The exciting young female talent responsible in part for the Vee Jay label's strong showing in sales during the first quarter of '64 is Betty Everett. Her recent top ten single "The Shoop Shoop Song (It's In His Kiss)" is the reason for the lips. The exciting song stylist bows in this week with a new Vee Jay single dubbed "I Can't Hear You No More."

RICHARD BURTON'S HAMLET

THE MOST IMPORTANT THEATRICAL EVENT OF THE YEAR

DOL 302/DOS 702 Stereo A DELUXE 4-RECORD SET WITH A COMPREHENSIVE, ILLUSTRATED SOUVENIR BOOK.

"... a performance of electric power and sweeping virility. I do not recall any Hamlet of such tempestuous manliness. As one sits through a long evening that seems all too short, one is humbled afresh by the surge of Shakespeare's poetry." HOWARD TAUBMAN, N.Y. Times

"... a voice that seems to prove that sound spirals outward, an intelligence that hears wit when wit is trying to steal by tiptoe—but also all of the myriad qualities which the man Hamlet requires." WALTER KERR, N.Y. Herald Tribune

"Richard Burton swept mind and memory clean of all other Hamlets, in a performance so lucid and sensible that people will speak of it for years." NORMAN NADEL, N.Y. World-Telegram & Sun

"This is a fine and imaginative Hamlet." JOHN McCLAIN, N.Y. Journal-American

A GRAMMY FOR NARAS

Once a year, show business takes stock of itself and decides what performances and technical feats reached the finest degree of achievement during the period of 12 months or so.

Each segment of the trade takes its awards seriously. That goes for the disk industry, which last-week—through the auspices of the National Academy of Recorded Arts & Sciences—put its best foot forward and presented Grammys—the association's symbol of achievement—to winners in some 42 categories.

While the Grammy awards, just past its sixth year, have not generated the same public excitement that meets the Oscar ceremony, the industry should be grateful that they are around—and that there's a group like NARAS working in its behalf.

Even recordings of dubious quality require a lot of hard work for a lot of people. When records come along that uplift music or the spoken word or just plainly entertain with taste, they are worthy of being singled out for special honor, whether the recordings contain Bernstein or Brubeck, the Beatles or the Roger Wagner Choral.

With the Grammy awards, those recordings whose merit is not brought to deserved light during the year have their day in the sun. It is then that the industry, faced with a bevy of fine product put before it, is fully aware that it is producing works of art. Pride in accomplishment has an even greater shine on Grammy night. NARAS is the only industry organization that is solely committed to the state of the disk art, rather than the disk art as a money-making proposition.

NARAS is not an organization that pops up once a year only to hibernate until Grammy nominations brings it to life again.

During the course of the year, it offers scholarships and continues to stimulate the trade. Through its college-associated seminars and weekly panel discussions, NARAS opens-up to debate and discussion any number of areas that investigate the essence of material and performance, the heart of a recording. It is necessary for other industry organizations to talk dollars-and-cents; there is also a need for the industry to be constantly informed on the status of records as an expression of art. NARAS has done an admirable job of functioning as a true "academy of the arts," that is an organization whose purpose is to recognize greatness and spur continued achievement.

NARAS, then, is needed—and we're happy to note that the record business, continuing to swell the association's membership rolls, is cognizant and in full support of this fact.

For its own achievements, NARAS deserves its own Grammy award.

RCA DEBUTS INT'L LINE IN U.S.; LP'S, EP'S & SINGLES INVOLVED

NEW YORK—RCA Victor is dipping into its pop catalogs from 16 countries to produce a new line for marketing in the U.S.

The new series, called "A World Of Music On RCA Victor Records," will be under the aegis of Lee Shapiro, of late Victor's international man in the U.S.

The line gets underway with some 650 albums, 150 EP's and more than 200 singles. Original sources of the product include Scandinavia, South America, Canada, Mexico, Spain, Italy, Ireland, France and Trinidad.

To be handled by the regular line-up of Victor distribbers, the sessions will be marketed in the U.S. in their original form, including cover art and liner notes.

Besides dates of an ethnic nature, the line will carry various pop stylings, including foreign-language dates by such top American performers as Neil Sedaka and Paul Anka. Due, too, are foreign soundtrack and original cast items.

A monthly release schedule is planned. New issues will be supported by strong promo campaigns designed to reach both foreign traffic and general pop purchasers.

It is understood that Shapiro conducted an intensive study of the merchandising possibilities of such a line in the U.S., and concluded that the time is here when such foreign inventory can be a regular part of the label's release schedule.

Shapiro reports to Jack Burgess, commercial sales vp, who debuted the new line, already available, to a distrib sales gathering on Sunday, May 10.

Part of Victor's initial promo on the new series includes a catalog of the complete release. It is available at no charge. Details on how it can be obtained are available on page 9 of this issue.

King's New Comedy Line Starts With Kermit Schafer's "Royal Family" Album

NEW YORK—King Records has set-up a new series of comedy LP's—King Comedy—that gets under way with a Kermit ("Blooper") Schafer production called "The Royal Family," a take-off on the Richard Burton-Elizabeth Taylor romance.

LP, which features the Triangle Players of the Playboy Club in Miami Beach, is getting the biggest promo build-up in the history of King.

King designated the project top-secret and kept the production of the album under wraps during the four weeks of manufacture.

For the new series, Schafer has been signed to do a total of seven albums, of which "The Royal Family" is the first. He will continue to come-up with "Blooper" albums for the Jubilee label.

Believing it has something of a "First Family" LP on its hands, King has pressed an initial order of 50,000 LP's. The entire King staff will take part in putting over store displays, in-store promo, etc. A mailing to 14,000 retailers is being made, and a deejay EP sampling of the album is on its way to AM and FM outlets.

In its merchandising to dealers, the label is offering a special discount deal. Those qualifying dealers who offer display space on the package will be able to purchase it on a buy-six-get-one-free basis.

While "The Royal Family" has list price of $4.98, other LP's to follow in the King Comedy line will carry a list of $3.98.

Art Talmadge Buys Musicor; Starts Operation Rolling

NEW YORK—After months of rumors about Art Talmadge's purchases of various record companies, it was formally announced last week that the former president of United Artists Records had purchased the Musicor label from Aaron Schroeder and Morris Zitlin, its former owners.

Talmadge has already opened Musicor's new offices at 826 Seventh Ave. in New York and is preparing his initial release of seven albums, which he will introduce at the forthcoming ARMADA Convention in Miami Beach, June 26th. Following the completion of Musicor's distribution agreement with United Artists on October 5, the label will line-up its own distribbers.

In purchasing Musicor, Talmadge has acquired the talents of Gene Pitney, the label's biggest star and an international favorite. The vocalist has been a consistent hit producer in the U.S. since his debut and is a prolific writer. In recent years, his fame has spread to many European countries and Australia where he has had a number of big hits on the charts. Aaron Schroeder, Pitney's manager, will continue to produce 50% of Pitney's sides with Wally Gold.

Rep. Roosevelt To Speak At ARMADA Confab; Distribbs To Get Free Legal Advice

CONG. JAMES ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK—The record industry, ever-watchful of happenings on Capitol Hill, will hear from Congressman James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) at the sixth annual convention of ARMADA, the distrib association. Convention will be held June 25-July 1 at the Eden Roc Hotel in Miami Beach.

Rep. Roosevelt, whose subject will be "Doom Or New Life for Independent Distributors?," serves on the House's Select Committee on Small Business and is Chairman of the Subcommittee on Distribution Problems, which is looking into the area of sub-distribution, part of which involved hearings on disk sub-distribution last Dec.

He will address distribbers and label

NARM's Mid-Year Meet: Chicago, July 28-30

PHILADELPHIA—Tradesters planning their summer vacations have been reminded by Jules Malamud, exec secretary of NARM, the rack-jobber association, that NARM's mid-year meet will take place from Tuesday, July 28 through Thursday, July 30 at the Sheraton Hotel in Chicago. Confab is highlighted by Person-to-Person Sales Conference sessions between labels and rack-jobbers.

reps at a luncheon at 1 pm on Monday, June 29. Following his talk, he will confer briefly with association officers. He will be available for interview by members of the press immediately following his address to the convention and will return to Washington later that afternoon to prepare for a trip to Europe the following day on an assignment for the Government.

In addition to Rep. Roosevelt, special speakers and Government experts on trade regulation—to be announced soon—will be on hand.

As for the convention itself, ARMADA expects the largest turnout yet at one of its annual confabs. Mailings, including a convention brochure, have gone out to some 200 labels and a host of publishers and suppliers.

One of the interesting features of this year's meet will be the availability of free legal consultation between distribbers and a battery of lawyers from the office of Earl Kintner, ARMADA attorney. Ed Jones, ARMADA secretary, pointed-out that this service is being offered as a service for distribbers who "want to keep out of trouble," and does not mean that ARMADA will participate in all legal actions involving distribbers.

ARMADA is also employing a professional exhibitor who will offer a complete display service, including storage, packing, insurance, signs and various aural aids.

ARMADA will have its own exhibit, whose purpose will be of an (Continued on page 36)

Capitol Off & Running With Beatles EP

NEW YORK—Capitol Records is back in the EP business with a release by the Beatles.

Word from the label indicated that the EP, which had not received full distribution until week's end, would be the largest EP seller in the firm's history.

The deck, containing two tunes each from the group's first two Capitol LP's, is selling like a "very good, non-Beatles" single," as one Capitol exec put it.

Selection of the tracks, the label said, was made after a survey of a portion of the fan mail Capitol has received on the Beatles, which now totals more than 2 million pieces.

In the normal singles release field, Capitol is moving to put over the flip side of the Beatles recent number 1 smash, "Can't Buy Me Love." The group will perform the song, "You Can't Do That," on next Sunday's Ed Sullivan TV'er. This confirms rumors that Capitol would have no new Beatles single until its release of the title tune of the teams upcoming flick, "A Hard Day's Night," sometime before the premiere of the effort in the U.S. in Aug. This Sunday's Sullivan show will include a film clip from the film.

Fantasy Releases Joan Baez Album

NEW YORK—Fantasy Records, the San Francisco-based folk-jazz diskery, has released a Joan Baez album tabbed "Joan Baez In San Francisco." The disk, which was cut in 1958, features the then 17-year-old performer on a dozen contemporary and folk evergreens.

This is the second time the femme folkster has had product released other than on Vanguard where, as an exclusive pactee, she's recorded four extremely successful albums. Last year the Roulette-distributed Squire label released a Baez LP.

Ska Craze In The Making?

NEW YORK—Is there a hot sound fad on the horizon? A number of labels think so and feel a Jamaican based rhythm called "oom-ska" or simply "ska" can run rampant on the U.S. charts.

In fact, the Top 100 already contains a ska-influenced rock 'n roll recording by way of England. It's by Millie Small, a Jamaican whose dinking of "My Boy Lollipop" is climbing up the charts—it's 72 this week. Smash Records is the lucky U.S. outlet for the disk.

Smash's parent company, Mercury, is also represented with a ska date, an item called "Susie Ska" by Jeff Bowen. Other labels with ska releases

Smash, Fontana & Cumberland Announce Expansion Plans

CHICAGO—Charlie Fach, head of the Smash, Fontana and Cumberland labels, has announced staff expansion plans for the three labels as a result of increased sales in 1964.

Lou Dennis, Western regional manager, has been named head of promotion for Fontana, and sales chief for the country line, Cumberland.

Romeo Davis has been appointed regional rep to cover the Southern territory for the firm. Formerly he was a salesman for the Smash distrib, Bertos Sales in Charlotte, N.C.

Others appointed to new posts in recent months include Doug Moody who was promoted to Eastern A&R director of Smash, and Alan Mink to promo manager of Smash.

Fach also announced that a new Western regional manager would be named in the near future.

include Capitol and Atlantic.

Capitol has had several singles releases on the market for the past few weeks, and may issue two or three LP's on rush release. They are Byron Lee's "Jamaica Ska," imported from England, and a release by Ezz Ricco. Atlantic's side is "That Lucky Old Sun" by Prince Buster and the Ska Busters, also from Jamaica.

The beat, which includes calypso elements in its blend of various musical ideas, is described as a shuffle rhythm with a heavy afterbeat.

U.S. interest in the sound seems to have stemmed from Capitol's distrib in Jamaica, who also owns a studio where ska sessions have been taking place. The Jamaican Government, eager to spread the sound to other parts of the world, has invited members of the music trade to see the rhythm first hand.

The U.S. EMI rep, Transglobal, was among the first firms to take up the invite. The firm's Paul Marshall and Roland Rennie took the trip, which resulted in Capitol's "Jamaica Ska" side.

So far, Atlantic Records has shown the greatest interest among U.S. labels in the beat. Label topper Neshui Ertegun and recording engineer Tom Dowd last week returned from a 10-day trip to Jamaica, also invited by the Jamaican Government. During that time, the pair cut 40 sides and inked four ska groups to exclusive Atlantic pacts. The acts are the Maytals, Blues Busters, The Charmers and Stranger and Patsy. Atlantic's first Ertegun-cut ska date was due last week.

It's also understood that Columbia Records is on its way to Jamaica to bring the sound back for its catalog.

The instrumentation of the groups that play ska usually consist of five

RCA Victor & Columbia Top Label Grammy Winners; NARAS Fete Crowds Them In

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records boasted the top number of Grammys following last week's (12) award presentations by NARAS, the disk achievement society. Attendance at awards dinners in New York, Los Angeles and Chicago was the highest in the six year history of NARAS.

With 12 Grammys awarded to personalities associated with the label, Victor out-Grammyed the Columbia label, the follow-up winner, by four awards.

In third place was the Philips label with 4, followed by Warner Bros. with three; Reprise, handled by WB, and London received 2 and the following labels each got one Grammy: Kapp, Verve, MGM, Atco, ABC-Para-as best new artist; Nino Tempo and April Stevens' "Deep Purple" (Atco) as best rock 'n roll recording; "Busted" by Ray Charles (ABC-Par) as best R&B record; Peter, Paul & Mary's "Blowin' in the Wind" (WB) as best folk recording; and The Singing Nun's "Dominique" (Philips) as best gospel or other religious recording (musical).

BMI—cleared music made a solid showing, coming-up with four of the six Grammys devoted to composers. They were "More" (instrumental), "Gravy Waltz" (jazz composition), "Tom Jones" (soundtrack) by John Addison; and "She Loves Me" (Broadway score) by Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick.

mount and Mercury.

This tabulation does not include five of the 42 awards, which cannot be directly associated with any particular label. These awards are song of the year "The Days of Wine & Roses" by Henry Mancini and Johnny Mercer; best instrumental theme "More" by Riz Ortolani, Nino Oliviero and Norman Newell; best original jazz composition "Gravy Waltz" by Steve Allen and Ray Brown; best soundtrack score "Tom Jones" by John Addison; and best classical work Benjamin Britten's "War Requiem."

However, Victor was associated with Mancini in three Grammy awards: record of the year: "Days of Wine and Roses," A&R'd by Steve Sholes, best background arrangement: also "Days of Wine & Roses" (arranged by Mancini); and best engineered recording (other than classical): Mancini's "Charade," engineer, James Malloy.

In other major categories, the "Barbra Streisand Album" (Col.) won as album of the year (pop), Benjamin Britten's "War Requiem" (London) as classical album (one of three "Requiem" Grammys), "Barbra Streisand Album" as best female vocal performance, Jack Jones' "Wives and Lovers" (Kapp) as best male vocal performance; The Swingle Singers (Philips)

ASCAP—cleared Grammy winners were "Days of Wine & Roses" and Britten's "War Requiem."

Following is the complete list of 1963 Grammy winners:

1. RECORD OF THE YEAR: THE DAYS OF WINE AND ROSES—Henry Mancini—A&R Producer, Steve Sholes (RCA Victor)
2. ALBUM OF THE YEAR (OTHER THAN CLASSICAL): THE BARBRA STREISAND ALBUM—Barbra Streisand—A&R Producer, Mike Berniker (Columbia)
3. ALBUM OF THE YEAR—CLASSICAL: BRITTEN: WAR REQUIEM—Benjamin Britten conductor London Symphony Orchestra & Chorus. Vocal soloists: Galina Vishnevskaya, Peter Pears, Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau. Bach Choir, David Willcocks, director. Highgate School Choir, Edward Chapman, director.—A&R Producer, John Culshaw (London)

MAX DREYFUS DIES

New York—News of the death of Max Dreyfus, discoverer of many of America's greatest composers of popular music, reached Cash Box at deadline. Full details on his passing and career will be available in next week's issue.

Del Shannon, Twirl Reach Out Of Court Settlement

NEW YORK—Recent differences between Del Shannon and Twirl Records, Vicki Music and Artists Inc., have been amicably settled out of court by the signing of new contracts between Del Shannon and the various companies that are owned by Harry Balk and Irving Micahnik, it was announced last week.

Del Shannon's records will continue to be produced by Twirl Records and will be released as part of a large independent production deal with Bell Records, which is issuing Shannon's new releases on the Amy label in the United States. First release, a single, is due this week.

In England, where Shannon is a strong selling American artist, the records will be released on the State-side label.

Shannon, who writes most of his own record material, will still be published exclusively by Vicki Music.

Artists, Inc. will continue to represent Shannon as his exclusive personal manager.

VICTOR DISCOUNTS; 10% POPS; 20% CLASSICAL

NEW YORK—RCA Victor told its distributors at a meeting in New York last week that it would continue its 10% discount plan on top albums, with special discounts when necessary to push new releases. Classical LP's, however, will be offered at a 20% discount 'til the end of '64.

Norm Racusin, Victor VP, told Cash Box that at its meeting Victor reaffirmed its belief in its independent distribution system. He also advised that the label would continue its strong monthly release policy. With its new classical discount, Racusin said, "Victor distributes would now be fully competitive with other distributors, even wholly-owned branches of competitive manufacturers."

PLATTER SPINNER PATTERN

KYW-Cleveland deejay Jim Stagg, whose 39.9-mile walk from downtown Akron to Cleveland's Public Square on a frigid Jan. 29th raised over $9,200 for the Mother's March of Dimes, was recently honored by the local chapter of the March of Dimes at a brunch at the Cleveland Pick-Carter Hotel. Actress Jane Wyatt, national Mothers March chairman, presented Stagg with a scrapbook containing the most unusual letters received by the local chapter concerning the now-historic walk.

Len Mirelson, general manager of WNJR-Newark, announced plans for the outlet's annual thirteen-week "Talent Search" to be held in conjunction with the RKO Theatre chain. The amateur shows, hosted by all the WNJR personalities, will be held every Friday night at RKO Proctor's Theatre in downtown Newark with present plans calling for the finals to be held at the RKO Palace in New York. In addition to weekly prizes, the Grand Prize winners will receive a recording contract with a major record company.

Prior to its industry-wide release, SESAC's all-new "Mood Romantic" LP package was sold in six key markets around the country. First to take advantage of the offer were: WITZ-Jasper, Indiana; WCAP-Lowell, Mass.; WBEL-Beloit, Wisconsin; KCTV-San Angelo; KWHO-Salt Lake City; and WRVA-Richmond. The "Mood Romantic" package is being offered to the broadcasting industry this month by SESAC in a general trade mailing. Designed to provide the broadcaster with many hours of superb mood music, the album provides more than 115 selections and is available to the industry for $19.95 complete.

In an era where deejaying jobs are as ambiguous (tenure-wise) as the Mets winding up in first place, Hoppy Adams has set an impressive exception to the rule. This "steady" spinner celebrated his 13th anniversary playing the platters on WANN-Annapolis. Congrats Hoppy!

For the third consecutive year, WLS-Chicago has inaugurated an intensive spot campaign to benefit the Danny Thomas Teenage March on Leukemia. Don Stewart, public affairs director for the station, has divided the campaign into two phases. The first phase, currently on the air, is a recruitment campaign for teenage volunteers. The second phase, which began last week, is directed to adults for donations to be given during the March.

KQV-Pittsburgh is happy just talking to its listeners. At every opportunity, the Pittsburgh station gets out to meet its listeners. At the recent 1964 steel town Home Show, station personalities met and talked with most of the 45,000 visitors who attended the eight-day show. In fact, KQV—registered more people for its prize than any other exhibitor at the show. All of the KQV personalities were there—Hal Murray, Harry Da-

Becco, Dave Scott, Chuck Brinkman and Dexter Allen—giving away record and wallet-sized photos. Every visitor was urged to write his name and address on the address side of a special KQV post card. Visitors were told that one of them would win a beautiful stereo-radio console—and that many of them would receive a personal post card from their favorite KQV personality.

As a special Mothers' Day feature, WNHC-New Haven last week made arrangements with the various Armed Forces to broadcast taped greetings from New Haven area servicemen from their bases around the world.

A special trophy was recently given to WIOD-Miami by the Florida District of Civitan International for the radio station contributing the most to Civitan's efforts in the building of good citizenship and promotion of the Civitan organization.

WABC-New York has launched the third annual Principal of the Year Election to select the most popular Principal in the New York area schools. This year's election rules specify that the Principal's name must appear on 3x5 file cards in order to be counted by automatic tickometers. Last year's voting procedure resulted in hiring of 100 extra employees, on day and night shifts for a period of two months to count an avalanche of more than 60 million votes, which were received on all shapes and sizes of paper.

Charlie Allen and Jack Taylor of WGN-Chicago's "Traveling On" segment are presently thumbing through over 150 tapes from college students across the country who are competing in a mammoth talent contest. Among the prizes is a recording contract with Epic Records.

KDKA-Pittsburgh was recently honored by the Thomas Alva Edison Foundation as the radio outlet that best served youth in 1963. Charles Edison, son of the late inventor, made the presentation to Fred E. Walker, general manager of KDKA, at ceremonies in the Metropolitan Club. In addition to a handsome scroll, the station received a $1,000 Edison scholarship which will be awarded to a Tri-State area high school senior in early June.

KHJ-Hollywood is issuing "Sinatra, Compton and Strings" auto bumper stickers to listeners. The Sunday afternoon program is hosted by deejay Paul Compton.

You never know how ideas will be born . . . KEX-Portland's noon-3:30 PM personality, Ted Rogers, is full of ideas. One day, while playing "Sing, Sing, Sing" he stated that it should have been written by Mitch Miller—thus was born a mail reaction that has taken the station by storm. Ted has received some clever entries (for which he awards records.) Here are a few examples: "Close Your Eyes" should have been written by Lady Godiva; "They Didn't Believe Me" should have been written by Cassius Clay, etc.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Lee Allen has exited his air niche on WXYZ-Detroit to enter the indie promo field. . . . Donald L. Shafer given the green light as production director of KQV-Pittsburgh. . . . Dan Leonard, formerly on WNDR-Syracuse, is now spinning 'em on WOLF-Ithaca. . . . Dex Card, ex of KYW-Cleveland, is a new deejay add on WLS-Chicago. . . . Pick of the Week

PLEASE MR. POSTMAN (2:34) [Jobete BMI—Holland]
 THIS BOY (2:11) [Northern Songs Ltd. ASCAP—Lennon, McCartney]
 ROLL OVER BEETHOVEN (2:44) [Arc BMI—Berry]
 ALL MY LOVING (2:04)
 [Northern Songs Ltd. ASCAP—Lennon, McCartney]
 THE BEATLES (Capitol EAP 1-2121)

The phenomenal English group is now out on a Capitol EP that's a cinch to move out in the pattern of their smash singles. The package, tagged "Four By The Beatles," sports two items, "Roll Over Beethoven" and "All My Loving," that have already appeared on the Top 100 charts (under the Capitol Of Canada banner) and two others—a tantalizing revival of the Marvelettes' while-back hit, "Please Mr. Postman," and an inviting slow beat-ballad lover's lament, "This Boy"—that should be all over the charts in the coming weeks. All four tunes are also from the boys' 2 Capitol LP giants.

NO PARTICULAR PLACE TO HIDE (2:37)
 [Arc BMI—Chuck Berry Music]
 YOU TWO (2:05) [Arc BMI—Chuck Berry Music]
 CHUCK BERRY (Chess 1898)

Berry's back in the hit groove, as evidenced by his recent click, "Nadine," and this one can quickly follow suit. It's a driving delighter, tabbed "No Particular Place To Hide," that has the sound of his while-back successes. On the other end he takes a flavor, shuffle-rock ride thru a light-swing affair tabbed "You Two."

THE MAGIC OF OUR SUMMER LOVE (2:10)
 [Wyncote ASCAP—Jackson, Wisner]
 WITH ALL MY HEART (2:12) [Debmar ASCAP—Marcucci, DeAngelis]
 THE TYMES (Parkway 919)

Here's a new ultra-smooth ballad in a string-rhythm setting from the Tymes that is sure to capture considerable teen-deejay attention. The group has scored significantly with its earlier issues done in the same manner, and this one, "The Magic Of Our Summer Love," is loaded with the same success ingredients. The undercut, a sweet ballad with a Latin backdrop, should come in for a healthy share of sales and spins.

I WANNA BE LOVED (2:23) [Famous ASCAP—Rose]
 THREAD YOUR NEEDLE (2:35) [Just BMI—Jones, Young]
 DEAN & JEAN (Rust 5081)

Artists follow their recent chart-maker, "Hey Jean, Hey Dean," with one that could easily duplicate that happy hit result. This time it's an oldie, "I Wanna Be Loved," that the duo knocks out in sparkling rock-a-rhythmic style. Great instrumental showcase. A handclapping dandy that the hoofers'll love. Backing's a complete change-of-pace shuffle-blues bouncer.

HELLO, DOLLY! (2:15) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Herman]
 CAN'T BUY ME LOVE (2:36) [Maclen BMI—Lennon, McCartney]
 ELLA FITZGERALD (Verve 10324)

There's no reason why the fabulous Ella shouldn't share in the "Dolly" sweepstakes. The lark never sounded better than she does this swingin' version on which she substitutes a host of fellas' names in place of the tag. Her second chorus job should really flip the deejays. Gal's captivating rendition of the Beatles' giant should also be filling the airwaves. Great Johnny Spence orchestrations on both lids.

HELLO DOLLY! (2:18) [E. H. Morris ASCAP—Herman]
 JUNGLE LOUIE (The Italian Tarzan) (2:30)
 [Romance BMI—Allen, Merrell, Scaglione]
 LOU MONTE (Reprise 0284)

Now that Louis (Armstrong) has soared to the top of the charts aboard the sensational smash musical title tune, it's Luigi (Monte's) turn. Artist's delectable Italian version, plus a winning Armstrong impression along the way, is sure to flip the platter spinners as well as Lou's vast legion of fans. Potent Joe Sherman arrangement. Coupler's a rib-tickling novelty replete with jungle sounds.

OH! BABY (We Got A Good Thing Goin') (2:06) [Nujac BMI—Ozen]
 UNFAIR (2:21) [Fame BMI—Pennington]
 BARBARA LYNN (Jamie 1277)

Lark, who has tasted Top 100 success in the past (including "You'll Lose A Good Thing") appears to have latched onto another good chart thing here. Appropriately tagged "Oh Baby (We Got A Good Thing Goin')," it's a pulsating, quick moving romancer that Barbara and her instrumental support carve out with loads of appeal. Tearful undercut takes a slow beat-ballad route.

I LOVE YOU SO (2:30) [Try Me BMI—Byrd, Wright]
 WRITE ME A LETTER (1:58) [Try Me BMI—Byrd, Wright]
 BOBBY BYRD (Smash 1903)

Byrd, who now owns two chart appearances as a result of a solo session, "I'm Just A Nobody," and a duet date (with Anna King), "Baby, Baby, Baby," can make it three-in-a-row with "I Love You So." It's a heartfelt beat-ballad blueser that Bobby delivers with telling effect. Undercut moves along at driving rock-blues pace.

Newcomer Picks

And the 18-year-old lark makes an impressive bow on both halves—an emotional cha cha beat-ballad opus tabbed "Remember Me" and a sizzling rocker labeled "Just Once More." Potent Teacho Wiltshire arrangements back up the delightful newcomer.

MOVE OUT LITTLE MUSTANG (1:54)
 [Trousdale-BMI—Wilson, Christian]

BUCKET SEATS (2:08) [Trousdale-BMI—Altfeld]

The market is top-heavy with this type of product but this one is a standout and should enjoy brisk sales. The undercut is a galloping instrumental that also merits plenty of attention.

POP PICKS

COTTON CANDY—Al Hirt—RCA Victor LPM 2917

Al Hirt has skyrocketed to the top of the singles and LP charts in recent months with a pair of singles ("Java" and "Cotton Candy") and an album tagged, "Honey In The Horn." This set, tagged after the current single, is already climbing the charts rapidly and looms as a top ten item. The trumpeter is standout on his performances of "Hello Dolly," "Walkin'" and "12th Street Rag."

SPEAK TO ME OF LOVE—Ray Conniff Singers—Columbia CL 2150

Ray Conniff, with a host of best-selling albums to his credit, directs his large crew of Singers to a fine sampling of romantic evergreens on this new destined-for-the-charts LP outing from Columbia. The chorus turns in superb performances on "Lover, Come Back To Me," "Beyond The Sea" and "The Sweetest Sounds."

MORE THEMES FOR YOUNG LOVERS—Percy Faith—Columbia CL2167

Percy Faith struck paydirt with his first package of "Themes For Young Lovers," on Columbia and follows it with this second stanza geared for the same sort of sales activity. As before, the arrangements are lush with strings and an easy beat. Best bets here are "Forget Him," "Wives And Lovers," "Since I Fell For You" and "Sugar Shack." Good listening for both teens and adults.

GREATEST HITS—Marvin Gaye—Tamla 252

Here's a rockin' set of singles blockbusters from Marvin Gaye on Tamla, all of which saw plenty of chart activity the first time around. The chanter should get plenty of sales support from his legions of teen followers for this "Greatest Hits" package which boasts such goodies as "Can I Get A Witness," "Pride And Joy," "Hitchhike," and "Stubborn Kind Of Fellow."

THE BOBBY GOLDSBORO ALBUM — United Artists UAS6358

Bobby Goldsboro makes an impressive album debut on United Artists with this package of mostly-ballad served up in the distinctive manner that has brought him so much success and attention in recent months. A rarity in these days of excessive gimmickry, the chanter takes a straight-forward approach to these tunes and enhances them with warmth and sincerity. Best bets here are "See The Funny Little Clown," "Too Young," and "The End Of The World." A definite chart threat.

HEAR! HEAR!—The Searchers—Mercury SR 60914

The Searchers do their bit to promote the Liverpool sound on this album romp for Mercury. The group has scored in the singles market with issues on several labels, and this set should get plenty of attention from the teen dance crowd. Included here are the hard-driving sounds of "Ain't That Just Like Me," "I Can Tell," "What'd I Say" and others. Plenty of coin to be made here.

SOUL SERENADE—King Curtis—Capitol ST 2095

King Curtis, who is currently clicking with his single of "Soul Serenade" cashes-in on the built-in success ingredients of the hit and tabs album of hard-driving blues items after the chart tune. The artist's vibrant tenor sax artistry is effectively showcased on "Tequila," "Night Train" and "Memphis." Album should skyrocket.

GOOD GUY JACK SPECTOR PRESENTS 22 ORIGINAL WINNERS—Roulette R25254

WMCA's 'Good Guy' Jack Spector offers up his top 22 r&r winners on this new issue from Roulette. The label has had considerable chart success with its 20 or more "oldies" sets, and this package boasts some of the cream of the crop of while back and recent hits. The teeners should come out in hordes for the set. Included are "Earth Angel," "Loco-Motion," "Bo Diddley" and many others.

TRUE LOVE—Burl Ives—Decca DL 74533

The vet country-folk songster successfully combines his own traditional style with the "Nashville Sound" orientation of Owen Bradley, who directs the ork and chorus here, on this delightful easy-going disk of varied country items. Ives' rich, wide-range voice carries him in fine stead on top-flight versions of "True Love Goes On And On," "I'll Walk Away Smiling" and "Four Initials On A Tree." Album should pull loads of loot.

DANCE GAL—GIMME THE BANJO — Robt. deCormier Folk Singers—Command RS865SD

Robert deCormier Folk Singers achieved a modest amount of chart attention with their first Command album a while back, and this follow up package should do better. The selection of folk material is diverse and melodic, with all of the tunes served up in an infectious setting. The set has both pop and folk appeal. Slick bands here are "Kilgary Mountain," "Greensleeves," and "Dance Gal—Gimme The Banjo." Top-notch listening.

JOE & EDDIE—VOLUME 4—Crescendo GNP 99

In an era where carbon-copying established "norms" is the rule of thumb, Joe and Eddie offer proof-positive once again that they are a breath of fresh air. While (put) in a full orchestral setting, the duo's zestful, infectious brand of harmony and counterpoint is effectively showcased on a delightful bag of evergreens including "Swing Down, Chariot," "This Land Is Your Land" and "Shenandoah." Eye the LP for rapid consumer acceptance.

GREAT MOVIE THEMES—The Norman Luboff Choir—RCA Victor LSP 2895

The Norman Luboff Choir aims its choral artistry at a dozen film themes of while-back and recent vintage on this new outing from RCA Victor. With old favorites such as "Laura," "Stella By Starlight," "My Foolish Heart," and "The Song From Moulin Rouge," the Luboff crew should spark plenty of sales interest. The arrangements are ultra smooth and first-rate. Loads of listening enjoyment to be had here.

POP BEST BETS

PATTI LABELLE & HER BLUE BELLS ON STAGE—Parkway P7043

Patti LaBelle and the Blue Bells scored a pair of chart triumphs with their etchings of "I Sold My Heart To The Junkman" and "Down The Aisle," both of which are included in this "live" cut set from Parkway. The gals walk their way through ten other potent r&b-flavored items in first-rate fashion. Also included are "Tear After Tear" and "Have I Sinned."

BLOWIN' UP A STORM—Jonah Jones—Capitol ST 2087

Although the Jonah Jones group has a proven record of success with ballads, the crew is equally at home with uptempo items as evidenced by this hard-driving, rhythmic set of swingin' tunes culled from the rich jazz musical legacy over the past four decades. Highlights here include "My Monday Date," "Moten Swing" and "Sleepy Time Gal." Disk should score heavily in the coin department.

The Jazz Of America Is On

Verve Records is a division of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Inc.

LOU MONTE'S GOLDEN HITS—Reprise RS 6118

Lou Monte steps out with a round-up of his recent and while-back money makers on this hits package from Reprise. Plenty of spirited renditions here to delight the Monte coterie as he essays, "Pepino The Italian Mouse," "The Shiek Of Araby," and a warm reading of "Mala Femmena." Brisk sales seem assured.

YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW — Original Soundtrack—Warner Bros. W 1552

Armando Trovajoli has created a delightful score of varied musical elements for the currently in release Sophia Loren-Marcello Mastroianni. The music here which runs the gamut from jazz to classical-styled portions perfectly captures the spirit of the gay, laconic tragic-comedy. Outstanding selections include "Winter Caterina," "Return Of Adelina" and "Rome Don't Be Stupid Tonight."

THIS IS IVORY JOE HUNTER—Dot DLP 25569

Ivory Joe Hunter fans should come out in force for this new Dot LP featuring the vet blues chanter-pianist reading a collection of tunes long-associated with him. While backed by swingin' full ork the artist shines on "Welcome Home Baby," "City Lights" and "Old Fashioned Love." Loads of listening enjoyment here.

FROM RUSSIA WITH LOVE—Matt Monro—Liberty LRP3356

England's Matt Monro comes up with a generous serving of film themes sparked by his soundtrack etching of "From Russia With Love." The chanter follows it with warm and feelingful readings of "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing," "The Second Time Around" and "Till The End Of Time." The flick is big box-office and could stir up excitement for the LP.

THE ORIGINAL LIVERPOOL BEAT — Various Artists—20th Century-Fox TFM 3144

Here's a rhythmic, hard driving set of mostly Beatles-penned rockin' material rendered in an infectious "Liverpool Sound" style by a group of young British performers. Highlights of the album include "I Want To Hold Your Hand" by the Typhoons, "Bad To Me" by Mike Redway and "How Do You Do It" by Bobby Stevens. Teen record buyers should come in force for the disk.

STAND UP AND SING! — Various Artists — United Artists UAS 6331

For this vocal outing on United Artists, Eydie Gorme, Steve Lawrence, Diahann Carroll, Shirley Bassey, Kaye Ballard and Jan Peerce join forces to offer up two tunes each. In a variety of moods and tempos, the singers offer top-drawer readings of "Night And Day," "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing," "Maria," "Granada" and more. The LP has wide appeal both for buyers and spinners.

THE VERY BEST OF THE BIG BANDS—Various Artists—MGM E 4219

Here's a first-rate nostalgic set which features a stellar bevy of swing era luminaries reading an excellent group of popular sturdies. Best listening here include "Where Is This Thing Called Love" by Artie Shaw, "And The Angels Sing" by Ziggy Elman and "April In Paris" by Count Basie. Fine fare for either dancing or listening pleasure.

JAZZ PICKS

LIVE AT THE HALF-NOTE — Art Farmer Quartet—Atlantic 1421

Art Farmer casts aside his versatile trumpet for the flueghorn and with his Quartet teams up with ace jazz guitarist Jim Hall on this power-packed set cut live at New York's Half-Note. The artists perfectly blend their distinctive talents into one cohesive musical unit on top-drawer renditions of "What's New," "I Want To Be Happy" and "I'm Gettin' Sentimental Over You."

CATHEXIS—Denny Zeitlin—Columbia CL 2182

Denny Zeitlin, who will be graduated this June from Johns Hopkins Medical School, displays an impressive, midstream feeling for the keyboard on this his premiere jazz offering from Columbia. While backed by a small, closely-knit group, the young 88'er shines in a varied program of originals and standards. Standout tracks here include "Thou," "Cathexis" and "Blue Phoenix." A performer to watch.

JAZZ BEST BETS

THE MANY SIDES OF MAX — Max Roach Quintet—Mercury—SR 60911

Max Roach, who has earned many laurels in the past with his distinctive jazz stylings, demonstrates that he is not one to rest on his past accolades with this inventive, exploratory package of avant-garde selections. The drummer unleashes his potent instrumental talents full-blast on "Prelude," "Lepa" and "A Little Sweet." Superior listening throughout.

DESERT WINDS—Illinois Jacquet with Kenny Burrell—Argo 735

The wax marriage of Illinois Jacquet's sax (tenor and alto) and Kenny Burrell's throbbing-bittersweet guitar comes off as a rare experience in jazz listening on this delightful Argo entry. The musicians obviously enjoy their work as they dish-up appealing renditions of "When My Dreamboat Comes Home," "Blues For The Early Bird" and "Canadian Sunset." Plenty of sales potential here.

SOUL BURNIN'—Red Garland — Prestige PR 7307

Red Garland displays an easy-listenin' piano technique on this Prestige album outing. The 88'er's approach to these jazz stylings is almost middle of the road, with plenty of broad appeal. The jazzophiles will dig Oliver Nelson's tenor solos. Garland should come in for a fair share of jazz sales with this set. Best bets here are "Green Dolphin Street" and "Blues In The Night."

CLASSICAL PICKS

HAYDN: Symphony No. 101 in D and Symphony No. 95 in C Minor; Fritz Reiner and His Symphony—RCA Victor LM 2742

Fritz Reiner, in this last recording made before his death last year, demonstrates all of his expected musical poise and remarkable sense of balance on this first-rate reading of the two Haydn symphonies. The conductor injects all of the colorful nationalistic elements into his readings which play-up the dramatic aspects of the works. Classical buyers should come out in droves.

BEETHOVEN, MOZART: Symphony No. 5, Symphony No. 41—Cleveland Orch/Szell—Epic LC3882

The Cleveland Orchestra, with conductor George Szell at the helm, performs two major works from the pens of Beethoven and Mozart. Beethoven's 5th and Mozart's 41st have both gained popular stature over the years and this issue on Epic ranks as a superb listening experience. Despite the abundance of existing recordings of these two symphonies, this set merits the attention of the classical devotee.

Mercury-Philips Wins 5 Grammy Awards

Beatles Aid Youth

KANSAS CITY—George Armstrong, general manager of WHB-Kansas City and executive veep of the Storz Stations, presents a kick-off check to Mayor Ilius W. Davis. The check, for $3450.80, represents all of these profits realized from the sale of Beatle booklets on the outlet and was the opening donation in the $25,000 fund-raising drive that will underwrite the Kansas City Youth Symphony's World's Fair trip. They'll perform two concerts on Missouri Day at the Fair on June 17.

The Bigger Brass Band

ELKHART, IND.—1963 sales of the brass instruments increased more than those of their quieter woodwind companions, according to estimates just released by H. & A. Selmer, Inc., the band instrument manufacturer.

Selmer figures, compiled from industry and government sources, show 197,000 trumpets, cornets, trombones, and other brasses were sold by the industry in 1963—an increase of 22% over 1962. Although 283,000 woodwinds (clarinets, flutes, saxophones, etc.) were sold in 1963—this was only 3% over the 1962 figure.

The industry total of 480,000 instruments for 1963 was a healthy 10% over 1962. Ten years ago, new instrument sales were around 300,000 instruments, giving the industry a 45% gain during the decade, according to Selmer estimates. And, this doesn't include the even larger numbers of used instruments that are sold each year.

Students and schools account for the lion's share of the industry's sales, according to Jack Feddersen, Selmer president. He points out that many schools now start youngsters in the instrumental music program at the 4th or 5th grade level. The program continues through junior high school, high school, and college. In fact, Feddersen says that the rapid growth of college level band and orchestra programs is creating an increased demand for higher grade instruments. Modern compositions are increasing the sale of unusual specialized instruments such as alto, bass, and contrabass clarinets and bass trombones.

Approximately 72% of the band instruments sold in the U.S. in 1963 were made in this country. The remainder were imported principally from France, Italy, Germany, and Great Britain.

B. B. King Returns To Kent

NEW YORK—Kent Records has brought blues singer B. B. King back into its fold with a long-term pact.

King, formerly a Kent pactee for 12 years prior to his association with ABC-Paramount in 1961, is currently hitting with a Kent single, "Rock Me Baby." An ABC-Par side, "Help the Poor," is currently a noise-maker. While with Kent, King cut some 300 sides for the label, of which more than 100 are still unreleased.

B'way Musical Binge Paces Stock Growth Agency Execs State

NEW YORK—The upsurge in musical theatre at the grass roots level follows closely on the heels of and duplicates Broadway's pace-setting trend in that direction, according to Charles Baker, head of the William Morris Agency's entire legitimate theatre department, and Ed Robbins, in charge of the stock division under Baker's direction.

Stock buyers, currently in town and keenly aware of the musical resurgence, are showing major interest in this area, say the pair. One key factor is the likelihood of a record number of musicals—at least a dozen—playing Broadway simultaneously within the next few months. Another reason, Baker and Robbins reported, is the release of six musical shows fresh off Broadway for stock engagements ("Sound of Music," "My Fair Lady," "Tovarich," "Milk and Honey," "Mr. President," and "No Strings").

This figure is significant, the talent agents noted, since the "stock" market is often grateful when one new musical is available for a season.

With revivals, the number of musical shows in stock may well reach an all-time record, Baker stated. In sub-

Vee Jay Names Siegal To Head Rack Sales, Lasker To Europe

HOLLYWOOD—Bill Siegal, eastern sales manager for Vee-Jay Records, has been upped to post of national director of rack sales, it was announced last week by Jay Lasker, exec vice-president of the Hollywood-based waxery.

Siegal, who has been with Vee-Jay for seven months, formerly was in sales and promotion posts for Columbia and RCA Victor before joining Vee-Jay.

In the new executive position, he will continue to function out of Vee-Jay's New York offices, coordinating his activities with Randy Wood, president of the company.

Three top executives of Vee-Jay launched a two-week swing around Europe's major cities last Sat. (16) to scout new recording material as well as to renegotiate the company's foreign licensing agreements.

Departing for London were Lasker, and Mark Sands, comptroller, who will be joined there by Walter Hofer, attorney for the diskery.

Included in the trip will be stops in Milan, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Amsterdam, Brussels and Paris with stopover in Toronto before returning to Hollywood June 3.

According to Lasker, one of the main purposes of the trip will be to sign up top folk artists from various nations for Vee-Jay's new folk music program, as official licensees to distribute folk music of the world on the New York World's Fair grounds as well as through the company's normal distribution channels.

Back in the U.S., with nine new singles being released in May under Vee-Jay and its subsid Tollie label, Vee-Jay president Randy Wood will make an extensive promo tour of eastern and mid-West cities to introduce the new product to dee-jays and distributors.

Wood will visit about 20 major cities, including New York, Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, Washington, Atlanta Dalls, Houston and Miami on his three-week swing.

begin his promotion tour in Italy on June 23 with stopovers scheduled in Germany, France, Belgium, Holland and England. The tour will continue for approximately four weeks, during which time Rankin will introduce on local television programs his foreign language recordings of "Where Did My Little Girl Go" and "U.S. Mail," and the other songs which he will record in Europe. Highlight of the tour will be Rankin's June 30 appearance of a European television spectacular along with Bobby Solo (who recently made history with Italy's first million-seller, "Una Lacrima Sul Viso"), Gigliola Cinquetti (who won the 1964 San Remo Festival with her recording of "Non Ho L'Eta' Per Amarti"), Ornella Vanoni and Catherine Spaak.

The European promo tour was arranged by Columbia Records International in cooperation with Rankin's manager, Sal Bonafede. Bonafede is also the manager of Dion DiMucci, one of Columbia's best-selling teen-market artists. Both Dion DiMucci and Bonafede were instrumental in bringing Rankin to the attention of Columbia's director of pop A&R, Robert Mersey, who signed Rankin to an exclusive contract.

Capitol Re-Inks Web Edwards

HOLLYWOOD — Webley Edwards, popular proprietor of the famous "Hawaii Calls" show, has signed a new long-term contract with Capitol Records. The pact was signed here recently by Edwards and Capitol president Alan Livingston almost 11 years to the day Edwards first joined the label.

In his tenure with Capitol, Edwards has recorded 17 albums, making him the industry's largest catalog of Hawaiian music. At a luncheon to celebrate the signing of the new contract, Edwards' A & R man, Bill Miller, pointed out that every album the artist has made is still in the active catalog and still selling.

Edwards originated "Hawaii Calls" nearly 30 years ago (1935) and the show is heard on some 600 stations around the world.

A top European night club, TV and flick attraction for several years, the Kesslers recently completed a successful four-week engagement at the Persian Room of Gotham's Plaza Hotel and appeared on many top television programs including the Ed Sullivan Show.

Currently fulfilling prior commitments abroad, they are expected back soon for conferences with Aravel concerning the material to be recorded, a promotional tour and an intensive publicity campaign.

Ska Craze In The Making?

trumpets, an electric guitar, an electric bass and drums. The heavily accented rhythms of music are produced by the bass and guitar, supplying the shuffle-beat effect.

The label of "oom-ska" approximates the way the beat sounds.

Much of the individuality of the ska beat is owed to its amplification by sound systems, including turning-up loudspeakers to full volume. These systems are present wherever ska is performed in Jamaica.

Dancing to ska is somewhat similar to doing the twist. Unlike the twist, which caught the fancy of high-society after the teeners had gotten to it, ska made its debut in the U.S. at Shepherds', a fashionable New York discotheque.

Hearing the new beat and seeing ska performed for the first time by dancers who learned it where it began, New Yorkers took to the floor to try it, among them Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray, who danced with two of the Jamaican troupe.

The Sight Of Success

Proving how to succeed in show business without really getting dressed for it, the Rolling Stones are shown in a series of photos which may have well been posed for. Top left, Brian Jones gives a physical opinion of a card-board version of Beatle John McCartney. Top right, Mick Jagger is credited with an "arty" or profound look. Bottom, team members get down to the business of preparing for and actually going through a session.

NEW YORK—London Records is beholding beauty in the sales appeal of the Rolling Stones, the hot English rocksters whose unkempt look is endearing them to England's teenagers.

Like their counterparts who have already conquered the Top 100, the quintet is a rage in England, doing the job with a recent smash single, "Not Fade Away," and the top LP and EP sellers (both items named after the group).

As "Not Fade Away" begins its climb on the Top 100, London has napped out an extensive promo campaign to put the team over during their p.a. tour in Canada and the U.S. in June. Eric Easton, the boys' manager, arrived in the U.S. last week (12).

Besides a strong outlay for advertising on the trade and consumer (including TV spots) levels, there are various merchandising gimmicks that will take advantage of the team's novelty looks. Their photos will adorn fan club membership cards, the sleeve of the "Not Fade Away" single and T-Shirts.

As for the tour, the June trek includes visits to Portland, Ore. (6), Vancouver, B.C. (7), Omaha, Neb. (9), Chicago (12), Indianapolis (13), Louisville (14), Charleston (15), Washington, D.C. (16), Philadelphia (17), Providence, R.I. (18) and New York. A major TV show is also skedded to feature the group.

It's back to England upon conclusion of the tour for a feature flick featuring the group.

Meanwhile, Walt McGuire, London's A&R and sales exec, is putting his efforts behind a drive to zoom "Not Fade Away" up the charts in short order.

Col Cuts World's Fair's "To Broadway With Love"

NEW YORK—Columbia Records has gone far Off-Broadway—the New York World's Fair—for its latest original-cast LP. Label has cut and will release next week the cast version of "To Broadway with Love," the Fair's salute, in revue form, to a century of musical comedy. It's being presented at the Texas Pavilion.

The music highlights such composers as Stephen Foster, George M. Cohan, Jerome Kern, Kurt Weill, Irving Berlin, Cole Porter, Harold Rome, Rodgers and Hammerstein. There are also five original songs by Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick, including the title songs. Franz Allers conducts orchestrations by Phil Lang.

Session was produced by Tom Shepard, Columbia's producer of Masterworks A&R.

UA Inks Mark Thatcher

NEW YORK—Mark Thatcher, Canadian-born singer-composer-arranger, has been signed to United Artists Records, according to David V. Picker, president of the label.

His career is being guided by Norman Rosemont, who also manages Robert Goulet, the star songster who hails from Canada.

Thatcher records this week under the aegis of Jack Gold, UA's A&R director, and album and singles product will be marketed in a short while.

UA is embarking on an all-out campaign to introduce the performer to the U.S. public. He'll be doing major club engagements and TV stints. He made his major nitery debut at the Flamington Hotel in Las Vegas last year with Jack Carter and is set to return again later in the year.

Names Manager Of Tamla-Motown Talent Firm

DETROIT—Taylor Cox, the first Negro to hold a management post at the Coca Cola Bottling Co., has resigned that position to join Hitsville, U.S.A., the management operation of the Tamla-Motown set-up.

Cox, former administrative assistant at Coca-Cola, is now manager of Hitsville, U.S.A.'s International Talent Management, Inc., which supervises the careers of Tamla-Motown talents Mary Wells, Marvin Gaye, the Miracles and Stevie Wonder.

Flick Title Song Vocal For Jones

NEW YORK—Jack Jones, who won a "Grammy" from the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences last week for his hit recording of "Wives and Lovers," has been signed to sing the title song in Joseph E. Levine's upcoming Paramount Pictures release, "Where Love Has Gone."

Jones will also record the Sammy Cahn-James Van Heusen number for Kapp Records. Jones, in addition to "Wives and Lovers," has had hit recordings of two other songs from Paramount films, "Call Me Irresponsible," from "Papa's Delicate Condition," and the title song from "Love With The Proper Stranger."

Famous Music will publish the "Where Love Has Gone" title song. Susan Hayward and Bette Davis star in the drama, with Joey Heatherton, Mike Connors and Jane Greer in other top roles, under the direction of Edward Dmytryk. John Michael Hayes wrote the screenplay, based on the best-selling novel by Harold Robbins, author of "The Carpetbaggers."

Boston Pops To Cut "Liverpool Sound" Deck

BOSTON—The foundation of staid old Symphony Hall may be shaken a bit this week (21) when Arthur Fiedler and his Boston Pops Orchestra adapt the Liverpool Sound for an RCA Victor recording session of "I Want To Hold Your Hand" and "Hello Dolly!"

The maestro, who recently returned from a conducting tour of England, succumbed to the Liverpool sound after a visit to the Cavern Club in Liverpool. Fiedler tried the sound on a live audience a few weeks ago with pleasant results. The single will be issued in June as part of the label's Arthur Fiedler Month promotion.

Singer In Critical Condition

HOLLYWOOD—Dale Houston, of the Dale & Grace singing team, is in critical condition in a hospital in Minnesota, suffering from a broken blood vessel of the esophagus. After many transfusions, Houston underwent surgery last week to alleviate the condition.

Sam Montel, president of Montel Records, accompanied Dale to the hospital. The chanter and his partner are currently represented on the charts with a single tagged, "The Loneliest Night."

Prestige Bows New Jack McDuff Single

BERGENFIELD, N.J.—Prestige Records has released a new single by organist Jack McDuff that couples the theme from "The Carpetbaggers" with the theme from "Pink Panther." The label has also issued a special shortened version (2:47) for quick airplay by pop and r&b spinners.

Both of the tunes were culled from an LP, "The Dynamic Jack McDuff," skedded for release this week.

Richard Maltby Writes JFK Requiem

NEW YORK—A musical work dedicated to the memory of John Fitzgerald Kennedy will receive its debut before an audience composed of delegates to the 39th Annual Convention of The American Red Cross at Carnegie Hall this Monday (18).

The work, entitled "Threnody—A Requiem For John Fitzgerald Kennedy," was written by Richard Maltby, composer and orchestra leader. It will be presented by the 100 piece NORAD concert band, which will be conducted by the composer for this occasion.

Maltby wrote "Threnody" in answer to a request from Col. Mark Azzolina who had asked for a special piece to be presented for the Red Cross delegates.

The piece is unique in that the melody line is taken from the letters that spell the name John Fitzgerald Kennedy, corresponding to the musical alphabet.

The NORAD concert group consists of 100 musicians from the Armed Services of the United States and Canada and is sponsored by the North American Air Defense Command.

Contino, Levinson To Entertain At Chi Music Show

BMI Sponsors Folk Seminars

NEW YORK—Broadcast Music, Inc. is sponsoring a series of folk music seminars to be conducted by the Old Town School of Folk Music in Chicago during 1964 and 1965. The school will supervise the seminars, which will consist of lectures, workshops and concerts, intended to stimulate interest in the study and performance of folk music and to assist in the re-discovery and appreciation of folk traditions.

The first BMI Folk Music Seminar will be led by Dr. Robert Cosbey, who will present six lectures on the general subject of folksong. The lectures will be held on Friday evenings at the school.

Following initial lectures on "What Is A Folksong?" and "Public Domain, Originality and Ownership," Dr. Cosbey will speak during subsequent programs on "Types of Folksong," "The Blues," "The Ballad" and "Current Uses of Folksong in Our Culture."

Dr. Cosbey, professor of English at Roosevelt University, has been the host of a folk song music program on WBBM, Chicago, for the past six years, and is well known as a folklorist and author.

BMI has some top folksong writers-performers affiliated with it; among them, Woody Guthrie, Pete Seeger, Oscar Brand, Jimmie Driftwood, Alan Lomax, Theodore Bikel, Jean Ritchie and many others.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

King Curtis

Over the years, many top jazz musicians have sprung from the vast reaches of Texas. Saxmen Jimmy Giuffre, Illinois Jacquet, and Tex Beneke came from there, as did guitarists Oscar Moore, Herb Ellis and Eddie Durham. Pianist Teddy Wilson and blues singers T-Bone Walker and Blind Orange Adams also are natives of Texas.

Another Texan who is now making his mark on the musical scene is King Curtis, currently clicking with "Soul Serenade" on Capitol. The versatile (tenor sax, guitar, drums, piano, vocals) musician was born in Fort Worth on Feb 7, 1934 and started playing saxophone at the age of 12.

After graduation from high school he joined Lionel Hampton's band where he stayed for a year perfecting his technique. Curtis moved to New York and began picking up work as a sideman on the dates of important artists including Bobby Darin, Brook Benton, Nat King Cole, etc. In 1958 he formed his own jazz group. During the past six years Curtis and the crew have played engagements all around the nation.

Millie Small

Millie Small, who is presently riding up the Top 100 with "My Boy Lollipop" on the Smash label, was born in Clarendon, Jamaica on Oct. 8, 1948.

The youngest member of a family which numbers a round dozen, Millie started to take serious interest in singing when she was nine. At twelve she entered and won a talent contest in Kingston, picking up a recording contract to go along with her new-found fame. Her first record reached the number one position on the Jamaican charts. A second hit record followed and soon producers were clamoring for the Lark's services.

At this point in Millie's career her manager, Chris Blackwell, decided that her fortunes would best be served in England. In short order, under the A&R aegis of Jack Bayerstock (head of Fontana in England), Millie scored several British hits. "My Boy Lollipop," which was previously an English best-seller, is her initial U. S. success.

The meet, attended by all Decca division and branch managers, was specifically called to introduce the label's new line of Decca phonos for 1965. According to Decca, the line has been completely "streamlined" for the new year.

After the business sessions, Decca managers attended a luncheon at the Friar's Club, which was hosted by Len Schneider, exec vp, at which time they were joined by the home office staff.

Returning to their respective branches this Monday (18), the managers will hold individual meets with their sales and promo staffs, who will begin contacting their trade with the new line this week.

Fire Destroys Chappell Building In London

LONDON—The music industry was stunned by the tragic news of the fire which swept through the Chappell Music emporium in New Bond Street and completely destroyed the building.

Well known music man and director of the firm, Teddy Holmes, was in the building at the time of the fire and fell from a first floor window while being rescued. He was hospitalized with severe injuries. One man was killed as the fire, which started in the basement, quickly swept through the building destroying everything in its path.

Many valuable scores were destroyed, including the first editions of works by Ivor Novello, George Gershwin and Rodgers and Hammerstein.

For the time being, the Chappell staff is being housed in adjoining George Street offices.

A Round Of Autographs From "Round Robin"

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

SOMETHING I DREAMED (2:38) [Glad BMI—Howard]
WHERE DOES A LITTLE TEAR COME FROM (2:30)
 [Mimosa BMI—McRae, Barton]
GEORGE JONES (United Artists 724)

George Jones, who is still pulling loot with his chart-riding deck of "My Tears Are Overdue," is a sure bet to quickly duplicate that success with this newie tabbed "Something I Dreamed." The tune is a medium-paced, sentimental, chorus-backed lament about a guy who wants to hold on to his favorite gal. The attractive undercut is a catchy, rhythmic traditional ballad essayed with loads of poise by the chanter.

RHINESTONES (2:05) [Painted Desert BMI—Kilgore]
OLD COURTHOUSE (3:08) [Cedarwood BMI—Dill, Walker]
FARON YOUNG (Mercury 72271)

The vet country hit-maker should zoom up the charts in no time flat with this power-packed, ultra-commercial Mercury entry. The top side here, "Rhinstone," is a tender, slow-moving ode about a dad who tells his daughter that she reminds him of her late mother. The flip, "Old Courthouse," is a plaintive singing-and-recitation folksy item about a fellow nearing the end of his days.

TAKE THE BUCKET TO THE WELL (2:05)
 [Fred Rose BMI—Stough, Rainwater]

A MAN NEEDS A WOMAN (2:00) [Acuff-Rose BMI—B. & F. Bryant]
BOBBY LORD (Hickory 1259)

Bobby Lord, who had a huge success recently with "Life Can Have Meaning," makes a strong bid for chartdom with this follow-up stanza called "Take The Bucket To The Well." The song is a lively, uptempo, chorus-backed folk-flavored romantic ditty read with conviction by Lord. The Coupler, "A Man Needs A Woman," is a slow-moving ode in which the chanter proclaims the necessity of male-female relationships.

FORGET ME NOT (2:19) [LeBill & Raleigh BMI—McDuff, Kent]
I DON'T WANT YOU THIS WAY (2:40) [Al Gallico BMI—Kilgore]
MARGIE SINGLETON (Mercury 72268)

Margie Singleton, who hit last time as a solo with "Old Records," comes up with a potent follow-up stanza with this top-drawer tear-jerker labeled "Forget Me Not." Tune is a slow-moving affair about a love-struck gal who doesn't want to be forgotten. Side had a moving mid-deck recitation. "I Don't Want You This Way" is a medium-paced item which concerns a girl whose beau keeps her in hiding.

GOT 2 AGAIN (2:17) [Tree BMI—Miller]
DANG ME (1:47) [Tree BMI—Miller]
ROGER MILLER (Smash 1881)

Roger Miller kicks off his Smash career in fine stead with this delightful romantic novelty tabbed "Got 2 Again." Tune, which utilizes numerical interplay on which the chanter "creates" some imaginative verses, has a rhythmic, folkish melody. Eye it. The attractive undercut, "Dang Me," is a hard-driving, pulsating country-blueser with a contagious, funky beat.

JESSE TRAVERS (D' Arcy 1051) STANLEY BROTHERS (King 5869)

(B+) WELCOME HOME BRO-KEN HEART (2:27) [Twenty Grand BMI—Travers, Wiggs] Newcomer Jesse Travers could well jump into the national spotlight with this first-rate, slow-moving, bluegrass-flavored romancer sold with telling authority. Watch it closely.

(B+) I SEE THROUGH YOU (2:30) [American BMI—Lidley] The Stanley Brothers could very well create some sales excitement with this rousing, high-powered, bluegrass-styled romancer with some extremely fine lyrics. Side's a natural for airplay.

(B+) BLUE EXPRESS (2:11) [Twenty Grand BMI—Travers] More fine country sounds. This one's a lively, hard-driving, chorus-backed novelty.

(B) DON'T CHEAT IN OUR HOME TOWN (2:35) [Lois BMI—Pennington, Marcum] More fine country sounds. This one's a slow-moving, traditional lament.

David Houston and his manager, Tillman Franks, have just returned to Shreveport, Louisiana from Nashville, Tenn. where the songster recorded for Epic Records, under the supervision of Billy Sherrill. The label is extremely enthused about the session and is planning on a rush release.

Philip Morris' annual Derby Festival Music Show in Louisville's Freedom Hall during Derby Week took some of the spotlight away from Northern Dancer with a host of country music's greatest stars featured during a 2½ hour show. The package, which is sponsored each year by the Philip Morris Tobacco Company, drew a record-breaking crowd of over 20,000 persons according to W. E. Moeller, president of the Denny-Moeller Talent stable, who has set the talent and produced the show for the past seven years. Headliners on the show this year were Johnny Cash, Carl Smith, Lefty Frizzell, Stonewall Jackson, Carl and Pearl Butler, Billy Walker, Pee Wee King and the Golden West Cowboys, Red Stewart, June Carter, Harold Bradley, the Statler Brothers and the Stoney Mountain Cloggers. Columbia Records taped the live show for an album which is scheduled for release in the near future. The live recording required an estimated 1,000 pounds of recording equipment which had to be flown into Louisville from Columbia's Nashville studios. Don Law and Frank Jones, the label's country A&R executives, were on hand to supervise the taping of the show.

Ralph Bebeau, program director of

BELGIUM

Jules Nijs, managing director and proprietor of the Show-label, has left for New York in order to add a number of new American labels to his already well-filled arsenal. He will from there proceed to Chicago. His first trip to the United States dates back to the time when he was manager of performer Rocco Granata, who was extremely popular in America with "Marina."

While we are talking about Rocco Granata: his latest record "Dreh Dich Noch Einmal Um" (on Moonglow) is heading for certain success. This firm expects a lot of this new product.

Cliff Richard and The Shadows appeared in Belgium for the first time and were enormously successful. At the airport in Zaventem, they were welcomed by John Kirsch, general manager of S. A. Gramophone in Belgium and Emile Garin, commercial manager of this firm. Peter Gormley, who manages the British act arrived some time later. On their way to the center of the capital, their bus was followed by fans who had been at the airport to welcome them. One of the pursuing cars, a small one, driven by a lady and into which were packed five girls—probably her offspring—nearly crashed into a lorry as the lady-driver only had eyes for the preceding bus, and as the girls had ordered her to ride side by side with the vehicle in order to be able to throw kisses. Waiting at Central Station were hundreds of teenagers who had answered the call to arms by well-known radio-compère Jean-Claude.

The bus got stuck at one place and the police had to intervene to get it moving again. Thousands of fans had taken up position at the entrance to Cliff's hotel and he narrowly escaped "material damage." Press, radio and TV had highly publicized this first visit and the welcome they got in Belgium proves that Cliff has remained one of the great favorites, together with Elvis Presley and The Beatles (of course!).

As predicted, the second and recent record by John Larry on Polydor is already featured on the Flemish hitparade, soon after it appeared on the market. Together with Adamo, Larry is the performer who attracts full houses. This 16-year-old idol has known some mishaps since he started his promising career. The members of his orchestra, The Cosy's, were in a serious traffic accident and the lives of two of them were in danger. They are now apparently on their way to recovery, however. Mr. Holzapfel, managing director for Polydor Belgium, told Cash Box of the possibility of a visit by Freddy Quinn with possible appearances for TV and before audiences. Connie Francis is also a possibility, if certain conditions can be fulfilled. Nothing has been arranged yet, but we sincerely hope these top people will get a chance to get acquainted with Belgium audiences who are as good as any. Up to now, Belgium has been treated as a poor relation in this respect.

Gigliola Charms Belgians During 2-Day Stay

BRUSSELS—Gigliola Cinquetti, the 16-year-old singer from Verona who was the winner of the San Remo and the Copenhagen festival of Eurovision with "Non Ho L'Eta (per Amarti)," was in Belgium for two days, where she took part in a show of Flemish TV with about half a dozen songs.

She arrived from Milan, accompanied by her mother and Signor Porta of the Italian CGD record firm. The guests were welcomed by journalists and by Jules Nijs and Alain Lelièvre of the Show record firm, which distributes the CGD label in Benelux. Cinquetti was visibly impressed to learn she is at the top of the Belgian hit-parade. Holland is to follow suit very soon; in the latter country, Show distributes Decca records. Flemish television was there to do a reel which will be featured in the record program "Good Records, Good Friends." Cinquetti flew over to do a film for this feature, which is exclusive to Flemish TV. After a visit to the Atomium, an impressive relic of the World's Fair of 1958, she submitted to an interview by Bob Boon. At night, the party was entertained at the Italian Trattoria restaurant, with waitresses attired in costumes of different Italian regions.

The young Italian singer, who has charming, simple, winning ways, was moved to tears by this spontaneously offered welcome.

On her last evening in Brussels, hundreds of guests were present at the Martini Club in Brussels where Cinquetti was introduced to dealers of Show records. Not only journalists, but also the most important record dealers were present. Poor Gigliola had to pose for pictures and hand out autographs for more than two hours. She complied with a never failing smile.

Among people present were Mr. Kluger of World Music, the firm publishing the music of "Non Ho L'Eta (per Amarti)" in Belgium. Also there was the managing director of Delta Records in Holland, who takes care of the distribution of the Cinquetti hit in this country. He suggested that Cinquetti might appear as guest-star at the famous "Grand Gala du Disque," which is to be held in the renowned seaside resort at Scheveningen.

The Italian party then left Brussels to take the plane to Berlin where other TV and radio-activities await them. The filmed shows will be telecast in Belgium on Monday, May 25. All went well and the show is surely heading for success.

HOLLAND

Adamo, appearing in Rotterdam on May 19, as reported earlier, had his Golden Disc Award on the 15th. Adamo will be top of the bill in Amsterdam (Concertgebouw), preceding similar shows in Utrecht, The Hague, Tilburg and Rotterdam.

Bovema's Columbia-label has released the 12" album Session with the Dave Clark Five. This group rapidly gained wide popularity in this country with such high-listed hits as "Glad All Over" and "Bits and Pieces."

Bovema's HMV-label reports that French singer Gilbert Bécaud will appear on Dutch VPRO-TV on May 30.

Gramophonehouse's Folk Music Series has now launched its first ep-recording, featuring Scottish music by The City of Edinburgh Police Pipe Band.

Betty Everett's "Shoop Shoop Song" and The Four Seasons' "Stay" are among the fastest running singles released by Bovema's Stateside label. Also on the charts are TV-personality Dick Van Dyke's "Free Wheels on My Wagon" and "Little Richard sings Gospels" (LP).

Capitol is hitting the Dutch market with Donna Lynn's "Ronnie" and Stan Kenton's new album featuring Jean Turner, while Bovema's Liberty-label does a fine job with Jan & Dean's Cash Box-hit "Dead Man's Curve." Dutch and foreign radio stations are constantly plugging this last item.

New items in Bovema's Teenager Top Test-series are the Ventures' "Walking with Pluto" and Hank Marr's "I Can't Go On."

On account of the very successful TV Film-series: "The Beverly Hillbillies," which is being seen on Dutch NCRV TV, CBS released a single of "The Ballad Of Jed Clampett" (Theme song of the TV-series), sung by Lester Flatt & Earl Scruggs. The 65th birthday of Robert Casadesus, on April 7 last, has been reported by CBS P & R dept., to Dutch Press, Radio and TV. The beloved pianist has been honored in the Dutch press and NCRV Radio paid attention to the pianistic work of Robert Casadesus, with a whole week's program. His latest CBS recording of the Pianoconcertos of Bach and Mozart, for three pianos and Orchestra, has been received with great admiration in Holland. CBS released the stage-play of Edward Albee, "Who's Afraid Of Virginia Woolf?" The Dutch premiere of this play has been highly successful. Press, Radio and TV paid strikingly much attention to this sensational stage-presentation. Dutch classical Monthly "Luister," came out with a one page glorified review about this unique event.

A wonderful souvenir of the unforgettable early morning of March 21, 1964, when Sammy Davis Jr. gave a superb performance on the stage of completely packed "Theater Carré" in Amsterdam, was released by Artone's subsid Funckler Records on the 13th: a 12" Reprise LP entitled "Sammy Davis Jr.—Recorded Live In Concert" contains some 41 minutes of terrific in person performances by dynamic Davis. Since the Stage Show was filmed by AVRO network, broadcast in Holland on April 11 and in Belgium on April 19, the LP got off with a big bang, as its contents were compiled by Pete Felleman, Jr. from the available Reprise etchings by Sammy Davis and the finished product was practically identical to Davis' local performance. A second Sammy Davis Jr. LP, containing 37 minutes of imitations, impressions and impersonations plus no fewer than 4 EP recordings and several new singles will be released shortly.

The Belgian Eurovision-title "Près De Ma Rivière" sung in Copenhagen by Robert Cogoi will be recorded in Dutch by famous songstress Anneke Grönloh, who represented in Copenhagen the Dutch territory. News comes from Wim van Vught (Editions Altona) who handles this. Editions Altona further reports that the San Remo-title "Sole Sole" sung by Siw Malmkwist and the famous couple Willy & Willeke Alberti, now obtained a beautiful Dutch recording by Lize Marke on the Philips label. The USA-Hit-Parader "White On White" was recorded in Dutch language by Hollands Number-One singer Rob De Nijs. Editions Altona expects big things from this waxing. Most important news from this month: songstress Corry Brokken's comeback on the charts with her beautiful Dutch version of the Charles Aznavour-composition "La Mamma." Van Vught is very happy that after "Milord," which brought Corry Brokken a golden record, it is again a title of Editions Altona that brought her back into the Dutch Hitparade.

Dutch singer Frans van Schaik made a wonderful recording of "Ik Vertrouw" (I Believe)—Basart. This number will also be recorded by popular Mieke Telkamp on Philips. Gert Timmerman, owner of a few golden records, made a new recording, which probably will be a new "hit" in the Netherlands. "Een Moederhart, Een Gouden Hart" (Vivace-Basart N.V.) was recorded on CNR. The number one record in Germany "Lu La Lu" (Basart N.V.)—"O, My Darling Caroline," recorded by Ronnie on Telefunken, sold very well in the Netherlands too. "See The Funny Little Clown" (Basart N.V.) has been recorded in the Dutch language by Edwin Rutten on MMP. Comedian Tobi Rix made a terrific stand on "I Want To Hold Your Hand" (Basart N.V.) recorded on Philips. At the moment there is much interest for the English winning song of the European Song-Contest. "I Love The Little Things" (Basart N.V.). There are plans to record this number also with Dutch lyrics, which were written by Ted Powder and Ad Remy.

Lorna Music, headed by managing director Alan Paramor announced the formation of three new companies in addition to the already established Cinderella and Charlie Parker firms. Woodside Music Ltd. has been formed in conjunction with top British writers Mike Hawker and Ivor Raymonde—the combination who penned the “I Only Want To Be With You” and “Stay Awhile” hits for Dusty Springfield—Hawker also being responsible for the earlier Helen Shapiro successes. First songs to be published under the new deal are “A Devil Came To Paradise” and “Love Is So Fine,” but material is so new no artists have so far been lined up for recording. Laurel Music Co. Ltd. is in partnership with a recording company. Lastly, Trident Music (London) Ltd. will represent the American Trident catalog as well as other copyrights obtained by the pubbery. Alan Paramor reminds us that Lorna Music was started four years ago on behalf of Wilhelm Hansen, the old established Danish company. Lorna's first hit was with a recording of “Stay” which Maurice Williams took to the top of the American charts. This was later revived with enormous success by The Hollies (Parlophone) which stayed in the British Top Twenty for three months. Paramor has recently returned from America where he negotiated the Trident deal with Paul Boye.

M.D. Harold Geller, who formed his own Lynn Music Company six months ago, has now branched out into artistes' management and independent recording. He decided to look for talent further afield than the north of England. In fact, he went to Ireland. There he discovered six groups and was so impressed with them that he signed them to his own management and recorded them via his own independent recording set-up. The first result is a single on Mercury of “I Love My Little Girl” by Six Of One published by Lynn Music. Geller is negotiating for the groups to back their recordings with TV and personal appearances. Other groups under the Geller management include the Stellas, the Plattermen, the Jets and the Kings all of whom will make their disk debut in the near future.

Geller is also expanding his publishing activities internationally and has already placed copyrights in several continental countries. During a recent trip to Mexico he negotiated with Tizoc Records to release some of his material. As well as placing copyrights Geller is interested in seeking material from all countries to build up his Lynn Music catalog in Britain.

Ambassador Music has acquired the complete In Music and Davon Music catalogs for Great Britain. The deal, set by Ambassador Head Lee Pincus during his recent American trip, includes fifteen LP's coming out on EMI; various singles and over 400 songs. Main asset of In Music is writer-artist Rod McKuen. Besides writing songs for top U.S. artists McKuen records four LP's a year for Capitol to be released in England by EMI Ambassador has eleven titles on McKuen's first EMI LP release, “Rod McKuen Sings Rod McKuen.” McKuen arrives in Britain in early June to promote his LP's and place songs with British a & r men and artists. Ambassador are currently working on the latest Ronnie Carroll Philips single “Tell Me All About It.”

After Radio Caroline comes Radio Atlanta. Operating in international waters off the East Coast of England and broadcasting on 197 metres Radio Atlanta also plans a 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. transmission. Eventually, it hopes to maintain a 24 hour service. Scheduled to commence operations immediately, managing director of Project Atlanta, Allan Crawford, makes it quite clear that there will be no evasion of royalty payments. Australian born Crawford who established Merit Music in 1959 and later the Crossbow group of recording companies said that he would not enter into any negotiations which excluded the payment of such royalties.

Having scored a success on both sides of the Atlantic with his British made “Forget Him” dinking, Bobby Rydell hopes the magic formula will work again with his latest British effort “Make Me Forget.” Rydell recorded the number in Pye's recording studios, the tune penned for him by Johnny Harris and Ray Merrell and published by B. F. Wood. Already issued in the States the disk is issued here on Cameo Parkway.

Folk singer Bob Dylan makes first appearance in Britain with concert at Royal Festival Hall May 17. During his stay he will appear on many TV and radio shows. Dylan was responsible for penning “Blowing In The Wind” made famous by folk trio Peter, Paul and Mary on the Warner Bros. label.

Pye Records celebrates the arrival of Chuck Berry for his first British tour by releasing his “The Latest And Greatest” album. His current single “No Particular Place To Go” is already on release. Other r & b albums issued by Pye include “Muddy Waters—Folk Singer,” “In The Spotlight” by Bo Diddley and “The Blues Volume II” featuring Berry, Diddley, Waters and Howling Wolf.

Quickies: Irving Chezar, Pye's American representative in Britain for discussions with Louis Benjamin. . . . “Off The Beatle Track,” instrumental versions of The Beatles hits performed by a & r manager George Martin and his Orchestra, set for June release on Parlophone. . . . “Presenting Dionne Warwick” album released on Pye International. . . . The Four Seasons American hit “Ronnie” issued here on Philips. . . . “I Believe” topping Best Selling Sheet Music lists for Cinephonic. . . . New “Dance With The Shadows” album on Columbia. . . . AUSTRALIA

It was our pleasure recently to welcome Norman Orleck, vice-president of Cash Box, and his charming wife Thelma to Australia for a brief visit. During their stay Orleck was able to meet many people from all levels of the trade. In honor of the visit, a special cocktail reception was held at the Chevron-Hilton hotel in Sydney at which Orleck was the honored guest (see photos). In addressing the gathering of record company, music publishing, coin machine and radio station representatives, Orleck pointed out just how small the music world has become as a result of jet air travel. This was having the effect of bringing the world trade closer together than ever before and record companies and publishers were now cooperating in a trading manner that was never dreamed of a few years ago. A product of this “nearness” is the fantastic worldwide success of many artists from outside the United States—and in particular English stars right at this moment. Orleck also touched on the ever increasing number of simultaneous singles releases in many countries around the world. At the conclusion of his address to those present, Norman and Thelma Orleck were given a warm Australian welcome and spent time chatting with individual guests at the function. It was their first real introduction to Australia and Norman said he was very pleasantly surprised at the fact that it was obvious that most Australians in the industry were well up to date with trade happenings all over the world.

Harold Hull of Muzak (Planned Music, Melbourne—a subsidiary of Radio Melbourne 3 AK) has just won the International Monthly Sales Award which is conducted by The Muzak Corporation in all countries of the world where Muzak plays; the award has previously been won by America. When told of his success, Harold said he was extremely proud to bring the award to the Melbourne Franchise in Australia. Muzak, although less than three years old, has had outstanding success in obtaining more than 300 subscribers in Melbourne and Sydney.

RCA of Australia Pty, Ltd., has now set up its own record distribution outlets in the major cities of Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Perth. The new plan is already into operation and marks a further important step in the progress of RCA in this country.

As was anticipated, “Can't Buy Me Love” has become the top selling single across the nation within a week of its release. It could easily hold this position for some time because The Beatles are due to arrive here for a concert series within the next couple of weeks.

Cash Box GERMANY

Germany's largest fan magazine Bravo recently had its yearly reader's poll to determine the most popular stars in every field; records, film, TV. The winners of the male and female record star division were both foreigners. First place in the male division was Cliff Richard and the distaff side of the poll was won for the third straight time by Connie Francis. Cliff needed 81,364 votes to win and Connie had 65,427 for her first place. The male poll had Freddy who has won the four previous polls in second place, German Rex Gildo in the number three slot and Elvis Presley took fourth place for the top American in the poll. American Gus Backus, who has lived here for about 5 years took fifth place and the Beatles entered the poll at number 6. Number 7 was Peter Kraus, Frenchman Sacha Distel, who has a stack of German language hits to his credit took number 8, Austrian Peter Alexander finished 9th and Trini Lopez zoomed into the number 10 slot. Other foreigners to place were Pat Boone—number 12, Chubby Checker—number 14, Paul Anka—number 18, The Blue Diamonds—number 20, Jan & Kjeld—number 22, Fats Domino—number 23, Rick Nelson—number 25, and Frank Sinatra—number 30.

In the favorite female songstress poll, Germany's Conny took second place, Italy's Rita Pavone entered the poll for the first time in 3rd place, Berlin lass Manuela also took 4th place for her first placing in the contest. Scandinavian lass Gitte finished fifth. Caterina Valente took sixth place. Heidi Bruhl was seventh, Sweden's Lill Babs took 8th place although she has never had a big record hit here, France's Francoise Hardy was ninth and Little Peggy March took 10th place. Other foreigners who nailed down slots in the top 30 were Petula Clark—number 11, Greece's Nana Mouskouri—number 12, Israel's Carmela Corren—number 13, Brenda Lee—number 14, Esther Ofarim also from Israel in the 16th position, Sweden's Anita Lindblom was 17th, Italy's Mina finished 18th, England's Helen Shapiro was 22nd, Soeur Sourire finished 23rd, France's Dalida took the 24th slot, France's Jacqueline Boyer was 25th, Sweden's Siw Malmkvist—26th, French/Italian lass Audrey Arno was 29th and Sweden's Bibi Johns took the number 30 slot. Although most of the artists to win positions are foreigners, all of the gals in the top 30 positions with no exceptions record in the German language and only Elvis Presley, Fats Domino, Rick Nelson and Frank Sinatra of the 30 top males have not recorded in German especially for this market. The listing of favorites is very international but the German language is definitely trump here.

Theo Seeger of Peer Music reports action on "Not Fade Away" by The Rolling Stones and "Always In My Heart" by Los Indios Tabajaras.

Germany's most popular male singer Cliff Richard has his first tour of Germany set with The Shadows. He'll do two shows on May 12 in Munich and stay in Munich for two days for TV appearances.

The package then travels to Essen on May 15th, Kiel and Hamburg on May 16 and closes on May 17 in Berlin. The tour should prove a good kickoff for Cliff's new German recording of "Don't Talk To Him" and "I'm The Lonely One." Electrola is giving the tour a big push and is issuing special listings of the records available from The Shadows and Cliff Richard for the tour. Alfred Schacht from Oktave Music is busy pushing the music from the film "The Death In Beverly Hills" as well as "Little Geisha" by Ladi Geisler, "La Route" and "The Tough Touch" from Jacques Denjean and "Yo Se" from Connie Francis. Al's also got the Eden Kane hit "Boy Cry" which will soon be done in German here.

CBS records reports that the first recording by world champion doubles ice skater Hans Jurgen Baumlner took first place in the Frankfurt radio hit parade with 16,129 of the 18,024 votes cast. Hans' partner Marika Kilius also records for CBS and her first record made the top 3 here in Germany, and has sold more than 100,000 records.

Hans Gerig reports that he's got 3 new Electrola records making noise by Paul Kuhn, Bill Ramsey and Willy Hagara.

German Vogue records reports that Scandanavian lass Suzie has made her first German record together with American Larry Finnegan and his orchestra. The record, a German version of "Johnny Loves Me" is taking off like wildfire here. Vogue also has released "Walk On By" by Dionne Warwick.

A&R man Kurt Feltz has found a new dance which got its start in Vienna. Called "The Staff" the dance has caught on like wildfire in Austria and has been kicked off in Germany by two diskings. The dance was invented by composer Erwin Halletz who also has an instrumental waxing out of the dance and backs singer Franz Marian on the other recording of the dance. Polydor has issued dance instructions and the Vienna paper "Express" also printed dance instructions. Perhaps it will be the first world dance "Made In Austria" since the waltz.

"OH MY DARLING CAROLINE"
 Published by
EDITION MARBOT HAMBURG BORN ST. 12

José Escatena, president of RGE-Discos, is giving full support to the effort of young music people from São Paulo to promote modern pop music here. Among these promotions, the newspaper-man Armando Aflalo is organizing every Monday, in a experimental theater, Jazz Evenings. The best musicians from Rio and São Paulo have the opportunity to return to what is considered the basis for the new Brazilian music wave, be it Bossa Nova, Balanço or whatever people like to call it. The first three evenings were a complete success and presented were: the Zimbo Trio, with Luiz Chavez (bass), Hamilton Godoy (piano), Rubinho (drums), who cut a successful album for RGE, also the Manfredo Fest Trio and the quintet Cincopados, currently at the "João Sebastião Bar, with Buda (trumpet), Carlos Alberto (tenor sax), Heraldo (guitar), Shu Viana (bass), Arrudinha (drums), together with the Quarteto De Garoto—Luiz Melo (piano), Matias (bass), Antoninho (drums) and Garoto himself on the vibrafone. The Saba Trio is also scheduled. Mário Duarte, production manager, announced the new LP productions of the company: "Solamente sucessos," featuring Latin American rhythms for dancing purposes with Ubirajara and his golden solovox; a young songstress of modern rhythms, 16 years old "brotinho," waxed "Twist, Hully-Gully and Cleide Alves;" "Embaló" is the title of another album cut by a 23 year old medicine student, Tenorio Junior, and his group—Milton Banana (drums), Meireles, Hector Costita, Paulo Moura (sax), Edson Maciel and Raulinho (trombone). Tenorio is a promising discovery of Roberto Menescal. "Lygia" is a waxing by a socialite of SP who was recently focused in all Brazilian newspapers through a divorce case. Lygia Freitas Vale sings numbers by Vinicius de Moraes, Noel Rosa, Paulinho Nogueira, Walter Santos, Geraldo Vandré, Luiz Bonfá and others among the most representative of today's BN movement. Marcos Nobila, from the international and promo depts, received an interesting letter from one of the exclusive artists of RGE, presently in the United States—Caetano Zama—a composer-musician who went there to produce jingles, ended up cutting an album for 20th. Century Fox; he was also invited to work for Paul Winter but couldn't accept, so Winter placed another Brazilian called Duílio. Zama's composition "Brazilian Summer" will probably be recorded by Mantovani and Lawrence Welk. RGE is making an interesting promotion of two of its latest waxings (compacts): one for the occasion of "Mother's Day," cut by Alda Perdigão and called "Mamãe Pequena;" in the center of SP hundreds of balloons will be sent up the air, one of which will contain a check for an important amount. The other is a waxing of . . . a bird! The Curió Marajá, considered champion of the world, sang uninterrupted for 1 min. 48 sec.; his owner Dr. Salib and RGE will award a one million cruzeiros award to any other such bird who can match it. The record is being also sold in Mexico, Argentina, Uruguay, Italy and Portugal, with great curiosity especially among people interested in ornithology.

Orlando Stefano, in charge of A&R for Odeon, announced that a new waxing cut for that label by the very popular Trio Irakitan, called "A Bossa Que Gostamos De Cantar." The three artists just back from tour in England, France, Portugal and Japan, had an opportunity to feel the international pulse as far as the Brazilian pop music is concerned and are trying with this new LP to conquer that public, with a special view to the US fans of Bossa Nova. Odeon considers the selection and interpretation in this new album able to please all over the world and, for that reason, selected it to figure among that label's releases in US and other countries. Maestro Gaó is another artist who came back to Brazil after a long stay in the US and Great Britain. The well liked pianist and composer, whom the Brazilian public was already missing, cut an LP for this company called "Gaó—Seu Piano E Cua Orquestra," intended to make that Brazilian artist known on the international market.

Douglas Reid, the new Brazilian president for RCA Victor, is traveling to the United States in order to contact the head office, after being appointed for that important position with the company. For that reason, a homage that was being planned for next week had to be postponed.

Luiz Nocargel, from the promo dept. of Audio Fidelity do Brazil, advises that one of the very good groups of modern Brazilian music—Sambalanço Trio—currently also playing at the "João Sebastião Bar" here in São Paulo, are cutting an LP for the label, due for great success among the fans of this new rhythm. César is on the piano, Cleiber on the bass and Airton on the drums. Another group, this one a vocal one, under contract with AF, was invited for a tour in Argentina and will perform at the swank resort of Bariloche, promoting Brazilian music—Trio Seleno. Before they go, through this promotion of a travel agency from SP, the trio will finish a Bossa Nova record for the label.

Douglas Reid Named Pres. Of RCA In Brazil

SAO PAULO—Douglas Reid (right), newly named president of RCA Victor Brazil, receives a congratulatory handshake from Italian disk artist Sergio Endrigo, who has been on tour in Brazil. Reid has been general manager of RCA record operations for more than ten years.

The American Beatles canceled their trip to Brazil at the last minute on grounds of illness. Although there was a certain disappointment from the part of the public, who were anxious to have an opportunity to witness the reason for the world success of the real Beatles, through their US counterpart, the people here had a remedy for it: the announcement of the Theater-Radio-TV chain Emissoras Unidas of the international attractions scheduled to visit this country this year. Van Johnson is due this month; he will sing and dance. Then, Rita Pavone, Johnnie Mathis, Paul Anka, Frank Sinatra Junior, Pat Boone and, there is even a chance that the real Beatles will come. The public learned to trust the people who gave them the opportunity to see in person such famous artists as: Nat "King" Cole, Tony Bennett, Ella Fitzgerald, Sammy Davis Jr., Louis Armstrong, Sarah Vaughan, Caterina Valente, Billy Eckstein, Brenda Lee, Ray Anthony, Harry James, Benny Goodman, Les Brown, and more recently Sacha Distel, Maurice Chevalier, Roy Hamilton, Dalida, Josephine Baker, Elisao Disi, Nico Fidenco, Emilo Pericoli, Peppino di Capri, Sergio Endrigo and Edoardo Vianello. It would be interesting to start a campaign to place American artists again in the position that was taken over by the Italians during these last times. How about it?

Adail Lessa, general manager for Philips in São Paulo, is very happy with the enormous success that the LP of "Sérgio Mendes and his Bossa Rio Group," released recently by that label, is having among the enthusiasts of BN, both in Rio and São Paulo. The Trio Samba's LP "Samba, Samba, Samba" is also in the preference lists in the specialty shops. Another sure bet with the Brazilian public on the international line is Connie Francis; her last MGM, represented by Philips, LP with Italian songs came right in time. Alfredo Borba, in charge of the A&R department in São Paulo, is anxious to see the results of the first LP that Walter Wanderley cut for the label. The same talented musician is accompanying an expressive songstress who is also making her first bow for the company: her name is Neide Fraga.

Lennie Dale is the name of a dancer who came from the States and is probably the person best qualified to be called "An American In Brazil!" After a very successful career in US, where he danced with Katherine Dunham, was on the cast of "The West Side Story" on Broadway and attended the American School of Ballet, among other things, Lennie decided to see the world. He danced at the Brussels World Fair, at the famous "Alhambra Theater" in Paris and, while in Rome, had the opportunity to stage the "ballet" for the bacchanal scene of the film "Cleopatra," in which he danced the part of the faun. Dale was in London in 1963 when he was talked into coming to Brazil to see the Carnival. He did so, and liked it so much that he decided to stay. Carlos Machado, "king of the Rio nights," engaged him for a show on his famous night club "Night and Day." From there it was easy to get a contract for another "topset" dancing in Copacabana, "Au Bon Gourmé," where he stayed for three weeks. It was by then that Lennie started singing . . . in Portuguese. Someone connected with Ed Sullivan saw him there and made arrangements for him to go with three Brazilian musicians—"The Bossa 3"—and Martha Botelho (the "Garota de Ipanema") to take part in that important show. But, he had to come back to Brazil, where he started to work on TV and other night clubs, always getting more and more identified with the Brazilian modern music. He took part in shows of Bibi Ferreira, Tonia Carreiro, Silveira Sampaio, some of the top names on Brazilian TV. By this time, the dancer was speaking Portuguese fluently, which he learned, as he says, "on the streets, on the 'favelas' and 'gafieiras,'" where he went to learn the real beat of the samba, to assimilate the complicated movements of the "passistas," to feed himself with the warmth of the rhythm. What he taught himself that way, allowed him to apply his knowledge of "ballet" choreography in the performance of typical Brazilian dances, which has given it a character of internationalism, without losing its original interest and charm. The proof is that the Brazilian public and critic accept it and praise it. Presently Lennie Dale has a whole all Brazilian show in SP in a small experimental theater—Arena—which is sold out at every performance. But the most interesting of all are the future plans of the artist: he is working out with the Brazilian government, through the Itamarati (Foreign Relations) a plan for exchanging Brazilian with US artists. He is preparing a research on the local folklore dances Candomblé and Capoeira, which he later intends to show in the States. He is at the head of a movement to create a non-existent Union for all dancers. He will soon attend the NY World Fair and so take the opportunity to close the negotiations for the acquisition of the rights to present the show "Stop The World, I Want To Get Off" on his return to this country at the plush "Midnight Room" of the world famous "Copacabana Palace Hotel." Lennie Dale is studying several propositions to record an album with American tunes in the native Brazilian beat and rhythm.

ARGENTINA

Social highlights: the cocktail party offered to the press and disk-jockeys by Odeon, celebrating the "gold temples" given to tropical music group Los Wawanco for being the label's top selling artists during 1963. As we had informed before, the group has sold very well several records of "cumbia" music, which has been very popular in Argentina for some time.

Visitors: from Chile, melodic singer Marco Aurelio, who will stay in town for about three months, performing on Radio Splendid and probably TV and dance parties. At Aurelio's premiere on radio were present, among others, Lucho Gatica, Juan Ramon, Ben Molar, Argentino Ledesma and several other top names. Expected from Mexico, Los Hooligans, for performances on TV and dance parties, and also Manolo Muñoz, who has several contracts to fulfill. Leaving Argentina is Lucho Gatica, who will visit Brazil once again after a ten year absence, and afterwards fly to Mexico and Los Angeles, to start a tour of the United States.

Enrique Iriberry of Surco informs that his company, representing United Artists in Argentina, will release a very interesting LP, "Voices of History," just appeared in the States. The album contains excerpts from speeches by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, Harry S. Truman, John F. Kennedy, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Dwight D. Eisenhower and Lyndon B. Johnson. Other UA releases include a series of albums tagged "50 Favorite Songs" cut by artists like Ferrante and Teicher, Al Caiola, Tito Rodriguez and Ralph Marterie.

Odeon has released a very interesting album by folk singer Atahualpa Yupanqui, titled "Coplas del Payador Perseguido." In this LP Yupanqui plays the guitar and sings and tells parts of the story of his musical career, and the whole record is devoted to this. It is a very unusual release, and a wonderful addition to the folk music catalog in Argentina, which has been badly in need of such outings. The album has been very well received by the trade, according to reports, and is under heavy air play.

New publishing firm: Ediciones Musicales Gaucho. Its address is Juan Bautista Alberdi 3743, 1D," and its first outings are two tunes included in the first film starred by new cinema actress Vera Valdor, "No Te Amare," and "Vera Tiene It." The Gaucho catalog features also several tangos ("Como Yo Te Quiero," "Locura Pasional," "Mi Vieja Esquina") and folk music.

Ricardo Castelblanco of Edami infos about several new songs he is promoting these days. The main one is an Italian product "Sabato Sera," from the San Remo Festival, and already recorded by Palito Ortega (RCA, in Italian), Cecilia Rene (Odeon Pops), Jorge Darrie (Music Hall), Ricardo Roda (CBS) and Gina Cari (Fenix). Also worth mentioning is "Cocodrilo" (Whirlpool), just released by CBS is the Ornella Vanoni recording; there are others by Jorge Darrie (Music Hall) and Wanda Jackson (Capitol).

Classical music: visiting Buenos Aires on these days is well known soprano Regine Crespin, who is offering several concerts at the Colon Theatre. Odeon has released several records by this artist, covering this visit.

Maria del Carmen Hajdenwurcel of Julio Korn Publishers infos that "El Gavilan," a cumbia written by Marfil and recorded successfully by Los Wawanco, has been requested from Mexico for publishing in that country. "La Mamma," the Charles Aznavour hit, has been now recorded also by Eduardo Rodrigo (RCA), Danielo (Odeon) and Los Cava Bengal (RCA). "El Patito," still on in the charts, will be sub-published by Reimsa in Mexico. "Non O'L'eta," the San Remo winner, has also been recorded by Los Tres Sudamericanos (CBS).

Music Hall has inked several new artists for its cast. One of them is well known tango orchestra director Fulvio Salamanca; others are folk songstress Eugenia Rocha and teen singers Marito Gonzalez, Fabio, Jorge Darrie and little Maria Christina. Darrie has already made his first recordings, as we inform in another place in this column. Los Santos have been inked for a series of programs by TV Channel 11, and will also appear on Radio El Mundo. Their latest waxings are "Catalina" and "Cara Sucia."

Lila Muñoz of Tonodisc reports about the release of "Hello, Dolly!," the famous Louis Armstrong Beatle-fighting waxing. Also on desk is a new single by Los Cuatro Para El Mundo, featuring "La Gente" and "Graciela." Although Los Cuatro were started as a folk group, this is a teen-designed release. Stirling Brandy, an instrumental combo, has also a new waxing: "Charade" and "Dominique."

RCA has finished the recording of two LP's by some unusual artists: Japanese Tango orchestra Tokyo, currently on tour in South America. The group was started some time ago in Tokyo by Ranko Fujisawa, one of the first Japanese tango stars, who has been in Argentina once. Orchestra Tokio has been performing in Buenos Aires and now is visiting Uruguay, Brazil and Chile. Chico Navarro, composer of "El Tero Tero," "El Camaleon" and "El Orangutan," has added a new title to his recording: "La Mula." It is interesting to note that Navarro has hit the charts with several songs with names of animals, and seems to be continuing this trend.

By this time, only trios and rock and roll group can record in México City. ITALY

Richard Anthony, the EMI French artist, has fully confirmed his success on our record market by being at the top of our chart this week with his record, "Cin-Cin," Italian version of the American tune "Cheat-Cheat" (published by Southern). This is the first time that Richard has reached the top of our hit-parade. The record has sold during this period, considered as a standstill in the record business, more than 200,000 copies.

He is the only French artist who was able to reach the top of the Italian charts after many years.

With two records at the top of the charts, on the second and the third spots, our singing star Mina once again displays her strong value as a hit-maker. In the present market situation there are very few artists who are able to maintain a dominant position on the record scene years after their debut. Mina, along with Adriano Celentano, can be considered among these. Top recordings of the R.I.F.I. songstress are two Italian versions of US songs: "He Walks Like A Man" and "The Lonely Town." The first one is published in Italy by Connelly (Abbate), while the second one is published by Aberbach (Corradini).

Fraser Jamieson, president of London Record of Canada, spent one day in Milan. He was accompanied by Guy Bertrand, international executive, and by his secretary Alice Khoury. He paid a visit to Durium, where he talked with Elizabeth & Krikor Mintangian about the good success of the Durium repertoire in Canada. London Records has sold 60,000 copies of one of the instrumental LPs of the Durium catalog performed by the pop artist Fausto Pappetti. Mintangian told to Cash Box that London Records will soon release an EP record containing four numbers sung in French by the well known trio of Los Marcellos Ferial. This disk will be particularly devoted to the French speaking people of Quebec (Canada). London Records will do a strong promotion on this disk.

Other visits were paid by Jamieson to Joe Giannini, manager of CGD International, and he met also, during his short stay, Paolo Tosi of Decca Italiana.

Claude Henri Vic, general manager of Editions Musicales Fantasia of France (the associated pubbery of Disques Festival), spent two days in Milan to pay visits to the different Italian publishers. He was accompanied by his wife. He had numerous business talks: he met Ettore Carrera of Sugarmusic, Alfredo Rossi of Ariston, Elisabel and Krikor Mintangian of Durium, Guido Rignano of Ricordi, Nanni Ricordi of Edizioni Redi, Alessandro Celentano (manager and brother of Adriano) of Clan Celentano.

The conclusion of the special sales campaign called "Festival In Casa" (Festival At Home) will be held by RCA Italiana on May 28, 29 and 30 at the Hotel Hilton in Rome, where RCA will present prizes to the artists and the winners of this special promotional contest, to which all the Italian public was invited to take part, expressing their preference on the different RCA recordings chosen for winter sales. At a conclusion of the events, RCA will organize a big show performed by all the RCA artists who took part in the record contest. The show will be televised and heard on radio. The list of the performers includes Rita Pavone, Peggy March, Neil Sedaka, Alain Barriere, Silvie Vartan, Gino Paoli, Gianni Meccia, Sergio Endrigo, Jimmy Fontana, Rosy, Miranda Martino, Edoardo Vianello, Gianni Morandi, Umberto Bindi and Nico Fidenco. On this occasion, RCA will also present the new summer productions for which it will soon start a strong promotion.

For the first time, Phonogram has released on the Italian market a disk performed by the well-known film artist Jeanne Moreau: this is the first album interpreted by the actress, who makes her debut as a songstress on our record scene. The twelve songs presented on such LP, under the Polydor label, were penned by Cyrus Bassiak.

Still on the subject of Phonogram, we can mention the release on our market of an LP from Audio Fidelity, which serves as an introduction and a presentation to the Italian public of Audio Fidelity stereo recordings. The album contains 32 different compositions (sound effects, light music numbers performed by different big orchestras, and folk tunes) all derived from some Audio Fidelity disks. The retail price of this LP will be of Lit. 2.250 (about $3.50) and this release will mark the starting point of a larger promotion of the Audio Fidelity line in our market.

Fonit Cetra, too, takes part in the contest organized by our Radio and TV State Company, "A Record For The Summer." The list of the Fonit Cetra's artists presented to the contest includes the top songstress Milva and two new young talents who recently joined the Fonit Cetra group. Names of the two young people are Daniela Casa and Elio Cipri.

Milva will present at the contest a song penned by the same composers of the famous hit "Al Di La," Donida & Mogol. Title of the tune is "Quando Parto Per Il Mare" (When I Leave For The Beach). Publisher is Ricordi.

New female talent, Daniela Casa, 20 years old, will present "Beati Voi," while Elio Cipri performs a song entitled "Spara Gonzales" (Published by Sugarmusic).

In the classical field, there's a special release from Sprint Records of Rome. Sprint has put to sale a special LP called "Studi Per Ambientazioni Musicali" (Studies for Musical Environments). With this album, Sprint starts a series of recordings exclusively devoted to classical and symphonic releases. This album includes some compositions penned by Renzo Rosellini.

Rosellini, a composer and orchestra conductor, is well known for the music

Now a confirmed smash, and growing steadily daily is the good outing by The Dixie Cups, "Chapel Of Love." It seems to be a chart topper for sure if early Canadian reaction is any indication. It first began to kick up its heels on CKY, Winnipeg. At this writing, it holds down the number 23 spot on the CKY survey. It's under a full head of steam in Montreal where sales action to initial CKGM plays of the side out Beatled The Beatles. It is beginning to happen in a big way in good old Toronto too. Currently the side holds down the number 47 spot on the CHUM chart and is headed for the top like a run away rocket. The Quality folks have themselves a very big record on their Barry subsidiary.

Stan Dorling reportedly has exited the national promotion post at Quality. At this writing, no replacement has been named and Stan has not announced his plans for the future.

A new single by The Romeos on Columbia. Both sides have been lifted from their latest album outing on the label. Strongest side of the pairing seems to be an item entitled "Sorry Baby," a Dave Grief pick to click at Montreal's CKGM. Flip is a good sound, certainly worthy of consideration, "All I Want To Do Is Sing My Song." The Romeos are among the hardest working artists from the point of view of promotion that can be found anywhere in the trade. They have a very commercial outing with this new pairing—a sound that has not been captured on wax in Canada in a long long time—if ever. It deserves air exposure—not because it's Canadian, but because it's good. Jumping on the bandwagon to help plug the newie by The Romeos is Leeds Music's Al Allbutt. Al's particularly proud of "Sorry Baby," as it represents a completely Canadian item, written, produced and recorded by Canadians, in Canada.

Some early deejay reaction—all good, noted on the newest side by Bob Goulet on Columbia, "Choose." It's a great ballad with a message and unlike most message type outings, it's extremely commercial. "Three Window Coupe" by the Rip Chords is happening in fine style for Columbia all across Canada.

Matt Heft of Southern Music in Montreal is delighted with action in his area on a couple of items in the Southern catalog. "Walk Walk" by The Free-wheelers and "Love Me With All Your Heart" by the Ray Charles Singers have both developed into solid chart items at Montreal's CKGM and as a result of concentrated air exposure over the outlet are doing really well sales wise in Montreal. The Ray Charles Singers side is also responsible for considerable action on the album from "Something Special For Young Lovers."

Broadcasting vet Jack Stewart, reportedly headed for Calgary to take over assistant manager's post at that city's CKXL. He exits the program manager's office at Winnipeg's CKY, a post he has held for a number of years.

"Hickory Dick And Doc," the latest Bobby Vee outing on Liberty, is winning early favor with this country's spinners. Another item that has Hall Ross and company over at London pretty hipped up of late is the Ateo outing by Bobby Darin, "Milord." The Darin single is a real winner with lots of air play leading the way to good sales. Hal has shipped special sample EP's on the Jilliane Harris folk set, with the album itself due (5/25).

A tremendously commercial side is the result of the recent teaming of Mary Wells and Marvin Gaye for a great reading of "Once Upon A Time." It'll be a blockbuster for the Phonodisc folks from coast to coast.

Only just now getting started in Montreal, although it has reached top ten status in several other key markets, "You're Not A Goody Goody" by Bobby Curtola is winning solid support for the talented youngster in Canada's Largest City.

Fats Domino opened (5/11) at Montreal's Mocambo and demonstrated the winning style that has sold so many records over the years. His fans turned out in large numbers to welcome the fabulous fat man.

Terrific sales are reported by Phil Najovits and Gerry Gordon on the new Louis Armstrong, "Hello Dolly" album set. It has leaped to the top of the Montreal branch of Phonodisc's sales in practically no time at all. Solid air play from all broadcast formats is helping the Armstrong set to become a runaway best seller.

During their recent Montreal visit the Gemtones, currently clicking in several areas with their Melbourne outing of "Reno," recorded two new albums. A new single by the group was due week of (5/11).

It appears that "Sweet Lorraine," latest outing on Capitol by Frank Ifield, will keep the great young singer's string of hits in tact. Considerable early deejay action very much in evidence on the side.

Montreal's CJAD increased signal strength to 50,000 watts week of (5/4).

Latest addition to the air personality ranks at Ottawa's CKOY, Vik Armen, hailing from CJCA in Edmonton enjoyed a double debut week of (5/4). He appeared for the first time on the CKOY morning show the same week that his latest Apex single became available. The song, "Kiss Me Quick," is a cover on the Elvis chart rider.

Henry Mancini opens at the O'Keefe Centre in Toronto (5/18). He'll appear for a week with Johnny Mathis and company. Mike Doyle indicates that Rita Pavone will be in Toronto (5/24). She'll meet tradesters and a concert is also possible. Another RCA artist makes the Toronto scene (5/18). John Gary begins a week's engagement at the Royal York Hotel.

"Bad To Me" by Billy J. Kramer, a separate release in Canada, has been a CHUM—Toronto battle winner for eighteen consecutive occasions reports Capitol's Paul White. The side is stirring up considerable attention, meanwhile the Billy J. smash, "Little Children" holds down the second best seller spot on the list of Capitol singles for the week of (5/8).

Just another word on the progress of "Alleluia" by Les Alleluias of Aylmer, Quebec. The Loma release, distributed by Allied, is developing into a sales giant in French speaking centres. Whitey Haines at BMI figures it for a country-wide breakout if it gets a fair shake on the exposure side of the ledger. "Buster" Munro of Ottawa's CKOY can take credit for a first class A&R and production job on the side.

"Yesterday's Hero" appears to be developing into an action side for Gene Pitney. Teens are beginning to list it on their favorite record reports to Montreal's CKGM.

Veteran music man Ed Houston, long a fixture at Toronto's CKEY is back in the broadcasting business as Operations Manager of CHVC, Niagara Falls. Cash Box extends a warm welcome on behalf of the entire biz. Paul White takes time out from plugging his car load of Capitol hits to report the following changes in deejay location: Wes Sutton from CHOW, Welland to CKWS, Kingston, and Vern Rombough exits CKWS to assume new duties at CHEX, Peterborough.

he composed and conducted for some of the best Italian motion pictures. The album includes "Diagramma # 1, 2, 3, and 4," "Stati D'Animo," "Promenade," "Novelletta," "Spensierato E Brillante." All are modern short compositions performed by the Rome Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Rossellini himself. The album, as well as all in the Sprint line, is distributed by Durium.

And The NYC Operator Pays

The City Speaks

Last week it was Buffalo, with a per-machine tax on vending machines. This week it's New York City where operators of equipment in City-owned buildings will be asked to pick up the cost of electricity for the operation of vending machines serving New York City employees. You have to work real hard these days just to make sure you don't lose money.

That's about what will happen in some instances where operators have low-volume installations which show only a fair profit. The electrical charges will be figured, according to the Commissioner's office, on the "rating" of each machine. This is confusing and quite alarming, because in the case of a cigarette vendor the cost would probably amount to approximately $2.00 per month, whereas a cold drink vendor, with compressor activated and additional amperage incurred when a patron drops a coin, could run as high as twenty-five amps when in full use. At $1.08 per amp, the City's official cost figure, most of the machines would have to be removed.

Although the City claims that the program is a result of an economy drive, no thought is being given to the operator who pays a commission, incidentally, to the various City departments, depending on the location. The operator has already invested in equipment to serve the City employees and has placed additional equipment which may or not be profitable, only to hold the location. To skim from $2 to a possible $25 per month from the operator's net income is to turn many marginal locations into losers, and the City could be the ultimate loser on this one.

The New York State Automatic Vending Association will meet again with the Commissioner's office, armed with profit-loss statements, electrical ratings, costs of meters and other arguments which should aid the operator's cause. They have met before but with little success.

In the words of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity "we have a deadline to meet." They have no understanding of electrical power ratings for vending machines, nor do they seem to realize the losses which will be incurred should this ruling go through as is. But they do have a set charge, they think they have a per-machine rating, and of course, they do have a deadline.

Standing: Ron Rood, Orlando, member of board; Wesley Lawson, Winter Haven, member of board; Jack Andrews, Gainesville, member of the board; Bill Owens, Vero Beach, member of the board; A. W. Form Statewide Florida Association

■ Lionel J. Loque Elected President

DAYTONA BEACH — The Florida Amusement and Music Association was formed at Daytona Beach, Florida, at the Daytona Plaza Hotel during the first week of May by the coin machine operators in the state, it was announced from the Tallahassee office of the organization last week.

More than 100 operators representing about 25,000 locations attended the organizational meeting which lasted for two days and resulted in the adoption of a constitution setting forth that the objectives of the association, among other things, would be "to encourage, sponsor and build better public relations; and to secure the cooperation and assistance of the press in presenting the industry to the general public in its proper light."

Lionel J. Loque of Louque Amusements Company, Perry, Florida, was elected president of the state organization and regional vice-presidents were elected from various sections of the state. The vice-presidents are George L. Peeples of Sarasota; Charles Livingston of Pensacola; Gleason Stambaugh, Sr. of West Palm Beach, James Mullins, of Miami; and D. J. Barton of Jacksonville. Charles Beyer of Beyer and Brown, Daytona Beach, was elected secretary and treasurer.

A board of directors of nineteen members was chosen at the convention and Fred E. Deeb of Tallahassee was elected chairman of the board of directors and Fletcher A. Blalock of Pensacola was elected vice-chairman.

Other directors are the officers and Joe P. Smith of Crestview; Jack Andrews of Gainesville; A. W. Fallin of Miami; Bill Owens of Vero Beach;

James Tolisano of Clearwater; Wesley Lawson of Winter Haven; James Kemp of Tampa; Maynard Ross of Miami, and Ron Rood of Orlando.

Deeb, in addressing the group at an installation banquet stressed, the need for the establishment of a center for the exchange of information between people engaged in the coin operated business and the need for a state office to coordinate the activities of the association members in seeking to guard against the passage of harmful or unjust state legislations.

An annual meeting at the Daytona Plaza Hotel is planned with frequent directors meetings to coordinate the activities of the organization.

The law firm of Leonard Pepper, Tallahassee, was retained as general counsel to the association.

'Cinebox' Will Attempt A Comeback

NEW YORK—Cinebox officials, advised Cash Box last week, that the company has been activated and will be manufacturing the audio-visual machine, now made in Italy "shortly." Cinebox, a product of the Cinevision Corporation of America, a subsidiary of Estey Electronics Corporation, is headed by Stanley Green. The Estey firm filed bankruptcy proceedings last year but the proceedings did not affect Cinebox business, according to Hank Schwartz, a VP of the company. Details on Cinevision's plans will be announced later.

Scopitone, French-made audio-visual unit, is being distributed in the USA by Scopitone-USA, a firm which sold 80% of its stock to Tel-A-Sign Corp. two weeks ago (CB May 16). Scopitone will produce its own films here while Tel-A-Sign will begin making the machine in a Chicago plant in January. In the meantime, the CAMECA firm, manufacturers of the machine, will continue to provide the American firm with equipment.

MONEY Calls General Meet

NEW YORK—Ben Chicofsky, business manager of the Music Operators of New York, advised that association president Al Denver will soon be calling a general quarterly meeting of members of all five boroughs, the time and place to be announced shortly. The last meeting of MONEY was held during April, in the Holiday Inn.

Chicofsky also said that literature outlining the numerous activities and events of the MONEY Annual Outing, to be held Sept. 25-27, at the Nevele Hotel, Ellenville, N.Y., is available upon request. He also advised that 200 deluxe rooms have been set aside for those wishing to attend the outing, and requested all those planning on attending to make their reservations early.

Celler Hearings Postponed

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The suddenly scheduled Celler Bill hearings before the House Rules Committee, which was to take place last week, Tuesday, May 12, was canceled at the last moment when Congressman Emanuel Celler and Congressman Edwin Willis, Chairman, had to attend meetings elsewhere it was advised here last week.

The Celler Bill, which is designed to remove the present copyright exemption from juke box operators, passed a House Sub-Committee vote nine months ago and has been awaiting action by the Rules Committee since. The hearing scheduled for last week was called for by Rules at an eleventh hour, but had to be canceled. The postponement was termed "for an indefinite period."

CMA Meet June 26-28

NEW YORK—The Cigarette Merchandisers Association will hold their 28th Annual Outing at the Laurels Country Club, Monticello, N.Y., the week-end of June 26-28. Literature describing the many activities which will take place during the outing plus accommodation reservation blanks were issued to association members and their guests last week by Jackson Bloom, association president.

The primary purpose of this outing, Bloom said, "is for the meeting of business associates at informal get-togethers for the exchange of ideas, experiences and suggestions." Bloom further stated that the outing should enjoy "a good cross section representation of the industry by the presence of cigarette manufacturers, vending machine manufacturers, insurance firms, etc."

CHICAGO—MOA officers lunched with amusement game manufacturers on Thursday, May 7, (complete story in Cash Box, May 16 issue) to mull over plans and exhibit space determination during the forthcoming MOA Convention, October 14-16, in the Sherman

Among those on hand were: (Left to right) Herb Jones, Bally Mfg. Co.; MOA Prexy Lou Casola, Hank Ross, Midway Mfg. Co.; Nick Biro of Billboard; MOA vice pres. Clint Pierce, Dick Boylan, Logan Dists.; (standing) Ed Ratajack, L. T. Patterson Dist. Co.; MOA Managing Director Fred Granger, Johnny Casola and Herb Oettinger, of United Mfg. Fred Granger, MOA Business Manager, advised the trade that Duncan Sales Company, distributors of Th. Bergmann's 'Arizona' gun game and other imported machines, agreed to exhibit late last week. This brought the total commitment for exhibit booths at MOA to sixty.

The Convention (Sherman House Oct. 14-16) will feature a souvenir program containing a list of MOA members. Advanced registration procedures with tickets ready for arrivals will also be a new innovation. Registration lists will be provided to each exhibitor.

The Cost Of Electricity In City Buildings

New York City Says Operators Should Pay

NEW YORK—Operators of vending machines in New York City-owned buildings will have to pay for the electricity they use beginning July 1st, according to Armand D'Angelo, Commissioner of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity. Representatives of the New York State Automatic Vending Association, led by Morris Weintraub, have met repeatedly with D'Angelo in order to arrange for an orderly transition and an equitable electric charge, but at press time, D'Angelo told Cash Box that the machines would be charged at $1.08 per ampere. The charge would be based on the "rating" of each machine.

Vending service engineers have advised that while cigarette machines may be rated at 2 amps, thereby bringing the monthly cost of electricity to $2.16, the amperage of a drink machine may run as high as 25 amps when a compressor is on and the machine is activated by a patron dropping a coin. The charge here, according to D'Angelo's figures, would therefore be $27.00, an exorbitant monthly fee which would result in many of the machines being pulled from the locations.

There was no clear-cut explanation from the Department as to what standards would be used to figure electrical charges on various machines. Ratings which appear on the metal plates affixed to each machine breakdown the amperage by compressor, heating element, amps used when idle, and so forth. To total all of the amps would be to rate the machine at its peak for the 24-hour period, seven days each week when actually the machine would reach this peak only at various intervals.

Weintraub was expected to meet with City officials again, armed with pertinent information and materials concerning the machines and their respective amperage ratings.

D'Angelo, in speaking with the press, told the New York Times that the cost to operators would be "between $6 and $8 per month," but this of course, would apply to machines using 6-7 amps. How this figure was determined was not explained.

Under the new plan, D'Angelo said that the City would collect approximately $70,000 annually from the operators and refund $60,000 to the utility with $10,000 remaining in the City treasury. Originally, the City set a May 1st deadline for payment of electrical charges. However, it was determined that a new deadline of July 1st was set last week.

Originally, it was advised that operators were to install individual kilowatt meters for each machine. The cost of installation would have been prohibitive, however, and this new system of charging operators was set up. According to Consolidated Edison, the major utility here, meters would be supplied at no cost to the operator. The charge for installing the necessary wiring would be up to the private electrical firm retained. In addition, permission would have to be granted by each City building superintendent.

Operators with vending equipment in City buildings pay a commission to the Department using the building. In the case of the Police Department, for instance, the commission payment would be made to the Police Benefit Fund. In addition, the machines in many buildings were installed at the request of the City to assist in 'coffee break' periods and luncheon service. In the opinion of more than one observer, many machines now on location in City buildings will have to be removed and electrical cigarette vendors will be replaced with mechanical models. Approximately 850 machines are on City locations.

Gen. Vending Corp. Appointed Rock-Ola Vending Distrib

CHICAGO—David P. Howle, Vice-President and Director of Sales for Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation, Chicago, has announced the appointment of General Vending Corporation of Baltimore, Maryland, as the Rock-Ola distributor for its vending machine line. The appointment is effective immediately and the franchise covers the territory now covered for Rock-Ola phonographs.

Frank Q. Doyle, Rock-Ola's Vice-President of Vending Sales, pointed out that the appointment of General, a long time Rock-Ola phonograph distributor, to handle the Rock-Ola vending line is just one of the many steps Rock-Ola has taken to further improve the distribution of its fast growing vending line and to offer the local operator on-the-spot sales and service assistance.

Messrs. Irvin F. Blumenfeld, George Goldman, and Harry Hoffman, owners of General Vending, all agreed that their entrance into the vending distribution business is a natural extension of their present business and are anxiously looking forward to meeting and demonstrating the Rock-Ola line to all the operators in their territory as soon as possible.

Buffalo Operators To Select Legal Counsel

BUFFALO—Buffalo operators will meet on Tuesday or Wednesday, May 19 or 20, to decide on legal counsel to represent the newly formed Western New York Vending Machine Association, according to President Henry Waters.

The City of Buffalo passed an amendment to the City Ordinance two weeks ago calling for a per-machine-tax (CB May 16) on vending machines. The Association has decided to fight the constitutionality of the amendment since it rules against licensees under 21 years of age, does not apply to all machines equally, and permits only U.S. citizens to receive a license to operate upon application. The Association will adapt the by-laws of the NYS Automatic Vending Association and will be counseled also by Richard Funk, NAMA counselor.

Benroy Elected President Of Md. Ops Council

CHICAGO—Herbert L. Bent, Benroy Vending Co., Inc., Baltimore, has been elected president of the Maryland Automatic Merchandising Council, according to Gilbert H. Tansey, NAMA state council secretary.

He succeeds Gordon Eldridge, Canteen Division of Automatic Canteen Company of America, Baltimore.

Announcement of the election was made at the vending group's annual meeting in Baltimore, May 2.

Other officers elected are Vice President Stanley S. Lesnick, Midfield Vending Co., Baltimore, and Secretary John Kalbfeld, A. L. Mathias Co., Division of Servomation Corp., Baltimore. J. Gilbert Stine, Serv-U-Vending Corporation, Hagerstown, was re-elected treasurer.

Members of the Maryland council's board of governors, in addition to the newly elected officers, are Meyer Gelfand, Macke Vending Co., Washington, D.C.; Gordon Eldridge; Robert Piker, Coffee Time, Inc., Brentwood; Robert F. Frank, ARA Service of Baltimore, and Richard Collier, Automatic Sales, Inc., Aberdeen.

Maryland Automatic Merchandising Council is a state council of NAMA.

Conex Produces Styrene Hot Drink Cup

DES PLAINES, ILL.—A new disposable thin-walled hot drink cup, formed of high-impact, heat-resistant Bakelite styrene, was introduced recently by the Conex Division of the Illinois Tool Works. The cup is russet-colored, handle-less, with raised ribs encircling the middle section of the container to insulate the drinker's hand from the cup's hot contents and to give a sure grasp.

The russet-colored hot drink cup is pressure-formed from styrene sheets, the ribs being formed by a complex manufacturing method which involves 1600 moving parts, officials at Conex stated. These 7-ounce capacity cups are available in resale packages of 24 and 48, and in conventional commercial packs for use in vending machines, according to Conex officials.

The high-impact, high heat-resistant Bakelite styrene from which the cups are pressure-formed draws into extremely thin, strong walls. The styrene is formulated to resist temperature well above normal hot drink temperatures, Conex stated.

New Products

NEW COIN BOX SEAL

A NEW SEAL FOR COIN MACHINE CASH BOXES has been developed by Inter-County Industries, Inc. The seal can be inserted without tools and is designed to prevent loss in the event a key to a coin box falls into unauthorized hands.

Made of a patented alloy, the seals are designed to bend into position by hand but break if an attempt is made to straighten them out. A slotted bracket is mounted behind the front flange of the lock, into which the seal is slipped and bent so as to prevent removal. This prevents a key from being inserted into the lock and the undetected opening of cash boxes.

Brackets to accommodate these new seals are being installed without additional cost on Security Coin Boxes now being manufactured. The use of the actual patented seal strip is optional. Models that lock the cash box into the vending machine may also be protected by this sealing arrangement. The seal strips may be stamped with special code numbers, if desired.

Ads On Cig Machines To Be Increased

NEW YORK—A test experiment involving the point-of-purchase display of Carstairs Whiskey advertisements on cigarette vending machines located in bars and clubs was initiated six months ago by Victor Fischel, Inc., distributors for Carstairs and for Wolfschmidt Vodka, and has proven sufficiently successful, according to officials at Fischel, to warrant trial of a similar program in Rochester, N. Y. and eventually in other areas of the country.

Nearly 1000 cigarette venders on locations in the New York metropolitan area were selected for the experiment, according to the advertising agency which promoted the new medium, and have evoked an even better reaction from consumers than had originally been hoped for. The agency advised Cash Box that the idea of promoting products on vending machines, at the point of purchase, is still technically in the test stage, but that results thus far have definitely warranted continued experiment.

Leroy Glucksberg, vice president and general sales manager at Fischel, said the idea of advertising on venders at point of sale "is a relatively new medium which we entered into tentatively at first and found to have a considerably greater effect upon the consumer than we had originally thought." Glucksberg said that further expansion is also planned for the New York area.

The advertisements themselves are adhesive paste-ups displaying the image of the Carstairs product. This is attached to a conspicuous spot on the vending machine. Al Miniaci, general manager of the Paramount Vending Company, said that approximately 300 of his cigarette machines in Manhattan have been carrying the signs, and that he would accept any proposal to add to this number.

Tom Gallagher, account executive at the A. Asch Company, the firm which manufactures the cards, said that the originally planned 1000 signs for the New York metropolitan area has almost been reached and that a new 5000 machine figure has been proposed, which should include Wolfschmidt Vodka decals as well as the Carstairs ad.

NYSAVA Outing Has Serious Moments

SWAN LAKE, N.Y.—New York State vending operators were treated to an excellent business-pleasure meet at Stevensville Resort last weekend. The pleasures included golf, fine food and top-flight entertainment. The business segment offered NAMA counsel Dick Funk and his penetrating film "Achilles and His Heel," a film which deals with legislation and the businessman, a timely topic. NYSAVA Manager Morris "Tiny" Weintraub discussed the present Buffalo situation (see story CB May 16) and advised ops that 1965 "will be a crucial year for vendors." 300 attended the meet in spite of the tempting social activities outside the meeting room. Harold Folz, NYSAVA President, was awarded a plaque on behalf of the association, by Marty Winter, Committee Chairman. Photos of softball and golf tourney winners will appear next week.

KEYSPEAKERS Dick Funk (l.) and Morris Weintraub discussed legislation and taxes before packed meeting room.

Monroe To Add 7000 Sq. Feet For Vending

CLEVELAND—Norman Goldstein, Monroe Coin Machine Exchange Inc., Rowe AC music and vending distributors here, will expand present facilities by 7000 square feet with an addition to house full-line vending equipment and supplies, it was announced last week. Monroe was awarded the Rowe AC vending line last February 1st, after having distributed the music machine line for several years.

Goldstein expects the firm to expand all vending aspects of the business. Before Feb. 1 the firm distributed the cigarette machine only. He commented on the new Rowe AC coffee vendor Model SK-9 single-cup coffee vendor, 120-consecutive cup, 750-cup capacity machine, saying that the vendor has already helped establish the Rowe AC line as a prime vending line for full-line ops.

Van Myers Heads So. Florida Assoc.

MIAMI—Van Meyers, Senior VP of Wometco Enterprises here, was elected President of a newly formed association called the South Florida Vending Association. Also elected were: Mel Chasen, Ace Saxon Co., VP; John Saxon, Smoke King, Treasurer; and Wm. Blatt, Smokes Inc., Exec. Sec.

Named to the Board were: Sol Tabb, Mar-Tab; Bud Kaufman, C&L Vending; Mort Steuber, Pan-American Vending; Jerry Weiner, So. Vending; Jimmy Fielding, Miami Tobacco; Eddie Katzin, Richard Vending.

Association officials said that the organization will adapt a chattel mortgage contract for operator-members, maintain a reliable list of servicemen and study current legislative programs in the State. The association will also initiate a credit bureau to check out locations and attempt to eliminate bad risks for operators.

FTC Tells ABC To Sell Sweets and Confection Cab.

NEW YORK—An order by a Federal Trade Commission hearing examiner announced last week would require ABC Vending Corporation to sell two competitors it acquired in 1957. The order would also forbid ABC to acquire any other movie concessionaire for a ten-year period with prior FTC approval. Berlo Vending, a Philadelphia sub-sid of ABC, is joined in this order, according to Examiner Edgar A. Buttle.

porations and two partnerships acquired by ABC in October of 1957 for $1,700,000. The second acquisition, Charles Sweets Co. and Charles Sweets Concession Co., Philadelphia, purchased Dec. 1957 for $180,000.

Just prior to the acquisitions ABC had concessions in 2484 of the 14,490 motion picture theaters (17%) in the 39-state ABC operation. Confection Cabinet was the second largest movie concession in the country (453 concessions in 25 states) and was, with one exception, the only one that competed with ABC on other than a local basis.

In the New York Film Exchange area, ABC ranked number one with 255 concessions and Confection Cabinet was second with 125. The Charles Sweets operation was the only movie concessionaire competitor of ABC in the Philly metro area, according to FTC.

Chicago Dynamic Releases 'Bronco' To Pin Markets

■ Corral 'Kick-Out' Featured

ChiCOIN'S BRONCO 2-PLYR

CHICAGO—Sam Wolberg, co-head of Chicago Dynamic Industries, Incorporated, in this city, announced the introduction to the coin machine trade last week of Chicago Coin's "Bronco" two-player pinball amusement game.

One of the most exciting features Wolberg showed the Cash Box reporter, during a visit to the factory last Wednesday, May 13, is a "Corral" kick-out feature at the center of the playfield, where the ball is constantly bumped against a high scoring, rapid action bumper (in the center). The only points of egress are at the top and bottom of the 'corral'.

This is referred to by Mort Secore, director of sales, and by Ralph Wycokoff as "wild bucking 'Bronco' kicking action." The balls enter the corral from all four sides.

Wolberg advised in addition that there is a novel 'Special Roll-Over,' which is adjustable for the first, third, or fifth ball in motion. There are two scoring targets, and two action kicker holes.

The score-frame has stainless steel trim at the front, and protective metal corners at the back to prevent damage to the area. In other cabinet features front hand rests are made of Cyclocac Plastic (this is the same material from which telephones are made. It will not tarnish, has an amazing longevity, and remains clean at all times).

As an exclusive ChiCoin feature there is a "Lift-Out" self-locking unit on the playfield. It reportedly offers instant access to the interior mechanism. It has no screws or levers.

Another interesting innovation was incorporated into "Bronco," according to Mort Secore, whereby the "tilt" is easily adjustable by the operator or location owner for one ball tilt or complete game tilt, whichever is most desirable for the particular location.

"Bronco" is adjustable also for three or five ball play. It has the Chicago Coin "Match Feature," and a brilliant "long-life" playfield finish. This game is also available in a two-player add-a-ball model for certain areas.

In added ball play balls are added in this manner: One ball each for 500, 1000, 1500, 2000, and 2500 points. Furthermore, an additional ball is available when the player hits the "Special Roll-Over" button when it is lit.

Secore stated that the Chicago Coin factory is operating at peak effort in production to meet the extremely heavy shipping schedules because of "Bronco" pinball game's popularity in all markets.

Eastern Flashes

Nash Gordon and Tiny Weintraub devoting mucho time to vending problems in the state and when we say problems we mean problems from Buffalo (per-machine-tax) to the City of New York (where ops'll get hit with electric bills for machines installed in City buildings).

Millie McCarthy working diligently on her project for the UJA dinner—more dignitaries and politicians than ever before. One big obstacle—the Nassau County Democratic Dinner skedded for the same June 6th eve. Most politicians will have to choose the political affair. . . . One politician (who isn't democratic) will be at the Statler-Hilton Siskind affair—Richard Nixon, former VP of the USA. Nixon will attend the cocktail reception. Sec. of State John P. Lomenzo is Guest Speaker. . . . The word from Coca-Cola is that those tropical drink machines (Minute Maid—a Coke subsid) are giving the servicemen headaches out at the Florida Pavilion of the Fair. . . . Dave Rosen expects the recent Scopitone excitement to spark collections (and maybe more films) for his Cinebox route in Philly. . . . Looks like Carstairs will expand its point-of-purchase promotion via cig machines. They're going into Rochester shortly.

Murray Kaye of Atlantic New York spent the week-end of May 8th-10th in Stevensville, N.Y. with other members and guests of the New York Automatic Venders' Association's annual outing. He said the outing was one of the best yet and that these informal gatherings of industry members provide an indispensable function for the coin machine business. Among those attending were a large percentage of manufacturers, distributors and suppliers. Naturally the ace of the links managed to put in a few hours on the resort's golf course. In a frank self-criticism of his golfing prowess, Murray says that he'll be breaking his clubs soon unless he breaks ninety.

Musical Distributors' Sid Greenfield was echoing the words of most along the Tenth Ave. beat last week when he said that business was never better. On a less happy note, Sid reported that his wife was scheduled to enter Columbia Presbyterian Hospital last Wed. for an operation. Naturally, all our best wishes are sent along for complete success and a speedy recovery for Mrs. Greenfield.

Eric Bernay of A-1 Record Sales reports that two of his operator-customers' favorite disks these days are Tracy Dey's 'Gonna Get Along Without You Now' and the Dixie Cups' 'Chapel Of Love.' While reminiscing on his days as a record manufacturer, Eric said that one reason for the success of his current enterprise has been the application of basic business principles learned from every side of the record industry.

'Berger Buddie R.', believe it or not, is the name of a dog belonging, as some of you already know, to Harry Berger of Westside Distribs. The 22-month old dog, a brindle colored Boston Terrier, is of the flat-nosed variety, Harry advised, and has the makings of a future champion. Harry's already been offered $1,500 for the pooch but turned the offer down. 'Buddie', as the dog is called by the family, owes his good health partly to regular visits to the vet, which Harry insists upon, saying, "If I turned down $1,500 for him, he must be worth more than that to me." Between the time consuming activities of putting a new business into shape, and a bout with the virus, Harry hasn't had much chance to prepare for an official open house party for his new show-rooms, but he's sure that one will be forthcoming in the very near future.

Irving Holzman reports that United's new 'Pacer' shuffle alley is proving to be a consistent block-buster in the sales department. Irv's showroom is jammed with the new game but he advises confidently that they won't be there for very long—especially since back orders have already claimed many of them. Irv seems to be dabbling a little in the banking business now—at least as far as attending the opening ceremonies of the new Franklin National Bank on Madison Ave., at the personal invitation of the Bank's president. Irv, in his capacity as chairman of the UJA-Coin Division's executive committee, hinted that he may have a little extra surprise in the line of entertainment for the June 6th dinner, but he's not talkin' yet.

Al D'Inzillo, down at Al Simon Distribs, is still contending that the 'Grand Prix' is one of the best received phonographs they have ever distributed. He also advised that the much anticipated 'Phonette' is due within weeks. Verle Van Nattan, national sales manager for the Auto-Phono Company, was in to visit Al Simon last week, and the two took time out to pay a call on the World's Fair. Verle filled Al in on operations out in the Auto-Phono factory in California, from which the sales manager just returned.

Louie Wolberg at Runyon Sales was smiling broadly last week over two modest triumphs—the Rowe AMI service school which was held in their Tenth Ave. headquarters on Monday evening and the signing of 'Sonny Allen and the Rockets', a variety act, for the Harry Siskind UJA testimonial. Lou said he originally caught Sonny Allen's act when they played a date at a Catskill resort last summer and when he spied them one night in the Wagon Wheel on 45th St., he just had to sign them up.

Convinced that six-pocket pool is America's fastest growing family sport, Ed Martell, president of the Tri-State Amusement Co., Manchester, N.H., is busy these days equipping billiard parlors with tables and accessories. Besides this, Ed finds time to actively engage in the arrangement of shuffleboard tournaments in the New England and Eastern New York area, and run his normal business. Ed is one of the many coin men who appreciate the value of promotion in running a consistently successful enterprise.

Abe Lipsky advised all to be on the lookout for a new All-Tech table within the next few weeks. . . . Irv Holzman's granddaughter Jill-Jill (that's Dolores and Ronnie Billings' 3½ year old daughter) was screen tested for TV and the movies last Wed. . . . Irv and close friend Hon. Speaker of the House Joseph Carlino attended a "Fall Guy" luncheon last week in honor of Nassau County District Attorney Bill Cahn, and reported that the DA took a good-natured razzing for his recent vice-crackdown out in Long Island. Another luncheon partner for Irv earlier in the week was License Commissioner DiCarlo.

Chicago Chatter

Coinbiz Activity was considerably sparked this week by the introduction of three new pinball models by Chicago based manufacturers for distribution to the world markets. Bill O'Donnell and Herb Jones heralded the intro of Bally's new "Mad World" amusement game. Also, Chicago Dynamic Industries is singing the praises this week of the "Bronco" two-player. Another new release on the fire is Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp.'s "Palooka" flipper game. Initial reports from the offices of Williams' prexy Sam Stern and sales manager Jack Mittel indicate that "Palooka" is a 'knockout.' . . . Speaking of Chicago Coin: Suren Fesjian, president of Mondial, dropped into the ChiCoin factory last Wednesday during a visit to Chi. He huddled with Sam Wolberg, Jerry Koci, Mort Secore and Ralph Wyckoff.

We're tickled to see Joe Kline, prexy of First Coin Machine Exchange, looking chipper after his painful bout with his dentist. Meanwhile, Sam Kolber tells us sales are still booming out at First Coin on Wurlitzer phonos and export biz.

The joyous anticipation by Joe and Marian Robbins over their eldest son's (Mark Jay Robbins) Bar Mitzvah reception, scheduled for the Covenant Club, Sunday evening, May 17, was tragically and abruptly postponed when Joe's father, Louis Robbins, age 65, died in a West Haven, Connecticut hospital late Friday evening (5/8). Joe and Marian jetted to West Haven for the funeral services which were held on Sunday. Meanwhile the religious services marking Mark Jay's Bar Mitzvah were on schedule Saturday morning in Beth El Temple in Lincolnwood.

ICMOA Prexy Les Montooth info's there will shortly be a meeting of the Illinois operator group (no date set as yet). A visitor in Les' Peoria offices May 14 was M. H. Town, sales manager for Ditchburn Equipment, Ltd., of London, England. Town also planned to call on Fred Granger, managing director of MOA during his midwestern jaunt.

When we chatted with Nate Gottlieb, D. Gottlieb & Co., last week we weren't surprised to learn that Gottlieb's "World Fair" is a hit in all markets. Nate's report is considerably backed up by Dave Gottlieb, Alvin Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg.

Bill DeSelm, sales vice prexy of United Mfg. Co. expressed his joy over the recent appointment of Diamond Coin, in Norfolk, Virginia to handle distribution of United's shuffle alleys, big ball bowlers, and "Bankpool" amusement games in Virginia and North Carolina. Diamond toppers are Harold Christensen, Jim Donnelly and Bernard Christensen.

One of the busiest beats in Chi these days is World Wide Distribs, where there's terrific action on Seeburg phonos and vending machines and ChiCoin amusement games. While there we spotted Nate Feinstein, Irv Ovitz, Harold Schwartz and Fred Skor hard at work on the phonos.

We spent a delightful (but too brief) period last week visiting with Fred Pollak, Paul Huebsch, Don Lunday, Jim Newlander and Bob MacGregor at Rowe AC Mfg. Merchandise Mart headquarters. There's considerable activity of late on Rowe AC's "Customusic" background music unit and music library, and—of course—the "Tropicana" model M-200 phono.

Eddie Ginsburg (healthy and well tanned after his recent Florida vacation) and Stan Levin, manager of Atlas Music's music dept., hosted a service school session on Rowe AMI's M-200 phono, last Wednesday evening, May 6, in the firm's showrooms. Cliff Bitting and Hank Hoevenaar came in from Grand Rapids, Michigan to conduct the classes. Other Atlas staffers on hand were Sam Gersh, Frank Bach, Johnny Havrilla, Ray Grier and Mort Jacobs. . . . How could we have missed seeing Atlas Music's Morris Minkus at the recent CJA Dinner. (Sorry, Morry, but you're so little!)

Dave Howle and Frank Doyle, of Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp., were on hand t'other day in Baltimore to sign up General Vending Corp. for distribution of the Rock-Ola vending equipment line, in addition to Rock-Ola's phono line. General's heads are: coinjets Irv Blumenfeld, George Goldman and Harry Hoffman.

When Gil Kitt, owner and prexy of Empire Coin Machine Exchange, reaches Florence, Italy on his European jaunt he'll stay at the Villa Medici instead of his previously scheduled plans in the Hotel Excelsior.

You'd think that after all the hectic activities at the Seeburg Corp. of late that the normal day-to-day simple life would be the order of the day. Fact is that everyone's still busy as blazes, and all the execs from Delbert Coleman, Jack Gordon, Bill Adair, Tom Herrick, on down look forward eagerly to Seeburg's biggest profit year. Stan Jarocki is all smiles over these happy facts.

MOA now has 60 booths committed for the '64 show, and managing director Fred Granger intimates that all available exhibit space will be needed (and that's an understatement!). On the dotted line is Joseph Nemesh, of Duncan Sales in Cleveland. A delightful innovation Fred tells us about is an advance registration procedure. Badges of those registering well in advance (by mail) will be ready and waiting. So all operators are urged to use this procedure.

Bill Racoosin popped into town to visit with Ross Scheer at Western Trails Amusement Co. t'other day. Billie Eichenbaum, Ross' gal Friday, returned from her lengthy vacation. . . . Hank Ross made the scene at the recent MOA luncheon, and expressed his, "Iggy" Wolverton's and Bob Jones's happy anticipation of the upcoming MOA Convention.

Williams Ships 2-Player 'Palooka' Flipper Game

Williams PALOOKA 1-Plr

CHICAGO—"POW-erful" is the way Sam Stern, president of Williams Electronic Manufacturing Corporation, retorted when we inquired about the new Williams "Palooka" add-a-ball flipper-type amusement game this past week. This new production number is being released to the coin machine trade in most of the international—as well as the domestic territories this week, and is in full production in the Williams Electronic factory in this city.

The beautifully designed cabinet is tastefully embellished with stainless steel trim, and has a contoured light-box. Such Williams innovations as the "Latch-Lock playboard, a newer and larger (extra-safe) cash box, the super strong "Plastikote" finish on the playfield, and other attractive cabinet features have been utilized in "Palooka." Furthermore, Stern advised, there are the new "Drum-Type" scoring units in the backbox, and another mechanical innovation in the new motor design for greater improvement in scoring.

Jack Mittel, sales manager at Williams Electronic Mfg., explained that there are more ways to get extra balls for higher scores in "Palooka." He said players will find that this is one of the most exciting amusement flipper games ever designed for locations everywhere.

"Palooka" (as the name implies) has a prizefighting theme. Two shooters at the bottom of the playfield shoot the ball back into the playfield for extra play and much higher scoring possibilities.

There are five drop targets, three jet bumpers, and two flippers on the playfield.

Mittel stated in conclusion that Williams distributors advise that operators are showing keen interest in "Palooka" already, and that production is geared to meet the anticipated heavy demand.

Seeburg Names Ex-Pepsi Exec Operations Head

MARC A. LEFEBVRE

CHICAGO — J. Cameron Gordon, President of The Seeburg Corporation, has announced the appointment of Marc A. Lefebvre as Vice President in charge of Field Operations.

In this position Lefebvre will work closely with the Seeburg distributing organization on all Seeburg vending and music products in the areas of sales and merchandising.

He was formerly Vice President in charge of Field Operations for the Pepsi Cola Company, and prior to that time, manager of the Pepsi Cola Eastern Division in Washington, D. C.

At one time he was manager of the Woonsocket, Rhode Island, Coca Cola Bottling Company, having started his career as a driver-salesman. He had been with Pepsi Cola since 1953, starting as Marketing Manager in the Columbus, Ohio region. He moved progressively to Regional Manager in the Chicago region, Vice President and Division Manager of the company's Central Division, and finally Division Manager of the Eastern Division where he was in charge of parent company liaison with more than 145 franchised bottlers in a sixteen state area.

"Mr. Lefebvre's broad experience in all phases of the soft drink market, including bottle and cup vending, will be a particular asset to The Seeburg Corporation," said Gordon in commenting upon the appointment. "However, his sphere of activity with the company will be much broader and all-inclusive. We are looking forward to this association with great anticipation."

Lefebvre currently resides in Manhasset, Long Island, New York. He is married to the former Doris Allaire and is the father of three children.

Wurlitzer Closes A Bright Fiscal Year

R. C. ROLING

CHICAGO—R. C. Roling, President, The Wurlitzer Company, reported last week that net earnings for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1964 (including foreign subsidiaries) were $2,024,608, equal to $2.26 per share on 897,626 shares outstanding on March 31, 1964. For the preceding year, net earnings were $1,598,957, or $1.79 per share on 894,519 shares. Earnings for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1963 have been restated to include foreign subsidiaries.

Sales for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1964 were $41,104,225, compared with sales of $40,743,330 for the preceding year.

"It was a fine year for Wurlitzer, with sales and profits of civilian products showing satisfactory increases," Roling stated, "and with the prospects for increased sales and profits for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1965 looking very good."

Atlas Hosts Service Class

CHICAGO — Atlas Music Company, distributors in this wide area for Rowe AC Manufacturing Corporation's music and vending (coin-operated) products, presented another in a series of service school sessions for music operators in the tri-state region of Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, in the firm's showrooms in this city on Wednesday evening, May 6.

The session, featuring Rowe-AMI's model M-200, "Tropicana" coin-operated phonograph, was preceded at Atlas Music by a buffet dinner served to the operators.

Eddie Ginsburg, president of Atlas Music Company, advised that the service school—as its predecessors—was well attended. Assisting Ginsburg as hosts were: Stan Levin, sales manager of the Music Division; Frank Bach, Mort Jacobs, Ray Grier, and Johnny Havrilla.

The classes—on timing phases, and important aspects in trouble shooting—were conducted by Rowe-AMI's Cliff Bitting and Hank Hoevenaar, who came into Chicago from Rowe-AMI's Grand Rapids factory for the Atlas Music service school session.

Bally's New 'Mad World' 2-Plyr Satires Madness Of Human Race

■ Pin Game Features Free-Ball Alley

BALLY MAD WORLD 2-PLAYER

CHICAGO—Gay satire of the world scene provides a change of pace in the theme and decoration of "Mad World," new 2-player flipper-type pinball game, introduced this week by Bally Manufacturing Company. A little man in fur cap and Cossack boots sits on the horn of a crescent moon on the backglass, peering at the "Mad World" below through binoculars. The moon, provisionally equipped with arms and hands, covers his eyes in dismay. Elsewhere on the glass, a man in a modern space suit labelled "Satellite Emergency Crew" prepares to blast-off into space with a cluster of toy balloons as his motive power. A little bird hitch-hikes a ride atop his space-helmet. World pre-occupation with money is cheerfully satirized in two figures, one a top-hatted "capitalist" reading the "Wild Street Journal" while riding a bicycle to the rear of which is attached the inevitable "Interval" sign, the other a scrub-woman who pauses in her task of mopping to study the ticker-tape. Another foible of the human race is kidded by a gorgeous gal (with blue hair) discharging a fire-extinguisher at a "wolf" in a real wolf's skin.

Commenting on "Mad World," Bill O'Donnell, Bally president, pointed out that the pay-appeal of the game is as refreshing as a "mad" art. "Fast, exciting action," he said, "is insured by exclusive Bally actionizing features, providing strong last-ball suspense and the 'came-close-try-again' fascination that keeps players coming back.

"The new Free-Ball Alley is, without question the strongest carry-over idea ever built into a 2-players game. A ball shot through the Free-Ball Gate remains in the Free-Ball Alley, from player to player and from game to game, inching closer and closer to final escape. Players in duo competition 'cash in' on each other's skill, and, if they quit with a ball in the Alley, other players are quick to try for the 'left-over' ball.

"An indication of the impact of 'Mad World' on the coin-machine world is the fact that one distributor for only one country of Europe has placed a firm order for close to 1,000 games. And, from Helsinki in Finland to Tokyo in Japan, from Portland, Maine to Portland, Oregon, pre-production orders for 'Mad World', based solely on location testing samples, top anything we've seen since Bally entered the flipper-field. Thanks to 'Mad World,' we're not mad at anybody!"

Rowe AC Promotes All Aspects Of 'Customusic' Unit

Distributor Relations And Service Training Emphasized

CHICAGO—Rowe AC Manufacturing Corporation, of this city, has recently gone all out to promote the firm's "Customusic" background music unit with strong emphasis on equipment, distributor relations (training, general orientation, etc.), and in music programming.

Fred Pollak, vice president of Rowe AC; and Don Lunday, director of the Background Music Division, asserted last week that many great strides in programming were made with the recent expansion and development of the music department located on the West Coast. This operation is supervised by H. A. (Slim) Tanner, music director.

Pollak further stated that Rowe AC Mfg. is presently engrossed in a distributor training program which—"in conjunction with the knowledge that we have the finest equipment available in 'Customusic,' and the most versatile music library for our customers"—will certainly open up countless excellent locations in all markets throughout this country.

Lunday explained that Rowe AC Mfg. Corp. will deal strictly (and only) with distributors on "Customusic." He said that all dealings with operators or locations must be made with the Rowe AC distributor in any given area.

He further stated that "Customusic" plays from endless tape cartridges for more than 60 hours without repetition, and requires the very minimum of servicing.

He said: "A large part of the music was composed especially for specific 'Customusic' libraries. Also, there are a great variety of selections from the world's great music. Only music which can serve a specific programming purpose is selected for 'Customusic'."

There are three separate and distinct libraries: "Commercial," "Atmosphere," and "Production."

The "Commercial library consists of a balanced program, recorded by medium-sized orchestra groups in medium tempo. It creates a harmonious background without distracting attention. This library is considered ideal for banks, stores, lobbies, transportation terminals and restaurants.

The "Atmosphere" library consists of melodic music with somewhat more lilt recorded by larger orchestras. It offers a medium-slow tempo, and is particularly suitable for intimate cocktail lounges, fashionable restaurants, private clubs, and exclusive retail shops and stores.

The "Production" library offers lively rhythms with greater emphasis on brass, woodwind and percussion sections. It has a medium-fast tempo. Programming is for industrial plants, and is widely used for amusement parks, shopping centers and sports arenas.

Recently, a set of three distinctive, hard-hitting brochures were developed by Rowe AC Mfg., which are now available to all of the firm's distributor outlets. The brochures have convenient, easy-to-use return mailer cards. The obvious purpose, according to Don Lunday, is to aid distributors, and to facilitate the development of a strong prospect and customer following in the shortest possible time.

Runyon's 'Tropicana' Service Class Scores High With Mechs And Ops

NEW YORK—The first of three scheduled service schools, designed to completely familiarize mechanics on the construction of the Rowe AMI "Tropicana" phonograph, was held Monday night, May 11, at the Runyon Sales Company. The class was conducted by Rowe AMI regional service engineer Art Segland and presided over by Runyon officials Nate Sugerman, Lou Wolberg and Irv Kempner.

Lou Wolberg termed the session "an absolute success," saying that the interest of operators and mechanics was so aroused during the fast paced meeting that they were still asking questions after the session ended at 9:00 P.M. Also in attendance from Runyon were Sid Gerber, Jack Milz, Wally Zucker and James Gough.

Operators and mechanics from throughout the New York metropolitan area were present for the session, at which food and refreshments were served. Among those present were: Si and Eddie from Bronx Maintenance, Mario of Majestic, Lenny and Joe of Friendly Vending, Leo and Neal Rosenberg, Sam Lerner, Karl Halpern, Phil Swartz, Henry Getzoff, Alex Miller, Joe Keighey, Jerry Besile, Ruby of Maxwell Music, Al Douglass, Harold Monroe, Art, Bud, Jim, Freddy Arthur and Tony Kalibash from LaSalle Music.

Wolberg said that this was the first of three classes for the purpose of acquainting operators and mechanics with the entire mechanism of the Rowe AMI machine. The next class will be held in two weeks.

Bess Named Roanoke Chairman, Moseley Elected President

■ Bess To Concentrate On PR Efforts

JACK G. BESS

HARRY D. MOSELEY

RICHMOND—Major changes in executive positions at Roanoke Vending Machine Exchange Inc. has resulted in the election of Jack G. Bess to the post of Chairman of the Board, and Harry D. Moseley, President, of the coin machine distributing firm. Roanoke's Board of Directors met last week and following the decision, made public the announcement.

Roanoke is Rowe AC Services distributor for the coin-operated phonograph, vending, and background music lines and has branch offices in Charleston, West Virginia and representatives in Charlotte, North Carolina.

According to Chairman Bess, the move will enable him to spend more time with public relations and legislative programs thereby unloading some of his executive responsibilities in the equipment sales area on the shoulders of newly-elected President Moseley. The company recently held an open house party here celebrating the expansion of the firm and the addition of newly acquired warehouse and storage facilities. "We expect to continue to roll along at an even faster pace," said Bess in an interview with Cash Box last week.

Bess, who has helped to increase sales on the Rowe vending line here, said that he expects to see greater diversification on the part of the music and amusement operator into the vending field as time goes by. "We are selling more coin machine operators with each passing month," stated Bess, "and of course, with the introduction of our new Rowe Model SK-9 Coffee Vendor, we look to quick acceptance of all Rowe equipment. We have always enjoyed sales on our cold drink vendors. The SK-9 should make for a powerful sales combination."

In addition to Rowe, Roanoke also distributes the following lines: American Shuffleboard; Automatic Products; Chicago Dynamics; J. H. Keeney; J. F. Frantz; Bally; Valley; Midway; Irving Kaye; Victor Vending; Standard Changemakers; Williams; Klopp; and Watling.

Roanoke's territory includes Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, and Eastern Tennessee.
