The Chess-Checker-Argo label operation is currently in the midst of its greatest sales showing yet. The why-and-wherefore is in the artistry of the above-named attractions, all of whom are contributing greatly to the label's sales spurt, and, one might add, to the cause of exceptional rock 'n roll, blues and jazz dates. The label's big Top 100 items include "We're Gonna Make It" by Little Milton (Checker), "I Do Love You" by Billy Stewart (Chess), "The Entertainer" by Tony Clarke and "Love Is A Five Letter Word" by James Phelps (Argo). Just issued has been a new Fontella Bass & Bobby McClure (Checker) single, "Don't Jump" and "You'll Miss Me When I'm Gone."

Destinations Consumer

The old line about the meat industry is that it finds everything saleable in a pig but the "oink." The record industry, ever on the lookout for new markets and a stronger backbone to established markets, is finding means to breathe new sales life into product that—worthy as much of it is—had been blue-penciled out of the catalogs of a number of labels and/or give catalog merchandise new areas of exposure.

In a recent example of the former procedure, Pickwick International announced that it had acquired stereo-age sessions from a number of strong labels which no longer had them on release. It is the object of Pickwick, through its Pickwick/33 label, to bring these dates, featuring a crop of notable performers in most fields of music, to market again via the economy-priced ($2) route.

In the increasingly lucrative realm of disk clubs, two major announcements have come just a week apart. In the first move, the Decca label will feed its catalog into the RCA Victor Record Club, while ABC-Paramount will see its product promoted and sold by the Capitol Record Club, thus assuring both labels of vast additional outlets for their material. The actions of both Victor and Capitol represent the first "outside" labels which will supply a stream of product for both clubs and the word is that they will probably make similar deals with other fruitful LP lines.

Getting down to the "oink," it's expected that some LP producers will soon begin creating labels solely for use by large users, thus establishing yet another outlet for the disk business. Of course, the already busy enterprise of the majors is the premium LP, which many of our leading corporations have found to be a most effective means of promoting their product.

When one realizes that everybody enjoys some kind of music, he must conclude that disks are capable of exposure in many ways, in manners yet to be tried, and, yes, to be even thought of. It is the universality of music on disks that makes it so efficiently applicable to varied forms of exposure.

Whether we're talking of non-catalog dates or current catalog product, the public, it seems, cannot get too much of a good thing. And in the case of non-catalog material, many a good thing has been relegated to that station because of the demands of modern LP merchandising. But, the picture is clear, they can be in-demand once more through a number of merchandising channels.

Developing new exposure areas for all product is a prime task for the industry in order for it to stay healthy, wealthy and wise to the many ways music on disks can reach its final destination—the record buyer.

C&W Stars In New LP's From Capitol

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records' 18-album May release will come under the theme "The World Of Country Music," and will be highlighted by five C&W LP's.

Kicking off the series is a special two-record set, "The World Of Country Music," which contains 24 performances by two dozen outstanding country artists. Also featured in the program are "I'll Keep Holding On" by Sonny James and "Blues In My Heart" by Wanda Jackson, as well as Faron Young's "Falling In Love" and Ferlin Husky's "True, True Lovin'."

The new release also contains 13 pop LP's, featuring "Today, My Way" by Nancy Wilson, "Somebody Else Is Taking My Place/With All

My Heart" by Al Martino, "Venice Blue" by Bobby Darin and "The New Seekers."

Blues singer Oz Smith debuts with his initial Capitol LP, "The Wizardry of Oz Smith," while Liza Minelli's "It Amazes Me," Shelly Manne's "Manne, That's Gershwin," and the Three D's "I Won't Be Worried Long" are all second outings on the label by the respective artists.

Other new releases include King Curtis playing hits made famous by Sam Cooke, "Waikiki After Dark" by Webley Edwards and an original soundtrack from the Italian film, "Bebo's Girl." Rounding out the program are "Poland Revisited" and "Beyond The Great Wall."

Diskery Formed By Webb IV; Rifkind Named Gen. Mgr.

NEW YORK—Webb IV Publishing, recent music company formed by Bert Berns and Atlantic-Atco's Ahmet & Neshui Ertegun and Jerry Wexler, has formed a label affiliate, Bang Records. Berns announced last week that Julie Rifkind has been named general manager of the label, which will headquarter at 1650 Broadway.

It was emphasized that Bang will not be part of the Atlantic-Atco distrib set-up, but will be distributed by its own line-up of distributors.

First date from the diskery, out last week, is "Shake & Jerk" by Billy Lamont. Berns is currently in London recording additional material for Bang, setting up foreign affiliations and licensee deals for label and arranging for recording rights for European artists for both Atlantic and Bang.

Before coming to Bang, Rifkind was an indie producer of TV specials. He was formerly with the MGM/Verve label for five years as national promo manager and also ran the labels' R&B line, Cub Records.

Chellman To Monument As Marketing Veep

CHUCK CHELLMAN

NASHVILLE—Vet record man Chuck Chellman has joined Monument Records as vice-president in charge of marketing. He comes to the label from Starday where he was also a v. p. He'll take over the duties formerly administered by Johnny Sipple who exited his position for an executive berth with Mercury.

Chellman broke into the record biz with a six-year stint in the Pitts-

London Int'l Bows 9 LP's, Program

NEW YORK—The London International label, boasting more than 250 albums of music from major foreign areas, is adding nine new albums to the line, all of which are playing a part in the label's big spring push.

The entire catalog, claimed by London as the largest international round-up available in the U.S., is being promoted via a number of distrib incentives and dealer display items through June 30. There's a discount and delayed payment feature, details of which are available at London. For dealer merchandising, there's a special catalog cards (8½" x 11") showing all LP's listed by country. They are useful for checking stock in browser bins. The card is printed on heavy stock and is designed for permanent use in a loose-leaf book. Also, dealers will receive new release cover/liner slicks.

London's International series is not to be confused with the diskery's import line, which has a number of releases that sport their original foreign label logos. London International disks stem from English Decca's (parent company) extensive foreign affiliations.

The new London International sets are: "Espana Canta" (Songs of Spain), various artists; "Italy's New Singing Sensations," Cigliola Cinquetti, "Germany's Hildegard Neff," "Reflejos Malagueños" (Reflections of Malaga), "German Hunting Marches," Die Buckeburger Jager, "Nancy Holloway in Paris," "The Peanuts" (A New Sound from Japan) "Imported From Italy," Giampiero Reverberi and His Orch, "Letkiss (New European Dance Craze)," King Eric and His Royal Letkiss Stompers.

London Adds 5 LP's

NEW YORK—London Records has just shipped five new albums. There's a single LP on London, one on Parrot and three on Palomar, the latter two diskeries being nationally distributed by London.

The London offering is the first LP by Marianne Faithfull. The set, named after the English songstress, contains her recent hit, "As Tears Go By." She'll be making return engagements on the "Shindig" and "Hullabaloo" TV's to give the set a sales boost.

The Parrot entry is "East Meets West—The Andrew Oldham Orchestra," which features the producer of sessions by the Rolling Stones and Marianne Faithfull.

The three Palomar LP's, the first to be issued since the label made a distrib deal with London, are: "Big City" by Marvin Jenkins, "Mexican Pearls" by Don Randi, named after a recent noise-maker by the pianist; and "The Sounds of Hollywood & Broadway" by Curtis Amy.

Dunhill Prod. Starts Label With Lasker As Head

HOLLYWOOD—Dunhill Records has been formed in Hollywood as an offshoot of Dunhill Productions, the indie production-management firm.

Heading the operation is Jay Lasker, vet disk man who recently exited his post as exec vp at Vee Jay Records. He'll be working with Dunhill heads Lou Adler, Bobby Roberts and Pierre Cossette. Adler has been a successful indie producer for a number of years, while Roberts and Cossette have specialized in management. Their acts include Ann-Margret, Vic Damone, Jan & Dean, Shelley Fabares, Johnny Rivers, John Raitt, Anna Maria Alberghe, Dick Shawn and Terry Black.

The label plans to work with a "small but varied" roster of artists for singles sales, but also take advantage of the management firm's background with album performers.

The diskery's first deck is "Natural Born Man" by Ritchie Weems. A domestic distribution set-up is yet to be announced, as is a network of foreign licensees.

Homebase for the label is 321 South Beverly Drive in Beverly Hills.

Hanna-Barbera Offers Initial LP's, Singles

LOS ANGELES—Don Bohanan, vp and general manager of Hanna-Barbera Records, last week announced that his firm had targeted May 10 as the date of its premiere release of LP's and singles. The initial plans call for 11 singles and 6 long plays, all of which feature the firm's famous cartoon figures.

Titles set for the singles are: "Monster Shindig", "GoldiRocks & the Three Bearo-Sauruses", "The Flintstones' Favorite Songs", "Huckleberry Hound Tells the Stories of Uncle Remus", "Yogi Bear and Boo Boo Tell the Story of Little Red Riding Hood", "Yogi Bear & Boo Boo's Favorite Songs", "Magilla Gorilla Tells Ogee the Story, 'Alice In Wonderland'", "Pixie & Dixie with Mr. Jinks Tell The Story of Cinderella", "Huckleberry Hound Tells the Stories of Uncle Remus—"Brer Rabbit and the Briar Patch", and "The Flintstones"—"Three Little Pigs".

The six LP releases are titled: "Monster Shindig", "Flintstones Flip Fables", "Huckleberry Hound Tells Stories of Uncle Remus", "Yogi Bear And Boo Boo", "Magilla Gorilla Tells Ogee The Story Of Alice In Wonderland", and "Pixie & Dixie With Mr. Jinks Tells The Story of Cinderella".

Hanna-Barbera Productions is the largest cartoon production company in the world. Currently its fifteen television series are seen in 47 foreign countries to more than 300,000,000.

3 New LP's From Imperial

LOS ANGELES—Imperial Records' national sales manager Ken Revercomb announced last week that his firm will issue 3 new LP's as part of the label's new sales program. In addition to the new albums, the entire catalog of disks by Johnny Rivers and Sandy Nelson will be highlighted in the campaign with details available through distributors. The terms are to become effective this week (10) and will run through June 18.

The three new albums are: "Meanwhile Back at the Whiskey A Go Go" with Johnny Rivers; Jimmy McCracklin's "Every Day, Every Night," and "Drum Discotheque" by Sandy Nelson."

Maxin To ASCAP Board

NEW YORK—Arnold Maxin, who now heads MGM/Verve Records and Big 3 Music (Robbins-Feist-Miller), has been elected to the board of ASCAP. He fills the vacancy created by the recent death of Mickey Scoop, whom Maxin replaced at Big 3.

Westinghouse Unveils Sight 'n Sound Disks

NEW YORK—Last week the Westinghouse Electric Corporation introduced a new concept in electronics when it unveiled Phonovid, a system that plays sound and television pictures from phonograph records.

The records will contain both audio and video signals, which will be picked up by the phonograph needle and will make available up to 400 pictures and 40 minutes of voice and music from both sides of a 12" LP, known as a Videodisc.

The price of a Phonovid installation will be approximately $10,000, with closed-circuit television in schools a prime market. Although no price has been set for the Videodiscs, it is estimated that they may run as low as classical albums.

Connie Hector Named To Atlantic-Atco Ad-Pub Post

CONNIE HECTOR

NEW YORK—Connie Hechter has been appointed director of advertising and publicity for the Atlantic and Atco labels, Jerry Wexler, vice president of the labels, announced last week. Hechter replaces Bob Altshuler, who joined Columbia as director of publicity.

Hechter will be responsible for all advertising and publicity functions for the corporation. He will also direct national album promo.

Prior to joining Atlantic, Hechter was the national LP promo manager for Philips Records. He came to Philips from KDWB Radio, Minneapolis, a Crowell-Collier affiliate, where he was advertising and sales promo manager. Hechter first entered the record industry as midwest promotion manager for Mercury Records.

Hechter is a graduate of the School of Journalism, University of Minnesota.

Ed Barsky Directs Sales Activities At Metro

ED BARSKY

NEW YORK—Ed Barsky has been appointed sales manager for Metro Records, MGM/Verve's budget line, reports Tom White, director of administration for the label.

Mr. Barsky, an 18 year vet in disk sales and distribution, joins the organization after 15 months as national sales manager for Living Language Courses. Prior to that, he was an independent record distributor in Philadelphia and was one of the first record distributors assigned to han-

ABC-Par Joins Capitol Disk Club

NEW YORK—ABC-Paramount Records has moved its catalog into the record club field for the first time in its history via a deal with the Capitol Record Club, according to Larry Newton, president of ABC-Par. An interesting detail of the deal is that while the ABC-Par. catalog is being offered to the Club on a non-exclusive basis, there is an exclusivity clause in the contract with regard to individual artists. That is, once a particular ABC-Par. artist is offered by the Club, the Club has exclusive rights to his diskings.

Besides ABC-Par., its affiliates Impulse!, Westminster and Command will have selections in the Club. For the initial offering, Capitol has selected 22 ABC-Par., seven Impulse!, 12 Command and two Westminster packages.

Artists who will be available through the Club include Ray Charles, the Impressions, the Barry Sisters, Soupy Sales, Carol Channing, Carlos Montoya, Elton Britt, Gary McFarland, Yusef Lateef, John Coltrane, Shirley Scott, Charlie Mingus, Enoch Light, the Ray Charles Singers, Tony Mottola and the Robert DeCormier Folk Singers. Command will offer its famed percussion LP's, while classical product from Westminster will include dates by John Williams and Herman Scherchen.

Commenting on the ABC-Par.-Capitol Club tie-in, Newtown said he (Continued on page 46)

WB-Reprise's 7th Army: Ingredients For The Sweet Smell Of Success

MIKE MAITLAND

JOE SMITH

JOEL FRIEDMAN

HOLLYWOOD—The icing on the birthday cake has a sweet smell of success. Its ingredients are a twist of "lemon tree", a "taste of honey" and a bowl brimful of diversified talents. Put them all together they spell Warner Brothers, the firm which is now entering its eighth year as a record label. From a gross estimated at $1,300,000 in '58, the label, now merged with Reprise Records, could conceivably gross more than twelve times that amount in '65.

It was April '58 when Warner Bros. Records, under the aegis of James Conkling, first opened its doors at 4000 Warner Blvd. in Burbank. The artist roster included Tab Hunter, George Greeley, Matty Matlock, Connie Stevens, John Scott Trotter and Jack Webb among others. The first single released was by a group called The Smart Set and it was followed by such redolent names as Bonnie Baker and Ira Ironstrings. By the fall of '58 the label came up with its first single and album hits in Don Ralke's "77 Sunset Strip". It surpassed the half million mark and Warner Bros. Records was definitely in business. By the end of its third year the total gross rose to $3,500,000 and single hits included Ed Byrnes' "Kookie, Kookie, Lend Me Your Comb," Bob Luman's "Let's Think About Lovin'," Joanie Sommers' "One Boy" and The Everly Bros.' "Cathy's Clown". During this period the label released "The Button Down Mind Of (Continued on page 46)

American & British Musicians' Unions Show Tensions In Short-Lived Talent Ban

NEW YORK—The 1-for-1 exchange program between American and British musicians' unions hit a temporary snag last week, but by week's end everything seemed to have been worked out.

The news broke at midweek that the British Musicians Union, at the request of its American counterpart, the American Federation of Musicians, had agreed to an "indefinite" end to the talent trade once all existing contracts had been fulfilled. The American union claimed that bookers had taken it upon themselves to extend engagements of British performers here, thus putting even greater limits on job possibilities for American musicians.

According to the American union, a "week end suspension of the agreement" was asked by the Federation of its British counterpart to allow time form understanding with certain booking agents which the Federation said were "exceeding and thus endangering the reciprocity arrangement by extraneous bookings of British musician units now enjoying specified employment in the U.S. under the mutual exchange arrangement."

Herman Kenin, president of the American union, said that a "thorough and, I trust, continuing understanding" had been reached with bookers to stop the practice of permitting visiting groups to fulfill engagements other than those specifically agreed to in advance under the reciprocal understanding." Kenin said he hoped that the union would not have to seek another similar agreement because of a "few greedy transgressors."

Relations between the music trades of England and the U.S. are already somewhat restrained due to the difficulty that British rock acts have encountered in applying for work visas. The arrival of Kenny Ball and his group was still in doubt at presstime, as his booking agent here, Associated Booking, attempted to convince immigration authorities that he was eligible to perform here.

Electronovision Plans Production Of 'Fade Out . . .'

NEW YORK—The next production from Electronovision will be "Fade Out, Fade In," the Carol Burnett-stared musical that closed recently, Cash Box has learned.

The comedienne, whose pregnancy forced an end to the Broadway run of the musical, will repeat her role for the Electronovision cameras. In addition, Jack Cassidy, co-featured in the musical before it ceased performances due to Burnett's illness, will also perform in the film. The production will be Electronovision's first color effort. Shooting is expected to begin at the end of the month. The soundtrack LP will be released on Warner Bros. Records, which has a deal to release the soundtracks stemming from Electronovision features.

Electronovision will debut its third effort this week, a pic bio on the late Jean Harlow called "Harlow." WB has already issued the soundtrack score. The firm's previous releases were Richard Burton's performance as "Hamlet" and a teen rock 'n roll concert.

Decca Gains In 1st Qtr; Re-elect Label Officers

NEW YORK—Decca Records showed gains in consolidated net earnings for the first three months of 1965. The results, including the operation of Universal Pictures, amounted to $1,674,088, equal to $1.10 per share on 1,527,401 outstanding shares of capital stock. This compared to the previous year's first quarter earnings of $1,401,360 equal to 91¢ per share on 1,527,401 outstanding shares of capital stock.

At the company's annual stockholder meet last week, the shareholders re-elected the entire membership of the board of directors: Albert A. Garthwaite, Milton R. Rackmil, Marty Salkin, Leonard W. Schneider, Harold I. Thorp and Samuel H. Vallance.

The board, in turn, re-elected the following officers: Milton R. Rackmil, president; Leonard W. Schneider, exec vp; Louis A. Buchner, vp and treasurer; Milt Gabler, vp; Marty Salkin, vp; Samuel Yamin, secretary; Isabelle Marks, assistant secretary; and Irving E. Weiner, assistant treasurer.

Phil Picone To Roulette As Sales Director

NEW YORK—Phil Picone has joined Roulette Records as director of sales. He replaces Bud Katzel, who has gone on to become head of Kapp's Congress and Four Corners labels.

Picone will report directly to Morris Levy, president of the label, and Hugo & Luigi, label A&R directors. His first assignment will be to work on a bevy of new Roulette and Tico LP's and singles, including "I Want To Go Back" by the Knights and Arthur.

Picone, a youthful disk business vet, started out in the retail end of the business, then joined Mercury as a sales rep in 1956. He was later promoted to the post of eastern sales rep at Mercury. After his Mercury stint, he went with Time Records as national sales manager in 1960. When Time formed Mainstream, a jazz-inclined affiliate, Picone took over the post as director of sales and promo for both Time and Mainstream.

For 2nd Year In Row, Music Is No Prize To Pulitzer Committee

NEW YORK—There was no Pulitzer Prize music to the ears of the music committee for the second year in a row, but at least one record company got in on the awards, which were announced last week.

The label was Columbia Records, which cut the cast version of "The Subject Was Roses," a Pulitzer winner in the field of drama. (The week before, the New York Drama Critics named the effort the best play of the 1964-65 season).

To add a measure of insult to injury, the Pulitzer advisory committee refused to act on a recommendation from the 3-member music committee that Duke Ellington receive a special award for his long-standing contribution to music.

As far as the classical area is concerned, Harold Schoenberg, music head of the New York Times, commented, after the Pulitzer news was out, that the music committee did not think highly of modern composition (e.g. electronic scores) which many American composers of repute are taking to.

Pick of the Week

(REMEMBER ME) I'M THE ONE WHO LOVES YOU
(2:24) [Hill & Range BMI—Hamblen]

BORN TO LOSE (2:26) [Peer International BMI—Brown]

DEAN MARTIN (Reprise 0369)

Dean Martin has had great success with oldies and he continues in that vein with this top-drawer Reprise outing, "(Remember Me) I'm The One Who Loves You." The songster treats the sentimental romancer in an affectionate, easy-going heartfelt style. The coupler's an emotion-packed styling of the blues-drenched evergreen.

YOU REALLY KNOW HOW TO HURT A GUY (2:57)
[Screen Gems—Columbia BMI—Christian, Berry, Gibson]

IT'S AS EASY AS 1, 2, 3 (2:23)

[Screen Gems—Columbia BMI—Gibson, Altfeld]

JAN & DEAN (Liberty 55792)

Jan and Dean should have no difficulty in speedily jumping into the winner's circle with this new blue-ribbon entry based on the teen idiomatic expression, "You Really Know How To Hurt A Guy." The side is a tender, medium-paced tearjerker about an unfortunate lad who's singin' the blues 'cause his gal is giving him a rough time. The flip's a catchy romantic affair with an infectious melodic undercurrent.

TELL HER (YOU LOVE HER EVERY DAY) (2:40)
[American BMI—Ward]

HERE'S TO THE LOSERS (3:05) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Wells, Segal]

FRANK SINATRA (Reprise 0373)

Frank Sinatra is an odds-on bet to repeat his recent success of "Somewhere In Your Heart" with this oldie-sounding item tabbed "Tell Her (You Love Her Every Day)." The side's a melodic Jimmy Bowen A&R'd chorus-backed easy-going romantic ode which effectively builds to power-packed, exciting pitch. "Here's To The Losers" is a catchy ballad in the chanter's familiar bittersweet groove.

NO ONE (2:43) [Hill & Range & Efsee BMI—Pomus, Shuman]

TOO MANY RIVERS (2:46) [Combine BMI—Howard]

BRENDA LEE (Decca 31792)

Brenda Lee is sure to add still another sales-laurel (she had "Truly Truly True" last time out) to her unbroken strings of hits with this new Decca outing. The top lid, "No One," is an easy-going lyrical chorus-backed romantic lament about a lass whose heart is broken by the guy of her dreams. "Too Many Rivers" is a catchy, warm-hearted country-blueser.

WHEN IT'S ALL OVER (2:37) [Unart BMI—Robinson, Levenson]

CARA, MIA (2:30) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Trapani, Lange]

JAY & AMERICANS (United Artists 881)

Here's a first-rate follow-up stanza to Jay and the Americans recent smasheroo of "Think Of The Good Times." The plug side, "When It's All Over," is a low-key bluesy romancer about a fella who tells his gal that he'll still be there after she finishes a passing fancy. On the coupler the crew dishes-up a plaintive seading of the sturdie.

DON'T JUMP (2:53)

[Chevis BMI—Smith, Davis, Miner]

YOU'LL MISS ME
(WHEN I'M GONE) (2:34)

[Chevis BMI—Barge, Davis]

FONTELLA BASS & BOBBY McCLURE (Checker 1111)

Proof-positive that Fontella Bass and Bobby McClure are not one-shot artists (they're currently coming off "Don't Mess Up A Good Thing") is this new two-sided hitsville contender. One lid, "Don't Jump," is a low-key, rhythmic pop-r&b ode about a twosome who seem aptly suited to each other. The other end, "You'll Miss Me (When I'm Gone)," is a rollicking blueser about a romance which is headed for the rocks. Eye 'em both.

LA RASPA (2:20) [Northridge ASCAP—Mancini]

"SENOR" PETER GUNN (2:37) [Northridge ASCAP—Mancini]

HENRY MANCINI (RCA Victor 8574)

The vet orkster is sure to garner loads of spins plus hefty sales with this excellent re-working of the "Mexican Hat Dance" tabbed "La Raspa." The side effectively fuses some contagious uptempo and slow-paced south-of-the-border sounds into a cohesive melodic fusion. On the flip Mancini offers a sweeping, dramatic Latinish treatment of his years-back hit.

Pick of the Week

BRING A LITTLE SUNSHINE (TO MY HEART) (2:31)
[Roosevelt, BMI—Barkan, Raleigh]

THAT'S ALL (2:35) [Travis, BMI—Brandt, Haymes]

VIC DANA (Dolton 305)

Hot-on-the-heels of his "Red Roses For A Blue Lady" smasheroo Vic Dana comes up with a potent follow-up stanza labeled "Bring A Little Sunshine (To My Heart)." The tune is an easy-going, lyrical romancer with a warm-hearted currently commercial nostalgic sound. "That's All" is a pretty, slow-moving reading of the romantic sturdie.

THIS LITTLE BIRD (2:00) [Acuff-Rose, BMI—Loudermilk]

MORNING SUN (3:05) [Hollis, BMI—Farr]

MARIANNE FAITHFULL (London 9759)

The lark hit last-time-out with "Come Stay With Me" and this commercial follow-up, "This Little Bird," should easily go a like success route. The tune is an interesting, chorus-backed folk-styled affair with a plaintively bittersweet melody. The undercut, "Morning Sun," is a dramatic, effectively building rhythmic romantic ballad.

TAKE THE TIME (2:44) [Dymor, ASCAP—Allen]

DIANACITA (3:09) [Dymor, ASCAP—Allen]

JOHNNY MATHIS (Mercury 72432)

Johnny Mathis stands an excellent chance of zooming up the charts with this top-notch new Mercury outing tagged "Take The Time." The side is a pretty, slow-moving pledge of romantic devotion in the chanter's while-back simple, heartfelt style. Watch it closely. "Dianacita" is a melodic easy-going romancer feelingfully-essayed by Mathis.

JUST DANCE ON BY (2:25) [Valley BMI—Byers, Wayne]

WHERE ARE YOU NOW (2:50) [Leeds ASCAP—Hatch]

EYDIE GORME (Columbia 43302)

Eydie Gorme is sure to have a good run for the money with this blue-ribbon new Columbia outing tabbed "Just Dance On By." The tune is a rollicking, romantic thumper with warm-hearted south-of-the-border flavor and a contagious rhythmic repeating riff. "Where Are You Now" is a lyrical, bossa nova-styled soulfully rendered plea for romance.

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE (2:06) [Gallico, BMI—J. & R. C., Stampley]

NEVER BEEN IN LOVE (2:01) [Gallico, BMI—Stampley]

UNIQUES (Paula 222)

The Uniques firmly established themselves on the basis of their initial chart-rider, "Not Too Long Ago," and this follow-up stanza should also develop into a blockbuster. The plug side, "Too Good To Be True," is a medium-paced, pop-blues shuffler about a lucky guy who finally meets up with the girl of his dreams. "Never Been In Love" is a rhythmic, fast-moving teen-angled r&b traditional.

SPOONFUL (2:18) [Arc BMI—Dixon]

KICKIN' CHILD (3:00) [Ryonen BMI—Di Muci]

DION (Columbia 43293)

Looks as if Dion will get back in chart-riding style in no time flat on the basis of this power-packed new release. The "A" side here, "Spoonful," is a hard-driving, raunchy blues-drenched heart-breaker with some extremely effective funky guitar sounds. "Kickin' Child" is a low-down twangy blueser with a catchy rhythmic back-beat.

I'M GONNA NEED YOU (2:48) [Palmina & Zig Zag, BMI—Barrett]

JUST RIGHT FOR LOVE (2:10)
[Palmina & Zig Zag, BMI—Barrett, Johnson]

3° DEGREES (Swan 4214)

The 3° Degrees who had "Gee Baby I'm Sorry" can certainly duplicate that success with this new Swan entry called "I'm Gonna Need You." Tune's a tender, slow-shufflin' blues-tinged pledge of romantic devotion with an infectious rhythmic back-beat. The bottom lid, "Just Right For Love," is a heart-tugging slow-moving moody romancer.

Pick of the Week

CAST YOUR FATE TO THE WIND (2:20)
[Friendship, BMI—Guaraldi]

MAIS OUI (2:40) [Leeds, ASCAP—Curtis, Donida]
STEVE ALAIMO [ABC-Paramount 10680]

Steve Alaimo is a logical candidate to do Top 100 biz with this excellent vocal version of the current Sounds Orchestral (Parkway) smash, "Cast Your Fate To The Wind." The side starts off slowly and effectively builds to an existing dramatic crescendo. Tremendous potential here. "Mais Oui" is a catchy, medium-paced oldie-sounding supper club-ish specialty number.

AND NOW (2:45) [Alexis, ASCAP—Hugo & Lugi, Weiss]
EV'RYTHING BEAUTIFUL (2:46)
[Livingston & Evans, ASCAP—Livingston, Evans]
RUDY VALENTINE (Roulette 4619)

The oft-cut Rudy Valentine can finally break through and establish himself with this top-level reading of Della Reese's years-back triumph, "And Now." The chanter reads the plaintive heartfelt blueser in a commanding soulful style effectively backed by a large lush ork. The under-cut's an impressive treatment of "Ev'rything Beautiful."

Newcomer Pick

IT'S WONDERFUL TO BE IN LOVE (2:52)
[Rise, BMI—Jones, Lewis, Williams]
DANCE PARTY (2:32) [Rise, BMI—Jamison]
OVATIONS (Goldwax 113)

The Ovations have ample quantities of that money-in-the-bank sound with this already clicking Goldwax outing called "It's Wonderful To Be In Love." The tune is a tender, slow-shufflin' pop-r&b funky pledge of devotion with some interesting snatches of counterpoint and harmony. "Dance Party" is a pulsating, chorus-backed teen-oriented bluesy dance item.

WHERE ARE YOU NOW (2:46) [Leeds, ASCAP—Hatch, Trent]
ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE TRACKS (2:19)
[E. H. Morris, ASCAP]
JACKIE TRENT (Parkway 955)

Jackie Trent is scoring in England with "Where Are You Now" and there's no reason why she can't duplicate that success on this side of the foam. The tune is an easy-going, bossa nova-tinged tale of romantic rejection which effectively builds to soulful dramatic climax. The flip's a rhythmic, hard-driving version of the "Little Me" specialty number.

PLEASE GO AWAY (2:20) [Leeds, ASCAP—Ruskin]
MOON OF YESTERDAY (2:34) [Rose-Hill, BMI—Lewis, Poser]
MARILYN POWELL (Musicor 1089)

Newcomer Marilyn Powell can quickly establish herself as a record saleswoman on the basis of this top-flight Musicor bow tabbed "Please Go Away." The tune is a rhythmic, hard-driving romantic lament about a gal whose been hurt so many times that she's decided to turn her back on her guy. "Moon Of Yesterday" is a tender, legit-styled lyrical ballad.

WHERE WERE YOU (2:28) [Rayven BMI—Burton, Ryan]
MY TYPE OF DANCIN' (2:44) [Rayven BMI—Burton, McCoy]
BOBBY BOYD (Veep 1216)

Bobby Boyd has an excellent chance of hitting in both the pop and r&b locations with this most promising Veep bow. The top cut, "Where Were You," is a slow-shufflin' blues lament about a love-sick fella who can't understand why his gal left him just when he needed her. "My Type Of Dancin'" is a lively, infectious happy-go-lucky terpsichorean-oriented affair.

Best Bets

KRIS JENSEN (Hickory 1311)

• WHAT SHOULD I DO (2:15)
[Acuff Rose, BMI—Melson-Folger] Kris Jensen's multi-track jerk-tempo finger snapper is likely to catch some fine radio spins and could break wide-open on the teen market. Steady thumping ork work behind him adds to the sales potential.

(B+) THAT'S A WHOLE LOTTA LOVE (2:46) [Fred Rose, BMI—Carter, Jr.] Liltin' ballad sound here.

GOLDIE & GINGERBREADS (Atco 6354)

• THAT'S WHY I LOVE YOU (2:47) [Big Top, BMI—Jones] Newcomers Goldie and the Gingerbreads are a cinch to garner plenty of spins with this first-rate pop-r&b teen-angled thumper all about a love-sick chick who is so hung up on her guy that she'll do anything he asks.

(B+) WHAT KIND OF MAN ARE YOU (2:25) [Progressive, BMI—Charles] Pulsating, low-down raunchy blues lament.

Best Bets

BARBRA MERCER (Golden World 21)

• HEY (2:04) [Myto, BMI—Terry, Hamilton] Newcomer Barbra Mercer can quickly make a national name for herself on the basis of this rhythmic, multi-beat teen-angled pop-blues romancer about a gal who serves notice on one and all that she plans to stick it out with her guy.

(B+) CAN'T STOP LOVING YOU BABY (2:04) [Myto, BMI—Manacha, Gorman] Tender, low-key r&bish pledge of devotion.

HERB ALPERT & TIJUANA BRASS (A&M 767)

• MAE (2:27) [Miller, ASCAP—Ortolani] Herb Alpert and Co. are sure to grab plenty of spins with this version of the main-theme from the "Yellow Rolls-Royce" flick. Tune's an easy-going, lyrical soft 'n' sweet lush instrumental item. Plenty of potential here.

(B+) EL GARBANZO (2:13) [Almo, ASCAP—Lake] Pretty, south-of-the-border-ish sans-vocal.

RONNY AND THE DAYTONAS (Mala 503)

• BEACH BOY (2:07) [Tuneville, BMI—Cason-Gilmore] Ronny and the Daytonas could get back into their winning ways with this infectious surf sound that features the swift shuffle orking and smooth harmony that have proved consistent enticers for the teen market.

(B+) NO WHEELS (1:46) [Buckhorn, BMI—Wilkin-Cason] Hot rodder's lament to a happy beat.

PARAMOUNTS (Mercury 72429)

• THE GIRL WITH THE BIG BLACK BOOTS (2:15) [Fling-Dayshel, BMI—Pegues II-Lambert] The dance appeal of this side should score nicely with top 40 spinners and teens. Big bold stomp beat, good harmony and strong ork sound combine to add plenty of strength to the item's chart bid.

(B+) I WON'T SHARE YOUR LOVE (1:58) [Fling-Dayshel, BMI—Pegues II-Lambert] More moving sounds here.

RONNIE DANTE (Musicor 1090)

• IN THE RAIN (2:29) [Roosevelt, BMI—Rosenfeld] Strong singing from Ronnie Dante on this lament could hit by virtue of its solid beat and hefty over-all sound. This side demands special attention in light of the number of maudlin auto accident songs to click.

(B+) POOR BOYS (2:48) [Catalogue, BMI—Elgin-Keyes] Soft shuffle-cha ballad.

THE SURFARIS (Decca 31784)

• SOMETHIN' ELSE (2:00) [Metric, BMI—Sheenley-Cochran] Here's an interesting rocker that could see a quick reaction from the teens. The infectious handclapper, a Gary Usher production, has a refreshing feel, so eye this one closely.

(B+) THEME OF THE BATTLE MAIDEN (1:30) [Champion, BMI—Surfaris] Catchy all-instrumental teen rocker.

TEARS (Smash 1981)

• GOOD LUCK MY LOVE (2:39) [Conrad, BMI—Flemmons] There's a throaty charm in the female lead, and a Supreme-like sound in the group that has a possible hitsville draw. Programmers and teens should both go out for this Detroit-ish tune.

(B+) WHAT YOU'RE DOING TO ME (2:38) [Near North, BMI—Tarleton-Williams] More powerful mid-tempo sounds.

GLORIA LYNNE (Fontana 1511)

• WATERMELON MAN (2:59) [Hancock, BMI—Hancock-Lynne] Gloria Lynne applies her velvet styling to this Latin spiced Herbie Hancock hit and renders a new version that should strike the fancy of many deejays. Pleasant light jazz touch for good listening.

(B+) ALL ALONE (2:46) [Irving Berlin, ASCAP—Berlin] Nice lilt to this smooth standard.

BILLY QUAD AND THE RAVENS (Sahara 108)

• SOMEONE TO LOVE (2:14) [Tupper, BMI—Jones-Quad] This crew could find a winner with their bouncy lilter that features some fancy orking. The easy going, happy-go-lucky feeling on this deck is liable to break wide open with the teen crowd.

(B+) LISTEN TO ME (2:36) [Tupper, BMI—Quad] Strong shuffle rocker.

BARBARA RUSKIN (ABC Paramount 10657)

• HALFWAY TO PARADISE (2:18) [Screen Gems-Columbia, BMI—Goffin-King] Lustrous vocal work by Barbara Ruskin and an exciting solid set of orking should gather a nice following for this throbbing revival of the while back hit that clicked for Tony Orlando.

(B+) I CAN'T BELIEVE IN MIRACLES (3:04) [Duchess, BMI—Ruskin] Interesting folk-beat backing on this teen ballad.

SOUL FOUR (Ringo 4321)

• MISERY (2:50) [Balladin, Garrett-Abramson] There could be some big things in store for this potently orked rocker with a soulful vocal job and some catchy guitar backing. Should get good air play and might well take off. Deserves careful watching.

(B+) YOU'RE THE ANGEL (2:27) [Balladin, Richardson] Early r&r sound on this strong teen love song.

TOWN & COUNTRY BROS. (Ford 143)

• IT DOESN'T MATTER ANYMORE (2:12) [Spanka, BMI—Anka] Smooth group harmony adds a shine to this old Buddy Holly hit which is likely to attract considerable attention in this updating. The folksy-bluesy musical support on this slow rock side is another appealing point.

(B+) MY JAPANESE SWEET-HEART (2:23) [Merry-Go-Round Melody, BMI—Daryll-Taylor] Off-beat flavoring on this snappy ballad.

Best Bets

JIM LOWE (United Artists 874)

● MR. MOSES (2:20) [Unart, BMI—Lampert, Frontiere] Jim Lowe, of "Green Door" fame could regain his hit-maker status with this slow throbbing blues-talk type ditty inspired by the forthcoming flick, "Mr. Moses." Off-beat and catchy enough to click.

(B+) MAKE YOUR BACK STRONG (2:20) [Davidson County, BMI—Lowe] Up-tempo blues waltz with a New Orleans-folk mixture.

MIKI DALLON (RCA Victor 8576)

● DO YOU CALL THAT LOVE (2:30) [Al Gallico, BMI—Segal] Up-tempo multi-track side with plenty of bounce and an infectious appeal that could click with the dance crowds. Keep a close eye on this driving side because it just might break wide open.

(B+) APPLE PIE (2:55) [Al Gallico, BMI—Segal] Some fine guitar sounds behind another powerful vocal. Good up-tempo r&r side.

NEW YORKERS (DFD 1005)

● ADRIATICA (2:28) [Daffodil, BMI—Canfora] The New Yorkers could find a warm deejay and coin op reception for this soft instrumental shuffler. Attractive work-outs on organ and guitar weave a languorous spell somewhat akin to "Summer Place." Watch it.

(B+) OH TONY (2:09) [Daffodil, BMI—Morales, Wroe] R&B appeal on this funky guitar side.

FOUR HAVENS (Veep 1214)

● WHAT TIME IS IT (2:52) [Lescay-Grand Canyon, BMI—Feldman-Golstein-Gottelher] Some very fine sounds are to be heard on this steady tick-tock paced solid teen ballad on the Veep label, a division of United Artists. Could well catch on and move up the charts.

(B+) LET'S HAVE A GOOD TIME BABY (2:18) [Grand Canyon, BMI—Powers] R&b rocker.

EARL ROYCE (Tower 137)

● QUE SERA, SERA (2:51) [Artists, ASCAP—Livingston-Evans] This updating of the while back hit could garner enough programming attention to catch on. The lyrics are practically the only thing that remains of the oldie, which is here dressed in Latin-rock orking.

(B+) I REALLY DO (2:00) [Ivy, ASCAP—Anderson] Solidly driving rock tune.

JIMMY WITHERSPOON (Prestige 358)

● COME ON AND WALK WITH ME (2:26) [Meager, BMI—Parker] Blues artists Jimmy Witherspoon, who scored with his "You're Next" outing, should find a nice reception awaiting this lightly swinging ballad done up in his strong vocal style. Arranged by Benny Golson, this side could click.

(B+) TWO HEARTS ARE BETTER THAN ONE (2:25) [Pelew, ASCAP—Marshall] Dixieland backing on this sprightly lilter.

ANNETTE (Vista 442)

● NO ONE COULD BE PROUDER (2:30) [Lock & MZG, BMI—Saraceno, Rubens] Annette has had hits in the past and she can certainly score once again with this top-notch rhythmic, catchy, chorus-backed handclapper about a lucky lass who's on cloud number nine since she met the guy of her dreams. Watch it.

(B+) BOY TO LOVE (2:15) [Wrist, BMI—Michael, Gordon] Rollicking, happy-go-lucky romancer.

COASTERS (Atco 6356)

(B+) LET'S GO GET STONED (2:53) [Baby Monica-Flo Mar, BMI—Simpson-Ashford-Armstead] Slow throbbing blueser.

EMOTIONS (Vardan 201)

● LOVE OF A GIRL (2:30) [Mark Nine, BMI—Saunders-Otis] Slow side with plenty of r&b appeal. The Emotions put down a sound similar to that of the Impressions, with a nice build capable of catching fire and scoring in a grand manner. Look out for this deck.

(B) DO THIS FOR ME (2:26) [Mark Nine, BMI—Saunders-Otis] Good harmony on this Detroit blues lid.

PETE FOUNTAIN (Coral 62454)

● MAE (2:14) [Miller, ASCAP—Ortolani] Pete Fountain puts a load of charm into this soft clarinet showcased reading of the theme from the upcoming "The Yellow Rolls Royce." Beautiful sounds from the score by Riz "Mondo Cane" Ortolani, which could hit via pop and good music spins.

(B+) GOTTA TRAVEL ON (2:38) [Sanga, BMI—Clayton] Up-tempo Dixie treatment of the sturdie culled from Fountain's new LP, includes chorale.

BOBBY BYRD (Smash 1984)

● TIME WILL MAKE A CHANGE (2:40) [Taccoa, BMI—Byrd-Wright] Stunning ork support on this r&b item attracts attention to the vocal work of Bobby Byrd and could add that little extra appeal which makes for a selling side. Very catchy number with good potential.

(B+) THE WAY I FEEL (2:25) [Try Me, BMI—Byrd-Wright] Moving blues side with a strong beat.

THE PREVIEWS (Veep 1215)

● LOVEY DOVEY (2:35) [Unart, BMI—Hotchkiss] Infectious multi-dance rocker that should send the teens into a frenzy. The young label could have a chart item with this hot one. The Previews deserve close screening.

(B+) RIDERS IN THE SKY (2:35) [E. H. Morris, ASCAP—Jones] Jaunty instrumental of the popular tune.

GLENN SUTTON (MGM K13352)

● GEE-WHOPPER (2:15) [Al Gallico, BMI—Sutton-Catana] Way back blues sound and a Detroit flavoring set up an attractive backdrop for a Presley-like vocal on this stomping rocker which is tied-in with a newly marketed miniature surf-board. The fad should spark added sales.

(B+) I DON'T WANNA GO (2:18) [Al Gallico, BMI—Sutton] Light country sound on this bouncy number.

TIMI YURO (Mercury 72431)

● GET OUT OF MY LIFE (2:30) [South Mountain, BMI—Randazzo] Solid voiced Timi Yuro is likely to get back in her winning ways with this hearty blueser that features her strong sound backed by a potent ork. Should see plenty of spins and could click.

(B+) CAN'T STOP RUNNING AWAY (2:49) [South Mountain, BMI—Randazzo-Wienstein] Nicely paced mid-tempo bouncer.

LIZA AND THE JET SET (Capitol 5421)

● HOW CAN I KNOW (2:36) [Beechwood, BMI—Henderson] This set of newcomers could make a reputation for themselves with this forceful rock cha-cha. Liza's throaty sound is coupled with solid orking on this attractive deck. Should catch a lot of attention.

(B+) DANCING YET (2:34) [Meager & One Four Two, King] Brassy backing on this potent rock-a-cha belter.

JOE & EDDIE (Crescendo 344)

● DEPEND ON YOURSELF (2:39) [Metric, BMI—De-Shannon] Joe and Eddie depart from their pop-folk ways with this side from Jackie De Shannon, and the resulting sound is a solid throbbing rocker that should see plenty of spins and a chart position. Eye it carefully.

● WITH YOU IN MIND (1:55) [Metric, BMI—De Shannon] More collaboration between the pair and De Shannon, and more rocking sounds capable of turning this into a two-sided hit. The strong beat and folk-guitar aspects are nicely blended on this one.

ROBIE LESTER (Chattahoochee 680)

● GREEN FLAMINGO (2:22) [Music Productions, ASCAP—Shanklin-Abez-Esmond] Soft vocal by lark Robie Lester on this easy listening bossa nova tune with unusually attractive orking. There should be plenty of spins in the offing for this off-beat ballad.

(B+) ANOTHER SHOW ANOTHER TOWN (2:15) [Osoping, ASCAP—Van Winkle-Darian] Lovely shuffle-cha downhearted ballad.

EDDIE KING (Parkway 952)

● ALWAYS AT A DISTANCE (2:15) [Spectorious, BMI—King] Nicely done multi-track vocal job with some clever ork sounds on this deck could gather a following with the teens. Watch for good radio exposure and sales to make a name for Eddie King through this side.

(B+) IF YOU WISH (2:10) [Felicia, BMI—Asher-Waller] Folk flavoring on this Freddie tempo deck.

LONDONBERRY STRINGS (Warner Bros. 5631)

● MOONLIGHT MELODIE (2:30) [Gil, BMI—Gaze] The Londonberry Strings have had success in the album field and they can establish themselves as a single act on the basis of this medium-paced, easy-going hauntingly melodic instrumental stanza. Side can get both Top 40 an dmiddle-of-the-road spins.

(B+) OUR CRAZY AFFAIR (2:38) [M. Witmark, ASCAP—Spoliarsky, Drake] Melodic reading of the oft-cut flick theme.

BUDDY GRECO (Epic 9796)

● THE MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL IN THE WORLD (2:10) [T. B. Harms, ASCAP—Hart-Rodgers] Buddy Greco belts out a wildly swinging up-tempo up-dating of the Rodgers and Hart standard in his smooth style. Guaranteed to garner plenty of programming spins.

(B+) YOU WIN AGAIN (2:23) [Fred Rose, BMI—Williams] More softly lilting sounds on this track from Greco's latest LP.

FRED CARTER, JR. (Monument 881)

● HAPPY TEARS (2:22) [Pamper, BMI—Carter-Herston] The solid steady rock beat behind a strangely appealing vocal from Fred Carter, Jr. could attract considerable attention from the teen set. Watch out for a building reaction to this side.

(B+) LONELY, THAT'S ME (2:24) [Pamper, BMI—Carter, Jr.] Simply constructed melancholy ballad.

JOANNE TOUCHSTONE (Sound 7 Stage 2543)

● I'M CRYING (2:28) [Triumvirate, BMI—Touchstone] An interesting ork background sets off a lovely vocal from Joanne Touchstone on this tasty little lament. The unusual sound should catch enough attention to garner sales, and the deck could break wide open.

(B+) YOU CAUGHT ME OFF GUARD (2:11) [Triumvirate, BMI—Lichterman-Williams] Mid-tempo shuffle rocker.

THE VULCANES (Capitol 5423)

● POISON IVY (2:43) [Tiger, BMI—Leiber-Stoller] Pleasant revision of the Drifters' smash should please the new set of rock fans. The cute number has a strong arrangement and a load of commercial gimmicks. Deck rates careful attention.

(B+) MY HEART WON'T BELIEVE IT (2:17) [Screen Gems-Col., BMI—Riopelle-Hawley] Lively rock session with a stomp beat.

KETTY LESTER (RCA Victor 8573)

● PRETTY LIES, PRETTY MAKE BELIEVE (2:47) [Blackwood BMI—McCoy] Kitty Lester can quickly get back in her previous money-making ways with this hauntingly tender, slow-moving ballad which delineates the fantasy aspect of modern-day romances. Eye it closely.

(B+) A BETTER WORLD (2:31) [Roosevelt, BMI—Singleton, Snyder] Pulsating, rhythmic blues-oriented tearjerker.

OH, WELL . . . BETTER LATE—Vet c&w singer Ernest Tubb (right) had a golden evening last week when he received a gold disk for his 20-year-old hit, "Walking the Floor Over You," and a golden watch on the 25th Anniversary of his signing with Decca. Making the presentation was the diskery's president Milton R. Rackmil. The awards were given at the Friar's Club in New York, and Tubb worked a date at the Coral Club, East Paterson, N.J. later that night.

Christys For Music Show

CHICAGO—The New Christy Minstrels will be featured at the annual banquet of the 1965 Music Show at Chicago's Conrad Hilton Hotel. Featured performers at the Academy Awards and at a White House celebration hosted by President L. B. Johnson, the folk-team will perform a program of their most popular songs from six of their Columbia record albums which have sold over 5,000,000 copies. The Music Industry Banquet at which leading instrument manufacturers join with the National Association of Music Merchants in hosting the final event of the Music Show is scheduled for Wed., June 30, in the Grand Ballroom of the hotel. New NAMM officers and directors are to be presented at the dinner.

Oliver To Liberty Ad Staff

HOLLYWOOD—Allen LaVinger, director of advertising and merchandising for Liberty Records, has announced the addition of Richard Oliver to his staff. Oliver, who will be working as an assistant, will work closely with LaVinger on packaging and creating trade and consumer advertising and the development of displays, sales kits and catalogs.

Oliver joins Liberty following a three year tenure with Disneyland Records where he functioned as a sales-promo assistant. While at the Burbank studio, Oliver's credits included writing and directing Disneyland Story-teller records, among them "20,000 Leagues Under The Sea," "The Littlest Outlaw," "Mickey And The Beanstalk," "Hansel & Gretel" and "Robin Hood."

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Sir Douglas Quintet

The Sir Douglas Quintet, who are currently scoring heavily with "She's About a Mover" on the London-distributed Tribe label consist of five boys from the Lone Star State: Douglas Sahn, August Meyers, Jackson Barber, John Perez and Franklin Morin.

Douglas, who is the leader of the crew, is a graduate of San Antonio's Sam Houston High School. He's a songwriter and also plays a variety of instruments. August Meyers, the group's organ player, attended Breckenridge High School and is also writer and composer. Jackson Barber plays the bass. The drummer, John Perez, is a Golden Gloves boxer. Franklin Morin is the quintet's sax and percussion man.

The boys are produced and managed by Huey P. Meaux.

Olympics

The Olympics, who are currently clicking with "Good Lovin'" on the Loma label, were formed seven years ago by the late Jessie Belvin who auditioned the boys and immediately inked them to a long term contract.

Work really began at this point. The lads were trained in stage technique, vocal delivery, routines and choreography. Then a very famous writing team was called in. From this association their first recording session was put together which included "Western Movies." In the short span of about thirty days the tune had reached the million mark and was one of the biggest records in the nation.

The Olympics' first important national appearance was in Aug., 1958 when they were flown from Los Angeles to New York to appear on the Dick Clark Show.

After appearing in the east on a personal appearance tour for about six months, they returned to California and cut their second big hit, "The Hully Gully," which started a national dance craze. The rest is history.

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

This week's list of award winners is topped by WXYZ-Detroit, which copped several honors. Among these were the Sigma Delta Chi Distinguished Service Award for outstanding journalism, and also a citation from the Detroit Free Press for a series of ads directed toward civil rights. On the same scene, radio operations director David R. Klemm has been chosen by the local chapter of American Women in Radio and Television as one of the "Five To Watch" award recipients of 1965.

The Motor City station also copped four out of five top awards doled out by the Associated Press, who judged the broadcaster as being "head and shoulders above all others" in overall, news operation. The laurels were for "General Excellence Of News Presentation," "Best Documentary Program On A Local Level," "Best Commentary" and "Best Editorial." The ABC-owned station likewise copped a duo of Special Mention Awards for Michigan's Best Regular Morning News Show and Best Regularly Scheduled Sports Show. Out on the West Coast, KNX-Hollywood stepped into the limelight for the second year in a row as general manager Robert Sutton, on behalf of the station, received the National Headliners Award for the "most consistently outstanding radio news coverage for a major market in the nation." Under the same call signs, but in a different vein, sports commentator and former football great, Elroy "Crazy Legs" Hirsch, has been named to the State of Wisconsin Hall of Fame, and is one of five men from that state to receive the award. The same station copped three Certificates of Excellence, representing first place honors, and a pair of Certificates of Merit as second prizes, in the 13th Annual California Associated Press TV-Radio Association News Competition. Other awards in the same competition went to KCBS, who won two top honors and two of the three remaining second prizes. The last Certificate of Merit went to KNBR-San Francisco. Over at KLAC-Los Angeles, public affairs director Sam Benson has been honored with a plaque from the Beverly Hills City Council in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the community by virtue of his duties in the field of public affairs." Out on the Loop, WGN-Chicago has been presented with a certificate of recognition for its 13-week program series dealing with the Constitution of the United States, and back East, WJZ-Baltimore received the 1964 Thomas Alva Edison Foundation National Mass Media Award for "The Television Station That Best Served Youth." Back out to California, KMPC-Hollywood deejay Dick Whittinghill has been named "Outstanding Radio Personality of the West" for 1964-65 in the TV-Radio Mirror poll, while San Francisco's KMPC won the top public service award from the Radio Television Guild of the S.F. State College, for a feature on Synanon, the new approach to helping drug addicts. And finally, WOWO-Ft. Wayne has been awarded a Certificate of Appreciation by the Indiana Civil War Centennial Commission, for making a significant contribution to the study of Civil War history.

The construction of new facilities for Chicago's two educational stations WTTX and WXXW, was given a much needed boost when a check for $100,000 was donated to the project by WGN, Inc., and similar donations were made by the National Broadcasting Company and the Columbia Broadcasting System. Another philanthropic move was made by the Windy City outlet as it established the John C. Quinlan Memorial Scholarship Fund to aid deserving students in the University of Notre Dame's School of Communications Arts. The fund was established with a grant of $10,500 ($500 scholarship each year for the next 25 years) in memory of Quinlan, a sportscaster with the station who died in an auto accident in March.

TRANS-AMERICANS — A group of music-making Americans from the U.S. (Jay and the) hopped across the northern border for a jaw session with an American of the Canadian species, Jack Masters (right center), who hosts the Lakehead TVer, "Entertainment," on CKPR. The serious-looking New York five, who have had an unbroken string of biggies for United Artists ever since their "She Cried" outing, were soon displaying toothpaste smiles after finding their latest hit, "Think Of The Good Times," nestled securely in the Cash Box chart listings. It won't be long before the charts may have to make room for their latest release, "Cara Mia" b/w "When It's All Over," which has all the earmarks of being a double-barrelled blast. Also on the brand-new scene for the group is a just-recorded LP called "Jay & The Americans' Blockbusters," which contains both sides of their new single, as well as some of their previous hits, including "Let's Lock The Door And Throw Away The Key" and "Think Of The Good Times."

VITAL STATISTICS:

NEW YORK:

Connie Francis, who debuted in films some four years ago, has been signed to star in Sam Katzman's MGM revival of George Gershwin's "Girl Crazy" which starts filming in July. The lark will be in New York next week doing a benefit at Carnegie Hall (17) and pushing her newie, "Wishing It Were You." . . . Ella Fitzgerald books in at Basin Street East this week (6) for a three-week stand. . . . The folk-pop Serendipity Singers will be showcased on the NBC-TV "Today" show on the 27th with the entire show being built around the group and spotting individual members as well. . . . Ervin Litkei hosted an Olympia Distrib bash on the opening of Louis Prima at the Town and Country (30). Along with the orkster, his wife Gia Maione, Sam Butera and the Witnesses are on the bill. . . . Woody Allen, Colpix comic, will stage a return showing at the Bitter End for two weeks beginning May 12. This was the nitery where he scored his first success. . . . The Supremes, sporting a brand new waxing on Motown, "Back In My Arms Again," will be doing the Mike Douglas TVer (14). . . . Harvey Lisberg, manager of Herman's Hermits, stopped by last week to correct us on the point that the crew, now touring with the Dick Clark junket, are not committed to Clark for their fall concert and film deal. . . . Bruce Scott, 17-year old Mercury songster, turned in his first television appearance a month ago, and since then has built up a considerable list of credits working on his latest deck, "I Made An Angel Cry." . . . Two Mills Music items will receive their world premieres at the Inter-American Music Festival in Washington, D.C. last weekend. They were Carlos Chavez' "Invention No. 2" and the "Rondo-Rhapsody" by John Vincent. . . . Don Friedman presented a benefit concert last Mon. (3) for Synanon House, a group fighting drug addiction, with guest stars including Woody Allen, Morgana King, Gerry Mulligan and Mongo Santamaria. . . . A big welcome back for Tom Virzi, who has been on the road with Stanley Black's 11 city cross-country tour on behalf of his new London LP, "The Music Of A People." The orkster was reported very well received, as has been reflected in sales of the disk. . . .

Soundtracks seem to be in fashion this spring with new albums issued from some of the finest new film entries now at local theatres. The newest outings in release include MGM's score from the "Yellow Rolls-Royce" by Riv Ortolani and Neal Hefti's music for "Synanon," which opened last week, recorded by Liberty. Other leading entries in the filmdom files include the track from the highly praised "The Pawnbroker" by Quincy Jones (Mercury) and at the other end of the musical spectrum Motown's disking of the r&r sounds from "Nothing But A Man." The latter platter features artists like Martha and the Vandellas and Stevie Wonder among others. Coming back for a second run, the first two James Bond flicks have created a sales rush on the LP's from "Dr. No" and "From Russia With Love" according to Lloyd Leipzig at United Artists. . . . Another outing from the movie realm is the score from "Harlow" newly minted by Warner Brothers Records.

The Sherry Sisters headline the show at Palisades Amusement Park this coming week-end (15-16), and will be plugging away for their new Epic disking, "Not Tonight." . . . Brook Benton and his manager Buddy Friedlander left last Thurs. for the West Coast, and will fly to Honolulu and Australia this week (10) for dates at the Menzies and Savoy hotels in Melbourne. The pair expect to return to the U.S. on June 9. . . . Coming to the close of his cross-country tour, Gary LeMel showed up at the Cash Box offices looking none the worse from the wear and tear of a hectic schedule. The VeeJay artist winds up his trip with promotional showings on several TVers and a p.a. in Boston this week. Accompanying him during the visit was Mickey Wallach, who reports booming sales on the "Soul Sauce" LP and single by Cal Tjader, and Lee Morgan's VeeJay

"Carl Sandburg American Songbag" at Carnegie Hall on the final evening.

Bill Cosby will feature some of the material from his Grammy winning "I Started Out As A Child" Warner Bros. LP on the broadcast of the awards on the 18th. . . . Mark Wachs has shifted from Marvin Drager's to the pro firm of Bernie Ilson. . . . Claire Gilmartin of Gilda Records is slated for a guest shot on the Hal Jackson "A World Of Entertainment" show on WNJU, Channel 47 (29). . . . Many thanks to Bud Dain for his home run in last week's CB wiffle-ball play-off. The Crescendo veep followed up his diamond activities with a trip to Boston for promo chores with Joe and Eddie who are working on their new deck, "Depend On Yourself" and "With You In Mind." disk. . . . Marvin Deane last week showed that his arm was still in shape after pitching both ends of a double-header with the Music Men's League (his record is now 6-0) by dropping off some of the new Warner Bros.-Reprise product, including Sandie Shaw's first LP and Nelson Riddle's tribute to Nat "King" Cole. . . . Joe Sherman is putting together a nitery act for George Maharis for use on the Epic artist's tour of South America and the U.S. . . . Art Blakey checks in at the Half Note this week (11) for a short stay prior to his stint at the Jazz Workshop in Boston. . . . One of the highlight attractions of the New York Folk Festival this June (17-20) will be the premiere of a theatre-concert presentation of the Al Altman on these sides is "big." . . . Congrats to Mark Iapaolo, asst. manager of the Levittown branch of TSS, on the arrival of an 8-lb. baby girl, Catherine Linn last month. . . . Emery Deutsch's violin reading of selections from "Fiddler On The Roof" bows on RCA Victor this week, scoring credits to Ted Raph.

BORN TO BE WITH YOU (2:15)
[Edwin H. Morris, ASCAP—Robertson]
FAR, FAR AWAY (2:13) [One Four Two, BMI—Scott, Coulter]
CAPITOL SHOWBAND (Argo 5502)

The Capitol Showband are riding at the top of the charts in their native Ireland with this version of "Born To Be With You" and there's no reason why the crew can't click with it on this side of the foam. The side is a rollicking, happy-go-lucky countryish reading of the sturdie which boasts an infectious rhythmic undercurrent. "Far, Far Away" is a plaintively tender easy-going romancer.

CAPITOL SHOWBAND—BORN TO BE WITH YOU (Morris, ASCAP)—This is the original smash hit from Ireland. The Don Robertson oldie is given a fresh pop rocking rendition with hit written all over it. Flip: "Far Far Away" (One Four Two). Argo 5502

SLEEPER OF THE WEEK

A jaunty revival of the old tune could catch on very quickly. The sound is kind of thick and the singing is cheerful. Just the thing to attract teens. Disk is Argo 5502.

We might add that Jim applied the utmost propriety in presenting the American flag along with the album. . . . Fontana hosted the press to Oscar Brown Jr.'s opening at Mother Blue's (4). . . . Don Luis of the Carta Blanca restaurant inaugurates a new show on WXRT featuring Mexican records. . . . Promo man Bert Loob has high praise for Ric outings "Good Loving's Hard To Find" by The Cinders, "Losin' My Grip" by Red Sovine and "Mrs. Jones Your Son Gives Up Too Easy" by Lynn. . . . Jean Fardulli and Tony Malevitch held a gala Disk Jockey Night at their Blue Angel club (5). Chi jocks enjoyed a full evening, complete with cocktails, dinner, floor show and La Bostella! . . . Milt Jackson is in at the Plugged Nickel until the 16th. . . . Center of excitement at Kent Beauchamp's Royal Disc Dist. are singles "You Can Have Her" by the Righteous Bros. (Moonglow), "Go To Him" by the London Knights (Mike), "Crying In The Chapel" by Carol Fran (Port) and "Memories Linger" by Ronnie Savoy (Wingate). . . . Club Laurel's May lineup spotlights Bo Diddley (17-18), Bill Doggett (24) and Count Basie (5/31-6/1). . . . The boys at Liberty are concentrating on Vic Dana's follow-up "Bring A Little Sunshine To My Heart," Bobby Vee's newie "Keep On Trying" and "Lipstick Traces" by The O'Jays. . . . Biggies on Ron Alexenburg's plug list are "Darling Take Me Back I'm Sorry" by Ray Pollard (UA), "Masquerade" by Danny Williams (UA) and "Flipity Flop Fly" by Johnny Shane (World Artist). . . . The Harry Belafonte package, with Nana Mouskouri, comes into the Opera House here (25-29). . . . Alvin Cash, scoring with "Baracuda" (Mar-V-Lus), is among the current Regal Theater headliners. . . . Cy Gold is on the local move with Roulette albums "Organ Shindig" by Dave Baby Cortez, "For Women Only" by Pearl Bailey and "More Of Frankie Randall." . . . Chuck Livingston points to Mercury sizzlers "Walk In The Black Forest" by Horst Jankowski, "Do The Freddie" by Freddie & the Dreamers and "Turn Around Look At Me" by Julie Rogers. . . . With Mike Allen (United Rec. Dist.) the big ones to watch are "Fine Fine Fine" by the Ikettes (Modern), "Yes I'm Ready" by Barbara Mason (Arctic) and "Darling Come Talk To Me" by Joe Hinton (Back Beat).

HOLLYWOOD:

From our 8th floor offices at the Sunset-Vine Tower we are looking down at a news item—a bulldozer savagely mangling the last redolent remnants of a building once known as "The Chateau." It was the old Palmer residence and the original Capitol offices way back in August, '42. If walls could sing perhaps we'd be hearing a last chorus of Capitol's first release almost twenty-three years ago—Ella Mae Morse's "Cow Cow Boogie," Johnny Mercer's "Strip Polka" or the trumpet of Bobby Sherwood with "Elk's Parade." And as the brick and redwood tumble we drink a toast—nostalgia on the rocks. . . . Rave reviews for Robert Goulet who'll be appearing at the Coconut Grove thru the 17th—the L.A. Times rates it "the best night club evening in years" and the Citizen News advises their readers to "run, don't walk—someone like Goulet just happens once in a while." . . . Della Reese opened this past week at the "Lazy X" in N. Hollywood—her 15th year as a professional charmer and she's greater than ever. . . . Possibly the most exciting news since the goof proof cocktail and the introduction of the LP is the word that came to us this week that Orrin Keepnews, merchandising and promotion manager for Colpix Records, has—after 39 plus years—most of them spent in New York—received from the State of California a document called a driver's license. We understand that Keepnews is now anticipating the purchase of an automobile. . . . Sonny and Cher were "shot" last week by Look Magazine. We're told the June 1st issue come to Steve Adler who's just joined Irwin Zucker's publicity firm. . . . Bill Siegel, Vee Jay's sales manager, believes Fred Hughes has a big one in "Oo Wee Baby" with powerful re-orders from Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit. . . . We're betting on Lou Rawls' vocal version of "3 O'Clock In The Morning," produced by Capitol's Dave Axelrod. . . . Mrs. Rebecca Adler, a Studio City housewife, has her first single on Pieces of Eight label—it's titled "Personality." . . . Burt Sugarman has finalized negotiations with Bob Skaff of Liberty Records who'll distribute The Explosions. First side, to be released next month, is titled "Work With Me Annie." . . . Keely Smith's next single for Reprise was penned by Smith and her beau, Jimmy Bowen. The pair, who recently announced their engagement, titled it "Something Wonderful Happened." . . . Burt Bacharach signed to write the score for MGM's "The Liquidator."

MOTOWN #1075

TAMLA / MOTOWN RECORDS 2648 W. GRAND BLVD., DETROIT, MICH.

STANLEY DROPS IN — Stanley Black, the London and phase 4 labels' best-selling maestro, recently made his first visit to these shores. His 9-city tour was in conjunction with his latest phase 4 LP, "Music of a People," sales of which has led to strong mono reception for the essentially stereo-gearred line, in addition to expected big stereo movement. Among Black's New York promo rounds were visits to: (top left) CBS, with (left to

MGM Sets Big Push For "The Yellow Rolls-Royce"

NEW YORK—In an all-out drive to exploit MGM Records' LP of "The Yellow Rolls-Royce" the firm's record division is combining with the flick division as well as its publishing arm to mutually coordinate all publicity and promotion.

To establish advance interest special screenings of the picture are being set in key cities for dealers, deejays, rack-jobbers, distributors and reviewers. Emphasis on the campaign will be on special window displays with MGM Records supplying an 18x26 inch window center-piece featuring a three-dimensional cut-out of the yellow Rolls-Royce. The label has distributed a special movie playdate service to dealers, distributors and salesmen advising dates of the flick throughout the country.

Highlights of the campaign will be concentration for extra radio plays through syndicated deejay programs as well as local shows. The record division is concentrating in getting special feature reviews of the album through syndicated and local record reviewers. Trade, consumer and co-op advertising is being tied-in with playdates of the flick.

The soundtrack LP contains music composed by Riz Ortolani who triumphed with his "Mondo Cane" score two years ago. The film stars such notables as Ingrid Bergman, Rex Harrison, Alain Delon, George C. Scott, Jeanne Moreau, Omar Shariff, Shirley MacLaine, Art Carney, Wally Cox, Joyce Grenfell, Moira Lister and Edmund Purdom.

The movie is slated to open May 13 at the Radio City Music Hall in New York and June and July throughout the rest of the country.

Mathis Waxes LP With 36 'Friends'

CHICAGO—An association that began last year when Johnny Mathis was joined by a 36 man group, the Young Americans, at the Greek Theater in Los Angeles, has blossomed into a Mercury record album shortly to be released. The combination has stayed together and played dates across the country since their first meeting, and reactions were strong enough for the diskery to have waxed the new LP, "Young Americans and Friend."

Mathis is currently in England and will work the continent until May 18, doing TV and concert engagements in Germany and Austria plus the London Palladium. He returns to America on the 20th, and will appear for two-weeks at the Copacabana, followed by a week of South American concerts.

The Young Americans, who are booked by GAC as is Mathis, re-join their "friend" July 8 thru 14, when they work an entire week at McCormick Place, Chicago. Other summer dates where they will join Mathis include: Yale Bowl, New Haven, Conn., Aug. 14-15; Forest Hills, N. Y., 21; and Hamid's Pier, Atlantic City, 28-29.

NEARING NUPTIALS—Showing no trace of nerves, Shelby Singleton, vice president of A&R for Mercury Records, raises a toast to his fiancée Barbara MacCollum. The wedding date is set for May 15 in New York.

Juilliard Strings To Russia

NEW YORK—One of the world's most distinguished chamber ensembles, the Juilliard String Quartet, has embarked on a tour of the Soviet Union, with appearances scheduled for major concert halls throughout the U.S.S.R.

The quartet, among the best sellers of the classical music world, have recently been performing extensively in universities and music centers across the U.S. In their April schedule were engagements at the University of Massachusetts, Boston University, the U.S. Marine Academy, Western College and Purdue University, as well as the Friends of Music Center in Croton, N. Y., the Wilton Congregational Church in Wilton, Conn. and the Mineola Playhouse.

Stahl Visits U.S.

NEW YORK—Felix Stahl, composer and publisher with Stockholm Music Productions, returned to Europe having concluded a business trip to the United States. While here the tunesmith sold "Tears," with lyrics by Carl Sijman, to the Claus Ogermann pubbery; "Love Me With Your Heart" (lyrics by Ray Allen and Wandra Merrell) to Vanessa Music; and "Ich Liebe Dich," words by Alex Alstone, to Leeds Music.

Stahl last week flew to London and Paris, and is now back in Stockholm.

Max Feit To Amy-Mala

NEW YORK—Max Feit has become Comptroller and credit manager over at Amy-Mala Records, Larry Uttal, label general manager, announced last week. He previously spent seven years with the now defunct Cadence label.

Mills' Kalban To Head Ed. Dept., Name Other Execs

NEW YORK—Bernard Kalban has been named manager of the Mills Music's educational department, Waren Ling, vice-president and general manager, has announced. Kalban replaces Don Malin, who left to assume the educational post at E. B. Marks Music Corp.

With Mills Music since 1960, Kalban moves up from his advertising-promotion role there. Prior to 1960 he performed in executive capacity for Hansen Publications, Inc., also serving a previous hitch at Mills.

At the same time, Ling named two important additions to the Mills Music executive staff with the appointment of Samuel Rubenstein as controller and Lawrence Lighter, attorney, to legal and special administrative duties. Lighter moves over from SESAC where he performed similar tasks. Graduate of New York University School of Law, he majored in copyright law, writing a graduate paper on "Record Piracy."

Rubenstein resigned his position as controller of Peter Pan Industries to accept the present appointment and will assume complete financial responsibilities for the music firm. He is an accounting graduate of City College of New York.

All three execs will report directly to Ling. These mark the first important changes in Mills Music personnel since purchase by Utilities and Industries Corp. Mills Music Trust units are now being traded over-the-counter.

Columbia Releases Four 4-Track Tapes

NEW YORK—Columbia will release four 4-track stereo tapes in May, among them are to be three from the Masterworks catalog and one popular item. The offering will reach the market at the same time as the firm's album counterparts.

Zino Francescatti will be the featured soloist with the New York Philharmonic under the conduction of Leonard Bernstein on the recording of Sibelius' Concerto in D Minor for Violin and Orchestra and Bruch's Concerto No. 1 in G Minor for Violin and Orchestra. The second of the May classical product issue is "God Bless America" by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir. And rounding out the release is Andre Kostelanetz conducting the New York Philharmonic on "Show-stoppers."

The popular tape issue is Andy Williams' "Dear Heart."

MARTINON DISPLAY — The Lyon and Healy Music Store in Chicago developed this window display honoring the first recording by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra under its new conductor, Jean Martinon. The premiere disk, done for the RCA Victor Red Seal label, contains performances of Ravel's "Daphnis and Chloe Suite No. 2" and Rousset's "Bacchus And Ariadne Suite No. 2."

Tower Releases New C&W Single

HOLLYWOOD — Currently riding high on the country charts with Dick Curless' initial label outing, "Tombstone Every Mile," Tower Records has purchased "Arms Full Of Love" by Pamela Miller, from the Bigg Kountry label.

The tune, written by Eddie Miller, father of the 10-year-old songstress, is reported to be making considerable noise under the old label and was released on Tower on May 10.

Wheeler To Adapt Sandburg For Carnegie

NEW YORK—One of the highlights of the first New York Folk Festival will be the premiere of Carl Sandburg's "American Songbag" in the theatre-concert at Carnegie Hall on June 20 at 8:30.

The program is being synthesized and adapted by folksinger Billy Edd Wheeler and features Buffy Sainte-Marie, Mississippi John Hurt, the Greenbriar Boys, Jessie Colin Young plus other important folk artists to be announced.

ONE TOO MANY?—You haven't had one too many if you count one too many Smothers Brother in the photo, it's Jack Jones in the center as the trio came out for curtain calls following their record breaking engagement at Melodyland in Anaheim, Calif. The Kapp crooner guested with Mercury's mirthmaking twosome for their eight performances which grossed $104,629.36 from 27,252 patrons. The theater's previous gross and attendance records were set during Juliet Prowse's showing.

Serendipitys Set For Aussie Tour In July

CHICAGO—The Serendipity Singers make their first junket "down under" starting July 7, when they do a concert at Town Hall, Auckland, New Zealand. The remainder of their itinerary on their Anzac swing includes: Founder's Theater, Hamilton, N.Z., 8; Civic Theater, Christ Church, N.Z., 9; Town Hall, Wellington, N.Z., 10; Festival Hall, Brisbane, Australia, 12; Stadium, Sydney, 14-15; Festival Hall, Melbourne, 17-19; and Continental Hall, Adelaide, 20-21. The nine-person Philips recording group and their manager Fred Weintraub, Gotham nitery entrepreneur, will make the tour.

In a personnel move necessitated when Lauree Berger left the Serendipity Singers for a Hollywood try-out, Patti Davis has moved into her slot. The Springfield, Mo. performer is a veteran of legitimate and operatic productions and has been seen and heard as dancer and singer on many TV shows.

Gould To Europe

HOLLYWOOD—Mike Gould, managing director of Metric Music, left Hollywood today (10) for the first lap of a five-week European business trek. The initial stop-over on Gould's agenda is a ten-day London visit where he'll be working closely with the publishing firm's British arm, Metric Music Ltd. While in England Gould plans to contact key artists and other publishers. During the rest of his trip the exec will visit Metric's sub-publishers in Frankfurt, Stockholm, Paris, Milan and Rome.

Merc-Wing Releases 6 New LP's For May

CHICAGO—In a sales program titled "Everything New But The Name" Mercury-Wing, the budget line, presented a set of 6 new albums highlighting new repertoire, packaging and promotion. Harry Kelly, national sales manager, introduced the six LP's in 4-color covers with fully descriptive backliners introduced to sell the line. All packages, he noted, will continue to be poly-bagged.

This release features the debut of the Riviera Orchestra, a good aggregation recently signed to a long-term pact. The musicians are featured on three outings, "World's Greatest Torch Songs," "World's Greatest Melodies," and "World's Greatest Love Songs." In the c&w field, Leroy Van Dyke is represented on "Out Of Love." The remaining two sets are: "More Morgana King" and "Go Go With The Buddies."

Additional budget has been added for advertising, Kelly stressed, and all albums are being mailed to both radio station and reviewer lists for greater consumer exposure of the budget product entry.

More brand-new Mercury-Wing product will be released on a regular policy, he added.

Jameco Incorporates

NEW YORK—Jameco-Hawk Records have been incorporated and officially changed the firm's title to Jameco Records, Inc. The outfit is headquartered at 91-02 Sutphin Blvd., Jamaica, New York.

Bill Seabrook, who has been with the company as A&R director, has been upped to vice president of the Chief Records division.

The label's first release under the new title has also come onto the market. The platter is "Second Hand Love" by Diana Tyler and Nat Brown. Seabrook, who also heads the affiliated pubbery Flying Hawk Music, cited a fine reaction to the record in the Baltimore-D.C. area.

Buddy Kaye Goes Abroad

NEW YORK — Buddy Kaye, the writer/publisher, left last week (5) on one of his semi-annual European jaunts to London. While in Europe, Kaye will be fulfilling independent lyric assignments as well as further activating his British company, Budd Music Ltd.

Several television appearances in England and checking out his various European hits — Richard Anthony's "Piangi," currently a smash in Italy — Anthony's "Garcon Plaisir" and "Sacre Josh" by Les Surfs, French hits—will round out his busy itinerary. Kaye recently completed the English text for the Charles Aznavour, Georges Garvarentz song, "Tu T'Amuses."

During his absence, Kaye's New York firm, Budd Music Corp., will be held down by Manny Pine (associated with the Barry Sisters), who recently joined the company.

Laurie Bows Four Singles

NEW YORK—Laurie Records has announced a release of four singles. Artists featured on the decks are: Gerry and the Pacemakers, the Chiffons, Dion, and Dean and Jean.

H&A Selmer Ups Sales In First Quarter

ELKHART, INDIANA—H. & A. Selmer, Inc., manufacturers of musical instruments for school bands and orchestras, reports that its sales for the quarter ended March 31, 1965 were $2,154,000, an increase of 13.6% over the $1,895,700 sales reported in the first quarter last year. Earnings were $103,900, compared to $77,000 earned in the first quarter of 1964. Based on the average number of shares outstanding, earnings for the first quarter of 1965 were 7.8 cents per share, an increase of 30% over the 6 cents per share earned in the first quarter of 1964. There were 1,344,300 shares outstanding on March 31, 1965 and 1,287,300 shares outstanding one year ago. The company's quarterly report points out that because of the normal pattern of school purchases, the firm's first quarter sales and earnings, usually are below those of any other quarter. All figures have been adjusted for the 2-for-1 stock split of April 20, 1965.

TAKING A BEAD WITH A BEAT

—Florida State Trooper Jim Foster showed Dave Greenman the finer points of gunmanship during his recent visit to Cash Box offices in New York while CB editorial staffer Tom McEntee prepared himself for the blast. Greenman, national promotion director with United Artists, made the trade rounds with the c&w songster, whose waxing of "Four On The Floor (And A 'Fifth' Under The Seat)" was sanctioned by the government for a national public safety campaign on road safety. Foster also spent a month at the Fla. pavillion in the World's Fair, and will return to his duties with the State Patrol at the close of this week.

'COURAGE' WAXING—RCA Victor Records is preparing an album, "Profiles In Courage," based on the popular television series derived from the book by the late President J. F. Kennedy. Senator Edward Kennedy, brother of the President, who has recorded a narration for the LP, is shown here with Robert Saudek (center) producer of the TV series, and Roger Hall, manager of the label's Red Seal A&R duties, prior to the recording at the RCA Victor studios.

Mercury Adds Four New Acts

CHICAGO—Mercury Records has inked four new acts to its roster, with all of the firm's A&R offices represented in the signings.

The Lively Set is a seven-voice group which was brought into the fold by the Hollywood office. The first session for the group is "Dippity Do," which is based on a West Coast dance craze.

Four Detroit girls, the Chelfontes, were signed by the midwest corps, while Lyn Roman and a male quartet called the Spectrums were brought in by the New York division.

Dino, Desi & Billy To Debut On 'Shindig'

BURBANK—Although the trio of Dino, Desi and Billy is new to the record field, a pair of its members bear names that are well-established in the entertainment industry. Teaming up with Billy Hinsche, Dino Martin (son of Dean Martin) and Desi Arnaz, Jr. will be making their network debut this week when they air their vocal talents on ABC-TV's May 12, "Shindig" rockathon. The new group, which reportedly triggered off one of the largest deluges of fan mail in the history of Warner Bros. and Desilu Studios, has as its first single, "I'm A Fool," which was produced by Lee Hazelwood.

Deutsche Grammophon Releases Five For May

NEW YORK—Herbert Von Karajan and the Berlin Philharmonic lead off the May release of five albums from Deutsche Grammophon Records with a new recording of the "Symphonie Fantastique." The other four LP's are comprised of the seldom performed Bruckner Quintet in F Major, with the Amadeus Quartet joined by violinist Cecil Aronowitz; Mendelssohn's "Incidental Music to A Midsummer Night's Dream" played by Rafael Kubelik and the Choir and Symphony Orchestra of the Bavarian Radio with featured soloists Edith Mathis (soprano) and Ursula Boese (contralto); Wilhelm Kempff plays "Les Adieux" and "The Tempest" with the Sonata No. 28 in A in an LP continuing his series of Beethoven piano sonatas; and the final disk is a performance by the Don Cossack Choir of 14 songs.

The German diskery, which is distributed in the U.S. by MGM Records, does not schedule releases for June and July.

PHILLY ROARS—Anthony Newley, star of the touring hit musical "The Roar of the Greasepaint—the Smell of the Crowd," joined Nancy Beebe and Bill Hart (extreme right) for an interview on "TV-Ten Around Town" broadcast over WCAU-Philadelphia. Leaning in was Bob Cullen, promotion man with RCA Victor, which is handling the casters. "Roar" will open on Broadway May 16 under the aegis of David Merrick.

MGM/Verve Swingin' On Singles, LP Charts

NEW YORK—MGM/Verve Records abounds in singles and LP hits these days. The diskery is running with eight Top 100 singles, including three items in the Top 10, while seven of the firm's album efforts are clicking on the charts, also boasting a Top 10 MGM/Verve set.

In the singles area, the top 10 items include two smashes by Herman's Hermits, the still number 1 (for the third week) item, "Mrs. Brown You Have A Lovely Daughter," and "Silhouettes." A top 10 "sleeper" for the diskery is "Whooley Bully" by Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs.

Rounding out the singles showing are "Can't You Hear My Heartbeat" by Herman's Hermits; "Wishing It Were You" by Connie Francis; "Bring It On Home To Me" by the Animals; "Soul Sauce" by Cal Tjader and "Then I'll Count Again" by Johnny Tillotson.

The label's top 10 album is "Introducing Herman's Hermits," followed by "Your Cheating Heart," soundtrack; "Getz Au Go Go" by Stan Getz; "Monster" by Jimmy Smith; "Soul Sauce" by Cal Tjader; "Up With Donald Byrd" and "The Astrud Gilberto Album."

Stock Market Whiz Into Record Biz

NEW YORK—Nicolas Darvas, of the dance team of Julia and Darvas, and author of the best seller, "How I Made $2,000,000 In The Stock Market," has turned his considerable talents to record production.

His first venture into the field is a comedy LP titled "Life With Liz and Dick," which was released on Roulette, and stars Billy Baxter and Pat Bright.

Consistent with Darvas' method of doing things on a grand scale, this album is getting a lavish promo drive. Participating in the national promotion will be American Airlines, The Hilton Hotels, National Car Rental, Norelco Radio, Chateau Martin Champagne, Blackwell Fashions of Los Angeles and Consolidated Cigars. At the retail level, consumers will be able to pick up application blanks at their local record store, on which they will be asked to answer five tongue-in-cheek questions about the album and it's contents. They will then have to submit an essay of 25 words or less on why they would like to win an exciting "Liz and Dick Weekend in New York." The first prize will be just that.

The winning couple will fly via VIP American Airlines to New York. At the airport they will be met by a guaranteed mob of 200 "fans" who will seek their autographs, tear at their clothes, shriek and howl and generally adore them. They will then be driven, at a leisurely pace, in a chauffeured Lincoln Continental limousine (compliments of National Car Rental) to the Statler Hilton Hotel. Their 200 "fans" will be rushed to the hotel by bus in time to greet them again at their arrival at the Statler Hilton, where our own Liz and Dick will be given the VIP treatment. Their first evening in New York they'll visit El Morocco and see "Hello Dolly" and on their second evening here they'll go to '21' and see "Golden Boy." On the third day our winning pair will fly home via VIP American Airlines.

The retailer who supplies the winning application will get the same treatment, sans mob, two weeks later and the local distributor, who supplied that retailer will win a Blackwell of Los Angeles gown for his wife or anyone else he might have in mind.

The disc jockey who gets the best comment on the album from his listeners will also get a Blackwell gown to give to his favorite gal.

In addition to the contest, 2,500 Consolidated cigars will be sent to disc jockies around the country announcing the birth of this great new comedy LP.

The contest will run from May 15th to June 30th with the prizes to be awarded during the summer.

Col-SG Music Covers Wide Disk Area

NEW YORK—Things are humming over at the music division of Columbia Pictures and Screen Gems.

Pubbery, under the helm of Don Kirshner, has got chart activity coupled with a number of waxings currently underway by a number of varied, topline disk artists.

Already stationed on the Top 100 for the firm are "Just Once In My Life" by the Righteous Bros. (Philles), "Baby The Rain Must Fall" by Glenn Yarbrough (Victor) and "Come On Over To My Place" by the Drifters (Atlantic).

Under Kirshner's personal attention, there are diskings of the company's songs being cut by Barbra Streisand, Jack Jones, Nancy Wilson, Peggy Lee, Vic Damone, Count Basie, Johnny Mathis and Keely Smith.

Kirshner is also working closely with composers Dimitri Tiomkin and Ernest Gold plus maestro Arthur Fiedler on upcoming projects.

In recent months, the firm has come up with such big Top 100 items as "You've Lost That Loving Feeling" by the Righteous Bros. and "I'm Into Something Good" by Herman's Hermits.

JCC To Handle 2-LP Tribute To Youmans

NEW YORK — JJC Records, Joe Csida's new disk operation, has taken over the worldwide distribution of a recent 2-LP release, "Through the Years with Vincent Youmans," which retains its original Evergreen label logo.

The package will take its place among JJC's World of Theatre series, which Csida took over from the RIC label.

In the future, JJC will produce new LP's of its own in both the World of Theatre series and in the Posterity series.

Pat Sabatino, sales manager of JJC, has announced the release of three new JJC albums this month. He and Csida are mapping out a special promo campaign for the Youmans package aimed at quality specialty disk stores, musical comedy collectors, little theatre groups and colleges across the country.

Deal for the Youmans entry—which includes mail order and record club rights—was made by Csida and William H. Borden, president of Monmouth Records and producer of the package.

U. S. STEELE—RCA Victor has just added another English musical cast to its catalog, the well-received "Half a Sixpence." The Broadway cast was recently brought into Webster Hall for the date. In the top photo, star Tommy Steele cuts a number with the "Sixpence" chorus. In the middle photo, Andy Wiswell, A&R director, (left) and George Marek, head of Victor and supervisor of the date, check a recording detail. The bottom photo shows George Parkhill, ad manager, in the foreground, and, in the background, Sim Myers of Victor (gentleman in the middle is not known). Victor's other English-originated musical shows are "Oliver" and "Roar of the Greasepaint," which opens on Broadway this Sunday (16), although the label cut the cast some-time ago.

Victor Adds "Flora" To Its Pre-B'way Run Casters

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records once more believes it's on to a good thing and set last Sunday (9) for a recording of a musical show that's yet to make an official Broadway bow.

The latest pre-opening session for the label is "Flora, the Red Menace," which is giving previews on the Main Stem prior to its premiere this Wed. (12). New York's Webster Hall was the scene of the session.

If past activity in this vein is any indication, the label should come up with a winner. It cut the Broadway cast LP's of two British musicals, "Oliver!" and "Roar of the Greasepaint . . ." opening this Sunday (16). before their showings on Broadway and has two strong LP's for the cast shelf. "Roar" is number 21 on this week's LP chart.

"Flora" stars Liza Minnelli, and has a score by John Kander and Fred Ebb. One of its tunes, "A Quiet Thing," has been cut by a number of artists, including Liza Minnelli (for her home label Capitol and Victor's own John Gary).

Acuff-Rose Ltd. Execs Making Visit To U.S.

NEW YORK—Nick Firth and Colin Berlin of Acuff-Rose Music Ltd. of England are in the U.S. for a 1-week visit. Firth handles the publishing end of the company, while Berlin covers the booking end, which includes bringing Americans to Britain and setting up U.S. tours for British acts.

The two execs are introducing British singer Tom ("It's Not Unusual") to the trade and holding discussions with the parent company execs Wesley Rose and Bob McClusky, who recently joined the label. Also, they'll set up a Tom Jones tour here for July and an appearance trek for another British artist, Donovan. For their area, the two are working on a Roy Orbison tour, also penciled in for July.

Their visit will include various meets with tradesters for an exchange of talent.

RIAA Adds 6 Labels

NEW YORK—Six labels have joined the Record Industry Association of America (RIAA), according to Henry Brief, exec secretary. They are Vee Jay, Crescendo, Longines Symphonette, Everest, Signet and Request. The newcomers bring RIAA's membership to 40 manufacturers.

Ballard To Pen Broadway Score

NEW YORK—Composer Clint Ballard, whose pen is generally directed toward the rock area, has set his sights on the Broadway scene and is already knocking out the lead sheets for a forthcoming Glitter Street package. The show, set to debut next fall, is called "That's The Way The Money Goes" and will be produced by Marshall Young. Among the more well known tunes penned by Ballard are "Game Of Love," with which Wayne Fontana & the Mindbenders recently topped the best-selling charts, "Good Timing," the Jimmy Jones smash of a few years back, as well as other goodies, "Hey Little Girl," and "Ginger Bread."

Spike Jones Dies

LOS ANGELES — Spike Jones, for years the baron of musical buffoonery, died in his Bel-Air home at the age of 53 on April 30. The death of the famous musician was attributed to emphysema, a respiratory disease.

His most well-known musical spoofs date back to the war years when, in 1942, he recorded "Der Fuehrer's Face," a giant "Bronx cheer" aimed at Adolf Hitler which went on to sell 1.5 million copies for RCA Victor. Two years later, he and his City Slickers received another gold disc for their comic interpretation of "Cocktails For Two," filled with a cacophony of pistol shots, cowbells and an entire chorus of hiccups.

As the combo gained popularity the musical instrument department expanded to include washboards, tuned doorbells and automobile horns, an octave of flit guns (tuned to E Flat), a crashophone (for breaking glass), a latrinophone, which was a toilet seat rigged with catgut, and a goat trained to baa in the key of C.

Another gold record came a few years later with the novelty tune, "All I Want For Christmas (Is My Two Front Teeth)," and in the 1950's Liberty Records took advantage of his unique sound and had him record several records in stereo, which at that time was a new concept in disk recording. Then, in the 1960's Jones abandoned the pistol shots and washboards to cut several records in a straight Dixieland vein.

Funeral services were held at St. Victor's Roman Catholic Church in West Hollywood and burial services were held at the Holy Cross Cemetery in Los Angeles. Jones is survived by his wife, the former Helen Greco, and children, Lindley Armstrong, Jr., Leslie and Gina Marie.

Doherty Promotion Announced At URC

HOLLYWOOD—Bill Putnam, president of United Recording Corporation and Western Recorders of Hollywood, last week announced the appointment of Robert H. Doherty to the office of vice president with the firm. In his new position he will serve as general manager of recording operations.

Doherty has been with the company for four years in the capacity of operations manager and chief recording engineer. He came to the outfit from MGM in New York.

TIME TO SAY GOOD-BYE—This past week, Hugo and Luigi, Roulette Records execs and A&R heads, hosted a farewell party at the Rat Fink Room honoring their long-time Gal Friday, Cathy Favaro Maimone, upon her retirement due to anticipated motherhood this coming July. (Cathy is the wife of Joe Maimone, Capitol Records' N.Y. sales rep).

Of her nineteen years in the music industry, Cathy spent the last eleven of these years as secretary and aide to Hugo & Luigi. Shown above, the A&R team presented her with a bronze plaque, and a diamond-studded bracelet honoring her services. The vacated post will be filled by Joyce Weston.

STRONG AIRPLAY FOR FOUR BIG SINGLES

Radio stations all across the country are picking up these four singles. Lou Rawls sings Three O'Clock In The Morning b/w Love is Blind, 5424. Buck Owens sings a double hit: Before You Go b/w I Want No One But You, 5410. The Four Freshmen have an exciting new sound with When I Stop Lovin' You, 5401. Cilla Black has another great single with I've Been Wrong Before, 5414.

Why do you adore Eydie?

Her album of old spirituals, Let the Good Times Roll, draws larger crowds to record stores than you can find at revival meetings. Hallelujah!

The way she fills the wide open spaces in record stores across the country with clamoring customers anxious to buy her big smash album, Gorme Country Style.

The combination of Eydie, Trio Los Panchos and those gorgeous Latin love songs in her album, Amor, is adored by record buyers everywhere. Me? I love Eydie!

What kind of question is that? Haven't you heard that chick do Blame It on the Bossa Nova? Everybody and his brother is buying that one. Get with it and stock up! Dig?

The extraordinary way she sings those great songs from hit musicals in her new album, The Sound of Music. Theatergoers and moviegoers are sold on her ... and that includes me!

Eydie who?

POP PICKS

THE NAT KING COLE SONG BOOK—Sammy Davis—Reprise R/RS 6164

In a fine musical tribute, Sammy Davis, Jr. has grouped together and waxed a fitting assembly of melodies made famous by the late Nat King Cole. Starting way back in the days of the King Cole Trio, the tunes are a heaping platterful of nostalgia, handled in the unmistakable Davis style. Some of the most memorable Cole specialties presented here are "Walkin' My Baby Back Home," "Pretend" and a medley of Cole Classics, "Mona Lisa—Too Young—Nature Boy." Sure to pull a lot of loot.

SOMEBODY ELSE IS TAKING MY PLACE—Al Martino—Capitol S/ST 2312

Dubbing this session after his recent chart success, Al Martino uses that same tune to initiate this Capitol collection of tender ballads. Every one of the dozen tracks included in this package gets the full Martino treatment of warmth and sincerity, which, blended with the silken, multi-stringed backing of Peter DeAngelis' ork, could send this one right up the charts. Superfine tracks include "If I Loved You" as well as the artist's other recent noisemaker, "Hush . . . Hush, Sweet Charlotte."

THE VERSATILE BRENDA LEE—Decca DL 4661/74661

Brenda Lee belts out a dozen tunes culled from recent best seller lists and the roster of studiers proving her malleable artistry capable of handling either with equal capability. The powerful sound of this teen favorite should click with the older crowd through her tender reading of ballads like: "La Vie En Rose" and "Willow Weep For Me," while she retains her hold on the younger set through readings of pop material like "The Birds And The Bees." Should fast become a spinner and chart riding favorite.

ENGLISH HITS OF '65—Billy Strange—GNP Crescendo GNP 2009

The most up-to-date album on the market, this rocking set from Billy Strange features a dozen of the hottest English tunes on the charts today. With the big guitar sound of Strange, and his moving group, each of the songs takes on a fresh appeal which should score in a grand fashion, sky-rocketing way up the charts. Tracks include instrumental versions of "I Know A Place," "Mrs. Brown You've Got A Lovely Daughter" and "Ticket To Ride." Watch for tremendous reaction to this effort.

THE SCENE CHANGES—Perry Como—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3396

The smooth tonsils of Perry Como, which have, over the years, emitted a pile of golden notes, and in the process, a pile of golden platters, are presented with another solid session of fine music in the Como style, backed by the Anita Kerr Quartet. Mr. C's latest sizzling single, "Dream On, Little Dreamer," which is currently zipping up the charts and prospecting for more of that gold stuff, heads up the session, and equally fine grooves include "Stand Beside Me" and "A Hatchet, A Hammer, A Bucket Of Nails." Keep an eye on this one.

CAST YOUR FATE TO THE WINDS—Sounds Orchestral—Parkway P/SP 7046

Following right behind the success of the hit single of "Cast Your Fate To The Winds," the members of the Sounds Orchestral music crew kick off this outing with that same hit sound, after which the package is dubbed. Produced and directed by John Schroeder, this exciting new updating of orchestral music features Johnny Pearson on the piano and harpsichord, Kenny Clare on the drums and three bass players, Peter McGurk, Frank Clark and Tony Reeves. A hot item, the package also includes "Downtown" and "Something's Coming."

DOBIE GRAY SINGS FOR "IN CROWDS"—Charger 2002

Riding on the popularity of the "In Crowd" track alone this set should sell up a storm, and with the inclusion of eleven other hit sound songs, Dobie Gray should have a monster package on his hands. The songster's smooth vocals with a highly danceable beat and pleasant orkings turn up some great grooves on tracks like "See You At The 'Go-Go,'" "Monkey Jerk" and, of course, "In Crowd." Plenty of spins and a load of sales are indicated for this very well done album.

BALLADS FOR YOUR PLEASURE—Eddy Arnold—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3361

The ease with which country chanter Eddy Arnold delivers a song is one of the prime reasons for his great popularity with c&w buffs and pop fans alike; and this latest RCA Victor LP is crammed with smooth, easy listening. Velvet vocalizing is the order of the day as the artist croons an assortment of tender love songs and light-hearted lilters in his unmistakably easy-going country style. Featured tunes are "Bad News" and the recent chart smash, "We'll Sing In The Sunshine."

NOTHING BUT A MAN—Orig. Soundtrack—Motown 630

If movie fans want an album of the original soundtrack to "Nothing But A Man" they are going to have to fight their way through flocks of teens, because this set reads like a directory of Motown hits by the label's who's who roster. Tracks include: "Love Is Like a Heat Wave" by Martha and the Vandellas, "Fingertips Pt. 2" from Stevie Wonder, and tunes by the Miracles, Marvelettes and Mary Wells. With the flick receiving top reviews as well, there should be a goldmine in this set.

MARIANNE FAITHFULL—London LL 3423/PS 423

Marianne Faithfull has successfully united the folk flavor with a big rock beat to come up with two singles chart riders, "Come And Stay With Me" and "As Tears Go By," both of which are included in her first London album outing. With these two attractions, and ten more solid sounds, this LP is a highly likely candidate to follow the hitsville pattern of her noise makers. The package also includes teen enticers like "I'm A Loser" to speed up the sales pace. Watch for a big reaction.

BIG BEAT SOUNDS—Newbeats—Hickory LPM 122

Solid rockers are featured in this outing by the Newbeats, who are currently making noise with their "The Birds are for the Bees" single. Highlighted by the inclusion of the hit single, the set also contains their last clicker, "Break Away," and a series of other big and bouncy blasts like "Great Balls of Fire. With the crew's vivacious vigor and the infectious throbbing rhythms of the songs in this package, the LP should find loads of programming space, and heavy sales.

IT AMAZES ME—Liza Minnelli—Capitol T/ST 2271

The electric stylings of Liza Minnelli shine in this new set of gorgeous tunes done up for exciting listening that should please spinners and buyers in a big way. Especially fine tracks include "My Shining Hour," "For Every Man There's a Woman," and "Nobody Knows You When You're Down and Out." Backed by the lush orchestral settings of Peter Matz, the lark runs the gamut from solid sounds to tender romantic songs, and she does a bang up job on both varieties. Watch out for a strong response to this top drawer Capitol LP.

POP BEST BETS

FOR WOMEN ONLY—Pearl Bailey—Roulette R/SR-25300

Relaxed and lightly humorous deliveries coupled with a potent vocal and orchestral styling should garner plenty of spins for this new LP from Pearl Bailey. Backed by arrangements from Louis Bellson and Benny Carter, the songstress drives her way through a series of highly entertaining tunes about men, their ways and wiles. Standouts include "Pleasures and Palaces," "A Man is a Necessary Evil" and "Hey There." With the cleverly enticing sounds in this package, and the lark's recent publicity, sales could soar.

RED ROSES FOR A BLUE LADY—Frankie Fanelli—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3387

A vintage oldie which has been treated to a decisive revival, "Red Roses For A Blue Lady," gets still another treatment as Frankie Fanelli kicks off this package with his own swinging version of the oft-cut favorite. The chanter follows up this effortless outing with a lot more graceful crooning as he gently caresses gilded array of antiques including "Little White Lies" and "Just One More Chance." Plenty of airplay and sales seen for this one.

ACE CANNON LIVE—Hi HL 12025/SHL 32025

The wailing sax sound of Ace Cannon belts out a dozen groovy sounds on this new set from Hi which should stir up considerable attention with the teen crowd. Each of the cuts is imminently danceable with a solid beat and infectious outpourings from the hitmaking hornman. Stand-out selections include "Honky Tonk," "Night Train" and "When the Saints Go Marching In." Top 40 spinners should get on this set and the exposure could turn it into a monster.

HIT SONGS FROM "BAKER STREET" AND OTHER B'WAY MUSICALS—Various Artists—MGM E/SE-4293

Tunes from the Broadway hit, "Baker Street," open this MGM package of mainstem show stoppers, which features songs from "She Loves Me" and "Carnival" as well. The versions of the "Baker Street" tunes are taken, not from the casters, but rather from singles versions that have generated sales, e.g. "A Married Man" by Richard Burton, and Felicia Sanders' rendition of "What a Night This is Going to Be," which should spark sales a'plenty for this set.

MITCH MILLER PRESENTS BOB McGRATH—Columbia CL 2322/CS 9122

An artist who has been a regular feature of the Mitch Miller "Sing Along" TVer ever since the show's debut, Bob McGrath comes on strong in his first package attempt for Columbia. The young tenor kicks off the album with the appealing sound of his single outing, "The Drifter," and from there on in it's nothing but fine music and whole-hearted performing. Highlights include "On The Street Where You Live" and the haunting "Black Is The Color Of My True Love's Hair," as well as "Danny Boy."

THE PAWNBROKER—Original Soundtrack—Mercury MG 21011/SR 61011

Quincy Jones has come up with an amazing blend of straight and jazz sounds in his score for the new Sidney Lumet film, "The Pawnbroker." The music carries with it the weight of the movie's subject matter, yet contains a liveliness that should make this a soundtrack that theatergoers will enjoy for easy listening, and as a fond memento of the picture. Marc Allen's vocal on the main theme, Rod Steiger's soliloquy on "How Come You People" and tracks like "Rack 'Em Up" are standout cuts in a very fine album.

THE SPECTACULAR SHIRLEY BASSEY—Philips PHM 200-168/PHS 600-168

Having captured the public's attention with her "Goldfinger" outing, Shirley Bassey's popularity is very likely to spur active sales for this Philips album. The powerful vocal quality of the lark is brilliantly showcased before soft orkings on a dozen well-chosen tunes including: "My Funny Valentine," "The Wayward Wind" and "If You Don't Love Me." There is a solid sound that the songstress pours into each track that should create a demand for her platters, and this set has that magnetic charm.

THE THRILL IS GONE—Maureen Tomson—Coral CRL 57468/757468

The wide assortment of oldies and newies in this glittering Coral outing are all handled with a soothing sound by Scotch songstress Maureen Tomson. The lark's easy-going vocal sound goes softly along in renditions of standards like "It Never Entered My Mind" and "When I Fall In Love"; but picks up an attractive lilt on light tunes of recent vintage like "Funny World" (from "Malamondo"). Throughout there are grooves to please the most demanding deejay, and record buyer.

THE VOICE OF AN ANGEL—Catherine McKinnon—Arc 628

Having stirred up a good deal of interest in Canada, this set of folk and folk-like tunes should be welcomed by teens, young adults and particularly the college crowds who will find the fresh voice of Catherine McKinnon extremely charming with this sparkling material. Included in the repertoire are: "Ten Thousand Miles," "What Have They Done To The Rain" and "Dominique." Supporting voices are provided for soft backing by the Jubilee Singers. Very fine effort.

SYNANON—Original Soundtrack—Liberty LRP-3413/LST-7413

Last week's premiere of "Synanon" should create a demand for the latest Neal Hefti score, just rushed out by Liberty Records. The tunes feature a jazz flavoring that could click with jazz buffs and r&b fans as well as the theater crowd who will enjoy the soft swing sounds of this soundtrack outing. Programmers should get a good deal of enjoyment from the misty main title theme, "Zankie," as well as some of the more loosely grooving tracks like "Tonight's The Night."

LIFE & LOVE ITALIAN STYLE—Jimmy Roselli—United Artists UAL 3429/UAS 6429

Jimmy Roselli, a newcomer to United Artists who has taken the night club critics by storm with his feelingful interpretation of Italian love songs, offers a twelve course meal of Neopolitan and Roman delicacies in this delightful package. Beginning with the pasta ("O Sole Mio"), through the antipasto ("Torna") and right down to the rich and tasty Italian pastry ("Anema e Core"), the artist never lets down his emotional, power-packed presentation. This one should get acceptance from more than the Italian buyers.

THE GYPSY VIOLIN OF EMERY DEUTSCH PLAYING SELECTIONS FROM 'FIDDLER ON THE ROOF'—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3363

The stirring and poignant music from the current Broadway smash, "Fiddler On The Roof," composed by Jerry Bock, has received a masterful interpretation in the hands of violinist Emery Deutsch. Specially scored for this album by Ted Raph, the music vividly depicts the humor and tragedy of the Jewish peasants in Tzarist Russia, and is brought to life by the sensitive and inspired talent of Deutsch. Extremely impressive tracks are "Fiddler On The Roof" and the haunting "Sunrise, Sunset."

HARLOW—Original Soundtrack—Warner Bros. W/WS 1599

The music making team of Al Ham and Nelson Riddle has created a first rate score for the forthcoming Electronvision production, "Harlow," based on the life of one of Hollywood's most glamorous and exciting stars, Jean Harlow. The new film stars Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., and Barry Sullivan with Carol Lynley featured in the title role, and the score is a delightful grouping of themes, some tender and some as wild as the twenties, but all splendidly done.

1964: YEAR IN REVIEW—Various Commentators—Gateway 9004

One of the definitive broadcasts summing up the events and significance of 1964 has been captured on record and is now available on the Gateway label. The coverage of major currents in the news combines the sounds of people, speakers, rioters, etc. with editorial and objective commentary from various Radio Press International personnel. The outstanding album gives well detailed attention to the election, events in Asia, the U.N. and many other factors which made last year what it was. Excellent disk.

EARTHA KITT SINGS IN SPANISH—Decca DL 4635/74635

Electric Spanish rhythms and the magnetic vocal artistry of Eartha Kitt join forces in this most enjoyable Decca album. The lark, whose most popular songs feature foreign language outtings, should prove a good seller with the Spanish speaking populace as well as her many regular fans via this effort that includes a dozen tunes, all in the Romance tongue. Cuts that could prove delightful to programmers include: "Incertidumbre," "Historia de un Amor" and "Besame Mucho." Highly entertaining.

GREENSLEEVES — Norman Luboff Choir — Harmony HL 7343

Scotch and Irish sounds abound in this ten-track sampling from the Columbia budget-line Harmony catalog. The soft chorale arrangements include traditional and folk songs in a lovely setting which should appeal to a broad audience in a big way. Included in this album are "What'll We Do With A Drunken Sailor," "Cockles And Mussels" and the beautiful "Greensleeves." Gorgeous tracks, fine selections and the low price of this set should prove very attractive to record buyers.

There's a lot of clever ad copy that would fit in with this record's clever title, but we thought we'd just say . . . . .

THE RAMSEY LEWIS TRIO
"YOU BETTER BELIEVE ME"

YOU BETTER BELIEVE ME—Ramsey Lewis Trio and Jean DuShon—Argo 750

The brilliance of Ramsey Lewis' Trio is linked with the fiery vocal talents of Jean DuShon in this Argo outing. Departing from the trio's usual format, there is also an added threesome on flute, guitar and sax on the first side of the LP. These combinations give startling new shadings to the sound of each in a set that should garner plenty of spins. Among the fine sounds are: "Who Can I Turn To," "Let It Be Me" and "My Coloring Book."

FUCHSIA SWING SONG SAM RIVERS

FUCHSIA SWING SONG—Sam Rivers—Blue Note 4184

Some like it hot, and this is a set to suit them. Sam Rivers wails in top form on this collection of six self-penned tunes, with fine accompaniment afforded by Jaki Byrd (piano), Ron Carter (bass) and Anthony Williams (drums). The swinging sounds of the tenor saxist show a vigor tinged with blues through this Blue Note recording; with outstandingly distinctive tracks including "Fuchsia Swing Song," "Cyclic Episode" and "Luminous Monolith." Should sell very well.

JAZZ BEST BETS

I TALK WITH THE SPIRITS—Roland Kirk—Limelight LM/LS 86008

Prize packages seem to have become a habit at Limelight, where the jackets are as delightful to behold as the records are to listen to. Roland Kirk's outing, tabbed after one of the tracks, "I Talk With The Spirits," is no exception. The flautist shows up wonderfully with able accompaniment from Horace Parlan on piano, and some strong sounds from the rest of the sidemen. Included among the fine tracks are "Django" and "A Quote From Clifford Brown."

THE VOICE THAT IS!
JOHNNY HARTMAN

THE VOICE THAT IS!—Johnny Hartman—Impulse A/AS-74

Johnny Hartman goes all out on this set with Latin percussion backing and a dozen tunes with a widely varied appeal. The smooth songster's lush voice imparts a warmth that at once caresses and enlivens each of the tunes with a freshness that should make this LP a choice addition to many collections. Easy going stylings and velvet renditions on this Bob Thiele production include: "Joey, Joey, Joey" from "The Most Happy Fella" and "It Never Entered My Mind." An impressive outing.

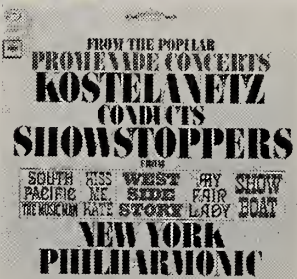

HIP CAKE WALK / Don Patterson with Booker Ervin

HIP CAKE WALK—Don Patterson & Booker Ervin—Prestige 7349

A lot of swing, some great talent and tremendous effort have gone into this Prestige outing, and the results are terrific. The wild combination of Don Patterson at the organ and Booker Ervin on tenor sax makes for top drawer moving on up-tempo tracks like "Rosetta" and "Sister Ruth," with more sedate though decidedly lively grooving in store on both tracks on the B side. Blues fans will get as big a kick out of this LP as the jazz buffs who should really enjoy the workouts here.

CLASSICAL PICKS

SHOWSTOPPERS; Andre Kostelanetz; Columbia ML 6129/MS 6729

Andre Kostelanetz conducts the New York Philharmonic in a series of medleys from some of the finest musicals to have reached Broadway on this Columbia Masterwork outing. The performance was prompted by the maestro's direction of this material at the Philharmonic's Promenade Concert Series, and having received much acclaim there, this album is likely to find a wide market in pop sales as well as in classical. Among the shows represented are: "West Side Story," "Show Boat" and "Kiss Me Kate."

STRAVINSKY: SYMPHONY IN THREE MOVEMENTS, PULCINELLA SUITE; Otto Klemperer; Angel (S) 36248

Otto Klemperer is featured in this month's Angel release as he prepares to celebrate his 80th birthday. In this package, he conducts two brilliant works by another octogenarian, Igor Stravinsky, and both receive plaudits in the resultant recording. The Symphony in Three Movements, and Pulcinella Ballet Suite glitter with energetic sparks, making the album an exquisite tribute to both composer and conductor. The playing of the Philharmonic Orchestra flashes with brilliance under the adept direction of Klemperer in an LP that should attract considerable acclaim.

Ava Records Sold

HOLLYWOOD—Ava Records has been sold to a European syndicate represented here by Charles Jourdan, according to Glen C. Costin, president and principal stockholder. No purchase price was announced.

Costin, whose major interests are in real estate and publishing, bought control of Ava in June, 1964 from Fred Astaire, acquiring 80.5% of its stock.

In announcing the sale, Costin said, "I remain convinced that Ava has real potential in the recording industry, but circumstances require a more complete devotion of my attention and resources to other enterprises. Jourdan and his associates are in a position to give Ava a new invigoration and are planning a series of rapid moves in this regard."

"Among other actions, Jourdan is working upon a more extensive distribution of Ava products on a worldwide basis, based upon a recently signed contract with London Records," Costin declared.

Jourdan, now on the east coast on business relating to an expansion of Ava's market and artist roster, plans to be back in Los Angeles soon to take over the company's direction.

Although certain documents in the transaction are now "in process" in the pertinent regulatory agencies concerned with security sales.

Judy To Forest Hills

NEW YORK—Don Friedman, producer of the Forest Hills Music Festival, last week announced that Judy Garland will make one of her rare New York appearances when she performs in person at the show on Sat., July 17. This one-night-only concert will be the artist's first Gotham showing since 1961, when she appeared in the same outdoor musical concert series.

Tickets are priced from $2.95 to $5.95, and are available by mail order. Additional information is available from Ron Delsener at the Festival's headquarters, 225 E. 57 St.

NARM Board To Meet In Chi Next Week

PHILADELPHIA—The board of directors of NARM (rack-jobbers) will meet next week (May 17-18) at the Continental Plaza Hotel in Chicago.

The first board meet since elections at NARM's annual confab last March, it will be highlighted by a full discussion and finalization of plans for the association's mid-year meet and person-to-person sales conference at the Pick Congress Hotel in Chicago on Sept. 8 & 9. Also, applications for both regular (rack) and associate (label) membership will be presented to the board for approval, so that the new applicants can attend the mid-year gathering.

In attendance at the meet will be: George Berry, president; Don Ayers, vp; John Billinis, treasurer; Jack Geldbart, secretary; Stanley Jaffe, director; Cecil Steen, director; and James Tiedjens, director. NARM's counsel, Albert A. Carretta, will also be on hand.

000 viewers throughout the world.

The presold characters and the entire production facilities of the firm's studios have been integrated to provide distributors with a schedule of promotions never before utilized in the record business. Some of the promotion and merchandising plans are as follows:

1) Telephone calls from artists (Huckleberry Hound, Fred Flintstone, Yogi Bear, etc.) to key radio stations, disc jockeys and their children, record columnists, newspaper editors, etc.

2) Complete mailers and publicity to all media.

3) Merchandising tie-ins with television stations now releasing Hanna-Barbera shows.

4) TV promotion tie-ins where record product will be exposed and featured as major prizes.

5) Station breaks featuring the voices of Yogi, Huckleberry Hound, etc.

6) Special press kits made available and saturation mailing made to major magazines and newspapers.

7) Four-color and full-page ads in all music trade publications.

8) Cooperative advertising schedule.

9) Full use of Hanna-Barbera character costumes for instore record promotions.

10) Merchandising of records will be integrated into the more than 400 comic books, color books, and other printed Hanna-Barbera materials which are distributed to the consumer.

Additionally, Bohanan states, the power of Hanna-Barbera's vast merchandising operation grossing over $120,000,000.00 yearly, will be utilized to the fullest extent on behalf of HBR.

Marv Wells. Cugat To Headline Paramount Shows

NEW YORK—Hot on the heels of Soupy Sales and the Country Music Extravaganza (the first two shows in the Paramount's new policy of "live" entertainment) entrepreneur Morris Levy last week (7) booked Mary Wells into the huge theatre for a one-week stand. At the completion of the lark's limited run, vet Latin bandleader Xavier Cugat and his orchestra, featuring Charo, will head the bill for a week.

Hassle Over 'Little Bird'

NEW YORK—The Nashville Teens are competing with the Nashville Teens in the singles field. The unusual development, though not the first time the business has gone through it, involved a disking a tune called "Little Bird." London Records, which has released the British group's product to date, has brought out the boys' reading of the number, as is the case with MGM Records, which is claims it now has rights to the group. Adding further fuel to the fire, London Records has another version in release by Marianne Faithfull.

Command Enters Little LP Field

NEW YORK—Under the merchandising tag of "Little Discotheque Long Plays," Command Records has entered the juke box-oriented little LP sweepstakes with an initial release of six stereo 7" records. The series features popular label artists Enoch Light and Dick Hyman reading varied collections of recent vintage hits and evergreens.

Mercury Rush Releases New Jankowski Slick

CHICAGO—Mercury Records swung into high gear last week to rush out a new album cover for the Horst Jankowski German import originally tagged "Bravo Jankowski."

Reason for the new artwork and title (the LP will now be dubbed "The Genius Of Jankowski") is because of the airplay and sales response that the "Eine Schwarzwaldfahrt" ("A Walk In The Black Forest") cut has been getting since the LP was released in the U. S. two months ago.

Object Of FBI Manhunt

RAYMOND WILLIAM GREEN

NEW YORK—Raymond William Green, who has been employed as a record producer, song publisher, short story writer and a booking agent, is currently the object of a nationwide manhunt by the FBI.

A Federal warrant for his arrest was issued in New York, New York, on April 18, 1963, charging Green with the interstate transportation of a fraudulent check.

Green has traveled extensively throughout the United States and has held jobs from California to Florida. He has been characterized as a "fast talking promoter and a big operator who constantly chews on a cigar."

He is also known as Bill Bruce, Steve Foster, Ray Green, Russell Lynch, Mike Reilly, Marshall Stewart and Ray Williams.

He reportedly speaks in a low, wheezing-type voice and is reported to have a violent temper. He has also been employed as an athletic director and a coach. Green is described as a white male, 44 years of age, 5'7" tall and weighing approximately 210 pounds. He has thin, black with grey hair and brown eyes. Green allegedly has been trained in judo and, therefore, should be considered dangerous.

Any individual receiving information concerning the whereabouts of Green is requested to immediately contact the nearest office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the telephone number of which may be found on the first page of the local telephone directory.

Starday To Capitol Club

from the Starday catalog are albums by Cowboy Copas, George Jones, Roger Miller, Johnny Bond, the Willis Brothers, and various combination albums, including several double-pocket sets in the Country Music Hall of Fame Series.

Starday general manager Hal Neely points out that this is an expansion for both the label and the Capitol club. Starday is continuing its own successful Country Music Record Club activities while finding additional customers for its product through the Capitol Club.

Arrangements have been completed for the Capitol Record Club in Canada to also acquire Starday product manufactured by the Sparton firm there and one Starday LP is already set for release.

Negotiations are under way between Starday and other record clubs for exchange of material and a possible swapping of mailing lists where the basic offers are not directly competitive.

In addition to the Capitol Club tie-in, Starday has moved into still another field with a new agreement with Muntz Stereo Pak. An initial broadside of 20 albums has been rushed into production by Muntz for immediate offering in the Muntz catalog of auto cartridge tapes. Twenty additional albums are being selected by Muntz for June release.

ABC-Par To Capitol Club

was "particularly happy to be associated with the Capitol Record Club because I feel that it will distribute our product in many areas heretofore unavailable to us, and will be of mutual benefit both in widening the reputation of our labels and strengthening the catalog of the club."

The arrangement was signed by Newton and Alan Livingston, president of Capitol Records and negotiated through Edward L. Nash, who heads up the Capitol Record Club.

Capitol Forms Mexican Club

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records has established its own record company in Mexico City as the pivotal step in an international marketing plan designed to increase the label's penetration in all Latin Countries.

The new firm, Discos Capitol de Mexico, S.A., will be owned jointly with one of Mexico's leading industrialists, Emilio Azcarraga, head of Mexican TV (Telesistema Mexicana, S.A.). In charge of the operation is Lloyd Dunn, vice president of CRI, who, in recent months has conducted an intensive survey of Latin American record markets, while Andre Midani, a top exec of Odeon in Brazil for nine years, has been named general manager. Organizationally, Discos Capitol de Mexico is the Mexican counterpart of Capitol Records of Canada, of which Dunn is president.

The Mexican company will market its first products on July 1, and will have exclusive sales and distribution rights to the Capitol, Tower and Angel labels, as well as recordings originating with Electric & Musical Industries, Ltd. (EMI), of England and its world-wide subsidiary companies.

THEN & NOW—Barbra Streisand's fifth Columbia LP was rushed out last week as the result of requests following her hour-long CBS television special. The album, "My Name is Barbra," includes featured songs from the production, including the show's title song, "Why Did I Choose You" and "My Man."

The songstress, who has experienced a meteoric rise to success, enjoys the distinction of being the only artist to win a Gold Record for every one of her LP's. The disk is the trophy awarded by The Record Industry Association of America for albums which individually achieve sales in excess of $1,000,000. She has, in addition, received several "Grammys" from the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences, most recently for "Best Female Vocal Performance" in 1964 with her album "People."

Bob Newhart" which was Warner's first album to top the half million mark.

When Conkling retired in '61, Mike Maitland replaced him as President and brought in from the field such men as Bob Summers as national sales manager and Joe Smith, formerly with Hart Distributors, as national promotion manager. Jimmy Hilliard was named as A and R director with Stan Applebaum as A and R chief of the N.Y. office. New names added to the artist roster included Peter, Paul and Mary, Alan Sherman, Emilio ("Al Di La") Pericoli, Bob Conrad and The Routers. By early '62 the Peter, Paul and Mary explosion hit with "Lemon Tree" and their first album topped 2,000,000. Dick and Dee Dee, Kirby Stone, The Modern Folk Quartet, Bill Cosby, Freddie Cannon, The Marketts, Ike and Tina Turner and The Rocky Fellers joined the label. In September of '62 "My Son The Folk Singer" arrived at radio stations. The result was one of the most played and fastest selling albums of all time. It surpassed the 1,000,000 figure in less than 8 weeks.

The Warners-Reprise merger in September '63, which brought such established artists as Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Keely Smith, Bing Crosby, Eddie Cano and Sammy Davis Jr. into the fold along with A and R men Sonny Burke and Jimmy Bowen, helped both firms enormously. It affected a reduction in overhead for the two labels by merging the administrative duties for each of the department heads. The net result was a lean, flexible and profit oriented staff.

Warners and Reprise are presently budgeted to 60 albums and 100 singles for each of the two labels with Purke and Bowen handling A and R duties for Reprise and Hilliard and Joe Smith as A and R heads for Warners. The present administrative line-up includes Mike Maitland—president, Bob Summers—national sales manager, Joel Friedman—director of merchandising and marketing, Ed West—treasurer, Bruce Hinton—national promotion manager, Mo Ostin—general manager of Reprise, Stan Cornyn—editorial director, Ed Thrasher—art director and George Lee—head of the N.Y. office.

The future for Warners-Reprise lies in talent and diversification. The recent pact with the King Family which is, according to Maitland, "one of the most important acquisitions in the history of the label," indicates Warner's far reaching expansion plans. It's no secret that Maitland has approached several other celebrated names and is, in fact, now negotiating with one of the most popular male singers in the industry. A closer liaison with the parent film company and foreign licensees as well as agreements with foreign producers in recent months should add even more revenue in the future.

burgh and Cleveland distributorships of Decca Records. Prior to joining Starday, he was sales and promotional director for Mercury's Nashville-based country music division.

At Starday, Chellman was responsible for many new innovations. Included was "Chuck Chellman's Country Corner," a popular deejay newsletter; the publication of which will be maintained at Starday. He also helped develop the Country Juke Box Oldies series and played a significant role in the formulation of the concept of using "Top Value" trading stamps to stimulate sales of Starday's album line.

Chellman's replacement at Starday has not yet been decided, but an early announcement is expected.

Ed Barsky To Metro

dle the MGM Records line in that city.

Since the release of 20 initial albums, the Metro line became one of the most popular in the low budget field with such names as Connie Francis, Ella Fitzgerald, Stan Getz, David Rose, Judy Garland, Ray Charles Singers, Hank Williams, Billy Holiday, Count Basie and others. A new group of 20 albums featuring Oscar Peterson, Jimmy Smith, John Gary, Bing Crosby and some important soundtracks, is scheduled to be issued in June.

Irv Stimler, who was instrumental in launching the Metro budget line, will now devote his attention to and concentrate on creative services for the Metro label involving artists and repertoire, cover design, production and packaging.

Uncover One Hundred Unpublished Songs By Cole Porter

NEW YORK—In one fell swoop, 100 more songs by Cole Porter will find their way, in one vehicle or another, to the public.

It was made known last week that 100 unpublished songs by the late, great songwriter had been discovered in his nine room apartment at the Waldorf-Towers. These are songs written by Porter for a number of productions from 1924 and 1955. In a majority of cases, they were dropped from the Broadway runs of musicals, and, in some cases, were penned for a film musical that never materialized.

According to Albert Sirmay, longtime friend of Porter and chief editor of Chappell Music, who came upon the songs some months ago, a number of the songs are first-rate Porter.

When Porter died at the age of 72 last Oct., there were 393 of his songs published by various music firms, including Chappell.

That fabulous "Walkway Of Stars," which is going to be laid out in front of the forthcoming Hall of Fame and Museum Building on Music Row in Nashville, is compiling more and more big names every day. Already on the list to have their names permanently embedded in the concrete and bronze blocks that will make up the walkway, are such glittering stars as Chet At-

Dick Curless took time out from his busy schedule at the New York Paramount Theatre to drop in the office and jaw for a spell. The chanter is real excited over his new single, "Six Times A Day" b/w "Down By The Old River." Both sides of the disk were yanked from his brand new album, "Tombstone Every Mile," which is dubbed after the chanter's current chart smash. We expect to hear a lot about both the single and the LP.

As a result of an announcement by the mayor of Beaumont, Texas, May 13 has officially been dubbed "George Jones Day" in that fair city, marking the first time that the artist has been honored in his home town. On that day, a special show will be staged at the Municipal Auditorium featuring Jones and the Jones Boys, the Wilburn Brothers, Jerry Wallace and Johnny Williams. The package is being produced by Billy Deaton Enterprises and is being promoted in cooperation with KLVJ in Beaumont. Surrounding this stopover will be the group's tour of the Lone Star State, beginning in Abilene on May 7 and winding up on May 19. Afterwards, the boys will spend four days on the east coast, followed up by stands in Louisiana and Mississippi, and winding up back in Texas on May 30. The future schedule also includes a European tour late in the summer.

New York got a rare treat last week when the star-studded show, "Stars And Guests Of The Grand Ole Opry," opened a seven-day stand at the town's Paramount Theatre. For the price of admission, city slickers viewed an 80-minute "country spectacular" highlighted by such greats as Hank Snow & the Rainbow Ranch Boys, Lester Flatt & Earl Scruggs, Kitty Wells, Dave Dudley & the Roadrunners, Johnny Wright & the Tennessee Mountain Boys, Dick Curless, Bill Phillips, Ruby Wright and Juanita Rose. Similar shows are expected for the same house, depending on the success of this show. With a talent lineup like that, how could it be anything but successful?

Paul Paine says that since he's taken over as the personal manager for Dean Mathis, things have begun to pop for the promising young artist. Besides performing with some of the brightest stars in the business, the chanter has just released his new single, "Blue Lights And Broken Hearts," with plenty of tours and stands to follow.

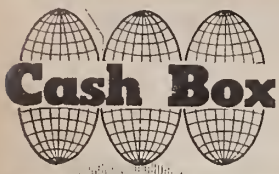

We hear that Billy Edd Wheeler is up to his elbows in work as he takes on the directing duties for a musical drama which he wrote and composed and which will make its debut at Warren Wilson College in Swannanoa, N.C. Also on the scene for the chanter is his latest hot item, which is a follow up to his "Ode To A Little Brown Shack." The new one is called "Politician's Dog," and, once again, was penned by Wheeler. A clever little piece of satire, the tune already has several cover versions.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

IT'S ALRIGHT (2:38) [Wormwood BMI—Gayden, Tuttle]
YOU PICKED A PERFECT DAY (2:24) [Central Songs BMI—Bare]
BOBBY BARE (RCA Victor 8571)

Bobby Bare, who teamed up very successfully with Skeeter Davis on his last-time-outer, "A Dear John Letter," should zip up the charts with this solo outing tabbed "It's Alright." This one is a powerfully moving, tender saga of a man whose wandering heart causes him to leave his love. The self-penned flip, "You Picked A Perfect Day," is a heartfelt, melancholy tear-jerker about a premature ending to a love affair.

SIX TIMES A DAY (2:28) [Aroostook BMI—Fulkerson]
DOWN BY THE OLD RIVER (2:33) [Aroostook BMI—Curless]
DICK CURLESS (Tower 135)

Still riding way up high with his initial Tower blockbuster "Tombstone Every Mile," Dick Curless should get a very strong reaction with this poignant powerhouse, titled "Six Times A Day." The number, touching, emotion-packed ballad of a fraulein who waits ten years for her soldier to return from the wars, could very easily zoom up both charts. "Down By The Old River" is a pleasant, self-penned ditty done very well by the chanter.

THEN I'LL START BELIEVING IN YOU (2:14)
[Brazos Valley BMI—Thompson, Penix]
IN THE BACK OF YOUR MIND (2:22) [Texoma ASCAP—Thompson]
HANK THOMPSON (Capitol 5422)

Veteran country hitmaker Hank Thompson has all the earmarks of another red-hot hit with this rouser, called "Then I'll Start Believing In You." Delightfully done, the number is a humorous, bouncy, easy-going offering of a guy who compares his gal's tall tales to Mother Goose stories. The coupler, "In The Back Of Your Mind," is a slow-moving, sentimental, self-penned romancer with pleasant, infectious rhythm.

ALMOST ALONE (1:57) [Central Songs BMI—Pitts, Terry]
MY TEARDROPS GET BIGGER EACH DAY (1:59)
[Central Songs BMI—Terry]
GORDAN TERRY (Epic 9803)

Gordan Terry should have no trouble making a spot for himself on the charts with this item, called "Almost Alone." The tune is a real slow, eye-wiping woeer which tells of a guy whose gal is about to leave him for another. The effective undercut, "My Teardrops Get Bigger Each Day," is another shufflin' tale of woe, nicely handled by the songster.

LITTLE OLD HEARTACHE MAKER (2:25) [Tree BMI—Bond]
YOU CRIED ALL THE WAY BACK TO ME (2:28)
[Blackjack BMI—Kemp, Wayne]
WAYNE KEMP (Dial 4008)

Wayne Kemp has a great chance to break out on the national scene with this catchy newie, A&R'd by Buddy Killen. The top track, "Little Old Heartache Maker," which is inspired by a well-known wine commercial is a rousing, light-hearted stomper about a guy who has left behind him a cross-country trail of broken hearts. The flip, "You Cried All The Way Back To Me," is a lowdown, slowed-down, tender tale of a fella who takes back his errant gal.

JAN HOWARD (Decca 31791)
(B+) WHAT DO YOU WANT NOW (2:15) [Wilderness BMI—H. Howard] Jan Howard could grab a lot of spins with this catchy session. This lid is a perky, lilting bouncer about a filly who's gotten over a broken heart and doesn't need her guy any more.

(B+) I'VE GOT FEELINGS TOO (2:34) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Carter] The undercut is a pretty, chorus-backed weeper done with lots of feeling. Could also catch on.

ROD SCOTT (K-Ark 636)

(B+) THE LAST FAREWELL (2:25) [Central Songs BMI—Cain] Rod Scott could make a national name for himself with this strong dual-track offering. The tune is an emotional, heart-rending dirge of a gal whose man has died and could gain a lot of favor with record buyers.

(B+) GONNA BUY ME A RECORD THAT CRIES (2:40) [Buno BMI—Cook, Smith, Atkins] The flip is a light-hearted, swinging finger-popper with plenty of rhythm. A very pleasant outing.

HOWARD CROCKETT (Mel-O-Dy M-121)
(B+) ALL THE GOOD TIMES ARE GONE (2:57) [Jobete BMI—Hausey] Howard Crockett unleashes a potent offering with this one. Deeja's may dig the number, which is a chorus-backed, nostalgic recitation about a man reminiscing over a happy, carefree youth.

(B+) THE GREAT TITANIC (2:42) [Jobete BMI—Hausey] An equally strong side, this one is a thumping, dual-track saga which tells of the tragedy of the Titanic.

ROY BEE (Big Country 5001)

(B+) THE HOUSE IS EMPTY (2:27) [Ashna BMI—Greff] Roy Bee could break out big with this feelingful, bluesy, heart-grabbing tale of a feller whose house seems barren since his love walked out.

(B) LADDER OF SUCCESS (2:19) [Ashna BMI—Biggs, Biggs, Robbins] This one is a medium-paced, bluegrass-tinged ballad of a man who lets the lust for gold rob him of family and friends.

Les Surfs, a group of four boys and two girls, are all brothers and sisters born in Tananarive of Madagascan parents. Soon after they arrived in Paris in November 1963 they were spotted by A & R manager Roger Maruani and contracted to Festival Records. Two weeks after the release of their first record, "Reviens vite et Oublie" (Be My Baby) they were No. 1 in the French Hit Parade. Their French recordings are issued all over the world and they record in many other languages including Italian and Spanish, and they have topped the charts in both those territories. They have appeared at the Olympia, Paris, visited New York to record an album in English and appeared on numerous TV shows. Their engagements for the next twelve months include a return to the Olympia, Paris and tours of France, Italy, Spain, Scandinavia and the United States.

Parlez-vous français?

Over 5 million Canadians do.

And Columbia Records of Canada, Ltd., serves one of the largest French-speaking markets outside of la belle France, with records tailored to the distinctive Canadian character. That's why albums by chansonniers Claude Léveillée (3), Gilles Vigneault (1), Claude Gauthier (8), Jacques Blanchet (2) and Pierre Calvé (7); by chanteuses Pauline Julien (6) and Monique Leyrac (4); and by comédiens Ti-Gus et Ti-Mousse (5) consistently evoke kudos from critics and bravos from buyers. For they've found that les disques Columbia can always be counted upon to catch and reflect the true voice and spirit of French-Canada. These albums have proved to be exceptionally popular in almost every other part of the world as well.

GREAT BRITAIN

The growing popularity of the LP and its future importance to the industry, forecast by Goddard Lieberman in his recent speech at the G.R.R.A. is borne out by official figures, just published, by the Board of Trade for Feb. this year. There was a marked increase (13 per cent) in the production of LP's over the same month last year, but production of singles was down by a quarter. Although manufacturers' sales of gramophone records in Feb., valued at £1,880,000, were up 3 per cent higher than in the same month of 1964, the rise was in export sales (a third up). Home sales were down by 3 per cent.

The awards made by The Gramophone Record Retailers Association at the end of its two-day conference (details in last week's issue) are as follows:
 Best Pop Single—I Feel Fine, The Beatles—E.M.I.; Best Light Vocal—Walk Away, Matt Monro—E.M.I.; Best Light Orchestral—Tokyo Melody, Helmut Zacharias—D.G.G.; Best Soundtrack Record—Mary Poppins, Original Soundtrack—E.M.I.; Best Childrens Record—Nursery Romp, Pinky and Perky—E.M.I.; Best Spoken Word—Sir Winston Churchill Set—Decca; Best Humorous Record—At The Drop Of Another Hat, Flander & Swann—E.M.I.; Best Dance Record—March Of The Mods, Joe Loss—E.M.I.; Best Non-English Record—Tous Les Garçons et les Filles, Francois Hardy—Pye; Best Country & Western—I Love You Because, Jim Reeves—Decca; Best Folk Music Record—Freewheelin', Bob Dylan—CBS & Philips; Best Trad Jazz Record—Hello Dolly, Kenny Ball—Pye; Best Modern Jazz Record—Night Train, Oscar Peterson—E.M.I.; Best Orchestral Record—Elgar Second Symphony, Sir John Barbiroli—E.M.I.; Best Orchestral Record—The Miniature Elgar, Lawrence Colinwood—E.M.I.; Best Vocal Record—Verdi Requiem, Guilini—E.M.I.; Best Operatic Record—Carmen, Bizet, Maria Callas—E.M.I.; Best Chamber Music—Mozart, Trio, Quintet, Melos Ensemble—E.M.I.

The G.R.R.A. award went to Decca for Winston Churchill's Speeches and Memoirs, and the Most Promising Newcomer—Boy Dylan.

Vera Lynn, who had a tremendous success in Holland a year ago with her million selling "Land of Hope and Glory," returns to the land of her triumph this month to sing at a concert given by the RAF Escapers Society. She will also record a programme for her BBC TV series, "We Meet Again." Guests include Dutch guitarist Wout Steenhuis and singer Dick Rienstra.

Transatlantic Records this week threw a party to celebrate the latest phase of its expansion programme. This marked the move into larger premises at 120/122, Marylebone Road, London, W. 1. The entire Transatlantic operation, offices, record store and showrooms is now housed under one roof together with their publishing subsidiary, Heathside Music. The company's latest LP release includes album No: 3 by the Ian Campbell Folk Group, "Coaldust Ballads," and two debut LP's "Bert Jansch" in which the composer, arranger and guitarist plays his own composition, and "Something New," a collection of contemporary British and American songs sung by Owen Hand.

Hal Shaper of Sparta Music, just back from a trip to the United States, announces the expansion of his background music department which will now be headed by Pat Lee. A Sparta composition by British writers Mike Pinder and Denny Lane, "From The Bottom Of My Heart I Love You," will be the next Moody Blues American release. The tune is published in the States by Cheshire Music.

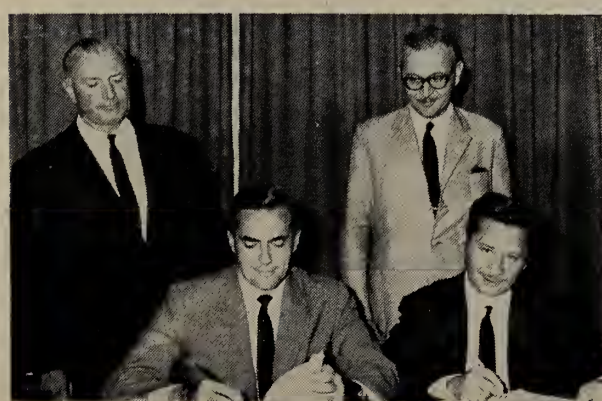

Tom Springfield is busy writing the score for a new BBC series "Mogul," a fast moving, action packed storyline for which the composer is using a lot of Afro Cuban rhythms, of which he is a knowledgeable student.

The Swingle Singers' Grammy award-winning LP, "The Swingle Singers Going Baroque," originally issued here as "The Swingle Singers Sing Bach, Handel and Vivaldi," is being re-issued by Philips as two EP's bearing the award winning title.

Showing up in the Cash Box Top 100 is "Shaking All Over." This a No: 1 in Britain five years ago when it was originally recorded by Johnny Kidd, selling over a quarter million copies. In view of its success in the American charts via the Guess Who's waxing (shortly to be issued here on Pye), EMI is rush-releasing a new version by Kidd. Publisher Cyril Gee of Mills Music is sure it will be even bigger the second time around. Other Mills copyrights include "Hit and Miss," the signature tune for BBC TV's "Juke Box Jury." A John Barry composition, the number has now been recorded by Ted Heath's Band on Decca and this new version will replace the Barry recording on the weekly show.

Richard Voltter, president of Shapiro Bernstein Inc., New York, accompanied by chairman of the Board, David Schenker, will be in London from May 12 to 26. A series of meetings will take place with Cyril Shane, manager of the London office. The firm, delighted to have a new number from the pen of Clint Ballard, "I'm Alive," recorded by the Hollies on Parlophone. It was Ballard's "The Game Of Love" which gave Wayne Fontana and the Mindbenders a No: 1 in the Cash Box American charts recently.

A mammoth LP release from Ember Records this month features "John Barry Plays 007" and "Chad and Jeremy Sing For You," both of which are having tremendous success in the States nowadays. Other Ember albums include artistes such as Rod McKuen, Al Hibbler, Ferlin Husky, Johnny Thompson and Jewel Akens.

Making It Official

GERMANY

"Beat" music is a very important product in Germany. Top names from England and several groups from Germany have become regular entries in the top 10 listings and even the LP charts are full of names like the Rolling Stones, the Beatles and the Kinks. In order to make this product easily identifiable, several firms have started labels or special notices on their labels to show the teenager that this is a record to be listened to. Philips shot off the first big guns in this direction with their "Star Club" label, which features not only groups appearing in and around Germany, but also top names like Ray Charles, Jerry Lee Lewis and many others whose LP's and singles are released under the Star Club banner. Recently, Teldec signed an affiliation with the rival beat club in Hamburg, the "Top 10" Club with the first live releases now on the market, and Ariola is starting a new "Liverpool Beat" series. In its recent press release, Ariola announced that in Germany the beat groups are growing like mushrooms from the well planted path of top English bands. In order to give the German and foreign beat groups a special push, the new series will market the beat music in easily recognizable form. The series starts with three new German groups, the Mustangs, the German Blue Flames and Die Kettels. All three groups have a new single and an LP released.

Philips Records is heavily pushing the new German waxing by Johnny Hallyday together with the top German beat group, the Rattles, which started off with advance orders topping 10,000.

Teldec Records is reprinting the Cash Box top 30 in their press releases to show which records the firm controls. The switch to the Cash Box listings shows the ever growing importance of the paper on the German market. The label's first German recording with actor Pierre Brice is taking off like wild-fire and is already number 2 in the Radio Luxembourg German hit parade. Ralph Maria Siegel just returning from his trip to America has plenty of new hits to work on for his publishing firm, including new German goodies from Gus Backus and the Caravelles, along with top American tunes, "Don't You Just Know It" and "Gone Gone Gone," done in German by Hans Jurgen Wenger.

Metronome Records has new hot German releases from two Scandinavian gals, Birte Nielsen and Grethe Ingmann, and the hot new instrumental recording of "Peanuts" by the Sunblows.

Larry Yaskiel of Vogue Records reports that the first Dionne Warwick waxing in German is now on the market. Yaskiel has also printed up a list of artists now recording for the young firm and it reads like a who's who of top names. 85 foreign and local artists are now recording for the label here.

Electrola Records reports that the Japanese duo, The Peanuts, will fly here in June for the German Pop Music Festival in Baden-Baden. Georgie Fame has also recorded his hit "Yeh, Yeh, Yeh" in German for the label.

Indie producer Gerhard Mendelson dropped us a line to rave about new productions from German newcomers, Berti Glockner on Decca, Helmut & Robert on Philips and a newbie from teen favorite Thomas Fritsch on Polydor. Right now, the production has big hits with Connie Francis in German on MGM and Leslie Gore in German for Philips.

Electrola reports that the recent German sessions have paid off with Wanda Jackson and Jody Miller, both on Capitol Records. Shortly after the two discs were released and exposed on national TV they were already shown as national breakthroughs by the relevant German trade papers. Hans Gerig reports top action on the "A" side from Wanda Jackson, a German number called "Santo Domingo." Gerig's publishing firm is working hard to push the tune to the top. That's it for this week in Germany.

FRANCE

VOGUE: English group the Kinks will return to Paris on May 29 and 30 to sing at "La Locomotive." Petula Clark will fly to the States on May 11 to receive her Grammy Award. A new record by Danyel Gerard has songs he composed himself. This record is released through the DiscAZ label, which is distributed by Vogue.

EDITIONS JACQUES PLANTE: O'Neill, a new international manager, leaves France for the U.S. this week. He will stay in Los Angeles till May 20 and will contact several American publishers.

Not many changes in the French chart this week. We are actually in the normal slack period which precedes holiday seasons. The most important record of the week is, undoubtedly, Enrico Macias' LP recorded "live" at the Olympia. This record is released through the Pathé label.

Belgium artist, Salvatore Adamo, is not really happy this week. Polydor just decided to release an LP with songs that he recorded five years ago. Sung in French, Italian and English these songs are not very good and Adamo is afraid that his fans might think these are his latest recordings. The artist, for the last four years, has been cut by RCA Victor.

We hear that Rika Zarai, who left Bel Air records two months ago, will now be cut by Philips. Deejay Michel Cogoni just released his fifth EP, a French adaptation of "Ritornerai" b/w "Reviens Vers Moi". There is an excellent LP from Lucky Blondo on the Fontana label with a French song from Guy Magenta and Ralph Bernet called "Des Roses Pour Marjorie". Among other titles of that record we notice French adaptations of "Una Lacrima Sul Viso", "Red Roses For A Blue Lady", "Oh My Darling Caroline" and "Lonely Boy."

Nancy Holloway has released an EP on Decca with the song from Christian Jaque's movie, "The Gentleman from Cocody". This song is sung in English. On the same label this week is the first record from the English rocker, Screaming Lord Sutch.

RCA Victor has a new record from Sacha Distel, which contains "Petit Oiseau Bleu", a French treatment of "Kentucky Blue Bird", which is already making a good start. Also on Victor is the first record for Les Petites Souris France's first vocal and instrumental female group. "Ce n'est pas triste", their first song, might become a hit soon.

Johnny Hallyday has recorded for Philips, a song from Gene Pitney, called "I Must Be Seeing Things." The French title is: "Mes Yeux Sont Fous. Pascal, in charge of international department, tells us he is delighted because Guy Mardell's song "N'avoue Jamais" (DiscAZ) is No. 1 in France, Belgium and Switzerland. Alain Barrière is writing a movie score for "Pas de Panique", in which he is starring. The music will be published by Editions Louise. Julia, on Barclay records, will soon release an EP with songs from André Salvat and A. Duhamel called "La Complainte De Belphegor". "Belphegor", is the title of a recent TV serial very popular in France.

Franck Fernandel (Philips) will record a French treatment of "Dream On Little Dreamer", which is a U.S. hit by Perry Como (RCA). Ricardo, through Barclay, has just recorded "Un amour dans la Ville" and "Nous, Sans Amour", the French adaptation of Dean Martin's hit, "You're Nobody Till Somebody Loves You" (Reprise). Frank Alamo (Riviera) has done "Ma vie à t'attendre," which is the French adaptation of the Kinks' hit, "Tired of Waiting for You."

MEXICO

Olga Guillot, the Cuban who lives in México City, made her debut at the Baltimore Theater in New York. This is the first time that Olga performed for an American audience. Musart Records is releasing a new LP of Olga's.

Trini López is back in México but this time for a rest. Trini flew to Acapulco for a week and after that returned to US to fulfill several new dates. Sometimes, we see some of Trini's TV video tapes which he filmed during his first visit to México when he had a tremendous success performing at Terrazza Casino night club.

DUSA released a new album sung by Argentinian singer Chico Novarro on the label Philips. Among the songs are "Mi Tía", "La Edad Del Querer", "Madrecita Mía" and others.

The CBS' int'l department released a single containing "The Secrets Of Rome" sung by Sophia Loren and the same song played by the orchestra of John Barry.

Tony Aguilar and Flor Silvestre, two of the most popular Mexican artists and singers, seven months ago started with a tour through all Central América and are now in South America with their show that includes horses and everything. After that they plan to perform in Perú, Chile, Argentina and Brazil and after that, to Spain.

A new series of recordings were released by DUSA record company. Among them are "La Respuesta Está En El Viento" and "Te Perdí" by Los Tramps on the Philips label; "A la playa vas" and "Cartas de amor" by Los 3 Cariño; "Nuestro balance" and "Pedacito de cielo" by Chico Novarro, also on Philips. On Polydor we received an EP by new singer Pedro Sosa containing the songs "Los Molinos," "Hojita de papel," "Se que llorarás" and "El encuentro"; Manuel Reyes offers "El Che" the themes "Reina de las estrellas" and "Oh mi vida" and Los Dorman new titles are "Tabatínca" and "Jugo de naranja".

Mexican composer and singer Luis Demetrio is performing in New York and by the end of this month will do the same thing in Los Angeles. Luis is getting very popular in the U.S. with his songs "Voy", "Padre Mío" and "El Dia" that have just been recorded by Billy Vaughn and his orchestra.

Guillermo Infante, sales manager of Mexican RCA, returned from a training trip in the United States to Mexico. Guillermo brought back several new plans.

After a successful tour to Guatemala, Carmen Rivero returned to México. After a series of new recordings she'll fly to Los Angeles with her group. Carmen is the creator in México of the popular South American rhythm "cumbia".

And speaking about "cumbia", a new mexican artist Mike Laurie, has a two sided smash "Cosecha de mujeres" and "Tiburón a la vista". Both of them are holding down first places on the local hit Parade. This is happening because Musart Records immediately recorded an album with Mike singing "cumbias".

Popular tropical conductor Carlos Campos, returned from his second trip to Chicago with his whole orchestra. Carlos performed at El Aragón and is signed for a third visit to that city in December and January next year. He also signed for performances in Miami and New York in the future.

It is very probable that during the month of June the two most popular Argentinian idols will come to México. They are Leo Dan and Palito Ortega who have to fulfill several contracts in and out of town.

DAY'S NIGHT—Fred Day, (center) chairman of Francis Day & Hunter recently hosted a party celebrating the success of the B. Feldman (an associated firm) copyright, "I'm Telling You Now," which Freddie and the Dreamers took to the top of the American charts. The glasses were also raised to toast another Feldman tune, "For Your Love," which is scoring nicely both in England and the U.S. for the Yardbirds. Shown with the host are: (left to right) Eddie Day, of the same firm; Ben Nisbet of B. Feldman, Alan Holmes of Robbins Music, and Mrs. Fred Day.

DUTCH TREAT—Paul Muller, CBS promotion hand, seems swamped with "Fair Ladies" as he presents Joke Offringa with a copy of the sound-track recording from the movie based on Lerner & Lowe's "My Fair Lady." The lass was the 100,000th visitor to attend the showing of the film in Amsterdam.

SPAIN

The big show on Spanish TV has recently received two visitors from France. The show, "Noche de Estrellas" ("Star Night"), previously called Amigo Del Lunes (Monday Friends), was visited by Alain Barriers, The French singer who had a tremendous success on the Spanish record market with "Ma Vie" (the success began in September and is still going), and by Adamo, the Italian singer who is now a big seller in France and Belgium. Adamo is not yet very well known in Spain except for "Tomb La Neige" (The Snow Falls), published here by Ediciones Armónico.

Recently Sr. Maxin, prexy of MGM records, was in Spain with John Nathan, European representative of the label. Both contacted Sr. Sampedro, general manager of Fonogram in Spain. This marks Nathan's second visit to Spain.

Ediciones Quiroga has signed a contract for publishing in Spain the catalogs of Conrad Music Publishing Co. and affiliates (Gladstone, Tollie and Costoma).

The Flaps recording of "Polka Yenka" and "Tanguillos de Cádiz" (instrumental version of a folk theme) is being released in German. The Brincos are going to Milan on May 5 to record 15 new songs. The Relámpacos' recordings are requested in Germany and the Pekenikes' records in South America.

A version of "Io Che Non Vivo Senza Di Te" with Spanish lyrics, sung by Spanish chanter Luis Gardey is going to be released in México.

Indian prince, Kuldip, has recorded, in Spanish, his first record, which is a terrific version of "Goldfinger."

Chess records, now distributed by Hispavox, have released, for the first time in Spain Chuck Berry recordings.

Charley, who, with his brother Johnny, was very successful doing "La Yenka," has died as a result of a recent car crash.

MEXICO—continued

Tropical combo Los Tribunos, cut for Orfeon, two new themes with a nice danceable accent. The songs are "Vámonos a Acapulco" and "Clara".

Angélica María recently left for Spain where she will stay for a year doing movies and singing in different places. Angélica left six videotapes and a new album that will be released in about a month.

Gamma Records released the first single by Spanish singer Raphael, containing the songs "Los Hombres Lloran tambien" and "Mi vida" (Ma vie) accompanied by the orchestra of Greg Segura.

Los Hermanos Carrión made a very special version of old American sturdie "Blue Moon" accompanied by their own group. Los Hermanos Carrión are planning to record an album in English.

NORWAY

When in Stavanger for p.a.'s, Triola recording star Wenche Myhre got her second Silver Disc, this time for 25,000 sales of "La Meg Vaere Ung" (Let Me Be Young), a local copyright composed by Arne Bendiksen. Miss Myhre got her first Silver Disc for her Norwegian version of the German song "Ich Will 'nen Cowboy Als Mann."

The Beatles are first and second on the charts here this week, followed by the Swedish group, Sven Ingvars, being third and fourth. New on the charts this week is Cliff Richard at Columbia with "The Minute You're Gone."

SWEDEN

Dag Häggquist, international sales manager of Sonet Grammofon AB, is on a business tour around Europe. In the beginning of April he left on a trip that took him to Holland, Belgium and France, during which, he, among others, made a deal with CNR in Holland, and saw the Pathé Marconi people in Paris. From Paris he went to Copenhagen for the Sonet Scandinavian meeting, and from there on another round-trip in Europe, this time to Munich, where he saw Hans Beierlein of Edition Montana, and to Milano he discussed the release of Sonet recordings with SAAR. At the Cannes Film Festival, he will show the film, "Jerry Williams Show," produced by Gazell Film, and another film with Sonny Boy Williams. After Cannes, Häggquist is returning to Sweden via Hamburg.

New record labels on the market include Lani and Pandorec. Lani is produced by Yngve Stoor and distributed by Cupol Records, while Pandorec is produced by Owe Thörnqvist and distributed by AB Philips-Sonora.

A copyright dispute is going on here at the moment. A British group, recording in Finland, made "Cadillac," which, it was stated, was originally published by Scandia-Musiikki Oy. However, in Britain, Belinda claimed it was their song with very few changes. In Sweden, Stig Anderson of Sweden Music AB claims he is the publisher, but so does also Ake Gerhard-Larsson of Belinda (Scandinavia) AB. At the moment, "Cadillac" is on the charts here in a Swedish recording by the Hep Stars on Olga, a label owned by Gerhard-Larsson of Belinda, and distributed by Cupol Records.

Felix Stahl of Stockholms Musikproduktion, now in New York, wrote this office and reported that he was very satisfied with his American visit. He has placed some European songs in the States, and also found some new American material for Europe. Stahl is running publishing houses in Stockholm and Hamburg.

In Stockholm for biz talks with Stig Anderson and Bengt Bernhag of Sweden Music AB and other publishing houses, were Jack Magraw, Chuck Kaye and Herb Moelis of Screen Gems-Columbia, who came to Stockholm from London.

The Magistrate's Court in Stockholm ordered Swedish Broadcasting Co. (SBC) to pay the record manufacturers a sum of 2,030,000 Swedish Kronor ($405,000) annually for records aired. The manufacturers had asked for twice as much, while SBC considered $80,000 sufficient payment. It is not yet known if SBC will appeal against the judgment.

Lennart Langenheim of Philips-Sonora, where he handles the Pye label, is very happy with the success here of Emile Ford, who will be touring Sweden this summer, appearing at almost 300 spots all over the country. Langenheim also reported a good sale of all records with Joan Baez on Amadeo-Vanguard. According to reports from this Vienna-based company, no country in Europe is selling as many of the thrush's LP's as Sweden, Langenheim told Cash Box.

British group The Animals are currently in town for p.a.'s

The Best in Benelux . . . . Bens

Paul Anka has returned to his home town, Ottawa, in triumphant fashion to film a CBS spectacular based on his life and career. From all reports, the program, set for Fall coast to coast on the web, will be a gas. One-time CKOY-Ottawa, CKEY-Toronto spinner, Vik Armen, who doubled in brass as a vocalist, with several regional successes to his credit, is now located at WPRO in Providence, R.I. Three Star Publishing, 1 262 Don Mills Road, Don Mills, Ont., has debuted a Fan Club publication. This edition is dedicated to Dee and the Yeomen. Editor Gerry Wolff indicates other publications on behalf of other artists and deejays will be forthcoming.

Al Mair reports action-a-plenty on his Warner Bros., outing by Gordon Lightfoot. Mair and his Apex people feted Lightfoot at a recent reception held in honour of his new hit, "I'm Not Sayin'". Big things are happening for Danny and Duff Roman and their rapidly growing roster of artists on the Red Leaf banner. They tell C.B. that the follow up to "Walk That Walk" by David Clayton Thomas is on its way, and call it a two sided hit. "Take Me Back" b/w "Send Her Home" are both showing strong chart signs. In addition, an American release by a major independent label is all but set for "Never Send You Flowers" by the Paupers. "If I Told My Baby" b/w "Like You Like Me" is the newest outing for the group. Another artist, Bobby Vann, for whom the Mostways hold high hopes has debuted on Red Leaf with a strong pairing. His two new sides are "My Carolyn" b/w "Somebody New".

Jim Corbett at Sparton in Montreal has his hands full, and then some, with the Ampar outing by Soupy Sales. Corbett reports that "The Mouse" is a giant hit in the French metropolis. He also reports that CFCF's Dave Boxer is getting much mileage with the Impressions' outing, "Woman Has Soul". Meanwhile the Johnny Bond LP is going great guns in the Montreal area.

One-time Canadian newsman, Craig Edwards is now located at KISN in Portland, Oregon.

Dave Leonard has been given the green light as production manager at Allied Records. He will maintain his independent producing activities with his own firm, Monticana Records. Harold Winslow has been doing a lot of drum beating for the release by the Four 'Em on Barry. "While I'm Away" is the action side of the disc, and was penned by CKWS-Kingston program director-spinner, Bryan Olney.

Tony Caticchio in touch from Franco-Disque in Montreal with reports of much action on a couple of his latest. One is the French version of "Red Roses For A Blue Lady" by Fernand Gignac on Trans Canada, and another big one that has him very excited is about to be released in the U.S. on Dot, and is already out in Canada on Reo. It's called "Dead Sea" by the Jaguars, and it's getting much air action. Caticchio also has high praise for a new release on Trans Canada by Tony Massarelli.

A late item from Trans Canada has to do with the Canadian release of a French language pairing by Tony Dallara. Harold Pounds forwards word of developments at the distrib level on Canada's west coast. Wholesale Appliances Ltd., Vancouver, have as of Apr. 1, taken over the inventories and record franchises formerly distributed by Aragon Enterprises Ltd. According to the word sent along by Pounds, Al Reusch is retiring from this aforementioned segment of his business for reasons of health. The new location for the business is 8401 Fraser Street, Vancouver 15, B.C.

CJSP-Leamington claims well over 43,000 copies of its weekly hit list are now in distribution, including publication in Windsor's newest paper, The Herald. The big record in the Ottawa area would appear to be the newie by the Fantastic Baggys, "It Was I". Obviously a first class promo job by London's man in the area, Keith Harris. "Too Blind To See" by the Brunswick Playboys on Arc is the number one sound on the CHSJ Smart Chart. The same edition has a picture of those delightful Allen Sisters, currently clicking on Red Leaf "Remember The Face". "You Can't Roller Skate In A Buffalo Herd" is a Golden Treasures release on Mercury by Roger Miller that just might happen. It's getting lots of Lakehead airplay over CKPR.

NEMS And Faces

Brian Epstein hosted a luncheon for over 300 guests recently celebrating the third anniversary of NEMS Enterprises. Included among those in attendance were Gerry and the Pacemakers, Billy J. Kramer, Tommy Quickly and Sounds Incorporated as well as Epstein (left), Lionel Bart and lawyer David Jacobs shown in photo. The scene of the gala celebration was London's 'Talk of the Town.'

ARGENTINA

A recognized Argentine actress and singer will return to work after a long period of retirement. She is Tita Merello, who, with the actor Jorge Salcedo, will make a trip through the country doing a play written by Norberto Aroldi.

Ala Nicky is a new and important company which has begun operations in Argentina. Mr. Bragato, an executive of the company, informed Cash Box that they have acquired land on which they'll construct a recording studio. The building will have three recording rooms and equipment will be brought from the United States and Germany. The principal studio is apt to be used by sinfonic orchestras (the dimensions are 20x17 meters, while the height will be 12 meters) and will have an electronic "la" to tune the integrants of the orchestra with the singer. It will also possess other instruments like kettle-drums, electronic organ, a complete battery, etc. The building will have rehearsal rooms, microcinema, tea salon and garage. The firm's New York representative is Hector Mendez.

Fermata Editorial is very happy with the new hit "Leccion de besos" (Lethis-Yenka) penned by Rauno Lehtinen, and recorded for Odeon by Piero Sancho. A hit in the United States, "Ferry Across The Mersey," has a Spanish version cut by Ben Molar with the title "La Balsa." Valentino has made "Dolar de enamorado" for Odeon Pops, while Donald has recorded "Eres tu" and "Baila Yenka," and Marito Gonzales has made "El amor se fue" and "La primera que encuentre." for Music Hall.

Castell Blanco of Edami Editorial tells us that the latest LP by Tito Rodriguez, "Siempre te amare," recorded for CBS, has nine of the Editorial's tunes among them are "Flores negras" from Sergio de Karlo and "Mala noche" from Alberto Dominguez.

Among RCA Victor Argentina's latest LP's are "Conmocion en Park Avenue" with Paul Anka, "Temas de Rafael Hernandez" with Marco Antonio Muniz and "No son buenas noticias?" with the voice of the late Sam Cooke. Also there is a half LP with the title "Los seis exitos de Italia 1965." Among the tracks are "No soy digno de ti" penned by Gianni Morandi and "En mi mundo" by Umberto Bindi.

Fermata Productions announces that its two first hits, "Si lloras, si ries" b/w "Es inutil" by Mina, and "Tijuana" b/w "El gruñon" by Los Persuasivos, are on the market. "Tijuana" is an instrumental tune that was a big success in Mexico.

The group Los Buhos, a success through its records on CBS, (e.g. "El Joker"), celebrated its first year of professional activity. Enrique Guzman, who departed to Bolivia, recorded for CBS two tunes which will be put on the market next May. The group Los Trovadores, originators of the hit "Puenta Pexoa," also made "Nostalgias santiagueñas" and "Chamarrita de Alcaraz," for CBS.

Sr. Jereric of Melograf Editorial told us that during his stay in Buenos Aires, Chucho Avellanet recorded a tune by Julio de Rose that may be a hit. The song is "Saboreando sueños," and on this record the artist is accompanied by the orchestra of Lucio Milena. Melograf is engaging tunes in the new European rhythm, the Yenka, which is already spreading in Argentina.

The tune "Las cerezas," in a femme version by Liliana Paz, will be included in the film, "Ritmo nuevo y vieja ola," which stars Mercedes Carreras. Smart Editorial informs us also that "Un tango por favor" (Tango, per favore), with music by Tonyrenis and words by Mogol, was interpreted in the film, "Nacidos para cantar," by Enrique Guzman.

Microfon has signed a contract with Tonodisc Uruguay for the edition in Uruguay of all the labels represented here by Microfon and its Argentine productions.

Maria del Carmen Hajdenwurcel of Julio Korn Editorial told Cash Box that nearly all the tunes in the repertory of the group, the Cousins, belongs to Korn. RCA Victor edited in Argentina two of Korn's tunes "Y por lo tanto" (El purtant) and "Adios Karomou," done by Alain Barriere. The TNT have done five of the Editorial's tunes, among them "Cuando te miro a los ojos" and "Decimelo."

H y R label announced that it has the first edition of LP's from the Mexican label, Cisne. Two of them are done by Enrique Rambal. The first is titled "Las rimas de Becquer" while the second is "La amada inmovil," containing the poems of the famous book by Amado Nervo.

Sr. Lambertucci of Neumann Editorial informs us that the editorial controls all of the movie, "Papa ganso." Alberto Podesta and Armando Pontier has recorded the tune "Es nuestra despedida" for Philips. It is the last tango composed by the authors of "Que falta que me haces."

Disc Jockey has a new label, Sport, and the first record that has appeared is "Autostrada" b/w "Marmita rumorosa" done by Los Perez Boys. They have also put on the market a new LP with the voice of Charles Aznavour. His tune "Y por lo tanto" is already a hit in Buenos Aires. Among the latest LP's from Music Hall are "Reunion con Miguelito Valdes" and "Boleros, Vol 1" with various artists including Rolando La Serie, Los Nocturnos and Siro San Roman.

Phonogram announces that Cholo Aguirre will resume his success as a composer in a EP titled "Aguas arriba." Bert Kaempfert has made an EP, "Bailando mejilla a mejilla" which will go out under Polydor's label.

Grillo Mejia recorded the tunes "Carita de angel" and "Estrellitas de amor" for Odeon Pops, and the label also tells us that for Warner Bros. label, Freddie Cannon has cut "Verano en USA" (Summertime, USA) and "Tengo algo bueno en marcha" (Gotta Good Thing Goin').

AUSTRALIA

The publisher credit in last week's best-seller list for "Rock And Roll Music" by the Beatles, was inadvertently shown as Leeds Music when in fact the title is published by Jewel Music, a subsidiary of Boosey & Hawkes. The tune is No. 3 on our list of best selling singles this week.

Our best sellers this week show that "Ticket To Ride" by the Beatles has displaced "Rock And Roll Music" in the No. 1 spot. "The Last Time" by the Rolling Stones is on the chart for the first time, as is "Concrete And Clay," which is shaping like a strong contender for the top spot.

We had a very unusual situation (for Australia at least), of a leading theatre closing its doors recently, due to the short run of a show and the lack of a readily available replacement. The Princess Theatre in Melbourne closed because of lack of public support for the musical "High Spirits" and theatre staff has been laid off for the first time in many years. The closing of this house is a severe blow to live theatre in Australia and every behind-the-scenes move is being made to re-open as soon as details of a new show can be finalised.

The Belinda Music group of publishing companies is doing pretty well lately. Its current batch includes "Do The Clam," "Stop In The Name Of Love," "Iko Iko," "Walking The Dog," "Let's Do The Freddie," "Go Now" and "I Still Miss Someone."

Popular Australian C&W star Kevin Shegog has a new single out on the W & G label which has "It Hurts So Much To See You" as the "A" side. The session was arranged and conducted by Johnny Hawker who has been doing quite a lot of recording work of late.

Latest singles from EMI (its smallest singles issue in some time) include "Bring It On Home To Me" by the Animals, "Mrs. Brown You've Got A Lovely Daughter" by Herman's Hermits, "Pass Me By" with Peggy Lee, "She's About A Mover," from Sir Douglas Quintet and "Woolly Bully" by Sam The Sham. E.M.I. still has a strangle hold on the singles market in Australia—just as it has throughout the English-speaking world. In Australia they have much better than 60% of the total singles market and their percentage appears to be steadily growing.

A New Zealand group, Max Merritt & The Meteors have their first Australian release via RCA, which carries "So Long Baby" c/w "You're Treating Me Bad." Another interesting issue from RCA is the album entitled "The Plush Piano Of Winifred Atwell," which was recorded locally by the famous pianist with the Cyril Bevan Quartet. With the artist's popularity at a steady peak in Australia there is every chance that RCA will score heavily in the sales department with this set.

Local star Jay Justin is doing pretty well with his latest single for HMV, entitled "Time Waits For No One." The song was written by Justin in collaboration with Castle Music chief, Joe Halford. The same pair wrote "Reminiscing," which is reported to have been recorded in America by Slim Whitman. An English star is also expected to record the song soon.

Local group the Echoes, featuring Norm Miller, has a new single out on Columbia with "One Day" an Australian composition by Des Gibson, coupled with the old Buddy Holly favourite, "It Doesn't Matter Any More."

The Delltones, one of the top vocal groups in this country, are represented by a new Festival label package entitled "The Dellies Burst Out." Among the repertoire in the set we find "Bits And Pieces," "Rag Doll," "Little Honda" and "Glad All Over."

Latest local product to issue from the Festival studios includes Normie Rowe with a revival of "It Ain't Necessarily So," the Courtmen with "Sticks And Stones" and the Showmen with two originals, "So Far Away" c/w "Don't Deceive." Two recently signed artists in the midst of recording their first material for Festival Records are Michele Ray and Tony McCann. The label is currently organising saturation promotion campaigns to be built round Dot recording star, Jimmie Rodgers, and Ampar artists, the Barrie Sisters, whilst these artists are in Australia for personal appearances later this month. Albums to be featured during this period and "Deep Purple" by Jimmie Rodgers and "Fiddler On The Roof" by the Barrie Sisters.

Stern Arrival

Violinist Isaac Stern, who has been the focus of a major promo campaign by Columbia Records during the past month, was saluted at the London Airport when he arrived for the Pierre Monteux Memorial Concert at the Royal Festival Hall. On hand to greet the virtuoso were Jack Phipps (left) from Harold Holt, Ltd.; and Stanley West, CBS' label manager, with Quita Chavez, promo head for classical repertoire.

ITALY

As we reported last week we had the occasion of meeting Riz Ortolani, the well-known arranger and conductor, who has become famous as a result of the 15 million records sales around the world of his tremendous hit, "More." He is presently making frequent trips from Italy to the States and vice versa, and we met him in Milan, where he accompanied his wife, Katina Ranieri, during the Convention of CGD International. Now he is in Rome, where he has been called by the Campi Publishing Co. to write the score for the new Jacopetti film, "Africa Addio" (Farewell to Africa). Jacopetti was also the conceiver and the stage manager of the successful motion picture, "Mondo Cane," from which the tune "More" was taken. Just before leaving for the States, Ortolani produced the soundtrack for the United Artist film, "The Glory Guys," and he will be obliged to leave Italy for a few days to record an album of the film's themes for the UA label in London. His name has also reappeared on the hit record scene in Italy thanks to the good reaction which his latest song "Forget Domani," is obtaining on our market. The tune, sung by his songstress wife on an MGM disc, is included in the soundtrack of the film, "The Yellow Rolls Royce," presently being shown all over Italy. It has been also recorded by Connie Francis under the same MGM label. Both versions are distributed by CGD International. The tune, as well as all the other music from the film is published by Curci Publishing Group.

Giampiero Simontacchi, head of the press and public relations office of SAAR has informed Cash Box of the next singing tour scheduled in the U.S. and Canada for a group of the young artists signed to the label. The names of the protagonists of this tour are Remo Germani, Nicola Di Bari and Roberta Mazzoni. The first two have already well confirmed their popularity by having several different discs already placed among the top sellers on our market, while the latter is a young recent discovery of the label's A/R manager, Ezio Leoni. Warner Bros. will distribute the recordings of these artists in the States. The tour starts on May 15 and ends on May 30, and Simontacchi will accompany the artists in the States.

We have received a telephone call from Paolo Ruggeri, who has just returned from London and Paris. In London he accompanied the general manager of Dischi Ricordi, Guido Rignano, to the CBS European Convention held in that town. Also present at the meeting was Mariano Rapetti, head of the Ricordi Light Music Publishing Group. While in London, Ruggeri as international A/R manager, also supervised the first Italian recording of the English group, the Termites, which will be soon introduced on the CBS label in Italy.

During the CBS meeting in London, particular praise went to the success that the New Christy Minstrels obtained at the San Remo Festival this year. The winning composition "Se Piangi Se Ridi" (published by Ricordi), which they performed along with Bobby Solo, has been recently released by the group in English, for States and Great Britain, and in French for France and Belgium. On all markets the song, as performed by the Christies, has immediately obtained a strong reaction.

Paolo Mosca is the name of a young artist recently pacted by Ricordi. His name is already known in the Italian world of music, having been the winner of last year's "B" team at the Cantagiuro. He will therefore participate in the new 1965 edition of that show, doing "Io Ritorno A Casa Mia," a song published, of course, by the Ricordi pubbery.

Another young artist on the same label will also take part in the Cantagiuro 1965 as member of the "B" team, and will be chosen by the public from among four candidates. The competition is organized by the diskery in cooperation with a musical magazine, with Dischi issuing an EP for the readers of this magazine and containing tracks by Gianni Di Cristina, Marcello Fattorini, Marina and Kiko Fusco. All of them have been selected through a special contest organized by the magazine and devoted to new voices. The public will choose one of these four to participate in the festival.

Eraldo Di Vita, executive of EMI Italiana, recently visted our office announcing the visit of the Belgian singer, Adamo, who will take part in the TV show "The Dream Fair" on May 6, once again presenting his current hit, "Non Voglio Nascondermi." The artist is enjoying great success on the Italian market, having two of his recent discs, "Non Voglio Nascondermi" and "Dolce Paola," listed on the hit parade. Both songs are originally published in Belgium by Ardmore and Beechwood. The EMI artist was also feted with a cocktail party held for press representatives at the Hotel Duomo in Milan on May 5.

Another EMI international talent, Sacha Distel, will soon return to Italy to take part in a TV show, entitled "In Chiave Di Chitarra" (In Key of Guitar), scheduled in Naples May 25 and 26. He will sing "Quando Sento La Chitarra" (When I Listen To The Guitar). He is also enjoying success in Italy where his first Italian disc, "Una Come Te," EMI label, also entered the charts.

To complete the list of the future visits in our country by foreign artists, we think it's necessary to mention two Tamla-Motown groups, the Supremes and the Marvellettes. According to Durium, who distributes the Tamla-Motown product in Italy, the two groups will soon be guests of our town where they will also record their first Italian productions. The Supremes will also be star guests at the opening night of Cantagiuro 1965.

We wish also to apologize to R.I.F.I, Leonardi and all our readers for the mistake we recently made in our charts, when we announced that "Un Anno D'Amore," the Italian version of "C'Est Irreparable," as interpreted by Mina under the R.I.F.I label, was published by Sugarmusic. As a matter of fact, "C'Est Irreparable" originally published by Paul Beuscher of Paris, is sub-published in Italy by the Settebello publishing firm, which is associated with R.I.F.I and a member of the Leonardi Publishing Group. We wish to stress the fact that with this song, Mina has once again, for the third time during the past ten months, returned to the top of our charts.

Another welcomed visitor to our Milan office was Mario Minasi. The well-known impresario is still organizing the second edition of his successful manifestation, "Festival Delle Rose," which, as before, will be held in Rome at the Hilton Hotel on Oct. 1, 2 and 3. This contest was responsible for introducing Gianni Morandi's great success, "Non Son Degno Di Te," along with "Te Lo Leggo Negli Occhi" by Dino, both on RCA Victor and both listed in our hit parade.

THE FINEST POP MUSIC HEARD

Merchandise That Big Speaker Sound!

In the quest to bring dancing back to the location, the music operator—by installing speakers designed to induce a dance atmosphere—has unconsciously encouraged patrons to listen to recorded music, again.

Location reports from various sections of the country indicate that many patrons in locations geared for discotheque, are listening to the music—and they're hearing sounds heretofore heard only by the privileged audiophile or hi-fidelity addict.

The reason is simple. Until discotheque, the juke box offered good quality sound from mid-range speakers, engineered to deliver only the middle range of the overall sound spectrum. Because of natural limitations, much of the bass and treble—the 'lows' and 'highs'—are never heard. Sound enthusiasts spend large sums on high-powered amplifiers and speakers of greater efficiency in order to derive the wide range of sound inherent in the grooves of the same recording but not heard when played on less efficient equipment. These exciting musical sounds are heard wherever operators use the wide range speakers, and the overall effect is serving as a profitable attraction.

It is unnecessary to delve into a technical discussion of sound to appreciate the merchandising value of the new juke box installations. Suffice it to say that before the discotheque innovation, the average music machine utilized mid-range speakers with a range of approximately 80 cps to 8000 cps. This means that the bass sounds registered below 80 cycles per second, and the treble sounds above 8000 cps, were not heard. In essence, much of the spectacular definition, the natural sounding rhythms, the recording techniques—were as though they were never injected for they were never heard . . . not on location anyway. The wide-range speakers, however, offer a range between 30 cps and approximately 20,000 cps, and the listener can clearly hear the detail of the bass section—the drums and rhythm—and the clarity of the treble—the brass and reed section of a dance orchestra, for instance. Vocals gain 'presence' when heard via the wide-range speakers. Greater clarity, finer quality and an individuality never before possible, can now be heard when a vocal record is played on a juke box installed for discotheque, or just plain listening—an advantage which logically broadens the customer potential for such an installation.

We have all watched the hi-fi addict bring this search for greater efficiency in sound to the extreme. Actually, 16 cps to 26,000 cps is not within the range of normal hearing ability although the presence of sound in this wide range is said to add warmth and tone to the overall performance on record. Forgetting the high volume at which this music is played today, it is a fact that when set at the same volume records will sound extremely clear and even louder, because of the size of the speakers used—an argument in support of the magnificent sound even when the volume is lowered.

The musical genius, if you will, that goes into producing pop recordings, is lost on most playback equipment. Hence the lucrative hi-fi stereo component market of music lovers.

We can say that the music operator is bringing this ability to project pop music in dimensional sounds to the location, where it has never been heard before. Large sound speakers with twelve and fifteen inch woofers, two and four good-sized tweeters, plus the standard mid-range speaker, all placed within a baffle standing up to four feet high is comparable to high-grade theatrical equipment. And don't forget that even the hi-fi set owner probably has 'bookshelf' or similar speakers limited in size to permit the dual speaker installation necessary for stereo. Before stereo, the hi-fi enthusiast needed only the one 'mammoth' speaker to gain the full sound. With the advent of stereo, two speakers this size required too much space for most apartments. The music operator is actually bringing this sound to the location, and it's available nowhere else.

Twenty-five watt amplifiers (dual 50-watts) are all that's needed for power since the speaker with greater efficiency requires less drive, except of course where the installation is made in arenas, a not totally unfamiliar location, now that the sound is available from operators.

The wonder of musical sound never ceases to amaze the enthusiast nor does it fail to startle the neophyte. It bores no one. Sound has been successfully merchandised for a sufficient number of years. Recordings with juke box appeal have in the grooves music which can be sold as an attraction. It is up to the music operator to capitalize on this advantageous position and provide this 'attraction', at a price.

After all, where else can anyone actually hear the full-range of rhythmic sound as recorded by a top-flight band, or the hard-rock harmony of the latest singing group, or for that matter, the lead-in beats of most small group jazz disks? It is the juke box that tells the full story and it's up to the operator to merchandise this story at a profit.

Shaffer Music Signs With Rowe AC for Southern Ohio

▪ Will Distribute Complete Rowe Products Line

WHIPPANY, NEW JERSEY—Shaffer Music Company, former Seeburg distributor in the Ohio territory, signed last week to distribute the Rowe AC phonograph and vending machine line in Southern Ohio, it was announced by Rowe AC President Jack Harper. It was also learned that Shaffer's vending sales territory would be expanded at a later date.

Ed Shaffer, veteran coin machine distributing exec, and Tom Reed, represented the Ohio firm at the Whippany meeting on Tuesday, April 4. Marketing Vice President Fred Pollak, Sales Manager Ed Claffey, Comptroller Jerry Marcus and Harper, represented Rowe AC Manufacturing.

Harper said that the signing brought to the Rowe AC distributing "a group of experienced and enthusiastic coin machine and vending salesmen, unequalled in our industry" in referring to the Shaffer company. Fred Pollak told Cash Box that "the Shaffer deal makes Shaffer Music one of Rowe AC's key distributors in the overall selling organization." Shaffer said that he considered the Rowe AC lines "the best in the industry." He added, "We look forward to a long and profitable relationship." Pollak told Cash Box that the appointment became effective immediately.

Seeburg Will Meet With 8,000 Music Ops Via Special Series, 48 Sessions In Two Week Sked

▪ Letters Mailed From Factory To Music Ops Nationwide

CHICAGO—Seeburg executives left last week for a series of meetings with the nation's music operators and before they return, some 48 meetings in as many cities will have been held. The first meetings started on Thursday, May 6 and the final one will be held May 18.

The operators were invited to the meetings by a letter from Seeburg President J. Cameron Gordon. In his letter to the operators, Gordon said, "Never in its history has The Seeburg Corporation written directly to the music operator and invited him to a meeting of such significance and importance as the one to which I am inviting you."

Pointing out that in departing from past practice of communicating to the operator through the distributing organization of Seeburg, Gordon pointed out that "But now, there is such a message of such great timeliness and importance that I have asked our distributor to invite you to a special meeting" and that "it is Seeburg who is calling this meeting and who is asking you to attend."

More than 8,000 operators across the country received letters from Gordon and they later heard directly from their local Seeburg distributor as to the exact time and place of the meeting in their area.

Operator meetings are being held in these cities: Philadelphia; Richmond; Baltimore; Kansas City, Missouri; Oklahoma City; San Antonio; Corpus Christi; Denver; El Paso; Omaha; Des Moines; Albuquerque; St. Louis; Brighton, Massachusetts; Albany; Miami; Syracuse; Atlanta; Rochester; Dearborn; Buffalo; Columbus; Cincinnati; Milwaukee; Cleveland; Minneapolis; New York; Chicago; Hartford; Indianapolis; Nashville; Memphis; Salt Lake City; Pittsburgh; and Great Falls, Montana.

JACK GORDON

"... you will hear startling news ..."

Also Billings; Boise, Idaho; Columbia, South Carolina; Raleigh, North Carolina; San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Seattle, Phoenix, New Orleans, Houston and Dallas.

The Seeburg executives holding the meetings include J. C. Gordon, and vice presidents T. L. Herrick, W. F. Adair, Mark Lefebvre, E. C. Blankenbeckler, Robert Dunlap, Al Gange, W. C. Prutting, Frank Finneran, Joseph Fitzpatrick, Al Gitlitz, Richard Murphy, and National Promotion Manager, Stanley Jarocki and Frank Luppino Jr., Advertising and Sales Promotion Manager.

Gordon urged operators to attend the meeting in their area, no matter what else they might have planned. His letter said, "I guarantee you will hear some of the most startling news you have ever heard from anyone in our industry."

PINBALLS and POLITICS

While Italy's Senate Studies The Ban, An Industry Refuses To Give Up Hope

ROME, ITALY—The coin machine industry throughout Italy has one slim chance of seeing its livelihood saved from ruin and that reprieve rests in the hands of the Italian Senate—final stop for legislation passed favorably upon by forty-five deputies in the Parliament. A bill which bans the operation of all pinball machines, and other equipment, introduced by the Minister of Interior Taviani was approved last month. Diligent efforts by SOPAR, the Italian Coin Machine Industry Association, have been carried out here under the leadership of Bruno Berti, Vice Pres., and other leaders.

The pinball ban was passed, according to coin machine industry leaders, on the premise that the move was "a moral one." Gambling, financial losses, and effects of machines on children, were all brought into play. However, SOPAR claims that actually political pressures were brought to bear by the movie-making industry, who suffered from a drop in attendance due to various competitive areas of entertainment (as they have suffered elsewhere) and from the Church, where the moral issue is also a political one.

In 1954 pinballs were placed on the same plane as gambling slot machines but the ban was lifted in 1956 when the law was abolished as it pertained to the pinball amusement machine. It is estimated that between 1956 and 1958 35,000 pingames were sold in Italy. Toward the end of 1958, police authorities began enforcing a local police ruling which prohibited the pins in public places. While the pins were removed from public places, approximately 20,000 games remained on location but in private recreation centers and in religious institutions where they were considered acceptable recreation for children. Private clubs, of course, also installed pingames, and the market remained healthy until the beginning of this year when a press drive was launched to remove the pins completely. It is said that the drive served as support for Taviani's bill. Said Taviani: "The justification for this bill lies in the protests raised from parents and educational authorities who recognize the bad influence that these machines exercise on young people. More and more young people are distracted from work and studies."

The bill received little opposition because of the sympathy with Church circles and the lack of knowledge of the authorities in dealing with gambling versus amusement situations.

Said Bruno Berti, spokesman for the industry: "We agree with Minister Taviani to abolish machines which encourage vice, such as the granting of awards and money. We agree that fraudulent recreation centers which do not have real educational purposes but instead support games of vice, should also be closed. But we do not agree with the Minister of Interior that he should abolish the entire line."

If recent Italian legislation is not changed displays of pinball machines (above) will no longer be a part of the Milan Fair. The pin ban was brought about by pressures from the film industry and from Church circles, according to coin machine leaders, who have lost millions of dollars from the political move. Photo shows the SIDAM display of amusement machines.

MILAN FAIR

A Pingame Ban In Italy Dampens Industry's Outlook—But the Juke Box Picture Is Bright

MILAN, ITALY—The 43rd Milan International Trade Fair which opened two weeks ago attracted a goodly number of coin-operated phonograph, amusement machine and vending equipment exhibitors. The recent Italian ruling banning pingames from all operation enveloped the otherwise successful show in a pall of pessimism. Pingames represented an operating business of approximately 35,000 games as recently as 1958. By 1964 the figure had dipped to 20,000 after a semi-ban was placed on the equipment and as of last month the pinballs are prohibited entirely because of politically founded rulings, according to industry reps here. Amusement machine imports from the USA alone totaled $2 million in 1964.

Cash Box covered the exhibition visiting each display, as in the past.

Giuseppe Pasquini, general manager of Seerome S.p.A., Italian affiliation of Seeburg Corp., showed the new Seeburg LPC-480. Also presented for the first time on the Italian market was the new Mustang 100, sold in Italy at the price of 950,000 liras (about $1500). According to Pasquini, the economic situation this year has become surprisingly better. "It depends"—said Pasquini—"in part on the policy of our firm, which is establishing itself on the Italian market, thanks to the great quality of the product." According to Pasquini the firm has not suffered from the economical crises since sales have been increasingly improving. Pasquini reportedly does a volume of approximately 3 million dollars annually. This volume of sales includes of course also the flippers games and pinballs, which will be completely forbidden for sale in Italy, now that the law has passed.

Giuseppe Pasquini reported that a good part of the business during the two week exhibition, was devoted to the Seeburg LP Console 480, while a very good reaction from the customers was brought about when the new Seeburg Mustang 100 was unveiled.

The AMI exhibition was organized by COVIRO, the general agency of AMI products for Lombardia, a northern district of Italy which has Milan as centre. Coviro is directly dependent upon Italian AMI whose general manager is Dr. Franco Schreiber.

Italian AMI is a license of manufacturing and importation, as granted by the head firm, Rowe AC Manufacturing, in the USA. Also in this case the Trade Fair of Milan was an occasion to present for the first time to the customers a new product: the Juke Box M 200. This new phono is particularly interesting owing to the fact that it is the first juke box completely planned and built in Italy.

The Italian AMI Model M200 is sold in Italy at a price of about $1500. During a visit to the AMI booth, Cash Box reporters had the occasion of talking with Adolfo Pavia, executive of the firm COVIRO. In his opinion results from this year's International Exhibition have been discouraging, as for the actual sales deals, but there was a greater number of visitors in the AMI booth compared with that of last year, all of them showing interest in the production. It was hoped that resultant sales would come about from the interest. Therefore, even if the sales directly concluded in the fair were not more than the last year, it is supposed that many of the visitors will deal with AMI for their future purchases. This increasing interest in the main is considered as a clear symptom of the fact that the economical slump is arriving at an end.

Seerome, Italian subsid of the Seeburg factory in Chicago, displayed the LPC-480. Giuseppe Pasquini, general manager, hosted the booth.

The Wurlitzer representative for Lombardia district, NOVAMATIC, used a display hosted by Bruno Berti, co-owner of NOVAMATIC. Berti is the vice president of SAPAR, the Italian Association of Coin Machine Operators. His opinion on the business results of this 43rd Milan Trade Fair, is positive, but, he stressed only for the juke box section. Considering the whole Coin Machines section the business results are completely negative, said Berti.

Just after the deepest period of the economical slump, when the market started its way for a definitive normalization, the present Government abolished pinballs in the Italian territory. "This law has represented of course a decrease of 50% on the whole business volume of the Coin Machine industry in Italy," stated Berti.

During a visit to the Coin Machines section of the Fair, Cash Box reporters had the occasion of meeting another top operator in Milan, Mr. Ortolina. He too, expressed his great dismay for the sudden and surprising act of the Government, which will cut definitely 50% share of profit of the Coin Machines operators.

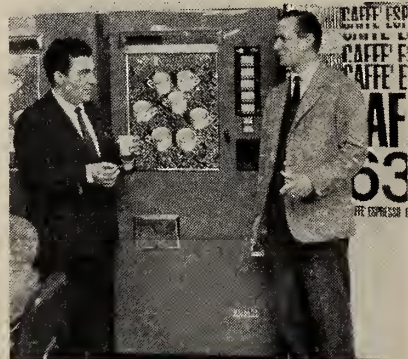

SIDAM, of Turin, also displayed equipment. This firm is acting only in the pinball field and of course this will be the last time that they will take part in the Milan International Exhibition. They tried to operate machines not forbidden which the law, also being restrictive, will admit, but it appears that local police authorities will forbid all kinds of coin machines, and therefore those expressly admitted by the new law—a confusing state of affairs.

"Our Police authorities are acting with limitative criteria, refusing to deliver to the owners of public locals, licenses for exercise of every coin operated machines, with the only exception of Juke boxes and vending machines," stated association officials.

On the vending side, the booth of Bianchi, one of the top Italian car manufacturers, has recently entered into the Coin Machine field having introduced a very interesting coffee vendor. Main characteristic of this vendor derives from the fact that it uses fresh grains of coffee, which are ground each time that a cup is served. This system will save of course the inimitable taste of the world known Italian "Espresso." This is the reason why "Espresso" is also the name chosen for the first coin machine produced by Bianchi industries.

A complete demonstration of the qualities of the Bianchi's coffee-vendor by Adriano Carrera, sales manager of Coin Machines division of Bianchi Industries, was conducted.

Bianchi Industries, manufacturers and Rowe licensee, displayed a coffee vendor which brews espresso, favorite Italian hot drink. Left, Adriano Carrera of Bianchi, demonstrates the unit for Mr. Carimali, vending machine manufacturer and a supplier to Bianchi.

The Rowe AC representative, COVIRO, AMI agency here, displayed the Model M200, first AMI phono planned and built in Italy. Adolfo Pavia, COVIRO exec, staffs the booth.

He reported to Cash Box that the coin machine section was opened by Bianchi industries in 1963 producing under the Rowe license. The coffee vendor "Espresso" is the first vending machine patented in Italy. Such technical details were given by Mr. Braga, production manager of Bianchi coin machine section, who had also welcomed visitors to the Bianchi booth.

Carrera said that the sales volume during the exhibition period was "really good this year." "Undoubtedly this is a clear sign of the definitive solution of the economical crises on our market," he added. The Bianchi coffee vendor is exported all over Europe, in South America and in Africa. Bianchi is also interested in exportation to the United States.

The display booth of FAEMA, a well-known manufacturer of coffee Espresso machines, recently entered into the coin machines field with a juke box and, recently coffee vending machines. The Faema coffee vendor is completely built in Italy. Just recently FAEMA has opened a new factory in Barcelona (Spain).

Novamatic's Bruno Berti, Wurlitzer representative in Italy (above) is also Vice President of the Italian Association of Coin Machine Operators. Berti is spearheading the fight against the current pingame ban.

1965 HANOVER TRADE FAIR

Major Phono Mfrs Show Latest Models At German Show

HANOVER, GERMANY—The 1965 Hanover Trade Fair which took place here April 24 through May 2nd enjoyed an excellent representation of the coin machine industry with an impressive number of phonograph, vending and game manufacturers and distributors exhibiting their wares to thousands of visitors from Europe and scores of other nations. The following report outlines the equipment displays and events which highlighted the show.

1965 was the first year the Hanover Trade Fair directors admitted exhibitors of phonographs, a significant sign of the growing importance of this industry in the international market. The Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. was represented by their European distributors Nova Aparate based in Hamburg. At the center of attraction was the firm's 'Grand Prix' 160-selection phonograph and their 'Princess Royal' 100-selection compact. Nova's chief executive Alfred Adickes, on hand at the fair, reported that the two machines have been extremely successful in Europe with the 'Princess' a sensational hit in those smaller continental locations.

Adickes reported that reception was also gratifying on the Rock-Ola stereo wall phonograph 100-selection. This machine features a new light-weight pickup arm and a new streamlined cabinet housing the two speakers each with an output of 12 watts. The box, manufactured in Chicago, is designed especially for the European market and, according to Adickes, is ideally suitable for small locations. The Nova executive advised that the firm's decision to continue manufacturing this model will please all Rock-Ola friends in Europe. The alterations that have been made to the Rock-Ola wall phono, particularly as far as the exterior is concerned, have greatly enhanced the beauty of the machine and attracted much interest at the show.

Seeburg phonographs were exhibited at the stand of Seevend Automaten of Hamburg. The LPC-480, 160-selection console, which has the ability of being adapted for discotheque multi-channel speakers, attracted much attention. With more and more discotheques appearing all over Europe, this model is in tremendous demand, Seevend executives stated.

The Seeburg Mustang' U-100, first seen in Germany last Feb., was also on display. A section of the Seeburg stand was devoted to Williams-United games represented by the 'Matador' bowler, 'Mambo' shuffle and 'Alpine' and 'Eager Beaver' flippers.

Another impressive stand was that of Helmut Rehbock GmbH of Hamburg. Leading importers and wholesalers, Rehbock claimed to have introduced the juke box into Germany back in the early 50's and in 1962 the first film-box. As main distributors for Rowe A.M.I. they exhibited the 'Diplomat' 200-selection stereo, the 'Tropicana' 200 stereo selection and the C.A. Electronic 160 stereo selection boxes. Alongside these were featured the new Discotheque sound projectors—each projector containing seven speakers (2 bass, 4 mid-range and 1 hi-fidelity). The A.M.I. patented 'stereo-round' feature is built into the discotheque sound projectors. Each speaker can handle 50 watt—thus 2 speakers with a total of 100 watt can supply the big sound which is basic to the discotheque concept of entertainment. Attending the Hanover Fair was Paul Hunger, A.M.I.'s European director of Automatic Musical Instruments S.A. of Geneva, Switzerland.

More phonographs were to be seen at the stand of Deutsche Wurlitzer, the wholly owned subsidiary of the Wurlitzer Company of America. In their factory at Hullorst, Germany, they manufacture phonographs, electronic organs and vending machines. The Hullorst plant also handles the sales for the German market while the European and Middle East sales are handled by Wurlitzer Overseas A.G. of Zug, Switzerland. A selection of all the Wurlitzer lines were on show. The major exhibit being the "Lyric" console 100-selection manufactured in Germany for the world market. First seen last November, it has proved to be one of Deutsche Wurlitzer's biggest sellers.

Other phonographs seen at Hanover were the German made "Lyric" M, "Lyric" E 100-selection and the American made Wurlitzer models 2900, 200-selection and the 2910, 100-selection. On another stand Deutsche Wurlitzer had on show their German made electronic organs 4040 and 4300 as well as the American made electronic piano. Throughout the 9-day exhibition, crowds thronged the Wurlitzer stand to hear the demonstration playing of American organist Mavin Korinke.

Vast Vending Equipment Display Captures Fair Interest

The vending section of the Hanover Trade Fair comprised about fourteen stands. Among them, two of Britains top manufacturers and suppliers of vending machines, Fisher and Ludlow Ltd. (vending division), had impressive displays. Hot beverage and cold drink machines of British design and manufacture were on show together with the British made general merchandiser vending chocolate, cigarettes etc. The range of Fisholow 6-selection vendors, catering for all nationalistic tastes, were exhibited. On show for the first time was the Fisholow Junior Six Beverage vendor supplying either hot or cold drinks to the customer's requirements.

The other British firm, Ditchburn Vending Machines Ltd., were making their first appearance at Hanover. They exhibited a full range of hot and cold drink vendors and snack machines. A great attraction was the Ditchburn Minibar unit comprising one Mini-spa hot drink, 5-selection (4 coffee, 1 chocolate) with 280-cup capacity, a Minispa cold 5-selection, offering two with still water and three with C.O.2. water, with 200-cup capacity and two snack machines each with four selection 100-capacity. Also on show were the Ditchburn hot and cold spa 7-selection 1,000 cup capacity machines. The newest machine was the Mini-spa with a 300-cup capacity and 11-selections (4 coffee, 4 tea, 2 chocolate and 1 soup) the only small machine on the market offering such a variety of selections.

The Nova Aparate vending section

featured the new 'Nova Quick,' small and compact hot drink coffee, chocolate, tea or soup machines, specially designed for small locations catering to limited numbers of people. As it supplies drinks within six sec. it is also very suitable for sites requiring speedy service. Capacity coffee and tea 600 cups, chocolate 130 and soup 150. Also on show was the usual range of Rock-Ola vendors including hot and cold drink machines and cigarette vendors.

On the Seeburg stand, Mr. Rosenzweig, the sales manager, reported a tremendous swing towards post-mix vending. A year ago the demand was for pre-mix as it was in previous years for bottle vendors, but for the future, post-mix will come to the fore. Thus tremendous interest centered around the latest Seeburg-Williamsburg 10 selection instant hot drink vendor for coffee, tea and chocolate. This machine was on show in Germany for the first time and many orders were taken. Also on show were Choice-Vend cold drink machines, the four selection model with 200-cup capacity and the three selection model with 150 cup capacity. Seeburg also featured the "Marquee" hot and cold vendors and the Pic-A-Pac merchandiser.

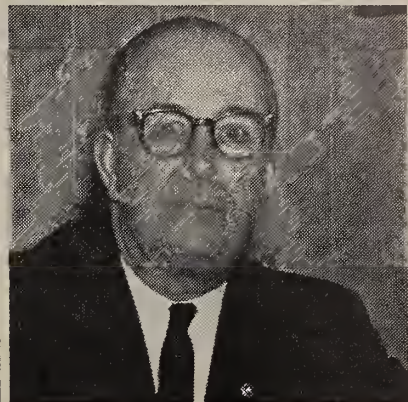

On the vending section of the Rehbock stand were seen the C.A. universal vending machine type W.1 for confectionary made up of 20 lines of nine compartments each giving a maximum total of 180 selections. The W.2 type for perishable foodstuffs and the elaborate W.5 special vending machine for building into shop-fronts. This machine was one of the highlights of the fair.

On the vending section of the Deutsche Wurlitzer stand were shown the electric cigarette vendor W 24, first introduced three years ago, and has been sold with great success in Germany and most other European countries. For this year's show, the cabinet has been completely re-styled and streamlined. A major addition is the personalizing panel for location or brand names. The new model can be equipped with the very universal Wurlitzer engineered and manufactured change-giving mechanism demanded by the market requirements of several European countries.

The Dixie-Narco Company of West-Virginia U.S. American manufacturers of Coca-Cola machines etc., were represented at Hanover on the stand of Tornado GmbH of Dusseldorf, manufacturers of vending machines and the sole German suppliers for Coca-Cola machines in Germany and the European market. Tornado is a Daughter-company of Rhein-Metall GmbH, a part of the Rochling group. On show were three Dixie-Narco slant-shelf vendors for 80-110 and 150 bottles. Also the pre-mix vendor with 1000 cup capacity. Tornado manufactured machines included the fully electrical Tornado T 220-4 bottle vendor with a 220-standard bottle capacity offering four selections. All machines both by Dixie-Narco and Tornado are designed to suit Coca-Cola requirements.

A Loyal Moose

JACK G. BESS

RICHMOND—Jack Bess assumed Board Chairman duties at Roanoke Vending Exchange Inc. last year in order to devote more time to community and public relations affairs. Bess completed a thirty-state tour last month for the Loyal Order of Moose, a nationally prominent benevolent organization. With two months to go on this special tour, Jack Bess expects to have contributed to the raising of $200,000 for the construction of a swimming pool facility at Mooseheart, a Children's Home supported by the Moose, located near Aurora, Illinois. One million members belong to the Loyal Order of Moose but just 80,000 have received an honorary degree and have completed requirements for the bestowment of a Second Degree, of which Bess has full honors. Bess is a Grand North Moose, the presiding officer of the Council, which governs degrees—the second highest position in the fraternity under the Supreme Governor.

The Moose, in addition to countless philanthropic achievements, also supports Moosehaven in Orange Park, Florida, a home for the aged. While Mooseheart is a City in itself, the many accomplishments of this organization outdistance any single achievement.

When Jack Bess attends the annual convention of Moose in Los Angeles, in June 1965, he will have completed his tour of duty for this term. Viola Bess will be at his side, as she has been for most of the year's work. "When you look around at the good that's been done, the memories of long auto travel and late meeting chores disappear," said Bess during an interview with Cash Box, which normally covers Bess' activities from the viewpoint of his coin machine and vending distribution business.

Last week as Harry Moseley, President of Roanoke, handled the business at hand, Jack Bess came into town after a trip and checked out company progress. "We're not only doing very well," said he, "but I personally never felt better in my life." And observers agreed, for good reason.

IN RECOGNITION of his "charitable and humanitarian work for others," the annual Benjamin Franklin Award of the Motion Picture Preview Group, was made to Ralph W. Pries, vice-president of the Berlo Vending Company division of ABC Consolidated Corporation. The presentation was made on Thursday (April 8) at Philadelphia's Barclay Hotel.

Seeburg Adds Teen and Rhythm Sounds To Rec-O-Dance Library, Near 100 Mark

THE DISCOTHEQUE SOUND: Pictured at a recent recording session in Chicago are (left) Joe Marsala; standing center, William Prutting and standing right, maestro David Carroll. Marsala and Prutting are vice presidents of the Seeburg Corporation and involved with the recording of special material for the firm's Discotheque program. The firm now has 70 Discotheque records in its special Rec-O-Dance series. The records, designed for dancing and listening, are only for use on phonographs and are not commercially available through record shops or heard on radio stations. The Seeburg Corp. leases the records to operators and automatically provides replacements every 90 days. Carroll is one of the conductors-arrangers working with Seeburg on their special record program.

The operator leasing Seeburg Rec-O-Dance product pays $60.00 annually for a set of ten records with three changes. In addition to the Rec-O-Dance 'Discotheque' series, Seeburg also makes available twenty Rec-O-Dance 'Discotheque' disks, and ten Rec-O-Dance 'Rhythm' disks. The 'teen set has more of a beat to the tempos while the 'Rhythm' selections feature hard r&b sounds which reportedly are drawing crowds on 'listening' value in addition to the dance attraction.

Frank Luppino, Seeburg Advertising Manager, reports that the factory has twenty new 'Discotheque' disks and ten additional 'Rhythm' disks in production which will bring the total number of Rec-O-Dance disks to one hundred.

Wurlitzer Discotheque Disks A Sell-Out

NORTH TONAWANDA, N.Y.—A. D. Palmer, Advertising and Sales Promotion Manager, The Wurlitzer Company, told Cash Box last week that the initial ten little lp discotheque records originally announced two weeks ago (CB May 1) have been sold out. The firm ordered 1000 each of ten different disks from Columbia, who mixed top name artists and removed lead-in grooves to create a continuous dance sound. Wurlitzer is expected to go into production on its second series of records, "shortly," according to the advertising exec.

Palmer also advised that Wurlitzer is seriously considering having pressed for its distributors, for sale to operators, a set of country and western records from Gold Standard Records. Ed Freeman, record company exec, has made available a "Disk-O-Tec" country music series. Some of the selections are: "Won't You Ride In My Wagon," "Mansion On The Hill," "Milk Cow Blues," "Bartender Bring Two Glasses" and "I Feel Like A Stranger." Palmer believes the discotheque country sound will enjoy a boom market in many sections of the country.

Gold Standard has five artists ready for release, according to Palmer, who expects to special-order several disks for music op tests.

Kaye, Fischer Show Home Models At BBIA

NEW YORK — Two manufacturing firms of coin-operated pool tables displayed newly introduced non-coin models last week at the Bowling and Billiard Institute of America Conference held at New York's Hilton Hotel (CB May 8). The Irving Kaye Company, from a booth manned by Irving, Howard, Arnold Kaye, and Nick Marosy exhibited the new "Ambassador" table which is available in the following sizes: Model 70: 86x48; Model 75: 92x52; Model 80: 106x58; Model 90: 114x64.

The Fischer Sales and Manufacturing Company displayed its "Empire" VII and VIII models, both of which feature the Fischer wedge-lock principle of construction and marble table top; the "Duchess" VII and VIII with honeycomb playfield; and the Fischer "Princess" 58, the factory's club model. President Ewald Fischer, Frank Schroeder, Marvin Mertes, and Lou Wermes staffed the exhibit.

Other coin machine industry figures who attended the show were Earl Feddick, President, Valley Sales Co.; Bert Betti and John Rafer, Eastern Novelty Distributors; and Gabe Forman, Sutra Corp.

EASTERN NOVELTY's John Rafer attended the show with President Bert Betti. The company is one of the largest supply houses to the pool table trade.

D&R Industries Enjoys Record Sales

CHICAGO — Dennis Ruber, co-head with Richard Uttanoff of D & R Industries, in this city, advised this past week that the new building construction program is proceeding on schedule, and he expects to be moved into the new plant in a few months.

He further stated that March and April of this year were by far the two best months in sales in the firm's history.

D & R Industries is currently supplying two new products to the coin machine trade. They are: Fastactic billiard table adhesive for application

Cardinal Spellman Breakfast

NEW YORK — On Sunday morning, May 23, 1965, at 10:30 A.M., the Cardinal Spellman Servicemen's Club will hold its Annual Communion Breakfast in the Sert Room of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, following the 9:00 o'clock Mass at the Chapel of Saints Faith, Hope and Charity at 59th Street and Park Avenue, according to Rt. Rev. Msgr. John P. Kelly. The Servicemen's Club receives annual support from the coin machine industry in the metro NYC area.

Eastern Flashes

Last week, it was incorrectly reported in this space that the New York State Operators Guild would hold their May dinner-meeting the night of May 29th. Actually, the Guild will be meeting on the 19th, in the Hotel Washington in Newburgh. . . . Another group, the Cigarette Merchandisers Assn., will be gathering their members and guests the weekend of June 25-27 at Kutsher's Country Club for their 29th Annual Business Meeting and Outing. President Myron Bruck promises CMA members an excellent cross section representation of the industry at the outing plus great entertainment and athletic activities for those attending. . . . Still another get-together will be taking place Sept. 17-19 when the combined New York State music ops' associations join forces for a weekend of business and pleasure at the Nevele Hotel. Preparations for the annual meet have already been made by association leaders Mike Mulqueen, Carl Pavesi, George Holzman and Benny Chicofsky.

Irving Kaye Co. sales manager Howard Kaye reports heavy action on his firm's 'Klub' table. Howard says the game, a perennial favorite at numerous locations, also chalks up fine cash box action when placed nearby a 6-pocket table—sometimes better. Howard, the firm's prexy Irving Kaye and sales staffer Nick Marosy were on hand at the 22nd Annual BBIA Convention in the New York Hilton last week to exhibit their new non-coin 'Ambassador' table. Also on the roster of exhibitors was the Fischer Mfg. Co. represented by prexy Ewald Fischer and sales execs Marv Mertes and Lou Wermers. Coinbiz veteran Dave Forman was also on hand at the show to display Sutra cue sticks to conventioners. And among the more illustrious spectators at the exhibit were Valley's Earl Feddick, American's Sol Lipkin and Eastern Novelty's Bert Betti.

Max Guldin, New York branch manager for Musical Distributors (Wurlitzer outlet) advised last week that the firm enjoyed the best month in its history with equipment sales. Part of the honors belong to sales staffers Milt Tucker and Ted Seidel. Max advised that the machine and table orders doubled those of the previous month, and says he loves, loves, loves that Wurlitzer 2900. Max is also tickled pink with the initial reception here of Valley's new 'Cadillac' table which the firm is displaying on the showroom floor. Max's son Bobby, a freshman up at Cornell University, has been adding to the family credits with several of his excellent articles appearing with impressive regularity in the 'Cornell Daily Record.'

Mel-O-Dee Vending's Joe Torraca is rapidly turning into an authority on cold drink, coffee and other "wet vending" devices, now that the basically music and games op is expanding more and more into those precincts. . . . Vending tip from Sam (Musical Moments) Morrison advising ops to try dispensing specially packaged aspirin tablets through their cig machines. A major aspirin firm has provided identification cards for the machine plus a circular decal for an advertising boost. Sam has also seen vitamin pills being dispensed at a Bronx YMCA (two for 10¢). The Bronx op is also putting in many hours these days raising donation pledges for the NY-UJA drive. . . . Among the Rowe AMI discotheque packages being installed by the Runyon Sales Co. team these days, two "plumb" locations are the Texas Pavilion at the World's Fair, where the action bangs away nightly, and the Raleigh Hotel in South Fallsburg, N.Y., a plush resort in New York's Catskill region. Raleigh owner Manny Halbert told Runyon's general sales Manager Irv Kempner that he's thrilled with the reception his guests have been giving the disco installation. The package is being operated by Hy Brill and Jules Benkendorf. On the way to Raleigh, operators can stop off at the Wayside Inn in Haverstraw, N.Y. and dig still another Rowe discotheque installation, Kempy commented.

United East Coast chief Irv Holzman reports that Williams' brand new 'Double Play' baseball game has passed the New York Licensing Bureau standards with colors and invites all games ops to come on in and sample the action on the new piece. Always ready to give 'Double Play' lessons is Irv's sales-service ace Lou Druckman. . . . Abe Lipsky of Lipsky Distribs is doing a job with used candy and cig machines reconditioned through the VASCO facilities in Bklyn. Another popular item at the Lipsky showrooms has been the Campbell 6-pocket table which Abe distributes here. . . . Al Simon, back from a week with the family vacationing in New Orleans, was huddling with U.S. Billiards sales ace Stan Nankoff to formulate spring-summer sales-promotion plans. U.S. Billiards national sales director Art Daddis is presently out on the road promoting the firm's new table models.

Jersey Jottings

Eastern Novelty prexy Bert Betti and sales staffer John Rafer dropped over to the New York Hilton to spend a few hours with the gang from the Fischer Mfg. Co. who were exhibiting their wares there at the Bowling & Billiards show. . . . Irving Morris reports that his son Richard, a Captain in the U.S. Air Force, is currently stationed up at Pease, New Hampshire. Plenty of action at home for dad, though, with Gottlieb's 'Hi Dolly' 2-player flipper. . . . Rowe AMI's marketing veep Fred Pollak revealed just how far and wide his discotheque package is known last week when he reported that officers of the national convention of American Women in Radio and Television (convening at the New York Hilton) requested that a Rowe disco package be set up by the Runyon Sales Co. there to provide the ladies with a discotheque night. And just to top the evening off, Rowe's own ambassador of discotheque Killer Joe Piro spent the evening dancing and showing the AWRT members how to do today's disco dances, especially, Fred declared, the 'Rowe, Rowe, Rowe.'

Chicago Chatter

We're delighted to relay the good news from Dorothy Gottlieb that Dave Gottlieb is improving rapidly at Mount Sinai Hospital in Miami Beach. Mrs. Gottlieb attributes a great part of the improvement in Dave's condition to the thoughtfulness and encouragement his great host of coinbiz friends has imparted to him during the early stages of his illness. Back in the Gottlieb factory sales are continuing to boom on Gottlieb's "Hi Dolly" two-player flipper amusement game, according to Alvin and Nate Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg.

Richard Funk, NAMA's legislative counsel, anticipates the possibility of some GOP support for Democratic Governor Kerner's tobacco tax increase proposal in Illinois. Dick believes that the Revenue Committee will probably await further developments on the reapportionment bill pending in the Illinois Legislature.

Seeburg Board Chairman Delbert Coleman and Prexy Jack C. Gordon helped Seeburg veteran George Kooima celebrate his 50th anniversary in continuous employment there last week. George is hale and hearty and very much on the job every day in the plant.

Sam Stern, prexy of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp., and chairman of the Coin Machine Division of Combined Jewish Appeal, met last Tuesday evening, May 4, in the Standard Club with a special organizing committee to start the ball rolling for the 1965 fund raising campaign. Among those present on the steering committee were: Hank Ross, Midway Mfg. Co.; Nate Feinstein, World Wide Dist. Co.; Herb Oettinger, Williams Electronic; Joe Robbins, Empire Coin Machine Exchange; Stan Levin, Atlas Music Co.; and Cashboxer Lee Brooks, co-chairman. Leo Buntman, director of the Amusement Division of CJA, was also on hand during the dinner meeting. Stern asserted, just before he adjourned the session: "We battle each other all year in business. However, this is one time every year we should all band together for a worthy common cause."

George Hincker, ad-chief at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp., infos that all of the executives are in town this week. Edward G. Doris is keeping an eagle eye on production to make certain it is keeping up with a very heavy shipping schedule to all parts of the U.S. and to foreign markets. . . . A visitor in Chi last week was A. D. Palmer of the Wurlitzer Co. While here he huddled with Joe Schwartz and Mort Levinson, of National Coin Machine Exchange, Wurlitzer's distrib here. . . . We get the word from Sam Berger and Dusty Hobein, of Dynaball, that the new billiard cloth is meeting fine acceptance everywhere.

Dennis Ruber, of D & R Industries, infos that Freeman Rogness, is expertly establishing the firm's sales potential in Minnesota and Wisconsin. . . . Fred Minter advised last week that Claire Emrich vacationed recently in Nassau with her son, Billy Emrich, and Fred and Jane Minter's daughter, Sandy. . . . While Joe Flynn is enjoying a well earned Florida vacation John Stockdale, co-head of J & J Dists., in Indianapolis, is minding the store under his solo direction.

Rowe prexy Jack Harper flew into Whippany for signing with Shafter Music Co. Ed Shafter, Tom Reed, Fred Pollak, Jerry Marcus and Ed Claffey met Thursday, May 4.

Cashbox congrats to John Insalata, associate legislative counsel of NAMA, who was recently admitted to practice law before the U. S. Supreme Court. . . . Seeburg execs departed early last week for a nationwide series of meetings with operators from May 6 thru 18. Execs on this wide itinerary include: Jack C. Gordon, Tom Herrick, Bill Adair, Mark Lefebvre, Ed Blankenbecker, Bob Dunlap, Al Gange, Bill Prutting, Frank Finneran, Joe Fitzpatrick, Al Gitlitz, Dick Murphy, Frank Luppino, Jr., and Stan Jarocki. . . . Pete Langbehn and other ops in the Rock Island area are really hard pressed since the heavily swollen river flooded the wide territory 40 to 50 locations have been flooded out there.

Joe Kline and Chuck Harper, Atlas Music Co., are covering Central Illinois this week. Bill Phillips is working Downstate Illinois, according to Eddie Ginsburg and Stan Levin. . . . The remodeling at Marvel Mfg. is just about finished and Prexy Ted Rubey and Estelle Bye are breathing sighs of relief. . . . Wurlitzer's Bert Davidson called on operators in this area with Mort Levinson, of National Coin last week.

When we chatted with Mort Secore and Ralph Wyckoff t'other day we were advised that this is by far one of the best spring selling seasons of ChiCoin amusement equipment in many years. Everything is selling well. . . . Chicago area coinmen are strongly urged to help their Coin Machine Division of Combined Jewish Appeal when the wheels are finally put into motion by the committee.

Milwaukee Mentions

The Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators' Assn. followed up their recent meeting of the Board of Directors with another session last Thursday evening, May 6, in the Chateau Supper Club in nearby West Dallas, Wisconsin. The meeting was chaired by Prexy Sam Hastings. Directors present were: Jim Stecher, "Red" Jacomet, Arnold Jost, Joe Beck, and Bob Puccio. Doug Opitz missed this session. He was vacationing in balmy Puerto Rico. . . . Joel Kleiman and Sam Cooper, Pioneer Sales & Services, are enjoying a fine spring season on all equipment. Joel advises that Rowe-AMI disothèque records are now available at Pioneer for the operators in the area. . . . One of the busiest distribs in Cream City is easily Harry Jacobs, Jr., of United, Inc. He spends most of his time on the road thru Wisconsin calling on his customers and friends. Meanwhile, Reid Whipple has been greeting the visiting operators at United. Last week's visitors were Arnold Jost, Mrs. Harold Neumeyer, and George Jaeber, of Oshkosh. Bert Davidson, regional manager for the Wurlitzer Co., made the scene at United, Inc. last week. . . . Nate Victor, S. L. London Music Co., reports that this is shaping up to becoming a terrific amusement game season at London. Nate says he expects an "unprecedented" attendance of operators for the big meeting (on Seeburg music equipment) he is hosting Friday noon (May 7) in the Milwaukee Inn. He has never before had such an advance response in the past.

Trimount Sales Hosts Diplomat Service Program

Smaller Groups
More Sessions —
Trimount Service
School Policy

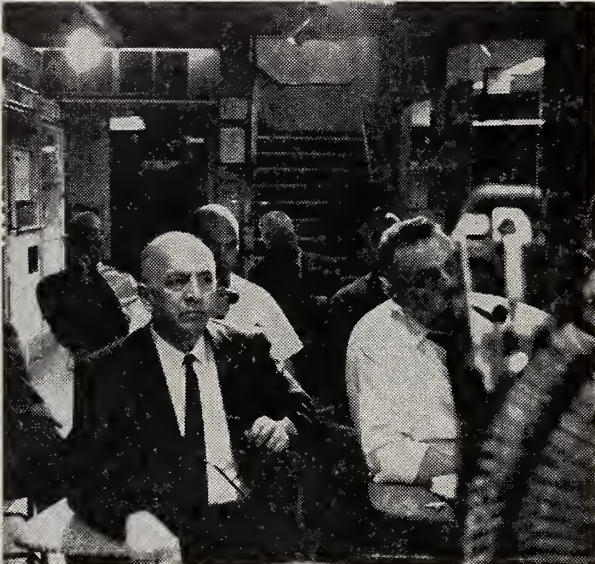

BOSTON—C. Marshall Caras, assistant general manager for the Trimount Automatic Sales Co., Rowe AC equipment outlet here, announced that in keeping with the firm's current program of small-group service sessions, a school was conducted week before last for Boston area operators by Rowe field service engineer Art Seglin.

The session, which dealt with the new Rowe 'Diplomat' phonograph, had in Caras' words, "a most overwhelming response in terms of interest, attendance, reception and appreciation of Art's instructions." The Trimount exec further advised that Seglin is "undoubtedly one of the finest instructors and field service engineers in the business."

This session was but one of eight conducted at Trimount recently by Seglin.

Rowe's Seglin describes a Diplomat feature . . .

. . . and attentive Boston ops take note.

California Clippings

R. F. Jones salesmen are back to learning their A, B, C's and D's this week with the arrival of the first shipment of Gottlieb's 2 player "Hi Dolly." There are three different ways to make A-B-C-D with a "shoot again" feature scored by hitting the "star target"—altogether an exciting game that is exciting sales already. Carl Lawson, V.P. in charge of sales for Steelmade Vending Co. is touring Texas this week. Sales are reported excellent and another carload of Steelmade is due to arrive at the local Jones office any day. R. F. Jones was in town for a few days last week and told us about the "roaring 20's party" which was held in San Francisco on May 1st. Most of the S.F. branch employees attended and many received prizes. . . .

Jean Paul Vignon, Columbia Records' French singing discovery, visited California Music this past week along with Bob Moering, Columbia's west coast promotion manager. . . . At Badger Sales Leo Simone tells us the new Fischer pool table has arrived. This is the table which has a cue ball return on the opposite end of the table plus several other interesting features. Leo adds that Chicago Coin's 7 foot 'Top Brass' shuffle alley has been checked in several locations and is going great guns. Joanne Parnes has just joined the office staff at Badger—drop in and welcome her. . . .

Sony Lomborg at Advance Automatic Sales Co. reports he has a greater selection than ever on used pin balls and arcade equipment as well as a number of new pool tables—all moving out at a steady pace. Bob Portale returned from a visit at the home office in San Francisco this past week. . . . Lots of activity this week at Simon Distributing Co. with Joe Merel setting up a display on new parts recently received in the parts dept. and Frank Mencuri on the phone working very hard to meet the demand on export shipments. The firm is anxiously awaiting the new All-Tech fiberglass pool table—should arrive momentarily. . . . Talked with Pres Struve, the Pres. of Struve Distributing, who's still in Salt Lake this week. He told us the Seeburg Discotheque is filling up the cash boxes in such wide spread areas as Montana, Utah, Wyoming, Idaho and Nevada. . . . There had to be some answers to "Mrs. Brown" by Herman's Hermits and the Solle girls at Luenhagen's Record Bar tell us that one of the first is Carol Crane's "Frightful Situation" on Challenge. Frank McKelvey brought a sample in this week. The girls are ordering heavily on it and also add that "Crying In The Chapel" by Elvis Presley and "Now" by Jerry Vale look like top ten for Cash Box soon. . . . Paul Laymon celebrated his mother- and father-in-law's 59th wedding anniversary this week and entertained 34 relatives from all parts of the country and Phil Giannone of Paul Laymon Inc. and Mrs. Giannone welcomed a baby boy born April 27th. Baby weighed 10 lbs., 7 oz., their second son. . . . "Play Ball" getting lots of base hits at C. A. Robinson along with the Chicago Coin line of "triumph's," "top brass" and "supersonic bowlers." Hank Tronick says "it's the most impressive array of games ever seen in the long history of C. A. Robinson." Midway's "Play Ball" looks like another "Slugger" according to Hank. Mike Hall going full blast to process used equipment orders and Hank visited ops and arcade men all along the coast to San Jose and back thru the San Joaquin Valley last week. . . . Marshall Ames visited the local office of M. J. Stanley this past week, just a few days after the earthquake in the Seattle, Wash. area. He reports pool tables and used phonos getting lots of sales. . . . Gary Sinclair, regional sales manager for Wurlitzer, was in town for a few days before leaving for Mexico City. Also in town this past week were Cecile Ellison, Lancaster; Bill Worthy, San Diego; Larry Spran, Fontana and Bill Vissell of Vista, Calif.

Golden Jubilarian

CHICAGO—George Kooima, shown above, celebrated his 50th anniversary working for the Seeburg Corporation on May 3, 1965. He is the second Seeburg employee to reach the 50 year mark with the firm. Kooima's first assignment was the assembly of a Seeburg Phono-Grand, a 44-note piano, back in 1915.

Wurlitzer Reps Doin' It The Hard Way

COVERING MONTANA . . . THE HARD WAY! The two gentlemen shown on the tandem bike have not "run out of gas." They're just demonstrating that a Wurlitzer salesman will get there . . . no matter what or how. Gary Sinclair, Wurlitzer District Sales Manager, (front), and Ron Pepple of Northwest Sales Company, Wurlitzer Distributor, certainly look determined as they started out recently from Bob Walker's in Helena, Montana. Bob operates a route in and around Helena. In addition to his phonograph route, he also runs an equipment rental agency and says the tandem bike is a popular rental item. We're wondering "who sold who?"

DON'T BE A "SQUARE" ABOUT "ROUND" POOL!

First, what is pool?

Pool is a game of developed skill, based on geometric shapes and angles. (Stated simply . . . mathematics!)

Can a pool table be circular in shape?

Well, it's been tried several times within the last century. Too bad it never worked. And too bad that some people are still trying to saddle a dead horse! Even with "color zones" and multiple dots, a circular table won't work as a game of developed skill. (Mathematics, again!)

Is Elliptipool® circular?

Not by a couple of important inches! Elliptipool is slightly longer than it is wide. Some might describe it as "oval," but our educated engineers insist on "elliptical."

Why does Elliptipool® work as a game of developed skill?

For the answer to this and other questions, read

HOW TO PLAY ELLIPTIPOOL

Executive Appointments Made At Vendo

WAGNER VAN VLACK

WALTER W. KOVALICK

KANSAS CITY—Walter W. Kovalick and Wagner Van Vlack have been named executive vice-presidents of The Vendo Company.

E. F. Pierson, board chairman and president, announced the two appointments following the shareholders' meeting April 20. In making the announcement, Pierson said: "These two men will continue to be responsible for their respective areas. Mr. Kovalick remains chairman of the operating committee and has charge of manufacturing, engineering, and research operations at all Vendo facilities. Mr. Van Vlack is in charge of domestic marketing activities and the Vendo New Products division. As executive vice-presidents, the two men will take on additional responsibilities."

Kovalick joined the company as vice-president in charge of manufacturing. In December, 1962, he was named senior vice-president in charge of operations. His responsibilities include supervision of manufacturing and engineering at the home office of The Vendo Company in Kansas City and manufacturing facilities at Aurora, Ill.; Fresno, Calif.; and Westbury, L. I., New York. He was also named chairman of the operating committee at that time.

Van Vlack joined The Vendo Company in January, 1963, as a vice-president. A month later he was named senior vice-president in charge of marketing with direct responsibility for all domestic marketing activities, including direct selling, market research and advertising. The Vendo New Products division is also his responsibility.

Kovalick came to Kansas City from Chicago where he was a director of manufacturing for the multi-plant Crane Company, manufacturers of industrial and plumbing equipment.

A native of Akron, Kovalick is a graduate of the University of Ohio, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering.

He is a member of the American Ordnance Association and the American Management Association.

Van Vlack joined The Vendo Company from Milprint, Inc., Milwaukee, wholly owned subsidiary of The Philip Morris Company, where he was vice-president and general manager of the marketing division. Milprint, Inc. is the largest company in the United States engaged in the manufacture and development of flexible packaging incorporating such materials as paper, aluminum foil and plastic film.

Before that, he was a vice-president at American Can International. With the American Can Company for more than 25 years, he rose from office boy to vice-president of American Can International.

While with the American Can Company, various executive positions gave him the responsibility of licensing arrangements and the direction of wholly and partly owned subsidiary operations throughout the world.

Amer. Tobacco Drops Planned Consolidated Merge

NEW YORK—Robert B. Walker, President and Chairman of the Board of The American Tobacco Company, and Nathan Cummings, Chairman of the Board of Consolidated Foods Corporation, announced on April 30 that discussions with respect to the proposed merger of the two companies have been terminated by mutual consent because of practical difficulties.

Both Walker and Cummings said that the decision was reached with regret.

Referring to the announcement on the termination of merger discussions between The American Tobacco Company and Consolidated Foods Corporation, Walker indicated that the proposed retirement of American's preferred stock issue, originally announced as a preliminary to the merger transaction, is still being considered.

NEW YORK—Alvin Bernstein has been named Marketing Director of the Cigar Division of The American Tobacco Company, the nation's third largest cigar producer. He will be responsible for all marketing efforts, including sales and advertising, of the Cigar Division on behalf of American's cigar brands which include Roi-Tan, Antonio y Cleopatra, La Corona, Bock y Ca. and others.

Rudd-Melikian Intros Door-To-Door Delivery In Mid-West Area

WARMINSTER, PA.—To meet the "growing demand" for fresher coffee delivered on time at a competitive price, Lloyd K. Rudd, president of Rudd-Melikian, Inc., announced the introduction last month of a new service of "door-to-door" deliveries of 'Old Mill' coffee using their own trucks in the Mid-West.

"During the first five weeks of this operation," Rudd advised, "we have delivered a large quantity of loose ground, tape and concentrate coffee to vending accounts from Pittsburgh to Chicago." Other R-M products now available in the Mid-West through this new delivery system include three blends of powdered hot chocolate for whipping, three varieties of powdered soup and frozen concentrate, iced and powdered tea.

Candy—#1 Subject At NAC

CHICAGO—The challenge of candy marketing will be analyzed in depth by a distinguished line-up of noted marketing authorities at the 82nd Annual Convention of the National Confectioners Association, to be held June 5-9, 1965, at The Conrad Hilton, Chicago.

Rowe AC Mfg. Execs Celebrate Whippany Move

WHIPPANY, N.J.—More than 125 people, constituting the management group at Rowe AC Manufacturing's Whippany, New Jersey plant met recently for a reception and dinner at the Governor Morris Hotel in Morristown, New Jersey.

The occasion provided an opportunity for members of the management group to become better acquainted with each other and the Company's officers.

Jack Harper, Rowe President, spoke to the group and praised the spirit of cooperation and outstanding accomplishments of the manufacturing and sales teams. He particularly noted the smooth transition in handling the manufacture of coffee and cold drink machines at the Whippany plant following the transfer of this function from the Grand Rapids, Michigan plant. Harper said that this move to consolidate vending manufacturing at one plant "has already proven itself and has introduced substantial economies in the manufacturing process."

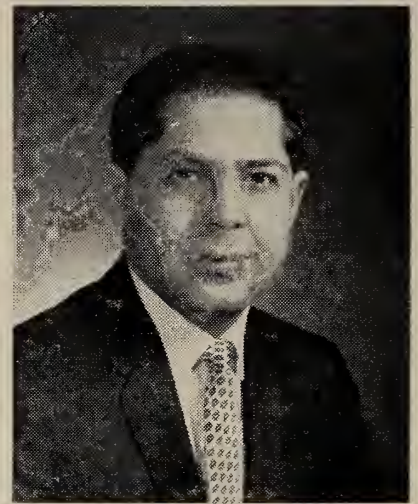

Acting as toastmaster for the evening was Al Schaffer, Vice President and Plant Manager. Brief greetings were extended by Fred Pollak, Vice President Marketing; Harold Brogdon, Vice President Manufacturing; Dick Mueller, Vice President Customer Services; and Jerry Marcus, Executive Controller.

ABC Consolidated Acquires 83 1/2 % Of Nedick's Shares

NEW YORK—ABC Consolidated Corporation has received tenders of 427,642 shares of Nedick's Stores, Inc., representing 83 1/2 % of all common outstanding. In announcing this Benjamin Sherman, ABC Board Chairman, said the offer by the company to buy the shares was therefore effective. The offer by ABC on April 2 to Nedick's stockholders was contingent upon receipt of at least two-thirds of the outstanding stock for which ABC offered to pay $12.50 per share. Total number of Nedick's outstanding shares is 512,300.

According to Sherman, present management of Nedick's, which operates 82 luncheonettes and snack-bars in New York and several surrounding states, will be retained. Plans are to expand Nedick's into a nation-wide chain "as fast as we can build," Sherman said.

NAMA Attorney Insalata Admitted To Practice Before Supreme Court

JOHN INSALATA

CHICAGO—S. John Insalata, associate legislative counsel of the National Automatic Merchandising Association, was admitted to practice before the U. S. Supreme Court this month. The motion for admittance was made by Thomas Kerester of the U. S. House Ways and Means Committee staff.

Active in the American Bar Association, Insalata serves on the Committee on Municipal Ordinances, the Committee for Liaison with the National Institute of Municipal Law Officers, and the Committee on Development of Law of Union Administration and Procedure. He also holds several committee posts in the Illinois Bar Association.

CMA Outing June 25-27

NEW YORK—Myron Bruck, presi-dent of the Cigarette Merchandisers Assn., announced recently that the or-ganization's 29th Annual Business Meeting and Outing will be held the weekend of June 25, 26 and 27, 1965 at Kutsher's Country Club in Monticello, N.Y.

There will be a good cross section representation of the industry via the presence of cigarette manufacturers, vending machine manufacturers, in-surance firms, etc., Bruck advised in a letter to the CMA membership an-nouncing the outing and urging prompt reservations. "You will meet business associates at informal meet-ings for the exchange of ideas, experi-ences and suggestions," Bruck further advised.

Many activities have been planned for the June weekend including gala cocktail parties, dancing and enter-tainment, special programs and gifts for the ladies. All sports facilities in-cluding golf, tennis, boating and swimming will be available at no ex-tra cost, Bruck revealed. "Sports and entertainment staffs and orchestras have arranged delightful programs for each day and evening," he added.

To insure the best accommodations, Bruck requests members to write in for their reservations immediately. All reservations must be made in the name of the persons expecting to at-tend. "I hope you will be able to make this outing and enjoy with us a most wonderful weekend," the CMA presi-dent stated.

Westinghouse Puts TV On Phono Records

MIAMI—At the Edison Electric Institute Convention here last week, the Westinghouse Electric Corp. introduced a new electronic system which reproduces sound and televised pictures from phonograph recordings. Westinghouse's research vice president Dr. William E. Shoupp advised that the audio and visual signals for the 'Phonovid' (the system's name) are picked up from the grooves of the phonograph record and transmitted through an accompanying monitor set. The research exec cited numerous uses for the Phonovid, including closed circuit educational programs and news telecasts.

Sandler Holds 20th Anniversary Affair

NORTH TONAWANDA, N.Y.—Sandler Distributing Company of Minneapolis displayed the complete Wurlitzer line of automatic, coin-operated phonographs and remote speaker wallboxes to Iowa operators and their wives at the Holiday Inn in Des Moines, Iowa on Sunday, April 25th. In the true Sandler-Wurlitzer tradition, all equipment was tastefully displayed and in operation.

The occasion was a double celebration. . . . Wurlitzer's complete acceptance by the operators . . . and Sandler's Twentieth Anniversary in the coin-operated business.

In addition to Irv Sandler, President; Warren Sandler, Sales Manager; and Bob Crosby, Service Manager; Wurlitzer was represented by Bert Davidson, District Sales Manager. In recognition of Sandler's one-fifth Century in business, each operator's wife received a handsome gift.

Operators in attendance were: Mr. & Mrs. C. M. Teeple and Mr. & Mrs. John McCarthy of Waterloo, Iowa; Mr. & Mrs. Les Chapman, Mr. & Mrs. Paul Goins of Carroll, Iowa; Mr. & Mrs. Bill Garrett of Oskaloosa, Iowa; Mr. & Mrs. Dominic Pirillo of Oelwein, Iowa; Mr. & Mrs. Carl Nebbe of Ogden, Iowa; Mr. & Mrs. Bob Noss, Mr. & Mrs. Vern Howard, Jack Woods Sr., Jack Woods Jr., Roger Loots and D. J. Barber of Des Moines, Iowa; D. C. Williams of Creston, Iowa; Art Skram and Elmer Edel of Mason City, Iowa; Bill Kenison of Iowa Falls, Iowa and Jack Jeffries of Osceola, Iowa.

ANOTHER SANDLER "CARRYING THE WURLITZER BALL" R. Warren Sandler, shown above at the time he was all-conference quarterback at Grinnell College, is now the "Field General" for sales of Sandler Distributing Company . . . Wurlitzer distributor headquartered in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Warren was recently promoted to Vice President and Sales Manager, after serving seven years as a salesman for the company. The appointment was announced by Irving Sandler, President and founder.

Warren graduated from Grinnell with a degree in business administration, and while in college, excelled in football and track. Area football fans will remember him as an outstanding roving back who was equally dangerous to Grinnell's opponents as a quarterback or halfback. After graduation, he served in Germany as a Lieutenant with the U. S. Armed Forces and at present is active in the U. S. Army Reserve.

In his new capacity, Warren is looking forward to meeting and serving operators in Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin. Competition in these areas will soon know that Warren Sandler is a real competitor.

Frantz Readies Rifle Target Gallery For Summer Business

CHICAGO—John F. Frantz, prexy of J. F. Frantz Manufacturing Company, in this city, advised last week that the firm's perennial rifle target gallery is being readied for distribution to amusement parks, carnivals, arcades, and other outdoor, as well as indoor locations, as the bustling summer season approaches. The season officially opens around Memorial Day.

Another coin-operated amusement game Frantz expects to garner heavy sales during the spring and summer (as well as fall and winter) is Frantz's "Kicker & Catcher" counter game.

Over the years, Frantz explained, his rifle target gallery (with moving targets and pellet shot for the guns) has maintained a steady popularity and resultant sales.

World Wide Class A Smash

IRV OVITZ

CHICAGO—Irv Ovitz, head of the Vending Machine Division of World Wide Distributing Company, in this city, advised last week that there was a heavy attendance of mechanics and service personnel, representing vending and coin machine operators in this city and Downstate Illinois, for a service school class, Wednesday evening, April 28, in the firm's huge main showroom. Refreshments were served during a break in the class proceedings.

Norman Steele, vending machine field engineer for the Seeburg Corp., discussed "Electrical Contacts and General Servicing Instructions" during the session on Seeburg's line of cold drink vending machines.

Assisting Steele were World Wide service staffers Art Lloyd and Ted Dadal. Other World Wide personnel on hand were Frank Gumma, Howie Freer, and Jules Millman.

Ginsburg Ships Rowe Juke To Guantanamo Base Teens

Chi TV's Sakowicz Relays Request To Replace Older Model

GITMO TEEN CLUB GATHERS AROUND THEIR ROWE-AMI PHONO—When Atlas Music Company's Eddie Ginsburg rushed a Rowe-AMI phono to the Guantanamo Bay Naval Base Teenage Club to replace one that was inoperable, the youngsters gathered around the new one to take this photo, and send it to him with their expressions of sincere gratitude.

Formal presentation to the Teenage Club was made recently by Cmdr. B. D. "Jug" Varner, pres. of the club's Advisory Board. Del Heilman, pres. of the Teenage Club, accepted the gift from Ginsburg on behalf of club members.

The dire need was originally called to Ginsburg's attention by Sig Sakowicz, Chicago radio and TV personality, who had visited Guantanamo Naval Base.

Only Seeburg Rec-O-Dance*

records are pre-programmed on the phonograph... for maximum Discothèque profits.

Only Seeburg

Rec-O-Dance records provide the continually shifting dance rhythms you must have to make real money with Discothèques.

Seeburg programming starts right in the records themselves.

Equally important, a set of Rec-O-Dance records provides a whole evening's continuous dance programming. Fast numbers. Slow numbers. Old dances. New dances.

All the contrasting rhythms needed are there in proper sequence, in exciting multi-channel stereo.

The rhythms properly change to always keep some people dancing while others are eating, drinking and listening.

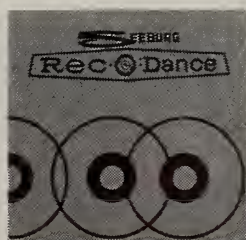

Only Rec-O-Dance albums provide this uninterrupted, purposeful dance programming. They're the only records in the world designed from the word "GO" for Discothèque play!

These records are not for sale.

They may only be leased.

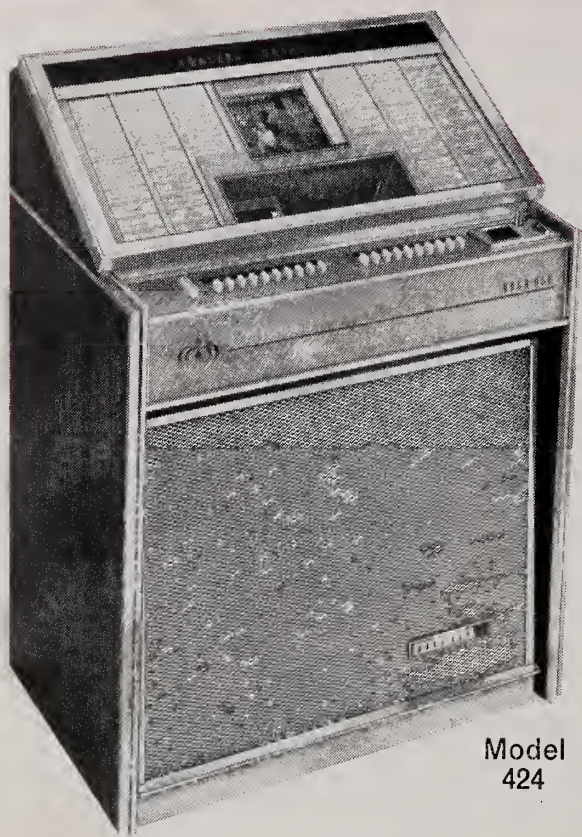

The operator receives an original set of ten records, and three replacement sets of ten records (a total of 40 records—240 selections) during a one year period for $60. Replacement sets are issued every 90 days.

Make certain you get them from your local Seeburg Discothèque Distributor.

we've said it before...we'll say it again! NOBODY...BUT NOBODY...GIVES YOU THE OPTIONS THAT ROCK-OLA DOES!

Model

The Princess Royal: New, compact, stereo-monoaural phonograph (Model No. 424)—Only 30½" wide, 43½" high. Plays 100 selections of 33⅓ or 45 RPM, 7" albums or singles stereo or monoaural. Exclusive Mech-O-Matic intermix. Everything you need and options to crack any location in a compact, high-fashion cabinet. Low in cost, very big in value. Full Dimensional Stereo sound system . . . optional. Famous Rock-Ola quality.

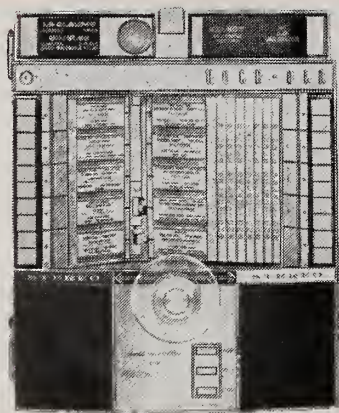

add where and when you need to:

Full Dimensional Sound: Add Full Dimensional stereo sound system to the Princess Royal at any time. Easy to install. For larger spots where even finer sound is desired, but where compactness and cost are still important.

Automatic Coin Counter: Not every location needs a coin counter. Rock-Ola leaves the decision to you. You needn't pay for accessories you do not require. Where desired, the Rock-Ola Automatic Coin Counter is unexcelled; fits any Rock-Ola phonograph; counts nickels, dimes, quarters and half dollars. Gives exact total of receipts. Reading visible through window.

Phonette Remote Speaker Wallbox: Gives personal listening pleasure and personal volume control—high, low, medium. Mounts anywhere. Permits programming of LP's or singles, 33⅓ or 45 RPM records. Reproduces stereo, too. Slim design, graceful styling, famous Rock-Ola simplicity. Model No. 500—160 selections. Model No. 501—100 selections.

locations:

The Grand Prix: The prestige stereo-monoaural phonograph. Plays 160 33⅓ or 45 RPM records, 7" LP albums or singles in any intermix. Full Dimensional Stereo. The ultimate in grand styling, the Grand Prix opens the doors to your plush-est locations. Traditional Rock-Ola dependability and simplicity of design make the Grand Prix the finest phonograph on the market!

Model 425

YES—OPTIONS MAKE THE BIG DIFFERENCE
IN ROCK-OLA! Greater flexibility, greater versatility, choice of machines, to satisfy every location's need—without a big investment or costly inventory.
A difference that makes more profit for you!
