TAKE A DISCOVERY BREAK.

Discover Janne Schaffer.

Janne Schaffer is one guitarist who's not in danger of being "typecast." Apparently, he can do anything. He's played reggae with Bob Marley and the Wailers, and Johnny Nash. He's played on every single Abba record. He's recorded with symphony orchestras, and been on countless jazz sessions with the top players in the world. What more can you expect? Plenty, as his new solo album "Earmeal" will demonstrate. It's an album that succeeds in tearing down any remaining barriers that may still exist between rock and expressionistic jazz. On "Earmeal" Janne Schaffer is joined by the Porcaro brothers... members of the red-hot group, Toto. Tasty music that fits no category, and that Janne calls "rock without words."

Produced by Bruce Botnick.

Discover Gulliver.

There's a logical reason why Gulliver sounds so tight. The bass player and the drummer are identical twins, and they've played together in various bands since 1964. You don't get a more solid foundation than that. There's also a reason for the musical sparks that fly. British singer-songwriter-guitarist John Weider is a veteran of such well-respected aggregations as The Animals (four years) and Family (three years). American singer-songwriter-guitarist David Carron has deep-running folk/rock roots. He's been a part of various recording bands since 1968, his most recent being Shenandoah, accompanying Arlo Guthrie. All together, as Gulliver, magic happens. "Ridin' the Wind," their first album, has the sound of today... and the feel of one of those classic sixties albums that went on to influence just about everybody.

Discover Michalski & Oosterveen.

"Discover them, I can't even pronounce them" you say. That's O.K., you are not alone. People have taken to calling them M. & O. And they are definitely worth discovering. "We love Led Zeppelin and we love Beethoven" say George Michalski and Niki Oosterveen. And so, as you might guess, anything goes in the music of M. & O. — as long as it's good. Michalski is a classically trained pianist — who was inspired to take up the instrument by seeing Fats Domino. Oosterveen is a renaissance man; in addition to being an accomplished singer and lyricist, he designed the murals in Bob Dylan's home. The M. & O. album is filled with new and refreshingly different music.

Produced by KEN SCOTT for KoMoS Productions in association with The Entertainment Company. Executive Producers: Jon Peters and Charles Koppleman. Management: J. P. Organization.

EDITORIAL

A Single Clarification

Last year, Cash Box inaugurated a special symbol on the Top 30 Disco chart that denoted whether a song was commercially available as a 12-inch single. The response from retailers has been overwhelmingly positive. As a result, in order to further clarify a confusing situation, Cash Box debuts the commercial 12-inch symbol this week on both the Top 100 Pop and Black Contemporary Singles charts.

When the 12-inchers were first introduced, their function was strictly promotional. Disco DJs cried out for extended versions and the labels complied. However, these sometimes specially remixed configurations created consumer frustration because a buyer heard the record at the disco but could not purchase it at his favorite store. Measuring the market, many labels discovered that substantial quantities of 12-inch records could be sold. A wide-range of 12-inchers are commercially available today and the retailer must keep abreast.

The availability of 12-inchers has been a gray area for retailers. In confronting the dilemma of releasing commercial 12-inch configurations and then withdrawing them to avoid hampering LP sales, labels inadvertently contributed to the confusion.

By debuting the commercial 12-inch symbol this week, we hope to provide retailers with a continuous update on the availability of 12-inchers.

WCI Music Group Achieved Record Sales, Income In '78

NEW YORK — Warner Communications Inc. and its recorded music and music publishing division achieved record income and revenues in 1978. Operating income for recorded music and music publishing increased 10% to $92,557,000 from $84,041,000 in fiscal 1977. Operating revenues for the division rose 16% to $617,068,000 from $532,359,000 in 1977.

In the fourth quarter, operating income for the recorded music and music publishing division increased 10% to $33,142,000 from $30,230,000 for prior-year period, while revenues rose 12% to $207,464,000 from $185,354,000 during the same period last year.

Commenting on these results, Steven Ross, chairman of WCI, said that "recorded music and music publishing again set new highs, comfortably exceeding the favorable results of 1977. Domestic record operations and music publishing each showed continued growth, and WEA International had another outstanding year."

Recorded music and music publishing substantially contributed to WCI's fiscal 1978 results. WCI's operating income rose 22% to $81,882,000 from $66,899,000 in the preceding year, while revenues increased 14% to $1,309,419,000 from $1,143,792,000.

WCI's filmed entertainment division posted the highest operating income and revenues in its history. Operating income rose 38% to $79,914,000 in 1978, and revenues increased 11% to $393,016,000.

Records Group Of CBS Posts Figures For 1978

NEW YORK — Profits for the CBS Records Group in 1978 rose to a record $93.8 million, a 12% increase over the 1977 profit figure of $84 million. In contrast, Group revenues rose 27% for the year. According to CBS' financial statement, profits rose at a lower rate because of "manufacturing cost increases due to capacity limitations, a strike at a domestic record plant, copyright royalty increases and costs for expansion of the Group's marketing operations."

Revenues for the Records Group rose to a new high of $946.5 million in 1978, up from $787.7 million in 1977.

CBS Inc., the record group's parent corporation, reported a net income of $198.1 million in 1978, a 9% rise from 1977's $182 million net income. Revenues for CBS in 1978 rose 16% to $3.3 billion, up from $2.8 billion in 1977.

Publishing and related distribution showed gains in revenues and operating income as well for the third consecutive year.

WCI's board of directors announced that it would split the existing common shares by distributing one additional share for each three shares currently held. The board also voted a 33-1/3% increase in the quarterly cash dividend by declaring a dividend of 25¢ per share on all shares outstanding. The new shares will be issued on

Task Force Recommends Revision Of U.S. Postal Service Regulations

by Joanne Ostrow

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A task force comprised of representatives from private industry and postal officials submitted a list of 75 recommendations intended to make the U.S. Postal Service more efficient to the Postmaster last week. Included in the list are several items relevant to the record industry.

Among the points to be ruled on in the next several months are suggestions to:

- allow advertising enclosures in special fourth-class mail (the classification covering records). This matter has been assigned to the Rates and Classification Department for further study;
- reduce the current "minimum piece requirement" for special pre-sort discount rates from 2,000 to 500 pieces;
- use one "endorsement" for all of special fourth-class instead of requiring separate labeling for books, records and six other categories.

Relaxing The Rules

Most of these recommendations involve relaxing the regulations as they stand to reduce the burden on the nation's biggest mailers, in terms of time and expense.

An additional project still under study would develop a single rate for mailings of several classes. For example, when a first-class letter is enclosed with a record, mailers are now required by law to affix additional postage for the letter. But, as one USPS official acknowledged, the average citizen is not even aware of this law although large companies can't claim ignorance. Instead, the task force believes, mailers should not have to pay extra when the letter isn't travelling first-class anyway. What the new combination rate might be remains a matter for speculation.

The 75 recommendations were developed by a task force established last summer, which included 85 represen-

'Fever,' Bee Gees, Billy Joel Gather Top Grammy Awards

by Alan Sutton

LOS ANGELES — "Saturday Night Fever," the best selling album in history, last week topped yet another record industry standard when it won a Grammy award as best album of 1978, thus marking the first time that honor has gone to a film soundtrack.

The Bee Gees, who picked up two Grammys for their contributions to the disco-laced "Saturday Night Fever," tied the record for the most Grammys — five.

The RSO Records trio — Barry, Robin and Maurice Gibb — also were honored as best producers, vocal group and arrangers by the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences.

Henry Mancini, Paul Simon and Stevie Wonder — who accomplished the feat three times — are the three other pop record makers who have won five Grammys in one year.

Derailed By Joel

Two key victories by Billy Joel kept the Bee Gees from pulling off the biggest sweep in the 21-year history of the awards. Joel's "Just The Way You Are" was judged best record and song by the 5,000 academy members.

But the Bee Gees clearly were the stars of the nationally televised ceremony. Their appearance at the Shrine Auditorium drew repeated shouts and whistles from those sections of the balcony reserved for the general public.

Comedian Steve Martin, who came on stage wearing only a tuxedo jacket and boxer shorts, provided the only other exuberance in the otherwise sedate evening. He won the best comedy album award for the second straight year.

Barry Manilow was selected as best male pop vocalist of 1978, while Anne Murray was declared top female singer.

Donna Summer and George Benson swept the R&B vocal awards, while Willie Nelson and Dolly Parton were judged top country singers.

In the jazz balloting, Al Jarreau was named best vocalist and Oscar Peterson best solo instrumentalist. Both were honored for the second consecutive year.

The best new artist award went to R&B-disco group A Taste of Honey.

In capturing the best album award, "Saturday Night Fever" touched off a run on NARAS precious metal. At least 34 performers and 16 producers will receive Grammys for their contributions to the record-breaking RSO soundtrack.

The following is a complete list of Grammy winners:

Record Of The Year: "JUST THE WAY YOU ARE," Billy Joel.

Album Of The Year: "SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER (MOTION PICTURE SOUND TRACK)," the Bee Gees.

Song Of The Year: "JUST THE WAY YOU ARE," Billy Joel.

Best New Artist Of The Year, A Taste of Honey.

Best Pop Vocal Performance, Female: "YOU NEEDED ME," Anne Murray.

Best Pop Vocal Performance, Male: "COPACABANA (AT THE COPA)," Barry Manilow.

Best Pop Vocal Performance By A Duo, Group Or Chorus, "SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER," the Bee Gees.

Best Pop Instrumental Performance, "CHILDREN OF SANCHEZ," Chuck Mangione Group.

Best R&B Vocal Performance, Female, "LAST DANCE," Donna Summer.

Best R&B Vocal Performance, Male, "ON BROADWAY," George Benson.

Best R&B Vocal Performance By A Duo, Group Or Chorus, "ALL 'N ALL," Earth, Wind & Fire.

Best R&B Instrumental Performance, "RUNNIN'," Earth, Wind & Fire.

Best Rhythm & Blues Song, "LAST DANCE," Paul Jabara.

Best Country Vocal Performance, Female: "HERE YOU COME AGAIN," Dolly Parton.

Carlin Music Jubilant About London Appeals Court Ruling

by Ken Terry

NEW YORK — In a decision that may substantially benefit Freddy Bienstock's Carlin Music Group, the London Court of Appeals has ruled that the "reversionary rights" of the U.K.'s 1911 Copyright Act apply to most songs that were copyrighted before 1956, when a new law was enacted.

Nevertheless, the large publishers who stand to lose many of these titles have pledged to carry their eight-year fight to the House of Lords, the British equivalent of our Supreme Court, and litigation arising out of this case may continue for many years to come.

While Carlin Music funded the litigation which led up to the recent Appeals Court decision, a Carlin subsidiary called Redwood Limited had signed publishing agreements with estates that claimed ownership of some 40,000 song titles which were being exploited by other publishers. Among these titles were such standards as "Are You Lonesome Tonight," "In The Blues Of The Night," "My Wild Irish Rose," "Bye Bye Blackbird," "Ain't Misbehavin'," "Rock a Bye My Baby With A Dixie Melody," "Wait Till The Sun Shines Nelly," "Walkin' My Baby Back Home," "Meet Me In St. Louis," and "Zing Went The Strings Of My Heart."

Unless the Court of Appeals' decision is overturned in a final appeal to the House of Lords, the current publishers of these titles could be required to pay court costs of approximately half a million dollars, plus back royalties for nine years prior to the year in which the suit was instituted (1970), to Carlin Music and the estates signed to Redwood Limited. Although the exact amount of money involved is not known, Johnny Bienstock, executive vice president of the Carlin Music Group, estimated that it might run into the millions of dollars.

'Reversionary Rights'

The suit arose out of the fact that most publishers had chosen to ignore the "reversionary rights" provision of the 1911 Copyright Act. Under that law, the term of copyright in the U.K. (as well as in the British Dominions, including Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa) was the life of the author plus 50 years. The reversionary clause was written in to protect the families of improvident songwriters who might have sold the rights to their songs for much less than they were worth. It speci-

Jones Named To VP Marketing Post At Casablanca

LOS ANGELES — Pete Jones has been named to the newly created position of vice president of marketing at Casablanca Records.

Most recently a member of the Polygram distribution organization as vice president of sales for the midwest, Jones comes to Casablanca with considerable marketing experience, both at Polygram as a director of sales for two and a half years and RCA, where he held the posts of financial analyst, marketing administrator and branch manager. Jones is also a graduate of the Wharton School of Finance.

Observing that the Casablanca post will open up new challenges to meet, Jones also noted that he will be able to remain in close contact with his associates at Polygram, which distributes Casablanca product.

Jones will be based at Casablanca headquarters in Los Angeles under the supervision of senior vice president and managing director Larry Harris and executive vice president Bruce Bird.

FRIESEN HONORED — A&M Records president Gil Friesen was announced as this year's honoree by the T.J. Martell Memorial Foundation at a kick-off luncheon held at New York's 21 Club. In attendance were from (l-r): Dr. James Holland, professor and chairman, Mt. Sinai School of Medicine; Judy Friesen; Gil Friesen; Ahmet Ertegun, chairman of the board, Atlantic Records; Bruce Lundvall, CBS Records president; and Tony Martell, CBS Records vice president.

Ray D'Ariano

D'Ariano Named To Head MCA On East Coast

NEW YORK — Ray D'Ariano has been appointed vice president and general manager of east coast operations for MCA Records.

In his new position, D'Ariano will oversee the company's activities on the east coast in the areas of A&R, artist development, and other MCA-related ventures. He joined the label in 1974 as New York promotion manager and was later promoted to vice president of promotion for the company. He formerly headed the New York office of Casablanca Record and Film-Works.

Commenting on the appointment, Bob Siner, president of MCA Records, said that "Ray's ability, foresight, and creativeness will certainly be of benefit to the label and its entire artist roster."

Access To European Product Is One Factor In Ariola's Rise

by Aaron Fuchs

NEW YORK — Ariola-America has become a record company to take notice of. Although the label has been in existence for over four years, and earned its first platinum record well over a year ago with Mary McGreggor's "Torn Between Two Loves," it has been during the past six months that Ariola has dramatically increased its visibility.

With records like Eruption's "I Can't Stand the Rain," Gene Cotton's "Like A Sunday In Salem," Chanson's "Don't Hold Back" and Amii Stewart's currently bulleting "Knock On Wood," Ariola has been represented on the pop Top 40 charts with unprecedented consistency. Interestingly, all of these records, except Cotton's, suggest one reason for Ariola's success: a keen appreciation of the disco market in general, and access to a large pool of European product whose evolving Euro-disco-styled music is becoming increasingly commercial here. Much of this access comes from the Munich-based Ariola parent company, which partially owns the label along with American stockholders.

But the European connection is not the only reason for Ariola-America's success. According to Scott Shannon, Ariola's senior vice president and director of operations, Ariola-America is very much autonomous. "Even though we are part of a world-wide company, we have luxuries that other Ariola affiliates don't. Whereas other affiliates have to go with certain releases, we can pass. For example, Amanda Lear is on every other Ariola affiliate in the world except ours. We also passed on Boney M. But people who bring music to us are impressed with our selectivity, and trust that we'll bring home product we believe in. For example, Trude Meisel brought us Amii Stewart's "Knock On Wood" because we brought home Eruption's "I Can't Stand the Rain" for her. And here was a record that flopped when it was released in England, but we heard it here and knew it was going to be a smash."

Ocean Records' Debut

Ariola can also point with pride to its close affiliation with disco moguls Marc Kreiner and Tom Cossie, whose Ocean Records, which will release its first product next month, was signed as an Ariola custom label in October. The duo have already produced Linda Evans and Chanson for Ariola. But Shannon is quick to assert that Ocean Records not be pigeonholed as a disco label. "They have an impressive roster, and it won't be just

CBS Inc. Expects Another Banner Year, Says Backe

NEW YORK — Although CBS, Inc. is anticipating a decline in earnings for the first quarter of 1979, the corporation is also predicting a record year in revenues and earnings, John D. Backe, president of CBS, told a gathering of Wall Street security analysts here recently.

In addition, Backe told the analysts that one reason the 1979 outlook for CBS Records Group is "very favorable" is that CBS has projected that 1979 retail sales for the U.S. recording industry will rise by 15%.

Backe explained the anticipated first quarter decline by stating that CBS planned to strengthen its competitive position "through greatly increased commitment to internal development, through investment in promising new ventures and through expansion. This deliberate approach," Backe continued, "represents a vital investment in the future, and should be regarded as just that, rather than as simply a drain on current earnings."

Cheryl Lynn's singing career began in the church, but took off, ironically, after an appearance on the Gong Show. The TV stint came about because of the persistence of Delbert Langston, Lynn's long-time singing partner, who was determined that Lynn get the break he felt she deserved.

After singing with Langston in a group called Happy, Free & Easy, Lynn joined a road production of "The Wiz," where she played The Wicked Witch of the West. However, she became disillusioned with singing, and decided to give up the profession to pursue other goals.

After her Gong Show appearance, she was introduced to Eric Kronfeld, who, along with Langston, became her manager. Kronfeld played a video cassette of Lynn's TV spot for Bruce Lundvall, president of CBS Records, and Lynn soon had a recording contract. The move proved wise, because Lynn's self-titled debut album contained the song, "Got To Be Real," which became one of the major disco hits of 1978.

And We Won't Stop For Seconds!

NEW FACES TO WATCH

Gonzalez

It's hard to believe that Gonzalez is a British band. The group's single, "Haven't Stopped Dancing Yet," which is shaping up as a huge disco-to-pop crossover smash, brims with the kind of rhythm and funky-but-chic style that sounds like its players were born and raised on the streets of New York City.

Speaking from the offices of the group's British label, EMI, Gonzalez' tenor sax player, Chris Mercer, says, "While we're quite pleased with 'Dancing,' it's just one side of us. We like to play all kinds of black and Latin music, and we like funk as much as disco.

If Mercer seems nonchalant, it's because he has been around. Starting with John Mayall's "Bluesbreakers" in 1967, he has played with Keef Hartley, Juicy Lucy and Wynder K. Frog. He has toured with the Temptations and the Spinners, and he's recorded with Bryan Ferry and Frankie Miller, as well as other acts that "I can't even remember, there have been so many of them." When one considers that Gonzalez is composed of 15 members (seven of whom are horn players), most of whom are experienced studio players, you have a list of credits that reads like a rock and roll "Who's Who."

The band, in fact, did not start out with serious intentions. "We just started out as a blowing band, upstairs at Ronnie Scott's," recalls Mercer. The jams were led by tenor sax man Mick Eaves, who has been responsible for seeing Gonzalez through various changes of personnel and fortune.

But the band didn't make the most serious decisions about its career until a year ago. "We've always had the band as a hobby," says Mercer, "but last year was the first we decided to take ourselves seriously as a commercial entity. Business only deals with business, so we went and got ourselves a management deal." Gonzalez is now managed by Mick Blackburn and Keith Reid (lyricist for Procol Harum), who also manage the Sutherland Brothers Band and Frankie Miller.

Though Gonzalez has been with EMI since 1973 and has released three albums in England and two in America (the others were the British-only "Gonzalez" and "Our Only Weapon Is Our Music"), the commercial turning point in the group's career came with the release of the single, "Dancing," produced by Gloria Jones.

Oddly, the track is over a year and a half old. "We recorded 'Haven't Stopped Dancing' in the Summer of 1977," recalls Mercer, and it wasn't even released in America. In England, it enjoyed success as a disco hit, but because of the BBC's one-station monopoly situation, it never crossed pop. But Capitol in New York liked it, and had it remixed by John Luongo and released."

Today, the record is Top Five disco and bulleting up the black contemporary and pop charts. But Mercer remains cool. "Even though we're just beginning to have the commercial success, we're not about to start running around like crazy. We'll believe it's all happening when we see the record at the top of the charts."

Jimmie Mack

New York City has produced some swaggering, gravel-throated singers in the last few years. David Johansen and Eddie Money come to mind, and Jimmie Mack is another addition to this rock 'n' roll trend. "I guess you could call the style white rhythm and bluesy. My voice is rough and not meant to be sweet," says Mack.

Mack's first solo LP, recorded in 1978, was a raucous affair that was quite similar to his work with the Earl Slick Band in which he was the key tunesmith. However, Mack's new "On The Corner" album demonstrates his versatility and maturity as an artist. The thundering rock 'n' roll is still evident in Mack's music, but perky Latin rhythms, funky up-tempo jazz and sweet orchestration underscore the new material.

Mack was born in Queens, New York and raised on Staten Island. "I played in about a million rock 'n' roll bands when I was growing up," says Mack. He received his first public attention as a guitar player with the Earl Slick Band. He later became that group's lead singer and head songwriter. When the group disbanded, Mack landed a solo contract with Big Tree Records.

Aside from Mack's dynamic, Jeff Beck-influenced guitar playing, it is singing that is his most intriguing talent. He displays his dramatic vocal ability most engagingly on the songs "On The Ice," "Ain't Gonna Make It" and "I'd Rather Be The One" off the new album. Mack's main vocal influences include Otis Redding, Wilson Pickett, Paul Rodgers and The Young Rascals.

The Big Tree/Atlantic recording artist's Staten Island upbringing is often the inspiration behind his songs. The "On The Corner" theme of his new LP is, in fact, a revelation of his youth. "I had a corner near the train station that I could go to when I was growing up. Everybody has a corner, pizza place or candy store where they hang out," says Mack.

The new Latin groove in his music is another outgrowth of his environment. "I don't think you can live in New York and not be affected by the Latin people," says Mack. "If you hang out in the park they are always playing flutes and congas. If you turn up the radio at the other end of the dial you'll hear people talking real fast and Latin music. It's everywhere."

Presently, Mack and his band are rehearsing for an upcoming U.S. concert tour that begins Feb. 21 at New York's Bottom Line. Mack lives above The Studio, a bar on his beloved Staten Island. "We can rehearse there anytime day or night. So, it's really great," says Mack. The Jimmie Mack Band includes Mack, guitar and lead vocals; Greg Deppe, keyboards; Gene Leppik, bass and background vocals; and John Gianoulis, drums and background vocals.

Mack says that he is looking forward to getting out to the West Coast because he hasn't been there since his Earl Slick days, and because he'd like to get away from the Big Apple's freezing weather. "We won't be playing the Hollywood Bowl this time around," jokes Mack. For right now, however, Jimmie Mack seems content to hang out on the corner.

Computer Tracking Service Offers Aid To Labels, Radio

by Michael Glynn

LOS ANGELES — Relief for regional record promotion personnel and radio station program directors has arrived with the formation of the first national computer-oriented record tracking service. Computrack, headed by Howard Gilman, formerly national director of marketing for ABC Records, and Mike Falcon, previously Cash Box radio editor and Record World retail editor, will take the function of tracking (measuring chart movement) singles on Top 40 radio stations, currently a part of label promotion staff duties, and offer it as an independent service.

"The concept came about six months ago, when I was in a meeting with an executive at a major label," explained Gilman. "He was telling me the problems he had in the amount of time his people spent tracking and how important it was to have them doing what they do best, which is actually promoting the record. We decided that by employing the use of a computer we could provide a faster, more accurate and more economical way of gathering the same data."

Accuracy, Personal Contact

With 375 Top 40 radio stations now included in their survey, Computrack points to a more efficient and professional method of dealing with station program and music directors than what is the common practice now at most record companies. Using mostly older, executive caliber personnel on their staff, the policy is to develop a regular one-to-one relationship between individuals at the service and station directors.

"Judging from what we've found, the promotion person, in many cases, will have his secretary call the station. The program director will inevitably put his secretary on to talk with her. This information is passed on to the regional promotion person who will in turn report the same data to the national office. You're talking about a four-step process, minimum, and the error factor is bound to increase," Falcon indicated. "We provide an executive-level contact who will speak directly to the PD or MD on a weekly basis at the time they specify."

At $150 per record a week, Computrack feels that its service is affordable to both the major and smaller labels alike, whether there is one record to track or ten. In addition, it will certainly benefit the radio community by cutting down on the number of "checkup" calls placed to stations concerning tracking information without cutting contact or service from the labels.

No Threat To Stations

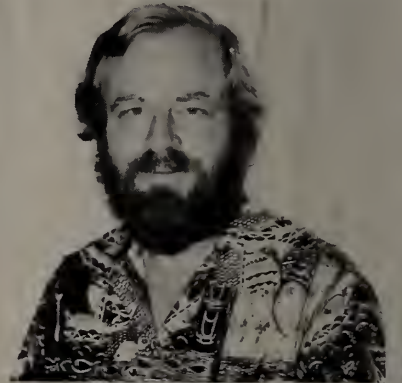

"What we offer the radio stations is an impartial, non-pressure service, that doesn't care whether the record was jumped, added, dropped or whatever and because we represent a number of clients we can save the stations time with just one call," noted Falcon.

Both Falcon and Gilman were quick to add that this does not mean the number or intensity of calls made by promotion people trying to get airplay for their records will decrease. However, by tiering their schedule towards the availability of radio personnel, they will be able to insure the accuracy and reliability of their data.

"All of our information will be gathered Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, including the late adds Wednesday night, Thursday morning at nine o'clock, our sheets will be on the desks of our clients," stressed Gilman.

Management firms are also expected to

Huffman, DaKroob Upped At RSO

LOS ANGELES — Mitch Huffman has been promoted to the position of vice president of national sales for RSO Records, and Mel DaKroob has been upped to the company's national sales manager's post.

Before assuming his new job, Mitch Huffman was RSO's national sales manager. Prior to that, he was the company's promotion man in Boston. Huffman has also worked at WEA as the sales manager for its Boston and Seattle branches.

DaKroob, before being promoted to his newly-created position, was the national field sales manager for RSO. DaKroob has been a member of RSO's staff since Jan. 1978. Previously he was vice president of sales at 20th Century and London Records.

Al Coury, RSO's president commented, "There is no question that our sales team, headed by Mitch Huffman and Mel DaKroob, is tops in the recording industry."

TASHA RENDEZVOUS — Atlantic recording artist Tasha Thomas recently made a series of promotional visits to Los Angeles in support of her forthcoming LP, "Midnight Rendezvous" which includes the single "Shoot Me (With Your Love)." Thomas visited several radio stations and taped an appearance on the Merv Griffin TV show during her visit. Pictured (l-r) are: Vince Mauro of the Dee Anthony Organization; Thomas; Kathy Acquaviva, Atlantic's west coast publicity manager; and Paul Cooper, national director of publicity for Atlantic.

Cyclone Inks Dist. Pact With GRT

LOS ANGELES — Cyclone Records, an arm of White Buffalo Productions, Inc., has signed a distribution deal with the GRT Record Group. Both White Buffalo, a semi-autonomous division of the Jim Halsey Company of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Cyclone Records are headed by Larry Baunach, former vice president of ABC/Dot Records.

Cyclone was set up with the intent to develop new artists/writers who have the broad-based musical appeal necessary to cross-over between the country and pop music charts. Though all recordings will be distributed through the GRT Record Group, rock product will be promoted by Janus Records while Ranwood Records will handle country recordings.

Looking to expand their base in the contemporary arena, as well as country/pop and rock, the label will initially present a roster of four artists, including country music singer Sammi Smith, who will make the label debut with her cover of "What A Lie" later this month.

Cyclone and White Buffalo Productions will both be centered in Los Angeles.

BMI Tells Colleges To Stop Using Music Without Paying For It

NEW YORK — Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI) has sent a letter to over 1,000 colleges who have not yet signed agreements with the firm, placing them on notice to desist from any further public use of BMI music. Pointing out that the federal copyright law requiring them to obtain licenses has been in effect for more than a year, BMI licensing vice president Alan H. Smith added that any further use of its music may be considered a willful infringement. Furthermore, Smith noted, any institution that ignores the notice may be subject to considerable financial damages under the law.

"We offer colleges and universities a two-tier structure," Smith explained. "The first tier is a 5½¢ rate per student, which covers all general uses of music on campus with two exceptions. The first is if the college radio station earns more than $10,000 a year from advertising, at which point it is deemed a commercial operation. The second tier is for concert attractions paid more than $1,000, for which we charge one cent per available seat. This was a rate that we negotiated with the American Council of Education."

Scott Appointed VP At Capricorn Records

LOS ANGELES — Jon Scott was recently appointed to the newly created position of vice president of special projects at Capricorn Records.

Scott comes to the label after a two-year stint as director of national album promotion for ABC Records. Prior to that, he occupied a similar post at MCA Records. Scott began his career in radio, and worked at WMC-FM/Memphis for six years.

Scott's first projects at his new post will include working on the new Allman Bros. LP, "Enlightened Rogues" and the upcoming Billy Thorpe album, "Children Of The Sun." He will report directly to Phil Rush, Capricorn's vice president of promotion.

Wynne Smith

Smith Appointed VP At Roadshow

NEW YORK — Wynne Smith has been appointed vice president for Roadshow Artists Management, the in-house management division of Roadshow Records.

Smith was formerly management liaison for the company, where she helped to direct Roadshow artists Brass Construction, Enchantment and Mark Radice. Smith also served on a consultancy basis to the managers of B.T. Express, Winners, Shirley Caesar and Al Wilson.

Before joining the Robert Stigwood Organization in 1973 as management liaison, Smith worked with Creative Management Associates. She joined Roadshow in 1976.

Levy Has Alternative To Indie Distribution

NEW YORK — Len Levy, president of Commonwealth Marketing Services Inc., has proposed that record manufacturers become the "true supplier" of their own product and assume responsibility for the pressing, stocking and shipment of orders as a means of bypassing independent distributors.

Levy suggests that manufacturers employ a sales representative to deal exclusively with retailers, rack jobbers, one stops, and chains, so that "if a manufacturer wants to ship 'gold' or 'platinum' to satisfy egos, that becomes their direct and immediate financial responsibility, along with their "preogative."

Polygram Sold Seven Million 45s In January

NEW YORK — Polygram Distribution has reported record sales of seven million singles in January, 1979, a 50% increase in overall gross sales, compared to the company's January, 1978 sales figures.

Among the singles responsible for Polygram's record-breaking month are "Too Much Heaven" by the Bee Gees, "I Will Survive" by Gloria Gaynor, "Y.M.C.A." by the Village People, "Shake Your Groove Thing" by Peaches and Herb, "Aqua Boogie" by Parliament, and "Heaven Knows" by Donna Summer.

Innovations

Rick Bleiweiss, national singles director, cited several innovations that contributed to the January singles sales boom, including a "hot singles checklist" for more efficient processing and shipping; a singles hotline, with daily radio and singles sales activity available to the caller; and the installation of CRT terminals in the offices of key Polygram executives. The terminals are plugged into Polygram's central computer system.

Morbidly obsessed with these thoughts, I wrote this song about death. The next day I was told that Guy, our 17 year-old messenger boy, had been tragically killed on his motorcycle the day before. Summer & 'Macho Men' Win 1978 SCDDJA Disco Awards

by Peter Hartz

LOS ANGELES — Donna Summer and Sylvester were named Disco Artists of the Year while the Village People were voted Disco Group of 1978 at the third annual Southern California Disco DJ Association music awards ceremony, held Feb. 14 at the Biltmore Hotel in downtown Los Angeles. The event, hosted by A.J. Miller, president of SCDDJA, was well-attended by disco industry figures from across the nation.

In anticipation of the awards banquet, L.A. Mayor Tom Bradley declared Feb. 14-20 "Disco Week" in Los Angeles. Art Gastelum, inner city and east L.A. administrative coordinator for the Mayor presented the "Disco Week" proclamation.

Throughout the evening, the audience was entertained by performances from Loleatta Holloway, Chanson, Alton McClain & Destiny, Edwin Starr, Love & Kisses, Linda Evans, Arpeggio and Keith Barrow.

Among those receiving special awards were RSO Records for "Saturday Night Fever" and Casablanca Records & Film Works for "Thank God It's Friday." Discotheque Studio One owner Scott Forbes was also given a special award as were KUTE and KIIS radio stations. In addition

Nine Labels Win Judgment Against Heilman And E-C

NEW YORK — Judge Michael J. Barron of the Circuit Court of Milwaukee County recently affirmed an earlier decision by ruling that Mercury Records and eight other plaintiff record companies may be granted summary judgment and be awarded money in a class action suit for damages against record pirate David Heilman and his firm, E-C Tape.

Judge Barron had already granted the plaintiffs summary judgment in May, 1978, but it was stayed when the defendants entered a motion for reconsideration, arguing that the burden was on the record companies to demonstrate how much damage was caused. But Barron ruled that because the defendants misappropriated the recordings, the plaintiffs would not have to establish individual losses, and damages would be measured by the profits earned by the defendants.

Barron, in addition, denied the defendant's request for a jury trial on the question of damages. The Court also approved a settlement of the claims by the plaintiff record companies against Sidney Hirschberg, a former shareholder and director of E-C Tape.

HARTMAN EARNS GOLD SINGLE — Blue Sky recording artist Dan Hartman was recently presented with a gold single for his 45, "Instant Replay," taken from the album of the same name. 25-34 Demographic Profiled At New CBS Presentation

LOS ANGELES — The largest and fastest growing adult population, the 25-34 year old demographic, is the subject of a new CBS-FM national sales presentation. An in-depth profile of these consumers and a discussion on how advertisers can target in on this market with adult contemporary radio are part of the presentation entitled, "The $261 Billion Market."

"They are well educated, have good jobs and spend their $261 billion a year on such items as expensive cars, homes, travel, entertainment and furnishings," says Robert G. McGoarty, vice president and general manager of CBS-FM National Sales. "The 25-34 year olds are easy to influence — they show little established brand preference — and yet are the hardest to reach through traditional advertising methods."

April Marks Start Of North American Stewart Tour Dates

LOS ANGELES — Warner Bros. recording artist Rod Stewart, enjoying considerable success these days with a chart-topping album, "Blondes Have More Fun," and single, "Da Ya Think I'm Sexy?," is set for a 27-city tour of North America starting in Edmonton, Alberta April 12 and finishing in Los Angeles 10 weeks later.

Included in the schedule are a three-day stop at Madison Square Garden in New York and four evenings at the Forum in L.A. Stewart is currently performing in Australia on the first leg of his Far East Tour, with visits to New Zealand, Japan and Hawaii planned.

EAST COASTINGS

EAST COASTINGS — ON THE BEACH — The backstage faces were New York, but the setting was the Sportatorium in Hollywood, Florida. On stage, opening for Heart was Firefall, and, judging by the crowd's reaction, Firefall could easily have headlined this important south Florida venue. Which doesn't take anything away from Heart, but the irony was that, later in the evening, Atlantic Records threw a party to present Firefall with platinum albums for their latest release, "Elan." How can it be that a group this popular, with a string of hit singles ("Strange Way," "You Are The Woman") is not headlining?

At any rate Firefall's stage show fronted by Larry Burnett, Mark Andes and Jock Bartley, is a model for tight, flawless rock professionalism with just enough fire in the midst of mellow harmonies to excite a young rock audience. . . . After the show, Atlantic Record's large New York contingent, led by president Jerry Greenberg (who played drums during Firefall's last two numbers) and including Mike Klenfner, Perry Cooper, Tunj Erim, Jim Delehant, Bill Cataldo and Mike Manocchio, joined Firefall at the Forge on gilded Miami Beach to celebrate the platinum award. Joining the sumptuous party were Alhby Galutin, Yvonne Elliman, and New Yorkers Nat Weiss and Buddy Allen. While the Miami affair was a matter of sun-seeking for some Manhattan refugees, it was a triumphant homecoming for one, newly named co-director of national pop promotion, Bill Cataldo, who worked the Miami market several years ago. Cataldo, in fact, was feeling so good that he was kind enough to come to the aid of an out-of-work space astronaut who made her way to the Firefall show. It's not everyday one sees such an admirable act of charity from a promo man, but, well . . . ask Bill for details.

NAMES IN THE NEWS — Teddy Pendergrass has been named to star in "The Otis Redding Story." A double album soundtrack, featuring Pendergrass singing Redding's hits, is also on the boards. . . . Can you believe this? Sure you can, although Casablanca isn't confirming it — namely that the Village People will be doing a movie shot at Fire Island this summer. It's also rumored that Bruce Jenner and Jacqueline Bissett are up for the leading roles. Well, with Jacques Morali writing the score and the boys doing their thing, at least it should be a bit different than the Annette Funicello-Frankie Avalon beach blanket epics. . . . B.B. King will tour Russia in March. . . . An item in search of a caption — Smokin' Joe Frazier and Tiny Tim will star in Roy Radin's Vaudeville '79 show. Heavy. . . . Delbert McClinton goes on Saturday Night Live February 24. . . . ABC's Sonny Carter has put together a disco-gospel package titled "Hallelujah Disco" . . . On Rick Wakeman new album, "Rhapsodies," due in March, a "disco flavor" is promised, along with a version of Tchakovsky's "Swan Lake" and Gershwin's "Rhapsody In Blue" . . . Fred Haayen, president of Polydor, signed Philip D'Arrow to the label after catching the performer at Reno Sweeney in Greenwich Village. "Burn The Disco Down" will be D'Arrow's first single for Polydor. Joe Steffo, Meat Loaf's ex-drummer, has joined D'Arrow's back-up band. . . . Andy Pratt is at the RCO recording studio near Woodstock, N.Y., and should have his third Nempcor album out in late May. . . . Screams, an Illinois band, have been signed by Infinity, and the group's debut album will be produced by Terry Luttrell, former vocalist for Starcastle and now executive VP of Dollars & Sense Productions in Champaign, Illinois. . . . You'd think Clive Davis wouldn't exactly be crazy about CBS lawyers, but the fact is that he just brought over ace Columbia Records attorney Michael Pollack to head up Arista's law department.

BONNIE & DON SHOW — Motown recording artist Bonnie Pointer and Don Cornelius, host and producer of TV's Soul Train, discuss Pointer's career — past and present — following her recent performance on the show.

McGUINN, CLARK & HILLMAN SPEAK — Calling the "McGuinn, Clark & Hillman" album a debut sounds funny, because, of course, the trio performed together as the Byrds many years ago. Although that chapter of their musical lives has long since been closed, their new album sounds much like the best of the Byrds, yet with a surprising freshness. Perhaps the reason is, as McGuinn explains, the fact the "nothing was pre-planned. I was playing at the Troubadour early last year, and Gene was in the audience, so I invited him up to play." Afterwards, the duo played some small west coast clubs, and after deciding the feeling was right, they called up Chris Hillman and asked him to join. Each of the three ex-Byrds brought in their own songs when it came time to record; but, Clark reported, "we took the songs apart inside the studio and really kicked them around. At one point, David Crosby came through the studio and made some suggestions." In June and July, the group, without a label deal, took an unpublicized tour through Australia and New Zealand. They're planning a U.S. tour, starting in late March, but before that there are club dates at the Bottom Line on March 23, 24 and 25. And how will it all work out, according to Chris Hillman? "I think it will work," Hillman answers. "Everybody's attitude has been real nice. There's no rock star syndrome, no drug problems, no ego problems. It's been fifteen years now, and we're too old for that. It's business, now."

NEW YORK NOTES — It looks like "They're Playing Our Song," Neil Simon's new Broadway comedy/musical, is going to be a hit. Robert Klein and Lucie Arnaz star, and Casablanca Records will release the cast album, which features a Marvin Hamlisch-Carole Bayer Sager score. . . . Tina Ball came up with an innovative idea, and she's turned it into a full fledged company called Rising Artists. Her firm is an "independent A&R" operation which will listen to and judge demos sent in by aspiring groups for $30. If she likes the tape, then she'll try to place the group with a company for a finders fee. Ball is at 663 Fifth Ave., telephone 534-6829.

Nautilus Network Achieves Success With 3 Syndicated Radio Programs

by Leo Sacks

NEW YORK — Steve Saslow's Nautilus Network, based in Lake Helen, Florida, recently celebrated the first anniversary of its one-hour syndicated radio programs, "Over the Blue Horizon," "The Music Special" and "The Comedy Hour." Designed for the AOR format, the three specials currently air on more than 200 progressive stations.

The concept for the specials, which emphasize an unending flow of music and as little dialogue as possible, actually germinated in 1977, when Saslow co-founded Interaudio, a radio production house in New York. The firm syndicated "Women in '78," a feature program that Interaudio distributed to all-news stations.

Saslow's experience at Interaudio helped to provide him with an understanding of the role of the syndicator and the needs of individual stations in the marketplace. He used this information when he set up his own syndicated service. "The idea for the shows was to create programming that would not only work for individual stations, but for national advertisers who wanted follow-up on a local level," he explained.

Hook-Up With Fox

When Saslow left Interaudio, he was introduced to Sonny Fox, the program director at WYSP-FM in Philadelphia. Fox had been producing "The Comedy Hour" at the station for years, and had made several unsuccessful attempts to syndicate the program nationally. But Saslow recognized that the show had true national potential, and, with the help of Lee Abrams and the Burkhart/Abrams consultancy, he was able to place the program on 40 stations across the country. Today, "The Comedy Hour" is produced in Toronto by Joint Communications and featured on Sunday evenings over most of the Burkhart/Abrams-consulted stations.

The second staple of the Nautilus Network is "The Music Special," which profiles one recording artist each week and is produced by Jim Roach at Pittsburgh's WDVE-FM. Like the comedy program, "The Music Special" airs in the Top 50 markets and is targeted for the 18-24 age group. Recent subjects on the program have included Boston, Al Stewart, Foreigner, Todd Rundgren, Hall & Oates, Styx and Heart.

Saslow says that Roach's program appealed to him because "the interview portion never overwhelmed the music, as artist-profiles often do. But Jim's show struck the kind of balance we were looking for."

Import Releases

While he considers both the comedy and music specials necessary additions to AOR formats as a means of building loyalty among listeners, Saslow understands why only a handful of progressive stations broadcast his "Over the Blue Horizon," a program produced by Mal Reding at WIOQ-FM in Philadelphia that features current import releases.

"Stations in the major markets wouldn't buy the show because they didn't think it had enough mass appeal," he says. "The PDs would argue that their markets were too competitive for that kind of specialized programming. So it really threw us for a loop when markets like Milwaukee (WLPX-FM) and Minneapolis (KQRS-FM) went with it. But that didn't stop us from playing artists like Dire Straits, Sad Cafe and Kayak before they became popular in the U.S."

Now Saslow is embarking on his most ambitious venture to date. In May, he will begin syndicating a live concert series to AOR stations on a monthly basis from Bee-Jay Recording Studios in Atlanta. Though the first program in the series will be taped, future broadcasts will be syndicated live via satellite through an uplink that will be installed at the site of Nautilus' new 330,000 square-foot studios in Lake Helen. The two-story structure will house nine fully automated video studios that Saslow will make available to record companies for commercial and promotional use.

Dates Are Set For Next Year's MUSEXPO Meet

NEW YORK — MUSEXPO will hold its fifth annual International Record and Music Industry Market November 4-8, 1979 at the Konover (Hyatt) Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida. Last year, 951 companies from 41 countries participated in the convention.

POINTS WEST — WHERE ARE THEY NOW DEPT. — Spencer Davls, a leader of the '60s British Invasion and currently project coordinator (and producer) of Paul Korda's "Dancing In The Aisles" LP for Janus Records, has embarked on a new project. He is putting together a compilation anthology of Spencer Davls Groups that will include a new band. While in Europe recently on behalf of the Korda album, Spencer had a reunion of the original Spencer Davis Group, including Stevie Winwood, Muff Winwood and Peter York and he reports that the quartet is looking to do a television appearance together. It will be a difficult thing to do, because of conflicting commitments. Muff is now head of CBS A&R in the U.K. (and the producer of the hit Dire Straits album) while Stevie is working on a new album in his home studio. Spencer says Stevie's got four tracks cut for what will most likely be an Island Records album. Back in L.A., Spencer has laid down the basic tracks for a new single, "I Would Like To See You Again," to kick off the anthology package. Stevie is going to play mandolin on the 45 and the bass part has been left off for Bill Wyman. Meanwhile, Spencer is rehearsing a new band, LARKS (the L.A. Rhythm Kings), including Tret Fury and Peter Jameson, for some possible Southern California dates.

A LOYAL VALENS FAN — While in Los Angeles for a couple of nights at the Palomino Club, RCA's Gary Stewart managed to find a copy of one of his all-time favorite albums, the very first Ritchie Valens LP. Stewart originally bought the album when he was 15, even though he didn't own a record player at the time. But on the way home from a friend's where Stewart was listening to the LP, he dropped and chipped it, leaving him without the first track on each side, until his recent find.

REJECTION AND PATIENCE — Tony Lawrence used to be a trade writer and later a product manager at Columbia and Warner Bros. "Now he's doing the stand-up routine in L.A.," according to Billy Joel, who wrote the opening to "My Life" for Lawrence, who became a friend while working Joel's albums. Lawrence is now performing a one-man show called "The Stand-Up" at the Callboard Theatre in Beverly Hills through March 4. The show includes some riotous moments, with Lawrence playing a record company president, a gay teacher and a driving school instructor as well as doing straight stand-up material.

MUSIC POWER — If there's any doubt as to the dominance of the music business in the entertainment industry, one need only look at the line-up on last week's "Hollywood Squares." Sitting in those funny little cubicles were Carole Bayer Sager, Melissa Manchester, Yvonne Elliman, Frankie Valli, Martin Mull and Wolfman Jack. Whatever happened to Rose Marle?

HOW DO YOU KEEP THEM DOWN ON THE FARM? — It seems that once a recording star gets a taste of TV they have trouble kicking the habit. Following her dramatic debut in the TV movie "Amateur Night," Tanya Tucker has gotten the acting bug. The MCA songstress has signed to guest-star in the sequel to "The Bastard," called "The Rebels." . . . Charlie Daniels was so pleased with his cameo appearance in the TV movie "Murder In Nashville" that he's decided an acting career may enhance his recording career. So, he's now reportedly looking for parts . . . A couple of teenage TV vets are getting involved with new projects. Lelf Garrett has been signed by CBS for his first television special. The 17-year-old recording star has made numerous TV and movie appearances, most recently on ABC's "Family." . . . And "Hollywood Teen" host Jimmy McNichol is set to star in a pilot with a beach setting for CBS-TV being developed by Warner Bros. Television. McNichol recorded an album last year with sister Kristy McNichol for RCA.

ON THE ROAD — Poco, a name last seen on marquees in August, 1977, has been doing warm-up dates for its upcoming major club tour at the Blue Note Club in Boulder, Colo. Seen backstage after one show was former member Richie Furay. The official tour kicks off in Minneapolis at Doc Holliday's March 7 and ends April 19-21 at the Roxy in L.A. . . . A&M is sending a trio of its acts off on separate tours. Gino Vannelli is embarking on an eight-week tour of 34 cities beginning March 8 in Charlotte, N.C. and ending May 6 in Vancouver. The tour, featuring specially designed sound, lighting and hydraulic effects, is Vannelli's first since the fall of 1977. Nazareth has booked a 29-date tour beginning later this month and finishing up on April Fool's Day at the Tower Theatre in Philadelphia. The Scottish group made its first line-up change ever before recording its current LP, "No Mean City," with the addition of guitarist Zal Cleminson. And A&M is also putting the Police on the road. The British-based trio has a 22-date U.S. tour set to start with a three-night stand at the Whisky in L.A. March 1-3 . . . ABC's the Amazing Rhythm Aces kicked off their 1979 tour Feb. 9 in Milwaukee at the Municipal Auditorium. The group is now doing a month of dates with label-mate Jimmy Buffett . . . Youngbloods-founder Jesse Colln Young and his band return to Seattle for concerts at Paramount Northwest Feb. 24-25 . . . From deep in the heart of Georgia, the word is the Peach State's favorite sons, the Atlanta Rhythm Section, is getting ready for a major spring tour.

COMING RELEASES — "Accidents Will Happen" is set for release shortly as the single off Elvis Costello's "Armed Forces." Columbia is also preparing an Elvis video for in-store use with the Angry One doing "(What's So Funny 'Bout) Peace, Love And Understanding" and "Oliver's Army." . . . The new Journey album, "Evolution," will be out the second week in March. The group will be going on a short European tour in March followed by a U.S. tour in May . . . Patti Smith's "Wave" LP is coming soon on Arista and will include Patti's version of the Kinks' classic "Do You Want To Be A Rock 'N' Roll Star".

CLARIFICATIONS — A photo recently showed Donna Summer and Giorgio Moroder holding a Golden Globe award, saying it was for "Last Dance." Although "Last Dance" did win an award that night, the one Giorgio was holding was his own, for Best Original Score (for "Midnight Express") . . . Former Arista VP Michael Lippman is resuming his career as a lawyer and, contrary to our report last week, is continuing his relationship with Leo Sayer. Also, Lippman was David Bowle's lawyer and business advisor, but never his manager.

FAMILY AFFAIRS — Cleveland International president Steve Popovlch and his wife Maureen are now the proud parents of Stephen Frank Popovlch, born Feb. 3. . . Anna McGarrigle, half of Warner Bros.' McGarrigle Sisters, gave birth to a girl, Lilly Lanken, on Jan. 26 in Montreal. joey berlln

The Clash

COMMODORE BALLROOM, VANCOUVER — The Clash's west coast swing of its debut North American tour — beginning in Vancouver Jan. 31 and winding up in Santa Monica Feb. 9 — marked a breakthrough not only for this critically acclaimed rock quartet, but for all British new wave bands striving to capture a share of the U.S. market. In each of the four cities it played the Clash received little or no airplay, yet the group sold-out all of its concerts, including the 3,500-seat Berkeley Community Theatre and the 3,000-seat Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

Most importantly, the Clash fully lived up to its reputation as being an exhilarating, high energy band which can mesmerize its audiences with a diverse array of rock 'n' roll musical styles, wide-ranging lyrics, and a commanding stage presence.

At each of the shows, the group only played between 60-75 minutes, but because each set contained as many as 20 numbers and the energy level was so overwhelming, the hour-plus shows were more than sufficient. Leading off with either "I'm So Bored With The U.S.A." or "Complete Control," the Clash immediately stirred the crowds into a rock 'n' roll frenzy with its tenacious instrumental execution and committed, intense vocal performances.

Unlike the Sex Pistols, which perfected a potent yet clearly limited four-chord execution (albeit bolstered by its outrageous, nihilistic attitude and fronted by Johnny Rotten's scathing vocals), the Clash is a versatile outfit which packs such a varied arsenal of rock weapons that it can win over rock fans in any number of ways.

Granted, most of the band's songs are in the slashing, no-holds-barred, hard-rock mold, but the dueling guitar punctuations of Mick Jones and Joe Strummer, the swinging bass rhythms of Paul Simonon and the bristling drumming of Topper Headon supply the band with a more dynamic, intricate execution. In addition, the group's performances display the Clash's plethora of influences, as witnessed by "Julie's In The Drug Squad" (New Orleans-flavored '50s rock), "Guns On The Roof" (early Who), "Safe European Home" (early '70s rock a la Mott The Hoople), plus "(White Man) In Hammersmith Palais" and "Police and Thieves" (reggae).

Although each of the four gigs offered seemingly limitless energy and the striking visual images of band leaders Strummer and Jones, it was not until its benefit concert at the 1839 Geary Theatre and at the Santa Monica Civic that the group fully hit its stride. From start to finish, these two shows were near-perfect exhibitions of youthful, challenging British rock 'n' roll circa 1979. The poster outside the Geary Theatre proclaimed the Clash as "The Only English Band That Matters," and after viewing the group's shows, it was hard to disagree.

Edwin Starr

TOTAL EXPERIENCE, L.A. — Edwin Starr is the type of performer who aiven a groove, a lyric and an audience, can work wonders. A consummate professional who sings with a life and death intensity, Starr put all the ingredients together on his recent single

"Contact" which became a disco smash and established a strong R&B and pop presence.

An artist who has made a living with his music for more than a decade, Starr has had hits in the past, among them: "Agent 00 Soul," "War (What Is It Good For?)," "25 Miles" and more. He has also experienced slumps where his brand of powerhouse R&B soul/funk was out of style, the music of a by-gone generation. In periods of prosperity and drought, Starr has remained true to the music he hears. Like many other black artists, Starr found a receptive audience in Europe when Americans were listening to "new" music.

Starr's recent performance at the Total Experience was a demonstration of his intensity and professionalism. The man sings with neck-bulging power.

Backed by a tight rhythm section that could supply the groove, Starr delivered a tight set of his classics and invigorating renditions of songs from his "Clean" LP. Although a pulsating synthesizer line was missing from the band's rendition of "Contact," the tune came out the audience favorite. However, Starr interprets all of his material with a care that bespeaks his long-time commitment to music.

Disco has presented Starr with an opportunity to once again capture the airwaves and the dance floors. "Contact," remixed by the talented Rick Gianatos, is a steady disco favorite and the LP "Clean" is bulleting on the pop chart. Starr has a new platform, a revitalized and directed sound.

Natalie Cole

MGM GRAND HOTEL, LAS VEGAS — With the concrete barely dry around her star on Hollywood Blvd., Natalie Cole swept into the MGM Grand Hotel's Celebrity Room and presented an inspired show characterized by non-stop talent and spontaneous fun.

Natalie entered the stage resplendent in a floor length black velvet robe and launched promptly into her "Lovers Medley," a seamless amalgam of hit tracks from four previous albums. The responsive audience was hers immediately and the entire proceedings began to really cook from thereon. As she discarded her robe to be able to flex out more in her spray-on emerald green costume, the orchestra kept the break-neck pace going with "The Winner" and then her up and coming single "Stand By Me." Highlighting a majority of her soulful songs was her adroit scat singing, which best illustrated the lady's breathtakingly unwavering vocal range.

The solid eight member nucleus of her sterling touring band was further augmented by a full string and brass section, which gave musical director Linda Williams ample room to utilize the orchestra either in part for moodier ballads or with all the stops out for big production numbers.

At one point during the program, after a warmly human introduction, Natalie proceeded to make a seemingly innocent, yet profound, comment on pop music's fragile, sentimental history. Natalie, under a solitary white spot with soft string accompaniment, performed an endearing rendition of "Mona Lisa" followed immediately (no time for applause even) by a full-tilt extended version of "Lucy In The Sky With Diamonds." A stirring highlight of the evening, to be sure.

Four songs later, among which was a near revivalist rendition of "Annie Mae," and Natalie Cole's all too brief 70-minute

Las Vegas Debut was over. If ever anyone deserved a star on Hollywood Blvd., it would have to be a consummate performer like Natalie Cole.

Comedian David Brenner, everybody's favorite Tonight Show sub-host, warmed up the audience with well-paced, insightfully funny anecdotes about urban living.

The Fabulous Poodles

BOTTOM LINE, NYC — Several days after all their equipment and their van were stolen in Boston, the Poodles gamely went on with the show, using new, untested equipment. Although the sound system for their Bottom Line gig was considerably less than perfect (Bobby Valentino's electric violin was without power for much of the concert), their music came across loud and clear.

Wearing suits to project a New Wave image (lead singer and guitarist Tony de Meur even wears Elvis Costello-like glasses), the Fabulous Poodles played a stripped-down, basic form of rock that recalled mid-'60s British invasion groups like the Who and the Kinks. While the intensity of their buildups and their brief, tightly constructed instrumental breaks resembled similar devices in the music of Costello, the Talking Heads and the Clash, the Poodles are not as original as any of those groups. What they have to offer is a no-frills, hard rock sound with clever lyrics, catchy hooks and the addition of a violin to the traditional trio of lead, bass and drums.

Although their lyrics are not "angry" in the New Wave mold, they are frequently amusing. "Chicago Boxcar," for example, from the Poodles' debut U.S. album on Park Lane/Epic, is a satirical number about a kind of haircut reputed to attract women. And "Tit Photographer Blues" is the story of a pornographic shutterbug who lusts after his subjects in vain.

Other songs in the set from the Poodles' new album, "Mirror Stars," included the title cut, "Work Shy," "Oh Cheryl," "Roll Your Own," "B Movies," and "Cherchez La Femme" (not to be confused with the title of the same name by Dr. Buzzard's Original Savannah Band). The best numbers were "B Movies," where Valentino, switching to rhythm guitar, provided strong support for de Meur's break, and "Mirror Star," which had a raw, primal power. The classically-flavored fiddle hoedown in "Oh, Cheryl" was one of the performance's most unusual features.

At this point, the Poodles have a lot going for them in terms of instrumental proficiency and inventive lyrics. If they can add a little more originality and lengthen the live versions of their recorded songs, they could have an even stronger impact than they did at the Bottom Line.

Rose Royce The Bar Kays

THE FORUM, L.A. — Let there be no mistake, the packed house came to party and they didn't go home disappointed as a solid roster of artists contributed their individual talents to an evening of varied but memorable funk.

Evelyn "Champagne" King and Michael Henderson, featured in the first half of the bill, have been reviewed here previously.

Opening the latter portion, Mercury group The Bar-Kays literally entered with a bang as flash canons kicked off a set of highly theatrical and infectious dance music that had most of the capacity crowd off their seats.

With two singles and albums currently charted, the band had more than enough hit material to satisfy the folks on the floor. "Holy Ghost" was a highlight of the performance as lead singer Larry Dodson pranced across the front of the stage delivering vocals which were both energetic and amusing.

The band, outfitted in sequined, transparent shirts, held a very full ensemble sound predominantly featuring a synthesizer, drums and horn attack. Nowhere was this more effective than on their popular "Shake Your Rump To The Funk" as the audience took the song's title straight to heart.

Celebrating a successful world tour and a triumphant return to hometown Los Angeles, the members of Rose Royce danced onstage across a rolling sea of dry ice as a light-studded, rotating silver rose appeared from behind the drum kit. Impressive opening effects, to be sure, but the group was not without the musical chops to back it up.

Most of Rose Royce's set consisted of hits from their three platinum-selling albums. "I'm In Love (And I Love The Feeling)," "Ooh Boy" and "I Want To Get Next To You" were all flawlessly rendered, the latter with silky Temptations/Smokey Robinson style vocals, led by Kenny Copeland.

The band's finale showcased Gwen Dickey's rich, soaring voice, making the cavernous Forum seem just a little more intimate. As she launched into "Wishing On A Star," a mirror ball far over head bathed the enraptured fans in light and with expert pacing, the group segued into the raucous "Car Wash," a monster single for the group.

Standing centerstage, resplendent in deep red, Dickey gave a plaintive, touching version of "Love Don't Live Here Anymore," their latest single, before an upbeat ending to a lively night.

Spirit Steppenwolf

SANTA MONICA CIVIC — The halcyon days of the 1960s, when "In A Gadda Da Vida" blared from the speakers of every V.W. van and mothers tried to hide their teenagers from the Hells Angelish seduction of "Born To Be Wild," were recreated at the Santa Monica Civic recently. Spirit, Steppenwolf and Iron Butterfly reinforced the adage that old rock 'n' roll bands never die — they just keep on touring.

Spirit, who headlined the show, fared the best of the three bands in this acid rock time warp. Spirit's new songs were interesting, but it was oldies like "Nature's Way," "Fresh Garbage" and "Animal Zoo" that drew the greatest response from the audience. Along with the Doors, Spirit was an epitomable L.A. band ever since it burst onto the rock 'n' roll scene in the late '60s with "I Got A Line On You Babe." Spirit is now composed of Randy California on lead guitar and vocals, Ed Cassidy (Mr. Skin) on drums and newcomer Larry Knight on bass. The band records on the Potato label.

Steppenwolf proudly marched through a set filled with the magic of days gone by. "Magic Carpet Ride" sounded as good as ever, while the trilogy from the "Monster" LP retained much of its old power. The new band doesn't possess the haunting quality of the original group, but still managed to deliver a chilling version of "The Pusher."

Iron Butterfly opened the show.

ON STAGE

GEORGE HARRISON — Dark Horse DHK 3255 — Producers: George Harrison and Russ Titelman — List: 7.98

With his first album since "33 1/3," Harrison has returned with a very assured, polished album which contains mostly understated, acoustic ballads and light rockers. Throughout the album, the ex-Beatle's vocals are fluid and expressive, rarely displaying any traces of the hoarseness which has plagued some of his more recent works. Harrison is backed by an all-star cast on the LP, but it is his own singing and his 10 new compositions that make this LP a winner. Includes the single, "Blow Away."

'BOUT LOVE — Bill Withers — Columbia JC 35596 — Producers: Bill Withers and Paul Smith — List: 7.98

This veteran singer/songwriter's newest album is a warm, sincere effort which is dedicated to his favorite subject: love. Withers' distinctive, down-to-earth voice is perfectly suited for this LP's eight love songs. Also the LP's arrangements feature attractive horn charts, punchy rhythms, and infectious background vocals. Standout tracks include "All Because Of You" and "Look To Each Other For Love."

FEETS DON'T FAIL ME NOW — Herbie Hancock — Columbia — JC 35764 — Producers: David Rubinson and Herbie Hancock — List: 7.98

Herbie Hancock slips into a disco groove on his new LP and shows he is perfectly at home with the genre. The music is top flight, and full of funky bass and primal percussive rhythms. Hancock time after time shows how much of a chameleon he is by adapting to and furthering a musical form. Top jazz session men help out on the LP and Hancock makes ample use of the vocoder, the musical device that allows him to sing a few tunes.

MUDDY "MISSISSIPPI" WATERS LIVE — Blue Sky JZ 35712 — Producer: Johnny Winter — List: 7.98

This single live album is a killer of a recording, containing seven thrilling, spontaneous numbers capturing "Mississippi" in prime form. It's hard to imagine Waters improving on his versions of "Mannish Boy" and "Deep Down In Florida" from "Hard Again," but he does it here with some of his feistiest vocals and plenty of blistering slide guitar work. In concert today, Waters often reserves his strength and saves his best for certain key parts of his show, but he cuts loose on each of the seven performances here.

JOURNEY TO THE LAND OF ENCHANTMENT — Enchantment — Roadshow BXL1-3269 — Producer: Michael Stokes — List: 7.98

Enchantment is a potent quintet which on its latest album has concocted an impressive collection of wild, thumping disco/funk tunes, upbeat Spinners-like soul/pop cuts, and serene, romantic ballads. The group performs each style with taste and feeling, as witnessed by "Future Gonna Get You," "Any Way You Want It," and "Oasis Of Love." Throughout the LP, Enchantment's lead and harmony vocals are versatile and convincing.

UPTOWN SHAKEDOWN — Syl Johnson — Hi HLP 6010 — Producers: Hal Winn, Jerry Barnes and Mark Gibbons — List: 7.98

Long regarded as a premier Memphis soul singer, Syl Johnson has re-emerged with this stirring collection of potent disco numbers, crisp R&B tunes and elegant soul ballads. Obviously, at the heart of this album is Johnson's tasty vocal work, which exquisitely handles the variety of material here, conveying urban sensuality ("Mystery Lady"), charming innocence ("Gimme Little Sign") and strutting soul ("Otis Redding Medley").

FACE TO FACE — The Deells — ABC AA-1113 — Producers: Al Perkins, Calvin Carter, Rudy Robinson and the Deells — List: 7.98

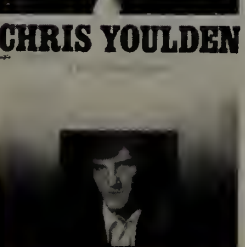

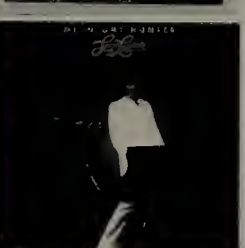

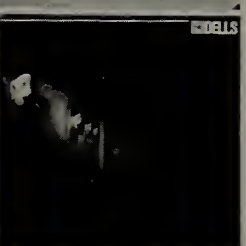

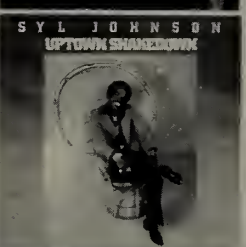

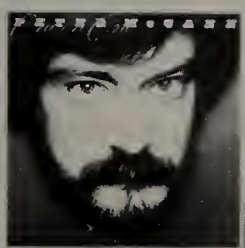

On its latest ABC effort, this long-standing soul group has issued another solid collection of spirited R&B/disco workouts and intimate soul ballads. The album leads off with the title cut, a riveting disco number that boasts powerful lead and harmony vocals, strong rhythms and intriguing sound effects. The remaining numbers are every bit as effective, particularly "Hooked On Loving You" and "Thought I Could."

FROM THE VAULTS — Various Artists — Natural Resources/Motown NR 4014T1 — Producers: Various — List: 7.98

This compilation album brings together 10 previously unreleased recordings by many of Motown's top '60s stars. "From The Vaults" is truly a gold mine for fans of Motown's "Golden Decade." Classic artists featured here include the Temptations, Diana Ross & the Supremes, Marvin Gaye, Smokey Robinson & the Miracles, the Spinners, Martha Reeves & the Vandellas plus four other acts. A special added treat is the collage of the original 45 RPM labels pictured on the back cover.

NIGHTINGALE — Gilberto Gil — Elektra 6E-167 — Producer: Sergio Mendes — List: 7.98

A veteran singer/guitarist/composer from Brazil, "Nightingale" marks Gilberto Gil's American debut album. Engagingly produced by Sergio Mendes, this LP showcases Gil's inviting vocals, joyful compositions, and festive Brazilian rhythms (performed by such noted musicians as Alex Acuna and Steve Forman).

ONE ON ONE — Peter McCann — Columbia JC 35724 — Producer: Hal Yoergler — List: 7.98

An established Top 40 pop composer, Peter McCann's first Columbia album should launch him as a versatile pianist/singer/songwriter in the pop-rock vein. "One On One" is divided between tender ballads and aggressive, melodic rockers, and McCann handles each style passionately and articulately. McCann demonstrates his expertise as a vocalist throughout the LP, recalling Art Garfunkel on the ballad "Love This Time" and the sleek exuberance of Neil Sedaka on a few of the upbeat tracks.

OUR MEMORIES OF ELVIS — Elvis Presley — RCA AQLI-3279 — Producers: Felton Jarvis and Joan Deary — List: 7.98

The re-issuing of these 10 tracks (with one additional previously un-released take) is based on the premise that Presley aficionados would like to hear a collection of songs that are stripped of any studio overdubs and sweetening. The end result emerges as quite the clever idea in that the King's vocals, more so than in these tracks' original editions, stand out even stronger over what is now simple pick-up backing tracks. A must for collectors and for A/C and country playlists.

BITTERSWEET — Lamont Dozier — Warner Bros. BSK 3282 — Producer: Frank E. Wilson — List: 7.98

Lamont Dozier has earned a legendary reputation as a songwriter and producer of countless hits, but he also reaffirms his status as a top-notch vocalist and performer with his latest album "Bittersweet" is an elaborate, colorfully-arranged assortment of peppy disco/R&B numbers and romantic ballads, which provide the perfect showcase for Dozier's confident, resonant vocals and his imaginative compositions (half of which were co-written with others). For a variety of formats.

LONELY DANCER — Van McCoy — MCA-3071 — Producers: Van McCoy and Charles Kipps — List: 7.98

"Lonely Dancer" offers a variety of material, ranging from sensitive ballads to pulsing disco works, but all exhibit Van McCoy and Charles Kipps' stellar production values, full-bodied arrangements and first-rate background harmonies (with the exception of the instrumentals "The Samba" and "Touchdown"). In addition, McCoy's resonant baritone vocals are mostly first-rate here. Standout tracks include "Merry Go Round," "The Samba" and the title track.

SISTER SLEDGE — We Are Family — Atlantic — SD 5209 — Producer: Nile Rogers and Bernard Edwards — List: 7.98

Produced by Rodgers and Edwards of Chic fame, this album is an excellent mixture of disco and pop material. From the fine disco arrangements on the current chart single, "He's The Greatest Dancer," to the moving vocals on the ballad, "Somebody Loves Me," this album is impressive throughout. "We Are Family" could be the second single from the LP, featuring a funky beat and a smooth, polished arrangement.

VALLEY OF THE DOLLS — Generation X — Chrysalis CHR 1193 — Producer: Ian Hunter — List: 7.98 — Bar Coded

With "Valley Of The Dolls," this hot, loud and rebellious rock 'n' roll band has produced one of the most musically pleasing new wave waxings to date. This British four some's second LP is chocked full of anguished narratives and the punkish, spirited vocals of Gen-X leader Billy Idol. Producer Ian Hunter's presence is apparent all through this new wave delight. Top cuts for AOR are: "Running With The Boss Sound," "Paradise West" and "King Rocker."

EARMEAL — Janne Schaffer — Columbia JC 35508 — Producer: Bruce Botnick — List: 7.98

From Sweden comes Janne Schaffer, who utilizes the electric guitar to nearly the same effect as Jean-Luc Ponty's cosmic violin runs. Schaffer's smooth, yet energetic guitar playing darts in, around and over Toto's Porcaro brothers' funky rhythm section in a truly exhilarating fashion that could easily elevate Abba's erstwhile guitarist into the higher echelons of jazz-rock's guitar army. A notch for progressive AOR.

MIDNIGHT HUNTER — Lane Caudell — MCA-3074 — Producers: Lane Caudell and Gerard McMahon — List: 7.98

With this, his second release, Lane Caudell makes good the promise of last year's debut "Hanging On A Star." Armed with tightly arranged, self-penned material, Caudell shows off a fluid style that encompasses punchy country rockers, smooth ballads and funkified toe-tappers. His taut back-up quartet also showcases Caudell's main asset: his freshly vibrant vocalizing. "Midnight Hunter's" refreshing diversity could lodge it firmly in AOR, pop and A/C playlists.

A BRITISH BLUES LEGEND — Chris Youlden — London LC 50015 — Producer: Various — List: 7.98

After a four-album stint with the infamous mid-period Savoy Brown as its lead singer, British blues shouter Chris Youlden went solo, with two fine albums being the end result of his endeavors. London has now compiled a single disc package compilation of Youlden's efforts. This "best of" Youlden's work emerges as an excellent, insightful foray into the talented mind of one of Britain's most underrated blues performers.

A BOOK FOR ALL STATIONS — Pat Martin, the PD at WSPT/WXYQ in Stevens Point, Wisc. has authored and is distributing a unique booklet entitled "The Secrets Of Programming Power." Martin compiled the booklet during a three-year period while researching common principles of radio programming in his spare time.

"I really believe this thing is needed," said Martin. "I bought just about every book there is on broadcast programming and didn't learn anything from them. I felt it was time for a different approach as far as technique and theory were concerned in putting together a radio station."

"The Secrets Of Programming Power" includes chapters on station management, common DJ mistakes and improving production. It also details how to find, hire and develop motivated key people for a successful radio station.

"It's obviously directed to a smaller market station, but I believe the booklet is universal in nature," explains Martin. "You can take the book and, using its principles, put together a black format, a country format or an all-news station."

Using the principles of his booklet, Martin consulted WXKE/Fort Wayne, a class A FM station in Indiana, during the fall Arbitrons. The station, which had previously gauged a 3.7, jumped to a whopping 11.3 in the recent ratings survey. The revitalized station even beat out WOWO, a 50,000 watt clear channel AM station, in the 18-49 male demographic.

fied that, 25 years after the author's death, the copyrights of his works would revert to his estate. Thus his heirs would receive royalties for the last 25 years of the copyright term, before the work passed into public domain.

Previous to Carlin's involvement in the case, Miriam Stern, former director of the American Guild of Authors and Composers, had become aware of the fact that the reversionary right of songwriters' estates were being ignored. With the help of a music industry lawyer, William Krasilovsky, she wrote to some of the estates and later formed a corporation with Andy Feinman to represent them.

Unable to shoulder the costs of extended litigation with the big publishers, Stern and Krasilovsky went to Freddy Bienstock and presented their case to him. He agreed to take on the financial burden and began signing the estates involved.

At first, Bienstock tried to obtain interlocutory decrees on one song at a time. "But the other publishers made it very expensive," recalled Johnny Bienstock, so his brother decided to institute a class action on behalf of all those who could benefit by exercising their reversionary rights.

The courts quickly recognized that pure instrumentals and songs written by one author fell under the reversionary rights provision. But there was still a question about songs in which the words had been written by one person and the music by another. If these songs, constituting about 65% of the total group of titles, were considered "collective works," similar to encyclopedias and magazines, they would not revert to the estates. However, the Court of Appeals ruled unanimously that they were not "collective works" and that they should have reverted.

Wide Ramifications

This decision has wide ramifications, because it is expected that courts in the Dominion countries will follow the example of the London appeals court. In addition, the reversionary provision affects current compositions in most of the Commonwealth nations.

At this point, according to Johnny Bienstock, Carlin is confident that the House of Lords will uphold the decision by the Court of Appeals. Meanwhile, Redwood is continuing to sign up more estates.

Nemperor Opens West Coast Office

LOS ANGELES — Nemperor Records recently opened a west coast office. The New York based label, owned by Nat Weiss and distributed through CBS, has assigned Bill Gerber to the post of west coast director of operations. He will be responsible for A&R as well as coordinating promotion, marketing and merchandising for the Pacific regions.

Gerber will be assisted by Barbra Bowman, former graphic and label coordinator in the A&R administration department for ABC Records. Bowman also has worked in the A&R and artist development departments for Epic Records. The new offices are located at 1930 Century Park West, Century City, California. (213) 556-4974.

"Morally, we were always right in the situation," commented Bienstock, "and we feel that we want to sign more of them and give them what is due there. Needless to say, we'll make money with them, but at the same time, there's no question that they will get a lot more than what they were getting with the previous publishers."

Double Pay

Both he and his brother, Freddy, stated that the estates would receive "at least double" what they are being paid now in mechanical and performance royalties from England and the Commonwealth countries. Under the basic agreement with Carlin, each estate that has assigned copyrights for both lyrics and music of a song to Redwood will get 75% of performance

AFTRA, SAG End Two-Month Strike

NEW YORK — The strike by members of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists and the Screen Actors Guild against advertising agencies and sponsors of radio and television commercials has ended. Union members were authorized to return to work last week following acceptance of contracts by the boards of AFTRA and SAG in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles. The strike began on December 19.

Though contracts must still be ratified by members of both unions, highlights of the new agreements include increases in session fees, demo rates, contractor fees for singers, pension and welfare contributions, joint promotions and cost of living.

AFTRA's members will meet to ratify the agreements within the next two weeks, while Guild members will vote by mail referendum.

Nelson Awarded Gold

NEW YORK — Willie Nelson received gold record certification recently for his latest album "Willie & Family Live."

MINING PLATINUM — Listening to the final mix on his forthcoming Warner Bros. album, "Livin' Inside Your Love," George Benson (r) was caught at Capitol studios in Los Angeles with producer Tommy Lipuma as they wrapped up work on the double LP, which will feature three Benson compositions and the musical assistance of Ronnie Foster, Earl Klugh, Ralph McDonald, Phil Upchurch and Steve Gadd, among others.

royalties and 50% of mechanicals collected in those territories. In addition, after five years, they will have the option of selling all their performance rights to Carlin for one and a half times the amount of money they have received during that period.

In the area of mechanical royalties, Bienstock also promised that the estates would double their earnings, despite the fact that Miriam Stern, who solicited many of the estates for Carlin, is contractually entitled to take one-third of the estate's share of mechanical royalties from the date the contract goes into effect. (If an estate earns more than $5,000 annually from mechanicals, Stern's share drops to 10% of anything over $5,000.)

Carlin's claim that they can increase the estates' earnings is based, not only on the performance rights clause, but also on the firm's direct collection system. Noting that many other publishers have subpublishers in the territories concerned (including Warner Bros., which is subpublished by Chappell in the U.K.), Freddy Bienstock pointed out that, under such agreements, the subpublisher usually takes half of whatever royalties they collect. Carlin, on the other hand, has subsidiaries in all of the countries in which the reversionary provision applies, and is not splitting the proceeds with anyone except for the estates (and Miriam Stern).

Opposing View

Leonard Golove, vice president of administration and general counsel for Warner Bros. Music, one of the publishers that is appealing the London court decision, denied Bienstock's assertion that the estates would receive more from Carlin than they had been getting from the original publishers. "The writer (or his estate) is no better off, or very little better off, with Freddy Bienstock than he is with the original publisher," stated Golove.

While not denying that the subpublisher gets a big chunk of the action, Golove claimed that a well-entrenched international concern like Chappell can do a better job of collecting royalties than Carlin, which he said is relatively unestablished internationally.

While he agreed that an estate could profit by gaining the reversionary rights in a manner that would leave them free to negotiate with whomever they chose, Golove pointed out that all of the estates represented by Carlin in the lawsuit had already signed agreements with Redwood, thus tying their hands.

Furthermore, Golove said, the Appeals Court decision left open the possibility that just the lyrics or just the music of a song could revert to an estate, complicating the problem of administering the copyright. To this assertion, Freddy Bienstock replied that "today a split copyright is more common than any publisher owning all of it." He added that such cases posed no special problem in terms of administration.

Golove brought up two other complications in the case: Many estates, he said, have signed renewal contracts with American publishers that, in effect, negate their reversionary rights; and also, a large percentage of Warner Bros.' titles in the U.K. are motion picture scores in which the reversionary provision does not apply because the songwriter was under contract to a studio.

Bienstock, in reply, pointed out that the London court had considerably narrowed down the permissible language under which renewal contracts would be construed to repeal reversionary rights, and that about 85% of the contracts he had seen would not pass the test. As for the "writer for hire" provision, he said that Carlin had never claimed songs in that category.

Wekser Leaves ATV To Form MusicWorks

LOS ANGELES — Marty Wekser has left ATV Music Group to start MusicWorks, a publishing consultation company for songwriters, music publishers and managers.

Background

For most of his career, Wekser has been involved in music publishing. While at ATV, he worked with Barry Mann and Cynthia Weil and on exploitation of the Lennon-McCartney catalog. Before joining ATV, he held the post of general professional manager for DeShufflin Music Group, representing the catalogs of Paul Simon, Mick Jagger/Keith Richards and Bruce Springsteen. Wekser began his career heading a New York office of Jobete Music Company, Motown's publishing division, before overseeing both coast offices from Los Angeles.

MusicWorks will be located in Los Angeles with a New York office expected to open in 1980.

A FAMILY AFFAIR — Lucille Ball and Gary Morton were in the opening night audience at the Imperial Theatre for the Broadway production of Neil Simon's "They're Playing Our Song." The show marked Lucie Arnaz' first starring role on Broadway as well as Simon's first musical production in 10 years. It was also the Broadway debut for leading man Robert Klein. The cast LP, released recently on Casablanca Records, marks the label's first involvement with Broadway productions. The LP is also reportedly the first cast album recorded prior to an opening in more than five years. The music and lyrics were written by

by Joey Berlin

LOS ANGELES — In the little more than a year since its first store opened, the Big Ben's retail chain has shown a penchant for doing things in a big way. All seven of the Los Angeles area Big Ben's stores are supermarket-size superstores and for the past two weeks the chain, a subsidiary of Integrity Entertainment Corp. (which also includes more than 100 Wherehouse stores), has been holding an "introductory sale" offering all $7.98 lists for $4.49 and most $8.98s for $4.99.

"The sale is to introduce 'the seven greatest record stores in the galaxy' to all of Los Angeles," says Ben Bartel, president of Big Ben's. "We've just opened three new stores, in Van Nuys in December, and in Encino and Pasadena in January, and there'll be another opening in Northern California (San Lorenzo) later this month, so we're celebrating with an introductory sale at all our stores. Right now the sale is open-ended, even I don't know when it will end."

Labels Supportive

Bartel says all the major record companies have been extremely supportive to his chain, both with ad dollars (as evidenced by the multi-page co-op ads in such publications as the Los Angeles Times Calendar section) and in-store artist appearances.

"The labels understand that if you set up great stores you can move tons of product; and not only tons of hits but ones and twos of this, that and the other thing, which a lot of companies need to make out. And our volume is so great that artists are anxious to make in-store appearances. In the last week we've had Isaac Hayes, Rufus, Chuck Brown and the Valentine Brothers," he says.

"I know I'm prejudiced because I built the stores, but Big Ben's is really the Saks Fifth Avenue of record stores," enthuses Bartel. "People don't dart in and buy a record and dart out. They come in and spend an hour enjoying the color, the boutiques, the selection and the fun we've built in. The record companies understand this and that's why

Clone Contest Set For Steve Martin

LOS ANGELES — Warner Bros. Records is currently in the midst of a nationwide search for the ultimate clone of comedian and recording artist Steve Martin. The look-sound-act alike contest is currently going on in over 25 major cities across the country and will culminate in six regional run-offs later this month.

Run-off finalists will be flown to Los Angeles where the winner will be selected on Feb. 24 at the Comedy Store. A national TV appearance has also been scheduled for the winner with the original "wild and crazy guy" himself.

they're so good to us."

Another source of pride for Bartel is Big Ben's video cassette department, which is featured in most of the chain's advertising.

"We're putting more and more footage into video cassettes and we're now seeing dollars in sales," indicates Bartel. "It's not uncommon to see $300 video cassette purchases after someone's shelled out $900 on a VHS system and he wants seven or eight movies to watch."

Breaking The $5 Barrier

Bartel believes there has been a degree of consumer resistance to the new $8.98 list price on selected LPs, but he is resigned to the fact that prices must go up.

"Certain things are inevitable, like death, taxes and rising prices," Bartel notes. "There'll be consumer resistance when we have to take the $8.98 lists over $5, but if the record companies have to raise their prices, so do we. I'm not happy with it, but I've got to go along. But records are still the best entertainment buy around anyway."

With his faith in the value of recorded music unshaken, Bartel is planning to open a minimum of six more Big Ben's Records & Tapes stores this year.

MCA Enacts New M'dsing Programs

LOS ANGELES — MCA Records is planning an extensive marketing campaign for its five February releases. New product from MCA will include albums by Joe Ely, Lane Caudell, Van McCoy, Jeffree and Mel Tillis.

Marketing items used to promote Joe Ely's new "Down On The Drag" LP will include four-color 3 X 3 posters of the cover art, color streamers and styrofoam letters spelling out the artist's name. MCA is also preparing one minute AOR and country radio spots. Ely will begin touring in mid-February in support of the new album.

The advertising campaign for Lane Caudell's "Midnight Hunter" album will concentrate on industry awareness through trade advertising. Point of purchase material will include vertical streamers and T-shirts.

Van McCoy's "Lonely Dancer" marketing campaign will consist of building a strong base at a disco and R&B level. Promotional items consisting of a four-color poster, and a four-color button will be distributed to the press, radio and retailers.

The upcoming Jeffree LP will be marketed toward a Top 40 acceptance, as well as R&B. Trade ads and consumer radio and print advertising will be aimed at introducing this new artist.

Mel Tillis' new LP, "Are You Sincere," will be supported by a large marketing campaign. The campaign will contain national and local print and radio spots, as well as point of purchase displays.

Maxwell Named A&R Director

NASHVILLE — Bill Maxwell, drummer and producer, has been named director of A&R for contemporary and soul gospel artists for Light Records, announced Ralph Carmichael, president.

Maxwell came to the west coast from Oklahoma in 1972 as a drummer with the Sonlight Band. With four members of the group, Maxwell joined Andrae Crouch and the Disciples to form the backbone of Crouch's instrumental accompaniment.

Maxwell's association with Crouch will continue with full agreement of Light Records.

He has performed on six of Crouch's nine albums and has been album co-producer since 1973. His awards include a Grammy for "Take Me Back," Dove Awards for "Live In London," and "This Is Another Day," and a current Grammy nomination for "Live In London."

Top Drummer

"He is a super drummer," Carmichael said of Maxwell. "He has a certain magic about him when it comes to working with people. He is a great Christian gentleman and has fantastic producing credits. I now have the distinct pleasure of seeing him join the Light Records A&R department."

Bill Cole, Light vice president, noted, "I have been holding the hope for many years that Bill would become part of the Light family and now the dream has become reality. We are confident that all of his efforts extended in the field of production and A&R will be of great beneficial impact for our company and the contemporary Christian scene."

New Lexicon Musical Set To Debut

NASHVILLE — Flo Price's new musical for children, "Christmas 2001," from Lexicon Music-Light Records will preview at Music California, April 19-21, at the Los Angeles Hyatt Regency Hotel, prior to general release in June.

The musical, for juniors in grades four through six, will include an album plus background tracks, music book, poster, handbills, lyric folders and bulletin covers.

"I believe this musical will be natural to help juniors tell the true Christmas story," said Carl Seal, vice president of publications for Lexicon Music.

"It's complete with characters like Orion, CD-2 and Myah as space children who know nothing of Jesus Christ and who meet modern children on earth," Seal added. "They return in a time machine to

Word Appoints PR Assistant

NASHVILLE — Dan Johnson, director of marketing and promotion, Word, Inc. Records division, has announced that Linda A. Beversluis has joined Word as a public relations agent.

Beversluis will work closely with Karla Cox Worley, director of artists relations for the Word record marketing division. Beversluis will primarily deal with television and religious press and work out of Washington, D.C. and Los Angeles, Calif.

A former director of scheduling for Dr. Robert Schuller of the "Hour of Power," Beversluis has also worked with the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. She has also worked in the capacity of director of scheduling for former President Gerald R. Ford and has served as personal secretary for Congressman John E. Hunt of New Jersey.

Bethlehem. Teachers and young people across the country have been asking for a modern, relevant musical involving the space age and this is it."

Price, the hostess of the "Tree House Club" syndicated television series, has written four previous musicals including "Our House," "I Like The Sound Of Music," "And That's The Truth," and "The Best You Can Be."

Date Announced For GMA Week

NASHVILLE — W.F. (Jim) Myers, president of the Gospel Music Association (GMA), announced last week that Gospel Music Week and the 11th annual Dove Awards program has been set for March 23-26, 1980, at the Opryland Hotel here. The meet was set during a recent quarterly GMA board meeting held in Phoenix, Az.

The four-day event, normally held in the fall in Nashville, will feature seminars, work shops and panel discussions directed by a slate of prominent representatives from the Gospel music industry.

Headquartered in Nashville, the GMA was formed in May of 1964, and the 1st Dove Awards were presented in 1968.

REVIEWS

JESSY DIXON — "The Best Of Jessy Dixon" — Savoy SGL-7021 — Producer: Fred Mendelsohn — List: 9.98

The protege has learned well from the old master (James Cleveland). Now Jessy Dixon's career has reached the point that Savoy records has released "The Best Of . . ." containing 22 of Dixon's most memorable recordings to date — classics such as "He Ain't Heavy," "Old Man River," "What The World Needs Now," "Amazing Grace" and "Hello, Sunshine," which won Jessy a Grammy nomination. It's been a long road from San Antonio, Tx. to world wide acclaim. But Dixon, recipient of the Top Male Gospel Performer in 1967, (a DJ award), continues to march forward, integrating traditional and contemporary gospel musical landmarks.

LAMB — "Songs For The Flock" — Messianic Records LBA-1500 — Producer: Rick "Levi" Coghill — List: 6.98

Lamb, a duo consisting of Joel Chernoff and Rick Coghill, conceived, composed, produced, directed, arranged, performed and mixed "Songs For The Flock," and they deserve applause for such an ambitious project. They could have used help but that is not to say this is not a fine effort. Side two is especially effective. "Sh'ma," (Hear O Israel), "Break Forth In Joy," and "V'sha-fach-ti," [And I Will Pour Out (Upon The House of David)], are moving and stand out as the album's most distinctive cuts. Except for a lyrical affinity for Hallelujah, composer Chernoff has established an identity, which in this era of massive mimics, is refreshing and a talent, in and of itself.

Symposium And Awards Top Nashville Songwriters' Week

by Bob Campbell

NASHVILLE — Sometimes they are under-fered, underloved and taken for granted in the grinding machinery of the music business, but this week songwriters are in the spotlight in Nashville.

Through the diligence of the Nashville Songwriters Association Inc. (NSAI), Nashville Mayor Richard Fulton and new Tennessee Gov. Lamar Alexander have designated Feb. 19-24 as Nashville Songwriters Association Week in Tennessee. Fulton said the proclamation was "in recognition of what the Nashville Songwriters Association has done to enhance Nashville across this country and the world."

Current NSAI President Bob Jennings believes this recognition has been overdue. "We are most appreciative of Mayor Fulton's recognition of the songwriter," Jennings said. "All too often, the songwriter's contribution to the successful music career of an artist is overlooked, and he goes unrecognized. The nature of his craft is a lonely and quiet one."

In honor of songwriter's week, the NSAI will hold its annual election of officers on Feb. 23, present its 12th annual Songwriter Achievement Awards Show at the Hyatt-Regency Hotel on Saturday Night (Feb. 24) and conduct its first symposium on songwriting during the morning and afternoon of Feb. 24.

Titled the "Songwriting A to Z" symposium, it will be conducted at the Hyatt-Regency Hotel and attendees from 33 states are expected. Membership in the NSAI is necessary for admittance to the symposium, and more than 150 registrations have been received. In addition, representatives from Norway, Australia and Canada will attend.

The symposium, organized in anticipation of an annual event, will consist of panel discussions and question-and-answer sessions involving representatives from the field of songwriting, publishing, licensing and the legal profession.

Ralph Emory, radio broadcaster and host of the "Pop Goes The Country" syndicated television show, will give the open-

E/A Movie Singles Move Into Top 10

NASHVILLE — Three singles from the WEA/Malpasco film "Every Which Way But Loose" are in the Top 10 of this week's Country Singles chart. And the Elektra/Asylum "Every Which Way But Loose" soundtrack LP sits at #4 bullet this week after eight weeks on the Cash Box Country Album chart.

Eddie Rabbitt's title song, which has been on the chart for 10 weeks is #1 for the third straight week. Charlie Rich, although an artist for United Artists Records, recorded "I'll Wake You Up When I Get Home" for the E/A soundtrack, and the single is #3 bullet this week.

The third single, Mel Tillis' "Send Me Down To Tucson," is #6 bullet this week. But under a prior agreement between MCA (Tillis' former label) and Elektra/Asylum, E/A could not release a single by Tillis, and MCA retained the option of including "Send Me Down To Tucson" on an MCA album. So the Top 10 single by Tillis is a re-recorded version from Tillis' new MCA album, "Are You Sincere?"

Jimmy Bowen, Tillis' producer and new E/A Nashville director of operations, said "Send Me Down To Tucson" had been re-recorded because the soundtrack version was sparsely produced.

"We re-cut the song for a single and for the album because the soundtrack was done very quickly with a small group to keep it close to the way he performed the song onstage in the movie," said Bowen, who, at the time, was MCA's Nashville general manager. "We re-recorded it with a big orchestra more in line with where we are going now with Mel."

Under the agreement between MCA and E/A, Tillis also had the option of recording "Coca-Cola Cowboy," his other song on the "Every Which Way But Loose" soundtrack, on an MCA album. Bowen said "Coca-Cola Cowboy" will be released on a future MCA album.

SAMMI SMITH (Cyclone CYS-100)

What A Lie (2:55) (Hall-Clement Pub. — BMI) (T. Skinner/J. Wallace)

Picked as the first release for the new Cyclone Label, this record could well be the strongest product Sammi Smith has recorded since "Help Me Make It Through The Night." Vocals, production and material are par excellence.

RAY PRICE (Monument 45-277)

There's Always Me (3:29) (Gladys Music — ASCAP) (Don Robertson)

Ray Price is a true master of the ballad. With the combination of Price's silky voice and lush strings, Ray's second Monument single ranks with his classic version of "For The Good Times."

MARY K. MILLER (Inergi I-312)

Next Best Feeling (3:03) (Hice Haus Music — ASCAP) (Danny Hice/Chip Hardy)

Mary K. Miller picks up the pace this time with a frisky, energetic song. She can sing anything well and has a potential radio favorite here.

TOMMY JENNINGS (Monument 45-278)

New Orleans (3:07) (Rock Master, Inc. — BMI) (Guida/Royster)

Tommy Jennings has lived for some time in brother Waylon's shadow, but he could easily create some excitement of his own with this solid, rocking song.

SHYLO (Columbia 3-10918)

Freckles (3:41) (Tree Pub. — BMI) (S. Whipple)

Here comes competition for the Oaks and Statlers. This new vocal group handles the Sterling Whipple song, "Freckles," as if it were the first in a string of hits.

Our Memories of Elvis

OUR MEMORIES OF ELVIS — Elvis Presley — RCA-AQLI-3279 — Producer: Felton Jarvis — List: 7.98

RCA has released yet another collection of songs by Elvis Presley. But this album is interesting and different because almost all the original background vocals has been mixed off of these cuts, and listeners are treated to the pure voice of Presley. With material like "My Boy," "I'll Never Fall In Love Again" and "Solitaire," these masters simply affirm the magnificent, timeless quality of Elvis' voice.

THE KENDALLS

JUST LIKE REAL PEOPLE — The Kendalls — Ovation-OV-1739 — Producer: Brian Fisher — List: 7.98

Known for their pure harmonies and spare country songs, the Kendalls' new album is much more sophisticated in arrangements and production than their past LPs. However, the record still retains the country feel which has won many fans for the duo. Whether it is intentional or not, Jeannie Kendall sounds a lot like Dolly Parton on some of the cuts. All in all, with tunes like "I'm Coming Down Lonely" and "Just Like Real People," The Kendalls have recorded their best album to date.

JIM ED & HELEN

JIM ED & HELEN — Jim Ed Brown and Helen Cornelius — RCA-AHLI-3258 — Producer: Tom Collins — List: 7.98

Jim Ed Brown and Helen Cornelius have developed into a sophisticated, country duo team over the past couple of years. On this LP, their material is much stronger and the production work is sleek and sexy. Most of the material is modern country, but a touch of disco shows up here and there. "If The World Ran Out Of Love Tonight," "Let's Take The Long Way Around The World" and "You Don't Bring Me Flowers" are outstanding cuts.

GARY — Gary Stewart — RCA-AHLI-3288 — Producer: Roy Dea — List: 7.98

It defies all logic why Gary Stewart is not in the superstar class. He is the consummate honky tonk rocker alive today, he is distinctive and he consistently records fine albums. A throwback to the Hank Williams school of scouful singing, Stewart aims for the gut, not the mind. This new LP is one of Stewart's best, and all the cuts are good. "I've Just Seen The Rock Of Ages" and "Walkaway" are standout selections.

DOWN ON THE DRAG — Joe Ely — MCA-3080 — Producer: Bob Johnston — List: 7.98

Each of Joe Ely's two previous albums have received critical acclaim from trade and consumer music reviewers, but sales have not measured up to this artistic acclaim. Ely is such an intense performer with a command of so many styles, that his diversity and originality could be hurting him on a radio level. With a continual stream of top-quality albums like his new one, Ely might yet become a household word.

FCC Proposal Meeting Opposition

by Bob Campbell & Jennifer Bohler

NASHVILLE — The recent proposal by the FCC to limit the coverage of clear-channel stations to a 100-mile radius poses a direct threat to the future of WSM's Grand Ole Opry radio show, Len Hensel, vice president and general manager of the radio station said.

For 53 years, the Grand Ole Opry has been broadcast each Friday and Saturday night live over WSM (650 on the dial) into 34 states.

The FCC has said this reduction of coverage is designed to open the way for new stations. Presently 25 stations, including WSM, operate as class A-1 clear channel stations.

The FCC has announced that it will receive comments through April 9 before action is taken, and WSM and an organization called "Friends of the Opry" are actively working to halt enactment of the proposal.

The primary purpose of the organization is to inform the public of the effect this proposal would have on the live radio show. The group hopes to encourage people to write to the FCC, their congressmen or WSM and voice their opinions on the proposal.

If 1977 was the Year of the Cat, then 1979 must be the Year of the Rabbitt — Eddie Rabbitt, that is. With a number one song in his pocket and solid concert performances across the United States, Eddie is certainly finding it to be quite a year. But into every life a little rain must fall . . . while performing in Lansing, Mich., Rabbitt's tour bus was robbed of more than $10,000 worth of musical instruments. Included in the stolen merchandise was a fiddle owned by Rabbitt's road manager, Bill Rehrig. The fiddle had been in Rehrig's family more than 40 years, and Rehrig had been playing it himself 25 of those years.

Joe Sun has signed with the Nashville International Talent agency. Epic artist Rick Nelson guest-hosted NBC-TV's "Saturday Night Live," Feb. 17. He played several of his hits from the '50s as well as a new single from his forthcoming L.P. Nelson, who became a teen idol in the '50s while appearing on his parent's weekly TV series, "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet," had a string of hits in the late '50s and early '60s, including "I'm Walkin'," "Hello Mary Lou," "Travelin' Man" and "Be-Bop Baby."

MRC artist Lenny Gault has signed an agreement with Nashville's United Talent, Inc. to represent him for personal appearances.

Mercury's Jacky Ward and WIP program director Al Herskovitz, will co-host Philadelphia's telethon for the Leukemia Society at the University Hilton Feb. 25.

Also in the telethon hosting business is Ronnie Prophet, who co-hosted the Vancouver Telethon Feb. 17-18. Proceeds from the fund drive will go to the Children's Hospital. Last year, the telethon, sponsored by the Variety Club, received more than $1,200,000. At a recent telethon in Manitoba, Prophet appeared for 18 of the 20 hours on the air.

"Uncle" Art Satherly, a pioneer in the field of record producing, will be honored March 30 in Bakersfield, Calif. at the "Uncle Art Satherly Roast." Satherly began his career in the recording industry with Thomas Edison, when the masters were cut directly on the disc.

Among those artists he has produced are Gene Autry, Roy Rogers, the Sons of the Pioneers, Roy Acuff, the Carter Family, Tex Ritter, Minnie Pearl, Marty Robbins, Ray Price and George Gobel. He is the retired vice president of Columbia Records and is the oldest living member of the Country Music Hall of Fame.

Johnny Cash, Jan Howard, and June, Helen and Anita Carter were in the studio Feb. 8-9 for work on an upcoming gospel album, a two-record set to be released in September. Cash produced the sessions, with Harold Lee engineering. Also in the studio working on new releases are Orlando Records' Leon Everett, Monument's Connie Smith and Sonny James and Elektra's David Houston.

The Oak Ridge Boys will join Kenny Rogers and Dottie West for a 25-day nationwide tour from March 8 through April 7. The tour will begin at the Municipal Auditorium, Nashville and swing through the southwest to California where they finish at the Oakland Coliseum.

Don Williams was made an "Honorable Okie" by Tulsa Mayor James Inhofe following his sell-out concert at the Tulsa Performing Arts Center, Feb. 4. Two female fans presented Williams with a T-shirt labeled "Country Music's Number 1 Sex Symbol" during the show. The performance was staged in conjunction with the Mayor's official proclamation making Feb. 4, Don Williams Day.

RCA Promo 'Sweet' On Dolly

NASHVILLE — In an extensive radio promotion campaign designed to coincide with Valentine's Day and the airing of Dolly Parton's nationally televised "Dolly and Carol In Nashville" special, RCA here provided over 3,000 boxes of candy and "Heartbreaker" LPs on Feb. 14 to radio stations across the country.

Participating radio stations played their role by designing individual contest formats, which resulted in a wide variety of promotions.

At WBAM in Montgomery, Ala., designated callers were allowed "to wish a Happy Valentine's Day to the one they love, on the air," according to music director Diane Brennan. Female callers received boxes of candy, and their "special men" were given "Heartbreaker" albums. Male callers won albums for themselves and candy for their ladies.

Call And Win

At KLIF in Dallas, music director Harry Nelson utilized a Dolly promo which said, "Hi, I'm Dolly Parton, and I'm KLIF's sweetheart of the day." The first listener to call each time the promo was played received candy and a "Heartbreaker" album. WMAZ in Macon, Ga. also gave listeners an opportunity to call and win, but program director Bill Powell and music director Steve Murphy added a twist. At specific times of the day, telephone lines were opened for nine minutes and 40 seconds (WMA is 940 on the dial) to allow callers to register for sweetheart kits. When the time elapsed, a winner was drawn from the registrations.

Of course, poetry and sentiment hit a popular high each year on Valentine's Day, and WYNA in Raleigh, N.C. built its promotion around this subject. Program director Harvey Riddly asked listeners to submit poems about Dolly Parton along the sweet lines of "Roses Are Red, Violets Are Blue." The 12 best poems were read on the air.

In Fayetteville, N.C., WFAI program director Terry Jordan and music director Mike Edwards worked out a "WFAI Sweetheart" Promotion. Listeners were invited to call in the names of their sweethearts. Those who connected with station staffers won candy and albums, and their names were entered in a grand prize drawing. The overall winner received dinner for two at a local restaurant, theater tickets, a dozen roses, candy and an album.

KJRB's Sunshine Shelly stopped Spokane (Washington) cars displaying station decals to present the drivers with candy and albums. The station also sponsored a "Sweetheart Night" at the local ice rink in Riverfront Park at which albums and candy were distributed by Shelly and program director John Sherman.

'Burning Facts'

Parton's "Baby, I'm Burnin'" single inspired KYNN's Chris Taylor for his station's particular promotion. The Omaha, Neb. station held a "Burning Facts" contest. Using the Guinness Book of World Records as a reference, listeners won candy and albums by answering questions from the record book, such as naming the largest fire in history.

Personal Touch

Music director Tom Wayne of KXOL In Ft. Worth, Tx. personally delivered winners their prizes and serenaded them with voice and guitar in one of the station's "Candy For Your Dolly" promotions.

WTOD in Toledo, Ohio and KMPS in Seattle, each used a tape of prerecorded greetings from RCA's Nashville artists as a station promo. WTOD music director Bob Pepas invited listeners to guess the name of the mystery artist, and KMPS' Ron Norwood asked callers to guess the identity of the artist before the greeting was played on the air. The mystery voices included Parton, Charley Pride, Ronnie Milsap and Helen Cornelius.

Drawings Held

KIDN in Pueblo, Colo., held drawings with local merchants to determine winners of "KIDN Sweetheart kits," which consisted of "Heartbreaker" albums, candy, dinners for two at local restaurants and "KIDN Country" T-shirts.

Under the direction of KHOW programmer John Lund, the Denver, Colo. station staged an old-time, live radio show from 5:30-10:30 a.m. on Valentine's Day from the stage of the 2000-seat Paramount Theater (circa. 1930), the city's oldest theater. Fictitious characters from the top-rated "Hal & Charley Show" were present, including the prize man (dressed as cupid), who ran through the audience every half hour distributing albums and candy.

Jimmy C. Newman Plays NECAA

NASHVILLE — Jimmy C. Newman and Cajun Country have been selected to showcase Feb. 16 during the National Entertainment And Campus Activities Association (NECAA) 1979 National Convention, Feb. 14-18 in Kansas City, Mo.

The NECAA National is the largest single forum for collegiate activities programmers to meet with representatives from industries that offer talent to the college market. More than 2,500 activities buyers from nearly 500 colleges and universities and 300 firms are expected to attend.

Top Billing agent Jack Sublette and creative services director Kathy Hooper, spearheading the campaign to have Top Billing artists represented at the Convention, will accompany Newman and Cajun Country to Kansas City and staff the Top Billing booth where delegates will mingle, view video tapes of artists' performances and receive promotional material on all TBI entertainers.

Important Exposure

According to Hooper, "The exposure an act attains by appearing on a national showcase can influence its future success." Major superstars who have appeared on a NECAA National Showcase on their way to fame include Kenny Rogers, Linda Ronstadt, Roy Clark and Ronnie Milsap.

Newman, written up in the special convention issue of Student Activities Programming, is proclaimed as "The first star of major proportions to present authentic cajun music to a broader audience that its Louisiana bayou environs."

According to Hensel, the Opry broadcast is the primary reason for the movement to halt the FCC's action.

It's nearly impossible to estimate how many people listen to the Opry broadcast," Hensel said. "We know that 26 million people rely on clear channel radio. Many of the people who listen to the broadcast live in the little nooks and crannies of the country where there are no other radio stations for miles around. These people depend on the clear channel stations to listen to the Opry."

Syndication Alternative

Syndication of the Opry show might be one solution, but Hensel said that has its drawbacks. One of the biggest is that the show would no longer be broadcast live.

"Why does someone like Loretta Lynn perform at the Opry for peanuts on a Friday or Saturday night, when she could be performing somewhere else for more money?" Hensel asked rhetorically. "Because of the exposure she receives. She knows that song is going to reach many people, and those people will go out and buy it Monday morning.

"Once the show is syndicated and it is no longer broadcast live, it could be months before a particular show is broadcast by the station that buys it," he continued. "That's like late promotion. It won't do the performer any good, and consequently the Opry could lose them."

U.S. Rep. Bill Boner of Nashville is another opponent of the FCC proposal. Boner cited that more than half of the Opry's ticket sales are made to visitors from outside the middle Tennessee area and that the "impact of such a curtailment on WSM, the Grand Ole Opry and the country music industry as a whole could be devastating."

Watson Forms Agency

NASHVILLE — Capitol Records artist Gene Watson has announced the formation of his own booking agency, Star Attractions, Inc., which will be located in Houston, Tx.

Russ Reeder, Watson's personal manager, will serve as a founding partner and president of the firm, and Dorothy Hess, also a partner, will act as secretary and booking agent. Watson will serve as vice president.

In addition to handling the Gene Watson Show, Star Attractions, Inc. will also book GMC recording artist Mundo Earwood, RDS's Dick Allen and the River Road Boys, Gusto's Sherri Jerrico and Show Land's Troy Hess.

REVIEWS

AMII STEWART — Knock On Wood — Ariola/Hansa SW 50054 — List: 7.98

Ah, those drums! Everyone now knows the dramatic "Knock On Wood" which is powered by knock-out pounding drums, swirling syndrums and pure enthusiasm. "Light My Fire/137 Disco Heaven" builds from misty reflection to spine-tingling rushes. Brass arrangements add a nice off-set to the strings. Handclaps provide dancefloor intensity. The break brings an exciting new build with deep-echo backing vocals and duo lead singing. Check out "Get Your Love Back" on Side Two. Fast clean energy. Produced by Barry Leng.

FIRST CHOICE — Hold Your Horses — Goldmind/Salsoul GA 9502 — List: 7.98

At least four different producers had a hand in this long-awaited LP. The title track, produced by Tom Moulton & Thor Baldursson is a great peak record. John Davis offers a fine sax line during the bass drum break on "Let Me Down Easy" which is a prime cut. Rippling keyboard waves add a nice touch. "Great Expectations" has strong percussive synthesizer backing. There is a lot of attractive music on this LP.

THE RAES — I Only Wanna Get Up And Dance — A&M SP 17064 — 12" — Promo

The Raes forced A&M to take disco seriously with the stunning "Little Lovin'". This track from their upcoming LP has a stepping bass line, bright chorus and supporting strings, percussive embellishments, 134 BPM pacing and optimistic mood. The sax break grabs. Harry Hinde produced and John Luongo did his stuff. The structure makes it easy to find your way out.

WITCH QUEEN — Bang A Gong/Witch Queen — Roadshow/RCA — 12" — Promo Produced by Peter Alves and Gino Soccio and utilizing the Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section, this remake of a rock classic is headed for the top. At 9:56, "Gong" has wide grooves and good fidelity. The space-age drum break, familiar bass line and overall tastefulness of production makes it hot. Radio will come after this one. The excellence of the handclap beat, deep backing vocals and active arrangement of "Witch Queen" on the flip-side makes this a Double A-Sided priority 12".

FORE Working To Overcome Nagging East Coast Image

by Cookie Amerson

"FORE has become known as an east coast company because that is where the main office is," says Cheryl Tyrrell, coordinator with the organization. Tyrrell adds, "But, we are a national organization with members in the music industry across the nation, though the total participation is not what we would like it to be."

"Another problem that FORE faces, is that many of its members hold very important positions in the industry, making it difficult for them to devote a lot of time to the organization," said Tyrrell. She also explained, "My main objective at this point is to get more enthusiastic participation from

FORE was originally started on the west coast by a group of industry executives for the purpose of upgrading black executives in the industry. Its founder and chairman, was Warren Lanier Sr., who now heads a public relations firm in the Los Angeles area.

FORE has played an important part in introducing new business talent to the industry through its PACE scholarship program, and career developing seminars. Jim Tyrrell, who has been president of the organization for the past seven years, and is a senior vice president for Epic Records, says, "Participation is of the utmost impor-

THE RHYTHM SECTION

RUMOR HAS IT — That Prelude Records is talking with Casablanca regarding an impending distribution deal... Barbara Taylor, most recently with WAOK in Atlanta may be going with Lee Michaels to KKSS in St. Louis

PROGRAMMERS PROFILE — Steve Woods, program director at KDAY in Los Angeles, has been with that station since 1974, receiving his PD stripes two years ago. A native Californian, Woods attended Hollywood High School, where he started his own radio station KHHS. He attended college at Valley College, while working during the day in the mail room at KHJ. During his stay at KHJ he met Walt Love, his present best friend whom he credits with getting him into the business. Ironically, Love is now the program director at KKTT, which some would say is KDAY's main competition. Before coming to KDAY, Woods was at KSEL in Lubbock, Texas and KXOL, Ft. Worth.

DISCO RADIO UPDATE — Burkhardt/Abrams continues to grow like wildfire. WOKF in Clearwater, Florida (the Tampa Bay area) is the latest to join the B/A consultancy. The 24-hour disco station switched over last Wednesday. The transitional programming philosophy is to play disco crossovers during the day while building a progressive night following. David Lyons is the PD. The address is: 200 Pierce Street, Clearwater, Fla. 35517. Phone: (813) 461-9696. . . WEZB switched from an easy listening format to 24-hour disco Feb. 8 at 6 p.m. Located in New Orleans, the station which bills itself as "Disco 97" hopes to change call letters in the coming months. Chris Wallenberg is PD. John Rockeller is MD. The address is: 1440 Canal St. #801, New Orleans, Louisiana 70112. Phone: (504) 581-7002. . . WKU/New York sponsored its first Roller Disco 92 Night last Tuesday. U.S. amateur champion roller skaters were invited to demonstrate the "Disco Dip." Speaking of KTU, Paco (Paquito Navarro), has been set to co-host with Nell Sedaka the Easter Seal Telethon which will be aired March 24-25 over WPIX in NYC. . . Feb. 18 was the date of the disco dance finals sponsored by KIIS-FM in L.A. Held at Carlos & Charlies' upstairs disco El Privado, the winners received a trip to Mexico City and a lifetime membership to the disco.

GHOST DEEJAYS IN BOSTON — It appears that both WXKS and WBOS in Massachusetts have realized that disco DJs do it best. Jeff Tillon who spins at Boston Boston and Conrad Cardenas who spins at Celebration and Flapper are "ghost DJs" on WXKS, handling mixing duties for 4-5 hour shows while regular radio jocks handle the voice-overs. Meanwhile Joe DiDonato and Fred Bement of Jason's are ghosting at WBOS. Wendy Hunt who spins at Allusions and Steven Burke of Darts and Faces are also spinning at WBOS. Bement is also the music director for a new local disco TV show called "Stage Door Disco" which premiered last Saturday at 5:30 p.m. on Channel 38. Ron Robln is the on-camera personality for the show which is financed by the Chateau D'Ville dinner club chain.

QUALITY CHALLENGE — As a result of DJ grumbings and assorted complaints, Salsoul is now having DJ promotional product pressed on RCA's Red Seal presses. Although Salsoul is reportedly experiencing minimal difficulties with commercially released product, the label was meeting resistance from DJs who were turned-off by the regular "dynaflex" RCA pressings. The Red Seal pressings are slightly heavier and provide better EQ response.

SKIN TIE-IN — The new St. Tropez album "Belle De Jour" on Butterfly is the subject of a unique tie-in with Oui magazine. The photo session for the LP jacket which presents sultry females was shot by Phillip Dixon of the girle mag. The LP jacket bears the Butterfly and Oui logos and the March issue of the mag features more intimate photos of the models. . . Speaking of St. Tropez, Dee Joseph finished last week the mastering of the new "12" by St. Tropez "One More Minute."

Another party was held the next night at James' Coldwater Canyon home. Marvin Gaye, Jean Carn, Norman Whitfield, Norman Connors and Raymond St. Jacques were among the well-wishers. . . Circus is celebrating its third anniversary with six nights of sweepstakes drawings Feb. 19-25. . . CBS is throwing a party for Bill Wardlow Feb. 25 at 12 West in NYC. . . 4th Street Annex, a teen disco in Santa Rosa, Calif., was featured recently in Seventeen magazine. Amy Mattloll is a teen DJ who spins at the club. Benita Christensen also spins.

IN THE STUDIO — Rick Gianatos has been working like a maniac in the studio recently. One interesting project is a medley mix of "Stay With Me/Hot Love" by Charo. The "Ole Ole" album was produced by Tom Moulton and Rick was tickled to remix a Moulton mix. For the "12", Gianatos added new percussion overdubs using a new instrument called "Ika Uma" which is a series of tuned congas. The result is a unique sound that will cause dance floor excitement. . . John Berge, who spins at El Privado in L.A., is in the studio this week remixing "Take A Ride" by Beverly & Duane. . . Joe Long has four days booked at Boris Midney's Eras studio in NYC for remixing the hot tracks from the "Love At First Bite" soundtrack. Long has recently been on the road with Steve McCormick of Parachute promoting in the south the new Liquid Gold.

SUPERMANN — Issy Sanchez has just come off the road after a promo swing with Herbie Mann. Swinging through Baltimore-Washington, the duo hit the Plum, Fox Trot, Breezes and Mark IV. Later, Mann visited the Atlanta Music Pool before flying to Miami to say hello at clubs and radio stations and appear on local TV program "Black Is." Mann then played at the Gusman Auditorium before heading for Dallas and Denver. The awards given Feb. 14 marked excellence of achievement in disco in 1978 as perceived by the SCDDJA membership. The production staff for the event were provided by John Ford & Assoc.

ON JAZZ

Vibes player Walt Dickerson made a rare New York appearance last weekend with two solo concerts at the Public Theater. Sharing the bill were Sunny Murray's Untouchable Factor and Charles Tyler's quartet.

Jazz goes to sea. On June 2, the SS Rotterdam sails for a seven-day Nassau-Bermuda cruise. On board to help entertain the travellers will be Mercer Ellington and his Orchestra, Dizzy Gillespie, the Teddy Wilson trio, Chris Connor and the Wild Bill Davls trio. Bon voyage.

RIP: Peanuts Holland, fine trumpet player and vocalist with Charlie Barnet, Don Redmon and many others. Holiand had been a European resident for many years.

New from Adelphi, "Bush Baby" by Black Arthur Blythe. The album contains the most unusual three-piece band we've ever heard: alto sax, tuba and conga drums.

Blue Note was scheduled to issue an interesting LP by Horace Silver this month, but the sale to Capitol makes one wonder whether or not it will appear. Material for much of the LP was previously unissued and featured the great Blue Mitchell-Junior Cook Quintet of Silver.

Contemporary, that on-again-off-again,

LA-based label with a high-quality catalogue, is making noises about a rebirth. Chances are that Rich Seidel will join the label in an attempt to shore up distribution, and rumors have been cropping up that Miles Davis with the Lighthouse All-Stars, Ben Webster, Art Pepper and other jazz giants will appear in newly discovered LP packages sometime this year.

Count Basie and his orchestra supplied the music for the post-Grammy award dinner in Los Angeles. Gerry Mulligan was one of many performers who played for the New York party.

Houston Person and Etta Jones are in the midst of a three-week European tour, the first for each artist. The latest LPs by Person and Jones are on Muse.

Turk Mauro, the fine tenor and baritone sax man, has rejoined Buddy Rich. Let's hope he gets a few more tunes to play this time around.

It looks as though the Dave Grusin-Larry Rosen team still has the touch. Their new GRP label, distributed by Arista, has come up with a winner in their first shot. Angela Bofill and her "Angie" album are one of the hottest items on the jazz chart these days.

JAZZ ALBUM PICKS

FEETS DON'T FAIL ME NOW — Herbie Hancock — Columbia JC 35764 — Producer: David Rubinson & Friends and Herbie Hancock — List: 7.98

On "Feets," keyboardist Hancock continues to blend synthesized vocals and throbbing disco/funk rhythms for an album filled with futuristic sounds and dance music. The LP spotlights Hancock's versatile new band featuring Benny Maupin on reeds, Alphonse Mouzon on drums and Webster Lewis on additional keyboards. Throughout his career Hancock has proved to be one of the most innovative of contemporary musicians, and once again he shows that he is not afraid to venture beyond the tried and true.

TIGER IN THE RAIN — Michael Franks — Warner Bros. BSK 3294 — Producer: John Simon — List: 7.98

Michael Franks is the poet laureate of jazz, painting lush pictures of love and life through the delicate balance of his words and music. "Tiger In The Rain" is his fourth collection of cuddle before the fireplace music, featuring Franks' whisper-vocals and luxurious music beds supplied by a long list of top session players. Perhaps a song like "Living On The Inside" will be the one to expand his audience beyond his adoring cult following.

MAMA ROOTS — Charlie Earland — Muse 5156 — Producer: Ozzie Cadena — List: 7.98

Earland is a dynamic force on organ and here, in a program of straight-ahead swingers, he is at the top of his game. George Coleman, Dave Schnitter and Jimmy Ponder contribute excellent support, but it is Earland the organist who dazzles the most. Hear "Undecided" for top notch cooking!

THE COMPLETE SAVOY STUDIO SESSIONS — Charlie Parker — Savoy SJ5 5500 — List: 25.98

This definitive chronicle of Bird's Savoy Studio sessions features the legendary alto saxophonist in various small combo settings, both as a leader and sideman. The recordings cover a four-year span from Sept. 1944 through Sept. 1948, beginning with the Tiny Grimes Quartet and including the classic Charlie Parker's Beboppers unit (Miles Davis, Dizzy Gillespie, Max Roach and Curley Russell). A handsome libretto and complete discography of the sessions is also included.

SWEET AND SWINGING — Chris Connor — Progressive 7028 — Producer: Cus Statras — List: 7.98

It has been a long time between LPs for Connor, so this is an especially welcome return. Empathetic accompaniment by a jazz quartet is in evidence throughout. Reedman Jerry Dodgion and Mike Abene on piano have fine solo moments. Chris sounds better at up-tempo, with a certain amount of discomfort obvious on the ballads. Still, the music here is vital and gutsy and will be of interest to fans of jazz vocals.

NEW ORLEANS HEAT — Albert King — Tomato 7022 — Producer: Allen Toussaint — List: 7.98

There is some gross and some dross in this latest collection from the great bluesman. Oddly, the strength and weakness of the session results from the fact that the producer has many of his old New Orleans cohorts present. The strings sound out of place and drag King down on several tunes, but when this is good (as on "Angel Of Mercy" or "Get Out Of My Life Woman"), this is very positive blues and well worth hearing.

Salsa has finally been recognized as a cultural contribution and representation of the Latin community in New York. And for the first time a course is being taught at the New School for Social Research: "Salsa:

Latin Music in New York." The series of eight lectures will be led by noted musicologist Isabelle Ortiz. This course will examine the development of salsa, its impact on New York and the growth of the Latin community culturally.

Other topics to be covered include rhythms, instruments and musical styles and the commercial side of Latin music in New York via records, concerts and media shows. A special feature of the course will be the appearance of significant Latin artists, such as Tito Puente, Machito, Ray Barretto and Charlie Palmieri. Other guests include Izzy Sanabria, publisher of Latin N.Y.; Filipe Luciano of NBC-TV; Milton Cardona, specialist in Afro Cuban musical instruments; Ralph Mercado, founder of a major Latin music booking agency; Polito Vega, radio DJ; and Fernando Campos of Canales magazine.

Isabelle Ortiz holds a Ph.D. in Ethnomusicology from Columbia University and has taught at Herbert Lehman, John Jay and Cooper Union Colleges. She has served as New York correspondent for Jazz Forum and Black and Blue Magazines. Ms. Ortiz has written for such varied periodicals as Le Monde, Jeune Afrique, Vogue and Canales.

Angel "El Diferente" Canales is recording an album for his own label which will be called Selanac Records (that's Canales backwards). Angel is not only producing the album, but the talented artist also wrote half the songs. Jon Fausty is engineering the sessions at Latin Sound. The title of the album will be: "El Sentimento Del Latina En Nueva York." New studio versions of "Kung Fu Karate" and "Panama Soberama," both of which were written by Angel, will be included on his new recording.

Close sources tell us that Ray Barretto is getting ready to form his first Latin band in three years. His Latin fans should be delighted with the prospects of seeing Ray back on the Latin scene. He is talking about a February "return." In the immediate future is a new release by Ray on Fania Records. It is a "live" album, made up of material recorded at his historic Beacon Theater concert and not released on Atlantic Records. The title of the album is simply "Gracias."

LATIN PICKS

ROBERTO CARLOS — Caytronics — Cys-1540 — No Producers

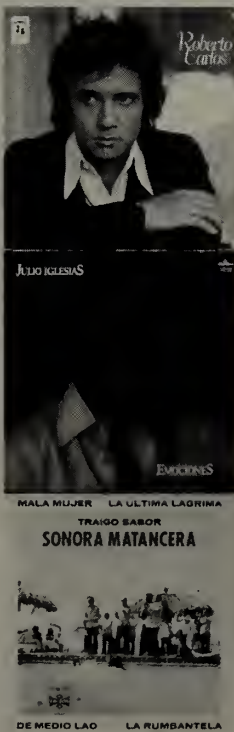

Multi-talented Brazilian singer Roberto Carlos scores again with another sparkling album that consists of soft rock ballads and two uptempo tunes. Carlos excels cut after cut, likewise the orchestra backing him in this album is superb. The songs are beautifully suited to his style of singing, and the string section arrangements are great. The best songs in this album are: "La Primera Vez," "Musica Suave," "Desayuno," "Por Fin Manana," "Intenta Olvidar" and "Todas Tus Rumbos."

EMOCIONES — Julio Iglesias — Alhambra TXS-3122 — Producer: Ramon Arcusa

Spain's superstar turns out another block-buster for his fans all over the world. Every album he has done has turned gold for him. The female chorus here is excellent with a touch of disco feel, and the musical arrangements by Ramon Arcusa are superb. The voice of Julio Iglesias shines throughout the entire album. All cuts are excellent, which should push this LP to #1 all over Latin America.

TRAIGO SABOR — Sonora Matancera — Orfeon-16-624 — No Producer

Sonora Matancera has been the pioneer of Latin music for approximately 50 years. Salsa music of today was done many years ago, and this outfit needs no introduction. On this remarkable album most of the cuts are moving salsa numbers except for one slow bolero. The vocals are superb and the orchestra is very tight. Arrangements are great and there are a few good solos by the piano player.

'Bat Out Of Hell' Becomes 4th Million-Selling LP In Canada

by Kirk LaPointe

TORONTO — The Canadian Recording Industry Association has certified the fourth one-million selling album in Canadian history, Meat Loaf's "Bat Out Of Hell" album on Cleveland International/Epic Records. While no one can discount the promotional and marketing campaigns that took "Saturday Night Fever," "Grease" and Fleetwood Mac's "Rumours" album over the million sales plateau, the efforts in taking a new artist into the forefront among all-time recording success in this country is a major accomplishment for the CBS Records Canada marketing department.

Terry McGee, senior product manager for Epic Canada, says the success of the album was "a matter of sitting down and concentrating on achieving the maximum potential of the disc. We just never let up on it, and still intend to keep capturing more Meat Loaf fans."

This album, McGee points out, differed greatly from the other million-selling albums in Canada, all of which have been certified during the past nine months in this country. "With Meat Loaf, we had to take a virtually unknown artist, and make a calculated gamble. After getting an early glimpse of his stage show (one year ago, October, at Toronto's El Mocambo), we knew that we had an artist that could attain particularly high levels of sales. We used a total marketing approach, and invested deeply at first, in order to stir up the marketplace. After a while, the catapulting sales just took over, and we didn't have to spend much more money. Mind you, nothing comes cheaply or easily in this business. But after we sold 500,000 copies in the country (quintuple platinum by Canadian standards), we had a huge sales base, and we could relax a little."

McGee's appointment to the position came last summer, after CBS Canada's chairman and chief executive officer, Arnold Gosewich restructured the firm in order to make it more efficient.

McGee says this was the first album in this country to be broken through the use of video. "I think it may be a hint at the future. Certainly, 'Saturday Night Fever' and 'Grease' both used the film medium to their advantage. In Meat Loaf's case, we were presented with a high-quality videotape for use on TV. While there weren't very many shows in Canada in which the tape was played, American TV used it, and interested Canadian consumers took note of the video presentation. But, the Meat Loaf tape was used extensively through in-store presentations. It got people interested and turned on to him, and I thought it was the difference in the sales marks we achieved with the disc."

Ariola Launches New International Office In Munich

LONDON — Ariola Records International has restructured its company, establishing a new division and reorganizing the duties of many of its chief international executives.

An Ariola International Group division has been established in Munich, Germany, run by Monti Lueftner, worldwide president of Ariola and Friedel Schmidt (Ariola Germany); Wim Schipper (Ariola Benelux); Ramon Segura (Ariola Spain) and Wolfgang Wegmann (Ariola Germany) as group vice presidents.

The four vice presidents will continue in their present local positions, but will now also delegate certain functions and responsibilities within the new international head office.

Recently, during the annual convention of the managing directors and presidents of all Ariola companies, held in Munich on Jan. 17 and 18, Lueftner stated: "The new head office will be only the first step toward strengthening and coordinating our successful international development. Within a short time a highly qualified team of experts will work in this new division to support the individual companies all over the world and to foster the further expansion of the group."

TWO QUEENS FOR A DAY — CFUN Canada radio station listeners Lori Crittenden and a friend recently won a Queen contest in Vancouver sponsored by CFUN. The two girls won the contest by correctly guessing the number of fat bottomed ladies who appear in the poster enclosed in Queen's "Jazz" album. Pictured in the front row (l-r) are: Freddie Mercury of Queen; Lori Crittenden and friend; and Roger Taylor of Queen. Shown in the back row (l-r) are Queen members Brian May and John Deacon.

Another goody from Warner's, to be released March 9, is 12 tracks from singer/guitarist George Benson. Benson may appear in the UK at the end of the year for a series of live dates, though nothing is confirmed at present.

Johnny Cash is definitely confirmed to play a series of live dates in Britain in March. This will be his first tour in this country for over four years. To coincide with the tour CBS is releasing a new Cash album entitled "Gone Girl."

John Porter has been appointed to the position of general sales manager of MCA Records UK. He will be reporting to managing director Roy Featherstone for the overall sales of MCA and Infinity Records product in the UK and Eire. Porter was previously national sales manager for WEA. EMI recently held a bash to celebrate the Shadows' "Golden Greats" compilation album selling over one million copies in the UK. During the celebration their good friend and colleague, Cliff Richard presented some awards to the lads and officially declared the release of a live-recorded album showcasing a Palladium performance last year of the Shadows and Cliff Richard in concert . . . together.

Canada

TORONTO — Bob Roper has left Capitol-EMI of Canada as its national promotions manager. He will assume duties as road manager for Supertramp on the band's upcoming 15-month world tour. Ironically, he and the band's press and publicity man, Charlie Prevost, used to work for A&M Canada, whose hard work launched the band in North America.

Bob McBride is making a good stab at a comeback, having taken part in the third CITY-TV/CHUM-FM simulcasts. Credit manager Joe Woodhouse with getting McBride's rambunctiousness back in tow . . . Dead Fingers Talk, one of the more interesting new wave ensembles from across the ocean, won't be touring here as planned. Their visas are not in order . . . Another stereotype reinforced: Jamaica and reggae have always been associated with the rasta movement, which (unfortunately) has been linked with ganja. Montreal police and the RCMP found this connection to be all too true recently, when they found 360 pounds of marijuana shipped in record jackets, coming in from Jamaica. The drugs had been pressed into 12-inch platters, and shrink-wrapped in album covers, headed for a Montreal record store. The police let the discs lie around in the airport, before someone came to claim their "product." Charges have been laid.

MUNICH — Ariola Records is restructuring its executive organization due to international growth. Monti Lueftner, group president of all Ariola Records and music companies, has announced the appointment of four vice presidents: Friedel Schmidt, Ariola Germany; Wim Schipper, Ariola Benelux; Ramon Segura, Ariola Spain; and Wolfgang Wegmann, Ariola Germany.

Dorus Sturm, who is heading the international Ariola product division, has also been named vice president, located in Munich at Ariola's headquarters. This is obviously the first step in more changes to come since Ariola Germany is presently holding a leading business increase of 51-percent compared to last year's figures at the same time. There is concern about Ariola's present representation in the singles charts. Only six titles are distributed by Ariola out of the top 50, while only two months ago, Ariola had been the market leader in singles with up to 19 singles positions at the same time.

The success story of the new year so far must be credited to one of the new leaders in the German record business, Metronome Records in Hamburg. With Rudi Gassner at the top and Klaus Ebert handling marketing, promotion and international A&R, the label has covered the top slot of the German charts for the last 11 weeks.

Gibson Kemp, independent producer, has left WEA again, after a short stint with Siggi Loch's highly successful WEA operation . . . Chrysalis' Frankie Miller has a hit with "Darlin'," distributed through Phonogram . . . Klaus Doidinger's Passport and Curt Cress' group HSV have just completed their new LPs, just in time to coincide both acts' present tours through Germany.

Ganmarock Musik in Munich has just concluded a licensing deal for Patrick Gammon product for a long-term period with Motown Records in Los Angeles. Gammon is currently a hot singer-songwriter in the Munich music scene. His work is represented on recent albums by Claudja Barry, Ronnie Jones, Mick Jackson on Atlantic, Hot Line on Ariola, and Victoria Miles on GMG Records.

Producer Allan Carr Launches Int'l. Headquarters In Company Expansion

by Nick Underwood

LONDON — Producer Allan Carr, in a wide-scale global expansion of Allan Carr Enterprises, will this week open new International Production Headquarters in London.

Carr, who co-produced with Robert Stigwood the current blockbuster, "Grease," which has now registered 115 million dollars in film rentals, making it the most successful musical in movie history, will begin his European operation in all areas of the entertainment industry.

Charles Negus-Fancey, who recently resigned as managing director of the Robert Stigwood Group in London, has been named chairman, international operations, and will be the executive in charge at the new Carr Headquarters, 2 Berkeley Square, London W1.

Maclaren Named

Carr has also appointed John Maclaren to head up the company's music department as well as its artist representation activities in the London office. Victoria Page is joining the new international company as executive assistant to Negus-Fancey.

Carr's recent international expansion is in line with the build-up of Allan Carr Enterprises' motion pictures and television activities. The company has individual non-exclusive production transactions with Universal, M.G.M., United Artists, Paramount and Columbia. In addition, Carr has an exclusive production arrangement with Columbia Pictures Television.

In addition, Carr has a multi-picture arrangement with E.M.I. Films London, to be distributed by the newly-formed distribution company, Associated Films Distribution Corporation, with the first E.M.I. film, "Cafe Society," to begin in late summer in London with an all-star international cast.

GRT Canada Makes Personnel Changes

TORONTO — With the appointment of Gordon Edwards as the GRT Corporation's new chief executive officer, changes have recently been made at GRT Canada Ltd. Alex Petchkin has been named the company's director of national marketing, having already held the post of national sales director for the firm.

In addition, Lee Silversides, the company's national promotional manager, has left the firm. He is being replaced by Perry Goldberg and Neil MacGonigle, who will be eastern and western promotional managers, respectively. Goldberg was the company's Ontario promotion manager, and will now also assume the duties for Quebec and the Maritimes for the firm. MacGonigle will handle Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia for the company.

Nancy Krant, who worked with the firm as an executive assistant, will now assume duties as the company's press officer, working out of its Toronto head office.

MOLLY OLIVER SIGNS — London Records has signed the Maritime-based group Molly Oliver to a worldwide recording contract. The signing took place in Montreal between Alice Koury, vice president of London, and the group. Pictured (l-r) are Koury and Bruce Wheaton, leader of Molly Oliver.

UK GOLD FOR BARRON KNIGHTS — David Betteridge, managing director of CBS-U.K., presented two gold records to the Barron Knights, one of the oldest running original groups in the business (they've been together for 18 years and still feature the same lineup). The group was awarded a gold single for its recent Top 5 hit, "A Taste Of Aggro" and a gold LP for its chart album, "Night Gallery." Pictured (l-r) standing at the presentation are: Dave Ballinger and Butch Baker of the group; Muff Winwood, head of UK A&R-CBS; Betteridge; Nicky Graham, producer, UK A&R-CBS; and Peter Langford of the group. Shown kneeling (l-r) are: Barron Anthony and Duke D'Mond of the group.

COIN MACHINE

'Coin-Op Fever' Theme Marks Fourth Annual MOM Meeting

MINNEAPOLIS — The fourth annual Music Operators of Minnesota convention and trade show, beset by snow, cold and accompanying slippery road conditions, nonetheless attracted a turnout of nearly 200 persons. The event, held Jan. 19-21 at the Holiday Inn Downtown, also generated a good deal of favorable publicity for the association and the entire coin machine industry, via coverage by three local television stations and the St. Paul Dispatch newspaper.

Carrying the theme "Coin-Op Fever," this year's convention agenda was highlighted by a special fundraiser promotion involving a drawing for four major prizes, with proceeds going into the association's treasury.

Prizes included a Valley pool table, donated by Sandler Vending and won by Curt Amundson of Sun Music in Faribault; a Dynamo pool table, donated by Lieberman Music of Minneapolis and won by Harlow Norberg of C&N Sales in Mankato; a Dracula pinball machine, donated by Lieberman and won by Dave Hawkins of D&R/Star in Rochester and a solid state Skyride game, also donated by Lieberman and won by Ray Hibarger of Hanson Distg. in Bloomington. Hibarger donated his prize back to the association and it was purchased by Dave Hawkins.

Exhibit Firms

Among firms sponsoring exhibits at the show were: R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Hanson Distg. Co., Lieberman Music Co., National Vendors, Sandler Vending Co., Arachnid, Inc., Montana Billiard Supply, Wico, Abloy Security Locks and Brainerd Vocational Technical School. As a different twist this year, the equipment was placed around the perimeter of the room in a rather unique set-up which drew many favorable comments.

Vic Rye, assistant executive vice president of AMOA, was a keynote speaker at the convention and his address focused on a number of pertinent issues, including the new Copyright Law. Rye gave operators an update on AMOA's current legal actions against disclosure of location lists but warned that, since the law is in effect, failure to comply could lead to court action and cancellation of licenses.

A high point of the annual business meeting was an election of officers. Association president Martin Kalisen of Martin Music Co. and vice president Darrel Weber of Weber Music Co. were re-elected to office. The newly-elected secretary of MOM is Al Eggermont, Jr. of Music Service Co. and Steve Dahlin of Dahlico Music & Vending is the new treasurer. Elected to the board of directors were Don Awe of Harold Awe Co., Phil Smith of Perry Amusement Co. and Lee Vonderhaar of Hanson Vending & Music.

During the association's annual banquet and floor show, several plaques and merit awards were presented to various individuals and firms, for distinguished service. At the close of the convention, Felicia Tornabene of Bally Mfg. Corp. addressed the group on the subject of "A Break-Even Analysis for Location Costs."

Atari Increases Sales And Reduces Loss In 1978

LOS ANGELES — The toys and electronics games division of Warner Communications, Inc., which includes Sunnyvale, Calif.-based Atari, Inc., posted 1978 revenues of $178 million, an increase of 18% over 1977 sales of $150 million.

The division cut its full-year loss to $2.7 million from $6.1 million in 1977.

The figures were contained in WCI's annual report, issued last week. The company's overall net income for 1978 rose to a record $81.9 million, up 22% from 1977's $66.9 million. Revenues jumped 14% to a record $1.31 billion from $1.14 billion the previous year.

In the fourth quarter of 1978, the toys and electronic games division's revenues dipped 15% to $74.9 million from $88.3 million during the same period the previous year. However, earnings for the quarter increased 4% to $1.17 million from $1.13 million in 1977.

Arcade Association Moves Forward, 2nd Meeting Set

CHICAGO — A small group of arcade operators, representing some of the largest arcades in the country, met in Chicago to discuss the possibility of establishing a national Arcade Amusement Association. The meeting took place during last year's AMOA convention and was organized by Tico Bonomo of Time Out Family Amusement Centers, which operate primarily out of the east coast.

Among those present were Merrill Millman of the Aladdin's Castle chain, which operates about 130 arcades across the country; Ted Olson of Time Zone, presently operating in the San Francisco Bay area; James Ginsburg of Space Port of Philadelphia; Jerry Kroos of the nationwide Funway Freeway operation; Danny Levin of Dream Machine, which operates mainly on the east coast; and Land of Oz, which is a nationwide operation. Most of the firms represented operate predominantly in enclosed regional shopping malls.

Common Problems

The initial meeting, held last November, was very productive, Merrill Millman told Cash Box, because it provided a forum for the discussion of common problems and the exchange of ideas on such pertinent subjects as security, insurance and game mix, to name a few. "We need an association of our own," he said, "for just this purpose, to discuss the business problems we

Quintin Flynn, Ltd. To Distribute Atari Line In Ireland

SUNNYVALE — Atari, Inc. announced the appointment of Quintin Flynn, Ltd. of Ireland, to distribute the factory's full product line. Arrangements were finalized during the recent Amusement Trades Exhibition in London when Flintin Quinn and Shamus Flynn, principals of the distributorship, met with Atari representatives.

Special Showing

The distributor is headquartered in Dublin and will be representing Atari through this office as well as its regional branches in Belfast and Limerick. A special showing was held Jan. 31 through Feb. 3, under sponsorship of Quintin Flynn, to formally announce the new arrangement and also reveal Atari's equipment line to operators in Ireland.

"We are pleased to have Quintin Flynn, Ltd. in our group of distributors," commented Sue Elliott, international marketing administrator for Atari, "and look forward to the start of an excellent business relationship."

The distributor's headquarters is located at 121 Western Industrial Estate, Knockmitten Lane, Naas Road, Dublin 12.

A follow-up meeting will be scheduled either in February or March, as Millman indicated, and it will be held in a central area of the country, possibly Atlanta or Dallas.

PIONEERS PAIRED — Sam Stern (l) and Harry Williams, two giants in pinball machine industry history, have been reunited at Stern Electronics, Inc. Commencing immediately, these two men will concentrate on the design of future Stern pinball machines and assist in training new designers.

Caras said that he would be moving to California immediately and shortly thereafter would relocate his wife and family from suburban Chicago.

'English Darts' Score In Green Bay

CHICAGO — Wilbur Schaut, who operates Smiley's-Mel Coin in Green Bay, Wisconsin, says Rockford, Illinois-based Arachnid, Inc.'s "English Mark Darts" games have emerged as the most profitable machines on his route.

The machines first came to Schaut's attention about three years ago when two models were being removed from a location, supposedly for lack of enough patron interest. He recalled how popular dart games were in England, where he served during the war so he decided to buy the two models, if he could get them at a fair price.

This accomplished, he had them serviced and subsequently placed them in two of his good tavern locations. "The two tavern keepers really liked the machines and even held match games, which worked out very well for their business and ours," Schaut recalls.

It wasn't too long before other tavern owners began requesting the games, only Schaut didn't have any. Through the efforts of an area distributor, however, he learned of the availability of 12 machines, only they were on a route and in need of service. "I bought them as is, at a fair price," he said, "took a truck and trailer and picked them up off the route. My dedicated servicemen went to work on them and we soon had all 12 on location."

100 On Route

At present, Schaut has 100 dart games on his route, about half on rental. "It's unbelievable how good they are," he enthuses. "The new models are solid state and we've already converted the older ones we bought. We have leagues and tournaments going all the time and other operators in the area are buying the games and having good luck with them also. We put one of the older models in one of our country locations just before Thanksgiving and when I checked it out the day after New Year I found that collections had exceeded the gross for the whole year."

Schaut noted that any operator who would be interested in more information may contact him at Box 1366, 2501 University Ave., Green Bay, Wisconsin 54302 or "come and see our operation."

'English Mark Darts'

English Mark Darts accommodates one to four players, has its own built-in memory system and is microprocessor controlled. The darts are poly-tipped to protect against damaging the game area; the dart board is fully solid state and the game has bright, easy to read display panels. It stands six feet five inches high and occupies about two and a half square feet of floor space. Each model is shipped complete and ready to plug in, with a supply of extra darts included as well as full instructions on how to select and play the three different games of English Darts it offers.

Arachnid is located at 2500 N. Main St., Rockford, Ill. 61101.

Brandt Announces New Automatic Wrapper With $1 Coin Capability

WATERTOWN, WIS. — Brandt, Inc., a major manufacturer of money processing equipment, is offering a new automatic coin wrapper with six-coin capability to handle the new $1 coin entering the U.S. monetary system in 1979.

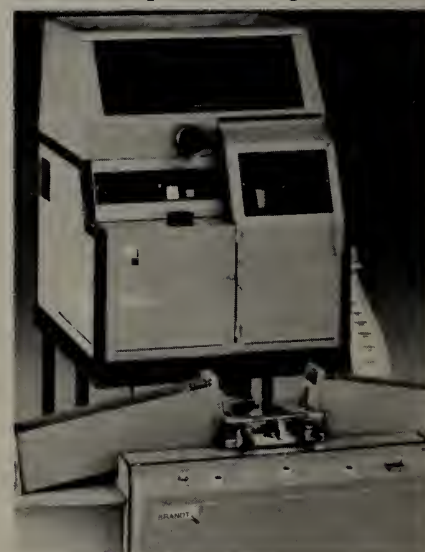

The Brandt Model 1791, with a new electronic counter and built on a roll-about stand for easy mobility, produces up to 24 wraps of coin per minute for large-volume money handlers. It is equipped to wrap 25 dollar coins to the roll, and also can handle .65-inch and .90-inch tokens with the same ease and speed.

The wrapper's infrared stack detector senses a disturbed coin stack. And coins smaller than the denomination being packaged will offsort.

When used for high speed batch-counting and verifying, the Model 1791 stops in batches from five to 99,995. The batch select mode may be set in increments convenient for bagging, with easily installed bagging attachment and verifying of bulk coin.

The 1791's double-bin container is on wheels for easy, quiet movement to a variety of environments without creating any disturbance. The machine's modular design permits the addition of auxiliary equipment as the user's coin packaging needs increase.

Optional equipment includes a large paper roll feed mechanism capable of supporting a 16-inch roll for 8,000 wraps without paper change. Also available is a boxing mechanism which serves several 1791s set up in a series for palletizing and/or boxing of coin for storage purposes.

For further information about the new coin wrapper, contact Brandt, Inc., Watertown, Wis. 53094. The firm has nationwide manufacturing, sales and service facilities serving users throughout the U.S. and Canada.

COIN MACHINE

CHICAGO CHATTER

Williams Electronics, Inc. has a nice promotion going in conjunction with its current "Pokerino" pin. Based on the game's theme, the factory ordered specially designed playing cards backed with a portion of the machine's attractive backglass art, which will be supplied to distributors very shortly. Company exec Ron Crouse said that "Pokerino" is selling quite well and that Williams has been deluged with inquiries about its forthcoming "Flash" pin, which was a big hit at the ATE and has generated a lot of interest in this country among those who have seen it. There have been so many comments about the various technical changes Williams has incorporated into the new model and most especially the "front door programming," as Ron pointed out. It'll be a few weeks, however, before "Flash" is available domestically. On the foreign front, Williams recently made some additional distributor appointments overseas. Video Electronics Games of Carasco, Italy will be representing the factory's product line in that country and, in addition to Leisure & Allied in Perth, (the factory's present distrib.), Goddard Novelty Co. of Sydney will also handle the line in Australia. Ets. Salmon S.A. of Paris has been added to Williams' distributor network in France.

LOWEN AUTOMATEN EXEC Peer von Oertzen is expected to arrive from Germany in a couple of weeks for some business meetings with Bert Davidson, president of the recently established Lowen-America, Inc., and to visit the company's new facilities out here.

BUSINESS AT EMPIRE DIST. has picked up considerably in the past couple of weeks, due largely to the fact that Chicago is starting to recover from the recent blizzards and, although travel routes are far from normal there's been enough of an improvement to allow operators to finally get out and buy equipment. Besides which, as Jerry Marcus boasted, Empire has a "wealth of outstanding machines to sell" — such as Atari's "Football," Midway's "Space Invaders," Bally's "Playboy," Gottlieb's "Charlie's Angels" and the recently arrived "Star Fire" by Exidy and "Dracula" by Stern. The distrib sponsored an informal open house Feb. 8 to honor another new arrival — the Rock-Ola "Mystic 478."

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS TO Stephanie Kaufman, who was a year old Feb. 9. Proud pop is Stern's marketing vice president Steve Kaufman. . . Would also like to make mention of the Feb. 11 nuptials of Fran Green, secretary to Gary Stern, who married photographer Arnold Kapp. Fran will be resuming her duties at Stern following a brief honeymoon. . . And Shelley Sax recently joined the Stern staff as secretary to Larry Slegel, vice president-sales administration. . . In the new product department — "Dracula" seems to be catching on just beautifully.

TKO HITS SEATTLE — The Seattle Trade Center was the site of a cocktail reception hosted by Infinity Records and Albatross Productions to kick-off the label debut of local rock group, TKO. Close to 300 Pacific Northwest music industry people, including area radio and retail account personnel, joined Infinity's national, regional and local staff, as well as executives from MCA Distributing Corp. for a preview of the group's new LP, "Let It Roll." Pictured at the event are (l-r): Al Bergamo, MCA Distributing Corp. president; Brad Sinsel, TKO member; Ron Alexenburg, Infinity president; Mike Flicker, TKO producer; and Ken Kinnear, TKO manager.

EASTERN FLASHES

The talk of the trade these past few weeks has been the Chicago "blizzard of '79" and its far-reaching effects on the coin machine industry, locally and nationwide. Interstate trucking lines have been unable to break the snow barrier in Chicago so distributors in the east are not receiving equipment — much needed equipment, especially such in demand machines as "Playboy" and "Space Invaders." Ironically enough, to compound the situation, just as things were beginning to normalize in Chicago and distributors were beginning to feel that equipment might finally start coming through, the east coast was hit by a snow storm of its own — not quite as severe as the Chicago blizzard but enough to mess things up a little more.

NICK MELONE, SOL LIPKIN, Dick Delfino and Lou Gilbert were out of town when the weather hit — but not in a sunnier climate, however, All four were in the Windy City attending the National Sporting Goods Show at McCormick Place. Firm exhibited its current home line of equipment.

BETSON'S JERRY GORDON made a tour of the New England territory in behalf of the new Rock-Ola phono, since the distrib is now representing the factory in that area also. Showings of the new model have already been held, quite successfully, in Connecticut and New Jersey.

"CHANGE," THE CURRENT PLAYMATIC four-player is very much in the spotlight at Universe Affiliated Int'l. Next up will be a model called "Antar," in which Playmatic will utilize a microcomputer system for the first time. Machine should be ready for domestic delivery around April. Universe prexy Barry Feinblatt, who was among the many regulars in attendance at the recent ATE convention, expressed some strong complaints not only about the unavoidable complications like the weather, the transit strikes, the closing of the airport, the lengthy delays getting to and from Alexandra Palace, et al at showtime this year, but also about the vastly increased hotel costs in London. Without placing ATE's importance in question, Barry said there was really nothing new to see this year and attending was certainly not the bargain it used to be.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

Midway's "Space Invaders," Bally's "Playboy" and Atari's "Football" continue to set the sales pace at C.A. Robinson Co. in Los Angeles, according to distrib vice president Ira Bettelman. Another piece that looks like a winner, Ira said, is Stern's new "Dracula" pinball, which features some of the most striking backglass artwork to come along in quite some time. The distrib just received its first shipment of Midway's "Blue Shark" arcade video rifle game and Ira said a unit like this was long overdue. "There hasn't been a game like this in over a year," he said, "and finally the need has been fulfilled." Although he declined to get into specifics, Ira said C.A. Robinson will host a new product presentation by a major manufacturer within the next 30 days.

MEADOWS' Ed Boasberg reports that the factory's new "Grid Iron" football game will begin shipping this week. A one or two-player unit, Grid Iron features eight offensive and eight defensive plays as well as a "very responsive" track ball control device, according to Boasberg. He said these features make for a more wide open game when the players select their own play strategies. "This is a game for all seasons," Boasberg said, adding that initial distributor response has been encouraging. He also said Meadows has been doing a fantastic kit business on its "Deadeye" game, which seems to be a big hit overseas.

MORE THAN 100 invited guests attended Exidy's first cocktail party Jan. 27 at the recent ATE show in London. That's the word from marketing chief Lila Zinter, who promised that next year's bash will be "bigger and better." The factory displayed eight "Star Fire" games and four "Ripcord" units at the show through its various foreign distributors.

According to Mike Kelly, new ventures manager for marketing services at Pickwick, promotional tie-ins with major record manufacturers during the "500" race will include utilizing posters and billboards at Pocono, in addition to advertising for the event.

Although specific details are still being worked out, Kelly said, two promotions tentatively planned for Pocono include an outdoor disco inside the two and a half mile track area, featuring a live band, as well as a "possible national sweepstakes" involving Musicland and Sam Goody stores.

In addition to the sweepstakes, Kelly said, Pickwick's retail stores within a 200-mile radius of Pocono, Pennsylvania will probably be involved in cross-promotional ties, offering discount coupons for the event.

The race, considered the "second jewel" of motor racing's "triple crown," runs from June 19 to June 24, and is expected to attract over 200,000 spectators.

disco," said Shannon. "One of their artists, David Warner, will be an AOR, Top 40 smash. As for Ariola, we haven't gone disco," he asserted. "We've just adjusted ourselves to meet the needs of radio. You might say that radio has gone disco. When KTU scored their rating sweep, all these stations threw their research findings out the window and followed suit. Here at the label, we were prepared for disco to happen."

But, while the space-costumed image of Amii Stewart is, in a disco-oriented way as contemporary as possible, Ariola's biggest record yet has been Mary McGregor's "Torn Between Two Lovers," a much more traditional country-pop record. "Having a number one record in the country is exciting," said Shannon, "and I don't care what it sounds like."

Referring to Ariola, Shannon also noted that "a lot of preparation went into what is now being perceived as an overnight sensation. It was over a year ago that Jay Lasker and Howard Stark (president and executive vice president of Ariola, respectively) began planning their program. I was brought in late in 1977 so that the company could have a more promotion-oriented approach. I happened to be the guy that they picked for their expansion plans, and we went after the market. The first thing we did was to develop a new logo — as a symbol — and then we expanded the promotion staff." Shannon now points with pride to the label's four national promotional staffs and their respective vice presidents: Bobby Hurt, pop music; Otis Smith, black music; Bill Bartlett, FM album; and a three-man disco team headed by Jack Witherby. The label can also count on the sales and merchandising support of Capitol Records, with whom it has a distribution arrangement. But it is the support of the label's Munich-based parent company which reportedly captured 33% of the German singles market in a recent survey that must be regarded as the most important single factor in Ariola's success. "I wouldn't call what we have an 'open-checkbook' relationship with them," commented Shannon. "But I believe in spending money on promotion and we spend what's needed. Another way that Ariola-Germany benefits us is that a lot of American artists, given the nature of the world's economy, find it very appealing to join a European-based label with worldwide power."

"As competitive as the record business has become, record companies have to become increasingly concerned with both the quantity and quality of their product. Right now we are a medium-sized label. Our plans are to become a major label."

Computer Service Aids Labels, Radio

benefit from the service as they will now be able to receive tracking data on their artists at the same time the labels do.

Expansion Planned

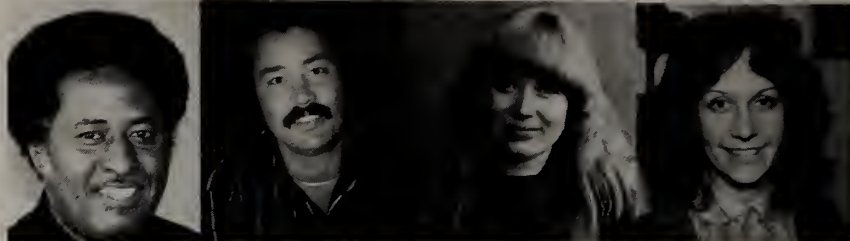

At this point, Computrack is only involved in Top 40 tracking but is planning to expand in the near future to include disco and country & western. The firm is also considering the application of statistical analysis to the data, which they will accumulate, as an added feature of the service. The development of such a function is still at least six months away, however.

RCA has been listed among the clients already utilizing the service with many more expected to follow. Although several of the major companies have the computer capacity to perform such a task, programming costs would be high and the labels would end up duplicating each other's efforts.

"Computers are no longer a dirty word," mused Gilman. "We expect that they will become a much more prominent tool for the industry, beyond their present use. We, certainly, will do more with them."
