EDITORIAL Club Scene Heats Up

The emergence of a nationwide network of dance oriented rock (DOR) clubs bodes well for the industry, coming as it does during a time of continued tightening of radio station playlists. Once restricted solely to the east and the west coasts, DOR clubs are now beginning to crop up in the midwest and south, the last bastions of hard rock and heavy metal.

At least one reason for the success DOR clubs are currently enjoying is that new wave, by any other name, is no longer a dirty word among club owners and record buyers. Although there is still resistance to extremes within new wave, as in the case with any musical genre, many new groups have been able to enter the mainstream under a single common denominator — good rock 'n' roll.

While confusion and caution toward the new rock will remain for awhile to come, DOR clubs should continue to swell in rank. And, the potential for artist development in the club scene is strong, as both local and name new wave acts play and tour regularly for modest fees, unlike many superstar rock or disco acts.

Already a surplus of good talent has grown out of the DOR club scene, such as The Knack, Blondie and The B-52's and now up-and-coming acts such as The Romantics. But for the DOR club scene to remain healthy and vital, it will have to avoid the pitfalls of trendiness. The recipe for success will remain good, simple rock.

Abrams Cautions Superstars PDs About New Wave Music

by Leo Sacks

NEW YORK — Lee Abrams, a principal of Burkhart/Abrams Associates and a consultant to 80 AOR program directors across the country, recently issued a memo, upon his return from England, which urged stations to carefully research their market before they added new wave-oriented music to their rotations.

Because of the fact that many of the stations consulted by Abrams are so tightly formatted, the memo is expected to have a profound effect on the future programming of new wave music on Superstars stations.

Repeated efforts to reach Abrams were unavailing. But it is understood from reliable sources that the memo, dated Jan. 7, read as follows:

"As far as what is happening musically in England relative to America, I find that the two music scenes are almost 180 degrees apart. The people tend to be pretty much the same, it's the nature of the music business that makes it different. The music press and small clubs and venues are in effect the AOR radio in England. Imagine that many people don't even listen to the radio because of the what's-the-use attitude toward what they play. You have to look at AOR radio as not in existence and commercial radio as only a minor influencing factor, other than the few varied records that get on the playlists.

"New wave is generally a happening phenomenon to a very limited degree. What we don't hear about in England is the fact that Supertramp sold out six nights at the 12,000-seat Wembley Stadium, or that Led Zeppelin, Genesis, Yes, and Supertramp dominated all the major rock polls for another year. New wave is basically a cult phenomenon with great media (minus radio) support. It's interesting to note that several British broadcasters I talked to all commented in amazement how the American radio stations were taking to some of the English new wave acts. Personally, with the exception of the Boomtown Rats, the Police, and a few other bands, we're not going to see to many of the new wave circuit acts happening very big over here. I'm sure there will be a few more, but as a movement, don't expect it to have much influence over here."

An earlier memo issued by Abrams in the fall also touched on the subject of new wave music. At the time, he urged stations to "look closely when you delve into new wave material," because, for the most part, "the sound is not working."

Favorable Reaction

Reaction from program directors at a cross-section of Superstars stations generally supported the tone of the memo. Barry Grant, program director for WMAD in Madison, Wis., noted that he never felt "new wave was that important to begin with. In a lot of instances, a group that calls itself new wave is obscuring the fact that they play bad music. We like a lot of new bands at the station, such as Pearl Harbor and the Explosions and the Romantics, but these are bands that play rock 'n' roll. New wave

Arista Inks Distribution Pact With Pickwick International

by Leo Sacks

NEW YORK — Arista Records has signed a two-year distribution pact with Pickwick International. Details of the agreement were not disclosed, but a press release issued by Arista said that Pickwick would supply the label with key services tied to a mutual exchange of benefits in those markets where Pickwick currently handles Arista product.

The contract, which took effect Jan 1 and expires Dec. 31, 1981, provides for an automatic renewal of the agreement, unless notice is given by either party six months prior to the end of each two-year period. Territories covered under the agreement include California, Texas, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Minnesota, Oklahoma, Alabama, Nevada, North and South Dakota, Iowa, and portions of Wisconsin, Nebraska, South Carolina, Mississippi, Arkansas, and Louisiana.

The pact, initially outlined by Arista Executive Vice President and General Manager Elliot Goldman at last year's NARM convention (Cash Box, March 31, 1979), is the label's first formal agreement with any of its distributors. But Goldman told Cash Box that Arista will soon commence discussions with its other distributors. He said that while each agreement would follow "a basic format," the "true purpose of the contracts will be to handcraft an arrangement, specifically tailored to each distributor's market, that is mutually beneficial to both parties."

Goldman would not elaborate on the kinds of "innovative" programs provided for under the terms of the Pickwick pact. However, in his keynote address at NARM, he suggested that independent manufacturers and independent distributors work out a means of decreasing the risk and increasing the profits in breaking new acts.

"I do not want to imply that is what's being done with Pickwick," he said. "The agreement is more of a judgement between

Dance-Oriented Rock Clubs Mushrooming; Some See Potential For Artist Development

by Aaron Fuchs

NEW YORK — The dance-oriented rock (DOR) and new wave club scene, once restricted to the east and west coasts, has become a national phenomenon. The proliferation of small clubs, the increasing conversion of discos to rock programming and the increasing size of the venues to include large dance halls have all helped to convince artist development personnel that the DOR scene is a viable adjunct or even an alternative to radio for breaking artists.

The DOR phenomenon is clearly perceived as growing by the agents who book the music. "We're experiencing a whole new phase of growth," said Wayne Forte, who books new wave acts like the Clash and the Jam for the William Morris Agency.

"The first phase was over six months ago, and it was confined to New York, L.A. and maybe a couple of other cities. Now, the phenomenon has spread to the suburbs and to cities like New Haven, Minneapolis, and Cherry Hill, New Jersey."

"Business is booming," said Ian Copeland, who heads up F.B.I. Booking, which handles such acts as the Police and Iggy Pop. "When we started out, we could count on bookings in New York, Boston, and Philly on the east coast, and Los Angeles on the west coast and nowhere in between; now our acts are playing in Des Moines and Kansas City."

Kurt Nerlinger, head of promotion for Virgin Records, has also seen the new dance craze extend across the country. "It's almost a given that dancing is a component part of these clubs," he said.

Disco Decline

Another factor that has enhanced the growth of the DOR scene has been the decline of disco. According to Wayne Forte, "people that owned discos and saw that the crowds were thinning knew that they had to do something to get customers back, so switching to a rock policy was a sensible answer. An important venue like Emerald City in Cherry Hill used to be a full-time disco, and if you will recall, Hurrah's, the club that started the whole thing, itself began as a chic disco that was losing its original audience."

Another quality of the DOR scene has been the growth in size of the venues involved, as well as the number of patrons at a particular venue. Said Nerlinger, "I've seen 1,500 kids dancing at the Agora in Atlanta."

Copeland added, "We're starting to see a pattern among people who have had successful clubs progressing to larger dance-hall type venues. A perfect example is Vince Bannon in Detroit. Due to his success with running a successful new wave-DOR club, Bookies, he progressed to booking a Masonic dance hall, headlining Iggy Pop, and sold the place out."

Live Element

It is this live component that leads advocates to believe that the DOR scene will prove a viable alternative to radio play. Unlike disco, they claim, this market fosters artist identification.

According to Charles Dimond, general manager of Virgin, "we don't have the problem of trying to build an act from the beginning. Acts of ours that have toured have generally been preceded by a buzz from both import sales and club play."

Retailers Notice Buyer Confusion Over Sale Prices

by Michael Martinez

LOS ANGELES — Chain retailers are beginning the new year by selling $7.98 list albums for an average shelf price of $6.49, while $8.98 list product is being shelved for $6.96, according to a Cash Box survey.

In addition, the nationwide poll of 20 retail webs found that the average sale price for $7.98 LPs is $5.23 as compared to $5.84 for $8.98s.

While noting that the majors now appear to have settled on an $8.98 list for hit product, many of those interviewed said they have reduced the price spread between $7.98 and $8.98 advertised specials to avoid customer confusion. In some instances, this has meant having overlapping sale prices for $7.98 and $8.98 LPs.

In Los Angeles, for example, the Integrity Entertainment-operated Big Ben's stores have run specials in the Sunday Times Calendar section featuring both $7.98 and $8.98 LPs for $5.99. And in other parts of the country, dealers said that while customers continue to buy records by their favorite artists regardless of the price, they (dealers) have two sales prices for each list and often the top end for $7.98s is the same as the low end for $8.98s.

Sale prices for $7.98 and $8.98 product dipped as low as $3.99 in regions where competition is especially fierce and went as

by Richard Gold

NEW YORK — Eight of the top 20 Cash Box LPs this week are double record sets, and retailer around the country attributed their strong movement to the established popularity of the artists and the availability of unspent holiday gift money.

The most popular twin-pocket sets are Pink Floyd's "The Wall," "Donna Summer's "On the Radio: Greatest Hits Volumes I & II," "Bee Gees Greatest," Fleetwood Mac's

Chudnoff Named Marketing VP At RCA Records

NEW YORK — Jack Chudnoff has been promoted to division vice president of marketing for RCA Records. In his new post, Chudnoff will have full responsibility for the direction of the marketing function at the label.

In announcing the promotion, Bob Fead, division vice president of RCA Records said, "Jack has distinguished himself in performing his duties as head of creative services and has demonstrated a ready grasp of the economics of the marketing function in today's record business that eminently qualifies him for his new role in this most important position."

Chudnoff joined the label six years ago as director of creative services. In January, 1978 he was appointed division vice president of creative services, and in August, 1979, he was assigned additional administrative duties.

PolyGram Closes St. Louis Office

NEW YORK — PolyGram Distribution Inc. has closed its St. Louis branch and will handle distribution in the St. Louis area out of its Chicago branch, effective Feb. 1. According to a PolyGram spokesman, the company should be able to guarantee one-day service to all accounts that were previously supplied by the St. Louis branch.

Only three of the St. Louis staffers are being discharged. The other branch personnel have been reassigned to other PDI distribution centers.

The St. Louis branch closing is part of a larger restructuring at PDI, and there have been rumors of layoffs at other PolyGram field offices. At press time, however, PDI executives were unavailable for comment on the restructuring of the company.

"Tusk;" Stevie Wonder's "Journey Through The Secret Life Of Plants;" Neil Young & Crazy Horse's "Live Rust;" "No Nukes" by various artists, and Lynyrd Skynyrd's "Gold & Platinum."

The retailers were unanimous in pointing to the existence of ready-made audiences for entrenched stars. Tom Seaman, director of merchandise records and tapes for the 12 Sam Goody stores in the Philadelphia area, reported "very, very strong" sales for the twin sets, particularly for Pink Floyd, Donna Summer and Lynyrd Skynyrd. He surmised that consumers regarded the double albums as "major statements" from their favorite artists, and predicted continued good sales for doubles if the musical quality remained high.

The artists' popularity was cited for "great" doubles sales by Buster Bassett, the Oklahoma City-based buyer for eight of the 30 Sound Warehouse stores in the Southwest. Noting strong movement for Donna Summer and Fleetwood Mac, Bassett said that, once consumers judged the music to be of high quality, they were not bothered by paying high prices for doubles.

Collegiate Buyer

"We knew that Pink Floyd would be a big seller in our store," said Lee Cohen, director of marketing for Licorice Pizza, a 21-store chain in the Los Angeles area. Likewise, Steven Pofcher, manager of one of the 11 Music City and Music World stores in the Boston area, said that the reputation of Pink Floyd, the Bee Gees and Fleetwood Mac among his heavily collegiate clientele accounted for the fact that his "top albums still are the doubles."

In San Francisco, Larry Klayman, tape buyer for the 28-unit Tower Records, reported "excellent" movement for Pink Floyd, the Bee Gees, Fleetwood Mac, and Stevie Wonder. He attributed the strong sales to a large population of fans for these artists and the free spending of left-over holiday gift money.

Strong pre-release airplay and the marked rock 'n' roll orientation of Chicago area record buyers were cited as the

by Richard Imamura

LOS ANGELES — During a year in which much of the industry was plagued by slumping sales, abnormally high returns and massive cutbacks in both personnel and services, Chrysalis Records not only managed to buck the trend, but also emerged from 1979 with the highest gross sales revenues in the label's history.

One of the few remaining major independently distributed labels, Chrysalis registered gross sales revenues of $21.6 million during the year and "very healthy profits," according to senior vice president Sal Licata.

"We had a very successful 1979," Licata explained, "not only in terms of gross business, but also returns, which were very low. And since we don't have an overabundance of product out there to worry about, we're entering 1980 in the best possible shape we could be in."

Small Roster

Featuring a select artist roster of approximately 20 acts — including such established names as Blondie, Jethro Tull, Robin Trower, The Babys, Ian Hunter, U.F.O. and John Fahey (on the Takoma label) — plus up-and-comers like Pat Benatar, The Specials and The Fabulous

Thunderbirds, much of the label's success can be traced to careful planning and the individual attention the company can give to each act.

"We work them very, very closely," Licata said. "We don't release a lot of product (23 new LPs during 1979), so when we put something out, we do everything we can to break it. We work an act until it's proven that it can't go any further."

"The owners of the company — Terry Ellis and Chris Wright — are very understanding people," Licata added. "They

Federal Court Enjoins T-Shirt Bootlegging

by Michael Martinez

LOS ANGELES — Winterland Productions, a Bill Graham company, and the Leber-Krebs Organization have filed suit in the eastern New York district of the U.S. District Court against alleged bootleggers, who are accused of manufacturing and selling T-shirts and other products without authorization or license.

The court subsequently issued a preliminary injunction prohibiting further manufacture and sale of the merchandise in question.

Joining the two companies in the suit are a host of artists, including AC/DC, Aerosmith, the California Music Festival, the Doobie Brothers, the Rolling Stones, Rod Stewart and others.

Topping the list of defendants are Plymouth Mills, aka Our Front; On Top Inc.; The T-Shirt Barn; Great American Screen Design, LTD and a number of individuals.

Commenting on the battle against bootleggers, David Krebs, co-principal of Leber-Krebs, said, "We have just begun to fight. The plaintiffs named in this suit are hostile."

"The biggest rip-off is not the financial aspect, but the quality of the bootleg product. A kid buys a T-shirt, wears it once, washes it and it shrinks. They only remember who they saw at the concert, not who sold them the shirt."

"We intend to go all the way on this issue," Krebs added.

In a joint investigation conducted by Win-

Considered a living legend by English rock buffs, EMI-America recording artist Cliff Richard has earned as much respect and reverence in his 21-year career as Elvis Presley had in America. With 70 charted hits in the U.K. and internationally, Richard is back in the swing of things again with "We Don't Talk Anymore," #1 in the U.K. earlier this year and currently #7 on the Cash Box Top 100 Singles chart and #85 on the Top 200 Albums chart.

While it's been 21 years since his third single, "Livin' Lovin' Doll," became a #1 hit in the U.K., age seems to have passed Richard by. He has been constantly recording and touring, and recently he was honored with an OBE (Officer of the Order of the British Empire) by the Queen, one of the highest awards bestowed on non-military persons by the British government.

With his OBE, Richard joined an exclusive club of musicians with the award, including the Beatles, who once supplanted Richard as the U.K.'s top act in the early '60s.

Born Harry Webb in Lucknow, India, he moved with his family to the U.K. when he was eight-years-old. During his school years, he idolized Elvis and developed a yearning to emulate the American rock 'n' roll superstar. By the time he was 15, he was ready to pursue the dream and soon formed a group called the Drifters with friends Terry Smart, Ken Pavey and Ian "Sammy" Samwell. After the usual assortment of pub and coffee bar dates, the band was discovered at a local talent show and had some demo tapes submitted to EMI.

While waiting for a response, the band members quit their day jobs and began to pursue music full-time as Cliff Richard and The Drifters. Johnny Foster, business manager for the group at the time, came up with "Richard" rather than "Richards" so Cliff could correct people who mispronounced the name, and thus imprint it more firmly in their minds.

The EMI deal came through, and in 1958, "Move It" was released, eventually climbing to #2 on the charts. "High Class Baby" followed, then "Livin' Lovin' Doll," and Richard was well on his way towards realizing his childhood dream.

Today nearly 22 years later, it's safe to say that Cliff Richard achieved that dream.

NEW FACES TO WATCH

Sylvain Sylvain

Syl Sylvain is, by his own admission, a unique type of rock star. The RCA recording artist, whose self-titled label debut has just been released, says that "it has nothing to do with the fact that I was born in Egypt, or that being a rock star is one step better than a go-go dancer. It's just that I'd rather be recognized as a complete entertainer, like George Burns, who does a little bit of everything, or Sophie Tucker, whose credo was simply, 'Don't get bit by the same dog twice.' I'll always love rock and roll, but only true entertainers live forever."

Sylvain's career has always been marked by a sense of adventure. For starters, he was a founding member of the New York Dolls, who emerged from lower Manhattan's vanguard arts community in the early '70s with a songbook of aurally nightmarish tales about men and women caught up in the terror of drugs, urban violence, and sexual paranoia. The focal point of the day was decadence, and while Lou Reed flaunted it and David Bowie exploited it, only the Dolls made it sink in. The market for such music, however, was not yet there, and the Dolls broke up in 1975. Nevertheless, three of the band's members, Sylvain, David Johansen, and Johnny Thunders, have managed to launch and sustain solo careers.

Sylvain was born in Cairo in 1953, the son of an executive for the National Bank of Egypt. He was raised there until he was six, after which the family moved to Paris, where Syl dressed in cowboy boots and pants, drank Coca-Cola out of shot glasses, and listened to Ray Charles, Little Richard, and Gene Vincent. The family moved to Buffalo in 1961, but settled in Brooklyn shortly thereafter. In Brooklyn, Syl and the late Billy Murcia of the Dolls formed their first group, The Devils, after duping a pawn shop owner into thinking that one of the guitars he was selling had been stolen from them. The Devils then grew into The Pox, whose demise brought Syl and Murcia together with bassist Arthur Kane, guitarist Johnny Thunders, and Johansen.

When the Dolls finally disbanded, Syl's first step was to form The Criminals, whose clean-cut energy yielded the now classic single, "The Kids Are Back." He wrote and produced the track (recognized by the New Musical Express as the best American-made 45 of 1978) for Sing Sing Records, an independent label which he formed to manufacture and distribute the disc. The Criminals were short-lived, but an eight-track demo that they recorded was brought to Nancy Jeffries of RCA, and in June of last year, Sylvain was signed to the label as a solo artist.

Last summer, he formed Teenage News (now known as The Texas Millionaires), consisting of Johnny Rao on guitar, Buz Verno on bass, Bobby Blain on piano, Jon Gerber on sax, and Lee Crystal on drums. Within weeks, the group entered The Power Station in New York with producers Lance Quinn and Tony Bongiovi and cut "Sylvain Sylvain."

"Musically, the album speaks for itself," says Syl, who is self-managed. "It may have a classic feel to it root-wise, but it's definitely music for the '80s. People who lean on it won't be disappointed."

Webster Lewis

Quenching the music thirst of the public was the prime motivation leading to "8 For The '80s," the second Epic release by keyboardist Webster Lewis. Featuring the single "You Deserve To Dance," the album marks the first step toward developing a multilithic sound for commercial consumption, according to Lewis.

"Once I came out of the studio and the conservatory, I began to notice that people were begging for music," explained Lewis.

"It seemed as though people had been beat over the head with, well, not mediocre, but repetitious music," he added.

Backed by a lineup that reads like a Who's Who among jazz musicians, Lewis offers a tasteful brew of jazzy funk and finely tuned listening music. Among those notables on the disc are the Tower of Power Horns, Oscar Brashear, Bobby Bryant, Wah Wah Watson and three musicians Lewis has toured with recently, Paul Jackson, Bennie Maupin and fellow keyboardist Herbie Hancock, who co-produced the album with Lewis.

Performing and recording with deep talent is nothing new for the effervescent Lewis. He grew up running with fast company.

Born in Baltimore, Lewis began his professional career playing organ for a nine-piece band known as the Soul Brothers, which backed major acts appearing in town, including The Supremes, Major Lance, Shep and The Limelights and Lloyd Price.

Two years later, Lewis went on the road with Chuck Jackson and Tommy Hunt. A year later on his birthday, Lewis played at the renowned Apollo Theatre with King Curtis, followed by studio sessions for Spector Records.

He then returned to Baltimore where he commenced study at Morgan State, which turned out to be his springboard into the jazz sound. After graduation from Morgan, Lewis returned to a revamped Soul Brothers Band at night and on weekends, while teaching during the day.

Lewis then decided to study further, moving on to Boston where he met composer/musicologist Gunther Schuller, who helped him gain a presidential scholarship to the New England conservatory.

After gaining his Masters in Musical Composition in 1969, Lewis launched a career that led him to conduct Lola Falana's band for two years, then the Swedish and Norwegian Orchestras, and, finally the Houston Symphony Orchestra. He also has arranged tunes for The Jacksons, Bill Withers and Tom Jones during that time.

Touring with Herbie Hancock and the Headhunters in 1978 was the turning point for Lewis. After moving from Boston to Los Angeles, the keyboardist began developing his current musical direction.

"The tour with Herbie stimulated this new direction. Herbie helped me learn the use of electronic instruments and how to get the sounds I heard in my head on tape," Lewis explained.

He added that he hopes to further extend the ideas on the "8 For The '80s" LP, breaking music barriers by employing his multilithic skills. "The more diverse the music, the more people the music reaches."

Lewis is currently preparing for a concert at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles.

ARTIST PROFILE

Reedman Ronnie Laws On Brink Of Mainstream Success

by Michael Glynn

LOS ANGELES — Versatile reedman Ronnie Laws, at the age of 30, is a highly-respected member of the jazz community and a six-year recording veteran with four well-received LPs to his credit on Blue Note and United Artists Records. His growth as a jazz artist has been astonishingly rapid since he first signed with Blue Note in 1974 and released "Pressure Sensitive," which became the largest selling debut LP in the label's 37-year history.

Now, with the release of the single "Every Generation," the title track from his forthcoming UA album, he is virtually knocking on the door of mainstream success as his career takes a new and highly-promising turn.

"It's the beginning of a new phase for me," says the tall, affable Laws of the new LP and single. "It's a little hard to project where it's going to go from here, but I believe they represent the direction I want to go into."

'Song-Oriented'

Laws explains that his present direction in music has been towards a more "song-oriented approach" in both writing and playing, as the single "Every Generation" features Laws on both lead vocals, as well as saxophone. However, he is also quick to point out that although he sung on both his last album, "Flame," and the current LP, he does not consider himself to be a singer.

"I don't really classify myself as a vocalist at all," stresses Laws. "In the process of trying to find someone to sing 'Every Generation' I just decided that I would be best suited to the job since I wrote it and knew, conceptually, just what I wanted to say. It also worked out because my vocal phrasing is so similar to my instrumental phrasing."

The album, Laws explained, has "both a broad meaning and a specific message" in that it reflects every step of life from infancy to adulthood and old age. "In a sense, it also reflects my childhood, up until the point of my manhood and now my maturity as an artist," says Laws.

Musical Family

Growing up in Houston, Tex., Laws was part of a musically-oriented family. His mother, Miolla, was a gospel pianist, while his brother Hubert has gone on to become an equally well-known jazz and classical flutist. Two sisters, Debra and Eloise, are budding singers in their own right, with another Charlotte Laws Stroud, having contributed lyrics to the song "Love's Victory" on the new album.

"Unlike a lot of other families in music, we

NARM, RIAA Start Counterfeit Hotline

NEW YORK — In a joint action aimed at LP counterfeiters, RIAA and NARM have established a national toll-free number (800/223-2328) to report crimes in this area. Both organizations will encourage industry-wide use of the number to report offers to sell counterfeit discs and tapes, locations of offending retailers, and identities of counterfeit manufacturers and graphics printers.

The RIAA/NARM program will be announced in full-page trade ads explaining the plan. The tollfree number provides a direct link to RIAA's anti-piracy intelligence bureau, where investigators and attorneys will speed the flow of information to the FBI or other enforcement agencies.

In making the announcement with RIAA President Stanley M. Gortikov, Joe Cohen, executive vice president of NARM, revealed that his organization will contribute approximately $50,000 to RIAA's anti-piracy fund by the Spring of 1980. This will augment RIAA's annual million dollar industry anti-crime project.

RIAA and NARM seek participation in the telephone plan by employees of member companies, as well as non-members, suppliers and other industry constituencies.

The new project is a response to the growing availability of counterfeit recordings at retail outlets. Annual losses are estimated in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

MIGHTY LOVE FOR THE SPINNERS — Atlantic recording group The Spinners recently appeared on The Mike Douglas Show, where they were presented with a "Special People Award." The group's new single is called "Working My Way Back To You." Shown backstage after the program was taped (l-r) are: John Edwards and Bobbie Smith of the group; Douglas; and Henry Fambrough, Pervis Jackson, and Billy Henderson of the band.

PERMANENT WAVES — Rush-Mercury SRM 1-4001 — Producers: Rush and Terry Brown — List: 7.98

This thundering power trio from Maple Leaf country gets more ambitious and inventive with each successive outing. The bone crunching heavy metal is still a major factor in the group's sound, but "Permanent Waves" is tempered with a progressive techno-rock influence. Geddy Lee's munchkin-like vocals are improving with age, and the band's uncompromising raunch and roll sounds best on "Jacob's Ladder," "The Spirit Of Radio" and "Natural Science."

NO BALLADS — The Rockets — RSO RS-1-3071 — Producer: Johnny Sandlin — List: 7.98

The '80s are in full swing and The Rockets have a new album out to orchestrate it all. "No Ballads" is no idle boast; from start to finish it's all "grab 'em by the collar" rock 'n' roll that never lets up until the needle is lifted from the groove. AOR should show a healthy interest in tracks like "Don't Hold On," "I Want You To Love Me," "Time After Time" and a right on the money version of Lou Reed's "Sally Can't Dance."

PRETENDERS — Sire SRK 6083 — Producer: Chris Thomas — List: 7.98

The new wave has developed some distinctive new wave vocalists (Deborah Harry, Lene Lovich and Pattie Smith), and the latest neurotic songstress to join the brash and rebellious bunch is Chrissie Hynde of the Pretenders. While the band delivers a punk sound that is catchy and fast paced, it is Hynde's anguished vocals that bring the whole appealing sound together. Songs that pace this arresting debut LP include "The Wait," "Private Life" and "Precious."

MUSIC FROM STAR TREK AND THE BLACK HOLE — Meco — Casablanca NBLP 7196 — Producers: Monardo, Bogiovi and Wheeler — List: 7.98

The man who gave us the disco version of "Star Wars" brings more interstellar madness with his newest LP. The musicians from the "milky way" galaxy deliver exciting disco music with a big band influence, and Meco's production and Wheeler's arrangements turn the unusually large pop orchestra into a cohesive dancin' machine. The synthesizer also plays a prominent role.

EMOTION — Merry Clayton — MCA-3200 — Producer: Steve Tyrell — List: 7.98

Merry Clayton, whose heart-wrenching voice, with seemingly infinite range is back with a solo album that combines the best of jazz, rock and R&B, producing a sound that is unmistakably hers. On cuts like "When the World Turns Blue" and "Let Me Cry A Little Longer," Clayton is smooth but relentless in her delivery of the material on a cover of "Armed and Extremely Dangerous" and on a medley of Sly Stone tunes, Clayton's voice sings, talks and almost dances, something the music certainly is geared to do. This album is a must for jazz, B/C and AOR programming.

CHRISTOPHER CROSS — Warner Bros. BSK 3383 — Producer: Michael Omartian — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

Chris Cross has successfully merged the pop jazz sound of the Dobbie Bros. and Steely Dan with southern California rock on his debut LP, and people are going to be talking about this young artist for a long time to come. There are a million influences on this LP, but Cross emerges as a versatile performer, and one of the brightest hopes of 1980. The list of backing musicians on this fine first LP reads like a Who's Who of rock and jazz.

DANCING IN THE DRAGON'S JAW — Bruce Cockburn — Millenium BXL 1-7747 — Producer: Eugene Martynec — List: 7.98

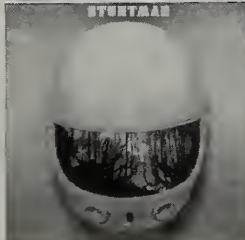

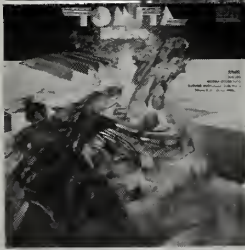

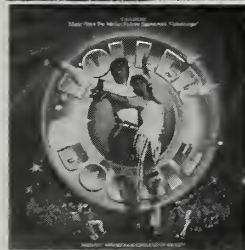

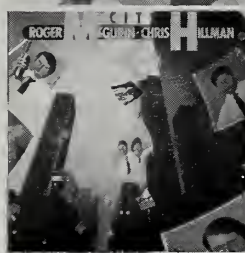

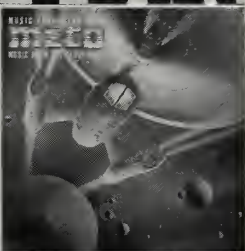

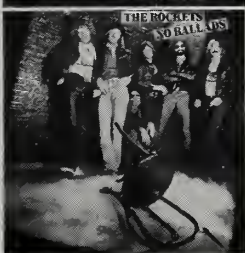

Canadian Bruce Cockburn now has his latest album available south of the border. Having already attained gold status in his homeland with "Dancing . . .," can this master acoustic guitarist duplicate the feat in the U.S.? By all standards the answer is a resounding yes. Cockburn is a genius at weaving dense, moody patterns with his unwavering guitar expertise and a voice as strong and solid as Canadian timber. For A/C and AOR formats with faith in quality softness.

MESSIN' WITH THE BOYS — Cherie and Marie Currie — Capitol ST-12022 — Producer: Jai Winding — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

Who really knew that ex-Runaway Cherie Currie had a twin sister named Marie? Who could have guessed that the two of them would release one of the best and strongest albums so far this year? Teamed with producer and keyboard wiz Jai Winding, the sister's sterling sibling harmonies are showcased brilliantly on this collection of spine-tingling rockers and stirring, credible ballads. For AOR receptive to hard rock ladies with an iron clad purpose.

. . . LIVE AT LAST — Good Rats — Rat City Records/Jem RCR 998 — Producers: Mickey Marchello & Charlie Conrad — List: 7.98

Undoubtedly the most underrated band this country never made famous, the Good Rats have remained a quirky mystery for nearly a decade now. Virtually owning Long Island, New York, the band never strayed much from its home turf. Good Rats have always offered a unique brand of off-kilter hard rock that pre-dated new wave in its directness, yet could hold its own against any number of coliseum headliners. A must for AOR.

LOVE STINKS — The J. Geils Band — EMI-America SOO-17016 — Producer: Seth Justman — List: 7.98

The J. Geils Band has been splitting ear-drums for some time now, but instead of more deafening decibels, this current release borrows from the best of the band's previous material and extends it into a tasty formula of new wave and funky rock tunes. "Just Can't Wait" should satisfy old and new rockers alike. "Comeback" is a funkier song, complete with electronics and good guitar work. Both songs add strength and the LP could easily find its way into AOR programming.

CITY — Roger McGuinn and Chris Hillman, featuring Gene Clark — Capitol ST-12043 — Producers: Ron and Howard Albert — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

Gene Clark has apparently de-emphasized his roll in the McGuinn, Clark & Hillman triumvirate, leaving Roger and Chris to hold the bag. And what an exciting cookin' bag it is! "City" is the kind of album a new waver could envy, yet if tastes run toward the mainstream California, that's okay, too. The cut "Skate Date" beautifully supersedes "Mr. Spaceman" for identical listener impact, a definite winner for AOR playlists with more than one track able to make it to Top 40.

"ROLLER BOOGIE" — Various Artists — Casablanca NBLP 2-7194 — Producer: Bob Esty — List: 13.98

A torrid rock 'n' roll disco number by Cher, "Hell On Wheels," paces this double LP soundtrack to the film about a chubby little girl whose only ambition in life is to win a "Roller Boogie" contest. "Boogie Wonderland" by the Emotions also highlights the album, but most of the dancin' material was written, arranged and conducted by Bob Esty. This album is perfect for dance parties and should be especially pleasing to the knee pad crowd.

NEVER BUY TEXAS FROM A COWBOY — The Brides of Funkenstein — Atlantic SD 19261 — Producer: George Clinton — List: 7.98

A high steppin', low down Funk number about some of mama's finest advice opens the latest LP from The Brides of Funkenstein. The first ladies of funk have a more mature sound now, and their ambitious, busy vocal marathons on this LP sound like a cross between a female choral group and Parliament. The top cuts on this funky string-filled outing include "Party Up In Here" and "Smoke Signals."

HIGH ON YOUR LOVE — Debbie Jacobs — MCA-3202 — Producer: Paul Sabu — List: 7.98

Tight arrangements and production characterize this album, which allows Jacobs to further extend her reputation as a dance vocalist. Although funky with her vocal stylings, the title track does not escape the euro-disco sound. Well syncopated percussions help divert attention from synthesizers that aren't really needed. Another cut, "Lovin' Spree," fares better, as Jacobs shows on this tune that there is much more to her act than gutsy funk. This album would be appropriate for A/C and DOR programming.

WHERE TO NOW — Charlie Dore — Island ILPS 9559 — Producers: Bruce Welch and Alan Tarney — List: 7.98

This is a surprising release for Island Records (known primarily for reggae and rock) as Charlie Dore is undeniably a country rock artist. Dore's warm lilting vocals are augmented by the music of the Tarney Spencer Band and some of the finest session cats in Nashville, and Island can be proud of its first outing in this rather foreign genre. The best tunes on the LP are "Fear Of Flying," "Sweetheart" and the title cut.

CHISOLM & SPENCE — Columbia NJC 36345 — Producers: Chisolm & Spence — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

This debut album for Chisolm & Spence is laden with love lyrics backed by Texas blues and soft folksy rock sounds. "One Kiss" is the tastiest original tune on the LP, with a cover of Steely Dan's "Dirty Work" offering fine vocal harmony. "Your Last Letter," the first single released from this LP, provides a fine and unique ballad for balance.

BOLERO — Tomita — RCA ARLI-3412 — Producer: Plasma Music — List: 7.98

There have been some great electronic musicians to come along in the past decade — Jarre, Emerson, Carlos — but few have treated the great classical works with as much reverence as Isao Tomita. Tomita first burst onto the pop scene with "Snowflakes Are Dancing," and he can chock up another great achievement with his synthesizer tribute to Ravel. Tomita delivers "Bolero" and "Mother Goose Suite" with his usual electronic panache.

STUNTMAN — Edgar Froese — Virgin V2139 — Producer: Edgar Froese — List: 7.98

This Berliner mined unknown areas in electronic rock with Tangerine Dream, and on his own he has produced greater, even more musical works. The six swirling, whirling music scapes on "Stuntman" would be equally appropriate as a film score or the ambient music for daily household chores. Another synthesized triumph for Froese. The most interesting tracks are "It Would Be Like Samo" and "Drunken Mozart In The Desert."

Chrysalis Records' Success Based On Solid Fundamentals

understand what has to be done. They don't believe in quotas, as long as you're developing an act. That is the most important thing, that you've covered every angle. If you do that, then everything will fall into place."

This philosophy was instrumental in breaking Blondie's "Parallel Lines" LP and "Heart Of Glass" single, perhaps the biggest Chrysalis success story of 1979.

"Blondie's 'Parallel Lines' was an album that we didn't think would explode like it did," Licata noted. "The album was out for quite a while, then 'Heart Of Glass' came out and everything took off. It broke wide open and opened the door for a lot of other things. It was a very important part of our success story."

Album Oriented

Getting its initial response from FM, "Parallel Lines" typifies much of Chrysalis' product, geared with a heavy emphasis toward strong albums. This direction is quite intentional, according to Licata.

"You can't be a record company on singles," he explained. "You've got to build a catalog. You've got to have longevity, and the only way to do that is to get to the AOR area. The FM, AOR is what built Chrysalis Records."

"That's why we have a lot of strength," Licata continued. "That's why our catalog is so strong. Our catalog is unreal for its size. We do a tremendous amount of catalog business."

Nevertheless, the dual success of "Parallel Lines" and "Heart Of Glass" also pointed out that the only way to the top is through Top 40 play. Pointing out that Chrysalis is now getting more and more acts onto Top 40 playlists, Licata explained, "That's the way you really get an act over the hump. You can sell X-amount of albums with AOR play, but in order to get one there, you have to have that hit single. We've been able to do that recently."

Blondie also typifies the Chrysalis attitude towards signing new acts. Known throughout its existence as a punk band, a new wave band, a pop band, Blondie's success with the discoized "Heart Of Glass" points to a flexible approach towards musical categories at Chrysalis.

"We sign music, that's where it's really at," Licata explained. "If it's right and it makes sense, that's what we want. We're always looking for new acts, but they have to be right for the company. We just signed a new act — Huey Lewis and The News out of San Francisco — and we feel very fortunate to have them with us. It's an exciting new group."

The characteristic attention to detail also spills over into the overall management of the company. Chrysalis was able to avoid the industry problems of 1979 by taking a realistic look at the situation, then acting accordingly. This course of action, Licata noted, proved itself by the fact that the label wasn't forced to cut back any staff during the slowest parts of 1979.

Realistic Forecasts

"We know how far we can go, how much we can deliver," Licata explained. "We're very conservative in our approach to annual forecasts. Just because you do $20 million of business one year, it doesn't mean that you're going to do $30 million the next."

The conservative approach also paid off in the area of returns. While majors like CBS, WEA, Polygram and RCA have instituted varying returns ceilings for 1980, Chrysalis will continue to emphasize carefully planned shipping.

"We're not changing our return policy," Licata stated, "because we know how to ship. Our returns were very, very low in 1979. I'm not criticizing those companies that have return ceilings, they have a different situation than ours and what they're doing seems to be a step in the right direction, but we have been way ahead of it. We knew when 1979 started that we had to change our thinking and watch how we shipped records, because we anticipated the problems ahead of the industry."

The emphasis upon shipping has also paid off with Chrysalis' network of independent distributors. While many buyers for retail chains, one-stops and rack jobbers have revealed that the newly instituted return ceilings of the majors will cause a more cautious attitude towards ordering product (Cash Box, Jan 12), Licata noted that Chrysalis and its distributors have been able to avoid this problem.

"If we would have come up and set a policy that we were going to have a 22% return ceiling or something like that, we probably would have had some heat," Licata stated, "but we're under that anyway, doing it the way we are."

Licata also believes that Chrysalis will remain with the independent distributors, instead of following the example of Casablanca, RSO and A&M, who left the ranks of the indies to join major branch distribution systems. In the three years that Chrysalis has existed as an independent company, Licata has been extremely pleased with the relationships that have been developed.

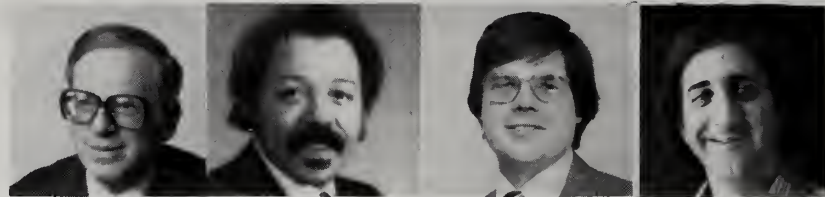

"We have been very, very successful being with independent distributors, and the BEATLETALK — Paul McCartney is reported to have an album ready for release by late March or early April. . . . John Lennon, who is said to be looking for backup musicians in Los Angeles, is reportedly set to buy The Dakota, the posh apartment building in NYC where he resides. . . . Ringo Starr landed a role in the "Cave Man" movie.

ALL DRESSED UP WITH NOWHERE TO GO — Columbia is set to release Elvis Costello's next album, a twenty-track opus titled "Get Happy," and they've got the finished master, artwork, posters and buttons ready to go. But reports from England indicate that the legal wranglings that have held up the album's release may reach Springsteen-esque proportions. It all began about two months ago when British Warner Brothers closed down Radar Records, to which Costello was signed, and claimed the rights to the artists who composed the roster. The artists, however, claimed that their agreement consisted of a handshake with a Radar principal who was no longer with the operation. Costello, in particular, has stated that he would quit the music business entirely rather than sign with Warners. To compound the legal hassles, Warners has filed an injunction to prevent the BBC from airing a single from the album, "I Can't Stand Up For Falling Down" (a Sam and Dave cover) that was to have inaugurated Off-Beat records, an operation financed by Costello's manager, Jake Riviera. The single's B-side, incidentally is a version of Costello's self-penned "Girls Talk," which was recently a hit for Dave Edmunds.

DERRINGER GREETES FANS — Blue Sky recording artist Rick Derringer, touring in support of his new LP, "Guitars and Women," was visited backstage by celebrity admirers after a recent appearance at New York's Bottom Line. Look for Irv Azoff, whose Front Line management handles the Eagles, to bow a record arm here, headed up by Mike Kleinfner, the former Atlantic executive. The Azoff signing of Australian group Jo Jo Zep will come out on his CBS-distributed Full Moon label. . . . The Washington, D.C.-based Harmony Hut chain, which just held a meeting for local branch personnel as well as regional and national label reps, is set to unveil a $3.5 million distribution and management center. . . . Jimmy's, the chain that led the lowballing pack several years ago and then went Chapter XI, recently advertised ten albums, including a couple of $8.98s, for $3.99. . . . Polydor hopes to maximize the exposure of a Blondie tune on the "American Gigolo" soundtrack by shipping DJ copies of the album with double A-sides.

Double LP Sets Move Well

reasons why Pink Floyd was the number one seller for the 12-store Flip Side chain.

'Living Within Prices'

Doubles have been moving well for the Record Bar, said Ed Berson, vice president of purchasing, Berson's latest computer print-outs show Pink Floyd, Lynyrd Skynard, the Bee Gees, Donna Summer and Fleetwood Mac riding the top 20 in the chain's 97 outlets, stretching from Utah to Durham, N.C. Agreeing that the artists' popularity was an overriding consideration for the consumers, Berson said, "It seems that the U.S. is living within its prices no matter what."

The circulation of holiday gift money was cited as the major reason for the strong sales of doubles by Evan Lasky, president of the 93 Budget Tapes & Records stores, which are found from Wisconsin to Alaska. Lasky cited the holiday carry-over and lack of strong competitive product for the "aberration" of continued movement by Pink Floyd and No Nukes. Commenting on Budget's markdown policy for double and single pocket LPs, Lasky claimed to be "pretty unusual in not trying to make more on the high-priced twin sets."

Similar Markdown

Most of the other retailers, however, insisted that the difference in their markdowns on double sets was only marginally different from their discounting of single pocket items. The major exception was Korvettes, which recently advertised four bestselling doubles in the New York Times for $7.88 each.

David Rothfeld, vice president and divisional merchandise manager for the 50-unit Korvettes chain, was less than enthusiastic about the profit potential of double-record sets. "People back off on a two-record set today at your normal prices," he stated. Pointing out that most of the popular twin sets were conceived before the economy went into its current slump, Rothfeld insisted that aggressive radio and print promotions were the major reasons for the success of the Donna Summer album and other doubles at Korvettes.

Alternative View

Other retailers had different interpretations of the current viability of high-ticket, two-record sets. "What we've done is cut away a large segment of the very young population that used to buy records," warned John Cohen, president of Disc Records, which has 37 stores in Texas, the midwest and the southeast. Emphasizing

Atlantic Campaigning For 'Rose' Soundtrack

NEW YORK — Atlantic Records has launched an extensive marketing campaign to promote the original soundtrack to the film, "The Rose," which stars Bette Midler.

Merchandising aids used to support the album include a variety of posters, stickers, and buttons, as well as catalog posters promoting the artist's five albums for the label. In addition, Atlantic's activities are being closely integrated with promotions by Warner Books, which recently released "The Rose" in paperback, and Pocket Books, which is distributing "An Illustrated Book" of "The Rose."

Atlantic has released a new single, "When A Man Loves A Woman," from the soundtrack LP. The album was produced and arranged by Paul Rothchild.

MCA Records Moves East Coast Offices

NEW YORK — MCA Records has moved from its quarters at 445 Park Avenue to new offices at 10 East 53rd Street, effective Jan 14. The new phone number is (212) 888-9700.

the reduction in "available dollars," Cohen prophesied a return to 45's by the crucial 11 to 14-year-old consumers. "Tusk did well for us," he said, "but it would have sold twice as much as a single LP."

Wayne Troyer, buyer for New Orleans' Mushroom Records, was decidedly down on doubles, in spite of a 32-33% markup from cost that enabled him "to make a little more" on the twin sets. "I don't order as many double sets when they first come out," he said. "It could blow my budget right there with one company. On single pockets, I'm more able to take a chance."

Pofcher took a realistic view of doubles, pointing out that many of them were "stiffs." Seaman feels that "in a tough, tight economy the consumer is going to be more interested in going for a single record."

Berson pointed out that the rise in sales of doubles was disguising a decline in overall sales volume, but indicated that double sets will probably be around for the foreseeable future. "As long as the labels are using discretion and really believe in the double albums they're putting out by giving them all the backing necessary, the good ones are still going to fly. Musically they must be strong albums — when they're just thrown out to take care of commitments, they're not going to happen."

FEATURE PICKS

LINDA RONSTADT (Asylum E-46602)
How Do I Make You (2:25) (Billy Steinberg Music) (B. Steinberg)

A quick drum roll kicks off the first single from Ronstadt's forthcoming "Mad Love" LP, introducing a short rapid fire rocker. Although signaling somewhat of a departure for the songstress, it is no less satisfying than past efforts and heralds an exciting new phase for her. Perfectly programable for pop and AOR, this is a must.

ANDY GIBB (RSO RS 1019)
Desire (3:36) (Stigwood Music, Inc., admin. by Unichappel Music — BMI) (B., R., M. Gibb)

The youngest Gibb is well-served by his illustrious brothers here, who lend their songwriting talents as well as trademark falsetto harmonies to this single from Andy's forthcoming "After Dark" LP. A glowing instrumental, provides a pleasant base for this potential Top 40 smash.

THE WHISPERS (Solar/RCA YB-11894)
And The Beat Goes On (3:25) (Spectrum VII/Rosy Music — ASCAP) (L. Sylvers, S. Shockley, W. Shelby)

Already receiving heavy B/C radio activity, this record promises to be one of the biggest hits ever for the highly polished vocal group. Featuring a steady, infectious dance beat, nicely augmented by keyboards, strings, handclaps and various percussives, this could prove to be a strong crossover item as well. The vocals are perfectly integrated.

RICK JAMES (Gordy G 7177F)
Come Into My Life (3:05) (Jobete Music Co., Inc./Stone City Music Co. — ASCAP) (R. James)

The second single from James' "Fire It Up" LP is a rousing funk rocker with the Punk Funkster himself leading the steady groove with a throbbing bass line. Chirpy female backup singers add some sexy vocalizing to the proceedings here, as synthesizers round out the instrumental. Look for heavy initial B/C action on this one, due to James' past history.

FELIX CAVALIERE (Epic 9-50829)
Only A Lonely Heart Sees (3:41) (K1 Music — ASCAP) (F. Cavaliere, J. Tran)

Ex-Young Rascal Cavaliere is reunited here with former band-mate Eddie Brigati and his brother David on the first single from the new "Castles In The Air" LP. A shimmering ballad, featuring clicking chimes, strings and smart drum work behind the singer/songwriter's quivering vocals, this will be right at home on pop, A/C lists.

THE J. GEILS BAND (EMI-America 8032)
Come Back (3:32) (Center City Music — ASCAP) (P. Wolf, S. Justman)

J. Geils and crew move in a somewhat different direction than their usual boogie rock on the first single from their new "Love Stinks" LP, although they retain a hard 'n' heavy guitar sound. An insistent dance beat is surrounded by rapid-fire electronics, while Peter Wolf's lead vocals carry an aggressive edge. Perfect for '80s AOR and adventuresome pop.

DAVID GATES (Elektra E-46588)

Where Does The Lovin' Go (3:04) (Kipahula Music — ASCAP) (D. Gates)

Gates, the driving force behind the defunct hit group Bread, continues to mine the same musical vein as he did with that unit on this track from his forthcoming "Falling In Love Again" LP. Easy woodblock rhythm and soft guitar picking combine with strings behind Gates' fragile vocals for a romantic winner. Due for top pop, A/C and country action.

ROGER McGUINN and CHRIS HILLMAN, featuring GENE CLARK (Capitol P-4821)

One More Chance (3:29) (McGuinn Music/Jackelope Publishing Co., Inc. — BMI) (R. McGuinn, J. Levy)

McGuinn, Clark and Hillman have undergone a metamorphosis, as McGuinn and Hillman remain the writing and performing core of the unit, with Clark in a featured role. This tune, from the new "City" LP, fuses reggae elements with a pop hook. McGuinn supplies superlative lead vocals.

SINGLES TO WATCH

ROSKO (A&M 2213)
She (Power To Be) (2:02) (Rosko Prods.-BMI/Ginseng Music-Medallion Avenue Music — ASCAP) (B. Rosko Mercer, D. McGinnis, B. Todd)

Renowned radio air personality Rosko turns in a dramatic, patriotic paean to America here with his low, booming voice. Backed by light instruments, including strings, that grow with the powerful, affecting finish. A novelty for all formats.

STONEBOLT (RCA PB-11910)
Don't Ya Hide It (3:46) (Deepecove Music/Dunbar Music Canada Ltd. — PROC) (R. Roper, D. Wills, B. Lousley, D. Atchison, J. Webster)

This Canadian rock group, formerly on the Parachute label, displays a sound here uncannily similar to Styx in both its high vocals and harmonies, which could prove to be most attractive to both AOR and pop audiences. A sleeper.

AMERICA (Capitol P-4817)
All Around (3:20) (Twenty-Nine Songs/Poison Oak Music — ASCAP) (Beckley, Bunnell)

From the "Silent Letter" LP comes this glistening, reflective tune, building from an easy beginning to airy harmonies on the floating chorus. The bass line stands out prominently with some interesting drum work. Right for pop, A/C lists.

RICHARD LLOYD (Elektra E-46577)
Blue And Grey (3:35) (Anapestic Music — ASCAP) (R. Lloyd)

While Television, Lloyd's former group, was critically acclaimed as one of N.Y.'s premier new wave bands, the guitarist has ventured into more of a pop direction, as exhibited on this single from the "Alchemy" LP. Bright keyboards here make this solid pop and AOR material.

RONNIE MILSAP (RCA PB-11909)
Why Don't You Spend The Night (3:45) (Hall-Clement Publications — BMI) (B. McDill)

Country recording star Milsap has been on the verge of crossover success and this Bob McDill-penned tune could be just the item to do it. Clicking woodblock sets the beat, while strings, chimes and guitar add just the right sheen for A/C and pop, as well as country.

MILLIE JACKSON (Spring/Polydor SP-3007)
Didn't I Blow Your Mind (3:50) (Mighty Three Music/Belboy Music — BMI) (T. Bell, W. Hart)

Jackson turns in a strong re-working of the Delfonics' 1970 hit on this cut from her salty "Live And Uncensored" LP. Her tough yet stylish vocalizing gives new meaning to the word "soul." This is ripe for heavy B/C action.

PHOENIX (Charisma CA 3504)
Just Another Day (3:42) (April Music, Inc./Russell Ballard Ltd. — ASCAP) (R. Ballard)

Strong, insistent bass drum beat melds nicely with organ and bluesy sax on this taut Russ Ballard rocker from Phoenix' "In Full View" LP. The British trio display both power and style here and should fit in nicely on AOR lists.

BLACKJACK (Polydor PD 2046)
Without Your Love (3:35) (Emboe Music, Inc. — ASCAP) (M. Bolotin)

Heavy metal meets blues rock on this driving tune from Blackjack's self-titled debut LP. These boys have been listening closely to Bob Seger and Bad Company, as both of those styles are more than evident here. Hot material for AOR.

THE DRAMATICS (MCA MCA-41178)
Welcome Back Home (Conquistador Music, Inc./Groovesville Music, Inc. — ASCAP/BMI) (R. Banks, R. Johnson, T. Green, D. Kimbrough)

From the "10 1/2" LP comes this superb R&B ballad by the veteran vocal group, with high lead vocals riding atop a silky bed of horns, strings, piano and woodwinds, aided by full harmonies. A highly recommended B/C choice.

RAY SAWYER (Capitol P-4820)
I Don't Feel Much Like Smilin' (2:41) (Horse Hairs Music, Inc.—BMI) (R. Sawyer, D. Locorriere)

Ray Sawyer, often mistaken for Dr. Hook as a member of the top-selling group and the lead singer of such songs as "Sylvia's Mother," goes solo here on this easy tune co-written by bandmate Dennis Locorriere. Gliding guitars and mellow brass make this a perfect choice for A/C and country.

CHISHOLM & SPENCE (Columbia 1-11191)
Your Last Letter (3:57) (April Music, Inc. — ASCAP) (R. Spence)

Duo Chisholm & Spence present a unique, vibrant ballad, blending urgent lead vocals with layered harmonies. Electronic keyboards are wrapped around the composition to good effect. Suitable for pop, A/C formats.

MICHAEL JOHNSON (EMI-America 8031)
The Very First Time (3:04) (Chappell & Co., Inc./Sailmaker Music — ASCAP) (R. Goodrum)

Hit songwriter Randy Goodrum supplies Johnson with a feathery pop ballad for this single from the "Dialogue" LP. Strings accentuate the romantic feel of the cut, while electric and acoustic piano, with guitar, give it a crisp pop sound. For A/C, pop lists.

L.A. BOPPERS (Mercury 76038)
Is This The Best (Bop-Doo-Wah) (3:47) (L.A. Boppers Music/Relaxed Music/What You Need Pub. — BMI) (V. Tenort)

Is big band music coming back into style? If the L.A. Boppers have their way it will be, as they present a contemporary version of that bygone music era here, with just a dash of bebop and R&B-flavored rhythm tossed in for good measure. Excellent vocals and harmonies are the highlight here.

SAMMY HAGAR (Capitol 4825)
Straight To The Top (3:27) (Big Bang Music/Warner-Tamerlane Publishing Corp. — BMI) (S. Hagar)

Hagar jumps on the pop/rockabilly bandwagon with this track from the "Street Machine" LP, mixing some flamboyant electric guitar work with a rolling boogie beat and echoed lead vocals and harmonies. It should attract AOR and pop interest.

AIR SUPPLY (Arista AS 0479)
Lost In Love (3:44) (Arista Music, Inc./BRM Publishing — ASCAP) (G. Russell)

Soft rock, with elegant acoustic guitar work, glistening harmonies, light rhythm and electric piano touches, is served up by new group Air Supply on this tasty single. This promises to be a real sleeper, an excellent choice for pop, A/C formats.

POINTS WEST

MCCARTNEY TIED UP WITH 'HEMP' IN JAPAN — According to wire service reports, singer and former Beatle Paul McCartney was arrested in Japan last week for allegedly trying to smuggle nearly a half-pound of marijuana through customs at Tokyo International Airport. As a result, he was forced to cancel a scheduled two-week tour of the country with his group "Wings." McCartney, who was quoted of officials as saying that he had "brought some hemp for my smoking," could be sentenced under Japan's tough anti-drug laws to a maximum of seven years in prison, in addition to a fine.

ZEVON'S CALIFORNIA-STYLE CHINESE DINNER — "Bad Luck Streak In Chinese School," the new platter from Warren Zevon, should be in the stores by the end of this month and features nearly the entire southern California rock community. E/A's musical mercenary is joined by bassist Lee Sklar, drummer Rick Marotta and guitarists David Lindley, Joe Walsh and Waddy Wachtel, as well as Jackson Browne, Linda Ronstadt, Eagles Glenn Frey and Don Henley on backup vocals. Zevon describes the LP, which boasts a number of classical/symphonic interludes, as bearing a "strong Stravinsky influence," but there is also a lot of meaty rock 'n' roll. Zevon co-wrote one tune, entitled "Jeanie Needs A Shooter," with Bruce Springsteen and also performs a cover of Ernie K-Doe's classic "A Certain Girl." Sports fans will want to note that pitcher Bill "Spaceman" Lee, one of Zevon's idols, is paid homage to in a song titled, simply, "Bill Lee." We're told that although marksman Zevon still enjoys working out with his .44 Magnum, his favorite weapon, he chose an Uzi submachine gun for the back cover shot.

THE SCOOP ON NEW GROUPS — Former Los Angeles-based group Holly & The Italians has moved to London and is currently enjoying some success there via a single on Oval Records entitled "Tell That Girl To Shut Up." Word has it that several major labels are sniffing around the band with contract bids. Holly Vincent was formerly a member of Backstage Pass and Gary Myrick & The Mannequins before they became Gary Myrick and The Figures. One more thing . . . no one in the band is Italian.

working on her second LP for the label with George Tobin producing . . . Jet recording artist Gary Moore is at Cherokee Studios, as a new Warner Bros. group Robin Lane and The Chartbusters. Lane, the daughter of Dean Martin's former TV show accompanist Kenny Lane, and band are being produced by Joe Wissert . . . San Francisco's Automatt is buzzing with activity, as Journey is mixing a new Columbia LP with co-producers Kevin Ellson and Jeff Workman, Phonogram/Mercury's Con Funk Shun doing overdubs with Skip Scarborough producing and the Tazmanian Devils mixing their Warner Bros. debut LP with Erik Jacobsen producing . . . UA artist Ronnie Laws is producing sister Debra Laws E/A debut LP at Scott/Sunstorm and Leon Haywood is also working at the same studio on his 20th Century-Fox Records LP.

MOVIES & MUSIC — Meat Loaf's composer/sidekick Jim Steinman has been tapped to compose the score for the upcoming United Artists' motion picture "Small Circle Of Friends," which traces the lives of three people from 1967 to the present. Set at Harvard University, the movie was written by Ezra Sacks and directed by Rob Cohen . . . The man who wrote Long John Baldry's "Don't Try To Lay No Boogie Woogie On The King Of Rock N' Roll," Jeff Thomas, will play Dolly Parton's hobby in the 20th Century-Fox film "Nine To Five," which also stars Jane Fonda and Lilly Tomlin . . . Keyboardist par excellence Keith Emerson, formerly of Emerson, Lake & Palmer, is writing the film score for the Dario Argento-produced "Inferno." Sources say it is an unpredictable film which features mice, cats, lizards and leeches torturing humans. The question is will Emerson write anything along the lines of Michael Jackson's "Ben" for the movie "Willard."

ON THE ROAD — Columbia recording group Toto embarked last week on the first leg of its 1980 international tour, beginning here on the West Coast. After the U.S., the band will hit Japan and Europe. . . Mercury recording group Rush, which recently released a new LP entitled "Permanent Waves," will start a 38-city national tour in support of the album in Albany, N.Y. Jan. 22. The tour, which concludes in Chicago April 5, brings the trio to L.A. March 8 and Long Beach, Calif. March 9. . . Country legend Ernest Tubb began a 16-date tour of the west coast Jan. 17 in Seaside, Ca. with dates slated for San Jose, San Francisco, Las Vegas, San Juan Capistrano and ending in West Covina, Calif. Feb. 10.

UPCOMING RELEASES — Dutch recording group Kayak, formerly with Janus Records, has been signed to Phonogram/Mercury and is slated to release their debut LP for the label in Feb. . . Bearsville Records, under a production deal with blues legend Willie Mitchell, has scheduled the release of a Kenny Doff LP.

FAMILY AFFAIRS — Congratulations to Front Line Management president Irving Azoff and his wife Shelli on the birth of their daughter Allison Sarah Jan. 11 at Cedars Sinai Hospital in L.A.

ENDS & ODDS — A get well soon wish goes out to Emiel Petrone, vice president of Polygram Distributing, who is recuperating from lower back surgery at Cedars Sinai. . . A bravery above and beyond the call of duty award goes to Toto's Steve Porcaro, who received a gash in his face requiring six stitches during the shooting of a videotape for the group's "Hydra" LP. Porcaro, it appears, was a little overzealous in his acting and took an unintentionally hard fall. But en route to the hospital, all the keyboardist asked was "Did they get the shot?"

Widespread Media Coverage For Daniels' Volunteer Jam

by Don Cusic

NASHVILLE — More than 10,000 country-rock fans — plus a nationwide radio audience that will perhaps total some one million listeners — attended the nine-hour musical marathon known as Volunteer Jam

ITA Establishes Own Gold Videocassette And Videodisc Awards

LOS ANGELES — The International Tape/Disc Association (ITA) has established a new worldwide award to note outstanding sales of pre-recorded home videotapes and videodiscs. The awards, to be known as the ITA Golden Videocassette and the ITA Golden Videodisc, will initially be based upon minimum sales of $1 million worth of product at retail list price or its equivalent in foreign currencies.

An audit system has been established as well to verify sales, according to Henry Brief, executive director of ITA, and owners of programming rights for video cassettes or discs or their legal licensees worldwide may apply for ITA certification. Total sales of an individual cassette title or program, regardless of tape format, will be included, as will total sales on videodiscs regardless of the system. Only sales within an individual country will be considered for an award.

ITA's awards and certification go into effect immediately, as opposed to that of the RIAA, which has been postponed "until some time in the future when player population and videogram sales levels warrant this recognition of achievement," according to RIAA president Stan Gortikov (Cash Box, Jan. 19).

"Since ours is an international organization whose more than 450 member companies worldwide are involved in every facet of the video tape and disc industry, and since the home video explosion is a global phenomenon, we thought it appropriate for ITA to establish an award for outstanding sales achievement that would receive worldwide recognition and prestige," said Brief. He also added that, over time, there would undoubtedly be periodic reviews and adjustments of the criteria for award eligibility.

Bootleggers Enjoined

terland and Leber-Krebs (managers of Ted Nugent, also a plaintiff in the suit), the two companies estimated that perhaps $100,000 in bootleg T-shirts were sold at the California Music Festival in Los Angeles, which featured Aerosmith, Nugent, Van Halen and Cheap Trick. It was that discovery that prompted the suit.

Dell Furano, president of Winterland Productions, further estimated that national bootleg sales probably exceed $20 million annually, with net sales in the new York area alone exceeding $1 million per year.

The artist, concert hall, promoter and governmental agencies all lose revenue due to bootlegging because royalties, concessions and sales taxes, normally paid by authorized T-shirt vendors, are not paid by the bootleggers, according to a Winterland spokesman.

In granting the preliminary injunction, the Court prohibited the defendants from directly or indirectly distributing or selling articles with the likeness or a symbol of any of the plaintiffs in the action.

The injunction also prohibited developing any other avenues to circumvent the court order. The injunction further prohibited altering, hiding or destroying any financial records related to the unauthorized selling.

The 6th annual Jam, organized by Charlie Daniels, manager Joe Sullivan, Steve Grill and Sound Seventy, featured a diverse cast that included the Charlie Daniels Band, Willie Nelson, Ted Nugent, the Allman Brothers, Crystal Gayle, Ray Price, Rufus Thomas, Wet Willie, the Winters Brothers, Louisiana's Leroux, John Prine, Bobby Jones and New Life, Ben Smathers and the Stoney Mountain Cloggers, Marshall Tucker Band, Elvin Bishop, Mickey Gilley, Mylon LeFevre, Grinderswitch, Henry Paul Band, Dobie Gray, Mac Gayden, Delbert McClinton, Papa John Creach, Bonnie Bramlett and Stillwater.

Also making cameo appearances at the Jam were Jamie Nichol, Jerry Mills, Mickey Raphael, Al Kooper, Richie Canatta, Bob Wilson and Dave Perkins.

In addition to the 10,000-plus paying fans, this year's show attracted more than 2,000 backstage guests and friends, including entertainment personalities, musicians and industry executives from Los Angeles, Nashville and New York.

Arista And Pickwick Announce Distrib Pact

each party in terms of the amount of product, how it's brought to market, and the programs which accompany it, rather than having the distributor assist us in the recording or signing of artists. In this area, I want to be as consistent as possible and hope to take a similar approach with all of our distributors." He added that the notion of having the distributor absorb some of the independent label's cost in breaking new artists "still has applicability," but "doesn't necessarily apply to our label."

Commenting on the agreement, David Ehlen, executive vice president of Pickwick, said that "we are delighted to establish this relationship with Arista after several months of discussions and negotiations. We believe, as does Arista, in the future of independent record distribution in the U.S., and this agreement clearly reflects our commitment to and support of this kind of activity and direction."

Goldman added that Arista "looks forward to a long and prosperous relationship with Pickwick, not only at the distribution level, but also at the rack and retail level as well."

The show is beamed by SPN to the RCA Satcom I satellite, which transmits the show to cable systems from 11 p.m. to 1 a.m. EST (8 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the west).

MEDIA STATISTICS SURVEY SHOWS VCRs IN 1.7% OF U.S. TV HOMES — A survey taken by Media Statistics Inc. of VCR owners from August to December of last year showed that 1.7% of TV homes in 15 major U.S. markets have videocassette machines and that VHS format units held a solid lead over Betamax. Of VHS format machines, RCA SelectaVision models were found to be in nearly 1/3 of all homes surveyed, followed by Sony, with almost 30% of all homes accounted for. VHS format machines were in nearly 60% of all sampled homes, while Beta units were in just over 40% of the homes.

RUNDGREN OPENS NEW VIDEO PRODUCTION FACILITY — Producer/recording artist Todd Rundgren has opened up a new studio facility in Bearsville, N.Y. for his Utopia Video Corporation. The studio, which houses $1 million worth of state-of-the-art production equipment, including a Squeezoom, the Rutt/Etra synthesizer, the EMS Spectre synthesizer and the BJA Chromaton, was designed specifically for Rundgren's video production unit and encompasses 2,500 sq. ft. of area. Also featured in the studio is a computerized lighting system, the Ultimate keying device and a line of Sony 1" broadcast quality videotape recorders. The first project to be completed in the studio will be Rundgren's sci-fi fantasy to accompany Tomita's interpretation of Gustav Holst's The Planet and future projects slated for production are How To Run For President, a pilot for a series on the American electoral process, and Utopia, which Rundgren describes as a "musical variety drama" featuring members of the Bearsville recording group Utopia.

The nine-cut presentation is a Jet production with CBS Inc., with Mike Mansfield producing and directing the project, with executive producers Don Arden (head of the CBS-distributed Jet Records, ELO's label) and David Arden. The video is currently being distributed to the pay TV industry by Satori Prods. in association with Osmond International . . . Los Angeles-based Michael Des Barres, formerly of the rock group Detective, currently has a video in circulation, although he has yet to sign a solo recording pact . . . Arista recording artist Dionne Warwick will be featured on a presentation entitled Dionne Warwick in Concert, to air on Home Box Office during the month of February . . . Keef Co., which recently shot the benefit concert for Kampuchean (Cambodian) refugees at the Hammersmith Odeon in London, has announced that the four-night affair, featuring Queen, Ian Dury, The Clash, The Who, Paul McCartney, Elvis Costello, Nick Lowe and others, will be broadcast in the UK on the Thames Network as a 90-minute special concert overview. EMI has software distribution rights to four one-hour specials highlighting each night's line-up. Keef Co. also shot Queen's new UK single "Save Me" in collaboration with the London-based Cucumber Studios, who provided animation.

3M OFFERS GRANTS TO THE RECORDING ACADEMY — The 3M Company of St. Paul, Minn. recently extended an offer of limited financial grants to the seven chapters of the Recording Academy (NARAS) to partially underwrite the cost of membership seminars and other educational or cultural meetings produced within each chapter. 3M is expected to contribute $250 for each seminar or chapter membership meeting for the period of one year. According to Dennis A. Farmer, market development manager of 3M's Magnetic Audio Products division, the firm would also on occasion "supply technical and non-technical speakers to address the chapters on state-of-the-art topics in a non-commercial manner." The company is also presently contemplating extending the agreement with the Recording Academy beyond the one year trial period. michael glynn & dennis garrick

AUDIOPHILE LP REVIEWS

THEME FOR A WOOGIE-BOOGIE — Mickey Tucker — Denon YX-7804-ND Producer: Yoshio Ozawa — Dist.: Discwasher — List 15.98

This digitally recorded jazz delight from Denon beautifully captures veteran jazz pianist Mickey Tucker and an accomplished crew swinging through five Tucker-penned compositions. Brass aficionados should have a field day as trumpet, trombone, saxophone and french horn are reproduced and played with exuberant dynamics. Tucker's ode to Coleman Hawkins, "A Tribute To Bean," and "Bogueballabbossa" are favorites. No fault can be found with this quality Japanese pressing.

GOING HOME — The Original Biblical Gospel Singers — Realltime RT 200 — Producer: Michael Harvey — Dist.: Realltime Records — List: 15.00

Some of history's oldest music is captured on this disc by today's newest digital technology, and the combination proves joyous. Gospel lovers and audiophiles should appreciate the realism and power of a 22-member choir singing traditional tunes, as well as selections penned by Allen Toussaint. After listening to this recording, there is no question as to where R&B and rock's roots are. The quality of both the pressing and the engineering on this LP should amaze anybody who enjoys gospel music.

New Magnetic Tape Products Ready For Mass Marketing

by Dennis Garrick

LOS ANGELES — Record retailers with an interest in tapes can look forward to new product from the major manufacturers in the near future. In addition to the normal fare offered by the manufacturers, the Winter Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas revealed a variety of new products that will soon hit the market, including metal tapes, updated audio and videotape formulations, and videotape recorder head cleaners.

The following companies introduced new product at the winter CES:

Ampex Corp.

Ampex Corp., which has introduced both Beta and VHS format videotape within the past 12 months, has unveiled its first metal tape, the "MPT" C-60. To hit the market in February, "MPT" C-60 will retail for $9.95.

BASF Systems

BASF Systems has introduced a new open-reel tape designated "Ferro LH DP 26." The high-output, low-noise ferric oxide formulation is packaged in a plastic box and is available in three lengths — 1,800 feet at $12.99, 2,400 feet at $16.99, and 3,600 feet at $21.99. The firm also debuted a full line of chromium-dioxide VHS and Beta format video-cassettes.

Fuji Corp.

Fuji Corp. has announced the availability of the industry's first C-90 metal cassette tape, complementing the previously released C-46 and C-60 minute metal cassettes. Prices for the cassettes are $8.30 for the C-46, $9.10 for the C-60 and $12 for C-90 metal tapes.

A second generation videotape is also available from Fuji, with a binder for the new low speed VCRs. VHS and Beta format video head cleaning cassettes will also be available, with both 20- and 30-foot lengths. The 30-foot VCL-30 is ticketed at $25 and the 20-foot BCL-20 will sell for $18.50.

Maxell Corp.

Maxell Corp. will have its new MX Metaxial metal C-46 and C-60 cassettes available for delivery in February, while metal C-90s will be shipped in April. Suggested prices are $11.25 for the MX-46, $12.50 for the MX-60 and $14.45 for the MX-90. Aware of the demands made on videotape with the new extended play VCRs, Maxell also in-

WCI To Begin Video Distribution Through WEA

LOS ANGELES — Warner Communications, Inc. has announced that it will soon begin distribution of the video cassette line developed by its home video division through its WEA subsidiary and that the operation will be based in Los Angeles, Chicago and New York.

Russ Bach, WEA vice president of marketing development, also announced that the three outlets will be staffed with one regional video specialist per outlet, and that one local video sales representative will be assigned to the New York operation.

Robert A. Shaw, who has been with the Chicago branch sales staff for four-and-a-half years, will operate that branch as WEA's video specialist, servicing the Cleveland and Atlanta branches.

Jim Fisher has been assigned to service the Los Angeles and Dallas branches as video specialist. Fisher, a 12-year veteran of the music industry, before serving briefly as marketing director for Cash Box, was at 20th Century-Fox Records and MCA before joining WEA.

A video specialist for the New York market will be named later.

roduced High Grade (HG) video cassettes in four lengths for VHS formats, with the HG-120 priced at $29.95.

Also on the horizon is Maxell's L-250 and L-500 Beta format video cassettes priced at $16.95 and $22.50, respectively. Delivery for both HG and Beta tapes is slated for February.

RKO Tape Corp.

The RKO Tape Corp., which first entered the blank tape market in June when it introduced RKO Broadcast 1, a premium ferric cassette, has followed up with Ultrachrome and RKO XD. A true second generation chromium-dioxide tape, Ultrachrome C-60s will go for $3.96, while C-90s will cost $5.76.

RKO XD, a general purpose tape, will retail at $2.60 for C-60 and $3.66 for C-90.

Audiophile Labels Hold Summit To Form Steering Committee

LOS ANGELES — Representatives from various facets of the audiophile disc industry recently took part in a summit meeting Jan. 4 in Las Vegas. Thirty-five delegates participated in the meeting which was sponsored by Nautilus Recordings, leading audiophile disc producer and distributor. Participants in the summit, according to Baxter Boynington of Nautilus, "represented a broad cross-section of the audiophile industry gathered together to discuss large and numerous areas where knowledge could be shared to help expand and increase the market."

Although no official association was formed Boynington explained that "there was a great deal of enthusiasm and energy behind the idea to continue the discussion in some way and, as a result, a steering committee was suggested." Named to the committee were Steve Krause, president of Nautilus Recordings; Cheryl King of 2000 B.C.; Jeff Weber of En Pointe Productions; Herb Dilhoper, chief executive officer of Sound 80 Recorders in Minneapolis and Jonas Miller, chief executive officer of M&K Realltime Records.

Areas of common concern that were discussed at the summit included problems of credit and collections; expense, time and lacquer degradation involved in overseas pressing and mastering; and consumer education about digital recording.

"The general consensus at the meeting," stated Boynington, "was that the consumer is now confused about the buzzword digital because they have been told that digitally-produced albums are better. A consumer may have bought one digital audiophile album for $15, and then he sees a digitally-recorded conventional album in a bin for $8.98 and either thinks he has been defrauded or has just found a bargain."

Participants agreed, according to Boynington, that it was necessary for the audiophile industry to make the consumer aware of the difference between audiophile and conventional pressings but that no single company could afford such an undertaking.

Much discussion revolved around the question of what qualifications must be met to label a disc an audiophile pressing. "Attitude of excellence," concluded Boynington, "was the term adopted by everyone at the summit. If, in producing a record, all decisions during the complete process are based on maintaining the highest quality possible, then an audiophile disc would result, regardless of whether it was half-speed mastered, digitally or direct-to-disc recorded."

WHAT'S IN-STORE

INTEGRITY SHIFT — Louis Kwiker, formerly president of Detroit-based Music Stop, Inc., has just been elected president and chief operating officer of Integrity Entertainment Corp. (Wherehouse, Big Ben's) of Los Angeles. Kwiker had also served as president and chief operating officer of Handleman Company. In other shifts, company founder Leon Hartstone, was chosen as chairman of the board and chief executive officer. Alan Pachtman, vice president and controller was promoted to treasurer, while James Kolitz, senior vice president in charge of administration was chosen to be secretary.

TAPE NEWS — A number of tape manufacturers have announced promotions for the new year. Here are several of the most interesting: The Prophet, a "Can-Am" racing car, driven by Bobby Rahal, will be the main promotional vehicle for Ampex Corp.'s line of consumer magnetic tape. The Ampex name will be prominently displayed on the machine which will be entered in the 1980 Citicorp Can-Am Challenge Cup, a ten-event competition. The company feels that motorsport spectators are representative of that part of the public interested in premium blank audio and videocassettes. . . . At BASF, special packaging of the Professional and Performance cassettes highlight the Jan. and Feb. 1980 product promotions. The Professional I C-90 cassettes will be available as part of a two-for-one offer in which the $10.98 value will be retailed for $5.49. The tape package will also contain a card with a coupon good for $3 off the purchase price of any five cassettes in the series. In a second promotion, a padded vinyl auto cassette carrying case will be offered free with the purchase of five performance C-90 cassettes, a $26.45 value for a suggested retail price of $19.95. . . . 3M's new advertising campaign for its Scotch recording tapes will focus on the Scotch audio cassette as a primary component in a superior sound system. FM radio commercials will be run in many markets hoping to target the 18 to 34 year-old segment. FM stations will be given heavy emphasis. Ads on AM radio, and in audiophile and trade magazines will also be featured. As an incentive to dealers, a free C-Box car saddle cassette storage unit will be included with every order for immediate shipment of a case of 20 C-90 cassettes. This offer will run from June 11 to July 31 in conjunction with the summer CES.

PINK FLOYD — Several promotions tied in to the upcoming Pink Floyd concert tour, among them: the Tower chain of Seattle is awarding a pair of tickets to the L.A. show in a drawing held in its four stores. Each outlet will feature a large facsimile of the wall found on the LP cover. In order to qualify, customers must write graffiti on the mock-up and then fill out the entry blank. . . . On the east coast, Peaches, Philadelphia and WSYT-FM will be giving away pairs of tickets to the Nassau Coliseum show. Once again, a drawing will be held and the lucky winners will be escorted to the performance in a chartered bus complete with refreshments.

RHINO CASSETTE — In what the company claims may be a first, Rhino Records has just released a Firesign Theatre radio collection limited to cassette and available only through mail order. The tape series, "The Firesign Theatre Cassette Chronicles," will be issued on six cassettes and will contain highlights of appearances by the group on a National Public Radio program called the "Firesign Theatre's Campaign '80". One cassette every two months will be issued until November. The cost for all six tapes will be $30.

RETAIL ACTIVITIES — A check with the Peaches North Central regional office uncovered these recent events: Peaches, Detroit held a Steve Martin contest in which his albums were offered as prizes. The two outlets each featured four standups of the artist with employees' funny face photos pasted all over. Entrants had to bring in their own funny face poses and the local WEA rep chose the winner. . . . Peaches, Omaha with a Rick Derringer raffle of a Les Paul guitar. . . . Also, a Jefferson Starship "Point Zero" contest in which customers had to guess when the temperature would first go below zero. The winner received a complete ski outfit. . . . Finally, Peaches, Milwaukee with a Steve Forbert promotion in which ladies entered the name of their favorite "Romeo". . . . The winners received a free dinner-for-two and tickets to a local film.

IN-STORES — Rex Smith at an upcoming in-store at Music World, Worcester, Mass. held in conjunction with 14Q Radio. . . . An earlier appearance by Rex at Peaches, Toledo in Dec. attracted over 350 patrons. . . . Evelyn "Champagne" King at Peaches, Detroit, Jan. 20. . . . Jeff Lorber, playing at two parties to be held at the grand opening of the Everybody's store in Corvallis, Ore. The event will feature an early celebration for the public and a later gala for the record industry.

CUSTOMER QUOTE OF THE WEEK — "I know it's out of print. . . I know they don't make it anymore. . . I know you're out of stock on it. . . But, can you order it for me?"

REGIONAL BREAKOUTS — New Utopia very powerful in the east and west. . . lots of action on the Pearl Harbor album in the west, which is also witnessing a resurgence of the Gamma LP. . . the Rockets and Romantics efforts breaking out of the midwest, while Sergio Mendes' latest strong in the east and Hank Williams, Jr. selling well in the south.

Abrams Cautions Superstars PDs About New Wave Acts

means more to the rock press than it does to the people of Madison."

In Louisville, Ky., Mick Dolan, program director for WLRS, argued that "hard core new wave is just not happening in this town. We're anywhere from one to two years behind east and west coast trends. The mainstream here just hasn't accepted groups like the Clash and the B-52's, because this is a Ted Nugent town. We don't even have a new wave club here, let alone a radio outlet for it."

"Rock means a lot of things, and new wave is only one part of it," reflected Tom Teuher, program director for WLWQ in Columbus, Ohio. "We're a Led Zeppelin, Molly Hatchet, Pink Floyd and AC/DC town, and while we did play the first Elvis Costello album when it was still an import three years ago, and Blondie and Joe Jackson had hits here, this town is not gung-ho on new wave. Lee's memo only confirms what we have known for months."

Dick Hungate, program director for W4 in Detroit, argued that, "by and large, most new wave-oriented artists fall on deaf ears" at the station's music meetings. "Granted, some new wave artists have a mass appeal sound that's loaded with hooks. But the majority don't have the song structure we're looking for — hooks, a catchy melody, and lyrics the listener can relate to." He added that the effect of the memo will probably make him "about 10% more discriminating" than he had been in the past.

'Mass Appeal Station'

As the program director for WAAF in Worcester, Mass., Paul Lemieux said he recognizes the fact that "the New England area is one of the hottest new wave markets in the country, and I recognize that much of the sound is artistically valid. We are, however, a mass appeal station working from a tight playlist, and we've really got to believe in the groups we add so that they get the proper chance to happen."

AOR promotion executives at several record companies were less than understanding of the memo, however. "A lot of the anti-new music bias is a self-fulfilling prophecy," said one record company vice president, "given the kind of rotation the music often gets. The fact that new wave bands playing intense, driving rock and roll are springing up in every other American garage from coast to coast tells me that there is a movement afoot, and that radio has to capture it soon. How long do you expect 35-year-old musicians to continue making music for 17-year-olds? Sooner or later, kids will have to have music made by their peers more accessible to them."

Another promotion representative said that the memo "was just another stumbling block" in the path of new wave music. "This kind of perspective means we'll just have to develop an alternative game plan to try and get around the directive."

"Abrams is highly successful at what he does," concluded an AOR promotion director, "and as a record company, it's our business to fight him and ultimately prove him wrong."

In some instances, club play has been clearly utilized as a means of building artist identification in a way that discos never did. Nerlinger pointed to the recent opening of a DOR club in San Francisco called X's, staffed by former KSAN DJs. Whereas detractors charge that disco music provides nothing more than background music for dancing, X's DJs announce the names of the artists and the song titles after each set.

Artist Development

Al DeMarino, vice president of artist development for E/P/A, believes in the viability of the club scene for developing artists. "We've had a number of artists from the Romantics to the Only Ones to Lena Lovitch that have either played these rooms or are about to," he pointed out. DeMarino also said that "if we feel that it is the kind of room that is appropriate for the artist, we'll recommend that they play it. For example, we've recommended a number of these rooms for Lena Lovitch's upcoming tour."

Another positive factor is that several of the involved companies are grounded in the British approach to breaking new artists, which necessarily includes the use of clubs because of the inadequacies of British commercial radio. According to Charles Dimond, general manager of Virgin, "in England, we have for the past several years relied on bands to build audiences by following a progression from pubs to universities to dance halls. Here, we are dealing with taking the next step beyond Hurrah's, and that is obviously not Madison Square Garden."

But, despite their endorsement of the scene's health, the major labels tend to remain cautious in comparing its viability to that of radio. According to Jerry Jaffe, vice president of artist development for Polydor, "while there is a burgeoning scene, it will have to work hand in hand with radio. I don't think that Polydor would sign an act on the strength of club play, and I don't think that anyone is going to sign an act that they don't feel will be played on the radio."

DeMarino added, "We honestly do not know the full viability of these rooms, and I'd be guessing if I said I knew how much this scene is going to grow."

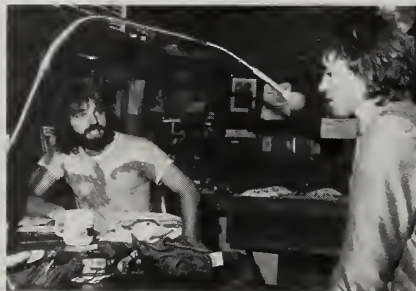

POLICE RAID WBCN — A&M recording group The Police was recently in Boston, where some members stopped by radio station WBCN to say hello and offer thanks for the station's support. Pictured are (l-r): Joel Ackerman, A&M local promotion for Boston; Andy Summers and Sting from the group; Eddie Goredetski, WBCN; Tony Beradini, program director, WBCN; Kate Ingram, music director, WBCN; and Stewart Copeland of the group.

REGARDING BURKE RATINGS — Many industry people were disturbed and concerned over the termination of Burke's Broadcast ratings division. ABC Radio has reacted to this matter in a public statement, the contents of which follow: "ABC Radio regrets that Burke Broadcast Research has decided to terminate its radio audience measurement activity. We've supported Burke's efforts to provide the industry with a viable nationally syndicated radio audience measurement service, as we have, in the past, supported other efforts with similar objectives. We continue to believe that radio needs a strong, nationally syndicated and nationally accepted alternative source of radio audience data, and hope that Burke's failure to achieve its objectives will not deter others from exploring and entering this field."

UNUSUAL PROMOTION — The Christmas season may be over, but KZLA AM & FM/Los Angeles had a rather unusual and modest Christmas promotion giveaway that may merit attention by other stations for future reference. Keeping in mind the disappointment youngsters have when they receive battery powered toys without the batteries, the station offered free batteries (on Christmas Day when most stores are closed) for anyone who showed up with a toy or appliance lacking the energy to do its thing. In just four hours, 1,500 batteries were distributed.

The recording is then broadcast at a later date. PD Norm Gregory said, "We're proud of the music happening in and around town. Providing our listeners with as much local music as we can fulfills a need that we see getting stronger all the time." . . . WPEZ/Pittsburgh is airing "The National Anthem" by Charlie Daniels twice daily as part of its support of the American hostages in Iran. PD Rob Sisco explained, "We feel very strongly about the situation in Iran and feel this type of reminder is in keeping with American sentiment regarding that intolerable situation." . . . KCAL-FM/San Bernadino and the California Association For Neurologically Handicapped Children are sponsoring two concerts given by local acts that will be represented on a "homegrown" album. Proceeds from the LP and concerts will go to the charity's education program.

THE RHYTHM SECTION

MOPRES RECORDS — A new company on the horizon is the Los Angeles-based Mopres Records, headed up by record industry veteran Chris Clay and Dean Chambers, a Los Angeles businessman. Clay is best known for her work with The Wes Farrell Organization in the areas of promotion and marketing. The company has set up independent distribution nationally, and has shipped its first release "Rocking Me In Your Arms" by Easy Credit. A 12-inch by The Overnight Band called "Disco Tossed Salad" is also scheduled to be shipped in two weeks. Other artists signed to the label are Betty Griffin, a well known gospel singer who will be stepping into contemporary music vein, Cash, a Cleveland-based group, and a female vocal group from Chicago called Jinger. Walter Sumner, who was formerly the music director at KKSS in St. Louis, will head the company's A&R department, and Al Ramirez will be producing several of the company's artists. For further information call (213) 541-6710.

MINNEAPOLIS IS RIPE WITH NEW TALENT — The trio of businessmen who discovered Prince, (Cliff Siegal, Owen Husney and Allen Dorfman) will soon bring us Sue-Ann. The threesome have organized a company called American Artists Management Inc., based in Minneapolis, to bring the wealth of talent in that area to the forefront. "Sue-Ann had been winning several area neighborhood contest shows when we became familiar with her. We went to see her and found her to be the type of singer we wanted to work with. She has a vocal range and depth that could be accurately compared with the likes of Barbra Streisand," explained Husney. The company has spent 1½ months organizing her show so that she has the proper presence with the public, and they are in the initial stages of finalizing her record company affiliation.

THE FINAL BENI RE-ORGANIZATION — The changes at the Broadcast Enterprise Network, Inc. (BENI) are as follows: Sonny Burns, who was the general manager at WCIN in Cincinnati, has replaced Stan Raymond as vice president in charge of radio operations, and Peter Eden, has been promoted from sales manager at WCIN to general manager. Ragan Henry, who heads up the organization, explained, "We have simply consolidated management from the Atlanta office into the Philadelphia office and changed a few of the people. WAOK and its station personnel in Atlanta remain intact." Raymond will remain affiliated with BENI in the capacity of a station consultant, and he will also be consulting other stations. He can be reached at (404) 261-9528. And also, as mentioned last week, Keith Adams has left to pursue other interests.

RADIO ACTIVITY — Vy Higgensen returns to New York radio and will be the morning air personality at WWRL, the progressive AM . . . The National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) has suggested what it feels would be a better way to inform broadcasters of FCC policy statements. Rather than the haphazard manner of issuing public notices and the

by Nick Underwood

LONDON — Phonogram Records has cut its dealer margin to 30%, making it the third major company to do so after Polydor and WEA. Though Phonogram has become the latest company to perpetuate the trend of moving away from RRP (recommended retail pricing), the new margin will "be improved often, according to certain criteria," according to managing director Ken Maliphant.

The flexibility of the margin falls into the area of new artists and development acts, which, at Phonogram's discretion, will carry additional discounts as well as certain specified back catalog items that will carry an automatic discount of 10% in addition to the 30% margin. Other criteria include sections of the product range offered to dealers by the PolyGram sales force on a flexible extra discount offer.

Maliphant said that margins for back catalog would be continuously amended and updated by means of a printed list issued to dealers every quarter, and added, "We believe that this system will enable us both to put the varying categories of product into more meaningful perspective and introduce a degree of flexibility essential to enable us to adapt quickly in a volatile environment."

Phonogram's marketing director Barry Evans commented, "The use of this flexible margin system is a more realistic approach to rewarding the trade for the extra efforts required in breaking new artists and supporting back catalog. The first album to benefit under this new system will be a February debut album from the Original Mirrors, which will receive an additional discount over and above the new basic dealer margin."

Polydor, RSO Win Injunction In Case To Stop Bee Gees' Imports

LONDON — In the continuing court action between Polydor, in association with RSO, and the Simons and Harlequin Records shops, the labels have won an interlocutory injunction to prevent the importation into the U.K. and sale of certain Portuguese pressings of the Bee Gees "Spirits Having Flown" LP.

Michael A. Kuhn, director and senior legal adviser of PolyGram Leisure Ltd., said, "The judge rejected the defendants' contentions on the interpretation of the Copyright Act 1956, and supported Polydor's arguments that the treaty between the EEC (European Economic Community) and Portugal did not prevent Polydor enforcing its normal rights under the Copyright Act. The judge refused to refer the case to the European court at this stage and refused leave to appeal against this part of his decision."

Warning Issued

Following this latest high court decision in Polydor's favor, the record company has issued a further warning to all importers of foreign pressings, which states thus, "Polydor Ltd. confirms that they will take proceedings against any importer, wholesaler or retailer unlawfully importing or selling records manufactured in Portugal containing Polydor sound recordings."

Buggles, Island Receive Honors At MIDEM '80

LONDON — The Buggles, Trevor Horne and Geoff Downes, are celebrating their own and Island Records' first ever million seller at MIDEM this week. The group's first single, "Video Killed The Radio Star," has now topped the million sales mark in France, marking the first time Island Records has sold a million in one territory.

In addition to The Buggles' French success, the record has hit #1 in the U.K., Australia, Switzerland, Austria, New Zealand, Belgium and Ireland, and has been Top Five in Germany and Top 20 in Denmark, Sweden and Holland.

Overall, the single has sold over three-and-a-half million copies worldwide. The duo's debut LP, "The Age Of Plastic," is scheduled for release in Europe at the beginning of February.

The Buggles are also at MIDEM to receive The Most Promising Band of 1980 Award from Europe 1 Radio.

Mountain, RCA U.K. Ink New Licensing Pact

LONDON — Following the termination of Mountain Records' licensing arrangement with Phonogram Records, the company has now signed a new licensing agreement with RCA. However, the termination of Mountain's agreement with Phonogram does not affect the company's licensing through Phonogram International for the rest of the world (excluding U.S.A. and Canada).

The new RCA deal for the U.K. and Eire also includes all back catalog.

The first release under the new contract will be heavy rock Nazareth's newly completed album, "Malice In Wonderland," and the accompanying single "Holiday," both out on Jan. 25. This will be followed by later releases from Voyager and Marseille, respectively.

LET'S TALK SOME MORE — EMI-America recording artist Cliff Richard, who was awarded the OBE Award (Order Of The British Empire) by the Queen of England, was in Los Angeles recently and stopped by KNX-FM to talk and play his latest album, "We Don't Talk Anymore." Island Music To Form New Label For Singles

LONDON — Island Music has announced plans to launch a new independent label called Square Records next month. The new label will be a one-off singles label, providing immediate exposure for new working bands signed to Island Music.

"We want to bring our bands to the attention of record companies and, of course, the media," said Keith Aspden, co-director of Square and the person who will be responsible for the label's A&R. "Other publishing companies have formed record labels, but Square will have a totally different approach — we're interested in other record companies signing our bands."

"Square will concentrate on one-off singles," Aspden concluded, "and we haven't any plans to release albums in the immediate future."

In addition to Aspden, Island Music managing director Peter Cornish will also serve as co-director of Square.

First release on the new label will be Viva's "Radio Saviour," set for Feb. 1.

Phonodisc Changes Name

LONDON — The company name of Phonodisc Ltd. in the U.K. was changed to Polygram Record Operations Ltd., effective Jan. 1, 1980. This change is a result of restructuring within the Polygram Group. Polygram Record Services Ltd. has now become the manufacturing and distributing division of Polygram Record Operations Ltd.

Embattled U.K. Imports Company Closes Down

LONDON — Charmdale Records distributors, the seven-year-old company that was recently taken to court by CBS over the sale of imported product from outside the EEC (Cash Box, Dec. 15), has ceased trading operations.

A press statement issued by Charmdale said, "Continued battles with the record companies over the legality of imports and their propaganda in the form of mass mailouts to our customers, threatening legal action, has cut our sales volume to a trickle. With the high overheads of a large operation to support, we find that we can no longer meet our commitments."

Charmdale operated out of a large warehouse in northwest London and dealt in deletions (cutouts) and overstock, as well as imported product, and was run by a staff of 45 people.

Hagar Set To Embark On U.K., European Tour

LOS ANGELES — Capitol recording artist Sammy Hagar and his band will begin an 18-date tour of the U.K. and Europe Feb. 10 with a concert in Portsmouth, England. CLASSICAL CLIPS

NEW YORK — London Records' classical division will become part of a new classical organization under the aegis of Polygram after the latter company has acquired the music operations of Decca Ltd., London's parent corporation. The new group of classical labels, which will also include DG and Philips, will be the largest entity in the classical recording field.

The finalization of the deal between Polygram and Decca is expected to take place by the end of January. Gunther Hensler, deputy managing director of Metronome Music GmbH of Hamburg, a Polygram subsidiary, will become president of Polygram's enlarged classical division. It has not yet been decided whether or not to retain the division's current name, Classics International.

SOVIET ARTISTS CANCEL — Apparently due to the chill in Soviet-American relations caused by the Russian invasion of Afghanistan, two Russian performers, violinist Vladimir Spivakov and conductor Yuri Temirkanov, did not appear for scheduled New York engagements. Temirkanov had been booked for a seven-week tour, including performances with orchestras in New York, Boston, Minneapolis, Los Angeles and Philadelphia. A spokesman for Columbia Artists Management, which handles the two Soviet artists in the U.S., said that neither of them had sent word to CAM before their no-shows. Meanwhile, International Creative Management was told by the Soviets that pianist Andrei Govrilov can't make his upcoming U.S. tour.

Other firms representing Soviet artists here did not seem worried about possible cancellations.

KOSTELANETZ DIES — Conductor Andre Kostelanetz, who was equally comfortable with symphonic and popular music, died January 13 in a hospital in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, at the age of 78. He had suffered a heart attack after contracting pneumonia while on vacation on the Caribbean island.

Kostelanetz recordings (most recently on Columbia) sold an estimated 52 million copies around the world. In the classical music field, only the Boston Pops has sold more records. A Russian immigrant, Kostelanetz first gained national prominence when he conducted the CBS Symphony Orchestra on several radio programs of the 1930s, notably the "Chesterfield Hour." He also made and recorded numerous arrangements of popular songs, which had a significant influence on American film music. In 1963, he inaugurated the "Promenade" summer concerts of the New York Philharmonic, a fixture of the local scene that mixed symphonic music with dance, narration, mime and folk singing. He also contributed to the nation's musical life by commissioning a number of works from important American composers, including Aaron Copland, William Schuman, Jerome Kern, Alan Hovhaness, Virgil Thomson, Paul Creston and Ferde Grofe.

NEW AND UPCOMING — Simon Schmidt, vice president and general manager of Columbia Masterworks, tells us that, at some point in the future, jacket notes on Columbia albums will be printed in three languages. Meanwhile, Masterworks has just come with several new releases: Debussy and Faure Violin Sonatas, played by Pinchas Zukerman and Marc Neikrug; "John Williams Plays Music Of Ponce;" "Greatest Hits of 1721," featuring the Philharmonia Virtuosi under Richard Kapp's direction; another Bach album by pianist Rosalyn Tureck; and a curious collection of old and new popular tunes by a group called Gary Lawrence and the Sizzling Syncopators. For February, the Columbia lineup looks like this: a James Levine-conducted "Norma" featuring Renata Scott, Tatiana Troyanos and Paul Plishka; "Songs America Loves Best: Vol. 1" by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir; Schubert's Quartet No. 15, performed by the Julliard Quartet; Saint Saens and Franck violin sonatas, this time performed by Elmar Olivera and Jonathan Feldman; a second volume of Bach toccatas played by pianist Glenn Gould; the Bartok Violin Concerto with Zukerman and Zubin Mehta conducting the L.A. Philharmonic; a record pairing guitarist Liona Boyd and conductor Andrew Davis, whose contents have not been revealed; and Wendy Carlos' follow-up to "Switched-On Bach," entitled "Switched-On-Brandenburgs."

CLASSICAL ALBUM REVIEWS

BACH — The Musical Offering — Academy of St. Martin-in-the-Fields — Neville Marriner, conductor — Philips 9500 585 — List: 9.98

"The Musical Offering" is a summation of all that Bach learned about counterpoint during a lifetime of composing. Designed as a kind of monument to abstract beauty, it was not written primarily for a particular instrument, but for any instruments that have an appropriate sound. On this recording, the combination of an organ ricercare, a trio sonata for flute, violin and continuo, and Marriner's tasteful orchestrations of the other pieces makes a very pleasant program.

CHOPIN — Sonata No. 3: Polonaises Nos. 3, 4, 6 — Emil Gilels, Pianist — DG 2531 099 — List: 9.98

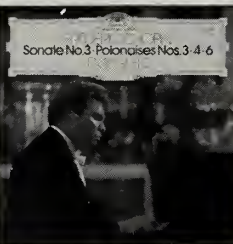

One may agree or disagree with a particular interpretation by Gilels, but he never leaves any room for doubt about his great stature as an artist. Here he evidences a Horowitzian solidity of tone and an affecting thoughtfulness that is characteristic of Rubinstein. But, despite these parallels with other great Chopin interpreters, the style is inimitably Gilels'. His mark is everywhere, from the graceful introspection of the Third Sonata to the incredibly well-built crescendos in the A major Polonaise.

MAHLER — Symphony No. 4 — Edith Mathis, soprano — Berlin Philharmonic — Herbert von Karajan, conductor — DG 2531 205 — List: 9.98

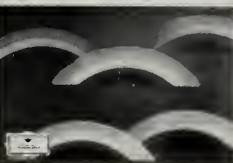

For the level of instrumental performance and sheer sound quality, this recording of Mahler's Fourth can't be beat. The orchestra responds to Karajan's handling as well or better than ever before, and there simply isn't a wrong note that can be heard. Yet, when one compares this to recent versions conducted by Previn (Pittsburgh Symphony) or Mehta (London Symphony), one perceives that Karajan's reading is only skin-deep, lacking the angst and the dearly painful nostalgia which lie beneath the score's apparently peaceful surface.

THE JAM IS ON — A sell out crowd of more than 10,000 were on hand for Volunteer Jan VI, the annual Charlie Daniels-inspired concert that was held Jan. 12 at Nashville's Municipal Auditorium. Country Music Association Holds First Quarterly Meet NASHVILLE — An increase in membership of the Country Music Assn., plans for the International show at the 1980 Fan Fair and the establishment of new committees to set up a world festival of country music were among the topics discussed at the CMA's first quarterly board meeting held Jan. 8-10 in Montego Bay, Jamaica.

Planning and development committee chairman Frances Preston announced three subcommittees at the meeting — the International Music Industry Committee (IMIC), chaired by CBS' Bruce Lundvall; the country radio seminar committee, chaired by MCA's Jim Fogiesong; and a world festival committee, chaired by Joe Talbot.

The CMA's membership is up 6% from last year, to 5,331 total members, according to membership chairman Rick Blackburn. International committee chairman Lundvall announced that plans for the 1980 international show at Fan Fair are well underway and the deadline for receiving artists' material for consideration is March 31.

The talent buyers committee presented to the board of directors the tentative dates for the 1980 Talent Buyers Seminar, which will be Oct. 10-13 — ending on the Monday of the CMA Awards Show.

Promotion committee chairman Rick Blackburn discussed plans for the coming year, including the concept of a new audio-visual presentation utilizing current market research data which would be useful to CMA members in various categories. The board also approved the adoption of a new theme to be used in all of CMA's outgoing materials, "Country — The Music Of The '80s."

In the absence of radio committee chairman Don Nelson, Richard McCullough reported on the proposed radio survey for 1980, which is to be mailed shortly to all North American radio stations to determine the extent of their country programming. In addition, results of the Post Awards Radio Show in October, 1979 revealed that 72 of the 77 stations which responded to the survey stated they would be interested in carrying the show again.

Charlie Scully reported to the board on the activities of the country music month committee, outlining its suggestion for additional promotional ideas to augment this year's Country Music Month in October, including mailings to shopping centers and truck stops.

Ten electors were voted to the Hall of Fame Panel of Electors by the board. Nominees were presented to the board by the Hall of Fame Panel of Electors committee, chaired by Joe Talbot.

The second quarterly board meeting for 1980 will take place in Washington, D.C. April 15-17.

Ray Stevens Signs With RCA Records; Marketing Campaign Is Announced

NASHVILLE — Ray Stevens has signed with RCA Records, according to an announcement made here last week by Jerry O. Bradley, division vice president, Nashville Operations. Stevens also has released his debut single for the label, "Shriner's Convention."

Stevens, who has established a reputation as both a comic and serious artist, was this year nominated for a Grammy in the best comedy recording category for his "I Need Your Help Barry Manilow."

Stevens' soon-to-be-released album for the label, also titled "Shriner's Convention," and the single will be supported by an extensive marketing campaign.

The single will ship to radio, press and accounts on red vinyl, matching the Shriners' colors. The initial shipping will be followed by two-color postcards, which feature the album cover art and a message from Stevens on the back.

Merchandising materials will include 2x2 posters and logo centerpieces, also keying on the cover graphics.

Stevens also will be the target of a multi-faceted media blitz that includes appearances on The Tonight Show, Merv, and Dinah! Stevens recently taped a syndicated special titled The Grand Ol' Opry Salutes The Shrine, at Nashville's Opry House. Not only did he receive a standing ovation for the song, but also over 800 letters from the Shriners present trying to locate a copy of the single.

In addition to an across the board print campaign, a special open-end interview with Stevens has been designed for radio and tagged with a space for local Shrine temples to make a public service announcement about their community benefit projects.

Due to the response from the Shriners to the record, the network of temples will be involved at the grassroots level, working with the RCA promotion and sales managers to coordinate efforts in their respective markets. Though the method of delivery will vary depending on each temple's participation, plans include delivering the record to radio stations with motorcades, clowns and the traditional hoopla associated with public gatherings of the Shriners.

THE COUNTRY COLUMN

Ray Price completed his duet album with Willie Nelson a couple of weeks ago. Word from the studio is the duo cut 15 songs in the three-day period they were in Nashville's Columbia Studios. And word also has it that a couple of special guests dropped by to add a little vocalizing to a couple of the cuts, namely Crystal Gayle and Billy Walker. Willie and Ray gave about 10,000 people a sneak preview of what the album will hold on Jan. 12 when they performed "Crazy Arms" at the Volunteer Jam.

Could Lester "Roadhog" Moran and his Cadillac Cowboys (alias the Stalter Brothers) have had anything to do with the University of Oklahoma's victory in the Orange Bowl? Could Be... It seems the Sooners' head athletic trainer Dan Pickett had taken a fancy to the Roadhog and regularly played the LP in the training room during the team's regular season. The team became such fans, it seemed only proper that the Roadhog travel with them to their biggest game of the season.

Dinah Shore and co-host Burt Reynolds were recently in Florida taping her show when the pair issued a special invitation to the Oak Ridge Boys to make a guest appearance. And speaking of the Oak Ridge Boys, singer Bill Golden has clipped those long locks and is sporting a shorter style beneath that big Stetson.

T.G. Sheppard will be in New York City Jan. 21 to visit WHN Radio and act as guest DJ, and later that evening, perform at the Lone Star Cafe.

Don Williams will be featured in the upcoming 41st edition of "Who's Who In America."

Mrs. Johnnie Massey has joined the One Nite's Agency as head of their newly formed outdoor and special events department.

The citizens of Rosenberg, Tex. recently saluted Ernest Tubb with an Ernest Tubb Appreciation Day.

Eleven years ago, "Little Green Apples" won the Grammy as pop song of the year. Nashville's Bobby Russell wrote the song, with Buzz Cason as the publisher. So far, that song is the only Nashville written/published song that has won in that category. This year "She Believes In Me," written by Nashville's Steve Gibb, and published by Anglewieg Music (Gibb and Cason) here in Nashville has been nominated for Pop Song of the Year. Sounds like Cason is trying to start a trend.

The Four Guys' recent performance at Alabama's State Fair Convention landed them several fair dates in Alabama this year, including two days at the State Fair.

Charley Pride's tribute album to Hank Williams should be out around the first of February.

Glen Campbell's recent stint at the Las Vegas Desert Inn and Country Club attracted quite a large number of people, more than 70 of them members of his own family. The family members, spanning four generations, joined Campbell on stage while he explained that he is the seventh son in a family of eight boys and four girls, and that members of his family had come from all over the continent and Hawaii for the reunion. Some hadn't seen each other for 30 years.

Johnny Cash guested on the "Rex Humbard Show" Jan. 20, which airs on 211 television stations across the country.

Hee Haw's Archie Campbell has just built and moved into a new house, which replaced the home he and his wife Pudge lived in for 35 years. Says Campbell, "It's nothing fancy, but we do have some things we didn't have in the old one. I've got a studio to paint in; we've got modern kitchen appliances for Pudge, a burglar alarm system, and even an indoor toilet..."

The Oak Ridge Boys are set to do several television tapings in June in two foreign countries. On June 3, they will guest star on "Country Music With Gunther Gabriel," a 60-minute music/variety show originating in Munich, West Germany for Bavarian Broadcasting.

Juergen Baril will produce the segment.

June 6 will find the Oaks back at the Sporting Club in Monte Carlo, site of their '79 concert. This time they will star in the "Monte Carlo Show" for Marty Pasetta Productions of Los Angeles. The hour long music/variety show is one of 24 specials set for worldwide broadcast to some 60 million homes.

Deadly Earnest and the Honky Tonk Heroes have finished a new album, which is scheduled for a Spring release on the Pacific Arts label.

New York's own country man, Elwood Bunn, seems to have a knack for locating fancy pickers to replace the fancy pickers that head off in other directions. When steel guitarist "Boo" Burns accepted an offer to tour with the Freddy Fender show, Bunn replaced him with Glen Schnittke, who once backed Hank Thompson. Then bassist Roger Capps quit to go on tour with Chrysalis' Pat Benatar. Capps was replaced with Lloyd Mair, formerly of the B.J. Thomas show.

Jean Shepard and the Second Fiddles are now being represented by the Smiley Wilson Agency, Inc.

STUDIO TRACKS — Nashville studios certainly aren't idle this month, with a number of artists shuffling in to record. Moe Bandy was in Clement Studio... In Woodland Sound Studios, the Charlie Daniels Band is working on a new album. John Boylan is producing and Paul Grupp is the engineer with assistance by Steve Goostree. Also in Woodland cutting an album for Boot Records, is Canadian country artist Eddie Eatsman. Bob Cousins is producing with Rex Collier engineering. Skip Shimmie is assisting.

In Muscle Shoals, British artist Lee Curtis completed an LP at Fame Studios.

Casablanca West has officially made its first foray into the regions of country music with the release of Carol Chase's new album, "Sexy Songs," which follows her debut single effort. Chase may be a fairly new name to the record buying public, but her voice should be familiar. She has sung jingles for McDonald's, Nescafe, etc. She's also contributed a variety of backing vocals to Charlie Rich, Phil Everly, Olivia Newton-John, Tanya Tucker and Debbie Boone.

Artist, Publisher And Talent Agency — Charley Pride Combines Them All

by Don Cusic

NASHVILLE — Although Charley Pride is best known as a successful recording artist and entertainer, he also fills some other shoes in the music business. He is a publisher (Pi-Gem), owner of a talent management agency (Chardon), and a talent scout who has found and helped numerous other acts get a foot hold in the music industry.

It was Pride who spotted such top artists as Ronnie Milsap, Gary Stewart and Dave & Sugar and gave them a spot on his show, letting them showcase their talents and giving their careers a valuable shot-in-the-arm.

The first act that Pride included in his show was Johnny Duncan. Discussing his long-standing concern for promoting new talent, Pride stated, "When I was with my first manager, we had accumulated some extra money in the publishing company and in trying to decide what to do with the extra profits, we decided to try to develop some new talent." They settled on Duncan because Pride felt he was different from his own show, yet compatible. "I needed someone to front me so it would be a good, complete show," he stated.

After Duncan, it was Johnny Russell, an artist on RCA with Pride who added some comedy to the show. After Russell left, Pride was looking for another act and saw Ronnie Milsap performing at a local (Nashville) hotel. At that time, Milsap did not have a recording contract and was not known outside of his local performances but Pride was impressed enough with his talent to give him a spot on the show.

Milsap, of course, went on to record for RCA and become a superstar in his own right after getting the boost from Pride.

The next act was Gary Stewart, who was hired as a piano player to replace Milsap and who had been signed to RCA but did not have any hits at the time. He recorded "Drinkin' Thing" and "Out of Hand" and was the opening act as his career took an upswing.

Stewart was followed by Dave & Sugar, hired originally by Pride as a back-up group. Pride got them a recording contract with RCA and gave them the opening spot on his show as they rose from back-up singers to a superstar group while a part of the Charley Pride show.

Since Dave & Sugar, Pride has featured Janie Fricke, Razyzy Bailey, Cliff Cochran, Sylvia, David Wills and Dean Dillon on his show, although none have become regulars. Said Pride, "I hope that whoever RCA or Pi-Gem or Chardon is involved with will be considered a potential act for my show. I'm always looking for top new talent to put on stage."

Best Possible Sound

Explaining his reason for having his band back the opening act, Pride stated, "When I first started out, there were a lot of artists

RODRIGUEZ SIGNS WITH NEAL — Johnny Rodriguez has teamed up with Bob Neal, veteran talent agent who recently reactivated the Neal Agency, Ltd. Rodriguez will be the sole act represented by the agency. Neal (r), will direct all phases of Rodriguez's career development and will cooperate in management with John Lentz (l).

who did not want you to use their band because they had the attitude it took away from them, so I had to take my guitar and go out and do my best with whatever they could give me as back up. That became one of my pet peeves and I promised I would never let that attitude effect me. I made a decision that when I got my band, anybody on my show was going to sound as good as their record and so everybody has used my full band because I think that makes for a better show."

Not only does Pride give an act a spot on his show, but also he gives freely of his time and advice. "I'm not a manager but I like to give direction and advice," he said. "I watch them perform every night and point out things I feel can help them on stage as well as with their overall careers."

As for the future, Pride said he would like to eventually go into producing and writing. He has just completed an album of Hank Williams songs and is looking toward a book and some movie projects.

But whatever he does, Pride wants to stay involved with other talent, building other artists and using his own show to give young, unknowns a chance to showcase their talent with top musical back-up before large country audiences.

CMA Hosts Int'l Journalists

NASHVILLE — Twelve international journalists visited Nashville recently as part of the World Press Institute program, to learn more about country music. The group was hosted by the Country Music Assn., which arranged a number of meetings, tours and a dinner for them.

The journalists represented Bangladesh, Brazil, Colombia, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Mexico, The Netherlands, Nigeria, Norway, Senegal and Sudan.

The World Press Institute is sponsored by leading American corporations, foundations and Macalester College and its goal is to ensure the international opinion about the U.S. is shaped by journalists writing from a comprehensive personal background of experience in America. It seeks to achieve this by selecting outstanding young foreign journalists for an eight-month program of intensive American studies, internships and travel.

The WPI is directed by C. Theodore Miller and headquartered at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn.

In Nashville, the journalists took a tour of the Sound Shop recording studio where owner Craig Deitschmann explained the recording process. They also met artist Ronnie McDowell, who has a session there.

From there, the journalists went to Tree publishing for a tour, meeting executives Jack Stapp, Donna Hillely, Buddy Killen, Don Gant and Harrienne Condra.

The WPI members were shown the Country Music Hall of Fame and the Country Music Foundation's library and archives. Several record industry firms hosted a dinner for the press representatives, who were given an opportunity to meet and talk to Jerry Flowers, artist development, RCA; Jerry Bailey, artist development, MCA; Kathy Hooper, artist development, Top Billing; Liz Theils, public relations, The Sound Seventy Corporation; and Bonnie Rassmussen, artist development, Warner Bros. During the dinner, recording artists Chet Atkins, Charlie Daniels and Ray Stevens were introduced to the WPI party.

The following day, the journalists visited the offices of Con Brio records, where they met company exec Jeff Walker and artist Terri Hollowell.

MDJ Records Opens Nashville Office, Merges With Music Mill Studio

by Jennifer Bohler

NASHVILLE — Dallas-based MDJ Records has launched a major expansion program, spearheaded by its recent merger with the Music Mill Recording Studio here.

Terms of the agreement call for a physical expansion of the building that houses the studio and the addition of a second floor which will contain MDJ's Nashville office, the company's combined publishing interests and possibly a second recording studio as well as video facilities. The Nashville office will be headed by Harold Shedd, co-owner of the company and one of the founders of the Music Mill.

The studio itself will undergo some changes, according to Shedd. An additional 24-track facility will be added to the present 16-track giving the studio an overall 40-track capability.

"One of the important aspects about this merger is that through the studio, Harold (Shedd) will do most of all the producing and arranging for our acts, and all of our acts will record in this studio," noted Larry McBride, president of the year-old label.

He added that the Music Mill will still operate as a commercial studio.

The merger of MDJ and the Music Mill will mean a strengthening of the company's publishing interests, bringing the total number of catalogs controlled by the company to four — two in Nashville and two in Dallas.

MDJ's artist roster includes the Alabama Band, Kenny Seratt, David Smith and Stephanie Samone. Promotion and distribution of the label's product is handled by Nationwide Sound.

New Criteria Set For Country Song Awards

NEW YORK — ASCAP has established stronger new criteria for earning its annual country music awards. The new criteria apply to those writers, publishers, artists and producers whose songs have appeared on any of the three major country singles charts from Oct. 6, 1979 through Sept. 27. All songs that have appeared on any one chart for ten consecutive weeks and have reached the #50 position on any two charts will receive an award. Previously, a song qualified for an award by placing on any of the three charts for a total of ten weeks.

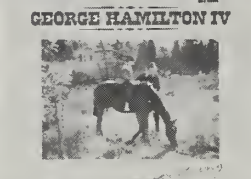

"The new criteria for the 1980 country music awards came about after extensive discussion with ASCAP writers and publishers during the past year," stated Ed Shea, Southern regional executive director for ASCAP.

ALBUM REVIEWS

EVEN BETTER — Brenda Lee — MCA 3211 — Producer: Ron Chancey — List: 7.98

Brenda claims she can't make a comeback cause she's never been away — however, a lot more people will be cognizant of her presence with this album. She sings forcefully and producer Chancey has found a fine selection to showcase her voice. Best cuts include "The Cowboy And The Dandy," "Tell Me What It's Like," "I Wish I Could Hurt That Way Again."

I WISH I WAS EIGHTEEN AGAIN — George Burns — Mercury SRM-1-5025 — Producer: Jerry Kennedy — List: 7.98

Who says that 83 is too old to start a country singing career? Kudos must be given to producer Kennedy for not loading this album with gimmick songs, but instead finding some great songs for America's favorite grandad to sing. Best cuts include the title, "The Baby Song," "A Real Good Cigar," Tom T.'s "Old Dogs, Children And Watermelon Wine" and "Arizona Whiz."

FOREVER YOUNG — George Hamilton IV — MCA 3206 — Producer: Allen Reynolds — List: 7.98

George is truly an international country music star — carrying his music to all four corners of the world. He's also an incredibly fine, smooth singer with an excellent ear for good songs. This collection features some superb tunes, especially the title cut, "I'll Be Here In The Morning," "Spin Spin," "Common Ground" and "I Never Loved A Woman Like You." A super album.

SEXY SONGS — Carol Chase — Casablanca CWLP-6001 — Producer: Snuff Garrett — List: 7.98

Carol is a newcomer and Casablanca's first country artist. She's pretty and talented, as evidenced by the album's cover and vinyl. Best cuts are "This Must Be My Ship," "Sexy Song," "Let's Say Goodbye Like We Said Hello," and "Burning A Hole In My Mind." Carol is a talent that'll be around a long time — and count on radio chasing her records up the charts.

THE BEST OF CHET ON THE ROAD — Chet Atkins — RCA AHL1-3515 — List: 7.98

Half of this album was recorded in Paris and the other half in Nashville and the result is two sides of Mr. Guitar that will amuse and entertain as well as dazzle with his usual brilliance. Best cuts include "This String," "Blind Willie" — on both of which he sings — and his old standards like "Wheels" and "Something/Lady Madonna" where he picks. The legend still goes strong.

Volunteer Jam VI was broadcast live over five local radio stations, recorded for syndicated broadcast over the 200-station King Biscuit series and for a possible album and videotape by Show Biz Inc. for future televised syndication. Also, several television newscasters, including WSM-TV's Ralph Emery, taped artist interviews backstage during the Jam.

The significance of the Jam is that it is the only performance the Charlie Daniels Band gives in the Nashville area during the year. Since the CDB is one of the top pop acts from Nashville and since so many other acts are invited to perform on the show, it has become one of the year's premier events in Nashville, both for the music business and the general public. The show has grown both in size and in scope every year since its inception.

History Of Jam

The first Volunteer Jam was held on Oct. 14, 1974 at the War Memorial Auditorium in Nashville before a crowd of 2,400 and featured acts such as the Charlie Daniels Band, Marshall Tucker, Allman Brothers, Gringerswitch and Wet Willie. The second Jam was held the following year on Sept. 17 in nearby Murfreesboro at Middle Tennessee State University and featured acts that appeared the previous year, in addition to Ronni Stoneman and Billy Joe Shaver.

Volunteer Jam III was the first held in January at the Municipal Auditorium, which seats 10,000. It was moved back to Nashville for logistical reasons — it was easier for the acts to get to the auditorium; and held in January because most acts were not on the road touring during this time. Acts in Volunteer III and IV included Sea Level, Willie Nelson, Papa John Creach, Jim Dandy of Black Oak Arkansas, Sanford Townsend Band, Marshall Tucker, Gringerswitch and Wet Willie.

Volunteer Jam V saw acts such as Lynyrd Skynyrd, John Prine, Dobie Gray, Doug Kershaw, Link Wray, Carl Perkins and Vassar Clements as the show became a potpourri of diverse musical styles and talent or, as Charlie Daniels put it, "a family reunion, New Year's, Christmas and birthdays all in one."

The format of the Jam is such that acts perform a short set with other acts "guesting" on their sets for a song or two. In this respect, it is like a rock 'n' roll Grand Ole Opry in which a set of musicians back a parade of artists all organized over blocks of time. A massive rehearsal with all the acts is held the night before, a mini-Jam itself sans audience.

The actual "jam" part of the Jam occurs at the end of the show after all the performances as the musicians and singers crowd together on the stage to perform several songs.

Although the Jam is not billed as a charity, the profits that Charlie Daniels realized from the 1979 Jam went to the T.J. Martell Memorial Fund for Leukemia Research and the National Quad and Pariplegic Association.

The participant holding on the longest length of time won the recreational package. The three runner up prizes were: 2nd place, $1000 worth of furniture; 3rd place, $750 worth of furniture; and 4th place, a portable color television. Upon graduation, he remained at KMTY-FM for the next two years before moving on to KVOO/Tulsa in 1976 to do the seven-midnight show. After another two years Dick came to KHEY/EI Paso in 1978 pulling the seven-midnight shift and handling the music duties at the station. He now is the afternoon drive jock with the parting of afternoon drive man Brad Edwards to St. Louis.

Joe Stamper is the new 10-2 a.m. air personality at WSAI/Cincinnati, according to WSAI assistant MD Gina Preston. Joe comes to WSAI from WAXU/Lexington, Ky.

The WHK/Cleveland jock line-up, according to WHK MD Tim Byrd, is as follows: morning drive is handled by Gary Dee, followed by Joe Finan with the 10-1 show. Tim Byrd takes care of 1-3 with Steve Norris in the 3-7 slot. 7-midnight belongs to Carolyn Carr with Bill Wilkins in charge of the all night show at WHK.

With all the current interest in gold prices, KSSS/Colorado Springs recently put together the "Silver N' Gold Saturday," reports KSSS PD Bob May. During the day a collection of songs with the words silver or gold in the title were played and listeners were asked to call in when they heard one of the songs. These winners each won a free album from KSSS. If the caller-in heard a song with "money" mentioned in the lyrics, they were awarded a silver dollar or a Susan B. Anthony Dollar. The KSSS music department found nearly 50 songs with gold or silver in the title and the word money in the lyrics in its files of top 10 hits from the years gone by.

The current air staff line-up at KHEY/EI Paso, according to KHEY MD Dick Buchanan, goes like this: 10-year veteran of KHEY Charlie Russell is in the morning drive slot, followed by PD Ray Potter from 9 til noon. Noon til 3 is production manager Doug Bowe with MD Dick Buchanan at the controls from 3 til 7. 7 til midnight belongs to Tom Stewart with Juan Rivera in charge of the all night show for KHEY.

HAPPENINGS AT WUBE — WUBE/Cincinnati recently sponsored United Artists' Kenny Rogers and Dottie West along with MCA's Oak Ridge Boys in concert at the Coliseum. WUBE's program director Paul O'Brien and morning man Larry B emceed the sold out event. The coliseum was also the scene for the "Hot Rod Truck and Tractor Pull" with WUBE night drawing the biggest crowd with over 10,000 fans. One of the highlights was the WUBE tug-o-war with the AM personalities vs. the FM personalities. The FM team, with "gorilla" Ron Lawson as captain, was no match for the AM team, who had a little help from body builder Pat Matson.

Paul Harvey Scheduled To Speak At March Country Radio Seminar

NASHVILLE — Commentator Paul Harvey will deliver the keynote address at the 11th annual Country Radio Seminar, March 14-15 at Nashville's Hyatt Regency Hotel.

Harvey, whose career has spanned 30 years in the broadcasting field, began his career at KVOO, in his hometown of Tulsa, Okla. in 1933. He rose from that apprentice beginning to announcer and then program director while working his way through the University of Oklahoma.

Upon graduation, Harvey served as station manager at a radio station in Salina, Kansas; newscaster at KOMA, Oklahoma City; and director of special events and roving reporter at KXOK, St. Louis.

After a stint in the Army Air Corps during World War II, Harvey joined the then ABC-affiliate WENR, where he became the most listened to newscaster in the city. Since 1951, his coast-to-coast commentary has continued without interruption.

Harvey's news network consists of 100 television stations, 300 newspapers, 836 radio stations, plus an additional 400 Armed Forces Radio stations.

CINCINNATI, OHIO — Multimedia Broadcasting has purchased WVEZ-FM/Louisville, Ky., from Stoner Broadcasting of Des Moines, Iowa. As part of the asset exchange and purchase agreement, Multimedia will exchange two radio stations the company owns in Knoxville, Tenn. — WBIR-AM & FM — and will pay Stoner $1.5

An agreement for the exchange and purchase was reached between the two companies on June 19, 1978. On Jan. 9, 1980, the sale was approved by the Federal Communications Commission and the Boards of Directors of both companies.

Game Room Bows At Lake Placid Olympic Village

CHICAGO — The 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, N.Y. will have an added attraction this year — an Olympic Village Game Room equipped with a 40-piece layout of amusement machines, supplied by Bally Manufacturing Corp., Irving Kaye Co. and Midway Manufacturing Co. Included in the lineup will be about 15 pinball machines, 15 video games, 8 foosballs and 2 pool tables, all set on free play.

The room was set-up during the week of Jan. 7 and will be in full operation for the Olympics as well as afterwards throughout the month of February. It is a manufacturer-distributor-operator project, according to Tom Nieman, vice president-marketing of the Bally Pinball Division, with Arnold Kaminkow of Bally Northeast-Dedham serving as distributor coordinator, Upstate Vending of Lake Placid providing service and maintenance of the equipment and the three factories supplying the machines and sufficient quantities of support components.

"To my knowledge there has never been an official game room at the Olympic grounds," Nieman said, noting that this endeavor has immeasurable public relations value for the coin machine industry. Media representatives from throughout the world will be covering the Olympics.

The three manufacturers have hired TRG

NBC TRIBUTE

Enthusiastic Trade Response To Jukebox Awards Telecast

CHICAGO — "The show was a giant step in positive public relations for the jukebox industry," enthused former AMOA president Wayne Hesch. He was referring to the NBC-TV special "A Tribute To The 15th Annual Jukebox Awards," which aired on Jan. 8. It was during Hesch's term of office that the project, which ultimately resulted in the network telecast, was conceived, with preliminary work beginning in April of 1979. AMOA's goal in this endeavor was to generate "good PR for the industry," Hesch pointed out, adding that the association feels that the show accomplished this end.

The two-hour presentation, co-hosted by recording star Mac Davis and actor George Segal, spotlighted the jukebox for its longstanding entertainment value over the past decades and its evolution in design, sound and technology. It was further reflected in the stage and set decor.

"Put another nickel in . . .", the opening strains of the Teresa Brewer jukebox classic "Music Music Music" (performed live by the songstress) served as musical introduction for the appearances of such jukebox favorites, past and present, as The Kingston Trio performing "Tom Dooley," Chubby Checker doing "The Twist" and Roberta Flack vocalizing "Killing Me Softly." As each artist was introduced a close-up of the jukebox play area came into focus with Ms. Brewer selecting the appropriate title strip.

Talent Lineup

The lineup of entertainers who appeared on the show ran the gamut from The Modernaires doing the famed "Jukebox Saturday Night" of years back to The Commodores performing their 1979 pop and soul record of the year winner "Three Times A Lady." All had in common the fact that the jukebox contributed significantly to their popularity — or, as stated in the script, "the jukebox is responsible for making a lot of stars." Also, the late Nat Cole appeared on film doing "Mona Lisa."

AMOA president Bob Nims was very enthusiastic in his praise of the special. "I thought it was a great show and a great tribute not only to the Jukebox Awards winners but to the coin machine industry as a whole and to the jukebox itself," he said. The program depicted the jukebox for what it is, Nims added: "a fine, wholesome form of entertainment for millions of people." He generously praised the entertainers who performed and was especially impressed with Mac Davis and George Segal who "did a fantastic job" as co-hosts. "I am sure that as a result of the telecast operators throughout the country will be instilled with a new sense of pride in themselves and in their industry," he stated. Nims, along with Wayne Hesch and AMOA's executive vice president Fred Granger, were on hand at the Desert Inn in Las Vegas when the show was being taped.

Kenny Rogers, who was this year's big winner with awards for "The Gambler" in five different categories (pop male artist, country record, country male artist, record of the year and artist of the year) acknowledged his awards on tape from Tucson, Az. where he was filming "The Gambler." Other award winners who were presented in this manner included the Bee Gees (from Miami, Fla.) who won as Rock Group of the Year; Blondie (from Texas)

Midway Incorporates New Features In 'Deluxe Space Invaders' Video

CHICAGO — "Already acclaimed as the world's hottest game, Midway has refined and improved Space Invaders to make it even more challenging," declared Stan Jarocki, director of marketing at Midway Manufacturing Co. The "Deluxe" model incorporates the basic fundamentals of the original but adds new colorful screen patterns, new action and a host of new features to test the skill and add to the enjoyment of the most avid players.

The new model contains such additional competitive variations as increased invader fire power, invaders randomly dropped into action by UFO, and splitting of some of the invaders into two units when hit. A Deluxe bonus scoring system and high scorer's name registration feature have also been added and when the score reaches 1,500 points (adjustable), a bonus laser base appears with a "beep" sound. If the last invader remaining on the screen is in the bottom row, left corner, a hit at this point is worth 1,000 points but if the last invader hit is in the bottom row, middle position, 800 bonus points are scored. If the last invader hit is in any one of the bottom two rows, other than the positions listed above, there is a bonus score of 500 points.

At the end of the high game, an alphabet appears on the screen, the control button moves a red line beneath the letter desired and as the scorer presses the fire button the letter is registered. When the complete name (up to 10 letters) is registered the control is moved to the word END, the fire button is pressed and the high scorer's name is on display for all to challenge.

Color Scheme

The new model is enhanced by striking color contrasts such as glowing red letters in the score line and player No. 1 and No. 2 points. The invaders are brilliant yellow, the fortresses and laser positions a vivid green and the laser shots change from green to yellow with explosive hits.

Deluxe Space Invaders is available through Midway's distributor network.

Exidy Introduces New 'Bandido' Video Game Based On Western Play Theme

SUNNYVALE — As the name implies, "Bandido" is a fun game built around a "shoot-em-up" western type theme available in 1 or 2 player models, produced by Exidy.

Amidst such obstacles as attacking bandits and buzzards the object of play is to rescue the sweetheart by hitting all of the bandits in an atmosphere of fast, colorful action and some rewarding video surprises to both challenge and entertain the player.

Lila Zinter, Exidy's games marketing manager, said of the new model, "It has a universal appeal that will attract players in all types of locations. Bandido is the ultimate in enjoyment with its fun theme and offers increasing challenges as the score gets higher."

The game is equipped with a joystick and knob control which are used to maneuver the sheriff's moves and aim in shooting at the attackers and the player must employ coordination and quick responses to react to the increasing skill required as the game continues. There are also bonus incentives and a high score display. For added appeal on location Bandido has a color action attract mode.

"Reports on Bandido show that it has outstanding earning power in the street location where it is presently being tested," reported Zinter.

The new model will shortly be available through Exidy's distributor network. Further information may be obtained by contacting the factory at 390 Java Drive, Sunnyvale, Calif. 94086.

Pizza Time Theatre Reports $200 Million Franchise Pact

LOS ANGELES — Pizza Time Theatre, Inc. has signed an agreement with Topeka Inn Management, Inc., to co-develop 285 stores in 16 central states over the next five years at an estimated cost of $200 million.

PTT, Inc. founder, Nolan K. Bushnell, said, "We're excited at the prospect of working with a group having the expertise and financial capability of TIM. TIM's abilities in food and lodging management will add strength to our organization."

In the June, 1979 issue of Restaurant

Hospitality magazine, TIM was ranked as number one among the nation's largest lodging franchise management companies. Plans call for Pizza Time Theatres to open in Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Minnesota, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Wisconsin. The first two TIM-operated stores are already under construction in Overland Park, Kansas and Kansas City, Missouri.

Service Tip On 'Asteroids'

SUNNYVALE — Relative to the current Atari "Asteroids" video game the factory's customer service department has issued a service bulletin with instructions to perform the following modification on the Asteroid's PCB's:

Resistors R87, R91, R96, R97, and R98 should be changed from 10K ohm to 470 ohms. To locate these resistors, refer to page 22 in the Asteroids manual (TM-143). The resistors are located at coordinates K-11 and M-11 on the main PCB.

This modification provides 10

milliamps to the open blade switches on the control panel. 10 milliamps is required to insure adequate self-cleaning on gold plated switches.

To prevent phosphor burn when switching from self-test to game mode, perform the following modification on Asteroids PCB:

1. Clip and lift Pin 9 of K9 (74LS164).
2. Jumper 30 gauge wire from lifted Pin

9 to Pin 15 of M-10 (74LS259) (reset).

The toll free number for Atari Customer Service is (800) 538-6892.

AMOA Telecast Cast Rave Reviews From Industry

whose "Heart Of Glass" was Record of the Year; and Crystal Gayle (from Nashville) who was Country Female Artist of the Year.

Jukebox History

Historic data about the jukebox was interspersed in the script and models of various vintage were spotlighted during the course of the program. "The phonograph was born and developed in 1877, in New Jersey, by Thomas A. Edison," noted George Segal, who also explained the origin the word "juke."

Gus Tartol of Singer One Stop For Ops in Chicago was another enthusiastic viewer of the NBC-TV special. "I thought the show was great," he told Cash Box. "It certainly helped improve the image of the operator and I think it might even re-awaken record companies to the importance of the operator in the singles market and to the high promotional value of the jukebox."

Hosts Perform

Co-hosts Mac Davis and George Segal also contributed to the entertainment, Davis with some of his vocal hits and Segal as a member of the Beverly Hills Unlimited Jazz Band.

It was obvious by the many comments made to Cash Box that the show was a big hit with the trade. Although the footage filmed during the November AMOA banquet in Chicago was not included in the program, as a first time effort it was "the greatest thing that's ever happened to the industry," in the words of Wayne Hesch.

Communications to coordinate all press activities at the Village and there will be TRG staffers and linguists on hand to assist visitors.

'International Flavor'

The "international flavor of the Olympics" reflects the "international flavor of our games" Nieman said, noting that the sport aspect of pins and amusement games parallels the concept of the Olympics.

The upcoming Bally "Silverball Mania" will be highlighted in the game room along with such Midway machines as Galaxian, Deluxe Space Invaders, Submarine, Super Speed Race, Phantom II and Bowling Alley.

Competition Slated

On Feb. 18 a coin-operated Olympics Tricathlon competition will be held and the three events will include pinball, video and foosball, with gold, silver and bronze awards being presented to the winners.

"We've been planning ahead for this show since Spring," Nieman noted, "and we felt this was something the coin machine industry needed and could benefit from in terms of publicity and public relations on an international scale."

Exciting Bonus Feature In Bally 'Ground Shaker'

right, left or both bonus points in conjunction with the top saucer feature and this can be achieved without losing the ball. The outthole also awards the left and right bonus as well as the Super and Nitro Bonus.

A total of 176,000 points is possible on one bail and there are lettered lanes, targets and saucers which can all advance the bonus feature. In addition, the game has an independent Super Bonus and Nitro feature for awarding 20,000 points, 30,000 points and Special.

Other Features

Ground Shaker is equipped with Bally's new on-board microprocessor sound system to further enhance the appeal of the game. Also included as standard features are the factory's front door programming and a 3-coin chute door.

Further information about the new model may be obtained by contacting the Bally Pinball Division at 90 O'Leary Drive in Bensenville, Ill. 60106 or Bally's distributors.

CHICAGO CHATTER

Game Plan, Inc. is starting up the New Year with "Coney Island," which is the "Sharpshooter" follow-up pinball machine and sales topper Stan Levin tells us they're also sampling the "Vegas" sit-down cocktail table pin. "We're looking forward to a good, strong 1980," he added, "with our solid pinball line and Game Plan will be accelerating production of slot machines this year so it will be a very active one for us."

LOEWEN-AMERICA in Franklin Park is currently playing host to three visiting engineers from the NSM factory in Germany. Messrs. Coccejus, Adelseck and Weyd are making some internal changes in the NSM Festival phonograph for improved dependability, as noted by Loewen's field service engineer Russ Strahan. Russ has been doing quite a bit of traveling these past few months, visiting factory distribs and conducting service seminars. A good part of December was spent this way and he has an equally full January/February schedule. With recent staff additions at the Franklin Park facility they now have a full time parts man and repair and maintenance personnel to better serve their customers.

EARLY RETURNS INDICATE that Midway has another giant seller on its hands, namely, "Deluxe Space Invaders." The new model, after a little more than a month in release, has taken off faster than the original Space Invaders, said director of sales Larry Berke. Likewise, the cocktail table version is also on its way to record sales. Larry, along with Stan Jarocki and Andy Ducay, will be departing for London shortly to attend the ATE show.

BALLY PINBALL DIVISION'S Bernie Powers will be attending the ATE convention in London, prior to which he'll conduct a Jan. 24 service school at Bally Continental in Antwerp. He'll also be doing a two-day session, Feb. 4-5, for Bally Continental at Wembley, England. Firm's Tom Nieman will cover the IMA exhibition at Frankfurt where Bally is sponsoring three booths; one specifically for the German wall machine manufactured by Gunter Wulff, the other for the display of Bally-Midway products with Wulff Automaten; and the third will be a service booth and since Wulff Automaten was recently appointed exclusive representative for Wico Corp., latter firm's vice president Frank Happ will be at this exhibit.

ON THE SINGLES SCENE: Keith Medin of Tony Galgano Records Inc. one-stop, has been recommending the following for jukebox programming in this area: "On The Radio" by Donna Summer (Casablanca), "I Ain't Livin Long Like This" by Waylon Jennings (RCA) and "I'm Alive" by Gamma (Elektra/Asylum).

THE NBC JUKEBOX AWARDS telecast rated high with most tradesters, the consensus being that it was entertaining, very well produced and a step in the right direction towards placing the operator and the jukebox in proper perspective. One operator said it was refreshing to find no negative content in the show, but suggested that next year's script place more emphasis on AMOA and an explanation of what the awards represent.

ON JAZZ

COMINGS AND GOINGS — The big band scene may not be what it was in the golden age of the 1930s, but it is hardly dead. Take Jaki Byard, one of the great pianists of all time. A mainstay of the Boston jazz scene for many years, Byard's piano playing transcends all stylistic genres. He is just as comfortable playing a strong stride beat as he is with the tone clusters and tangential dissonance of modern jazz piano — any music from ragtime to no time fails comfortably under his fingertips. New York concertgoers have been digging on Byard's Apollo Stompers for some time now, as his exciting young orchestra makes appearances at clubs like Ali's Alley, The Tin Palace and the All-Craft Coffee House ... Meanwhile drummer Mel Lewis, who used to work with the late Stan Kenton and has long collaborated with trumpeter-arranger Thad Jones, has been holding down the regular Monday night slot at the Village Vanguard with his hard swinging youngsters; when Mel is away, other big bands step in, most prominently Frank Foster's Loud Minority. Foster, an exceptional reedman-arranger, was a mainstay of the Count Basie Orchestra for many years. Foster's band incorporates the propulsive swing and bluesiness of yesteryear with carefully crafted modern arrangements. Speaking of Basie, by the time you read this the Count will have made a big splash at the Village Gate with the latest edition of his orchestra. For the last few years, Basie's recorded output has included an intriguing series of small groups on Pablo Records, but the current orchestra swings with as much buoyancy and enthusiasm as any big band in the world. Count Basie is entering his sixth decade (!) as an active band leader, and his influence can be felt in every contemporary large ensemble. Hats off to Count Basie, and may the seventh decade be as rewarding as the first six ... Of all the big bands currently on the scene, perhaps none elicits the enthusiasm of Sun Ra & His Solar Jet Arkestra. Ra, an interplanetary citizen who was once known as Sonny Blount in his earthly manifestation (circa Chicago, 1940s), was a pianist for the great Fletcher Henderson, then went on to lead a number of experimental ensembles in the 1950s. These large bands evidenced the influences of Henderson, Gillespie and Tadd Dameron as well as Ra's own unique sonorities. During the '60s and early '70s, Ra's various Arkestras were explosive, free-blowing affairs, noted for exhaustive sets of pure energy and emotion. But in recent years, he has broadened his concept to take in the full historical scene of his music, ranging from the swing era and the high-life rhythms of Africa to synthesized electronics and the outer reaches of group improvisation. In Europe, Sun Ra's Arkestras are a major concert attraction, filling theatres, arenas and stadiums with tens of thousands of enthusiastic fans. Meanwhile, back in the USA Ra is more likely to play small clubs like the Squat Theatre, where regular appearances over the past few months have carved out a new audience of space travellers. His recent stint at Squat proved once again that nobody can fire up a crowd like Sun Ra — the Arkestra cuts Funkadelic at their own game. With brilliant organ and synthesizer work from Ra (who pioneered the use of electronic keyboards in jazz way back in the '50s), and masterful tenor improvisations from the incomparable John Gilmore, and airborne trumpet work from young Michael Ray, the Arkestra swung easily from funk, old-timey, R&B and Watusi drum ceremonies into gospel convocations and swing era flagwavers. Ra calls his concept Disco 3000, but he should call it Disco 1938, because he gets everybody up and dancing to every genre of music. It's incredible to see a small club like the Squat transformed into the Savoy Ballroom, with people screaming and moving. Sound like fun? Well, Sun Ra will be coming into the Bottom Line on Thursday, January 14, with Saturn records on sale in the lobby (you can pick up the excellent Billy Jazz release "Lanquidity" in most stores). As my friend Michael Shore puts it, "be there or be square."

BACK ON THE SCENE — Another vital figure associated with big band music, Gil Evans, returned to the performance scene recently, playing duets with Lee Konitz at Greene Street. One of the most gifted orchestrators in jazz, Evans has enlivened classical settings from Claude Thornhill to Miles Davis, with unusual voicings and instrumentations. Since he was forced to disband his revolutionary '70s orchestra, Gil has been invisible on the New York scene, and he has been sorely missed. But as Gil told Cash Box, he's been relatively active on the European concert circuit. "In 1978 I worked in Europe with an eight-piece

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

GREAT ENCOUNTERS — Dexter Gordon — Columbia JC 35978 — Producer: Michael Cuscuna — List: $7.98

Some live jousts with fellow tenor giant Johnny Griffin (the Ammons — Stiff flagwaver, "Blues Up And Down") and vocal bebop with the gregarious, swinging Eddie Jefferson highlight Dexter's latest Columbia release. Superboppers Woody Shaw (trumpet) and Curtis Fuller (trombone) join Dex on brisk, happy versions of "Diggin' In" and "It's Only A Paper Moon" — the late Jefferson's recorded swan song. Plenty of mainstream power, but the peak moment is Dexter's sultry, boudoir tenor on Monk's immortal ballad, "Ruby My Dear."

TROUBLES — Steve Lacy Quintet — Black Saint BSR 0035 — Producer: Giovanni Bonandrini — List $9.98

Lacy is the seminal modernist on soprano saxophone. The only real champion the little horn had between Sidney Bechet and John Coltrane. Lacy has a broad range of inflections, complete mastery of overtones, a unique brand of tension and release, and, most importantly, a sense of humor. His European band on "Troubles" combines formal vocals, counterpoint, free improvising, blues echoes and chamber-like arrangements into a witty mix of lyricism and unfettered emotions.

IN THE TRADITION — Arthur Blythe — Columbia JC-36300 — Producers: Bob Thelle and Arthur Blythe — List: $7.98

A refreshing collection of jazz standards and two original tunes by Arthur Blythe make this LP aptly titled. "Jitterbug Walt," a Fats Waller tune, is as funky as any room full of jitterbugging people might have been. On cuts like "Breaktune" by Blythe and John Coltrane's "Naima," the saxophonist's unique and sensuous horn work makes this album more than a collection of old standards.

GENETIC WALK — Ahmad Jamal — 20th Century-Fox — T-600 — Producer: Michael Steward — List: $7.98

Keyboardist Ahmad Jamal, as usual, preserves the integrity of jazz musicianship but manages to combine funk and classical elements to make this album a provocative collection of richly textured music. The title cut sets the mood for the entire album as Jamal, who wrote the tune, weaves smooth orchestration and funky rhythms around tasty jazz piano riffs. The tune "Chaser" is vintage Jamal, using funky jazz to perk up the mood.

CITY DREAMS — David Pritchard — Inner City — IC-1070 — Producer: Chase Williams — List: $7.98

David Pritchard's debut work for Inner City Records is as pretty a recording as one could ask for. Combining smooth textural changes with an aura of transcendental timelessness, Pritchard, with the assistance of Freddie Hubbard and Patrice Rushen, has compiled one of those gently dynamic albums that compels you to take notice on the first listen. "City Dreams" has all the right ingredients, and guitarist Pritchard could prove to be a bright prospect on the horizon.

HIDDEN VOICES — Anthony Davis/James Newton Quartet — India Navigation IN 1041 — Producer: Bob Cummins — List: $8.98

These young innovators — pianist-composer Davis, flutist-composer Newton, drummer Phreeroan aka Laff, bassist Rick Mozie and trombonist George Lewis — are stretching the technical and conceptual possibilities of their instruments while building a real bridge between the extended forms of classical music and the spontaneous rhythmic excitement of jazz. Davis and Newton promise to be stylistic trend-setters in the next decade. "Hidden Voices" is bold, imaginative group music.

all have our own separate identity," notes Laws.

Although Laws claims to have "always been active musically, as long as I remember," he began playing alto sax at the age of 12, receiving formal training from junior high school until he reached college. To a large degree, though, he was self-taught, practicing regularly and playing in many different types of groups as a teenager.

"I played everything from acid rock to rhythm & blues," states Laws. "Then I got involved with heavy mainstream jazz in a local group called the Lightmen in high school."

When Laws graduated high school he had to pick from a number of different scholarships, including one of three he was to receive from the prestigious Berkeley School of Music in Boston. He settled upon Stephen F. Foster State University and, later, Texas Southern for "the value of their private instruction and personal attention." Laws is quick to credit his professors at those institutions for their help in teaching him the basics of reading and writing music.

He left college in his junior year, though, after he was married, "mostly because I was bored," packed up and left for Los Angeles.

Freelance Days

"I started from scratch, freelancing," continued Laws. "I remember one of the high points at the time was filling in for a tenor sax player during a three-day gig at the Greek Theatre with Quincy Jones."

He ended up taking on other jobs, with Hugh Masakela for one, and even led the horn section for Earth, Wind & Fire for awhile. Then in 1974 he signed with Blue Note.

At this juncture, Laws' talent as a player won the admiration of many of his peers in both jazz and popular music, enough in fact to draw the likes of Joe Sample, Ronnie Foster, Larry "Duck" Dunn, Patrice Rushen and Bobby Lyle, a former member of his group, to assist him on the making of "Every Generation."

And the growth of his reputation recently prompted the release of a two-year-old LP entitled "Pressure," on which he played tenor sax and received front cover publication credit. Musical cohorts Pat Kelley and Barnaby Finch, who are featured on his new LP, also assisted him on that album.

Now, Laws is preparing for a 16-city tour in support of "Every Generation" and putting together what he expects to be his permanent band, as well as producing what he expects to be his permanent band, as well as producing sister Debra's debut LP on Elektra/Asylum. With all this current activity and "Every Generation" rapidly gaining airplay, Laws says he couldn't be happier.

"I'm looking forward to getting back into the thick of things," he summed up. "I've been isolated in the studio for so long, where you seldom get to see the light of day. It's like another part of my life is just beginning."

followed closely at $4.99 and $5.74, with prices for $7.98 LPs holding steady at $4.99. Sale prices for $8.98 product ranged from $4.99 to $6.49.

Southern states reported average sale prices of $5.48 and $5.49, ranging from $4.97 to $5.99 ($7.98) and $4.99 to $6.99 ($8.98).

The western region had average sale prices of $5.29 and $6.24, with prices ranging from $4.59 to $5.99 ($7.98) and $5.49 to $6.99 ($8.98).

Average Shelf Prices

The average shelf price for $7.98 product was lowest in the south at $6.48, while the west had the lowest average for $8.98 LPs at $6.99. The southern states average shelf price on $8.98 albums was $7.49. The western states averaged $6.49 for the shelf price on $7.98 albums.

The east coast average shelf prices were $6.49 and $7.59, ranging from $6.20 to $6.99 ($7.98) and $6.99 to $7.99 ($8.98).

The midwest posted average shelf prices of $6.49 and $7.49, with prices ranging from $5.99 to $6.99 ($7.98) and $6.99 to $7.99 ($8.98).

No Sales Drop

Although albums today generally cost more throughout the country, reflecting the list hike to $8.98, no retailers reported significant drops in sales as a result of the higher prices.

Ann Lief, vice president of Miami-based Spec's Records, said, "I think people are ready to handle record price increases. Even with the economy as it is, people still consider records to be a good value."

Keith Ackerling, general manager of Chicago-based Sounds Good Records, added, "If it's a hit, they will buy it. People pay very little attention to the prices. The biggest consideration is whether the music is good or bad."

But Gloria Smith, chief buyer for the Music Stop in Detroit, saw the situation a little differently. "The customers don't like the prices," she said "But if they want the product they will buy it. I just think record prices are getting ridiculous."

independents have been very good to us," Licata said. "Mutually, it works very well. We have been able to establish acts through independents, and besides, the majors have enough product to work on, enough labels."

High Morale

Another strength of Chrysalis is that the philosophy behind developing strong relationships with business partners also extends inward to the label's employees.

"Morale is very important in the company," Licata stated. "The thing here is to develop our people into management positions. We want to build our people to the point where they have the authority to run their areas. We want them to learn their areas so they can develop and grow with the company. That's why we like to promote from within — it's extremely important to give people the opportunity to grow and give them the feeling that the company is behind them. It's very important to let people know that they have a future with the company."

A member of the management staff of Chrysalis since January 1976, Licata himself has been infected with this enthusiasm for and belief in the label and its philosophies. "It's been fun," he summarizes. "It's been a lot of work, but it's been fun, especially when you're seeing a company growing every year — you're not going backwards, you're going forward."

Cincinnati Bans Festival Seating

LOS ANGELES — Festival style seating for events at entertainment facilities or other places of public assembly have been banned by the Cincinnati City Council in the wake of the Dec. 3 tragedy at the Riverfront Coliseum in which 11 persons died in the rush to obtain seats for a concert by The Who (Cash Box, Dec. 15).

In addition, a second ordinance passed by the City Council will require promoters to publicize 48 hours in advance when the doors to an event will be opened. The ordinance also specified that doors must be opened at least two hours prior to the scheduled starting time.

The city's ban on festival style seating (one of the suspected causes of the Dec. 3 tragedy) will not apply to school and athletic events, bona fide religious events or those who obtain exemptions from the city's safety director.

At this time, further actions by the city are not anticipated until the completion of separate investigations of the tragedy by the City Council's Law and Public Safety Committee, the Task Force on Crowd Control And Safety, the Police Department and the Mayor's Office.
