How Do Records

Through the Juke Box Operator

There are four ways by which records are introduced to the public. Each is important in itself and all are so completely inter-related that it is difficult to think of the record business—particularly the sales end of it—without any one of these factors.

First there is the juke box operator.

The juke box operator, as everyone in the business knows, is the largest single purchaser of records we have today. He buys approximately 25% of the entire pop output to keep the 550,000 juke boxes in this country filled. And with the capacity of phonographs increasing steadily to the point where they now contain anywhere from 80 to 120 sides, it seems likely that in the near future, the 25% mark may be increased.

But the juke boxes of this nation act as more than just the largest source of purchased records, they act as a showcase from which potential buyers first learn of the records they want. When a juke box is playing, everyone in the location must hear the song. Records are played that some customers might never have put their coins in to hear and as a result they may be hearing disks for the first time. Or it may dawn on them after hearing a record several times that they like it and want it for their own collection. The number of sales that are made in this manner are immeasurable, but it goes without saying that they must make up a considerable portion of all the records sold in this country.

Perhaps the most important function which the juke box industry plays in relation to the record industry is that of the basic stabilizer. Juke boxes put a base under record sales below which they cannot fall. In good time or bad, operators must keep their juke boxes filled—and they must be filled with the latest records, the records customers want to hear. There is no such thing as a slump in sales to operators. They must continually buy even at a time when no one else may be buying.

The juke box operator therefore plays three important roles in the record business. First he purchases at least 25% of all the pop records manufactured. Second his machines act as a showcase for exposing records to the public. And third he stabilizes the record business by practically guaranteeing it a fixed number of sales.

The second factor in the exposure of records to the public is the disk jockey.

The disk jockey is a phenomenon of the last decade. True there were one or two disk jockeys as long ago as the early thirties, but actually the great majority of disk jockey shows did not get started until the middle forties. And then suddenly they skyrocketed.

Disk jockey shows grew as fast as they did for many reasons. First there was the economic aspect. From a radio station's point of view a disk jockey show is ideal in that it can fill a large segment of time entertainingly at a minimum cost. A disk jockey can conduct a show alone. He needs very little help. Thus there is a saving on personnel. The only material he needs is records which cost comparatively little to buy. It's easy to see then that a disk jockey show is one of the most economical that a station can put on.

Reach the Public?

Through the Distributor

But what makes it so ideal is that in spite of the fact that it is economical, it makes for great entertainment. Basically a disk jockey sells music. And the audience for such entertainment has proven itself to be huge.

In the trade, disk jockeys began to take on immense importance when it was demonstrated that in many instances the constant play of a particular disk jockey in a particular city could establish a nation-wide hit. This placed new emphasis on them. It highlighted the necessity for disk jockey exposure and made the disk jockey himself one of the most important factors in the record business.

Next comes the distributor.

It is upon the distributor of records that the faring of a record in his area largely depends. A distributor has tremendous power in his hands. He can make a hit of a bad record. He can neglect a good record which might otherwise be a hit. And he can do these things by the amount of energy, enthusiasm, intelligence and good will which he puts into any single project.

Distributors are the point of contact between the record manufacturer and the rest of the business. It is they who get disks to the juke box operator, disk jockey, retailer, one-stop store. It is they who do the main promotion in their locality. It is they who go all out and make a disk in one area when it doesn't happen in another area.

It is impossible to overemphasize the importance of distributors in the making of hit records.

The retailer is the fourth member in the group responsible for getting records to the public. From stores throughout the nation, the customer buys the approximately 200,000,000 records which were sold last year. He goes there after hearing a record on the juke box or his favorite disk jockey show. And while he's there, he very often buys records which he had never heard of before and which in all probability he never knew existed.

The retailer is vital to the record business in that it is he who does the actual selling to the public. And it is he who, in his personal contact with the public, can influence it in its purchases. His plus selling adds to record consumption. A lack of it on his part and many purchases can be missed.

These, therefore, are the factors through which records are sold to the public. There's the juke box operator, the disk jockey, the distributor and the retailer. Each one plays his own role—and each is an important role. With all cooperating and working together, the record business can reach heights which even the greatest optimist in the industry may not yet conceive.

VIC SCHOEN ORCHESTRA
(Decca 29178; 9-29178)

B+ "SEPTEMBER IN THE RAIN" (2:17) [Remick ASCAP—Warren, Dubin] Against an attractive Vic Schoen instrumentation, the Notables dish up a great vocal arrangement of a top grade standard. Polished job.

C+ "TOO MUCH TEQUILLA" (2:06) [Raphael ASCAP—Schoen, Fine] The strings of the Schoen crew dance through a light instrumental novelty with a catchy beat and a colorful melody.

FRANCES FAYE
(Capitol 2842; F-2842)

B+ "MAD ABOUT THE BOY" (2:09) [Chappell ASCAP — Coward] Frances Faye, one of the most dynamic after hours entertainers, shows her colors on this fabulous styling of a great standard. Real moving job. Great pianistics too.

B "SUMMERTIME" (2:47) [Gershwin ASCAP — Gershwin, Heyward] Dave Cavanaugh's boys again support the thrush on this rhythm interpretation of one of the all time great oldies. Sensational job.

JEFF CHANDLER
(Decca 29175; 9-29175)

B "THAT ALL SHE'S WAITING TO HEAR" (2:49) [Chandler ASCAP—Chandler, Lava] Movie star Jeff Chandler, who made a strong showing with his first recording, caresses the lyrics of this romantic ballad in fine form.

B "LAMPLIGHT" (2:45) [Chappell ASCAP—Shelton] The crooner does a polished job on a beautiful oldie. Tune has enough good qualities to make a comeback.

FRAN WARREN
(MGM 11769; K-11769)

C+ "THE MAN THAT GOT AWAY" (2:59) [Harwin ASCAP—Arlen, Gershwin] From the soon to be released flick "A Star Is Born" comes this tune dramatically delivered by Fran Warren. Good material, but kind of heavy for wax.

B "LOVE ME, LOVE" (2:26) [Reis ASCAP—Wolfe, Lee] Neal Hefti sets up another fitting backing for Fran's styling of terrific rythm item. Exciting arrangement that could catch on. Different. Good tune.

TITO RIVERA ORCHESTRA

THE CASH BOX DISK OF THE WEEK

"HOW BLUE?" (2:39)

[Emperor BMI—Sweeney, Charlap]

"WHY DO I KEEP LOVIN' YOU" (2:24)

[Sheridan BMI—Saxe, Beifield]

MILLS BROTHERS
(Decca 29185; 9-29185)

MILLS BROTHERS

● Steady record sellers and hit makers through the years, the Mills Brothers dish up a new novelty in super-commercial fashion that we can expect to be hearing day in and day out. In the same manner that "Glow Worm" was treated, new lyrics have been added to the popular "Blue Danube Waltz" and the tune has been re-titled "How Blue?" The number jumps in a fashion that labels it a hit. Clever idea with a melody that everyone and his uncle knows. Flip "Why Do I Keep Lovin' You" is another rhythm piece of material that the Mills men wend their way through with ease and polish. We go for the upper lid in a big way.

"HOLD MY HAND"

[Fred Raphael ASCAP—Lawrence, Myers]

"I'M BLESSED"

[Vim ASCAP—Reid, Altman]

DON CORNELL
(Coral 61206; 9-61206)

DON CORNELL

● Don Cornell comes through with a brand new platter that ranks as one of his best in quite a while. On one end, the crooner glides through a beautiful new romantic ballad "Hold My Hand" from the forthcoming motion picture "Susan Slept Here." It's a warm and melodic love song that has a delightful lilt to it. Tune and lyrics are perfectly wed for what we think could be a real big smash. Supplying the sumptuous string background is the orchestra under the direction of Jerry Carr. On the bottom portion, Don gives his all to another tender ballad dubbed "I'm Blessed." Convincing presentation of a great new song. Both ends rank as hit contenders. Don is at his best.

STANLEY BLACK
(London 1413; 45-1413)

B "PLAY A SIMPLE MELODY" (2:23) [Berlin ASCAP—Berlin] A delightful Berlin oldie gets a lush string arrangement from Stanley Black's orchestra. Great instrumental novelty on the lighthearted side.

C+ "SAY IT ISN'T SO" (3:20) [Berlin ASCAP — Berlin] Another great Berlin standard is lushly offered here. Both decks were taken out of Black's "Irving Berlin Suite" album. Tops for quiet locations.

PETER KNIGHT SINGERS
(London 1474; 45-1474)

C+ "CHIQUI-CHAQUI" (2:04) [Mel-lin BMI—Skylar, Arlas] A samba beat is the tempo for this cute novelty tune given a solid delivery by the thrilling harmony of the Peter Knight Singers. Full and resounding.

C+ "WHISPERS IN THE DARK" (2:30) [Famous ASCAP—Robin, Hollander] The group wends its way through a plush, dreamy reading of a pleasing romantic standard.

BUDDY MORROW ORCHESTRA
(RCA Victor 20-5780; 47-5780)

C+ "THE BIG DIP" (2:45) [Leeds ASCAP — Hoffman, MacDonald] Buddy Morrow and his men send out some good rhythm jump material that the teen agers will love. Boy and girl handle the vocal chores.

C+ "SUPPERTIME" (3:25) [Berlin ASCAP — Berlin] Betty Anne Steele is in the vocal limelight on this Morrow treatment of an Irving Berlin tune. Thrush has a sultry voice.

JACKIE PARIS
(Coral 61201; 9-61201)

B "I KNOW WHY" (2:56) [Feist ASCAP—Warren, Gordon] Jackie Paris pipes a potent money earner as he cruises through a tender oldie featured in "The Glenn Miller Story." Feelingful job.

C+ "OPUS ONE" [Embassy BMI—Oliver, Garis] One of the great old instrumental jumps of some years back, is treated to a vocal styling by Jackie. Good rhythm material.

EARL BACKUS
(Epic 9057; 4-9057)

C+ "BABY-O, BABY-O" (2:05) [Robbins ASCAP—Stillman, J. Dorsey, Camarata, Van Eps] Ace guitarist Earl Backus shows his mastery of the instrument on a rhythm novelty with a catchy theme.

C "TWILIGHT ON THE TRAIL" (2:44) [Famous ASCAP — Mitchell, Alter] The Jack Halloran Singers join the artist on this lovely tune.

THE CASH BOX
ROUND THE WAX CIRCLE

NEW YORK:

With this issue, The Cash Box celebrates twelve years of publication. Certainly it's been one of the most eventful twelve years in the history of mankind. We've watched our world change from a comparatively easy going pace to an age of atomic power and all the implications that are involved therein. But despite the changes, people still must have their music and songs. Perhaps even as life becomes more hectic, music becomes more necessary. In the next twelve years we're going to witness many many more changes. But of this you may be sure: The importance of music to all the peoples of the world will not diminish, but rather will probably increase. . . . Dorothy Collins and Raymond Scott are two of the most gracious hosts we know. Entertaining members of the trade press last week, the couple displayed a charm and sincerity which was wonderful to behold. Their home is charming. But you get the shock of your life when Raymond leads you into a wing of the house which turns out to be as well equipped as many factories. One of Raymond's hobbies is collecting and using almost every type of tool known, and going through his carefully planned workshop would drive an enthusiast wild. . . . Patti Page never looked more beautiful than at her opening at the Stagecoach last Friday. And needless to say her singing was out of this world. . . . Kappy Jordan had her annual picnic last Saturday and not only did she pick a great day as far as weather was concerned, but it was a wonderfully successful day. Music people and disk jockeys were there in large numbers and apparently all had a fine time.

DOROTHY COLLINS

CHICAGO:

"Another day—another dollar" . . . how many remember this old vodvil expression? This, of course, is another year. The '12th Anniversary' of 'The Cash Box'. . . . A new kind of music business here in the ole Windy City. A new kind of approach . . . to the possible hit . . . to the flop . . . or to the mediocre. . . . Much water has passed under the bridge these past twelve months. Many new faces are seen here, there and everywhere. New people. New ideas. Growth and growing pains, too. . . . But this is the music biz. . . . This is what keeps the people engaged in the music business—going—always going—always striving—for the hit. . . . No longer the many, many spots to cover as there used to be in the days gone by. But, perhaps, this may be better for all concerned. Perhaps this concentration for creating the top tune may prove more economical and more worthwhile to all those concerned with attempting the creation of the top tune—"the big one"! This past year certainly saw some great tunes, even with this concentrated promotional picture which is Chicago today! Perhaps, too, there are even greater ideas forthcoming from the youth of this Windy City who are growing up with a new slant on music—the music of tomorrow—the music that will keep lots of the old timers and the new people in this mad, whirling business going at top speed. . . . Yes, twelve years have gone by since the very first issue of this publication which is, today, recognized here in Chicago, as it is recognized all over the nation, as "the publication of the music business," or, like Linn Burton puts it, "A really grand operation" (based, of course, on his own grand 'Operation Midnight'). . . . The artists, the disk jockeys, the bands, the orks, the combos, the quartets, the juke box people, all and everyone, we most sincerely hope, will forgive us this quaint and very short spasm. This column this week. It is the aftermath of the tremendous amount of work which went into creating this "encyclopaedia" for the benefit of every subscriber and every advertiser and for all the friends of 'The Cash Box' everywhere in the free world.

ANNIVERSARY

LOS ANGELES:

There's so many articles and special features in this 12th Anniversary issue that you'll probably have a hard time getting around to reading this column but here goes anyway! . . . Les Brown and his popular Coral Recording Orchestra closed at the Hollywood Palladium 6/24 after a successful four week stand. Immediately following their closing Les took his "Band of Renown" on their annual cross-country tour of 90 one-nighters covering 27 states. . . . Maestro Jan Garber brought his popular dance orchestra back to the Palladium for a triumphant 3 week engagement which opened June 25th. Genial Jan features his lovely and talented daughter, Janis, who shares vocal honors with Al Rife. . . . Songstress Vicki Young is breaking in a new act that has been prepared for her by her new manager Tom Shields. . . . There's nothing like competition! After hearing ex-heavyweight Buddy Baer's first Vito waxing of "Too Much Competition" we hear that Joe Louis has hired Sigmund Arno as his own personal vocal coach. . . . Dick Shawn, N. Y. comedian, who recently shared billing with Mambo King Perez Prado at the Mocambo, has already been set by Charlie Morrison for a return stint early in '55. . . . Xavier Cugat and his colorful latin extravaganza closed at Ciro's to cut several sides for Victor before opening at Lake Tahoe. He leaves on a tour of Europe in July. . . . Hal White's orchestra and Allied platter star Clessa Williams have been re-pacted by Noel Clarke for another indefinite stand at Capistrano Beachcombers Club, Capistrano Beach. They have been entertaining at the swank club for a full year. . . . People without reservations had to be turned away during Eddie Fisher's opening at the Coconut Grove 6/17. The place was a complete sellout. Also sharing the billing was Will Jordan, The Hightowers dancing team and Benny Strong and his orchestra. . . . Margaret Whiting sings and acts in the new independent film production of "Fresh From Paris" which was filmed at Frank Sennes' Moulin Rouge.

The Record Road To Progress

by MANIE SACKS

When the phonograph was invented 77 years ago, there were few who appreciated the tremendous influence the new talking machine would have on the American public.

But its invention literally opened one door to the creation of a great new industry and another door to a new world of culture and home entertainment.

Today more than 25,000,000 American families use record players to enjoy the world's finest music. Another 20,000,000 families still without record players, also enjoy the fruits of the recording industry by flipping a switch on their radios to any number of stations that regularly schedule recorded music.

Since those early days when phonographs were considered mere novelties, the recording industry has undergone a remarkable series of changes. But the history of the industry always has been marked by progress in developing greater convenience and better and more faithful sound.

The first great revolutionary change came with the development of the disc-type record which gave the industry a shot in the arm when it was introduced by Eldridge Johnson in 1897.

Shortly after the disc was introduced, another milestone was reached when Caruso made his first recordings for Victor. Just after the turn of the century the great artist not only put fine music on the discs but also brought much needed prestige to an industry that was still considered a novelty business. Thirty-two years later, he still rates as one of RCA Victor's top best-selling artists, and his name continues to be a hallmark of quality.

Indicative of the rapid progress made by the Victor Company, especially after Caruso began making his famous recordings, are the sales figures. In its first year of business, Eldridge Johnson's sales barely reached $500, but three years later they were more than $3,000,000, and by 1905 they had reached $12,000,000 annually.

And for more than 15 years, records continued to boom. The first great peak in record sales was reached in 1922 when the figure approached 100,000,000. Then, for the next 10 years, sales slumped.

Many attributed this drop to the increasingly popularity of radio, but actually the radio was destined to become the record industry's star salesman. Radio, and the new phenomenon jukeboxes, were bringing popular music to people throughout the country in all walks of life and opening up completely new markets for the industry.

By the late 30's the curve was swinging sharply upward. Dealers who had given up records in favor of selling radios were now stocking up on needles as well as vacuum tubes.

During these years the record industry's sound laboratories were concentrating on producing better sound in records. Its research programs were developing improved recording techniques, better production methods and better players. The search was for records and phonographs that would bring true-to-life performances right into the home.

Just before the long slump of the mid-twenties, phonographs had started to go electrical. "Orthophonic" was the magic word that had excited music-lovers in the early 20's, but records had been crowded out by radio.

Now, however, in the late 30's the full fruits of electronics' contribution to records began to appear. Even though the "windup" phonograph had long since vanished, most records were still turned "by hand," one at a time. But then automatic record-changers began to win wide popularity (with lowering of price), and they not only changed records, they changed the whole record business.

Then in 1949 the 45 rpm system was born to mark the appearance of the first record and automatic changer basically designed for each other. The introduction of this new system, together with the 33 1/3 rpm long-play records, represented another advance in the recording industry's march toward the reproduction of better sound. It also gave the industry a valuable sales stimulant for it focused attention and renewed interest in recorded music. People began talking about records and sales began to surge.

In the five years that have passed, more than 200,000,000 of the discs have gone into American homes and more than 2,000,000 homes regularly use the 45 rpm record players.

A further refinement of the 45, the Extended Play, was introduced in 1952 and also caught the fancy of the record buyers because it lengthened the playing time of a 45 record from four to eight minutes per side. Hundreds of medium-sized classical works which formerly required a "break" in the middle while a record was turned are now complete on one side of an EP.

The increased interest in "hi fi" is now being felt by the entire record industry. Greater use of hi-fi instruments and records will mean added musical enjoyment for record buyers.

For the artist, hi-fi means a wider audience. For the industry it is a powerful, new tool of sales that should do for the trade what jet propulsion did for the airplane.

The future looks exceedingly bright for the record industry. The progress that has been made in the past is only an indication of the progress that will continue to be made.

Technically, we have the finest recording and sound systems ever developed. And in the American public we have the greatest market that could possibly be created.

Add to these factors the great artists that are recording in both the classical and popular fields and you have an unbeatable combination. The year 1954 is already off to a great start and it could easily become the record industry's finest year.

Teaming Up For A & R

by HUGO PERETTI & LUIGI CREATORE

We guess there's never been an A & R team before, because in the few short weeks that we've held the post for Mercury Records, we've been called everything from the Bobbsey Twins to a Double-Headed Monster, and the Italian Smith and Dale. People have been asking who does what, how do we work as a team, why do we go everywhere together, how can we agree on everything, do we, and how can we stand it? Finally, The Cash Box called and gave us a thousand words to explain or get out of town.

The explanation is really quite simple.

We used to be one person. Then we decided to divide into two, like an amoeba, for the purpose of attracting attention. Now that we have four hands and two sets of everything else, we're making use of all the equipment. Otherwise, we're still operating as one person.

This takes care of the explaining, and leaves us a few hundred words in which to wander around and ad lib.

We have a theory that some A & R men (no names, please) have gotten fat and lazy. The sharp edge of competition has dulled, and you can feel it right where it hurts—in the retail store.

The record industry needs a hit . . . a smash to bring people into the stores to help sell all our goods. We're going to try for this hit. As far as the industry is concerned, it doesn't matter if we produce the next million seller, or someone else does. What is important, however, is that we keep trying. Maybe our efforts, whether they are immediately successful or not, will spark some of the other characters into that extra drive that is necessary to produce a big one.

Deep down, of course, we feel we won't have to stray far from home to find that big seller. Not when we feel the beat and drive of a Georgia Gibbs singing "Wait For Me Darlin." Not when we have a bunch of troupers like the Gaylords on the line. (They came into town the other day about 5:00 p.m. and were scheduled to leave the next morning. We told them we wanted to record immediately. That night we walked into the studio at midnight, and the next day—while the boys were on their way to Boston—their midnight cutting of "The Little Shoemaker" was being played on the air.)

And we don't think we'll have to stray too far while we have all of the wonderful recording stars on Mercury to work with, not to mention a talented half-dozen newcomers—any one of whom could bust wide open with one record.

The million-selling record, however, can only be a temporary solution to the sales needs of the industry. As long as we're depending on some kid with a frog in his throat to set a million teenage hearts aflutter and sell our merchandise for us we're sitting on a big fat bubble. God help us if the kids ever switch to Chinese checkers for a pastime.

We come from a long line of children's records and we know the value of package goods. These goods, ranging from kid disks to classics, to the pop LP's and EP's, are more and more becoming the mainstay of the industry. But there has been no fresh surge or competitive drive applied to the popular package field, and this is a must if the industry is going to develop the adult home market to even a proportion of what it can be.

The popular package field will, we know, grow and develop just as the rest of the industry has. During the years in which we've been in the business, we've developed a healthy respect for the record industry. It's full of sharpies and characters, but it's always bursting with hope. It can break an investor's pocketbook or a singer's heart. But it can move magically. It can take a youngster's voice, spin it on a million wheels, and America wakes up singing!

That's why we like the business. And we hope we have something to offer it that can be of value. In the meantime, there are two words we'd like to direct to Mitch, Joe, Milt, Allan, et al . . . move over.

The Record Industry Broadens Its Horizons

by GLENN E. WALLICHS

Our product—music—is unique because practically everyone likes it. In fact, music has become such an integral part of our existence that much of it fails to penetrate our consciousness. We hear it in our homes, our cars, in cafes and often even in our place of business. But there is a vast difference between hearing music and listening to it. That's the job of the record business: to make people listen to the music they hear and, having listened, want to possess it.

To attain this end the producer must consider a number of factors. First, he must produce a product which appeals to the musical taste of as many individuals as possible. Since there are well over 20-million phonographs in the United States, a big "million-seller" record is purchased by less than 5% of the available market. It naturally follows, then, that the producer must make a great variety of records in order to capture the other 95% of the market, since they obviously have different tastes in music.

But there is more to it than merely appealing to the taste of the individual. The appeal must be so strong that the listener is not content with the "free" music he can hear on the radio, etc. He must be so impressed that he's willing to spend money to hear it again and again, either by putting coins in the jukebox or buying the record. In other words, the record business must turn the passive listener into an active buyer.

Great progress is being made, and will continue to be made, in focusing the attention of the public on music in general and records in particular. As was mentioned previously, music is now available for all tastes and age groups. The introduction of LP's and EP's has helped keep the price of albums low and made them more convenient to buy, keep and play. Record players of increasingly high quality are available at lower prices.

One of the biggest steps has been the introduction of Hi-Fi. Every day more and more people are "discovering" the thrill of fine sound reproduction. To many, it is almost as though they were really hearing music for the first time. In short, they are beginning to listen.

There have already been many concrete manifestations of these efforts.

Music is playing an increasingly active part in the lives of people. Schools are expanding their music appreciation programs. Parents are taking a more active interest in their children's music appreciation training. Record players are selling better than ever . . . a sure sign that interest is being focused on recorded music.

The coin machine operator has contributed to, and will share in the benefits from, this great expansion process. His jukeboxes help expose records to the public. They develop interest in specific selections and increase the awareness of the people to music. In return, this concentration of interest cannot help but be reflected by the number of coins that are dropped into his boxes. When the listener's interest is sufficiently aroused, he's willing to buy his music.

There can be no question that the industry has grown in recent years. Sales of recorded music have reached new heights and there is no reason why they should not continue to climb. New labels have arisen and some have become firmly established. New markets have opened up and more are in prospect.

The industry hasn't been without its growing pains, however. There has been a great deal of confusion in the past as the result of different speeds, Hi-Fi, the development of pre-recorded tapes and similar technical advancements. However, while this creates headaches for the manufacturer and others in the business, it also means progress. It leads to further development and expansion in the entire industry.

The motion picture business learned that stagnation can strangle an industry. It wasn't until they finally had to face the fierce competition of other entertainment media that they began making an effort to exploit the full potential of their product. The record industry does not intend to make this mistake. Competition, technical advancement and creative effort will help insure that stagnation does not creep up on the business. Those same factors will continue to capture the imagination and attention of the public on an ever increasing scale. In this way the entire industry will continue to grow and expand.

Mambo Is Here To Stay

Mambo music, that infectious Latin importation that began to change the dancing habits of Miamians and New Yorkers about five years ago, has started to sweep thru the country and threatens to develop into a national craze as it moves through the big cities and into the smaller communities. True, the move into the smaller cities and towns is just beginning, and it may take sometime, but the pulsating tempo has proven its tenacity and appeal against the wall of cynicism that pervaded the public on its introduction. "Just a fad", "Too difficult to learn", and "Too wild for the masses" were just a few of the objections with which the Mambo was brushed aside. In fact, it is only at this late date that the Arthur Murray Dance Studios, having recognized the fact that Mambo is here to stay, have included it in their dance curriculum. The dance ranges from a sedate treatment for the sophisticate and more restrained dancer to the wild, uninhibited sex implied gyrations of the savage.

Just what is mambo music? Arsenio Rodriguez, Cuban musician who claims to have introduced the mambo when he decided to bring some variety to the usual repertoire he used to play at dances, describes mambo as coming from the saying "abrecuto y guiri mambo" (open your ears and listen), ritual beginning of the Afro-Cuban singers when engaged in song contests. The components of the mambo, Rodriguez explains, are the music of the Spanish farmers in Cuba and that of the natives of African descent.

Although Mambo music was being recorded and presented to the public as early as 1945 and 1946, it was not known as mambo music and the public danced the rhumba and guaracha to its stimulating beat. About 1948-49, America, or to be more specific, Miami and New York, became exceedingly mambo conscious. This was due, primarily, to vacationists visiting Cuba who became enthralled with the exciting dance, and the visit of Perez Prado, one of Cuba's leading arrangers, to the United States to sell his arrangements to the Latin-American type bands. Many people, close to the mambo picture, credit Prado with starting the mambo form. The startling beat caught on immediately in Miami and New York. Most of the resorts in the two states featured mambo bands with American aggregations merely as secondary supplements. The beat stayed local until about one or two years ago when suddenly Philadelphia and Baltimore became aware of it and took to the music with a fervency as exciting as the music itself. More recently, with Perez Prado again an instrumental figure, the west coast "found" the mambo. Prado, through his movie and TV work, helped open the Pacific market to volume buying. In addition, Prado received a great deal of national publicity. This plus interior exposure such as the tours of Joe Loco, Tico 161, recording artist, whose piano styling im into some of the best clubs country, a Latin American Seen above are some of the personalities who visited the Palladium. package which included such stars as Loco; Tito Puente (also of Tico Records); Miguelito Valdez, formerly Seeco Records and currently Mood Records; Pupi Campo, formerly Seeco

Records and now with Coral; and Tito Rodriguez, formerly with Tico and at present an RCA Victor recording star; helped to introduce the colorful and savage rhythm to new audiences. Today the trend is definite and composers who until several years ago never heard of the mambo are writing mambo originals as well as offering mambo treatments of standards and classical pieces of the masters.

The advance of the status of Mambo on Broadway has been startling. The most famous mambo ballroom is the Palladium at 53rd and 54th Streets, on Broadway. There on Wednesday nights about 1200 or more people pour into the ballroom to either watch or participate in some of the wildest, most uninhibited forms of dancing ever conceived. Ages of the dancers vary from the teeners to some who appear to be sixtyish and even older. The Palladium is becoming better known via word of mouth with each passing week and every Wednesday finds initiates who came to see and leave confirmed converts. Maxwell Hyman, owner of the Palladium, has a seating section that accommodates about 200 people. This section for the most part, usually seats the visitors out for an evening that is different. Hyman caters to the mink trade, well-known sports figures, stage, screen, TV stars and other public figures. Just a few who have dropped in to see this spectacular attraction are George Abbott, Jose Ferrer, Denise Darcel, Lena Horne and husband Lennie Hayton, Ethel Smith, radio figures Bary Gray, Martin Block, etc.

Hyman, the story goes, bought the Palladium when he became intrigued with the sounds that bounced madly from an open window as he strolled down Broadway. Hyman, who insists the story is true, says he went upstairs to the ballroom, watched, and became stirred to a pitch that led to a purchase of 50% of the Palladium one hour after he had paid his way in. After several months Hyman bought the remaining 50% and applying his former business methods, new ideas and name talent such as Tito Puente, Tito Rodriguez, Joe Loco, Machito, Miguelito Valdez, Pupi Campo and Cesare Concepcion, made the Palladium over into one of the most successful attractions on the main stem. The floor show consists of an amateur contest and five or six professional dance acts. The teams combine a savage, earthy form with ballet arabesques and pirouettes that leaves the spectator breathless, exhausted and screaming "Vaya", the Latin equivalent of "Go man go". Master of Ceremonies for the show is Joe Spiro, affectionately known to the Palladium coterie as "Killer" Joe. Joe is a sensational mambo dancer who also runs a studio where he and staff impart the rudiments of Mambo to the tyros and the more intricate maneuvers to the advanced. The growth of the Cuban dance craze is made more evident when a Broadway stroller finds the Arcadia Ballroom and the famous Roseland Ballroom now catering to Latin American dancing, the conversion of the Band Box to the La Bamba, and the Palladium, all within a space of a few blocks.

The One Factor That Never Changes

How The Sales Department Aids A & R

by LEONARD SCHNEIDER

It was thirty-one years ago at the old Pathe Freres Phonograph Company that I began to learn the rudiments of this fascinating business. I have never left it. Those were the days of mechanical or "acoustical" recording. In this method the direct sound pressure actuated a diaphragm which in turn did the actual inscribing. These were exciting times to a young neophyte, but as I review the many changes that have occurred since then, I realize those early days were really the horse and buggy stage of what has grown into a tremendous and stream-lined industry.

Today our delicate microphones and electronic systems, our taping process, our fine studios and advanced recording techniques are bringing to the consumer the finest sound ever attained in our industry's history. Yet, with all these changes, one factor has remained constant. That factor can best be described in the saying that's as old as our industry—It's what's IN the groove that counts. This has been the most important principle in the history of Decca, and will continue to be our rule in the future. This philosophy was our guide when we pioneered the development of the modern album, the advance of children's record, the original cast albums, the spoken word, mood music and other innovations. Our creative department is constantly striving to not only put into the groove what the public wants but also to anticipate the peoples ever changing tastes.

And so, though technological advances may in the future change the look of our product, our sights will always be on this one factor that never changes. . . . It's what's in the groove that counts!

by SYDNEY GOLDBERG

Close cooperation between the Sales Department and the A & R of a recording company is of utmost importance today. One of the most important functions a Sales Department plays in this relationship is the ability of its sales organization all over the country to keep the head of A & R advised as to trends and of any indications on songs that may start in a local area. Prompt reports by sales personnel, based completely on the facts as to whether a song is selling in an individual territory, have been instrumental in aiding a company, such as Decca, in getting a big piece of a hit song when it finally breaks and, in many cases, actually coming out with the record that turns out to be the top version.

Another important contribution made by the sales organization of a record company is to advise the A & R of any local talent who might be creating unusual interest, for their consideration on a national basis. There is absolutely no question that both of these departments are equally dependent upon each other. The Sales Department is only as good as the product it has to sell, which is supplied by the A & R Department, and the A & R Department is only as good as the results the Sales Department obtain on the product supplied to them. We at Decca function so closely in these two departments that in actuality they could be considered one department rather than two separate ones.

Setting Up Sales And Distribution In 1954

by JOE DELANEY

Elsewhere in this publication my current cohort, Jimmy Hilliard, describes the tribulations encountered in the launching of a new record label—from the artists and repertoire standpoint.

I would like to discuss the same problem with respect to sales and distribution. The simultaneous setting up of "X" and Groove for RCA Victor this year parallels the introduction of Coral Records by Decca in 1948. This parallel is made because "X" and RCA Victor are having the same inter-relationship as these other two companies had six years ago.

Jimmy and I were together through the green years between 1948 and 1950, and then parted to go different ways. I think that Manie Sacks had an ulterior motive in re-uniting us now, feeling that Victor could avoid many of the mistakes made in the early days of Coral since it was Jimmy and myself who made most of those mistakes.

Business was extremely good in 1948 although it had begun to taper off from the 1946-1947 period when almost anything could be sold in large quantities. There were not as many labels then, but the "one-hit independents" did spark the pop business along with a big hit here and there.

The big four then are still the big four now, but the other companies were also to be reckoned with. Mercury was riding high with Frankie Laine. MGM was newly started with a distribution arrangement that had to be revised, thus causing some delay in its timetable. London, premiered during the ban to exploit pops made in England by English artists, set off a vogue that was to last several years until it could regain access to its classical catalogue. Coral was born late in 1948 and served as a medium through which Decca could reissue inactive masters by artists no longer under contract such as Woody Herman, Jimmy Dorsey, Jan Garber, Bob Crosby, etc.

However, Coral's real success was achieved with new artists rather than reissues. The early development of the Ames Brothers—now a top vocal quartet in RCA Victor's "gold record" roster—began on this little label back in 1949.

"X" likewise is an "independent" and aggressive record company, properly competitive and not afraid of experimentation and new ideas. Groove is also a separate adjunct comprising an artist roster that was formerly the RCA Victor rhythm and blues department. It is merchandised in some areas through the "X" distributor and in others, notably in the Solid South, through the regular RCA distributor.

Five single records kicked off our first release—three on "X" and two on Groove. Jimmy and I, together with Bill Darnel, visited 33 cities in 35 days opening distributors in the key marketing outlets around the country. By doing this, we achieved maximum mileage on each record and helped the distributor to get going with a minimum investment while at the same time providing a product which he could get into most of the retail and operator accounts.

"X" and Groove have both been moving steadily upward since their inception, and future prospects look even brighter. Our position has been further enhanced by the fabulous success and excellent sales reaction to the Vault Originals, a series of old-time jazz classics many of which were never before available. Besides helping to build a fine and solid catalogue, the Vault Originals afforded "X" the prestige so valuable in the growth of a new, independent label.

The majority of the record business is still in the "popular" category. The bulk of those records are sold to youngsters between the ages of 14 and 22. According to statistics, by 1960 this age group should be increased to the point where the market potential here will nearly double itself. Market conditions indicate that employment will continue to maintain a high level. Also of great value is the phonograph factor. There has been a tremendous increase in the sale of phonographs, and in the next five years more and more homes will have some kind of record-playing equipment.

Jimmy and I are confident that the record industry will reach new peaks in the years ahead. We look forward to competing for and achieving a large share of the record dollar by the basic formula of producing and merchandising a superior product through strong and active distributors.

Building A New Record Label

by JIMMY HILLIARD

The A & R man who is "starting from scratch" with a new label has multiple problems.

He must first be guided by the fact that a new label like "X" is designed to be one of a lasting nature, and since it is conceived as a program of permanence, then equal attention must be given to:

1. The discovery and development of new artists, which represent the power to gain acceptance by virtue of the "single" record.

2. The gradual but effective building of a catalogue which can endure over a period of years.

Taking both problems in the order of their importance, my own experience as an A & R man "starting from scratch" with Mercury, Coral and now RCA Victor's "X" label has proved to me that the development of new artists is the first big hurdle to be overcome.

The A & R man with a new label would naturally prefer to work with a small, compact roster of artists set up so that a maximum effort can be given each one in the selection of material and in promotion and exploitation. Discounting the possibility of his "stealing" a name artist from another label (which would be a fine short cut to his goal), he is forced to draw from the ranks of relatively unknown artists. Unfortunately, this field is so vast that he finds it extremely difficult to boil down the prospects to a representative number.

In many cases a new artist makes a very inauspicious debut on the new label, and the results may prove discouraging not only to the A & R man but also to the sales department and distributors as well. Oftentimes the second release fares no better, and he is then faced with the problem of justifying further consideration to the artist in question. However, there are occasions when an A & R man feels very strongly about the ultimate success of an artist despite the poor showing of the first releases and despite objections from the sound business heads who look at the sales figures. In this case, he decides to continue his efforts with the artist even though he keeps thinking of the endless line of new talent eagerly awaiting an opportunity to make records.

Drawing from my own experiences, I can recall one of the most graphic cases in which an artist justified an A & R man's belief in future success. It happened while I was with Mercury, and the artist was Patti Page.

I had signed Patti to a six-month contract calling for four sides to be recorded, but with the usual option provisions. Although Patti's first two records meant very little in the way of national sales, I prevailed upon Irving Green, president of Mercury Records, to pick up the option in view of the fact that everyone else in the organization was adamant in the opinion that "she doesn't have what it takes." Results later proved that Green and I had guessed right, and in no uncertain manner.

Once the A & R man of a new label succeeds in getting an artist or two up in the best selling lists and is fortunate enough to crash the trade charts, his task becomes somewhat simpler. He finds himself looking at a better run of songs and material from which to choose his repertoire. This situation is readily understandable since a publisher would naturally try to get his music assigned to an already accepted and well-known artist. The A & R man with the new label cannot hope to see the songs that have been labeled "exclusive" for the top recording stars of other companies. The search for outstanding material is an endless one, and it is the A & R man's prime concern. However, it should be pointed out that it is of vital importance, also, to be able to have the right artist available for the right song.

The second problem to be faced is the building of a catalogue through album sets. This requires much thought, foresight and wisdom.

The various categories of album material are so numerous, and embrace so many fields of music, that a keen analysis is necessary to determine a particular set's potential. The A & R man must be guided in all his decisions by the fact that these sets will have to be strong enough to endure over the years without benefit of delivery by "name" artists.

Another factor which has to be seriously considered is the time element in preparing albums since this type of repertoire requires planning far in advance of a proposed release date.

Which sets should be ready for the spring, summer, fall and winter? Which sets require "long pull" planning in which the sales are not particularly heavy at one time but steady over a long period? Which sets should be geared for a strong "impact" sale? Questions like these must be answered well in advance of the release date in order for the sales planning department to carry through an effective operation.

The building of a good catalogue is also extremely important to a new label because it can "cushion" the dry periods when the single sales fall off. It is vital that business does not come to a complete standstill at any one time, and therefore a careful balance must be attained between single sales and packaged merchandise.

The growth of a new label which is designed to become a permanent fixture differs from new labels which fall under the heading of "here today—gone tomorrow." If the label has an eye to the future, then the sales department must be brought into the picture. A smart A & R man realizes that a close cooperation and warm understanding between A & R and sales can and usually do mark the difference between success and failure.

Every A & R man in the record business (and especially those with a new label) is haunted throughout his entire career by the one perpetual question—"WHERE ARE THE HITS?"

If he's got them, he can sleep like a baby. If he hasn't, he reaches for the aspirin bottle.

Promotion, Cooperation, Service And Work Make For A Successful Distributing Business

by JERRY BLAINE

On the subject of record distribution, let's look first at the national economic picture. The easy dollar is a thing of the past. We are faced with a situation in which we must use every ounce of intensive effort and every bit of ingenuity possible to keep our business in a sound position. Where Cosnat Distributing Corp., our own firm is concerned, we have found that there is no magic formula or short cut to success. In the nine years of our existence it has been to quote Sir Winston Churchill "blood, sweat and tears". Call it 10% inspiration, 90% perspiration; in short, awfully hard work. Today it is said and we like to feel rightfully so, that we have the most successful distributing operation in the United States. Nine years ago when we started, we formulated a plan of operation and have worked that plan ever since. In the first place our relationship with company personnel, manufacturers, dealers, and operators, has been kept on a friendly basis. In our organization the boss doesn't keep himself locked up in an ivory tower. Every one who works with me is made to feel that he is my equal. With my boys it's always Jerry, never Mr. Blaine. I want to keep it that way. I'm proud of the fact that I've never had, and don't think I ever will have an unhappy employee.

We have often been asked why we have never gone after major lines in view of the fact that our operation has been so successful. The reason is this. Our policy right from the start has been to rise or fall with the independent labels. They gave us our start when we needed them and we think we have come through for each other in good style. Close and continued cooperation on both sides has made it possible for us to conduct successful operations in New York, Newark and Philadelphia, and recently add another branch in Cleveland. We hope eventually to go further. Our expansion plan is not entirely motivated by the desire to make more money. We feel that each of our branches, going all out promotion-wise, puts our manufacturers in a stronger position since hits can only be made through constant exposure. Thus we help the manufacturers strengthen their product and help ourselves at the same time.

In the further analysis of successful distribution I would say the most important single factor is record promotion. We have given every possible thought and full attention to this phase of the business. Knowing that every record can't possibly be a hit, we plan our promotion along these lines. At a weekly meeting attended by all executives, salesmen, promotion men, counter men etc., we listen to the new samples which have come in during the week. It requires no particular genius for a group of people who live the record business to separate the "could be's" from the "dogs". Every salesman is furnished his samples, every indy and network radio station is covered, every top dee jay and librarian is alerted to the possibilities of the new releases. As a follow-up service to the stations we mail a weekly Hit Parade sheet for both Rhythm & Blues and Pops which the librarians and jocks can use as a reminder and program guide. A weekly Hit Parade sheet also is mailed to all of our dealers. This is supplemented with a bi-weekly "push" sheet for standards. We also make it a point to regularly mail out complete LP and EP catalogs. It's a lot of extra work but we have proved that the continued application of this promotion program keeps the manufacturers happy and has paid off for us. Another very important consideration in distribution is Catalog. In times like these when the business situation in general leaves much to be desired, I cannot stress too strongly the importance of pushing catalog merchandise. The distributor or salesman who thinks he can make it just selling hits is living in a fool's paradise. It just can't be done. Catalog is definitely the backbone of today's business. In conjunction with this the wide-awake distributor is also on the look-out for new items and accessories to take up the slack. A salesman will always walk out with a fairly good order if he has enough to sell regardless of conditions.

In closing I should like to touch on the importance of regular meetings in the organization. Human nature is made up in a large degree of problems and "beefs". It makes for a healthier all round condition to bring them in and talk them out. We hold branch meetings regularly every week and general meetings once a month. I know the phrase "one big happy family" is a cornball but in this instance it is a true one. Our regular meetings have much to do with it.

To sum it all up I would say the success of the distributing business lies in imaginative promotion, cooperation, friendly courteous service, and work, work, work.

Best of luck to our fellow distributors and The Cash Box on its anniversary.

The Ingredients That Go Into A Hit

by JOE CARLTON

What makes a hit record?

I don't have an infallible answer to that question. However, I do know that there are six almighty commandments to be reckoned with in making pop records, and I am certain that a disregard for any one of them will mean the difference between a hit and a miss.

1. Have fresh ideas—and the right ideas. If you reach the point where you feel sure that you have a formula or know the trend of the day, that's the time to beware because the whim of the public can change faster than a tote board.

It is necessary to have a slightly impulsive, emotional flare for this business and particularly for the countless songs that come over the desk every morning. Even though you look at 600 songs a week, you still must be able to feel that personal spurt of enthusiasm when the outstanding tune comes around. Without enthusiasm there is rarely a hit, and the best place to generate it is within yourself.

Take, for example, the song "Wanted." The publisher of the tune was far from optimistic over its possibilities. I picked up a copy and suddenly felt some excitement about it. I went to Perry Como with it and told him my feelings. A wonderful thing about Perry is that while he may not share my opinions, he respects my judgment, and in this case he agreed to do the song in spite of the fact that he himself could not see it at the time. The results fortunately were very good.

2. Have competent musical directors working for you. I am lucky enough to have three musical geniuses and the finest A & R talents in the business working for me. They make my life simpler and my job a delight.

Hugo Winterhalter is a man I could extol forever. He is a giant among musical minds, a versatile arranger and a fine artist in his own right. In addition, he is a remarkable A & R man. He has a great song sense, a solid savvy for the music business and an approach which is both artistic and simple. The sales figures prove that he gets results, and he makes me look very good.

Henri Rene also is a tower of strength as a musical director, a conductor and an arranger. His sophistication and charm for the record idiom are wonderful; it is Henri who gives those extra touches to an Eartha Kitt record, a Tony Martin hit and an occasional Perry Como release.

Harry Geller, our west coast musical director, what a valuable and vital person! He is an expert craftsman and a whiz at artist relations. In spite of the fact that there is so much going on at the world's largest record company, Geller has all the details sifted, maintains good quality on the discs, keeps the artists happy and is a constant source of satisfaction to me.

3. Have the support of a great organization. Any A & R man worth his salt must give his organization the biggest part of the credit for making hits. Without promotion, without the confidence of management and the aid of administration, the A & R department could never translate a hit into sales.

At Victor I am grateful for having a powerful and efficient organization behind me. There are no individual heroes in this company, and everyone seems to realize the importance of riding the gain together.

4. Have great artists; have their interests at heart and secure their confidence. Eddie Fisher's "Oh, My Papa" is a good case in point. Recording this song was an overnight decision. Hugo Winterhalter and myself were convinced that it had to be a big hit, but there were many people who disagreed with us. They felt that it was the wrong type of subject material for Eddie and that the lyric was not suitable for him. Nevertheless, we persisted and Eddie rushed in from Chicago to record the song. His unwavering faith in our judgment was rewarded by sales figures exceeding 1,600,000.

5. Know the music business. My feeling is that the best A & R man is the one who is best informed. I always strive to keep in constant touch with the pulse of the musical world—disc jockeys, distributors, dealers and all my artists. I like to have a steady flow of information going across my desk every day.

It is necessary to watch each one of your artists closely. I put out no more than four or five records a year by each one and carefully hand pick the tunes. I don't mind being bold when it comes to a change of pace. In fact, I insist on a change of pace because I believe it is vital to maintaining interest in our artists plus preserving the public's sympathy and appreciation for something new and different.

6. Have a good song. After all is said and done, the song is still the piece de resistance. It makes up for a multitude of shortcomings, and you can never give it too much attention or respect.

A competent A & R man will try to see as many songs as is humanly possible. If the open-door policy becomes impractical, an appointment system can sometimes serve the same purpose.

I refuse to accept any one formula for a good song. Strict analysis won't work either. Just as you can analyze an opportunity until the opportunity disappears, you can likewise analyze songs to the point where their value becomes questionable. I believe you have to make impulsive, emotional decisions if you are to get hits. When I feel strongly about a piece of material, I go out and record it right away before the enthusiasm wears off because genuine enthusiasm must start in the A & R office if it is to travel through the organization and on to the disc jockeys, sales people, juke box operators and—we hope—the public.

It is quite dismaying when the public does not agree with you. But when you do catch a big hit, the excitement and exhilaration you feel make it all worthwhile. And somehow I have a hunch that the next couple of years are going to be very exciting and very exhilarating.

The Problems of Starting A New Distributing Firm

by LOU BOORSTEIN

If ever you want to embark upon an adventure as full of peril as any expedition might encounter, try the independent record distributing business. From the word go, problems that seem as large as scaling the High Sierras loom on the horizon.

Obviously wanting to get into the distributing business poses the first great problem—getting lines to distribute. This is not an easy problem to solve as all good selling lines are already being distributed—and non-selling lines are not worth having. But occasionally an opportunity does arrive such as our chance to distribute Label "X" and we are ready to do business.

But being ready does not in itself produce any business. There is much groundwork that must be done first. Physical plants for the distribution must be found. Salesmen secured. Disk jockeys and radio stations contacted. And most important a working arrangement with retail stores and juke box operators established.

There in one paragraph are all the problems. But each problem begets little problems and it is a knotty, expensive and tedious process to untangle them.

It is difficult to establish the confidence of dealers and juke box operators. It is difficult in the current market to get anyone to try a new product. So we have a dual problem of establishing a new firm and a new product simultaneously.

An awareness of the problems facing the dealers and juke box operators makes the task of solving these problems much easier.

A good product like Label "X", manufactured by a firm of impeccable reputation and distributed by a well experienced firm—though newly created for the purpose of distributing this new label—must meet with success. And as each problem is solved and the unknown quantities become known, there is the thrill and the profit of a successful business.

Despite the current low ebb of business, it is with the greatest degree of optimism that we look forward to the coming season. The record business, which is the only form of entertainment that gives people what they want when they want it, is still a great business. It is rewarding both in money and thrill to be part of it.

Making The Most Of The Artists On The Roster

by BOB THIELE

Coupling artists on a record label is certainly not a new idea. But in the past year or two, it has been more extensively done than ever before in the record business.

Coupling was at first regarded as a business booster. Offer a customer two big names for the price of one, and you have a bigger box-office potential. But a new concept has entered the practice of coupling artists—better performance of a tune as well as more business.

Take the song "Heart of My Heart", which we recorded at Coral with a new coupling of artists that we called the Three D's. "Heart" could have been done by a chorus or a quartet. But it was a natural to put together the voices of three solo recording artists—Don Cornell, Alan Dale and Johnny Desmond. The blend of these three name artists made for a great performance as well as a best-selling disk.

Similar thinking guided the selection of the artists we coupled on the Coral disk of "Pine Tree Pine Over Me", which could have been done by any chorus of mixed voices. With a Chorus, we could never have gotten the kind of recording we got out of putting together the individual talents of Johnny Desmond, Eileen Barton, and the McGuire Sisters.

Of course, coupling presents some difficult problems. I believe that we at Coral have been extremely fortunate in that our artists have been willing to blend, not only their names and royalties, but their talents as well. To get the kind of records which we have been able to produce, artists must learn how to work harmoniously together—and I must publicly proffer a bouquet to the Coral roster for their flexibility, cooperation and team work.

Without these qualities, we never could have coupled all of the artists that we have blended on Coral disks. In addition to those already mentioned, we have made records with Don Cornell and Teresa Brewer, Eileen Barton and Jimmy Wakely, Merv Shiner and the Pinetoppers, Jimmy Wakely and Lawrence Welk, and Johnny Desmond, Alan Dale and Buddy Greco.

In closing, I would like to point out that the majority of records we make at Coral are geared for juke box operators, and that such records as "Heart of My Heart" and "Pine Tree, Pine Over Me" are under three minutes in length.

Main topic of conversation this week has been the arrival of Marlene Dietrich, and the fabulous press reception given by the Cafe de Paris (where she will appear). Everybody was there. You name a reporter, and rest assured he was present along with a battery of cameramen. In a red suit and hat Marlene came down the famous stairway and was besieged by one and all. After the affair, she started rehearsing with Peter Knight and the orchestra and returned to her penthouse in a swanky hotel. By the way, she will be introduced on her opening night by her old friend Noel Coward (who supervised rehearsals). While in London Marlene will cut two albums for Philips (Columbia); one in English and one in German. On top of all that, Norman Newell, A&R man of Philips, is contemplating recording the whole of the first night performance. This same company is also waxing two titles from the film "The Glorious Years" sung by the star Errol Flynn.

The sensational Mantovani is working on two wonderful projects. One is a movie which is being made in Italy and Germany and stars the maestro and his music and Vicco Torriani, the International singing star. Sound tracks have been recorded in London, this week, and Monty is flying to Italy to take part in the film. The other item, just as important, is the definite signing of a contract for his appearance in Canada at the end of September when he will give three concerts conducting the sixty piece Montreal Orchestra. He will also appear in Quebec and Toronto. From there he hopes to go to the United States for personal appearances on TV and with D.J.'s. So look out fellas. You'll meet one of the nicest guys in the business.

Have just heard what I think will be the next big Chacksfield hit. Bigger than "Limelight" and bigger than "Ebb Tide." Sorry, no title yet! . . . Billy Eckstine and the Stargazers will give a concert in Blackpool this Sunday. Those Stargazers are really working hard.

Johnny Johnston should be very happy with three records on "Friends and Neighbors." His trip was certainly worth while. . . . Capitol label has a good team in Betty Hutton and Tennessee Ernie. Their new waxing of "This Must Be The Place" and "The Honeymoon Is Over" should do good business here. . . . Mildred Joanne Smith appearing in a new revue "Cockles And Champagne." The revue has in it some of the most beautiful girls in show business. . . . Mary Lou Williams has opened at the Boeuf Sur Le Toit in Paris in the spot left vacant by the sudden death of Garland Wilson.

The Problems Of Launching A New Indie Disk Firm

by LEONARD WOLF

I am very flattered that The Cash Box has asked me to write a brief article on the problems confronting a young independent record company. The 'indies' during the past four or five years have really come into their own and are generally accepted today as a major influence in the industry. Let me preface what I'd like to say on the subject by first stating that there are hundreds of independent labels in existence today . . . some very successful, some moderately successful and some which unhappily are going to find it difficult to survive. Probably their success or failure will depend to a great measure on how they solve the points I would like to touch upon here.

In my opinion the most important problem is that of distribution. It is common knowledge that there aren't enough distributors to take care of the large number of independent labels now active. It is an extremely tedious chore, therefore, for a new company to get out into the field and gain acceptance with distributors, deejays and juke-box operators. This is perhaps one of the few businesses where a perfect product from both an artistic and technical standpoint can be completely by-passed without proper exposure and sound distribution. To emphasize the acuteness of this problem merely advise your friends in the business that you are about to launch a new record company and the first question that will be thrown at you will be "lots of luck pal, but what are you going to do for distribution?"

The next problem is that of the product itself—this is the means by which the brave new diskery hopes to find its way to the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. It may attempt to achieve this goal either through long-range planning or by a policy of sheer speculation. It is imperative that the indie turn out a quality disk featuring a top rate performance if he is to get the necessary exposure that will create attention. He cannot afford the luxury of covering hits—he must create them. I'd like to point out that when an independent label has one or two top names on its talent roster to start with, the big part of this problem is solved inasmuch as the buying public has already accepted the stars. Surveys have proved that the record fan is attracted to the artist and to the material and not to the name of the record label. I feel rather lucky that when we launched Audivox Records some fourteen months ago I had the pleasure of representing two of the top names in the music business—the very versatile Dorothy Collins and the very creative Raymond Scott. Dorothy had already become America's Sweetheart through the medium of television and Raymond's own name had for years been synonymous with the very finest in musical entertainment.

Perhaps I am not qualified to say whether a new company is wiser to take the long range planning point of view or the speculative one, however I have learned that it is very desirable to build a steady selling catalogue as this can represent a tremendous amount of plus business. In short it is my feeling that while any given record can make the grade overnight, building a successful record company—just like building a sturdy house—should be done step by step and over a period of time.

POPULAR

FRANK CHACKSFIELD—"Evening In Paris"—and his Orchestra—London LL997 (12" LP) List: $5.95

MADMOISELLE DE PARIS; TELL ME THAT YOU LOVE ME TO-NIGHT; MY PRAYER; VOUS QUI PASSEZ SAN ME VOIR; PIGALLE; LA VIE EN ROSE; BOOM!; CA C'EST PARIS; J'ATTENDRAI; VALENTINE; LA SEINE; PARLEZ-MOI D'AMOUR; CLOPIN-CLOPANT; CAN-CAN.

Frank Chacksfield achieved international prominence when he clicked twice in a row with "Terry's Theme From Limelight" and "Ebb Tide." His beautiful arrangements since the pair of top tunes have been strong sellers. On this album, Mr. Chacksfield takes the listener on a musical tour through Paris. The fourteen sumptuous selections offered here all French favorites that listeners never seem to get enough of. The music is smooth and warm and makes for an hour of enchanting listening. London has a big seller in this one.

BORRAH MINNEVITCH and his Harmonica Rascals—Capitol H 490 (10" LP) List: $3.00

PERFIDIA; WARSAW CONCERTO; CARAVAN; ANITRA'S DANCE; FANTASIE-IMPROMTU; MALAGUENA; JAMAICAN RHUMBA; SONG OF INDIA.

Borrah Minnevitich and his Harmonica Rascals are one of the top theatrical acts all over the world. The group is credited with giving more status to the harmonica than any other. Here the masters of the mouth organ choose eight of Minnevitich's favorite numbers, classical and popular, and render them in their unique and exciting fashion. A great treat for harmonica lovers. Thrills from beginning to end. We go in a big way for "Song Of India." Any one of these selections should act as an excellent demonstrator.

LOUIS ARMSTRONG and the MILLS BROTHERS—Decca DL-5509 (10" LP) List: $3.00

MARIE; CHERRY; MY WALKING STICK; THE FLAT FOOT FLOGGEE; THE SONG IS ENDED; BOOG-IT; IN THE SHADE OF THE OLD APPLE TREE; DARLING NELLIE GRAY.

Here's a platter that record collectors are gonna consider a must. One of the greatest of all jazz musicians, Louis Armstrong, teams up with one of the greatest pop quartets, the Mills Brothers, to run through eight favorites. The artists work together in such a relaxed and perfect manner, that one would think they've been a team for years. Platter is a delight from start to finish. Although all of the sides are sure, to please, we go for "Marie" in a big way.

EDITH PIAF—"Bravo Pour Le Clown"—Angel 64005 (10" LP) List: $3.95

LA GOULANTE DU PAUVRE JEAN; ET MOI; N'Y VA PAS MANUEL; LES AMANTS DE VENISE; L'EFFET QU' TU M'FAIS; JEAN ET MARTINE; JOHNNY, TU N'ES PAS UN ANGE; BRAVO POUR LE CLOWN.

Edith Piaf is the reigning sovereign of French popular music. Her unique style and expression which she offers on songs of gayety, sadness and other subjects, is unequalled by any chanteuse in France today. And her popularity is not only limited to France, but is constantly growing throughout the world. On this album, the singing great presents eight songs, many of which she often performs on stage. Exciting half hour of listening which her fans will buy up like hot cakes. A limited but very local market awaits such a package.

"INVITATION TO ROMANCE"—Piano Moods by Consuelo Velasquez—RCA Victor LPM 3196 (10" LP) List: $3.15

CHERRY PINK AND APPLE BLOSSOM WHITE; YOU TOO, YOU TOO; THE SONG FROM MOULIN ROUGE; MAR Y CIELO; THE TERRY THEME; NI POR FAVOR; ANNA; BONITO Y SABROSO.

Consuelo Velasquez, one of Mexico's most beautiful and accomplished pianists, and the author of the Latin standard "Besame Mucho," offers an "Invitation to Romance" as she presents a number of popular tunes in her inviting piano technique. The artist has a light and most pleasing touch and gives these familiar melodies a new feeling. Some of the tunes get an inspiring rhythm background. Album notes are in both English and Spanish. Disk should enjoy a healthy sale in Mexico and other Latin-American countries as well as in the U. S.

BETTY BENNETT—Trend TL-1006 (10" LP) Composers Series—List: $3.00

REMINDE ME; SURE THING; WHEN I FALL IN LOVE; ONE HUNDRED YEARS FROM TODAY; SOME OTHER TIME; TIME AFTER TIME; NOBODY'S HEART; YOU'RE NEARER.

The mood of this album is romance. Vocalist Betty Bennett, who has performed with such bands as Georgie Auld, Claude Thornhill, Alvino Rey, Woody Herman and many others, solos on wax for the first time by offering the ballads of Richard Rodgers, Jerome Kern, Victor Young and Jules Styne. Arrangements are by Andre Previn. Excellent choice of standards. Thrush has a good feeling for such songs. String quintet supplies the backdrop.

HARRY BELAFONTE—RCA Victor EPA 559 (7" 45-EP) List: $1.50

DELIA; THE DRUMMER AND THE COOK; KALENDA ROCK; THE FOX.

Harry Belafonte is one of the truly great talents around today. Although he has not had the "million sellers," he has a vast following of youngsters and adults alike. Few, if any artists can do as much with a folk song as this youngster. He digs out the true meaning of such tunes. His voice is unique and carries an enveloping excitement with it. This EP should do very well.

BILLY DANIELS—"Midnight Moods"—Mercury EP-1-3200 (7" 45 EP) List: $1.50

GAME OF LOVE; THIS IS MY BELOVED; I STILL GET A THRILL; MELANCHOLY BABY.

Billy Daniels, "Mr. Magic," dishes up four terrific items in his personality packed style. The scintillating songster really puts great feeling into every number. Exciting deck with a ready market.

Album Reviews

RUSS CASE—"Sleepy Serenades"—"X"-EXA 3 (7" 45 EP) List: $1.50
SLEEPY SERENADE; PENTHOUSE SERENADE; LAMPLIGHTERS SERENADE; MOONLIGHT SERENADE.

Music with a universal message of romance is the material that Russ Case and the Orchestra so capably present on this EP. These four "Serenades" are probably four of the most popular ever written. Excellent background music for the quiet and relaxing hours.

CLASSICAL

SHOWPIECES FOR ORCHESTRA Vol. 2—Alfred Wallenstein and the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra—Decca DL 9728 (12" LP) List: $5.85

CHABRIER: MARCHÉ JOYEUSE; ESPANA RAPSODIE. SMETANA: THE BARTERED BRIDE—OVERTURE; POLKA; FURIANT; DANCE OF THE COMEDIANS. BERLIOZ: FROM THE DAMNATION OF FAUST—HUNGARIAN MARCH; MINUET OF THE WILL-O'-THE-WISPS; DANCE OF THE SYLPHS. CHABRIER: HABANERA. SMETANA: THE MOLDAU.

Decca issues Volume 2 is its "Showpieces For Orchestra Series," offering a number of classics as presented by Alfred Wallenstein and the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. Because of the technical advances in recording, reproducing sound, and recording equipment, Decca presents these specific selections because they show the orchestra at its most brilliantly dynamic and colorful best. Pieces are from the best of classics and Mr. Wallenstein's accomplishments as a conductor are too numerous to mention in this small space. A treat for classical enthusiasts. Pieces are among the more frequently heard classics and therefore should also appeal to many other listeners who are not of the long-hair set.

JAZZ

ARTIE SHAW and his GRAMERCY FIVE—#1 & 2—Clef MG C-159 & MG C-160—(2-10" LPs) List: $3.85 each

#1: SEQUENCE IN B FLAT; I'VE GOT A CRUSH ON YOU; THE SAD SACK.
#2: WHEN THE QUAIL COME BACK TO SAN QUENTIN; TENDERLY; SUNNY SIDE UP; AUTUMN LEAVES.

In the Summer of 1953, Artie Shaw opened at the Embers in New York, an opening which attracted celebrities from all parts of the country. His stay at the nitery was one of the biggest attractions of the season and the business the club did proved that. For his own pleasure, and to have a documentation for the future, Shaw recorded everything the new group had in its book. There were new tunes, old Gramercy Five standards brought out in new dress, and some of Shaw's big band material revised for the quintet. These two individually sleeved singles offer some of the material emanating from the performances. A juicy acquisition for Shaw lovers.

SLIM GAILLARD—"Wherever He May Be"—Norgran MG N-13 (10" LP) List: $3.85

I CAN'T GIVE YOU ANYTHING BUT LOVE; YOU GOOFED; MAKE IT DO; THIS IS MY LOVE; I'M IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE; YO YO YO; CHICKEN RHYTHM; GO MAN GO.

One of today's most fascinating and humorous performers is the one and only Slim Gaillard. His comedy in music, his unique phrases, and the "crazy" way he plays every band instrument has earned him a most loyal following. He's been held over at almost every night spot he's appeared in. Slim dishes up eight pieces of musical nonsense and comedy on this Norgran platter. The artist has a limited following, but every fan of his finds it a must to get everything the "jivester" cuts.

"NEW ORLEANS TO LONDON"—Ken Colyer's Jazz Men—London LB-904 (10" LP) List: $3.95

GOIN' HOME; HARLEM RAG; STOCKYARDSTRUT; EARLY HOURS; ISLE OF CAPRI; LA HARPE STREET; CATARACT RAG; TOO BUSY.

Ken Colyer and his Jazz Men have been ranked by many authorities as the English aggregation which most closely recaptures the true spirit and feeling of New Orleans Jazz. The group is excellently coordinated and dishes up some good rags and blues. It is interesting to note that the crew does not use a piano, an instrument which early jazz bands also did without. An interesting view of jazz by a British group. Fitting for a collector's library.

MOVIE SCORE

SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS—Jane Powell, Howard Keel and the Original MGM motion picture cast. MGM E 244 (10" LP) List: $3.00

WHEN YOU'RE IN LOVE; JUNE BRIDE; SPRING, SPRING, SPRING; SOBBIN' WOMEN; GOIN' CO'TIN'; WONDERFUL, WONDERFUL DAY; BLESS YORE BEAUTIFUL HIDE; LAMENT.

In a few weeks, MGM will premiere a high flying new musical called "Seven Brides For Seven Brothers". Lyrics were written by Johnny Mercer and music by Gene de Paul. On this LP, MGM offers the original cast as recorded directly from the soundtrack of the flicker. Jane Powell and Howard Keel, the stars of the film, are superb on this inviting score. People who see the movie will definitely want this package. The diskery has been currently successful with the sound track album of "Rose Marie". This album should enjoy a big sale too.

BLUES

DINAH WASHINGTON—"The Blues"—Mercury EP-1-3207 (7" 45-EP) List: $1.50

LONG JOHN; TROUBLE IN MIND; BLOW TOP BLUES; THE RICHEST GUY IN THE GRAVEYARD. Dinah Washington is definitely one of the most popular female blues singers in the country. Her dynamic style is always a treat to the listener. Here the "Queen Of The Blues" belts out a quartet of zestful bluesy items. Her fans are gonna love these.

Pop Record Promotion— A 3-D Business

by MIKE CONNER

The word "promotion"—in the pop single record business—encompasses a wide and varied field. It is management's job to decide to whom its effort, including time and money, should be devoted.

It wasn't too many years ago that a record dealer was the acknowledged leader in the race to get disks into the consumer's home. In those days the customer would come into a record shop with an open mind. Open, that is, to all the promotional streamers, displays, etc. that the disk companies poured into the dealer's hands. Every dealer, every sales person, had an opportunity to build his own hits, and it was to him that the bulk of our promotional material was directed.

Later on the juke-box rage swept the country. The kids began to put their nickles in the pretty colored boxes. If you got your record in a juke-box it would be heard, and the guys and gals would often buy the records they had danced to the night before. Record executives took notice of the new trend, and the juke-box operator became an important facet of promotion.

While all of this coin machine activity was taking place, slowly but surely another group was coming into prominence. The voice of the disk jockey was heard in the land. From its unimportant beginning as a filler-in between big programs, the recorded music show had come into its own. The platter spinner had become a celebrity in the eyes and ears of the kids. No longer did they go into the music stores ready to be sold. They generally knew what they wanted, they had heard most of what there was to be heard, and they knew almost as much about the pop records as the fellow behind the counter. After watching this turn of events warily for some time, the record companies finally conceded that the deejay was here to stay.

Thus we see expansion of the promotion field from its concentration in one direction to three. We at Decca feel we must retain our three-directional efforts. We're of the firm opinion that no one group has taken the place of another, but that each has its own place in our plans, all equally important.

The disk jockey has continued his steady growth. His is the power to make an artist and/or record. There are occasions that the concentration of just one deejay in just one area has started a newcomer on the road to stardom. It is usually because of him that the pop customer enters the store in the first place, with definite likes and dislikes, influenced by his favorite jockey. But the juke-box business is still big business. It serves not only as a means of keeping our top records in front of the consumer, but also as an indication of the public's own personal tastes, and thus as a guide for future recording plans. Once a customer is in the store, proper exploitation through the dealer still pays off. His display material helps in reminding the buyer of additional single records that may have slipped his mind, and of course it is all-important in selling special and album products that are not given radio exposure.

We think we have our promotional balance all worked out, but how can anyone sit back and relax? We keep looking for new trends to develop—and they probably will!

Indie Firms Will Continue To Grow

by DAVE MILLER

In the past 2 or 3 months the music business has without question felt the effects of the general downturn in business activity. Quite naturally the independent manufacturer and distributor felt it first because of the lack of substantial catalogue items to sustain them. It may be interesting to look back to a similar drop in sales for the last quarter of 1948, up to the month when the Korean War accelerated the defense spending and created the record boom that has apparently lost its peak in recent weeks.

There are a number of factors that lend encouragement to the independent picture during the present slump as compared with the 1948-49 situation. While the smaller firms do not have extensive catalogues, they do not have the inflated overhead and high salaried personnel that the larger firms must maintain to function. This flexibility has proven a blessing in lean periods.

Another factor over the 1948-49 picture is that the independent distributors, are for the majority, in a better financial condition and are better trained to operate on a more profitable basis.

Of course the disk jockey has probably been the biggest single factor in the rise of the indies. The stigma of not playing "nondescript" records has been lifted from the turntables and the deejay and program director realizes that his better show comes from programming any record in good taste that the public wants to hear.

There is no question that business will pick up in the coming weeks. This optimistic outlook prevails throughout our industry and the business world in general. I believe I speak for the majority of independent manufacturers when I say that while these temporary lulls may come and go, the independent firms will continue to grow as a more important factor in the music industry.

American Records In England

by MARCEL STELLMAN

Though we have no language barriers as far as American recordings are concerned in Great Britain, we have other barriers to overcome. It is true that in many cases we may look to the United States for most of our popular recording material. It must be said however, that we pride ourselves in our own output of original material.

Do we like what you like? On the whole we do. There are exceptions of course, and these exceptions force us to be careful in our choice. The main reason for the caution is that we cannot absorb the wealth of material that comes from the U.S.A. for we haven't got the outlet for it that you have in America. Our population of some thirty million is not as record conscious as the people across the Atlantic. Radio is state controlled. The disk jockey is not as powerful as you might think. The juke box is not as predominant. The only regular D.J. shows we have are request shows lasting fifty minutes six mornings a week and consisting of a variety of music selected by the housewives of Britain, served up by the B.B.C. and emceed by some personality who doesn't necessarily know anything about the record business; the other semi-regular spot is yet another request show this time aimed at the whole family and presented by the B.B.C. announcers. Have we got any disk jockeys? Well the answer is yes and no. We have a disk jockey, Jack Jackson, but here again he may be on the air once a week for thirteen weeks, and then off the air for another thirteen weeks.

Of course there is Radio Luxembourg, a commercial station beaming its sponsored shows to England but with reception often distorted in many areas.

The snags don't stop just there. The B.B.C. has an allowance of 22 hours of record time per week, granted by arrangement with Musicians Union. These 22 hours must incorporate all record shows, background music, fill-ups etc.

Then the B.B.C. has a system of passing records for broadcasting which, although useful, often holds up the possibility of promoting a big disk. Everything revolves around the B.B.C. from the publishers to the end product of each diskery. In the U.S. one can hear a new record fifty to one hundred times a day on the many stations. We here have a ruling for which the record companies are as much to blame as the B.B.C. A ruling that stipulates that no disk will be played more than once in twenty-four hours in any one week. So what chance has the record of getting away on a big nation wide promotion? The chance is remote, yet we have had the big hits, the big sellers, the number one. How it happens is I think more a matter of luck than anything else. Yet it happens, it happens because in an organization like the B.B.C. one overlooks things occasionally, a record will slip through and be played more than once a week, and it's true you can't keep a good record down. And show business to a large degree depends on record names, so on the whole the BBC does a good job within its limitations and as sponsored radio is practically non-existent we are grateful to the BBC for all that is done.

Do the public buy records in this country? Of course they do. What's more this is the cheapest country for record buyers in the world. The average disk retails at five shillings which is seventy cents. The record is good. The quality excellent. The performers the best of the best. We have our top record stores (yes even self service) and in some cases even luxury. The record buyer has no complaints and the dealers themselves seem to get the best possible service from factors throughout the country. The sale of records in this country goes into millions yearly and it is difficult to say what proportion of sales should be attributed to American disks for with 78-45-33 in popular and classics it's hard to define the exact amounts. All that can be said is that the American records get a fair share of the sales and the best way to judge is to turn to vaudeville in this country for the past five years and you will see that most of the top liners have been American recording stars. What better proof than that is there anyway?

In some cases recording stars are even bigger names in England than in their own country and thus find their record sales in Britain well over the average American figures. Quite often too a song will make the hit parade over here and not even reach the best sellers in America. So don't be afraid to send us a recording of a song that may not always be your cup of tea . . . we too drink tea and to us it may taste very sweet indeed.

The record companies know that to a publisher every song is a hit but they also know that its the public who are the final judges for they pay the money to buy the record and they'll only buy what they like not what we think they should like. For the benefit of American record companies let me say your best bet with us is the simple good commercial pop disk first and foremost. We have a market for Westerns, Folk Songs, Rhythm and Blues and Jazz records but it's a little difficult to sell as it comes under the heading of specialized recordings and its followers therefore are specialists too. But don't get me wrong we sell all kinds of records and to sell all kinds of records one must make all kinds, and as it takes all kinds to make a world it takes all sorts of music to please everybody.

We here have been buying American recordings for a long, long time and there is no reason at all why things shouldn't go on that way for a very long time to come. After all, music and song is probably the best way to keep a happy understanding between two countries who know no language barrier and have so much in common.

THE CASH BOX

★ AWARD O' THE WEEK ★

"MAMBOLINO" (2:27)
[Armo BMI—Earl Bostic]

"BLUE SKIES" (2:43)
[Berlin ASCAP—Irving Berlin]

EARL BOSTIC
(King 4723)

EARL BOSTIC

● Earl Bostic adds to his ever-growing catalogue of hits with an original, "Mambolino," a quick tempo Latin mambo dance item, and a lush reading of the old Berlin lovely, "Blue Skies." The mambo ditty is a stirring quick beat that is riding on the spreading dance craze. Bostic's orking is an exciting bit of workmanship. The flip, "Blue Skies," is fresh and with a beat. Bostic offers this standard in an easy to listen to, dreamy fashion and maintains a solid dance tempo.

"I'M SLIPPIN' IN" (2:30)

[Commodore BMI—D. Bartholomew]

"I'M SEARCHING" (2:22)

[Commodore BMI—R. Mitchell]

THE SPIDERS
(Imperial 713)

THE SPIDERS

● The Spiders come up with a likely pair. The upper deck, "I'm Slippin' In," is a rhythmic up tempo foot tapper. The Spiders sing it with a gay and chuckley feel. The tune is easy to remember. The lyrics sharp and loaded. This one should make it. The flip, "I'm Searching," is a slow romantic blues. The group wails it with emotion. Lead does a strong job. Like "I'm Slipping In" for the charts.

THE EAGLES
(Mercury 70391)

● "PLEASE, PLEASE" (2:07)
[Brownwood BMI—Singleton, McCoy]

Here's a quick beat cutie with a beat that has the kids buying. The group bounces merrily through the happy ditty. Deck has the sound and tempo that should stir up the juke box and counter action.

● "TRYIN' TO GET TO YOU" (2:34) [Motion Music BMI—Singleton, McCoy] A slow bouncer etched with a solid sound. The group has a smart manner of delivery and comes through solidly.

VAL MARTINEZ

(King 4721)

● "OLD FOOL" (2:55) [Jay & Cee BMI—Henry Glover] Val Martinez, who sings in somewhat the Eckstine manner, chants a sentimental slow item against the soft Bill Doggett musical support.

● "WHAT WILL I TELL MY HEART" (2:43) [Crawford ASCAP—Tinturin, Lawrence] Another Eckstinish treatment of a slow romantic.

THE CASH BOX

Rhythm 'N Blues BEST BETS

In the opinion of The Cash Box music staff, records listed below, in addition to the "Disk" and "Sleeper" Of The Week, are those most likely to achieve popularity.

- | | | |
|--------------------|---------------|---------------|
| ★ "KEEP ON" | Shirley & Lee | Aladdin 3244 |
| ★ "LIZABETH" | The Thrillers | Herald 432 |
| ★ "PLEASE, PLEASE" | The Eagles | Mercury 70391 |

SHIRLEY & LEE
(Aladdin 3244)

● "KEEP ON" (2:48) [Aladdin-McCoy, Singleton] That different voiced duo with a succession of hits, come up with a cutie bounce that looks like lots more record sales. A rhythmic middle tempo jump that rocks.

● "CONFESSIN'" (2:29) [Aladdin—Leonard Lee] Lee confesses to Shirley that he's been doing her wrong. He's been untrue. However, Shirley replies that she's been no angel either. All's well that ends well. The famous rhythm and blues love duo forgive and decide to start all over again. Thus comes to an end another chapter in the long story of the Shirley and Lee romance.

DOLORES WARE
(Mercury 70394)

● "MY HEART'S IN THE RIGHT PLACE" (3:01) [Russel BMI—Rose Samuels] Dolores Ware sings a beaty slow tempo item with lots of soul. Gal is an expressive lyric reader and heats a tune up plenty.

● "TELL MY BABY (Just What I Say)" (2:30) [Russel BMI—Bernie Cates] Dolores Ware gets in the "cat" kick with this middle tempo bounce with romantic lyrics. An infectious, rhythmic ditty solidly sold.

GEORGE BENSON
(Groove 0024)

● "IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN ME #2" (2:30) [Progressive Music BMI—King Curtis] George Benson chants the Ray Charles hit with lyrics and voice for the younger set. Fair etching.

● "SHE MAKES ME MAD" (2:56) [Raleigh Music BMI—Lincoln Chase] The lad sings a middle tempo bouncer with lots of style. Ok side.

JOHNNY OTIS ORCHESTRA
(Savoy 1132)

● "MAMBO BOOGIE" (2:41) [Savoy Music BMI—J. Otis] Disk is a mambo item done several years ago that has stirred up some action in Philly when aired by one of the jocks. Good beat and still fresh.

● "MAMBO BLUES" (2:40) [Crossroads BMI—H. Bancos] Robert Banks and the Waileros etch the flip. A slow beat mambo instrumental that provides good dance tempo.

THE THRILLERS
(Herald 432)

● "PLEASE TALK TO ME" (2:40) [Monument BMI—Watts, Kelly] The Thrillers blend on a slow ballad blues with a heartfelt performance. The lead does a fine emotional performance with excellent support from the group. A goodie that should go a long way to establishing this team.

● "LIZABETH" (2:41) [Angel BMI—Singleton, R. McCoy] A middle tempo jump item on the drinking kick. The boys bounce the tune with a potent drive that is in the vein now hitting big. A strong coupling for the ballad. Either could be big.

JAZZ

(Rating is based on appeal to the jazz market.)

JACKIE BURNS
(BBS 136)

● "SABRE DANCE" (2:40) [Leeds] Jackie Burns' fingers fly over the keyboard as he beats out a rhythmic and intriguing treatment of the fascinating item.

● "YOU ARE MY DREAM" (2:41) [Juniper ASCAP—Jackie Burns] Another quick beat piano item with Burns supplying a stylish jazz vocal reading. Jackie has an appealing style that should command attention and a following.

ART BLAKEY-SABU
(Blue Note 1626)

● "MESSAGE FROM KENYA" (2:53) [Blakey] Art Blakey on the drums and Sabu on the Conga drums provide a thrilling skin duo that should bring drum solos back into the solo limelight of the Krupa heyday. The exhibition is embroidered with a jungle chant that lends the exciting African flavor. The Blakey-Sabu team provides an exciting wax item that should pull plenty at the sales counter.

● "NOTHING BUT THE SOUL" (2:50) [Blakey] More of same but this time it's Art Blakey on a soul of the percussions and how that man can beat it.

FRANK MINION
and LOU BENNET TRIO
(Apollo 821)

● "SWEET LORRAINE" (2:16) [Mills Music ASCAP—Parrish & Burwell] Frank Minion sings a slow modern piece with a bop vocal. Infectious ditty with the Lou Bennet Trio providing the musical assist.

● "HOW HIGH THE MOON" (2:40) [Chappell Music ASCAP—Hamilton & Lewis] This lad has a fresh style and though he has that bop sound it is very commercial. Disk has loads of appeal. A happy thing and the Lou Bennet Trio shows off to good advantage.

JAY JAY JOHNSON SEXTET WITH CLIFORD BROWN
(Blue Note 1621)

● "CAPRI" (2:53) [Gigi Gryce] The Jay Jay Johnson Sextet work over a really cool reading of the quick beat item. The melodic ditty shows up some sparkling solo and ensemble work of a talented sextet comprised of Clifford Brown, trumpet; Jay Jay Johnson, trombone; Jimmy Heath, tenor sax; John Lewis, piano; Percy Heath, bass; Kenny Clarke, drums.

● "TURNPIKE" (2:51) [Jay Jay Johnson] The Sextet runs through a racing quick beat with a sensational solo by Clifford Brown highlighting the disk. Succeeding solos by Heath on the sax, Johnson on the trumpet, and John Lewis on the piano are equally brisk. Two stimulating sides.

THE CASH BOX RHYTHM N' BLUES Ramblings

NEW YORK:

George Goldner, Tico and Rama head, got a kick out of a couple of programs he tuned in on when he was on his recent tour of the country. George caught Warren, Ohio and Las Vegas stations playing The Crows "I Love You So," the flip side of "Gee." The record was issued about 15 or 16 months ago and broke the charts in New York and Philadelphia on the ballad "I Love You So" side. Then L. A. turned it over and "Gee" hit big in R & B, flowed over and made the best sellers in pop. Now says Goldner, if only they turn it over again maybe I can get another 12 or 15 months of "I Love You So." . . . All that quiet emanating from Atlantic Records offices is due to the recent minor surgery performed on Jerry Wexler. . . . Herman Lubinsky all stirred up about his new Luther Bond and the Emeralds release. The disk, "You Were My Love" and "Starlight, Starbright," getting a great reaction from the distributors. . . . Mercury Artists Corp. has signed Bertice Reading, Groove Records, to a three year contract. . . . Stan Pat (WTTM-Trenton, N. J.) starts his 10 to midnight stint on June 26. Stan will do a rhythm and blues show spotting some jazz and mambo. . . . Bruce Records "Memories of You" by the Harptones getting real strong play out on the coast. Hear that several publishers are bidding for the tune. . . . Jack Braverman's (Herald Records) boy, Theodore, married Jerry

THE CROWS

Blaine's (Jubilee Records) daughter, Enid, Saturday, June 19 at the Forest Hills Jewish Center. . . . Romaine Brown and the Romaines have been signed to a three year contract by Danny Kessler of Groove. The first recording session will be cut shortly. Jolly Joyce, manager of the Four Tunes, also handles the Romaines.

CHICAGO:

Here we are celebrating the "12th Anniversary" of The Cash Box. Seems like yesterday that we were busily planning our "11th Anniversary" issue. What has the last 12 months brought forth? . . . Leonard and Phil Chess of the Chess 'n' Checker labels enjoyed another phenomenally successful year. Hit after hit. Beginning with "I'm Mad" by Willie Mabon. And its follow-up, "I'm Glad" by Mitzi Mars. The smash, "Blues With A Feeling" by Little Walter, who has since become a top name. Also the first in a string of successive hits by Muddy Waters, "Mad Love." Which Muddy has followed with "I'm Your Hoochie Koochie Man" and the current top seller here in the Windy City, "Just Make Love To Me." Danny Overbea has just come out with "You're Mine" which the Chess' feel will go pop. They have now gone a step further and have brought out a folk and western tune. There's simply no stopping these lads. . . . '54 saw two new labels come into being. The first of these, Vee-Jay Records. Headed by Gary disc-jockey Vivian Carter, with Jimmy Bracken and Chi rep, Leo Kolheim. Their second release by The Spaniels has proven to be a smash, "Goodnight Sweetheart, Goodnight," now riding high on the 'Hot Charts'. . . . The second new label is J.O.B. Records. With Joe Brown at the helm. . . . Our very good friends George and Ernie Leaner acquired the Epic line for their United Distributors with which they have done beautifully. Along with other labels such as Apollo, Lloyds, Peacock, Prestige, Duke, to name just a few Milt Salstone of M. S. Distributors reports they are continuing to zoom ahead. . . . Everyone was thrilled by the miraculous recovery of Mahalia Jackson. Greatest of spiritualists. Now back again and better than ever. . . . To these and all our friends, we would like to express our sincerest best wishes for continued success and our heartfelt thanks for their tremendous cooperation. You are the people who have made this "12th Anniversary" possible.

LOS ANGELES:

The new Savoy Ballroom's policy is to book double attractions to appear each week-end. On June 18th Amos Milburn and his orchestra along with Choker Campbell's orchestra appeared. On the 25th another top twin billing was featured with Ruth Brown and Johnny Hodges and His All Stars. Mickey Cohen, president of the Savoy Amusement Corp., stated that since opening they have pulled in crowds that far surpassed all expectations and that they expect an even larger attendance as the new ballroom becomes more firmly established. . . . Mercury Records are going all out on their latest R & B entry "Please, Please" by a new group called The Eagles. They all say it could easily be another "Sh-Boom." . . . Louis Jordan returned to the West Coast with an engagement at The Green Mill Ballroom in Ventura 6/18. Jordan's latest Aladdin waxing of "I Seen What'cha Done" b/w "Messy Bessy" are claimed to be his hottest sides to date. . . . Johnny Otis and his orchestra continue their long stand at the Club Alimony. Rumors have been circulated around that Otis prefers to stay in Southern California and will not go on long tours. However, Ben Waller's office advises that he's all set to hit the road as soon as good bookings can be lined up.

AMOS MILBURN

. . . Correction:—Last week we stated that Peggy Ann was sharing the billing at the Club Oasis with Scat Man Crothers, Rockin' Ricco and Johnny Anderson's band. Her name is Patty Ann, not Peggy Ann as was previously stated. Patty is the adopted daughter of Eddie Mesner, Aladdin Records head. . . . The new Blaze Recording of "Diesel Drive" by Johnny Moore and His Three Blazers has been getting a lot of air time throughout L.A. . . . Fabor Robison, prexy of Abbott Records, is going all out to promote his latest rhythm and blues tune "Can't Get You Outta My Mind" b/w "Sugar Doll" by Billy King. . . . Included in the latest Specialty packages of new releases are two sides by Roy Milton and "The Miltones" which Roy penned himself. Titles are "Gonna Leave You Baby" b/w "It's Too Late." Both are top grade vocals that could click.

Commercial Material Is Hard To Find

by AL SILVER and JACK ANGEL

One of the greatest problems that confronts a record label is the acquisition of fresh material with a commercial appeal.

The average record buyer does not realize the intensive activity behind the scenes, this never ending search for new material. At times it may be necessary for an A & R man to travel thousands of miles in search of a new tune.

When a record company decides to record one of its artists, it sends out a call to all publishers and songwriters. Within a few days the material starts to flow in. Then a sifting of this material ensues, in which the purpose is to find the tune with the greatest hit potential.

In this part of the search for material, the A & R man must keep in mind the artist he intends to record, and make sure that when the final choice is made, the tune is the proper type for that particular artist and his or her style.

Once the final decision is made, arrangers are called in to help create a musical background that will enhance the tune, and help present the artist to the record buying public in his or her most attractive manner.

All in all putting out a record is no simple matter when you consider the fact that each record is a problem in its own, and that there is no set formula. Today with the buyers market being in one of the worst slumps that the industry has experienced, and with so many labels coming into being, the acquisition of material is becoming increasingly difficult.

In the short time that Herald Records have been in the record business, we have been fortunate enough to create three successive hit records in a row and hope that by applying ourselves diligently to the sifting, rejection and acceptance of material and artists, to be able to market many more hit records.

Congratulations

Public Acceptance Of Spirituals Greater Than Ever

by

BESS BERMAN

When people start humming "The Lord's Prayer," "Just As I Am," "The Last Mile" and other spirituals, you realize that the record-buying public is not only taking inventory of its faith outside the church but is also moved by the sheer beauty of these sacred songs.

Spirituals have been traditionally sung with many beautiful and intricate arrangements, mostly in Baptist and Methodist churches, but it took a Mahalia Jackson and her recording, "Move On Up A Little Higher," to revolutionize the record business. For the first time, spirituals became popular with the public and therefore highly commercial.

Judged by usual juke-box standards, spiritual singing defies analysis. Mahalia Jackson created a new market for the hymn by injecting a bouncy rhythm in her arrangements while still retaining the cathedral-like tones of the melody.

This, in turn, created a new outlet for song-writers who began composing melodies for the pop labels which were unmistakably spiritual in origin. The Ink Spots' recording of "It Is No Secret What God Can Do," Frankie Laine's "I Believe" and Roy Hamilton's recording, "You'll Never Walk Alone," along with many of the old Golden Gate Quartet melodies, were by-products of the spiritual. Public acceptance of these modernized liturgicals made it possible for an unknown composer from Nashville to hit the jackpot with "Crying In The Chapel."

Spiritual songs today are big business. However, there is a tendency for some quartets to get too commercial with their tricky rhythms. The current crop of gospel singers coat their songs with too much glamor and not enough religion. This robs the spiritual of its ethereal quality and classic simplicity without which it becomes just another pop tune.

In that sense, Mahalia Jackson is unique. "The Queen of Gospel Singers" avoids niteries and theater engagements and sings only in churches and concert halls.

Major disk labels are jumping on the spiritual bandwagon with increasing fervor. One reason for the mounting popularity of spiritual pops is the ever-recurring world crises which leave a huge gap in a person's faith. A spiritual just echoes our hope in the future.

The Latest Trend: R & B Disks Are Going Pop

by

JERRY WEXLER and AHMET ERTEGUN

If rhythm and blues music keeps happening the way it has been, we're all going to wake up one morning and find ourselves in the middle of a full-fledged trend—and if there's one thing everybody in the music business seems to love, it's a trend. Trends make copy. For the group known as "a posteriori portent" spotters (bow-takers to you), trends satisfy the ego. For some souls trends even sell sheet music and records.

Like the hillbilly movement that began three or four years ago, the jazz craze of the early 'twenties, the swing era of the 'thirties, the blues style appears to be infiltrating the pop marketplace. Of course, the blues have happened before—but about that, more later.

How can one tell that rhythm and blues is coming? Well, there's a raft of objective evidence, but even if there weren't, you'd know something was happening if only from the number of Broadway songwriters who check in for the short course in the blues, and from the inquiries of established publishers who scent copy sales in the works of Chuck Willis and Ruth Brown. In all seriousness, the interest of Tin Pan Alley in rhythm and blues is very significant, because the professional songwriters and music publishers are utterly committed to a knowledge of the trade winds, and as Custodians of Copyright they have to know.

To get down to the nub of it, here's what happened:

As far as we can determine, the first area where the blues stepped out in the current renaissance was the South. Distributors there about two years ago began to report that white high school and college kids were picking up on the rhythm and blues records—primarily to dance to. From all accounts, the movement was initiated by youthful hillbilly fans rather than the pop bobbysoxers—and the latter group followed right along. A few alert pop disk jockeys observed the current, switched to rhythm and blues formats, and soon were deluged with greater audiences, both white and negro, and more and more sponsors.

Conservative old line Victor franchised record stores in southern cities who not long ago regarded Decca and Mercury as offbrand upstarts found themselves compelled to stock, display, and push rhythm and blues recordings, and are happily wailing up a lot of volume to the "pop" audience that their Northern counterparts are now beginning to suspect may be there. The southern bobbysoxers began to call the r & b records that move them

"cat" music. And what kind moves them? Well, it's the up-to-date blues with a beat, with infectious catch phrases, and with highly danceable rhythms. Not all r & b qualifies as cat music. It has to kick, it has to move, and it has to have a message for the sharp youngsters who dig.

Rather than risk becoming pedantic, we hereby refrain from further attempt at definition, and instead offer a few examples of the cat genre—records which swept the rhythm & blues markets and went on to become favorites with many, many young white record fans: Lloyd Price's "Lawdy Miss Clawdy," The Clovers' "Good Lovin'" and "Lovey Dovey," The Drifters' "Money Honey" and "Such A Night," The Crows' "Gee," Joe Turner's "Honey Hush," The Four Tunes' "Marie," Ruth Brown's "Mama," Amos Milburn's "Bad Bad Whiskey," and, most recently, The Chords' "Sh-Boom." (Note the preponderance of groups—paralleling the current dominance of groups in the strictly pop field.)

The cat market spread through Texas, Louisiana, Georgia, Florida, and in the Carolinas was marked particularly by the appearance of the "beach record"—disks (as often as not jumping blues items) released in the spring and played all summer on seaside jukeboxes and portables. California went strong and early for the blues, aided no doubt by the pachuco predilection for swinging jazz rhythms.

Cat worked its way north, and now Boston and Cleveland are jumping, as are Philadelphia and Detroit, and Pittsburgh is well on the way. Chicago and St. Louis have not been immune, and these two important pop markets are showing signs of the cat conversion.

One of the big tip-offs is the record hop. The pop deejays in New England and the middle west who began to visit the high schools with a satchelful of Eddie Fisher's and Jo Stafford's found the kids asking for The Clovers and Fats Domino, and it behooved the spinners to find out who and what the kids had in mind and to produce the records. For every two or three Como's and Patti Page's, the record hop jockeys now have to put on a cat record so that the kids can swing out.

The juke box operators, even more directly involved than the jockeys, have been putting blues and cat disks into more and more so-called "pop" locations, and initial operator reaction to blues records is now a good key to whether the record is going to be just an r & b seller, a cat item—or, too often, nothing.

Wherefore this predilection? In our opinion, it stems from the kids' need for dance records. With all due respect to the fine dance bands that have weathered the epizootic that blighted the band business after the last war and to the few new ones that have achieved some success on records and on the road, they don't seem to furnish what was furnished by Goodman and Lunceford and Miller and Dorsey. Bostic is furnishing it, and so is Bradshaw and Miss Brown and the leading groups abovementioned.

The pop record companies are taking cognizance, and they're covering. In some instances the cover records make out. In most cases the original r & b or cat record seems to wax stronger with each additional cover version. But in any case, cat music is really on stage in the national music scene.

The same holds true of our leading pop deejays in most important record markets. Three attitudes seem to prevail:

(1) Cat music knocks me out—I'm going to play all the good ones I can find and see if I can't put them over in my territory.

(2) I don't know—if Jones, the top deejay in the city really makes one of these things locally, sure I'll play it, but I won't pioneer the stuff.

(3) Not on my show. (The negative attitude is similar to that which was encountered in some places during the "swing era".)

But what's significant is that everybody is compelled to take a stand. They've all heard about it and it's a real live issue.

We don't know if any great conclusions can be drawn from all this, except maybe this: Beware of too much categorizing (no pun intended). Rhythm & blues is folk music, like a lot of hillbilly and Latin music and some pop. Record buyers don't read the charts—if a record knocks them out they buy it and take it home and play it for their friends, and Percy Faith's new one is right next to Dinah Washington's latest in the parlor record rack.

It happened before, back in the 'twenties, when Perry Bradford and Spencer Williams were as hot as Berlin and Bessie Smith and Ethel Waters sold their records in the millions into a lot of white parlors. It's happening again, and the blues will get stronger before they get weaker, but regardless of its impact on the pop field, the blues will surely go on.

The Outlook For Latin-American Disks

by SIDNEY SIEGEL

The Spanish-American record market has this year seen a tremendous increase in the popularity of the 45 rpm disk. Without exception, the sales of selections from our 45 rpm catalog have doubled, as compared with 1953 figures, in every Seeco market. The introduction of the new 45 rpm juke boxes, coupled with price reductions in the reconditioned juke box market and increased production of automatic home phonos for export, point up the fact that this is only the beginning of a new and most important trend in record sales.

The Seeco catalog was among the very first to introduce the double or simultaneous release of selections on both 45 rpm and 78 rpm disks. Although the 45 rpm market is already a proven bonanza, there still, at this writing, are a number of labels in the foreign markets who have not begun 45 rpm production. From the onset, the major juke box distributors were enlisted in our effort to evoke the change in consumer habits. Today we continue to work hand in hand with these distributors, who have done an excellent job in helping us to develop many areas.

The Spanish-American area continues to be a "standards" market. Numbers which have been hits for several years still sell in large quantities even though newer and bigger catalogs are sent to these countries continuously. Conversely, new tunes, "modern" tunes, are torn apart by the buying public and only those pieces that closely adhere to Spanish-American music standards can survive. The education of American A & R men by Spanish-American leaders of legit Latin combos and orchestras has led to the maintenance of the truly Spanish mood of Latin music and these same leaders have introduced and are introducing new trends in Spanish music as well as novel and different bits.

Several years ago the Latino's "progressives" who began with Perez Prado, Chano Pozo, and Machito, to name a few, introduced a new off-beat accelerated rumba to the United States. They later adapted some of the qualities of the original Gillespie pop to the rhythm of the Cuban "tres" (a three-string guitar used in the rural sections of Cuba) and reimported this off-beat rumba as an entirely new rhythm, the mambo. Before the American public became aware of this new music, the "originals" such as "Mambo No. 5", "Mambo Inferno" and "Que Rico El Mambo", invaded the U. S. music market from Mexico, Venezuela, Cuba and Puerto Rico, and seemingly overnight millions of American rumba devotees became mambo aficionados.

On the band wagon jumped Ramon Marquez with still a different beat, the "Suby," and from the plains of Matanzas, Cuba, Arsenio Rodriguez, the dean of Cuban music introduced the "Cha-Cha." These new rhythms were "started" in New York's East Side and Harlem, traveled half-way around the world and showed up again in Times Square, polished and sophisticated.

This brings up another important trend in Spanish-American music, the interchange of popular music and dances between North and South America. Most recently the song "Sway" has been released here. This tune has been in Seeco's catalog for quite some time under the title "Quien Sera." Then too, "You Too, You Too" was originally known as "Piel Canela," and "Perhaps, Perhaps, Perhaps" was the very popular "Quizas, Quizas, Quizas." Of course, this interchange works both ways; "Anna" and "April in Portugal," "Doggie in the Window" and others soon had Spanish versions, and the Latin-American public even got to hear a "Dragonet Mambo." This exchange of basic rhythms and tunes doctored up with local medicine to make them palatable to the various markets keeps us the best of friends—through music.

Seeco is currently pressing its full catalogue in every major market in Central and South America. Smaller markets are covered by distributors, while our London office is in charge of the sterling area sales in the western hemisphere. Today the mambo, the bolero, the guaracha and the chacha are as popular in St. Vincent and Bermuda as they are in Caracas and Bogota. It is our purpose and our dedication to keep this so.

R & B Field Continues To Expand

by DANNY KESSLER

The rhythm and blues business continues to expand into larger and larger proportions.

For the past ten years this formerly unknown quantity called "rhythm and blues" has grown steadily until now it is a major factor in the record and entertainment world. The growth of the field in general has meant at the same time the introduction of some great rhythm and blues artists.

Many unknowns who were earning five dollars a night singing in small clubs are now earning as much as $1500 a week in personal appearances and thousands of dollars a year in record royalties. These artists have been developed mainly through the small independent recording companies whose record output is almost 100% rhythm and blues. Until just recently the independent companies ruled the field entirely, but now the major companies have started to make a mark in this business because of the increase in sales potential for this type of music.

A good example is my own company, Groove—which is a subsidiary label of RCA. Being so new, the label is concerned mostly with the discovery and development of new artists, and we travel around the country constantly trying to seek out unknown talent which we believe can be a success on records. The territories in which the best crop of artists can be found include cities like New Orleans, Atlanta, Memphis, Charlotte, Los Angeles, Chicago and New York. These territories incidentally, are also the places where R & B records sell best.

Rhythm and blues, like every other musical field, has its definite trends, and for the next few years the record buyer will undoubtedly be looking for something entirely different.

Several trends have come along since the days of the "Conversation Blues." One is the "Slow Southern Story Blues." Another is the song hitchhike, which is so widespread in the hillbilly field. For example, the song "Where Is My Honey" has become a big rhythm and blues hit, and as soon as this song hits the bestseller charts, another artist will record what must be named as an answer to the first song such as "I Know Where Your Honey Is." Recently, the novelty shouting type of blues with gimmick titles such as "Hound Dog" and "Bear Cat" have been great hits.

One of the biggest trends currently is the covering of a top pop hit with a rhythm and blues interpretation. There have been many hits on a strict R & B interpretation of both pop hits and pop standards. This situation makes it necessary for an A & R man to be aware not only of other rhythm and blues records but also to be conscious of hits in any field because a cover record by the right artist on the right material can be as big a hit—if not bigger—on the R & B charts as the pop is in its own category.

There are always trends, too, as far as artists are concerned. For several months it is the female artist who seems to have all the hits. Then suddenly the charts are filled by the vocal groups. Several months later the scene again changes, and the solo male artist comes into his own and grabs all the hits. Occasionally the instrumental groups come along with a big record, but this is rare. It is obvious after a quick look at the rhythm and blues business that this now-important field follows the same pattern of trends and changes as do all other phases of the record business.

An A & R man naturally feels great excitement when one of his new, unknown artists rises to stardom. I, personally, get a real big thrill out of seeing an artist who has always played small honky-tonks suddenly become a big nightclub attraction through the medium of records.

The Groove label, which is probably the newest entry into the rhythm and blues picture, has many ambitious and long-range plans designed to develop such attractions. The roster is now filled with artists who we believe have what it takes to grow into big stars within the next few years.

I know one thing for certain—the sales charts will show us exactly whether we're right or wrong.

The Jazz Scene: Past Present And Future

by BOBBY SHAD

The jazz record business as it is formed today is completely different from what anyone imagined as of 1938. At that time the only records available were some Victor swing classics with Lionel Hampton, the Billy Holiday outlay on Columbia and Vocalion and the Lucky records that crept through the bravado of various A & R men. The only important recording actually done was the work the majors did with the big bands. The Basie, Ellington, Goodman, Lunceford, Barnet organizations took the largest strides in getting recognition for sidemen. Through these recordings you began to hear of Lionel Hampton, Lester Young with Basie, Charlie Parker with McShann and so on. The only labels at the time producing any jazz were two indie labels. There was a thirst for jazz records that was unequalled till the mid-forties when suddenly everyone and his mother started to produce what was commonly called jazz. The market was saturated within a short time thereafter. There was so much junk about, that it covered up all decent and worthwhile records of any note. One of the miracles of this mound of music called jazz was the ridiculous term of be-bop. This was similar to waving a red flag. Unfortunately, the jazz buyers of the late thirties and early forties had gone to war and came back after a four year revolution in jazz, as well as the battle field. The same terms were applied to Bop that we affectionally throw at dixieland today (and yesterday). It took ten years to educate the public that music has progressed. Jazz has probably taken the most tremendous strides of any form of music in the past fifty years. You have a more discriminating public. They do not buy jazz for the sake of proving their intellect, but they have gained a tremendous amount of knowledge and enjoyment that the early listeners had no way of obtaining. Through this sensational output of records has emerged a completely new market. New buyers, new recordings, high fidelity. Volume among all these various record companies producing jazz is 100 times the maximum of the early forties.

THE DISK JOCKEY IN JAZZ

Unfortunately, most disk jockeys don't know jazz from a hole in the record. You must gratefully give thanks to the minority of them that faithfully play modern music. Believe it or not, there are not more than 100, and probably less, authentic jazz DJ's in this country. Of course there is the matter of money which causes most working DJ's to veer away from this type of programming. (Ha!) Our authentic jazz DJ's musical knowledge is so far superior to that of the normal pop DJ, yet he is put in the same category as any common disease. All modern music of any note was born out of jazz. Good jazz. To hear some DJ's extolling the jazz values of a pop band of 14 years ago that had no jazz value then and has much less now is pretty disgusting. On the other hand, they will not play a record of jazz value today. This brings up the pop DJ that will play modern music. It has been one of the great factors in the new recorded music. If the most popular DJ can devote one-half hour to jazz, Joe Smallhead looks pretty ridiculous in refusing to play, you'll excuse the expression, "jazz."

One of the mysteries in my life will be the complete indifference to the new jazz, yet one after another, DJ's get on the air with the profound announcement that they are playing one of the great jazz records and then put on Glen Miller or Artie Shaw or Goodman. Fellows, that was fourteen years ago! They're wearing different style clothing, cars have been improved, and there is the Kinsey report on sex. Take off your blindfolds—there are other musicians in the past few years that need to be played now, not fourteen years from today. One of the big helps has been the rhythm & blues disk jockeys. Not all of them, but fifty percent play quite a bit of modern music.

THE INDEPENDENT IN THE JAZZ BUSINESS

You must give credit to the Granz type concert which helped tremendously. This commercial jazz concert helped put over all kinds of jazz. Helped discover people like Peterson and Gillespie and bring out the Parkers and the Dave Brubecks. Concert jazz has the faculty of combining the most commercial in music with the ultra modern. He has made an art of applause, but through this medium he has enabled records of tremendous value to be issued and sold profit-wise. Jazz musicians today are receiving more money than at any other time in their existence. Granz, Lyons (Bluenote), Prestige, Pacific, Roost and others have put jazz on the map today.

THE LP AND HI-FI

With the issuance of LP on jazz, people suddenly discovered a new medium. The adaptability of high fidelity to all this has made a new market. You have almost seen the disappearance of 78 rpm records in this market. LP's are selling the equal of old 78 rpm records only at a cost of four times as much. Your classical buyer has payed attention to jazz records and suddenly become a buyer and vice versa. There's one thing for which I must give credit to the jazz business. Recording-wise and material-wise, the good jazz records can make pop records look pretty ridiculous. Unfortunately, the almighty buck rears its beautiful head and causes us to hide. One wishes enough quality stores had the presence of mind to display this product decently and watch their surprise as sales increase. You are just never stuck with a jazz LP. It is virtually unheard of. This is a fact—there have been sales of 50,000 on a jazz LP!

In the past year, one can see the entry into the jazz field of just about every major—Victor with numerous labels, Columbia with its new accent on this field, Decca is recording LP's, Capitol has started some re-issues and has always had Kenton, Mercury has started the EmArcy label. You can expect within the next year a pre-dominance of jazz releases, but once again remember, only the good ones will remain.

One of the most amazing things about this medium is its acceptability on the foreign market. Believe it or not, you sell more jazz records in different countries than you do in the United States. The demand is tremendous. The approach is completely different. Jazz is treated as an art in Europe and Asia. Only in the United States where its largest steps have been taken and imitated is it treated like an orphan. Artists who have played in Sweden, France and Japan are amazed at the response they receive. They are known by their records and are not treated as freaks. They are accorded the respect due them and they do not have to take off their clothes or lie on their backs or perform any gratuities outside of those necessary.

In the next year you will probably hear some of the finest jazz possible released by all record companies. The main reason for their quality will be the fierce competition. Advertising will be increased; radio plays will increase; some adventuresome DJ that has a tremendous pop audience will champion jazz more and more; and with this increase you will see sales completely out of scope to the nineteen forties.

Records Give People The Music They Want When They Want It

by HERMAN LUBINSKY

I can remember back in 1939 when I just put my both feet in the record business (pressings were 10½c). It was a great business, no unfair competition, no payolas, no cloak and suiters, no hit and runners and all radio stations eager to play your records and dealers waiting in line with greenbacks to buy your records.

But things have changed since mother was a girl and a lot of record companies have gone over the dam because they didn't have the know-how. Now I hear a lot of talk about what this record business needs is a big hit. That's a lot of boloney. What the record industry needs is less record releases—over all—there are too many record companies releasing records and the buyers are confused. Too many manufacturers are over-looking the juke boxes and figure that they are unimportant. To me they're just as important as a disk jockey—how blind can they be?

Television has cut a lot of inroads into record buying—a free evening's entertainment for the cost of the juice. If you don't believe it, next time you're in the slums, look up on the roofs of the shacks and see not one, but 2 T.V. aerials and, remember, that's a big part of our business.

We make records for the "Man with the Dinner Pail". He's got his T.V. for his entertainment—but when he wants music of his liking, its records—"The music he wants"—when he wants it and as many times as he wants it.

The record business is here to stay but it's getting narrower day by day. The whole method of distribution needs an overhauling. Likewise the industry needs one too.

Smutty, double entendre records should be banned. The industry needs a "Will Hayes" as it is the most disorganized one of all in the U. S. Not to fix prices but to straighten the weak boys out in their conduct. It's a great business, full of evils and some evils are necessary. Maybe the amplitude of good judgment has been trespassed, but I can see prosperity arise out of chaos when the cloak and suiters return to their fold.

The Cash Box has become a daily necessity—the job of the editor being a thankless one trying to satisfy everyone in the industry—a bit of selfishness here and there—on the part of an over enthusiastic manufacturer—a bit of high pressure here and there and, as usual, they all live through it.

Keep up the good work.

Don Robey Built His Record Firms On High Principles

DON ROBEY

Don Robey has always claimed that because one of his night club entertainers didn't see eye to eye with a record affiliation back in 1949, Don Robey built, in just five years, two of the strongest independent labels in the entire record business, Peacock Records and Duke Records.

Having no experience in the industry to guide him, Don applied the golden rule and his midas-like touch in the selection of artists and gathered such names together as Willie Mae Thornton, Johnny Ace, Gatemouth Brown, Johnny Otis, Little Junior Parker, Junior Ryder, Marie Adams, Earl Forest and Joe Fritz to mention a few well-known artists in the Rhythm & Blues field.

Realizing that there was tremendous potential in the field of spiritual music, Don again reached out and gathered a galaxy of stars including the Original Five Blind Boys, Bells of Joy, Dixie Humming Birds, Sister Jessie Mae Renfro, Spirits of Memphis, Brother Cleophus Robinson and the Sensational Gales.

Peacock Records today is quite a different proposition than it was five years ago. Its first home was an 8 x 10 office on Lyons Avenue in Houston. Its staff consisted of Don Robey and one secretary. It had a roster of one artist. But hard work, careful management and endless patience saw the young firm work up a great momentum.

Peacock introduced the idea of adding a drum to the beat of spiritual groups. Later it further supplemented spirituals with horns and it looks as though full orchestration will be next.

In 1951, spurred on by the tremendous success of "Our Father" by the Original Five Blind Boys, which was the biggest selling spiritual record of the year and which is still registering consistent sales, Don bought Ralph Records' pressing plant and Quinn Records' processing plant and began turning out his own product.

1951 also saw the staff of Peacock Records grow by one. Irving Marcus came in as Sales Representative and the records began to go out faster and farther.

In 1952, Don acquired an interest in Duke Records of Memphis, Tennessee, but Don sheepishly admits he was not at all interested in a record he was asked to audition by a young unknown singer named Johnny Ace. The disk, submitted for audition only, made with only two instruments—a piano and saxophone—and Ace's singing, was called "My Song" and sold 53,000 copies in its original form at the NAMM Convention in New York before the first record was pressed.

Peacock was again rewarded with the best spiritual record of the year in 1952 when it released "Let's Talk About Jesus" by the Bells of Joy.

As far as Johnny Ace goes, Don says his biggest chagrin even today is his seemingly constant practice of putting out two-sided Johnny Ace hits.

1953 saw such progress that Peacock outgrew its offices. The firm moved to its present site, a modern 150 by 100 foot building, where the entire operation could be centralized but not before Willie Mae Thornton copped the award for the best R&B record of 1953 with "Hound Dog" or The Five Blind Boys received an award for the most programmed spiritual group of the year.

Today Peacock Records' home staff consists of 23 busy technicians, secretaries, shipping personnel and the like. In addition Don constantly thinks about the 43 American and foreign distributors who handle the Peacock and Duke labels and the 500 disk jockeys throughout the country who play them daily on their radio shows.

In early 1954, Peacock installed a luxurious recording studio with the finest recording equipment available, which was the finishing touch to what it has always been from the start—Big Business. Deserving all the pride he has in his tremendous achievement, Don says, "Following our proven formula that endless patience, hard work, careful management, and above all, respect for your fellow man pays off, I kinda feel that the best is yet to come."

When the Great Day Comes

by FRED MENDELSON

Everybody has a theory on how to return the record business to its normal capacity. Here's mine! I simply feel that there is nothing wrong with the business but the people in it. It's a case of locking the barn after the horse has been stolen. This is my idea on how to return that horse. The retailer must sell records of all labels which are accepted by the public. He must have a wider variety of merchandise for his customers who want Classical, Pop, R & B, Country Jazz, etc. "You can't do business from an empty wagon."

The distributor should stay in his own back yard and promote merchandise from accredited labels. His job is strictly to promote and sell. He should have nothing else on his mind, such as manufacturing, pressing, retailing, etc. "Too many cooks spoil the broth."

The manufacturer should concentrate on records the industry can be proud of. Smut, double entendre racial slurs, etc. must go. He must know the problem of the distributor and retailer and he must act accordingly. Too many releases reflect in sales. You must promote harder and longer to get the best results. "Big oaks from little acorns grow."

When the industry recognizes these evils, and everybody does the job they are supposed to do, the industry will become more prosperous than ever before. Watch and see — "WHEN THAT GREAT DAY COMES."

Three Grads

NEW YORK—Three notable figures, all New York City Stuyvesant High School Alumni, were among those honored at the school's 50th anniversary dinner. They were, left to right, Robert M. Weitman, vice-president of the Radio and Television Division of the American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, Inc.; Frank Hussey, Stuyvesant's greatest athlete and U.S. Olympic star, and Ted Husing, veteran sports-caster and conductor of the WMGM "Bandstand" program. The three grads are shown holding their achievement awards presented to them at the dinner which was the opening gun of a scholarship drive for deserving students.

has a fresh offering on the market "Haunting Waterfall" and "Dancerette" that should add to his growing list of successful tunes! Occasionally, there pops up a song that continues to get the play over a period of time. Two such incidents of this type of song are Red Foley's "As far As I'm Concerned," recorded with Betty Foley. THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE of the WEEK

"MOODY'S GOOSE" (2:32) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Carlises, Lawley, Mack]
 "IF YOU DON'T WANT IT" (2:05) [Cedarwood BMI—Hager, Glasgow]

THE CARLISES
 (Mercury 70405)

● The Carlises, recently nominated "The Most Programmed Vocal Group" in the annual Cash Box Disk Jockey Poll, make their bid for continued laurels with two happy sounding sides. Top half dubbed

"Moody's Goose" is an entertaining light-hearted novelty with the cutest lyrics. The lower lid, "If You Don't Want It," subtitled "The Salesman's Song," bounces along in real delightful fashion. Great instrumental work on two winners.

"I AIN'T GOT NOTHIN' BUT TIME" (2:42)
 [Acuff-Rose BMI—H. Williams]

"I'M SATISFIED WITH YOU" (2:32) [Milene ASCAP—Rose]

HANK WILLIAMS
 (MGM 11768)

● And once more MGM digs into the seemingly endless collection of Hank Williams' tunes. Hank, whose name is now a legend in the annals of country music, had what it took and certainly knew what to do with it. As evident on this current release, the master's wonderful talent is displayed on an original, refreshing novelty titled "I Ain't Got Nothin' But Time." Flip, "I'm Satisfied With You" is a delightful, quick beat romantic ditty with big hit possibilities.

"HOW LONG" (2:35) [Ridgeway BMI—P. W. King, C. Covington]
 "IN A GARDEN OF ROSES" (2:16) [Coday BMI—M. J. Babbitt]

PEE WEE KING AND HIS BAND
 (RCA Victor 20-5782)

● As the old saying goes (almost), "The proof is in the pudding," and Pee Wee King and his band continue to be one of the top recording outfits in the business. The "pudding" this time is The Cash Box DeeJay Poll and the "proof" is that Pee Wee's crew won top honors as the Most Programmed Band. King's latest releases, featuring Redd Stewart's voice, are two beautiful sentimental tunes dubbed "How Long" and "In A Garden Of Roses." Both are "A" sides.

WILBURN BROTHERS (Decca 29190)

B+ "A LITTLE TIME OUT FOR LOVE" (2:15) [Cedarwood BMI—D. Wilburn, T. Wilburn] The Wilburn Brothers have a good chance to hit the big time in a big way on this enchanting, quick beat romantic item.

B+ "IF YOU LOVE ME" (2:42) [Duchess BMI—G. Parsons, M. Monnot] Under portion is a current pop smash that the boys deck out in captivating fashion. Terrific sound on both ends.

FERLIN HUSKEY (Capitol 2835)

B+ "HOMESICK" (2:45) [Central BMI—B. Cole] Ferlin Huskey takes a bow with a real inviting reading on a tender, moderate beat sentimental piece. Look for lots of play on this deck.

C "THE DRUNKEN DRIVER" (2:20) [Beechwood BMI—Arr.: G. Adams] On the lower end Huskey delivers a straight recitation of a heartbreaking tale that gets its message across. Deck's aim is to curb reckless driving.

JIMMY OSBORNE (King 1363)

B "BLUE DAYS AND LONELY NIGHTS" (2:46) [Lois BMI—E. Worley] Jimmy Osborne's voice comes across in a fine manner on a middle tempo sentimental piece. Expressive lyrics are enhanced by a pleasing string backdrop.

B "INVEST YOUR LITTLE HEART IN MINE" (2:18) [Tannen BMI—B. Carver] On the flip half, Osborne promises his sweetheart some excellent dividends if she'll take out a few shares of his love. A gay side.

BOBBY DICK (Hickory 1011)

B "I FEEL LUCKY" (Yes, I Do) (2:05) [Milene ASCAP—Rose, Heath] The distinctive vocal styling of Bobby Dick lends itself to a sparkling, quick beat tune with a cheerful set of lyrics. Strings back in easy-on-the-ear fashion.

B "A PRISONER OF A BROKEN HEART" (2:18) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Hayes] A middle tempo lover's lament is movingly projected by the mellow-toned artist. Two appealing sides.

DON PAYNE (Starday 150)

B "POGO THE HOBO" ([Starrite BMI—Payne] The smooth chords of Don Payne take the spotlight as he etches a quick beat, carefree tune in spirited style. Deck could create much excitement in the jukes.

C+ "FOREVER" [Starrite BMI—Payne] On the reverse platter, Payne comes through with a poignant reading on a slow tempo, tearful tune. Pretty blending of melody and lyrics.

JIMMY KINCHEN (Imperial 8251)

B "JUST A DREAMER" (2:00) [Commodore BMI—J. Kinchen] Jimmy Kinchen's voice has a richness to it as he waxes a lovely sentimental ballad in top notch style. Echo chamber delivery proves effective.

C+ "DON'T BE ANGRY" (2:35) [Commodore BMI—J. Kinchen] The chanter comes through with a polished performance on a moderate tempo feelingful piece. Warm string support on a pleasing platter.

Congratulations to the Cash Box on your 12th Anniversary

Tubb-Snow Set For Tour; Davis-Allbritten To Handle Promotion

NASHVILLE, TENN.—One of the strongest entertainment packages in the Country Music Field, the combined talents of Ernest Tubb (Decca) and Hank Snow (RCA Victor), has been wrapped up for a showcasing by veteran promoter Oscar Davis, and artist's manager, Dub Allbritten.

The personal appearance tour is scheduled to cover the following cities: Starting June 27th in Shreveport, La., June 28th in Galveston, Tex., June 29th in Lake Charles, La., June 30th in Houston, Tex., July 1st in Austin, Tex., and concluding engagements in Ft. Worth, Texas on July 2nd.

A special promotion will be set up in Shreveport for Ernest Tubb in commemoration of his fifteen years in showbusiness as a consistent recording artist, and a powerful personal appearance attraction. The city of Shreveport was chosen for this particular promotion as this was the first city in which Davis promoted a personal appearance for Tubb fifteen years ago. After fifteen years, Tubb today is recognized as one of the 'top' draws in the business.

Ferlin Huskey Joins Grand Ole Opry

NASHVILLE, TENN.—It was announced by executives of Radio Station WSM that Ferlin Huskey, one of Capitol Records leading country artists, with headquarters in Springfield, Mo., will affiliate himself with the famous, twenty-eight-year-old Radio Show, Grand Ole Opry. Huskey, in Nashville for a guest appearance on the half-hour Coast-to-Coast broadcast of Grand Ole Opry, was accompanied by his recording manager, Ken Nelson, Country and Western A&R head for Capitol Records. The move came as a switch-surprise, since it had been previously announced that the genial Huskey would join the Red Foley Show and work with Lou's Top Talent, Inc., at Springfield, Mo.

According to Jim Denny, WSM Artist Service Bureau head, Huskey will make his first appearance on the 'Opry' in about two weeks.

Country Artists Offer Great Television Potential

by STEVE SHOLES

The fact that Country and Western artists have found it very easy to switch from radio to TV, indicates that these artists are naturally good visual entertainers.

Singers and instrumentalists in the Country and Western field have all come up the hard way—through barn dances in real barns, school house concerts, tobacco warehouse jamborees, and tent shows. Such training forces an artist to exert every bit of showmanship he has, to attract and hold the attention of his audience. There is very little leaning-on-the-microphone technique, casual hand-in-coat-pocket, staring-into-space, or breathless delivery from these singers. They are "on" from the moment they first hit the stage. They are working to both the seen and unseen audience, every second of the time.

Styles vary, but the drive is always present.

Charline Arthur, Bill Carlisle, and Kenny Roberts are of the jumping school. They leap up and down while singing and playing their guitars, much to the consternation of radio and television control men, but to the delight of their audiences.

The walking school features the vivacious Martha Carson, and curly haired Neal Burris, who hold audience attention by their constant motion on the platform, as well as their clever singing style.

Eddy Arnold, Carl Smith, and Red Foley are of a more relaxed school of delivery, but they too, are constantly working with eyes, shoulders and feet as they pick and sing. Eddy Arnold, one of the most skilled professionals in the business, can get the audience eating out of the palm of his hand, with a few casual remarks and a mere lift of his eyebrows.

While the solo artist is working all ends against the middle, the sidemen do not remain completely immobile. They too, are competing for attention and also assist in forming a fluid backdrop for an otherwise bare stage. In fact, it is probably the lack of scenery and other usual stage properties that gives added incentive to the Country and Western artists' performance. He must work like an actor on the old Elizabethan stage where there were no props and the actor had to tell the entire story.

In direct contrast to the "jumping jack" school, there is the "cigar store Indian" performer. Bill Monroe and His Blue Grass Boys are by far the most noted exponents of this style. Bill and his four musicians group around one mike and assume a frozen-faced, statue-like stance for the entire time they are on stage. The audience, undoubtedly intrigued by the contrast, receives the group vociferously.

Country and Western audiences help tremendously. They are warm, enthusiastic, and inclined to participate if they like the show. Of course, they can be as cold as the front rows of a Shubert Alley theatre if the artist does not deliver.

People close to the entertainment field who have never seen a real Country and Western show are always amazed the first time they see one and they are equally amazed at the fact that there are so many of them constantly being staged throughout the nation.

Because none of the big shows are yet on television, the usual remarks are to the effect that these shows would be great on TV. To date the closest we have come to TV performances of this type have been local broadcasts of segments taken out of a major show. Although some of these airings are great, they are unable to achieve the overall exciting effect produced by the lengthier continuous broadcasts.

Most shows, like the Grand Ole Opry, Louisiana Hayride, Big D Jamboree, Saturday Nite Shindig, etc. run close to four hours with no repetition of songs, although various acts will come back for two or three different appearances during this four-hour performance.

There is a tremendous entertainment potential here, and when some enterprising network properly presents one of these shows on TV, there is likely to be a revolution because hill-billy artists can raise a storm on television just as they have already done on records.

EVERYONE...

Newcomers Make Disk Biz Boom

by

NORM WIENSTROER

I'm always happy to see a new record personality come up with a smash hit because I know it creates excitement, and inevitably every dealer and operator will do more business. On the basis of past performances, record buyers expect Perry Como, Nat "King" Cole, The Mills Brothers; Eddie Fisher or Frankie Laine to have hit records—but when a newcomer catches fire, the public reacts much more enthusiastically, and rushes to buy the record and play it in the juke boxes. The reaction to Johnnie Ray's "Cry" is a perfect example of spontaneous consumer acceptance. Teresa Brewer, Julius LaRosa, Al Martino, The Four Aces, Eartha Kitt, Joni James and Kitty Kallen are some of the others who sparked national sales by their entry into the recording big time.

A great deal of the credit for this business boom must go to those DJ's who spotlight and promote new talent. Bill Randle, Don McLeod, Bob Horn, Rex Dale, Howard Miller, Eddie Meath, Phil McLean and Bobby Seymour are a few of the jockeys who break through the iron curtain of monotony and repetition so prevalent in the "top 20" type of programming. Day after day, these fellows try to rouse the lethargic listeners out of the home and into the stores by varying their programs and attempting to satisfy all record buyers, and not just the hit parade followers.

I'm looking for another exciting hit by a new record star. Maybe the long distance call coming in now is a flash from one of our Distributors telling me that Coral has the next big one. It figures.

Sid Kessel Joins Southern Music

NASHVILLE, TENN.—Sid Kessel, prominent songwriter and contact man, has joined Southern Music and Peer International Publishers of New York and has opened offices for the company in Nashville, representing them in this city and the Southern territory.

For five years, Kessel worked the Tin Pan Alley circuit, doing writing chores with such noted writers in the pop field as Spencer Williams, writer of "12th Street Rag," Harry Stride, Carl Sigman, and many others. Leaving New York in 1950 and the 'pop' field with his sights set on writing for the "Country Field," Kessel began headquartering out of Nashville. Since arriving in Nashville, he has worked with such artists and writers as Tommy Sosbee, Chet Atkins, Martha Carson and Beasley Smith.

Kessel replaces Troy Martin who held this post with Southern Music for many years, and who recently joined the staff of Ridgeway Music.

Stars Attend California

'Round And 'Round She Goes And Where She Stops Nobody Knows

by DICK LINKE

Today the record business is big business. In fact, today's record industry is of such importance that the products of record companies of major importance can be bought the world over and the amount of business is still growing by leaps and bounds. Today the record business offers to young talent the same opportunity motion pictures did some years ago. In today's market an unknown singer can cut a demonstration record and over night find his voice in millions of American homes. It is the springboard for newcomers today who will be the stars of the future. As a result, record companies have found themselves in this highly competitive market, and they are turning more and more records out each year. Whether this is good or bad, only time can tell. One of the major record companies which has progressed the most is Capitol Records with executive offices in both Hollywood and New York. This company was organized by songwriter Johnny Mercer, movie producer Buddy DeSylva and Glenn E. Wallichs, one time radio repairman and former owner of Music City, now one of the country's leading self-service record shops located on Sunset & Vine in Hollywood, California.

Capitol Records was formed by these three (3) men just twelve (12) years ago, and during that short span of years has become the No. 3 most important record company in the pop record field. Today, Capitol Records is composed of thirty-seven (37) domestic distributing points, with foreign outlets all over the world. Its sales in 1953 fell just a few dollars short of the seventeen million mark which was an all-time high for the diskery.

Capitol, born as a war baby, soon outgrew this embryonic stage and during its operation, through youth and speed, made its mark among the leaders. Probably through sheer necessity, Capitol decided on creating its own talent instead of competing with the major companies for talent who were already made in the field of entertainment. Such names as Nat "King" Cole, Stan Kenton, Margaret Whiting, Kay Starr, Les Paul & Mary Ford, Pee Wee Hunt, Ray Anthony and Ella Mae Morse were solely products of Capitol Records who later on became stars in the wide fields of entertainment such as Radio, Television and Motion Pictures.

Since its inception in 1942, Capitol Records has released approximately eighteen records which have sold a million copies each, giving the firm an average of at least a one-million seller a year. In the record industry, a million-selling record is the goal of every A & R man, and since the demand exceeds the supply, they are few and far between. Some of these gems, which have been preserved through metallic science include Les Paul & Mary Ford's "HOW HIGH THE MOON", "MOCKIN' BIRD HILL", "WORLD IS WAITING FOR THE SUNRISE", and the best "VAYA CON DIOS". In fact, "VAYA" is only the second Capitol record in history to hit the two-million mark. Other million sellers included:

Nat "King" Cole "TOO YOUNG"
"NATURE BOY"
Jo Stafford "TEMPTATION"
Tex Williams "SMOKE SMOKE, SMOKE THAT CIGARETTE"
Johnny Standley "IT'S IN THE BOOK"
Ella Mae Morse "BLACKSMITH BRIES"
Kay Starr "WHEEL OF FORTUNE"
Stan Freberg "ST. GEORGE AND THE DRAGONET"
Margaret Whiting/Jimmy Wakely "SLIPPING AROUND" Jackie Gleason "MELANCHOLY SERENADE"
Dean Martin "OH"
"12TH STREET RAG", being the other second-million seller.
Peggy Lee "MANANA"

In the past few years, Capitol Records has latched on to name talent in other fields who have become best-selling record personalities. These include the fabulous Jackie Gleason, who has become a musical personality in his own right and through his best-selling albums has established himself as a first-rate musical conductor. The combination of his four albums,

"LOVER'S RHAPSODY", "MUSIC FOR LOVERS ONLY", "MUSIC TO MAKE YOU MISTY", and "TAWNY" have sold a half-million albums and have made Gleason an outstanding name in music.

Perhaps one of the most talked about comeback stories in the record industry is that of Frank Sinatra. The once sensational "Voice" signed with Capitol Records and in a short six months has become the nation's most publicized singer. His recording of "YOUNG AT HEART" has been on every best-seller list and looks like it will be the first Sinatra record made anywhere which will hit the million mark. To say Frankie Boy is happy is putting it mildly. In fact, in a recent Time Magazine article, he stated, "MUSIC IS GETTING BETTER. EVERYTHING'S AHEAD OF ME. MAN, I'M ON TOP OF THE WORLD, I'M BUOYANT."

Although most of the action has centered around popular records, don't think Capitol's history has begun and ended in this department. Today Capitol boasts of a classical department second to none and is gradually building up this department to where it will be competitive to RCA Victor and Columbia Records.

The country and western department has been greatly strengthened with Ken Nelson handling the A & R job, and on May 1st of this year, the company appointed a country and western/hillbilly promotion man who will base out of Nashville and just handle sales and promotion of this widely expanded field.

If you will pardon the pun, we would like to explain that everything is CAPITOL. 'Round and 'round she goes and where she stops nobody knows. However, all the spins in the world won't make us dizzy as we soar on to greater heights.

Best Selling Records

FROM MORE THAN 15,000 RETAIL OUTLETS!

• Tunes are listed below in order of their popularity based on a continuing weekly national survey of thousands of record dealers by Jack "One Spot" Tunis. Each listing includes the name of the song, record number, artists, and tune on the reverse side.
 • The number underneath the title indicates the actual sale per 1000 records made for the week. If the figure is 67.4, it means that for every 1000 records sold that week, 67.4 were of the tune indicated—a combination of all the records on which it was available.

The Dot Story Is The Randy Wood Story

RANDY WOOD

The story of Dot Records is the story of one man—Randy Wood. It is the story of a man who took advantage of an opportunity and made it pay off beyond even his own greatest hopes.

In 1950, Randy was operating the country's largest mail order record shop from Gallatin, Tennessee. It was at that time that he agreed to record a group of local boys from East High School in nearby Nashville. The group called themselves The Tennessee Drifters and their first record "Boogie Beat Rag" sold several thousand nationally.

Next, Randy decided to record a former clerk in his record shop, Johnny Maddox. His first record, "Crazy Bone Rag" and "St. Louis Tickle," was a mild success in the South and in St. Louis and Chicago.

Then came the first big hit—The Griffin Brothers featuring Margie Day and their record of "Little Red Rooster" which sold more than 100,000 copies.

Dot's next record also sold more than 100,000. It was "Tra La La" and was recorded by Tommy Brown.

Just about this time, Johnny Maddox broke through with his first national hit, "San Antonio Rose." It was now that Randy Wood really decided to go into the record business wholeheartedly and it was with this thought that Al Bennett was added to the firm in the position of sales manager.

It was also at this time that Mac Wiseman emerged on the Dot label as its first strong hillbilly artist with "Tis Sweet To Be Remembered" followed by "I'll Still Write Your Name In The Sand."

And then early in 1951, it happened—The Hilltoppers.

A test record was made by Randy of a group of college students who called themselves The Hilltoppers. He had heard about this group at Western Kentucky State College in Bowling Green, Kentucky. They recorded a new tune written by Billy Vaughn, the pianist and member of the group. It was called "Trying" and it became one of the biggest hits of the year, selling over 750,000 copies. It hit 3rd place in popularity and was in the nation's Top Ten Tunes for twenty consecutive weeks.

The Hilltoppers had been singing together for only a few months before they were discovered. Three were college students at Western and the other was a former student.

Soon after the record hit, Billy Vaughn became music director for Dot, a position which he still holds.

The Hilltoppers continued with smash hits and in 1953 were voted the top vocal group in America in the annual Cash Box Poll. In addition they won a gold record for having sold over a million copies of "P. S. I Love You." Other recordings of theirs which hit the Top Ten were "From The Vine Came The Grape," "Till Then," "Love Walked In," "To Be Alone," "Poor Butterfly" and now "Sweetheart."

Although Jimmy Sacca, the lead voice of the group, has been in the Army since March 1953, the boys have managed to get together for recordings and a few public appearances. They have been guest artists on the biggest TV shows in the country and have been in great demand for public appearances. As a matter of fact, they could be earning hundreds of thousands of dollars if they were able to accept engagements.

With the success of Dot Records, the company has become well-known all over the country and its roster has been increased to include many famous artists. Among these are Jan Garber, Al Lombardy and Elmo Tanner. From Nashville have come such artists as Dotty Dillard, Eddie Peabody, Marvin Hughes and Francis Craig.

Other new artists are Jimmy Newman, Rusty Bryant and the latest additions, the Fontane Sisters with their first release, "Happy Days And Lonely Nights" b/w "If I Didn't Have You" and Lorry Raine with "I'm Only Human" and "I'll Tell The World I Love You."

Jimmie Komack Signed By Coral Records

NEW YORK—Jimmie Komack has been signed to a recording contract by Coral Records, it was announced last week by Bob Thiele, A&R head of the diskery.

Komack is the high flying singer-comedian who has been winning sensational rave notices for his work at the Bon Soir in New York.

The initial four sides have already been cut and the first disk will be released early in July.

Coral plans an all-out promotion on the young artist and will release records by him not only as a singer but also in the diskery's "Party Time" series which includes some of the top comedians in the country.

Komack will remain at the Bon Soir until late in July when he goes to Toronto to play the leads in "Anything Goes" and "Desert Song".

Several producers of Broadway musicals are currently bidding for his services for this Fall.

Lubinsky Names Cadena Head Of Jazz A&R

NEWARK, N. J. — Herman Lubinsky, prexy of Savoy Records, this week announced the appointment of Ozzie Cadena as A & R representative in charge of jazz. For the past few years, Cadena has been working part-time in an advisory capacity in the jazz department of Savoy and his appointment is due to the success of a number of his suggestions pertaining to the acquisition of some jazz masters by such artists as Tristano, Wallington, Wayne, Cohn, Roland, and a recording of Cal Tjader which led to two sessions under his supervision.

Cadena is well known around Newark for his organization of various jazz sessions in this city. He also served as president of the Newark Chapter of the New Jazz Society.

Repertoire On Records Is The Largest In History

by GEORGE MAREK

In the Webster dictionary the word repertoire is defined as a "treasury." Today our repertoire offers a "treasury" of music more varied than any available in the 52-year history of the phonograph.

The expansion of this repertoire in the past few years has been stimulated by several factors. These include:

1. The advantages offered by the new LP and 45 rpm speeds in compact packaging, and "more music for less money."
2. The development of better sound reproduction and the opportunity it affords the music lover fully to appreciate the live "concert" quality of his new recordings. In short—High Fidelity.
3. The necessity for the constant introduction of fresh repertoire and original packaging ideas to keep abreast of new technical advances.

A glimpse into the RCA Victor catalogue of 10 years ago illustrates the difference in the classical repertoire of today and yesterday. The RCA Victor 1944 catalogue listed only six operatic works. In addition to the ever-popular "La Boheme," "Madame Butterfly" and "Tosca," these were "The Barber of Seville," "Carmen" and "Boris Godonoff."

In the current catalogue 27 operas are available on the new speeds, some with two completely different versions. The number of operas available not only has more than quadrupled, it includes selections which cater to a wider variety of tastes than ever before. Such varied operatic fare as Giordano's "Andrea Chenier," Purcell's "Dido and Aeneas" and the Richard Strauss "Elektra" are among the new listings. There also are 20 "Highlights" from operas as opposed to the four "selections" in the old catalogue.

The recorded repertoire of today represents major advances in at least eight different areas since the advent of the new speeds. Among them are:

1. Many new operatic versions made in recent years to answer the demand for LP operatic repertoire in high fidelity sound. We have taped such favorites as "Il Trovatore," "Rigoletto," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" in New York with all-star Metropolitan Opera casts. We made "Faust" in Paris with Victoria de los Angeles last year. This summer we expect to record an album of "Manon Lescaut" with Licia Albanese and Jussi Bjorling in Rome. Operas on the new speeds have sold a total of $8,500,000 since 1949.

2. Engineering developments that have made it possible to re-issue the wealth of RCA Victor's catalogue dating back to the turn of the century. Such famous voices as Caruso, Farrar, Bori, Martinelli and dozens more of the great voices of the past once again can be heard by listeners who were unable to attend their performances. "The Treasury of Immortal Performances," has been one of the most popular series we have released in recent years.
3. Experimental new concepts now can be tried out with a greater margin of success. A novel approach such as "Arias Sung and Acted" is much more practical on LP and Extended Play 45 rpm than it would have been on a 78 rpm album. The new series features Deborah Kerr, Joseph Cotten, Judith Anderson, Geraldine Brooks and Dennis King enacting new English translations of famous scenes in opera. The arias then are sung in their original version by Licia Albanese, Robert Merrill, Jan Peerce, Rise Stevens and Jussi Bjorling. Listeners can play the LP as a complete unit. They also can listen to an Extended Play 45 rpm version of Judith Anderson enacting the "Death Scene" from "Carmen," and hear it sung by Rise Stevens, as a complete unit. Several records would have been needed for just the "Death Scene" alone on 78 rpm.
4. The new speeds have made possible complete coverage of a single facet of a composer's repertoire. Heifetz, for example, now can play every one of the Beethoven Violin or Bach Unaccompanied Sonatas, Rubinstein all the Chopin Mazurkas or Brailowsky the Chopin Preludes in one album. It also is possible for Toscanini to conduct all the Beethoven or Brahms Symphonies in one album, each consisting of several LP's. This would have been impractical in the days when the size and weight of one symphony let alone nine presented storing and packaging problems. It also is doubtful that there would have been as large a market as there is today for such comprehensive musical studies.

5. The repertoire on new speed records is much more varied and progressive than before. The public has shown by its willingness to accept such recordings as Leopold Stokowski's "Symphony on the Poems of William Blake" by Ben Weber or the Charles Munch interpretation with the Boston Symphony of Roussel's "Bachus et Ariane" that there are new opportunities for introducing unusual repertoire.
6. The recording of large-scale works now is much more practical. Major releases such as Berlioz's "Damnation of Faust" which will be released this Fall would not have been encouraged prior to the advent of the new speeds. Their length and the expense of recording these works with a huge personnel of orchestra and singers balanced against the possibility of limited sales, once would have eliminated them as potentials.
7. Chamber music has moved into a new era of expansion on the new speed discs. The essentially quiet and intimate mood of a small group of instrumentalists playing on records often was shattered in old days by the frequent sound of the next disc being dropped from the record changer. A recording by Gregor Piatigorsky of the Paganini String Quartet of Bach, Haydn or Mozart now can approximate the setting intended by these early composers.
8. Recorded jazz, original cast albums and mood music also have had singularly strong resurgence on the LP and EP lines. A jam session or jazz concert virtually can be duplicated in its entirety on the new speeds. This has enabled us to dip into the treasures of jazz which have been slumbering in our vaults for years. Original cast show albums are another area to which the new speeds have brought fresh popularity. The entire first act of "The Golden Apple," for example, was captured intact on one side of the new album, taking the listener virtually on stage at a hit production.

"EP" — A Big Step Forward

by BILL BULLOCK

Once in a long time there comes a change in an industry which is not a mere improvement in detail, but a revolutionary forward step. I think that the development of extended play records falls into this rare and important class.

EP marks the culmination of five years of progress in the 45 rpm system and is the result of decades of engineering development, musical tests and thoughtful analysis. When RCA Victor introduced extended play records, the event marked the first time that the consumer was afforded a saving through recording technique rather than price cutting.

EP records considerably reduced the prices of recorded music through a technical development which lengthened the playing time of a 45 rpm record from four to eight minutes per side. Thus an EP could carry four popular tunes instead of two, cutting the cost of pop music albums almost in half.

Hundreds of medium-sized classical works which formerly required a "break" in the middle while a record was turned over now can be found complete on one side of an EP. In addition, the selection of classical repertoire has become more flexible since the advent of extended play records and has made possible the recording of a piece of material as unusual and wonderful as "Arias Sung And Acted." The EP lends itself perfectly to the recording of well-known excerpts from classical favorites, and the public has shown that there is a wide demand for such merchandise. Last fall RCA Victor released "Concert Cameos," an extensive series of medium-length works performed by famous artists, which met with much favorable public reaction and resulted subsequently in excellent sales.

EP records have succeeded in bringing back the forgotten customer who has only $1.50 to spend for a "package" of music rather than $6.00. Before the new speeds, 65 per cent of classical music purchases were in single records. Extended play records have re-opened this market for single and shorter classical selections, and in the first year of their existence sold over 10,000,000 copies.

Currently the EP accounts for over 30 per cent of the total 45 rpm dollar volume. It is firmly established as an important sales factor in the pop and Red Seal market. Both the EP and the single 45's to date have sold an average of 20 discs for every record player capable of revolving at 45 rpm.

Introduction of the EP opened up new avenues for the packaging and merchandising of phonograph records. Its compact size made possible the expansion of customers' self-service in stores and accelerated the trend towards "super-market" sales. The POP EP handed a bonanza to dealers who did the bulk of their pop volume in albums. In small homes and apartments where bookshelves must serve as storage cabinets, the smaller records found their way into places which previously could not have accommodated a fair-sized collection.

The development of the EP package gave birth to many new and better promotion ideas. An effective, eye-catching window display could be laid out in much less space than ordinarily required in record dealers' stores. Stock counter displays and other point-of-sale material also became more feasible because of the smaller package.

The EP albums performed a major sales service for the single 45 rpm. Record manufacturers and dealers alike suddenly realized that a simple merchandising gimmick—like a colored sleeve—would take the 45 singles hidden at the back of the shelf and turn them into attractive and convenient counter display items.

Additional promotion possibilities of this kind paid off. For example, on Eddie Fisher's hit record "Oh! My Papa"—which sold 1,500,000—50 per cent of the total sales were on the 45 speed. That EP greatly advanced the progress of 45 rpm is further underscored by the fact that today 45 rpm discs account for:

1. Nearly one-fourth of the record industry's dollar volume.
2. Three out of every 10 records sold by retailers.
3. Sixty per cent of the records played on juke boxes.

It seems to me that the reason for the widespread success of extended play records in so short a time is a very simple one: EP merely gives the public what it wants.

The smaller, longer-playing disc is convenient, mailable, readily stored, strong in a structural sense and capable of giving the record user the same enjoyment as he would have in listening to an actual live performance. Such light and attractive records fill the bill for the vast majority of record users and do so at a minimum cost.

Cornell — Gaylords — Fielding Tour Doing Big Business

NEW YORK—With 25 one-nighters already under its belt, the Don Cornell-Gaylords-Jerry Fielding package tour looks like it is on its way to being one of the most successful record star junkets that has taken to the road in many a season.

The package has played to more than 90,000 people and has grossed over $102,000 during this time. More than half the dates played thus far have been percentage dates for Cornell and his partners the Gaylords. Fielding receives a flat weekly stipend plus his bus, vocalist, and road manager costs.

The Cornell-Gaylords tour has already worked its way through New England and Eastern Pennsylvania touching Ontario, Canada. This week they start a six day engagement at the Vogue Terrace in Pittsburgh. From there, the crew will head into the Mid-west and North West with dates already set into the middle of August up and down the West coast in Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Victoria, B.C., Trail, B.C., Coquille, Olympia, Salt Lake, Boise, Sacramento, Oakland, and San Diego. Other dates are being planned into September.

Mannie Greenfield, Cornell's manager, has worked out a special promotion whereby records made by Cornell and the Gaylords announcing the tour in "We're Coming To Town" style, have been sent to all dee jays in advance of the package to create an interest in the various territories and give the artists extra spins on their records.

Gersh Handles Williams' Flack

NEW YORK—Dick Gersh announced this week, that he will handle record promotion for the Billy Williams Quartet, the popular "Show of Shows" vocal group which recently signed with Coral Records. The group's first release for the diskery will be out next week.

Atlantic Records Buys American Music Master

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records announced the purchase of a two-sided sleeper, titled "Cooperation," from American Music, Inc., Los Angeles.

The deal was completed by Atlantic with Murray Sporn, professional manager of the New York office.

The disk, a humorous singing-recitation type item, features comedian Prince Patridge, who also wrote the material. Sylvester Cross, president of American Music, cut the tune on his Blaze label and sent out between four and five hundred copies to disk jockeys throughout the nation. Reaction was instantaneous in the middle west, particularly in St. Louis, and reached the attention of Atlantic brass. The deal was consummated on Wednesday, June 23, mastered on Thursday and samples will go forth on Monday, June 28.

The record will be released on the "Cat" label and will be aimed at both the pop and r & b markets.

Loco Waxes Big Band

NEW YORK—Joe Loco, famed throughout the nation for his small group mambo styling has emerged with a big band for records only.

When Loco came into New York recently, he and George Goldner, Tico prexy, went into studio with a carefully thought out plan they had been working on for a long time. They have produced a "big new commercial sound on mambo music with a different combination of instruments which effects a wide range of sound."

"Listener's Digest" Introduced by RCA As New Concept In Recorded Music

CAMDEN, N. J.—Utilizing a revolutionary new concept of presenting recorded music, the Radio Corporation of America will undertake this summer the greatest merchandising program to increase volume sales of the 45-rpm recording system since its introduction.

The merchandise promotion which carries the title of "The Listener's Digest," was developed after more than a year of planning, according to James M. Toney, general manager of the RCA Victor Radio and "Victrola" Division.

Specific merchandise involved in the "Listener's Digest" promotion is a library of 12 best known classical works condensed on ten extended play (EP) high fidelity records in performances by world-renowned artists together with an automatic 45-rpm phonograph. Three complete packages will be offered, and will include the "Listener's Digest" album with either the automatic self-contained phonograph, Model 45EY2, at $39.95, the portable phonograph, Model 45EY3, at $54.95, or the table phonograph with eight-inch speaker at $54.95.

Also featured in the offer is a 42-page musical enjoyment guide which contains biographies of the artists and composers and program notes for the selections.

The "Listener's Digest" promotion will be introduced to dealers at meetings held this week throughout the country. It will be introduced to the public in mid-August, Toney disclosed.

To support the promotion, an extensive and heavily concentrated advertising program has been planned to carry through from August to December. National magazines, family publications, Sunday supplements, and radio and television will be utilized.

Describing the market potential of record-playing instruments as vast, Toney pointed out that, of the approximately 46 million homes in America, only 25 million, or only about half the homes, have phonographs. In addition, he noted, a large percentage of these instruments are prospects for replacement, as they are either in unsatisfactory operation condition or unable to play the new speed records.

While he considered this the primary market because of parents' desire to interest their children in fine music, he emphasized that the Listener's Digest promotion had special appeal to churches, schools, hospitals, and organizations supporting youth activities.

To aid the dealer, an extensive kit of sales promotion material and a cooperative advertising program have been prepared.

A major, long-range objective of the "Listener's Digest" is to create increased consumer interest in classical records, according to George Marek, Director of Artists and Repertoire of the RCA Victor Record Division.

For the first time, he stated, the concept of popularization by condensation, so successful in the book industry, has been applied to music on records.

In applying this concept to the field of recorded music, Marek declared, RCA Victor was convinced that condensation would make available classical music that would be inexpensive, friendly, short and easy to enjoy. The anticipated result, he added, would be the creation of a huge new market for classical records.

The 12 "Listener's Digest" selections, which originally ran to five hours, 50 minutes, and 17 seconds in length, and cost almost $60, were condensed to two hours, 35 minutes, and 16 seconds. Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony," he noted as an example, which in its original performance ran to 32 minutes, 12 seconds, was condensed to 15 minutes, 41 seconds.

A special project was set up for the task of condensing the 12 selections. It was done with such painstaking care and meticulous timing that it consumed over 13 months, according to Marek. The critical test came he disclosed, when the condensed recordings were played back to the performing artists. In all instances, the artists expressed approval of the condensed versions and the concept of creating a mass appeal for classical music.

"By enticing, as it were, millions of people into listening to and becoming familiar with, classical music and thus break down the barriers which kept them distant from it before, we are confident they will go on to really appreciate and become enthusiastic for this type of music," Marek said. "In time, we are convinced, they will want to purchase longer recorded works, and they will want to attend concerts, recitals, and operatic performances."

Among the selections and artists included in the "Listener's Digest" are Tchaikovsky's "Nutteracker Suite" performed by Arturo Toscanini and the NBC Symphony Orchestra; Franck's "Symphony in D Minor" by Pierre Monteux and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra; Dvorak's "New World Symphony" by Leopold Stokowski and his Symphony Orchestra; Grieg's "Piano Concerto in A Minor" with Artur Rubinstein, pianist, and the RCA Victor Symphony Orchestra and the Beethoven "Emperor Concerto" with Artur Schnabel, pianist, and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

The Up-Beat of Mambo Throughout the United States

by GEORGE GOLDNER

Never in the history of Latin-American music has any rhythm caught on so rapidly. Mambo today is becoming "King" throughout the United States.

For the first time in the history of the Waldorf Astoria, a "Mambo Orchestra" will be heard between the plush lush walls of their intimate room. Tours, concerts and mambo festivals are springing up throughout the country. Latin-American artists in the Mambo field are being caught in this maelstrom of excitement and are being sought avidly throughout the entertainment world. This has been a terrific up-jolt to the record business, amusement field and dance world "business-wise."

People like Irving Schacht and Frank Amaru of RCA Victor International Department, who have pioneered Mambo rhythms in the past, are now seeing their words come true. Artists like Joe Loco, Tito Puente and Perez Prado are becoming household words throughout the country.

At one time, Mambo records were an impossibility to distribute throughout the hinterlands; today Mambo artists are beginning to achieve the recognition once accorded only to pop or jazz artists. The "little brother" Mambo is beginning to flex its muscles and grow up.

The innovation of putting American standards into Mambo tempo, a Tico first, has rapidly been copied by all artists throughout the recording field. Another great assist to the Mambo field was the brilliant "Mambo-Rhumba Festival" produced by Irving Schacht, which toured fourteen cities successfully. The demand for repetition of this show will probably make this a yearly festival.

I feel that if the executives of all leading recording companies will push these rhythms, through their top artists and bands, the record business will open a new lush field.

I must thank the juke box operators, disc-jockeys, program directors and trade publications without whose cooperation this era would not have been possible.

Opening Night

NEW YORK—On her opening night at La Vie En Rose in New York Eartha Kitt was visited by Manie Sacks and Janis Paige. All three are shown admiring a cake sent to her from Macy's to celebrate the event. Eartha made her U.S. singing debut at La Vie in December, 1951.

Record Stars Salute Canada's Dominion "Day" In Radio Program

NEW YORK—Recording star and Academy Award-winner Frank Sinatra, singer Kay Starr, and composer-conductor Les Baxter have joined forces to extend their personal greetings to Canada in a special radio program celebrating "Dominion Day," Canada's equivalent to the United States' Fourth of July. The musical program, "Happy Birthday, Canada!," produced by Broadcast Music, Inc., will be presented by more than 150 radio stations throughout this country and Canada on July 1, Canada's National Day.

In the form of a 15 minute transcribed musical birthday tribute to the Canadian people on the 87th "Dominion Day," "Happy Birthday, Canada!" was conceived by Robert J. Burton, vice-president of BMI and BMI Canada Limited and produced with the assistance and cooperation of the Canadian Consulate.

In announcing BMI's second annual distribution of a "Salute to Canada" program to radio stations, Burton stated:

"The similarities in both musical taste and activity best illustrate the cultural ties binding the peoples of the United States and Canada. We at BMI can think of no more fitting tribute than a musical one, one in which the people who create and perform the music popular in both countries are able to personally say, "Happy birthday, neighbor!"

Lou Krefetz Becomes Manager of Chords

NEW YORK—Lou Krefetz, manager of the Clovers, voted by operators and disk jockeys of the nation the leading Rhythm and Blues vocal group for the past two years, has announced the signing of the new "Cat Records" current sensations, The Chords, to a personal management deal.

The Chords, who had never worked professionally, won immediate acceptance with their initial "Cat" etching, "Sh-Boom". The "Cat" label was formed by Atlantic Records with the purpose of issuing records that were explicitly aimed at the ever increasing segment of the teen-age market that found itself drawn to the "beat" offered by many Rhythm and Blues releases. The first "Cat" package offered to its distributors included four records, one of which was The Chords' platter. "Sh-Boom" hit first in L.A. in both the R & B and pop locations and spread throughout the country with almost flashfire speed. Its success in the pop market induced an immediate cover by Mercury's Crew-Cuts. The tune was taken over last week from Progressive Music by Brenner Music, Hill and Range subsidiary.

On the basis of "Sh-Boom", The Chords have been signed to an exclusive booking contract by Joe Glaser's Associated Booking. An extended series of dates has already been arranged with The Chords opening in California on July 16. The group is now going through an intensive coaching campaign to whip their act into shape.

Jerry Blaine's Twin Daughters Married

NEW YORK—Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Blaine, (he's prexy of Jubilee Records and the Cosnat Distributing chain), gave their twin daughters in marriage—Enid to Theodore Braverman, son of Jack Braverman of Herald Records, and daughter Florence to Irwin Lizabeth—last Saturday, June 19th, at the Forest Hills Jewish Center in this city.

One of the most beautiful ceremonies this guest has ever witnessed, the twin marriage drew oohs and aahs from the more than 400 who attended.

It was somewhat like a record industry convention in that many of the guests were officials of record companies and record distributors. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Wood from Gallatin, Tennessee, Mrs. Miriam Abramson, Mr. and Mrs. Ahmet Ertegun, Mr. and Mrs. Milt Salstone who came in from Chicago, Dave Miller from Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Newton and many others. The many distributors included Charlie Gray of Polonia Distribs in Detroit.

The father of the brides took the band stand and led the musicians on one number, reminiscing the former days when he was a band leader.

Charley Goldberg, member of the Cosnat sales organization conducted the band.

Templeton Promotes Disk

NEW YORK—During the week beginning Saturday, June 19th, Alec Templeton appeared on at least one dozen T.V. and radio shows to introduce his first record release for Atlantic Recording Company.

Templeton has employed the multiple recording technique on the piano in an original tune entitled "Big Ben Bounce" and the perennial favorite "Ida." Three and four "takes" on tape were employed to produce the chimes of Big Ben in London, as well as the British alarm clock.

Rack Order For "Joey"

NEW YORK—The phenomenal success of Betty Madigan's best-selling MGM Record of "Joey" has resulted in Lowell Music Co., Inc., publishers of the song, receiving the coveted rack-order of 73,000 copies of sheet music for national retail distribution. The sheet music sales of "Joey" has now reached the 150,000 mark, with the song just starting to show its real strength based on the increasing popularity of Betty Madigan's platter of the tune.

Missing! Writer Of Joni James Hit

CLEVELAND, OHIO—The songwriter of Joni James' new hit "In A Garden Of Roses" cannot be found. In fact she doesn't even know that her tune has been recorded. A check with Goday Music, publisher of the tune confirmed this last week.

The writer is Mary Jane Babbitt who, about a year ago, cut an acetate of her song and gave it to a disk jockey in her home town, Cleveland. Happy Goday who was in Cleveland at the time, took the tune, submitted it to Joni James, and had it recorded. Now the tune is headed for the top. Goday has never met or talked with the writer.

The local police are trying to locate Miss Babbitt and dee jays are announcing that she is missing every time they program the disk.

There is a good chance that if Miss Babbitt is located, she will make an appearance on television with Joni James.

True Test Of Friendship

ATLANTA, GA.—Ned (Jack The Bellboy) Lukens, WEAS, and Zenas (Daddy) Sears, WAOK, two of Atlanta's disk jockeys, took part in the recent Old Newsboy Day Parade down Peachtree in an unusual fashion. Daddy Sears holds aloft a Jack The Bellboy streamer while the Bellboy drives. The Cerebral Palsy Drive project of the Variety Clubs raised over $65,000.

The Trade Association— Today's Style

WASHINGTON, D. C.—“Trade Associations are seldom featured in the daily press and their own publications have limited circulation as a rule, often reaching only their members”, commented a national business publication. “Consequently the general public probably does not realize the growing importance of the functions performed by them in representing, advising, and helping to improve the business practices of their members”, it continued.

Statistics show that during the past quarter of a century, the number of associations has doubled. The Department of Commerce reports that today there is approximately 12,000 associations, 1,600 national in scope.

The objectives of today's trade association movement are best summed up by the definition of a trade association given by the head of the Trade Association Division of the U.S. Department of Commerce, C. J. Judkins:

“A trade association is a voluntary non-profit organization of business competitors (usually in one branch of the manufacturing, distributing, or service fields), the objective of which is to assist its members and its industry in dealing with mutual business problems in several of the following areas—accounting practices, business ethics, commercial research, industrial research, standardization, statistics, trade promotion, and relations with the Government, with labor, and with the general public.”

The national business publication, commenting on the above definition, observed: “Despite great differences in the nature and objectives of the trade associations, however, all have one significant identifying characteristic—they are co-operative organizations supported by competing business units, brought together by a mutuality of interests in a wide and steadily expanding field.

A survey by the Department, covering more than 500 trade associations indicates that the most nearly universal type of association activity is in the field of Government relations, including representation before legislative bodies, reports on legislative developments and administrative rulings. Next in line of functional importance come advertising, sales promotion and public relations. An outstanding post World War II development is the marked increase in the number of trade associations providing educational and training programs.

Here's a comment that all in the coin machine industry should remember for all time. “Evidently association activities cannot be performed as effectively by individual companies, if at all. This is especially true in regard to efforts to influence legislation. An organization that can speak for a large segment of an industry carries much more weight with legislators than representatives of a few interested companies. The cementing of good relations with the general public is also a task calling for united action. There is much less danger that an entire industry will be blamed for the anti-social practices of a few concerns, if that industry is adequately represented by a trade association whose members are pledged to observe ethical standards of business conduct.”

"The Old

THE CASH BOX' "20 Year Club" Members Years Of Experience In Fe

The old-timers—members of "The Cash Box" "20 Year Club" once before, in the December 26, 1953 Issue of "The Cash Box," were given the opportunity to express themselves in print. Their messages, relating their experiences, hopes, desires and suggestions for the future, were so valuable to the coin machine industry, we herewith present two more pages of letters.

Once again, we point out that in these messages lies the answer to a better, greater and more prosperous industry for tomorrow. We earnestly suggest that they be given your most careful attention.

We went on dime play about a year ago. We lost some locations but our weekly gross went up about 20%. In the last six months we have compromised to the extent of giving 5 plays for 25c—1 for 10c. The greatest stumbling block in putting this over is not the customer, but the location owner. I suppose it is human, but the location owner is inclined to listen and take to heart the kickers though they are far outnumbered by those who accept the rise and say nothing. As near as I can figure, our music revenues have dropped about 18%, but the shuffle games, with no change in price, have fallen 36%. Therefore we know that dime play is helping us out and our locations are sharing in this benefit.

In territories that are well organized and have union affiliations, dime play should be pushed with vigor. Like coffee, a universal change would be entirely acceptable to the public and the play would quickly come back to normal. Why don't the player kick about the 10 cent shuffles. I have great respect for United in daring to come out with a 10 cent shuffle. Juke box manufacturers should do the same thing.

HENRY C. KNOBLAUCH
Glens Falls, New York

We should have a convention that takes in the entire industry. Music, records, amusement, vendors—all in one show.

BILL MILLER
Grand Rapids, Mich.

Business could be bettered if more machines were made with lasting appeal. . . . I think the "20 Year Club" could help the industry if it would give special recognition to 50-year men, 40-year men, 30-year men. . . . I'd like to see the annual conventions with more color, zip, surprise and joie de vivre. . . . The nickel is outmoded. The answer is 10c play and front money. . . . I'm in favor of a "School for Mechanics" and a "Public Relations Bureau" if the latter could be subsidized into a five-year project.

JAMES T. MANGAN
Chicago, Ill.

I'd like to see more 5 ball games for us in the Maritime Provinces of Canada. I'd also like to get together with the "20 Year Club" members once in a while to discuss conditions.

★

The factory should have more contact men in touch with the operator so that mutual problems can be worked out. They should help an operator derive a better income from his machines. A healthy and prosperous operator makes a healthy and prosperous distributor and in turn the factory.

SEYMOUR POLLAK

In order to make the operator's business better, more efficient, more profitable etc., he must first understand the industry as a whole and then his own particular business, which unfortunately many do not.

Taking in a lot of money in the cash box does not necessarily mean that he is making money. Today more than ever OVERHEAD is the most deciding factor and if he can analyze this properly, taking into consideration that Commissions are a large part of overhead and should be held at a minimum, he could turn loss or the break even point into PROFIT.

Talking with other operators and leaders in the industry also discussing various methods on how they do business and many other common problems can help an operator immeasurably. Exchanging ideas is most important to managing a successful operation or business.

This is just another reason why I am so highly in favor of not only holding annual conventions but also semi-annual regional and local meetings. I would like to see all coin machine industry conventions and shows held in the same city and at the same time even though they be held at different hotels and headquarters. This is a must and is bound to come eventually as all operations today are rapidly becoming diversified, so let's face it.

BEN D. PALASTRANT
Boston, Mass.

Our business can be bettered, made more efficient and more profitable by a public relations committee to bring the operator and the public closer together on dime play. Ten cent play is the operators' only salvation in view of today's high operating costs.

We should have a national school for mechanics with graduates receiving a diploma such as awarded by the Automobile industry.

VIC BRAY
Miami, Fla.

Believe the "20 Year Club" should sponsor regional conventions to speak to operators and give them the benefit of their experience.

M. S. HILLMAN
Fall River, Mass.

★

I'd like to see a national School for Mecanhics.

M. S. GISSER
Cleveland, Ohio

Local and State taxes are too severe. A tax council and public relations bureau would help no end.

Dime play is rough in our territory but I go along with front money. It should range from $3.00 per machine and up.

Timer Talks"

Give Industry Benefit Of Their Many Following Important Messages

It is my firm belief that the various manufacturers of Music and Amusement equipment are sufficiently alert with new ideas, new features and new items to keep the public interest stimulated and alive.

Business can be bettered, made more efficient and more profitable only when the operator comes to a full realization that his future in the coin machine business is at a precarious point, unless some drastic reforms are undertaken by himself to correct some of the evils he has helped to create. Reference is made to the individual who feels that his problems are unique; that his expense of operating is less than his competitor and he can, therefore, give greater commissions and better equipment than the next fellow, and still operate on a nickel profitably.

When tax collection agencies start looking for additional revenue on a local scale, long experience has shown that they can expect little or no opposition from the coin machine operator since he is unorganized and therefore presents no problem when election time comes around. It should be the ambition and duty of every operator to support, physically and financially, a National Tax Council. Only in this way will Mr. Average Operator be in a position to cope with discriminatory and abortive attempts to tax him out of business.

Fortunate indeed is the growing tendency and realization among operators all over the country that their individual problems are not unique. That ours are a mutual concern in any segment of the industry whenever something detrimental occurs, be it at the operating, distributing or manufacturing level.

BILL WHITCOMB
Jacksonville, Fla.

Our big advances would be front money and dime play. The sooner the better. I'd also like to see the new games spaced a little farther apart.

JOHN S. COLUCCI
Waterbury, Conn.

The music operator needs a small counter machine in order to augment his collections. The same collector and service man can be utilized without additional overhead. The 5c play cannot cover the cost of equipment at today's prices.

I'd like to see one convention for the entire coin machine industry and its affiliations.

WM. (Little Napoleon) BLATT
Miami, Fla.

Pinball machines should have rubber legs and a chair that comes out of the bottom so that the player can sit down. The sides where the flipper buttons are should have handle bars. A record should announce, "Don't push so hard" when the player tilts. Also should have a bell ring at "tilt" so that it sounds like the end of a round at a fight.

EDMUND PETROCINE
Miami, Fla.

With reference to the attached, I feel constrained to write in more detail about the issue of ten cent play and the issue of Front Money, or a better commission arrangement with the location than a fifty-fifty split.

In connection with ten cent play, we already have our route of in excess of one hundred phonographs about 95% on ten cent play, three for a quarter. This was started about four years ago, with the advent of multiple selection equipment, and we experienced very little opposition from our customers. The method we employed was to make the transition from nickel play to ten cent play at the time of the installation of a new phonograph, with an explanation to our customer in each instance of the necessity therefor, and, when opposition was encountered, asking to be allowed to try it for a reasonable period and see what the result would be. We have never reverted from ten cent play to nickel play in any location. This has been accomplished in spite of an extreme reluctance on the part of our competitors to make any change from nickel play and has, in fact, caused locations in some instances being served by a competitor to insist that his operator change his equipment to ten cent play.

In connection with the issue of a better commission, we have very successfully accomplished an arrangement with many of our locations whereby we receive considerably better than a fifty-fifty split on the collections. We are receiving sixty per cent of some collections, Front Money from others, and exact a minimum weekly guarantee from many others. We are having no difficulty maintaining our advances in this direction, in spite of an almost complete lack of cooperation from competition in this same regard. We are certain that these arrangements can, in most cases, be very easily made, particularly at the time new equipment is installed, by employing the right approach in discussing the matter with the location and being certain you have made the location clearly understand that you are not trying "to do something to him," but that you must have the additional revenue in order to continue to serve him properly. It's easy! It just takes a little "guts."

The moral in the above can be stated simply. If one operation alone, without cooperation, can accomplish the above then certainly the others in the same territory can much more easily now do the same thing; and, with cooperation and understanding of one another's mutual problems in this same respect carry out a program of even better advantage to the operators in arranging better Front Money deals, fairer minimums, etc., and in going further to get those recalcitrant locations in line also.

There is none so blind as he who will not see.

O. J. MULLINIX, Jr.
Savannah, Ga.

Since you seem to be bending over backward to help the industry, I would like to offer the suggestion that you stimulate the desire of the collector and service man to submit their ideas on both new games and new kinks for current games.

The idea is this—develop one page of each issue of "The Cash Box" to publicizing the "Best Idea" (in the opinion of judges appointed by your organization) sent in. Any idea that is used by you wins for the sender one year's subscription to "The Cash Box."

If this idea is picked up by any of your advertisers and put to practical use, they will pay to the sender $100, or preferably $500.

I think this would create a new interest in the business.

SAYS:

don't accept our word, but ask any operator or distributor who has purchased a NEW ORLEANS NOVELTY COMPANY used game (our used games are off of our own route, taken care of by factory-trained mechanics while on location), and he will tell you that our games are the finest used games on the market. Before any game leaves 115 Magazine Street, said game must be thoroughly checked in the following ways:

1. It must be made mechanically perfect by expert mechanics with worn out parts replaced by brand new factory parts.
2. The game must be cleaned, brightened and made to look like new by the most expert workmen, using the finest materials obtainable.
3. The game must be percentaged perfectly to give the correct number of free plays to insure maximum player appeal.
4. The game must be thoroughly checked and rechecked before leaving our office. This insures that the game is ready to operate just as soon as it is placed on location.
5. Our games are packed properly and carefully by experts.
6. No games shipped without brand new, clean-looking score cards.

Public Relations: (Reprinted From April 3, 1954 Issue)Bally Offers Ad Copy For Ops Public Relations Program

CHICAGO—In the February 6, 1954 issue of The Cash Box, Herb Jones, vice president of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city, presented a program for public relations.

Jones has prepared a most wonderful ad for the use of operators in their local press, or which they can pass along to citizens in their communities. Bally is furnishing printing plates or mats free to operators or associations of operators.

Reproduced below is the ad:

Good Fun

FOR GOOD NEIGHBORS

You play pinball-games in the cozy little neighborhood spots where neighbors meet for a friendly glass and a bit of neighborhood news.

My business is to pick out amusement-games I think you'll enjoy. I invest in coin-operated games, place them where they're handy for you, hire skilled electricians to keep them in good working order. I pay rent for the space by giving the owner of the establishment a share of the coins you deposit in my games.

I don't know why or when the custom started that you deposit coins in amusement-games—like you do when you use a public telephone—instead of buying tickets from the management—like you do when you go to the movies. But that's the way it is, and I guess you figure you get your money's worth in fun, because I am making a living.

Sure, I make money. But, like the fellow said, "Is that bad?" I support my family. Spend my money in this community. Pay taxes. Give to charity. Help every worthwhile cause I can. And—with your help—I help give jobs to the thousand of men and women in the factories that make coin-operated games and the glass, wood, copper, steel and so forth that go into those games.

I like my business, so I hope you keep on liking the service I give. I like the living I earn. I like the people I meet. And even if it does sound sentimental . . . I like to bring good fun to good neighbors.

Coinman Leading Citizen Of Community

T. R. "Dink" Styers Awarded Plaque For Outstanding Services

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.—One of the most important functions of coinmen thruout the nation, as is well known, is to acquire good public relations. Because of irresponsible news stories and articles in the public press, by know-nothing writers, who grab at sensationalism, without devoting any effort to check their information, the coin machine industry has been done considerable harm. It is up to the members of the industry themselves (as well undertaking a concerted effort as a whole thru a "Public Relations Council" as often editorialized in The Cash Box) to reach the general public with their story.

Several weeks ago, T. R. (Dink) Styers, one of the south's leading operators, and a member of The Cash Box "20 Year Club," received a plaque in recognition and appreciation of his outstanding community services in 1953-54 from the Mineral Springs Civic Club. The award was presented by the principal of the Summit School. Several other leaders of the community praised the social and charitable deeds of Dink Styers.

Appreciating the great work accomplished by Styers, The Cash Box asked him to outline his history and activities. We reprint herewith Styers' letter, with the comment that it would serve the coin machine industry well, if others would undertake similar activities:

My birthplace is near Winston-Salem and I have spent my entire life in the community where I was born. I am fifty-four years of age and have been in the coin machine business continuously for about a quarter of a century. I built in my basement the first miniature pool tables that I operated in 1930. Shortly thereafter I purchased a Mills five-cent slot machine and in the years following I used large numbers of slots manufactured by Jennings, Pace, Watling and Mills. My most enjoyable operating years were during the depression even though money was not plentiful during this period. There were few licenses to buy and taxes were small. Competition was at a minimum. Through the years my organization has kept in step with progress purchasing the latest in slots, pin games and consoles. We have used Bally Pin Games, mostly one-balls, in about seventy-five per cent of our operation. We have found these games to be the most practical and best earners in the industry. We have also used a large number of Bally Consoles which were very good. In the slot machine field, we used Mills equipment primarily.

We operated some type of game almost continually from the inception of the business until about three years ago. At that time our pin ball operation was discontinued. At the present time we are operating mostly music machines and coin-operated pool tables.

I often reflect on the past of the coin machine industry and the security

it offered in the past. Then I look to the present and the future and ask myself if there is any difference between then and now. I can only conclude that there is a big difference. Today the operator is faced with extremely high priced machines, high taxes, and small takes. The operators have no organization, refuse to organize, refuse to cooperate for the best interest of the industry, and are eternally trying to see who can give the largest commissions and cut the other operators' throats. These operators seldom make any money, are here today and gone tomorrow, but there are always others to take the place of those who go. Too many operators, particularly the newer operators, cannot see that cooperation is essential if a profitable operation for all is to endure; they prefer to go along "dog-eat-dog."

I have always felt, and have tried to conduct my business accordingly, that a successful operator—really successful in ways other than making money—has to put something back into the community or communities in which he is conducting his business. If the operator would spend more time in the community and civic work and try to create better relations between the operator and the leaders in the community, rather than slipping around trying to dissatisfy the merchant who has another operator's machine by criticizing the operator's equipment and service, the operators concerned and the industry in general would benefit and prosper. Competition is good and even essential but, in the coin machine business more than in any other business, the competition should be clean. The business should, at all times be conducted in an honorable manner and upon a high plane.

My wife and I built and moved into our home where we now live in the year of 1927. We have two sons, the elder Robert L., age 25, is an attorney practicing in Winston-Salem and the younger, Tom, age 16, is a high school student.

We have a large shop and store room on the rear of the lot from which we have operated our business through the years. As our business has grown we have enlarged our shop and storage facilities to meet our needs. Many of the miniature pool tables and larger tables in our operation were built in these shops to our own design.

During the past several years much of my time has been devoted to community and civic projects. I have been Chairman of the Democratic Precinct Committee in my precinct for many years. It has been my pleasure to serve on the School Committee of our Mineral Springs High School for sometime and I have recently been reappointed for a five-year term. The Mineral Springs High School consists of four units and is the largest consolidated school in the world.

Our residential community is outside the area served by the Fire Department of the City of Winston-Salem. Our community was in dire need of some form of fire protection. Two years ago I organized a Volunteer Fire Department and we raised approximately Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars with which to purchase a modern up-to-date fire truck, build a permanent fire house, and purchase the land upon which to locate the fire house. The fire house has just been completed and the Fire Department is the pride of the community. I have served as president of the Volunteer Fire Department for two years and have just been re-elected.

Our county schools were in need of a summer recreation program of constructive activities for the students. I am pleased that I was able to have a large part in bringing such a program into the school system. I have served as County Chairman of the Forsyth County Recreation Committee for many years and I am also a member of the Forsyth County Leisure Time Committee, which is a branch of the United Fund.

I was instrumental in organizing the Ogburn Station Fire and Police Protective Association and I am a past president of this organization. We employ a full time law enforcement officer to protect our property and business in this suburb of Winston-Salem.

I am a charter member of the Mineral Springs Mens Civic Club and have served two terms as president.

I have been very active in the interest of our Mineral Springs High School Band. Our band had inadequate uniforms for parades and concerts so I organized a drive which was successful in raising $3,450. with which to purchase uniforms for our high school band. Later I was instrumental in organizing a Band Parent's Association of which I have served as president. We felt the need for a Band Bus and conducted a drive to raise money to purchase a suitable bus. We raised over $3,000. with which to purchase a good used Greyhound Bus and outfit it for the use of the band. We have a very outstanding band in our school which has received national recognition.

It has been my policy to never say "No" to a community project when my services were needed.

My principal hobby, as you can probably guess, is my civic work which I feel is a stake in the future as it is certain to make my community and my country a better place in which to live. I also enjoy hunting deer, waterfowl and quail.

Thank you for the privilege of writing this letter to you. I believe that the old timers in the industry will agree that the principles upon which I have built my business is the best way and the only way that the coin machine operator can expect to enjoy a long and satisfactory business career in his community.

In addition to the organizations hereinbefore mentioned I am a member of the Elks, The North Carolina Wildlife Society, and the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce and Auxiliary Police.

Most of my friends in the coin machine industry will know me best by my nick-name "Dink". In fact, it is most unusual for anyone to call me by any other.

"CASH BOX"

On Your Twelfth Anniversary

There is little more we can say to you of "The Cash Box" for the great, constructive and marvelous work which you have done for the automatic music industry. We do, though, want to bring forth one very important fact, and that is that—"The Cash Box," by bringing forth the need for 10c Play, has helped everyone of our members to once again enjoy some profit on their investment—has made conditions better and brighter for all of us. Our congratulations are only one small way in which we can offer our sincerest thanks and best wishes for your continued growing success.

Revolutionary Multiple SLUG
REJECTOR

The most revolutionary and amazing discovery in the art of multiple coin handling and slug rejecting devices for the past 15 years.

No sticky cradles, trap doors, balance weights, levers, or any other sensitive and troublesome contraptions are employed as a preliminary tester in the A. B. T. Sentry Slug Rejector.

Will fit into any mechanism now using multiple slug rejectors.

Because the "Sentry Rejector" is so simple in construction and function, no schooling and scientific training is necessary. Slug rejectors are back in the class where they belong — namely, simple mechanisms that everybody can understand. Therefore, school is out!

BUSINESS SPEEDS UP

No Summer Slowdown Indicated as Factories Push Production To Meet Continued Demand. Spotty Collection Conditions Reported Considerably Improved. Games Field Boom Helps Overall Sales and Production Hold Even and in Some Instances Forge Ahead of '53.

CHICAGO—With the dog days of the summer season as yet ahead, there was some belief current thruout the trade that business could be expected, "as usually happens in the hot summertime", these men stated, "to slow down considerably".

Instead, and much to the surprise of these very same people, business is continuing at an extremely brisk clip in this manufacturing area and, especially, in the very greater part of the nation as a whole.

"There is most definitely no summer slowdown indicated", one well known manufacturer stated.

"What's more", he continued, "if anything at all there seems to be a speedup under way at most of the factories around town."

This ties in with reports from most of the manufacturers in this area. Some are even bewailing the fact that they set up their two week closing down period for vacationtime, without giving due consideration to whether demand would continue on as briskly as it is at this time.

This is bound to throw some of the manufacturers back on their production schedules. It may even mean overtime work periods to catch up when the production crews return.

Most important to all concerned is the fact that the spotty collection reports, received about a month and more ago, seem to have also gone by the boards with the entrance of the warming weather thruout the country.

Reports being received from these very same operators indicate that collections are on their way up in almost every case.

This is most important to the entire field. It is the one definite barometer for continued sales and production in the weeks and months ahead.

It seems to be the opinion of the greater majority that the amusement games boom is what gave the industry "the necessary lift" to take it right out of any possible doldrums.

These men are agreed that, "With the hits which the amusement manufacturers are producing at this time, the entire field has been lifted to a much more optimistic level.

"The resultant effect is that the trade is now going ahead at a better pace than since even the first quarter of 1954."

Tho these men do not attribute the entire business speedup to only the amusements of the industry, "all products count as business perks up", one of these men stated, they do believe that the greater credit should be given to the amusements division of the industry.

Amusements stepped into what might have proved to be a recessive breach and lifted the entire business right back to top level again.

The general result, as gauged by leaders here, is that on an overall average the business being done at this time, as well as the business enjoyed the first two quarters of '54, is comparable to 1953, a real boom year for the industry.

If business continues on as briskly as it has, in dollars and cents as well as in units, the field may even surpass '53, is the belief of many here.

Coinmen In Italy Form Association

To Fight For Legalization Of Amusement Machines

MILAN, ITALY—Altho operating thru Italy since the war hasn't been too active, there has been a certain number of amusement machines on location in large cities.

During the past several months officials in practically every city have gradually instituted prohibitions against these machines, including the most legal pieces, such as billiard, football and other sport games. The latest is the chief constable of Rome, who had previously been one of the supporters of the coin machine business.

In order to cope with these problems, an Italian coin machine trade organization was formed, called the "Sindacato Italiano Fabbrianti Bigliardini ed Accessori—Noleggiatori" (Organization of Italian Billiard Manufacturers and Operators). Headquarters is in Milan, and the president is Carlo Giacomelli. Giacomelli advises that the organization intends to put up a stiff fight for the legal acknowledgment of coin machines, particularly football, billiard and golf machines.

Have You Donated Any Machines To Charitable Organizations This Past Year?

NEW YORK—One of the public relations efforts of the juke box industry has been the donation of phonographs to Charitable organizations, Churches, Synagogues, PAL's, Youth Centers, Veteran Hospitals, etc.

It would be of great value if the industry had an idea of just how many of these juke boxes have been donated (and serviced) during the past year—June 1953 to June 1954.

Wurlitzer Executive Answers N. Y. Herald Tribune Editor

Advises Juke Boxes Offer Fine Quality Music

A. D. PALMER, JR.

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y.—In the June 19 issue of The Cash Box, "Here and There" column, we noted that Art Rutzen, export manager of The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, this city, was interviewed by a correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune, New York newspaper, on the advantages of the impending St. Lawrence Seaway.

The day following the appearance of the interview, one of the editors of this world famous daily newspaper, ran an editorial (with tongue-in-cheek) about the exporting of juke boxes and the juke box in general.

A. D. Palmer, Jr., advertising and sales promotion manager of The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company, in answer to the editorial, wrote the following letter:

"The article on page fifteen of your Tuesday (June 9) edition, used a product of our manufacture to explain the export shipping potential of the St. Lawrence Seaway. On the following day one of your editorial writers expressed surprise that 'juke boxes' were produced in this area and dismay that they should be in demand abroad.

"Both innuendoes indicate a lack of knowledge of the present-day coin-operated phonograph and its market potential. Wurlitzer has been a major factor in the business for more than twenty years. The modern 'juke box' is a far cry from the raucous monster which he depicts.

"The newest Wurlitzers offer a full high fidelity music system giving finer quality and wider tonal range than most modern home players.

"A coin-operated music installation today is truly an engineered music system and should not be confused with the honky-tonk record players of yester-year."

CHICAGO—Reassuring to all engaged in the automatic music industry is the statement of one very well known manufacturer.

He said, "There has been no slowdown at our factory. Nor do we believe that there has been a slowdown at any of the major music manufacturers."

"The fact remains", he continued, "that the music business hasn't reached its peak. Nor can we, at this time and for a long time yet to come, even speak of a point of saturation."

"The old, prewar machines alone, over 165,000 of them, as reported by The Cash Box in the survey it conducted last October, would mean two to three years of tremendous production and sales effort to just rid the market of these machines alone."

"Furthermore", he stated, "with the foreign markets becoming more active right along, plus the continuing demand from our own distributing organization here in the United States, and demand from the distributing organizations of the other major music manufacturers considered, it all means continued high production thru the third quarter of the year and well into the fourth quarter, with no slowdown ahead."

The music business is going ahead, according to most of the leaders in the field, and tho, in number of units it may not equal former years, due to the fact that phonographs of former years were much simpler and easier to produce, in dollars and cents the business is expected to equal or even exceed the boom year of '53.

This is important to all concerned with the automatic music field in view of the fact that it means phonos are being traded and sold at a very good pace and this, in itself, can lift the industry to new and greater heights.

Exclusive distributing franchises of the leading automatic music manufacturers are still highly valued by one and all in the industry. This, in itself, is an indication of the business being done everywhere in the nation.

In some areas, according to reports, some distributors who are also engaged with amusements, find their amusements sales going ahead of their music sales. But this does not mean that their music sales have fallen down.

It means, instead, that due to the fact they can obtain more amusement games than they can automatic phonos it may seem that their sales of amusements are greater.

But when averaged off these distributors find that the automatic music division of their businesses held up and, in many cases, even exceeded their expectations.

Gottlieb Speeds Up Production To Cover Vacation Period

CHICAGO—D. Gottlieb & Company, this city, increased production this past week in order to fill orders for "Dragonette" prior to the firm's annual vacation from July 2 to July 19.

"We are meeting all the heavy demands for 'Dragonette' and are producing a reserve of games to have on hand the first week following the vacation period", said Nate Gottlieb.

"Since the factory and shipping department will be completely idle during vacation time", Gottlieb continued, "all orders received during this period by our skeleton office force will be filled immediately upon the resumption of work July 2."

"The popularity of 'Dragonette' has been tremendous, to say the least", Gottlieb concluded. "It definitely is one of our top five-ball games."

Orders For Exhibit's "Shooting Gallery" Keeps Factory Busy

CHICAGO—Executives at Exhibit Supply, this city, reported this past week that the firm's already busy production line has been subjected to an additional "full blast ahead" schedule following an influx of orders for "Shooting Gallery".

W.E. (Ed) Hall returned from a recent visit to Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Toledo with a batch of orders for the gun game.

J. A. (Art) Weinand, Exhibit's vice president and general sales manager, followed thru with a sizable amount of orders after a New York City visit. Weinand was one of the many members of the industry in New York for the Mike Munves-UJA Testimonial Dinner.

Besides the orders, both Hall and Weinand brought back favorable reports about "Shooting Gallery".

Bill FitzGerald Visits Eastern Distribs

BILL FITZGERALD

NEW YORK—William (Bill) FitzGerald, advertising and sales promotion manager of AMI, Inc., Grand Rapids, Mich., wound up a week's travel thru the East in New York City.

Bill visited Redd Distributing Company in Boston, Mass.; Sheldon Sales, Inc., Buffalo, N.Y., and Runyon Sales Company, New York City. He left New York on Saturday, and will be back at his desk on Monday.

FitzGerald spent some time at The Cash Box office, and stated he was very well pleased with the reports these distributors gave him of conditions in their territories.

Sherfick's Son Drowns

SHOALS, IND.—Tragedy struck the nationally known operator Tom Sherfick, this city, when his 27 year old son, Tom Sherfick, Jr., was drowned Sunday, June 20. The boy was caught in an undertow while swimming in a river near Shoals, and went under before help could reach him.

Services were held at the Christ Church, Shoals, Tuesday, June 22.

Paris Fair Features Coin Machines

PARIS, FRANCE—The 50th Anniversary of "Foire de Paris" (Paris Fair) was celebrated early this month at the exhibition grounds located at the Port deVersaille, where more than three million visitors viewed products and equipment gathered from nearly all the countries in the world.

The coin machine industry was represented with about 25 exhibits located in the Hall de Vins (Hall of the Wines) where owners of cafes visit to place their orders for wines, coffee and cafe equipment. Among these exhibitors were European firms and representatives of American equipment. Among the American machines displayed were those of AMI, Evans, Wurlitzer and Seeburg. A juke box of French manufacture, a 25-selection machine, named "Futurity," and another French juke box "Olympic 55," a 20-selection machine, were displayed.

Oregon's Supreme Court Orders Portland To File Brief On Pinball Case

PORTLAND, ORE.—Oregon's Supreme Court ordered the city of Portland to file another brief to support the municipality's long effort to sustain its 1951 ordinance intended to outlaw pinball machines.

The high state court filed an order June 17 directing the city to file within 30 days a brief replying to one filed June 7 by Wilber Henderson, as counsel for Stanley G. Terry, the city's largest pinball machine owner, presenting arguments in support of a rehearing of the case.

Terry is seeking a reversal of the State Supreme Court's previous decision upholding the city's right to prohibit pinball machines. His filing of the rehearing petition and the subsequent court directive for an answer from the city have so far delayed effect of the court's decision.

Since the court probably will be in its summer recess when the city's answering brief is filed, final court action in the case is not expected until fall.

Pinball machines have operated in Portland without payment of city license fees since the Multnomah County Circuit Court granted Terry an injunction against the city ordinance early in 1952.

Stork Cancels Coinman's Fight Trip

OAK HILL, W. VA. — John "Red" Wallace, operator in this city, had bought his tickets for the Marciano-Charles "big" fight, his train reservations made—but never did get to New York.

A more important event took place just before "Red" could get away. His wife presented him with twins—a boy and a girl. Natch, "Red" was a trifle too busy to concern himself about a measly heavy-weight championship fight.

Wallace, a member of the coin operating firm of Wallace and Wallace, was interviewed by the local press, which commented that "Red" denied he seriously considered naming the twins "pin ball" and "juke box".

The boy has been named John Arthur, Jr., and the girl, Debra Jean.

Mike Munves Honored At Testimonial Dinner

500 Coinmen, Many From Out Of Town, Hear Laudatory Commentary On One Of Industry's Most Outstanding Men

MIKE MUNVES

NEW YORK—Mike Munves, known thruout the world as the "Arcade King" was "King" of all the coin machine industry on Tuesday night, June 22. That was the night approximately 500 friends from the coin machine business from near and far gathered at the Commodore Hotel, this city, to be present to honor him at the Mike Munves-UJA Testimonial Dinner.

Meyer Parkoff, chairman of the affair, acted as toastmaster, introducing the various speakers, and at the same time painted a word picture of high praise for the guest of honor. Bill Rabkin, Art Weinand and Sidney Levine made short talks eulogizing the wonderful and modest Mike Munves. Ann Dancis, Munves' sister, presented Mrs. Rose Munves with a bouquet of flowers and read an original poem befitting the occasion. The guest speaker, Hugh McDonough, then told the gathering of the purposes of UJA and the reason donations were so necessary at this time. No solicitations of funds took place at the dinner—all pledges were made in advance.

From this point, the entertainers took over. Jackie Miles, top comedian, acted as master of ceremonies, introducing many recording artists, who contributed their efforts for the cause.

Mike Munves was presented with a plaque by Sidney Levine, acting for the UJA, and Meyer Parkoff presented him with another plaque on behalf of the Coin Machine Division.

A number of coinmen came from distant cities. From Chicago were Walter Tratsch, ABT Manufacturing Corporation; Art Weinand, Exhibit Supply; and Roy McGinnis, J. H. Keeney & Company. I. H. McIllhenny (Wurlitzer regional representative), Dave Bond and Charlie Wertheimer came in from Boston. Joe Boretzky, Silver Amusements, drove in from Montreal, Canada. Representing the manufacturing companies were Jack Gordon, Seeburg; Jack Mitnick, AMI; Ben Becker, Bally; Al Simon, Chicago Coin and Genco; and Dave Simon, United. Sol Silverstein and Judd Galahan traveled in from Baltimore, Md. Dave Rosen came in from Philadelphia. Al Schlesinger from Poughkeepsie, N. Y. With Sol Gottlieb of D. Gottlieb & Company unable to be present, Irv Morris of Newark, N. J., represented this firm.

Large delegations from associations nearby joined in the celebration. They represented the Westchester Operators Guild, New York State Operators Guild and the Connecticut State Operators Association.

The banquet was one of the best ever held in this city from every viewpoint—and it couldn't have been more fitting than it should be held to honor one of the industry's oldest and most respected coin machine men—Mike Munves.

Mutoscope Introduces '54 "Drivemobile"

LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y.—Bill Rabkin, president of International Mutoscope Corporation, this city, announced the firm is in full production of its new 1954 model "Drivemobile" amusement machine.

The first model of "Drivemobile" was manufactured by Mutoscope before the last war, and developed into a standard piece of equipment, bringing operators considerable profits from that time on.

The new "Drivemobile," as can be expected, incorporated the intriguing appeal of the first model, plus many new refinements in mechanical construction, appearance and play appeal. In the new machine, the player can sit down and simulate an actual drive.

In addition the new model offers competitive scoring.

"Drivemobile" has been given severe location tests prior to putting the game on the production line.

"Reports from operators who placed 'Drivemobile' on test were so wonderful" states Rabkin, "from both performance and earning power, that we put it on the production line with complete confidence that we shall be able to sell all the machines we produce. Word has gotten around about the appeal, and we now have orders that will provide our factory with a full time production schedule. As a matter of fact, we contemplate adding another production line."

Submarine Sailors Get Juke Box Music Installation

NEW YORK—The New York Times sent out a reporter and a cameraman to view the life of a sailor aboard a United States submarine. One of the new installations on the submarine U.S.S. Bergall that was given considerable space in the report was a juke box. Actually the installation (as seen in the photo herewith) is a 100 record Seeburg Wall Box, with the mechanism and records "locked up below decks." The juke box installation was given a good deal of thought by the United States Navy, and now, together with been confined to shoreside atmosphere. The nickels played into the Wall Box go for new records. The Navy is so pleased with the juke box installation that it stated other submarines will be similarly equipped as occasion allows.

United Mfg. Presents Two New Gun Machines

"Jungle Gun" And "DeLuxe Jungle Gun" To Feature 10c Play, 3 For 25c, At Request Of Ops

BILL DeSELM

CHICAGO—Bill DeSelm, general sales manager of United Manufacturing Company, this city, enthusiastically displayed a handful of wires and messages from the firm's distributors demanding immediate delivery of the two new guns which United just placed into top scheduled production.

These are "Jungle Gun" and "De Luxe Jungle Gun." Both will feature 10c coin chutes and twin coin chutes, adding 3 plays for 25c, on request from the operator when ordering the guns.

The "Jungle Gun" is optional free play model without match feature. The "De Luxe Jungle Gun" contains the optional free play, plus what De Selm terms, "Our tremendously popular triple match feature."

DeSelm enthused over the mechanics of these new guns with the statement: "In all the years I've been in this business I've never yet seen anything to equal the simplicity of the mechanics of the 'Jungle Gun' and, especially, anything that ever equals the easy servicing features in any machine of this kind.

"What's more," DeSelm stated, "the new 'Jungle Gun' is so well constructed that any operator can move it in and out of any type location and know that from the moment he sets it up, it will continue to work perfectly.

"The 'Jungle Gun' is one of the most outstanding achievements of our engineering department. This is attested to by the tremendous demand we are already enjoying from our distributing organization.

"The largest scheduled production runs that we have ever set up for a first run on any product are under way. Even these heavy schedules are already superseded by the orders we have on hand and the orders which we are receiving almost every minute of the working day."

The boys over Pensacola way are working like mad to inaugurate 10c play for their section of the State. Charlie Livingston, Bill Donahoo and Oscar Ard have devoted a lot of their time in making inquiries to areas where the conversion has been made. Bill and Charlie trekked over to Jacksonville and talked with many, many location owners to get their reaction before talking with the ops of that area. They reported overwhelming enthusiasm for the conversion by the locations themselves, and rushed back to report their findings to other ops in their city, who were still skeptical. Slowly, but surely, this profitable movement is getting under way.

Two of the hardest working operators in the business today are Charlie Hawkins and L. T. Bird of B & H Amusement Company, Panama City. They claim that it's no trick at all to get "Front Money" when the location is offered top-notch equipment. Then too, it must be backed up with excellent service and the latest records to make the picture complete, which they claim to offer. Most every operator knows this to be an unbeatable combination for making a route pay off. . . . Leon Powell of South Georgia Music Company, Thomasville, busy as the two proverbial cats completing arrangements to purchase the assets of his partner, Robbie Robinson. Robbie states that the Music business interferes too much with his fishing, at which he is quite proficient. However the ball bounces, this column wishes the best of luck to two very swell people. . . . One would have to do a lot of traveling to find a Record Distributor with more aggressiveness and know-how than Bill Binkley, who heads Binkley Distributing Company of Miami and Jacksonville. Bill's org distributes MGM, London, and many, many other labels which are identified with the race and blues category. Mrs. "B" handles the bookkeeping dept. and the sales desk is staffed by a little cutie pie in the person of one Miss Irma Clark. Here, therefore, are three reasons why the office stays crowded most of the time. . . . Operators all over the state report a sharp upswing in phono collections, reflecting their good judgment in adding new equipment and moving those pieces on down the step to give every location a change. This sort of careful and sensible planning is bound to prove to each and every operator that a great profit potential exists right on his own route, without running from hell to breakfast hunting new locations. To sum it up, take care of your old business and the new business desired will come to you.

Runyon Sales Co. National Distributors For "Activeaire"

BARNEY SUGERMAN

NEW YORK — Barney (Shugy) Sugarman, Runyon Sales Company, this city, became interested several months ago in the tremendous sales possibilities of "Activeaire" Electric Towel to coin machine operators throughout the nation, and undertook the national distribution.

"We studied the earning potential of this unit for coin machine operators," stated Sugarman, "using our New Jersey operation as a testing ground. Everyone of our locations was a prospect. We soon discovered that a large majority of the locations, not only needed a unit of this kind, but actually were happy to be able to install one.

"It then became a matter of producing an item that would be mechanically perfect to serve the need, and to have them manufactured economically. We were able to solve these problems to a point where the 'Activeaire' Electric Towel completely fits the bill."

As national distributors, Runyon immediately set out to establish territorial distributors. At this time, we are advised, only a few territories remain open.

The "Activeaire" Electric Towel dries and sanitizes hands, deodorizes, freshens and sweetens the air, and keeps washroom free of bugs, insects, flies, etc.

Carl Pavesi Re-Elected Pres. Westchester Operators Guild

Other Officers Voted Back Are Max Klein, Seymour Pollak And Lou Tartaglia

PORT CHESTER, N. Y.—Westchester Operators Guild held its annual election meeting on Monday, June 21, at the association headquarters, this city, and voted for their officers and board of director members for the coming year.

The incumbent officers were all commended on their accomplishments during the past year, and the members showed their confidence by re-electing these men to serve another term.

Carl Pavesi was voted to lead the organization, as president; Max Klein, vice-president; Seymour Pollak, secretary; and Lou Tartaglia, treasurer. Voted to serve on the four-man Board of Directors were Jimmy Smith and Nathan Kadish (re-elected), and Eddie Goldberg and Harold Rosenberg, serving for the first time.

Tod Mahoney, Buffalo coinman, finished his vacation by buying and riding home in a new 1954 Cadillac. . . . Willie Levey, his wife and daughter getting ready to drive to New York in the new Cadillac. Willie will stay in New York for an extended vacation and warns all New York gin players to beware. . . . Joe Mangone has traded almost everything for new. First he built a new home; next he moved to a new building and is now on a trip to Chicago and Detroit and will drive back in a new Cadillac. Definitely won't trade Mrs. Mangone, tho, "cause I can't get along without her," said Joe. . . . Sam Taran walks around with a sparkle in his eyes since he returned from Chicago where he celebrated his anniversary. Claims he feels like a newlywed. . . . John Haddock in town for a few days. Too bad he couldn't stay for a little while and enjoy the Miami climate. . . . The Bush Distributing Co. mourns the loss of their office manager, Jack Felber, who passed away last week. Ted Bush stated that Felber was the type of person who was well liked by everyone in the trade and replacing him will be difficult. . . . Willie (Little Napoleon) Blatt, well known throughout the entire coin machine industry, will begin to taper off by his next birthday and hopes to retire completely within a year. Before doing so, however, Willie is advising the trade to watch for the new piece he's manufacturing, which he says will earn good profits for operators of all equipment. . . . Mrs. Morris Marder takes a few weeks off to visit with her brother George Holzman in New York.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

LOS ANGELES

Here's the mammoth 12th Anniversary issue that we have been telling you about for weeks. It's hot off the presses and chock full of vital information and special features. At this time I'd also like to devote a few lines to the staff of The Cash Box and the many people in the industry who have made the past year one of the big turning points in my life. It was just a year ago this month that yours truly joined the organization. This has been a big year and an eventful one for me and I wish to say many many thanks for making it possible. Your cooperation and helpful suggestions to someone new in the field was greatly appreciated. I shall strive to serve the industry in every way possible during the coming years. Everyone who attended the first juke box party of the California Music Merchants Association, Los Angeles division, on Monday, June 21, had an evening of great entertainment. Many recording artists came out to entertain for the many operators and their wives who were present. . . . Lou Dunis, prexy of Dunis Distributing Co., Portland, stopped off in LA from a trip East to visit the factories to say hello to his many friends along coinrow. . . . Phil Robinson and Al Cohn have returned from their Eastern trip but are having a hard time getting back into the swing of things again. Everyone gets that far-away look in their eyes every time Phil and Al start talking about Chicago and their stopovers in Denver, Salt Lake and San Francisco. . . . The vacation period is starting early this year at the Paul A. Laymon Company. N. J. "Red" Creswell and Don Gilbertson have both already taken theirs while Jimmy Wilkens plans to take off for Illinois with his family to visit relatives. He spent several days recently, with the new, walk-in, panel truck, showing the new Wurlitzer "1700" to ops throughout Southern Calif. Paul Laymon announced that the new model "1700" has a tremendous sale. Frank Murray has been employed in the Laymon shipping department. . . . Since opening the doors of Ray R. Powers Sales Company, prexy Ray Powers has had many new items and propositions offered to him by many manufacturers. He states, "We are on the lookout for as many good new items as we can find in order to build a complete catalogue." In the meantime Ray is working 'round the clock getting shipments of the Nelson Modernization Kits and Chrome Pilaster Sets ready to send out. His secretary, Lucy Garcia, has had wide experience in the coin machine field. She was formerly the secretary and office manager for the old E. T. Mape Distributing Company, this city, where she worked for six years. For the past four years she was employed in the purchasing department of Huntington Hospital.

Harold Chapman of Nickabob Sales Company is now serving his annual month of duty at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, as a member of the Army Reserves. . . . V. Van Nattan, sales manager for Auto Photo Company, recently returned to his office after spending three weeks in bed with pneumonia. . . . Caught several local operators in at Badger Sales Company admiring the new Genco moving target "Rifle Gallery." Fred Gaunt says that it's causing more comment than any other game in the place. . . . Charley Robinson and Al Bettelman are still receiving calls and letters from operators praising United's "Ace" Bowlers and they state that that's the absolute truth, not sales talk. . . . Sam Ricklin is back at his California Record emporium after a long vacation but says that he's having a hard time figuring out which records are selling the best. "Things move so fast in this business that if you even leave for a couple of weeks the whole picture changes," he stated, adding "the numbers that were hits before you left die out and new ones, that you never heard of, take their places." Sam visited several one-stops while back East and came back convinced that his operation is the most modern and up-to-date of any one-stop dealer in the country.

The modernization of the Minthorne Music showrooms were completed this past week with the adding of new glass front doors. They have gone all-out to make this the most modern and colorful building along coinrow. It was announced this past week that Minthorne Music Company has taken over the Keeney line. Ed Wisler recently returned from a trip calling on operators down San Diego way. He got back in time to celebrate his 15th wedding anniversary with his wife. . . . Russell Hooker, Phoenix, and Bert Buetler, Seattle, were vacationing in town. They both have been friends for several years yet neither one of them knew the other was in LA until they both bumped into each other at Paul A. Laymon Co. They had a great time talking about the days when Buetler worked for the Laymons. . . . Glad to hear that Frank Lamb is recovering nicely from a recent operation. . . . Al and Bruce Cane of Cane Distributing Co., are all excited about the way those new Rock-Ola "Comets" have been moving out. . . . In visiting the one-stops the past week was "Scat Man" Crothers along with George Sherlock, promotional manager for Decca Distributing Corp. Fabor Robison, head of Abbott and Fabor Records, was also visiting along coinrow plugging his latest releases. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gordon drove up from Brawley to take care of business along West Pico. . . . Lee Nelson also dropped in from Santa Ana. . . . Vern Ephrom and Ray Anderson both came from Bakersfield to visit here and there. . . . Also seen were Noble Carver, San Diego, and Bill Thompson, Long Beach. . . . The Mulcays were in at Leuenhagen's Record Bar again visiting with Mary and Kay Solle. They are plenty pleased the way their latest Cardinal waxing "Beer Barrel Polka" is starting to click.

The Mike Munves-UJA Testimonial Dinner, held on Tuesday night, June 22, at the Commodore Hotel, New York, is one, not only Mike Munves, but all who attended, will long remember. This honor couldn't have happened to a nicer guy—and the turnout of approximately 500 friends is the true indication of how the members of the coin machine industry feel toward Mike. . . . Many came from distant cities. . . . From Chicago, there were Walter Tratsch, Art Weinand and Roy McGinnis. Sol Gottlieb sent word that he would have loved to be present, but that he had just left a hospital, where he had a check-up, and, altho he was feeling fine, couldn't get to New York in time. . . . Another friend who came a long way was Joe Boretsky of Silver Amusements, Montreal, Canada. Joe had plane reservations for himself and his wife for Wednesday, June 23, but upon reading the story in The Cash Box that the affair was for Tuesday night, he cancelled his flight tickets. He was unable to get a flight for Tuesday, so he drove to New York, leaving Montreal at 5:30 AM, Tuesday. He arrived in time. . . . The factories were well represented, in addition to those who came in from Chicago. Jack Mitnick, AMI's regional representative, cut short a southern trip, and flew back here from Atlanta, Ga. Also participating were Jack Gordon, Seeburg regional representative; I. H. (Mac) McIlhenny, Wurlitzer regional representative; and Ben Becker, Bally regional representative, who was covering the Pennsylvania area, and came in for the party. Ben returned immediately to finish the Pennsylvania job. . . . Sol Silverstein, Hub Enterprises, and Judd Gallahan, Roy McGinnis Co., both of Baltimore, were on hand. . . . Dave Rosen came in from Philadelphia. . . . Irv Morris from Newark, N. J. . . . Boston was represented by Dave Bond and Charley Wertheimer. Bond arrived the day before to see his daughter off on a European trip. . . . Al Schlesinger of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and his beautiful wife, renewed old acquaintances. . . . Mrs. Morris Marder of Miami, Fla., was accompanied by her brother Georgie Holzman, (Morris Marder is a Fla. op). . . . Tony Catanese and partner Lou Marozin of Suffern, N. Y. drove to N. Y. to be on hand.

The nearby associations were well represented. From the Westchester Operators Guild were: Carl Pavesi, Seymour Pollak, Max Klein, Lou Tartaglia and Nat Bensky. . . . From the New York State Operators Guild were: Jack Wilson, Lester Smith, Tom Goebel, Felice Spinapolic, and Tommy Greco. From the Connecticut State Operators Association we noticed only Jimmy Tolisano. There may have been others.

It was a grand party with every New York jobber and distributor, and hundreds of operators joining in a tribute to the "Arcade King" Mike Munves. With Meyer Parkoff acting as toastmaster, several close friends of Munves made short talks eulogizing the guest of honor and his wife Rose. Bill Rabkin, Art Weinand and Sidney Levine spoke of Mike's charitable accomplishments over the years, and of his sterling character.

* * * * *

Art Weinand, Exhibit Supply, arrived in New York, Friday, June 18 with Mrs. Weinand and their three children. They spent their time seeing the sights, then flew back to Chicago Wednesday, June 23. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tratsch, ABT Manufacturing, also arrived a few days prior to the Munves Dinner. They visited many of their friends in the area, staying on until the end of the week. . . . Roy McGinnis, J. H. Keeney & Co., also spent most of the week in the big city. . . . Tony Catanese, Silver King Amusement Co., Suffern, N. Y., received quite a bit of publicity in the New York Herald Tribune for his flight from Suffern, N. Y. to Montreal, Canada, this week. Tony, who owns a Piper Try Pacer, is an experienced civilian flyer, and took part in a goodwill flight for an air meet in Montreal. . . . Charlie Rubenstein, well known arcade owner, with spots on 125th Street, and Eighth Ave. and 42nd Street, advises he's using more space for Capitol's "3-D Picture Machines." . . . Phil and Mac Greitzer, Brooklyn music and games operators, who also run a batting range in that boro, down on coinrow shopping. They tell us the batting range continues to do a turn-away business. A new attraction added this year is the baseball pitching machines. . . . The Monday night elections at the Westchester Operators Guild saw the re-election of Carl Pavesi as president; Max Klein, vice-president; Seymour Pollak, secretary and Lou Tartaglia, treasurer. Selected for the Board of Directors were Jimmy Smith and Nathan Kadish (re-elected), and Eddie Goldberg and Harold Rosenberg, new directors. . . . Claire Morano, secretary to George Ponser, business manager of the Association of Amusement Machine Operators of N. Y., was out of the office last week due to the death of her brother-in-law, Patsy Morano. . . . Sol Silverstein, Hub Enterprises, Baltimore, Md., boasting about his four wonderful kids. The oldest boy reached his 10th birthday this week. . . . Ben Smith, advertising counsel for many in the coin biz here, tells us his daughter graduated from high school with honors, and enters Wellsley College. . . . Larry Serlin's daughter being married very shortly.

Congratulations "Cash Box"

Bob Bear Back From Extended Visit To West Coast Distribs

ROBERT H. BEAR

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y.—Bob Bear, Wurlitzer sales manager, returned from his West Coast swing with a renewed enthusiasm for the phonograph business outlook and glowing comments on Western hospitality. In a trip lasting just over two weeks, Bob included all of the far west territory in his calls.

At Tucson, Arizona he visited the new place of business of Canyon States Distributing Co., Inc. and enjoyed the reports of excellent sales on the Wurlitzer "Model 1700" from Arch Hawley and Tony Avitabile, partners in the Tucson enterprise.

In Los Angeles he visited with Paul and Lucille Laymon and discussed the increasing interest of operators for the new Wurlitzer line in that West Coast city.

After a flight to San Francisco and a talk with M. H. "Rosy" Rosenberg, Bob, accompanied by Gary Sinclair, West Coast representative, proceeded to Seattle where the two Wurlitzer men spent some time with Ron Pepple, president of Northwest Sales Company.

In Denver the continued demand for new Wurlitzer equipment was discussed with Howard E. Hold and Mike Savio of Draco Sales Company.

Bob then continued his trip on to Omaha where he and Bill Mashek of Central Music Distributing Co., Inc. went over the sales potential for the remainder of 1954.

Back in his office at North Tona-wanda, Bob reported these reactions. "The outlook for our business is the best in years with a continuing, very strong demand for the 1700", he stated enthusiastically. "It is quite evident that this upsurge in sales is going to be sustained well through the summer and fall. We have a strong, hard-hitting distributor organization which is today getting more orders on the '1700' than we are able to deliver phonographs. The future appears very bright."

"Continuing growth of the American population and high employment indicate a possibility that 1956, Wurlitzer's Centennial year, will be the best year we ever enjoyed in the phonograph business.

"Insect Control" Unit Offered To Coinmem

ELIZABETH, N. J.—Remington Products Corporation, this city, headed by the well known coinman, Sam Wichansky, is now offering its Automatic "Insect Control" unit to the coin machine industry.

"The operator visits the very place where these units are used mostly—taverns, bars, confectionery stores, and hotels," Sam said. "He can operate a route of these units which scientifically control insects, serving the location at the same time he services his machines. We, as operators ourselves, have found that we are able to earn extra profits while running our machine routes. Other operators thruout the country can do the same."

Remington Products has had the product out on the market for some time now, and claims it has been tried, tested and proven. The firm states the Automatic "Insect Control" guarantees control of flying insects, is odorless and stainless; operates simply, swiftly and silently, requires no labor whatever; and is approved by the Underwriters Laboratories.

MISSISSIPPI MEANDERS

H. E. Daniels of Capitol Music, Jackson, has added the Dr. Pepper Cup Vendor to his route and reports it a good money maker. Love to visit Ed's shop; it's so spick and span at all times. . . . John Haley and Winfred Swales are plotting something. . . . Frank Perino of Dixie United seen wrestling with a vacuum cleaner and was he hot. . . . Got a great big laugh out of T. L. Cheatham and the fishcaller. . . . Charles Hall out somewhere ducking the heat. . . . At T. C. Null, Meridian, W. J. Randall and Harold Newall were busy counting a year's take (of pennies) and was it hot work. . . . Lex Howard, Grenada, asking for The Cash Box the minute he got in after a forty-mile drive. Wonders out loud how an operator can get along without the C.B. . . . C. U. Collens and Lex of the Crystal Amusement Co., hard at work and will continue to be until vacations are over. Clyde McWorter in Florida now and John Ed. Williams will leave next week for a fishing trip.

TENNESSEE TOPICS

Earl Montgomery and Frank Smith, S & M Sales, Memphis, apply for "20 Year Club" cards. Earl and Frank went into business together in 1933. Earl has been with Rock-Ola some thirty odd years. . . . Amusement Company several months ago, ran and was elected to the post of Circuit Court Clerk in his home county (Henry County). . . . Williams, wife of C. H. Williams of Ideal Music, Jackson, admitted to the hospital for a minor operation. . . . Holland Waller of Ideal Music, in Nashville for a meeting of the Music Operators of Tennessee. . . . They were killed when their car was struck at a rail crossing near Columbus, Ga. James and Vera had been with Birmingham Vending for the last ten years. . . . Hubert Hare of Music Box, just out of the hospital after an automobile wreck some weeks ago, is back in action and swinging high. . . . O. C. B., Birmingham office, off for a two-week vacation in the Virginias. . . . Grady Richey of Bessemer, out beating the bushes. Grady has a route of candy and cigarette vendors. Grady, just back from a vacation in New York with his family, has nice things to say about the Keeney Cigarette Vendor and the Keeney "Bikini" Bowler which he just added to his route. . . . The younger generation of the coin machine industry who want to see the early games might make a visit to Tuscaloosa and A. L. Kropp a part of their vacation. Kropp started as an operator back in 1905 and still has the first "Ballyhoo." Still looking and working like new is the Jennings' "Sportsman." Kropp and his wife have been working together all these years. Although a member of the 20 year club, Kropp should have a card that designates him a 50 year clubber.

THRU THE COIN CHUTE

CHICAGO CHATTER

Twelve years ago, in the dark of World War II, as publications rushed from this industry, there came into being a medium through which all who remained in the industry would be able to communicate. Those who today remain in the industry from that June week in 1942, will recall it was anything but an easy task to present an entirely new and different publication to the trade. A publication that was solely, completely and exclusively devoted to this industry, and this industry only. That understood the problems of the peoples engaged in this field. That had experienced their glad days and sad days, their triumphs and their failures. That was willing to most completely devote itself to their cause. To champion their rights. To fight for them to the very end if necessary. This was The Cash Box.

The publication that has proved its right to be part and parcel of this industry. The publication that has seen many of its "dreams" become actualities. That has fought hard for the industry. Fought hard for the better general welfare of all concerned with this trade. That is fighting even harder today to help all achieve the goal of success which they have set for themselves in this field. This publication, The Cash Box, with this issue, celebrates its "12th Anniversary" in the industry. Most sincerely, and with great humility, it thanks each and everyone in the industry for helping it to achieve its present high pinnacle of acceptance.

It is a most heartwarming feeling to know that the readers of The Cash Box consider it their 'friend'. That they read it as 'The Bible of the Industry'. That they look forward to it each week with eagerness. That they back it to the limit. To these people, these friends, the subscribers and advertisers who have helped to make The Cash Box the most outstanding publication of its kind in the history of this industry, the entire staff of The Cash Box gratefully, sincerely, wholeheartedly, and very humbly says, "Thank you".

This Chicago office of The Cash Box wants to thank Sam Hastings of Milwaukee whose ad was the very first one received for this "12th Anniversary" issue. . . . Next came Bob Gnarro of ABC Music, Chicago. . . . Followed by Phil Weisman of Universal, Chicago. . . . And sincerest thanks to all the other people, like Buster Williams of Memphis. . . . Something that will give vital information you may need in the weeks and months of 1954 and 1955 before the next encyclopaedic anniversary issue of The Cash Box.

HOW BIG?

There's been a lot of talk about the "right" size for a juke box.

The answer reminds us of Abraham Lincoln's common sense reply when he was asked about the proper height for a man. Lincoln said "he should be tall enough for his feet to reach the ground."

Similarly, the juke box must be big enough to do its job from a good solid foundation.

A juke box should be big enough to offer a full and varied musical program . . . big enough to attract attention in the location . . . big enough to give the operator a music "corner" from which successfully to compete for the customer's spending money . . . big enough to contain an uncramped mechanism . . . big enough for fast and easy maintenance.

You'll find advantages in every size and shape of juke box—and disadvantages, too.

What you want is more of the former and less of the latter to give you the greatest number of features that will pull music profits for you. You get them in the Model "E."

THIS WEEK'S USED MACHINE QUOTATIONS

15th Year of Publication
769th Consecutive Week's Issue

How To Use "The Confidential Price Lists"

[Also Known As the "C. M. I. (Coin Machine Industry) BLUE BOOK"]
FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Confidential Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Confidential Price Lists" acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Confidential Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Confidential Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Confidential Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FOREIGN BUYERS: To cover cost of packing, crating, shipping, etc., figure an additional $20 to $25 on Pin games — and $25 to $30 on Phonographs.

BUMP BUTTON

Advancing arrows light BUMP on backglass, allowing player to bump or jiggle playfield—to swerve balls toward desired holes or away from holes not desired. Lit number indicates number of bumps allowed—up to 10 bumps per game. Players love chance to jiggle without tilting and play plenty to light the BUMP-signal.
