility for the new automatic restaurant, Wolff said.

Hoffman Machines To Austria, Luxembourg

NEW YORK—Austria and Luxembourg will be next in line to get American-made coin-operated dry cleaning and laundry centers.

This was revealed when Dynamic Vending Corp. was named by the Borg-Warner Corporation as its exclusive distributor of Norge and Borg-Warner dry cleaning and laundry equipment for the two European countries.

This appointment is a followup to Dynamic Vending's success in the establishment of similar Borg-Warner equipment centers in West Berlin, Frankfurt, Mainz and several other West German cities.

The installation by Dynamic Vending last February of a coin-operated, American-style center in West Berlin marked the first time that this type of equipment was available in the

New Low-Cost 2-Way Radio

LYNCHBURG, VA.—A new low-cost two-way radio base station that takes only 13 inches of space on a dispatcher's desk is being placed on the market by General Electric's Communication Products Department here.

Half the size of previous table-model dispatch stations, the compact economy unit is designed for small businesses, large factories and institutions, and governmental agencies.

The new size makes the equipment suitable for in-plant industrial communications, vending operations and a wide variety of other applications.

West European market.

Dynamic Vending has opened new installations regularly in West Germany since then, and company officials anticipate about 60 operating units in that country by the year's end.

Macke Qtr. Sets New High

Income Hits $8,850,000 For 3 Months

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Macke Vending Company reported that sales and other operating income for the quarter ended June 30, 1962 exceeded $8,850,000, a new company high. This compares with $8,627,000 for the previous quarter and with $5,464,000 for the same quarter a year earlier.

Aaron Goldman, Macke president, predicted earnings of 90-95¢ per share on sales of $33 million for the fiscal year ending September 30th. Comparable figures for 1961 were earnings of 58¢ per share on sales of $20.5 million. Higher profits have stemmed, he said, from increased operating efficiencies and from a reduction in the start-up expenses which characterized 1961 operations.

Continued growth in sales and profits is forecast for 1963 as a result of the operations of a new division, Macke Food Systems, which will furnish a wide range of in-plant food services in the Greater Philadelphia area.

Macke, headquartered in Washington, D. C., operates more than 30,000 merchandise vending machines in eight middle-Atlantic states and the District of Columbia. Started by Gordon B. Macke in 1926, the company became publicly-owned in February 1960 through an issue of 125,000 shares. Shares are actively traded on the American and Philadelphia-Baltimore Exchanges.

Weiner To Represent Smokeshop In NY-NJ-Pa.

NEW YORK—Bill Weiner, veteran coin machine and vending sales executive, returned to Tenth Avenue last week after being officially away for seven years. Weiner will represent Automatic Products Company in the metro New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia markets, primarily concentrating on the firm's Smokeshop cigarette vending machine.

Weiner was with Eastern Electric for twelve years, stationed on Tenth Avenue, before going with Continental in 1955. Weiner will work in conjunction with Libra Distributors who distribute the cigarette machine line from its Tenth Avenue showrooms. He will use Libra's offices.

Weiner expressed the desire to swing immediately into the firm's sales program with emphasis on Smokeshop's nickel and penny change-maker features. The machine offers 18, 27 and 36 column models. Art Brier, Smokeshop's sales manager, recently attributed increased sales to the cigarette vender's auxiliary equipment and merchandising program.

Eastern Flashes

The tempo of Tenth Avenue seemed to reflect the pace of the industry last week. Machines were moving rapidly, but quietly, from manufacturer to distributor and onto operator locations at a pace that spelled h-e-a-l-t-h-y for the status of business. As we point out in an editorial this week, the summer business is what you make of it. And obviously many coinmen are working at the task of taking the doldrums out of the summer.

Jack Mitnick, a caller via telephone from Hialeah, Fla., advises that the All-Tech line is moving well off the assembly line and distributors are reporting good reception for the firm's variety of kiddie rides.

Ted "Champ" Seidel, under the watchful eye of your reporter, enters a 57th St. cafeteria for breakfast, schmoozes with an old friend, has a second cup of coffee and is on his way to coinrow to hear what's new and to transact business from his "office"—his hip pocket. A crafty man who manages a nice business without the usual overhead, and a guy the sellers look for when they wish to dispose of a route.

Charlie Katz, arrives in town for the weekend with his family, only to return to the road, where he makes his living selling the Urban kiddie movie machine and the 'Peek-A-Rama' which is receiving such a wide acceptance these days. Frank Urban talks with us later in the week and confirms that Chas. is indeed on the road and probably in Milwaukee at the very moment we speak. . . . "Doc Shapiro had two winners in the open jumper division of the 3-day Hanover Farm horse show last week. Uncle Max and Cameo were the jumpers.

Frank Mencuri and Joe Munves take a breather after working three long months, almost without end, setting up distributorships and individual sales on "Kissin' Kupids" and various other novelty, arcade and vending lines. Meyer Parkoff and staff very busy with the phono sales and the continued fine reaction to the Seeburg vending equipment. Meanwhile, the factory continues to make available new 33 single packs for programming on Artist of the Week phonos. Andy Williams, Duke Ellington and Count Basie are just a few of the artist who pop up on these LP selection singles.

Mike Munves, always in demand wherever there is a need for used arcade equipment, fills the demand and as usual, the machines look like new. Dick Greenberg, back from vacation two weeks now, is looking forward to next year already.

Irving Holzman just finished a spectacular run on "Silver" shuffle, and sure enuf, here comes the United "Action" shuffle along with the "Sahara" bowler. But he didn't flinch, just continued taking orders and doing his best to fill deliveries hurriedly.

Barney Sugarman still away from the office for a few days, expected back by the time you read this, is expected to start an early sales push in August now that Williams, Irving Kaye, and Rowe-AMI lines are just biting at the bit for that fall sales business after a red hot summer sale. Myron Sugarman claims that Art Seglin is about the best service engineer in the business today and that's going a long way. Seglin held another school, the final one, last Tuesday eve in the Runyon-Newark showrooms and again, held the crowd's attention till the wee hours with a clear explanation of complex technical data.

Frank LeBlanc still doing a bang-up sales job for Reed Distributing, natl. sales agents for the Cinch Instant Shoe Shine line. Frank has appointed a half-dozen distributors between here and the coast and they're ordering the product by the caseload for sale via cigarette vending machines.

Bert Betti has increased his overall volume by 100% since moving into the new building in North Bergen. Betti claims that all you need is the time and the effort and you can drum up sales. We always had the time, said Bert, and we never were lacking in effort, but we never had the space till now to show the lines that we have available. The Rock-Ola distrib is moving "Princess" phonos at a fast clip these days, right smack in the middle of July.

Harry Koepfel hustling used equipment to make deadlines, while Abe Lipsky revamps his Smokeshop sales programs now that Bill Weiner will be giving Abe a hand on the cigarette machine line. Bill is back on the avenue after seven years (see story elsewhere) and expects to do a job for the Auto. Products line in NYC, NJ, and Philly. . . . LATE NEWS: The Celler Bill Hearings have been postponed (see story). . . . AD Plamer cruising down the Barge Canal on vacation. . . . Johnny Bilotta out of the hospital and taking it easy doing his paper work. . . . and in one more week the Cash Box Annual Directory will be published and as of the moment it will no doubt be larger and more valuable than ever.

Chicago Chatter

We're coming around the bend in our big-year-end celebration, and, there is—as a result—a big treat in store for Cash Box viewers—the big, gala 1962-63 Coin Machine Directory & 20th Anniversary Edition. Which incidentally, will be of particular interest to all manufacturers, wholesalers and operators in coinbiz. It will be loaded with the kind of information you will want handy on top of your desk all year long!

Big news last week emanated from the headquarters of the Music Operators of America, where Clinton S. Pierce, chairman of the board of directors, announced the appointment of Robert H. Blundred to the very vital position of managing director, replacing Ed R. Ratajack, who resigned right after this year's MOA convention, last May. On hand, along with Pierce, when we met Blundred were George A. Miller and Lou Casola. Blundred, we're advised, is loaded with organizational talent, and has never had any affiliation whatsoever with any phase of the coin machine industry prior to this appointment.

Despite heavy vacation schedules the coin machine industry came out en masse to attend the Requiem Funeral Mass for John R. (Jack) O'Donnell, former production control manager, and younger brother of Bill O'Donnell, at the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church in Wilmette, Ill. With a heavy heart we extend sincerest condolences to the grieving O'Donnell family.

There was considerable talk and oodles of chuckling over a recent White Sox vs. Detroit Tigers night baseball game when the "Monster" (pinball type scoreboard) gave out with mournful 'groans' and a huge (believe it or not) "TILT" after Chico Fernandez hit a home run for Detroit. Since this game was televised widely the comments (humorous) came to us from a vast area. This "monster," which graces considerable area and height over the centerfield bleacher section, is indeed very popularly referred to all over the country. (Who says pinballs aren't popular??)

Bill DeSelm is back at his busy (and how!) desk at United Mfg., and the first order of business he tackled was the release to the trade of United's new "Action" shuffle bowler and "Sahara" big ball bowling alley. Bill and Herb Oettinger are thrilled over the initial results and comments from United's distributors across the nation, and in many foreign markets, over this handsome, new duet of bowling games.

Mort Secore, director of sales for Chicago Dynamic Industries, elatedly infos that Chicago Coin's new "World's Fair" long range rifle gallery is proving to be a sensation wherever it is placed on location. This is a particularly ideal time of the year for this type of arcade equipment. . . . Joe Kline and Sam Kolber are so busy at First Coin Machine Exchange that they aren't harboring any thoughts as yet about vacationing. The big reason, according to Fred Kline, is the big export boom.

An interesting, yet little known fact about Gottlieb Memorial Hospital is a procedure that is quite an idea. When a patient is admitted to the hospital the doctor will take the usual case history, but instead of writing it on a chart at the bedside, he will pick up a telephone and dictate the history into it. His message is then recorded on one of two units located in the medical room on the ground floor. If one unit is busy, the equipment will automatically switch the doctor's message over to the other recorder. This method of charting excites Dave, Nate, Alvin Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg, of D. Gottlieb & Co.

"Yup, 'Operation Tick Tock' is a terrific success!" asserted Joe Robbins, general sales manager of Empire Coin Machine Exchange. Joe and Gil Kitt, Empire Coin's owner, are thrilled over initial results with the firm's new give-away promotion whereby every operator who buys a Rock-Ola "Princess" phono gets an "Omega" wrist watch (for a lady or a man). In fact, the operator who buys two phonos gets a watch for each phono purchase, according to genial Joe.

As soon as the Williams Electronic factory personnel returned from their vacations (the plant was shut down for two weeks) production was stepped up to heaviest possible action to ease the heavy order backlog on Williams new "Friendship 7" pinball amusement game. Prexy Sam Stern and vice prexy Art Weinand always enjoy receiving visitors from all over this country and from foreign shores at the spacious Williams Electronic Mfg. plant on the west side of the city.

J. H. Keeney & Co. is shuttered through this week (employees return to action on Monday, August 6). Meanwhile Paul Huebsch, vice president is on hand with two other Keeneyites to channel some of the action on Keeney's "Rainbow" in-line game.

We managed to get Harold Schwartz on the phone at Atlas Music Company, despite the hubbub of busy excitement at the Rowe-AC distributor. Naturally, Harold info'd that business on Rowe-AMI's terrific phono and on Rowe vending machines is great. Nate Feinstein so busy these days he hardly has the time to think about golf. Irv Ovitz tells us he spends most of his time with operators on the showroom floor and on the telephone.

Business (sales specifically) is on a 'world wide' basis at World Wide Distribs these days, according to Howie Freer. While Howie and World Wide's brilliant, young president, Joel Stern, are burning the midnight oil rushing orders out to customers Fred Skor is currently on the last leg of his vacation and due back in his office by Monday, July 30. . . . We join Tony Galgano, Galgano Distributors, in his joy over the return home from the hospital of his lovely wife, Ursula, and son, Johnny Galgano. They underwent surgery recently. Johnny, we recall, is the diligent, young shipping clerk at Galgano Distribs.

There's a heavier load of work on the already heavily burdened shoulders of Edward G. Doris, executive vice prexy of Rock-Ola Mfg., since Ralph Wyckoff, the firm's advertising manager took off on his vacation last Monday, July 23. Other busy Rock-Olaites are Donald Rockola, Les Rieck, Jack Barabash and Art Janousek. . . . We join Rowe-AC's Phil Glover in his delight over his successful acquisition of a home in Glenview for his family. Phil was equally fortunate in being able to sell his home in Grand Rapids, Michigan to complete the move with his family to Chicago. Tom Sams, Jack Harper and Jack Dunwoody are on the road covering the markets.

The word from Herb Perkins, Purveyor Distribs, is that business couldn't be better despite the hot summer weather. . . . Reminder: we got to pop out to Marvel Mfg. and visit with old friends, Ted Rubey and Estelle Bye. We did get the word from Ray Kotrba that business is good out Marvel way. . . . Here's a lesson in genealogy: "The six ages of man are: Beef broth, ground steak, sirloin, filet mignon—ground steak, and then BEEF BROTH!"
