EDITORIAL Enough Is Enough

With all of this doom and gloom from the trade and consumer press about the imminent demise of the record industry, it's time to stop this continual negativity, and approach the record business like any other industry in a recession.

In 1978, the record industry surpassed $4 billion, and has averaged a growth rate of some 20% annually over the recent years. Unfortunately, the very same people who have built this business to the top stature of today are being maligned by the press for the current economic ills. Not only is this unfair to these very talented people, but also it is highly inaccurate for others to point an accusing finger, particularly when this harassment comes from within our very industry.

These scandal-mongers are trying to destroy not only the careers of these people, but the industry itself. We really feel our industry should avoid these people and not permit this type of sensationalism to continue.

This industry and its leaders are capable enough to work out their own problems as well as any other industry in this nation. If you were to believe the innuendos in recent stories, you would think that our industry is shutting down next week. This couldn't be farther from the truth; music will live on forever.

The entire staff of Cash Box and myself not only are personally dedicated to the future of our industry, as we have been for the past 37 years, but also open our doors to be of service to all facets in our industry and to render any assistance which you require.

We are all music people. We are all survivors. And we always will be.

Industry Layoffs Continue As CBS, Motown, RCA Drop 200

by Alan Sutton, Mike Glynn and Richard Imamura

LOS ANGELES — Industry personnel cutbacks resumed last week following the dismissal of about 200 label staffers at CBS, RCA and Motown.

The latest round of staff trimmings at CBS affected "slightly over 100 field and middle and lower level employees," according to a statement from CBS headquarters in New York.

"The cuts represent about 5% of the entire company staff," the statement said.

At Motown Record Corp., up to 80 employees, representing approximately 30% of the label's work force, were let go in a series of week-long cuts. While nearly every department within the company was affected by the layoffs, including Motown's music publishing arm, Jobete Music, the greatest percentage of staff-trimming took place in clerical positions.

One casualty of the Motown consolidation was the disco promotion department, which was eliminated. An outside consultant, who is currently on retainer to the label, will now handle all promotion of disco product.

At RCA Records, a spokesman for the company issued a statement indicating that the label was presently "taking further action to reduce overhead consistent with current industry conditions. This consolidation results in a further reduction of 20 employees nationwide." Of the 20 RCA staffers cut, three were let go in the Nashville office, including one finance person, a merchandising person and a secretary.

The 20 layoffs this week at RCA now bring the total of label staffers to be terminated within the past two months up to 45. During July, 25 employees at RCA were cut.

The bulk of the CBS layoffs were in the field merchandising force and included Jim Charne, director of national merchandising for Epic, Portrait and Associated Labels. Also terminated at E/P/A were Steve Slutzah, associate director, product management west coast, Marion Bernstein and Richard August, product management; Randy Brown, national sales; and Jessica Faicon, publicity.

Among those leaving Columbia are Jonathan Coffino, director of artist development; Paul Black, promotion; Harold Coston, director of black music marketing, west coast; and Patti Kean, artist development.

The current layoffs at CBS follow close on the heels of the recent staff trimming and re-structuring of the Portrait label staff that saw nearly 60 employees dropped by the company (Cash Box, July 7). Spread equally throughout the company, the layoffs at that time were attributed to "business and cost discipline measures," by CBS Records division president Bruce Lundvall.

Further pinpointing the reasons for CBS' actions at that time, Lundvall characterized the current retail slump as a "reality that the industry has to adjust to right now," and that the final decision was made as a part of "a sweeping evaluation of all our areas of cost, including the mailing of records,"

Polygram Posts Price Hikes For 45s, LPs, Disco Singles

by Alan Sutton

LOS ANGELES — Polygram Distribution Inc. last week raised its wholesale prices for singles, albums and 12-inch singles effective Aug. 10. At the same time, the list price for new 7-inch singles jumped to $1.49 from $1.29.

The announcement follows recent LP price hikes by WEA, RCA, and Arista, and singles hikes by CBS and Capitol.

In a letter to its accounts dated Aug. 3, Polygram said it was raising the price of all $7.98 pop albums and tapes to $4.12 for racks and one-stops, $4.23 for multi-unit operations and $4.50 for retailers. The price for $8.98 list LPs went to $4.64, $4.77 and $5.07.

The attached price sheet included two prices for 7-inch singles; one presumably for the old $1.29 list, the other for the new $1.49 list. The prices, for the respective types of accounts, are: 59 cents and 69 cents, 63 cents and 73 cents and 65 and 75 cents.

The price for $3.98 and $4.98 list 12-inch singles also increased going to $1.92 and $2.47 for racks and one-stops, $1.97 and $2.54 for multi-unit chains and $2.07 and $2.70 for retailers.

Classical Unaffected

Polygram stated that the increases were due to "increasing costs" and that the price on classical records will "remain the same."

The letter went on to state that returns will "be credited at current prices until Nov. 9, 1979. Thereafter returns will be credited at your new price."

According to Polygram, "The costs reflect a discount from the gross price for free/bonus goods."

Labels currently distributed by Polygram include: Capricorn, Casablanca, Phonogram (De-Lite, DJM, Mercury, Smash, Sound Stage, Seven, Vertigo, Zappa), Polydor (Charisma, MVP, Spring, Verve), RSO (Curtom), Deutsche Grammophon, Philips, Archive, Festivo and Privilege.

Cohen Stresses Profitability At Disc Records Convention

by Charles Paikert

HURON, OHIO — Maintaining profitability in a period of economic recession was the dominant theme of the 38-store Disc Records convention held here last week at the Sawmill Creek Hotel.

John Cohen, president of the Cleveland-based Disc chain, which includes four free-standing Zebra stores, emphasized that "the entire convention has been geared to one thing — profitability of the company, which in essence, is survival in future times."

New Inventory System

Cohen, who conceded that Disc has suffered a sales slump throughout 1979, introduced a new computerized inventory control system to the nearly 60 Disc managers and staff members who attended the company's fifth annual convention. "The inventory control will insure that proper merchandise is in stock," Cohen stated. "We'll be guaranteed that information comes from actual sales figures for the last 12 months, so a basic tailor-made inventory can be maintained in every store."

Only 'A Few' New Stores

Cohen also revealed that Disc would be opening "just a few," or possibly no more than two new stores during the next year, although two stores were added to the chain this week in Tallahassee, Florida and Fort Wayne, Indiana.

"We decided last year not to go on a heavily concentrated campaign to open new stores," Cohen explained, "because we anticipated the country's current economic troubles."

New Store Layout

In addition, Cohen revealed plans to redesign the layout of Disc stores with emphasis on "new display concepts to promote artists" and areas where customers can listen to cuts from new albums through earphones. Video displays will also figure prominently in the new layout, Cohen said.

Although many companies in the music business have cancelled conventions this year, Cohen expressed his disagreement with that position. "When things aren't the greatest," Cohen commented, "that's when you have a meeting. When you're starting to feel the squeeze the time has come to look at yourself very, very analytically."

As a result, Cohen said, the Disc convention was designed "to make sure our people are well informed business people, as well as just being record people. We conducted internal business seminars to stress awareness of costs, profits, and the bottom line."

Sales of accessories, Cohen said, have accounted for an increasingly significant percentage of Disc's profits in the last six months. By contrast, he noted that "while operating expenses have skyrocketed over the past year, my profit margin on records have remained the same."

Focus On Mid-line, Cut Outs

The consumer trend toward a more limited record buying budget has, according to Raul Acevedo, executive vice president for Disc, forced the chain "to concentrate as much as possible on mid-line and cut-out product."

Front-line product at Disc stores have, Acevedo said, been hardest hit by the slump. "Best-selling albums are selling one-third what they did a year ago," he declared.

Catalog Stressed

Accordingly, Acevedo stated, Disc has increased its reliance on catalog product. "Catalog is 60 to 75% of our business," Acevedo said, "and, through the new inventory control and buying system that we have introduced here, we want to zero in to see that we carry better catalog."

Acevedo placed part of the blame for the industry's current slump squarely on infla-

Managers Say Current Sales Slump Cuts Signings, Rosters

by Joey Berlin and Richard Imamura

LOS ANGELES — In the midst of a year-long slump that has seen sales drop by an estimated 30-40%, the music industry has experienced of late that final indicator of hard times — staff cutbacks. Since June, hundreds of staffers at 11 companies have been dropped, with the possibility of more to follow.

If and when these cutbacks will reach the area of artist rosters and signings is open to debate. Amid rumors of roster paring and temporary suspensions of signings already underway, label reps still generally maintain an attitude of cautious optimism, most insisting that it's still "business as usual," or at least close to it.

However, from the perspective of some of the top artist management firms in the business, the industry is indeed going through a period of belt-tightening when it comes to rosters.

"It is very difficult to get acts signed today," said Buddy Allen, whose firm handles the Spinners, Trammps, Ronnie Dyson and Jeri Palmer. "The labels are definitely tightening up their selection process."

'Trimming Dead Weight'

In addition, said Russel Sidelsky, New York office manager for Can't Stop Productions, "all the labels are trimming dead weight, acts that are wasting dollars that are

Klein Sentenced In Tax Evasion Case

NEW YORK — Allen Klein, president of ABKCO Industries, Inc., received a two-year sentence Aug. 9 from Judge Vincent Broderick in U.S. District Court here after being found guilty by a jury April 26 of one count of filing a false tax return for 1970. The judge directed Klein to serve two months of the sentence, with the remaining 22 months suspended, and to pay a $5,000 fine and court costs of approximately $4,000.

Appeal To Be Filed

Klein's attorney indicates an appeal will be filed immediately. Klein was earlier acquitted on three counts of tax evasion for 1970-72 and two counts of filing a false tax return for 1971-72.

Klein remains free on his own personal recognizance bond pending appeal.

needed elsewhere."

As many of the managers see it, economic cutbacks due to the sales slump are not only inevitable, but are also being implemented.

"There is as much or more talent out there now as ever, but there isn't enough roster space to get them placed," said David Krebs of the Leber-Krebs agency, representatives for Aerosmith, Ted Nugent, Mahogany Rush and others. "The labels aren't making dramatic cuts in their artist rosters, they're just not picking up options, which accomplishes the same as cutbacks."

"One of our acts, Artful Dodger, is a perfect example," Krebs continued. "Columbia didn't pick up their option after three LPs, even though we believe they are a great band ready to break. There's just too much talent and not enough room."

Even management firms not currently experiencing any signing difficulties have felt the effects of the slump. While pointing out that he has not had any difficulty with a roster that is comprised of Badfinger, Chicago, Helen Reddy, Tower Of Power and Flip Wilson, Jeff Wald added, "There has been a noticeable cut down in tour support, and I anticipate that a lot more frills will be cut out. There won't be any more $50-60,000 parties and all those T-shirts. The record business isn't a haberdashery."

"The cut down in tour support could be very harmful," Wald continued, "but a lot of the fat is out. The record industry needs to be restructured. Bad business practices regarding returns and credit, as well as other things, have been tolerated too long."

New Direction

In line with this thinking, Krebs also announced a radical new direction for Leber-Krebs. "Rather than give up like we had to do with Artful Dodger, we are going to form our own singles label. We expect to formally announce the label within 90 days and already have six or seven acts lined up."

"Our plan will be to work the 45s regionally, treating the country like a lot of little countries," Krebs explained, adding that distribution for the label has not been finalized yet. "Then we can sell the masters to the labels later. Doing business this way, we can keep the bottom line expenses down."

"Recording costs don't have to run hundreds of thousands of dollars. What the

Record Buyers 'Get The Knack' As Group Grabs Top LP, Single Spots

by Frank Sanello

LOS ANGELES — Capitol recording artists The Knack, captured the top spot this week on both the Cash Box Top 100 Singles with "My Sharona" and the Cash Box Top 200 Albums charts with "Get The Knack," a feat unrivaled by any Capitol artist since Paul McCartney & Wings pulled a similar coup in June, 1976 with their "Wings at the Speed of Sound" LP and their single, "Silly Love Songs."

Top Debuts

The Commodores made an impressive bow on the Cash Box Top 200 Albums chart, with their "Midnight Magic" on Motown as the week's highest debut at #32 bullet. Chic's "Risqué" LP on Atlantic also logged a strong showing, debuting at #51 bullet on the Cash Box Pop Albums chart.

This week's highest pop single debut was Atlanta Rhythm Section's "Spooky" on Polydor at #73 bullet. Capitol artist Moon Martin's "Rolene" followed close behind at #82 bullet.

Home Town Act

"Get the Knack" and "My Sharona," the group's debut releases, owe their #1 spots to strong showings in the west and midwest. The Knack enjoys "home-town" popularity in L.A., where before signing

FBI Raids Pirate Rings In Southern California

NEW YORK — The FBI has culminated a six-month undercover operation into the counterfeit and pirate recording industries with raids at several Southern California locations. Massive amounts of finished illegal product and components and equipment used for producing infringing product were reportedly seized.

No Arrests

No arrests were made, but evidence seized in the raids and during the course of the investigation will be presented to a Federal Grand Jury later. FBI sources indicate the investigation is continuing.

The raids were the result of an FBI undercover operation based in Santa Clara, Calif. The companies involved in the searches conducted Aug. 7 were KRT Manufacturing, Inc., Van Nuys; Abdalion Printing & Box Co., Gardena, and Tami Graphics and 21st Century Graphics, Garden Grove.

The FBI had formed a company called Target Supplies, Inc. in Santa Clara and presented itself as a legitimate raw materials supply house providing necessary components for finished sound recording product. The undercover agents were successful in placing orders for various counterfeit album jackets and labels.

A&M's L.T.D. is one of the slickest and most successful R&B/funk groups in popular music today. Not only has the band received platinum certifications for its "Something To Love" and "Togetherness" albums, but the ten member configuration's latest LP, "Devotion," has shot up the Cash Box album charts after only eight weeks. "Devotion" is currently at #7 on the Black Contemporary chart and #31 on the Pop chart. Meanwhile, the first single from the LP, "Dancin' 'n' Singin'" is riding at #21 position on the Black Contemporary singles chart.

L.T.D. (Love Togetherness & Devotion) had its beginnings in North Carolina, where in 1968, Jimmie Davis (keyboard player and musical director), Jake Riley (trombone), Lorenzo Carnegie (saxes), Carle Vickers (trumpet, flugelhorn and flute) and Abraham "Onion" Miller (saxes) banded together, and began working the Top 40 club circuit on the east coast.

However times were hard on the club scene then, and after picking up drummer Jeffery Osborne in 1970, the band moved to Los Angeles. After getting to know the band and jamming with them continuously, Henry Davis (bass) joined the band and Billy Osborne (music director/organist) followed suit in 1971.

After hearing the hard working band's demo tape, A&M signed L.T.D. to the label. By the end of 1973 the band had recorded its first album "Love Togetherness and Devotion," and received national exposure by touring behind Bobby Womack.

After touring in support of its second LP, "Gittin' Down," as openers for such acts as the O'Jays and Bob Seger, the band added guitar player John T. McGhee to its lineup.

The band followed with its two platinum successes, and after the "Togetherness" LP, L.T.D. added its tenth man, drummer Alonzo Bennett.

Completing the trilogy that began with the "Something To Love" album is "Devotion." The funk extravaganza like "Stand Up L.T.D." and "Dancin' 'n' Singin'" are counterbalanced by gospel tinged love songs like "Stranger," and show how versatile the R&B unit really is. With "Devotion" it looks as though the band is destined to gain platinum status once again.

NEW FACES TO WATCH

Ian Dury

Stiff Records, the British new-wave label, has always been known for the quality of its artists and Ian Dury is no exception. Dury is the British rock-and-roller who was so enthusiastically received last year during his first American tour in support of a fine debut album called "New Boots and Panties!!" At 37, he is hardly a newcomer to the rock world, and his second album, "Do It Yourself," on Stiff/Epic, is every bit as good as his first.

Dury is the most distinctive personality to have emerged on the pop music scene in quite some time. In his snarling Cockney singing voice, he is alternately bashful and menacing, "leering his way through songs of lust and lewdness and sneering his way through songs of bile and venom," to quote one British music critic. Moreover, his lyrics and arrangements are exceedingly clever and draw from a multitude of musical styles, such as rhythm-and-blues, jazz, British music hall, disco, and reggae. Add to this a bizarre assortment of mismatched clothes and a visible limp stemming from a childhood case of polio that left him with a withered arm and leg and you have a character that has evoked comparisons from Samuel Beckett to Charles Dickens to Charlie Chaplin.

In conversation last week from London following the completion of a three-month European tour, Dury described himself as a kind of documentary songwriter who tries to make his songs as lifelike as possible. He explained that his live performances merely extend the characters he has created in his songs. "I try and act them, be them in a way," he said. "That's what I find exciting."

Prior to the formation of his current group, the Blockheads (under the musical direction of Chaz Jankel), Dury studied at the Royal College of Art and later taught at the University of Canterbury. In 1970, he left his teaching post to form Kilburn and the High Roads, a group that achieved recognition in the pubs around London but never really attained any sort of national success. When the group disbanded, Dury founded the Blockheads with saxophonist Davey Payne, also of the Kilburns.

"We were always faced with discouragement; we never sold any records," he recalled. But when "Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll," the Blockheads' first single sold 14,000 copies in England, he said, "I knew that my ship had come home and that I would be able to work at something I liked for the rest of my life. It made me want to get down on my knees and bang my head on the floor in supplication to whomever it may concern."

Dury, whose top-selling British single, "Hit Me With Your Rhythm Stick," is contained as a bonus in the new LP, employed a variety of visual aids on his last American tour, ranging from toy swords to a toilet scrubber to colored scarves, which he caught with his teeth. But now he reports that he has abandoned his prop bag, "because it became a parody of itself. Nowadays, I just use my rhythm stick."

Louise Goffin

When Louise Goffin's name first began to circulate about the record industry several months ago, there was much debate as to whether the 19-year old Elektra/Asylum recording artist could live up to her reputation as a new and exciting young singer as well as the offspring of pop diva Carole King and writer Gerry Goffin. Now, her debut LP, "Kid Blue," fulfills all expectations and record buyers are quickly agreeing, as it is #150 bullet on the Cash Box Top LPs chart and her new single, "Remember (Walking In The Sand)," is also at #84 bullet on the Cash Box Top 100 singles chart in its first week of release.

"I'm very excited at the response to the album so far, but now I feel that I'll have to work even harder to keep the momentum going," said Goffin, who is presently embarking on her first national tour with Beserkley's Greg Kihn Band. "It's really fortunate that we've had all this interest to start with."

As Goffin tells her story, she notes that she was keenly interested in following her parents' careers as a songwriter even as a child. After her folks were separated and she moved with her mother from West Orange, New Jersey to Los Angeles, she began tinkering with the idea of recording. Louise was able to get some free studio time at A&M or at her father's own Larrabee Sound Studios. When she was at home, she would often tape new songs on her two-track Teac recorder. In any case, she began to show an increasing desire to make a record.

"I wanted to explore every facet of the studio because it always had a certain mystique to me," recollected Goffin. "But my understanding of what was involved in making a record wasn't anything compared to what it is now. I just thought I would be making a 12", double-sided demo."

Her mother's lawyer, Mike Rosenfeld, took her demos around to a few labels, finally sparking the interest of Elektra/Asylum president Steve Wax, who eventually played an important role in guiding Goffin, despite her over-anxiousness to record her first album.

"Steve Wax encouraged me to finish high school and make sure that everything was right before I began work on the album, where I was trying to rush it along," praised Goffin.

Goffin also indicated that her producer and Section member Danny Kortchmar, ultimately helped shape the sound and direction of "Kid Blue" without being condescending to the novice artist.

"I needed someone who was going to work with me, guide me and develop me and there were few producers around who had the time to do that," related Goffin. "Then I met Danny, who never produced before but knew enough about music to help me. He was perfect."

Kortchmar prodded Goffin into putting everything she had into her singing, and a little more, so that the sound of the finished product would be as powerful and fully-realized as possible.

John Sheinberg Establishing Himself In Mgmt., Prod. Roles

LOS ANGELES — In a time when more and more teen and post-teen recording artists are emerging in the industry, it seems natural that a bright, energetic and youthful producer-manager should come along with some fresh ideas and a novel approach to management.

John Sheinberg, 21, who recently procured a multi-album deal for his Los Angeles-based group The Bottles on MCA Records and is presently searching for a similar pact for another L.A. rock group, Bluebeard, is just such a person determined to make his mark upon the industry.

"Management is a very important factor in determining how well you can exploit a group, maybe the most important factor," said Sheinberg, who has set up his own production and management company, Tower Road Productions, to handle his clients. "The success or failure of an act, I think, can be directly attributed to the management."

Sheinberg cut his teeth in management at Jerry Weintraub's Management III at the age of 16, later moving over to APA in Hollywood at 20 for a year as an agent. He pointed out that for someone as young as he to gain recognition within the industry means working twice as hard and fast to become established.

"At this point, it's necessary to achieve a solid track record," explained Sheinberg.

Klenfner Named Executive VP Of Front Line Mgmt.

NEW YORK — Front Line Management has announced the opening of a New York office, headed by Michael Klenfner, former senior vice president of Atlantic Records. Klenfner will hold the position of executive vice president for Front Line, according to Irving Azoff, president of the company.

"The expansion is necessary due to Front Line's growing involvement in movies and television and the expansion of our management division," reports Front Line's Larry Solters.

Within a few weeks, Front Line is expected to announce the formation of a separate management and record production company. Klenfner will play an instrumental role in the new company.

"Right now, I'm concentrating on Bluebeard and The Bottles but I eventually see myself branching out and taking on several more clients. I'm not only a manager but a producer as well so I can offer a range of services."

Sheinberg will be executive producer on The Bottles first album and, at some point in the near future, would also like to move into a similar production role within the film industry.

"I think that both the record and film industries are moving together so quickly that in the next few years it will be relatively easy to jump from one into the other," noted Sheinberg.

For now, however, Sheinberg is readying The Bottles album, which is due sometime this fall, and, as he says, "investigating any potential label contracts for Bluebeard."

"I'm trying to stay on top of every aspect of the record industry and I'm learning a good deal as I go along," summarized Sheinberg.

'Who's Who' In Country Music Due

NASHVILLE — A 400-page, hardbound book titled, "The Who's Who In Country Music," will be released in February, 1980. The book will be published by Windsor Publications of Woodland Hills, Calif. According to executive editor Kenn Kingsbury, the book "will be the most comprehensive and informative book on country music ever published."

The 1980 "Who's Who In Country Music" will feature over 2,000 people involved in all aspects of the music industry, including country music institutions, artists, musicians, songwriters, record companies, radio stations, personal managers and talent agencies.

The five authors who collaborated on the book are Gene Bear; Hugh Cherry, named 1970 "Man of the Year" by the Academy of Country Music and co-author and narrator of the 36-hour radio documentary, "The History of Country Music;" Harold Hensley, a fiddler who has worked with such artists as Jim Reeves and Loretta Lynn; and Buddy Mize, first president of the Nashville Songwriter's Association.

CAPITOL AND MUSCLE SHOALS PRINCIPALS SET LABEL DEAL — Barry Beckett, Jimmy Johnson, David Hood and Roger Hawkins — owners of Muscle Shoals Sound Studios and members of the well-known Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section — have formed a production company under which product will be owned, manufactured and distributed by Capitol Records, Inc. and marketed under the combined logo of Capitol/MSS Records. The new production company will be administered by Michael Barnett, president of Barnett and Associates, and the first release under the new alliance is expected in February. ## MCA Inc. Posts First Half Profit, Records Down

LOS ANGELES — MCA, Inc. posted record profits of more than $93 million for the first half of 1979, with substantial gains made in its theatrical, television, film and non-theatrical divisions, although its recorded music operations suffered losses in both the second quarter and first half of this year.

For the three months ended June 30, revenues for the records and publishing divisions of MCA, Inc. were $40.1 million compared to $28 million last year. However, operating income dropped in the same period, from $2.1 million to $1.1 million this year.

Revenues in the division for the first six months of 1979 showed a gain of 36%, totaling $70.8 million this year against $51.9 million last year. Earnings plunged sharply for the first half of the year to $1.7 million from $5.5 million.

The surge in sales this year for the recorded music operations of MCA resulted from the parent corporation's recent acquisition of ABC Records. Company spokesmen attributed the decline in earnings largely to the increased costs of advertising.

Meanwhile, the parent company showed a rise in profits of 9% over last year, from $48.9 million, or $2.10 a share, to the current $53.5 million, or $2.30 a share. With the inclusion of a $39.7 million tax suit settlement, MCA attained a net profit increase of some 90% over the previous year to $93.2 million or $4 a share.

MCA's second quarter saw a rise in net profits of 7%, from last year's $27 million, or $1.18 a share, to $29 million, or $1.26 a share. Quarterly revenues increased 21% to $272,926,000 compared with $225,012,000 last year in the same period.

WHAT'S IN-STORE

OH WELL! — It's been eight years, but an album by Peter Green (Fleetwood Mac founder and guitarist) will finally be released in the States. The single LP release will be on Sail Records, a small, but innovative independent out of Manchester, Mass. Available now as a hard-to-get import on green vinyl, Sail will keep the record musically intact, put it on black vinyl, and change the cover. Look for distribution announcements to be made as finalization draws near. Currently, Green is married and living in the Los Angeles area. . . . Another interesting record note is the availability of the first It's A Beautiful Day album. This record has been attracting prices in the hundreds of dollars at various collectors meets. The record available now is a Dutch import. Various importers are distributing it with list ranging somewhere around $15.98. . . . The new single by Roxy Music, "Angel Eyes," has been dramatically re-done from the original album version on "Manifesto." The new version will be released on a regular 7" along with a longer 12" promotional version. In addition, all new pressings of "Manifesto" will contain the new "Angel Eyes" in place of the original.

ONE-STOP RABBIT — Rabbit Distributing of Houston has announced that it will begin one-stopping this month. Ray Abbott, president of Rabbit states that he is making the move to better service the small accounts who currently buy the Rabbit lines. Rabbit will continue to sell their present labels to racks and other one-stops. To accommodate these new procedures, Rabbit has relocated to 1923 Antoine, Suite A-3, Houston, Texas 77055. The phone remains the same at (713) 682-0997.

CHARISMATIC STORY — "We're building up the Charisma Records image and identity again in America." So says Nancy Lewis of Charisma, (formally Famous Charisma), which has recently been picked up for distribution through Polydor. Famous Charisma, long considered an exclusive British label, is now looking to build up a new image here in the States. Most of the early catalog will probably remain deleted, with only a few early Genesis albums, and possible some Monty Python albums being re-issued. Charisma, now with an active five artist roster (Patrick Moraz, Peter Hamill, HawkLords, John St. Clair, and Darling) is celebrating its tenth year in business with a fresh new start. Happy Birthday.

REGIONAL ACTION — Leo Kottke and Point Blank in Denver. . . Neil Larsen and Tubeway Army on the west coast. . . Breathless in Cleveland of course. . . Herman Brood breaking in New England. . . Ethel Merman and Destlnatlon in L.A. . . . Toby Beau single in Pittsburgh. . . and Bobby Vinton's disco polka in Chicago.

CUSTOMER QUOTE OF THE WEEK — "Hey man, do you have the Nun Lumps colored vinyl, picture disc, one-sided, extended play, disco version, dollar-sign shaped, Japanese, live, produced by Eno, with poster, 14", with liner notes by Dave Fulton, limited edition, in the original six covers?"

ENDS AND ODDS — A&M retail newsletter "Takin' It To The Streets" has named Al Compton of Peaches, Atlanta (#41) as retailer of the month. . . Happy Anniversary to Peaches Records and Tapes on its five year anniversary. Have a "crate" time. . . From Stark Records, "Fax 'n' Rumours" comes a report that CBS Records has discovered that 30% of all classical buyers are between 18-25 years old. . . Tower Record Stores in Southern Cal. are hosting various meatball eating contests with Meatball jackets (?) and a chance to meet Bill Murray being offered. In other Tower news, Bob Delaney of Tower/Hollywood handed out "Survivor of the 2nd Annual Southern Cal. Picnic" T-shirts to anyone left standing at the recent affair.

"RKO and Drake-Chenault made history in the seventies as the revolution was spawned on our stations by the dynamic mind of Bill Drake," said Dwight Case, president of RKO. "It pleases me very much that we have joined together to chronicle this decade."

THE CAT'S OUT OF THE BAG — "The slump of '79" is old news within the recording industry, but a series of articles in such publications as The New York Times, Newsweek and New York brought the news to consumers last week. The most insightful report was written by John Rockwell in a page 1 story in the Times Aug. 8. He surmised that "the days of strong, steady growth of the pop-music industry may be over, and cited remarks by Bruce Lundvall, Joe Smith, Stan Cornyn and Clive Davis to make his case. It may be that the young audience of today is no longer interested in the great names of the past," said Lundvall. "Home taping is terrifying," noted Smith. "It almost destroyed the record market in Germany. We just don't know how to deal with it." Rockwell suggested that the labels also don't know how to deal with their artists. The result (of giving artists free reign over the recording process) has been that pop stars make an art far more personal and uncompromised than that in films or television but it can also mean wasteful or neurotic self-indulgence, absurdly-inflated recording studio costs and a loss of control by the record companies over when they can release records by these key moneymakers". . . Newsweek gave only a cursory and condescending account of the industry's woes. "All manner of moguls are being laid off," declared Newsweek, and "some labels have committed the unforgivable economy; instead of Dom Perignon champagne, rock stars' limos are now stocked only with Perrier water." One retail exec complained of having to compete for entertainment dollars with "roller skates and drugs". . . New York's Jack Egan took a more professional approach, citing restructuring within the industry and the lack of blockbuster product. The piece was highlighted by its title, "Meltdown In The Wax Factories," and a clever Dali-esque illustration.

CELEBRATIONS — A pair of area radio stations haven't let the above bleak stories spoil their fun. WLIR-FM/Hempstead celebrates its 20th anniversary Aug. 21 with an all-day concert at Belmont Park. The Good Rats, Pure Prairie League, Earl Scruggs Review, David Bromberg Band and Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes will be on hand. Film stars John Ritter and Harvey Korman, along with the 'PLJ jocks, were there, too.

Tickets are going for $18.50 and $15.50, and the proceeds will be turned over to the Muse Foundation, Inc., which will distribute the funds to groups fighting nuclear power and working to develop the use of solar and other alternative energy technologies. MUSE hopes to raise half a million dollars from the concerts, and they plan to record the proceedings for a live album, with film also a possibility.

THERE'S NO BUSINESS LIKE — Mid-song Music is making an effort to expand its base by moving into the television music area. Midsong recently inked a deal with the Spelling/Goldberg production team, and has opened offices in Los Angeles and London. . . Estelle Lazarus, veteran New York publicist, has opened her own shop at 29 Greene St. Besides p.r. and publicity, Lazarus offers management and artist development services. The new firm's number is (212) 925-2155. . . John Boulos moves from London to Vanguard as promotion manager. . . David Salidor moves from Howard Bloom to do independent p.r. His number is (212) 794-1417. . . The Cobble Mountain Band, favorites among folk fans in New England, have their debut record out on Singlebrook Records.

HERMAN BROOD IS A WILD DUDE — Somebody's gotta make a movie out of Herman Brood's life. The Dutch-born rocker, now recording for Ariola Records, says that he's "out of my head all the time." And with good reason. His mother, a German belly dancer, wanted young Herman to become a musician in her band, but his father, an Arab, wanted him to be a lawyer. The decision to become a rock and roller was made, says Brood, when he saw Johnny Weismuller in old Tarzan movies. After that, he slept with covers of Little Richard records under his pillow. Before getting a band together, though, Brood relates that he was "up to my neck in dope and crime. I was in mental institutions, and then, when I was in jail two and a half years ago, I was singing along with the radio, and decided that I could do better than that." Brood, who is having an American success

MY LITTLE DOUCE COUPE — Mushroom recording artist Doucette (r) proudly displays the 'Douce' Coupe which he and his band drove onto the stage of Stages in St. Louis for his recent show there. Looking on are Mike Clark (l) and Bruce Lowery of Lieberman One Stop in St. Louis.

13 — Chicago — Columbia FC 36105 — Producers: Phil Ramone And Chicago — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

That platinum Chicago sound is going full-throttle on the group's 13th LP. The bright jazzy horns and slick harmonies are most evident on "Runaway" and "Reruns." However the brass backs off on a Donnie "Hot Licks" Dacus' song, "Must Have Been Crazy," which should get the AOR audience on its feet once again. The band has across the board appeal, and this new effort should keep the boys at the top of the charts for sometime.

OFF THE WALL — Michael Jackson — Epic FE 35745 — Producer: Quincy Jones — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

There are lots of highpoints on the newest waxing from the Jackson family's most noted silver throat. The percussion is dazzling throughout the LP, and Jackson's covers of McCartney's "Girlfriend" and Wonder's "I Can't Help It" are rendered brilliantly. From top to bottom, the album is a sensitive, funky, rhythmic ode to contemporary R&B joy. "Don't Stop 'Til You Get Enough" the title cut and "She's Out Of My Life," a lilting ballad, are the LP's key cuts.

FEAR OF MUSIC — Talking Heads — Sire SRK 6076 — Producers: Brian Eno and Talking Heads — List: 7.98

One can almost envision mysterious electro-wiz Brian Eno lurking behind the mixing board on the latest LP from this intellectual, New York new wave band. This is the Heads' most musically sophisticated and hypnotic album to date. David Byrne's lyrics are more bizarre than ever, and, as usual, the "quirk" is the thing for this music. "Drugs," which used to be called "Electricity" in concert, is undeniably the quintessential Talking Head's song. An AOR must.

MUSE — Grace Jones — Island ILPS 9538 — Producer: Tom Moulton — List: 7.98

This outrageous looking songstress looks more like one of David Bowie's contingent than the world's leading advocate of mondo bondage disco. Jones lends her commanding vocals to songs with titles like "Suffer" and "On Your Knees." It's difficult not to submit to the sophisto-disco sound of the fine studio band led by Thor Baldursson, and the sterling production of Tom Moulton. This is the perfect add for the disco DJ's who need a little pleasure/pain dancin' music.

FRAGILE LINE — Wha-Koo — Epic JE 36173 — Producer: Alan V. Abrahams — Bar Coded

After a splendid debut LP and a so-so second effort, the latest configuration of Wha-Koo has returned with an album that should break it as a major rock act. The record is chock full of breezy pop/rocker songs that are suited to AOR and Top 40 fans alike. The songs are tightly constructed, contain neat hooks, and are powered by the dramatic vocals of David Palmer and the melodic keyboard work of Ron "Wizard" Fransen.

MISTRESS — RSO RS-1-3059 — Producer Thomas Jefferson Kaye — List: 7.98

This is a superb debut album, by a band that plays power chord laden southwest rock ala the Eagles. Bands like Poco and Firefall will probably be given a run for their money by Mistress as the band matures. The vocals are of the sweet high harmony variety, the songs have catchy guitar driven hooks and the band gives off a contagious "Good Feeling To Know" glow. Two high energy rockers, "Situations" and "Whose Side Are You On" are the album's prime cuts.

J.J. CALE — 5 — Shelter/MCA SR-3163 — Producers: Audie Ashworth & J.J. Cale — List: 7.98

The music of J.J. Cale embodies a quicksilver personality in that at first glance (listen) it all seems to be pleasant enough mainstream laid-back American City & Western. However, when the lyrical content of his compositions begins to sink in, the often-used phrase "genius" emerges. J.J. Cale has something to say about the human condition that few can ever hope to attain in its accuracy and immediate gut-level relevancy. A gem of an album that AOR seems to already be embracing.

LIQUID GOLD — Parachute Records RRLP 9017 — Producer: Adrian Baker — List: 7.98

Former members of rock band Babe Ruth serve up a delectable slice of English disco on their debut LP for Parachute. Intense running bass lines and interesting percussion embellishments are the earmarks of the fish and chips dancin' band. Ellie Hope's engaging vocals and the group's driving approach augment Adrian Baker's superb arrangements. The album's single, "My Baby's Baby" has to be one of the strongest disco cuts of this or any year.

TAKE THE A TRAIN — Tuxedo Junction — Butterfly FLY 3105 — Producers: Laurin Rinder and W. Michael Lewis — List: 7.98

Currently on tour with Bob McGilpin, Denise McCann and Destination as part of Butterfly's "Hottest Disco In Town" promotional tour of U.S. discos, Tuxedo Junction proves, once again, that the big band sound has never died, it just went disco. Only producers like Rinder and Lewis could take old classics like "Begin The Beguine," "Night In Tunisia" and the title tune and bring them off so refreshingly. Should make for a riotous romp with the disco crowd.

BORN AGAIN — Randy Newman — Warner Bros. HS 3346 — Producers: Lenny Waronker and Russ Titleman — List: 8.98

From the stab at Kiss on the front cover to the last hilarious line of "Pants," Randy Newman's rapier wit is in peak form on "Born Again." Although the album does have its subtle lyrical twists, this LP marks the first time that Newman has really gone all out and burned both middle class life and rock 'n' roll to a crisp. Although Newman is the thinking man's rock star and the lyrics are clearly the point of attraction here, his music is taken to new heights by a superstar session band on this LP.

DEBBY BOONE — Warner Bros. BSK 3301 — Producer: Brooks Arthur — List: 7.98

Boone sails through a mixed bag of adult contemporary and country ballads, lively disco workouts and '50s chestnuts on her new Warner Bros. release. She doesn't tread any new ground on the LP, but her resonant, floating vocals are in top form on this album. "Jamie" and "Meet Me On The Dance Floor," two hot dancin' numbers, are exciting, but the sensitive "I'll Never Say Goodbye" is the LP's showcase piece.

MAUREEN McGOVERN — Warner Bros. BSK 3327 — Producer:

Although she looks like the "for adults only" version of Robin Hood's Maid Marian on the cover, Maureen McGovern happens to be one of the most in demand singers of love themes for movies in the business. She gives "Can You Read My Mind," the lovely theme to "Superman" a sensitive rendering on her latest LP. Maureen's pure, soothing vocals are in full bloom on this record, and the discified version of "Can't Take My Eyes Off You" is one of the LP's finest cuts.

GET IT OUT IN THE OPEN — Freddy Henry — Clouds 8809 — Producer: Al Kooper — List: 7.98

Freddy Henry's debut on Clouds is definitely a candidate for sleeper R&B album of the year. Al Kooper's arrangements are perfect tributes to the genre, and the fine studio band, headed up by The Tower Of Poland horns, is perfectly suited to Henry's soulful vocals. Highlights on this rhythm and blues delight include "I Can't Quit Your Love," "Tryin' To Live My Life Without You," "Love Stop" and "San Diego Serenade."

ALAN PRICE — Luck Day — Jet/CBS JZ 35710 — Producers: Bones Howe, Alan Price & Alan O'Duffy — List: 7.98

Before Barry Manilow and Billy Joel there was Alan Price. You might even say that Alan Price was the original piano man who has blatantly bucked whatever commercial trend has gone down since The Alan Price Set (a.k.a. The Animals) first ventured out of Newcastle, England. With a style that falls halfway between good-timey British Music Hall bounce and Carnegie Hall balladeering, Alan Price could very well expand upon his devoted cult following.

BETTER THAN THE REST — George Thorogood And The Destroyers — MCA-3091 — Producer: Danny Lipman — List: 7.98

This is the controversial MCA release of Thorogood's material recorded in 1974. This record is not an archaic, poorly recorded, bootleg affair. However, it is another excellent example of Thorogood's knack for bringing quality and life to the basics of rock & roll in the polished late seventies. Two chunky acoustic blues numbers and steaming covers of the best from Willie Dixon, J.L. Hooker are the waxing's prime cuts.

PROPOGANDA — Various Artists — A&M SP 4786 — Various Producers — List: 7.98

Despite the album graphics, "Propoganda" is not a Red Chinese attempt at U.S. takeover. It is however one of the most unique sampler LPs to date, as A&M attempts to blatantly influence the masses' musical tastes toward new wave music. Superb performances are turned in by such punky darlings as Joe Jackson, The Police and Squeeze. This LP is a must for programmers who still think this infectious and rebellious music is akin to communist infiltration.

LONG JOHN BALDRY — Baldry's Out — EMI/America SW-17015 — Producer: Jimmy Horowitz — List: 7.98

After too long of a hiatus, one of the founding fathers of London's fertile R&B scene (circa 1963) is back in no uncertain terms and ready to take his rightful place among scores of lesser Britrock luminaries. Utilizing a parcel of tasty non-originals such as Free's "The Stealer" and the Spector/Weill/Mann chestnut "You've Lost That Loving Feeling," Baldry "booie woojies" his way through one of the stronger debuts of the year.

THE FABULOUS THUNDERBIRDS — The Fabulous Thunderbirds — Takoma TAK 7068 — Producer: Denny Bruce — List: 7.98

In the sixties "Butter" came out of Chicago; his blues harp playing became infamous as did the boys that backed him up. Now, in 1979 we have "margarine" coming out of Dallas. The T-Birds have it down pat: Chicago Blues done with sincerity and uncluttered by star egoism which fragmented Paul Butterfield's aggregation. It's also maybe The Blues Bros. without the nuttiness. It's also a lot of fun having the basics done well again.

CHER AND THE GANG — Casablanca Record and Filmworks artist Cher had a successful three-night gig at the Universal Amphitheatre recently. Pictured backstage are (l-r): Neil Bogart, president, Casablanca Record and Filmworks; Cher and Sandy Gallin, of Cher's management firm, Katz-Gallin.

Angel Vet Coveney Dies

LOS ANGELES — John Coveney, a 17-year veteran of Angel Records who served as the classical label's director of artist relations, died Aug. 6 at New York's Beth Israel Hospital of cancer. He was 62. Coveney had left his post in October 1978 to serve as the label's special consultant on major recording projects.

Coveney joined Capitol Records as a sales representative with the label's New York branch in 1945 after graduating from Fordham University. He held a number of different positions at the label, including national classical promotion manager and national classical sales manager, and was a frequent guest panelist on the Saturday Metropolitan Opera broadcast quiz.

Dick Waterman of the firm serves as personal manager for Bonnie Raitt, Buddy Guy, Junior Wells, and Robert Pete Williams, while Jeffrey Hersh is Raitt's business manager.

Video Firm Moves

The firm's phone number remains (914) 423-4400.

Illicit Tapes Destroyed

NEW YORK — Thousands of eight-track tapes, machinery, and raw materials, valued by the Federal Bureau of Investigation at more than $5 million, were destroyed pursuant to an order signed by U.S. Judge George Pratt of the Eastern District of New York. The materials were seized by the FBI in May of 1977 during the execution of a search warrant at the premises of R&A Audio in Ronkonkoma, New York.

The materials had been stored in a warehouse pending disposition of criminal and civil proceedings against R&A and its principal, Ramon Gutierrez, to a year in jail and a $5,000 fine, suspending the last ten months of the sentence and imposing two years probation.

A civil action against Gutierrez by London Records, Warner Brothers Records, and Atlantic Records resulted in a consent judgement providing for damages and an injunction prohibiting copyright and trademark infringement. The judgement also provided for the destruction of all the materials seized by the FBI.

WKRP In Georgia Set For Opening This Fall

LOS ANGELES — WKRP is, literally, going on the air in the fall. The Dallas, Georgia station, located about 30 miles from Atlanta, will have an MOR format. The FCC has cleared it so the Georgia AM station has full operation rights.

Although Mary Tyler Moore Enterprises, owner of the fictional TV series, had a hold on the call letters, the attorneys for the proposed Southern station pursued the matter. The diligent lawyers found that only a radio station can put a hold on call letters.

JEM Hikes Its Prices

NEW YORK — JEM Records has raised its wholesale prices an average of 3%, effective Aug. 13. All orders received after Aug. 10 are being supplied at the new prices. Rackorders will be filled at the new prices and returns will be credited at the old prices for 90 days.

The company cited the devaluation of the dollar over the past two months, the increased cost of doing business in the U.S. and skyrocketing British record prices as reasons for the wholesale price increase.

Robins Signs Robbins

LOS ANGELES — Singer/composer Rockie Robbins has signed an exclusive personal management agreement with Larry Robins' One B Management.

Vanwarmer Gets Gold

LOS ANGELES — Bearsville recording artist Randy Vanwarmer's single, "Just When I Needed You Most," has been certified gold by the RIAA.

WEST GOES EAST — After several years residence in L.A., this ex-New Yorker was deluged by new impressions and memories come to life during last week's return to the Big Apple. The wealth of street life and club activity is even greater than remembered, and the humidity and world-weary cynicism even worse. Perhaps the best illustration of life in New York were the events surrounding a visit to the Club Lorelei for opening night Aug. 8, featuring Jerry Lee Lewis and Otis Blackwell. Since it was opening night, there were seating, lighting and sound problems. So when Blackwell, author of such early rock classics as "Ali Shook Up," "Handy Man," "Fever" and "Return To Sender," came on, the audience was already in a foul mood. The catcalls soon began, and the overflow house made it clear they wanted the Killer. Club Lorelei is a country western club, and Lewis started out his set with pretty straight country material. But the crowd sensed the band's rock 'n' roll abilities and demanded their favorites. And the Killer didn't let them down. After praising the late N.Y. DJ, Alan Freed, as the father of rock 'n' roll, Jerry Lee kicked up a storm that, of course, concluded with "Great Balls Of Fire" and "Whole Lot Of Shakin' Going On." The audience was boisterous, but it knew a classic when it saw one . . . It was the walk back home across town (Club Lorelei is on the Upper East Side) that really capsulized the New York experience. Walking down Madison Ave. in the wee hours was like walking through a museum, passing gallery after gallery with art objects of all kinds sitting in windows (behind metal gates). It was a warm summer evening, perfect for a walk through Central Park. But one always hears how dangerous Central Park is at night, so we asked a policeman if it would be safe to walk along one of the streets cutting through the Park. "I wouldn't risk it if I were you," was the officer's advice. That's New York.

EDGAR WINTER SPEAKS — "My roots are R&B and soul music and those are the dominant influences on disco, so it's no surprise that some people think my new album is disco," says Blue Sky artist Edgar Winter.

Lunching with Winter was another benefit of being in New York last week, where Edgar is rehearsing his new band for his first tour in 2½ years. "We're still a new band and might be a little rusty, so we're going to start out doing small dates in New England and we'll probably be out until Christmas, ending up on the west coast. It's not the same band as on the new album. I've got two guys from Meat Loaf's band and the first keyboard player I've ever toured with. We'll be doing material from the White Trash days to the present." After recording this new LP with producer Tom Moulton at Sigma Sound Studios in Philadelphia, Edgar went to California on vacation, where ex-White Trasher Dan Hartman got him together with

Stevie Wonder to help out on a single Hartman was recording. "We got to talking after the session, and Stevie said he'd like to play on my next record," Winter says. "He's one of the greats, and I'm really looking forward to it." Edgar also plans to work on a rock Broadway musical with director/playwright Hiram Taylor in the near future. "I've always wanted to get into film and stage music," he says. "Especially if it's sci-fi or futuristic." As for brother Johnny, Edgar says, "I haven't seen him recently because he's been out on the road. But to me he's a cornerstone, one of the stable things in life. He doesn't change his music to satisfy anyone but himself, and he's having a great time now playing the old blues that he's always loved."

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA STUDIOS LISTED — The upcoming September issue of The Mix, a technically-oriented magazine covering the world of the recording studio, will feature a listing of studios in Southern California, from 4 to 24 tracks. The Mix will become a monthly beginning with that issue, which will also include stories on Cherokee Studios and drummer Jim Keltner. The October issue will list studios in New York . . . The same people have also begun publishing M.I. Magazine, another freebie, directed toward the active musician. M.I. focuses on players, equipment and instruments. Both magazines are published out of Albany, Calif.

COMING RELEASES — The first single from Bob Dylan's upcoming "Slow Train Coming" will be "You Gotta Serve Somebody," due any day . . . Cheap Trick's "Dream Police" will be released in mid-September . . . Steve Forbert's late September album will be called "Jack Rabbit Slim" . . . The Attractions, Elvis Costello's band, are completing their own solo album . . . Rolling Stones Records is so high on the new Peter Tosh single, "Buk-In-Hamm Palace," that they're putting out four versions. There's the album version, a 7½-minute 12-inch, and two 7-inches, a 4:29 commercial single and a 3:45 DJ 45. All were supervised by Mick Jagger . . . After 10 years with Columbia, Mac Davis is cutting his first LP for Casablanca in Nashville . . . Foghat's "Boogie Motel" is due in late September.

STUDIO TRACKS — Forum Studios in Covington, Ky. is going into independent production via Forum Productions, headed by studio partners Jerry Warner and Gary Foster. First act for the new company will be local band Highwind. Forum has pacted with EMI International in London for worldwide release of Highwind product. Mike Chapman has used Forum in the past to record Exile and Blondie . . . Filmways/Heider in Hollywood donated its mobile unit 1 for the recording on the Lowell George benefit at the Forum Aug. 4 . . . At the F/H studios, Kenny Loggins has wrapped his next Columbia LP . . . John Stewart will be producing Al Gallico Music staff writer Cort Casady at Salty Dog Studio in Van Nuys.

ON THE ROAD — At the Japan Jam last week in Kyoto, the stage roof collapsed during the sixth song in Heart's set under the pressure of a heavy rainstorm. No one was hurt, but drummer Mike Derosier was reportedly saved from serious injury by his kettle drum, which deflected some of the debris . . . The Little River Band has two new members for its current tour. Barry Sullivan is on bass and Mal Logan is playing keyboards . . . Alan Price will be at the Roxly Sept. 28-30 . . . Jim Messina is doing a series of Hawaiian dates this month . . . Delbert McClinton returns to the Roxy Aug. 31-Sept. 1 . . . The Chambers Brothers are on the road and make their first L.A. appearances in eight years at McCabe's Aug. 9-10. The Chambers are also doing a Whisky date Aug. 26 . . . Asleep At The Wheel moves from its usual haunt, the Palomino, to the Starwood Aug. 30 . . . Frankie Valli headlines a Dayton hospital benefit Sept. 8 . . . Benefits for L.A.'s Improvisation comedy club include Robin Williams Aug. 15, Andy Kaufman Aug. 27-29 and Gabe Kaplan (to be scheduled).

Your Siamese Friends Are Coming!

Honorable reader is most humbly invited to join Cheap Trick
in celebrating great double platinum success.

It is a success that began with the very first Cheap Trick album just over two years ago. Epic gave Cheap Trick complete support. And they worked hard in the studio and on the road. And the Cheap Trick phenomenon grew larger and larger. Especially in Japan. There, they earned the same homage that was once reserved only for the Emperor. It was only proper, then, that Cheap Trick's first live album be recorded at Budokan. And it is that album's double platinum status that we are honoring here. But the story does not end with "Cheap Trick at Budokan." This record has given them their first Top-40 hit with "I Want You to Want Me." It's made them a huge, sell-out concert attraction. And it's kept their catalog in an amazingly active status that's already resulted in one gold and another close to gold album. So this is only the beginning.

Sip then, and contemplate with wonder on Cheap Trick and CBS Records, The Artist Development Company.

Lift, remove and steep to taste.

While attendance was a bit short, those in attendance enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Among the highlights was Al Cohn leading a four-man saxophone section, including Scott Hamilton, Dick Meldonian and Ray Turner; a set featuring the Cohn-Red Rodney-George Masso lead sextet; and another set featuring Arnott Cobb, Rodney and four trombones. Carol Sloane, Jimmy Rowles, Chuck Wayne, Derek Smith, Harold Ashby, Kenny Davern, George Duvivier, Billy Hart and many more were on hand. When Buddy DeFranco and Tal Farlow played together, all hands believed it to be some of the most exciting jazz heard in New Jersey (or anywhere) in many years . . . Chick Corea's Artists International group showcased keyboardist-composer Mike Garson Aug. 3-5 at $2 Bills in Hollywood. Garson, whose past credits include a stint with David Bowie (circa Spiders From Mars), fronted a versatile septet that handled mainstream jazz, funk and fusion with equal aplomb. Playing a Yamaha electric grand, Garson performed an eight-song set of all original compositions, highlighted by "Home" (which is also the name of the band), "Jewish Funk" and "Some Take The Heat." Stanley Clarke, who sat in on bass on the final two nights of the engagement, plans to include the latter tune on his upcoming concert tour . . . The Jazz Emporium will have Ray Bryant, Attila Zoller/Don Friedman, Chuck Wayne/Warren Chalson and Jimmy Ponder at various times during August . . . The initial concert presentation of the Lennie Tristano Jazz Foundation will be September 9 at Carnegie Recital Hall with tenorman Lenny Popkin fronting a trio.

BRIEFLY NOTED — Marco Records (Universal City, Calif. (213) 242-6703) is a new jazz label formed by Mat Marucci and Joe Colella. The first release, scheduled for early September, is "Who Do Voo Doo" by Marucci's seven-piece band. The LP was written, arranged and produced by drummer Marucci . . . "Super Jazz Ole" is the theme of the 1980 annual convention of the National Association of Jazz Educators. Slated for Jan. 17-21 at the Albuquerque Convention Center in Albuquerque, New Mexico, the meeting will emphasize the importance of the Latin influence on jazz. The four-day confab will include meetings, clinics and workshops as well as a special concert featuring Tito Puente, Supersax and others . . . The tribute to Hoagy Carmichael, which was one of the big hits of the recent Newport Festival, will be broadcast on National Public Radio in November.

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

DUET — Gary Burton and Chick Corea — ECM-1-1140 — Producers: Corea/Burton — List: 8.98

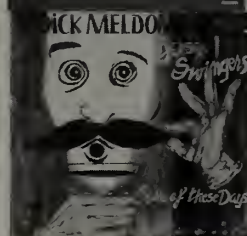

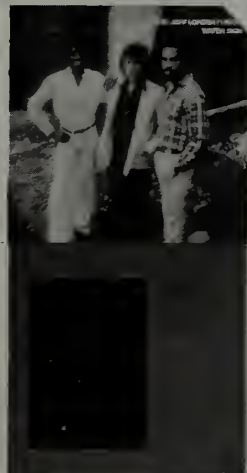

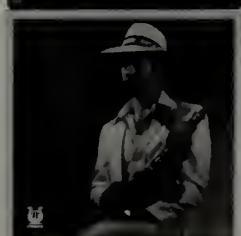

Ever since their debut collaboration, "Crystal Silence," vibraphonist Burton and pianist Corea have gotten together periodically — and the results are always spectacular. "Duet," recorded last October at the Delphian Foundation in Oregon, is a case in point. Musically, these are two kindred souls, and the chemistry is especially good on Steve Swallow's "Radio" and Corea's "La Fiesta."

THE BEST OF BILLY COBHAM — Billy Cobham — Atlantic SD 19238 — Producer: Cobham — List: 7.98

This eight song collection highlights the best of Cobham's recordings for Atlantic, culled from such past LPs as "Crosswinds," "Total Eclipse," "Spectrum" and "A Funky Thide Of Sings" as well as "The Billy Cobham/George Duke Band Live — On Tour In Europe." Spanning the years 1973-76, this package chronicles an important developmental period in the career of one who many feel is the premier fusion drummer.

KEEPER OF THE FLAME — Richle Cole — Muse 5192 — Producer: Mitch Farber — List: 7.98

This is a sensational jazz album. Cole has been making LPs under his own name for three or four years, but this is without question his best. Cole is a fiery alto player, but for a player who is only thirty-one to attack classics such as "As Time Goes By" and "I Can't Get Started" and make them sound fresh is a substantial accomplishment. Eddie Jefferson sings a pair, including "Harold's House of Jazz," one of the best things he ever did. Quite simply one of the best LPs of 1979.

WATER SIGN — Jeff Lorber Fusion — Arista AB 4234 — Producer: Jeff Lorber — List: 7.98

A virtual unknown only a short time ago, Lorber caused quite a stir with his last LP, and now, with "Water Sign," he has come up with his best effort to date. By skillfully blending his dynamic piano and synthesizer sounds with a fluid rhythm section and well placed horn parts (featuring Joe Farrell and Freddie Hubbard), he has come up with an LP that is a sure crossover hit. "Country," "Rain Dance" and the title track show the Lorber Fusion at the forefront of the contemporary jazz scene.

THE GATOR HORN — Willie Jackson — Muse 5146 — Producer: Fred Selbert — List: 7.98

Horns would be more accurate, since the album is split between Jackson's tenor and his own invention, the Gator Horn, a saxophone pitched in E natural. Tenor is still the best for this artist, and "Ungawa," a swinging blues, and "You've Changed" are the best here. In fact, "You've Changed" may be Jackson's best ballad ever.

SOME OF THESE DAYS — Dick Meldonian — Progressive 7033 — Producer: Gus Statlras — List: 8.98

Meldonian is a hard-swinging tenorman out of the Zoot Sims and Al Cohn school, making his debut after years of work with Stan Kenton, Charlie Barnet and countless others. The rhythm section of Derek Smith, Linc Millman and Ronnie Bedford offers superb support and, in the title track, Meldonian has it all together in a very impressive performance.

DISCO BREAKS

WRITER TURNS PRODUCER — Peter Hartz, former Disco Breaks columnist, was recently named producer of the syndicated disco radio program, "Steppin' Out." Peter had been associate producer. Former producer Larry Yurdin remains with Golden Egg, the company which produces the show, but has gone on to other projects, including a rock version of "Steppin' Out," appropriately titled, "Rockin' Out." The show will be broadcast on AOR stations. "Steppin' Out" has experienced phenomenal growth and popularity around the country since its premiere in mid-June. Originally broadcast in 75 markets, the show is now heard in 105, including recent additions KTDY-Lafayette, La; WPOM-West Palm Beach, Fla.; WENZ-Richmond, Va. and WCRO-Johnstown, Pa. Three or four major advertisers are expected to sign on for 1980 in mid-September.

NEW DJ AT CRUCIAL DISCO — Most label promoters agree that the place to break records in L.A. is Probe, the fashionable, HiTech private disco on Highland Ave. in Hollywood. Club owner Ray Sanchez recently hired Frank Collins, a former DJ at Faces in Houston, to spin at Probe. The 31-year-old Collins began dishing there two weeks ago and reports, "The audience response has been overwhelming and the record people have been incredibly helpful." Patrons of the club say that on occasion they have stopped dancing to applaud a particularly ingenious mix or overlay. When Collins drove here from Houston, some of his records warped in transit due to the desert heat. "I made a few calls to the labels." Collins relates, "and that same night promo reps showed up at the club with replacements for the records that were ruined." He is particularly impressed with the professionalism of the promoters. "They're not pushy at all. They usually just drop off a record and ask me to play it when I have time." In Houston, in addition to his spinning duties, Collins was also the announcer on a disco radio show. He moved here because "L.A. and New York are the only places where there's studio work." Eventually Collins would like to get into producing and engineering. In the meantime, he is enjoying the "uniquely enthusiastic" crowd and the "great" Graebar sound system at Probe, where he reports that Space's "Save Your Love For Me" and Ruth Waters' "Never Gonna Be The Same" are big crowd pleasers. And his personal favorites at the moment? "No contest," he says. "France Joli and Space."

A BIG SPLASH IN THE POOLS — RCA has decided not to cutback its servicing of the Southern California Disco DJs Association and BADDA. A mutually satisfying agreement has also been reached between RCA's Tony King and the Florida Record Pool to cut servicing from 135 to 75. Says King of recent developments, "Since we've closed our west coast disco promotion department, the pools there remain our only effective promotional tool." Other factors contributing to King's decision, he said, were the size of the Southern

REVIEWS

ULLANDA — Stars — Ocean/Ariola OR 7503 — 12"

At last, a discriminately mixed (by John Luongo) song which allows us to hear Ullanda's delicate, expressive soprano, especially during a non-disco ballad break. Jazzy piano, classical violins and big band era sax make this an eclectic treat. "Stars" has best pop cross-over potential of all the tracks on Ullanda's "Love Zone" LP. Times: (A) 10:22 and (B) 6:55.

JIM GRADY — Between Love and a Hard Place — Chanterelle — CNT-12-002 — 12" — Promo

Synthesizer intro a real attention getter. Another heavy beater sure to take over the dance floor. Harp and whip duet an unusual variation on "Duelling Banjos." Conga break nothing new. Choral work highlights this offering, Chanterelle's debut release.

FRONT PAGE — Love Insurance — Panorama JD-11677 — 12" — Promo

Heavy beat and percussion play off powerful female lead singer. Vocalist begins song with unique solo accompaniment by drums. A dance number best heard in the disco. Times: (A) 8:00 and (B) 7:25.

FEATURE PICKS

DONNA SUMMER (Casablanca NB 2201)
Dim All The Lights (3:55) (Sweet Summer Night Music — BMI) (D. Summer)

Summer's "Bad Girls" LP seems to yield an endless supply of hit singles, a testament to the singer's incredible talent and virtuosity. This cut begins with a charming ballad-like intro, moving into a revved up, surging disco beat which eventually finds an easy pace. Original and intriguing, this cut feels like another chart-topper.

RAYDIO (Arista ASO 441)
More Than One Way To Love A Woman (3:32) (Raydiola Music Co. — ASCAP) (Ray Parker Jr.)

Coming off his last Top 10 single, "You Can't Change That," Ray Parker Jr. has cooked up another potent musical brew here that combines a dash of disco, a generous helping of R&B and a strong pop hook to make a tasty treat that will appeal to several different formats. Great production and soft harmonies add up to a winner.

JOHN STEWART (RSO RS 1000)
Midnight Wind (3:27) (Bugle Publishing/Stigwood Music, Inc. (adm. Unichappel Music) — BMI) (J. Stewart)

Stewart's last single, "Gold," turned out to be a surprisingly successful sleeper that swept into the Top 10. Like "Gold," this cut also features the haunting backup harmonies of Fleetwood Mac's Stevie Nicks and the expert, buzzing electric guitar work of Lindsey Buckingham. From the "Bombs Away Dream Babies" LP.

ABBA (Atlantic 3609)
Voulez-Vous (3:45) (Artwork Music Co., Inc. — ASCAP) (B. Andersson, B. Ulvaeus)

Where ABBA's last Top 20 single, "Does Your Mother Know," was dominated by male lead vocals and a decidedly rock edge, the title track from their current LP finds a return to shimmering Euro-pop with a chirpy cisco beat and bright horns. The female vocals are as good as anything the girls have done in the past. Another Top 40 triumph.

EDDIE MONEY (Columbia 1-11064)
Get A Move On (3:36) (Grajonca Music — BMI/Davalex Music — ASCAP) (E. Money, P. Collins, L. Chiate)

From the soundtrack to the motion picture "Americathon," Money rocks to an insistent, infectious kick drum beat, as grinding guitar lines and airy harmonies fill out the hook. This song should no doubt return Money to the Top 40. AOR, check this out, too.

LOUISE GOFFIN (Asylum E-46521)
Remember (Walking In The Sand) (3:41) (Trio Music Co., Inc./Robert Mellin Music Publishing Corp./Tender Tunes Music, Inc. — BMI) (G. Morton)

The Shangri-Las first recorded this tune in the '60s but Goffin's updated version shows a masterful sense of vocal and instrumental dynamics as she makes this song completely her own. Waddy Wachtel's guitar work is outstanding and David Kemper's drumming is perfect.

MOON MARTIN (Capitol P-4765)
Rolene (3:20) (Rockslam Music — BMI) (M. Martin)

Martin can write terrific rock songs that appeal to a wide audience, as evidenced by the recent chart success of Robert Palmer's "Bad Case Of Loving You (Doctor, Doctor)." He's also a very good performer, as evidenced by this first single from the "Escape From Domination" LP. Snakey guitar licks combine with his slight Oklahoma drawl vocals to make a true Top 40 sleeper.

NICK GILDER (Chrysalis CHS 2357)
Electric Love (3:09) (Beechwood Music Corp. — BMI) (Gilder, McCulloch)

The most impressive part of the second single from Nick Gilder's "Frequency" LP is the superb hook. Chugging electronics, in the vein of The Cars' music, surround Gilder's high, airy vocals while sweet guitar phrases pierce the background. This track is sure to grow on listeners, both on Top 40 and AOR.

SINGLES TO WATCH

PAT TRAVERS (Polydor PD 2003)
Boom Boom (Out Go The Lights) (3:20) (Arc Music Corp. — BMI) (S. Lewis)

From Pat Travers' current live LP, "Go For What You Know," this cut has a steamy blues-rock cum heavy metal quality, a la Foghat, that has already made it an AOR fave. Audience participation on the hook is a nice touch, while Travers wails on guitar. For pop and AOR lists.

KARLA BONOFF (Columbia 1-11041)
Trouble Again (3:36) (Seagrape Music — BMI) (K. Bonoff, K. Edwards)

Bonoff has been known primarily as a successful songwriter but she has a lot of range and spirit as a singer as well. This tune, from the upcoming "Restless Nights" LP, is cut in the Southern California rock mold, with stinging guitar work. For AOR and pop lists.

CHICAGO (Columbia 1-11061)
Must Have Been Crazy (3:25) (Donnie Dacus Publishing — ASCAP) (D. Dacus)

Chicago's latest addition, Donnie Dacus, has brought a more rock-oriented direction to the group, which clearly surfaces on this first single from their new LP. Plenty of smokin' slide guitar work, pounding drums and cowbell back Dacus' vocals.

THE KINKS (Arista AS 0448)
A Gallon Of Gas (3:41) (Davray Music Ltd. — P.R.S.) (Ray Davies)

From The Kinks' excellent "Low Budget" LP, this cut is equally as topical as their last 45, "Wish I Could Fly Like Superman." But, where "Superman" made a foray into disco, this track has a hypnotic blues-rock beat. Good natured pop with a message.

BLUE OYSTER CULT (Columbia 1-11055)
In Thee (3:48) (B. O'Cult Songs, Inc. — ASCAP) (A. Lanier)

"Mirrors" is the name of the new Cult LP and this first single proves that their expanding direction into pop didn't end with "(Don't Fear) The Reaper." A gentle rolling beat, almost in the country-rock mold, highlights this neat pop tune.

ARETHA FRANKLIN (Atlantic 3605)
Ladies Only (4:00) (Pundit-BMI) (A. Franklin)

The Queen of Soul is back and her pipes still have all the power and passion of her golden years. This track moves from a dreamy ballad into a fast-paced disco setting that can stand up with some of the finest current disco cuts. For several formats.

VAN HALEN (Warner Bros. WBS 49035)
Beautiful Girls (3:37) (Van Halen Music — ASCAP) (E. Van Halen, A. Van Halen, M. Anthony, D.L. Roth)

An AOR staple since "Van Halen II" was first released, this second single from the LP is a tight edit of the album cut which has an air of summer fun that will appeal to Top 40 audiences. David Lee Roth belts out the lead vocal with a sense of good humor rarely seen in heavy metal.

MASS PRODUCTION (Cotillion 44254)
Firecracker (3:45) (Two Pepper Publishing — ASCAP) (R. Williams)

Firecracker effects open this new single from Mass Production, the latest find in Cotillion's stable of hit R&B acts. Unique and original vocal phrasing make this a standout cut, with harmonies and horns reminiscent of Earth, Wind & Fire. For B/C lists.

THE RUBINOOS (Beserkley B-46518)
I Wanna Be Your Boyfriend (3:16) (Eau d'Yeah Music) (T.V. Dunbar, J. W. Gangwer)

Previously released under Beserkley's former affiliation with Janus Records, this song is an overlooked gem, sparkling with pop playfulness, tight instrumentation and great harmonies. Pop programmers, don't pass this up the second time around.

JIMMY "BO" HORNE (Sunshine Sound/T.K. S-1014)
You Get Me Hot (3:42) (Sherlyn Pub. Co., Inc./Harrick Music, Inc. — BMI) (H.W. Casey, R. Finch)

From the "Goin' Home For Love" LP, this song strikes much the same groove as K.C. & The Sunshine Band and with little wonder, as K.C. and partner Rick Finch co-wrote the cut. Discified pop, this should make most dance lists.

DUROCS (Capitol P-4756)
It Hurts To Be In Love (3:02) (Screen Gems — EMI Music Inc. — BMI) (Greenfield, Miller)

Durocs are just two guys, Ron Nagle and Scott Mathews, who, through the wonders of modern electronics, sound like a full band on this cover of the Gene Pitney hit. The sound is urgent and passionate here, as pounding drums and crunching guitars pump up the beat. For AOR lists.

THE CLASH (Epic 9-50758)
I Fought The Law (2:38) (Acutt-Rose Publications, Inc. — BMI) (S. Curtis)

The Clash cram as much energy and chain saw instrumentation as possible into under three minutes on this top-notch re-working of The Bobby Fuller Four's hit single. Perhaps the most accessible cut the band has done to date, The Clash are ready for pop, AOR play.

SHAUN CASSIDY (Warner/Curb WBS 49039)
Are You Afraid Of Me? (3:38) (KCM Music/Shongs Music — ASCAP) (S. Cassidy)

On this self-perined tune from his current "Room Service" LP, Cassidy moves into a disco vein that seems to ape The Bee Gees and Andy Gibb. Hardly original but pleasant nonetheless, Cassidy still has a strong legion of fans who will like this.

DAVID CASSIDY (MCA/Curb MCA-41101)
Hurt So Bad (3:03) (Vogue Music — BMI) (T. Randazzo, B. Hart, R. Wilding)

Remember Shaun's older brother, David, of the Partridge Family fame? Well, after an unsuccessful stab at hard rock, he tries his hand at a pop cover of this '60s hit with mixed results. Although the vocals are fine, the instrumentation is a little sweet. For pop formats.

YONAH (Free Flight PB-11696)
After The First One (2:58) (Stone Mountain Music, Inc. — ASCAP) (W. Jackson)

A timely folk-pop cut that focuses on nuclear disasters, the instrumentation here is light but full, with twangy male lead vocals, clear harmonies and an engaging break with acappella vocals and handclaps. Pop or even C&W formats should check this out.

AIR PLAY

FM MADNESS — Programmers and radio personnel, who are taking the album oriented rock game a little too seriously these days, will find some welcome comic relief in Stevens and Grdnic's (pronounced Grid-nick) first Takoma release, "Somewhere Over The Radio." The album is a clever parody of the AOR radio format and all of its vulnerable cliches. A comedy LP like this is long overdue and, some of the subjects that are treated satirically on the 38:50 waxing are: artist interviews, concert promotions, rock gossip, station logos and pimple cream, head supply and stereo commercials. There are musical hilinks on the album as well. "Comedians often touch on radio in a routine and then go on to something else, so it is a neglected comic medium," offers Ron Stevens. "We wanted to do a comedy album that was akin to the 'Groove Tube' television parody, but one that was programmable." Ron Stevens and Joy Grdnic were air personalities on KSHE/St. Louis from 1971-77, and Stevens was the PD at the station from 1976-77. While the husband and wife team performed many comic vignettes at KSHE, the duo moved to Los Angeles in 1978 to gain more media exposure. Their AOR experience paid off, as they found work writing for "WKRP In Cincinnati," syndicating radio paid-in routines and, most recently, cutting their first album. One of the highlights of the album is a vignette in which Grdnic, as Miss Information, describes the next ZZ Top tour: "The tour will include 500 wild steer on stage, a travelling rodeo and the entire city of Houston." Stevens maintains that radio comedy is like dessert with the music. "And look at the money you can save on lights," adds Grdnic.

PROTECTING SOCIETY WITH KEZL — KEZL-FM/Eugene should be applauded for its sponsoring of a program whereby recording artists donate their services to raise money to light a local jogging path. The path has been the scene of several recent rapes. The latest artist to donate his time to the worthy cause was Columbia recording artist Walter Egan. Egan gave all proceeds from a sold out performance at The Place in Eugene to the KEZL sponsored program.

KREM GOES APE — KREM-FM/Spokane and A&M Records recently invited its female listeners to participate in a "Date A Gorilla Promotion," celebrating the release of the new Joe Jackson LP, "Look Sharp," and the single "Is She Really Going Out With Him." The single contains the line . . . "Girls walking with Gorillas down my street," hence the promotion. The Washington AOR asked for a one hundred word essay on why the ladies wanted to date a primate. The winner, KREM listener Tiena Wolf, was taken dining and dancing by a Gorilla fur clad air personality, Jerry Mathews. Rick Galliani of

Weedeck Created To Produce Three Syndicated Radio Programs

HOLLYWOOD — Partners Ronald Martin and Lloyd A. Heaney have formed Weedeck, a company designed to produce syndicated radio programs.

The organization will produce 10 original three-and-a-half minute shows per week. Each of the three programs are offered separately and will be compatible with the subscriber stations' programming. Weedeck will also offer several special programs throughout the year, as well as daily, weekly and weekend programming.

Void In Quality Programming

Martin states that radio syndication is an area already crowded with some good and not so good programming, but adds, "Our research indicates a tremendous void in quality programming . . . programming that enhances the station's market and national image as well as offering the station's listeners access to and understanding of the nation's top artists and performers. Only a very limited number of stations have the budget, production capability and access to the performers that we do. We are satisfying that need and filling that void."

Concerning advertising, Heaney said, "Once we satisfy the national advertisers' need to know that we have put together a group of highly professional, talented people, and that we expect to be in the business producing quality — and I stress quality — programming for stations across the country for many years, then our job of selling is easy. It's a beautiful marriage; we can provide exposure of a national advertiser's message in a correct selling atmosphere on top stations across the country at far less cost than any other medium."

The Weedeck office is located at 1516 Crossroads of the World, Hollywood, Calif. 90028.

MCA Restructures Pricing For New Artists And Catalog

LOS ANGELES — MCA last week became the first major record company to establish a $5.98 list price series for selected new and catalog goods. The new system will apply to product on both the MCA Records and Infinity Records labels.

In recent weeks a number of companies have considered reducing the price for catalog merchandise in an effort to stimulate dealer interest in this area. But MCA becomes the first label to announce a special pricing structure for the dual purpose of breaking new acts and reviving depressed catalog sales.

"With the way conditions are in the industry today," said Al Bergamo, president of MCA Distributing Corp., "it is our philosophy that the record community needs something positive and that it is up to us as an aggressive manufacturer to market records differently than they have ever been marketed before.

Helps The Consumer

"When things are good you don't worry about it. But when things slow down you have to be sharp and do things to stimulate retail activity by creating some advantages for the consumer."

Under MCA's new artist category, called "Rising Star," the artist's first LP release will be set at $5.98. Once sales exceed a predetermined volume, the album will get a revised prefix and record number, and

American City Bank Expands Services To The Music Industry

NEW YORK — The American City Bank has expanded its Entertainment Division. The division will offer a broad range of financial services in the areas of film and television production and distribution, music and recording, entertainment business management, professional athletics, artists' and theatrical management, and publishing.

"American City Bank is primarily a business bank, and this expansion of our Entertainment Division is in direct response to the growing banking needs of the entertainment industry," said Fred Jensen, president and chief administrative officer of the company. "One of the most important aspects of our service is providing banking assistance for ventures which will help the tax status of high-earning artists and others in the field.

Steven Leibovitz, vice president of American City Bank, will head the division, which will be headquartered on the mezzanine level of the bank's regional office at 9601 Wilshire Boulevard, Beverly Hills.

carry a list price of $7.98.

According to Bergamo, such factors as the artist's royalty schedule and recording costs will determine the volume at which the price moves to $7.98 from $5.98. "I think it will probably fall in the neighborhood of 75,000 to 100,000 units," he said. "What we're looking for is a reorder pattern to see if we have a viable record."

He added that albums selected for the Rising Star program will be supported by advertising dollars and special point of purchase materials. "When we bring a new artist out, we're committed to breaking him, and we will spend money," said Bergamo.

The initial release in the Rising Star program will be the debut album by Canadian artist Richard Stepp on Infinity.

Catalog Line

MCA's catalog campaign is called "Platinum Plus." Bergamo said that by September at least 25 titles will be included in the line, which will list for $5.98.

He believes established artists will benefit from the new set up. "If an artist has a record that isn't moving in great tonnage, then his royalty rate is virtually nothing," according to Bergamo. "But if we can show him that he'll sell four or five times more records a year at $5.98, then it's to his advantage to accept a different royalty."

Bergamo said he has no fear of being deluged with returns once it is announced that a certain catalog item will be included in the $5.98 series. "When we put records into the $5.98 line, I'm sure that accounts will send back $7.98s and we will issue $7.98 credit," he said. "But we're not going to put something at $5.98 that has 200,000 units out there.

"Recently we moved four Elton John albums into our $3.98 budget and we didn't get a lot of returns on the items we reduced in price. Now the product is selling about five times what it was at this new budget figure, and I think we would have had the same kind of sales at $5.98."

CBS Declares Dividend

NEW YORK — The CBS board of directors has declared a cash dividend of 65 cents per share on CBS common stock, payable on Sept. 7 to shareholders of record as of Aug. 24. The board also declared a dividend of 25 cents per share on CBS preference stock, payable Sept. 28 to shareholders of record as of Aug. 24.

Eddie Kilroy Announces New Independent Production Firm

by Bob Campbell

NASHVILLE — Producer Eddie Kilroy, former vice president of A&R for MCA Records here and former head of Playboy Records here, has announced the formation of Shaggy Dog Productions, Inc., located at 1300 Division Street near Music Row.

Kilroy, who currently produces Faron Young and Bobby Borchers, has also negotiated production agreements with Ray Pillow, Little David Wilkins and Kim Charles. Kilroy is now working on an album for Young at Fireside Studios, which will be released this fall. Kilroy also said he "is in conversation" with other acts concerning possible production deals and is interested in signing more acts who are "severing current production relationships."

An important aspect of his production company, Kilroy stressed, is his personal commitment to each artist in terms of promotion and guidance.

"When Playboy opened up here, I was the only person other than a secretary for a long time," Kilroy said. "I personally promoted the four #1 records I had with Mickey Gilley. And I was in the promotion business for 10 years before I got into producing. I know the promotion business and I feel I am qualified to consult artists on which independent promotion man I feel is the best for their purpose. A lot of acts don't really know who they should hire."

Publishing Arm

Kilroy is also forming a publishing wing and expects to receive licensing clearance on a name within a week. He stressed the publishing company will be a separate entity from Shaggy Dog Productions and will be operated strictly on a "no deals" basis.

"First of all, opening a publishing company is contrary to anything I have said I would do in the past," Kilroy said. "Basically, producer-owned publishing companies are just set up to make producer's money. But what I mean by 'no deals' company is that I will never make an act or even ask an act to cut one of my tunes. I am going to pitch to other acts just like any other publisher."

"I want young writers who aren't signed to companies," Kilroy added. "There are an awfully lot of good young writers on the street."

HAGGARD GUESTS ON "GOOD MORNING AMERICA" — MCA artist Merle Haggard recently made a rare television appearance, guesting on the "Good Morning America" nationally televised morning show. Haggard, who performed "Today I Started Loving You Again," is shown talking with host David Hartman.

MCA Will Relocate It's Nashville Offices

NASHVILLE — MCA Records will move back into the original MCA building on the corner of Music Square East and Hawkins St. probably within six weeks, MCA Nashville president Jim Foglesong announced recently.

Since last winter's merger of ABC Records and MCA Records, the MCA operation has been housed in the ABC suite at 2409 21st Ave. So. ABC had used the office space on 21st Ave. for approximately four years.

Since MCA owns the building on Music Row, Foglesong said the company simply wants the building utilized.

"MCA owns the building and wants us in there," Foglesong said. "We are fixing it up now and making some alterations such as moving a wall here and there. We will fit everybody in all right. Our lease here (ABC lease) is expiring too. We are in the fortunate position of not having to do it at any certain date, but it will probably be in the next six weeks. We will then have to decide which furniture we will want to keep and things like that."

Foglesong also said Chic Doherty, vice president of sales, has been using offices in the MCA building, and that personnel from Universal Pictures in Hollywood used offices when "Coal Miner's Daughter" was being filmed here.

REVIEWS

DOLLY PARTON (RCA PB-11705)

Great Balls Of Fire (3:33) (Unichappell Music — BMI/Chappell & Co. Inc. — ASCAP) (O. Blackwell/J. Hammer)

Dolly Parton's talent continues to flow unabated, and this double-sided single is suited for any radio format. The energy of "Great Balls Of Fire" should burn up pop radio. "Sweet Summer Lovin'" is smooth, silky and made for country and MOR stations, although it will probably generate pop play also.

RONNIE MCDOWELL (Epic 9-50753)

Love Me Now (3:30) (Tree Pub. Co. — BMI) (P. Kelly)

The full, lush production by Buddy Killen brings out the strength and unique quality of Ronnie McDowell's voice. McDowell is coming into his own as an artist and this R&B-flavored single could well be his biggest record.

JERRY REED (RCA PB-11698)

Hot Stuff (2:30) (Vector Music — BMI) (Jerry R. Hubbard)

The theme song from the movie, "Hot Stuff," this song was recorded live at Nashville's Exit/In and features a blistering rhythm track braced by funky, driving harmony vocals. As usual, Reed's performance is excellent and indicative of his versatile talent.

LARRY GATLIN (Columbia 1-11066)

All The Gold In California (2:37) (Larry Gatlin Music — BMI) (L. Gatlin)

Columbia reportedly paid a high price for Larry Gatlin and his first single should help recoup that investment. Gatlin's new record makes a strong statement about the show business lure of California and is musically superb with strong vocals by Larry and his brothers.

SINGLES TO WATCH

LOUISE MANDRELL (Epic 9-50752)

I Never Loved Anyone Like I Love You (3:36) (Warner-Tamerlane — BMI) (R.C. Bannon)

JIM CHESNUT (MCA MCA-41106)

Let's Take The Time To Fall In Love Again (2:25) (Acuff-Rose — BMI) (Jim Chesnut)

AUDREY LANDERS (Epic 9-50751)

You Thrill Me (3:16) (Chinnichap Pub./Careers Music — BMI) (M. Chapman/N. Chinn)

RACHEL SWEET (Stiff 1-11052)

I Go To Pieces (2:42) (Mole Hole Music/Belinda Music — BMI) (D. Shannon)

KITTY WELLS (Ruboca 122)

Thank You For The Roses (2:47) (Ruboca Pub. — BMI) (Jim Anglin)

JIM WEST (Macho MM-001)

Love Was Born (3:21) (ATV Music — BMI) (Jim West)

ROGER YOUNG (Dessa 79-2)

Skip A Rope (2:18) (Tree Pub. — BMI) (Jack Morgan/Glenn D. Tubb)

YOU'RE MY JAMAICA — Charley Pride — RCA — AHL1-3441 — Producer: Charley Pride and Jerry Bradley — List: 7.98

Charley Pride's new album is more sophisticated and contains a greater variety of material than his previous LPs. There is an emphasis on new rhythms on some of the tunes — almost a Jamaican flavor. But Pride is still a country singer, and he relies on modern country material. This excellent album contains the title tune, "No Relief In Sight" and "What're We Doing Doing This Again."

Country Music Magazine Purchased By N'ville Businessman; Office Moved

NASHVILLE — The New York-based consumer publication Country Music Magazine has been purchased by Music Communications Inc. of Nashville, for about $2.65 million, businessman Floyd Kephart, co-owner of the company announced last week.

Plans call for the relocation of the magazine's entire operation to Nashville, where it will be headquartered at 49 Music Square West. The New York office will close on Aug. 15, and re-open in Nashville the following week.

Included in the sale to Kephart and his partner, writer Dolly Carlisle, are a television record marketing concern, a mail order operation and a book publishing arrangement with Doubleday & Co., Inc.

Interested In Broadcasting

Kephart will serve as publisher of Country Music and president of Music Communications Inc., while Carlisle will serve as editor of the magazine and secretary-treasurer of the business. Music Communications Inc., it was announced, is also seeking to purchase the Tennessee and Kentucky radio networks, which are comprised of 106 affiliated radio stations in Tennessee and 84 in Kentucky. Kephart said that any purchase of networks would not take place before 1980.

The magazine's staff will be increased to about 14, with all production, advertising, sales and editorial work done in-house. Former Nashville editor Bob Allen and former associate publisher Jim Chapman have left the magazine — Allen for a position with Nashville magazine and Chapman for Conway Twitty's mail order record business. Russ Barnard of New York, the magazine's former executive editor, will remain in a consulting capacity.

Among other things, Kephart stated that the magazine is facing changes in both the design and the editorial composition. The publisher said that it would be more pictorial, and "concentrate more on hard news about the music industry. We want to move away from being completely profile oriented to an emphasis on what country music and country music people are all about," Kephart concluded.

DISCO BREAKS

California market and positive recommendations from several people in regard to the pools. King, who will now be handling west coast promotion from his NYC office, was faced with the monumental, not to mention thankless, task of paring RCA's mailing list from a high of 3,000 to its current 1,000. "Our list is now effectively closed, complete, and I might add, very tidy," Kings says. The Gemini Pool in Philadelphia has been added to RCA's mailing list and will receive 15 pieces of product per release. Will Crocker, a member of the Southern California pool who spins at the River Club in L.A., said of the rapprochement between the pool and RCA, "A lot of people, in particular For the Record's Judy Weinstein, went to bat for us."

LONDON STILL IN THE POP, DISCO BIZ — Despite earlier reports in this column and elsewhere, London Records' pop and disco division is still going strong, as evidenced by the recent appointment of Roger Raimond to the position of national promo director for disco and R&B. London is planning September releases by the Cruisers and a production effort by Howard Smiley.

PRODUCER TURNS ARTIST — Despite the fact that "every plane ride is a real white knuckler," producer-performer Joel Diamond recently flew to L.A. as part of a national promo tour for his debut LP on Casablanca, entitled "Joel Diamond Experience." Over breakfast at Beverly Hills' Polo Lounge, the 29-year-old former Engelbert Humperdinck producer discussed upcoming plans to produce Helen Reddy's next album and several film scores. Diamond also reported that the "12" from the album, the double entendre-filled "Music Machine" got a great response from the crowd at Studio One when he played it there recently.

DISCO DISH — T.Q. Featherstonshaw, who left his duties as RCA's west coast promotion director Aug. 10, is currently considering offers from several other labels, and will make a decision in a couple of weeks. . . . A curly HAIR-ed Academy Award winner is so dissatisfied with the promotional effort or lack of it which the Maltese Falcon label has put behind his Third enterprise, that following a telephone brawl with Mr. Rick (as in "Sooner or later, everybody shows up at Rick's place."), the two principals have decided to call it quits. . . .

Michel Parenteau, late of Salsoul, has moved over to Brinton and Company, as promotion head for New York and northeast operations. When Jane Brinton heard that Michel was out at Salsoul, she immediately phoned and told him that he would always have a job at Brinton and Company. There, Parenteau will be promoting, among other product, Salsoul's. . . . The DJ booth at Crisco Disco in NYC is a giant replica of a Crisco jar. Let's hope they never open a bar called Poppers. . . . The Paradise Garage will no longer book acts Friday nights, but the popular NYC disco will continue to showcase artists as usual the rest of the week. . . . After a stop in Miami, Prelude's chart-climbing France Joll will fly to L.A. where the 16-year-old prodigy will sing her "Come To Me" at Studio One Aug. 18. The gorgeous youngster will be introduced to area DJs and members of the press at a VIP private party at the disco's Backlot. . . . Channel Records' Bob-A-Reia showcased her 12" "Tobacco Road" at NYC's Ice Palace Aug. 3 with such enthusiastic response that members of the audience jumped on stage and sang along as she performed "Spend the Night." Aug. 12, "Bob," as her friends don't call her, returns to the Ice Palace for an afternoon tea dance. . . . Buddah has just signed a deal to distribute ZE Records, self-described as a "rock disco" label. . . .

Arista's Karen Silver will kick off her national club promotion tour Aug. 31 at the Ice Palace where she will perform her "Hold On I'm Coming," which was produced by the protean Gino Soccio. Arista is currently looking into the impact rock discos may have on promoting product. If the label's research reveals that rock discos are effective in breaking rock product and generating sales, Arista will start servicing such NYC rock discos as Heat, the Mud Club, Tomato, Studio O and Tracks. The initial survey will be conducted at those discos. . . . Butterfly will be taking its "Hottest Disco in Town" road show to the RMR convention in Atlanta Aug. 16-18. Then it's on the Copa in NYC Aug. 21 and Chicago Aug. 22, climaxing with a roller disco party sponsored by KCBS at San Francisco's Cow Palace. LPs by Tuxedo Junction, Destination and Bob McGilpin all shipped this week. . . . De-Lite Records' national disco promoter, Keith Carolos, has been servicing N.Y. area roller rinks with Citi's 12 "Roller Disco". . . . Jo Ann Abrams has formed Publicity, Inc. in NYC, the first PR firm to deal exclusively with all facets of the disco market. . . . A&M's Bryan Adams performed his 12" "Let Me Take You Dancing" at New York, New York and 12 West discos Aug. 9 in NYC. The next day it was on to Boston to meet George Borden at the Boston Record Pool. . . . Catch Ullanda performing her new 12" breakaway, "Stars," from the "Love Zone" LP Aug. 25 at the ever popular (and publicized) Paradise Garage. . . . Rusty Garner of MK Dance Promotions recalled his earlier career Aug. 8 by doing guest DJ duties at Studio One. Rusty used to spin at the now defunct Rascals in West Hollywood. His appearance at Studio was part of a weekly guest DJ program there. . . . The Ritchie Family will showcase its new LP, "Bad Reputation" at L.A.'s Probe Aug. 18. . . . Fans can meet and greet Ethel Merman Aug. 13 at Korvette's (5th & 47th St.) in NYC, where Broadway's living memorial will be autographing her new disco LP from 12:30 to 2 p.m.

THE ROLLER DISCO CRAZE ROLLS ON — Butterfly's Tuxedo Junction and Solar's Shalamar and Dynasty will perform at at "Roller Disco Party" at Skate Junction in West Covina, Calif., Aug. 16. KUTE-102 DJ Lucky Pierre will host the event which is being sponsored by On-the-Scene Productions and taped for later broadcast.

MULTIPLE GALLERIES — Nicky Siano, Buttermilk Bottom DJ and pugilist, reopened his Gallery disco Aug. 4 in NYC and rechristened the place, "Gallery 3." Wags at Prelude Records say they are waiting for Gallery 6, 7 and 8. The temperature inside the disco rose so high at the opening that performer D.C. LaRue's make-up and hairdo reportedly self-destructed.

COMING SOON TO YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD DISCO — On Aug. 20 RSO will be shipping LeRoy Hudson's 12" "Unforgettable" and d'Liegance's "Share My Love/Midnight Ride." . . . On Warner/RFC, Ashford & Simpson's new LP, "Stay Free," features their hit single, "Found a Cure." Grace Jones' album, "Muse," includes her 12" "On Your Knees." As Craig Kostich at RFC says, "Grace's new album definitively proves that she hasn't hung her whips in the closet yet." Boris Midney's "Caress" LP is also due on the label. . . . Dave Miller of Chanterelle reports that Jim Grady's new 12" "Between Love and the Hard Place" elicited the following response from a disco DJ: "It has everything I always wanted to hear in a disco record. I love the combination of harp and whip." Grady is best remembered as the composer and arranger of Liza Minnelli's "Tropical Nights" album. . . . BHY, which stands for producers Baker, Harris and Young, has a new 12" out on Salsoul, entitled, "Come as You Are." Also on Salsoul, Loleatta Holloway's 12 "Greatest Performance Of My Life/That's What You Said" has been getting a lot of DJ response. . . . ## Cohen Stresses Profitability At Disc Records Convention tion. "People just aren't spending as much on luxury items," he said. "They're going into the malls on the average of only once a week now because they're worried about spending."

But, Acevedo also stated, "product has not been what we wanted. Nothing has staying power now."

Superstar Sales Disappointing

The executive vice president's comments were echoed by Disc store managers who expressed particular concern over disappointing sales by "superstar" artists. "You just can't tell what's going to sell anymore," said David Huebner of Houston. "So many albums by the major artists have stiffed this year."

"Superstar sales have been hit just as hard as anything else this year," according to Vince Robish of Independence, Mo. And Cerda Rigler, a Houston-based manager, added, "The truth is that the established artists just have not put out exceptionally good records this year. The quality of their albums has, for the most part, slipped, and the public can't be fooled."

Merchandising Sore Point

Merchandising service was another area of concern for Disc store managers.

"There's no question that we need better distribution of promotional materials from the labels," commented Von Medler, a Disc store manager in Dallas, "but it looks like things are getting worse instead of better."

Many similar remarks were expressed by managers during a spirited manufacturers panel on merchandising. Panelists included Chuck Gullo of A&M, Dave Rakich of Capitol, Charlie Hall of RCA and Dave Lucas of WEA.

In-Store Promotion Discussed

During the manufacturers panel on promotion, both store managers and manufacturer representatives agreed that retail stores deserved increased promotional attention from labels. Manufacturers stressed the importance of in-store play in light of tight radio playlists and the need for greater accuracy of retailers' reports to radio stations and trade journals.

Store managers, however, complained of erratic promotional service from the labels and the lack of availability of promotional records for individual stores. Panelists included Al Frontera of Warner Brothers Records, Terry Van Dyne of Capitol, Bill Catino of Cleveland International, and Steve Knill of MCA Records.

Labels Present Product

Other convention highlights included product presentations by Chrysalis and MCA Records, a speech by Marv Dorfman, marketing director of Cash Box, and an open booth display hall attended by A&M Records, Capitol, CBS, Cleveland International, RCA, WEA, Progress Distributors, Piks Corporation Distributors, Arista, Disneyland, Action Music, Pfanstiehl Company, Record Shack, MCA, Warner Bros., TK Records, Maxell, Casablanca, Motown, EMI America and Dargis Posters.

In addition, convention attendees attended a screening of the movie, "The Kids Are Alright," and concerts by A&M recording artist Tim Curry and Arista recording artist Michael Stanley, a former Disc employee.

Fuoco, Moran Honored

The convention was capped by an awards dinner hosted by Cohen and Acevedo. Cindy Fuoco of Chicago was honored as Disc's national manager of the year, and Marge Moran of Toledo was named national merchandiser of the year.

Cleveland International was cited as record company of the year, and WEA was named distributor of the year. Charlie Hall of RCA Records was honored as music man of the year, and Piks Corporation of Cleveland was named independent distributor of the year.

PHILLIPS HONORED BY BMI — Sam Phillips (l), president of Hi-Lo Music, Inc. and a renowned member of the Memphis music community, was honored with Special Citations of Achievement from BMI for four Hi-Lo songs which have had more than one million performances on American TV and radio. Jerry Smith of BMI (r) presented certificates to Phillips and Sally Wilburn of Hi-Lo for "Blue Suede Shoes," "Folsom Prison," "I Walk The Line" and "Raunchy."

Turk Logan

Dwight Ellis has been named director of minority and special services at the National Association of Broadcasters, replacing Darryl Dillingham, who resigned from the organization a few months ago. PROGRAMMERS PROFILE — John "Turk" Logan, program director of WDAO in Dayton, has been at that station for 10 years. He started in radio in 1969 after he got out of the Army. Logan says, "I got very bored with the job I had, and just decided that I would take a course at a broadcasting school, and get my FCC license." Logan got his FCC license and said, "I was standing at a magazine stand in downtown Dayton one day looking at magazines when a reporter for the Dayton Daily News told me he was conducting an interview on what turns people on. The first thing that came to my mind was broadcasting, because I had my broadcasting manual with me. A few days later, a blurb appeared in the paper about me, and what I had said, along with a few other people. From that appearing in the newspaper, I received a call from WDAO, who wanted me to come in for an interview, which I did, and they hired me for a sales position." After Logan was in sales for about two months, he approached the program director asking him if he could transfer to an on air position. A few weeks later, the PD was able to work him into a weekend slot, which evolved into an evening show, and later afternoon drive, which he did for four years. Logan recalls the time he spent working with Earnest James when he programed the station in 1974. He says that he learned a great deal from James. When James left the station, Logan was offered the music director slot, and a year later, he was offered the PD slot. During his tenure as PD at the station, Logan has proved to be a very community-minded person. He lectures at several of the area colleges on the broadcast media. As a result of his enthusiasm in the broadcast field, a local organization in Dayton is honoring Logan with a roast on Sept. 15, 1979. The roast will honor Logan's ten years at WDAO, and all proceeds from the event are being donated to The Center For Black Concerns and The NAACP.

RADIO ACTIVITY — Shella Eldridge, formerly with Casablanca Records, Elektra Records, and WHUR Radio in Washington, is now the music director at KKTT in Los Angeles. Eldridge will be handling music research, and will also handle relief airshift. Eldridge says, "The station will take a total new turn. We will become even more community-oriented with several programs like the job-a-thon program we have running this week" . . . The upcoming NAB Radio Programming Conference, being held Sept. 9-12 in St. Louis in the Stouffer's Riverfront Towers. The conference will devote a special room to discuss different formats. Also included will be discussions on, "Will pure disco survive?" and "How about disco and more?" The disco format room will open at 8:00 p.m. and close after a Q and A session. Wanda Ramos of Burkhardt/Abrams will be the host, and Bill Bailey, PD at WKYS in Washington, D.C. and Matt Clenott, PD at WDAI in Chicago will join her in answering questions . . . Based on the financial returns from over 1,730 radio stations, the National Association of Broadcasters says that 1978 established itself as a year that was a very high earner for radio. Nationally, the average station time sales net revenue grew 19.9%. For the third year in a row, national and regional sales substantially exceeded gains in local advertising. As was predicted, FM station profits lead the radio industry for the first time. From the 404 FM stations that responded, 53.8% growth was reported in national/regional sales, and a 43.2% increase in local advertising was reported with an overall gain of 44.3% in total time sales.

FCC GOES PUBLIC — The Federal Communications Commission has initiated a program to increase public participation in rulemaking proceedings. Beginning Sept. 14, the FCC will hold its first seminar in the Boston area with Detroit, Houston, and Sacramento having workshops planned. The one-day workshops will have some of the FCC Commissioners as well as staff members available for question and answer sessions. The morning workshop will concentrate on the procedures of participating in FCC rulemaking while the afternoon will focus on issues involving radio deregulation. Plans of additional workshops in other cities are forthcoming.

CLASSICAL CLIPS

NEW YORK — John Coveney, director of artist relations for Angel Records, died last week at Beth Israel Hospital. He was 62.

Coveney, who had been associated with Capitol and Angel for 34 years, had suffered from bone cancer for the past three months. A well-known figure in the classical record field, he was a close friend of such musicians as Maria Callas, Beverly Sills, Eilsabeth Schwarzkopf, Leontyne Price and Carlo Maria Giulini. He was also familiar by voice to millions from his appearance in recent years as a panelist on the Metropolitan Opera broadcasts.

On a happier note, Cash Box has learned some new details about the coming Met season. In the subscription series, four performances of "Lohengrin," scheduled for February 1, 6, 12 and 16, will be replaced by performances of Strauss's "Elektra," with Birgit Nilsson in the starring role. Nilsson will also be giving a recital at the Met sometime in November. Non-subscription fall events will include the opening night "Otello," with James Levine conducting, on September 24; Kurt Weill's "Rise and Fall of the City of Mahagonny" on November 16; "Aida" on November 17; and "Carmen" on November 23. The opening night "Otello," "Mahagonny" and "Un ballo in maschera" will all be televised.

"Leonard Bernstein Conducts," a television series that was first released in 1976 and has been sold in more than 60 markets, has just added six more one-hour concert programs. Syndicated by Video Music, Inc., the second series includes performances by the New York Philharmonic, the Vienna Philharmonic, the Orchestre Nationale de France, the Boston Symphony and the Israel Philharmonic.

LABEL RELEASES — CRI has released albums containing flute pieces by Otto Luening and Robert Dick, performed by Harvey Sollberger; contemporary piano music performed by David Burge and Lois Svard Burge (see review below) and works performed by the Contemporary Chamber Players of the University of Illinois. Works by Jacob Druckman and Dominick Argento appear on the latest Louisville Orchestra First Edition LP. . . . A September release is planned for four albums on Peters International. Pianist Youri Egorov will be featured on an album containing Schumann's "Fantasy in C" and "Arabesque;" Elly Ameling sings a recital of Schubert songs on a second LP; and rounding out the release are "A Christmas Album," featuring the Westminster Choir, and "Carols For Christmas Eve," sung by the King's College Choir, Cambridge. . . . In Nonesuch's August release are albums containing the following works: Debussy's "Estampes" and "Images," played by pianist Paul Jacobs; Frederic Rzewski's "Song and Dance" and John Harblzon's "The Flower-Fed Buffaloes," performed by Speculum Musicae; Dufay's "Missa Ecce ancilla domini," featuring Pomerium Musices; Berlioz's "Symphonie Funebre et Triomphale," with the Musique des Gardiens de la Paix de Paris; "Christmas in Anglia," featuring the Ensemble for Early Music; and "Japanese Court Gamelan: Volume III."

ODDS 'N' ENDS — Guitarist Alexandre Lagoya has signed an exclusive contract with Columbia Masterworks. His first Columbia LP is expected to be released sometime in 1980. . . . Joan Grow has been appointed president of Sine Qua Non, the classical label based in Providence, Rhode Island. And Mike Kellman, formerly with Columbia and RCA has been named vice president of sales and A&R for Sine Qua Non.

Sine Qua Non has made an impressive entry in the digital recording field. Nine digital titles are presently in distribution, with numbers 10 through 12 due to appear, beginning in September. In addition, the label has scheduled 15 new analog releases, including new recordings on its Superba mid-price series, as well as reissues from major labels on its $4.98 list 7700 series. All new titles will also be issued in cassette configuration.

ON THE 20TH CENTURY — The taste of classical music critics, which was once fixed immutably on Mozart and the three Bs, seems to be slowly changing. Nineteen of the 29 albums nominated for High Fidelity's International Record Critics Award contained works that were written in the 20th century. Among the more recently composed examples are Bernstein's "Songfest" (DG), Bussotti's "Bergkristall" (DG), "Orchestral Works" by Lutoslawski (EMI), Rzewski's "The People United" (Vanguard), and Webern's "Variations"/Boulez's "Sonata No. 2" (DG). Of course, in the sesquicentennial of Schubert's death (1978), no less than four recordings of that composer's work made the list of nominees.

CLASSICAL ALBUM REVIEWS

MAHLER: Symphony No. 4. Barbara Hendricks, soprano; Israel Philharmonic, Zubin Mehta, conductor. London LDN 10004. List: $9.98.

This is simply a wonderful record. First of all, Mahler's Fourth provides a superb showcase for London's digital sound; just listen to the big climaxes in the first movement or the luminous percussion in the second. And what's more, Mehta conducts a warmly imagined, lovingly executed interpretation. Its emotional highpoint comes in the slow movement, where Mehta transmutes Mahler's anguished vision to an ethereal plane. PETER SERKIN PLAYS CHOPIN. RCA ARL 1-3344. List: $8.98.

Best known as the leader of the Chamber group Tashi and as the son of Rudolf Serkin, Peter steps out on his own here with only some degree of success. He is at his best in the mazurkas, where he exudes a playful insouciance. But his restrained elegance is totally inadequate in works that require more artistic definition, such as the Barcarolle, op. 60, or the Nouvelle Etude in A-flat.

MCLEAN: Dimensions II; HAMILTON; Palinodes; EAKIN; Frames; HUTCHESON; Fantaisie-Impromptu. David Burge and Lois Svard Burge, pianists. CRI 407. List: $7.95.

The only common strand that runs through these modern American keyboard works is their virtuosity and lack of dogmatism. Barton McLean's "Dimensions II" while owing debuts to Crumb and Pendericki, is perhaps the strongest of the lot; the other pieces tend to get lost in intellectualization. David Burge, of course, is a well-known avant garde performer; but his wife, Lois, also demonstrates a formidable technique and a thorough grasp of contemporary styles.

Braslian Disc Industry Faces Fuel Shortages Up To 20%

by Miguel Smirnoff

RIO DE JANEIRO — In a record market that has boomed during the past 15 years, the menace of fuel shortages at pressing plants is threatening the prosperity of the Brazilian industry. With Brazil depending on foreign oil for over 80% of its supply, the current government freeze on oil import levels will probably mean fuel quotas down 15-20% for each plant by the end of the year.

Of special concern is the possibility that government fuel quotas could interfere with the normal end-of-the-year releases by the record companies, especially the important records usually held back until the holiday season.

While no decisions have been made yet, contingency plans in the event of the imposition of a government fuel quota have so far revolved around two alternatives — a heavier emphasis upon cassettes, or pressing and stocking up on releases scheduled for later in the year.

On the first alternative — a heavier emphasis upon tapes — it is clear that the manufacturing of the product would certainly consume less fuel; however, the different hardware needed by consumers could prove a hindrance to sales.

Risks Involved

As far as pressing and storing future releases now, companies might assure themselves an ample supply of records for the holiday months; but they would also run the risk of being stuck with outdated titles in some cases and tight recording schedules in others. In addition, with the current backlog at pressing plants already affecting the industry, companies may be incapable of implementing this alternative.

Thus, record companies are faced with the even more expensive alternative of establishing their own pressing plants. The latest example of this was RGE/Fermata's new plant (Cash Box, Aug. 11), and with the fuel crisis impending, many more companies have been tempted to follow suit to avoid what looks like a pressing crunch that will leave only custom pressing plants available to the industry.

Industry Optimism

Nevertheless, considering the slump in the USA and other countries, the Brazilian industry may be able to overcome the fuel shortage problems and still achieve or surpass the projected goal of $320 million in 1979 — an increase of 15% over 1978 totals. Rising costs and inflation will pose additional obstacles, but record company executives are optimistic that these barriers can be overcome.

One reason for this optimism is the talent available. Ranging from folk to regional to pop to jazz, it is believed that current artist rosters provide strong potential for export, as well as the domestic market.

Another cause for optimism is the addition of TV Bandeirantes to the record industry. Specializing in Latin American folk and some regional music, Bandeirantes has provided another television outlet for popular music.

The importance of Bandeirantes is amplified by TV Globo, a soap opera program whose record label, Sigla, accounts for more than 20% of the local market. However, while Globo primarily uses artists from other labels, Bandeirantes uses its own artists.

EMI Cuts Prices To Combat Flood Of Cheap Imports

by Nick Underwood

LONDON — To counteract the growing problem of cheaper imports undercutting domestic titles, EMI has instituted a campaign for retailers offering extra discounts and credit for product by selected major artists.

Titled "EMI Pound Smashers," the campaign offers significant price reductions for product by selected major artists, with a sliding scale to allow larger discounts for those retail outlets successful in moving higher volumes of product.

"It is a campaign to provide dealers with the margins to get over a difficult period," said Clive Swan, general manager of EMI sales. "It gives them the freedom on pricing with which to sell more of our major artists' catalog without resorting to imports."

Among the artists whose product will be affected by the campaign are Wings, the Rolling Stones, Commodores, Queen, Stevie Wonder, Cliff Richard, Hot Chocolate, Pink Floyd, Shadows, Smokie, the Beatles, Beach Boys and Bob Seger.

Under the terms established by EMI, retailers, once registered with the company, will be allowed to order albums in any quantity without a massive outlay of cash, thus enabling them to sell at a significant discount.

In addition, with the base discount, plus the sliding scale of monthly bonuses determined by the proportion of business achieved on the titles featured, the potential exists for retailers to realize price reductions of more than 50% from the retail list price.

Rise Of Traditional 'Enka' Music Form Highlights Japan Market During 1979

by Kozo Otsuka

TOKYO — The rise of the traditional "Enka" song form and New Wave music, along with the continuing slump for international acts, were the major developments in the Japanese record market during the first six months of 1979.

The growing popularity of Enka, which first began to show a revival of sales strength during the latter months of 1978, was confirmed by strong chart action by artists using this form.

Top Enka artists during the first six months of this year were newcomer Jiro Atsumi on CBS/Sony and Sachiko Kobayashi on Warner/Pioneer. Both artists attained #1 single status, Atsumi with "Yumeoyizake" ("Wine For Dreams") and Kobayashi with "Omoide Zake" ("Wine For Memories").

Other successful Enka artists included Masao Sen, whose "Kitaguni No Haru" on Tokuma reached #3 on the singles chart, and Tatsue Kaneda, who achieved the #13 single with "Kagayino Haha."

These successes have been all the more impressive considering that the top hit of 1978 in the Enka form was Tetsuya Watari's "Hitori," which reached #46 on the charts.

Strong sales success was also achieved by domestic New Wave artists during the first six months of the year, continuing the trend that was established in 1978.

Among the most successful of these artists were Judy Ong, Hideki Saijo and the Kayi Band, all of whom achieved #1 status on the charts. Ong's "Miserarete" on CBS/Sony and Saijo's "Young Man" on RVC both reached the top singles spot, and the Kayi Band's self-titled LP on Toshiba/EMI copped the top spot on the albums chart.

Other New Wave successes included the Kayi Band's single "Hero Ni Narutoki Sorewayima" (#3), "Champion" (#3 single) by Toshiba/EMI recording group Alice, Godayigo's "Beautiful Name" and "Gingatsudo 999" on Nippon Columbia (both #3 singles) and Canyon recording group Twist's top selling LPs.

Special success was also achieved by CBS/Sony's Satoshi Kishida, whose single, "Kimi No Asa," reached the #1 spot; while his "Morning" LP has been at the top of the charts (along with Alice's "Alice II" LP in the #2 spot) for the past five weeks.

The slumping sales for international acts was reflected by the fact that none reached the top spot on any charts during the first six months of the year. Biggest successes were achieved by Atlantic recording artist Leif Garrett, Casablanca/Victor artists The Village People, Warner/Pioneer's Rod Stewart and ABBA on the Disco label.

INTERNATIONAL DATELINE

Argentina

BUENOS AIRES — June sales figures recently released by the Argentinian Chamber of Record Producers showed a 1.5% drop in LP sales, but a strong (14%) increase in cassette sales over the month of May. The current figures showed LP sales at 611,000 units, singles at 731,000 units, 8-tracks at 18,000 units and cassettes at 434,000 units. Since mid-1978, tapes (especially cassettes) have taken an increasingly larger share of the market.

CBS is launching the newest album by local chanteur Daniel Magal. The LP, recorded in Buenos Aires but mixed in the Columbia studios in New York, will be released in all of the Spanish-speaking markets... Phonogram's "Music For UNICEF" LP has been launched with strong advance sales (around 100,000 units) and big promotion on the television. Phonogram expects the LP to reach the 200,000 unit level soon.

RCA is enjoying the promotion derived from the recent Boney M tour and the Village People's appearance on the Tato Bores television program. Boney M's "Hooray! Hooray! It's A Holi Holiday" is doing well on the charts and the VP's "YMCA" is back on the charts after being televised every Sunday evening on the Bores program for the past few weeks.

Music Hall's Nestor Selasco reports the inking of young Chilean chanteur Juanito Liner, who has been receiving heavy television exposure. The advance sales for his "Siibando" LP have reached the 20,000 unit mark... Meanwhile, at Tonodisc, Francisco Vidal reports that Jean Claude Borelli may become a big name in this country following the television campaign started on his behalf last week. Borelli's music is being used as background for a mini-series on Channel 11. Tonodisc skyrocketed Richard Clayderman to stardom in Argentina with a similar campaign six months ago.

EMI is releasing an LP by tango chanteur Francisco Llanos, which is expected to create some excitement in countries like France, Japan and some areas of Latin America where tango is popular. Llanos performed successfully about two years ago during a trip to France.

United Kingdom

LONDON — Reactions this week in London to the news that the German Ariola-Eurodisc company bought Arista Records from Columbia Pictures for an initial $50 million have been positive and optimistic. The managing director of Arista-UK, Charles Levison, said, "While we've always had an excellent relationship with Columbia Pictures, in particular working in close cooperation on the soundtrack LPs like

'Close Encounters Of The Third Kind' and 'That Summer,' I view the proposed acquisition as a very positive step. Bertelsmann (Ariola's parent company) and the Ariola organization are committed to major investment and expansion in the record business, and the combination of probably the most aggressive European and American companies is an important event. The intention is that Ariola and Arista should retain their own identities and operations as autonomous companies, cooperating, of course, where appropriate." On the flip side, the managing director of Ariola-UK, Robin Blanchflower, commented that "I am delighted that Ariola is continuing the expansion to which it is committed and I believe the acquisition of Arista can only help the development of both companies."

New signings this week include the inking of charismatic New Zealander Zaine Griff to the Automatic Record Company, a licensee of WEA. Griff has built up a steady cult following in and around London's club circuit during the past year... And Zoom Records, the independent Scottish-based label has signed up its first non-Scottish act, London Zoo, who have a single out this week with the title "Receiving End"... The notorious theatrical rocker, Alex Harvey, has inked with RCA for a long-term global recording contract. His debut LP for the label is scheduled for October release.

Pye's classical rock group, The Enid, are attempting a grand symphonic stab at reviving patriotism with the release of their latest single "Dambusters March/Land Of Hope And Glory." The old British Empire anthem has certainly been stirring the hearts of The Enid fans at live concerts for the past few months, so the nostalgia may catch on... Appearing at the recent Knebworth Festival was Commander Cody, who had not been seen in the UK since '76. Other crowd-pullers on the Knebworth bill included Led Zeppelin, Todd Rundgren and the New Barbarians.

A welcome American visitor set to undertake a full UK tour in the fall is Loudon Wainwright III, who recently signed to Radar Records. Wainwright's debut LP for Radar, "Alive One," will be released to coincide with the tour... London's rock cabaret club The Venue launches their fall program with a five-night booking by American soul singer Al Green.

Latest executive moves see Tony Roberts resigning as creative director of Chappell Music Ltd. Roberts is set to form his own music publishing company... And Roy Matthews, EMI's director of manufacturing and distribution resources, is to leave the firm to set up in business on his own. He will be replaced by Phillip Brodie, currently president director-general of Pathe Marconi EMI SA France.

The festival, which also featured the Southern All Stars and other prominent Japanese acts, was held in two locations — Enoshima Beach Aug. 4-5 and Kyoto's Momoyama Park Aug. 7.

JASRAC Royalties Up 16% In Japan In 1979

In keeping with the policy outlined by Lundvall, a series of internal directives were issued recently concerning such areas as employee travel, expense accounts and advertising. Under the new directives, all employee travel by other than vice presidents must be cleared through either Lundvall or senior vice presidents Jack Craig (Columbia) and Don Dempsey (E/P/A).

ARA Achieves Record Results In '79 3rd Quarter

PHILADELPHIA — ARA Services, Inc. attained record operating tallies for the third quarter and nine months ending June 29 of this year.

For the third quarter, the service management company reported revenues of $506.6 million, a 15% increase over the $438.8 million attained by the same time last year. Net income was $13 million, a 10% increase over the $11.8 million recorded in 1978's comparable period. Earnings per share increased 11% to $1.30 over the $1.17 reported a year earlier.

For nine months, revenues totaled $1.5 billion, net income increased to $41.2 million and earnings per share rose to $4.10.

William S. Fishman, chairman and chief executive officer, said the record results are significant as they are compared to an exceptionally strong performance last year. Gains in revenues were achieved in the company's five business segments. Fishman said the health care and distributive segments, along with international operations, made tremendously strong additions to third quarter results.

"Economic activity is slowing down, and we expect this trend to continue," remarked Fishman. He also offered that management has implemented programs to strengthen operating controls and continues to develop new methods of service efficiency to enhance productivity and minimize inflation.

Xcor International Posts '78 Tally, Reports Record Income For Year

OAK BROOK, ILL. — Xcor International, Inc. reported record net income for the year ended Dec. 31, 1978 of $5,412,000, $1.86 per share, against a loss of $1,649,000, or 52 cents per share in the preceding year.

In his message to shareholders, Louis J. Nicastro, board chairman and chief executive officer of the company, declared that "Revenues for the year under review rose to a peak level of $123,596,000, up 18% from the $104,473,000 of a year earlier." He singled out two of the company's subsidiaries, Choice Vend and Williams Electronics, as the "largest contributors to earnings," stating that the two firms were "responsible for the major portion of the increase in sales." Nicastro noted that "King Musical Instruments and Qualitone showed some moderate revenue gains, and revenues from The Front Row Theater were steady.

"In 1978, Choice Vend continued to solidify its position as a leader in the manufacture of bottle and can vending machines for the major soft drink bottlers by introducing additional standard models and by developing new units that afford flexibility in can or bottle sizes," he reported.

"With completion of the conversion from electro-mechanical to solid state technology early last year, our amusement games subsidiary, Williams Electronics, was able to increase its market penetration and regain its reputation as an innovator and producer of amusement games that combine imaginative ideas with reliability — a combination that causes more people to put more money into its machines."

Nicastro stated further that "management intends to continue to pursue a prudent acquisition policy leading to diversification compatible with our production and marketing know-how. In addition, we are committed to the development and introduction of new products and systems designed to maintain existing market leadership and to expand our potential this year and beyond."

The new association is effective with the introduction of "Magic," Stern's newest pinball machine. As noted by the factory, reported response to prototypes of the model indicate the "sleight-of-hand" necessary to activate the variety of spinning and drop targets will result in added play and increased profits for the operator.

Joyland Amusements, Ltd. is owned and operated by Gerald Steinberg and is headquartered at 58 Mallusk Road, Hyde Park, Co. Atrium, Northern Ireland.

CHICAGO CHATTER

Since resuming production after the annual summer vacation shutdown, the Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corp. plant has been concentrating on the factory's newly debuted "Max" 477 phonograph. This is the 160-selection unit which is designed in a compact size cabinet. As Rock-Ola's music division sales manager Les Rieck put it, the Max 160-selection model will occupy the same footage as a 100-selection so it's just perfect for the space conscious location. The new model is currently in full production at the plant and Rock-Ola is looking forward to much success with it. Factory distributors are now in the process of scheduling individual showings across the country.

FRED SKOR OF WORLD WIDE DIST. is looking forward to the new Williams "Stellar Wars" — and still raving about "Flash," of course. He also said that Gremlin's "Head On" is quite a game; collection reports are terrific.

ATTENTION PHONO OPS: Gust Tartol of Singer One Stop For Ops tags this new single a "quarter grabber" and what's more he sees it as a possible two-sided hit. The titles are "I Could Have Danced All Night" (with a disco beat) b/w "Disco Polka," the artist is Bobby Vinton and the label is Tapestry. Give it a listen.

BALLY's BERNIE POWERS was among the guest speakers at the recent Sandler Distg. confab which focused on such subjects as the new dollar coin and how ops can profit from it. Other speakers included Dr. Alan J. Goldman of the U.S. Treasury Dept. and Irv Sandler.

INFINITY PROMO REP Walter Paas, who is a familiar name in the Chatter column, is getting married in a few months to Chryssoula Adams. Wedding date is Nov. 25 and the reception will be held in Zorine's. Our congratulations.

DATLINE WISCONSIN, Menomonee Falls, to be exact — which is the home base of Pioneer Sales & Services. Rowe phonographs have been selling very well out there. The models have style, good sound, as company head Joel Kleiman pointed out, and Pioneer has been enjoying much success with them. Hit games out there include Midway's ever popular "Space Invaders," which they just can't get enough of; Stern's "Hot Hand" pin, Atari's "Basketball" and the new Game Plan "Sharpshooter."

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Carol Kantor at Atari said that plans for several "Football" tournaments are underway at the manufacturer as pro football season draws nearer. Meanwhile, Frank Ballouz is on the east coast tending to Atari business and visiting with distributors. Atari's Collette Weil just returned from a five week jaunt in Europe, where she enjoyed a holiday, and also took care of some business as she visited with one of Atari's major German distributors.

PORTALE'S OSCAR ROBINS reports that "Crash," "Head On" and "Pinball Pool" are all moving nicely. However the big mover at Portale these days seems to be music. "Over the past year and a half, the electronic pin has phased out the electro-mechanical," explained Robins. "Because of the new equipment, music has been somewhat neglected. Now that pinballs are finally getting into shape people are starting to realize the weak points on their route. Therefore, phonographs are starting to sell again."

COLLECTIONS ON "BARRIER" are coming along well, according to Tom Stroud Jr. at Vectorbeam. The manufacturer has appointed C.A. Robinson as its exclusive L.A. distributor for "Barrier." In addition, Cinematronics will be releasing its new "Sundance" game any day now.

CIRCLE INTERNATIONAL'S John Scavarda told us that the distrib will be receiving Williams' "Tri-Zone" next week. Phonographs are selling well at Circle, but it is currently between games. Scavarda predicted that business would pick up after Labor Day.

EASTERN FLASHES

The new Bally "Kiss" and "Paragon" pins are on the current best seller list at Bally Northeast-Albany. Both are outstanding machines, as the distrib's Sid Gordon stressed, and to add to their appeal they both have the new Susan B. Anthony dollar slot — which should "generate increased earnings for the operator." Sid is very much in favor of the new coin and feels it will definitely benefit the operator if it is promoted properly. "The smart operator," he said, "will furnish the location with at least $50 worth of the new coins to get patrons accustomed to using them." For further details on "getting the dollar bargain" give Sid a call at (518) 463-4267. At presstime Bally Northeast was awaiting delivery of the new Williams "Tri Zone," which fared extremely well on test. Hottest video game is still "Space Invaders." To quote Sid, "We sold five times as many as we planned and have just ordered more." Musicwise, he said "the Seeburg Disco 160 is the finest sounding phonograph ever built, besides which it is trouble free to operate, great to look at and selling well."

NICE CHATTING WITH Stanley Knoll of Cleveland Coin-Columbus. He and the staff are making ready for the big Ohio State Fair which opens on Aug. 14. In addition to all of the other attractions there'll be five game rooms featured this year and Cleveland Coin will be among area distribs providing equipment. In mentioning some of the distrib's big selling games Stan singled out Atari's "Basketball," Gremlin's "Head On" and Allied Leisure's "Clay Champ." Midway's "18 Wheeler" is newly arrived and lookin' good; Exidy's "Crash" is a new piece they're looking forward to receiving with much enthusiasm.

200 Attend Atari, Robinson School

LOS ANGELES — More than 200 people turned out for an Atari Service School Aug. 1-2 at C.A. Robinson in Los Angeles. Mechanics and operators from all over the Southern California area attended the seven hour session, which was absent of the usual sales and product demonstrations.

"The school was a huge success," enthused C.A. Robinson's Hank Tronick. "We had to keep sending out for more and more chairs, and still there were people standing at the back of the hall."

The informative school was conducted by Russ McDonald and Bob Sammons of the Atari field service staff. According to Tronick, the two lecturers covered the gamut of Atari game servicing, from basic electronics to the most complicated Atari circuitry.

"It was all serious business," offered Tronick. "And it was a pleasure to see so many people hungry for knowledge as far as the latest in technology and solid state circuitry is involved."

C.A. Robinson treated the students to a one hour dinner each night of the school, but class resumed shortly afterward and continued well into the evening.

"I've never seen so many people stay all through a school two days in a row," said Tronick, "It was just fantastic."

Belam Florida Appoints Sola

NEW YORK — Bob Haim of R. H. Belam Company announced that Frank Sola has joined the Belam Florida Corporation. Sola's responsibilities will include revitalizing Belam Florida's computer board service department into the "finest in the southeastern United States," commented Haim. Sola will also assist manager Murray Kaye in sales of equipment in the Florida market and will have a free hand in running the board department.

"Frank is familiar with all facets of the coin machine industry," Haim added. "He has worked in distribution in the northeast, had his own computer service school, established the customer service department at Cinematronics and headed east coast sales and marketing at Cinematronics. We are happy to have him in the Belam organization and look forward to a long term relationship."

business is going through now proves that the rules we have been playing by have to be changed. Billboards on the (Sunset) Strip, parties and tours are not always necessary," Krebs concluded.

On the other hand, there are also those managers whose rosters seem unaffected by the industry's current problems. Representing such top country-pop artists as Roy Clark, Freddy Fender, the Oak Ridge Boys, Tammy Wynette and Johnnie Rodriguez, the Jim Halsey agency has not experienced any difficulties with its acts. In fact, "business is great," Halsey added.

The Ken Fritz agency, representatives of George Benson, David Pomeroy, Seawind, Peter Noone and the late Minnie Riperton's catalog, also felt it was "business as usual," pointing out that they had just signed the Motels with Capitol.

Nevertheless, even in the midst of a hot streak, the economic slump has had its effects. "When you have a hot group like the Village People, you can command respect that helps with other groups," said Can't Stop Productions' Sidelsky, whose other clients include Patrick Juvet, the Ritchie Family, Phylcia Allen and Dennis Parker. "We are immune to a lot of the business problems because we've got a hot property, but we still have been affected by the business climate. Our product is not moving as fast as before."

'Healthy For Business'

Thus, as the industry does or does not

Contact Publicity, Inc. Founded By Abrams

NEW YORK — JoAnn Abrams has founded Contact Publicity, Inc., which will specialize in all areas of national disco publicity. The company will handle artists, recordings, discotheques, magazines, record labels, and any product or service which is disco-oriented.

Abrams most recently spent two years as director of publicity for Aria Productions, where she worked in the areas of promotion and artist management. She also handled publicity for the recent opening of the Electric Circus discotheque, the Broadway musical, "Got Tu Go Disco," and artist/producer Kenny Lehman.

Contact Publicity currently handles Aria Productions, Kenny Lehman and DiscoWorld magazine.

The firm is located at 952 E. 13th St., Brooklyn, NY 11230. The phone number is (212) 338-1318.

tighten its belt in the field of artist signings and rosters, it is apparent that some needed changes will be made. Explained Steve Gold, a partner in Far Out Productions, whose client list is headed by War, "I believe this current trend is healthy for the business. It should be difficult to place acts with labels. Managers should be prepared to sell their acts, to play music and show the live act to the label execs.

"The next trend in the business is going to be professionalism," Gold continued, "because pros know how to take care of business. Now we won't have to trip over amateurs when we go to see people.

"After ten years of fat," Gold concluded, "this is a very healthy trend. Record companies now have to sign fewer acts and give them serious commitments. This is especially good for the artist, who often hasn't been given an honest shot recently. It's healthier for them to have to earn spots and get honest commitments, instead of cavalier treatment."

Record Buyers 'Get The Knack'

with Capitol, the group performed at the Troubadour, the Starwood, Sweetwater and other small, local venues.

As the nation's stronghold of rock 'n' roll, the midwest has apparently adopted the Knack and its heavy, '60s rock sound. Every retail outlet surveyed by Cash Box in Chicago, Cleveland and Indianapolis listed "Get the Knack" as their #1 selling LP.

In the east, Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia reported the greatest volume of The Knack LP and single sales.

Record buyers apparently heeded the command of the album's title, as the LP went gold in 13 days and platinum in 28.

Peter Pan Releases 8

NEW YORK — Peter Pan Records has announced the release of eight albums. They are: "Peter Cottontail," "Calendar of Happy Thoughts," "Party Time," "Wizard of Oz and Other Stories," "Alphabet and Counting Stories," "Dr. Swan," "Puff 'n' Toot," and "Hit Songs from the Movies," featuring music from many current releases.

The Cars Get Platinum

LOS ANGELES — "Candy-O," the second album by Elektra/Asylum recording artists The Cars, has been certified platinum by the RIAA.

ElectroSound Building Pressing Plant

NEW YORK — ElectroSound Group, Inc. the Holbrook, New York-based independent manufacturer of phonograph records, will begin construction of a major new record pressing facility near Indianapolis, Indiana.

Construction will begin in early August on a plant located on ten acres in Shelbyville, Indiana, 25 miles south of Indianapolis. The new plant is expected to be completed by February 1, 1980, and, when fully operational, will have the capacity to produce 15 million records a year.

ElectroSound Group produces 75 million records a year at its two major plants in Holbrook, New York, and Los Angeles, California, and at its smaller classical record plant in Allentown, Pennsylvania.

According to Richard Meixner, president of the division, "the shortage of record pressing capacity in the midwest marketplace with resulting firmer prices was an important consideration in our decision.

The completion of this facility will provide nationwide manufacturing services to our customers, making us the first independent to supply records coast to coast."

According to another spokesman for the firm, "we realize that the record business is soft and that many plants are operating below capacity, but we also recognize that this is a cyclical business and that both the immediate and long-term advantages of a midwest plant make this decision one that we're highly optimistic about."

Siegal Joins Label In Fort Lauderdale

NEW YORK — Radio Records, based in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, has been formed. Judd Siegal has been named to the position of vice president of distribution and marketing. Siegal, a fifteen-year veteran of the industry, most recently served as vice president of sales and distribution for Arista Records.
