The New Generation Of Record Enthusiasm

By Tom Kyle

In today's world of ever-changing morals and trends, one thing is certain, music is a basic of everyday life. I think if it wasn't for music there would be no flavor in our everyday existence on earth.

Think about it. So many traditional values have been revised to please stubborn people who think only of personal gain; then there are the rest of the values that are forgotten because they are considered archaic. Maybe that's why music is always listened to; it may have a new sound but it is always there for the listener to appreciate no matter the mood one might be in.

Taking the part of a spokesman for the new generation, I'm here to explain several points of our revolution. Our revolution is not one that pushes music into your ears and seals them shut with spandex headbands. We are a good breed, nurtured on the sounds of Led Zeppelin and Cat Stevens and maturing into music that is now more giving and meaningful, sharing a positive point of view or a "let's make the world a better place to live" message. U2, John Cougar Mellencamp and Stryper all have done this in their music. There is a long list of others, but you know a majority of them by now. Just think of the two biggest events in music history: "Farm Aid" and "Live Aid." These fine people have proved their concern. As the wise saying goes, "actions speak louder than words."

I think I can safely say we are all a little testy about discussing music censorship. One thing is for sure, we do take our music very personally, because our music is part of us. But it just seems like some musicians prefer singing — or rather screeching — about death and satan to enjoying life itself. Mothers of today should think of Jim Morrison back in their days before they judge a performer such as Dee Snider.

It seems that we all can understand censorship to a point, but what would it really prove? It's very simple — if you don't like it, turn it off. Death and evil in music really serve no purpose, but it's when you realize this that you are ahead of the game. After all, remember they both have been here since the beginning of time and the human race has survived so far.

Maybe it's only my thinking, but it seems that more emphasis is placed on song lyrics than on children dying as a result of famine or terrorist attacks. Where are people's priorities? Is it better to attack something that has no defense while sitting and watching TV than to get involved in keeping your environment safe for our children? Even bad music is a lot more innocent than physical harm.

I know for sure that we don't want to be associated with burned-out flower children who have resigned themselves to giving rock gossip on local radio or TV stations because they now do everything they were against when they participated in the peace marches of the '60s.

My generation is straightforward. We listen, enjoy, and support what we believe in to the limit. Our main objective in life is to excel in our careers and love every minute of it. When it comes to work one should be exceptionally proud of what he or she does.

If you were to pull a young person to the side and see what makes him tick, you would see outward signs that he loves music. He usually has at least one button on this jacket that pertains to his favorite group. He doesn't wear this button for fashion but for his deepest respect and support. A surprisingly large number have been involved in small bands and this only makes their hunger for music even greater. Then there are some of us that break out a cassette and put it in our car tape deck and take a 50-mile cruise, just to have our privacy to more or less judge the music for ourselves rather than listen to a corrupt and pompous critic who only favors music when it can be beneficial to himself. Every song that is made out of feeling and emotion rather than out of making big bucks only is part of a person's soul and not I nor anybody else has the right to drag it through the mud. We only have the right to respect that feeling and personally agree or disagree, not to make a living hacking it to death.

There are not many things left in life to believe in. Some of us believe in God, love and brotherhood — which are all really one. Others choose to believe in greed, deception and evil. Now think which group really has the true song in their hearts. The true song has been here since day one. It only has a better beat now.

Columbia, E/P/A Senior Management Restructured

NEW YORK — The senior management of the Columbia and Epic/Portrait/CBS Associated labels has been restructured in a move designed to, in the words of CBS Records Division president Al Teller, "enable us to focus more directly on our key A&R and marketing objectives — nurturing and expanding the recording careers of each CBS Records artist, and developing new talents to their maximum potential." The move will provide a senior vice president of A&R and a senior vice president of marketing at each label, Columbia and Epic/Portrait, reporting directly to Al Teller.

Mickey Eichner

Mickey Eichner has been named senior vice president, A&R, Columbia Records, and Bob Sherwood has been named senior vice president, marketing, Columbia Records. Lennie Petze has been named senior vice president, A&R, Epic/Portrait Records, and Ray Anderson has been named senior vice president, marketing, Epic/Portrait/CBS Associated labels.

Ray Anderson

In their new roles, Eichner and Petze will be responsible for all of the A&R activities of the Columbia and Epic/Portrait labels respectively. Sherwood and Anderson will be responsible for all of the marketing, promotion, product development and video activities of the Columbia and Epic/Portrait/CBS Associated labels respectively.

Tony Martell, vice president and general manager, CBS Associated labels, will now report to Al Teller.

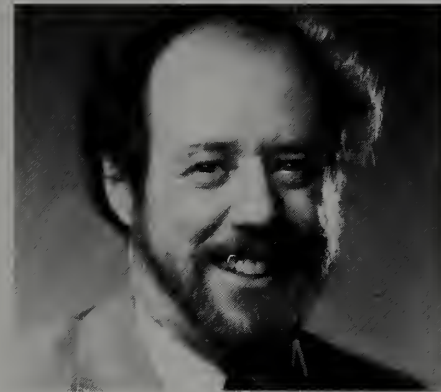

"The complexities of A&R, promotion and marketing today require the most astute planning and execution. With the tremendous experience and expertise of these executives, we're better positioned to achieve these goals than ever before," said Teller.

Mickey Eichner has been vice president, national A&R, Columbia Records, since 1980. He had previously been vice president, east coast A&R for the label. Prior to joining Columbia in 1972 as director, independent productions, Eichner was executive vice president, Jubilee Records.

Bob Sherwood has been vice president, marketing, Columbia Records since 1981. He was previously president and chief operating officer, Phonogram/Mercury Inc., and executive vice president and general manager, PolyGram Records. His prior association with Columbia culminated in the post of vice president, national promotion in 1977.

Lennie Petze has been vice president and senior manager, Epic and Portrait A&R, since 1983. He was previously vice president and general manager of Portrait Records, prior to which he served as vice president, national A&R, Epic Records. He previously held local and regional promotional posts with Epic.

Ray Anderson has been vice president, Columbia label promotion, since 1981. He had previously been vice president and general manager of the Pasha Music Organization and Pasha Records. His extensive promotion background includes terms as division vice president of promotion at RCA Records and vice president, promotion at United Artists Records.

Few Surprises Mark Grammy Night '86

By David Adelson

LOS ANGELES — As has been the case so many times before, the much anticipated Grammy ceremony produced little in the way of surprises.

When it came time for the final award of the evening, Record Of The Year, there were few who didn't expect to see Quincy Jones take the stage to accept the award on behalf of U.S.A. For Africa.

Yet as anti-climactic as that award proved to be, Jones' acceptance speech succinctly put the project's enormous impact into proper perspective. With "We Are The World" co-writers Michael Jackson and Lionel Richie beside him, Jones thanked the generation that changed "I, me, my, to we, you, us."

Cornyn To Industry: 'Wise Up'

By Stephen Padgett

LOS ANGELES — The computer software industry is about to pick the pockets of the music industry, according to Stan Cornyn president, The Record Group. Cornyn has long been a champion of the compact disc and its many extra-musical applications. Because of a widespread "prove it to me" attitude among record company executives, Cornyn predicts that the computer software industry is going to cash in on many new exciting home entertainment uses of compact discs.

"Our industry recently got a giant gift called the compact disc. We're treating it like we just got a gift certificate for a whole new wardrobe and we're determined to use it only to buy a neck tie," said Cornyn to a gathering called by the Gavin Report in San Francisco, February 21-23. What is at stake are the uses of compact disc software beyond purely music delivery. Applications of technology in areas of interactive computer games and educational programs and video have already been developed — some of these Cornyn debuted at last year's NARM convention to an enthusiastic response.

CDs can now reproduce song lyrics, even in foreign languages, produce digitized photographs, complement instrumental music with CD graphics, and give MTV-like motion on a TV screen. After the music, a photo album on the artist could run in the remaining minutes

Menon Speaks Out

LOS ANGELES — Bhaskar Menon, chairman, president and chief executive officer Capitol Industries — EMI, Inc. confirmed last Tuesday that all company labels, which include Capitol Records, EMI America Records and Manhattan/Blue Note Records, suspended the use of independent promotion. The company has retained outside council, Latham and Watkins, to review the Capitol/EMI America/Manhattan Labels longstanding anti-payola program. This program includes stringent accounting and financial controls along with requirements for all promotion staff to submit periodic sworn confirmations that they do not participate in payola activities, and similar requirements for all independent promoters who do business with the Capitol group of labels. The decision was prompted by an NBC Nightly News story which suggested a link between independent promotion

Philips, Sony Plan Interactive Compact Discs

LOS ANGELES — Philips and Sony announced Monday, February 24 their plans to submit specifications for the audio/video applications of the interactive CD-ROM. This format, called "CD Interactive Media" (CD-1), is intended for home and educational use, and will give new impetus to the publishing, recording, and software industries thanks to its broad variety of applications and cost-

MANHATTAN GAVIN — Manhattan Records executives welcome singer/producer/songwriter Gavin Christopher to the label and are seen celebrating Christopher's debut album, which is scheduled for an April release. Gavin is the writer of several Chaka Khan and Rufus' early hits, including the classics "Once You Get Started" and "You Got The Love." He was also the featured vocalist on Herbie Hancock's "Stars In Your Eyes." Pictured here (l-r): Manhattan president Bruce Lundvall; Varnell Johnson, vice president, black music marketing; Gavin Christopher; Gerry Griffith, vice president of A&R, Stephen Reed, senior vice president, marketing & administration; and Bhaskar Menon, chairman of the board & chief executive officer of EMI Music & Capitol Industries.

BUSINESS NOTES

Warrants Issued For Vendors At Miss. Flea Market/Labels Seized In Okla.

NEW YORK — Arrest warrants were issued for ten vendors at the Ripley Flea Market in Ripley, Mississippi on February 3, 1986. The vendors are suspected of offering counterfeit cassette tapes for sale. A total of 6,658 alleged counterfeit cassette tapes were seized by the Mississippi Highway Patrol from ten separate booths at the Market, on February 2, 1986, pursuant to 10 search warrants issued the same day.

Arrest warrants were issued for Robert G. Thearp of Bolivar, TN., Charles R. Wakefield of Tanner, AL., Randy Hood of Baldwin, MS., Jimmy Sandlin of Gun Town, MS., John Naron of Houston, MS., Ralph Stivala of Pontotoc, MS., James M. Wilhite of Booneville, MS., Mitchell Lyons of New Albany, MS., William Larry Shaffner of Cleveland, AL., and Howard J. Spencer of Booneville, MS.

In an unrelated case, special agents of the Oklahoma City Division of the FBI executed a federal search warrant on January 30, 1986, at Action Printing 3400, Charleston Road, Norman, Oklahoma and seized equipment and materials allegedly used to manufacture and/or assemble counterfeit labels for counterfeit audio cassette recordings in violation of federal law.

In October, 1985, the Oklahoma City Division of the FBI received information that Action Printing of Norman was involved in the printing of counterfeit labels for sound recordings by popular artists. On January 29, 1986, an undercover FBI agent purchased approximately 5,000 audio cassette recordings suspected to be counterfeit from an individual at the Holiday Inn in Henryetta, Oklahoma. This person had allegedly purchased labels for these cassettes from Action Printing.

ALBUM RELEASES

OUT OF THE BOX

LIVE IN NEW YORK CITY — John Lennon — Capitol SV-12451 — Producer: Yoko Ono — List: 9.98 — Bar Coded

This wonderful live album which captures Lennon in concert from Madison Square Garden in 1972 is a definitive glimpse of the late and former Beatle. This performance, five years before the debut of The Sex Pistols, presaged, among other modern trends, the whole punk movement. Yoko Ono, the album's producer, and Capitol are to be commended for bringing these important recordings to the public.

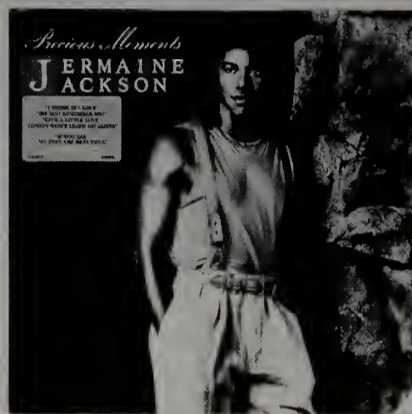

BRIEF ENCOUNTER — Marillion — Capitol MLP-15023 — Producers: Chris Kilmsey — Mark Freegard — List: 6.98 — Bar Coded

Three strong studio LPs and a current SRO tour should provide impetus for a quick start for this five-song live set. "Brief Encounter" showcases the band's live performance and highlights its Genesis/Gentle Giant-influenced sound. Stranger things have happened, but it appears that progressive rock may be historical enough now to deserve its own revival.

NEW AND REDEMPTIVE

BLUE TOMORROW — The Swimming Pool Q's — A&M SP-5107 — Producer: Mike Howlett — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

The much ballyhooed Swimming Pool Q's makes a substantial stab at beating the sophomore jinx here. Its music is cut right from the fabric of the American heartland, yet it is vibrant and uncategorizable. At times the spirit of Hank Williams is evoked though the sound is contemporary and thoroughly based in modern songwriting sensibilities.

PRECIOUS MOMENTS — Jermaine Jackson — Arista AL8-8277 — Producers: Jermaine Jackson — Tom Keane — Michael Omartian — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

1986 is shaping up to be another year the charts are dominated by members of the Jackson family. This new effort from Jermaine has enough clean, danceable, punchy pop/R&B to be a steady climber for several months. Watch out Janet, here comes brothers Jermaine, and right behind him this spring, Michael.

FEATURE PICKS

THE COLOUR OF SPRING — Talk Talk — EMI America ST-17179 — Producer: Tim Friese-Green — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

The evocative, ethereal sounds of Talk Talk may not translate into huge pop radio acceptance, but there is a proven audience for this Roxy-inspired music.

THE KNIFE FEELS LIKE JUSTICE — Brian Setzer — EMI America ST-17178 — Producer: Don Gehman — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

Backing away from the rockabilly sound he repopularized as a Stray Cat, Setzer demonstrates here his penchant for a classic pop style.

9½ WEEKS — Original Motion Picture Soundtrack — Capitol SV-12470 — Producers: Various — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

This heavyweight compilation featuring tracks from Duran's John Taylor, Brian Ferry, Corey Hart, Joe Cocker, Devo, Eurythmics and Police's Stewart Copeland should be a winner at retail.

BACK TO THE WORLD — Dennis DeYoung — A&M SP-5109 — Producer: Dennis DeYoung — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

Another set of romantic power-ballads from the former Styx-man.

MONEY ISN'T EVERYTHING — Michael Jonzun — A&M SP-5111 — Producer: Michael Jonzun — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

Funky, urban, dance. That about sums up this burning new record from Jonzun. Watch for strong BC sales and good crossover action.

BOURGEOIS TAGG — Island 90496 — Producers: David J. Holman-Brent Bourgeois-Larry Tagg — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded Slightly formulaic, but commendable nonetheless, Brent Bourgeois and Larry Tagg write and produce an urgent, driving pop.

A WAY TO SAY GOODBYE — Esther Phillips — Muse MR 5302 — Producers: David Matthews — Jerry Chaikin — List: 8.98

Recorded five months before Esther Phillips died in 1984, this LP features her classic, Dinah Washington-inspired soul singing well-applied to such items as "Nowhere to Run," "Mama Said," and "Fa Fa Fa Fa (Sad Song)."

THE MAN AND HIS MUSIC — Sam Cooke — RCA CPL1-7127 — Producers: Various — List: 11.98 — Bar Coded

This two-record set is an absolute must for anyone interested in the enduring effect of Cooke on popular music. Contained here are "Chain Gang," "Only Sixteen," "Cupid," "Another Saturday Night," and many, many more.

THE SEARCH IS OVER — Tramaine — A&M SP-6-5110 — Producer: Robert Byron Wright — List: 6.98 — Bar Coded Gospel star Tramaine is crossing her very contemporary gospel sound to BC and beyond. This strong, secular-label outing shimmers with spirit and commitment.

JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME — The Del Lords — EMI America/Enigma ST-17183 — Producer: Nell Geraldo — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

The Del Lords is a cut above the tough-boy, guitar-slingers in vogue these days. Powerful, conviction-heavy songs and gritty production from Neil Geraldo are the hallmarks.

TROUBLE IN MIND — Original Motion Picture Soundtrack — Island Visual Arts 90501 — Producer: Mark Isham — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

A lush and luminous score from synthesist/trumpeter Isham and typically somber, demon-possessed vocals from Marianne Faithful make this a potentially classic soundtrack.

SAVING THE WILDLIFE — Mannheim Steamroller — American Gramophone AG-2086 — Producer: Chip Davis — List: not given

This collection of various musics will serve as the soundtrack to a March PBS television special, "Saving The Wildlife." Top selling Mannheim Steamroller has a perfect combination here, blending its New Age sound with the worthy cause of animal preservation.

YOUR SONGS — Elton John — MCA 37266 — Producer: Gus Dudgeon — List: 5.98 — Bar Coded

This popularly priced collection of some of John's all time great tracks will be a welcome midline seller at retail.

CRASHING DREAM — Rain Parade — Island 90499 — Producer: Steve Gronback — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

A sixties, Byrds-influenced sound punctuates this major label debut from L.A. favorites Rain Parade. On the neo-psychedelic fringe.

DOWN AND OUT IN BEVERLY HILLS — Original Motion Picture Soundtrack — MCA 6160 — Producers: Various — List: 8.98 — Bar Coded

Half of this record has tracks from Little Richard, David Lee Roth, The Mariachi Vargas de Tecalitlan and Randy Newman. The other half contains tracks from Police guitarist Andy Summers. A winning collection from a hit film.

RECORDS TO WATCH

ABSOLUTELY — Eurogliders — Columbia BFC 40269 — Producers: Bernie Lynch-Bill Scheniman — No List — Bar Coded

SINGLE RELEASES

ROLLING STONES (Rolling Stones/CBS 38-05802)

Harlem Shuffle (3:24) (Marc-Jean adm. by Bug-Keymen/BMI) (Relf-Nelson) (Producers: Steve Lillywhite—The Glimmer Twins)

Worldwide exposure on the Grammy telecast is sure to power this single on its way. The Stones' first for Columbia is the Chess blues-influenced homage to its sources. A grooving, metronome-tight rhythm section and Jagger's howl are featured.

VAN HALEN (Warner Bros. 7-28740)
Why Can't This Be Love (3:45) (Yessup/ASCAP) (Michael Anthony-Sammy Hagar-Alex Van Halen-Edward and Van Halen) (Producers: Van Halen-Mick Jones-Donn Landee)

The first single from the reconstituted Van Halen (with Sammy Hagar on lungs) is a powerful pop/rock kicker. Eddie Van Halen's sterling guitar and Hagar's able yelps set this single up for heavy rotation. A cross format winner.

MICHAEL HENDERSON (EMI America B-8312)

Do It To Me Good (Tonight) (3:27) (Shannon Latisse-American League/BMI) (M. Henderson) (Producer: Michael Henderson)

EMI America's re-entrance into black music should be off to a sensational start with this grooving track ripe for BC and CHR. Henderson gives the single a bit of a Prince feel, but it stands on its own with a powerful hook and great production.

FREDDIE JACKSON (Capitol B-5565)
Love Is Just A Touch Away (4:10) (Bush Burnin'—Zomba/ASCAP) (F. Jackson-B. Eastmond) (Producer: Barry Eastmond)

Jackson's tremendous, expressive voice is perfectly suited to this urban ballad. This single should pave the way for the singer's upcoming second LP. Watch for immediate BC, and AC and CHR crossover a definite probability.

JUNIOR (Mercury 886 037-7 DJ)

Oh Loulse (3:50) (Junior-EMI-MCA/ASCAP) (Junior-Smith) (Producer: Junior)

A tuneful, richly melodic chorus backs the refrain on this single, giving engaging force to Junior's zesty R&B vocal. This is prime B/C material, destined for airplay with chart racing earmarks. Should be a winner for this British act.

RICKY NELSON (MCA 52781)

You Know What I Mean (1:47) (Almo/BMI) (Jupp) (Producer: Rick Nelson)

Nelson's classic rockabilly sound makes a fine showing on this rocking cut. The late singer's voice sparks every groove of this recording, backed by the traditional male rockabilly chorus. A tribute to Nelson's contribution to music, this tune should have great appeal, both sentimental and otherwise.

MICHAEL JONZUN (A&M 2824)

Games People Play (3:48) (Boston International/ASCAP) (Michael Jonzun) (Producer: Michael Jonzun)

Solid, driving bass lick and hard edged rhythm track should connect with urban audiences.

L.L. COOL J (Def Jam/Columbia 38-05840)

Rock The Bells (4:00) (Def Jam/ASCAP) (J. Smith-R. Rubin) (Producer: Rick Rubin)

Rap sensation L.L. Cool J will have another hit on his hands with this one.

ANITA BAKER (Elektra 7-69554)

Watch Your Step (3:58) (Baker's/BMI) (Anita Baker) (Producer: Michael J. Powell)

Baker's first for Elektra is a classy bit of pop/R&B.

THE ALARM (I.R.S. 52792)

Spirit Of '76 (4:05) (Illegal adm. by Atlantic/BMI) (McDonald-Peters) (Producer: Mike Howlett)

A thicker, electric sound highlights this second single from "Strength." A rock radio certainty, perhaps a few progressive CHR's.

THE DRAMATICS (Fantasy 966)

Luv's Calling (3:40) (Idnyc - Derf/BMI - Kamalar - Saxabone-Membership/ASCAP)

"Luv's Calling" is an infectious dance track. Great grooves, hooks and production.

LISA LISA AND CULT JAM WITH FULL FORCE (Columbia 38-05669)

Can You Feel The Beat (3:49) (Mokojumbi/BMI) (Full Force) (Producers: Full Force)

A resounding dancer from these leaders of rhythm, "Can You Feel The Beat" answers its title to the unavoidable affirmative. Lisa Lisa's vocal steers this tune with melodic regularity. A club shaker for sure, "Can You Feel The Beat" can only further this act's popularity.

E.G. DAILY (A&M 2825)

Say It, Say It (4:34) (Baby Tanzi/BMI-Black Lion/ASCAP-House of Fun/BMI) (Daily-Bray-C.) (Producer: Jellybean)

This throbbing new dance tune from E.G. Daily's debut LP has mesmerizing appeal as a dance chart racer. Daily's coarse-edged vocal gives extra texture to an already attractive cut. Sure to heat up the airwaves. Look for extensive CHR attention.

BARRY MANILOW (RCA JK-14302)

He Doesn't Care (But I Do) (3:49) (DiSimone/BMI-Townsway-Tasteful-Shoo-Wops/ASCAP-Cityscape) (DiSimone-Grean) (Producers: Kevin DiSimone-Barry Manilow)

This romantic ballad features the customary Manilow crescendos and dramatic percussion. The singer's wide vocal range makes a strong showing here with absorbing tenacity. Possible CHR, AC radio appeal.

MOVELAND (RCA JB-14300)

Postcard To New York (3:19) (Charles Family-Alli Bee-I Gotta Go/BMI) (Lewis-Segeler) (Producers: Hank Medress-Lothar Segeler-Richard Lewis)

This light, breezy little tune has an airy, '60s bubble gum sound with a repetitive disco edge that smacks of Latin influences. Though mellifluous and cheery, the song lacks substance. Still, CHR might find a bouncy commercial appeal here for the airwaves.

LOU RAWLS (Epic 34-05831)

Are You With Me (3:58) (Music Corp. of America/EMI-MCA - Garden Rake/ASCAP) (Mueller-Nevil-Graydon) (Producer: Jay Graydon)

In his long career, Lou Rawls has proven his sensational voice to be one of the greats. That unrivaled style shines full on this latest offering, with a churning dance tempo and the singer's grinding, charging vocal.

ISH (Geffen 7-28760)

You're My Only Lover (3:57) (Toy Band/BMI) (Ish) (Producer: John Robie)

TEASE (Epic 34-05789)

Firestarter (4:13) (Future Shock/ASCAP) (S. Shockley) (Producer: Stephen Shockley)

BLUE OYSTER CULT (Columbia 38-05845)

Dancin' In The Ruins (3:58) (Southern-Julanne-NoInance/ASCAP) (L. Gottlieb-J. Scanlon) (Producer: Sand Pearlman)

DENNIS DE YOUNG (A&M 2816)

Call Me (4:47) (Grand Illusion adm. by Almo/ASCAP) (Dennis DeYoung) (Producer: Dennis DeYoung)

WAX (RCA JK-14306)

Right Between The Eyes (4:08) (Sluggo-Man-Ken/BMI) (A. Gold-G. Gouldman) (Producer: Phil Thornally)

PERRI (Zebra/MCA ZEB-52796)

Maybe Tomorrow (3:30) (Davo-Wind and Rain/BMI) (D. Wallace-S. Libbea-W. Davis) (Producer: Patrick Henderson)

TEN FOOT FACES (Independent Project IP017)

Don't Want Love (Tony Fernandez) (Producers: Ten Foot Faces-Vitus Matare)

TED NUGENT (Atlantic 7-89436)

Little Miss Dangerous (3:05) (Broadhead/ASCAP) (Ted Nugent) (Producers: Pete Solley-Michael Verdick-Ted Nugent)

BOURGEOIS TAGG (Island 7-99558)

Mutual Surrender (What A Wonderful World) (4:10) (Ackee-Life Size/ASCAP) (L. Tagg) (Producers: David J. Holman-Brent Bourgeois-Larry Tagg)

CHAKA KHAN (Atlantic 7-89449)

The Other Side Of The World (3:37) (Gold Horizon-Pun-Golden Torch/ASCAP—BAR adm. by Warner-Tamerlane/BMI) (Michael Rutherford-B.A. Robertson) (Producers: Arif Mardin-Robbie Buchanan)

POINTS WEST

David Adelson, Los Angeles

WELCOME HOME HITS HOME — It was billed as "Welcome Home," a benefit concert to pay tribute to, and raise money for, Vietnam Veterans. Though some local critics panned the show as unnecessarily long and unwieldy, most were touched by the emotion and sincerity of the sold out Los Angeles Forum performance. Among the guests who contributed their musical talents were: Neil Young, Robbie Kreiger, John Densmore, Chris Hillman, Wynton Marsalis, Herbie Hancock, Graham Nash, John Sebastian, Buddy Miles, and a powerful rendition of "Front Line" by surprise guest Stevie Wonder. There were numerous film and television personalities on hand to make numerous speeches that at times may have seemed unending, but the mixed crowd of veterans, non-veterans, young, and old seemed to really be moved by this genuine outpouring of affection and concern. When one speaker asked all the veterans in the arena to stand, the spontaneous reaction of the crowd was enough to assure the event's organizers that they had achieved their goal. It was a touching welcome home.

SIMMONS GETS THE FEVER

— Lonnie Simmons, president of Total Experience Records and screenwriter Demetrius Johnson are currently negotiating with Miami Vice star Phillip Michael Thomas about the actor's participation in a new Simmons' produced film, Cocaine Fever. Several years ago Thomas, then an unknown actor, starred in a film called Wack Attack. The producers and writers for that show were Lonnie Simmons and Demetrius Johnson.

MILES TO UCLA — Miles Copeland III, founder and chairman of the board of IRS Records has been slated to deliver the keynote address at UCLA's fourth annual entertainment media night on March 3. According to a release we received, Copeland "will discuss his road to success in the music industry and his thoughts on the future of the recording industry as a whole."

ROYAL TREATMENT — Last week's show by MCA's the Jets attracted a standing room only crowd to West Hollywood's Roxy. Among the guests not made to stand were Sheila E. and her escort for the evening, Prince. Apparently Prince was so impressed with the performances by the youngsters from Minneapolis that he invited the group to be an opening act for him when he begins his stadium tour this summer. According to our sources at MCA, Prince's management has already firmed up at least five stadium dates and there may be more. The Minneapolis connection continues.

HARVEY'S FREEWAY HAS NO LIMIT — Harvey Kubernik is the undisputed leader of the spoken word recording and performance in California. His Freeway Records has released numerous recordings by numerous poets and sponsored countless spoken word performances around the state. Last week, Wanda Coleman and Exene Cervenka teamed for a sold out reading at Wolfgang's in San Francisco. Now we hear Coleman will be heading for a four-week reading/poetry tour of Australia and New Zealand beginning April 5 and Cervenka will be headlining a gathering of local poets at the Lhasa Club on March 28. It seems that spoken word is finally taking off!! More info. can be had by dialing (818)909-9884.

SHORT CUTS — Top Jimmy, the infamous leader of the Rhythm Pigs (of yesteryear) and the Party Crashers (of today) may finally be putting his tunes on vinyl. It seems Los Lobos' Steve Berlin (a former Rhythm Pig, along with almost every other musician in the city) went into the studio and freshened up some tracks the Rhythm Pigs cut four and a half years ago in Los Angeles. Among the participants on the record: Berlin, D.J. Bonebrake of X, Gene Taylor (formerly of the Blasters) and the legendary Gil T. on bass. Will there be a record? Time will tell . . . At My Place in Santa Monica will be hosting Keith Carradine on March 8 . . . Look for a gala bash at the Hollywood Palladium in connection with the opening of the film Crossroads. Entertainment at the Columbia Pictures' gala will be provided by Frank Frost and Ry Cooder.

PREPARING — Freeway Records' Harvey Kubernik is shown with Wanda Coleman preparing for another spoken word performance. Coleman will be touring Australia and New Zealand next month.

NEW FACES TO WATCH

Without question, Marilyn Martin is more than grateful for the success and recognition her duet with Phil Collins, "Separate Lives" (from White Nights) has brought her. Now, however, the Atlantic Records artist is out to show that her musical range reaches beyond gentle ballads and into the realm of driving pop/rock. All one has to do is listen to her just-released self-titled debut album and its first single, "Night Moves," to realize how versatile this increasingly popular singer really is.

Martin's first taste of the entertainment industry came during her teens in Louisville, Kentucky. Cast in a series of high school plays (mostly musicals), she quickly realized how comfortable she felt on stage, how much she treasured the presence of a live audience, and especially, how much she was gravitating toward a career as a singer. After graduating, she took to the road with several different bands, eventually hooking up with Joe Walsh, who asked her to sing back-up for him on his cross-country tour.

While touring, Martin had the good fortune of meeting and impressing Kenny Loggins, who subsequently asked her to join him in the studio to record a little number called "Foot-loose." The immense popularity of that song led Martin to record not only with Loggins again (on his "Vox Humana") LP, but with Tom Petty and Stevie Nicks as well. The biggest break of all, though, occurred when Atlantic president Doug Morris heard some of Martin's compositions and vocal tracks, and soon had her signing on the dotted line to launch a solo career.

Did Martin expect "Separate Lives," a song she recorded at Morris' suggestion while assembling material for her own album, to take off as it did? "I knew it would do well by virtue of Phil's involvement," she said in a recent interview. "When we were doing the video, he came up to me and said, 'I've never thought this about any of my songs, but I really think this is going number one.'" The song did just that, and furthermore, its writer, Stephen Bishop, is nominated for an Oscar in the best original song category this year.

Regarding her newly developing image, and her new album, Martin commented, "I think aggressive is the best word to describe my style. Aggressive music with a rock edge is what I tend to like most. That's primarily the reason we came out with a rock-oriented cut like "Night Moves" as the first single, because it's exactly the sort of song I like recording most at this point. Also, we want people to know right away this isn't an album full of ballads."

The album features the production skills of some of the industry's finest, including Arif Mardin, Phil Ramone, Phil Chapman, John Astley, Gary Stevenson, John Parr and Simon Climie. Mardin served as the LP's executive producer. Martin co-wrote four of the album's 10 cuts. Although she had the chance to work with such a wide array of musical talent while putting together her album, Martin's main concern was that "it emerge as a cohesive work and I think it did. I'm particularly happy with the way it turned out."

Martin is therefore in the unusual position of establishing herself while having already topped the charts. This is a pivotal time in her career, her first chance to gauge the public's reaction to her and her alone. "I'm excited," she said. "Sure, it's a little nerve-racking, but I've managed to stay relatively calm. It's really out of my hands now. All you can do in this business is your best and just hope and pray people like what they see and hear."

Drive-Aid Rolls Into Radio City

By Paul Iorio

NEW YORK — Drive-Aid, the latest model from the assembly line of African famine relief shows, rolled into Radio City Music Hall February 20. This benefit for the Live Aid Foundation featured performances by headliners Kool and The Gang, Nils Lofgren, Michael Des Barres, the Textones, and Darlene Love. The night was capped off by the sweepstakes giveaway of a Chevrolet IROC Z28 Camaro autographed by more than 50 performers featured at Live Aid.

The show and its associated cross-promotions were organized and initiated by James T. Birchfield, senior vice-president/management supervisor for Campbell-Ewald, Chevrolet's advertising firm. "We pretty much approached Chevrolet with the idea of using their car to promote Chevrolet and continue our commitment (to famine relief)," Birchfield told Cash Box. Chevrolet, the sponsor of Drive-Aid, was one of the four original corporate sponsors of Live-Aid. (Chevrolet is also promoting upcoming national tours by Alabama and The Pointer Sisters.)

Though there was not yet a firm tally of how much money was raised by the concert, Birchfield asserts that "in terms of keeping awareness of world hunger and in generating awareness of Chevrolet, the concert was very successful."

The sweepstakes car, called "The Drive-Aid Signature Car," was won by Connecticut resident Ken Bowser. Among the signatories were Don Johnson, Mick Jagger, Keith Richards, Bette Midler, and Cher. "There are two cars actually," says Birchfield. "The car we gave away and another one we'll donate to the Live Aid Foundation and put on permanent display, signed by pretty much the same people and the same kind of car."

DRIVE AGAINST HUNGER — The "Drive Aid Signature Car," a Chevrolet IROC Z28 Camaro, was signed by more than 50 performers and was given away Feb. 20th at Drive-Aid.

Cover Story

Anne Murray: Reaching Out Beyond Her Country Borders

By Peter Berk

LOS ANGELES — In a musical stream of consciousness, it's understandable for thoughts of Anne Murray to flow to thoughts of gentle country ballads. After all, it's exactly that kind of song which has made her internationally famous, and helped her garner four Grammy Awards; 22 Canadian Juno Awards; three American Music Awards; three Country Music Association Awards; two gold singles; nine gold and three platinum albums. Now, however, with the release of her latest album, the appropriately titled "Something To Talk About" (on Capitol), Murray is clearly singing a new tune and marching to a different drummer.

This is not to suggest Murray's new LP represents her first stab at heavy metal or that we're about to see this sophisticated, laid-back performer suddenly decked out in leather and screaming over crazed guitar licks. Instead, Murray is, more than ever before, out to firmly establish herself as a formidable force in the realm of pop music, while still holding on to her countless country music fans. Of course, many of her biggest songs over the years have had substantial pop success, but "Something To Talk About" and its just-released first single, "Now And Forever (You And Me)," definitely reveal a facet of her range and talent we've seldom had the chance to hear before. Obviously, Anne Murray is a singer who's just as at ease with the upcoming dynamics of a pop/rock song as she is with the lush strains of a country ballad.

Over the last fifteen years, Murray has weaved together a string of hits which have consistently showcased her unusually rich, hypnotically penetrating vocal style. Tunes such as "Snowbird," "Daydream Believer," "You Needed Me," "Love Song," and "Another Sleepless Night" have come to typify the warm, expressive Murray sound. There's no question, the saga of this Canadian-born performer's rise to the top has been one of the industry's most impressive success stories. Yet, despite the accolades and admiration she's earned over the years, Murray has for some time felt ready to be free of the shackles which have bound her creatively. For that reason, "Something To Talk About" is, in many ways, her most significant and heartfelt musical and personal statement yet.

"I've had this album in me for five years," Murray told Cash Box last week. "I could have recorded it a lot earlier, and in a sense, I wish I had, but I was getting great material and enjoying hit records. You don't look a gift horse in the mouth."

Nevertheless, Murray recalled, she recently knew the right time in her career had come to tread on new musical terrain. While incredibly grateful for the good fortune her familiar musical identity had brought her, she realized recording this album "was not only something I wanted to do, but something I had to do."

For Murray, therefore, this is probably the most exciting time in her career to date. "When I first started," she remarked. "I really didn't think about my style as much and I just sang the songs. Soon after, though, I wanted to do everything to reach out more. I found my identity had quickly been established as a singer of middle-of-the-road songs. I certainly have no complaints, but over the last five years, I've felt some fundamental changes in my career have been happening too slowly. I just had to break out of that pattern. Now, everything is really falling into place perfectly."

Arguably, country music listeners are particularly protective of their artists, always on the lookout for those who may compromise the integrity of the genre. Mindful of that, Murray skillfully blended both country and pop influences on her new album, without shortchanging either style. Commenting on this, she said, "A lot of people thought I was taking a risk with this album, but I didn't feel that way for a second. What kind of risk is it? The lyrics are clear, the music is good . . . my fans know I would never turn in an entirely new musical direction. I just wanted to record songs which are a little more contemporary, a little more danceable, and I think my fans support me. So far, the letters I've received about the new album are entirely favorable."

Capitol is also more than supportive of Murray in her quest to conquer new artistic frontiers. The label, which she's been with almost from the beginning of her career, is pushing "Something To Talk About" with an all-out assault on the country, CHR and A/C fronts. A video version of "Now And Forever" is in release, and Murray is highly optimistic it and the song will catch on with the public. The tune was co-written, performed and produced by the ubiquitous David Foster, who produced several of the tracks on the album, as did Jack White and Keith Diamond. For Murray, though, the biggest hurdle is behind her and the ultimate test has already been passed, as she proudly mentioned. "This is the first recording of mine that my kids (ages seven and nine) have been really interested in. That really makes me feel good about this album. That's worth more to me than all the fan letters in the world."

EAST COASTINGS

Paul Iorio, New York

CUE UP THE Q's — Stop what you're doing and put on the song "Pretty On The Inside" from The Swimming Pool Q's just released "Blue Tomorrow" (A&M) LP. CHR in a perfect world, huh? But where we all reside, AOR is more the reality. "Where I reside, it's pretty on the inside." Anne Richmond Boston sings in her effortless falsetto. Boston and her bandmates live in Atlanta, Ga. where for eight years they've been releasing quality albums that have earned them a well-deserved cult following. But mass market success has eluded them, though their new album and the song "Pretty On The Inside" might well break them through to a much wider audience. An audience, in fact, as wide as the Atlantic Ocean: "Pretty On The Inside" has been released as a single in Britain. International success was not always imminent for the Q's. The first time I saw them play was in 1978 at a liquor store turned rock club called The Buffalo Roadhouse in Tampa, Fl. They were punkish back then and songwriter/vocalist Jeff Calder did most of the singing. Today, however, the Q's resemble no band so much as X, with Boston and Calder trading vocals like a folkish John Doe and Exene Cervenka. "More like Tammy Wynette and George Jones," insists Boston. "I'm a real country music fan." Still, "Blue Tomorrow" doesn't sound country. The LP's rock is alternately pretty ("More Than One Heaven") and fierce ("Corruption"), giving it the texture and range of a Fleetwood Mac album. Boston, who did a duet with Marti Jones on Jones' "Unsophisticated Time" LP, says that she may sing on Jones' upcoming album as well. Is a Boston/Jones LP in the works? "That would be great," says Boston. "That would be a blast. It's so much fun singing with someone (like Jones) who has a real awareness of vocal harmonies."

THEY'RE FROM ATLANTA — The Swimming Pool Q's have just released a new album called "Blue Tomorrow" (A&M).

THE FINE YOUNG CANNIBALS AT THE RITZ (2/24) — Is Roland Gift the Belafonte/Redding of the '80s? We won't know until he 1) gets himself a new backing band that swings, and 2) plays a set that's longer than 40 minutes.

MEANWHILE, HARRY BELAFONTE — is considering a run for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Alfonse D'Amato.

FRANK ZAPPA ON THE POGUES — "I saw a group on MTV last night that was really terrific. I don't know if they'll ever make another record again but they were called The Pogues. I thought that 'Dirty Old Town' was a great song." — as reported in Cash Box, 11/23/85. Now with MCA distributing The Pogues' magnificent "Rum, Sodomy and The Lash" in the U.S., this band is going to hit like a lead zeppelin.

JACK SONNI ON SUDDENLY BECOMING A GUITARIST FOR DIRE STRAITS AFTER SLAVING FOR YEARS IN A GUITAR SHOP — "I was working at a guitar store named Rudy's on 48th Street (NY). I met Mark Knopfler just around the time they were finishing up 'Making Movies.' Mark would drop by and we just started hanging around a lot. He called me some time later and said hey we're making some changes and would you like to come play with us. What do you do when your dreams start coming true? The Dire Straits' gig in Chicago was probably the one that really signalled our rise up the charts in the States. We broke house records in Chicago and there were traffic jams for about 10 miles and the vibe was so high it was great. That's when we got the sense that yeah it was going to happen. I think the guitar thing that happens between us onstage is really nice. We haven't even had the chance to scratch the surface of it in a lot of ways. I'm hoping we'll have a chance to explore some of that possibility in the future. I gave up my apartment, I'm not married, I don't have anything else to do."

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN— Rolling Stones Keith Richards and Ron Wood recently surprised CBS Records International executives with a visit to discuss their upcoming debut on CBS. Pictured l-r: Tom Tyrell, sr. vp, admin., CBS Int'l; Wood; Richards; and Bunny Freidus, vp, creative operations, CBS Int'l. The Stones' "Dirty Work" LP will ship March 20.

SHORT TAKES — Jimmy Glenn, tour coordinator for The Fat Boys (Sutra), is presently in Hollywood as a consultant and co-writer of The Fat Boys' next movie . . . British comedian Nigel Planer has hit top five on the English charts with a remake of the half-forgotten Dave Mason-penned Traffic tune "Hole In My Shoe" from his "Heavy Concept Album" (Atlantic) . . . The Four Tops are set to release a new album tentatively titled "Indestructible" (Motown) . . . Def Jam/Columbia recording group The Beastie Boys fulfilled a "life long dream" by appearing on WOR-NY's Joe Franklin Show.

I Saw, I Heard, I Understood!

By Jimi Fox

LOS ANGELES — This is my ninth rewrite on the very successful "Gavin Media Professionals Seminar." Time and time again I've attempted to extend in various approaches, numerous writing styles and in the most sincerest form, the accolades to describe, commend, praise, approve, compliment, applaud, hail, extol and eulogize this most moving event. Unfortunately, with every sincere effort I found myself ripping out and crumbling up that page in frustration because it fell short of saying what was in my heart. It just did not do this monumental event justice. For that I am truly sorry. However the next best thing that I can do is to tell you, just what I saw!

I saw, the elegant Fairmont Hotel buried deep in tradition, with doormen, bellmen, maids, butlers scurrying about in traditional attire, assuring that every detail that made this historic hotel (a prestigious elegant landmark in San Francisco, renowned and esteemed the world over) the perfect setting for the "Gavin Media Professionals Seminar," and I saw more! I saw plush drapery, elegant carpeting, Corinthian columns, Florentine mirrors, courtyards, fountains, a half-dozen restaurants, equally as many cocktail lounges, specialty shops, a flower stand, a pharmacy, a bank, endless rooms for banquets and conventions and I saw more!

I saw the Gavin Staff, hard at work, to assure that every element of the national seminar was a success: Jerry Boulding, Elma Greer, Better Hollars, Eric Norberg, Diane Rufer, Dodie Shoemaker, Lisa Smith, Peter Standish, Keith Zimmerman, Kent Zimmerman. And I saw more! I saw Dave Sholin, the consummate director by nature, setting the stage, leading the attendees from one event to the next, introducing the individuals who would in turn introduce the guest speakers. He was conductor of the Superbowl of Rock Trivia, the "Ring Master," if you please. The adhesive that made every transition professionally perfect. And I saw more! I saw Mrs. Bill Gavin, charming and beaming with pride. I saw Ron Fell, publisher of the Gavin Report, who's surface cool, sincere, suave, serenity set the tone of stability for the seminar—always cautiously controlled and yet orchestratively maneuvering every detail with unyielding perfection. Leadership at its optimum. And I saw more!

I saw, conspicuously planted in front of the hotel lobby entrance, the permanent position he holds at every industry function, Billy Brill — the unofficial official greeter. I saw Bob Hamilton, Nick Bazoo, The Galliani Brothers, Barry Mayo, MaryLou Badeaux, Harold Childs, Duff Lindsey, Bob Harlow, Don Anti, Dana Jang, Margo Knesz, Betty & Tom Brennemen, Don Benson, Jhani Kaye, Bobby Rich, Wally Clark, Marc Ratner, Steve Resnick, Marvin Robinson, Kenny Ryback, Sunny Joe White, Tony Muscola, Mike Shaefer, Jeff Trager, Dan Vallie — all mingling amongst 800 strong. They were all exchanging and sharing ideas — all pontificating beliefs and ideals to strengthen our industries: radio and records. They were all forging forward, observing, absorbing, appealing with action, reaction and attraction for the "Betterment of Broadcasting!" Yet I saw more.

I saw the broadcasting industries most loved voice, humorist, and all around entertainer, Gary Owens. We all sat prepared for his infamous opening, "We just received word . . ." followed with a mixed volley of name dropping and endless amounts of fractured humor that disappointed no one. Even the waiters, waitresses and additional help were laughing. The power of his humor reflects his radio roots. They are our roots, which in-turn makes him very special to each and everyone of us. And I saw more! I saw an honorable industry honor those who had reached out, stood up, put forth and give of themselves, for the "betterment of broadcasting." It was more than just a plaque they received. It was the warmth, love, approving applause and profound pride that reflected from that awards presentation and the peers gathered. Yet I saw more!

I saw a line-up of guest speakers that staggered the mind. Beginning with writer, poet, correspondent and the seminar's keynote speaker, Charles Osgood. Osgood reached, touched and focused our attention on how lucky we are to be in this industry. What a great honor it is for us to create a vision, confined only by the borders of listeners' minds. He made us acutely aware of our individual responsibility to our listeners: to inform, to entertain, and to care. You're so right Mr. Osgood, we will "See You On The Radio!" Yes, I did see more! I saw Ken Kragen reach out and share a program to end this country's own hunger and homeless situation. A project that will climax May 25 with millions of hands reaching across America in an unprecedented participatory event to raise millions for this cause. I saw Charles Garfield, consultant, researcher and writer speak about "Peak Performance," positive attitudes, reducing job stress, improving human performance, preventing job burnout. And I saw more! I saw Dr. Oren Harari, lecturer, trainer and consultant, addressing the issue of better people management. I saw Stan Cornyn, senior V.P., Record Group, Warner Communications, discuss his topic of adding video and computer control to compact audio (CD) disc in a talk titled: "Eat or Be Eaten." And I saw more!

I saw format seminars — Top 40, A/C, Country and Black Contemporary. Here, on the battle front of "Air Warfare," ideas and philosophy were questioned and addressed. Here, where Guy Zapoleon stressed localized research, where the chart game was discussed openly and loudly. Here where Ernie Singleton spoke with the wisdom of a thousand geniuses — strong, firm and committed. Yet I saw more!

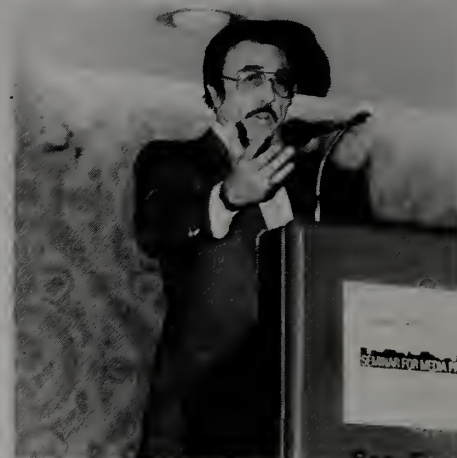

I saw Howie Klein lead yet another charge to find answers to present new ideas and struggle to carve a new direction that will shape and mold tomorrow.

Finally, I saw the spirit of Bill Gavin. I saw the dream he created. I saw the principals on which the Gavin Report, the record industry, the radio industry became his foundation. I saw, in the eyes of the endless stream of individuals at this seminar, the love, care, compassion, and the desire to improve, contribute and participate the way Bill Gavin so earnestly strived for. I saw an industry gathering in its finest hour. Yes, I saw, I heard, I understood and I WAS PROUD!

BROADCASTING BONANZA BY THE BAY — Here we are folks at the "Gavin Seminar for Media Professionals." Although right up to the day of this media event, the rains and flooding in and around San Francisco have been the worst, I just knew that Bill Gavin would not allow anything to dampen this great media gathering. Talk about clout with the rain gods, I can only reflect on the words of the tune that simply say, "Don't mess with Bill" . . . Let's begin with a CASH BOX congratulations and the tip of the black silk-top hat to the industry award winners. Roll that Scroll! With an eye to the future — alternative college promotion director category — National: Jack Isquith, PolyGram; — album promotional director, national: Paul Rappaport, Columbia; — Black contemporary promotional director, national: Skip Miller, Motown; regional: Vaughn Thomas, Arlsta; country promotional director, national: Paul Lovelace, Capitol/EMI; regional: Dale Turner, RCA; — adult contemporary promotion director, national: Shella Chlanda, Columbia; — Top 40 promotional director, national: Charlie Minor, A&M; regional: Sue Brett, Warner Bros.; small market station of the year: WZEE, Madison; small market PD: Jonathan Little, WZEE; small market MD: Bruce Stevens, WBBQ Augusta; — alternative station of the year: KCGL, Salt Lake City; alternative station PD: Del Williams, KCGL; same category MD: Jlm Keller, KJET, Seattle; album station of the year: WBCN, Boston; album station PD: Oedipus, WBCN; MD: Bob Krane, WBCN. Almost a clean sweep here, however air talent in this category went to John DeBella, WMMR, Philadelphia. Black contemporary station of the year: WRKS-FM, New York; black contemporary PD: Lee Michaels, WGCI, Chicago; MD: Terry Avery, KKDA Dallas; air talent: Tom Joyner, KKDA. In the country station of the year category: WBAP, Fort Worth-Dallas; PD: Larry Danels, KNIX, Phoenix; MD: Joe Ladd, KIKK, Houston; air talent: Coyote Calhoun, WAMZ Louisville; adult contemporary station of the year: KVIL, Dallas; PD: Ric Lippincott, KYUU, San Francisco; MD: Liz Kiley, KOST, Los Angeles; air talent: Ron Chapman, KVIL. Finally in the Top 40 station category of the year, a new sweep. Station accolades went to KIIS-FM, Los Angeles; PD: Gerry De Francesco, KIIS-FM; MD: Keith Naftaly, KMEL, San Francisco; air talent: Rick Dees, KIIS-FM . . . A few words about young Keith Naftaly's acceptance of his award and the sincere, raw emotional appreciation he displayed. All of us in that room understood that emotion and you reflected the pride and respect we all have for every accomplishment of every individual in our industry. Keith "you done good!" A special Cash Box congratulations is extended to Guy Zapoleon, PD, KZZP, Phoenix, who after an exasperating, struggling, fingernail biting, fist clinching and brain scanning session, scored high to become the triumphant victor in the "Superbowl of Rock Trivia Event." Guy is on his way to Hawaii to enjoy the fruits of his outstanding performance . . . What's this? . . . the phone is interrupting my roll. "Hello, Hi Pat, What's the haps? What? Surely you jest? Are you serious? . . . Well, frankly it doesn't really surprise me. Okay, I'll speak to you later." (click). Sports Fans, hear ye' to a grin-and-bare-it flash from the Southland. Brian Roberts joins KKHR, Los Angeles. How appropriate, "Ashes to Ashes." Meanwhile back in "The City," Epic and Columbia should be real proud of both Polly Anthony and George Chaltas, who together orchestrated one of the classiest, impressive and superb parties I've witnessed at any convention. The setting was perfect (the Fairmont private penthouse) and the atmosphere was perfect for this star studded event. The evening weather was unimaginable for the time of the year. The breath-taking vista of "The City" was awesome. The food, well the food was at the very least, corruptable. If you were a student of the "Class of Calorie Counting," the display of divine delicious delights were DEADLY! I personally was amazed to see no stand-by paramedics. It's been a great experience. Thank you Gavin Report. Thank you Records. Thank you Radio and thank you Bill Gavin, wherever you are.

THE BEAT

Bob Long, Los Angeles

DANIELS PRO-BLACK, NOT ANTI-WHITE — During a conversation with C. Erwin Daniels, program director of highly rated KDKS radio in Shreveport, Louisiana, he talked about the musical direction of his station. He is not "anti-white," but "pro-black," he said. Meaning, he is giving black artists like Clarence Carter, William Bell, etc. an opportunity to be heard, because in mere numbers alone (stations), black artists simply don't have the outlets for exposure of their music. He went on to say that whites who turn to black stations, are not turning there to hear one or two of the top white artists, but to hear the music of a black artist. They may listen with the windows rolled up, but they are listening to black music. The term "disco", in the past, and urban today, has afforded whites an opportunity to listen to black music without being identified with listening to black music. Anyway you categorize it the fact remains that it is black music. "Think about the number of white artists who have admitted they grew up listening to and imitating many black artists" he noted. "Therefore, why should I make an effort to play the music of imitators when I can play the originators."

STARS TRIBUTE TO HAWKINS — Tau-rean Blacque of Hill Street Blues (l) joined Dionne Warwick and Howard McCrary at a tribute to L.A. Congressman Augustus Hawkins, sponsored by the L.A. Urban League and West Angeles Church.

TONY Q IS OUT — Word from the Big Apple is that Tony Q is no longer holding down programming chores at the highly successful WEKS (KISS) radio in New York. We heard that Tony has been ill.

JONES TO POLYGRAM — Waymon Jones has reportedly inked a very lucrative contract to take on the national promotional duties at PolyGram. It had been widely circulated that Jones would be taking his talents to Manhattan Records.

L.A. AIRWAVES — KJLH Radio has brought back veteran broadcasters Levi Booker and Doug Gilmore to the airwaves. You can rest assured that industry-wise veteran Jim Maddox (G.M) and Cliff Winston (P.D.) are sitting on top of any and all happenings in the marketplace. Pam Robinson (P.D.) at KACE has returned to work after an illness and is ready for the radio wars. Kevin Fleming (P.D.) at KGFJ continues his successful programming of the "strong songs." Greg Mack (M.D.) at KDAY continues to enjoy enormous success with a stronghold on the teen listeners. KPWR seems to be looking for the right combination of announcers. Will there be any black announcers on the staff? Will they finally align themselves as CHR or black or will they continue to avoid the clear definition of their CHR/Black format?

INDUSTRY UPDATES — Kool & The Gang has recorded its first Television theme song. It's for Redd Foxx's new ABC-TV series — The Redd Foxx Show. It's reported that Foxx liked the tune so much he wore a Kool & The Gang tour jacket on the first episode. . . In Los Angeles at Larrabee Sound Studios, Rockwell, O'Bryan, and Five Star have been re-mixing/tracking future singles. Also Louil Silas, Jr., Taavi Mote and Toni Greene were in working on future MCA releases such as Ready For The World, The Jets and Stephanie Mills . . . across town at the Capitol Studios, George Benson is working with producer Tommy Li Puma for Warner Bros. Li Puma is also tracking with Miles Davis on his debut LP for Warners. WLLE — Within the last few weeks a lot of programmers nationwide are jumping on a single titled, "Party Freak." One of the first stations who reported it as soon as the trades called was none other than WLLE. Reason being is that Tim Greene who does weekend drive at the station wrote the song, and producer Larry Blackmon of Cameo produced it. Be on the lookout for two future acts that Greene has under his wing, The Icey Girls and Lady Krush.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS — Street-Beat which is heard in several markets across America will have Yarbrough and Peoples and Whitney Houston as guests for the March 7th show. Also there will be special features on Lushus Daim, James Brown, and The Force MD's . . . Speaking of Yarbrough and Peoples, they will be opening for "The Godfather of Soul" James Brown at the Universal Amphitheatre March 8th.

Delilah Films: Quality 'Rockumentaries' On Subjects That Matter

By Paul Iorio

NEW YORK — There was an old movie on TV the other night about a jewel counterfeiter so accustomed to fake gems that when someone offered him a bona fide diamond, he refused it. Like that counterfeiter, we have become so used to bogus gems that when the real thing comes along, we are unprepared; we mistake it for a fake.

Stephanie Bennett's diamonds are real. Her company, Delilah Films, makes rock documentaries ("rockumentaries," in her coinage) of unusually high quality and on subjects that matter. Her first rockumentary, The Compleat Beatles (1981), did the impossible by providing a fresh take on a worn but worthy subject. The Compleat Beatles chronicles the band's rise from its early Cavern and skiffle days, through dizzying Stateside mania, to the Beatles' disillusionment with their later fame.

"The other side of the Beatles' success is that they became captive," says Bennett. "You can't go out in public without being recognized. You can't live the life of a normal person because people no longer see you as a normal person. You are superhuman, an idol. All you see (on tour) is the inside of one hotel room after another."

Following the resounding success of that documentary, Bennett was commissioned by MGM/UA to produce three additional films: Girl Groups: The Story Of A Sound; Cool Cats: 25 Years Of Rock N Roll Style; and Screen Dreams: The Hollywood Pin-Up. Girl Groups focused on the early-sixties female vocalists groomed for stardom by image-making entrepreneurs like Berry Gordy.

Her seventh and latest project is Women In Rock, an outgrowth of Girl Groups. It portrays the difficulties many female musicians have had in getting taken seriously by record labels. "For example, when Kim Carnes was trying to get a record deal," says Bennett, "they said 'we already have a female artist' — meaning that we only have one on the label and that was their token . . . Brenda Lee was saying to me that the reason there are so many women singers on labels (today) is that women make up the majority of the record buying public." The documentary will feature footage of Grace Slick, Janis Joplin, and others, and will include an Aretha Franklin/Annie Lennox duet. "We also have Cher singing 'I Got You Babe' with Sonny Bono and we have Chrissie Hynde singing it with UB40," she says, pointing up the multi-generational contrast she's striving for.

The two upcoming documentaries she's most excited about are rockumentaries on Chuck Berry and Janis Joplin. Bennett has just bought the rights to the Janis Joplin story. Though the format of that film has not been firmed up, there are definite plans that include Joplin performance footage, simulated dramatizations, and 'talking heads' comments from people who knew Joplin. "We're still developing it at this point," says Bennett. "It could be a vehicle for a major star playing the part of Janis."

The Chuck Berry film will be released before the Joplin one, with shooting scheduled for May. Bennett is modeling the Berry film after Martin Scorsese's The Last Waltz, and to that end she has made Robbie Robertson her creative consultant.

Among the other gems that Bennett has conceived and produced are Blue Suede Shoes: A Rockabilly Session, Car Crazy, and The Everly Brothers Rock 'N Roll Odyssey. Bennett actually glows when she talks about the latter concert film saying: "It was truly a reunion in that they had not played together for 13 years. One had the sense of something really happening that was part of rock 'n roll history." Most critics and rock film cognoscenti agree that rock is richer for Bennett's work and so are we all. Except for, perhaps, the counterfeiter.

Q&A WITH Q&E — Grammy Award winner Quincy Jones talks to Ed Bradley in a recent interview titled "His Friends Call Him Q" a profile of the musician/composer/record and film producer broadcast on the CBS news magazine 60 Minutes.

'Hands Across America' Song Will Have Its Day After All

By Peter Berk

LOS ANGELES — Despite recent uncertainties regarding its fate, the song written specially for USA For Africa's upcoming "Hands Across America" charity event will be recorded and released after all. Furthermore, the tune, written by Marc Blatte, John Carney and Larry Gottlieb, will be featured prominently when "Hands Across America" takes place May 25. According to current plans, participants in the upcoming coast-to-coast hand-holding event (designed to raise money for America's homeless and hungry) will perform the tune, as well as "We Are The World" and "America The Beautiful."

When USA For Africa's president Ken Kragen originally told reporters about the newly-penned "Hands" theme at a press conference several weeks ago, he clearly had no idea what a Pandora's box had been opened up. Soon after, however, when the new song was replaced at the last minute by "We Are The World" in a promotional video for "Hands" airing during the Super Bowl, it was evident there definitely was a problem.

Responding to the many queries about the sudden substitution, Kragen at the time said he had decided it was still too early to unveil the new tune, fearing it would peak before May 25. Many, though, suggested Michael Jackson, co-writer of "We Are The World," had actually been responsible for holding back the new theme, feeling the original USA For Africa anthem should remain in the forefront of all the organization's activities. It was also felt by some that this debate over the two songs helped forge the recent rift between Kragen and Lionel Richie (one of his management clients and the other co-writer of "We Are The World"), who supposedly supported Jackson's stance.

Now, however, Kragen and Richie have resumed their working relationship, and the powers that be at USA For Africa have decided to go ahead with the imminent release of a "Hands" single. As of now, the tune is set to be recorded by 'Voices Of America,' a group of non-celebrity singers being assembled for this project. Tentative plans call for Blatte, his partner Rich Look, and Quincy Jones to produce the single, which should be released commercially by the end of March. No record label has as yet been selected to handle the "Hands Across America" theme.

SETTING STANDARD — Norbert Putnam (r) recently opened Standard Studio Systems in Nashville. Here he poses with Graeme Goodall, southern regional manager, Sony Professional Audio Division; Standard is equipped with two Sony PCM-3324 digital recorders. That's a non-state-of-the-art Edison phonograph in Putnam's hand.

FEATURE PICKS

DIALECTS — Zawinul — Columbia FC 40081 — Producer: Joe Zawinul — List: none — Bar Coded

Joe Zawinul has been stripping down his sound for years now — this LP of "music for solo synthesizer and voices" is a minimalist effort that is sneaky and attractive. The sound sweeps you away — it is rife with various world rhythms (or "dialects," if you will) and it is often underpinned by a gentle funkiness; it is also unusually melodic and bright.

BASS DESIRES — Marc Johnson — ECM 25040-1 — Producer: Manfred Eicher — List: 9.98 — Bar Coded Bassist Marc Johnson — the young veteran of the bands of Bill Evans, Mel Lewis, Woody Herman, etc. — here steps out with three talented, compatible peers: John Scofield, Bill Frisell, and Peter Erskine. A solid, elegant effort that is fresh and swinging in a gentle, wistful way. A sound conscious, but not overly-ethereal, LP, and oh those guitars.

OLD ACQUAINTANCE — Conte Candoli with Phil Woods — Pausa 7189 — Producers: Tal-San Music — List: 8.98

A pair of bebop veterans — trumpeter Candoli, a West Coast hound, and reedman Woods, an East Coast hound — in an easy-going wise effort waxed on the trumpeter's turf: Charlie and Sandi Shoemake, Monty Budgwig, Bill Goodwin (Woods' man), and Terry Trotter make up the ensemble. Good, breezy, tasty blowing — it's nice to hear Conte Candoli stretch his lips. This "Old Acquaintance" won't soon be forgot.

HERITAGE — Alvin "Red" Tyler — Rounder 2047 — Producer: Scot Billington — List: 8.98

An LP for those who think New Orleans jazz begins and ends at Preservation Hall. Tyler is a tenor sax veteran in a distinctively post-bop mode, and he leads a like-minded ensemble (David Tokanowsky, Clyde Kerr, Jr., James Singleton, Johnny Vidacovich, and, for one vocal each, Johnny Adams and Germaine Bazzle) through a confident, fresh LP.

ON JAZZ

Lee Jeske, New York

RUBLE MY DEAR — The Ganelin Trio, the dazzling avant-garde jazz unit that has made some sparkling albums for Leo Records, the English label that documents the jazz styles of Eastern Europe, will finally tour stateside. Pianist Vyacheslav Ganelin, percussionist Vladimir Rarasoc, and multi-hornman Vladimir Chekasin will hit the American road June 20 — ironically, just about the time most American jazz musicians are heading for Europe — and will tour in the U.S. and Canada until July 12. John Ballard, a Jackson Hole, Wyoming-based promoter, has, according to the New York Times, ironed out the details with Goskontsert, the Soviet cultural agency, and has already scheduled stops in New York, Washington, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Vancouver, Edmonton, Toronto, and Montreal. The Ganelin trio, judging by the records, are a unique, exciting, wide-ranging ensemble and I look forward to the chance to hear them live. This will, by the way, be the first major jazz tour by a band from the Soviet Union and I'm sure the Ganelins will be exporting several tons of current jazz LPs back home.

FANTASYLAND — One place the Ganelin Trio might start shopping, if they want good value for their rubles, is in the jazz reissue section, where they will find 30 newly-minted Original Jazz Classics — $5.98 reissues from the many labels that make up the Fantasy family. As always, this set of OJCs is mind-boggling in its range — from acknowledged jazz masterpieces to delectable odd-ball items — though it's a definite treasure trove for fans of the tenor sax and, to a lesser degree, the guitar. Just out are Gene Ammons' "Jammin' With Gene," Tadd Dameron's "Mating Call" (featuring some superb John Coltrane), Miles Davis' "Walking," Sonny Rollins' "Rollins Plays for Bird," Phil Woods and Gene Quill's "Phil & Quill with Prestige," Jimmy Raney and Kenny Burrell's "Two Guitars," King Pleasure Sings/Annie Ross Sings, Eddie "Lockjaw" Davis' "Jaws," Arnet Cobb's "Party Time" (oh, do I love this one), Willis Jackson's "Cool Gator," Etta Jones' "Something Nice," Jack McDuff's "The Honeydripper," Pat Martino's "Strings!," "The Red Garland Trio," "Coleman Hawkins All Stars," Benny Golson's "Groovin' With Golson," "Meet Oliver Nelson," Zoot Sims' "Zoot," Clark Terry's "Duke with a Difference," Philly Joe Jones' "Blues for Dracula," Thelonious Monk's essential "Thelonious Alone in San Francisco," George Russell's "Stratusphunk," Wes Montgomery's "So Much Guitar!" Milt Jackson and Wes Montgomery's "Bags Meets Wes!" Vince Guaraldi's "A Flower Is A Lovely Thing," Dave Brubeck's "Near-Myth," Charles Mingus' "Right Now: Live at the Jazz Workshop," Barney Kessel's "Kessel Plays Standards," Buddy Collette's "Man of Many Parts," and "Shelly Manne and His Friends, Vol. 1." Good Listening!

BESTILL MY HART — Jazz drummer Billy Hart (r) stopped by BMI's New York headquarters and officially joined the performing rights organization. Hart recently released "Oshumare," (Gramavision Records). Pictured here welcoming Hart is Brian McLaughlin, BMI writer/publisher relations, jazz.

THE TIME OF MARCH — Springtime is upon us, and the jazz series' and festivals are starting to bloom. The Boston Globe Jazz & Heritage Festival will alight at various Hub venues, March 13-23. On the slate are Rebecca Parris & friends (3/13), Glenn Miller Orchestra/Vince Giordano and the Nighthawks (3/14), a seminar, hosted by Dan Morgenstern, on "The Basie Legacy: Past, Present and Future" (3/15), The Count Basie Orchestra and guests (3/15), Nina Simone/Freddie Hubbard (3/16), "A Feast of Irish Music and Laughter" (??? — 3/17), Keith Jarrett (3/18), the Olympia Brass Band (3/19), Mel Torme and George Shearing (3/19), Claude Bolling and Larry Coryell (3/20), Miles Davis/Michael Franks (3/21), B.B. King/Natalie Cole (??? — 3/22), and Joan Baez (??? — 3/23).

Lehman Center for the Performing Arts, at Lehman College in the Bronx, hosts "Jazz America," March 1-22. That line-up includes Billy Taylor (free 3/13), Ray Varretto/Chico Mendoza/Junior Vega (free, 3/14), a recreation of Paul Whiteman's Aeolian Hall Concert (3/15), and Miles Davis (3/22). A call to (212) 960-8833 gets details.

Farther afield, Regio Emilia, Italy will host the Willem Breuker Kollektief (3/11), Joachim Kuhn (3/17), Gary Burton (4/5), Rita Marcotulli and Andrea Pozza in an "Homage to Bill Evans" (4/8), and Oscar Peterson (4/17).

Closer to home, Newark's WBGO-FM is hosting concerts at Newark Symphony Hall that may qualify as the jazz bargain of the year. An eight dollar advance ticket gets you in for a double-header (each band'll do two sets), free dinner (free dinner!!), and a free drink. Already booked are Gloria Coleman/Tania Marla (3/7), Abdullah Ibrahim/Rudy Walker (3/24), Irene Reid/Earl May (3/21), Jimmy Heath/Chris White (3/28), Frank Foster/TBA (4/4), and Woody Shaw/Horizon Quintet (4/11). Call (201) 643-4550 for details. Imagine, free dinner!

BOPPING AROUND — Benny Goodman — Let's Dance — A Music Tribute, which was written about in this space when it taped some months ago, will finally air in March. Look for it during your local PBS fundraiser.

SHOP TALK

Stephen Padgett, Los Angeles

RAMBIS PLUS — Shown here signing autographs and chatting with Music Plus customers, is Los Angeles Laker basketball star Kurt Rambis. Rambis was visiting the Torrance, CA Music Plus store in support of the recently released video, Return To Glory, which features highlights of the 1985 playoffs and championship series.

NARM COUNTDOWN — Well, the 28th Annual NARM Convention is only a week away, and temperatures are rising among retailers and manufacturers about as quickly as is L.A.'s. The yearly blowout will be attended by perhaps more people than any other NARM Convention, partly due to a $25 "Store Managers Special." The special $25 registration fee enables companies on the west coast, and in other areas, to send managers and other store personnel to a wide range of convention activities. The "Store Managers Special" program extends from 8 a.m. on Sunday, March 9 through 5 p.m. on Monday, March 10. Included are breakfasts and luncheons, the exciting exhibit show-room, four seminars geared to their interests, a special store managers bash at Tower Records and a "Boogie Independent" concert/dance party. Dialing 609-424-7404 gets Pam Cohen and all the details. THE MESSAGE CENTER. You don't have to be out of touch just because you are out of town. Your office can reach you with your important messages during the convention by calling the NARM Message Center. The numbers are 213-551-3200 and 213-551-3201.

CONTINENTAL KID VID — Continental Video is offering distributors and retailers a unique, eye-appealing pre-pack of 10 cartoon titles from its Cinema Kid line for counter display and impulse buying, all titles priced at $9.95. "We've tried to be most helpful to distributors in selecting this assortment of 10 cartoons," said Jim Silverman, president of the Los Angeles-based video cassette marketer. Included in the package are several volumes of Speed Racer and Cartoon Classics videos. For further info, contact Jim Silverman at 213-477-8055.

COUNTRY JOE IN NEW VENTURE — The legendary protest singer of the '60s, who made singing four letter words so fun, Country Joe McDonald is back in the limelight it seems. Just last week, he organized a huge "welcome back" concert for Vietnam Vets in Los Angeles. In addition to that, via his Rag Baby Records, he continues to release "Tape Talk," an audio tape magazine. Volume #4 of "Tape Talk" devotes one side to "The Music Of Vietnam Veterans" while another side focuses on "Women's Music." McDonald describes the format as similar to TV's Evening Magazine. They are like feature stories for the ears. For info on Rag Baby and "Tape Talk" write to Rag Baby Records, Box 3316, San Francisco, CA 94119.

CLASSICAL REVIEWS

THE GLENN GOULD LEGACY-VOL. 2 — Glenn Gould — CBS Masterworks M3 39036 — Producer: Howard Scott — No List

A wonderful collection of re-engineered and remastered performances in an attractive three-record box-set. Gould's classic performances of Beethoven's First and Second Piano Concerti, and works by Mozart and Haydn, sound better than ever. Should be a steady seller on both LP and cassette.

SAINT-SAENS: "ORGAN" SYMPHONY NO. 3 — Jean Guillou/Edo de Waart/San Francisco Symphony — Philips 412 619-1,-2,-4 — Producer: not listed — List (LP or MC): 10.98

French master organist Jean Guillou goes wild, playing the new Ruffatti 7,373-pipe organ like a sharp sword. This rendition of the famous "Organ" Symphony is highly dramatic, with a beautiful range to match. An audiophile's dream come true.

CHOPIN PIANO CONC. NO. 2/SCHUMANN PIANO CONCERTO — Andras Schiff/Antal Dorati/Concertgebouw Orchestra — London 411 942-1,-4 — Producer: Michael Haas — List: 10.98 — Bar Coded

A beautiful reading of two of classical literature's most loved works. Schiff's playing is both surprising and dramatic; one of today's leading interpreters of Bach easily steps over to Chopin and Schumann, giving them fresh appeal. In-store play recommended.

STRAUSS: EIN HELDENLEBEN — Vladimir Ashkenazy/Cleveland Orchestra — London 414 292-1,-2,-4 — Producer: Andrew Cornall — List (LP or MC): 10.98 — Bar Coded

"Ein Heldenleben" ("A Hero's Life") is one of Strauss's many romantic masterpieces; it contains much commercial potential as it includes motifs from the always popular "Don Juan" and "Also Sprach Zarathustra." Ashkenazy and the Cleveland Orchestra's rendition of the score is both warm and compassionate, and the sound quality is excellent. Much commercial potential.

AUDIO/VIDEO

Gregory Dobrin, Los Angeles

COMPUTER AGE — Believe it or not, yours truly has received many a call here at CB from people in search of music video production information. Maybe they think we produce videos, as well as chart 'em and write about 'em — I dunno. I do know that it's high time we had some immediate, reliable source as to what's before the cameras, in the can, when it was, or will be, released, and answers to countless other video queries. Why not develop a data base of such information, similar to the ones doctors use? Well, a company called Baseline, headquartered in New York, has endeavored to do just that. Currently serving the needs of the film industry, Baseline is an information service which, for a sign-up fee of $97 and a monthly subscription rate of $75, brings a wealth of entertainment industry information to inquiring minds. By late March, the company plans to expand its database to include music video info, and will eventually give home video particulars as well. And you don't necessarily need a computer to use the service. For a dollar a minute (beyond the sign up and monthly fees) you can get your information over the phone. For instance, wouldn't it be nice to have all of the production credits of that director you're thinking of using for your next project at your immediate disposal? How 'bout videographics for acts, or just finding out whether or not a video was ever made for any given record? Baseline's source for this info is the monthly trade publication New On The Charts, which reminds me — by April, Baseline will offer music information, such as chart positions and etc. What a good idea. Maybe now we can give the "answer man" routine a rest around here.

GLAMOUR GIRL — Recording artist Sheila E. makes her home video film debut in Krush Groove, from Warner Home Video in April.

PIRATE FIGHTING — In the ongoing war against home video pirating, CBS/Fox Video has joined the ranks of manufacturers now utilizing the Macrovision anti-piracy technique, a process which inhibits duplication of tapes. Len White, president, consumer products division for CBS/Fox Video, called the move a "moral stand." "We are doing everything possible," he said, "to protect the properties entrusted to us by our licensors."

WHOOPI! — It's been a big year for Whoopi Goldberg, from her acclaimed one-woman Broadway show, cablecast by HBO, to her starring role in Stephen Spielberg's The Color Purple for which she was nominated for a Best Actress Oscar. She even won a Grammy last week for Best Comedy Recording. Naturally, home video couldn't be far off, and indeed it isn't — in April, Vestron Video will release Whoopi Goldberg Live, the 75-minute tape of her Broadway show. It'll retail for a suggested $59.95, VHS and Beta.

HOME VIDEO REVIEW: Of Pure Blood — MPI Home Video — $39.95. This documentary of one of the more bizarre and frightening aspects of the Hitler regime, the breeding of Aryan children, uncovers the sordid details of Labensborn, a philosophical pillar of the Third Reich. In candid interviews, film clips and photographs, Of Pure Blood tells the Labensborn story in a slowly paced, somber fashion. The tape is as depressing as its subject, and while the evidence against Labensborn and the facts we know about the holocaust are enough to turn the tables against defenders of Labensborn, filmmakers Clarissa Henry and Marc Hillel give journalistic balance to both sides of the story. That defenders of Labensborn come off sounding pathetically naive is probably the filmmakers' intention, but given the horrors perpetuated by the Nazi's, the obvious bias is overwhelmingly supported. A valuable tape for students of Hitler's Germany.

The Release Beat

Barbra Streisand's chart topping "The Broadway Album" comes to home video this month from CBS/Fox Video in Barbra Streisand 'Putting It Together' — The Making Of 'The Broadway Album.' This 40-minute tape features behind-the-scenes views of the recording of the LP, plus an interview with the singer and appearances by Stephen Sondheim and Sydney Pollack. Suggested retail is $29.98, digitally processed VHS Hi-Fi stereo and Beta Hi-Fi stereo. Also from CBS/Fox Video is music from Loverboy, in Loverboy: Any Way You Look At It, a collection of nine videos, and The Clash, in This Is Video Clash, a collection of eight videos. Both programs sell for a suggested $19.98 and are available in VHS Hi-Fi stereo and Beta Hi-Fi stereo formats. . . . March releases from Paramount Home Video include two fairly recent theatrical releases, with the comedy/mystery Compromising Positions, featuring an all-star cast, and Stephen King's Silver Bullet, a thriller starring Gary Busey. Both titles retail for a suggested $79.95 in VHS Hi-Fi and Beta Hi-Fi. Other titles from Paramount this month include The Naked Prey, an adventure starring Cornel Wilde, and California Reich, a documentary about the American Nazi movement, both retailing for a suggested $49.95. Also this month, Paramount will be reducing three Godzilla titles (Godzilla VS Mother, Godzilla VS Monster Zero and Terror of Mechagodzilla) to $24.95.

PROGRAM NOTES

HIT CITY CHANGES LINEUP AND FORMAT — CCR Video Corporation of Hollywood has reached an agreement with Monument Productions of Colorado to co-produce Hit City, the nationally syndicated urban music video show. CCR Video has made a substantial financial commitment to increasing the production value of the show for 1986. Hit City will be expanding from the video clip format to include some new features to watch for: Happenings, featuring interviews with up and coming artists or news and tour information; Go For The Gold, a Top 10 chart countdown of albums and singles and an R&B/Urban Music and Video Report; and Memory Lane, featuring The Hit City Band performing R&B hits of the '50s, '60s and '70s. The production lineup includes Michael Rosen, president of Monument Productions, as executive producer. Executive in charge of production is Rick Melchior, president and chief executive officer of CCR Video. Corb Donahue is the associate producer and Phil Castor is producer. Recording artists confirmed to appear on Hit City during March include Maurice White, Stephanie Mills, Sam Harris, L.L. Cool J and the Dazz Band. Hit City, currently in its fourth season, now airs to over 50 U.S. markets and reaches 850,000 households weekly in metro areas including Los Angeles (KNBC-TV) and New York City (WNBC). Syndication representative is Terry Lynch of Bri-Ter TV Sales, based in Flushing, New York.

VIDEO POOL SIGNS NEIMAN MARCUS — John Hillsman, vice president of promotion and marketing for Video Pool, Inc. has announced the addition of Neiman Marcus to their client roster. Video Pool will supply the Dallas-based retailer with two hours of video programming each month. The specialty store chain has 22 outlets, with Atlanta being the first to receive the programming. The plan to feature music videos was conceived by Tom Baker, special projects coordinator for Neiman Marcus. Neiman Marcus sees this contemporary marketing move as a way to reach younger customers. Neiman Marcus joins Marshall Fields (Illinois), Robinsons (California) and The Broadway (California) among others on the Video Pool roster.

Cornyn Tells The Industry: "Wise Up"

of the disc. There are 16 channels of subtitles that can run different languages, chord changes for guitarists or the score of a symphony. CDs can include a bouncing ball, popular in Japan, to go along with the lyrics. In addition, CDs can be used in an interactive way, whereby the user, through use of a standard computer terminal, can alter outcomes through real decision making. There is a publishing application. For instance, the entire Schwann catalog could be contained on one disc and on and on.

These and other new uses for CD are being investigated at this time by major computer software companies. Cornyn's concern is, in fact, not hollow. Philips and Sony on Monday (Feb. 24) announced plans to submit specifications for the audio/video applications of the interactive CD. (See story, p.5). In addition, this week (March 4) a company called MicroSoft held a confab in Seattle to discuss interactive CD.

"I think the industry is shortchanging itself. Another software industry, parallel to the music business, has said, 'We're not confined. We're looking for new things to sell to the public.' I think it's fairly traditional that . . . record companies kind of cross their arms and say 'prove it.' I think that's understandable, but regrettable," Cornyn told Cash Box.

According to Cornyn, the music industry is dragging its feet and not going forward at a time when it is most conducive to do so. "The CD is our business in the public's mind," he said. "Record stores are already selling CDs. They are associated with CDs." It would be foolish, in Cornyn's view, to miss this enormous opportunity to expand what looks to be the bright market for CDs. "In our view, it (CD) should become a new information medium that embraces the computer world, publishing, video and records."

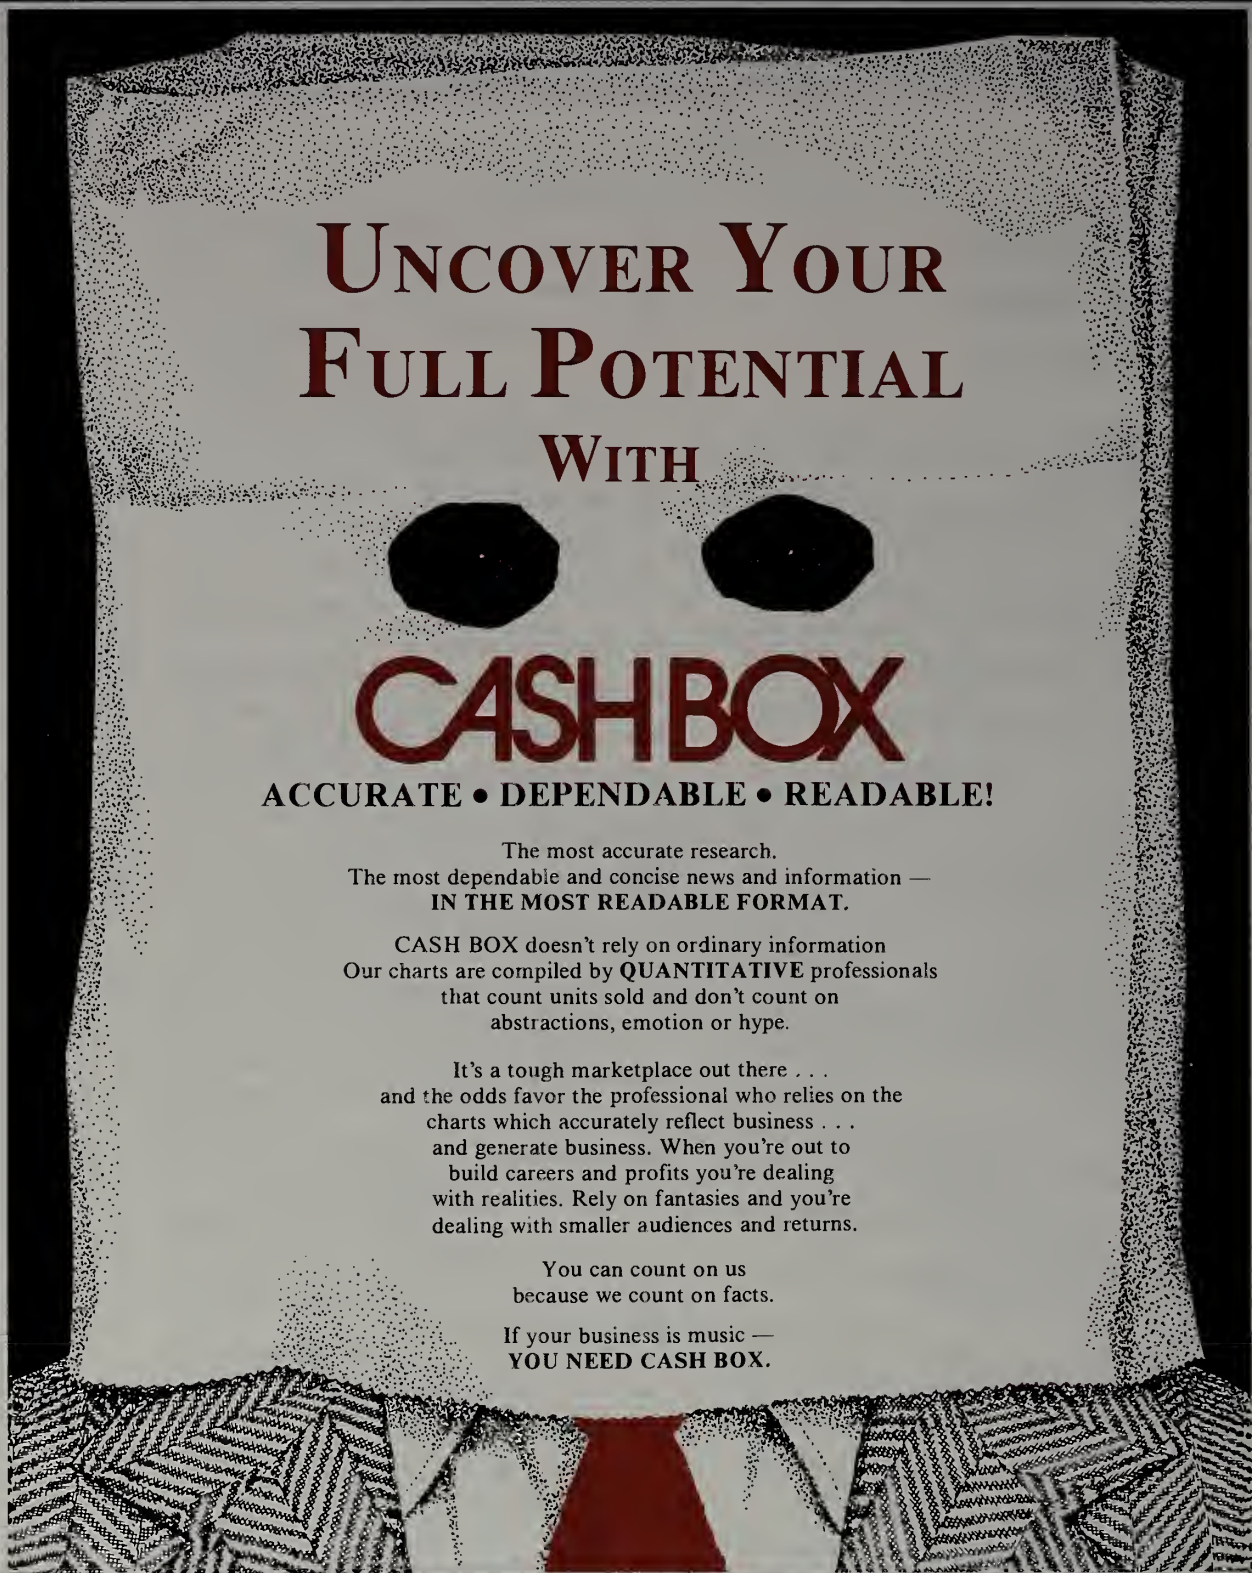

Following are excerpts of an interview by Cash Box with Cornyn on his views of CD and its future in the music business. CASH BOX: I can imagine a music/record company executive saying that he had enough trouble finding, developing and marketing musical talent to spend any of his resources researching educational games.

CORNYN: Well, that goes to your definition of what one of these companies is. Is it pure music and you don't record Richard Pryor, or is it entertainment and you do record Richard Pryor? If it is, how much further do you go with entertainment?

CASH BOX: How would you respond to a record company executive who said he'd love to get involved, but he just didn't have the available resources?

CORNYN: I would say, "Go moderately. But you've taken opportunities before. You've moved from rock and roll to country to black music. Which ever ways you've gone to enlarge your repertoire base — to comedy, spoken word and now into video tapes. And I think you should look upon it as a business opportunity rather than a threat." I'm not suggesting that every record company turn around and now have an interactive games department. I think that would be very silly. But I think they should be very aware of the opportunities that are coming with this new medium to which they gave birth. Other industries are now saying, 'How about us?' and I think those other industries, once they establish a broad base in this sort of thing may not be afraid where people are already buying compact disc players and you're simply saying to them that for a couple of hundred dollars more would they like one that puts pictures up on their television screen and that's interactive. In other words they are just leap frogging off of an existing hit technology. So in that sense it's really like going from black and white to color TV. CASH BOX: Do you think there will be some consumer backlash. I can hear people saying, "Gee, just two years ago you told us that CD was the wave of the future. Now you're saying I have to buy another machine in order to get the most out of compact discs?" CORNLYN: There may be some consumer backlash, I don't know. It's being moved forward as fast as possible, that's all I can say. I don't know how much customer backlash there is about new additional capabilities for automobiles or refrigerators or something like that. I think it just happens that way. It's not deliberate.

For The Record

It was erroneously reported last week in a story about Philip Bailey that two of the tracks on his upcoming Columbia Records' LP, "Inside Out," were produced by Nile Rodgers. In fact, Rodgers produced all of the songs on the album, with Bailey having co-produced two of the tracks along with him. George Duke, Ray Parker, Jr., Phil Collins, Jeff Beck and Nathan East, contributed their talents as performers, and not producers, on the new LP.

effectiveness.

In 1980 Philips and Sony jointly developed the Compact Disc Digital Audio system and subsequently marketed compact disc digital audio products in 1982. Since that time consumer acceptance of compact audio discs and players has grown dramatically. Building on the success of the small, sturdy, and convenient disc both Philips and Sony have been developing its interactive capabilities which, because of its enormous storage capacity, make it ideal as a stand-alone product or for use as a computer peripheral. They reached standardization agreements for CD-ROM in 1983, with a further step in the development of CD-ROM taken in 1985 when the physical format, which laid the groundwork for storing audio, video, and computer data on optical discs, was established.

The new specification provides a complete format which allows for full interactive use of the CD-ROM in handling interactively not only music and sound, but also speech, natural still and animated pictures, graphics, computer programs, and computer data. The new specification will also enhance the capabilities of home and personal computers with easily accessible, high-quality, audio-visual information. Thus Philips and Sony expect that this new medium will create many opportunities for the hardware, software, and publishing industries to provide consumers with truly new forms of interactive entertainment and education ranging from songs with text and pictures to talking dictionaries and encyclopedias, as well as other applications which are yet beyond imagination.

The new CD-ROM standard, "CD Interactive Media" (CD-I), ensures the same level of disc interchangeability as in CD digital audio. Thus any disc made in accordance with the new specification, as well as currently produced audio CD's, will function anywhere with any equipment based on the new format. As an option, players with built-in computer interface capabilities will also be able to act as peripherals to home or personal computers.

Philips and Sony firmly believe that the consumer electronics and computer industries will support the guidelines for this versatile format. Final details of the specification for the new format will be completed in the next few months.

and organized crime, as well as widespread use of unlawful "payola" practices. Menon, said, "Although we have no evidence to support the NBC allegations, the necessary and responsible corporate conduct must be to reassure ourselves that our company doesn't contribute unwittingly to any problem that may exist. Two days after we suspended the use of independent promotion we learned from the Recording Industry Association of America that Federal grand juries are investigating the situation. We believe that this is the only appropriate manner of determining whether any unlawful activity prevails.

Grammy Awards

"We Are The World" also took Song Of The Year and Best Music Video, Short Form honors.

The other big winner of the night was Phil Collins. His "No Jacket Required" garnered him honors in the Album Of The Year, Best Male Pop Vocal and Producer Of The Year categories.

In the jazz categories Manhattan Transfer figured in three categories including Best Vocal Group Performance.

On the humorous side of the ceremony were Whoopi Goldberg's apparently accidental use of profanity in her acceptance speech for the Best Comedy Recording and Mick Jagger's closing remark after the Rolling Stones were presented with the N.A.R.A.S. Lifetime Achievement Award. Neither incident was heard on the tape delayed west coast broadcast.

Stan Cornyn On CDs

to do music as well.

CASH BOX: How much money would it cost a record company to develop, say, an interactive educational CD like the Oregon Trail disc in your video presentation, Eat Or Be Eaten?

CORNLYN: Well, that question has many ramifications, but let me say this, I think that very good discs like this can be recorded from the ground up for between $150- and 200 thousand, which is in fact about the same price I would suggest most rock and roll albums cost.

CASH BOX: Will we be able to get an album's worth of full motion videos on a CD?

CORNLYN: No. First of all, to get full motion video the disc has to spin faster than it normally does for audio. You're probably going to get five minute's worth of digital audio. So, it's really most useful for doing MTV-type singles rather than full albums.

CASH BOX: What sort of hardware will a person need to realize the audio and video capabilities of CD?

CORNLYN: Well, clearly there will be advanced CD players that will be capable of putting graphics on the TV screen and having a mouse in the keyboard to control the interactivity. So it's going to mean an upgrade from the simple players that are on the market now. But the nice thing about it is that all of the discs that are available now would play on the new player. The only thing obsoleted would be the old players.

CASH BOX: Will there be adaptor units?

CORNLYN: Eventually there will be. But you just can't adapt to something that wasn't prepared to be adapted. I'd say that next year all audio players will have inputs and outputs that can be upgraded for this sort of thing.

CASH BOX: Could these new applications create consumer confusion and result in the disintegration of the CD business as a whole?

CORNLYN: I think quite the opposite. It is a very natural evolution forward for the compact disc market. Because, you are presumably starting in the same stores

The Programmers Choice Awards are based on a poll of program directors and music directors from a sampling of country radio stations across the nation and Canada.

We deal with 48,000 songwriters so you don't have to.

No other music licensing organization has as many songwriters. No one even comes close.

To deal directly with all of them, the average station would have to spend tens of thousands of hours a year just to handle the paperwork. Not to mention the telephone and postal expenses. And you'd still have to pay royalties.

BMI makes everything simple and efficient. For a small licensing fee, you can use the most popular music to help build your audience.

That's why BMI is such a good deal for you.

Wherever there's music, there's BMI.

A True Collectors Series

YOU'RE NOBODY TILL SOMEBODY LOVES YOU
 ONCE IN A WHILE
 SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY
 BECAUSE OF YOU
 YOU'LL NEVER KNOW
 ALL THE WAY
 SMILE
 BUMMIN' AROUND
 YOU ALWAYS HURT THE ONE YOU LOVE
 IT HAD TO BE YOU
 I CAN'T GIVE YOU ANYTHING BUT LOVE
 I'M CONFESSING ALWAYS
 MONA LISA
 YOUNG AT HEART
 I'M IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE
 LOVE ME TENDER
 AS TIME GOES BY
 DON'T GET AROUND MUCH ANYMORE
 PLEASE DON'T TALK ABOUT ME WHEN I'M GONE

WELCOME TO CASH BOX CONSCIOUSNESS

Let's Talk About Attitudes Of The Seminar

An attitude, of course, is a viewpoint, a posture, a perception. An attitude of The Seminar might then be one that's consistent with our individual postures toward and during the event known as the Country Radio Seminar (or, simply, The Seminar).

If you're a radio person, say, in from another city, or just any individual who has come with the sincerest motives of making it the best of experiences for yourself (and the company you might represent), you'll find yourself being bombarded this week, morning and night, with Attitudes of The Seminar.

Attitudes of The Seminar will be as ever-present as the air conditioning and will take all manner of shapes and manifestations, but essentially there are only two: Attitude of Conflict and Attitude of Cooperation, the perception of oneness or the perception of separation.

They both will be found in the hallways and in the bars and in the meeting rooms. They both will be manifested by those we've known and those we've respected, they will both be well-dressed and well-respected. Yet, they are quite easy to tell apart.

Attitude of Separation will show itself in the form of backbiting, chest-beating, conflict. It's the conversation that says, "Let's find fault with this or that, with him or her. Let's tear apart these things that are together.

"And, of course, let's undermine and sneer, and let's say chic, witty things about the people who aren't saying chic, witty things. Let's manipulate."

Attitude of Conflict will probably be the roommates of One-upmanship. It might show itself, for example's sake, in the form of a "hospitality" suite hosted by an ill-guided record label, or some other such nose-thumbing at Seminar traditions. (While there has never been any formal contract between record labels and actuators of The Seminar, there has always been the "Unwritten Agreement" between broadcasters and industry folk, in which the label "hospitality suite" syndrome is seen by all concerned individuals as corruptive and hazardous to the health and fabric of The Seminar. In fact, it has been the adherence to this very principle by all of the responsibly-managed labels that has allowed for The Seminar to grow as a strong, vibrant platform for broadcasters.)

So, the label hospitality suite has long been anathema. But it's just one form of the highly exploitative nature of Attitude of Conflict; it's just one possible example of peeing in the communal waterhole. And while it's doubtful we'll see any such aberrations, should one surface, hopefully there are those of us who won't be bought and sold for a drink and who will refuse to quaff from that particular waterhole.

On the flip side, we have the other main Attitude of the Seminar, that of Cooperation. The zodiacal sign of The Seminar, the star under which The Seminar was born. Cooperation of our efforts toward common interests. Not only our own interests, but those of our communities as a whole.

This attitude will be expressed by such ideas as "Maybe we can find a better way. Maybe we can find some answers to some common problems. Maybe it can work."

An example might be found in the attempt, this year, to position an event such as "The Old Faces Show", (once called "The W.O.R.S.T. Show") within the continually growing umbrella of "Seminar Week". Though such an event had already been planned and scheduled by its own independent committee, when it was discovered that there would be conflict with already scheduled Seminar activities, the Attitude of Cooperation was strongly in evidence as the show was shelved. Now both the Seminar Board and the "Old Faces Show" committee have an opportunity to build bridges toward the future of The Seminar and Seminar Week. Bridges that will continue to insure a strong, healthy atmosphere—an environment that both supports that which is to come, and remembers that from which many of us do come.

If you're a newcomer, look around and see which attitude truly offers you more: that which shares knowledge and understanding of your job, your industry, yourself. Or that which is demeaning and resentment-filled, that which will trample on your space and peck away at your desire to progress. Look around you, and then participate accordingly.

And, if I'm a veteran of The Seminar, I need to look at my own inclinations? Are they cynical? Bored? Is this year the same as all others? Or do I have an opportunity this year to mean something, to express something, to truly help someone else?

Often times, when it's over, we are asked for our opinions of The Seminar. Was it good? Was it successful? Did it add, did it subtract? Isn't it all just another horse-and-pony-show?

Perhaps in our answers we should address the deeper underlying question: what are my Attitudes of The Seminar? Are they those of skepticism and sarcasm, those that sting and bite and poison? Or are they those of cooperation, those that cherish and nourish, those that serve the growing process.

The attitude I assume is, of course, my own choice. And chances are that the same choice of attitudes that I wear in my everyday life will be the one that I choose to wear for The Seminar.

ALBUM RELEASES

HARMONY — John Conlee — Columbia FC 40257 — Producer: Bud Logan

"An interweaving of different accounts into a single narrative" reads the definition of harmony on the back of this album jacket. It's Conlee's debut LP on the Columbia label and is filled with songs that identify Conlee's image with the "working man." "The Day He Turned Sixty-Five," "The Carpenter" and "Class Reunion" paint pictures of life while "I've Got My Heart Set On You" and "I'll Be Seeing You" are brush strokes to love. Conlee's latest chart-climber, "Harmony", heads the list of ten enjoyable tunes.

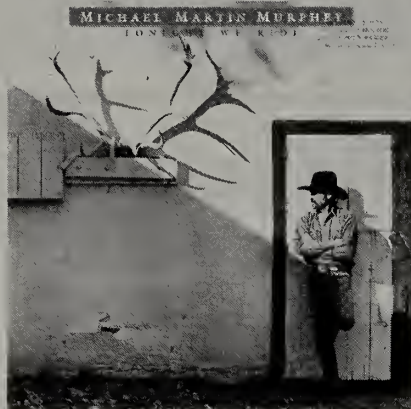

WHEN LOVE IS RIGHT — Charly McClain & Wayne Massey — Epic FE 40249 — Producers: Norro Wilson and The Sneed Brothers

After three charted singles to their credit, Mr. and Mrs. Massey have put together this, their first duo LP, titled "When Love Is Right." The set contains all "positive love songs," as evident in "A Love To Last Forever," "I Was Made For Lovin' You" and "Some People Belong Together." Charly and Wayne's effort proves to be a good one. Two winning songs from the Kentucky Fried Chicken Songwriter's Contest are included: "I'll Always Try Forever One More Time" and "Someone Like You." The LP cover is dramatic and well-done.

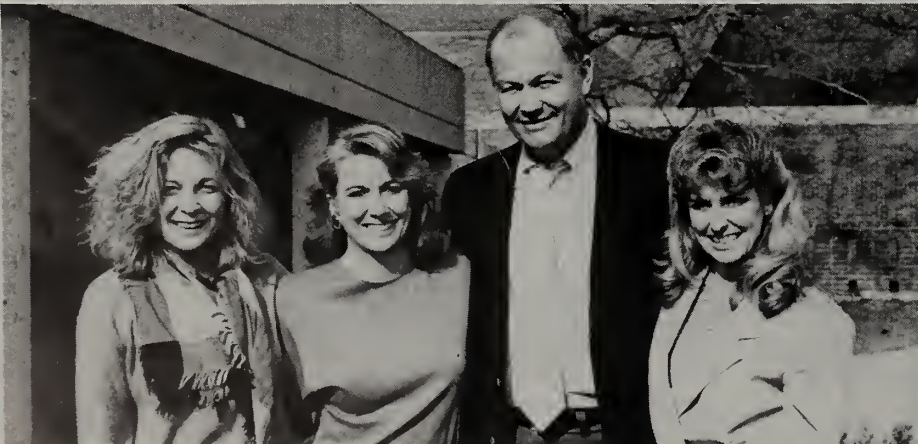

TONIGHT WE RIDE — Michael Martin Murphey — WB 1-25369 — Producer: Jim Ed Norman

Another debut LP, this time Michael Martin Murphey's on Warners. Almost all the numbers were penned by Murphey, and there's a good mixture of love songs, fond memorabilia and western themes such as "Tonight We Ride," "Ghost Town" and "Fiddlin' Man." Other highlights include "Rolling Nowhere" and "Innocent Hearts," a song that Murphey wrote for the christening of daughter Laura Lynn.

MEANINGS OF — Mark O' Connor — WB 1-25353 — Producer: Mark O' Connor

"New Age Music" can be found in the tracks of Mark O' Connor's new LP. The young artist plays every instrument but the drums and demonstrates his ability on all types of those instruments ranging from jazz mandolin to finger-style guitar and violin as well as rock electric guitars and others. "Meaning Of" is made up entirely of O' Connor compositions and receives endorsements from legendary Chet Atkins and John McEuen.

NEA BOARD OF DIRECTORS ARE (l-r): Kay Shaw West, secretary; Mary Matthews, president; David Skepner, chairman of the board; and Lynn Gillespie, executive director.

STEVE WARINER (MCA 52786)

Life's Highway (3:15) (April/Lion-Hearted/Blackwood—ASCAP/BMI) (R. Leigh, R. Murrah) (Producers: Tony Brown, Jimmy Bowen)

Off of his LP by the same name, Steve Wariner scores high with his latest single effort "Life's Highways." It's a simple, pleasing number with appeal to both casual and serious radio listeners alike. Bouncy, hummable melody and lyrics that Wariner delivers will make this number another possible hit for him.

GOSPEL ALBUM REVIEWS

PRAISE HIM NOW — Kelly Nelon Thompson — Word 7-01-000233-9 — Producer: Ken Harding

Kelly Nelon Thompson, member of the Nelons, is blessed with a beautiful voice and her latest solo LP, "Praise Him Now," shows it off well. Contemporary, inspiring selections include "We Can't Waste Any Time" and "No More Night" while cuts about religious upbringing "This Much" and "Do What" are nice, reflecting songs. The entire LP is a well produced effort which leaves a listener with a happy, uplifted feeling.

JUST WHAT YOU'RE LOOKING FOR — The DaySpring Artists — Day Spring 7-01-414201-1 — Producer: Neal Joseph

Eleven DaySpring artists offerings on one LP enables the listener to receive a bit of education on today's Christian music. Kenny Marks' "Soul Reviver" (from his Christian rock LP "Attitude") is included as well as cuts from current gospel chart-climbers; Dallas Holm, Teri Desario, Paul Smith, Wayne Watson and others.

NO TURNING BACK — The McDonald Sisters — True Joy 113 — Producer: Ken Womack

Dedicated to their father, the Rev. Sam McDonald and to the group's manager Ken Womack, the McDonald Sisters' LP, "No Turning Back" is truly a real family project and most of the cuts were either written or arranged by the five sisters. Choice cuts include the title track, "He'll Fix It" and "Hold Out."

TRIBUTE TO MOTHER — The Sensational Gospel Keys — True Joy 114 — Producer: True Joy Records

The Gospel Keys were formed in 1978 with six members and were reorganized in 1979 with just three of the original members and an additional four new musicians. Their first recording wasn't really a fact until 1983 though and today they've released an LP dedicated to "all mothers of the world" called "A Tribute To Mother" which includes such selections as "Take It To Jesus," "Just As I Am" and others.

PEEK KICKS OFF TOUR — Dan Peek, former lead singer of the pop group America, recently launched a 1986 spring college tour. The tour was kicked off in conjunction with the release of Peek's second Benson LP, Electro Voice, on the Greentree label. From (l-r): Russ Kirkland, Peek and Dan's younger brother David Peek.

Let's Hasten The Cure

Enough has been said about hard times in coinbiz and, while we cannot discount this difficult period and the pain it has caused, there is good reason to believe that recovery is in progress. The climate is improving . . . operator collections are getting better . . . new equipment sales are on the rise . . . and trade people are starting to adopt a healthier attitude. We're hearing about distributors expanding (rather than closing) branch operations and isn't that music to the ears! So let's hasten the cure by continuing to concentrate on the positive and by supporting the industry's newest trade convention, the first annual American Coin Machine Exposition, which is about to open in Chicago.

ACME '86 was born after months of negotiations between officials of AOE and ASI, who had previously held two separate shows within a brief time span. Based on the trade's response, this turned out to be one show too many so the organizations got together, resolved their differences and scheduled one spring convention for March 7-9 at Expocenter/Downtown in Chicago.

Their original format called for allowing the public to attend on the closing day of ACME (Sunday, March 9). However, when it was discovered that this move (which met with opposition from Chicago operators) required extensive planning, convention officials again sat down, re-evaluated and decided on postponement of this feature to a future convention (possibly '87 in New Orleans) when there would be more time for proper advance planning and promotion (in order "to do it right, or not at all," as one official put it.

The above mentioned feature was only one small aspect of the agenda, however. The total ACME show package contains all it takes to attract attendance. Convention organizers made certain of this by developing a comprehensive seminar program, covering subjects that are of interest and importance to operators. In addition, there will be a big array of products on display. The exhibitor count at presstime was a little over one hundred, according to Bill Glasgow, Jr., of William T. Glasgow, Inc., the show's management firm. Advance registration was at close to 2000.

Everything that could be done has been done to present a top notch trade convention. All that remains now is for the members of the trade to come out to Expocenter/Downtown in big numbers and take advantage of what ACME '86 has to offer.

See you at the show!

NAMA Expects Exhibit Turnout At Western Convention

CHICAGO — Advance reservations of exhibit space for the 1986 Western Convention-Exhibit of Vending and Foodservice Management indicate that the record number of 145 exhibitors reached last year may be equalled or surpassed when the show opens on March 21 in Anaheim, California, advised Jack Rielley, NAMA director of sales.

Some 3,000 representatives of the industry from the 10 western states, as well as from other parts of the country, are expected to attend the convention at the Anaheim Convention Center from March 21 through 23. The Anaheim Hilton Hotel will be the headquarters.

At the end of January more than 120 exhibitors had reserved space, Rielley said, including 19 first-time participants.

"Your Marketing Focal Point For 1986" will be the theme of this year's show. Program meetings are scheduled at the Convention Center during the morning hours and the exhibits will be open from noon to 5:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. Sunday exhibit hours are from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Meeting topics on Friday will include "Employee Incentives," featured at roundtable discussions and in a presentation by Dean Barrie Richardson of the School of Business of Centenary College (Shreveport, LA). NAMA board chairman James A. Rost will present the Chairman's Address to conclude the Friday program.

The Saturday schedule will feature a panel

World Wide Named Vendo/U.S.I. Distrib

CHICAGO — John Taylor, vice president of Vendo/U.S.I., announced that World Wide Distributors, Inc. has been appointed Vendo's exclusive distributor for Illinois.

Chicago based World Wide has been in business for 43 years, during which time the firm has achieved a position of leadership in music and games distribution. According to company president Fred Skor, World Wide is intent on "strengthening its position in the vending market by becoming totally immersed in the sale of Vendo/U.S.I. equipment."

World Wide is independently owned and family operated, with headquarters at 2730 W. Fullerton Ave. in Chicago. Firm carries a complete line of new and used equipment and maintains a well-stocked parts department for providing full service back-up.

New Equipment

Valley's Cougar ZD-4

CHICAGO — Valley introduced a new coin-operated pool table at the ACME convention, which "operators helped design," according to Alan Schafer, vice president of marketing for Valley. The table is called the "Cougar ZD-4" for its "Zero Defects" engineering and for the "four straight" AMOA "most popular pool table" awards the Cougar has won — in 1982, 1983, 1984 and 1985, which is every year the award has been given.

"To begin with, we think this new Cougar ZD-4 is the quality table distributors and operators have been looking for," said Schafer. "A table they can count on to stay in place, with an absolute minimum of downtime for servicing. We went beyond just designing a new table . . . we engineered our manufacturing procedure so that we could select, test and assemble to the most rigid inspection standards possible," he continued. "We're convinced the Cougar ZD-4 is the most trouble-free coin-operated pool table the industry has ever seen."

The "Cougar ZD-4" has a number of new features that are especially significant. The coin chute housing has been re-designed to make servicing easier, less costly for a minimum of downtime. The new cabinet is all plywood, 3/4", solid core. The compression spring counter arm has been strengthened to assure accurate counting over a longer period. A durable high-pressure laminate, 45/1000" thick, covers sides and top rails. In attractive classic mahogany pattern, this laminate resists stains, scuffs and burns. The operator has the option of adjusting the standard 50c play up to $1.00, with a new state-of-the-art heavy duty coin mechanism that withstands player abuse.

The "Cougar ZD-4" is available in the standard sizes — 85", 88", 93" and 101".

"The industry is going to ask us why we took a chance with our success . . . why we moved on from the Cougar Cheyenne when it was so popular," Schafer continued. "The Cougar Cheyenne was — and is — a quality table, the standard of the industry, but Valley has always been the pool table manufacturer that 'listens.' Operators had some excellent suggestions for table improvements and we did something about it. We will continue to focus on the needs of operators; after all, that's what put us first and what will keep us there!" he concluded.

Wild-West Adventure

Data East has captured the thrills and excitement of the wild west in its new horizontal kit, "Express Raider," which combines two distinctly different types of game play. The player must use both fighting skills and marksmanship to rob the express train of its gold.

Here's the scenario. During the fighting sequence the Express Raider jumps on top of the moving train. Armed with only his fighting skills he must face train guards, yielding rifles, shovels and bottles, etc., as he makes his way to the engine to "get the gold."

Just as in a western movie, the action continues as he then mounts his horse and

CHICAGO — The appointment of Frank Cosentino, formerly of Bally Midwest-Chicago, to the position of national sales manager at Memtron, Inc., was recently announced by the firm.

Cosentino was with the Bally organization, in various capacities, for five years and brings to his new post considerable distributing knowledge and contacts.

Memetron, based in Elk Grove Village, Illinois, is a leading kit manufacturer and is currently enjoying success with its "Matmania" game. As noted by company president Larry Siegel, Cosentino's appointment came "just in the nick of time to handle the avalanche of orders" for this much in demand piece.

Cosentino resides in Elk Grove, IL with his wife Sandy and Son Nicky.

Shoot 'Em Up

CHICAGO — A new product from Sega's spring lineup is a gangster shooting game called "Shooting Master" and it contains several unique features. For example, a recoiling mechanism built into the gun allows the player to feel the impact of every shot. In addition, "Shooting Master" has a reflective two-way mirror to provide depth and to enhance the high resolution color graphics.

The object of the game is to rescue a captured princess from ruthless gangsters and there are various levels of play to add to the challenge. In each level there are intricate scenes where the player must defend himself against hidden enemies and ultimately kill the gangster's boss in order to rescue the princess.

Shooting skill is called upon since it determines the life span of the player. When a player is shot 10 times by the enemy one life has been lost and the number of lives can be preset by the operator.

This new piece was made available in late February through Sega's distributor network.

presentation of NAMA's "Operation Alert 1986," a program aimed at counteracting proposals to ban cigarette vending. Roger L. Mazingo, senior vice president of the Tobacco Institute, Richard W. Funk, NAMA government affairs director, and Edgar R. Nield, NAMA western counsel, will be the speakers.

"More Than Meets The Eye," the new NAMA industry promotion movie, will be followed by the first report on the external impact study results undertaken for NAMA by the Hudson Institute of Indianapolis. William Johnston of the Institute will present the results and recommendations. The Institute's assignment is to assess the economic, technological, demographic and political trends of the next 15 years and to recommend strategies for the growth of the vending and food service management industry members of NAMA.

The Saturday sessions will conclude with a presentation on "verbal judo" by Dr. George J. Thompson of Phoenix, AZ.

The Sunday morning program, from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m., deals with "How Changes in the World Coffee Markets Could Affect Your Profits," and will be presented by Jack Sutherland, CFS Continental Company (Chicago).

In addition to social activities on Saturday evening, there will be a ladies program consisting of luncheons on Friday and Saturday, with plastic surgeon Dr. Edward Comanskis describing the art and science of his specialty (Friday) and Dr. Richardson, whose topic will be "The Magic Of Your Mind" (Saturday).

Further information about the convention may be obtained by contacting NAMA headquarters at 20 N. Wacker Drive, Chicago, IL 60606 or phoning the association at (312)346-0370.
