Ever since "Blue Moon" zoomed to the top of the charts, Colpix Records has been an important and consistent factor on the singles scene with a series of best sellers by such artists as James Darren (left), Shelley Fabares (second), Paul Petersen (third), the Mamas & the Papas (fourth) and in the album field with Nina Simone (right). As the company's singles continue to build, Leo Jaffe, executive vice-president of Columbia Pictures, parent company of Colpix, and Jerry Raker, general manager of Colpix Records, are seen discussing a major push for the company's expanding album line. The two are standing in front of some of the important Columbia flicks for which Colpix has issued sound-track albums.

SINGLES

SHOWTUNES

The music business doesn't have to look to nature for signs of Fall. The theatre sections of every publication, consumer or trade, make the music man well aware at this time of the year that Fall is just around the corner, and with it the "thrill of first nighting," as Vernon Duke noted in his song, "Autumn In New York."

"First nighting" to the music man (and its thrill) naturally belongs to the area of musicals, and the forthcoming season, like others before it, will contain musical shows that may or may not outlast the season of their birth.

In recent years, record labels have cashed-in on the hit status of a musical mostly through the LP, including, of course, the original-cast release, pop and jazz instrumentals and the low-priced original-cast-like album.

Unless the musical is an all-out smash, extensive singles coverage of a show's score has largely been confined to the label that has acquired the original-cast LP, and, in many cases, the label is committed (not necessarily desirous) to cut singles of the songs with its top artists.

However, there has been a heartening development in this area over the past month. This has been the singles coverage of a number of songs from "Stop The World . . .," the hit London musical set to make its Broadway bow soon. At least three of its tunes, most prominently "What Kind Of Fool Am I," now on the top 100, is making the singles rounds on a host of labels. This kind of showtune coverage of singles takes the record industry back at least a decade, and if it continues, the singles field may well have recovered a goodly portion of a market it hasn't been entirely successful in catering to in a long time—the adult and/or "good-music" market.

A number of musical productions scheduled for the upcoming season are certain to contain material for singles exploitation. "Mr. President" has a score by that master at reaching the people with his songs, Irving Berlin (his first Broadway effort since 1950's "Call Me Madam"). Other likely candidates for strong songs are the as yet untitled, initial collaboration by Richard Rodgers & Alan Jay Lerner; "The Fannie Brice Story," songs by Julie Styne and Bob Merrill; "Little Me," score by Carolyn Leigh and Cy Coleman (Sid Caesar stars in this one); "Oliver," Lionel Bart's long-running London musical; "Hot Spot," (starring Judy Holliday) music and lyrics by Mary Rodgers (Richard's daughter) and Martin Charnin, and "Shop Around The Corner," songs by Jerry Bock & Sheldon Harnick, who wrote the score for the Pulitzer Prize musical, "Fiorello!"

Surely, each one of these shows—and others not listed—contain at least one number worthy of singles exposure. Bringing Broadway back to the singles field is a project worthy of any label's time and imagination.

Mercury Distribs Get Word of New LP Series; Largest Release in 5 Years

CHICAGO—Mercury Records introduced a new economy line of $2.98 classical recordings on its Wing label at its meeting of distributors here last week, as part of its largest release of record products in the past five years.

The label also announced as part of "Project Family Home Entertainment" it was offering a new "Curtain Up" classical series and would put a glass tumbler premium promotion into effect in October.

As a highlight of the meeting, attended by distributors of its three labels—Mercury, Philips and Smash and a new one, Fontana (see separate story)—a number of artists were on hand for a party hosted by Smash Records. Among those present were Brook Benton, Ray Stevens, Clyde McPhatter, Charles Aznavour, Joe Dowell, Tony Martell, Dickey Lee, Timmy Rogers, Buddy De Franco and Tommy Gumina.

Executives of Mercury, including president Irving B. Green, executive vice-president Irwin H. Steinberg and Kenny Myers, vice-president in charge of sales, all stressed the family entertainment angle of the fall sales program.

Advertising and promotion will be one of the high points of the season drive. National advertising is scheduled for such consumer magazines as Playboy, The New Yorker, Seventeen Magazine and Esquire in addition to newspapers throughout the country.

Merchandising material will also be provided including a special tumbler promotion package for an Oct. giveaway of glassware. Also designed to help in the big fall drive and display kits, die-cut jacket easels, an attractive gold-colored rack for the Mercury-Wing classical recordings and a pre-pack for the "Curtain Up" series of classics.

Philips' New Sales Plan Has Consumer Contest; New LP's

NEW YORK—A national consumer contest with an international touch is the keynote of Philips Records' fall sales plan. Announcement of the plan and contest was made during the label's national sales meeting held in Chicago Aug. 30 and 31. The label is also releasing 17 new albums.

Theme for the contest is the label's slogan, "One World of Music," which is carried out in the prizes: a choice of famous sports or compact cars from all over the world.

The three grand prize winners will each choose one car from the following selection: Renault Caravell "S" Convertible, from France; Triumph 1200 convertible, England; Fiat 1100 Special, Italy; Volkswagen, Germany; and the Chevrolet Corvair Monza Spider convertible, from the United States. A collection of a dozen Philips albums will be awarded to each of 150 runners-up.

Three cars will also be awarded to Philips dealers. The winning dealers will be those whose customers send in the winning entries with their dealer's names on them.

Entrants in the contest will submit a last line to a jingle about Philips Records, along with the lower right-hand corner of the inner sleeve from any Philips album. The contest runs from Sept. 1 to Dec. 15, 1962.

The contest will be backed by an extensive advertising and promotion program. Full-page advertisements will run in Sports Illustrated on Sept. 24 and in Playboy in the Dec. issue. A junior page ad will be in the Nov. issue of Esquire.

Record dealers will be provided with a complete kit of promotional (Continued on page 44)

Capitol Issuing 15 September Albums

HOLLYWOOD—Fifteen albums, including new LP's by The Four Freshmen, George Shearing, The Lettermen, Fred Waring, and The Journeymen, will be released this week by Capitol Records.

Also spotlighted on the release are the debut on the label of Barbara Dane and a record combining the seemingly poles-apart talents of Stan Kenton and Tex Ritter. Also in the unique category is an album called "Drop Dead!" by Arch Oboler.

Other new packages present the gospel songs of The Pilgrim Travelers, the R & B of The Five Keys, the polka music of Stan Wolowic and The Polka Chips and "The Best Of June Christy."

Completing the release are two new albums in the "Capitol-of-the-World" series, "Greek Serenade" and "Jacqueline" "Boyer," "Chanteuse."

Colpix Distribs To Hear Of "Big 15" Fall LP Plan

NEW YORK—Colpix Records conducts its first formal distributor meets this week to bow its LP program, "The Big 15—1962 Fall Plan." Deal enables distribs, from Sept. through Nov., to receive 15 free albums for each 100 that are purchased.

Meets will be held in New York (5), Chicago (6) and Los Angeles (7). Each conference will be addressed by Jerry Raker, general manager; Joe Snyder, national sales manager; Bruno Sardi, national promotion manager; and Lenny Adelman, comptroller. Joe Rosenfield, veep in charge of advertising and publicity for Columbia Pictures, the parent company, will address the New York meet. Other execs of the flick company are slated to give talks in Chicago and Los Angeles. (Continued on page 44)

Leroy Holmes To UA

NEW YORK—The appointment of Leroy Holmes as musical director and recording artist for United Artists Records was announced last week by Art Talmadge, president. The appointment is effective immediately, Talmadge said, and is another step in the strengthening of the over all operation of the company.

Holmes formerly recorded for MGM the only label with which he was ever affiliated with as an artist, having recorded there for more than 10 years. He has been closely identified with large, lush orchestral presentations and is also closely associated with motion picture music having recorded the theme from "The High and The Mighty," a hit disking, and "Tara's Theme" from "Gone With The Wind." Holmes produced the last four Everest albums cut by Gloria Lynn, and such million-seller singles for MGM as "Sorry I Ran All The Way Home" and "All In The Game" by Tommy Edwards. He served as a producer for Everest, but retained his status as an artist for MGM. (Continued on page 44)

Cameo/Parkway Bows New LP's At Distrib Meet

NEW YORK—Cameo/Parkway Records introduced its fall LP product to its distributors at the label's distributor meet in Chicago last week (24, 25). There are 12 new albums, including seven in the label's "sound" series, "4:35" MMF. There's a 15% discount program on all the new releases, with various other incentive deals for additional discount.

Initial orders exceeded the half-million-dollar mark, which put the label in a back-order situation, according to an announcement.

Presiding over the meet, at the Ambassador Hotel, was Al Cahn, national sales director, with Bernie Lowe, president, and Harry Chipetz, general manager, in attendance.

The regular new LP's include "Down To Earth," pairing Dee Dee Sharp and Chubby Checker, "All the Hits," a new LP series including dates, in one package, by Bobby Rydell, Chubby Checker, Dee Dee Sharp, "College Folk Songs" by The Swagmen and "Meet Julie Wilson."

The new "4:35" MMF product: "The Organ of the Philadelphia Academy of Music," "120 Cadence Marches," "39 All-Time German Favorites," "12 Years of Academy Award Winners," "Spanish Inferno," "Int'l Pops Orch.," "Musical Moods of Italy" and "An Era Reborn." Bobby Rydell & The Bernie Lowe Orch.

Fiscal '62 For Capitol Shows Sales, Net Decline

NEW YORK—Capitol Records' sales and net income for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1962 dipped in comparison with last year's fiscal period.

As reported by stockholders by top-per Glenn Wallichs, Capitol's sales for the '62 period was $41,857,465, with a net income of $350,477, equal to 76¢ a share on the label's 461,331 shares outstanding at the end of the year.

This compared with the previous period's sales of $48,364,719, with a net income of $1,815,523, equal to $3.98 per share on 461,409 shares outstanding.

Wallichs told stockholders that the firm's "stepped-up" development of its electronics business had adversely affected earnings. The execs said that the development was part of the firm's long-range diversification program which also includes the acquisition of interests in the entertainment field and shares in a record-producing company in Japan.

Wallichs also noted that the "highly competitive conditions in the record industry . . . developed during the year into a chaotic market situation and our increased promotional expenditures to maintain a competitive position resulted in narrowed profit margins."

Wallich concluded his report by declaring that the record market was expanding with the growing teenage population and more and more families were acquiring stereo and other improved devices to produce music for home entertainment. "Over the long run," he stated, "the prospects are there for greater growth and a sound and profitable operation."

Schwartz Bros., DC, Moves To Larger Quarters

WASHINGTON—Schwartz Bros., the capitol's large disk distributor, moved into George's Warehouse over the Labor Day holiday. The new headquarters has 43,000 square feet of space, which compares with the 1,000 square feet the firm had when it first began operations 16 years ago.

RCA Victor To Construct New $2 Million Hollywood Headquarters

NEW YORK—Plans for a $2 million West Coast headquarters for the Radio Corporation of America at 6363 Sunset Boulevard, at Ivar Street, have been announced.

Building owner Frank Muller, Hollywood businessman, and John K. West, RCA staff vice president, said in a joint statement, that construction of the nine-story, 76,000-square-foot structure is expected to begin in Dec. with completion scheduled for late 1963.

Albert C. Martin and Associates of Los Angeles have planned, designed and engineered the facility.

RCA will fully occupy four of the lower floors, and part of a fifth, totaling approximately 41,500 square feet, for its West Coast corporate functions, electronic data processing sales activities, and recording studios of RCA Victor Records.

The new disk facilities will include the latest in acoustical engineering and will utilize the modern techniques in use or in development at other RCA studios. They will consist of two two-story high recording studios, one (Continued on page 44)

One-Stops Meet To Form Association

CHICAGO — Leading one-stops from throughout the country met at the Palmer House in Chicago last week to form their own association in order to "better work with manufacturers and distributors, and to find solutions to problems confronting all segments of the record industry."

The goals of the embryo organization are the solution of problems existing in promotion, new artists introduction and development, catalog, delivery, and others inherent in the industry.

At the first meeting held Aug. 30, the one stops accomplished the filing of corporation papers, retention of counsel, and the election of a temporary board of directors. Those elected to the temporary board were Irv Perlman—pres., Sam Richland—vice pres., Jim O'Dwyer—treasurer, Raoul Shapiro—secretary, and Lou Boorstein—publicity.

The temporary board members announced that a permanent board would be elected at a later meeting, and that additional phases of organization would be discussed at meetings on Friday, Aug. 31.

During a poll of the membership at the conclave here, the one stops claim an annual business return of $27 million dollars.

Although record distributors were not in attendance, representatives from some record manufacturers were present. One stop present were: Henry Brockman, Upton One Stop, St. Louis; George Freeman, Northern Record Sales, Cleveland; Lou Boorstein, Leslie One Stop of New York; Herb Slotkin of Philadelphia; Pat Cohen of Pat's One Stop, Richmond; Fred Capiro of Singer's One Stop, Chicago; Stanley Stone of Galaxy, New York; Manny Wells of the New York One Stop, New York; Ed Oeckel of One Stop Record Service, St. Louis; Gordon Darrish, Grand Rapids; Dave Lieberman, One Stop, Minneapolis; Leroy Davidson, Kansas City; and Steve Brody, Buffalo.

Ackerman Named ARMADA Exec Secy; Chi Meet Comes Up With Platform

CHICAGO—Paul Ackerman, formerly music editor of Billboard Music Week, was appointed executive secretary of the American Record Merchandisers and Distributors Association (ARMADA) at the meeting of the organization's officers and executive board in Chicago last week (29).

Ackerman, who will headquarter in New York, will immediately head a strong membership drive aimed at distributors and labels. He will also direct public and trade relations. He also plans extensive travelling to contact both ARMADA members and non-members.

The meet drew up an official platform outlining ARMADA's goals as a distributor organization.

Called by ARMADA president Amos Heilicher, the meeting stressed the necessity of a united front by distributors during the present era of changing marketing patterns. A membership drive was blueprinted to implement this.

ARMADA intends to work closely with other segments of the disk business—and their trade groups—as well as with governmental agencies such

Patti To Columbia

NEW YORK—Patti Page, one of the most consistent femme disk sellers, has signed an exclusive pact with Columbia Records, according to an announcement last week by Goddard Lieberman, president of Columbia.

Lark's new contract, ending her long association with Mercury Records, was negotiated by Jack Rael, the performers manager and business associate, and David Kapralik, director of east coast pop A&R for Columbia.

NARM Mid-Year Meeting Sign Of Its Strength

CHICAGO—The mid-year meet of NARM, the rack-merchandiser organization, in Chicago last week (26, 27, 28) served as a notice of its growing maturity and of the greater understanding of the problems facing rack-merchandisers' relationships with distributors and labels.

Glenn Becker, NARM president, told Cash Box that he felt that the meet had helped to show the "great future" ahead for the rack field.

Jules Malamud, executive secretary, said he was particularly impressed with the 20 minute person-to-person meets between diskeries and rack-merchandisers, at which, the exec noted, "the problems that exist were brought out in the open."

The gathering didn't produce heavy order taking, mainly because many of the record-merchandisers present had already placed their orders through fieldmen who had contacted them prior to the mid-year meet. The person-to-person confabs were designed to give labels the opportunity to display in detail their fall-Xmas LP product and the sales programs to go along with it.

Becker said that a major rack-merchandiser's goal, that of being treated as "wholesaler, not a retailer" and volume user—and thus entitled to a discount structure other than that applied to the retailer—was being realized.

He offered, as did most rack-merchandisers at the meet, 100% support behind Cameo/Parkway's new rack program, which gives rack-merchandisers an extra 7% discount beyond the label's regular discount program. It was pointed out by London Records' Lee Hartstone that the diskery had been selling to racks in a somewhat similar manner for the past two years. Other labels, it is understood, are expected to soon announce special discount programs to rack-merchandisers.

Becker said that the economies of centralization would lead to additional mergers of rack firms. Edge, Ltd. of Washington and Rak Sales of (Continued on page 45)

Philips Signs Brewer And Tony Williams

NEW YORK—The Philips label announced the addition of two vet singers to its roster, Teresa Brewer and Tony Williams.

The lark moves over to Philips after more than a decade on Coral Records, where she scored with such sides as "Music, Music, Music," her initial hit, "Till I Waltz Again With You" and "Richochet." She also waxed a host of albums for Coral. She will cut for Philips in the near future.

Williams, former lead with The Platters, heard on Mercury Records, affiliated with Philips, comes to Philips after a stint on the Reprise label. He has already recorded an album for Philips called "The Magic Touch of Tony Williams." He has also completed a recording session for a Philips' single.

MGM's Biggest Promo Ever For "Mutiny" Score

NEW YORK—MGM Records has announced plans for the biggest exploitation campaign in the company's history in connection with release of four special albums featuring Bronislau Kaper's music from "Mutiny on the Bounty," the much publicized Marlon Brando-starred flick production.

One of the largest expenditures ever allocated will be used to ballyhoo the foursome consisting of "The Original Soundtrack Album"; an album entitled "Tahiti-Island of Paradise" which was recorded during the filming of the picture in Tahiti and which features authentic Polynesian music; a choral album presenting native groups singing romantic theme from the film as well as other Tahitian songs; and an album in the spectacular 21 channel sound series, "Tempos of Tahiti," featuring music from the film and South Sea Island favorites.

In addition, there will be single records by various artists of the love theme, the main title theme, etc.

The four special music albums will be released as a unit before the world premiere of the film in Nov. and will be preceded by advertisements in leading newspapers and national magazines. These advertisements will be tied in with special window and store displays now being prepared.

The soundtrack album has been set as Album of the Month on 150 radio stations syndicated through the KERR-radio programming service. The same album also will be spotlight Album of the week on 318 radio stations through Jim Ameche's syndicated program.

Kaper's score for the film is one of the longest ever composed for a motion picture. Robert Armbruster, conducting the enlarged MGM Symphony Orchestra, made the recording. Paul Francis Webster wrote special lyrics for Kaper's romantic theme.

Joe Csida Resigns From Capitol

NEW YORK—Joseph Csida, Capitol's vice president for eastern operations, has resigned his post, effective this week (1), as a result of policy differences, an announcement said.

Csida's direct responsibilities in the two and one-half years he served as vice president for Eastern Operations of the company embraced the public relations department, Capitol's music publishing firms, the Broadway show area and administration and supervision of the company's operations in the East.

In Aug., 1960 Csida took on as a special assignment the direct supervision of the company's singles record operation. He leaves the company in its strongest position in the singles area since its peak years of 1957-58. The Nat Cole record of "Ramblin' Rose" is number 5 on this week's Top 100. Additionally, the company now has the largest number of single records on the charts in four years, with a 43% gross sales dollar increase over the previous fiscal year.

During Csida's term as head of eastern operations show album deals were completed with Meridith Willson for "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," Richard Rodgers for "No Strings," and Harold Prince for "A Funny Thing Happened To Me On The Way To The Forum," and Bobby Darin was signed to the label.

Commenting on his resignation, Csida said: "I regret severing my relationship with Capitol. My two and one-half years with the company have given me the opportunity to meet and work with a large number of new people both inside the company and out of it with whom I would never have had the opportunity to work otherwise."

Glenn E. Wallichs, Capitol's president, stated: "Joe Csida has contributed a dynamic and knowledgeable force to our company. He leaves with our best wishes for continued success and happiness."

Csida has not announced his plans for the future.

as the Federal Trade Commission, in order to achieve equitable trade practices.

The conference, which was held at the offices of Jimmy Martin of Music Distributors, agreed upon the following platform planks:

1) Establish and maintain a workable standard of practice with the manufacturer. In connection with this, it was strongly stated that ARMADA opposes direct shipping from manufacturer to racker, jobber, dealer and one-stop.

2) ARMADA will seek to establish a livable plan of discount between distributor and rack jobber and one-stop, whereby all can exist.

Victor To Issue 2-LP Set On Goodman In Soviet

NEW YORK — "Benny Goodman in Moscow," a 2-disk album documenting the performer's recent concert tour of the Soviet Union, is being released later this month by RCA Victor Records.

The package, which bears on its cover a striking color photo of Goodman standing before St. Basil's Cathedral in Moscow's Red Square, contains the actual recordings made by Goodman and his band, the first American jazz band ever to be invited to Russia under the recently formulated Cultural Exchange Agreement.

Exclusive rights to the recordings were acquired by Victor via a contractual agreement with Park Records, for whom Goodman records.

The packages, which will carry a list price of $9.98 in mono, $11.98 in stereo, will include photos of the Goodman tour as well as liner notes by George Avakian, Victor's pop A&R manager. Avakian accompanied the Goodman aggregation along most of its jaunt.

Included are 10 new arrangements as well as seven original compositions by such jazz writers as Tadd Dameron, Bob Prince, John Bunch, Jeo Newman, Tom Newsom and Joe Lipman. All of these works were commissioned by Goodman specifically for premiere performances behind the Iron Curtain.

Victor will support the release with an extensive ad-promotion campaign.

Booker T.

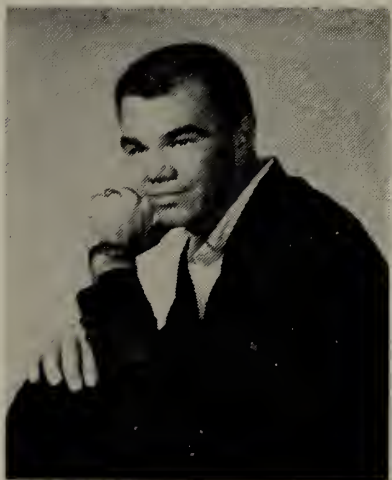

Booker T., whose real name is Booker T. Jones, was born in Memphis, Tennessee, November 12, 1944. He started playing the organ professionally at the age of 14. During his high school years, Booker T. was the director of the high school band for 4 years. He organized a high school orchestra, which played prom dates throughout the Mid-South for 3 years. In 1962, Booker T. was named to the "Who's Who" in high schools of America.

In 1959, Booker T. started recording as a staff musician for the Stax label, and recorded with such well known groups as the Mar-Keys and the Triumphs.

Booker T.'s first instrument was a string bass, but soon he switched to the organ. In high school he concentrated on the study of music theory and harmony. His current hit recording is the chart-climbing "Green Onions" by Booker T. and the MG's on the Etax label, which is distributed by Atlantic Records.

Dickey Lee

Dickey Lee, who is currently riding high on the charts with "Patches" on Smash, was born in Memphis on September 21, 1940. The son of a railroad superintendent, the youngster began to sing an imitation of the sounds of the speeding trains that whizzed by the window of his father's office, long before he started to spell.

By the time he was sixteen Dickey was a self-taught guitarist and had formed his own little country trio singing and playing for high school proms and college functions. As he grew older and entered Memphis State University, he demonstrated a born talent in art, songwriting and near-professional skill as a boxer.

The chanter's fist smashed him into the "Golden Gloves" boxing tournament and won him the championship award of Memphis in 1959. Dickey's clefing talents brought him success in 1962 with "She Thinks I Still Care," one of the top country tunes of the year.

Still a bachelor, the artist makes his home with his mother, sister and brother.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

The temperatures were in the 90's recently in Baltimore, but the local kids were busy throwing snowballs. It all started last winter when WEBB-Baltimore paid children a penny a piece for all the snowballs they could make. The youngsters made more than 10,000 of them. The snowballs were kept in cold storage until a short while ago when they were taken to four recreation centers scattered across the city. At the centers, children aged, 7 to 10, approximately 1500 of them participated in the station's first summer snowball jamboree. They tossed snowballs at plywood lifesized mannequins. Winners of the various contests were awarded prizes including recreational equipment. To top it all off, ice cream and cake were served to all the contestants. The purpose of the Jamboree, co-sponsored by the Department of Recreation, according to Samuel Feldman, general manager and veep of WEBB, was to provide an unusual day of entertainment for Baltimore youngsters.

Fred Barr and "Doc" Wheeler, WWRL-New York personalities, are lining up their fall gospel caravan at Harlem's Apollo Theatre. Among the stars to headline the show will be the Caravans and the Swanee Quintet. This marks the 24th appearance of Fred and "Doc" at the Apollo.

For the tenth consecutive year, WXYZ-Detroit's morning spinner, Fred Wolf, parked his mobile trailer studio on the Michigan State Fairgrounds. Wolf's 6:00 to 10:00 AM stanza originated all last week from the fair. The opening of the fair was preceded by a parade in which the outlet's air men participated.

KHJ-Hollywood jockey Perry Allen has been named as emcee of the Jackie Mason concert slated for September 8 at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. Lark Ruth Olay and the Joe Felix Trio round out the bill. . . . Musicians Ralph Flanagan and Barney Kessel made appearances on KHJ's Lucky Pierre show last week. Flanagan has just organized a new quartet which opened at the new Thunderbird Inn on the Sunset Strip, while guitarist Kessel plugged a new album.

Bob Osborne, who spins 'em on WIL-St. Louis, is making quite a hit with the station's car 143 "pool patrol." Every afternoon, Osborne drives the car to pools in the St. Louis area, and announces that the first several persons to come to his "pool patrol car" will win cash and other prizes. Listeners are invited to write in requesting that the car stop at their favorite pool, and needless to say, there's been quite a "flood" of mail. . . . WIL personality Gary Stevens returned to the turntables last week after an eight week active duty hitch with the Missouri Air National Guard.

KXOL-Fort Worth has come up with a new approach for distribution of a weekly record ranking survey. Tagged the "Hit Parader," the survey has proved to be a hit of its own for the station. Circulation of what can best be described as a miniature newspaper (it's 7 x 8½ inches in page size) has more than doubled since the first issue in June and the fame of the publication has spread so rapidly that requests from radio stations all over the country are coming in for more information about the project. Each week's issue is four pages. The front and back pages are devoted to station news and pictures, the second page to a column of comment about records and the third page to a listing of the week's top 40 records. The "Hit Parader" is distributed as a free pick-up item in all of the record stores, most of the major theatres, several department stores and other varied retail stores throughout Fort Worth. In addition, copies are furnished to such outlets as the U. S. Public Health Service.

Marking the first time a one-hour television special has been premiered outside Hollywood or New York was Lou Irwin's "The Idol" which was aired last week over KENS-San Antonio. The semi-documentary, produced and directed by Irwin, covered the round-the-clock activities of chanter Bobby Vee during a recent four-month tour from New York to Los Angeles and covering some 36 cities. The TV premiere was highlighted by a two-day "Bobby Vee Day" celebration in the Texas city, including airport reception by the Mayor, civic parade, Alamo visit, plus radio, television and press coverage for the wax artist.

WWDC-Washington recently boasted that it had the "cleanest listeners in town" following its offer of free laundry service. Now they're claiming their listeners have the "cleanest cars in town" as a result of providing for free car washes at various car establishments throughout the metropolitan Washington area. This was part of the station's continuing campaign to prove that wonderful things happen to WWDC listeners. . . . WWDC sprang to the rescue of many perplexed pattern planners as well as bewildered automotive experts on a recent afternoon. Through someone's printing "boo boo" McCall's Catalog which lists a special telephone number if anyone has trouble with a pattern, inadvertently shows the phone number of the Ford Motor Co. When the outlet received a report that "gaskets" were being confused with "gussets" and car designs mixed up with body lines, they immediately began a series of free "public service" announcements, to set the record straight.

Ken Gaughran, deejay-program director of WWCO-Waterbury, Connecticut, heads for Atlantic City this week to produce his Miss America Pageant Reports (from September 3 through 9). Highlighted by interviews with state queens and others affiliated with the Miss America Pageant, the radio feature series will be heard on subscribing stations as far north as New Hampshire, south to Florida, east to Massachusetts and west to Texas. The series was created and first produced by Gaughran in 1959.

The second in WHN-New York's series of music spectaculars will star Sammy Davis, Jr. and will be hosted by Dick Shepard. The program which will be aired, September 6 from 8:00 to 10:00 PM, will feature material especially recorded for WHN presentation which has never before been on any Gotham station.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Perry Cooper is now on the music staff of WINS-New York. . . . Caryl Coleman given the green light as the public affairs director for KPIX-TV-San Francisco. . . . Alen Boyd, who has been spinning 'em for Uncle Sam for the past three years, is now holding down air chores on KLTR-Blackwell, Okla. . . . Neil McIntyre, formerly with WHK-Cleveland, is now on the program staff of KQV-Pittsburgh.

Pick of the Week

"WORKIN' FOR THE MAN" (2:25) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Orbison]
 "LEAH" (2:37) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Orbison]
 ROY ORBISON (Monument 467)

The talented singer-cleffer, who now has "The Crowd" under his fabulous hit belt, comes up with another powerhouse original with an interesting storyline. It's a thumpin' up beat'er, tabbed "Workin' For The Man," about a railroad hand who has his eye on the boss' job. The emotion-packed, martial beat-like pairing's devoted to "Leah." Grade "A" support from Bob Moore's ork-chorus.

"WARMED OVER KISSES (LEFT OVER LOVE)" (2:20)
 [Pogo ASCAP—Udell, Geld]

"WALK A LONELY MILE" (2:28) [Pogo ASCAP—Udell, Geld]
 BRIAN HYLAND (ABC-Paramount 10359)

Hyland, whose solid ABC hit streak recently saw the top-ten addition of "Sealed With A Kiss," should continue the hot pace with this one. Songster, showcased in a splendid Stan Applebaum rock-a-waltz-like setting, is in grade "A" vocal form as he dual-tracks "Warmed Over Kisses (Left Over Love)." "Walk A Lonely Mile" makes for a potent, emotion-packed beat-ballad companion piece.

"MAYBE" (2:33) [Tree BMI—Singleton, Killen, Riley]
 "I DO BELIEVE" (1:59) [MRC BMI—Singleton, Kennedy]
 CLYDE McPHATTER (Mercury 72025)

The vet song stylist, whose current chain of clicks now includes "Little Bitty Pretty One," never sounded better than he does on his newest Mercury slice. It's a beat-ballad waltz'er, labeled "Maybe," that Clyde delivers in stellar blues stye. The exciting, fast-moving "I Do Believe," moves along at a sizzling twist clip. Great assist from the Merry Melody Singers and the Jerry Kennedy ork on this sensational double-decker.

"TEN LONELY GUYS" (3:38) [Roosevelt BMI—Feldman, Goldstein, Gottehrer, Elgin, Rogers, Edwards, Jr., Weiss, Adams, Farrell, Lewis]
 "LOVER'S LANE" (2:14) [Spoone ASCAP—Boone]
 PAT BOONE (Dot 16391)

Boone, who's coming off a top-ten'er in "Speedy Gonzales" can easily repeat with this new Dot offering. It's a tear-compelling, 'beer-drinking' shuffler, labeled "Ten Lonely Guys," that Pat and the Jimmie Haskell ork-chorus carve out with money-making authority. The self-penned razz-a-ma-tazz rock-a-twist'er, "Lover's Lane," can also bust wide open.

"TWISTIN' WITH LINDA" (2:35) [Wemar BMI—R.R.&I. Isley]
 "YOU BETTER COME HOME" (2:17) [Mellin, Ludix BMI—Russell]
 THE ISLEY BROTHERS (Wand 127)

This looks like another pair of pop-r&b sales heavyweights for the Isley Brothers. They're two fabulous rockers, tagged "Twistin' With Linda" and "You Better Come Home" (the short-while-back Russel Byrd click), that build a la "Twist And Shout." Sock Teacho Wiltshire arrangements on both portions.

"SWING LOW" (2:04) [Cramart BMI—Arr: Cramer]
 "LOSERS WEEPERS" (2:01) [Cramart BMI—Cramer]
 FLOYD CRAMER (RCA Victor 8084)

It's a good bet Floyd Cramer's name'll be all over the charts, once again, in the weeks to come. The fine keyboard stylist has an oldie-newie combination that the platter spinners will love. One half's a catchy up tempo up-dating of the famed spiritual, "Swing Low" (with some choral chants along the way) while the other end, "Losers Weepers," an easy-goin' beaut from the "Last Date" school.

"NAKED CITY THEME" (2:10) [Gower BMI—May]
 "THE DEFENDERS THEME" (2:47) [April ASCAP—Rosenman]
 NELSON RIDDLE (Capitol 4843)

Maestro Riddle, whose "Theme From Route 66" proved to be a solid money-maker, can repeat with either end of his new Capitol session. Both are popular TV "Theme" tunes, from the "Naked City" ABC-TV'er and "The Defenders" CBS-TV'er, that the Riddle crew puts over with a delightfully breezy jazz flavor. Take your pick.

"YOU CAN'T LIE TO A LIAR" (1:51) [Edwin H. Morris ASCAP—Hampton]
 "RIVER OF SALT" (1:49) [Aee-Cee-Mmm BMI—Brown, J&B Zackery]
 KETTY LESTER (Era 3088)

Ketty Lester serves up another intriguing platter in her new Era outing. It's a tantalizing blues shuffle-thumper, tagged "You Can't Lie To A Liar," that sports some great fiddle and harmonica-led down home sounds. Watch it take off. Coupler's a soft beat cha cha-like weeper, labeled "River Of Salt," that also rates a close look.

EDDY WILLIAMS (Alcor 2013)

(B+) "HAVE A HEART" (1:45)
 [Arrowhead BMI—Williams, Baird, White] First release from the new Everest Records' affiliate is a distinctive blues warble by singer Williams on a strong plaintive. Strong backdrop chants from a male song crew. Could be a click start for the waxery.

(B) "DANCING SHOES" (1:55)
 [Arrowhead BMI—Williams, Baird, White] Happy blueser with a spiritual heritage.

CHASE WEBSTER (Dot 16384)

(B) "I'LL LIGHT A CANDLE" (1:52) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant, Bryant] As the title indicates, this ballad is done with sensitivity and a hint of an inspirational affair.

JACKIE & THE STARLITES (Mascot 128)

(B+) "FOR ALL WE KNOW" (2:17) [Feist - Cromwell ASCAP—Lewis, Coots] This is a strong tender-beat statement of the mainstay, with the distinctive lead doing an off-the-tune delivery plus a wailing narrative. Could be a click for the New York-based diskery.

(B) "I HEARD YOU" (2:14) [Keel BMI—Rue] Tearful statement by Jackie.

SLIM & LITTLE ANN (Fury 1068)

(B+) "I LOVE YOU BECAUSE" (3:04) [Fred Rose BMI—Payne] The duo could have a fast click with tender, shuffle-beat, pop-styled blueser rendered in an ultra-commercial fashion. Side lends itself to many terpsichorean possibilities. Watch it.

(B+) "SEND ME THE PILLOW YOU DREAM ON" (2:58) [Four Star BMI—Locklin] On this end the team dishes up a top-drawer rendition of the Hank Locklin-penned country tune which Johnny Tillotson is currently scoring with.

NORRIS WILSON (Monument 466)

(B+) "HONOLULU" (2:20) [Acuff-Rose BMI—B&F Bryant] Roundup of the city's attractions is one of the most charming efforts from the pens of Felice & Boudleaux and it couldn't ask for a more engaging teen-directed reading than the one from singer Wilson, a full ork & femme chorus. Could catch-on.

(B) "FOR A LITTLE WHILE" (2:12) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Gibson] Heartfelt countryish cut.

THE MARATHONS (Plaza 507)

(B+) "LITTLE PANCHO" (2:15) [Hidle & Little Darlin BMI—Marathons] Boys are in solid vocal form as they convey, with a wild attack, an item about a twistin' kid called Pancho. Combo supports in infectious twist style. Could get around.

(B) "MASHED POTATOES ONE MORE TIME" (2:15) [Hidle & Little Darlin BMI—Marathons] Sure-handed beltin' for the teen dancefloor.

DICK LEE (Roulette 4447)

(B+) "ALL I DO IS DREAM OF YOU" (2:11) [Robbins ASCAP—Freed, Brown] Vet songster bows on Roulette in a deft, bright-beat reading of the durable. His stint is supported by strong novelty rock color from the guitar-led combo & femme chorus. Could get attention.

(B) "HOW'S THE WORLD TREATING YOU?" (1:51) [Acuff—Rose BMI—Arkins, Briant] A former hit from the country field gets an intriguing pop-market sound.

RHETTA DEL (RCA Victor 8079)

(B+) "THE QUIET ONE" (2:35) [Roosevelt BMI—Elgin, Rogers] Strong-voiced songstress solidly relates the bulesy ballad, about a "quiet" gal who goes about stealing fellas from their flames. Good dramatic stand by the ork-chorus. Deejays will dig the talent.

(B+) "YOU'VE GOT TO SEE MAMMA EV'RY NIGHT (You Can't See Mamma At All)" (2:17) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Rose, Conrad] A rousing reading of the oldtimer that takes a lead from the burlesque sound of David Rose's "The Stripper."

AL ADAMS (Frisco 102)

(B+) "TWO SECONDS OF LOVE" (2:44) [Silvia BMI—Wagner] Fine legit ballad is tastefully handled by the blues-styled vocalist. Pretty ork backdrop includes a soft backbeat sound. A romantic entry that deserves lots of airtime.

(B) "TO KNOW" (2:27) [B. Bengaman ASCAP—Marcus] This ballad has a swingin' honky-tonk quality.

BILL BUTLER (Epic 9533)

(B+) "THEME FROM 'TWO WEEKS IN ANOTHER TOWN'" (2:35) [Miller ASCAP—Raksin] The ivory artist is the top instrumental factor in an interesting arrangement of a bluesy theme from an MGM flick. It requires lots of plays to succeed, but it should be eyed.

(B) "VENUS" (2:15) [Rambled BMI—Marshall] One of the stronger rock 'n roll era tunes is done with a good-natured sound that recognizes its teen-beat heritage (there's an effective backbeat throughout).

RICK & THE MASTERS (Cameo 226)

(B+) "FLAME OF LOVE" (2:15) [Banks BMI—DiMuro, Cunningham] Pro teen sentimental is appealingly performed by the song team. Organ and guitar make a pretty soft-beat setting. Enough exposure might get this track off the ground.

(B) "VENUS" (2:15) [Rambled (2:28) [Banks BMI—DiMuro, McKnight] Boys go in for speedy-beat rockin'.

NELLIE RUTHERFORD (Hickory 1182)

(B+) "LAVENDER LACE" (2:12) [Acuff—Rose BMI—Orbison, Melson] Things are going well for the lass, romantically-speaking, in this admirable plaintive stand by the thrush. Opus has an inviting legit feel, while the combo-chorus makes fine teen-directed sounds. Could be something.

(B) "LOOKING AT THE CEILING" (2:18) [Acuff—Rose BMI—F&B Bryant] Brighter, Latinized rock doings, though the plot is again wistful.

Pick of the Week

"ONE MORE TIME" (2:58)
[Sausalito BMI]

"SHE WAS TOO GOOD TO ME"
(2:45) [Chappell ASCAP—
Rodgers, Hart]

THE KINGSTON TRIO (Capitol 4842)

Both ends by the folksters put them solidly in the pop groove. Closer to their familiar folk dates is "One More Time," which is done with a bouncy arrangement, including lush strings. Rodgers & Hart's striking, rarely-heard ballad, "She Was Too Good To Me," receives a distinctive sound from the boys, nicely assisted by a femme chorus. Both tracks can take chart honors.

"YES" (2:43) [Trio-Progressive BMI—Leiber, Stoller]

"TOMORROW" (2:52) [Trio BMI—Daryll, Richards]

JAY & THE AMERICANS (United Artists 504)

Jay & the Americans are a good bet to come up with another "She Cried" chart triumph. Tune, simply tagged "Yes," is an extremely pretty Latin beat romancer that is sure to fill the airwaves in short order. Superb, string-filled Garry Sherman instrumental support for Jay's catchy vocal bending. "Tomorrow" makes for a touching soft beat coupler.

"THE GREATEST ACTOR"

(2:52)

[Central Songs BMI—Williams]

"YOU BUG ME BABY" (2:52)

[Central Songs BMI—Williams]

WANDA JACKSON (Capitol 4833)

The lark, who's had a host of dual-mart pop-country clicks in the past, should soon be adding two more with this new Capitol session. Wanda leads off in superb, ballad-with-a-beat style on the touching, "The Greatest Actor." She couples it with a delightful romantic twist'er, "You Bug Me Baby." Standout ork-choral arrangements by Bill McElhiney on both lids.

"I'M GOING BACK TO SCHOOL" (2:26) [Conrad BMI—Clark]

"NOBODY BUT YOU" (2:26) [Gladstone ASCAP—Clark]

DEE CLARK (VeeJay 462)

Dee Clark's return to chartdom should be aboard his newest VeeJay effort. It's teen-appealing seasonal delighter, tagged "I'm Going Back To School," that moves along at a contagious thump-a-twist pace. Catchy mid-deck banter rounds out the winner. "Nobody But You" shuffles along in captivating style on the flip.

"LITTLE HOLLYWOOD GIRL" (2:08) [Aldon BMI—Goffin, Keller]

"PARISIAN GIRL" (1:57) [Cricket BMI—Curtis]

THE CRICKETS (Liberty 55495)

Chances are the Crickets'll get back on the winning track in no time flat. Reason is their tale of the disillusioned "Little Hollywood Girl." Artists and the Snuff Garrett-led instrumentalists blend in ultra-commercial fashion on this medium-beat jumper with attention-getting percussive bits. Backing's a fetching, cha cha beat romantic tale of a "Parisian Girl."

"STORMY MONDAY" (3:01) [Gregmark BMI—Walker]

"YOUR FRIENDS" (2:21) [Don BMI—Malone]

BOBBY BLAND (Duke 355)

Bobby Bland, who's had a phenomenal run of dual-mart hits over the years, could have "Stormy Monday" riding side by side up the charts with his recently-released hit, "Yield Not To Temptation." This one's a slow moving romantic blueser, that Bobby delivers with heartfelt emotion, culled by request from his new LP. More of the same top drawer lazy blues sounds on the underlid. Top half's already busting thru.

In an effort to call D.J. attention to Pick records by "Newcomers" (artists never before on the Top 100) the editorial staff of Cash Box will list such records under this special heading.

"ONE GOOD REASON" (2:30) [Lowery BMI—Moon, Cason]

"CRY MYSELF TO SLEEP" (2:43) [Bobob ASCAP—Crewe, Gaudio]

STEVE ALAIMO (Checker 1024)

"One Good Reason" could turn out to be the big chart break for the Checker songster. Alaimo hands in a powerful vocal effort as he and the full-ork backdrop run thru a sure-handed teen market twist'er about a guy who pleads with his gal to stick around. Might be real big. "Cry Myself To Sleep" features a pro medium beat Latinish stand on a deft teen opus.

ANDY ANDREWS (Select 716)

(B+) "STAMPS" (2:18) [Joy ASCAP—Lewis, Garson] This teen-market date takes infectious advantage of the current premium-stamp rage. Songster does a nifty novelty vocal against a bright combo-chorus setting. The Joy Records affiliate could have something here.

(B) "YOU CAN'T LEAVE ME NOW" (2:03) [Joy ASCAP—Lewis, Garson] After a slow-rock intro by the artist, things pick-up steam in a catchy manner.

SAMMY TAYLOR (May 123)

(B) "FRIDAY THE 13TH" (3:03) [Maxine BMI—Taylor] Earthy issue for the blues trade.

JONI JAMES (MGM 13092)

(B+) "LEND ME YOUR HANDKERCHIEF" (2:59) [Milene ASCAP—Nelson, Nelson] Thrush takes a vocal trip to Nashville in this attractive disenchanting display. Ork-chorus is in full sympathy with the songstress' portrayal. Might make noise.

(B) "YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE" (2:38) [Peer Int'l BMI—Davis, Mitchell] A warm Nashville-flavored reading of the perennial.

THE BLUE JAYS (Milestone 2014)

(B+) "TALL LEN" (2:30) [Lode & Figure BMI—Rikk] Infectious blues-oriented novelty belt by the vocalists. Circa is the label's national distrib.

(B) "VENUS, MY LOVE" (2:24) [Lode BMI—Peels] Leon Peels heads this sentimental rock survey.

LARRY BENE (Certified 5002)

(B+) "ANGELS NEVER LEAVE HEAVEN" (2:28) [Leeds ASCAP—Pelosi, Noel, Ilde] Singer Bene softly conveys the sentiments of the salute to the loved-one. Easy combo-chorus backing includes a triplets sound.

(C+) "COME BACK" (2:43) [Hook BMI—Bowser] Affected up-beat affair.

JERRY DORN (Fling 711)

(B+) "PRAYER OF LOVE" (2:10) [Fire BMI—Trestler] Effective declaration by Dorn on a dramatic inspirational-like romantic. Kids will feel for the portion.

(C+) "ROCKIN' CHAIR ROCK" (1:53) [Bradford, Lewis] Sock stuff that's generally old-hat.

THE CAVALIERS (Gum 1004)

(B) "THE QUIVER" (2:05) [Gum BMI—Nash, Scruggs] Lead tells of a new teen step against an exciting, thumping sound from the musicians. Fine hard-hitting blues-styled session from the label, based in Mesilla Park, N. Mexico.

(B) "THE RIGHT TIME" (2:12) [Gum BMI—Nash, Bandle] Things become cozy as the front vocalist relays a good come-back romantic.

DON HINES (Hi 2056)

(B) "PLEASE ACCEPT MY LOVE" (2:25) [Kamar BMI—Garlow] Fella's in love with a gal whose name he doesn't know is this pleasing blues romantic by the songster and combo, both reliable, mostly blues-market sounds. Might also come-up with pop plays.

(B) "STORMY MONDAY BLUES" (2:28) [Advanced ASCAP—Hines, Eckstine, Crowder] All blues market offering has Hines doing a soulful vocal.

TYRONE A'SAURUS (Warner Bros. 5305)

(B+) "THE MONSTER TWIST" (2:42) [Yo-Yo BMI—Ross, Jenkyns] A rock novelty out for rock laffs. After a dialog intro, twist vocal-combo doings take-over with good, tongue-in-cheek teen-market humor.

(B) "(Love Theme from) THE MONSTER TWIST" (1:56) [Yo-Yo BMI—Ross, Jenkyns] Unromantic "love theme" twistin' by the combo.

ROSCO GORDON (ABC-Paramount 10351)

(B+) "AS YOU WALK AWAY" (2:45) [Milt Shaw BMI—Gordon] Infectious blues stint by the songster and his combo friends. Sound is in good spirits, despite the fact that the gal's giving the fella a hard time. Cut could catch-on.

(B) "A GIRL TO LOVE" (2:37) [Pamco BMI—Gordon] Gordon's opens his warm-beat blues reading with a narrative.

RONNIE STYNER (Capa 109)

(B) "HEY, HEY BABY" (2:05) [Medico BMI—Styner] Singer Styner is the upfront sound in this sizzling rock-a-billy sound. Good all-out attack for the kids.

(B) "BRING ME YOU" (2:45) [Medico BMI—Whiting] There's a haunting quality to Styner's affectionate material.

DORA HALL (Premere 105)

(B) "O HOW I WISH" (1:55) [Signature BMI—Klemer] Against an attractive ork-chorus setting under Don Ralke's direction, the lark poignantly renders a pretty plaintive about a gal looking for a true love. Sensitive teen-directed issue.

(C+) "BABY DON'T YOU CARE NO MORE" (2:02) [Signature BMI—Taylor] Years-back bouncy nature to this end.

THE VIDALTONES (Josie 900)

(B+) "FOREVER" (2:15) [Bily A Bah BMI—Allen] Tender teen-market ballad is invitingly essayed by the smooth song crew. Sound is in the manner of soft-beat dates of several years-back, but it'll still get to today's teenagers.

(B) "SOMEONE TO LOVE" (2:02) [Bily A Bah BMI—Allen] Much the same approach by the pro teen ensemble.

DALIDA (Verve 10263)

(B) "UN UOMO VIVO" (2:15) [BIEM—Plante, Paoli] French singing star does a fine build-up, Italian-lyric reading of a pretty sentimental item. Track is from her LP, "I Feel So Alive." Deserves pop spins.

(B) "COME UNE SYMPHONIE" (2:40) [Robbins ASCAP—Donaggio, Salabert] Also from the LP, a dramatic French-sung date.

"WHEN MY LITTLE GIRL IS SMILING" (2:27)

[Aldon BMI—King, Goffin]

"IF I LOST YOUR LOVE" (1:39) [Cedarwood BMI—Walker]

JIMMY JUSTICE (Kapp 482)

"When My Little Girl Is Smiling," a recent hit for the Drifters, can return to the charts via this sparkling session by English songster Jimmy Justice. Both the Justice vocal and the Bob Leaper-led thumpin' rock-a-string setting are top notch. Looks like a winner all over again. Backing's a medium rock plaintive etched in a countryish vein.

"UNTIE ME" (2:26) [Lowery BMI—South]

"DISILLUSIONED" (1:58) [Law-Ab BMI—C. & E. Thomas]

THE TAMS (Arlen 7-11)

This double debut, for the Tams and the Arlen label, looks like money-in-the-bank for all concerned. Group, with a standout lead vocal, comes across with telling effect on this heartfelt, slow beat rock-a-cha-cha-like affair, tabbed "Untie Me." Strong, string-filled instrumental support. Coupler's a captivating rock-a-shuffler that could also step out.

Best Bets

THE COASTERS (Atco 6234)

(B+) "THE CLIMB" (2:40) [Progressive-Trio BMI—Leiber, Stoller] Date could mark a strong Top 100 return for the longtime rock song crew. Presentation (title is, naturally, a teen-dance) has a novel sly-beat manner that could really catch-on with sufficient airtime.

THE RAMROCKS (Press 2804)

(B+) "LASAGNA" (2:25) [Symbol BMI—Paul] The popular Italian dish is the title of this strong Latinish combo display for teen-market attention. Vocal interjections make humorous note of the title. This session, from the London-handled label, has a Top 100 chance.

(B) "PASHA" (2:11) [Symbol BMI—Ward, Paul, Markham] A zany sound, with made-in-India feel, based on an old tune.

BABE PIER (Crosby 18)

(B) "THE TWIST" (2:40) [BMI—Ballard] Pier imitates famous personalities (e.g. Ed Sullivan, Peter Lorre) in this laff routine on the number that began the twist craze. Combo sound is good twist currency.

(B) "BABE'S TWIST" (1:46) [Nevegas ASCAP—Pier] Organ is jazzy in this twist novelty with vocal interjections.

MORTON GEORGE (Amy 858)

(B+) "THE STRETCH" (2:38) [Gahm BMI—Kelley, Hilliard] Yet another teen-step is explained—with lots of teen-beat authority—by the songster and his combo-chorus backdrop. Worth novelty dance programming.

(B) "COME ON IN" (2:30) [Aim BMI—Kelley, Hilliard] An off-beat affair about a shy fella who's asked to join a party, and when he does, he has a ball.

RICHIE DELAMORE/TONY ALLEYNE (Carib 1003)

(B) "LIMBO" (2:47) [Carib-Shurland BMI—Carib, Shurland] This is an authentic outing, headed by Richie Delamore, on the Caribbean step coming through in the U. S. Engaging display.

(B) "JUNKANOO IN NASSAU" (2:55) [Carib-Alleyne BMI—Alleyne] Tony Alleyne is the featured singer in this happy calypso cut.

SAL SALVADOR ORCH. (Danbar 222)

(B+) "TURKISH TAFFY" (2:24) [Tara ASCAP—Wilcox] Guitarist Salvador kicks-off his own New York-based diskery with a sunny, twistable band novelty. Catchy stuff.

(B) "CHUCKLES" (2:23) [Tara ASCAP—Hanley, Masingill] More instrumental cheer with an eye on the twisters.

RENE FONTAINE (Dot 16383)

(B+) "MY FOOLISH HEART" (2:25) [Joy ASCAP—Washington, Young] There's much of the Mathis sound in Fontaine's delivery, used to strong romantic advantage on the beautiful perennial. Artist is backed by a first-rate rock-a-string ballad sound. Deck can go places.

(B) "JUST CALL ME LONESOME" (2:16) [Copar—Forrest BMI—Griffin] This is poignant Nashville-type work that also has Top 100 potential.

HANK MARR (Federal 12468)

(B+) "THE WATUSI - ROLL" (2:59) [Avenue BMI—Marr] One of the currently favored teen steps is presented with lots of rockin'—with a good jazz touch—know-how by a blues combo. Sax and organ make the top dancefloor sounds.

(B) "SWEET NANCY" (2:17) [Avenue BMI—Marr] An organ is spotlighted in this affectionate blues moody.

WILLIE HARPER (Alon 9006)

(B) "CLOUDY WEATHER" (2:24) [Jarb BMI—Neville] Blues vocalist does a pro reading of a catchy blues romantic, while musicians (and other songsters) brightly assist. Session on the Instant-affiliated diskery.

(B) "I'LL NEVER LEAVE YOU" (2:46) [Jarb BMI—Neville] Performer persuasively handles the touching number.

THE VISIONS (Bigtop 3119)

(B+) "SWINGIN' WEDDING" (2:00) [Aberbach BMI—Greenwich, Powers] Sure-handed teen-attack from the songsters and their combo backdrop, which has apt chimes-like effects every now-and-then. Lots of upbeat sound value for the teen trade here. Could happen.

(B+) "SECRET WORLD (Of Tears)" (2:28) [January BMI—Nader, Adams, Robbins] There's pro work here, too, this time on the order of some of Tony Orlando's Epic diskings.

THE GRADS (Valiant 6023)

(B+) "ONCE AGAIN" (2:25) [Sherman & De Vorzon BMI—De Vorzon, Chandler] Song team puts lots of feeling into a poignant romantic, and the fellas get a commanding rock-a-string ork sound in support. Ballad stuff that could score big.

(B) "WHITE STEEPLE" (2:14) [Sherman & De Vorzon BMI—Chandler, McKendry] A shade more subdued romantic warble by the boys.

THE FIRST PLATOON (S.P.Q.R. 3303)

(B+) "TEN WAYS" (1:56) [Rockmasters BMI—Jones] Lead and his songmates get across a tender teen item, with a stiff-upper-lip, inspirational-like philosophy, with a good deal of blues sincerity, even though the sound has a busy, slow-beat way. Bears attention. London distributes the diskery.

(B) "PHYSICAL FITNESS PAYS?" (2:07) [Rockmasters BMI—Guida, Royster, Harris] Whacky Army-life fun-blues affair.

TICO (Amy 860)

(B+) "CRY, LITTLE BOY, CRY" (2:33) [Landis & Aim BMI—Landis] The current Dion sound is strongly in evidence in this busy upbeat entry. Portion packs a rock punch that the youngsters go for.

(B+) "GET UP & DO THE WOB- BLE" (2:27) [Landis & Aim BMI—Landis] Partytime excitement of a pro teen-market order.

HANK LEVINE ORCH. (Dolton 63)

(B+) "PORTRAIT OF A BLONDE" (2:15) [Holly-Vine BMI—Levine] This is a big-sounding full ork arrangement of an opus that has that big-city blues feel. A no-rock platter with an attention-getting approach. Could be a sleeper.

(B) "THEME FROM HONG KONG" (1:50) [Miller ASCAP—Newman] Famed city is saluted with a relaxed mood-jazz sound.

BILLY DUKE (Capitol 4831)

(B+) "THE GOOD OLD DAYS" (2:25) [Knollwood ASCAP—Carr, Curtis] Singer Duke and his setting disarmingly portray a delightful number about a fella who notes the charm of the "good-old-days," but also the fact that they lacked the presence of his present-day flame. Duke recently had a click on the 20th Fox label with "Walkin' Cane." He could score again here.

(B) "SUMMER AT THE SHORE" (2:25) [Quartet ASCAP—Duke, Sherman] Big-sounding affair about the end of summer.

TRUDY PITTS & MR. CARNEY (Coral 62330)

(B+) "I REALLY MEAN IT" (2:13) [Docir BMI—Pitts, Carney] Here's one that really rates loads of attention. It's a sizzling organ-led combo instrumental original that can bust loose in both the pop and r&b areas. Sensational juke box item.

(B) "THEME FROM 'EXODUS'" (2:34) [Chappel ASCAP—Gold] The oft-cut smash pic theme gets a cozy swing reading from the Pitts-Carney crew.

DEE GLASCOE (RSVP 115)

(B+) "YOU DON'T HAVE TO" (2:40) [Roosevelt & Ichi-Ban BMI—Glascoe] Sly-beat teen-romantic stint by singer Glascoe and his vibes-included combo backdrop. Sound has a grow-on-you manner.

(B) "MOUSE IN THE HOUSE" (2:25) [Roosevelt & Ichi-Ban BMI—Glascoe] Brighter rockin' for this laff ditty.

MEL CARTER & CLYDIE KING (Philips 40049)

(B+) "THE WRONG SIDE OF TOWN" (3:08) [Jack BMI—Underwood] This is a highly original plaintive offering for the kids. Carter starts off as the rich-boy, while Clydie King later has a say as the poor-girl. Their vehicle is strong, as is the full ork backdrop. Could happen.

(B) "WHO DO YOU LOVE" (2:02) [MRC & Cupay BMI—Underwood, Riley] Contagious blueser, including a funky harmonica.

TINA POWERS (Parkway 847)

(B+) "MAKING UP IS FUN TO DO" (2:07) [Aldon BMI—Sedaka, Greenfield] This is a femme reply to Neil Sedaka's smash, "Breakin' Up Is Hard To Do," that retains much of the original's sound. Well-done answer entry. Could make noise.

(B) "(One More Time) BACK TO SCHOOL" (2:10) [Kalmann ASCAP—Mann, Appell] The "sad-news" is that it's back-to-school in this lively sock affair.

THE BLAZERS (Argo 5422)

(B+) "HOUSE WARMIN' PART ONE" (1:45) [Arc—Ninny BMI—Winley, Paul] The Blazers open their potent instrumental talents full-blast on this catchy, funky, jazz-blues affair. The side boasts some attractive solo efforts. Good bet for ops and spinners.

(B+) "HOUSE WARMIN' PART TWO" (2:20) [Arc—Ninny BMI—Winley, Paul] The side's a fine continuation of the above in a little more uptempo vein.

LEE CARON (Joy 267)

(B+) "BACK TO AN EMPTY ROOM" (2:55) [Cessna ASCAP—Weston, Prince, Disher] Lee Caron's bow on the Joy banner should prove to be a coin-catching venture. Artist turns in an easy-on-the-ears performance as he and the combo-chorus lilt over the easy-go-in' weeper.

(B) "ANGRY" (1:57) [Melrose ASCAP—M. & H. Brunies, Cassard] The oldie's presented in a snappy, quick beat showcase on the underlid.

LAZY LESTER (Excello 2219)

(B+) "IF YOU THINK I'VE LOST YOU" (2:2) [Excellorec BMI—West] The r&b vet could have a top-drawer noisemaker on his hands with this fast-moving, tradition-oriented guitar-backed blues weeper. Commercial, spinnable lyrics and a danceable melody give the side an extra chance.

(B) "I'M SO TIRED" (2:58) [Excellorec BMI—West] This side's a low-down, shuffle-beat lament essayed with loads of authority by the artist.

JOHNNY (Bird) PARKER (Wells 199)

(B) "FOR GOODNESS SAKE" (2:09) [Instant BMI—Townes] Guy is head-over-heels-in-love with the gal in this bright blues bouncer, led by singer Parker. Good sax sockin' is part of the setting. Label is a New York outfit.

(B) "BEACH TIME U.S.A." (2:07) [Instant BMI—Townes] Happy session is somewhat tardy for timeliness in all sections of the country.

SEAN THOMAS (Cameo 229)

(B) "I JUST DON'T LOVE YOU ANYMORE" (2:41) [Check-Colt BMI—Joseph, Edwards] Very expressive reading by Thomas of a persuasive plaintive with a country-flavored way. Strings are included in the understanding rock sound from the backdrop.

(B) "I'M GOING HOME" (2:35) [Check-Colt BMI—Edwards, Gates] Folkish rockin' here. Catchy teen-market attack.

JOHNNY KONGOS & THE G-MEN (Groove 0009)

(B+) "JOHNNY & THE MERMAID" (2:35) [Southern ASCAP—Kongos] This is an offbeat, speedy rock-a-billy affair about a fella who's after a mermaid, though he's told, by a femme chorus, that they don't exist. Number has an engaging folk quality. A novelty that could breakout.

(B) "RAUNCHY TWIST" (2:06) [Hi-Lo BMI—Justis, Manker] The G-Men combo takes-over in a display that's true to its title.

CHUCK THOMPSON (Tacit 110)

(B) "MONEY IN MY POCKETS" (2:14) [Wiley BMI—Rhodes] The deep-voiced songster puts lots of bright blues-styled steam behind a happy item. He's backed by a band sound that the twist crowd will especially appreciate. Can get important airplay.

(B) "THE VERY THOUGHT OF YOU" (2:10) [M. Witmark ASCAP—Noble] Bluesy pop ballad approach to the mainstay.

EDDIE CANO (GNP 187)

(B) "TIN TIN DEO (Tin Tin Day-O)" (2:32) [J. J. Robbins] The Latin-inclined pianist, currently getting attention with his Reprise disking of "A Taste of Honey," tops a fetching South-of-the-Border jazz instrumental display of tuneful novelty. Date is from his GNP album, "Mucho Piano."

(B) "LINE FOR LYONS" (2:28) [Skyview—Mulligan] Mambo treatment of a Gerry Mulligan opus. Also from the LP.

THE SMOTHERS BROTHERS (Mercury 72027)

(B+) "FLY EZEKIEL" (1:44) [Rave BMI—T&D Smothers] The satirical comedy act tries its hand at a folk singing stint and come-off in pro style. Their vehicle is an engaging spiritual-flavored number. Infectious entry in the pop-folk area.

(B) "THEY CALL THE WIND MARIA" (2:32) [Chappell ASCAP—Loewe, Lerner] Fine reading of one of the most accepted show-tunes ("Paint Your Wagon") among folk artists.

LIONEL HAMPTON (Glad-Hamp 2008)

(B+) "BOSSANOVA JAZZ" (2:45) [Glad-Hamp ASCAP—L&G Hampton] Hampton, owner of the label, tops, with swingin' vibe work, his New York Octet in a brisk jazz arrangement of the popular Brazilian rhythm that's getting attention from U. S. jazzists. Zoot Sims has a bossanova deck on the Colpix label. Smart jukebox stuff.

(B) "GLADYS" (2:15) [Glad-Hamp ASCAP—Hampton] Further breezy jazz swingin'.

CHARLES FUQUA'S INK SPOTS (Ford 115)

(B) "CARELESS LOVE" (2:03) [Handy ASCAP—Handy, Koenig, Williams] Today's version of the vet song crew is in fine form as it relays a bright swing-blues reading of the old favorite. Man upfront is deep-voiced. This is a solid jukebox programming entry.

(B) "HAWAIIAN WEDDING SONG" (2:28) [Pickwick ASCAP—King, Hoffman, Manning] More in the old Ink Spots' groove, a tenor handles the singing, while the deep-voiced member has a narrative section. Label is based in N.Y.

RAY RUFF (Norman 524)

(B) "MY GIFT TO YOU" (2:13) [Missouri BMI—Tharp] Guy offers the world to the gal in return for her love in this interesting upbeat romantic, done with lots of teen-market polish by singer Ruff and the combo-chorus accompaniment. Makes solid rock programming sense.

(B) "LET ME TELL YOU ABOUT LINDA" (2:20) [Missouri BMI—Tharp, Petty] Wistful waxing which presents a tale about a gal named Linda who did a fella wrong.

THE HOLLY TWINS (Rendezvous 180)

(B) "POTATO CHIPS" (2:25) [Mardon BMI—Roberts, Bird] Here's a cute teen-market novelty-romantic, done, surprisingly, as a sincere teen-ballad. Larks, a pro blend team, sing one about a gal who falls for guy at the movie show—and he's eating the "noisiest potato chips in the whole wide world." Worth plays.

(B) "OKEEFENOKEE" (2:03) [Mardon BMI—Roberts, Bird] Fun stint about the famed swamp area in Georgia.

ROYALE MONARCHS (Dell 101)

(B) "WHOLE LOT OF SHAKIN' GOING ON" (2:50) [Marlyn BMI—Williams, David] Old Jerry Lee Lewis hit comes back in kinetic rock style in this reading by the instrumental crew and singer Roger Stafford. Quite a workout from the new diskery.

(B) "SOMBRERO STOMP" (2:10) [Les Kangas BMI—Stafford, Jaramillo, Haraksin, Schaeffer] Musicians solo with a good eye on Latin-rock sounds.

Capitol Campus Promo

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records is leveling its promotional guns at the college crowd with an extensive promotional campaign built around the theme "Campus Crowd-Pleaser."

The campaign, which will run through Sept., is designed to exploit 11 albums—nine from the Sept. releases and two from Capitol's August release—which have particular appeal to the college group.

Highlights of the "Campus Crowd Pleaser" promotion are a two-page spread in the October issue of Esquire on the stands Sept. 15; a full-color window-display kit containing a theme-setter display piece, easel-back display jackets of the 11 albums, pennant streamers, and other materials.

Also being revived are Capitol's full-color bookcovers, which have been produced every Sept. since 1959. The new covers will feature all LP's in the college promotion, plus the entire Kingston Trio catalog.

Also on the advertising front, Capitol has mapped a campaign in college newspapers across the country, with ads set to break the first week of school.

To interest deejays in the "Campus Crowd-Pleaser" campaign, Capitol has had made a thousand sweat shirts bearing the legend, "I Am A Campus Crowd-Pleaser!" on the chest part, which will be sent to jockeys along with their programming sampler.

United Talent Management Signs Kingston Trio

HOLLYWOOD — United Talent Management, Ltd., the newly formed talent agency which is utilizing key MCA personnel, has signed the Kingston Trio following conferences with the trio's manager-discoverer, Frank Werber. Although the group was not formerly signed with MCA, negotiations are underway to sign many of the top clients from MCA's defunct agency.

UTM has opened offices in Los Angeles, Chicago, New York, and Las Vegas, with other affiliates to be announced in the near future.

King Extends LP-Singles Deal

CINCINNATI—Syd Nathan, president of King Records, has announced the extension of the label's Special Aug. Merchandising Plan through Sept.

It was noted that the success of the plan, on both singles and LP's, was "so gratifying" that Nathan felt it advisable to continue the Free Bonus First Edition sale for another month.

Under the plan, a dealer can purchase any 10 albums from the entire King-Bethlehem catalog and have his choice of three First Edition LP's.

A change in the plan for Sept. was made whereby the dealer can mix his order between King and Bethlehem. As long as the dealer orders in multiples of 10 LP's, he will receive the three Free Bonus LP's of his choice.

On singles, the dealer gets Free First Edition Singles for every 25 regular singles he orders from the entire King-Bethlehem-Federal-Queen singles catalog. Plan covers all new releases, for both Aug. & Sept. (see Sept. LP's below).

For country music accounts, Nathan has added a fourth First Edition single bonus pick of an unreleased "first" by The Stanley Bros., "I Just Came From Your Wedding" and "Mama Don't Allow No Music Played In Here."

There are 10 new LP's for Sept., six on King, four on Bethlehem. King product is: "Touring The U.S.A.," James Brown; "Join Little Willie At A Record Session," Little Willie John; "Boy, Girl, Boy," Lula Reed and Freddy King; "Camp Meeting Songs, Vol. 2," The Stanley Bros.; "Remember How Great," Ernie Berger, organist; "Douglas 'Knuckles' O'Rourke (Honky Tonk Razz-Ma-Tazz Piano)."

The Bethlehem albums are: "Continental Favorites," Various Artists; "Third Dimension," Roland Kirk; "Mike," Mike Holliday, the English songster; "Lale Andersen," the star German thrush.

ABC-Par Markets Greta Keller LP

NEW YORK—ABC-Paramount has released a new album by continental song stylist Greta Keller. The package is called "Greta Keller at the Waldorf Keller," capitalizing on both her name and her second engagement at New York's famed nightspot, The Waldorf Keller.

She will open in the room of the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria on Sept. 17th for a nine-month engagement.

The label is rushing out albums prior to her New York opening to coincide with a week's engagement at the King Edward Sheraton Hotel in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, beginning Sept. 7.

Wakely-Whiting Team Again On Album

HOLLYWOOD—Jimmy Wakely and Margaret Whiting, a hit disk duet on Capitol years ago, will team again in an LP to be produced independently by Wakely. Recording date is set for Oct. following personal appearance tours by both performers. A Nov. release, by a label yet to be announced, is set. Pair had a smash disking of "Slippin' Around," tentative title of the LP, and "Wedding Bells" back in 1949. Their last duet was for Capitol in 1952.

Vinton To Cut In Europe

NEW YORK—Epic Records has reported that arrangements have been concluded for singer Bobby Vinton to record in Europe.

The move was prompted by the international success of Vinton's recent recording "Roses Are Red," which achieved sales exceeding 1,500,000 copies and earned Vinton a gold record from the Record Industry Association of America, (sales of his current single record, "Rain, Rain Go Away" have exceeded 500,000 copies, Epic says.)

On Sept. 12, Vinton will arrive in Cologne, Germany with his manager, Floyd Ackerman. While there, he will record four songs in German for the Electrola label, an affiliate of EMI Records Ltd., the Epic Records licensee for the United Kingdom and Western Europe. From Cologne, he will travel to England where he will be the subject of radio and television interviews. On Sept. 13, Vinton will appear on the Southampton television program, "Day By Day." On Sept. 14, he will appear on the Birmingham TV program, "Thank Your Lucky Stars," the English equivalent to America's Dick Clark Show. Later that day, he will be feted by EMI at a mammoth press reception in London. On Sept. 15, he will appear on the British Broadcasting Corporation radio program, "Saturday Club."

Concurrent with Vinton's personal appearances in England, EMI will release his current best-selling single, "Rain, Rain Go Away." A spokesman for EMI has stated that more than 100,000 copies of "Roses Are Red" have been sold in England. Epic's foreign affiliates in other countries have reported similar successes.

Official presentation was made by deejays Scott Muni of WABC and George Tucker of WINS at Convention Hall, Asbury Park, New Jersey, on Fri., Aug. 31st, where Charles appeared in concert.

The award marked the first gold record album in the ABC-Paramount catalog and the seventh million-selling single on the label.

Officially certified by the Record Industry Association of America, the disks were given in lieu of the official RIAA standardized gold disk award, currently in production. One of the first of these new awards will be given to Charles later this month.

Charles is scheduled to record his second volume of country music this month, sessions taking place both in New York and California.

RCA Victor Releases Teaching Aid Album

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records has released a new two-disk album, "Instruments Of The Orchestra," as part of its Sept. "Best Buy" merchandising program. It is the only LP of its type to be available in stereo as well as in the regular mono version.

Designed specifically as teaching aid, the disk features the First Chair artists of the National Symphony Orchestra conducted by Howard Mitchell. Performances of 36 instruments and sections are presented in 64 concert excerpts and in full orchestral context, in addition to solo demonstrations of range, tonal characteristics and techniques.

A specially prepared 56-page teaching guide by Charles Walton, assistant professor of music education, Teachers College, Columbia University, leads the teacher through each instrumental demonstration, and includes diagrams, photographs and an outline of teaching techniques.

Joe Santly, Plugger, Cleffer, Performer, Dies

NEW YORK—Joseph Santly, who plugged songs, wrote them and performed them, died here last week (29) of a heart attack at the age of 76.

As a song plugger, he worked for such pubberies as M. Witmark & Co., which he joined at age 13 as a boy soprano; Remick, Helf & Hager, for which he was a pianist and teacher of songs to vaudevillians, and Waterson, Berlin & Snyder. Some of the tunes he helped popularize include "My Wife's Gone To The Country," "Everybody's Doing It," "That Mysterious Rag," "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," "My Buddy" and "Carolina In The Morning."

His creations include "There's Yes, Yes In Your Eyes," "Hawaiian Butterfly," "Friends" and "Before We Say Goodnight."

As performer he was teamed with another songplugger, Johnny Nestor, and teaming with Jack Norton was tagged "Singers With Trimmings."

Santly's widow, a sister and a brother survive.

Aussy's Albert & Son Visiting New York

NEW YORK—Australia's father and son publishing team, Alexis and Ted Albert, have arrived in the U.S. for a combined vacation-business trek.

Their firm, J. Albert & Son, for the past 50 years has been the exclusive sub-publishing outlet in Australia for the copyrights of New York's E.B. Marks Music.

Alexis and his son represent the 3rd and 4th generation of Alberts in control of the firm, which also owns radio & TV outlets in Australia. Alexis arrived in New York last week from San Francisco, while Ted came to the city from a visit to England. They expect to return to Australia this week.

Mary Rodgers' Musical To Star Judy Holiday

NEW YORK—The next musical with music by Mary Rodgers, daughter of Richard Rodgers, will bring Judy Holiday back to the musical stage. Production, called "Hot Spot," is due for a Broadway bow on Feb. 28. There has been no announcement as to which label will get the original-cast rights.

Miss Holiday was last seen on Broadway in "Bells Are Ringing," her first musical comedy role, which opened in 1956. Mary Rodgers last score heard on Broadway was "Once Upon A Mattress," which opened off-B'way in 1959, with its success prompting an on-B'way run. Book is being written by Jack Weinstock and Willie Gilber, who collaborated with Abe Burrows and Frank Loesser on "How To Succeed . . ." the musical smash. Lyrics are by Martin Charnin. Morton Da Costa, who handled "Music Man," will direct.

Irv Mills Projects Telling The Jazz Story

NEW YORK—Irving Mills' one-man crusade to revive the years-back jazz image of Mills Music and to spread the jazz gospel in general continues to bear fruit.

One of Mills' current projects is a collaboration with Leonard Feather, the jazz authority, on book-disk effort, "World Of Jazz." The book will be highlighted by Mills' recollections of his long association with the jazz scene, while the 2-LP disk, on the Mills Music label, American Record Artists, will contain 24 sides, both collector's items and new versions of old jazz tunes.

Mills told Cash Box the book-disk affair would not be available at regular disk outlets, but through book stores and possibly via mail-order, in a deal with Reader's Digest.

Underscoring the interest in jazz abroad, particularly vintage jazz diskings, Mills left last Sat. for his second trip to Europe in connection with his jazz program for Mills. The five week trek will take him to England, Germany, France, Holland and Sweden. He recently returned from a trip to Israel, Greece, Spain, Turkey and Italy.

His initial jazz disk product is complete. In association with Columbia Records' jazz A&R man, John Hammond, an LP, "Jazz 52nd Street," has been produced. Mills himself produced the dates for the various Columbia labels of the 30's. Included are sessions by the Midge Williams Jazz Jesters (1937), Frankie Newton Uptown Serenaders (1937), two dates by Joe Marsala Chicagoans (1938), two dates by Louis Prima New Orleans Gang (1934), two dates by The Three Peppers, (1937), Charlie Barnett (1937), two dates by the Sidney Bechet Band (1938), Teddy Wilson (1937), Bobby Hackett Orch. (1938) and Art Tatum (1933).

Bossa Nova Going The Singles Route

NEW YORK—The Bossa Nova, the Brazilian samba-like sound that has attracted the attention of U. S. jazzists, is beginning to make the singles rounds after a number of LP releases.

Colpix Records has just issued a single from its new LP by saxist Zoot Sims, "Bossa Nova-New Beat." Deck is a 2-part affair called "Ricardo." Also just marketed is a single by vet vibist Lionel Hampton tagged "Bossa Nova Jazz," which appears on Hampton's own New York-based diskery, Glad-Hamp.

Besides the Sims LP, the Bossa Nova is represented LP-wise by a Verve album, "Samba Jazz," with Stan Getz and Charlie Byrd, and a Riverside entry featuring Byrd, "Latin Impressions."

ALBUM REVIEWS

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"RAMBLIN' ROSE"—Nat King Cole—Capitol ST 1793

Nat King Cole should have one of his biggest album sellers in quite a while with top-drawer package tagged after his hot single of "Ramblin' Rose." The artist, who recently celebrated his 25th anniversary in show biz, offers eleven popular tunes in an easy-going country mood in addition to his biggie. Some fine tastes of Cole's artistry are "Wolverton Mountain," "He'll Have To Go" and "Twilight On The Trail." Eye the disk for rapid sales acceptance.

"THINGS AND OTHER THINGS"—Bobby Darin—Atco 33146

Bobby Darin cashes in on the success of his big chart-rider of "Things" to tag this session of mostly self-penned items cut during his days with Atco. The chanter's wide-range vocal talents carry him in good stead on eleven top-rung teen-angled tracks such as "I'll Be There," "Lost Love" and "Nature Boy." The disk seems destined to score heavily in the coin department.

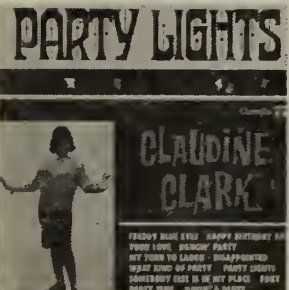

"SNAP YOUR FINGERS"—Joe Henderson—Todd 2701

Joe Henderson tags his premiere album on Todd after his recent biggie which climbed to the upper reaches of chartdom. The tunes here have a legit blues sound with a modulated background rhythm that makes for easy listening. In addition to his best-selling "Snap Your Fingers," the songster includes his current "Big Love," which could make it to hitsville. Other solid items are "Baby Don't Leave Me" and "You Can't Lose." A potent package for the chanter's fans.

"HIT AFTER HIT"—Gene McDaniels—Liberty LST-7258

The chanter has come up with an enviable array of hits in the past and this new release from Liberty boasts a dozen of them in one package. All of the tunes have pulled plenty of coin including his current biggie, "Point Of No Return," which is highlighted on this LP. The songster does a fine job with such goodies as "Tower Of Strength," "Chip Chip," and "A Hundred Pounds Of Clay." McDaniels' loyal fans should come out in droves for the set.

"PARTY LIGHTS"—Claudine Clark—Chancellor 5029

The songstress, who recently skyrocketed to the upper reaches of chartdom with her smash single, uses it to tag her premiere LP on Chancellor. The young thrush has a solid vocal talent that carries her in good stead on these uptempo, hard beat tunes which include the title tune, "Happy Birthday Baby," "Freddy Blue Eyes," and "Somebody Else Is In My Place." The teen dance crowd should come out in hordes for the set.

"ANYTHING GOES"—Original Cast—Epic 13100

Epic's "Footlight" series gets solidly underway with the cast album of the hit Off-B'way revival of the 1934 Cole Porter musical, whose great-as-it-was score (e.g. "I Get A Kick Out Of You," "You're The Top," "Blow, Gabriel, Blow," and the title song) has been abbreviated to allow for the inclusion of material from other Porter shows (e.g. "Friendship," "It's De-Lovely"). A modest ork-chorus serves as a cozy, if not informal backdrop for the brisk singing of Eileen Rodgers, Hal Linden, Mickey Deems, Margery Gray and others. Classy book-type sleeve keynotes the deck's must appearance on original-cast shelves.

"BY REQUEST"—Perry Como—RCA Victor LSP-2567

This beautifully packaged collection of "TV-Request" tunes by Perry Como is certainly the best of his many albums. The singer, backed by Mitchell Ayres and the Ray Charles Singers, turns in superb performances of "Maria," "The Sweetest Sounds," "Once Upon A Time," and "I'll Remember April." The disk has enough built-in success ingredients to become a best-seller in short order. The chanter's huge following will surely want to add this to their collections.

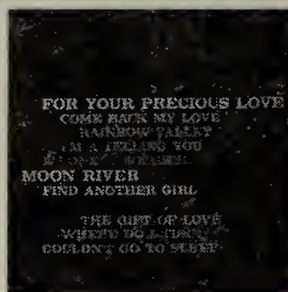

"FOLK MATINEE"—The Limelickers—RCA Victor LSP-2547

Masters of the tongue-in-cheek lyric, harmonious vocalizing, and good-time musical shenanigans, the Limelickers have made frequent trips to chartsville and will probably repeat with this new offering on Victor. The trio comes on strong with this set of folk ditties filled with humor and good solid entertainment. The group is at their very best with "Blue Mountain Lake," "Die Gedanken Sind Frei," and "Those Were The Days."

"I NEED YOUR LOVIN'"—Don Gardner & Dee Dee Ford—Fire FLP 105

Don Gardner and Dee Dee Ford, who are currently riding the charts with "I Need Your Lovin'," come up with a polished set of r&b items on this power-packed disk from Fire. The duo displays an authority-filled, feelingful sensitivity to the blues on "Now It's Too Late," "Make The Girl Love Me" and "What A Thrill." The package should develop into a best-seller in the r&b markets.

"THE BEST OF JERRY BUTLER"—Vee Jay VJLP 1048

Jerry Butler, a frequent chart-rider in the singles field, has gathered together some of his best past efforts to be included in this set from Vee Jay. Best-sellers for the warbler were "Moon River," "For Your Precious Love," "He Will Break Your Heart," and "Find Another Girl." The singer's ready-made legion of followers should come out strongly for the disk.

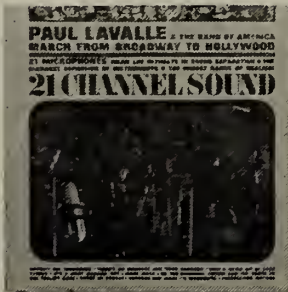

"DANCING THEATER PARTY"—Lester Lanin—Epic LN 24016

The popular supper club orkster serves up a tasteful platter of uptempo tunes from the Broadway stage in this package from Epic geared for dancing. Lanin, who scored a few months ago with his "Twistin' In High Society," could go the same route with this latest offering. The maestro and the boys turn in very danceable versions of "The Sweetest Sounds," "Make Someone Happy," and "Once Upon A Time."

"I REMEMBER HANK WILLIAMS"—Floyd Cramer—RCA Victor LSP-2544

Floyd Cramer joins the host of entertainers who have drawn from the wealth of good songs written by the late Hank Williams. The composer's tunes are not limited to performance by country artists as is evidenced by the many pop versions presently in existence. The 88'er, a best-seller in his own right, gives lilting and feelingful treatments of such standards as "Cold, Cold Heart," "Jambalaya," and "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry." Both Williams and Cramer fans will enjoy this fine album.

"PAUL LAVALLE & THE BAND OF AMERICA MARCH FROM BROADWAY TO HOLLYWOOD"—MGM E4061

Paul Lavalle, one of the country's favorite bandmasters, leads his Band of America through a dozen delightful melodies from the Broadway stage and the Hollywood sound stage, most of which have already become standards. The tempo is infectious as the tunes are highlighted by blaring brass and drums. "Seventy-Six Trombones," "There's No Business Like Show Business," and "Fascinating Rhythm" are especially effective in MGM's 21 Channel Sound.

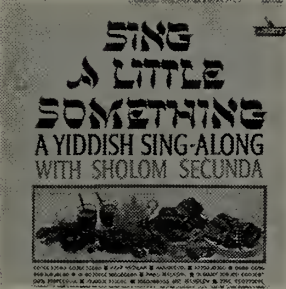

"LUSH AND LOVELY"—Skitch Henderson—Columbia CS 8623

Skitch Henderson serves up a tasty dish of standards on this new outing for Columbia on which the 88'er adds a new lustre to these tunes from filmdom. An ork with a sweeping string section provides a soothing background for the pianist's keyboard artistry. Some easy listening bands here are "Love Your Magic Spell Is Everywhere," "Angela Mia," and the "Merry Widow Waltz." LP is a choice item for spinners and mood music buffs.

"BAD BUT BEAUTIFUL"—Eartha Kitt—MGM E 4009

The sultry songstress puts her own special trademark on a set of standards and newies perfectly suited to her somewhat sensual delivery. The lark's supper club sophistication and intimate stylings come off well in such goodies as "All I Want Is All There Is And Then Some," "Love For Sale," "Diamonds Are A Girl's Best Friend," and "Lola-Lola." Eartha's loyal fans will want to have this one.

"SING A LITTLE SOMETHING"—Sholom Secunda—Liberty LST 7254

Sholem Secunda, who has earned a long string of laurels in the field of Jewish liturgical music, comes up with a first-rate, Yiddish sing-along on this LP outing from Liberty. Secunda's classical approach is eloquently evidenced in impressive renditions of "Hava Nagilah," "Flaker Feieril" and a delightful arrangement of "Tzena Tzena Tzena." A clever, eye-catching cover showing a table of goodies should help spark sales.

"OFF HIS ROCKER"—Pat Buttram—Warner Brothers WS 1455

Pat Buttram, who earned his reputation as Gene Autry's flick sidekick, gets the solo spotlight on this yock-filled comedy LP from Warner Brothers. Buttram's delivery is slow and laconic and his material is in an extremely funny home-spun vein. The laughman effectively aims his satiric guns at such diverse things as "Teen-agers," "Etiquette" and "The High Cost Of Dying." Many laughs to be had here.

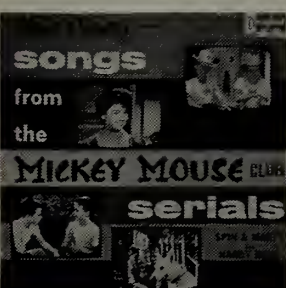

"THE TEMPERANCE SEVEN"—Kapp KL 1287

Kapp, who has had a significant success with trad efforts (via the Kenny Ball singles and albums), showcases another swingin' British group on this new danceable session. Tagged "The Temperance Seven," the crew offers a dozen instrumental and vocal tracks in the lighthearted Dixieland style. There's plenty of listening and terpsichorean enjoyment as the band dishes up attractive arrangements of "Hard-Hearted Hannah," "Black Bottom" and "Home In Pasadena." Loads of airplay potential here.

"GOLDEN REUNION IN RAGTIME"—Various Artists—Stereodiddies C 1900

Ragtime authority Bob Darch, who acts as the emcee on the disk, comes up with a delightful, nostalgic package spotlighting the talents of Eubie Blake, Joe Jordan and Charles Thompson, three of the greatest composers and pianists of the ragtime era playing their own compositions. The three artists, who had not seen each other in 50 years were brought together expressly for this disk. Jazzophiles as well as pop collectors will dig this fine session.

"WALT DISNEY PRESENTS SONGS FROM THE MICKEY MOUSE CLUB SERIALS"—Various Artists—Disneyland DQ 1229

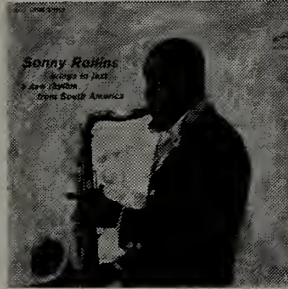

Here's a delightful kiddie package of some of the most popular tunes from the now-defunct "Mickey Mouse Club" TV'er rendered with professional artistry and polish by the crew from the show. Highlight of the set is a few tracks featuring the new famous teen lark Annette. The LP has enough built-in success ingredients to appeal to a legion of youngsters.

"YAMEKRAW"—James P. Johnson—Folkways FJ 2842

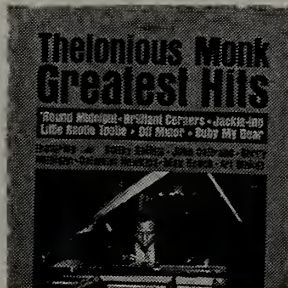

The late James P. Johnson, who earned quite a reputation as a composer of popular hits, also had a serious side as evidenced in this superb recording of "Yamekraw," the first Negro rhapsody. The work utilizes blues to eloquently express the religious fervor and happy moods of the American Negro. The composition, which has a subtle touch of Gershwin, is rendered by the composer at the piano on this top-notch Folkways offering. The second side of the disk boats four tracks from Perry Bradford.

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"WHAT'S NEW?"—Sonny Rollins—RCA Victor LSP 2572

Sonny Rollins, who has never been afraid to attempt something new, explores the complex strains of the bossa-nova on this excellent Victor set. Rollins has not compromised his distinctive style of playing but instead he launches full-blast into the Latin rhythms with a drive which comes from the music itself. Some outstanding tracks here include "If Ever I Would Leave You," "Jungo" and "The Night Has A Thousand Eyes." One of the best LP's that Rollins has cut in quite a while.

"THELONIOUS MONK, GREATEST HITS"—Riverside 9421

Thelonious Monk, whose artistry as a musician and talents as a composer have made him one of the most important names in the jazz world, brings together on one disk six of his most widely played compositions. The 88'er's circle of admirers is growing steadily as his music gains in public acceptance. In addition to playing such fine numbers as "Little Rootie Tootie," "Ruby, My Dear," and "Brilliant Corners," the pianist includes "Round Midnight" with assists by Coltrane, Coleman Hawkins and Art Blakey. A must for jazzophiles.

"WONDERLAND"—Charles Mingus—United Artists Jazz UAJ 14005

Charles Mingus, who has long been regarded as one of the most versatile new-wave jazzmen, opens up his accomplished musical guns full-blast on this varied set which showcases his superb control and understanding of his instrument. Mingus is aptly backed by John Handy on alto sax, Booker Ervin on tenor sax and Danny Richmond on drums for the four top-drawer jazz tracks in the album. The bassist eloquently rises to solo challenges in his self-penned "Nostalgia In Times Square" and "I Can't Get Started." Powerful jazz merchandise.

"I DON'T WORRY ABOUT A THING"—Mose Allison—Atlantic 1389

The multi-talented Mose Allison, who functions with admirable effort as a pianist, composer and singer, kicks off his premiere LP on Atlantic with the album's namesake, "I Don't Worry About A Thing," a self-penned blues item which he delivers with a distinctive, wry, lyrical blues style. Although Allison receives a fine backing from Addison Farmer on bass and Osie Johnson on drums top kudos here are his alone. Smart tracks on the set include "Let Me See" and "Stand By."

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

MOZART: Violin Concertos, Yehudi Menuhin, Bath Festival Chamber Orchestra—Angel 35745

Yehudi Menuhin directs his artistic and interpretive skills to a pair of Mozart violin concertos, written when the composer was still a young man. The celebrated virtuoso plays the No. 3 in G Major and the No. 5 in A Major, both of which are soft, subtle, melodic, and devoid of the thunderous bravado finales inherent in other violin concertos. Menuhin executes them with sensitivity and complete control. Disk is a first-rate classical offering.

BEETHOVEN: Symphony No. 5 in C Minor, Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, Ferenc Fricsay—Deutsche Grammophon SLP 138813

From the opening bars of the familiar and much played Beethoven 5th to its dynamic finale, Ferenc Fricsay offers proof positive of top-flight interpretive skills, and this superb version of the work attests to his firm understanding of Beethoven. The Berlin Philharmonic is brilliant as they render the beautiful symphony under the professional baton of the maestro. A superior classical disk.

Bon Voyage

LILLENFIELD & GOLDMAN

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The merger of two major rack-jobber firms—Edge, Ltd., Washington, D.C., and Rak Sales, Inc., St. Louis Mo.—has been announced by the presidents of both companies, Gerald S. Lillianfield of Edge, Ltd., and Harold Goldman of Rak Sales, Inc.

Edge, Ltd., a publicly owned company, will be the surviving firm in the merger. According to Lillianfield, Edge, Ltd., will have a sales volume in 1962 of $3 million to $3 million. Lillianfield also believes that 1963 sales will be substantially larger.

With the completion of the merger, Edge, Ltd., now services approximately 3,000 retail accounts and employs 200 people. About 1450 outlets previously served by Rak Sales, Inc., and its affiliates in the St. Louis area and Indiana will be added to a similar number of outlets in Washington, D.C.; Columbus, Ohio; Norfolk, Va.; Baltimore, Md.; Raleigh, N.C., and Philadelphia Pa., under the expanded Edge management.

Goldman, a former president of the National Association of Record Merchandisers, has been appointed a vice president of Edge, Ltd., and elected to the board of directors. Management at Rak Sales, Inc., will be retained by Edge, Ltd., with Sanford Goldman continuing in the post of branch manager.

Edge, Ltd., was founded here five years ago by Lillianfield and Edward M. Snider, now executive vice president. Rak Sales, Inc., founded by Goldman, began operations at about the same time. Both companies expanded rapidly until they became the largest record merchandisers in their areas.

The new firm has taken over the disk dept. in the Wilmington Dry Goods Co. store, Wilmington, Del., according to Lillianfield. The outlet, whose sales volume during the first year of operation is estimated at $175,000, will be operated by Edge, Ltd. as a discount disk dept. Edge, Ltd. has appointed Milton Pomerantz as manager of the store's disk activities.

smaller studio, three control rooms, a listening room, two re-recording rooms, two cutting rooms, two editing rooms and a master test room.

Muller plans to lease portions of the top three floors to other tenants. A parking garage accommodating 155 vehicles is planned for the third story.

The architectural design creates a textured "floating tower" effect. A precast system of window-walls with horizontal and vertical solar protection will be used for the upper six floors.

The parking level, bounded by textured concrete, will separate the tower from the marble tiled studio floor.

The Martin design also calls for a dramatic Sunset Boulevard entrance featuring a sheet of 30-foot-high glass. A second entrance, leading to the disk division, will face Ivar.

Maximum acoustical control in the three clear-span recording studios will be provided by undulating walls, as well as alternated panels of reflective and absorptive materials. Light neutral background hues, accented by primary colors, are planned for the interior. C. Robert Farnsworth is Martin's project architect and Joseph L. Amestoy is project designer.

Several structures are being demolished at the Sunset-Ivar site, one of the busiest corners in Southern California, to make way for the new RCA building. The company's western headquarters are presently located in the NBC Building at Sunset and Vine.

Together with Hank Greer, manager, pop advertising and point of sale, and Mort Barnett, who has recently joined the firm as manager, pop and Red Seal promotion, Rubinstein reports to Parkhill.

Don Burkheimer remains manager, advertising and promotion for RCA Camden and Victor tapes and services, and Margie Kuhn, manager, cataloging and proofreading, reporting to Burkheimer.

In the recently-created public affairs department, Herb Helman has been promoted to the position of manager, public affairs, and continues to report to Alexander. Helman retains supervision of the press and information department as acting manager. Reporting to Helman, as administrators of press and information are Elliot Horne and Stan Walker. Copywriter Faith Crum-packer rounds out the department.

Patti To Columbia

Kapralik said that her first session for Columbia would take place in Jan. Bob Mersey the label's eastern musical director, will produce her recordings.

Patti Page has been a star disk artist since her initial success, "Confess," in 1948. Among her follow-up hits over the years are such million or more sellers as "Tennessee Waltz," a 4 million seller, "Doggie in the Window," 3 million, "Changing Partners," "Allegheny Moon," and "I Went To Your Wedding." Her current click is "Boys Night Out," from the pic of the same name in which she is featured.

Besides her disk achievements, the artist has made-the-grade in niteries, state fairs, TV and, more recently, films. Her feature flick debut was as a hymn singer in "Elmer Gantry."

Born in Claremore, Oklahoma, early ambitions had directed her toward a career as a commercial artist. After winning a scholarship in art at Tulsa University, she went to work for the art department of a Tulsa radio station. An emergency call from the station for a singer to replace the regular vocalist on a fifteen minute musical show was filled by the artist, whose immediate success turned the young girl's sights toward a singing career.

Jack Rael, a professional musician and band manager, heard her singing on the radio while resting in a Tulsa hotel room between stops with Jimmy Joys' band. Rael tracked down the voice and soon convinced her and her parents that she had star potential.

After six months of work in small theatres and nightclubs, she auditioned for Don McNeil of the Breakfast Club. Her appearances on that show soon led to a program of her own on CBS and a recording contract.

Parker Label Debuts With "Arabian Camel Walk"

NEW YORK—Parker Records, the jazz label handled by MGM, has made its debut in the pop field with the single "Arabian Camel Walk," by Pat Galo and the Hi Lads. The group was discovered by the label's musical director, Aubrey Mayhew, while they were doing a stint at Gotham's International Niterly.

An interesting aspect of the tune is the fact that it was intended to be the 'B' side of the record. Mayhew was impressed with the groups version of the tune "Toy Soldier's Dream," and asked them to cut it for Parker. He then asked cleffer Muddell Lowe to write something to fill the other side. Mayhew was so pleased with Lowe's "Arabian Camel Walk," that it became the 'A' side.

ARMADA Names Ackerman Executive Secretary

3) ARMADA envisages the creation of an educational and mutual assistance program designed to help maintain in business the existing retail catalog dealer. This is considered of prime importance in perpetuating the record industry. The ARMADA execs emphasized the importance of teaching dealers how to merchandise properly. In going ahead with this educational plan, ARMADA hopes to secure manufacturer participation.

4) Work out realistic quantity allocation of merchandise from manufacturer to distributor so as to minimize the possibility of over supply and unrealistic sales practices at the manufacturing and distribution levels. Reasonable allocations, the ARMADA execs stated, would discourage transshipping, just as unreasonable allocations—with extra discounts after reaching a quota—discourages the practice. "Bring back competition to where it belongs," it was stated.

5) Work closely with the Federal Trade Commission to legislate fair practices which will improve the status of the distributor.

6) Appoint a committee of ARMADA execs and members to help iron out complaints and problems in any market area. This would be essentially a consultation and mediation service.

7) Establish a clearing house for general business ideas via a bulletin to be sent bi-monthly to ARMADA members.

In conclusion, executives present at the meeting pointed out that ARMADA will not become a crutch for bad distributors. All of its activities, while geared to the immediate task of improving the distributor's position, must in the last analysis spell out total industry progress.

Present at the Chicago meeting, in addition to president Amos Heilicher, were John S. Kaplan, executive vice-president western division; James Martin, vice president mid-west division, and board members Jake Friedman of Atlanta, Carl Glaser of Buffalo and Al Sherman of Los Angeles.

JAPAN

To quicken the turn-over of its product, Toshiba Records will discard 1,071 different waxes by Sept. 25. Retail sellers can exchange these products for any disks (other than Oct. releases) they want of the same value. They include 55 stereo 12" albums, 356 mono 12" albums, 15 stereo 10" albums, 163 mono 10" albums, 38 stereo 45 rpm's and 434 mono 45 rpm's. Among them, only LP's will later (Oct.) be placed on sale at a special price for customers in several big cities such as Tokyo, Osaka, Nagoya and others.

Parisian Juliette Greco whose Japanese p.a. last Nov. was a big success, will initiate Victor's brand-new series "Chanson Recital Series" under Philips tag. The one to be released in near future is her 12" stereo album titled "Juliette Greco Recital," which was recorded "live" at the ABC Theater, Paris.

Victor's second pressing plant is nearly complete near Yokohama (Yamato-machi, Kanagawa Prefecture) and will start operating in Oct. Then the firm itself will be able to press around 1.2 million disks each month. The new factory will only press 12" LP's both in stereo and regular cuts with a possible capacity for 1/2 million albums a month.

First Russian-made stereo grooved disk will be released here by Shin-Sekai Records on Oct. 5. The 12" stereo album is "Symphony #12 by Shostakovich" as recorded by Leningrad Phil. last Oct. Shin-Sekai, by the way, has 3 more stereo cut masters in stock now and will release them one by one later.

A talent buyer, Art Friend Association, is now planning to bring jazz trumpeter Miles Davis here next Jan. Incidentally, Columbia will release his specially prepared albums (a pack of 2 LP's (12") at $5.56), consisting of "Miles Tones" and "Kind Of Blue" with his sextet.

Dark Ducks, the male chorus for King Records, returned home last week after a long trip to Russia.

Six local disk firms (Columbia, Gramophone, King, Teichiku, Toshiba and Victor) asked the dealers' union, National Phonograph Records Retail Sellers Association, recently not to be so "cruel" to those who wish to open disk retail selling stores. The proposal was made at a meeting with several top figures of the union in Tokyo. Manufacturers completed their "more production" set-ups this year but they are confronted with a big difficulty nowadays in pushing their policies forward. In order to sell more disks, manufacturers want to have as many as retail stores in this country. Nevertheless, none can operate such stores without getting consent from NPRRSA but for a few regional exceptions (at least up until now). Actually, only 22 stores (out of 193) were given consent in the country as of the mid-July, 1962 according to the figure collected by manufacturers. Others were turned down. Then one of them whose hope for a disk store was rebuffed brought his complaint to the Fair Trade Commission. The latter immediately started to work on the case as it admitted the possible violation against the Anti-Monopoly Law. The union's stiff attitude against newcomers in the business is based on the belief that a new store decreases a total trade volume of the nearby retail seller already in operation. And manufacturers (those who want to sell more) are now ready to enable newcomers handle their products as retail sellers without any union's objections; this was the most important part of the proposal this time. They will, of course, be recommended by diskeries to join the union. Otherwise, even diskeries are also sure to be charged with violations against the Anti-Trust Law. Union's answer is expected to come during this month as of this writing. 1,830 stores are now in operation as disk retail sellers against roughly 100 million population in this country.

Stateside Records' new representative, Toshiba, is putting Neil Sedaka's "Oh! Delilah/Neil's Twist" on the mart Sept. 5 when the firm will first introduce the Stateside catalog here in Japan. Another disk among the initial releases are "Palisade Park/June, July And August" (Freddie Cannon), "Shake The Hand Of A Fool/Tragic Honeymoon" (Coddie Brennon), "Find A Little Happiness/The Big House" (Jordan & Wein), "Welcome Home To My Heart/Our Favorite Melodies" (Galy Chris) and "I Love You (The Volumes)/Tunnel Of Love (John Mobrie)."

Organizing the event is Barry Langford, PRO of Brighton Corporation and impresario Harold Davison is named as an interested participant. The Festival (which is subject to the approval of the Brighton Corporation Committee which sits on Sept. 17) is planned to be a seven-day event with television coverage of the presentation.

Following the success of the first release last Sept. of "Live With Love"—a series of sex educational talks by a well-known psychiatrist, Transatlantic Records this month issues Volume 2 and 3 and heavy advance orders have been received from educational and medical authorities. As with Volume 1 overseas distribution throughout the English speaking countries will follow almost immediately. Director Nathan Joseph told Cash Box that production plans for the future entails at least one album release a month which in the main will comprise popular recordings of a novel content.

In a recent column, both sides of Bryan Johnson's new Decca disk "Show Me The Way" and "Duty Calls" were credited as being from Lionel Bart's musical, "Blitz," and published by Apollo Music. This is incorrect and "Show Me The Way To Your Heart" was, in fact, penned by D'Amico (composer of "Autumn Concerto") and is published by Shapiro, Bernstein. Apologies to all concerned.

Latest Board of Trade figures show that manufacturers' sales of records in June were valued at £900,000 and five per cent less than in June 1961. Home sales were 2 per cent less and export sales were 17 per cent less. Production of gramophone records in June was 20 per cent less than a year earlier; output of 78 rpm records was 17 per cent less and 45 rpm 15 per cent less. Production of 33 1/3 rpm's has expanded strongly during the past year and despite a sharp fall in June to a rate of 30 per cent below the level of a year earlier, output in the first half of this year was 26 per cent higher than in the comparable period in 1961. Production of both 78 rpm and 45 rpm disks during the first half of this year was 7 per cent less than in the corresponding months of 1961.

"Broadway Goes Latin" featuring Edmundo Ros and his Orchestra starts its 39-week run on Sept. 29. Many international stars will guest in the series including The Platters and Tito Puente.

Bron Music published the American hit "Party Lights" and the original recording by Claudine Clark is issued here on Pye International. Two British versions have also been waxed by Jackie Lee on Oriole and 10-year-old Stephen Sinclair on HMV. Stephen must be among the youngest disk stars ever.

This is Carol King's first record as a vocalist but she is well-known—with husband Jerry Goffin—as a songwriter of many hits.

One of the numbers "Lonely" is being released as a single by Columbia on Sept. 21 and there is a six-track EP entitled "Band Of Thieves." Complete film score is published by Filmusic.

HOLLAND

Bovema's His Master's Voice-label currently pushing Dion's latest single "Little Diana," which had a high position on the U.S. charts. Special window-displays are distributed to all Dutch dealers.

Bovema's Columbia-label paying attention to the latest releases of popular George Maharis with "Teach Me Tonight" and Jimmy Dean's "Steel Man." Bovema feels the market today is ready for new names in the pop field.

Another Connie Francis hit is expected to become a hot seller on Bovema's MGM-list. It's "Vacation," a number which has been featured at the popular teenager-TV-panel "Top Of Flop."

Bovema's Warner Bros. label expects a lot of buyers' demand for the Everly Brothers' new LP-album "Golden Hits Of The Everly Brothers," which will be on the Dutch market at press time.

Imperial-Holland has a new Dutch singer of Italian songs in the charts: Bruno Martino, whose first release is a Dutch version of the popular prize winner "Quando Quando." This label's American repertoire also promotes Rick Nelson's "Teenage Idol," which will please the many Nelson fans in this country.

Gene McDaniels and Timi Yuro are sharing honors on Bovema's Liberty-label. McDaniels, appearing in the forthcoming motion picture "It's Trad Dad," is stepping in the frontline with his "Point Of No Return." Timi Yuro does a tremendous job on "What's A Matter, Baby."

Fast climbing instrumental hit, "A Swingin' Safari" by Billy Vaughn on the London label, coupled with "Summertime," was released in Holland in the middle of August. R. Klaassen, L. C. Phonogram's sales manager, told Cash Box that Vaughn, in the company of Jim Bailey (Dot) and Marcel Stelman (Decca), will visit Holland for a couple of days at the end of August and beginning of September. It's Vaughn's intention to take part in L. C. Phonogram's Dealers Day Sept. 3rd.

The rocking version of Gus Arnheim's "Sweet And Lovely" by The Allison's was released on the Fontana label in Holland. "A tremendous recording with a very good chance on our pop market," Otto Vriezenberg of L. C. Phonogram remarked. The hit is coupled with the ballad, "Sugar Love."

Surprising Little Eva's "Loco-Motion" on the London label, high up in the hit parades of America, could become a Dutch top-hit as well. "Although slower than the twist, the Loco-Motion has a lot of possibilities to start a new dance craze," John Ros of Dutch Decca-London says.

Clyde McPhatter's "Lover Please" for the Mercury label was released as an EP in Holland, together with three other rockin' successes: "Money Honey," "Don't Let Go" and "Little Bitty Pretty One."

A most interesting jazz LP on the Fontana-label, entitled "Midnight Session," is a re-release of the once very popular Gerry Mulligan recordings with Lee Konitz and Chet Baker. They are the Hollywood recordings from the middle Fifties, with arrangements of "Lady Be Good," "Lover Man" and "Sextet." "Despite the gradual fading away of the West Coast style in the last few years," Otto Vriezenberg of L. C. Phonogram remarked, "the general interest for this charming and graceful jazz music has actually never ceased; this new album presentation will certainly find a good deal of customers."

Delta's Hans I Kellerman reported very fine sales results over the last weeks of August. "August has even been better for us than November or December last year. It is a most promising start for the new season," he said.

Eydie Gorme's "Yes My Darling Daughter," in Benelux released under the Delta label, had a fine welcome in the record trade. It sold fast, from the very first day of release. Edwin Rutten's LP, "Takin' A Chance On Edwin," another Delta trump card. Sales during the first few weeks after release has been exceptionally high for a jazz LP.

Delta directors Mr. Kellerman and Mrs. Duisterhof flew to New York for a short business visit.

Robert Cogoi's top hit "Si Un Jour" (If One Day) and "Si Je T'ai Fait De La Peine" (If I Did You Wrong) is becoming very popular in France. Since demands were so big, a single record was released there, although the market is especially directed to the EP. Beginning of September, an EP with these two titles and "Pardonnez-Moi, Seigneur" (Pardon Me, Lord) and "Donne-Moi Ta Jeunesse" (Give Me Your Youth) will be launched in France, supported by a special promotion campaign via Radio Luxembourg.

The Trio Cassiman, who did so well with their Negro-Spiritual repertoire, just recorded 4 other titles which came out beautifully: "Shadrack," "Little David Play Your Harp," "Nobody Knows" and "I Got A Robe."

Soeur Sourire, the little Dominican Sister, was in the Philips-studios to record eight of her songs in Dutch and specialists in this repertoire predict a reaction as revolutionary in the Dutch speaking regions as Soeur Sourire provoked in the French territory. Promavera S. A. the publishing firm which handles Soeur Sourire's repertoire, announced that these copyrights have been placed in Canada, France, Spain, Italy, Greece, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Holland and the transaction with the U.S.A. will soon be established.

Hede Nielsen's Fabrikker A/S (RCA Victor in Denmark) has released the first numbers on the German labels Tempo and Osca, recently obtained for release in Denmark. The start was made with seven singles on each of the two labels. Released on Victor were Eddy Arnold's "A Little Heartache" and "After Loving You," and four new EP's.

Börje Ekberg of Metronome headquartered in Stockholm, made a quick visit to the Copenhagen office on his way to Munich and Berlin, where he planned German recordings with Metronome's Swedish artists.

Coming up strongly in Denmark is Brian Hyland's "Ginny Come Lately," this week holding the 7th spot on the charts.

Sir Joseph Lockwood, chairman of EMI, England, visited Denmark on his European round-trip.

NORWAY

Japanese recording artist Kyu Satamoto (EMI) visited Oslo on this trip to Europe. He was engaged for a TV show by NRK-TV, and the result was very good, Rolf Syversen of Norway said, and NRK-TV was very happy that it was successful in having him appear in the show.

The German song, "No Bier, No Wein, No Schnaps" (No Beer, No Wine, No Schnaps), published by Multitone in Scandinavia, is doing very well in Norway. A recording with Jack Dailey, American-born singer, appears number 10 on the charts this week. He is singing in Norwegian. This record was wrongly listed as a Triola release last week. It is on the Viking label.

Growing very big here is "Roses Are Red" with Bobby Vinton on Columbia, this week moving from the 12th to fifth spot, and it looks like the coming sensation all over Scandinavia. Norwegian publisher is Musikk-Huset A/S. Also coming up very good is "Things" with Bobby Darin on Atlantic.

Swedish singer Anita Lindblom has recorded "Carnival in Portugal" in Norwegian for Karusell. The recording was made when Miss Lindblom was still a Karusell recording artist, but has been released now and is expected to do very well.

SWEDEN

Music publisher Lennart Reuterskiöld of Reuter & Reuter told Cash Box that he has signed a world-contract with world famous American singer William Clauson, at the time on tour in Scandinavia. While in Denmark, Clauson made an LP for HMV, and in London he will record another LP, this time with children's songs. Capitol will release the latter in the U.S.

Publisher Stig Anderson of Bens Music AB and Sweden Music just back from a biz trip to Germany and England. He told Cash Box that he has obtained the Decca-London publishing companies, Palace Music and Burlington Music for Scandinavia, and will form a new publishing house named Palace Music (Sweden) AB, handling these two houses. He also noted that the Swedish recording group, The Spotnicks, is doing fine in England, where another of their Swedish recordings was released the other day. The record included among others "The Rocket Man," one of his own songs from Sweden Music. He has also obtained the Ricky Nelson top selling song "Teen Age Idol," the Frankie Avalon seller "Don't Let Me Stand In Your Way," and the French "Guitar Tango" (recorded by The Shadows) for his Bens Music AB for Scandinavia. In the beginning of September he will return to Germany, this time with the two Swedish teenage girl singers, Tina and Marina, who will make their German record debut in Munich. Among others, they are making "Josefina," a song by Stig Anderson, in German for Ariola release.

Ivan Mogull wrote Cash Box' Scandinavian office the other day from New York and said he was very happy to read about the success in Scandinavia for his songs, which are released here in cooperation with Stig Anderson and Sweden Music. According to Mogull, he is expecting a lot from "Little Bitty Pretty One," "Little Red Rented Row Boat," "Ahab The Arab" and "Ramblin' Rose." According to Anderson, there will be a Swedish recording of "Ahab The Arab" with Little Gerhard, while Carli Tornehave already has recorded "Ramblin' Rose" in Sweden, and Anderson is expecting one Finnish and two Danish recordings of the song.

Ernfrid Ahlin, head of Ahlins Musikförlag AB, told Cash Box that in the beginning of September he is expecting to release the first recordings of the religious Swedish label Morgonstjärnan. First name on the new label will be Thorsten Rindbeck, well known in the Pentecostal Movement in Sweden. Ahlin, who has been in publishing biz for decades, has been in record biz for the last year, handling Norwegian religious label Ansgar in Sweden.

Lennart Reuterskiöld of Reuter & Reuter has obtained "Rawhide" from the TV serial with the same title for Continental Europe, he told Cash Box. He is also publisher of the songs from the musical "Stop The World I Want To Get Off."

Knäppupp reports great sales for Pat Boone's "Speedy Gonzales," which so far has sold 25,000 in Sweden only. In these days, when record sales are not what they used to be, this is a most satisfactory figure. Knäppupp is now working hard to get Billy Vaughn to include Sweden in the European tour he just has started.

Discussing record sales, everybody in the trade is very happy that people seem to be buying records again. When the year started, sales were close to a catastrophe, but in the last months, sales figures have been moving upwards, and judging from the reports now when the season is still young, record sales will continue growing better and better. Anders Holmstedt, head of EMI in Sweden, told Cash Box that the situation looks much more hopeful than he dared to expect a few months ago.

Sir Joseph Lockwood, chairman of EMI, England, arrives in Stockholm in end of Aug. At a special reception at the Apollonia Hotel, he will present Gold Disks to Swedish opera singer Ingvar Wicksell for his LP "Fridas Vistor" and to Sven-Bertil Taube for his albums with songs by Bellman and Nils Ferlin.

AUSTRALIA

Roy Farr of the Essex Music group and John Sturman of EMI in Australia were recent visitors to the Cash Box office. Both were visiting business associates in Melbourne in preparation for the forthcoming spring and summer sales campaigns. . . . Spring begins officially in Australia on Sept. 1.

Bobby Vinton is again in the top spot on our chart this week with his Coronet label single of "Roses Are Red." England's number one boy, Cliff Richard, has two disks on the list of best-sellers—"Do You Want To Dance" has been a solid chart rider for several weeks and his new entry is "The Young Ones," the title tune for his movie. These two disks—along with "I Remember You" by Frank Ifield and Mike Sarne's "Come Outside"—give England a strong representation among our hot singles at the moment.

Sid Parnes of Dominion Music is due in Australia soon to visit with his local associates the Leeds Music group headed by Jack Argent.

Sven Libaek, recently appointed A&R Manager of Australia Record Company, is back from a recent visit to the United States. During the trip, Sven spent some time at Columbia's New York offices and attending several recording sessions including one by Miles Davies. While in New York, Sven worked closely with Columbia's A&R people in both sessions and tape editing and studied the latest equipment and techniques of using it.

The Philips single of "Silver Threads And Golden Needles" by The Springfielders is starting to make sales noise here and could probably become a chart item before long. A new album release from Philips is "Close-Up In Swing" by Erroll Garner which is issued in both mono and stereo.

W&G Records reports encouraging sales with "Orange Blossom Special" by The Spotnicks—it is now beginning to get some chart action. Also on W&G is the English artist Col James with "Doesn't Anybody Make Short Movies Anymore." Publisher representation in Australia is with Leeds Music Pty. Ltd. for both titles.

"June In June" is the "A" side of Lucky Starr's new single, which has just been issued on the Festival label as the follow up to Lucky's recent nationwide smasheroo, "I've Been Everywhere." Like "Everywhere," the newie was written by Geoff Mack and is also a play on words.

Another new single from the Festival group is "In A Persian Market" and "Memphis Blues" by local trad jazz king Graeme Bell, who recently signed a five-year contract with Festival. With interest in trad still at a fairly high level in Australia, this release from Bell has a chance of reaching chart status.

The film "Jessica" opens in Sydney next month and Australian Record Company is making a rush release of the soundtrack album on the UA label to coincide with the showing of the film.

"Judgment At Nuremberg" will soon be showing in Australia and Australian Record Company have also released the soundtrack from this film.

The Ray Stevens Mercury single of "Ahab The Arab" is making strong headway in the sales department in several cities. Title is published here through the Essex Music office on behalf of Ivan Mogull.

ARGENTINA

The Modern Jazz Quartet and Brazilian singer Joao Gilberto should be the next top artists visiting Argentina, according to the latest reports. The MJQ is now well known by jazz fans in Argentina, thanks to the two LP's already released by Surco (Fontessa and Pyramid), now preparing a third one by them, "In the Music Inn." Joao, one of the top names in the "bossa nova" modern Brazilian music movement, should be in Buenos Aires in a few weeks, to perform on Channel 9, in the "Festival 62" program, and at a night club. Gilberto's latest record, "Bossa Nova," has been very well received by the customers, and some of his waxings have been included in Odeon Pops' "Favuloso" selection LP's, which means success.

Carlos Tealdo Alizieri of Surco Industrias Musicales reports that his diskery has entered the "big music" field by the release of the first four Ultra Audio albums, recorded by Eydie Gorme-Steve Lawrence, Terry Snider, Al Caiola and Nick Perito and his orchestra. The LP's are presented in the same way as the original UA recordings, and maximum care has been put in their processing, according to Alizieri. The other diskeries in the "big sound" field are Microfon, with the Audio Fidelity line, and Tonodisc, which has recently released several Time Records de-luxe recordings.

Columbia started recordings in its new studios, located on top of its building on Paraguay street, Aug. 20. The first artists to record there were Amadeo Monges (harpist) with Jose Carli's orchestra, and Lucio Milena, who began the waxing of the music from "Buenas Noches Carina" (Buona Notte, Bettina), the musical comedy that is being presented with big success at the Astral theatre.

More about Columbia: Los Tres Sudamericanos are now performing at the Pasapoga of Madrid, in Spain. Reports from that country show that they have been well received there. Los Cinco Latinos, who are also in Spain, are enjoying success, too. They will have to be in Buenos Aires next December, but this seems to be difficult since they have still many contracts to fulfill. Waldo de los Rios, member of the Columbia artistic staff, started his tour of Europe, Aug., 21. The diskery gave him a party at the Coraggio restaurant.

Peter de Rougemont, head of Columbia, gave a gold record to Lucio Milena, during the Aug. 27th "Show de Pinocho" TV'er on Channel 13. Milena's records have sold more than a million copies. As it has been informed, Milena is now artistic director of the Pinocho show.

Mauricio Brenner informs that his pubbery has great faith in Elvis Presley's songs, which are represented by it. "Little Sister" (Hermanita) has just got into the charts, and several other Presley records, like "Good Luck Charm" and the LP's "Something for Everybody" and "Blue Hawaii," are also consistent sellers. Fermata plans to build big promotion around several of his tunes, and see if they can break into the charts.

Disc Jockey Records is continuing its plan of recording the latest pop hits by its teen artists, Romana Farres and Juan Ramon. Romana Farres has recorded "Una guitarra y una Copa de Vina," (A Guitar and a Glass of Wine), the Paul Anka hit, while Juan Ramon has cut "Rey de los Payasos" (King of Clowns), the Neil Sedaka smash. Both tunes are sung in Spanish, and are receiving wide promotion.

Anibal Alverdi of Music Hall reports about the latest news in his diskery: there are several new releases, headed by an LP by Simba y sus Pachangas, with several tropical music hits, like "El Pakarito," "El Mago," "Brigitte Bardot" and "Por Un Mani"; under the Reprise label there is a new album by Frank Sinatra: "Sinatra and Strings." In the country music field, there is an album by the Cuarteto America, with several standards. In the kiddie music line, MH is preparing new waxings by several artists, as Piluso, "Tatin," "Pandeche" and "Pinocho." All these artists will wax LP's. Raul Shaw Moreno, recently inked by Music Hall, (he previously recorded for Odeon), has finished his first album, which includes a tango, "Volver." Shaw Moreno's latest single, "Reza," has been well received. Rodolfo Zapata, folk artist, has been inked by the El Nacional theatre for a four week performance. He is also appearing on TV and dance parties. Los Litoreños, folk group, are performing on LR3, Radio Belgrano.

Jose Ruza of Edami reports that several new recordings of the tunes controlled by his pubbery have been arranged. "De Rodillas," the Benito de Jesus bolero, has been cut by Victor Hugo (Disc Jockey), Carlos Ray (Odeon Pops) and Daniel Morel (Svelt). "Cuando Calienta el Sol" has been waxed by Los Fernandez (Odeon Pops), Juan Ramon (Disc Jockey), Danny Martin (Philips) and Daniel Morel (Svelt). "Muñequita" has two new waxings: Juan Ramon (Disc Jockey) and Danny Martin (Philips).

Felix Lipesker of Julio Korn Publishers informs that "El Poeta Lloro," one of the best tunes produced locally in recent months, will be recorded by Edith Piaf in France. The French title is unknown yet. Another well known artist, Tony Dallara, has also recorded a local song, titled "La Escalera." "Paloma," the folk hit, will be published in Spain. The Carlos Gardel standard tangos, according to Lipesker, have proved to be very interesting material in other American countries and in Europe. Recently, Musart Records of Mexico released a three LP set with some of his best tunes. An interesting fact is that although Gardel died in 1935, there are few pop artists in the world that have recorded more tunes than him.

Regarding "El Cigarron," the fast chart climber, it must be noted that it is a local copyright. Although the song belongs to a Venezuelan composer, Hugo Blanco, the international rights were bought by an Argentine publisher, Fermata. The tune has been recorded on Polydor, where Blanco had already a big hit some time ago: "Moliendo Cafe."

Correction: Last week, this column noted that Microfon records would continue releasing Adriano Celentano's waxings in Argentina, although he had changed his label in Italy. A few hours after receiving that information, Gigi Gallo of Promotora Sudamericana de Grabaciones, owner of Celentano's rights, informed that his recordings would be handled by Columbia instead of Microfon; the reason was that Celentano wants his waxings to be released by only one company in all South America and Mexico. Now, Columbia and Gallo are preparing the new Celentano releases. His latest release in Argentina, made by Microfon (which has promoted very well the artist and has done a good work) is "No Seas Timida."

FRANCE

Leon Cabat embarked for the U.S. on Fri., Aug. 24. He's bringing back good-news for disk fans, Petula Clark's recording of "Chariot," which can be a number 1 hit in France.

U.S. publisher Ivan Mogull likes the French versions of "Lover Please," the Clyde McPhatter hit called "Reviens Vite Mon Amour" in France. Richard Anthony has one of the readings. Tune's French publisher is Editions Tropicales. Mogull expects success for two other U.S. hits, "Don't Break The Heart That Loves You" and "Ramblin' Rose."

Among the first back in Paris from their vacations are Denys Bourgeois and Brigitte Bertholier, who directs Editions Bagatelle. They are happy over the success of "Une Petite Fille" and "Le Jazz Et La Java," cut by Claude Nougaro. Nougaro appears to have caught on with the public. "Le Jazz . . ." has also been recorded by Marcel Among (D.D.G.) and Duleu (Philips), with accordian.

Camillo, the German singer, quite a success in France. His latest disk, "Du Kleiner Mann," was adapted from the French hit, "Petit Bonhomme." In the German music area, the Bagatelle pubbery has acquired the rights to the German hit, "Heisser Sand," interpreted by Mina. Deck will probably be released by Philips. Tune, with French lyrics by Andre Salvat, is called "Notre Etoile" in France. "Broken Promises," French lyrics by Delanoe ("La Fete Est Finie"), was recorded by Renee Levas on the Barclay label.

Two songs cut by Los Marcellos on the Vogue label are getting word-of-mouth favor. The titles are "Cuando Caliente" and "Tango Del Barbudos." Vic Tahar, back from vacation, "surprised" by the success of "Ne Pour Pleur," the French version of the Ray Charles hit, "Born To Cry," sung by Jose Salcy.

Edith Piaf up and about after recent hospitalization. "L'enfant Aux Cymbales" by the Compagnons de la Chanson on the Polydor label seems to be catching on. Lucky publisher is Editions Barclay.

BRAZIL

Philips releases for September are the following: four Brazilian albums, "O Sucesso: Silvinho" (The Success: Silvinho), with this new songster, who has achieved great popularity with his single, "Quem E," in Rio de Janeiro; "Sandoval Dias & Seu Sax Dançante" (Sandoval Dias and His Dancing Sax), boleros and sambas played by the instrumentalist; "Meu Samba, Minha Vida," with Ataulpho Alves, accompanied by Orchestra and vocal chorus. Ataulpho is one of the most inspired popular composers in Brazil and has had great successes, including "Ai Que Saudades Da Amélia," one of the classics of our popular music. In this album, Ataulpho sings his own compositions. And finally, "O Samba E Celia Reis" (The Samba Is Celia Reis), with 12 sambas by Celia Reis, a young and talented songstress.

Under the Mercury label, Philips pressed "The Best Of Cugat," with Xavier Cugat and His Orchestra and "José Melis In Movieland," featuring the pianist accompanied by an Orchestra.

Three albums under the Polydor label complete the Philips releases: "Let There Be Drums," with Sandy Nelson; "Jubel Trubel Millowitsch," presenting Willy Millowitsch and "Super Twist," with Helmut Zacharias and His Twist Fiddle.

Gilda Lopes is getting popular with great speed. Her first record for Odeon, "O Trovador De Toledo" (L'Arlequin de Toledo), composition from Giraude Dréjac, with Brazilian lyrics by Romeo Nunes, is the second best selling record in Sao Paulo, threatening Moacyr Franco's "Suave E A Noite," which is, still, the best seller all over Brazil. Gilda has a beautiful soprano voice. "O Trovador De Toledo" is published by Edições Vitale.

Chantecler Records, the company responsible for the success of several newcomers in Brazilian Music, released this month two new female singers with great possibilities: Marília Nascimento and Patricia Palma. Good voices, warm interpretations are the principal qualities of these two new discoveries of Chantecler.

Speaking about Chantecler, this company had its 4th anniversary recently. In four years, Chantecler has achieved a great deal in the industrial and commercial fields. In 1960 and 1961, Chantecler recorded the great hits: "Somente Tu" "Tu Sabes," the best selling records of those years. Other smash hits such as "Coração De Luto," "Faz-Me Rir," "Poema" and many others, reached very important positions on the Brazilian charts.

Like the last release, Copacabana Records is preparing a new big list of records of all kinds of rhythms for September-October. That lists includes three double-compacts with Uccio Gaeta, the accordion player. Twelve 78 R.P.M. with the following artists: Lia Roberti, Canarinho, Paschoal Melilo, Humberto Garin, Delano, Formiga, Maria Inez, Adao And Eva, Creusa Cunha, Norman, Isnard Simone and Pimentinha. Eleven LP's: six Copacabana, one Sabiã; one Sacy and three Som. (Sabiã, Sacy and Som are Copacabana subsidiaries.)

"Multiplication," from the motion picture Come September, is now a real success here. Copacabana Records is going to release that number with its new singer, Norman. He is the brother of the teenage singer Ronnie Cord and both are sons of the maestro, arranger and composer Herve Cordovil.

Creusa Cunha one of the most popular artists from Copacabana, is preparing a new album called "Love Letters" with twelve romantic tunes. She is the very happy mother of six little children.

On its September releases, Copacabana is issuing seven Verve albums. The seven albums are: "Clap Hands Here Comes Charlie," with Ella Fitzgerald; "Classics In Percussion" with Gene Krupa; "Stan Gets And Bob Bookmeyer;" "Blues Caravan" with Buddy Rich and orchestra; "Kai Olè" with Kai Winding, orchestra and trombones; "West Side Story," music from the famous movie picture (now a great success in Brazil), with the Oscar Peterson Trio.

CANADA

"Talent In Toronto," CHUM's opportunity show for talented Canadians, returns to the Toronto outlet, Sunday, Sept. 9. Herbie Helbig and his trio will again provide accompaniment for the guest singers, who will appear on the program. The station is accepting applications for the show. Those interested are invited to write to the program, in care of CHUM, 1331 Yonge Street, Toronto.

Another development in the realm of promoting Canadian talent is the new transcription library being produced by CJAD, Montreal and CFRB, Toronto, for use by Canadian broadcasters. The Canadian Talent Library will offer 100% Canadian musical programming. Driving forces behind this project are CJAD program manager, Lyman Potts and CFRB-CJAD president W. C. Thornton Cran. The producer of the new series is Ben Selvin, manager of A&R for the custom division of RCA Victor in New York. The project will cost the stations that are backing it somewhere between 25 thousand and 30 thousand dollars. Already active in the musical production for the new C.T.L. series is well known Canadian musician, Howard Cable. Cable conducts both a fifteen piece string orchestra and a twenty-two piece pop-concert orchestra on two of the twelve inch transcriptions. RCA Victor will distribute C.T.L. to radio stations throughout the U.S. In Canada the new series will be offered to broadcasters as a transcription service, and subscription fees will be utilized to add to the Library.

Bob Martin reports from Columbia's Toronto H.Q., that Johnny Cash will appear in the "Queen City" October 3rd, and is also set for a one-niter in Montreal. Columbia's Johnny Williams was very busy recently in Ottawa, arranging for appearances by Jerry Murad and The Harmonicats. The group was well received wherever they went on radio and TV row. New breakouts with both Bob and Johnny these days are "Don't You Believe It" by Andy Williams and "Rain Rain Go Away," the new Bobby Vinton smash on Epic. Hank La Riviere, currently appearing in Montreal, has a new country LP out on the Banff Label. Included is Hank's latest single, "Banjo Sam."

CKOY, Ottawa celebrated Jane Morgan Day (8/23) during the thrush's stay at The Central Canada Exhibition. Jane appeared on the station throughout the day, checking in for the first time at 7:30 in the morning. She appeared off and on until 8:00 o'clock in the evening, playing records, chatting with the 1310 Music Men, and reading letters that had been sent to her by listeners in a station promotion offering copies of Miss Morgan's albums as prizes. Jane was very excited with the news she had just received a day before, that she and Jack Benny and the show they did, that was so well received in Vegas a while back is set for Toronto's O'Keefe Center in February, and from there would very probably go to Broadway.

Veteran CFRA, Ottawa personality, Bob Walters starts in a new position with CJAD, Montreal (9/1). Bob will do the newscasts on the station's morning show, then he'll move to the news department of the station's FM band. He leaves Ottawa after over six years at CFRA.

During their Toronto stay, the group played Sunday dates at The Summer Garden in Port Dover, Ontario, to crowds of 1200 or better. The Beau Marks played a one niter in Ottawa (8/31) and as usual were enthusiastically received by a packed house. Stan Dorling reports that "Tender Years" has now officially been released in the U.S. on the Rust label. Hottest new items in Stan's bag of tricks these days are "Sherry" by the Four Seasons, and in the album department "All The Hits" by Bobby Rydell.

A twist marathon held on the (8/10) weekend, started Friday night at 8 PM and went straight through until Sunday at 6:00 AM. As the marathon continued interest grew and listeners began to pack the CKPR studios to watch the goings on. The winning couple lasted through thirty-three hours and ten minutes of twisting. Several hundred dollars worth of merchandise prizes were contributed by station's clients for the surviving twisters.

Connie Francis postcards from Nice, France, informing that she may soon be appearing in this part of Canada.

CKBB, Barrie discontinued the publication of its hit chart (8/20).

Jackie Davis, currently appearing at The Plaza Room of the Park Plaza Hotel in Toronto, has taken the city by storm. The Capitol artist was introduced to Toronto audiences on many radio and TV shows by Capitol's Whitey Haines. These on air interviews included several originating at The Canadian National Exhibition. Whitey is teaming up with Sam Glaser of 20th Century Fox in an extensive record-movie promo on behalf of the new flick, "Gigot." The music for the picture was written and recorded by Jackie Gleason. Whitey reports that advance orders on the new Nat Cole LP, "Ramblin' Rose," are way up, thanks to the tremendous action currently on the Cole single of the same name. GERMANY

Every pro in the record business agrees that a strong flip side can help a hit sell more records especially in this day and age of the juke box, but Germany has had more two sided smashes in the last few months than ever before. The present trend started when Nana Mouskouri and Gerhard Wendland tried to follow up their million seller successes in Germany. By the way, a million sold in Germany would be around a 3 million seller in America if you figure that Germany only has 60 million people and a little over 6 million record players! Back on the main theme, both of the follow up disks for Nana and Gerhard were strong on both sides, and disk jockeys jumped on both sides. The result was that both sides became smash hits. Connie Francis was next on the list when she recorded her American hit "Don't Break The Heart" in German and backed it with a German tune called "Paradiso." After a quick start with the "Don't Break The Heart" side, the record began to get plays on both sides and the powerful coupling kicked the record to the top of the charts where it now is. Actually, A&R execs usually fight to get one side pushed as the top deck so that plays on a record will not be divided, but it seems that in this time of over-production, the public wants two hits for their money. Right now, all three of the records mentioned above are in the top 10 in Germany. It looks like the fall season will find more and more double decked hits entering the market in Germany.

The Medium Terzett, a young trio, reported to have swung to 2nd place on the Milwaukee German Radio Station with their German waxing of "Mr. Sandman." The group is now working hard on new TV shows for national TV here. German star Margot Eskens is now moving more and more into a top movie career. At present, she's doing a film in Yugoslavia, and will do films this year in Paris and Vienna. Both Margot and the trio are in the production team of Hans Bertram of Polydor Records.

Golden 12 Records reports the signing of Peter Lauch and his "Regenpfeifer" group who hit on Philips with their "Laila," one of the most controversial records last season.

Metronome Records has a left field hit with the "St. Tropez Twist," sung in Italian by Peppino Di Capri. The record is already a top hit in Italy, and the 3 million Germans who visited Italy this summer are demanding the side. It's already the top request record on south German radio.

At the team singing competition held in Knokke, Belgium, Germany finished a strong third with a team composed of Nina Weston, Ralf Paulsen, Angela Monti, Ulla Raphael and Peter Kirsten.

Gerig Music, which is riding strong with all 3 of the top 3 records in Germany, has another smash with its "Roses Are Red" with Caterina Valente and Bobby Vinton.

Osca Records announced that its top star Maureen Rene from England, just finished a tour of Poland.

Globus One-Stop reports "Lady Sunshine and Mr. Moon" from Conny topping its sales with 2nd place going to Paul Anka for his "A Steel Guitar And A Glass Of Wine." Third position is held down by Ray Charles with "I Can't Stop Loving You."

Michael Arends of Arends Music reports top action on "La Bamba" by The Tokens.

Polydor records is starting a novel promotion for their Japanese star Sachiko Nashida by releasing her German sung record and sending out Japanese copies of her hit there, "Moliendo Cafe."

Former Polydor Star Rainer Bertram has inked a new long term contract with Metronome Records. Rainer became popular in Germany by winning 2nd and 3rd place at the German Pop Music Festival from Radio Luxemburg 2 years ago.

With classical music sales still on the upswing here, Teldec Records has started a new promotion to help the buyers decide which records they need to have a good representative classical collection.

Teldec reports that the experts say that over 23,000 good classical LP's, all different, are available on the European market. From these top selections, the firm picked 99 top LP's and is offering them as the "99" for a perfect collection. Special display material is offered for the shops as well as stands to hold the 99 LP's. Teldec handles RCA, the London labels, English Decca, Warner Brothers and their own Telefunken line of Classical LP's.

That's it for this week in Germany.

ITALY

Last month Rifi Records seemed to be on the point of getting the representation of Columbia, while now Krikor Mintangian and Walter Gurtler appear again as leading candidates for representing Columbia in Italy. Also the Ricordi name can be reported as a possible candidate. Incidentally, Stanley West, CBS Record's coordinator of European operations, was visiting Milan to study market conditions. He was on the way back to Paris following a visit to the International Composers Festival at Cava Del Tirreni at which Percy Faith conducted. While in Milan, West rang Cash Box, but unfortunately we were on the Italian Riviera enjoying our vacation, and we lost this opportunity of meeting him.

More news on the Madison dance: Along the Italian Riviera, which represents the best point of view to follow new dance movements, the Madison is becoming popular. Many bands play it every night and teenagers are learning it fast. For instance we had the pleasant surprise, the other day, to find out a group of eight young boys and girls of about eleven or twelve years dancing the Madison all together near a juke box, early in the morning. Currently the Twist is at the top. Durium is arranging immediate release of Madison records.

Ivan Mogul, the New York publisher, wrote telling that he hopes to be coming to Italy sometime in September or October, and will let Cash Box know way in advance. Ivan has acquired the Italian rights to the following American hit songs: Clyde McPhatter's "Lover Please," also recorded by The Vernon Sisters in England; "Little Bitty Pretty One," also by McPhatter; "Walk On By" by Leroy Van Dyke and Nat King Cole's success, "Rambling Rose."

It's interesting to remark that "Love Me Warm And Tender" by Paul Anka didn't enter the chart, while Ogni Giorno, the version in Italian, which Anka himself cut in Rome, is high on the charts. Latest release by Paul Anka in Italy is "A Steel Guitar And A Glass Of Wine" and "I Never Knew Your Name."

Two foreign hit singers, Johnny Hallyday (France) and Cliff Richard (England), are getting success in Italy with two records: "Retien La Nuit" and "How Wonderful To Know," respectively. Mina is high with "Renato," which is also most played in jukeboxes. Domenico Modugno has composed and released a song getting played in jukeboxes as well, Selene, which is the name of the moon in ancient Greek. Its Italian lyrics are funny.

The first record by Adriano Celentano on his own label, Clan, is "Stai Lontana Da Me" (Tower Of Strength), still currently number one after 14 weeks. This record is a special promotional item, in fact it carries three songs and it's sold at the price of a single. The third song, not mentioned in the chart, "Amami E Baciarmi" (Love And Kiss Me), published by Southern Music is enjoying big success, as well. Southern Music also hitting with "Caterina," which appeared often on the charts both in the versions by Perry Como and Tony Dallara.

Testa, with his orchestra conducted by Angel Pochi Gatti, off soon for the "Cruise Of The Seven Notes," which will reach the most famous Spanish beaches performing in Barcellona, Cadice, Palma de Majorca.

Peppino Di Capri wants to release his young sister as a songstress.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"WICKED WORLD" (2:18) [Cedarwood BMI—Phillips]

"WE MISSED YOU" (2:34) [Tree & Champion BMI—Anderson]

KITTY WELLS (Decca 31422)

Kitty Wells, who is currently riding the country chart with "Will Your Lawyer Talk To God" and "The Big Letdown," comes up with a top-drawer follow-up stanza with this new destined-for-success outing tagged "Wicked World." The side is an easy-goin' shuffle-beat, hillbilly tear-jerker with enough good stuff in it to reach the charts in no time flat. The flip, "We Missed You," is a fine slow-paced bluegrass-flavored opus which effectively utilizes the dual-track technique. Merits a close look.

"THERE'S GONNA BE LOVE IN MY HOUSE" (2:10)

[Pamper BMI—Nelson]

"WAKE ME WHEN IT'S OVER" (2:46) [Pamper BMI—Nelson]

WILLIE NELSON (Liberty 55494)

Willie Nelson, whose last effort of "Touch Me" developed into a runaway best-seller, seems destined to go the coin-pulling route with this Liberty deck. In "There's Gonna Be Love In My House" the chanter dishes up a catchy, chorus-backed, medium-paced affair with real happy theme. Side should bring the spinners out in droves. "Wake Me When It's Over" is an attractive, self-penned shuffler with some extremely pretty lyrics.

"YOU HAVE MY HEART" (2:43) [Travis BMI—Crist]

"BLUES STAY AWAY FROM ME" (2:38)

[Lois BMI—Delmore, Raney, Glover]

SLIM WHITMAN (Imperial 5871)

Slim Whitman, who last time out had a potent chart-rider in "Valley Of Tears," should move up the hitsville path in similar winning fashion with this new power-packed item. The top side here, "You Have My Heart," is a beautiful slow-moving, sentimental, country weeper which aptly showcases the songster's rich, full-bodied vocal abilities. The coupler, "Blues Stay Away From Me," is an oldie which Whitman gives his expected professional send-off. Eye it.

"CANCEL THE CALL" (2:27)

"YOU'RE MOVING AWAY"

[Painted Desert BMI—Winkler,

CHARLIE PHILLIPS (Columbia 42526)

Charlie Phillips could have a best-seller on his hands with either side of this new Columbia release. In "Cancel The Call" the chanter opens his professional, wide-range, vocal guns full-blast on real pretty, commercial slow-movin' lament. "You're Moving Away" is first-rate chorus-backed, pop-styled gentle ballad essayed with loads of sincerity by the artist. Either end here could skyrocket.

Both Capitol's Wanda Jackson and RCA Victor's Floyd Cramer have new releases this week which should develop into dual-market coin-pullers. (See pop reviews).

DON CRAWFORD (Mike 200)

(B+) "WHAT'S BIGGER THAN YOU" (2:08) [Rhythm Enterprises ASCAP—Ellis, Crawford] Newcomer Don Crawford could jump into the national limelight with this infectious, uptempo, pop-country, chorus-backed affair. With the proper exposure the side could develop into a quick noisemaker.

(B) "YOU'RE GONE" (2:03) [Rhythm Enterprises ASCAP—Crawford] More top-drawer sounds. This side's another pop-styled ballad which highlights the chanter's commercial delivery.

DEWEY GROOM (Longhorn 525)

(B) "HEARTACHES FOR SALE" (2:13) [Saran BMI—Allen, McCoy] Dewey Groom could cause a stir with this infectious, fast-moving dual-track hillbilly opus which aptly showcases his wide-range vocal talents. A natural for air-play.

(B) "SOMETIMES, IF I'M LUCKY" (2:42) [Saran BMI—Allen, McCoy] This time out the chanter dishes up a fine, tradition-oriented, shuffle-beat lament.

JOYCE PAUL (Chancellor 105)

(B+) "BIG GIRLS DON'T CRY" (2:15) [Yonah & Pinetop BMI—Anderson] Joyce Paul comes up with a first-rate answer record to Ott Stephens while-back country chart-rider. The lark renders the tune in a real sincere fashion. Plenty of potential here.

(B) "THE ONE WHO CARES CARRIES THE TORCH" (2:35) [Lowery BMI—H&G Willis] Pleasant, pop-flavored weeper essayed with verve and artistry by the songstress.

JEANNIE EMERSON (Westphal 100)

(B) "I'M MISSING YOU" (2:44) [Bryant BMI—Brunton] The lark renders an ultra-appealing bluegrass-flavored tear-jerker with a smooth, confident vocal style. Could happen.

(B) "BABY OH HONEY" (2:16) [Bryant BMI—Brunton] On this end Jeannie offers an uptempo, traditional hillbilly weeper.

A Trend Of The Changing Times

Teenagers Take To Coin Machines

Just two weeks ago (CB Aug. 25) we mentioned in this space the problems that confront us in these changing times and a point was made concerning the one million idle teenagers who have been unemployed since school closed in June. What are you going to do to cultivate a market which never existed before—is the answer amusement centers . . . or dance fests . . . will the kids raise the money to support such locations? These were some of the questions raised and it wasn't long before at least one operator gave us some answers to these and other questions concerning the changing times in his operating territory.

We were told that the idle teenagers were filling up a new amusement center in this operator's town and the main attraction was coin machines—bowlers and pool tables. The operator was originally approached by the real estate agent who evidently couldn't rent the spot to anyone else and a deal was set whereby the operator would do no more than operate on a commission basis with the agent, just as though the agent were the actual location owner. "In this way I stayed in the coin machine business and didn't invest a penny in the real estate end," said the operator.

Since pool rooms to this day carry a certain stigma in some people's minds, the operator installed five big ball bowlers and called the place "The Bowlerette." The fact that he also had one dozen pool tables in the place didn't stop the traffic. In fact it stimulated business and after two months the location is definitely a going one. The operator is making a profit and looks to even greater profit once school starts. "The kids seem to have taken to the place as though it were their clubhouse," is the way he put it. As far as licensing, the authorities ruled that the location is classified as a pool parlor. The local police tried to talk the operator out of the idea pointing to the possibility of trouble resulting from the crowds of teenagers in a neighborhood that is termed "middle class." To date, the operator has not seen fit to call the police or anyone else. As pointed out, the kids take pride in the hangout. It is looked upon as a clubhouse by many. Even women from the neighborhood have taken to the pool game and business has never been better. Pingames are also on location in the amusement hall and vending machines were placed in position to serve cold drinks and cigarettes just last week. One attendant is on hand from opening time at 1 PM until closing—around 10. No immediate service needed. "When a machine breaks down there is no panic—we have several of each type always on hand. I service them when I return each evening," stated the operator. Promotion is conducted via a huge plate glass window out front which permits passersby to view the action inside. The lights are bright and the place is kept clean.

Meanwhile, the problem of idle teenagers as a potential market, the specific problem in this particular town of the illegality of free play games, and the search for new type locations all seem to have been solved in this one instance. They have been offset by the popularity of bowling, pingames, pool, and the efforts of an operator who is changing with these ever changing times.

House-Senate Conference Committee Approves Eastland Gambling Bill

Conferees Agree To Certain Revisions Before Bill Goes To Both Houses

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Conferees of the House-Senate Conference Committee agreed to a report on the Eastland Bill (S.1658), on Wednesday, August 29. The bill amends the Johnson Act which prohibits the transportation of gambling devices in interstate and foreign commerce to include "any other machine or mechanical device designed and manufactured primarily for use in connection with gambling and which when operated may deliver, as the result of the application of an element of chance any money or property, or by the operation of which a person may become entitled to receive, as the result of the application of an element of chance, any money or property, but which is not attached to any such machine or mechanical device as a constituent part."

The report carries several changes which revise the original bill but do not basically change the purpose of the bill which was written to prohibit the interstate shipment of machines which pay off in cash. The bill does not effect the legality of free play pingames. The report also excludes from the bill States where gambling machines are lawful, namely the State of Nevada and four counties in Maryland—Calvert, Anarundel, St. Mary's, and Charles Counties. The report necessitates the revised bill going before both Houses for approval before it receives the President's signature.

The changes agreed to by conferees of the Senate and the House were scheduled to appear in the Congressional Record dated August 31, which is available to the public after September 1 upon written request. Copies of S.1658 are available from Senator James D. Eastland's office in the U.S. Senate Building, Washington 1, D.C. Should the bill be enacted, amendments made shall take effect sixty days after the date of its enactment.

Thousands View Coin Machines In Bilotta Exhibit At N. Y. State Exposition

SYRACUSE—140,000 visitors turned out during the first two days of the New York State Exposition here last week and the total number expected before the Labor Day closing was upped to one-half million. The industrial show, which began August 28 featured a display of coin-operated phonographs, amusement machines and vendors under the banner of Bilotta Enterprises, headed by John Bilotta, leading coin machine distributor in the upper New York State territory.

Bilotta set up three different booths to house the various machines he distributes from several subsidiaries, and from early reports the project was "better than we ever expected." Bilotta had his top personnel on hand to demonstrate features of the machines not seen before by many of the visitors. Location owners were treated to a tour of the equipment and in some instances the interest was stimulated to the point where ops in this section of the country may receive inquiries from locations for new Wurlitzers, Chicago Coin Guns or a shuffle alley or two.

Bilotta explained the half-dollar principle, which is employed on the Wurlitzer phonograph which offers Ten Top Tunes for fifty cents, and the Smokeshop cigarette vendor, which makes change for fifty-cent insertions, was seen for the first time by many location owners. In addition, the patrons of Bilotta's exhibits accepted the fifty-cent principle. "Many of the guests never saw some of our equipment before," stated the distributor. "We not only paved the way for more locations, but we did an educational program, as well."

Governor Nelson Rockefeller was expected to visit the fair on Thursday, and Bilotta hoped to benefit from the publicity. "We placed a brand new Wurlitzer phonograph right in the path he is expected to travel," said Bilotta. "He'll have to walk around it to get thru," stated the jovial coinman. Bilotta also publicized the fact that The Wurlitzer Company is the "only juke box manufacturer in New York State." He said that other legal problems were also publicized and were expected to be discussed with visiting politicians who also should be on hand during the show. Bilotta displayed all of his equipment with representation from every line he handled.

He received much comment on a ChiCoin "World's Fair Shooting Gallery," and explained to locations the benefits of having an operator install such a unit in a public place. Bilotta also explained the disadvantages of a location operating such a machine pointing to the many operators in the area who "specialize" in such a business.

DuGrenier cigarette vendors, Smokeshop vendors, Wurlitzer juke boxes, Coan cigarette machines, Gold Medal popcorn machines, All-Tech kiddie rides, United shuffles, Chicago Coin bowlers and guns, and Rock-Ola coffee machines were all on display and working. Bilotta also displayed a school supply vending machine made in New Jersey, and set it up as part of his back-to-school pitch.

The display was said by Bilotta to be one of the first of its kind at the Exposition. "We're part of industry and we should take part in industrial shows," stated the distributor.

Showings On New Seeburg Phono Start Tues., Sept. 4, Run 2 Weeks

Factory Expects New Model To Open Up More Juke Box Locations For Ops

CHICAGO—Seeburg's North American distributors will on Tuesday, Sept. 4, start premiere showings to music operators of a new Seeburg coin phonograph heralded as "revolutionary" in design and operation. First announcements of its details and features will be made by the distributors.

The new model was secretly shown to distributors, including European representatives, in Chicago on August 19 and 20.

It is described by those who have seen it as "truly revolutionary" and as "what we have needed to move the coin phonograph into locations that never before even considered having a juke box," according to Seeburg officials.

The latest Seeburg innovations, it is reported, involve programming, servicing convenience, income accounting, and wallbox features, as well as cabinet styling.

The distributor shows will be held over a two week span and will almost invariably be held in the respective city's leading hotels. Distributors attending the factory meeting in Chicago were treated to a dramatic unveiling and these same sales presentation features were in many instances being used in conjunction with standard operator showing programs by the wholesalers themselves.

Seeburg officials were scheduling trips during the course of the two week period in order that company officials be on hand at the distributor premieres wherever possible. The well-kept secret of what the machine looks like, and it's reportedly "revolutionary" features was backed up with strict confidential reports between factory and distributor.

Judging from factory reports and announcements and distributor reaction to the new model phonograph, the Seeburg machine is expected to help pave the way for a much broader exposure on location than possible previously. Up until now, the foundation of juke box locations was said to be with the neighborhood tavern and diners. The Seeburg announcement inferred that perhaps additional locations would now be open to using the juke box as a means of entertainment.

Showings were scheduled across the country for almost every day during the two-week premiere, including weekends.

Sugerman Off On Latin American Trip, Will Visit 8 Countries In 4 Weeks

NEWARK, N.J.—Myron Sugerman is off again on an international business trip in conjunction with Runyon International's expert coin machine business. The Runyon Intl. prexy was expected to leave Saturday, September 1, for an extended trip to South America which was to include visits to customers in approximately eight countries in a period of about four weeks.

Among the countries Sugerman will visit are Argentina, Uruguay, Columbia, Venezuela, Brazil, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, and possibly several other Caribbean countries.

Sugerman stated before leaving that Runyon's export business has been "extremely good" as the result of a highly developed personal mail and correspondence program with im-

Labor Day Safety Program

ARCADE MEN RAP RADIO-TV CRIES OF 'STAY AT HOME!'

NEW YORK—On the one hand you have thousands killed on Labor Day weekends and if you tell 'em to stay at home to avoid auto mishaps the arcade-playland industry gets mad. That's what happened last week as the NAAPPB official house organ asked members to advertise "togetherness" (at playlands) instead of having families listen to "stay at home" radio-tv reports from safety program campaigns.

Actually, the parksmen are very much aware of the hazards of driving during a 3-day holiday weekend, especially Labor Day, but at the same time they ask for a more tolerant approach in view of the business which must be done on the last holiday fling of the year for most. They promote safety within the parks and on the rides. But evidently the fun-seekers don't know enough to drive carefully.

MYRON SUGERMAN

porters in the countries around the globe. The firm ships to every country in the world with the exception of Russia and several satellite countries. As a result, many buyers arriving in New York have made Runyon a port of call. One of these visitors last month stimulated Sugerman's interest in the Latin countries and as a result the Latin tour was quickly prepared for September. A European jaunt will take place in December as part of Runyon's standard export itinerary.

While vending has shown little or no growth in many countries, Sugerman expects it to blossom in the years ahead. "We expect to be in a position to capitalize on it, if and when it does," said the export exec.

He is expected to return by the end of the month and will remain in the firm's Newark offices until the Europe trip in December.

COINMEN LOOK TO CONVENTION FOR IDEAS

NAMA Convention Will Attract Large Numbers Of Coin Ops

NEW YORK—More music and games operators than ever before now operate vending machines. More music and games wholesalers than ever before now distribute one form of vending line or another. In some areas, the two endeavors have gradually flowed into one business and in some instances (e.g.: West Virginia) statewide associations have changed official names from "coin machine" to "vending" in order to reflect the type equipment operated and to attract membership from pure vending ranks.

It all adds up to more vending operators joining the industry in whole or in part, and they're coming from what was once a solid coin machine operating area. The juke box and amusement machine operator is opening amusement parlors for his pool tables and bowlers and the first thing the patrons want is a cold drink from a vending machine. Bowling alley operators are asking coinmen for coffee and drink machines and there's no point in turning down business forever. In some instances the coinmen have shied away from the merchandise end. Perhaps cigarettes but no further. In many other cases however, the strictly coin machine operator is finding either the need to diversify or the logic in expanding and the answer lies in the merchandise machines. Hence the growing interest this year in the vending industry's national convention—the National Automatic Merchandising Association's 1962 Convention and Exhibition. The giant trade show will be held this year in Brooks Hall, San Francisco, where attendance can roughly be estimated at between six and eight thousand.

Every known type of vendor will be exhibited along with many prototypes of what can be expected from this fantastic field in the years to come.

The interest on the part of coinmen is interesting in this corner. Heretofore, many have disregarded the convention, but with the opposition taking to the merchandise field, and the same distributor of games handling the major vending lines, the operator has become familiar in some respects with the equipment. More than a passing acquaintance has been stirred up from this relationship and the result will be a larger than usual attendance in San Francisco from coin machine ranks.

Details of the show have been published here earlier, and will continue as the information is made available. In the meantime, reservations for exhibitors and conventioners can be made directly to NAMA at 7 South Dearborn Street in Chicago. The dates of the Convention are October 13th thru 16th.

Fedel will be responsible for the coordination of all company sales activities and analysis of salesman's activities and performance. He will report to I. Hayne Houston, Interstate Vice President-Corporation Development.

Fedel was Director of Market Research for Automatic Canteen Company for six year prior to joining Interstate. He has a Master's degree in Business Administration from DePaul University and a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from the University of Illinois.

New Sign Display For Vendors Sells Coffee

CHICAGO—What taste buds aren't enticed by the promise of a good cup of true old fashioned urn brewed coffee? This is the hard-to-resist promise held forth to the patrons of automatic coffee vending machines serviced by the Metropolitan Coffee Service of Chicago, Illinois. The invitation to partake of a fine cup of coffee is extended with the aid of an attractive new multicolored Dri-Mark Decal sign, which includes a picture of an old fashioned coffee grinder as part of its effective sales message. The decal sign is pressure-sensitive applied, a basic convenient feature of all Dri-Mark Decal Signs. No water or moistening of any description is needed to apply Dri-Mark decals; yet they have all the permanence required of any sign used in vending machine service. Complete information on Dri-Mark Decal signs for Point Of Sale advertising is available from the exclusive manufacturer, The Meyercord Co., 5323 West Lake Street, Chicago 44, Illinois. Sign used for coffee vendors is shown above.

Glass Distributing Baseball Team

A part of the Seeburg distributor's public relations program includes the firm's sponsored baseball team pictured here. The St. Louis team plays in the Khoury League and Glass claims they are undefeated in the last seven games. "The team is almost as good as our own sales team here," commented Glass, succumbing to the temptation to mention the firm's sales performance.

West Va. Ops Use Laffs To Sell Party Tix

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.—Operators in this area got a laff last week when a mailing piece arrived from the W. Va. Music & Vending Assoc. outlining what one can expect when he attends the association's Eighth Annual Convention & Banquet, Sept. 27-29, at the Holiday Inn in Huntington. Following is the copy as it appeared on a 4-page brochure:

Questions and Answers About the Eighth Annual Convention of the West Virginia Music and Vending Association.

QUESTION: When and where will the West Virginia Music and Vending Convention be held?—Norman Tweel—Huntington, W. Va.

ANSWER: In Huntington, West Virginia, at the Holiday Inn, Route 60, September 27, 28 and 29. This question from our Convention Chairman—You'd think at least he would know where it was being held.

QUESTION: Do I have to bring my wife? Mitch Oliver, Montgomery, W. Va.

ANSWER: Yes, You especially Mitch, must bring your wife.

QUESTION: I am a non-member of West Virginia Music & Vending—Can I come too?

ANSWER: We hope you do. You will learn and see new equipment. Also you can become rich and successful like our members. We hope non-members come because we are going to lose money if some strangers don't come.

QUESTION: If I bring my wife do I have to take her to meetings with me? Red Wallace, Oak Hill, W. Va.

ANSWER: Why worry about her coming, Red, she won't see you anyhow.

QUESTION: Can I bring my service personel with me?—Jim Hutzler, Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANSWER: Yes, it is a must for you and your service men to attend the Hot Beverage Safety Program, conducted by Mr. Walter Reed of N. A. M. A.

QUESTION: What's on your program?—Lige Smith, Huntington, W. Va.

ANSWER: We don't know yet, but you can bet it will be the best one we have ever had. We are going to talk about how operators can make money.

QUESTION: How much will the Convention cost me?—Joe Dobkins, Wheeling, W. Va.

ANSWER: Look who asked that question—Why worry, Joe, its deductible.

QUESTION: You must have some idea what your program is going to be about?—Leoma Ballard, Belle, W. Va.

ANSWER: Sure we do but we are saving it for a later mailing. Some of the talks and speakers we have turned down include:

(a) How to make money without Vending Machines—Billie Sol Estes.

(b) How to keep the Union out of your business and back to the mines—John L. Lewis.

(c) You can starve and still operate Vending Machines here—Moa Tse-tung.

(d) How I can bury your Juke Boxes—Nikita Khrushchev.

QUESTION: May I bring guests not connected with the coin machine business?—Joe Hunt, Welch, W. Va.

ANSWER: Please do, everyone must have a banquet ticket at $10.00, this includes all social activities, banquet, dance, floor-show and door prizes and further more we need the money.

QUESTION: Will a discussion of operating costs be held? (From a distributor who wants his money.)

ANSWER: PROBABLY!

QUESTION: There isn't much information in this mailing piece, is there?

—Red Wallace, Oak Hill, W. Va.

ANSWER: No, but we do want everyone to know we are having a Convention in this mailing piece, is there? —Red Wallace, Oak Hill, W. Va.

(Ed. Note: Anyone interested in attending this wild affair can drop a note to Marie at the West Virginia Music & Vending Assn., PO Box 610, Oak Hill, West Virginia. You'll probably regret it but then again, they need the money!)

Poetry, Shock, Q&A. Approaches Used To Sell Tix

HURLEYVILLE, N. Y.—Last month a notice was mailed to operators in the State of Virginia advising of the MOV Annual Affair scheduled for the John Marshall Hotel, September 7. The announcement was written in four line rhymes extending over two pages of a brochure. Briefly, the message requested the reader's presence at the operator shindig. The poetry idea caught the reader's attention and from all indications worked—the MOV Convention this weekend appears to be a sellout.

Last week another notice was received by operators—this time from the State of West Virginia. The solicitation was delivered in the form of a Question & Answer style (see reprint of circular elsewhere in this issue) and the Q&A was sparked with good humor. It all added up to a plea for participation by the reader. West Va. expects a big turnout at their September 27-29 affair at the Holiday Inn in Huntington.

And now comes a SUMMONS—a shock approach at that—in the form of a realistic looking document but happily from the N.Y. State Coin Machine Association, instead of the official source. The SUMMONS reads . . . "you are hereby summoned to attend the Fifth Annual Meeting of the N.Y. State Coin Machine Association. . . ." and goes into the details of the much publicized Laurels Country Club outing skedded for Sept. 14-16 with MONY, NYS Guild, Westchester, and the NYS Assoc. all participating.

Millie McCarthy signed the document after advising readers that election of officers and general meets will be held on Saturday afternoon of the weekend.

Judging from the announcements, we'd say that the coinmen are lending a bit of their creative talents to the task of selling tickets and the ideas are paying off with big attendance figures.

Eastern Flashes

When a new phonograph model finds its way onto Tenth Avenue, word is usually out long before its arrival as to the color, shape and general features but this is not so this week as the Seeburg factory continues its policy of strict silence on the details of a new phonograph campaign which has taken as its theme "breakthrough." After one week of silence from the factory's distributors throughout the nation all we learn is that the "breakthrough" theme applies to "the barrier for profitable growth," but we learn no more. The staff at Atlantic New York Corp.—Meyer Parkoff and Murray Kaye, over in New Jersey its Oscar Parkoff and in Hartford Mac Pearlman—all have one thing in common—"secrecy." We speak with Bill Adair and Marvin Stein in Philly but learn no more than that the machine is the most revolutionary they've ever distributed. Down to Baltimore for a talk with Nat Solow of the Seeburg outlet and get more of the same—silence. We do find out however, that Atlantic here on Tenth Avenue will stage what Parkoff has termed "the most extravagant" showing in its history—a shindig at the Park-Sheraton Hotel on Tuesday, September 11—with all ops in the area invited. Cocktails, dinner and a full-fledged presentation with Seeburg's number two man, Jack Gordon, winging in from Chi to emcee the affair.

Bill Adair states that the Philly outlet will premiere the machine in the Philadelphia Athletic Club on Sept. 13, then travel to Baltimore for a big show with Nat Solow in that town's Lord Baltimore Hotel on the 14th.

Will Roosen, new PR man at Davis up in Syracuse tells us the show there is skedded on Fri., Sept. 14 in Buffalo at the Peter Stuyvesant Hotel, and then on to Syracuse for a date at the Randolph House on Saturday, Sept. 15. Albany ops will go to a Sunday affair at the Sheraton Ten Eyck.

Si Redd's man Bob Jones, informs us that they'll break the show on September 4th in beantown (they'll be at the Kenmore). . . . Si Wolfe down in Florida had to change his showing dates at the last minute to land a bigger hotel—the Wolfe crew'll show the Seeburg phono in New Orleans at Lenfant's Blvd. Room on Wed., Sept., 12th . . . then back to Tampa and the Intl. Inn for a Sat. show on the 15th. . . . Frank Snow, Seeburg's branch outlet in the Carolinas (Charlotte) will premiere the "breakthrough" theme on the 7th. . . . Phil Greenberg will host Pittsburgh ops on Sept. 10th and the invites have gone out. . . and as the Seeburg distribs spread their showing dates out across a two-week span they will no doubt monopolize the attention of the industry as the "breakthrough profits" campaign unfolds. Another new phonograph on its way as the start of the new season begins, with the promise of more new model juke boxes to follow as the fall season gets underway.

We hear from Urban Industries' Nat Bailen that the "Kiddie Kolor Kar-ton" sales trip which embraced more than a half dozen cities brought about a sales reaction "equal to five times that of our first trip in the area" according to Bailen, who gives credit for the big increase to the new cabinet, one of the most colorful and attractive coin machines we have ever seen, bar none.

Myron Sugerman is a widely traveled young man and he'll continue to add to his experience with a four-week trip planned to South America with a Friday kick-off dateline, leaving Jersey far behind and spending Labor-Day, an unheard of holiday in the Latin countries with some customers, all of which makes any holiday more interesting. Myron hasn't changed his plans to visit Europe again in December, but will take this unexpected South American jaunt in stride and no doubt the Runyon International firm will be the better for it. Shugy continues to act as though he were just starting in business with plans on his desk for the new Springfield plant fast becoming a reality as construction continues, and the services of the Chairman of the Board go to a lovely lady customer who stops by to contract for a truckload of equipment. Shugy handles the buyer with his customary charm and sends Kempy and Morris Rood scurrying about to see that the lady's every wish comes true. Before Morris came to work on Monday he had scored another two days on the golf links marking up respectable scores (but he's not telling) and if you think this duffer is going to chomp away on the Laurels course then you had better think twice before placing any pesos on the table. Kempy celebrated another birthday on Tuesday, August 28, and when he tells you how old he is you won't believe it (and you won't guess within five years) as the kissing salesman looks forward to Thursday, the anniversary date of his marriage to his lovely Norma, and twenty six years of martial bliss (and lots of kisses too).

Coinmen along the street are still talking about Al Denver's seering letter to Congressman Celler re the new copyright proposal (HR 12450). After tearing the proposed legislation apart Denver asks Celler ". . . what is the reason for your personal introduction and endorsement of this unnecessary and unpopular bill; and why are you attempting to hurt the small juke box operator?"

Valley's John Ryan, Earl Feddie's right hand man, hospitalized earlier for gall stones, recuperating at home in Saginaw's suburbs. . . . Millie McCarthy has "summoned" coinmen in the State to attend the Laurels outing on Sept. 14 and has planned an early Satafternoon to meet to hold election of officers, discussions on bills and promises the meet won't interfere with sporting events skedded, like golf, and drinking, and such.

Coinmen are flocking to attend the NAMA Convention in San Francisco October 13-16, or so say the vending association's ticket sellers. We'll be there and so will many others from this area. . . . Sam Goldsmith's happy over Techno-Vend 18.3¢ per common share earnings figure. . . . Irving Kaye visited Tenth Avenue on Tuesday and told us that pool table shipments this year are far ahead of last year's figures. A quick call to son Howard at the plant confirmed this and also indicated that the firm's fall sales campaign will bristle with new ideas for operators on how to make money with the six-pocket units.

Dave and Sylvia Lowy's daughter Marilyn wedded to Stuart Fielding two Sundays ago at a beautiful affair in the West Hempstead Jewish Center. The couple honeymooned at Virginia Beach. She teaches, he's a student, a relationship that exists in marriages today that are twenty and thirty years old! . . . Sully Budinoff, Stanford op, in town with his sister-in-law who also operates, under the guidance and help of Sully, who has assisted the gal since she lost her husband some four years ago. Sully's boy ready for another crack year at the Air Force College in Colorado. The boy is destined to make history in the skies from the sound of his marks. . . . Rowe-AMI's George Klersey, the genial AMI phono rep, drops into Runyon's after an Eastern trip which kept him busy. From NYC to Boston, "probably," but then you never know your itinerary until you've actually completed it" says the likable salesman who admits to having had a "profitable trip." . . . Seeburg's Del Coleman will address the Security Analysts Group on Thursday 9/13 and you can watch the papers for this one. SAG gets wide publicity in the papers. . . . Irv Holzman and United have teamed up to supply all of the liquid refreshments and cocktail tidbits which will be on hand at the 3-day Laurels outing coming up and that's a lotta grape juice! . . . Willie Gaines, Mike Munves' chief mechanic, keeps a parts catalog under that crew cut, and as much of it as can be made public will be included in the up and coming Munves Parts and Supplies Catalog due off the presses by New Year's day (and that's a scoop!) . . . Al Simon continues to labor under the strain of the absence of Al D'Inzillo who is vacationing.

Chicago Chatter

The news was speedily relayed here from Washington, D.C. last Wednesday, August 29, of the approval in the House-Senate Conference Committee of the Eastland Bill on Capitol Hill. Speedy passage in the Senate and House of Representatives, and an immediate signature by President Kennedy is expected.

The word from Alvin Gottlieb, of D. Gottlieb & Co., is that Gottlieb's "Preview" 2 player is one of the most widely accepted pinball amusement games, and one of the most popular games in locations in this country and in foreign markets. Both, Alvin and Nat Gottlieb, declare that the surest way to assure popular money makers is constant testing of games prior to release to the trade.

Herb Jones, Bally vice president, advises that Bally is enjoying top level sales in all markets where it is accepted of Bally's "Golden Gate" bingo game. . . . Wednesday, Sept. 5, is happily looming as a banner day (we should say evening) for Joel Stern's World Wide Distributors; for that is the time Joel, Fred Skor, Howie Freer, Art Wood, Newell Bellamy and all the sales personnel at World Wide will unveil the revolutionary, new Seeburg coin-operated phonograph during a gala dinner party (preceded by a cocktail party at 6:00 p.m.) in the spacious Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton-Chicago Hotel. Joel and Fred expect a heavy attendance at their soiree.

Art Weinand, vice prexy of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp., informs that sales on "Valiant" two-player pinball amusement game are rolling along in fine style these pre-Labor Day days. He and Sam Stern, Williams president, are happy that the vacation period is just about over, and the factory can be assured of full production from now on. . . . All a very busy Joe Robbins could find the time to tell us was that domestic and export business is booming at Empire Coin Machine Exchange. Empire owner Gil Kitt is expected back any day now from his West Coast trip.

Dave Rockola planned a lovely day for his office personnel. He will host a Golf Outing on Saturday, September 8, at the Villa Olivia Golf Course with prizes for all golfers (duffers as well!).

Mort Secore, sales director for Chicago Dynamic Industries, very elatedly informs that Chicago Coin games enjoyed the best August sales period ever. It was, he said, like November (in August), with complete depletion of the entire ChiCoin games inventory. Herb Bidenkap was out of the city briefly calling on Chicago Coin's distributors. . . . Paul Huebsch, vice prexy of J. H. Keeney & Co., and sales rep Clayton Nemeroff, report heavy sales through August on Keeney's "Rainbow" in-line game, "Summertime" and "Sweet Shawnee" amusement games.

All of the executives are currently in at the busy United Mfg. Co. factory. Herb Oettinger and Bill DeSelm are busy laying exciting plans for the immediate future. LeRoy Kraehmer and Glenn Johnson anticipate a fine Fall season for United Music's UPD-100 coin-operated phonograph. Johnny Casola and Al (the non-flying Dutchman) are back out on the road in their respective territories. . . . Perry London and Nate Victor, S. L. London Music Co. in Milwaukee, were busy as blazes last week arranging for the gala showing of the new Seeburg coin-operated phono.

First Coin Machine Exchange's Joe Kline and Sam Kolber are really hustling these days since Fred Kline took a brief vacation and is due back shortly. Both domestic and export business are very heavy at First Coin this month. First's lovely secretary, Joyce Larson, departed last week for her vacation. Equally lovely Mary Gray just returned from her vacation.

Harold Lieberman and Lou Rubin, Liberman Music Co., in Minneapolis planned their showing of the new Seeburg phono, which will be held Friday, Sept. 7 in the Grand Ballroom of the Calhoun Beach Hotel in Minneapolis.

Bill Weikel, director of sales for Fischer Sales & Mfg. Co., is thrilled over the heavy sales and acceptance everywhere of Fischer's pool tables during the hot summer months (definitely not normally an indoor season). The success of the "8 Ball Pool" TV show in Omaha, via WOW-TV helped this sales push considerably.

Nate Feinstein, Atlas Music Co., reports continued heavy sales throughout August. There has been a steady upswing at Atlas in sales of new and used vending and music machines. Rowe cigarette, hot drink and cold drink machines are enjoying a field day at Atlas Music, according to Nate, Harold Schwartz and Irv Ovitz. . . . Parts production at Marvel Mfg. continues heavy, according to prexy Ted Rubey and Estelle Bye.

The sudden smiles on the faces of Hank Ross, Marcine "Iggy" Wolverton (mountain) and Ralph Sheffield were happily put there when the local officials put the licensing OK on Midway's "Target Gallery" in Chicago.

Chet Gore, prexy of Exhibit Supply Co., expects no slack-off after Labor Day for his compact Vacuumatic Card Vendor and plastic sealing machine. In fact, he expects an increase over this lusty summer season.

Everyone at Seeburg Corp. is showing the excitement of Seeburg's upcoming "break-through" introduction of the revolutionary, new Seeburg phono. And, this feeling exists among Delbert Coleman, Frank O'Brien, Jack C. Gordon, Tom Herrick and Stan Jarocki. . . . Phil Moss is holding his showings of the new Seeburg phono on Monday, Sept. 10, in Des Moines, and Tuesday, Sept. 11, in Omaha. . . . Send your get well cards to George Harton, III, prexy of West View Park in Pittsburgh, to Suburban General Hospital (Room 555) in Pittsburgh. He recently underwent a serious surgical operation.

Jack Harper and Tom Sams, executives of Rowe-AC Services, returned last week from a hectic tour which carried them through Nashville, Memphis, Dallas, Houston and New Orleans.

Urban Kiddie

Movie Trip

Huge Success

Attribute Increased Sales To Cabinet

LOUISVILLE — Nat Bailen, Advertising and Sales Promotion Manager of Urban Industries here, manufacturers of the "Kiddie Kolor Kartoon" and the "Peek-A-Rama" movie machines, returned from a sales trip last week with vice-president Bernard Berman and reported an increase in sales in many areas up to five times the original quotes received one month ago.

Since the firm originally introduced the machine, Frank Urban, the firm's prexy, and Berman have met with Bailen on new design changes with the result a completely new idea in cabinetry. The machine, shown for the first time three weeks ago, was trucked through about six cities for a re-visit to the firm's distrib outlets. "The results were fantastic," exclaimed Bailen after returning to his office. "The colors, the overall design, even the whirling pennant atop the tent sent distributors running to their order pads," said the promotion exec.

Because of the completely radical change in the cabinet, which houses kiddie movies spun on a continuous film principle, the movie unit has received wide acceptance in this country from wholesalers. Bailen stated that delivery will commence on September 10, after a previous slow-down due to the cabinet change.

The firm's officials will repeat another sales jaunt in about 30 days when Hawaiian and Canadian distributors can expect a visit.
