The Grooming Of Ricky Martin

As the various permutations of Latin-influenced music begins to ride a crest of burgeoning popularity, and muscles its way into mainstream music consciousness, artists like Sony Discos recording act Ricky Martin seem poised to capitalize on the phenomena. The former member of Latin teen bopper heart throb act Menudo, who has successfully launched as a solo act and is visible as a cast member on the venerable ABC-TV soap General Hospital, talked with Cash Box Latin editor Hector Resendez about his career.

Morissette, Seal Win Top Honors At 38th Annual Grammy Awards

A FESTIVE ATTITUDE permeated the 38th Annual Grammy Awards celebration as some highly-touted talent walked off with awards, some other highly-touted talent did not, and some long-shots came into the prized Grammy money. Held once again at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles, and hosted by TV funny woman Ellen DeGeneres, this year's award presentations involved a wide cross-section of artists that reflected both the growing diversity and acceptance of new music. While the nominees reflected what is hopefully a new trend in the acceptance of fresh sounds, the results of the final ballots, with only a few exceptions were true to past form.

Canadian viewers should be quite please with tonights' results as Alanis Morissette walked away with several of the nights key awards. The winner of Best Album, as well as Best Female Rock Vocal Performance, Morissette's win reflects what is hopefully a growing trend in the acceptance of rock vocals delivered from a decidedly female perspective.

Hootie & the Blowfish also had a big evening winning two awards, for Best New Artist and Best Pop Performance By A Duo or Group With Vocals. The enormously popular band, whose debut Atlantic Records album Cracked Rear View has sold in excess of 12 million units, was quite pleased at their win. During their press room interview after receiving the last award, the band members were quick to downplay their success, preferring to categorize themselves as a group of serious musicians doing music that caught on. "We're just some fellows doing what we love to do, and it's great that so many people out there agree," said Blowfish lead singer Darius Rucker. That Warner recording artist Seal took home the evening's biggest awards—for Record of The Year and Song of The Year—was a shock to most industry pundits present. Although a popular artist, the general feeling was that Seal's music was a bit too esoteric to receive such top honors.

In the night's other big categories the winners were, Pearl Jam for Best Hard Rock Performance, Vince Gill for Best Male Country Vocal Performance, Coolio for Best Rap Solo Performance, Annie Lennox for Best Pop Vocal Performance, CeCe Winans for Best Gospel, Alison Krauss for Best Female Country Vocal Performance, Pat Matheny Group for Best Contemporary Jazz Performance, Izak Perlman for Best Instrumental Solo Performance, Babyface for Producer of the Year, Nirvana for Best Alternative Music

Capitol's Urban Dept. To Join With EMI

IN A MOVE THAT HAD BEEN ANTICIPATED FOR SEVERAL MONTHS Thorn-EMI shut down the urban department at Capitol Records, with plans to unify resources in this area with EMI Records. Employees of the Hollywood-based company were notified of their termination Friday, February 24. In a joint statement issued by Capitol president Gary Gersh and EMI president Davitt Sigerson, the move will allow for a streamlined chain of command in the label's operation. Gersh and Sigerson commented: "This reflects the realities of the music industry in the '90s. The ultimate result of this reengineering will be that artists benefit by receiving focused A&R, marketing and promotional attention from a specialized hands-on staff."

The move seems to clear the way for Capitol to focus on the rock acts that have provided Gersh with the commercially successful breakthroughs since he's taken over the helm at the company. Acts such as Foo Fighters, whose

■ Daniel Glass has been named president of Universal Records. Glass was formerly executive vp/gm of the full service label, which is wholly-owned by the MCA Music Entertainment Group. Boasting an extensive career in the industry, Glass served as president/CEO at EMI Records USA/SBK Records/Chrysalis Records prior to joining Universal. He is associated with the success of acts such as Jesus Jones, Wilson Phillips, Arrested Development, Jon Secada and Huey Lewis & The News, and has overseen albums by Billy Idol, Sinead O'Connor, Queensryche and Pat Benatar. Glass also is the co-founder and president of LIFEbeat, the music industry's organization fighting AIDS. ■ MCA Records has named two new upper management executives. Abbey Konowitch has been named executive vp and Jayne Simon has been named sr. vp of marketing & sales for the company. Konowitch, most recently gm at Maverick Records, will be responsible for leading MCA's promotion, sales, marketing, publicity and creative services efforts, and brings two decades of experience to the job. Starting as an agent with ICM, in the mid-'80s he joined Arista Records, rising to the post of sr. vp of artists development and video before being recruited away by MTV where he headed programming. Simon, most recently the head sales executive at Geffen Records, will oversee the combined efforts of the MCA marketing team and supervise relations between the label in retail accounts. Simon started her career in 1976 at A&M Records in Chicago as a local marketing coordinator, eventually becoming national sales director. She later joined Enigma where she became vp of sales, and after joining Zoo Records rose to sr. vp/gm, before leaving to join Geffen. ■ Richard Bengloff has been promoted to vp of distribution operations for Sony Music Distribution. Bengloff will be responsible for warehouse operations, inventory management, traffic, new release planning and customer service. He has served as vp of finance for SMD and was vp of finance and administration for RED. He held a similar post at Columbia Pictures Entertainment, Inc. Also at Sony Music Entertainment Allen Weinberg has been promoted to director of creative services and will now oversee the graphic development of packaging and advertising for the Sony Classical division. He was previously sr. art director for creative services, and first joined the company in 1966 when it was CBS Records. He has held a variety of graphics and creative services jobs in the interim prior to his return to Sony.

self-titled album has sold more than one million units, and Everclear also a major success for Capitol last year. EMI, on the other hand, can boast a major success with artist D'Angelo's platinum-selling debut Brown Sugar, and scored a top 10 rap single with AZ's "Sugar Hill" and pushed Home, the debut album by Blessid Union of Souls, to gold status.

Although many of Capitol's acts will be absorbed into the urban division at EMI, at press time it remained unclear which acts are involved. However, it has been confirmed that the Whispers, Portrait, Channel Live and Mad Cobra will still remain with the company. It also appeared at press time that acts on Delicious Vinyl will not be affected by this development. Managerial representatives of the affected Capitol recording artists at press time refused comment until specific details of the transition were revealed.

Sources at the venerable label have expressed dismay with the recent move, which is similar to actions taken by the label in 1993. "How can anyone believe that they (Capitol) are really committed to urban music forms when they continue to play musical chairs with their urban artists and executives?" commented one source that asked not to be identified. "It's unfair, wrong and indicative of the problems and attitudes facing blacks and other minorities in this business."

Warner Bros. Records held a press luncheon in honor of Seal's three Grammy nominations while the artist was in New York to present awards at the ESPY and CIFDA ceremonies at Radio City Music Hall. Pictured are (l-r): Juanita Stephens, sr. national director of publicity, black music division; Rebecca Mustow, Third Rail Management; Karen Moss, vp of publicity; Seal; Donna Ruso, vp of media relations; and Karen Lee, vp of media relations, black music division.

MUSIC SWEETER THAN HERRINGS: The land of Abba and Ace of Base is not exactly foreign to climbing up the charts, and now you can add another pretender to the pop throne—The Cardigans. The five scions of Viking ancestry have a decidedly '60s feel as they sweep you off your feet with perfect pop. A favorite on the charts in England and already selling double platinum in Japan, the group finally has product available domestically. The Cardigans has combined tracks off its two Swedish releases and added some previously unreleased material for its American debut Life, out on the Chicago-based Minty Fresh. With the enchanting Nina Persson fronting the band and the music as catchy as can be, there is no doubt that The Cardigans will be winning many a heart and plenty of ears as they trek through the airwaves of this land.

ONE FOOT OUT OF THE GRAVE: It has happened to many a respected label—they get critical acclaim and a loyal listenership, expand and then promptly start to fall apart business-wise. The garage rock Crypt has fallen into this trap, but has now been able to stop the bells from tolling. Well known for resurrecting songs and bands from the depths of time, and for pushing such new groups as New Bomb Turks, The Gories, and The Jon Spencer Blues Explosion, Crypt has plenty on the plus side. Due to mismanagement, the label faltered but is now looking for a new life as its American office is being taken over by Brett Martin. They are also moving from New York to Los Angeles to share office space with the philosophically similar In The Red Records. Now that they will be in the City of Angels they should have no problem keeping themselves from being put into the musical mausoleum.

FRENCHMAN GETS TRANSLATED: Most tribute albums feature a mixture of styles from different artists, and generally are a hit or miss affair. Intoxicated Man out on Mute, breaks this tradition by having the whole LP done by the same musicians. The LP is homage to French crooner Serge Gainsbourg, well known not only for his compositions but also for his flaunting of taboo subjects and flamboyant lifestyle. Mick Harvey, who took on this project has been a member of The Birthday Party, Crime & The City Solution and Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds. Not only did he write new arrangements but he also translated all of the lyrics into English. Accompanied on vocals by Anita Lane, the album captures the feel of the Gaelic originals and in many ways improves on them. It has also brought a resurgence of interest in Mr. Gainsbourg's recordings, which is about as good a tribute as one can get.

ONCE AND ONO-LY ONCE: She didn't perform live very often, even before the death of her husband, but since it has been rare as rubies. So here is a chance to see Yoko Ono get on stage and perform a set of her new and old material on March the 6th at the Knitting Factory along with her son Sean Ono Lennon and his band Ina. Who knows who will walk the floorboards with her on this once in a blue moon evening!

Maverick Records' the Rentals were recently in L.A. to film a second video from their well-received debut disc, Return Of The Rentals. The new video, which follows up the hit song, "Friends Of P." will be for "Waiting." The video, directed by Roman Coppola, is apparently a nod to action movies, with bicycle, automobile and helicopter stunts. Pictured here is band leader Matt Sharp and keyboardist Jim Richards. Also visible, at least from the back, is director of photography Scott Henrikson.

WITH A CRITICALLY-LAUDED new album, I'm With Stupid, out on DGC/Geffen, former Til Tuesday vocalist Aimee Mann returned to L.A. after a month on the road to play two sold-out shows at the Roxy on the same night. The demand for the 8:00 show was so heavy that a 10:30 performance was added. Playing her first official shows in her adopted hometown since a sold-out performance at the Troubadour last July, Mann welcomed fans to the second show by declaring, "The first show was just a warm-up for this one."

She then played like that was the case, coming out with a group of songs from the new album. Backed by a strong four-piece band, Mann proved during the set that she can rock early and often. Among the early highlights were "It's All Over Now," the much requested "Superball" and "Choice In The Matter," the disc's first single. Jumping around like she was Pete Townshend, Mann proved to be highly animated, especially given she was playing the second of two performances that evening. However, the evening's high point came when she slowed down the pace with the lovely "Par For The Course."

Opening the show was newly-signed I.R.S. band 3 -Day Wheely. About to go on the road with the Gin Blossoms, the LA-based act is the recipient of a growing buzz. Playing selections from its debut EP, Rocket Science, 3 Day Wheely definitely had the crowd on its side. The consensus after the band departed the stage was most favorable. Be on the lookout for this group.

TWO SEMINAL PERFORMERS of the New York scene will make their way west the week following South By Southwest. Lou Reed, who just released another brilliant album, Set The Twilight Reeling, on Warner Bros., will be at the Wilern Theatre on Monday, March 18. Perhaps even more exciting is the news that Arista recording artist Patti Smith is doing a March 23 show at the same venue. Smith, who came through last year for a few spoken word dates, has in recent years toured as often as Boston, making this one for the ages.

The Ricky Martin Matures Along With Latin Music's Popularity

By Hector Reséndez

Ricky Martin

FROM TROPIC ISLE TO TINSELTOWN. For singer-actor, Ricky Martin, life has been somewhat like a Hollywood movie. The Latin American superstar has yet to reach his mid-twenties. Yet, fame and fortune are already in his back pocket, and most deservedly so. Martin has struggled diligently to mature into a consummate entertainer.

It all started when he was an integral part of the teen Puerto Rican pop group, Menudo, at age 12. Individual members were replaced once they approached adulthood. By the time he turned 17, Martin left the island and ventured to New York City to establish his own career. "My first love has always been music," he explained in a recent interview. "I've always wanted to be an entertainer...to sing, dance and act."

Spending a year studying dance and voice, Martin left for Mexico. He starred in a musical, Mamá Ama Al Rock (Mom Loves Rock) and the immensely popular soap opera, Alcanzar Una Estrella (To Reach A Star).

"I first went solo as a singer in 1991 (with the album Ricky Martin)," recalled Martin. His second album, Me Amarás, followed in the same commercially-successful vein as his first production. Yet, Martin was still deeply interested in pursuing other artistic goals, one of them being acting.

With the guidance of his manager, Ricardo Cordero, Martin took aim at the role of Miguel on the king of soaps, ABC's General Hospital. What helped, reflected Martin, was a well-executed five-year plan by the artist and Cordero.

Key ABC producers and other decision makers were presented with the usual pitching material. In addition, they were invited to a few of Martin's sold-out concert performances in South America. "I was signed to the show in 1993," beamed Martin. "The following year, I agreed to do a movie-of-the-week and a series pilot." The 24-year old heart-throb of the tiny screen wouldn't even mind starring in a big musical or two like Les Miserables or Hamlet.

Martin has been residing in Los Angeles for the past two years. He is appreciative, however, of the fact that the producers of General Hospital allow him a good deal of flexibility with his schedule. "My character is a weekend entertainer. So, he (Miguel) takes off from time to time to do gigs. This is usually coordinated with my real-life commitments," explained Martin. Keeping up with this young man's business itinerary is a major accomplishment.

Aside from numerous recording sessions in the near future, Martin's first love is performing live. The pop star tours Mexico and Latin America so often, Univisión's TV host, Chabeli Iglesias (daughter of Julio), took her crew to the land of the Aztecs to capture Martin on tape.

A younger-oriented version of the Barbara Walters special, Iglesias filmed Martin in Mexico City where he originally starred in his first soap. She also followed him to Texas where he served as a beauty contest judge. Furthermore, Iglesias might trace Martin back home to Los Angeles, to Chile and even Spain. Life is harsh.

His current, and third solo, album for Sony Discos, A Medio Vivir, has already gone platinum in the United States. Martin co-wrote one of the album's songs as well as pulling material from Venezuela's Franco De Vita and Spain's Alejandro Sanz, both major pop stars in their own right. The album is produced by fellow ex-Menudo peer Robi Basa (aka Ian Blake on the credits) and the highly regarded K.C. Porter. It clearly shows the evolving maturity of Martin's talent as an international singer.

For Ricky Martin, his career will continue to flourish both on music charts and in the hearts of General Hospital fans.

REVIEWS By Steve Baltin

■ OASIS: "Champagne Supernova" (Epic 7719)

The third single from the British band's top 10 album, (What's The Story) Morning Glory? is another guaranteed smash at all of the same outlets that took "Wonderwall" to the top of the charts. A melodic power ballad, "Champagne Supernova" overflows with the songwriting talents of the Gallagher brothers. Oasis is proving time and time again that there isn't another rock act out there that can touch the group as a singles band.

■ THERMADORE: "Amerasian" (Atlantic 6627)

A sort-of L.A. supergroup, with members who've played with Mary's Danish and the Red Hot Chili Peppers, Thermadore has a sound that will shock listeners. Closer to the ditty feel of Tom Petty or the Grateful Dead than the alternative style, the lead single from the band's debut, Monkey On Rico is already picking up adds on AOR. A worthy introduction to a strong record.

■ INTO ANOTHER: "T.A.I.L." (Hollywood 10549-2)

Taken from the band's Seemless collection, this track bristles with hard rock angst that makes it a natural for cutting-edge AOR outlets and selected Modern Rock stations. With a biting, repetitious hook, "T.A.I.L." has an edge very uncommon in today's younger bands.

■ THE WILD COLONIALS: "It's Not Unusual" (Hollywood 10585-2)

From the soundtrack to the Ellen DeGeneres film Mr. Wrong, this hit for Tom Jones many years ago is a perfect vehicle for the L.A. band's unique arrangements and the group's wonderful vocals. A beautiful track, this song deserves to be a hit. If the film draws any fans in, it may well be. Regardless of how the flick does, this song will still draw support from Triple A.

■ BJORK: "Hyper-Ballad" (Elektra 9475-2)

The latest single from the singer's sparkling Post collection glistens with the dazzling light heartedness that characterizes the critically-hailed Post collection. With disco undercurrents beneath the strong pop grooves, "Hyper-Ballad" is a delightful track that all fans of quality music will enjoy. Adding to the appeal of the single are the four versatile dance remixes. Don't be surprised if this song becomes a club hit.

■ COWBOY JUNKIES: Lay It Down (Geffen 24952)

The Toronto quartet follows up the superb Pale Sun, Crescent Moon collection with its 13-song Geffen debut. Once again guitarist Michael Timmins flexes his creative muscle by co-producing with John Keane, and writing 12 tracks while co-writing the moody "Musical Key" with sister/vocalist Margo Timmins. Yet, it's still Margo's stunning vocals that define the band's sound. Whether it be on the bluesy "A Common Disaster," the record's first single, or the ambient title track, Margo shows that after a decade she can still melt icebergs with her sultry song stylings. Look for decent Triple A support for this project.

■ MICHAEL FEINSTEIN: Nice Work If You Can Get It: Songs By The Gershwins (Atlantic 82833-2)

If you're looking for a little change of pace, Feinstein's slightly jazzy, slightly Adult Contemporary homage to the classics of George and Ira Gershwin is a pleasant way to spend an afternoon or evening. What makes Feinstein's interpretations of classics like "Someone To Watch Over Me" and "They Can't Take That Away From Me," as well six never published tunes available on record for the first time, work is the sincerity he brings to the material. An obvious fan, Feinstein brings a devil-may-care attitude that spices up his crooning.

■ BALLOON GUY: The West Coast Shakes (Generator/Warner Bros. 46035-2)

Made up of four guys from Minnesota who wound their way to Minneapolis, Balloon Guy follows up its critically-acclaimed indie debut EP, Soundbull, with this major label debut. Led by the sterling guitars of Matt Olson and Mike Hill, it's easy to see why a lot of labels were in a hurry to make Balloon Guy a part of its stable. Part psychedelic, slightly grunge (for lack of a better word) and all rock, The West Coast Shakes is a strong debut with multiple tracks that will appeal to young rock fans. Standouts include "Mister Runs A Lot Like She Does," "Topsy Russell" and "Springtime In Ho Chi Minh City." Yes, this band does have a sense of humor, too.

■ VARIOUS ARTISTS: Things To Do In Denver When You're Dead (A&M 04242)

Befitting the cool underground nature of this critically-lauded gangster film, the producers of the accompanying soundtrack have compiled a stellar roster of musicians known for their hipness. All that really needs to be said is that the 13-track disc opens with Tom Waits' "Jockey Full Of Bourbon." Waits is backed up by artists ranging from Dean Martin to Morphine, from Ape Hangers to Johnny Cash. Featuring both established and up and coming acts, Things To Do In Denver When You're Dead offers something for music fans of all ages.

■ WALT MINK: El Producto (Atlantic 82831-2)

A Minneapolis (the city of choice this week apparently in new releases) trio, Walt Mink establish from the get-go that they can rock with the best of 'em. The band comes out strong on the high-energy "Stood Up." John Kimbrough, Candice Belanoff and Orestes Morfin follow that with more power pop/punk numbers, but on "Betty" and the soothing "Settled," the threesome prove it has more than a one-dimensional sound going. This could be a sleeper Modern Rock hit.

■ NICK CAVE AND THE BAD SEEDS: Murder Ballads (Reprise 46195-2)

What it says about Nick Cave, the person, that this was the album he was born to make, is open to debate, but what it says about Nick Cave, the musician, is that no one does darkness better than the husky-voiced icon of the gothic scene. Yet, this collection of 10 tales of murder and man's dark side is more than just Cave does murder. On the vicious "Stagger Lee," a story similar to Jim Croce's

"Bad, Bad Leroy Brown," only updated for the '90s in language and graphic detail, and the beautiful "Henry Lee," where Cave and PJ Harvey do a brilliant job of trading off vocals, Cave proves he has grown as an artist to the point that he now transcends the genre he helped to define. And by closing the disc with the sing-along "Death Is Not The End," Cave makes sense of the brutality with a surprisingly optimistic turn that can't help but get fans excited for what the future holds. Highlighting superb songwriting, Murder Ballads is a stunning work from a man on the threshold of becoming an artist.

ALBUM REVIEWS By Gil L. Robertson IV & Michael Hill

CERRONE: Greatest Hits (Pure 2250-2) Producers: Various

The master of the European disco dance delight is back with this best of collection that serves up all the great dance tracks that in the late '70s and early '80s made club-goers run to the dance floors like grunion to the shoreline. The key to Cerrone's dance magic is in the high gloss orchestration that dominated most of his material. That material here is given a '90s touch through remixes done by some of today's most accomplished producers; David Morales, Kevin Saunderson, Justin Robertson and James Reynolds. While adding a contemporary flavor to Cerrone's mix, they don't overshadow the overall mastery and craftsmanship of this talented legendary musician. Standout tracks: "Give Me Love," "Supernature," "I'm Not Sleeping," and "Love and Be Loved." (GR)

PHAT BLUNTS: Rap Unda Tha Influence (Priority P2-53782) Producers: Various

From the label that took gangsta rap to a national level, Priority has released a new compilation about illegal narcotics. This compilation contains many of the all-time best weed, crack and drug dealing songs ever made. It would have been perfect if it also included "White Lines," but nonetheless, it is still packed with some impressive sound. The album includes tracks like "Dopeman," by N.W.A., "City Of Dope," by Too Short, "Cheba Cheba," by Tone Loc, "Illegal Business," by Boogie Down Productions and others. A special favorite on the album is the Dr. Dre. track featuring Rage, Dat Nigga Daz and Kurupt called "Puffin On Blunts and Drinkin Tangueray." This is definitely a collector's item so you may want to get your hands on these albums as soon as you can, however, you make sure to look over your shoulder for the D.E.A. before you buy one. (MH)

TOTAL: Total (Arista 73006-2) Producers: Various

This delicious trio's debut album is full of provocative mid-tempo dance tracks that will for sure keep the crowd moving and grooving. The producers on this album do a good job of providing the ladies with material that aptly showcases each singer's talents. The songs are well-constructed with excellent lyrical content and the group is well backed by a winning production team which includes Raphael Saadiq, Vincent Hubert and, of course, Sean "Puffy" Combs. Overall this is a good debut project that should satisfy a number of listeners. Expect urban formats across the board to take a hit off of this one. Standout tracks: "Do You Know," "Kissin' You," "Love Is All We Need," "When Boy Meets Girl." (GR)

PICK OF THE WEEK

RAY CHARLES: Strong Love Affair (Qwest 946107-2) Producers: Ray Charles and Jean-Pierre Grosz

The legendary one is back with a new collection of songs that leave little doubt as to why he is considered one of the high priests of modern day soul/pop. Very little can be said about the man that hasn't already been written or uttered. Charles has the ability to deliver vocals that are at once funky and then cool-mellow, and the material here provides him ample room to showcase those gifts. The arrangements and production support are totally first rate. That Ray Charles has continued to shine doing the same type of high quality music that first made him famous says some good things about his lasting talent and music consumers' good taste. Expect this one to perform well on A/C and selected top 40 and urban formats. Standout tracks: "All She Wants To Do Is Love Me," "Say No More," "Strong Love Affair," and "If You Give Me Your Heart." (GR)

Urban Single Reviews

By Michael Hill

MR. X: "One Time At The Door" (Jung-5001-2)

Mr. X is one of those New Jack singers whose music blends heavy street themes with R&B vocals. The problem here is that both this track and his vocals are mediocre. However, with a good remix and some good radio and club support this track could be a hitter.

MACK DA MANIAK: "What Goes Up" (Select PRCD53)

This track is New York hip-hop at its best. The groove is naked with a strong drum line and an added sample to fatten it up. THIS IS A PARTY TRACK!!!

YOUNG MURDER SQUAD/SH'KILLA: "How We Living"/1-800 Got Ya M'n" (GWK 4PRO30030)

Together these two singles blend West Coast grooves with a tight lyrical flow. The A-side of the single is just okay, although it may create a little noise for the group. Side B, Sh'Killa's track, is more up to par in the modern day scheme of things.

LATIN

■ RMM TROPICAL TRIBUTE TO THE BEATLES: RMM Tropical Tribute To The Beatles (RMM, 82011) Producer: Oscar Gomez. TROPICAL/SALSA.

After reading RMM's Ralph Mercado's liner notes, one can better understand his long-held theory that Latin rhythms greatly influenced the music of the Beatles. Would you believe that one of their first audition tapes was a rendition of "Besame Mucho?" Unlike Nat "King" Cole, however, the Beatles never recorded an all-Latin album. Maybe if the Fab Four had had the chance, it would've sounded very similar to RMM's present Beatle homage. What is undisputable, however, are the 13 numbers offered on what will be Beatlemania's ultimate tribute of all time. The first promo single is the all-star bilingual jam on "Come Together" (Vamos Juntos), spotlighting Salsa icons Celia Cruz, Cheo Feliciano, and Tito Puente as well as pleasantly surprising performances by younger upstarts like Jesus Enriquez, Guianko, Miles Pena, and Manny Manuel. Retailers: place this in your pop-rock bins; give Salsa a chance.

■ MANUEL ASCANIO: Serenata con Mariachi (MP, 6176) Producer: Juan Gonzalez Pereda. MEXICAN-REGIONAL.

His first hit was Lolita de la Colina's "Dos Amors." Manuel Ascanio's romantic style led to other gems in his singing career. The album, Serenata con Mariachi marks Ascanio's debut recording with the Miami-based MP label. Characterized by boleros and ballads, like his current single, "Madrigal," Ascanio as easily sings covers as he does contemporary hits like "Con Los Años Que Me Quedan" by Gloria Estefan. The era of the "Golden Ballad" continues to flourish with artists like Ascanio.

■ LA DIFERENZIA: Fue Mucho Mas Que Amor (Arista Texas, 18811) Producers: Michael Morales and Ron Morales. TEJANO-REGIONAL-TROPICAL-R&B.

La Diferenzia's debut album, released in 1995, caused a furor within the Latin music industry. Not only was the Platinum-selling group nominated for a Grammy Award, but they were also recipients of numerous accolades. Their second album might prove a repeat winner. Led by their vocalist, Ricardo Castillon, La Diferenzia displays more of what got them where they're at: unadulterated yet highly creative and diversified music. La Diferenzia's strength comes naturally because of the group's various and colorful backgrounds. Viva la diferencia!

■ LA MAFIA: Un Millon De Rosas (Sony Discos, 81722) Producer: Mando Lichtenberger, Jr. TEJANO-POP-REGIONAL.

Un Millon De Rosas is the Houston-based group, La Mafia's, latest album. The mega-Latin pop band's five members have been dominating the Latin music chart album after album since 1986. For two consecutive years, their albums Vida and their last, Exitos En Vivos were nominated for Grammys. With this new album, La Mafia hopes to continue appealing to a broader audience. With the duet, "Mejores Que Ella," with Salsa icon, Marc Anthony, and the group's lead singer, Osear de la Rosa, it might be hard to say who's helping who sell records. Whether La Mafia wins a Grammy this year or not, however, they are a group to be reckoned with for the next ten years.

News From U.S. & Latin America

IGLESIAS TAKES A HIGHER ROAD: The album, La Carretera, is Julio Iglesias' latest album. It also happens to be his 70th. The Spanish crooner has sold more than 200 million albums in the almost three decades of his incredible career. More than 1,500 Gold and Platinum records worldwide have been awarded to the Grammy-winning singer. A final mind-boggling statistic: Iglesias has performed in more than 3,080 concerts and has appeared on more than 1,000 TV shows in 450 cities and 75 countries.

In a recent phone interview, Iglesias touched briefly on what it means to be a super mega-star. "An artist should never be content with his or her last achievement," Iglesias remarked. "Yes, I will say that my last album is one of my best. That is, until the next one, which will hopefully be as good or better as my last one." Considering that Iglesias' fame as a romantic balladeer is legendary among his fans worldwide, he emphasized that he wanted his current album to reflect other aspects of his personality. "La Carretera, for example, contains elements of American country music, but is very appealing to practically anyone," said Iglesias. "The album has something for everyone, whether it's rumba flamenca, salsa, country, rock or pop. I want anyone who listens to my music to feel inspired by what they hear. There's the magic, the connection between the singer and those who he sings to."

Julio Iglesias.

As for future projects, Iglesias mentioned a compilation album of his greatest hits. "I haven't done that yet," he said. "I would like very much to produce such an album." A world-wide network of fans couldn't agree more.

SALSA IN CHILE: At the 37th Annual Festival Internacional de la Canción de Viña del Mar (International Song Festival) in Chile, performing for an audience consisting of more than 50 countries and 25,000 spectators, Dominican singer, Mickey Taveras, stole the show. Taveras, who is a recording artist for the Miami-based Karen Records, rendered his interpretation of his own Salsa composition "Me Gustas." The young artist received the nod as Best Performer at the prestigious festival. The song is from Taveras' latest album, Lucharé which was recorded at the 440 Studio in New York. The singer-author produced the album with arrangements by Tommy Villarini, Penghian Sang and Cuto Soto.

The president of Chile, Eduardo Rey, publicly acknowledged Taveras as he was introduced to the country in a radio interview. A major promotional and concert tour is being launched this week. Taveras has already been making waves throughout Latin America. At the end of February until March 8, the artist will visit Venezuela to film a video clip. A major media promotion of his current album is also planned while in Caracas. By mid-March (11-15), Taveras' U.S. tour will ensue. First stop will Miami then Tampa and Orlando. Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia are to follow on March 18-22. At the end of March, Taveras will visit Puerto Rico. He plans on visiting Columbia at the start of April with other scheduled stops in Central America, Panama, Costa Rica, Honduras, Guatemala, and El Salvador. An international tour is set for May 1st through September.

Indie Album Reviews

By Karen Sidlow
 ■ Z: Music For Pets (Zappa Records ZAP2222)

The Zappa family is no stranger to the music industry. In addition to the countless works that creative genius the late Frank Zappa designed, some of his four children have gone on to make interesting expressive sounds as well. Most notably being the recent accomplishment Music For Pets by five-piece band Z. In addition to Z consisting of both Zappa sons—lead vocalist Ahmet and Dweezil, who provides guitar and vocals—also making up this five some are three other talents, guitarist Mike Kenally, bassist Bryan Beller and drummer Joe Travers. Despite Dweezil's previous solo records Havin' A Bad Day, My Guitar Wants To Kill Your Mama and Confessions, on which Ahmet appears as a guest, Music For Pets marks the second record from five-piece band Z. Featured on this quintet's Zappa Records disc is over 60 minutes of music, nearly four hand fulls of tunes, which was produced by the older and extremely talented Zappa son, Dweezil. Z's music is fun and serious, amusing yet deep. But most of all, it's entertaining. Besides, how many other releases feature colorful song titles like "Silver Disco Lady" and "Flibberty Jibbet"? Check out this creation.

■ VARIOUS ARTISTS: A Child's Celebration Of Rock 'N' Roll (Music For Little People 9-42581)

Imagine an album that doesn't sport a Parental Advisory sticker. Here it is, A Child's Celebration Of Rock 'N' Roll. This playful and punchy disc, made up of 15 tunes, features such wholesome stars as Bobby Darin, The Coasters, Bill Haley And The Comets and Retelnie Valens. Starting off the album is "Rock Around The Clock," a tune most youngsters know as the "theme" from '70s hit family show Happy Days. Other family approved fare making up the release include "Charlie Brown," "Splish Splash," "Rockin' Robin" and "Purple People Eater." Each one of the three hand fulls of songs is performed by the original artist(s) that made it famous. A Child's Celebration... is certain to win over each listener, be they young or just young at heart. If the thought of fun and pleasant audio appeals to you, slip in this record. If you prefer stories of violence and hatred, simply turn on the local news.

■ THE HONEYDOGS: Everything, I Bet You (October Records 89305)

By now, every Minneapolis music lover is familiar with super-group Golden Smog and its recent Rykodisc release Down By The Old Mainstream. But what most people aren't aware of is that in addition to members of The Jayhawks, Soul Asylum, Wilco and Run Westy Run, a member of The Honeydogs, Noah Levy, takes part in creating the tany Smog audio. Noah, the full-time drummer for Minneapolis-St. Paul, MN quartet The Honeydogs, along with the rest of the band—Noah's brother Adam, Trent Norton and Tommy Borscheid—have just released the new album Everything, I Bet You. Despite that fact this foursome has only been together for two years, and this is its second PRAVDA RECORDS, INC. in Chicago, IL has just announced two very different, yet both ultra interesting discs. Currently in-stores is Not A Food the fifth full-length release by Cheer-Accident and soon to be in-stores will be John Fogerty: Wrote A Song For Everyone, a compilation cover album that pays tribute to "the man behind Creedence Clearwater Revival." Pravda Records product can be obtained through such distributors as Caroline, Cargo, Dutch East, Feedback, Get Hip, Rotz and TCI...Damian Music, a label distributed nationally through the Navarre Corporation, plans to release bonus CD-ROM screen savers and games on the compact disc versions of their upcoming releases. Look for exclusive screen savers on the CD versions of The Dance Box - Volume 2, a compilation of dance music, and Larry Tagg's With A Skelton Crew. Featured on the collections Generation X, made up of tracks from alternative bands, and The Black And The Brown Side—Mad Wax - Volume 1 consisting of rap and Latino artists, look for CD-ROM games. The Black And The Brown Side... includes three games, providing an incredibly irresistible incentive... Now available on Jazz Inspiration Records is Bill, Please by Lorne Lofsky and Stan Samole's Childish Dreams. The two aforementioned releases, as well as, all Jazz Inspiration Records' product is available through the Allegro Corporation...

MINTY FRESH, A CHICAGO-BASED LABEL has just announced it's exclusive distribution agreement with Port Washington, NY company Koch International. The three year old label's first release through Koch is Life by Swedish band The Cardigans. Jim Powers, the founder of Minty Fresh, previously worked as an A&R representative for BMG and started his label by releasing plenty of hip 7 inch singles by such trend-setters as Love Jones, Liz Phair and Veruca Salt. In March look for the self-titled debut album by Somerville, MA-based trio Papas Fritas... Speaking of Koch International, the corporation recently held their annual sales meeting in Huatulco, Mexico. A crew of over 100 people, made up of Koch sales representatives and staff employees from the 35 labels they distribute, met one-on-one and swapped thoughts and opinions. In addition to the newly-acquired distribution of Minty Fresh, Koch also handles product sales for such labels as Imago, Thirsty Ear, Tim/Kerr, Righteous Babe, Bar/None, Cooking Vinyl, Razor & Tie, Sector 2, 2.13.61 and Silva among other respected companies... Cash Box Retail Guide panel member Rock Bottom, Inc. is excited about the current release from Landslide recording act the Cigar Store Indians. This quartet from Georgia mix rockabilly with Southern boogie and come up with a fierce country-rock sound with lots of punch...

EARTH MUSIC, A DIVISION OF CARGO RECORDS is on the verge of releasing Straight Outta Marysville from antifolk storyteller Cindy Lee Berryhill. The label also plans to put out Pony and EP from Berryhill and don't be surprised if you see Memoirs Of A Female Messiah, Berryhill's first published novel, creeping up the N.Y. Times best-seller list towards the end of the year... On the Headhunter side of Cargo Records, comes GYGAX! from four piece band Pitchblende. This second release for the quartet, named after the inventor of Dungeons And Dragons, Gary Gygax, validates the fact that the band is still together and making good ole' rock music... Remember the shocking Motley Crue tune "Shout At The Devil?" Well, if you need to refresh your memory, check out Download This from Triple X recording act Cradle Of Thorns. The new offering from C.O.T. features a wonderful interpretation of a song that could easily be tagged the theme song of 80's glam rock. Also from Triple X is Master Frequency And His Deepness by Tim Harrington. You may remember Harrington by his work with the original Masters Of Reality... CM Records, a label based in Seattle, WA, has made a variety of discs recently available. The Last Happy Band? by Just Plain Bill, Hydropods's Racecourse Exit and The Side Effects Of Thinking also with the self-titled debut album from Moral Crux...

PANSY DIVISION AND THE SMUGGLERS have just released their current albums through Lookout Records. Wish I'd Taken Pictures from Pansy Division is the band's fourth record and marks the debut of their permanent drummer Dustin Donaldson. Vancouver band The Smugglers latest accomplishment, Selling The Sizzle!, just happens to be the first co-released album for Canada's Mint label and USA's infamous Lookout Records... The Rounder Records Group has a collection of tunes for every music lover. The Honeydogs album, the band's sound is full of classic melodies and warm, mature vocals. Everything, I Bet You is made up of 11 blended tunes with songs like "Over You," "Your Blue Door," "Tell Me" and "Busy Man," striking a subtle nerve. This record, as well as the band's self-titled debut, are a must for those who appreciate unpretentious, kicking yet soothing music that isn't clouded by a fictitious image.

PICK OF THE WEEK

GRAVITY KILLS: Gravity Kills (TVT 5910)

Following the placement of Gravity Kills tunes, "Goodbye" and "Guilty," on the motion picture soundtracks to Mortal Kombat and Seven respectively, the four-piece band has delivered an aggressive full-length debut.

The album, made up of 11 tunes, including the two tracks that were included on the aforementioned soundtracks, was self-produced by the St. Louis quartet and mixed by the well-known John Fryer (NIN, Stabbing Westward). Prior to the release of Gravity Kills, a very maxi-single of its well-received tune "Guilty," featuring nine mixes of that tune as well as two versions of "Goodbye," was made available. Other standout tunes on this release of complex audio and delicate manipulation of conventional and unconventional instruments include "Down," "Enough," "Never" as well as the disc closer "Hold." For a band whose single "Guilty" earned most requested song in its hometown, plans for the group to converge on the rest of the world are now underway.

Voce Unidas: Olympian Effort By Latin Artists

By M.R. Martinez

Jose Behar

IN CONCERT WITH albums featuring urban and country artists that are being released in connection with the 1996 Olympic games in Atlanta, GA, EMI Latin Records last week announced its entry into the field with Voces Unidas, a solid collection of varied musics featuring a remarkable array of talent from the Latin music community. During a crowded press conference of both mainstream and Latin print and electronic press assembled at the Capitol Recording Studios in Hollywood, CA, executives of EMI Records and the Atlanta

Committee for the Olympic Games (ACOG) introduced the project amid music, a video presentation and a Q&A session with some of the principle artists involved.

Charles Koppleman, chairman/CEO of EMI-Capitol Music Group North America, joined by EMI Latin Records president Jose Behar and Louis Cunningham, vp of marketing for the Atlanta Centennial Olympic Properties, hailed the recording as a tool to spread the global goodwill for which the Olympics stand to those that may not follow sports closely. Behar said, "Voces Unidas (which translates to "United Voices") is not just about an athletic event, it is about world peace and unification—in this case, among the different Latino cultures with nearly every Latin American country represented on the album."

The first single from the album is "Puedes Llegar," co-written by superstar Gloria Estefan with Diane Warren with Spanish lyrics by Estefan. Emilio Estefan, Jr. produced the single and was instrumental in the album's development. "Puedes Llegar" features a cornucopia of talent, including Gloria Estefan, Jon Secada, Julio Iglesias, Placido Domingo, Ricky Martin, Patricia Sosa, Roberto Carlos, Alejandro Fernandez and Carlos Vives. The single will be released in March.

During the press conference, EMI Latin recording act the Barrio Boyzz, performed an a cappella version of their Voce Unidas entry, "Una Nacio," or "One Nation." Other artists featured on the album include Jose Luis Rodriguez, Pandora, Ednita Nazario, Emilio, Graciela Beltran, Alvaro Torres, Marta Sanchez, Paulina Rubio, Mijares, India, Thalia, Raul Di Blasio and the late Selena. In addition to Estefan, other producers on the album include K.C. Porter, A.B. Quintanilla (brother of the late Selena) and Christian De Walden.

Joining the Barrio Boyzz at the press conference were the Estefans, Jon Secada, and Emilio, all of whom answered reporters' questions in both English and Spanish.

Noting that the project was two years in the making, Behar explained that proceeds from the sale of the album (due in stores in May) will go toward benefitting the games and the Olympic teams in each country where the album is sold. A similar arrangement involves the urban album, that will be released by LaFace Records, and the country album which will be released by MCA Records.

ACOP's Cunningham noted that there will be merchandise created around the albums' graphics that will be dubbed "Olympic Music Merchandise."

FILM REVIEWS

UA's Birdcage, A Flyaway Hit!

By John Goff

Morning above the Birdcage showplace and Diva-Mom Nathan Lane moans to houseboy Hank Azaria and Director-Pop Robin Williams.

IT'S THE DAY AFTER and the tremendous talents of The Birdcage have me still laughing. Whaddya want? Splashy, flashy, human, touching, hilarity, Right Wing, out there!, family values? The Birdcage has it all.

Elaine May's script, based on the stage play La Cage Aux Folles by Jean Poiret and the subsequent film script by Francis Veber, Edouard Molinaro, Marcello Danon and Poiret, successfully brings the action from the French Riviera to South Beach, Florida, and it glitters.

May's in top creative form with her work here. She picked up an Academy Award for her Heaven Can Wait scripting chores. She's on her way to another nomination, at least.

And directing without a single lost or wasted frame is Mike Nichols. Maybe it was his old partner's script—this is the first time he and May have worked together in these capacities on a film project before and this is a project they'd harbored feelings for for 15 years—or maybe it's as Nichols has said, "We bring out the best in each other." Talk about understatement here. Wow!

Cast? You want to talk talent: Robin Williams and Nathan Lane as the happy homosexual owner-creative force-couple operating the Birdcage drag show in South Beach—springing for complimentary coffee only for a table of Kennedys when Ted's not present—Gene Hackman and Dianne Wiest as a Right Wing conservative GOP Senator and his wife whose daughter, Calista Flockhart wants to marry Williams' son from a one night stand with Christine Baranski, Dan Futterman. And each talent is in Rare form. Start to get the picture? Don't get it, go to it. It has everything Nichols and May wanted to invest it with, in spades.

Is there anyone out there who doesn't know the story? Doubtful, but if you've forgotten it, don't return to the original La Cage for a refresher course. Let Birdcage take you through it without the encumbrance of source recall.

Robin Williams subdues the usual outward Williams energy, letting the character take over; but the edginess is there giving the touching moments of concern a meaningful depth. His Armand character is the solid one and Williams brings total belief to the role. And you can't mention "Armand" without thinking of "Albert," which translates into Nathan Lane. Lane and Williams' moments together are gems. There's a comedic chemistry between the two of them which makes you look forward to the next scene between the two. Lane's Albert is a showcase role, displaying him as Stage Diva, partner, mom, performer and caregiver. Albert is a part which a performer could take over-the-top, to say the least. Lane takes it to the limit but never without anchoring the performance in humanity. He's excellent.

You want to talk about Advanced Film Acting, take a good look at how much mileage Gene Hackman can get out of a simple line like "I don't understand." Even after watching and admiring his talent for more years than I want to remember, the actor can still astound me. His exit from the Birdcage has the depth to lay you out with laughter. His supportive mate is Dianne Weist who's well up to the task. Yes, this is a couple, a politico and his wife. She sweeps the bad out the door and with expertise puts the good spin on whatever situation arises. Between these two couples Family Values are displayed and the point made: Family Values are given to any family only through the love and concern of the people involved, and the message comes through loud, clear and touchingly.

Hank Azaria is hilarious with his pratfalls as the houseboy/refugee who doesn't like to wear shoes but loves wigs. Christine Baranski as the boy's birth mother manages a slippery situation neatly: mom who hasn't seen her son since birth (it seems) but who steps in to help out and doesn't incur any audience animosity. Dan Futterman and Calista Flockhart are fine as the young couple bringing all these people together.

Executive producers were Neil Machlis and Marcello Danon. Nichols produced.

Touchstone's Up Close And Personal Is Solid

By John Goff

Michelle Pfeiffer and Robert Redford find love within the six o'clock news.

FIRST AND FOREMOST Up Close And Personal is a love story, and a damned fine one too. It sports a sparkling, multi-layered script by Joan Didion & John Gregory Dunne; a pair of actors in Robert Redford and Michelle Pfeiffer who appear to go even beyond the script; romantic score by Thomas Newman; assured direction by Jon Avnet, and it looks to be one of '96's more memorable delights. Memorable enough, I suspect, that it'll be around this time next year, if y'know what I mean.

The story, credit-wise, is listed as Suggested by the book Golden Girl by Alanna Nash, one of the accounts of newswoman Jessica Savitch but it has nothing to do with her. Yes, it's in the news milieu and Pfeiffer plays a driven woman, but Didion & Dunne, along with Avnet and the actors have gone for the feeling of the trade as a backdrop for the love story. Yes, they present some insights into the operations of that milieu—and if a couple of them pertaining to "anchors" seem fairly cliché it's because there's a truth there which can't be embellished upon or presented subtly because they're so instantly recognizable on any newscast, any day, any area of the country. What Didion & Dunne have accomplished is present a solid post, the romantic angle, around which swirl stringers of truth that brush past your eyes, are noted and then blend into the continued wrapping colors which form a pattern of solidarity. When they're all anchored down at film's end you have a beautifully, colorfully wrapped, proudly standing pole everyone concerned with it, even the audience, can take delight in.

Didion, Dunne and Avnet appear to know the machinations of local and network news, in front of and behind camera and doors. They have fun with it but they also give it respect, appearing to be saying: everybody's human, even arrogant asses, and you don't have to be one of those to love.

Redford appears to be more relaxed and having more fun with a role than he has in a long, long time; and it's wonderful to watch. You get the feeling he's glad not to have to worry about anything except carving out a character that he likes. He becomes the person here rather than bending the person to a Redford image. Pfeiffer's character has the most changes and is actually the central focus of the piece. With two lesser performers that fact would have shown through more but the pair work together so smoothly it's not immediately noticeable. They work into the work, and that's terrific to watch. Pfeiffer carries her small town (Reno, NV) ambitious girl through each change with strength and knowledge. She's absolutely solid.

And you don't get much more of a super supporting cast than Stockard Channing as a knowledgeable, edgy but controlled anchor coming up on that stage of age. Joe Mantegna's a high-priced talent agent with enough power to pull strings at stations around the country. Kate Nelligan is strong enough of an actress to complete the portrait of a former wife with only sketchy material, simply a few telling lines of dialogue and attitude. Other notable support is given by Glenn Plummer as Pfeiffer's favorite cameraman; James Rebhorn as a hands-on station manager and Scott Bryce as the pompadoured anchor.

Celine Dion sings "Because You Loved Me," over closing credits, warm love song written by Diane Warren and produced by David Foster.

Avnet, David Nicksay and Jordan Kerner produced; Ed Hookstratten and John Foreman executive produced.

Performance and in a big surprise, the prolific Joni Mitchell won the Best Pop Album honor.

Performance wise, the evening provided some stellar presentations. Although nominated for six Grammys, but receiving none last Wednesday, Mariah Carey performed with Boyz II Men on their platinum hit "One Sweet Day." Whitney Houston, did double duty performing her new hit single "Count on Me" with CeCe Winans, and a stirring gospel song sermon with the great Shirley Caesar. TLC performed an especially hot version of their hit "Waterfalls," and Alanis Morissette shocked many with a terrific, fully acoustic and uncensored version of her big hit "You Oughta Know." Overall the 38th Annual Grammy Award Show was one of the best and proved to be more thought provoking than any broadcast in recent memory.

INTERNATIONAL

News From The United Kingdom, Ireland & Europe

By Hal Levy

LONDON'S WALL STREET (THE CITY) reports Thorn EMI at £16.54, down 1.3%. Also down is Rank Organization at £4.67 down 1.3% and PolyGram follows the trend down 2.1% at N93.70 (£37.33).

GETTIN' HIGH: Brit rocker, Dave Stewart left his guitar at home when he played with his camera on the outside of the 50th floor at New York's Empire State Building, where he shot a commercial, featuring kickboxer champ Sean Cochrane for the U.S. company, Russell Athletics. It was Stewart's first commercial gig.

WANNA GET INTO ERROL'S PANTS OR MARILYN'S UNDIES? Well, you'll have to be in London early March when Donham's Auction House sells off more than 650 lots of entertainment collectibles including a trunk full of Errol (Flynn's) clothes and (Marilyn) Monroe's outfit from the film Some Like It Hot.

ALL THIS AND MAYBE DEMI TOO, as Bruce Willis, in the UK shooting his latest Fifth Element, is taking an evening off to showcase his guitar style at the UNICEF Guitar Night. He'll be joined by former Rolling Stone's Mick Taylor, Thin Lizzy's Snow White and blues man Peter Green. Demi Moore has been invited, but she ain't said "yes" or "no" as yet.

FLIPPED OVER: Oasis says their 1996 album will be a collection of B-sides because, as Noel Gallagher says, their fans have been after them to put out such a record.

LET'S GET IT ON in the European Union. With all 15 countries having different laws regarding taxes, administration and lots of other regulations, it's difficult and expensive for small business to attempt to work in all the markets. One recent development is the European Economics Interest Groups, companies and organizations which want to operate throughout the EU. EEIG's are statutory bodies, not necessarily commercial lying between a partnership and a corporation, which can participate in manufacturing, buying and selling and exchanging information. Several legal groups and universities have already set up their own EEIGs.

UNCLE SAM MOVE OVER as the European Union joins in the U.S. complaint to the World Trade Organization regarding Japan's refusal to pay royalties on pre-1971 recordings. The complaint is the first to be filed under the WTO's agreement allows each country to decide how far back to extend retroactive protection, and they chose 1971. The U.S. and EU, on the other hand, say the date should be 50 years or, 1946. The EU claims they are losing $120 million a year in Japan under the 1971 date which the U.S. says its figure is in the half billion dollar range. Japan is the world's second largest music market with 1994 gross at $6 billion, about 17% of total world sales.

BLAME THE BOSS: According to Led Zeppelin's Robert Plant, British music is shallow, narcissistic and a reflection on a sorry society. And the blame, according to Plant, is on the record companies who, he says, are draining out England's creative juices. Plant, together with Jimmy Page are finishing up a year-long world tour in Australia which they last played in 1972.

AND HOW OLD IS YOUR INSTRUMENT? Well, it ain't old enough. Slovenian archaeologists have found a flute 45,000 years old. So, the next guy who calls you a Neanderthal is actually complimenting you on discovering music. Previously discovered instruments, found in Libya, are dated some 100,000 years, but they are whistles, not capable of making music.

WE'RE IN THE MONEY: The British Phonographic Industry reports that year-end sales increase of 8.8% took the industry past the £1 billion sales mark. Coolio's "Gangsta's Paradise" became the best selling ever rap single in the UK and also topping out was Robson & Jerome's "I Believe," both outselling Michael Jackson's "Earth Song," which was the number one Christmas seller.

AND SPEAKING OF MICHAEL, he's in all the papers with his spot at the Brit Awards. It seems that the Brits are hitting at him in their frustration about the influence of the U.S. industry in England. Unfortunately the TV 90-minute version didn't show all that was going on on stage and backstage. Main complaint against Jackson was that he shouldn't have been on the show, which was a 'British' affair.

Then, it was felt his act was too elaborate and too expensive and took the spotlight away from British acts.

MEANWHILE, Oasis continued their reputation of being the newest badboys on the block. When Michael Hutchence handed Liam Gallagher the Best Video award, Gallagher ungalantly said that "hasbeens shouldn't give awards to gonnabes." His brother, Liam, accepting for Best Album, changed the words from Parklife to shilife and tried to shove the award up his rear. Evening ended with Pulp's Jarvis Cocker coming onto the stage during Jackson's number and dancing around before being taken off.

OUI OUI MICHAEL, who reportedly is interested in buying Le Chateau de Chabonet in the Bouzanne Valley near the French city of Tours. The 20 bedroom castle is set in 40 acres and has turrets, ramparts and a drawbridge together with swimming pool, tennis court and the price is only $5 million. Neighbors would include Mick Jagger, and last year Cher was looking for a place in the vicinity. Only problem is, the French are starting to get upset about all their historic castles and palaces ending up in the hands of foreigners, and are trying to get new laws to stop such sales.

MORE IRISH VIRGIN: Richard Branson's Virgin Radio is taking a 27% interest in the independent Irish station, Dublin 104 FM and changing its name to Virgin Radio after receiving approval from Ireland's Independent Radio & Television Commission.

GIGS GIGS GIGS: Irish promoter Jim Aiken has come up with his spring and summer schedule. In Ireland in March will be Bruce Springsteen and Michael Bolton. April promises Barry Manilow and Tony Bennett. Neil Diamond shows up in May, Tina Turner in June and Bon Jovi and The Eagles in July.

TAKE THAT AND THAT AND THAT: Take That's Robbie Williams, former member of the UK's top group, threatened to block release of a greatest hits album and also threatened to sue RCA in order to break his contract. He claimed that the 'leaving member clause' in his contract was a restraint of free trade. Clause said that any member of a group who leaves a group still remains under contract to the label. Industry interest in the case was due to the fact that if an artist was dissatisfied with his label, in order to lead he and/or another label would have to buy back the contract and thus freeing the artist. However, before the case could come to trial, Williams decided to drop his suit, thus avoiding a court case on leaving member clauses. However, Williams is still liable for court costs which are estimated to run around £70,000.

TOP UK SINGLES: Still on (ahaon) is Babylon Zoo's "Spaceman" as "Anything" goes on (ado) for St. Robert Miles' "Children" come onto the charts at (atri) pushing Luniz's "I Got 5 On It" down to (accathair). Still shining on (acuig) is Lighthouse Family's "Lifted" and Joan Osborne's "One Of Us" has gone up one to (ase) while Blur's "Stereotypes" bounces on the charts at (aseacht) followed by another newcomer Bjork's "Hyperballad" at (ahocht) pushing Etta James' "I Just Want To Make Love To You" to (anaoi) and Technohead is still saying "I Wanna Be A Hippie" on (adeich).

Top UK Album is newcomer Expecting To Fly by The Bluestones. Top UK Video Rental is Sleeping Beauty and Video Sale is Riverdance—The Show, while at the cinema Warner's Heat is the hot ticket.

Top single in Europe is Babylon Zoo's "Spaceman" which tops the lists in Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Ireland and Austria. France is living in Coolio's "Gangsta's Paradise" while the sound of "Thunder" by East 17 comes from Lithuania and Iceland isn't "Sick And Tired" of The Cardigans. Spain and Latvia kneel to George Michael's "Jesus To A Child" and Italy and Switzerland have taken up with Robert Miles' "Children". Album-wise in Europe, the trend still seems to favor native language albums such as the topper in Spain, Gloria Estefan's Abriendo Puertas and Celine Dion's D'Eux in France. Bucking the trend is Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds' Murder Ballads leading in Sweden and Norway and Oasis' What's The Story, Morning Glory in Iceland.

Blues News & Notes

By John Rhys

FLASH BULBS BLINDED, cameras rolled and the sidewalk was packed with onlookers as The Orville H. Gibson Guitar Awards proceeded at The Hard Rock Cafe. Already inside were Emmy Lou Harris, soon to be recipient of the O.H Gibson Lifetime Achievement Award, and Joni Mitchell, winner of the Best Acoustic Guitarist Award in the female category. Publicists paced and Hard Rock waiters raced to serve everyone. The glittering intensity building in Hollywood belied the vast changes taking place inside the Gibson company.

Last week, Cash Box received information that employees were locked out of the San Fernando Valley branch. Upon calling various offices of the Gibson Company and receiving the message, "Sorry we're closed until March 4th", this reporter decided to dig a little to find out what was happening inside the giant guitar manufacturing company.

The central figure for the event at the Hard Rock was Mr. Henry Juskiewicz chairman/CEO for the Gibson Guitar Corp. Juskiewicz told Cash Box that the company felt it had become far too bureaucratic and slow and that they had decided to de-centralize and rebuild the branch offices. He was apologetic about the fact that some folks had lost their jobs but certain decisions had to be made for the good of the company overall.

The Gibson Guitar Awards is a charitable event for the benefit of the Nordoff-Robbins Music Therapy Foundation and no one can ever say that the stars don't shine for charity in Hollywood as some of the most illustrious music entertainers came to accept their awards. Accepting for Best Rock Guitarist in the male category was Eddie Van Halen. Also in the male category for Best Acoustic Guitarist was Chris Isaak. In the female category, accepting for Chrissie Hynde for Best Rock Guitarist was the absolutely stunning Rosanna Arquette. Then accepting for Best Jazz Guitarist (female) was the very charming and talented Leni Stern. Cash Box congratulates Gibson and all the winners of the various awards. It's nice to know, however, that the real winners are hundreds of handicapped children across the USA. Good work everyone, with special kudos going out to the best artist relations lady I know in the business Robin Braun, who is now unemployed and can be contacted at 818-508-6333. Kurt Nishimura reports from MCA this week that on March 12th the company will be re-issuing Pete Townshend's masterpiece, the "rock opera" Tommy. The re-issue includes the piece's complete libretto plus brand-new liner notes written by Richard Barnes author of The Who: Maximum R&B. For you audiophiles this new release has been completely digitally re-mixed, re-mastered and re-packaged into a single CD, all under the personal supervision of it's creator, Pete Townsend...Finally, Cash Box and this reporter are sad to announce the final placard for one of Americas greatest influences on the music we know and love as the blues. On Friday, February 16, Mr. Walter "Brownie" McGhee passed away of what is becoming Americas biggest black eye— cancer. His name became synonymous with Sonny Terry and he was considered to be one of the leading figures of what came to be known as the Piedmont Blues. "Brownie" McGhee will be well remembered...Be good to yourselves 'til next time and remember... the Gods love the blues.

Album Reviews

■ THE WALTER TROUT BAND: Breaking The Rules (Provogue-PRD 70762) Producer: Walter Trout

It never ceases to amaze how blind American record companies can be. The fact that Silvertone Records had Walter Trout and turned him loose is simply amazing. Of course there are great guitarists around every corner, but Walter Trout is light years ahead of 99.9% of them. Mr. Trout, a true veteran in this music industry will soon prove to the USA as he's now proving to Europe, that the American companies are sometimes deaf as posts. Voted number six guitar player in Britain via a popular British poll, Walter's new CD Breaking The Rules is a huge seller throughout England, Scandinavia, Holland, Belgium and now Germany. The question is why is it that so many great American artists have to go to Europe to be discovered? It's making the companies in the good 'ol USA look fairly ridiculous. Walter Trout has the finest credentials his heart and soul could produce. Three albums with John Mayall, tours with John Lee Hooker and Big Mama Thornton and four years with Canned Heat. If you'd like to hear the absolute best in blues rock ala Chris Duarte and Stevie Ray Vaughn, do yourself and Walter Trout a favor and trot over to your local music place and order this album.

■ WILLIE CLAYTON: Ace In The Hole (Ace-2066) Producers: Various

Well, well. Ace Records rides again and it looks as though Ace is riding into the winner's circle with Willie Clayton. Ace In The Hole just might be what Johnny Vincent has been looking for to revitalize his world famous Ace Records label. Produced by Willy himself with X. Parker and Ronnie Lovejoy, this CD is causing a big stir across the whole East Coast of the USA. The object of the buzz is the cut "Equal Opportunity," which has the ladies up in arms or out in arms as the may be the case. Women's clubs all the way to the White House are enamored with this record which by this time has sold through 58,000 units and as Johnny Vincent states "It's just getting started." Willy Clayton is a great R&B artist, but the record speaks for itself. Tightly arranged by Clayton and Harrison Callaway, this CD is reminiscent of the funk of the '60s. Recommended cuts are "Equal Opportunity," "Three People (Sleepin' In My Bed)" and "My Baby's Cheatin' On Me." Significant airplay is producing excellent sales mostly from R&B outlets. Signs are that crossover is starting to happen.

■ FLEETWOOD MAC: Live at the BBC (Castle 114-2)

Devotees of Peter Green, it's finally come. All your favorite Fleetwood Mac cuts, live, on two CDs. The original cast playing their butts off. No BS. Not much echo. No flying faders just a straight out radio mixer and a hell of an engineer twisting the knobs. Hard edged and brutal blues rock the way you like it. Praise the BBC for recording this music in the first place then maintaining these treasures all these years. From Fleetwood Mac's first minor hit "Rattlesnake Shake" to "Oh Well" and everything in between, this CD is a "must have" for any collector and Peter Green- Fleetwood Mac fans.

Single Reviews By Wendy Newcomer

■ TIM MCGRAW: "All I Want Is A Life" (Curb D-1227)

Sharp production and a swaggering performance are the reasons why "All I Want Is A Life" will join the ranks of McGraw's other hits. Similar to "I Like It, I Love It" in its driving beat, it appears to have the secret ingredient that is making McGraw a radio mainstay.

■ FAITH HILL: "Someone Else's Dream" (Warner Bros. PRO-CD-8039)

Finding positive and uplifting songs for female singers these days is about as easy as finding a male singer who doesn't wear tight jeans. But Hill has found a song that fits the bill (and her sweetheart image)—she sings the heck out of it, too. If women truly are the buyers and target audience of country music, this single should hit the bullseye.

■ JOE DIFFIE: "C-O-U-N-T-R-Y" (Epic ESK 078246)

Joe, are you "country"? Let us know how you really feel. Diffie's latest manages to cram every musical and lyrical cliché ever invented into two minutes and 33 seconds. But then again, not every song is created to stimulate the mind. Boot scooters and line dancers will no doubt pick this one up and make a club smash out of it.

■ CHRIS LEDDOUX: "Five Dollar Fine" (Capitol DPRO-10338)

Late at night just before last call is the best time to hear "Five Dollar Fine." This cowboy guru with a phenomenal rodeo circuit following sings Alex Harvey's clever tune with a no-frills reading that is pure Ledoux. Incidentally, the fine referred to in the song is for whining. It's the kind of song a house band would lead the crowd in singing—in fact, that's the way the song ends—with a singalong.

PICK OF THE WEEK

If I Were You

Terri Clark

■ TERRI CLARK: "If I Were You" (Mercury MNCD-106)

Clark burst on the scene as the only female hat act and is comfortably settling into a Strait-meets-McEntire mode with "If I Were You." Though her Stetson persona seemed gimmicky at first, she is proving herself to be the real deal through great songwriting and a voice that is just as convincing. From the sound of this ballad, Clark can emote tenderness as well as toughness.

ACME Pre-Registration Up 22 Percent!

CHICAGO—The ACME Show Committee reported pre-registration figures for the 1996 American Coin Machine Exposition are up this year by 22 percent. All indications are that this 10th Anniversary year could break all records!

The annual ACME convention has been enjoying steadily increasing popularity as a result of the numerous innovative programs incorporated into the show agenda.

This year will see a series of three 90-minute Disney University Professional Development Programs, which offer insight into the Disney approach to people management, quality service and creativity. Randy Fromm's TECHFEST, designed for service technicians, will provide everything from video training centers to technician certification programs to troubleshooting clinics. League & Tournament Row, a first this year, will feature exhibits and table top displays providing information on leagues and tournaments from the top promoters in the business.

ACME '96, sponsored by the American Amusement Machine Association, will take place March 7-9 at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida.

Strong Op Response To '95 Area 51 Sweepstakes

CHICAGO—When Time Warner Interactive/Atari Games introduced Area 51 at last year's AMOA convention, an Area 51 sweepstakes was also launched as part of the factory's marketing campaign. Operators were offered a chance to enter a prize drawing and by the time the sweepstakes ended close to 1500 operators from throughout the country had participated.

The drawing was held in December of '95. The grand prize winner was Michael Patz of M & P Amusement in York, Pennsylvania, who received an Area 51 kit. "I've never won anything before," he said, "so it was a nice surprise."

According to Mary Fujihara, vice president of marketing for TWI, "This promotion was one of the most successful to date as we had a high response rate from the trade shows, open houses and direct mailers we sent. It's also good to hear from a satisfied customer," she added, "as it turns out that Mr. Patz has a few Area 51 games and he is very happy with the ROI."

Twenty-two other operators won either a 62-inch Area 51 banner or an Area 51 t-shirt.

Area 51 has been shipping in both upright 25-inch and Showcase 33-inch versions. The universal kit did not go into shipment until March of this year.

Time Warner Releases Area 51 Kit

Area 51

CHICAGO—Time Warner Interactive/Atari Games announced the release of their Area 51 universal kit; and the launching of a national Area 51 "Operation Shootout" tie-in contest. The kit, available in early March, will be showcased at ACME '96 in Orlando and backed up by aggressive advertising, direct mail and player promotions.

A cinematic-style shooting game for 1 or 2 players, Area 51 was released in two dedicated configurations in November of '95 and subsequently achieved number one status on video charts. The economically priced new kit configuration is simple to convert for JAMMA-compatible cabinets such as NBA Jam, Lethal Enforcer, Mortal Kombat and the Street Fighter series. The kit contains everything required to simply convert JAMMA-compatible cabinets, including a pre-mounted PCB/Hard drive tray; a complete set of guns, cables, holsters and harnesses; attraction, side, control panel and bezel decals; start buttons and lexan overlay.

"Area 51 is a real bargain," stated Mike Taylor, vice president of sales at Time Warner Interactive. "The test earnings we've seen on converted cabinets are incredible. This kit is very versatile and will transform stagnant wood into a top earning product," he continued. "Area 51 is a perfect fit for bowling alleys, bars, pizza parlors, movie theaters, and every other place you would ever find a video game."

TWI is also launching an innovative contest to "drive Area 51 players into a frenzy!" Promoted over the Internet and the Area 51 World Wide Web site, the "Operation Shootout" contest offers players the ultimate challenge—to find all fourteen of the secret room entrances hidden in the six levels of the game. These rooms, each of which has a name such as "Egg Cellent" or "Chow Palace," are not part of normal game play; they can be entered only after shooting a certain sequence of objects within the game. Winners will receive their own dedicated Area 51 arcade unit. A host of additional prizes, including t-shirts, STAAR Team dog tags and limited-edition pins, will also be given away.

"This will be a fun contest," explained product manager Derryl DePriest. "When we created Area 51, we put in a lot of hidden bonuses that we knew would take players a long time to find. In fact, there is a whole secret mode of play buried in the game, with a completely different outcome and storyline," he continued. "Many of these trickier Easter Eggs have yet to be discovered. A large portion of our players are 'wired,' so we wanted to run a promotion over the Internet's World Wide Web. We'll continually be offering players hints through our Web site, so they should check back often to find new information."

Players can qualify for the contest on any Area 51 machine, dedicated or kit-converted. They can enter the contest through the Area 51 World Wide Web page (located at <http://pathfinder.com/twi/area51>), via email (area51@agames.com), or by sending a letter to TWI, Attention Area 51 Contest, 675 Sycamore Drive, Milpitas, CA 95035. Entrants should list the fourteen separate secret rooms, the name of the room and what game play features unlocks each; and their home address and phone number. Entries must be received by July 1, 1996, following which winners will be drawn and prizes awarded.

Century Club Meeting

CHICAGO—The Century Club, which is composed of individuals who have been in the coin machine industry for twenty-five years or more, will be meeting during the upcoming ACME convention in Orlando, Florida.
