The quadraphonic consumer.

While she may look like just another browser, she's one of several million owners of quadraphonic equipment, shopping for hits . . . in quadraphonic sound.

Sharp retailers make it easy for her by stocking and prominently displaying the 4-channel versions of today's big chart albums.

Sharp broadcasters (more than 400 stations strong) know that by programming SQ discs they not only reach stereo and mono audiences but 4-channel listeners as well—with no extra cost.

The Artist And The Audience: No Excuse For Poor Manners

Today's concert-going audiences are being asked to pay from $8.50 to $12.50 per seat for top drawing groups and solo performers at venues around the country. The excitement of an appearance by a group like the Rolling Stones or Elton John is electric — sometimes, when one looks about as the performers enter the stage area, the cheering, screams and whistles seem on the verge of blowing the roof off. Such is the magnetism created and adoration today's rock fans bestow on their favorite artists.

It is, however, once the performance has begun, that a certain paradox arises. More than on one occasion we at Cash Box have noticed an inexplicable insensitivity to the creative artist during the most impressionistic, low-volume numbers of that performer's set. Rock and roll, we are aware, is an art form which demands a responsive, vocal audience if, as the phrase goes, "feeding the boogie monster" is to be achieved. During a recent Stephen Stills concert at the Hollywood Bowl, however, once the rocking part of the program had ended, Stephen picked up acoustic guitars and banjo for some of his most impactful songs, and was greeted initially, not by courteous attention, but by the same cat-calling, song requests and loud conversation that a rock and roll set would attract. A concert arena, despite some fans' misinformation to the contrary, is not like sitting at home watching a rock concert television broadcast. While smoking grass at concerts has become a fact of life, poor manners are, in our opinion, a far worse offense, both to the person on stage, and to other patrons who have saved their hard earned money to listen. As Stephen finally pleaded with the crowd to "listen harder," the more obnoxious offenders were shamed into silence. Any less disciplined artists would have been more than justified in walking off stage.

Concert audiences have changed enormously in the past ten years. Ex-Beatle Ringo Starr has told us that in the early performing days of that vanguard British ensemble, the high-pitched chaotic screams and mania that surrounded their performances made real creative effort impossible. Since the Beatles themselves couldn't hear what they were playing, they justifiably assumed that no one else could. As a result, they often played even their most tempered numbers at their most rudimentary level, not to mention that their high-volume rockers suffered as well. When an artist feels that no one is listening, the only possible result is a sense of futility. He can only play at a fraction of his artistic potential, and we have all observed the artist who, forced into dealing with an unruly crowd, has lost the personage he seeks to create in his performance. In the end, he may come off as irritable, lose fans he had previously won, and be that much more callous toward future audiences. Ultimately, everyone loses, both financially and spiritually, after such events. People, we have come to believe spend an evening out to enjoy themselves.

Just prior to performing at the ill-fated Altamont Speedway in 1969, Mick Jagger was quoted, in the film "Gimme Shelter," as saying: "I don't know if it's so much that people want to see the music, be it the Grateful Airplane (sic) or the Rolling Dead. It's more of an excuse to get out under the stars, get high, and make love to each other." As one remembers, such a freewheeling philosophy, taken to a ridiculous extreme, was responsible for the tragedy and mayhem that prevented many of the performing groups on that bill to get through their respective sets.

The prevailing philosophy in today's music business is that the concert performance is the ideal, essential location for an artist to expose his wares, thereby increasing demand for recorded product. What is difficult to understand, and almost enigmatic in terms of solution, is that there can be no consumer interest created at all when those paying to see and hear use their right of admission to thwart the musicians they've come to see. Has today's audience forgotten that it's the music that makes the whole affair possible? The concert arena, it must be made clear, is not one's livingroom. The same codes of behavior do not apply, and it is up to those who wish to absorb as much of a concert as possible to quiet the children among us up. Poor manners are bad for our business.

Foreign Acts Show 'Migration' From Singles To LP Charts

HOLLYWOOD — Ten years ago, when the "British Invasion" was at its peak, the Cash Box singles chart for the first 32 weeks (of 1965) showed 22 number one songs recorded by English artists. Only 13 British lps, however, were listed for the same period of time. During the first 32 weeks of this year only 8 foreign artists have reached the #1 singles spot as opposed to 22 who have attained the top album spot. This 'migration' tendency, rather than indicating an end of the British invasion, points to an even greater dollar flow into the pockets of non-American artists.

Increasingly these past ten years, the American public has been spending more money on foreign lp product than singles. Whereas this is true of American product also, it is interesting to note the decline in popularity of the foreign single and the corresponding rise of British and other foreign album product.

In the golden age of British rock a decade ago, British acts (5 of them) dominated the singles charts for stretches lasting as long as 9 weeks at a time. The Beatles had 3 #1's which held the top spot for a total of 7 weeks; Herman's Hermits also had 3 #1's which covered 6 weeks; and the Stones' "Satisfaction"

Rosica Named To RCA Div. VP Spot

NEW YORK — John Rosica has been appointed division vice president of merchandising and promotion for RCA Records.

In making the announcement, Jack Kiernan, RCA's division vice president of marketing noted that Rosica's new appointment encompasses both the company's national promotion activity and the merchandising area that Rosica has headed since he joined RCA.

"Rosica's background in sales and promotion uniquely qualify him for the additional and overall responsibility of his new job," Kiernan said.

Rosica entered the music business as promotion manager for Lescoe Distributors in Philadelphia, in 1956. During the past three years, before joining RCA Records for a second time, Rosica held the position of vice president of marketing at ABC Records and vice president of promotion at CTI Records. Prior to that, he served A&M Records in a promotional capacity.

From 1959 through 1967, Rosica worked for RCA Records where, in his last post for the company, he was, simultaneously, national promotion manager and national singles sales manager.

Earlier in his career, Rosica worked in radio as both a music director and disk jockey at a Philadelphia station.

FRONT COVER

Two weeks ago, Bob Marley & the Wailers wrapped up a tour of America which proved at last that reggae has found a new home in the American market and that there is truth to the many predictions that reggae may yet become the new musical force of the 70's. Although this distinctive sound has penetrated the States before, as with Eric Clapton's version of Marley's "I Shot The Sheriff," it took the magic of Marley himself for it to find the enthusiasm and widespread acceptance that is now taking hold.

The recent SRO tour was acclaimed unanimously by those in music, press and radio, as well as by the over 40,000 Americans who witnessed the Wailers' phenomenal performances. As a result, their current Island album, "Natty Dread," returned to the charts the first week of the tour and has been climbing steadily since.

Marley himself, though, transcends his own musical style; his riveting stage presence, his impassioned vocals and his remarkable songwriting abilities reveal many levels of creativity. His simple, direct lyrics make him less a poet than a prophet, but there is considerable poetry in the man, his music and his inspirations. Bob Marley is an artist of major importance. His time is now.

Foreign Migration fr 7

tied with Herman's Hermits' "Mrs. Brown You've Got A Lovely Daughter" for longest stand at #1 with 4 weeks. Petula Clark was #1 for 2 consecutive weeks as were Freddie and the Dreamers.

This year Elton John and Olivia Newton-John have owned 5 of the 8 #1 singles by non-American born artists. Other foreign acts to hit the top spot on the CB singles chart this year have been The Average White Band ("Pick Up The Pieces," Mar. 1), Wings ("Listen To What The Man Said," July 12), and the Bee Gees ("Jive Talkin'," Aug. 9). Three times this year foreign acts scored back to back #1's on the singles' chart compared to runs of 3 and 4 weeks in a row in 1970 (along with two back to back #1's) and runs of 3, 5 (twice) and 9 weeks in a row in 1965.

In 1965, the Beatles reached the #1 album spot 13 times with "Beatles '65" (8 weeks in a row, Jan. 2-Mar. 20) and "Beatles VI" (5 weeks in a row, July 10-Aug. 7). The only other albums to hit the top lp spot during those first 32 weeks of 1965 were the soundtracks "Goldfinger" and "Mary Poppins" (17 weeks in a row).

This year, Elton John's two lps alone ("Greatest Hits" and "Captain Fantastic") have accounted for 14 of the 22 #1 spots earned by foreign acts. Other artists from distant shores to garner the #1 honor on the Cash Box album chart this year have been Average White Band (Mar. 1) Olivia Newton-John (Mar. 15), Led Zeppelin (Mar. 22-Apr. 19), and Wings (July 19).

As English and other foreign acts appear more prominently on the album chart, American acts continue to flex singles muscle. Since the hit single is usually the precursor of the hot chart lp, it will be interesting to see if the trend may again reverse itself. Certainly quality will rise to the top and the only sure bet is that competition will continue to get increasingly tough. Only 3 songs this year have repeated as #1: "Philadelphia Freedom" — Elton John (Apr. 12 & 19); "Jackie Blue" — Ozark Mt. Daredevils (May 10 & 17); and "Love Will Keep Us Together" — Captain & Tennille (June 28, July 5). In addition, only Elton John, Linda Ronstadt and Olivia Newton-John have had more than a single #1 hit. Elton had "Lucy In The Sky With Diamonds" (Jan. 4), to go with "Philadelphia Freedom," Ronstadt scored with "You're No Good" (Feb. 15) and "When Will I Be Loved" (June 21), and Olivia Newton-John had two #1's with "Have You Never Been Mellow" (Mar. 8) and "Please Mr. Please" (Aug. 2).

Ten years ago, by contrast, 8 songs repeated as #1 in the first 32 weeks of the year indicating that tastes and buying trends (heavily influenced by radio play) are changing more rapidly now than in the past. The novelty of foreign artists has worn off, but the impact these creative people have had on the American public remains a strong one indicating that the invasion may be over, but converts are still being counted.

Foreign Vs. Domestic Acts; Which Is The Hard Sell?

HOLLYWOOD — The universal appeal of music and the interest expressed by record buyers in the efforts of other countries has resulted in the rosters of the majority of record companies boasting a number of foreign artists.

To be sure there are obvious plusses to handling import items, but just how hard is it to promote a musician or band from foreign shores as opposed to getting the word out on home grown product?

Motown has always been thought of as an all American camp, but, with the recent acquisition of Manticore and Gull as subsidiary labels, the company now handles such acts as PFM, Banco, Arthur Brown and Keith Christmas. According to Motown publicist, Scoops Cenac, an American act is the easier of the two to promote.

"American acts are usually easier to publicize by virtue of their availability. It's a lot easier to set up press interviews and things of that nature with an act that's around rather than a European act that may only come to this country once a year."

"There's a certain mystique about European bands that has a lot to do with the fact that they do appear in this country so rarely. That's why we tend to center the thrust of publicizing a European act around a tour or live appearance."

Cenac cited Motown's present efforts behind the Italian band Banco as just what a company can or can't do, publicity wise, when a foreign act isn't in the country.

"Since the band isn't touring in America all we can do is push the album and try to generate some interest in the group before they get here. Some radio stations are picking up on it but it would be easier if the band was here to do interviews and things of that nature."

Andy Meyer, director of publicity at A&M (who count Nazareth and Armageddon among their foreign acts) stated that far and away a foreign act is easier to promote.

"English acts have an extraordinary track record in this country and by the very nature of their appearances are the easiest to publicize. English bands do quite a few tours in this country and get lots of exposure. We gear our publicity campaigns around the excitement generated by a tour."

"The availability of an act, in terms of press interviews, doesn't have that much to do with it. Some European acts are good interviews and some aren't. It's the same with American bands."

Capitol's national publicity director Patty Wright, whose roster includes Pilot and The Sadistic Mika Band, says it's easier to get the word out on an American act.

"It's more a matter of convenience. European acts are less accessible than American acts. You can't schedule anything definite in the way of press interviews with a foreign act unless you're sure they're going to be in town. It's easy to call an American act and set something up."

Wright refuted the contention that the publicity push behind a foreign act centers around live performances before dealing with some of the other problems of publicizing foreign acts.

"Language has been a problem; especially with bands like The Sadistic Mika Band who know no English. It makes interviews difficult or next to impossible to do."

America Receives Cultural Citation

HOLLYWOOD — America was honored Friday (Aug. 1) by Los Angeles' mayor Thomas Bradley at city hall with a cultural citation for their year long activities and involvement with ecology and the environment.

America, consisting of members Dewey Bunnell, Dan Peek, and Gerry Beckley, "have become" as stated in the citation "ambassadors of ecology and bringing attention to our environment." The group, which appeared at the Hollywood Bowl Aug. 3rd, the start of their new U.S. summer tour, physically surround their shows with trees, plants, and flowers so as to bring the attention of our environment to their audience.

Appearing with America at their Hollywood Bowl concert was George Martin, making his only performing appearance in the United States. Martin produced many of the Beatles' earlier hits, and America hit singles "Tin Man," "Lonely People," and "Sister Golden Hair."

Syracuse Fest Date Changed To Sept. 2

NEW YORK — "The Great American Music Fair," the music festival originally set for Aug. 23 at the New York State fair grounds in Syracuse, has been re-scheduled for Sept. 2, the day after Labor Day. The date was reportedly changed due to official local concern that having the event only two days before the grand opening of the N.Y. State Fair itself could interfere with the orderly opening and operation of the latter.

John Scher, president of Monarch Entertainment, the promoters of the affair, noted that all acts have been re-confirmed for the new date. These include The Beach Boys, The Doobie Brothers, The Jefferson Starship, America, The New Riders of the Purple Sage, and The Stanky Brown Group. All tickets previously purchased for the original date will be honored on the new date.

Her presentation discussed the work by campus representatives with non-commercial college radio stations, college press exposure, the use of the college concert market as part of CBS' new artist development and of the use of promotion albums, point of sale materials and other merchandising tools.

PHILLY SAYS YES — A private party was given for Atlantic group Yes at the Bijou Cafe in Philadelphia in celebration of the English outfit's two sold-out dates at the Spectrum. The affair was thrown by club-owner and concert promoter Larry Magid, whose Electric Factory Concerts promoted several Yes dates on the recently completed five-week N. American tour, which was booked by Premier Talent Associates, Inc.  UNITED ARTISTS RECORDS

POINTS WEST — According to UA publicist Allen Levy, the recent United Artists-Grateful Dead negotiations, whereby UA will manufacture and distribute Dead and Round Records, were a bit unusual. When Al Teller and Dead prexy Ron Rakow dined together at the Trident in Sausalito (what a great place!) all the financial juggling was worked out on a napkin! The napkin, of course, was quickly flown by courier to UA's offices, and included in the contract as "soggy clause A!"

Fans attending James Taylor's opening night Universal Amphitheater gig were treated to a surprise performance by Graham Nash and David Crosby, who joined James on backup vocals on two tunes. For details, see this week's talent review page.

Producer Robert Radnitz has set Dennis Lambert and Brian Potter to write lyrics for the theme song of his new feature film, "Birch Interval," starring Rip Torn and Eddie Albert. Leonard Rosenman wrote the music for the song, entitled, "Love Isn't Far From Home." . . . New staffers at Wally Heider's Studios in L.A. are Bob (Groovis Breault) on the boards and Betsy Manheimer on the old PR typewriter! . . . Barry Richards tells us that producer-writer Bobby Hart is in search of an aggressive guy or gal to plug the tunes in his Claudia Music and Loganberry catalogs to labels and producers in town. Interested parties should call Barry at 851-0268. . . . Talent coordinator Tom Barannon plans to open a 750 seat capacity nightclub in San Diego, dubbed the "Bacchanal." . . . Ozark Mountain Daredevils manager Stan Plesser predicts that the group's forthcoming single, "Southern Cross," due within the next week or two, will be a monster. The tune is off the Daredevils' next LP, cut in Nashville, mixed in L.A. . . . War organist Lonnie Jordan recently contributed "Why Can't We Be Friends" lps, frisbees and buttons to the children of the sickle cell summer camp located in the Sunset Beach area of L.A. War has been visiting children's wards in hospitals across the country on its national summer tour. Hats off to you, guys. . . . Jack Daley, manager of RCA recording artist Wayne Berry, announced that Norman Seeff has been commissioned to design the lp cover of Berry's upcoming lp.

. . . Thanks to Jack Goldwater for a lovely afternoon at Franco's La Taverna restaurant on the Strip — convenient to Buddah, Chrysalis, Arista, and scores of management and PR firms in the area, the cuisine there has got to be among the finest in town. . . . And as long as I'm passing thanks for free lunches, Marvin Deane — you're the best! Would Wednesday afternoon have been nearly as enjoyable without you and Mr. Chow? . . . Bill Whitten, rock and roll costume designer for Edgar Winter, Elton and Three Dog Night is currently outfitting Andy Kim for his upcoming dates with Anne Murray. Gary Osheroff, manager of Straight, has announced the termination of the group's contract with Scepter Records. Negotiations are open, says Gary and producer Norman Ratner. . . . Laurence Rosenthal has been set by producer Fred Baum to compose the score for Quinn Martin Productions' two-hour film spec "A Home Of Our Own," starring Jason Miller. . . . The Supremes new nightclub act, currently being whipped into shape for them by Geoffrey Holder and Phil Moore, will include one chunk in which the gals will do comic impressions of Bessie Smith, Marilyn Monroe, and Josephine Baker. . . . Remember "Fire" and Arthur Brown swinging, hair afire, into concert halls a few years back? Well, watch out, 'cause Arthur has returned to America, minus the Crazy World troupe and lunatic antics. With his new lp on Gull Records, distributed by Motown, called "Dance," Arthur is currently on a swing of press interviews and is scouting out gigs for his American tour this fall. . . . The Doobie Brothers have begun recording their sixth LP for Warners with Ted Templeman producing and Donn Landee engineering, at the label's North Hollywood studios. For an interesting story on the group's promotion of their "Stampede" lp, see this week's Cash Box international section. . . . Dan Fong will be handling tour media coordination for the Doobies upcoming fall tour, it was announced by the group's manager, Bruce Cohn. . . . Contemporary lighting specialist Chip Monck is set to light and stage Paul Anka's Greek Theater engagement, beginning Aug. 4. . . . Free-lance photographer Michael Paladin has been assigned two album covers by 20th Century Records for their South Side Movement and Fiddlin' Frenchy Burke upcoming releases. . . . Tickets go on sale Monday, Aug. 4, at the Uris Theatre box office in NYC, for the special two-week engagement of Count Basie, Ella Fitzgerald and Frank Sinatra, Sept. 8-20. And, as Jerry Weintraub is presenting the event, I'll say how interesting I found the L.A. Times piece on Jerry last Thursday (31) in the View section. From the William Morris mail room, to MCA, then to making John Denver the hottest box-office property in the biz today, hats off to an impresario of impresarios. And best of luck with the New York event.

Ten dates on the Rolling Stones' current tour of the Americas are being recorded live on the 24-track facilities of The Record Plant, Los Angeles, according to Terry Stark, Record Plant director of location recording. Ron Nevison is supervising recording of the concerts, July 9-13, Forum, Los Angeles, Calif.; (15-16), Cow Palace, San Francisco, Calif.; (26), Indiana University Assembly Center, Bloomington, Ind., and (27-28), Cobo Hall, Detroit, Mich. July 12 also was videotaped.

OY VEY — Have Cher and Greg Allman reconciled their differences, as has been the rumor this past week? Who cares?!

Frankie Valli and The Four Seasons have announced their touring schedule for the month of August, which will take them, beginning with an Aug. 1 date in Boston, through the northeast section of the U.S. . . . Composer-arranger-producer Quincy Jones will make a concert appearance with his new 16-piece band at the Greek Theatre during the week of Aug. 11-17. "Q" has just returned from a 28-concert tour of Japan, brought SRO crowds for all the dates, and feels great. I lunched with Quincy a few weeks ago, and I've got to say that the cat looks terrific — and a helluva great guy to rap with. Quincy will premiere his upcoming A&M lp "Mellow Madness" at the Greek Theatre dates. . . . Todd Rundgren is in the midst of an extensive American concert tour with his band Utopia, during which time a live album, which will follow up "Initiation" will be recorded. Todd embarks on a European tour in November. No word as to whether the lovely Bebe Buell will be accompanying him, though!

Last week, while playing Cooley's Ballroom in Atlanta, White Lightnin' (whose lp was produced by Felix Pappalardi) were visited backstage by the Stones, the Meters, War, Chris Blackwood, Bill Valenziano and Jeff Dengrove. Local radio personalities Scott Shannon and Jeff Davenport also showed. Must have been a pretty crowded dressing room!

Lani Hall, wife of A&M executive and recording artist Herb Alpert, gave birth to an 8 lb., 7½ ounce girl July 25 at Riverside Hospital in North Hollywood, California. The child was named Aria and is the couple's first. Ms. Hall is also a singer with the T.J.B. Mazel Tov! . . . Until next week, sei gesund!

EAST COASTINGS — The three date extension of the Rolling Stones tour has started to cause problems for the Faces, whose tour was scheduled to begin on Aug. 15. The Stones' tour was to have ended on Aug. 3, but with the three extra dates, it now closes on Aug. 8. Billy Gaff, the Faces' manager, has issued a statement claiming that because of the unavailability of Ron Wood until a later date, rehearsal time for the Faces has been "drastically cut." As a result, three of their opening dates have been cancelled to allow Wood time to recuperate before Faces rehearsals. The rehearsals are "extremely important" according to Gaff for this tour, as the group will be using the Memphis Horns and a twelve piece string section. In dollars and cents, this alteration of the group's schedule comes to a loss of $20,000 already spent on the three dates, and a potential loss of receipts amounting to $200,000.

Max Schroeder, who formerly operated the Joint Inn The Woods, and is currently at College Entertainment Associates, called us last week to say that the club, now called In The Woods, is about to reopen, probably by the third week in Sept., presenting top name rock acts on a regular Fri. — Sat. night basis.

BITS & PIECES: Patrick Moraz of Yes and Tommy Bolin, Deep Purple's new guitarist who was in town to record his first solo album, joined Larry Coryell's Eleventh House on stage at the Bottom Line last week for some late night jamming . . . Terry Garthwaite, who was formerly a member of Joy Of Cooking, is completing her first lp for Arista in San Francisco with a stellar line-up of musicians. . . . Airto is also finishing his first lp for Arista with Herbie Hancock producing . . . Speaking of Airto, he did a special concert with his wife, Flora Purim, at California St. University at Long Beach last week. Also appearing in the group were Raul de Souza on trombone, David Amaro on guitar, George Duke on piano, Tom Fowler on bass, and Brazilian flutist Hermeto. This was Flora's first public appearance since she began serving a drug conviction sentence at Terminal Island in San Pedro last Aug. She is currently on a school-furlough program at the prison, which enables her to attend music classes at the college.

A rock festival of sorts called the "First Annual New York Pop Concert" is scheduled to take place at an outdoor Long Island facility on Sept. 1. Acts already signed include Melanie, the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Orleans, and Tom Paxton. Tickets will be $6.00 in advance and $7.00 at the door . . . Wings are currently rehearsing their material for some kind of tour. Among the songs that the group have been working on are "Maybe I'm Amazed," "Live And Let Die," "My Love," "Band On The Run," and "Hey Jude." . . . George Harrison's next album is already in the can according to Capitol Records of Canada. Its title is "Extra Texture," but no release date has been set . . . Bruce Springsteen and his band, who will be at the Bottom Line from Aug. 13-17, doing two shows a night, have sold all of the available 5,000 tickets within a five day period. . . . Southwind Records currently have their second and third lp releases on the Cash Box charts. Free Beer is currently on at #196 and Srongbow is at #197.

Deep Purple have finished mixing a 2-lp live set which features some of the last material recorded with Ritchie Blackmore before he left the group to form Rainbow. According to several spokesmen for the group, though, it seems unlikely that the group will release the album before the next studio effort which should be ready by the end of the year . . . Among the numerous tributes and honors bestowed upon Elton John in the last year, you can now add a wax figure in Madame Toussaud's Wax Museum in London . . . The next single by the Pretty Things will be a song called "I'm Keeping Bad Company" (cute) . . . Nigel Olsson's forthcoming solo album (his second) will feature help from Stevie Wonder, Neil Sedaka, Elton John, and Neil Young . . . Ducks Deluxe, the group who never exactly became a household name in this country, have split up, with the group's leader and main songwriter, Sean Tyla, forming a group to be called the Tyla Gang. A U.S. tour is in the works for Nov. . . . David Bedford, again someone who never became much of a household name in this country, will be conducting a 30 piece orchestra and chorus through a composition entitled "Twelve Hours of Sunset." The performance will probably be recorded for an lp release.

ALBUM PREVIEW: Like Roy Wood, Emmit Rhodes, Paul McCartney, and maybe a small handful of others, Dave Edmunds is a completely self-contained talent. His first album, "Rockpile," released in 1971, has unfortunately been cut-out by London Records, but it did point out his consummate musical abilities in the role of producer/arranger/engineer and musician. Edmunds overdubbed approximately 80% of all the voices and instruments. His second album, "Subtle As A Flying Mallet," has been released in England on RCA, and may never see the light of day in this country, but is nevertheless worthy of note. Edmunds has again attempted several big production numbers, re-working the Phil Spector stratagem on songs like "Maybe," "Baby, I Love You," and "Born To Be With You" on which he amply demonstrates his jack-of-all-trades talents. There are also several oldies, "Da Doo Ron Ron," "Need A Shot Of Rhythm And Blues," and "Let It Be Me" which were recorded for the "Stardust" soundtrack (Edmunds has a key role in the movie), and a couple of tracks recorded on a Brinsley Schwartz tour. These tracks benefit from the Brinsleys' contribution to the music but only hint at the enormous potential if Edmunds would only put together a band for a tour of this country. An exceptionally well crafted lp, even if it tends to sound dry after a while, Edmunds certainly proves that he is capable of delivering the goods.

The Tubes: Fallopian, Boob And What Lies Beyond Sermonette

"The medium is the message." - Marshall McLuhan.

"The founding fathers liked teats and ass just like everybody else." - Williams Spooner.

And in the tradition of child being father to the man and the media blitz; the electronic eye and all it professes; begot The Tubes. The Tubes (an A&M manifestation) who in the disguise of a mild-mannered theatrical-rock group from the Bay Area, strive for off the wall humor, down and dirty blue humor and a whole lot of strangeness. All via the most accessible route to the American mind: television.

The Tubes performance makes use of all the tried and true theatrical trips. Scantly clad dancing girls. Elegant dance numbers. Humor (black, blue and otherwise). And, in the most media related of senses, lights, camera and a whole lot of action. It's 1975's answer to a "Night On Bald Mountain" and a dance macabre of the mind whose distorted visions harken back to the time when man and Bufferin commercial met across the visual expanse.

On a recent swing through Los Angeles, Tubes lead guitarist William Spooner and lead singer Fee Waybill (alias various assorted atrocities) got down to the meat of their beyond-sermonette approach to trotting the boards.

"The Tubes are a combination of music and theatre," said Spooner, "but we tend to play up the theatrical nature of the set more than the music. This is done because there are certain parts of the country where we can get away with more as theater than if we billed ourselves as a rock band. Julian Beck has gotten away with quite a bit because he's into theater while Jim Morrison couldn't do his thing without being busted."

Upon viewing a Tubes performance (a cross between a three-ring circus and a re-run of Highway Patrol at 78 rpms) one thing becomes quickly obvious: The Tubes are totally a by-product of the media age. And so no interview with The Tubes could be complete without the appropriate camera directions accorded the very thing The Tubes profess to be descended from.

Fee, who like the rest of the group, has totally immersed himself into the philosophies of the cyclops eye, stated, "It's total media and total television. The entire concept of The Tubes is television. We're into all kinds of media. Movies. Television. All kinds of media things are present in what we do."

cut to: medium shot-A&M publicity department-day

As the camera slowly pans the room we find William Spooner. The camera dollies in to extreme close-up as Spooner waxes momentary seriousness on Tubes schtick vs serious art and vice-versa.

"If people thought what we're doing was art they'd stay away from it. People are always quick to spring to the defense of art but not as quick to support it. Just like the controversy behind Balzac being in the library. It was the art vs the dirty book type of thing."

pull back to medium shot

Spooner, in a display of overt enthusiasm, turns on the assembled melange of Tubes and press.

"So think art, everybody! No more smut!"

Speaking of said non-niceties, the Spooner quote that kicked off the article was only the verbal tip of the iceberg on the subject of how The Tubes' eventual assault on the soft, white underbelly of mom's apple pie heartland will go down.

"It's like I said before, people in the midwest are just like people everywhere else. They like a little skin once in a while too."

Spooner flashes on the gamier aspects of their performing arts and, in particular, the Tom Jones strip routine.

"And if they don't like us we'll have good lawyers."

The Tubes, by way of Arizona, a band called Beans, San Francisco and the production fantasies of one Al Kooper, are more than mere maniacal misfits out on a lark. Their background in the music and arts is extensive with play experience in the likes of "Creation Of The World" and The Ferlinghetti classic "Coney Island Of The Mind."

Not to mention token dues-paying on the high school theatrical boards.

All of which has culminated in a deft fusion of theatrics, music and grey matter gone wacko. But the subject of theatrics in music can't be touched upon without a parting nod to the rock godfather of craze; Alice Cooper. Cooper, who singlehandedly brought the dismembering of chickens to the level of art, received Tube kudos but with reservations.

"There's a lot in the way of rock and theatrics around but most of it is pretty tacky stuff. Alice Cooper is a pretty good example. He does what he does well but it's in a real juvenile sense. The show's basic theme has always been 'cut off your head little kiddies.' It's funny and entertaining on a certain level."

slow pan in on Spooner

A slightly wicked smile crosses his face as he reminisces on a scene of past debauched glory. It's "Rock and Roll Hospital"; a few shows to the rear and beyond the bloodletting.

"You should have been here the night Clive Davis came to see us and Fee attacked him with the chainsaw."

Now that is definitely something to flash on; as is the more overt moments in "Mondo Bondage" and "A Groovy Three Way Thing" which have been known to send the fainter of hearts and loftier of morals steamrolling for the nearest exit.

Spooner denied that anything the Tubes do is destined to raise the hackles.

"I don't think anything we do shocks people. But, then again, it probably has a lot to do with geography and age. We don't shock people in cities like Los Angeles or San Francisco but we might have problems in the midwest or the south. And we sure as hell don't scare kids with what we do. Kids are ready for anything."

A large part of a Tubes performing stance is on the high side of spontaneous with such sterling bits of repartee as "Hey Fee, how's your mother's new disease" the on stage rule rather than the exception. The Tubes' process of improvisational combustion was explained by Fee this way

"More than fifty percent of what we do on stage is improvisational. And it's not even a question of the show changing from week to week. Our shows can change every night. We've got this insatiable thing about changing lines all the time. It's a running contest, a game. If Bill throws me a line I've got to come back with something else right away."

cut to: extreme long shot—big battlefield in the sky-night

In the context of the eternal struggle of music and theatrics we envision Roger Steen, Rick Anderson and Vince Welnick struggling with the demented image of Quay-Lewd for predominance on the stage.

Fee (whose identity crisis encompasses the aforementioned Lewd and the leatheroid from "Bondage" fame) explained that the balance of theatrics and music has been the least of the group's problems.

"Sometimes it's difficult to arrange a set so that you can do everything you want to do and still get effectively from one thing to the next. We've got a highly professional stage and lighting crew behind us now so that the transition from scene to scene is becoming easier."

Continuity. Transition. Even flow. All words that describe a situation that could become a bit sticky within the ever-expanding concept of The Tubes' galloping roadshow which has been growing by leaps and bounds.

According to Fee, space and the almighty dollar are the only possible deterrents to further greatness through eccentricity.

"At this point space is a definite problem with the show. The concept and scope of the show is getting bigger and bigger all the time. It all boils down to us trying to reach a much higher level of audience. In the future our show will contain much more in the way of television and video equipment as well as bigger screens. The media trip we're into is not a dead end concept. The only thing that's limiting us is expenses. Once we get the money behind us there's nothing we can't do."

flash on a hasty conference

Assorted hangers on in the outer office have called for the patented Tubes great escape.

long overhead shot

The camera follows our intrepid heroes through a door, down an alleyway, through a parking lot (and over assorted vehicles) on to the street and in the direction of Sunset Boulevard.

The Tubes have once again triumphed and will live to go bananas another day.

tubes interview: fade to black

And now a word from our sponsor.

picks of the week

HELEN REDDY (Capitol 4128)

Ain't No Way To Treat A Lady (3:26) (Colgems/ASCAP — H. Schock)

Harriet Schock has profound ability for penning tunes that fit Helen's voice perfectly. This track is bound for top status — produced masterfully by Joe Wissert. Helen's stylings, backed by Nick DeCaro's fine arrangement are sure to earn her a repeat number one perch. Flip: No info. available.

THE ROLLING STONES (ABKCO 5N-4702)

Out Of Time (3:20) (ABKCO/BMI — M. Jagger, K. Richard)

Andrew Loog Oldham produced this track for the Stones at the tender age of nine-teen, and although we've heard the song in another form before, this version is beyond doubt the strongest track on the ABKCO "Metamorphosis" lp. What yesterday was a classic Stones r&b rocker has gained additional credence over the years, and should come on strong in the summer season. Watch out — this could go all the way. Flip: Jiving Sister Fanny (2:45).

JOHN DENVER (RCA JH-10353)

I'm Sorry (3:29) (Cherry Lane/ASCAP — J. Denver)

This lamenting love ballad is replete with the classic Denver touches: sweet arrangement by Lee Holdridge, and emotive lyrics. Wonderful, obviously top-ten bound material by a guy who just keeps the hits coming. Fine tune from the Colorado king of pop! Flip: No info. available.

LOGGINS AND MESSINA (Columbia 3-10188)

I Like It Like That (2:45) (Thursday/BMI — C. Kenner, A. Toussaint)

The first track to be released from their upcoming "So Fine" lp, this classic tune gets perfect treatment from Ken and Jimmy's talented, incisive voices. The lp features greatest hits of the past, and this track is the perfect entre to the big disk. This is hit bound for two of our favorite artists. Flip: No info. available.

MICHAEL MURPHEY (Columbia 8-50131)

Carolina In The Pines (3:05) (Mystery/BMI — M. Murphey)

Michael's distinctive voice and acoustic guitar work shines through on this mountain-inspired bluegrass ballad, colored and sweetened by some inspired studio production. A chart contender for the coming weeks. Flip: Without My Lady There (2:33).

PAUL SIMON/PHOEBE SNOW AND THE JESSE DIXON SINGERS (Columbia 3-10197)

Gone At Last (3:58) (Paul Simon/BMI — P. Simon)

Paul and Phoebe have gotten it together in a masterful way for this gospel spirit-lifter, trading vocal leads in front of the talented piano and backup vocal work of the Jesse Dixon Singers. Irresistible in its uptempo feel, should be one of the year's most unusual and outstanding disks. Flip: No info. available.

SMOKEY ROBINSON (Tamla/Motown T-54261F-A)

The Agony And The Ecstasy (4:15) (Bertam/ASCAP — Wm. Robinson)

Smokey's flowing, sensational followup track from his lp, "Quiet Storm," is a sensitive, mellow love ballad accentuated by sweet guitar arpeggios and strings. A fine track, centered around that incredible voice. Sets a mood that's hard to lose — a pleasant choice for r&b, pop playlists. Watch it. Flip: No info. available.

RAY CHARLES (Crossover 981)

Living For The City (3:58) (Jobete/Black Bull/ASCAP — Stevie Wonder)

Ray lends a definitive, fresh look at Stevie Wonder's classic ode to the reality of life on the sizzling streets of any city. Fine backup chorus work by the Raelettes and reverberating fender rhodes piano work from the master should send this soaring to a high chart position. Super! Flip: No info. available.

BLOOD, SWEAT & TEARS (Columbia 3-10189)

Yesterday's Music (3:29) (Lady Casey/BMI — D. Clayton Thomas, W. Smith)

One of David Clayton Thomas' finest compositions comes bouncing off this fine disk that should put BS&T back on top of the charts where they belong. Fine lyrics, horn arrangements (naturally!) and high musicianship generally are packed into every groove. David sounds better than ever on this track taken from the group's recent "New City" lp. Flip: No info. available.

ERIC CLAPTON (RSO SO-513)

Knockin' On Heaven's Door (3:40) (Ram's Horn/ASCAP — B. Dylan)

Eric does a reggae, fresh interpretation of Dylan's classic tune, even sounding like Bob on the cut! Fine mouth harp, harmonies, and of course, definitive reggae guitar picking from Clapton on this. Should grab attention of everyone, soar to a high chart spot. Flip: No info. available.

TOWER OF POWER (Warner Bros. WBS 8121)

You're So Wonderful, So Marvelous (3:11) (Kuptillo/ASCAP — F. Biner, S. Kupka, E. Castillo)

Mssrs. Kupka and Castillo have come up with perhaps Tower's most accessible AM pop tune since "You're Still A Young Man." This tune sizzles with love-inspired lyrics, tight rhythm and horn tracks (what else?!) and musicianship and harmony at its best. This is five star material — bound for a high chart spot. Flip: No info. available.

NANCY WILSON (Capitol 4117)

He Called Me Baby (3:19) (Central Songs/BMI — H. Howard)

A bright uptempo gospel-influenced song, Nancy shows off a soulful side with style and class. Produced by Gene and Billy Page, this Harlan Howard tune has tremendous crossover potential — watch for it to hit big r&b, mor, pop. Nancy's in top form here. Flip: No info. available.

JIGSAW (Chelsea CH-3022)

Sky High (2:53) (Duchess/BMI — Des Dyer, Clive Scott)

My five star pick of the week is this whirlwind of a disk, which intros with cyclone-like intensity thanks to some super string work. Falls quickly into a lyrical, pop-smash format that can't help but hit, and hit big. Everything's here — you have only to pick up on it and give a listen. Get smart — add this — it's blowin' sky high! Flip: Brand New Love Affair (3:34).

ROGER WHITTAKER (RCA JH-10356)

I Don't Believe In If Any More (3:18) (Arcola/BMI — R. Whittaker)

A fitting followup to "The Last Farewell," the deep, resonant voice of Roger Whittaker proves that his obscurity in American music circles has been a function of our ignorance! What a talent! A lovely tune, must do extremely well mor with possible pop crossover potential. Flip: No info. available.

JESSI COLTER (Capitol 4087)

What's Happened To Blue Eyes (2:19) (Baron/BMI — J. Colter)

A heavily-country-laced single from Jessi this time 'round, following up on the heels of her pop smash "I'm Not Lisa." Produced by Ken Mansfield and husband Waylon Jennings, this disk has strong crossover potential as well — despite its pedal steel guitar work. A fine tune, sweetened to perfection. Flip: You Ain't Never Been Loved (2:57).

LYN COLLINS & THE FABULOUS FLAMES (People/Polydor PE 657)

Baby Don't Do It (3:25) (Bess/BMI — L. Pauling)

Lyn does some soulful, truth talkin' to all the ladies in the crowd. Get down with this fine record from the James Brown family of hitmakers. Full of soul, full of funk — bound to grab a top chart listing r&b. Flip: No info. available.

BILLY SWAN (Monument/CBS ZS 8—8661)

Everything's The Same (Ain't Nothing Changed) (2:34) (Combine/BMI — B. Swan)

Billy's newest single is in much the same vein as "I Can Help," with a slightly more uptempo r&b time signature — featuring some fine rockin' piano work as opposed to the Hammond organ chords of the former giant hit. Billy sounds like he has strong crossover possibilities with this disk — could go pop, mor as well as c&w — fine lead guitar chord work. Flip: No info. available.

KIM KADE & THE ROCKETTS (Hot Lix/Roxbury HX-4000)

Take Your Shoes Off (3:30) (ABC/Dunhill/BMI — K. Laguna)

Shades of the Beatles and Ronettes abound in this Kim Ornitz-Ken Laguna production, featuring fine lead and backup vocals. A classic pop hook is inviting — step back, take off your shoes and relax behind this fine disk. Predictions for a pop top ten position are called for. Go on it immediately. Flip: No info. available.

THE JOHNSON FAMILY (Atlantic 3283)

Peace In The Family (3:04) (Me Alone/ASCAP — M. Sherman)

A soulful and sweet r&b ballad that should find its place on playlists country-wide comes from the Atlantic folks this week — there's a strong family tradition in these grooves — and a very talented family it is! Go with it for sure. Flip: No info. available.

THE TRAMMPS (Atlantic 45-3286)

Hooked For Life (2:57) (Golden Fleece/Mighty Three/BMI — B. Sigler, N. Harris, A. Felder)

A hit! Fine female vocal stylings, rhythm and strings embellish this Sigler-Harris composition that socks home a solid, danceable boogie beat to boot! Must be considered a top choice this week. Flip: I'm Alright (3:00).

RON BANKS AND THE DYNAMICS (ABC 12125)

(I'm Going By) The Stars In Your Eyes (3:31) (Groovesville/BMI — T. Hester)

Produced by Don Davis and arranged beautifully by Johnny Allen, Ron and the group get into the heart of this tender, inspired r&b ballad that shimmers all over with the smell of success. Go with his super voice and watch it soar. Flip: No info. available.

LILY TOMLIN (Polydor PD 14283)

Detroit City (2:40) (Omnipotent/BMI — C. Guest, E. Pomerantz)

Richard Perry has produced a superior Motown-flavored ripoff, dubbed a bicentennial release — Lily gets down and tells it like it is about what it's like to come from the motor city — and the result is a piece of high comedy. Brilliant work, hats off to Lily and Mr. Perry! Bound to cause a big stir! Flip: Edith Ann (Two parts — 2:00 & 3:00).

PETER NERO (Arista AS 0125)

Theme From The Young And The Restless (3:02) (Screen Gems/Columbia/BMI — B. DeVorzon, P. Botkin Jr.)

Peter should score heavily mor with this sensitive interpretation and scoring from the film. A lovely theme, treated with class and elegance by one of music's most talented and versatile pianists. Flip: Stevie Wonder's "Supersition" (3:30).

MICHAEL QUATRO (United Artists UA-XW 672-Y)

In Collaboration With The Gods (Theme) (3:33) (Seldak/ASCAP — M. Quatro)

One of the most talented classical-rock keyboard artists and composers on the scene today, Michael has penned a theme that should endure with the finest of classical themes, embellished by super lead guitar work, moog, and drum tracks. Sensitivity inherent in this guy's work is amazing — get on it today! The theme from Michaels' superior UA lp. Flip: No info. available.

GILBERT O'SULLIVAN (MAM/London 5N-3644)

I Don't Love You But I Think I Like You (3:10) (MAM/ASCAP — G. O'Sullivan)

Produced by Gordon Mills and arranged by H.B. Barnum, Gilbert has released perhaps his most accessible, uptempo pop rocker yet. Fine sax work, lead guitar and rhythm tracks supplement Gilbert's terrific lyrical sense. This should hit big in all markets. Flip: No info. available.

THE 21ST CENTURY (RCA PB-10364)

Child (3:25) (Kizzie/ASCAP — M. Smith)

Produced by Mark Davis and Alonzo Martin with fine string arrangements by Tom Baird, this group of talented young men have people talking about a new Jackson Five emerging on the scene — unusually inspired vocal stylings are in these grooves, thanks to a fine Marvin Smith tune. Should be hot on your list this week. Super job, gents! Flip: See My Love Growin' Old (4:15).

RICHARD "POPCORN" WYLIE (ABC 12124)

Georgia's After Hours (3:16) (Dozier/Aandika/BMI — Dozier/Wylie/Jackson)

A funky, professional production by McKinley Jackson, this unavoidable disk has one of the heaviest rhythm tracks of the summer, and a gutsy vocal makes the disk a stone r&b hit with good pop crossover potential. Flip: No info. available.

pop picks

THE PROUD ONE — The Osmonds — MGM M3G-4493 — Producer: Mike Curb — List: 6.98

With "The Proud One" The Osmonds have effectively rid themselves of the teenybop tag and entered a strong adult stance. The music is in the solid Osmond harmony range, but the overall dimension of each individual number showcases an appeal that knows no age limitations. Top listens in this new phase of the Osmond's career include "Take Love If Ever You Find Love," "Where Are You Going To My Love" and "Where Would I Be Without You." The Osmond's latest on disk is a bold, adult musical step.

THE BEST OF ISAAC HAYES — Isaac Hayes — Enterprise ENS 7510 — List: 6.98

Isaac Hayes is the master musical sculptor. He can take the basics of rhythm and funk and mold them into varying shades of jump and laidback. On this greatest hits package, the true Hayes' genius is seen in proper perspective as his master strokes weave in and out of move and mellow. For the more subtle in you there's "Never Can Say Goodbye" and "By The Time I Get To Phoenix," while the straight ahead charge of "Theme From Shaft" waxes instant classic in the world of funky head on. On this package Isaac Hayes does it all.

WHITE LIGHTNIN' — White Lightnin' — Island ILPS 9325 — Producer: Felix Pappalardi — List: 6.98

It's the bump and grind being wrung for all its worth on "White Lightnin'." The primitive elements weave a spell that transcends the earthy nature of the genre to make even a simple ballad multi-dimensional and true to the roots. Top cuts worthy of the creative diversification tag include "Return To The Underground," "Wild In The Streets" and "Shotgun Rider." Music with a stealth as well as bite that belongs on your turntable. Why? Give a listen and you'll know the wisdom behind this musical superior.

COTTON, LLOYD AND CHRISTIAN — Cotton, Lloyd and Christian — 20th Century T-487 — Producers: Mike Curb and Michael Lloyd — List: 6.98

This is the complete pop album. Within the confines of this debut album Cotton, Lloyd and Christian have managed to integrate every conceivable element of the pop medium into their songs. Tight, well-placed harmonies. Lush orchestrated backgrounds and sparse rock trappings. It's all here. Top listens include "Don't Play With The One Who Loves You," "You're Gonna Find Love" and a surprisingly different foray into the rock and roll world of "Tommy." Cotton, Lloyd and Christian is music gotten down to a science.

RUSSELL MORRIS — Russell Morris — RCA APL-1073 — Producer: Edward Germano — List: 6.98

Russell Morris is an exponent of the country-folk ballad. His workmanship and professionalism are more than evident on this album as he shows his ability at laidback as well as mild rockers. Top cuts on this album include "Don't Rock The Boat," "When The Mockingbird Sings" and "Miss Rock 'N Roll." A musician that can do it all is a bargain and a half nowadays, and these efforts of Russell Morris are easily twice that again.

CALICO — Calico — United Artists UA LA 454-G — Producer: Allen Reynolds — List: 6.98

Calico is a by-product of the intermixing of country and folk music. On their debut album the country's in their instrumental work while a Lightfoot-Loggins' quality dominates the vocals. This light series of ballads straddles the fine line of too laidback and the end result proves interesting without being banal. Top easy listens include "Come On Down To Texas," "The Great American Dream" and "You Can Only Say So Much." The best argument in the world for leaving the boy in the country.

THE ALBUM OF THE SOUNDTRACK OF THE TRAILER OF THE FILM MONTY PYTHON AND THE HOLY GRAIL — Monty Python — Arista AL 4050 — Producer: Monty Python — List: 6.98

It's wacko time again as the English masters of mirth jump into the realm of bananas with this soundtrack from their recent cinematic release. The off-the-wall shots come thick and fast this outing as the likes of "The Ballad Of The Towering Inferno," "The Ballad Of Herbie Rides Again" and "The Ballad Of The Greater London Re-Development Plan For Haringey" are milked for every obtuse laugh imaginable. Monty Python is for people who want to get their yocks off.

FOX — Fox — Ariola America/GTO ST 50001 — Producer: Kenny Young — List: 6.98

The spirited, pouting vocals of Noosha are the springboard to musical delight via the first recording effort by Fox. Tight instrumentals combine with the aforementioned singing efforts to turn in an exotic sounding series of pop and ballad numbers. While all cuts go over well, particular attention should be paid to "Imagine Me — Imagine You," "Pisces Babies" and a professional going over of the classic "Love Letters." Fox is a damned good listen. That's all the praise necessary.

SOUTHBOUND AND GONE — J.D. Blackfoot — Fantasy F-9487 — Producer: J.D. Blackfoot — List: 6.98

It's music of the backwoods and far away on "Southbound And Gone" as J.D. Blackfoot and his skintight backing unit get forcefully into a series of rock and ballad numbers that are far and away out of the city limits. Top back-to-nature interludes include "Dove On The Ocean," "Backwoods Woman" and a crunching rocker, "Sweet Inspiration." Whoever came to the conclusion that solid, listenable music was forged only in the city had better take another listen. This record proves the woods are where it's at.

SOUVENIRS — Demis Roussos — Big Tree BT 89509 — Producer: Demis Roussos — List: 6.98

It's a distinctive musical tool that Demis Roussos wields. On "Souvenirs" Roussos plies his creative thrust in exotic, yet familiar fashion on both soft and uptempo numbers. Stringent instrumentals and the effective use of backing vocals prove major plusses on this disk. Top listens on this album include "Midnight Is The Time I Need You," "From Souvenirs To Souvenirs" and "Trying To Catch The Wind." Foreign shores are often a source of musical delight, and Demis Roussos is no exception.

GENE CORMAN — Gene Corman — Thimble TLP-7 — Producers: Stan Rubin and Gene Corman — List: 6.98

Gene Corman is a lyrical storyteller. He's not merely content to sing his songs; he has to open it up and let you see its very life's blood. On this album songs become musical journeys into outdoors and spirited compositions. Top cuts include "The Tie That Binds Us," "A Thousand Miles Away" and "Red Bird." Gene Corman is music that need never go in search of identity. This album proves that identity is already present.

COUNTRY BOY, CITY MAN — Mr. Cix — Haze LP 75-01 — List: 6.98

The ebb and flow of soul is the topic of "Country Boy, City Man" as Mr. Cix vocally gets to the very heart of this musical matter. Vocals on a similar range to Stevie Wonder mesh well with the taut instrumental backing on all songs, but with particular force put behind "You Don't Have To Be Lonely," "You Can Do That Swang" and an all-out bumper on "Motivation." Once upon a time the soulful music of city and country were never expected to meet. On this aptly titled album the twain have most certainly met.

jazz picks

THE ALADDIN SESSIONS — Lester Young — Blue Note LA 456-H2 — Reissue Prod. — Producer: Michael Cuscuna

Lester Young, a giant of the jazz tenor saxophone, recorded following his, ahem, release from the armed services and basically in small group settings. It includes several young classics, "D. B Blues," "Sax O Be-Bop," "Just Cooling" that have been around but never together in one package. Rock people getting into jazz should be susceptible to Young's tenor work, collectors and jazz freaks should accept this intelligently produced, chronologically listed collection. It fills in a gap of one of the major jazz influences hitherto available in bits and pieces. A major reissue.

CONCIERTO — Jim Hall — CTI 6060 — Prod: Creed Taylor

A graceful LP from the guitarist whose skill and virtuosity has never been more apparent than it is on this recording. Hall has a distinct lyrical style and is given the opportunity to play off the lines of some stellar "sidemen" including Chet Baker, Paul Desmond, Ron Carter, and Steve Gadd. "Concierto de Aranjuez" is a 19 minute undertaking which comprises the whole of side two and is one of Hall's most adventurous experiments. "Concierto" is probably the most satisfying and well rounded releases of Hall's long career.

THE MOONTRANE — Woody Shaw — Muse 5058 — Producer: Michael Cuscuna

Recorded last December, the trumpeter turns in a sparkling performance aided by soloists like Azar Lawrence (sax), Steve Turre (trombone), Onaje Allen Gumbs (piano), Buster Williams, and Cecil McBee (bass). All are featured prominently while Shaw's playing remains energetic and creative throughout. A finely crafted LP where each player's performance reinforces the next while Shaw's overriding strength as a soloist and leader keeps it all together.

THE TOMMY FLANAGAN TOKYO RECITAL — Tommy Flanagan — Pablo 2310-724 — Producer: Norman Granz

Flanagan, who for the past several years has been engaged in the deceptively skilled occupation of piano player for Ella Fitzgerald, gets a chance to spread out on what is basically a tribute to Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn. He contrasts the familiar ("A Train," "Caravan") with the more unusual ("All Day Long," "The Intimacy Of The Blues") and it is productive as well as interesting to hear Flanagan versions of Ellington big band material such as "Upper Manhattan Medical Group" and "Mainstem" which underline Strayhorn and Ellington's superiority as melody men and Flanagan's ability to interpret with depth and feeling.

PEACE PIECE AND OTHER PIECES — Bill Evans — Milestone M 47024 — Producer: Orrin Keepnews

Another in the Milestone/Keepnews series of twofer reissues but this one gives an additional bonus in that the entire second album consists of previously unissued tracks, mostly with pianist Evans, Paul Chambers, bass, and Philly Joe Jones, drums. As these were his Miles Davis group colleagues there is considerable rapport and as it was a casual session most of the titles are familiar and early Davis repertoire. Sides one and two are from the Riverside "Everybody Dig Bill Evans" 1958 release. A maverick original of jazz during some of his better times.

IN CONCERT IN JAPAN — The N.Y. Jazz Quartet — Salvation 703 — Prod: Ron Carter

Last Apr., this foursome of Ron Carter, Ben Riley, Roland Hanna, and Frank Wess known as the N.Y. Jazz Quartet toured Japan. This live recording from Tokyo is the result and an example of some exceptional improvisational interplay. While each musician is a virtuoso of his particular instrument, together they combine to form a tightly knit ensemble. Listen to Carter's muscular darting bass lines in "Well You Needn't" where he provides a bedrock undercurrent for the soloists. An exemplary live recording.

In addition to the four Warner-Reprise albums, a separate release is planned for Chrysalis' new Procol Harum album, "Procol's Ninth." The first Procol Harum album in almost a year and a half, "Procol's Ninth" is the first of the band's LPs to feature non-original material

In the field of country music, MCA has two albums set for August release, additions to MCA's on-going "Travlin' Country" campaign. Merle Haggard) and "No Place Else To Go" (by Shel Silverstein). "Home" was produced by Owen Bradley.

Ernest Tubb's album is MCA's other country release. His new album, "Ernest Tubb," includes his single "If You Don't Quit Checkin' Out On Me (I'm Checkin' Out On You)," as well as "Holding Things Together" (by Merle Haggard), "It's Time To Pay The Fiddler" (by Don Wayne and Walter Haynes) and "She's Already Gone" (by Jim Mundy). "Ernest Tubb" was produced by Owen Bradley.

Special stickers, iron-ons and t-shirts are also being prepared. The campaign includes advertisements in consumer and trade publications as well as the airing of radio and television spots in key markets.

Prevue Signs Stonebridge

DETROIT — Stonebridge, a Detroit area rock band, have been signed to a long-term management pact, according to Leo Fenn, president of Prevue Management of Sterling Heights, a suburb of Detroit.

Foreign Vs Domestic Product

"The scheduling of tours can also be a problem. It's obvious that the best time for a European act to tour is when they've got a hit single on the radio. But a lot of times tour scheduling will allow a band to tour America at a certain time.

"A good example of this is Pilot. With 'Magic' being a current hit, now would be the perfect time for them to tour the states but nothing in the way of a tour has been put together. By the time they decide to come here the song may be off the charts and the identification with the group will be lost."

Jane Alsobrook, publicist for ABC (whose Anchor subsidiary handles the English act Ace) stated that even though it varies from group to group there's a certain something that tends to make the publicizing of a foreign act in America easier.

"There's an exotic sort of excitement that surrounds the English acts. Even the less established acts tend to spring out of nowhere. It's that kind of thing that makes the whole publicity thing with non-American acts an easy thing to do."

Gary George, director of publicity at Warner Bros., straddled the question, stating points for both sides in the area of publicity.

"Acts that tour extensively are open for more in the way of publicity push whether they're American or European. European acts usually do longer tours in America and thus are more open for interviews. But there's also the matter of breaking an act regionally. You can do that with an American band whereas a regional breakout by an English act is rare."

Going hand in hand with the publicizing is the marketing approach to selling recorded product. The consensus is that quality of product rather than the origin of the act is the overriding factor in the marketing process.

MCA's Steve Rosenthal likened the process to simply finding an act's market and penetrating it.

"What we do is take an act and learn everything about the kind of audience they attract. What music magazines they read. What radio stations they listen to. What they watch on television. Things like that. Once the definite markets are settled upon we gear our radio play and ad campaigns in that area."

Rosenthal was quick to play up the importance of trade publications in the overall marketing of an act — notably as to the importance of acts getting their picture in the trades and of the all important record reviews.

"The trades reflect what's important to the industry. If you don't aim for the trades then you're, in a sense, cutting yourself out of the industry."

In the case of Island Records the approach to marketing is almost totally in an area of foreign product. The concept of radio airplay and instore displays are an important part of their program.

Commenting on this marketing plan

Bill Valenziano, Island's director of marketing, stated, "Since our artist roster is almost completely foreign and, for the most part, of a specialized appeal, we deal with a quality as opposed to quantity marketing plan. Our product doesn't belong everywhere but I think we work harder than most to expose our product to a broader audience."

According to Valenziano Island makes maximum use of in-house as well as outside publicity and promotion people. Island also makes use of tours and live appearances to enhance the marketing of a particular act.

The third phase of this recording business triangle lies in the area of promotion and, in the case of foreign product, Capitol's present operation serves a good example.

Ray Tusken, Capitol's assistant national promotion manager, remarked that the present promotion approach lies extensively in the field of albums.

"The foreign acts we deal with, for the most part, have some degree of reputation in Europe so we do have a starting point. With acts like Triumvirat we're going for radio airplay, especially on the FM stations, since with an act like that a single is not likely."

"With Sweet and Status Quo the promotion pitch is set on the premise of treating both acts as new even though both have been around a while. As with all of our acts airplay and the promotion of live appearances remains high on our list of promo priorities."

In the area of promotion a little luck and timing go a long way. Arista's Monty Python is just such an example as explained by the label's west coast promo man Marty Goldrod.

"Monty Python has had a fairly strong following in England but has been pretty much a cult item in America. Of late though there's been an upsurge of interest here with the movie playing in this country and the television series being shown in some areas. This has been great for us because it fits in perfectly with our concept of letting people know just who our artists are."

The success of many English acts (such as The Stones, Beatles and Led Zeppelin) and the development of other diverse European elements (i.e., Focus, Golden Earring and Les Variations) shows the results of constant application of the promoting, publicity and marketing arts. The end results are the keenest barometer of the effect, which was pretty well summed up in a statement by Patty Wright who said, "You can't just put an album out on the street and leave it there. You've got to get behind it and push."

2 Singles From Fantasy

LOS ANGELES — Fantasy Records has released two singles — one by vocalist Janice, "I Told You So" b/w "Him"; and one by an r&b vocal trio called Water and Power, "Mr. Weatherman" b/w "If You Don't Want Me."

'WONDER'-FUL GESTURE — Recently in L.A.; Stevie Wonder on behalf of Black Bull, Inc. presented a platinum LP to Sergio Mendes for his contribution to "Fullfillingness' First Finale." Mendes translated into Portugese the lyrics to "Birds Of Beauty," a cut off the album.

AYERS ROCK VISITS CASH BOX — Currently on the road during their first American tour, A&M artists Ayers Rock stopped by the Cash Box offices last week for a brief visit. The Australian group has just released their first single, "Lady Montego," from the A&M album "Ayers Rock." From left to right are Chris Brown, Jimmy Doyle and Stephen Peebles.

RAY CHARLES HAS CREATED

Stephen Stills
Elvin Bishop

HOLLYWOOD BOWL, L.A. — Stephen Stills has maintained, since the demise of CSNY, an essential vitality and freshness in his compositions, always managing in the process to build on his gifted musicianship in personally meaningful, and critically satisfying ways. Now that Stephen has released his first solo album for Columbia, his current repertoire and fellow musicians make for interesting comparisons with his first Atlantic solo LP, released five years ago.

Stills has always had an extraordinary penchant for attracting musicians of high caliber and virtuosity, probably because he himself is so adept at his instrument. The current touring unit consists of a personable co-guitarist named Donnie Dacus, whose consummate skill reminds one of Stills himself; they are both rooted in a strong country tradition, and Dacus' agile picking and slide work make his stage performance and songwriting ability a perfect counterpart to Stills' quick, distinctive style.

Also in the touring band are percussionist supreme Joe Lala, guitarist Rick Roberts, organist Jerry Aeillo, and "English Richie" on drums.

Most people in the music business would insist that to tour behind an album release is essential to building an audience for that artist's music, selling LPs in the process. For Stills, his audience is devoted, and has matured somewhat since the CSNY days. His material stretches a span of time in which distinct creative periods become well-defined.

Particularly interesting was the fact that Stills chose several songs not of his composition for the performance; "Everybody's Talkin'" from the film "Midnight Cowboy," the old blues tune "Crossroads," and, although his choice of chords for Paul McCartney's "Blackbird" was impressionist-oriented, its presence in the set was an eloquent, totally accessible addition, lending a new insight into the finely-structured song.

As a unit, the new Stills band remains, after all consideration, the tightest, most-likely-to-remain-permanent band Stills has assembled, and if Stills and Dacus continue to collaborate as successfully and productively as they have on the new LP, we have seen the formation of a major new songwriting duet.

Two notable questions arise from Stephen's set — more than once Stills had to ask the audience to "listen harder" during his acoustic set, during which time the crowd seemed intent on conversation. Why anyone who pays today's high concert ticket prices would go to a concert and not listen is a wonderment, and poses some interesting questions about mass psychology of concert audiences, or at least their poor manners. Stills' constant conversation with his sound engineer, even while picking, should be dropped from the set — it really didn't sound bad from the audience — but let's allow Stephen his indulgences — at this printing, the tour has ended, and now we can wait for some exciting, new material to take form.

Elvin Bishop continues to play one of the most entertaining brands of rock 'n' roll today. The Capricorn artist has complete mastery of riff mesmerization (similar to the Stones) and uses it to full advantage. Elvin comes out like a cowboy, but leaves like a king, his band wailing away into the night. Few can equal the professionalism of Bishop and his band, and it is to their collective credit that few can match their enthusiasm for music. p.a.

Kool Jazz Festival

SAN DIEGO STADIUM, CA. — Over 70,000 people attended this two-day extravaganza event, with the majority of folks driving down from Los Angeles to enjoy the good music, good vibes and clean, fresh San Diego weather.

On Fri. evening the July moon was high in the sky, with its face shining down in a mysterious laughing expression. The crowd, armed with green flashlights, was caught up with the vibes of the moon when Bobbi Humphrey opened the show. Bobbi played her heart out during the set that featured selections from her "Satin Doll" lp on UA. Part of the problem during her set was that most of the crowd wasn't yet seated, because of the horrendous traffic jam created on the freeway outside the stadium.

Donald Byrd and the Blackbyrds followed with a dazzling show that featured the fine trumpet work of Donald, founder and producer of the Blackbyrds. He worked out with them through a hard drivin' medley which included "I Need You," "City Lights," "I Like To Party," their solid-gold smash "Walkin' In Rhythm," and their latest release on Fantasy, "Flying High."

Harold Melvin and the Bluenotes, minus Harold Melvin and featuring Theodore Pentagrass, turned the city of San Diego wild with "Bad Luck," "The Love I Lost," and "Where Are All My Friends." Harold was missing from the group because he was ill. However, the Bluenotes still put on an entertaining set which featured high-voltage electricity.

Columbia recording artist Freddie Hubbard really blew out his brains for the audience with his cool, bold trumpet ringing through the stadium. Freddie demonstrated why he is one of the hottest trumpet players on the jazz scene today in a tasty set which featured "Put It In Your Pocket," and his latest release on Columbia, "Liquid Love."

Closing the Fri. night show were Gladys Knight and the Pips. All that can be said is: simply incredible. The audience was putting up such a fuss that Gladys and the Pips were overwhelmed by the fans' appreciation for their music. Gladys and the Pips put together the hottest show of the festival when they took everybody on "That Midnight Train To Georgia." Every tune they performed was one red-hot mama, starting off with "I Feel A Song," the oldie but goldie, "Every Beat Of My Heart," and "Imagination."

The real highlight of the show was Gladys' latest single on Buddah, "The Way We Were." Practically everybody in the business has recorded this Barbra Streisand classic, but a couple of exuberant fans summed it up best when one shouted, "Why'd she do that to Barbra Streisand?" The other one answered, "Because she had to." Gladys' version of the tune was powerful, soulful and simply elegant.

Saturday's show started off nicely with Ramsey Lewis opening the bill. Ramsey was very together during his set, which featured his keyboard wizardry. Featured selections included "Hot Dawgit," and the solid-gold single "Sun Goddess," from the gold lp of the same title.

Toshiko Akiyoshi and the Lew Tabackin Big Band did an interesting set featuring the fine keyboard work of Toshiko and the big tenor sound of her husband Lew.

When Stan Getz came on, the lightning that had been putting on a flashing Continued on pg. 22

James Taylor

UNIVERSAL AMPHITHEATRE, L.A. — During James Taylor's first surge of popularity several years ago, critics characterized the renaissance of "mellow music" as somehow a mass denunciation of acid rock and volume for volume's sake. James' music, from one's first listening to "Fire And Rain," provided an essential relief from the energy and explosiveness that characterized music of the period.

When the Warner Brothers recording artist opened his four-evening run at Universal's Amphitheatre last Wednesday (30), however, it became clear that an overwhelming factor in Taylor's continued appeal is his gift for coherent, musically satisfying ballads and blues, and an enormous accessibility as an individual relating to his audience on stage. The opening night crowd, it must be said, was fanatic. And to a large extent, the fanaticism was more than justified, as a group of L.A. studio musicians called The Section, Russ Kunkel on drums, Danny Kootch on guitar, Leland Sklar on bass and Clarence McDonald on piano, formed a unified, well-balanced base for Taylor's extensions.

Songs included in James' set, which consisted of two parts separated by an intermission, were: "Gorilla" from James' latest WB album, "Lo And Behold,"

"Lighthouse," "Don't Let Me Be Lonely Tonight," "How Sweet It is" (James' version of this Holland-Dozier tune is well constructed and effective, and is bulleted this week on Cash Box's charts at number 9), and "Walking Man."

Following the intermission, James introduced "some friends," namely Graham Nash and David Crosby, who, after a tumultuous welcome (the duo open their own Amphitheatre engagement shortly) lent their able assistance to the ensemble for "Mexico," and "Lighthouse," waved, and departed. What a nice surprise, and indicative of the excitement and fullness their voices can lend to James' own style.

At this point, it seems as though a James Taylor concert means far more than reminiscence about the fine songs we associate with the past; he is a continuing force remaining interpretive and sensitive in his personal statements, or indulging in raucous, tight rock and roll. On an extended version of "Walking On A Country Road," James' acoustic picking and extemporaneous syllabic patter wove a spell over the chilly night — when people go home after a James Taylor concert, they go home closer together. His music is, simply, music to snuggle up with. p.a.

The Tubes

THE ROXY, L.A. — There's an off the wall approach to doing things that is best described as gonzo. In the realm of journalism gonzo is likened to taking your temperature rectally every fifteen minutes and putting the results in your story. In music gonzo is The Tubes and in a recent Roxy stand this A&M stab at parts unknown put their best erratic foot forward.

The Tube's rock-theatric send up of middle class values (with particular emphasis placed on McLuhan's hypnotic eye) succeeded in lancing the absurdist vein in just about every television cliché as the likes of police and doctor shows fell under The Tubes stage hammer.

The obvious theatrical presence was offset in fine fashion by a solid rock music nucleus that gives rise to the theory that The Tubes are, first and foremost, a rock and roll band.

During the course of the evening the troop's excursion in the twisted twilight world beyond semonette some strictly left field manifestations made themselves visible. "Mondo Bondage," in particular proved an interesting coupling of the stage and music as a pair of S and M garbed leatheroids went at it to the accompaniment of an almost symphonic metal ode.

One of the more overt efforts of the set was a nightmarish takeoff on doctor shows as a surgeon (owing more to Dr. Frankenstein than Spock) divested a Les Paul guitar of its pregnancy via a simulated bloodletting with an electric chain-

Norman Connors

TOP OF THE GATE, NYC — Among today's more tasteful jazz drummers, there are a few who equal their playing ability with their leadership ability. Of course there are Art Blakey and Elvin Jones in the old school, then there's Billy Cobham and now there's Norman Connors. Connors is young and athletic, and when he plays, a smile of ecstatic satisfaction comes across his face. The music is straightforward enough, basically jazz with shades of the blues and pop.

A fault in timing left the band without a bass player for the first set, however, Connors' drumming and the strong conga playing of Leo Clark offset the Continued on pg. 22 saw.

The climax of the evening's journey into the dark recesses was a grand guignol of the pop star system as superstar Quay Lewd (resplendent in glitter, pills, mile high platforms and simulated manhood) turned "White Punks on Dope" into a shades of hades three ring circus reminiscent of every orgy you were so unfortunate enough to miss. In the true spirit of self destructiveness Lewd is crushed under the weight of collapsing amps; only to return a decrepit mess to carry on.

As the curtain fell a vocal, albeit sauced, refrain was heard from The Roxy's din.

"What the hell was that!"

The Tubes at The Roxy were the people your parents warned you about. m.s.

Hirth Martinez

THE ROXY, L.A. — There's an almost stereotypical aura that surrounds an acoustic folkie. Even before he hits the stage the tendency is to envision laid-back odes to love and the trials and tribulations of the road. And so it was surprise city at Hirth Martinez's recent Roxy set-to when the subject matter went literally out of this world.

Martinez (by way of Warner Bros.) is an exponent of music of mind and thought. His demeanor (an in control aloofness) was the springboard from which tales of outer space and chance encounters of a higher mental plane filled the room's confines.

It quickly became obvious that Martinez has been around a while as his continuous straying from the basic folk stance made use of blues, rock and dixieland strains to get his musical point across.

Lyrical Martinez made inroads into psychic thought as the most simplistic of ballads took on forms that challenged the audience to comprehend the true depth and dimension of each composition.

The overriding theme of this all too short excursion into space and time was Martinez's mastery of the audience. It was as if Martinez knew his power at this musical moment; how much to give them and how much to hold back.

Martinez was in command. It was that simple. m.s.

Supremes Named AHA Ambassadors

HOLLYWOOD — The Supremes — Mary Wilson, Cindy Birdsong, and Scherrie Payne — have been named the American Heart Association's official "1976 American Heart Ambassadors," according to an announcement by the AHA's national president, Dr. Elliot Rapaport, from his New York headquarters.

In that connection The Supremes have already started taping a series of television and radio spots to be used by the AHA during its fund-raising campaign in Feb. 1976.

During Jan. and Feb., The Supremes will tour various key cities in the AHA's behalf.

light show earlier in the evening turned to rain. The rain, however, didn't stop Stan as the veteran and super-talented saxophonist overcame it all by putting on a lively and spirited set.

One thing for sure: the rain stopped for the Isleys. How can anybody compete with "Fight The Power"? And that's just what the Isleys did, as they opened their show with their number 1 blockbuster. The Isleys, dressed in startling pink, yellow, red and gold costumes, tore up the show with their powerful and high energy sounds. Even though the group excels in high energy music, Ralph Isley really can croon on ballads, which he did quite beautifully on "Hello, It's Me," and "For The Love Of You." For their finale Ernie Isley led the shock waves with his shoot-'em-up guitar work on "Who's That Lady."

The first lady of soul, Miss Aretha Franklin, closed the festivities on Sat., and hot damn, the lady was right on. When Aretha wailed, the crowd howled with her. Aretha got down and preached on such numbers as "A Song For You" and "Nothing Like The Real Thing." When the crowd yelled for "Rock Steady," Aretha did not deny them; she swung her hips and did a little dance as she sang her big golden hit of the past. Aretha closed her soulful and righteous show with "Gotta Find Me An Angel" and "Dr. Feelgood."

20th Sets C,L&C Promo Campaign

HOLLYWOOD — 20th Century Records has unveiled an extensive promotional and marketing campaign in conjunction with the release of debut album by Cotton, Lloyd & Christian, now being shipped, and the single culled from the lp, "I Go To Pieces." Album was produced by Mike Curb and Michael Lloyd and features seven original songs by group members Darryl Cotton, Michael Lloyd and Chris Christian.

Cotton was formerly lead vocalist and founder of Zoot, Australia's top group for several years with eight top-ten records in a row to their credit. As a record producer, Michael Lloyd has been awarded nineteen gold records and a Grammy award. Chris Christian has played guitar for Jerry Reed and Wayne Newton and has written songs for a number of artists including Elvis Presley.

absence. In the second set, with the aid of a bass player, the band exploded. The angelic voice of Jean Carn bridged all ranges from high pitch operatic down to a deep blues (as in the group's version of "Stormy Monday"). She lulled the audience with her soft, rolling, vibrato one minute, quaking their souls with her ripping rhythm and blues the next. In addition to Connors' drumming, the show also proved him a more than adequate singer, very much reminiscent of the style of Leon Thomas. Rounding out the group was Elmer Gibson (keyboards), Shunzo Cno (trumpet), Carter Jefferson (tenor and soprano saxes), and Gary Deberry who filled in nicely on bass, having never played with the group before.

Norman Connor's past included time with Pharoah Sanders and there is little doubt that some of the Pharoah's spiritual flair in music has been imbedded in Norman's style. Connors' new LP "Saturday Night Special" is on the Buddah label and is as high an experience as his live performance.

Bowl To Celebrate 1500th Show With Beethoven Aug. 9

HOLLYWOOD — Hollywood's most famous landmark — the Hollywood Bowl — will celebrate its 1,500th Los Angeles Philharmonic performance with a special Beethoven program on Sat. Aug. 9. The Philharmonic will be conducted by Lukas Foss, with pianist Van Cliburn as soloist. Celebrities of the entertainment world and leading public officials will be among the audience of over 17,000 attending this event.

Special guests will include famous names of the musical world who have performed at the Bowl in the past, plus celebrities from motion pictures and television, many of whom have filmed scenes at the spectacular amphitheater that covers 116 acres in the center of Hollywood.

Suitable weather for the event seems assured since there have been only three concerts postponed by rain in the 54-year history of the city's most famous outdoor theater.

Noted for special events such as the July Fourth concerts, Musical Marathons, Handel, Tchaikovsky and Beethoven "spectaculars" (each complete with fireworks), the Bowl has been the scene of memorable musical evenings ranging from the professional debut of Mario Lanza to appearances by the Bolshoi and Royal Ballet Companies.

Among the renowned artists to perform there have been Jascha Heifetz, Isaac Stern, Gregor Piatigorsky, Rudolf Nureyev, Margot Fonteyn, Lily Pons, Beverly Sills, Kirsten Flagstad and Arthur Rubinstein; the conductors range from Sir Thomas Beecham and Igor Stravinsky to Karajan, Bernstein, Ormandy and Mehta; and popular artists include Barbra Streisand, Frank Sinatra, The Beatles, Elton John and The Rolling Stones.

The Bowl has also been the scene of public appearances by presidents Eisenhower and Franklin D. Roosevelt, and celebrities such as Charles Lindbergh and Bob Hope.

Opened in 1922 when the area was covered by sagebrush and known as Daisy Dell, the project was financed by public contributions raised by thousands of penny banks placed in stores and office buildings. The internationally famous theater had its dark moments, particularly in 1951 when bankruptcy forced it to suspend operations. However, under the leadership of Mrs. Norman Chandler, the music-loving, public spirited citizens of Los Angeles joined with many famous musicians in coming to the Bowl's rescue.

Since Ernest Fleischmann, former general manager of the London Symphony Orchestra, took over in 1969 as artistic director, the Bowl has acquired a new sound system, extended its season, and attracted record-breaking audiences. All of this augurs well for the future popularity of classical music in southern California and around the world.

"Have a relly nive day"?? Beautiful computer contribution. It was funny, actually; I didn't think my accent was that thick!

Love those letters; please keep them coming to Bob in New York and to me in Los Angeles, and we thank you.

Last June 17 the U.S. Supreme Court ruled on the issue of whether or not a restaurateur can use the radio to provide music for restaurant patrons without violating copyright laws. The ruling was in favor of the restaurant owner, George Aiken, who operates a fast-food restaurant in downtown Pittsburgh; the ruling, very briefly, states that the restaurant owner did not "perform" the plaintiff's copyrighted musical compositions (at issue in the complaint were "The More I See You," owned by Twentieth Century Music Corp. (TCM) and "Me And My Shadow," owned by Mary M. Bourne) merely by turning on the radio. Radio has been ruled to be removed from actual performance and thereby turning on the radio does not provide a performance for paying customers in a restaurant.

Additionally, the point was made in the court's decision that human actuation of electronic receiving equipment merely makes audible elements which are already in the air to persons within hearing distance, and does not "perform" within the meaning of the copyright law.

The existing copyright act, enacted 66 years ago in 1909, is currently under review for proposed changes in congressional hearings.

Full text of the decision can be found in the Congressional Record; refer to "Twentieth Century Music Corporation, et al. v. Aiken," No. 74-452, decided June 17, 1975, 500F 2nd 127, affirmed.

While in the Windy City last weekend for a twenty-year family reunion (all those little lady cousins are delightfully grown up now!) I visited with John Platt, program director of WXRT-FM, by aesthetic consensus the best AOR-progressive rock station in the Chicago market. Platt and his cohorts Seth Mason and Bob Shulman are refugees from the format change at Chicago's WGLD, which used to be free-form progressive back when progressive was really free-form-new and therefore unformatted. WXRT broadcasts between 6 p.m. and 5 a.m. daily a fine blend of, as Platt calls it, "mainstream progressive"; which essentially means that programming features selections of all kinds of music providing they are accessible to most of their listeners. Platt sees the present programming as an evolution of free-form that has developed the best elements of free-form without falling into the rut of trying to out-hip the audience. Spots used on WXRT are all live with the possible exception of a staff-produced music bed, and Platt finds this does not inhibit advertisers very much: "On the contrary, they have developed a great deal of respect for our policy; the live and personal spots lend more credibility to sponsor's products," John told me.

WXRT broadcasts foreign language and ethnic programming between 5 a.m. and 6 p.m., making for strange air-fellows — but in the prime time "fine rock" programming, WXRT emerges as a fine contrast to "Saturday night under the lights" shrieks and to the inner-ear offensiveness of top 40 mania.

Probably one of the most significant developments in Chicago radio is the emergence of WMAQ from the depths of a ten-year loser for NBC to the top U.S. country station and Chicago's #3 TSA station in the short period since the beginning of the year. Operations manager and music director Bob Pittman is the driving energy of the station's meteoric rise from the Chicago subterraneans, and even as we talked in the waning hours of a long Saturday night he was thinking of ways to be #1 in Chicago overall.

Pittman blends elements of his background in social psychology, broadcasting market research and programming to arrive at a very simple formula: "Give people what they want," says Pittman; "once that basic concept is understood, everything I have done here becomes clear. We went to a country format because my research shows country as the most popular programming vehicle, our playlist reflects the top 25 country singles, we give away money, and our on-the-air personalities relate to the listener on a one-to-one basis."

The people in control of WMAQ's purse strings are not at all reluctant to part with the money offered to listeners; after all, when a station is out of the red for the first time in over ten years, it's very logical. Additionally, the NBC scale is one of the highest and allows Pittman to procure the best on-the-air personages available.

Prior to our successful conversation, I spent several hours during different parts of the day listening to WMAQ; the sound is clean and consistent, although I personally dislike the tightly rotated playlist concept. I asked Bob about this, and he made an interesting point: "Twenty-five percent of the people in Chicago at any one time are transients; additionally, our signal is very strong, reaching a large part of the mid-west and thereby reaches an even more transient audience. We get a lot of response from truck drivers," Pittman stated, going on to describe the extended-area weather/road condition reports WMAQ airs to assist them.

WMAQ under Bob Pittman is not the traditional country station; he makes mention that Nashville in particular has raised eyebrows and promotion people find Pittman is not the "good old boy" type of country programmer. "Chicago is not Nashville," correctly states Bob, "and we don't feel obligated or compelled to 'break new product'." Pittman is a research/ratings oriented pragmatist, and WMAQ's first book as a country-formatted station has borne out the success of his approach.

Thanks to Russell Guy of 4 BK in Brisbane, Australia, for your letter. Russell asked about Jose Feliciano's concert bits that satirize AM and FM jocks mentioned in this column a few weeks back. I contacted David Brokaw, Jose's public relations rep here in L.A., who will tape Jose's satirizations at the Troubador next week and send it to you. Jose will be Down Under Sept. 2 through 17, so you can catch him there also. Again, Russell, thanks for the letter from the other side of the world to the other side of the world.

More details have become available about KRLA's "Good Old Radio Show" which will air Sept. 20-21 to raise funds for hemophilia research. The two-day nostalgia audio festival will be produced by Frank Bresee, whose "Golden Days of Radio" broadcasts are heard internationally on the Armed Forces Radio-TV Service; the director will be Doc Siegel, audio engineer and mixer currently with Krofft Productions, a radio veteran of 36 years. Art Laboe will present a tribute to "The Silver Days of Radio" with a five-hour oldies-but-goodies segment.

Earth News Radio is now syndicated on 242 stations in all parts of the U.S., making it the largest sponsored news syndication in the country. Earth News is specifically directed to young audiences, presenting interviews with unusual people involved in unusually interesting things; Lenny's daughter Kitty Bruce, McCartney, Norman Lear and Uri Geller have been interviewed in past Earth News segments.

The voice of Earth News is that of Lew Erwin, the voice that gave the "Credibility Gap" its credibility back in 1968 at its inception at KRLA in 1968 and on the air at KDAY a few years back. Lew's delivery of Earth News makes a fine union of creative forces.

Those interested in making contact with Lew may do so at Earth News' Hollywood editorial office at 1515 Crossroads of the World, Room 106, Los Angeles, Ca. 90028 or by phone at 213-620-2545. Earth News Radio president James Brown takes care of business from his Malibu beach house and you can reach him at 213-457-2547. I'll bet James has a long extension on his phone!

Changes at KMET, effective immediately: Ms Raechel joins KMET as music director and will also be on the air Sat. and Sun. from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Ms Raechel Donahue, widow of the late Tom Donahue, has been on KSAN for the past few years. Joe Collins, previously KMET music director and part-time spinner of disks, now has his own show daily from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in addition to his Sun. show.

Additionally, Flo and Eddie have recently signed with Columbia; their recording and touring demands are such that they will no longer be able to do their regular two-hour Sun. "Flo and Eddie By The Fireside." Morning man B. Mitch Reed will take over the two-hour Sun. evening show. Program director Shadoe Stevens made the changes.

KMET update: Steven Clean has left KMET; according to p.d. Shadoe Stevens, "Steven left because he feels that he could no longer comply with station policy and still be creative." So the lineup looks like this: BMR 6-10 a.m., Miz Raechel 10-2, Shadoe 2-6 p.m., Mary Turner 6-10 p.m., Joe Collins 10 p.m.-2 a.m., and Doyle continues the 2-6 a.m. shift.

"The only time it gets a little out of hand is when someone brings thirty people with them to visit at the station," said K-WEST's Richard Kimble in describing the relatively large K-WEST studio; Richard was among the family friends (who also happen to be scattered throughout the music business) who gathered at Ken and Terry Mansfield's house to listen to the just-completed Hill (Band) lp, which Ken produced. After eating two plates worth of the veritable feast prepared by the band members' ladies we found ourselves immobilized and content to lean on the piano at what once was Lash LaRue's house. Among the smiling faces visiting were Waylon Jennings, Jessi Colter, Tompall, Johnna Yurcic, Kinky Friedman and his sister, Roger McGuinn, Jeanine Possell (assistant Capitol a&r-international), tee-totaling Bob Kirsch from Billboard, and most importantly Gary Hill and the band, the honorees of the gathering.

"The Concert From Fantasy Park" is now heard on 60 stations throughout the U.S. and Canada. The 48-hour syndicated special is hosted by Rod Serling. The late (early) genius of spatial and temporal subjectivities presents a showcase of over 40 of rock and roll's best artists in a recreated outdoor festival setting that is authentic in sound and structure. "Fantasy Park" was Serling's last undertaking before his death.

The concert (it even faked me out) is syndicated by the McLendon Corporation, Dallas, Texas and the phone is 214-651-1010; speak to Bart McLendon (general manager of KNUS and executive producer of the Fantasy Park special) or Steve Blackson. Steve told me that many of the stations have picked up their rerun options as a result of listener response, advertiser response, and positive ratings shares.

KKDJ is blending form with function in their "Great Grocery Rebate" promotion; listeners send in their grocery receipt with name, address and phone number. When their name is called on the air, KKDJ will rebate the bread bread if the person calls the station within five minutes. During the initial week, approximately $2,000 was rebated to entrants; at the close of the promotion one winner will be selected from all entrants to receive a freezer-ready full hind-quarter of beef.

There have been similar investigations by the Canadian Radio-Television Commission (CRTC) and the Quebec government which leads observers to believe that non-Canadian record firms operating in Canada are in store for a government squeeze — from the Ontario government at least.

Apparently Ontario's Ministry of Industry and Tourism is in the process of preparing a study, part of which has already indicated that they have discovered that out of 46,000,000 records sold in Canada during 1974, only 8% had qualified as having Canadian content. It was also revealed that out of nineteen recording firms in Canada, only five are completely Canadian-owned. Sixteen of these are in Ontario and the remaining three in Quebec. It was also discovered that records and tapes sold in Canada last year amounted to a wholesale value of $131,700,000 with 41% of that business taking place in Ontario.

D.I.R. B'casting Of London Launches Live Concert Series

HOLLYWOOD — D.I.R. Broadcasting will inaugurate a self-produced "live" concert series from Britain, dubbed "British Biscuit" to begin in late August. The announcement was made recently by Bob Meyrowitz, Alan Steinberg and Peter Kauff, principals of D.I.R.

To be syndicated over 175 radio stations once a month, the program will replace the previously-syndicated "BBC Presents." Former Spencer Davis group member Muff Winwood will coordinate the program for D.I.R. in Great Britain.

Meyrowitz noted, "The move into self-production of the concerts from Britain is simply a natural step in the evolutionary growth of our company, and is certainly not meant to reflect on the quality of the BBC-produced 'live' concerts. Furthermore, we're very happy to have such a talented, respected and knowledgeable member of the music community as Muff Winwood join the D.I.R. family, and with his assistance, we're positive 'British Biscuit' will be a consistent winner."

The new show is the third in-house produced and nationally syndicated radio show for D.I.R., the others being the "King Biscuit Flower Hour" and "With Mary," the recently instituted music and talk show. The new weekly alignment finds "With Mary" being aired on the first and third Sunday of each month, "King Biscuit" on the second and last Sunday, and the new "British Biscuit" also aired on the third Sunday.

The guest stars on the premiere presentation of "British Biscuit" will be announced shortly.

'Orange '75' Planned For August: Largest Europe Rock Fest Of '75

PARIS — "Orange '75," a three-day rock festival billed as Europe's largest live-music event this year, has been planned by R.T.L. Direction Des Varietes of Paris, and will take place for three days, August 15-17, at the Roman theater of Orange.

Groups scheduled to appear on the bill are: Jess Roden, Fairport Convention, John Cale and Nico, Eric Burdon and Bad Company on August 15, Dr. Feelgood, Zebra, John Martyn, Ginger Baker, Tangerine Dream, and Procol Harum on the 16th, and Climax Blues Band, Renaissance, Soft Machine, Wishbone Ash, Mahavishnu John McLaughlin and Lou Reed on the 17th.

A 25,000 watt Showco P.A. system is being installed for the event to ensure high-quality sound for those in attendance, and a nearby camping site will accommodate 2,000 people free of charge. Food and drink will be available for purchase at competitive prices. Price for

The report has apparently brought out that albums, produced with Canadian master tapes, averaged $1.00 in royalties while an album produced with a U.S. master returned a royalty of 50 cents. The study will apparently report that "The cost advantage is very significant and is unfair to Canadian artists and producers and that it should be eliminated." Of the 46,000,000 records sold in the country last year, 90% were manufactured with imported master sound tapes, with royalties later paid to non-Canadian countries — mainly the U.S.

ON HIS NEW CROSSOVER SINGLE #981 from the HIT L.P. RENAISSANCE #9005

DOOBIE BROTHERS COVER THE GLOBE — The Doobie Brothers' latest Warner Brothers' lp, "Stampede," has been the subject of an intensive international promotion and publicity campaign, utilizing billboards in five major cities and other coordinated efforts to increase worldwide consumer awareness of the band and the new album. Billboards featuring "Stampede" cover art were erected at the beginning of July in London (Trafalgar Square); Paris (L'Opera); Hamburg (Mainstation); Tokyo (Ginza); and Sydney. All will run for at least two months. The project was overseen by Burbank's international creative services department, which coordinated timing, locale, duration, and art for the campaign. Seen above are selected activities from the promotional effort. Upon release of the lp, the Burbank-based department sent the lp, with a personal letter, to over 250 press reviewers throughout the world, including Soviet satellite countries. Also circulated by the Burbank department was a filmclip of two numbers from "Stampede," "Take Me In Your Arms" and "Neil's Fandango," which was shot by the LA-based firm of Rock and Reel. In addition, various countries were targets for national campaigns on the band and lp. In England, two western-style riders canvassed major seaside resort towns in the southeast and northwest throughout July, handing out discount-vouchers for the purchase of all Doobie catalog. In Japan, "Stampede" stickers were bound into copies of the top music weekly, in conjunction with the installation of the billboard and other prominent advertising. The campaign appears to be achieving its objectives; "Stampede" has reached the top twenty lp charts in both England and France, and was just last week certified gold by the Australian record association. In conjunction with the international activity, the Doobie Brothers have a world tour tentatively scheduled for the beginning of next year.

r&b ingredients

The r&b thing continues to roll along hot and heavy in the city of Los Angeles. Had a great time down in San Diego over the weekend at the Kool Jazz Festival. The shows were dyn-o-mite. George Wein and company have to be congratulated for putting on such a fine event. I think the 70,000 screaming fans that were there would agree.

Immediately following the festival, and after a brief stop in T.J. for some goodies, I headed to Disneyland for the Blue Magic and Major Harris' opening. Atlantic Records and Edward Windsor Wright threw a lovely little party for W.M.O.T. Productions, held in Club 33 of New Orleans Square. There to greet and honor Blue Magic and the Major and his wife Jeanette were the Atlantic guys, including Bob Greenberg, George Furness, Barry Freeman and Bob Emmer. Also on hand were Allan Rubens, president of W.M.O.T. Productions, Steve Epstein, head of promotion for W.M.O.T., along with Don Mac of KDAY and Edward, Kenn and Bob of EWV.

Had the pleasure of spending one night away from the concert arena to catch Stockton Briggie's production of "Purlie" at the Aquarius Theatre in Hollywood. The show was sensational, with Robert Guillaume, Patti Jo, Barry Smith and Norma Donaldson all wonderful in their roles. The show has great tunes and features a lot of good dancin' and singin'. The run has been extended through Aug. 17, and I'm sure you'll spend an enjoyable evening watching "Purlie."

A couple of members of the Main Ingredient dropped up to the office last week to rap. Luther Simmons and Carl Tompkins stopped by with Paula Batson of RCA. Cuba Gooding was missing; he was in New York on business. Both Luther and Carl have recently moved to the coast, and really enjoy the vibes and weather in California. Currently the guys are happy about the success of "Good Old Days," and are very excited about the new work they have just completed in the studios. The new single, out sometime in Sept., is entitled, "Shame On The World." And according to Luther, it is one bad record. Both guys feel that by moving out to California they will have more time to relax and get in more writing and producing. Each one in the group has plans to do solo lps in the future. Luther also wants to go to acting school; he would eventually like to get some TV and movie work.

The people at RCA are quite busy these days. They have five young but super-talented guys in town called the 21st Century. The kids just finished mixing their first lp for RCA and threw a little party at their hotel during the week to give everybody a sneak preview. The album is very good and some of the fine cuts off the lp, titled "Ahead Of Our Time," include "Tricks Made For Kids," "If By Chance," "The Way We Were," "Does Your Mama Know About This," their most recent hit, "Remember The Rain," their current single, "Child," and the title track "Ahead Of Our Time."

JESS' INGREDIENT PICKS or LEVITT LOVES IT: These singles will make everybody blow their whistles: "Hooked For Life," The Trammys (Atlantic); "Need You," Harlem River Drive (Arista); "Your Love Is Strange," Quiet Elegance (Hi); "Georgia's After Hours," Richard "Popcorn" Wylie (ABC); "The Chicago Theme (Love Loop)," Hubert Laws (CTI); "Sending Out An S.O.S.," Retta Young (All Platinum); "Livin' For The City," Ray Charles (Crossover); "Peace In The Family," The Johnson Family (Atlantic); "Baby Don't Do It," Lyn Collins and The Famous Flames (People); and "Don't Take Your Sweet Lovin' Away," Ghetto Children (Roulette). One new comedy single that I think will be a smash is one by Lily Tomlin entitled "Detroit City," on Polydor.

Some new lps that will tickle the turntables include: Esther Phillips w/Beck (Kudu); Olympic Runner's "Out In Front" (London); Faith, Hope & Charity (RCA); "Low Rent Rendezvous" by Ace Spectrum (Atlantic); Roy Ayers' "A Tear To A Smile" (MGM Polydor); Johnny Bristol's new one, "Feeling The Magic" (MGM); "Look At Me" Moments (Stang); and "Pure Pleasure" Dynamic Superiors (Motown).

Jerry Griffin called over to say the CBS Record's Convention in Toronto was hectic but a stone-gas. Among the artists Jerry said who put together terrific shows for the convention were Bill Withers, Phoebe Snow, Harold Melvin and the Bluenotes and Sly Stone, doing his new single, which will be out next week titled "I Get High On You." . . . Happened to be over at the Motown building and bumped into head promotion man Miller London. The last time I saw Miller he was doing 'the bump' aboard a Greyhound bus on the way back from Concerts By The Sea when CTI artist George Benson was there. Miller said, "Motown is looking very good at the moment." "Glass House" by the Tempts is looking real strong, with more lps being sold even though this is the third hit single from the lp, "A Song For You." Other product doing well, Miller said, was Willie Hutch, Lenny Williams and their new lps, "Ode To My Lady," and "Rise Sleeping Beauty." Miller also thinks Motown should have a blockbuster with its specially priced two-record soundtrack from the movie, "Cooley High." "The movie is doing fantastic business, and so are the lps. Very soon we're going to release the title track from the film, 'It's So Hard To Say Goodbye To Yesterday,' by G.C. Cameron." . . . Isaac Hayes' first lp under an agreement with ABC Records, "Chocolate Chip," has been certified gold by the RIAA . . . An interesting event took place with the mailing of the "Why Can't We Be Friends" War boxes that were sent out the last month. A few of the address labels fell off, and by mistake the post office forwarded them on to the Pentagon, instead of returning them to Bruce Garfield's Far Out Production office. Mayor Maynard Jackson of Atlanta made July 30 "Why Can't We Be Friends" day in Atlanta. The group gave up over 1,000 War-faced frisbees to the kids, and were made honorary citizens for the day in the Georgia capital. . .

Marvin Gaye will be doing a gig at Soldiers Field in Chicago Aug. 9. Miracles have completed a new lp tentatively titled "City Of Angels." Freddie Perrin produced the lp for the Miracles. No release date has been set.

Went backstage for Gil Scott-Heron's opening at the Roxy this week. Gil was in good spirits; his tour has been very successful, including the good vibes he felt when he played at the Brut Music Festival over the 4th at the Take It Easy Ranch in Maryland. Gil is also anxious for the release of his next two lps and single. One is a live lp, and the other will be new material by Gil and Brian Jackson and the Midnight Band. His next single release on Arista will be "Johannesburg." Also on tap for Gil and company is an upcoming tour of Europe starting in Sept.

The results of the awards were taken in a reader's poll conducted by Ebony Magazine with over 2 million tallies collected. The show was produced in conjunction with Johnson Publications and Merv Griffin Productions.

Word has it that a major black musical festival will be coming up in Jamaica sometime in Sept., to coincide with the Holiday Jamaica celebration. During the month there will be several outstanding athletic events to go along with the music festival, which will feature a great array of black talent . . . The O'Jays are coming to California for dates in L.A., Oakland and San Diego. Also appearing on the show with the "Survival" guys will be Minnie Riperton, Ron Banks and the Dramatics and the Moments. Louis Gray is the promoter of this fine entertainment package . . . that's soul. . .

Jerry Boulding of WCHB in Detroit has been in radio for 20 years. For the last ten years he has been a programmer for various stations around the country. Through his years of experience in the radio business Jerry found out in many instances that black radio was behind the times to its 'close cousin' in radio, the top 40 rock station. To find out some of the answers he compiled a text about programming which he entitled, "The Black Cue Format: And Composite Our Theory." "I compiled the book to be a textbook for black radio," Jerry said. "I found through my research that people, especially black people, didn't understand the particular problems black radio stations had. It's only been recently that black radio stations have gotten out of the confinement of the one basic format. Until recently black radio only played rock and roll featuring such artists as Al Green, The Isleys, the Tempts and Stevie Wonder.

"You don't have the variety in black radio like you have in white radio," Jerry added. "You don't have black classical radio, or all black news or all black talk shows. So, for the most part all blacks had were rock and roll stations, if they listened to radio at all."

Through his studies Jerry found out that most of the problems that black stations were having were due to weak programming, with many stations having to go through the trial and error method constantly. Other problems existed with the news department of black stations. One particular problem was due to the fact that many black listeners who live both in the north and south did not read, so black stations had the obligation to these people to give them news, sometimes ignoring a lot of important and various other kinds of news. Further work also discovered that among black stations there was very little knowledge regarding technical matters and how to improve on them like the 'cousins' in Top 40 radio were doing. Jerry said, "examples of this were, 'tune out factors,' 'overplay' and 'burnouts,' 'pigs,' etc." And one of the last things Jerry discovered, which was probably the overall problem many black stations were having, was in how to do research and learn how to let the research work for them and their station.

"Probably one of the most glaring things I found out while doing my book was in the misconception of how the rating services worked. Arbitron is the #1 rating service. Pulse and Hopper are alright but you can't rely solely on their figures. You can use them to back up the Arbitron numbers but they do not have enough value to stand up alone. So, in my book I explain the methodology of Arbitron and their use of sample processing, the diaries, etc. and all the things that help figure ratings. I found out what part of the hour you have to win to get credit for the hour and if and when there is a benefit of a doubt. How to best use public service and religious programs in your format without burying them and how important personalities are to black radio."

Overall Jerry feels that Arbitron does do a very good job. "I am not going to knock them because they do a very good job. But I still think like anything else that nothing is perfect and what I tried to do in my book is show how the ratings are done and also could be improved on." For example if they put out fifty diaries to fifty black stations and they do not come back on time they are not counted. Also it is important to note it doesn't matter if the station is black or white, they simply are not counted. If these diaries aren't completed it doesn't mean that blacks are not listening to the radio, but by this method alone you can't get an accurate measure of audience. So to supplement this Arbitron does phone samplings. However, large and powerful stations in markets use, for example the $5,000 cash giveaway to attract listeners. So in many instances people will say they listen to station XXX because they are listening in to win the money and this station will get credit for a lot of the listeners. "The only way a smaller station has of combating this problem is in really zeroing into the community and trying to excel in servicing their community in the best possible manner." Usually contest diary information is brought to Arbitron by the stations. Arbitron will accept information of these details up to one week after the final date of the survey. A lot of stations don't know this, both black and white, especially black stations, and this is very, very important, Jerry said. "Arbitron will note any contest brought to its attention which covers at least a portion of the survey period which did not run at least 60 days prior to the beginning of the survey period which it was involved in giving away cash and prizes etc. This is done by Arbitron to stop stations from inflating their rating during the time they run contests in their survey period. The programmer, however, can use the ratings to his advantage if he knows how to use them. He has to be aware of these things and be able to anticipate such doings and be ready to get in there and fight for the numbers."

Jerry also added that stations can challenge stations that do this type of inflation gimmick, and if a station is doing this type of activity to inflate their ratings, Arbitron will let everyone in the industry know about it in their publication.

When I asked Jerry about other things going into deciding ratings, he said, "Well, there are also little things that affect ratings like, what you say over the radio, the placement of call letters and what kind of jingles are emphasized."

"What kind of jingles?" I asked. Today the trend is into high energy radio which has basic tempo matched jingles," he said. "Jingles today have to blend and to be smooth in the transition between record and commercial. Also the jingles have to allow the listener to associate the station's call letters to the music without overexposing the jock. In the past black stations felt they needed soul jingles and I ought to know, as I used to make them. But now things have changed and now I think they are a real waste of time and money."

Next week: (Part II of the Black Cue Format)

FIESTAS HAVE RESPECT — Thomas Andre of The Fiestas inks the group's recording contract with Respect Records, a Stax division, in the company of Stax president Jim Stewart. The Fiestas' first release on Respect is just out — "I Can't Shake Your Love (Can't Shake You Loose)." Joining the signing ceremony are (standing, from left) Bobby Moore of The Fiestas; Jim Stewart; the group's producer and manager Randy Stewart; and Fiestas' Tommy Cook, Eddie Morris and Johnny Burton. The Fiestas are perhaps best known for their international hit of 1959, "So Fine," which sold about three million copies.

NO 'BOUT A DOUBT IT: Graham Central Station's Larry Graham (center) is justifiably proud as he poses with Warner Bros. Chairman of the Board Mo Ostin and Stevie Wonder. Graham and the most listened-to Station in America had just completed a special one-night-only performance at the Roxy.

Chet Atkin's 'Atlanta' Released By RCA

NASHVILLE — A song, "The Night Atlanta Burned," which has had an historic past will be released Aug. 5 by RCA Records in a performance by guitarist Chet Atkins.

Originally, the song was composed by an unknown student of a music academy in Atlanta, the slightly charred sheet music having been retrieved from the burned-out academy when General William Tecumseh Sherman put the torch to Atlanta on Nov. 15, 1864.

Thereafter the sheet music was stuck in the case of an old mando-cello and passed through many hands.

Enter John Loudermilk. Once, many years ago, John was riding his bicycle along the street in Durham, N.C., when he heard a man playing a guitar on a porch.

"I had grown up listening to country and western music," recalls Loudermilk, "but this guitar sounded different . . . softer and sweeter . . . and I was later to find out it had catgut strings and was played with the fingers instead of a celluloid pick. I stopped and listened; I couldn't help it. The man spoke to me in a soft Piedmont accent and invited me up on to the porch. That's the way I met Ernest Moon, part-time housepainter and full-time guitarist extraordinaire.

"He had traveled all over the south during his life, riding the boxcars and working for a while here and there, then moving on. He had come upon the mando-cello that had survived Sherman's burning and had learned the several songs that were in the case.

"Mr Ernest had long since lost the mando-cello in a hobo camp, but he still remembered the music and played it for me on the guitar. Mr. Ernest died last year, and it had been many years since I had heard him play it, but it had stuck in my mind, and recently, I put it down on paper as well as my memory served. I think I came close to the original," Loudermilk recalls.

To capture the sound of mando-cello, Chet Atkins created a string quartet. The recording gives Chet a haunting new sound, and the music has a lilt which reminds one of Scott Joplin's music which was to come along much later in history.

Jim Ed and wife Becky moved into their new southern colonial home on a 30-acre spread in Brentwood last July 7. The 5-story home features sweeping circular staircase, fully equipped dance studio for Becky, music room and recording equipment, antiques handpicked by the Browns and Becky's own paintings in oils and watercolors. Jim Ed supervised architectural plans and construction of the house and says emphatically, "I never want to be that busy again" . . . Jack Ward may have ideas of "Stealin'" the first half of the show when he opens the Minnesota State Fair on Aug. 24. "Stealin'" is the singer's latest release on the Mercury label.

From BILLY "CRASH" CRADDOCK'S exploding album, comes a blockbuster single:
"I LOVE THE BLUES AND THE BOOGIE WOOGIE"

ABC-12104

abc Records

singles

T. G. SHEPPARD (Melodyland ME-6016F)

Another Woman (3:07) (Dan Penn — BMI/Buzz Cason — ASCAP) (D. Penn, B. Cason)
From the LP "T. G. Sheppard" comes this driving uptempo tune that sounds destined for top chart action — anyplace. Recommended for immediate and repeat listening. Flip: No info. available.

NARVEL FELTS (ABC/Dot DOA 17569)

Funny How Time Slips Away (3:02) (Tree — BMI) (W. Nelson)
What can you say when it's from the pen of Willie Nelson and the vocal is by Narvel Felts. From the LP "Narvel Felts," this one won't "slip" to the top, it'll make a lot of music on the way. Flip: No info. available.

DICKEY LEE (RCA JH 10361)

Rocky (3:38) (Strawberry Hill — ASCAP) (Jay Stevens)
With a powerful lyric delivered by Dickey, this one sounds like a straight shot for the top. Produced by Roy Dea and Dickey Lee it could be another "Honey" and is recommended for immediate listening. Flip: No info. available.

CHRIS GANTRY (ABC/Dot DOA 17570)

Lily Of The Valley (3:46) (Ensign — BMI) (C. Gantry)
From the LP "Chris Gantry" comes this perfect marriage of production by Gerald Bentley Smith and delivery by Chris Gantry. The lyrics are strong and the arrangement by Harold Bradley are an added bonus. This could be a big one! Flip: No info. available.

SUE THOMPSON (Hickory H354)

Big Mable Murphy (3:10) (Acuff-Rose — BMI) (Dallas Frazier)
Straight from the '20s comes this finger snapping novelty filled with all sorts of good instrumental licks. Sue sings about "Big Mable" giving black eyes to "Little Melvin." The only black thing on this one is the smoke it leaves on its way to the charts. Flip: No info. available.

VERNON OXFORD (RCA JH 10348)

Giving The Pill (2:03) (Combine — BMI) (Bob Ferguson)
Bob Ferguson has written and produced this fast uptempo novelty about a fellow giving the pill to all his girlfriends — since Loretta has said it's okay. There'll be controversy about plays but the more the merrier! An added pleasure is the superb fiddle and guitar play in the track. Flip: No info. available.

KATHY BARNES (MGM M14822)

Shhh (2:49) (Singletree — BMI) (Don Earl)
The story is about letting hurting memories sleep and Kathy tells the story with an uptempo sound that could get good charting. Flip: No info. available.

MARGO SMITH (20th Century TC 2222)

Paper Lovin' (2:33) (Jidobi — BMI) (Margo Smith)
It's a happy bouncing song that Margo sings about finding love notes, like some small treasures, about the house, the sum of which is a happy life. A good bet for strong charting. Flip: No info. available.

BILLY SWAN (Monument ZS 8-8661)

Everything's The Same (Ain't Nothing Changed) (2:34) (Combine — BMI) (Billy Swan)
Everything's the same — Billy hasn't changed — and this one sounds like it will have the same trip to the top as "I Can Help." The sound can't be bagged and it can be "at home" anywhere. Flip: No info. available.

DAVE DUDLEY (UA XW693-Y)

Wave At 'Em Billy Boy (2:42) (Blue Echo — ASCAP) (R. Griff)
Sounds like quarters will jingle in the jukeboxes along with the uptempo piano/tambourine track while Dave belts out the old story that a performer should remember it's the fan that makes him #1. Flip: No info. available.

BRIAN COLLINS (ABC/Dot DOA 17564)

Faithless Love (3:04) (Goldenspread/Benchmark — ASCAP) (J. D. Souther)
Brian, with the help of a solid country rhythm track, along with the wail of a good steel guitar, underlines the woes of a faithless love. A good bet for charting. Flip: No info. available.

KAY ADAMS (Granite G525)

Country Dreamer (2:37) (McCartney/ATV — BMI) (P. & L. McCartney)
Kay captures a bright bouncy sound on this Paul and Linda McCartney-penned tune. Could get good cross-country charting. Flip: No info. available.

WANDA JACKSON (ABC 12116)

I Can't Stand To Hear You Say Goodbye (2:42) (Dunbar — BMI) (R. Pennington)
Wanda knows just how to sing a country song and this is a perfect sample of ability. Produced by Billy Ray Hearn, the title tells the story. A good bet for charting. Flip: No info. available.

LARRY KINGSTON (Warner Bros. WBS 8116)

Bossier City (2:37) (Window — BMI) (Frank Dycus, Larry Kingston)
Larry Kingston comes up with a cajun sound that sounds like a hit sound from "Bossier City." Produced by Allen Reynolds, the tune is already receiving airplay. Flip: No info. available.

REG LINDSAY (Con Brio CB-K 105)

I'd Walk A Mile For A Smile (2:49) (Con Brio — BMI) (Carmon Holland, Clyde Pitts)
A fast uptempo tune, well-dressed with piano sound, is the setting for a strong vocal delivery by Reg. Bill Walker produced this one where, again, the title tells the tale. Flip: No info. available.

C. L. GOODSON (Island 030)

18 Yellow Roses (2:38) (Hudson Bay — BMI) (Bobby Darin)
This cover of the Bobby Darin classic does more than justice to the original. Goodson's sincere vocals form a pleasant counterpoint to the melodic strains of the music and, as a whole, adds up to a pleasant listening experience. Flip: No info. available.

Innovative School At World Wide!

CHICAGO — World Wide Distributors, Inc. hosted a unique and very specialized Seeburg service school on Wed. July 23, relating to troubleshooting and speaker hookups, using the Seeburg "Vogue" model phonographs as demonstration units.

The distributor's Bob Moulder, with Larnell Green lending assistance, conducted the session and eight actual Vogue models were utilized in the presentation, each fixed with a different, specific service problem spanning the following eleven most commonly registered location complaints: "put money in the machine and nothing happens"; "quarters don't work"; "reset light comes on by itself"; "credit light comes on by itself"; "customer only gets one selection for a quarter"; "customers are getting extra selections"; "machine gives wrong selections"; "record rejects without playing"; "sound cuts out"; "machine plays any selection except one;" and "machine scans but doesn't pick up the record."

These complaints, as Harold Schwartz brought out in his introductory remarks to the group, cover a broad range of service problems and represent about 90% of all (phonograph) service calls received.

For the service presentation, Moulder used a troubleshooting guide in chart form, illustrating all of the above-mentioned complaints, with their solutions; and the operator-service personnel assemblage was separated into groups of three following the procedure of checking out each machine, locating the trouble, correcting it and going on to the next.

World Wide geared the school to a limited attendance to assure full individual benefits, but even at that twenty-five operators and servicemen showed up and were very enthusiastic in their participation. Many comments were made to the effect that more knowledge was gained in this session than in most previously held schools! For this reason, World Wide intends to schedule similar sessions in the near future.

High Scores Key New ChiCoin 'Red Baron' 2 Pl.

CC Red Baron 2 Pl.

CHICAGO — Avron Gensburg, Chicago Coin executive vice president, advises that the company's latest 2-player flipper game, "Red Baron," is now available from all authorized factory distributors.

"In addition to exciting ball action and fast-building ultra-high scores, 'Red Baron' offers a number of new flipper game features that have proven to be highly effective in stimulating play," Gensburg said. "One of these is center double spinners, scoring 100, or 1,000 when lit. Another is the A-C-E feature. When the letters A, C and E are lit, the extra line lights for an extra ball. There is also a special lane hole, scoring 500, 5,000 or special when lit. Advance bonus buttons, advance bonus lanes that also score 1,000, double bonus on last ball and a "shoot again when lit" feature all contribute to the exceptionally high scores possible.

"Red Baron's backglass builds player interest with illustrations of authentic World War I Luftwaffe, planes; Fokker, Albatross and Rumpler, a staff car and uniformed flyers," Gensburg observed.

The game is convertible from three-ball to five-ball play, and is adjustable from two players for one quarter to one play for a quarter or three plays for two quarters.

PSE Merges With Tam Specialty; Into New 10,000 Sq. Ft. Plant

SUNNYVALE, CALIF. — Project Support Engineering, an established electronics firm, has expanded its product line and opened a new 10,000 square foot manufacturing plant to produce video games and equipment.

PSE has merged with Tam Specialty Co., also of Sunnyvale, to provide in-house capability for cabinetry and plastics forming. Coupled with their existing equipment and technical know-how, PSE's acquisitions have given them the capability to increase production.

The first game released was a video game table called Scandia. It is equipped with a two or four player elimination game called "Frenzy." Characteristic of the table is the preplanning to accommodate interchangeable logic boards that will allow operators to change games within the table. Another feature in the

Survey Shows Average Net Profit Of Vending Companies Fell In 1974

CHICAGO — Average net profit before income taxes of vending companies dropped to 5.21 percent of sales last year, compared with 6.03 percent in 1973, said Dick Schreiber, president of NAMA.

The results are contained in the annual NAMA Operating Ratio Report compiled for the association by Price Waterhouse & Co. from data supplied by member firms. A total of 155 firms participated, representing a combined sales volume of $2.1 billion.

Profit data varied considerably for firms of different sales volume, with those in the over $10,000,000 category achieving an average net of 5.62 percent and the segment under $250,000 in sales reporting an average of 5.30 percent. Companies with volume between these two segments averaged less than 3 percent of net before taxes on sales, according to the report.

The cost of goods sold, up from 48.01 percent of sales in 1973 to 49.16 in 1974, had a direct effect on net profits since operating expenses were fairly well controlled by management and remained virtually unchanged from 1973 (46.84 percent to 46.49 percent in 1974).

Average dollar sales per vending machine were up substantially for nearly every type of merchandise, food and beverage machine, undoubtedly reflecting the higher per-unit selling prices on many items.

The average percentage rate of "commissions" (share of profits paid to clients of vending companies) remained at the level of recent years, at 8.70 percent of sales.

Total vending industry sales in 1974 are reported to have been $8.8 billion.

NAMA member companies which furnished data to Price Waterhouse & Co. receive a free copy of the results and other NAMA member firms can purchase a copy for $15, with additional copies priced at $3 each. The report is not available to nonmembers.

1975 Rowe Meet

CHICAGO — The 1975 Rowe International distributor conference will be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel here on Aug. 21-22. All domestic and many international Rowe distributors. Additionally, Rowe is urging their distributors to take along others in their respective sales organizations as "time off for good selling as well as to become acquainted with the new products to be unveiled there."

Events will begin at 4:00 pm Aug. 21 (Thurs.) and the following day's agenda will conclude at noon.

Rowe selected Chicago for this year's conference essentially because the NAMA will not be held there this year and many distributors would like the opportunity of visiting the Windy City to see other suppliers during off hours.

Measurex Corp. Standardizes On Mirco 500 Logic-Circuit Testers

PHOENIX — Measurex Corp. of Cupertino, Calif. and Mirco Systems, Inc. of Phoenix, jointly announced completion of the test phase portion of an equipment contract in which Measurex has standardized on Mirco digital logic test systems throughout its operations.

EASTERN FLASHES

Our thanks to Arnold Kaminkow of Robert Jones, Int'l. (Dedham, Mass. distributors) for forwarding on Boston Globe article about operator Ron Rome's gift of a flipper game to a youngster who lost both his feet in a railroad accident. The eleven-year-old boy, Chris Belle Isle of Needham, caught his feet under a slow moving train last Feb. 26; they were eventually amputated at the Massachusetts General Hospital. Boston police detective Mario Potito met the boy thereafter, was impressed with the lad's courage and when learning Chris was a "pinball freak," got in contact with Ron Rome to see what could be done. "They wanted to buy a machine," Ron recalled. "Naturally, I couldn't take any money because the kid has a lot of courage and I like that." Said Chris on the presentation of the game, "I'd like to be a champion pinball player." By the way, only four months after the accident, he's able to run, climb trees and fences, swim as well as before and ride a bike just like any other eleven-year-old. He does face a series of operations as well as rehabilitation therapy, and experts say he will need at least five different fittings of artificial limbs as he grows to maturity . . . Cigarette machines still remain king in the vending business (collection-wise), according to new NAMA member survey. Accounting for about 25% of the vending retail market, cigarettes remain #1, with hot cup beverage machines #2 and sandwich, salad, pastry machines #3.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

C.A. Robinson & Co. has placed second nationally behind Empire of Chicago in the Chicago Coin sales contest. As a result, C.A. Robinson & Co. has won four trips to Madeira (Portugal). Chicago Coin's Super Flipper (Video), Gold Record (four player) and Red Barron (two player) are going strong together with the always popular baseball game, Big League . . . Lance Hailstone, affable salesman at C.A. Robinson & Co., leaving with daughter, Kristin, for Hawaii on a two-week-vacation. With business activity at a furious pace, Lance will be sorely missed . . . Speaking about business activity, Al Bettelman smilingly announces that the first half of 1975 far surpasses last years record breaking sales and if it continues hopefully, C.A. Robinson & Co. will enjoy the greatest volume of business ever in the long history of the company.

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

A half day seminar on the new state apprenticeship program will highlight the agenda at the upcoming Wisconsin Music Merchants Association annual meeting, September 27 and 28 at the Midway Motor Lodge in Green Bay. The association hopes to have the program in full swing by early 1976. At present, the state apprenticeship and training division is coordinating the program and arranging for funding, curriculum, facility schedules, instructors, etc. A location for the program has not as yet been determined but the sites being considered are Fox Valley Technical Institute in Appleton; Moraine Park Technical Institute in Fond du Lac and MidState Technical Institute in Wisconsin Rapids . . . Also on the agenda will be an election of officers and the customary annual business meeting.

ROLLIE TONNELL OF Cigarette Service in Appleton reports that collections are down slightly — but he's not concerned at all because it's the norm at this time of the year; the summer doldrums, you might say. Around August, however, the situation reverses itself and collections usually continue on the upswing through December! Rollie mentioned that he is just about ready to put his first quad phonograph out on location!

BOB RONDEAU OF Empire Dist.-Green Bay certainly rates a salute for the superb service program he initiated in this area! Ten schools in five days, focusing on a wide range of factory lines! Similar programs are on the planning board for the states of Illinois, Indiana and lower Michigan.

HOUSTON HAPPENINGS

L.C. Butler, owner Gulf Coast Dist. Co., 3315 Milam St., Houston, recently added a swanky nightclub to his extensive holdings. His practically new building was built from ground up in 1973. Including facilities, covers 13,900 sq. ft., nearly all the dirt bounded by four streets. Building naturally is modern from stem to stern. Butler's office force includes: Pam Butler, his confidential secretary and firm's receptionist; executive, Edward P. Troy whose secretary is Donna Paris; Ben Wells, head of parts dept; Lewis Joeris, head of service dept; bookkeepers, Eunice Colson and Dolores Hopson; last but far from least, Bobby Jozwiak, and L.D. Rowden, sales mgr. and sales representative respectively . . . Earl Hoot, former sales mgr. for a major distributing firm here, now has his own route with Big Tex Vending Operations, Inc., a major Houston vending concern . . . Elois Garcia, widow of Albert Ernest (Al) Garcia who passed away Dec. 27, 1974, continues operation of their Al's Amusement Co., Houston . . . PeeWee Fleshner, long time and well known in local coinomatics, is now salesman for International Billiards, Inc. . . . One of the most friendly receptionist we have dealt with, and that includes more than a few, is little Linda Planks, receptionist for the H.A. Franz Co. (Seeburg).

Joe Baine, owner and active manager of Baine Amusement Co., Beaumont, Tex. in city loading up on a big bundle of operating equipment. Joe probably is dean of Houston area out of town operators but certainly does not look it. Only outward change in appearance over past 20 years is his hair (and he still has all of it) which now is gray. He and writer have one thing in common. In our young and foolish years both of us craved to be prizefighters. Joe decided on printing and is a qualified pressman (notch higher than ordinary printer). He wound up a coin machine operator, in some respects nearly as tough as prizefighting . . . Operator Ed Ainsworth, owner Ainsworth Distributing Co., 809 Stuart, Houston, mixing coin machine operations with real estate business. Apparently doing well with each. Ed is well versed in all types of coinomatics. Has had experience therein from ordinary operator to top rank distribution.

CHICAGO CHATTER

As of this morning (4) production was resumed at the Chicago Dynamic Industries factory following the annual vacation shutdown — and on Thursday (7) the CDI-hosted distrib trip to Funchal, Madeira got underway!

IAAPA IS FINALIZING details for its upcoming summer meeting, to be held Sept. 19-21 at the Worlds Of Fun in Kansas City, Missouri. Members will shortly receive an association mailing outlining the complete agenda.

MORT LEVINSON of National Coin is expecting delivery very shortly of the new European-made Wurlitzer "Cabaret" sample model phonograph — which will be displayed as prominently as current models "Baltic" and "Atlanta II" in the National showroom! Mort also made mention of how beautifully games and arcade equipment have been selling this season!

SONGSTRESS HARRIETTE BLAKE is hoping for heavy jukebox play with her current single "Play It Again Sam" (H&M Records)! Ms. Blake intro'd the side, very successfully, during her recent engagement at Danny's Chateau in suburban Lyons and performed it at two area benefits; the Kup's Purple Heart Cruise, sponsored by Sun-Times columnist Irv Kupcinet and the annual dinner and all-star game outing for vets, hosted by Ferrara Manor's Mario Conti! . . . And while we're at it, Jim Robinson of Iowa Sound Promotions in Carlisle long distanced that he has an op biggie in "Kelly Keep The Bar Door Open" by Ray Faubus (Pizza)!

AFTER A TWO-WEEK VACATION SHUTDOWN, full production will be resumed at the Bally Mfg. Corp. plant next Monday (11) and with much concentration on producing and delivering the red hot "Wizard" 4-player! The domestic and overseas demand keep increasing, according to sales manager Paul Calamari — and there's no letup in sight! Paul spent some of his vacation visiting with his son, daughter-in-law and grandson in Pennsylvania, and enjoyed every minute of it!

MOA'S EXECUTIVE VEEPEE Fred Granger was enroute home late last week, after attending the Montana Coin Machine Operators Assn. convention at the Outlaw Inn in Kalispell — to get back in the swing of MOA Expo '75 preparations! Prior to his trip he had scheduled conferences with the seminar and awards committees!

A NEW MUSEUM, spotlighting penny arcade equipment of 1900-1930's vintage, is currently under construction in Long Grove, Ill. The brainchild of collector Bob Strauss, the site is expected to be completed by early 1976 and subsequently opened to the public. Among the machines to be displayed will be the early strength testers, claw machines and fortune teller machines as well as nickelodeons, popcorn machines and the like. Strauss is presently searching out old penny arcade photos, catalogs or other illustrations, to help him decide the museum's decor. He may be reached at P.O. Box 684, Mundelein, Illinois 60060.

BALLY'S FIELD ENGINEER Tom Hata and regional marketing manager Dick Linkens conducted a very successful service school last week (29) in the headquarters of Sandler Vending Company of Minneapolis. Among the demo units used was the spectacular Bally "Wizard!"

Charly Label Formed In Britain: Joop Visser To Head Management

LONDON — A new label, Charly Records, has been established in the U.K. with the London operation headed by Joop Visser, former a&r manager of EMI Records. Distribution is through President Records. Controlled by a Swiss financial group, Charly has also been set up in France headed by Jean Luc Young with distribution through Disques Motors/Sonopress and a German office will shortly be set up. Three record labels make up the backbone of Charly Records. A license deal with the Shelby Singleton Corporation gives Charly the Sun catalogue and New York rock 'n' roll is represented by the Redbird and Blue Cat catalogues with Shelby Singleton's SSS international catalogue rounding off Charly Records' access to American product. The British aspect of Charly Records is represented by the Immediate catalogue founded by Andrew Oldham way back in 1966 with artists such as Small Faces, Nice, Humble Pie, P.P. Arnold etc. Charly France has scheduled Immediate albums by Small Faces, Nice, Humble Pie for release in August. An agreement between Charly Records and Andrew Oldham embodies the rights on Oldham's new product from his Because Productions. Georgio Gomelsky's productions of The Yardbirds, Brian Auger and other British acts are also part of Charly Records. Apart from the exploitation of licensed product, Charly Records is aiming to create a small roster of direct signed talent with heavy emphasis on quality and longevity of the acts concerned. A launching release of eight albums featuring Roy Orbison, Jerry Lee Lewis, Charlie Rich, Carl Perkins, Johnny Cash and Little Richard is scheduled for August release.

EMI International has reached an agreement with the Hungarian state record company, Kultura, which will allow EMI to export classical records to Hungary. At the same time EMI was also able to provide the Hungarian record company with music cassettes which will be marketed through petrol stations franchised to the Rumanian Shell organization. Progress has also been made in getting local releases for EMI artists and Queen and The Shadows will be among the first artists to be released under the new agreement. A further contract under negotiation with the Hungarian film company should see Suzi Quatro's "Your Mamma Won't Like It" and Steve Harley and Cockney Rebel's "Make Me Smile" included in a local pop film. The Hungarian record company is represented in Northern Europe by EMI Scandinavia and a worldwide distribution deal through EMI is currently under consideration.

Mark Abbott, director of sales for EMI International has restructured his division and Peter Jamieson, formerly managing director of EMI Greece has been appointed general manager of the international division.

Tony Curbishley has been appointed financial director of ATV Music, and the company has just installed a computer system costing 50,000p to improve the accounting of the receipt and distribution of royalty payments.

Bovema 'Gold Dog' Awd. To Long & Co.

BRUSSELS — EMI reports that Robert Long's album "Vroeger Or Later" has been on the Dutch LP charts for more than a year. Recently the album remained at number five position, setting a precedent for the Dutch music industry. Sales figures are rapidly approaching the 200,000 mark for the LP, produced by John Moring and arranged by Erik van der Wurff. These two gentlemen and Robert Long were recently awarded the "Gold Dog" by EMI Bovema manager Roel R. Kruize at a ceremony on June 21.

VAK and Roses Music have the copyrights of the songs "Let The Sun Shine In" (Joey Dyser — EMI), "Brazil" (Ritchie Family — Vogue) and "Ramya" (Afric Simone — Barclay).

Editions Basart-Belgium has the copyrights for the songs "Guitar King" (Hank The Knife and The Jets), "Don't Call Us, We'll Call You" (Jerry Corbetta & Sugarloaf), "Wij Zullen Doorgaan" (Ramses Shaffy), "Doorgaan" (Andre van Duin) together with Primavera, and "Sing With Me" (Tony Sherman), "Trouble" (Elvis Presley), "Before The Next Teardrop Falls" (F. ## IPA, Metz Ink Pact

NEW YORK — Stephen Metz, president of Stephen Metz, Ltd., has set an agreement with Geoff Davie, president of IPA Theatrical Agency in England. Metz will be booking some American acts for appearances in Great Britain. Booked so far are The Exciters from Aug. 29 to Sept. 20. Metz is also setting a tour for the Ink Spots starting in November. According to IPA and Metz there will be other r&b and rock acts booked in the future.

Tammy Wynette Oldie Yields Renewed Sales In Netherlands Belgium Report

BRUSSELS — CBS reports a big smash in Holland and Belgium for Tammy Wynette's oldie from 1968 "Stand By Your Man" on Epic. The same record was on top of the British charts a few weeks ago. Much is expected of Albert West's new single entitled "For The Good Times."

Dureco Holland (Fonior Belgium) reports good sales for the album "Een Weekend Met Ben Cramer." The company represents the Hush label with artists as Tim Rose, Shepstone & Dibbens, Dennis Neal and Findo Gask. The presentation of Hush Records took place in Amsterdam with a concert last month. Singles will be released very soon.

The first album releases on the new Charly label were released: "Jerry Lee Lewis and his Pumping Piano," "Rocking Guitarman" (Carl Perkins), "Old Golden Throat" (Johnny Cash), and "Lonely Weekends" (Charlie Rich). These are all recordings from the American Sun label. Ricky Gordon's "Teddy Bear" is climbing the charts fast. Joe Harris had a smash in Holland and Belgium with "Drink Rode Wijn."

Organ Music Company is very proud with the success of "Bump Me Baby" (Dooley Silverspoon), for which Decap Sound got the licensing rights for Belgium. Also the next Dooley Silverspoon records will be licensed through Decap Sound.

VAK Music publishing company expects a lot of new releases: "Hey Hey Dandy En Lady" (Ingriani), "De Auto-gordels" (De Sinjoren), "Brazil" (Ritchie Family), "Ramaya" (Afric Simone) and "Trouw Niet Met Die Ander" (Frank Alwin).

The number 1 disk in Holland and Belgium for the moment is "If You Go" by Barry & Eileen on Omega. It is a production of Roland van Uyendaele of Fonior Belgium. Barry & Eileen are a British married couple that has been living in Belgium for a few years.

Suzi Quatro Returns To Europe For Recording And Tours: Explains Early Cooper Tour Departure

NEW YORK — International rock artist Suzi Quatro left the Alice Cooper tour June 28, two weeks ahead of schedule. The last minute move was necessitated by demands from overseas for new record product to coincide with upcoming tours of Scandinavia, Italy, Japan and Australia in Aug. and Sept. An additional factor in the move, was the need, according to Quatro's manager Mickie Most, for new recorded material to be released by her new U.S. and Canada label affiliation, which will be announced shortly.

Suzi said, "It was really terrific to be touring with Alice, and I'm sorry that we had to miss several important cities on the tour, especially Pittsburgh, where we drew 60,000 people last Sept., and Montréal and Winnipeg, as Canada has been very successful for us, but we are excited about the new record deal and intend to make the best of the audience acceptance and press coverage we won on the three-month tour by releasing a new record on a new label as soon as possible, and then follow that with a major tour."

Suzi's early release from the Cooper tour was worked out amicably between Leo Fenn of Prevue Management and Mickie Most, who managed Suzi in North America and worldwide respectively, and Shep Gordon of Alive Enterprises, with assistance from Jonny Podell, whose BMF booking agency represents both acts.

"ROCK YOUR BABY" ROLLIN' IN CANADA — Sales of George McCrae's single "Rock Your Baby" continue to grow worldwide, as evidenced by George's recent visit to RCA's Canadian offices. George (center) was presented with a platinum record representing 150,000 units of sale for the disk. Pictured with George are, left, R.F. Cook, vice president and general manager of the record division of RCA and, right, Andy Nagy, operations manager of eastern Canada. At this moment, the disk is one of RCA's hottest selling singles in Canada.
