Looney Tunes - Hoop It Up!

It's the ultimate dream team. Or it could be a nightmare. When the Looney Tunes gang gets their hands on a basketball, all the rules fly out the door. Choose from some of the most popular characters to play in an intense one-on-one or two-on-two street game. Wile E. Coyote's long-range shot is assisted by a rocket, Marvin the Martian uses his disintegrator gun for tough defense and the ball can become a bomb for a game of hot potato. Change the ball into a cream pie and pass it to your opponent but if it turns into a dog-ball, players have to chase it around the court. If you're driving to the hole, be careful not to fall in one!

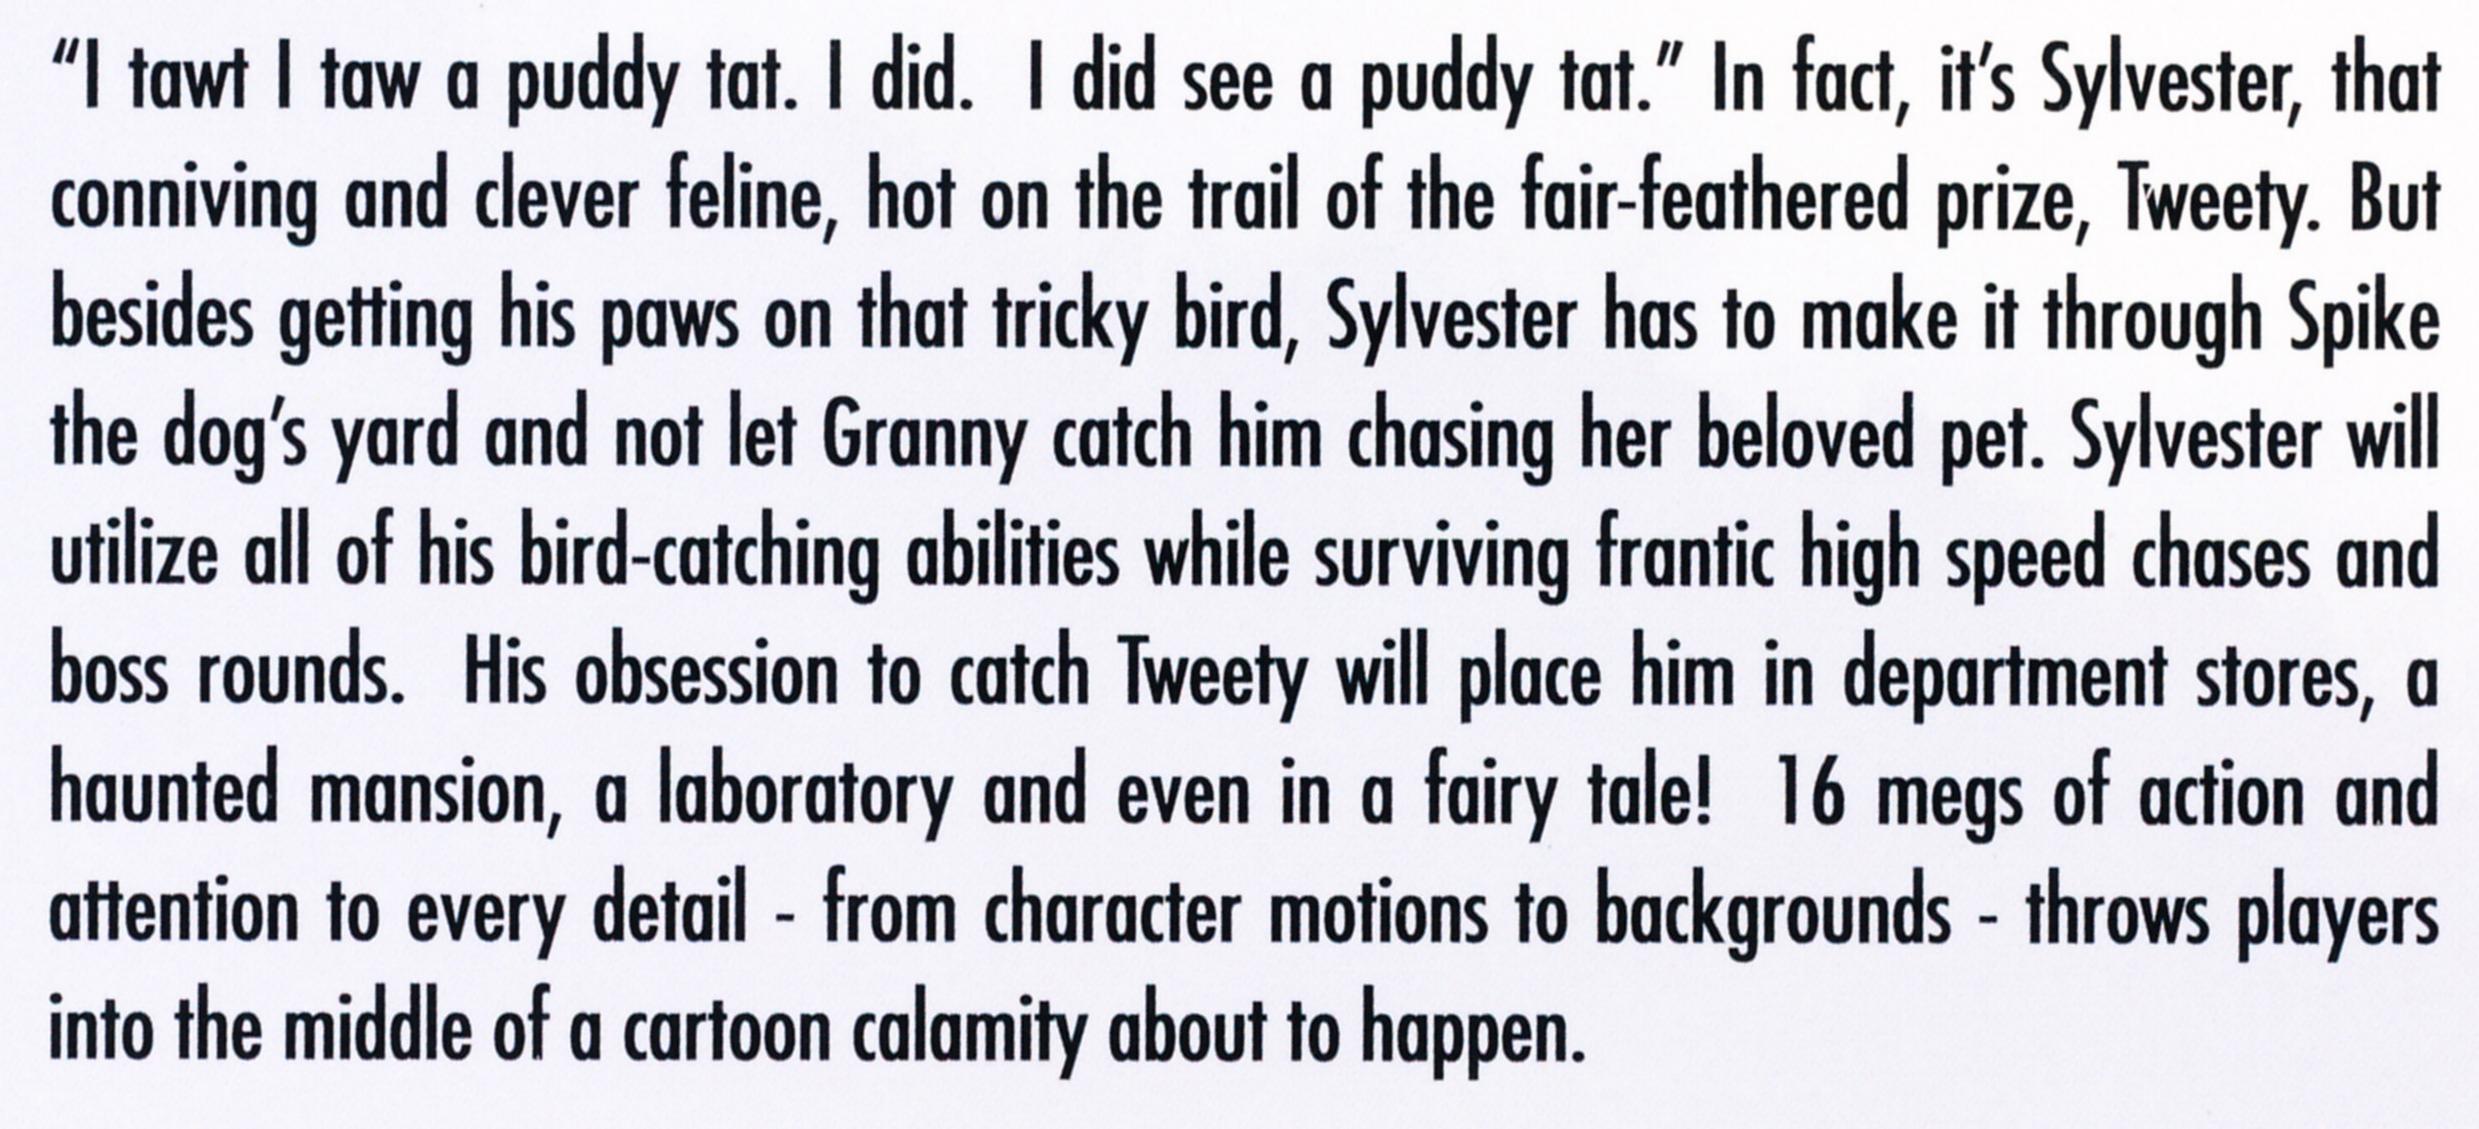

For the notepad doodler or anyone who has dreamed of becoming a cartoon animator, Sunsoft presents ACME Animation Factory. What better way to learn than from the Looney Tunes gang? Create backgrounds or choose stock backgrounds to set original designs against. Then bring in the Looney Tunes characters and color it all in. The music library provides appropriate accompaniment. For the grand finale, put the characters in motion and voila! - an original cartoon. It was never easier to get into the animation business, and never so much fun!

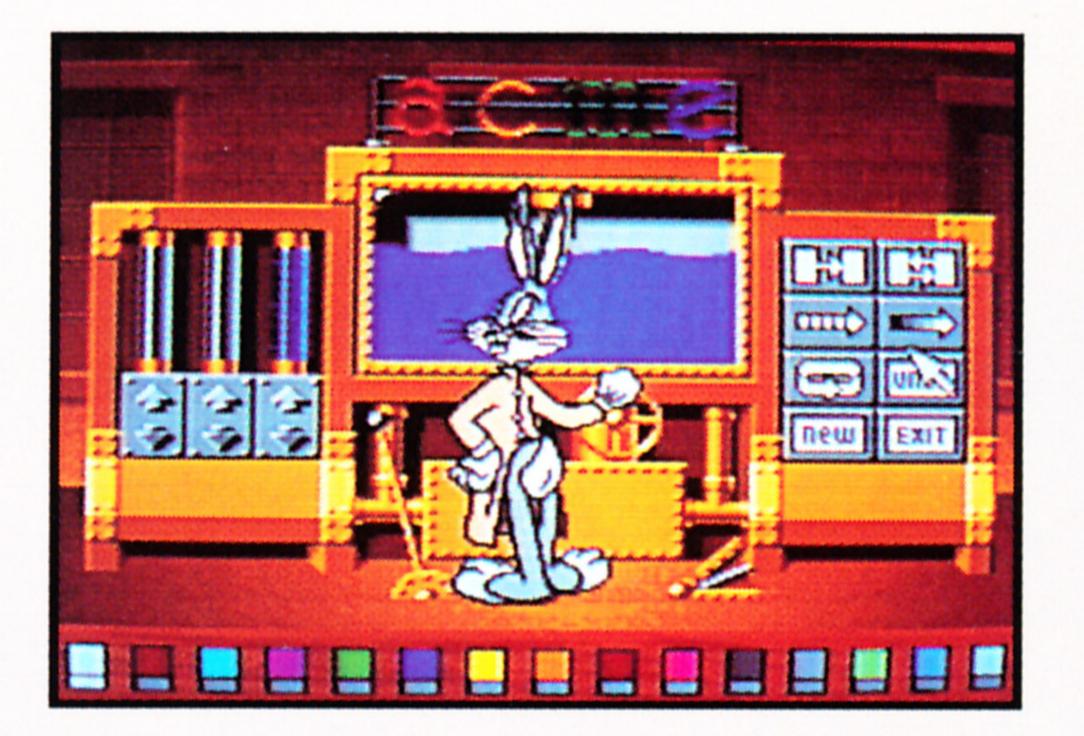

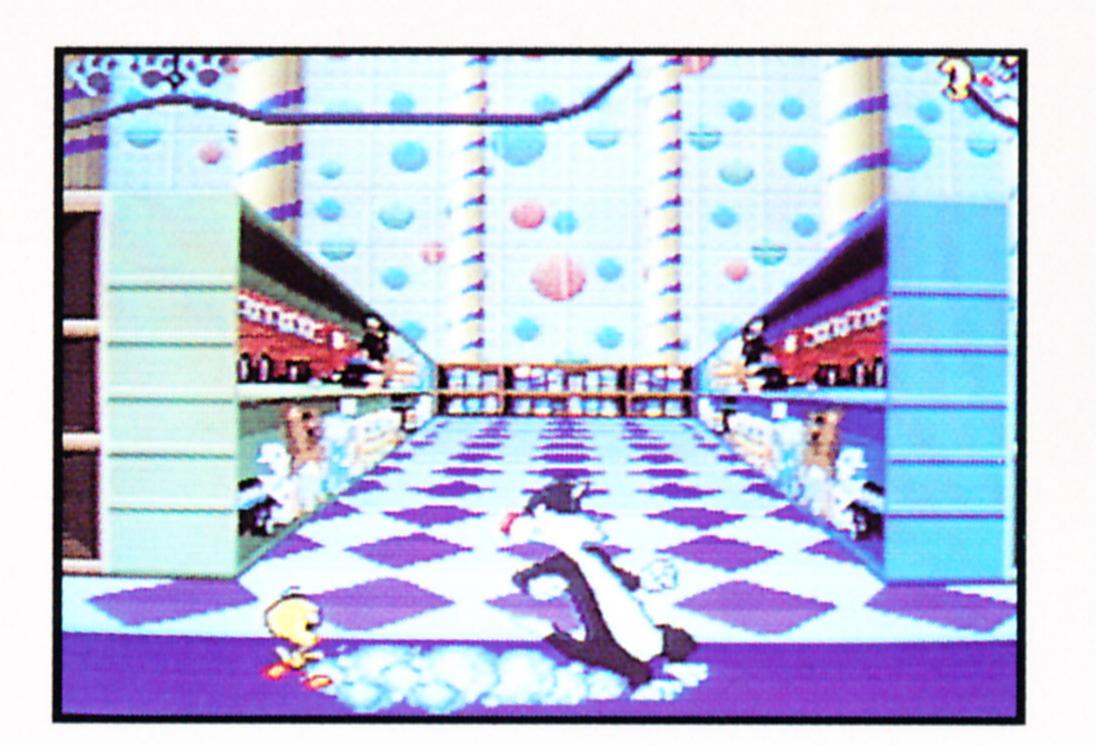

Every hard-working pig deserves a vacation, especially Porky Pig. Unfortunately, his dreams won't let him relax. Reminiscent of some classic Warner Bros. cartoons, Haunted Holiday finds Porky dreaming of vacationing in the middle of a less than hospitable resort. Each time the game is played the weather changes - making no two games exactly the same. Not to completely scare the wits out of Porky, there are hilarious bonus rounds, some featuring Porky's pal Daffy Duck. Maybe the name of the resort - Dry Gulch Creek Haunted Theme Park - should have been enough of a warning.

Sycamos Bandidos Los Gatos Bandidos

The fastest mouse in the world is leaving a trail of dust onto Super NES. Speedy races all over the land to save his friends, mouse-napped by a group of evil cats - Los Gatos Bandidos. From pirate ships to outer space, Speedy zooms over land and sea, avoiding traps and picking up cheese to keep his strength up. Also assisting him are super speed sneakers and hot sauce that will make any mouse breathe fire. The fiesta can't start until all the mice are free so there's no time to waste. Andale! Andale!

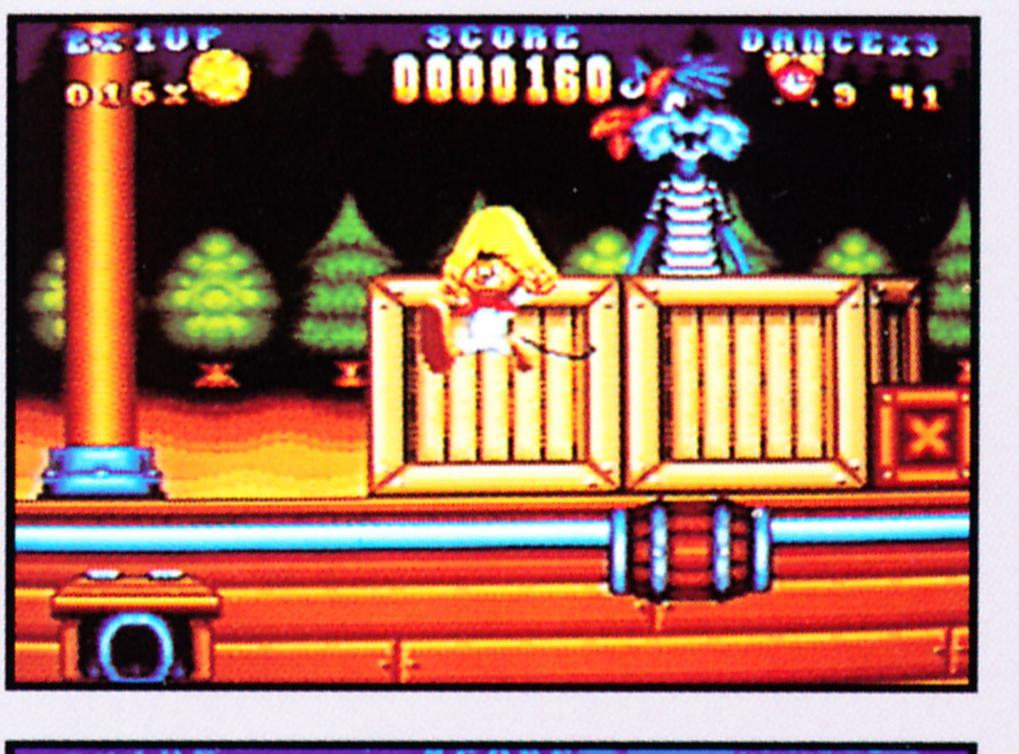

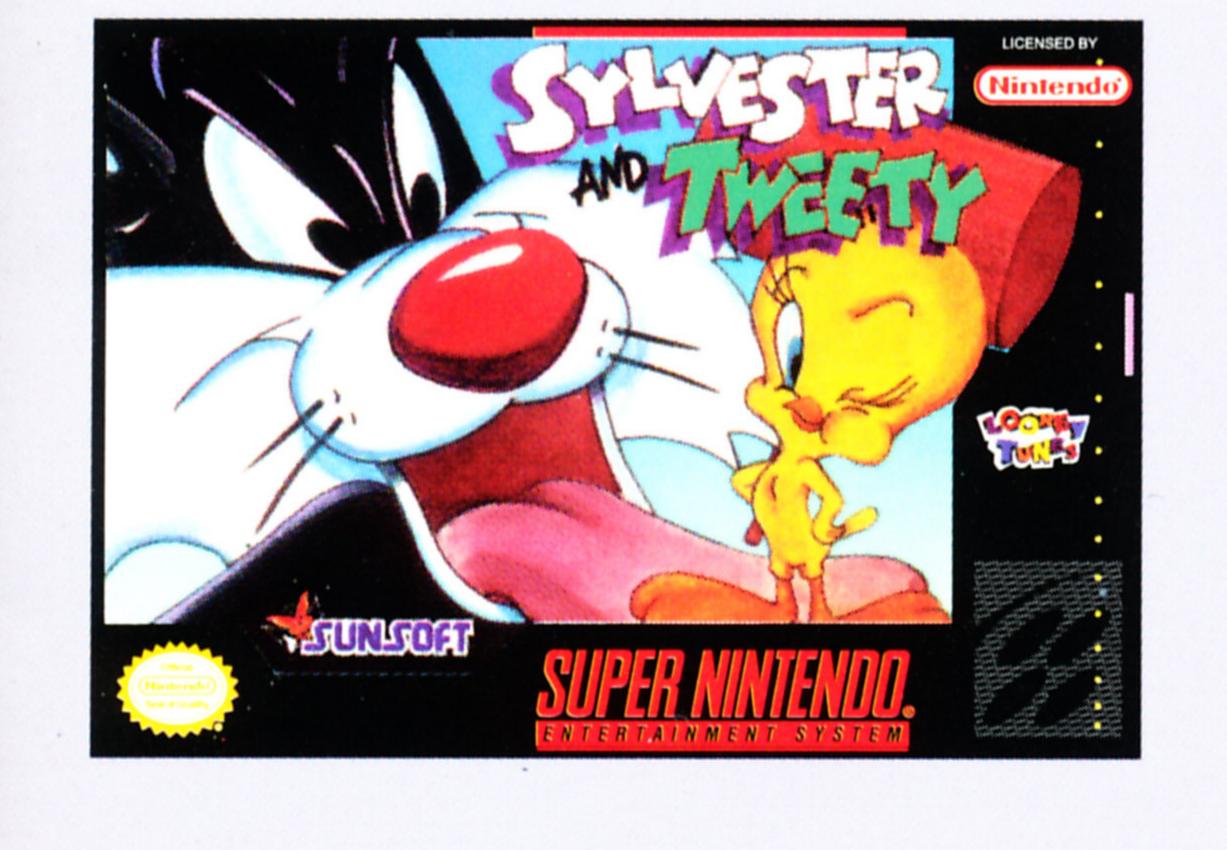

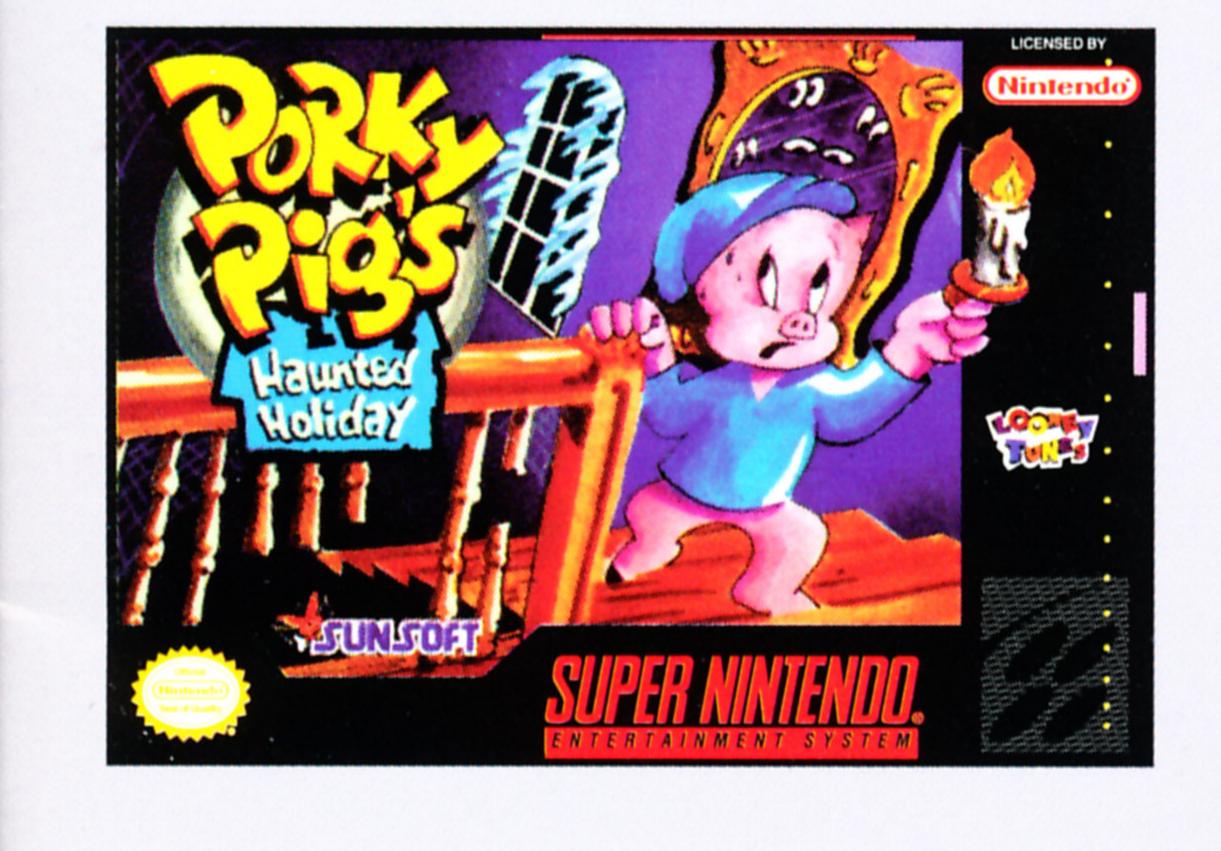

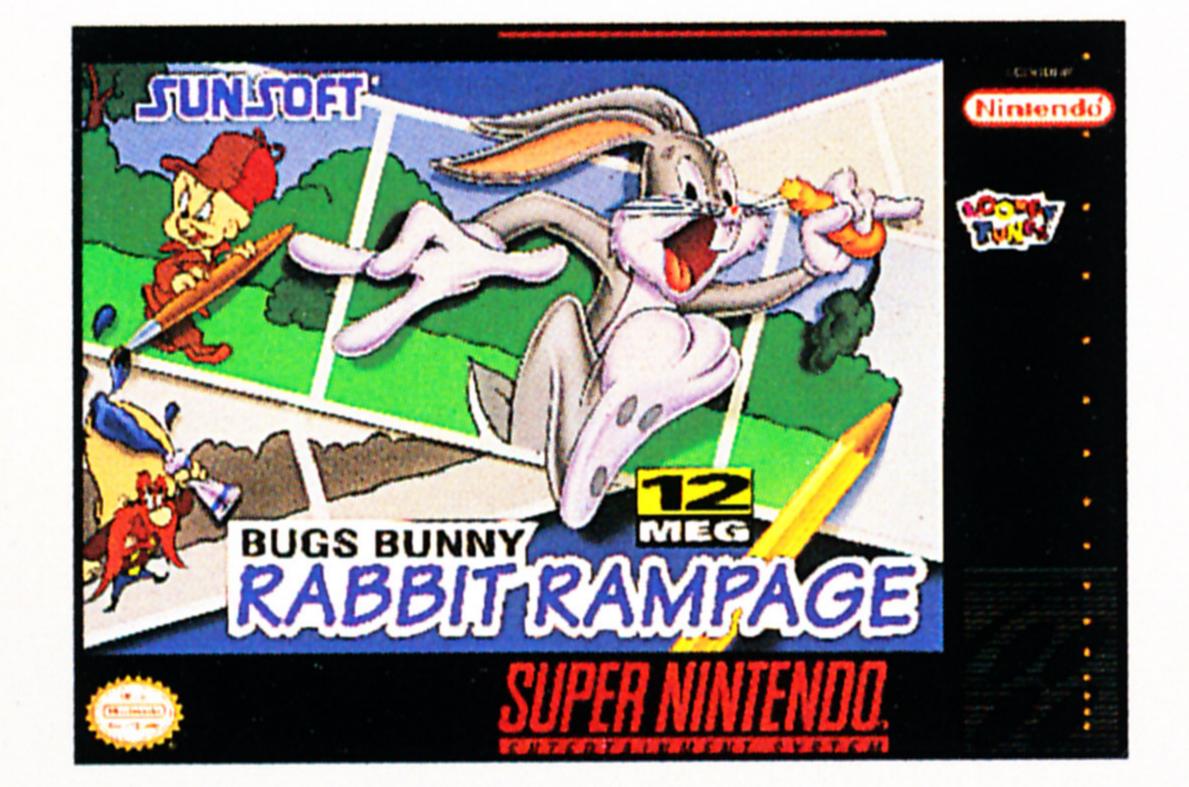

That carrot chomping "wascally wabbit" is getting painted into corners by a mysterious animator and must use an ACME arsenal of pies, wind-up toys and paint brushes to survive this cartoon craziness. All 12 megs of this awesome animated action include some of the BIGGEST characters ever seen on Super NES. Ten levels of game play feature familiar characters like Elmer Fudd, Yosemite Sam and Daffy Duck. Saturday mornings were never this crazy!

Marvin the Martian is out to conquer the cosmos with his Instant Martian army and it's up to Daffy Duck - alias Duck Dodgers - to keep the peace. In 20 levels, Daffy can buy weapons or items and shield himself from attack. Based on the cartoon "Duck Dodgers in the 24th and 1/2 Century", the Marvin Missions is one game the galaxy can't afford to miss.

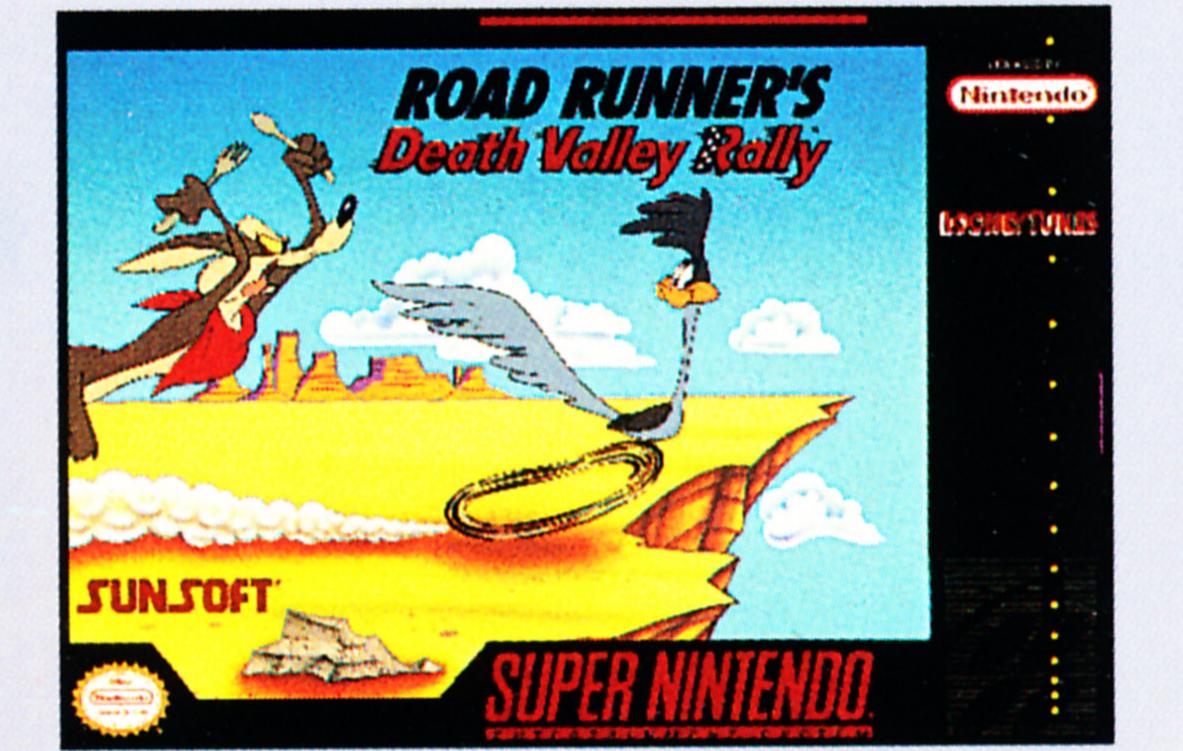

This adventure game based on the popular Saturday morning cartoon series features the wildest Tasmanian Devil ever. Taz runs, jumps and tornado spins his way through 20 levels of the outback, chasing Kiwi birds, steering clear of the ACME tour bus and the amorous She-Devil. This high speed chase with an incredible 3-D perspective will leave you spinning.

ROAD RUNNER'S Death Valley Bally

Sunsoft's already classic game in the Looney Tunes library stars Road Runner who must out-run and out-wit Wile E. Coyote's crazy plots involving TNT, catapults and rocket skates. Having received the Editors' Choice Gold Award and named Best Cartoon to Game by Sendai Publishing, Road Runner's Death Valley Rally is a fast race and fun-filled chase at lightning speed!

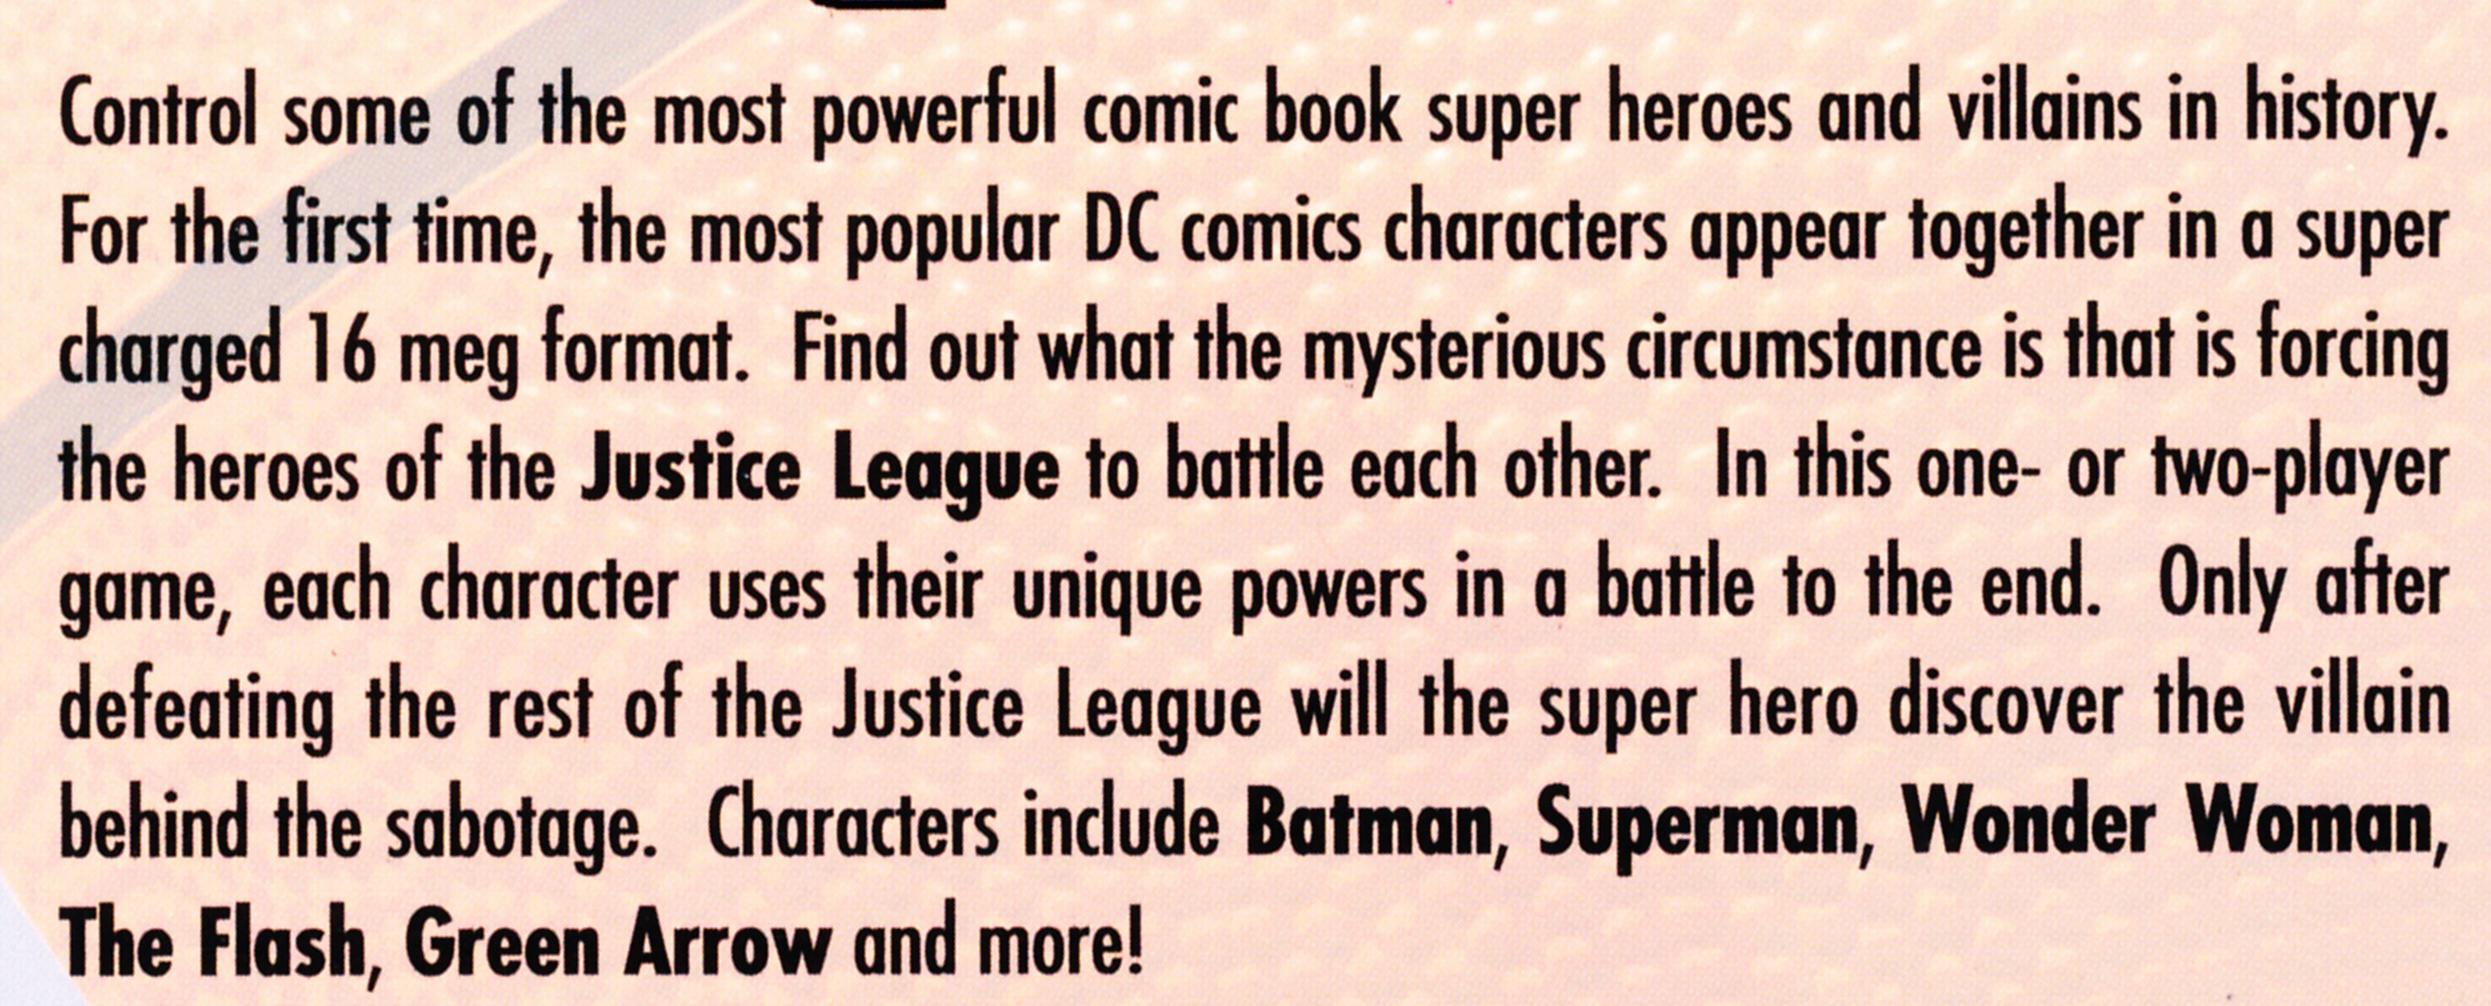

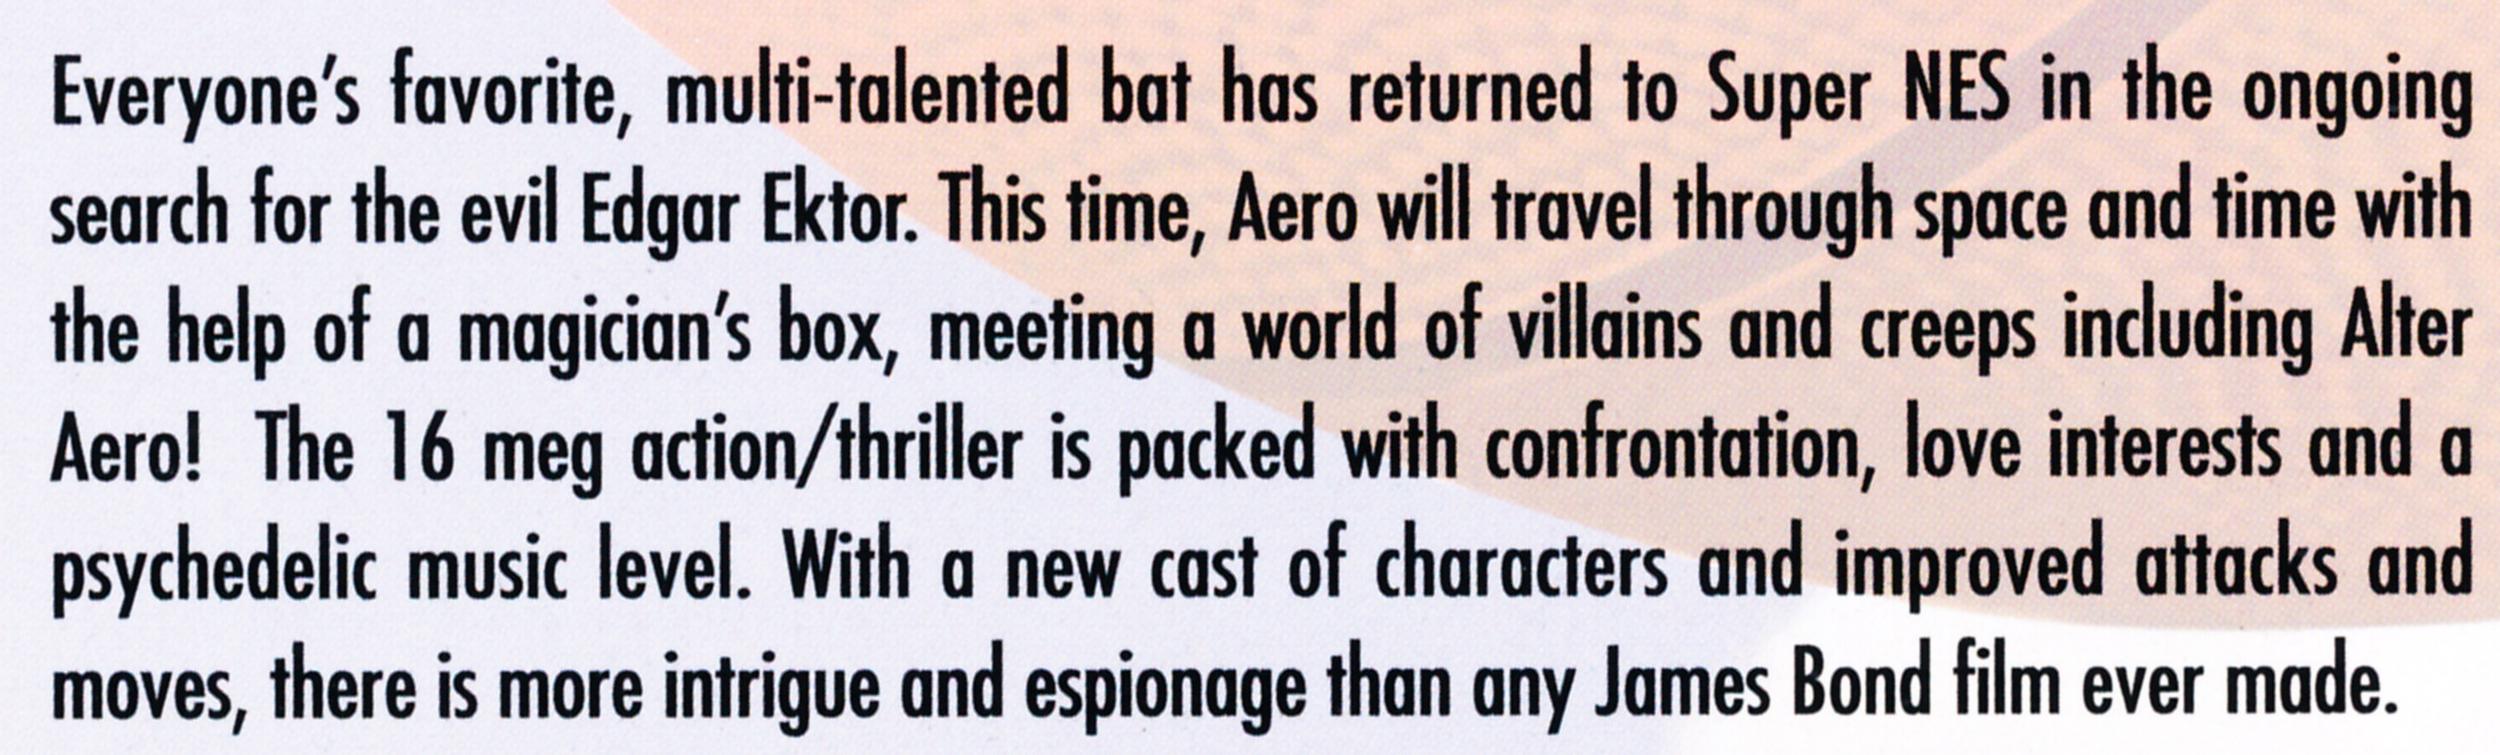

The most publicized event in comic book history is now an exciting new 16 meg game for the Super NES. The DC comic book story line is recreated from the fatal battle with Doomsday, through the Reign of the Supermen to the amazing Return of Superman! As events unfold, players assume the roles of Superboy, The Eradicator, The Man of Steel, The Cyborg and finally, the one true Superman! Each character is equipped with unique super powers for challenging attacks!
