The biggest new label success story of 1964 is, of course, the Red Bird story. Under the guidance of three veterans, label president George Goldner and creative execs Jerry Leiber and Mike Stoller (on left) the infant label has come up with a chain of top ten hits that has been truly fantastic. Greatly responsible for the label's strong debut are the people on the right. At the piano are Jeff Barry and his wife Ellie Greenwich, the hot writing-producing team who played a role in the success of "Chapel Of Love" by the Dixie Cups who are seen in the photo with them; their follow-up "People Say," and the Jelly Beans' top tenner "I Wanna Love Him So Bad." The label is also burning-up the charts with other singles including the first issue by the Shangri-Las, "Remember (Walking In The Sand)." Red Bird is obviously a big new label with unlimited potential.

THE NEW B'WAY SEASON, & THE NEW WRITERS

Theater-goers who live in the perennial try-out towns such as Boston, Philadelphia and Detroit are beginning to hum (we hope) any number of new songs that have been written for the new season's musical productions.

There's every possibility that try-out audiences are witnessing diamonds-in-the-rough, those shows, now awkward, unwieldy and over-long, that need tightening here and there, a new song in the second act and — bingo! — you're home with a smash hit! In those rare instances, some hits will come from productions that had it made almost from the start.

If there are going to be hit musicals next season — and every fall-winter-spring run on Broadway begets at least one — some undoubtedly will come from new writers, either new teams or individuals working with established writers.

It is the abundance of new Broadway talent that is most satisfying about Broadway 1964-65. Cynics will be prone to belittle this development by declaring that new writing talent is only filling a vacuum left by the absence — either by death or age — of the great show writers.

Maybe so. But, isn't it simply a question of one era, as marvelous as it was, coming to an end and another taking its place? The sooner the new era gets a chance to display its wares the better.

The new breed of Broadway writers has already made its mark. There's Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick, who are turning out consistently worthy scores, and go to bat again next month with "Fiddler on the Roof." Jerry Herman is becoming a master of the lost art of singable tunes, highlighted by "Hello, Dolly!," that audiences are humming before they walk into the theater. And then there's Harvey Schmidt and Tom Jones, who came from an Off-B'way triumph, "The Fantastics," to write the recent hit On-B'way musical, "110 in the Shade."

There's also a rich vein of show-music melody being tapped by youthful writers from England. Lionel Bart, a words-and-music man, has given Broadway a profuse collection of tuneful songs in his "Oliver!," as have Anthony Newley and Leslie Bricusse with their "Stop the World . . ." and its hit song, "What Kind Of Fool Am I?"

True, it's a bit early to have heard and passed judgment on the quality of the words-and-music that will emanate from the newcomers this season, but for the time being we'll assume that the producers of the shows and others with financial stakes in them like what they've been hearing.

In any case, there's just no sense in sighing over the "Golden Age of Musicals" of the 20's and 30's, and making a blanket dismissal of today's new crop of writers, as some show-music observers do. New writers must be encouraged, not so much to breed a new George and Ira Gershwin and Rodgers and Hart, but to endow the American musical theater with talent that can meet the greater demands of today's musical shows, and continue America's great musical comedy tradition.

Record companies can do their part, too. And that would be to listen carefully to the new songs that will be heard this season, and showcase selected numbers with commercial appeal.

We welcome this season's new show writers. They will undoubtedly enrich the musical theater for many seasons to come.

THE AMERICAN LONDON GROUP

Beatles Tornado Storms Its Way Eastward

SAN FRANCISCO—9,000 screaming fans turned out for the Beatles arrival last week (19) but the excitement was short-lived, as the British rock group were whisked away from the airport after a few seconds exposure to the crowd.

The Beatles returned to the U.S. last week for a month-long U.S. tour which will wind up with a benefit performance in New York on Sept. 20 with proceeds going to the United Cerebral Palsy campaign.

A public address system was installed near International Airport but the noise of the fans and police radios made it impossible for the Beatles to be heard. A rush of photographers and reporters on the scene also made it impossible for them to be seen. Their arrival at the Hilton Hotel a little while later was marked by 2,000 more fans.

The tour was opened at the Cow Palace (20) where the auditorium's 17,000 seats grossed $90,000.

While on the West Coast, the Beatles will attend an invitational charity benefit for the Hemophilia Foundation of Southern California on Aug. 24. The fund-raising garden party will be attended by Hollywood celebs and their offspring, each of whom will contribute $25 to the foundation. The affair, to be hosted by Capitol Records president, Alan Livingston, is to be held at a private residence in West L.A. The Beatles will not perform but will be photographed with the youngsters.

Before the group returns to England they'll appear on Broadway, live. The popular British group will make their first live appearance on the main stem for the benefit of charity, in a concert on the stage of the Paramount Theatre on Sunday, Sept. 20, at 8:30 P.M. All proceeds will go to the United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc., and Retarded Infants Services, Inc.

This performance will be the last of the Beatles' current personal tour of the United States. They are scheduled to return to England on the following day.

Mrs. William C. Langley is chairman of the event and Mrs. George G. Milliken is co-chairman.

Plans call for other name acts also to perform. These will be announced as soon as they are set. A reception will be held backstage following the concert.

Tickets are priced at $100, $50, $25, $15, $10 and $5. All ticket information may be obtained by writing to United Cerebral Palsy of New York City, Inc., 141 East 40th St., N.Y., or to Retarded Infants Services, Inc., 386 Park Avenue South, N.Y., or by calling: MU 7-7500.

Democrats To Sing "Hello, Lyndon!" Along The Campaign Trail

NEW YORK—"Hello, Lyndon!" a parody version of the tag tune of the current smash Broadway musical of the same name, will be introduced as a campaign song at this week's Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City.

The song will reportedly be sung before a group of femme Democrats by Carol Channing, the star of the main stemmer. She'll be accompanied at the piano by the song's composer, Jerry Herman.

Ten thousand freshly-pressed recordings of the campaign song are skedded to be at convention headquarters. The decks will be sold throughout the four-day political con-fab with proceeds going to Young Citizens for Johnson.

The Edwin H. Morris-published tune opens with these lyrics:

Hello Lyndon, Well, hello,
Lyndon,

It's just great to have you there where you belong.

You're looking swell Lyndon,

We can tell, Lyndon,

You're still glowing, your still growing

You're still growing strong.

Vet Broadway producer David Merrick underwrote the cost of the recordings. Ed Ames and the waiters' chorus from the show are the singers.

When the Republicans held their convention in San Francisco's Cow Palace, they too wanted to adopt a version of "Hello, Dolly!" called "Hello, Barry!" after their standard-bearer. But Merrick threatened suit and the GOP abandoned the plan.

Industry Finds Gold Mine In Chuck Berry Material

NEW YORK—The plaintive blues-cry of any astute A&R producer, who is the slightest bit aware of the music business' fickleness, has been since time immemorial, "What can I do next?" A cursory examination of the industry's recent history, from the twist to the ska, would reveal several score half-backed trends and crazes which fizzled out while they were still being formulated. However, even with the most far-out concept, there always has been some producer ready to gamble his grubstake that a 'new sound' will catch the fancy of the public.

The old adage, that one need not stray too far afield to find gold mine, has recently been given dramatic verification by a mother lode named Chuck Berry. The wealth of songs written by this prolific musician-singer are re-emerging with decided frequency; and going on to new vistas of success.

The 'Berry Kick' got underway with the vintage Beach Boys Capitol hit, "Surfin' U.S.A.," an updating of the composer's "Sweet Little Sixteen." Since then more and more artists have been taking Berry tunes out of moth balls and utilizing them to fit their own styles. The list of recent and current Berry-penned re-activated items includes: "Memphis" by Lonnie Mack (Fraternity); "Memphis" and "Maybelline" by Johnny Rivers (Imperial); "Roll Over Beethoven" by the Beatles; and "Johnny B. Goode" by Dion DiMucci. A further indication of the popularity of this material was Bill Black's recent best-selling Hi album made up of songs taken exclusively from the rich Berry repertoire.

While this renaissance of the Berry catalog has been occurring, Chuck Berry, the artist, has been experiencing his greatest success in a number of years. His string of new Chess hits boasts such sales-giants as "Nadine," "No Particular Place To Go" and "You Never Can Tell," his current Top 100 stand. In addition, "Chuck Berry's Greatest Hits" has been on the LP charts for the past three months.

Everest Bows 5 LP's, Gloria Lynne Single

HOLLYWOOD—Everest Records has announced the release of five new albums in its fall program tagged, "Salute To The Girls."

Included in the new entries are "A Handful Of Songs" by Annie Ross, "Glorious Gloria Lynne," "Reflections" by Patsy Cline, "After Hours" by Gloria Lynne, and "Of Girls I Sing" by Nelson Eddy.

A new single by Gloria Lynne, "Serenade In Blue" coupled with "Without A Song," has been readied for immediate release.

The label has also announced that all old and new product will be shrink-wrap wrapped and that the new service will necessitate a price increase ($1.91½ to $2.00) on all pop LP's beginning with Sept. billing.

BUCK OWENS STOCK SETS NEW ALL TIME HIGH

NEW YORK—Buck Owens has arrived—and he's done it in rather spectacular fashion. The artist has broken through to the select coterie of successful country artists who also have large followings in the pop market.

The sales by-products of Owens' balloon is impressive by any yardstick. The artist currently has two best-selling pop albums, "The Best Of Buck Owens" (#32) and "Together Again"/"My Heart Skips A Beat" (#69). He also has a Top 100 singles stand with "I Don't Care," which entered the chart for the first time this week in the number 98 slot. In his own home territory, the C&W singles field, he's clicking with two different releases: "My Heart Skips A Beat" (#25) and "I Don't Care" (#32). In addition, he has two best-selling country LP's: "The Best Of Buck Owens" (#3) and "On The Bandstand" (#13).

Another indication of Owens' tremendous popularity was Cash Box' recently-concluded DeeJay Poll. The artist copped first place honors in an unprecedented three categories. He'll receive plaques at this year's Nov. Country Music Festival in Nashville for: "Love's Gonna Live Here"—the Most Programmed Record; "Buck Owens On The Bandstand"—the Most Programmed Album; and a third award for being the Most Programmed Male Vocalist.

Owens' career, however, didn't always look bright. Born in Sherman, Texas, he had to leave school when he was still in his teens to get a job. For several years he hauled fruit and produce between Arizona and California's San Joaquin Valley.

By the time he was 21, he had abandoned the produce business for the guitar. His reputation enabled him to get a job with a band in a Bakersfield, Calif. club. Later, he joined Bill Woods' band and appeared on the Chuck Wagon TV Show. Eventually he traveled to Hollywood where he became an accompanist during recording sessions for such name artists as Wanda Jackson, Faron Young and Sonny James.

If it wasn't for an ill vocalist, the then non-singing guitarist would never have become one of the most popular singers in the country. Owens had no intention of becoming a singer during his sideman days until one night when a singer suddenly took ill. It was then that a frantic bandleader looked around in desperation, spied Owens and pushed him to the microphone despite his objections.

That push led to appearances on the Grand Ole Opry and Red Foley Jubilee U.S.A. Shows. Owens' career as a singer began to take shape. In 1956, he signed a Capitol contract but he had to wait three years before a song he had written, "Under Your Spell Again," became his first hit. Since that time, it's been one hit after another. He has also shown that in addition to being a talented singer and guitarist, he's quite a songwriter. He's written "There Goes My Love," "Down On The Corner Of Love," plus the majority of his successes over the past two years.

For the past six years Owens has lived with his wife and family in Bakersfield. He still commutes between the town and the Capitol Tower for recording but things have changed. Now, instead of just being one of the musicians at the session, he's the reason for the session.

Moody To 20th Promo

NEW YORK—Doug Moody has joined 20th Century-Fox Records as national promotion manager, it was announced last week by Morty Craft, the label's recently-appointed creative director.

The English-born music biz vet, previously handled A&R and promotional chores for Smash Records. Prior to that affiliation he helmed his own labels, Clock and Herald-Ember. Moody has had a wide range of experience both in the American and international markets.

Moody, along with Craft and Lenny Lewis, is a new member of the label's top executive realignment.

5 Camden Sept. LP's

NEW YORK—RCA Camden has announced the release of five new Sept. albums that includes "Music For Dancing" by the Living Strings, "The Old And Great Songs by Hank Snow," "Living Strings And Living Voices With A Happy Beat," "Dixieland At Its Best" by Fountain, Girard, Almerico & others, and "Dance Time With Lawrence Duchow."

Frankie Laine & Adderley Pacted By Capitol

HOLLYWOOD—Frankie Laine and vet jazz alto-saxist Julian "Cannonball" Adderley have been signed to exclusive long-term wax contracts, it was announced last week by Tom Morgan, the label's director of artists' contracts.

Laine, whose disk career spans two decades on both the Mercury and Columbia labels, is responsible for a number of million sellers and hits that include "That Lucky Old Sun," "Mule Train," "Wild Goose," and "That's My Desire."

Adderley has had several hit singles ("African Waltz" and "This Here"), and albums ("At The Jazz Workshop" series) during his recording career. His most recent successes were on the Riverside label.

The saxist, a college graduate, was formerly a high school music director in the Florida Public School System. He gave up his position and formed his first musical group, a quintet, with three other artists and his brother Nat Adderley. Since that time he has starred in nightclubs and concerts from coast to coast. In '62 he teamed with lark Nancy Wilson on Capitol on a best-selling album.

Both new pacts to the label will have their first wax dates in Sept. Laine's sessions to be produced by Lee Gillette, and Adderley's by Dave Axelrod.

Disney Ties-In With Sugar Co. For "Poppins"

BURBANK—The Walt Disney organization has announced that it is planning one of the largest promo campaigns ever undertaken by the firm for its new flick, "Mary Poppins," and the soundtrack album from the picture.

Vince Jefferds and his Character Merchandising Division have lined up motion picture tie-ins with four major companies including C&H Sugar, National Sugar Company—East of the Mississippi, Kraft Chocolates and the National Biscuit Company. C&H and National Sugar will utilize Julie Andrews singing "A Spoonful Of Sugar" in radio and TV commercials.

The soundtrack LP has already been released with the film debuting in L.A. Aug. 27, New York in Sept., 16 key cities on Oct., and the rest of the country in Jan. Label execs feel that the national promo scheme already underway will spark LP sales to make this one of the biggest albums the label has ever had.

Hollis Alpert, in a recent review in the Saturday Review of Literature, called "Mary Poppins" a two-and-a-half hour burst of sheer frolicsome delight and one of the most magnificent pieces of entertainment ever to come from Hollywood.

Capitol Ups Batachio To Nat'l Singles Promo Mgr.

NEW YORK—Vet New York promo man Roy Batachio has been named national singles promotion manager for Capitol Records Distributing Corp. (CRDC), it was announced last week by the firm's national singles sales and promotion manager, Wade Pepper.

Batachio, former New York Branch promo manager, will report to Pepper and be in charge of all matters relating to single disk promo on a national level. Batachio replaces Manny Kellem who left to join Tower Records.

Regional promo reps throughout the country will report to Batachio regarding new product, artist appearances, and airplay on key radio stations.

The new promo exec came to CRDC in '58 as New York Branch promo manager, and prior to that was in the disk libraries of WINS and WOR. He is a native of New York.

Vee Jay Gets U.S. Rights To Honeycombs Smash

HOLLYWOOD—Vee-Jay Records has acquired the U.S. release rights to "Have I The Right," a best-selling English single by a new group called the Honeycombs. The label plans to release the deck immediately.

According to Jay Lasker, Vee-Jay's executive veep, an LP is planned to follow-up the singles release.

New Christys Open Democratic Convention

NEW YORK—President Lyndon B. Johnson has extended a personal invitation to the New Christy Minstrels to open today's (24) Democratic National Convention in Atlantic City, N.J.

The appearance will mark the fifth time this year that the nine-strong group of folksingers have performed for the Chief Executive.

The Minstrels are currently on a nation-wide concert tour and they interrupted their travels for the one-day Atlantic City visit, before continuing to Los Angeles to star at the Greek Theater for five days starting Sept. 8.

The first White House appearance of the group was made on Jan. 14, 1964 when they introduced "Hoote-nanny" to the executive mansion.

The Minstrels are presently scoring with their Columbia album of "Land Of Giants."

PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

From all appearances KQV-Pittsburgh recently had the coolest spot in steel town. In the midst of unreasonably hot weather, the outlet sponsored a gigantic "Think Cool" campaign featuring a 14-ton ice cube, bathing beauties known as "KQV Cuties," ice cream bar give-aways, hand fans, a 6-foot snowman and a snowball fight. The huge ice cube kicked off the campaign on Aug. 5, when listeners were asked to guess how long it would take the 14-ton ice cube to melt. The five persons submitting the closest estimates in days, hours, minutes and seconds had their homes air conditioned by KQV. The ice, located in the downtown district, attracted thousands of observers and participants. Part of the attraction might have been due to the "KQV Cuties," who were on the scene in bathing suits and colorful banners. On Aug. 6, the girls distributed 2,000 ice cream bars to passers-by, as they rode in a 1927 LaSalle with station personalities Hal Murray and Steve Rizen. The following day the gals walked through the downtown area near the still-melting ice cube distributing hand fans. The "KQV Darlin'" highlighted Aug. 8 by her appearance at the Ice Cube Location, as the audience witnessed the last piece of ice melt. At the completion of the promotion, the station had received more than 17,550 entries.

WMCA-New York news editor Barrie Beere was recently cited for his station's part in the rescue of five lost youngsters at a Canadian scouting camp. The boys were located after a combined search effort by the outlet's news dept., and the Radio Press International Bureau in New Brunswick, Canada and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. For his part in coordinating the probe Beere was warmly praised by the Greenville Baker Boys' Club of Locust Valley, N. Y., to which the kids belong.

A group of nimble-footed — and thick-skinned — KYW-Cleveland deejays, heedless of the obvious jokes emanating from an assembled group of 2,000 spectators, recently climbed to the top of the Cleveland Zoo's Monkey Island to stage a two-hour "Zootenanny." The Zoot went off with only one minor hitch. A herd of mountain sheep quartered on the island elected to climb to the top of the island for a closer look at the unusual activities, knocking out the sound system for a brief period.

The broadcasting facilities of WKPA-AM and WYDD-FM-New Kensington, Pa., have been acquired by the Gateway Broadcasting Enterprises from stockholders of the former Allegheny-Kiski Broadcasting Company. Nelson Goldberg will function as president of the setup in addition to continuing in his capacity as general manager of WKPA and WYDD-FM.

Fondest dreams will become a dazzling reality for two TV 13 viewers when WJZ-TV-Baltimore announces the winner of its Beatles Forever Contest. The winner (and his or her guest) will enjoy an all-expense-paid trip to Pittsburgh on Sept. 14 to see and hear the popular Beatles. Backstage, following the 8:00 PM performance, the happy pair will meet and chat with the British group in person. John Bartholomew Tucker, host of the outlet's "People Are Talking" program, will escort the winner to and from Pittsburgh. To enter, contestants must estimate how many people will have appeared on Tucker's air stanza from its premiere on June 8, through the end of Aug. 28, 1964. Closest estimate wins. In addition to the first prize, WJZ-TV will award 20 runner-up prizes of Beatle LP's, plus 100 singles, furnished by Capitol Records.

WQAM-Miami recently set a tiger on the prowl in South Florida. The "Tiger" referred to the station's spinners: Lee Sherwood, Ted Clark, Jim Dunlap, Charlie Murdock, Rick Shaw and Jack Sorbi, who are known as the "Tigers." In conjunction with the Ford Motor Company and a local Ford dealer, which furnished the automobile, each of the WQAM "Tigers" took turns driving a brand new 1965 Ford Mustang convertible, with a huge tiger painted on the back and sides. The car was equipped with a two-way telephone, which enabled the spinners to broadcast directly on the air from the car. Anytime, during the day of the promotion, the "Tiger in a Mustang" could be following a car and broadcasting its description on the air. If the person inside the car heard the description and pulled over to the side of the road, he was awarded a prize ranging from six-transistor radios to major appliances. Winners also had a chance to win another 1965 Ford Mustang, two of which will be given away this summer by the station.

Charlie Monk, program director of WACT-Tuscaloosa, Alabama, sends out an urgent s. o. s. for gospel and/or religious albums. Charlie notes that the station has been presenting a solidly-sponsored segment tabbed "Inspirational Hymn Of The Hour" but they have been having difficulty obtaining new product.

The Four Preps, Lucille Starr, Debbie Stanley and the Astronauts were recent guests on KHJ-TV-Hollywood's "9th Street West" hosted by Sam Riddle . . . Joe Dolan, KHJ-TV news-feature personality, recently won second prize in a Southern California beginner's banjo contest.

WFUN-Miami has made special arrangements to provide its listeners with complete broadcast coverage of the Beatles American tour. WFUN news director Larry Kane will travel with the group throughout the entire tour. He will broadcast live reports daily from the Beatle caravan and will tape actualities during the entire 30-day stint. This will not be Kane's first encounter with the lads from Liverpool. Kane landed the foursome's first in Miami when the crew visited the city last February. The WFUN Beatle coverage will also be carried by WMCA-New York, KFWB-Los Angeles, WKNR-Detroit and WQXI-Atlanta.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Norm Western, formerly on KURY-Brookings, Oregon, and Wes Ryan of KFLY-Corvallis, Oregon, have both joined the staff of KAPT-Salem as deejays. . . . William C. Fyffe given the green light as news director of WXYZ-Detroit.

Pick of the Week

MATCHBOX (1:37) [Knox BMI—Perkins]
SLOW DOWN (2:54) [Venice BMI—Williams]

THE BEATLES (Capitol 5255)

The Beatles are at it again. The fabulous smash-makers serve up two more rockers that should take the wax mart by storm. One half's a contagious steady-beat pounder labeled "Matchbox," while the other's a sizzling, high-speed affair, tagged "Slow Down," that puts heavy emphasis on the instrumentation. Both cuts are from the boys' up-coming "Something New" LP.

WHEN I GROW UP TO BE A MAN (2:01) [Sea Of Tunes BMI—Wilson]
SHE KNOWS ME TOO WELL (2:28) [Sea Of Tunes BMI—Wilson]

BEACH BOYS (Capitol 5245)

The Beach Boys, who are coming off a tremendous double-decker in the chart-topping "I Get Around" and "Don't Worry Baby," should soon zoom skywards once again with this duo. On the leadoff portion they ask what would happen "When I Grow Up To Be A Man"—in the jumpin' rhythmic manner that has made them such big teen favorites. Coupler's a captivating cha cha beat romancer that's also sure to please the kids.

ON THE STREET WHERE YOU LIVE
(3:10) [Chappell ASCAP—Lerner, Loewe]

ALMOST THERE (2:57) [Northern, Barnaby ASCAP—Keller, Shayne]

ANDY WILLIAMS (Columbia 43128)

With all the hullabaloo over the soon-due flick version of "My Fair Lady" it's a cinch that one of the big tunes that'll be making the rounds shortly will be "On The Street Where You Live." This beautiful Andy Williams interpretation-set against a superb Bob Mersey lilting beat-ballad ork-choral backdrop-is destined for a top ten chart berth. However, don't overlook the enchanting soft beat cha reading of "Almost There"—from the up-coming pic, "I'd Rather Be Rich." It can be a very big two-sider.

YOU MUST BELIEVE ME (2:30) [Curtom BMI—Mayfield]
SEE THE REAL ME (2:24) [Curtom BMI—Mayfield]

THE IMPRESSIONS (ABC-Paramount 10581)

The Impressions, who just added "Keep On Pushing" to their rapidly growing smash chain, should do the same with "You Must Believe Me." It's another one of their tantalizing bluesy, shuffle-beat cha cha affairs that sports a top notch Johnny Pate arrangement. Underlid's a heartfelt beat-ballad romantic opus.

CHUG-A-LUG [Tree BMI—Miller]
REINCARNATION (1:58) [Tree BMI—Miller]

ROGER MILLER (Smash 1926)

Country music's Roger Miller, who's still enjoying a sensational pop chart run with his rib-tickling novelty original, "Dang Me," can make it a repeat performance with another one of his self-penned delights. Tune, a foot-tappin' affair tagged "Chug-A-Lug," has been culled (due to strong deejay response and requests of the "Tonight" TV fans-following Roger's appearances) from his smash "Roger And Out" LP. Watch it take off. Coupler's a charming up tempo romantic entry—also penned by Roger.

AIN'T THAT LOVING YOU BABY (2:44) [Conrad BMI—Reed]
LET IT BE ME (2:50) [Leeds ASCAP—Curtis, Becaud, Delanoé]

BETTY EVERETT & JERRY BUTLER (VeeJay 613)

Waxdom's newest 'disk marriage' looks like it'll reap solid two-sided chart results. It's VeeJay's Betty Everett and Jerry Butler who team up in fabulous style on a pair of not-so-old-timers. One's an infectious shuffle-thump up-dating of the while-back Jimmy Reed dual-mart success, "Ain't That Loving You Baby." The other's a lovely, lilting beat-ballad revival of the touching Everly Bros. hit, "Let It Be Me." Potent instrumental showcases on two red-hot contenders.

WHERE IS SHE? (2:10) [Screen Gems, Columbia BMI—Weil, Mann]
HOW TO MAKE A FAREWELL (2:08) [Skol, Zygote BMI—Curtis]

BOBBY VEE (Liberty 55726)

Bobby Vee's latest Liberty offering looks (and sounds) like another big winner for him. Tabbed "Where Is She?" it's an extremely pretty, dual-tracked wistful ballad that Bobby puts across with tender emotion. Warming, appealing choral backing by the Eligibles and a fine Ernie Freeman arrangement rounds out the lid. The other half's a touching steady up beat affair that can also score heavily.

SALLY WAS A GOOD OLD GIRL (2:15) [Pamper BMI—Cochran]
FOR YOU (1:56) [Tree BMI—Domino, Riley]

FATS DOMINO (ABC-Paramount 10584)

This could be the one to send Fats back to top-tensville. It's the short-while-back country dandy, "Sally Was A Good Old Girl," that the songster serves up in his effervescent style. It's a sparkling, rock-a-rhythmic hand-clapping affair that could be one of the real big Domino outings. The inviting, sentimental shuffle-ballad, "For You," also rates chart action.

Pick of the Week

WHOLE LOTTA SHAKIN' GOIN' ON
[Cherio Music Valley BMI—David, Williams]
GOODNIGHT IRENE [Ludlow BMI—Ledbetter, Lomax]

LITTLE RICHARD (VeeJay 612)

Little Richard, who's been heading back to chartsville via the disk and self-penned material routes, can have a giant double-header with his initial outing on VeeJay. One half's a wildly enthusiastic revival of Jerry Lee Lewis' frantic rocker, "Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On" while the subdued pairing's an inviting sing-a-long, rock-a-blues-waltz view of the classic "Goodnight Irene." Take your pick. Both ends have the goods.

LITTLE QUEENIE (2:08) [Arc BMI—Berry]
BOO-RAY (2:24) [JEC BMI—Mitchell]

BILL BLACK'S COMBO (Hi 2079)

Bill Black and Co. are the latest to hop aboard the Chuck Berry-material bandwagon as they serve up another one of their instrumental delights. This time it's "Little Queenie," that gets that 'untouchable' rockin'-shuffle-blues treatment by the Black outfit. Could be Bill's biggest in quite awhile. Companion piece, "Boo-Ray," is a bright shuffle-rhythm ditty that can also catch on.

RANDY (2:12) [Screen Gems, Columbia BMI—King, Goffin]
THEY'RE JEALOUS OF ME (2:40)

[Screen Gems, Columbia BMI—King, Goffin]

EARL-JEAN (Colpix 748)

IT'S LOVE BABY (24 HOURS A DAY) (2:24) [Excellorec BMI—Jarrett]
HE'S GOT THE WHOLE WORLD IN HIS HANDS (2:15)
[Chappell ASCAP—Love]

JACKIE deSHANNON (Liberty 55730)

Lark, who's had previous Top 100 experience, can have her biggest outing to date in this new Liberty stint. It's a pulsating, multi-track rock revival of the click r&b oldie, "It's Love Baby (24 Hours A Day)," that sports a potent Jack Nitzsche ork-choral arrangement. Laurie London's years-back sensation gets a fresh new handclapping refitting on the flip.

Newcomer Picks

DO WAH DIDDY DIDDY (2:19) [Trio BMI—Barry, Greenwich]
WHAT YOU GONNA DO? (2:27) [Al Gallico BMI—Jones, Mann]

MANFRED MANN (Ascot 2157)

"Do Wah Diddy Diddy," a number one sensation in England, has what it takes to repeat that chart showing in the U.S. (in addition to giving the U.A.-distributed label it's first big outing). It's by Manfred Mann (five songsters who share the same name) and it's a thumpin' novelty rocker that's right up the teeners' alley. The intriguing, hard-rock-shuffle entry on the other end can also move out.

SHOW YOU MEAN IT TOO (1:55) [Leeds ASCAP—Davies]
EVERYTHING I DO IS WRONG (2:10) [HiLo BMI—Rich]

ME AND THEM (U.S. Songs 601)

The new Bacharach & David label can step out right off the bat with this deck that comes by way of England. It's a swinging, 'Liverpool'-sounding rocker, tabbed "Show You Mean It Too," by a new group with a Me And Them moniker. Coupler's an inviting stomp beat affair.

GATOR TAILS AND MONKEY SPATS (2:40)
[Bloor-Hoffman BMI—Willis]

THE ROACH (2:24) [Bloor-Hoffman BMI—Willis, Venetoulis]

THE SPATS (ABC-Paramount 10585)

Look for the Spats to break thru the hit barrier with their ABC debut, "Gator Tails And Monkey Ribs." Side's a tantalizing thump-a-rhythm rocker that should be a big attraction in both the r&b and pop marts. Solid Ray Pohlman arrangement on a deck that has Dick Johnson in the spotlight. Undercut's stompin'-twist-like dance step.

HIS LIPS GET IN THE WAY (2:16)
[Screen Gems, Columbia BMI—Miller, Greenfield]
SPORTS CAR SALLY (2:02) [Screen Gems, Columbia BMI—Kornfeld]

BERNADETTE CASTRO (Colpix 747)

Chances are Bernadette Castro will have her first big chart romance with this debut on the Colpix banner. Tabbed "His Lips Get In The Way," it's a haunting, low-keyed cha cha romancer (from the Mary Wells school) that the lark and her vocal-instrumental accompaniment put across in very commercial fashion. The sparkling multi-track under-cut takes a jumpin' hot-rod beat route.

Best Bets

CLYDE McPHATTER (Mercury 72317)

● LUCILLE (2:40) [Venice BMI-Collins, Penniman] McPhatter comes up with his most powerful bid for a big chart return with this fabulous blues-ballad revival of the Little Richard oldie. Deck, recorded 'live' at the Apollo, is from the LP of the same name.

(B+) BABY BABY (1:55) [Oli-mac BMI-McPhatter, Oliver] Complete change-of-pace on this rock-twist'er also from the package.

BILLY FURY (Parrot 9692)

● IT'S ONLY MAKE BELIEVE (2:30) [Marielle-BMI-Twitty, Nance.] Here's an ultra-commercial item from the English chanter that could be a winner in short order. It's a ballad with a beat and a big ork arrangement sure to catch on early. Eye it for brisk sales.

(B+) BABY WHAT DO YOU WANT ME TO DO (2:50) [Conrad-BMI-Reed.] Funky, bluesy opus with plenty of appeal.

TERESA BREWER (Philips 40027)

● DERN YA (DANG ME) (1:43) [Tree BMI-Miller, Tubb] This femme answer to the Roger Miller novelty smash is a good bet to send the bubbly-voiced thrush back to big hit territory. It's a real cutie that has Teresa and the Alan Lorber ork-chorus happily knocking out those tricky gimmicks heard on the Miller deck.

(B+) MAMA NEVER TOLD ME (1:50) [Prize ASCAP-Grines] More bright goings-on here.

PAUL REVERE & THE RAIDERS (Columbia 43114)

(B+) SWIM (1:56) [Blackwood BMI-Lindsey, Revere] Solid all-instrumental serving of the current dance fad.

BOBBY WILDING (DCP 1106)

● I WANT YOU (2:16) [Almi-mo BMI-Hart, Weinstein] This multi-track rocker from Bobby Wilding and the Teddy Randazzo-led ork-chorus sports a catchy teen lyric and a steady heavy beat that can make it big on the wax scene. Powerful stand that really builds to a big finish.

(B+) TOO YOUNG TO FALL IN LOVE (1:31) [South Mountain BMI-Rankin, Barberis, Weinstein, Randazzo] Contagious, high-speed jump'er. UA handles the label.

COBRAS (Swan 4176)

POP PICKS

GREAT THEMES FROM HIT FILMS—Enoch Light—Command RS 871SD

Enoch Light, who struck paydirt with his first Dimension 3 offering, again spotlights the brilliant stereo process which gives the added effect of a third speaker, with this set of film themes from current and recent flicks. Launching the session with "From Russia With Love," the orkster continues with inventively arranged versions of "A Hard Day's Night," "Call Me Irresponsible" and "Mondo Cane No. 2." Sales should soar.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE VILLAGE STOMPERS—Epic LN 24109

The Village Stompers zoomed to the top of the singles and LP charts with their blockbuster arrangement of "Washington Square," and here make a potent bid for similar sales with this new issue on Epic. The folk-Dixie sound of the crew proves a natural for such continental items as "I Love Paris," "Limehouse Blues," "London-derry Air" and "Moonlight On The Ganges." Look like another moneymaker for the click band.

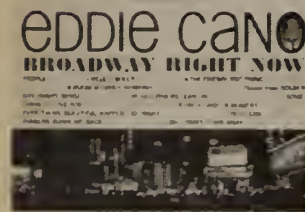

BEHOLD A PALE HORSE—Original Soundtrack—Maurice Jarre—Colpix CP 519

Maurice Jarre, who earned an Academy Award for his "Lawrence Of Arabia" score, has created a top-drawer musical backing for Fred Zinnemann's currently-in-release production of "Behold A Pale Horse." The music powerfully underlines the flick's dramatic suspenseful qualities with rhythmic passages juxtaposed with lyrical segments. Highlights of the track include "Paco Leaving Spain," "Manuel's Decision" and "Father Francisco's Hospital," LP should zoom up the charts.

BILL DANA IN LAS VEGAS—Kapp KL 1402

Bill "Jose Jimenez" Dana spotlights both sides of the Dana coin on this new comedy session cut live by Kapp at the Sahara in Las Vegas. One side of the LP is devoted to the comedy of Jimenez while the other features Dana as a stand-up comic delivering gags in his normal voice. Both ends of the album are hilariously funny and Dana is sure to add this set to his list of winners. Eye this one for an early chart appearance.

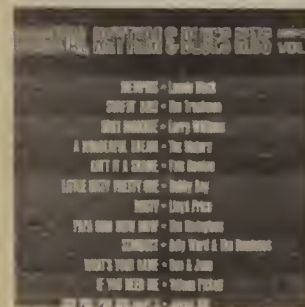

BROADWAY RIGHT NOW—Eddie Cano—Reprise RS 6124

Eddie Cano has earned many laurels in the past with his distinctive keyboard stylings, but this new Reprise set boasting a flock of tunes culled from current main stem productions ranks as one of his most powerful entries to date. The 88'er dishes-up tasteful imaginative renditions of "People," "Hello Dolly" and "I've Got You To Lean On." Eye the package for rapid consumer acceptance.

EYDIE GORME & THE TRIO LOS PANCHOS—Columbia CL 2203

Eydie Gorme, who is currently clicking with "I Want You To Meet My Baby," teams up with the Trio Los Panchos, one of South America's foremost vocal-instrumental groups on this album outing on Columbia. All of the tunes here are delivered in Spanish and are of the standard Latin variety. The result of this teaming is a first-rate musical bill-of-fare with the lark shining in the solo spotlight on such items as "Amor," "Nosotros," "Noche De Ronda," and "La Ultima Noche." Heavy sales can be expected above and below the border.

ORIGINAL RHYTHM & BLUES HITS—Various Artists—Liberty LRP 3381

Liberty has had tremendous success with their packages of rock 'n' roll hits, and this first edition of r&b triumphs should develop into a similar big seller. The disk boasts a stellar group of artists including Fats Domino ("Ain't It A Shame"), Wilson Pickett ("If You Need Me"), Lloyd Price ("Misty"), plus many, many more. Potent wax.

THE SEVENTH DAWN—Joe Sherman—World Artists WAS 3000

Joe Sherman, his orchestra and chorus, dish up a dozen melodic gems, eight of which come from the pens of Joe and his partner George D. Weiss. Individually and as a team Sherman & Weiss have produced a string of hits including the recent Nat Cole click, "That Sunday That Summer." These are topnotch programming items destined for plenty of spins and sales. Other bright bands here are "Toys In The Attic," "Ramblin' Rose," and "Seventh Dawn."

SONGS OF TRAGEDY—Hank Snow—RCA Victor—LPM 2901

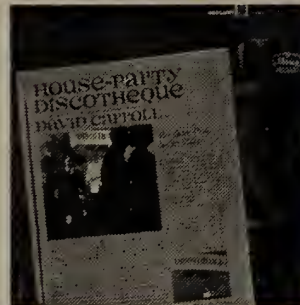

Hank Snow directs his musical attention at a heart-tugging collection of tragic country songs of sorrow on this blue-ribbon disk from Victor. The songster's rich-wide-range baritone voice and distinctive delivery carries him in good stead in chorus-backed renditions of "The Prisoner's Song," "The Answer To Little Blossom" and "Put Your Arms Around Me." Album should score in both the c&w and pop markets.

HOMEcomings—Highwaymen—United Artists UAS 6348

The Highwaymen made a dramatic return to their alma mater, Wesleyan U., for this impressive sets of folk sturdies and newer selections. The boys are in superior form as their distinctive brand of musicianship and singing is spotlighted on "Standing By The Gate," "Rhody" and "Brandy Is My True Love's Name." Disk should create plenty of sales excitement.

POP BEST BETS

HOUSE PARTY DISCOTHEQUE—David Carroll—Mercury SR 60962

David Carroll jumps on the rapidly-expanding discotheque bandwagon with this delightful set of popular melodies from Mercury. The set, obviously geared for all sorts of dancing pleasure, includes a fine sampling of different tempos (e.g. fox trot, bossa nova, cha cha, etc.). Carroll skillfully helms in large band in lush arrangements of "My Kind Of Girl," "Play A Simple Melody" and "Muskrat Ramble." Deejays should find plenty of programmable material here.

THE POPULAR FOLK MUSIC OF FRANCE—Vee Jay 6408

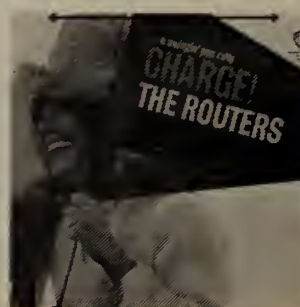

THE POPULAR FOLK MUSIC OF SWITZERLAND—Vee Jay 6407

Vee Jay unveils its ten-LP set of international folk music albums which have become the official recordings of the New York World's Fair. The ten albums, featuring the folk music of France, Switzerland, Austria, India, Spain, Germany, Israel, Venezuela, Greece and Italy, were all recorded in the countries represented by leading folk artists. The French edition features songs from old Paris from the time of Toulouse-Lautrec performed by Suzy Clair, Marcel Nobla and the Chanteurs de Haut-Montmartre. The Swiss entry spotlights the Swiss Bell Ringers and the Swiss Band Organ. World's Fair exposure should spark sales interest in the entire set which is also of educational interest. There is also a growing interest in the recorded music of other countries which should add sales impetus.

CHARGE!—The Routers—Warner Bros. 1559

The Routers, who had a runaway best-seller with a while-back deck tagged, "Let's Go," come up with a package of infectious rhythms on Warner Bros.—this time adding the potent dance beat to a set of college fight sounds. Funky guitars and sizzlin' saxes is the theme here as the group charges its way through "On Winssocki," "Ramblin' Wreck," "Buckle Down Winssocki" and "On Brave Old Army Team." Plenty of dance and deejay appeal here. Could pull plenty of coin.

GUNFIGHT AT O. K. CORRAL—Walter Brennan—Liberty LRP 3372

Walter Brennan pays a moving tribute to the Old West on this Liberty set of popular recent vintage tunes associated with the cowboy life. While backed by a rich chorus, the vet thespian talks his way through "Riders In The Sky," "Cool Water" and "High Noon" with loads of sincerity and verve. Delightful listening throughout.

CASEY ANDERSON

MORE PRETTY GIRLS THAN ONE—Casey Anderson—Atco 33-166

Casey Anderson could well establish a national reputation for himself with this top-notch pop-folk-blues set from Atco. The chanter-guitarist has a powerful, rich, wide-range baritone voice and a distinctive, talkin' blues delivery. The material here runs the gamut from recently-written message songs to traditional evergreens. Among the best bets are "More Pretty Girls Than One," "This Little Light Of Mine" and "Bury Me In My Shades."

THAT'S ALL—Haymes-Mundy Orchestra—20th Century-Fox TFM 3142

Jimmy Mundy and Bob Haymes combine their distinctive musical talents and join forces in their own 40-piece orchestra on this easy-going instrumental set of mostly Haymes-penned tunes from 20th Century Fox. There's plenty of fine dancing and/or listening pleasure as the orksters dish-up sophisticated arrangements of "The Fox," "I'll Teach You How To Cry" and "Curtain Time."

TV'S "PENNY" ROSEMARY PRINZ SINGS—Pharos MN 10001

Rosemary Prinz, one of the stars of CBS-TV'er daytime, "As The World Turns," makes an auspicious recording debut with this fine set of chestnuts and recent vintage items. The thespian has a lyrical legit-styled voice and a dramatic, power-packed delivery. She shines on "Always," "When I Fall In Love" and "My Coloring Book." A talent to watch.

THE SONGS WE HEARD WHEN WE WERE IN FRANCE—London International SW 99334

Here is a bit of nostalgia from London International that recalls the era immediately following WW II in France and the melodies played by Frenchmen for the thousands of American soldiers waiting to go home. Coupled with these songs, played by the orchestra of Maurice Lorange, are the everyday sounds heard on the streets of Paris. The songs are lilting and romantic and loaded with Gallic charm. "La Java Bleue," "Les Bourgeois," "La Chaloupee" and "La Cuisine" are just a few.

THE LITTLE SINGERS OF TOKYO ON TOUR—Request SRLP 8055

The Little Singers of Tokyo make their American wax debut on Request with this set of Japanese tunes. The youngsters, who recently won wide critical acclaim for their American concert tour, offer the musical highlights of that tour—folk tunes devised over the years and delightfully delivered by this mixed choir. Included here are "Moon On The Ruins," "Where Are You?" "Song On The Beach" and others. Pleasant listening throughout.

THE FREEDOM SINGERS SING OF FREEDOM NOW!—Mercury SR 60924

Civil rights looms as a prime target for documentary albums and Mercury gets the ball rolling with this entry of freedom songs and spoken word offerings. The civil rights movement has been fraught with tragedy and sorrow, and it is this sorrow that the Freedom Singers tell of in song and word. A moving speech by John Lewis is included with "We Are Soldiers In The Army," "They Laid Medgar Evers In His Grave" and many others. The set is sure to stir up plenty of sales attention.

JAZZ PICKS

MILES DAVIS IN EUROPE—Columbia CL 2183

The Newport Jazz Festival's European counterpart is the festival at Antibes and this new jazz romp on Columbia recalls some of the brighter moments of last year's meet and in particular the trumpet of Miles Davis. Introduced at this festival was drummer Tony Williams who's heard on this session along with tenor saxist George Coleman. The trumpeter is in top form as he offers "Milestones," "Autumn Leaves," "Joshua," "All Of You" and "Walkin'." The jazz purists will dig this set.

LIVE AT THE LIVING ROOM—Three Sounds—Mercury SR 60921

The Three Sounds, those doyens of middle-of-the-road jazz melodies, are back again in a live setting, this set having been cut at Cincinnati's Living Room. The trio's straight-forward distinctive brand of harmony and counterpoint are effectively showcased on "Mississippi Mud," "Once In A Lifetime" and "Glory Of Love." Disk seems sure to pull plenty of loot.

A MUSICAL AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF LOUIS ARMSTRONG 1930-34—Decca DL 74331

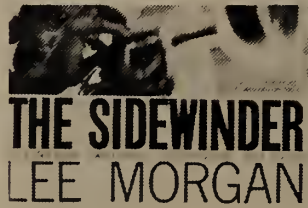

Here's a nostalgic set of jazz oldies cut by Louis Armstrong during his days with Decca. These Depression tunes have all become firmly established with Satchmo over the past three decades and the vet trumpeter-singer turns in top-drawer renditions of "Body And Soul," "You Rascal You" and "Them There Eyes." A collector's item.

A JAZZ PORTRAIT OF JACK LA FORGE—Regina R 314

The jazz side of the La Forge coin is deftly showcased on this new album outing from Regina. The 88'er, with a string of successful pop albums to his credit, exhibits a flair for the jazz idiom as he essays a dozen standards and originals in a feelingful and inventive manner. Loads of good listening and choice programming to be had here as the pianist reads through such delighters as "Like Young," "Blues On Velvet," "But Not For Me" and "Summertime." Brisk sales seem assured.

JAZZ BEST BET

THE SIDEWINDER—Lee Morgan—Blue Note 4157

Ace jazz trumpeter Lee Morgan teams-up with a top-flight crew of sidemen on this new Blue Note date including Joe Henderson (tenor sax), Barry Harris (piano), Bob Cranshaw (bass) and Billy Higgins (drums). While backed by the above-mentioned combo Morgan constructs some imaginative, midstream melodic variations on "The Sidewinder," "Gary's Notebook" and "Boy, What A Night." Loads of potential here.

CLASSICAL PICKS

GROFE: Grand Canyon Suite; Leonard Bernstein conducting the New York Philharmonic—Columbia—ML 6018

Leonard Bernstein departs from his recent usual traditional classical context and directs the New York Philharmonic in a sweeping, full-bodied reading of Grofe's three-decades old "Grand Canyon Suite." The conductor injects all of the necessary orchestral "bigness" to work and completely captures the majesty and spirit of the suite's bucolic flavor. A standout recording.

MAHLER: Symphony No. 5, Boston Symphony/Leinsdorf—RCA Victor LM 7031

Here's an attractively boxed two-disk set from Victor that includes Mahler's fifth symphony in C-sharp minor in its entirety plus excerpts from Berg's Wozzeck. The program is performed by the Boston Symphony Orchestra with Erich Leinsdorf at the helm. The Wozzeck excerpts feature Phyllis Curtin as soprano soloist with the Sacred Heart Boychoir of Roslindale, Mass. Both works are brilliantly executed and merit the attention of the classical devotee.

Gale Garnett

Gale Garnett, who is currently zooming up the charts with her RCA Victor recording of "We'll Sing In The Sunshine," was born in Auckland, New Zealand, the eldest daughter of an English carnival pitchman and a Russian emigre. When Gale was nine, the family left the South Pacific for America. They travelled throughout the nation before eventually coming to New York.

A few years later Gale's father died and she took her own apartment on Gotham's lower East Side and she opted for a career in show business. Gale made her professional debut as an actress when she was fifteen. Three years afterwards her high school career ended when she landed a role in the touring company of "The Drunkard." As a thespian she proceeded to be featured in no less than forty-five TV shows. In 1960 a flick part brought her to Paris where she remained for a while after its completion soaking up Gallic culture.

When she returned to the U. S. she made her singing debut at Los Angeles' Garret. The debut was successful and was soon followed by club dates in key spots across the country and her first Victor LP, "My Kind of Folk Songs." She's been a full-time singer ever since.

Brian Poole & Tremeloes

Brian Poole and the Tremeloes, after a bevy of triumphs in their native England, are scoring stateside with "Someone, Someone" on the Monument label.

Brian was born twenty-three years ago in Barking, Essex. As a child he showed an early interest in music and, encouraged by his parents, took five years of lessons with a private tutor. After the completion of his studies, Brian began a singing career when he was nineteen years old. In 1960 the young hopeful teamed with a four-strong group of musicians and singers who called themselves the Tremeloes. The boys' fortunes soon took a turn for the better.

In rapid-fire fashion they hit the charts with "Twist And Shout," "Do You Love Me," "Candy Man," etc., and found themselves in a spotlight of attention. Since then the group has played engagements all over Europe plus South Africa and New Zealand. They've also made two films together.

Healthy Competition

NEW YORK—Charter members of the Animals fan club carrying signs, "The Animals Is Coming," and handing out membership cards, recently crashed the long line of Beatles fans as they waited to see Beatles flick at a Broadway theatre.

The Animals, a new British singing crew, are presently holding down the number three position on the Top 100 with their MGM recording of "The House Of The Rising Sun."

The group is slated for a personal appearance in Gotham at the Paramount Theatre, Sept. 4-13.

Hilltop Expands Country Music Line

NEW YORK—Hilltop Records, the popular-priced series of country albums introduced last Spring by Pickwick International, is picking up steam on both the product and merchandising front. On the eve of the fall selling season, the original 12 LP's of the series have been augmented by four new releases. An intensive merchandising program, working through Pickwick's web of distributors and sub-distributors across the nation has already been blueprinted.

The new release kicks off with a Johnny Horton disk, which features a bevy of songs associated with the late chanter during his brief life. Carl Belew is also represented as is the country comedienne, Cousin Minnie Pearl. A fourth package has a triple-threat quality, offering samples of the wares of George Jones, David Houston and Sonny James, all in the single set.

The albums, all with attractive four-color covers and detailed line notes, are set to retail at the popular price of $1.98.

Vee Jay Repackages Beatles And Four Seasons LP's

HOLLYWOOD—Vee-Jay Records is cashing-in on the tremendous concurrent U.S. popularity of the Beatles and the Four Seasons by repackaging a double-album featuring sides by both groups.

Issuing the LP pair in a single package to coincide with the Beatles personal appearance schedule in the U.S., the label has tagged the two-disk set, "The International Battle Of The Century."

The four-sided album cover contains score cards, biographies, pictures and stories of the eight artists, plus a special bonus 8x15" color pic of the Beatles, suitable for framing.

Victor Plans Big Promo
For New Lorne Greene LP

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records will back its autumn release of Lorne Greene's "Welcome To The Ponderosa" album with a wide range of promotions including advertisements in TV Guide and the Saturday Evening Post, among other outlets and national and regional contests involving radio-TV, music shop and newspapers.

LP is the fourth by the "Bonanza" TV'er star for the label and the campaign aims at establishing his singing career for the long haul as well as boosting sales of this particular album.

Special chatter material plus open-end interviews on acetate will be furnished 4,500 deejays, and art-test features on an exclusive basis are going to TV as well as platter editors of 2,500 newspapers. Also blueprinted are telephone interviews for live airing by spinners across Canada and the U.S., additional phoners to TV columnists, heavy schedule of on-the-air appearances, and point-of-sale window displays.

Campaign will actually be double-pronged, with special attention paid distributors, regional promotion specialists and record dealers.

As his "Bonanza" schedule allows, Greene also expects to hit a number of key cities for personal appearances.

Stanley Roth Named Controller Of Premier

NEW YORK—Stanley Roth has been appointed controller of Premier Albums it was announced last week by Philip Landwehr, president of the budget-priced label.

Prior to joining Premier, Roth, a certified public accountant, was associated with Arthur Anderson & Co. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Handleman Names Three New Vice-Presidents

NEW YORK—At a recent board of directors meeting, John Kaplan, David Strome, and Henry Droz were named vice-presidents of the Handleman Company (Amex) in Detroit.

Reprise Helps Lopez LP
Via Spanish Promotion

BURBANK—Backing up its new chart-riding release of "The Latin Album" by Trini Lopez, Reprise Records is undertaking a massive promotional campaign with Spanish language newspapers and radio stations. Every Spanish periodical and AM programming broadcaster in the nation will shortly be receiving copies of the new Lopez album together with a personal note from Trini Lopez.

The label is also promoting the LP heavily through its overseas licensees, according to Walter Kiernan, the firm's international manager. Reception for the album, which features Spanish-language hits sung in Spanish, has been notably and immediately successful throughout South America, but has also caught on in non-Spanish-speaking areas, such as Japan and India, according to Kiernan.

Hohner Ties In With New Beatle Film

NEW YORK—M. Hohner, Inc., which turns out the major share of the world's harmonicas, has prepared a special Beatles harmonica pack to tie in with the film, "A Hard Day's Night." The pack includes a harmonica like the one John Lennon plays in the film, arrangements for two Beatle tunes, and pictures of the famed group.

To promo the flick and the harmonica pack, the firm is urging dealers to cooperate with theater managers on local contests, and is furnishing the dealers with counter cards and window streamers emphasizing the use of the harmonica in the film.

Hohner is also arranging promotions with deejays to offer harmonicas and movie tickets as prizes.

"Barry's Boys" To Attend Democratic Nat'l Confab

NEW YORK—When the Democratic National Convention convenes in Atlantic City today (24), Mercury Records' timely single, "Barry's Boys" by the Chad Mitchell Trio will be in attendance—in the form of a specially packaged souvenir for delegates to mail to the folks back home.

The deck—a satirical spoof of Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater—has caused waves of partisan furor—including a demand made by one California station for "equal time" for local Republicans.

The single, which will be sold at hotels, cigar stands and novelty counters throughout Atlantic City, is packaged in a specially-designed self-mailer package. It comes in an attractive pre-pack display box.

Kenny Myers the label's sales veep, noted last week that in pre-convention weeks there has been a noticeable increase in sales action on "Reflecting," the Chad Mitchell Trio LP which contains "Barry's Boys."

A military alert prompted by the Viet Nam crisis hampered gate receipts for the Waikiki Shell date because armed forces personnel were not permitted to leave their bases. During the Salt Lake City Lagoon date, a heavy downpour started but the outdoor audience remained seated.

The Mercury folksters are now playing the Illinois State Fair in Springfield before moving on to a week at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs.

The artist first came to the attention of Somer and, subsequently, RCA Victor during an engagement at Gerde's Folk City in New York, where he was an instant click. More recently, he has done successful stints at key niteries in Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago.

At Newport, Feliciano, who has been blind since birth, caused a sensation with his vocal delivery and guitar artistry and was repeatedly called back to the stage for encores.

Colpix Unveils 3 New Sound Track Sets

NEW YORK—Colpix Records has announced a late summer LP release highlighting three soundtrack albums from the films "Behold A Pale Horse," "Nothing But The Best," and "Lilith."

French composer Maurice Jarre, who won an Oscar for his score for "Lawrence Of Arabia," wrote the score for "Behold A Pale Horse," and "Lilith" was scored by Kenyon Hopkins who wrote the music for last season's "East Side-West Side" TV series. British flick composer Ron Grainer set "Nothing But The Best" to music.

The label also announced that it is preparing a series of albums for fall debut featuring Art Blakey and his Jazz Messengers, Sonny Stitt, Jimmy Rushing and comedians Dick Gregory and Rip Taylor.

Reprise To Issue Deck By English "Kinks"

BURBANK—Reprise Records has announced that it is rush releasing a new single by an English vocal quartet tabbed, The Kinks. The deck, "You Really Got Me," was secured for U.S. release after negotiations between Reprise's general manager, Mo Austin, and Irv Chezzar of Pye Records.

The Kinks, latest in a steady stream of English vocal groups, are art students who dress like characters out of Dickens, wear their hair long, and have musical interests ranging from Chuck Berry to Bach. The group includes Ray and Dave Davies, Pete Quaife and Mick Avery. "You Really Got Me" was written by rhythm guitarist-leader Ray Davies.

According to Reprise, the tune is fast becoming a hit in England.

Detroit Records Bows

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.—The formation of Detroit Records has been announced by Mark Lee Woods, the firm's president. Associated with him as musical director and vice president will be Richard Alexander.

The new label has issued a first deck tagged "Love's Inventions" and "Mr. Starlight" by the Hot Tamales. Also signed to the label are Phyllis Parker and a vocal group called the Holidays.

Detroit will be distributed nationally and internationally by London Records as a result of an agreement made recently by Woods and Walt Maguire of London.

Another Gold Deck For 4 Seasons

NEW YORK—The Four Seasons have won their first gold disk since joining the Philips label for their current best-seller, "Rag Doll." This is the group's third gold record, the first two having been awarded for "Sherry" and "Big Girls Don't Cry" on the Vee Jay label.

The group has also etched an LP tagged after the hit single which has passed the 100,000 mark in sales, according to label execs.

U.S.S.R. Centralizes Recording Industry

NEW YORK — The Soviet Union's recording industry has taken a major step forward. The huge, sprawling nation has centralized all production of sound recordings in a single industry, with an output of 350,000 disks a day. This bit of insight into the mechanics of the Soviet disk-industry was revealed in a story in last week's (21) New York Times.

The merged organization has embarked upon an ambitious program of rejuvenating old recordings of well-known Russian and international vocalists and instrumentalists.

The new set-up includes all recording studios in Moscow and in the capitals of the Soviet republics and in major provincial cities, as well as the country's four pressing plants.

Johnny Burnette Dies

LOS ANGELES—Singer Johnny Burnette was killed last week (14) in a boating accident on Clear Lake in Calif. While fishing with his family, his craft was struck by another, and the singer was knocked unconscious at impact, thrown from the boat and drowned.

Burnette is survived by his mother, a brother Dorsey who is also a singer, his wife and two children.

During his singing career, Burnette scored hits with "Dreamin'" and "You're Sixteen" on Liberty Records. He recently formed his own label, Magic Lamp for which he waxed his last tune, an original tagged "A Bigger Man," backed with "Less Than A Heartbeat." The singer also produced disks for other Magic Lamp artists such as Linda Hughes, Charles Taylor, Bud Coleman and Bob Phifer.

Capitol's New Singer Getting To Those "Firsts"

HOLLYWOOD—As his disk career blossoms, new Capitol singer Billy Marvin is going through a rash of "firsts." This week, the label releases his first single, "Secret Love" and "Open Your Eyes."

On Tues. (11), he arrived for his first visit to Los Angeles, and makes his initial p.a. on the west coast at the Dance Pavilion in Lake Arrowhead this weekend. Soon, he's to appear in his first film, "Swingin' Summer," starring Jim Stacey, Bill Wellman Jr. and Martin West.

Other "firsts" associated with Marvin include the first single produced for Capitol by Bob Bateman and the first film effort from National Talent Consultants-Reno Carrell Productions.

4 Seasons A Sell-Out At Asbury Park

NEW YORK—The Four Seasons, currently playing a series of one-night engagements throughout the country, drew a capacity crowd of 3,500 and grossed $11,907 at Convention Hall, Asbury Park, N. J., on Aug. 15.

According to officials of Convention Hall, the artists were only the second group to sell-out this season. Peter, Paul And Mary drew a full house earlier this year. The Seasons' current Top 100 Philips stand is "Rag Doll."

Heidi Records Bows; Atlantic To Distribute

NEW YORK — The newly formed Heidi Records has released its first single and has announced that national distribution will be handled by Atlantic Records.

The New York based label debuted last week with an initial entry tagged "It's Such A Shame" by the Willows, a group which makes its re-appearance on the disk scene after an absence of almost six years. They recorded formerly for Warwick Records.

Other artists signed to the new diskery are Barbara and Brenda, and Gary & Gary, with singles by the groups skedded for the near future.

Dick Clark Extends "Caravan" Tour

NEW YORK—Based on the success of his current ten-week (June 26-Sept. 8) "Caravan Of Stars" tour which is now racking up the heftiest grosses in the five-year "Caravan" history, Dick Clark has set an additional three-week "Caravan" tour, Nov. 13-Dec. 6, which will cover the north eastern and middle Atlantic portions of the country.

Stars already set by Clark for the new tour include: Johnny Tilotson, the Drifters, Bobby Freeman, Brian Hyland, and the Crystals, with more top recording artists to be added before the tour commences.

Clark reports that even before official announcement, tour is more than 50% booked, with 13 dates firmed out of a total 24. Dates firmed thus far are: Nov. 18, Bowling Green, Ky.; Nov. 19, Bloomington, Ky.; Nov. 20, Owensboro, Ky.; Nov. 21, Dayton, Ohio; Nov. 22, Indianapolis, Ind.; Nov. 23, Athens, Ohio; Nov. 24, Youngstown, Ohio; Nov. 25, Pitts., Pa.; Nov. 26, Erie, Pa.; Nov. 27, Cleveland, Ohio; Dec. 3, Richmond, Va.; Dec. 4, Norfolk, Va., Dec. 5, New Haven, Conn.

New "Opry" Additions

NASHVILLE — Recent visitors to WSM-Nashville's Grand Ole Opry were given an unexpected treat when Ott Devine, manager of the Opry, introduced Dottie West and the Osbornes as the newest members of the Opry. Their joining marked the first addition to the Opry since last March when Ernest Ahworth and Jim and Jesse became members of the country music "family." The lark has scored in recent months with a series of RCA Victor hits while the Osbornes have long been a mainstay of Decca's bluegrass-folk dept. Standing (left to right) in the above pic are the Osbornes, the songstress and Ott Devine.

Airtime For "Showtime"

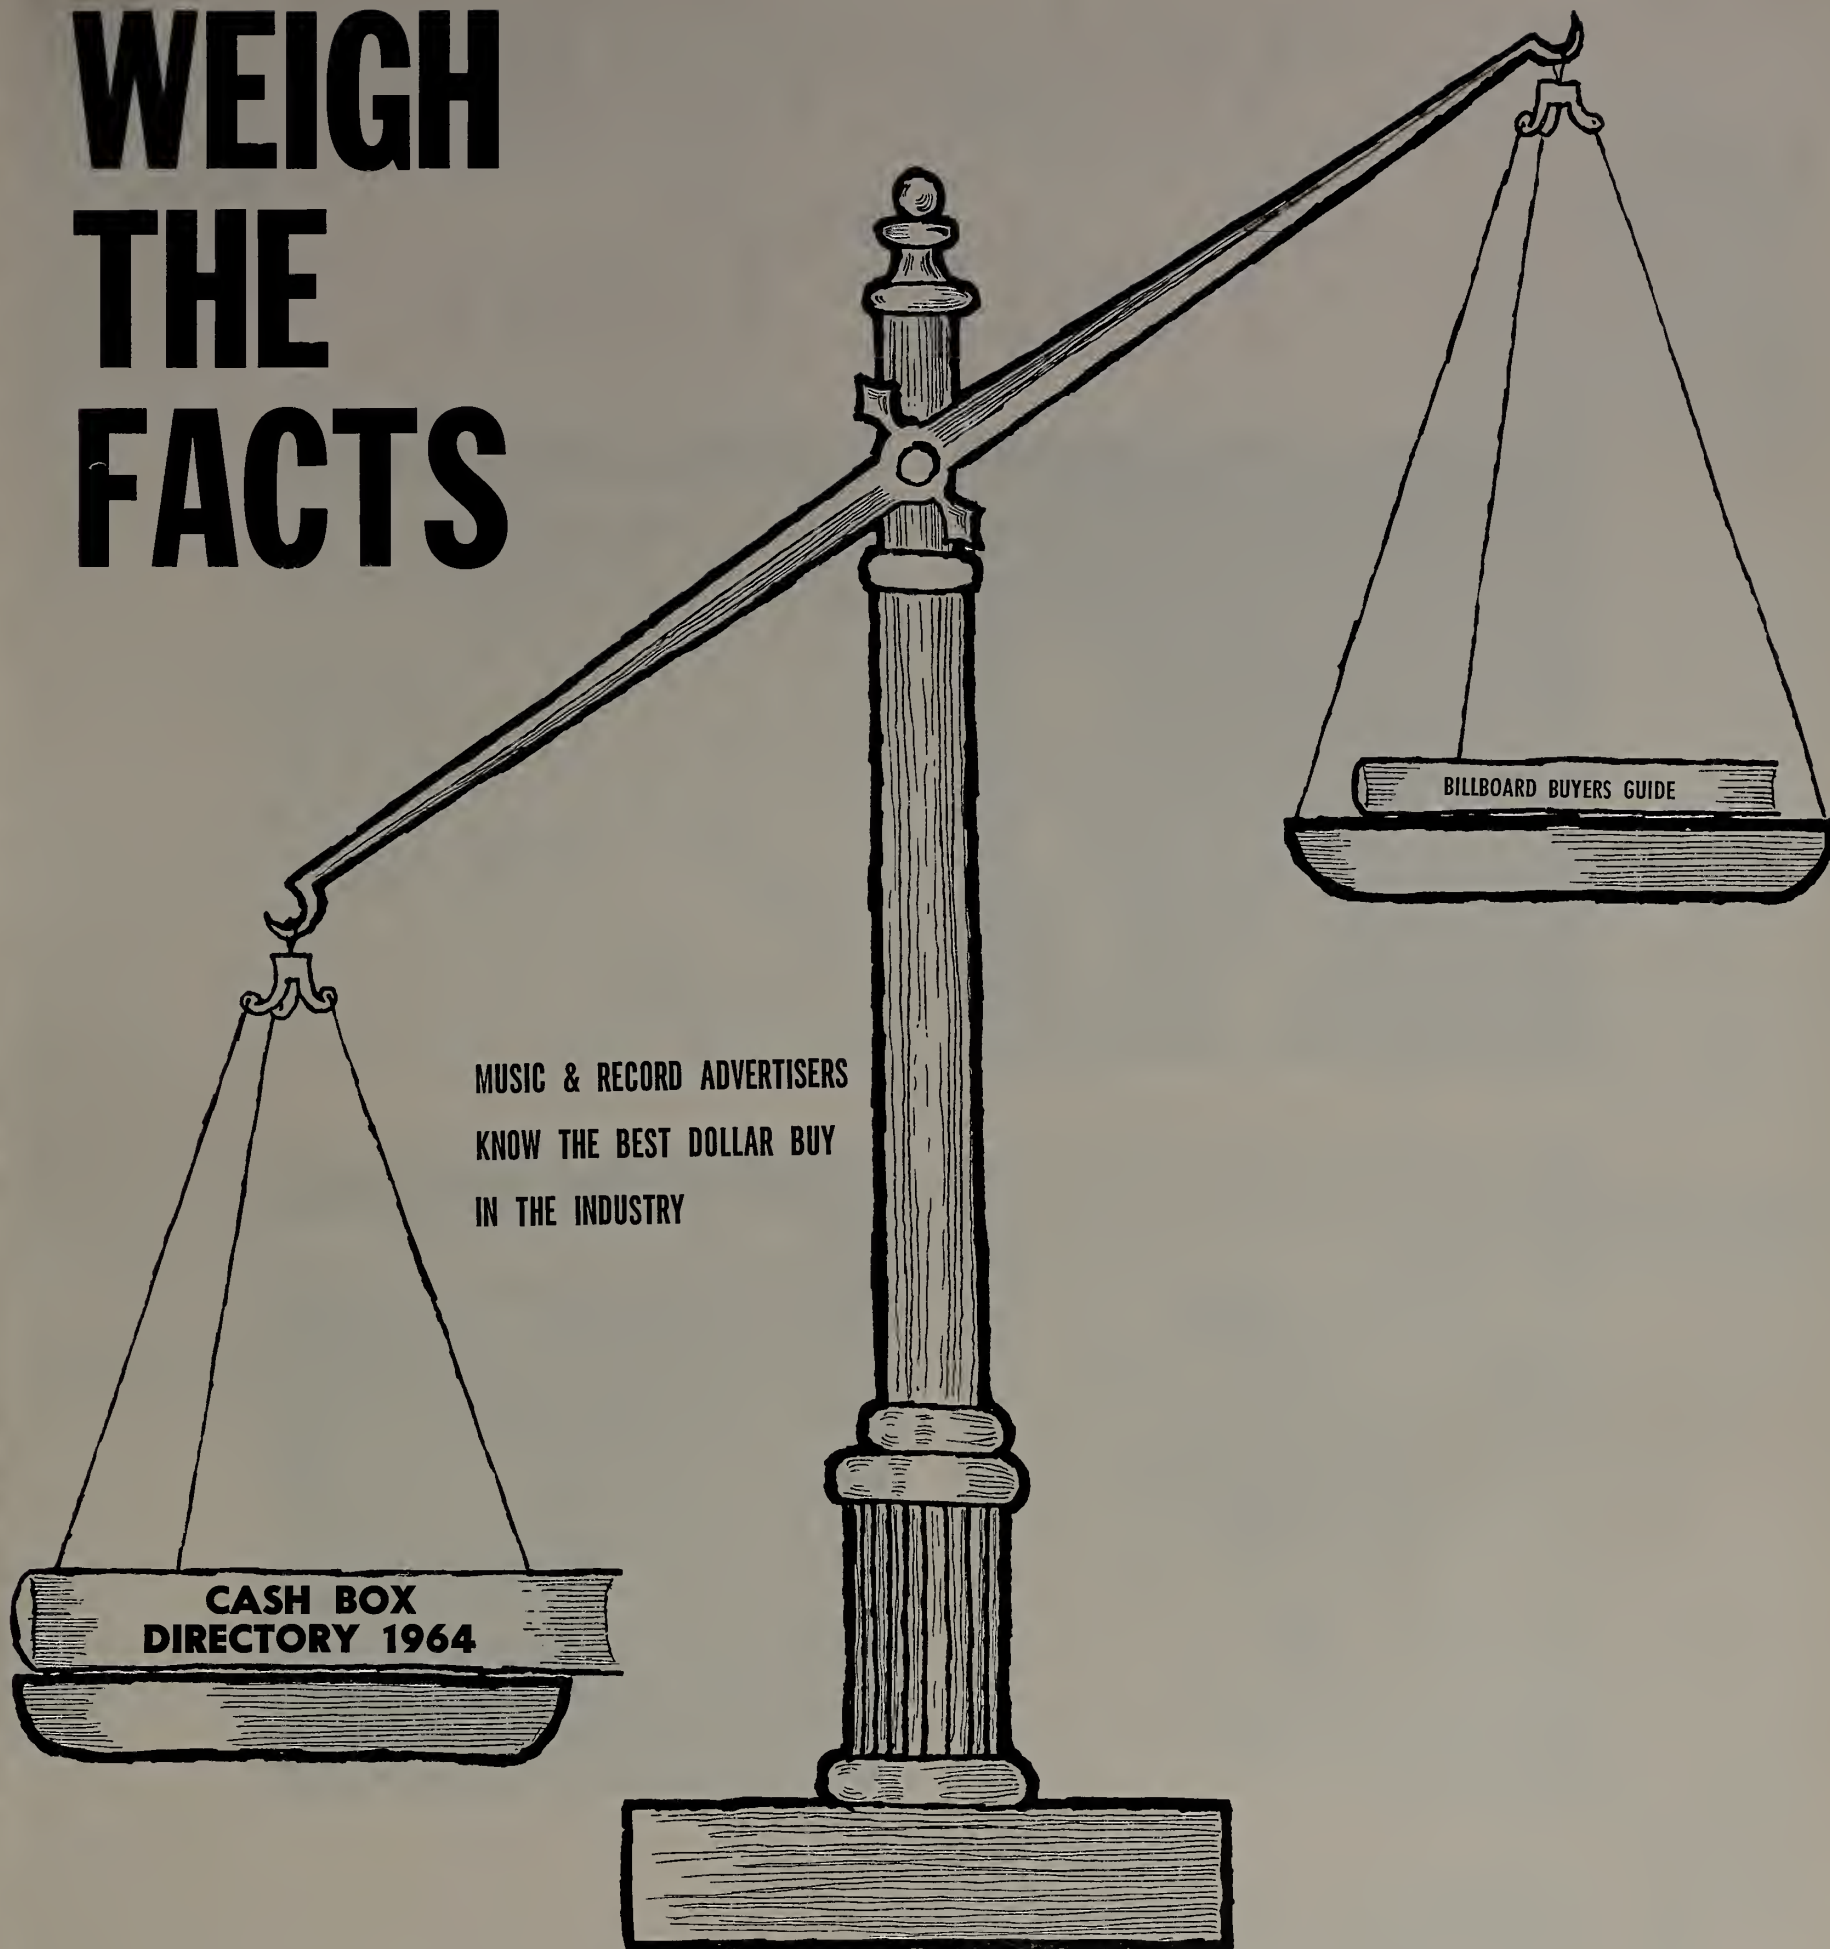

CHICAGO—Alan Mink (left), national promo manager for Smash, and spinner Bob Terry of WAME in Miami, appear pleased with the many listener requests for James Brown's Smash LP, "Showtime," and single, "Out Of Sight."

The best-selling chanter is also on a tour of one-niters through the South where his show is reportedly playing to sellout houses.

Correction

NEW YORK—On last week's Radio Active Chart, the Lou Christie deck, "Guitars And Bongos," should have been listed on Colpix, not Roulette. On the last listing, the tune showed 31% airplay, and this week increases to 43%.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

MY FRIEND ON THE RIGHT (2:29) [Tree BMI—Lane, Young]

THE WORLD'S GREATEST LOVE (2:16) [Blackwood BMI—Sykes]

FARON YOUNG (Mercury 72313)

Faron Young, who hit last time out with "Rhinestones," is a cinch to repeat that success with this blue-ribbon follow-up stanza tagged "My Friend On The Right." The side is a medium-paced, shufflin' lament about a poor fellow who loses his gal to his best friend. The flip, "The World's Greatest Love," is a full ork-backed pledge of romantic devotion rendered with telling authority by Young.

MAD (2:39) [Newkeys BMI—Hall]

DON'T BE SURPRISED (2:30) [Raleigh BMI—Singleton, Kennedy]

DAVE DUDLEY (Mercury 72308)

Dave Dudley should zoom up the charts in no time flat with this power-packed Mercury offering called "Mad." The tune is a rollicking, hard-driving affair an unfortunate guy who gets in the dog house with wife after a night on the town. Side's a natural for heavy air play. The other end, "Don't Be Surprised," is a tender, slow-moving, chorus-backed tale of heartbreak in a traditional country vein.

THE FRENCH SONG (2:52) [Jasper BMI—Starr]

KENTUCKY WALTZ (2:22) [Peer International BMI—Monroe]

MARION WORTH (Columbia 43119)

The lark should have no difficulty in continuing with her recent hit skein with this potent destined-for-the-charts entry. The top side here, "The French Song," is an easy-going, lyrical, sentimental romancer sung in both French and English by Marion. Eye it. The attractive undercut, "Kentucky Waltz," is a slow-shufflin' chorus-backed weeper essayed with loads of poise and sincerity by the songstress.

LOAD DEM WAGONS (2:55) [Glad BMI—Fitzmorris, Rhodes]

CRAZY DREAMS (2:25) [Tree BMI—Fitzmorris, Rhodes]

JOHNNY FITZMORRIS (Columbia 43104)

Newcomer Johnny Fitzmorris can readily establish himself on a national basis with this ultra-commercial Columbia outing tabbed "Load Dem Wagons." The tune is an infectious, medium-paced calypso-styled chorus-backed ode about the trials and tribulations of hard work. Side has a good chance to create some pop market excitement. The coupler, "Crazy Dreams," is a shuffle-beat tradition-oriented bluegrass-flavored hillbilly tear-jerker.

HEADS YOU WIN TAILS I LOSE (2:10) [Cedarwood BMI—Lewis]

OLD PAIR OF SHOES (2:10) [Wise-O-Man BMI—Walker]

MAC WISEMAN (Capitol 5256)

Mac Wiseman can get back in his money-making ways with this extremely strong Capitol release labeled "Heads You Win Tails I Lose." The song, which is based on the sucker reverse of the old kiddie choosing game, is lively, bluegrass-styled weeper with a contagious, repeating melodic riff. "Old Pair Of Shoes" is a sentimental honky tonkish nostalgic romancer sold with plenty of verve by Wiseman.

BILL MONROE (Decca 31658)

MIKE HIGHT (Chart 1110)

(B+) SHENANDOAH BREAK-DOWN (2:15) [Champion BMI—Monroe] The vet country musician leads his band in a spirited, high-powered bluegrass instrumental stanza here. Side has enough good stuff in it to grab plenty of spins.

(B+) LONELY WALLS (2:24) [Peach SESAC—Hight] Newcomer Mike Hight unleashes his potent wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this pretty, dual-track tale of romantic rejection. Plenty of potential here.

(B+) MARY AT HOME PLACE (2:20) [Starday BMI—Clark] This out Monroe dishes-up a moving, rhythmic folkish ballad in his distinctive warm-hearted style.

(B) I DON'T THINK I NEED A HEARTACHE (2:30) [Peach SESAC—Hight] This one's a lively, high-spirited happy blueser with an effective raunchy beat.

It was the first show done by Wagoner in the more than two years his show has been in syndication.

AUSTRALIA

An important visitor to these shores is Madame Colette de Nattes, manager of the international division of Vogue Records of France. During her stay she will discuss the future of her catalogue with Tony Tromeros of Phono-Vox Records of Australia who represents the Vogue line in this country.

Ray Charles is set to visit Australia next month. He is set to play Melbourne on 1st and 2nd September, Brisbane 3rd September and Sydney 4th and 5th. In honor of the occasion, Festival Records—who handles Ampar, Atlantic and Impulse Records in Australia—are making an all-out promotion and sales drive on their range of albums featuring Charles, with special emphasis on the new package "Have A Smile With Me."

Festival Records are out with an orchestral release by the Enoch Light Orchestra of, "A Hard Day's Night" the title tune from the Beatles' film.

Via the Kapp label, Australian Record Company has released a package entitled "Hello Dolly" by Louis Armstrong, named after his great smash of the same title.

Another hot set from A.R.C.—this time on Chess—is "Chuck Berry's Greatest Hits." This one should sell like a single because Chuck is one of the hottest disk attractions in Australia at the moment and there is strong talk that he will visit Australia for personal appearances quite soon.

From RCA we have three new singles each with a big chance of being popular. Paul Anka has "In My Imagination"; Skeeter Davis is out with "Let Me Get Close To You"; and Joe Williams is represented with "High Noon".

The late, great C&W star Jim Reeves appears on a recently-issued RCA single with "I Guess I'm Crazy" c/w "Not Until The Next Time."

Following the enormous success of "Diane," "I Believe" and "Ramona," EMI has released the latest single by the Bachelors which carries "I Wouldn't Trade You For The World" and "Beneath The Willow Tree". Also for EMI, it looks as though The Hollies have struck oil because their version of "Lucille" has been released as a single from their album "Stay With The Hollies."

The whole country is in the grip of the Beatles and "A Hard Day's Night." Airplay on their material from the film is almost unbelievable and EMI have issued another single from the soundtrack. The titles are "I Should Have Known Better" and "If I Fell." The movie is now showing in major cities throughout Australia and the soundtrack album is now outselling most singles.

With the Peter, Paul & Mary "fever" still at high pitch, it is interesting to note that ARC is all geared up for a big drive on the "In Concert," the 2-record set to be released on the Warner Bros. label. ARC is preparing for the distribution of teasers, posters, leaflets and window displays all round Australia. Set is due for release on October 1st but it is likely to be released well before the end of September.

It's good to report that Liberty recording star Vikki Carr is returning to Australia for a hotel season which is scheduled to begin on 27th August. To coincide with her visit EMI is releasing a brand new single "In Love For The Very First Time" and "Should I Follow."

Belinda Music is enjoying a good run with a batch of top titles including "I Just Don't Know What To Do With Myself"; "A Million Drums"; "You're My World"; "Spanish Harlem" and "I'll Touch A Star."

Cilla Black's new single release carries "It's For You" and "He Won't Ask Me"—it's on the Parlophone label through EMI.

EMI (Australia) Ltd. has announced a total profit of better than £400,000 for the year ending June 30th, 1964. This covers the complete EMI operation in Australia and there is no indication just what the result was from the record department alone.

Three new artists will make their disk debut in this country late in August through Australian Record Company. They are the Newbeats with "Bread And Butter" (Hickory); the Greenwood Country Singers present "Frankie And Johnny" on Kapp, and on the Chess label comes Jackie Ross with "Selfish One."

GREAT BRITAIN

"Ready, Steady, Go-with Philips" was the slogan chosen by Philips Records Ltd. for their annual dealers conference which took place in London this week at the Kensington Palace Hotel. The two-day event was attended by the company's national sales force and visitors from overseas included E. Tarretsen, Herman Cats and B. Spits (Baarn); Mr. Klaassen (Phonogram, Holland); S. Niewenhuis (Philips Eindhoven); W. Hamburger (Denmark); Ruuskanen (Finland); Bo Lofberg (Sweden); H. Tueten (Norway); Hans Baum (CBS Germany); S. Von Friedberg (CBS Austria) and John Vis (CBS Holland). Over 150 London dealers attended each two evening presentations for a preview of more than 60 LP and EP releases scheduled for September—the strongest program yet to come from the Philips group of labels. The London presentation will be followed by similar displays in the key cities of Birmingham, Manchester and Glasgow. The autumn line-up of classical, pop, folk and jazz releases features top stars of Philips, Fontana and CBS including Oistrakh, Arrau, Richter, Beecham, Dusty Springfield, Harry Secombe, The Swingle Sisters, Andy Williams, Barbra Streisand, Tony Bennett, Cannonball Adderley, Charlie Byrd, Nana Mouskouri, Mark Murphy, Andre Previn, Ray Conniff et al. Special lavish display material has been prepared to promote the CBS Broadway Original Cast album of "Camelot" which opens in London this week.

The Beatles relinquish their stay at the No. 1 position in both the British and American charts with "A Hard Day's Night." In Britain they are succeeded by Manfred Mann with their first chart topper for EMI "Do Wha Diddy Diddy" and in America by Dean Martin "Everybody Loves Somebody." However, with three red bullet singles in the American Top Twenty, an s.r.o. nation wide tour and rave reviews for their film, it won't be long before they return to No. 1 and earn their 7th Cash Box International Gold Award. Meantime they continue to top the LP charts on both sides of the Atlantic.

The latest British group to storm the American charts, The Animals, go charging up the Top 100 with "House Of The Rising Sun" whilst another British group, Brian Poole and the Tremeloes have their first American chart entry with "Someone, Someone" which has just left the British Top Twenty after a 10-week stay to make way for their Decca release "Twelve Steps To Love."

A major chart entry for Pye Records comes from a new group, The Honeycombs, who went straight into No. 15 with their first ever disk "Have I The Right" and are now shooting up to challenge the label's established charter The Searchers." The Honeycombs, five member group, boasts one of Britain's few female drummers, 20 year old Honey Lantree and her brother John plays bass guitar. Line up is completed by founder Martin Murray (rhythm guitar) Alan Ward (lead guitar) and Denis D'Ell (vocalist). Like many top groups before them The Honeycombs owe their disk debut to independent producer Joe Meek whose 'beaty' eyes spotted their chart potential, recorded them, took them to Pye and also penned their flip side "Please Don't Pretend."

Oriole Records announce that Reg Warburton has assumed over-all responsibility for the company's a&r department and will be assisted by Ted Taylor who has just joined the organization. As already reported in Cash Box Oriole's future plans include a wider use of independent productions and arrangements have already been made to utilize the services of two of Britain's top M.Ds, Ivor Raymonde and Johnny Worth—both of whom have written major hits for such stars as Dusty Springfield, The Bachelors and Adam Faith.

The Robert Stigwood group of companies have opened a new agency division to book talent not personally managed by their organization. Negotiations are already in hand for appearances by The Honeycombs, The Tornados, Beryl Bryden, The Barron Knights, Wayne Fontana and The Kinks whose third time lucky disk for Pye "You Really Get Me" has now sold over 150,000 and which is set for immediate release on Reprise in America.

Danish-American comedian and recording star Victor Borge returns to London for a two-week session at The Shaftesbury Theatre presented by Arthur Lewis, Bernard Delfont and Tom Arnold.

Quickies: Latest Presley release on RCA a Johnny Ray hit of ten years ago "Such A Night" . . . The Best in Britain...Bens

CANADA

Al Allbutt, the Leeds Music man, has a whole flock of goodies breaking for him currently. Top of the bunch would have to be the real good two-sider on Swan by Al Alberts. "Summertime In Venice" b/w "Mr. Sandman" is among the most commercial pairings this corner has heard in some time. Al is in fine voice, in places reminiscent of his Four Aces days. Considerable air action for the "Venice" outing has been noted in several key American-Canadian border areas. "Mr. Sandman" meanwhile is getting a second time around by way of a new Dolton outing by The Fleetwoods. The side is currently getting considerable air time on Montreal's CKGM. With two outings available, The Fleetwoods and Al Alberts, it well may be headed for another chart ride. Other good things that Al Allbutt is excited about include a Columbia waxing of Dion singing, "Chicago Blues." However, it seems that it will be the flip side that will do the lion's share of the chart business on this pairing. It's the while-backer for Chuck Berry, "Johnny B. Goode." The charts are full of Chuck Berry things these days, either outings by the r&b king himself, or things he has written. "You Never Can Tell," Chuck's current Chess smash is making the Phonodisc people whistle a happy tune of late. Meanwhile Johnny Rivers is off and running with "Maybelline"; the Bill Black Combo is chalking up big chart strides with "Little Queenie," while Rivers', "Memphis" and Chuck's "No Particular Place" are still coming in for healthy air play and sales. Two other items that have Al in high promotion gear include new outings by Steve Lawrence and Joey Heatherton. Steve's pairing, "Yet I Know" and "Put Away Your Teardrops" is coming in for considerable deejay attention, while Joey's Coral pairing of "That's How It Goes" c/w the standard, updating, "I'll Be Seeing You" will serve to introduce the young lady to the Country's record fans in fine style.

Elario Lazano, the fine young singer at Tommy Tomasso's Piazza in Montreal has had two sides released by Baroque Records. An album is still in the discussion stages for handsome and very talented troubador.

Best new album in a month of Sundays has to be the new Nat Cole set on Capitol, wherein the great verteran offers the songs of Lerner and Lowe's "My Fair Lady." It's Nat at his best with some of the best material he has ever recorded.

London's Gilles Aubin back at his desk (24/8) following a vacation trip through Southern Ontario. Several developments at key executive levels due shortly at London.

Here we go again, it seems Capitol just never cools off. Seven new singles all with that sound of success are about to hit the top rungs of charts across Canada. "Willie And The Hand Jive" has been revived by Cliff Richard and is showing very well in Toronto, and is likely to follow suit right across Canada. "Call Up The Groups" is a medley thing by the Barron Knights that smacks of the while back Four Preps outing, taking off the most popular singing groups of the day. Billy J. Kramer is happening in a big way in Montreal with his latest, "From A Window." "Because" by the Dave Clark Five, while a rather drastic change of pace for the group is selling as if records were going out of style. It's a smash. The sensational balladeer, Al Martino, just seems to do no wrong. His most recent Capitol outing has developed into a very strong two sieder. "Always Together" and "Thank You For Loving Me" are all over the Canadian airwaves. The Beach Boys are clicking in a top ten way with a two sided hit, "She Knows Me Too Well" b/w "Wendy." It's too bad they can't get three sides to a single, 'cause "Little Honda," from the Beach Boys current album smash, "All Summer Long," is getting played as if it was a single by several Canadian stations, to the point that it is listed as a single on the most recent hit list to appear in Walt Grealis' "RPM". The newest release by Buck Owens could go both pop and country. "I Don't Care" is another biggie for Buck.

Jim Corbett over at Sparton has several real hot sides going for him these days. Ray Charles with his current two sieder, and the Ray Charles Singers with their great revival of "Al Di La," the Tams and Enoch Light are all keeping Jim and his crew on the move.

Another sales giant for Lucille Starr in Canada, and it's a two sieder. Now confirmed air play and sales in all major Canadian markets for both sides of Lucille's latest Barry outing. "Jolie Jacqueline" is all over Canadian kilocycles, keeping up to the new red hot pace being set by Lucille's great revival of "Yours" that appears on the flip side of the disk. Walt Grealis lists considerable action in several centres on a sound called "Boom Boom" on the Atca. At this writing a copy has not reached this corner, nor can we give any information about distributor etc., also mentioned prominently in a recent Grealis sheet is a big sound from the west coast called "Aces High" by the C-FUN Classics on the Jaguar label. It too has been conspicuous by its absence. One of the real good Canadian sounds, currently doing very well is the revival on "Chantilly Lace" by the group from down east, the Beavers. They're the kids with the wild haircuts.

Bill Smithers at Quality in Montreal is sporting a wide grin these days as sales mount daily on the Hickory outing, "Bread And Butter" by the Newbeats. It's really moving in Montreal where the current radio rating war is the best thing that has happened to the singles market since they started putting holes in the center of records. "Maybe I Know" is a Mercury giant for Lesley Gore, while Millie Small is about as hot as any girl singer on singles has ever been with "Sweet William." Good solid cash register action too on Ronnie and the Daytonas with their current chart rider, "G.T.O." "Johnny Loves Me," by Florraine Darlin has finally broken the chart barrier in Montreal after being a big chart item for some time on Toronto's CHUM. Latest development in that Montreal rating war has CKGM bring back Bob Gilles to step into the station's 6 to 9 PM air segment. Gillies, long a favorite of Montreal teens, has been spinning 'em in the U.S. deep south of late and returns triumphant to Montreal and to CKGM (8/31).

More and more Canadian stations getting good mileage out of the fine Capitol set by The Esquires. This is Canadian talent at its best. If one wasn't told, one would never know that the sounds in this album were anything but the product of one of the best groups in the world, recorded in one of the costliest Nashville sessions.

RCA Victor will distribute the new Prima label in Canada. Debut outing under the new banner according to Knox Coupland is Louis Prima's outing, "Stay Awake" and "A Spoonful Of Sugar." Biggest Elvis Presley single in a while continues to do lots of chart business for the Victor people, "Such A Night" is a top ten item in most Canadian markets.

From Compo, good reports on a fine outing by Billy Strange entitled, "The James Bond Theme." It's a big air play item on Oshawa's CKLB. "Me Japanese Boy" by Bobby Goldsboro is the class ballad of the Summer and is doing a tremendous chart business all across Canada. On the Decca side of the picture the big items are "There's Nothing I Can Say" by Rick Nelson and "When You Loved Me" by Brenda Lee. A newie on Decca is getting some considerable jock attention in Canada. It's "Ringo For President" by the Young World Singers and was delivered to dj's complete with a supply of suitable campaign buttons.

JAPAN

Tadashi Hino, manager of Imported Matrix of Nippon Grammophone, who went to the continent on 27th of May, returned Tokyo from his two months' trip around Germany, France, Sweden and the United States. Main object in his flight to the Continent was to visit Deutsche Grammophone in order to set up a smoother operations. Hino said that he had visited the recording studios in Berlin and Paris and everywhere he talked with the directors about his plans of recording for the Japanese market. On his way back Tokyo, he visited Sound of Hawaii which has had the contract with Nippon Grammophone since last year. Hino announced that his trip had no connection with the subject of M.G.M. contract. Regarding M.G.M., which will terminate their contract with Nippon Columbia on the last day of September, Morita, an executive director of Nippon Grammophone, said that Nippon Grammophone did not have direct connection with M.G.M., but it was possible that Nippon Grammophone might import M.G.M. through Deutsche Grammophone which had a contract with M.G.M. He also announced that Nippon Grammophone has not decided yet whether they will have a contract with M.G.M. in near future or not.

Italian songstress Rita Pavone's first English recording "Remember Me" is going to be released by Victor Company of Japan in September. Flip side is "One More Kiss."

Hachidai Nakamura, composer of "Sukiyaki," who will be in the United States for one year in Aug. with his family, is making his last recording on Toshiba Records as an arranger and conductor. His recording will be released in October as an LP titled "Melodies Of Japan." Included are 25 Japanese traditional songs which will be played with Japanese instruments backed up with symphonic orchestra. Toshiba Records intends to put the albums on sale for coming to Japan for the Tokyo Olympics.

Vikki Carr, youthful songstress on Liberty Records, arrived in Tokyo for a 2-week tour of Japan on 12th August. She appears at the New Latin Quarter and a few military clubs, such as the Tachikawa Civilian Club, the Johnson NCO Club, the Grant Heights Officers Club and the Yokota NCO Club. However, her main object in coming to Japan is to record one of her hits in Japanese for Toshiba Records, local distributors of Liberty Records.

Juvenile Music Cooperation expects to hold a mood concert by a big orchestra band under the title of "Evening for Romantic Music" on September 16th at Kyoritsu auditorium. Performance consists of conductors Sasao Iwakubo, Yoshihisa Mizuno, Soprano Miss Hiroko Ueda, and orchestra by Tokyo Indoor Orchestra Band.

The Teichiku label, which had a plan to build Teichiku building, selected No. 1, 3-chome, Shiba-Sakumacho, Minato-ku for the building site. The authorization of their parent company, Matsushita Denki (Matsushita Electric Co.) was given on August 10, so they decided to start the construction of Teichiku building within the year. The owners of the building site are Takat-sugu Mamiya, and Tamehisa Uemura (the president of Kyowa Building Co. and the husband of a singer Takako Kawada). Teichiku will construct on the site, a building 9 stories high. After the construction is completed, the Tokyo office of Teichiku will use the first and second floors, the foreign Music section and Publicity section 3rd floor, conference room on 4th floor, and stadium on 9th floor. The basement floor is for a parking place, and the other floors are for rent.

Congratulations go out to Connie Francis from all her Canadian friends on the occasion of her recent marriage.

"Little Honda" shows up as a single on the CHNS, Halifax chart. Capitol could do a lot worse than getting this item from the LP out as a single. It'd be a giant. Big chart item everywhere you look in Canada these days is "I Want You To Meet My Baby," by Eydie Gorme.

DENMARK

Sonet is now releasing the first records from the Specialty catalog in Denmark, and it looks like "Bama Lama Bama Loo" with Little Richard should end up as a hit, report Per Sorensen to Cash Box.

Sept. 1 marks the 25th Anniversary of Hitler's armies attacking Poland and starting World War II. Metronome here is noting the event by the release of an LP that gives a quick review of the bloody years from the German attack in Poland to Japan's capitulation in August 1945. Among famous voices heard on the LP are those of Hitler, Goering, Goebbels, Himmler, Churchill, Ghamberlain, Atlee, Roosevelt, Truman, Stalin, etc., and also Denmark's local political tops at the time, Christmas Moller and Thorvald Stauning. Metronome is expecting that this 12" LP will be of value not only to the younger generations, now in schools, but also to those who are old enough to have personal experiences from the six years World War II lasted.

K. H. Mikkelsen of EMI is very happy about the success the company has at the moment. The Beatles with "A Hard Day's Night" is topping the charts, singles as well as for albums. The film opened in Copenhagen a couple of weeks ago and is doing very well. The Swinging Blue Jeans are doing very well with their "Shakin' All Over" and after their p.a.'s in Copenhagen the end of August, the sale of the records will increase even more, Mikkelsen thinks.

The Australian song, "The White Rabbit", published in Scandinavia by Bens Music AB in Stockholm, will be recorded in Danish, titled "Den Hvide Kanin", by Raquel Rastenni on Sonet.

NORWAY

"A Hard Day's Night"—here titled "Yeah Yeah Yeah", opens at the Sentrum in Oslo Aug. 24th. The Parlophone record with the title song topped the charts in Norway last week.

New on the charts this week is "Ramona" as recorded by The Bachelors on Decca, debuting on 9th spot. Back on the charts after a couple of weeks is Elvis Presley with "Kissin' Cousins."

SWEDEN

A German song titled "Cigarettes", recorded in Swedish by Anita Lindblom on Fontana has created the real noise here. The medical authorities declares that "in a time when the world is frightened by the American report on cigarettes vs. cancer, this dirty propaganda for smoking is available on records, and furthermore, it is aired on radio several times each day." Miss Lindblom's comment is that "it is ridiculous to think people will smoke more or less because of the lyrics in a pop song."

The Hootenanny Singers will soon be available on a second LP on the Polar label, reports Bengt Barnhag to Cash Box. They have had a successful tour around Sweden this summer, and for the autumn, they are contracted for a TV show in Sweden and an international Radio program to be aired over Sweden, Norway, Germany, England, Holland and Belgium.

Stig Anderson is printing a complete catalog of songs published by his publishing houses, (Sweden Music, Bens Music, Polar Music, Palace Music, Spanka Music, A. Schroeder Musikforlag), listing also the titles in Finnish, Swedish, Norwegian and Danish to be used by orchestral leaders when they report to the performing rights societies STIM, KODA, TONO and TEOSTO. Anderson has the feeling that many bandleaders don't care too much about this matter.

"Grindslanten" (The Gate-Money), a local Swedish song which did very well on the charts here recently, will be handled for the world market by Sweden Music AB.

Paul Anka in Stockholm to start his Swedish tour, that will take him around the country in ten days.

Finnish language recordings seems to continue losing popularity among the teenage record buyers, to judge from the recent "Eight In The Top" program in Finnish Radio. Only two of the eight records were sung in Finnish, the others either instrumentals or sung in English. A year ago it would have been a surprise if one of the records in this competition had not been in Finnish. The list includes the following records: 1) "Farmer John" (Antti Einiö & The Islanders/Scandia), 2) "East Virginia" (Danny & The Islanders/Scandia), 3) "Kaikki Rakkauteni" (All My Loving) (Eero & Jussi/RCA

While the first one interprets twelve all-time favorite tangos, the second one concentrates his talents on top pop music from successful films.

J. Scatena, prexy of Discos RGE, is hosting two cocktail-parties for the official launching of two LP's recently released: Lygia, by the very much discussed socialite Lygia Freitas Valle and "Ana Lucia Canta Triste", by the talented Ana Lucia. Marcos Nobili, who is presently in charge of the press and promo of RGE, has the following news: Marcelo Costa, the songster from Brasilia, will be in São Paulo to help promote his LP "Grito De Luz", already a hit in that zone of the country and a requested item in this state as well. Another LP cut live is being prepared by the label, this time with one of the best songstresses in her style and who produces her very best with the incentive of the public: Helena De Lima will feel at home, recording this waxing at her night-club "O Cangaceiro"! Prini Lorez with a new double-compact on the shops, this time singing with his personal style, escaping the influence of his American colleague Trini Lopez. Volta Ao Chorinho." Another successful album recently released by Leila Silva, titled "Samba E Romance."

ITALY

It's of course too early to make definitive conclusions about the musical summer season in our market, but once again we must put a pessimistic accent on the situation. According to some of the responsible executives of the principal Italian firms there is a 60% decrease in record sales, in comparison with the past year season.

Top event of the week concerns American artist Ray Charles: who is appearing at top music-hall La Bussola at Viareggio, where he obtained a strong success performing on August 18th.

The gold trumpet Ray Anthony is also a guest of our country for a musical tour. EMI Italiana announces that "Mexican Market" is the best-selling record of this artist on our market.

Another well-known EMI artist, Frank Pourcel was guest of Italy during the week. He comes to Milan to discuss with various execs of our one Radio and TV set-up, RAI-TV. It seems that this top French orchestra conductor will be the star-guest of our TV for a series of four TV shows.

After the seasonal period of rest due to the summer holidays Cash Box is receiving first news concerning the new product for the new season. While on the subject of Pourcel, let's announce that Emi Italiana has just released his recordings "for orchestra only" of the two greatest San Remo 1964 Italian hits, "Una Lacrima Sul Viso" and "Non Ho L'Eta' Per Amarti".

Also just released by Emi Italiana are two new Italian recordings by Gilbert Becaud. The two titles performed by the artist are "Morire A Capri" and "Toi". Becaud was also a recent guest of our country, where he filmed a bit on the TV show of Giorgio Gaber (Ricordi), tabbed "Questo O Questo". He also recorded for our TV a half-hour personal show. In this show he presented his famous French best-seller "Nathalie". This recording has been just released by Emi Italiana on a single coupled with the other title, "Hereusement Il Y A Les Copains"; along with other French new titles performed by Gilbert: "Tu Es Venu De Loin," which can be considered the first European "spiritual". The title is coupled with "Plein Soleil". All numbers are of course penned by Becaud.

Always on the subject of Emi Italiana, we wish to announce the release of a new single by the hit-maker, Richard Anthony. The new record is expected to be another Italian best-seller by the artist, after the great success he enjoyed with his recent smash. "Cin Cin" is the topside of the new disk, "Il Mio Mondo". The title was penned by Umberto Bindi, and it is the Italian hit, "You're My World". As it's known the title was number one in England thanks to the performance of Cilla Black, and it's now climbing the USA hit parade, while it is expected, of course, to be a success on the French market thanks to the Richard's recording. "Il Mio Mondo" is originally published by Ariston and it became an international hit thanks to the great interest shown by Jean Aberbach, who sub-publishes it in the English speaking countries.

Also making news is Palito Ortega's return from his trip to Italy, France, Spain, the States and Mexico. He was welcomed at the Aeroparque Airport by a big crowd that stood there since early in the morning waiting for the arrival. Channel 9 aired the event, through its "Sabados Continuados" program, and the press devoted, as usual, plenty of space to one of the biggest local stars. Palito plans to return to Spain to fulfill some contracts, and will also appear on stage at the Olympia Music Hall in Paris, in March 1965. During this trip he made some decks in Mexico and Rome, and will return to this city for some more. In Buenos Aires, Ortega continues to stay as a very strong artist, taking good places on the best sellers lists.

Visiting Buenos Aires are Chilean songstress Ginette Acevedo and singer and artists manager Luciano Galleguillos. Ginette will be launched by RCA in Argentina, with a complete promotion and "image" campaign that may turn her into a very well known artist all through the country. GERMANY

Publisher August Seith hit upon a major problem in Germany recently as he mentioned in his monthly news letter the fact concerning two of his really big hits of the season.

In his words, "one of the main talking points of our business is the top position one enjoys in the trade paper (local) hit parades. The listeners are influenced, the public talks about how much money the stars and hit makers are making, etc. Nobody really thinks about what is behind the sales on hits. There are two types of numbers. Those that sell fast and make top chart positions and those that slowly but surely rack up top sales. Therefore we would like to announce that the GEMA accounting for the last half of 1963 showed that "Winnetou" from The Medium Terzett sold 280,000 records during that period as did "Der Schatz Im Silbersee" from the same group.

Both tunes failed to make the top 10 in Germany. Hans Gerig is really working on new German discs by Rex Gildo and Gitte. Both of the German tunes are showing action.

Indie producer Gerhard Mendelson has 4 new hot summer releases by Polydor with Thomas Fritsch, Cherry Wainer, Ted Herold and the title song from the Kilius-Baumler picture "Kisses In The Night" from Peter Kraus. Hans Oestreicher Jr. of Austroton records reports that the Liverpool group The Rackets are really making a racked sales wise here with their hit "My Soul" b/w "She's Got It" which is being ordered by the box full. The group now has their second single "Skinny Minnie" b/w "O Mona Lisa" on the market here and 5,000 records were sold in the first week of release. Teldec is rush releasing the first record by world ice skating champ Manfred Schnelldorfer. The firm is also working on the new Freddy Cannon tune "Summertime". The Ronny tune "Kein Gold Im Blue River" (On Top Of Old Smokey) is over the 100,000 mark.

Hansa Music Production's promotion chief Jack Martin reports that boss man Peter Meisel, who is now on his honeymoon in St. Tropez, can relax as the indie production firm has 3 of the top 10 tunes in Germany including the Draf Deutschler and Manuela hits on Telefunken-Decca and the number one tune by Siw Malmkvist on Metronome.

New Philips press chief Wolf Niggeling called to our attention the fact that in issue number 42 of Cash Box under the pictures of the German Pop Music festival, a printing failure reported that Rex Gildo & Gitte took 2nd place and Nana Mouskouri took 3rd place. In the story below and in fact, Nana finished second and the young team Rex-Gitte in number 3 slot. Pardon our slip. Wolf also reports that the new Gerhard Wendland platter of "Tears and Roses" in German is moving very well as is the Nana Mouskouri festival record.

CBS put out a new catalogue of their new releases. The firm is doing top summer business both singles and LP wise.

That's it for this week in Germany.

HOLLAND

The Rolling Stones were in Holland on Saturday August 8th, at the Kurhaus, Scheveningen, where a gang of young riff-raff kicked up a row, and ruined the interior. Definitely not the beatniks and rhythm & blues-lovers who had paid good money to see a fine show, and who were very annoyed by the scandal. The five Rolling Stones could hardly be heard . . . After ten minutes on the stage, impresario Paul Acket and the Police-force decided to take control by having the Rolling Stones stop their performance and close the hall. The entire Rolling Stones Show was spoiled. However, since publicity was great, on the Rolling Stones affair, it did not effect record-sales. John Ros in Holland indicated a tremendous sales increase, for "It's All Over Now."

Holland's leading position after the International Song Festival 1964 at the Belgian seaside resort Knokke, focused full publicity on the five charming young girls from the winning Dutch team. 22-year old Ilonka Biluska, got a break with her recording of "Yesterday and You" b/w "Sugar Shack" on the Decca-label. Ilonka (her father is Hungarian, but she was born and raised in Holland), under Phonogram-contract for two years, made several recordings with The Dutch Swing College Band. Another sensation at the Knokke Festival was 18 year old Elkie Brooks from England, the girl that won the Press Prize. Phonogram released her recording of "Something's Got A Hold On Me" b/w "Hello Stranger," in a special sleeve.

Among the most important classical Phonogram-releases, Hans Tecker (Decca's classical label-manager) made special mention of "La Cenerentola," comic opera by Rossini, starring Giuletta Simionato in the title-role. The all-Italian production, conducted by Oliviere de Fabrities, is a complete recording of the popular work—based on the fairy-tale Cinderella—on three LPs, in mono and stereo.

The Musical "Stop The World, I Want To Get Off" will be produced in the Dutch version, starting September forthcoming. This version will be recorded for Philips. The original version, with Anthony Newley and Anna Quayle, on a Decca-LP, was released in Holland in July.

Bovema's Imperial-vocalstar Shirley, now hitting the charts with "You're My World" and travelling Poland (Sopot Jazzfestival) did her own NTS-TV-show on Friday 21st August. The programme was entitled "Shirley In Swing And Sweet."

Columbia still holds on its strong position on British and Dutch hitparades with such items as "I Love You Baby" (Freddie And The Dreamers), "Nobody I Know" (Peter and Gordon) and "Can't You See That She's Mine" (The Dave Clark Five) Bovema's U.S. label Warner Bros reports an increasing demand for The Premiers' "Farmer John" and Bill Haley's ever-famous "Rock Around The Clock."

Bovema will organize a big tour throughout the country in close collaboration with CO-OP-Nederland (one of the biggest Foodstuff Companies). This so-called T 3-tour (Teenager Talents Test) will present artists like Shirley, Imca Marina, The Shepherds, The Cocktail Trio, Dick Rienstra, The Three Jacquets and Ronnie Watt.

A special T-3 edition will be published in CO-OP's own magazine "CO-OP-news." The tour will hit the biggest cities of Holland from September until February 1965.

Gramophonehouse's HMV-label especially features its "Das War Hans Moser"-album, dedicated to the late Hans Moser, worldfamous Viennese filmstar and comedian.

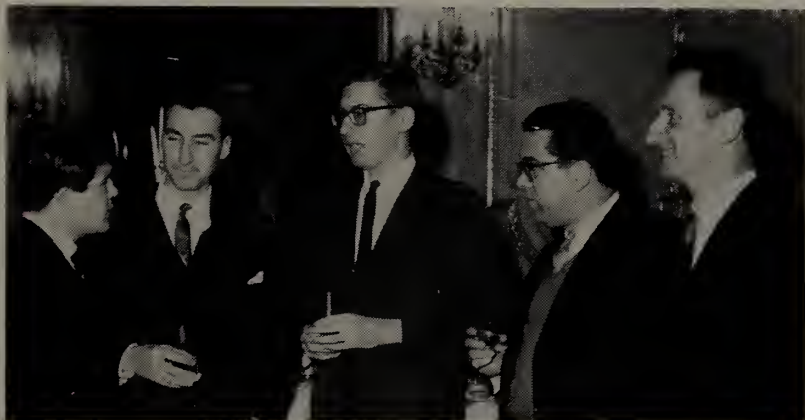

Capitol this week released albums by Bobby Darin (Golden Folk Hits), King Curtis (Soul Serenade) and Roy Acuff.

RCA's pianist Peter Nero will be present at the Grand Gala du Disque in October next. Rita Pavone, the successful Italian teenage star recorded a top-record: "Remember Me"/"Just One More." "I Won't Forget You" of Jim Reeves, who had a lot of friends in the Netherlands, is one of the best selling disks now. His "I Love You Because" is still a successful record and it appears on every hit-list. The Dutch press gave top coverage to the tragic death of Jim Reeves.

CBS Fetes Dan On 1st Anny Of "Celia"

FRANCE

Not one record has been released on the French market since the beginning of August and it seems that this will continue likewise until end of September.

First of all let's mention that the magazine entitled "Cinéma," which formerly dedicated its contents to films has now passed over to the song biz. Actually half of the magazine is now directed to songs and disks. We must however point out that "Discographie Française" has disappeared completely from the circulation.

The radio as well as the television here in France have announced modifications for the near future. This is very good news. The preceding years have already showed what kind of instrument of promotion was by way of the French television which has, as everybody already knows, only two channels, and these belong to the State.

Ray Charles is on a French tour, which we call a singing tour of the Casinos. At the Trouville Casino it's Claude Francois who is the triumph.

It would be too difficult for us to note all the replacements of the singers who are presently playing the Casino circuit.

Let's now draw your attention to some good news. Trini Lopez has just arrived at Cannes on the French Riviera and he is scheduled to top the bill at the Olympia Music Hall in Paris August 20th. He will be accompanied by Catherine Franck and Jean Claude Forestier.

Among the songs that seem to emerge during the holiday season, we must mention "Viens Pas Siffler Sous Mon Balcon." Translated word for word would mean "Don't Come And Whistle Under My Balcony" sung by the lark Diane. The only thing we know about this lark is that she records on the Vogue label.

HOLLAND (continued)

Elvis Presley's "Kissin' Cousins," "Such A Night," and "Suspicion" have been welcomed here with the usual enthusiasm. Harry Belafonte surprised his fans with "The Marching Saints" and "Did You Hear About Jerry." There is a great demand for Silvie Vartan's "La Plus Belle Pour Aller Danser." Two Dutch RCA-artists, Liesbeth List and Freddy Scott and the Condors, are doing well. Liesbeth List recorded "Nooit Kan Ik Je Zeggen" (Never I Can Tell You)/Ik Zal Je Nooit Vergeten" (I'll Never Forget You), and Freddy Scott made the record "Buona Sera"/"Kom Naar Huis" (Return Home).

most sensational money-making feature ever introduced in the history of the coin-phonograph industry!

The Spotlighted Album Award feature on the new LP Console/480 is an entirely new concept in selling music to the public. It's so new that we wanted to have it tried and proved on locations from coast to coast before we made such a statement. After only 8 weeks on location, the new Seeburg with the Spotlighted Album Award feature has proved to earn more money for operators and locations than any other phonograph ever manufactured in the history of the coin-operated phonograph industry.

Go to your Seeburg Distributor today and have him explain this great new feature. If he doesn't convince you, just ask any operator who has one on location.

The Little LP

The record industry has made available to the juke box operator the adult music he has asked for, in the form of the little lp, but unless the producer—the record firms—and the recipient—the operator—and other parties interested in its progress—namely juke box distributors and one-stops, offer full support to this program, the new product could take longer than is necessary to be a complete success. Observations made from a vantage point which provides full view of all of these levels of the industry prompt comment at this time to insure that the little lp receives the attention it deserves.

With Columbia Records already on the market, through its own distributors and independent one-stops, with six little lp do-it-yourself kits plus more to come, RCA Victor channeling its seven-inch disks to company owned outlets, and the one-stops, and now Kapp Records with ten initial releases in little lp form, plus RIC, Canadian-American and Sue Records product announced two weeks ago, the market is beginning to take form. With all due respect to the high calibre of music, and acknowledging the void which is being filled, suffice it to say that even pure gold at discount prices must be promoted.

The Seeburg Sales Corporation has long since proven that there is a definite market for the little lp and that patrons in the nation's locations want this adult album music. Disk sales from Seeburg distributor showrooms confirm this. Now that the record companies have made the 33 rpm disks available through normal distribution channels, it is up to the diskeries, the distributors, the one-stops and the juke box distributor—the point of sale for the 45-33 rpm phonographs—to promote the little lp.

In spite of current record company promotion programs, it is our suggestion that the labels also concentrate on the juke box distributor in every city in this country. Notices advising of the availability of the product at the one-stop in each town where a juke box distributor is located would speed the process of getting the disks into the hands of the operators. All new equipment now has provision for programming of the 33 speed records. Unless the machine distributor knows the source of supply for these disks, the machines may go into location without sufficient 33 programming. It will then be up to the individual operator to obtain them. This is avoided once the juke box distributor is alerted.

Strange as it may seem, the business of selling juke boxes does not necessarily call for complete understanding of the business of selling records. Once the record company informs the distributor however, he will more quickly use the product. From this point on the operator is on his own. As mentioned at the outset, the little lp brings in additional income. But he must start with the knowledge necessary. It can come from the label or the one-stop, or it can come from the juke box distributor. Otherwise, the machines designed to play the records may not be programmed to the fullest extent.

It would be logical to assume that other record companies are considering little lp production for general operator consumption. Let's not expect the new product to take hold simply because it has value and because there is a need for it. This is a shining example of having to take the interested parties by the hand. Once the little lp is receiving the coverage it deserves, the momentum will then carry it on to its greatest potential.

DAVE BOND DAY

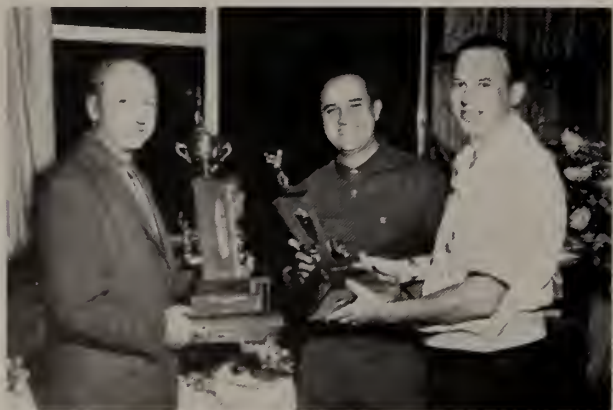

A Tribute To Trimount And To Dave Bond ★

Four coin men who took good advantage of the Blue Hills Country Club's excellent sporting facilities are: (left to right) Vern Sanborn, Russ Eckel of Trimount, Walt Stadnicki and Stan Loparto.

To the victors go the spoils. Passing out the handsome trophies to a pair of happy golfers is Trimount's Marshall Caras. The lucky, and talented, winners are Frank Marks of New London, Conn. on the left, and Louis Mansolillo of Pawtucket, Rhode Island.

BLUE HILLS COUNTRY CLUB—The weather here on Monday, August 3rd—"Dave Bond Day"—turned from bleak to bright at 12-noon, and with it, 400 guests of Trimount's chief executive began their day-long tribute to this man who was celebrating 40 years of service to the coin machine industry. Twelve hours later, after a truly fabulous outing highlighted by sports, prizes, awards, and testimonials to the grand man of coin biz, a well-fed representation of New England's coin machine and vending trade ended a day which topped all expectations.

Canteen's chief exec Pat O'Malley, Rowe's prexy Jack Harper, Rowe VP Fred Pollak, regional rep Dick Gluck, and their wives, plus Midway's Hank Ross, Alvin Gottlieb of D. Gottlieb & Co., the lovely Marion Bond, Dave's wife, and the rest of the Trimount execs and staff were among the many close friends present. 375 festive guests dined royally on king clam, lobster, sweet corn and cocktails by the gallon, and old-time operators like Romeo Rivard, Wilfred Benoit, Dana Anderson, Martin Oliver, George Desnoyers, Dino Donati, Tony Lazar, Leo Gershman, Jim Marzocki, Luke Levine, Art Sturgess, Russ Mawdsley, Leo O'Rourke, Pete and Walt Slutchek, Bill Millman, Lou Risman, Dave Baker and many, many more, came from Maine and scores of other New England points to participate. Gifts, based on the Trimount point program, and other door prizes, virtually flowed through the doors, from TV sets and pieces of luggage to blenders and travel kits.

Short talks by O'Malley, Harper, Irwin Margold and an acceptance speech by Dave, were all brief, in order that the joyful tempo of the day not be interrupted. Telegrams and floral bouquets all echoed Pat O'Malley's words earlier: "This is not just a company party. It's a tribute to Trimount and to Dave Bond." It certainly was.

Chaise lounges at the Blue Hills' colorful cabana area got a terrific workout from many guests and their wives. Ah, this is the life! For one day, anyway.

DAVE BOND

More awards for a grand performance on the golf links are presented by Marshall Caras. This time they go to Al York, standing to the left, and George Simpson of Pawtucket, Rhode Island.

Irwin Margold makes sure the ladies aren't passed by when the awards are given out. The lovely winners are Mrs. Will Benoit of Lewiston, Maine, on the left, and Mrs. Al York of Randolph, Mass.

Rowe's president Jack Harper pronounced some stirring words in tribute to Dave Bond, the man who founded Trimount 40 years previous to this gala celebration.

"Not just a party . . . but a tribute to Trimount and to Dave Bond," says Automatic Canteen's president Pat O'Malley.

CHICAGO—Nate Feinstein, of World Wide Distributing Company, in this city, declared last week that the firm's six week "road show" in such key Illinois regions as Champaign-Urbana, Decatur, Springfield, Quincy, Davenport (Iowa), Rock Island, Moline Aurora, with the Seeburg LP Console 480 and the Consolette was a "rousing success." He attributes a great part of that success story to the Seeburg mobile demonstration studio.

utilized by one operator during the tour, to go back to one of his locations which had rejected his phonos in lieu of background music equipment. The location was recovered with the use of the van."

Feinstein advised that the secondary benefits of the shows were to demonstrate to the operators that the Seeburg van, used correctly, is an important tool in getting their locations to accept contracts and better deals. The above photos show some of the action on the six week road tour.

He said: "The Seeburg van was

Standard Financial VP Weds Ballerina

LOS ANGELES—Arthur F. Silbert, director and vice president of the Standard Financial Corporation, a firm which has played an impressive role in the financing of many coin machine concerns, was married August 17th to Roberta Lubell, Boston born ballerina of the New York City Ballet Company. The wedding ceremony was conducted on board the Matson Liner S.S. Lurline and officiated over by Rabbi Edgar Magnin of the Wilshire Temple, here in Los Angeles. The couple will remain on board the Lurline, which is now Hawaii bound on the Pacific, for their honeymoon.

Besides the New York Ballet, Miss Lubell's graceful talents have also been exhibited on the Bell Telephone and Red Skelton TV shows. She is also well known to the children of America as the "Treasure House" Ballerina on the CBS Captain Kangaroo TV hour.

MOA's Granger Returns From W. Coast PR Trip; Signs More Exhibitors For Show

CHICAGO—MOA Managing Director Fred Granger, who returned recently from a public relations and selling trip to the west coast, had spent a week in Hollywood where he called on record companies to sell them on the wisdom of exhibiting in the MOA Convention in October. Among the more than a dozen companies he called on, Granger stated, were Dot, Vee-Jay, Warner Bros. and Liberty.

Granger said that although there were no immediate decisions from west coast companies, they all showed considerable interest in the MOA Convention. He said he was delighted with the warm reception he received, and is optimistic about having a representation of record companies from the west coast.

He journeyed from Hollywood to Oakland, California, where he visited with George A. Miller, Henry Leyser and several members of the California Music Merchants Association. He also called on two record companies in the San Francisco area. During a brief stop-over in Denver, Colorado, he met with Peter Geritz to lay plans for a regional meeting there next fall.

Companies who have contracted to exhibit during the past ten days are: Tennessean Promotions, Inc., Electronic Division (Mr. F. N. James, Jr., confirming for them), located in Nashville, Tennessee, and Western Trails Amusement Company, Chicago, Ill. (Mr. Ross Scheer). Also Mr. Macy Lipman, Regional Sales Manager of Kapp Records, just indicated they will exhibit.

Murray Kaye, sales ace at Atlantic New York, advises that many N.Y. tavern owners will shortly have the opportunity to change their locations, in lieu of the liquor rulings passed down recently by Albany, and that once this is done, an additional 500 new liquor licenses will be issued in the metro area. Both moves should greatly benefit the music and cigarette operator both through the creation of new locations and the improvement of old. Murray stated that many taverns were either forced to relocate, were destroyed entirely by New York's sweeping urban renewal projects and building construction, considerably affecting the local operator. However, operators are holding their own today, Murray contends, and the situation is hardly what it was five years ago. Murray's music ops have also reported that collections have been good this summer and are exceeding those of the summer of 1963.

Coin vet Harold Green is back on the Tenth Ave. scene after a month's absence while he was out of town hustling up equipment sales. . . . Sandy Moore, president of Mechanical Rides, reports that his kiddie rides, namely 'Happy Joe the Singing Horse,' the 'Flintstone Car' and 'Dinosaur' are all cashing in on many seashore spots and on such locations as discount and variety stores. . . . Westchester Assn. prexy Carl Pavesi and Teddy (the Champ) Seidel were exchanging cigars at Eric Bernay's A-1 Record Sales where Carl had stopped by to pick up some programming material for his juke box operation. Carl says his fellow Westchester ops are all eagerly awaiting the combined associations outing to be held at the Nevele Sept. 25-27.

Abe Lipsky at Lipsky Distributors is now displaying All Tech's new 3' x 6' pool table, their smallest model yet, for New York area ops. Abe says those who've seen it thus far are impressed by its handsome gold trimming and modern design. Abe further advises that sales action on the 'Arizona' gun game, which he is distributing for the Duncan Sales Company, is as fast paced as the action of the game itself. . . . Paul and Murray Weiner are issuing a further reminder to local operators stating that the Laundry and Cleaning Show is ready to commence August 26th at the Coliseum, and they will be on hand to outline the various features of Gold Medal's equipment line for laundry location ops.

Harry Stuckey, Albert Simon Distributors regional sales and services rep, touched home base briefly last week at the Simon showrooms and his visit prompted a discussion between he and Al D'Inzillo, the Rock-Ola and ChiCoin's distrib's sales ace. Al and Harry both agreed that many music operators could up their weekly collections a good 25% if they'd put a little extra effort toward their music programming. Harry said that on his travels throughout the territory, he often notices juke box title strips which have yellowed with age—not because the record is a location favorite but because the operator, for one reason or another, simply overlooked it. Here, they agree, are potential sales needlessly wasted. Another area where ops could improve their weekly receipts, they contend, is in the programming of 'little LP's' which, while offering a potential sales boost, hasn't really caught on with ops as quickly as it should. Switching the subject, Al wished also to advise metro area ops that ChiCoin's new 'Championship Rifle' gun game has been approved by New York's licensing office.

Louie Wolberg, the sales wizard of Runyon New York, was bursting with pride over the award recently presented to him by the United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County, for his gift some months back of a juke box, paid for from his own pocket, to the kids at the Association's Vocational Rehabilitation Center at Roosevelt, Long Island. The award, a handsome plaque which itself was made by the handicapped personnel at the center, was inscribed with this dedication: "To Lou Wolberg—For His Kindness To And Consideration For The Cerebral Palsied." The plaque was presented on behalf of the children at the Cerebral Palsy School, the treatment center and Camp Green Twig by Emil A. Lombardi, the Cerebral Palsy School's principal.

Gert Brown, the spirit of Paramount Vending, a Newburg based operation, stopped by A-1 Record Sales for her music material last week. A-1's head man, Eric Bernay, reports on those disks which are hot with the majority of his ops. They include: 'Bread And Butter' by the Newbeats on Hickory label, 'Clinging Vine' by Bobby Vinton on Epic and 'The House Of The Rising Sun' by the Animals on MGM. . . . The ABC Consolidated Corporation has been appointed the official caterer to the 1964 Democratic National Convention, scheduled for this week starting Monday August 24, and climaxing Thursday August 28.

Trimount Automatic's Marshall Caras reports that the Dave Bond-Trimount 40th anniversary bash was a sensation, as 400 friends and guests turned out at the Blue Hills Country Club to honor Bond—the grand old man of coin biz. Highlights of the day included: tributes to Bond by Pat O'Mally of Automatic Canteen and Jack Harper of Rowe, a sumptuous seafood dinner of king clam and lobster, sports, prizes, awards and a festive feeling which prevailed over the general warm fellowship. Congrats, once again, to Dave and Trimount.

Irving Kaye, president of the pool table manufacturing company, reports that his Brooklyn based firm is now also manufacturing a combination cue stick rack and billiard ball shelf assembly. The rack, which is constructed of wood and formica, holds six cue sticks of all sizes and also offers four shelves for balls and an additional shelf for chalk and other accessories. Sounds ideal for pool table locations, especially those where the cue sticks are generally scattered in such disarray as to be not only unsightly but dangerous as well. . . . Just learned that Ross Sheer's Western Trails Amusement Company out in Chicago is now handling the national distribution for Modern Products Company, Kansas City based makers of the 'Satellite' kiddie ride. . . . Macy Lipman, Kapp Records regional sales rep, advised last week that his company will be exhibiting at the MOA spectacular this Oct. and says they'll be keeping their eyes and ears open for all levels of discussion on the progress and future of the little LP.

Chicago Chatter

Coinvet Joe Westerhaus, prexy of Royal Distribs in Cincinnati, got the biggest surprise of his life when his employees threw a gala surprise party for him Saturday evening, August 15. Reason for the celebration was Joe's 30th anniversary at the helm of Royal Distribs. When we asked him what he said at the height of the surprise, Joe said "Noting! I was speechless."

With the introduction this week of the new "Majorettes" single player flipper amusement game the execs at D. Gottlieb & Co. are anticipating fine acceptance in this country and in most foreign markets, according to Alvin Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg. This Gottlieb creation is loaded with innovations. . . . The smell of Fall is in the air. This "weather report" was motivated by the intro of new equipment this week. United Mfg. Co. is releasing the "Polaris" big ball bowler this week. . . . Also, Hank Ross and Marcine "Iggy" Wolverton, co-heads of Midway Mfg. Co., announced the release to the coin machine trade of the new "Flying Turns" pinball amusement game last week.

We witnessed the installation of a Rock-Ola "IVI" coin-operated cold drink can vendor at the poolside of O'Hare Inn, located near O'Hare Field. On hand for the installation were Frank Q. Doyle, Dave St. Pierre and George Hincker, for Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp.; Sam Guildo, vending and pre-mix manager of the Maywood Division of Canada Dry Bottling Co.; and Dan G. Pavis, executive vice president and general manager of O'Hare Inn.

When we chatted with Gil Kitt, owner of Empire Coin Machine Exchange, and sales chief Joe Robbins, we were advised that they're anticipating a good fall season on sales in this country and in foreign business. . . . Eddie Howard, sales director for the Jennings Co., phoned t'other day to info that he's feeling much better these days. Eddie has been laid up for several months due to a prolonged illness. He's expected back in his office shortly. . . . Harry Jacobs, prexy of United, Inc. in Milwaukee, departed with his lovely frau for a weekend in Cleveland.

We noticed that all of the top execs were in at the Seeburg plant last week for a change. "Handsome Dan" Collins is delighted over the way things are going for the new Seeburg electronic organ, which was first intro'd at the recent NAMA Show in Chi. Joe Hards tells us Seeburg background music is also enjoying exceptional success all over the country. Before taking time off to move his residence to Plum Grove Countryside this week Stan Jarocki chatted with us. He advised that the Seeburg LPC480 coin-operated phonograph was tested for a while and that the new spotlight album awards feature is a big winner. . . . Both Sam Stern and Jack Mittel are still singing the considerable praises of Williams' "Stop 'N Go" flipper amusement game.

Joe Westerhaus, Jr., of Pioneer Distribs in Cincy, urges all operators in the Chicago area to attend a meeting at World Wide Distribs, at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, August 26, when he will give them all the facts about his coin-operated Bowling League (Diamond Bowl) plan. Which, he says, has been highly successful for operators in other cities. World Wide execs have graciously offered the firm's facilities to Westerhaus for the session. . . . Atlas Music's Stan Levin took to the road last week on business. . . . Western Trails prexy Ross Scheer will cover the eastern part of the country next week with his vice prexy Bill Racoosin.

Nate Feinstein and Harold Schwartz gave us a "cook's tour" last Monday of the beautifully decorated new "supermart" showroom, which was fitted out to offer local operators the finest shopping and browsing facilities. . . . Shipping reports issued by Bill O'Donnell and Herb Jones easily indicate that Bally Mfg. Co. has a big winner in the new "2 In 1" two-player pingame. . . . Mort Secore and Ralph Wyckoff advise that Chicago Coin's big new trio—"Royal Flash" 2-player pinball amusement game, "Majestic" big ball bowler, and "DeVille" 6-player shuffle alley—is enjoying fine acceptance in this country and abroad.

As a footnote to his recent trip to the west coast to call on record companies, Fred Granger, managing director of MOA, advised that from 12 to 15 record companies are expected to exhibit at the MOA Convention this fall. MOA prexy Lou Casola and board chairman Harry Snodgrass invite all regional and local associations to hold their meetings during the convention. These meetings are being planned for the morning of the first day of the conclave, Wednesday, October 14. Arrangements are being coordinated by the MOA office in Chicago. . . . Now that the summer season is waning Ted Rubey and Estell Bye, of Marvel Mfg. Co., are eagerly looking forward to a healthy fall season. Ted info'd that heaviest production these days at Marvel is on electrical scoreboards for shuffleboard games.

Rowe-AMI's Paul Huebsch and Atlas Music's Joe Kline are making the rounds in Chi visiting with operators. . . . Sam Kolber greeted visitors from Japan at Atlas Music last week. They were Kazuo Chatani, Masami Takahashi and Leo Sugano, all of Chubu Bunkakiki Sales Co., Ltd., of Nagoya City, Japan.

The new Gottlieb "Majorettes" flipper game is already making it big at National Coin Machine Exchange, according to Mort Levinson. Initial sales figures are keeping National prexy Joe Schwartz happy these days. . . . Johnny Frantz, prexy of J. F. Frantz Mfg. Co., tells us his counter games should continue to enjoy continued good sales into the fall season. Meanwhile, he's spending a lot of time on the drawing board whipping up new ideas.

The accolades are still pouring in to this office lauding the services offered in the new Cash Box Directory. This was a classic example of an inspired team effort on the part of all Cashboxers.

Rock-Ola's IVI Can Vendor Termed 'Ideal For Pool Side' By Motel Mgr.

Seen poolside, in the photo on the left, enjoying the fruits of Rock-Ola's canned beverage vendor are: (left to right) George Hinker of Rock-Ola Mfg., Don G. Pavis, manager of the O'Hare Inn and Frank Q. Doyle, vice president and director of Rock-Ola's IVI division. In the second photo (left to right) are Sam Guildo, of the Maywood Division of Conoco Dry Co., Pavis and Doyle.

CHICAGO—Sam Guildo, vending and pre-mix manager of the Maywood Division of Canada Dry Company, recently installed a new Rock-Ola "IVI" coin-operated cold drink can vendor at the poolside of O'Hare Inn, located near O'Hare International Airport, at the request of Dan. G. Pavis, executive vice president and general manager of the motel.

Frank Q. Doyle, vice president and director of the Rock-Ola "IVI" Division of Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corp., explained that the new cold drink vendor has a capacity of 230 (12 ounce) cans, with a selection of four popular Canada Dry beverages.

It also has a sanitized, heated can opener, and multiple coin insertion.

Pavis advised that this new Rock-Ola "IVI" cold drink vendor eliminates the hazard of broken bottles at the poolside, which had been a problem at the Inn heretofore.

ABC Named Caterer To Dem's Convention

NEW YORK—The Democratic National Committee has appointed ABC Consolidated Corporation official caterer for the Democratic National Convention at Convention Hall, Atlantic City, Aug. 24 through Aug. 28.

Sam Alesker, vice president of the national food service management company, said ABC Consolidated's Berlo division will cater all convention functions at the Hall requiring food and beverage services, including a planned special birthday party for President Johnson, August 27. An estimated 4,000 delegates and guests are expected to attend.

In addition, ABC Consolidated will provide catering services for members of the press in the Hall, and for the staffs of the major radio and television networks.

The ABC official said these special catering services for the Democratic National Committee during this year's Convention are in addition to the regular counter and vending services at Atlantic City Convention Hall, which his company has provided as concessionaire since 1946.

Berlo is one of 13 divisions of the ABC Consolidated Corp.

NAC Forecasts Convention 'New Look'

CHICAGO—"This year's Convention Program of the National Association of Concessionaires is being developed in such a fashion that there will be something new and of particular interest to every concession operator, no matter what area of the amusement-recreation industry he serves," NAC president Edward Redstone stated last week.

Working on this premise, Philip L. Lowe, Lowe's Merchandising Service, Newton Centre, Mass., who is this year's Convention Program Chairman of NAC, promises that members and others attending the organization's convention at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, Chicago, September 28-October 2, will be treated to a most diverse and outstanding program, which should command and occupy their interest throughout their stay in this Nation's most popular convention city. Emphasis will be on "New Format," "New Faces," "New Subjects," "New Profit Making Ideas" with this year's program taking on a completely "New Look."

Outstanding and authoritative leaders in almost every facet of the Food, Beverage, Concessions, Automatic Merchandiser Industries are now being lined up by Lowe's committee to take part in this well-balanced program and, as it begins to unfold, all details and particulars concerning it will be announced at frequent intervals to the trade.

Advance hotel reservations being received at NAC headquarters indicate that there is very keen interest in both the NAC-TOA Trade Show and conventions of the two co-sponsoring organizations, Redstone advised. Requests for booth space are still being received and it is estimated that when the ribbon-cutting ceremonies take place on September 28, when the show officially opens, every inch of exhibit space will be occupied in the spacious West Hall of the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

Gottlieb Ships 1-Plyr. 'Majorettes' Flipper

GOTTLIEB'S MAJORETTES

CHICAGO—The latest entry released to the international coin machine trade by D. Gottlieb & Company, according to president Alvin Gottlieb, is a novel single player, called "Majorettes," which, among other characteristics, offers the exciting, new "Add-A-Ball" feature.

This attractively designed, ultra-high-styled flipper type amusement game is generously embellished with stainless steel cabinet trim, with sturdy metal "jewel posts," Gottlieb stated.

Gottlieb further advised that "Majorettes" offers players several innovations in playing and scoring features. He explained that five "Red" and five "Yellow" pop bumpers made in rotation by the player lights the targets and rollovers for added balls. Making the A-B-C-D rollovers adds one ball and the mystery re-set spots the rollovers on the playfield.

There is a novel, new kick-out hole at the extreme bottom of the playfield, which provides last-minute suspense action for players. Furthermore, the flippers are positioned up-field for maximum kick-back action.

In another Gottlieb first, Alvin Gottlieb added, there are "bumper-rings" under the pop bumpers to protect the finish on the playfield where the heaviest playfield service is anticipated. This, and the Gottlieb "Hard-Cote" finish, team up to extend the playboard life to an all-time high.

Gottlieb stated that "Majorettes" flipper games are being shipped to Gottlieb distributors everywhere this week, and will be on display for operators.

Cinebox Scores At West Pa. Location

MONROEVILLE, PA.—The Cinebox audio-visual machine recently made its local debut here in western Pennsylvania in the cocktail lounge of the Town and Country Motel, and according to Elmer Jonnet, the motel's manager, the device is increasing bar revenues by 50 to 100 per cent and patronage by almost 500 per cent.

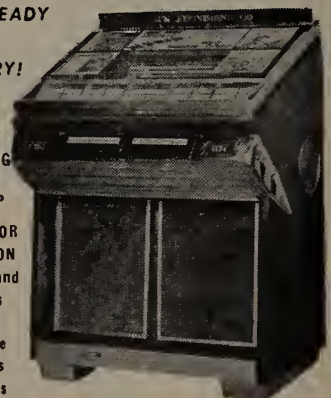

Jonnet stated that his lounge now draws 30 to 40 customers nightly during the week as compared with the four or five patrons it formerly had drawn on the same nights, and the increase is even higher on weekends. In addition, he reported that patrons are buying more now, saying, "they stay at the bar longer and definitely spend more. Our beverage profits have gone up 50 to 100 per cent since the Cinebox was installed," he added.

The Town and Country leased its Cinebox machine about one month ago from Cinevision of Pittsburgh, a sub-distributor of Cinevision Corporation of America, itself an affiliate of Estey Electronics, Inc. According to its agreement, the motel has leased the machine for 36 months, enjoys exclusivity in its area and is supplied

This year's Music Operators of America convention to be held October 14, 15 and 16 at the Sherman House in Chicago will be 'more of a music show' than it has been in recent years according to Fred Granger, managing director of the MOA. Fred has been in town for the past week calling on the West Coast based record companies and received an 'excellent reception' from all the local labels contacted. Set for the show this year are all four phonograph manufacturers as well as all the major recording companies. . . . At C. A. Robinson & Co., Hank Tronick ordering another shipment of Midway Trophy Guns, prior to the advent of Midway's newest 'Flying Turns'. Hank said the operators have seen the circular, are very enthusiastic and can't wait to see the sample. United's 'Mark IV Bank Pool' is starting to make its impression on the market. The preference for 6-player games is showing up in the additional revenues realized over the preceding 4-player 'Bank Pool'. Catherine Lachat, pert and popular secretary at C. A. Robinson & Co. is vacationing in Sacramento, San Francisco, and Lake Tahoe. Al Bettelman's son Sandy is back home after a 44 day summer vacation tour of the country. . . . Anthony Musaccio, from Rome, Italy is visiting wholesalers and distributors here while on a tour of this country. . . . Promotion man, Irwin Zucker squiring Bobby Boyd, president of Boyd Records around town and stopped at Leuenhagen's Record Bar with two of the label's top stars, Jan and Jill Lawhon. Jan is out with a hot single, 'Be Good, Be Good'. The Solle Sisters received a postcard from Al Martino from Atlantic City asking them to watch his new Capitol recording of 'Always Together'. . . . At Paul A. Laymon, Inc., Charlie Daniels said that Bally's new '2 in 1' has met with a very enthusiastic reception from the operators. The operators especially like the two games in one and also the teasing 'Hold-Score' feature. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Laymon celebrated their fourth wedding anniversary with a small dinner party last week. . . . At the Simon Distributing Co., three separate large export shipments leaving for the Far East. George Muraoka said that the pool table business continues to hold up very well. . . . Columbia recording artist, Leslie Uggams, currently appearing locally at the Coconut Grove, stopped in at California Music Co. to chat with Buddy Robinson. . . . Dean McMurdie visiting the local offices of the R. F. Jones Co., after returning from a business trip to Japan. He will be visiting the San Francisco offices of the Jones Co., before returning to Chicago. Don Edwards on a trip to the San Diego area, and Chuck Klein returned from a successful trip to Phoenix. . . . Bob Portale at Advance Automatic Sales Co. said the operators are really going for Chicago Coin's 'Majestic' 6-player automatic bowling lane. Also getting a fine reception, according to Bob is Chicago Coin's 'Royal Flash' 2-player pin game. . . . Visitors from Japan calling on wholesalers and distributors this week were N. Nakayama from the K. K. Chiyoda Co., and Mr. Chatani and Mr. Takahashi with the Chubu Bunkakiki Sales Co.—all of Tokyo. . . . Kaye Co. Making Cue Stick-Ball Shelf Assembly

Kaye Cue & Ball Rack

NEW YORK—A newly designed, versatile cue stick rack is currently being manufactured by the Irving Kaye Co., Brooklyn, one of the nation's leading pool table manufacturing companies. The rack holds six cues of all sizes and contains four shelves for the balls plus an additional shelf for chalk and other billiard accessories.

Irving Kaye, the company's president, advised that the rack is sturdily constructed of wood and formica, is easily mounted on the wall and becomes a beautiful addition for any tavern or pool room. Its handsome lines complement any decor, he added. The unit is shipped knocked down and is easily assembled by simply screwing in the four screws into the pre-drilled holes, he further advised.

He rarely touches a show which he has not the controlling interest. "If I don't have autonomy, I'm not happy, and it hasn't turned out well. I am not myself if a package deal is my particular interest. I am not making my own decisions from now on." This last remark refers to his recent partnership with Ray Stark on "Funny Girl." A: "The musical theater would be better off without them. Their judgment is absolutely awful. Ten Top Tunes Feature Proves Wurlitzer 2800 Red Hot

From the outset the Wurlitzer 2800 had a lot of features going for it. The manufacturer's claim that it was the best looking, best sounding phonograph Wurlitzer ever built has been generally accepted. Its styling has certainly won it a place in a great many locations, and its high fidelity, stereophonic sound is breathtaking in its realism.

On top of these, the Wurlitzer 2800 has the Ten Top Tunes feature wherein the patron can enjoy ten selections for a single coin at the press of the Golden Bar. No feature in the history of the industry has proved more popular and productive so far as earnings are concerned.

What gives a Wurlitzer 2800 its big edge over competition? Superior stereo sound for one thing. Sheer beauty for another. The ability to keep playing with a minimum of service is important. But more than anything else... greater earning power. And what produces that? The features above plus the feature that is Wurlitzer's and Wurlitzer's alone — TEN TOP TUNES FOR FIFTY CENTS AT THE PRESS OF THE GOLDEN BAR. Resultant earnings are, by far, the big news in this industry. Ask your Wurlitzer Distributor for specific examples.
