Fever can be quite a bit of fun if abused in small doses. The rest of the office is off at a trade show, busy making friends and such. I'm back here in the office, hallucinating wildly and trying to write at the same time. I'll tell you what though, if a gaming company wants to make a mint, base a game on fever visions. I'd be willing to be a technical consultant. I'm not really sure what month it is, but you, the reader, should be receiving this issue right about now. In this fine issue that you hold in your hands, are the first official codes for GoldenEye, too bad they're so lame. Also in this issue, I will blank out for no apparent reason and forget what I was writing about. God bless the mighty fever!

What they truly wanted at this point was merely a brief explanation before the panel returned. But there was no one with the knowledge of such archaic machinery within the compound. There was only the gibbon who had collected shoes, and he just wouldn't be feasible in this scenario. Buy a T-shirt with a slick GameShark logo on it for a measly $12 bucks or subject yourself to your own clothes for another day. Send a check or monkey order for $12.00 to: InterAct Accessories, Inc. ATTN: WALRUS KNEES 9611 Pulaski Park Drive, Suite #309, Baltimore, MD 21220. Send nothing for postage, we are staging a boycott on the postal service, and are currently employing whirling dervishes to deliver our parcels. I mean, we will cover the postage.

Issue #1: Maybe if you're lucky!

Issue #2: Codes for Toshinden, Krazy Ivan, The Horde, NBA Jam, MK3 and other games which are considered primitive to today's games.

Issue #3: Codes for Cybersled, Resident Evil, Agile Warrior, Iron Storm, Virtua Fighter 2 and others, which are still thought of as dated, but nonetheless fun.

Issue #4: I'm not going to tell you what games are in issue #4, because I don't have to!

Issue #5: Codes for Alien Trilogy, Primal Rage, Bogey Dead 6, Tekken 2, Virtua Fighter Kids.

Issue #6: Codes for Dark Forces, Fighting Vipers, Final Doom, Sonic 3-D Blast, NFL '97 and Twisted Metal 2.

Issue #7: Codes for Andretti Racing, Madden '97, Soviet Strike, King's Field 2, MK Trilogy and Rally Cross.

Issue #8: Codes for games, all right!

Issue #9: Codes for Rage Racer, Psychic Force, Tenka, Contra, Battle Stations and Andretti Racing.

Issue #10: Nothing at all, not a single code. Except for FF VII, Porsche Challenge, Manx TT Superbike, Warcraft II and Top Gear Rally.

Our first compiled code book which holds all those glorious codes from the above issues and more. Released by our dear friends at Prima Publishing, it's a mere $8.00 bucks for a ton of codes.

For back issues or code books, please send the appropriate amount ($1.00 for each back issue, or $8.00 for the code book) to: InterAct Accessories, Inc. ATTN: SNEEZING DEPT. 9611 Pulaski Park Drive, Suite #309, Baltimore, MD 21220.

I'm going to take advantage of my current fever sick state to answer some of our most interesting letters. I hope you all appreciate this, because these letters normally make my skull hurt.

Dear CodeBoy,
You guys are doing a great job with the GameShark, I finally completed Tomb Raider and Resident Evil, thanks! I was just wondering if you had any GameShark codes for the game Crinklefest?

Lester Mann

Dear Lester,
Thanks for the compliment, we try our best to get codes for every game on the market, so those games you got for Christmas should be a breeze. As for the Crinklefest codes, they'll be coming along soon, hopefully next issue.

Dear CodeBoy,
I just recently subscribed to Dangerous Waters and am awaiting my first issue. I hope the codes in your newsletter are easier to enter than the ones I've found in the magazines. All the magazines use squares and circles and such for their codes, but there are no squares or circles available for the codes on the GameShark. I had a real hard time getting them to work. As a matter of fact, the code for Ten Pin Alley, Score Perfect Game, reads as follows: Square, Square, Triangle, Square, Start. I cannot find a way to input this code into the GameShark, there's just a bunch of letters and numbers. Please help me figure out your secret.

Dave Batovsky

Dear Dave,
Stay away from me, don't make me call the police, just back away slowly.

Dear CodeBoy,
Please help!!! I'm in desperate need of help.
My friends and I play PaRappa the Rapper and I need a code to rap cool. Without this code, I have no hope of ever getting past Level 1.
Help me CodeBoy you're my only hope.

Crazy Williams

Dear Crazy,
These are not the codes you're looking for.
