The team that worked so well together to make the Hi label a consistent hit producing operation in the past will feature the same crew of pros for the next five years. Hi Records has just signed a new pact with the American London Group whereby the latter will continue to distribute all Hi releases for the next half decade. Celebrating the reunion with a show of hands are (l. to r.) London Group execs Eddie Kissack, Walt Maguire, president Lee Hartstone and Hi's Bill Black and Joe Coughi, president of Hi. Black has been the foundation for Hi's success with ten consecutive single hits under his belt as well as a number of album best sellers. The label also issues Ace Cannon's disks.

ANDY WILLIAMS (Columbia 42451)

"Stranger on the Shore," the beautiful chart-topping instrumental for Mr. Acker Bilk (and also a vocal noise-maker for the Drifters), is treated to a superb reading by Columbia's Andy Williams. It's a 'must programming' item that should cut off a big slice of the final sales melon.

DISTRIBUTOR ASSOCIATION?

Ever since ARMADA (American Record Manufacturers And Distributors Association) was formed some three years ago there has been a major point of dissatisfaction that has prevailed at every annual convention. The point: How can two such basically different entities as a record manufacturer and a record distributor be the foundation of one association? All other associations in our industry represent only one phase of the business—the rack jobbers—NARM, the dealers—SORD, the operators—MOA, etc. If anything, these associations include manufacturers only as associate members and none includes them as voting members.

With methods of merchandising taking on a drastic new look in our business during recent years, the record distributor has been one of the major victims of the changing scene. Many distributors have gone into the rack jobbing business; many are one-stops and dealers; and a number are manufacturers as well. In an effort to stay alive in a highly competitive area of the business, distributors have been changing their basic structure radically. Therefore, it is no surprise that a faction of distributors, many of whom are members of ARMADA, has developed and is actively advocating a change in the structure of ARMADA. This group wants a Distributor Association run by distributors, for distributors and with manufacturers as associate members.

This faction's requests are reasonable and if our guess is right there will be overwhelming support for a move in this direction at the forthcoming ARMADA meet in Miami.

Many distributors are confused. Some are wary of the rack jobbers' potential, fearing that jobbers may eventually all become distributors dealing directly with manufacturers. If any group needs an association of its own, it's the record distributor. And it appears as though a good number of key distributors feel the same way too.

If this means a radical change in ARMADA as it has been known for the past three years, so be it. There is no reason why distributors cannot have their own convention with associate manufacturer members in attendance discussing their problems at panel discussions, forums, etc. Manufacturers can still continue to exhibit their product at post-convention meetings with distributors just as was successfully done at last year's ARMADA meet. And with this set-up we feel that a number of important distributors who refused to join ARMADA because of its basic structure will join a new American Record Distributors Association.

The indie manufacturers will not be left out in the cold should this happen. We are sure distributors will welcome their presence. And if indie manufacturers find a need for an association of their own, there is no reason why they can't form another association for themselves.

It will be most interesting to see what evolves out of this year's ARMADA convention. Attendance should be at an all time high.

Ray Charles Single Tops Million Mark In Less Than 3 Wks.

NEW YORK—Climaxing a notable chart run, Ray Charles' (ABC-Paramount) waxing of "I Can't Stop Loving You" heads the Top 100 this week in just its third appearance on the list—and, as expected, passed the 1 million sales mark last week, according to Larry Newton, ABC-Par's sales head.

The song made an initial appearance on the Top 100 in the number 55 spot (May 12), moving to number 9 in the following week's listing (May 19).

Charles' LP, "Modern Sounds In Country & Western Music," source of his singles smash, also shows upward movement in this week's album charts. It's number 2 mono, 3 stereo, up 1 in each case.

Adam Wade To Epic

ADAM WADE & JOE RENE

NEW YORK—Singer Adam Wade, who established himself with a number of hits on the Coed label, has inked an exclusive long-term pact with Epic Records.

When announcement came of the termination of the partnership of Marvin Cane and George Paxton in Coed and Winneton Music (see last week's issue), it was noted that Wade's affiliation with a new label was impending. Wade is handled by Capax Management, purchased by Cane from Paxton. Joe Rene, Epic pop A&R producer, will be assigned Wade's sessions for Epic.

Wade, who gave up studies as a biochemist for a disk career, first made the grade in 1959 with "Tell Her Me." That hit was followed by such other successes as "Ruby," "Take Good Care Of Her," "The Writing On The Wall" and "I Can't Help It."

LIBERTY MOVES TO EXPAND DOMESTIC SALES

HOLLYWOOD—Liberty Records has made several key exec appointments as part of its plans to expand domestic sales.

As announced last week by Don Bohanan, sales head, Dick Bowman, formerly in distributor sales, will serve as divisional sales manager for the Southern states, headquartering in Cincinnati.

Joe Zaleski, from the label's international sales department, has been upped to divisional sales manager in the mid-west. He will be based in Chicago, and be responsible for the sales picture in 15 states, reporting directly to Ken Revercomb, assistant national sales manager.

Bohanan said that both would act as liaison between distributors, rack-jobbers and retail outlets.

"They will also attempt," Bohanan noted, "to further embellish the various activities of Bob Skaff's promotion men in these territories, Ed Silvers in the mid-west, Joe Saddy in the South."

The exec said that the label expects to accelerate its expansion project shortly with similar additions in the east and west coasts.

Otis Leaves Liberty For Indie A&R

NEW YORK—Clyde Otis has terminated his agreement with Liberty Records as an exclusive A&R producer.

Otis, long a major disk producer, said that the parting was amicable and that he and his attorney, Martin J. Machat, were working out the details for producing some indie ses-

Jazz Stays At Newport; Wein To Sponsor Fest

NEW YORK—They'll have a jazz festival again at Newport, R.I. this July, this time to be tagged "Newport '62."

Announcement of the event, to take place July 6, 7 & 8, came last week from George Wein, producer-director of the offering who was also involved in the famed "Newport Jazz Festival," which ended its seven-year run in 1960 after riots by youngsters.

Last year, Sid Bernstein and local Newporters sponsored a "Music at Newport" show, but a recent announcement said that the show was not returning this year.

The roster of artists for "Newport '62" is in the glittering Newport tradition. It includes Duke Ellington, Gerry Mulligan, Count Basie, Dave Brubeck, Dinah Washington, Paul Desmond, Coleman Hawkins, Carmen McRae and others. Charlie Mingus and Max Roach, who left the "Newport Jazz Festival" in 1960 to form their own "festival" in the city, will also make the fete. Carol Sloane, a surprise hit of last year's show (now recording for Columbia) is slated to appear.

Gospel music will be represented by the Clara Ward Singers.

There will be four major concerts Friday (6), Sat. (7) and Sun. (8) evenings and Sun. afternoon.

Festival headquarters will be the Viking Hotel and Motor Inn in Newport.

Clinic Subjects For Chi Fair

CHICAGO—Clinic subjects for disk and radio-TV-phono dealers and radio program directors have been set for the World's Fair of Music & Sound, to be held at Chicago's McCormick Place Aug. 31-Sept. 9.

They have been scheduled for Wed., afternoon, Sept. 5. Registrants will have the choice of attending any of the sessions, each of which will be held in different rooms and cover an hour and a half.

Record retailers are offered the following subjects: "How to Buy Records and Set Up a Simple Inventory Program," "How Can the Record Store Profitably Diversify?," "How the Department Store Sound Department Can Compete Successfully," "Organizing a Profitable Trade-In Program," and "Ways to Economically Organize and Efficiently Run a Service Department."

Record-TV-phono retailers can cover "Ways to Move Dead Stock" and "How to Display, Demonstrate and Sell Phonographs, Radio & TV Sets."

Radio program directors will pick from "Programming the Automated Station—Its Problems & Prospects," "Successful Selection, Development & Use of Personalities" and "How to Handle the Special Problems Relating to FM Stereo Programming."

Besides the business conference program, the Fair will offer a symposium on music subjects led by internationally famous artists, composers and music authorities; exhibits and demonstrations spanning all phases of the music and sound industry.

Various percussion artists, it was also announced, will team for special "Symphony in Percussion" stints.

The all-percussion ensemble will create this symphony daily on three specially constructed stages in the exhibit hall.

The Premiere Drum Co. and Jenco Musical Products of Decatur, Ill. will sponsor Bill Hall, principal percussionist with the New Orleans Symphony Orchestra, to lend his Dresden bell-ringing talents; the Musser Marimba Co. of Brookfield, Ill., will have Capitol Records' vibist Chuck Calzaretta, with the Art Damme combo, Gordon Peters, top percussionist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and Audio-Fidelity Records' percussionist Bobby Christian.

Others will include Joe Morello, with the Dave Brubeck group, Dick Schory, director of the Fair's special events, sponsored by the Ludwig Drum Co. and other percussionists from the Chicago Symphony.

The Fair is expected to bring more than 300,000 members of the general public and 20,000 representatives of the music industry.

PLANS READIED FOR N.Y. NARAS DINNER

NEW YORK—Final arrangements, including radio coverage, have been completed for the annual NARAS Awards Dinner for the New York Chapter on Tuesday, May 29. Awards dinners will also be held in Los Angeles and Chicago on the same evening.

The presentation in New York of the 1961 NARAS Awards for the best recordings of the year as chosen by the NARAS membership will take place in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria.

Gene Austin Seeks Governorship Of Nevada

LAS VEGAS—Noting that campaigning in politics is something akin to winning over folks in politics, vet singer-writer Gene Austin, 61, said last week that he would try to get the Democratic Party nomination for the Governorship of Nevada this fall.

Austin, who is one of the all-time disk sellers and who had a hand in writing such standards as "Lonesome Road," "How Come You Do Me Like You Do" and "When My Sugar Walks Down The Street," will be opposing the present Governor of the state, Grant Sawyer.

Austin could well have been encouraged by Jimmie Davis, the country music performer-cleffer who is the Governor of Louisiana.

House Sub-Committee OK's Federal Curb On Bootlegging

WASHINGTON—Reported favorably out of a House Sub-Committee last week was paragraph 1 of Section 1 of the proposed Bill (H.R. 6354) to make disk bootlegging a Federal crime, punishable by up to 10 years in prison and $10,000 fine. It now goes to the Full Committee for consideration.

The Sub-Committee, headed by Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.), originator of the Bill, held a one-day hearing on the Bill on Thurs., May 10, in Washington, which saw various industry execs testify strongly in support of anti-bootlegging features of the Bill.

There was no action on parts of the Bill that deal with revisions in the Copyright Act, of which there are major pro-and-con factions.

As previously noted, final House and Senate OK on the first Federal curb on the phony disk racket is expected in about six months.

Big 3 Forms BMI Pubbery

NEW YORK—A BMI pubbery affiliate—its first—has been formed by the Big 3 Corp. (Robbins-Feist-Miller).

The firm, called Hastings Music, is an outgrowth of Big 3's desire to acquire the copyrights of material written by BMI writers for flick and TV products from the studios of MGM and 20th Century Fox.

Also at issue in the formation of a BMI pubbery at Big 3 is an unusual situation as regards royalty payments from England's Performing Rights Society. It's reported that Big 3 affiliates in England that have BMI copyrights are not receiving payment from PRS, tied-in with BMI, because of the Big 3's previous lack of a BMI firm.

TV music already under the Hastings banner includes material from "Dr. Kildare," "Dobie Gillis," "Hong Kong," "Five Fingers," "Asphalt Jungle," "Adventures in Paradise," "Follow the Sun," "Margie," "Bus Stop" and "Cain's 100."

Roulette Price Change On Jazz Series

NEW YORK—Roulette Records has announced a change in the retail price of its Birdland Jazz Series. The albums, which had been set at the suggested retail price of $4.98 mono and $5.98 stereo, will now be reduced to $3.98 mono and $4.98 stereo. The changes are effective immediately.

Morris Levy, president of Roulette, said the price change in the Birdland Series reflects a more realistic picture of today's market and that the reduction should stimulate sales.

NEW YORK—National distribution of Capitol Records' original-cast recording of "A Funny Thing Happened On the Way to the Forum," the musical that was well-received by critics at its Broadway opening, was set to be completed this Monday (21). LP was cut Sunday, May 13, at New York Manhattan Center. Completed albums were rushed to New York from the label's manufacturing plant at Scranton, Pa. last Tues. afternoon (15). Capitol plans a major consumer-dealer-deejay push for the issue.

Wagner's primary responsibility will be to evaluate and guide all of CRDC's broadcast promotion activities and programming services.

Initially, he is producing, writing, directing and hosting a series of special promotional albums for radio-station programin. Called the Silver Platter Service, the albums present in-person interviews with top recording stars and selections from current LP's. The service, which was created by Wagner, is currently being offered to radio stations across the country by CRDC branch and distributor sales managers.

Wagner has been one of the leading disk jockeys in the Los Angeles area since 1951 when he became a staff announcer for the Mutual Broadcast System in Hollywood.

In 1958, Wagner joined KBIQ-FM, one of Southern California's top-rated FM outlets, as general manager and program director. $1 Million Sales So Far In UA's May Tribute To F&T

NEW YORK—The United Artists Records' May tribute to Ferrante and Teicher Month has already accounted for more than $1 million in sales and will be the biggest sales promotion in the history of the company, Art Talmadge, president, reported last week.

More than 2,000 dealers throughout the country are currently featuring window displays built around the piano duo and their products, as well as featuring the full 21 albums included in the Tribute month. Heavy advertising at the local level through newspapers has also accounted for much of the exposure on the program.

Ferrante and Teicher have interrupted their concert tour to make a series of personal appearances throughout the country in behalf of the promotion, with their itinerary for the balance of the month including a flying trip to the West Coast, then working their way back East, concluding the tour with an appearance in Philadelphia on June 4.

In addition to appearing in behalf of their tribute month at radio stations and dealer locations in each city they visit, the duo has also been promoting their new single, "Lisa," from the new 20th Century Fox motion picture of the same name. The latter film company has joined in the promotion, in behalf of its theme recording, with heavy promotion built around the F&T month as well as the motion picture. An example of this type of tie-in was the recent appearance of Dolores Hart, who is starred in the film, in New York where she visited disk jockeys and TV shows to introduce the new F&T disk.

Back To Biz Show

CAMP PENDLETON, CALIF.—Popular Warner Brothers singing stars Don and Phil Everly will be honorably discharged from the Marine Corps here on May 24th. Hitting the show business road again after six months in the Marines, the duo will begin a cross-country tour that kicks off in Salt Lake City on July 13 and winds up in Freedomland on August 27. The boys are currently riding the charts with "That's Old Fashioned" and "How Can I Meet Her."

Pick of the Week

"THE CROWD" (2:20) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Orbison, Melson]

"MAMA" (2:58) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Orbison, Melson, Rush]

ROY ORBISON (Monument 461)

Orbison, who's continually building up a collection of 'Monument-al' hits, is back with one that's already busting loose. It's an emotion-packed powerhouse, tabbed "The Crowd," that features the Orbison-build-to-a-big-finish trademark. Great all-around performance by Roy and the chorus-ork. Backing's a beautiful new lilter devoted to "Mama" that should also see chart action.

"JOHNNY LOVES ME" (2:10) [Aldon BMI—Mann, Weil]

"I'M GROWING UP" (2:12) [Stada ASCAP—Devens]

SHELLEY FABARES (Colpix 636)

Shelley Fabares, a star of the Donna Reed TV'er, has another "Johnny" romancer that should follow in the chart-topping footsteps of her "Johnny Angel." It's an on-the-ears, soft beat cha cha charmer, titled "Johnny Loves Me," that the lark whispers appealingly. Fine Stu Phillips ork-choral backdrop. More tender hit sounds on the "I'm Growing Up" stand.

"SEALED WITH A KISS" (2:38) [Post ASCAP—Udell, Geld]

"SUMMER JOB" (1:48) [Pogo ASCAP—Udell, Geld]

BRIAN HYLAND (ABC-Paramount 10336)

Hyland, whose recent chart romance was with "Ginny Come Lately," should be well represented in coming week's hit lists via "Sealed With A Kiss." It's a captivating, slow paced cha cha ballad weeper that Hyland dual-tracks with touching sincerity. Stellar Stan Applebaum arrangement. "Summer Job" is a spirited twister that can also head towards hitsville.

"DIM DARK CORNER" (2:11) "THE LIFE YOU OFFERED ME"

[Pamper BMI—Howard] (2:05) [Metric BMI—Smith]

LEROY VAN DYKE (Mercury 71988)

Van Dyke, who's coming off two country-pop biggies in-a-row in "Walk On By" and "If A Woman Answers," can repeat that success with either end here. One end's a touching, slow paced lover's lament tagged "Dim Dark Corner" while the other's a bright shuffle-rock'er dubbed "The Life You Offered Me." Strong support from the Jerry Kennedy ork and the Merry Melody Singers on both portions.

"PRETTY SUZY SUNSHINE" "IT'S WALKIN' TALKIN' TIME"

(2:00) [Maureen BMI—Finneran, (2:28) [Maureen BMI—Finneran, Finneran]

LARRY FINNEGAN (Old Town 1120)

Finnegan, who climbed to the upper rungs of the sales ladder with his Old Town waxing of "Dear One," can make a similar chart stand with either end here. One half, "Pretty Suzy Sunshine," is a fetching rock-a-shuffle with a familiar sounding melody. The other half is a driving twister, tabbed "It's Walkin' Talkin' Time." Solid musical assists on both stands.

"GOOD LOVER" (2:26) "TELL ME YOU LOVE ME"

[Conrad BMI—Reed] (2:19) [Conrad BMI—Reed]

JIMMY REED (Vee Jay 449)

Reed, who keeps turning out one money-maker after another, has two more in his new Vee Jay pairing. Both ends, "Good Lover" and "Tell Me You Love Me," are slow shuffle rhythm entries that Jimmy waxes in expert blues style, vocally and instrumentally. Take your pick.

"SEE FOR YOURSELF" (1:50) [Gil BMI—Raleigh, Greenwich]

"LUSCIOUS LUCIUS" (2:28) [Promenade ASCAP—Manning, Twomey]

VONNAIR SISTERS (Vista 399)

The Vonnair Sisters, who came thru on the national level with their last release, "Goodbye To Toyland," can do it again with this one. It's a tantalizing rock-a-cha-cha novelty, tagged "See For Yourself," that has that grow-on-you quality. Watch it. Backing's a bouncy twister that the gals happily knock out.

"THE WAH-WATUSI" (2:30) [Kalmann Lowe ASCAP—Mann, Appell]

"HOLIDAY HILL" (2:25) [Woodcrest BMI—Sheldon, Leon]

THE ORLONS (Cameo 218)

The Ortons, who had a noise-maker in "I'll Be True," can have a real solid coin-puller this time out. It's a refreshing version of the teen dance, "The Wah-Watusi," that the group socks out to a happy handclapping beat. Coupler's a tender beat-ballad sentimental opus dubbed "Holiday Hill."

THE NUGGETS (RCA Victor 8031)

(B+) "JUST A FRIEND" (2:19) [Arc & Robin Hood BMI—Joyner] Strong-sounding Latinish blues declaration by the lead and other warblers. Highlighting the setting display is a very effective kazoo-like gimmick. Here's a deck that could step-out.

(B) "CAP SNAPPER" (2:26) [Mills ASCAP—Lewis, Mills]

A shout-type jumper about a novelty device.

TONI WILLIAMS (Tuff 1824)

(B+) "DEAR MOMMA" (2:35) [Winlyn, Big-Pak & Iris-Trojam BMI—Halley, Weiss] The lark (not to be confused with male warbler Tony Williams) makes a strong blues case for a gal who writes her mother that she has gotten married and would like her blessings. Interesting bits—including muted trumpet comments—are featured in the combo chore. Can receive R&B-pop attention Chess handles the label.

(B) "OH, BABY" (2:13) [Arc Winlyn BMI—Elias, Lowe] Snappy gospel-type salute to the boyfriend.

THE NIGHTCAPS (Vandan 7491)

(B+) "WINE WINE WINE" (2:27) [Vandanburg BMI—The Nightcaps] Even if one just listens to this hectic twister, he's apt to feel he's been twistin' like mad. Deck, a master purchase by the Jay-Gee set-up, adds up to quite a vocal-combo jumper. Eye it.

(B) "NIGHTCAP ROCK" (2:33) [Vandanburg BMI—The Nightcaps] Milder, all-combo upbeat rockin'.

THURSTON HARRIS (Cub 9108)

(B+) "MR. SATAN" (1:48) [Saxon BMI—Stallman, Jacobson] Vet r&b-pop songster Harris and his rock-a-string backing showcase an interesting opus with teen-beat originality on this Cub debut. A powerful portion that could score.

(B+) "I'D LIKE TO START OVER AGAIN" (2:33) [Sheldon BMI—Blackwell, Coger] Touching romancer with a concerto-like ork accompaniment. Can also step way out.

THE TIDES (Mercury 71990)

(B+) "LIMBO ROCK" (1:58) [Four Star Sales BMI—Strange] The instrumentalists delightfully bow on the label with an ear-arresting rendition of the tune currently kicking up a chart fuss for the Champs. Happy-go-lucky vocal chants, by the Merry Melody Singers, along the way. Should grab off a healthy slice of the final sales melon.

(B) "MIDNIGHT LIMBO" (2:30) [MRC BMI—Bradley, Moore, Harmon, Robbins, Kennedy, Stevens, Herston, Stoker, Singleton, Randolph, Walker Mathews] The haunting coupler displays the dance in a torrid tempo. Could also come thru.

JERRY JACKSON (Kapp 464)

(B+) "BLUES IN THE NIGHT" (2:27) [Remick ASCAP—Mercer, Arlen] The mainstay is a natural for a twist romp. Singer Jackson socks with excitement and his combo-chorus attack is strong-sounding stuff. Solid rockin' for teen turntables.

(B) "THEY REALLY DON'T KNOW YOU" (2:44) [Budd & Jimmy McHugh ASCAP—Kaye, McHugh, Hawes] Despite the contentions of others, guy feels that the gal is made-for-him in this pretty ballad with soft rock-a-string accompaniment.

PARISIAN SEXTET

(Challenge 9151)
(B+) "BABY ELEPHANT WALK" (2:08) [Famous ASCAP—Mancini] The tricky Henry Mancini pic theme ("Hatari"), coming up with lots of disk readings, is displayed with interesting rock-inclined sound value by the musicians. Soprano sax and guitar make featured showings. A worthy version of the ditty.

(B) "(Theme from) 'MY GEISHA'" (2:09) [Famous ASCAP—Waxman] Another flick number, an appealing Oriental-flavored affair, is dressed in good-sounding rock-a-cha garb.

MARVIN GAYE (Tamla 54063)

(B+) "SOLDIER'S PLEA" (2:25) [Jobete BMI—Stevenson, Gordy, Williams] Kids will feel for Gaye's expression, about a GI who's overseas and writes his gal that he needs his gal to keep going. Songster's work is backed by an interesting march-beat ork-chorus arrangement. Deck could have a chart stay.

(B) "TAKING MY TIME" (2:05) [Jobete BMI—Stevenson, Gordy] Light-beat Latinish blueser about a guy who says he's going to make sure a certain gal is THE one.

RONNIE HAYDEN (Camay 2003)

(B+) "C'EST LA VIE" (2:09) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Leigh, Coleman] The talented team of Carolyn Leigh & Cy Coleman (e.g. "Witchcraft") have penned a pleasing Parisian plaintive, which gets a first-rate vocal from the lark. Her backing is a lush ork affair, including a back-beat sound. A better singles ballad outing.

(C+) "YOU KNOW YOU BELONG TO SOMEBODY" (1:48) [Fred Fisher & James Monaco ASCAP—Monaco, Siras, West] A less successful survey of the oldtimer.

JAYE P. MORGAN (MGM 13076)

(B+) "A HEARTACHE NAMED JOHNNY" (2:39) [Aldon BMI—Greenfield, Keller] Lark warmly conveys a country-styled item about a gal who's carrying a torch for fella named Johnny. Her backing is a heartfelt string ork-chanting femme chorus affair. Might pick-up some coin.

(B) "HE THINKS I STILL CARE" (2:45) [Glad BMI—Lipscomb] Torch has not really burned out in a session that carries even more of a country feel (no strings).

RITCHIE CORDELL (Rori 707)

(B+) "TICK TOCK" (1:53) [R&S & Landis BMI—Landis] Cordell and his teen-beat friends, both chorus and musicians, offer a pro rockin' stint that has an appropriate "tick-tock" chant bit. A tried-and-true teen sound.

(B) "PLEASE DON'T TELL HER" (2:04) [R&S BMI—Merenstein, Landis] Gal's marrying the other guy in this effectively essayed teen dramatic.

DEAN MARTIN (Reprise 20,082)

(B+) "BABY-O" (2:58) [Sands ASCAP—Mercer, Rotella] Fine hip-lyric affectionate gets a breezy swing reading from the famed member of The Clan. A Neal Hefti-directed ork-chorus adds its slick swing say. Jocks will be airing this one.

(B) "DAME SU AMOR" (2:13) [Bourne ASCAP—Kusik, Ballard] Pretty romantic is tenderly sung by the artist.

Pick of the Week

Newcomers

In an effort to call D.J. attention to Pick records by "Newcomers" (artists never before on the Top 100) the editorial staff of Cash Box will list such records under this special heading.

"AIR TRAVEL" (2:15) [Eureka BMI—Swayne, Appleberry]
 "PALMS OF PARADISE" (2:10) [Eureka BMI—Swayne, Appleberry]
 RAY & BOB (Ledo 1150)

Here's one that's already getting loads of territorial action. It's a twisting geographical ditty, tagged "Air Travel," that the Ray & Bob duo deck out in ultra-commercial manner. Fellas switch to a beat-ballad pace on the inviting coupler. It's the top end, tho, all the way. Label's based in Los Angeles.

"IT HURTS" (2:22) [Post ASCAP—Ballard, Alfred]
 "DEEPER IN LOVE" (2:28) [Nite-Time BMI—Whitley]
 RAY WHITLEY (Vee Jay 448)

Chances are Vee Jay will be adding another big name to its star roster in the person of Ray Whitley. Artist has a potent chart contender in this big sounding, emotional, cha cha thumper tagged "It Hurts." Attention-getting choral and ork support on a deck to watch closely. The slower, more deliberate beat cha cha coupler, "Deeper In Love," is also delivered with telling effect by Ray & Co. Both ends build along the way, a la Roy Orbison's lids.

"I WANT YOU TO BE MY BOY" (2:14) [Kahl BMI—Barret, Goldner]
 "FAIRY TALES" (2:30) [Keel BMI—Barret, Jones]
 CAPRI SISTERS (Newtown 5002)

The one-time Frankie Lymon success can be the 'stepping stone' for the Capri Sisters. It's the gals bow on the label and it's a striking, Ray Charles twist-like version of "I Want You To Be My Boy," that could develop into a sales-sizzler. Great Sammy Lowe instrumental showcase. Femmes turn in a first-rate beat-ballad reading on the flip.

"TA-TA-TEE-TA-TA" (2:19)
 [Nom, Dominion BMI—Crier, Cleveland, Campbell]
 "WE NEED THEM" (2:15) [Nom, Dominion BMI—Spencer]
 BARBARA ENGLISH (Roulette 4428)

Look for newcomer Barbara English's name to be plastered all over the charts in the weeks to come. Gal's colorfully assisted by the Fashions as they rock-a-cha-cha their way over a sparkling romantic novelty item titled "Ta-Ta-Tee-Ta-Ta." The thumping companion piece, "We Need Them," also has a healthy chart outlook.

Best Bets

THE PLATTERS (Mercury 71986)
 (B+) "MORE THAN YOU KNOW" (2:07) [Miller & Johnny Mathis ASCAP—Rose, Eliscu, Youmans] The familiar Platters' ballad sound is heard on the mainstay, which now has a chance for a new chart run. Supporting is an easy skip-beat ork sound, also a mark of the team's romantic offerings. Should be eyed closely.

(B+) "EVERY LITTLE MOVEMENT (Has a Meaning All Its Own)" (2:03) [M. Witmark ASCAP—Harbach, Hoschna] An interesting shuffle-rock sound backs the performers' reading of another standby. Could also make the Top 100 grade.

THE OLYMPICS (Arvee 5056)
 (B+) "THE SCOTCH" (2:17) [Es-cort BMI—Smith, Goldsmith] The Olympics oughta head back to hitsville as they come thru with an ultra-commercial reading of another new teen dance craze. Sock shuffle-rock performance that the kids should pick up on real quick.

(B) "BABY, IT'S HOT" (2:10) [Venice BMI—Harris, Terry] More delightful novelty-rock sounds on the lower end.

STANLEY PAUL (Coral 62318)
 (B+) "THEME FROM MY GEISHA" (2:46) [Famous ASCAP—Waxman] Paul demonstrates a winning touch at the keyboard as he makes his diskery debut with this enchanting theme from the forthcoming flick. Beautiful full ork (Henry Jerome) and choral (sans lyric chants) showcase. Powerful bid for chartdom.

(B) "WHEN I FALL IN LOVE" (2:57) [Northern ASCAP—Young, Heyman] Lovely revival of the evergreen on this end. Excellent two-sided intro that the platter spinners'll love.

VIKKI CARR (Liberty 55465)
 (B+) "I'LL WALK THE REST OF THE WAY" (2:32) [Gil BMI—Kronberg, Meridith] Chances are Vikki Carr'll make a solid chart impression with this Liberty bow. It's a fascinating, multi-tracked, country-flavored shuffler that sports a top notch musical arrangement. Both the gal and the tune rate the bigtime.

(B) "BESIDE A BRIDGE (Along The River Tiber)" (2:18) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Graham, Schafer] This enchanting lilter's from the up-coming B'way musical, "Bravo Giovanni."

TONY MARTIN (Dot 16361)
 (B+) "IN OTHER WORDS (Fly Me To The Moon)" (2:51) [Almanac ASCAP—Howard] The wonderful ballad gets a fine cuddle from the vet warbler. An attractive legit ork-chanting chorus arrangement backs-up. Good-music stations have a strong entry here.
 (B) "THE REST OF MY LIFE" (2:23) [Criterion ASCAP—Pober] A familiar theme from Rim-sky-Korsakov's "Scheherazade" gets a pop lyric, and the setting for the performer's reading is a lush beguine sound.

THE SEMINOLES (Check-Mate 1012)
 (B+) "IT TAKES A LOT" (2:25) [Kapa & Vantor BMI—Pierce] Infectious medium-beat blueser in which the songsters convey that it takes all one has to play the game of love right. Kids may take to this busy affair.
 (B) "I CAN'T STAND IT" (2:35) [Kapa & Vantor BMI—Pierce] Boys ease-up on this blues-ballad theme.

THE BONNAVILLS (Question Mark 110)
 (B) "DIRTY HERB" (1:35) [Rhelta BMI—Fountain, Adams, Morgan] After "Dirty Herb" is introduced vocally, combo and occasional shout bits take-over in solid-sounding, Latin-twist fashion. Label is based in Hollywood.
 (B) "HIGH NOON STOMP"—The famed "western" is done for the teen crowd—and effectively, too.

EDDIE CURTIS (Decca 31395)
 (B) "I WAS HERE WHEN YOU CAME (& I'll Be Here When You're Gone)" (2:46) [Northern ASCAP—Curtis] Curtis has written a fine Latinish romancer (guy is sure of his gal's love), which he relates with a likable upbeat delivery. Lew Douglas batons the sunny rock-a-cha ork sound.
 (B) "GEE, BUT I WISH YOU WERE HERE" (2:46) [Northern ASCAP—Curtis] Both the vocal and writing talents of Curtis shine in this cozy session.

THE DELCADES (J. W. Fox 0102)
 (B) "FALLING TEARS" (2:04) [Peer Int'l BMI—Flores] Lead and other singers offer a rock-a-billy date of some teen-market value. Label is located in Corpus Christi, Tex.
 (B) "SINGING HEART" (2:43) [Peer Int'l BMI—Flores] Boys are inviting on the light-beat affectionate.

GINNY GIBBONS (Kama 35)
 (B) "BLUESVILLE" (2:21) [Harbor—Charles, Criger] Smart blues-jazz pose.

BRUCE BRUNO (Roulette 4427)
 (B) "VENUS IN BLUE JEANS" (1:58) [Aldon BMI—Keller, Greenfield] Singer Bruno nicely captures the sunny quality of the ditty, about a "work of art" in bluejeans. Bright Latinish rock-a-string.
 (B) "DEAR JOANNE" (2:27) [Martin & Faraci BMI—DiMucci, Rotoli] A tender-beat return-to-me outing.

CONNIE CHRISTMAS (Checker 1015)

THE ARTHUR LYMAN GROUP (HiFi 5057)

(B+) "AMERICA" (2:00) [G. Schirmer ASCAP — Bernstein, Sondheim] One of the delights of the "West Side Story" score is presented with a flavorful jazz-paso doble sound by the popular "primitive" crew. This deck could bring the number long over-due singles popularity.

(B) "PLANTING RICE" (2:00) [Lois BMI—Fuqua] Musicians step lightly in this likeable session.

LITTLE BERNIE (Jove 100)

(B+) "THE WADDLE" (2:33) [Percom & Florentine BMI—Milton, Perialas] Yet another teen-humor dance by Little Bernie & the Cavaliers. It's explained with a first-rate shout blues romp by the songster and his accompanying combo-chorus. Well-worth teentime spots. Cameo distribs label nationally.

(B+) "LONELY SOLDIER" (2:15) [Percom & Florentine BMI—Milton] More good news for the teen trade as Little Bernie plays a love-lorn GI against a strong guitar-led setting.

FRED FORD (Cover 3622)

(B+) "PREACHIN' JAZZ" (2:34) [Quilted—Ford] Here's another jazz single that could make a Top 100 appearance. It's a swingin' combo affair on a ditty that sometimes resembles the "Like Young" opus. Keep tabs on this track from the Memphis-based diskery.

(B) "STARDUST" (2:34) [Mills ASCAP — Carmichael] The great sturdy is performed with sax-led jazz warmth.

THE CRAB CREEK COUNTRY SCHOOL BAND (Old Town 1118)

JO ANN CAMPBELL (ABC-Paramount 10335)

Dee Dee Sharp

Dee Dee Sharp, who is currently riding the charts with "Mashed Potato Time" (#4 on this week's Top 100), started her rise to stardom when she answered newspaper ad for a girl singer. Although only fifteen, she felt sure that she could fill the bill. Dee Dee's confidence in her ability was justified. Soon the young lark found herself doing background on recordings at various Philadelphia wax sessions.

As recording companies are always looking for new sounds, Dee Dee eventually auditioned for Cameo-Parkway. As part of a group she did the background on a Cameo recording that was never released. However A&R director Dave Appell was so impressed with what he heard that he asked her to sing for him alone. Unfortunately, for Dee Dee the diskery was too busy at the time to record her.

Several months later Chubby Checker cut a new tune entitled "Slow Twistin'" which seemed to lack the punch that distinguished all of his past efforts. Bernie Lowe, topper of Cameo-Parkway, came up with the idea of using a female vocalist to give the record added sound. The thrush was called in for the session and Lowe was so overwhelmed with her talent that he decided to record her first solo deck that same night. The rest is history.

Claude King

Sure-fire proof of the popular acceptance of country artists is Claude King. The chanter is currently picking up dual-market coin with his Columbia wax of "Wolverton Mountain" which is riding both the country chart and the Top 100.

King was born in Shreveport, Louisiana and spent his childhood in a rural atmosphere. The future star got his first guitar when he was 12 years old which he bought from a farmer for fifty cents. Almost immediately, the youngster began writing songs.

The songster attended the University of Idaho and went to business college in Shreveport. During his school years he participated in baseball and football. Prior to scoring with his current deck, Claude hit with "The Comancheros" and "Big River, Big Man."

When he is not on the road or recording, the chanter can be found enjoying himself with his first great love—hunting.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

It took 90 hours and 15 minutes, but WISH-Indianapolis deejay, Tom Mathis managed to raise enough money to send 480 boys to the Indianapolis PAL summer camp. Mathis went on the air on a Monday morning and the $9600 was raised when he was lowered into bed three and a half days later. There's nothing like a "Mathis-A-Thon" to bring out the heart and the humor of a city. A five year old girl brought her piggy bank to the remote broadcast and broke it up to help "Tommy go to sleep." Students, workers, bowling clubs, hot rod clubs and various other groups not only collected from their members, but solicited in their neighborhoods. Tom? He took Friday and Saturday off, and was back at the usual stand the next Monday morning. . . . Another WISH personality, Dick Summer has started doing beeper phone interviews on his "Musieville U.S.A." show. The jockey says that artists interested should call him person to person any night between 8:00 and 12:00 PM. The number is Melrose 5-2155.

Gordon McLendon has beefed up his three Texas stations, heavily promoting something heralded as "TNT". According to McLendon, "TNT" is the code letter abbreviation for "Texas New Triangle." Moreover, it means a close-knit working alliance and continuing exchange of exclusive direct broadcasts among his trio of Texas stations—KLIF-Dallas, KILT-Houston and KTSA-San Antonio. The broadcast executive says that from now on all three news staffs would function similar to exclusive networks, supervised by KLIF news director Joe Long.

WXYZ-TV-Detroit recently inaugurated a summer scholarship for college students in the local metropolitan area. John F. Pival, topper of the station, said that the continuing growth of the industry points to a need to train production personnel for the future. Pival said the plan should help interest qualified students in television. A panel of three judges will select the students who will then receive on-the-job training at WXYZ during the summer months.

Hal Boudreau has been given the nod as program director of KGMB-Honolulu. Boudreau has been with the station since November of last year, serving as an announcer and handling production. Boudreau is a well-known Hawaiian radio personality. During his nine years in the Islands he has served as program director of KHVH, veep of the Big Island Broadcasting Company and general manager of KIPA-Hilo.

WEHR-Buffero news and public affairs director, W. H. Youngblood, has completed arrangements with the Reverend Kevin Walsh O.M.I. for the fifth annual shut-in retreat to be broadcast on WEHR Sunday, June 3rd (Shut-In Sunday). Father Walsh, who is himself a shut-in, will tape a series of nine five minute talks, which will be aired on the half-hour starting at 9:30 AM and ending at 5:30 PM.

Popularity of fire engine "99," a 1925 model recently purchased by WIBG-Philadelphia, has shown a marked increase. More civic organizations are requesting its appearance for parades and fairs from May through July. Various station personalities are scheduled to appear with the engine to promote the outlet and their programs. Fire engine "99" has been set for five appearances during this month. . . . WIBG news boss Jerry Grove has been cited by the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America for his staunch and devoted participation in the fight against Muscular Dystrophy. The citation of merit was signed by Jerry Lewis, national chairman of the association.

The KNUZ-Houston "Mystery Sounds" contest is going great guns, according to program director Ken Grant. The sounds are played on the air and the first contestant to properly identify all three sounds gets a crack at the bonus sound for a still greater prize. A recent winner got $500 for correctly identifying the sound of ice cubes being ejected from a ice tray. . . . KNUZ was recently presented with an award from Governor Price Daniel for major contribution to traffic and safety promotion. The award was presented by a representative of Governor Daniel at the Texas Association of Broadcasters Convention in El Paso, at which the station's prexy and general manager Dave Morris was featured in a panel discussion.

HAL BOUDREAU

Academy award-winning tunesmith Henry Mancini made one of his rare lengthy radio appearances last week when he was the subject of an interview by KHJ-Hollywood spinner Paul Compton. The composer of "Moon River" was on for one hour of Compton's regular four-hour Saturday night bash. In addition to revealing that he's soon off for Europe on a business-pleasure trip, Mancini plugged his newest RCA Victor album "Experiment In Terror" and helped spin numbers from his "Peter Gunn" and "Mr. Lucky" LP's. . . . The honor of being the first deejay to be named as a participant the Los Angeles sheriff's 18th annual rodeo at the Memorial Coliseum fell to KHJ's Pierre Gonneau of the "Lucky Pierre" show. A dozen deejays will ride mules in a one-furlong race, the winner to receive a trophy from L.A. sheriff Peter Pitchess. Although jockeys (both on platters and on mule) will be required to wear full western regalia, Pierre has been given permission to wear a French beret.

June L. Buzzelli, promo manager of KDKA-Pittsburgh and William E. Tax were recently married. She will continue in her post with the station following their wedding trip to Williamsburg, Virginia and other points in the South.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Bob Allen exits his program director chair at WOW-Conneaut to assume a similar spot on WNCO-Ashland, Ohio. . . . Ken Dowe, formerly host of the 6-10 AM stanza on KDEO-Diego, now the morning man (6-9 AM) on KBOX-Dallas. . . . Bill Hampton leaves his news editor spot on WMBR-Jacksonville to join the news staff of KEX-Portland.

NEW YORK:

Valmor topper Jody Cameron flippin' over all the excitement on Tony DeFranco's "Cuore," noting that the songster is being lined up for Dick Clark and Buddy Deane TV stints. Matty Mathews, over at Superior distribs, adds that the deck looks like a smash. . . . Mgr. (and hubby) Biddy Wood thrilled with the reception accorded Damita Jo, who subbed for the ailing Bobby Darin at the Copa. Lark, who headlines there for 3 weeks, starting Aug. 23, is represented on wax with her "Another Dancing Partner" Mercury single and "... Live At The Diplomat" LP. . . . With Cosnat's Evelyn Cornell the singles leaders are Joe Henderson's "Snap Your Fingers" (Todd), the Volumes' "I Love You" (Chex) and the Falcons' "I Found A Love" (LuPine). Getting good reaction is Ritchie Cordell's "Tick Tock" (Rori). . . . Smash's Charlie telegrams that the Dreams' "Too Late" has broken wide open in the Cleveland and Atlanta marts. . . . Laurie's Dion, who's blazing away on the charts with "Lovers Who Wander" and "(I Was) Born To Cry," in a 3-week stint (started 5/16), at Jack Silverman's International. In August he'll be on a 9-day South American jaunt along with Anita Bryant, whose latest for Columbia is "One More Time With Billy."

Capitol artists 'round town include Louis Prima at Basin Street East (to be followed by George Shearing and Nancy Wilson) and Dave Guard & the Whiskeyhill Singers set for a late May stand at the Village Vanguard. . . . Nice to see Epic's Bobby Vinton in town for deejay stints in behalf of his "Roses Are Red" click. Bob heads out to the mid-west for Milwaukee and Chi plugs.

MEMO FROM ANDY WILLIAMS

One of the loveliest melodies to come along in some years, I feel, is "Stranger on the Shore." Occasionally, after an instrumental has become a hit, a lyric is added which enhances, rather than interferes with, the mood created by the hit melody. "Canadian Sunset" is a case in point. As you may remember, my lyric version of that song came out after the instrumental was a hit. Because the lyric was so right for the melody, it gave a new dimension to the song and created a new audience.

Bobby Mellin's lyric to "Stranger on the Shore" once again accomplishes this. That is why I have recorded it, and I think we have captured the mood lyrically to Acker Bilk's "Stranger on the Shore."

I hope you agree.

Best regards,

Dear Andy:

Many thanks for those kind words.

Bobby Mellin

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"THERE GOES THAT SONG AGAIN"—Brook Benton—Mercury SR 60673
Brook Benton, who is currently clicking with "Hit Record" and "Thanks To The Fool," calls upon the talents of ace jazz arranger Quincy Jones for this top-drawer set of evergreens. The extraordinary, compelling voice of the songster coupled with some tasteful musical backings from the Jones group makes a thoroughly enjoyable listening experience. Benton displays his expected verve and style on "When I Grow Too Old To Dream," "All Of Me" and "After You've Gone." The set should attract the legion of the chanter's admirers.

"DON'T PLAY THAT SONG"—Ben E. King—Atco 33 142
Ben E. King cashes in on the success of his current chart-riding single of "Don't Play That Song (You Lied)" to tag this first-rate Atco outing of ballads and rockin' items. The chanter's firm understanding of the material coupled with a feelingful emotion-packed voice carries him in good stead on "Ecstasy," "Yes" and "I Promise Love." The disk boasts enough built-in success ingredients to reach the charts in no time flat.

"TELL ME—THE MOUNTAIN'S HIGH"—Dick and Dee Dee—Liberty LST 7236
Dick and Dee Dee take advantage of the sales potential of two of their successful entries on this destined-for-the-charts LP from Liberty. The first side of the disk kicks off with "Tell Me," their current chart-rider which sets the pace for the other soul-rendered tunes. The duo are in fine form as they go through their musical paces in winning style. The second side contains "The Mountain's High," their recent smash. Sure-fire chart item.

"ROME ADVENTURE"—Max Steiner—Warner Brothers W 1458
Vet flick cleffer Max Steiner has come up with a beautiful, sensitive score for the currently-in-release "Rome Adventure." The themes here perfectly serve to underline the film's romantic, light flavor. Highpoint of the disk is "Al Di La" sung by Emilo Pericoli and currently riding the charts. Other first-rate listenable items are "Serenade" and "Prudence." The second side of the LP contains six all-time favorite Neapolitan melodies. The wax should step out lively.

"LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART"—Timi Yuro—Liberty LST 7234
Here's an attractive package from Timi Yuro that looms as a logical candidate to reach the charts. The lark, who has earned many laurels in the past for professional wide-range vocal charms, demonstrates in winning style the potent dynamics of her distinctive delivery on "My Prayer," "Smile" and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." All the young hit-maker's many fans should come in force for this top-drawer set.

"BOBBY VEE MEETS THE CRICKETS"—Liberty LST 7228
Bobby Vee teams up with the Crickets on this lively session of potent, hard-driving rockin' items. The wax marriage of the chanter and the group comes off in top-rung fashion. The Crickets serve as a perfect backing for the songster's superior vocal charms on "Peggs Sue," "Bo Diddley" and "When You're In Love." The disk has all the necessary built-in success ingredients to quickly move down the hitsville path.

"LIVE AT THE DIPLOMAT"—Damita Jo—Mercury SR 6073
Kicking off with a swingin' rendition of "Hey Look Me Over" through the dozen other sturdies and pop items that she belts out with her distinctive, electrifying, wide-range vocal style Damita Jo offers proof positive of her top-notch, winning talents on this Mercury LP outing cut live at the Diplomat Hotel in Florida. The lark creates more than enough excitement to bring out a host of record buyers as she dishes up "Twist With Me Henry" and her smash single of "I'll Save The Last Dance For You."

"WARM AND MILD"—Vic Dana—Dolton BST 8015
Kicking off with a rousing, walloping rendition of "Get Me To The Church On Time," Vic Dana quickly sets the pace for this extremely enjoyable of popular ballads and uptempo items. The album serves to showcase the versatility of the chanter and points to his distinctive, appealing phrasing. The young songster proves that he can attract a wide variety of record buyers with his versions of "I Believe In You" and "Her Face." Disk should score in the coin department.

"FRANCE"—Gordon Jenkins—Time S 2061
Gordon Jenkins helps introduce Time's new process 70 technique with this beautiful, rich, humorous portrait of France. The orkster leads his band through thirteen Gallic-flavored items with the accomplished, masterful style that has long been his hallmark. Mixed in with the numbers are a group of vignettes which do little to add to the quality of the package. The best thing here is the music with "Under Paris Skies," "Fascination" and "The River Seine" taking top kudos.

"I HAD THE CRAZIEST DREAM"—Manny Albam—RCA Victor LSA 2508
For mood music deluxe this beautiful package from Victor comes off as one of the most enjoyable, easy listening LP's released in quite a while. The diskery has effectively utilized their stereo action technique on the set which produces some remarkable separation and definition qualities. Albam leads his ork through a dozen popular standards with a polished and free-flowing touch. Among the best bands here are "Dream," "Darn That Dream" and "Out Of My Dreams."

"BOB DYLAN"—Columbia CL 1779
Originality is something that is rarely found in today's sales-oriented market. Bob Dylan is such a fresh, new talent. The multi-talented youngster is an accomplished blues chanter, tunesmith, guitarist and harmonica player. For this, his initial LP, the songster demonstrates a distinctive, pungent, emotion-packed feelingful style. Although the lad lacks a real voice, his virile delivery carries him in superb stead on "House Of The Risin' Sun," "Freight Train Blues" and his self-penned "Song To Woody." Eye Dylan for acceptance with folk fans.

"SHEB WOOLEY SINGS THAT'S MY PA AND THAT'S MY MA AND OTHER SELECTIONS"—MGM E 4026
Here's a powerful pop-country package showcasing the proven dual-market talents of Sheb Wooley. The chanter kicks things with his recent hit of "That's My Pa" and offers eleven other attractive weepers and homespun items with his own brand authoritative delivery. Other good tracks here are "Ten Chances To One," "Sweet Chile" and the songster's current click of "Laughin' The Blues." Set should make some noise with Wooley's slew of fans.

"THE SWEETEST SWINGIN' SOUNDS OF NO STRINGS"—Billy May—Capitol ST 1709
Following closely on the heels of the very successful original cast album of "No Strings," which is currently high on the charts, Capitol issues an instrumental version of the show by Billy May and his big band sound. The orkster has given bright, bouncy arrangements to the melodies which make for good listening and dancing. First-rate tracks are the title tune, "Love Makes The World Go," "An Orthodox Fool," and "Be My Host." The disk is exceptionally well done and should pull some coin.

"FOLK SONGS RARE AND WELL DONE"—Ivy League Trio—Coral CRL 757404
For their second LP from Coral the Ivy League Trio come up with an appealing dozen of comparatively seldom heard folk items for the current commercial market. As in their previous venture, the boys display a fresh, distinctive approach on "Hey Young Rider," "Glory Road" and "Ballad Of Spring Hill." The disk ranks as one of the most attractive pop-folk session released in many months.

ALBUM REVIEWS

"MOVIN' N' GROOVIN'"—The Three Suns—RCA Victor LPM-2532
The Three Suns return to wax with an interesting array of tunes played against a background of assorted instruments which include wind bells, jaw bone, tapping shoes, and a kettledrum. The novel sound effects were devised by Al Nevins and Charles Albertine and are put to unusual use in such numbers as "Caravan," "Jungle Drums," "Beyond The Sea," and "Danny's Inferno." The trio's fans should find this a very entertaining item.

"SING ALONG WITH ISRAEL"—Four Ayalons—Ate AC 633
Here's an interesting, off-beat package showcasing the high-spirited talents of the Four Ayalons. This lively Israeli folk group comes up with a dozen melodic Jewish items on such diverse American rhythms as the twist, cha cha and calypso. Currently, the group is knocking 'em dead at Gotham's Cafe Sabra for loyal coterie of fans. Best tracks here are "Fatima," "Aravah" and "Sheer Hapalmach." Good item for spinners.

"THE STORY OF BIG RED"—Original Soundtrack—Disneyland ST 1916
Here's an attractive kiddie offering from Disneyland which is the soundtrack of a soon-to-be-released flick. The disk tells a typical Disney story with music and narration of a lad's love for a dog. The acting is done by a professional group of thespians in manner geared for the younger set. One of the best spoken word children's LP's to be cut in quite a while.

"TV'S TOP THEMES"—Pete Rugolo—Mercury SR 60706
Pete Rugolo's latest outing for Mercury spotlights the themes from a host of video favorites presented in a highly listenable manner. The orkster uses very effective arrangements to indicate the mood and flavor of the shows they represent and proves that each theme has its own musical merit. The band leads off with the "Theme From Ben Casey," currently a chartrider by another artist, and follows with such items as "Theme From Route 66," "Theme From Dr. Kildare," and "Nervous," the theme from the Dick Powell show. There's enough listening enjoyment here to attract a wide variety of record buyers.

"THE BIG VOICE OF BARNUM"—H. B., THAT IS!—RCA Victor LPM 2462
Although H. B. Barnum hasn't hit singles-wise for quite a while this lively package should pull coin in both the pop and r&b markets. The multi-talented artist did all the arrangements here himself and plays one of the meanest pianos around today. Barnum displays his rich, impressive voice on such diverse items as "In A Little Spanish Town," "Home," and "After The Lights Go Down Low." The chanter should win a flock of fans with this distinctive session.

"DINAH WASHINGTON SINGS"—Mercury Wing SRW 16223
Dinah Washington, who is currently riding the charts with "Love Can't Wait" on another label, offers sure-fire proof of sales-oriented vocal charms on this album standards. The lark displays an impressive control coupled with feelingful pitch on "Out In The Cold Again," "Hey Good Looking" and "Tell Me Why." The disk contains seven other beautifully-essayed items. The set should draw a legion of Washington admirers.

"TWIST COUNTRY HITS"—Tennessee Twisters with Merry Melody Singers—Smash SRS 67009
An almost unending deluge of twist music continues with this rhythmic collection of standard country hits with a twist beat capably performed by the Tennessee Twisters and the Merry Melody Singers. The vocal group provides a true country flavor with their legit delivery while the instrumentalists contribute the infectious beat. Included are "Jambalaya," "Oh Lonesome Me," "Bill Bailey," and "Honky Tonk Man." The LP could score heavily with country buffs.

"CHA CHA CHA FIESTA"—De Denise—Enrico 103 A
Here's a delightful package that should prove popular with the non-twistin' set. De Denise has his ork unleash their potent instrumental talents full-blast on a lively batch of fast-moving Latin dances. Disk is noteworthy because of some unusually harmonious arrangements on "Alma Cha Cha," "Un Premiero Amor" and "Ahora Cha Cha." Many terpsichorean pleasures to be had here.

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"MEET YOU AT THE JAZZ CORNER OF THE WORLD"—VOLUME 2—Art Blakey and the Jazz Messengers—Blue Note 4055
The Art Blakey group has earned many laurels in the past for their technical excellence as well as their success in the sales department. This new Blue Note entry should win additional honors for the talented drummer. The crew zestfully makes aggressive statements of their individual tastes in confident free-flowing statements on "High Modes," "Night Watch" and "The Things I Love." The disk ranks as one of the best that Blakey has cut to date.

"ALL OF YOU"—Ahmad Jamal—Argo LP 691
Ahmad Jamal comes on strong for another top-drawer session of improvisations. The 88'er is dramatically-oriented enough to hold back his best stuff until the end of each of the seven numbers on this Argo wax cut live at the pianist's own Windy City Club, the Alhambra. The crew swings sweetly on "Angel Eyes," "You Go To My Head" and "All Of You." Jamal's commercial sounds should attract a wide variety of jazz buff to this attractive set.

"REQUESTS ON THE ROAD"—Harry James—MGM E 4003
Harry James and his ork have been winning fans to their sweet, relaxed, free-flowing sounds for over twenty-two years. This tasty MGM session presents a potent bag of the trumpeter's all-time favorite hits plus a couple of new vintage items. The orkster's fans should come out in strength for his distinctive renditions of "Ciribirbin," "Sleepy Lagoon" and "You Made Me Love You." Fine fare for dancing or listening pleasure.

CLASSICAL

WAGNER: Der Ring des Nibelungen, Orchestral Selections, Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, William Steinberg, Conductor—Command CC 11012 SD
This latest entry into the field of dynamic sound by Command is an excellent Stereo 35 mm reproduction of Wagner's "Der Ring des Nibelungen" brilliantly performed by the Pittsburgh Symphony under the baton of William Steinberg. All of the conflicts and emotions revealed by the unfolding of the tales are captured musically in the feelingful interpretation of the conductor. Wagner lovers and audiophiles should find this a welcome addition to their collections.

"MUSIC FOR THE GUITAR"—Andres Segovia—Decca DL 710046
Segovia, the undisputed master of the classical guitar, clearly demonstrates the reason for his critical praise on this Decca offering of nine intricate pieces. This session ranks as one of the artist's best LP's in recent years and should bring out a host of guitar buffs. Among the best sides here are "Antano," "The Old Castle" and "Tonadilla." First-rate listening enjoyment throughout.

Capitol Ground-Breaking Ceremonies

NASHVILLE — Construction of a "Capitol Records Building" was begun recently here. The new building, which will house the firm's complete country sales, promotion and A&R operations in Nashville, is being built in association with the well-known country music personality Hubert Long. The building is scheduled for completion in August or September of this year. To celebrate the event, the diskery hosted a cocktail party and ground-breaking ceremonies attended by many leading country luminaries. Representing Capitol were Joseph Csida, veep for eastern operations, and Paul Wyatt, the label's resident A&R producer in Nashville. Also present was Jim Richardson, resident salesman for Capitol Records Distributing Corporation. Shown above are (1) plans of the Capitol Records Building, 16th Avenue South, Nashville; (2) Harlan Howard, Faron Young, Rita and Hubert Long, Joe Csida, Ferlin Husky, Paul Wyatt, Robin Clark, Bobby Edwards and Kitty & Smiley Wilson; (3) W. B. Cambrom, the contractor who will build the building, Joe Csida, Eddy Arnold, who sold the property on which the Capitol Studio will be built, Hubert Long and Paul Wyatt; (4) Joe Csida, talking with Louis Buckley, leading Nashville record retailer; (5) Jimmy Dean, Faron Young and Eddy Arnold; (6) Joe Csida, Al Gallico of Shapiro-Bernstein and Jim Denny of Cedarwood Music; (7) Jim Richardson, Jack Stapp, manager of WKDA and head of Tree Music and Buddy Killen, exec veep of Tree; (8) CMA'er Jo Walker, Owen Bradley and Francis Williams Preston of BMI.

Joy Issues First Single By Guy Mitchell

NEW YORK—Guy Mitchell, who recently ended a long association with Columbia Records, has cut his first sides for the Joy label, which were released immediately by the diskery. Cut in Hollywood by topper Ed Joy, with Jimmie Haskell arranging and conducting the session, were Mitchell's warbling of "Charlie's Shoes," a current country smash, and "Rusty Old Halo," an oldie by Bob Merrill. Mitchell is currently appearing at the Seattle World's Fair.

Victor Single With Jesse Belvin

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records has re-released two sides by the late Jesse Belvin—killed with his wife, Jo Anne, in an auto crash in 1960. Sides are "Guess Who," a hit by the songster penned by his wife, and "Funny." The label said it was making a "substantial" contribution to the orphaned Belvin children through proceeds from the waxing.

Gene Schwartz A Dad

NEW YORK—Gene Schwartz of Laurie Records became the father of a 7 lb baby girl when his wife gave birth last week at Doctors Hospital, this city. It is the couple's first child.

ABC-Par Talent On Global P.A.'s

NEW YORK—Artists associated with the ABC-Paramount label are currently letting the world in on their talents through personal appearances. Jo Ann Campbell, just out with a new single, "I Wish It Would Rain All Summer," began a tour in the Phillipine Islands at the beginning of this month that will carry her to Hong Kong and Tokyo. After her return to the U.S., about June 1, she will spend a few days in Hollywood fulfilling flick commitments. Ray Charles, heading the Top 100 with "I Can't Help Loving You," and His Band, together with the Raellets, left for Europe last week (15) for an extensive tour to include eight days at the Olympia Theatre in Paris and appearances in Belgium, Sweden, Germany and Switzerland. Tour will end around June 10. Erroll Garner, who cuts for Octave Records, distributed by ABC-Par, is now in Germany on a European trip. He will also appear in England, Switzerland, Holland, Italy and France. In the U.S., Bryan Hyland, represented with a new single, "Sealed With A Kiss," is co-starring in a musical show now making its way through the mid-west, ending June 3.

Verve's New Travel LP's Tie-In With Esquire Mag

NEW YORK—The Verve label's new "Sound Tour" LP series—bowing this week with four travel portrait albums featuring musical sound tours and impressions of four countries—is being promoted in conjunction with the travel department of Esquire mag.

Released in time to coincide with the 1962 summer travel season, the sets are titled "Verve/Esquire Sound Tour Of France," "Verve/Esquire Sound Tour Of Spain," "Verve/Esquire Sound Tour Of Italy" and "Verve/Esquire Sound Tour Of Hawaii."

Kenyon Hopkins, composer of such motion picture film scores as "Baby Doll," "The Fugitive" and "The Hustler" was commissioned to compose and conduct the "Sound Tour" series. The packages will retail for $4.98 monaural and $5.98 stereo.

The "Verve Sound Tour" series also has novel album packaging, that of a double gate-fold with the album opening from the center. Albums will be skin tight polyethylene wrapped and factory sealed with each album set containing an eight page descriptive brochure of each particular country printed on linen paper and written by Richard Joseph, award-winning Travel Editor of Esquire Magazine. Liners also illustrate a diagram of the instrument positions and a photo of the 12 channel panning master control board used to record the four albums. Included with each album is an Esquire Travel Guide booklet detailing "Sights To See" and "Things To Do" for the traveler in each country.

The promotion campaign kicks off with a double page spread in the June issue of Esquire Magazine. Verve is supplying dealers, through its distributors with special advertising and promotion kits which includes mounted reproductions of the Esquire ad, "Esky" die-cut window display cards, travel posters from France, Italy, Spain and Hawaii, sample album jackets and window streamers plus co-op ad mats for use in travel sections of local newspapers. Dealers will also be supplied with one gratis demonstration LP sample containing selections from the four albums.

The albums were produced by Creed Taylor, creative A&R head of Verve, with the entire project, original idea and packaging coordinated by Harry Anger, Jr., in charge of creative services for MGM/Verve Records.

Marek Offers Money-Back Guarantee To Dealers On "Aida" LP; 1 Takes Him Up

NEW YORK—George R. Marek, vice president and general manager of RCA Victor Records, last week sent a personal check for the price of one album to a dealer in accordance with a unique money-back offer made in connection with RCA Victor's recently released recording of "Aida," featuring Leontyne Price.

On March 21, 1962, Marek sent a letter to over 500 Victor Red Seal dealers around the country, in which he stated: "If, after hearing our new 'Aida' recording, you do not think this is a superb recording, if you do not think we have done justice to this marvelous work, if you are not thrilled and excited by it, write me and I'll send you a check for the price of one album—just to pay for your time."

Of the more than 500 dealers who received this money-back offer, only one wanted his money back. This dealer, William C. Buck of Fargo, North Dakota, wrote Marek: "I have received your letter on the production of 'Aida,' and have listened to it. I have heard the London Tebaldi recording and possess the RCA Milanov set. I'm sorry, but I don't think the Price set surpasses either the Milanov or the Tebaldi set!"

Marek last week sent a check to Mr. Buck for $11.13 the price paid by the dealer for one stereo "Aida" album.

Among the letters received by Marek in answer to his offer, was a reply from Bud Shartar, record department, manager, Bake Audio Associates, Atlanta, Ga., who stated: "I am not seeking a refund for the 'Aida,' but requesting a 'Tosca,' a 'Butterfly,' and anything else that you might care to record with Miss Price. She is indeed magnificent! Give us more!"

Another dealer, Paul E. Sampson, of the Arlington Radio and Record Shop, Arlington Heights, Illinois, wrote Marek: "Many days before your letter of March 21 arrived concerning the new recording of 'Aida,' my wife and I were thrilling to its fantastic sound, power, and captivation. . . . All in all, this is I believe, an outstanding recording from both the sound level and the performance level."

Marek frankly stated that the purpose of his letter was "to get you to listen to this recording."

The album is also playing a part in a drive by UNESCO, the United Nations' organization, to save the Nubian Monuments in Egypt from being flooded by the completion of the Aswan Dam. The performer is donating 1,000 copies of the album, with her signature, to be auctioned off throughout the U.S. and abroad.

Star Line-Up In 6 LP's From Mercury-Wing

New UA Distrib In Salt Lake City

NEW YORK—United Artists Records has appointed Great Western Distributing Company, Salt Lake City, Utah, to handle its distribution in that area. Great Western is headed by Pete Souvall and Roy Peterson, and will begin representing the full UA line immediately.

Coral Pacts N.Y. Pianist

Paxton Buys BMI College Song Catalog

NEW YORK—George Paxton, head of Coed Records and the Paxton-Winneton Music Publishing firms, last week purchased the Thorton Allen catalog of college songs from Broadcast Music, Inc.

Paxton outbid other pubberies for the 300 song catalog, which includes such selections as "Washington & Lee Swing," "On Wisconsin," "The Eyes Of Texas" and "Roar Lion Roar."

With the success of college groups and material during recent years on LP's, Paxton feels the potential of this catalog is endless.

Paxton will record many of the songs on his Coed label for a new album series which will be sold directly to colleges with the songs of a specific college featured in each LP. The product will be sold only thru college bookstores, alumni associations, etc. Paxton has contacted many college groups and reports excellent acceptance for the idea.

He will also take over the inventory of the various songs, stock copies, band arrangements, choral arrangements, etc., and will print additional stock for distribution to various outlets interested in this music.

BMI, long having wanted to divest itself of the college catalog, put the Allen material up for bids.

Roskin Dist. Purchases Seaboard Dist., Park Label

HARTFORD, CONN. — Roskin Distributing, Hartford distributor which recently gave up its tie with the Columbia label, has just purchased outright the Seaboard Record Distributing Co., Inc. and Park Records, also Hartford. Seaboard had been an active distributor outlet in Hartford for a number of years and Park Records was an affiliated rack jobbing operation and one stop.

Marvin Ginsberg, who headed Seaboard, will continue to run it as a separate company under Roskin ownership. Ed Stein, head of Park, will continue to run Park Records under similar circumstances.

All lines formerly handled by Seaboard will continue to be distributed under the new set-up. Ginsberg announced that the new ownership will expand the operation immediately, increasing its two separate sales divisions with salesmen and separate promotion forces. Ginsberg expects the move will make Roskin's Seaboard the biggest indie distributor in the New England territory.

Among the labels handled by Seaboard are: Mercury, Dot, Atco, Atlantic, Liberty, Chess, Checker, Argo, Philips, Roulette, Disneyland and others.

Both Stein and Ginsberg had been with Seaboard and Park for the past 14 years.

New Dance Craze?

MIAMI BEACH—A fledgling young songwriter named Mike Cowan might be instrumental in making the twist passé. Cowan, a student at Beach High, and vet tunesmith Max C. Freedman have written a new dance-song tagged the Yoo-Hoo Spin.

It all started recently when Cowan, who is a part-time pianist with a local group, introduced the dance on a teen twist cruise boat on Biscayne Bay where the combo was performing. The dance, which is a combination of the twist, the mashed potato and other new-wave dances caught on like wildfire with the kids on board.

Cowan and Freedman have made a demo of the tune.

Ram's Ensign Label Inks Distrib Deal With Mercury

CHICAGO—Buck Ram, independent producer for Ensign Records has completed negotiations with Mercury Records to distribute all Ensign masters through Mercury and Smash distributors. The contract calls for a specific number of masters to be handled by Mercury but does not specifically designate that all must be released on the Ensign label. Ram dealt with Mercury topper Irving B. Green.

The first four masters have just been released by Mercury, which are The Vanguards' "Rear View Mirror" and "She Saw Me Crying" on the Ensign label and Ike Clanton's introduction on Mercury, "I'm Guilty Of Loving You" and "Sugar Plum."

While The Vanguards' release is handled exclusively by the Smash distributors under national sales supervision of Charlie Fach, Ike Clanton's releases will all be handled exclusively by the Mercury National sales and promotion heads, Kenny Myers and Howard Silvers through Mercury distributors. Additional future releases are now being prepared for Ram's Ensign artists—The Kampus Kids and Doug Sahm and it's expected that Ram will soon place masters on the Philips label.

At present, Ram is still recuperating on the west coast from his recent operation for removal of a spinal disk but plans several recording sessions before June 1.

Special meeting between Ram and his staff and the Mercury Staff will be held this week (22) in Chicago to discuss future recording plans as well as the development of the Ensign label.

Members include such names as Yaso Saijo, head of Japan Poetry's Society and also prexy of Japanese Society of Rights of authors and Composers, Tomojiro Ikeuchi (chairman of Japanese Composer's Union), Kyosuke Kami, chairman of Japanese Musician's Union, each representing copyrighter's side. On the scholar's end, Dr. Yoshihiko Kido, Masa'aki Katsumoto, professor at Senshu Univ. These and 23 other people had their initial get-together last week (16), to map out future recommendations to the Minister of Education. Revisions are expected both on Copyright Law (enacted in 1899) and Intermediary Business Regulation Concerning Copyrights (enacted in 1939). The most intensive effort should be concentrated on the radio's free use of recorded music materials and on the copyright duration. The use of music recorded materials on the air should bear no royalty payment whenever its source is revealed, according to Article 30—clause 8 of Copyright Law. Because of this strange requisition, most industry people call it "the worst thing among nations today."

BRAZIL

RCA Victor released this month a great number of albums and standard records. Among the albums, are "Whatever Julie Wants," with Julie London, who has been doing very well here with half a dozen LP's under the London label; "Os Grandes Sucessos De Carlos Galhardo," (Carlos Galhardo's Great Hits) with this veteran Brazilian singer, still one of the favorites, singing some old hits from the beginning of his career; and the first albums of two North American singers, almost completely unknown by the Brazilian public; Bobby Vee and Johnny Burnette. Among the standards, the most important releases are "I Believe," with Timi Yuro and Johnnie Ray; "Good Luck Charm," by Elvis Presley; "King Of Clowns" with Neil Sedaka; "Moon River" featuring Henry Mancini's Orchestra. As one can see, the international music appears in great majority, a consequence of the "fight" between the record companies and musicians, still in a deadlock, over wage increases.

Chubby Checker's fifth album has been released by Parkway's Brazilian representative, Fermata. It's called "It's Pony Time" and already appears on our charts.

As the month of June approaches, Brazilian composers have started to write special music for the Catholic festivities of St. Anthony, St. John and St. Peter. Continental Records released an album with Poly, one of our best guitar players, entitled "Quermesse Junina" (something like "June State Fair," in English), with 12 songs specially written for the occasion. RCA, too, waxed "Sao Joao Na Roça"—(St. John In The Country) with accordion player and singer Luiz Gonzaga. And many others will be released.

Mother's Day is another date which deserves special care from Brazilian authors. Several compositions have been waxed this year, but only one was strong enough to reach the charts: "Maezinha Querida—(Mother Dear)," waxed by Waldemar Roberto for the RGE label. The royalties go to charity.

Musidisc has just issued a big collection of albums in Brazil. They include "Connie Internation" with Connie Francis, including three American tunes done in Brazilian versions; "Guitarras Em Fogo (Guitars On Fire)" with Waelte Branco and his group playing 11 Brazilian sambas; "Metais Em Percussao" with Enoch Light and his Orchestra; "Doucement Mon Amour" with The Four Cadillacs; "S' Rhythm" with Claude Bernie (singer) and Don Edward (trumpet); for the Catholic Festivities of St. Anthony, St. John and St. Peter, Music has released "O Baile Da Fogueira" with Lyra Do Mestre Lula.

There are also four albums in Musidisc's Audiola Series. They are: "Orlando Silva Sempre Em Sucesso (Orlando Silva Always In Success)" with 12 old Brazilian hits; "O Notre Em Festa (The North's Party)" with Manoelito Sena, rhythm & voices; "No Forro Do Raymundinho" with Raymundinho and his harmonica; "Alegria No Galpao" with Trio Gaucho & Celinho.

ENGLAND

The most exciting news of the week was the recent standing of Mr. Acker Bilk at the top of the American charts with "Stranger On The Shore." It is interesting to note, in the light of the Cash Box lead editorial for week ending May 12, that "Stranger On The Shore" is the product of a British independent producer Denis Preston of Record Supervision Ltd. who's highly successful Lansdowne Jazz Series is issued in Britain by EMI on the Columbia label. In Britain, as in America, the trend is for increased activity on the part of indie producers. Pioneer and leader in this field, Preston is completely independent with his own recording studios and during the past four years he has enjoyed considerable chart success with such artists as Acker Bilk, Lonnie Donegan, Chris Barber, Mike Preston, Terry Lightfoot, Johnny Duncan, Laurie Johnson, Humphrey Lyttelton etc.

EMI Records Ltd. will launch a new label. Appropriately named Stateside, it will feature pop, jazz, country, rhythm & blues and possibly comedy material acquired from many independent American manufacturers. Classical releases are not anticipated at the moment. Stateside will be issued internationally. First single releases scheduled for June 15. EP's and LP's will follow.

After a 14-month absence from the recording studios, hit songwriter Jerry Lordan has waxed one of his own compositions "One Good Solid 24-Carat Reason," which is issued on the Parlophone label and published by Francis Day & Hunter. Jerry's "Wonderful Land" recorded by The Shadows is currently a smash on the British charts.

The George Cooper Organization announce plans for a four-week tour by Bruce Channel commencing June 4. Also on the bill Dick Charlesworth, Johnny Kidd and The Pirates, Jackie Lynn and The Allisons. "No. 1 Man" is released as a follow-up to Bruce's big Mercury smash "Hey Baby." Many TV and radio dates have been lined up for his visit. Pye also issued a release by Bruce Channel entitled "Run, Romance, Run."

Lionel Bart's new £100,000 musical "Blitz" opened to a rave press. With a box office advance of £70,000, the show looks like it will outrun his other West End success, "Oliver," now in its third year and destined for Broadway in the fall.

Visitor in London recently was Sammy Davis, Jr., who stopped off to attend a charity show of "Blitz." Sammy who was en route for New York met the press at a reception hosted by Pye Records, which released his latest single, "Someone Nice Like You" b/w "Once In A Lifetime," from "Stop The World."

First releases in the new low-priced "Celebrity" series issued by Jeff Kruger of Ember Records International include disks by The Platters, Billy Eckstein, Jonah Jones, Woody Herman, Tony Kinsey Quintet, Tony Crombie Quintet, Clyde McPhatter and Jackie Wilson. Kruger, with his eye on the juke box market, also plans to forge ahead with his rack jobbing project for the sale of Ember disks alongside non-allied products in chain stores, chemists, etc.

The Brook Brothers latest release on Pye, "Just Another Fool," penned by duo King and Goffin, composers of "When My Little Girl Is Smiling" currently in the British charts by Jimmy Justice on Pye and Craig Douglas on Top Rank. The original by The Drifters on London hasn't clicked here.

Top TV themes continue to give a flip to disk sales. Three new themes just hit the counters. From the BBC's "Rag Trade" comes "Rag Trade Rag" coupled with "Sid's Tune" from "Citizen James" by Gordon Franks and his Orchestra on Parlophone. Pye's exponent of the theme Tony Hatch (Perry Mason, Ben Casey) now waxes the theme from "The Naked City."

Britain's Danny Williams currently in the charts with "The Wonderful World Of The Young" has been booked to appear in ATV's "Sunday Night At The London Palladium" headlined by Dorothy (Roaring Twenties) Provine on June 3.

Philips Records held a press reception for jazz pianist Earl Garner at Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club this week. Garner makes his debut at the Royal Festival Hall on May 26 and follows with a two-week nation wide tour. Philips issued an LP, "Close Up In Swing," and a single, "You Do Something To Me," coincidental with the visit.

Michael Reine Music publish the latest Joe Brown platter, "A Picture Of You," issued on Piccadilly. Joe's last disk, "What A Crazy World We're Living In," penned by singer-composer Alan Klein and published by Pan Music notched up over 100,000 sales. Meantime 21-year-old Klein's first musical has been accepted for production at London's Theatre Workshop, Stratford—birthplace of many successful shows including Lionel Bart's "Fings Aint Wot They Used T'be" and "Make Me An Offer" by Monty Norman and David Henneker.

From the Noel Coward musical, "Sail Away," due at The Savoy Theatre shortly, Capitol issued two LP's. One, a vocal by the composer with the Peter Matz Orchestra and an orchestral version by Ted Straeter and his Society Dance Orchestra.

Bob Kingston of Southern Music on the move with two fast climbing hits, John Leyton's "Lonely City" (HMV) and "Come Outside" by Mike Sarne (Parlophone). Hopes are also high for "The River's Run Dry" by Vince Hill (Piccadilly) composed by Johnny Worth with backing by Johnny Keating.

American entertainer Lisa Kirk follows Eartha Kitt at Bernard Delfont's "Talk Of The Town" commencing May 21. EMI Records plans a June 1 release of a single by Lisa, "I'm Sitting On Top Of The World," issued on the MGM label.

Dorothy Squires and Russ Conway who, on two previous disks, have combined their talents each have a separate release with their own compositions. Dorothy sings "Whoever" and Conway plays "Concerto For Dreamers," both issued by Columbia.

A highlight of the latest Golden Guinea release is "Honey Hit Parade." This disk features artists from the Pye series of labels who have appeared on the popular Radio Luxembourg show of the same name. These include Petula Clark, Kenny Ball, James Darren, Lonnie Donegan, Clarence 'Frogman' Henry, The Brooks Brothers, etc.

Two new disks from Warner Bros. The latest Everly Brothers waxing, "How Can I Meet Her," and "Quando, Quando, Quando" by Gianni Fallabrino.

Rory Blackwell is to take part in the "Festival Of Twist" in Italy in June and the singer has been booked for a tour of Israel at the beginning of 1962.

Roy Castle, who received wide acclaim in America recently, will be returning to the States in July to film for American TV.

Pye recording artist Joan Regan has waxed a cover version of "Most People Get Married." Original staeside charter by Patti Page is released on Mercury and published by Famous-Chappell.

Latest Liberty single is Walter Brennan's "Old River." The Shirelles recording of "Soldier Boy" from the American charts is issued here on HMV. On Capitol Frank Sinatra sings a couple of oldies, "I'll Remember April" b/w "Five Minutes More."

ARGENTINA

Mina, the well known Italian songstress, has been the "visitor of the week" in Buenos Aires. Philips, her diskery, offered her a cocktail party to which the press and disk jockeys were invited. The lark spent five days in Buenos Aires, recording four TV programs on video tape, and afterwards went to Montevideo, Uruguay, and Brazil.

Another important visitor is Mrs. Ralph S. Peer, of Southern Music, who came with other members of the pubbery to visit Edami, their representative in Argentina, as part of a continental trip. Mrs. Peer will stay here for some days.

Julio Korn publishers announced that it will soon open offices in Italy. The firm will be titled "Sudamerica Musica," and will probably be administered by Sugar Music of that country. Besides, JK has already the blueprints of a new ten story building in Buenos Aires, which will stay besides its current location. All the offices will move to the new house when it is built.

Music Hall Records announced it inked Miguel Amador (Argentine singer now in France) and Andy Russell, who has started a show on TV 7 with good success. Both will start recording soon. The diskery is working on "El Casamiento" and "La Cuadrera," two nice humored tunes sung by Rodolfo Zapata, the author of "La Gorda." Regarding his work in Music Hall, Luis Calvo, who was appointed sales manager a few weeks ago, told Cash Box that "I am very thankful to all the radio people, retailers and artists, who have cooperated a lot in this work of turning Music Hall Records into a powerful company."

Jose A. Rota, A&R of Odeon Pops, Capitol and Decca reported to Cash Box that Industrias Electricas y Musicales Odeon, his company, has arranged the representation of Liberty Records in Argentina. Rota believes that Timi Yuro, Julie London, and Johnny Burnette may become big stars in Argentina soon. His plans are to release immediately "Hurt" and "Smile" by Timi, and other singles by Johnny and Julie, and to include some tunes by them in the third volume of the "Favulozo" series, which would mean big promotion for them. There is also a plan for bringing these artists to Argentina, to promote their waxings.

Michael Davis of Ariel Records has just returned from a trip to the city of Rosario. He visited the record stores and radio stations there studying the record scene. Ariel has two good hits, which are still increasing their force: "Loveland" by Paul Anka, and "The Night I Cried" by Brian Hyland.

Fermata Publishers planning the promotion for "Adios, My Love," a new tune, recently inked by the organization. Regarding "En La Cruz De Tu Mano," the pubbery informed that Raul Sagan has cut the tune for RCA, sung in Spanish, b/w by "Cariño Mio," leit motif of the Spanish picture of the same title. Fermata has also contracted "The Night I Cried," the Brian Hyland hit, and the old standard "Cantina," originally copyrighted by Shapiro, Bernstein.

Disc Jockey Records entering the pop-hit field with the recording done by Juan Ramon, a new teenage singer recently inked by the label. Ramon will cut in Spanish the biggest Anka and Sedaka hits. His first recordings are "Feliz Cumpleaños, Dulces Dieciseis," "Sigue Bailando Muchachita" (Dance On, Little Girl) and "Popotitos," all of them hits. In general, the tendency of Disc Jockey has been to build a catalog, instead of trying to hit the single market.

Smart Publishers working on "Cuando, Cuando, Cuando," the San Remo Festival hit which seems to become a world-wide hit. Hector Cabrera, for RCA, Tullio Gallo for Philips and Los Santos for Music Hall have cut the song, which is receiving wide promotion.

Music Hall records will probably release in Buenos Aires part of the Sono Radio (Peru) catalog. Although Sono Radio is represented in Argentina by Columbia, its records may be released by other companies because of a recent arrangement. Its most interesting albums are LP's by Jesus Vasquez, Luisin Landaez, a tropical music album by Enrique Lynch and an LP by Sonora Sensacion.

Enrique Iriberry of Surco Industrias Musicales is very happy with the sales of "Multiplication," the Bobby Darin tune that is becoming a big chart rider. Promotion of Surco (who represents United Artists, Atlantic and other labels) has jumped to a very high point since the appointment of Maria Elena Cattonar as promotion chief. Previously, Maria Elana worked for Music Hall.

More about Surco: May is Ferrante & Teicher's month; Their representative has released two of their LP's at the same time: "Pianos Latinos" and "West Side Story." This month, promotion is emphasized on these items.

Producciones Fermata has sent inspectors to several provinces to look after sales and promotion of its records, and to plug Fermata's two latest albums, "For Twisters Only" and "International Pop." Another LP to be released in a few days is Chubby Checker's second album, "I Am The Twist." Mauricio Brenner of Fermata informed Cash Box that the "International Pop" LP has been very well received by Buenos Aires' deejays.

News From Philips: Latest releases are "Guitarras Magicas," double 45 featuring Las Guitarras del Diablo and Ladi Geisleir and the Heinz Alisch group, "Skindo," cut by the Conjunto Maracangalha, and Zambas Para Ti, with danced-styled folk music cut by Andre y su Conjunto. In the singles field, there are "Cuando, Cuando, Cuando" by Las Cuatro Plumas, "La Balada De Trompeta" by Gasparin, and "Pecadora" by Fetiche, Peruvian songstress currently in Argentina.

Philips has arranged the foreign distribution of Erroll Garner's records, sold in the U.S. through ABC-Paramount. Thus, soon Garner's waxings will soon be available again in Argentina.

Los Cinco Latinos are now completing their first tango music LP, which is expected to sell very well. Some of the titles are "Mi Buenos Aires Querido," "El Dia Que Me Quieras," "Una," "Yira Yira," "Silencio" and "La Cumparsita." All these are tango standards, which haven't lost strength since they appeared. Columbia will release this LP in a couple of months.

More about Columbia: the company is launching a new singer, Dumont. His first single will be "Caprichosa." Besides, the label will release a new single by Liza Fontan, whose "Tanto Control" has sold well. The new tune will be "Asi Me Gusta Mas."

Julio Korn publishers acquired the world rights to the entire Carlos Gardel tango music catalog, of big importance. This line was previously handled by Southern Music.

Good news for Pat Henry, the Chilean teen singer. Odeon Pops will release his "Johnny Remember Me" (cut in English in Chile) and expects to sell it a lot. The tune is a good hit-to-be, in the style of "And The Heavens Cried," and may sell as well as that smash did. A Tony Vilar (Columbia) version in Spanish is also expected.

Columbia Records informed Cash Box that its LP sales in April were 100% higher than April 1961. The diskery considers that one of the main reasons for this success is that Columbia has unified its sales organization with Orfeo's. For the first time, single 33's sales occupy more than 50% of total sales, showing the loss of interest in 78 rpm records.

AUSTRALIA

Local star Frankie Davidson looks like hitting the high spots across the nation with his W&G single of "Have You Ever Been To See King's Cross?" Frank recently performed the song on the Johnny O'Keefe show on national television and Woomeera Music is now out with the sheet copy of the number.

Chappell & Co., one of the major publishing houses, has advised the trade that records of the music from the Broadway show "Gypsy" may be released on June 28. Many disks of songs from this show are sure to be issued and it will be interesting to see if songs like "Small World," "Everything's Coming Up Roses" and "Let Me Entertain You" can reach chart standard in Australia.

The hour-long "Victor Borge Show" reported to be one of the most expensive in Australian television history, was shown recently on a vast network of commercial stations. The show was taped during Borge's recent concert tour of this country and a lot of the material he presented was similar to that on his disks. The show should result in a sales increase of Borge's albums.

It is expected that American pianist George Greeley who visited Australia last year for "Revue '61" will do a return season soon for "Revue '62."

Popular singing star Johnny O'Connor had a lucky escape from death when his neck was broken in a surfing accident. Johnny is one of the leading stars in the "Mobil-Limb Show," which is a national television series. Johnny's many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

EMI of Australia recently launched its English range of Phase 4 albums. To introduce the line, EMI held special functions in major sales areas for leading dealers and trade affiliates. The initial release of Phase 4 stereo and mono packages consists of "Pass In Review" by Bob Sharples; "Big Band Percussion" by Ted Heath; "Bongos Of The South" by Edmundo Ros; "Exotic Percussion" by Stanley Black; "Percussive Moods" by Johnny Keating; "The Percussive Twenties" by Eric Rogers; "Melody And Percussion" by Ronnie Aldrich; "Percussion In The Sky" by Werner Muller; "Percussive Oompah" by Rudi Bohn; "Percussion Around The World" and "Twelve Star Percussion" both by International Pop All Stars and "Percussive Latin Trio" by Los Machucambos. The EMI boys report outstanding trade interest in the Phase 4 material and predict great public response to the range. This release will be accompanied by special dealer displays and promotion of the entire 12 albums.

Col Joye has some solid competition in the "Today's Teardrops" stakes from Rickv Nelson, whose version has been released here by London, on the reverse of "Mad Mad World." Both versions of "Today's Teardrops" are receiving fine airplay and sales of both are starting to show out strongly.

English artist Karl Denver, who hit the high spots here with his single of "Wimoweh," has a newie out on Decca which couples "Never Goodbye" with "Highland Fling." Another EMI single making good headway is "Dear One" by Larry Finegan which is on the London label.

Jack Argent of the Leeds group is tickled pink over his current batch of hits which include "Si Señor," "The Lady Wants To Twist," "How Can I Meet Her," "Conscience," "Lovers Who Wander," "Number One Man," "She Cried" and "King Of Clowns."

Looks as though the new Warner Bros. folk group Peter, Paul and Mary are set for a debut break-through with their single of "Lemon Tree." The disk is released here through the Australian Record Company. ARC are also doing good business with The Highwaymen's UA release of "Whisky In The Jar" and the Coronet single which brings TV star George Maharis with his great revival of "Teach Me Tonight."

Col Joye's instrumental group The Joy Boys have an unusual and interesting album out on the Festival label entitled "New Old Time." It brings some of the old-time dances up to date with a rock beat. The dances featured are Gypsy Tap Rock, Barn Dance Rock and Cakewalk Rock.

BENELUX

HOLLAND

This month Delta opens its completely rebuilt offices at the Korte Prinsengracht, one of the most picturesque of the Amsterdam canals. At the celebration, Mr. Hans I. Kellerman announced a new set of artists contracted for Delta: The Black Arrows, Les Deux Jeateux, The Royal Teens, and "The Unknown Sailor." The last debuted for Delta with a fast-selling "Havencasanova." The Black Arrows started their record career with a dynamic rock-version of the Old Spanish song, "Una Aventura Mas" under the title of "The Big Adventure," coupled with "Ballad Of A Soldier."

As top seller out of the Delta house Kellerman mentioned "Itty Bitty Pieces" by James Ray under Smash label, Barbara George's "You Talk About Love" (also Smash), Bon Lons' "Hey Baby" and Durium's "Quando, Quando, Quando" by Marino Marini.

One of the best selling vocal groups in Holland, The Fouryo's, made a very fine Dutch version of "Good Luck Charm" (Talisman) and "Soldier Boy" on the Decca label. Both songs are controlled by Belinda (Amsterdam) N.V. Elbert van Zoeren, of Belinda (Amsterdam) N.V. told Cash Box that this month The Blue Diamonds are expected to get their golden record for their big success "Little Ship" on Decca label.

First swinging single of the Marinierskapel (Band Of The Royal Netherlands Navy) has "St. Louis Blues March" and "When The Saints Go Marching In," on Philips (L. C. Phonogram) and is meeting with great success.

Hit singer Johnny Hoes, still in great demand with "Och Was Ik Maar," has a great follow-up with "Daar Mag Je Alleen Maar Naar Kijken" on Fontana (L. C. Phonogram), the label's best selling record at this moment.

The Concertgebouw Orchestra, with their conductors Eugen Jochum and Bernard Haitink, has returned from their very successful Japanese tour.

A couple of days before his successful concert at the Concertgebouw, Amsterdam, Erroll Garner had a roundtrip through the canals of the Dutch capital, with officials of press, radio and L.C. Phonogram.

EP "Dutch Swing College Oldies" is the first one of this international known trad band with 'historic recordings.' "That's A Plenty," "Tin Roof Blues," "Royal Garden Blues" and "Fidgety Feet" were recorded way back on January 24, 1950.

Peter and his Rockets have their first record in English out. Leader Peter Koelewijn sings "Yeah Man Twist" and his own "The Kangaroo" (Decca).

Capitol, headed by Bovema's Gerry Oord, last week surprised its regular buyers with Joe and Judy's big hit "Don't Want To Be Another Good Luck Charm."

The first copy of the inaugural His Master's Voice-LP featuring the Noordhollands Philharmonisch Orkest under the direction of Henri Arends was offered to Haarlem's Mayor by Bovema's president, Gerry Oord Jr., during a well-attended reception at the Town-Hall. The Orchestra plays Norwegian and Hungarian Dances by Grieg and Brahms. Three singles from the LP have been released in Bovema's "Muzikale Miniaturen"—series at the same time.

Bovema's Imperial-label manager Mr. Heeremans told the Cash Box that new releases are Slim Whitman's "Yesterday's Love" and Little Willie John's "Katanga."

Columbia's top star Helen Shapiro will come to Holland and give her first concert in this country during the well known Blokker-teenager-festival on this year's Ascension day.

From John James Vis' Artone desk in Haarlem, comes word that recording-artist Willy Schobben will be presented his gold platter of "Mexico" this month. His name already appears for 22 consecutive weeks on the Dutch Best Sellers. In 5 months 100,000 copies were sold of this outstanding "Mexico" version. Meanwhile "Happy José" by Willy Schobben is still a strong follow-up on "Mexico" and also his most recent outing, "Auf Wiedersehen Marlene," is enjoying much action.

Paul Visser of Artone publicity & promotion reported that "Let Me In" by The Sensations, an Argo master released by Artone's Funckler dept., is breaking wide open all across the country. Platter is getting much airplay from the jocks and has been given quite a press-covering in the Benelux territory.

Pete Felleman, head of Artone's Funckler Dept. items that Sue Thompson's "Norman," currently skyrocketing up all Benelux charts, will be followed soon by her release "Two Of A Kind." The Top 100 side is paired with "It Has To Be," another strong selection from the available Thompson tracks. From the same Hickory catalog Funckler issued a C & W-deck by Margie Bowes, "Judge Not" c/w "Are You Teasing Me," which, according to Felleman, is held as one of the most important releases in the country-field this month.

Artone's international line has been extended with the new releases of local recordings. Clarinet-ace Billy Longstreet, backed by a large string ensemble, plays remarkable instrumental versions of "Maria" from the "West Side Story" and current Top-100-rider "Stranger On The Shore." Furthermore, Artone presented new r'n'r group on record, tagged The Giants. They serve up a strong rhythmical version of the Dutch-South African ditty "Sarie Marijs," and an own chart, due to the recent Karl May-upheaval appropriately called "Winnetou."

The number of 12 "Funckler Jazz LP's" culled from the Chess Brothers' Aristocrat catalog was increased to 10 early this month thru the release of "Ahmad Jamal At The Pershing." Albums are distributed in Benelux, Western Germany, Austria and Switzerland and several items have proved to be consistent sellers.

Future releases will include "Music From The Soil" by the Ramsey Lewis Trio., Benny Golson: "From Solo To Tentet" and "Ahmad Jamal At The Alhambra."

Out in the U.S. on the Argo label, Felleman expects good local and export bizz for all three sets, with the only live date recorded at Jamal's now defunct "Alhambra" nitery a sure shot.

Among the new releases of S. A. Gramophone are two singles by Richard Anthony on the Columbia label: "Avant," "Cri De Ma Vie" (Dream Baby) and "Delivre-Moi" (Unchain My Heart), "Tu As Pu Me Quitter." S. A. Gramophone is expecting a lot from Helen Shapiro's new recording "Will You Love Me Tomorrow"/"Sweet Nothin's" (Columbia). There is also an EP by a newcomer in the twist-family, Georgie Dann, a young Frenchman singing his own compositions: "Tu As Mal Lavé Ton Ciel"/"T'as Perdu Ton Coeur"/"Quelle Blague"/"Guadalina." Dann's record label is Pathé.

Best-sold singles of Fonior during the month of April were: 1. "Oh! La La Louise" by Eric Genty; 2. "Dream Baby" by Roy Orbison; 3. "Mexico" by Bob Moore; 4. "Alleluia" by Charles Aznavour; 5. "Oek 'Ndana" by The Strangers. Best sold EP was "Madeleine" by Jacques Brel, best sold LP "Les Bourgeois," also by Jacques Brel.

Conny Froboess, now topping all charts with "Zwei Kleine Italiener," recently on tour in Belgium with the Frank Greven Orchestra and Frankie "Liebestraum Twist" Sands. Both hitmakers scored big success on stage.

Philips reported high sales of "Premier Amour" (Isabelle Aubret) and "Manneke Twist" (The Jokers). Jo Leemans' new German record is "Die Wege Der Liebe" c/w "Eine Rose Aus Santa Monica." They just returned from Hamburg, where she sang both numbers on television. Philips also first on the market with their Sandy Ford interpretation of "Mashed Potatoes," this title to become an overnight smash. Ronnex Records rushed out the Ronny Clay record and also the original "Mashed Potatoes," by Joey Dee, has been released.

Class Music reports nice reactions on its two tunes "Caterina" and "Margarita." First title, by Perry Como, is proving to be a forthcoming hit with covers, in Dutch language, by Swiss star Vico Torriani and a new one by Flemish top recording artist Bobbejaan Schoepen. "Margarita," the Jack Ross record, also expected to become a smash. Bob Horny, on Philips, has a nice cover. Both "Caterina" and "Margarita" are on their way up, in Benelux as well as in Germany.

Willy van de Sompel, who received no points at all at the "Ontdek de Ster" competition of the Flemish television station, one week later won, with "Cinderella," the "Grote Variété Prijs 1962," sponsored by Volkswagen. The 17-year-old vocalist has been offered a tour of Venezuela in August and September.

Italian Singers At Cash Box

CANADA

Something rather unique in the world of wax reached Cash Box here with the compliments of London's Gilles Aubin. It is the first actual "two-sided" album that has come to our attention. "Two sided" in the sense that there is but one artist, but she sings one side in English, the flip side in French. Moreover this Venus album release sports two entirely different covers, one printed in English—"The Two Sides Of Iris Robin," the other en Francais—"Les Deux Aspects De Iris Robin." The double bit is carried even further with two sets of liner notes, again bi-lingual. The thrush is a Montrealer, with showbiz experience that includes appearances in such leading night spots as Chary's in Miami Beach. Liner notes claim that Miss Robin, who appears on the disks, as in the personals with her own group, was influenced in her style and presentation by Buddy Greco and his group. London is handling the distribution of this truly "two-sided" offering on the Venus Label.

Paul White and Whitey Haines of Capitol in Toronto checked in recently with some interesting items. The firm is very happy about the acceptance throughout the country of its "6000" series of albums and "72000" series of singles. The two series are available to Capitol of Canada, Ltd., through its affiliation with EMI of England. Top selling LP's introduced by Capitol through the "6000" series included a collection of the great hits of Freddy Gardner and a new LP by Matt Monro. Highlighting the "72000" singles was the Charlie Drake item, "My Boomerang Won't Come Back." According to Paul, the debut albums of Vic Damone, and his single "No Strings" are among the label's best sellers at this writing. Paul informs that the original-cast album of the new Richard Rodgers B'way smash is far and away the best selling item of its kind currently at Capitol.

Astral's Stan Kees informs Cash Box that his firm is now releasing in the U.S., out of Nashville. Stan says that it is the hope of Astral that this will shortly enable them to release Canadian records simultaneously on both sides of the border. Stan mentions new releases by Ray Adams, "Violetta," "My Friend The Sea" by Petula Clark, and the current chart item—"Oh My Angel" by Bertha Tillman from Brent Records, as the current hot ones at Astral. Big push also being set for the latest by Kenny Ball, "Green Leaves Of Summer."

Russ Simpson has taken over the 6:30 to 9:00 PM time slot on Toronto's CKEY. Russ reports that the RCA reception for Harry Belafonte during his recent Toronto visit was—"a blast." In attendance was Mirian Makeba, who appeared with Belafonte at the O'Keefe Centre. Russ squelches rumors that his return to radio in Western Canada is imminent.

Charming Millie Moriak, CHUM—Toronto's "Girl Everyday" reports that "Holiday With CHUM," the popular summer road and home music feature returned to the station the weekend of May 18. As in the past, it will be heard from 4 PM Fridays to Midnight Sundays, inclusive.

Toronto recently was treated to a musical salute to Richard Rodgers and the late Oscar Hammerstein II, as members of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra and well-known vocalists performed many of the works of the team at the O'Keefe Centre. Chappel and Co., Ltd., the publishers, has its hands full with all the exposure Richard Rodgers' music is getting of late in this country, with soundtrack selections from "State Fair" and original cast numbers from "No Strings" heard frequently on Canadian Air waves.

Chuck Johnson, formerly of San Francisco and a CKGM personality for over a year, will be named by the station as the replacement for the departing Gene Kirby in the 6 to 10 AM time slot.

Liam Mullan of Phonodisc, Montreal, predicting great things for the second album by young Robertino. Currently, a single from the new LP is breaking wide open in Ottawa, Montreal and points east. The disk is "Luna Rosa" and looks as if it will follow in the tracks of an earlier single by the youngster, "O Sole Mio." Liam reports tremendous reaction to the second controversial item by the Chad Mitchell Trio. "John Birch Society" is creating considerable comment pro and con, but most important, it's selling.

The Four Aces appeared at the Montreal area night spot, "Faisan Bleu" week of 5/7. Despite the lack of a major hit on disk of late, the group played to S.R.O. crowds, as they consistently do whenever they appear in Eastern Canada. Same week saw honky-tonk piano queen Del Wood entertaining at Montreal's La Salle Hotel. Mort Sahl scheduled for El Morocco, same city, May 11, cancelled at the last minute. Montreal-born comic Jackie Cahane replaced Sahl.

Harvey Glatt, head man of Treble Clef Productions in Ottawa, presented Joseph Cotton, Thomas Mitchell, Agnes Moorehead and Patricia Medina 5/10 in Ottawa in the production, "Prescription Murder." Glatt reports that negotiations are almost complete for appearances in the Capital by The Limelites, and shortly thereafter The Clancy Brothers.

Nashville attracts yet another young Canadian singer for a disk session. This time it will be 22 year old Montrealer Mark London. The sides are to be released on Chateau. He has been appearing in the leading night spots in Montreal for some time now as a singing emcee, and according to all reports is a polished entertainer.

A couple of items at the top of Al Allbutt's promo list over at Leeds Music currently are the Jimmy Soul release, "Twistin' Matilda" and two new sides by Carl Perkins, "Jumpin' The Blues" and "Hollywood City."

Montrealer Ben Kaye, the composer of a new opus just released in the U.S. on Maypole, sent along samples, "Stop The Wedding" by the Magid Triplets is a solid teen-type sound that could catch.

Peter Barth has left Folkways Distributors in Montreal to take up new sales duties with RCA Victor in the Montreal area.

Hottest item in the Phonodisc fold currently in both Toronto and Montreal is the new teen side by Babs Tino, "Too Late To Worry." Bill Fisher reports from Montreal that it is breaking wide open in Halifax, Montreal and Ottawa. Same story all across the country.

Toronto's Town Tavern headlined the Buddy De Franco group from May 7. De Franco's latest wax cut for Mercury put him under the wing of Quality's Stan Dorling during his Toronto stay. The Beau Marks, currently clicking loud and clear with "Clap Your Hands Once Again," on Quality, headed into their old stamping grounds for four weeks.—Toronto's Le Coq D'or. Manager there calls the boys, "the biggest drawing group in years."

In case anybody is wondering, the "orbiteer" mentioned in the title of Diane Brooks new RCA disk with Billy O'Connor and his group, is a new-type toy for the younger set. Apparently it is a scale model of the space vehicle designed to carry the U. S. astronaut on his journey. "Orbiteer Twist" by American-born Miss Brooks with Billy O'Connor is being counted on by the folks at BMI to develop into another "Hula Hoop Song," so says BMI man Ralph Harding. Ralph also reports that the Stu Phillips disk on Colpix has just been released in England. It is one of the hottest items on Bob Stanton's country music show over CKLW, Windsor-Detroit. (Cash Box—4/9)

May 14 marked the debut of a new London LP release that is getting top promotion across Canada. Highlight of this new series is the Mantovani LP "American Waltzes."

ITALY

Sir Joseph Lockwood, chairman of EMI, paid a visit to Milan May 14 and 15. A cocktail party at Hotel Continental feted the illustrious guest.

A new record line has been recently established in Rome under the name Sprint. On this label will appear the production by well known Italian trumpeter Nini Rosso, of "Trumpet's Ballad" fame, and Italian composer Pisano. It is said that Durium is the major shareholder of the newly formed company. The first release features "Evelyne" backed with "Quel Vagabondo (That Wanderer)," both penned by Pisano-Rosso and performed by Nini Rosso, accompanied by Pisano's ork.

Some months ago, Adriano Celentano decided not to renew with Walter Gurtler, his contract expiring April 30, and announced that he would have become an independent record producer and the name of his label would be Caramba. Celentano signed with Rifi Records a pact for the Italian distribution but—unfortunately—he failed to patent Caramba as the name of record label. Meanwhile, Walter Gurtler patented it as his own label. The result is that Celentano for several months built a publicity campaign on the name Caramba as his new record and now from the Gurtler's company are, under Caramba, the latest recordings the singer cut just before the end of his contract. This week's number two on the chart "Ciao Amore," in fact, is sold by Saar, Gurtler's company, under the Caramba label.

This week the Cash Box office in Milan had the pleasure of a visit of Tony Renis, author and original record interpreter of "Quando Quando (When When)," the song from the stage of San Remo that got dramatic success across Italy through the past months. The chanter was happy for the recent recordings of his tune cut by Pat Boone (just the flip of chart maker "Willing And Eager"), Caterina Valente, Jose Guardiola (Spain), Paul Kuhn (Columbia in Germany), Marcel Amont in Italian, Marino Marini (Durium) and a great many others. Of next publication is also the waxing by Willy Alberti, of "Marina" fame, is due. Renis announced two new waxings, "Un Tango Per Favore (A Tango, Please)" penned by himself, and the old Italian evergreen "Amor Amor Amor" (published by Southern Music). Renis also told us about seven flicks which he is starring in as singer. "A Tango Please" and "Quando Quando" are copyrighted by Ricordi. On his visit, Renis was accompanied by Bruno Pozza, export import manager of Ricordi (music publishing department).

Liberty's best selling releases: "Guitar Twist" backed by "Bumble Twist" by The Ventures and Timi Yuro's "Hurt" coupled with "Smile." Released last week was "Midnight In Moscow" backed with "Percolator Twist" by Earl Palmer.

"Quando Quando" by Tony Renis still selling (15th in this week's chart), along with up-coming "How Wonderful To Know" by Cliff Richard (13th). Following up this first success of Richard on our market is an EP titled "To My Italian Friend." Out also is a new LP by Frank Sinatra, who is due in Italy on May 24 and 25. The LP is from the Capitol label.

Alberto Carisch reports the news of a song festival in San Remo devoted to "coffee." Southern Music has two pieces to be presented: "Un Caffe" (penned by Soffici), sung by Cocki Mazzetti and "4 Chicchi Di Caffe" (penned by Malgoni), sung by Tony Renis. The festival is international.

RCA Italiana published a new 45 by Chet Baker featuring "Chetty's Lullaby" and "So Che Ti Perdero." Jimmy Fontana has cut his first disk on RCA. Nico Fidenco has sent his composition "Grazie Amore Mio (Thanks, Honey)" to Naples for the next song festival.

VCM's hit releases: Edith Piaf's "Le Gitan Et La Fille"; Gilbert Beaud's "Et Maintenant"; Ray Anthony's "Twist" and "Rock Around The Clock" backed by "Mexican Hat Twist."

Durium has taken over the Italian distribution of Carosello record production. Carosello is the name of the record department of the music publishing company Curci, which represents some outstanding foreign labels, as well.

SCANDINAVIA

DENMARK

Kurt Hviid-Mikkelsen, publicity man of SGA (Skandinavisk Grammophon AS—EMI in Denmark) told Cash Box the firm is expecting a lot from the British film "The Young Ones," which opens in Copenhagen this week 22). The record with the song with same title has been a real best-seller, and on May 8 SGA released "I'm Lookin' Out The Window," also with Cliff Richard on Columbia.

A. J. Poole, head of EMI in Denmark, now in London for a biz conference. Record prices of singles increased in Denmark recently. Four companies, EMI, NPA, RCA and Tono raised their prices from 7.75 to 8.50 Kroner. The other companies have not yet followed, but they are expected to do so later. The feeling among those who have not raised their prices is that when summer comes record sales will go down anyhow, and it might be better to wait until the new season starts in August-September.

The Circus Revue, an almost classical entertainment in Copenhagen at summertime, has several record artists as guests this year. EMI's Gitte will do a Cleopatra parody, the Sonet artist Grethe Soenck sings a song titled "Nei" (No). The popular instrumental group The Clifters and the vocal ensemble The Hi Fi Four are also contracted, among others.

Per Sørensen, publicity man of Dansk Grammofonpladeforlag, told Cash Box that Sonet has started a German record production at its Hamburg office. Sonet will also release some new instrumental and vocal groups, some of them maybe still to be considered as amateurs, but after having appeared in Copenhagen, they have become teen favorites, and might very well become top sellers on records. Best among these groups is The Rookeys, led by drummer Torben Sardorff, a group "which is really sensational," according to Sørensen. Their debut record, just released, includes "La Paloma" and "My Blue Heaven."

Knut Mörk, head of Mörks Musikforlag, just back from biz trip to Italy, Germany and Switzerland, where his Triola label is now being released. Excepting Scandinavia, there are Triola records also in the above mentioned countries and Austria and Belgium. In Italy, Triola has just released "Spazzacamino"/"No Ti Scortar Di Me" with Robertino, an Italian singer under exclusive contract to Mörks in Copenhagen.

Mercury was handled over to Nordisk Polyphon A/S in Denmark on May 1. Polyphon handles Philips in Denmark.

Now on the top in Denmark is the song "Walk On By" in a recording with the popular teenage group The Clifters on Philips. Also coming up very strong here is "Hawaii Tattoo" with The Waikikis on Palette, the latter on 6th spot this week. According to Per Sørensen of Dansk Grammofonpladeforlag, handling Palette in Denmark, this record was an immediate hit without any promotion or anything, people just started buying it and more and more records were sold for every day, something very unusual in record biz those days.

Russ Conway, the Columbia artists, just spent three days in Denmark, where he appeared in TV, among others. Also here for a TV show recently were Swedish EMI songstress Inger Berggren. On June 1, French Columbia singer Jacqueline Boyer arrives in Copenhagen for an engagement at the restaurant Kystens Perle.

FINLAND

After three days in Helsinki, I have learned that record people in Finland are, in general, more satisfied with the situation than their colleagues in the other Scandinavian countries. The sales figures might be considered very small, only one record has sold above 40,000 since 1945, and during the same period, only four Gold Disks has been presented to the artists, which happens when a record sold 30,000. Compared with music people in other Scandinavian countries, the Finns are usually very satisfied with radio and TV and the promotion their releases is given by those mediums. This can probably be explained by the fact that in Finland commercial and non-commercial TV work hand-in-hand. Finnish comments to all the noise around the commercial radio station, Radio Nord, in Sweden was that "we would regret if the Swedish government found a way to close this station, as it has done a lot to help the record sales also here in Finland."

Scandia-Musiikki Oy has just released the first record with Ann-Kristin, 17, a newcomer who they expect will be one of the top-selling names within a short time.

Henrik von Denffer, manager of Record Dept. at Siemens Sähkö-Oy, in Germany for biz talks.

Martti Piha, manager of record dept. at PSO (one half of EMI in Finland), told Cash Box that they have just found a new girl, Monika Aspelund, 16, from Vaasa, who they think is one of the most promising voices heard in a long time. She has just recorded the German tune "Zwei kleine Italiener" (in Finland "Tina ja Marina") on Parlophone.

Jaakko Borg of Oy Musiikki-Fazer to Stockholm for biz talks with Swedish music publishers. Osmo Ruukanen, A&R man at Fazer's, just returned from five weeks at the Continent, where he among others attended a Decca sales congress in London, met record people in Berlin and also visited Paris and Spain.

Hans Westerberg, sales manager of Oy R. E. Westerlund AB (one half of EMI), told Cash Box that there has been some reorganization at the company after the death of the president, Herman Sjöblom, a couple of month ago. New president is Robert Westerlund. Westerberg is sales director for all products handled by the company. The record division is managed by Rolf Kronquist. The publicity dept. is now being handled by Miss A. Tuomarila. Westerlund's doesn't have Jazzland and Riverside anymore, but has added Liberty to their stock recently.

SWEDEN

Swedish lyric writers seem to be using methods of their own, according to Bernt Baune of Gehrman's Publishing House. It seems as the methods are not always legal, but most of the publishers seem to prefer to take no action against them, as any legal step might cause plenty of troubles to record companies which sometimes are involved without knowing the circumstances.

It happens that a lyric writer "discovers" an old song, preferably American and preferably one which never made any noise at all when it was new. The writer makes a Swedish lyric, sometimes "tailor-made" for a certain artist. If the artist likes it, he approaches the record company with a "look here, what we've found, a real gold mine." The record company may like it too, and it makes a recording. However, before the record is released, every record must be reported to NCB in Copenhagen, collecting the mechanical licenses, and NCB is very interested in knowing the name of the Swedish publisher or a permission from the composer that a certain record company has been allowed to make the recording.

MEXICO

Sammy Davis Jr. was introduced to the Mexican press May 9 and started to perform the next day at the Señorial night club to a capacity audience. People were delighted with his show. It's possible that Sammy will appear once on TV. Mexican newspapermen asked Sammy if he would agree to do one performance to benefit to the Red Cross and he accepted immediately. Columbia Records, which represents Reprise in México, and Decca representative Gabriel Mendoza announced a big promotion for Sammy's records made for both labels.

Ignacio Morales, RCA's promotion chief, told Cash Box of the appearance of new artists on his label, including Corinna with "Dream" and "Where Are You," sung in Spanish and the Palito Ortega Twist team with "Escalofrios" and "María." Both artists promise to be smash hits for this company in the future. Ignacio also said that the famous trio Los Tres Ases, which just re-recorded Bobby Capó's song, "Triángulo," signed a contract to perform in Europe for 12 weeks.

X-E-W realized the first intercontinental bull fight broadcast from La Feria de San Isidro in Madrid. Pepe Alameda narrated all the incidents of this "corrida" to México.

Also from Spain is information that famous composer Augusto Algueró Jr., wrote a song specially for Mexico's most popular singer, Marco Antonio Muñoz. The name of this song is "Guitarra En La Noche" and all the arrangements for this song were cut on acetates by Marco Antonio for the RCA label.

After successful performances in San Francisco, New York and Chicago, Lucho Gatica will do the same thing in Miami, Florida. After that, Lucho will return to México and start new recordings and TV and theater engagements.

Bill Haley signed a contract with Continental Artística for representation in all his performances in Central and South America. Bill should be, by this time, working in Las Vegas with his Comets.

Rogelio Brambila was named president of AMPEM (association of promoters and publishers of México), formed by a dozen independent music publishers.

Musart Records is introducing a new singer under the name of Armando Amores, a young student who bows with "Flequitos" and "Pumas Twist." Radio stations are playing the "Flequitos" side. Another new Musart singer is blonde Lisa Rossell, who is a University student, has a nice voice and style and also plays the drums.

In the "First International Record Festival," in Mar de Plata, Argentina, Mexican artists like Cuco Sánchez, Millissa Sierra and Los Panchos, got prizes and trophies as best novelty singers, best children stories interpretations and honorable mention, respectively, for 1961. Cuco and Los Panchos are Columbia artists and Millissa is on RCA.

Popular conductor Juan García Medeles' new LP for the Peerless label named "Fiesta En Ritmo" is selling very well. A few years ago, Juan was one of the most popular orchestra conductors we had. Now, he is trying to return to that position.

"Lonely Moon" and "Everybody's Twisting" were translated into Spanish and recorded at Peerless Records by New Wave singer Jorge Barón with the original arrangements.

The "Frente A Frente" TV show has introduced popular singers like Enrique Guzmán (who's finishing his seventh LP at Columbia), Fabricio, Miguel Angel, Angélica María (only one recording and a smash hit), Corinna, Los Tribunos Combo and Loui and Nelly singers.

And talking about more new singers, there is Raúl Iriarte, who recorded at Peerless Records the old songs "Odiame," "Martha," "Ay, Ay, Ay, Ay," "Júrame," "Perjura" and "Adios" with Gonzalo Cervera's support.

SWEDEN (Continued)

At this time, the record company begins to realize that there is no publisher. However, more or less in cooperation with the lyric writer, it phones three or four publishers with the standard question: "Are you the publishers of the song so-a-and-so? We like it and should like to record it with. . . ." The publisher is always happy to get a recording with a top artist, and his standard reply is "I can't tell right now, but I will investigate and call you back."

After a cable across the Atlantic, the publisher has found out whom he shall contact for getting the Swedish publishing rights. And one day, a composer of a song he hardly remembers anything about, receives three or four cables from publishers in Sweden. Naturally, the composer takes the chance and hands over the song to the one offering most money.

When all this has been done, the publisher which got the song phones the record company and informs it that "I have the song, and I will get you a lyric as soon as possible." But at this time he is being informed that "well . . . we have a lyric here, very good, too, in fact we have already recorded it . . ." And it is here the problems start. The publisher has legal possibilities of stopping the release of this record, but on the other hand, it has cost the record company a lot of money to make it, and it is always worthwhile to have the most friendly relations with the record companies. . . . and that's when the lyric writer appears in the picture. He knows that the publisher is willing to do as much as possible to keep good contacts with the record company, and may ask for two or three times as much as he would be paid under normal circumstances.

At the end, the one who always loses on the affair is the publisher, particularly if the lyric is "tailor-made" for a certain artist. It might mean that no other artist will or can sing it, and that gives no money to the publisher.

"I have the feeling," Baune said, "that this is something more and more lyric writers seem to start. If there is no change, the whole thing might end up as a very serious problem."

Philips Record star Gerhard Wendland has been making records for many years, but his come-back recording of "Dance With Me In The Morning" which sold over 1 million records here was also the biggest record of his career. Gerhard was awarded the golden record on the ship Bremen when he returned here after making his first English speaking records. The song is so popular here, that a film is being made under the same name with Gerhard doing the singing honors. It is now being filmed in Vienna. Israel songstress Carmela Corren will also be in the film doing her big hit "Eine Rose Aus Santa Monica."

Michael Arends reports that his song "Hawaii Tattoo" from The Waikikis finished first in the Stuttgart Radio "Schlager Scala" show with 39% of all the votes from listeners.

At present the firm is pushing "Walk On By" sung by Rex Gildo, "Norman" from Dany Mann, "Midnight In Moscow" by Belina along with its 1/2 million chart topper "Zwei Kleine Italiener" by Conny. The firm has also released the Cash Box chart topper "Soldier Boy" by the Shirelles and has put out special "push" material to move the Helen Shapiro German waxing of her newest English hits "I Apologize" and "Tell Me What He Said." The record is getting great reaction on German radio stations.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"AND THEN SOME" (2:29) [Glad BMI—Day]

"BRICKS AND MORTAR" (2:23) [Glad BMI—Word]

SONNY BURNS (United Artists 461)

Sonny Burns, who clicked last time out with "Blue House Painted White," comes up with a powerful follow-up stanza to the recent hit with "And Then Some." The tune is a first-rate uptempo country tear-jerker with the songster turning in his expected professional job in the chanting department. In "Bricks And Mortar" Burns renders an attractive ballad with some pretty backing from a chorus. Wax should step out quickly.

"DOWN HOME" (2:03) [Lowery BMI—Reed]

"MELISSA" (2:16) [Athens BMI—Saussy]

CHET ATKINS (RCA Victor 8029)

Here's a hot instrumental item that should bring the spinners out in droves. In "Down Home" vet Nashville guitarist Chet Atkins offers an extremely listenable warm, blues opus marked by some first-rate accompaniment from the group. With "Melissa" the artist renders a soft acceptance.

"EVERYBODY BUT ME" (1:58) [Jat BMI—Harris]

"(I JUST SPENT) ANOTHER SLEEPLESS NIGHT" (2:37)

[Acuff-Rose BMI—Ashworth]

ERNEST ASHWORTH (Hickory 1170)

Ernest Ashworth, who has a pretty good track record so far, seems to have a logical candidate for chart honors with "Everybody But Me." The tune is first-rate pop-flavored uptempo swingin' opus which showcases the songster's clear, wide-range vocal talents. Watch teens come out for the deck. On the flip, "(I Just Spent) Another Sleepless Night," Ashworth reads slow-paced, shuffle-beat, self-penned weeper in the new-wave country tradition.

"HE AIN'T MY BUDDY NO MORE" (2:22) [Cedarwood BMI—Botkin]

"BLUE ROLLER RINK" (2:51) [Cedarwood BMI—Wilkin, Burch]

BILLY GRAMMER (Decca 31396)

Billy Grammer, who recently had a piece of the action of "Have A Drink On Me," could click real fast with "He Ain't My Buddy No More." The tune is a high-spirited, fast-moving opus all about the chanter's ex-pal. The side has a potent, hard-driving beat and some catchy lyrics. In "Blue Roller Rink" Grammer comes up with a pleasant, tender ballad with a warm pop-styled flavor. Eye the side for spinner acceptance.

Looks like Leroy Van Dyke has his third dual-market hit-maker in-a-row with "Dim Dark Corner" and "The Life You Offered Me" on Mercury. (See pop reviews.)

JOEY BROOKS (Columbia 42392)

(B+) "GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT" (2:15) [Spanka BMI—Thomas, Kasha] Newcomer Joey Brooks shows himself to be a promising talent with this attractive, pop-flavored ballad. The chanter has a deep, rich voice which carries him in good stead on the wax.

(B+) "I'LL BRING A RING FOR YOU" (2:30) [Dollar BMI—Brooks] Here's a happy, medium tempo opus which showcases Brook's sincere emotion-packed delivery. A natural for airplay.

BUCK OWENS (Starday 588)

(B+) "DOWN ON THE CORNER OF LOVE" (2:25) [Pamper BMI—Owens] On this Starday outing Buck Owens comes up with a top-drawer bluegrass-styled tear-jerker with enough good things in it to garner plenty of spins.

(B) "RIGHT AFTER THE DANCE" (2:17) [Pamper BMI—Owens] Here the songster belts out a lively happy opus with his expected professional delivery.

REM WALL (Wolverine 4797)

(B) "WHIPPERWILL" (3:06) [Downey BMI—Wall] Rem Wall is teamed up with the Green Valley Boys for this slow-paced, self-penned affair. The songster displays a sincere, emotion-packed vocal on the wax. Good item for jockeys.

(B) "HOPE SHE'S HURTIN'" (2:05) [Downey BMI—Wall] On this side Wall reads a familiar-sounding uptempo country lament.

GARY DEAN (Liberty 55455)

(B+) "THE RIGHT KIND OF LOVE" (2:27) [Central Songs BMI—Paxton] Here's top-rung bluegrass-flavored lament with the songster displaying a fine, rich voice with loads of country authority. The tune has a catchy uptempo melody which should make it a natural for dancing.

(B+) "OLD STANDBY" (2:26) [Central Songs BMI—Owen, Simpson] Easy listening dual-track tear-jerker with a popish instrumental support. Deejays should come out for this one in droves.

COUNTRY ROUND UP

The long-awaited Johnny Cash appearance at Carnegie Hall the other week was a little disappointing to the near-capacity crowd of country music fans that poured into the Gotham showplace. The highly touted Saul Holiff package was far from a let down. On the contrary, the audience was treated to a first-rate evening of country entertainment. With Johnny "Have Gun Will Travel" Westren professionally handling the hosting

Ritchie Johnson, who handles Earl Scott, reports exciting reaction to his boy's Kapp wax, "King To A Joker To A Clown," in the west and southwest.

"Have Faith In Me" by Wilma Lee & Stoney Cooper on Hickory, was the object of a special promo at Backwoods last week. The promotion effort was delayed until Stoney was fully recuperated and again stepped into the Opry spotlight. The chanter's chores, the first part of the program showcased the talents of such luminaries as Tompall & The Glaser Brothers, Gordon Terry, George Jones and Mother Maybelle & the Carter Family. Unfortunately, the second half of the show was not everything that could have been. Due to a mean throat condition, the star chanter's voice was not what the fans expected. It's remarkable that Johnny performed at all. But this great artist, true to the show biz tradition of the show must go on, gave his admirers the best performance that he could muster. Despite his hoarseness, Johnny stayed over an hour on the stage, against his doctor's orders, and held 'em glued to their chairs with his bag of songs and stories. A high point of the night was a surprise guest shot by Merle Kilgore. All in all, the show's attendance demonstrated as did the Opry program a while back, that country music is rapidly moving into the big leagues.

many friends were on hand to greet his return. The first tune Stoney offered was "Have Faith In Me." . . . The new Bill Dudley wax for Nashville Records, "Get Your Old Friend Off Your Mind," is from the winning pen of Bob Ferguson who wrote "Wings Of A Dove." Spinners needing copies should write Backwoods Music, Box 301, Nashville, Tenn.

Independent Gotham promoter Doris Cooney was recently presented a special award for helping to advance the cause of country music in and around New York. The presentation was made on the stage of Carnegie Hall at the big Johnny Cash show.

Buck Owens and his Buckaroos are quite busy these days with personal appearances. This week Curtis Artist's Productions has booked Buck and his boys for several key dates in the Lone Star state. The present plans call for the chanter to play dates in Corpus Christi, Houston, Dallas and Midland.

Bob Neal of Nashville's Wil-Helm Agency stopped by the office recently with the news that the talent stable had inked Slim Whitman to a new pact. Currently, the songster is riding the charts with "Valley Of Tears" on Imperial.

Slick Norris, who pushes country music out of Highlands, Texas, has deejay copies available of Webb Pierce's "Crazy Wild Desire" and "Take Time." Any spinner wanting a platter should write to Norris at P.O. Box 653.

NASHVILLE—Faron Young, who is currently hitting with "Three Days," recently guested on the Harveys-sponsored portion of the Grand Ole Opry. The photo also shows Lightning Chance picking the bass and Opry host T. Tommy Cutrer looking unhappy on the left. Harveys features the artists of different labels each week and runs a special on the stars singles or albums. Louis Buckley, vet coin machine and record man, will do all the buying for the new Harveys via his record shop.

Why are we advertising our 5-year-old phonograph when new 1962 SEEBURG DIRECTIONAL STEREO is making all the news? Because this 5-year-old Seeburg is still in great demand. Its rate of depreciation is the lowest in the industry. Its re-sale price is the highest among comparable models. Steady operator demand makes it hard to come by. These are some of the reasons—and really solid ones—why every operator's investment in Seeburg keeps on paying off.

Vending Reaches Another Milestone

The vending industry reached a new milestone last week when seventy-five representatives from a variety of America's largest corporations met under one roof in a common cause. The industrial giants were in quest of the answer to a question that has been within their minds ever since vending took its first giant step right after World War II—how can we fit into this business that promises to some day be a major extension of the retailing field? Two and one-half days later, the businessmen had their answer, and then some.

Whether or not the industrials will venture into vending is not of prime importance at this point, however. The fact remains that they came to listen and learn under the auspices of one of the top-ranking management associations in the land—the American Management Association, national business organization designed to help businessmen develop and share better methods of management, improving management skills and techniques. Ten years ago this meeting would not have been possible. It is to the credit of the entire vending industry that Automatic Merchandising was selected as an AMA topic for consideration by America's industry.

On hand to discuss the unique skills required to vend a product and a service successfully were highly qualified executives from the manufacturing, supply, operating, and trade press fields. The businessmen heard how vending—a $50 million business of some thirty years ago, rang up a $2.7 billion volume in 1961. They heard of those who let the vending bandwagon pass by without recognition, much to their regret. They heard of the failures and the highly successful ventures. They listened as the marketing structure of the vending industry was unfolded. They heard of the profits, and they were told of the losses. They heard of yesterday's inventions and tomorrow's promises, all accurately portrayed by knowing vending executives. They listened as speakers told of the industry's failure to conduct an extensive marketing research study, and they heard of the legislative victories scored annually by the vending industry's association, NAMA. They learned visually how Europe is miles ahead of this nation in one phase of vending, but years behind in another. They were told that the supplier must add greater support along product lines. Packagers were advised to spend more time studying the problem of this complex industry. And they were asked if there was anything else that the vending industry could do to help speed the day when the vast potential of automatic merchandising can finally be tapped.

Both sides of the panels benefited from these talks and workshops. There was a sincere effort made on both sides to help each other seek out the truth, the problems. Honesty prevailed in every respect. Possibly billions of tomorrow's industrial investment dollars were at stake. Congratulations to each vending executive who took part in constructing this accurate picture. And of course, a final farewell to the nation's businessmen who listened and learned. Their foresight is to be commended. But most of all, congratulations to the entire vending industry. For as we said earlier, it couldn't have happened ten years ago.

Moore Bribe Trial Opens As Testimony Is Presented

Accuse Judge, US Attorney Of Accepting Bribes

NEW YORK—The trial of Supreme Court Justice J. Vincent Keogh opened in New York's Federal Court on Monday, May 14, and testimony at week's end alleged that Keogh's brother Eugene, Democratic Congressman from Brooklyn was named as having interceded with a Federal Judge in 1961 in behalf of convicted Sandy Moore, former juke box distributor and operator in this area. The testimony was given in the trial of Keogh, former assistant U. S. Attorney Elliott Kahaner and Anthony (Tony Ducks) Corallo, a labor official with a previous conviction in a narcotics case. The men are charged with having conspired to obstruct justice. Keogh and Kahaner are accused of having accepted $35,000 in bribes in an attempt to obtain a suspended sentence for Moore. The witness who gave testimony linking the Congressman to the case is Doctor Robert Erdman, a surgeon. Erdman and Moore were indicted in the bribe case but received a severance of their trials when they agreed to testify for the Government. Moore is expected to be a Government witness. Special assistant to Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, William G. Hundley, was sent up from Washington to prosecute the case. Erdman has testified that money raised by Corallo was given to Judge Keogh and Kahaner to head off an indictment and then obtain a suspended sentence. Federal Judge Leo Rayfiel heard the case after learning that Moore had bragged of having the Judge "in my hip pocket" and sentenced him to three years. Examination of the witnesses had not been completed at press time. The case is being heard before Federal Judge Edward Weinfeld and a jury in Room 906 of the Federal Building in Foley Square, NYC.

Finland's Coin Imports Rise As Licenses Are Lifted

Discuss Organizing Operator Association

HELSINKI—The Cash Box Scandinavian correspondent has reported that the number of juke boxes in operation in Finland has grown to between 1000 and 1500, according to Hans Westerberg, sales manager of Oy R. E. Westerlund Ab. He told Cash Box that in the recent 12 months, the number of juke boxes and coin machines has increased, particularly since the Finnish government lifted the need for import licenses, some months ago. This does not, however, apply to all imports, and still many of them import their machines in pieces and have them put together at their factories here, it was said.

Westerlund's represents Seeburg machines in Finland, and only the latest and most modern types are being imported.

There is no Juke Box or Coin Machine Operators' Union in Finland, Westerberg said, but he would welcome such a Union and his company would very much like to join it if there were any formed.

Westerberg said that there is a good market in Finland for coin machines in general and juke boxes in particular, maybe because it is still something new in the country, and actually everybody is interested in them. Oy R. E. Westerlund Ab has placed their juke boxes preferably at petrol stations combined with quick bars at the main roads. There are always a lot of people coming and going, and they are good spots for such machines, Westerberg said.

Since Westerlund's also is a very active record company (one half of EMI in Finland, with among others the labels HMV, Capitol and Liberty), having their own juke boxes gives them a good opportunity to make their own records more known. However, "we always try to have records of all labels, particularly those appearing at the Top 20 lists," Westerberg said.

Expect 300 To Attend Westchester Banquet Tuesday, May 22

Columbia's Carol Sloane And Phil Foster Head Bill

YONKERS, N. Y.—Harold Rosenberg, chairman of the Westchester Operators Guild Annual Banquet and Dance has advised that a crowd of about 300 can be expected to attend the coin machine function on Tuesday, May 22, at the Tropical Acres Restaurant in Yonkers. As announced earlier, comedian Phil Foster, TV-night club celebrity, will headline the entertainment. At press time, Rosenberg notified the members that Columbia Records' Carol Sloane will appear and entertain the operators and their wives. The songstress is reportedly a new talent discovery to come out of the recent Newport Jazz Festival and sings in a jazz style rather than the pop vocal delivery of most commercial artists. The lark does a number—"Little Girl Blue"—without accompaniment of any kind and it is expected that should the room and the crowd at the Restaurant be conducive to this particular number, the record artist will be able to accommodate the guests with the song that brought her to the attention of jazz aficionados at Newport last July. A singing group, The Fantastic, are also scheduled to perform for the coinmen.

In addition to the line-up of talent, the Don Joseph Orchestra will appear to back the numbers, play while dinner is served, and to provide dance music during the remainder of the evening. As usual, Westchester speeches are held to an absolute minimum and the note for the evening is genuine cordiality and enjoyment. In addition to the many guests expected from New York and Connecticut, coinmen from upstate and from the Chicago factories were also expected to attend.

Management Men Hear Vending Execs Outline Pros and Cons Of Business; AMA Seminar Attracts 75 Top Firms With Vending Plans

NEW YORK—Seventy five officials from as many major corporations attended a two and one-half day seminar last week conducted under the auspices of the American Management Association and heard one dozen vending industry executives outline the past, the present, and attempt to predict the future of this business which currently is responsible for a $2.7 billion volume. The non-vending executives paid AMA $175.00 each for the privilege of hearing vending machine manufacturers, suppliers, and operators paint an accurate picture of an industry which has attracted the participation of many major food manufacturers and is under the surveillance of the nation's food, non-food, packaging, and retail firms who are not yet active in the vending business. The meeting was a success and of mutual benefit for all concerned. The seminar was held in the AMA Auditorium in New York's Astor Hotel, May 14-16.

Among the topics discussed in talks from the speaker's platform were "Automatic Merchandising Today," G. R. Schreiber, publisher of Vend Magazine; "What The Product Supplier Must Know," by I. H. 'Ike' Houston, vending veteran and Interstate Vending Corp. executive; "The Consumer's Image," by Tom Hungerford, NAMA executive director; "Foreign Markets," by Jack Low, Wittenborg's president; "Trends In Equipment," by Jack Burlington of The Vendo Company; "The Inadequacies of the Industry," were discussed by Vending Industries' proxy Jack Hopson, and "Resistance to Vending From Established Distribution Channels," by Ben Ginsberg, editor-publisher of American Automatic Merchandising. The topics of discussion also included take-home vending, private brands, 1970 views, current tests, past failures, non-food possibilities, and question and answer periods which led to other discussions pertinent to the vending industry. Workshops were conducted on Tuesday afternoon, with individuals dividing into specialized groups representing the oil industry, retail business, and packaging. The seminar was complete in every respect insofar as indoctrinating the non-vending representatives from an accelerated course held within the span of the limited time period of two and one-half days.

Probably the most talked about subjects were the future of take-home vending and the emphasis that should be placed on vending as an extension of retailing, rather than a competitor of retailing. The take-home facet interested the group from the standpoint of what has to be done to develop this phase of the future. Failures by giant retailers such as Grand Union, Macy's, and A&P were discussed with the general criticism of the major cause for failure being placed on the retailer himself for using what was termed inadequate equipment manufactured by firms not in the vending business, failure to properly service the various installations, and lack of foresight for using incompetent help, the wrong products, and little or no evidence of using the wealth of experience available directly from the vending industry. It was agreed that vending will use the retail brains when it makes the move into full-scale non-food merchandising. The future was spoken of as being in the hands of retailers and vendors, "a blend of the two industries."

I. H. HOUSTON
Co-Chairman

Another major point was made when suppliers were criticized for not using the advertising advantages of the thousands of machines now on location, and failure to recognize the vending machine as a valuable sampling device for the introduction of new products.

Schreiber, a co-chairman, explained the marketing structure of vending, stating that 6200 operating firms are staffed with 1-man operations and include publicly owned giants. He cited the failure by the tobacco jobber to recognize the potential of vending thirty years ago. Ginsberg accused the today's bottler of making the same mistake. Although many are the nation's largest vending operators, Ginsberg cited instances of bottlers condemning the business for infringing on bottling techniques—"they are doing in a machine what we do in our bottling plants."

The industrial representatives were told that 8 out of every ten operators "vend everything" today. Schreiber said that twelve of the largest operating firms in the nation account for 18% of the volume but this was questioned as being a conservative figure.

'Ike' Houston, former National Biscuit Co. executive, and recently elected a v.p. of Interstate Vending Corporation (see separate story) was a co-chairman of the seminar along with Schreiber. Houston outlined the vendibility of various products, discussed the history of the business, and talked about pricing. "If your product isn't vendible today—it might be tomorrow," said Houston. Houston also told the group that the supplier has failed to do any more than try to sell his brand. He asked for ideas from packagers, research engineers, and others selling to the industry. Houston also stressed the need for advertising and merchandising in support of the vended product at the point of sale. He cited a survey made by Nabisco which showed that the average operator's sales presentation to potential locations "is monotonous and dull."

A Columbia University student, A. Andreassen, who recently prepared a term paper on the vending industry which Schreiber told the audience reflected a deep knowledge of the take-home facet of the business also addressed the guests. The student outlined recent department store tests, cited a grocery machine which in his estimation is the only vending machine successfully vending grocery take-home items, and delivered a run-down on what each manufacturer has on the drawing board for tomorrow's market. Andreassen said that the take-home market "is not an application of retailing to vending" but "an application of vending to retailing." He stressed the harmful non-impulse character of take-home vending and suggested promotion, design and selection as a means whereby this characteristic can be overcome.

Hungerford, executive director of NAMA and long-time vending official, told the businessmen that there is a basic difference between coin-operated music and games, and automatic vending machines. "One receives profit from merchandise while the other makes its profit from amusement. The only similarity is that both are coin-operated," said Hungerford. He also outlined the status of many vending giants who are still small firms when compared with other American business firms. "However, they are now electing to executive position, marketing directors who will no doubt further the cause for improved publicity and public relations." He said that the image of the industry, while it once suffered from unfair publicity connecting it with racketeer elements, "has improved with the technological changes which have come about." When questioned about the possibility of racketeer influence in the vending business, by several in the audience, Hungerford and Schreiber cited the McClellan Committee report which lists those linked with the coin machine and vending businesses. Hungerford closed his talk with emphasis on NAMA's battle against discriminatory legislation, taxation and public health rulings.

One of the more colorful presentations was conducted by Wittenborg's Jack Low who outlined the course of vending in Europe, covering ten countries in one hour via a series of slides and photographs, depicting the status of vending in these countries. It was made apparent that while the Europeans, who have enjoyed full-line vending, storefront vending, and non-food vending for many years, are advanced in some areas of technique, the American side of the industry leads the way in merchandising techniques and rate of progress. The audience gained a concise picture of vending in Europe today from the much-traveled vending official.

Jack Burlington's talk, which mentioned Vendo's current 400 machine installation at the Seattle World's Fair, covered future plans of the company and the industry in general. He cited the possible use of credit-cards in place of coins, the Vendo Company's rack merchandiser and its unlimited ramifications displaying just one unit from the machine which is actually a coin-operated peg permitting the vending of merchandise sealed onto punched cards, and suggested that drug, hardware and general store locations would eventually be the area into which this type equipment expands. "Automatic merchandising is more than just a food and refreshment business," stated the Vendo exec.

Hopson, Vending Industries' president, accused the business of being "antiquated." He claimed that perhaps the day will come when the location will own equipment and the operator will be "merely a contract service company." He spurred the suppliers in the audience to "get into vending now."

Ginsberg, one of the speakers who addressed the group on its final day of the 3-day seminar, advanced the opinion that the operator of today's food and drink machines "just isn't interested in the non-food aspects of the business" and continued to say that perhaps those selling the non-food supplies to the industry "will have to look to the rack jobber or someone outside the industry" to place this equipment. "Then perhaps the operator will sit up and take notice." He outlined the ability of the industry to eliminate the middle man, specifically pointing to the direct purchase by the operators of the machines, the supplies (excepting cigarettes), owning the food service firms which supply the merchandise and, looking ahead, suggested that perhaps the vendor will set a pattern of buying direct thereby eliminating price and distribution problems evident in business today. On the expansion side of what is standard practice today, Ginsberg cited figures indicating that only 22% of the nation's workers buy coffee from machines, and of those locations equipped with vendors, "50% continue to go outside for their coffee."

Officials of AMA, upon completion of the seminar, were in general agreement with both the vending execs and the guests that the 3-day session was of definite value to all concerned and would no doubt lead to future discussions of vending by the nation's major industrial concerns.

Note: The American Management Association has one purpose—to help its members and other managers interested in self-improvement, develop and share together better methods of management. AMA is the world's largest professional management organization with 32,000 member-managers, representing nearly 3000 companies. This was the first time that Automatic Merchandising has been a subject of an AMA Seminar.

Houston Joins Interstate

I. H. (IKE) HOUSTON

CHICAGO—I. Hayne (Ike) Houston has been elected vice president in charge of corporate development of Interstate Vending Company, Chicago, effective May 15. The announcement was made last week by Ronald Wolff, president. Houston, a veteran of automatic merchandising, will be responsible for developing Interstate's diversified food and vending services in new markets across the country. He will be headquartered at Interstate's general offices in Chicago.

Houston joins Interstate Vending after five years with National Biscuit Company, New York. As Manager-Automatic Merchandising, he has directed sales of all Nab products for Nabisco, over-the-counter sales as well as vending machines.

As a past president (1953-55) of the National Automatic Merchandising Association, Houston has participated in many industry projects.

The new Interstate Vending Company officer helped pioneer cup drink vending machines with Spacarb, Inc., which he joined as a vice president in 1940. He became president of this Stamford, Connecticut, manufacturer and operator in 1947, and headed the Rowe-Spacarb Division of Automatic Canteen Company of America when that company absorbed Spacarb and Rowe in 1954. He joined Nabisco in 1957.

A graduate of Yale University and Harvard Business School, Houston served as a Lieutenant Commander in the U.S. Navy during World War II. During his four and one-half years of service he was aboard the USS Block Island, a hunter-killer carrier that was sunk in the Atlantic in May, 1944.

Houston lives at 111 Lambert Road, New Canaan, Conn.

Urban Names Katz Sales Mgr; Announces 'Kiddie Kolor Kartoons'

Machine Shows Complete Subject From Start To Finish

LOUISVILLE, KY.—Bernard Berman, vice-president of Urban Industries Inc., coin-operated movie machine manufacturers, announced last week the appointment of Charlie Katz, long time coin machine sales representative and well-known figure in the industry, to the post of national sales manager. Katz is expected to concentrate his sales efforts on the firm's 'Peek-A-Rama' machine which was introduced at the recent MOA Convention, and also on a new movie machine, designed for the kiddie market and announced to the trade for the first time last week. The kiddie machine is called 'Kiddie Kolor Kartoons' and is being manufactured in a smaller cabinet with other changes that set it apart from the 'Peek' machine. Separate merchandising programs have been set for the two machines and Katz will conduct the sales department from this point of view, with separate sales presentations, brochures and advertising programs for each machine.

Katz has spent a lifetime in the coin machine business representing many of the leading firms in the industry today. He left the Kiddieland Corporation just two months ago after spending approximately two years developing the sales channels for the firm's kiddie rides. Before that Katz was with Capitol Projectors Corp. where he was instrumental in the success of the Auto-Test machine, via store chains and safety council contacts.

Katz's reputation goes back to 1930 when the conman operated a route in the New York area. He started his sales career with Scientific Machine Corp. traveling the country appointing distributors for the Brooklyn coin machine firm. Alternating between self-employed sales assignments on a free-lance commission basis with coin machine manufacturers, Katz managed to serve Bally Manufacturing Company, the Buckley Music Company, the Drum Equipment Corporation, and The Bert Lane Company, where he established the respective lines with distributors across the country. Katz became interested in the Urban firm during the MOA Convention when he met long time friends Bernard and Robert Berman, who incidentally, were the kiddie ride customers of Katz on several of his aforementioned sales ventures.

The 'Kiddie Color Cartoons' machine features the Urban continuous film system also featured in the 'Peek' machine. 8mm color film is used, with three complete subjects on each film reel. The patron receives one complete subject, from start to finish. The next patron receives the following complete subject in line, and finally, the third and final subject, completely, before the film starts to repeat itself. The Berman Brothers, Bernard and Robert, emphasized this point to insure operators that patrons paid for and received a complete subject, "not part of one and the start of another." The continuous film system idea, incidentally, is being studied by major filmmakers since they have been unable to cope with this problem that evidently has been overcome by Urban engineers.

The subject matter for the films represents a cross-section of kiddie favorites including the tv-movie favorites. A catalog of films will be available for operator consumption this month. Each subject requires three minutes time to be completed. The machine is set for 10¢ play.

The Nat Bailen & Associates Advertising Inc. firm in Louisville has been retained by Urban Industries to handle the public relations, publicity, and sales promotion program. The Berman Brothers are best known in the trade for their B&B Amusements company which operates large-scale routes of music, games and cigarette machines in the midwest.

Both machines have withstood an extensive two-year test trial on Berman locations and have met with the requirements originally set by the firm.

UJA-Coin Donations Soar Past Halfway Mark As Littleford-Orleck Date Approaches

Victory Dinner Reservations Point To SRO At Plaza

NEW YORK—The 1962 UJA-Coin Machine Division drive took a giant step forward last week when a committee of workers met at the Astor Hotel (5/17) to report to chairman Irving Holzman that the $25,000 goal originally set has passed the half-way mark with a total contribution of $13,000 on hand and with two and one-half weeks still remaining before the June 5 Victory Dinner at the Plaza Hotel. Close to 200 tickets were ordered up to last week indicating an SRO crowd will be expected once again. Reports included only actual donations and did not include many pledges which will increase the figure. The Committee also reported to Holzman that a greater number of dignitaries are expected to attend the function this year from all parts of New York State. The committee also arranged for the formalities which will take place honoring the Guests of Honor, R. L. Littleford, Jr. published of Billboard and Joe Orleck. publisher of Cash Box.

The Entertainment Committee headed by Cash Box' Bob Austin and Billboard's Frank Luppino reported that a program of recording artists is currently being considered by the committee and announcements will be made at a later date. A Master Of Ceremonies is being selected this week from several who have been considered.

Attending the Thursday evening meeting were coinmen and wives from all over the state including the following representatives: Lou Wolberg, Aaron Sternfeld, Mike Munves, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kaufmann, Carl Pavesi, Jack Wilson, Nash Gordon, Al Simon, Johnny Bilotta, Abe Lipsky, Al Denver, Teddy Blatt, Marty Toohey, Mr. and Mrs. Al 'Senator' Bodkin, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Holzman and UJA officials.

The next meeting will be held in the Astor Hotel, starting at 6:00 PM, on Wednesday, May 23. The trade is invited to attend. A deluxe dinner with refreshments are always provided.

Atlas Shows New Rowe-AMI Phono

CHICAGO—"An overwhelmingly successful showing, and reception from music operators in this area," was the way both Eddie Ginsburg and Nate Feinstein explained Atlas Music Company's gala buffet luncheon (and dinner) showing of the new Rowe-AMI "Orbital Sound of Stereo Round" coin-operated automatic phonograph in the Atlas Music showroom, Wednesday, May 16.

Two models of the new Rowe-AMI phonographs were on display in the showroom where a continuous chain of operators milled in and out of Atlas Music Co. all day long. One auspicious change is the new use of the "Rowe-AMI" name on the phonograph. Other modifications and surprising (for operators) innovations will be spelled out in detail in the next issue of Cash Box (June 2).

Other Atlas Music Company personnel on hand, besides Eddie Ginsburg and Nate Feinstein, to greet operators included: Harold Schwartz, Irv Ovitz, Eugene "Smitty" Smith, Mort Jacobs and Charles (Chuck) Harper.

Representing the Rowe-AMI factory were Joel Kleiman, Dean McMurdie and Bob MacGregor.

Irv Ovitz advised that although a huge throng of operators from this area visited at Atlas Music Co., to view and listen to the new 1963 model Rowe-AMI phonograph, only a comparatively small number signed in.

Among those counted were: Pete Schiralli, Joseph Yaegel, Robert E. (Bob) Rose, Si Kase, Norman Dimpke, Dominick Russo, Julius Gronner, Angelo Angelieri, Vincent Angelieri, Dwane Kramzar, Louis Arpaia, Mike Arpaia and Harry Buthe.

Eastern Flashes

An interesting story took place in this town last week. The NY Herald Tribune published a half-page story which told of a Father Bradley in Holy Name Church up on 96th Street and Amsterdam Ave. who is supporting a youth center with every penny he has, and using every hour of time he can find. A friend saw the story, called the priest and donated some phonograph records. Another friend called Jackie Hearn at LaSalle Music Co. and told him the story. One hour later Father Bradley had more records than ever, a chauffeured ride to the LaSalle showrooms, where he was invited to pick out a juke box for the youth center. Compliments of a friend.

Whether the business is good, bad or indifferent, the coin machine socials continue and while in many cases these activities represent loads of work on the part of many, the wind-up is usually accompanied by a good time. An example was the Laurels outing held a week ago last weekend when the New York Automatic Vending group joined the NAMA regional and staged a weekend affair which combined business meetings with a lovely banquet and dance. A golf tourney, a softball game, and a fine floor show was on the agenda for the 450 who attended, and the result was a successful weekend for the trade, under the guidance of managing director Tiny Weintraub, who also handles these same chores for CMA, the cigarette group.

UJA-Coin Machine meetings, held periodically, again bring the trade together, to discuss the forthcoming Victory Dinner for our own Joe Orleck, and Billboard's R. L. Littleford, Jr. who will be honored on June 5th at New York's Plaza Hotel. The coinmen are currently working to raise $35,000 for the goal which has been set, and the ticket response indicates that the affair will be a sellout. If you haven't sent in your contribution, please do so. The committee is working diligently to have all pledges supported. But again, the end result will be a cocktail-dinner-dance at which 400-500 tradespeople and guests will meet socially. So we have the June 5th affair to mark on our social calendar.

But before that dinner, be sure you don't forget the Westchester Affair scheduled for May 22nd, Tuesday, at Yonkers' Tropical Acres Restaurant. Funman Phil Foster will emcee the affair which starts at around 7:00 PM after all have met at the bar to get into the swing of things before attorney Malcom Wein steps to the podium and honors Cary Pavesi, Seymour Pollak, Harold Rosenberg, and the many members of the Westchester Guild who each year stand 100% behind such drives as UJA, Public Relations, Cardinal Spellman Servicemen's Club, Boys Town of Italy, and many other charitable and community affairs which require support from the businessmen.

Did we say the calendar is a social one? Well, then add still another weekend affair which must be attended. The Cigarette Merchandisers Association scheduled to be held at the Laurels Country Club in Monticello on the June 22-23-24 weekend. Again, the vending and cigarette people will mingle with coin machine ops, with representation of course from major suppliers and manufacturers, and the business-social activities will start all over again. With the exception of the July 4th holiday in honor of the Signing of the Declaration of Independence we can't think of a thing of importance, socially, between the CMA affair and the start of the fall season. But then, of course, we have the MONY meeting with the NYS Guild to stage still another weekend at the Laurels for both annual affairs to be held simultaneously. And we begin again, all over again. (And we're not speaking of the record business affairs which must be attended!)

Joe Munves and Frank Mencuri are happy with their AVI firm's first machine—the 'Kissin' Cupids' novelty which was displayed at MOA two weeks ago. Orders from Canada and Morocco (of all places!) have made the coin vets work overtime and it'll be a while before the production meets the demand. (But don't hesitate to place an order, states Joe!). . . . Mike Munves is still pushing to meet arcade orders for games and novelty machines. With Memorial Day the absolute deadline, all hands are working feverishly on the reconditioning end to get the Grandma machines and the hockey games off to their rightful sites.

Irving Holzman, chairman of the UJA-Coin Machine drive, advises that an all-out push will be made starting this week to get contributions in. A Committee Meeting was scheduled to be held at the Astor (at this writing) on Thursday, May 17, at which time the current ticket-contribution receipts were expected to be reviewed.

The staff at Runyon Sales Company are all ready for the gala showings scheduled to begin on May 22nd in Jersey when the firm unveils the new Rowe-AMI phonograph featuring the "Three In One" styling that has been hinted at for the past three weeks. Irv Kempner will join Nat Gutkin in East Hartford to combine formal opening of the new showrooms (officially) and premiere the juke box on May 28th. An evening affair will be held starting at 7:00 PM. Refreshments of course, and all are invited. The Newark showing starts on May 22nd and continues through May 23rd making it a Tuesday-Wednesday showing with refreshments and all. Shugy and Abe Green will be there as will Eddie Burg and the gang. The New York showing won't begin until Thursday when the execs will come into NYC for a Tenth Avenue preview which will be held over until the following day, Friday, May 25th. Morris Rood was busy last week mailing the invites, but if you don't get one, the Runyon staff extends a cordial invite to one and all. . . . Myron Sugarman hitting the books hard (the export books that is) recording nice business to foreign lands these days.

Lou Wolcher, Advance Automatic Sales, San Francisco, in New York for a visit. . . . Bert Betti can't get enough slate to meet tremendous demand for his pool table line and until this situation resolves itself the industry's pool table mfrs. will have to continue with controlled production. . . . The American Management Association seminar on the vending business held last week in the Astor Hotel was one of the finest business meetings we have ever attended. While the program was designed for those who want to learn more of automatic merchandising's role (oil firms, glass firms, packaging companies, non-food people, chain stores, etc.) in the future of business, it served as a valuable investment in time (and money $175 per ticket) and certainly advanced the vending industry in the eyes of American industry—the blue chip firms who will eventually depend on vending for a good portion of retail sales.

Hy Pearl, expected in our offices, up from Trenton earlier in the week with photos and details on the new layout which houses the Pearl operating company, a firm which has managed to expand and make money, simultaneously, for five years. And if you haven't tried this trick lately, then don't knock it! Hy's firm is doing more and more of the amusement center installation business these days with bowling alleys, in the drawing board stage allowing for Pearl's equipment, before the building even goes up.

Visitors to Irving Holzman's office last week, on the same day no less, included Lou Hirsch, Silvertone Music; Harry Siskind, Master Automatic; Charlie Sachs, Union Automatic; and Jack Jaffe, Terminal Sales in Jersey. On the way out we bump into Jack Semel, Harold Kaufman and of course, Lou Druckman, who tells us that "the trailerload of 'Avalon' shuffles you are now seeing has been sold!"

Chicago Chatter

Now that the rank and filers of MOA are rolling up their respective sleeves for the action ahead everyone in the coin machine industry will definitely cooperate—and that means you, and you, and you! We were assured by the executive committee that there will certainly be an MOA convention in Chicago in 1963. Also, an extensive, intensive membership campaign will be conducted during this year. As was spelled out in last week's Cash Box editorial:—MOA HAS A FUTURE!

There is lively, concerted action currently on the new "Deluxe Bally Bowler," which was unveiled—and received spirited play—on the exhibit floor of the recent MOA convention. Bally executive Herb Jones, who is generally very conservative in his praises, is genuinely excited and high in his accolades for this coin-operated phenom. Bill O'Donnell, Bally's general sales manager, reached the heights in his praises when we met with him. Naturally Don and Ray Moloney are just as enthusiastic in their combined accolades.

At United Mfg. these days it's "Remember the Alamo" (bowler, that is!). And, Bill DeSelm prompts us to also remember the "Avalon" shuffle alley bowler; which, due to its fine acceptance by operators needs no prompting.

Glad to report that coinvet Jack Bess is now feeling fine again. Jack collapsed on the exhibit floor at the MOA conclave Sunday, May 6, from an illness which effects the equilibrium. Tom Sams kept us posted constantly about Jack's condition.

On the business side of the ledger, D. Gottlieb & Co. is enjoying a terrific production period on Gottlieb's "Tropic-Isle" pingame. A constant delight to operators, according to Nate Gottlieb and Alvin Gottlieb, is the firm's continuous endeavor to incorporate new, and exciting playing and scoring features into Gottlieb pingames.

We surely sympathize with Rowe-AMI's handsome sales exec, Phil Glover, who's bedded down in Grand Rapids with—of all things—the MUMPS (just don't call him "puffy"). Everyone at Rowe-AMI is excited about the nationwide showings being planned by distribs for the new phono. We hear along the coinbiz grapevine that it is a beauty. However, until unveiling time it remains under wraps. Dean McMurdie will shortly plane out to Los Angeles to be on hand for R. F. Jones' showings, May 21 & 22. Tom Sams will head east to cover a wide area.

Production lines are humming along nicely at Chicago Dynamic Industries, where an exciting array of amusement games is constantly being shipped to Chicago Coin's distributors. Leading the ChiCoin line is the spankin', brand new "World's Fair" target-gun game (which will be spelled out in more detail in a subsequent issue of Cash Box). Chicago Dynamic's president Sam Wolberg is elated over "World's Fair" gun's popularity at the recent MOA show. Mort Secore and Jerry Koci are convinced they have the amusement operator's "dream" gun game.

Paul Huebsch, vice prexy of J. H. Keeney & Co., relates that Art Suave, head of Art Suave Co., in Detroit, Mich., is enjoying heaviest action with Keeney's "Lite-A-Line" version of the "Roll-A-Line" amusement game. Paul is looking forward, along with sales rep Clayton Nemeroff, to a lusty sales campaign with this machine. . . . The sales action is so heavy of late at Empire Coin Machine Exchange that it is fairly impossible to "bat the breeze" with Empire owner Gil Kitt and sales chief Joe Robbins. They info they're receiving excellent results with all music and amusement equipment.

Art Weinand, vice prexy of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp. quips: "We're so busy these sweltering days—we're working in a 'sweat shop'—with air conditioning!" Art insists that in order to clear his desk of sales orders he's forced to start his day around 7 a.m. and tries to get home by 8 p.m. Prime reason for this action is Williams' "Coquette" 2-player pingame.

Rock-Ola's Edward G. Doris, Ralph Wyckoff and Les Rieck are all burning the midnight oil, sales on Rock-Ola's "Princess" phonos are doing so well. . . . We welcome Bill Futterman, an advertising vet, back into the fold. Bill, who just opened a new ad agency in Los Angeles, is now a Hollywoodite.

Now that the presonnal expansion at World Wide Distribs is accomplished prexy Joel Stern and Fred Skor are forging full speed ahead to make this World Wide's biggest year in coinbiz. The heaviest action at First Coin Machine Exchange, according to prexy Joe Kline, is on the snazzy Wurlitzer coin-operated phono and in all phases of export business. The latter, sez Sam Kolber, is really humming along in fine style.

Bill Weikel, sales director of Fischer Sales & Mfg., infos that Willis Covington, billiard wizard brought plenty of action to Fischer's exhibit booth at the recent MOA conclave.

Last Wednesday, May 16, was a gala day at Atlas Music Co. Eddie Ginsburg, Nate Feinstein, et al hosted a showing and buffet luncheon and dinner to introduce the brand, new Rowe-AMI coin-operated automatic phonograph to operators who visited Atlas from a wide area throughout this region. The affair was further enhanced by several of the executives of Automatic Canteen and the subsidiary Rowe-AMI manufacturing affiliate. Among those present were Joel Kleiman, Dean McMurdie, Tom Sams, Bob MacGregor, Fleming Johnson and Dick Ross. Other Atlas personnel includes Harold Schwartz, Irv Ovitz, Eugene "Smitty" Smith, Mort Jacobs and Chuck Harper.

The National Automatic Merchandising Assn. (NAMA) held its regional meetings Friday and Saturday, May 18 & 19, at the Sheraton-Chicago Hotel in Chicago. A very enjoyable and enlightening program was had.

Murdock Finance Combines With Std. Financial

MEMPHIS, TENN.—Murdock Acceptance Corporation, leading consumer finance and small loan firm here, has entered into a correspondent relationship with Standard Financial Corp., New York based, nationwide finance, factoring and commercial banking institution with resources in excess of $150 million, John E. Murdock, Sr., Murdock Acceptance president and Theodore H. Silbert, Standard Financial president, announced jointly last week.

ceptance will be able to broaden the services it offers locally to include a wide range of commercial finance and factoring plans. With 25 branch offices servicing outstanding accounts located in Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri and Tennessee, Murdock Acceptance will provide this six-state area with such commercial finance programs as factoring, accounts receivable financing, rediscounting, industrial time sales and lease financing.

Commenting on the extension of the company's services, Mr. Murdock said that "our 24-year history primarily is consumer financing small loans and insurance, serves as a natural base for us to expand our operations in the commercial field. This relationship with Standard Financial permits us to furnish financing to the growing manufacturing industries in our six-state growth area."

Murdock Acceptance, with over 700 stockholders and a publicly-owned company traded over the counter, has for the past several years, been diversifying its financial activities to become less dependent upon any one segment of financing for its sales volume, Mr. Murdock said.

Under this arrangement, Mr. Murdock said "his company would benefit from Standard Financial's experience and status in the commercial financing and factoring field." Like Standard Financial, Murdock Acceptance will now be able to offer what is referred to as a "department store" of financial service in the local communities that can meet most of the financial requirements of small to large size manufacturing and service companies.

Standard Financial Corporation, founded in 1932, listed on the New York Stock Exchange, with branch offices and subsidiaries in New York City, Los Angeles, Dallas, Philadelphia, Richmond, Virginia and Elmira, New York, has an annual finance volume at the rate of $350 million.

California Clippings

With vacation time approaching, some of the operators and distributors are beginning to plan where & when they will be spending their summer holiday.

Mr. & Mrs. French were in town from San Diego and paid a visit to Simon Distributing Co. Sonny Lomberg reports the parts dept. is very active in sales, and pool tables are moving out at a steady pace. . . . Bill Happel of Badger Sales Co. mentioned they are looking forward to receiving the new roll down game, 'Roll-A-Line' from J. H. Keeney Co. The new ChiCoin Starlite bowler arrived from Chicago and is proving very popular with the operators. It is equipped with a 50¢ coin chute which allows 7 plays for a half dollar. Leo Simone informed the vending business is beginning to pick up with the ice-maker active in sales, at the present time.

Vinny Lanzy's wife is still ill and has been in the hospital for a week. American Coin Machine is building a completely new and different game, to be placed on the market in the near future. . . . Deluxe Bally Bowler Shipped Mechanism 'Beefed Up' To Take Heavy Action

CHICAGO — Bally Manufacturing Company this week began shipping "De Luxe Bally Bowler," described as a new improved version of the "Bally Bowler" originally introduced at the MOA Convention in Miami, May, 1961. "The new 'De Luxe Bally Bowler'" explained Bill O'Donnell, Bally general sales manager, "retains the famous full-round swivel-action pins which created such a sensation last year, but we have added a new pin control which gives greater bowling realism than ever by preventing excessive railroads and other unrealistic leaves. Like the basic pin action, the new pin control is non-electric—one hundred per cent mechanical response to the impact of ball against pin or pin against pin.

"Biggest improvement in 'De Luxe Bally Bowler' from the operators' viewpoint is an all round beefing up of the mechanism to take the punishment of the continuous heavy play the game gets in all types of locations.

"Players and operators alike will welcome the new big easy-to-read numbers on the score totalizers. These add to the pleasure of playing, because the scores can be seen at a glance even on the longest alleys, and this in turn means bigger earning-power per hour.

"Basic design of 'De Luxe Bally Bowler' is the styling that made such a hit, when the original 'Bally Bowler' was introduced, but we have brightened up the colors and added accents of blonde wood which contrast beautifully with the rich walnut finish of the alley.

"Standard model 'De Luxe Bally Bowler' is 16 ft. long by 41 in. wide, but length can easily be increased to any desired length with 5 ft. alley sections," concluded O'Donnell.

BILL O'DONNELL

Betson Building Not Too Large For Lines

NORTH BERGEN, N. J.—As in most cases today, the more space you have the more you need. Bert Betti, president of Betson Enterprises Inc., New Jersey distributing firm, constructed a 13,000 square foot building and opened it last December. The addition however, of the Rock-Ola phonograph line and a consistently heavy demand for pool table equipment has resulted in every foot of the building being occupied.

New Betson Enterprises building in North Bergen, N. J. was built last year to house expanding lines.

ROCK-OLA again gives you profit features and service simplicity in the all new Princess Phonograph

NEW SIMPLIFIED SELECTOR. Another new Rock-Ola exclusive: is the simplified coil-less selector. Selections are achieved through springloaded, self cleaning selection levers activated by two motor driven revolving carriages. The elimination of electro-magnetic coils reduces service calls and assures increased dependability for greater operating profits.

FEATHER-TOUCH TONE ARM PLUG-IN CARTRIDGE SNAP-IN STYLUS. Longer record wear and better performance are now possible. The Princess incorporates a new, stylish, feather-weight tone arm containing a specially designed Astatic high compliance stereo cartridge with a snap-in DIAMOND stylus. The famous Rock-Ola serviceability is again shown in the cartridge which merely plugs-in with no wires or connections to loosen or solder. These features are just another proof of Rock-Ola's economy of operation developed through years of on "Location Testing."

33 1/3-45 RPM MECH-O-MATIC INTERMIX PLAY. Dual-speed Rock-Ola Built turntable permits complete intermix of 33 1/3 and 45 RPM records in any sequence in any bank of records. No matter the speed or whether it's stereo or monaural records, they can all be played on the PRINCESS, the one truly flexible phonograph. Only the PRINCESS gives complete protection for all future location needs. (Optional Equipment)

COMPACT MECHANISM. Now for the first time in the history of Coin-Operated phonographs, Rock-Ola has produced an entirely new Compact Revolving Record Magazine designed specifically for use in a small phonograph. The NEW Rock-Ola compact mechanism has fewer moving parts for faster cycling and maximum ease of servicing, while preserving the traditional Rock-Ola Revolving mechanism design and operating dependability.

COMPACT NEW DESIGN for greater flexibility saves on space... and on service. The Princess has all these features: Easily serviced title strip holders; New miniaturized revolving mechanism; Stainless steel record-magazine belt; Dual channel stereo amplifier; 12" heavy duty speaker, and a wide dispersion, high compression driver horn; Push button selection assembly; Stylized tone arm with "plug-in" cartridge and diamond stylus; Combination "tune dictator" and popularity meter; Fully exposed accumulation assembly and removable door.
